Work Crews Back On Rail Jobs

Work crew boards a switch engine at the Pennsylvania Railroad yard in Pittsburgh early today after a strike by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen against eight of the nation's railroads ended.

Fines Threat Lifted As Rail Strike Ends

WASHINGTON (AP)—Trains began to roll today at the end of a firemen's strike on eight railroads, and a federal judge lifted the threat of $510,000-a-day fines against the union and its leader.

At the suggestion of railroads, District Judge Alexander Holtzoff vacated an order calling on the union to show cause why the heavy penalty should not be levied.

HEAVY PRESSURE

In ending the four-day strike which partly paralyzed industry and commuter service and cost tens of millions of dollars, the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen acted under the threat of the fines for contempt of court, and under heavy pressure from President Johnson.

The union won nothing tangible, though its president, H. E. Gilbert, contended collective bargaining was vindicated and that the roads were pledged not to take reprisals against strikers, or other union men who refused to cross picket lines.

Pickets Go Down At Texas Stations

Pickets went down at railroad facilities across Texas soon after a strike of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen was called off.

Traffic of Missouri-Pacific passenger trains between Houston and New Orleans, La., was due to resume after the four-day strike. Freight trains manned by company officials have been moving during the strike.

In Dallas, a subsidiary of Missouri-Pacific, Texas & Pacific Railway, said six passenger trains had been idled, including the main one, the Texas Eagle. Six scheduled freights also were affected.

CREWS AT WORK

Crews were put to work as soon as the strike ended. The 38-state walkout idled ordered the union to show cause why it should not be fined $500,000 a day and its president, Gilbert, $10,000 a day. The judge acted to increase fines he had previously imposed of $25,000 a day against the union and $2,500 a day against Gilbert, effective at noon Sunday, unless the strikers had returned to work.

NEAR MIDNIGHT

The strike ended just before midnight Sunday. Francis Shea, speaking for the railroads to Judge Holtzoff today, said he was happy to inform the judge that the men are back at work and the railroads could see no reason to press the issue of an increase and "without any waiver of penalties accrued" moved to vacate the show cause order.

The order was vacated by Judge Holtzoff "without prejudice." What would be done about the smaller fines was not immediately stated.

Shea said that should there be any renewal of the strike—and he emphasized he had no reason to believe there would be—the railroads would be back in court.

It was then agreed that a hearing on extension of a temporary restraining order to enjoin the union from striking would be continued until April 27. At that time it will take the form of a hearing for a permanent injunction.

The April 27 hearings may revolve about a board of arbitration's award two years ago under which about 15,000 firemen's jobs were eliminated from diesel engines.

APPRENTICE PLAN

The union contends the railroads should discuss a formal apprentice program to train displaced firemen to be engineers. The railroads contend the union is trying to get firemen's jobs back in a "featherbedding" attempt.

In calling off the 38-state strike just before last midnight, Gilbert said:

"We have received assurances that the eight struck railroads will not make any reprisals against any employees."

The end of the strike came 12 hours after Johnson told Gilbert "the nation's interest and respect for our courts require your immediate compliance today with the district court order."

But the union credited Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz with helping wrap up no reprisal pledges from the final two railroads—the Central of Georgia and the Seaboard Air Line—finally ending the walkout. The firemen had refused to go back on any railroad until all eight made such pledges.

OTHER LINES

The other struck lines—in addition to the Illinois Central—were the Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Grand Trunk Western, Boston & Maine and the Pennsylvania Railroad west of Harrisburg, Pa.

YOUTH AWARD NOMINATION LIST GROWS

More nominations for the Hale-Herald Youth Achievement Award have come in. A new name in the list of entries is that of Mary Newton.

This is a program to recognize, in an impressive way, a boy or girl of junior or senior grade level in any of the county's three high schools, who has done outstanding work in religious, civic and community betterment fields.

The nomination ballot—which must be used—appears today on Page 4-A. Anyone can make a nomination, and promptness is urged, since this is the last week to receive them.

Twisters Hit Florida Cities, Killing Seven

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Tornadoes slashed through at least eight Florida cities today, killing seven persons, injuring dozens more and causing massive damage.

Two stricken counties were declared disaster areas by Gov. Haydon Burns and the National Guard was sent in to help search for survivors in dozens of smashed and twisted buildings.

The seven deaths were reported in Tampa, the state's second largest city with a population of 274,000, and officials indicated there might be more.

HUNDRED INJURED

At least 100 persons were injured in a widespread area. About 30 children were hospitalized at Lakeland, some 50 miles east of Tampa, after a twister ripped the roof from a junior high school shortly after the start of classes.

"We're so swamped in the emergency room we can't tell you exactly how many people are hurt," a spokesman for a Lakeland Hospital reported.

In St. Petersburg, just across the bay from Tampa, at least 40 homes in a fashionable residential area were heavily damaged and nine persons were injured, none seriously.

The twisters, spinning viciously out of a dark squall line, first struck at Tampa and St. Petersburg, on the Gulf Coast, then marched across the state through several smaller communities all the way to Melbourne, on the Atlantic Coast.

COUNTS 21

Paul Robinson, a newsman for St. Petersburg radio station WLCY, said he personally counted 21 persons injured in a seven-block area in Tampa.

"It's in rubble," Robinson said. "Telephone poles are snapped in the middle, windows out, roofs blown off. Weeping women are in the streets in nightgowns and sandals."

With the twisters came torrential rains that flooded parts of Tampa and St. Petersburg. Power was lost in most of the stricken cities.

Gov. Haydon Burns interrupted an election campaign sprint in south Florida to fly to Lakeland, which appeared to be the hardest hit community.

Also struck were Winter Haven and Auburndale, both about 35 miles east of Tampa; Clearwater, on the Gulf Coast northwest of Tampa; and Fort Pierce and Melbourne on the Atlantic Coast.

Clearwater, about 30 miles northwest of Tampa, apparently escaped with relatively minor damage. Windows were blown out, signs went down, a 20-foot boat on a trailer was hurled through a filling station window.

Six Seeking Three Commission Seats

Six candidates will contest for three seats on the Big Spring City Commission in Tuesday's city election. Three of the candidates are incumbent, and three others seek their jobs.

Only other contested city election will be at Ackery. Coahoma's city election is not contested.

"You never know what kind of turn-out there will be," C. L. McClenny, city secretary, said. "No absentee votes were cast, but that is no indication of the number of votes to expect."

Mayor George Zachariah is seeking his sixth term on the city commission; and commissioners Arnold Marshall and W. L. (Squeaky) Thompson are asking third terms.

Opposing them are Tony Taroni, Jimmy Morehead and Walter W. Stroup.

Zachariah is associated with Cosden Oil & Chemical Company as its purchasing manager, and is one of its senior employees. He has been mayor since he succeeded Dr. Lee Rogers in 1961.

Marshall is vice president in the H. W. Smith Transport Company, and Thompson is owner and operator of a furniture company bearing his name. Both have been active in community affairs.

Taroni, shipping foreman for the Sid Richardson Carbon plant, has been with the company since June, 1961.

Morehead, a resident here for 30 years, is vice president of Morehead Transfer and Storage Co.

Stroup, Southwestern Life Insurance Co. representative, is a native of Coahoma, and has lived in Big Spring since 1951, taking an active part in community activities.

Four voting boxes are slated for qualified voters who live in the city limits of Big Spring. Anyone who is a citizen, over 21 years old, a resident of Big Spring, and is either registered to vote or has purchased a state poll tax, is eligible to vote in Tuesday's city elections.

Voting places will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m., and are located at the main fire station at City Hall; the Eighteenth and Main fire station; the Birdwell Lane and Eleventh fire station; and the Northside Fire Station.

Three candidates, two of them incumbent, have filed for places on the city council at Coahoma. Charles R. Parrish is seeking the slot left open by Wendell Shive, who will not seek re-election Tuesday. Aldermen Ted Fowler and Bill Read are seeking re-election.

Mayor Ralph White has a year left before he must seek re-election, as do R. W. Miller and Dwayne Clawson, aldermen.

All voting by resident Coahomans will be at Coahoma City Hall, during the same hours as in Big Spring.

In Ackery, Mayor Travis Russell will not ask for another term. Two other places are open, alderman positions presently held by Jack Archer and O'Brien Bowlin. Archer will not run for another term, but Bowlin will attempt to succeed Mayor Russell, who has been appointed postmaster.

Candidates who have filed for the two aldermen's slots are Billy Massengill, T. L. Yngst and M. A. Gibson.

Voting will be at the Ackery High School building, from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m. Forsan held its city elections April 2, at the same time as the school board election.

Ky Regime Teeters In Grave Test

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—The U.S. Military Command tonight put Saigon's streets, bars and other public places off limits to off-duty American servicemen in an attempt to avert their involvement in the political crisis that has brought Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's regime to the verge of a military showdown with rebels in Da Nang.

The round-the-clock curfew went into effect at 5 p.m. It will confine Americans to their quarters except for official business in an effort to prevent incidents in this tension-packed capital that might affect U.S.-Vietnamese relations, a spokesman said.

GRAVEST TEST

Facing his gravest test in nine months as head of the ruling military junta, Ky mobilized planes and paratroopers to smash what he called a Communist-inspired state of insurrection in Da Nang against his U.S.-backed government.

As night fell on the capital, police and riot troops moved on 500 demonstrators near Saigon's main Buddhist institute. It was the third action of the day by government forces against student marchers.

In Hue, a Buddhist stronghold 40 miles north of Da Nang, 4,000 demonstrators staged an anti-government, anti-U.S. rally climaxed by an orderly march past the U.S. consulate.

HURLS DEFIANCE

The mayor of Da Nang, South Viet Nam's second largest city, hurled defiance at Ky, denouncing his charges and saying Da Nang's "people will stand up" to any attempt to seize the northern trouble spot.

There was no indication when Ky's airborne units would move north.

While the political threat held the attention of Ky and the ruling junta of generals, American fighting men bore the brunt of the war effort in four major ground sweeps against little resistance in the south and 72 air strikes—a near record—against North Viet Nam.

Riot police in Saigon broke up a threatened antigovernment, anti-American march by 200 students from the capital's main Buddhist institute.

FIRE STATIONS

A report from Dalat said demonstrators there set fire to the government radio stations, located in a hotel in the mountain resort.

Only 20 miles southwest of troubled Da Nang, U.S. Marines continued a sweep called Operation Orange but were under strict orders to avoid any involvement in the swirling political developments. B52s from Guam dropped tons of explosives on suspected enemy escape routes five miles ahead of the Marine thrust this morning.

Palm Sunday Rites Start Holy Week

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Christians began their annual observance of Holy Week Sunday as Jews by coincidence were preparing for their annual celebration of Passover, commencing tonight.

Pope Paul VI blessed palm branches in the Sistine Chapel and said Mass Sunday before 10,000 persons in St. Peter's Basilica. The Palm Sunday rites marked the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem five days before his Crucifixion.

The Pope distributed the palms to 21 cardinals, then put on a red cape and a bishop's miter for the procession through the basilica to the main altar for Mass.

"Today, as before," the pontiff said in a sermon, "the people are invited to Christ as between those who love Christ as the son of God and those who do not."

youths in the audience, he added: "You, what do you say? Your presence here is an answer. You have chosen Christ."

Emphasizing the importance of young persons in modern times, the Pope warned: "There is the danger that they will become superficial, that they will become skeptics, cynics who have no respect for any values and go through life like loafers and anarchists."

After the procession and Mass, which lasted two hours, the pontiff appeared at his apartment window to bless 20,000 persons standing in warm sunshine in St. Peter's Square.

Later Holy Week ceremonies in Christian churches will focus on the Holy Thursday observance of the Last Supper and on the mournful rites of Good Friday, recalling the Crucifixion. The theme of mourning will be succeeded next Sunday by Easter rejoicing.

Above Moon

Russia's Luna Orbiting Moon

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government told the Communist party congress today that Luna 10 has gone into orbit around the moon, marking a major step toward a manned landing.

The announced Soviet feat chalks up a key victory over the United States, which still has to match the soft moon landing achieved by the Soviet's Luna 9 on Feb. 3. The American lunar program is not scheduled to begin launching rockets to orbit the moon until late this year.

The announcement that Luna 10 had become the first artificial moon satellite was read before delegates to the 23rd party congress gathered in the Kremlin.

DRAWN APPLAUSE

The Russians dramatized the feat by playing a recording of the Internationale, the Communist anthem, which Luna 10 had broadcast. Delegates broke into enthusiastic applause as they heard the strains of the anthem. The broadcast of the anthem also was picked up Sunday by West Germany's Bochum Observatory.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said the moon satellite was equipped with scientific instruments for the exploration of near lunar outer space and that these were radioing data back to earth.

UNSEEN SIDE

The Russians achieved their first moon spectacular in September, 1959, when Luna 2 planted the Soviet flag on the moon. In October, 1959, Luna 3 made the first photographs of the unseen side of the moon, transmitting pictures of seas, oceans and craters never before seen by man.

After a number of unsuccessful attempts, the Russians made the first soft landing with Luna 9 last February and sent back the first closeup picture of the moon.

The Russian agency Tass released this drawing depicting space satellite Luna 10 above the moon. The government said today Luna 10, which was launched last Thursday, went into orbit around the moon Sunday. (AP WIREPHOTO)

House Takes Up Federal Pay Hike Bill

Timberland Fires Fought

BROKEN BOW, Okla. (AP)—Weary fire fighters chilled by northerly winds and frustrated by suspected arson, pressed their battle today against blazes which swept mountainous timberlands of Southeast Oklahoma.

In adjoining Southwest Arkansas, State Forester Fred Lang declared an emergency situation. He called in the National Guard to help fight fires in the rich commercial timberland of the Dierks and Camden areas.

Dierks Forestry Inc., reportedly was sustaining the heaviest losses in the Oklahoma fires. The fires scorched an estimated 19,000 acres Sunday and blackened an estimated 50,000 acres of Southeast Oklahoma over the past four days. Many small landholders also suffered heavy damage.

"It's dry and dangerous," said W. H. Mitchell, chief of the Oklahoma-Forestry Service fire fighting division, early today. "But we may be able to contain the biggest fire today... if the men hold out."

Some 250 men, including state rangers, foresters and lumbermen, battled through the weekend to contain the blazes which kept breaking out in new locations.

"There are bound to be people setting the fires," Mitchell said. "Whether they are intentional or not is something we don't know."

Justice Sees Big Thicket

LIBERTY, Tex. (AP)—U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas was to take a jeep tour today of East Texas' vast pine and hardwood forest known as the Big Thicket.

Douglas, 67, said he is gathering material for a new book, "The Wilderness of Texas," with a chapter about the forest.

He also was to visit the Alabama-Coushatta Indian Reservation near Livingston, where Chief Cooper Sylvestine planned to make him an honorary lifetime member of the tribes.

HOSTS DOUGLAS
Douglas, who has held his post on the nation's highest court for 26 years, was a guest Sunday of the Big Thicket Association, a group dedicated to preserving the forest as a national park or wilderness area.

Douglas told members of a reception here that the state is "unique in having wonderful recreation lands," adding that "lots needs to be done to set them aside."

EXTEND GREETING
Liberty Mayor Dempse Henley, president of the Big Thicket Association, and former Texas Gov. Price Daniel greeted the justice when he arrived Sunday. He later attended a barbecue supper and briefing on the forest at Mayor Henley's ranch in the Big Thicket.

Douglas will tour the Lufkin National Forest Tuesday.

Increase Noted In Counterfeiting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Improvements in photographic and printing technology have made it easier for "anyone with minimal skills" to manufacture counterfeit money, the Secret Service says.

David C. Acheson, special assistant to the secretary of the Treasury, told the House Appropriations Committee this in reporting "a noticeable increase" in counterfeiting. His testimony was released Sunday night.

McNamara Will Address Editors

NEW YORK (AP) — Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara will address the American Society of Newspaper Editors at its May meeting in Montreal, it was announced today.

Vernon R. Boyster, society president and editor of The Wall Street Journal, said McNamara would speak at a luncheon Wednesday, May 18.

day, but the House considers a bill to give federal civilian and postal employees a pay raise and fringe benefits of about 3.2 percent. After that, the House will take up a bill to sell or give to India surplus food, including 3.5 million tons of feed grains. Although the President already has authority to make the transaction, Congress was asked to reaffirm it.

PASSAGE ASSURED
The pay raise and food-for-India bills are certain of House passage, although an informal understanding forbidding roll-call votes until Wednesday may delay approval until then. Seventeen other bills, all of them relatively minor, are on today's House docket. Tuesday the House will tackle a bill appropriating $1.1 billion to finance the Interior Department for the fiscal year starting July 1. It will follow Wednesday with the annual Treasury and Post Office appropriation bills. The President has requested more than $7 billion for the department. RENEW BATTLE

The two appropriation measures may give budget-conscious advocates of cutting nondefense programs a chance to renew their battle. They failed last week to slash the $2.5-billion appropriation bill the House has sent to the Senate. The bill included funds to start the new rent subsidy and Teachers Corps programs. One major measure cleared Congress last week, providing that in 1967 daylight-saving time shall be uniform throughout the different time zones. For this year the bill requires only that any time change must begin April 24 and end Oct. 30.

2 ♣ Dble. ?

What do you bid now?

A—Two hearts. The partner does not figure to have much of a fit for your suit when he bids spades and diamonds, even a small doubtless or a singleton honor could make this the best contract since his hand should prove to be a good dummy for you. Furthermore, if he does not like hearts, you are prepared to hear him rebid spades.

Q. 3—Both sides vulnerable, and as South you hold:

♠ AQ83 ♥ K93 ♦ KJ9 ♣ J82

Your right hand opponent opens the bidding with one no trump. What do you bid?

A—Pass. You are not quite strong enough to make a take-out double, which, in this spot, shows the strength for a no trump opener. In fact, any action at this point would be most indiscreet and could lead to serious difficulties if West has the balance of the remaining high cards, a by no means remote prospect.

Q. 4—As South vulnerable you hold:

♠ A J8654 ♥ A Q8 ♣ A Q82

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ 3 ♠ ?

What do you bid now?

A—Four diamonds. Even with partner's modest response a slam is possible and East's overall serves both to encourage us [there is less likelihood of a duplication of values in diamonds now] and simplifies our rebid problem. If partner's side values are in clubs and hearts, he will now be in a position to place the proper value on them and act accordingly.

Q. 5—East-West vulnerable, your side has an 80 part score, and as South you hold:

♠ KQ73 ♥ Q104 ♦ A9 ♣ AK83

Your partner opens the bidding with one diamond. What is your response?

A—Three no trump. This hand is somewhat awkward to bid because of the part score situation. Partner is too apt to pass a mere change of suit response. The three no trump bid shows a balanced hand with 15-18 points in high cards and, when made under the circumstances of the advanced part score, would tend to indicate the maximum.

Q. 6—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠ 108 ♥ 10864 ♦ KJ7 ♣ K543

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 ♠ 1 NT Pass Pass

Dble. Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. By his reopening double, partner has indicated a hand well in excess of a minimum. Added to the seven points you have, this should spell a substantial set for the opponents.

Q. 7—As South you hold:

♠ A1085 ♥ AK ♦ J109 ♣ K963

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. Game prospects appear too dim to justify any further probing.

Q. 8—As South vulnerable, you hold:

♠ A843 ♥ AQJ ♦ 9764 ♣ 108

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

1 ♠ Pass Pass ?

What do you bid?

A—Double. The double is just about the only way to show a fairly good hand when the bidding is about to die out at a low level and should be employed here despite the weakness in clubs.

Show-Writer Death Breaks Up Top Team

NEW YORK (AP) — Russell Crouse always was in the theater on opening night to send telegrams on the progress of their show to his writing partner Howard Lindsay, at home.

The telegrams, filled with wit, often would come at 15-minute intervals to cheer up Lindsay, who feared watching the reaction of the first-night audience.

FAMED TEAM

The telegrams mostly brought word of a box-office success because Lindsay and Crouse were Broadway's most-famous show-writing team for 32 years.

Their partnership ended Sunday with the death of Crouse. He was 73. He died in St. Luke's Hospital of pneumonia and complications.

The one exception to Crouse's telegrams was "Life With Father," because Lindsay played the lead role of the father. Lindsay's wife, Dorothy Stickney, was the mother.

Lindsay was traveling in the South when told of his partner's death and made plans to return to the city.

LAST SHOW

The pair brought admiration and joy to millions of theatre-goers from the time they first united their writing talents in 1934 with "Anything Goes" until their last show, the 1959 hit musical "Sound of Music."

Lindsay and Crouse collaborated on 14 shows and seven of them could be classed solid hits. They won the Pulitzer Prize in 1946 for "State of the Union," but "Life With Father" must be considered their biggest success. It ran on Broadway for more than seven years.

Other top shows were "Red, Hot and Blue," in 1936, "Arsenic and Old Lace" in 1940, and "Call Me Madam" in 1950.

Crouse, a former newspaperman, was short and round-shouldered in comparison with the tall and erect Lindsay. Crouse, who wore a mustache and bore a facial resemblance to the late author Robert Benchley, typed the team's scripts on a battered old newspaper typewriter. Lindsay did the pacing while they kicked around story ideas.

WERE PERFECTIONISTS

Both men were perfectionists. They didn't begin to write until they had plotted out the action in every scene and acted out character parts until they knew them as well as they did their own families.

It often took them a year to write a play, but "Life With Father" was whipped out in 17 days from the book by Clarence Day.

When they reached their 25th year of collaboration with "Sound of Music" — they stayed together as a team after that, although no other shows were written — Crouse said: "We have been through hell and misery at times, but I can't think of anybody else's 25 years I'd trade it for."

WAS REPORTER

Born in Findlay, Ohio, Crouse was the son of a newspaper publisher. He spent several years as a reporter on newspapers in Cincinnati, Kansas City and New York. He was a press agent for the Theater Guild before becoming a playwright.

He is survived by his second wife, the former Anna Erskine, and two children, a daughter, Lindsay Ann, and a son, Timothy.

Dixie Negroes Camping Out In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP)—Homeless and jobless Mississippi Negroes camped today in four tents in a park across the street from the White House to dramatize their plea for $1.3 million in anti-poverty funds.

"We're going to keep this up until we receive some assurance from the President that we don't have to spend another winter in our tents in Mississippi," said Frank Smith, the group's leader.

FUNDS PLEA

The 90 Negroes — residents of tent cities near Greenville and Greenwood — took turns squatting and sleeping in the tents. Mostly ex-farmhands and plantation workers, they had come to Washington Thursday in hopes of speeding up requests for funds for do-it-yourself job training and home construction projects.

Sunday they turned a march and prayer vigil into a tent-in-alongside four petunia beds on the neatly trimmed grass of Lafayette Park, a square that has become a traditional gathering place for White House protest marches and pickets.

"After the march, the people just wanted to stay here," Smith said.

"We put up the tents," he said in an interview inside a tent, "because we want to present our case for the fund requests we have before OEO (the Office of Economic Opportunity). We're dissatisfied with the response we get from them."

Smith said he had sent a telegram to the President Sunday outlining content.

TO PRESIDENT

As Smith spoke, five sleeping youngsters squirmed and wriggled inside sleeping bags. Outside, roughly dressed men talked. Behind them gleamed the Washington Monument.

"Hope we won't be here too long," Smith said. "We want to go home and start building homes." He said the tents were rented for four days — for $65 — from a Washington firm.

"We got to have a home," said camper John H. Sylvester, who appears older than his 43. "We're tired of living in tents."

Sylvester said he went on strike last year on a plantation where he was earning $5 a day. His wife earned $3 daily. Their three children were asleep in one of the tents, he said.

PLEAD CASE

Thursday the campers described their living conditions and pleaded their case for anti-poverty funds before the House Committee on Education and Labor, headed by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y. Powell arranged a meeting with OEO officials and promised to "put pressure on the executive branch."

But an OEO spokesman said Sunday the group, which had offered three proposals for anti-poverty grants, had little chance of getting the money because of inadequate mortgage arrangements and the lack of available property on which to build homes.

U.S. Park police kept a close watch on the campers but made no arrests. "It's technically illegal," said Lt. R. R. Kerzowy, "but rather than having it explode we'll let them stay where they are."

Beaumont Voters OK Bond Issue

BEAUMONT (AP) — A $5 million bond issue to pay for three new school buildings and for work on nine existing buildings was approved Saturday by voters in the South Park School District of Beaumont.

The vote was 1,856 to 1,827.

How You May Never Take a Laxative Again!

New Miracle Regulator Keeps You Soft—So Bowels Move Naturally

New York, N.Y. (Special)—After 12 years' research, scientists have discovered a wonder-working substance that corrects constipation entirely without laxatives!

Doctors say most constipation occurs when waste loses moisture in the colon—becomes dry, hard, difficult to move. To give relief, laxatives have to force action by flushing, irritating or distending the intestine.

The new miracle substance—known medically as dicycl sodium sulfonacetate—works in a completely different way. It is not a laxative! It simply makes natural moisture in the colon moisten and softer dry, hard waste more effectively. Then normal elimination follows naturally. Thus by working only on waste, not on you, the substance corrects constipation and restores regularity as no laxative can.

This new discovery has now been made available at drugstores under the name REGULATOR. It is safe — not habit-forming. No warning on the label—no prescription needed. Try REGULATOR—discover for yourself that you may never need to take a laxative again!

Less Invested In Surpluses

WASHINGTON (AP) — Government investment in farm surpluses is running nearly three-quarters of a billion dollars less than a year ago. Increased demands for grains abroad is largely responsible.

Total investment was $6,681,238,000 on Feb. 28, compared with $7,417,323,000 a year earlier.

er. Several years ago, the investment approached the $10 billion mark.

The Agriculture Department lost slightly over $2 billion in price support and income support operations during the eight months ending Feb. 28, compared with a loss of $1,971,600,000 in the same period last year. These losses involve costs of storing government held commodities, sale for less than cost under price support operations, and payments to farmers who reduced last year's acreages of wheat and feed grains to help cut surpluses.

Russian Must Be Scrounger

MOSCOW (AP)—Now it's official—the only way to get anything in the Soviet Union is to scrounge for it. And one of the best places to scrounge is in the corridors of a Communist party congress.

Nobel Prize author Mikhail Sholokhov told delegates to the 23rd congress last week that he himself had become an expert scrounger for everything from cowshed roofs to new schools.

Right at this congress, Sholokhov said amid laughter and applause, the delegates are spending as much time as they can lobbying.

"During the breaks," he said, "you go about hawk-eyed in the corridors seeking out ministers and thinking: 'What could I get out of him?'"

Everyone has known for years that you had to know somebody to get something in this country, but this was the highest public acknowledgement of it.

U. S. Pushing Nuclear Guard

GENEVA (AP) — The United States announced today a new system of detecting underground explosions which it said would make it almost impossible for a nuclear power to deceive on-site inspectors.

The announcement seemed to offer no promise of progress toward an agreement to ban underground nuclear tests, however, unless the Soviet Union modifies its opposition to inspections.

Chief U.S. Delegate Adrian Fisher told the 17-nation disarmament conference the new system is based on the detection of gases produced by nuclear fission which leak slowly toward the surface after an underground nuclear explosion.

He said that even if all surface traces of an underground explosion had been removed, sensitive detectors could still pick up traces of the telltale gases.

Fisher rejected Soviet claims that an underground test ban treaty could be supervised without on-site inspections. He said that the United States, even with a seismic system "more sensitive than any which has previously existed," still cannot tell whether some 45 underground disturbances a year in the Soviet Union are earth tremors or underground nuclear explosions.

Three Join Police Force

A new police secretary began work today, according to Jay Banks, police chief. Two new patrolmen went to work April 1, Banks added.

The addition of the new secretary was felt necessary in order to give detectives and officers more time to devote to jobs, rather than doing paperwork in addition to their regular duties, Banks said. The move was okayed by city commissioners during formation of the new city budget.

Mrs. Paul Scott, the new secretary, is a native of Loraine, where she graduated from high school. She is a former employe of the Colorado City Record. Mrs. Scott and her husband, who is with Dean Claims Service here, have been in Big Spring two years. They have one child, Suzanne, 8 months old. The Scotts reside at 3310 Auburn.

Jimmy Roy Lockhart, 23, is a native of Big Spring, and was a reserve officer before signing on with the local force as a regular. He was a full-time fireman before the new job. He is a graduate of Borden High School, and attended Howard County Junior College. He lives at 8 January Circle.

Bobby Williams, 21, is a native of Big Spring, and was also a fireman before becoming a police officer April 1. He and his wife, Beatrice, and their child live at 109 Algerita. Williams is a graduate of Coahoma High School.

Grandpa Helps Out The Stork

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — Robert L. Akins delivered the baby which made him a grandfather Sunday.

Akins, 43, was called on to play midwife at his home in the predawn hours when his daughter's baby began to arrive before the ambulance.

The 6 pound, 6 ounce baby girl was promptly named Traci Dawn.

The new parents, Bill Tucker, 22, and his wife, Deborah, 18, had spent the night at the Akins home while Bill attended an Army reserve drill.

East Texas University Fights Ph.D Plan Loss

AUSTIN (AP) — School officials told the State College Coordinating Board today that East Texas State University at Commerce serves an expanding Northeast Texas area and should not be stripped of its 4-year-old doctoral degree program.

Dr. James Gee, president, and Cullen Sowers, graduate school dean, testified before the board on its proposal to restrict doctoral programs to six state colleges and universities.

Sowers told the board that the Texas Commission on Higher Education, which the board replaced last year, recognized a need for Ph.D. programs at East Texas and granted authority to conduct such programs in 1962.

The board recently proposed to limit doctoral programs to the University of Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Tech, University of Houston, and a joint endeavor by Texas Woman's University and North Texas State University, both at Denton.

In Big Show Tonight
Capt. Fred Logan and his cage of jungle lions will be a feature of the Al G. Kelly and Miller Brothers Circus in big shows at 8 p.m. today at the Big Spring Fairgrounds.

Circus Is Here For Performances

Wild animal trainer Capt. Fred Logan will appear with the Al G. Kelly and Miller Brothers Circus tonight at the Big Spring Fairgrounds in the final show at 8 p.m. An afternoon performance began at 4 p.m.

The Optimist Club is sponsoring the big-top show. Logan both performs in his own lion act and supervises the leopard and panther act worked by Empress Leota. He has evolved his own original training techniques with the cats and has become virtually a wild animal psychologist.

Other features of the circus include the Estrada Troupe from Portugal, acrobatic stars; the Gibsons, tight wire artists; the Riding Loyals, bareback riders; and Empress Leota, trainer of leopards, wolves and panthers. Over 100 people and countless animals will perform underneath the huge canvas tent in the three rings, two stages, mammoth hippodrome track and in the giant steel arena.

About 200 patients from the Big Spring State Hospital attended the 4 p.m. circus show due to the Optimist Club and several individuals in Big Spring, according to Mrs. Ennis Cochran, volunteer director at the hospital.

Mrs. Cochran said that 200 tickets were purchased by the Optimist Club and several individuals for the patients to attend one of the shows. Transportation was furnished by the State Hospital bus and the Howard County Junior College bus.

C-C Member Drive Slated

Chamber of Commerce directors and the Ambassadors Club meet at 5:15 p.m. today to prepare for the big membership invitation push on Wednesday.

The Ambassadors, official greeters for the chamber and who serve as the normal membership recruiters, have challenged the directors to see who can enlist the most members during National Chamber of Commerce Week.

A goal of 150 additions to the chamber rolls has been set. Scores upon scores of potential members have been sent letters inviting them to share in the community instrument for attacking community problems, and other mailings will follow during the week, said John Currie, president.

There will be a kick-off breakfast Wednesday, and the objective is to make as many of the contacts that day as possible. An enlarged chamber operation is essential to carry on the kind of program that will get results for the city and area, said Currie.

Troop 299 To Meet Tonight

Troop 299, sponsored by the First Church of God, Twenty-first and Main, will hold its first meeting tonight at 7 o'clock, according to the Rev. V. Ward Jackson, pastor of the church.

Leaders of the re-activated troop are Lt. James R. Hensley, scoutmaster, and Sgt. Bennie C. Weaver, assistant scoutmaster. Both are from Webb Air Force Base.

Boys 11 years old and older living in the College Heights school area are invited to join the troop.

Jordan Buys U.S. Warplanes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States announced Saturday sale of late-model U.S. jet warplanes to Jordan for her air defense.

As usual in issuing such announcements, the State Department refused to list the size of the order or the number or type of planes involved.

New Academy Classes Launched

The class will continue through April 29, Banks indicated, with three instructors from Texas A&M University as well as a number of other special instructors.

The class numbers 12, Banks said, with five from the Big Spring police department, four from the San Angelo force, one from Sweetwater and two from Snyder.

Instruction will range from mob and riot control through courtroom demeanor and facilities of the DPS Crime Lab and Modus Operandi.

Plugging For Tax Credit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans plugged Saturday for a tax credit for businesses training workers and prospective employes for more than two million skilled jobs they said are open.

"The Republican Policy Coordinating Committee said in a task force report the nation is facing a manpower shortage despite continuing unemployment. It urged action on legislation to provide a tax credit to stimulate job training.

"We are well into a serious skilled labor shortage," the report said, "But the Democratic administration continues to talk of unemployment statistics and is failing to give adequate thought to the problem of matching men to the right jobs."

Most economists agree, the committee said, that the total number of job openings around the country is over two million, possibly as high as three million. It said an existing shortage of skilled workers "has created many problems, including impairment of logistic support for American servicemen in Viet Nam."

"Unskilled workers today have an unemployment rate twice as high as the over-all national rate," the report said. "In most cases, the unskilled lack only the training necessary to permit them to move into existing vacancies."

The committee said a tax credit offers a solution to the problem "designed to reduce to a minimum the burdens of red tape, bureaucracy and governmental intrusion into the affairs of business and labor."

'Risk' List Quadruples

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Secret Service's list of persons it classifies as "somewhat high risks to the security of the President" has more than quadrupled since the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

David C. Acheson, special assistant to the secretary of the treasury, told the House Appropriations Committee the list now contains 1,800 names, compared with about 400 at the time of Kennedy's death. His testimony was released by the committee Sunday night.

Board Okays Changes In Job Rehabilitation

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Board of Education approved today changes in the state's plan for vocational rehabilitation. The program was expanded to determine why so many young men have been rejected by the draft for medical reasons.

In a weekend meeting, the board also increased aid to school districts for a vocational school fund revenues. The funds for the 1965-66 school year were raised from $30.65 to $83 per school-age child.

One of the major changes in the rehabilitation plan was dropping the age factor as a criteria for determining eligibility for rehabilitation services. Under the old plan, a person had to be at least 16 to receive the services.

The new plan also permits applicants who are refused rehabilitation help to appeal to the state agency administering the program and removes "economic need" as a test for determining who is eligible for diagnostic, counseling, placement services, and tuition for training.

Postal Contract Station No. 5 Opens

Weldon Bryant, assistant postmaster, Mrs. Ruby Reeves, and Postmaster Frank Hardesty officially put Substation No. 5 in operation here. Mrs. Reeves is to be the clerk in charge. The station is located in Kwikie Grocery No. 3 at 1593 E. Marcy. The operators offered the station in a competitive bidding held in March.

First Lady Ends Visit In Big Bend

PANTHER JUNCTION, Tex. (AP) — Sunbathed from a Rio Grande raft ride, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson ended a weekend in the Big Bend country today expressing delight at its spectacular wilderness grandeur.

The President's wife went Western in blue jeans, checked shirts and sneakers amid the rugged peaks of the Chisos (ghost) Mountains on the Texas-Mexican border.

IS INTRIGUED
Everything from the dramatic lighting effects to the tenacity of life here — "things growing in a cupful of soil" — intrigued her.

Though she brought along a press party of 70, Mrs. Johnson was struck mainly by the vast solitude and how quickly "you are able to get this completely out into the wilderness."

Big Bend National Park was rugged and colorful fun. The 53-year-old First Lady took in gay stride a mile and a half hike up Lost Mine Trail. She sang along at a moonlight campfire and listened to the tales of the Old West.

DUST STORM
She was unperturbed by a sudden dust storm that climaxed a riverside steak fry. She even helped paddle and dangled her feet in the cold float trip in a big yellow life raft through Mariscal Canyon, with its towering limestone cliffs, 1,500 feet high.

The Palm Sunday raft ride was the highlight of the visit. It took up most of the day — after a flapjack outdoor breakfast and a 5-minute special Palm Sunday church service conducted by the park chaplain, just for the White House travelers.

The First Lady led a flotilla of 24 rafts on a 3 1/2 hour ride, skirting rocks, splashing rapids and maneuvering tricky turns.

WESTBROOK ELECTS THREE TO BOARD
WESTBROOK (SC) — J. T. Christon, E. A. (Sam) Oden, and Rex McKenney were elected to serve on the school board in Saturday's election. Christon received 56 votes, incumbent Oden 50, and incumbent McKenney 45.

Two others on the ballot were Don Henderson, who received 34 and C. E. Rich 32. A total of 76 votes were cast. Incumbent Troy Lanford did not seek re-election. Holdovers are Leroy Miller, Clyde Chambers, Willie Bell and Floyd Ritchey.

Two Elected To Hi-Y Posts

Two girls from the Big Spring YMCA were elected to district Hi-Y offices at the West Texas District Hi-Y Conference at San Angelo Saturday.

Julia Vaughn was elected secretary-treasurer and Kay Statter was elected chaplain, rounding out the slate of officers. Peggy Patterson, San Angelo, was elected president, and other officers include Kathryn Baker, San Angelo, first vice president, and Judy Buescher, Abilene, second vice president.

Dr. Richard Crews, First Christian Church, San Angelo, was the featured speaker. Theme for the conference was "A Time for Action."

Jurors Are Not Needed

Jurors who had been notified to report to 11th District Court at 1:30 p.m. Monday were advised by telephone Monday morning their services would not be needed this week.

Judge Ralph Cato, who called a civil docket at 10 a.m., found none of the cases he had set for trial ready to be heard.

Some had been dismissed and some settled. The bulk had to be passed, because the defendant or plaintiff or both were not ready for trial.

As a result, Judge Cato had District Court Clerk Fern Cox telephone the members of the jury panel and instruct them not to report.

Carriers Report Daily Loss At $5 Million In Rail Strike

CHICAGO (AP) — The four-day strike against eight major railroads put more than 200,000 persons out of work or on part-time duty in 38 states, the carriers report they lost an estimated $5 million daily and the striking firemen lost $320,000 a day in wages.

The strike by about 8,000 members of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers began Thursday, delaying mail and stalling food and agricultural shipments in rail yards and sidings. It affected industry, transportation and work and shipment of freight before being called off Sunday night.

HARDEST HIT

The auto industry was the hardest hit, but the strike ended before the worst came.

The Union Pacific Railroad, one of the struck carriers, estimated that 29,000 employees over its system were idled with loss of wages running at $744,000 a day and loss of $1.5 million a day in revenue.

In Chicago, the Illinois Central said it would have commuter trains running for its 32,500 passengers on schedule today and that its operations should be in full swing by noon.

The IC had its first commuter train moving less than two hours after the agreement was signed. The IC's 6,500 miles of track runs through more than 1,500 communities in 14 states.

The Pennsylvania Railroad said pickets were withdrawn from the Penn Station in Pittsburgh late Sunday night and that freight schedules would be returned to normal by tonight. A spokesman said the first passenger train would move out by afternoon.

PICKETS LEAVE

A Grand Trunk Western spokesman said all pickets went off at midnight, but that it would take a full week to get back to normal. He said commuter service from Chicago to Detroit would begin Tuesday.

The Grand Trunk estimates its daily loss at $200,000. Not a train moved in four states served by the road.

The Seaboard Air Line said it hoped to be in full operation by the end of the day. The railroad suspended all passenger service for the duration of the strike, but about 20 freights continued to operate Sunday over the 4,100-mile system.

Seaboard said the strike cost it an estimated $500,000 a day as it was struck by 300 firemen.

PLANNED LAYOFFS

After agreement was reached in St. Louis Sunday night, the Missouri Pacific called for immediate removal of pickets and said it should be in full operation by midmorning.

The strike jammed up industry and many companies were preparing massive layoffs and closings today if the strike continued.

Eastern Idaho potato spokesmen say they were hard hit by the strike and that plants in Idaho and Utah were planning to lay off employees. A Pocatello plant planned to lay off all its 450 employees if no settlement had been reached by today.

Some 1,400 railroad workers were affected in the Los Angeles area. Freight was piled up in many places, except in East

Los Angeles where supervisory personnel kept it moving.

In the South, the poultry industry was hard hit by the shutdown. The Missouri Pacific has 4,700 employees in Arkansas, with more than 2,000 of them in the Little Rock area.

The Boston & Maine Railroad, another of the struck carriers, sat silently for four days. The yards were jammed with cars. The Maine Central Railroad, which shares South Portland's Rigby Yards, stopped operating when its employees honored picket lines. The Maine Central said it lost $65,000 a day on a strike in which it wasn't involved.

The automobile industry opened all of its factories on schedule, after a weekend of juggling supplies between its plants.

Thousands of auto workers had been laid off or put on short shifts because the strike cut off shipments. An estimated 60,300 General Motors workers at 17 plants in Michigan, Missouri, Ohio and Kansas were affected in some way.

PRODUCTION LOSS

The strike caused a production loss of 20,000 units at GM.

The strike affected in varying degrees from 100 to 150 industries in Kansas City. The Kansas City postmaster planned to divert mail onto trucks and airplanes and said that mail was being delayed.

The postmaster said about three million Social Security checks arrived in Kansas City about this time of the month for distribution.

Indonesia Plans To Return To U.N.

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP) — Foreign Minister Adam Malik said today the new Indonesian government will return to the United Nations and seek to improve relations with the United States. The apparent object is aid for the foundering economy.

Malik told a news conference that Indonesia's return to the United Nations would "depend on many questions." He did not elaborate.

President Sukarno defiantly announced Jan. 7, 1965, that Indonesia was walking out of the world organization because Malaysia — which Sukarno has vowed to crush — had been elected to the Security Council.

tions with the United States have not always been good, but the government would do its best to improve them soon. "We will overcome difficulties existing now," he added.

The foreign minister said there would be no change in the country's attitude toward Red China, but added: "If Peking is not satisfied with our new policy, it is, of course, not our business."

He said Indonesia would continue its undeclared war with Malaysia but would "always be open for peaceful settlement." Malik told newsmen Sunday Indonesia would reduce its military confrontation with Malaysia once peace talks began.

Easter Show Offers Charm

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV • Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The Easter show of the Radio City Music Hall is a spring institution which each year wraps long waiting lines around the nearby office buildings.

NBC had the happy idea of bringing the show on the great stage into our living rooms. It came Sunday night, with an extra attraction in Mary Martin. The extravaganza in sparkling fresh color was as welcome as the first daffodil.

SPECIAL CHARM

Miss Martin, radiating her own special charm, served as hostess and singing star — and even did a little dancing. One longish number set in a lovely flower market was devoted entirely to songs about spring, April and rain.

Without derogating Miss Martin's talents, the real stars of the hour were those famous Rockettes, the long, long line of look-alike girls whose precision dancing, especially the kicking, is a tourist sight that competes with the view from the Empire State Building.

There was a short dog act and Miss Martin and Paul Hartman did a comedy number. But the hour was primarily a series of lavish production numbers with huge sets, much music, lots of people and lovely color. If it had a fault it was that the show itself was a bit too big for the small home screens.

An hour earlier NBC presented an illuminating — and discouraging — picture report on conditions in the Congo less than six years after its independence.

Sanders' Confidence Makes Him The Choice

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — Confidence that is growing with his string of successes, plus an excellent putter, have made Doug Sanders the choice of at least one highly qualified expert to win the Masters Golf Tournament.

"He is going good and has confidence," said Al Besselin, named Sanders as the man most likely to succeed in the Masters, opening Thursday in Augusta, Ga.

Sanders racked up his second straight tournament victory and third of the season Sunday when he dropped in a five-foot putt and beat Tom Weiskopf on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff for the title in the Greater Greensboro Open.

Sanders, 32, from Ojai, Calif., said it would take confidence, stamina and a strong game to win the Masters.

"Needless to say, I have the confidence," he added after picking up his $20,000 check. The triumph followed his victory at Jacksonville, Fla. Earlier this season he won the Bob Hope tourney.

Arnold Palmer's concern was with his game. Arnie closed with a 69, but finished well back at 279.

"I think my game could be good, but it's not right now," Palmer said. "I'm not confident enough with the putter and my wedge play is so bad I don't like to take it out of my bag. I'm going to do a lot of work in the next three days."

Sanders and Weiskopf, 23, of Bedford, Ohio, shot one-under par 70s to finish in a tie with a 72-hole total of 276, eight under par.

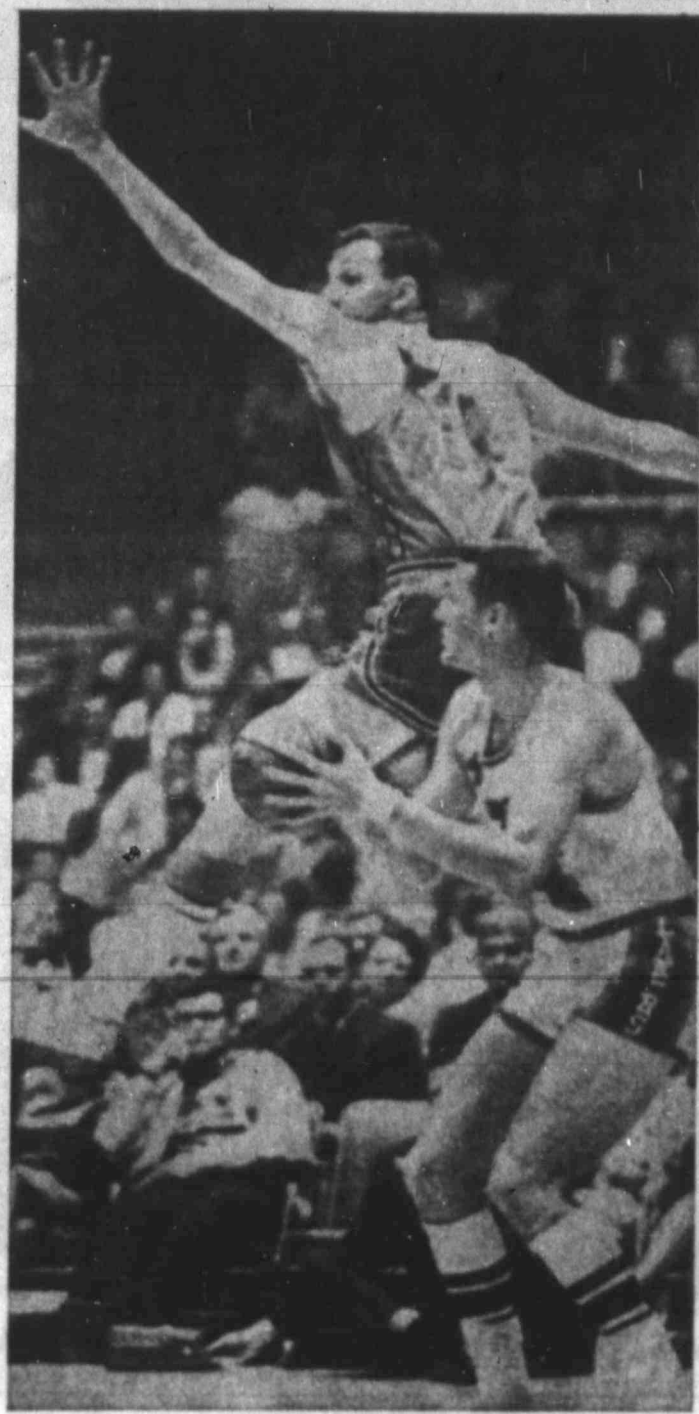

Each parred the 15th, where the playoff began. On the par three 225-yard 16th, Weiskopf missed the green, chipped up short and missed his putt. Sanders trapped his shot, blasted out and sank it for a par.

Weiskopf picked up $12,000, his biggest check since turning pro in 1964. The total purse was $100,000.

Miller Barber and Dave Reagan tied for third with 277 and won $6,250 each. Barber finished with a six-under par 65, the day's lowest round. He had seven birdies and one bogey. Reagan closed with a 70.

PGA champion Dave Marr, who had a 68, was fourth with 278 and won $4,300.

R. H. Sikles, third round leader, slumped to a 74 and tied Arnold Palmer and Al Geiberger at 279. Defending champion Sam Snead had a 72-hole total of 285. Snead has won the tournament eight times.

Celtics Trounce 76ers, 115-96

The Boston Celtics, striving to regain lost prestige, and the Los Angeles Lakers, seeking a never attained honor, held the upper hand in the drive for final berths in the National Basketball Association playoffs.

Boston, dethroned by the Philadelphia 76ers as Eastern Division regular season king for the first time in 10 years, opened the best-of-seven Eastern final series with a 115-96 trouncing of the 76ers at Philadelphia Sunday.

The Lakers, never a playoff champion since moving from Minneapolis, put themselves in a commanding 2-0 lead in the Western final by defeating the St. Louis Hawks 125-116.

Boston, who had to come from behind to win a best-of-five semifinal with Cincinnati, has things much its own way against the 76ers who showed signs of stalemation. It was Philadelphia's first game since the regular season ended.

Aggies Hold First Place

With Texas A&M in first place and Texas Christian in a virtual tie for second, the Southwest Conference baseball race takes out this week for 13 nonconference games, five of them inter-sectional.

The league is well ahead along the inter-sectional front, with 10 victories against only three losses.

Texas Christian plays Loyola a two-game series at Fort Worth Tuesday and Wednesday. Texas meets Kansas at San Antonio Wednesday and hosts North Dakota Thursday. Southern Methodist tackles Loyola at Dallas Thursday.

No Lawsuit After This Confrontation

By The Associated Press
The last time they tangled, Juan Marichal handled the bat and John Roseboro did the catching. This time Roseboro swung on Marichal.

And there wasn't even a lawsuit afterwards.

Roseboro walloped a three-run inside-the-park homer Sunday in his first confrontation with Marichal since the bat-swinging incident last August that left the Los Angeles catcher with a cut scalp and the San Francisco pitcher with a $1,750 fine and an eight-day suspension.

Roseboro's shot helped the Dodgers to an 8-4 victory over the Giants that was overshadowed by the meeting between him and Marichal.

"He said nothing to me and I said nothing to him," Roseboro said later. "I knew there would be no trouble. The only thing I was worried about was that he would make some kind of overture. If he had, I would have had to turn him down."

San Francisco General Manager Chub Feeney said he had approached Dodger General Manager Buzzy Bavasi before the game with an offer from Marichal to shake with Roseboro. The Dodger catcher declined.

Roseboro said his $10,000 lawsuit against Marichal and the Giants is still pending. "He has kept his distance," Roseboro said, "and that's the way I want it."

There were two men on in the second inning when Roseboro laced a 2-2 Marichal pitch past Giant right fielder Jesus Alou and circled the bases for his home run. He fled out the next time he faced the Giant hurler.

Elsewhere Sunday, Atlanta shaded Cincinnati 2-1 in 11 innings, the Chicago White Sox shut out Houston 6-0, Kansas City walloped the New York Mets 10-2, the New York Yankees whipped Philadelphia 8-3, Washington whacked Pittsburgh 12-3, Minnesota nipped St. Louis 2-1, the Chicago Cubs edged California 9-7 and Boston defeated Detroit 6-4.

Cleveland downed Portland of the Pacific Coast League 9-7 and Baltimore took Miami of the Florida State League 5-5 in other games.

Atlanta snapped a four-game losing streak when Lee Thomas drew a bases-loaded walk in the 11th inning against the Reds. Loser Jack Baldschun had intentionally walked Hank Aaron after yielding singles to Felipe Alou and Ed Mathews. Then Thomas walked, forcing Alou across the plate.

John Buzhardt and Eddie Fisher combined for the White Sox' three-hit shutout of the Astros.

Tommie Agee's two-run double highlighted Chicago's four-run seventh inning.

Oilers Sweep Doubleheader

Gage Oilers maintained a perfect record Sunday by sweeping both ends of a double bill with Webb AFB, 14-9 and 8-5. The same teams opened the season Saturday with Gage taking a 10-5 victory.

Although out in the first round 14-16, Gage crammed five runs across in a big fourth inning to ice the decision. Webb threatened in the ninth, with three runs on Wobber's double and a pair of singles. However, Danny Valdes struck out Duncan to get the victory. Duncan was the losing pitcher.

In the second game, Jim Baum's homer, which was the only other extra-base hit for the day, brought in two runs and sparked another 5-run inning. Webb again rallied for three runs in the last inning but this was not enough.

The initial game was loosely played. Charles Burdette started for the Oilers but gave way to Valdes in the fifth. In the second game, Freddie Mears went four innings, with Ken Griffin coming on in relief. When he yielded 3 hits, Hank Pope appeared to put out the fire. Mears was the winning pitcher. Three double plays New, McMahon and Finkenbinder accounting for two and R. Treadaway, McMahon and Finkenbinder the other.

Steers Have Shot At First Place

Boasting a heady 2-0 record, the Big Spring Steers have a chance to prove the district surprise by upsetting Cooper and Odessa Permian this week.

Both of these teams are 2-0 also. The Steers go to Abilene Tuesday, then they swing back to Odessa on Saturday. Obviously, a double victory would leave the Steers sniffing the ozone of first place. Roy Baird's charges looked good in the first two outings and seem to have regained their hitting confidence.

Bearcats Look For Grid Game

BALLINGER — The Ballinger Bearcats are searching for a Sept. 23 home football game. Coach Weldon Brevard said he would be willing to play any team in Class AAA, Class AA or Class A.

HARD TO BEAT

Twins Have Power, Speed And Plenty Good Pitching

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Sam Mele will settle for a repeat of 1965 when his Minnesota Twins won the pennant by seven games with a team that included the American League's pitcher of the year, most valuable player and batting champion. Only this time, Sam would like to win the World Series too.

"I don't see why we can't win it again," said the manager of the Twins. "I honestly think we can. The fellows liked the idea of being on a winner. The pennant gave them all more confidence."

"We know they all will be shooting at us. Baltimore looks tough and so do Detroit and Chicago. The Yankees will cause trouble if they are healthy. You never can count them out."

standing around, waiting for somebody to knock the ball out of the park, they pulled the hit and run and stole 92 bases. The Twins expect to do even more running this season.

Second base still is the question mark in the line-up. Mele has been using Bernie Allen, Jerry Kindall and Frank Quilici at the position on an alternating basis.

The rest of the infield is set with Don Mincher at first, Zoilo Versalles, the MVP, at short and Killebrew at third base. A year ago Killebrew was the first baseman. "Harmon came to me when we went to Detroit on our second trip last summer," said Mele. "Dave Wickersham was due to pitch for the Tigers and he figured I'd like to get Mincher in the line-up. Killebrew volunteered to play third base. When Mincher dropped off a little, I used Killebrew at first and Rich Rollins at third. That move by Killebrew was a big factor in our winning the pennant."

might do even better than his .323 and .321 averages the last two years. Jimmie Hall will play center, possibly platooning with Cesar Tover against left-handed pitching. Bob Allison is the incumbent in left but his .233 average last year left him open to challenges from Andy Kosco, rookie Ted Uhlaender and Sandy Valdespino.

Catcher Earl Battey reported heavy and has arm trouble but has come around. He will be backed up by Gerry Zimmerman. Mudcat Grant's long holdout campaign apparently didn't handicap him. Camillo Pascual, knocked out of action last year by muscular trouble, appears to be his old self.

Jim Kaat pulled a muscle in his back during the training season and may not be ready to carry a heavy load in the early weeks. Until Kaat is ready, Jim Perry and Boswell will team with Grant and Pascual as the four starters. This is a solid ball club with good power and speed, a leaky defense and pretty good pitching. It figures to be hard to beat.

Pearson Captures 9th Hickory Race

HICKORY, N.C. (AP) — David Pearson, driving his year-old hemi-powered Dodge which it handles best — on the short red clay tracks — won a duel with Curtis Turner Sunday and captured the ninth annual Hickory 250-lap stock car race.

The Spartanburg, S.C., driver nosed out Turner, of Charlotte, by a mere four seconds at an average of 68.425 miles per hour to pick up the $1,000 winner's purse.

Pearson, the NASCAR circuit point leader, grabbed the lead from Turner on the 199th lap and held on for his first NASCAR Grand National victory of the year in the 100-mile race.

Turner drove a Ford Fairlane in that model's racing debut. Ford had been racing with the Galaxie model.

Bobby Isaac of nearby Catawba and Ned Jarrett of Camden, S.C., both of whom got their start in racing on the four-tenths of a mile track, finished third and fourth, respectively. Both trailed Pearson by two laps.

Richard Petty, driving a 1966 Plymouth, led for six laps before being forced out temporarily with engine trouble on the 189th lap. By the time his car was repaired, he had lost 14 laps, and finished ninth.

Reagan Is On Target

Horace Reagan emerged as winner of the matches Sunday afternoon at the Mesquite Gun Club near Vincent.

The match consisted of five 5-shot groups with the total distance averaged. Small bore rifles with a 10 1/2-pound weight and 6-power scope limit were used.

Reagan's score was 478, followed by Charles Boadle with 475 and W. E. Davidson 462. Best group of the day was fired by Boadle with a .232. All patterns were fired at 100 yards.

The next match will be for big bore of .377 calibre or more, and the date is April 17. New officers of the Mesquite Gun Club are: Dealon Stanley, president; Ben Kelly, vice president; Jimmy Medford, secretary-treasurer; Jimmy Felts, reporter.

Sanders Entered In Dallas Open

DALLAS (AP) — There now are 10 official entries in the Dallas Open Golf tournament scheduled April 21-24 at the Oak Cliff Country Club.

Among them are the three heaviest winners of the past 10 months—Doug Sanders, Gay Brewer and Tony Lema.

Sanders, who has won three tournaments, including the Greensboro, N.C. Open Sunday, is among the 38 players who signed over the weekend.

Lema, who owns two titles and who won more than $100,000 last year, also is among the latest signers.

Brewer came in with the first group of commitments a week earlier. He has won three tournaments in the past seven months.

A Devotional For The Day

In that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted. (Hebrews 2:18)

PRAYER: O Lord, who art acquainted with grief, we praise Thee for Thy courage, and for Thy trust in the Father during the hours of intense suffering which Thou didst endure for our redemption. In our suffering may we remember that Thou art with us, sharing our burden. In Thy name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Brain Drain On Latin America

An unfortunately spotty report of the Organization of American States indicates that Latin American immigration to the United States "represents a serious drain that a developing area can ill-afford."

The several countries covered in the report shows the immigration largely to be a "brain drain" — college graduates, professional men and technicians and skilled labor. Naturally these are the kind of people that developing nations need most and have least of.

It has long been a serious problem of the cultural exchange programs between the United States and less developed nations that nationals of the latter, once better educated, are attracted to the higher pay, better working and living conditions here. All too many foreign exchange students choose to remain expatriates in an affluent society rather than return to the formidable problems of their homelands.

The United States has an exceptionally liberal immigration policy toward Latin Americans, and those nations generally have little or no restrictions on emigration to this country. In the best interest of inter-American relations, that could hardly be otherwise.

However, as the United States moves into a period of manpower shortages in the professions and higher skilled trades, it will become even more attractive to qualified immigrants from Latin America and other regions. There would seem to be only two answers to the problem posed by the OAS report:

Efforts must be intensified to motivate Latin American students trained in this country to return to their own lands. And the Latin nations, with as much help as we can afford to give them, must improve their institutions of higher education, particularly remodeling their purposes to serve industrializing economies.

Balance Of Payments Deficit

An old adversary has come calling again. The sleeping balance of payments problem is once more haunting the administration and fiscal managers.

Last December, Treasury Secretary Henry H. Fowler predicted that this year the balance of payments would range from $250 million to either side of true balance. The deficit in balance of payments last year was $1.3 billion. Now it is being predicted that this year's deficit will approximate $1.5 billion.

The war in Viet Nam is the chief culprit. At least $700 million of the anticipated deficit this year can be charged to Viet Nam—the figure may be more, since it is difficult to estimate with precision.

Voluntary restraints on U.S. business investments overseas have worked unusually well. But the overall payments deficit shows no signs of reduction. The prospect, in fact, is for an even greater deficit in coming years as the level of the U.S. effort in Viet Nam steadily rises.

This fiscal lesion must be alleviated, since it threatens to drain the U.S. of its gold supply and with it the integrity of the dollar. Stricter controls on tourist spending and on business investment in foreign countries are therefore likely. There also may be renewed emphasis upon encouraging U.S. exports as one of the main means of permanently alleviating the problem.

Spring Quarter Looks Great

NEW YORK (AP) — Rarely has a spring quarter looked better for businessmen and their employes than the one starting today. Even the possibilities they fear most — such as higher taxes or shortages of materials and of skilled labor or presidential pleas to cut back on spending — are unlikely to develop fast enough to affect business results in the next three months.

THE MOMENTUM of the 63-month-old economic upswing is carrying over in most fields. Some of the upward shove is due to the very things that hold the most threats of trouble later. These include the growing spending by government, consumers and business itself, and maybe a bit too much confidence in the future.

BUT RIGHT now the effects of the spending boom are greater output of goods and services, higher incomes, record profits. The chief drawback now is rising prices.

Some time ahead is the day of a real reckoning. If the boom should over heat the economy, cause greater inflation, overexpansion of production facilities, and a spurge of speculation that could lead to a bust.

THE ADMINISTRATION points to some successes in persuading particular industries or companies to hold down or roll back price increases.

And there are already some brakes on the economy which the business world will feel during the April-June quarter. These include higher tax collections in both personal and corporate fields, higher interest rates all up and down the line, and growing competition of civilian and defense projects for some materials, some workmen.

PERFORMANCE of these brakes so far leads most businessmen to feel that any real slowdown is weeks or months away.

For example, the higher interest rates hasn't as yet led to any let-down in the demand for loans, with the possible exception of home mortgages.

For another example, retail sales have risen in volume despite the bite of higher Social Security withholding rates.

FOR STILL another, corporations have been pushing ahead with their plans to build new plants or additions and to buy new equipment. Neither higher interest rates, nor speedier tax collections have had any visible effect as yet. And if business heads President Johnson's plea to cut back on these plans, it is doubted if actual spending could be trimmed before summer.

Consumers complain increasingly about the rising prices. But merchants so far have sighted no cutbacks in buying. One reason may be that in many instances wage scales have gone up this year, as provided in labor contracts reached a year or two ago.

NEW YORK (AP) — John Houseman, veteran stage-screen director, has been named to a post of increased activity with the Association for Producing Artists.

A member of the group's honorary board since 1960, Houseman is now "advising director." In addition to participating in plans for APA development, he is expected to stage some productions.

CHICAGO (AP) — King Cotton has been formally dethroned in the Deep South, says the National Soybean Crop Improvement Council.

The overthrow came quietly last year in Mississippi when, for the first time, farmers in that state planted soybeans on more acres than they did cotton.

Imaginative Murderers

Much ado about nothing: Murderers can be an imaginative lot. They think up so many different ways of dispatching their victims.

The police in Chicago made a survey recently and it came to light that 43 of their residents were "done in" last year by some one else's hands or feet. Another was slain by an artificial leg.

Twenty husbands were phased out by their wives while 25 wives came to their end of the days through homicidal action taken by their husbands.

The Chicago killers last year used such things as bottles, wooden canes, belts, chain, electric cords, table legs, daggers, derringer pistols, kitchen knives and pool cues to dispatch their victims. And 63 of Chicago's 395 killings were done by people who professed friendship for the Party of the Second Part.

Organized crime, according to the police, accounted for a mere two murders in their city last year.

INCIDENTALLY, while the U. S. population increased more than 50 per cent from 1930 through 1962, the number of homicides by firearms decreased about 30 per cent.

IT WAS famed criminal lawyer Clarence Darrow who remarked once that nothing confirmed his contempt for juries so much as a decision in favor of one of his clients.

THE FAMED Playboy Clubs say they're going to improve their book-keeping process this summer by eliminating that status symbol called the membership key.

The management will ask the 500,000-or-so members to pay an additional $5 annually as an "account maintenance charge."

In case you're a little slow with figures, that amounts to a tidy $2.5 million.

ARGENTINA solons are more gallant and wiser in some ways than their American counterparts.

Down there they don't require women to carry their ages on their driver's licenses, if they are over 21.

NO WONDER you're tired. If you weigh no more than 150 pounds and are average in other ways, you walk about five miles a day—which means you take about 12,000 steps all told.

That means you're bringing down on your feet a load totaling 900 tons during every 24-hour period.

Mustering The Dissent Votes

WASHINGTON—Republican leaders seem to be rather confused as to what their strategy should be in seeking the support of the American people for a substantial increase in the number of Republicans to be elected to Congress in November.

The Republicans are forgetting the oldest rule of politics—to expose fully the mistakes and shortcomings of an administration in power and not worry about the argument that alternative policies should be presented.

AGAIN AND AGAIN, when a majority in the House of Representatives has been overturned, there has been little, if anything, said about specific proposals to replace the policies of an incumbent administration. The emphasis has been primarily on the failures of the party in office.

But there are always those voters who ask during a campaign: "If you are elected, what will you do?" The traditional answer has been: "Elect us, and we'll clean house and do what ought to be done."

THIS STRATEGY has worked over and over again because it tends to mobilize the current discontent and forms a massive opposition vote. It is successful largely because the minority party hasn't had the responsibility for making policies and cannot be blamed for things that go wrong, particularly in the handling of the executive branch of the government. The Republicans today can point to the overwhelming majority which the Democratic party has in both houses of Congress and can argue that the party members have pursued a "rubber stamp" rather than an independent course.

THE REPUBLICANS can criticize the behavior of the Democrats in Congress and endeavor to show that in vote after vote, especially on domestic questions, they have followed the administration's commands rather than the viewpoint of their constituents.

The high cost of living is an issue with far-reaching impact in political campaigns. The average citizen isn't concerned about the "new economics" or the dialogue about the nature of the inflation. All he knows is that his dollar isn't buying as much as it did and that prices are steadily going up.

AS FOR THE WAR in Viet Nam, some of the Republican leaders pride themselves on the fact that they have supported the administration's objectives. But this has been given more prominence than criticism of the alleged inefficiency of the Pentagon and the reported interference by civilian officials with the military commanders, as disclosed in congressional committee hearings.

Whether it is desirable or even justified, Viet Nam is going to be an issue in November, just as Korea was in the 1952 presidential election. There comes a time when the electorate gets tired of long wars and decides to let the other political party try its hand. The theory is that matters cannot get much worse and they might even get better, especially if the enemy is persuaded that a firm and vigorous use of military power is to replace a drifting policy.

POLITICS is concerned with emotional as well as economic questions. The dissent on the Viet Nam war is emotional, and the discontent over the cost of living and the continuing red figures in the budget constitutes an economic issue of major importance. These issues could generate a protest vote which might cut down considerably the present Democratic majority of more than two-thirds in both the House and the Senate.

Louisiana Legend Lives On

NEW ORLEANS—This story could be written more than one way. People in Louisiana are still trying to live down Huey Long. People here also feel that the country is still trying to live up to the wealth-sharing politics of the Kingfish, the only man of the 1930's who might have out-depugged Franklin Roosevelt and prevented FDR's becoming a lifetime President.

OR, AS a third way to get into the story, you could write that the surviving Kennedy brothers aren't the only heirs to a dynasty that was interrupted by an assassin's bullet. Bob and Ted Kennedy are deeply motivated to recover the White House for their family name, but neither has proved his staying power and his climbing rate as fully as Sen. Russell Long (D., La.), son of the man who was mortally wounded by a "pre-sumed" killer on September 8, 1935.

Live down the legend? Governor McKeithen and his aides had just returned from an industry-hunting trip the night I arrived here. One of the governor's associates told me:

"WE HAVE so much to offer new businesses in Louisiana. There's sweet water, gas and oil fuels, the best of transportation facilities and labor that seems to learn fresh skills very fast. And yet—well, outside people still don't quite trust our politics. McKeithen is making a fine governor and he gives a good impression wherever he goes. But he needs very much to get rid of the Huey Long set-up, which requires that scores of local office-holders be in the appointive power of the governorship."

Catching up to the Kingfish? The Great Society, the War on Poverty, racial equality and universal education are old hat in Louisiana. Many years before national politicians dared to stake their careers on whole-hog domestic radicalism, Huey Long had his populist programs of "soak the rich," "every man a king" and a guaranteed income of $5,000 a year. His projects on highway construction, free textbooks, subsidized college education for all who met the mental requirements, abolition of the poll tax and raising the Negro economic level —these ideas of Huey Long look today like blueprints for the plans of every Democratic administration since World War II.

HUEY LONG's remaining friends today still insist that he would have been the Roosevelt-stopper and a logical winner for 1940 had not death intervened. And so the story-lines of aspiring American dynasties draw to gether. Sen. Russell Long, who was 16 when his father died, stands on much the same ground as the Kennedy brothers. Long, four times elected senator, last year chosen in an open fight to be Democratic Whip; and this year succeeding to the chairmanship of the potent Finance Committee, has clearly "made it on his own." He rates higher in the party and around Washington than the Kennedys now do, but Bob Kennedy has taken his drive for White House succession to the country and has even taken it overseas for prestige purposes.

Yet it is conceivable that Russell Long, acting as Lyndon Johnson's hatchman on the Senate floor, may draw the assignment of cutting Bob down to size if the latter should venture into a foreign or domestic policy debate that involves the administration.

As America grows older, the dynasties begin to clash.

War Tally

NEW DELHI (AP) — Defense Minister Y. B. Chavan told Parliament 3,252 Indians died in the three-week war with Pakistan in September and 8,249 were wounded.

After the Sept. 23 "ceasefire," he said, 459 Indians were killed, 1,348 injured and 16 captured in continued border skirmishing. In addition 234 were missing.

The border has been quiet in recent weeks as both India and Pakistan implemented the Tashkent peace declaration signed by the late Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri and President Mohammed Ayub Khan of Pakistan.

Movie Critics Favor Steiger, Miss Andrews

NEW YORK (AP) — Some 200 of the nation's film critics have picked "Darling" as the best screen play of 1965 and Rod Steiger and Julie Andrews as the year's best actor and actress for their roles in "The Pawnbroker" and "The Sound of Music," respectively.

The poll of critics, conducted by Film Daily, awarded best supporting actor and actress honors to Michael Dunn and Vivien Leigh for their roles in "Ship of Fools."

Elizabeth Hartman, the blind girl of "A Patch of Blue," was selected as the find of the year. Barry Gordon, who portrayed Nick in "A Thousand Clowns," and Patty Duke, who played the title role in "Billie," were voted best juvenile actor and actress, respectively.

Dear Abby

Favoring 'Show-Tell'

DEAR ABBY: Every teacher who has a show and tell time in her classroom repeatedly tells the children, "Be sure you ask mother and daddy for permission before you take anything out of the house for show and tell." And the teacher also stresses that no child is to bring valuable, fragile, or irreplaceable treasures to school. Children will bring anything from an old dried up flower to a live kitten and delight in talking about it. Once a youngster brought a "human" skull to school for show and tell and you should have heard the wild tale he unraveled about how he happened to have it! I later learned it was plastic. His mother allowed him to take it to school, but when it came time to tell the story, the poor darling got completely carried away... LOVES CHILDREN

DEAR ABBY: I have been a kindergarten teacher for 10 years, so nobody has to tell me where the mother was when her child slipped out of the house with a pair of 44 falsies for show and tell. Mamma was in bed! Believe me, I could curl your hair with some of the stories children tell me. One child came to school freezing because every button was missing from her coat. I finally brought some buttons from home and sewed them on during my lunch period. This child is from a prominent, well-to-do family. I once asked the child if she has breakfast at home and she said, "No, Mamma is sleeping when I leave, and she asks me to be quiet. But I don't care, my mommy is so pretty!"

UPPER DARBY TEACHER

DEAR ABBY: How I wish we had a show and tell time in school when I was a youngster. My teacher (a man) was so strict and stern we were all scared to death of him. Most teachers in my day were like that. The only time a child got a chance to say anything was when he was called upon to answer a question, or if he had to recite something he was told to memorize. A teacher certainly did not invite the children to bring odd items from home and discuss it with their classmates. Perhaps if we had had show and tell back in those days, we wouldn't have so many people who grew up petrified to open their mouths before more than four people. I was one of those self-conscious tongue-tied boobies, and I never got over it. PUSHING SEVENTY

DEAR ABBY: That letter about the child who took a pair of 44 falsies to show his classmates what his father wore under his dress when he went to a costume party at Mae West interested me. I would like to know where a person can find a pair of 44 falsies in Silver Springs, Md. I am large, but in the wrong places. Thank you kindly. NEEDS HELP

Busy Week Of Activities Lined Up For Beauties

A series of rapid-fire pageant activities will keep some 17 girls in the junior division and eight girls in the senior division of the Miss Big Spring Pageant busy this week until pageant time Saturday night. Local Jaycees sponsor the annual event, which could lead to the Miss Texas crown.

A Pepsi Party at 7 o'clock tonight at the Cosden Country Club for all contestants will be followed Tuesday by an "in-honor" dance at the Big Spring Country Club for all contestants and their guests. Wednesday's festivities include television and radio appearances.

The down-to-earth work begins Thursday night, when a rehearsal for all contestants will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Municipal Auditorium. Dress rehearsal Friday begins at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium, and senior entrants will bring talent props. A parade in downtown Big Spring Saturday at 10:30 a.m., and a

SHERYL MOORE

Judges luncheon for senior entrants at noon at the Ramada Inn will be the activities until curtain time Saturday night at 7:30.

A reception following the pageant will be held at the Ramada Inn honoring the new 1966 Miss Big Spring and Miss Texas and will be open to all contestants, parents, and Jaycees. Senior entries are Lynda Davidson, Nita Medley, Dana Rose, Penny Frazier, Susan Baker, Sue Frazier, Pam Ham and Toni Taroni.

Mrs. Haley Dies, Funeral Today

Mrs. D. H. Haley, 81, former resident here, died at Fabens Saturday afternoon, where she and her late husband had lived 37 years. Formerly they operated the Haley Hotel and Wyoming Hotel here. He preceded her in death four years ago.

Funeral was held today at 10 a.m. in El Paso, with interment there. Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Tommie Lovelace, Big Spring, three other children, 12 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

Former Educator In Texas Dies

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — R. H. Marrs, 71, a former Texas educator, died today in Richmond, Ind., after a short illness, relatives were informed.

The former San Antonio man had been school superintendent at Sabinal, Marble Falls and New Braunfels. He was a resident of Bridgeville, Pa.

LBJ Seeking To 'Prolong Prosperity'

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—"The kind of economy we have today is the kind I've dreamed about since I was a boy. More than 73 million jobs. The unemployment rate is the lowest in 12 years. We're going in the right direction — where a man who wants work can get work and with decent pay."

President Lyndon B. Johnson was quoted this way today by J. A. Livingston, financial editor of the Philadelphia Bulletin and a Pulitzer Prize winner.

LBJ "GRATEFUL" "For the progress we've made, I'm grateful. That we can go further, I'm hopeful. But remember, three million are unemployed. We have three million to go," Livingston quoted the President.

"The conversation—it wasn't exactly an interview — took place in the President's personal office in the White House," Livingston wrote.

Livingston quoted Johnson further: "I'm trustee for 190 million people. I was selected. I was not appointed. It's up to me to keep the most advanced, the most rewarding economy moving forward."

PROLONG BOOM Livingston said he found "foremost in the President's mind are the Kennedy-Johnson achievements. He doesn't want to give up five years of steady progress to a recession or to inflation. He hopes to flatten out the boom and so prolong prosperity."

Livingston said the President "wants no part of rigid wage-price controls." He doesn't want to repress Great Society programs. He may be overstaying his market. Price advances may accelerate. But he knows what he is doing. He calculates all risks."

G. Webb Dies

Gerald Webb, Midland, former employe of the Pioneer Natural Gas Company here, died at 5 a.m. today at his residence in Midland. He was the brother of G. W. Webb and Mrs. J. H. Routh. Services are pending at a Midland funeral home.

Litigation Booms Here During March

Litigation is booming in Howard County.

There were 116 new law suits — civil and criminal — filed in 11th District Court during March. This is a record for a single month, according to Fern Cox, district court clerk.

As a result of the heavy filing in March, the total cases on file and awaiting disposition in the court has reached a point 64 greater than was the total on Feb. 28. Total on March 31 stood at 1,063.

One item which helped to set the high for filings was a batch of 38 suits against property owners filed at one time in an effort to collect paving assessments.

All brackets showed a boom, except in criminal and tax divisions.

There are 32 new divorce suits filed. 11 divorce petitions were heard by the court, and eight others were dismissed. The month wound up with 239 cases still on the books — 13 more than when March began.

Two new annulment suits were filed, one was heard, and the total remained at three.

Tax suits began with 311 on file, two were dismissed, leaving 209 in the files.

There were 82 cases other than divorce and annulment matters filed in March. Fourteen were tried by the court and 10 were dismissed. The month saw the total reach 475 which was 68 more than Feb. 28. No new criminal cases were filed and two were disposed of by juries, three before the court, and one was dismissed, to leave the total at 57.

Mother Raps Priest Action

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—The participation of a Roman Catholic priest in an antiwar demonstration drew a protest from a young mother of two who said she has close relatives fighting in Viet Nam.

Mrs. Larry Standefer, 22, picketed the headquarters of the Oklahoma City-Tulsa Diocese of the Roman Catholic Church for about two hours, carrying a sign reading: "Fr. Vrana does not represent Catholic or patriotic attitudes."

She said her protest was against the appearance of Rev. John Vrana in a demonstration March 26 protesting United States involvement in the war in Viet Nam.

About 150 Attend Marker Dedication

COLORADO CITY (SC) — About 150 paid tribute to one of Mitchell County's pioneer cattlemen Sunday afternoon at the unveiling of a Texas Historical marker about three miles southeast of Colorado City.

The marker honored Daniel Webster Wallace, better known in Mitchell County as "80 John" Wallace. He was born of slave parents Sept. 15, 1869, began working as a ranch hand at 15, and began work for Clay Mann about 1878 in the area to become Mitchell County.

About 1885, Wallace began putting his earnings into land, and acquired a section, where he lived until his death in 1939.

Wallace, with less than a year of formal education, was keenly interested in education for his family and his people, and donated the land for a Negro school near the downtown area of Colorado City. After the building in 1953 of a new, modern school plant for Negroes at another site, the Wallace family donated the old building as a community center. The new building was named the "Wallace School."

Mitchell County Judge Elmer Martin acted as emcee for the Sunday program; Dr. R. N. Richardson, Abilene, discussed the work of the State Historical Survey Committee, and T. P. Fowler, one of Wallace's grandsons, told the history of the family.

Mrs. Witt Hines, Mitchell County Historical chairman, was general chairman for the program.

Tests Ahead In Ecuador

QUITO, Ecuador (AP) — Clemente Yerovi Indaburu, the new president of Ecuador, is a businessman and an economist and his skill in both fields will be sorely tested in the months to come.

A balding, heavyset man of 62, Yerovi took over as president last Tuesday after a strike by businessmen and bloody demonstrations by workers and students forced the military command to fire the three-man junta.

Immediately ahead are the problems of a government deficit and an unfavorable balance of payments caused by increasing imports and decreasing exports.

The budget of $200 million was badly out of balance, and the reserve of foreign currency slumped to about $25 million. The chief export is bananas, and the crop ran into trouble with low prices on the world market.

Few Motorists Buying Tags

Related motorists who did not avail themselves of the regular period to acquire their 1966 license plates were showing up in small numbers at the office of the Howard County Tax Assessor today.

Majority were making the required affidavit they had not operated their cars since midnight April 1. Where such affidavits are made, no penalty is added to the cost of the tag.

Where the motorist has operated his car since the deadline, a penalty equivalent to 20 per cent of the tag fee is added.

Mrs. Zilah Lefevre, county tax assessor, said there was only a fair last minute rush Friday afternoon as the deadline approached. Her staff was able to leave the office by 6 p.m. No night shift for delayed buyers was carried out.

Holidays Set

The YMCA will operate on a holiday schedule during the Easter school holidays, according to Curtis Mullins, general secretary. The schedule will be announced Wednesday. No regularly scheduled classes will be held Thursday, Friday, or Monday.

Meat Imports Seen At 760 Million Pounds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department expects meat imports to total about 760 million pounds this year.

This quantity, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman indicated, will not require the President to invoke import quotas for 1966 at this time.

If yearly imports of certain meats—primarily beef and veal—are estimated to equal or exceed 113 per cent of an adjusted base quota, the President is required by law to invoke a quota. The adjusted base quota for 1966 is 890.1 million pounds.

Y Swimmers At Angelo

The Y Aquatic Club newly formed relay team for girls 10 years of age and under placed sixth in the 200-yard free and 200-yard medley relays in the fourth annual San Angelo swimming meet Saturday. Ann Bell placed fourth in the 50-yard back stroke event.

In the 13-14 bracket for the girls, Carrie Bizell placed second in the 50-yard free style contest. Linda Cathey was a fourth in the 100-yard back and 100-yard breast stroke events, and fifth in the 200-yard individual medley. The free style relay team composed of S. Dickson, B. Duncan, L. Cathey and C. Bizell, placed sixth.

Linda Tydesley placed second in the 100-yard back and 200-yard individual medley events for the 15-17-year-old class.

With the return to other teams of boys who have been competing in high school interscholastic league swimming, the Y Aquatic boys from Big Spring were outclassed. Coaches said their times were consistent, but the more experienced boys freed after the district school meet were too much.

Thiefs Take Birds' Bath

Stranger objects have been stolen, officers feel, but if so, they don't know about them. Charles Watson, 1307 Marjio, told them Saturday that someone had taken the concrete top from his bird-bath, and had stolen a "chalk man" statue from his front yard.

Four other thefts were reported to officers during the past weekend. None were major cases, officers said.

Sunday, Tom Carruth, 411 Edwards Blvd., said a bicycle had been stolen from his front yard. Saturday, George Elliott, 409 Main, said his bicycle was missing from the Ponderosa Apartments, 1422 Stadium, where he had parked it for a short time.

Six cases of empty soft-drink bottles were stolen from the Frontier Lodge, 4000 US 80 west, officers said.

A tire, tube and wheel were stolen from the pickup of Mike Schockley, Luther Route, while it was parked at the 66 Truck Stop Saturday night, he told officers.

College Debaters Place At Meet

The Howard County Junior College debate squad placed in both men's and women's state divisions at the Texas State Junior College Debate Meet Saturday.

Cherry Wright and Nancy Nichols won fourth place in the state women's division, and Howard Atkinson and Larry Fourniquet won fifth in the state men's division. Martin Landers, debate instructor, accompanied the squad.

The HCJC debate squad will compete in the National Junior College Debate Meet in Odessa May 4-6.

Union Vote Set In Paper Strike

BOSTON (AP)—Printers and mailers vote Tuesday on a tentative agreement to end the Boston newspaper strike.

The agreement was announced Saturday night after a series of marathon negotiations with the unions, publishers and federal and state mediators.

The Morning and Evening Globe, the Morning Herald, Evening Traveler and the Record American have been shut down since March 6. Terms of the agreement were not announced.

The publishers had offered a three-year package totaling $5.30 in health-welfare and pension benefits the first two years and an $8 cash increase the third year.

The printers and mailers wanted the option of taking all or part of the $18.30 in cash. The printers' base scale now is $140 a week; the mailers' $128.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Ground Beef Gets Face-Lift

Dear Folks: As far as I am concerned, ground beef (hamburger) is the most popular meat in the entire universe because it has so many uses.

For the family who is cost-conscious, I suggest that you buy the ADVERTISED ground beef at the lowest possible price from legitimate meat or super markets. Then learn some fantastic ways to make it different. Many unique ways you can make up yourself.

HELOISE

Take one beef bouillon cube (The bouillon cube has all the necessary flavoring plus the seasoning!) and put it in a cup pour a teaspoonful of boiling water over the cube and let set a minute or so. Then take a spoon and mash it HARD, and you will be left with about a table-spoonful of liquid beef bouillon.

Pour this into one pound of ground beef. Mix it well so it will distribute evenly. And see and taste for your little ole self how different the flavor is. It will have a heavy beef flavor.

This may be used in meat patties, meat balls, for spaghetti sauce or that good old American stand-by—meatloaf!

No matter what you use it for what-for—it's so much more flavorful.

And another little dilly I would like to pass along: why don't you try using chicken bouillon cubes in place of the beef cubes? I find them so different and good. Sure changes the taste.

I have also mixed one beef cube and one chicken cube and it's even better.

So, gals, use your taster and try these things out.

Another thing I would like to tell all of you who use ground meat (again with no extenders): Grate a BIG onion in a mixing bowl. This will have liquid . . . after all, water is a large percent of onion. Put liquid and all in your pound of hamburger or ground round and squeeze and mix it with your hand. My, does this change its taste! (Sometimes I add Worcestershire or

Woman Editor Brands Sex Attitude 'Medieval'

By MYRON K. MYERS CAMBRIDGE, England (AP) — "I think it's a myth," says Suzy Menkes, "that professional women have any more problems than men."

Suzy is the first woman editor of Cambridge University's student newspaper Varsity — a chair occupied for the past 34 years by males. (The Harvard Crimson, not to be outdone, installed Linda McVeigh about the same time as its first woman managing editor.)

Suzy, 22 and pretty, attracted a lot of attention almost as soon as she became editor.

One of her first steps was to run a series of articles on sex on the Cambridge campus, where — says Suzy — the university's attitude is "medieval and hypocritical."

"The main trouble is the incredibly false atmosphere at Cambridge," she said. "There are eight men for each woman here."

"The unattractive girl who enters Cambridge, is made to feel worse when not asked out because she is constantly bombarded by the fact that there ought to be eight men after her.

For many popular girls, their strings of date invitations become just status symbols.

"Cambridge University's medieval tradition of celibacy has made it impossible for two people to have a full relationship. There are spying landladies and always the fear of being expelled. Women must sign into their rooms each night at midnight."

Emphasizing that she had been speaking in general terms, Suzy added that she was not engaged and did not expect to become a housewife in the near future.

"I think people make a mistake when they get married in school," she said. "Cambridge has a false atmosphere. What will work here often does not work elsewhere."

As editor of Varsity, Suzy has 45 men students and 10 women on her staff. She regards her election as a matter of course.

"No one questioned my being a woman when I was elected editor by the staff for this term," she said, "and no one has questioned it since."

Suzy has brought a number of new features to the 24-page weekly tabloid. Among them are a new section on scientific news, weekly analyses as to how current events pertain to campus life and columns by critics outside the campus.

Suzy writes editorials. Although politically sympathetic to the Conservatives, she does not shy away from such words as "reactionaries" and "traditionalists" when attacking people who do not want the university's Union, now a debating club, turned into a regular Student Union with varied activities.

Political Coffee Planned Tuesday

WESTBROOK (SC) — A "Get Acquainted" coffee for political candidates in Mitchell County will be held Tuesday evening at the Ocello Cactus building. Dear Heloise: While cleaning a utility closet a few weeks ago, my husband and I were about to discard an old hot water bottle when I had an idea. I cut off both ends of the bottle, leaving the two flat sides which I cut into two oval shapes, scalloping the edges. They make practical, but decorative, rubber mats for placing under flower arrangements . . . Mrs. T. Fie Dear Heloise: While searching for an inexpensive, practical, but attractive way to cover our tables for a money-raising sisterhood affair, one of our members suggested using individual sheets torn from the new rolls of decorative paper towels—as place mats. They were attractive, and there was no laundering or laundry bill afterwards. . . Mrs. D. E. G. Dear Heloise: Since towels usually wear in the middle, I cut the ends into nine of 12-inch squares and sew two thicknesses of nylon net on one side of the square, bind all around with bias tape and I have fabulous dish cloths. They are also grand for washing cars, as the nylon net removes bug splatters easily without damage to the paint or chrome. Also, just try using them for cleaning vinyl seat or chair covers. Most amazing thing you ever saw . . . Reader Heloise welcomes all mail, especially household hints which she can pass on to readers as space permits. However, because of the tremendous volume of mail she receives daily, Heloise is unable to answer all individual letters, but information will be included in her column whenever possible. (Write to Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)
