Admiral Says Enough Men In Viet Nam

HONOLULU (AP) — The commander of U.S. forces in the Pacific says after a visit to Saigon that there are sufficient fighting men in South Viet Nam to rout the Communists.

But Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp said in an airport-interview Monday night that this does not necessarily mean there will be no further increase in the United States' manpower commitment in the Southeast Asia country.

"I can't say that necessarily. It depends on what the other side does," Sharp remarked. "You can't, in a war, ever say 'we've got enough now' because you don't know what the enemy is going to do."

The admiral, agreeing with Gen. William C. Westmoreland that the war against the Communists is "now being won," gave this assessment of the situation after meeting with the Army general who commands U.S. troops in Viet Nam.

"We have got enough troops in the country that we can take the offensive. Anytime we can find the Viet Cong or the North Vietnamese, we can put enough pressure on to beat them. In other words, we have the necessary forces to take the offensive and stay on the offensive, which is the important thing."

"We have enough air power in there now to do the job of supporting the ground troops. There is a fine team in there, and they're doing a hell of a good job."

Sharp, whose headquarters are in Honolulu, visited Saigon after attending a meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization in Canberra, Australia. He said he talked at length with Westmoreland in Saigon.

"Assessing the recent air strikes against fuel depots near Hai Phong and the North Vietnamese capital of Hanoi, Sharp said the raids are having the desired effect."

The admiral said his talks with Westmoreland touched on the Buddhist upheavals in the south, and he observed the demonstrations had now "calmed down."

Sharp said South Vietnamese Premier Nguyen Cao Ky had done "absolutely the right thing" to quell the Buddhist uprisings. He said Ky used "the minimum amount of force necessary to keep the country 'lived up' and under control."

"Ky did a marvelous job," Sharp said.

Broken Line Spills Water

A broken eight-inch water line, just south of Lancaster Reservoir sent more than 15,000 gallons of water into downtown area streets early this morning.

The break, located near the Veterans Administration Hospital, was reported at 7 o'clock and took about an hour to repair, said Ernest Lillard, director of public works.

Only three services went without water for the duration, and these were located near the VA hospital, he said.

Three repairmen, a pickup, and a backhoe were dispatched to the break. The main volume of water flowed down Lancaster Street to the retention dam at the intersection of Lancaster and Fifteenth streets, then on into town.

Japan To Keep Red China Ties

KYOTO, Japan (AP) — Japan told the United States today it will continue its contacts with Communist China to help Peking break out of self-imposed isolation.

Foreign Minister Eisusaburo Shina expressed the Japanese government's view as he and U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk opened the fifth annual meeting of Japanese and American cabinet officers.

The three-day conference convened with leftist demonstrators marching in the streets of ancient Kyoto to protest U.S. policy in Viet Nam. A heavy police guard kept the 2,000 marchers a third of a mile from the conference hall.

Shina told Rusk and four other U.S. cabinet members attending the closed meeting.

Opening the conference earlier today, Shina and Rusk both referred to differences between their governments on some questions but minimized the effect.

"This diversity," said Rusk, "adds to the strength and durability of our partnership—provided that we never forget that we have some vital common interests in freedom, security and peace."

"The basic policies and objectives in the international community of the two countries are the same," said Shina, adding that mutual respect for the positions of each would "develop a partnership for international cooperation."

Much of the conference is devoted to economic questions, and the U.S. delegation included Secretary of Interior Stewart L. Udall, Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor and Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz.

The Japanese leftists outside the Osaka Airport for Rusk's arrival from Formosa Monday, but 4,500 police kept them well away from the airport and the secretary's motorcade escaped by a back gate.

"There are always liabilities you have to meet," he told the crowd of about 100. "Today people are fighting and dying in Southeast Asia. The mettle of a people, the mettle of a nation are on trial before the world. I don't think we need to worry about the result. I think we'll come out fine."

Police Check Three Thefts

Three thefts were reported in Big Spring Monday.

Police are investigating the theft of three power tools and a tank of gasoline allegedly taken from the home and vehicle of A. E. Clanton, 810 E. 18th St. Clanton told officers that he returned home Monday morning and found the gasoline cap had been removed from his ranch wagon. Upon further investigation, he found missing two power saws and a power sander, total value of $324.

Vera Stovall, 2301 S. Scurry, reported the theft of a medicine cabinet from a rented apartment. She told officers that one of her renters had moved and taken the cabinet. Police are looking for David A. Daggett, whom they think has moved to Haskell.

Mrs. Mattie Mann, 809 Runnels, reported a missing yard sprinkler which she said was probably stolen sometime Sunday.

Police investigated a disturbance at Katie's Bar on US 80 west Monday evening, allegedly involving Mrs. Katie Schwab, 4200 Wason Drive, and Mrs. Erna Gunnings, 535 Hillside Drive.

Officers said that Mrs. Gunnings' arm passed through the window glass of an automobile and she was taken by ambulance to Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital.

Bolivian Leader Wins In Copter

LA PAZ, Bolivia (AP) — A Randolph Field, Tex., and was graduated in 1953. He joined U.S. Air Force product who waged Bolivia's first political campaign by helicopter is scheduled to become his country's president Aug. 6.

Air Force Gen. Rene Barrientos, 47, won an overwhelming victory in Sunday's presidential election. The latest revised tabulation gave his Bolivian Revolutionary Front — the FRB — 191,000 votes to 115,000 of the combined opposition.

Barrientos' vice-presidential running mate, Luis Adolfo Siles, and most FRB candidates for the 129-member Congress also were elected, but the right-center Christian Democratic Community got enough votes to win the seats which the constitution guarantees to the minority.

Born in the small town of Tarata in central Bolivia, Barrientos was an Air Force student at

A month later Barrientos was wounded in an attempt on his life and was hospitalized in the Panama Canal Zone. After his recovery, he was elected with Paz Estenssoro in May. Then in November he and the commander of the armed forces, Gen. Alfredo Ovando, overthrew Paz Estenssoro and set up a junta with themselves as copresidents.

Barrientos is an extrovert prone to long speeches to the people, often in Quechua, the language of the peasants in the valleys. Eight attempts on his life have been recorded, but his political enemies claim some of them were rigged.

Political circles predicted the military would give Barrientos six months to two years to make good on his promises of economic and social development.

Georgia Republican To Run On States Rights

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — Urging a new Declaration of Independence for states rights built on self-reliance, Rep. Howard H. (Bo) Callaway has launched his campaign to become Georgia's first Republican governor in nearly 100 years.

"The battle for states rights will not be won until we in Georgia issue a new Declaration of Independence, constructed of acts and deeds and state self-reliance," Callaway told a cheering throng estimated by police at nearly 3,000 at his Fourth of July campaign kickoff rally.

Only one Republican has served as Georgia's governor in the last century and that was shortly after the Civil War during Reconstruction.

Mail Carrier Dies Monday

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Travis Pritchett, 62, Colorado City star route mail carrier, died at 8:10 p.m. Monday in Root Memorial Hospital after a lengthy illness.

Two youths from Big Spring shared in honors of holiday events. At the Pecos rodeo Monday, Dorothy Bourland won fourth place in the girls' barrel racing event. Margie Newman won the junior trophy in the art exhibit at the Towle Park July 4th celebration in Snyder.

Five Killed On Train, 65 Hurt

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — An empty passenger train plowed into a loaded commuter train today 26 miles from Rio de Janeiro, killing five persons and injuring 65, authorities reported.

The accident occurred at Campo Grande Hospital officials there said several of the injured were in serious condition.

Lawmen Push For Gunman

BRECKENRIDGE, Tex. (AP) — West Central Texas lawmen pressed a search today for a gunman who shot down a Breckenridge filling station operator Monday and dumped his body in a highway ditch.

Clarence Swaim, 55, longtime Breckenridge resident was killed early Monday when an assailant held up his eastside station, took $271 from the cash register and then abducted him. A police department spokesman said officers believe the gunman shot Swaim with the victim's own gun, a nickel-plated, pearl-handle .380 Colt automatic pistol. The weapon was missing from the station. Swaim was slain by four .380 caliber bullets.

A passing motorist found the body southeast of Breckenridge some 50 feet off Texas 207. "All our leads have faded out," a police spokesman said.

Strike Averted On MoPac Lines

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A strike by Railway Clerks against the Missouri-Pacific Railroad was forestalled when U.S. Dist. Judge Roy Harper issued a restraining order against the union.

The ruling was issued Sunday pending a hearing Thursday on a petition filed by the railroad.

The petition claims the union threatened to strike because of the planned discontinuance of pickup and delivery service at Little Rock and North Little Rock, Ark.

The railroad plans to hire a private hauling firm to perform the service for lots of less than carload size.

Strike Ties $300 Million In Projects

HOUSTON (AP) — Union construction laborers struck today in a 20-county Houston area. They began putting up pickets that could idle 15,000 workers and about $300 million in projects.

"We're striking and we're putting up pickets," said J. E. McDaniel, president of the Houston-based Laborers Local 18.

About 12,000 members of Laborers Local 116 in Freeport went on strike and posted pickets at construction jobs at Dow Chemical Co. in Freeport, Monsanto Co. near Alvin, Phillips Petroleum at Old Ocean and Dow Community Hospital under construction in Freeport.

E. D. Kincaid, a federal mediator, said he was still expecting to hold meetings between the laborers and contractors today.

Negotiating since June 6 have been three locals of the Laborers International Union of North America, the Construction Employees Association of Texas and the Houston Chapter of the Associated General Contractors (AGC). The laborers' contract ended Thursday.

Richard Lewis, a spokesman in the dispute include proposals for a job referral system and jurisdictional rights.

Lewis also said management had offered the laborers a 16 cent across-the-board raise for three years. A laborer's average wage is $2.64 an hour.

Hoffa Seeks Pact To Avoid Dissent

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Teamsters' Union President James R. Hoffa is trying to talk Vice President Harold Gibbons out of voicing any dissent to Hoffa's iron control, it was learned today.

Hoffa — facing no opposition for a new five-year term, a $25,000 pay raise and the right to appoint his own successor — reportedly told Gibbons it would be silly to rock the boat at the Teamsters convention.

"That isn't necessary," was one version of what Hoffa said when Gibbons told him he planned to tell some 2,200 delegates why he opposed naming Vice President Frank Fitzsimmons as Hoffa's heir-apparent.

FITZSIMMONS — According to some accounts of the conversation, Hoffa's attempt to dissuade him appeared to harden Gibbons' resolve to speak his piece before the convention ends Friday.

Gibbons earlier dropped plans to run against Fitzsimmons for the new post of general vice president with automatic succession to the presidency if Hoffa goes to jail. Hoffa's eight-year jury-lampering and five-year mail-fraud sentences are being appealed.

Fitzsimmons said he would follow Hoffa's policies in running the giant 1.7-million-member union if Hoffa is taken out of circulation for a while.

Fitzsimmons, a long-time friend of Hoffa, said a jail term would never bar Hoffa from later returning to head the Teamsters.

NO RETURN Fitzsimmons also made it clear that the Teamsters, expelled from the AFL-CIO on corruption charges in 1957, would have about as little likelihood of returning to the 13-million-member confederation.

"We've had a hell of a lot more success out of the AFL-CIO than in it," Fitzsimmons said.

Asked why he thought Gibbons opposed his selection to succeed Hoffa, Fitzsimmons said: "We've never discussed it. I see no reason why he should oppose me."

Gibbons reportedly feels that Hoffa's hand-picking of his own successor without any opposition smacks of a lack of democracy in the union.

"I think it's an honor," Fitzsimmons said.

Hoffa — after lambasting what he called anti-union forces in Congress, the government, big business, and news media — predicted the unanimous reelection of himself, Secretary-Treasurer John F. English, and 13 vice presidents, who together make up the union's ruling executive board.

Hoffa also forecast that the delegates would unanimously approve all proposals, including a $1 dues increase to pay for higher salaries for himself and other top officials and to build "a large war chest."

YOUTHS CAUGHT Three boys were caught inside Big Spring High School Monday afternoon by Ray Dunlap, building construction foreman. The boys, ages 12, 10 and 8, were turned over to juvenile authorities, and then released to their parents.

Goldwater Defends LBJ On Viet Nam

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Barry Goldwater has told a group of pupils opposing U.S. Viet Nam policy that the enemy must be made to realize "we mean business" before American troops are pulled out.

"If a government is organized in Viet Nam that is not Communist controlled," Goldwater said, "I think it would be the proper thing to withdraw if we were asked to."

Students for a Democratic Society. The pupils had been demonstrating outside the Goldwater home.

"It's kind of hot out here," Goldwater said. "I know that you have a message to deliver and I'll be happy to reply."

Goldwater shook hands with the leaders of the group and then heard Jim Snyder, 20, of Arizona State University, read an utterance which said:

"By involving Mr. Goldwater in our demonstration against the war in Viet Nam, we hope to convey to the vast majority of the American people the extent to which they have been betrayed by President Johnson."

"If the 60 million Americans who voted against Goldwater's policy could be made aware that they got it anyway, President Johnson would be put in the position of having to live up to his commitments to them or admit that Democratic government is as much a myth here as it is in Saigon."

dent. We see eye-to-eye on this. "No American likes war, but let me remind you of one thing, if we lose this war, these people are going to be subjected to the worst kind of tyranny the world has ever known—communism."

Goldwater was advised by the pupil group Saturday that they were coming.

Talks Slated On Gibraltar

LONDON (AP)—Britain and Spain have agreed to resume talks on the disputed future of Gibraltar in London July 12, the Foreign Office said today.

The British and Spanish governments began their studies on the future of the British-run colony of Gibraltar in May but without making any detectable progress.

Spain put forward a compromise plan envisaging a takeover of the fortress rock. But at the same time the Spanish offered a series of concessions to the British and Gibraltarians, including the continuation of British military base rights in Gibraltar and a number of tax concessions for the inhabitants.

The British, however, made clear the Spanish offer was unacceptable and among other things cited the unwillingness of Gibraltarians to be incorporated with Spain.

Pope's Rule On Birth Curb Due

ROME (AP)—The secretary of Pope Paul VI's birth control commission predicted Monday night that the pontiff's decision on whether to alter the Roman Catholic approach to artificial contraception could be "sensational."

But the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Henri de Riedmatten said the papal decision would also be prudent.

The commission's report, prepared after two years of study and debate, was turned over to the Pope last week for his study and final judgment. His decision is expected by the end of the summer.

Commission sources have indicated that a majority of its members favored liberalizing the Church rules against artificial methods of contraception, particularly relaxing the ban on use of birth control pills.

100 High School Graduates Sail

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—One hundred top high school graduates are sailing with the Texas Maritime Academy on a 10-week summer school cruise.

The 12,000-mile voyage on Texas A&M's sea-going branch ship "Texas Clipper" includes shipboard instruction for college credit in mathematics, English, history and government. Ports of call will include Dublin, Ireland; Bordeaux, France; Malaga, Spain; the Canary Islands; and the Bahamas.

The 15,000-ton Clipper returns to Galveston Aug. 16.

Deems Taylor's Rites Wednesday

NEW YORK (AP)—A funeral service for Deems Taylor, composer, critic, radio broadcaster, editor and writer, will be held Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the Frank E. Campbell Funeral Home.

Taylor, 80, died Sunday at the Medical Arts Center Hospital, where he was taken May 29 after a mild stroke. He had had heart trouble for a considerable time.

Turncoat Returns

Clarence C. Adams, Korean War turncoat, arrived in San Francisco aboard the liner President Cleveland with his Chinese wife, Liu Lin-Feng, and their two children, Louis, 3, and Della, 7. Adams said he came back to the United States because "democracy, with all its faults, is still better than what there is" in China. He plans to return to Memphis where his mother, Mrs. Gladys Peoples, lives. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Turncoat 'Fed Up' With Communism Returns Home

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Clarence Adams, a Korean War turncoat, returned to the U.S. mainland on Independence Day, remarking that "with all its faults, democracy is better than what they have" in Communist China.

Adams, his Chinese wife and their two children reached San Francisco on America's most patriotic day on the liner President Cleveland, their $1,800 fare paid by his mother, Gladys Peoples of Memphis, Tenn.

"I never considered myself a Communist," he said after spending 13 years in mainland China. Adams, 37, declared he went there because prisoner of war camp officials convinced him "their way might have something to offer."

When asked the faults of China, he replied only: "Communism."

He plans to remain in San Francisco for a few days, then to continue on to Memphis for a visit with his mother.

Bullet Caught Between Teeth

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—A Lima man caught a bullet fired from a small caliber pistol between his teeth.

Police said David Wilhight, 32, answered a knock on his door Sunday night and found a man there who told him: "I'm going to kill you."

Wilhight slammed the door just as the man fired and the bullet went through the wood into his mouth, police said.

Wilhight spat the bullet out, officers said, and was treated for minor injury at a hospital.

The man said he knew the identity of his assailant and would file charges. Wilhight didn't disclose the nature of his trouble with the assailant.

More Jobs Open

AUSTIN (AP)—Non-farm job openings reported to the Texas Employment Commission during May totaled 65,414, more than 3,000 above April this year and May of 1965.

Farm openings totaled 30,477, about 6,500 better than April but 6,500 under May of last year.

Three Drown In Ennis Lake

ENNIS, Tex. (AP)—A small metal boat carrying nine children and several adults was capsized in Lake Bardwell Monday. Three youngsters were drowned.

The accident happened about 5:30 p.m. some 75 feet offshore in the year-old reservoir 7 miles southeast of Ennis.

The victims were identified as Marvin Lynn Garrett, 4; Arnett Garrett, 6; and Annette Garrett, 9. They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Garrett of Ennis, a town located some 20 miles south of Dallas.

The bodies were recovered two hours after the accident.

Collegians Vacation

COAHOMA (SC)—Jean Newman spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Newman. Jean is a student at North Texas State University.

Phil Wynn was home for the weekend from Sam Houston State College.

Mrs. C. Roy Wright and son, Joe Don, have been discharged from the Medical Arts Clinic and Hospital.

A. C. Lucas is a patient in the Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital.

Miracle Seen As Bricks Fall From Building

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP)—The bricks came tumbling down, and "it was a miracle that no one was killed," said Fire Marshal Albert Schroeder.

More than 200 persons were evacuated Monday from a wing of a recently opened apartment building when tons of brick veneer on three outside walls suddenly broke loose and crashed to the ground.

The east wing of the building complex was condemned by the city building director, Donald Hunter.

The only casualty was Mrs. Pearl Herman, 65, who suffered an apparent heart attack and back injuries. She was opening a window in her second floor apartment when it was jerked from her hand by falling bricks. She was admitted to a hospital.

Fifteen autos were damaged or destroyed.

SCRIPT WRITER SAYS

Ideas For 'Get Smart' Come From Newspapers

By RUCK HENRY (For Cynthia Lowry) EDITOR'S NOTE — Ruck Henry is one of the pair of comedy-writers who dreamed up NBC's hit "Get Smart." But some television viewers will remember him as the bespectacled young man who played in some of the funniest satirical sketches of "That Was the Week That Was."

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—In the past year several people have expressed their enthusiasm for "Get Smart" by directing the following question to its writers: "Where do you get those wild ideas?"

FROM NEWS There is, of course, one simple answer: "We steal them." Sometimes from each other but more often, from that endless compendium of unbelievable nonsense: the newspaper.

The faithful reader knows that Maxwell Smart, Secret Agent 86, can have no adventure more absurd, no experience more insane, or no idea more inane than that which is chronicled in the daily Times-Journal-Sun-Globe-News. It's not the newspapers' fault—it's just the way folks ARE.

In the pilot film of "Get Smart," we had a maniacal crew of KAOS bad guys attempt to blow up the Statue of Liberty. Several of the script's first critical readers thought that the plot was a little—well—far out.

But a few months after we wrote it a quartet of young Canadian dissidents—none of whom, to my knowledge, had read the script—were caught plotting to give the old lady a dynamite hot-foot. I don't know whether they were inspired by political tension or esthetic distaste, but I am grateful to them for proving that nothing we write is going to be any wackier than something that is actually being done.

Plot: Our man Smart infiltrated a KAOS cell and, after demolishing its dozen members, discovered that they were all, like himself, infiltrators from various government agencies. Item: A Communist cell, broken up some years ago, was found to contain a majority of FBI agents.

Plot: Smart investigated a band of American Indians who were reputed to have set up a deadly missile aimed at the heart of Washington. The missile turned out to be giant arrow. Item: GIs in Viet Nam recently overran a Viet Cong position and confiscated several giant arrows that were being used to knock down helicopters.

Looking for a plot? Try some of the events that are happening within earshot—or is it eyeshot—of this column:

... WOULD YOU?

Would you believe that there is a bomb being developed by one of our more surrealist corporations that, when dropped on the enemy, doesn't destroy anything—it merely makes a mind-joggling boom?

Are you willing to go as low as $1681.00 for a new VW?

We don't sell status. Just a car. One that gets about 29 mpg, averages 40,000 miles on a set of tires, and hardly uses oil between changes. Of course, the fact that it's practical is no secret. And everybody is going to know that you're saving money. But that's the price you pay for Volkswagen.

Four In Navy Plane Killed

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP) — A big Navy transport plane, off course and out of control, dived nearly straight into the earth here Monday, killing all four men aboard.

The plane, a military version of the Lockheed Electra, was on a routine training flight from Floyd Bennett Field, N.Y., to Moffett Field, Calif., with a stop planned in Chicago.

The ship was headed in a southeasterly direction when it swooped low over farmland five miles northeast of this. Lower Michigan city and smashed to bits.

State police said the wreckage was strewn over a four-mile area and included "nothing larger than a football."

Authorities at Moffett Field identified the dead as Lt. William E. Xiques, Staten Island, N.Y.; Lt. John Patrick Fitzmaurice, III, Waterbury, Conn.; Aviation Machinist Mate Z.C. Charles J. Lurvey, Meriden, Conn.; and Aviation Machinist Mate J.C. Larry W. Bettson, Santa Clara, Calif.

George Hack, a licensed commercial pilot and former Navy flight engineer who owns an airport near the crash scene, said, "I heard him go over at about 2,000 feet. I heard a high-pitched scream of propellers." Hack said it sounded as if the ship

How To Hold False Teeth More Firmly In Place

Do your false teeth annoy and embarrass by slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, laugh or talk? Just sprinkle a little PASTETECH on your plates. This alkaline (non-acid) powder holds false teeth more firmly and more comfortably. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor breath." Dentures that fit are essential to health. See your dentist regularly. Get PASTETECH at all drug counters.

Four Navy officers from the Grosse Ile, Mich., Naval Air Station flew here to investigate.

Cliff Rescue

San Francisco firemen carry Peet Marte, 18, up steep cliff at Lundy End off limits park area overlooking the Golden Gate, after she fell Monday and broke her ankle. A Coast Guard helicopter tried to come close enough to lift the basket but the steepness of the cliff thwarted the effort. Miss Marte is shown, right, in a hospital bed following her rescue. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Farm Strikers Propose March Until Labor Day

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex. (AP) — Striking farm workers launched an Independence Day march that union leaders say will continue on a small scale through several Texas cities and end at a giant Labor Day rally at the state Capitol in Austin.

The union seeks a $1.25 an hour minimum wage for Starr County field hands who now earn 85 cents to $1. Growers claim the strike is illegal and have halted much of the picketing through a court injunction.

IMPLICATIONS The movement now appears to have implications beyond Starr County.

The march originally was to have ended Thursday in San Juan, Tex., about 48 miles east of here. Before it began Monday it was extended one day so that the new Roman Catholic Bishop for the Brownsville, Tex., Diocese can join the march in San Juan on Friday and say mass for the group, union officials said.

Then a group of clergymen and Latin-American organization leaders—including a Houston corporation court judge—announced they would continue the hike to Corpus Christi, San Antonio and Austin.

Six men are expected to make the 59-day trek, including Judge Alfred J. Hernandez of Houston, national chairman of the League of United Latin-American Citizens. He marched Monday.

Mexican-Americans will be urged to converge on Austin for a rally on the Capitol grounds Sept. 5, union officials said. J. H. Villarreal of Brownsville, Tex., a representative of the AFL-CIO, predicted his labor organization would get out 50,000 persons for the rally.

LBJ Stays On Ranch, 'Keeping 'Em Guessing'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson continues a holiday stay at his ranch today, playing one of the games he seems to enjoy best: keeping 'em guessing.

Johnson, more secretive about travel plans than any president in memory, was saying not a word about his eventual return to the White House. Guesses, admittedly uneducated, ranged from tonight to next Monday.

The President flew to his ranch home, some 60 miles north of here, last Thursday after making speeches concerning Viet Nam in Omaha and Des Moines. He ordered an exhaustive study of the military draft Saturday and, on the Fourth of July, signed a freedom of information bill designed to build into federal law the concept of "the people's right to know."

Cool Air Moving In

By The Associated Press Cool weather brought welcome relief to residents of New England and the Great Lakes region today.

Temperatures in those sections dipped into the 60s this morning. There were a few readings in the 50s in the hills of New England and the Upper Great Lakes.

Sunny skies were expected to push temperatures well up into the 90s again today in the Mississippi Valley, the Great Plains and the Gulf region. Forecasters said many parts of the Plains would get 100-degree plus readings. But the 100-degree heat tapered off for the time being on the East Coast.

A cool air dome in the northern Rockies pushed temperatures into the 40s in the Rockies and in parts of the Pacific Northwest this morning.

A tornado touched down near Little Falls, Minn., this morning, but no damage was reported. A drive-in theater was reported destroyed near Kimball Prairie, Minn., and one-inch diameter hail pelted Rapid City, S.D., in a thunderstorm.

Brownsville, Tex., recorded one inch of rain this morning. Tornadoes, severe thunderstorms, hail and high winds struck Minnesota Monday night.

Mrs. Whiteside Quits County

Mrs. Horace (Olyne) Whiteside, secretary to the Howard County engineer for the past five years, announced today she is resigning effective July 15.

Mrs. Whiteside said that her husband, a florist, has accepted a job in Denver, Colo., with the Denver Wholesale Floral Company. They will move to Denver soon after July 15. Whiteside has been working with Bill Draper in the floral business here for the past five years.

In addition to working as a florist, Whiteside is the pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church in the Luther community. He has hopes, his wife said, of serving as a pastor of some church in the Denver area.

With specified exceptions, such as national security matters, information in federal files will have to be made public to newsmen and private citizens starting July 4, 1967.

If not, an individual can bring action in the federal courts where the burden of proof would be on the government to establish that withheld information meets the exemptions.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch, no one — with the possible exception of wife Lady Bird and trusted aide — had any information about the President's future plans, even a day ahead.

NEW YORK (AP) — Efforts to end the 73-day-old publication holdup of the World Journal Tribune Inc., were resumed today after a four-day holiday recess.

Negotiations are scheduled between the corporation and the Pressmen's and Mailer's unions. The two unions are the only ones among the 10 in the industry that have not reached at least tentative agreement with the corporation.

Mediator David Cole said Monday: "I think agreement can be reached in the next few days. Both the unions and the publisher have indicated a desire to end the shutdown."

The corporation has been prevented since April 25 from publishing three new papers—the Herald Tribune on weekday mornings, the World Journal on weekday afternoons and the Journal Tribune on Sundays.

The corporation grew out of the merger of the Herald Tribune, the Journal-American and the World-Telegram and Sun.

Members of the Newspaper Guild meet late today to vote on ratification of an agreement reached last week in negotiations.

The Guild is the only union that struck the new corporation. Its members had been working without contracts on the three old papers. Members of the nine craft unions were covered by contract.

74 MARCH

There were 74 persons moving in single-file behind the United States flag, the union banner and a huge picture of Our Lady of Guadalupe when the Fourth of July march began a short distance east of here alongside US 83.

Protestant and Catholic clergymen accompanied the marchers, who will be trucked back and forth to the starting point each day.

Forty persons joined in to represent the Houston chapter of the Political Association of Spanish-Speaking Organizations (PASO). The group arrived by bus for a one-day stay.

Not long after the march began a Roman Catholic priest representing Bishop Humberto S. Medeiros of Brownsville arrived with a message from the bishop.

MESSAGE

The Rev. Robert Pena read the statement, which said in part:

"All men feel deep concern for the needs of one another. The bishop is also concerned, in a way proper to his office, to help improve the conditions in which God's people work out their salvation."

Eugene Nelson, who organized the farm workers' union, told newsmen that Bishop Medeiros had notified the strikers that he intended to donate $1,500 to their cause.

The bishop's moves appeared to clarify an important question that had lingered in the minds of many union leaders: Just what position the bishop would take concerning the strike and the supporting role priests have had in it. The bishop was installed June 29.

The Rev. Antonio Gonzalez of the Houston, Tex., Roman Catholic Diocese, one of the men who plans to march until Labor Day, said the purpose of the hike through South Texas would be "to stress the need for higher wages for most of the 2 1/2 million Mexican-Americans who live in the area."

OTHERS

Others expected to join Rev. Gonzalez and Judge Hernandez in the long hike are Rev. James L. Navarro, pastor of the Cashmere Baptist Church, Houston; Roy Elizondo of Houston, state chairman of PASO; David Ortiz of Houston, East Texas regional chairman, PASO; and an unnamed representative of the GI Forum, a Mexican-American organization.

They all marched Monday. Other clergymen who marched Monday included Rev. Don Post, Methodist, San Antonio; Wendle Scott, minister of the McAllen, Tex., Church of Christ; Adolfo Cepeda, assistant minister of the Matamoros, Mexico, Church of Christ, and seven students from the Spanish Preacher Training Program, a Church of Christ organization.

Rev. Gonzalez, the bishop's representative for Spanish-speaking affairs in the Houston Diocese, wore a Star of David on his black priest's coat during the first day of the march. He said it was to show that the Houston Jewish Community Council was supporting the march and added he would wear it until Labor Day.

Rev. Navarro, carrying a Christian flag and a United States flag, and Rev. Gonzalez, wearing a straw cowboy hat and carrying a crucifix, marched side by side at the end of the file.

"We're staying together because it's ecumenistic," said Rev. Navarro.

A state intelligence officer, Ken Pearce of Corpus Christi, observed the march. He said Homer Garrison, director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, sent him to "see that state laws are complied with—in order to protect the marchers as well as motorists."

Two highway patrolmen, Sgt. S. M. Moxley and Nap Herrera, both of McAllen, also patrolled the area.

Minnesota Is Storm-Lashed

By The Associated Press

Tornadoes, severe thunderstorms, hail and high winds hit Minnesota Monday night as the torrid East, baked by several days of 100-degree heat, cooled to seasonable temperature.

Numerous funnel clouds and tornadoes were sighted in the area between Fargo, N.D., and St. Cloud, Minn. Winds up to 70 miles an hour ripped through St. Cloud uprooting many trees in the area. The highway patrol reported that US 10 east of the town was blocked by fallen timber.

HUGE HAIL

Hail as large as softballs pounded the town of Detroit Lakes, Minn. Large chunks of ice broke countless windows and dented many cars. Drenching rains, estimated at 3.5 inches, accompanied the hail.

A tornado warning for central and southeast Minnesota and northwest Wisconsin remained in effect early this morning.

Meanwhile, the East was receiving from a blazing sun that had brought temperatures to a record of 103 at Philadelphia Monday. It was the first time in 95 years of record keeping that the mercury was 100 or better for three straight days in that city.

At Harrisburg in central Pennsylvania the mercury hit 104 Monday after a scorching 107 on Sunday.

MODERATES

Temperatures in upstate New York, well over the 100 mark in many areas Sunday, moderated to the 80s and 90s Monday and to the upper 60s and low 70s Monday night.

Some 340,000 residents in 11 Buffalo, N.Y., suburbs faced a severe water shortage and strict bans on unnecessary use of water.

Mrs. H. B. Adams Dies In Odessa; Rites Set Here

Mrs. H. B. (Alberta J.) Adams, 79, died at 1:15 p.m. Monday in an Odessa rest home. Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. in the Nalley - Pickle Rosewood Chapel, with the Rev. Bob Creswell, Hermleigh, and the Rev. Joe Reaves, Odessa, officiating. Burial will be in the City Cemetery.

She was born July 27, 1886, in Sabine Parish, La., and came to Ackerly in 1924 from San Augustine. She and her husband engaged in farming until 1943, when he retired. He preceded her in death Feb. 18, 1957. Mrs. Adams was a member of the Westwood Baptist Church, Odessa.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. J. B. (Velma) Hodges, Midland, Mrs. Elmer (Roberta) Mahan, Andrews, Mrs. Troy (Eva) Jones, Odessa, and Miss Arah Adams, Daly City, Calif.; one son, Odis Adams, Odessa; three brothers, Earnest Phillips, Many, La., Emory Phillips, Houston, and Bud Latham, East St. Louis, Ill.; also 13 grandchildren and 22 great-grandchildren.

Young JFK Burns Mend

HONOLULU (AP) — Young John F. Kennedy Jr., is beginning to enjoy his Hawaii vacation again now that his burns are on the mend.

Dr. Eldon Sykes, a Honolulu plastic surgeon called in to examine the 5-year-old boy's injuries after he stumbled into a camp fire on a Hawaii beach last Thursday, said Tuesday the burned areas would heal completely without leaving scars.

Sykes, performed what he called "minor surgery" on the son of the late president. This consisted primarily of breaking blisters, described by Sykes as "routine procedure of a minor nature."

The operation was performed at the home of millionaire industrialist Henry Kaiser, where Mrs. Kennedy, son John and daughter Caroline, 9, moved on their return from a week-long trip to Hawaii Island.

It was during their final day on that island, 200 miles southeast of Honolulu, that the accident occurred. The family had had a cookout at a private beach, and John was tugging on a sleeping bag when he fell backwards. He landed in the hot coals and was burned on the buttocks and right hand.

Mrs. Kennedy said the incident won't interfere with her vacation and she plans to extend her Hawaii visit indefinitely.

Marina Has Third Child

RICHARDSON, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Marina Oswald Porter, widow of the man accused by the Warren Commission of assassinating President John F. Kennedy, has given birth to a boy, according to the Dallas Morning News.

Officials at Richardson General Hospital and Mrs. Porter's mother-in-law would neither confirm nor deny the report.

The newspaper said the 6-pound, 12-ounce boy was born Sunday and was named Mark Wayne Porter.

Mrs. Porter, 24, married Kenneth J. Porter, 28, a Dallas area electronics firm employee, on June 1, 1965, about 18 months after her first husband, Lee Harvey Oswald, was shot and killed by Dallas night club operator Jack Ruby. She and Oswald had two children, June, 5, and Rachel, 3.

New Building

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Continental Electronics, Dallas-based subsidiary of LTV Electronics, Inc., plans to construct a new building on its Buckner Boulevard site at a cost, including equipment, of approximately $1.4 million.

J. O. Weldon, president of Continental Electronics, said the new building is scheduled for occupancy Dec. 31. It will contain more than 79,000 square feet of floor space and will double the production capacity of companies.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Use Coffee Grounds To Scour Pans

Dear Heloise:

If you have stuck or burned food in a pan, just dump the coffee grounds from your still warm percolator into the pan. Let it stand for a while, then stir the grounds around in the pan.

Besides loosening the stuck or burned on food, the coffee grounds also absorb the grease in the pan. . . Mrs. V. M. P.

The grounds don't even have to be warm to be effective. I have used wadded-up pieces of newspaper to rub the grounds around in the pan. The grounds are abrasive and do a good cleaning job. . . and the newspaper can be used to pick up the mess to put it in the garbage can. . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

If you have a birdbath, you know how soiled and slimy the bottom can get.

If you are tired of scrubbing it week after week, maybe this little tip will help you:

After scrubbing the birdbath (for the last time) line it with plastic wrap off that roll in your kitchen!

When you are ready to change the water next time, simply pour it out, replace the plastic and have a cleaner, more beautiful bird bath. . . Bird Lover

Dear Heloise:

When you first get a little puppy, he usually whines and cries for several nights. If you put a clock in with the puppy, the puppy will like the ticking sound, and there will be no more sleepless nights for him-or you.

It works like a charm. . . Mrs. F. O. Parker

Dear Heloise:

Here is a very good way to have privacy when sleeping or camping out in a station wagon:

On the inside of the windows, use the type of aerosol window cleaner spray that leaves a white film when dry.

When you get up and have dressed in the morning, just wipe off the windows, and you will have all clean, clear win-

We have a baby crib that is almost 20 years old.

This crib has been passed down to all of the babies in our family, and is not fit for another baby's use—yet it still has good, solid sides.

We came upon the idea of cutting the legs off and putting new boards in the bottom of the crib.

We painted the crib a pretty color and now use it in the basement to hold the toys our three kids have collected. . . Mrs. Burton L. Waite

Coahoma Holiday Guests Return To Their Homes

COAHOMA (SC) — Visiting Saturday in the Leroy Wright home were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pagan and sons of Ozona and their son Jamie Pagan, San Angelo. The Pagens are former residents.

Jack Martin and children, Ronald Jack and Marilyn, have returned from a visit in Deer Park with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, and in Alvin with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Johnson and family.

Mrs. Phenie Harris, Merritt Island, Fla., is visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Harris, and daughters, Sand Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stringfellow were in Midland Thursday to meet their grandson, Eddie Bob Craig, who flew from Tucson, Ariz., for a visit. He will also be visiting his other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. White, Big Spring.

Mrs. Letha Carter and daughter, Teresa, have returned from Weirter where they have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coyt Hicks.

Mrs. Lou Turlo and daughter, Nancy Jane, have returned to their home in Odessa after visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Timmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal Ward and daughters accompanied by Jerri Ann Mencer, spent the holiday weekend at Lake LBJ.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Seeing that wonderful group of foreign exchange students together Friday night made a number of us think that surely if we are ever going to get nations to live peacefully together this is a mighty good start. Of course we all realize that these youngsters are the cream of their crop or they wouldn't have been selected as exchange students. . . but the cream of the crops we hope will always be elading our nation as well as the other nations.

The chaperons were young women just out of college. One, a Miss Hackenburg, graduated from Occidental College only three weeks ago. Incidentally, she roomed across the hall from a great-niece of Mrs. B. F. MEACHAM and knows her well.

MR. and MRS. BOB-FREEBURG and their children, Marlan and Lydia, returned to their home in Las Cruces, N. M. She is the former Lina Jane Wolfe.

MRS. JOHN RITENOUR has had as her guests, MR. and MRS. LAWRENCE WALKER of Marlin.

MR. and MRS. CLYDE ANGEL spent the holiday in Houston with their son and his family, DR. and MRS. ROBERT ANGEL and Bobby.

The group that for years has spent the Labor Day weekend at Ruidoso took a change of pace this year and had their outing on July the Fourth weekend. Returning home last night from the trip to the mountains were MR. and MRS. J. O. HAGGOD, MR. and MRS. T. H. McCANN, MR. and MRS. BLEDSOE O'BRIEN, MR. and MRS. MERRILL CREIGHTON and MR. and MRS. BILLY SMITH.

MR. and MRS. LEE H. WILLIAMSON attended the 15th reunion of Mrs. Williamson's family at Robert Lee over the holiday weekend. The nine daughters of the late Judge and Mrs. W. H. Bell of Coke County have met together each year since 1951 at one of the daughter's home. This year MRS. FREEMAN CLARK was the hostess. Mrs. Williamson says the younger generation is about to take over.

MR. and MRS. GARY SIMS and Susie returned Monday from El Paso where they were guests of MR. and MRS. J. W. SCRUGGS. Mr. Sims and Mr. Scruggs taught together at Texas Western College until Mr. Sims came here to Howard County Junior College. Since the Simses moved away four years ago the glass factory has been added to the industries in El Paso and the group toured the plant. They also took in the dog races at the Juarez Dog Track which is also new.

The last time all the family of DR. and MRS. OTTO WOLFE were together was ten years ago. Today the children and their families left for their homes or to continue their vacations.

MR. and MRS. SPENCER WOLFE and their four sons, David, Steven, Kevin and Karl John, left for Colorado where they will visit her parents in Fort Collins and later will go to Denver to spend some time with

A LOVELIER YOU Take Out The Kinks Of Aching Muscles

By MARY SUE MILLER Are you stiff and sore? There are more aching muscles and joints around than in many a moon.

The Fourth weekend seems to be a signal to start exercising like mad. And, unaccustomed to workouts, lazy muscles are in no shape to stand a sudden spurt of activity. So they tire and lie down. . . on a bed of pain!

If you are among the sufferers and dream of quick relief, here is what you do?

Buckle two sturdy belts together to form a strap and, with strap in hand, lower yourself to floor. Easy. . . it's "ouch" work!

1. Sit erect on floor, legs straight out, and sling center of strap under arches of feet; on level with knees, bring ends of strap together and grasp with both hands. Pull strap taut and slowly lower back to floor, controlling descent by pulling on strap with hands and pushing against it with feet. Then, using same push-pull motion, come up to sitting position. Repeat three to five times. 2. On back with strap arranged as before, pull legs up perpendicular to floor and slowly lower them. Five to ten times.

Thereafter take a steam bath. To get up steam, close bathroom door and let hot water run until tub is half full. Then add several inches of icy water. Next adjust temperature with more hot water — keep bath on hot side. Now soak for ten minutes. After a sudsy scrub, dry well and rub down with mentholated alcohol.

It's a promise the kinks will be gone. Of course, if you made a habit of exercise, your muscles would always be in shape. Your figure, too!

MIDRIF SLIMMERS To solve the riddle of extra inches around your middle, send today for my leaflet, "Midriff Slimmers." Reception Held After Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Donald D. Van Meter were hosts for a reception Sunday afternoon in their home honoring Sen. and Mrs. Ralph Yarborough and Rep. Omar Burleson. The honored guests were here to participate in the dedication of the beautification project at the Veterans Administration Hospital. Miss Laurel Van Meter joined her parents in receiving guests.

Hours were from 4 to 6 p.m. and approximately 175 guests called.

The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of pink carnations and white chrysanthemums interspersed with greenery, and to one side was placed a silver branched candelabrum holding pink tapers. Silver appointments were used, and those assisting with the serving were Mrs. G. Edward Williams, Mrs. John Ritenour and Mrs. Richard Nohe.

Preceding the dedication, Mr. and Mrs. Van Meter were hosts at a luncheon for 30 at Holiday Inn where guests were friends of Sen. and Mrs. Yarborough and Rep. Burleson.

Lowke Guests

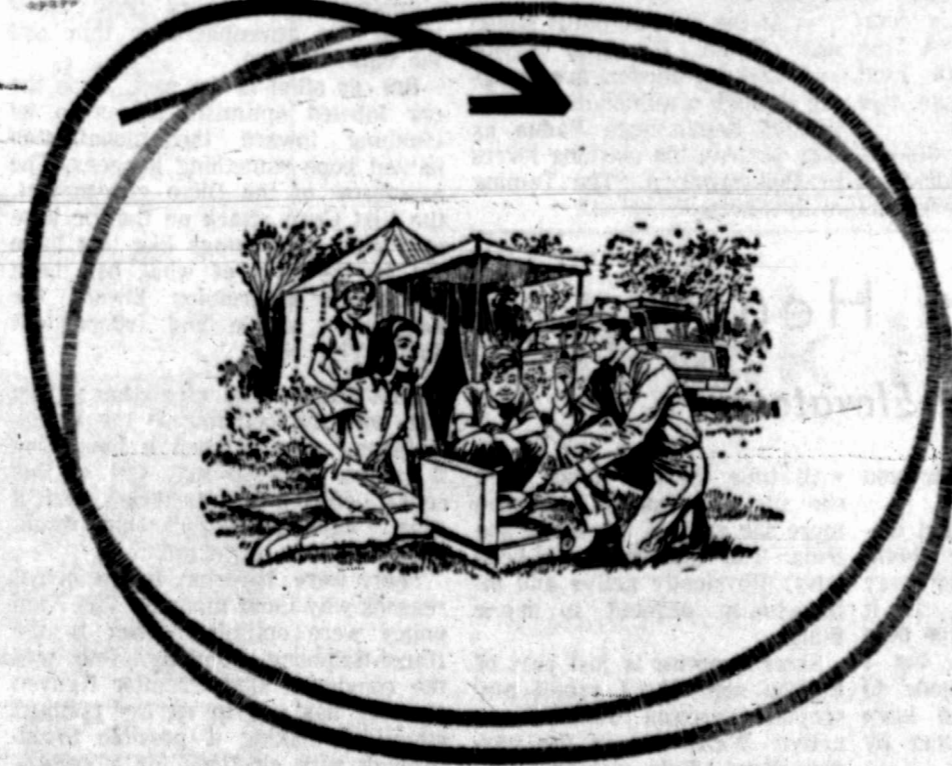

COAHOMA (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brown, Idalou, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Lowke. Other guests in the Lowke home have been their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lowke, and son, Timothy, Lubbock.

Red Chinese Purges

Most of the major capitals of the world have been titillated by reports of a major struggle for leadership within Red China. But no one seems to know what's happening or what to do, if anything.

By some the struggle is interpreted as a clash between the possible successors of Mao Tse-tung. From this, it is speculated that the series of purges that have been reported involve zealots supporting the status quo of Mao on one side and the moderates, particularly the intellectuals, on the other. The argument is represented as economic, foreign, military and nuclear policies.

In all probability the struggle is being watched with much greater interest in Moscow than in Washington. If reasonable men come to power in Peking there is a good possibility that their ideological differences with Moscow can be reconciled and much closer relationships established to heal the Sino-Soviet split which has shaken world communism to its roots.

But for many years there appears to be no hope of reconciling the differences between Red China and the United States. As long as we support the Chiang Kai-shek regime in Taiwan and the anti-Communist regime in Saigon, so long can we expect nothing but trouble from Red China.

Protecting Sources

The privileged nature of communications between a doctor and his patient, a lawyer and his client, and a minister and his communicant has long been recognized in law. But only 12 states have granted the same protection to newspaper reporters and their confidential sources.

The right of a reporter to protect his sources is being tested once more in the State of Oregon. There a University of Oregon student newspaper editor, Annette Buchanan, was cited for contempt for her refusal to identify seven students she interviewed for a story on marijuana use. She was tried without a jury by the judge who ordered her to divulge to a grand jury the names of the students she interviewed. She was convicted and fined $300. Her attorney has announced intent to appeal to the Oregon Supreme Court.

Obviously Miss Buchanan would never have written the story if she had thought that she would be called upon to identify her sources. It is just as obvious, too, that the seven students would not have talked with her freely had they not been assured that their names would be kept secret.

Against the right of a newspaper to protect its sources is the right of society to protect itself against violations of law. Neither is an absolute right, though. If the security of the country is involved, it is difficult to justify the withholding of information by a newspaper reporter, doctor, lawyer or minister. Identification of the source becomes a matter of overriding public interest. But beyond such rare cases as national security, the assertion of the prior right of society becomes difficult to sustain.

Many newspapermen in the course of their careers have been given information in strictest confidence. It may involve the morality of a governor or a city clerk. The person giving the information may lose his job or have his career destroyed if he is identified. Newspaper reporters have gone to jail to protect those sources. They are likely to continue to do so until they have achieved the same protection as doctors, lawyers, and ministers.

In most cases the confrontation between a reporter and a court can and should be avoided. In the Oregon case, even the identity of the seven students could hardly lead to successful prosecution. Nothing less than patient, relentless police investigation by undercover agents could be expected to produce evidence for a successful prosecution. Information that marijuana was being used on the University of Oregon campus should provide the spur for an immediate undercover investigation, not a fishing expedition by a grand jury.

We believe that reporters should have the right to protect their sources, except in the rare cases in which the security of the nation is at stake. The public will ultimately suffer if the protection is not granted, since newspapers and other media are the public's eyes and ears, keeping alert watch on its government and its officials.

Peace Corps Backlash

WASHINGTON — Thailand has just announced that she will send Peace Corps volunteers to the United States as a reciprocal gesture for American Peace Corps volunteers dispatched to Thailand.

The announcement said that several projects, including the teaching of the Thai language to Americans, would be worked out.

No one in his wildest dreams ever thought that there would be this kind of backlash to the Peace Corps. While the U.S. has been very eager to send Peace Corps volunteers abroad, we're not too certain it's such a great idea to have other countries send Peace Corps volunteers to the United States.

I CAN JUST see the first Thai Peace Corps volunteer, after spending two years in the United States, returning to Thailand and being interviewed by a newscaster on Bangkok television.

Billy Graham

Could you give me some Scripture of solid reason why we are to be buried facing the East?"

E. B. M.

This custom no doubt had its origin in Christian thought, although it is not expressly taught in the Bible.

The sun rises in the east, and the Bible says: "Unto those that fear his name, shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings." I suppose some think when we are buried facing the east, when raised in the resurrection, we will be facing our Lord who like the sun, will appear in the east, and we will not need to turn around to see Him. There is nothing wrong with this faith.

The Bible says, "For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall the coming of the Son of man be." Matt. 24:27.

A weather man told me an interesting thing. He said that when a storm is approaching, the lightning moves from west to east, but when the storm is over, the lightning comes out of the east and goes to the west. The coming of the Son of God will mark the end of the storm. The world will be in turmoil until He comes. When He comes back to the earth to reign, the conflict and confusion will be over.

Complete Equality In Draft Unlikely

WASHINGTON (AP) — "There is always inequity in life," President John F. Kennedy said in March, 1962.

"Some men are killed in a war and some men are wounded," he added, "and some men never leave the country, and some are stationed in the Antarctic and some are stationed in San Francisco."

"IT'S VERY hard in military or in personal life to assure complete equality. Life is unfair."

With this off-the-cuff statement on the Berlin crisis callup of reserves, the President was commenting at a news conference on the essentially unequal way America meets its military needs: calling some men to service and allowing others to enjoy the freedom of civilian life.

The statement may have satisfied the sophisticated and the pragmatic, but the moral question remained unanswered. It has swelled, with a widening war in Viet Nam and mounting casualties, to a national debate.

This past weekend, President Johnson named a 20-man civilian panel to take a broad look at the draft, focusing on its fairness and other factors.

In the meantime, the squawks are likely to continue.

WHILE A football knee keeps Joe Namath from service, the young man in the stands who couldn't throw a football 15 yards is sent packing to training camp. Cassius Clay flunks his mental test while a college graduate pulling targets on a rifle range wonders how bright you have to be even in the modern Army.

And, perhaps most irksome, the men in the jungles of Viet Nam — and their families — know Joe College is just about home free if he can maintain passably fair grades, get married and raise a family before his deferred number comes up at the local draft board.

"There's not a damn thing fair about the present system," Rep. Lucien N. Nedzi, a Michigan Democrat who is a member of the House Armed Services Committee, said in exasperation 10 days ago during the panel's study of the Selective Service System.

One would depend on a return to pro-Korea military needs, Pentagon manpower chief Thomas D. Morris told the committee last week, the other on pay boosts of $8 billion to $9 billion for enlisted men alone — an increase which Morris said would be impracticable.

Now the 20-man civilian committee will have a go at it. (Today's column by BARRY SCHWEID, substituting for Marlow)

More Movies Have European Tag

By BOB THOMAS
For Hal Boyle

LONDON (AP) — More and more, and even more to come, the "Hollywood" movie has a made-in-Europe tag on it. On film lots in England and Rome the cameras grind away, and in locations in Spain and France the big name actors go through their paces.

Behind it all is financing by American film companies, which find it easier and cheaper to make movies abroad.

HERE ARE some sights a Hollywood visitor sees while visiting movie sets in Europe: — In London's Shepperton Studio, the Farouk-like figure of Orson Welles sits behind a roulette table in "Casino Royale," the new James Bond film. At a signal from director Robert Parrish, Welles disappears in a puff of smoke.

— On a nearby stage, Viennaborn Fred Zinnemann, an expert in American subjects ("High Noon"), "From Here to Eternity" is directing a completely British cast in "A Man For All Seasons" with Paul Scofield playing his stage role as Sir Thomas More.

— At MGM's Elstree Studios near London, Robert Aldrich is directing a cast of 17 Americans (Lee Marvin, Ernest Borgnine, Robert Ryan, etc.) in "The Dirty Dozen."

— NEARBY, actors Keir Dullea and Gary Lockwood are finishing the shooting of a space epic, "2001 — A Space Odyssey," which was two-and-a-half years in preparation.

— At a cafe before the Palace of Versailles, near Paris, Peter O'Toole and Tom Courtenay are playing a scene for "Night of the Generals," a film of the Nazi occupation.

— Through the water-front streets of Monte Carlo speed racing cars. They are driven by James Garner, Yves Montand and other actors in MGM's "Grand Prix."

— IN THE Italian seaside town of Santa Margherita, David McCallum is spending his vacation from "The Man from U.N.C.L.E." as he plays a tour director who becomes involved with spies in "Three Bites of the Apple."

— At the De Laurentiis studio near Rome, Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton are romping through a million-dollar replica of Renaissance Padua as they portray the clashing lovers in Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew."

Child Is Terrified By Elevators

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My 16-month-old son is deathly afraid of store elevators. When I take him shopping with me, the minute I get near an elevator he starts screaming, and I have to walk upstairs with him.

Should I make an issue of the problem and force him? — MRS. H. J.

He's too young to tell you what frightens him. He may not even know. When he was very small he may have been frightened by being put in a small room, and the elevator reminds him of it. Or my guess may be far wide of the mark.

The fact remains that he is terrified, and I most decidedly would NOT force him to face such terror. I would guess that perhaps someone has argued, "After he rides in an elevator a few times and discovers that it doesn't hurt him, he'll get over being afraid."

Don't put any stock in that argument. First, he isn't old enough to indulge in such logic. Second, and perhaps much more important, he probably has no notion of what it is that he fears. He's just scared, period. It's an emotional matter. He may have some vague thought that the elevator is a dragon's mouth, about to swallow you both.

I'd just stay away from elevators with him, and see whether this fear doesn't wither away spontaneously in time. If it doesn't, you may need the help of a child psychologist, but I doubt that anything needs to be done now except to keep from accentuating the fear by forcing the little fellow.

Dear Dr. Molner: A doctor on TV talking about menopause said the best thing for women to do is to exercise and cut down on smoking. What exercises are most beneficial? — MRS. L. A.

It happens that I saw the same program, and I think you missed three little words. The doctor said "keep active and exercise," and I think it is very good advice — if women will just realize its importance.

Medication can alleviate the more annoying physical aspects of menopause if they occur, but the mental attitude is very important, too. At menopause a woman has reached an age at which she slows down a bit physically. Her family usually is grown. She isn't a go-go girl anymore. Many times she finds herself with time on her hands, and she sits and worries, and the more she worries the worse she feels. The answer is to keep busy: Physically active and intellectually devoted to new things.

Sheer exercise is just part of it, you see. There aren't any special exercises. Just remain active. Walk. Dig in the garden. Bowl. Ride a bike. Reasonable and regular exercise keeps your whole body in trim. Such activity also keeps your emotions in trim as well as your weight down.

"You Can Stop Sinus Trouble!" is the title of my booklet explaining what sinus trouble really is, and encouraging sinus sufferers to do something about it. For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner is happy to receive readers' questions, and whenever possible uses them in his column. However, due to the great volume of mail received daily, Dr. Molner regrets he cannot answer letters individually.

Mosquitoes? Small Consolation

Mosquitoes, you ask? Yes, indeed! Millyuns and millyuns of 'em!

King-sized boogers, too, with carefully whetted bills which stab like a doctor's hypodermic.

ONE BIT on me the other night. I swung at him. He had barely staked location and began to drill — or so I thought. I flattened him on the arm of a chair and the puddle of blood looked like a major injury. I felt my pulse and wondered if I was in need of a transfusion.

They travel in small armies in my backyard and unlike decent self-respecting mosquitoes I have met in the past, they do not limit warfare to the nighttime. They are as much in evidence at midday as at midnight.

When I get home at night from work, I leap out of the car and dash for the house as though it were raining. I'm lucky if I get into the building without being hit more than a couple or so times.

I jerk down the hatch and will not emerge into the yard except in a dire emergency.

FROM TIME to time I go to a window and look longingly up and down the street. I am hoping to see the city's fogging machine approaching. I am told by a man who visits the city hall daily that the officials have assured him the fogger is at it around the clock. Somehow I haven't smelled its distinctive odor more than once or twice this season. And those occasions were months ago — before the original operator of the machine got into difficulty with the law and was put in the county jail.

Scratching busily at some of the more recent wounds I had suffered at the beak of the enemy, I happened to meet the city manager the other morning.

"SWELL," I said to myself, "I'll needle him (hah!) to fire up the fogger at a higher rate of speed and get these pests driven out."

"So I halted him."

"Howdy?" I said: "what about mosquitoes?"

He turned and look at me. "Mosquitoes?" he said, his voice ranging upward with the word. "You ask about mosquitoes?"

"Yes sir," I murmured, "That's what I said 'mosquitoes.'"

HE STARED at me and then pulled at the knee of his trouser.

"Look," he said grimly, pointing a direful finger at his bared shin. "Look — seven bites on my leg in one fell swoop. Mosquitoes. Terrible, aren't they?"

I could only nod agreement. He climbed into his car and drove away — driving with one hand while he busily scratched at the damaged skin.

I slowly walked on into the office.

AS I WALKED I scratched at my itching shoulder.

And I tried to console myself with the thought the particular kind of mosquitoes we have are not the kind that pack around yellow fever and malaria bugs.

I didn't find it too consoling, though. —SAM BLACKBURN

They All Want To Get Ahead

WASHINGTON — It is a thesis of the War on Poverty that poverty-impacted youth is a race apart from other young people, but maybe the Poverty Warriors haven't been reading their own research. The Labor Department has engaged the University of Michigan to study motivations in the government's Manpower projects, and the forthcoming information mainly goes to prove an old adage — boys will be boys.

I might claim some competence here, for I was a lucky boy who attended an exclusive prep school, and for three years following college taught at a school where half the student body were orphans on scholarships provided by a wealthy merchant's will. Since the latter was a military school with all the students in uniform, you couldn't readily tell the millionaires' sons from the foundlings.

The Michigan University study, called JOBS ("Job Opportunities Through Better Skills") makes some very cheerful findings by interviewing these boys in the anti-poverty work courses. A majority of the trainees were found to "aspire to middle class values." The report says that, despite being "culturally disadvantaged," they "do believe that success comes from hard work." No less than 70 per cent agreed with such sentences as, "The unhappy things that happen to people come from mistakes that they make." And, "A person becomes a success in life because he works hard."

Such responses are so normal that they could have come out of the senior class at Gruton or Lawrenceville. And so, also, are some of the following responses, although less obviously so. The trainees believe in the "American Way" in the abstract sense, but have some doubts that it applies to them. "They are not certain," the Michigan report says, "that they are masters of their fate."

Ah, wilderness! It isn't just poor boys who suffer introspection and self-doubt. A whole lot of psychiatrists get wealthy by ministering to the insufficiencies of the sons of tycoons. The important discovery here is not that poverty youngsters worry about their future (just as their wealthy compatriots worry about making the right college and the right club), but that they believe success in America can be achieved.

In a national sampling conducted by the Labor Department itself, it turns out that 80 per cent of all adult males say "they would continue working even if they inherited enough money to live on comfortably without working." Another test of blue-collar unemployed men shows that a majority "began to look for work less than one week after layoff." If there is any truth to these findings, the American low-income male — boy and man — is not the object of pity that the Poverty Warriors have set out to prove.

New Peak Of Optimism

WASHINGTON — A graph of administration optimism over Viet Nam looks like a roller coaster on the profile of a mountain range. Down almost at a record low during the uprising in Da Nang and Hue, it was climbing again toward peak levels where the atmosphere is thin and the view dizzying.

But, as often in the past, when the car labeled optimism seems to be climbing toward the mountaintop named hope something happens. The overthrow of the Diem government, the Viet Cong attack on the air base at Pleiku, happenings like this have got in the way of what had been considered progression toward the goal of a stable and independent South Viet Nam.

WHETHER the escalation of the war with the bombing in the Hanoi-Haiphong area is such a happening it is too early to say. Out of this could come a counterblast and a greatly enlarged conflict which would mean all bets were off.

There were, however, two principal reasons why those mapping Viet Nam policy were optimistic prior to the Hanoi-Haiphong bombing. One was the conviction that Premier Nguyen Cao Ky has a grip on the political situation, making it possible to go through with elections for a constituent assembly in the fall. The Buddhist revolt was suppressed with far less trouble than had been thought possible, and the moderates now seem in control.

THE SECOND reason is that the war on the ground is going better than had been hoped for. As American ground forces increase in numbers and range of action the Viet Cong kill rate goes up.

But aside from these signs and portents, so often proved wrong before, officials with a large hand in Viet Nam policy base their case for fighting it out on a longer view. This was stressed by President Johnson in his speech of welcome to Prime Minister Harold Holt of Australia. It is, in Johnson's words, the rising spirit of regional association and regional self-confidence in Asia.

DISCOUNTING the Johnsonian rhetoric, evidence accumulates of a growing solidarity behind plans for economic development. From objective sources come reports of a widening participation in joint planning.

An important catalyst for the regional action beginning to take form is the Mekong Delta program proposed by Johnson in his Johns Hopkins speech in April, 1965. That $1 billion proposal is starting to bear fruit. Another rally point is the Asian Development Bank.

A FACTOR even more important in this beginning trend is the active partnership of Japan. Without the part being played by the largest industrial nation in Asia, it could not happen. In April Japan was host to a Southeast Asian Economic Development conference in which all the non-Communist countries except Burma participated.

Still another important change is the fact that the two white nations in the Pacific, Australia and New Zealand, are part of the movement. They were represented at a ministerial meeting in Seoul, Korea, at which Malaysia, Thailand, South Viet Nam, Formosa, China, and the Philippines were present, and again Japan played an active role.

AMERICAN officials nursing this development along believe that eventually independent Asian states, strengthened by economic integration and support, will be able to live on the periphery of Red China without the presence of American military force.

Engine Dug Up

MIAMI (AP) — Excavators are accustomed to digging up some weird items when clearing land for new buildings.

But a bulldozer operator breaking ground for a new apartment building here really hit the jackpot.

His big "dozer" blade clanked against metal. It wouldn't move.

Further digging by hand uncovered a steam locomotive lying on its side. It was later learned that it had been blown over during the hurricane of 1926 and covered up rather than moved.

Briefing Session

area of Omaha. Guardsmen later in the evening were called upon to help disperse some 250 to 300 persons gathered at the scene of the disturbance which occurred early Sunday. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Guard Called In Omaha Troubles

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — National Guardsmen moved in to reinforce police in Omaha's near North Side early today when violence flared there for the third night. The troops were called when a new wave of rock and bottle throwing erupted in the heart of the predominantly Negro area. When quiet was restored, police reported 78 arrests — 19 of them juveniles — and two officers slightly injured. Officers said apparently 10 business places were targets of looters or window smashers. Owners of at least two establishments struck by looters on previous nights mounted their own armed guard. Looting, vandalism and major disturbances had marked Saturday and Sunday nights in the area of 24th and Lake streets. Monday night's arrests occurred as the guardsmen cleared the area at the request of city officials.

ALERT

Earlier, members of four National Guard units had whiled away the night in their armories; prepared to move in to back up Omaha police. The police were working 12-hour shifts and riding four to a cruiser, in case there should be any re-occurrence of earlier violence.

Members of two additional Guard units on the outskirts of Omaha also were on alert, ready to move in if serious trouble developed.

Among those manning the emergency command post at a fire station at 22nd and Lake streets — only two blocks from the scene of a major outbreak in the early morning hours Sunday and the later call for the Guard this morning — were Mayor A. V. Sorensen and Lt. Gov. Philip Sorensen, brother of former presidential aide Ted Sorensen, acting governor in the absence of Gov. Frank Morrison who is attending the National Governor's Conference in Los Angeles, Calif.

Most of the city's Negro population, estimated at about 30,000, live in the area. The latest incident reportedly involved an estimated 250 to 300 persons, mostly Negro, and was connected with the shoving of an Omaha policeman. Officers at the scene called for help from the 36 Nebraska safety patrolmen who were standing by. It was decided to call for the Guard to "sweep the area" and disperse persons who had no reason to be there. Governor Morrison, who has

Multiple Aid Hit

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas School Board has protested the multiplicity of federal aid to education, resolving that Congress should channel all its funds to local districts by a single method. The board believes that Congress should "replace categorical aid to education by general aid, all of which would be administered through the State Education Agency."

Six Killed In Collision Of Light Planes

LIVERMORE, Calif. (AP) — Two light planes collided and crashed Monday about five miles east of here, taking six lives.

The two single-engine aircraft hit the ground about a mile apart. One exploded and burned, killing Jesse Smith of Livermore and Tony Arroyo of Pacifica.

The other plane crashed in a field, killing Judd Rose of Livermore, George Rain of Pacific Grove, and Richard and Yvonne Hardesty of San Jose.

An eye witness told sheriff's deputies one plane appeared to have struck the other from below.

Deputies said a Civil Aeronautics Board investigation had been launched. Both planes had taken off from Livermore Airport shortly before the crash.

Dents In Queen's Limousine Vanish

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip basked in the affection of loyal Orangemen today on the final day of the royal visit to Northern Ireland. Not even the queen's limousine showed any scars from an anti-British incident Monday.

A large dent in the hood of the queen's Rolls-Royce was beaten out and painted over after the car had been hit by a cement block while the royal couple drove through the city. It weighed about 12 pounds and was hurled from the fourth floor of a building under reconstruction.

The composure of the royal couple seemed jarred briefly by the cement-block attack, but the queen was all smiles again Monday night at a ceremony on Belfast's military parade ground to mark the 30th anniversary of the World War I Battle of the Somme.

WELCOME She got an especially warm welcome from the crowd. Thousands joined in a loud rendition of "God Save the Queen."

Belfast police said the two attacks did not seem connected, nor was there any indication they were staged by any political organizations. Some members of Parliament had urged cancellation of the royal visit to Northern Ireland because it came after weeks of religious controversy between Protestants and Roman Catholics which had cost three lives.

Atlantic City's Ice Supply Melts

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — During the holiday weekend, when a heat wave blistered Atlantic City with 100-plus temperatures, the resort ran out of ice. Hardest hit were the city's more than 200 bars and nightclubs. "We had many customers go away and I don't blame them," said an employee of the Rendezvous Bar and Lounge. "I mean, did you ever try to serve a guy who wants a scotch on the rocks with no rocks?"

Cordele, Ga., Park Mixed

CORDELE, Ga. (AP) — A racially mixed group of 100 used swimming facilities at a state park Monday where Negroes and whites had battled with rocks and bottles several days before.

The battle, June 24, sparked acts of vandalism during the following two days and culminated in a 30-minute gun battle between whites and Negroes last Tuesday night.

No one was reported injured in the gun battle, but the violence prompted Cordele city officials to clamp an all-night curfew on this south Georgia city of 11,500 which was still in effect today.

Col. Lowell Conner, director of the Department of Public Safety, was on hand Monday with 100 state troopers to prevent further violence as about 50 of the integrated group swam in the swimming pool where the melee had erupted earlier. Whites had used the pool earlier in the day but left. The intergrated group was ignored by families who spread picnic lunches on a riverbank in the Georgia Veterans Park about 500 yards away. Other white bathers swam in Lake Black-shear about a half mile from the pool.

State troopers checked every car as it entered the park. One person was arrested for carrying a pistol, and a machete and broomstick were confiscated from another automobile.

An integrated group which came to the park to go swimming Sunday found the pool had been drained.

State Parks Director Horace Caldwell said he did not know who was responsible, but he assured the group the pool would be refilled for the holiday.

Mark this date on your calendar!

You'll be able to dial your long distance calls when Direct Distance Dialing—"DDD"—comes to Big Spring telephone users at 12:01 a.m. on July 14.

DDD calls are quick and easy. Just dial "1," then the area code for the city you want, then the telephone number...that's all!

For example, suppose you want to call Capitol 7-3744 in Houston.

The Houston area code (see introductory pages of your telephone directory) is 713. So you'll dial:

1...7-1-3...C-A-7-3-7-4-4

...and you will then hear the Houston telephone ring, within seconds.

NOTE—For technical reasons, all "AMherst 4" telephone numbers must be changed to "AMherst 7" when DDD is introduced here.

Southwestern Bell

TO GET OUT-OF-TOWN TELEPHONE NUMBERS

DDD makes it easier than ever to get out-of-town numbers, by calling "Information" in other cities, without charge.

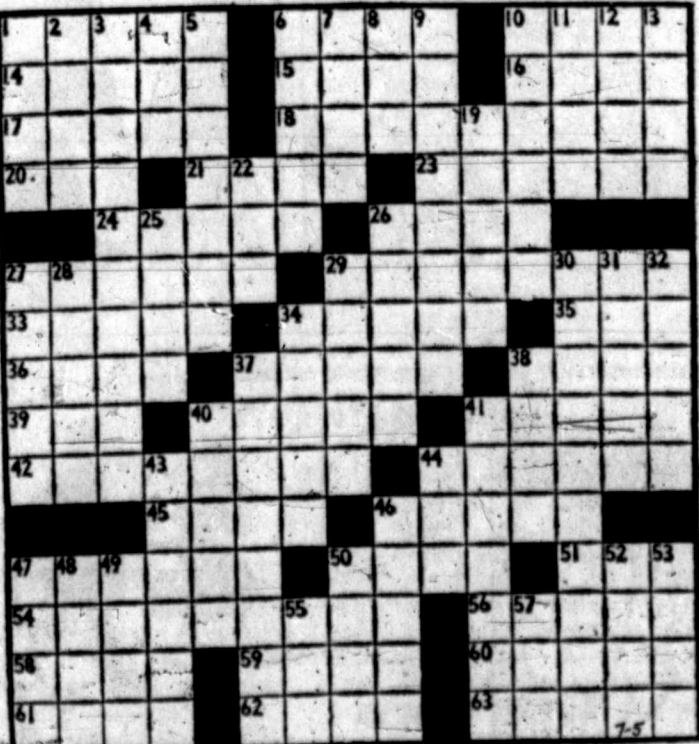

Just dial "1," then the area code for the city you want, then "555-1212." For example, to call information for Houston (area code 713), you would dial:

1 + 713 + 555-1212

When the information operator answers, tell her the city, name, and address of the person you want. When she tells you the number, jot it down, then dial your call. There is no charge for calls to information. It's fast—and free!

Mike Hall New Links Champ At Club Here

Youthful Mike Hall sprang one of the biggest local upsets in recent golfing history when he won championship honors in the Fourth of July tournament Monday by defeating Daryle Hohertz in the afternoon finals, 1 up 22 holes.

The tournament annually determines the club's champion. Mike succeeds Marvin Wright, who was unable to take part in this year's meet.

Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall, had advanced to the finals with a 3 and 2 victory over tournament medalist Jack Cook while Hohertz was sidelining the veteran Earl Reynolds, 4 and 2.

In the championship match, Hohertz commanded a two-up lead as late as the 16th hole, but Hall rallied to capture 17 with a birdie and sent the match into extra holes when Hohertz drove into a tree on 18.

The two matched pars through the first three holes and Hall closed out the duel with a par on the 22nd.

Hall and Hohertz were even at nine, Hohertz having won the third, fourth and nine holes and Hall the fifth, sixth and seventh.

On the back nine, Hohertz captured the ten, 12th and 14 holes while Hall prevailed on the 11th, 17th and 18th.

No one conceded Mike much of a chance to win his first match. Indeed, he raised a few eyebrows by landing in the championship flight. Once he qualified for a spot there, however, there was no stopping him.

Wayne Denton won first flight consolation laurels by defeating first Jackie Thomas, 1 up, and then R. P. Nicholson, 5-4.

Hohertz played exceptionally well throughout the tournament.

He seemed to get stronger until he came a cropper against an inspired Hall.

Results: CHAMPIONSHIP FLIGHT Semifinals—Mike Hall over Jack Cook, 3-2; Daryle Hohertz over Earl Reynolds, 4-2.

Finals—Hall over Hohertz, 1 up 22 holes. CHAMPIONSHIP CONSOLATIONS Semifinals—Wayne Denton over Jackie Thomas, 1 up; R. P. Nicholson over Buck Drake, 3-2.

Finals—Denton over Nicholson, 5-4; Nicholson over Drake, 1 up 19.

Hunter Stops Oriole Skein For Athletics

Catfish Hunter beat the heat in the seventh inning but Fritz Peterson didn't cool off until the eighth.

Kansas City's Hunter, working with only two days rest in 95-degree weather at Baltimore Monday, pitched six strong innings as the Athletics snapped the American League-leading Orioles' winning streak at seven with a 9-6 victory.

New York's Peterson, meanwhile, rivaled the 95-degree temperature at Yankee Stadium by pitching 7 1-3 perfect innings in a 5-2 victory over Chicago that gained the Yanks a split of their holiday doubleheader.

Hunter, 20 years old and Kansas City's biggest winner with eight victories, yielded four hits and three runs — two of them unearned — before going out for a pinch hitter in the seventh, when Dick Green's three-run homer gave the A's their winning margin.

Manager Alvin Dark said he hadn't planned on Hunter going all the way because of the heat and the young right-hander's lack of rest. Hunter beat Detroit 6-4 in his previous start last Friday.

Peterson, a 24-year-old rookie, retired the first 22 batters he faced before his own error ended the string and John Romano's single broke up the no-hit bid. He finished with a two-hit bid and his seventh victory in 13 decisions.

The young left-hander, a fast worker who has said, "I like to get a game over with so I can find out who won," dispatched the White Sox on 87 pitches. Only 20 were called balls.

The White Sox took the first game 5-0 behind the six-hit pitching of left-hander Gary Peters. Elsewhere, the California Angels whipped Detroit 11-6. Minnesota edged Cleveland 5-4 and Washington divided a twin bill with Boston, winning the first game 6-4 and losing the nightcap 1-0.

Injured Santo Rips Up Pirate Pitching

A plastic shield covers Ron Santo's left cheek, but National League pitchers could use a cover to shield them from Santo.

The All-Star third baseman returned to the Chicago line-up Monday for the first time since June 26 and rapped four hits in six at-bats as the last-place Cubs split a doubleheader with second-place Pittsburgh.

Santo collected two singles and a homer in the Cubs' 7-5 first-game loss, then came back with a tie-scoring single that snapped a run and sent the Cubs to a 6-4 victory in the second game called because of darkness after 7 1/2 innings.

The hits extended Santo's consecutive game streak to 27, which is the longest in the majors this season and which ties the Cub record set by Hack Wilson in 1929.

The 26-year-old slugger accomplished all that in his first appearance since a pitch from New York's Jack Fisher fractured his left cheek bone June 26.

"The doctor said if I could see I could play," said Santo, whose cheek was protected by a special plastic shield. "My left eye looks pretty bad, but I could see. Some of the Pirates kept asking, 'Boy, that eye looks bad. Can you see out of it?'"

"I guess I proved I could." Santo especially proved it in the seventh inning of the nightcap with two Cubs on base, the game tied 4-4 and darkness moving in on light-less Wrigley Field.

George Powell Wins, One Up

COLORADO CITY (SC) — George Powell, 28-year-old Colorado City rancher, won the 2nd annual Bill Craig 25ers tournament at Colorado City Monday, edging veteran Dallas golfer Dick Martin on the 18th hole.

Powell had gone one up with a birdie on the hole, but Martin birdied the par five 17th hole and went into 18 all square.

Martin sliced his tee shot into a building near the clubhouse but recovered with a chip shot to within six feet of the pin. He two putted for a bogie four.

Powell was on the green in one and two putted for his par three and the championship.

In Monday morning play, Martin took out Al Kloven of Big Spring 2 and 1, and Powell, two down to Bernard Rains of Big Spring at the end of nine holes, scrambled back to win two and one.

Big Spring players won two flight championships. Adam Ramos, a Big Spring printer who has been golfing only a little over a year, defeated fellow townsman R. L. Heith in the second flight finals, 1 up, while Bobby Rutherford of Big Spring copped the third flight by turning back R. Anderson of Abilene in his last match, 2 and 1.

Bobby Blumh, former Big Spring now living in Odessa, advanced to the finals in the championship consolation only to lose to Adair Ratliff of Dallas 4 and 3.

Results: CHAMPIONSHIP SEMIFINAL ROUND Semifinals—Dick Martin, Dallas, def. Al Kloven, Big Spring, 2 and 1; George Powell, Colorado City, def. Bernard Rains, Big Spring, 2 and 1.

Bengals Win Two

The Big Spring Tigers scored two baseball victories over the holidays, defeating the Big Spring Cardinals Sunday, 13-8, and the Merkel Texans Monday, 7-6. Both games took place in Steer Park here.

Jesse Zapata drove in the winning run in the ninth inning of yesterday's game. Junior Mendoza had doubled to right and advanced to third on an error. Zapata followed by hitting a sacrifice fly to center field.

The Tigers led in that game at one time, 6-1, but Merkel tied the count with three runs in the seventh and two in the eighth.

F. Acuna and Charles Luna had two hits each for Merkel while Billy Weatherall smashed a triple and a double for Big Spring. Albert Mendoza and Jimmy Fierro collected two hits each for the Tigers. Charles Fierro went all the way on the mound for Big Spring to notch the win.

The win was the Tigers' sixth, compared to five defeats. The game Sunday was a wild one. Tony Martinez, Mingo Rubio and Abel Ramirez blasted two hits each for the Red Birds while Weatherall was the Tigers' hitting star with three safeties, including a home run. He had a total of six runs-batted-in.

Zapata clubbed a first inning round tripper with a mate aboard for the Bengals. Junior Mendoza was the winning pitcher.

MONDAY'S GAME: Merkel vs Tigers, Cardinals vs Texans. Score: Merkel 7, Tigers 6; Cardinals 13, Texans 8.

Giants Nudge Lions, 7-5

The Giants topped the Lions, 7-5, in Sophomore Teen-Age League play here Monday night, Benito Rubio getting credit for the mound win.

All the hits Rubio and Joe Martinez surrendered—seven in all—were singles. Martinez clubbed a triple and a single for the winners.

Randy Womack, Bill Davis and D. Stanley each had two hits for the winners.

Lions: Womack ss 4-10; Davis cf 4-2; Rubio p 4-2; Martinez cf 4-2; Shover lf 3-1; Martinez cf 3-1; Rubio lf 2-0; Gearhart rf 3-0; Reed rf 1-0; Williams lf 2-1; Blisley lf 1-0. Total: 27 11 21.

Giants: Rubio p 3-0; Martinez cf 2-0; Stanley cf 2-0; Davis cf 2-0; Womack ss 2-0. Total: 20 10 12.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue: WILLIAM CHAPIN, San Francisco columnist: "Millions bowl. Bowling is, in its own lumpy way, the opiate of the people. There are vast, loosely organized armies of solid American citizens who cannot seem to get enough of it. Look anywhere, in glittering city or dusty town. Men, women and children (the family that bowls together stays together) are to be seen in the act of bowling. They trundle heavy balls along strips of hardwood in the direction of upright pins. All the while speaking in tongues—about strikes and splits and frames and spares. One cannot help but wonder at the causes of this sad affliction; but a few exploratory trips to the bowling place — that noisy temple of mindlessness — do nothing to diminish that wonder. Indeed, if exposure to bowling does anything, it heightens the mystery. Bowling is perhaps the only sport conceived by man (if it may properly be called a sport) where the less you think the better you do. Perfection — the very peak of achievement — will come to the bowler only when he is able to suspend all thought for the duration of the game. The idea in bowling is to train yourself to go through exactly the same set of motions over and over and over again. The slightest deviation — the slightest "wink" in a bowler's swing — is a mistake that will be reflected by a lower score."

LEO DUROCHER, manager of the Chicago Cubs, discussing Gene Mauch, boss of the Phillies: "I had him when he was 18. He came to play. He was always hollering, hustling, knocking somebody down. It's the way I feel everybody should be."

JIMMY DEMARET, veteran golf pro: "The U.S. Golf Association has got to do something. That Open field is weaker than any four event. Something must be done about the qualifying method. You can't have guys shooting 83 and 86 and not have a guy like Sam Snead in there."

JIMMY CANNON, New York scribe: "If golf is a sport, then so is shuffleboard and five-card stud. Golf is a game that men are encouraged to play after they have been hit with coronary attacks. The old do it after their doctors advise them to give up tennis and forbid them to climb stairs. Men with money install elevators in two-story mansions but they still play golf. It is a time-killer that flatters men who haven't the true athletic skills. You don't have to be an athlete to be a great golfer. The golfer doesn't have to move any faster than the chop house waiter. This isn't an attempt to ridicule the golfers. Such as Arnold Palmer, Mike Souchak, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player would probably excel at the tougher sports. There are others, but what about the ones built like me? (There are guys playing golf) who couldn't survive at baseball, football, tennis, basketball, hockey or track and field. Guys who are big in those sports would be good golfers with enough practice and the proper instructions. The golf journalists do a blizzard of a snow job. They pliter from the vocabulary of the war correspondent when they describe the slow action on a golf course. The verb "charged" is frayed from being run through the typewriters in the press tent. They talk about the pressure of at man vs. himself. Nick the Greek, past 70, would stand for three days at the crap tables in Las Vegas. The golf skills tell how prestige and money rolls with every putt. But the Greek has laid as much as $80,000 to $40,000 against the shooter making a four. No one ever accused him of being an athlete. Hitting fungoes is more difficult than striking a ball off the tee. The golfers demand silence and stilling from the gallery. In the Buick Open recently, Doug Sanders was about to address the ball. Someone crossed behind him. He immediately backed off the tee and glared at them. The television announcer reported the incident as an atrocity. The batter in baseball is taunted from the stands. The ball may come at his head as the crowd howls at him. But he would be kidded out of the league if he ever asked the buffs to grant him the gift of quiet. Bowlers are classified with pool players and I place golfers in the same category. Of course, the golfer could get hurt. He might be struck by lightning, assaulted by a bee or bitten by a snake. But no one tries to bust his head with an inside pitch, block him out from under the basket, gang-tackle him or speak him with a hockey stick. Exertion can kill a tennis player. It's a fast game. But golfers set their own pace."

ROBERTS vs. FELDSTEIN Toronto, outpointed Mike Bruce, New York, 5, heavyweight.

HOUSTON (AP) — Robin Roberts has pitched more than 4,600 major league innings and his dream of winning 300 games was almost a reality when he on the Houston Astros placed him on waivers Monday.

"I don't want to say anything I might wish I hadn't the next day," was Roberts' only comment.

The 39-year-old right-hander — who had won more games than any other active pitcher — was just 16 triumphs shy of his 300-win goal.

He learned the news shortly before Monday's game with the Atlanta Braves, which the Astros lost 3-2.

The 1966 season had been unkind to Roberts. He won three games but lost five. He completed just one of his 12 starts and showed well in only one of his last four tries.

It was a different story last year. He's signed with Houston as a free agent in August, after requesting his release from the Baltimore Orioles, and won his first four games for the Astros — including successive shutouts in his first two appearances.

Roberts, who will be replaced by young Don Arlich of the Astros' Oklahoma City club, underwent surgery after the 1965 season to remove loose bone fragments from his right elbow. In spring training this year, he appeared to be in good shape.

Roberts, who has a lifetime major league record of 284 victories and 242 losses, originally was signed in 1948 by the Phillies.

Golf Pros In Final Drill For Tourney At Murfield

MURFIELD, Scotland (AP) — A field of 130 golfers went through their final day of practice today preparing for the British Open Golf Championship.

The 72-hole test over Murfield's 6,887-yard, par 71 course gets under way Wednesday and the top professionals and amateurs are trying to get the feel of the fairways.

Among those who toured the course Monday were Doug Sanders, Julius Boros, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player. Sanders was somewhat surprised at the wild rough which crowds the fairways here. "Just let me have the last ball and hay concession and I'll be the leading money winner," he cracked. Boros, nursing an injured elbow, hesitated to challenge the roughs. "I got into the rough but hit

Conflict Clouding Governors' Meet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The nation's governors come to grips today with the question of restoring machinery to deal with the explosive issues of the Viet Nam war and civil rights.

In the first formal session of his 58th annual conference, the governors take up proposed amendments which would revise the resolutions-making process they junked in 1963 in a bitter fight over a Republican attempt to expose Democratic divisions over racial equality proposals.

Now the politically disturbing Viet Nam conflict hangs like a cloud over a conference where the everyday issues of federal-state relations, highway safety and mental health have been all but blotted out in preliminary discussions.

There is no doubt that if the Democrats push for it, they can get an endorsement from the conference for President Johnson's Viet Nam policies. They got one in last year's meeting with only two dissents — those of Republican Govs. George Romney of Michigan and Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon.

But a check by The Associated Press of a score of governors uncovered doubts and reservations, even among the President's supporters, about the latest bombings in North Viet Nam. Gov. Phillip H. Hoff, Vermont Democrat, for example, said that while he generally supports the President, "I have grave reservations on the recent bombings."

Gov. Daniel J. Evans, Washington Republican, said that the President may be on the right track in stepping up the bombings, "but it seems to me that over the past year and a half we have attempted something similar in nature but it never seems to end the war."

Hatfield continued his pace as one of the harsher critics of Johnson's policies.

Romney, a potential contender for the 1968 GOP presidential nomination, announced he would not support any "blank check" endorsement of Johnson's course. He said Viet Nam ought not to be an issue in the conference, since the governors had no opportunity to influence the policies involved.

Southern governors served notice there will be a fight over any proposal for a conference endorsement of the administration's civil rights bill pending in Congress, particularly the open-housing section.

Gov. Paul B. Johnson of Mississippi predicted in an interview a "pretty good scrap" against it.

"I'm opposed to the bill," he said. "I don't see that a great deal would be gained by it. The legislation puts a great deal of emphasis on indolence and laziness."

Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama said that "property ownership," as affected by the bill's ban against racial discrimination in the sale or rental of housing, will be an issue in the 1968 presidential campaign in which he may run on a third party ticket.

Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey said he didn't come to the conference to participate in a brawl over civil rights. The New Jersey governor said controversies over this issue have nearly wrecked past conferences.

He said each governor has to deal with the issue individually

Melee Begins After Shooting

MIAMI (AP)—Shooting mushroomed into a melee on a crowded Negro beach Monday. One person was critically wounded. Several were bruised.

More than 40 sheriff's deputies and Miami police rushed to Virginia Key after a dance hall fight threatened to turn into a riot. Bridges on a causeway to the island were sealed while police searched for the gunman. Traffic backed up for miles in each direction.

The shooting of Charles Smith, 22, set off a brawl amid a crowd of bathers estimated at 5,000, police said. Smith was in critical condition.

Police said they made no arrests in connection with the shooting.

Nearly a dozen young men were taken to the sheriff's office for questioning but all were released.

G. H. Hayward's Brother Is Dead

John A. Hayward, 62, Longview, brother of G. H. Hayward, 592 Hillside, died Monday at 10 p.m. at his residence in Longview. Services and burial will be held there Wednesday. Other survivors include his wife, three brothers and three sisters.

CORE Backs 'Black Power'

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The philosophy of black power has been embraced by one national civil rights group, but rejected by a leader of another—the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Roy Wilkins, executive director of the NAACP, said before the opening today of the association's convention that there is little likelihood the concept of black power will be accepted by the NAACP.

In Baltimore Sunday, the Congress of Racial Equality concluded its convention by adopting black power as the dominant philosophy of the movement.

Lincoln Lynch, associate national director of CORE, defined the concept as "the effective control and self-determination of men of color in their own areas."

"Power is the total control of economic, political, educational and social wealth," Lynch continued, "and the exercise of this power is simply that which all other groups in American society have done to acquire their share of American life."

CORE also called for withdrawal of U.S. troops from Vietnam and pledged support for persons refusing to serve in the military.

Wilkins said the opening of the NAACP's 57th annual convention finds the civil rights movement progressing well.

"However, I must admit," Wilkins said, "gains have not been as rapid or as far-reaching as we all might like."

"I think this situation will improve as soon as enough people recover from the illusion that the 1964 Civil Rights Act solved everything," he added.

Bobby, Party Shoot Rapids

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and a group of adventurous friends and relatives who ran the rapids-filled "River of No Return" in boats, air mattresses and a kayak—were back in civilization today.

But they weren't back to rest.

CANADA BOUND

Kennedy — who shot the last 40 miles through some of the river's rapids — planned to fly out with his family today for more vacation in Canada.

The senator abandoned the rubber boats for the kayak — a long thin covered boat with a hole in the middle for the rider — just past the halfway point in the 100-mile trip down the Salmon River's middle fork.

He said he had ridden a kayak only once before, but he maneuvered over the steep, roaring falls of the rapids between sharp rocks and shot up off "rollback" waves at the bottom like a veteran.

OTHERS FAIL

Willie Schaeffler, Denver University ski coach, trying the same things in a kayak made unstable by a broken part, overturned in the rapids four times.

James Whittaker, a mountain climber and a close outdoor friend of the Kennedys, overturned his kayak once.

The senator earlier joined a number of the 15 Kennedy children, cousins and friends riding leisurely down the river on air mattresses.

The rest of the party — including astronaut John Glenn and his wife, singer Andy Williams' wife and Lemoyne Williams of New York — swept over the rapids in the eight yellow and black rubber boats.

Passengers often walk around the worst rapids, but every member of the Kennedy party chose to shoot them all.

NEW RULER OF ELKS LODGE
Raymond C. Dobson makes acceptance talk

Elks Elect Editor As Exalted Ruler

DALLAS (AP) — The newly elected leader of the Elks Lodge says democracy is "something learned, not bestowed or legalized or seized."

Raymond C. Dobson, editor and publisher of the Minot, N. D., News, was elected grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Monday at the national convention in Dallas.

He succeeds R. Leonard Bush of Inglewood, Calif.

Dobson said in his acceptance speech that all American citizens have "the precious right of dissent. But I am much more impressed when it is tempered with common sense."

Some 16,000 persons are attending the gathering, which ends Thursday.

Other new officers elected were:

John B. Morey, Palo Alto, Calif., grand esteemed leading knight; Bernard M. DeLay, Norfolk, Neb., grand esteemed loyal knight; William P. Menally, Bath, Maine, grand esteemed lecturing knight; Franklin J. Fitzpatrick, Lynbrook, N. Y., grand secretary; Chelsie J. Senerchia, Miami, Fla., grand treasurer; C. M. Mulligan Jr., Annapolis, Md., grand inner guard; and Fritz Coppens, Traverse City, Mich., grand tiler.

Underwater Search Slated For Lost City Of Atlantis

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Atlantis, the lost continent which was mentioned by the ancient Greek philosopher Plato, is back in the spotlight.

Prof. Angelos Galanopoulos of Athens University, a leading seismologist, now believes he has located what may be the site of legendary Atlantis, the flourishing prehistoric city inundated within minutes by one of the great natural catastrophes of history.

CATASTROPHE

He also claims the same catastrophe destroyed Knossos, site of the Minoan civilization of Crete, and also accounted for the same phenomena, described in the Book of Exodus, which enabled Moses and the children of Israel to cross the Red Sea on dry land.

A preliminary survey, including underwater exploration by Greek and American scientists, is to be carried out this fall. It will be the first practical attempt to investigate the theory.

Surveying, to be conducted by scientists from Athens University and the Woods Hole (Mass.) Oceanographic Institute, will involve test excavations at depths up to 60 feet below the surface of the Aegean Sea.

The expedition follows publication of a paper by Galanopoulos in which he develops and defends his thesis that the remnants of Atlantis are awaiting discovery beneath the waters off the Aegean island of Santorini. The island, about 500 miles from the Egyptian Coast, is a favorite of tourists.

According to Galanopoulos, "a mighty volcanic explosion, around the 13th century B.C. set off air waves 350 times more powerful than those of a hydrogen bomb and devastated the island."

RUINS SPOTTED

In recent years, the ruins of three towns have been spotted in waters near Santorini, now a half-circled island surrounding a kind of crater lake — result of the collapse of the central volcanic cone.

Galanopoulos believes one effect of the first stage of the two-act catastrophe was the earthquake that destroyed the Minoan civilization, with the famed labyrinth of the Minotaur at Knossos.

"Volcanic ash would have been carried for hundreds of miles and is the most likely explanation of rivers turning red and fire running along the ground as described in Exodus," the professor says.

"Geographical and climatic changes would account for the ten plagues of hail and locust which afflicted Egypt, that made the exodus possible."

The second stage, perhaps a

Pool Mixing Efforts Fail

LAWTON, Okla. (AP) — An Independence Day effort to integrate the only swimming pool in this city of 61,000 persons in southern Oklahoma ended in failure.

Fifty-five of the chanting marching demonstrators were hauled off to jail where 38 adults were charged with trespassing on complaints signed by Ben Hutchins Sr., owner of the segregated private Doe Doe recreation park, Monday.

Seventeen of the demonstrators were juveniles. They were released to the custody of their parents.

The privately owned park has been the target of integration attempts for a month.

The 38 demonstrators, mostly Negroes, posted $20 bonds and were scheduled for court appearances at 1 p.m. Friday. They included two white Roman Catholic priests who have participated in earlier integration attempts at the park—the Rev. Al Kelly and the Rev. William Hayden.

Negroes have been trying to integrate the park since last month when the Oklahoma City chapter of the NAACP sponsored a 90-mile Oklahoma City-to-Lawton protest march.

CAVERN

The central part of the island, the professor says, an area of 50 square miles, thus became a gigantic cavern.

"A colossal rush of water," he explains, "drew the sea in tidal waves away from the Egyptian Coast."

According to the Bible, Galanopoulos points out, Moses and his people at the time of their crossing of the Red Sea, were waiting on a coastal strip of land that flanked a lake called Yam Suf, or the Lake of Canees. On today's maps, the crossing is Sebeha el Bardawil about 30 miles east of Port Said, Egypt.

"Between them and the next strip of land was a sea-filled gap, dry for Moses and his people to cross. But the Lake of Water remained and, as the Bible says, there was a wall of water to their right and left."

"The time that elapsed between the dividing of the waters and the backwash that overwhelmed the pursuing Egyptian army would have been about 15 minutes — long enough for Moses and his people to cross, but not time enough for the Egyptians," says Galanopoulos.

Opening lead: Deuce of ♠.

Mismanagement of a side suit, induced by a desire to score the maximum, led to declarer's downfall in the four-heart contract presented today.

North was reluctant to give his partner an immediate heart preference with only two trumps, and he was more or less obliged to bid two no trump even though he lacked a spade stopper. When South rebid three diamonds, North returned to three hearts and South carried on to game in that suit.

West opened the deuce of spades. East put up the ace and returned the suit, and South was in with the king. North's ace and queen of hearts were cashed, and then the closed hand was reentered with the ace of clubs, so that declarer could play the king of hearts.

When the jack fell and trumps divided evenly, declarer's biggest obstacle had been overcome. Now all that remained was to develop the diamonds. The jack of diamonds was led and permitted to ride when West followed with the deuce. East played the seven.

With everything apparently working to his complete satisfaction, South continued with the ten of diamonds. West put up the ace and declarer blithely played the five from dummy. When East showed out by discarding a club, South's equanimity disappeared.

West led back the jack of spades forcing declarer to ruff with the nine of hearts. A diamond was led to the king in dummy; however, West's queen still remained outstanding. In order to continue development of the diamonds, South was obliged to ruff a club with the ten of hearts — his last trump. When West got in with the queen of diamonds, he cashed his long spade for the setting trick.

When the heart suit responded favorably, South was in position to assure his contract. Development of the diamond suit can be accomplished by conceding two tricks to the ace and the queen. There is no objection to leading the jack initially; however, when declarer retains the lead, and continues with the ten, he must not permit North's king to block development of the suit.

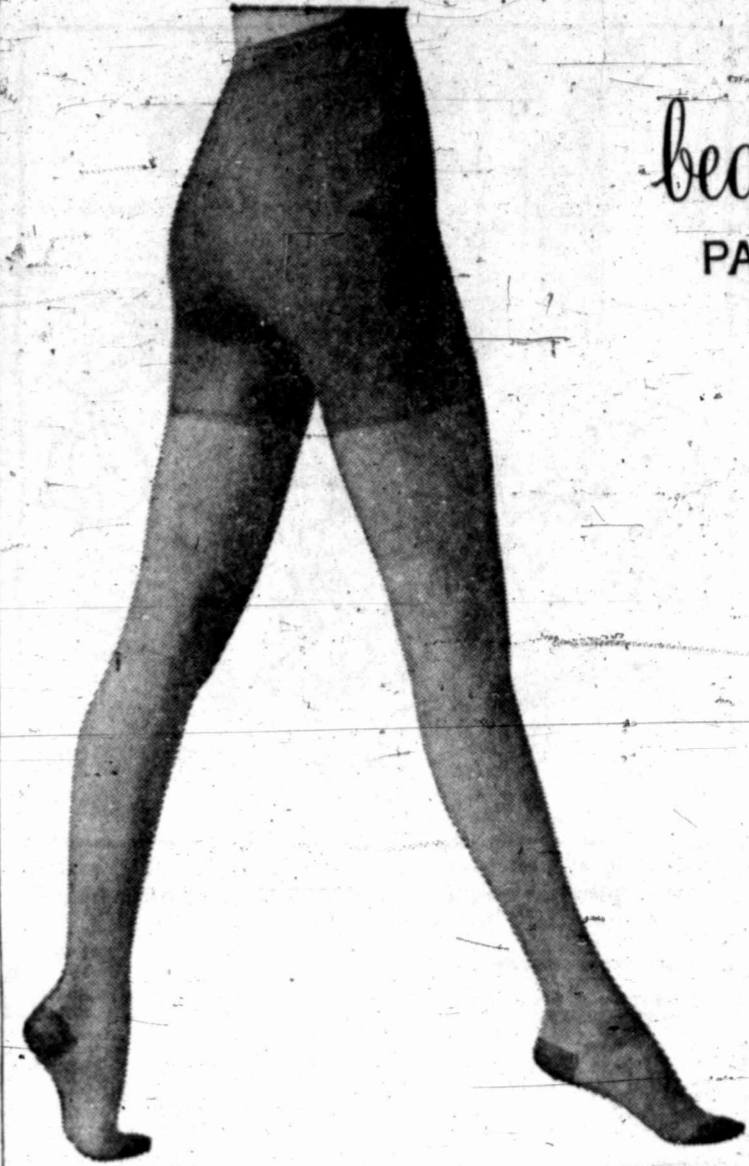

When West plays the ace, South should throw dummy's king under. The subsequent lead of the nine drives out West's queen, and declarer retains the ten of hearts as an entry to cash the eight and four of diamonds. His losses on the deal are thereby restricted to two diamonds and one spade.

N.Y. Subway Ride Price Up

NEW YORK (AP) — The price of a subway ride in New York was up a nickel today. The increase, from 15 to 20 cents, affected most of the city's bus lines as well, and was expected to hit all of them in a few days.

Although long anticipated, the timing of the fare boost, announced on the afternoon of the July 4 holiday, caught most New Yorkers by surprise.

It was the first fare increase in 13 years. The Transit Authority said it "confidently expects that the 20-cent fare will be maintained for at least a year."

DEAR ABBY

Time To Shake Him

DEAR ABBY: We have been married for 30 years, and I have never been the least bit jealous, but lately have been "burned" about the attitude of my husband toward his secretary. On Mother's Day he invited her to share the day with us, and it was quite plain that SHE was the guest of honor.

She was seated carefully at the table and helped down the stairs, while I got along the best I could. On Father's Day she gave him an antique jar which he put in the den. He said it would make a nice conversation piece. Well, it certainly has! What do I do after I accidentally (?) break the jar?

ANOTHER ANTIQUE

DEAR ANTIQUE: Married thirty years and this your first attack of jealousy. Don't break the jar—just jar the old man with the news. (He'll be flattered to pieces.)

DEAR ABBY: My father had an operation and had part of his stomach removed, so he has to eat several times a day, which is okay with the rest of us. But it seems he is always eating something crunchy like carrots, celery, or potato chips, and he sounds like he has a hollow-head.

You can hear him all over the house. When I mention it to him he gets angry and says he is sorry but he can't help it. Mother says I am making too much of it, but it sure does get on my nerves. What can I do about it?

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD

DEAR ELEVEN: If your father says he can't help it, he can't help it. My advice to "eleven-year-old" is learn young to tolerate that which can't be helped. (And I don't recommend bringing it up again or you're apt to learn that neither your father's head nor his hand is hollow.)

DEAR ABBY I have a problem which has confronted me every place I have worked. I am a single, rather attractive girl, who always ends up being asked out by a young man from the office. The young man in question is very nice, but I just do not care for his type, and do not wish to go out with him again.

I thought if I went out with him just once and treated him indifferently, he would catch on and give up, but it hasn't worked that way. I had to quit two jobs for that reason, and now it looks like I'll have to quit this one, too. It is so hard to say tactfully, "Please, don't bother me." Any suggestions?

DEAR HELP: Silly girl. Your first mistake was going out with a young man in whom you had no interest. He probably mistook your "indifference" for the "hard-to-get" technique, which makes you all the more attractive to him. If you don't want a friendly dog on your lap, don't scratch his neck.
