BIG SPRING JAY-CEE-ETTES Featuring SNAKE SNACKS

'We'll Try Some Snake Snacks!'

Mrs. Max Moore prepares to fix some snake snacks for the annual Jaycee Rattlesnake Round-Up, as Charles Dodson, center, and John Suter, right, agree to try some. Jaycee-Ettes are in charge of cooking the rattlesnakes, and, for those who would like more familiar food, the menu will include the old standbys of hot dogs and coffee. (Photo by Frank Brandon)

Sound Of Snake Music Gets Round-Up Started

The sound of rattlesnake music could be heard at the Big Spring Fairgrounds this morning, as the fourth annual Jaycee Rattlesnake Round-Up got under way. Bringing in the first few snakes for the Round-Up was Dalton Carr, who is an old hand at the fine art of rattlesnake-taming. In the kitchens, Jaycee-Ettes were preparing all the trimmings for "snake snacks," a special feature of the round-up. According to Carr, the meat of the rattlesnake tastes somewhat like chicken and is quite delicious. It has about the consistency of raw oysters, he said.

Poverty Battle Probe Debated

WASHINGTON (AP) - The latest Republican demand for a bipartisan investigation of the administration's antipoverty program has received little encouragement from Democratic leaders in Congress. Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said any program bears looking into. But he said this is the responsibility of the regular legislative committees of Congress, not a special committee. A special Senate-House Investigating Committee, composed of an equal number of Democrats and Republicans, was proposed Thursday by Senate Republican Leader Everett Dirksen and House GOP Leader Gerald Ford. Dirksen and Ford said the antipoverty program has been marked by politics, waste, fraud and other abuses. "A thorough, honest investigation of the Johnson-Humphrey administration's handling of the antipoverty war is long overdue," Ford said. Staff investigators have been sent to over a score of cities. No report has been issued, but Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, New York Negro Democrat, said shortcomings were uncovered. Dirksen and Ford said the antipoverty program, if properly administered, could be helpful but declared that those with the lowest incomes "cannot benefit from chicanery, fraud and political misuse of funds."

'War Curb' Step Tried In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) - A new move to put Congress on record against a broadening of the Viet Nam war was launched today as the debate moved into the dollars and cents stage. Sen. George McGovern, D-S.D., announced he will try to tack a policy rider on the emergency $415-million foreign aid authorization now before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

Mossler Trial Jury Ponders Fate Of Two

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) - Twelve men returned to an 18-by-30-foot jury room today to resume the task of judging blonde Candace Mossler and her nephew in the 1964 slaying of her multi-millionaire husband.

The jurors came back for their first full day of deliberation at the Dade County Circuit Court where Judge George Schulz gave them final instructions Thursday night. His legal charge lasted slightly more than an hour.

UP TO JURY The lives of Mrs. Mossler and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, rested in the jury's hands, with no words to guide the panel toward a decision. The state did not press for the death penalty, nor did it waive it.

After receiving the seven-weeks-old case at 9:14 p.m. Thursday, the jury deliberated for less than two hours and was sent to a downtown Miami hotel at 11 p.m.

Mrs. Mossler, who gives her age at 40, and Powers, 29, are accused of a premeditated design whereby he bludgeoned Mossler and stabbed him 39 times in a Key Biscayne apartment June 30, 1964. The state claimed aunt and nephew were engaged in an incestuous love affair and coveted the $33 million banking and loan fortune amassed by the 49-year-old victim.

"LOADED DICE" "Somebody's loading the dice against these defendants," said Percy Foreman, towering Texas chief of Powers' defense, in his closing argument. With wide reputation as a criminal lawyer, Foreman's fee in this case is $200,000.

"The state attorney is trying them for everything under the sun except murder of Jacques Mossler," Foreman told the jury in a four-hour and 54 minute summation.

Preceding Foreman, State Atty. Richard Gerstein, who heads the prosecution, said Powers was driven to murder his uncle by an insatiable desire for his aunt - "this woman who was the mastermind and manipulator behind the entire scheme."

100 WITNESSES Judge Schulz, 51, who runs his sixth floor court room in a firm but amiable manner, sent the jury into the deliberation room, two doors removed from the courtroom where they had heard more than 100 witnesses since the trial began Jan. 17.

Before they departed the courtroom the jury heard Judge Schulz outline alternatives for its judgment.

Scout troops will sell the lilies every Saturday beginning March 12, until the drive officially ends Easter, April 10. (Photo by Frank Brandon)

Crash Occurs At Airport In Tokyo Fog

TOKYO (AP) - A Canadian Pacific Airways jetliner with more than 70 persons aboard crashed landed on Tokyo's fog-bound airport tonight and no more than six or seven are reported to have survived. Japan Broadcasting reporters at the scene said it appeared only six lived through the crash. They said 50 bodies were recovered and another 44 were believed trapped in the wreckage. One of seven persons taken to a hospital died, officials reported.

In Vancouver, a Canadian Pacific Airways spokesman said its reports indicated there were six or seven survivors. The four-engine Douglas DC8 carried 62 passengers and nine crewmen, officials here reported. "But in Hong Kong, the plane's departure point, Canadian Pacific said its information indicated there were 64 passengers and 10 crewmen."

DEBRIS SCATTERED The shattered, smoking wreckage was scattered for more than 1,000 yards down the runway, into a retaining wall and over it. Reports at the scene said at least 30 passengers were hurled into the rear of the plane by the violent impact.

Rescue workers had difficulty penetrating the main part of the fuselage to get at the bodies. It was the second major air crash at Tokyo's International Airport in a month. Four weeks ago a Japanese Boeing 727 smashed into Tokyo Bay as it was landing. It was the world's worst single plane disaster, with 133 dead.

The Canadian Pacific plane was Flight 402 bound from Hong Kong to Vancouver via Tokyo, then on to Mexico City, Lima, Santiago and Buenos Aires.

TWO EXPLOSIONS One report from an airport worker said he heard two explosions as the plane approached.

It was not clear whether the explosions occurred before or after the jetliner touched down. The worker added that he saw a fireball erupt from the landing area but could give no details because of the heavy fog.

The plane slid beyond the runway and hit a retaining wall near Tokyo Bay. The tail section was severely ripped.

Fog that has swirled around the Tokyo area for two days cut visibility to about 1,000 yards, airport officials said. A slight drizzle also dampened the runway.

The top part of the big jet was completely burned away. Officials said the position of the plane made it appear it had spun around violently as it touched down.

It was believed possible that the spinning jet hit the break-water retaining wall near the bay tail first, thus throwing the passengers into the rear of the fuselage.

Twisters Kill 57 Over Mississippi

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) - Rescue workers combed sparsely populated rural regions east of Jackson today, looking for more victims of the savage tornadoes which speared death and destruction in Mississippi.

The Mississippi death toll steadily mounted during the night and stood at 57, the Mississippi Highway Patrol said. One person was reported killed in neighboring Alabama. Larry Parks of broadcast station WQFT-FM at Forest, in Scott County, said many homes "are just gone... and the people in them are missing, too."

JACKSON DEVASTATION In Jackson, the state's largest city and capital, a tornado dealt death and devastation in a suburban shopping center. At least 12 persons were killed. Nearby, the modern brick Woodville Heights Baptist church looked like it had exploded. Homes across the street were untouched.

A patrol spokesman said 411 were injured in Jackson and rural counties to the east of the capital city.

One of the tornado victims was Joe Bullock, a Democratic candidate for Congress in Mississippi's 4th District. Bullock, recently ousted as director of the state's Agriculture and Industrial Board, was killed instantly, the Highway Patrol said, when the twister blew his car off the road near the Forkville community in Scott County.

LOSS IN MILLIONS Damage was expected to run into the millions from the state's worst natural disaster since a 1942 tornado left 75 dead in central and northwest Mississippi.

"I think we'll find more dead," said Deputy Sheriff Bob Fasano.

Officers also feared more bodies would turn up in Scott County, to the east of Jackson.

The line of tornadoes moved eastward into west-central Alabama during the night. There was one known dead in Alabama and 11 injured.

AID RUSHED An Air Force Reserve C119 transport flew into Jackson shortly after midnight, bringing two mobile Red Cross disaster trucks and 20 pints of rare blood from Mobile, Ala.

Much of the destruction in Jackson, the state's largest city with a quarter of a million people, was centered around the Candlestick Park shopping center at the southwest edge of the city. The Highway Patrol said 12 persons were killed in the shopping center.

SIFT RUBBLE One wall of a supermarket and a service station wall were all that remained standing in the center.

Prisoners from the Jackson and Hinds County jails worked alongside teenagers, searching for bodies and survivors in the rubble.

Bulldozers and construction equipment, owned by the county, were rushed to the area and used to shove aside the tangled debris.

Gritty Silt Billows On Across Parts Of State

By The Associated Press dropped to zero in Plainview, where the wind was gauged at 66 miles per hour.

BILLOWING SILT Silt billowed across most of North Texas and as far south as Austin, Waco and Lufkin, lingering in the air through the night in some areas.

Strong air currents aloft prompted to push much of the dust eastward and let the skies clear over Texas during the day. A tornado watch posted by the Weather Bureau for extreme Northeast Texas expired Thursday evening with no report of damage in the state, but deadly twisters struck farther east in Mississippi and Alabama.

Generally clear skies were predicted for all sections of Texas through Saturday as colder air spreads over most areas. Forecasts called for overnight temperatures down to 10 degrees in the Panhandle, 20 in the north central area, 25 in the northeast, 28 in the southwest and a few degrees above freezing elsewhere.

WHITE LANDSCAPE About one-half inch of snow whitened the countryside around Dalhart, but there was only a trace at Amarillo. Bitter winds continued to fan parts of West Texas, churning silt aloft for a second straight day. At Perryton, likewise in the Panhandle, 18-degree cold added to the bite of the soil-laden breeze. The wild March winds swept clouds of dust downstate after dark, sharply reducing visibility in the west Thursday. At times it

U.S. Ignores Protests, Monitors Registration

AUSTIN (AP) - Ignoring complaints of state and congressional leaders, the Justice Department went ahead today with monitoring the statewide free voter registration in 43 Texas counties.

The 15-day registration period started Thursday in all 254 counties. Legislators devised the new system after a three-judge federal court panel held Texas' poll tax requirement to vote was unconstitutional.

In ordering FBI agents to monitor the registration, the department said such action was necessary to see that the court's order was complied with.

A department spokesman said Thursday night that only Texas-based agents would be used to carry out the spot checks in these counties: Angelina, Bexar, Bowie, Cameron, Cass, Comal, Crane, Crockett, Dallas, DeWitt, El Paso, Fayette, Freestone, Grimes, Harris, Harrison, Hidalgo, Houston, Jefferson, Lavaca, Limestone, Marion, McLennan, Mills, Moore, Nueces, Polk, Potter, Randall, Red River, Robertson, San Jacinto, Shelby, Starr, Tarrant, Tom Green, Travis, Trinity, Walker, Waller, Washington, Webb and Wilbarger.

The Justice Department had contended that 15 days was not enough time to register 2.5 million persons previously unregistered because they had not paid the poll tax.

In rejecting this contention, the federal judges told the department it could renew the argument after the sign-up period ends March 17.

Gov. John Connally said the Justice Department's intrusion was insulting to the state and was "completely unjustified and unwarranted."

57 New Voters Fifty-five Howard County residents registered Thursday - opening day of the Conditional Voting Registration period. Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, county tax assessor, said Friday. This was about the number anticipated by observers for the opening day.

Mrs. LeFevre said that two had shown up to register by mid-morning today. The Conditional Voter Registration continues through March 17. Any citizen, who is a qualified elector other than not having paid his or her poll tax during the specified period for such payments, is now eligible to register. Registration is free and will entitle such registrants to vote in all elections held in the county in 1966. The voters who wish to avail themselves of the opportunity to vote by this method can do so at the tax collector's office and at two substations - the office of Mayor C. J. Lamb, Forsan, and

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Widower Has Neat Sprinkling Method

Dear Heloise: I have been a widower for a year now. For the first time I can see what my precious wife went through. So I thought I'd tell you about a shortcut I learned that might help other people when it comes to sprinkling clothes. After the laundry is done and the clothes are completely dry (whether starched or not), I throw the clothes to be ironed back into my dryer. Then I take a sponge, squeeze it tightly in my hand, dip the gripped sponge in a bowl of warm water, and loosen my fingers while the sponge is still under the water. This way the sponge sucks up all of that warm water. All I have to do then is take the sponge to the dryer and squeeze it out over the piled-up clothes in the bottom of the dryer. Then I turn the dryer on hot and let it tumble the clothes for five minutes. I find that the humidity builds up in the dryer, and distributes the moisture beautifully. This makes my ironing easier. My three daughters and one son iron their own clothing. They, too, think that I have found a good idea. What do you think? Widower

Dear Widower: First, let us congratulate you on having those four wonderful children who help you. I tried it and it works beautifully. Thanks for passing this hint along, and may God bless your entire family. Heloise

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

Dear Heloise: We read your question about why some barns have fake windows painted on them. My husband is a retired farmer, and he says the reason they have fake windows is because the average cow doesn't know the difference! N.A.T.

Dear Heloise: When mending a large hole in a sweater or other knitted garment, I reinforce the hole with matching net on the wrong side of the garment to give a good foundation for darning. It will also prevent puckering. Mrs. W.C.H.

Dear Heloise: Here's how one of your hints helped to make a baby shower a thing to remember for a mother-to-be. Some time ago, one of your readers suggested stuffing a baby's nightgown with tissue paper, then putting a stick down the center of the gown; and with a rubber band, attaching a small, stuffed paper bag on which was pasted a large picture of a baby's face. Then she wrapped it in a receiving blanket.

For my god-daughter's baby shower, I did all this, but I added a very personal touch. Instead of inserting just any baby picture, I used the mother-to-be's own baby picture.

She was so thrilled with it she actually cried, and I was very happy with the results of my homemade gift.

Thanks a million to you and your resourceful readers, who thought up such a terrific idea. Anita Boucher

Taps Sounded For Spacemen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Buglers sounded taps on an Arlington National Cemetery hillside today in final salutes to astronauts Elliot M. S. See Jr. and Charles A. Bassett II.

See, 38, a civilian, and Bassett, 34, an Air Force major, were killed Monday when their jet plane crashed at St. Louis, Mo. They had been training for their initial space flight, scheduled for May.

Their bodies were flown here for burial, with full military honors, in graves 15 feet apart on a wooded hillside in the southeast corner of the cemetery — final resting place of many of the nation's honored dead.

Seventeen astronauts, a group of officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the widows and children of See and Bassett arrived Thursday night for the separate graveside services. Twelve astronauts were to be pall bearers.

After graveside-rites, seven military men each were to fire three volleys in the traditional 21-gun salute, followed by the sounding of taps.

The astronauts' graves are about 100 yards from that of Capt. Theodore C. Freeman, an astronaut who died Oct. 31, 1964, when his plane crashed in Texas. There have been no fatalities in this country's 11 space flights.

Negro Vote Power Looms In 'Bama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Two civil rights spokesmen foresaw the chance today that Negro voters, rid of the poll tax, may exercise a veto over Gov. George Wallace's bid to elect his wife.

Orzell Billingsley and Arthur D. Shores, both Birmingham attorneys, predicted that 250,000 or more Negroes will vote in a block in the May 3 Democratic primary.

BLOC SEEN

Billingsley said the Negro vote, which has increased rapidly with the presence of federal examiners in 11 counties, may reach 400,000 by the November general election. And, unless for some reason the Negroes find no candidate for governor acceptable to them and decide to stay home, he said he looks for a bloc vote then, too.

Neither of the lawyers would rule out altogether the possibility that Negroes might support Wallace's wife, Lurleen, in her race for governor if she wins the Democratic nomination and goes against Republican congressman James D. Martin in November: Martin has said he will seek the GOP nomination.

AGAINST WALLACES

But they said it would be difficult to get Negroes to vote for Mrs. Wallace. Shores, himself a candidate for the state Legislature, saw the possibility that a Wallace-Martin race would find many Negroes unwilling to support either candidate.

Billingsley, president of the Alabama Democratic Conference, conceded the bloc vote could go to a Republican in the general election if the Negroes felt that would upset the governor's hope of electing his wife as his "stand-in" successor.

The Alabama Democratic Conference has a screening committee, the attorneys explained, which "studies the candidates and issues." Until that recommendation has been made, they said their organization will withhold any endorsement.

REAL IMPACT

The real impact of the Negro vote, which increased immeasurably because of a federal court ruling Thursday which knocked out Alabama's poll tax, may come in the runoff primary for governor May 28. The two top candidates fight it out in the runoff if no one gets a majority of the votes in the first primary.

If the candidate who gets the Negro support in the first election fails to make the runoff, one of the two in the finals can start off with a bonus of 250,000 or more votes. That could be the difference.

But, cautioned Shores, "no candidate is going to be able to deliver our votes to someone else. We will make our own independent decision about which one to support."

LBJ Threat Suspect Held

AUSTIN (AP)—Schuyler Colfax Brock Jr., 45, former Army pilot, was ordered held for possible federal grand jury action following a preliminary hearing Thursday on charges he threatened the President.

Brock was arrested by the Secret Service and charged Feb. 25.

Kenneth Wiesman, Secret Service agent in charge of the Austin area, testified no weapons were found in Brock's San Marcos home. Wiesman said Brock told him he wrote the threatening letter.

The letter, presented as evidence before U.S. Commissioner Forrest Troutman, said in part: "... We will shoot the President out of the White House three or four times with continuing and wearying monotony."

Senior Citizen Aid Praised

DALLAS (AP)—Southwestern States are doing a big job in acceptance of federal programs for older people, William Bechill, commissioner for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's administration for the aging, says.

He declared Texas, Arkansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Louisiana currently are offering more opportunities for the senior citizen than any of the other states.

Bechill said he was particularly proud of Texas' participation in the "foster grandparent" project. This is for persons 65 or older and enables the low-income senior citizen to obtain jobs with varied institutions, including orphanages and foster homes.

Texas has two such programs in operation at this time — at Denton and San Antonio.

Threatening Calls To Wives Of Fighters Not Widespread

WASHINGTON (AP)—Investigations by all the armed services have failed to turn up evidence of widespread harassing calls to wives and other dependents of U.S. servicemen in Vietnam.

The Defense Department said today "it has been found that the incidences of such calls are slight."

AREA IN EAST

Most of these calls have occurred in the 3rd Army area, with a scattering in the New York, Philadelphia, and Ft. Campbell, Ky., areas, the Pentagon said.

The 3rd Army encompasses North Carolina and South Carolina, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida and Georgia.

Connally Hit By Candidates

HOUSTON (AP)—Several candidates for state office criticized Gov. John Connally's administration Thursday in talks before the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education.

State Rep. Bill Hollowell of Grand Saline, running for lieutenant governor, received a standing ovation when he called for "an end to the John Connally machine."

Stanley C. Woods, a Harris County Republican candidate for governor, called for an end to "one-man rule in Austin."

State Sen. Franklin Spears, a candidate for attorney general, said "the question most dominant is whether the people of Texas or the power structure will prevail."

Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr addressed the group but did not appeal for votes in his race for U.S. senator. He also would not discuss issues pending before Congress, which is in session now.

"The most disconcerting type of call has been someone saying that a person in Viet Nam has been killed, wounded, or captured," the Pentagon said.

LAI TO CRANKS

"The calls primarily fall into the crank category, with the caller unidentified and generally showing no fixed pattern of comments," it added.

Local commanders "have taken necessary action to warn dependents of personnel departing for Viet Nam that this might occur," the Defense Department said.

It took the position that the cases fall into local or national law enforcement jurisdictions outside the military service.

Elderly Couple Fatally Beaten

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—An elderly man and woman were beaten fatally in their combination grocery store and home Thursday night, apparently during a robbery.

Mrs. John G. Bagby died about three hours afterward. Her husband succumbed to massive head injuries early today. Both were in their 70s.

Police found the cash register emptied. They had not determined how much money was taken.

Officers held two men for questioning but did not disclose the reason.

A two-foot length of concrete reinforcing steel and an apron, both smeared with blood, were discovered beneath the Bagbys' living quarters.

President Johnson is in deep trouble with the second session of the 89th Congress, and probably no one knows it better than he.

Continuation of the phenomenal record of the first session was not expected, though Johnson did hand the second session a surprisingly thick folder of requested bills.

Play Balmorhea At 11:15 Saturday

Five-Team Tourney To Open At 7:30

A trip to next week's State High School Girls' tournament at Austin awaits the winner in the five-team Region VI-B tournament starting this evening at Howard County Junior College.

A single game is on tap tonight, starting at 7:30 p.m. Semifinals and finals will be unreeled Saturday.

The combatants all have impressive credentials but the favorite is Forsan, which has won 33 of 34 starts. That lone loss was by one point.

Two other contenders in the scramble have dropped only two games between them. Balmorhea is 25-1 while Talpa-Centennial, a tournament veteran, is 20-1.

Tonight's game pits Gall (District 71-B) against Westbrook (70-B). Gall has been defeated only four times in 23 assignments while Westbrook is 27-9.

The survivor in that engagement returns to competition at 9:45 a.m. Saturday, at which time it opposes Talpa-Centennial. Talpa bombed Eden, 60-43, in bi-district competition.

The 11:15 a.m. game tomorrow will find Balmorhea meeting Forsan. Balmorhea's only loss this season was in its opening game to Eldorado, 45-44.

Forsan later edged Eldorado 49-48. There appears to be little to choose between the 73-B Bears and Forsan.

Third place game is down for 7 p.m. Saturday while the title goes on the line at 8:30 p.m. A new champion is assured here, since Trent ruled the realm last year. Trent went on to cop the state championship, by the way.

Forsan's victim in bi-district competition was Mertzon, which fell by the score of 70-35. Balmorhea, at the same time, was mauling Sierra Blanca, 55-27.

Balmorhea hit the 100-point mark against Barstow while limiting the losers to 34. The Bears are led by Sue Ann Magee, who stands 5-11.

Forsan's scoring efforts are led by 6-0 Jody Dodd, a star for three years at the South Howard County school. Jody is averaging 20.2 points a game this season and has been used sparingly in some of the Buffalo Queens' contests because coach James Blake wanted to get a look at some of his reserves.

Mollie Condon, Mary Simpson and Sherry Walraven are among others who have a fine scoring touch for Forsan.

Talpa's leading threats are 5-11 Priscilla Lane and 6-0 Charlotte Faubion. The Ramettes have beaten Cross Plains, a real toughie in its area. Their only loss was to Eula, 79-62.

No one undersells the potential of Gall, coached by H. K. Lund. The Borden County team has fine scoring threats in Jacquie Dennis, 5-4 junior; and Sheryl Williams, 5-5-4.

Westbrook didn't lose a game in its own district and seems now to be operating at peak efficiency. Darlene Lankford, 5-7 senior, of the Wildcats is probably as talented as any player in the meet and has plenty of help.

Brewer Guns For Top Spot At Pensacola

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Defending champion Doug Sanders is setting a fast early pace in the $65,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament, but he's looking over his shoulder nervously at a dimpled-necked young man named Gay Brewer.

Gay used Sanders as a stepping stone to one of his most successful stretches last fall and he'd welcome a chance to do it again.

"I wouldn't be unhappy if that old Georgia Cracker and I came up to the last putt Sunday just as we did at Seattle last year," the 6-footer from Middletown, Ohio, said today.

On that occasion, the two tied for the title and Gay killed off his rival on the first extra hole of a sudden death playoff. It started the husky midwesterner on a winning stretch that netted him three tournaments.

Sanders, former university of Florida player now registering from Ojai, Calif., goes into the second round of the tournament today with a two-stroke lead over Brewer after the two triggered a par-wrecking attack on the 4,380-yard, par-72 Pensacola Country Club course.

Fifty-seven of the 144 competitors matched or beat par, indicating it will take a par score or better to survive the cut tonight when the list is cut to the low 70 and ties.

Sanders, drinking orange juice and complaining of pains in his stomach, rang in seven birdies on the last nine holes Thursday for a 29-63.

Brewer came up a few hours later — his putter steaming — with a 33-32-65. He ran in two putts of 25 feet and another of 30 feet.

Texans Lose To Odessans

AMARILLO — One of the big favorites in the Region V Basketball tournament went to the sidelines here Thursday when Odessa topped South Plains College of Levelland, 90-69.

South Plains, champion of the Western Conference, had been rated right behind Dallas Baptist in the pre-tournament balloting.

Odessa, however, built up a four-point lead at half time and dominated the second half.

Rusty Heskett led the Wranglers in scoring with 20 points while Dwight Haley paced South Plains with 16.

In other games, Dallas Baptist easily vanquished Cayco, 99-75; Lubbock Christian kayced New Mexico Military and Ranger upended Amarillo College, 79-72.

Odessa faces Ranger at 9 o'clock tonight. The evening's first game pits Dallas Baptist against Lubbock Christian at 7 p.m.

The third place game Saturday starts at 7 p.m. while the championship will be determined in a 9 o'clock battle. The winner goes to the National Juco tournament at Hutchinson, Kan.

Jackets Eyeing Trip To NAAIA

MARSHALL, Tex. (AP)—Howard Payne, champion of the Lone Star Conference, has won a trip to the NAAIA basketball tournament.

Howard Payne beat East Texas Baptist 75-58 Thursday night to earn a spot in the Kansas City meet next week.

Tom Carter's 20 points paced Howard Payne, which led practically the entire game.

Clear Title For Mustangs

Coach E. O. "Doc" Hayes is as happy as the players that surround him in the SMU dressing room after the Mustangs defeated Texas Tech 99-89 in Dallas Thursday night. The Mustangs were added to a clear title when

Texas A&M lost to University of Arkansas in Fayetteville, Ark. This Southwest Conference championship is the seventh title Hayes has led the Mustangs to. This is unprecedented in conference history. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Montreal Shunts Title Go To Smaller Arena

MONTREAL (AP) — The beleaguered Cassius Clay-Ernie Terrell fight, kicked out of the United States, has lost the large Montreal Forum as a site and may wind up today in Verdun — a Montreal suburb — if it ever lands any place at all.

In the midst of a stormy meeting Thursday night between members of the Montreal Athletic Commission and the would-be promoters, a member of the commission said an official of the 15,000-seat Montreal Forum, had rejected the controversial fight.

"We'll take it to Verdun," said Robert Arum, a New York lawyer and an officer of Main Bout Inc., of New York which owns the closed circuit television and other ancillary rights of the projected March 29 heavyweight title bout.

He said the fight could be staged in the 5,500-seat Verdun Auditorium in the Montreal suburb. He hoped to arrange that in conferences today, with Mayor George O'Reilly.

The commission member, Paul Emile Sauvageau, told reporters at City Hall, the meeting place, that Frank Selke Jr., an official of the Canadian Arena Co., which owns the Forum, telephoned the commission to announce that the arena would not be available for the bout.

Reached at his home, Selke declined to confirm or deny the statement. He said anything further would have to come from the commission.

Conditions were that "everything must be in writing," including all contracts — the television-radio deal, the fighters' contracts with their managers and the promoters' agreements with the fighters.

Ponies Claim SWC Crown; Aggies Lose

Southern Methodist rode a sensational 10-game winning streak into the NCAA playoffs and Texas A&M, which dropped four of its last seven, finished second in the wild Southwest Conference basketball race.

They went down to the wire tied for the lead, but Southern Methodist topped Texas Tech 99-89 Thursday night and the Aggies faltered at Fayetteville where vengeful Arkansas closed out with a startling 94-71 upset.

One of the main things noted in the hectic race was that Doc Hayes, coach of Southern Methodist, took over the lead in championships.

This one is the fourth outright title for the Mustangs under Hayes. His teams also have tied for the title three times. Thus in 12 years—his first championship was in 1955—the amiable coach of the Mustangs has won or shared in seven titles.

Arkansas' victory might have been just the thing to put SMU over. The Methodists were trailing Texas Tech 60-57 when it was announced that the Aggies had fallen. The Mustangs then grabbed seven straight points in 50 seconds and went ahead to stay. Tech pulled within two points several times but never could catch the flying Mustangs.

Charles Beasley flipped in 28 points to lead SMU and Dub Malaise had the same total to top Texas Tech. Malaise also set a Tech career scoring record of 1,420 points, 25 more than Jim Reed compiled at Tech in 1953-56.

John Beasley of Texas A&M poked in 44 points against Arkansas to compile 631 points for the season and lead the conference scoring race by a wide margin. He averaged 27.4 points.

But Beasley was the only fellow who could score in double figures and didn't have enough help to put his team over. Meanwhile, John Talkington got 29, Tommy Poland 20 and Steve Rousseau 17 and that was just too much for the skidding Aggies.

Texas Tech, the pre-season championship favorite, closed out with a loss but still finished in third place.

Baylor whipped Texas 88-71 and that prevented the latter from tying Texas Tech. Instead the Longhorns deadlocked with Arkansas for fourth.

Texas Christian lashed Rice 93-86 and the Horned Frogs wound up in a tie with Baylor for sixth. Rice was last with a 1-13 record.

Darrell Hardy scored 40 points and set a new Baylor record as he led the Bears to their victory over Texas. He had a season total of 496.

JAMES ABBE LEAVING SUNDAY FOR LITTLE LEAGUE SESSION

James Abbe, associated with Little League baseball here for 12 years, leaves Sunday via air for St. Petersburg, Fla., where he will attend a four-day Little League Seminar for Southern Region administrators.

Abbe and 19 other district representatives from the South will be quartered with the St. Louis Cardinals at their Florida training base. Only other West Texan in the camp will be the Big Lake representative.

Abbe, who works in the Finance Department at the local Post Office, will take a week's vacation from his duties in order to make the trip.

Abbe has coached the Cardinals of the National League here over a dozen seasons. During that time, he has developed four league titlists and one year fielded the city champion.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The basketball success South Plains College of Levelland has experienced this season may be only an appetizer for the sport's buffs in that area.

Sports-minded Dr. Marvin Baker, president of the school and a former member of the HCJC faculty, foresees a fine future for the Texans and intends to see to it that the school is prepared for the boom that is likely to come in the athletic endeavor.

Voters in the South Plains school district have already given their blessings for a seven-figure bond issue. Of that amount, half a million dollars will go into the construction of a 5,300-seat coliseum, which will dwarf anything else in the Western Conference and likely prove a magnet for the talent that decides to cast its lot in the junior college ranks.

How badly is such a building needed at Levelland? Baker says that the Texans had excellent crowds at home all season and when the Texans played host to nearby Lubbock Christian College recently the gym was packed with 2,000 bug-eyed fans and another 400 had to be turned away.

Dr. Baker believes in going first class. He's seen to it that the Texans travel in style. The school fields a 62-piece band that accompanies the team on its major trips, plus an eye-catching group of half-time performers known as the Tex-Annes.

The coliseum will be something, when you consider the fact that Levelland boasts a population of only 12,000 and no major business boom is evidenced there. The college now has six dormitories (HCJC, by comparison, has only two) and is expanding in other areas (e.g., a new science building and a three-story library building are on the planning boards).

The South Plains team is smartly outfitted in bright-orange blazers for all its games. The psychology, no doubt, is that players are bound to take pride in an operation where the brain-trust thinks enough of a program to regard sartorial elegance as a complement to athletic talent. (It only costs a few cents more to go "lower berth," as the saying goes, you know.)

There may be greater friends of athletics among college administrators in this broad land than Dr. Baker but I doubt it. Marvin even took time to write the school song, although he professes to know nothing about music.

Head basketball coach Gene Gibson of Texas Tech and Leon Black, the University of Texas coaching aide, were on hand to watch HCJC's Kurt Papp against South Plains and the 6-foot-6 sophomore put them on quite a show in leading the Hawks to an 86-61 victory.

Gibson would also like to have South Plains Dwight Haley but Haley, from all indications, isn't going to play for any major senior college next year. He's deficient in English, although an A student in math.

Chances are Texas Tech will land Papp, unless Northwestern of the Big Ten offers Kurt a scholarship. Kurt could help restore Texas Tech to championship contention. He has that much potential.

South Plains gives a dozen scholarships in basketball but is thinking of downgrading track, mainly because the weather at Levelland in the spring is not conducive to a strong program.

Dr. Baker says he would like to see an intra-mural emphasis on track on the junior college level, reasons many more boys would benefit in that way.

The Western Conference basketball race is likely to have better balance in future years than it has had in the immediate past, because NMU, Lubbock Christian and Amarillo, as well as HCJC and Odessa, are all going out for the talent.

South Plains loses its first seven boys off this year's squad but has some splendid freshman talent returning.

Softball Parley Slated Tonight

Officers for the approaching season will be elected.

Crane, Lake Worth Are In State Cage Finals

AUSTIN (AP)—Clear Creek, a tournament veteran, and San Antonio Marshall, a newcomer, barged into the Class AAA finals Thursday night at the State Schoolboy Basketball Tournament.

Championship matches also were set up in Classes AA and A, and semifinalists were determined in B on the opening day of the 46th annual tournament.

Class AAAA, the big city schools, play for the first time today.

State title games in all classes are scheduled for Saturday.

Clear Creek, in the tournament for the ninth time, thrashed highly rated Kilgore 66-54 to close out the eight-game program Thursday night. The Wildcats joined Marshall, a narrow 53-52 victor over Andrews, in the title game. It's the Rams' first tournament trip.

Two defending champions advanced a step. Lake Worth of Fort Worth ripped past a young Rockdale team, 60-46, to gain the AA finals and Snook, from the Brazos Valley, won its 76th game over a two-year period, beating Bronte, a West Texas group, 55-40, to move into the Class B semifinals opposite Alba-Golde, which had a first-round bye.

Crane's Golden Cranes, a fast, high-jumping bunch from West Texas, used balanced scoring and a ball-hawking defense to crush Rockport 67-45 and gain the spot opposite Lake Worth.

Honey Grove, from Northeast Texas, and Gruver, third-place finisher from the Panhandle in 1965, gained the Class A finals.

Honey Grove pulled from behind with a 17-point fourth quarter to edge Woodsboro, 1965 runner-up, from the Gulf Coast, 50-46. Gruver got most of its points from Sam Tipton, Coach Wayne Tipton's son, to beat Fairfield, from East Texas, 61-57.

Tipton, an all-tournament selection last year, scored 30 points, including 16 in the third quarter. Most of his points were 15-50-22-foot jump shots. Paul Smith had 21 for Fairfield.

AT FORT WORTH

Jayhawk Track Team In Debut

Coach L. L. (Red) Lewis has taken his HCJC track and field team to Fort Worth for the annual Southwestern Recreational meet, scheduled today and Saturday.

The Hawks will be running against university freshmen, as well as other junior college entries, at Fort Worth. The meet is scheduled for Farrington Field.

Bad weather has handicapped the Hawks but the locals are probably as far along in their training as most of the other teams.

The locals figure to score heavily in the sprints, the mile and some of the field events. Sprinter Jimmy Jasper and miler Walter Reyna are being counted on to cop blue-ribbons in their events.

The meet opens the outdoor season for the Hawks, who next week go to Laredo to try and regain the team championship in the Border Olympics.

Making the trip from here will be Mike Gallagher, miler; Reyna, miler; Joe Kubec, miler; Roger Hill, quarter miler and both relays; Jasper, 100, 220 and both relays; Lynnwood Wright, 100, 220, both relays and broad jump; John Stavley, quarter miler and both relays; John Browning, quarter miler; Robert Horn, both hurdles and high jump; Harley Bynum, both hurdles; Joe Tighe, pole vault; and Joel Conway, pole vault.

Henry Willis, who only recently finished the season with the basketball team, may make the trip as a high and broad jumper.

The Hawks will be quartered at the Loring hotel.

Preliminaries in all events start at 8:30 a.m. while the finals are down for 1 p.m.

American Planes Unleash Biggest Air Power Display

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. Air Force Navy and Marine jets unleashed the Viet Nam war's greatest display of air power in the past 24 hours of attacks against Communist targets in North and South Viet Nam.

"It was our maximum effort," a spokesman said.

With the first good weather in more than a week, American planes flew 55 missions—double the usual number—deep into North Viet Nam. For the first time since the 37-day bombing pause ended Jan. 31, they ranged far north of Hanoi.

FOUND TARGETS

Air Force jets pounded bridges, trains and other railroad installations on tracks along the Red River line leading to Red China.

One flight went as far as the Lang Bun railroad bridge 120 miles northwest of Hanoi and about 40 miles from the Chinese frontier, the spokesman said. There was no assessment of damage.

But other Air Force planes, he said, knocked out a bridge 110 miles northeast of Hanoi and another 85 miles from the capital on the same rail line, and cut the tracks and damaged cars 100 miles northwest of the city.

55 MISSIONS

The Air Force flew a total of 55 missions. Navy planes flew 25. A mission usually involves more than one plane. The spokesman declined to reveal the number of individual sorties flown in the North but said they were twice the usual figure.

The pilots reported anti-aircraft fire but there was no anouncement on any planes lost in the North. In the South, Viet Cong guns brought down a Marine F4 Phantom south of Chu Lai. The pilot, 1st Lt. T. P. Keenan, and his radar officer, Capt. C. R. Fairchild, ejected over the South China Sea and were rescued by aircraft from the Marine base at Chu Lai.

Planes from the three American services flew an unusually high total of 501 combat sorties against targets in the South from Thursday until dawn today, the spokesman said.

BUILDINGS DESTROYED

Forward air controllers reported 370 buildings destroyed, 350 damaged, 10 sampans sunk and 10 fuel or ammunition dumps blown up.

A subsequent flight of six Air Force F100 Super Sabres at noon caught about 100 Viet Cong in a rice field after they fired on a spotter plane, a spokesman said. The jets killed 26 and pulverized seven buildings, he said.

Basic Approaches To War Remain Same; Shifts Minor

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — There have been many changes in the names of ministers, organizations, programs and personnel over the past few years in Viet Nam — but basic approaches do not seem to have changed much.

Beyond the continuing military buildup and vastly increased aid spending, there is nothing basically new in America's approach to the war.

After the Honolulu conference between President Johnson and Vietnamese leaders, a spokesman asked U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge: "Was there anything that we weren't doing that we were missing that required this new emphasis?"

Lodge replied: "We were doing everything but most people didn't know that we were doing it."

bureaucracy and corruption. Directly under Trueheart on the American side were Phillips and the CIA station chief, John Richardson, who worked closely with Nhu.

All that ended in the 1963 coup.

The strategic hamlets, hated from the outset by farmers forced to live in them, were swiftly dismantled by the farmers themselves, with active encouragement by the Viet Cong Civic action underwent changes. The word "pacification," thought to be politically unpleasant in its connotations, was changed to "rural reconstruction." A new "ministry of rural construction" was created.

Some of the ideas behind strategic hamlets were retained, but the name was changed to "new life hamlets."

Trueheart, Phillips and Richardson all left Viet Nam, and President Diem and his brother Nhu were slain in the 1963 coup.

Since then there have been countless political upheavals, coups and changes in planning,

The blind lead of a singleton against a suit contract in the hope of obtaining a ruff is a risky procedure and is not recommended unless the player has a sure trump trick, or else is convinced that his partner has the ace of the suit led. Today's hand where South was the declarer at a contract of four hearts is a good case in point.

West chose to open the five of clubs, North played the three and East's ten forced out declarer's ace. Trumps were drawn in three pulls and South led the queen of diamonds. West played the king and returned a diamond which declarer ruffed.

South led the queen of spades and West put up the ace. He exited with a spade and the next two tricks were taken by North's king and declarer's jack.

South had lost two tricks so far—one spade and one diamond. If the clubs were divided three-two, then he would have only one loser in that suit. West's opening lead appeared suspiciously like a singleton, however, and the declarer took precautions against that eventuality.

The four of clubs was led from the closed hand and, when West closed out, the seven was played from dummy.

East was in with the jack; however, on the return he must surrender a trick. If he led either a diamond or a spade, it would give the declarer a ruff and a discard. A club return, however, would eliminate South's loser in that suit.

If West had chosen some other suit for his opening lead, it is reasonable to suppose that the declarer would have gone set—losing two clubs in addition to a diamond and a spade.

Concho Blaze Kills Cattle

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Thirty cows and 10 calves perished as fire blackened several hundred acres of grass land at North Concho Lake near here Thursday.

Valued at $10,000, the black Angus cattle belonged to Angelo State College. Several were registered show stock. Most of the college farm is in the area swept by flames.

San Angelo firemen, with help from Goodfellow Air Force Base and neighboring towns, controlled the blaze after a six-hour battle.

Fires were extinguished in the same area Sunday and Monday. Investigators said they suspect arson.

Grass burned on the north, south and west sides of the lake, from which San Angelo draws its municipal water supply.

Man Believed Slayer Of Policeman Shot Down

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — A man believed to be the killer of a policeman was shot down early today after a manhunt through Louisiana's capital city. The fugitive, badly wounded, died minutes after his capture. The bullet-riddled body of David Selders, about 25, was taken from a wooded area at 2:30 a.m. after a three-hour gunbattle. With a pistol and a box of shells, Selders held off up to 150 officers attacking with tear gas, dogs, rifles and shotguns.

District Continues Midland Talks

Directors of the Colorado River Municipal Water District Thursday instructed the general manager and rate committee to continue negotiations with Midland for sale of surface water to that city. Negotiations have been under way for more than a month between the two bodies, and O. H. Ivie, general manager, said he was encouraged by progress of these discussions. He was hopeful that some agreement could be reached relatively soon. S. W. Freese, Fort Worth, consulting engineer for CRMWD, said that his firm was holding to a target date of July 1 for advertising of bids for a dam across the Colorado River above Robert Lee. Meantime, the district will have to issue revenue bonds, but the size of the issue will vary sharply according to whether Midland contracts to buy water from the district. Ivie said that the district has acquired 2,900 acres of land, mostly in the damsite in Coke County and is negotiating for 3,800 more acres. Other contracts will be made as rapidly as appraisals are available. The district will need about 16,500 acres in all. All of the survey work on the dam and lake is completed, said Ivie, and pressure tests on a model spillway are nearing a conclusion. The general manager also reported that studies were being made and estimates obtained on the cost of putting 32 oil wells in the lake basin above the high water mark, and of relocating several miles of the Sterling City-Robert Lee highway. A section of this road, including a bridge across the Colorado River, will be inundated. A program of recharging the Martin County well field with water from Lake J. B. Wife-Slaying Trial Ordered

PUEBLA, Mexico (AP) — A Texas man was in a Mexican jail today awaiting trial on a charge of murder in the death of his wife. On the basis of a preliminary investigation, a court Thursday ordered the trial for Roy A. Warner, 28, of Waco. Mrs. Barbara Lee Warner, 26, of McGregor, Tex., was struck in the neck by a 22 caliber rifle bullet Monday. The shooting occurred on a highway near this city southeast of Mexico City. Warner said he and his wife were married last December and had come to Mexico to live. He said they met while he was in a veterans hospital at Waco. Under Mexican law, Warner's trial will consist of intermittent hearings and studies by the

WASHINGTON (AP) — Attention turns now to Congress in the continuing controversy over that fast-growing television offshoot called Community Antenna Television — CATV for short. Will Congress let the Federal Communications Commission regulate the entire CATV industry?

Will Congress let the FCC impose restrictions on CATV operations to protect FCC-licensed television stations?

COURT SCRUTINY Will the FCC's recent assumption of jurisdiction over the CATV industry survive Supreme Court scrutiny if the question is carried there, as FCC Chairman E. William Henry says he assumes it will be?

The CATV — or cable television — story reached another turning point Feb. 15 when the FCC issued its long-awaited decision on whether — and how — to regulate the 17-year-old industry. Both broadcaster and CATV operators found some comfort in the FCC pronouncement — but also were dissatisfied with some aspects. The commission extended its jurisdiction to all community antenna systems in the country, except those serving fewer than 50 homes. (The National Community Antenna Association estimates there are 1,600 CATV systems with more than 50 subscribers — and possibly as many as 400 smaller ones.)

BLACKOUT RULE The FCC withdrew from the rule books one decree that had greatly disturbed the CATV industry. That rule required CATV operators to blackout duplicating programs, being piped in from distant stations, for 15 days before and after the local stations scheduled them for broadcast. Under the rule — applied nearly a year ago to the 450 CATV systems over which the FCC then claimed jurisdiction — a station could tape a network program for use days later. The local CATV operator would be bound to tune out on that program as it picked it up from a distant television station carrying it at the time the network transmitted it, and couldn't carry that program for 15 days after the local station decided to use it.

ONLY 1 DAY Extending its jurisdiction throughout the industry, the FCC wiped out that rule. It said instead that nonduplication need be confined only to the same day the local station carries a program. And it said the nonduplication requirement applies to "prime time" network programs "only if such programs are presented by the local station entirely within what is locally considered to be prime time" (normally between 7 and 11 p.m.). Since 1950 the nation has seen the growth of an industry that erects big television antennas near a community, amplifying the signals of nearby and distant television stations and relaying them by coaxial cable into the homes of subscribers, who pay a monthly fee averaging $4.50.

The National Community Television Association — NCTA — the CATV industry's trade association — estimates the industry took in $115 million last year. It can be profitable because, after the large initial installation and construction costs, the overhead is low. CATV systems do not pay for the programs they pick up. They say they are an expanded version of the television set owner's household antenna or the master antennas on big apartment buildings.

GROWS BIG CATV originated in small, remote communities where television reception was poor or nonexistent. But over the years, the innovation caught fire, and the industry — with clearer pictures and greater program selection as selling points — began moving into big cities already served by several stations.

Some CATV systems — today about 450 — fell under FCC control last April because they employ microwave relay systems — FCC-regulated — to pick up distant signals, strengthening and retransmitting them every 35 miles or so, until they reach the community antenna.

As the industry expanded, television station operators became alarmed. Through the National Association of Broadcasters, FCC licensees complained that CATV was becoming a threat to free television, and urged the FCC to clamp down on it. CATV interests argued that no television station had been forced out of business or lost money because of CATV.

With its 1965 decision to regulate microwave-served CATV, the FCC asked Congress to legislate the limits of government regulation over the industry. Beyond hearings, no congressional action resulted.

Mark Barr's Steer Goes On The Block

Mark Barr's 945-pound Hereford, Skeeter, which won the reserve grand championship steer honors at Houston Thursday, was to be sold at the auction sale today. His steer will be one of the top steers of all breeds to go into the sale ring.

Barr's steer, which won the grand championship of the junior Hereford division, lost out the junior top honors to Paul Holloway, 14, Taylor County, Holloway showed an Angus which went on to take the top honors for all steers at the Houston show.

The show's record price for a grand champion steer is the $20,500 received by Dan McBride, 13, of Llano in 1964 for a Hereford. Last year Rhonda Cook of Goldthwaite sold her grand champion, also a Hereford, for $14,600.

Ten fat steers went before the judges Thursday night at the Astrodome but young Holloway's animal was the only finalist with a perfect record after two days of judging and was a heavy favorite to capture the top prize.

Barr's reserve grand champion took the Hereford breed that eliminated the open show's champion, a 1,000-pound animal showed by Donald Simons of Marcus, Iowa.

Seven of the 10 breed champions and reserve champions were junior show entries. Open class exhibitors had only the Shorthorn champion and reserve champion and the Angus reserve champion.

Owners of the top winners: Angus — Paul Holloway, 14, Taylor County, champion; Roger Worthington, Emington, Ill., and Fred Frey, Quarryville, Pa., reserve champion. Herefords —

Mark Barr, 16, Howard County, champion, and Rhonda Cook, 15, Mills County, reserve champion. Shorthorns — George Inness, Galesburg, Ill., champion and reserve champion.

Brahman — Bert Neslovey, 12, Bee County, champion, and Lynn Esse, 13, Campbellton, reserve champion.

Charolais — Kathy Groves, 9, Kempner, champion, and Amy Moore, 13, Moran, reserve champion.

Wilburn Holloway, 17, brother of Paul, had the reserve champion steer of the Angus show. Wilburn exhibited the Houston Show's grand champion steer, an Angus, in 1961, selling it for $12,000.

The brothers are sons of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holloway. Their father is a Taylor County wheat farmer.

The grand champion lamb, a 96-pound Southdown showed by Aime Real, 13, of Kerrville, sold Tuesday at auction for $3,200. The buyer was Bell T. Masterson Jr., president of the Lone Star Beer Co. of Houston.

The reserve champion lamb, owned by Bob Kopp of Lockney, sold for $1,150 to Billy Mitchell, a show vice president.

The grand champion barrow was a Hampshire showed by Chuck Smallwood of Canyon. The reserve champion, also a Hampshire, was owned by Franklin Harris of Floydada.

Leads Life Of Prayer

Ferdinand Waldo Demara, once known as 'The Great Impostor,' seems happy with his new life — that of an apostate at an interfaith monastery at Wien, Mo. Demara, who was the subject of a book and a movie called 'The Great Impostor,' has been a Trappist monk, surgeon in the Canadian navy during the Korean war, warden of a Texas penitentiary, college professor, school master and a sheriff. Demara says he is now devoting his life to Christian unity, work and prayer. (AP WIREPHOTO)

'Impostor' Now In A Monastery

WIEN, Mo. (AP)—Ferdinand Waldo Demara, nicknamed "The Great Impostor" for successfully impersonating a surgeon, a college professor and a civil engineer, is living as a postulant in an interfaith monastery.

"I expect to stay here the rest of my life," said Demara, 43, Friday when he was interviewed in the quarters of the Brotherhood of Christian Unity.

"I have come here to Wien to dedicate my life to Christian unity, to work and prayer," he said. "This is the only interfaith community in the world."

Demara, subject of a book and movie titled, "The Great Impostor," picked a desolate place to hide from the public eye he says follows him whenever he is uncovered. Wien, with a population of 35, is away from major highways in a farming area of northern Missouri. The membership of the brotherhood stands at five.

Father Joseph Starmann, a Roman Catholic priest, founded the brotherhood in 1964.

"People have the idea that I went through life thumbing my nose at officialdom," said Demara, known now as Brother Frederick. "That's not so. My life really has been a series of tragedies."

He occasionally dons a black cassock over his 6-foot, 250-pound frame to give scientific demonstrations to the 54 students who attended St. Mary's School across the street.

David McBrayer, a photographer for the Daily News-Bulletin in nearby Brookfield, spotted him at a Parent-Teacher Association meeting this week on one of the few forays to the outside world Demara has made since he came here last Thanksgiving.

"I have good reason to avoid news people," Demara said. "I have been misquoted and lied about. I would like not to have any story at all. When I came here I gave Father Starmann my full background and I was accepted on the condition there would be no publicity."

Father Starmann said Demara presented letters showing he was ordained by the American Evangelical Church, headquartered in Chicago.

Demara says he left his Lawrence, Mass., home at 16 and joined a Cistercian order.

By his own account, he transferred to another order, went AWOL from the Army and Navy, and became a Trappist monk. He says he later taught psychology at colleges in Erie, Pa., and Lacy, Wash. The FBI arrested him in Washington and he served 1½ years as a deserter.

Later he acquired the credentials of a Canadian physician, Demara's account says, and, as a Royal Canadian Navy doctor, performed a number of operations on wounded men in the Korean war.

The doctor whose credentials

Parents For Missionary Youngsters In Japan

A former Big Spring couple are "parents" for 12 high-schooled missionaries' children living in a Baptist dormitory and attending the American School in Tokyo, Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Galen Bradford who are serving as missionary associates of the Southern Baptist Foreign Mission Board, first came to Big Spring during World War II when he was assigned to the Big Spring Bombardier School. Later, after the base was reactivated, he was assigned to Webb Air Force Base as operations officer.

Both Bradfords were active in the First Baptist Church, where one of the missionary circles is named for Mrs. Bradford. It was while on duty in Japan that they felt a call to the mission field, and they became the first missionary aides of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The Bradfords' "children," except for three of their own (a fourth, Delinda Ann Bradford attends Howard County Junior College), come from areas of Japan which have no nearby English-language high schools.

"We try to treat these children like our own," said Mrs. Bradford. "It's challenging and rewarding work and never dull." Her responsibilities in the 22-room dormitory include the usual parental duties of helping with homework, planning meals, shopping, and nursing the sick.

The Bradford family is active in suburban Chofu Baptist Church, the second English-language church they have helped to organize. The first was Tokyo Baptist Church, begun when Bradford was stationed in Japan as a major in the United States Air Force. Five of the family are charter members of the Tokyo church.

Mrs. Bradford also writes two columns for "Japas News," a newsletter published by Southern Baptist missionaries in Japan.

Both Bradfords attended Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary following his retirement from the Air Force in 1960. He also attended John

PRAYERS ANSWERED

The fact that there is no such thing as an unanswered prayer gives light to man's communion with God in the International Sunday School lesson for Sunday. The text is taken from Psalm 116: Luke 11:1-13; John 14:15-17, 18-19; Hebrews 4:14-16; and 1 John 1:1-4.

The lesson points out that God is tireless in seeking communion with man, but man must do several things to get God to answer his prayers with a "yes." Intelligent, reverent preparation is necessary before man seeks communion with God, either through prayer or through a knowledge of the Bible and Christ. But, as the lesson points out, every man must know Christ for himself, in his own heart, before he can truly find communion with God.

First To Do It

CANTERBURY, England (AP)—When the Archbishop of Canterbury and Primate of England, Dr. Michael Ramsey, went down on his knees in the parish church of Chartham, three miles from here, it was not to pray. He was in fact taking a rubbing of the famous Sir Robert de Septvans brass on the church floor, which bears the date 1306. Dr. Ramsey thinks he is the first Primate to have rubbed a brass with his own hands.

Liberace Still Showmanship Phenomenon

By BOB THOMAS AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Liberace calls himself Mr. Showmanship. His detractors have called him the wizard of ooze. By any name he is a phenomenon in the entertainment industry.

By all logic, his career should now be limited to playing club dates in retirement cities. During the height of the Liberace craze his appeal seemed centered with the geriatric set who wanted to grandmother him.

LARGE AUDIENCE Yet Liberace is entering his second quarter-century as an entertainer and he possesses a large and diversified audience.

WAS MOCKED "My image in the beginning — during the white-heat period — was mocked and mimicked," he analyzed. "But as the years went on, people began to realize that I, myself, kidded the Liberace image."

Counterfeiting Term Meted

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — David M. Lott, 24, needed some extra money, so he used an office photo copying machine to reproduce several $20 bills.

A friend added a dash of green with crayon, and Lott paid a waitress with one of the bills at a Fort Worth tavern last Oct. 16. A toll gate attendant on the Dallas-Fort Worth Turnpike refused to accept another from Lott a week later.

Secret Service agents soon picked him up, and the Dallas theater employe pleaded guilty Feb. 1.

"You didn't do a very good job, did you?" said U.S. Dist. Judge Sarah T. Hughes as he appeared for sentencing yesterday. "No, I sure didn't," Lott replied. "It was a dumb thing to do."

Judge Hughes sentenced him to 18 months in a federal reformatory.

New York City Mayor To Request More Taxes

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor John V. Lindsay says he wants authority to raise another $520 million a year in taxes to save New York from paralysis and decay, but he faces tough opposition in the City Council and in the state Legislature.

Lindsay said in a radio and television talk Thursday night that he will ask the Legislature on Monday for permission to impose a personal and a business income tax to provide the bulk of new revenue needed to meet a record $4.5-billion budget.

COOL TO PROPOSALS At Albany, even within Lindsay's own Republican party, legislators were reported to be cool to the proposals unless the city raises its 15-cent bus and subway fare to pay part of the transit deficit.

Within the Democratic-controlled City Council reaction to the tax proposals was mixed. Several councilmen angrily walked out of a briefing Lindsay gave the council before the broadcast.

Other sweeping tax reforms were proposed by the mayor in the 15-minute fireside chat, including a stock transfer tax.

That proposal has caused the New York Stock exchange to exhume its 33-year-old threat to move to New Jersey.

URGENT NEED Lindsay said that when he took office two months ago he found the city in "shocking financial condition" and said if he was unable to get the new revenue the city's services would be "severely damaged."

The anger within the City Council apparently came not so much from what Lindsay said, but with the way he said it.

"He talked to us like school children in short pants," said George Swetnick, a Brooklyn Democrat. "We don't need a lecture on the city budget."

The new revenue package would amount to about $67 for every man, woman and child in New York City.

ARE ALL BELIEVERS SAVED

Many people accept a doctrine that all one has to do to be saved is to believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Is this the teaching of the Bible?

UNSAVED BELIEVERS

The Demons Believe

Numerous examples are recorded in the Bible of those who became believers on Christ yet were unsaved. James gave one such example as he described the spiritual condition of the demons: "Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and tremble." (James 2:19).

Believers Baptized

When Peter preached the first gospel sermon on the day of Pentecost, thousands of Jews became believers as the Word of God was spoken. But they were yet unsaved believers for they asked, "What shall we do?" Peter answered these believers, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ..." (Acts 2:38).

Another Unsaved Believer

Saul of Tarsus became a believer in Christ when the light from heaven blinded him on the Damascus Road, but he was unsaved. This believer asked Jesus, "What will thou have me to do?" (Acts 9:6). The Lord answered "Arise, and go into the city and it shall be told thee what thou must do" (Acts 9:6). The Lord sent Ananias to tell him "...arise and be baptized and wash away thy sins" (Acts 22:16). Thus, he could not have been saved, even though he was a believer, for he was yet in his sins.

Believers Deny Christ

John recorded the story of a group of Jews who became believers in Jesus, yet they would not confess Him. (John 12:42). Jesus said, "But whosoever shall deny Me before men, hfm will I deny before My father which is in heaven." (Matthew 10:33). These examples prove conclusively that a person can believe on Jesus Christ as the Son of God and still be eternally lost.

These Bible examples enable us to see and understand that some WERE BELIEVERS, yet WERE NOT SAVED. We understand also that those who were BELIEVERS OBEIENT to God's commands were justified before Him. . . . He (Christ) became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that OBEY Him." (Hebrews 5:9).

SAVED BELIEVERS

There are also many examples of those who became believers in Jesus who were saved because their faith was active and working. "For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith which worketh by love." (Galatians 5:6).

Christ's Last Words

When Christ made known the terms of salvation He told His disciples, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." (Mark 16:15-16).

Believers in Samaria

"Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ unto them. . . . But when they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women." (Acts 8:5, 12). These believers, were obedient to the command of Christ to be baptized.

Simon Believes

Another example from the New Testament is that Simon, who, as a believer, obeyed the Lord's command. "Then Simon himself believed also; and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip." (Acts 8:13).

Ethiopian Eunuch

The queen's treasurer, when returning from Jerusalem, was joined by Philip who "preached unto him Jesus," which resulted in this man asking to be baptized. "And Philip said, If thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest." The treasurer confessed his faith in Christ and was baptized. . . . and went on his way rejoicing." (Acts 8:35-39).

Believers Have Power to Be Saved

The apostle John said, by inspiration, "But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." (John 1:12). Our Lord did not say that one becomes a child of God by faith alone, but one who DOES BELIEVE in Christ has POWER TO BECOME God's child. His faith makes his heart receptive to further commands of Jesus to repent, to be baptized for the remission of sins and to enjoy the blessing of forgiveness.

Fourth Candidate Enters City Race

Four persons have now filed to seek election to the three City Commission openings in the April 5 election.

Latest to file is Tony Taroni, shipping foreman for the Sid Richardson Carbon plant. Three others have filed for re-election. They are Mayor George Zachariah, and commissioners Arnold Marshall and W. L. (Squeaky) Thompson, whose two-year terms expire.

Taroni filed with C. L. McCleeny, city secretary, Thursday, two days before the Saturday deadline.

Taroni said today: "I have been thinking about seeking election for several months. I think every citizen ought to seek public office at some time or other."

Taroni, his wife, Ruby Leah, and their two children have been in Big Spring since the opening of the Sid Richardson plant in June, 1961. The Taronis and their children, Toni Lynn, 17, and Thomas, 15, live at 2220 Brent Drive.

A native of Texarkana, Tex., Taroni is a veteran of World War II. He served with the horse cavalry, and was in the same regiment as Larry Crow, city manager.

He is a graduate of Texarkana High School and attended Ouachita Baptist College, Arkadelphia, Ark.

The Taronis came here from Gurdon, Ark., where Taroni had been in business for himself, operating a variety store, for 15

Cotham To Be On Program

Perry B. Cotham, minister of the Fourteenth and Main Church of Christ, will leave Sunday night following the worship service to attend the West Coast Florida-Lectureship in Tampa, Fla.

Cotham has been chosen as the featured speaker for this year, speaking twice each day, Monday through Thursday.

The meeting is attended by preachers, church leaders, and Bible school teachers of the Church of Christ over the state. Other ministers of the area in Florida will also appear on the program.

Damage Suit Asks $49,000

Leon Willis Walker, who gives his residence as Oklahoma, has brought a damage suit in his own behalf and that of his 8-year-old son, Ronnie, against Dr. R. B. G. Cowper and the Cowper Hospital and Clinic.

The suit filed in the 118th District Court asks $49,000 and alleges that the boy was hurt in Big Spring on Jan. 11 in a carpenter's accident. The child suffered a fractured leg, the petition recites, and was brought to the hospital by his mother, then living in Big Spring. Walker alleges his son is permanently crippled and blames the surgeon and hospital.

Window Shot

Officers found a "perfect, roundhole" about two feet above the ground in a plate glass window in Modesta's Book Store Thursday. The hole resembled one a bullet might make, officers said, but they were unable to find a bullet inside the store, which is in College Park Shopping Center.

Eggs Thrown

A number of eggs were hurled at residents' property last night, but no one got egg on his face, officers said.

The first incident reported was at the O. C. Moore residence, 1200 Scurry. Moore told officers eggs were hurled against the door of his home from a passing car, about 10 p. m. At 10:45 p. m., the pickup of George Anderson, 1705 Purdue, was egged, Anderson told officers.

Tire Stolen

Raymond Lane, 607 NW 5th, said a tire and wheel were stolen from his pickup Thursday while it was parked at his home.

Car Stoned

Felix Garcia, 811 N. Gollad, told officers Thursday that he heard a loud noise during Wednesday night, and that when he went to his car Thursday morning, he found the right front door dented and the window broken. He said he found a large rock near the car.

Minor Wreck

Only one minor traffic accident was recorded in the city Thursday, officers said. No one was injured. Officers said the accident involved the cars of Charles Rodney Stigen, 3900 Kenwood, Odessa, and George William Elliott, 1811 Lancaster, on US 80 west.

Education Group Organizes Today

Only Two On Glasscock Ballot

GARDEN CITY—Two names are on the ballot for two places on the Glasscock County school trustee election April 2.

Deadline for filing passed with B. R. Seidenberger, incumbent, and James Johnson listed as candidates. D. M. White, the other incumbent, has resigned from the county and has resigned his place on the board.

Balloting will be at Garden City, St. Lawrence and Lee's.

DEAR ABBY

Wife Should Scrub Him

DEAR ABBY: About a year ago Wilbur started taking his baths somewhere else. I told him I wanted him to take his baths at home—but it didn't do any good. I finally got a legal separation and we lived apart for nearly three months. Then Wilbur came begging back, saying he was lonesome for me and the kids. We have seven. I put my pride aside and took him back because he promised he would take his baths at home. Well, he did, for about a month, then he started taking them somewhere else again. Am I wrong for wanting Wilbur to take his baths at home? How should I handle this?

WILBUR'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: What's your complaint? WHERE, exactly, has your bathing beauty been bathing? If Wilbur's giving the Y.M.C.A. his business, skip it. But if he has been splashing around with some mermaid, YOU give HIM the business. And if you can prove it, he'll be up to his neck in hot water!

DEAR ABBY: A very close friend asked me to marry him as he was in trouble and this was the only solution for him. I was assured by him and his attorney that this would be strictly a legal proceeding and a divorce would be arranged after one year. I agreed. Now, I find myself wondering what I am going to do with him when I find myself married to him again? There never has been anything between this friend and myself, nor could there ever be. Do you think my fiancé would ever understand, and believe that I married this friend as a favor and nothing more?

IN NAME ONLY

DEAR IN NAME: Tell your "very close" friend to find himself another puppet bride, you've

Ship Comforts War-Weary Infantrymen

ABOARD CRUISER TOPEKA off South Viet Nam (AP) — The venerable U.S. cruiser Topeka provides troops of the 101st Airborne Division with both guns and butter.

For some time now, the Topeka, commissioned in 1943, has been firing barrages from its six-inch naval rifles in support of 101st operations in the Tuy Hoa area. And the sailors' thoughts were with the 101st troops who endure searing heat while wading through rice paddies and climbing steep hills in search of the Viet Cong.

RELATIVELY EASY

Although the Navy men work long hours, they realize that they have it relatively easy compared to the infantrymen. So Rear Adm. D. C. Irvine, commander of cruisers and destroyers in the 7th Fleet, conceived the idea of making his ships floating rest and recreation centers for the foot soldiers.

Daily, 101st helicopters fly enlisted men from combat to the Topeka or the cruiser Vanbera.

As Pfc. Aaron Hicks of Albany, Ga., put it: "The ship might seem like an old bucket to those sailors but to us it's heaven."

BEST CHOW

The soldiers, no matter what their rank, eat in the chief petty officers' mess. As anyone who has spent much time aboard ship knows, the chiefs have a way of coming up with the best. The soldiers are bearded, dirty and tired when they get off the helicopters.

They are given a friendly greeting by their comrades in the Navy, taken to air-conditioned rooms and to the showers. A shower and clean clothes can be an incredible luxury to a man weary from infantry duty.

GET 'LUXURIES'

Refreshed, the men are given a VIP tour of the ship, fed excellent Navy chow and permitted to buy whatever they want from the ship's store.

"If they want something we don't have in the ship's store, we'll find it for them somewhere," a Navy officer said.

One of the most appreciated aspects of the visit is a night's sleep in a real bed between clean sheets, something that is only a fond memory to infantrymen.

In many cases, Hicks' for instance, this is the first time they have ever had a sea voyage. Most of them flew to Viet Nam from the United States.

PREFER AIR

Although impressed with the power, ability and comfort of the Navy, airborne pride still shines through.

After 24 hours aboard the ship, a newsman asked Hicks whether he would join the Navy if he had it all to do over again. "Airborne all the way," he grinned.

OTHER CANDIDATE

The other military candidate is Col. Miguel Angel Ponciano, 52, of the National Liberation Movement, who resigned as chief of the army general staff to become a candidate.

His party is that of the late President Carlos Castillo Armas, who ousted the Communist-lined regime of Jacobo Arben in a U.S.-supported coup in June, 1954. Castillo Armas was assassinated in 1957.

The civilian candidate is Julio Cesar Mendez Montenegro, put up by the Leftist Revolutionary party to replace his brother Mario, who was killed last year. Mario's death was first reported as a suicide but his brother says it was caused by "criminal hands."

FRAUD FEARED

Mendez Montenegro said Thursday he is confident of victory in a free election but fears that the government may attempt electoral fraud to impose Aguilar.

"If there is a fraud, the situation could become extremely serious," he said. "It might deteriorate into civil war" and a repetition of the Dominican revolution, he said.

Ponciano's party in full-page newspaper advertisements has also been warning that Guatemala could become another Dominican Republic or a Viet Nam. The ads urge voters to cast their ballots against communism and for Ponciano.

In a communique this week the government denounced what it called a tendency "to create and foment a prejudgment of electoral fraud based on totally false and imaginary suppositions."

It accused some politicians of making allegations of fraud to pave the way for subversive action if the results go against them.

WARNING ISSUED

The government has taken preventive measures and any outbreak of violence "will be energetically repressed," the communique said.

The government also took issue Thursday with a statement by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., that prospects of a civil disorder in Guatemala may cause U.S. intervention.

"If anyone thinks the United States can intervene in Guatemala as it did in the Dominican Republic, they are very wrong," the government said in a communique. Such a suggestion shows complete ignorance, it said.

Heated Election Campaign Nears Windup In Guatemala

GUATEMALA CITY (AP) — A bitter election campaign is drawing to a close in Guatemala with two of the three presidential candidates warning that "another Santo Domingo" could develop.

In the election on Sunday Guatemalans also will elect a vice president, 54 members of the National Assembly and more than 300 mayors and municipal councils.

The presidential candidates are two military men generally described as rightists and a former dean of the San Carlos University law school who is considered a moderate leftist.

Col. Juan de Dios Aguilar, 54, of the new Institutional Democratic party is considered the government's candidate. The government denies backing Aguilar, but the other candidates insist that its chief, Col. Enrique Peralta Azurdia, is making every effort to impose Aguilar on the country.

Aguilar is an engineer who resigned as general manager of the National Electrification Institute to run.
