Restrained At Execution Site

Holding one of the couple's eight children, the wife of Ta Vinh is restrained from entering marketplace in Saigon where minutes later her husband was executed by firing squad for profiteering. The 34-year-old businessman of Chinese extraction had been convicted by a special tribunal, accused of "economic sabotage," hoarding, speculation, illegal transfers of funds and bribery. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Profiteering Saigon Businessman

The body of Ta Vinh, 34, a businessman of Chinese extraction convicted of profiteering, slumps away from post to which he was tied after firing squad of 10 men fired a ragged blast of carbine bullets into his chest in Saigon's downtown market place early today. He was manager of the Sai Hing Import-Export firm and accused of "economic sabotage" by a special tribunal. He also was convicted of hoarding, speculation, illegal transfers of funds and bribery. Viet Executed For Wartime Profiteering

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A government firing squad today executed the first war profiteer sentenced to death in Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's pledged crackdown against widespread graft and corruption.

A battalion of Vietnamese paratroopers sealed off the Saigon marketplace to prevent any interference from the city's large Chinese population as Ta Vinh, 34, a wealthy businessman of Chinese descent, was tied to the execution stake at dawn.

REJECTS CLEMENCY — The government rejected all appeals for clemency for the father of eight who had been convicted of "economic sabotage" by a special tribunal named by Ky to deal with war profiteers. The charges against Vinh, manager of an import-export firm, included hoarding, speculation, illegal transfer of funds and bribery.

Vinh's wife, wailing and shouting in English, Chinese and Vietnamese, appeared at the square with seven of her children to plead for her husband's life. National police kept her behind the barred wire from sight of the execution as the bullets from the 10-man army firing squad tore into Vinh's chest.

While the political effect of the execution remained unclear, a different problem for the government appeared to be simmering down. Shops reopened in Da Nang this morning after two days of peaceful demonstrations protesting the dismissal of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi as commander of the army's 1st Corps.

Thi, 43, a potential rival to Ky, was fired last Thursday by the rest of the ruling military directorate. He had been virtual overlord of the country's five northernmost provinces.

Downtown stores in Da Nang closed for five hours Sunday in a general strike organized by Thi's supporters in the coastal garrison town 380 miles north-east of Saigon.

The large force of U.S. Marines and other American personnel stationed at Da Nang were kept out of the downtown area to avoid being involved in any unrest.

The Medicare law stipulates that persons who were 65 or over by last Jan. 1 must sign up for the doctors' bills insurance by March 31 to qualify for the benefits when the program becomes effective July 1. They will not have another chance until October 1967 and may have to pay more than $3.

Those becoming 65 after Dec. 31, 1965, may sign up for the medical care in a seven-month period beginning three months before the month in which they became 65.

Million Elderly Reject Insurance

WASHINGTON (AP) — Forest rangers are riding the hills and volunteers are climbing tenement stairways, carrying tidings of a bargain for America's old folks.

As a result of one of the most intensive information campaigns in history, 80 per cent of 19.1 million eligible persons past 65 have signed up to pay $3 a month for doctors' bills insurance. The program takes effect July 1.

But — and here's what intrigues officials — about one million senior citizens have said no.

Their refusal is attributed to various causes: lack of information, misunderstanding, a belief that the cost is too heavy, a constitutional dislike for "socialized medicine," the fact that some are covered by insurance paid for by former employers. One big cause may be just plain apathy.

Maker Of Cigarettes Announces Price Hike

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Tobacco Co. announced today it was raising the price on all brands of its cigarettes, except one, effective immediately.

A company spokesman said the increase would amount to a penny a pack for the consumer although officially the price boost is figured in lots of 1,000 cigarettes.

The one exception, the company said, was Pall Mall filter cigarettes on which the price was reduced from $12 to $9.40 a thousand.

On Lucky Strike regulars, the price was increased from $8.80 to $9.20 per thousand, and on Lucky Strike filters, Tareyton, Carlton, Waterford, Half and Half, Montclair and Pall Mall nonfilters, the price went from $9 a thousand to $9.40.

The company said it would have no statement on the reasons for the price changes.

Technical Bugs Delay Launch For One Day

Plot Against Embassy In Jakarta Told

SINGAPORE (AP) — The army takeover in Indonesia reportedly foiled a plot by Foreign Minister Subandrio to attack the U.S. Embassy in Jakarta, sources in Singapore said today. The sources said Subandrio had urged pro-Communist forces to launch the attack in retaliation for student raids last week on Chinese Communist offices in Jakarta.

BURNS DOCUMENTS — The U.S. Embassy burned all its secret documents when it learned of the plans for goons supporting Subandrio to seize documents and burn the embassy, the sources said.

Subandrio, who is also first deputy premier, wanted such an attack to show Peking that he and his followers were still a vital force in Indonesia, the informants added.

AGENTS SHOT — Reports reaching Singapore said 20 of Subandrio's intelligence agents exchanged shots last Saturday with paratroopers and military police sent to arrest them. Two agents were shot, the reports said.

The agents were members of an internal spy network Subandrio used to keep watch on Indonesia's military and political organizations, the reports said. Arms and explosives were reportedly found in the office of the spy network.

HOUSE ARREST — The three-day-old government of army chief Lt. Gen. Suharto was believed holding Subandrio and President Sukarno under house arrest at Sukarno's Merdeka Palace in Jakarta, two Japanese newsmen in Jakarta reported.

Travelers from Indonesia said in Singapore that 16 Cabinet ministers had been arrested, along with a number of other leading politicians and agents of Subandrio's spy network.

TO TRIAL — Subandrio, whose removal had been demanded by student demonstrations, may go on trial before a special military tribunal that has been probing the attempted coup last October, the sources said. After the coup was crushed, Suharto led a bloody purge of the Communists, who were accused of masterminding the plot.

The travelers said Suharto seems to be firmly in control. They reported groups were dancing and singing in the streets of Jakarta celebrating the army takeover. Province chiefs and political organizations sent promises of support, they reported.

NEW CABINET — Suharto was expected to announce a new Cabinet within the next few days, replacing Sukarno's 99-man body which had contained pro-Communist members and officials deemed corrupt.

Gen. Abdul Haris Nasution was considered likely to get a high spot. Sukarno fired him last month as defense minister and armed forces chief in a move that touched off waves of student protests.

Democrats Pick Site; GOP Names Panel Pair

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Democratic Party leaders picked Austin today for their Sept. 20 state convention.

The selection was made in a subcommittee report to be presented to the full state executive meeting later.

HOTEL ROOMS — State Democratic chairman Will Davis said Dallas also had been considered. However, Dallas could guarantee only 3,200 hotel rooms although it has larger convention hall facilities than Austin. Davis said Austin has guaranteed 3,000 hotel rooms and other delegates will be quartered in the nearby vicinity.

There was speculation that the nearness of Austin to LBJ Ranch, 65 miles west of here, might have influenced the decision. Committee members

School Men Hear 'Free Choice' Plan

AUSTIN (AP) — The U. S. Office of Education will help Texas school districts apply new federal guidelines for so-called "free choice" school desegregation plans, a federal official said today.

John Hope II, U. S. Office of Education official in charge of school desegregation in Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana, and Arkansas, addressed about 200 school board members and superintendents at a meeting called by the Texas Education Agency.

THREE SPEAKERS — Hope was the first of three speakers to discuss guidelines issued by the U. S. Commissioner of Education last week aimed toward assuring that free choice systems actually work toward full desegregation of public schools.

"We know it is not an easy task, but it is a task that requires your and our most diligent, most creative and most sympathetic attention," Hope said.

VOLUNTARY PLANS — The new guidelines apply only to school districts which submitted voluntary desegregation plans under the 1964 Civil Rights Act. Schools were required either to submit voluntary plans of statements of compliance with the civil rights law to continue receiving federal school aid.

The new guidelines require faculty desegregation and evidence of progress toward elimination of dual systems in districts with free choice. Lack of such evidence could bring a further requirement that a free choice district adopt a different desegregation plan.

WORK TOGETHER — "My hope is that you and we, working together, will be able to move forward with this program," Hope said.

He said virtually all of the voluntary plans submitted last year followed minimum standards set by the U. S. Office of Education rather than complete original and voluntary plans by the districts.

PRAISES EFFORTS — State Education Commissioner

J. W. Edgar, in opening the session, told the school administrators, "I am proud of your efforts to give Texas an enviable record in this work. One of the elements of the success of Texas last year was cooperation from the U. S. Office of Education."

Other speakers from the federal agency were John Hodgdon, an attorney, and Robert Schneider.

Leaks Found, Flight Reset Wednesday

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The rendezvous and space walk flight of the Gemini 8 astronauts was postponed today for 24 hours — until Wednesday — when leaks were discovered in an Atlas rocket and in a spacecraft circuit of the spacecraft.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported the trouble was discovered during checks that were to precede the final countdown.

FURTHER PREPARATION — The astronauts, Neil A. Armstrong and David R. Scott, will use the extra time to further review their flight plan, the space agency reported.

They had been reported confident as the launch date neared for their historic trip.

The Atlas is to launch an Agena satellite into space as a target for the astronauts to chase and hitch on to.

The Atlas leak was discovered when liquid oxygen was found to have leaked into a helium sphere used to pressurize the fuel tanks.

SUIT COOLER — The spacecraft leak involved a water system which cools the bulky suits the astronauts will wear during the three-day flight.

The space agency said technicians expected to have the problems solved in time for a Wednesday launching.

The launch times for the tricky space doubleheader will remain the same on Wednesday. The Atlas-Agena is to blast off at 10 a. m. to propel the 26-foot-long Agena into a planned 185-mile-high orbit around the earth.

Armstrong and Scott are to blast off at 11:41 a. m., catch up with the Agena on Gemini 8's fourth orbit 5 1/2 hours later and link up with it an hour later.

HUMAN SATELLITE — Early Thursday morning, Scott is to become a human satellite for nearly 2 1/2 hours — performing tasks outside the spacecraft at the end of a 100-foot lifeline.

The extent of life at high altitudes and the effect of outer space on living things from earth will be the basis of an important experiment initiated during Scott's space walk.

The astronaut plans to take a package of live organisms — including three types of viruses, mold spores and other microscopic specimens — and attach it to the Agena space target. In addition, a sterile patch will be attached to the Agena which is designed to collect specimens of life present in space.

The same Agena may be used as a second target for a later Gemini mission — Gemini 10 — and astronauts on board that spaceship hope to recover the packages left by Scott so scientists on earth can study what happened.

Told How To Choose Antiques

The limitless field of antiques was explored Thursday by the Junior Woman's Forum which met in the home of Mrs. R. C. Armstrong, 1318 Stadium, to hear a program by Mrs. Don Weeks. Mrs. Dean Armbrust was cohostess.

Mrs. Weeks said that antique-collecting may vary from small items such as glassware to massive furniture pieces. Noting that the United States government said, that to be properly termed an antique, articles must have been made prior to 1830, she gave tips to confirm authenticity. She stressed that the eye could detect such things as the large boards used in furniture, the odd sizes, and the hand-dressing of the wood. Mrs. Weeks said that true cutglass has bubbles in it and that real antique cameo pins featured three faces.

She concluded that most antiques are adaptable for use with modern furniture but that care should be used when mixing it with contemporary furnishings.

Members provided a display of antiques including a cutglass tree bowl, a Roman rosette cutglass bowl, a mesh evening bag, a vitology book, an oil can used on trains and reproductions of French paper dolls.

Mrs. Earl Zetsche presided as Mrs. Wayne Denton reported on the International Affairs department and how the club participated.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Denton, March 24 at 7:30 p.m. when Mrs. Herman Smith will review the book, "Big Spring," by Shine Phillips.

Cure Yard Weeds By Thick Grass

Most weeds exist in lawns because conditions are not satisfactory for grass growth. Given the proper conditions for growth, Bermuda and St. Augustine will crowd out almost all lawn weeds.

Most lawn weeds come from seed which germinate and start growth in late February and March. For this reason, the early spring months should be utilized to develop a solid sod in which weeds will have no room to get started. Perennial weeds such as Dallis grass and nut grass must be dug out by hand.

Casually Yours

By JO BRIGHT

The spring that we waited for all winter is here... now what are you going to do about it? Buy that hat? Slip off for the weekend? Say something special to someone you like very much? Better do it soon — or you'll be wondering later why the devil you didn't!

Why not start with joining friends for the seafood supper Saturday night at Big Spring Country Club? Mrs. Joe Moss and Clyde McMahon Jr. of the entertainment committee say there will be all the shrimp and oysters you want. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ream will be the host couple. By the way, Mrs. Ream will head the American Field Service student exchange program here for another term. She and Dick would like to have another foreign student live with them next year. Too, she and Mrs. John Hogan are working on entertainment for foreign pilots stationed at Webb. I'm sure they could use a little help so if you have an idea why not give them a call.

A couple who got a fine idea just recently were Mrs. Armour Long and A. J. Vaughn who were married in Mexico and are working hard to open a luncheon business on West Third. Best wishes for both ventures!

George Oldham just stopped by with Lt. Ken B. Zella who was recently married to Sylvia Edwards, daughter of Mrs. W. K. Edwards Jr. They will be here for a week or so before leaving for Air Force assignment overseas. Mrs. Edwards is thinking of taking her sons, Bill and Joe to Montana for a vacation in June.

Mrs. Kent Morgan isn't feeling as pretty as she looks this morning. She is confined to Room 206 at Howard County Hospital Foundation and I hear she's got a lot of posies from people who are sorry. Get well, Faye, you still owe me a matton dinner.

Across town, Donald Van Meter, director of the Veterans Administration Hospital, isn't as perky as usual either — but he is doing better. He's going to sit a spell and read a little while recuperating from that illness that felled him while returning from that director's conference in San Francisco. The only time Mrs. Van Meter isn't at his beck and call is when she's working on civic activities.

Don Wiley is back from Montreal, Canada, where he spread good-will for Cosden. His wife, Sylvia, is so good at making friends (and delicious hors d'oeuvres) that I'm sorry to know she's no longer associated with Holiday Inn. You ladies may want to check with her and see if she'll work for someone else or do catering from her home.

Little Emily Talbot got lots of attention over the weekend. She made herself at home with Dr. and Mrs. B. Broadrick while her parents, Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Talbot took Martha, Paul and Ann to Ruidoso, N. M. to celebrate Martha's birthday. Don't know what Pat and Winnie Patterson are celebrating but I hear they are in Kansas — somewhere. Here for the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Worley who came to see their friends, among them, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Guin, Mrs. Worley was at the Saturday luncheon given at Mrs. Odell Womack's for Mrs. Jack Irons and Mrs. Ted Groehl Sr., whose youngsters, Jack Ed and Mozelle, will be married soon. The "mother-in-law" theme was used, and it was much fun for everyone. The Womacks were at Carlos' Friday evening when Dr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas Jr. came in with five youngsters to celebrate Jane's birthday. It was a good day for Jane — heard she had bested Mrs. Gil Jones earlier at the Bowl-A-Rama.

Mrs. C. A. Nelson, who made her home here while her son, Clark, was a Webb student, has been visiting with another ex-resident, Mrs. Glen Lingenfelter in Biloxi, Miss., and is here now with Mrs. B. B. Badger. They'll be at a duplicate table somewhere if you want to say "hello" to Vera before she leaves. Clark is at Phoenix, Ariz., now and she'll go there soon, I understand.

Miss Annie Sulyen of Lindberg, Holland, spent a fascinating six months touring the United States before arriving here to see the Jim Newsoms. Miss Sulyen's family befriended Jim when he was overseas in 1955 so he and his wife were glad to have the chance to repay their hospitality. She's gone now to visit one of Jim's buddies in Mississippi.

Mrs. James Tidwell said that he reports fine temperatures in Hawaii but he's so busy with the new job he hasn't had time to go into detail about anything else! Her boy, Steve, and nine, Bruce, had a good golf game Sunday. I'm ready to give the game a try again, if Jerry Green can put up with such clumsiness for a few lessons.

The dinner for Col. and Mrs. C. J. Butcher was simply what you'd call a lovely evening. Heard about that fancy model that Jimmy Beale has made of the beach house they'll build on the coast. Met Richard Johnson who has moved back here from Dallas; chatted with Dr. and Mrs. R. B. G. Cowper and Mrs. Carroll Davidson who shared our table; got to talk about Alaska with Mrs. Randall Polk and Maj. and Mrs. W. H. Connor of Webb, and got acquainted with Maj. Nelson Allen, new exec officer at Webb. Call me.

Pair United In Wedding At Seminole

The announcement is being made here of the wedding of Miss Janice Karen Jackson and Jack Maurice Walls on March 4 in the Free Will Baptist Church in Seminole. The Rev. Pervis Williams presided for the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jackson of Seminole, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Walls of Andrews.

The bride was attired in a white silk dress and coat ensemble with matching accessories. She attended schools in Knott and Sands and was graduated from Andrews High School. The bridegroom attended Andrews schools and is employed by Hydro-Test of the Permian Basin.

Dinner Held By Past Matrons

The Past Matrons Gavel Club met in the Downtown Tea Room Thursday evening for a dinner meeting with Mrs. E. A. Fivesh serving as hostess and conducting the business.

Mrs. Ode Green gave the devotion, and Mrs. Jimmy Felts was named Friendship Chairman for the month. It was announced that several members had visited people who are sick and mailed cards to others.

Mrs. Green led the 11 attending in the closing prayer. The April 14 meeting will be in the Downtown Tea Room.

Gifts Presented To Attendants

Miss Joyce Thomas and Roy Hamand entertained their attendants Friday evening following the rehearsal for their wedding.

The wedding party dinner, served by candlelight, was held in the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Thomas, 3603 Dixon.

Twenty-seven attended, and the couple presented gifts to their attendants.

Marriage Announced

The marriage of Miss Sarah Ann Montgomery and Charles Thomas Lanham is being announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Montgomery, 204 W. 9th. The wedding was held at 3 p.m. March 12, in the home of Walter Grice, justice of the peace, who performed the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Sarah Brown, Sandersville, Ga. Mrs. Lanham was graduated from Big Spring High School and the Childers and Reeves School of Hairdressing and Cosmetology. Lanham is a graduate of Washington County High School in Sandersville.

Modern Forum Hears Program On Texas

The Texas Day program was presented under the direction of Mrs. J. P. Dodge at the Friday meeting of the Modern Woman's Forum in the home of Mrs. S. R. Nobles, 405 Washington.

Mrs. W. E. Moren presided and assisted with the program by speaking on the schools, colleges and universities of Texas. Mrs. Harwood Keith and Mrs. Hugh Duncan told of the industries and growth of several major Texas cities. The program concluded with Mrs. H. M. hostess March 25.

Wounded Sergeant Returns

Sgt. Guillermo Armendariz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fausto Armendariz, 281 NW 4th, Big Spring, arrived in Corpus Christi last week and was taken to the U.S. Naval Hospital, with five other Marines, wounded in Viet Nam. Extent of his injuries was not known here today, but his parents left Saturday to see him.

Sevigny Says Acquaintance With Blonde 'Purely Social'

OTTAWA (AP) — Former Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker asserted Sunday night that associations between a German woman and one or more members of his Conservative government were no threat to Canadian security.

Linked

Diefenbaker told newsmen that Justice Minister Lucien Cardin, who started Canada with his charges of a sex and security scandal in the previous government, should name the former Cabinet ministers he claims were involved with Gerda Munsinger.

NAMES SEVIGNY
Mrs. Munsinger, who Cardin said was in espionage work before she came from Germany to Canada, said during the weekend she had been friendly with Pierre Sevigny, Diefenbaker's assistant defense secretary.

Sevigny, 49, declared in a television broadcast Saturday that his acquaintance with Mrs. Munsinger, which began in 1959, was purely social and that he never talked politics with her.

"NOTHING TO HIDE"
"I have nothing to hide," he asserted. He said a judicial inquiry would "amply prove that, frankly, there was no security risk involved during the stay of this woman in Canada."

He described the woman as "very pretty, very amusing and full of fun."
Diefenbaker hastened back with forgery.

The Toronto Star, which reported locating Canadian political scandal figure Gerda Munsinger in Munich, Germany, also said she has named Canadian former Associate Defense Minister Pierre Sevigny, above, as her "close companion." (AP WIREPHOTO) ment legal advisers.

Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson is expected to announce in Commons today a judicial inquiry into the case. If the inquiry fails to make Cardin's charges stick, this could bring down Pearson's government since his Liberal party does not have a majority in Commons.

IN MUNICH
Mrs. Munsinger, a 36-year-old blonde now living in Munich, Germany, has said she is willing to come to Canada to prove that she was never a spy. The prospect of her return prompted an alert order to police and immigration officers at airports across Canada. Immigration authorities said there was a question of whether she should be admitted but did not specify why.

N.Y. POLICEMAN
Michael Munsinger, the woman's former husband, said in an interview in New York that to his knowledge she was not a spy. Munsinger, a former pitcher for the Ottawa Athletics, is now a policeman in Brooklyn. He divorced Gerda in the early 1950s, he said, when she was barred from entering the United States.

The only statements from Mrs. Munsinger have been relayed by the Toronto Star, which has been keeping her under wraps in Munich. She told the Star that Sevigny gave her a birthstone ring but insisted that she had never tried to get information from him.

Another case on Thursday is that of Raymond Oliver, charged with assault with intent to murder.
Two defendants, whose cases were on this docket, signified they would enter pleas. They are Ismael F. Deanda, charged with possession of marijuana, and Will E. Pharr, indicted for embezzlement.
Robert Barragan, charged with assault with intent to murder, informed the court he had no attorney and could not hire one. John Richard Coffey was named to defend him. The case had to be passed for this term.
Hurlee Joe Johnson, charged with burglary, theft over $50, and receiving and concealing, had his cases passed when it was shown Johnson is already serving a sentence imposed on him in Dawson County.

Sanity Hearing Launches Docket

A sanity hearing will kick off this week's criminal jury docket in 118th District Court.

At the docket sounding at 10 a.m. today, it was announced that Doyle Denton, charged with being a habitual thief, would seek a sanity hearing. The court set his case for 10 a.m. Tuesday, when a jury panel is to report.
Also set for Tuesday are two other cases, Donald B. Wheat, charged with burglary, and William D. Graham, DWI second.
Wednesday at 9 a.m., Willie James Hubbard, charged with DWI second, is slated to go to trial. On the same date, the case against Jerry Arrick, DWI second, is scheduled for trial.
Ramon Nunez, who faces two indictments, will be the first defendant called before the bar Thursday at 9 a.m. He is charged with DWI second and

'Batman' Will Next Be On Wide Screen

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Next for Batman is a caper of his own. He'll try to remove millions of dollars from the moviegoers of America.

Will theater patrons pay to see what they get free twice weekly on their home screens? William Dozier thinks so, and he is backed by the corporate judgment of 20th Century-Fox.

BATMAN'S "FATHER"
Dozier is more or less the father of television's "Batman," having masterminded the advent of the super-camp, caped crusader. The veteran producer confidently predicts Batman will prove successful as a feature film.

"When these things are hot, they are hot in many areas," he reasoned.

So he is proceeding with deliberate speed to produce a wide-screen feature. Lorenzo Semple, who created the original television segments, is writing the script. The television series will end April 6 and production on the feature will begin April 18.

"We'll finish May 20 and begin next year's series on June 13; that will give the actors time to catch their breaths," reported Dozier.

LIKE MONEY
"How do they like the schedule? I've found it to be true that actors like money, especially actors who haven't seen much of it. Certainly Adam West was not exactly earning much before, and Burt Ward, who plays Robin, never made any money from acting."

What is Dozier giving the customers that they can't get on television?

"We'll also give the customers four villains in the film: the Penguin (Burgess Meredith), the Joker (Cesar Romero), the Riddler (Frank Gorshin) and the Cat Woman (Julie Newmar), who will be seen this week on the show."

PLANNING AHEAD
Dozier is planning ahead for the next television season, during which he expects the show to maintain its ratings.

"We'll have even more fun with the guest stars," said the producer. "An amazing number of really classic actors have volunteered for roles. I'm talking about stars like Maurice Evans, Robert Morley, James Mason, Bette Davis, Gloria Swanson, Raymond Massey, Cyril Ritchard."

Data-Collecting Rocket System Set

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Development of an inexpensive data-gathering rocket system — the Nitehawk 9 — which can carry payloads of 150 pounds to an altitude of 90,000 feet, has been announced by the Sandia Corp.

Police Told About Eleven Burglaries

Eleven burglaries and one car theft were reported to police during the weekend.

Feliciano Morales, 109 NW 9th, told officers Saturday he found his 1965 car had been stolen. He had left the keys in it, officers said.

A strange burglary took place Sunday at the Enco service station, FM 700 and Goliad, officers said. Burglars entered by breaking a window and unlocking it with a hammer, ransacked the cash register and desks and moved a car from a rack to the driveway. Officers found a man's gold watch on the floor, which they said had been "beaten to pieces" with a hammer.

Vivian Rasco, 1705 Jennings, said someone broke the vent window of her car while it was parked in the Ritz Theatre parking lot Saturday, and stole her purse. Officers found the purse in a nearby alley, and nothing was missing.

D. H. McDaniel, 804 Belvedere Road, said about $230 in coin and bills and 160 packages of cigarettes were taken from the Parkway Laundry, 2311 Wasson Road.

Hubcaps were stolen from his car while it was parked in front of the church he was attending, Gerald Kennedy, 206 Circle Drive, told officers.

A .22-calibre pistol was stolen from his car Sunday Robert Eugene Benefield, 1803 1/2 Lancaster, said.

A .22-calibre rifle and scabbard were stolen from his car while it was parked at the VA hospital, Harold Mosser told officers Friday.

Walter L. Burns, Portales, N. M., told police someone removed the light fixtures and damaged the walls and floors of his house at 611 Steakley, Sunday.

Goliad Junior High School and the Big Spring Independent School District's business and tax office at 1300 Austin, were entered Sunday night, officers said. Nothing has been found missing.

About $100 in U.S. and Mexican coin and old coin books were taken from Gordon's Hair Style, 1105 Owens, according to Gordon Wheeler, 1804 Dixie, who made the report Saturday, officers said. Entry was by a rear window.

Someone was evidently locked into the Piggly Wiggly grocery chain store Saturday night, officers said today. Store officials reported some lighter fluid and cigarettes were missing. The "burglar's" exit was through the compressor room door, officers said.

Campaign Fights Fag Bootlegging

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — Maryland Controller Louis L. Goldstein has called a special conference for April 15-16 to try to find ways to stop bootlegging of cigarettes.

Goldstein said he had asked law enforcement representatives of the federal government and 22 states to attend. He said Maryland has seized 450,000 packages of cigarettes and arrested more than 40 persons on charges of illegal possession and transportation of untaxed cigarettes in recent months.

Quake Toll, Loss May Be High In Red China

TOKYO (AP) — Official reports from Red China indicate that the powerful earthquake that ripped across north China March 8 may have flattened scores of villages and left high casualties.

The reports from the New China News Agency give no figures but tell of massive relief work, hospitals being set up in the field and teams working to rebuild collapsed houses.

The jolt, nearly as powerful as that which devastated Alaska in 1964, came about 5:30 a.m. when millions presumably were still sleeping. The center reportedly was around Kaifeng, a large city.

NCNA said food supplies were buried in the collapsed houses but said nothing of the people inside.

Temporary quarters are being constructed "in villages where houses have collapsed." NCNA reported.

Adequacy Of Budget Plans Said Watched

DETROIT (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler said today the Johnson administration is "watching carefully" events in Viet Nam to determine if its budget plans for fiscal 1967 will be adequate.

"We want to watch and weigh all development carefully — those that point up, and those that point to a leveling, and those that point down," Fowler said in remarks prepared for a meeting of Economic Club of Detroit.

"We are watching carefully what happens to the President's budget in the appropriation process," he said. "It could move the budget from the posture of approximate balance to either a meaningful deficit or surplus."

"We do not want to put the brakes on unnecessarily or too fast," Fowler said, adding that as things stand now "we expect the fiscal 1967 budget to pass or approach balance."

He said the administration expects the labor force to expand by 1.6 million workers in 1967.

N.Y. Recreation Unit Head Named

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has appointed R. Stewart Kilbourne to head the state's recreation council.

Kilbourne succeeds former Conservation Commissioner Harold G. Wilm as chairman of the body, created in 1961 to develop the water resources of the Delaware basin and to plan for conservation and control of the waters in the region.

Office of the Howard County tax assessor-collector will be open until midnight Thursday for the benefit of any belated citizens who need to register for voting in 1966 elections.

Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county assessor, said that her staff would be on duty on the last night of the registration period.

She said she had received a letter from the attorney general, suggesting that the later office hours on the last night of the period be maintained. However, Mrs. LeFevre had already decided, before the letter arrived, to keep the late hour schedule as a convenience to anyone who needs to qualify to vote.

Deadline for the special registration period, which began March 3, is midnight Thursday.

Through last Saturday, Mrs. LeFevre's office had registered 354 new voters. Monday morning there were 100 or more mail applications on hand. A few citizens were showing up at the office to register.

Mrs. LeFevre said she believes the number of voters to be added to the lists, as a result of the special registration program, will be larger than had been anticipated. There is a possibility, she thinks, that there may be as many as 1,000 or more registered by midnight Thursday.

Cairo Meet Plan Falters

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—The prospects for a projected non-aligned conference to Cairo faded today as Egyptian organizers received only lukewarm responses from key African and Asian states which had been expected to take part.

One well-informed source said flatly the proposed conference, called by Egypt and Yugoslavia and which had been expected to take place between March 21 and 23 would not be held. The source did not rule out the possibility of a "little African caucus" in Cairo sometime soon.

The purpose of the conference was to have been the establishment of a common policy against what Egyptian sources have called "imperialist threats to subvert progressive states." Preparations for the conference began after Ghana's President Kwame Nkrumah was overthrown.

Qualified informants said today Ethiopia had responded negatively to feelers from Cairo and Belgrade on holding the conference. Indian Prime Minister Indira Gandhi's forthcoming trip to the United States reportedly made it impossible for her to attend. Another support-

Official Hits French Move

LONDON (AP)—Foreign Secretary Michael Stewart said today France's military withdrawal from the North Atlantic Alliance strikes at the entire allied defense system and threatens the security of the West.

President Charles de Gaulle plans to remove NATO military headquarters from French soil and withdraw French forces from NATO command.

Addressing a Chamber of Commerce luncheon in Glasgow, Scotland, Stewart was deeply critical of De Gaulle's policy.

"No member of NATO can afford to put national prestige ahead of that collective defense on which depends the safety and freedom of all the members of the alliance," he declared.

Stewart emphasized his belief that NATO will survive and warned that "no potential aggressor should imagine he can play on differences of opinion within NATO."

Britain, the United States, West Germany and 11 other allied countries, meanwhile, put the finishing touches to a carefully worded declaration designed to stress NATO's need to preserve its strength and cohesion.

This statement, initiated by the British, may be ready for publication Tuesday.

Gillespie Decides Monday On Park Land Condemnation

STONEWALL, Tex. (AP)—Among the five property owners who are unhappy with the $450 an acre the state is offering for their land near President Johnson ranch are:

—A man who has lived all his 60 years on a farm straddling the Pedernales River.

—A Bandera lawyer who admittedly bought his land on speculation just "two or three weeks" before the 1964 election.

—Now they're trying to steal it from me," the lawyer says.

$5,000 ACRE
Present property owners value the land as high as $5,000 an acre.

The State Parks and Wildlife Department last year proposed a 245-acre LBJ park across from the President's ranch.

This year they've proposed 399 more acres for the park.

Most of the added acreage is Gillespie County, as the original 245 acres, and county commissioners will meet Monday to decide if they will cooperate with the state on condemnation proceedings.

County Atty. Richard Hoerster says the Parks and Wildlife Department can't get the additional land without the cooperation of the commissioners because it doesn't have the power of eminent domain. The commissioners do.

All the 644 acres proposed for the parks are between US 290 and Ranch Road 1.

The commissioners "cooperated" on the first 245 acres, which was split up among six owners. Only one tract—an 18.37-acre slice bought for a motel development before the 1964 elections—has been condemned. A special Commissioners Court awarded $550 an acre for that land, but the state appealed and a county court jury said the state need pay only $450 an acre.

Four of the remaining five landowners have been notified their land is to be condemned. The last tract, a 70½-acre farm and peach orchard directly across Ranch Road 1 from the President, is owned by Earl and Martha Sweeney, most vocal of the LBJ park opponents.

Weldon Watson, executive director of the Parks and Wildlife Department, said there was no special reason for not proceeding against the Sweeneys now.

CLOSEST TO LBJ
The Sweeneys say they may have been excluded in order that the state might get more jury awards of $450 an acre before asking a jury to evaluate the land closest to the President's.

Offers as high as $4,000 an acre for some of their land have been made to the Sweeneys. Three Travis (Austin) County men wanted to build a curio and snack shop across the road from the main gate to the ranch. They offered $25,000 for 6½ acres.

Another buyer offered $100,000 for the entire 70½ acres, the Sweeneys say.

Both offers were made before Nov. 17, 1964, when the park was first proposed, they say.

The Sweeneys took out quarter-page ads in both of the weeklies in nearby Fredericksburg Wednesday. The ads asked:

ADS TEXT
"Is it right to force people from their lifelong homes, causing them great financial loss and much mental distress in their old age?"

Asked what he thought of the ad, one of the four county commissioners, Felix Herber, said: "They really laid it on, didn't they?"

Mrs. Sweeney, 56, said she and her husband, 71, bought the land 3½ years ago and intended to live out their lives there.

West of the Sweeneys is the 58-acre "Danz Estate" farm, where Lee Danz, estate administrator, has lived all his life.

"I asked for $650 an acre," Danz said. "Since the state won't pay that, we'll go to court."

Fuss Splits Texas Klan; Dragon Quits, More May

HOUSTON (AP)—A high-ranking member of the Texas Ku Klux Klan took issue Sunday with a statement by the group's ex-leader that the organization was "bent on violence."

Royce McPhail of Crockett, Tex., resigned Friday as grand dragon of the Texas Klan.

In his letter of resignation to the Klan's imperial wizard, Robert M. Shelton of Tuscaloosa, Ala., McPhail said he was leaving the Klan because of its tendencies toward violence.

Behemoth Stops Here

Webb Air Force Base was visited Sunday by a strange looking aircraft called the "Super Guppy." The three-story high aircraft is owned by Aerospace Lines, a private firm that is contracted to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. It was designed to transport large, bulky spacecraft components. There are only two such aircraft in existence.

The Super Guppy is the second of its type and the largest spacecraft-carrying transport in the world. The Guppy was enroute to Cape Kennedy carrying components of the Saturn rocket. It was forced to land at Webb due to bad weather conditions east of Big Spring. (Photo by Danny Valdes)

Stanton Counts 1,700 School Visitors Sunday

Open house at the Stanton Underground Primary School Sunday was attended by an estimated 1,700 persons, according to Supt. Beryl D. Clinton. Clinton said that he was pleased with the turnout, which included visitors from as far away as Dallas and Fort Worth, and several from out-of-state.

Refreshments were served to 1,100 persons by members of the P-T-A. Principal J. M. Yater, Clinton, school board members, Olen L. Puckett, architect, and J. D. Jones, builder, were on hand to answer questions about the underground school. Teachers were in all of the eight classrooms where Stanton's 227 first and second graders are being taught.

PERSONAL BATTLE

The March 31 balloting shapes up as a personal conflict between Heath and Prime Minister Harold Wilson—leaders of the two major parties—despite their avowed intention of keeping personalities out of the campaign.

In addition, the Prime minister had produced what has come to be called the "politics of perpetual motion." One Conservative journal has complained that Wilson produces next week's issue while the opposition is still trying to catch up with last week's.

"TORY FAILURE"
This commentator, Ronald Butt, writing in the Financial Times, said the Tories have failed to convince the "floating voters" those who owe no formal allegiance to any party, that the Conservative party defends their interests.

These voters, most of them under 40 years of age, "see the Conservatives as still largely a party representing the well-to-do," Butt said.

The London Times estimates these uncommitted voters constitute 35 per cent of the electorate.

The Conservatives selected Heath as leader in an attempt to give a new look to Britain's oldest party, the party of Britain's landed aristocracy and industrial tycoons, of such political giants as Pitt the Younger, Disraeli, Sir Robert Peel and Churchill.

WANTED PARALLEL
They passed over others who stood higher in party councils and chose a man as much like Wilson as they could find.

Physically, the two men are similar; they were born 50 years ago; Wilson March 11, 1916; Heath July 9, 1916.

Both are above average height; Heath an inch or so taller; both have silvery hair and are full-faced, heavyset.

Both come from the lower middle class—Wilson the son of an industrial chemist, Heath the son of an industrial carpenter. Neither has large financial means.

Both Heath and Wilson had brilliant scholastic records and both represent the new type of British politician: hard-working, well informed and masters of the technical details of government and politics.

Chief Of Tories Facing Acid Test

LONDON (AP)—Edward Richard George Heath faces the acid test of a national election only eight months after taking command of Britain's divided Conservative party.

Both friend and critic wonder if he is sufficiently blessed with that "divine spark" of leadership the late Sir Winston Churchill said any chief political or military, needed for success.

Strike Against Builders Of Apollo Craft Voted

HOUSTON (AP)—Leaders of the United Auto and Aerospace Workers Union voted here Sunday to authorize a strike with North American Aviation, Inc., builders of the Apollo spacecraft that will take man to the moon.

The strike, if called, could affect testing of the spacecraft at the Manned Spacecraft Center here. The dispute includes differences over wages.

Among the issues, Stone said, is a 55-cent-per-hour pay increase North American voted to start Dec. 29, 1965. He said the union was seeking to make the increase retroactive to the workers' date of hire.

Pension, insurance and seniority plans are other issues, Stone said.

Seal Drive Has $388

With five out of 14 areas in the Easter Seals campaign reporting on the door-to-door solicitation Sunday, a total of $388.82 has been collected for the Easter Seals, according to Mrs. Dwight McCann, chairman.

Mrs. McCann said that over 375 volunteer workers participated in the drive. Funds derived from the campaign are used in part by the local chapter of the society to buy personal equipment for patients at the Howard County Rehabilitation Center.

The Forsan - Elbow Easter Seals drive is slated to kick off Tuesday, with Mrs. M. A. Dunagan, Elbow, and Mrs. Lucy Barton, Forsan, heading the door-to-door solicitation.

Big 8 Back In Indoor Saddle

DETROIT (AP)—The Big Eight reigned today as the dominant power on the American indoor college track scene and appeared likely to continue on top in the near future.

For the second straight year a Big Eight entry captured the team title in last weekend's National Collegiate Indoor Track Championships. In 1965 it was Missouri, this year it was Kansas.

Big Eight schools won four individual NCAA events, while Far West entries took five. The other six championships went to the East and Midwest.

Jayhawk freshman Jim Ryan won the invitational mile in 4:03.3 and frosh Bob Steinhoff the invitational pole vault with a leap of 15-6.

Dallas Man Sets Bowler's Pace

DALLAS (AP)—Rolling 1,973 Gary Pfeil of Dallas won the all events classic division championship of the Southwest Bowling Association tournament which wound up a four-weekend run Sunday.

Aircraft Products Inc., of Dallas won the classic team title with 3,079.

Fred Moore and Fred List of San Antonio won the classic doubles with 1,306.

Wylie Bell of Oklahoma City won the classic singles with 700. However, Gary Hopkins of Oklahoma City won the Class A singles with a higher score—702.

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—Machinist's Mate I.C. Gerald A. Polinski, 26, received a wheelchair full of money for re-enlisting in the Coast Guard.

Polinski, in charge of recruiting stations in Worcester and Gardner, Mass., received $7,646.40 as a re-enlistment bonus — which the Coast Guard said was one of the largest bonuses ever paid to a New England Coast Guard member. Cmdr. N. W. Allen delivered the money in a wheelbarrow.

Teacher Union Votes Return During Talks

PLAINVIEW, N.Y. (AP) — Striking teachers have voted to return to their classes today and resume work while their union resumes negotiations with the Plainview-Old Bethpage School District Board of Education.

The strike by the Plainview Federation of Teachers, an affiliate of the AFL-CIO American Federation of Teachers, caused curtailment or cancellation of classes for most of the district's 12,000 pupils for four days last week.

Formal negotiations are scheduled to be resumed tonight. There have been none since the strike started last Tuesday, although there were informal talks during the week-end that led to the return-to-work vote by the teachers at a meeting Sunday.

The issues are the teachers' demand for a voice in education policies, and wages and fringe benefits.

The union claimed that up to 450 of the district's 613 teachers struck or refused to cross picket lines last week. School officials put the number at 390.

Dear Abby

Must Make A Choice

DEAR ABBY: I am the same lady who wrote to you some time back telling you my relationship with my husband was very one-sided. You said we should go see a marriage counselor. Well, I showed your reply to my husband and he said he was not going to any marriage counselor, that if I kept my big mouth shut we would get along just fine. How can a wife keep her mouth shut when her husband comes home from work with lipstick all over his shirt, and the smell of perfume so strong he could knock a person over? He tends bar nights, and I can't see how a bartender can get that close to women if he stays on his side of the bar, can you? I used to go sit at his bar to keep an eye on him, but they don't have television there and I hate to miss Johnny Carson. What else can you suggest besides seeing a marriage counselor?

ROME'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: I think it's more important for you to watch your husband than it is to watch Johnny Carson. (You could take a portable TV to the bar and do both!)

DEAR ABBY: In your column I read: "Consider your mother. She is better off in a rest home than living with a daughter who doesn't want her." I would add, "And consider the daughter who knows better than her husband how she and her mother get along."

I am in a similar situation. My mother came to live with me 30 years ago. She is still here, but my husband is gone. After 25 years he had about as much of her as he could take. We are not divorced; he still supports me (and my mother), but he won't live here. My mother is nearly 90, and she'll probably outlive me. My husband thought my mother would look after our children, help with the cooking and running the house. Well, she did. She also ran everything else in my house. When a mother lives with you, you can't "send her to bed" when you have company. And if you hint before guests arrive that she shouldn't monopolize the conversation, she puts on her "nobody-loves-me, I might-as-well-be-dead" face. For obvious reasons, this is—UNSIGNED

Prince Receives Degree, Delivers Address At UCLA

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Prince Philip of Britain, on a charity tour of the United States, dashes about the Hollywood area today in a whirlwind of activity.

The 44-year-old prince, who is the Duke of Edinburgh and husband of Queen Elizabeth II, was to address a campus gathering at UCLA and receive an honorary doctor's degree.

The schedule also included lunch at 20th Century Fox and a speech to Variety Clubs International tonight.

PALM SPRING

The touring was less demanding Sunday, when the prince visited Palm Springs, Calif., to help raise money for charity at a polo match. He arrived in Palm Springs Saturday.

The prince stayed Saturday night at the home of petroleum engineer and land developer Lou Taubman — where President Johnson stayed two years ago when he visited the desert vacation spa.

A sumptuous poolside luncheon was served Sunday, with about 60 guests, at Taubman's mansion before the prince and his party went to the polo match.

About 400 of the resort area's elite paid $50 each to sit in the royal enclosure and meet the prince afterward at a reception.

DRAWS LAUGH

The prince drew a good laugh when asked if he had seen a movie recently.

He replied: "Where do you think I'm from — outer space?"

Most Of State Areas Get Warm, Sunny Day

A warm, sunny day was expected over Texas today, with clear skies forecast for all but the eastern third of the state.

No precipitation of any sort was expected across the state, but skies were expected to cloud up Tuesday and some precipitation could result.

Temperatures were to be in the 70s over much of the state Monday afternoon.

High temperatures recorded across the state Sunday ranged from 81 at Presidio to 83 at Galveston. Dalhart was the only point in the state recording a below-freezing mark Sunday, as they reported a low of 29.

Temperatures early Monday ranged from 41 at Amarillo to 57 at Texarkana. Texarkana and Lufkin reported some early-morning fog.

Boosters Meet

An executive meeting of the Big Spring Chair Boosters Association at 7 p.m. will precede the regular meeting tonight at 7:30 in the high school library.

Committee Meets

Discussion of the U.S. Experiment Station will highlight the 7:30 meeting tonight of the agriculture committee of the chamber of commerce. Walker Bailey is the chairman.

Pilot Lost In Alaska Wilderness Rescued

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP) — An Air Force pilot who was lost in the Alaska wilderness for 51 hours says he was confident of rescue while he waged a battle for survival in minus-45-degree weather.

Capt. Roy MacDonald, who bailed out of his F106 fighter-interceptor jet after a collision over central Alaska last Thursday, said his only concern was to keep calm.

"I WAS CONCERNED" "I was concerned about my safety in that weather," MacDonald said. "But I knew if I could last long enough I would be rescued."

The 32-year-old pilot of the 1st Fighter Wing at Selfridge, Mich., Air Force Base, described the hours before rescue by an Air Force helicopter after he arrived at Elmendorf Air Force Base.

"I landed a little off a ridge," he said. "There were trees about 100 yards down and I went into that area to make a camp."

BURROWS IN He first spread out his orange and white parachute on the ridge so it could be seen from the air.

"I burrowed a place in the snow — to get out of the wind," he said. "I was comfortable, but cold."

Snow covered the ground and during his waiting period, MacDonald said there were continuous snow flurries. Temperatures dipped to 45 degrees below zero.

"I was very busy keeping warm during those two days," he said. "Time passed very quickly."

"I could hear and see helicopters and other planes many times but they didn't spot me," MacDonald said he relied on the parachute survival pack for food, bedding, and his hope for rescue. When his radio signaling devices ceased to function a few hours after he was on the ground, he used flares in attempts to attract searching aircraft.

SIGNALS SPOTTED Saturday afternoon, one of MacDonald's flare signals and his parachute were spotted by a crewman aboard a C122.

The aircraft radioed a nearby helicopter, which reached him five minutes later, nine miles from the wreckage of his jet fighter. He was flown to Galena, an Air Force station, where a flight surgeon pronounced him

Public Affairs Coverage Thorough On Networks

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The three television networks did well in the public affairs area Sunday afternoon — perhaps a little too well for the conscientious citizen who had hoped to get away from his set long enough for a short walk or to lime his lawn. It was hard to find a break between the information programs.

NBC assembled a panel of alert and probing newspapermen to interview Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in an expanded edition of "Meet the Press." Humphrey, fluent and well-informed, was never more impressive than under their intelligent questioning.

ABC had a timely interview with India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi. Both NBC and CBS had special programs of highlights updating last week's Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearings. CBS also had an unusual "20th Century" program about the work of Synanon, the controversial self-help organization for narcotics addicts, among convicts.

A Report on 1965—And a Look Ahead:

El Paso Natural Gas Company is on the move—with record sales and earnings in 1965

Profits and revenues of El Paso Natural Gas Company were at all-time highs in 1965. Gas sales reached a record volume of 1.44 trillion cubic feet during the year, and earnings from diversified activities outside the interstate pipeline business showed a marked increase.

Our diversification program is also moving ahead—in fertilizers, synthetic fibres, plastics and other petrochemicals.

El Paso Natural's Annual Report describes the company's accomplishments during 1965 and some of our plans for the future, including service to markets that are growing 2½ times as fast as the rest of the nation. We'd like to send you a copy.

More important: We expect continued improvement in 1966.

Today, El Paso Natural has a proposal before the Federal Power Commission to increase substantially our deliveries to southern California. These additional low-cost supplies will be made available, if the project is approved by the FPC, for smog-control or any other purposes regulatory authorities find to be in the public interest.

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

It had to be the most dramatic farewell in sports since Ted Williams crashed a home run in his last time at bat.

Johnny Longden, the 58-year-old grandfather who started riding when Babe Ruth and Bill Tilden and Bobby Jones were household names, was up on George Royal for his farewell appearance in the San Juan Capistrano Handicap at Santa Anita.

He'd already won once on this last racing day of his career, a career that stretches back to 1927, the year Charles Lindbergh flew the Atlantic and Al Jolson made "The Jazz Singer."

George Royal was away slowly in the $125,000 race Saturday and was dead last the first time past the grandstand. But Longden had things in hand, moved up in time and came whipping and driving over the last 70 yards to win it by a nose.

A mighty cry went up from the crowd of 60,782 when George Royal's number went up on the board after the stewards had studied pictures of the finish.

The pandemonium increased as old Johnny took the 5-year-old Canadian-bred into the winners circle, the 6,032nd time he'd brought home a winner.

"It made me feel I'd done a good job," was Longden's only comment.

He'd won earlier in the day, on Chiclero. Moments after that victory, a sign appeared on the bulletin board in the jockey's room.

"John, you are only 960 races from 7,000. Do you really think you'll quit?"

"He'd better," answered Mrs. Longden.

"I know who wrote it," Longden said. "Bill Shoemaker."

Shoemaker is closest to Longden's record winning total, and is the man Johnny says will eventually pass it.

Longden's heroic overshadowed the other major races on Saturday's card, and the opening of Aqueduct in New York today.

Ogden Phipps' impressive, winner of the Pimlico Handicap Feb. 26, is favored in the $25,000 Swift Stakes that features the start at Aqueduct today of New York's long 243-day season.

Rick Pajot took third in the 200-yard free style and third in the 400-yard free style. Bill Bortner placed second in the 100-yard backstroke, while Jim DeVore placed fourth in the 200-yard free and the 50-yard free style events.

Chuck Penn took third in the 50-yard free style, and Bob Tyldesley placed fourth in the 100-yard free and 100-yard butterfly.

Sherry Dickson placed fourth in the 100-yard free style, Ann Bell third in the 100-yard individual medley and the 50-yard free style, and fourth in the 50-yard backstroke.

The Big Spring 15-17 year-old boys placed second in the 400-yard medley relay with Bill Bortner, Rick Pajot, Bob Tyldesley and Chuck Penn on the team. They were also second in the 400-yard free relay with Rick Pajot, Jim DeVore, Chuck Penn and Bob Tyldesley on the team.

Coahoma Second In Track Meet

CRANE — Coahoma finished second to McCamey in the Crane Track and Field meet here Saturday, scoring 88 points to 156 1/2 for McCamey.

Crane was third with 72 while Alpine had 53 1/2. Eunice, N. M., 48, Jal 33, Marfa 25, Colorado City 18 and Sanderson 20.

Mike Mosley of Coahoma won the 880 in 1:57.3. Marshall Williams of the Bulldogs copped the quarter mile run in 51.2. Coahoma also won the mile relay in 3:30.6. Bobby Pherrigo of Coahoma tied for second in the pole vault.

Tony Butler of the Bulldogs was second in the discus throw.

San Angelo And Snyder Split Two

SAN ANGELO — San Angelo and Snyder split a baseball doubleheader here Saturday, the home town Bobcats coming back to win the second game 6-1, after Snyder had copped the first one, 5-4. The two teams play again Tuesday in Snyder.

AGGIES, MATSON NOT COMING

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — The track and field spotlight turns to Odessa this week as eight universities, eight colleges and more than 40 high schools compete in the 22nd West Texas Relays.

Texas A&M, surprise champion of the Border Olympics, won't be here and neither will Randy Matson, the Aggie star weightman, but Abilene Christian returns to defend its championship. The Wildcats will be joined by Southern Methodist, Texas Christian, Baylor, Houston, North Texas State, Texas

Arlington State, East Texas, Hardin-Simmons, Howard Payne, McMurry, Sul Ross, Lamar Tech and defending champion Texas Western will make up the college division.

Amarillo Tascosa will defend its title in the high school division that takes in Class AAAA and AAA schools.

There also is a division for Class AA, A and B schools. On the basis of accomplishments in the Border Olympics, at least two records in the university class of the West Texas Relays are in danger. Albert Van Troba of Abilene Christian, who ran the mile in 4:09.2, should shatter the record here of 4:14.7.

WBA Counts Out Cassius, Folley in

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Cassius Clay, whose flitting fists and stinging tongue won him the world heavyweight boxing crown and later the disfavor of the World Boxing Association, has been counted out of the WBA rankings.

The WBA Executive Committee scratched Clay as No. 1 heavyweight contender Sunday and replaced him with Zora Folley, who agreed to fight for the title here May 16.

The World Boxing Association, which really doesn't cover all of the world, previously had stripped Clay of his title and had recognized Ernie Terrill as the champion. Folley had been rated second in the list of challengers.

Promoter Lou Messina of New Orleans said Folley had accepted an offer to fight Terrell for the title in City Park Stadium. The match would be recognized as a world heavyweight championship fight, the WBA Executive Committee said.

Kentucky Picked First, Despite Poor Season Mark

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was supposed to be a building year at Kentucky.

They really didn't have much coming off a 15-10 season, their poorest in many years. They were short on experience and hurting for height.

So they go into the semifinals of the NCAA national basketball championship with the nation's No. 1 ranking, the favorites' role and an unparalleled history of success.

"Nobody could have foreseen this," said Coach Adolph Rupp. "You could only dream about it."

EARN SPOT
The Wildcats earned their spot in the NCAA semifinals at College Park, Md., this weekend when they turned back Big Ten champion Michigan 84-77 in the Midwest regional finals at Iowa City, Iowa, Saturday.

They'll next go against powerful Duke, ranked second in the nation and possessor of a 25-3 record, in one semifinal. The other matches Texas Western, No. 3 in the country and 26-1, against unranked Utah, 20-6.

Duke blew a 16-point lead but came back to take Syracuse 91-81 in the Eastern regional final at Raleigh, N.C., Texas Western just edged Kansas 81-80 in double overtime at Lubbock, Tex., and Utah subdued Oregon State 80-74 at Los Angeles.

A crowd estimated at 20,000 by airport officials greeted Rupp's Runts when the Kentucky squad returned to Lexington, Ky., Sunday, then paraded the team through town.

BEST OF LOT
"A great tribute to a great bunch of boys," said Rupp, who has called this the best of all his teams. That covers a lot of ground, since the Baron has coached four NCAA champions, a record.

Rupp gave his team a day off today — "they're more beat up than any football team" — but will go back to work Tuesday in preparation for Duke.

"Duke is a good team," the old Baron said, "a formidable opponent."

Duke Coach Vic Bubas agrees. "I think we can win the championships," Bubas said. "We've got enough board power, enough speed and good outside shooting."

While Kentucky's injuries were mostly bumps and bruises, Utah has more serious worries. Starter Lyndon MacKay pulled a knee tendon in the regional title game against Oregon State and is a doubtful starter. Utah lost George Fisher two weeks ago with a broken leg.

Kansas Coach Ted Owens still was fuming about the officiating in his losing effort against Texas Western, but admitted that he "would have to label Texas Western one of the best ball clubs around if you get a loosely called game."

His chief complaint was a call on Jo Jo White with one second left in the first overtime. White had just dropped in a 25-footer for the apparent winner, but an official ruled White had stepped out of bounds. The game went to a second overtime and TWC took it.

Walt Loses Ball

Kansas University's Walt Wesley (15) loses the ball under the basket in action at the NCAA-Regional Playoff with Texas Western College Saturday night at Lubbock. Defending for TWC are Harry Flournoy (44) and David Lattin (45). KU's Ron Franz (11) also tries for the ball. TWC won the game, 81-80, in a double overtime to take the Midwest Regional title and go to the national finals.

Miners Set Sights On NCAA Title

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — Texas Western's embattled Miners, old hands at winning close games, set their sights on the NCAA basketball championship this weekend.

If they should win it, they would become the first Texas team to do so. Actually, Texas Western looks to be in the same position as the only previous Texas team to ever reach the NCAA finals — Baylor.

It was 1948 when Baylor advanced to the finals and lost to Kentucky 58-42.

Now here's Texas Western going to College Park, Md., to meet Utah in the opening round of the national semifinals Friday night.

If the Miners get past Utah they will then meet the winner of the Kentucky-Duke game Saturday night in the final.

That might mean Texas Western will play Kentucky for the championship — the same thing Baylor did 18 years ago.

Anyway, Texas Western hopes it comes about and it also hopes that if it does, the result will be slightly different.

Texas Western advanced to the national tournament Saturday night when the Miners beat Kansas 81-80 in double overtime. Friday night Texas Western had beaten Cincinnati 78-76 in a single overtime.

Coach Paul Seymour of the Bullets gave the Celtics a vote of confidence, promising that his team will beat Philadelphia.

The victory enabled the Celtics to remain one game behind the Philadelphia 76ers, who rallied to edge the New York Knicks 115-113. Boston and Philadelphia each have three games left.

Rodgers Wins Big Cash In Doral Open

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Phil Rodgers started playing it loose and easy, and rediscovered the combination to golf's big cash.

"In seven tournaments during the past year I led at some stage in the last round," the pudgy pro from La Jolla, Calif., said today as he moved from the $20,000 first prize in the Doral Open here to a shot at the $100,000 Citrus Open at Orlando.

"I was getting to feel that I was jinxed or something. Then I loosened up on it. I began hitting the ball 15 yards farther. Things started going better."

Rodgers, 27, a wise-cracking Yogi Berra of the fairways, ended a three-year slump Sunday when he beat out a pair of stubborn outsiders, Kermit Zarley of Yakima, Wash., and Jay Dolan of Leicester, Mass., for his first tournament triumph since 1963.

The clinching shot was a 40-foot birdie putt on the 71st hole. Zarley bogeyed the hole from a trap and missed an eight-foot birdie putt on the final hole that would have given him a tie.

Dolan, leader after three rounds, took four consecutive bogeys in one stretch and rallied to tie for second place.

Rodgers finished with a 70 for 278, 10 under par. Zarley and Dolan had 279. Arnold Palmer tied at 281 for fourth with Ray Floyd, Jack McGowan, Frank Beard and Johnny Pott. Jack Nicklaus shot 283.

Steers To Host Lubbock Team

The Big Spring Steers, who until last weekend were invincible, have a chance to prove that their meeting with Andrews was just one of those days.

They entertain the Lubbock Monterey team here at 4 p.m. Tuesday at the Teenage Park.

The Steers were 3-0 until they went up against Andrews Saturday. In that round, with junior hurlers starting, they dropped the first game 5-0 and the second 5-1. It was the worst showing of the year for the Steers at the plate.

Celtics Still Hopeful For 10th Division Title

BOSTON (AP) — The Boston Celtics counted upon promised help from Baltimore today as the National Basketball Association's regular campaign entered its final week.

The Celtics, bidding for a 10th straight Eastern Division title and an eighth consecutive NBA championship, looked for outside help with a little disappointment Sunday, after clobbering the Baltimore Bullets 129-98 at the Boston Garden.

"We'll win our three against Detroit, New York and Cincinnati," Boston Coach Red Auerbach said. "And I'm going to go out on the limb and predict that Baltimore, at home, will beat the 76ers in their final game next Sunday."

Coach Paul Seymour of the Bullets gave the Celtics a vote of confidence, promising that his team will beat Philadelphia.

The victory enabled the Celtics to remain one game behind the Philadelphia 76ers, who rallied to edge the New York Knicks 115-113. Boston and Philadelphia each have three games left.

Naturally, we would have to have ended up undefeated but 26-1 is a simply unbeatable record when you stop to think about it.

The Wildcats earned their place in the NCAA semifinals at College Park, Md., this weekend when they turned back Big Ten champion Michigan 84-77 in the past regional finals at Iowa, Iowa, Saturday.
They'll next go against power-Duke, ranked second in the nation and possessor of a 25-3 record, in one semifinal. The Wildcats' matches Texas Western, 33rd in the country and 26-1, ranked unranked Utah, 20-6.
Utah blew a 16-point lead but came back to take Syracuse 91-84 in the Eastern regional finals at Raleigh, N.C., Texas Western edged Kansas 81-59 in overtime at Lubbock, Tex., Utah subdued Oregon State at Los Angeles.
A crowd estimated at 20,000 airport officials greeted the Wildcats as they returned to Lexington, Ky., Sunday, then paraded them through town.

BEST OF LOT
A great tribute to a great lot of boys," said Rupp, who called this the best of all his. That covers a lot of ground, since the Baron has had four NCAA champions, and Rupp gave his team a day off from any football team — but got back to work Tuesday in preparation for Duke.
"It is a good team," the Baron said, "a formidable team."
Coach Vic Bubas thinks we can win the championships," Bubas said. "We've got enough board power, enough talent and good outside shooting. Kentucky's injuries mostly bumps and bruises, has more serious worries. Lyndon MacKay pulled a tendon in the regional game against Oregon State, a doubtful starter. Utah's George Fisher two weeks with a broken leg.

Coach Ted Owens still is mulling about the officiating effort against Texas Western, but admitted that would have to label Texas Western one of the best ball games if you get a loosely-chief complaint was a call by Jo White with one second left in the first overtime. White just dropped in a 25-footer to appear winner, but an 11 ruled White had stepped out of bounds. The game went to overtime and TWC-

Need A Pest Exterminator? Just Call Mack Moore & Son

Mack and Max Moore of Mack Moore & Son keep abreast of the constant changes in insecticides and know just what to use to rid buildings of ants, roaches, termites, moths and other insects. They have the equipment to get the chemicals into the most difficult places. A telephone call to AM 4-8190 or AM 3-6514 will get you information about, or service on, all kinds of pest control.

Even skunk odors can be eliminated with chemicals. Other offensive odors, such as those caused by smoke, may be "killed out" of the air or walls inside the premises.
Termites can do as much damage to concrete as they do to wood. Insects and pests can also develop immunity to pesticides and chemicals, requiring new kinds to be used for extermination.

Mack and Max Moore have pressurized portable equipment to enable them to get under concrete slabs, air hammer to drill into concrete foundations, and slabs where pressure forces chemicals into the entire area to exterminate termites.

So, if there is an offensive odor around the home, caused by smoke, skunks, or anything else, the firm has the chemicals to rid the air and premises of the odor.

Three pressure tanks, on trailers, carrying 50, 100, and 200 gallons of chemicals, are ready to roll, along with two trucks carrying the necessary tools.
Mack Moore & Son own and operate the business and keep up with all new methods and chemicals. They are members of the Texas Pest Control Association and are ready to go anywhere in the Big Spring area.
If insecticides around the home or business are not proving effective, call Mack Moore & Son. They can do you a lot of good.

'Clearing Of Air' On Policy Sought

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright said today the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which he heads is "fostering controversy" in the hope of attaining a true national consensus on Viet Nam policy.

The Arkansas Democrat, who has criticized President Johnson's Viet Nam policies, said the country is divided about American objectives in Asia and only "the honest and responsible airing of differences" can clear the air.

With the committee resuming hearings on China Wednesday, Fulbright spoke in defense of his role in a speech prepared for the National Conference of Higher Education in Chicago and made public here.

STRENGTHEN POSITION
Fulbright said, "I believe that the public hearings on Viet Nam, by bringing before the American people a variety of opinions and disagreements pertaining to the war, have done far more to strengthen our country's position than to weaken it."

"The hearings have been criticized on the ground that they conveyed an 'image' of the United States as divided over the war. Since the country obviously is divided, what was conveyed was a fact rather than an image."

SHAPE CONSENSUS
"The hearings on Viet Nam were undertaken by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in the hope of helping to shape a true consensus, even at the cost of destroying the image of a false one," Fulbright said.

"It is perfectly true that we are fostering controversy and for my own part, I do so without apology, because there is nothing wrong with the honest and responsible airing of differences and, more important, because controversy is the condition of intelligent decision-making and the crucible in which a consensus as to objectives may be translated into a consensus of policy as well."

PREVENT CATASTROPHE
Fulbright said the committee is asking questions "because China and America may be heading toward war with each other and it is essential that we do all that can be done to prevent that calamity, starting with a concerted effort to understand the Chinese people and their leaders."

Fulbright's speech followed a declaration Sunday by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey that he believes the containment of Red China's "aggressive militancy" is a worthy objective but the Peking regime should not be isolated "from the family of mankind."

Humphrey said the United States has attempted several times "to break into China for the purpose of visitation with the people" but each time was rebuffed by the Communist leadership.

"I am afraid we are going to have to wait until the men of the . . . Mao generation are out of positions of leadership," he said. "But in the meantime we ought to maintain as best we can a spirit of friendship toward the Chinese people but recognizing that the regime is and making that regime understand they cannot achieve their purpose by military power."

The vice president accused Red China of supplying small arms and munitions to North Viet Nam and the Viet Cong. He said the United States is "prepared at this moment to accept a cease-fire" in Viet Nam and include Chinese Communist representatives in any peace negotiations.

OTHER DEVELOPMENTS
In other weekend developments:

India's Prime Minister Indira Gandhi said that while Communist China should be contained, it also should be admitted to the United Nations. She suggested that exclusion of Red China from the United Nations may have contributed to present problems.

"Perhaps, if China had not been so isolated, it wouldn't have been so aggressive," she said on ABC's radio-television program "Issues and Answers."

ASKS CLARIFICATION
Rep. Melvin B. Laird, R-Wis., said the Johnson administration "has deliberately misrepresented the manpower and monetary needs of the country . . . so that the programs of the Great Society can be funded." Appear-

Downswing In Cattle Output Noted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says the nation's livestock industry is now in the midst of another cyclical downturn—the seventh since the 1880s—in the cattle production cycle.

The department said 1965 ended seven consecutive years of cattle buildup. Cattle numbers eased off last year from the record high of 107.6 million head reported at the end of 1964.

"SIX CYCLES"
Since 1880, the number of cattle on farms has gone through six complete cycles that have varied in length from 10 to 16 years. Changes in the production pattern usually follow price changes.

"Although the present situation is similar to that of the previous cycle, price levels—a major factor in the evolution of the cattle cycle—are quite different," a department report said.

PRICES DECLINE
"Cattle prices declined during 1955 and into 1956, the first two years of inventory reduction in the previous cycle. In contrast, prices received by farmers during 1965 and early 1966 averaged substantially above 1964 levels."

The department said that regardless of the differences and changes of past cycles, total cattle numbers probably will decline again this year—in the tradition of the historical cattle cycle.

McClellan, 70, Will Seek Fifth Term

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., will seek his fifth term in Congress.

McClellan, 70, said in Little Rock Sunday night that, as far as he knew, his health was good and that he was ready if necessary to "make an active and aggressive campaign."

McClellan's decision drew no comment from Gov. Orval Faubus, who returned Sunday from Washington and a conference on antipoverty programs. There has been speculation that Faubus might seek a Senate seat this year instead of a seventh term as governor.

Fifth Mishap Victim Dies

PORT ARTHUR (AP)—A fifth person died today of injuries suffered in a traffic accident near Port Arthur about midnight.

Robert E. Brown, 21, of Houston succumbed in a Port Arthur hospital.

Killed immediately were four members of a Nederland family. They were Alvin York, 53; his wife, Alvin York Jr., 13; and Mark York, 17.

Murphy York, 19, was taken to a hospital suffering from injuries.

Brown lived at 1402 Post Oak Street in Houston.

Money Bill Expected To Pass House Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — A $12.1-billion appropriation bill and a $6-billion tax measure may keep Congress busy through this week and fan the fires of controversy over foreign policy.

Both are emergency measures and by-products of the Viet Nam war.

The appropriation bill comes before the House Tuesday and is expected to pass by Wednesday. It has not been considered by the Senate.

FINANCE WAR
The bill carries the exact amount of money requested by President Johnson to finance the increasing cost of military and economic programs in Viet Nam and other areas of Southeast Asia. It would raise to about $60 billion total defense appropriations voted for the current fiscal year ending June 30.

The tax bill already has passed both the House and the Senate, but in different forms. A compromise scheduled for passage by both branches Tuesday would raise an estimated $6 billion through fiscal 1967 and add about 300,000 persons 72 years old or older to the Social Security benefits rolls. The pensioners would be paid by funds from the Social Security trust fund until July 1, 1967.

The new revenue would come from restoration of recent cuts in excise taxes on automobiles and telephone calls and a revision of the withholding system designed to keep taxpayers current with their income tax liability and also speed payment of corporate taxes.

The administration requested the tax bill as an anti-inflation weapon.

Two other bills on the House docket this week are expected to stir controversy.

One would provide an official residence in Washington for the vice president. The other would allow the Interstate Commerce Commission to order Daylight Saving Time during six summer months for all time zones in the nation.

Except for the compromise tax bill, the Senate has no major legislation scheduled for the week. Last week it passed a $415-million emergency foreign aid bill, the original version of its tax measure, and a bill to create 46 new federal judge-

A Devotional For The Day

Cast me not away from thy presence; and take not the holy spirit from me. (Psalm 51:11)
PRAYER: Father, instill in us the attitude of genuine repentance. May our lives be turned toward Thee and our thoughts mastered by Thy presence, Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer. Amen.

Congress-Eyes Controls

Neither business nor organized labor has been happy with the guidelines for economic growth established by the President's Council of Economic Advisers in 1962. Both are becoming increasingly restive at a time when President Johnson continually emphasizes the need for restraint in wage-price operations.
For wages, the guidelines ask that "the percentage increase in total compensation per man-hour be equal to the national trend rate of increase in output per man-hour." For prices, the guidelines call for "stable prices in industries enjoying the same productivity growth as the average for the economy; rising prices in industries with smaller than average productivity gains; and declining prices in industries with greater than average productivity gains."

Now Congress shows signs of wanting to get into the act. Rep. Henry S. Reuss, Wisconsin Democrat, has introduced a measure which would amend the Employment Act of 1946 to transfer from the Council of Advisers to the Joint Economic Committee of Congress the function of setting wage-price guidelines and recommending action to counter violations. The policy would then become even more than now a political football with Congress as overseer.
Both business and labor are sensitive to an alternative to the wage-price guidelines, one that lurks in the background. It is wage-price control. It may be required in a country which is threatened with drastic inflation as the economy nears a war-time footing.

Where Did They Go?

The mystery of the Kennedy half-dollar seems to defy solution. More than 300 million of them have been minted, but the average person sees one rarely—some may never have seen one.
Of course, someone must have a lot of the halves in storage. Coin dealers offer a $10 roll for $12 from the Philadelphia mint, or a $1,000 bag for $1,175. The Denver mint halves are a bit higher, $15 for a $10 roll and $1,285 for a $1,000 bag.

Unquestionably many of the halves have gone overseas to be kept as mementoes by men and women who remember the late president and want to keep a likeness. Tens of millions of others have disappeared into American homes, kept as souvenirs by those who do not make a practice of collecting coins. Then, of course, serious collectors have at least two of each mint type—often a roll of each type.
Meanwhile, the mints are turning out the new half-dollar with a silver content of 40 per cent silver, as compared with 90 per cent in the previous coinage. When they are released, it is quite possible that a temporary shortage will occur as collectors and speculators squirrel them away. But the flood will continue unabated from the mint until the new halves are in plentiful supply. During this period, halves coined before 1964 will have to supply the demand. The Treasury Department apparently has given up hopes that the Kennedy half would return to general circulation.

But whatever happens, the U.S. Mint cannot help but make a great deal of money—$200 million last year. The government makes the profit between the cost of producing the coin and its face value, a custom known as seigniorage. The profit in 1964 may run as high as $900 million, because of the lessened silver content. By 1967, the profit may amount to more than $1 billion a year.

New Danger For Europe

WASHINGTON — Gen. de Gaulle may not realize it but, in trying to break down the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, he will be reducing its military effectiveness on the continent of Europe. He may be opening the way ultimately to a critical choice between letting the invading armies of the Communists take possession of Western Europe through puppet governments or relying on America to use her large nuclear weapons.

UNDER THE NATO treaty, the United States and the other fourteen members presumably must come to each other's defense at once when any one of them is attacked. There are only two ways of resisting. One is by "massive retaliation"—using nuclear weapons of all kinds—and the other is by an adequate land force supported by sufficient air-power and nuclear weapons in the tactical category. The first is called "all-out war," and the second is "limited war."

But the enemy may decide not to use any nuclear weapons because it could gain its objective by deploying a powerful land force. This might deter the United States from taking the initiative in resorting to nuclear weapons. It is this potential strategy which Gen. de Gaulle is ignoring as he asks the United States and the other powers to give up the present system of integrated command under American officers.

WHAT GEN. DE GAULLE is starting is a gradual disintegration of the entire NATO defense structure, leaving the situation open only to nuclear weapons as the last remaining source of protection.

Russia, on the other hand, has today plenty of ground troops and air power with tactical nuclear weapons, and would not have to use the most destructive of nuclear bombs or warheads to gain its ends. It need only rely on a military offensive in what is called a "limited war," because NATO has never built up an adequate defense with conventional forces.

ALL THIS IS bound to produce uneasiness throughout Europe. The Eastern bloc of Communist states will see diminished their hopes of getting military help someday from the West. As for the people of West Germany, they will have less military protection against the Soviet Union, and can anticipate a rise in Communist strength.

On the political side, the efforts of Gen. de Gaulle to develop a closer relationship with the Soviet government are already apparent as he plans an early trip to Moscow for that purpose. So with France on friendly terms with the Peiping regime and getting into a quasi-alliance also with the Soviet government, there is bound to be anxiety in Europe as to what the new French nationalism means in terms of the safety of the other countries of Western Europe.

THE UNITED STATES has hitherto been the bulwark of strength in NATO and has furnished most of the funds for the maintenance of a defensive military posture in Western Europe. But if France backs out and, in effect, tells the United States to depart from its territory—as recent developments indicate—the plight of Europe will become grave.

MILITARY MEN are perplexed over the De Gaulle moves, for they think he is ignoring the simple elements of strategy and making it difficult for the United States to come to the rescue in time if a Communist invasion should someday be started without warning. In the next year the debate over the future safety of Western Europe may transcend in importance any other international question.

Hired Hand

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — A South African gangster "hired" a man to do his nine-month prison sentence, police reported.

The plot was discovered when a sharp-eyed detective spotted the African gangster walking down a Cape Town street. Only a few weeks earlier the man had been sent to jail for nine months for the illegal possession of a firearm.

When police checked the cells they found a switch had been made. News reports said the gangster offered the substitute two horses and a cart to serve his sentence for him.

Both men were scheduled to appear in court charged with fraud.

Tax 'Adjustment' Studied—Just In Case...

WASHINGTON (AP) — If the Johnson administration decides additional tax revenue is needed to stem any inflationary trend, it is likely to propose a package of corporate and personal income tax boosts rather than any selective rise.

The administration has made no hard and fast decisions on specific taxes that might be proposed. But Treasury officials are now looking into possible action which might be taken if — and it's a big if — the administration feels a tax boost might be necessary.

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has said Congress and the administration should be ready to act quickly if a tax boost is needed to reduce purchasing power and take some steam out of an overheating economy.

Neutrality is the key to Treasury Department thinking on tax policy at this point. This means that if any quick adjustment in taxes is needed, the existing tax structure should remain unchanged. In other words, the tax burden shouldn't be shifted from one group of taxpayers to another.

ANY SHIFT in tax burdens, Treasury tax experts feel, is a complex problem with deep-seated feelings usually accompanied by lengthy congressional attention and public debate.

There won't be time for lengthy debate if a tax increase is to be used as an anti-inflationary tool.

A Senate-House economic subcommittee will soon look into possible ways to raise taxes if they have to be boosted to fight inflation. President Johnson and the Treasury welcome the hearing.

IN LINE with the Treasury's neutrality thinking, any tax increase plan probably would be designed to raise the tax burdens of individuals and corporations a proportionately equal amount — depending on how much purchasing power the administration wanted to remove from the economy.

One possibility would be a 1 per cent boost in individual rates — from 14 to 15 per cent in the lowest bracket, for example — and a 2 per cent increase in corporate rates — from 48 to 50 per cent.

This could yield about $4 billion a year.

THE TREASURY reportedly is leaning against a suspension in the 7 per cent investment credit for business as part of any package but there has been pressure for it, the latest an unsuccessful attempt by Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., to make it a part of the administration tax measure expected to receive final congressional approval this week.

That measure would suspend reductions in car and telephone excise taxes which went into effect Jan. 1 and speed up collections of individual and corporate taxes, bringing in an estimated $6 billion over the next two years.

Historians Have Respite

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It was surprising to encounter Will and Ariel Durant at a recent Hollywood awards dinner.

The surprise was not so much in finding two white-haired historians at a glittering affair that features wise-cracking comedians and waltz dancing for entertainment. It was amazing that the Durants would allow themselves a night off from their monumental work.

"Oh, we allow ourselves a little respite once in a while," said Ariel Durant, a smooth-faced 67.

"WE'RE LETTING up a little, now that we can see the stable," added her husband with a twinkle of his clear eyes. Last November he celebrated his 80th year.

The "stable" of which he spoke is the conclusion of the 10-volume story of civilization, which he began almost 30 years ago. Originally he authored the books alone. In time his wife's collaboration became so considerable that he now shares the byline with her.

Over the party din the Durants discussed the progress of their work.

"AT THE rate we're going, we should finish this fall," said Mrs. Durant. "The last volume is 'Rousseau and Revolution' and we'll take it to the fall of the Bastille."

"And that will be the end," said Durant with finality. "It is where I have always said I would resist all efforts to induce me to go further."

"After all, we have been working on this for 51 years," added his wife. "I think we deserve to have it end."

THE DURANTS live a dozen blocks from Hollywood and Vine, but they rarely venture from their hillside home; the invitation from a close friend, producer Robert Cohn, induced them out to the awards dinner last week.

What happens when they finally finish their work?
"Will has promised to take me on a second honeymoon," said Mrs. Durant. "He says he'll even take me to Niagara Falls."

To Your Good Health

Digestion Begins In The Mouth

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: My dad says we have to eat our cereal dry in order to mix our saliva with it. We can't drink milk with our meals until we are completely finished. When we go get hamburgers we aren't allowed to have malts. He won't let us dunk cookies in milk because of saliva.

He also says we must chew all food a minimum of 30 times, even spaghetti. Five of us are wondering if it is true that we need to do this. — L. K.

I can go along with your dad only to the extent that if you were my kids, I'd discourage dunking cookies, partly just because it's messy. Likewise, some chewing is good for you.

The trouble, I'm afraid, is that he has gotten a couple of facts in mind but has gone overboard in applying them. Yes, saliva is part of the digestive process. Yes, chewing is good for you. But enough of either is enough.

Digestion begins in the mouth. Your salivary glands keep working all day long, keeping the mouth moist, but serving another purpose when you start to eat. These glands are so sensitive that even the smell or sight of food, as well as the actual taste, activate them. Two things happen. The saliva starts breaking starches down into sugars of the type the body will absorb. Meantime, the chewing process breaks food up into pieces small enough to be swallowed easily and thereafter further dissolved by juices in the stomach.

Meat especially needs chewing to break up the fibres. Besides, meat is more slowly digested anyway. But chewing every mouthful 30 times regardless of whether it is soft or hard isn't logical.

Drinking milk with meals, or having milk on cereal as most of us do, doesn't stop the saliva glands from working, and does not prevent saliva from doing the job it is supposed to do.

Now for the chewing. Many years ago a man named Horace Fletcher (who died in 1919) popularized a fad of chewing food until it was of liquid consistency. It had quite a vogue at one time, but it wasn't scientifically sound. For one thing, the stomach is designed to break up bits of food after they have been chewed to swallowing size. The stomach, indeed, needs it exercised, too!

I'm not saying "don't chew." The work of chewing is good for your teeth, keeping them strong and clean. Certainly every mouthful doesn't have to be washed down with liquid. Be sensible about it.

Dear Dr. Molner: I had X-rays taken of my gall bladder. At first I was told I had gallstones. Then I was told I had gas pockets. Is there such a thing as gas pockets in the gall bladder? — G. F. S.

Not of the gall bladder — but there are gas pockets of the bowel. Occasionally these gas pockets are so located as to throw shadows which can be mistaken for gallstones on X-ray examination. Further X-rays taken from a somewhat different angle make it possible to distinguish the gas pockets from stones.

Acne is one of the most terrible problems of growing up. If you are afflicted with this aggravation, or if you have children who are, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald for a copy of his helpful and comforting booklet, "Acne — The Teenage Problem." Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Around The Rim

By 1984—Just Take It Easy

The children born this year will be in the high school graduating class of 1984, which coincides with the title of a novel written by George Orwell.

In his tome, the saturnine Orwell warned of the perils associated with a technological dictatorship over mankind.

Richard E. Farson, director of the Western Behavioral Sciences Institute at La Jolla, Calif., suggests that Americans yield their devotion to hard work as a major virtue and learn how to enjoy life.

FARSON INSISTS the emphasis on "being useful" is going to have to go the way of the dodo bird and the nickel beer, simply because the age of automation is now here. With it, of course, comes a great increase in leisure time.

Dr. Farson adds this sobering thought:

"IN THE automated world of tomorrow, we as individuals will simply not be 'useful' to society as we have been before. The superior man of the future will be the person who can cope with a world without work. This person will not be able to depend upon the Puritan values of hard work, self-denial, and service to others for his esteem.

"Rather, he will prize his ability to relax, to contemplate, to attend to the world around him, to create, to fashion things, to be aware of his inner feelings, to enjoy others, to be what he is, to live in the present."

THE CALIFORNIAN also says that our attitude toward play will need reform, adding:

"Our present notions of play activities such as bowling, TV, bridge simply will not fulfill us. We will not simply play in the future as diversion or escape. Play will be our work, just as it is with children, who find it a full-time, fulfilling occupation.

IN THIS future, says Dr. Farson, "schools will humanize as well as educate and business will liberate the potential of the individual as well as produce goods and make profits."
In other words, courses in the art of playing may be just as important to school curriculum in the future as math and science are today.

And a word of advice for those on the verge of retiring: Take a crash course in the art of making good use of your leisure time — or have you watched any daytime television lately?

Inflation Talk Spurs Search

NEW YORK (AP)—Talk about inflation, present or impending, is spurring a two-pronged search. One is for any and all signs of inflation. The other is for methods of warding it off or controlling it.

AS THE COST of living rises and the pundits argue about the meaning of this, here are some answers to questions that may be bothering you:
Q—What are today's signs of incipient inflation?

A—THE UNEMPLOYMENT rate is 3.7 per cent of the labor force, lowest since November, 1953. Skilled labor shortages are appearing, sending overtime payrolls up. Unions are raising their wage demands. Output per man hour of labor is increasing only slowly now, where it was zooming upward a year or two ago. Many raw material prices have edged up. Firms are building up inventories, some fearing either shortages or further price increases ahead. Demand for finished goods has taxed the capacity of some industries and delivery times are being stretched out as order backlogs mount.

Q—WHAT ABOUT the monetary signs of inflation?

A—Interest rates are rising as the demand for loans increases despite a marked increase in the supply of money and credit since last summer. Consumers are spending a larger percentage of their income and saving a smaller share—although personal income has soared so high that the totals for both spending and saving are at record highs.
Q—What steps are the money managers taking to ward off inflation?

A—THE FEDERAL Reserve Board has raised interest rates. It also is tightening money by shrinking the free reserves which banks can use to make loans to business and to consumers. The idea is to restrain mildly the urge to borrow and to spend.

Q—What is the government doing about inflation?

A—ASKING CONGRESS to increase tax collections this year. This would leave less for individuals and corporations to spend now. The President also is urging labor and management to observe guidelines holding down wage and price increases.

Q—What is proposed beyond the steps already taken?

A—THE PRESIDENT is asking the Congress to be ready to vote higher taxes quickly if inflation becomes obvious. This would leave less money to chase the available goods. Some think the Federal Reserve should make money and credit still higher. This would involve still higher interest rates to discourage borrowing, whether to build a new plant, buy a new car or to buy a new home by means of a mortgage.

Q—BUT IF in the days ahead wholesale and consumer prices rise still more rapidly, what is likely to happen?

A—Some consumers might put off buying high-priced goods, especially those they can easily do without. Business might hold up some of its plans for building plants or buying new equipment. Demands for higher wages to meet rising prices would become more insistent. Price increases on American goods would cut U.S. exports, swell the deficit in the balance of payments, and weaken the status of the dollar.

The Fulbright Opinions

WASHINGTON — Reading rapidly and skipping many passages, Sen. William Fulbright (D. Ark.) got off a Senate floor speech last Monday as a prelude to the public hearings on the China policy, which opened the next day.

IT WOULD HAVE been instructive if the Senate members had paid as much attention to Fulbright's address as the press gallery did. Since there was no comment or colloquy, the Congressional Record would not show the Arkansas scholar-statesman in his full colors. Fulbright is the same senator who declared on this same floor a few years ago that the United States was greatly exaggerating the dangers of a Red Cuba, which soon became a Russian missile base. He is the same senator who proposed last spring that our Latin American policy should permit some tolerance of communism in the Dominican Republic. Fulbright is the same chairman of Foreign Relations who recently joined with Sen. Bob Kennedy in advocating our recognition of the Viet-Cong as a respected minority in South Viet Nam.

IT WOULD BE HARD to find anywhere of late where Fulbright's intellectual leadership did not put his own country in the wrong and the Communist enemy at least partially in the right.

Fulbright should always be identified and his speeches tagged, as usually happens in a Senate debate, lest anybody forgets where he stands. For example, he ought not to have gotten away with the cozy reference to "the Southerners," considering how many senators know his contempt for the Southern attitudes to which he gives lip-service in order to hold his seat.

HAVING TRIED to make an analogy between the Southern and Chinese hatred of the "Yankee," Fulbright ran through the long history of outrages performed on pre-Communist China by the imperialists of Britain, France, Germany, Japan and Russia. He made it seem that the U.S.A. was an important participant whereas, in truth, our part in these interventions, while regrettable, was not important and was outstanding mainly for the restraint and remorse that accompanied it.

Nowhere did Fulbright tell how we aided China against Japan, before getting into World War II, and how we foolishly, but good-heartedly, tried to assist at a "coalition" government for China after the war.

THE PITCH of this speech was that we should be very patient with Red China. She's suffering a "nervous breakdown," Fulbright said, because of historical injustices and of an "obsession" that the Occidental races are conspiring against her.

Somehow, all this sounded a little familiar. Wasn't it Germany which, 30 years ago, claimed many grievances from the Versailles Treaty? Wasn't it Hitler who preached to his people, and yelled at the world, that Germany was the victim of a racial conspiracy against her supremacy?

NOBODY EVER SAID that history is fair or that the life of nations is easy. A country as weak as China used to be, or one that loses its wars as Germany did, comes in for some rough times, and could very well turn paranoid. But this seems all the more reason to reject Fulbright's advice about weakening our Asian policy, backing out of the Viet Nam War and heaping ourselves with guilt that isn't ours.

Odd Cargo

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A moving company never knows what its next load will be. Mayflower recently moved a plaster of paris mold for a bronze monument from Ann Arbor, Mich., to Bismarck, N. D. And it moved a man from Sonoma County Hospital, Calif., to San Rafael, Calif., for a court appearance in a damage suit.

Other odd cargo includes: dinosaur bones; a stuffed beaver, sage hen and trumpeter swan; structural parts from a 141-year-old house; boxes of Texas soil to California; a transparent talking dog; a $3.5 million art collection; the world's largest submarine periscope; a model of the Cathedral of Milan made of 1.5 million matches and toothpicks; 15,000 air-filled balloons for use at a parade.

Demo, GOP Panels Meet

AUSTIN (AP)—One hundred and twenty-four Texans who guide the destinies of the Democratic and Republican parties in the state meet Monday in Austin.

The law says the state executive committees of the two major political factions must gather to certify their state candidates for the May 7 primaries and select a site for their Sept. 20 state conventions.

FUNDS APPEALS

The more practical purpose of the meetings is to give the state-wide candidates an opportunity to greet their supporters and, if need be, make a special appeal for more campaign funds.

Both committees held informal receptions Sunday night. The Republican committee met at 9:30 a.m. today in Austin's new Crest Hotel.

GOP speakers will include Sen. John Tower, whose reelection is the prime 1966 project of the party, plus a scattering of statewide and congressional candidates.

CANDIDATES INVITED

The Democratic committee met at 10 a.m. in the Commodore Perry Hotel and was to last through a 12:30 p.m. roast beef luncheon. There are no scheduled speakers although all statewide candidates have been invited to appear and be recognized.

The Republicans were expected to set their Sept. 20 state convention in San Antonio while the Democrats are expected to choose either Austin or, more likely, Dallas.

The September statewide gatherings are of particular importance because that is where party plans will be made for the crucial two years preceding the 1968 presidential election year.

In recent weeks, there have been rumors that both the Democratic and Republican committees might receive petitions asking that an opinion poll on horse race betting and lifting the liquor sales curfew be placed on the May 7 ballots. However, party leaders said last week there was no sign of such petitions, which would have to be signed by 81,000 qualified voters.

Brothers Held In Bank Heist

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Joseph Raymond Green and Harvey Wesley Green of Atlanta, Ga., were held in Bexar County jail under $100,000 bonds today on charges of robbery of an Atlanta bank.

They were taken into custody Sunday 45 miles west of here on a highway leading to Mexico and were given a hearing before a U. S. commissioner.

Texas Highway Patrolman Harold E. Becker, stationed at Hondo, caught the men as they drove separate cars. He curbed the first car and stopped the second after a 10-mile chase.

The brothers face charges of robbing the Moreland-Custer branch of the National Bank of Georgia of $15,544. A bank camera filmed the holdup.

Two With Same Type Cancer To Trade Blood

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Two men with the same type of cancer take a second step today in their fight against the fatal disease.

Robert F. Allen of Tucson, Ariz., and Harry T. Griffith of Flourtown, Pa., who face death from osteogenic sarcoma, bone cancer, prepared to trade blood in an effort to help each other.

Ten days ago, Allen, 39, and Griffith, 55, exchanged portions of cancer tissue in a rare transplant operation performed by Dr. Sigmund H. Nadler and a team of surgeons at Roswell Park Memorial Institute, the state's cancer research and treatment center.

Nadler said it was hoped that each man would develop in his blood a resistance to the transplanted cancer tissue. The resistance would be returned to fight the original cancer tissue by daily blood transfusions over a period of two weeks, he said.

A hospital spokesman said both men were in good condition and good spirits.

Twenty-Eight Hundred Pounds Of Snakes Taken

SWEETWATER, Tex. (AP)—Some 270 brave snake hunters captured 2,800 poisonous rattlers during the three-day annual Sweetwater Rattlesnake Roundup which ended Sunday. The snakes weighed an estimated 2,800 pounds.
 The roundup, which is sponsored by the Sweetwater Jaycees, was viewed by an estimated 12,000 spectators, who swarmed over the countryside to watch the hunters probe crevices and rock formations to bring in the snakes from their winter quarters.
 Total prize money for the Most of the snakes are not... killed but are kept for display purposes, sold to reptile zoos or used in medical research. The deadly venom is "milked" for use in research projects.
 Champion snake hunter of the 8th annual roundup was Bob O'Donald of Claytonville, Tex., who caught 384 pounds and earned a trophy and $50.
 Second place went to Ray Dodgion and C. W. Carlisle, both of Roscoe, Tex., who captured 165 pounds. Joe Jackson of Dallas captured the longest snake—68 inches.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN
ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ
 Q. 1—Neither vulnerable, partner opens with one spade and you hold:
 ♠KJ74 ♥AQ98 ♦82 ♣J74
 What is your response?
 A.—A temporary bid of two hearts is in order. The hand is just an eyelash short of a three spade bid, so you must arrange to make two constructive bids without committing the hand to game if partner signs off.
 Q. 2—As South vulnerable, you hold:
 ♠A3 ♥A107 ♦QJ4 ♣KJ972
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1 ♠ Pass 2 ♣ Pass
 What do you bid now?
 A.—When promoted value of the diamond holding is taken into consideration, your hand is better than an opening bid. Partner has shown that he, too, has better than an opening bid, so that slam possibilities may be visualized. The suggested call is three spades—an ace showing bid—with the intention of showing the ace of hearts on the next round. This should leave it up to partner to decide the fate of the hand.
 Q. 3—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠J973 ♥84 ♦AK8 ♣A1063
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1 ♣ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
 2 ♣ Pass 2 NT Pass
 What do you bid now?
 A.—Despite the fact that you have opened an absolute minimum, it is your duty to see that the hand is played in the contract best suited for your holding. A return to three spades is therefore in order for, with the worthless doubleton and four trumps, there is little doubt that the hand should play at least one trick better at the suit.
 Q. 4—As South vulnerable, you hold:
 ♠A2 ♥KQ76 ♦AK105 ♣K11
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1 ♥ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
 What do you bid now?
 A.—The hand is too good for a single raise to two spades, and a double raise is not recommended with only three trumps. The suggested call is two diamonds. True enough, this bid of a new suit by opener is not forcing, but there is a good chance that partner will bid again, in which case a delayed spade raise may be given.
 Q. 5—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠AKJ10 ♥Q9 ♦843 ♣K1099
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South
 What do you bid?
 A.—One spade. This is one of those rare instances where we recommend an overcall on a four card suit. This hand has both offensive and defensive possibilities so that an immediate bid has the dual advantage of getting your side into the auction at a convenient level and of suggesting a good lead should you wind up as defenders.
 Q. 6—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠82 ♥743 ♦KJ95 ♣KQ103
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South
 What action do you take?
 A.—Three diamonds. We would regard this hand as just a shade below the essentials for re-opening and the jump bid might have the merit of interfering with the adversaries connecting on a favorable major suit contract.
 Q. 7—As South vulnerable, you hold:
 ♠1092 ♥983 ♦AK ♣KQ962
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♥ 2 ♣ Pass
 What action do you take?
 A.—Inasmuch as you have the equivalent of an opening bid, you must make some effort to get to a game. The recommended call is a raise to three diamonds, since partner has rebid the suit. If North has a spade stopper and a suitable hand, he should then try three no trump.
 Q. 8—As South you hold:
 (Both vulnerable. You have part score of 60.)
 ♠6 ♥KQ1074 ♦K1063 ♣Q76
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♥ 1 ♠
 Dblie. Pass ?
 What do you bid now?
 A.—While your partner's intention in passing the opposition is very clear, nevertheless, it seems better business to reach for what appears to be a sure rubber. Prospects for more than a one or two trick set are not bright. The suggested bid is one no trump, by all means do not bid two hearts, a suit in which partner is very likely short.

Odessan's Men In Last Battle Before Trip Home

D ZONE—South Viet Nam (AP)—In the dense jungle of D Zone, a Viet Cong stronghold where even the noonday sun barely sneaks its rays through the thick brush, a bomb crater was filled with wounded American soldiers.

These men of the 173rd Airborne Brigade had known this would be their last battle; their year in Viet Nam was nearly over.

During the sleepless Saturday night, as artillery and air strikes shook the earth, they talked about home 8,000 miles away.

B Company's commander, Capt. Romie L. Brownlee, 29, of Odessa, Tex., told about seeing his wife Nancy, now living in Casper, Wyo. in Hawaii last March 25.

"But there's still a lot of jungle between my wife and me," he said.

PRIVATE'S DREAM
 In a foxhole, a 19-year-old private told a buddy: "The one thing I really dream about is getting my girl and my car and driving downtown for a milk shake."

Twelve hours later, the men of B Company, 2nd Battalion, were fighting for their lives.

In the crater, dug about as deep and wide as a big truck by a B52 bomb, many men rolled in bloody agony. Medics worked feverishly, crawling over wounded, ducking at the crack of 50-caliber machine-gun bullets, to give what aid they could.

Brownlee crouched between the thick, protective roots of a towering tree, his left arm wracked by the pain of shrapnel wounds. Sweat poured from his face. Between his shoulder and chin, he cradled a field telephone, directing his men.

ENEMY FURIOUS
 The enemy was just 75 yards away, firing furiously.

At the start of the day, nine soldiers of the 2nd Battalion had gotten separated from the others on a patrol near the Song Be River, some 30 miles northeast of Saigon.

"I walked ahead of the file," said Sgt. Albert Guarusco, 23, of Morgan City, La., the little group's point man.

"I'd just passed through a ravine and a big bomb crater when suddenly about 40 yards away I saw a VC. He was heading my way and looked surprised. I fired a burst from my automatic rifle and dove to the ground.

"Then I raised my head and saw two more VC. One had a steel helmet. I fired another burst and they disappeared into a trench.

COMBAT VETERAN
 "I've been here 10 months and fought the VC plenty, but those were the first ones I ever saw alive."

The eight other men in the file scrambled to the right off the narrow trail. Sgt. Marvin Chapman of Huntington, W. Va., said: "All hell broke loose. Bullets flew in all directions. Grenades headed for us exploded in the trees.

"We got in a defense circle and waited for Charley to charge us. But he didn't come. Each time one of our guys raised his head they fired again. But otherwise they just stayed where they were. We radioed for help and lay there for an hour and a half, right under Charley's guns."

GOES FORWARD
 About 800 yards away, B Company was inching through the jungle to answer the call for help. It took the three platoons 90 minutes to cut through the tangled ravines and brush to about 200 feet short of the trapped group. Then White Platoon went forward alone, while the other two crouched and waited.

With his two radio operators and forward artillery observers, Brownlee impatiently moved after White Platoon. When he reached the nine trapped men, the enemy opened up on the right flank of the Americans with two 50-caliber machine guns and automatic weapons. Grenade explosions blasted above the noise of weapons.

The captain's radio link to the two rear platoons went dead.

"Grenades bounced all over us," Brownlee said later. "I dove flat and at the same time backhanded a grenade that had fallen through the branches above me. It exploded far enough away so that only my arm was peppered with fragments."

Lt. Clarence Johnson of Des Moines, Iowa, had taken command of the rear elements. He ordered Red and Green platoons to crawl forward. The intense fire toppled branches onto the men but they covered the 200 feet in 90 seconds.

SHOOTS CONG
 Pfc. Jerry Rippee of Greenville, Miss., said: "One Viet Cong got ready to throw a grenade at us. I shot him in the side and the grenade fell and didn't go off."

"A woman, she was old, and had stringy hair, came crawling from a bunker to drag the VC away. I hit her straight."

With the company back together the enemy was held at bay. When the Americans dragged their wounded to the bomb crater the Viet Cong opened up, but they couldn't break through.

C Company eventually arrived, and the difficult job of evacuating wounded started.

An Air Force helicopter, hovering 150 feet above the jungle floor, lowered a stretcher basket through a shaft in the thick foliage cut by a B52's bomb.

Trees and stumps around the shaft still smoldered from fire-bombs dropped two days earlier. The helicopter's rotor blades swirled the soot and ashes and fanned the embers into flames 10 feet high. The area surrounding the wounded men became an inferno, but one by one the injured men were lifted into the flying ambulance.

BULLETS ZIP
 Viet Cong bullets zipped past the helicopter and the dangling baskets but failed to hit.

The last wounded man out was company commander Brownlee.

The American force pulled back to its patrol base for the evening. Jets and armed helicopters alternated with artillery in pounding the Viet Cong in their jungle fortresses.

The men of B Company still had lots of jungle between them and home.

IT'S COMING TO BIG SPRING!

Direct Distance Dialing

Starting This Summer, Long Distance Users Here Will DIAL Their Calls Direct

DIRECT Distance Dialing will be introduced to all telephone users in Big Spring this summer.

With Direct Distance Dialing — "DDD" — you will be able to dial your long distance station-to-station calls direct, as easily as local calls.

Fast - Convenient - Easy

DDD is fast, convenient, easy to use. To make a DDD call, just dial "1," then the 3-figure area code number for the city you are calling, and then the telephone number... that's all.

For example, suppose you want to call Capitol 7-3744 in Houston. You'll find Houston listed on page 3 of your telephone directory with the area code number 713. So you'll dial:

1...7-1-3...C-A-7-3-7-4-4

"Long Distance"	Area Code	Telephone Number
1	7-1-3	C-A-7-3-7-4-4

... and you will then hear the Houston telephone ring, within seconds.

For technical reasons, all AMherst 4 telephone numbers must be changed to AMherst 7 when DDD is introduced here.

BIG SPRING will be one of the first cities in West Texas to get DDD, and we are glad to bring this new service here. It is an important step in our continuing program to make your telephone service faster, more efficient, and more enjoyable than ever.

HARRY SAWYER, Manager

Southwestern Bell

DDD

An Important Step for Big Spring

DDD will mark a milestone of telephone progress in Big Spring when it is introduced to telephone users here this summer.

With DDD, you will be able to DIAL your long distance calls to virtually any other city in the country, including most of the cities in Texas and thousands of others throughout the United States and Canada.

Song Writer Stern Dead

DALLAS (AP) — Henry R. Stern, the man who wrote such songs as "I've Got the Time," "I've Got the Place, But it is Hard to Find the Girl" and "Indianola", died Sunday at his hotel apartment.

Stern, 91, once worked with the late Jimmy Walker, mayor of New York, as lyricist for "In the Valley Where My Sally Said Good Bye" and "With the Robins I'll Return."

He had a 35-year career as composer and Broadway producer.

He wrote under the name of S. R. Henry.

Teachers To Continue New Orleans Strike

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Striking teachers pledged to stay out again today in the first Deep South effort to win collective bargaining rights for their union, the American Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO.

About 450 members of the 1,400-strong Local 527 voted Sunday night to continue their strike indefinitely.

The union, whose membership is 80 per cent Negro, began its strike against the Orleans Parish School Board last Friday and claimed about 700 skipped classes that day.

Ed Fontaine, state president of the AFT, said the union expected more than twice the number of Friday's strikers to join the effort today.

The school board disputed union figures of striking teachers and said less than 500 teachers took part in the first-day walkout. All 124 schools in the system remained open, although the board feared that eight might be forced to close.

Fontaine said the local would continue its strike until the board agrees to an election to determine a single collective bargaining agent for the 3,900 public school teachers in New Orleans.

The present salary scale for teachers with a bachelors degree is $4,225 to start with a maximum of $6,425.

Three Shot In Gunfight

LUBBOCK, Tex. (AP) — A brief, but violent gunfight in a Lubbock area private club Sunday resulted in critical injuries for one Brownfield man and hospitalized two other Brownfield men.

Lalo Jimenez, 40, of Brownfield, was shot three times in the stomach and once in the arm and leg. Jimenez, who was shot by W. W. Baker, a highway patrolman, was taken to a Lubbock hospital.

Jimenez was shot while attempting to flee the club. Two men, Domingo Perez Sr., manager of the Claret Club, and his son, Domingo Perez Jr., were shot with a small caliber pistol.

Mrs. Johnson's Father Dies

Clovis C. Womack, 57, Ozona, father of Mrs. Bill Johnson, died Sunday in Ozona following an illness of four months.

Services have been set for 4 p.m. Tuesday at the First Baptist Church in Ozona.

Mr. Womack underwent throat surgery four months ago, but never fully recovered from it.

*Survivors include his widow, Mrs. C. C. Womack; two daughters, Mrs. John Aiguier, Lawton, Okla., and Mrs. Johnson.
