Gerda Munsinger, figure in a Canadian political scandal, is shown in her apartment in Munich, Germany. Labor Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada has dared the Conservative opposition to try to throw him

Canada Scandal Gerda Protests 'Spy' Tag

OTTAWA (AP) — Gerda Munsinger, shapely German blonde whose name is linked to Canada's boiling sex-security scandal, was reported Saturday preparing a quick trip to Canada to dispute a charge that she was a spy or a security risk to a former defense official.

But Canada's immigration department raised a question whether she could be permitted to return to this country. The Toronto Star said in a copyright dispatch from Germany that Mrs. Munsinger planned to stay out of sight for the weekend and get her documents in order for a flight to Canada early this week.

Justice Minister Lucien Cardin brought the affair into the open at a news conference Thursday when he said a woman named Munsinger, whom he identified as an espionage agent before she entered Canada in 1955, was involved with two or more ministers in the Cabinet of Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker, now the Conservative party leader.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson has called for an investigation into his justice minister's charges and said he is ready to stake the life of the Liberal party government on the outcome.

Mrs. Munsinger, she brought in the name of Pierre Seigny, the associate defense minister under Diefenbaker until 1963.

"I know Pierre Seigny in a social manner," Reguly quoted her as saying Saturday. "There was not the slightest suggestion that I was gaining information from him."

Legion Makes Dual Awards At Anniversary Celebration

C. A. Walker, World War I veteran, and Carl Campbell, secretary-treasurer of the Cactus Paint Mfg. Co. were recipients of the annual American Legion Awards from Howard County Post 355 at the Legion banquet Saturday night.

Walker, who was presented the World War I Veterans Award, served in the Army during his WWI days. He came to Howard County in the 1930's to establish a drug store. He has been active in the Legion through the years, and was a driving force in re-chartering the Howard County Post. Walker has served for many years on the executive committee of the Post, as well as several other important committees.

Campbell, recipient of the Legion's Outstanding Citizenship Award, is an active participant as vice president of the Buffalo Trails Council. He has been on the Lone Star District Committee for the past 14 years and was presented the Silver Beaver award, highest award in Scouting, in 1961. Campbell retired from the Shell Oil Co., St. Louis, Mo., after 30 years in the Industrial Sales and Lubrication Engineering Dept. He came to Howard County in February, 1952. He is a member of the American Meteorology Society, the American Philatelic Society, and the Chemical and Professional Engineers Society.

Governors Back Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Governors of 38 states met with President Johnson on Saturday and afterwards voted unanimously that they "wholeheartedly support and endorse" his policies in Viet Nam.

The vote, taken in the historic Blue Room of the White House, was announced by Republican Gov. John Reed of Maine. Reed told reporters he plans to get in touch with the 12 governors who were not present to seek their support for the resolution.

"There is no question in my mind they will all respond affirmatively," he said.

Johnson said he is gratified by the vote on the resolution, the key paragraph of which said:

has been running a little below estimates this year. But he said it is too soon to decide whether higher taxes will be needed to finance the war.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara told the state executives he saw no need at this time to call military Reserves to active duty because of the war in Viet Nam, though he didn't foreclose the possibility later.

Referring to periodic requests for more troops by the U.S. commander in Viet Nam, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, McNamara said: "I think we can meet Gen. Westmoreland's needs and fill our requirements without calling up the Reserves."

"STATE OF WORLD"

Johnson had invited the chief executives to the White House to discuss, in his words, "the state of the world, the state of the nation and the state of the states."

Gemini Launch Spacemen Get Green Light

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Gemini 8 astronauts Saturday received a green light for a Tuesday launching after they resolved a spacecraft hatch-closing problem.

The spacemen, Neil A. Armstrong and David R. Scott, reported they were ready for the action-packed three-day journey during which they are to make four separate hookups with another satellite and Scott is to step into the emptiness of space for a record walk of nearly 2 1/2 hours.

A mission review board of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Air Force and industry officials gave the go-ahead for Tuesday's spectacular doubleheader launching after studying all factors of the flight: the Titan 2 and Atlas Agena rockets, the Gemini 8 spacecraft, control centers here and in Houston, Tex., the global tracking network and recovery forces.

New Strong Man Suharto In Seat

SINGAPORE (AP) — Indonesia's anti-Communist army restricted President Dr. Sukarno to his Jakarta palace Saturday night and held First Deputy Premier Subandrio a virtual prisoner there, informants here reported.

These reports reached Singapore after Jakarta radio announced the nation's new strong man, Lt. Gen. Suharto, acting under Sukarno's name, had dissolved and outlawed Indonesia's huge Communist party, world's largest outside the Communist bloc.

YIELDS REINS

Another broadcast carried excerpts from a palace ceremony, earlier in the day in which Sukarno officially turned over control to Suharto, the Indonesian army chief.

Singapore sources, receiving independent reports from Indonesia, said even army generals who supported Sukarno had turned against him.

The next steps in the political turmoil in the world's fifth largest nation likely will be a purge of pro-Communists from Sukarno's 99-man Cabinet and trials for other pro-Chinese Communist officials, the informants said.

ROLE IN COUP

Some army leaders and others have accused Sukarno of having been involved in the Communist-led attempted coup last Oct. 1. Two Communist leaders have been sentenced to death in connection with that attempt and some reports say they have been executed.

The Singapore sources said developments in Indonesia indicated Suharto is firmly in control and the chances were against a comeback by Sukarno.

These sources picture him as merely a figurehead now. The 64-year-old leader had been designated "president for life" several years ago.

In the broadcast of excerpts of the palace ceremony, Suharto told government officials Indonesia's new regime will move the nation neither to the right nor the extreme left.

LEFTIST PATH

"We are already left," he said, indicating the regime would maintain a leftist course.

That broadcast said Subandrio was at the ceremony and it referred to him as the first deputy premier. He also is foreign minister.

This led the informants here to speculate that Sukarno may only have taken one step to the side and two forward and still was maneuvering to hold power. They added, however, that subsequent information reaching Singapore indicated Sukarno no longer wielded real power and that Subandrio was being held virtually a prisoner.

GEN. SUHARTO

DR. SUKARNO

PREMIER SUBANDRIO

Subandrio moved last month as defense minister.

Suharto and Nasution managed to get all the armed forces chiefs on their side after a series of secret meetings in Bandung and Jakarta early this month. These included such pro-Sukarno generals as the new defense minister, Maj. Gen. Sarbini, and the Jakarta garrison commander, Brig. Gen. Amir Machmood.

Cong Mortar Hits Barracks

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Viet Cong mortar shells a Vietnamese military barracks area Saturday night at Vung Tau, a peninsula town on the South China Sea 40 miles southeast of Saigon. They struck about 10 p.m., lobbing in a half-dozen 81mm rounds.

Five persons were reported killed and 37 wounded. Women and children were among the casualties. All servicemen at Vung Tau, including Americans, took up duty stations.

Vying for attention were political developments.

STAGE PROTESTS

Students and Buddhists, powerful factors in past Saigon upheavals, protested at meetings in four cities against the military government's dismissal of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Tri. Some off-duty Vietnamese troops took part.

More demonstrations of a similar nature are expected. There was no immediate indication whether they may gain enough momentum to threaten Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's three-month-old regime.

The explosion of an ammunition barge moored on the Saigon

River two miles outside town destroyed about 350 tons of shells and cartridges, including some for 105mm howitzers. The barge, and two others nearby, burned and sank.

CONG SABOTAGE

A government spokesman said there was a possibility of Viet Cong sabotage. Other sources, however, said the ammunition may have been touched off by a cooking fire of the crewmen. All aboard got off before the blast and there were no casualties.

Vietnamese military spokesmen announced their troops killed 37 Viet Cong in a search and destroy operation Friday across Mekong River delta territory about 100 miles south of Saigon.

HUNT SURVIVORS

U.S. Marine and Air Force fliers pressed a hunt for additional survivors of the Ashau Valley special forces camp that fell Thursday to a reinforced North Vietnamese regiment.

Military sources in Da Nang, 60 miles southeast of the camp, said helicopters had brought out 204, including 32 American servicemen.

Dist. Judge George C. Hill, 42, was appointed by Governor Connally the next day as secretary of state.

Hill has practiced law in Houston since 1947, the year he was graduated from the University of Texas Law School. He attended public schools at Wink and Kilgore and also attended Kilgore Junior College.

Big Spring Week

The last go-round of the re-prepare for voters comes this week. If you haven't taken advantage of the belated offer of free registration, you have until Thursday. You can go to the tax collector's office or mail in your application on an official form (such as in The Herald). That just isn't any good reason why any eligible person should not qualify to vote.

Volunteers Knock Today To Give Others Opportunity

Over 375 volunteer workers are scheduled to take part in the door-to-door Easter Seals campaign from 1 to 4 p.m. today in an effort to keep pace with the increasing number of crippled children and adults in Big Spring.

Funds derived from the Easter Seals campaign are used in part by the local chapter of the society to buy personal equipment for patients at the Howard County Rehabilitation Center. The equipment includes crutches, wheel chairs, braces, shoes, and sometimes payment for medical evaluations and corrective surgery. Provisions are made both for those who receive treatment at the center and for those who do not.

Mrs. Rube McNew is the Easter Seals chairman. Door-to-door chairmen include Mrs. Dwight McCann, general chairman; Mrs. M. A. Dunagan, Elbow; Mrs. Lucy Barton, Forsan; Mrs. Larson Lloyd, Kentwood and Worth Peeler, additions; Mrs. Joe Horton, Washington; Mrs. Jack Alexander, College Heights; Mrs. Pat Crow, Gay Hill; Mrs. Leon Pettitt, Park Hill; Georgia Burns, Highland South and Marcy; Ray White, Airport and Cedar Crest; Garrett Patton, Boydston; Buster Weaver, Lockhart; Horace Wallin, Sand Springs and Midway; Ernest Morgan, Lakeview, Bauer and Kate Morrison.

The Coahoma drive will be led by the Coahoma football team under the direction of Coach Spikes Dykes. Boy Scout Troop 136 will be on hand assisting with the door-to-door canvassing at Sand Springs. All drives will be conducted today except Forsan and Elbow, which will be held Tuesday.

Jim Thompson, physical therapist for the Howard County Rehabilitation Center, pointed out that during the past fiscal year, 4,667 treatments were given to 280 different patients. Thompson attributed the growing number of crippled persons to normal population growth, larger number of accidents, and medical advances saving victims of formerly fatal crippling diseases.

'Time For Change' Says Eldon Mahon

Eldon Mahon, Abilene attorney and businessman, has issued the following statement concerning his candidacy for the office of U.S. congressman from the 17th District:

"I sincerely believe there is a definite need for a change in our district's representation in Washington. If I didn't feel this way—and if I had not found a substantial amount of agreement among voters with whom I've talked—I wouldn't be making the race.

"Since announcing my candidacy originally, I have personally visited all 24 counties of the new 17th district and have been extremely gratified by the widespread support and encouragement I've encountered. There appear to be many who feel as I do that it is time for a change.

COMMITTEES
"If elected, I will start working immediately upon my arrival in Washington to be assigned to those committees which deal with the problems directly affecting our new district, and in this way endeavor to get something concrete accomplished for it.

"The scene of action is now in the national Congress. We of the new 17th district must make our voice heard in Washington, stronger than it has been in the past. We need a representative who is truly concerned with the new 17th district's needs, one who will listen closely to all the people, then champion their interests in an aggressive, effective manner. If elected, I intend to be that kind of congressman.

"Although I have been a Democrat all my life, I will not be a 'rubber-stamp' congressman for the administration's programs. Nor, on the other hand, will I be a rubber-stamp opponent of measures that mean real progress... saying 'no' automatically each time a worthwhile new proposal comes up.

"I believe that too much control of our government's affairs has passed out of the hands of Congress, and into the hands of the regulatory and administrative agencies. This authority, which has been lost by default, must be reclaimed by the Congress. The trend of surrendering authority to agencies and commissions—who are supposed to administer the laws instead of make them—should be halted. I think it is time that Congress recognizes this usurpation of its power and authority for what it is: government by bureaucracy. When Congress loses its authority, then the people lose theirs, for Congress is the voice of the people.

WATER
"One of my most important

ELDON MAHON

objectives is to get something done about our district's water situation. There is no greater problem facing the new 17th district than the need for adequate water, now and in the future. I will work for and support any feasible legislation that promises to create greater water resources for our area. Such legislation is a must, because we don't have enough water as it is, and to neglect it further would be to compound a tragedy. The problem is of such magnitude that it is going to require great study, imagination and vision to solve it. I, for one, am ready to begin.

OIL AND GAS
"The oil and gas industry is of course, vital to all of us in the district—and as a congressman—I would support legislation aimed toward putting it in a healthier condition. Oil and gas is a prime business—an indispensable business—and contributes heavily to the welfare of the district. I am in full accord with the 27 1/2 per cent oil depletion allowance, and would resist any measure that would seek to change it.

LORAIN NATIVE
Mahon is running for the congressional seat now held by Rep. Omar Burleson of Anson. He is a native of Loraine, son of a pioneer West Texas family, and a graduate of McMurry College and the University of Texas.

A former district judge and district attorney, Mahon is a partner in the Abilene law firm of Mahon, Pope and Glandon, and is a partner and general manager of radio station KVMC in Colorado City, in addition to maintaining farming interests in Mitchell County. His wife is a registered nurse, a graduate of Hendrick Memorial Hospital School of Nursing in Abilene, where they own their own home.

Mahon is on the board of trustees of McMurry College, is active in the Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club and many other civic organizations, and is an overseas veteran of World War II.

"As to my position on government spending, I might point out that I have always been opposed to excessive federal spending, and see no excuse whatever for the kind of waste in government that we have tolerated in the past. There is no justification for deficit spending except during times of national emergency. These are prosperous times and it is now that we should be paying the national debt, rather than creating more of it. After all, if we don't pay off our debt during good times, when do we pay it?"

VIET NAM
"Regarding Viet Nam, I will always support an unyielding stand against communism, and I feel that there is no other tenable position for us to take in Asia than that which the President has taken. We simply cannot afford to be soft toward an ideology that has set out to destroy our own way of life. At all times, of course, I believe we should keep the doors open for possible negotiations that would bring about a peaceful solution to open conflicts such as we have in Viet Nam. Our goal there is to stop aggression on the part of the Communists toward a peaceful people who have every right to seek their own destiny."

STOCK DIVIDEND OFFERED BY T&P
ST. LOUIS—The board of directors of the Texas & Pacific Railway have declared a dividend on common stock of the company at the rate of one share of stock for each 20 shares held, or in cash at the rate of $4.00 per share, at the option of the stockholder.

Stockholders have until July 1 to exercise the right to receive the dividend in cash rather than in stock. Otherwise, the dividend will be paid in stock.

Church Choir Groups Get Top Rank In State Event

Both the youth choir and an ensemble of the First Baptist Church rated superior—the top rank—in state contests at Waco last weekend.

The choir, directed by Bob Priddy, had 19 voices, some less than normal because of conflicts and illness. The quartet consisting of Kay Bettle, Cynthia Pond and Chris Stewart and John Seitzler, accompanied by Betty McCann, also got the superior rank, according to information received Friday.

Prior to the state contest on the Baylor campus, several units from the church got top rating at area contests here and in Colorado City. Those cited for hymn playing were Nancy Polk, Betty McCann, Robbie Gray, Denise Heinze. Soloists with top rank were Sheryl Gambill, Chris Stewart, Joan Robertson, Kay Bettle, Cynthia Pond, Betty McCann; and a duet of Cynthia Pond and Sheryl Gambill. Superior rating went to the primary, junior, youth and church choirs.

Aside from youth ensemble winners mentioned, others in the state competition were Debbie Dunlap, Becky Bright, Melissa Simpson, Joan Robertson, Joy Foster, Susan Dean, Nancy Dean, Patsy Sweeney, Kathy Dean, Nancy Baird, Linda Baird, Reggie Ranford, Bobby Polk, Dickie Grimes, Lynn Willis. Sponsors included Mrs. J. B. Baird, Mrs. Ray Dunlap, Mrs. Ola Mae Robertson, Mrs. R. F. Polk, Mrs. Bob Priddy and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McCann.

Wanda Said Holding Own

Little Wanda Nix, hospitalized in Howard County Hospital Foundation for over a week with spinal meningitis, is "holding her own and in good condition," doctors said Saturday.

The six-year-old girl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Nix, 2508 Peach, is a first grader at Airport School. She was admitted to the hospital March 4. The first grade at Airport was closed March 6 to allow parents of children who had been in direct contact with her to see a family physician for a check-up. She was the only case of spinal meningitis reported in the Big Spring area.

Petition Short

SNYDER — A projected beer election for Scurry County appears to be off for the time being. Bill Wright, sign painter, presented a petition signed by some 800 persons when 750 were required, but when his list was checked against qualified voters, it dwindled to 671. Wright said he planned no further action now.

DEAR ABBY

See Lawyer, Then Talk

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for seven years and am still very much in love with my wife. About six months ago, she became close friends with another married woman who has two small children. (We have none). This friendship developed into an every-day thing, and then several nights a week. Finally the two of them started taking weekend trips out of town to visit relatives. Due to my constant objections, my wife left me. The other woman is still living with her husband who baby-sits for her while she and my wife go off somewhere to get together. What course do you advise me to follow in trying to get my wife back home? PUZZLED

DEAR ABBY: Your problem is not getting your wife back home. It's getting her to stay there, first, see a lawyer. Then talk to your wife and find out where you stand. Apparently she prefers the companionship of her friend, in which case even if you could persuade her to come home, it would be like bunking with your brother.

DEAR ABBY: I read your column every day and have yet to see a problem like mine. I got up at 5 a.m., fix my husband a good breakfast with homemade biscuits and sausage and eggs. I do the washing and ironing and clean up the house spic and span. I look after the vegetable garden, feed the livestock, bring in the firewood. And when my husband comes in from work, I bathe him and shave him. But he chases other women. What for?

DEAR EAST: It's not up to him to look after the vegetable garden, feed the livestock or bring in the firewood. And it's not to bathe him and shave him, either. What's left?

DEAR ABBY: I have noticed that you frequently advise your readers to see a marriage counselor. A married friend of mine once went to a marriage counselor she found through an ad in the paper, and you wouldn't believe some of the suggestions

Happy Is Recuperating From Brush With Death

By SAM BLACKBURN

Happy is a hero, although he never intended to be one. Nevertheless, his bright garland of appreciation is much in place and fits neatly around his shaggy one-eared head.

HAPPY IS HAPPY HERO Perry McMillan, Happy and Mike Harland

Happy has good cause to be happy. He barely escaped sudden death, and his survival is something his admirers and friends are most delighted about.

If you haven't met Happy, he is a shaggy two-year-old part-Chow-part-just-dog pet. He owns Mike Harland, 14, and, for that matter, the entire Grady Harland family. The Harlands live at 413 Dallas.

HEROISM

Happy's elevation to heroism came several weeks ago, but the story is just now getting around. And Happy, home from the hospital, still bears healing wounds from his clash with death. One of his shaggy brown ears is gone — seared away in the flaming arc of a short-circuited high voltage electric transmission line.

It all began one afternoon when Mike, in company with Perry McMillan, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. McMillan, who now live in Kentwood Addition, were playing at the side of what was then the McMillan residence at 1592 Pennsylvania. The boys had found a long strand of small wire and had fastened a rock to one end.

They swung the rock round and round over their heads, then let it go. It soared into the air and spanned two high voltage power lines high overhead. The other end was on the ground.

"Nothing happened at all when the wire crossed the two lines," Mike said. "We figured it was safe. I guess we really didn't give it much thought."

The boys and Happy continued to play. Happy, filled with wild exuberance, saw Mike start for his bicycle. Figuring his young owner was all set to ride, Happy raced away. He crashed into the dangling wire.

Mike was about two or three feet back of his dog. There was a tremendous flash, both at the point where the high line was crossed and on the ground. Happy fell to the ground.

"I thought he was dead," said Mike. "I ran to call my mother." Mike added that Happy had saved his life.

"I was all set to ride my bike right into that wire," he said.

By the time Mrs. Harland reached the scene, Happy was beginning to show signs of life. He was placed in a car and hauled to the Harland residence. After a little while he began to walk around — wobbly but definitely alive.

Two days later, his condition was not much improved and Mrs. Harland took him to Dr. Akin Simpson, veterinarian.

LOST AN EAR

It was established that the deep burn on his right ear had brought on gangrene and the ear had to be removed. His other injuries, while painful, were not as grave as the burn on the head. After nine days in the hospital, Happy was pronounced able to return to his home.

Back home, Happy is really happy. His missing ear and his narrow escape from death have not slowed him at all. Now that he is back with Mike and the Harland family, all is well as far as he is concerned.

"We feel that Happy saved Mike and Perry from possible death or serious injury," said Mrs. Harland. "We already loved Happy — now we would not take anything for him."

Mike agrees. "One thing I learned," he says solemnly, "kids like me should be very careful not to short-circuit power lines. We should never have thrown that wire over the line. Believe me I'll never do anything like that again!"

Perry, patting Happy's furry head, nodded solemn agreement. "That goes for me, too," he said.

Time Is Running Out To Sign Up For Medicare

There may be many elderly people who want to apply for Medicare, but who do not know how.

Time is running out for them, because the deadline for filing applications for inclusion in the program is March 31. For those who are over 65 and do not receive Social Security, Railroad Retirement Act or Civil Service Retirement benefits, or old age assistance, The Herald is running a coupon to assist them if they want to apply or obtain more information.

If you are receiving Social Security benefits, Railroad Retirement Act benefits, or Civil Service Retirement benefits, or are on old age assistance or other welfare rolls, the Social Security Administration more than likely already knows about you and has supplied you with needed information and forms.

On the other hand, if you are not in any of these categories, you must let Social Security know about you before March 31 if you wish to qualify for the Medicare program, when it becomes effective at the middle of this year.

There are so few exceptions in who can qualify for Medicare, that it can be said almost anyone in the age bracket is eligible.

Medicare is a two-part program. The first is hospital insurance, which is applied automatically to persons receiving Social Security or railroad retirement benefits. This covers much of a person's hospital expense and cost of post-hospital care in skilled nursing homes. In some instances it includes "home health visits" and outpatient diagnostic services at hospitals.

The second part of the program — medical insurance — costs $3 a month with the gov-

Beautiful And Lesser Prophet Proclaim Spring

DEAR BOSS:

Remember Beautiful, the big turtle with the groundhog complex?

Remember Feb. 2 — how the bright sun was shining at dawn and how, if there had been a groundhog around, he would surely have seen his shadow?

Remember how the old legend says if the groundhog sees his shadow on Feb. 2 there will be six weeks more of wintry weather before spring really arrives?

Remember, too, that Beautiful, owned and petted by little Cathy Mays, 602 Highland, either didn't emerge on Feb. 2 from his turtle bungalow where he is housed with his mate, Ugly?

Look at your calendar, Boss. Count the nasty, snow-covered, freezing weather days which have passed over your head since Feb. 2. Adds up to 42. Come Monday, Boss, spring should be exploding.

"Well, Boss, Mrs. Floyd R. Mays, mother of Cathy, called Saturday. "Beautiful," she reported, "has emerged from his boudoir and is enjoying the bright sun. He says that it is now spring and all's well."

Boss, looks like Beautiful and the groundhog had something on the ball this year. We've had wintry weather since Feb. 2 as any check of the records would show. And this morning, Boss, as I drove to work, I saw a big apricot tree in full bloom.

So, Boss, I vote with Beautiful. Spring has sprung, I think. Your weather-watching scribe, SAM BLACKBURN

College Debate Teams Readied

AUSTIN (AP) — Teams from 18 universities and colleges will take part in the first "All-Texas" debate tournament March 18-19 at the University of Texas.

The topic for debate is "Resolved: That law enforcement agencies in the United States should be given greater freedom in the investigation and prosecution of crime."

Meet To Explore Club Interest

An organization meeting at which it is hoped a Circle K Club can be formed at the Howard County Junior College is set for 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Student Union Building. Dawson DeViney will represent the Big Spring Kiwanis Club at the organization meeting. The Circle K is a branch organization for young men in colleges sponsored by Kiwanis International. All college students interested in the club are invited to attend the meeting.

Meat Supplies Seen Adequate

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Meat will be in good supply on American markets this year and at lower prices, says the president of the Producers Livestock Marketing Association, John Rundquist. Despite a record domestic demand and growing military requirements there appears no need for rationing or price controls, he said.

INCOME TAX

Helpful Cues Given About Tax Questions

(These are some of the questions most asked of the Internal Revenue Service about this time each year, as residents begin filing out income tax returns.—Ed)

Q. — I just filed my return. How long will it take to get my refund?

A. — It usually takes about six weeks to process a refund return that is properly made out. A refund may take longer than that if the return is filed just before the April 15 deadline.

An error on the return will also delay the refund and so will the selection of the return for a pre-refund audit. Among the most common causes of delay in receiving a refund are failure to sign returns and to give correct Social Security numbers.

Q. — What business travel expenses are deductible?

A. — Travel expenses include fares, the cost of operating and maintaining your automobile, and meals and lodgings incurred while away from home overnight on business. They are deductible to the extent that they are not lavish or extravagant under the circumstances. Transportation expenses (which do not include the cost of meals and lodging) may be deducted even though you are not away from home, if incurred for transportation which is directly due to the actual conduct of your job.

Q. — Tax is withheld from my paycheck but I still end up owing money when I file my return. Is there anything I can do about this?

A. — One way to increase your withholding is to drop some of your exemptions for payroll purposes. You can always claim all the exemptions you are entitled to when you file your tax return. If this is not enough, you can ask your employer to withhold additional amounts from your paycheck.

Q. — What items do you include when figuring out support furnished a dependent?

A. — Support includes food, shelter, clothing, medical and dental care, educational and similar expenses. If items provided as support are goods or lodging then the fair market value of these items should be used.

Q. — I just sold my home. What should we include when working out the cost basis and the sales price?

A. — The cost of the house to you would be the initial purchase price plus the cost of permanent improvements you have made, purchase commissions, title fees and the like less any deferred gain on a home previously sold. From your selling price you can deduct selling commissions, advertising fees and similar costs incurred in transferring the property.

Form 2119, "Statement Concerning Sale or Exchange of Personal Residence," will be of great help to you in calculating any tax liability. Write your District Director for a copy. Also, ask for a copy of Document No. 5017—"Selling Your Home."

Q. — When you add up medical expenses, can you include premiums paid for hospital insurance?

A. — Yes you can. Remember to reduce your actual medical expenses by any reimbursement you receive from this insurance.

Q. — On a joint return, can I exclude $200 in dividends from taxable income?

A. — The exclusion is $200 only where the husband receives $100 or more in dividends and the wife receives $100 or more in dividends. On joint returns, each taxpayer may exclude up to $100 in dividends received on stock he and she owns either jointly or individually.

If all the dividends are received by either the husband or wife, then the dividend exclusion is $100 even on a joint return.

Forsan Troop Has Overnight Camp

FORSAN (SC) — Troop 16 has completed an overnight campout at the Scout Roundup grounds southeast of the Big Spring City Park.

Three boys worked on their tenderfoot requirements, 16 worked toward their second class, two toward their first class, and one toward his Life Scout award. Scoutmaster Bill Cregar and Assistant SM Murphy stayed overnight with the lads. The troop recently won a second and third place in first aid at the district contest in Big Spring. Plans are being made now to attend the Scout Ranch camp July 10-16.

Ex-Harvard Tutor Given Sentence In Drug Case

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—A former Harvard lecturer who rose to national attention three years ago through his experiments with "mind expanding" hallucinatory drugs, has drawn a tentative 30-year prison term for transporting marijuana. U. S. Dist. Judge Ben Conally sentenced Dr. Timothy Leary, 45, of Millbrook, N. Y., to 20 years for transporting the drug, and 10 years for not paying the tax on it. He also fined Leary $40,000. The judge said that after examinations of Leary and his daughter at a government hospital, their sentences will be reviewed. They were given 10 days to wind up their affairs. Leary's 18-year-old daughter, Susan, also was found guilty of not paying the tax, and was given an indeterminate sentence in a federal reformatory.

Troy, 16, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fraser, Coahoma, and like Donna, also 17, is a student in the Coahoma High School. Donna is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Duke of Coahoma.

The fifth contender in the finals was Gloria Gale, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Gale, 1205 West Second, Big Spring. She is a student at Big Spring High School.

AFA Members To See Film On F-111 Craft

A full presentation of the development and capabilities of the F-111, latest aircraft in the U.S. military inventory and once the subject of extended controversy, will be made here Friday.

Occasion will be the annual meeting of the Big Spring chapter of the Air Force Association. This will be in Withycombe Hall at Webb Air Force Base, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

The Big Spring AFA chapter has rated as one of the tops in the state in membership, and president Lester Morton said he hopes there will be full attendance Friday.

The program, titled "The F-111 Story" — will be presented in lecture, with films, by Sam Keith, chief of traffic for the General Dynamics of Fort Worth, builder of the plane, and he is due to be accompanied by Val Prah, chief test pilot for General Dynamics, who is to discuss characteristics and capabilities of the F-111. Keith is also president of the Fort Worth chapter of the Air Force Association.

Friday's session will also see the election of new officers. Currently serving with Morton are Walton Morrison, vice president; A. J. Statser, treasurer; Bill Crooker, secretary; and Jack Cook, membership chairman.

Morton will discuss plans for a local delegation to attend the national convention of AFA, to be held in Dallas March 22.

Bledsoe Rites Are Pending

Body of Charles W. Bledsoe Jr., 55, Rt. 1, Haskell, has been shipped to Haskell where funeral arrangements are pending at the Holden Funeral Home there.

Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home handled local arrangements. Mr. Bledsoe was found dead in his room in the Howard House Friday morning. Death was ruled from natural causes by Walter Grice, justice of the peace. Mr. Bledsoe apparently had died around 10 p.m. Thursday.

He was born Sept. 3, 1910, in Celena. He had lived in Haskell for a number of years. Mr. Bledsoe was a veteran of World War II and had been a patient at the VA Hospital here. He had been discharged from the hospital on Wednesday, it was said.

Burglars Loot Laundry, Take Cash, Smokes

Burglars who forced entrance Friday night into the establishment by removing the pins from the hinges on a rear door took more than $230 in cash and 160 packages of cigarettes from a self-service laundry at 2511 Wasson Road.

Police were called to the laundry by Hank McDaniel, owner. They said that the money taken was in change and small denomination bills.

A cigarette machine had been jimmied open to get to the cigarettes.

E. D. DORCHESTER

ROBERT B. RINER

TESCO Personnel Changes Noted

E. D. Dorchester, superintendent in charge of operating and maintaining Texas Electric Service Company's transmission lines in a wide area of West Texas, has been promoted to engineering manager of the company's Western division with headquarters in Midland. He will supervise distribution on the west end.

The change becomes effective Monday. Dorchester has been with the electric company since 1949, and since 1953 he has been in Big Spring as transmission superintendent. Mrs. Dorchester, the former Mary Feala, and their two children, Deana Roger and Brian Parker, will remain here until the end of the school term.

His successor is Robert B. Riner, who started with Texas Electric in 1960 at the company's Big Spring transmission headquarters. He lived here until 1963 when he was transferred to the company's general offices in Fort Worth. Much of this work, however, continued to be in West Texas.

Riner is a native of Wichita Falls and a graduate of the University of Texas. He and his wife, a 10-year-old daughter and a four-year-old son, will move to Big Spring within a short time.

Dorchester is a native of Denison where he did his high school work before earning his electrical engineering degree from the University of Texas in 1949. Six days later he joined Texas Electric in Fort Worth in transmission. For a year and three months he served as superintendent of transmission at Fort Worth, then a year in the general office as assistant to the superintendent of transmission. His assignment to Big Spring came in October of 1965 to oversee transmission in the Big Spring, Snyder, Lamesa, Garden City, Colorado City, and Sweetwater areas.

He is a member of the Permian Basin chapter of the American Society of Electrical Engineers, of the Kiwanis Club and the First Baptist Church where he serves as a member of the board and of the building committee.

MORRIS ROBERTSON

Robertson Heads ABC

Morris Robertson, owner of an automobile body repair shop here, was named president of the American Business Club Friday in a luncheon meeting held at the Settles Hotel.

Robertson succeeds Dr. Robert H. Johnson to the position. He will serve for one year.

Robertson, a member of the club since 1960, has been a Big Spring resident for 26 years.

He previously has served the club as social chairman, chairman of the life membership committee, third vice president and second vice president. He is a member of the First Methodist Church and is a past president of the Methodists' Epworth class.

Morris and Mrs. Robertson are the parents of five boys — Ricky, Robby, Reggie, Randy and Roddy. The family makes its home at 2806 Clanton.

Other officers elected included Bill McDonald, first vice president; Weldon Bryson, second vice president; W. H. (Bill) Reed, third vice president; Leonard Pearce and Daryle Hohertz, sergeants at arms; and Wally Slate, vice chairman of concessions.

Newly named to the club's board of directors were Brown, Hughes, Roger Brown, Byron Neel and Justin Holmes. Neel and Ken Olson were recognized as new members of the club's Big Hat Club, which is limited to persons who have recruited three or more new members within a year's time.

Colored action films of the 1965 World Series, which pitted the Minnesota Twins against the Los Angeles Dodgers, were screened for the benefit of the members.

Group Elects Fort Worth

DALLAS (AP) — Mrs. Gayle Wilson of Fort Worth was elected president Saturday of the Texas Home Economics Association.

The election of officers concluded a two-day meeting of the association. Other officers, all chosen for two-year terms, were Dr. Edna Brandeaux, Fort Worth, president-elect; Miss Josephine Paydral, Austin, first vice president; Mrs. Lenora Masterson, Beaumont, second vice president; Miss Alenna Pace, San Angelo, secretary, and Miss Margaret Sloan, Hurst, treasurer.

Airhart, Harrison Woods, Arthur Madewell, Henry Sampson, Porter Motley, and Veri Shaw.

Stock Market Decline Eases

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market last week took its fourth straight weekly loss, but the decline was considerably less than in the three preceding weeks.

The increase in prime interest rates by the big commercial banks to 5 1/2 per cent from 5 per cent triggered an intense selling wave Thursday. The news came, however, as the market was mounting what seemed to be a very solid rally. The results was that the net loss to the market as a whole was slight.

4-Her Wins Show Prize

LAMESA (SC) — Young Gary Beach of the O'Donnell 4-H club, was a proud and happy youngster Saturday night.

He was declared winner of the coveted Overall Achievement Award and Best Showmanship Award at the annual Dawson County Fair and Livestock Association show.

His victory earns him an all expense trip to Washington plus all of the honors his community will pay him.

He was one of the 250 boys and girls from 4-H and FFA organizations, who showed 550 animals in the two day show.

The event came to an end on Saturday night. The youngsters shared $2,500 in cash prizes posted by the Dawson County Fair Association and the Dawson County Chamber of Commerce for the show.

Judges were Monty Griffin, Lamesa, swine; Calvin Helm, Highland, sheep; and Bennie Roach, Snyder, steers.

Grand champion steer of the show was a Hereford shown by Roydan Hendley, Borden County 4-H member. Reserve champion was an Angus heavyweight shown by Andy Bratcher, Lamesa FFA.

The swine show was particularly impressive with scores of entries and, according to the judges, some very fine animals.

India Students Battle Police

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Students, an explosive element in Asian politics, battled police Saturday in Bengal and turbulent Punjab state. Homemade bombs and the arsonists' torch were their weapons.

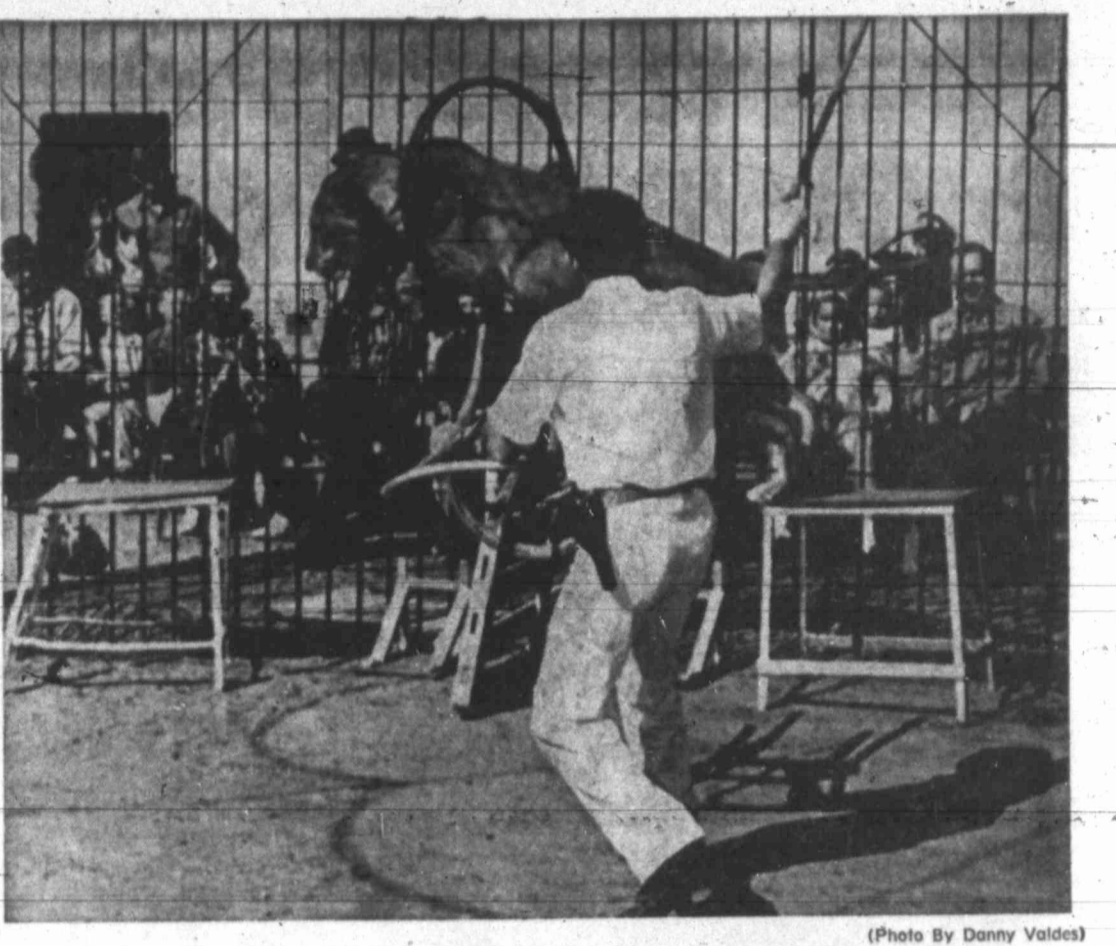

In West Bengal and its capital city of Calcutta, an almost uninterrupted week of bloody rioting worsened amid Communist calls for new demonstrations Sunday.

BOMB SHOWN — Homemade bombs were thrown at buses, railway stations and the Bangarsi cotton mills outside Calcutta. Two watchmen at the mill were stabbed to death as the death toll approached 30 in the past three days of violence.

All the symbols of Indian government authority — policemen, government-run trains and even employment offices — were a target for mob attacks and the torch.

At the same time, Hindi-speaking students were on the rampage in the northwest state of Punjab, which the New Delhi government said this week will be split up so the nation's 10 million Sikhs can have a state where their Punjabi language will be dominant.

FIGHT POLICE — Student mobs fought police in at least four Punjab cities, Amritsar, Jullundur, Ludhiana, and Hisar. Police replied with tear gas and clubs. The full extent of casualties was not known, but Chief Minister Ram Kishan of Punjab said 25 policemen were injured in one clash in Amritsar alone.

HUNGARIAN LION TAMER PET-A-ZOO ATTRACTION
Baron Julius von Uhl pats lions through paces

Tamer Nonchalant Before Lion Claw

DEAR BOSS: Snakes I didn't mind. Not even when I had to crawl into the snake pit at the Jaycee Rattlesnake Round-Up last week. But this time I put my foot down. I was not going to go into any den of lions, no matter what. A lady reporter's got no business in a den of lions.

But Baron Julius von Uhl has a rugged lion-taming expert from Hungary, von Uhl can climb into that den of six 450-pound lions and a leopard with the nonchalant of a boy eating an ice cream cone. In town at the Pet-A-Zoo Saturday and today for shows at 1, 3 and 5 p.m., he works out with the lions with the fire hoop and the hurdles and makes the meanest-looking leopard you've ever seen roll over like a pussycat.

WAS CLAWED — While performing for 60 youngsters from Lakeview school Friday, the animal worker was clawed by one of the lions, but he went right back into the cage. He says it's nothing serious, a few stitches here and there. Well, he can have them. Not me, Boss.

Born in 1938 in Budapest, Hungary, he started working with his own dogs at seven years old. His father, a doctor, and his mother, a ballet instructor, encouraged him, he said.

He learned animal training at the age of 14 and worked in several movies and circuses before the Hungarian revolt in 1956. He escaped from Hungary and came to the United States, where he worked with the Paul Kelly Wild Animal Circus in Indiana and the Hunts Brothers Circus in New Jersey.

ARMY HORSES — A riding and jumping expert, von Uhl worked with horses during his U.S. Army duty. He was loaned to the Air Force at Lackland Air Force Base for work with the sentry dogs in the Air Force program.

"Lions are like people," he told me. "No two act the same way." He hasn't convinced me yet. Boss — they all look pretty darn mean to me."

The animal expert leaves next week to join a circus tour for the remainder of the summer and early fall. He will be quartering his animals here during the winter months, according to A. D. Blount, owner-manager of the Pet-A-Zoo. Uhl joins the Hubert Castle Circus in the Dakotas, Blount said.

"So, Boss, if you like lions, you can have them. As for me, I think I'll stick to snakes."

Plane Debris Yields Bodies

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP) — The crumpled wreckage of a missing airplane carrying a Morton, Tex., couple was found on a hilltop about 7 miles northeast of Brownwood Saturday.

Brown County Sheriff Joe Townsend said the two bodies found in the plane had been identified as those of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bowers.

The wreckage was sighted Saturday afternoon on the B. U. Ross Ranch by a Civil Air Patrol pilot. Ground searchers reached the wreckage in the rugged ranch country about an hour later.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowers, both licensed pilots, left Abilene about 8 p.m. Thursday, filing a flight plan from Abilene to College Station via Brownwood. Their alternate field was to have been Temple.

The Civil Air Patrol said the Bowers apparently had no night flying experience. They were en route to pick up a son who is a student at Allen Military Academy in Bryan.

The CAP search started Friday but its resumption was delayed until nearly noon Saturday by thunderstorms in the area.

GOP Curbs Squabbling

WASHINGTON — Senate Republicans have reached what they call remarkable unity in support of President Johnson's prosecution of a limited war in Viet Nam.

Led by Minority Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois — who calls himself an eagle, rather than a hawk — GOP members have all but eliminated among themselves the squabbling that has divided the Democrats.

The 32 Republican members have some minor differences over the military and political tactics to be employed. But they are agreed that running the war is Johnson's business and not theirs.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits of New York, for example, doesn't agree with Dirksen's position that the Viet Cong have no place in any coalition government that might follow peace negotiations.

GARY McNEW AND HIS GRAND CHAMPION STEER, WRANGLER
Young Howard Countion took top honors Friday at San Angelo Show

Gary McNew's Champ Steer Tops Howard Show Honors

Gary McNew, Howard County 4-H Club member, won the grand championship in the steer show at the San Angelo Fat Stock show Friday noon to make it a solid Howard County day in the steer division.

Local youngsters took all of the top places in the steer competition — first place in lightweights, middleweights and heavyweights as well as the grand championship and reserve championship — a clean sweep of top honors.

RESERVE CHAMP — Reserve champion steer was shown by Robbie Haney, 16, Howard County. His steer, Prince, was first place lightweight.

Final round to settle the champion and reserve champion saw another Howard County youngster in the competition — Dolores Lankford, 14, whose steer was first place middleweight animal of the show.

The victories at San Angelo brought to an end, with the exception of competition here this week in the Howard County Show, the exhibition activities of the 4-H Clubbers for this season. It has been one of the biggest years in the club's history.

OTHER WINS — In addition to taking the two top honors in each weight division, Howard County 4-H Club members won three other places — Haney taking a third in the mediumweight division, Brenda Jackson ninth and Daryl Coates, tenth in the heavyweight division.

In addition to these honors, Dolores Lankford was runner-up for showmanship honors, losing

THE WEEK

ple, perhaps Halfway House is beginning to get some traction. Reports last week indicated that it had a $3,000 margin in its rental account for the year, which may take some of the great financial pressure off this wonderful stepping stone back to normal work.

Herb Shriner once told about the time they had a beauty contest in his hometown and nobody won. It was about that short when it came to building here in February. The permit total of $33,312 was the lowest for a month since 1944. There wasn't a single new residence or commercial structure started. That may change drastically this month. For one thing, the Howard County Junior College $700,000 building permit is due to be issued.

The mental health clinic was revived last week when Roscoe Miller, University of Texas social worker professor, came here to confer with local individuals and officials interested in getting one of the clinics set up here. For a city aspiring to be a health center, this is important. It's even more important because it means help for people in desperate need.

Col. Joseph Sherwood was cited last week for his outstanding work as commander of the 3054th USAF Recruiting Group before he came to Webb AFB as base commander. On him was conferred the Legion of Merit, the seventh highest decoration the nation bestows.

Last week our Jaycees had their Rattlesnake Round-Up and some 700 of the creatures were brought in. This weekend Sweetwater Jaycees are staging their snake symposium. Now comes word that the Jaycees in Menard will have their own rattler roundup March 25-26. Looks like the Jaycees are the worst thing that has happened to rattlesnakes since the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Dolores Lankford did not sell her steer.

Terrye Soetching, who showed a seventh place lamb, came home with $140 for her entry. This was an exceptionally good price, Helbig said.

Word about The Herald's collection of recipes gets around. Mrs. Carl Abbas wrote all the way from Frederick, Iowa, and Mrs. Wauneta Langston from Joplin, Mo., that they had heard of the edition and asked us to send a copy of "Hometown Cooking." Requests have come from all over the country. Fortunately, we have a good supply of the sections.

Mel Thurman, who operated a studio here from the early 1930's until he moved to Abilene in 1937, last week received the National Award from the Southwestern Photographer Association. This is "about as 'fer as you can go."

Oil developments included Texaco I-H Glasscock Fee, 19 miles southwest of Garden City, which flowed 305 barrels of oil in 48 hours from 9:59-7:04; and Knox-Aitman No. 1 C. Wright, 17 miles northeast of Lamesa, for 379 barrels of 39-gravity oil from the Spraberry. About four miles from this strike, Knox-Aitman No. 1 Deann was staked. A test near Big Spring, Boykin Bros, No. 1 Choate, failed to hit pay.

Prize Animal Nets $1,450

Gary McNew's grand champion steer netted him $1,450 in sale money, bonus and prizes at the San Angelo show. Herb Helbig, county farm agent, said Saturday. He explained that only two of the steers shown by Howard County Clubbers were sold.

In San Angelo, the plan is to post $1,000 bond bonus plus the auction price for the grand champion steer. This figured about $1,450.

Robbie Haney's reserve champion brought a $750 bonus plus the auction sale and prizes for a total of close to $1,000.

First National Bank of San Angelo bought the champion and the M-System. Food stores the reserve champion.

Robbie Haney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Haney. His reserve champion steer weighed 830 pounds. It was from the Granite Hills Hereford ranch in Llano.

Miss Lankford's champion middleweight steer came from the Largent and Mercer ranch at Fort Davis. Dolores is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lankford. She showed the grand champion steer of the Fort Worth Fat Stock show in February of this year.

AUTO'S BUMPY STOP BLAMED ON LADYBUG

Know how little a ladybug is? Well, would you think that a ladybug could cause a car wreck?

Mrs. Donald Kenning, 2405 Allendale, will testify that a ladybug can do just that.

She was driving west on FM 700 Saturday near Goliad school.

A ladybug flitted into the car. Mrs. Kenning's eye, shifted to the buzzing insect. She lost control of her car and it left the paving to come to a bumpy stop on a steep grade to one side of the road.

"I wasn't injured nor were my four children who were in the car," said Mrs. Kenning. "Our car was damaged slightly and we were all scared badly."

Mrs. Kenning operates the Welcome Wagon service here.

Pistol-Packing Woman (With 'Arsenal') Detained

A pistol packing Midland woman, whose car contained, in addition to her two young children, a second 22 calibre pistol, a pint of whisky, a machete, a homemade knife and a hatchet, was being detained at the police station Saturday.

Patrolman Pete Stone received a summons to go to the Sands Restaurant early Saturday. The report related a woman with a pistol was in the establishment.

Stone said the woman was standing by a table. The butt of the pistol was visible in her coat pocket. Her purse had been emptied of most of its contents on the table.

Stone took the pistol and the woman told him her two children were outside in a car.

At the car, which was locked, he saw a boy and girl asleep inside. By awakening the boy, he got into the car where the other weapons were found. He also found two shotgun shells in the woman's purse.

HUSBAND LOCATED — Midland juvenile authorities took the two children to Midland. The woman's husband has been located and was said to be en route to Big Spring.

She is charged with possession of an unlawful weapon.

CARD OF THANKS — To our many kind friends, neighbors and relatives and to the wonderful fellowship of the 14th and Main Church of Christ, we wish to extend our sincere appreciation for the expressions of love and sympathy, the food, lovely floral tributes and other kindnesses extended to us at the passing of our beloved husband and father.

Snakes Hunted At Sweetwater

SWEETWATER, Tex. (AP) — Bagful of wiggling rattlesnakes were brought into town Saturday in the eighth annual Rattlesnake Roundup.

More than 150 hunters are participating in the hunt for the slumbering rattlers in the crevices of this West Texas area. Gasoline is sprayed into caves and around rock piles to arouse the reptiles and force their exodus toward the waiting hunters.

Thousands of spectators are here for the occasion, tramping the rough West Texas country to see the captures.

The contest will end Sunday with awards going to those bringing in the heaviest load.

W. H. Elliott, of Sweetwater holds the record for taking in the longest snake, at 63½ inches. The smallest was caught by C. M. Carlisle, of Roscos, Tex. It was 12½ inches.

The Jaycees paid 10 cents per pound for snakes Friday, 7 cents Saturday and will trim the prices to 5 cents Sunday.

In the past seven years, only four hunters have been bitten by rattlers. All recovered.

Youngsters Studying Hard For School Spelling Title

By SAM BLACKBURN

Immaculate Heart of Mary Parochial school, southwest of town, has 30 sixth and seventh graders studying hard for the Howard County Spelling Bee.

Included in the group is Deborah Washer, 12, a seventh grader, and champion of her school last year. She fared well in the county tournament. This year with her past experience to help her, she is making a determined effort to win her school title for a second time.

She will face difficulty, however. Included in the large group of other youngsters who are planning for a chance at the school title are many exceptionally good spellers.

Richard Egan, an 11-year-old sixth grader, a veteran of last year's school bee is one of these. He did not win, but he has had his baptism of fire and is older and better trained this year.

There are boys and girls of all sizes in the two grades, each armed with an official spelling book. "Words of The Champions," busily studying in preparation for the school elimination contests.

This is the third year the Immaculate Heart of Mary has sent a champion to the county spelling bee.

County Bee To Be Held In School Cafeteria

Howard County's Fourth Annual Spelling Bee will be held April 16 in the Big Spring High School Cafeteria, beginning at 10 a.m.

It had been planned earlier to hold the bee in the Howard County Junior College Auditorium, but it developed the building had already been signed for a piano recital.

The high school auditorium was then considered, but school officials pointed out that the extensive renovation program on the grounds will have that building such a state it cannot be used.

The final decision was to make use of the cafeteria at the high school. There is ample room in the cafeteria for the students and their friends. The facilities are equal to those at the auditoriums, and its location is convenient to the people who will wish to attend.

Meantime, Mrs. O. T. Brewster, with the high school faculty, is preparing for her role as official pronouncer for the bee. All of the city's elementary schools, the Midway school of Coahoma District, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary Parochial School have boys and girls readying for the school elimination bees. It is estimated nearly 1,000 youngsters have entered the county spelling bee at classroom level.

Forgery Suspects Held At Seminole

Two women, believed by local officers to be the same pair who cashed two forged money orders here early last week, have been arrested in Erady and removed to Seminole, Sheriff A. N. Standard said Saturday.

Area Residents Invited To Underground School

STANTON — Residents of this general area, as well as those of Stanton and Martin County, are invited to share in the open house of Stanton's novel underground school today.

The open house has been set from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., said Supt. Beryl Clinton. The P-TA is joining in the observance, and President Bob Deavenport said that refreshments would be served by the unit.

The elementary school building, which is all located below ground level, became operational two weeks ago. Only structure above ground is the penthouse which shelters mechanical equipment, also an escape hatch should anything happen to the conventional stairwell exits. The slab roof of the underground building serves as a playground area.

A pioneering venture, the underground school is expected to furnish information on the economy of air conditioning the year around, and maintenance. Aside from cost factors, other information on reduced exterior distractions and dust nuisance is expected to result.

Teachers will be on hand to explain classroom functioning. Olen Puckett, Big Spring architect, and J. D. Jones, Big Spring general contractor, will be on hand with representatives of the power company to answer any technical questions, said Clinton.

Hawks Unseat Blinn As Laredo Champs

LAREDO — Displaying great class in the running events, Victoria was third, with 39; and Lubbock Christian fourth, with 26. Red Lewis, the HCJC mentor, took 13 men to the meet while Blinn had 17 on hand. Blinn did have the satisfaction of supplying the high point man of the two-day meet in Jack Abbott, who finished with 16½ points.

Jaure, Horton Grab Wins In Track Meet

MIDLAND — Hobbs, N. M. won first place in a unique track and field meet staged here Saturday. All events, except the 100-yard dash and the 220, were conducted as relays, which means that depth in any one event counted more than individual performance. El Paso wound up second, with 65 points; followed by Amarillo Palo Duro, with 64; Midland Lee, with 60; and Big Spring, with 34. In all, seven teams competed. Individual winners for Big Spring included Kirby Horton in the shot put, who tossed the ball

AA Title Won By Spearman

AUSTIN (AP) — Spearman's Lynxettes held off a determined last-minute drive by Little Cypress of Orange to take a 50-46 victory and the Class AA title Saturday at the Texas High School Girls' Basketball Tournament.

Spearman held leads of as much as 10 points during the contest, but the Bears fell short of victory when Spearman's Karen Gibson sank two free throws with 14 seconds remaining. With 22 seconds remaining, Little Cypress had pulled to within 2 points at 48-46 just before Miss Gibson put the game out of reach. Barbara Wilde led Spearman's offense with 23 points. Phyllis Paris was top scorer for Little Cypress with 22 points.

Miners Shade KU, 81 To 80, In Playoffs

LUBBOCK — Texas Western defeated the University of Kansas, 81-80, in a double overtime here Saturday night to advance to the NCAA basketball semifinals.

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — St. Joseph's raced to a 20-point second half lead and rolled to a 92-76 victory over Davidson for third place Saturday night in the NCAA Eastern Regional basketball playoffs.

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — An astounding shooting performance by Denny Holman carried erratic Southern Methodist to an 89-84 victory over Cincinnati Saturday night for third place in the NCAA Midwest Regional basketball playoffs.

Holman, hitting on 12 of 13 shots from the floor, scored 25 points as the Southwest Conference champions upset the seventh-ranked Bearcats.

The Mustangs, bumped into consolation Friday by Kansas and Cincinnati, upended by Texas Western, were deadlocked at 82-82 with less than three minutes to play. SMU's Bob Begert then scored six of the Mustang's final seven points while Cincy, the Missouri Valley kingpin, lost its scoring touch.

Carroll Hooser contributed 21 points for SMU and Begert hit 18. Don Rolfe scored 18 for Cincinnati.

Dolan Leader By 1 Stroke

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Jay Dolan shot a three-under-par 69 Saturday and took a one-stroke lead with one round to play in the $100,000 Doral Open Golf Tournament.

Bogeying the last hole, the 28-year-old son of a Leicester, Mass., pro finished the 54 holes with a 207 total, nine under par for the 7,023-yard par-72 Doral course.

He was one stroke ahead of Kermit Zarley of Yakima, Wash., leader for the first two rounds, and Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif.

Zarley, playing with Dolan as the last threesome on the course, also bogeyed the last hole by missing a putt of five feet for a 71.

Rodgers shot a steady 70. One stroke back at 209 was Gardner Dickinson, who had a 69.

Not even an eagle could help Arnold Palmer, who bogeyed two of the holes on the finishing nine for a 71 that left him tied with three others at 210.

His companions were Julius Boros, two-time National Open champion, who fashioned a brilliant 67; Australian Bruce Devlin, rallying with a 69, and Jacky Cupt, with a 70.

Jack Nicklaus, the Golden Bear from Columbus, Ohio, drifted back to his erratic golf and shot a 70 for 213. "I played pretty badly for me," Nicklaus said. "I missed several putts I should have made."

Another gallery favorite, 53-year-old Sam Snead, started with a dramatic birdie on the par-five first hole when he went from trap to trap to fringe and then chipped in from off the green. He tired, and finished with 72 for 212 to tie with Johnny Fretz, 74, and Frank Beard, also 74.

The $20,000 first prize is more money than Dolan has made in official money on the tour in his lifetime. The leader has never finished higher than fifth in a PGA tournament.

Huskers Beat Own Standard

DETROIT (AP) — Defending champion Charles Greene of Nebraska bettered his meet record in winning the 60-yard dash in six seconds flat at the National Collegiate Indoor Track Championships Saturday.

Greene, who clipped one-tenth of a second off his 1965 mark, edged out Ray Pollard of Morgan State at the tape. Pollard's time of 6.1 equaled the old record.

Jerry Cerulla of Utah State and Dave Hemery of Boston University ran the 60-yard high hurdles in a photo finish of 7.2, tying the meet record set last year by Michigan State's Gene Washington. Cerulla, judged to have nicked the tape first, was declared the winner.

Defending champion Oklahoma State led most of the way in the two-mile relay but had to hold off a stretch challenge by Villanova anchor man Dave Patrick. The winning time was 7:30.1. Patrick closed with a rush but stumbled and fell at the finish line.

Ex-Pro Star Beams Over Son's Team

HUNTINGTON, N.Y. (AP)—Ed Danowski has another football trophy for the family collection.

This one really doesn't belong to the former Fordham and New York Giant quarterback, but it's part of the collection in his East Meadow home. It's a little trophy yet means more than the letters and mementos Ed, now 54, earned in his glory days.

"My son is in this next group," papa Danowski whispered proudly at the dais.

Everyone in the audience who has a son in the Levittown Mid-Get Football League which embraces hundreds of youngsters below the high school varsity level knew about Ed Danowski's boy.

Jan Danowski, 12, played end for the unbeaten Levittown Red Devils. They had to be good because they played on the road and it was a good reason for papa Danowski to miss the Giant games in Yankee Stadium last fall. When the Giants were home Ed became a Red Devil rooster.

When master of ceremonies Jack Quinn asked Ed Danowski to present the trophy to his 118-pound 5-foot-7 son the applause was deafening.

It's a good thing papa Danowski had been called on for a few words before the trophy presentation. He was more at ease then.

"I remember the first time I suited up with the Giants," Danowski said. "I was one of 15 children from Jamestown, a little town way out on Long Island. I guess all my relatives were on hand that day in the Polo Grounds."

"They were shouting 'Danowski, Danowski.'"

ED BONOWSKI

"Coach Steve Owen called me 'Hey Danowski.'"

"Whoop www-will I go in for coach? I asked."

"Don't go in for anybody," Steve said. "Go up in the stands, they're calling you."

They called Danowski a lot in his seven years with the Giants. His quarterbacking got them in five playoffs. Twice they won, beating the Chicago Bears in 1934 and the Green Bay Packers in 1935. He spent 1940 at Jersey City and when Giants were hurt in 1941 Danowski, old No. 22, was back pitching, at age 30.

"I used to throw the short passes," admits Danowski who captained Fordham in 1933. "I used to call on Hank Soar, the American League baseball umpire, for the long ones. He could throw a lot further. One day

Tickets Sell In Hurry

By TOMMY HART

Now that Big Spring has wrested the Region V Basketball tournament away from Amarillo after a score of years, I think the National Juco meet could and should be moved periodically, especially since the JC officials saw fit to change National JC Track and Field carnival switched around. . . . However, it's hard to argue with success—all reserve seats in the basketball tournament at Hutchinson, Kansas, were sold out an hour after they went on sale and Hutchinson gym seats about 14,000.

Incidentally, coach Dennis Walling of Dallas Baptist College isolated all his players at the Region V tournament at Amarillo to keep senior college recruiters at a distance and will do the same thing at Hutchinson this week. . . . Incidentally, Dallas Baptist expects to have senior college status next year and, in effect, for the 1967-'68 season. . . . Only one of Dallas' five top players (Wendell Hart of Garland) is a Texan. . . . The other four are from as many different states. . . . Attendance at the Region VI-B girls' basketball tournament here last week totaled 2,285 while cash receipts came to $1,424. . . . The preceding week, 2,037 saw the VI-B boys' tournament, at which time the income came to $1,430. . . . That means well over 4,500 players, spectators and coaches were present for the four days of activity, 90 per cent of them from out of town, in all probability. . . . More than a few people are rallying behind the idea of a coliseum here, pointing out that it would help the community in so many ways. . . . Everything from rodeos and stock shows to Shakespearean theater could be held in such a location. . . . Why not make it a joint county-city venture? . . . Bronte was the only Class B school with a team in the recent State Basketball tournament that also fields a football team. . . . I'd say District 67-B was well represented at Austin, with both boys' and girls' teams in contention. . . . Look for Lubbock Monterey to be tough in District 3-AAAA sports for a long time to come—there are 3,034 students in schools there, or more than twice the enrollment in high school here. . . . Houston Memorial, the State Class AAAA basketball champion, ran the same offense this year that Big Spring used. . . . Something should be done about the Dallas-Houston monopoly in the basketball playoffs. . . . Houston has had a team in the finals six years running and a Dallas team has made it to the title game on four occasions during that time. . . . Time was when places like Lindale, Athens, Cushing and Carey dominated high school basketball in the state. . . . Rommie Loudd, recently named a coaching aide of the Boston Patriots of the AFL, played his high school football at San Angelo Blackshear. . . . Incidentally, the Patriots drew only 142,000 at home the past season but showed a $450,000 profit, thanks to the $1 million new member Miami contributed to each AFL member. . . . Don Williams, the Plainview mentor, still thirsts for revenge from that 86-6 licking his team suffered at the hands of Big Spring in 1962. . . . He'll scout the Longhorns in their annual spring game. . . . The total purse in Midland's second annual Tall City Golf Open (for fem linksters) has been elevated to $14,000, which will include a $1,500 payoff in a pro-am. . . . The meet is scheduled for May 5-8. . . . Chief difference between the recent Region VI-B boys' and girls' basketball tournaments staged here was an emotional one—the losing girls invariably shed copious tears. . . . Texas Tech football great Donny Anderson, who spent the summer of 1964 here, says he'll referee wrestling matches before enrolling in the Green Bay football camp, if "the price is right". . . . HCJC doesn't have the balance it once had in track and field—it will enter no one, for instance, in four different events.

Coast Quint, Cats Advance In Tourney

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Melchioni scored the last three of his 33 points in the final two minutes and five seconds Saturday, giving Villanova a 63-61 basketball victory over defending champion St. John's, N.Y., in a first round game of the National Invitational Tournament.

San Francisco defeated Penn State 89-77 in the opening game of the doubleheader in Madison Square Garden.

The victories advanced Villanova and San Francisco to Tuesday night's quarter-final round, along with the winners of the evening doubleheader in which Army played Manhattan and Boston College took on Louisville.

Melchioni scored 18 points in the first half as the Wildcats took a 33-24 lead. A zone press defense momentarily stalled him midway through the second half.

While the Redmen contained the 6-1 senior, they started catching up behind the shooting of Sonny Dove and Bob McIntyre.

Dove flipped in eight points in a 14-point spurt that tied the game 48-48. From then on the teams exchanged baskets with Melchioni scoring nine of the Wildcats last 15 points.

McIntyre led the Redmen with 22 points while Dove finished with 17.

Villanova is 16-10 with 11 victories in the last 12 games. The Redmen wound up 15-8.

Erwin Mueller was the big gun in San Francisco's triumph over Penn State, tossing in 31 points and taking down 14 rebounds.

Mueller's inside shooting and strong offensive rebounding did the most damage in cracking Penn State's zone defense. He scored 16 points in the first half, in which the Dons took a 42-40 lead, and came back with 15 more in the second half.

His three-point play midway through the second half triggered a San Francisco spurt that broke the game open. He put in a layup and added a free throw, giving the Dons a 64-59 lead. A minute later he added another field goal and the Dons continued building the margin.

Carver Clinton poured in 18 points for Penn State in the first half but missed the range much of the time in the second half and finished with 28 points.

EL PASO — Racing secretary L. Henderson Van Zandt issued a reminder to horsemen that nominations for the $7,500 Sunland Derby close Tuesday, March 15. The derby, major test of the spring season for three-year-olds, will have its 6th renewal Sunday, March 20.

Round Top-Carmine Wins Class B Title

AUSTIN (AP)—Undeclared Round Top-Carmine ran its winning streak to 40 consecutive games Saturday by defeating Deport 57-32 and capturing the Class B state championship at the Texas High School Girls Basketball Tournament.

Three other state title games—in Classes A, AA and AAAA—were to be played later.

Marilyn Aschenbeck, a 6-foot-1-inch senior, tossed in 46 points for Round Top, located about midway between Houston and Austin.

Miss Aschenbeck's three-game tournament scoring total was 144 points, compared to the tournament and Class B record of 168 set by Juevan McWhorter of Collinsville in 1956.

Miss Aschenbeck, an all-tournament player when Round Top finished second to Trent last year, hit 17 of 21 field goal attempts. The entire Round Top team missed only 9 of 30 shots, a fabulous 70 per cent.

Connie Kelsey was high for Deport with 20 points, but the Northeast Texas team only had a 27.1 per cent shooting percentage and went 9½ minutes in one stretch without a field goal.

Deport finished with a 39-2 season record.

In consolation games, Duncanville, Rivercrest of Talco-Bogata and Waco Midway won third place honors.

Duncanville whipped Raymondville 62-42 for third place in AAA, Rivercrest slipped past Ganado 66-55 for third in AA, and Midway trounced Cross Plains 74-51 for consolation honors in A.

Third place in B was decided Friday night when Sundown beat Brock of Weatherford 76-64.

One state tournament record was set when Ganado's Bebe Zajicek flipped in 29 free throws in her team's loss to Rivercrest. She had set the record of 28 the previous day when Ganado fell to Little Cypress. Miss Zajicek tallied 83 points in Ganado's two losses, tying the AA record for most points by a single player in a two-game series. It was set in 1959 by Margie Guinn of Abernathy and tied the next year by Carolyn Allen of Bowie. Miss Guinn also had the old free throw record of 27.5.

Miss Zajicek had 33 points in

IMPRESSIVE IS RACE FAVORITE

NEW YORK (AP)—Impressive, backed by an easy victory over his more-famous stablemate, Buckpasser, is the odds-on-favorite to take the $25,000-add Swift Stakes as Aqueduct opens New York's 234-day thoroughbred racing season Monday.

The Swift, first of 114 stakes carrying an added value of $4,592,500 to be raced in New York this year, drew a field of 10 3-year-olds Saturday.

At six furlongs it'll be the first of four stakes for Derby-age horses to be raced at Aqueduct prior to the May 7 running of the Kentucky Derby. The others are the seven furlongs of the $25,000-added Bay Shore March 26, the $50,000-added Gotham at one mile April 16 and the 1¼ mile of the $100,000-added Wood Memorial April 23.

Impressive, owned by Ogden Phipps and trained by Eddie Neloy, was made the 3-5 choice to take the Swift by the track handicapper. He'll be ridden by Kenny Knapp, who rode another of the Neloy-trained 3-year-olds, Stupendous, in the Louisiana Derby Saturday.

Gary G., successful Florida campaigner from the Harbor View Farm of Lou Wolfson, was made the 5-1 second choice under Johnny Rotz.

SMU Grabs Swim Title

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Southern Methodist won its 10th consecutive Southwest Conference swimming championship Saturday, amassing a record 215 points, as records were set in 15 of the 16 swimming events.

The Mustangs captured nine swimming events and set records in each and won the three-meter diving. Texas took six events, bettering old times in five of them. Texas Tech won the other two events and was credited with one new record.

The conference swimmers went down to the next to the last swimming event, the 100-yard butterfly, before they failed to break a Southwest mark. They bettered 14 in a row before Gary Langendoen of Texas fell four-tenths of a second shy of surpassing George Spear's 1963 time of 52.5 seconds in the butterfly.

SMU's Tim Birnie and Texas' Steve Boss were the only double winners. Birnie set records in winning the 100-yard and 200-yard backstroke and Boss did likewise in taking the 500-yard and 1,650-yard free style.

Boss' 17:16.3 time Saturday in the 1,650 free style broke the 17:45.8 mark Birnie made last year.

SMU set the old team scoring total of 209 1/2 points last year when one less event was on the program. Texas finished second this year with 134 and was followed by Texas Tech 76, Texas A&M 21, Rice 12 and Texas Christian 6. Baylor and Arkansas did not compete.

Two Southern Methodist swimmers, Tudor Lacey from South Africa and David Quick, each had two of their records taken away.

Lacey lost his 500-yard free style mark to Boss Thursday night and the 400-yard individual medley to teammate Howard Moore Friday.

Quick failed to retain the titles and records he set last year in the 50 and 100-yard free style. Chuck Worrel of Texas took the 100 free Saturday and Robert Graham of Texas Tech won the 50 free Thursday.

Other record setters in Saturday's windup were William Charbonneau, SMU, in the 200-yard breaststroke and SMU's 880-yard free style relay team.

Houston Wins Links Crown

LAREDO, Tex. (AP)—University of Houston won the Border Olympics Golf Tournament for the third straight year and 10th time in 15 years Saturday. The Cougars shot an 8-under-par 1,144 for 72 holes—27 strokes better than runner Lamar Tech.

Marty Fleckman of Houston, the NCAA champion, shot a 1-over-par 73 for 284 and medalist honors. Hal Underwood of Houston was second with 285, Jim Grant of Houston was next with 286 and Mike Mitchell of Houston tied John Barlow of Lamar Tech for fourth with 289. Mitchell then beat Barlow in a sudden death playoff on the first hole for fourth place.

Lamar Tech was second with 1,171, Texas third with 1,189, Baylor fourth with 1,193 and North Texas State fifth with 1,203.

Other finishers: Texas A&M 1,208, Texas Christian 1,219, Trinity 1,264, Rice 1,265, Sul Ross 1,271.

Longden Retires Following Win

ARCACIA, Calif. (AP)—Johnny Longden bowed out as a jockey Saturday after 40 years in racing with the most dramatic of victories as he and the Canadian horse, George Royal, won the $125,000 San Juan Capistrano Handicap.

More than 60,000 fans cheered the 59-year-old Longden as he whipped George Royal under the wire by a bare nose. The crescendo mounted higher when the photo finish came up and No. 10, George's number, flashed on the tote board.

It was the second straight victory in the San Juan for Longden and George Royal, and boosted Longden's all-time world record of victories to 6,032.

Little-regarded Plaque was second, and a 1/2 length back was Tom Cat in a thrilling wind-up to the race over the distance of about 1 1/4 miles on the grass course.

Hill Rise, the favorite, finished fourth in the field of nine. Cedar Key, the second choice, was out of the money.

George Royal paid $15, $8.20 and $4.80, Plaque $7.40 and $4.80 and Tom Cat $4 for show.

The time was 2:48.4-5.

This was a foggy, smoggy afternoon for Longden. It started when he appeared on the track for the first time in the fourth race to ride the favorite, Chiclero. He beat Bill Hartack on Vallant Man by a head in the first of his stirring performances.

The win booted Johnny's world mark to 6,031.

In the sixth race Johnny was out of the money on a 35-1 shot. In the seventh, he lost by a head for second in a stretch affair with Bill Shoemaker, as Walter Blum won on the favorite.

Then came the ride to the post for the San Juan Capistrano.

The scene in the winner's circle was pandemonium. Johnny's wife, Hazel, who had given him a kiss after the fourth race and left lipstick on his cheek, repeated the kiss, only this time the kisses were mixed with tears of joy.

George Royal was no better than the fourth choice with the crowd of 60,792 behind Hill Rise, Cedar Key and C. V. Whitney's Tom Cat.

Mustangs Win 2 Over BS

ANDREWS — Saturday was a day of experiment for coaches Roy Baird and Tom King of Big Spring and Andrews took full advantage of the opportunity to sweep a doubleheader from the Steers, 5-0 and 8-1.

The Longhorns sent juniors Johnny McCullough and David Mitchell to the mound to start the games and the Mustangs found them no mystery.

The fact that the Steers didn't bring their hitting clothes along, either, didn't help. Big Spring was limited to two hits in the opening game by Doug Ham and Don Cook scattered six hits effectively for Andrews in the afterpiece.

The double loss left Big Spring with a 3-2 won-lost record. They return to action at home Tuesday against Lubbock-Montery.

Rod Roberts and Sammy Mims collected the only safeties for Big Spring in the opening game. Both were singles.

Cook benefitted from three unearned runs off McCullough in the opening game and that was all the working margin he needed.

Eddy Gosnell paced Andrews' attack in the game with two singles.

The Big Springers used a

Ponies Impress Fry In Workout

DALLAS (AP) — Coach Hayden Fry said he felt both offense and defensive teams played well Saturday in a Southern Methodist University football scrimmage.

The offense scored four of five touchdowns, with the most spectacular play coming after a 45-yard pass from Mac White to split-end Jerry Levias. White went over for the score on the play with a 5-yard carry.

The offensive team accumulated a total of 233 yards.

"I was very happy with the offense, especially," Fry said. "I expected the defense to do a good job. They showed a lot of poise and pride and played to gether more as a team than they have ever done."

Miears On Mound As Steers Win

A running catch by Jesse Zapata with the bases loaded in the seventh saved the day as Big Spring nipped Lubbock High, 2-1, in a baseball exhibition here Friday afternoon.

Big Spring scored what proved to be the winning run in the fifth when pinch runner Ronnie Wrightsil, in for R. J. Englert, wheeled home on a double play ball that was thrown away at first base. Englert had reached first when his fly to right field was dropped and Wrightsil, after replacing him, moved to second when Sammy Mims was nicked by a pitched ball. Big Spring collected its other run in the fourth when Yogi Anderson opened the round with a double and roared home on successive one-basers by Zapata and Dean Gilstrap.

Stan Niles of San Antonio Lee, who averaged 23 points and 18 rebounds, was the other first team selection.

Junior Girls Set State Tournament

DALLAS (AP) — The second annual Texas State Junior Girls golf championship, sponsored by the Dallas Times Herald, will be held at Glen Lakes Country Club July 18-22.

Nine Texans Are Entries In Colonial

FORT WORTH — Headed by PGA Champion Dave Marr, nine Texans today accepted invitations to play in the $110,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament, May 16-22.

Besides Marr, three other defending champions are included in the group. They are Don Massengale, former TCU swinger who won his first tour title at the Big Crosby Shindig this winter; Dudley Wysong Jr., recent victor in the Phoenix Open and Homero Blancas, the defending Mexican Open champion. Massengale is from Jacksboro, Wysong lives in McKinney and Marr and Blancas are from Houston.

Other Texans accepting bids to the 21st annual tournament are Jacky Cupit of Longview, Bert Weaver of Beaumont, Charles Coady of Stamford, Bill Martindale of Jacksonville and Billy Maxwell of Abilene and Dallas.

It'll be like coming home to Coody and Maxwell. Coody now resides in Fort Worth and Maxwell's twin brother, Bobby, is an assistant pro at Colonial Country Club where the tournament is held.

These Texans have helped maintain the winning Lone Star tradition on the PGA tour. All but Martindale and Blancas have won U.S. tour titles but even without victory they didn't fare badly last year. Martindale was the PGA's 17th leading money winner with a collection of $44,583. Blancas was "Rookie of the Year."

Marr's most prestigious title, of course, is the PGA plum he grabbed last summer. Cupit was a Western Open title to his credit. Coody is a former Dallas Open titlist. Weaver won the 1965 Jacksonville Open and Maxwell has eight championship trophies on his shelf.

The addition of the new players brings to 15 the number thus far signed and sealed for the NIT. When the field is completed there will be 72 of golf's greatest. The field as it now stands:

Homero Blancas, Gay Brewer, Billy Casper, Charles Coody, defending champion Bruce Crampton, Jacky Cupit, Babe Hickey, Dave Marr, Billy Martindale, Don Massengale, Billy Maxwell, Doug Sanders, Ken Venturi, Bert Weaver and Dudley Wysong.

Texas Fields Double Threat In Tourney

Casper boasts a 23-7 record. Dallas Baptist, formerly DeCatur Baptist, ranked tenth in the final National Juco Association poll. The Indians' tangle with Wilson College of Chicago, only undefeated team in the tournament, in the opening game at 12 noon Tuesday.

Deadline Nearing For Summer Loop

A final meeting will be held in the Texas Electric Service building at 7 o'clock Friday evening to determine the makeup of the American Softball League.

Only those present can file for membership. As of now, the league has five members. Two other sponsors have indicated they may field teams but have had no one at the organizational meetings.

Teams committed to the circuit include Pepsi-Cola, Big Spring Tire Company, Forsan

Oil Well Service, City of Big Spring and Morton's Foods.

Target date for the official opening of the season is April 18. Johnny Berry was named president of the Big Spring Softball Association at a meeting held Thursday night. Other officers of the association include Russell Tidwell, vice president; and Manley Cook, secretary-treasurer.

By-laws and objectives of the organizations were adopted, including a resolution to ask the city to install and fence, a water fountain and rest room facilities at the new softball park located just off FM Highway 700 east of the city.

It was also decided to press for the promotion of an invitational tournament catering to out-of-town teams.

Officials of the BSSA also voted to permit the American Softball League to make use of the City Park diamond each Monday and Thursday in season while the Church League can play its games each Tuesday and Friday.

DeMolays Plan Busy Week For Birthday Observance

Order of the DeMolay is celebrating its 47th anniversary this week and Mayor George Zachariah has proclaimed the week to honor the DeMolays in Big Spring. The mayor urged all citizens to join with him in recognizing the work this international boys organization does.

In Big Spring, Leon P. Moffett DeMolay chapter has 80 members and is sponsored by the Big Spring Shrine Association.

E. A. Fiveash is district governor for the DeMolay, and John H. Smith is the master chancellor of the local chapter. Gordon Marchant is the senior counselor and Jess Phares, junior counselor.

FULL WEEK
The chapter has worked out a full week of activity to mark its organization's birthday.

The group will attend the First Baptist Church today in a body as initial event of the week. Monday, a display of DeMolay regalia will be installed in the Prager show windows.

On Tuesday a class of candidates will be formally initiated into the order and all Master Masons and Senior DeMolays are cordially invited to attend.

On Wednesday, the local chapter will visit the Odessa chapter of DeMolay. The group leaves AF&AM Lodge 1340 building at 6 p.m.

Thursday is designated as good deed and good will day. On Friday DeMolay delegates go to Snyder for a visit with the chapter there, leaving Big Spring at 6:30 p.m.

PILGRIMAGE
On Saturday the chapter members will make a pilgrimage to the grave of the late Leon P. Moffett, the "Dad" of the local chapter.

The week will end with the members of the chapter attending the College Baptist Church in a body on next Sunday.

Meantime, the organization will wage a campaign to recruit boys between the ages of 14 and 21 as members of the chapter.

The DeMolay meets at the lodge rooms of AF&AM 1340 at 2101 Lancaster. Next regular meeting of the chapter is March 15.

The Order of DeMolay, an international youth organization that offers teenage boys the training and guidance they need to become better citizens, was founded in 1919 as the result of a young social worker's desire to provide fatherly advice and counsel for an orphan boy. ORDER FOUNDED

Frank S. Land, the 28-year-old Scottish Rite Social Services director in Kansas City, gave a job to the lad, Louis Lower, whose father, a friend of Land's, had been killed in a hunting accident. After frequent talks with the boy, he realized that many youths shared a common problem — a need for proper guidance.

In February, 1919, nine boys and Land met in the Scottish Rite Temple in Kansas City to form such a club which they decided to name after Jacques DeMolay, the last grand master of the Knights Templar, who was burned at the stake in France in the year 1314. On March 18, 1919, the Order of DeMolay was formally organized, by the nine youths and 24 of their friends.

By coincidence, March 18 was also the anniversary of the death of martyred Jacques DeMolay.

In less than a year, membership in the mother chapter had soared to 3,000. In the fall of 1920, a chapter was installed in Omaha, Neb. Cities and towns all over the country were soon clamoring for chapters. Within ten years there were over 1,200 chapters world-wide, and more than 100,000 active DeMolays.

The number of chapters today totals over 2,500 and the active membership is more than 160,000.

A Grand Council of the nation's leading Masons was set up to govern the movement, but eligibility for membership has never been tied in with Masonry.

He was born in Westbrook Feb. 23, 1925. He moved to Midland and then to Louisiana six months ago where he was employed by the Offshore Drilling Company. He was a member of the Methodist Church and a veteran of World War II.

Survivors include one son, Jimmy Skelton; one daughter, Mrs. Stephanie Ramer, both of Big Spring; one brother, James E. Skelton, Midland; and three sisters, Mrs. Ruth Johnson, Colorado City, Mrs. Phil Gingerich, Levelland, and Mrs. O. C. Henson, Abilene.

City Contests Scheduled In All Incorporated Towns

By TOM BARRY
Places for city officials will be contested in every incorporated Howard County community during city elections on April 5 (April 2 for Forsan).

In Big Spring, there will be six candidates for three seats on the city commission. In Coahoma, three places on the city council are open, and two incumbents and one new candidate will seek to fill them. Four candidates have filed for the six-man, mayor-council government in Ackerly. Three Forsan city officials have filed for re-election, and one new candidate has filed for another open council seat.

BIG SPRING
Big Spring Mayor George Zachariah and two incumbent city commissioners, Arnold Marshall and W. L. (Squeaky) Thompson, have filed for re-election. Zachariah is seeking his sixth term on the commission. Marshall and Thompson each will be asking a third term.

New candidates for the April 5 elections are Tony Taroni, Jimmy Morehead and Walter W. Stroup.

Zachariah is associated with Cosden Oil & Chemical Company as its purchasing manager. Marshall is vice president in the H. W. Smith Transport Company and Thompson is owner and operator of a furniture company bearing his name. Morehead is vice president of Morehead Transfer and Storage Company, Stroup is a representative of Southwestern Life Insurance Company, and Taroni is shipping foreman for the Sid Richardson Carbon plant. Four voting boxes are slated for qualified voters who live in the city limits of Big Spring—the main fire station at City Hall, the Eighteenth and Main fire station, the Birdwell Lane and Eleventh fire station, and the Northside fire station.

Absentee voting will begin at the office of the city secretary, C. L. McClenny, Wednesday, March 16, and run through 5 p.m., April 1, McClenny said, in accordance with state law.

COAHOMA
Three candidates, two of them incumbents, have filed for places on the city council of Coahoma. Charles R. Parrish is a candidate for the slot left open by Wendell Shive, who will not seek re-election. Aldermen Ted Fowler and Bill Read are seeking re-election.

Mayor Ralph White has a year left before he must seek re-election, as do R. W. Miller and Dwayne Clawson, aldermen.

All voting by resident Coahomans will be at Coahoma City Hall. Absentee voting, from March 16 through April 1, will also be at city hall. Mrs. Donald Lay is election judge, assisted by Mrs. A. D. Shive.

FORSAN
Forsan will have a quiet race on April 2, its mayor, one of its city councilmen, and its city marshal having filed for re-election. A second councilman, C. D. Long, will not seek election. One new candidate, Lee D. Whetsel, has filed for Long's seat.

C. J. Lamb, the first and only mayor Forsan has ever had, is seeking return to office. G. L. Monroey, who presently is a member of the council, has also filed to succeed himself.

S. C. Cowley, Forsan's present city marshal, and the only paid employe (at $25 per month) of the community, has listed his name for return to the office he now holds.

Forsan's April 2 election will be on the same day that Forsan Independent School District picks three new trustees from a field of seven candidates.

Lamb said the city election will be held in the Forsan school at the same hours the school election is held. Absentee voting will be held beginning 20 days prior to the election, or March 12, and end three days before the election, March 29.

There are three holdover members on the city council, John B. Anderson, L. B. McClath and Joe B. Hoad.

ACKERLY
Travis Russell, mayor of Ackerly, will not seek re-election April 5. Two other places are open, alderman positions presently held by Jack Archer and O'Brien Bowlin. Archer will not run for another term, but Bowlin will attempt to succeed Mayor Russell, who has been appointed postmaster.

Candidates who have filed for the two aldermen's slots are Billy Massengill, T. L. Yingst and M. A. Gibson.

Voting will be at the Ackerly High School building, and absentee votes may be cast at the Lamessa courthouse from March 16 to April 1.

Agent Buried In Snowslide Saved

NORTH BEND, Wash. (AP)—An FBI agent was rescued today after spending a terrifying eight hours buried in a mountain snowslide while bulldozers ran back and forth above his partly crushed automobile.

Only the air in the car saved the life of George Foster, 36. State troopers said he might not have survived had he been buried much longer.

Tons of snow slid down a mountainside about 6 p.m. Friday on US Highway 10 east of Snoqualmie Pass Summit, about 50 miles east of Seattle. Foster was reported in satisfactory condition.

Midland Program Honors Majors

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—Midland observes Permian Basin Petroleum Appreciation Day Tuesday.

The celebration will attract perhaps the largest number of top executives of major oil companies ever assembled at one time in Texas.

The March statewide hearing of the Railroad Commission also will be held here that day, bringing other hundreds of oil men to this headquarters city of the Permian Basin.

CITIZEN PANEL

The function is sponsored and staged by a Midland Citizens Committee, headed by Tom Sealy, in cooperation with the Midland Chamber of Commerce and the Permian Basin Petroleum Association.

Gov. John Connally heads a list of speakers for the day-long event.

Other speakers include Commissioner Byron Tunnell of the Railroad Commission; Jerry Sadler, Texas land commissioner; Ben Barnes, speaker of the Texas House; Dick West, editorial page editor of The Dallas News; and Lambert Moore, vice president of El Paso Products Co. of nearby Odessa.

AREA GRATEFUL

The celebration is planned by Midland and area residents to say "thank you" to the petroleum industry for its contributions to the economy and civic and cultural well-being of this city and region, a member of the sponsoring committee said.

Emphasis this year is being placed on the major company segment of the industry.

"We continually seek new industry," the spokesman said, "but we seldom express appreciation to existing industry which has been responsible for the tremendous growth and development of this vast West Texas-Southeast New Mexico region."

OFFERS OPPORTUNITY

"Petroleum Appreciation Day affords us this opportunity," he said. "Reservations have been made by more than 150 top executives of major oil companies. Practically all major oil firms maintain offices in Midland."

Appreciation Day provided excellent timing for the Railroad Commission hearing in Midland, since it is traditional that top officials of oil companies annually attend the commission's March meeting to voice their opinions on the oil and gas industry.

DISTRICT HEADQUARTERS

The commission's District 8 maintains headquarters here.

A luncheon and banquet will be held on Appreciation Day. Commissioner Byron Tunnell will speak at the luncheon, while Gov. Connally will address the banquet. Because of limited banquet room facilities, admittance to the luncheon and banquet will be by invitation only. Board chairmen and presidents of major oil companies will be honored at the banquet.

New Pool Has Outpost

Kerr McGee Corp. of Oklahoma City has staked a location for its No. 3 Griffin as a south offset to its No. 1 Griffin, opener and lone producer in the Griffin (Canyon Reef) pool of Borden County.

Contracted to 7,800 feet, it is 20 miles southeast of Gail, 1,787 from the north and 2,173 feet from the east lines of section 37-25, H&TC.

The same firm has temporarily abandoned No. 7 Griffin, a southwest stepout to the pool opener at 6,886 feet after encountering sulphur water at the total depth. It was 1,777 feet from the north and 2,173 feet from the west lines of section 37-25, H&TC survey. An unsuccessful attempt was made to plug back and drill a directional hole on No. 3 Griffin after the water was encountered.

Completions Up From Year Ago

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Railroad Commission reported Saturday 179 oil wells and 30 gas wells were completed during the past week.

The completions pushed the yearly total of oil wells to 1,564, compared to 1,432 a year ago, and raised the total of gas wells to 411, compared to 343 at this time last year.

The commission said 166 wells were plugged during the week, including 183 dry holes.

There were 15 wildcat oil wells drilled, including four in District 4, three in District 3, two in Districts 2, 6 and 7-C and one each in Districts 1 and 18. Three wildcat gas wells were drilled — two in District 4 and one in District 2.

ONLY FOUR MORE DAYS TO GO FOR VOTER SIGNUP

Residents of Howard County who neglected to pay their poll tax for 1966 elections have four days left in which to make amends. This time they can qualify as voters without having to pay a fee.

The current Special Voter Registration period terminates at midnight Thursday. Until then, any person who is otherwise qualified to vote but who does not have poll tax receipt for this year can register free of charge at the office of the county tax assessor-collector at the courthouse.

All older citizens who live in Big Spring — men and women 60 years of age and older — but who did not obtain an exemption certificate in the period ending Jan. 31 can also register.

About 800 new voters have been added to the county's list of qualified voters since the registration began March 2.

Counterfeiting Charges Jail 2 College Students

HOUSTON (AP)—Two University of Houston students have been charged with printing counterfeit money and possessing $2,500 in fake bills.

Michael W. Garner, 20, and Lee G. Gibson, 21, were arrested Friday.

The Secret Service agent in charge here, John Kiljan, said a cleaning woman found some bogus bills at an insurance company office Thursday night and reported to police.

Kiljan said plates used in printing the $5 bills and snuff sheets of counterfeit money then were recovered.

The students were arrested at the insurance company office, where they worked as mail clerks. Bond was set at $5,000 each.

Kiljan said he did not know if any of the fake money had been put into circulation.

Airman Wins Safety Award

Airman L.C. Eugene M. Parker Jr., organizational maintenance squadron, received the Air Training Command to Promote Safety Award (TOPS) for his alertness in the face of possible danger, last week.

On Jan. 14, Airman Parker noticed a trail of hydraulic fluid across the ramp, which resulted in a thorough inspection for an aircraft. The aircraft was restored to flying status that same morning.

The TOPS citation commended Airman Parker for his alert action which prevented a possible serious aircraft accident.

Cadet Fleeing Officers Shot

VAN HORN, Tex. (AP)—A New Mexico Military Institute cadet was shot in the leg Friday while fleeing from officers near Pine Springs.

Texas Ranger Jim Nance identified the youth as Gregory Schanz, 19, who had been missing from the Roswell, N. M., school since Wednesday morning.

He died before reaching Thomson General Hospital in El Paso. An autopsy was conducted, but results were not available immediately.

Schanz stopped at a Pine Springs gas station for service but sped away when the attendant tried to collect for gas, authorities said. A search for the car began.

Culberson County Sheriff Orvel Capehart, City Marshal Bill Germany and Al Parker, a rancher, were driving north on Texas 54 and saw the youth walking off the road near its intersection with US 62-180. Officers said a car the youth apparently had been driving was found stuck on a side road west of Pine Springs.

The officers said they saw a gun in the youth's hand as they yelled at him, and they fired several shots in the air in trying to get him to stop.

It had not been determined which officer's bullet hit the youth.

Capehart emphasized that during the chase and after several shots were fired in the air the youth was seen carrying a weapon. He said a loaded .38 caliber pistol was found under the youth after he was hit.

Car Batteries Restore Phone Service; Regular Ones Burn

Fifteen automobile batteries, drafted into service by Southwestern Bell Telephone, were keeping communications open over a vast area of West Texas Saturday.

They were substituting for a small army of special storage batteries which powered a telephone relay station eight miles east of Coahoma. The original batteries were burned at noon Friday when an overloaded cell ignited and the blaze spread to the bank of 63 batteries in the station.

SERVICE DISRUPTED

As a result of the fire, long distance service from San Angelo westward to El Paso was interrupted for nearly two hours.

G. H. Sawyer, Southwestern Bell manager here, said that the difficulty was immediately spotted and crews from Big Spring, Colorado City and Lubbock were sent to the scene. The fire was put out in time to save most of the equipment but it left a mess which had to be cleaned up. It also created a problem of replacing the power which the burned battery bank had provided.

CAR BATTERIES

Sawyer said that auto battery shops in Big Spring were visited and 15 batteries purchased which were wired into the circuit and put into use.

"The service was restored and was as good as could be desired," said an official.

Meantime a new supply of the particular batteries needed for the station are being flown in from Dallas and will be installed, replacing the automobile cells now serving.

Residents of Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, Seminole, Monahan and other West Texas towns were unaware, for the most part, they were cut off from long distance service.

EMERGENCY HANDLED

An emergency hookup for any crisis was set up in minutes and rectifiers were called into play until the car batteries were connected.

Any call which properly merited the rating "emergency" was handled. Other calls were delayed with the explanation "the circuits are busy."

Service was back in full form Friday afternoon.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

High Winds Keep Most Local Pilots Grounded

By JERRY MONSON

Most pilots stayed down this week at Howard County Airport, due to the gusty winds, Howard Loyd of Big Spring Aircraft, reported. About 15 braved the strong winds on several short jaunts, most of the pilots coming from the Big Spring Flying Club.

Granbery both took cross-country hops early in the week.

Big Spring Flying Club had Ralph Rogers, Wayne Bartlett, Jack Little, Lawson Allen and Mrs. Norma Porter up in the Aircraft. Howard County Club members up this week included

Mrs. Fay Reed and Zan Dawson in the Colt, Buddy Hatch was on a cross-country trip to Snyder this week, and Howard Loyd flew Billy Massingill and Ellis Dyer to Levelland in the Cherokee.

Big Spring Aircraft reports a new student in the Cherokee, Judy Denton. Others up this week included Bob Herring and Frank Hardee in the Tri-Pacer and Roy Smith and Bill Biebel in the Cherokee.

A demonstration of split-precision aerial maneuvers will be staged at Carswell Air Force Base during Aerospace Days, Friday and Saturday, March 25-26. Robert (Bob) Hoover, former test pilot, will put his F-51 Mustang through its paces during a giant air show on both days. Gates to the base will open to the public at 9:30 a.m. each day.

Aerospace Days are being held to commemorate the 20th anniversary of Strategic Air Command, Tactical Air Command and the Air Defense Command. Official celebration date is Monday, March 21.

On the program at Carswell is a gigantic air show featuring some 30 different aircraft, including the B-52 Stratofortress and KC 135 Stratotanker.

Webb Aero Club plans to get a new Cessna 150, according to Capt. Paul M. Sullivan, club president. Pending approval of the ATC Sundry Fund Board, the club will receive the aircraft, its second Cessna. Capt. Sullivan said that although plans were not complete, one of the aircrafts will be available for cross-country flights.

C. J. Butcher Family Welcomed At Webb

By JO BRIGHT

The buff brick home at No. 1 Albrook is once again alive with the bustling activity of a family with much to do—and in a hurry to get about getting it done.

Traditionally the home of the wing commander at Webb Air Force Base, the house now serves as haven and contact point for Col. and Mrs. Chester J. Butcher and their children, Judith Anne, 9, and Bruce Lawrence, 7. Both rejoicing and grieving at their comings and goings are three silver miniature poodles, Suzette, Jolie and Sherie.

Col. Butcher formally took command of the 3560th Pilot Training Wing the first week in December with Mrs. Butcher and the children joining him here in January. His prior assignment was in the Pentagon where he was chief of the Space Division of the Directorate of Operational Requirements and Development Plans. A major part of his work was concerned with Air Force satellite space activities, and he initiated the Manned Orbiting Laboratory and Communication Satellite programs.

PARENTS

Mrs. Butcher is the former Harriet Eudy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Eudy who are making their retirement home in Fort Pierce, Fla. Her education included courses at the Temple Business School, and following her attendance at the American Institute of Banking School in Washington, D.C., she became associated with a bank there. It was in the nation's capital, in 1951, that she met her future husband.

Col. Butcher is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Butcher of Lafayette, La., and attended the University of Southwest Louisiana before entering West Point in 1939.

The Butchers were married at Ft. Meyer in the summer of 1955 and they made their first home in Colorado Springs, Colo., where both their children were born. Judith is now a fourth grader at St. Mary's Episcopal School where Bruce is in the first grade.

Col. Butcher has an outstanding academic and flying background. He holds a masters degree from Princeton University in aeronautical engineering and a masters degree from Georgetown University in business administration. He has also attended Harvard University and is a graduate of both the United States Military Academy and the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

Prior to attending Princeton, he was an experimental test pilot and later was chief of the Fighter Test Section at Eglin AFB, Fla.

SHOT DOWN

During World War II, Col. Butcher was shot down over southern France and was "interred" in Germany for almost two years. Col. Butcher recalls that his interest in music served him well during this time. He was hospitalized for six months but afterward, he and other prisoners were able to acquire some almost unusable band instruments. Taking the trombone for his own, Col. Butcher formed a small band that provided diversion for the long days. The love of music remained when the Americans were liberated, and Col. Butcher can still hold his own when musicians get together at Webb.

Like a busman on a holiday, Col. Butcher has joined the Aero Club and hopes to do some traveling with his family if a free weekend comes along. Probably, there will be no time to renew his interest in fencing, although he won the interscholastic championship while at West Point in 1941. Most of the time away from duties at Webb will be spent in becoming a "participating" member of the community.

Mrs. Butcher, a slender brown-eyed blond, prefers something creative to fill her leisure time. She has painted with oils and water colors, and occasionally completes a bit of embroidery for relaxation. While the family lived in Washington, both children were in their church choirs which Mrs. Butcher assisted with. She hopes to be able to continue with choir work at the base.

MODELING

Young Judith is well on the road to becoming a fashion model if she cares to continue it. In Washington, she modeled in shows after completing a well-known charm school and was a finalist in a "Little Miss Cotton" contest when she was six. While attending the school, recently publicized in a national magazine, Judith was interviewed by the New York Times for a picture story. She'd like to continue her modeling here.

Bruce is a husky fellow who likes football and excels at wrestling during the rough and tumble at home with his dad. His other interest are still pretty much undecided . . . he's looking around, though.

Mrs. Butcher plays the piano, but not as much as she did when she used to accompany her husband on a trombone number. They have an organ which Judith will learn to play before long.

Too, she may join her mother in creating ceramic articles—Mrs. Butcher's newest interest.

Spring in West Texas means its almost time for the rituals to begin at the backyard barbecues. Col. Butcher is ready to take his usual post there on the summer evenings when friends drop by, and who knows, if all goes well at Webb, the neglected golf clubs may even be used again.

Community Party Held In Country Club Friday

Col. and Mrs. Chester J. Butcher were complimented Friday evening by a group of Big Spring friends who hosted a welcoming dinner party in their honor at Big Spring Country Club.

Following a social hour in the Gold Room, guests were seated at tables for 10 in the ballroom. The tables were accented with ivory tapers, greenery and yellow chrysanthemums, and the head table featured a Western theme arrangement of yellow spider mums and pompons encircling a small covered wagon and cowboy figurines. On the hors d'oeuvre table in the Gold Room, a cowboy boot was glittered in gold and filled with the yellow chrysanthemums. The base was of yellow pompons.

Dr. F. W. Lurting presented Col. Butcher with the book, "Big Spring," by Shime Phillips as he welcomed him to Webb and Big Spring. Col. Butcher expressed appreciation to the community and its relationship to the base.

J. H. Parrishes Note Golden Anniversary

STANTON (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Parrish, 202 W. School, were honored on their 50th wedding anniversary, Sunday, March 5, at their home.

Hosts were their children, Mrs. C. S. Bevers; Mrs. J. D. Shewmake, Odessa; J. C. Parrish and Owen Parrish, both of Midland; and Harold Parrish, of Taklo, Texas.

They were married March 5, 1916 at Sweetwater, where they resided until they moved to Brownfield where they lived for 25 years. The couple has made Stanton their home for the past six years. Parrish is a retired farmer.

The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow roses. The wedding cake was decorated with confection wedding bells and the lettering, "50th Anniversary."

Assisting at the refreshment table were Miss Charlene Bevers and Mrs. Richard Jenkins, granddaughters of the honored couple; and Mrs. C. S. Bevers and Mrs. J. D. Shewmake.

Use Old Albums To Clean Shop

Discarded record albums and cardboard record covers make useful storage containers for circular saw blades. They protect the teeth against banging or nicking when the blade is stored in drawers or tool boxes, and the heavy cardboard protects your fingers against accidental cuts or scratches when you reach for them.

Sand Suggested In Car Ashtray

Is there any way to solve the vexing problem of extinguishing a cigarette in an automobile. Myron T. Gray, director of the National Tourist Department of the American Association, suggests filling the ashtray about halfway with sand or bird gravel. It's easier to dunk a cigarette in the sand while driving.

Send Ditty Bags To Soldiers

Mrs. Moree Sawtelle, left, and Miss Evelyn Long, center, inspect ditty bags assembled by local women for shipment to soldiers overseas. Mrs. Sawtelle is executive secretary of the Howard-Glassecock Chapter of the American Red Cross, and Miss Long is field director. Women representing organized groups that have constructed the bags are Mrs. Floyd Martin, Sew and Chatter Club; and Mrs. H. C. Moore and Mrs. Herman Taylor, both of the American Business Women's Association.

Ditty Bags Shipped To Viet Nam Soldiers

"Viet Nam GI's Need Ditty Bags and Women's Aid Sought" was the headline on a feature story in the Honolulu Advertiser which caught the eye of six local women who toured the islands earlier in the year.

One of the women, Mrs. A. C. Moore is employed at Webb AFB. Seeing men from Webb leave regularly for service in Viet Nam, she wanted to do something to help and contacted Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle, executive secretary of the Howard-Glassecock Counties Chapter of the American Red Cross. Mrs. Sawtelle confirmed the need for the ditty bags which are used by the soldiers to carry small personal belongings and toilet articles. Miss Evelyn Long, associated with the Red Cross at Webb, used one of these bags while serving overseas.

Items which the men usually keep in the bags are razors and blades, tooth brush and paste, shaving cream, comb, soap and perhaps a small book to read. Mrs. Moore approached other women with the idea of making the bags and soon received help from members of the Cactus and Scenic chapters of the American Business Association, the Sew and Chatter Club, the Martha Wesleyan Service Guild and Philathea Sunday school class of the First Methodist Church, and several other women who just wanted to help.

Wednesday afternoon when the Sew and Chatter Club met with Mrs. Marvin Sewell, 407 Washington, 27 of the bags were assembled and presented to the Red Cross for shipment.

The meeting marked Mrs. Sewell's birthday, also, and a cake was presented to her by Mrs. C. M. Weaver as well as a gift from the club. Mrs. Jack Roden was a guest, and Mrs. R. F. Blumh will be hostess to the club on March 26.

Air Force Wife Feted At Lunch

Mrs. T. J. R. Preston, wife of the squadron commander of the 356th Pilot Training Squadron at Webb AFB was honored Thursday with a luncheon at Holiday Inn. Lt. Col. Preston will be retiring from the Air Force soon and the family will move to San Antonio. Mrs. Preston plans to stay here with their children until school is out this summer.

Mrs. Preston, who wore a turquoise suit with a silk blouse, was presented a corsage of tiny yellow roses and white carnations.

Hostesses were the squadron wives, and arrangements were made by Mrs. G. H. Vorres and Mrs. S. G. Flowers. During the luncheon, Mrs. Vorres presented a tribute to Mrs. Preston. Welcomed as a new member of the group was Mrs. E. H. Wassert, who's husband has returned to Webb, and farewells were said to Mrs. C. O. Densch, Mrs. L. L. Arthur and Mrs. W. A. Cottrell.

Seamstresses Need Eye Rest

Seamstresses should take a few minutes off each half hour for the sake of their eyes. Close work over a long period of time can put a strain on eyes and one way to lessen the fatigue is to glance off into the distance for a moment every now and then.

Use Sharp Edge To Clean Joints

For filling in open joints around the bathtub where the tile meets the rim of the tub there are a number of plastic caulking or sealing materials that can be used. Available at all paint and hardware stores, these sealants will only hold properly if a good part of the old grout is scraped off first. The handyman will find that an ordinary beer can opener is an ideal tool for this job. The pointed hook is perfectly shaped for reaching into all the crevices.

Margurette Polanco Weds H. N. Martinez

Miss Margurette Polanco became the bride of Airman 2.C. Henry N. Martinez in a Saturday morning wedding at the La Fe Mission Baptist Church. The Rev. C. S. Pena officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Polanco, 411 NW 10th, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Vega, San Antonio.

A bridal arch and prayer bench graced the altar. Completing the background were baskets of carnations and palm leaves.

Mrs. Bill Scott, pianist, accompanied Miss Linda Fowler as she sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white Chantilly lace over peau de soie. The dress was of the Empire design and was highlighted with a satin bow in front. The long Chantilly lace train was attached to the satin bow and formed a cape effect over the shoulders.

The bride's veil of illusion was attached to a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of orchids surrounded by carnations and showered with ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Jesse Casillas was matron of honor. She wore a formal dress of antique white satin and carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Cynthia Kay Polanco, sister of the bride; Miss Yolanda Flores, Miss Linda Yvonne Salame, Miss Norma Lee Puga, Miss Mary Ann DeLeon and Miss Elma Sosa.

ATTENDANTS

The attendants wore identical dresses of floor-length orchid lace over matching taffeta. The dresses were designed with short sleeves and a bow at the waist. Their headpieces were rose buds made of orchid taffeta. They wore matching veils and carried bouquets of carnations showered with orchid ribbons.

Cushion maids were Miss Linda Islas and Miss Betty Dominguez. Bouquet maids were Miss Emma Polanco, sister of the bride, and Miss Mary Helen Dutchover. Miss Gloria Santiago was flower girl.

Louis Casillas was best man. Ushers were Alex Torres, Ken Blackington, Daniel E. Mata, Thomas Maynard, Jose P. Padilla and Arthur B. Petrini.

Carlos Mata Jr. was ring bearer, and Robert Dutchover Jr. was coin bearer.

For her traveling costume, the bride wore a pink suit and dark pink accessories. As her corsage, she wore the orchids from her bouquet.

The couple will take a wedding trip to Mexico in June and will reside at 1182 Nolan.

The bride is a senior at Big Spring High School, and the bridegroom graduated from Edgewood High School in San Antonio. He is stationed at Webb AFB.

MRS. ROY HAMAND

(Barr PhotoCenter)

Couple Married In Church Of Nazarene

Airman 2.C. and Mrs. Roy Thomas Hamand are on a trip to Long Beach, Calif., following their wedding Saturday evening in the Church of the Nazarene. The couple will reside in Long Beach after September following the bridegroom's termination of service in the Air Force.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Zennia Hare, 1607 Virginia, and the late Jack Thomas. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Hamand Sr. of Long Beach.

The double ring ceremony was officiated by the Rev. B. A. Patton of Mesquite, uncle of the bride. The vows were spoken before an altar graced with a white arch, entwined with greenery and flanked by candelabra holding white tapers. On each side were baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums interspersed with greenery.

The organist was Miss Shirley Clawson, and vocalists were Miss Cecilia Cooper and Miss Teresa Cooper. They presented "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a formal, full-length gown of white peau de sole with an Empire waistline banded with a deep fold. Rembrandered Alencon lace, clustered with pearls, enhanced the bodice and the controlled skirt which extended into a chapel train. The long, tapered sleeves ended in petal points over the hands. Her bouffant, waist-length veil of illusion was held by a caplet of flowers.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of white Frenched carnations carried atop a white Bible and showered with streamers spotted with white florettes.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Pat Fortune, and bridesmaids were Mrs. Jackie Thomas, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Brenda Mize and Mrs. Benny Pitzer. They were identically attired in pink street-length dresses styled with A-line skirts. Their pink-net headpieces were matched by their slippers, and each carried three long-stemmed pink roses tied with a white bow.

Pat Fortune, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man, and groomsmen were Perry Ham, Benny Pitzer and Don Gerber. Mendell Patton assisted as usher.

The bride's cousin, Miss Carol Mize was the flower girl, and ring bearers were Duane Thomas and Johnny Mize.

RECEPTION

The reception honoring the couple was held in the fellowship hall of the church where the bride and bridegroom were joined by her mother and brother in welcoming guests. Mrs. Benny Kilgore presided at the register, and members of the house party were Mrs. Evelyn Newsom, Mrs. Bill Hicks, Miss Wanda Young, Mrs. Eugene Gunn, Miss Dorene Bledsoe, Mrs. Bill Tolleson, Miss Jean Williams and Miss Barbara McGregor.

The refreshment table was covered with white lace and an underlay of pink, and appointments were of crystal and silver. The three-tiered wedding cake, all white, was topped with a miniature bride and groom. The bride's bouquet served as the centerpiece.

Out-of-town guests were Miss

Even though windows are weather-stripped, cold panes can set up a current of cool air which will move through the room. Storm sash will minimize this.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Have you noticed the faint hint of green that is beginning to show when you are atop a hill and look down on the trees? Our willow is making a big display of her first signs of spring and the branches have taken on a green hue and little leaves are beginning to sprout. The other trees seem to have taken a turn toward swelling and will probably break out in blossoms soon. We all know that there still could come a biting freeze that would play havoc with the fruit but when the breeze is soft and warm it certainly gets one in the mood for those lazy days.

But most of us hereabout still remember that perfectly terrible storm in April, 1938, when the sand blew all one day and blew so hard that a norther came right along with it that night and that brought on a snow. The wind, sand and snow combination padded our north screen door with a two inch layer of red hard-packed snow. For this reason we always hope that winter comes and stays, departs, and stays departed until it is time for winter again.

Guests of the DOUGLAS NEWMANS this weekend have been their son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. JAMES LANIER and their seven-month-old son, Douglas, of Hereford, and another daughter CARLA JEAN NEWMAN who is a student in North Texas State University.

MR. and MRS. CHARLES McKASKLE, MR. and MRS. MON McKASKLE, and TED FIELDS are enroute to Falcon Dam near Guerrero, Mexico, for a week of fishing. They were to be joined for the week by MR. and MRS. JESS MOORE and DOYLE all of whom live in Jackson, Miss. If the weather turns bad the party plans to spend their Mexico vacation in Monterrey.

I don't know if fishermen or skiers are the more determined. A few weeks ago FRED HALLER sustained a knee injury on a ski trip. His knee got all right and he's back on skis this weekend. He and his family are in Red River, N.M., for another fling at the slopes.

MR. and MRS. DYER SMITH of Dallas were Friday night guests of the TOMMY JORDANS. They were on their way to Midland to attend a wedding.

J. B. PICKLE is under treatment at the Howard County Hospital Foundation.

Home Material Stresses Design

Contractors now encourage homeowners to choose siding with an eye to the house's architectural style, size, color need and even "environmental factors" such as geographic location. The emphasis on design is made possible by developments in modern siding materials. Mineral fiber, for example, has color baked right in and comes in a variety of shingle styles and textured surfaces.

Don't Let The Name Fool You, Kinney Warns

By SAM BLACKBURN

If you should be told that a fellow is a heavy forger, or perhaps a head chisler—don't jump to the conclusion that he is a crook.

Even if it is stated he associated with an alley man or a gang operator, it is not necessarily true he is wanted by the police.

By the same token, if you are told that some chap is a pulpit man, don't address him as reverend. He is not necessarily a minister.

Leon Kinney, manager of the Texas Employment Commission office here, says that these titles, as well as such designations as snowman, sandman or Santa Claus, are not mysterious code names. They are simply the proper designation of jobs of importance in business and industry.

For example, just to keep the record straight, a heavy forger is a fellow who operates a press to shape heated metals in a forge.

And a head chisler, despite what you may think, is a worker who removes meat, glands, brains and other organs from the heads of slaughtered animals. The products he extracts are used in the manufacture of medicines.

Kinney said that definitions of these two jobs are to be found in an important new book called Dictionary of Occupational Titles. A copy of this book has been provided the TEC office here to guide clerks when applicants for employment in unusual jobs show up.

This is the third edition of

the big book and there are 23,000 job titles listed on its pages. There are 7,000 job titles which appeared in earlier editions but disappeared or become obsolete. However, the book has 6,000 new titles.

Kinney said that TEC analysts contributed 4,000 job definitions to this internationally recognized guide to today's world of work. His staff is now making a study of the new DOT volume to prepare themselves to deal with applicants who ask for help.

Speaking of a youngster who may assert he wants work as an alleyman, he is advised that he is not a sneak thief. He wants a job attending a retort vapor condenser used in the destructive distillation of wood. And despite his ominous designation "gang operator" is a fellow who is merely the attendant taking care of one or more sewing machines used to hem continuous lengths of material. And," Kinney points out, "a pulpit man has nothing to do with virtue and piety. He is a workman trained to tend a mechanism that moves steel shapes in a specified sequence through a soaking pit furnace."

Kinney suggests if you need a snowman, a sandman or a Santa Claus, it is quite possible his TEC staff will be able to help you. He recommends a visit to the TEC offices at 406 Rannels. Further, Kinney proposes, if you are an applicant for employment don't get offended if you are classified by the TEC interviewer as a "broke man" or a "pillar robber."

Be assured, he says, the interviewer is casting no reflection on your financial condition nor your law abiding character. It may be a job as a pillar robber is just what you're looking for.

Spears Retires From Pontiac

Meddie R. (Bob) Spears, retired in February as director of owner relations for Pontiac division of General Motors Corp. A native of Howard County, having been born here in 1906, he attended schools in Big Spring until 1922 when the family moved to Dallas. His sister, Mrs. L. Z. Marchbanks, is a life-long resident here.

Spears joined Pontiac in 1934 after 10 years with other divisions. His assignments included service in Dallas and Oklahoma City prior to World War II when he served with the U.S. Army Air Force. Since 1945, he served in Dallas and Oklahoma City. In 1958, he moved to Pontiac, Mich., as assistant to the general sales manager and was named director of field training in 1959. He assumed his present position Aug. 1, 1963. Spears and his wife live in Dallas.

County Junior Stock Show Gets Started Here Tuesday

Monday will be a busy day at the Howard County fair barns. Workmen will be busy getting the place in shape for the opening of the 29th Annual Howard County FFA and 4-H Club Stock Show which begins Tuesday morning.

Most of the county's younger breeders have been in San Angelo for the past several days and will not be home until today. Their task is to get their stock ready for the weighing-in ceremonies which begin at 8 a.m. Tuesday and officially puts the 1966 fat stock show in operation. The show runs through Thursday.

Highlights include the judging of the steers and lambs Wednesday, and the auction sale at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Possibly more than 150 boys and girls from the county's 4-H Clubs and the FFA chapters in the schools will be on hand to take part in this show. Steers and lambs will be shown. All activities at the show are open to the public. There is no admission charge.

Exhibitors, buyers, officials and friends of the project will be fed at a barbecue to be served at 6 p.m. Thursday at the barn, preceding the auction.

The show is sponsored by the Big Spring Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Howard County Junior Livestock Association. Herb Helbig is the show superintendent.

Helbig said judges are to be Oliver West, Glasscock County for the lambs, and Stanley Westbrook, Tarleton State College, Stephenville, for the steers. Helbig said the quality of the entries this year should be exceptionally good. Howard County steers have been winning many honors this spring at the biggest stock shows in the state.

Some of the young showmen, who have already scored heavily at the state shows,

Eleven Cases Ready To Try

Eleven of the 12 original cases set for trial this week on the 118th District Court Criminal docket are still scheduled for trial, insofar as the state is concerned.

Wayne Burns, district attorney, said that he had made no changes in the docket. The one case which will probably not be called up is a charge of burglary against Hurlie Joe Johnson. According to Wayne Tollett, investigator for Burns' office, Johnson is now in the state penitentiary serving a sentence imposed on him in Dawson County.

Judge Ralph Caton will sound the docket in his court at 10 a.m. Monday. Cases which are announced ready will be assigned trial dates. A jury panel is to report to the court at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

Cases now on the docket include two where the defendant is under indictment for assault with intent to murder. One of these is against Raymond Oliver, who is alleged to have shot Lorenza Jackson in the heart. Jackson has since recovered from his wound. The second assault with intent to murder charge is against Robert Barragan. This indictment grows out of an alleged beating given Mrs. Barragan.

Other cases on the docket are Doyle Denton, habitual theft; Jerry Arrick, DWI second; Ismael F. Deanda, possession of marijuana; Will E. Pharr, embezzlement; Willie James Hubbard, DWI second offense; Donald B. Wheat, burglary; William D. Graham, DWI second; Ramon Nunez, DWI second; and Ramon Nunez, forgery.

Car Tags To Be Sold In Coahoma

Residents of the Coahoma community can save themselves a trip to Big Spring March 15-16 by applying for their 1966 automobile licenses at the city hall in their own community.

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, said she is dispatching Dorothy Moore, one of her deputies, to Coahoma Tuesday and Wednesday to set up headquarters in the Coahoma city hall and be prepared to issue license plates for all types of motor vehicles.

Office hours will be from 8:30 to 4:30 p.m. each day.

Mrs. LeFevre pointed out that deadline for obtaining current year license plates is only three weeks away. She anticipates a sizable rush of belated motorists during the last week of the license period. Through March 10, the tax office had issued auto license plates totalling $121,983.78. This was about $10,000 under the figure for the same date last year. On March 10, 1965, the receipts were $134,366.87.

However, Mrs. LeFevre pointed out that the office has on hand and being processed about $40,000 worth of business from one of the big trucking companies here. This, she said, can logically be listed as business handled prior to March 10.

She urged all car owners who have not done so to get their tags as soon as they can conveniently do so. Otherwise, there may be some waiting in lines as the licensing period ends.

A Devotional For The Day

He (John) came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. (Luke 3:3)

PRAYER: Forgive us, O Lord, for our sins. Give us the courage to repent and wisdom to walk worthy of the high calling in Christ Jesus. We pray in the name of our Lord and Redeemer. Amen.

(From the "Upper Room")

Four Days To Go

Monday - Tuesday - Wednesday - and Thursday.

Then it will be all over so far as the opportunity exists for qualifying as a voter in 1966 elections.

The first 10 days of an extended period for emergency registration under the state's new voter act have produced encouraging results. Approximately 500 have signed up. This is as many as most observers believed would sign up during the entire period.

We hope there will be that many more within the last four days. Obviously, most of us have qualified either during the emergency period or the poll tax period, but that doesn't mean we can't help promote maximum registration. Why not ask everyone you contact during the four day period: "Have you qualified to vote this year?"

If the answer is "no," tear out one of the forms appearing in the Herald and urge them to fill it in, and take or mail it promptly to the tax collector's office. There's no charge—and it's the biggest bargain since free air.

Exceptional Job

The trouble with exceptional people is that you are likely to lose them. And so it is with Douglas Wiehe, who has served as director of the Big Spring High School band for the past nine years. That North Texas State University chose him is a mark of his ability.

Few would argue the point that Mr. Wiehe has been the outstanding director in the history of the school's band program. That's a high rating when it is considered that the system has had several top flight men in the past.

In his unassuming way, Mr. Wiehe has combined the characteristics of a genuinely genteel personality with that of rare musical ability. In addition he mixed the ingredients of a unique skill as educator, patience and humor necessary to establish rapport with young people, and sheer physical stamina to stay up with the young musicians.

The result has been well disciplined bands with superior musical achievements. In an area which supplies some of the toughest competition of the state, his bands have consistently more than held their own. Mr. Wiehe will leave the community richer culturally than when he came.

Discrimination Against The States

WASHINGTON — "Discrimination" in any form by any governmental institution is supposed nowadays to be something plainly unconstitutional and illegal. When, however, the Supreme Court of the United States says it is constitutional to discriminate between the states of the union by punishing some and letting others be immune, hardly any voices are raised in protest.

LAST MONDAY the highest court in the land, by a virtually unanimous decision, ruled that most states in the union can retain literacy tests and other qualifications for voters but that certain states cannot. Instead of punishing individual officials for violating the laws against letting racial bias interfere with registration of voters, the Congress passed in 1965 a law taking away from certain states the privilege of setting voter qualifications altogether, and this the Supreme Court now says is constitutional.

THE CONSTITUTION speaks of "equal protection of the laws," but the Supreme Court in its latest ruling says this guarantee isn't applicable as between states. Also, for centuries the principle of justice has been proclaimed that anybody accused of wrongdoing should be presumed to be innocent until proved guilty. The Supreme Court, however, now declares that this doesn't apply to the states of the union and that, even without a trial in a court, a state on the basis of interference or mere suspicion may be deprived of its right to use voter-qualification tests of any kind.

THE PUNISHMENT meted out by Congress is that a state suspected of racial discrimination in the use of any voter test may be prohibited for a period of five years from using such tests. This means that in certain states a would-be registrant need not be able to read or write or to demonstrate any educational achievement or possess good moral character, while other states can retain similar qualifications. Yet the votes of the illiterate citizens could form a majority in a community and result in the passage of laws or ordinances that could injure the interests of persons really qualified to vote.

The Fifteenth Amendment merely says that the right of citizens to vote cannot be "denied or abridged" on account of race or color. It doesn't say that a person cannot be denied the right to vote if he or she is illiterate. Indeed, in most states of the union such qualifications are required by law and are permitted to stand.

IT WILL BE NOTED, moreover, that states as an institution are put on trial instead of officials who may have been guilty of abusing the laws on voter qualifications by applying them in a manner that constitutes racial discrimination.

The Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution prohibits official discrimination as between citizens in the different states of the union. It says all citizens are entitled to "equal protection of the laws." Citizens in certain states have been required to take voter tests in the past and have long been registered as voters. But others now are declared immune from such tests and are allowed to vote and exercise a majority's right in the community.

JUST 100 YEARS ago a majority in Congress unseated the duly elected representatives of several states in the South and the federal government sent troops to coerce the legislatures into "ratifying" both the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, which forbid racial discrimination. It was a fraudulent procedure, but the Supreme Court has from that time on never ventured to rule on the scandal of the "ratification" process. The Machiavellian doctrine that "the end justifies the means" evidently still prevails as "the spirit of the times."

WHAT OTHERS SAY

The unemployment rate for Negroes for years has been running about double that for white workers.

Dr. Arthur M. Ross, the new commissioner of the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics, now predicts that unless better jobs open for Negroes the unemployment rate among them will be four times that for whites by 1975.

"Negroes will have to run twice as fast," he added, "in order to stand still."

The opening of better jobs will call for better preparation among all workers, and Dr. Ross observed that even with greater emphasis on education "we won't have a very highly educated work force by 1975."

Nine per cent of the work force will be formed of persons with less than eight years of school, 39 per cent will not have high school education, and only 14 per cent will be college graduates.

Further, "people will want quality jobs, not just jobs," and that is likely to make the dissatisfaction of the unemployed greater. The greatest problem facing the economy is the provision of acceptable jobs for the many who are not yet trained for work in a highly technological society, and Negroes still form too large a proportion of that number.

Price Increases Reflect Inflation Pressure

By JACK LEFLER

NEW YORK (AP) — A rash of price increases raised the specter of inflation this week.

Inflation is the big worry of economists and government officials. There is talk of a possible tax increase and price and wage controls to combat it.

Simplified, inflation is too many dollars chasing too few goods.

Price increases are a symptom.

Here are some that were announced this week:

More companies joined in the $10-a-ton boost of a price of newsprint, an action that is estimated will cost U.S. newspaper publishers $75 million a year.

Monsanto Co. raised the price of two phosphate plasticizers by 1 1/2 cents a pound and of methyl salicylate, or wintergreen flavoring, by 5 cents a pound.

Union Carbide Corp. boosted the price of methanol, a basic chemical, by 3 cents a gallon.

Other producers followed United States Steel Corp.'s increases in steel plate prices.

STYRENE RAISE
Dow Chemical Corp. raised the price of styrene monomer, a 3-billion-a-pound-a-year plastic product, 1 cent a pound.

West Coast lumber and plywood prices firmed as a result of the war in Viet Nam and the possibility of an industry strike.

The National Association of Purchasing Agents said "the classic symptoms of a war economy" are compounding procurement problems and increasing the threat of inflation.

The organization said a survey of its members showed that "lengthening deliveries, rising prices and mounting shortages are creating hectic environments in many purchasing offices."

"In most cases," it added,

HIKES ON A WIDE FRONT

- Widespread product price hikes cause worry.
- Newsprint, chemicals, steel follow pattern.
- Competition for money boosts interest rates.
- Unemployment rate falls to new low level.
- Automobile production shows gain for week.

"the impact of rising prices is felt not as much in the amount of increase as in the wide range of commodities affected."

PLANT EXPANSION

The Commerce Department announced that industry expects to increase spending for new plants and equipment this year by 16 per cent from the 1964 record of $51.8 billion to $60.230,000.

The projected increase is only slightly higher than the 15.5 per cent gain of 1965.

President Johnson warned that the level of projected expenditures requires government policymakers to "keep an extremely close watch on economic developments."

"We must be prepared to act quickly in the field of taxation if such action appears necessary," he added.

Major banks raised their minimum lending rate — the interest charged the biggest borrowers — to 5 1/2 per cent from 5 per cent.

INTEREST UP

Thomas S. Gates, chairman, and John M. Meyer Jr., president, of Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of New York, which initiated the move, said, the boost "was the result of disparities existing between commercial bank and other credit market rates and of a continuing increase in loan demand."

The stock market, which had been rallying after a four-week slump, declined immediately after the announcement. Brokers had said all along that worry about tighter money was one of the factors contributing to the market decline.

With the economy continuing to expand, the unemployment rate fell to 3.7 per cent of the labor force, a 12-year low, in mid-February, from 4 per cent in January.

MORE CAR OUTPUT

Automobile production, helped by American Motors Corp.'s resumption of operations, rose this week to an estimated 199,800 passenger cars from 194,994 last week but trailed the year ago total of 213,263.

The week's total brought car completions for the year to 1,946,525, compared with 2,017,026 at this time last year.

The industry ran up a record this week when the 5 millionth 1966 model rolled off an assembly line. This was 15 days earlier than the previous record set in 1965.

Steel production last week totaled 2.66 million tons, highest for any week since last June.

Around The Rim

An Oldster Looks At New Math

Some smarty-pants columnists make frivolous remarks about the "new math," because they are ignorant, or lazy, or have children who know more than they do.

Not me, boy. I wanted to know something about the new math so, since last week was Public Schools Week, I just up and visited Mrs. Murray's 4th grade arithmetic (gee, do they still call it that?) period at Marcy School.

THE FIRST MISTAKE I made was in not having gone to the second grade instead of the fourth. The bright young things the other morning were kicking around number breakdowns, and transferring tens to hundreds, and this sort of thing which Miss Campbell in my fourth grade never taught me.

It got a little more involved. Mrs. Murray was having them do estimates, which, in a lot of cases, works out all right. It was agreed by the group that perhaps the principal at the start of the year could estimate the number of desks that might be needed in the room, but if a construction man were going to lay tile on the floor, he'd better be more accurate.

I DIDN'T TELL the kids, but there came an uneasy feeling that the bank just estimates my balance at the end of every month.

Anyway, in the matter of estimating, the point was gotten across that this is time-saving and a great deal simpler if you don't have to be right on the nose.

Well, we 4th graders worked out some examples of how estimating can be done, and how to do it. I must say that the girls and boys already had the knack of moving to the nearest multiple (and I forget what that is) to arrive at a fairly close conclusion.

THERE WAS THE proposition of serving 17 lunches in the cafeteria, at 35 cents per plate. About how much would that cost?

Well, as an old tootems and threeterms man (you know, tootems two is four), I had to get out pencil and paper and laboriously multiply 17 times 35. After counting on fingers and making a couple of erasures, I came up with the answer that all that mess of food would cost $5.95.

BUT MEANWHILE, the new-math generation had come up with the use of multiples as short-cuts, and figured that 20 times 30 would make it pretty close. Sure enough, that runs to six bucks. So what have you got left? A nickel, which at today's dollar value, can be sniffed on down the drain, anyway. Or saved to be applied on the next day's lunch.

Leaving the kidding aside, I testify that Mrs. Murray had her charges thinking sharply, and that most of them were a good deal further along with the mathematics bit than were the 4th graders of my generation.

LET'S CONCEDE that not everybody in the class is 100 per cent up on the topic at hand. One lovely little blonde got a 98 and an 89 mixed up, and when this was called to her attention she said, "I just can't see numbers this morning."

Don't worry, honey. Some of us never could see numbers. The new math came too late. —BOB WHIPKEY

The Batman Cameth

WASHINGTON — "When all else fails, the President of the United States still has one secret weapon which he and he alone has the power to use. One night last week, when all else failed, the President decided to use it."

Lights up—we see phone and hearing ringing.

Suddenly Batman comes out on stage and walks over to the phone. He picks it up. "Yes, chief. You want to speak to Valenti? He's in the Batroom . . . just a minute. I'll get him."

Jack Valenti, dressed as Robin, comes out on stage.

"HELLO, CHIEF, this is Robin. Robin Valenti. Yes, I know—I changed my name to Robin so Marvin Watson wouldn't be able to trace my telephone calls . . . What's that?—Holy-Fuhr-bright! You'd better speak to the Batman. As he hands the phone to Batman, he says, "He wants us to go to Viet Nam."

The Batman grabs the phone and says to Robin, "He must be out of his mind." Then he speaks into the phone, "Yes, chief, but chief, yes, I know, chief . . . But I'm 4-F. I've got psychological problems. Why else would I be wearing leotards?"

Robin: "Tell him I've got a bad knee."

BATMAN: "Robin has a bad knee. Why don't you send Cassius Clay?"

The Batman hangs up. Turns to Robin. "He says if we don't go, he'll get us on income taxes."

Robin: "Holy J. Edgar Hoover! He must know about the money we kept from the Brink's robbery."

"Well, Robin, we better see what the computer says."

They go over to the computer.

Batman says, "If your name was Ho, where would you go?"

Robin: "Ho—go—I would go to Hanoi. But it doesn't rhyme."

BATMAN: "Good thinking, Boy Wonder. That's how Ho has fooled everyone. Now if you played a gong, where would it clong?"

Robin: "In the Viet Cong!"

Batman: "Robin, I think Ho is behind the Viet Cong."

Robin: "Holy McNamara! We better tell Dean Rusk."

Batman: "Wait, Robin. Rusk has enough problems as it is. We'd better take care of Ho ourselves."

Robin: "But how?"

Batman: "Let's see what the computer says." Batman takes out card.

Robin: "What does it say?"

Batman: "By all means, escalate."

ROBIN: "Holy Joe Alsop! Look, there's another card."

Batman takes second card. "Get out of Viet Nam."

Robin: "Holy Walter Lippmann! There's a third card."

Batman reads third card. "Bomb Hanoi."

Robin says: "Holy Goldwater!"

Batman reads fourth card. "Take it to the United Nations."

Robin: "Holy Goldberg!"

BATMAN: "We're in trouble, Robin. I'm not about to go to Viet Nam. I was a veteran in World War II."

Robin: "And I'm not about to go to Viet Nam. I went to the University of California at Berkeley."

Batman: "But how can we get out of it?"

Robin: "Holy Bill Moyers! I think I've got it. If we announce the President is sending us to Viet Nam before he announces it, he'll get so mad he won't send us."

Batman: "Robin, that's good thinking. What's Drew Pearson's telephone number?"

Punishment For Men At The Top

WASHINGTON — When John Foster Dulles lay dying of cancer in Walter Reed Hospital his good friend and admirer, Dean Rusk, called on him. In a long, moving discourse on his trials and tribulations as Secretary of State, an office Rusk would succeed to two years later, Dulles spoke of the pitfalls of responsibility and power.

HE SAID THAT if he had not been so weighed down by fatigue he believed he would not have made what in retrospect seemed to him a serious mistake. That was the rejection with almost brutal abruptness of Egypt's request for help in building the Aswan dam on the Nile.

With increasing private concern here over the "fatigue factor" among a dozen or more top officials responsible for critical decisions, this incident takes on new relevance. Moreover, recent scientific studies show that long jet flights covering a half-dozen or more time zones definitely impair the individual's ability.

THE CIRCADIAN rhythm, the tempo of activity set by man's mysterious inner biological clock, was shown by the Federal Aviation Agency to have been thrown off balance in a test of individuals under careful scientific observation flown from Oklahoma City to Rome and to Manila. Besides physical changes affecting them, the men—all scientists—had trouble in the first 24 hours after the flights in adding a column of figures. Their reaction times were almost twice as long as they had been before the flight and heart beat and temperature took almost four days to shift to the new daylight cycle with a seven-hour time difference in Rome and 19 in Manila.

ANYONE WHO HAS flown nonstop across the Atlantic, and particularly on overnight flights, or across the Pacific with only a brief operational pause or two, knows the feeling of discombobulation that follows. For at least a day and a half you feel as though you had left part of your anatomy behind. The FAA tests have shown that this is not just fatigue but an impairment of the biological mechanism regulating the cycle of sleeping and waking and, therefore, the individual's ability to function.

WHAT THIS MEANS for men like Rusk and Secretary of State Robert S. McNamara is obvious enough. McNamara flies out to Viet Nam, crossing a dozen time zones. He lands running and jumps from battle zone to battle zone. At the end of a two or three-day stay he gives a statement on the war. Some of his more far-out pronouncements on Viet Nam made on the spot—such as that progress toward victory would be sufficiently evident by the end of 1965 that the withdrawal of American troops could begin—may come from fatigue and the distortion in the setting of his biological clock.

THESE MEN at the top are subject to cruel and unusual punishment. No one can doubt their heroic performance under the circumstances. But the question arises whether it is necessary to subject themselves to such punishment. Their decisions carry so much weight, in a world living with the threat of nuclear war, that the question cannot simply be brushed aside.

MAN AT TIMES seems bent on defeating himself by his own technology. With the supersonic transport plane at 2,000 miles an hour, due in 1970, there is talk of flying to London in the early morning for a luncheon conference and flying back the same afternoon. Conditioned by months and years of training astronauts may be able to take it. But it is not for ordinary mortals.

Billy Graham

Please tell me how I can love my enemy?

D.R. There is only one way: let the love of Christ be shed abroad in your heart. By nature, we strike out against anyone who hurts us, speaks ill of us, or shuns us. No one could have been more sensitive than I before Christ came into my life. As a young man I tried to physically hurt a fellow who did me an injustice. I carried a chip on my shoulder, was easily upset when slighted, and was prepared to lash at anyone who hurt me. But when Christ came in, He made all the difference.

Now, God has given me a love for people who mistreat me. I am not bragging, for it is not me—it is the spirit of Christ in my life that made me change. I find it easy and enjoyable to go out of my way to be good to those who try to do me harm. I do it regularly. It may not help those I go to, but it does me a lot of good just to see God helping me to do the thing I could never have done without Him.

This is the answer to our world problem. War, violence and tyranny are spiritual problems. James, in his epistle said, "From whence come wars? Come they not from your own lusts?" Peace can never come to the world until war is taken out of the human heart, and only God can do that.

WHAT DOES HE SEE?

What a birthday present! Young Dan can see all sorts of things with that telescope that are invisible to the naked eye. The sky, with its stars and its moon, seems so much closer.

Yet, there is still so much that remains unseen. The best instruments man can make are insignificant when measured against the scope and depth of God's universe.

That's where faith comes in. We know that there are other galaxies that can't be seen through even the most powerful of telescopes. And we know, too, that faith, though invisible, is the greatest power of all.

If faith is something that doesn't quite come across to you, the Church is the best place in the world to help you solve its mystery. If faith is already yours—what better way is there to reaffirm it than by going to church this Sunday?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL • ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Nancy Sinatra's Record Is On Top

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It's no great surprise that a Sinatra record is the No. 1 seller in the country today. Would you believe it's Nancy Sinatra's? You would if you were attuned to the teenage beat. Nancy's record, "These Boots Were Made For Walkin'," is atop the top 40 in sales and radio play. Over a million copies have been sold, in this country and the record is soaring in Australia, England and other countries. All this is extremely gratifying to Nancy, a petite, well put-together, blonde-streaked brunette.

BOOKS

Fast Moving Spy Thriller

SALUTE FROM A DEAD MAN. By Donald MacKenzie. Houghton Mifflin. $3.95. A little roll of film, containing secret electronics data, is the prize for which the good guys and the bad guys contend in this rugged and tense suspense novel.

It had been planned in the handbag of young, lonely Linda Swann, who unsuspectingly carried it past the security guards of a secret laboratory in London. But then Linda discovered the film, guessed at its importance, and refused to turn it over to her scheming lover, Hugh Morgan—who happened to be a Communist agent, though she hadn't known that.

"After recording so many records with so little success, it's pretty hard to believe what is happening," she says. No one is happier with her hit than her noted parent, Frank Sinatra.

"He's very pleased," reports Nancy. "Now he calls me 'star'." His reaction could well comprise more than mere paternal pride. Nancy recorded "Boots" for Reprise, her father's company, and the disc is likely to be the largest selling single in the firm's history.

'THE UGLY DACHSHUND'
Suzanne Pleshette and Dean Jones

Twin Disney Bill To Open At Ritz

Two of Hollywood's versatile talents, Dean Jones and Suzanne Pleshette, are teamed in Wall Disney's romantic-comedy, "The Ugly Dachshund." As a pair of newly-weds coping with a group of canine cut-ups, they prove the perfect foil for five appealing dog stars. Based on the novel by G. B. Stern, this is a story of people and their pets. A great Dane puppy grows up with a litter of dachshunds and believes himself to be one of the smaller breed.

"The Ugly Dachshund" is the featured motion picture in Disney's program of entertainment, which includes the animated cartoon featurette, "Winnie the Pooh and the Honey Tree."

Having completed his role as a perplexed F.B.I. agent in Disney's "That Darn Cat" with Hayley Mills and Dorothy Froyne, Dean Jones was the choice to play the young commercial artist with a penchant for great Danes and an aversion to dachshunds.

Known primarily for her dramatic portrayals on stage and screen, Suzanne Pleshette reveals a unique flair for comedy as the sophisticated young wife whose world revolves around her pet dachshunds.

As the kind-hearted veterinarian with an understanding of canine and human behavior, veteran performer Charlie Ruggles plays the third starring role.

One of the most respected actors and comedians in motion pictures and television is Kelly Thordsen. As the harassed policeman, Officer Carmody, he adds an outstanding portrayal to an impressive list.

Parley Baer, Charles Lane, Robert Kino, Mako and Richard Wessel round out a hand-picked cast of comedy performers.

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The Garth Turpenings have a pipe organ in the garage. The Turpening sons shoved the family car out into the cold to make room for a home-built pipe organ, fashioned from parts picked up from churches which were dismantling old-style organs.

The console—which has the keyboard—is in an alcove in the dining room (it took six men to move it into place) but the pipes which produce the sound fill the garage.

All three sons and Mrs. Turpening can play the organ, though only one boy has had formal training.

The project began modestly enough two years ago when two of the sons, Gary, now 20, and Lee, 18, brought home some old pipes from an organ being dismantled at a nearby church.

Their brother, Larry, 13 at the time, decided to fashion them into a working organ for a school science project.

He cut a piano keyboard in half for the two rows of keys, accumulated a used wind chest from the Toledo Pipe Organ Co., and converted a vacuum cleaner motor for power.

It was so successful the Toledo company offered to let him have another old pipe organ from a church for transportation costs, $25.

"When the moving van drove up, I expected to see the pipes off in a corner of the big truck," Garth Turpening recalls, "but they took up the entire truck."

Larry fitted the 500 pipes into the garage and went to work, using more parts from another old organ from a different church.

The pipes were from a wind organ and the console from an electric version, so the pipes had to be converted to operate electrically.

STAMP NEWS

Special Issue Marks Austria's Postal Code

By SYD KRONISH
AP Newswriter
A special stamp marking the introduction of postal codes in Austria has just been issued by that country. It is a 1.50 schilling multicolored stamp depicting an outline map of Austria with the nine routing postal zones in black. The stamp was designed by Karl Gessner, reports the Austrian Postal Administration.

Here is some pertinent information on two stamp exhibitions scheduled this year. The 1966 Combined Philatelic Exhibition (COMPEX) will be held Sept. 9-11 in that city. Over 1,000 frames will be on exhibit sponsored by 12 Chicago philatelic organizations. An exhibition of material from the National Space Agency is planned as well as space stamps from various countries of the world. The theme, of course, is "The Space Age."

The American Topical Association will be holding its 15th international convention in Waltham, Mass., June 24-26. The TOPEX 66 Exhibition will take place in the Cardinal Spellman Philatelic Museum on the campus of Regis College, Weston, Mass. This will be the first topical exhibition in the museum.

The Republic of Korea has issued a new set of four stamps marking the 15th anniversary of the U.N. forces participating in the Korean War. One 4 won shows the flags of Australia, Belgium, England, Canada and Colombia. Another 4 won depicts the flags of Denmark, Ethiopia, France, Greece and India. A third 4 won adhesive illustrates the flags of the Philippines, Sweden, Thailand, Turkey and the Union of South Africa. A 10 won features the flags of the United Nations, Korea and the United States plus a portrait of Gen. Douglas MacArthur. A special cachet cover was also issued bearing the portrait of Gen. MacArthur.

An interesting new set of stamps has been issued by Venezuela illustrating territories claimed by that country. The 5 centimos shows Codazzi's map of 1840. The 15 c has Restrepo's map of 1827, 40 c de Surville's map of 1778, 30 c J. Criz Cano's map of 1775. Another stamp in the set depicts Venezuela's 50

With a garage full of organ pipes, Turpening wonders if some day the roof will blow off. But he says he's happy to see his sons doing something constructive—even if it does crowd out the car.

BIG BRIDGE ON FM 700 NORTH SOLVES IMPORTANT PROBLEM
Major structure will serve in place of several lesser crossings

Bigger Bridge Provides Only One Creek Crossing

The meandering channel of a creek, which bisected the right-of-way route several times on the new FM 700 north leg, posed a problem to the contractor, J. H. Strain and Sons of Abilene. The problem has been solved by digging the creek a new channel to divert it from the route of the road and by substituting one sizable bridge over the drainage area for a number of lesser crossings. The only alternative was to build a number of lesser bridges. Now the creek will cross the highway at only one point. Strain is making rapid progress with the road job, and grading is well under way. Preliminary elevations for crossing the T&P Railway Co. tracks at the south terminus are being erected. This is the other major structure contemplated on the road. It will follow the general design of the overhead crossing on IS 20. The job encompasses 2.778 miles of road, connecting IS 20 and the north end of the present FM road with SH 350. Cost of the job is nearly half a million dollars.

Texas Farm Income Hikes

AUSTIN (AP) — Average net income per Texas farm was $4,972 in 1965, up 27 per cent from 1964, the Texas Crop and Stock Reporting Service said Friday. The 1965 figure represents an increase of 8 per cent from 1963 when average income was $4,622. The U.S. Department of Agriculture agency said Texas farmers received $2.7 billion from marketings and government payments in 1965, up 11 per cent from 1964. Government payments totaled $198 million, up 14 per cent.
