Sue Frazier New 'Miss Big Spring'

A green-eyed blonde with a winning smile and a talent for folk singing was awarded the 1966 Miss Big Spring crown before a crowd of 800 Saturday night in the Municipal Auditorium. Sue Frazier, 18, walked off with seven other Miss Big Spring entrants in the senior division. Her talent entry was a softly narrated version of "The Creation" with her own guitar accompaniment. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harris Frazier, 2101 Morrison Drive.

NAMED RUNNER-UP Selected as first runner-up was Lynda Davidson, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Davidson, 4002 Baylor. Miss Davidson was the runner-up in the Big Spring Maid of Cotton competition. Her talent entry was a medley of songs from "Annie Get Your Gun" and "Flower Drum Song."

Second runner-up was Dana Lou Rosene, 18, a Howard County Junior College freshman, who chose "Reflections of a Girl Entering a Beauty Pageant" as her talent entry.

Crowning Miss Big Spring 1966 was Nancy Haralson, the 1965 Miss Big Spring, assisted by Miss Texas 1965, Mary Lou Butler of Irving.

JUNIOR TITLE Debbie Duncan, a 16-year-old green-eyed blonde from Big Spring High School, was selected as the 1966 Junior Miss Big Spring from a field of 17 entrants. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan, 1300 W. 16th.

First runner-up in the junior division was Donna Duke, a 17-year-old Coahoma High School entry, who also was voted Miss Congeniality by junior and senior contestants Friday night. Miss Duke is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Duke, Coahoma.

Second runner-up was Sheryl Moore, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald R. Cross, Coahoma.

OTHER FINALISTS Other finalists in the senior competition were Nita Medley and Penny Frazier.

Entertainment for the affair was furnished by Miss Texas and the Wing-Dingers, a local Dixieland band from Webb Air Force Base.

Winston Wrinkle served as master of ceremonies. Jaycee John Anderson was general chairman of this year's pageant, which leads to the Fort Worth Miss Texas pageant later in the spring. Judges were from Fort Worth and Midland.

First primary date is only a month away. A reminder of this was the succession of state candidates visiting here—first Eldon Mahon, candidate for 17th district congressman; then Franklin Spears, candidate for Texas attorney general; and finally Waggoner Carr, seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator. Local candidates were quickening the tempo, too.

As for fast tempo, the Chamber of Commerce set a good example with its membership blitz. Although the one-day blitz will have several days of cleanup to do, 121 members or dues increased were secured and the goal of 150 seems likely to be reached.

A tragic crash not far from Eglin AFB, Fla., cost the lives of two of our men, Capt. Hubert L. (Buddy) Blake and Capt. Dennis L. Anderson, who formerly were at Webb as instructors. They were killed in the crash of their T-28 in which they were training for service in South Viet Nam. On the other hand, we had a blessing when Capt. Richard (See THE WEEK, P. 6-A, C. 7)

LBJ Works Up To Start Of Holiday

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson dug into foreign policy problems Saturday — presumably with emphasis on Viet Nam — and the whole First Family whirled through preparations for Easter Sunday worship and festivities. The womenfolk were all set on their finery selections and the Easter dinner menu. And the Johnsons' assorted beaus and guests planned to go to church somewhere in the neighborhood of Johnson City and the LBJ Ranch.

READS DOCUMENTS The President, who had pronounced Good Friday a day off, was back at work at his desk in the ranch house library Saturday morning. Deputy press secretary Robert H. Fleming said at the White House press center in San Antonio that Johnson read a number of foreign relations documents that came down from Washington and had been on the phone with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and presidential assistant Jack Valenti in Washington.

NOT TALKING Fleming didn't deny that Johnson discussed the Vietnamese hot spot with Rusk. But he said the White House had nothing to say about Viet Nam and newsmen could make their own assumptions about the nature of the talks.

Following church Sunday, Fleming said, the Johnsons plan to lunch at the ranch and then have Easter dinner later in the day.

ACTOR THERE Actor George Hamilton, Lynda Johnson's current boyfriend, arrived Friday night and apparently filled out the cast of weekend guests at the ranch. Luci Johnson's fiance, Patrick J. Nugent, arrived from Washington with the family on Thursday. His sister-in-law, Mrs. Gerald Nugent, is at the ranch too. Her husband is a Marine lieutenant in Viet Nam and Luci attended the wedding last year.

The Easter outfits of Mrs. Johnson and her daughters will be no surprise unless they change their minds before church.

Viet's Ky In Squeeze

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Buddhist leaders united Saturday night in a demand for quick replacement of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military government with a civilian regime, then showed their power by stopping cold riotous demonstrations that had racked Saigon for a week.

Moderates and conservatives joined in a call for an elected congress in a very short time, a platform where the people can speak about the sovereignty of their nation. No date was specified.

Spokesmen previously have urged that Ky's plan for a National Assembly election in 1967 be executed within two to five months.

The hierarchy of the faith professed by most Vietnamese appealed in a proclamation to "all the people wishing to show their opposition to the government" to contact Buddhist headquarters for the coordination of activities, adding, "We will dictate the time and the place."

Easter Observed By Rites March

Police Lines Crashed By Pilgrim Rush

JERUSALEM, Jordan Sector (AP) — Police threw a cordon around Christ's tomb to hold back a mass of worshippers Saturday as religious fervor turned to near hysteria at a ceremony of holy fire. Fist fights broke out.

A screaming throng inside the Church of the Holy Sepulcher shattered police lines as pilgrims struggled to be first to light candles from a flame dancing out of Jesus' grave.

Supreme Moment The ceremony of holy fire is the supreme moment for Eastern rite Christians celebrating Easter in the Holy City. The flame symbolizes Christ's resurrection.

About 10,000 Arab, Armenian and Greek Orthodox Christians jammed the cavernous 800-year old church.

Every one held a bundle of candles or a bronze lantern and struggled to be first to light his candle from the flame spurting forth from two oval apertures in the sides of the tomb.

A score of firemen held hoses at the ready as flames rapidly spread from candle to candle. The crowds were so dense outside the church that priests trying to open the church's massive doors had their robes torn and hats knocked off. One old prelate sank to the floor in a faint.

The site is believed to be that of Jesus' burial and Resurrection.

A Roman Catholic holy fire ceremony earlier in the day proceeded without incident.

Tells Story

Capt. Otto Thoresen, 52, skipper of the luxury liner Viking Princess which fire ravaged at sea in an escape in which 494 passengers and crew were rescued and only two persons died, is shown telling of the ordeal. (AP WIREPHOTO)

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Passengers said Saturday that engine room trouble plagued the cruise ship Viking Princess throughout her six-day voyage in the Caribbean. They said they were so used to the problems that, when the air conditioner and lights shut off shortly after midnight Thursday, people in the ship's night club kept right on dancing. Others lit matches so the musicians could read their scores.

SEE SMOKE It was several minutes before smoke began leaking under the door, crewmen were spotted in lifejackets and the dancers learned that fire had broken out in the engine room.

"The engines had switched on and off at different times during the trip," said Annette Moore, 28, of Daytona Beach, Fla.

GOOD CONDITION Otto Thoresen, 52, captain of the $16-million luxury liner, admitted at a press conference that "minor adjustments" to the engines were made during the cruise. But he said the engines were in excellent condition.

"I know there was nothing wrong but there are so many moving parts in an engine room," he said. "Nobody knows why a ship catches fire."

Though Saigon streets were calm for a change, there was an antigovernment demonstration by about 500 students at Dalat, a mountain resort 140 miles northeast of Saigon. Vietnamese rangers broke it up, using tear gas and firing shots into the air.

Sunrise Services, Peace Walk Held

By The Associated Press

Sunrise services, fashion parades and a ban the bomb march in England were to mark the celebration of Easter Sunday.

Millions attended dawn religious services in what the Weather Bureau says will be chilly weather across much of the nation.

In Jerusalem, hundreds of pilgrims were to meet before dawn in the Church of the Holy Sepulcher, on the spot where many Christians believe Christ was buried and resurrected.

ANCIENT CHURCH Roman Catholics, Greek Orthodox, Copts, Armenians and Syrians held separate Good Friday services in the 800-year-old church.

In Rome, Italy, residents poured out of town for the annual Easter holiday, leaving the city to a half-million tourists.

Pope Paul VI led an Easter vigil service Saturday night in St. Peter's, largest church in Christendom.

In England, 2,000 ban the bomb demonstrators left High Wycombe, 30 miles north of London, on an Easter peace march to the capital. There were people from France, Germany, Italy, the United States, Belgium and the Scandinavian countries in the group. Temperatures in the middle 50s and partly cloudy skies were forecast for New York's Easter parade on Fifth Avenue. Merchants have reported booming sales of spring finery.

HELPING HAND In Detroit, a group of youngsters from the suburban Dearborn Free Methodist Church planned to spend their Eastern school vacation in eastern Kentucky, helping the Free Methodist Oakdale School at Jackson, Ky., in painting, land clearing and building a garage.

Sunrise services were planned in the new 55,000-seat athletic stadium in Atlanta, Ga., on a mountain top at Hot Springs National Park, Ark.; in the Shawnee National Forest in southern Illinois; and in the Cathedral of the Pines in Rindge, N.H.

Residents in Winston-Salem, N.C., were to be awakened by hymns sung by small groups of Moravians, assembling on street corners prior to sunrise services at the restored Moravian village of Old Salem.

In Washington, there were sunrise services at the Washington Monument and in Arlington National Cemetery. The traditional egg roll will be held on the White House lawn.

Clear, Sunny Texas Outlook

By The Associated Press

A southerly breeze may ruffle some of the fancy bonnets but skies are due to be clear and sunny over most of Texas Easter Sunday.

There were a few scattered showers and thunderstorms in Central Texas Saturday and others were expected along the coast during the night as a cool front punched into the Gulf of Mexico.

REMAIN MILD Temperatures were expected to remain mild over the weekend.

Early morning lows Saturday ranged from 35 degrees at Dalhart to 68 at Brownsville and Houston.

During the afternoon readings ranged from the upper 60s in the Panhandle to the mid 80s in Southwest Texas.

No measurable rainfall was reported for the 24 hours ending at 6 a.m. Saturday.

Presidio reported the nation's highest temperature, 93, Saturday. Laredo had 88 and numerous other Texas points had highs in the 80s. Childress was the coolest with a mild 70.

At Houston hail, heavy rain and thundershowers temporarily curtailed last-minute preparations for Easter in various sections of the city Saturday. Rain-swept streets were blamed for one fatal car wreck.

PARTLY CLOUDY Partly cloudy skies centered over downtown Houston areas Saturday afternoon while a severe weather forecast that included Houston was in effect. Hail and heavy thundershowers pelted the southeast section of the city for a short time, the Weather Bureau said.

The Weather Bureau at Dallas said there was a possibility of scattered showers in Northwest Texas Sunday night and in north central and eastern sections into Monday.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

Might be the effects of spring, but things were humming around these parts last week. Speaking of spring, the old mesquite is putting out, and the danger of frost is largely past. One more week and it will be entirely past. The norther slipping in Friday probably qualifies as our "Easter spell." Give us another shower, and pastures and wild flowers will confirm that spring has come to stay.

One of the most momentous developments, from the point of history, is the agreement between the Midland city council and the Colorado River Municipal Water District to furnish Midland from nine to 18 million gallons of water a day over a 60-year period. This will help Midland with an assured supply and quality controls, and it will enable the district to develop pipeline facilities to maximum size at the outset. Cost of the project will probably be $33 instead of $25 million.

It was good to hear the locomotive horns sounding up and down the length of the T&P tracks. The B of LF&E strike ended Monday, and by nightfall, schedules were largely back in operation.

Walter Stroup and Jimmy Morehead upset Mayor George Zachariah and W. L. (Squeaky) Thompson in Tuesday's city council voting, and Arnold Marshall was the only member of three incumbents returned. This followed something of a pattern in the school race where two incumbents were defeated by Grant Boardman and Jerry Currie.

Cleanup Week will start officially Wednesday, so get with it. The weekend will be a good time to get your place shining and the trash out for city trucks to pick it up starting one week from Monday.

First primary date is only a month away. A reminder of this was the succession of state candidates visiting here—first Eldon Mahon, candidate for 17th district congressman; then Franklin Spears, candidate for Texas attorney general; and finally Waggoner Carr, seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator. Guaranteed Income Issue Under Study

WASHINGTON (AP) — When Dr. Francis E. Townsend, an obscure California physician, urged the government to give every old person $200 a month he was hooted at as a crackpot. Now 33 years later, highly placed experts, including some advisers to President Johnson are willing to listen to another share-the-wealth proposal that the government guarantee every family an income of at least $3,000 a year.

SOCIAL REVOLUTION
There are sharp differences, of course, between the Townsend pension scheme and the guaranteed income idea. But they both stem from dreams of a society in which all people can live decently.

And both, in their different ways, are part of a great social revolution that has changed American life with such things as Social Security, Medicare, federal aid to education and other government welfare schemes.

The Townsend plan so frightened politicians that it is credited with hastening the beginnings of the Social Security System in America. So, too, the growing talk of a guaranteed income, if it does nothing more, may spur efforts to increase Social Security benefits in the 1960s and 1970s.

Higher benefits are constantly being talked. President Johnson said last month that he has asked for a government study of how to make the more adequate. He added: "I want these proposals to be ready to present to the next Congress."

GREAT DEPRESSION
The Townsend plan sprang from the depths of the Great Depression, when poor folks, especially if they were old or sick, really had things bad. Its founder was Francis Everett Townsend, a physician in Long Beach, California. One morning in 1933, while he was shaving, he happened to look out his bathroom window.

In his words: "I saw three haggard, stooped old women out there, ransacking trash barrels. The sight and its implications enraged me. I began to swear."

Townsend swore so loudly his wife was afraid the neighbors might hear. The doctor said he didn't care, that many would hear him in time.

Many did. By 1936, there were thousands of Townsend Clubs organized to press for pensions for old folks. Townsend claimed millions of followers.

The Townsend idea was to finance the pensions with a tax on business transactions. Those old people given the $200 a month would be required to spend it all within 30 days. The theory was that this would circulate money so fast that prosperity would bloom.

Townsend's economics were generally considered so weird as to threaten chaos and government bankruptcy. His dream never came true.

Whereas the Townsend plan was born of poverty, the new guaranteed annual income plan, to insure that no family suffers from poverty, springs into prominence at a time of national affluence. Its backers argue that it is shameful that the "haves" in a prosperous society should tolerate poverty for the "have nots," even a comparative few.

COMPARATIVE FEW
The chief spokesman for the government-guaranteed income is Robert Theobald, a British economist. He has won considerable backing in this country in the last three years.

The chief opposition to the idea, repeated over and over again in letters to congressmen and in the public prints, is based on the feeling that a man should not be paid for not working.

FURTHER STUDY
President Johnson sent to Congress in January a report of his Council of Economic Advisors, which said, among other things, that the guaranteed income idea is worthy of further study.

"Such a system," the President's economists said, "could be integrated with the existing income tax system. It could be administered on a universal basis for all the poor and would be the most direct approach to reducing poverty."

A week later a presidential commission made the guaranteed annual wage one of its recommendations, to replace present welfare programs.

The guarantee proposal could cost up to $20 billion a year, and one commission member, Joseph A. Beirne, president of the Communications Workers Union, said he fears the report will gather dust in Congress because of the rising costs of the war in Viet Nam.

The White House does not appear to be pushing the idea, but does seem glad to have it thrown out for discussion.

Teeter-Totter Record Logged

PLYMOUTH, Mich. (AP) — A team from Schoolcraft College claims the world's record for keeping a teeter-totter going. They say their stint of 321 hours cracked a 300-hour record set by some California high school pupils.

Delta Forms New Firm To Manufacture Its Units

Joe D. Herbert, president of Delta Electric Corp., announced Saturday the formation of a new company to implement the fabrication of Delta's new line of oil well pump controls.

Named the Delta Electronic Manufacturing Co., the new subsidiary will be headed by Mike Craddock, who designed the circuits which are the "brains" of the controls.

Delta Electronic will be housed in the main plant on the Snyder Highway. A special sealed room has been built to provide a comfortable place, free from outside dirt, noise and other distractions, to house the manufacturing department and its expanded staff of assemblers.

Herbert could not say how many technicians would be required to fill the present and anticipated demand for the controls.

"We are certain that several persons will find a job with us within a short time," the Delta president said.

Big Spring's newest industry, thus, may provide employment for a number of residents who might well be women since women adapt themselves to fine work readily.

Hughes' Airline Stock Sale Historical For Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP)—Financier Howard Hughes will sell his more than 6 1/2 million shares of Trans World Airlines stock, making Wall Street history.

The stock-offering plan was made Friday through his wholly-owned Hughes Tool Co. of Houston.

Hughes Tool owns 6,384,937 TWA common shares valued at more than $500 million and representing a 75.18 per cent interest in the airline.

LARGEST BLOCK
The stock placed on registration with the Securities and Exchange Commission will be the largest block of stock offered by an investment banking syndicate managed by one concern—Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith.

Charles Tillinghast Jr., TWA president, said "public ownership of the company, which has been an avowed objective of management since 1961, will remove any doubt that TWA will continue to move forward."

VOTING RIGHTS
The voting rights to Hughes Tool's TWA stock has been held since 1960 by trustees at the insistence of creditors who put up money for Hughes Tool to buy aircraft for TWA.

Hughes Tool has been involved in litigation with lenders and TWA management ever since with Hughes in the background despite efforts to get him into court.

Hughes ignored court orders to appear. In 1960, Hughes Tool borrowed $165 million to finance purchase of jet aircraft. The lenders insisted, that it give up

The lenders and the revamped management sued Hughes and Hughes Tool for $115 million, alleging violation of antitrust laws. Hughes Tool came back with a $366 million counter-claim. Litigation continues.

Hughes has had phenomenal careers in movie making, airplane and missile building and finance, and has made headlines with plane crashes and Hollywood romances.

His industrial holdings are estimated to be worth nearly $1 billion.

BACKSTOP GOING UP
Workers welding as new softball backstop begins to take shape

Campus-Park Project Begins Taking Shape

By TOM BARRY

Beautification is moving apace at the Lakeview School Park Campus and at Moss Creek Lake, according to Johnny Johansen, parks director.

At Lakeview, fencing has been put up along the west side and south side, and is mostly complete along the east side of the park campus. The chain-link fencing will be about six feet high, Johansen said.

SCHOOL TOO

The school itself has taken the initiative for putting up the same kind of fencing around the front lawn of the school, and putting in steps and sidewalks from the street level.

Also being rapidly erected is the new back-stop for the softball field at the campus. It will be in the same place as the old wire back-stop, but will be much bigger and better-designed, Johansen said.

"The hard-surfaced multiple-games area is moving along nicely," the parks director said. "It will have an asphalt surface, whether hot mix or cold. I don't yet know, but the children will be able to play tennis, volleyball or basketball and perhaps other games on it when it is finished."

The "multiple-games area" is located about 217 feet south of the baseball field's new home plate, and will itself be surrounded by a high fence to contain lofted tennis balls or volleyballs, Johansen said.

SPROUTING
The trees which Lakeview School children helped to finance and plant are sprouting now.

The bushy area to the southwest of the school has been cleared, leaving a park-like effect, with plenty of trees remaining for shade, Johansen said.

"We have ordered picnic tables, and they should be put in within a few days," Johansen declared.

"Over at Moss Creek, Skeet Forsythe (street superintendent) has planted two cottonwood trees that were given to the city," he continued.

The two trees were given to the city by Bob Reed, of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home, Johansen said.

"We dug them up and took them to the city warehouse, and asked Skeet to have them planted at Moss Creek Lake." The two trees were placed, one just below the "block house" on the south side of the lake, and the other on a little island just off the pavilion on the lake's south side.

Also new at the lake are five willow trees planted along the shore line by Ikie Rupert, the new lake manager.

Plans are also afoot this year to build a new pier at Moss Creek Lake, but work has not yet started.

"The two cottonwood trees are not the first we've had given to us," Johansen said. "Last year we got lots of good arbor vines from people, and we put them in the overnight rest park at City Park."

MIMOSA TREE
"And we got a beautiful Mimosa tree from a lady, which we put in the Mimosa Garden section of City Cemetery."

"And on the lake, last year we were given two large mulberry trees, which were planted by the east pavilion," he continued. "Another big mulberry which was in the way at the warehouse, we dug up and planted by the new pavilion. It gave us shade last year."

Johansen said the parks department will be glad to take any trees which local folk want to give away, and said the department will transplant them in the parks system where they will give shade and beauty.

"We'll take anything," Johansen said, "except elm trees. Those things have to be sprayed, they're so susceptible to disease, and they're too much trouble to care for generally."

DEAR ABBY

Advance Planning

DEAR ABBY: I know it is customary to play a loved one's favorite hymn at his funeral when he passes on. For my husband it would be "Jesus Wants Me for a Sunbeam," which he loves to sing about 3 o'clock in the morning after a night of living it up. But to commemorate his great love for dancing, would it be terribly wrong for me to have them play "The Woodchopper's Ball" at such a time?

HIS SWINGING PARTNER

DEAR PARTNER: As long as your husband is still "living it up," I doubt if he is dying to have you select a funeral hymn at this time.

DEAR ABBY: I have nine children... three from my first husband who is now deceased, three from his first wife (also now deceased), and three by my present husband. I get $400 a month insurance, a little VA compensation, and I make pretty good money working out. My husband is an auto mechanic, and he should make good money, too, but he never seems to have any. When he does work for women, he forgets to charge them for it. He kept telling me he was keeping a car in shape for a guy named

Steve. "Steve" turned out to be a waitress named Arlene. She came to his shop and dropped off four dozen brownies she had baked for him. I told him I could work for brownies, I could keep all my own income. I'd like your opinion. MAD

DEAR MAD: It seems to me that your playboy mechanic is working for both brownies and

Co-Op Hangs Up Record Quarter

Cap Rock Electric Cooperative metered 6,988,090 KWH to its members during March and thus set an all-time record for the first quarter. The three-month total was 18,788,087, which compared with 16,596,842 for the first quarter of last year. The March power deliveries were up from the 5,422,307 for February and the 5,897,300 for March of 1965.

At the end of March there were 2,526 miles of line energized, a gain of seven for the month and up 46 over a year ago. There were 5,838 members connected, an increase of 23 for the month and was 204 more than the same time a year ago.

bunnies. Tell him to sweeten the family pot or you'll have to sweep him out of the house. But hang on to your job. You have responsibilities that your husband seems unwilling to share.

DEAR ABBY: My roommate met a fellow at a dance. (I'll call him "Worm.") Anyway, Worm gave my roommate a big push, and she liked him a lot. She continued to date other boys. One evening when my roommate was busy, Worm asked me out, and I went. Then he asked me for another date which I accepted because by this time I was starting to like him. Then Worm dated my roommate again. I know she still likes him, and so do I. My question: If Worm asks me out again, should I go? Do you think he is using me to make my roommate jealous? Or is he dating HER to make me jealous?

WONDERING

DEAR WONDERING: What difference does it make? If a girl suspects that a fellow is using her to make another girl jealous, she goes with him anyway, she is a bit of a "worm" herself. (An angle worm.)

Tax Office Will Be Open Extra Day To Assist Filers

The Internal Revenue Service office at 1009 Gregg will be open an additional day this week to give area residents who have not yet filed their income tax returns a chance to do so.

Joe Gordon, district manager, said that the office would be open Monday as usual from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and Friday, April 15, the deadline for filing returns, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Gordon said that much assistance could be given over the telephone and any questions that might arise in filing returns should be directed to the office. He also stressed the importance of putting the taxpayer's social security number on the return. "Many times returns must be sent back because of this," he said. "It takes so little time to make certain that all parts of the forms are complete."

Gordon said that an estimated one-third of the residents who will file returns in Big Spring have not yet filed.

Sheffield Due Early Parole

AUSTIN (AP)—B. R. Sheffield of San Saba, sentenced to six years in a case growing out of the Texas Veterans Land scandals in the 1950s, is one routine step away from parole after only 14 months in prison.

Jack Ross, a member of the pardons board, said Saturday the group recommended Sheffield's parole "two or three weeks ago" and that Gov. John Connally approved the recommendation.

"The board is in the process of a field investigation of Sheffield's release plan," Ross said. "If the plan is satisfactory, and it is reasonable to assume it will be, Sheffield will be released in approximately two weeks."

Sheffield was convicted in 1956 in Lubbock and drew a 10-year sentence. That conviction was overturned and he was granted a new trial. He was convicted in 1961 in Hillsboro and got six years on charges he made a false and forged acknowledgment to an instrument in writing concerning a real estate title.

BIG SPRING OFFICER TAKES OVER ATTACK SQUADRON COMMAND
Cdr. Barkley Wood (left) and predecessor share ceremonial cake

Big Springer To Command Squadron On USS Saratoga

Commander Thomas Barkley Wood, U.S. Navy, who grew up in Big Spring and is the son of Mrs. W. E. Ezzell and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Shine Phillips, now commands a reconnaissance attack squadron aboard the USS Saratoga.

He relieved Cdr. C. L. Chute March 20 as commanding officer of RUAH-12. The traditional change of command ceremony took place on board the USS Saratoga (CVA-60) while anchored in Charlotte Amalie Harbor, St. Thomas, Virgin Islands. Guests included Rear Adm. G. P. Koch, commander of Carrier Division Six; Rear Adm. G. R. Larocque, commander of Cruiser Destroyer Flotilla Twelve; Capt. H. F. Lang, Saratoga's commanding officer and Cdr. G. C. (Bull) Walker (star football player for SMU in the 40's), commander of Attack Carrier Air Wing Three.

Cdr. Wood's squadron flies the RA-5C Vigilante, a highly sophisticated all-weather reconnaissance attack aircraft with superionic capability. It is comprised of some 275 officers and men and six aircraft. When not aboard an aircraft carrier, they are shore-based at Naval Air Station, Sanford, Fla. The squadron is part of Attack Carrier Air Wing Three which is presently operating from the USS Saratoga and is en route to the Mediterranean Sea to join the Sixth Fleet.

The assignment as commanding officer of a carrier-based squadron is an operational billet which includes active flying and carries with it the full responsibility for the safety and performance of all officers (21) and men (245) assigned to the squadron. Competition for such a billet is extremely keen.

"I feel extremely fortunate, grateful and honored to have received the billet," observed Cdr. Wood. "In a sense, it is the peak in the career of an operational naval aviation aviator for it will be his last assignment to flying off a carrier—and there is no greater thrill or sense of accomplishment in aviation—unless he is fortunate enough to later command a carrier air wing."

His pride in this new respon-

C-City Rites For Corine Thompson Set For Today

COLORADO CITY—Mrs. Corine Thompson, 54, of Colorado City, died in the Root Memorial Hospital early Thursday morning after an illness of several weeks.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2:30 p.m. in the Mt. Olive Baptist Church with the Rev. Ray Thomas of Hobbs, N. M., officiating. Burial will be in the Mitchell County Cemetery under direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home.

Mrs. Thompson was born in Clarksville June 4, 1911, came to Colorado City in 1941, and married T. L. Thompson. She was a member of the Mt. Olive Baptist Church.

Survivors are her husband; two sons, Leon Devorce of Ft. Sill, Okla., and Leroy of Colorado City; seven brothers, Perry Dawson of Clarksville, Willie of Colorado City, Murman and E. D. of Abilene, R. C. of Deatur, Chancy of Pomona, Calif., and Travis of Lawton, Okla., and six grandchildren.

sibility is exceeded only by that he has in his men.

"I have been and still am proud of the performance of our American men—particularly the young ones," he said. "They are not hoods, ne'er do wells or lazy bums as some writers say. When given the opportunity, they perform in an outstanding manner under most adverse conditions — 12 hour working days (sometimes 14-16 when at sea), seven days a week and still have excellent spirit."

Cdr. Wood attended the Big Spring public school system and graduated from Big Spring High School in 1944. While in high school he played football under Pat Murphy and John Dibrell and was a member of the tennis team four years. In his senior year, he was president of the Student Council.

In 1945 he entered the Naval Academy as an appointee of Rep. George Mahon of the 19th congressional district. Graduating in 1949, he underwent flight training and received his wings in 1951. Cdr. Wood's duty stations have included: Fighter Squadron 24 on the USS Boxer and USS Yorktown from 1951-54, flying 53 combat missions during the Korean War from the Boxer in F9F-2 Panther jets; jet fighter flight instructor at NAS Chase Field, Beaufort, Texas; general line school,

ABClub Learns About Cosden's Chemical Work

Jerry Jenkins, welcomed facetiously as a member long overdue for a visit, provided the American Business Club with its program for its noon luncheon at the Settles Hotel.

Jenkins, a department manager with the Cosden Oil and Chemical Co., who has made several business trips overseas, spoke briefly on chemical processes developed by his concern, after which a color film on Cosden's Petro-chemical complex was screened for the Ambucs.

Jenkins was introduced by program chairman Bill Bradford.

The club's attendance contest roared into its second week, with the issue among four teams still very much in doubt. The contest continues for another four weeks.

Assignments on the club's campaign to sell advertising space for the program of next month's Big Spring Rodeo and Cowboy Reunion were made. The club prexy, Dr. Robert H. Johnson, reminded that the sales campaign would have to be a virtual blitz if maximum results were to be obtained.

Darrell Pittman and Gerald Wooten were presented with credentials as new members. Mike Holmes, Marshall Sprull, Ronnie Wooten, John Bennett and Calvin Clark were introduced as guests.

The motion by Jack Henry versus Clyde Reno, et al for a rehearing before the 11th District Court of Civil Appeals has been overruled by the court. The case was on appeal from the Mitchell County.

Choir Concert Is May 9, Ceramic Show Dates Set

By JOE PICKLE
We're having a hard time in settling on the correct date for the HCJC spring concert. At first it was changed to avoid conflict with the May 2 date of the high school band and choir concert. In noting this we had a typographical error — and if it doesn't happen again, the correct date is Monday, May 9 at the HCJC auditorium.

Perhaps this doesn't come directly under arts, but for those who are interested, the bluebonnets are in full bloom in the Central Texas and Highland Lakes country above Austin. The Chambers of Commerce at Lampasas, Burnet, Kingsland, Llano, Buchanan Dam, etc., will be happy to suggest tours. For that matter, the bluebonnets are in bloom here, too, but for the most part, you see them in flower beds although the highway department has put some along the roadway, notably in the eastern sector.

May 21-22 has been set as the date for the 1966 West Texas Ceramic Show in the mall of Highland Shopping Center. There will be displays from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. the first day and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. on the second (a Sunday). There will be divisions for hobbyists, plus classes for glazes, underglaze, overglaze, stains, applied decoration. Christmas items, glass, porcelain, originals in clay, lighted articles, and works of students 18 and under.

The Dallas Theatre Center will stage Shakespeare's classic tragedy, "Julius Caesar" at the Globe on the Odessa College campus during the Writers' Roundup, April 14-15-16. The production is under supervision of the noted director, Paul Baker. Admission is $1.50 and $2.50.

A group of Big Spring women interested in the possibilities of a Children's Little Theatre are going to visit with Carl Pistilli, director of Midland's Children's Little Theatre. They want to know what are some of the problems and his general appraisal of our potential. Scheduled for the trip are Mrs. Josh Burnett, Mrs. Harold Davis, Mrs. Connie Wade and Mrs. R. Davis. The Cultural Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce is gathering no moss in its promotion of interest in the plus qualities of life. The panel has polled all communication media for policies on cultural news, whom to contact, and other key information. This will be distributed in a week or two to clubs in the city and area.

Price is $1; students, and $1.50, adults, and proceeds benefit the scholarship fund.

Grand Jury To Return Tuesday

Wayne Burns, district attorney, said Saturday that none of the cases announced for presentation to the grand jury have been dropped and that no new complaints have been added.

The grand jury will convene Tuesday morning in 118th District Court. It was originally organized Jan. 25 and is being recalled. The members are Jeff L. Brown, foreman, E. C. Boatler, Ross H. Boykin, Mrs. Curtis Driver, Garner McAdams, Mrs. Joe Pickle, A. K. Guthrie, W. S. Posey, Mrs. Harold Hall, Horace Reagan, R. S. Galbraith and Ralph Gossett.

It is a customary practice to recall the grand jury which serves the court in the January term. Normally a grand jury in any of the other terms meets only one time. The January term, however, extends from January through June, and this requires, nearly each year, a second session by the grand jury at about this time of year.

More Cars Registered

There were approximately 800 more motor vehicles on the registration lists at the office of Zarah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector at close of business on April 1, than at the same date in 1965.

This is an estimate based on an average taken from car registrations for 1965.

Mrs. LeFevre said that her receipts for the sale of plates at the end of the business day April 1 (and the deadline for the acquisition of current year plates) was $474,999.02. The receipts at the close of business April 1, 1965, were $461,571.95. This shows a dollar gain of $13,337.07 for the current year.

In 1965, the records of Mrs. LeFevre's office show there were 26,218 motor vehicles registered. An average of $17.50 registration fee per car was reached by dividing this number into the dollars received.

If this average holds true, the $13,337.07 increase in receipts for the 1966 period ending April 1 shows 770 more motor vehicles wearing Howard County tags now than on this same date a year ago.

This would indicate the total registration would involve 29,981 motor cars.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Many Visitors Arrive At Airport During Week

By JERRY MONSON
Big Spring Aircraft reported mostly clear skies, warm temperatures and about 35 pilots venturing out at Howard County Airport this week. The Cherokee 140 of Big Spring Aircraft was up frequently, with Roy Smith, Bob Herring, Darroll Eaton and Frank Hardy, as was the Cherokee 180, with James Merrick, Don Lloyd and Darroll Eaton.

Club will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at Lamar's Restaurant, according to Mrs. Joyce Green, secretary.

Robert Lebkowsky flew Bill Pollard to Wichita Falls in the Comanche early in the week. Pollard was there to attend an automobile dealers meeting.

Up in Howard County Flying Club's airplanes this week were Keith Swim, on a cross-country in the Cherokee 180; and Jacky Romine, Zan Dawson, and Mrs. Fay Reed, up in the Colt.

Pioneer Natural Gas Company VIPs were in town this week to visit with Champ Rainwater, President C. I. Wall, and vice presidents M. B. Edquist and R. M. Curry flew in a Twin Beech Super 18.

Trans-Texas Airways local office reported a record in outboard air freight for March, the month included 204 inbound and 218 outbound.

Also in town were visitors from Tulsa, Okla., to see officials at Cosden Oil and Chemical Co. They flew in a Grumman Gulf Stream prop jet. Colorado Oil Co. officials were in and out of town this week, landing at the Howard County Airport in a converted A-26.

Trans-Texas Airways regional office in Houston reported a record figure of passengers for March—90,566. The new record figure was up 26.5 per cent over the 71,608 carried during March 1965, and was achieved without additional routes or operating authority.

Pat Petosky of Big Spring Aircraft flew to Lubbock with Curt Dotson this week in Howard County Flying Club's Colt. Gene Bronaugh picked up his commercial license and Curt Dotson completed his instructor's license this week and Robbie Sanders got his private license last week.

The recent visit of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson to the Big Bend National Park added emphasis to the need of an airport in the proximity of the park, according to Charles Murphy, director of the Texas Aeronautics Commission.

Murphy said that the TAC was now working with the National Parks Service in an effort to establish a first-class airport adjacent to the Big Bend park such as are found at Grand Canyon and Yellowstone.

Nearest airport to Big Bend is the Presidio County Airport, an old Army strip near Marfa, and from there it is 100 miles to the park.

LAMESA—Defense and disaster relief will be the subject of a three-hour conference to be conducted in Lamesa Wednesday night.

The conference will be held at the Forrest Park Community Center beginning at 7 p.m. Registration will begin at 6:30 p.m.

C. A. Taylor, Lamesa city manager, said the conference would include 10 counties in this area. County judges and commissioners, mayors and councilmen, Civil Defense directors, members of city and county government services, school officials, and business and industrial leaders are expected to attend.

Other information that is valuable to the community in normal times or during periods of stress and tension.

Taylor commented, "This information will be of value in disaster from natural causes, or in the event of nuclear chaos." The program includes a demonstration on the effects of radiation, the development of shelter in new school construction, organization for defense and disaster relief, and the channels for obtaining state and federal assistance when it might be needed.

ONE OF 20 MEETS

The conference, one of 20 being conducted throughout the state, is presented in an interesting and educational form through the use of films and color slides. It is conducted by the Civil Defense training staff of Texas A&M University's Engineering Extension Service in cooperation with the State Office of Defense and Disaster Relief, Texas Department of Public Safety.

Participating in the conference will be Dr. W. R. Bodine, Gus White and Larry Fisher, all of Texas A&M University; and John Christian, training specialist, and Kenneth Tooley, public information officer, both of the State Office of Defense and Disaster Relief.

Boy Friend Of Heiress Freed

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A youth who ran away with a teenage heiress was released from jail after her mother declined to prosecute.

Edith (Dee Dee) Jenkins, 15, an heiress to the J.C. Penney fortune, turned herself in Friday to police in San Diego after a two-week absence from her home in nearby Del Mar.

Her boy friend, Don Collins, 19, was with her when police picked them up. He was held a brief time Friday, said Sheriff's Capt. Warren Kanagy.

Job Service For Alumni

DALLAS (AP)—Electronic data processing of job applications from Southern Methodist University is now making possible the dissemination of their qualifications to employers with computer speed at a cost of only $10 per applicant.

Known as the GRAD system, the new process provides employers with a means of considering the qualifications of thousands of candidates within seconds.

Purpose of the new service is to save SMU alumni seeking employment the frustrating, time-consuming business of circulating resumes to employers and then having to wait for calls or letters.

Vacant Theater Swept By Blaze

SNYDER (SC)—A fire which swept through the old Palace Theater, 2611 Avenue "S", Saturday morning caused an estimated thousands of dollars damage and attracted all paid and volunteer firemen from here and Colorado City. The theater was closed and vacant, and no one was injured in the blaze. Officers are still investigating the cause.

They reported it to Lt. Butch Martin at the Central Fire Station, who called W. H. Grant, manager of the building, to open the door to the theater.

VOLUNTEERS HELP

Police set up barricades on area streets to protect passing motorists from fire hoses, and Texas Electric Service Company workers shut off all area power to guard against fallen lines.

Volunteers from the crowd helped fight the blaze and to carry records and property from the Senteil Insurance Agency on the south side of the theater. There was some smoke damage throughout the adjoining firms, but all buildings, including the theater, are covered by insurance. The fire was still smoldering Saturday afternoon.

Owners of the theater, Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Clements, were out-of-town. Mrs. T. L. Lollar, also an owner, came into Snyder to survey the damage.

PREVENT SPREAD

Firemen prevented the fire from spreading to five other firms as four pumper trucks from Snyder and a stand-by truck from Colorado City helped to fight the blaze.

The fire apparently had been burning for several hours before the smoke became visible. Workers on a drive-in building for the West Texas State Bank and Mrs. N. R. Clements, were first noticed what appeared to be spray or dust coming from an air conditioner at the southwest corner of the building.

MARK OF THE VANDAL
One of 12 plate glass windows shattered by rock-throwing thugs

Rock-Hurling Vandals Break Stores' Panes

Rock-throwing vandals destroyed 13 plate glass windows in 10 business establishments Friday night. Damage was estimated by Police Chief Jay Banks at more than $2,000.

The vandals, the chief said, apparently drove along the streets in cars and tossed rocks varying in size from large pebbles to stones weighing up to a pound or more through windows selected at random.

GAPING HOLES

The majority of the glass hit by the raiders showed gaping holes Saturday and will have to be replaced.

Banks said that his officers are working on the case and will push ahead in efforts to identify the glassbreakers.

He said the places in town hit by the vandals were: Furr's Super Market, Eleventh Place; One Hour Martinizing, 2202 Gregg, two windows; Security State Bank, two windows; Hull and Phillips, 809 Scurry; Wacker's, Eleventh Place, three windows; Grant's, College Park Shopping Center;

Pinckie's, on East Third; and Gibson's on S. Gregg.

ALSO VICTIMIZED

Big Mike's Liquor store on the Snyder highway was also victimized. Sheriff's Deputy Lindy Oldfield said that the proprietor estimated the damage at this store at $150. Oldfield also said that another Pinckie's store, located on US 87, a short distance north of town, had been hit by the rockthrowers.

Chief Banks said that the rocks had been collected which caused the damage and appeared in general to be from a common source.

It was estimated the vandalism was staged after midnight Friday.

The shattered windows were reported when the stores were opened for business on Saturday morning.

Lynda Bird, Actor Said Not Engaged

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Lynda Johnson is wearing actor George Hamilton's "friendship" ring and the two are spending Easter weekend at the LBJ Ranch, but friends say no engagement is in sight.

Hamilton apparently gave the gold ring with a blue stone to the President's 22-year-old daughter some time ago and in recent days she's been seen wearing it interchangeably on ring fingers of both hands.

The two have been dating almost every weekend since last November, including chaperoned trips to Acapulco, the New Orleans Mardi Gras and Hollywood.

The tanned, handsome Hamilton, 26, and tall, dark-haired Lynda dined together at secluded Oak Hills Country Club outside San Antonio Friday night under the watchful eye of three Secret Service men.

Other guests said Lynda and Hamilton talked seriously over the dinner table and there was no dancing.

Hamilton flew into San Antonio in the early evening and Lynda met him at the airport.

After dining leisurely, they drove to the LBJ Ranch in Johnson City, 70 miles from here, where the Johnson family is spending the holidays.

Besides the President, Mrs. Johnson, Lynda and daughter Luci, 18, the family gathering includes Luci's fiancé, Patrick Nugent, and Nugent's sister-in-law, Mrs. Phyllis Carr Nugent, 25, wife of Pat's brother, Lt. Gerald Nugent, who is stationed in Viet Nam.

Peso Devaluation Birthday Noted

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Mexico, with one of the world's soundest currencies, recalled Saturday that it was on Easter eve 12 years ago that officials last devalued the peso.

The sudden devaluation in 1954 was one of the country's best-kept secrets.

The devaluation—from 8.65 pesos to the dollar to 12.50—caught the country by surprise, although still valued at 12.50 to the U.S. dollar, is solidly backed by a reported 955 millions of dollars in gold and reserves. It is considered one of the world's soundest currencies.

One Of Five Blast, Blaze Victims Dies

A messenger was dispatched deep into the jungles of the State of Guanajuato, Mexico, Saturday to carry news to the parents of Francisco Garcia Villegos, about 33, that their son had died in Big Spring on Friday evening.

A Catholic priest in the village of San Jose De Opatos, notified by River-Weich Funeral home here, that burns suffered March 28 had proved fatal to Villegos, said he would get word to the young Mexican national's relatives.

Truthfully Speaking...

By SI ADDINGTON

To be effective anywhere a man, first, has to be respected by his colleagues. There are 435 members of the House of Representatives and there are twenty standing committees. Each is very important as they were recommended by the Hoover Commission on re-vamping Congressional operations and were carried out by past administrations. Congressman OMAR BURLESON of Anson is chairman of the House Administration, second ranking member from the chairmanship of the House Foreign Affairs, chairman of Sub-Committee on Internal Security of Foreign Relations Committee and vice chairman of two joint House-Senate committees.

SEEK CONSUL

Meantime, River-Weich Funeral Home is endeavoring to contact the Mexican consul and find out what disposition to make of the victim's body.

Villegos was one of five Mexican nationals who suffered severe burns in a gas explosion on the morning of March 28. His four companions are in the Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital and making satisfactory recovery, it was said Saturday.

The explosion occurred in a small house on the L. B. Hoelscher farm near St. Lawrence. The five men had approached Hoelscher on the night of March 27 with a request they be allowed to spend the night in the small building. Granted permission, the five retired. Early the next morning, a blast occurred, almost demolishing the small house. The five men trapped inside were burned by the flash which accompanied the explosion.

BLAST FOLLOWS

Investigators said that it appeared the five, unfamiliar with the use of gas, had turned on the jets of the stove in the building and permitted the room to become filled with the gas. A match was struck and the blast followed.

The others were identified as Aranda Federico, 30; Felipe Vargas, 34; Ruben Sandoval, 29; and Liborio Sandoval, 31.

Oldfield said that the proprietor estimated the damage at this store at $150. Oldfield also said that another Pinckie's store, located on US 87, a short distance north of town, had been hit by the rockthrowers.

Chief Banks said that the rocks had been collected which caused the damage and appeared in general to be from a common source.

It was estimated the vandalism was staged after midnight Friday.

Rocky Seeks Third Term

NEW YORK (AP)—Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York has formally confirmed that he will seek reelection for his third term this fall.

Rockefeller, 57, said Friday he was running because of an obligation to follow through on legislative programs initiated during his administrations.

Rockefeller's announcement also removed any lingering doubt that he would seek the presidency again.

"I gave up on that," he said, referring to his unsuccessful bid for the GOP presidential nomination in 1964 against former Sen. Barry Goldwater.

Vessell Comes Off Mudbank

BOSTON (AP)—The guided missile frigate Wainwright escaped damage when she went aground in Boston harbor last Monday, the Navy reported.

The 547-foot ship, undergoing sea trials, touched bottom on a mudbank but cleared herself when the tide came in.

Congressman Bob Poage Praising Congressman OMAR BURLESON

at an appreciation dinner in Eastland last month had to say, and it makes sense to us; "Let's analyze what you, the voter, want in your congressman. First, you want him honest and to have character. There are lots of honest men who have character. Second, you want him reasonably intelligent and to have common sense. Lots of men have these characteristics. The one thing Congressman BURLESON has that no one else in this district, state or nation has is twenty years of seniority. He is in a position of power, and has used it effectively to represent this district."

Whether you like it or not seniority rules in Congress, in unions, and in large corporations. The seniority system has lots of flaws, but no one has ever come up with a better way of operating. It usually takes a new congressman a year to learn locations of different governmental offices and names of key personnel. It is usually four years before he can get off such committees as Merchant Marine and Fisheries or District of Columbia which do not serve this district. You gain power in Congress by working up through the ranks, shoveling dirt for older members and gaining their respect. Congressman OMAR BURLESON has done this.

Congressman Jake Pickle at the same dinner mentioned above, in explaining the trials and tribulations of a new congressman said: "Two years ago when I first went to Congress I was always going to vote my convictions, but it didn't take long to discover that my constituents had convictions. It so happens that the President of the United States is my constituent." Congressman OMAR BURLESON never forgets to represent the majority convictions of his constituents.

Of prime importance to Howard County, he has consistently supported the 27 1/2% oil depletion allowance and the restriction of oil imports; he voted for extending the bracero labor law; and the measure requiring the President to impose quotas on import of beef. A more detailed record of his voting can be picked up at Congressman OMAR BURLESON'S Big Spring campaign headquarters, 200 Camp Main street.

This is the first in a series of columns to acquaint you with Congressman OMAR BURLESON'S voting record, his influence and effectiveness in Congress and the man himself. After the facts are in we feel confident that you will re-elect him to Congress.

Cold War GI Benefits Outlined By VA Official

Veterans with more than 80 maximum periods. Individual days of active military duty discharged from the service since Jan. 31, 1955, have at least until March 3, 1976, to complete a GI home or farm loan under the new GI Bill, the Veterans Administration pointed out today.

The new law, bringing to veterans of the post-Korean period GI loan privileges hitherto available only to veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict, carries its own minimum deadline of 10 years after the actual signing of the bill on March 3, 1966, Jack Coker, manager of the VA regional office in Waco, said.

MAXIMUM
A maximum eligibility date of 20 years after discharge from the qualifying active service is also in the law. Veterans discharged because of service-connected disabilities will have the maximum 20-year entitlement. Between those minimum and maximum periods, individual veterans will reach the termination of their eligibility according to the following formula:

Add 10 years to the date of the last discharge from active service, plus one year for each three-month period of that service.
The veteran must hold a discharge other than dishonorable if released because of a service-connected disability, the service time may be less than the stipulated 180-plus days period.
The new law also benefits those servicemen who remain on active duty after completing at least two years of service. They may obtain VA guaranteed loans while still in the armed forces.
For a post-Korean veteran or serviceman, VA may guarantee a home loan made by a private lender up to $7,500 or 60 per cent of the loan, which ever is less.

FARM LOAN
For a farm real estate loan other than for the acquisition of a home, the guaranty may not exceed $4,000 or 50 per cent of the loan; and for non-real estate farm loans, the guaranty may not exceed $2,000, or 50 per cent of the loan.
This means that a lending institution will receive the government's guaranty which is intended to be in lieu of a down payment or to reduce the down payment which the lender normally requires.
The maximum amounts of entitlement apply to each person who qualifies under the new law. In other words, an individual who is eligible as a serviceman will not gain additional entitlement when he is released or separated from the service; further, an individual who can qualify as a post-Korean veteran and who later serves for 180 or more days will not receive additional entitlement for the later periods of service.
Loans may be for the purchase of homes; to make alterations, repairs or improvements in homes already owned and occupied; to purchase farms or farm supplies or equipment; to obtain farm working capital; or to refinance delinquent indebtedness on property to be used or occupied by the veteran as a home or for farming purposes.

POST-KOREA
The new GI Bill offers only guaranteed loans to post-Korean veterans and servicemen; insured loans are not authorized for such veterans and servicemen. Also, business loans are not authorized for individuals who qualify under the new GI Bill.
VA direct home loans will be available only for the purchase of homes and farmhouses in areas where such loans have been authorized. The maximum direct loan possible has been raised from $15,000 to $17,500. There is no maximum on the amount of a guaranteed loan.
All loans made or guaranteed by VA will bear interest at 5 1/2 per cent.
Under the new law, a one-time non-recurring fee, not to exceed one-half of one per cent of the loan amount must be paid to the VA before a guaranty certificate may be issued or before a direct loan is made. However, it may be included in the loan, but it cannot increase the maximum direct loan above $17,500.
Veterans eligible under the new law who still have unused and unexpired World War II or Korean Conflict entitlement will have their previous entitlement cancelled. However, should they obtain a guaranteed or direct loan during the period their cancelled entitlement would have been effective, they need not pay the statutory fee. They may also secure business loans during the period.
The entitlement of a post-Korean veteran or serviceman may be reduced if he has already used his World War II or Korean Conflict entitlement. However, under certain circumstances, entitlement previously used can be restored.
VA does not require a down payment. Lenders, however, may require down payments. Certificates of Eligibility or additional information may be secured from any VA regional office.

INCOME TAX

Must Pay Taxes Due When Return Is Filed

This column of questions and answers on tax matters is provided by the local office of the Internal Revenue Service. If answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.—ED.

Q. — I just worked out my income tax and I find that despite withholding, I still owe almost $100. Can I pay this off in installments?
A. — No. Any tax due must be paid when the return is filed. One way to avoid this situation in the future is to increase the amount of income tax withheld from your wages. Quarterly payments of estimated tax will also avoid large balances due when it comes time to file.
Q. — Where do I get all the forms that the tax return calls for? I need the one for moving expenses and the one for business expenses.
A. — These and other forms may be obtained at your local IRS office or by writing your District Director. Ask for Form 2106, "Statement of Employee Business Expenses" and Form 3903, "Moving Expense Adjustment." In many cases, forms are available at banks and post offices.
Q. — Are tuition and other costs for my son's parochial school a deductible item?
A. — No. The tax law does not allow a deduction for these educational expenses.
Q. — My husband left me and I don't know where he is. What should I do about a tax return? I have my own W-2.
A. — File a separate return until your marital status is cleared up.
Q. — I'm itemizing my deductions and want to claim the amount of interest included in the carrying charges on my mortgage accounts. How do I do that?
A. — To determine your interest charges where they are not stated separately from carrying charges, add up all your monthly unpaid balances as noted on each of your monthly statements. Divide this total by 12 and then take 6 per cent of the result.
Your interest deduction will be the lesser of that figure or the portion of the total carrying charge allocable to the year. To determine that portion, divide the carrying charge by the total number of monthly payments and then multiply the result by the number of months in the tax year.
Q. — I just moved and am not sure where I should file my return. My old district office has a record of my estimated tax payments. Should I file there or with my new district office?
A. — File the return with the district director serving you now. On line 17-b, page 1 of your return, print the district where your estimated tax was paid.

Q. — I was 65 last year. Does that mean I don't have to file a return?
A. — Returns are required for taxpayers 65 and over when gross income is $1,200 or more. Do not include Social Security benefits since they are not taxable. You should write to your District Director for the free IRS Publication, Document 5569, "Tax Benefits for Older Americans," which will help you with your return.
Q. — Because of a recent illness my doctor won't let me take a bus to work. Can I deduct my cab fares?
A. — No. Transportation expenses to and from work are considered personal expenses and are not deductible.
Q. — They put in a new sewer where I live and I was assessed for part of the cost. Is this deductible?
A. — The law generally does not permit deductions for local benefits that tend to increase the value of the property. You should capitalize the cost of your assessment, however, and add it to the cost of your property.
Q. — My son has an $800 scholarship for college. Will this affect my dependency deduction for him?
A. — An amount received as a scholarship by your child who is a student is not included in determining total support so you will be able to continue to claim him as a dependent if the other requirements are met.
Q. — I retired last year and have a pension from my company. Is it taxable?
A. — If the company paid the entire cost of the pension, the amounts you received will be taxable to you. If you paid part of the cost, then there will be a portion which will not be subject to tax and the remainder will be taxable.
If you will recover the amount of your contributions within three years after your first payment, your pension will not be taxed until you have recovered your cost. If you will not recover the amount of your contributions within the three years, a portion of the pension will be taxable each year. The percentage to use in figuring the taxable portion is obtained by dividing your net cost of the pension by the amount you expect to receive during the life of the pension contract. Additional information on this subject may be found in IRS Document No. 5018, "Retirement Income and Credit," available free at your local Internal Revenue Office.

Engineer Has Unusual Theory About Meteors

COLORADO CITY—It is a generally accepted theory that meteorites are from outer space; probably bits of cosmic waste, which from time to time, strike the earth and are recovered.

That's the general theory, but not the theory of John E. Kennedy, who is living at 828 Chestnut, Colorado City, Kennedy, an engineer employed by EBASCO, the construction contractor for the mammoth generator plant being built at Lake Colorado City by Texas Electric Service Co., has written a book on his ideas of what meteorites are and where they come from. He calls it "Birth of Tomorrow."

FAR AFIELD
And his idea is far afield from that of most students. His book, which he has put together in spare hours over a long period, has not been published and exists only in manuscript form. Ultimately, he hopes the book will be published.
Meantime, he has sent a copy to NASA, the government space research center in Houston. The book has reached the proper authorities, but no comment has yet been made on its contents.
In Kennedy's book, meteorites are the basic elements from which life originates on this planet. His theory deals with natural transistors, which he thinks abound in the universe and in the interplay of electrical impulses generated by these devices.
This is not Kennedy's initial experiment in authorship. He has also written a book dealing with the problem of cancer and his way of coping with it. Like the newer manuscript, this book has not yet been printed.

PUSHES PLANS
Kennedy plans to push ahead with his literary efforts. He hopes that he will find a publisher for his current effort. Meantime, "Birth of Tomorrow" is still in typescript form. The Kennedys have loaned the manuscript to numerous friends for appraisal. The novel approach has always caused comment.

ENTERTAINER

Originally from West Virginia, Kennedy has travelled widely over the U.S. In addition to the work he does as an engineer, his original career was that of entertainer. Under the name Tex Carson, Kennedy formerly had a dance band which became quite well known. He formed the band while he was a student in UCLA.
Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy are intensely interested in many topics. Meteorites are just one of the things that catch their interest.
Mrs. Kennedy formerly sang professionally as Judy Carson. She started her career as a singer with her husband's band. They married when she was 14. Later she was in the films for a time and played in several Tarzan epics, and she also appeared in "Down to Earth," with Rita Hayworth, and in "Hoodlum Priest," with Don Murray.
Kennedy has cut records for both RCA and Crystak and has several songs to his credit.
Mrs. Kennedy says that she completed her high school education after the birth of her first child. They have been married 22 years, she says, and are the

Jacobs, Nicklaus Tied For Lead In Masters

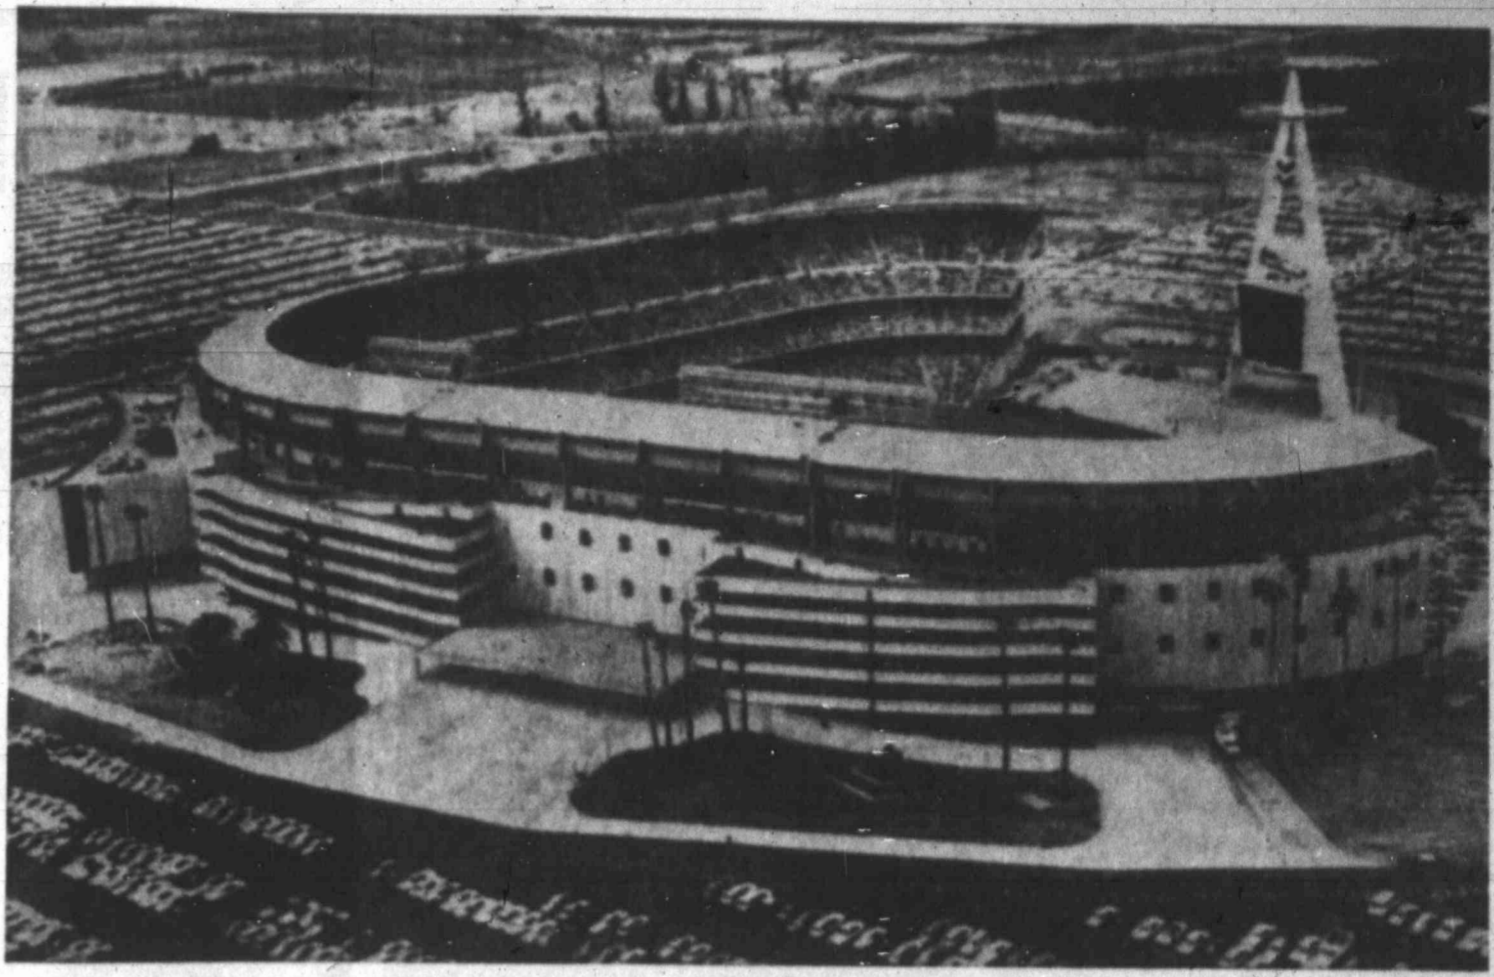

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Baby-faced Tommy Jacobs came charging out of the pack and tied defending champion Jack Nicklaus for the third round lead in the Masters Golf Tournament with an even par 216 Saturday, but the loudest cheers went to a great champion out of the past, Ben Hogan.

Nicklaus' late blowup removed all the red numbers — the color designating sub-par performances — from all the big scoreboards dotting the 6,980-yard course.

Tied In Masters They Hope To Repeat

Forty-three-year-old Ben Hogan, who has won two Masters championships, watches on 18th green as Arnold Palmer, 36-year-old four-time winner, lines up putt in Saturday's third round play at Augusta, Ga. Playing in the same twosome, Hogan and Palmer tied at 218, two over par for the 54 holes, two strokes behind leaders Tommy Jacobs and Jack Nicklaus. (AP WIREPHOTO)

CHICAGO (AP) — Ernie Terrell, Chicago's Luckless holder of the World Boxing Association heavyweight title, may be headed for a brighter ring future, including a possible championship match in Houston's AstroDome.

Dietzel Failed To Rally Army

NEW YORK (AP) — Army now is paying off for a radical and controversial move it made four years ago — paying off with interest.

Cook is a metallurgist turned baseball scientist, and he's written a $9.95 book, "Percentage Baseball," in which he expounds some revolutionary ideas that strike at some of the most worshipped institutions in the game.

Finally, after LSU had whipped Colorado, Dietzel made the break. The move aroused bitterness in Louisiana and elsewhere, triggering threats of a legal fight over Dietzel's contract and possible Congressional action.

Such a bout at Toronto Maple Leaf Garden in mid-May was proposed by Harold Ballard, the arena's executive vice president.

So, the Dietzel era at Army, which was launched with bright hopes of glory and lumbered through four seasons of mediocrity, ended on a painful note.

Terrell is interested, and I'm hopeful the bout can be arranged," Ballard was quoted.

Bulldogs Grab Title In Inaugural Relays

By TOMMY HART
COAHOMA — Coahoma, getting masterful efforts from Mike Mosley and its mile relay team, came on strong in the final few events to win the team championship in the first annual Bulldog Relays here Friday night.

Spike Dykes charges, nearing a climax to a sensational athletic year for the Howard County school, wound up with a total of 96 points to 79 for runnerup Abilene Woodson, an All-Negro school.

Third was Eldorado with 70 points while Ballinger was fourth, with 45.

Just to give the crowd a hint that he can run masterfully at any distance, Mosley entered the 400 rather than the half-mile and breezed to a 49 second clocking, finishing all alone at the tape. Only four high school boys in the state have done as well this spring. In the final event of the evening, Mike — son of a former athletic coach — anchored Coahoma's splendid mile relay team to a winning 3:25.1 effort. The Bulldogs probably would have done even better in that event had they been pushed. Other members of the foursome are Johnny Gibson, Wayne Oglesby and Marshall Williams.

The Bulldogs have qualified nine boys for Regional and in this meet, although finished in cool weather, gave them the warm-up they needed to hone their muscles and whet their appetite for bigger things to come.

A dual winner in the meet was Winters' Leroy Kettler, who sprinted a 9.9 century and then won the 220 in 22.3 seconds.

A total of 18 teams, including two which failed to score,

LOOKING 'EM OVER

Open Is June 11

By TOMMY HART

If the impending bond issue passes, For-san is going to get a fieldhouse for its foot-ball oval and a regulation-size cinder track . . .

TONY BUTLER

Right now, the For-san athletes are racing on a track with a caliche base that is slightly less than 400 yards in length . . . Since the Buffaloes will be playing 11-man football. Officials, figure the new facil-school officials ities are due . . . The Buffs will also have their own ath-letic bus this fall . . . The vehicle, now being reconditioned in Lubbock, will seat about 44 and will have reclining seats . . . There's a lot of talk in professional football ranks that Floyd Little of Syracuse will become the game's first million-dollar bonus rookie . . . Little plays his final season of collegiate ball for the Orangemen next season . . . The Hous-ton Astros' season ticket sales have already ex-ceeded $2 million . . . Pat Murphy of Big Spring, who played for the fellow back in the early 20's, is planning to attend the party for Pete Shotwell in Abilene May 19 . . . Miller Harris, the one-time Howard County sheriff, also performed under Shotwell, as did Chesty Walker, the one-time Phillips mentor who later went to the state of Washington . . . Shotwell is a living legend in athletics and a reunion with his former players is long overdue . . . In event you've wondered, umpires in the major leagues draw up to $22,000 and now have a good pension plan . . . The radio net-work covering NFL games of the Dallas Cow-boys next season will probably include 25 sta-tions, about double the number it had last year . . . Bob Dickson of Oklahoma State, probably the best known collegian golfer (his father competed in the first annual Big Spring Open), ranks no better than second in scoring averages on his school's team with a 71.5 norm . . . Hugh Edgmon's 71.3 average is rated first.

The fourth annual Big Spring Golf Open will be staged at the Country Club here June 11-12, with entry fees the same as last year—$25 per team in the Open division and $15 per team in the True Amateur class . . . Play will again be over 36 holes . . . Tom South will serve as tournament director . . . Defending titlists in the meet are Wendy Green and Benny Burleson, both of Midland . . . The Georgia Tech-Tennessee football game next Oct. 8 will be televised nationally . . . Since the date coincides with the World Series, the starting hour of the contest likely will be moved back . . . Georgia Tech has already ap-peared in 16 nationally-televised games, 12 of which it has won . . . Tough Tony Butler of Coahoma will appear in the 1966 Texas Coaches Association's All-Star football game, the second Bulldog in two years to rate the honor . . . The first was Eddie McHugh, now of San Angelo State College . . . Butler, who was born in Prague, Okla., averaged eight yards per carry (1,527 yards all told) and scored 125 points his senior year . . . In case you're planning on following Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus in that May 16 Midland golf ex-hibition, the gate fee will be $20—only 600 tickets will be sold . . . Of the $12,000 take, the pros will get $7,000, splitting it right down the middle . . . Palmer and Nicklaus will give a 30-minute golf clinic starting at 12 noon and will start their round at 1 o'clock . . . Coa-homa's Bulldogs, which dominated the District 6-A track and field meet in Abilene last week, would have done even better had not star hurdler Bobby Weaver fallen in his speciality . . . Jerry Quarry of California is being built up as the ring's new "white hope" but don't be surprised if Joe Frazier is not the next Heavyweight boxing champion of the world . . . San Angelo scribe Bob Milburn has dubbed the 1966 Central football team the "Avengeing Bobcats" while in Alabama coach Paul (Bear) Bryant of the Crimson Tide is extorting his gridders to become the first NCAA team in history to win three national championships in a row—and here it is only April.

Big Spring Representatives

Members of the Big Spring High School golf left, they are Larry Redman, Danny Cien-denia, Rickey Olsen, Lewis, Mike Weaver, Randy Nicholson and Mike Hall.

Odessa Permian Near 2-AAAA Golf Crown

Odessa Permian gained a stroke on San Angelo and nine on Odessa High at the Big Spring Country Club here Friday to take a giant stride toward the District 2-AAAA golf championship.

After four rounds of competi-tion, the four-man Permian team has an aggregate score of 1,247 strokes, compared to 1,256 for runner-up San Angelo and 1,259 for third place Odessa High.

The title will be determined next Friday in Abilene and San Angelo faces an uphill fight in trying to make up nine strokes on the group of Steady-Eddies from Permian.

Big Spring beat Abilene Cooper for the second week in a row but couldn't rally enough strength to move out of the cellar. The Longhorns now trail the Cougars by eight strokes in the scrap for seventh place.

Midland Lee produced the medalist for the day in Terry Jastrow, who toured the course in 33-41-74, two strokes better than any one else in contention. Jastrow has now become a definite threat for medal honors over the season.

Three linksters are now tied for first place over 72 holes, each with a 304. They are Con Hartman of San Angelo, who skied to an 80 Friday. Leonard Cochran, Odessa High, who fas-hioned a 78 at the local course; and Ronnie Leverich of Per-mian, who settled for a 76 Fri-day.

ODESSA PERMIAN—Ronnie Leverich 39-37-76; Sanford Gibbs 39-41-80; Mike Jones 40-42-82; Tommy Williams 38-41-81. (317-1247). Fifth player—Steve Thompson 42-40-82. SAN ANGELO—Con Hartman 39-41-80; Steve Wordlaw 39-41-80; Jack Mar-tine 39-40-79; John Shepperson 39-40-79. (318-1256). Fifth player—John Hart 39-42-82. MIDLAND HIGH—Leonard Cochran 40-38-78; Bobby Corson 39-39-78; Pancho Mc-Nabb 42-40-81; Billy Stewart 40-41-81. (126-1259). Fifth player—Billy Hignies 44-42-82. Four Low Scorers

The four boys who are dominating medalist play in the District 2-AAAA golf race are pictured above. From the left, they are Con Hartman, San Angelo, 304 for 72 holes; Ronnie Leverich, Odessa Permian, 304; Leonard Cochran, Odessa High, 304; and John Shepperson, San Angelo, 305. Terry Jastrow, Midland Lee, medalist here Friday with a 74, is also in contention with a 308. (Photos by Danny Valdes)

John Shepperson of San Angelo, with a 79 Friday, is one stroke off the winning pace.

The real battle next week will be for second place, since only three strokes separate San An-gelo and Odessa High. The top two teams in the standings be-come eligible for regional play. Bill Stewart of Odessa, who had been in contention for med-al honor, blew to an 87 Friday and now has a 317 aggregate. The wind was a definite fac-

Milt Woodard Will Quit Post As Pro Loop Aide

NEW YORK (AP)—Milt Woodard, assistant commis-sioner of the American Football League, will resign his position shortly and move to Florida to handle nonport business inter-ests. However, Woodard plans to remain with the AFL as a consultant and secretary-treas-urer. Woodard, 52, a former Chicago newspaper man, notified the league's executive committee of his plans three months ago and told the owners he was not a candidate for commissioner if any change was made. He of-fered to remain as a consultant on a part time basis, however. It is expected that Woodard will continue in office until about June 1. The high command of the AFL was shuffled at the Houston meetings this week. Joe Foss resigned as commissioner, and Al Davis, who had been coach and general manager of the Oakland Raiders, was named as his successor. Earlier Al Ward had resigned as publicity director and moved to the Dallas Cowboys of the National Football League. Jack Horrigan, director of special projects, will leave the league June 1 to join the Buffalo orga-nization, owned by Ralph Wilson, AFL president.

Big League Debuts May Lure 320,000

By The Associated Press

Atlanta and Anaheim are big league, Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale are filthy rich and Mickey Mantle still is a $100,000 pinch hitter as the baseball season opens.

If the weather man behaves Monday and Tuesday the two-day program in 10 cities should attract about 320,000 curious fans. The largest turnout, 50,983, is expected to jam Atlanta's new stadium for the Braves' debut against Pittsburgh Tues-day night.

When Koufax and Drysdale finally agreed to let Walter O'Malley keep Chavez Ravine and signed for $240,000, the Las Vegas odds-makers quickly shuffled the morning line to re-establish the Los Angeles Dod-gers as favorites in the National League. They can't agree on the American League race, making the defending champion Min-nesota Twins and the Baltimore Orioles the co-favorites.

SIX CHANGES Six new or slightly used man-agers will be arguing with um-pires, matching brain waves and juggling talent. Casey Sten-gel, safe in the Hall of Fame, will be home in California scouting the league for the New York Mets.

Leo Durocher is back after 11 years as a coach, television star and bon vivant, and resumes his managerial career with the Cubs in Chicago where his cross-town rival will be Eddie Stanky, an old sidekick who has succeeded Al Lopez with the White Sox.

Alvin Dark, another of Leo's boys with the New York Giants, is the new boss at Kansas City and Wes Westrum, another member of the club, has moved up from acting manager to official manager of the Mets.

Don Heffner, a minor league manager for years and more recently a coach of the Mets under Stengel, is the new skip-ter at Cincinnati and Grady Hatton has taken over in the dome at Houston.

The map of baseball constant-ly is being redrawn. This year is no exception. The restless Braves, forced to remain in Mil-waukee a year longer than they wanted, finally will open in Atlanta after a long legal battle. The California Angels, known previously as the Los Angeles Angels, are moving into their new park at Anaheim, a whoop and a holler from Disneyland.

MID-MAY OPENER St. Louis also will have a new park ready in mid-May but the Cardinals will open in old Busch Stadium and play their first 11 home games in that ancient arena with its handy right field pavilion.

Ford Frick has left the scene and William D. Eckert, a re-tired Air Force general, has taken his place as commis-sioner. Eckert spent the spring in Florida, warming up for many opening day ceremonies.

Mantle, still unable to throw after undergoing surgery on his right shoulder during the winter, is strictly a pinch hitter with the Yankees but other al-ling members of the cast appear to have made comebacks.

Robin Roberts, carried as a Houston coach on the winter roster, has found his arm so strong that he will be the opening day pitcher for the Astros. Roger Maris is swinging the bat again for the Yanks after miss-ing most of 1965. Pittsburgh's Vern Law appears to be sound again but the Yanks' Jim Bouton has been having problems finding his fast ball. Al Kaline of Detroit is feeling frisky after an operation on his foot.

The rookie crop appears about average. Houston is high on shortstop Socny Jackson and the Yanks think they have found help in outfielder Roy White, shortstop Bobby Murcer and pitcher Fritz Peterson.

Cincinnati likes Tommy Helms so much that the Reds have revised their infield, mov-ing All-Star second baseman Pete Rose to third base and Deron Johnson to the outfield.

George Scott, up from the Eastern League, has beaten out highly touted Joe Foy, in a bat-tle of rookies for third base with Boston. Tommy Age is being called, perhaps with too much enthusiasm, another Willie Mays by some White Sox ob-servers.

COUNTS ON KERNEK

Red Schoendienst is counting on George Kernek, a rookie from the Jacksonville farm, to fill Bill White's shoes at St. Louis. Fred Valentine has won a regular outfield job with Wash-ington and Baltimore's opening day catcher will be Andy Eiche-barren, a newcomer from Roch-ester. The Angels think Rick Reichardt is ready to start liv-ing up to his big bonus.

There will be two Monday games, the customary Presi-dential special in Washington and the traditional opener at Cincin-nati.

President Johnson has said he will try to make it at Washing-ton when the Senators take on the Cleveland Indians.

Birdie Tebbetts, manager of the Indians, is thinking pennant and is leading with Sam Mc-Dowell, one of the best pitchers in the league. Pete Richert is supposed to go for the Senators before a capacity crowd of 46,019.

Cincinnati also will pack them in to the tune of some 30,000 to watch the revamped Reds, minus Frank Robinson but plus Milt Pappas and Jack Bald-schun, make their bow against the Mets in the only duel of new managers. The Mets, encour-aged by a fine spring, probably will send Jack Fisher against either Pappas, the new pitcher from Baltimore, or Sammy El-lis.

All of the other teams open Tuesday in an eight-game pro-gram that includes night action in Los Angeles, St. Louis and Atlanta of the National League. Sam Mele's Minnesota Twins will open the season at home where they closed it last Octo-ber in the seventh game of the World Series. They expect about 27,000 to watch Jim Grant of Camilo Pascual face Catfish Hunter of Kansas City.

The defending world champi-on Dodgers also will be at home but they will be playing a night game against Houston before 25,000.

NBC Will Broadcast 3 Night Games This Year

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Broadcasting Co. will tel-evise 28 baseball games this summer over its national net-work, including night games on Memorial Day, July 4, and La-bor Day.

NBC, with exclusive national baseball television rights for the first time, will broadcast the game of the week each Satur-day, starting at 2 p.m., New York time.

The first four games will be New York at Baltimore, April 16; Minnesota at California, April 23; St. Louis at San Fran-cisco, April 30, and Los Angeles at Cincinnati, May 7. The re-mainder of the schedule will be determined as the season pro-gresses, an NBC spokesman said.

The game of the week will be blacked out in the cities of the participating teams. However, NBC will have alternate games for broadcast to those two cities.

Curt Gowdy and Peeewe Reese, former Brooklyn Dodger shortstop will be the game of the week announcers. Although NBC has the sole na-tional television rights, teams can fill contract with local sta-

Fem Bowlers Await Meet

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—The first of 4,083 teams and over 20,000 women move into this historic deep south city to begin a 47-day Women's Inter-national Bowling Congress Tournament Thursday.

Up for grabs is $214,828, second highest sum ever divided up by the nation's women bowlers: in addition, the prestigious Queens tournament, scheduled May 23-27, will provide separate prize fund of $17,127.50.

There will be two divisions in the tournament, assuring the low average bowler a good shot at the money. Division I is for teams with 751 and over aver-ages; doubles, 301 and over; singles and all events, 151 and over. Division II is for teams with 750 and under average; doubles, 300 and under; and singles and all events, 150 and under.

Identical cash prizes will be awarded in each division. The tournament continues through May 30.

A record number of 72 teams will enter the tournament with averages of 900 or better. Top average team will be Zimm's Zips, Norwalk, Calif., captained by Donna Zimmermann, the 1965 WIBC all events champion. Her team averages 981.

Prexies Forecast Spine-Tingling Races

CINCINNATI (AP) — At this time of year, as spring training comes to an end and another season is upon us, major league ball clubs always look to the future with rose-colored glasses. I require no such glasses to predict another interesting and exciting season for the National League after what

GILES

I saw and heard while making the rounds of the training camps this spring. That has become pretty much a pat statement for me at this time of year of late but the performance of our clubs has made my statement stand up year after year. The words interesting and exciting certainly have characterized National League pennant races for a number of years. In conversations with a varied number of observers — officials, scouts, managers and baseball writers and broadcasters, I heard no fewer than seven clubs named as potential pennant winners in our league. In addition to the wealth of material which is spread throughout the league, most of our clubs go into a new season with an important psychological weapon. They know that five different teams have won pennants in the last six years (only the Dodgers have won two in that period) and they know that no National League club has won two in a row since 1958. Our clubs also have seen two championship teams drop deep into the second division the following season during the last three years. The Dodgers won the world championship in 1963, fell all the way down to sixth in 1964, then bounce back to win the world title again last year. The 1964 champion Cardinals finished seventh last year. Why shouldn't the Cardinals be able to repeat the Dodgers' performance or, for that matter, why shouldn't any of the clubs which have been sandwiched between, be able to go all the way in 1966?

By WARREN C. GILES
President, National League

BOSTON (AP) — It is my opinion — and that of all the people I've talked to in spring training — that the American League is faced with its best pennant race in many years. Without hesitation, I can name several teams in our league that may be fighting it out this year. I have seen some impressive young talent liberally sprinkled throughout the league. One of the best groups of youngsters we have had for some time. We have some exciting rookies as well as players who have been around a year or two and are just beginning to realize their full potential. If I sound optimistic, well, I am. I have to feel that way after spending weeks watching such players as Willie Horton of Detroit, Tony Conigliaro of Boston, Curt Blefary of Baltimore and Tommy Agee of Chicago and other talented players.

While a majority of our teams trained in Florida, we can't forget Cleveland and California, training in the West. Cleveland certainly rates highly among the teams with a chance to knock Minnesota off the top. Manager Birdie Tebbetts has good balance of power, and defense. And he has pitching. To me, Sam McDowell is one of the best pitchers in baseball, one of the finest to come into our league in some time. He can become one of the greatest and I don't use the word great too liberally. Anybody who can strike out 325 batters has to be remarkable. And, remember, McDowell is only beginning to reach his potential. California's Angels, who will move into their new home at Anaheim this year, have been one of the surprise teams of the spring. In fact, Bill Rigney's team has been the hottest thing out there. Jorge Rubio has been one of the big pitching surprises of the spring. Rigney is elated about his work.

MRS. HARRY EUGENE SALYER

(Curley's Studio)

Couple Is Married In Baptist Temple

Miss Mary Elaine Langley became the bride of Harry Eugene Salyer during a Friday evening ceremony at the Baptist Temple. The Rev. James A. Puckett, pastor, performed the double ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Langley, Rt. 1, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Denzell Salyer, Wheatfield, Ind.

The bridal isle was marked with white satin bows leading to an altar decorated with sunburst arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums against a background of emerald palms illuminated by wedding tapers.

Miss Brenda Reid, organist, presented a selection of wedding music, and Miss Mary Frances Newton, pianist, accompanied Miss Joanne Neill as she sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "O Promise Me."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal gown of white peau de soie trimmed with pearls and sequined re-embroidered Alencon lace. The fitted bodice was enhanced with scalloped neckline and long petal point sleeves. The flowing chapel train swept from a slender silhouette bow in the back.

VEIL OF ILLUSION
The bride's veil of illusion was attached to a crown encrusted with seed pearls and iridescents. Her bouquet was of white orchids and feathered chrysanthemums carried atop a white Bible.

For traditional items she wore a single strand of pearls borrowed from Mrs. C. Meek and the veil belonging to Mrs. Robert E. Barkley, Odessa. Her dress was new and she wore a blue garter and birth date pennies in her shoes. For something old, she carried a handkerchief which belonged to her grandmother.

The Auxiliary will assist with the Easter egg hunt Saturday afternoon for patients at the state hospital, and serve refreshments following the Sunday afternoon hunt at the Legion Hut.

The flag pin sale will continue. Funds will be used to support the 1967 Auxiliary Forum in Big Spring. Refreshments were served by Brenda Jones, Donne Green and Evette Fisher.

Crow, Wayne Turner, Larry O'Hara and James Mewis. Ushers were Donnie Reagan and Larry Haggard, Stanton, both cousins of the bride.

Miss Sherri Sacket was flower girl, and Leon Langley was ring bearer.

For a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride's traveling costume was a three-piece yellow linen suit worn with a printed blouse and white accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage from her bouquet. The couple will reside at 1603-A Lincoln.

The bride graduated from Big Spring Senior High School where she was a member of the Future Homemakers Association, the Latin Club and of the National Honor Society. She is presently attending Howard County Junior College.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Wheatfield High School, Wheatfield, Ind.

RECEPTION
Following the wedding, a reception was held at the church fellowship hall where the honored couple, the bride's parents and attendants welcomed guests.

Mrs. Jim Laney and Miss Sherry Thomas served refreshments from a table covered with a green linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and yellow and white carnations. The three-tiered wedding cake was separated with swan replicas and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

Miss Treonae Reagan, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the register. Other members of the house party were Mrs. Jack Buchanan, Mrs. Louis Sturm, Mrs. R. V. Colclazer, Mrs. R. C. Thomas, Mrs. Jack Hatch, Mrs. Alden Ryan and Mrs. Bill Newton.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Collett, Mrs.

Miss Linda Lightfoot Weds L. L. DeHaven

The wedding of Miss Linda Lu Lightfoot and Airman 1-C Larry LeRoy DeHaven of Webb Air Force Base was solemnized Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Anderson Street Church of Christ. David Tarbet, minister, officiated.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Mark D. Lightfoot, 1509 Stadium, and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. DeHaven, Marion, Ohio.

The vows were exchanged before an altar banked with emerald fern and graced with baskets of white gladioli. Candelabra holding white tapers illuminated the scene.

Nuptial selections, including "The Pledge," "I Pledge My Love," "Father, Hear the Prayer We Offer," and "The Wedding March" were performed by a choral group led by Stanley Peurifoy.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her formal gown was of Venetian lace and tulle over white taffeta. The fitted bodice, featuring a scalloped Sabrina neckline and cap sleeves, was elongated to a deep V at the front waistline. The apron effect of the full skirt tapered to a cathedral train edged with rows of lace and tulle. Her bouffant veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls and crystals.

The maid of honor was Miss Mary Ann Walker, and bridesmaids were Miss Rose Stumm and Mrs. Don Lightfoot of Weslaco, sister-in-law of the bride. Their identical A-line dresses were styled with pink skirts and white lace bodices. Miss Walker carried pink roses, and the other attendants carried red roses.

Airman 2-C Jerry Market of Colorado City was the best man, and ushers were Don Lightfoot of Weslaco, brother of the bride; Airman 1-C William Fox of Webb AFB. The flower girl, Laurie Boadle, wore a dress identical to those of the bridesmaids, and Eugene Boadle was the ring bearer.

The reception was held in the Patio Room of Holiday Inn where the honored couple, par-

Pre-Nuptial Parties Honor Miss Groebl

The first in a series of complimentary affairs honoring Miss Mozelle Groebl and her fiancé, Jack Ed Irons, was held Wednesday evening in the Blue Room of Cosden Country Club. The couple will be married June 4 at the First Baptist Church.

Parents of the engaged couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Groebl and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irons.

Hosting the dinner party were Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kasch, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Guin and Mr. and Mrs. Bill French.

Aqua cloths were used on the tables where 30 guests were seated. Placed along the tables were 12 copper mugs arranged with yellow candles surrounded with yellow daisies and blue spider mums.

BRUNCH

Miss Groebl was honored with a Thursday morning brunch at the home of Mrs. H. F. Schwarzenbach, 810 W. 14th. Cohostesses were Mrs. Arch Carson, Mrs. E. B. McCormick, and Mrs. J. M. Woodall.

Refreshments were served from a polished table featuring a spring garden scene centered with a yellow paper rabbit and a yellow umbrella surrounded with multi-colored spring flowers.

Honored guests were Miss Groebl's mother, Mrs. Ted Groebl, and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. Jack Irons.

The hostesses' gift was a pitcher in the bride-elect's pottery pattern.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. E. A. Fletcher, San Antonio; Mrs. Douglas Orme, Dallas; and Mrs. Dexter Pate, El Paso.

SATURDAY

Miss Groebl was honored with a brunch from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Saturday in the home of Mrs. George W. Dawson Jr., 605 Colgate. Mrs. Dawson was assisted by her mother, Mrs. C. F. Huling, and her daughter, Catherine Anne.

Refreshments were served from a table appointed in silver and gold. The Easter theme was provided with chicks dressed as bride and groom and flowers in shades of yellow and bronze.

The honoree received a gift of crystal.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. R. Z. Kerley, her granddaughter, Brenda Franklin; and Mrs. L. J. Johnson, all of Houston; and Mrs. E. A. Fletcher of San Antonio.

PBX Units To Convene

Convention plans were made by the PBX Club at a Thursday evening meeting in the Malone and Hogan Clinic. Assisting with the convention schedule was Miss Verdine Mize of Midland, state president. Seven members plan to attend from here, and Mrs. John Ray will represent the local club in the "Frontier Queen" contest at the convention.

Mrs. Fern Smith presided as the women agreed to assist with the Easter egg hunt Saturday at Big Spring State Hospital.

The next meeting will be at 7 p.m., May 5, for a dinner at Cosden Country Club.

Weave Afghan From Old Wool

Here's a good way to use up those bits of wool left over from sweaters and socks, etc. Buy one of those children's looms and weave up some squares (takes only a few minutes). The squares can be sewn or crocheted together for a brightly-colored afghan or coverlet.

All Champions Selected For County Spelling Bee

By SAM BLACKBURN
With all 15 participating schools having selected their champion and alternate champions and with the date of the Daily Herald's Fourth Annual Howard County Spelling Bee just six days away, interest in the event is gaining momentum.

Their champions announced the winners last week. This brings the total spellers competing to 15. The county spelling bee this year will be in the Big Spring High School Cafeteria. Judges will be announced early this week. The hour is 10 a.m. and the date Saturday, April 16.

teacher in Big Spring High School, said Saturday that she has prepared the list of words she plans to use. She is the official pronouncer. She selected the words from the official spelling list, "Words of Champions," which is used at all levels in the spelling bee program.

times Howard County spelling champion and who in 1965 won the regional spelling bee title and competed last June in Washington for the national title, will be on hand next Saturday to formally present the new county champion, when he or she is selected, with the plaque which will mark the achievement.

CHAMPION OF LAST YEAR TO HELP 1966 CONTENDERS
Don Hickson, regional spelling champion, shows trophies he has won

Meantime, Don has announced he will entertain the 15 champions Tuesday night at his home, 2708 Crestline. At this party, Don will tell the spellers of his experiences in the county regional and national events. He will also show slides he made of the scenes he visited on his free trip to Washington last June.

Winner of the county spelling bee gets an all expense trip to Lubbock April 30 to try against the champions of 23 other West Texas counties for the right to represent the Lubbock area in Washington.

On Saturday, each school champion will receive a special Paper Mate pen and a blue ribbon as a token of his or her skill.

The winner gets a specially engraved plaque. If he wins at Lubbock, he will receive, in addition to the free trip to Washington on June 6, a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica, an Encyclopedia Britannica World Atlas, a special Paper Mate pen and pencil, set, and possession, for one year, of a big engraved trophy on which his name will be added to the names of champions of other years.

The runnerup in the Howard County Spelling Bee will also receive a present Saturday.

The 15 champions who are to compete are: Richard Lloyd, Gay Hill; Scott McLaughlin, Gollad Junior High; Marilyn Hale, Park Hill; David Raney, Boydston; David Robertson, Marcy; Sandra Camp, Airport; Valentino Valtierra, Bauer; Catherine Fowler, Washington Place; Kay Miller, South Ward; Dawn Botsford, College Heights; Mary Lou Brown, Runnels Junior High School; Lora Baker, Cedar Crest; Ronny Pope, Midway; Susan Sulak, Immaculate Heart of Mary; Paul Talbot, St. Mary's.

Regional Winner Invites Contenders To A Party

The 15 school champions from Howard County schools who are to compete next Saturday for the championship of the Fourth Annual Howard County Spelling Bee, are to hear how the bee functions at all levels, from local to national, by a young man who has been the entire route.

Don Hickson, who was last year's county and regional spelling bee champion, will be host Tuesday evening to the 15 champions. The party is to be at 7 p.m. at the home of Don's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hickson, 2708 Crestline.

Don is personally inviting each of the 15 champions to attend, and he is also extending an invitation to Mrs. O. T. Brewster, who is to be this year's county bee pronouncer, to be present.

Hickson said that Don dreamed up the party as a way of impressing his fellow spellers with the importance of the spelling bee and the reward that winning a county and regional bee can bring.

"We made a lot of slides," said Don, "when I went to Washington last June. I think the kids will enjoy seeing them. I also want them to see my scrapbook and see how much there is to winning a big event like the regional spelling bee."

Don not only was 1965 county and regional champion, but was also county champion in 1964. This year he is no longer eligible to compete.

"Maybe I can help the new boys and girls a little," he said, "I think that they will find the spelling bee a real experience."

Don said that he would make an effort to contact all of the youngsters, but that in the event he did not succeed in talking to all personally, that he hoped each school champion would be at the Tuesday party.

The Hickson residence is in the Coronado Hills Addition near the Big Spring City Park.

A Devotional For The Day

I know that my redeemer liveth, and . . . in my flesh shall I see God. (Job 19:25-26)

PRAYER: Eternal God, we look to Thee in Faith. May sin have no dominion in our hearts, and death no final victory. We pray in the name of Christ, the living Savior, in whom we fix our hope. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Exceptional Service

By verdict of the majority of those who met their responsibility of voters, rather drastic changes now take place in the personnel of both the City Commission and the Big Spring School Board.

Two new men go on each council, and they must surely find themselves caught in a complexity of problems, both for the municipality and the school.

There is no reason to believe that these business men so chosen will not fill their jobs responsibly and carry on good work that has been done and is still in progress. Certainly they deserve the support of all the populace in what they attempt to do in furthering the progress of our city and our schools.

They follow good men, and we feel that as these predecessors retire, they are due thanks from the community: Mayor George Zachariah and Squeaky Thompson; Board President Harold Talbot and Bennett Brooke.

Particularly because of leadership roles, Zachariah and Talbot have made fine contributions to our community, the mayor having served for 12 years, Talbot on the school board for six. Both men, in our opinion, have served beyond the immediate call of duty, and have made great personal sacrifices in filling the responsibilities of their offices.

As Mayor Zachariah helped chart the city through most of its major master plan; worked with various councilmen and administrators in holding tax costs down for an extended period; performed with graciousness the various civic duties the office calls for; and has been unfailingly aware of the interests of the people.

As board president Talbot has been at the helm of a major school expansion; has faced the difficulties of assembling staff to meet bigger enrollments, has shouldered with his colleagues many of the problems arising from a federal influence now affecting all schools; and has remained always dedicated to the principle that the children's welfare comes first.

We think both men have written well a record of public service, in jobs that pay nothing and demand much.

Encouraging Prospect

The firm prospect that Midland will purchase water from the Colorado River Municipal Water District is an encouraging one. The only hurdle now to clear is an affirmative vote by Midland citizens on April 23.

This is a constructive step, for it is mutually advantageous in that it accords Midland water safety through an increasing volume of water over a long period of time, and equally important, furnishes that city with vastly softer water than its well supplies now permit. On the other hand, the CRMWD will be in a position to give maximum development of its Robert Lee lake project now instead of having to take a series of less economical steps over the next two score years.

This step also lends substance to the CRMWD philosophy that it considers itself to be a source for water needs within this important area of the state. The importance of this will become more manifest somewhere down the years when not even the Robert Lee lake will supply all that this region requires. The major cities within the area will have demonstrated a unity of operation as well as purpose.

Because of the interdependence of communities in this area, it is important that all have the opportunity to pursue their growth without a water impediment.

Troubles In California

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — In the seven years Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown has been chief executive of California 4,500,000 migrants have come from all over the country to make it the most populous and the richest of the 50 states. The pressures of this unprecedented growth have created tensions in every department of life that are close to the breaking point.

Brown in his candid, old-shoe fashion makes no secret of his reluctance to run for a third term. It would have been a lot easier to quit while he was ahead and in the last year of his second term get in some travel and enjoyment. The next man would then discover, as Brown has, that you have to run very hard in California just to stay in place.

BUT THE governor also believes that he is the only Democrat who can stand off what he considers a calculated and carefully planned drive by the well-heeled right to take over the state. This, as he sees it, is the meaning of the candidacy of actor Ronald Reagan whom Brown fully expects to win the Republican nomination.

If Reagan, with no experience in politics or public office, should be elected governor he would confront a baffling and complex responsibility with little knowledge of what to do about it. But in Brown's view the man who put him in the office would know just what to do with the powers of the governor over the public utilities commission, the welfare department, natural resources, the thousand and one areas where executive authority is decisive.

IF HE IS re-elected — only once before in the state's history has a governor, Earl Warren, been given a third term — Brown knows only too well what he faces. By a series of fiscal devices, such as the advance collection of certain levies, the governor in putting together his $4.6 billion budget avoided a tax increase.

This has drawn cries of deception from the Republicans in the legislature currently engaged in holding up the budget under the provision of the constitution requiring approval by a two-thirds vote. While he will have his way in the end, the governor knows the deficit next year will be around $300,000,000 and it can be met only by new taxes.

ALMOST EVERY governor in the Union is made for trouble in an era of rising demands, rising costs and revolutionary changes. But the Governor of California is surely the champ in this department as in most others. On the big factory farms grape pickers have carried out a prolonged strike and their leaders, joined by nuns, priests and other sympathizers, on a dramatic march from the San Joaquin Valley demand to see Brown as they reach Sacramento on Easter Sunday.

THE FACTORY farms are under the charge of violating the 160-acre limit for irrigation provided by federal money and the farmers are themselves in revolt over Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz's decree against importing webbed feet from Mexico to do the stoop labor. What the cynics refer to as "a cozy little $200,000,000 scandal" has erupted with the tax assessors in several counties charged with taking big bribes from so-called tax consultants. Some of America's largest corporations got their property in the state assessed by absurdly low levels, the evidence has shown. One assessor confronted with detailed charges committed suicide.

THE LARGEST, the loudest, the fastest, the richest — these are California's boasts. For the man who happens to be governor it means an unending burden multiplying with each day that passes.

Is Inflation Here Or Threatening?

By JACK LEFLER
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The great debate—do we or don't we have inflation? — is growing in intensity.

The National Association of Purchasing Agents says flatly: "Inflation is here."

Gardner Ackley, President Johnson's chief economic adviser, says he is more "hopeful and confident" than many private economists that the nation can avoid inflation without an immediate tax increase.

The purchasing executives, who are close to the price situation, say of inflation: "The only question is whether it is creeping, crawling, walking, running or galloping."

MORE SHOW HIKES

The association reports that in its March poll of members 76 per cent reported paying higher prices, up from 62 per cent in February. The figure is the highest since September 1956 when a steel strike settlement triggered general price rises.

For the first time in nine years no member reported an overall price decline. The figure had been running at 1 per cent for the last few months.

Ackley, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisers, said in a copyright interview in U.S. News & World Report that the administration could not "tolerate for very long the rate of price increase of the past months."

However, he added that there are signs that inflationary pressures are coming under control.

BANK CREDIT SLOWS

"Recently there has been a slower advance in bank credits," he said. "The money supply actually fell in February. We have seen the postponement of a lot of bond issues."

He noted that wholesale prices have climbed 4 per cent in the past year but said, "Now it looks as if we have turned the corner on that one."

"The trend of farm and food on expenditures in all areas of the economy," said John W. Harper, president of Alcoa.

The unemployment rate went up to 3.8 per cent of the labor force from 3.7 per cent in March but the nonfarm payroll went up by 520,000 at the same time to a record for this season. The reason for the jobless rate going up, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported, was an influx of teenagers on the labor market.

Allied Chemical Corp. was reported to have raised its prices for sulphuric acid, the most widely used chemical. Allied declined comment. The new prices were understood to be $26.75 a ton for 100 per cent acid, up from $26.05, and $24.95 a ton for 66 per cent acid, up from $24.30.

NEWSPRINT UP

Southland Paper Co., a major supplier of newsprint in the South, boosted its price $5 a ton to $140 a ton. Other newsprint producers earlier had hiked prices $10 a ton and then cut back to $5.

Automobile production declined during the week to an estimated 145,700 passenger cars from 195,024 the previous week because production facilities were not open on Good Friday or Saturday.

Car sales rose to a record 847,135 in March. The old record was 842,000 in October 1965.

Steel output climbed 1.3 per cent to 2,744,000 tons for the week, the highest since last June, from 2,709,000 tons the previous week.

RESTRAINT

"This is a time for restraint on expenditures in all areas of the economy," said John W. Harper, president of Alcoa.

Hydrocele Readily Repaired By Surgery

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Our 5-year-old son has hydrocele. The doctor tells us he should have an operation.

The boy seemed to spend about three-quarters of his waking hours on a rocking horse. Could this have had anything to do with it?

Please explain it in lay terms.—C.E.B.

Hydrocele is an accumulation of fluid in the scrotal sac, and there may be a lot or only a little.

The cause is the failure of an opening into the abdominal cavity to close. A baby may be born with that flaw, or it can be caused later in life from injury.

Whether the rocking horse had anything to do with it is conjecturable. Perhaps it irritated to some degree, or maybe it had nothing to do with the matter. I suppose you'd like a more firm answer, but I can't give you one.

As to surgery, I can answer that. The hydrocele (the fluid accumulation) does not damage the testicle, so sterility is not likely.

At the same time, the condition is a nuisance and it isn't going to cure itself. The fluid can be aspirated (withdrawn through a needle) but this is only temporary and it will gather again. Likewise aspiration may bother the boy more than having the operation. It isn't a serious procedure, so I would go along with your doctor's advice and have the condition taken care of, once and for all, now.

Dear Dr. Molner: Can elderly folks have the entire thyroid removed? I am almost 73 and had most of the right side removed in 1960. Now a nodule has formed on the left side, and I am even more nervous than when the nodule formed on the right side. I had never heard of older people having the entire thyroid removed.—L.M.

I think you are more concerned than need be. First, portions of the thyroid gland can be removed without interfering with the ability of the remainder to supply you with thyroid hormones.

Second, radioactive iodine, taken by mouth, or the use of anti-thyroid drugs may subdue the overactivity sufficiently without surgery. Your physician can decide the best procedure, considering all the factors in your case.

Dear Dr. Molner: What is simple open angle glaucoma?—H.W.

Simple in this case doubtless means not complicated by some other eye condition. The more technical terms used are primary for a glaucoma for which no underlying cause can be found, and secondary in a case developing from some other fault.

The "angle" aspect is very highly technical, and refers to the angle at which the iris (colored part of the eye) and the attachment to the lens of the eye approach each other.

While the angle helps an eye specialist decide exactly what type of condition is present, I think for your purposes what you want to know is this: The narrow angle type is sometimes more difficult than the wide angle (or open angle) variety to treat. That is because, with the narrow angle, drops which dilate the pupil of the eye (to admit more light and help vision) can cause an increase in pressure in the eye.

The wide angle type, which is the more common variety in older people, responds to drops with fewer unwanted effects.

'Around The Rim

It Was God's Work

Would you indulge me today in an Easter fantasy?

My name is of no importance, but my job might be. I have been among the court functionaries, and on this particular weekend of the Passover, I was assigned as a guard. This sort of duty is not new to me, but the case was different. I was supposed to keep anyone from stealing a body out of a tomb.

CAN YOU IMAGINE such a thing happening? I couldn't, although there seemed to be a lot of talk about this particular Man. He was the central One of three men whom they nailed upon the crosses Friday. Dismal business, that.

From what I heard around the public houses, the crucifixion of this Man was rather unusual. He wasn't among the thieves, the revolutionaries, the murderers. I heard he claimed to be a King.

Well, so what? I'm only one of the troops, and I do as I am told, and try to carry out my assignment.

SO, I WAS SENT to the tomb. Rather strange, this particular one. It belongs to one of the real aristocrats of the area, Joseph who came from Arimathea, and was for members of his family.

But Joseph, they say, took an interest in the Man who died on the hill, and even was influential enough to go to Pontius Pilate, ask for the body, and get it.

BUT SOME of the people around Pilate convinced him that there would be an attempt made to steal this body—don't ask me what for—and that it ought to be guarded. First, and I saw this myself, they rolled a huge stone at the entrance to the tomb, sealed it, and stationed me, with some others, not to let any human come near.

NO HUMANS DID. And as a simple man I do not know until this minute what actually happened. Except that there was another earthquake—not nearly as frightening as that great period of darkness and earth trembling that occurred Friday—and before anyone could come to his senses, the stone had rolled away. If some wanted to say, as they did later, that people accomplished this, I can testify that they tell not the truth.

Well, this happened, but as far as we guards are concerned, no person had a hand in it.

IT WAS AT DAWN Sunday that a couple of women came. They wanted to anoint the body. Sure enough, they were able to get in the tomb, and that Figure had gone. There were others who came, too, and did nothing for us to prevent them from doing so. They said they saw some angels in the tomb, who told them the Man had risen. Can you make something of that? Sure enough, the clothes in which He had been wrapped were there, but the body was gone.

Later, some people passed us some money to tell that the grave had been violated, and the Man's body spirited away. I am not averse to taking a little money, and may have helped spread the kind of word they wanted spread.

BUT NOW I tell the truth. I cannot give you the answers to what happened, but some things I do know: The stone was rolled away, the Man simply disappeared, the angels did talk to those who entered the tomb. The simple truth seems to be that the Man was the King He claimed to be, and lives again. I don't know what you would call it, but I would call it God's work.

We Gotta Have A Contingency

WASHINGTON — Anytime you have a foreign policy, you have to have a contingency plan in case the policy doesn't work. The recent anti-government demonstrations in South Viet Nam against Premier Ky and the United States has Washington worried, and the Joint Contingency Committee was called into special session.

The chairman of the committee said, "Gentlemen, there is a possibility that the Ky government could fall, and if it does, we're going to have to come up with an explanation. Does anyone have any suggestions?"

"COULDN'T WE say that, after he met with President Johnson in Hawaii, Ky refused to pay his hotel bill, so we no longer could support him?"

"I don't think that will work. He may have a receipt."

"Why don't we take a leaf out of the Abba Schwartz book and say we've decided to eliminate the job of Premier of South Viet Nam and turn his duties over to the Passport Division?"

"We could do that. But would it satisfy the Buddhists?"

"Nothing will satisfy the Buddhists. But I'm not sure eliminating the Premier's job will settle the crisis."

"I HAVE a thought. We say the reason Ky fell was because he was too short and he could never read the teleprompter. We could say we not only needed a stronger leader there, but a taller one."

"That's not bad. We've never used that one before."

"I'd hate to get committed at this time to a tall Vietnamese. There's got to be a better explanation for Ky's downfall."

"What about" announcing that Ky quit his job to run for Lieutenant-Governor of California?"

The Real Profit Story

WASHINGTON—If a business sells $1,000 worth of goods, and after deducting expenses comes up with a net profit of $40, this is called a four per cent profit margin. Yet there are lots of companies which are not achieving this or a higher margin of profits.

If there is a drop from four to three per cent, this could mean a considerable difference in the earnings of the companies and in the return to the stockholders.

IT IS BEING widely asserted today that corporations have at last reached a point in profit margin on sales per dollar comparable to the 1950's. But it has taken 10 years to get back to the levels of the 1950's, and some businesses have by no means accomplished it even now.

Presidential "guidelines" for wages in big industries are being criticized by various labor leaders as inadequate and as not very realistic in view of the supposedly large increase in profits of many companies. But nobody in government has as yet come up with any "guidelines" for profits.

AGAIN AND AGAIN, businessmen read the statistics about how earnings have increased. But, when they look at their own financial statements, they realize that there has not been any increase like the percentage of profit margins that is experienced by other businesses or industries.

The April issue of the Monthly Economic Letter of the First National City Bank declares that, for all non-financial corporations which report sales figures the average profit margin increased in 1964 from 6.2 cents per sales dollar to 6.7 cents in 1965—the highest figure since 1950. But there are lots of businessmen who will view such a statement with envy because no such percentages of the sales dollar have been attained in their own case.

HERE IS A LIST of the types of businesses or industries which have not been able to restore the profit levels they had in 1955. The comparison is between the percentages of sales per dollar 10 years ago and last year, with figures which have just become available:

	1955-1965
Soft drinks	8.6 6.8
Lumber and Wood products	9.1 6.3
Paper, allied products	8.3 6.7
Chemical products	10.0 8.5
Paint, allied products	6.7 5.7
Petroleum production and refining	10.6 9.4
Cement	16.5 9.1
Glass products	9.0 7.4
Iron and steel	9.3 5.9
Nonferrous metals	9.5 8.1
Automotive parts	5.3 4.8
Aircraft and space	3.9 3.3
Metal mining—variety, etc.	13.4 12.7
Class stores—variety, etc.	3.7 3.3
Class railroads	9.2 8.0
Shipping	8.2 6.8
Restaurants and hotels	3.9 3.4

LABOR ECONOMISTS merely take the generalized profit figures and say that, because the total profits of the country are increased numerically, this means that wage levels can be raised all along the line. The time has come for some "guidelines" that will protect the investor. Unless there can be assurances of a fair return, it may be difficult to raise capital either to modernize old enterprises or to create new ones.

Twelve Rivals Compete For 1966 Young Texan

DALLAS—Twelve hopeful candidates for the "Young Texan of the Year" for 1966, one of the highest awards bestowed on Texas youth, will converge on Dallas April 16 to attend the Young Texan Awards banquet. At that time the winner of this award will be announced.

The Young Texan Foundation, sponsored by the Optimist Clubs of Texas, conducts this annual youth recognition program.

Principal speaker at the banquet will be James J. Ling, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Ling-Temco-Vought, Inc., a Dallas based electronics-aerospace firm. Mike Shapiro, general manager of WFAA Radio and Television in Dallas, will serve as master of ceremonies.

OPTIMISTS NOMINATE
Each candidate was selected Young Texan of the Month from nominations submitted by Texas Optimist Clubs. Monthly winners as well as the Young Texan of the Year are chosen by a panel of judges made up of 10 distinguished Texas citizens, headed by U.S. Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark.

Selection for the award is not based on a single achievement but on a well-rounded background in school, church, community activities and the nominee's potential as a future leader.

Attending this year's banquet will be Donald Ray Gibbs, Young Texan of the Year for 1965. Gibbs is presently attending Texas Christian University in Fort Worth.

GOAL: RECOGNITION
Now in its seventh year, the Young Texan Foundation's goal is to bring favorable recognition to outstanding Texas teenage boys, encourage them toward their goals, set them up as examples for other teenagers and counteract the negative image of youth fostered by a small minority who generate bad publicity.

Top honors go to the young man selected Young Texan of the Year; he receives the Troy Post Award of the Young Texan Foundation, a $2,000 college scholarship, a specially designed trophy and an all-expense paid tour of Texas. Two other young men each receive a $1,000 scholarship and an exemplary citizenship trophy.

'The CHASE'
Marlon Brando plays sheriff

Brando Back In 'Chase'

Marlon Brando stars as a modern-day southwestern sheriff in the production of "The Chase," which opens Thursday at the Ritz Theatre.

The film is set in a small town, with all its hates, infidelities and passions.

"The Chase" is in Panavision and Technicolor.

Starred with Brando are Jane Fonda, Robert Redford, E. G. Marshall, Angie Dickinson, Janice Rule, Miriam Hopkins, Martha Hyer, Robert Duvall, Richard Bradford, Henry Hull, Diana Hyland and James Fox.

"The Chase" is the story of the effect the escape of a convict has on the community from which he came, and to which he returns, during a frenzied Saturday night. The sheriff alone, believing the boy a victim of circumstances created by the town itself, does what he can to restore some semblance of sanity, and respect for the law itself. But his pursuit of the escaped convict is turned into a grim game, with the entire town out to witness a blood-letting.

Jane Fonda plays the escaped convict's wife, a girl in love with her husband but having an affair with a childhood sweetheart. James Fox, the sweet British star, appears as her lover, son of a cattle and oil baron and himself enmeshed in a loveless marriage with Diana Hyland. E. G. Marshall plays the father, bitterly opposed to Brando's concept of his job as

Hamburg's Beat Center Draws Teen Thousands

By MARTIN ZUCKER
Associated Press Writer

HAMBURG, Germany (AP)—In the heart of Hamburg's St. Pauli District, amid the bordellos, strip shows and greasy spoons, is the Star Club.

The Star Club is none of the above. Yet, next to the bordellos it enjoys the biggest patronage of Germany's most famous pleasure playground.

Here is beat music and beer, enough of a combination to attract 3-4,000 young people seven nights a week.

In the Star Club you feel old at 25 and way out of place with a haircut. And if you can't shake sloop, frug or monkey, then you just don't belong on the dance floor. Try to get by with twisting and you are stared at like some prehistoric relic.

The Star Club is where the Beatles launched "long-haired" music into snowballing popularity. In the three years since, bands have come and gone. The hairdos have gotten longer, wilder. The music louder and louder—not particularly better. The band names just as imaginative: The Rattles, the Liverbirds, the Rollicks, Jerry Williams and the Violents and Gary and the Pacemakers.

Three bands are engaged, usually for four-week stints. Each night they play in shifts. It is hard to distinguish one from the other—they seem to look alike and play alike.

One band, with some differences, has borrowed some Spike Jones sounds and mixed them in beat soup.

The leader has a glass eye which bulges from his head during the dance. The eye leers, hypnotizes.

You shake. You shimmy. You convulse. You close your eyes and grimace in pain. The glass eye pulsates; it lives in the beat. You dance harder. Big Brother is watching.

Thirty couples may be on the floor and none are doing the same thing. One is fox trotting in tight embrace to "Skinny Minny." A blonde girl with a foot-high beehive wiggles to the music only from the neck down as if any headbaking might bring the plumage down.

And so it goes, through the night. Couples dancing without the partners ever looking at one another. They seem to be friends, zine: "Star Club News."

"A recent editor's column tells "Dear Star Club Friends" that the magazine is switching publishers because the printers have been re-issuing the same magazine with the name of another beat club on it. Competition for the beat dollar is keen. The magazine is full of good. Ads sprinkled with English, show you where to buy beat boots, beat pants, beat jackets, beat albums and even sweat shirts lettered with "Center of Beat—Star Club Hamburg."

It all makes a "beater" world to live in—depending on how young you are.

Enlistment or re-enlistment may be for a term of two, three or four years.

Interested men may contact Navy Recruiter Jerry Waggen in the Post Office building, or call AM 3-8851.

WHERE THE BEAT IS
in the center of Hamburg

At the end of a number introduced as "ahhhhhhh-haaaa," a fat girl swayed in one spot, her eyes closed. She would casually swing her arms one after the other across her chest as if taking a mysterious oath. She seemed happy.

The Star Club is a former movie house. The seats were pulled out about 3 1/2 years ago and replaced with clusters of horseshoe lounge sofas. Two bars line the back wall. Upstairs there is a balcony where one can sit and listen without watching and dancing. Beer is two marks (50 cents) a bottle.

For Star Club owner Manfred Weissleder, 35, business is booming. He has a going operation that provides not only the music, but also "beat clothes" to go with it.

He even has a monthly maga-

BOOK NEWS Women Ran Things

TRANSATLANTIC DIAMOND, Edited by Paul F. Matheisen and Michael Millgate (University of Texas Press, $7.50)

Edmund Gosse was a major literary figure in the last half of the 19th Century and the early part of the 20th. His own literary output was not impressive, but he moved in the higher echelons of writers.

Gosse set out to be friends with as many writers as possible, and therein lay most of his reputation. What game he had died with him.

The letters are interesting to persons with a bent toward study of authors of that time—AP.

INDIAN WOMEN, By Lela and Rufus Waltrip (David McKay Co., $3.75)

Stories and legends about Indian women are about as frequent as stories about braves, possibly because when one is outstanding it forms an interesting contrast with the public image of squaws.

Actually, women in many tribes were not semi-slaves but were heads of their households. The brave was considered not good for much except hunting and a little fighting. The women ran things.

One story is about Cynthia Ann Parker, the celebrated Oklahoma-Texas abduction victim. The other stories are located from coast to coast.

The authors, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Waltrip, grew up in Texas and New Mexico and attended Southern Methodist University in Dallas. They completed their educations in New Mexico and reside in Artesia—AP.

'FRANKIE AND JOHNNY'
Elvis Presley sings, dances

Donna Douglas Stars With Presley In Film

Oddly enough for America's best-known folk song, it has thus far never been made into a motion picture. This musical presentation of "Frankie and Johnny," in Technicolor opens today at the Ritz Theatre.

It stars Elvis Presley as "Johnny" and co-stars Donna Douglas as "Frankie." And with Harry Morgan, Sue Ane Langdon, Nancy Kovack (as "Nellie Bly"), Audrey Christie, Robert Strauss, Anthony Eisley, Elvis sings 11 brand new tunes in the film.

Nat Perrin was selected to make a story of the famous legend, which was produced on an "unlimited budget."

About as impressive a listing of talent as can be assembled, even for the producer of such cinematic standouts as "Solomon and Sheba," "Witness for the Prosecution" and "Jack the Giant Killer" went into "Frankie and Johnny."

Presley for 10 years has occupied a top position among the screen's top 10 boxoffice stars with no signs apparent yet of a letdown.

Also, for the gal who was done wrong by and avenges it with the historic "Fawty-faw," a starring role — her first in motion pictures — was handed Donna Douglas.

Sue Ane Langdon and Nancy Kovack were cast as "the other women." Miss Kovack, by the way, is said by Hollywood authorities on the subject, to have the most beautiful legs in show business since Dietrich.

Other important roles in "Frankie and Johnny" were assigned to Anthony Eisley of TV's "Hawaiian Eye" fame; veteran screen and stage comedian Jerome Cowan, who ap-

Burleson Cites Long Record In Bidding For Re-election

Omar Burleson, veteran Congressman from the 17th District, has issued a campaign statement in which he said he seeks re-election on the basis of his record of nearly 20 years service in Congress.

Howard County is in the 17th District this year for the first time, and Burleson, whose home is at Anson, has visited here on several occasions.

His first formal campaign statement cited his tenure in Washington since 1947, and he said:

"In that time, I have never been a 'yes man' to anyone or any group, but have fulfilled my responsibility to vote on each issue for what I thought was in the best interest of our country, our state, and our district; people have the right to expect no less," Burleson said.

Burleson is among the senior members of the U. S. House of Representatives in point of service.

COMMITTEES

His seniority has carried him to the Chairmanship of the House Administration Committee, and to the second position to the Chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. In addition, Burleson serves on two Joint Committees formed from senior members of the House and Senate, as chairman of one and vice chairman of the other.

"In all my years in Congress," Burleson said, "I have followed two guiding principles: First, to know the views of my constituents and reflect their sentiments to the greatest degree possible in my actions as their Representative. Second, to inform and advise as closely as I can on those issues which affect our district, our state, and the nation."

Burleson termed his approach to government as one of "common sense," gained through his years of public service.

JONES COUNTY

Burleson is a former county attorney and county judge of Jones County. He was appointed an FBI Agent, and served in a number of assignments over the U.S. He resigned from the FBI to join the Navy in World War II, with duty in both the Atlantic and the Pacific.

As a leader in Congress, Burleson has consistently urged the return to a sounder fiscal policy and the cutting of unnecessary and extravagant federal spending.

"I have tried to see that your tax money is spent as wisely and as judiciously, as you would have spent it had you been in my place," Burleson said. "The record will definitely show that on many occasions I have found myself in the minority—especially on needless spending of the taxpayers' money. I am proud that I have never failed to exercise the right to vote and to do as I thought best."

"At every session of Congress, I have voted for expenditures below that recommended by the Executive Department, and far below that actually appropriated by the Congress, except in the field of National Defense," Burleson said.

FOR DEFENSE

"When it comes to the defense of this country, I have always voted for those things calculated to make and to keep our nation stronger than any other in the world," he said.

Burleson said he feels there are those other things for which the government was designed and, of course, it costs money.

"Such things as the conservation of our natural resources—caring for God's gifts to people that they may be preserved for future generations," he said.

Burleson also said that the individual, groups of individuals or local governmental entities are unable to cope with matters of flood control and, in many cases, an adequate water supply. "We have got to look to the future if our area progresses. For one thing, this means water is a priority concern."

Further, Burleson said that he "certainly subscribes to the idea that the government should help the elderly and those people who are unable to help themselves."

FEDERAL WASTE

Burleson has been an implacable foe of the constant encroachment of the federal government into the area of state and local affairs.

"As the federal government

Four Arson Youths Freed

LONDON (AP) — A judge at London's Old Bailey Court Friday ordered the release of four youths accused of starting fires at seven London synagogues. The judge said he was letting them go because they were penitent and had promised to abandon anti-Semitic activities.

Police witnesses said the four were influenced by persons in Colin Jordan's British National Socialist Movement, a neo-Nazi group.

The judge told the four: "You were used by unscrupulous people to further their own evil designs, and one does not know whether to pity or blame you."

Sukarno Said Wealthy Man

HONG KONG (AP) — Indonesian President Sukarno has piled up a personal fortune of more than $60 million in Swiss and Japanese banks, according to sources in Hong Kong with Indonesian and international banking contacts.

Although the reports are impossible to confirm here, some responsible Western experts believe them.

Much of the money was directly deposited to Sukarno's foreign bank accounts by persons buying business favors from him, sources said.
