Demand Grades Be Withheld

Student sit-ins fill a hall in the City College of New York to dramatize their demand that CCNY refuse to furnish draft boards with grades and class standings. The sit-in was staged by several groups, including the Committee to End the War in Viet Nam. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Draft Tests Draw Isolated Protests

Amid scattered picketing and protests, nearly 600,000 college students took examinations Saturday that may determine whether they will be called to military service or be allowed to remain in school.

A three-day sit-in at the University of Chicago dwindled to a token group Saturday as 300 students turned out for the test. Some of the 75 demonstrators on the Wayne State University campus at Detroit scuffled briefly with police Friday, but no incidents were reported Saturday.

One of the 400 students who took the test at the Richmond Professional Institute in Virginia said: "I think this is a good way of determining who should go and who should not go." Another student said, "I can pass any standardized test."

EASY TEST
Two City College of New York students, Peter Gewandter and Al Samuel, said the test was easy. Samuel said, "Everyone was ready to run out after the second hour."
They said the test was science-oriented, even in the reading comprehension and verbal analogy sections.
Students had three hours to complete the test and needed 70 to pass. Graduate students needed a grade of 80.
One student taking the test was arrested on the Cornell University campus at Ithaca, N.Y., Saturday. Approximately 3,000 students took the test at six on-campus centers as about 30 students and several faculty members demonstrated.

Campus patrolmen arrested Harry Teitelbaum of Brooklyn, a student in the State Agricultural College at Cornell, after they said he had pounded on a desk with a metal object and

Connally Supporters Win Party Control

Few Flare-Ups In Conventions

Supporters of John Connally took a commanding lead at Democratic county conventions Saturday in their bid to keep the governor in control of the party organization in Texas for the next two years.

Many of the conventions were held at night but early reports indicated the conservative forces would have little trouble in mustering a majority for the important Sept. 20 state convention at Austin.

An early Associated Press tabulation showed Connally forces had 2,531 delegate votes out of reporting counties with a total strength of 3,386. There will be a total of 6,258 votes at the state convention.

Conservatives won most of the metropolitan counties—Dallas, Tarrant (Fort Worth), Bexar (San Antonio), Travis (Austin), Nueces (Corpus Christi), El Paso, Gregg (Longview), Wichita (Wichita Falls), Tom Green (San Angelo), Tarrant (Arlene), and many smaller counties.

The liberal supporters of Sen. Ralph Yarborough maintained their control in Harris County on a showdown vote. The conservatives did not bolt their leader said they would file a protest with the State Democratic Executive Committee that the Houston convention was illegal and should be declared null and void. Harris County, with 847 votes, will have the largest single delegation at the state convention.

At Plainview, delegates to the Hale County convention adopted a resolution praising both Connally and Yarborough in addition to President Johnson and U.S. Rep. George Mahon.

Most of the conventions were harmonious with only a few of the flare-ups that have marked the long intra-party fighting between conservatives and liberals in previous elections years.

At Midland, about one-third of the delegates walked out and staged a rump convention, electing a liberal slate for the Austin meeting.

The Harris County convention was marked by a squabble over delegates from 29 precincts. A showdown vote gave the liberals 5,053 votes to 4,471.

At Dallas and Fort Worth, a resolution praising both President Johnson and Connally were approved. Efforts by liberals to get the praise extended to Yarborough were unsuccessful.

Connally was given a standing ovation when he appeared at the Travis County convention in Austin. All business was transacted by voice vote but the conservatives claimed 1,600 of the

BULLETIN

DA NANG, South Viet Nam (AP)—Heavy firing broke out in this tense city Sunday as Vietnamese marines moved in to seize the local radio station.

Machete attacks and several mortar shells burst as the marines moved toward the radio station building.

The marines were airlifted during the night from Saigon and they swooped down at dawn, seizing the headquarters of the Vietnamese 1st Corps headquarters.

Casualties could not be immediately determined.

More Forces For Viet Nam Urged

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., said Saturday a substantial increase in U.S. forces in Viet Nam coupled with an end to "policy restrictions" is needed to defeat the Communists there.

Stennis, who heads the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, told a Muhlenberg College forum that the only way to gain peace in Asia is to shorten the war by turning on full American military power.

"It is now too late for disagreement as to whether we should be in South Viet Nam," he said. "Our past and present commitment is such that we cannot now withdraw without dishonor to our national purpose and our national image."

"We must, I feel, shorten the war to save American lives," he said. "Fighting a mere holding action will take a greater toll than a decisive, forceful, successful effort to end it quickly. Those who oppose this position offer no practical alternatives."

Stennis predicted this would entail a "substantial augmentation of our forces in South Viet Nam over and above the 250,000 military personnel we already have in that country."

"It will also require an end to the political and policy restrictions that have prevented us from waging the war with maximum military effectiveness," he said. "We must strike both the source of Viet Cong and North Vietnamese supplies, as well as supply routes and facilities throughout the country."

Reserve Cuts Are Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara's renewed effort to revise and cut back the Army Reserve forces got an anticipated—and strongly worded—rejection Saturday night from the Senate's defense subcommittee.

Charging the Pentagon civilian head with resisting and defying the clear intent of Congress, the Senate panel said that McNamara has caused a serious waste of trained military manpower and created confusion and disorder among the Army's Reserves and National Guard.

"As recently as last fall Congress expressly disapproved the merger proposal," the report said of McNamara's plan to merge the Army Reserve and National Guard forces.

Howard County Delegation Will Back Gov. Connally

Howard County's delegation to the state Democratic convention will be with Governor Connally all the party, generally labeled "conservative," were in charge at the county convention Saturday evening, an event that drew one of the largest crowds in history. The district courtroom was nearly filled, and there were 130 voters.

County delegation has not been by the more liberal faction. The county has 24 votes at the state convention, to be held in Austin Sept. 20.

The session lasted a little more than an hour, and half that time was spent in checking delegate credentials.

County Chairman Cecil Riordan opened the convention, and John Burgess was elected permanent chairman. He appointed Sue Ratliff as secretary and Bob Travis as parliamentarian.

The meeting moved on without incident. There was a scattering of "noes" to both the one resolution offered, and to the slate of delegates, against a wave of "ayes."

The brief resolution adopted recognized the state party leadership of Governor Connally, urged all Democrats to support nominees of the party for all public offices, and bound its delegation to the state under the unit rule "to support Governor Connally, his leadership, his program and his recommendations in matters relating to the Democratic party and his administration of our state government."

One voting box, No. 1, asked that its delegates be withdrawn from participation in the convention.

After the slate of delegates was read, County Chairman Riordan asked that his name be withdrawn.

Others selected:
Jack Buchanan, Clifton Ferguson, Paul West, Jack Irons.

Mitchell Demos Give Support To Connally

COLORADO CITY (SC)—Mitchell County's Democratic convention endorsed President Lyndon Johnson and Governor John Connally and appointed nine delegates to the state convention at a meeting at 2 p.m. Saturday in District Court Room.

The delegates are Judge Elmer Martin, Doyle Hester, Jim Anderson, Charlie Thompson, Otto Jones, J. M. Templeton, Marcus Vest, Jack Hale and Gwan Strange.

Thompson was elected chairman of the convention.

Alternates selected are Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. George Wilten, Leroy Gressett, Mrs. Doyle Hester, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Jones, Murrell Blasingame, Rev. C. C. Beck and Miguel Flores.

Kidnaped Man Reported Killed

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Reports received here Sunday said an American serviceman kidnaped near Bong Son had been shot and killed by his guerrilla captors. A second U.S. serviceman reported to have been kidnaped was listed as missing.

A U.S. military spokesman identified the first as Pvt. Theodore R. Vance of Eureka, Calif., and said the military had listed him as missing in action. The spokesman had no comment on reports that Vance had been slain.

"The whole world is in the process of great upheaval, great division and great reorganization," said a joint Red Chinese-Albanian communique broadcast by the New China News Agency from Peking.

The communique was signed in Peking by Premier Chou En-lai and visiting Premier Mehmet Shehu of Albania Wednesday, the day Shehu departed and two days after the Red Chinese had exploded their third nuclear device. Albania is Communist China's ally in Eastern Europe in the dispute between Moscow and Peking on how to spread communism around the world.

"The two sides reiterate that nuclear weapons must be completely prohibited and thoroughly destroyed and that, first of all, the use of nuclear weapons must be banned," the communique said. "The Albanian side reaffirms its full support of the Chinese government for a summit conference of all the countries of the world to discuss the question of complete prohibition and thorough destruction of nuclear weapons."

Most Congressmen Think Pay Is Adequate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Most members of the House of Representatives think their $30,000-a-year salaries plus allowances are enough and manage to run their offices without dipping into outside income.

Although Congress has taken no steps toward requiring public disclosure of members' sources of income, a majority of the representatives say they favor such a law.

These sentiments were reflected in a poll by The Associated Press of a representative cross section of Democratic and

YEAR'S COTTON CROP TAKES ADVANTAGE OF GOOD MOISTURE
Throated roar of tractor-planters heard all over the county

Impatient Farmers Ready To Put Cotton In Ground

By SAM BLACKBURN
The annual big gamble in Howard County is now under way.
From one end of the county to the other farm tractors drag cotton planters across lushly moist fields. The annual cotton planting is getting in full swing, and by the end of this month there will be 47,000 acres of the choice farm land of the county seeded to the staple crop of this area.

clouds rolled away, farmers hit the field with their planting. This time, though, they have calmly—well, maybe not calmly—waited.
Already speculation is heard on the crop.
Old timers point to the county-wide rains of two weeks ago which have been described as the "best ever." They point to the new planting pattern being followed and to the 47,000 acres which will be seeded.
"Give us a little rain at the right times," they argue, "and we may make as much as a 47,000 bale crop."
The Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee of the county said the original cotton allotment made to Howard County was 70,660 acres. This was slightly under the 1965 cotton allotment. Farmers have put 23,659 acres in the government's domestic quota program, and these acres will not be planted. There remains 47,000 acres for cotton.

There are 763 cotton farms listed with the ASC for the year.
Farmers have been ready to start planting for days, but fields were too wet—a rare condition for this part of Texas.
Some sections of the county may have received as much as 10 to 12 inches of moisture in the week of precipitation which broke the early spring dry spell.
This bonanza has given farmers an abundance of planting season at precisely the right time. Planting from now to June 15 will be considered ideal timing.
Last year started badly, and there was gloomy speculation that the crop wouldn't be worth harvesting, but it caught some timely showers and turned out one of the better yields at over 45,000 bales.
The picture is altogether different, and farmers keep saying: "Give us rain at approximately the right time, hold the bugs to a minimum, miss us with the hail, and we'll show a real cotton crop."

DEAR ABBY

Cheap Shopping Gets Poor Buy

DEAR ABBY: I hope to marry a nice girl someday, one who doesn't drink or smoke, but while I'm still single, I prefer to date girls who do. Girls who drink and smoke are cheaper to date because they don't mind eating cheap food in a low-class diner. Take them to a cheap dive and give them some drinks and cigarettes and they are contented. Also girls who drink and smoke usually lack self respect, so they don't expect a fellow to respect them, and he can usually get away with anything he wants on the first date.

I am not a bum, I'm just an average guy, but so many people push the sweet, innocent-type girls, I thought someone should explain why so many men prefer the cheap kind. We don't want to MARRY them, just DATE them.

JOHN Q. PUBLIC

DEAR JOHN: Speak for yourself, John! The fellow who has dated nothing but willing women can have his choice of any tramp he's dated when selecting a wife. Men who do their shopping at a rummage sale are unlikely to find a jewel from Carter.

DEAR ABBY: We are two

June 12 Deadline For Steno Bids

June 12 has been set as the closing date for applications for stenographers and typists, it was announced this week by the Webb civilian personnel office. The announcement, issued by the Dallas Region US Civil Service Commission, covers Grades GS-2 and 3, $3,814 and $4,149 a year for typists and Grades GS-3 and 4, $4,149 and $4,641 a year for stenographers.

Red Cross Loses Field Director

Miss Evelyn Long, field director for the American Red Cross, left Webb AFB Thursday for an overseas assignment. Miss Long had served as base ARC field director since November, 1964.

Replacing her on a temporary basis will be Albert Chosed, who is with the Red Cross office at Dyess AFB, at Abilene.

A permanent replacement for Miss Long will be named in the near future, it was announced.

Cracks Down On Car Thieves

DETROIT (AP) — Judge James Lincoln of Wayne County Juvenile Court is taking off his kid gloves in dealing with youths who steal cars.

First offenders, presently ticketed and assigned a hearing date, will be put in the county youth home "at least overnight," Lincoln said Friday.

He said parents of offenders will be haled into court the next day for a hearing.

The idea for harsher action came from the success of Lincoln's campaign against knife carriers. He started holding juvenile knife carriers in the youth home after a series of stabbings in schools a year ago.

"The word got around the heat was on," Lincoln said. "The number of juveniles arrested for carrying knives dropped 12 per cent in the first three months, 34 per cent in the next six months and, after one year, is now down 54 per cent."

Most Precincts Name Chairmen

An election which did not share in the spotlight but which produced some close races last Saturday saw Democratic precinct chairmen elected for most boxes.

Most were named by write-in votes. Five boxes did not muster even the write-ins, and the county Democratic executive committee will name chairmen for these. C. V. Riordan, county chairman, said he was not certain whether this will be done until after Jan. 1, 1967, when his successor, Ed Fisher, and the new committee takes office.

One box — No. 15 (Runnels Junior High) — produced a one-vote tie between H. D. Stewart and Avery Deel.

"Maybe one of them will decline to accept," Riordan said. The five boxes which are without precinct chairmen are No. 1, Northside fire station; No. 5, Vincent; No. 7, R-Bar; No. 17, Gerald Harris residence and

No. 19, Elbow school.

The other precincts, their chairmen, and the write-in candidates: No. 2, Washington Place school, G. E. Gressett; No. 3, Main Street fire station, John Roemer; No. 4, City Hall fire station, Kenneth Howell; No. 6, Gay Hill, O. R. Crow; No. 8, Cedar Crest school, L. R. Mundt; No. 9, Coahoma, B. A. Sheppard; (Sheppard received 11 votes and Hezzie Read, 10 votes); No. 10, Forsan, J. C. Ferguson (write-in candidates were G. L. Monron, Robert Cowley, J. D. Gilmore and Mrs. J. P. Kubecka, one each); No. 11, Center Point, Alden Ryan; (Ryan 4 and A. A. McKinney 1); No. 12, Prairie View, Edgar Phillips; No. 13, Knott, Donald Allred; (J. H. Wood 1); No. 14, Vealmoor, R. A. Merrick; No. 15, Runnels Junior High; tie vote 1 each for Avery Deel and H. D. Stewart; No. 16, Park Hill school,

W. D. Berry; (Berry 219, Floyd Young 154 and R. H. Weaver 2); No. 18, Byron Neel residence, Byron Neel (Neel 3 and L. L. Miller 1); No. 20, Crestview church, James Suggs; (Suggs 4, Arden Marple 3, Cecil Hamilton, Ludwig Graub and W. E. Anderson, one each).

Riordan said that there were several other write-in votes including Harvey Hooser Jr., one vote for district judge; William H. Rogers, one vote for county judge; and V. A. Gomez, one vote for county chairman.

Patrol Applicant Deadline June 6

AUSTIN — Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has announced that June 6 is the deadline for application to the next DPS recruit training school for patrolmen.

Pay during training has been increased from $375 to $460 per month, and upon graduation this is increased (effective Sept. 1, 1966) to either $468 or $484, depending upon the branch of service to which the patrolman is assigned. Applicants must be between ages 21 and 35.

THANK YOU

Even though I had no opponent in the Primary Election May 7, I appreciate very much the overwhelming vote you gave me. My utmost intention is to give you the service that you most expect. If I can help you at any time, please call on me.

YOU ARE NOT OLD WHEN YOU ARE HEALTHY

Only a few generations ago almost everyone was old at 40. People who had a fiftieth birthday were considered fortunate. Many of them had incurable pains and aches. Few enjoyed good health.

Now, with greater medical knowledge we have medicines that perform seeming miracles. There are few diseases that do not respond favorably to treatment. Drugs can usually be depended upon to produce a desired benefit. People can be immunized against former killers.

We carefully read and study all information about new drugs and add them to our stock as soon as they are available. Your physician can prescribe medicines which will keep you young for a longer time.

YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a medicine. Pick up your prescription if shopping nearby, or we will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people entrust us with their prescriptions. May we compound yours?

Homes Needed For Students

More homes with high school and college age members are needed to host 34 foreign exchange students here June 30-July 3.

Mrs. Richard J. Ream, president of the host chapter of American Field Service, said that enough homes had been volunteered, but several of them do not have children of an age where interests would be in common with the visiting students.

Families with high school and college age members who can take one of these students into their homes for a brief interval are asked to call Mrs. Ream at AM 3-6437.

JAMES C. SHELTON

Asst. Agent Is Named

James C. Shelton, 22, who will graduate from East Texas State University on May 22, will begin his duties here as assistant county farm agent on May 23.

Shelton, a native of Moran and the son of a pioneer ranching family, was appointed to the post by Billy Gunter, district agent of Lubbock. He was introduced to the Howard County Commissioners Court on Monday.

He will begin work with Herb Helbig, county agent, as soon as he receives his diploma. Shelton is married.

He will fill the vacancy on Helbig's staff caused by the recent transfer to Coleman County of Don Brandenberger, who had been assistant agent for 18 months. Brandenberger became the agent in Coleman County.

Baird Wins Scholarship

COLLEGE STATION—A Texas A&M University cadet from Big Spring, Wayne Julian Baird has been awarded an Air Force ROTC scholarship.

Now a sophomore, he will receive assistance for his final two years of study effective September, 1966. High quality students possessing skills and backgrounds required by the Air Force were awarded scholarships paying tuition, lab expenses, textbooks and $50 a month.

Wayne was among 28 A&M students selected. The Air Force gave 1,000 scholarships in 198 U.S. universities and colleges with four-year AFROTC programs. Minimum grade average, officer qualification test and high personal and moral standards must be met for selection and retention.

The son of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Julian B. Baird, 120 Kelly Circle, he is a mechanical engineering major. The Big Spring High graduate is a cadet corporal and assistant squad leader in Squadron 11 of the Corps. Recently he was named best drilled man in his division.

U.S. Soldier Is Kidnaped

BONG SON, Viet Nam (AP)—A soldier of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division has been kidnaped.

He had rented a motor scooter in Bong Son and was driving it on Highway 1 outside the village when a squad of guerrillas seized him Thursday.

The soldier's name and unit were withheld in the interest of his safety and pending notification of kin.

Absentee Voting Time To Be Short As Its Ballot

Absentee voting in the June 4 runoff primary will be about as short as the ballot.

Absentee voting opens on May 25 and closes May 31, according to Mrs. Pauline Petty, Howard County clerk.

Normally 10 days are allotted for this type of voting.

Meantime, C. V. Riordan, County Democratic Chairman, said that he cannot order the ballots for the primary election until he has a certified list of state candidates. This, however, will be short. Apparently it will list only one contested race—the selection of the Democratic nominee for attorney general.

This will mean that in 10 of the 20 voting boxes in this county, the voters who go to the polls will find but one race and two names on their ballot. In the other 10 precincts, there will be two contests—attorney general, and county commissioner.

Voters in Commissioner Precinct 2 will decide between R. C. Nichols, incumbent, and Ralph White, former county commissioner. The five voting boxes in this precinct are No. 2, Washington Place school; No. 3, Coahoma; No. 10, Forsan; No. 15, Runnels Jr. High, and No. 18, Byron Neel residence on East 25th Street.

In Commissioner Precinct 4, the contest is between L. J. Davidson, incumbent and Bill Tune. The five voting boxes in the precinct are No. 4, City Hall Fire Station, No. 5, Vincent; No. 6, Gay Hill; No. 7, R-Bar and No. 11, Center Point.

Riordan said that he anticipates a tight county vote and has asked precinct judges to operate with a minimum number of workers.

"I want to keep the expenses for these two primaries to $2,500," said Riordan.

He said that the $1,500 he expects to have left over will be rebated to the candidates who were assessed primary fees at the beginning of the campaign.

Preakness Test Ahead For Kauai King

By GEORGE BOWEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
BALTIMORE (AP) — Kauai King is due a hero's homecoming at Saturday's 91st running of the $150,000-added Preakness and the most serious obstacles in his path toward the Triple Crown are the same 3-year-old colts he beat in the Kentucky Derby.

The Derby — Advocator, Blue Skyer and Stupendous — are slated to be among the entries Thursday morning. So are seventh place Amberoid and 11th place Williamston Kid.

Other possibles, depending on how they fared in Saturday's Withers mile in New York, include Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Understanding and Mrs. Edward Lasker's Indulto.

Exceedingly, a colt bred and raced locally, gave owner Mrs. Helen Jennings rise for hopes by winning last Monday's Survivors stakes at Pimlico.

There is always the possibility of some last minute stray entries, but the field scheduled to leave the starting gate at 5:46 p.m., EDT is not expected to be more than eight to 10.

Television coverage by CBS will start 15 minutes before the race, which already has a pot of $163,500. Another $1,000 will be added for each entry and starter. A final field of 10 would net the winner $119,275, with $30,000 for runner-up, $15,000 for third and $7,500 for fourth.

As important as the money to owner Michael Ford of Omaha, Neb., for a victory by Kauai King is the prestige of the second leg of the Triple Crown.

Kauai King was not nominated for the June 4 Belmont but can be made a supplement entry for $5,000.

Only eight 3-year-olds have captured the crown in the 82 years it has been on the line. The last was Citation in 1948. Since then three have tacked together the Derby and Preakness only to come a cropper in the 1 1/4 mile Belmont.

One of the failures in recent years was Native Dancer, who sired Kauai King. He was beaten in the Derby, his only racing setback.

Pimlico officials hope this background will prod the Marylanders to turn out in force. They will open the 36-acre infield for spectators for the first time in three years and invite advance betting on the Preakness the day before.

There's little doubt most money will be on Kauai King. Even in Kentucky, he was the favorite.

"He doesn't have to carry his track with him and he can run with or off the pace," a veteran trackman said.

Kauai King's last two races swelled his ranks of supporters. In Bowie's Gold Cup April 23, he took an early lead on a muddy track. Wheatley Stable's Stupendous caught up with less than an one-eighth of a mile to go, but at the finish was badly beaten by three lengths.

Two weeks later in the Derby, jockey Don Brumfield again guided Kauai King quickly to the front on a hard track. He refused to surrender to rallies by Stupendous, Advocator and Blue Skyer and won by one-half length.

It brought his 1966 record to seven victories in nine races.

Advocator is owned by Mrs. Ada L. Rice, whose Lucky Debonair won the Derby only to break down in the Preakness and be sidelined the rest of the year.

Trainer Jim Padgett of Blue Skyer was pleasantly surprised with his third place in the third, and felt it was just the tonic needed for the Preakness. The colt, owned by Padgett's father and H. A. Grant, had been hampered by a sinus condition.

Reginald Webster's Amberoid will be given his Preakness shot because he stumbled at the start of the Derby and was not able to make a showing.

Mrs. J. B. Apple To Head Lone Star Credit Council

THE 66TH ANNUAL Texas Credit Conference in Austin May 21-24 will see Mrs. J. B. Apple, left, installed as president of Credit Women's Council of Credit Women's Clubs. Other local women, all members of the Big Spring Credit Women's Club, who will attend the District Eight meeting are Mrs. A. G. Eitzen, Mrs. Noel Hull, Mrs. W. E. Moren, Mrs. Loyd Wooten, Mrs. Sunbeam Morrison, Mrs. R. L. Nail, Miss Pauline Sullivan and Mrs. Pyrlle Bradshaw. Mrs. Apple will be installed Sunday and will be honored at a reception that evening. A highlight of the meeting will be a symposium conducted by past presidents of the Lone Star Council, and at the post convention board meeting, committees for the coming year will be appointed. Local men going to the Texas Credit Conference are J. B. Apple who will attend the directors meeting for the Collection Service Division of Associated Credit Bureaus, and Richard Hughes who will attend the Medical Credits meetings and the general session.

AN ACCURATE and interesting record is kept concerning projects, accomplishments and social activities of the Big Spring Credit Women's Club. Mrs. A. G. Eitzen constructed the large blue and silver scrapbook here being admired by Miss Katherine Homan and Mrs. R. L. Baker. The book should do well in competition against those entered by credit clubs in other cities.

WOMEN WITH 25 or more years of credit work will attend a Career Club luncheon Saturday in Austin for members of the Lone Star Council of Credit Women's Clubs. Joining the elite group will be Mrs. Sunbeam Morrison, left, who discusses the credit manual and study course with Mrs. A. J. Prager and Mrs. Lloyd Curley, local credit club members. Others who will attend the luncheon are Mrs. Loyd Wooten, Mrs. Pyrlle Bradshaw and Miss Pauline Sullivan.

TOP SPOTS in the Big Spring Credit Women's Club are held by Mrs. Pyrlle Bradshaw, president, Miss Pauline Sullivan, secretary; and standing, Mrs. Noel Hull, vice president. All three will attend the credit conference in Austin next weekend. Mrs. Joe Blum, treasurer, was unable to be present for the picture.

FANCY DRESS for the lighter side of convention schedules is modeled by Mrs. Loyd Wooten, Mrs. A. G. Eitzen and Mrs. Eva Nail. Following the formal reception Saturday for the international president, Mrs. Dorothy Alexander of Philadelphia, Penn., and the retiring Lone Star Council president, Mrs. Arline Taylor of Austin, the Big Spring Credit Women's Club will host a muu-muu party where costumes will be worn.

That old adage If You Don't Like The Weather Stick Around While And It Will Change doesn't apply to just West Texas as any more. This has been a spring of unpredictable weather all over the U. S. Those of us in this part of the country are accustomed to all types of heat and cold during the change in seasons but this year has been a little straining. Of course not many in this area will complain of too much rain right now but down in the south part of the state they are getting somewhat weary of being wet day in and day out.

The cool days and nights are sustaining our tomato blossoms, tho. I haven't missed one of them. And the beans are blooming and we have hope that there'll be little beans showing up soon . . . most years they burned up from dry, hot winds before we even got the blooms counted. It's rather fine weather if it's not overdue.

ROBERT JACOBS who published The Herald about 25 years ago has sold his office supply business in Pauls Valley, Okla., and retired. After he left Big Spring, he was in a partnership with another Herald-ex, GEORGE BAKER, at Sonora and Marfa.

A LOVELIER YOU

Beauty And Beach --Unbeatable Bait!

By MARY SUE MILLER

In a quest for beauty by the waterside, a lustrous head-to-toe complexion cannot be overstressed. A tune-up is not farther away than one's own private pool, one's bath filled with oceans of loveliness potions.

Let's see what they are and how to make the most of them. A well-lathered long-handled bath brush makes a potent position, if used during daily baths and showers to gently brush-cleanse every inch of skin from the underside of feet to underside of chin. For another beautifier, dry long and briskly with a firm terry towel, upward from soles. To reach the lower back, reserve a long-handled sponge for the purpose.

Tret dry skin by adding water-mixable bath oil to tubs; apply after-bath oil following showers. Use of oil, however, does not preclude use of body lotion. Apply lotion at night, when you take an oil bath in the morning, and vice versa.

If the shoulders are a troubled spot, blemished with blackheads or pimples, give them special care. Avoid the use of oil in the area and of bath oil altogether. Instead bathe with medicated soap and, after baths, apply a medicated liquid designed to overcome infection.

And be sure to make applications with a fresh sterile gauze pad.

Given this kind of care the skin comes to sparkle. Like sun on water!

TIPS FOR TEENS

Fifty ways to ideal skin and natural make-up for young adults—ages 13 to 19—are detailed in my booklet, "Model Tips for Teens."

Advice covers corrective skin care; how to use make-up to accent good points and play down problems; fashion model make-up tricks. For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller in care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing 25 cents in coin and a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

G. R. Robinson Family Will Gather Here For Summer

By JO BRIGHT

When all of the energetic members of the G. R. Robinson family are gathered under one roof, as they will be briefly this summer, there will be much conversation about several delightful and exciting projects underway. Meanwhile, until school is out, the only official inhabitants of the spacious home at 2619 Crestline are Mr. and Mrs. Robinson who recently moved here from Colorado City.

Anne Robinson, 14, a ninth grade student, has remained with her grandmother, Mrs. John Brown in Colorado City to finish out the term with her classmates. Her sister, Myra Ellen, 19, who is a freshman at Southern Methodist University, will be home in June, and the summer will also see the arrival of Mike, 22, who graduates from Princeton this month.

TO CANADA
Mike's stay here in his new home will be brief, however, for he has already accepted a summer job with the Canadian government which will take him on a geological survey to the Yukon territory. Next fall he will be working on his master's degree at the University of Texas which leaves him only a couple of weeks to spend lounging on the patio of the Coronado Hills home.

Robinson, owner of the Robinson Drilling Company, is the son of Mrs. Glenn O. Robinson of Miami, Okla. He is a graduate of the Miami High School and University of Oklahoma. He met his wife in 1942 when he was working with his father in the D&R Oil Company. Three weeks after their wedding on April 5, 1942, he began his service with the Army. He was in the 95th Infantry Division and a part of Gen. George Patton's Third Army during the "Battle of the Bulge. Discharged as a major, he returned home to become associated with the Stanolind Oil Company.

Mrs. Robinson was born and reared in Colorado City, graduating from high school there and spending a year at the University of California at Los Angeles.

FIRST MOVE
The Robinsons moved to West Texas in 1947 when he joined his father in the Robinson Drilling Company. Prior to moving here they had lived in the same house at Colorado City for 18 years so the move was quite a project and change of pace.

MR. AND MRS. G. R. ROBINSON AND ANNE

Robinson said that Big Spring is more centrally located in regard to his drilling operations in Colorado City. Robinson served two years as mayor and received the Chamber of Commerce outstanding service award. He was a member of the "Industrial Team" and Lions Club but could not participate as much as he'd have liked because, as he put it, "I'm mainly a well-digger." That keeps a man pretty busy. He expressed the thought that he always got more out of civic activities than he put into them. His professional memberships include the American Institute of Mechanical Engineers, American Petroleum Institute and the West Central Texas Oil and Gas Association.

South of Colorado City, the Robinsons own a ranch, which covers approximately 33,000 acres, where they raise Hereford cattle and registered quarter horses. It has become his main leisure-time interest although he said the purchase was made mainly because he was not a golfer and needed something to do—and a place to keep his daughter's pony. For several years, he has continued improvements to the land such as fencing, tanks and conservation practices. He likes to build—and is literally building a ranch that the family can enjoy for years to come. Often, he takes clients there to hunt quail, deer and wild turkey.

At their cabin at the Colorado City Lake, the family boats and fishes and the young people enjoy water skiing.

ORGANIST
Mrs. Robinson was organist at the First Presbyterian Church in Colorado City for almost thirty years and taught music "on and off." She was president of the Women of the Church and also the Zeta Gathan Study Club. Robinson was also an elder in the church and president of the men's organization.

Anne, like her mother, developed her musical talent and plays both the piano and flute. She paints and was named the most talented girl in the Colorado City High School. Myra is a member of Delta Delta Delta and will be the sophomore sponsor next fall. While here this summer, she plans to work in her father's office and may take some courses at Howard County Junior College. Not to be overshadowed, Mike speaks Spanish, Portuguese and Arabic.

The meeting concluded with Mrs. Ara Cunningham, volunteer coordinator of the Veterans Administration Hospital conducting an orientation course.

Basic Pattern Aids Right Fit

If the dress fits, you wear it... and wear it. That's why many women sew their own clothes: To insure the perfect fit that makes a wardrobe tops in wearability. As the first step in achieving this goal, make a basic pattern dress in sturdy cotton muslin. After you have altered the basic design to fit perfectly, use it as a guide in cutting out different pattern styles. Look in sewing books for tips on altering a basic pattern to solve individual figure problems.

Another Landmark Goes With Razing Of T & P Roundhouse

By SAM BLACKBURN
A Big Spring landmark which has been a part of the local scene for nearly four decades is being demolished.

Workers are razing the Texas and Pacific roundhouse, just west of the Gregg Street viaduct.

The sprawling structure has not been used to any great extent for a number of years. Its era of activity passed with the advent of the Diesel locomotive.

The roundhouse derived its name because of its circular design around a turn-table. Locomotives were brought to the turn table, which swung around to a short strip of track that let to a work stall for the engine. Frequently there would be a dozen or more engines in various stages of overhaul.

The building now being demolished is the third to serve the T&P since the railroad came into Big Spring on May 24, 1881.

The Diesels, which doomed the old roundhouse system to obsolescence, made their debut 16 years ago.

The structure being razed was built in the late 1920's. It was first occupied in 1931 and was hailed as "a million dollar layout."

In design it represented about the apex of railroad roundhouse design and efficiency. There was a time when more than 200 men were employed in the shop working on shifts which kept the building lighted and humming around the clock.

No actual date is shown in the

Trainee Exams

The U.S. Civil Service Commission has announced an examination for hospital service worker (trainee) starting at $1.25 per hour for employment at the VA Hospital. Full information and applications may be obtained from the post office or the executive secretary, Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, VA Hospital, in Big Spring.

RAZING OF ROUNDHOUSE MARKS PASSING OF AN ERA

archives for the first roundhouse built by the T&P. However, in view of the type of equipment first put in service on the Fort Worth to El Paso run, it is likely that the roundhouse was erected simultaneously with the depot.

There was plenty of need for crews of mechanics and workers to keep those early day trains running.

Its location in Big Spring was such that it was soon the biggest shop on the division between Fort Worth and El Paso.

In 1920, the old timers recall, there was a disastrous fire which seems to have almost levelled the old roundhouse. No one is certain if this is the one which was erected in the middle 1880's, but a new one was built in 1920. Eight years later a second fire struck the building, and the "million dollar layout" was built to replace it.

Railroaders said that in the heyday of the steam locomotives the shop setup here was about "as big as you could find anywhere."

The shops required the skills of many trades. There had to be boiler makers, pipe fitters, coppersmiths, painters, electricians, upholsterers, workers, carpenters, machinists, oilers, blacksmiths, welders and scores of others—some old timers said that early steam engines "had to be fixed up almost after every run."

One old timer who remembers the steam days is J. A. Magee, who lives at 707 Douglas. He is a retired boilermaker, who was employed for 41 years and four months in the doomed roundhouse and its predecessor. He retired in June, 1964.

The first roundhouse, Magee said, was several blocks to the west of the location of the present building. It was "near the old Salt Lake," he recalls.

The second was to the east of the present site and nearer to the Gregg Street viaduct.

Another veteran of the old shop days is M. C. Lawrence, 711 Ayford, who was a coppersmith for many years with the T&P.

No local official seems to have been informed as to what is being done with the material from the old building.

"It's being levelled," said one, "by a contractor who closed the

Achievement, Heroism Awards Made At Webb

Several awards for meritorious service and heroism have been presented at Webb AFB. Lt. Col. Mount E. Frantz, commander of the 3560th base hospital, and Maj. Maurice J. Took, administrative officer, received certificates of appreciation from Col. Chester J. Butcher, wing commander. These were outstanding service to the Texas National Guard, and Col. Butcher also received a similar certificate.

1st Lt. Neil P. H. Hansen, instructor pilot, got a "well done" award for bringing a T-37 jet trainer down safely when an unsafe nose gear was indicated. The runway was foamed and he set the craft down in the path safely.

Col. Butcher presented the Air Medal and Distinguished Flying Cross to Capt. William F. Clark for service as a combat crew member in Southeast Asia from June 23, 1965-Aug. 23, 1965; the Air Medal to Capt. G. M. Benson II, 1st Lt. Curtis K. Bayer and 1st Lt. Walter F. Turk for participation in helicopter rescue missions over South Viet Nam.

Wants Taxes On Churches

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has been asked to declare houses and buildings used for public worship eligible for state and local taxation.

The court specifically was asked Friday to overturn a Maryland court of appeals decision that the exemptions do not violate the Maryland or U.S. Constitution. That decision was handed down Feb. 14.

Madelyn E. Murray O'Hair and a Mount Ranier, Md., couple, said in separate petitions the exemptions amount to public aid to religious institutions in violation of the U.S. Constitution.

Mrs. O'Hair filed one of the suits that resulted in the Supreme Court's 1963 ruling that required use of the Bible and the Lord's Prayer in public schools was unconstitutional.

Her new petition argues that real estate not owned by religious institutions would have lower taxes if "houses and buildings used for public worship" were subject to state, city and county taxes.

P-TA Will Install Officers Monday

COAHOMA (SC) — The Coahoma P-TA will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school activity room for installation of officers. Officers are Mrs. G. B. Harding, president; Russell Nees, vice president; Mrs. Martha Nixon, secretary; and Harry Lee, treasurer.

Investor's guide! A Cadillac remains unmistakably a Cadillac regardless of year. New or previously-owned, its impressive size, its remarkable beauty and its continuity of styling have all contributed to Cadillac's reputation as the finest of all luxury car investments.

Every day, more and more wise car buyers are discovering that they can get more performance, luxury, distinction and pride of ownership in a previously-owned Cadillac than in many new cars of lesser stature. For example, Cadillac engineering has always been so advanced that many features of Cadillacs several years old are just now finding their way into new cars of other makes. And Cadillac has for years provided as standard equipment automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, power windows and power seats on most models, automatic cornering lights and many other conveniences that even now cost extra on most new cars. Consider, too, the extra reassurance of motoring in an automobile of Cadillac's impressive size and stature. Before you buy your next car, be sure to look for your authorized Cadillac dealer's used car sign. It is the best possible landmark for a wide, attractively priced selection of well cared for, previously-owned Cadillac cars.

Civil War Bursting Shell May Become Mantel Piece

By JERRY MONSON

A Big Spring man who recently inherited a rather dusty relic from the Civil War has quite a problem on his hands.

Should he use it as a doorstop, a mantel piece, or try to find a gun to fit it?

John Anderson, 3705 Hamilton, is the proud owner of a U. S. Parrott shell, manufactured extensively during the Civil War by both the Union and the Confederate forces. The relic was passed on to him when his aunt, Mrs. Jen Davis, died recently. Mrs. Davis had used the 10-pound artillery shell as a doorstop. Anderson says he may make a mantel piece yet.

Anderson lugged the shell out to the Explosive Ordnance Disposal Element at Webb AFB and asked that the Air Force try to identify the shell, since, at that time, no one knew just what type it was.

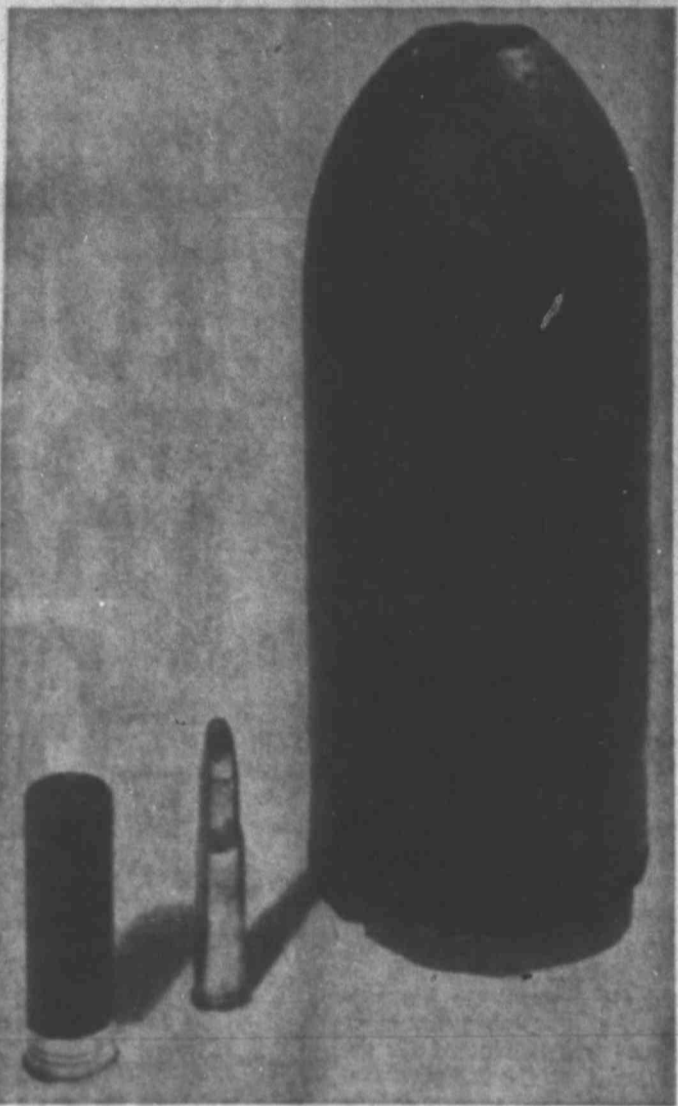

The problem then passed to M. Sgt. Harlow F. Washer, 3560th Supply Squadron, EOD. Sgt. Washer took measurements and pictures of the shell, and sent the pictures off to the 3428th Technical Training Squadron, EOD School, Indian Head, Md.

The answer came back quickly. Lt. Col. Wilmar H. Monson said the ordnance item was a Parrott shell. It was identified by its elongated shape and narrow expanding band (sabot) made from iron and brass. The base of the projectile is slightly recessed because of the sabot overlap.

The shell was able to use either percussion or time fuses, with black powder for bursting charge as its filler. Sizes of Parrott shells varied from three inches at 10 pounds, (the size of Anderson's shell) to 10 inches and 300 pounds.

Anderson's grandfather, John Anderson, Olean, N.Y., walked over 200 miles to enlist in the Grand Army of the Republic.

"I did some checking," Anderson said, "and found out that the 95th New York Infantry, to which my grandfather belonged, fighted at Gettysburg. The picture is a bit hazy, but apparently Granddad Anderson brought the shell back home with him and it was handed down through the family. The shell, one of the most popular shells in the Civil War, was created by Robert Parker Parrott, Cold Springs, N. Y., American inventor and ordnance expert. Parrott was graduated from the United States Military Academy in 1824, and for the next five years he taught natural and experimental sciences there. He saw active service against the Creek Indians in 1836 and in the same year became captain of ord-

Venire Called In Scaggs Case

Dee Scaggs Jr., 22, facing a charge of murder with malice, will seek to show that he is insane when his case is called for trial June 13. He is accused in the gun death of Norris Sadler. Scaggs, arraigned Friday afternoon at the close of a lengthy pretrial session which carried over two days, pleaded not guilty by reason of insanity.

He had spent all of Thursday at the Big Spring State Hospital under examination by the staff psychiatrists. Findings of the hospital experts have not been delivered to the attorneys. Meantime, Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, granted a defense request for a 300 member venire to report on June 13 for the trial. Pending any further developments, the court proposes to go ahead with preparations for the trial.

The state, through Wayne Burns, district attorney, has said that the death penalty will be asked in the case. Gil Jones and Jack Little, court appointed attorneys who represent Scaggs, are busy preparing their case.

They had sought unsuccessfully to quash the indictment and to have their client granted a preliminary hearing at the pre-trial session.

They also asked to see photographs the state has of the victim and other evidence in the case. The court let them see some of the photographs but not all.

Seventeen Ask For Transfers

Seventeen applications for school transfer have been filed so far with Walker Bailey, Howard County superintendent.

Deadline for filing transfer applications is June 1.

All students who will have to attend a school within the county in another school district from that in which they were enrolled this past term must apply for a transfer. For instance, a pupil enrolled in Forsan but who will be at Coahoma next fall should apply.

It was stressed that students who will merely change schools and remain in the same district need not seek transfers.

There are three districts in the county—Big Spring, Forsan and Coahoma.

Don't Cut Yourself Out Of Good Help, Says TEC

Too many employers, in the opinion of Leon Kinney, manager of the Texas Employment Commission office here, are overlooking a good bet in not hiring more persons who are 40 years of age or older.

May has been officially proclaimed by the president as "Senior Citizen Month" and the governor of Texas has joined the president in the movement, he said.

Theme of the observance is "A New Day for Older Americans." Kinney said it has been demonstrated repeatedly that workers past 40 have special qualities not found in younger individuals. Real achievements are being made every day by relatively older people.

One of the most common complaints that employers make, Kinney points out, is that they are unable to fill their growing job needs with skilled and experienced workers. And yet, he said, many of these employers have artificial age barriers which prevent them hiring workers who are 40 to 45 years of age. These rules force long time experienced worker to retire as early as 55 years regardless of their health and their ability to contribute.

"The effect is," says Kinney, "that we are putting millions of potential producers on the shelf. We are treating birthdays as if they were a disease."

"We put great stock in experience, but once a man or woman over 40 is unemployed, all of his years of experience and all his skill that yesterday identified him as a key man in his firm are foolishly devaluated."

Studies conducted by the Department of Labor have shown that older workers are productive, efficient, reliable, require little supervision, and have generally excellent work attendance records.

More and more employers are finding that their arbitrary hiring policies as to age are short-sighted and costly.

One of the goals of Senior Citizens Month is to convince more employers to consider qualified workers over 40 for job openings.
