Tax Bill Goes To Senate Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) - The administration's tax bill goes to the Senate today as Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler appears before the Finance Committee to urge approval of the House-passed measure.

Members of the committee made it clear they planned to question Fowler at length and to offer numerous amendments to the measure which would increase federal revenues $1.2 billion in the current fiscal year ending June 30 and $4.8 billion in the next fiscal year.

Senate Democratic leaders hoped both the Finance Committee and the full Senate would pass the bill in about the form that it cleared the House Wednesday by a vote of 246 to 146.

British National Election Expected For March 31

LONDON (AP) - Prime Minister Harold Wilson is expected to call a national election for March 31, politicians and news commentators said today.

Members of Parliament with access to the Labor government said they expected Wilson to announce the date over the weekend or early next week.

His Labor party's 314 seats in the House of Commons give him a three-vote majority against the two opposition parties - Conservatives (302 seats) and Liberals (9).

State Areas Have Milder Weather

Milder weather returned to all sections of Texas today. Skies were generally clear except for some high cloudiness over the western third of the state and a few clouds in the south central section.

Temperatures before dawn varied from 24 degrees at Dalhart in the Panhandle to 45 at Brownsville at the southern tip.

A light freeze failed to develop in parts of the Lower Rio Grande Valley as predicted. The early morning mark at McAllen was 38.

Trial Defense Points Finger At Decorator

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - Candace Mossler and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, neared the end of their first-degree murder trial today as the defense tried to turn a finger of suspicion toward a husky interior decorator.

He is Fred Roy Weissel, 29, who turned up beaten and bloody in the general area about an hour after Jacques Mossler was slain early on June 30, 1964. Interrogated briefly by authorities, Weissel never was treated by them as a suspect in the case. He has not testified in the trial.

BADLY BEATEN A physician Thursday described Weissel as a badly beat up man, with "brush burns" on his body "that could have been caused by any type of outdoor terrain."

NEGATIVE REPLY The physician managed to get in a "no" answer as the state objected. Mrs. Mossler, a small attractive blonde who gives her age as 40, and her strapping nephew Powers, 29, are on trial for their lives. They are accused of slaying her husband in furtherance of an illicit, unnatural love affair, with Mossler's $33-million fortune in mind. Mossler headed a far-flung banking and loan empire.

IN BACKGROUND Weissel stands a little better than six feet, weighs over 200 pounds. His name has played in the background of testimony since the beginning of Florida's most sensational murder trial. He was described as "a homosexual since the age of nine."

6 MILES AWAY Somebody beat up Weissel the night of Mossler's slaying and he was found about 6 miles from the murder scene by Dade County sheriff's patrolman James Dunn at 2:35 a.m. Mossler was slain about 1:45 a.m.

AFL-CIO Praises LBJ's Viet Policy

Union Slaps At Criticism By Kennedy

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) - AFL-CIO leaders strongly lauded President Johnson's stand in Viet Nam today and slapped at Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's criticism of U.S. war policies.

UNNAMED TARGET In a resolution today, the AFL-CIO Executive Council will not name Kennedy by name, but a spokesman for the labor federation said the New York Democrat was the target. Kennedy has said he doesn't advocate admitting Communists to a compromise government to end the war but that the door shouldn't be shut if peace negotiators feel it necessary.

HOME FRONT RIFT The AFL-CIO has been among the strongest supporters of Johnson's conduct of the war in Viet Nam, although the labor leaders have been at odds with the White House over domestic policies. The Viet Nam resolution will bring some relief to the quarrel between the AFL-CIO and the White House over proposed minimum wage legislation, but that argument isn't settled by any means.

SALUTE FROM GENERAL

Fighters Lauded For Defeat Handed Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) - Gen. William C. Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam, paid high tribute today to 2,500 American infantrymen while on a personal tour of the battle-scarred jungle north of Saigon where they hurled back a fierce pre-dawn Viet Cong assault Thursday.

The discovery of 46 more bodies outside the camp's barbed-wire defenses raised the toll of enemy dead to at least 135. Many more were believed to have been dragged away by the Viet Cong. Fifteen Communists were taken prisoner.

CASUALTIES "LIGHT" U.S. casualties in the bitter, four-hour fight near Tan Binh, 30 miles north of Saigon, were described as light over-all, although some American units outside the camp perimeter were hit hard.

Taking Sting From Report Stirs Row

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) - White House press aide Bill D. Moyers and some officials of the National Council of Churches denied Thursday a published report that a council committee toned down a resolution critical of U.S. policy in Viet Nam after receiving telephone calls from Moyers.

SHIP GUNS BARK Offshore, however, the U.S. destroyer Mason directed its five-inch guns at the enemy positions. A spokesman said the naval and ground artillery killed at least 20 Communists, while the government troops accounted for 28 more, took four prisoners and held their losses to light casualties.

FIGHTING TAPERS While officers of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division's First Brigade briefed Westmoreland on one of the heaviest attacks of the war experienced by American troops, action elsewhere in the past 24 hours tapered off.

Census Taking In 1970 Slated To Be By Mail

WASHINGTON (AP) - For most Americans the census taker in 1970 could turn out to be the postman. Andrew F. Brimmer, assistant secretary of commerce for economic affairs, said a census by mail technique will represent a basic change in the enumerating process for the 1970 nose count.

BS2S ATTACK However, the Strategic Air Command's eight-engine BS2s came in over the wagner from Guam to pound Communist targets this afternoon in South Viet Nam's Thua Thien Province, 15 miles west of the old imperial capital of Hue. The raid accompanied a flareup of military action in the northern part of the country.

RESCIND RESOLUTION He was laying groundwork for a move to tie onto the bill a provision rescinding the 1964 resolution that gave President Johnson a blank check to carry on what Morse calls an illegal war.

Enlistments Dip New Draft Call WASHINGTON (AP) - The Pentagon said today a sharp upturn in enlistments has enabled it to cut its March draft call by 10,500 to 22,400 - the lowest figure since a call for 16,500 men last August.

Base Reports Malady Case

SAN ANTONIO (AP) - The Air Force reported today the tenth case of spinal meningitis at Lackland Air Force Base since Feb. 6. Of the 10, one died, four have been discharged from the hospital and five are in good condition, the Air Force said.

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Defense Department originally asked the Selective Service for 32,900 inductees for March.

Funds Critic Sees Expansion Of War

WASHINGTON (AP) - The sharpest congressional critic of American policy in Viet Nam, Sen. Wayne Morse, asserted today that the $4.8-billion bill to provide more funds to fight the war would expand the conflict into Thailand.

Is your answer

They also wanted to see whether they could stand in for each other without being spotted.

Edward T. McDermott is a Harvard junior and his twin, Joseph P. McDermott is a junior at Yale.

They lived in each other's room, ate in each other's dining hall and attended each other's classes for seven days, and then this week returned to their respective campuses.

SMOOTH AT FIRST
Both said the first few days went smoothly, that no one seemed to notice a thing.

Then Joe got a telephone call from a girl at Cambridge whom both he and Ed know, and she asked, "What's wrong with your voice?" Joe said he had a cold but he saw her again the next day.

She said she thought she was being taken in and demanded Joe's identification. Whereupon Joe produced Ed's wallet.

Meanwhile Ed began to have troubles of his own. He said he slipped up and introduced himself to a student at dinner and the student snapped: "I know who you are. I was in your room a few nights ago."

"Oh, yes. Excuse me," Ed said. Ed said two things that struck him about the Yale campus were its friendliness and its lack of girls.

NO EXAMS
Joe said neither one had any trouble in classes. There were no exams.

They said they managed to fool many of their fellow students right through the week. Ed said a group of Negro children, with whom Joe does part-time social work in New Haven, was the first to notice the switch.

"Right off they noticed the change in glasses, hair, face and even teeth. I found it very moving because it showed the close relationship Joe has with them," he said.

Public Schools Target Of Racial Balance Bill

By The Associated Press
A law proposed by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., to curb school segregation resulting from racially imbalanced neighborhoods would hit hard at Northern cities, an Associated Press survey showed today.

Nearly every public school in Cleveland would be affected. Half of the schools in San Francisco would come under the law. In Boston, 46 of 196 schools were declared racially imbalanced under a new state law.

The bill, introduced in Congress Thursday by Powell, would withhold federal money from any school district that fails to reach a racial balance in its schools that reflects the racial makeup of the whole community.

SET FORMULA
The proposal would set up a formula requiring that the number of Negroes in any school in a district could not vary by more than 20 per cent from the number of Negro children in the entire district.

For instance, if 50 per cent of the children in a district are Negro, no school could have more than 70 per cent or less than 30 per cent Negroes.

To achieve this balance school children apparently would have to be bused outside their neighborhood — an action that seems to be as unpopular among school officials as among parents.

APPEAL DENIED
A group of white parents in New York City appealed a state bus order to the U.S. Supreme Court, but the court refused to review it.

"In Philadelphia as in every big city the residential patterns inevitably have an effect on the school patterns," said Richardson L. Dilworth president of the Board of Education.

Dilworth said that Philadelphia, like other major cities, would be affected substantially by the bill.

"Paul Briggs, Cleveland school superintendent, said Powell's proposal would affect nearly all of the city's 135 schools. "We have been attempting to give children of all neighborhoods the best education possible," said Briggs, who said that some Negro children are being bused to other districts.

Mrs. Johnson Back In Her Beloved 'Bama

WASHINGTON (AP) — Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson returns to Alabama today to speak to a leadership conference in Tuscaloosa on women's role in planning the future of the South.

The Texas-born First Lady has many relatives in Alabama and considers the state her second home. She will be going into an area that has been beset with civil rights problems in recent years. She is expected to comment about these problems.

Mrs. Johnson will speak to 400 women attending a leadership conference at the University of Alabama sponsored by the university and the American Association of University Women. In addition, the 3,500 women students on the campus of 8,000 students have been invited to hear the talk.

Mrs. Johnson last visited Alabama on a campaign trip by train through the South during the 1964 presidential campaign. Then she stopped briefly in Mobile, 18 miles south of Tuscaloosa.

Only 3 Acres To Be Grassed

School authorities said Friday that the authorization to plant school ground grass, as reported in Wednesday's Herald, applies only to the new playing field at Goliad Junior High.

The cost estimate to install this practice area is $4,500. Only three acres are involved.

The board had looked at some estimates on a total of 35 1/2 acres of playground areas, but this was not part of the authorization.

For the purposes of estimates, to give the board a fair idea of an average, Business Manager Pat Murphy had used samplings from Bauer, Cedar Crest, College Heights, Park Hill and Marcy Elementary Schools. This was not to say that these would necessarily be the ones selected or that the program would be held to six schools.

Murphy's cost estimate on the samplings, however, ran to $50,400 for the 35 1/2 acres involved.

That was a lot of money which the board did not feel it had available at this time, and therefore it elected to look at the matter further.

Farmer Participation In Program Due Drop

WASHINGTON (AP)—Federal farm officials returning from Midwestern surveys predict farmer participation in this year's federal feed grain program will be much smaller than a year ago.

The officials say farmers apparently feel they would be better off financially by planting full acreages of feed grains, soybeans and other crops than to hold some land out of production for government price supports and payments.

The Agriculture Department is conducting a sign-up program among feed grain farmers for holding a part of their land out

'Taps' Sounds For War Fleet Chief

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (AP)—The marker for Fleet Adm. Chester Nimitz' grave will be the same as the 82,000 others in Golden Gate National Cemetery—a small white headstone.

"That was his order. It was carried out," a Navy spokesman said Thursday after the burial of the Texan who led the mightiest fleet in history.

Rear Adm. James Kelly, Navy Chaplains Corps chief, conducted the Protestant graveside service and gave thanks for "your servant, Chester William Nimitz."

HONORABLE, HUMBLE
The chaplain said the World War II Pacific Fleet commander was temperate and truthful in speech, honorable and generous in dealing with others, humble in his estimation of himself, faithful and loyal to his high calling as a Naval officer.

The admiral's body was brought to the cemetery from Treasure Island Navy Base in San Francisco Bay by hearses. Then his silvery steel casket was placed on a caisson and pulled by 15 Navy enlisted men to the graveside.

JETS OVERHEAD
A Navy band played funeral renditions of "Anchors Aweigh" and the "Marines Hymn" while 70 jets roared by overhead and a riderless horse marched in the rear of the procession.

A battery of cannon fired the admiral's 19-gun salute twice. "Taps," from a solitary bugle, ended the service.

Nimitz, who would have been 81 the day he was buried, died Sunday.

Baytown Will Annex Area

BAYTOWN, Tex. (AP)—The Baytown city council has voted to annex a two-mile long corridor along a Southern Pacific Railroad right-of-way north of Interstate 10.

The council told Mount Belview residents Thursday night, however, it will have no objection to the incorporation of that tiny Chambers County community once Baytown has extended protective corridors farther east along Interstate 10 and north toward an eventual connection with an existing corridor from US 90.

The council received but took no action on a petition from 137 Chambers County residents requesting the de-annexation of a strip along the tri-cities beach road. This corridor is the southern arm of an annexation aimed at encircling the proposed U.S. Steel Corp. plant at Cedar Point.

Cross Trial Doubtful In 2nd Murder

AUSTIN (AP)—James C. Cross Jr., convicted Tuesday in the sex and strangulation slaying of Susan Riggsby, can't be tried on a second murder charge, one of his attorneys believes.

Charles R. Burton said Thursday Dist. Atty. Tom Blackwell "used every scrap of evidence he had in the first trial (on both slayings). I feel we have a good double jeopardy plea if he tries to try him again."

Blackwell said he had not decided what to do about the second murder charge. He said he has three alternatives: prosecute Cross on the second charge, accept a guilty plea and recommend a concurrent life term or place a detainee on Cross at Huntsville to prevent a possible early parole.

Dist. Judge Mace B. Thurman Jr. has been too busy to discuss the second charge, Blackwell said.

"Just as soon as he's free we'll take it up with him," he said.

Burton said he feels sure they will plead Cross guilty to the second charge and get a concurrent life term.

Cross, 23, allegedly strangled Miss Riggsby and Shirley Ann Stark, 21-year-old sorority sisters from Dallas, in his apartment last July 18.

'Cheap Shows' On TV Cost

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It costs a lot of money to turn on television shows, even poor ones.

Jackie Gleason's Saturday night hour, for example, has a production budget of around $180,000 a week and the bill for the show when the cost of airtime is added, brings the tab well over $300,000.

The so-called "cheap shows"—those with $40,000 production budgets like "To Tell the Truth" and "I've Got a Secret"—build up expensively. With time costs they come to well over $100,000 per evening show.

This season's crop of hour programs have budgets ranging from around $130,000 per episode upwards. Variety shows with their needs for new sets and costumes weekly, not only run high, but do not have much re-use value. But the half-hour situation comedies, knocked out for sums ranging from $55,000 to $90,000, are like money in the bank. Not only can they be re-run during the summer season but can later be sold and resold profitably as syndicated series.

Approximately 40 per cent of the shows on the three major networks are dropped each year.

Next season, the usual need for 30-odd new series has been further reduced by CBS' decision to have two nights of feature films instead of only one, as it had this season. With NBC devoting two nights to movies, and ABC one, the public will be treated to five nights and 10 hours of films a week.

Lucille Ball, who each season flirts with the idea of quitting the weekly show grind, has once again come to terms with CBS for another season of "The Lucy Show."

House Panel Winds Up Long Hearings On Klan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Committee on Un-American Activities is starting to dissect months of sometimes conflicting testimony about the Ku Klux Klan in an effort to shape legislation to curb its activities.

The committee concluded five months of public hearings Thursday with 4,300 pages of testimony from 190 witnesses.

"The record is not a pretty one," said Rep. Joe Pool, D-Tex., in summing up the year-long investigation and the hearings.

"It is," he added, "a record of floggings, beatings, killings, of plans to assassinate public figures . . . for no other reason than the color of their skins or the fact they disapprove of the policies and activities of the Klan."

But, throughout the hearings, the Klan had some supporters. One was Ralph E. Pryor Jr., a former Wilmington, Del., detective and former Delaware grand dragon who defended the principles of the Klan, even though he said he was disillusioned.

"I believe the Klan has done a lot of good, even today," he testified.

Other witnesses said only a "certain element" had given the Klan a bad name.

One witness, Daniel Wagner, 19, said, "I pray to God the Klan is banned."

FEUDING GROUPS
Testimony painted the Klan as a feuding collection of a half-dozen groups, its officials wrangling over dues money and inter-Klan membership stealing.

There were tales of night-riding violence, church bombings, whippings, threats, cross-burnings.

Violence in school integration and civil rights incidents liberally sprinkled testimony.

Once shrouded in secrecy, its members robed in white and masked, the Klan sprang into being after the Civil War. It has withered and flourished at intervals since.

WANTS LAWS
President Johnson called for laws curbing the Klan after violence credited to it exploded in the South.

"The overwhelming majority of the people of the South," said Rep. Charles L. Welter, D-Ga., Thursday, are against the Klan and everything it stands for.

Pool said the next step for the committee is drafting legislation. Welter has already introduced a bill to require Klan registration under an expanded McCarran Act.

Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., has suggested possible legislation to make it a federal crime to threaten and intimidate people.

MOST BALK
Few Klan leaders answered committee questions. But some Hockley Eligible For Farm Loans

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Farmers Home Administration has been authorized to make emergency loans to farmers in Hockley County, Tex., Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., announced Thursday.

The three per cent loans will be available to the South Plains farmers through June 30, the senator said. The action was taken because of drought conditions since 1963.

DEAR ABBY

A Son's Problems

DEAR ABBY: A neighbor has all but "adopted" our son, Kevin. He is 14 and a companion to her son. She has encouraged Kevin to spend every waking hour at her home, where she lends an overly sympathetic ear to his "troubles." Kevin has spent many nights there and would live there if we'd let him. At home he has chores to do and when he needs it, he is disciplined, criticized and restricted, but at the neighbor's he is a guest and makes the most of it. Naturally Kevin thinks this neighbor is the "perfect" mother. I am not jealous of her, Abby, but I wonder if she is aware of how difficult she is making it for me? Or could she be deliberately competing with me to feed her own ego? It amounts to alienation of affection. How do I cope with this? DISTURBED

DEAR ABBY: Before making your own accusations, examine your own attitudes honestly. Do you listen to your son's troubles? Are his friends welcome in your home? If your neighbor scores higher than you, you'd be wise to take a page out of her book. If you are indeed a competent mother, and suspect your neighbor of deliberately competing for your son's affections, moving is not too drastic a step.

DEAR ABBY: Last night one of the boys in our barracks made so much noise snoring nobody could sleep. Someone suggested holding his nose for a few seconds. We did it, and the snoring stopped like magic. Abby, if you would notify all the girls back home who are husband-hunting to try this solution before they trap their men, you'd be doing a great service in the field of domestic tranquility. Thank you.

U.S. SOLDIERS IN KOREA
DEAR ABBY: Fine. But how is a girl who is "husband-hunting" supposed to know if her man snores or not BEFORE she marries him?

DEAR ABBY: Tell me what you think of a so-called friend who comes into your house and is sweet as pie to you while behind your back she is making progress with your husband? She finally gets him to pay her visits at her home and ends up going dancing with him and getting a few kisses here and there. Should I kick him out? BEST FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: With a "friend" like you, who needs enemies? Tell your husband that you know what's going on (if you really do) and to cease and desist or show up in court.

Council Of Women Mark Prayer Day

The United Council of Church Women observed World Day of Prayer today beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the First Presbyterian Church, as part of an observance that has spanned the globe for the past 80 years.

The three main branches of the Christian faith, including a growing number of Roman Catholics, are now taking part in the World Day of Prayer. Today marked the first Friday in Lent.

"You Are My Witnesses" is the theme for World Day of Prayer 1966. The special service, taken from Isaiah 43:10, was prepared by women of the World Day of Prayer Committee of Scotland, and it reflects the long tradition of the church in that country, where the day has been observed since 1930.

Offerings of the day go to interdenominational projects all over the world to help prepare men and women of many nations for service in home and community. Two special projects are in mind for the offerings, the training of lay persons and professional workers within the United States in meeting community needs, and lay training and study centers abroad.

Hymn Festival Planned Sunday

WESTBROOK (SC) — The annual Mitchell-Scurry Association Hymn Festival will meet in the Colorado City First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon. Special music from various churches will be featured, in addition to competing choirs and other special singers. Tommy Bryant is local music director.

The Youth Rally for Mitchell-Scurry Association will meet at the First Baptist Church in Snyder tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Morriss To Preach For Revival

Featured evangelist for the revival beginning Feb. 28 at Baptist Temple Church will be Dr. L. L. Morriss, pastor of the Midland First Baptist Church.

Dr. Morriss, the son of a Baptist deacon, was born and reared in Tyler, where he was converted at the age of eight. He began preaching at the age of 15. His 29 years in the ministry include two years in the Army as chaplain, 13 months of which were spent in Germany. He is now in his 10th year at the First Baptist Church in Midland.

His education includes College of Marshall and Baylor University where he received his bachelor of arts degree. Both colleges have conferred upon him the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity. He received his seminary training at Southwest Baptist Theological Seminary.

He is active in denominational service and a leader in the civic affairs of Midland. Dr. Morriss is listed in "Who's Who in the Southwest."

He was the recipient of a George Washington Honor Medal from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge, Pa. for one of his sermons.

The revival will continue through March 6. Service times at 7 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. daily.

Former Big Springer Makes Spiritual Hay

A former Big Spring man who figured Sunday school beat pitching hay is now making spiritual hay in Chicago.

Preston Denton, who was reared here, is superintendent of Southern Baptist Missions in Chicago, and featured in the current issue of the Baptist Standard, the Texas denominational paper with 370,000 circulation. The article was written by James C. Hefley, pastor in Bartlett, Ill. Mrs. Denton is the former Mildred Sullivan, daughter of Mrs. Charlie Sullivan, 1104 E. 12th, and the late Judge Sullivan.

place the first Sunday and the police chief offered the adjoining jail, "providing we have no weekend customers." Denton and others prayed he wouldn't, and for several weeks until a larger place could be found, the junior department met in the cells.

The challenge in Chicago is tremendous. About five million people live in Cook County. Within his association there are 56 cities with over 5,000 people and no Southern Baptist Church. If there were as many churches per capita as the rest of the Southern Baptist Convention, Chicago would need 1,500 new churches.

MAY BE REDEEMED

The fact that man may be redeemed although he is a sinner is the message of hope found in the International Sunday School lesson for this Sunday. The text is taken from Romans 8:1-11; Ephesians 2:1-10; Titus 2:11-14; and I Peter 1:13-25.

Christians are often accused of having a "pie-in-the-sky" religion, that is, of trying to be good in order to get a reward from God when they die. Paul never believed that, the lesson points out. As he pointed out, "For by grace are ye saved through faith . . . It is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man should boast."

Foe Ready To Enter Race Against Gov. Wallace's Wife

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Richmond Flowers stood on the brink of the governor's race today, ready to challenge the hardcore segregationist philosophy of Gov. George Wallace.

The declaration of Wallace's wife, Lurleen, as a candidate Thursday and the expected announcement that Flowers will run gave the governor and attorney general a chance to settle their long-standing feud in the May 3 Democratic primary. Flowers, a self-styled racial moderate, has opposed Wallace's defiance of federal authority.

Another Wallace critic, State Sen. Bob Gilchrist of Hartselle, appeared likely to jump into the already crowded gubernatorial field before the qualifying deadline next Tuesday.

He was one of the senators who blocked the governor's attempt last October to change the law so he could run for reelection, and was an active campaign worker for another candidate, Ryan deGraffenried, who died in a plane crash two weeks ago.

Fresh Attack On Depletion Allowance Set

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new attack on the oil industry's 27½ per cent tax depletion allowance is in the offing.

Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., quietly dropped a bill into the Senate hopper the other day to provide for a gradual reduction of the allowance to 20 per cent.

He offered the bill with Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., as a co-sponsor. Williams would say only that he would seek to attach the bill as an amendment to the tax bill then pending in the House. This bill, passed by the House this week, would increase some excise taxes temporarily and speed income tax collections.

draw no attention at the time. He did not call attention to his bill, and there was no discussion.

The Senate Finance Committee, just beginning consideration of the House measure, may go thoroughly into the provisions of the bill before approving a bill of its own.

It may be worthy of note that the new chairman of the committee is Sen. Russell Long of Louisiana, the second ranking oil producing state. Only Texas produces more.

The Williams-Aiken bill would set a maximum 20 per cent depletion allowance on all minerals and specifically provide that the current 27½ per cent rate on oil and gas be reduced immediately to 25 per cent, to 22½ per cent next year and 20 per cent in 1968.

MINIMUM WAGE
Another measure pending in Congress of much interest to the petroleum industry would increase the minimum wage and make it applicable to more workers.

Just about all regularly employed persons in the oil and gas business make as much or more than the present $1.25 an hour minimum. But the bill would eliminate exemptions now enjoyed by smaller service stations and force them to pay more overtime.

At present service stations with less than $250,000 in annual sales are exempt.

Federal Opinion Given On Grilling Of Suspects

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government has added its influential voice to the mounting public debate over the rights of suspects being questioned by the police.

Its view, as expressed by the Justice Department to the Supreme Court, is that immediate questioning by police is a vital tool of law enforcement. Confessions so obtained should be admitted in court unless it is proved they have been unconstitutionally compelled.

At the heart of the debate are two provisions of the Constitution's Bill of Rights: the Fifth Amendment's dictum that a defendant may not "be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself," and the Sixth Amendment's guarantee that an accused person shall have "in all criminal prosecutions" the right "to have the assistance of counsel for his defense."

CASES INDIVIDUAL
While asking the high court to endorse the right of policemen to question their suspects, the department urged in a brief filed Thursday that the courts examine each case individually for possible violations of constitutional rights, rather than attempt to set forth a list of rules to apply to all cases.

It was the Justice Department's first formal expression of opinion in a legal battle that has seen law enforcement officials castigate the Supreme Court for so tying their hands with constitutional limitations that they are unable to accomplish their foremost mission: fighting crime.

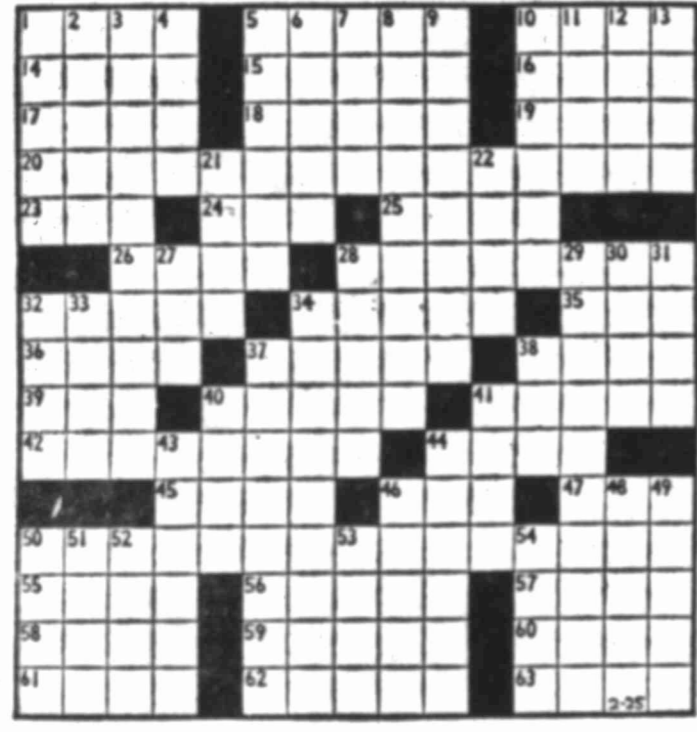

The last major high court ruling was in the much publicized case of Danny Escobedo, whose Chicago murder conviction was overturned by the court because the police questioning him refused to allow him to see his lawyer, who was in the police

Corn, Soybean Sales Puzzling

CHICAGO (AP)—A farm union leader's report of massive corn and soybean sales by his organization at a time when prices already were declining has puzzled grain futures traders.

National Farm Organization headquarters in Corning, Iowa, said it had sold 50 million bushels of the commodities in simultaneous transactions in 17 states Wednesday afternoon, after the close of the futures market.

This announcement had a bearish impact on Thursday's trade, particularly soybeans.

It unnerved many speculators, who liquidated long commitments and sold short ones in sufficient volume to knock prices of most contracts down more than 4 cents a bushel.

The report dominated the trade, even though many analysts expressed doubt that the sales actually were made in one day.

'World Tour' Taken By Hi-Bye Guests

A gondola car filled with fresh flowers was suspended from a big blue balloon to set the theme of "Around the World in 80 Days" at the Thursday Hi and Bye coffee in the Officers Open Mess at Webb Air Force Base. The replica was used as the centerpiece on a refreshment table where approximately 200 guests were served.

Hostess were wives of students in Class 67-D who were extending a welcome to the wives arriving with Class 67-D. Ten countries were represented by costumes worn by the hostesses, and a small stage in the main lounge was filled with items imported from all over the world. A room divider from Okinawa was draped with rich fabrics; there were rattan chairs from Hong Kong, and included in the display were brass pieces from the Far East.

Miss Sakai Describes Homeland

Miss Mariko Sakai, foreign exchange student from Japan, was guest speaker during the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Altrusa Club at Coker's Restaurant.

Mrs. M. S. Knowles presided, and Mrs. Homer Petty introduced the speaker.

Miss Sakai, who is a house-guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Zike, Silver Heels Addition, described a typical day in the life of an average Japanese woman.

She also showed pictures of temples, shrines and castles in her homeland. She explained that the castles were used as fortresses during ancient times, and that, during times of war, the inhabitants survived by cultivating fruit trees.

Twenty-six members attended, and guests were Mrs. H. E. Thomas of Mart, and Mrs. E. N. Newton.

Advice Given On Insurance

Advice on buying insurance was offered during the Thursday morning meeting of the Progressive Woman's Forum at the home of Mrs. Bill Draper, 1808 Benton.

Mrs. Ed Settles was guest speaker. She explained the difference between the homeowners fire insurance and the standard fire insurance policies. She said that the homeowners policy includes five separate items that might occur during a fire, while the standard policy covers only the cost of the fire itself.

Mrs. Buddy Redden presided during the business meeting. Mrs. Draper, chairman of the ways and means committee, reported on plans for the March 3 hat party at the Western Building.

A contribution was made for the gift to Mrs. Dee Locklin, McCamey, retiring district president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and a thank-you note from the "adopted" child was read.

The next meeting will be March 10 at the home of Mrs. Charles Wash. Guest speaker will be Miss Mariko Sakai, foreign exchange student.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Keep Oily Gloss Off Powder And Puff

Dear Heloise: I always like to carry a compact with cake powder in my purse. Sometimes this becomes glossy when partly used, and powder will not take to the little puff. I take a little square of sandpaper (very fine), and rub the gloss off, and the cake of powder is like new again. . . Mrs. John L. Sullivan

And, you know what else will take that oily gloss off the compressed powder? Yep, you guessed it — nylon net!

Also, if you will keep your puff turned upside down, the cake of powder will not become oily and slick. . . Heloise many years ago, I retrieved a dozen bricks, and placed them at the back of the cupboard cabinets. On them I put my spices, my small bottles of various easy-to-lose flavorings, cake colorings, etc. Some of the bricks are flat, some on edge; but it certainly does give more room and ease for keeping those little containers in sight. . . A Reader

Or, you could stand a brick at each end of the cabinet shelf, put a board across them, and have even more space, eh? . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise: The new coffee cans with plastic lids can be charmingly covered for use as curler caddies or ribbon containers. Just buy wallpaper paste, mix it, apply to the can, and carefully put on some pretty fabric. Then coat the fabric with a thin paste to seal it on. Coordinate the fabric with that of your dressing table. Or, you could use attractive adhesive-backed paper to cover the cans. . . Miss Frances Dawson

Dear Heloise: When I use my washer for dyeing fabrics, I first put a thin layer of petroleum jelly around the top of the rubber rim, then proceed with the directions on the dye package. When the job is done, I take an old rag and wipe off the dye splashes from the rim of the machine and use suds to remove the petroleum jelly. . . Carol Ingraham

Miss Crider To Wed Local Man

Miss Betty Ann Crider of Midland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Crider of Monahans will be married Saturday afternoon to Wesley W. Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Watson, 3916 Hamilton. The ceremony will be held in the Monahans Baptist Church.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Monahans High School, is employed in Midland by the Permian Corporation. Her fiancé, a graduate of Big Spring High School, is employed by Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Couple Tells Plans For March Rites

Mr. and Mrs. Juan N. Polanco, 411 NW 10th, are announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Marguerite, to Henry N. Martinez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Vega, 307 S. San Jaquin, San Antonio. The couple is planning a March 12 wedding at the La Fe Baptist Mission. The Rev. C. S. Pana will officiate for the ceremony.

Dear Heloise: I was always getting my arms burned when frying meat that popped, so I made a meat mitten (out of an old bath towel) that came to the elbow. I padded the bottom side with a pot holder, and can use it to take things out of the oven. I put a piece of elastic on one side, just above the hand part, to make it fit better. If you don't have a mitten pattern, just lay your hand down and draw around it, allowing plenty for a seam. It sure has saved me a lot of burns on my arms. . . Mrs. N.

Dear Heloise: I have found that spraying a little air freshener in the car once or twice weekly, will rid it of cigarette smoke odor. . . R. J. B.

Dear Gals: We have printed several ways of removing the soap scum from glass shower doors, and here's another wonderfully easy method: Pour some undiluted vinegar (color makes no difference) in a bowl, dip a soap-filled, steel wool pad in it, and scour away that soap build-up! Then rinse the shower doors with clear water. Simple as one, two, three, eh? . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise: When a "three-legged chicken" is needed for a three-child family, the third leg can come from an extra package of legs bought and frozen separately. Just take the extra one from the bag, and add to the rest. . . A Reader

Taking Out Soldiers

Paul Talbot, playing Peter (second from right), is taking his new tin soldiers out of the box in this rehearsal scene from the Little Theatre production which opens tonight. Lovely Momma (Mrs. Kieran Doherty) looks on, as does Nurse Nellie (Mrs. Dwight King, left). The first soldier out of the box is The Steadfast Tin Soldier (Bobby Dyer) for whom the play is named. Other soldiers waiting their turns to come out of the box are, from left, Chris Davis, Lisa Burnett and Martha Talbot. (Photo by Frank Brandon)

Youngsters Turn In Fine Work For 'Tin Soldier'

Garoo the Golliwog, as interpreted by John Lipscombe, is a real trouper in the professionally performed production of "The Steadfast Tin Soldier," children's play being staged by the Big Spring Little Theatre. It opens tonight and has performances again Saturday afternoon and night. Tickets are $1.50 for adults and 25 cents for youngsters, however any class accompanied by an adult sponsor will be admitted at 10 cents per person during the 2 p.m. matinee. Curtain time is 8 p.m. for the evening shows.

Peter, the little boy who owns all the toys, is convincingly played by Paul Talbot, and Bobby Dyer, as the steadfast tin soldier, is excellent. Alice King's Irish brogue in her role as Nellie the nurse, and Diana Tipton as lovely Lysa were both superb.

All portrayals were done with exceptional skill, indicating a lot of rehearsal and hard work by the young actors and actresses. The costumes and stage set were both well done, and the sound effects, including taped music, are excellent. It is little wonder the children's plays are so well received and popular here.

Others in the cast include, all turning in fine work, Jill Shaw, Cindy Wade, Joanne Allen, Patti Doherty, Joel Dyer, Donnie Hungerford, Steve Burnett, Kim Albark, Lisa Burnett, Martha Talbot, Ingrid Broadrick, Steve Smith, Chris Davis, David Robinson, Ellen Hungerford, Nancy Smith, Clint Boardman, Kelly Greene.

Kieran Doherty is the producer for the show, directed by Mrs. Judy Spencer. Jerry Cottrell is stage manager. Doherty, Cottrell, Alan Doelp and Charles Bowser prepared the set; Gloria Gale and Alice King fixed the properties; Dwight King and Doelp prepared the sound; and costumes were the work of Maxine Boardman and Norma Wade.

Rest Areas To Be Built

Two rest areas are to be built on IS 20 in Howard County and new surfacing is slated on 4.2 miles of the highway, under the terms of a contract awarded to Jones Bros. Dirt and Paving Contractors, Inc., Odessa, Thursday.

The combined project in Mitchell and Howard County calls for the expenditure of $324,048.

Launching Set Of Moonship Early Saturday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—With a forecast of favorable weather, the space agency today scheduled the launching of the first unmanned Apollo moonship for Saturday.

The shot, twice delayed by bad weather, was set for a period between 6:45 and 10:15 a.m. Big Spring time.

A Saturn IB, most powerful rocket ever built by the United States, is to hurl the Apollo ship 310 miles into space and ram it back through the earth's atmosphere at more than 18,000 miles an hour.

The flight will test the rocket, which is making its maiden trip, and spacecraft systems such as the propulsion unit, guidance and control and the heat shield. Recovery of the spacecraft will be attempted in the South Atlantic after a 5,300-mile journey.

The launching is the first in a long series of Apollo shots whose goal is a manned lunar landing.

Tower: 'Let's Show Peking'

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., said today we must convince Communist China "that their new drive for world revolution — using what they euphemistically call 'wars of national liberation' — will not succeed."

He spoke to students at San Antonio college. "We have yet to convince them that we will, indeed, resist with force any encroachment on the vital interests of the Free World," he said.

"If we and our Free World allies fail to meet the Chinese Communist challenge today in Southeast Asia, we will inevitably have to confront it later under even more disadvantageous conditions.

"BE FIRM" "If we have learned anything from history, we have learned that the appetite for aggression never is satiated by appeasement and weakness. We can halt the spread of Asian Communism just as the Reds have been halted in Europe. And, along this road lies the world's best hope for future peace and stability."

The policies of Chevrolet are dedicated to the achievement of a lasting relationship with our customers . . . through quality merchandising practices founded on the OK concept: satisfaction after, as well as at the time of, the purchase. That's why all of our used units bearing the OK symbol are covered in writing by this new 25-month warranty.

1. We warrant that the car has been inspected, roadtested and reconditioned as necessary to be in serviceable condition when you buy it. In the event of mechanical failure of the car, we agree as follows: For the first 30 days, we will pay 50% of the parts and labor repair bills necessary to keep the vehicle in serviceable condition under normal use, provided that the repairs are taken care of in our shop at our regular retail price . . . that the remaining 50% is paid in cash . . . and that those repairs do not qualify for adjustment under any new vehicle warranty.
2. This warranty shall not apply if the car is used "for hire."
3. This warranty is issued by us—not by the manufacturer of the vehicle.
4. This warranty is expressly in lieu of any other, expressed or implied, including any implied warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, and any other obligations or liabilities on our part. We neither assume nor authorize any other person to assume for it any other liability in connection with the sale of the vehicle.
5. Proof of warranty must be available with the vehicle at the time of payment for repairs and adjustments, and is not transferable or assignable.
6. This warranty is not valid unless signed by our authorized department head and by the Purchaser, who is to retain a copy.

Cattle, Sheep Judging Holds Show Focus

HOUSTON (AP)—Cattle and sheep judging held the spotlight today at the 34th Houston Livestock Show.

Angus, Brahman and Guernsey cattle as well as Suffolk, Corriedale, Southdown and Dorset sheep passed before the judges in the new $4.24 million exposition hall adjacent to the Harris County Domes Stadium.

Champions were named in Hereford, Santa Gertrudis and Charolais cattle Thursday.

Hull Dobbs Ranches of Fort Worth and Walls, Miss., showed both the champion and reserve champion Hereford bulls. The champion Hereford bull was shown by Harris Masterson's Diamond C Ranch at Rosenberg and beat out another Hull Dobbs entry, HDR Miss Onward, which had won top honors in shows all over the country.

UVALDE WINNER
C. A. McDaniel of Uvalde had the champion and reserve champion bulls in the Santa Gertrudis competition. H. L. Harvell of Brooksville, Fla., had the grand champion female, and Vernon and James Smith's El Colina Ranch at Dallas showed the reserve champion female.

The 4-T Ranches of Georgetown showed the grand champion bull in Charolais judging. The grand champion female was owned by Litton Charolais Ranch of Chillicothe, Mo., and the reserve champion female honors went to the 1776 Ranch of Georgetown.

In breeding sheep, Glen Armstrong and Son of Norborne, Mo., had the champion and reserve champion ram in the Hampshire division. The reserve champion ewe was shown by Mrs. Ammie E. Wilson of Plano.

CHAMP RAM
The champion Columbian ram, reserve champion ram and champion ewe were shown by L. A. Nordan of Boerne. Otto Whitefield of Friona had the reserve champion ewe.

In Montadale sheep, Mrs. Florence Carr of Freeburg, Ill., showed the champion ram and reserve champion ewe. Roy Roscow of Red Bud, Ill., had the reserve champion ram and Joe D. Goode of Van Ormy, had the champion ewe.

Ovey Tallafero of Eden showed all champions and reserve champions in the Rambouillet sheep judging.

Thirty-eight head of Brangus cattle sold Thursday for $51,675. The average sale price was $1,344, with bulls averaging $2,345. The top selling animal was a bull which brought $12,500. It was consigned by Paul Davis of Oklahoma City and bought by the Bud Adams Ranches of Houston.

Miami Students Disciplined In Stolen-Test Case

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A University of Miami spokesman says 53 students have been disciplined in the case of the stolen exam.

Two students who broke into a professor's office to steal test questions were expelled.

Nine others who helped distribute the questions among a class of 1,537 students were suspended for up to a year. Forty were given probation, and two a warning.

All 53 wound up with a failing grade in the class, Natural Sciences 181.

Dr. William R. Butler, vice president for student affairs, announced the action Thursday after more than a month of investigations, hearings by the Student Honor Council and appeals.

Most of the students involved were freshmen, said Dr. Butler, and represented only a small percentage of their class.

Kiwanians Urged To Care For Precious Eyesight

Blind men and women have many misadventures with their fellows, some of which are humorous and some anything but funny, John Whistler, blind singer, told the Kiwanis Club Thursday noon.

Whistler, who has been blind since he was six, told the members he was the victim of a careless father who left a loaded shotgun where a young boy could get his hands on the weapon.

He urged all hunters to be particularly careful in the use of firearms. He also pointed out that eyes cannot be replaced and stressed that anyone fortunate enough to have his sight should do all possible to preserve it.

He was accompanied to the club by Hero, his huge Doberman "seeing-eye" dog. He told the club some of the features which made Hero exceptionally adapted to be his "eyes."

Whistler, who is here appearing at a revival at the Church of the Nazarene, closed his program by singing and whistling "In the Hollow of His Hand."

Travis Waller was program chairman for the day.

Clyde Bryan, military supervisor for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, was presented as a new member of the club.

Bill Johnson, vice president, said that final results of the 14th Annual Kiwanis Club Pancake Supper are not yet available, but that preliminary indications are that it was a successful event.

Airman Said At His Base At Time Of Seagoville Murder

DALLAS (AP) — Defense lawyer John W. Key said yesterday he has obtained evidence that Mason Gene Smith, 20, an AWOL airman, could not have been in Seagoville at the time he is accused of a murder.

Key said Sheppard Air Force Base authorities advised that Smith's bunk at the Wichita Falls base was occupied at 9:30 p.m. Jan. 30, the night Mrs. Herbert L. Vann was raped and strangled.

Officers estimated earlier that she was killed between 9 and 11 p.m. after going to a Seagoville washateria. The body was found next morning in her partly burned car.

LIE TEST DUE
Justice of the Peace Charles Davis postponed an examining trial scheduled Thursday for Smith because Key has asked that his client undergo a lie detector test today. Key said the state agreed to the polygraph examination.

Smith's lawyer said he also had learned that the airman was at the Wichita Falls base at 3:30 a.m. Jan. 31, a few hours before the body of Mrs. Vann was found. Key said Air Force records show Smith was not listed as AWOL until 9:30 p.m. Feb. 1.

"Telephone company records indicate that Smith placed a

Opening lead: King of ♠

South, the declarer, at five spades, turned in a nimble performance in bringing home 11 tricks with a rather skimpy assortment of assets.

The auction was contested furiously. North and East competed on distributional holdings. North was tempted to raise his partner's one spade response to four—after West's take-out double; however, he contented himself with a jump to three spades. East competed with four hearts and it is doubtful that North could have shut him out, since he was six-five in the unbid suits.

When South persisted to four spades, West doubled for penalties, a doubtful action since his strength was concentrated primarily in clubs and hearts.

East did not stand for the double, running to five clubs. West gave a preference to hearts and North carried on to five spades. West doubled again and East subsided.

West opened the king of clubs and, with the appearance of a singleton in dummy, he switched to the ace of hearts. East signaled vigorous encouragement with the nine, so West continued with another heart forcing the dummy to ruff.

Declarer observed that his only chance to make the hand was to establish North's diamond suit. From the bidding, it appeared that East's values were primarily distributional, whereas West was marked with the bulk of the outstanding high cards. South, therefore, resolved to play West for the king of diamonds.

The closed hand was entered with the king of spades as East followed with the jack. A diamond was led and North's queen was successfully finessed. A small diamond was ruffed with the three of spades as East discarded a heart. A spade was led, West followed with the eight and the nine was played from dummy, East showing out again.

The spade finesse was necessary, for the diamonds were not yet established, and North had only one other entry left—the ace of spades. A diamond was ruffed in the closed hand, the last trump was drawn by leading over to dummy's ace, and the ace of diamonds dropped West's king. North's diamonds took the remaining tricks. South lost one club and one heart on the deal.
