TWO GRAVELY INJURED IN THIS ONE-VEHICLE WRECK Pickup truck crashed into heavy sign post when front wheel locked

Two Seriously Injured In Sunday Pickup Accident

An eight-year-old Abilene boy is near death and his mother painfully injured as result of a one-car accident at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. The accident was 5.1 miles west on IS 20.

Highway patrol officers said the child, suffering from severe head injuries, is Bobby Wayne Cowart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Wayne Cowart Jr., of Abilene. He is in the Cowper Hospital and Clinic.

His mother, Mrs. Bobbie Cowart, 30, has a severely shattered leg. Surgery is planned later in an effort to save the limb.

Eddie Sheffield, 8, Abilene, another passenger in the pickup, was cut about the face and head, but not seriously injured.

Not hurt were William Cowart Jr., 42, father of the injured child; Paula Cowart, 10; Carla Cowart, 4; and Richie Thomas Cowart, 22 months.

Officers said the Cowarts were in a 1951 Chevrolet pickup, with a homebuilt camper on the rear. They were on route from Midland to Abilene.

Mrs. Cowart had been driving.

A left tire became flat. Cowart changed the tire and then began driving. About a mile from the place where he had repaired the flat, he said the wheel locked on one side and threw the car out of control. It crashed into one of the big IS 20 signs.

The patrol said that Mrs. Cowart and Richie Thomas were in the front seat and that the others were in the camper. The camper was ripped from the pickup by the impact.

The hospital reported that Billy Wayne has multiple skull fractures and that his condition is critical. He has not rallied since being admitted to the hospital.

Rodeo Events Begin Tuesday

Rodeo headquarters for the 1966 edition of the Howard County Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo opens Tuesday at 8 a.m. in the lobby of the Hotel Settles.

All cowboys and cowgirls who plan to compete in the events Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, must sign in by 8 p.m. Tuesday.

Meantime, plans are shaping up rapidly for the annual event.

Rodeo stock has been brought in from Oklahoma by Beutler Bros., producers of the big show.

The opening event, according to E. P. Driver, will be a street dance Tuesday night in front of the county courthouse.

This will be followed Wednesday afternoon by the rodeo parade. The parade will pass through the business area of town starting at 4 p.m.

Scores of riders, including the members of a dozen or more sheriff's posses and riding clubs, will be in the line of march. A large number of specially decorated floats are also being prepared for the parade.

The initial performance of the rodeo is at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Rodeo Bowl west of town. At 5 p.m. Wednesday, the Big Spring Kiwanis Club will serve its sixth annual Rodeo First Night Barbecue dinner.

The general public will be served at the Big Spring City Park. The Kiwanians have a contract to feed the Rodeo Association special guests on opening night. This dinner will be at the Rodeo Bowl.

Tickets are on sale for the barbecue.

STANTON — Trial of Augustin Valles, 22, charged with murder, was moving at a snail's pace Monday morning in the 118th District Court here.

A special venire of 135 had been summoned for duty in the case.

Ralph W. Caton is presiding at the trial. Wayne Burns is prosecuting the case as district attorney and Roger D. Brown, court appointed attorney, is the defense lawyer.

Valles is under indictment for the knife death of Santos Romero. The slaying occurred nearly a year ago.

CEMENT ALLEGIANCE — Regardless, Church said, the United States must cement the allegiance of the 14 NATO members besides France.

Washington discussions on NATO step up this week with Britain's minister of European and NATO affairs, George Thomson, due to see Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other high officials today and Tuesday.

U.S. strategists were reported seeking stronger ties and unity among the 14 NATO members who will remain if France withdraws in advance of the NATO ministerial meeting to be held in Brussels June 6-8.

THREE MOVES — The United States reportedly has made three moves toward this unity.

—It has told its allies it is in favor of moving both the political and military headquarters of NATO from Paris to Brussels.

—It has agreed to expand the present U.S.-British-French standing group that guides NATO's military activities to a six-nation membership composed of the United States, Britain, West Germany, Italy and two rotating countries.

—It is willing to support a German officer as commander of allied forces in central Europe — a position now held by a French official.

REORGANIZE — Rusk has made clear Johnson administration hopes to reorganize Europe's defenses without France, if that becomes necessary.

Despite the military manpower

Grim Fight Opens Over Financing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration opens today what could be one of the grimmest fights of the Congress — to enact a $4.2-billion financing program that could make the difference between a nearly balanced budget next year and one $6 billion in the red.

The bill comes before the House today with a vote expected Tuesday. It would facilitate the sale of participation shares in pools of loans held by the government. Thus the government could convert such assets into cash for use by its agencies, avoiding the need for appropriations.

OPPOSITION

The measure has encountered wide opposition. Republicans have called it a budget gimmick to conceal the amount of government spending. Other opponents — including the Farmers Union and the Americans for Democratic Action — say it would cost the taxpayers more in interest than straight Treasury borrowing.

As soon as the financing measure is disposed of, the House is scheduled to start debating another highly controversial piece of legislation to increase minimum wages.

The measure would increase the minimum wage from the present $1.25 an hour to $1.40 next Feb. 1 and $1.60 an hour a year later.

The measure also would extend coverage of the act to 7.2 million additional workers. A major fight is expected on proposed inclusion of farm workers.

The bill's sponsors say they have enough votes for House passage. The Johnson administration has called for improvements in the minimum wage, without spelling out details.

SPACE BILL

The Senate, with a relatively quiet week in view, is expected to take up a $5-billion National Aeronautics and Space Administration authorization bill.

THIEVES GOT IT HARD WAY

Joel Conway, No. 224 Howard County Junior College, got in his car Sunday morning, but couldn't get it moving.

He got out, looked, and found that someone had removed the drive shaft during the night, officers said.

Minh said there were eight killed, 32 wounded and 12 arrested in Sunday's Da Nang fighting. There was no official confirmation. Other reports said five were killed.

In Saigon, Viet Cong terrorists capitalized on the new civil strife by attacking four police points in the capital's suburbs, apparently in a drive to spread the disorders. The capital itself was hit by the first phases of a strike that hit mostly at public transportation and port facilities.

It threatened the city's electric power and water supplies.

FIRE GENERAL — Ky fired his military commander in the northern provinces, Gen. Ton That Dinh, because he protested the government decision to send troops secretly to Da Nang.

Sprawling Saigon remained outwardly calm, but thousands of workers went on strike, slowing down the unloading of vital military cargo in the congested port.

Urgent meetings continued through the day at the powerful Buddhist Institute, where Buddhist leaders considered their next move in the wake of the government's lightning troop moves against Da Nang.

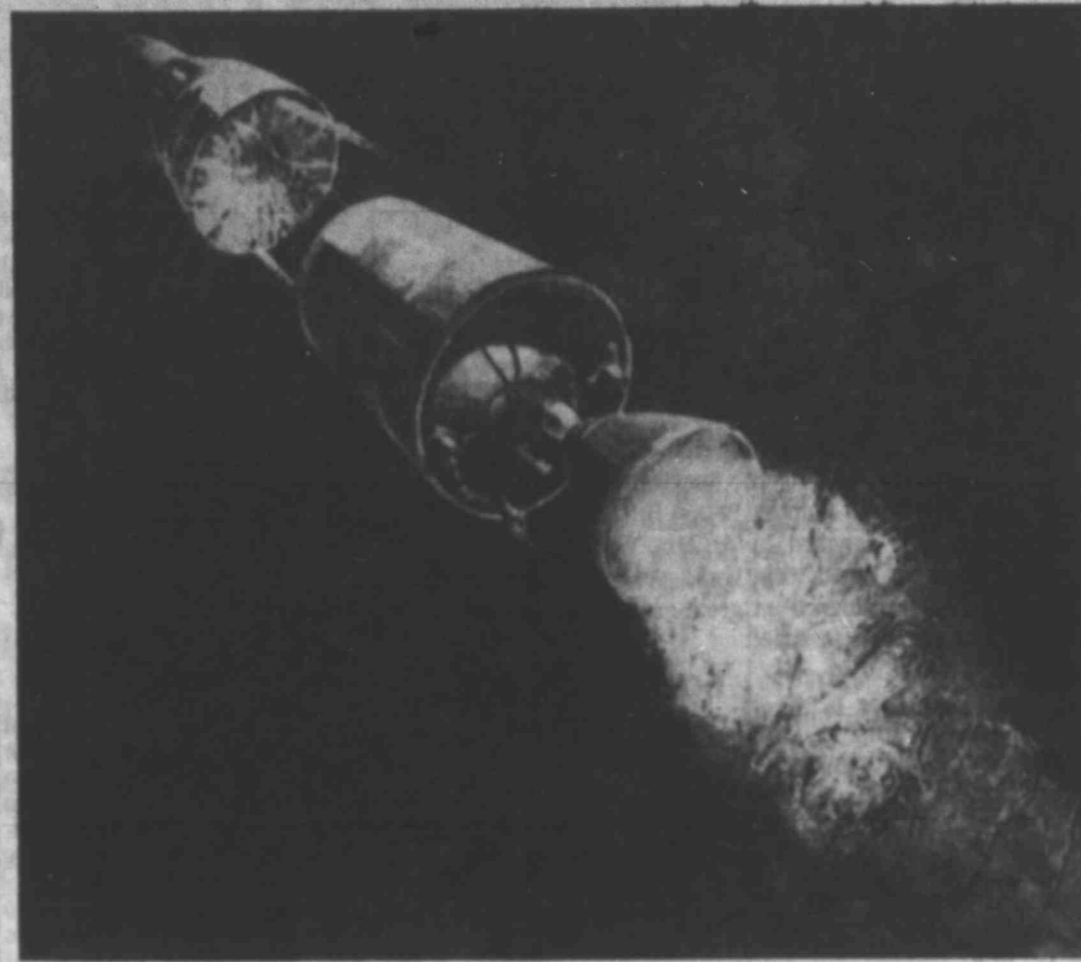

VIOLATED TRUCE — A Buddhist spokesman and former Cabinet minister, Tran Quang Thuan, repeated Buddhist charges that the Ky government had committed treason and violated its pledge of a political truce until fall elections.

NOT TRYING — "We don't seem to be trying very hard to get together with him," Mansfield said.

The Democratic senators got some support Sunday from former GOP Vice President Richard M. Nixon who told Decatur, Ill., news conference that any talks on NATO should include De Gaulle.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Buddhist leadership demanded tonight that Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime pull its troops out of Da Nang where they have taken control of the city's key centers in an attempt to bring dissident northern provinces back under Saigon's authority.

But the gulf between the north and Saigon appeared to deepen. The new crisis cut into the war effort against the Communists and threatened plans for civilian elections in the fall.

Buddhists Demand Removal Of Troops

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Buddhist leadership demanded tonight that Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime pull its troops out of Da Nang where they have taken control of the city's key centers in an attempt to bring dissident northern provinces back under Saigon's authority.

But the gulf between the north and Saigon appeared to deepen. The new crisis cut into the war effort against the Communists and threatened plans for civilian elections in the fall.

READY TO DIE

Buddhists in Saigon announced that "all monks" are ready to die for their cause.

Their spokesman, Thien Minh, charged in an emotional speech that "there is a plot to assassinate all Buddhists."

In Da Nang, where an uneasy calm prevailed throughout the day, Buddhist supporters piled firewood in apparent preparation for threatened immolation by monks.

Minh demanded the government withdraw its troops from the north and "find an immediate solution" to restore civilian rule.

Astronauts Ready To Go, Boning Up

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Healthy and eager on the eve of a bold space adventure, Gemini 9's two astronauts boned up on intricate details of their complex assignment today as preparations for Tuesday's launch continued.

Air Force Lt. Col. Thomas P. Stafford and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Eugene A. Cernan have "the toughest job ever handed an astronaut crew," one official said.

NO THREAT

A minor weather threat dissipated today and meteorologists forecast satisfactory conditions at Cape Kennedy and in recovery areas around the world for Tuesday.

Stafford and Cernan are to blast off at 12:39 p.m. EDT, an hour and 39 minutes after the scheduled liftoff of their Agena target rocket.

There had been some concern about a weak "east wave" that had been creeping toward an area 575 miles southeast of Bermuda where the recovery aircraft carrier Wasp will be stationed in the event of an abort.

The space agency said today the storm offered no threat.

FINAL REST

Stafford and Cernan planned to discuss their flight plan for the final time with project officials. Sunday, they got their final day of rest before their voyage.

In three action-packed days, the Gemini 9 crew plans to catch and latch on to an Agena rocket in the quickest rendezvous ever in space, conduct man's longest orbital walk, and try tricky rendezvous exercises vital to efforts to send men to the moon.

To fly the 70-hour, 40-minute spectacular, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration drew on two well-trained six-footers.

GEMINI 6

Stafford, 35, a balding, slow-talking native of Oklahoma, is fresh from the pilot's seat of Gemini 4, the hunter craft that rendezvoused with Gemini 7 last December.

Cernan, 32, a Chicago native with rugged features and sandy crew-cut hair, has never taken a space flight. However, he has been handed the world's longest space walk — 2 1/2 hours — during which he'll become a human satellite.

Guadalupe Park Bill Approved By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House Interior subcommittee approved today a bill to establish a Guadalupe Mountain National Park in West Texas.

Before approving the measure, the subcommittee adopted an amendment which provides that the park shall not be established until the State of Texas has donated or agreed to donate mineral rights to lands it owns in the proposed park area and until private owners have either donated or sold to the government their mineral rights.

Rep. Richard White, D-Tex., author of the bill, said: "I will now urge quick action by the full committee and passage to the floor of the house of representatives."

"This will mean that within a few years we of West Texas will probably see a renewed tourist boom, and the development for all the public of a beautiful natural resource."

Statue Stolen From Academy

ASHBURNHAM, Mass. (AP) — A five-foot statue of a barefoot schoolboy carrying a lunch pail, slate and books and wearing a straw hat has been stolen from Cushing Academy.

Headmaster Bradford Lamson said Sunday the statue is priceless and irreplaceable. He said the only other similar statue known is in the Swiss Alps.

Nimbus 2 Is Orbiting

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nimbus 2, the revolutionary U. S. weather satellite, is circling the earth in its pursuit of information on the birth and death of storms.

The 912-pound satellite was launched early Sunday at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. A National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesman said it is in a polar orbit 726 miles from earth at its farthest point and 687 miles at its closest.

Nimbus 2, the largest U.S. weather satellite, began sending pictures and data back to earth at noon Sunday.

Only Token U.S. Force Proposed For Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield proposed today that the United States withdraw all but a token force of U. S. troops from Europe as part of the realignment of North Atlantic Treaty Organization defenses.

Mansfield, the Senate Democratic leader, said in an interview he hopes the Johnson administration will recognize the change in status in Europe and seek some compromise with President Charles de Gaulle in France's scheduled exit July 1 from NATO.

REDUCTION — Out of such negotiations, the Montana senator said, could come a sizeable reduction in the six American divisions and supporting forces now in Europe.

"In view of the economic rehabilitation of Western Europe and the reduced threat of Russian aggression, I believe it is time for us to insist that the European nations themselves take on the primary military and financial responsibilities for their defense," he said.

In another development, Sen.

Frank Church, D-Idaho, said he expects the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to hold public hearings soon on U. S. policies in Europe.

Church, who recently completed a two-week tour of Europe, said Sunday on the NBC television-radio program "Meet the Press," these policies need updating. He also suggested that a meeting between President Johnson and De Gaulle would be "very useful."

CEMENT ALLEGIANCE — Regardless, Church said, the United States must cement the allegiance of the 14 NATO members besides France.

Washington discussions on NATO step up this week with Britain's minister of European and NATO affairs, George Thomson, due to see Secretary of State Dean Rusk and other high officials today and Tuesday.

—It is willing to support a German officer as commander of allied forces in central Europe — a position now held by a French official.

REORGANIZE — Rusk has made clear Johnson administration hopes to reorganize Europe's defenses without France, if that becomes necessary.

Despite the military manpower needs in Viet Nam, the administration opposes reducing U. S. forces in Europe because of its possible effect on West German stability.

But Mansfield, in the interview, described the European problem now as "more psychological than military."

"We can maintain our presence in Europe with only a token force," he said. "One division should be enough. If there should be any attack, one division would guarantee our response to it just as well as six."

Mansfield agreed with Church that at this point the United States does not seem to be showing any inclination to negotiate with De Gaulle over his plans to leave NATO.

NOT TRYING — "We don't seem to be trying very hard to get together with him," Mansfield said.

The Democratic senators got some support Sunday from former GOP Vice President Richard M. Nixon who told Decatur, Ill., news conference that any talks on NATO should include De Gaulle.

Most Farmers Waiting For Dry Fields, Check Damage

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Most Texas farmers still wait for their fields to dry. And more wet weather was in store for the state.

John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said farmers were still adding up damages from heavy rains of late April and early May.

Grazing prospects were greatly improved by the rains but some low pastures suffered water damage. Fruit and pecan crop prospects improved.

Moisture is still short over the Panhandle. Dryland wheat is being grazed out and abandoned. Range conditions are below average. Cattle held up well.

South Plains (Lubbock) fields had dried enough by midweek to permit planting but farmers are hesitant due to the uncertain weather. Irrigated wheat and vegetables made good progress and ranges improved rapidly.

Moisture is adequate in the Rolling Plains (Vernon) and grains improved. When fields dry, cotton and sorghum planting will be resumed.

Fields in the blacklands of North Central Texas are still too wet. Some counties report 50 to 70 per cent of the cotton will have to be replanted, plus some sorghum. Ranges look good but some lowland pastures were damaged by floods.

Farmers in Northeast Texas are repairing fences and fixing other damages caused by heavy rains. Most corn and sorghum will have to be replanted. Hay is growing and some oats are being grazed. Pecans are blooming, peaches are making good progress.

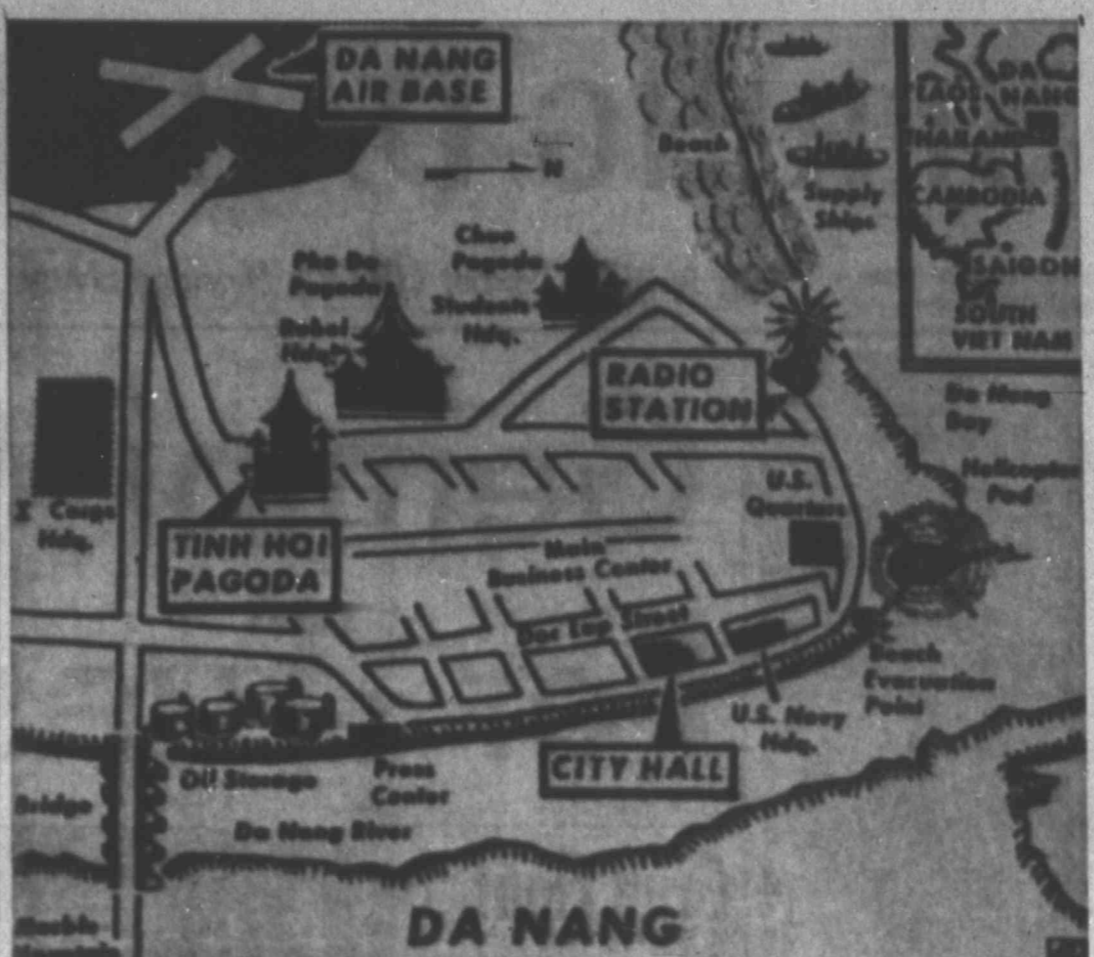

Except for the western counties in far West Texas, rain is adequate. Ranges and dryland crops are improving. Irrigated cotton is nearly all planted and dryland cotton planting has started. Rains slowed sheep and goat shearing. Good yields of alfalfa are being reported.

Moisture is adequate all through West Central Texas and few complaints are being heard about the delays the rains caused. Grains are responding. Sorghum and cotton planting will resume when fields dry. Pastures are lush in southern counties.

Central Texas moisture is adequate to surplus. Grains look good and are heading. Ranges have made great improvements. Heavy rains in East Texas damaged corn and oats. Corn replanting is under way. Moisture is adequate to surplus. Moisture is surplus in Southeast Texas and all crops have been hurt. Grass and weeds are a problem. In Matagorda County, excessive water is being drained from rice fields. There is an abundance of grass in pastures but it is very watery.

South Central Texas crops are suffering from excess moisture; some have drowned out and weeds and grass are a problem. Much replanting may be necessary. The flax and vegetable harvests have stopped.

South Texas crops suffered some damage from the rains. Weeds, diseases and insects are causing concern. Flax is ready for harvesting and has been damaged. Labor is short.

Key Places In Dissident City

Vietnamese Marines, flown in by Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, have secured key places in Da Nang, Buddhist city 300 miles north of Saigon, where antigovernment activity is brewing again. After a bitter fight, the loyal troops took control of the radio station, and have occupied City Hall and sealed off the airbase just west of the city. Antigovernment forces today are reported grasping their military strength near Tinh Hoi pagoda and deploying through the city's market. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Yankees, Angels Blast Victories

The Yankees hopped on the Braves for a 11-2 victory Saturday night in the National Little League, while the Angels masted the Lions 6-2.

In the second game, Doyce Mitchell limited the Lions to a single by Alan Davis. Art McCleery, with a double, and Doc Holiday got two hits for the winners and McCraney got a double. Paul Douglas was the loser.

The Braves had miserable luck, getting only two runs off 14 hits, setting some sort of record. One of the hits was a home run by David Lewis. Mark Sanders, Robert Lloyd, Danny Eggleston and Johnny Tidwell got two hits each and Danny Wood three.

Getting two hits for the Yanks were Bog Highley, Sam Chappel, Steve Daves, Nathan Poss, Kelley Gunn, Randy Crittenden, and Benny Cowper. Crittenden got a homer. Winning pitcher was Crittenden, while David Lewis took the loss.

Internal Strife Slows War Action

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two regiments of South Vietnamese launched a drive today against a Viet Cong base camp 72 miles southwest of Saigon, a Vietnamese army spokesman announced.

Elsewhere, the war slowed to a near halt while South Viet Nam was rocked by dissident army elements and Buddhists in the northern provinces.

It appeared too early however, to tell how much the internal political turmoil would cut into American and allied action against the Viet Cong.

The Vietnamese army spokesman said two regiments of the 9th Vietnamese Division — about 3,000 men — began a drive at dawn aimed at destroying a Viet Cong base camp.

The spokesman said the regiments were bolstered by units of armored carrier personnel and rangers but gave no indication of their size.

He said that toward noon the government forces met light Viet Cong resistance, possibly at the outskirts of the target base camp. They killed 32 guerrillas and seized 25 weapons while suffering light casualties of their own, the spokesman said.

The Vietnamese forces reported taking a 20-bed hospital and a Viet Cong arms-making ordnance shop. The spokesman said the operation was continuing.

U.S. Air Force B52 bombers again struck at a Viet Cong base camp and storage area today, 70 miles north of Saigon. This was the second time in as many days the eight-engine bombers hit the same target area near the Cambodian border in Binh Long Province.

In another action, the Viet Cong sent mortar fire against the Tay Ninh city airstrip before dawn but the shelling was minor.

A Vietnamese army spokesman said the enemy lobbed three rounds of 60mm mortar on the airfield, 54 miles northwest of Saigon, wounding two persons but falling to damage any of the light aircraft on the field.

The internal unrest in the northern provinces which erupted Sunday overshadowed the war effort. Military sources said it was too early to assess its effects. They pointed out that the ground war against the Viet Cong already has slowed down for more than a month, from the time of the Buddhist upheaval of late March and early April.

Internal Strife Slows War Action

In the air offensive against North Viet Nam, it was the monsoon rains rather than politics that cut heavily into American air strikes.

Air Force and Navy planes from carriers flew 33 missions over North Viet Nam Sunday, compared with the usual daily total of 90 to 120 missions.

The Air Force reported loss of an F105 Thunderchief 10 miles southwest of Dong Hoi. The pilot was listed as missing.

While thunderstorms drenched areas north and northeast of Hanoi, Air Force pilots said they cut roads in six places and hit two ferry areas, trucks and a barge in the southern Navy fliers from the carriers Kitty Hawk and Enterprise also struck at coastal targets south of Hanoi in the areas of Dong Hoi, Vinh and Thanh Hoa. They reported 20 barges, eight junks and 15 buildings in storage areas destroyed or damaged and two bridges wrecked.

U.S. planes flew 305 sorties in South Viet Nam in support of ground troops, killing 30 Viet Cong, destroying five sampans, several enemy bunkers and numerous buildings, a spokesman said.

The South Vietnamese air force flew 249 sorties against the Viet Cong, listing 147 of them as flare drops to supply illumination for night operations.

WIVES BEWARE!

If your husband has occasion to visit Fort Worth, don't let him stay at Green Oaks Inn!

Oh, it's nice, all right.

It's done in sort of a storybook Old English.

It has 300 rooms, including 57 suites, and two swimming pools.

The food's all they say it is—the tastiest in Fort Worth.

And the club, patterned after an Old English ale house, is utterly charming.

Green Oaks Inn has a great location—away from downtown congestion, yet less than 10 minutes by freeway from the heart of the city.

The prices are reasonable, too.

Why then, you ask, should you steer him to another hotel?

If he stays at Green Oaks, he'll probably never want to come back home.

County Judge Proclaims Soil Stewardship Week

Soil Stewardship Week was officially proclaimed in Big Spring this week by Lee Porter, county judge, in cooperation with the Martin - Howard Soil Conservation District and the Big Spring Pastors Association.

Porter said in his proclamation that man "must be more aware than ever before of the value of our natural renewable resources . . . because of a rapidly increasing population. These God-given resources, soil, water, plant, and wildlife, must not only be conserved but improved.

"Land is being taken from agriculture with the building of cities, highways, factories, airports, parks and water reservoirs. This is progress, but it does cause our farmers and ranchers to intensify land use for increased production. The responsibilities for the conservation of these resources is by law given to the Soil Conservation Districts and their supervisors in Texas."

Porter cited the work of the 183 Soil Conservation Districts, which encompass better than 99 per cent of the state's land.

Crisis Plays Into Commies' Hands

SAIGON (AP) — South Viet Nam's latest political crisis is hampering the war against the Viet Cong, threatening governmental stability and dimming the chances for elections.

It appears to be playing into the hands of Communists struggling for control of this Southeast Asian nation.

It underlines the precarious position of the United States here and the weak links between the U.S. Embassy and the military regime it has been backing.

The regime apparently staked its future on the daring decision to send elite troops to smash Buddhist dissidence in the north. The next several weeks—if not days—will be crucial.

As usual, the government of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky acted in secrecy and with efficiency it has seldom shown in the fight against the Communists. The airlifting of 2,500 crack troops to Da Nang was carried out "expertly," according to American officials.

But the United States feels it was a major mistake. There is little doubt that American representatives in Saigon would have done everything in their power to prevent it.

More than ever before, South Viet Nam is a powder keg and this crisis could be a slow-burning fuse capable of blowing it up.

America's direct and deep involvement in Viet Nam, its prestige and influence in Southeast Asia, are at stake.

The crisis that pushed the country to the brink of potentially disastrous civil strife brought into the open the deep-seated hatred between the military directorate and the Buddhist political apparatus.

The Buddhists accuse the regime of treason and violation of pledges to honor a political truce before the elections, set for this fall.

The government is pictured as feeling it had to act because the simmering Buddhist revolt in the dissident northern provinces was going too far, and that the Viet Cong was exploiting the dissension which should be stamped out before it spreads.

Search Party Set But Girl Returns

Organization of a comprehensive and all-encompassing county search for a 17-year-old girl was set up and ready to go Sunday morning, but by the time everything was ready to move, the missing lass showed up at home, apparently safe and sound.

Sheriff A. N. Standard, who directed the search plans, said that he was most appreciative to the numerous agencies which lent a hand in getting the hunt under way. That the organization had nothing to do, he said, in no way detracted from the fine cooperation he was accorded.

The sheriff said the disturbance developed when a 17-year-old girl, who had been at Moss Creek Lake with friends, failed to show up at her home late Saturday night.

What happened, the sheriff said he was told, was that the youngsters had been locked in the lake park. Unable to arouse anyone to let them out, they left their car and set out walking to town.

En route, the girl left the others. She told her parents she became weary and had gone to a house to try to call home, but could not awaken anyone. She said she slept in a small utility building for some hours and then resumed her hike.

In town, she stopped at the home of a friend, where, she said, she was not able to arouse anyone. She crawled into a parked car and slept some more. Later when her friend's family had awakened, she got in touch with her parents.

Meantime, the alarmed mother and father called police. The police notified the sheriff and the upshot was that all deputies, the members of the Howard County Sheriff's Posse, the air and sea rescue unit, the highway

Two Arrested For Swindling

Two men wanted here on swindle charges have been apprehended on local warrants, according to Sheriff A. N. Standard.

R. E. Nobles is being held in Lubbock, he said, and Troy Clearman in Altus, Okla. Standard said he would dispatch deputies to get the men in the near future.

DEAR ABBY

Unusual Mother

DEAR ABBY: I am a high school sophomore and my problem is what is happening to "truth" and "honor" today. Yesterday I found a note near my locker. It said:

"Hi, Kathy,
"Carol and I skipped school Friday. We had a ball. We went to her house and made fudge and watched TV. Her mom works, which makes it nice. When I got home at 4:30 my mother told me the school had called me to see why I was absent. My mom is a real doll. She said I was home 'sick.' Want to join us next time?"

"BONNIE"

Abby, as you can see, a student skipped school and her mother lied to cover up for her. This kind of thing makes me sick. If the kids lie and their parents cover up for them, is it any wonder we have so much juvenile delinquency?

DISGUSTED

DEAR DISGUSTED: There have always been "moms" who have lied to cover up for their children, and there always will be. But take my word for it, they are the exceptions. Most mothers would have said, "She went to school today, at least that's where she SAID she was going." And after the school-skipper had faced the music at school, she'd have had a care to contend with at home.

DEAR ABBY: I divorced my husband when my only child was a mere babe in arms. Actually he deserted me when I was pregnant. I married a wonderful man, who adopted my daughter when she was two. He raised her as his own. She is getting married soon and wants a large church wedding. She had decided she wants her REAL father to give her away.

"This girl hasn't seen her REAL father for 16 years; and maybe three times in her entire life. He has done nothing for her. I can't understand this girl. Do I go along with her wishes or tell her it's impossible? Her stepfather would be hurt beyond words; besides he is paying for the wedding. Answer soon as I am a wreck."

NO CITY, NO NAME

DEAR NO: Your daughter appears to feel that the tradition and protocol of a marriage ceremony are more important than her debt to a devoted stepfather. Tell her that while her intentions are probably sincere, the hurt to her stepfather would be unforgivable. And if she doesn't yield then, bow out of the wedding.

Problems? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Hate to write letters? Send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069, for Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters for All Occasions."

Storms Hit Midwest Area

By The Associated Press

Thunderstorms lined up across the nation's midsection today as turbulent weather continued from Southern Illinois to Arkansas.

Tornadoes, damaging hail and lightning struck many spots from Kansas to North Carolina over the weekend.

Hardest hit by the tornadoes was Kansas City, Kan., where at least three persons were injured Sunday night and moderate damage was sustained.

Tornadoes also raked portions of Oklahoma as violent wind and hail storms lashed into Arkansas and Missouri.

At Kansas City a $500,000 fire started by lightning destroyed a barn and killed 53 show and breeding horses at the Cedar Creek Stables.

Blackwell, Okla., and Lake City, Ark., were pelted by large hailstones. Hailstorms also struck Springfield, Mo., and near Jonesboro, Ark.

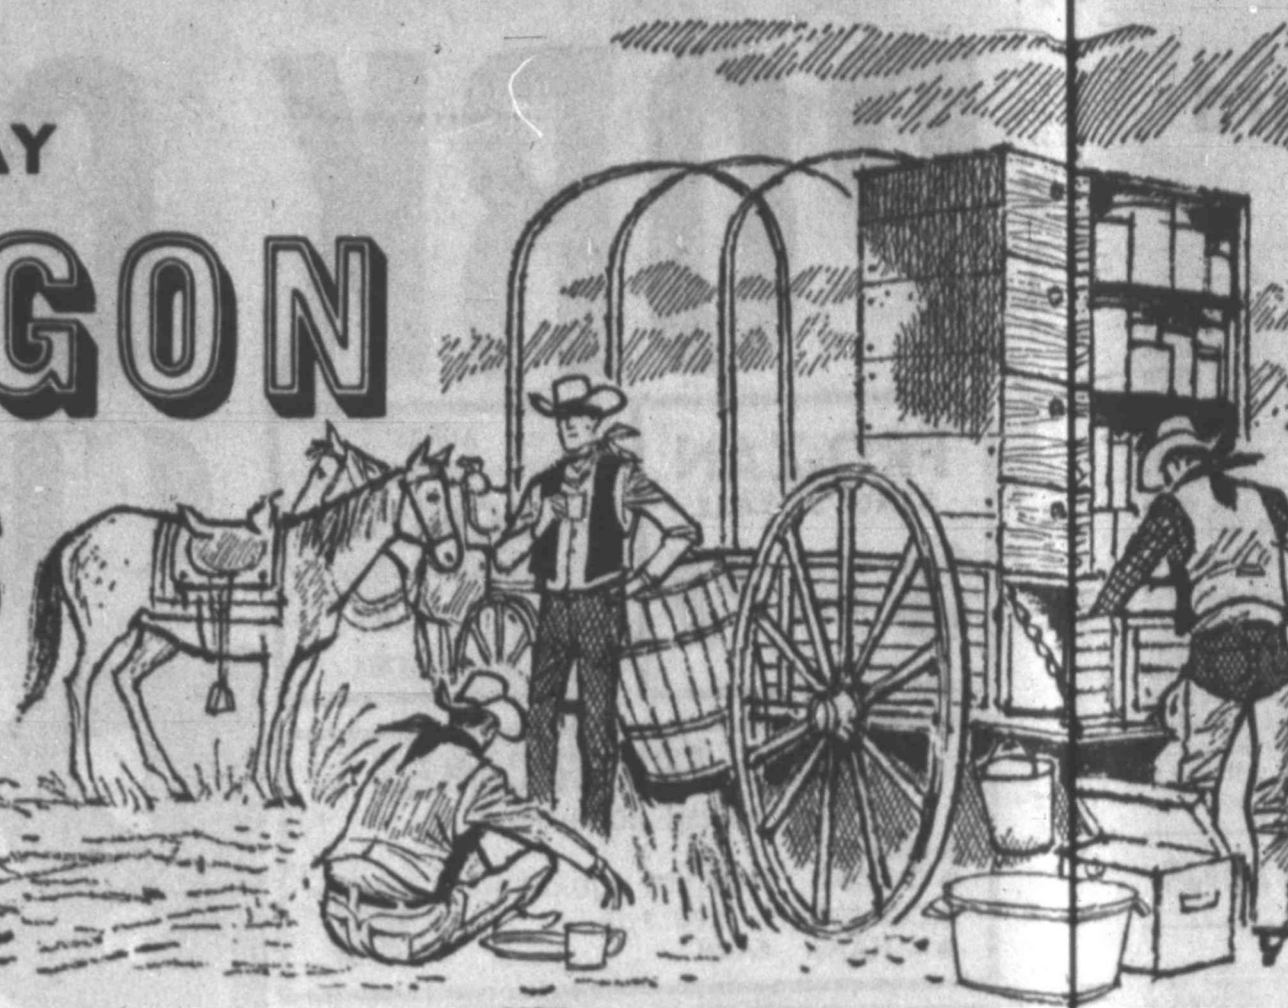

To the east, heavy rain and hail damaged crops extensively in western parts of North and South Carolina Saturday.

A large peach crop at Spartanburg, S.C., was severely damaged and several farmers reported they would have no crop to speak of. Some reported hail stones piled as high as five inches in western North Carolina.

Heavy rains accompanied many of the storms with almost an inch falling in just 18 minutes at Cairo, Ill., Sunday night. More than two inches fell at Cape Girardeau, Mo., in a six-hour period.

41 Texans Die Violently

By The Associated Press
At least 41 persons died violently in Texas during the past weekend, with traffic accidents taking at least 18 lives.
Four of the traffic victims died in a single crash on Interstate 45 about 20 miles north of Huntsville late Sunday night. Ten were shot to death, eight drowned and four persons died in plane crashes across the state.
The Associated Press count began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday.
Killed in the crash north of Huntsville were Mrs. Ernestine Cannon, 52, of Madisonville, Mrs. Bobbie Eugene McIntire, about 28, and her two children. Names of the children were not immediately learned.
Mrs. McIntire's husband, 28, was reported in poor condition early today at a Huntsville hospital.
A near head-on collision Saturday night on old US 77 three miles south of Waxahachie killed Hoyt Keith, 50, of Forreton and John C. Blankenship, 18, of Dallas.
Howard G. Bishop, 36, of San Antonio died after his car collided on a San Antonio street Saturday night with one driven by Army Sgt. Milton Shaw. A passenger in Shaw's car told police they were being pursued by another car, the driver of which had fired several shots at them.
Ruday T. Iljjerina of Waco was shot to death at a Waco night club on the Dripping Springs Road Saturday night.
Charles David Arnold, 21, of San Antonio was killed Saturday night when a pickup truck left Texas 16 east of Bandera and overturned.
Mrs. Donny Sykes, 21, of Richardson was killed Sunday in a auto crash on North Central Expressway in Dallas and her husband was critically injured. The driver of the other vehicle escaped from his car just as it burst into flames.
Bobby Eugene Brooks, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brooks, drowned Sunday in a stock pond near his home at Stamford.
Randy Walker, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Walker of Houston, drowned Sunday at a motor hotel swimming pool in Houston.
R. D. Hollingsworth, 64, of Houston was killed Sunday when he apparently lost control of his car and it overturned in Houston.

No Rain Over State

By The Associated Press
Texans basked in bright sunlight Sunday as the mercury soared to new heights for the year and Presidio recorded a high of 105 to become the nation's hot spot.
No rain was reported in the state Sunday and forecasters said the only shower activity expected today was along the coast and possibly in extreme Northwest Texas.
Skies were cloudy Sunday along the coast and partly cloudy to clear across the remainder of the state.
Temperatures Sunday afternoon were mostly in the 80s and 90s, with San Angelo and Childress reporting 99, Wichita Falls 97, Wink and Abilene 96 and Amarillo and Lubbock 95.
Early morning temperatures today ranged from 66 at Dalhart to 76 at Galveston and Palacios. Sunday morning's minimums ranged from 52 at Dalhart to 75 at Corpus Christi and Galveston.
Skies were to be cloudy to partly cloudy over Central and East Texas today, clear to partly cloudy over West Texas through Tuesday, and temperatures were to remain quite warm except in extreme Northwest Texas.

Engine Lost, But Pilot Lands

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A 1929 biplane lost its engine in flight Sunday but glided to a smooth landing on Tampa Bay. The pilot escaped with a back injury.
Authorities said the pilot, Henry Palmer, St. Petersburg, was able to control the vintage plane and execute a smooth landing at an ideal spot — on the shallow part of the bay.
The emergency landing inflicted no serious damage on the plane. The engine was found in the bay.

Viet Veteran Dies Of Hurts

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — A Vidor, Tex., man who returned safely from Viet Nam recently died Sunday of injuries he received last Monday.
Warren Darrell Riley, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Riley of Vidor, had received the Air Medal with three clusters for service in Viet Nam.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN
(© 1966 By The Chicago Tribune)
ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ
Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AK74 ♥KJ102 ♦6 ♣K52
The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
1 ♠ Dbble. Pass 1 ♥
Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Insomuch as partner has been forced to bid and may be completely lacking in values, a single raise is as much as you can do at the present. In support of hearts your hand is worth 17 points. If partner has as many as nine you will hear from him again if you give him a single raise.
Q. 2—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠7 ♥KQ1082 ♦KJ7542 ♣J
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ 1 ♣ 2 ♥ 2 ♠
3 ♣ 3 ♠
What do you bid now?
A.—Four diamonds. You have already made a free bid at a high level, and another free bid will do justice to your holding. If you jump to five diamonds, partner may be induced to contract for slam in the expectation that you have the ace of hearts.
Q. 3—Partner opens with two spades and you hold:
♠842 ♥1095 ♦KQ6 ♣KJ43
What is your response?
A.—This is a very strong holding opposite a two demand bid and a jump to three no trump describes such a holding.
Q. 4—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AKQ10764 ♥A43 ♦A62
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
2 ♠ Pass 3 ♠ Pass
3 ♠ Pass 6 ♠ Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Partner's bidding has described a hand containing a powerful self-sustaining club suit but probably no other values (else he would have taken time out to describe them). If you insist upon spades, you may never reach his hand. Your hand will prove to be a useful dummy.
Q. 5—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠KJ97 ♥1052 ♦983 ♣QJ8
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 NT Pass Pass 2 ♥
Pass Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Double. Yes, this is a penalty double, and West isn't going to make it by at least a trick or two, and perhaps more. You have seven points and partner has at least 18. That's 25 to 17, in your favor, and partner likely has three trumps.
Q. 6—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠QJ94 ♥Q75 ♦82 ♣J983
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1 ♠ Dbble. Pass 1 ♣
Pass 2 NT Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Three no trump. Partner's double followed by a jump to two no trump describes a hand which is practically as good as a two no trump opening. He could hardly have less than 21 points and you have six.
Q. 7—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠Q984 ♥KQ93 ♦A742 ♣7
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass 3 ♠ Dbble. Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Four clubs. There can be no doubt that your side has a game and conceivably even a slam. But which suit? You might guess the wrong one. The best bet is to make your partner select the suit. Your bid amounts to saying: "We have game in hand, partner, in any suit you choose to play." North should then make the selection.
Q. 8—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠Q94 ♥83 ♦AQ7 ♣AQ553
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass
2 ♥ Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Three no trump. Naturally a jump bid is obligatory at this point, but a jump in spades is not recommended inasmuch as you have only three trumps. There is the additional consideration that you should strain to be declared to protect your diamond tenace against immediate attack.

MR. AND MRS. RICHARD L. ROBERTSON

Miss Karen Crooker Weds R. Robertson

Miss Karen Elizabeth Crooker became the bride of Richard Lynn Robertson Friday afternoon in a four o'clock ceremony at the St. Mary's Episcopal Church. The Rev. Donald Hungerford officiated for the double ring rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Crooker Jr., 2902 Parkway Road. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris E. Robertson, 2806 Clanton.

Against an altar background of white gladioli and greenery, Miss Brenda Green, organist, presented a selection of traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Alencon lace street-length dress with a waist-length train attached to the shoulders. The midriff was accented by an aqua ribbon insertion.

Her short veil of illusion fell from a lace and pearl tiara and she carried a bouquet of white orchids backed by stephanotis, tulle and satin streamers.

Miss Marcia Dement was maid of honor. She wore an aqua sheath accented by a large bow at the waist and an aqua feather hat. For her bouquet, she carried a yellow orchid.

Gary Richardson was best man, and ushers were Robby and Rigby Robertson.

Randy Robertson was the ring bearer, and Doris Crooker was the flower girl.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was held at the Cosden Country Club where the honored couple, parents and attendants welcomed guests.

The serving table was covered with white net and centered with a miniature bride and groom encircled with a gold wedding band. The bride's table had a centerpiece of yellow gladioli and white and yellow chrysanthemums. The tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bride and groom.

For her wedding trip, the bride wore an aqua and white suit with a white straw pillbox hat and white accessories.

Mrs. Robertson is attending Big Spring Senior High School, and Robertson is associated with the Morris Robertson Body Shop.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Turkish Towel Solves Shirt Ironing Trick

Dear Heloise:

When ironing a shirt or blouse, do you have trouble where the buttons are sewed on?

Does it look like a puckered mess?

To keep from pulling or wrinkling your shirt or blouse along the front, just place a Turkish towel on your ironing board (folded several times).

Place the shirt or blouse UP-SIDE DOWN on the towel (but buttons next to the towel) and then just iron away... on the back side.

The towel acts as a cushion, and you will have a beautifully ironed garment... A Reader

HELOISE

I tried it and it's slick-as-a-whistle.

Ironed much faster, too.

Real neat, I'd say. And your iron doesn't even hit the tiny buttons.

The buttons themselves sink down into the depth of the towel; this not only keeps you from knocking buttons loose, but the heat of the iron will dry the material of the shirt or blouse front, and keeps it from shrinking... Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Too often I have seen wooden venetian blinds in fairly good condition thrown out on the trash as useless.

This is both a waste of valuable natural resources, and of the opportunity to do many interesting things with them.

With only a whittling knife or other simple tools, they can be made into a myriad of interesting, decorative and useful things.

Both my front and backyard flower gardens are bordered with eight-inch-high white picket fences made from venetian blind slats, plus numerous trellises for light-weight climbing plants.

The heavier top and bottom slats provide stronger material to use as anchoring stakes. They will last two or three seasons with no special care, or much longer if taken inside once a year and given a seasonal coat of white paint or white-wash.

Or just whittle to keep time with your whistle... Whittler

Maybe some other readers have some interesting suggestions for using venetian blind slats, whether metal or wooden. If so, write to us in care of the Big Spring Herald. Letters do not have to be signed to appear in this column... Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Here are two of my hints:

When I peel potatoes and other vegetables, I sit in front of the kitchen pail and peel directly into the paper bag inside. Saves energy and steps emptying a strainer into the garbage pail.

I sprinkle my clothes on a large plastic sheet, roll them up and roll the plastic sheet around them until I am ready to iron them.

The plastic sheet serves a dual purpose — as a sprinkling bag and it keeps my table from getting wet... Vera Zimmerman

Dear Heloise:

When your little girl outgrows her bedroom slippers, just cut the fur off, and you have a fur stole for her fashion dolls.

She'll enjoy dressing them up... Pamela G.

(Write Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

A Devotional For The Day

Thou art my hope, O Lord God; thou art my trust from my youth. (Psalm 71:5)

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, help the youth of the nations to decide to follow Christ rather than put off the decision. In this day of strife, help them to keep in mind the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man and the Golden Rule. In the Savior's name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Those Unsafe Homes

While some folks have taken off warm-trailing General Motors et al over automobile safety, others have been giving some thought to the dangers of living in one's home. Meditation on the subject was encouraged by a report from the National Safety Council that accidents in the home last year caused 28,890 deaths.

Some people lost their lives falling down the steps to the cellar. The obvious solution to this is to require that all cellars be built to the level of the floor of the house.

Many others lost their lives from electrical shock. The simple-as-pie solution is, of course, to have the electricity disconnected.

Others died in falls in the bathtub. Nothing could be more fundamental than a requirement that bathtubs be outlawed. Young boys would be pleased and the cost of home building decreased materially.

Improvement in safety in the home is important. If homes were safer, more people would spend more time there and cut down on their gallivanting around the countryside where likely as not they will meet people from other unsafe homes in a head-on collision.

Behind Mansfield's Proposal

Taking a momentary respite from attention to the Viet Nam war, Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield proposed that the United States establish diplomatic relations with Outer Mongolia. This is not likely to stir up a national debate, but the suggestion is important.

Outer Mongolia was under Manchu (Chinese) domination until it declared independence in 1921. In 1924 this vast, livestock-raising, sparsely populated land became the Mongolian People's Republic, with a Marxist-Leninist government.

Little developed outside the capital, Ulan Bator, Mongolia has been kept busy in recent years playing the Soviet Union and Red China against one another to remain independent. It seems likely to succeed, as the two Communist giants need a buffer state in that isolated area. A forceful attempt by either the Moscow or Peking governments to gain control of Mongolia—with which both have treaties of friendship—could trigger a land war all along the Sino-Soviet border.

Britain in 1963 was the first Western nation to establish diplomatic relations with Mongolia. The Montana Democratic leader in the Senate believes U.S. recognition would tend to ease international tensions. That is a dubious point, but his other reason has some validity: It would give the United States "a valuable listening post" between the two Communist giants.

The United States needs all the insight it can get into the operations and intentions of the Peking government. It gets a trickle of information through various sources—the Warsaw ambassadorial contact, the Hong Kong lookout post, secondhand reports from countries that do have relations with Red China and from individual travelers, as well as various intelligence sources. Mongolian recognition would give one more—and a very good one on which to keep up with Russo-Chinese relations. It would be about the same as recognition for Tito's Communist but nationalist Yugoslavia.

David Lawrence The Public Suffers

WASHINGTON—The right of the citizens of a community—including New York City—to travel to and from their places of employment without being impeded by deliberate stoppages of transportation would certainly seem to come under the heading of "civil rights."

The trains on the Long Island Rail Road were suddenly halted during the rush hour last Tuesday at the command of one man—the general chairman of a labor-union group. Adequate notice of the existence of a dispute had not been given in advance. No chance was afforded management to discuss fully the alleged grievances, and certainly the members of the railroad unions themselves had no opportunity to vote on whether they should go on strike under such unusual circumstances.

IT IS TRUE that the railroad later obtained a restraining order from a court, but there is no law which forbids such arbitrary work stoppages. While an injunction might be issued against using the same excuse for a sudden strike, this does not prevent a similar kind of occurrence under some other pretext.

The whole problem of capricious use by labor-union leaders of the power to order a strike, especially in the field of transportation, is bound to become more and more important as subway and rapid-transit systems are built in the major cities of the country.

UNFORTUNATELY, nothing has been done by any committee of Congress toward enacting legislation to prohibit the abuse of the power to strike. Yet the recent strike against the New York transit system resulted in the loss of many millions of dollars to people inside and outside the metropolis whose businesses were affected by the interruption of normal traffic.

WITH RESPECT to "civil rights" violations by discriminatory practices, Congress, to be sure, has been persuaded by its leaders and the White House to support proposals that would penalize persons guilty of harassing citizens by reason of race or color. But, oddly enough, remedial measures are not being proposed for the acts of labor unions which not only go on strike themselves but prevent the members of other unions that may have no grievance at all from crossing picket lines. Innocent parties suffer and have no redress at present.

THE LONG ISLAND Rail Road strike, for instance, was based upon an astonishing triviality. The head of the union group in a letter to the president of the railroad declared that some of the railroad executives had violated a company rule by attending a luncheon where drinks were served. The letter apparently was written before the luncheon, which took place at a hotel at the Kennedy Airport. The labor-union leader's communication claimed, however, that company officials had been drinking "while on duty." There was no charge that anyone was intoxicated or that there was anything unusual about the luncheon, but it was contended that the executives had broken a rule of the company. None of the railroad officials, of course, was engaged at the time in actual operations of any trains.

THE ACTION TAKEN by the labor union was a reprisal against the company because three employees were recently suspended for allegedly being in a tavern and drinking "while on duty." Hence the union chief decided that the rule should be literally applied to everybody, irrespectively of whether they were engaged in moving the trains.

This far-fetched interpretation is an example of the extent to which labor-union leaders today believe they can go in exercising their dictatorship over business operations. The railroad itself, of course, might sue for damages, but the citizens who suffer losses and inconveniences through disruption of personal plans by reason of a railroad stoppage have no way at present to get reimbursement.

Billy Graham

A few months ago I heard you preach in South Carolina. I made a decision to be a Christian but I have found neither joy nor victory. What is the matter? F.G.F.

As long as you were living for self and the world Satan did not pay any attention to you. Now that you want to follow Christ you are finding temptations and frustrations you never experienced before. Don't give up, but remember you can never wage a successful battle against the Devil in your own strength. Take your Bible and turn to Ephesians 6:10-18 and there you will find that you are now engaged in a spiritual battle against all of the demons of Hell. But you will also find that God has made full provision for the Christian so that you can defeat Satan. There are two pieces of your spiritual armor: the shield of faith which can interpose between yourself and every attack of the Devil, and the Sword of the Spirit which is the Word of God. The Devil has never been able to stand against the Scriptures and that is why he hates the Bible like he does. Our Lord defeated him in the wilderness with the use of three verses. You can defeat him in the same way. Finally, note these words: "Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit." Prayer gives you tremendous power in your battle against the Devil for you will find God always on your side. Do not give up for the victory is yours in the Lord.

James Marlow Apparently Crafty, Too

WASHINGTON (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky is a flashy, ambitious man, and apparently crafty. It's the crafty bit which seems to have taken President Johnson's administration by surprise over the weekend.

Ky just did what he backed away from doing a few weeks ago. He sent his troops into South Viet Nam's northern city of Da Nang to take over. The reason seems clear: the chance for success looks better now than then.

EARLY IN 1965 Ky gaged when offered the job of youth and sports minister in Viet Nam's government. He was commander of the air force and he didn't want to give up that job for the other. He was assured he could have both.

So he accepted the ministerial job, too, and about six months later hit the jackpot when the generals took over the government and he was made premier.

This might have seemed—and in the end may turn out that way—like just one more government in a long line. Nine governments had come and gone since President Ngo Dinh Diem was thrown out and killed in 1963.

But Ky, as Sunday's events showed, wasn't the type to give up easily even though at the time he may have seemed to accept adversity rather meekly.

HIS TURMOIL began last March when he forced a showdown with a rival, Lt. Gen. Nguyen Chanh Thi, who was thrown out of the military junta and out of command of the northern provinces where he had close ties with the Buddhists.

Monks and students in Da Nang in the north and elsewhere, demanded the reinstatement of Thi. They demonstrated against Ky's government.

Under this pressure Ky promised a constitutional convention and elections to create a civilian government. But he finally got fed up with the rumpus and flew 4,000 troops to Da Nang's air base April 4.

Then he decided not to use them against the city. The rum-

Utterable utterances: EDWIN A. LAHEY, Chicago Daily News feature writer:

"There is an overwhelming atmosphere of sensuality, money lust, underworld intrigue and glamour in Las Vegas. . . . You get it from the people who clog this place up on the weekend: shifty-eyed young slickers in silk suits, over-dressed Hollywood women, world famous vulgarians who get $10,000 to $15,000 a week for stupefying patrons on the strip with their wit. . . . In 1966, visitors lost more than $10,000,000 in Nevada's licensed casinos. This was the amount of gross receipts, or winnings, reported by the gaming licensees for tax purposes. A debatable amount is skimmed off by the operators before the tax man gets to count the winnings. Nevada collected $16,600,000 in taxes—about 30 per cent of the general revenue of the state. . . . Nevada is hooked. It has accepted for its economic foundation a parasitic industry that has its roots in the criminal world. And which, sooner or later, if history is a guide, corrupts everything it touches, legal or illegal. . . . State investigators know that persons on the edge of gangland come in and out of Las Vegas on mob business, and that they carry attacks cases full of currency. This money goes to Florida, Chicago, New York and New Jersey. Some of it finds its way into Latin America under cover of diplomatic passports. . . ."

Holmes Alexander Victim Of His Own Leadership

WASHINGTON—As the foundation rock of the Kennedy-Johnson cabinets, Defense Secretary McNamara is generally thought to be the immovable man in LBJ's favor—but not so.

There is informed opinion on the Senate Armed Services Committee, whose members knew Lyndon Johnson long before McNamara came along, that the Secretary has committed the unforgivable sin of misleading his commander-in-chief.

IT IS NOT PRUDENT for the senators to pinpoint these incidents, for it is not wise that the enemy know of our military deficiencies. But in examining McNamara's unfitness as a wartime statesman, the disgruntled senators have found that the Secretary's salient fault is his habit of deceiving himself.

He deceives himself, as many men in non-critical positions do, by erroneously making up his mind in advance and then demanding facts to support his fallacy. But whereas the rest of us may call upon our close relatives and our impacted prejudices to sustain a mistaken position, McNamara calls upon a staff of expert yes-ayers.

THE VAUNTED Whiz Kids, whom he brought to the Pentagon in 1961, are there to listen to the Secretary and then to prove him right. He has become a victim of his own tough leadership, for his fact-finders are much too cowed to tell him what he doesn't want to hear.

Senators feel that McNamara often states a proposition without being in possession of the details which would rebut it. This wouldn't happen to an administrator who had uninhibited reporting at his disposal. The growing opinion is that McNamara wouldn't mind admitting his mistakes if he hadn't trained his minions to drench him in the incense of omniscience.

McNAMARA DID WELL enough as long as he was running a peace time showplace at the Department of Defense, for the floors were shiny and efficiency charts hung on every wall. But today, as Chairman Stennis of the Preparedness Subcommittee points out an absurd little power in North Viet Nam has tied us up in Asia. Meanwhile, we try to sit on a revolution in the Dominican Republic and to hold the fort in West Europe. The senator is just opening an investigation which shows early signs of testing McNamara to the utmost. Stennis plans to:

- 1—CALL UPON Secretary Rusk and the State Department to explain what we are supposed to do under the 40-odd defense pacts we have signed with foreign nations.
  - 2—Call upon military officers, not the Whiz Kids, to give informed estimates of what we need to keep these pledges.
  - 3—Ask McNamara to prove that he's got the men, the transportation and the weapons to meet the potential emergencies, assuming the worst; namely, that several of them occur simultaneously.
- THERE IS NO cabal under Stennis to destroy McNamara. The senator thinks him a good Secretary who would be a better one if he would accept the advice and assistance of congressional committees. The senator hopes to carry out his probe without promoting "disunity" in time of war. He has been as sober as the judge he used to be in presiding over this trial of a Cabinet member.
- But a trial is what it is. McNamara stands accused of failure in his wartime capacity.

Sam Dawson Depends On How You Look At It

NEW YORK (AP)—The sharp drop in stock prices in the first half of May has:

—Dismayed many speculators in glamor stocks.

—Disturbed some investors in blue chip issues.

—Left the official guardians of the economy outwardly unaffiliated.

—And consoled some taxpayers by making a tax rate hike seem less likely.

IT'S ALL IN how you look at it. From where the government economists stand, today's apparent bad news could be tomorrow's good news.

On paper the stock market has lost many dollars, as measured by the quotations for leading securities, and even more if you look at the wing-clipping of the high-fliers.

The Dow-Jones index of 30 blue chip industrials stood at 933.68 at the close of trading in April. At the final bell Friday the 13th of May the average had slipped to 876.11.

THE TWO-WEEKS drop of 57.57 points, or 6.1 per cent, has been called everything from a technical reaction from some tentative gains made in April, to an emotional upset brought on about equally by cuts in auto sales and production and by talk of inflation sparking higher taxes. Traders feared heftier tax rates would mean lower profits, after the first quarter's spectacular climb.

Those who lost money, or saw their paper profits shriveling, won't be pleased. But in Wall Street many brokers call the cooling down of the speculative stock boom a blessing. This not only could give the general market a firmer base. It also could ward off criticism, and possible regulatory action by government agencies.

WASHINGTON economic planners are known to have been worried by the rise of speculation—apparent both in the price increases of the

There's Such A Thing As A Nervous Stomach

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Is there such a thing as a nervous stomach? For a number of years I have had vomiting spells if I get overexcited, or have plans for going out in the evening. I get so I can't swallow another bite until I am home again.

I asked a doctor but he said there wasn't such a thing. I hope there is some cure. I am 19.—MISS B. A.

Maybe I'm quibbling, but I can't agree with the idea that there's "no such thing." There is.

It doesn't mean that there's anything wrong with the stomach itself. Various parts of the body, perfectly healthy, respond to nervous tension. Some folks get headaches. Some can't eat. Some get backaches. Some get the jitters. There are different manifestations.

So if the stomach, under pressure of your nerves, becomes rebellious temporarily, as far as I'm concerned it deserves to be called a nervous stomach. The cure, however, is not in the stomach. The cure is in learning how to keep your nerves under control.

I've known plenty of young people, and a few older ones, too, whose stomachs go into spasms because of tension or excitement. The fact that you "can't eat a bite" until after you've calmed down is all right. There's no use trying to force food into a rebellious stomach. You can eat afterward; that's proof enough that it is nerves and not something physically wrong.

Just realizing this often helps. As time passes, you learn to recognize this tension, and you learn to say to yourself, "Look here, now. Let's just sit quietly or lie down for 10 minutes, and let the nerves relax." Pretty soon the nervous stomach stops bothering you.

For special occasions, a mild sedative or tranquilizer can help, but sometimes sipping a glass of milk will do as well. I'm thoroughly opposed to getting in the habit of depending on medicines except for some real reason—for diabetes, or epilepsy, or some such thing.

But if you'll be sparing in the use of a sedative or a tranquilizer, only when you are "all wound up" over some special occasion, it can help you learn to keep those nerves in their place!

Dear Dr. Molner: Are all fibroid tumors malignant? If a fibroid is just developing, would you advise removing it?—MRS. R. B.

Fibroids, fortunately, rarely are malignant. As a general rule small ones are NOT removed, since they ordinarily cause no trouble and quite often subside spontaneously after menopause.

"Don't Quit Because Of Arthritis" is the title of my leaflet designed to help all who suffer the aches and pains of arthritis. For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 5 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner is always happy to hear from his readers, but he regrets that he cannot answer individual letters due to the great number received daily. Whenever possible he uses readers' questions in his column.

Match Race Shaping Up

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—The golden anniversary 500-mile sweepstakes May 30 at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway shaped up today as a potential match race between American champion Mario Andretti and Scotland's world road-racing champion Jimmy Clark.

And a tremendous jump in speeds in opening time trials Saturday and Sunday, with one fatal crash and five other spectacular mishaps, underlined the hazards of the 56-year-old track where 57 have died.

Andretti, Italian-born 1965 champion of the U.S. Auto Club's big car circuit, won the pole position Saturday at a record speed of 163.89 miles per hour in a year-old Brabham-Brawner Ford.

Clark qualified a new Lotus-Ford for the No. 2 starting spot at 164.144 m.p.h. The Scot won the $400,000 race from the same

Jets And Hawks Win In American

The Jets edged the Stars in a 2-1 thriller Saturday evening in the American League park while the Hawks bombarded the Pirates, 12-4.

Singles by David Newman and Fain Sherrill gave the Jets two runs. The Stars had taken a lead when Brad Cedarberg walked and scored on Kenny Campbell's double. Terry McAdams was the winning pitcher, Guy Condra the loser.

The Hawks started slowly, 10 broke loose for four runs in the third, two in the fourth and five in the fifth. Dean Wood and Alan Hill led the attack with three hits each, while Randy Grimsa and Gregg Phillips got two each. Gregg Phillips was the winning pitcher, and Steve Burnett absorbed the loss.

Tigers Get First Win By Battering Lovington

The Big Spring Tigers broke into the win column Sunday at Lovington, N. M., 12-9 despite a late opposition rally.

The Tigers broke loose for four runs in the second on the strength of singles by Corrales, Gonzales and a triple by Mendoza. They added two more in the third, but Lovington caught them in the bottom of the inning. It took a four-run uprising in the ninth, paced by Junior Mendoza's single, Corrales' triple and Gonzales' double to tuck the game away, despite a three-run rally by Lovington in

Linda Cathey Cops Division

Linda Cathey won the girls high point trophy for the 13-14-year-old division, and the Big Spring Y Aquatic Club, represented by eight swimmers, piled up 65 points in the Odessa Junior Olympics swim meet Saturday.

Linda placed first in the 200-yard individual medley, with a 2:38.5 time; first in the 100-yard back stroke with 1:14.0; and second in the 100-yard breast stroke.

Linda Tyldesley grabbed a first place in the 100-yard back stroke and second in the 100-yard fly and 100-yard individual medley.

Other members of the team who placed were Johnny Blass, third in the boys 11-12 division for 100-yard back stroke; Bill Bortner, fifth in the 100-yard back stroke; Jim DeVore sixth in the 200-yard individual medley; Chuck Penn, sixth in the 100-yard back stroke; Bob Tyldesley second in the 100-yard fly and 100-yard free stroke. All these were in the 15-17-year division.

The boys 15-17-year relay team composed of Bortner, DeVore, Penn, and Tyldesley, placed fourth in the 400-yard medley relay and third in the 400-yard free relay.

Double Rundown

Joe Morgan, Houston Astros infielder, is tagged out between second and third (top left) by second baseman Cookie Rojas of Philadelphia Phillies in first of double rundown in 6th inning of yesterday's Philadelphia game in Philadelphia. Rojas cocks throw (top right) to Bill White at first who tossed to Dick Groat, shortstop, for tag (bottom left) on outfielder Jimmy Wynn. Wynn, who had run out of baseline, throws helmet down in exasperation (bottom right). Wynn's grounder to Groat, scoring pitcher Mike Cuellar from third, had started action. Phils won, 5-2. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Texas Represents League, Others Packing Up Cleats

Five Southwest Conference baseball teams packed away the spikes and sliding pads for another year today while Texas, the team that will represent the league in the NCAA playoffs, looked toward a series with either Houston or Trinity.

Four teams — Texas, Texas A&M, Texas Christian and Baylor — tied for the championship last week and Texas won a coin flip for the privilege of continuing further.

The selection committee for district 6 of the NCAA will confer today in naming an at-large team Texas must play before it can qualify for the NCAA national tournament at Omaha in June.

Tom Chandler, Texas A&M coach who is chairman of the committee, said Houston, with a 17-9 record, and Trinity, 21-4, were being considered for Texas' opposition in the finals of the district campaign. Texas has an 18-6 record.

The playoff of the 1966 season came at Fort Worth Saturday when Texas Christian beat the Aggies 4-0 to throw the race into a tie. A&M could have won the championship outright had it won.

Texas A&M and Texas Christian placed the most players on the All-Southwest Conference with four each. Texas landed three, Rice two, Southern Methodist one and Baylor failed to get a place.

The team selected by the coaches was as follows: Pitchers — Tommy Gramly, Texas Christian; Steve Hillhouse, Texas A&M; and Ray Rooten, Rice.

Local Men Win Handball Honors

Three Big Spring men took top honors at the Southwest Area YMCA handball championships May 13-14 at Amarillo. Col. Julian Baird and Ray Thomas won the masters division doubles tournament. Col. Baird took first and Thomas took second place in the singles B division, while Don Farley walked off with third place in the open division singles.

SEAGREN CAPS WEEKEND Track, Field Stars Have Record Breaking Pace

By JACK STEVENSON Associated Press Sports Writer FRESNO, Calif. (AP) — Bob Seagren capped a great Pacific Coast weekend for 19-year-old track and field stars when he soared 17 feet, 5 1/2 inches to shatter the world pole vaulting record.

The youngster's effort came Saturday night at the West Coast Relays in Fresno. On Friday night in Los Angeles, Jim Ryan of Kansas, also 19, posted an American record of 8.25.2 for the two-mile run.

Then on Saturday afternoon in Seattle, Gerry Lindgren, the 19-year-old Washington State University sophomore, ran three miles in 12 minutes, 53 seconds, just six-tenths of a second off Australian Ron Clarke's world record.

Lindgren's great run in the Northern Division meet of the Pacific Athletic Conference lowered his own American record. Seagren cleared the cross-bar on his third try at 17-5 1/2 and added the outdoor record to the world indoor mark he owns at 17-6 1/2.

Indians' Strange Masters Orioles

By DICK COUCH Associated Press Sports Writer The Cleveland Indians have a starting pitcher for every day of the week. One of them, however, is strictly for the Birds.

Lee Stange, an odd man in Cleveland's powerful pitching rotation, made his first start of the season Sunday and clipped the Baltimore Orioles' wings for the 11th time in 13 lifetime decisions as the Indians salvaged the second game of a double-header 2-1.

The Orioles took the 13-inning opener 1-0, ending a four-game skid, before Stange's complete-game victory gave Cleveland a 3-1 edge in the weekend series and re-established the Indians' two-game American League lead.

Although blessed with a staff of seven qualified starters at the start of the season, Manager Birdie Tebbets has been able to give only four of them steady work. The brilliance of Sam McDowell, Sonny Siebert, Luis Tiant and Gary Bell—top men on the totem pole—kept Stange, Jack Kralick and John O'Donoghue in cold storage. Stange, in fact, had pitched a total of two-thirds of an inning in three relief appearances—two against Baltimore—before Tebbets called on him Sunday.

The 28-year-old right-hander proved as effective as ever against the Orioles, setting them down in one hour and 51 minutes—second fastest game in the majors this year. He scattered eight hits, walked none and struck out four.

Stange, acquired from Minnesota in the Jim Grant deal two years ago, was 3-9 against Baltimore last season, with two four-hit shutouts and a 1.62 earned run average in 39 1/2 innings. Over-all, he was 8-4 with a 3.34 ERA.

Elsewhere Sunday, the New York Yankees swept a double-header from Kansas City 5-2 and 3-1; Detroit outscored Chicago 8-6, Minnesota slugged Washington 6-2 and Boston snapped a six-game losing string by trimming California 6-3 after the Angels took the first game of the doubleheader 5-4.

The Orioles broke up a scoreless dual in the first game on Russ Snyder's leadoff single in the 13th, a sacrifice and Brooks Robinson's RBI single. John Miller, Stu Miller and winner Eddie Watt combined to blank Cleveland.

Al Downing, Bob Friend and Pete Ramos pitched the Yankees to their fifth and sixth victories against two losses since Ralph Houk's managerial return.

Pappas Catching Up Much Faster

Milt Pappas spotted Frank Robinson 400 points, but he's not worried. He figures he has until 1968 to catch up.

Actually, at his present pace, Pappas won't need that much time to pull even with Robinson. The Cincinnati pitcher sliced another chunk of the Baltimore slugger's lead Sunday, gaining his third straight complete-game victory as the Reds whipped Chicago 9-2.

Pappas and Robinson were the primary players in the winter deal between the Reds and the Orioles, and everyone conceded the better of the trade to Baltimore when Robinson was hitting .400 before Pappas even had won a game for Cincinnati.

But now the 27-year-old right-hander has won three games in 10 days, and he's helped pull the Reds to within three games of .500 after they had been eight games under.

Elsewhere in the National League, New York whipped San Francisco 6-1, Los Angeles trimmed Pittsburgh 3-1, Philadelphia stopped Houston 5-2, and St. Louis downed Atlanta 5-3.

Red Gardner stopped San Francisco on four hits, one of them Jim Hart's homer. Ron Hunt triggered two New York rallies, singling and scoring in the first and singling at the start of a four-run outburst in the third.

Don Sutton and Phil Regan combined for a six-hitter over Philadelphia. Harvey Kuenn was too much for the Houston Astros Sunday as he scored the tying run and drove in the winning run in a 5-2 victory by Philadelphia.

But the Astros stayed in second place in the National League, still 3 1/2 games back of Pittsburgh.

Kuenn beat out an infield single in the sixth inning, raced to third on Bill White's single and scored as Jack Brandt singled. That tied the score at 2-2.

In the seventh Cookie Rojas reached first on an error, was sacrificed to second and came home with an unearned run on Kuenn's single to center.

Rojas doubled in two more runs for the Phillies in the eighth.

Morton's Gains Split In Double Bill With Abilene

Morton's Foods split with the Abilene A's here Saturday evening in a softball doubleheader at the City Park diamond.

Morton's tied the first game at 3-2 in the third inning on the strength of Sorley's single, a sacrifice and Simpson's single. However, Jordan homered for Abilene in the fourth, and that was the story.

In the second game, Morton's hopped to a three-run lead on the strength of a double by Sorley and Blizzard, and a single by Hagood, but Abilene knotted it with a two-run outburst in the sixth when Spagoli, Wisbert and Epperson all hit safely. With one out in the bottom of the seventh, Miller doubled and then came home on Blizzard's single to win the game. Cotton Mize got credit for the win.

Parents Blamed For Power Without Responsibility

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — The president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers said today that adults must blame themselves for giving adolescents too much power and not enough responsibility.

"It is we who have led many of them to believe — or pretend — that everything in life is or should be fun," Jennelle Moorhead said in her prepared keynote address to the P-T A's 70th annual convention.

"It is we who have invited our young people to dwell for seven years or so in an unreal and hence unwholesome world of their own, a world that too often has little relation to the adult world."

"Parents and teachers, in our effort to be permissive, have too often been submissive," Mrs. Moorhead, of Eugene, Ore., told the convention that there is another end of the spectrum.

"We have thousands of able, responsible youngsters being pressured to make high grades so that they can qualify for college, and to maintain those grades in order to stay there," she said.

"I would be the last person to decry superior academic achievement, but I would be remiss not to cry out against the exaggerated importance today attached to grades as grades, as distinguished from the true purpose of education."

Ike Pays Tribute To Point's 'Saint'

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower paid tribute "as a son of West Point" to Sylvanus Thayer, "the man who fathered it."

In a recorded message delivered Sunday in New York at the installation of Thayer into the Hall of Fame for Great Americans, Eisenhower called him the "patron saint" of the Army.

Eisenhower, a 1915 graduate of West Point, was unable to attend the ceremonies at New York University because he is undergoing medical tests at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington.

Debt Fund Grows Slowly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Uncle Sam will have a long wait if he expects to pay off the national debt with gifts from the citizenry.

A special fund set up by Congress to receive debt-retiring gifts is almost five years old and it still hasn't collected its first million dollars.

The debt, however, has shot up by $30 billion during the same period; its present $220 billion.

The fund isn't designed to retire the entire debt, but it does afford a convenient spot for donors who want to do something about the high cost of government.

Treasury Department officials said today more than $815,000 had been contributed to the fund through April 30.

Before the fund was established, the department merely tossed into the general fund any contributions it received earmarked for debt retirement.

The reasoning was that this increased the budget surplus and reduced the deficit. The Treasury had no authority to earmark any contributions to debt retirement until June 27, 1961, when President John F. Kennedy signed a bill creating the special debt account. It was sponsored by Rep. Charles E. Bennett, D-Fla., who deposited the first gift, a $1,000 check.

In its first year, the trust received less than $10,000, but Treasury officials estimate it will produce about $100,000 yearly from now on.

CORE Lists 40 Ripe Cities

WASHINGTON (AP) — The national director of the Congress of Racial Equality warns that 40 cities may be ripe for race violence this summer.

Floyd McKissick, in a copy-righted interview in U.S. News & World Report, specifically mentioned Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York City, Chicago, Cleveland, Los Angeles, St. Louis, Newark, N.J., and Oakland, Calif.

Ominous Signs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The executive vice president of the American Jewish Committee, citing "ominous signs" of anti-Semitism in Austria, has urged the Austrian government to send educators to the United States to study American methods of civic education.

Left The Answer To The Audience

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — CBS' news special of the weekend was a vital and visual projection of the debate being waged over the safety of today's automobiles.

NBC's special Sunday night, entitled "An Austrian Affair," was a longish lecture on that nation's politics illustrated by some newsreel-type film clips and the usual balanced statements by some eminent English-speaking natives.

The crux of the program was Austria's quiet, prosperous, doing nothing 20 years of a coalition government of Conservatives and Socialists — with perhaps a revival of nazism.

The peg of the program was an election held a couple of months ago that was won by the Conservatives and which marked the end of the Socialist coalition. But the excitement was an episode over a year ago — a student demonstration against an admitted ex-Nazi professor which resulted in the death of a former concentration camp inmate and suggested that Austria had a real neo-Nazi movement.

Bone Up On Science, Math For Draft Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some of the 400,000 students who took the national draft deferment examination have a tip for those taking the test later: bone up on your science and math.

Those are the subjects they said were found most frequently during the three-hour, 150-question exam. It was administered Saturday at 1,200 colleges and universities in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the Panama Canal Zone.

The results will be forwarded to local draft boards to help them determine whether the students can stay in school or be drafted into the armed services.

Another 600,000 youths will take the test May 21, June 3 and June 24.

"The examination would have been a cinch for fellows at MIT or any other technical school," said Harvey Stein, 23, a student at Hastings Law School in San Francisco. "But I'm afraid it wasn't for me. I was a history major."

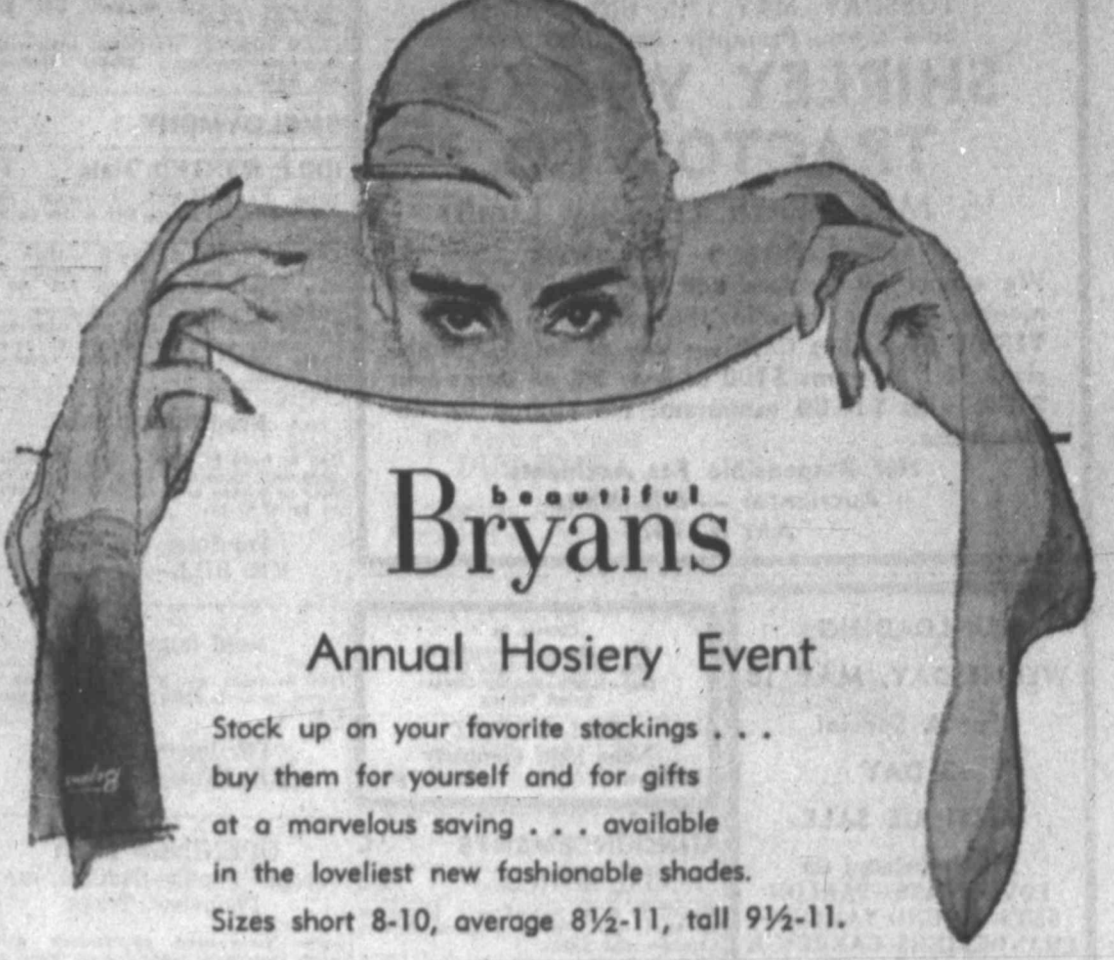

Although they said the examination was easy, two City College of New York students — Peter Gewandter and Al Samuel — said it was science-oriented, even in the reading comprehension and verbal analogy sections.

Some who took the test said the science and math questions were not difficult, though.

The passing grade is 70 for undergraduates and 80 for graduate students.

Reports indicated only scattered picketing and protests at the test centers Saturday. It had been feared that demonstrations would be staged at many of the sites. But pickets showed up only at about a dozen locations.

Escapes Twice, Caught Twice

TUCUMCARI, N.M. (AP) — Officers had to capture a convict twice before he could be returned to the New Mexico State Penitentiary at Santa Fe.

James H. Elledge, 23, serving 18-30 years for robbery, escaped from prison Saturday by prying off a vent, climbing to the roof, sliding down a drain pipe and leaping a fence.

He was arrested in a stolen car Sunday at Tucumcari 170 miles east of Santa Fe. A short time later he jumped from the second floor of the Tucumcari City Hall.

He was recaptured a few hours later walking along a street.

"I'm just too tired to run," officers quoted Elledge as saying.
