Woman Shot Down In Cleveland Riot

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — they were shot at by snipers in a predominantly Negro neighborhood on Cleveland's East Side early today, leaving a 26-year-old woman dead and two men with minor bullet wounds. Police shot out street lights in the vicinity of East 75th and Hough to keep from being targets and ordered all occupants out of an apartment building there in a vain effort to find a sniper. At least eight fires broke out — some started by fire bombs — and firemen trying to fight the flames were shot at and had to dodge bottles, fire bombs and rocks, police reported. A gang of men cut a fire hose near 86th Street, where half a block of two-story brick and frame store buildings burned. Police and newsmen reported

Marines Hold Off Attackers

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Two U.S. Marine platoons held out for four hours against waves of North Vietnamese troops just south of the 17th Parallel Monday while covering the withdrawal of the rest of their battalion. The bloody fight cost the enemy about 500 dead or wounded, one Marine officer estimated. The 90 or so Leathernecks took heavy casualties but stood up against the overwhelmingly larger force until air and artillery strikes drove the North Vietnamese off. NAPALM DROPPED Marine fighter-bombers dropped napalm as close as 50 feet from the Leatherneck positions to prevent them being overrun. Some Marines were injured in the strikes. The savage fight was the bitterest action yet in Operation Hastings, which last weekend brought thousands of Marines and South Vietnamese troops into the steamy mountains more than 400 miles northeast of Saigon in search of a North Vietnamese division which allied intelligence says recently crossed the demilitarized zone division between the two Viet Nams. Despite the heavy losses to the two platoons, U.S. headquarters in Saigon said allied casualties remained light overall since the sweep began Friday. The official number of enemy killed rose to 226, up 58 from Monday's report. The Marines have captured three North Vietnamese and 68 weapons, the spokesman said. In the central highlands, units of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division's 3rd Brigade battled a North Vietnamese battalion for three hours Monday less than a mile from the Cambodian border and 37 miles southwest of Pleiku. A spokesman said the infantrymen killed seven Communists. HITTING DEPOTS While the fighting picked up against North Vietnamese units in the south, U.S. pilots kept up their attacks on North Viet Nam's oil reserves, hitting 11 storage areas scattered from 44 miles north of Hanoi to the Badon depot 65 miles from the 17th Parallel, which was struck for the second successive day. The jets eluded 13 surface-to-air missiles within 45 miles of Hanoi and five miles of Haliphong, a spokesman said.

Spacemen Run Short Of Fuel For Docking

GOING TO TWC

Robbins Resigns Longhorn Post

Don Robbins, head football coach and athletic director at Big Spring High School the past four seasons, has submitted his resignation, effectively immediately, to become a varsity assistant at Texas Western College in El Paso under Bobby Dobbs. No successor has been named but there is a strong possibility the school board will consider moving some one on the local staff into the vacated position. The trustees do not meet again until a week from tonight, however.

DON ROBBINS

Robbins said he keenly regretted leaving the local post and the many friendships he had made here but felt that the proffered opportunity was too good to pass up. Robbins will work with the defense at TWC. Other assistants on head coach Bobby Dobbs' staff include Cliff Speegle, a former head coach at Oklahoma State University, now chief assistant to Dobbs; Bill Michael, Dave Nusz and Harvey Griffin.

Three of Robbins' former players, Charley West, Buster Barnes and Thurman (Big Daddy) Randle, are playing for Texas Western. Robbins, a native of Breckenridge where he was an all-state end, has compiled an impressive 26-13-1 won-lost-tied record since he became mentor here in 1962. He had come here as an assistant to Emmett McKenzie the previous year.

Before coaching at Snyder, Robbins was an aide at Port Arthur High School and at Texas A&M, his alma mater. Robbins first contacted Dobbs about the job only last weekend and Robbins went out to look over the facilities. Don will succeed Y. C. McNeese, who resigned not long ago to become an aide at the University of Michigan.

Astronauts Forced To Land

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Engine failure forced astronauts Edward White and Russell Schweickart to abort a takeoff at El Paso International Airport Monday night and their T38 jet trainer ran off the end of the runway.

Reports Reds Plan To Try Downed Pilots

PARIS (AP) — The French News Agency said in a dispatch from Peking that the North Vietnamese ambassador declared today captured U.S. pilots will be tried as war criminals. The agency's correspondent quoted Ambassador Tran Du Vinh as making the statement at a news conference. The ambassador told newsmen that the American pilots had never been considered by North Viet Nam as prisoners of war. Therefore they did not come under the Geneva Convention which would prevent their being put on trial, he added. The ambassador gave no indication as to when the trials would begin, but he added that the pilots' fate would be left up to the Vietnamese people.

Only Monday, the United States informed the International Red Cross in Geneva that the trial of the U.S. pilots could lead "to disastrous consequences."

Airline Union To Call Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The striking machinists union said today it will call for a vote Wednesday by its members on five strikebound airlines on the management's latest offer if there is no agreement by then in the 12-day-old walkout. James J. Reynolds, assistant secretary of labor, announced the latest development after a joint meeting with negotiators for the airlines and the AFL-CIO International Association of Machinists. He emphasized that the union's move was not by agreement with management representatives.

Reynolds said it would take three to five days to conduct a vote among the 35,000 striking machinists of Eastern, National, United, Northwest and Trans World Airlines. Reynolds declined to say where negotiations stood at the moment.

Collins To Lean Out For Photos

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — America's high-flying Gemini 10 spacemen — short of fuel but hoping to salvage most of their flight plan — were given a "go" today for astronaut Michael Collins to pop his head and shoulders into space for a late afternoon photo session. The fuel shortage caused project officials to eliminate the last of two planned dockings with the Gemini 10 Agena and erase some of the 14 scientific experiments scheduled for the three-day mission.

HITCHHIKE Astronauts John W. Young and Collins awoke at 11 a.m. after sleeping eight hours in a record-shattering orbit reaching up to 476 miles above the earth. The astronauts hitchhiked a ride to that orbit by using the power of their Agena rocket target after successfully docking with it late Monday night.

The astronaut will open the hatch on their spacecraft at 5:10 p.m., exposing themselves to the vacuum of space. Collins will stand up in his seat, sticking halfway out of the capsule, and snap pictures and perform other experiments for an hour. Several experiments were deleted, including plans to photograph certain star clusters to see if scientists could determine their surface temperature by ultraviolet light.

HOURLY LATER The standup extra vehicular activity is coming one hour later than originally planned, and Gemini 10 would probably not be in position to see them as originally expected. The fuel shortage also meant that Gemini 10 would remain docked with the Agena 10 during the space stand, instead of flying near it.

National Aeronautics and Space Administration spokesmen said there would be some revision of the program, but held to the belief major projects would be saved. Next item on the planned schedule was a descent to a lower orbit to intercept the Agena 8 rocket carcass, left in a docking path to provide a second target in the skies.

FUEL CONSUMING Rendezvous would be a fuel-consuming maneuver. In the first eight hours after a perfect beginning, command pilot Young and pilot Collins achieved three spectacular space achievements including an altitude record of 476 miles. For some reason, neither the astronauts nor the ground controllers could explain, they used an excess of fuel in catching up with the Agena 10 which preceded them into orbit by 100 minutes Monday afternoon. After a thrilling 103,000-mile chase across the skies, Gemini 10 caught an Agena sent up 100 minutes ahead of it, then registered history's second linkup of two space vehicles. The exercise was climaxed brilliantly when Young and Collins fired the powerful engine of the docked Agena — the first time the rocket of one satellite had been used to maneuver a manned space ship. For nine startling seconds the Agena sputtered a fountain of flame and sent Gemini 10 shooting to a record altitude of 476 miles, eclipsing a 307.5-mile mark held by two Soviet cosmonauts.

Local Car Dealers Join In 'Salute Of Values'

WTCC Joins Abilene To Blast Texas Water Plan

ABILENE, Tex. (AP) — A West Texas Chamber of Commerce official said the Texas Water Development Board's preliminary water plan for the state was inadequate and joined Abilene city officials in heavy criticism of the plan. Dr. Joe T. Nelson, vice president of the WTCC from Weatherford, asked that prior to final publication of the Texas Master Water Plan, more complete studies be made of the needs of West Texas water problems. LAWSUIT R. M. Wagstaff, lawyer representing the Abilene City Council and Abilene Chamber of Commerce, warned Monday the board it would "face a lawsuit" if water is diverted into the San Jacinto River Basin before upstream needs are met in the Brazos basin. Joe Moore Jr., executive director of the water development board, said Abilene's threat of court action was the first encountered in the series of public hearings being held. Such action "might delay the plan," the board chairman commented.

Nelson said the present plan "does not adequately consider the needs and possible solutions of West Texas" water problems.

STUDIES ASKED He asked that studies be made including: —A complete re-evaluation of the amount of surplus water available in East Texas, including facts based on water yields under all runoff conditions. —A detailed engineering and economic feasibility report on water delivery to the High Plains, Rolling Plains, North Central Texas, Trans-Pecos, Permian Basin, South Plains, El Paso, Fort Worth Prairie, Edwards Plateau and other areas of need in West Texas. —In addition to the recommendations made in the preliminary draft of the State Water Plan for out-of-state sources of water for West Texas, the water board was requested "to investigate possibilities of diverting water into East Texas from

CANCER TISSUE EXPERIMENTALLY TRANSPLANTED FIVE TIMES FROM OTHERS

Tests Indicate No Remaining Evidence Of Cancer

CENTREVILLE, Mich. (AP) — Larry Rink of Centreville learned Monday, after five times having cancerous tissue from other persons transplanted to him in experiments, that tests showed no evidence of cancer remaining in his 140-pound body. "We cannot say he is cured," said Dr. Ray Houghton, Rink's physician. "But if the disease had progressed normally, Rink would have been dead three months ago.

"At this time there is no evidence of any cancer in Larry." A little more than a year ago, the 21-year-old patient's right leg was amputated because of bone cancer. Houghton read a letter to his slender, 6-foot-1 patient, reporting that X-rays, laboratory tests and physical examinations at Roswell Park Memorial Institute in Buffalo, N.Y., showed no signs of cancer. The institute declined comment. The tests were taken early this month on Rink's third trip in five months to Roswell Park, where doctors had exchanged tumors between Rink and other persons. Three persons involved in the transplant experiments died. Rink, jubilant, exclaimed: "I'm going to make it now, even if it comes back — I just know it." "Now I'll get my new leg and then I hope I can find a good job and take care of my wife and baby." Rink's wife, Jeannie, 20, who expects their first child in September, is "real happy, she nearly bawled" when tests showed the disease was gone, Rink said. Houghton cautioned that "you don't call a cancer patient cured until they go five to ten years without any evidence. It takes just a few cells to lie dormant and pop up again." He said present tests cannot find microscopic cancer. The theory behind the cancer transplants is based on the fact that the body fights foreign tissue. In attacking transplanted cancer cells, it was hoped, the body would simultaneously produce antibodies to attack its own cancer. Rink said his cancer, osteogenic sarcoma, differed from that of the persons with whom he shared transplants because it was located in his lymph glands, rather than other sections of the body. Houghton asked Rink to try the experimental transplants after reading about Robert Allen, 29, of Tucson, Ariz., who was seeking someone to swap cancers in hope of conquering his disease. Allen died, as did Thomas E. Welker, 21, of Conrad, Mont., the first two persons with whom Rink exchanged cancer tissues.

A third-man involved in the experiments at Roswell Park, Harry T. Griffith, 63, of Flourtown, Pa., also died. Rink has undergone the treatment since then with two unidentified persons. He said they are alive, but reports of their conditions were not available. He said he felt that a cure was "always a possibility." "I just don't worry about it. If my times comes, I'm just going to go."

Teacher Recalls Speck Never Smiled, In A Fog

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A Dallas teacher turned her memory back 10 years and said Richard Speck "seemed to be in a fog" and "I don't think he ever smiled."

"I don't think I ever saw him smile," she added.

"He seemed sort of lost," said the teacher, who asked that her name not be used. "It didn't seem like he knew what was going on."

She taught Speck—then known as Richard Lindberg—at J. L. Long Junior High School in 1956.

"I wasn't able to teach him anything," said the teacher Monday. "I don't think anybody could get through to him. He seemed to be in a fog."

Speck was an eighth grader and rapidly ending his school career at the time. The following year, at 16, he enrolled as a ninth grader at Crozier Tech High School. But he dropped out.

The Long Junior High Teacher said, "He talked under his breath. Kids who sat near him often asked to be moved. His most identifying mark was his mouth. It was open all the time."

The teacher doubted Speck's intelligence and added that he did not seem to be in good health at that time.

"Other students didn't seem to have anything in common with him. If they were interested in what was going on in the classroom, he wasn't."

"He was sort of sulky. But he didn't talk back. Evidently at home he'd been taught not to talk back. He was a loner. He didn't have any friends in the class."

"He didn't do his work in any of his classes as far as I know. Teachers talk in the restroom. When somebody has trouble with a student, you'll usually find that somebody else has had trouble with the same student. He wasn't interested in anything, apparently."

"I know we all felt sorry for the boy, not because he was poverty stricken but because he seemed to be... well... just not there."

If Speck was a glum student, he grew out of it. Early this year, Speck was a $1.40-an-hour truck driver in Dallas. He was recalled Monday as a "sociable, likeable guy."

Huby Patterson of Patterson Meat Co., Speck's employer, recalled, "He was strong as a bull. He'd handle those 100-pound boxes the way you'd handle a 10-pound one."

"Speck always liked to take out the big truck."

He had a couple of accidents, once his truck smashed an awning at a drive-in restaurant. Another time it hooked the corner of a Mexican restaurant. Insurance paid the damages.

Speck had only worked for Patterson about three months when, early in February, he missed work, failed to phone in and got himself fired.

Curiously, after he was fired,

Leaps Through Two Windows

BEAUMONT (AP) — Onlookers stared in amazement recently as a man passing the front of a mattress company suddenly leaped through a plate glass window in the store.

About three minutes later he exited—leaping through another plate glass window at the side of the store.

After treatment of numerous minor lacerations he was booked on a charge of public drunk and destruction of property.

'GET WELL, SON'

Johnsons Visit Wounded Vets

WASHINGTON (AP) — The wounded servicemen cheered, Wind whipped across the top deck of the excursion boat. President Johnson, squinting against the setting sun, stopped and said: "Get well, son."

There were tears in the young soldier's eyes, and he turned away. More surged forward, some on crutches, some in uniform, some in bathrobes, to shake the President's hand.

With each Marine, sailor or soldier he stopped to talk to there was a kind of shyness between the commander in chief and the wounded man. There was the usual "How are you?" and "I am fine." But a poignant hesitation to go further.

"How do you say," asked Marine Pfc. Wesley Johnson, 19, of Louisville, Ky., "that you want to go back to Viet Nam?" He shook hands with the President from a wheelchair.

The President and Mrs. Johnson made an impromptu 40-minute visit Monday night aboard the boat carrying 600 wounded Viet Nam war veterans from six hospitals in the Washington area, and their friends.

The President's visit was unannounced. The Johnsons boarded from a launch as the excursion boat neared the end of a three-hour cruise down the Potomac River to the Mount Vernon area under sponsorship of Secretary of Defense and Mrs. Robert S. McNamara.

There were six bands, four beauty queens, 15 sports personalities, a clan of professional entertainers, pretty high school hostesses, 1,800 fried apple pie, beer and sunshine.

Good Hunting Is Expected

AUSTIN (AP)—Prospects are excellent for both mourning dove and white wing dove hunting this fall, says E. A. Walker, director of wildlife services of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Walker said surveys from the Rio Grande Valley indicate one of the highest white wing dove breeding populations in the last 11 years with more than 800,000 nesting birds.

He said the mourning dove count was up 8 per cent over last year and the population in the central flyway up 9 per cent.

Army Divisions To Be Combat Ready

WASHINGTON (AP) — All Army divisions in the United States have been relieved of temporary training mission and are building back toward full combat readiness, it was disclosed today.

About four months ago, the Army divisions based in the continental United States — normally considered the strategic reserve for emergency duty around the world — were about half filled with recruits and other soldiers with less than four months' training.

According to latest figures, all the Army divisions in the continental United States are down to less than 30 per cent of trainees, with one special exception, and the last of this training will be completed in October.

The Pentagon came under heavy criticism in late March after the Senate Preparedness subcommittee disclosed that the Army divisions in the United States had, in effect, been converted into training divisions, thus lessening their ability to respond to possible emergen-

Wreck Victim Takes First Halting Steps

DETROIT (AP) — Three weeks ago 16-year-old Mary Kincer, a victim since birth of cerebral palsy, took the first halting steps of her life.

"Daddy, Daddy, I'm going to be walking," she told her father, Verniel, 41, that night.

For Mary, a plump, friendly girl who looked forward to entering junior high school this fall, it was the climax of hours of practicing to walk after five months in a hospital undergoing two operations, one on each leg, last year. She had practiced daily, often with the help of a boy friend, Dennis Denham, 17.

"She only took four or five steps that first day. But she was so thrilled," says Mrs. Kincer, whose only other child, a daughter, died at age 2 of a brain tumor.

On July 2 Mary and her father went fishing, along with William Webb, 46, Kincer's uncle, and Buryak Kiser, 38, a friend of Webb.

They were headed back to the Kincers' Detroit home when the car, driven by Kincer, plunged off the road at a curve and struck a tree near Hell, Mich.

Kincer, Webb and Kiser were killed.

Mary was taken to an Ann Arbor hospital with a broken

"After weeks of pain in my back and hips, I tried DeWitt's Pills—got wonderful relief," says Mrs. Gardner, Waterloo, Iowa.

DeWitt's Pills act fast with a proven analgesic to relieve pain of backache. Their mild diuretic action helps to eliminate retained bladder wastes that can cause physical distress. If pain persists, see your doctor.

DeWitt's Pills often succeed where others fail—quickly relieve minor muscle aches and pains, too. Insist on the genuine DeWitt's Pills. At all drug counters.

A new VW is cheaper at twice the price.

How's that for an outrageous claim? A new VW at around $1700 (depending on accessories) costs less than a 4-year-old Something Else at $850.

We know you wouldn't believe it. So we've proved it. Let's say you plan to keep your next car 5 years and drive a total of 75,000 miles. Here's how it might work out:

| | New Volkswagen | Used Something Else |
|------------------|----------------------|------------------------|
| Price | $1,700 | $850 |
| Gas @ 32¢/gal | 82¢ (29 mi/gal) | 1,600 (15 mi/gal) |
| Tires @ $28 ea. | 112 (40,000 mi/tyr) | 336 (20,000 mi/tyr) |
| Oil @ 60¢ qt. | 42 (2.7 qts fills #) | 57 (needs 5 qts) |
| Anti-freeze | 0 (air-cooled eng.) | 45 (water-cooled eng.) |
| Cost for 5 years | $2,672 | $2,997 |

So you're at least $206 ahead if you buy the VW. (We didn't even count the extra $100 it saves on lower insurance and registration fees in many states.)

If you buy the new VW, you won't have to worry about why the first owner sold it. (And you won't have to pay for the expensive ailments that can hit an old Something Else.)

Now then. We don't have a crystal ball, but today's market is an interesting clue to the future.

After 5 years, the used car will probably be a 9-year-old candidate for the junk heap. But the VW will probably just be reaching its prime.

Check the classified ads and you'll find 5-year-old VWs selling for $600 to $900, depending on the shape they're in!

But you can do much better than that. Don't sell your VW at all!

(Think of the money you'll save by driving it for another 5 years.)

We Custom Reupholster To Complement Even Louis XIV

Had a craftsman delivered unfit wares to King Louis, he'd have lost his head at the guillotine . . . or at least been sent to the Bastille. Just as they must have watched every detail, we strive for perfection in every custom reupholstery job we do. Our fabric selection is broader than the kings in ages past ever dreamed of and we use the most meticulous methods passed down through the ages. Consult with us about custom reupholstery on fine furniture of any period. We promise to treat you like a king. In fact you'll flip your wig with pleasure. All you need do is dial AM 7-2832.

Are you willing to go as low as $1681.00 for a new VW?

We don't sell status. Just a car. One that gets about 29 mpg, averages 40,000 miles on a set of tires, and hardly uses oil between changes.

Of course, the fact that it's practical is no secret. And everybody is going to know that you're saving money. But that's the price you pay for Volkswagen.

Guest Tells Of Banking Institution

Mrs. C. W. Mahoney was guest speaker during the Monday evening meeting of the Cactus Chapter of the American Business Women's Association at Coker's Restaurant. Mrs. Orville Bryant presided.

Mrs. Mahoney, who is employed by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, discussed the merits of that banking institution. She said that the savings department provided for security in later years, and that the loan system provides for financing of homes.

Mrs. J. D. Price gave a vocational talk on working with people at the admissions and dismissal department at Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital.

A discussion on various fund raising projects was led by Mrs. A. C. Moore. She also read invitations to attend the anniversary celebrations of ABWA chapters in Abilene and Odessa.

Unit Plans Installation

Plans for a July 29 officer installation ceremony were discussed during the Monday evening meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary, Howard County Unit 355. The members met at the Legion Hut with Mrs. Byron Hill presiding.

Plans were also discussed for delegates to attend the July 22-24 convention in Corpus Christi. Those to attend are Mrs. Leonard Barlow, Mrs. J. G. Littlejohn and Mrs. Hill.

Mrs. Hill announced that there will be a called meeting July 25 at the Legion Hut at 7:30 p.m. Replacement officers will be elected and a scholarship to Howard County Junior College will be awarded to a veteran's child.

WCSA Appoints School Delegates

Two delegates were selected to attend the school of missions in Abilene during the Monday evening meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. The members met at the church with Mrs. Bob Rybolt presiding.

To attend the July 25-29 school are Mrs. Raymond Hamby and Mrs. Rybolt.

High Tallies For Cosden Duplicate

Five tables were in play for duplicate games Sunday afternoon at Cosden Country Club when Mrs. Ayra McGann and George D. Pike placed first. Mr. and Mrs. Terry Steyer tied for second and third places with Mrs. Ward Hall and Mrs. Carl Blomfield, and fourth place went to Mrs. Truman Jones and Mrs. Charles Tompkins. Players were reminded that Master Points will be given at next Sunday's games.

YOUNG MODERNS

Look In Pantry For Natural Beauty Aids

By VIVIAN BROWN
Associated Press Feature Writer

We forget there are such things as natural beauty aids to be found in the pantry, refrigerator, vegetable garden.

Books have been written on the subject and occasionally an old-fashioned beauty recipe is whispered along or handed down from mother to daughter.

Modern medicine takes the view that there could be something to old time formulas and witch doctor brews. Some new healing potions have been formulated by delving into old-wives tales.

A new book, "Natural Beauty Secrets," by Deborah Rutledge rounds up lots of these old ideas and recipes.

Some will be familiar to young people, the use of lemon on the elbows, cucumber juice on the face, but there are many more. A chapter, Pimples and Other Problems, contains recipes for minor blemishes that afflict some people at certain times. (Miss Rutledge points out that serious conditions, acne or eczema, require the advice of dermatologists.)

The pimple recipe goes like this: Mix equal parts of mutton tallow (pure lanolin) glycerin and castor oil. Melt it over high heat to blend, let it cool, and keep in a glass jar. It is applied to pimples until healed.

In a recipe where low heat is required, she advises the use of a double boiler. Enamel, china, glass or earthenware are better than metal utensils for mixing beauty aids.

Here's another pimple cure given to Miss Rutledge by a woman who got it from her grandmother:

Peel and cut up two or three onions. Cook the onions in lard until they are transparent. Let cool, put between pieces of cheese cloth, and apply to pimples. Leave on as a poultice.

She comments that old-fashioned brown or yellow laundry soap may bring results. This method is used by many old-timers today. The soap is applied to pimples and left on. Sometimes it will dry them. Sometimes it will bring them to a head. This was an old-fashioned remedy used for boils in grandma's day.

Blackheads plague youthful skins and Miss Rutledge suggests this old time meal wash as an excellent one for ridding the skin of the blemishes.

Mix together 14 ounces of powdered oatmeal, 8 ounces of powdered almond meal, 4 ounces of powdered orris root, 1 ounce of powdered castile soap.

After it is thoroughly mixed it should be moistened with about one tablespoon of hot water to make a paste. Apply it to the skin with finger tips and rub into blackhead areas. It should then be rinsed with cold water.

For large pores, there is the egg white mask that Miss Rutledge refers to as the Wonder Mask.

Clean your face. Separate white of egg from yolk, and apply the white to the face. Smear it on, leave it on for about 15 minutes and rinse off with tepid water.

Freckles are treated with lemon juice (pat it on, let it dry) buttermilk (pat it on, let it dry).

Pantry remedies for sunburn include vinegar (pat on lavishly—it's supposed to remove the sting.)

H. J. Morrisons Hosts Gathering

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Morrison were hosts for a weekend family reunion at their cabin on Champion Creek Lake, Colorado City.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leo White, Austin; Leon White, Clifton; Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lakey, Parker White and Eugene Parker, all of Tenaha; Jack Bowlin, Ackerly; Mr. and Mrs. Van Carr and son, Kelly, of Welch; and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Puckett, Mrs. Mary Ragsdale and R. L. Evans, all of Big Spring.

The covered dish luncheon was served on the cabin patio from a table covered with a red and white cloth and centered with a display of multicolored wild flowers in an antique iron kettle. The flower arrangement was done by Mrs. Ragsdale.

Family reunions are more precious as the years go by and circumstances a n d distance make it more difficult for brothers and sisters to bring their children "home" for a weekend with the grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Smith were lucky enough to have a full day of reminiscing this weekend with their children and their husbands and wives as well as eight grandchildren. Those who shared the big dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, who live here; Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Grisam, Hopewell, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Norris Smith, Stamford; Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Jones, Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Smith, Garland; and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, Evergreen, Colo.

Mrs. Vance Lebkowsky, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kelly, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Lurting, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Shapland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Gossett and Dr. and Mrs. George Peacock. The Shaplands are hoping for a week in Rudoso soon.

The Clayton-Bettle family is vacationing at Red River, due back this weekend, I believe. Kay will be participating in the Rainbow Anniversary Tea Aug. 7.

Couples Attend Domino Party

KNOTT (SC)—An ice cream supper was the highlight of the Thursday evening domino games at the Community Center. Six couples attended and the next meeting will be Aug. 7. The public is invited and each couple is asked to bring homemade ice cream.

Mu Zetas Pick Type Of Service

Service projects were selected by Mu Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi when the group met Monday evening in the Community Room of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association building.

Mrs. Art Clonts presided and served as hostess. During the business session, Mr. Charles Stalnaker was named vice president to replace Mrs. Edward White who has moved to Abilene.

The chapter agreed to host one of the monthly birthday parties at Big Spring State Hospital and to sponsor a local junior high school student by providing her with clothing and supplies needed for her education.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a pink cloth and centered with an arrangement of pale pink carnations. Fifteen attended.

The next meeting will be a salad supper Aug. 29 with Mrs. Bobby Suggs as hostess.

A LOVELIER YOU

If Allergic To Sun Apply Tan Make-Up

By MARY SUE MILLER

A youthful Lovely writes: My skin becomes irritated after the least bit of sunning. This never happened before. My doctor says that I have developed an allergy to sun. He advised me to stay in the shade and under no circumstance to try to get a tan. So I feel and look like an invalid. All the girls I know are a bronze color and look wonderful. Help me!

The Answer: People with sun allergies have a rough time, but more because it limits outdoor activity than tanning. Make-up and fashion can be used as fine stand-ins for a tan.

Just film on a powder base that is slightly darker than your skin tone and you achieve a beautiful biscuit coloring. Those in the know consider the shade more attractive than the obvious deep browns. Worn over powder base, a pinky-brown blusher furthers the sunned look. Be careful, though, not to overdo or the effect loses conviction.

Skilfully applied, suntan leg make-up forms a great substitute for the real thing. Actually your arms are the only problem and there's where fashion comes to the rescue in the guise of T-shirts, blouses and skinnny dresses with long sleeves. And they're the newest!

Fashion colors such as white, light beige and pale blue also aid your cause, for the reason that biscuit make-up looks darker for the contrast.

Try those gambits — you'll feel better and look fabulous!

TIPS FOR TEENS

Fifty ways to ideal skin and natural make-up for young adults — ages 13 to 19 — are detailed in my booklet, "Model Tips for Teens." Advice covers corrective skin care; how to use make-up to accent good points and play down problems; fashion model make-up tricks. Tribe Returns To Title Scrap After Slump

By HAL BOCK Associated Press Sports Writer In the middle of July, what's more natural than a two-week vacation? Now that the Cleveland Indians' power structure has returned from its midsummer holiday, Manager Birdie Tebbets can get back to the business of the American League pennant race.

The Indians continued their sudden assault, tagging the California pitching staff Monday for four home runs in a 6-1 victory. That gave Tebbets' club 13 homers in two days. Cleveland erupted for nine homers in a doubleheader sweep over Detroit Sunday.

Palmer Given Golden Opportunity At Akron

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — If Arnold Palmer is going to complete his personal golf grand slam, he might never have a better opportunity than this week in the golden anniversary PGA Championship at the massive Firestone Country Club.

Palmer shot himself out of the tournament in the third round when he took a horrendous 8 on the 625-yard No. 18 and finished in a tie for seventh.

Palmer now has a chance to join the other members of the Big Three should he come in first this week in the 72-hole tournament which begins Thursday and ends Sunday.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Holt Sports dialogue: MATT HAZELTINE, veteran lineman for the San Francisco 49ers:

"Pro football has been fun. There were times in college when I wasn't too fond of Coach Lynn Waldorf. Oh, I'm not speaking about him as a person, but about college football. It was a drudge. Three hours of work, work, work every afternoon and evening, hardly ever touching the football, drilling on fundamentals until it came out of our helmets. In pro football there is more to know. Here we have what we call defensive keys. There are movies to tell you you're lying if you try to explain away a bad move, or if you didn't key on the right man. But the hours are better and the work is more fun. I'd hate to give up football. I'd like to go three or four more years. Friendships in football are closer than those made in other businesses. Even after I'm through, I think I'd like to coach in an advisory capacity for a token amount, like Y. A. Tittle is doing. I'd even do it for nothing, maybe."

ond run against starter Gaylord Perry. Henry retired Manny Mota on a fly ball, then departed as Frank Linzy came on.

The appearance was Henry's third this season, and his one-out performance was the 10th time he's pitched only one-third of an inning. In fact, in those 23 games, Henry has pitched only 16 1/3 innings.

Charley Rodriguez Hurls Yanks To Important Win

The Yanks clinched a tie for first place in Sophomore Teen-Age Baseball League standings by edging the Angels, 3-2, here Monday night behind the stylish two-hit hurling of Charley Rodriguez.

The win was the tenth in 13 starts for the Yanks, who wind up their regular season at 6 o'clock Saturday in a makeup contest with the Rebels.

The Angeles tallied an unearned run in the second and used it in the fifth.

The Angels tallied an unearned run in the second and used it in the fifth.

John Carmichael, Chicago Columnist:

"Guys who wouldn't accept free tickets to a baseball game or a football game will pay to see a fight, any fight. And now, with not too much going for them, they'll grab at every match. So whatever has happened to boxing, it still holds occasional relief for the man who will not accept a substitute outlet. However, he can't even be particular, any more, as to the quality of the fight or the credentials of the opponent."

Lamar Hunt, owner of the Kansas City AFL team:

"I'm not bitter about leaving Dallas. If we were still here the Cowboys and the Texans would probably be drawing 9,800 every Sunday. Don't misunderstand. Dallas is enthusiastic about pro football — it will stay home every Sunday to watch the local team's road game on TV."

Leo Durocher, manager of the Chicago Cubs:

"Henry Aaron is the best right-handed hitter since Rogers Hornsby. Sure, I'll have to say that Hornsby was a better hitter. I've always said that Ted Williams was the best left-handed hitter in the league. I can remember a game I was televising in Milwaukee back when I was with the 'Game of the Week.' The guy pitching against Aaron, I forget what it was now, threw Henry a change-up and he hit it 84 feet over the fence in left field. Now he figures he'd better not throw that again. So he jams him with a fast ball. Next thing you know, whoosh, Aaron hits it on a line over the right field fence, just inside the foul line."

Virginia Kay, Chicago columnist:

"This big question is: Who's going to win 30 games first — Sandy Koufax or the Cubs?"

Sam Mele, manager of the Minnesota Twins, on why his team is having its troubles this season:

"Last year we averaged five runs per game. The season we're averaging under two. A year ago we made the double plays to get out of a jam. We aren't doing that any more. A year ago we could use speed, utilize the hit-and-run to keep ahead, or get there. But, so far in '66, we have been behind in three-quarters of our games. Sometimes three-four-fives runs behind. So your speed is handicuffed. You can't play baseball. . . Jim Grant isn't having a good year but we don't get him any runs. The big thing is, we can't get going. We're not the same team in putting our game together."

TEXAS' POVERTY WAR—2

Director Backs Program's Cost

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Texas War on Poverty, part of President Johnson's Great Society, costs money, but the state director says it will have money—as well as people—in the final analysis. The second of a three-part survey.

By ROBERT HEARD
AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Walter Richter, the man Gov. John Connally picked for state director of the War on Poverty, says there is a simple, one-two-three way to look at the war.

"One, there is poverty," he says. "Anybody who isn't blind can see this."

"Two, aside from the human misery, which is considerable, poverty is extremely costly. Crime breeds in slum areas, and crime costs this nation $27 billion each year."

DISEASES
"Diseases such as tuberculosis and venereal disease spread from slum areas."

"The people in the slums have no buying power. If they had money, they'd spend it. And the businessman would get it and place more orders. This means increased production and more tax revenue."

"And welfare costs us millions."

"Three, can something be done about poverty? We have determined that by training and educating people you can equip them to help themselves."

"I don't believe there is a basis for the argument these people don't want help and won't do anything with it if they get it. I admit there is a hard core, but we salvage 75 per cent of those who go into the Job Corps, for example. Considering the type of hard-core person we get, I personally think 75 per cent is very good."

RATIO
"Any hard-nosed businessman should say, 'I'll spend a dime anytime to bring in 90 cents to the community.' This is the ratio of federal money they can get in the Community Action Program for example. This program's projects are decided by local groups."

This is also the ratio for money spent in setting up state offices like Richter's.

The legislature appropriated $35,000 last year for the office, which meant Richter could spend up to $350,000 in the past fiscal year. The total program in Texas so far has cost $80 million.

"We will return a good deal of this this year," Richter said, "because we were slow getting organized."

Texas asked for only 48 per cent of the federal money it could have requested in the poverty war last year. As Richter said, Texas simply was not organized to take advantage of all that was available.

GOOD JOB
What about relations between Richter's office and the regional headquarters for the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO), headed by Bill Crook?

"Walter Richter and his staff have done an outstanding job," says Crook.

"Dr. Crook has a good staff, and we have a very fine relationship with them," says Richter. "And this is very important. We've gotten involved in their business somewhat, and they've gotten involved in ours."

"This doesn't sound much like the rumors of a feud between the governor's office and the OEO that were particularly wide spread last year."

VETO
Lending fire to the smoke was the governor's veto of a Neighborhood Youth Corps project. It was the first veto by a governor of an OEO project. Congress subsequently gave OEO director Sargent Shriver the power to override a governor's veto if in Shriver's judgment the veto was capricious, but of the dozen vetoes used so far none has been overridden.

Crook, an eloquent advocate for virtually everything connected with the War on Poverty, has a short comment on Gov. John Connally's veto: "It was a bad program."

Tomorrow, What specifically has the Poverty War done in Texas?

DPS Requests Budget Boost

AUSTIN (AP)—The Department of Public Safety has asked for $51.1 million for the 1968-69 biennium.

Col. Homer Garrison, director, Monday told examiners from legislative and the governor's budget offices the department needs $24.3 million for 1968 and $26.8 million for 1969.

The budget for 1967 is $18.4 million.

Garrison said he plans to fill 106 vacancies in the highway patrol by the end of 1968, and add another 214 officers in 1969, making a total of 1,221 men.

Texas would have to have 2,290 highway patrolmen now to meet federally recommended levels. Garrison said he did not plan a crash program like the one California has instituted (to double that state's 2,600-man force) because he didn't want to assimilate new officers into the force too fast or tax the department's training facilities.

The department plans to construct a new rational office in Houston, new district offices in Beaumont and San Antonio, a new subdistrict office in El Paso and new radio stations at Sulphur Springs and Victoria.

The department divides up the state into six regions. There are two districts in each region, and five subdistricts in the state. Facilities for these offices are rented.

DEAR ABBY
The Nose Problem

DEAR ABBY: I am writing about a problem some people might think is stupid, but to me it is very important. I have a very big nose. Abby, and to a girl it matters a lot. I have tried to ignore it, but so many people have told me that if it weren't for my nose I would be a beautiful girl.

I get depressed every time I look in the mirror. My mother says that my big nose is a gift from God to keep me humble. Can this be true? SCHNOZZ

DEAR SCHNOZZ: If your nose were a "gift from God to keep you humble," why would God give a plastic surgeon the gift of knowledge to make you beautiful?

DEAR ABBY: I understand if a person has an object in his yard which attracts children, and a child gets hurt on it, the owner can be sued. We have grandchildren and would like to put up some playground equipment for them, but they will not be with us all the time so there would be a lot of time that the equipment would just be there in our back yard.

Now we wouldn't mind if the neighborhood children used that equipment, but we certainly cannot watch them all the time. The mothers around here turn their children loose and don't care where they go. If one of them wanders over and gets hurt in our yard, would we be responsible?

If so, does this mean we can't put playground equipment in for our own grandchildren? It doesn't seem fair. How about if the neighbors signed a release?

WORRIED GRANDFATHER
DEAR GRANDFATHER: How about asking a lawyer? In the meantime, how about putting a good secure fence around your yard, and a nice big sign which says, "KEEP OUT!"

DEAR ABBY: A very nice young bachelor has recently joined the office where I am employed. I am not a matchmaker, but I know a lovely unattached young lady I think he would like. I have a feeling these two would find a lot in common and I would like very much to get them together. How do I go about it without being too obvious?

Should I mention to him that I know a nice girl and then wait for him to offer to take her out? That seems rather presumptuous, and I'm afraid it might make the girl appear too available. What do you suggest?

TIME'S AWASTIN
DEAR TIME'S: Arrange an informal evening at your home and invite the young man and the young woman separately. And the more people you invite, the less "obvious" you'll be. If they have as much in common as you think they have, they'll discover each other.

'Palace' Covers Spectrum Of Variety Entertainment

By NICK VANOFF
(For Cynthia Lowry)

EDITOR'S NOTE: Nick Vanoff, executive producer of ABC's "Hollywood Palace," discovered for himself one of Ed Sullivan's secrets — that good music, classical performers and serious artists are enjoyed by the mass public. That is, if they are given in small doses and mixed into the right medium, which is the variety show.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—If serious music shows attract small television audiences, as the rating services indicate, why not put serious artists as guest stars on mass audience appeal shows?

This has been our practice on "The Hollywood Palace" and will continue to be so, increasingly, on future shows. Among those we have used on our show are artists who are infrequent prime-time performers — guitarist Luiz Bonfá; opera stars Anna Moffo and Mary Costa; ballet dancers Jacques D'Amboise, Margot Fonteyn, Rudolf Nureyev, Zizi Jeanmaire; Mahalia Jackson; Ballet Folklorico of Mexico; Yma Sumac; the Swingle Singers.

I must say that when we started putting classical artists on "The Palace," we were prepared for indifferent reaction. But both Bill Harbach and I felt that as long as we had the best circus acts, the best song-and-dance acts and the best vaudeville acts as our goal, why not the best serious acts as well?

Proof that these have more than held their own is the fact that we are going after — for repeat performances — most of the artists we have already used. We will also try to get a Leontyne Price, Bunraku — the Japanese doll theatre — and pianist Van Cliburn.

Local District Has Complied

Sam Anderson, superintendent of the Big Spring Independent School District, said Monday afternoon that the district has filed a certificate of compliance with the Office of Health, Education and Welfare for the 1964 U.S. Civil Rights Act.

Anderson said that he had recently been notified by Herbert Kane, attorney and original director for Area IV, that he has recommended to all offices concerned that Big Spring is in full compliance with the law.

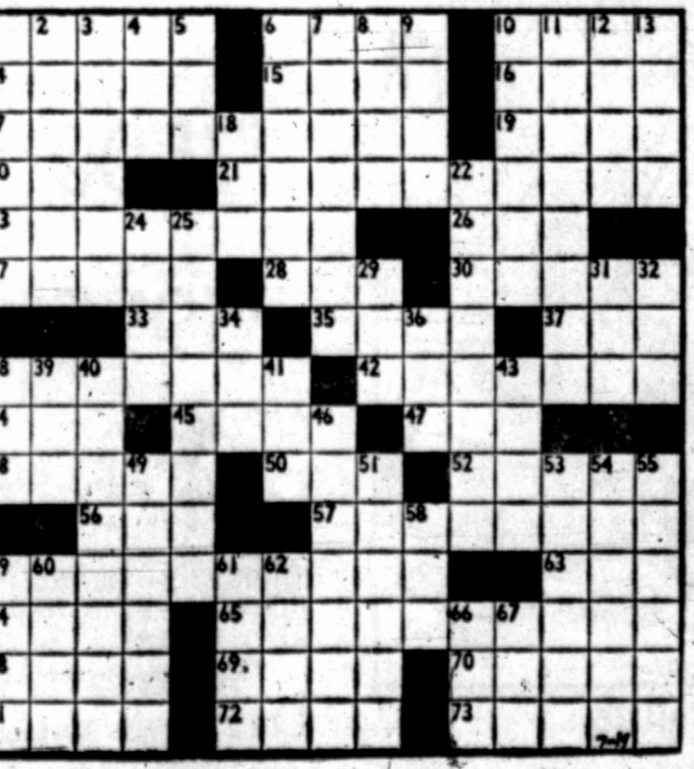

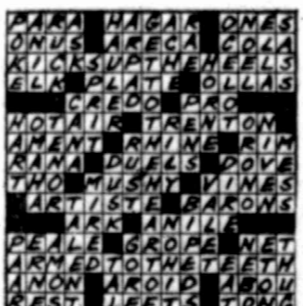

The U.S. Office of Education has sent letters to 32 Texas school districts which reported no progress toward faculty desegregation, Leon Graham, assistant state education commissioner, said Monday.

Fifty-eight other districts received letters because "the Office of Education evidently felt they should have done more than they reported they would do."

The office has the power under the 1964 U.S. Civil Rights Act, to halt federal aid to school districts which do not comply with desegregation guidelines issued by the agency.

Farmlands Needing Rain

AUSTIN (AP)—Irrigation became active in Plains cotton and sorghum acreage last week as farmers hoped for rain to restore depleted soil moisture, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Harvest of several major crops was under way.

The department's weekly crop-weather report said wheat harvest is now complete, sorghum combining is 8 per cent finished, cotton harvest is barely under way and corn harvest has begun in the Lower Rio Grande valley.

The first bale of cotton ginned this year was in Starr County July 8, compared to June 16 for last year's initial bale.

"Lower Valley cotton harvest will not get in full swing, however, until August," the report said.

Rice made good growth, with harvest under way in several Coastal Bend counties.

Practically all High Plains potato sheds are in full operation. Onion harvest continued in volume on the High Plains, and harvest of cucumbers, cabbage, carrots and green beans has begun.

Early Bird Can Save Money
DALLAS (AP)—The early bird gets the bargain at Dallas corporation court.

Traffic ticket holders who show up in court 10 to 15 minutes before their cases are to be heard usually get their fines cut in half if they have reasonably good driving records.

Ten dollar fines are cut to $5; fines of $25 are slashed to $10. The defendant pays up and leaves in a matter of minutes.

A spokesman said the reductions were necessary to handle the tremendous volume of cases docketed for the city's four day courts.
