New Regime Makes Start In Dominica

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—The Dominican Republic launches another attempt at constitutional government with the inauguration of President Joaquin Balaguer today.

Diplomatic missions from most non-Communist countries of the world were on hand for the ceremony in the National Congress building.

Security arrangements were tightened in the capital after leftist extremists showed signs Thursday of starting a series of disturbances to mar the inauguration.

THREE WOUNDED

At least three persons were wounded when police fired into a mob that attacked policemen with clubs and rocks. Eyewitnesses said they saw as many as six or seven wounded by gunfire and about 20 more hurt by rocks.

The incident occurred a few hours before Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey arrived to head the U.S. delegation to the inauguration.

Humphrey pledged U.S. cooperation to "advance the social and economic well being of the Dominican people."

NEW HOPES

Balaguer, 59, a bachelor and a lawyer, was installed as president once by Dictator Rafael Trujillo and overthrown by the military after Trujillo's assassination. This time he carries into office with him hopes of many in the long-troubled country for peace and economic progress.

The Dominican Republic is still recovering from the shattering April 1965 revolt when a small segment of the armed forces and some civilians rose in arms to restore constitutional government.

The bloody revolt led to intervention by U.S. Marines and paratroopers "to help prevent another Communist state in this hemisphere."

Lunar Explorer Rockets Aloft

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP)—Lunar Explorer, a complex flying physics laboratory, rocketed today toward an intended 4th of July orbit about the moon, seeking scientific secrets that could make the lunar highway safer for future astronauts.

The three-stage Delta rocket, spewing a serpentine tail of white smoke, vaulted away from a Cape Kennedy launching pad at 12:02 p.m. (EDT) to start Lunar Explorer on its planned 246,000-mile, 74-hour journey to the vicinity of the moon.

Forty-five minutes later, a space agency spokesman announced the rocket phase of the flight was successful, adding: "It appears we have a spacecraft on a lunar transfer orbit at this time."

Lunar Explorer received the official designation Explorer 33, continuing a celebrated series of scientific satellites which began with America's first orbiting payload in 1958.

FIRST

Heavy rains forced postponement of the launch Thursday. If successful, the spacecraft will become America's first lunar orbiting payload, following a path pioneered in April by Russia's Luna 10. Lunar Explorer was designed to provide considerably more information on the moon's environment than did the now-silent Soviet probe.

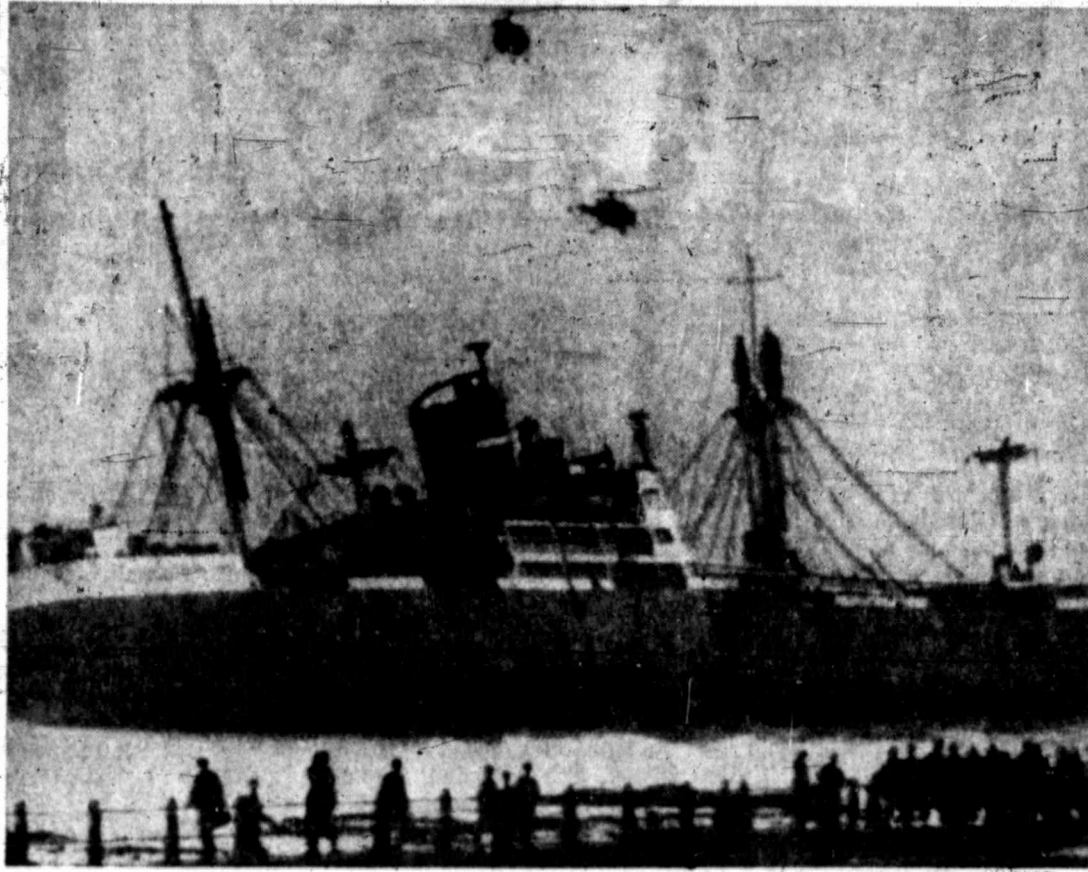

It could help perfect a warning system to protect moon-bound astronauts from explosions on the sun; determine if solar winds — great clouds of fast-moving radiation particles — create a potentially dangerous shock wave near the moon, and learn if the earth's long magnetic tail could serve as a "cocoon" to shield spacemen from radiation as they rocket toward that distant target.

DUE MONDAY

If there are no problems, the 206-pound payload will approach the moon Monday afternoon and a radio signal from a ground station will trigger a rocket motor to slow the speed sufficiently so that Lunar Explorer will be caught in the grasp of the moon's gravity.

"A perfect flight would send the spacecraft whipping into an oval orbit ranging from 800 to 4,000 miles above the lunar surface. It would circle the moon once every 10 hours.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration said several hours of tracking would be required to determine if the spacecraft achieved the desired course and speed of more than 24,000 miles an hour.

Passenger Freighter On The Rocks

The South African passenger freighter Seafarer lies grounded on the rocks about 300 yards from the shore off Cape Town, South Africa, today. Flying over the stricken ship are Air Force helicopters which rescued 14 passengers and 50 crew members. The 8,000-ton ship ran on the rocks during a storm. It was carrying general cargo from Britain and was heading for Cape Town harbor. (AP WIREPHOTO via cable from Cape Town)

No Big Rush As Medicare Starts

WASHINGTON (AP)—With little commotion or visible strain on facilities, more than 6,400 hospitals opened their doors today for the medicare-paid treatment of senior Americans—with a guarantee of no racial discrimination.

There was no immediate sign of a general rush—such as some doctors had predicted—in the early reports on the launching of medicare for 19 million Americans 65 and older.

Thousands of elderly patients already in hospitals across the land were automatically transferred to medicare status for bookkeeping purposes.

CIVIL RIGHTS In Washington a spokesman for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare said Secretary John W. Gardner was "gratified that so many Southern hospitals have come into compliance" with the Civil Rights Act for participation in medicare.

HEW issued a new tally of participating hospitals, certified for civil rights compliance, showing that 6,414 out of the 6,978 which could be used for medicare patients had been certified, or 92 per cent, nationwide.

Both the figures were smaller than those earlier reported officially. HEW said the new count eliminated hospitals which had obtained civil rights clearance but were not of a type suitable for medicare use.

The nonparticipating hospitals were mainly in the South. Most were barred from medicare payments by their failure to comply with the no racial discrimination provisions of the Civil Rights Act.

To make extra sure that no one dies for want of access to a participating hospital, the government ruled Thursday night that federal hospitals — veterans, military and others — may be used for critically ill medicare patients in emergencies.

Previously it had been announced that any other nonparticipating hospital could be used — private or public, with medicare picking up the bill — if a bed in a participating hospital could not be found to avert the threat of death "or serious impairment of the health."

Despite the serious gaps in participation — only 25 per cent of Mississippi hospitals were in the pool — administration aides were jubilant over the generally high participation nationwide.

"We've done far better in the South than we had dared to hope a month or two ago," one Public Health Service official said. "And more hospitals will be desegregating when they begin to feel the pressure from unhappy local residents, both white and black," he added.

Medicare Makes Quiet Beginning

Medicare began today in Big Spring. It had no immediate impact on patient load at the four local hospitals which are certified as medicare institutions.

None of the hospitals is currently filled but it has been anticipated that the initiation of the medicare program which involves nearly 3,500 older men and women of the county may materially increase the demand for hospitalization.

The few patients who were listed as being under the program were men and women who were already in the hospitals when medicare day rolled around.

One hospital had nine such cases, the business manager said. He explained that the nine patients would now be shifted on bookkeeping records from the status of private patients to medicare clients.

Four hospitals here have been certified for the medicare program. Erven Fisher, head of the Big Spring district Social Security Office, has announced.

Local 826 of the International Union of Operating Engineers filed a $1.5 million libel suit against the Odessa American Thursday.

Frank Parker, business representative for Local 826, said the suit was filed by the Oil Patch Organizing Committee, which has been seeking to organize roughnecks and drillers in the Permian Basin. The suit is based on an editorial in the American.

The editorial was published May 26, 1966. The local contended in its petition that it injured the reputation of the plaintiffs by "exposing them to public hatred, contempt, ridicule and financial injury." The organizing committee asks $500,000 actual damages and $1,000,000 in exemplary damages.

Another Red Fuel Depot Smashed

LBJ Warns Raids Will Continue

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—President Johnson has served notice on Hanoi that the United States is in Viet Nam to stay — until an honorable peace can be negotiated.

And as long as Communist leaders refuse to talk peace, Johnson warned, U.S. air raids will continue in North Viet Nam.

"Let me be absolutely clear," the President told a $100-a-plate Democratic dinner Thursday night. "I want the leaders of North Viet Nam to know exactly where we stand."

RATHER REASON "We would rather reason than fight," he said. "We are using our power in Viet Nam because the Communists have given us no other choice."

Johnson climaxed a fast-paced tour Thursday of Nebraska and Iowa — a trip with heavy political overtones — by asserting that this country has never run from its duty nor skipped out on an ally, and does not intend to start now.

Vowing that as long as he is President "we will stand firm," Johnson said as long as the North Vietnamese "persist in their aggression against South Viet Nam, we will resist that aggression."

"As long as they carry on the war, we will persevere. They cannot wear us down. And they cannot escape paying a very high price for their aggression."

If the North Vietnamese leaders "will only let me know when and where they would like to ask us directly what can be done to bring peace to South Viet Nam," Johnson said, "I will have my closest and most trusted associates there in a matter of hours."

NO CONDITIONS "There need be no agenda," the President added. "There need be no previous understanding of what will and will not be discussed. There need be no commitments on either side. There need only be a room and a table and people willing to talk respectfully."

"This is the one way to stop the fighting," Johnson said. "It is one way to end the killing in the South and the bombing in the North."

In other Viet Nam developments Thursday: The United States told the U.N. Security Council of the bombings of the oil facilities near Hanoi and Haiphong and said the attacks were necessary to slow down Red military infiltration.

U.N. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg again repeated the U.S. proposal that the Geneva conference be reconvened "to reaffirm and revitalize the Geneva agreement of 1954 and 1962."

About 36 Quakers staged a silent sit-in in the Senate gallery to protest Congress' adjournment for the July 4th holiday at what they said is a time of crisis in Viet Nam. Police arrested six men and six women who refused to leave more than two hours after the Senate adjourned.

Red China Gets Soviet Appeal

MOSCOW (AP)—A new Soviet appeal to Red China called today for Communist unity in support of North Viet Nam. It did not mention the U.S. air raids near Hanoi and Haiphong.

The appeal came in an article in Pravda, the Soviet Communist party organ, marking the 45th anniversary of the Chinese Communist party.

The article repeated earlier Soviet appeals to end the Moscow-Peking feud and again insisted the Chinese leaders must back down to end the dispute.

The Chinese have rejected all such previous Soviet appeals.

Public Defender Jailed

French Forces Leave NATO

PARIS (AP)—Business as usual—as much as possible—was the word today as France quit the North Atlantic Treaty Organization's military command.

President Charles de Gaulle withdrew slightly more than 2,000 officers and enlisted men from integrated Allied military command posts. France also declared that as of today its 72,000 troops in West Germany are no longer controlled by NATO.

DISCREET

The French withdrawal from NATO military headquarters here and elsewhere in Europe was conducted discreetly. The French flag still flew alongside the flags of the other NATO nations outside the Allied command post near Paris. De Gaulle says France remains a part of the North Atlantic Alliance although French troops are no longer under its command.

Adjusting to the new situation, officers at the NATO command posts continued their planning for joint military action to defend Europe in case of attack. But their work was complicated by uncertainty over what they could expect of France in case of an attack.

NEGOTIATING

France's previous contribution to the European shield available for immediate retaliation was the two divisions and two tactical air force squadrons she has had stationed in West Germany. The West German and French governments are now negotiating on the future status of those forces.

As part of De Gaulle's plan to pull France out of the military side of the 17-year-old alliance, he has also ordered all Allied headquarters and foreign bases to get off French soil by next April.

The move will involve about 28,000 U.S. troops at NATO headquarters and U.S. bases. An advance contingent of Americans began evacuating the base at Evreux Thursday in three C130 transports for a new home in England.

S&L Associations To Compound Quarterly

Both First Federal Savings & Loan and Big Spring Savings Association said they will compound quarterly at the rate of sound fiscal practices.

At Least 11 Dead In Bus Accident

OZARK, Ala. (AP)—A bus loaded with migratory workers from Orlando, Fla., crashed into an embankment nine miles north of here early today and at least 11 persons were reported killed.

The Ozark Funeral Home reported 11 dead, all Negroes, were brought to the home. The mishap occurred about 1:30 a.m. when the bus veered off US 231, went down a slope and smashed into a bank. A four-man medical team helped care for the injured. The vehicle was an old school bus. Dale County Coroner Harold Dick said the bus was loaded with about 30 men, women and children headed for Missouri to work in the corn fields. The coroner said it appeared a tire blew on the old school bus.

Direct Hits Are Listed On Target

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. pilots smashed another North Vietnamese fuel depot today as they continued the air campaign to keep fuel from the tanks of trucks hauling men and supplies to the Communists in South Viet Nam.

A U.S. spokesman said Navy pilots put all their bombs "right on the target area" in an attack on the Dong Nham storage depot 15 miles northwest of Haiphong. He said it contained an estimated 14,000 metric tons of fuel.

BATTER CONG On the ground, American infantrymen pushed a badly battered Viet Cong unit back toward the Cambodian border after an ambush that backfired on the enemy 60 miles northwest of Saigon.

A U.S. spokesman said American counterattacks, artillery barrages and air assaults killed nearly 300 of the enemy in the An Loc area. By late afternoon contact was broken and the 271st Viet Cong regiment was reported streaming toward its Cambodian haven a short distance away.

Three U.S. fighter-bombers accidentally jettisoned anti-personnel cluster bombs on a Vietnamese village today, killing five Vietnamese civilians and wounding 41, a U.S. spokesman announced.

The spokesman said American helicopters rushed the wounded to hospitals. The three F100 Super Sabre jets were returning to the Bien Hoa base 15 miles north of Saigon after a strike. The spokesman said following normal practice they attempted to jettison their unused bombs in a dumping area set aside for this purpose but the bombs did not drop until after they pulled away from the area.

EIGHTH DAY Today was the eighth day of raids in the past two weeks on fuel storage facilities in North Viet Nam. Since June 3, attacks have been made on about 14 different such storage sites in North Viet Nam, particularly around Hanoi.

Despite considerable adverse international reaction to the bombings on the doorstep of Hanoi and Haiphong Wednesday, the United States went ahead with its campaign to reduce the flow of aid to the Viet Cong in the South. The spokesman said the Skyhawks, Phantoms and Intruders from the carrier Constellation left a column of black smoke rising high into the sky from the Dong Nham fuel depot.

During another attack, over the North Vietnamese Panhandle north of the 17th Parallel, enemy fire shot down an Air Force F105 Thunderchief. The pilot bailed out into the Gulf of Tonkin northwest of Dong Hoi, and a rescue helicopter picked him up 40 minutes later.

It was the 273rd American plane reported lost over North Viet Nam.

Ky Says Raids Shortening War

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Premier Nguyen Cao Ky said today the U.S. bombing of North Vietnamese fuel installations may bring the war to an end by Jan. 1.

"I am pleased about this action. I have been advocating it for a long time," Ky told newsmen at the Bien Hoa airbase 45 miles from here where he presided over South Viet Nam's Air Force Day ceremonies. "I am not recommending the bombing of populated areas, but all strategic areas must be attacked."

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Baking Soda Cleans Toys

Dear Heloise: I was given some used plastic toys for my grandson. Wondering what to use to clean them that would not be harmful to the baby, made me think of our old friend, baking soda. I just wet the plastic toys, dipped my dampened fingers in a small bit of the dry baking soda and rubbed away. The toys were beautifully cleaned. I also learned that that soda would remove black shoe marks from my hardwood floors. Just put your dampened finger in some soda and rub away. Presto—all the spots are gone. I find it works better if you rub the spot with your finger instead of using a cloth. Vera Birkhimer

HELOISE

Dear Heloise: I used to peel avocados and it was a terribly slippery job. One day I watched a friend fix lunch, and here's the way she did it: She cut the avocado lengthwise, pulled the halves apart, slipped out the seed, took a teaspoon and scooped out the meat. The shell was clean as a whistle. No muss, no fuss, no waste. Aunt Sallie

Dear Heloise: Regarding the woman who uses a clip-type clothespin hanger to hang a plastic tube of shampoo up on her shower curtain rod. I learned any old clip-type clothespin can be used to clip a nearly empty shampoo tube to the top of the curtain. Furthermore, as I take my shower, the heat from the shower softens the shampoo so all of that remains will run to the top of the tube. Mary Ellen

This idea is fabulous because they act as insulation and protect when you hang the tube by its feet from burns. Martha Kalison

High Price Tags Mark Next Season's Clothes

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON, AP Fashion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — There are two ways to look like a million next season. Be as jewel-encrusted and as fur-enveloped as a ruling czar, or settle for simplicity in line and pure beauty of fabric. Either way it will cost plenty, especially if you pick your wardrobe from the opulent and nonopulent collection introduced by Count Sarni this month. But you would think he was giving those spectacular clothes away, the way socialites jammed into the little show room to choose from floor-length white ermines, gem-studded gowns or just little black nothing dresses. Fur overblouses or sable collars and cuffs on jackets worn over matching skimmers set a luxurious pace for daytime living. In contrast were slithery little wool jerseys with colored insets and wide collars but not a hair of fur anywhere. Swiftly, opulence switched on again a slick leopard coat but toned over a matching leopard dress and a tiny tie belt closed

A LOVELIER YOU Swimming Develops Firm Body Curves

By MARY SUE MILLER
On the whole there really is no outdoor exercise for the feminine contingent to compare with swimming. Regular swimmers encourage a graceful proportioned, firm body, a lean head-to-toe symmetry.

What's more, if you presently have an unwanted curve or two, it can be pared down with the least amount of effort imaginable by performing a few "under-water" routines. These, below, are divided into two groups. The first trips the hips and legs; the second contours the waist, legs and arms. The only equipment needed is a rubber raft and water just deep enough to cover your shoulders.

Group 1. Stand with shoulders against raft and arms stretched

Attempted Iraq Coup Is Failure

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Travelers arriving from Iraq today said the situation in Baghdad was returning to normal after a brief but bloody coup attempt. Rebel pilots flying Soviet built MIG jets hurled rockets at the presidential palace in Baghdad Thursday and 50 rebel tanks moved in on the radio station, the arrivals said. Baghdad Radio reported the presidential guard firmly resisted the attack, apparently suffering heavy casualties in a four-hour battle. Casualty estimates were not available. Some earlier reports said seven planes strafed and bombed the palace, killing two persons and injuring six. Iraqi President Abdel Rahman Aref said Thursday night his two-month-old government had crushed the attempt and arrested rebel officers who were supported by army and air force units. Those arrested included a former premier and air force chief, Aref Abdel Razzak, who led an unsuccessful coup last September, and Sobhi Abdel Hamid, former interior minister and a member of the outlawed Arab nationalist movement, a pro-Egyptian party. Baghdad Radio said the "bunch of gangsters and adventurers" would be tried under law and receive adequate punishment.

Three Drown Over Sandal

BONNER, Mont. (AP)—A woman dropped her sandal in the Blackfoot River Thursday and three youngsters drowned trying to retrieve it. John Fitzpatrick, 28, of Twin Creeks, Mont., who dived in to rescue the children, also drowned. The victims were at a family reunion at McNamara's Landing about 20 miles east of Missoula. The children were Rose Ann Elledge, 15, Deer Lodge, Mont.; Terry Pesanti, 12, Twin Creeks, Mont., and Michael Fitzpatrick, 8, of Andover, Mass. All four bodies were recovered. Missoula County undersheriff Russell Pulliam said Mrs. John Fitzpatrick lost her sandal in the river. Terry Pesanti leaped into the river first, followed by the other youngsters.

British Labor Party Split

LONDON (AP)—A wide-open split developed in Prime Minister Harold Wilson's Labor party today as the government refused a demand from legislators of all parties for an emergency debate on the Viet Nam war. Angry left-wing members of Wilson's own party were openly threatening to balk the administration's entire legislative program because of the prime minister's support for the American campaign in Viet Nam. More than 100 Laborites and Liberals presented a motion in Parliament Thursday night demanding that the government denounce U.S. policies in the Southeast Asian country. Laborite, Liberal and Conservative legislators returned to the attack at the opening of Parliament this morning to demand a full debate early next week of the government's policy in the Viet Nam conflict. Herbert Bowden, government leader of the House of Commons, refused the demand today as he did Thursday night.

Media Men Talk Of Publicizing West Texas Area

HUNT—The bigness, the beauty and the opportunities of West Texas will be emphasized through an aggressive publicity program by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, it was announced here Thursday. John Ben Shepperd, Odessa, president of the WTCC, announced plans for the program following a two-day session with public relation experts, advertising authorities and news media representatives from across West Texas. The meeting included a review of all eight previous sessions, dealing with agriculture, education, industrial development, state and national affairs, petroleum and chemicals, tourism and water. Ideas included a standardized symbol for Texas communities on which their points of interest would be displayed. Other methods of publicizing the advantages of West Texas were also discussed.

Bobby In Party Of 23 On 'River Of No Return'

JACKASS FLATS, Idaho (AP)—Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and 22 others set out today for a Fourth of July float down the "River of No Return." There was even a football—a seemingly necessary item on any Kennedy outing—in the gear when the party flew from Sun Valley to start the holiday trip down the middle fork of the Salmon River in central Idaho's wilderness. The football got a good workout last Fourth of July when the Kennedys floated the Yampa and Green rivers in Colorado and Utah. The 100-mile run down the rapid-filled Salmon may take four or five days, Kennedy said he wasn't sure. But his oldest daughter, Kathleen, 14, said firmly, "four days."

A Devotional For The Day

Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance. (Psalm 42:5)

PRAYER: Loving Father, who from everlasting to everlasting art God and whose being nothing can destroy, help us to trust in Thee when we cannot see. May we persevere in holding fast our faith amid difficulty. In Christ's name we ask. Amen.

Welcome To Our Visitors

Today we welcome a delegation of unusual visitors to our community.

They are the foreign exchange students—the young men and women who have been attending schools in this country for the past year under the auspices of the American Field Service.

of the bus tours pause here for a few days in order that the young men and women may have a chance to see us as we are.

We are delighted that they have honored us with this short visit, and we trust that our people will be hospitable and friendly as they always should be so that our young friends will remember us as good neighbors.

New Phase For The War

The Vietnamese war has entered a new phase.

None can be sure just what that phase is, or where it will lead. But it is clear that the successive strikes at the very threshold of the North Viet Nam capital represent a new development. So far these have been confined to fuel dumps in an effort to restrict the movement of material and men to South Viet Nam infiltration. Yet, these new bold bombings mean that the United States is now committed to the progressive removal of sanctuary status of many of the North Vietnamese targets.

This development in strategy is one which has produced palpitations among some of our allies and friends, professed outrage among our ideological and physical adversaries, and mixed emotions even among the leadership of the majority party within our own nation.

There are those who have contended all along we have no business at all in Southeast Asia; there are others who fear that the escalation makes it more difficult to negotiate a settlement of the war.

Granted that these hold their views in good conscience, the fact remains that the situation in Viet Nam had reached a monotonous, frustrating and costly plateau. The President, who must be credited or charged with the decision, has more information than anyone else. As fraught with peril as the course may be, it does provide a sense of movement and new purpose, it does seek to break the cycle of deadly quicksand for our young men called on to give their lives, and it does indicate that with the diminishing strength of the Cong in South Viet Nam that new pressures on the North will break the stalemate and bring peace for which we all so devoutly pray.

What The Justice Dept. Can Do—

WASHINGTON — How narrowly wholesale tragedy was averted in Mississippi can never be known with precision. Between the violent bigotry of the whites and the long pent-up frustration of the Negroes the lines between sullen order and outright slaughter was paper thin.

The man who would have borne the blame for disaster, Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach, kept an anxious watch over the weekend until the big rally at Jackson, the state capital, was ended. Critics, and not alone on the left of the civil rights movement, increasingly complained that in Mississippi Katzenbach fails to use the tools provided in the Federal Voting Rights Act of 1965 to register Negro voters.

THE ATTORNEY general confronts in Mississippi a sovereign power in Sen. James Eastland. That power extends far beyond his fiefdom of Sunflower County to the Senate of the United States and his chairmanship of the Judiciary Committee with obstruction if not outright veto over the appointments of federal judges and other aspects of the judicial and law enforcement machinery.

Katzenbach can, therefore, reply that in the face of such a sovereign power he has no choice but to proceed with all deliberate caution lest open warfare with Eastland be the result. The question is how far this writ runs. And that same question has arisen in even more embarrassing form in another area.

WHEN SOLICITOR General Thurgood Marshall went before the Supreme Court, acting on the instructions of the attorney general, to confess that a listening device had been placed in the hotel suite of Fred B. Black Jr., convicted of income tax evasion, he opened the door a crack into a dark malodorous room.

UNDER THE OBSCURE laws restricting both wire tapping of electronic communications and eavesdropping through planted bugs an area of Byzantine intrigue has seen every shred of privacy stripped away. Associates of one of the most prominent civil rights leaders are convinced that his hotel room in Washington was bugged by the FBI on the evening of the great march on the Lincoln Memorial in August, 1963.

NO ONE INVOLVED will admit to this. Newsmen, however, were told that they could hear the tapes and FBI agents have talked about what they revealed. Officials at the Justice Department say merely that their impression was that the tapes came from the regional office of the civil rights leader with the listening device planted by local authorities. There is good reason to believe, however, that the disclosures were intended to intimidate the individual involved.

Spokesmen at the Justice Department will say that neither electronic eavesdropping, which is less restricted legally, nor wire tapping of telephones has gone on for the past year. The era of wholesale tapping began in 1961 in Las Vegas, Nev., when a series of taps were placed on the phones in big-time gamblers' offices and hotel rooms.

HERE AGAIN where authority lies is the plaguing issue for the attorney general. The late Robert H. Jackson, after he had left the attorney general's office and gone to the Supreme Court, once said that no attorney general in his memory had exercised control over J. Edgar Hoover; the director of the FBI. This private admission bore out the impression that, solidly entrenched with Congress and a master of the art of public appeal, Hoover was a law unto himself.

If Katzenbach has put an end to eavesdropping and wire tapping, except in cases involving national security, that should be put on the public record. A lot more light is needed in that dark, malodorous room.

LBJ Reiterates Firm Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's latest statement on the American role in Viet Nam wasn't new — he had said it all before — but they were unyielding and kept open a grim window on the future.

Critics of the war and his handling of it have been on his back for months but he didn't bend an inch to mollify them. In his speeches in Omaha and Des Moines Thursday he said the United States would see this war through.

BUT IN explaining this country's involvement in the present struggle he raised the prospect of American involvement in other Viet Nams, bigger or smaller, around the world in the future.

"We are obligated," he said, "to help those whose rights are threatened by force."

"If one government uses force to violate another people's rights, we cannot ignore the injustice, the threat to our own rights, and the danger to world peace."

He explained the case of South Viet Nam. The North Vietnamese are trying to deny the South Vietnamese the right to build their own nation, the South Vietnamese asked U.S. help, and Johnson said: "Only if we have abandoned our respect for the rights of other people can we turn from their plea."

AND AT the end of his Omaha talk Thursday he added this: "There can be only one decision in Viet Nam. We shall see this through. We shall persist. We shall succeed."

"There are many nations, large and small, whose security depends on the reliability of our word and our power, the word of the United States must remain a trust men can live by and live with and depend on."

Johnson, known to believe he has laid out his views on Viet Nam repeatedly, had remained relatively quiet in recent months as the critics battered away at him.

The fact that Thursday's talk was just a rehash of what he has said before would bear out his belief that he has already fully presented this government's case.

HE PROBABLY decided further explanation was needed because just the day before he ordered the bombing of the Communist oil depots around Hanoi and Haiphong in North Viet Nam.

There's no doubt his critics get under his skin. He may start to make a speech from a prepared text that says nothing unpleasant about his critics.

Then he thinks of them, gets overheated, and as he goes along adds some thoughts that were not in writing. It happened Thursday at Omaha when he departed from the written speech to complain about the critics.

"Sometimes I almost develop stomach ulcers just listening" to some of the people who say he's "troubled, confused, and frustrated" by the war.

Self-Made Millionaire

NEW YORK (AP) — It's hard to get rich going around in circles.

But that's how Francis Barry became a millionaire.

AT 58, self-made as any man can be, he is a major power on the New York waterfront. He is the president and chief owner of three shipping companies — the Circle Line, which carries sight-seers around Manhattan; the Statue of Liberty ferry; and the famed old Hudson River Day Line.

"Last year our 15 vessels carried about 2½ million passengers," said Barry, not without pride. That's almost three times as many as entered or left the port of New York by sea.

Son of a stevedore who finally achieved an Irish immigrant's dream of glory by buying his own saloon, Barry was born and raised here in Hell's Kitchen, where a lad to survive had to be quick on his feet and fast with his fists.

"WE NEVER had any money," he said, "but since the neighbors weren't too well-heeled it didn't matter. I suppose we were poor, but didn't know it."

"We lived in an old cold-water tenement that's still standing. Every Saturday morning a man would come out of the barber shop downstairs and throw 20 or 30 pennies in the air.

"What a scramble! That was the big day of the week for us kids."

Barry isn't a high school dropout. He never got that far. He reached his educational peak at 13, when he finished parochial school.

"I played Abraham Lincoln in the graduation play, was elected president of the class, and ran the 75- and 100-yard dash," he recalled.

"I HAD a scholarship to high school but felt I couldn't afford to take it."

Barry, who had been pushing trunks part-time through the clothing district since he was 10, felt he was clever when he landed a $12-a-week job as a messenger for the U.S. Customs Service.

But 10 years later he had worked up to $100 a month. Neighbors thought he was out of his mind when he left the government payroll to work for a customs brokerage firm.

In a few years, Barry became a partner and then sole owner of one of the largest customs brokerage firms in the nation, representing some 33 steamship lines. He surprised others in the field by taking in three partners and giving them a 49 per cent interest in the firm.

"IT PAYS to keep good men with you," he remarked. "That's better than having to compete against them."

With several colleagues he founded the Circle Line in 1945 with a 180-foot fishing boat and a war surplus boat. Now he operates 17 vessels.

Goop For The Swill Mill

Have you ever read the National Enquirer? Got any idea what it is?

What it is, is a tabloid "newspaper" which features the most lurid headlines, and copy, imaginable, including re-touched pictures, on all subjects—if sex is involved in any way, shape or form. A scandal sheet, in short.

WE DIDN'T realize such tabloids were doing business yet in these United States. Thought they were confined to the Goofy Society, Great Britain. Evidently not. The Nat'l Enquirer survives yet, and continues to put banner, 120-point type, headlines over stories about movie stars, alleged murders and weirdos.

A city hall employee had a copy of said tabloid about a week ago, and we took a look at the thing. After reading it, we wondered how it managed to keep financially afloat, considering the number of lawsuits its slanted stories must gather.

EXAMPLE: Below a 72-point headline reading something like, "Movie Star Locks Himself In Room To Escape Psycho Gal," appeared a very large picture of a voluptuous brunette dressed in two pieces of string and perched on a stool.

OBVIOUSLY, the idea was for the reader to connect the near-nude model's picture with the headline. But, nope, when we glanced at the story we found the movie actor had allegedly locked himself in to get away from a nutty, 40-year-old matron, not the model. If said actor had indeed locked out the model, we would have wondered about him, perhaps.

Another headline must have resulted in legal action. It sure would have in Texas. Head said: "Mom Has Too Many Children, So She Kills Two." The story named the woman and called her a murderess; cited police allegations as though they were Gospel, and, in short, punchy lingo, convicted her in print. All without benefit of trial.

THE ENQUIRER'S picture-retouching department was at work in that issue, too. It was a full-page rip-snorter about a man in Rome who survived a kidney transplant from a chimpanzee, the tab's art department took a photo of the man and retouched it, giving poor Luigi a definite simian aspect — beading brows, ape-like jaw and all the rest. Now, give the Devil his due. The Enquirer didn't SAY Luigi looked like an ape, either before or after the operation, but then it didn't need to.

And we always thought California dairies were a bit on the wild side. The Enquirer is printed in the supposedly effete East, and it wins the sloop prize hands down.

Professors Document The Case

WASHINGTON — Professors rush in where politicians fear to tread. Too often the Old Prof is a fool in the forest who thrashes about in matters far beyond his ken, such as

"Ban the Bomb" rallies and "Freedom Marches," so it is good to find examples of professorial bravery in fields of competency. You would have to say that a college psychologist is on firm ground in writing about intelligence tests, and that a university teacher of law deserves a hearing on the subject of criminal justice.

BUT IT TAKES the courage of honesty to make unpopular findings at times when national emotions are running amok. Dr. Audrey M. Shuey, chairman of the Department of Psychology at Randolph-Macon Woman's College, Lynchburg, Va., is author of a 375-page book, "The Testing of Negro Intelligence." I haven't read it, but I have several times read Carleton Putnam's, "Race and Reason," and I have read a descriptive review of Dr. Shuey's volume in the Lynchburg News. She and Mr. Putnam have dealt with the same research material (available to anybody) and produced the same inevitable conclusions.

INTELLIGENCE studies of whites and Negroes in school, high school, college and the Armed Forces make it scientifically clear that there are innate differences between the races, and ideological "know-nothingness" cannot alter the truth. There is approximately 20 points difference in the IQ's of whites and Negroes, and the difference is in favor of the whites.

This doesn't say that there aren't gifted Negroes and mulattoes who rise above the average. But it does say, if anybody still doubts it, that compulsory race-mixing can be a disaster.

A PRESENT phase of the disaster, now common knowledge in North and South, is the race-mixed problem of crime. Gifted Negroes (James Meredith is an example) are embattled against the White Power Structure, which includes our urban police protection. Again, we are indebted to a professor for truthfulness with politicians fear to touch. He is Fred E. Inbau, Northwest University professor of law, and author of the standard text "Cases and Comments on Criminal Justice."

THIS TIME an Old Prof addresses himself to the mob psychology on "police brutality." In Reader's Digest, Fred Inbau recently documented his central proposition: "our nation is besieged by crime." In an average week, an average American city of about 15 million population suffers 566 burglaries, 114 robberies, 15 rapes and about four killings. You might logically suppose that reaction of the citizenry would be to declare all-out war on crime. Very likely that is what the populace desires, but it is not what it articulates demands.

INSTEAD, THE message that comes through is a racially accented yell against "police brutality." It is a yell that rises from a white to a shriek.

Set a fossil to catch a fallacy. You can fool some of the people all of the time about racial equality and the bestiality of the cops — but ask your Old Prof!

More Federal Power

WASHINGTON—An unusual issue in American government has just been raised. For, in effect, the federal government is demanding that the mayor of a city and his police chief provide "reasonable" protection for demonstrators or receive punishment for negligence.

But just how can a federal court tell a local government what is "reasonable" protection? What are the standards of measurement? Must a mayor put a specific number of police on duty and must they be given instructions to arrest everybody who engages in a riot so as to prevent further disturbances?

PRESIDENT JOHNSON has been accused by various Negro leaders of failing to give adequate protection to the marchers in Mississippi. So the administration now has intervened in a federal court and demanded that proper protection be given to Negroes. The suit charges that, when Negro marchers led by the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King were engaged in a stone-throwing and a fist-swinging battle with local whites which later resulted in gunfire in and around Philadelphia, Miss., the authorities did not do their duty. The Justice Department names as defendants the mayor, the police chief and the board of aldermen and alleges that they failed to provide protection for the Negroes even though there was advance notice of the march.

IF THERE IS a legal justification for imposing penalties on the mayor and police chief and other officials of a city, then presumably the federal judiciary now can order the removal of all such officers, even up to the governor of a state.

The Attorney General asked the court to order the local authorities to "give and enforce instructions that law enforcement officers take steps which are reasonably necessary to protect others from assault, harassment or intimidation that discourages the exercise of federally protected rights" and to "discipline law enforcement officers who have failed to perform assigned duties concerning the protection of persons engaged in the exercise of federally protected rights."

THIS MEANS that the United States government is demanding of state, county and city governments a certain kind of protection for "civil-rights" demonstrators and that the federal courts will appraise the steps taken and, if these are judged inadequate, will impose punishment. Presumably the removal of local officers now can be ordered as a form of "discipline."

The purpose of the Fourteenth Amendment was to prevent discrimination by reason of race or color, but no evidence has been presented that in the "demonstration" at Philadelphia, Miss., the police gave protection to whites while they failed to provide it to Negroes.

IF THE FEDERAL government has the power to intervene and to determine the efficiency of local police forces, then Northern cities, too, may soon expect a similar procedure through complaints filed in the federal courts by the Department of Justice.

The responsibility for the management of a police force rests primarily with the mayor of the city and the police chief. If the federal government has the right to intervene and if the courts uphold such demands, the inevitable result is to put in the hands of the federal government the power to remove the mayor and the police chief and to pass judgment on whether their successors are competent and can carry on the edicts of the Department of Justice.

Billy Graham

I was reared to believe that sex is a sin, but my husband has succeeded in convincing me that sex is not sinful. If I turn to Christ, must I give sex up? —M.T.

In the first chapter of the Bible it says: "Male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and said unto them: Be fruitful and multiply." (Gen. 1:28)

Sex is God's creation. It is that mysterious life force which attracts the opposite sexes. God gave it to us; He blesses it, and it is the basis of family life.

However, when it is practiced out of wedlock, and for purposes of lust and pleasure only, God has pronounced judgment upon it. The reason: Sex is for the married—for those whose union has been vouchsafed and blessed by God.

Your husband is right, and you have the wrong impression. However, even in the context of marriage, sex is to be practiced with love and unselfishness. Turning to Christ, therefore, will make you even more understanding, considerate, and affectionate. The married relationship, far from being harmed by being a Christian, is enhanced and helped. In fact, it is the ideal marriage relationship. The Bible teaches that for the married "the bed is undefiled."

West opened the queen of clubs and South played the ace. Prospects were not very bright, for it appeared that declarer must lose two trump tricks, one club, and one diamond.
South decided that—barring some unexpectedly fortuitous distribution in diamonds, such as one defender holding a doubleton queen-jack—his best chance to eliminate a loser was to induce the opposition to lead diamonds for him.
In order to begin a stripping operation, he cashed the ace and king of spades. With that suit eliminated as a safe exit, he turned the ball over to the other side by leading the ten of clubs. West put up the jack and then played the ace of hearts, so that he could not be thrown in again subsequently.

West was reluctant to open up the diamond suit, so he returned a third round of clubs which proved to be the best defense, even the South was presented with the opportunity to ruff in dummy while he discarded a diamond from his hand. The one sluff did not yet eliminate his diamond loser, so declarer exited with a trump again—this time saddling East with the lead.
East could not get out with either a club or spade, for another ruff and discard would be fatal, so he shifted to the jack of diamonds. South put up the ace from his hand and returned the ten to trap West's queen. The diamond suit was brought in without casualty, and declarer scored 10 tricks.
Observe that, unless South takes full advantage of the block in the trump suit, he will not be successful. If he attempts to lead hearts before the club, West can put his partner in with the king of clubs, thereby giving East a chance to cash the king of hearts. His exit in spades or clubs, presents declarer with a ruff and discard; however, he is now saddled with the lead and must eventually play diamonds, which will assure West of the opportunity to score the setting trick with the queen.

Natalie Wood asks, "Is anyone worth that?"

'Penelope' Star To Get $750,000 And Percent

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Is Natalie Wood in a film worth $750,000 plus a percentage of the gross returns?
"Is anyone worth that much?" she replied quizzically. MGM must think so. The company is plunking out that amount for her services as a comic kleptomaniac in "Penelope." The fee is a new high for her; but she seems undazzled.
"Yes, it's a lot of money," she admitted, "but it also seemed like a lot of money when I was 13 and making $1,000 a week under contract to Fox."

Saturday Rites For Mrs. Wade

Mrs. M. S. (Ella) Wade, 84, 1400 Scurry, died at 4:20 p.m. Thursday in a local hospital after several years' illness.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday in the River-Welch Chapel, with the Rev. Harold B. Rucker, assistant pastor, First Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park.
She was born at Burnett Jan. 27, 1882, and married M. S. Wade at Elgin in 1902. The family moved from Gorman to Big Spring in 1922, where he was a ticket clerk for the Texas & Pacific Railway until his death July 6, 1951. So long as her health permitted, Mrs. Wade was active in her church.
Mrs. Wade was a member of the First Methodist Church. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Maurine Terrell, Big Spring, and Mrs. C. O. Edens, Rochester, N. Y.; two granddaughters, Andrea Terrell, Big Spring, and Lettie Edens, Rochester, N. Y.; one grandson, Wade Edens, Rochester, N. Y.

Florida Has Tornado Alert

MIAMI (AP)—A massive tropical depression, accompanied by torrential rains, brought a tornado watch today to portions of north and central Florida and extreme southeast Georgia.

Severe thunderstorms with large hail and locally damaging winds were forecast as the depression moved northward at 5 to 10 miles per hour. Highest winds, 30 to 40 miles an hour, were in a few squalls east and northeast of the center, with winds elsewhere in the depression area mostly 15 to 25 m.p.h.
Greatest threat of tornadoes and severe thunderstorms was in an area east of a line 70 miles west northwest of Jacksonville to 60 miles southwest of Vero Beach, the Weather Bureau said.
Jacksonville had seven inches of rain between midnight and 7 a.m. and 9.86 in a 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. Parts of the city were flooded and U. S. 17 was under water in seven places.
"The whole eastern side is land and it is not organized as a tropical center. It's a pretty large area but very weak and the pressure is high," the Weather Bureau said.
Small craft warnings were displayed from Apalachicola, Fla., and Savannah, Ga., southward through the Florida keys. The Weather Bureau predicted two to four inches of rain for northeast Florida and southeast Georgia today and tonight.
At 6 a.m. (EST) the center of the depression was just west of the Tampa Bay area, at latitude 27.7 north and longitude 23.0 west, drifting northward.

Mother Held After Second Triple Children Drowning

FAIRFIELD, Maine (AP)—Three young children were found drowned in their rural home Thursday, in what was almost a duplication of a tragedy, 12 years ago when their mother was committed in the drowning of her first three children.

Police said they would seek a murder warrant today against the mother, Constance Fisher, 37.

FOUND BY FATHER

The bodies were found by the father, Carl Fisher, 45, when he came home from work. In March, 1954, he had come home from work, from the same job, to find the first three children dead.

Both times he found his wife unconscious. The first time the children were 6 years, 4 years, and 11 months old. This time, the children were 6 years, 4 years and 9 months old.

Mrs. Fisher was taken to Trayer Hospital in Waterville Thursday night, where she regained consciousness. A hospital spokesman said she appeared to be in good condition. She was under police guard.

Police Chief Frederick Gould said three pill boxes were found empty Thursday. He said Mrs. Fisher had taken an overdose of medication. He also said a note was found, but did not disclose its contents.

Twelve years ago, Mrs. Fisher attempted suicide, officials said, by drinking hair shampoo. She left a note then, saying she had killed the children because "God told me to do it," and saying, "They are in heaven, safe from evil."

COMMITTED
She was charged with murder then and committed to the state hospital in Augusta. A grand jury refused to indict her after the hospital reported she was insane. An autopsy by Dr. Irving Gooder, Waterville pathologist, showed the three had drowned. Dr. Maurice Philbrick, county medical examiner, placed the time of death at about 7 a.m. Thursday.

MRS. CONSTANCE FISHER

tion of any potential recurrence of her illness.

The father told police he returned home from his job in the car shops of the Maine Central Railroad in Waterville about 5 p.m. Thursday.

He found his 9-month-old daughter, Nathalie Rose lying face down in about 1½ inches of water in the bathtub.

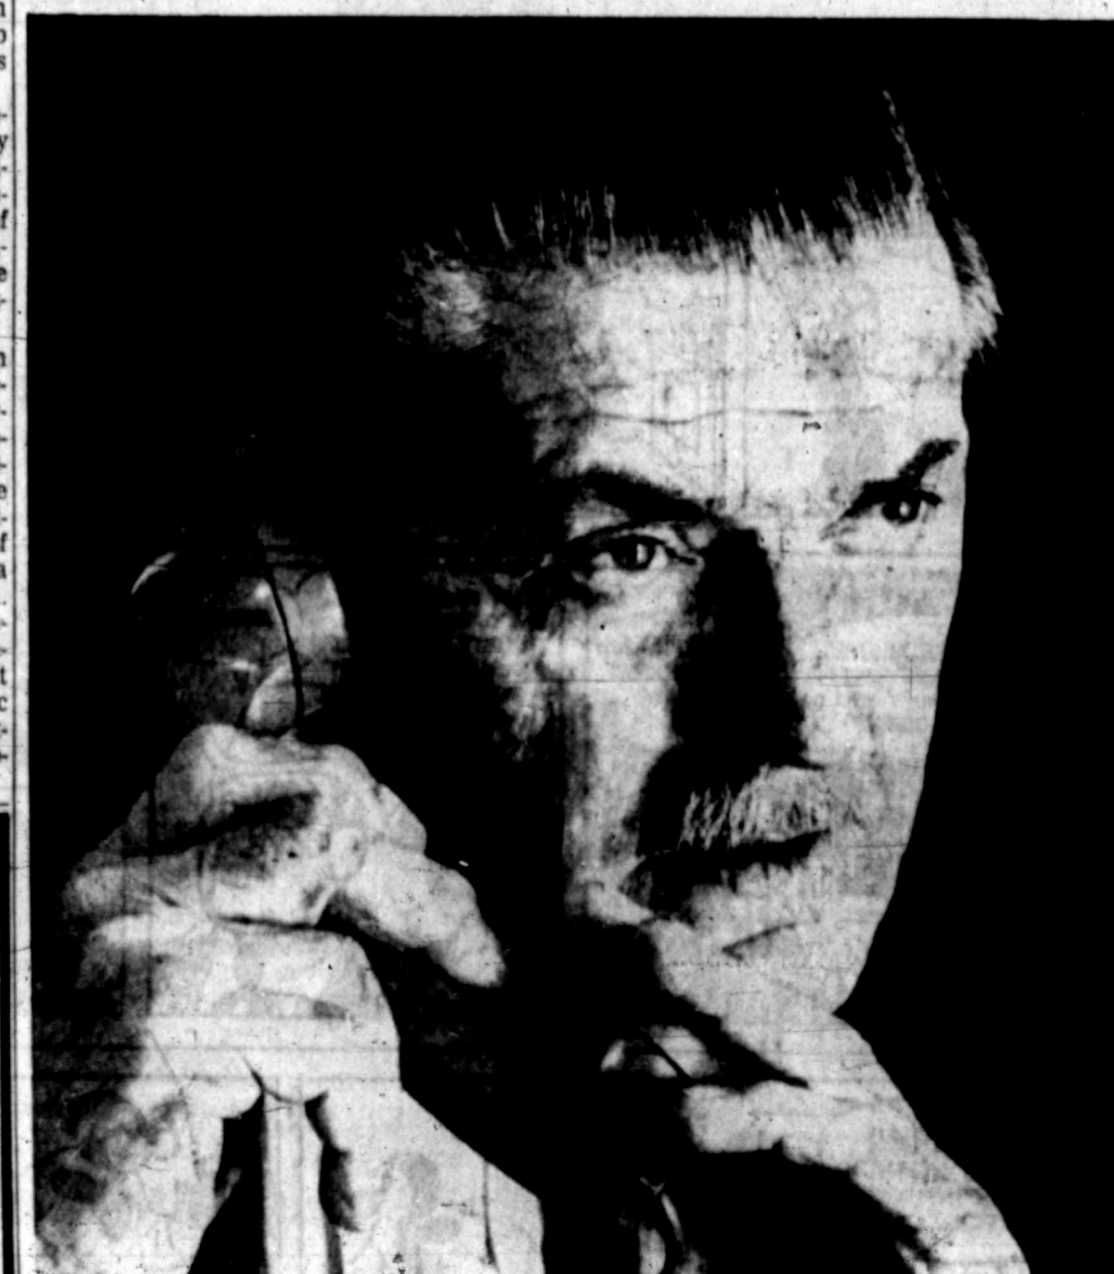

Fisher ran about a quarter of a mile to the nearest home with a telephone, the home of Howard Wood, to summon help.

He and police then found Kathleen Louise, 6, and Michael Jon, lying under blankets in a bed. He found his wife on a bed.

Oil Search On In Arctic Isles

CALGARY, Alta. (AP) — The search for oil in the Arctic islands is on again after a pause by exploration firms. Their goals: "The big one—the billion-barrel pool."

"It's there all right," says one exploration engineer. "That big or bigger. It's just a question of who finds it first and when and where."

The exploration picture to date, however, has been all dollars and no barrels.

JOINT PROGRAM
Among major projects are a $30 million joint exploration program being considered by more than two dozen companies and a 1.1 million-acre exploration survey started by a French firm in March.

Geologists first moved into the islands in 1959. By 1964 three costly wells had been drilled, then abandoned. Then companies paused and land holdings dropped to 41 million acres from 57 million.

Now federal exploration permits cover 63 million acres in what Dr. J. C. Sproule describes as "one of the largest, if not the largest, known untapped oil and gas basins on earth."

His company, J. C. Sproule and Associates, proposed the joint exploration group which would hold a reported 70 percent of the barren land now covered by permits.

DEAR ABBY

They Need A Hotel

DEAR ABBY: We have a nice home with a lovely guest room which has a big, comfortable double bed. We had a couple come to visit us for a week, and when we showed them their room the man said: "A DOUBLE BED! We haven't slept in a double bed in years! At home we have twin beds."

His wife gave him a dirty look so he kept still. We would have offered them our bedroom, but we have a double bed, too. After they went home, we heard from a mutual friend that they didn't enjoy their stay with us because they aren't used to sleeping together.

Must we exchange the double bed for twin beds to accommodate people like that?

DEAR HOSTESS: No! Offer your guests what you have. If the accommodations don't meet with their approval, introduce them to someone who specializes in catering to guests: Conrad Hilton!

DEAR ABBY: I am a not-so-young bachelor who had the misfortune of falling in love with a married woman. I have no desire to steal her from her husband, but I would like to leave her everything I have, which is a considerable sum. In your opinion, would this hurt her reputation in any way? I would not embarrass her for the world.

Her husband is hard-working, but he doesn't have much. She is a sweet woman with two nice children. I would like her to have an easier life and her children to be assured of their educations. I have no relatives to leave anything to. No one in our town is aware that we even knew each other.

DEAR ABBY: "FOR MORALITY," who stated that she didn't want her children associating with children of divorced couples because they all ran wild and had no supervision at home, was truly "mad" and I am glad you told her so. Her false analogy reminded me of something I learned in psychology class: "All Indians walk in single file—at least, the only one I ever saw did."

DEAR ABBY: I am a not-so-young bachelor who had the misfortune of falling in love with a married woman. I have no desire to steal her from her husband, but I would like to leave her everything I have, which is a considerable sum. In your opinion, would this hurt her reputation in any way? Free Legal Aid Project Hailed By Bar Leader

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The War on Poverty's program for free legal aid will give the poor of America protection from injustice and a boost upward, the president of the American Bar Association said here Thursday.

Edward W. Kuhn, speaking to about 2,000 attorneys meeting here at the convention of the State Bar Association of Texas, said the free legal aid will supply the poor with justice and dignity. "Two necessary elements if the poor are to be lifted out of the degradation of poverty."

PROTECT POOR

The legal aid program, he said, would protect the poor against "the frauds of the victimizer, the gouging by selfish landlords and the arbitrary actions of the welfare bureaucracy."

Earlier, in an interview with newsmen, Kuhn, a Memphis, Tenn. attorney, was critical of a U.S. Supreme Court ruling which allows authorities to take blood tests from drivers suspected of being intoxicated, even though the suspects may object.

"I think they (Supreme Court justices) were sort of straining the Constitution," he said. "I was mildly surprised in view of other decisions."

He said he hoped there would be some leeway in another Supreme Court decision recently. This decision forbids police interrogation of a suspect who objects to questioning.

Kuhn described interrogation of suspects as a "valuable tool" of lawmen.

LAW PRAISED

The attorney praised a recent law which permits judges to release indigent criminal suspects from custody on no bond. "That's a good bill," he said. "It gives them a chance, if they're innocent, to build up their defense and be free to consult their lawyer."

Earlier in the opening general session of the convention, Texas Bar President Clint Small Jr. of Austin defended the new Texas Criminal Code and charged that much of the criticism of it has been "irresponsible and unwarranted."

"Many otherwise thoughtful people seemed to fail to recognize or were unwilling to have cal mistakes" in the code, but noted that many people are working on these and they may be corrected in the next session of the Texas Legislature. In other activities of the convention which has attracted more than 2,000 lawyers, the State Junior Bar of Texas gave the Liberty Bell Award to B.J. Jackson, a Cleburne school official. The award recognizes outstanding work in furthering the ideals of the Constitution.

The University of Houston College of Law team was declared winner in the moot court finals. Members of the team were Joe L. Draughn, Stuart D. Kinard and John M. O'Quinn. The bar awarded certificates and $200 checks to four newsmen: Harley Pershing of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Chris Whitcraft of the Dallas Morning News. Walter Evans of KRLD Radio in Dallas, received the radio award, and Ray Miller of KPRC television in Houston was given the television award. The state convention will end on Saturday.

ANTICIPATED

The code, Small said, incorporated U.S. Supreme Court decisions and "apparently anticipated that court's treatment of questions such as the admissibility of confessions and pre-trial publicity."

The state bar president admitted there were some "mechanical

CALL FOR JULY 11

Court Sets Early Hearing For Its Criminal Docket

Opportunity for a prompt trial will be made available to a considerable number of the defendants who were indicted by the Howard County grand jury on Wednesday.

Judge Ralph Caton, 11th District court, after a conference with Wayne Burns, district attorney, Thursday scheduled a criminal docket for July 11 and placed 10 of the 13 indictments returned by the grand jury for trial that week.

The murder case against Narciso Joseph Santiago was not put on the docket since it is probable a special venire will be required to try that matter.

Judge Caton has set 10 a.m. July 8 to call the docket. A jury panel will be called for 10 a.m. July 11—a Monday. This, too, is an innovation in the court.

ONE MORE DAY

It has been the custom to call the docket at 10 a.m. on the first day of the docket with the jury to report at 1:30 p.m. the same date. The usual result has been the trial would not get started until the following morning. The court hopes by this new plan to get in five full days in which cases can be tried.

At the docket call on the Friday before the Monday trial date, jury guilty pleas, motions for continuance and other routine can be cleared away leaving the way open to start the trial proper when court opens on July 11.

There are a number of other cases on the docket in addition to the 10 cases growing out of this week's grand jury session. Included is one murder with malice charge in which Elvyn Thomas accused in the gun death of Louise Ross.

NEW CASE

First case on the docket will be one of the bills returned by the grand jury—a charge of armed robbery against Carroll Frantham. Frantham is charged with having held up the Vernon Drive-in on the night of April 16.

Other cases on the docket are:

Juan Gonzales Ruiz, charged with murder with a motor vehicle; William D. Graham, DWI second; Wayne Morgan, worthless check; Bill G. Ely, theft; Patsy Johnson, assault with intent to murder; Leonard Sebring, forgery; David Norman Hazlett, theft; Edward Eugene Banks, assault with intent to murder; H. B. Beck, forgery; Vernon Collins Ford, DWI second offense; Joe Lomas, burglary; Jackie Lee Hill, burglary; Carlee Allen and Allen Lamar, armed robbery; Felipe Juarez and Santos Mendoza, possession of marijuana; and Pete Campos, burglary.

Hospitable Treatment Is Urged For Allied Fliers

The impression that Americans make on foreign visitors, particularly students sent to this country for collegiate or military training programs, is vital in the establishment of proper public relations for this nation, Kwanians were told Thursday by Capt. Jake Sorenson, officer in charge of foreign student training programs at Webb AFB.

There are 15 Allied students now at Webb, he said. For the most part they are college graduates, selected after a careful screening and are the "cream of their country's young men." The students are qualifying as jet pilots and are remarkably skillful, he stated.

He said that far too many nations abroad get their impression of this country from movies, TV shows and lurid publications.

One young man, he said, was begged by his mother not to come to the United States because she was fearful he would be shot down in a gunfight on the streets.

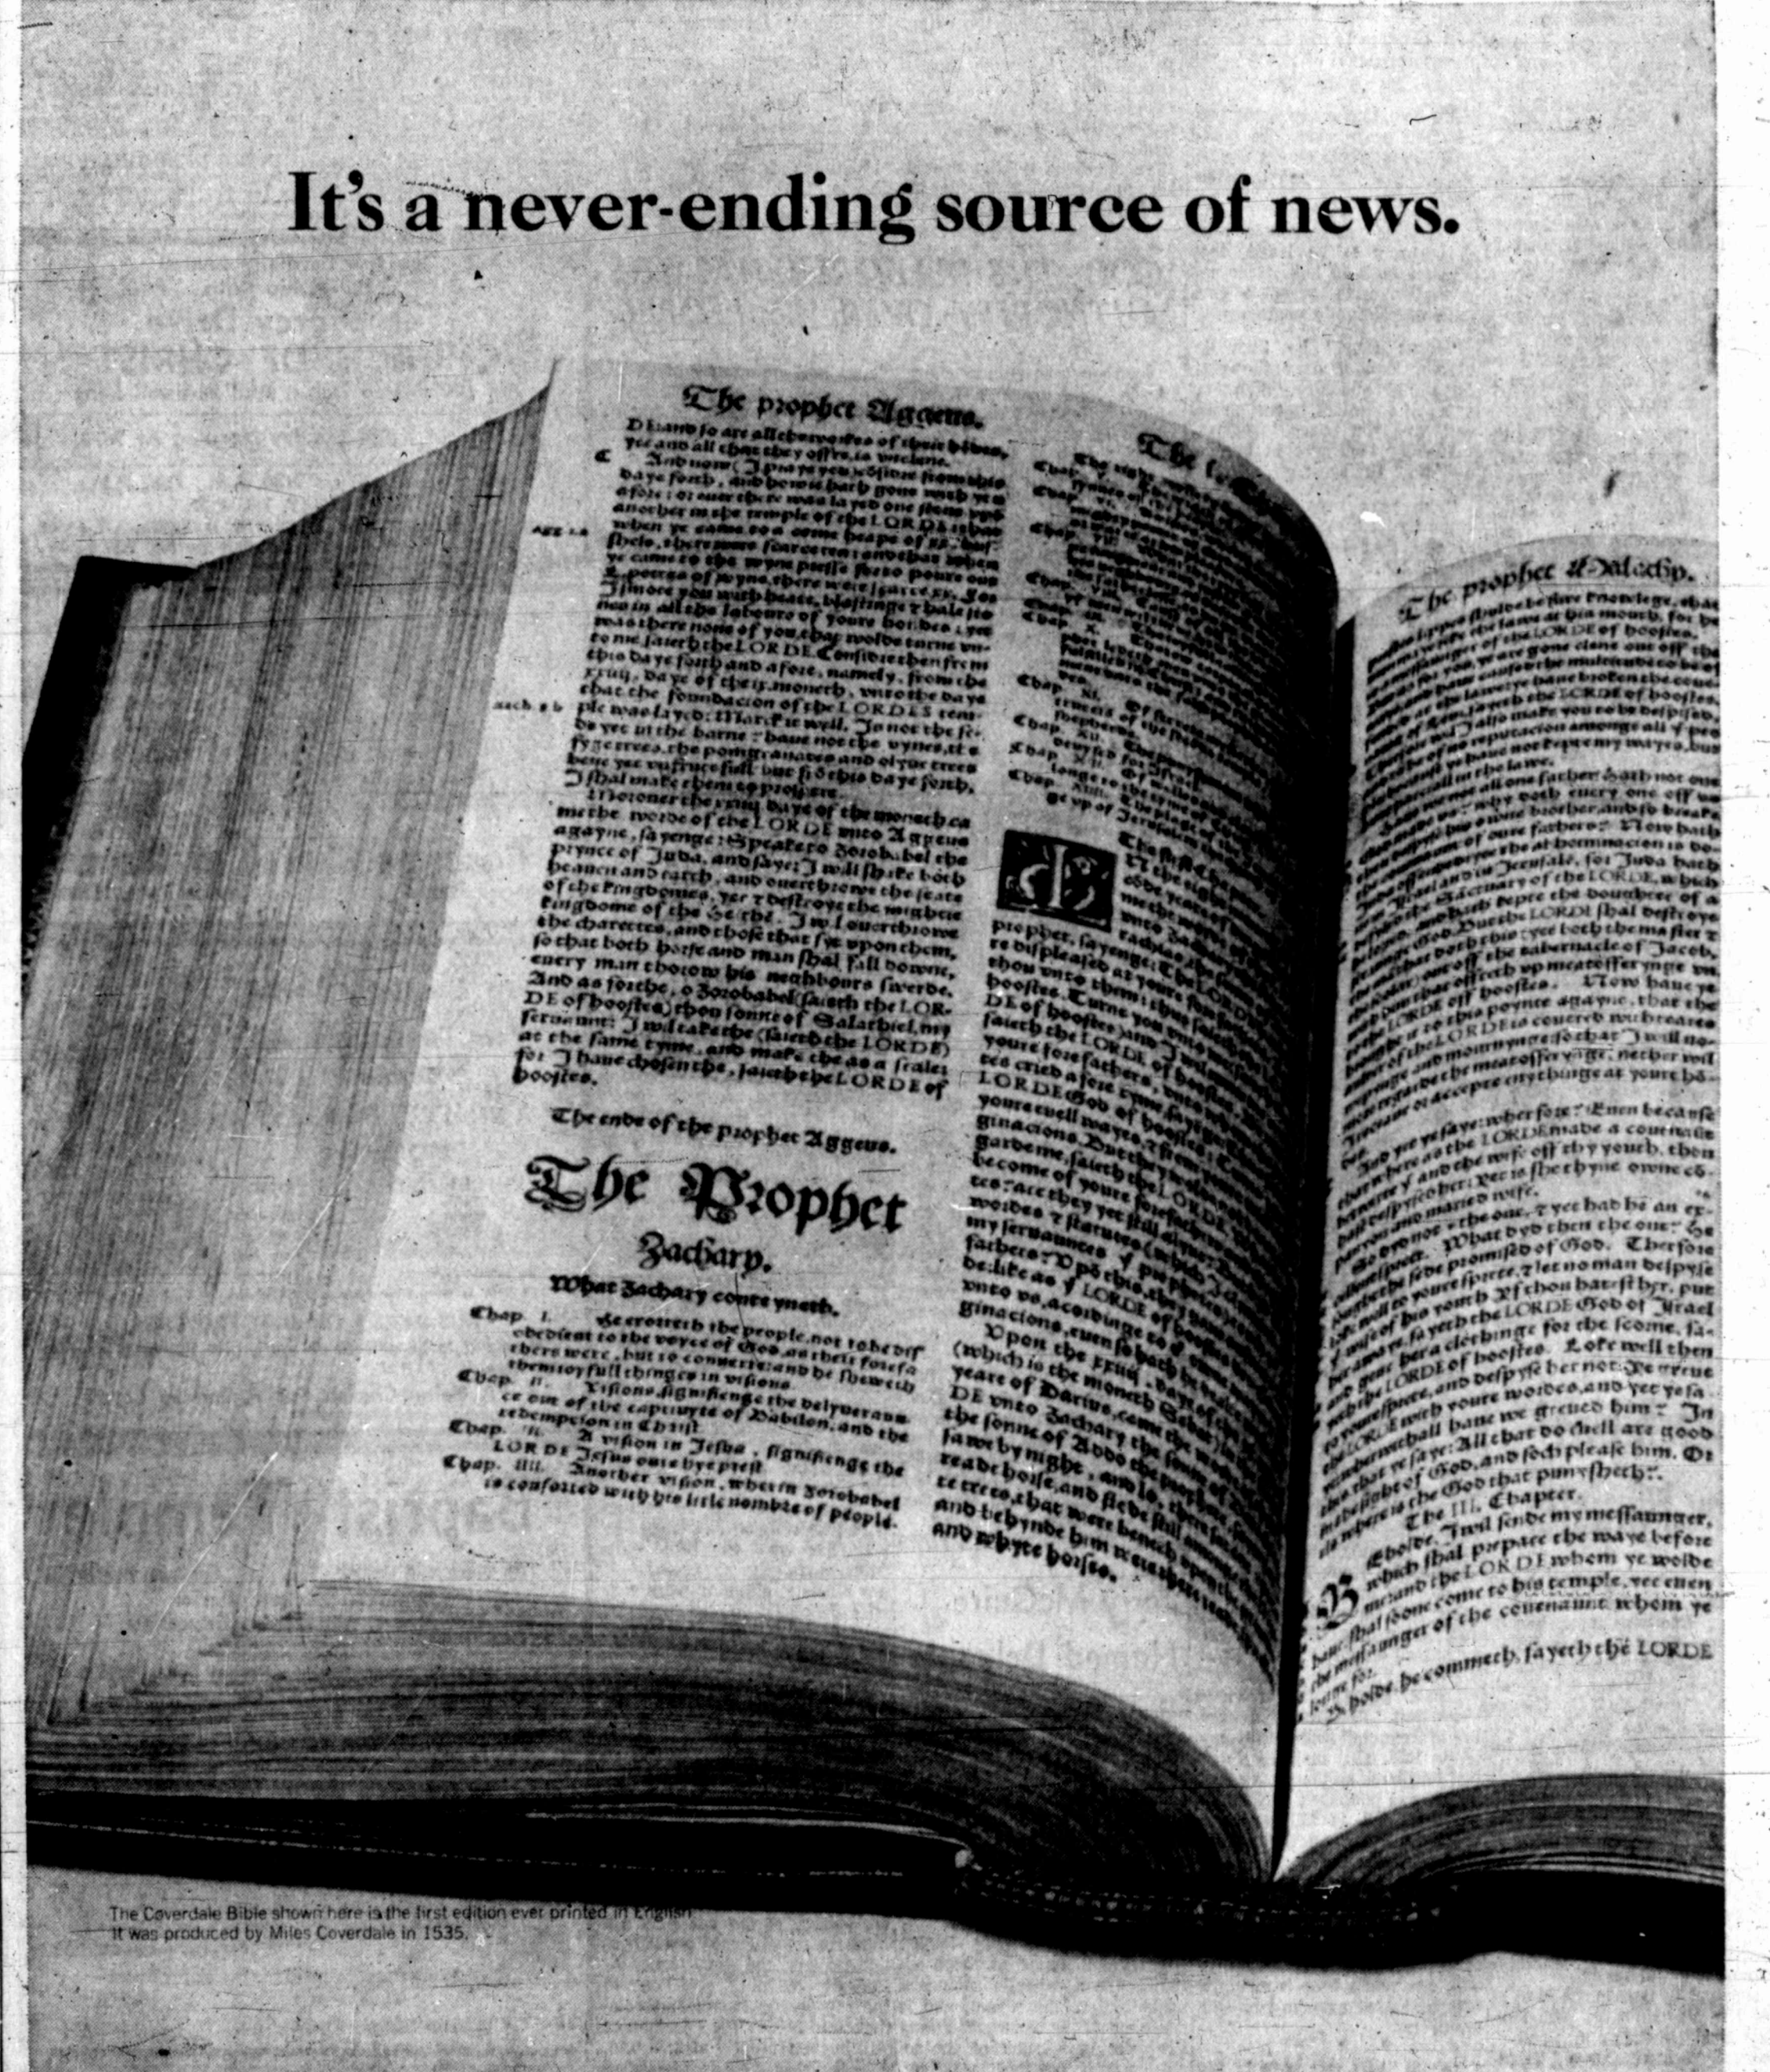

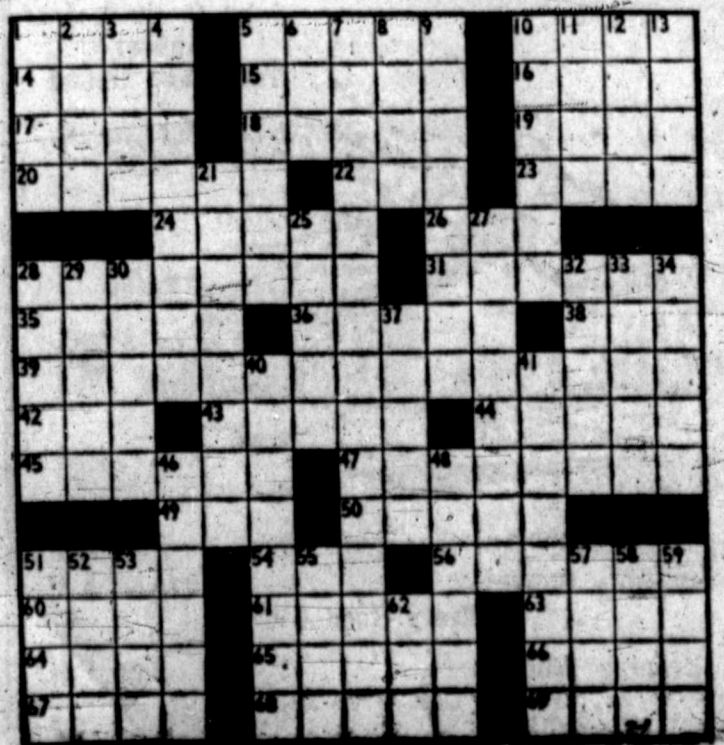

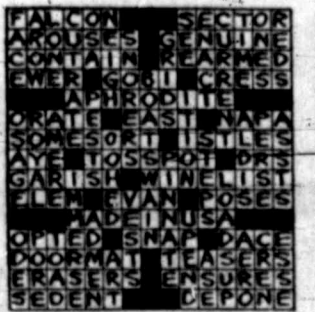

He urged that Big Spring families become acquainted with these students. He said that he would be happy to see that one of the men is available as a guest if any family here would like to entertain him.

He noted that the men, although in some instances, they may be from countries which are hostile to one another, are entirely amiable and cordial in their personal relationship with one another.

Bill Johnson was program chairman for the day.

Although religion is the oldest continuing story in the history of mankind, it's still one of the biggest. Especially today. Sweeping changes are taking place in every region of the religious world, and they affect almost every member of our community. To keep track of all these developments is a big job for an expert reporter, and fortunately, we have just the man for the job: George Cornell, religion writer for The Associated Press and author of the weekly column, "Religion Today." In his 15 years of covering religion, Cornell has won the reputation of being among the most knowledgeable writers on the scene. He's also won almost every important award, including a James O. Supple Memorial Award given to the outstanding religion writer of the year by all the other writers in the field. As a member of The Associated Press, we count on George Cornell to get us the whole story. As a reader of this newspaper, you can count on us to get it to you — fully, factually, and above all, fairly.

Baptist Ponder Problem Of Aid

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Southern Baptists, torn between a need for money for their schools and keeping church and state apart, have reached the midway point of a two-year study on the question of federal aid. The conclusion so far: no conclusion.

It boils down to "how far separated you want church and state to be," said Franklin Owen of Lexington, Ky., president of the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

NO ANSWERS

As a Baptist newspaper editor put it: "We came with the answers and left with the questions."

The observations came during the first national conference of the Baptist Education Study Task. Federal aid was not the only question studied, but it developed the only real controversy. The 275 Baptist leaders at the conference agreed to wait until a similar meeting next June for any decision on federal aid. Even then, the decision will not be binding on any school.

Six of 22 study groups at the convention agreed to let each educational institution make its own decision.

This, however, apparently will fall short of effecting a solution for several reasons:

PROBLEMS

1. Most of the 73 educational institutions, including 54 colleges and universities, which Southern Baptists own, are controlled by separate boards of trustees and owned by state Baptist conventions. The state

Thos. Williams Is Ordained

Thomas J. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Williams, 1317 Tucson, was ordained as a minister of music and religious education during Sunday evening services at the First Baptist Church, Crosbyton.

Williams will be working with the Rev. Ernest Stewart, former pastor of the East Fourth Baptist Church in Big Spring, now the Crosbyton Baptist pastor.

He was graduated from Big Spring High School and attended Hardin-Simmons University for four years. He graduated from the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth May 20, receiving his master of religious education degree. While attending the seminary, he was music director of the Emmanuel Baptist Church at Weatherford.

Williams is married to the former Carolyn Malone, Abilene.

Billy Beams Talk To Young Folk

A London correspondent for the Christian Science Monitor recently took a close view of the many faces of Billy Graham, the enigmatic evangelist who has brought his largest-ever crusade to London.

He finds that many young people, the world over, are bored and lonely, while others are serious, intellectual and questioning.

"Today's young people want desperately to be loved, they want a faith to believe in and a challenge to accept," Graham emphatically continues.

"Jesus says," he then declares, leaning over the platform to his audience, "take your ego and submit it to me, and I will give you peace."

Stringer continues in his analysis of Graham:

"The man says, 'You must come by faith—I cannot prove to you that God exists.' And they listen."

"He says premarital sex endangers future marriage relations and harms society. And they listen."

Graham's message, in essence, calls for those who wish "to make a decision for Christ" to stand up, to come forward, to be ready for a new life.

"What must you do?" Graham asks. "Read the Bible daily. There will be verses to memorize. Spend daily time in prayer. Witness to Christ by a smile on your face, by being clean and pure and helpful and by a different attitude to your friends and parents. Find fellowship in a Bible study class in your own church."

This, Stringer notes, is the Graham crusade. "More mature than 12 years ago. Not engaged in doctrinal reform of the churches. Criticized by those who believe that 'emotional conversions'—the fervor of the moment—are seldom long enduring."

'Peanuts' Heads List

RICHMOND, Va. — One of the surprise best-sellers of 1966 continues to outstrip past sales records. In a recent survey published by The Book Buyer's Guide, "The Gospel According to Peanuts" by Robert L. Short (John Knox Press) reigns at the top of the general best-seller list. On combined general and fiction lists, "Peanuts" was surpassed only by "Up the Down Staircase."

Latest figures just released show that "The Gospel According to Peanuts" sold 411,500 copies in 1965. This includes a special hardback edition of the book which was published only in November, and is still enjoying brisk sales beyond the holiday rush season.

Not only is the Short book the all-time best-seller in John Knox's history, and one of the best sellers of the year; but sales figures of over 400,000 in only one year's time is virtually unprecedented even in best-seller circles.

Robert Short was born in Big Spring and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Short, Midland.

Clean Cathedral

LONDON (AP)—The cleaning of St. Paul's Cathedral, which started in May, 1964, is expected to be finished by June. The leadwork of the cupola and the gilded ball and cross atop Sir Christopher Wren's famous dome are now getting the finishing touches. The ball and cross were added by Andrew Niblett, a coppersmith, in 1708. Cost of cleaning the cathedral is expected to be within the 150,000 pounds ($420,000) raised by public appeal for doing the job.

FAVORITE PASSAGE

The Rev. John Black, First Christian Church: In the Book of Romans, Chapter 8, Verse 28, the Apostle Paul says: "We know that in every thing God works for good with those who love him."

This has always been a very comforting and helpful passage of Scripture to me. It meets us at the very point of our greatest need. Here the Apostle of our Lord is very positive and to the point.

You see, the Apostle did not say that we guess, believe or hope that God is in all our affairs — to work with us under certain conditions when and if we are good and merit His help. But he made it quite clear and evident that God is active in all our affairs — "God works in everything for good with those who love him." The prerequisite on our part is that we love God.

GOD, THE DELIVERER, HAS THE AUTHORITY OVER HIS PEOPLE

When man refuses the guidance and commands of God, he becomes lost in a wilderness of senseless living. The text for this Sunday's International Sunday School lesson is taken from Exodus 20:1-2; Leviticus 18:1-5; Joshua 24:19-24; Hosea 11:1-4; John 14:8-15; Hebrews 1:1-4.

God is the liberator of man. When the Israelites were set free from bondage, they knew this: it was their God who had brought them out of Egypt, their God who, working through Moses, exerted his overwhelming power to confound Pharaoh and the Egyptian taskmasters and set His people free.

The fact that God set them free gave Him full and complete authority over them: a believer has such authority because he is a believer. God gave Israel freedom; now, in return, He asks only that they live righteously and worship Him.

"If you love me," Jesus said, "keep my commandments."

LETTER Says Faith Guides Youth

Dear Editor:

The devil is smarter than he used to be, he has learned a lot of new tricks. We older ones are going to pass away, and we are counting on the young keeping the United States better than we have. Don't fail us, Christ said. Love to all and give an honest day's work. Buy only what you have to have, and pay your debts. Remember Mother and Dad, Savior and neighbors. And do unto others as you would like to be done. And ask the Lord to forgive you as you have forgiven.

I will be 89 on Sept. 1, 1966. We did the best we can. Don't fail to stand up for Christ and look ahead and don't look back. Watch out and set your goal and go to it. With the best of health and wealth. May God bless you. With love to all.

Jerry McGuire Named Delegate

Jerry McGuire, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McGuire, Gall Route, has been selected as one of 1,200 young people from the Church of the Nazarene throughout the world to attend the International Youth Camp at Estes Park, Colo., July 5-11. He is one of 16 high school students selected from the Abilene district.

The 16-year-old Big Spring High School junior has been active in the a cappella choir and basketball at the school, and is president of the Nazarene Young People's Association at the local Church of the Nazarene.

The Rev. D. M. Duke is his pastor.

Pastor Answers Girl's Letter

In a letter to the Dallas Morning News on June 10, Melody Ann Stewart of Orange wrote: "God is not dead. He is merely obsolete... truth has triumphed, the victims are vindicated, and the church continues its long retreat into redefinition and attempted reconciliation."

In a letter to the Dallas Morning News on June 21, the Rev. James A. Puckett, pastor of Baptist Temple Church here, answered Miss Stewart's charges: "Before any of your readers hasten to join her (Miss Stewart's) 'God is obsolete' gang, I suggest that since geology has not even drilled through the crust of the earth yet, it certainly cannot prove there is no hell, and since the astronauts have scarcely even looked at the edge of the universe, they have not destroyed heaven, but have, in fact, increased the greatness of God, the Creator of the world."

"True science has no conflict with true religion... Miss Stewart has what the Bible calls 'science falsely so called.' If her atheistic blindfold were ever once dislodged so she could get a glimpse of reality, she would see in every corner of the universe, the evidence of the handy work of God."

...and only a fool would say in his heart, 'there is no God.'"

Urges Attendance

All area ministers are urged to invite their congregations to attend the dedication ceremonies Sunday of the Veterans Administration Hospital beautification project, the Rev. James A. Puckett, outgoing president of the Big Spring Pastors Association, said today. The ceremonies will begin promptly at 2:30 p.m.

New Life Crusade For Puerto Rico To Begin

DALLAS — Sixty Spanish-speaking and English-speaking pastors and laymen from Texas left here Thursday to participate in the Puerto Rican New Life Crusade July 3-16.

The crusade is jointly sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. It is the third major evangelistic crusade in four years for the BGCT.

The Southern Baptist Convention began work in Puerto Rico two years ago and now has 10 congregations on the island. There are four English-speaking congregations and six Spanish-speaking.

Rudy Hernandez, coordinator of the crusade and an associate in the evangelism division of the BGCT, said meetings will be held in 14 cities July 3-10 with central crusades in San Juan, Ponce and Aguadilla July 11-16.

Total operating expense of the project is $32,500. All preachers making the trip to Puerto Rico are serving without remuneration.

"Oh
see"

FESTOONING FIRE FINGERS STREAK DOWN THE SKY WHILE SOFT JULY BREEZES STIR ACROSS UPTURNED FACES AND THE BAND PLAYS SOFTLY. SUDDENLY I SEE BEYOND THE FRAMEWORK OF OUR CELEBRATION. I SEE FIREWORKS AND FLAGS. HARD-BOILED EGGS AND POTATO SALAD. A PARADE DOWN MAIN STREET. COTTON CANDY. ROLLER COASTERS. AND THE DANCE AT THE COUNTRY CLUB. I SEE A LITTLE BAND OF PEOPLE CROSSING THE OCEAN TO MAKE A NEW LIFE. A WOODSMAN HACKING A TRAIL WESTWARD. A MAN AND HIS WOMAN WORKING TOGETHER TO MAKE A HOME IN THE NEW WILDERNESS. I SEE ROWS OF GRAVES IN FRANCE. MARKING FALLEN DOUGHBOYS. FOUR YOUNG MEN RAISING A FLAG ON IWO JIMA. AND AN ASTRONAUT BLASTING OFF TO YET A NEW FRONTIER. I SEE A SWEET LAND OF LIBERTY. ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT THINGS THIS LAND STANDS FOR IS A MAN'S RIGHT TO WORSHIP GOD IN THE WAY HE WANTS. GO TO YOUR CHURCH AND TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS PRECIOUS HERITAGE.

The Passing Of The Astor

The Hotel Astor, located in New York's Times Square, will call it quits Thursday after nearly 62 years. The last 150 guests will check out to make way for the wreckers and a proposed 40-story office building. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Hotel Astor, New York Landmark, Coming Down

NEW YORK (AP) — The Hotel Astor, which has stood along gaudy Times Square like a maiden aunt for nearly 62 years, calls it quits today. Thursday, her last guests checked out, the employees will leave their jobs, and the wrecking crew will take over. The Astor, a Broadway landmark, is coming-down to make way for a 40-story office building. "It's sad. Any passing is sad," said Erwin O. Schel, the hotel's general manager. Henry Pottberg, the assistant bell captain, looked across the red-carpeted lobby and said, "The Astor's just out of this world. It's been like a second home to me. I've spent half of my life here."

For years the Astor was home to presidents and show business people. Every president since 1933 has stayed at the hotel, and once, according to a favorite Astor legend, a man went to sleep thinking he was president — and woke up a loser. He was Charles Evans Hughes, who bedded down in the presidential suite in 1916 after hearing the favorable early returns. But during the night the California vote came in and put Woodrow Wilson in the White House.

The lobby of the Astor didn't look like a hotel on its last night. Guests still were checking in, and Schel said the hotel had to turn down hundreds of reservations that continued to pour in.

In the past 20 years New York has lost 33 hotels. On the same day the Astor closes, the Sheraton-East on Park Avenue also closes its doors. Nonetheless, New York has more hotel rooms now than it did in 1945 because of the new skyscraper hotels that have gone up—and the emergence of motor hotels in Manhattan.

LBJ Receives Cotton Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House completed action Thursday on a bill to set up a grower-financed program of research and promotion for cotton. The bill now goes to President Johnson.

The program would be financed by a check off system in which growers would be assessed $1 a bale at the time they sell their cotton. Growers not desiring to participate could get their money returned after several months.

The program would not become effective until after hearings called by the secretary of agriculture and after a referendum of cotton growers. To become effective the program would have to be approved by (1) two-thirds of the growers voting or (2) by growers representing two-thirds of the cotton production provided that at least a majority of the growers voted to approve.

Since cotton production is around 15 million bales a year, the program could raise $15 million a year. Funds would be used for research into how to reduce cotton production costs and into advertising and other methods of promoting sales of cotton products. The program would be supervised by a board set up by the secretary of agriculture.

President-Elect Of AMA Set Out To Be Preacher

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A story keeps making the rounds that a physician in Brazil saved Dr. Milford O. Rouse from dying of meningitis and thus inspired him to pursue a medical career.

"This is not so," said Rouse, the 63-year-old Dallas gastroenterologist named president-elect of the American Medical Association Wednesday in Chicago.

"The physician probably saved me, but he did not inspire me to follow in his footsteps. That came later, when I got the impression that I was not meant to be a preacher but that I should serve humanity."

TEXAS NATIVE
Rouse, a clinical professor of medicine at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical School here since 1943, spent a year of his boyhood in Brazil as the son of Southern Baptist missionaries. He's a native of Jacksonville, Tex.

Associates characterize the Dallas specialist as a human dynamo, citing his activities in organized medicine, religion, conservative causes and civic undertakings.

His selection to become chief executive of the American Medical Association next June means the 250,000-member organization will be led by a man who already has called upon it to help "stem the tide of socialist infiltration in this country."

Rouse voiced this goal for the AMA last year when accepting the presidency of the Texas

Medical Association.

"The American medical profession stands out as a large and effective group in seeking to maintain the principles of individual enterprise that have made our country great," he added.

BROAD INTERESTS

His home library, jammed with more than 2,000 volumes concerning religion, science, conservatism and anti-communism, and 10,000 feet plus of home movies shot of his only daughter and three grandchildren afford clues to the broad scope of the doctor's interests.

In addition to being a professor, he is senior partner in a firm of five gastroenterologists stomach specialists whose offices cover two floors of the Medical Arts Building in downtown Dallas.

His zest for teaching was developed as a fellow in zoology while working toward a master of arts degree, taken at Baylor University a year after his graduation there in 1922. He completed work at Baylor's college of medicine in 1927.

EFFICIENCY

"I like to say I have leisurely efficiency without a great deal of fuss," Rouse told an interviewer.

To this his wife then added: "He always catches the back end of the train."

Colleagues know him as an individual wont to tackle any chore, large or small. He was president of the Southern Medical Association in 1959, vice speaker of the American Medical Association's house of delegates that same year and speaker of the AMA governing body in 1963.

He is a deacon and teaches a men's class in the Lakeside Baptist Church, and has said doctors missing Sunday morning services because they must make hospital calls don't have a very good excuse.

"I do both," Rouse said. "I feel I owe God a little time."

Texan Appointed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Air Force Col. John R. Kullman has been named by the Federal Aviation Agency to be deputy director of its Alaskan region. He is a native of San Antonio, Tex., and has been commander of the 4780th Air Defense Wing at Perrin Air Force Base, Tex.

Nixon Claims Clear Choice

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Former Vice President Richard Nixon says that as far as decisions at home are concerned, November's general election presents voters with "the clearest choice that America has ever had."

Nixon told more than 1,000 persons at a $50 Republican party fund raising dinner Thursday night that a vote for the Democratic ticket means a patch to total federalization.

"The choice is clear because President Johnson has made it clear where he stands by what he has done," Nixon said. "If a one-party (Democratic) Congress is elected in November, America will go all the way in the next four years to complete federalization of housing, education, everything... The states will be puppets."

Nixon carried Alabama in his unsuccessful 1960 presidential campaign.

Nixon predicted widespread Republican gains in November. He said the Democrats are divided and Johnson's popularity has waned.

Two Negroes U.S. Deputies

HOUSTON (AP) — Two Negroes, both former policemen, have been sworn-in as deputy U.S. marshals in Texas.

Eddie Crittenden, 41, and Lawrence Pope, 33, are believed to be the first Negroes to receive such assignments in the state. They were sworn in Thursday.

Crittenden was sworn-in at Dallas. Pope was administered the oath in Houston.

Pope has been with the Houston Police Department's Juvenile Investigation Division 8½ years. Crittenden has been a policeman at Terrell the past 10 years.

Crittenden is a former Navy petty officer and is the great-great grandson of a slave. Pope holds a bachelor degree in sociology from Prairie View A&M.

Pope was sworn in by V. Bailey Thomas, clerk of the Southern Federal District of Texas. Federal Judge Sarah T. Hughes and U.S. Marshal Robert Nash of the Northern Federal District attended Dallas ceremonies for Crittenden.

Postal Group Honors Shick

Nat Shick, retired Big Spring postmaster, was singled out for special recognition this week at the district convention of the National Postmasters of the United States Association in Odessa. Shick, who retired as postmaster here in 1942, was formally introduced on the first day of the convention and on the second day was called before the convention and presented with a citation for exceptional service.

At one time, Shick was regional president of the association. That was in the latter part of 1942 and in 1943.

"I hadn't been to a convention in years," he said. "I retired in 1953 after nearly 21 years service with the postal department. The convention being in Odessa, Mrs. Shick and I decided to drop by and see if we could run into any old friends. I had no idea they would make such a to-do over it."

Brown Inks New Record Budget

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Less than three hours before the end of California's fiscal year, Gov. Edmund Brown, D., signed the state's record spending program, a $4.6 billion budget.

Californians, who select either Brown or Republican Ronald Reagan for governor this year, were told they will not have to pay any new taxes to balance the huge expenses.

The spending program is the nation's largest state budget. It is also bigger than that of most nations of the world. Budget cutters slashed $51 million from the original request.

WIVES BEWARE!

If your husband has occasion to visit Fort Worth, don't let him stay at Green Oaks Inn!

Oh, it's nice, all right. It's done in sort of a storybook Old English.

It has 300 rooms, including 57 suites, and two swimming pools.

The food's all they say it is—the tastiest in Fort Worth.

And the club, patterned after an Old English ale house, is utterly charming.

Green Oaks Inn has a great location—away from downtown congestion, yet less than 10 minutes by freeway from the heart of the city.

The prices are reasonable, too.

Why then, you ask, should you steer him to another hotel?

If he stays at Green Oaks, he'll probably never want to come back home.
