Firebombs, Stones Thrown; Six Persons Severely Burned

WAUKEGAN, Ill. (AP) — A homemade gasoline firebomb smashed into an automobile Sunday night and burned six passengers during the peak of the third night of rioting in a Negro district.

POLICE NAB 63

Sixty-three persons, most of them Negroes, were arrested.

Police Chief Walter Riley said 400 to 500 Negroes spilled into South Genesee Street, a commercial artery in the heart of the South East neighborhood, and stoned passersby, smashed windows and tossed firebombs.

Capt. J. W. Johnson said, "The worst thing I saw was those people who were burnt. There were little kids with their flesh coming off and women screaming."

The firebomb victims were Gabriel Albarra, 57; his wife, Mary, 52; their children, Jesus, 15, and Esther, 6; and Jose Lopez, 50, and his wife, Nemesia, 54. All are residents of Waukegan.

Esther Albarra was rushed to Cook County Hospital in Chicago — 35 miles south of Waukegan—where she was reported in serious condition.

The other victims were in serious condition at Waukegan hospitals.

ROADBLOCKS

The fire department extinguished 10 blazes — set by firebombs — during the evening. Waukegan's 100-man police department was reinforced by 20 state troopers, 40 deputies from the Lake County sheriff's office and several police from nearby communities.

They barricaded five blocks of South Genesee Street and ordered the residents of the area to remain indoors. The South East district is where the majority of Waukegan's 6,000 Negroes live. Some 64,000 persons live in the Waukegan area.

Sgt. Joseph Balzrina of the Lake County sheriff's police said that when he arrived: "This whole area was smoke and fire. There were a lot of people over there (a drive-in liquor store) smashing windows."

REASON CITED

Shortly after midnight Friday, a mob of 350 Negro youths damaged autos and smashed store windows following the arrest of a man who tossed a bottle into the street.

Patrolman Richard Mohrmann said the rioting Sunday was triggered by two white men who walked into a Negro tavern. They were robbed and the tires of their car were punctured, Mohrmann said.

Soon after, bands of Negro teenagers began milling in the streets and the stoning and bottle-throwing began.

RINGED BY GUARDSMEN

Screams, Taunts Greet Marchers In Wawatosa

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Civil rights marchers, shielded by National Guard bayonets from screaming and taunting throngs of whites, picketed in suburban Wawatosa Sunday night for the 10th night in a row.

TO RETURN

The marchers, who returned to Milwaukee with hundreds of battle-dressed guardsmen on all sides, plan to go back again tonight to Wawatosa — the suburb dubbed the "City of Homes."

"It wouldn't take much to touch it off," said Adj. Gen. Ralph Olson, commander of the Wisconsin National Guard. "All it would take is a little spark."

So far the tension has produced no violence and only a handful of arrests. The 477 guardsmen, ordered into Wawatosa Sunday after Gov. Warren P. Knowles had failed to get civil rights leaders to agree to a cooling-off period and a conference, were put on a standby basis pending today's developments.

Knowles must decide today

whether to send them back into the area.

EDICT GIVEN

"We're going back because we have a problem out there," said Nate Harwell, 22, publicity chairman for the Milwaukee Youth Council of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. "Judge Cannon has got to bend."

The council's protests against membership by Circuit Judge Robert C. Cannon in the allegedly racially restricted Fraternal Order of Eagles reached an emotional peak Sunday night — the 10th night of picketing in Cannon's tree-lined neighborhood of expensive brick and stone homes.

Maj. Gen. John Dunlap, commander of the 32nd Infantry Division, National Guard, estimated that 2,000 to 3,500 persons jammed sidewalks and curbsides as the predominantly Negro band of 200 marchers walked five miles through downtown Milwaukee and into the neighborhood.

COMPLICATED

Wauwatosa police and sheriff's deputies worked feverishly to keep the hostile crowd under control. Their job was complicated by a band of about 30 counterpicketers. Some of them chanted, "Burn, blackie, burn," and "Kill, kill, kill the jungle bunnies."

The civil rights marchers were allowed to picket in front of Cannon's home. Cannon, former adviser to the Major League Baseball Players Association, was in Columbus, Ohio, for a speaking engagement and was not expected back until Wednesday. Cannon has refused a council demand that he resign from the Eagles.

Guardsmen, waiting nearby in full battle gear and with fixed bayonets, were summoned to the scene. They took up positions shielding both groups of picketers from the spectators.

PRIEST TAUNTED

Most of the taunts were directed at the Rev. James Groppi, a white Roman Catholic priest who serves as director of the NAACP council. Groppi was in the front ranks of the marchers.

"Lynch that Roman Catholic priest," someone yelled from the sidewalk. "Groppi, you crumb."

After picketing 30 minutes, the marchers reassembled in the streets. Guardsmen took positions on all four sides and escorted them to the Milwaukee line.

Record Rain Assures Bumper Cotton Crop

Deluge Left 2.10 Inches In Gauges

Highly beneficial rains, not expected but nevertheless welcome, swept across Howard county last night. They left from 6 inch to as much as three inches of moisture on fields and pastures and were hailed by farmers as a further guarantee of a record breaking crop this fall.

NEW RECORDS

The rainfall set a new record for the amount of moisture to fall on an Aug. 29, exceeding materially the old record of .50 inch gauged at the U.S. Experiment Station back in 1915.

The Experiment Station gauge showed 2.10 for last night's deluge.

The moisture brought August's precipitation to 4.67 inches and the total for 1966 to within an inch of the 65 year average. Total rain so far in 1966 is now 17.01.

Jimmy Taylor, former county agent and now vice president of the First National Bank, said that the rains could do no harm and were certainly welcome. He pointed out that some sections of the county were in need of added moisture.

Unfortunately one of these areas — the Lomax district — received some of the lighter rains of last night. The gauges in that community showed from .40 to .60 inch. The extreme northeastern part of the county was also in need of rain and last night's offering was the answer to its problem. Buddy Barr, Vincent, said that from 1.40 inches to 1.75 inches fell to bring an end to the budding crisis.

HEAVIEST

Heaviest rains reported seemed to have been in the Elbow community where three inches was measured. In the same vicinity, other gauges showed from 2.50 up.

Here in town, all parts of the city were soaked. While the 2.10 reported at the Experiment Station was the heaviest, there were many reports of from 1.50 inch to 1.70 inch in all sections. The Vealmoor-Ackerly area had from 1.20 to 2.00 inches. At Knott, several readings showed the same amount—1.50. Luther had 1.20 and about half way from Big Spring to Luther, two inches was reported. Fairview had an inch. Wilkinson ranch to the west, had 1.10 and other ranches in that area reported an inch or better.

The Coahoma community, which was also needing rain, had from an inch to an inch and a half and some heavier falls were reported.

Moss Creek lake had only .60 inch. Forsan gauged 1.20 and Chalk 40. South of Big Spring, near the Trinity Memorial Park, two inches fell.

Texas Electric Service Co. switch station had 1.40 and its station in Lamesa showed 1.20. At Colorado City station, 1.42 inches of rain fell, and (See RAIN, Page 6-A, Col. 1)

'COULD RESULT IN A SERIOUS DEPRESSION'

Inflation Concerns Truman

LBJ Disagrees

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Harry S. Truman has warned that spiraling interest rates could result in a serious depression.

With a rare public statement issued from his Independence, Mo., home, Truman joined many members of Congress in expressing concern at the upward movement in the cost of borrowing.

INCREASED RATE

The Federal Reserve Board last December increased the discount rate it charges member banks and revised reserve requirements in moves to curtail lending. Since then, the prime interest rate charged by commercial banks has risen from 4.5 per cent to six per cent.

"We are told," Truman said, "that this (Federal Reserve Board) action was necessary to forestall inflation." But he added, "What is more likely to happen is that we will bring on a precipitous deflation if we persist in high interest rates. The result could be a serious depression."

The former president said higher interest rates are an added burden on all governments — federal, state and local — and that "added interest costs end up as a further tax on the consumer."

"We know from long experience that a drastic rise in interest rates works a hardship on the consuming public," he said. "It only benefits the privileged few."

Truman said he rarely comments "on matters which I am confident are receiving the concern and attention of the administration."

"But I thought this was a matter which had reached the point where it became necessary for me to speak," he added. "There is yet time to remedy the situation."

Federal Reserve Board chairman William McChesney Martin Jr. could not be reached for comment. A board spokesman noted, however, that Martin has said the problem is that borrowing has outstripped savings and that spending has outstripped the ability of the economy to produce goods and services.

ANSWER QUESTIONS

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon commented on the economy in answering questions about campaign issues put to them separately by The Associated Press.

Humphrey said the economic boom is likely to lessen the impact of inflation on the voters. Nixon said the increased cost of living could be a greater campaign issue than the war in Viet Nam.

Union Claims Amendment Unnecessary, Files Suit

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas AFL-CIO asked the Texas Supreme Court today to strike from the Nov. 8 general election ballot the proposed constitutional amendment abolishing the poll tax and substituting annual voter registration.

The high court is in summer recess. Its next term begins Oct. 5.

PERMISSION

To consider the question of the legality of the amendment, the court first must grant the labor federation permission to file its formal petition challenging the election. No hearing date was set immediately.

Named as defendants are Secretary of State John Hill, Comptroller Robert S. Calvert and State Treasurer Jesse James.

The petition points out that the federal courts have held the poll tax unconstitutional, making unnecessary a voter decision on removing the voter requirement.

The suit complains that the ballot states that voters are to be asked to "repealing the poll tax as a requirement for voting."

'ACADEMIC'

Because the federal courts have already settled this, the petition says, the question is "already mooted" and the "expressed will" of the voters on this question is purely academic.

The ballot makes no mention of the provision in the amendment requiring that annual registration be used in place of the poll tax for qualifying voters, the petition complains.

Because of this, the labor leaders say, the amendment fails to meet tests imposed in previous court rulings that a proposition on the ballot be "submitted in such language as to constitute a fair portrayal of the chief features of the proposed law or amendment . . ."

Plaintiffs include H. S. Brown, president, and Roy Evans, secretary-treasurer, of the labor federation, who fought the annual registration bill passed in the February special session of the legislature. The suit was authorized in July by the federation's executive board.

The AFL-CIO and a number of other organizations backed a system of permanent or lifetime voter registration. Gov. John Connally and legislative leaders favored annual registration.

If the voters adopt the poll tax amendment, annual registration would become a part of the constitution, which may be changed only with a two-thirds of the legislature and a majority of voters in a general election.

Red Guards Demonstrate, But Heed Peace Warning

TOKYO (AP) — Thousands of young Red Guards demonstrated in front of the Soviet Embassy in Peking today but heeded official warnings against violence.

Japanese newsmen reported from the Chinese capital that tens of thousands of young Chinese marched on the embassy shouting "antirevisionist" slogans. Chinese leaders accuse the Russians of revising Communist ideology.

CONTRAST

However, the demonstrators — in contrast to the rowdiness of recent days — were orderly. The official Peking People's Daily said the Red Guards and other demonstrators have heeded official calls to maintain discipline.

Red Guards planned two days of demonstrations in front of the embassy as the current purge swept across China and into Lhasa, the ancient capital of Tibet.

Large portraits of Marx, Lenin, Stalin and Mao Tze-tung faced the Soviet Embassy building as the Red Guards prepared to rename the street leading to the embassy. Known as the Street of the Prince's Well, it is being renamed Prevent Revisionism Street.

CAR STOPPED

The Soviet government lodged an "emphatic" protest with the Chinese Embassy in Moscow over the weekend charging hooliganism outside the Soviet Embassy and demanding effective measures to protect Soviet diplomats.

The official Yugoslav news agency Tanjug reported from Peking that Red Guard demonstrators occupied the street leading to the embassy Friday, making it difficult for foreign diplomats to attend a film showing and cocktail party at the embassy.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, said the crowd threw stones at a Soviet official and stopped an embassy car.

up in previous demonstrations. They were given written invitations to the demonstration today.

WARNED

The Peking People's Daily said the demonstrators, warned against using force rather than reasoning, are "determined to become, like the people's liberation army, model workers in applying mass discipline."

Marshal Chu Teh, an 80-year-old patriarch of the Chinese Communist party, said Sunday "a great, unprecedented proletarian cultural revolution is surging through our country," the New China News Agency reported.

The agency said the Red

Guards have changed names of streets, shops and schools across China, giving them new names with "a revolutionary meaning" to propagate Mao's thought and "reflect the spirit of the socialist era."

The purge is designed to wash away old ideas, old culture, old customs and old habits, the agency said.

Tobacco, cigarettes, wine and liquor are among items banned since the revolutionary movement began nine days ago. Japanese newsmen speculated whether the ban would be observed by party Chairman Mao, known as a chain smoker.

Warplanes Blast Four Viet PT Boats, Sink 2

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — U.S. planes caught four North Vietnamese torpedo boats in the Gulf of Tonkin today, sank two and damaged the other two, a spokesman said.

EXPLOSION

In South Viet Nam, the Viet Cong made two unsuccessful attempts to block the chief shipping channel between Saigon and the sea.

One explosion near a U.S. Navy minesweeper caused no casualties and only minor damage to the ship. Sunday a Communist mine sank a small South Vietnamese minesweeper in the Long Tao Channel but the ship went down near the river-bank, leaving the waterway open to traffic.

Last Tuesday a Communist mine sank the American cargo ship Baton Rouge Victory in the same channel with a loss of seven lives.

U.S. and other allied ground forces engaged in only minor skirmishes with the enemy after a weekend of light fighting, but the South Vietnamese reported killing 73 Viet Cong in two engagements.

A company of about 150 South Vietnamese militiamen took moderate losses in an ambush near the Cambodian border northeast of Saigon and claimed 14 Communists were killed.

In the air-sea battle in the Gulf of Tonkin, three of the Communist torpedo boats were spotted early today 70 miles southeast of Haiphong by fighter-bombers from the carrier Constellation.

The Navy pilots reported they were fired on while making identification passes. After three attacks, they reported sinking one PT boat and damaging the other two.

FIRED ON

A few hours later, two Navy planes reported a torpedo boat fired on them from an area of coastal islands northeast of Haiphong. The Navy A4 Skyhawks attacked with rockets and cannon and reported the North Vietnamese boat sank in flames.

Canada Toils To End Rail Walkout

OTTAWA (AP) — Thousands of Canadians jammed bus and air terminals over the weekend as the government prepared legislation to get the nation's railroads running again.

MEETING SET

Virtually all rail service halted Friday as 118,000 employees struck for higher wages. Seeking an average increase of 30 per cent, they rejected an 18 per cent increase over two years.

Parliament was to meet this afternoon to receive two government bills. Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson said one would be designed to get the strikers back to work.

The other, described as a massive transportation bill, is expected to ease a seven-year freeze on freight rates and permit the railroads to drop some uneconomical routes.

Mediation talks, which broke off Friday, were expected to resume after both sides have studied the government measures. The strike was expected to force large-scale layoffs, shortages and price increases if it lasted more than a few more days.

J. O. Goodman, general manager of the Ontario Automotive Transport Association, appealed to shippers Sunday to send only essential goods.

"We've got to move the perishables first," he said.

Off-duty and vacationing truck drivers returned to work and every available tractor-trailer was being pressed into service, he said.

EXTRA RUNS

Airlines and buses added extra runs to help transport the 70,000 persons who normally ride the rails daily.

The strikers, belonging to 17 unions, earn an average of about $2.32 an hour.

Opposition leader John G. Diefenbaker said Friday that his Progressive Conservative members of Parliament would stage an all-out flight against any government attempts to repeal freight laws to ease the railroads' financial burden.

Dallas Epidemic Nearly Over; Other Cities Hit

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas was cheered today with an indication from City-Health Director Dr. Hal J. Dewlett that an epidemic of encephalitis is almost over. Six cases were added over the weekend but there were no deaths and Dr. Dewlett said the new cases involved victims bitten by mosquitoes before massive aerial spraying. An epidemic continued at Corpus Christi, far to the south, and there was the report of a death at Amarillo, far to the northwest, where four cases were confirmed along with one in nearby Canyon.

The disease also was reported in Loraine, Fort Worth and Beaumont.

"Amarillo doctors said Army Sgt. Raymond Kindle, 21, of Childress, died after suffering convulsions on his honeymoon. Just returned from Korea, Kindle was on a 45-day leave from Fort Sill, Okla., when he became ill.

In announcing that Dallas was safe from the disease, Dr. Dewlett said he expected some new cases to be reported during a period of roughly two weeks. Then, he predicted, the full effects of the aerial spraying of the Naval Air Station also is planned.

There is one confirmed death, one possible death, 19 confirmed cases and approximately 50 possible cases in the Corpus Christi area.

Dr. W. R. Metzger, city-county health director, said he felt at least one-half would be found to have the disease.

More Speeches Are Indicated

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson planned to close up shop at the LBJ Ranch today and head back to the White House, but there are indications he may be on the road again before week's end.

Several points have heard reports — as yet not confirmed by the White House — that Johnson may be coming their way this weekend. Summerville, W.Va., for one, expects him to be on hand for the dedication of a dam and reservoir project.

The President arrived at the ranch Friday night to celebrate his 58th birthday after speeches and much handshaking in Idaho, Colorado and Oklahoma.

The weekend before he stumped through upper New York, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine. Other recent speaking trips took him to Nebraska, Iowa, Indiana, Kentucky and Illinois.

While Johnson has said he expects to visit many other states before "the leaves turn brown," he has only one publicly announced commitment so far. When Ohio Democrats telephoned birthday congratulations Saturday he promised them he would visit that state before the November elections.

"No hill country rancher could ever have a better birthday," Johnson told newsmen Saturday. He counted his blessings as a happy, wonderful family, a nice house, a prosperous country.

Rev. Seddon Is Honored

The birthday greetings began Friday when crowds along his route sang and shouted "Happy birthday!" They continued through Sunday when the congregation at the First Christian Church in Johnson City joined the choir in singing "Happy birthday, dear President."

Later in the day, Johnson cruised around a lake near Marble Falls, Tex., at the wheel of a gold-colored inboard speedboat that was chased at about 45 miles per hour by other boats carrying Secret Service agents, newsmen and photographers.

An appreciation gift from the First Presbyterian Church was presented to the Rev. E. A. J. Seddon Sunday night for his work with the Presbyterian churches in Big Spring.

Rev. Seddon, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, observed his last Sunday here Sunday night, speaking at the First Church in honor of Dr. R. Gage Lloyd's 20th anniversary in Big Spring as pastor of the First Church.

Rev. Seddon, who has pastored St. Paul's for seven years, will be leaving this week for La Feria, near Brownsville, to pastor a church there.

The gift, a check and a plaque, was presented by George Oldham on behalf of members of the congregation. Dr. Lloyd presided at the evening worship service. The sanctuary was filled to capacity. Rev. Seddon often filled in for Dr. Lloyd while Lloyd was on vacation, Oldham said.

Following the evening worship, ice cream and cake were served in the fellowship hall.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN
(As told by The Chicago Tribune)

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold with 70 point score:

AKJ6 CAKQ AJ93 AJ102

What is your opening bid?

A.—One no trump. True, this hand exceeds the bounds of a no trump opening by a full point plus a ten. However, the conditions of score may create an awkward rebid problem if you open with one diamond and partner responds in a major suit. The slight underbid is very unlikely to result in the loss of a slam and will, in fact, serve to facilitate further bidding if any develops.

Q. 2—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

Q9843 C87542 D85 A4

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South

1 A Dble. ?

What do you bid?

A.—Our choice is for a barrage of three spades. This may keep the opponents out of a possible game in a minor suit or lead them into a game in hearts, against which you have some defense.

Q. 3—As dealer you hold:

AKQ4 CKJ CAKJ AA1064

What is your opening bid?

A.—While this hand measures up to the specifications of a three no trump opening and, such an answer must be accepted as entirely correct, this department has a very slight preference in favor of an opening two spade bid. Such a bid provides an additional chance for a safe landing place if partner should have some weak hand containing four spades — some hand which would provide no good play for nine tricks at no trump but would nevertheless provide the distributional values to produce 10 tricks at spades. Furthermore, the two spade opening does not preclude an eventual no trump contract.

Q. 4—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

AA52 CK74 CAK AAKQJ6

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 A Pass 1 A Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—It is a close call between a jump raise to four spades and a jump shift to three diamonds. Either may be accepted as correct. Our own taste runs to the latter by a narrow margin. It will have the merit of ferreting out a possible slam on some few holdings.

Q. 5—Your side is vulnerable; partner opens with one spade, and you hold:

AK8754 C6 QQT AKQ1075

What is your response?

A.—This is the type of hand for a preemptive raise. You have great playing strength, but no defense. Bid four spades.

Q. 6—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

AAKJ CA8752 CA AQ874

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 C Pass 1 A Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—A vigorous rebid is in order, but not one that absolutely insists upon game, which may not be available if partner has a shaded response. Our preference is for a raise to three spades. Normally we bid upon four trumps for such a call but, since no other suitable bid is available, we must ask partner to get along with only three trumps this time.

Q. 7—Partner opens with one club, and you hold:

AK642 CK753 DQ743 A5

What is your response?

A.—One diamond. The four major suit holdings are stronger a diamond response is more strategic. It affords partner the opportunity of rebidding at the level of one and, if he happens to have four hearts or four spades, you will hear about it at once.

Q. 8—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

AAJ53 CK73 CA62 AAK65

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 A 3 A Pass Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—While there is good reason to believe that you can beat three spades, a double is not recommended. There is too much danger that partner will choose not to leave it in and, if he responds in hearts, you will find yourself, no doubt, in a shaky contract. We would prefer to play for a reasonably sure profit by passing.

Barry Reports Exciting Boat Trip On River

SALMON, Idaho (AP) — Barry Goldwater completed a trip down Idaho's "River of no Return" Sunday and emerged at Salmon from nine days in the wilderness with stories about lightning storms, bears and big fish.

The former presidential candidate, with family and friends, shot the dangerous rapids of the Salmon River's Middle Fork in three rubber boats.

The lightning storm last Thursday touched off more than 70 range and forest fires in southern Idaho.

Local Girls In Contest For Miss Latin America

A Miss Latin America contest will be held in Odessa Sunday, Sept. 9, at St. Joseph's Hall, and a score of girls from the Big Spring area will compete with others from Midland, Odessa and Stanton.

A dinner and mass will follow the selection of contestants. The program is scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. Contestants will be judged in talent, costume and formal evening wear categories.

Representing the Big Spring will be Juanita Mata, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Mata; Celia Morales, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Trinidad Morales; Mary Dolores Ayala and Patsy Ayala, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Ayala; Kath Olivas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Transportation Cabinet Post To Get 2nd Chance

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House makes another stab today at completing action on an administration proposal to establish a Cabinet-level department of transportation. But final approval may be put off until Tuesday by a flock of amendments.

Strong bipartisan backing for what would be the 12th Cabinet department emerged in opening debate last week, apparently assuring passage of the bill. But the House may first vote to remove some of its major segments.

Chief target is the Maritime Administration. A Republican-led move, strongly supported by the maritime unions, is expected to succeed in taking the agency out of the proposed department after efforts to compromise the matter apparently collapsed.

Success of this amendment would leave the Maritime Administration in the Commerce Department, pending action later on another bill to make it an independent agency.

Other key elements in the transportation department would be the Federal Aviation Agency, the Bureau of Public Roads, the Coast Guard and the safety functions now handled by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Civil Aeronautics Board.

The transportation measure has not come before the Senate. It is the chief business before the House on a light pre-Labor Day schedule that includes a batch of relatively uncontroversial bills, such as the measure authorization funds for the Peace Corps. The Senate takes up a bill to extend the Food for Peace program under which the United States sells farm surpluses to foreign countries. The Senate Agriculture Committee rejected House-passed revisions in the program, including changing its name to "Food for Freedom."

Fort Worth Has $100,000 Fire

FORT WORTH (AP)—Fire swept through two three-story buildings in downtown Fort Worth Sunday, causing an estimated $100,000 damage.

The damage estimate was unofficial, said H. A. Owens, fire chief. Five firemen narrowly escaped injury when a balcony over the first floor of one of the buildings crumbled and fell during the early minutes of the two-hour blaze.

Englers Shoe Store was destroyed and an adjacent building, housing Luskeys Western Store, was heavily damaged. Owens said. Three other structures suffered smoke damage. About 50 firemen battled the blaze as heavy smoke filled the downtown area.

Heart Patient Still Improves

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Regaining strength each day, a woman whose heart was helped for several days with an artificial pump, spent another day out of bed visiting with relatives Sunday.

Esperanza del Valle Vasquez, 37, Mexico City beauty parlor operator, who underwent surgery for the temporary heart help Aug. 8, has been able to take short unassisted strolls for several days at Methodist Hospital.

Hospital advisories said she continues to recuperate without complications.

The artificial pump, called a left ventricular bypass, was removed after 10 days when physicians determined her natural heart had healed and no longer needed the assistance of the pump.

President Johnson reportedly hopes to sign the bill over the Labor Day weekend.

Another conference committee is expected to reach agreement this week on the foreign aid authorization bill, but final action by the two houses will probably be deferred until after Labor Day.

The House Armed Services Committee may vote this week on its own bill which would authorize the President to call up 60,000 reservists and National Guardsmen not attached to regular units.

Farmers Cheated, Minnesotan Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Albert H. Quie, R-Minn., said today that during the past year American farmers were cheated out of something like $1 billion because of the kind of economic and statistical analysis put out by the Agriculture Department.

Losses, Quie said in a speech for the House, could have amounted to as much as $300 million in corn, $180 million for wheat, $400 million for soybeans and $25 million for grain sorghums.

"The statistical and economic

Polish Ship Is 'Escape Route'

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — The Polish cruise ship Batory, which in 15 years has lost a skipper, 26 crewmen and more than 100 passengers to the West, left 15 more passengers behind this weekend.

The ship stopped in Copenhagen with 580 Poles and 205 Czechoslovaks on a vacation cruise. When she sailed Saturday night, 14 Poles and a Czech remained ashore and asked for political asylum, police said Sunday.

On June 23, 1953, the Batory's skipper, Jan Cwiklinski, jumped ship in Britain and was granted asylum. Eight crewmen defected in July, 1951, followed by 18 more a month later. Others have defected from the Batory to Britain, Canada and Denmark.

Taft Man Killed In Car Accident

TAFT, Tex. (AP)—Humberto Pablo Castano, 26, was fatally injured today when his car slammed into a culvert on Farm Road 893 about one mile south of here.

Western Politicos See War As Threat

GLACIER NATIONAL PARK, Mont. (AP) — Western Democrats see the Viet Nam war as an emotional issue — one that could hurt their congressional candidates if casualties continue to mount.

Directors of the Western States Democratic Conference Sunday endorsed President Johnson's efforts "to secure a peaceful settlement in Southeast Asia, particularly in Viet Nam. But in interviews, party officials, especially those from more populous states, showed concern about the war's political effects.

"When they bring a casket into a city with a soldier in it, people will worry about the war," said Frank Keller, Washington State Democratic chairman. "And when a war hero comes home and gives a speech, they'll feel differently. It's an emotional issue."

"It's an issue and it's a larger issue than anything else," said Norman Stoll, Oregon's Democratic national committeeman. Tom Brown, New Mexico national committeeman, said, "There is uncertainty and un-services (of the department) evidently have been utilized to hold down farm prices," said Quie, a member of the House Agriculture Committee.

In all four commodities, Quie said, demand was understated and carryover was overstated.

"This last year," he said, "American farmers were cheated out of something like $1 billion in corn, wheat, soybean and grain sorghum, aside from USDA efforts to dump surplus stocks to hold down farm prices."

Quie, in explaining the corn situation, said a department report last fall said the corn carryover for 1966-67 is expected to increase to about 1.275 billion bushels, and this adversely affected farm prices.

On Aug. 9, 1966, he said, the department said the Oct. 1, 1966, carryover may be about 15 percent below the carryover of 1.17 billion bushels in 1965.

"If we accept this figure," he said, "then the carryover will be not 1.275 billion bushels, but only 995 million bushels, a difference of 280 million bushels."

Goldwater Says Nixon Best Bet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Barry Goldwater, who lost the 1964 presidential election to President Johnson, says former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is the best equipped Republican to beat the President in 1968.

"If Johnson continues to be the bumbling politician he's turning out to be, I think he can be beaten in 1968," Goldwater said in an interview published Sunday by the magazine Human Events.

"As of now, Nixon has the best equipment to beat Johnson," the former Arizona senator continued.

Lunar Orbiter Will Try For Shot Of Surveyor 1

HAMPTON, Va. (AP) — Lunar Orbiter closed out the picture-taking phase of its moon-circling mission early today with its toughest assignment of all — trying to photograph Surveyor 1.

On orders from the earth, transmitted Sunday, two pictures were to be snapped to the area where Surveyor 1 made its soft landing on the lunar surface early in July.

From today through Sept. 15, the flying photo laboratory will transmit the pictures it has taken.

Just when the projected photographs of Surveyor 1 will be transmitted was uncertain, a spokesman at Langley Research Center said. Surveyor 1 took many pictures of itself and the moon's surface.

Lunar Orbiter, which spent its first two weeks in orbit about the moon photographing possible landing sites for American astronauts, took its last picture of such areas Sunday night on its 53th orbit. The area photographed was Site 8.

Sunday morning the spacecraft transmitted photographs it had taken of Site 6 — with anticipated results. Normal lens photographs were excellent, those taken with the high-resolution lens — the close-ups — were not so good.

Soviets Say Luna Orbiting

MOSCOW (AP) — After a silence of 36 hours, the Soviet government announced today that its unmanned spaceship Luna 11 had successfully gone into orbit around the moon.

Luna 11 was launched last Wednesday and reached the vicinity of the moon Saturday night. Then it went silent, arousing speculation that it had overshot or crashed into the moon. But Britain's Jodrell Bank Radio Observatory reported Sunday night that new signals had been picked up.

Sir Bernard Lovell, director of the British space tracking station, said Luna 11 undoubtedly was in orbit around the moon.

There was no explanation for the Russians' delay in claiming success for the second Soviet spaceship to orbit the earth's lunar satellite.

The only previous Soviet announcement about Luna 11, made when it was launched, said the spaceship would orbit the moon and study near lunar space. Luna 11's mission is believed to be to take pictures of possible sites for landing of a manned space vehicle on the moon.

Luna 10, which on April 3 became the first spaceship to orbit the moon, sent back no pictures to the earth.

However, the announcement today contained no mention of pictures. A U.S. spacecraft has been orbiting the moon for two weeks, photographing possible landing sites.

Watermelons Galore

Four area farmers got together Saturday and trucked into the Big Spring State Hospital 250 watermelons—enough for a four-day watermelon feast for the patients. From the left, Barney Nichols, Calvin Hughes and Odie Grantham, all of Knott and Andy Brown, Ackerly. Brown and other area farmers have been donating the watermelons each summer for the past four years, according to Mrs. Mary Cochran, volunteer coordinator. (Photo by Frank Brandon)

Wallace Stand On Race Issue Brings Warning

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Critics of Gov. George Wallace's plan to defy school integration guidelines have pointed a warning finger toward a 1964 federal court order.

It could mean the loss of state as well as federal funds for Alabama schools which refuse to comply.

The ruling, handed down by a three-judge court July 13, 1964, had nothing to do with the guidelines promulgated by the Health, Education and Welfare Department. They weren't even in existence then.

Instead, the court was concerned over Wallace's use of state troopers in an unsuccessful attempt to block integration of Tuskegee High School and later, the mandate issued by the State Board of Education, with Wallace presiding as chairman, to close the Tuskegee school.

Because the state board claimed — and subsequently denied — jurisdiction and control over city and county schools throughout the state, the court suit which dealt originally with nothing but Macon County became one of statewide significance.

The three judges refused to order immediate statewide desegregation, but said, significantly, that the court "could and possibly should" compel the state to stop "the illegal and unconstitutional practice of distributing public funds for the purpose of operating segregated schools."

In support of its position, the three-judge panel cited a U.S. Supreme Court ruling which held that "state support of segregated schools cannot be squared with the (14th Amendment's) command that no state shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws."

The decision was accompanied by an injunction, still in effect, which prohibited Wallace from "interfering with, preventing or obstructing by any means the elimination of racial discrimination by local school officials in any school district in the state of Alabama."

It also directed the governor to "exercise his control and supervision 'in such a manner as to promote and encourage the elimination of racial discrimination in the schools.'"

But the court said that "on proper motion" it would extend the injunction to Wallace as governor.

DeGaulle's Return Worries Somaliland

DJIBOUTI, French Somaliland (AP) — Security was tightened today in restive French Somaliland to prevent recurrence of last week's bloody independence riots when President Charles de Gaulle returns tonight en route to Cambodia.

Pierre Billotte, French secretary of state for overseas territories, broadcast an appeal for calm and reconciliation among dissident elements in France's last remaining African territory.

Billotte also conferred with Ahmed Idriss Moussa, leader of the Parti du Mouvement Populaire which sparked many of the independence demonstrations. They resulted in four dead and 70 injured.

Billotte, left behind to investigate the riots, accused the neighboring Somali Republic of exploiting unrest in the colony.

He said he believed local malcontents chose De Gaulle's visit to publicize dissatisfaction with "the manner in which they were governed locally."

De Gaulle has stood fast against the independence demands. After the riots, he declared change could come only under democratic conditions

New Music Group Given $400,000

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Endowment for the Arts has announced plans to establish a master chamber orchestra of virtuoso caliber.

Endowment Chairman Roger L. Stevens said $400,000 has been allocated to the project. It will be directed by Alexander Schneider, professor of music at the University of New York at Buffalo.

Besides being a performing group, the ensemble also will serve as a training and educational institution, Stevens said.

Seven Hurt By Quake In Japan

TOKYO (AP) — Two fairly strong earthquakes followed by a series of minor tremors shook the area around the quake-ridden town of Matsushiro in central Japan Sunday and today. At least seven persons were injured.

Almost half a million quakes have been registered in Matsushiro, a town of 23,000, since Aug. 3, 1965.

Dear Abby

Ready To Follow—

DEAR ABBY: I cannot keep my mind on my work. All I can think of is that letter you published from a soldier who is returning home from Viet Nam, asking you what to do about a wife who refused to go with him to his new tour of duty.

Abby, how I wish I could spend just one hour with that wife. Maybe if she experienced the following she would change her mind:

(1) Having a government car pull up in front of her house, bearing two men who have come to tell her that her husband had been killed in action.

(2) Hearing the taps played for the last time, and feeling each note tear up every dream she ever had.

(3) Having the last letters she sent to her husband returned to her, marked UNCLAIMED.

I could tell her how it feels because I have just experienced all these things. I am not bitter. I just thank God that I had a chance to bring a little love into his life.

If I were that soldier's wife I would be waiting at the station with my bags packed, ready to follow him to the ends of the earth. But first, I would take his hand and lead him to the nearest chapel where I would kneel and thank God for sparing his life. And I would thank Him every day from that day forward.

I hope you publish this letter and that soldier's wife reads it. She is the richest woman alive. GOING ON ALONE

DEAR ABBY: A cousin of mine who lives in another town is being married and I received an invitation to her wedding. This cousin told me I could bring my boy friend. I asked him and he said he wouldn't go unless he received a mailed invitation. Abby, my cousin has only seen him once or twice, and she hardly knows him. I doubt if she even knows his last name.

I think my boy friend is being very stubborn and silly to insist on a mailed invitation under these circumstances! What should I do? A COUSIN

DEAR COUSIN: In less time than it took you to write to me, you could have written your cousin a postcard, telling her your boy friend's name and address, and requesting that she send him an invitation. If you want your boy friend to accompany you, do it. (P. S. He sounds pretty square to be so "formal.")

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Egyptians Die For Death Plot

CAIRO, Egypt (AP) — Three leaders of the outlawed Moslem Brotherhood terrorist organization were executed at dawn today for plotting to assassinate President Gamal Abdel Nasser. Newspapers said Nasser had commuted the death sentences given four others to imprisonment for life.

Troops with machine guns ringed the Cairo appeal prison where the three were hanged. Newsmen were not allowed to enter the jail and were ordered out of the area as soon as the bodies were cut down.

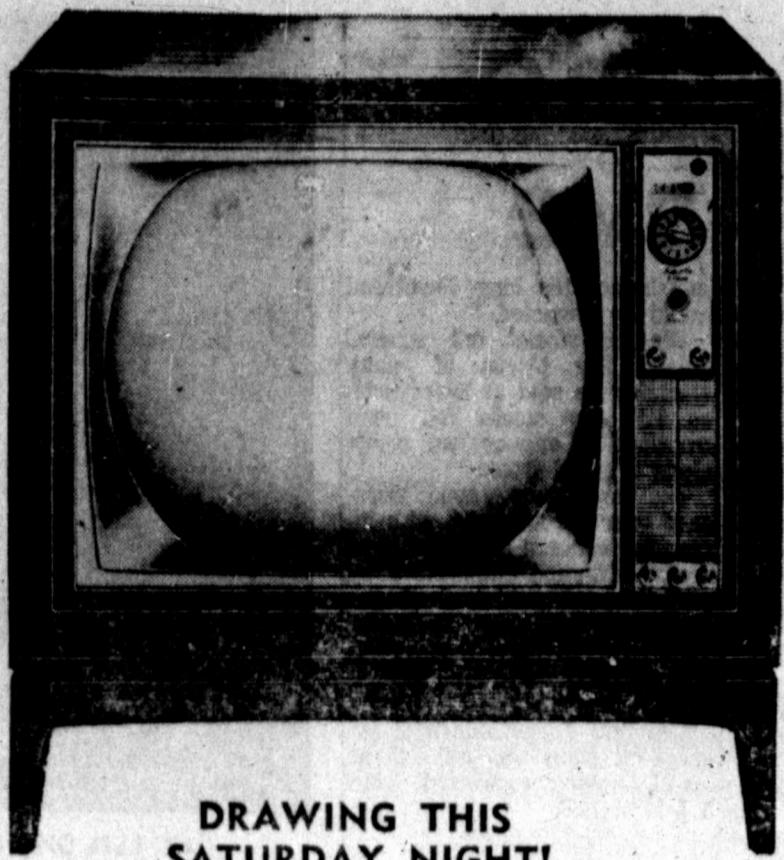

Seven men were found guilty by a special military tribunal Aug. 21 of conspiring to kill Nasser and other top government leaders and planning a nationwide campaign to set up a theocratic state.

N. Y. May Stop Fingerprinting Club Employees

NEW YORK (AP) — Frank Sinatra can sing in a New York cabaret again, if he wishes, without giving the city his fingerprints.

Licenses Commissioner Joel J. Taylor said Sunday he will end the requirement that cabaret employees be fingerprinted — a regulation to which Sinatra refused to submit.

The City Council must approve Taylor's proposal. Cabaret employees, including entertainers, bartenders, waitresses, waiters and owners, still must have a license.

WELCOME RAINS SATURATE ALL PARTS OF COUNTY ... early morning showers visited in every community in Howard County

LIGHTNING

The Texas Electric Service Co., said that the vivid lightning gave its service workers plenty to do, but that most of the difficulties encountered were not too serious.

At Lake J. B. Thomas, the water level climbed .07 foot to an elevation of 2,242.53 feet and more water may be caught. At the dam, the rain totaled 1.30 inches. At the Big Spring-Odesa intake the measurement was 1.30; at Morgan Creek pump station .60; Martin County pump station .70; and at the Howard-Martin County line 1.60. Odessa, it was reported, had 1.15.

Here in town, the Experiment Station said that the rains began at 1:40 a.m. In 20 minutes, an inch had fallen at the station. The fall continued almost unbroken until 6 a.m.

Cloudy skies still held control and occasional light sprinkles dotted the sidewalk. Additional rains were forecast throughout the day and tonight.

Linda Tyldesley Qualifies For Int'l Matches

Linda Tyldesley took two places in the Texas Aquatic games held at Pharr over the weekend and qualified for the Texas - Mexico International meet in Mexico City. She was not able to go on to the latter event, however.

Linda, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Robert H. Tyldesley, competed in the Pharr meet with Carrie Bizzell and Bob Tyldesley under the Big Spring Aquatic banner.

Only those who had placed within the first four spots in district competition were eligible to enter. Carrie placed eighth in the 100 meter back stroke for ages 13-14 against 16 other swimmers.

3 East German Youths Escape

BRAUNSCHWEIG, Germany (AP) — A 22-year-old East German border guard got a 12-hour pass Sunday and used his temporary freedom to escape to the West Sunday night, border officials reported.

Two boys, 16 and 18, also fled to freedom Sunday from Communist East Germany, the officials said.

OIL REPORT

Wildcat Gets Pay In Sterling Co.

A. L. Holley and others of Big Spring wildcat No. 1 R. P. Davis, four miles west of Sterling City, has been completed as a discovery from the Durham (San Andres), perforations in the 1,416-436-foot interval pumping seven barrels of 31 gravity oil per day, no water, with a nil gas-oil ratio, after the formation was acidized with 1,500 gallons.

Total depth is 1,732 feet with a 4 1/2-inch casing set at 1,730 feet. Location is 1,938 feet from the north line and 1,656 feet from the east line of section 3-T, T&P survey.

Yorty Says RFK Plans Takeover

NEW YORK (AP) — Mayor Samuel Yorty of Los Angeles has accused Sen. Robert (Bob) Kennedy, D-N.Y., of trying to take over the Democratic party and the United States.

He also said Sunday that last week's Senate hearings on urban problems were a trap by Kennedy and Sen. Abraham Ribicoff, D-Conn., to embarrass President Johnson.

"I wouldn't be surprised to see a Kennedy-Ribicoff ticket the way they're acting," Yorty said.

At the Senate hearing, Kennedy and Ribicoff accused Yorty of taking little action to prevent racial trouble in Los Angeles.

"We have one of the best operated programs in the country," Yorty said.

No Injuries In Traffic Mishaps

Five traffic mishaps Sunday and one Saturday caused no personal injuries, police said today.

Involved Sunday were the cars of Guadalupe Nieto, Route 1, Box 141, and D. T. Payton, 912 Baylor, 500 feet south of Thorpe on Wesson Road; the cars of Kathie Lynn Wood, 3209 Eleventh Place, and Robert E. Griffith, 1303 Mulberry, at 1509 Stadium; the cars of Annette Mauldin, 1405 Park, and Clyde Clifton Harrison, 1308 Ridgeroad, at Fourth and State; the cars of James Henry Wawak, 1206 Blackmon, and Charles Roy Allen, 2215 Lynn Drive, at South Monticello and Grafa; and the cars of Elizabeth C. Gill, San Angelo, and Dorothy M. Bennett, Box 1102, at Eighteenth and South Gregg.

The Saturday wreck involved the cars of Freddie Bailey White, 700 Pine, and Helen Webb, 1216 Lloyd, at the Jet Drive-In Theater.

Redcoats To Meet

A business session of the Ambassadors Club will be held Thursday at the Big Spring Country Club to outline a program of work for the next few months. The meeting will open at 7 p.m.

DAILY DRILLING

DAWSON Pan American's wildcat No. 1, McBrody, shutin 18 hours, is now swabbing with no gauges. Location is 330 feet from the north line and 460 feet from the west line of section 11-31-15, T&P survey, two miles southwest of Coahoma.

HOWARD Lorio's wildcat No. 1 Barber is at a total depth of 4,634 feet in lime and operator is fishing. Driftsite is 1,980 feet from the north line and 460 feet from the west line of section 11-31-15, T&P survey, two miles southwest of Coahoma.

MARTIN Pan American's wildcat No. 1-B Slaughter has recovered lead. It flowed 72 barrels of oil, no water, in 12 hours on an open choke with tubing pressure varying from 25-40 pounds. It spots 1,200 feet from the south and east lines of section 80-B, B&C survey, 12 miles north of Leno.

Pan American's wildcat No. 2 Snell is plugged back to 11,800 feet and operator is preparing to refracture. He attempted to fracture with 40,000 gallons of the well sanding up. Location is 665 feet from the south line and 770 feet from the east line of Labor 2, League 25, Borden CSL, seven miles southwest of Patricia.

STERLING HMM Operators No. 1 Morgan wildcat is testing on pump with no gauges. It spots 998 feet from the south and west lines of section 1-T, T&P survey, two miles southwest of Sterling City.

World Jamboree Applications Due

Boy Scout officials want to know who may be interested in attending the 12th world jamboree at Farragut State Park, Idaho, Aug. 1-9, 1967.

Any boy interested in placing an application for this jamboree should contact the Buffalo Trail Council office at P.O. Box 1508, Midland, Texas 79701. No deposits are involved in the request for an application. Selection of the group from this council will be made in September by a special jamboree committee. To be eligible, a boy must have reached his 14th birthday on or before Jan. 1, 1967 but not his 18th birthday by Aug. 1, 1967. He must qualify as a Life Scout by April 1, 1967. Explorers who have not been scouts must be registered on or before July 1, 1966. Applicants must pass physical exams. Total cost will be $363.

Group To Talk FM 700 Plans

Members of the Big Spring Traffic Commission will discuss plans for FM 700 with Joe Smoot, engineer for the Texas Highway Department, at the commission's regular meeting Tuesday at 3:30 p.m.

Only other business on the agenda will be a "general discussion" of future thoroughfare planning.

Weather Forecast

Shows and thunderstorms are forecast Monday night for the middle Mississippi Valley and southern Plains. It will be warmer in New England and cooler in the Great Lakes region. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Ticker Runs Late In Selling Wave

NEW YORK (AP)—The heaviest wave of selling in the long, seven-month decline occurred today with the stock market sharply lower early this afternoon. As the ticker tape ran 10 minutes late at noon, volume for the first couple of hours piled up to the huge total of 5.42 million shares compared with 3.76 million for the same period of Friday.

Some prices began to recover as trading was at its heaviest. Analysts pondered over whether this was the long-awaited "selling climax" or perhaps one of several such which might occur before the long downturn could be reversed.

Glamor stocks fell several points. Big blocks of many stocks were sold at lower prices. The key stocks fell from fractions to one or two points along a broad front.

The news background worsened over the weekend, with increasing concern about the tight money situation emphasized by congressional criticism of the administration and President Truman's warning that rising interest rates could lead to "serious depression."

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off 5.45 at 775.11, having recovered from a loss of 7.57.

Suit Filed To Revoke Trust Of 60 Years Ago

A new petition, almost identical in pleadings with a previous one filed here a year ago, seeks to revoke a trust set up by Sara C. Tracey, New York, more than 60 years ago.

Joseph Howard Hodges, bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese in Wheeling, West Va., not only asks that a 1938 trust be revoked but seeks an accounting from three attorneys serving as trustees.

The petition filed in 118th District Court here claims that Robert J. Riley Sr. and Robert J. Riley Jr. of Wheeling and Arch W. Riley of Wisconsin have received $900,000 since 1938 as 10 per cent of receipts from the trust, most of it from oil lands in Gaines County, Texas. The plaintiff claims there is no agreement in the trust provision entitling the Rileys to 10 per cent, and he asks the court for a definitive ruling on this point.

The suit grows out of a 3 1/2 per cent interest in 66 sections of West Texas land in Edwards, Gaines, Kerr and Sutton counties which Mrs. Tracey bequeathed in 1904 to Patrick Donahue, then bishop of Wheeling. He was succeeded in turn by John Swint and in 1932 by Bishop Hodges. Thomas S. Riley Sr., father of Robert J. Riley Sr., served as trustee from 1907-38.

FIERCE BEAST AND CAPTOR Officer Stewart Dixon poses with his captured African lion

Officer Captures Wandering Lion

Officer Stewart Dixon was patrolling near the Pet-A-Zoo, San Angelo Highway, around 7:30 a.m. today when he spotted two animals walking down the road. One of them was a dog. The other was a lion.

Well, not exactly a lion. It was a fierce beastie of a three-months-old cub which had "escaped" from the zoo and, trailing his dog-chain had begun exploring the area with its puppy companion.

Dixon, being the cautious type, took no chances. With every precaution he bravely approached the loose lion and grabbed its chain and tied it to a post, then called the owners, the A. D. Blounts.

They told "Bring 'Em Back Alive" Dixon he needn't have worried—Gary, the lion cub, is the pet of Julius Von Uhl, the animal trainer, and is about as fierce as a three-months-old puppy.

Blount said Gary was given to Uhl by the Grand Wizard of the Shrine of Canada. Uhl is to train Gary, whose father is the largest (600 pounds) lion in Canada, and bring it back next year to the Canadian Shriners.

Entries Slow For Tournament

Approximately a dozen golfers turned in qualifying rounds during the weekend to run the Big Spring Country Club invitational golf tournament entry total to 32.

Tournament officials urged others to enter as promptly as possible. Those in the championship flight must fire qualifying rounds, but those in other flights may, if they choose, turn in a score with their entries. Deadline is Friday for entering the tournament.

AL inch and a half of rain early Monday morning put course in almost ideal condition.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Faith, thrashing slowly northward in the Atlantic, brushed the Bahama Islands with fringe winds today and floundered into an area chosen for a storm-taming effort by seeding planes.

But, when the 120-mile winds entered the region where she could be safely bombarded with silver iodide crystals, the forces which had been poised for the attack had partly disbanded.

Dr. Cecil Gentry, alternate director of the U.S. government's Project Stormfury, said there was some doubt that the mission could now be carried out.

For several days, scientists had stood by in Florida and Puerto Rico, ready with a fleet of planes for the first sustained try at breaking up the destructive power of a hurricane.

But, after Faith had skirted the chosen area for several days, some of the key men in the project returned to their home bases.

If Faith continues her slow movement, however, Gentry said the possibility remained that the effort could still be made.

J. B. Myrick Dies Following Long Illness

J. B. Myrick, 66, 309 NW 10th, died today at 4:30 a.m. in a local hospital. He had been in failing health for several years and seriously ill for the past few months.

Services are pending at the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. He was born June 3, 1900, at Hico, and moved to Big Spring in 1918. He married Miss Velma Clara Webb here in January, 1933. Mr. Myrick had been employed by the Webb AFB civil service for over 20 years as a painter, prior to his retirement three months ago. He was a member of the Church of God.

He was preceded in death by one son, Eddie Ray Myrick. Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Velma Myrick, Big Spring; two sons, Gordon Myrick, Big Spring, and Derwood Myrick, Springfield, Mo.; four daughters, Mrs. Vada Reese, Westover, Mass., Mrs. Zada Tucker and Mrs. Kathleen Gilliland, both of Big Spring, Mrs. Kay Sue Gordon, San Antonio; one brother, Cleve Myrick, Richmond, Va.; one sister, Mrs. G. F. Peterson, Manhattan Beach, Calif.; also eight grandchildren.

Coahoma High School Gains

COAHOMA (SC) — Coahoma High School started off today with a 12 per cent increase in enrollment over the end of school last year.

At noon Monday, the school had signed 220 students, whereas at the end of school last year the high school had only 195 enrolled. Figures were not immediately available from the junior high and from the elementary schools in Coahoma and Midway.

PARMA, Italy (AP)—Chalked swastikas and slogans praising Hitler and fascism were found today scribbled on the walls of public parks in this north Italian city.

Police erased them and began an investigation to find who was responsible.

Howard County Commissioners court was studying bids for supplying county vehicles and equipment with oil, gas and other supplies today. A number of bids were opened at 10 a.m. No decision had been reached at 11 a.m. as the commissioners continued to study the bids.

Forecasters said the storm was expected to continue on the same track for at least 24 hours, approaching no closer to the chain of Bahamas Islands.

But Faith's future course could not be determined and all interests in the islands were warned to keep in close touch with future advisories.

Over the weekend, winds of gale force whistled through the U.S. space tracking station on Grand Turk Island. The station was tightly boarded up.

Faith Poised Off Coast, Future Route Uncertain

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Faith, thrashing slowly northward in the Atlantic, brushed the Bahama Islands with fringe winds today and floundered into an area chosen for a storm-taming effort by seeding planes.

If Faith continues her slow movement, however, Gentry said the possibility remained that the effort could still be made.

At 8 a.m., Faith was 575 miles due east of Miami and 230 miles east-northeast of San Salvador in the Bahamas.

Drifting northward at five miles an hour, the hurricane lashed the seas with 120-mile winds reaching out 50 miles

WORLD CHAMPION CRENSHAW ... Local lad takes roping title in AJRA competition

Howard Co. Youth Is Champ Roper

Robert Crenshaw, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Crenshaw, is the 1966 American Junior Rodeo Association Roping Champion in the age group 12-15.

Robert won his title and a fancy saddle Sunday night at Odessa where the World Championship Junior Rodeo was staged.

His victory came over 24 of the best young ropers of his age. He scored a 16 on his first calf and a 17 on the second.

In 1965, he was reserve roping champion in the age group 12 and under. Last year, due to having suffered a rattlesnake bite on his hand (which cost him a finger) he was unable to compete.

He has consistently led the field this season and has competed in more than a score of rodeos. In order to pick up badly needed points as the season neared its end, he entered the Midland rodeo this month rather than the Big Spring event.

The Crenshaws live eight miles north of Big Spring on the Gail Road.

Snyder Fireman Dies On Duty

SNYDER, Tex. (AP)—A volunteer Snyder fireman, John J. Sanders, died early today while fighting a tank battery fire at the Lion Oil Camp.

Authorities said he fell through the metal top of an oil storage tank and was asphyxiated.

Sanders was chosen as the Volunteer Fireman of the Year at Snyder in 1964. He was employed by Texaco as a plant operator and is survived by his widow and son.

County Opens Bids

Howard County Commissioners court was studying bids for supplying county vehicles and equipment with oil, gas and other supplies today. A number of bids were opened at 10 a.m. No decision had been reached at 11 a.m. as the commissioners continued to study the bids.

Sheriff's Posse Wins Third Place

The Howard County Sheriff's Posse brought home a third place trophy from Odessa last weekend, competing with 15 other sheriff's posses to wind up the rodeo season for 1966.

San Angelo Sheriff's Posse took top honors, followed by Andrews Sheriff's Posse in second. Howard County was one point behind Andrews in the competition. There were 18 riders in the Howard County posse.

Members saw Junior Rodeo contestants vie for the national top honors and were participants in many of the day's activities, including a mile-long parade, matinee, barbecue for visiting posses, and the grand parade.

Wedding Performed In Bay City Church

Miss Oralee Hurst became the bride of Samuel Wayne Waters Friday evening in a ceremony performed at the First Presbyterian Church of Bay City. Dr. H. L. Briscoe, Midland, cousin of the bride, officiated, assisted by Dr. A. T. Dyal, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Martin Luther Hurst Sr., Bay City, and the late L. H. Hurst. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Oran Milton Waters, 2802 Cactus and the late Mr. Waters.

Pre-nuptial music was played by Mrs. Bryan E. Simons Sr., organist. She also accompanied Mrs. Kathleen Burke Wright, soloist, who sang "O Perfect Love," "Entreat Me Not to Leave Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

At the altar, a large white mixed bouquet, under a candle arch, was flanked by candle trees. Two smaller mixed arrangements of white flowers were placed on each side of the altar. The memory candle was on a pedestal, entwined with greenery and white flowers, in the north.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Martin Luther Hurst Jr., wore a floor-length dress of candlelight silk peau de soie, with a matching Empire coat with sleeves of re-embroidered Alencon lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of feathered white carnations from a center of white orchids. Her three-tiered, shoulder-length veil of illusion was held by a silk rose.

Mrs. J. T. Witkowski, Denton, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Gail Justiss, Mt. Pleasant; Miss Barbara Kerr, Alvin; and Mrs. E. W. Williams, Dallas. Their dresses were identical, floor-length sleeveless gowns of royal blue peau de soie, with matching fabric roses for headpieces. They wore long white gloves, and carried cascades of maroon mums.

The best man was E. H. Bouillon Jr., Big Spring, brother-in-law of the groom. Groomsmen were Bennett Brooke, Big Spring; Charles Dunagan, Houston; and E. W. Williams, Dallas. Ushers were J. T. Witkowski, Denton; Ronald Jones, Damon; Larry Smith, Smithfield; Sul-Ross Harrington, Bay City and Galveston; and George W. Hatzenbuehler III, Denton.

MRS. SAMUEL WAYNE WATERS

Acolytes were Bert and Wes Bouillon of Big Spring.

For the wedding trip to New Orleans, the bride chose a suit of silk-wool blend with three-quarter-length coat, black and brown accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

The bride attended Bay City High School and graduated cum laude from North Texas State University at Denton where she is doing graduate and research work.

The bridegroom is also a graduate of NTSU where he is doing graduate and research work. He is a member of the Alpha Chi Sigma professional chemistry fraternity.

A garden party reception was held, following the wedding, at the home of the bride's mother. The walks were lighted with hurricane lamps, and the garden area was entered by an archway covered with white jasmine.

The bride's table was centered with her bouquet, and covered with a white lace and cut work cloth. Two-branched candelabra holding tall white tapered flanked the bouquet. The three-tiered wedding cake featured a frosted wedding bell on top, and cascading yellow confection roses. Appointments were silver.

Miss Arlene Parks was in charge of the register.

The groom's table was covered with an heirloom hand-drawn Irish linen cloth, and held a chocolate frosted cake, with a confection white top hat and cane centering the cake. Coffee was poured from a silver service.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Stewart Savage, Mrs. Margaret Baker, Mrs. G. A. Bach, Mrs. J. W. Ingram, Mrs. C. A. Erickson, Mrs. D. F. Wiginton, Mrs. H. L. Briscoe Sr., and Mrs. Sul-Ross Harrington, all of Bay City; Mrs. T. C. Cash, Tyler; Mrs. Cecil M. Gregg Jr., Austin; Mrs. Ronald Jones, Damon; Mrs. Charles Dunagan, Houston; and Miss Mary Lu Williams, San Antonio.

Mens' Definition Of Beauty Is Revealing

Ask a man to define beauty. Then ask him who the really beautiful women are. You feel terribly corny doing it because, in the more stylish course of grading women into best dressed, most chic, most "with it," beautiful has become something of an old-fashioned, almost square connotation.

Men's definitions of beauty and who's who in the galaxy of the most shining are highly educational — about men. They prove that men are sentimental, prudish, emotional and basically unanalytical about women.

Men refuse to admit the beauty of any woman whose moral stamina is ever questioned in the news.

("I think she's attractive, but—") They also give you the raised eyebrows about some of the ladies who have been holding down the best-dressed list for years.

Men are bemused by the obvious beauties that you can't miss a mile off—the girls with the big eyes, peachy skins and pearly teeth. Few of them are interested in straying far off the beaten path of accepted beauty.

They pass up the strong faces (Joan Crawford, Morfa, the Welsh model) and the sensitive faces, like Mrs. Loel Guinness. "They are attractive, but—"

They completely miss a whole category of beauties—the girls who look different every time you see them. You can call them the chameleons.

The chameleon is the girl who has to tell you her name again at every charity ball and, when you meet her at a restaurant the next day, has to brief you once more.

Most beauties have rock-ribbed faces that are unmistakable, no matter how they decide to decorate them. Nobody ever mistakes Elizabeth Taylor or Mrs. William Paley or Princess Grace. Greta Garbo is among the acknowledged beauties.

The chameleon has an elastic kind of face. Even the contours sometimes seem to shift for whatever clothes and hair-do she decides to put on.

One of the greatest chameleons of all time is Catherine Milne, the Duchess of Bedford's daughter, who is a young staff member at Vogue. It's not just that she has lots of clothes to work with. ("I own just a few dresses, but I have masses of coats, skirts and pullovers"). It's that she likes to look different. "Lots of women would rather stick to one type, but it suits me to change."

Heat's Important

It's the heat, not the pressure, that gives good ironing results.

Forsaners Meet For Breakfast

Sixteen members of the Forsan Study Club met at Coker's Saturday morning at 7:30 for the annual breakfast which begins the new club season.

Mrs. C. B. Long presided and welcomed two new members, Mrs. Bill Cluck and Mrs. Travis Fryar. Mrs. Howard Story distributed new yearbooks, and she and Mrs. Long were joined by Mrs. Bill Conger in serving as hostesses.

The long table was accented with a basket holding a mixed bouquet and marigolds, the club flower, scattered along the center.

The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 1, in the Forsan cafeteria.

CLUBS MUST SEND REPORTS

Club presidents are reminded that Sept. 1 is the deadline for returning questionnaires pertaining to their club's story in the upcoming Women's Club Supplement. You are urged to return the reports immediately in order to be represented in the special section. Barr Photocenter will deliver presidents' photos to The Herald.

Carolyn and Nancy McHugh, daughters of Woodrow McHugh, have been visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Bradford of Abilene spent the weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Elliott, and their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bradford.

Jackie Rinard honored the Lions baseball team with a swimming party Friday evening at the Grants pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Roberts and children, Gary and Gayla, spent last week at Cloudford, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Tindol and boys have returned from a trip to Dublin where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bob Puckett and girls. They also toured Six Flags.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Clay of Seminole are visiting with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Metcalf, and sons.

Gay Hill 4-H Club Serves Cookies

Thursday afternoon the girls of the Gay Hill 4-H Club toured the Bennett House and served cookies to patients. Those making the cookies and serving were Debra and Darla Buchanan, Annette and Martha Couch and Sherry and Brenda Jackson.

Following the tour, the group re-convened at the Couch home for a wiener roast and ice cream supper which was a climax to their Unit II Cook Book. Martha Couch, junior leader, presented their certificates.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Cuphooks Become Simple 'Organizer'

Dear Heloise:

The cuphook has become one of my most trusted keeper-in-placers!

I use them for cups, of course, and to hold cake racks on the inside of a cupboard door. (You need two for that.)

I also hang my cookie sheets, muffin tins and anything flat that will hang on them. It keeps them flat to the wall, gets them off the shelf and out of the way, and it is much easier to get these things in and out.

HELOISE

Inside my utility cabinet, I use them to hang vegetable brushes and such.

In the bathroom, they are just as useful; in the medicine cabinet they hold toothbrushes and are equally as great for always-lost items like scissors.

I have several on the inside of my linen closet door (inside the bathroom) to hold my headbands. No more searching through drawers and shelves.

I imagine they'd adapt for keys, fly swatters, and a multitude of things in a large house. . . . Judi

Dear Heloise:

I made the "puddle pads" one needs for a new baby from an old mattress cover.

I cut it in half crosswise, and saved one half as an extra mattress cover for over the hot plastic one in the summer.

The other half, I cut into the sizes I needed and wanted for pads. . . . Nadine Campbell

Dear Heloise:

We are great coffee drinkers and I have collected many beautiful three-pound coffee canisters.

My problem is how to really get the coffee odor out so I can use them for other things. I would appreciate your help. . . . Betty Sunley

Ladies, have any of you found a sure-fire method of ridding those useful coffee cans of their aroma? If so, won't you please share it with us? Just drop me a line in care of The Herald. . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

We do not use our old built-in ironing board, so we removed it, put in shelves of various heights to accommodate the different sizes of containers. . . and now have a wonderful spice cabinet!

We can find the spice we want at a glance, and they are out of sight when the door is closed. . . . Effie Ruby

Dear Heloise:

I sweeten my fresh fruit salad with the granulated orange drink mix which comes in a jar. Delicious! . . . Love that fruit

Dear Heloise:

Need an inexpensive organizer?

Try using the tops of hair-spray cans.

Turn upside down, they make attractive bins for desk articles, such as paper clips, rubber bands and thumb tacks.

Also try using them as lipstick keepers and jewelry separators.

You will even find them useful for touch-up painting when amount of paint around without all the inconvenience and the mess of a large can. . . Mrs. J. E. Marshall

Dear Heloise:

A hint for warming chill baby bottles while traveling by automobile:

In cool weather, wrap the bottle in a diaper and place it on the dashboard next to the defroster outlet, and turn on the defroster.

In summer lay the bottle on a diaper on the dashboard and let the sun warm the bottle. . . Mrs. T. P. Kunneke

A Devotional For The Day

"Be strong and of good courage; be not frightened, neither be dismayed; for the Lord your God is with you wherever you go." (Joshua 1:9, RSV)

PRAYER: Give us this day, our Lord, the consciousness of Thy presence wherever we go. Grant us power so that we may have the courage to live according to Jesus' way. In His name. Amen.

Questions Need To Be Settled

How much and what kind of federal governmental aid can be given to, or channeled through, church-controlled or related institutions without violating the First Amendment remains an unsettled constitutional question. And so long as it is there will be doubt, debate and dissension.

In recent years Congress has passed a number of such aid laws in the fields of education, public health and poverty. The separation of church and state issued in these laws has not yet been judicially reviewed because of the difficulty of a plaintiff, who would challenge their constitutionality, to get into court by showing a justifiable interest or "standing to sue."

The U.S. Senate's subcommittee on constitutional rights, headed by Sen. Sam J. Ervin Jr., D-N.C., devised a bill (S 2097) which would grant individual or corporate taxpayers, citizens or institutions legal privilege to carry such cases up the U.S. Supreme Court. The bill was passed July 29 by the Senate—as cosponsored by Sens. Clark, D-Pa., Cooper, R-Ky., Ervin, Fong, D-Hawaii, Morse, D-Ore., Smathers, D-Fla., and Yarborough, D-Texas—and the House should send it to the President.

Under the bill, federal programs would not be disrupted pending litigation; they could be enjoined only by federal court order.

Obviously Congress thought the programs are constitutional, or it would not have passed them; and the President thought so, or he would not have signed them. However, there can be no certainty until the Supreme Court has ruled on their constitutionality, and what this bill does is provide workable procedures for such tests. If there are any unconstitutional provisions, it would be better to find that out before the programs become intricately institutionalized and difficult to disentangle or revise. It is, finally, in the interest of a stable society to resolve divisive issues as quickly and firmly as possible.

Revenue Hope For Cities

Last week Gov. John Connally told mayors from more than a score of Texas' largest cities that he would recommend "very substantial new resources of revenue for cities" without strings attached.

This will come as welcome news to Texas urban centers, and certainly to all municipalities. All cities have been caught in the pinch of limited tax bases in the face of rising costs and rising demands for services. With little other than ad valorem taxes to fall back upon, municipalities have been facing a bleak revenue picture.

One possibility—although it is not necessarily the one the governor will favor—is to mark one half of any increase in the state sales tax for return to the municipalities. There is some speculation of adding one cent to the sales tax to bring this figure to three cents. In this event, some $60 to $70 million a year would be in prospect for the cities.

The governor is not committed to this because he said he wanted to get the total picture, and that he recognized that needs vary from city to city.

Another possibility is cutting municipalities in for a share of automobile license fees on the ground that the bulk of urban car travel is on urban streets. This, however, finds stiff opposition from protectors of highway funds, and from counties, for that matter, who feel that they are doing a lot of clerical work for the state without adequate recompense.

The encouraging thing, however, is that the problem is recognized and that some recommendations for action may be made.

La Guardia's Plan For Strikes

WASHINGTON — Congress seems indifferent to the need for legislation to find a way to protect the public interest against the huge losses resulting from strikes. Notwithstanding the widespread criticism of the airlines strike and the many other interruptions of business that have inflicted tremendous losses on innocent bystanders, neither the Senate nor the House is inclined to do anything about it.

Plenty of resolutions and bills have been introduced, but the pressure of public opinion has not yet been felt in either house.

IT SO HAPPENS that just 20 years ago, Fiorella La Guardia who had been elected Mayor of New York City on a fusion ticket, came out with a plan for the settlement of labor disputes that is as pertinent today as it was when first presented. Indeed, national labor-union power has expanded considerably ever since.

Maver La Guardia was a progressive Republican. While he was a member of the House of Representatives, he sponsored the Norris-LaGuardia anti-injunction act, passed in 1932, which established certain rights for labor unions and particuly protected the right to strike. But he foresaw the dangers that exist today. He said:

"SUFFICIENT time to provide experience has elapsed from the day when organized labor had no rights, when the power of courts was misused and abused to suppress the rights of working men, when the demands of labor were answered with the policeman's night club. We have reached maturity, and therefore it is necessary to act in an adult manner.

"AGREEMENTS entered into through the processes of collective bargaining must be respected and maintained by both sides. A plan for the settlement of disputes, when direct negotiations or conciliation fails, or arbitration is rejected, must be provided. The source of such adjudication must have the respect and confidence, not only of labor and management, but of the entire country."

THE LA GUARDIA plan called for the establishment of a separate court to be known as the U.S. Industrial Court. It was recommended that there be four such courts, located in different geographical sections of the country. The judges of the courts would be appointed by the President from a panel of judges — selected and approved by the Supreme Court of the United States — already sitting in the courts generally. Appointees would be subject to senate confirmation. They would have to be not over the age of 55 and to have had at least five years of judicial experience in a U.S. District Court or on a state court having unlimited civil jurisdiction. Under the plan, there would be provided also an appellate court.

IF MANAGEMENT refused to abide by the decision of the industrial court, the law would provide that no deduction of labor costs would be permitted to a company for either corporate or personal income taxes. It would also be held liable for losses suffered by individuals or an organization because of the company's failure to comply with the decision of the court.

If labor, on the other hand, refused to abide by the decision, the workers would forfeit all rights of unemployment insurance and would not be entitled to the privileges and benefits provided where labor disputes exist.

Mr. La Guardia said in his concluding statement on the plan:

IF PUBLIC opinion asserted itself today, Congress would have to act, as the damage done by strikes has been dramatically illustrated in the last few years.

Billy Graham

I heard that there are more women alcoholics than men. I have suspicions that my wife is drinking in secret. How can a man deal with this problem? K. F.

According to recent findings there are still fewer women alcoholics than men. There are seven million problem drinkers in the U.S., a ratio of about five women to six men.

However, due to social taboos, more women than men tend to drink in secret. Since drinking mothers lose the respect of their children quicker than drinking fathers, this causes them to hide their drinking. This, of course, creates guilty feelings, and this in turn, makes them want to drink more. So it becomes a vicious circle.

How can a man deal with this problem? First, show her more love and attention. Many wives are disillusioned with married life — the cooling of romance, and the lack of attentiveness they had dreamed of.

Second, try to do things together. Don't sentence your wife to a life of family responsibility without an occasional break. One man who had a wife with a drinking problem, told me he hadn't taken her out to dinner in 20 years.

Third, as the father and husband, be a spiritual minister of your home. Don't leave all the disciplining of your children to your wife. Lead your family in devotions. Establish regular church-going habits. Drinking is many times the result of insecurity, and these things can greatly help the problem.

IT'S STILL A LONG, LONG WALK!

Will Look Back In Shame

WASHINGTON (AP) — What's happening in China today is a children's crusade. In time the Chinese will look back with shame on this young people's rampage set loose with the blessing of Mao Tse-tung and his leadership for a purpose that's plain.

IT'S A defensive effort by Mao and his clique to throttle and for the foreseeable future intimidate critics or would-be critics of his regime. This is being done on the heels of purges already carried out.

The Mao group has made progress in bringing China into the 20th century although its present failures are not widely known in the West, with one exception. That's in foreign affairs.

But it is a shocking revelation of Mao's uncertainty about the Communist party's grip on the country that after 17 years in control the Mao regime has to call youngsters, including hoigens, into the streets to frighten the masses into obedience and silence.

CONTROL OF the 700 million Chinese is made easier if Mao's ruling group can create an image of him as an omniscient father whom none dare question without committing sin.

In this case the sin would be considered stupidity or treason. But in the process the leadership itself becomes childish, or else is exhibiting a profound contempt for the intelligence of the Chinese people.

The New China News Agency has just said: Absorb the great thought of Mao and you too can be on the winning team. Then it explained how Red China's world championship table tennis team studied Mao's political and military tactics to learn how to win at tennis.

BUT THE Red Chinese are not winning in foreign affairs. Sunday for instance, the Italian Communist party called the policies of Red China a failure.

The Italian party's newspaper said stands taken by China have cost communism dearly in Asia, with a setback in Indonesia and India, and had even weakened the Communist cause in Viet Nam.

The poor foreign policy of Red China has been interpreted as aggressiveness and extremism in dealing with other Communists or backward peoples but the basic reason for the failure is probably political immaturity.

THE ENDLESS deification of Mao, the use of such juvenile tactics as the "Red Guard," the wretched relationships with neighbors and other Communist parties give the Red Chinese a special look of absurdity.

This is probably due to feelings of inferiority, inflexibility due to the long years of preparation for the revolution, and a self-consciousness due to both.

They Never Bark

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Snails are becoming more popular as house pets. Although they are up to 80,000 teeth, they rarely bite. They require little space, you don't have to take them for a walk every evening, and they never keep neighbors awake by barking.

YOU CAN fly to place your bet on the daily double at the Waterford Park track in Chester, W. V. It has a landing strip for small planes in its infield.

The future will be even more huddled. It's estimated that by the year 2,000 some 240 million Americans will live in 8.7 per cent of the nation's land space, only a scattered 60 million on the remaining 91.3 per cent.

Here's a sure way to make your wife angry: "When summoning her to the phone, tell her: 'Dear, somebody wants to listen to you.'"

Quotable notables: "I find it hard to believe that the world will follow our moral leadership if our principles go higher and higher the farther they are from home" — Walter Lippmann.

ABOUT 60 per cent of American families now own their own homes — or will, when the mortgage is paid.

"Moonlighting," the custom of holding more than one job, is on the increase. The average moonlighter — there are four million — is a married man between the ages of 25 and 44, and he puts in 13 hours a week at his second job.

A GRADE school student gave these answers during a music exam: "A virtuoso is a musician with real high morals. And I know what a sextet is but I had rather not say."

History lesson: Who was America's most boisterous president? Andrew Jackson is said to have engaged in a hundred brawls and duels. He killed a pistol expert in one duel and carried a bullet in his own body for 20 years after another gun battle.

"Early to bed, early to rise — until you make enough money to live otherwise."

It was Will Rogers who observed: "I never expected to see the day when girls would get sunburned in the places they now do."

Why Pinworms Won't Stay 'Cured'

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 16 and have pinworms. My doctor gave me some pink pills and they helped, but now I see a few pinworms once in a while.

Is there some way of getting rid of them? Are they very harmful? They can't kill a person, can they? — J. C.

No, they can't kill you, but they can be a miserable nuisance, disturbing your sleep, making you jittery and occasionally causing intestinal irritation.

The pills your doctor gave you may very well have been pyriminyl pamoate, which is extremely effective in getting rid of pinworms. It has now been in use for several years.

The important part of the job no longer is getting rid of pinworms. The trick is to keep from getting them again, for there is no medication which will PREVENT them.

There is only one way in which anyone gets pinworms, and that is by swallowing the eggs, which are invisibly small. Your best ally in avoiding that is to understand how the pinworm cycle works, and I strongly urge you to read my booklet, "The Commonest Pest — Pinworm." (Anyone can obtain a copy by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 20 cents in coin to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald.)

If you never put your fingers in your mouth (or better yet never even touch your face) without having washed your hands, you will have small chance of getting any of the eggs. It is also important to keep your nails trimmed, and to use a brush to scrub under them.

With young children it is nearly impossible to impress the importance of clean hands. They eat candy, drink pop, grab a snack in the kitchen, without washing their hands. If another child in the neighborhood is infected, there's always the risk of getting some of the eggs on the fingers while the youngsters are scuffling around. And thus another attack of pinworms starts.

The important thing is to avoid the eggs. You can get rid of these pests and yet be starting a new batch a few days later unless you realize the importance of good hygiene to avoid the eggs, and know the nature of the thing we call a pinworm.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 40 and having back trouble. As I am short, I have worn spike heels for years. Could these be injurious? — MRS. B. E.

Very high heels can cause a change in posture that can mean backaches, but this would not necessarily be injurious to your back. Try a lower heel and see what happens.

Shingles can be a painful disease! To receive a copy of my booklet, "The Facts About Shingles," write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim

Sectionalism, Dipped In Barbs

We Americans hire Chambers of Commerce and public relations consultants to sell the virtues of our communities but as individuals we savor the insult and rarely pass up the opportunity to devalue another state or another city with the use of ridicule.

West Texans are prone to wince when a visitor focuses attention on our restless winds and lack of water but we generally attack the problem by directing attention to the alleged shortcomings of other areas.

THAT IS NOT strictly a provincial reaction. On the contrary, people everywhere are prone to resort to such tactics, with the result that the gentle rib about some other area's people, climate, habits and morals has become part of the American folk lore.

No where is there greater evidence of provincialism than in the states of California and Texas. In California, the natives are prone to throw barbs at every other section of the country, while suggesting that God's greatest blessings are passed on those people who are lucky enough to live in their midst.

TEXANS, on the other hand, often act as if they feel sorry for those mortals who have not had the opportunity to become part of their community.

On the other hand, people in other areas are prone to look on all Texans as loud-mouth uncultured braggarts, many of whom have too much money that came too easily.

The verbal darts aimed at residents of the Lone Star State come in other frequencies, too. Some of the critics are prone to say "you can see more and see less in Texas than anywhere" and you have to concede they have a point.

A PRIZE BRAMBLE aimed our way, too, is the one about "if the Alamo had had a back door there wouldn't be any Texas."

Oklahomans much prefer to be called Sooners rather than Okies and the good burghers of Arkansas find the word Arkies odious but that doesn't keep residents in other areas from so branding them.

New Yorkers often become overly smug about their area, specifically people who reside in Manhattan or its environs, and outsiders are not being very complimentary when they remark of its residents "they think everything outside New York is Bridgeport." The problems presented by Harlem and the dirt-choked rivers that flow by New York come in for some pungent comment, too.

THE PECULIAR political climate of Massachusetts in general and Boston in particular is often faulted by the needlers, as is the alleged stiffness of the New Englander.

West Virginia is too often referred to as one whole poverty pocket where the principal industry is coal-mining but a place where the miners are always on strike.

One of the most caustic deductions of St. Louis I've ever heard was passed on by a California writer who said the principle diversion there was going down the river bank and watching the Mississippi flow by. It gets so cold during the winter in Amarillo, I'm sure you're heard, that there is nothing between it and the North Pole but a barbed-wire fence.

FLORIDA, some wits will tell you, is a state with a million palms—some of them reach up but most of them reach out.

In Nevada, the unpurged visitor will say, the motto is "Help keep Nevada green—bring money."

Los Angeles is nothing but one huge traffic jam, you probably have been told. Cleveland, others are prone to say, is a place where you live only until you make enough money to leave.

PERHAPS we all need to be analyzed in such a manner from time to time. Were it not for the humorous incivilities passed on to us, we might get so insufferably smug we couldn't tolerate one another.

No Selling Climax In Market

NEW YORK (AP) — Some of Wall Street's folklore is taking a beating. Summer, as business measures it, is in its final days. And the stock market has yet to come up with the summer rally which the romantic like to think of as traditional. Rather, stock prices last week dropped to the lowest level in more than two years.

Trading volume picked up. But observers were still wistfully looking for that traditional selling climax which is supposed to spell the end of a long and sharp decline.

TALK ABOUT inflation is very much the "in" thing this summer. But the tradition that people turn to buying stocks as a hedge against general price inflation seems very dormant at the moment. On the contrary, the drop in stock prices is traced by many brokerage firm analysts less to an urgency to sell than to a lack of interest in buying.

Rising profits of a majority of corporations, along with record sales and production schedules, would — if tradition were running true to form — draw investors into the stock market. But summer ebbs the public seems to be unimpressed by higher profits or even by rising dividend payments.

TRADITIONALISTS had hoped that last week would see: first, a selling climax that would clear the air; second, the start of an upturn that could be called a summer rally; and, just possibly, a revival of public confidence as summer neared the Labor Day weekend which business usually thinks of as the real — not calendar — turn of the seasons.

But Friday, Aug. 26, the Dow-Jones index of 30 industrial stocks closed at 780.56, or 24.06 points lower than the close on the previous Friday.

THE WANING days of summer could see a rebound from the low point. At 780, the Dow industrial index was really low compared with the record high of 995 set in early February.

The drop of 215 points in a little more than six months left many stock market watchers at a loss for explanations. Cited as contributing reasons were: tight money, higher returns from bonds and other investments, Viet Nam war uncertainties, fear that the long upswing in business was leveling off or due for a drop, increasing labor - management friction that threatens the profit prospects and talk of coming tax increases.

BUT NEITHER separately nor taken together do they seem to offer a satisfactory answer to why the stock market is behaving as badly as it is.

There is still one tradition left, however. And that is that whatever the market did last week, or even yesterday, doesn't guarantee what it will do tomorrow. And that's why there'll always be stock traders — and market watchers.

How To Jockey For A Senate Seat

WASHINGTON — On a morning earlier this month 88-year-old Senator Carl Hayden (D., Ariz.) was sitting up in bed at the Bethesda Naval Hospital eating eggs — but the egg-on-the-face showed up on other faces in his home state.

On Aug. 11, in a front-page column, the Arizona Daily Star had reported from "reliable Washington sources" that the elderly Senator "will not recover."

THIS GHOLLISH bit of gossip, however, was down in the sixth paragraph, for the implied thrust of the article was that the law was fuzzy and that Governor Sam Goddard (D.), might appoint a deserving Democrat.

To do this, the governor would have to defy the Arizona State Constitution. A 1962 amendment requires that senators be elected and not appointed for interim terms. The name widely mentioned for appointment was that of the Star's publisher, William R. Mathews.

BEHIND THIS story is still another one of political grab, as well as some fascinating lore on the makeup of the U.S. Senate.

In 1961-62, Arizona Governor Fannin (R.) was in a tussle with a legislature controlled by the Democrats. Senator Hayden was up for re-election but he was also hospitalized in Washington with what was frequently described as his terminal illness.

The anti-Fannin forces put through a bill for Constitutional Amendment that would call for the election (not the appointment) of a senator in event of a vacancy.

AIRZONANS, choosing between their beloved old man and a radical, right-of-Goldwater Republican, gratefully re-elected Hayden. They also ratified the amendment which took the appointive power from the governor.

In sum, in 1962, when a Republican governor in power, the Democrats desired an interim election for senators from Arizona. But in 1966, with a Democratic governor in the saddle, the practical-minded Democrats desired the appointive system.

FOR THE many Americans and foreigners who find the U.S. Senate an intriguing study in parliamentary performance, there is a dandy little research job by Alan L. Clem on the subject of Senate vacancies. Between the opening of the 66th Congress, March, 1919, (the first Congress in which all full-term senators were popularly elected) and the opening of the 89th Congress, January, 1965, there have been 807 Senate terms that commenced with an expectancy of six years. But 146 of the 807 (better than 18 per cent) were vacated by death or resignation.

THE AVERAGES show that we can expect three Senate vacancies a year, six per Congress. Only in Arizona is an interim election required, and even there Governor Goddard might have found a loophole. He could have named his man and counted on the heavily Democratic U.S. Senate to seat a new member.

The Senate, of course, is sole judge of its own membership, but the American Constitution leaves it to the States as to how and when a Senate vacancy shall be filled.

One-Stop Shopping At Home Real Estate Co.

Looking for a home? Want to sell your home, or trade? Home Real Estate Company, in Room 103 of the Permian Building, is a one-stop real estate department store — the logical place to go.

Home Real Estate Company is entering its third year of serving the real estate needs of Big Spring. Jeff Brown is the Realtor - Broker, and the sales staff also includes Marie Price, Lee Hans, Sue Brown and Bill Crooker. One of the staff is available at all times to serve your needs.

MANY HOMES

Homes for sale vary in number, usually well over 100, and include all price ranges. The prospective buyer may arrange by appointment to view almost any home of his choice, day or night, after work, or on weekends. A few choice rentals are also maintained for those who don't want to buy. A variety of financing plans is offered, including conventional, FHA or VA. Home Real Estate handles FHA and VA repossessed homes, too. If sufficient local financing does not seem available when you decide to purchase, one of the company's mortgage loan contacts throughout the state may be able to help. The company also offers a complete insurance service for your needs, to insure your home, your car, or other personal needs.

CHOICE LOTS

If you want to build a new home, Home Real Estate has choice lots available, and works on a cooperative basis with several architects and builders. As a buyer, this allows you to compare material and workmanship of different craftsmen, and to select a builder of your choice on a competitive bid basis.

If a home is for sale, Home Real Estate knows that the owner has found that selling his home himself is no easy undertaking. Selling a home means attracting the right "prospects" — people who are ready, willing and able to buy, not just those who are curious to see what the inside of a house looks like. The owner can attempt to make the sale himself, or have someone else handle the difficult negotiations. The best way to market a home — probably a family's most valuable asset — is the professional way through a realtor. Just as you go to a doctor or a lawyer for specialized work, a realtor knows how to sell homes, and is the man to go to.

PROFESSIONALS

A realtor is not just another licensed Real Estate Broker. All realtors are brokers, but not all sales people or brokers are realtors. The entire staff of Home Real Estate are realtors through the Texas Real Estate Association and National Association of Real Estate Boards, by virtue of their being active members of the Big Spring Board of Realtors. A realtor subscribes to a strict code of ethics, and assures you moral as well as legal protection when transacting business. Realtor Jeff Brown is currently president of the local board.

If someone tries to sell his own home, it is commonly conceded he may price it far above its market value because of sentimental attachments or expenditures he has made through the years, or failure to recognize that houses no longer command scarcity prices.

Or perhaps friends have given their opinion on what the house is worth. It is the advice of experts? Are they familiar with the current real estate market trends in buying? A house, once it has remained on the market for months because of overpricing frequently becomes a "white elephant." Potential buyers wonder what's wrong with it. Only too frequently it is finally sold for a much lower figure than it would have brought originally — had it been priced right and listed with a realtor.

On the other hand, an owner may underprice his home because he's unfamiliar with the market. "For Sale By Owner" signs are frequently checked by speculators who are anxious to pick up a profit on a bargain.

TRADE UP

The staff of Home Real Estate encourages home owners to consider "trading up" if they are going to continue living in Big Spring and want a different home. Many times the owner can realize a large equity he has in his home by trading with another home owner.

If the owner is moving to another town, Home Real Estate, through its connections with the Texas Real Estate Association and the National Association of Real Estate Boards may be able to find someone who is moving to Big Spring from that town — and arrange an exchange, giving the customer the protection of dealing with an ethical individual, not total strangers.

If planning to sell your home, give Home Real Estate 30 or 60 days notice, so they'll be able to handle the job properly. The entire staff stands ready to do everything possible to help sell or buy homes for the customer at the best price obtainable.

Save Time With Cactucite, A Fine New Cactus Paint

Need a new paint job but don't know exactly where to begin? You know by experience that you can't give the outside of your home just a simple coat of paint. What you need is a substantial covering that will hold up under West Texas sand storms and blistering summers.

Perhaps through years of exposure to weather the color has begun to fade or the metal trim which you painted only last season already sticks out like a sore thumb.

Drive by Cactus Paint Co. located on US 80 east, and check its paint products, properly blended and tested for use here in West Texas.

Cactus Paint Co. carries paint for all exterior and interior surfaces, all grades and types of linseed oil bases, vinyl bases, primers, oil field and all other grades of industrial coatings.

CACTUCITE

A fast and easy way to handle your paint job is with Cactucite, a new product made by Cactus Paint Co. It saves time and money with very little mess. It dries in 30 to 40 minutes, and clean-up time can be cut in half since brushes are easily cleaned with water.

If you are not sure what kind of paint you need, let the Cactus Paint Co. cordially invites the public to come in and inspect its new sales room.

personnel suggest the proper coating for your room or outside surface, or you can check the color cards and charts for the proper paint.

BIG SPRING BUSINESS REVIEW

3-B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, HERALD, MONDAY, AUGUST 29, 1966 3-B

Service Is Motto At Creighton Tire

"Service" is the motto of Creighton Tire Co., 601 Gregg, owned and operated by Charlie Creighton and Dalton Carr, and real service is what they have given to the Big Spring area for over 35 years.

Eight men with years of experience in handling tires are there to serve Creighton Tire Co. customers. They all know that courtesy goes hand-in-hand with service.

QUALITY PRODUCTS
The firm has made a strong point of selling only high-quality products and giving only high-quality service during its many years in business in Big Spring.

This is only one of the reasons why West Texas motorists go back time and again to Creighton Tire Co. Another reason is that Creighton Tire Co. is the home of the improved Seiberling tire, with wrap-around tread. The tire is known as the Seiberling Supreme Sealed - Aire tire, performance rated at 200, and it has built up a fine reputation for stability and reliability.

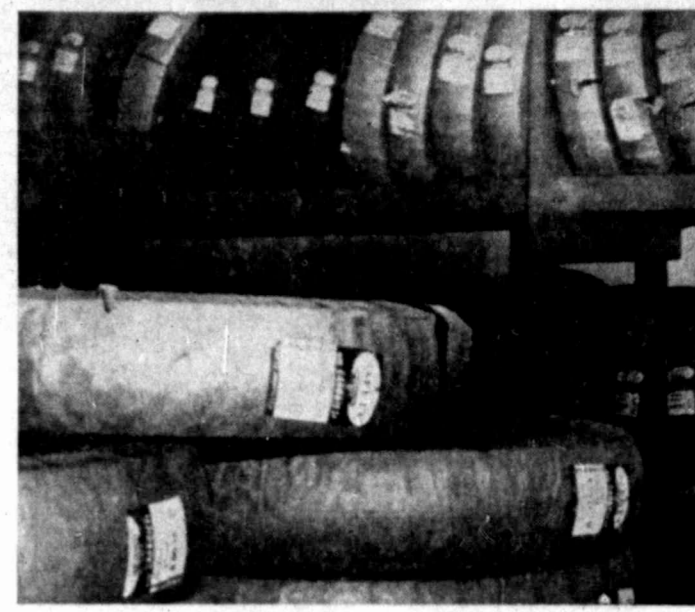

SPECIAL TREAD
Seiberling tubeless Sealed-Aire tires have a very wide and deep hi-traction tread, which gives exceptional traction, positive braking power, outstanding stability, easy handling and quiet performance for the life of the original tread which is your guarantee of lasting service.

It alone offers exclusive Seiberling Puncture Sealing bulkhead construction, with perfect tire balance assured. What is needed more than this tire in the West Texas area with all the back-road and ranch-trail driving that people do today?

Even if rugged - country driving does not cause a "blow-out," thorns or glass can become imbedded in the tire carriage, gradually wearing a tiny hole in the tube and letting the pressure fall. That is where the Seiberling Sealed - Aire tire comes in with reliability that won't let you down.

ONLY DEALER
Creighton has the only authorized Seiberling tire dealership in the area, and people from miles around come to him for his top-notch tire and Mobil products. Seiberling tires are available for cars, trucks, tractors, even boat-trailers.

SEIBERLINGS ON DISPLAY
Creighton's always has a full supply of fine Seiberling tires

Moving Isn't Difficult If Byron's Does The Job

If you are getting ready to move, down the street or to the coast, you know that it can be a major operation. It involves long hours of sorting and packing, and then there is the straightening after the move.

Why not get some help? Big Spring has a moving company which can take the big load off your shoulders. That company is Byron's Storage and Transfer, 106 E. 1st. It has the facilities and the men to move anywhere in the country, even overseas if you are going that far.

Now, the residents can leave the house with nothing but the clothes they have on and a change in their suitcases and let the movers do the rest, including arranging the furniture in the new home.

The only thing you need to do is tell Byron's when you plan to move out, when you want your furniture in the new house, and how you want it arranged.

Packing is done carefully and securely. Glassware, mirrors, pictures, lamps and all fragile items are wrapped and packed securely and labeled for identification on opening by Byron's movers.

Agent for United Van Lines, Byron's Storage and Transfer is the moving company to solve all your moving problems. If you are concerned about the safe transport of your belongings, rest assured that Byron's will handle your furniture with great care.

State National Is Happy To Serve

State National Bank of Big Spring and the people who work there make a practice of keeping up with developments and helping business and industry to grow — including farming.

The bank has grown with the town and with Howard County. When one thinks of expansion, one of the best places to get information and to find consultation is the State National Bank. The management feels the bank can grow only if the area it serves can grow.

Don January, 36, of Dallas, Texas, slumps over his putter and his hat tumbles to the ground as he sinks a five-foot putt on the 18th green of the Philadelphia Golf Classic at White-marsh, Pa., yesterday to win the tourney. It was his first major win in three years and he received a check for $21,000. He finished the 72-hole tourney ten-under with a score of 278, defeating defending champion Jack Nicklaus by one stroke. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Don January Persisted To Win By One Stroke

WHITEMARSH, Pa. (AP)—Don January persisted to the bitter end. Even with $21,000 in his sweat-soaked pockets, the 36-year-old Dallas golfer refused to give up. He finished the 72-hole Philadelphia Golf Classic at White-marsh, Pa., yesterday to win the tourney by one stroke.

and a one-stroke victory over Jack Nicklaus, despite two almost unbelievable eagles on the final round Sunday by the Masters and British Open champion. "I felt all day I could win," January said. "I knew if I lost it I would have to give it away."

The 36-year-old January, in his 11th year as a touring professional, collected his first winning check since the 1963 Tucson Open. January was tied with Arnold Palmer for the lead after 54 holes, each with 207. Nicklaus was five strokes back as they teed off for the final 18. After nine holes of the final round, Nicklaus had charged into the lead by a stroke.

The Columbus better finished with a 67 for 279 and second place. Palmer, shooting a final round 74, shared third place with Bob Goalby and Gene Littler at 281. U.S. Open Champion Billy Casper had a 285 and PGA king Al Geiberger a 290.

Sandy Favors Ohio Links

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Ladies golfer's own Dandy Sandy seems to be getting a crush on Ohio—or more aptly, a crushing grip on Ohio golf tournaments—that may stand her in good stead, $10,000 worth, this week.

Sandra Haynie, the petite better from Fort Worth, Tex., won the Glass City Classic at Toledo, latest stop on the LPGA tour, Sunday to go with her earlier triumph at Cincinnati. Those have been her only 1966 victories.

But about midway between Toledo and Cincinnati lies Springfield, Ohio, which starting Thursday is the scene of the first Ladies World Series of Golf with $10,000 top prize for 36 holes of medal play.

At Toledo's par 71 Highland Meadows, Miss Haynie rallied with 16th- and 17th-hole birdies, withstood an 18th-hole bogey that allowed Gloria Ehret to catch up to her, then went three playoff holes before besting the 25-year-old Allentown, Pa., golfer.

POSTPONED SUNDAY Doubles Tourney Resume Today

Associated Press Sports Writer BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP)—American Davis Cup Aces Dennis Ralston and Clark Graebner and Australians Tony Roche and John Newcombe had some unfinished business to settle today before the championship roundup of the 86th U.S. National Doubles Tournament.

A berth in the final round against defending champions Roy Emerson and Fred Stolle of Australia was at stake as the Ralston-Graebner and Roche-Newcombe teams were directed to resume their postponed semifinal at noon on Longwood's center court.

Darkness forced officials to postpone completion of the match Sunday night with the second-seeded Americans and the third-seeded Aussies all even at two games apiece in the fifth and deciding set.

Graebner and Ralston, taking the court while Emerson and Stolle were moving to victory, won the first set 6-3, but Roche and Newcombe fought back to win the next two 6-3, 8-6. Then, on the brink of elimination, the Americans fought back to capture the fourth set 15-13.

Emerson and Stolle, top-seeded in defense of their U.S. crown, swept past fourth-ranked Arthur Ashe of Los Angeles and Marty Riessen of Evanston, Ill., 6-3, 7-9, 6-4, 6-2 and figured to have a physical edge over their opponents in the late afternoon final.

However, Ralston and the others didn't think conclusion of the interrupted semifinal would be harmful.

After completion of the men's semifinal, Maria Bueno of Brazil and Nancy Richey of Farmers Branch, Tex., will meet Billie Jean Moffitt King of Long Beach, Calif., and Rosemary Casals of San Francisco for the women's championship.

MISS ASTRO FOR 1967 Barry Sullivan greets Martha Widdon, Odessa

Odessa Beauty Picked For 'Miss Astro' Title

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The University of Arkansas will become the alma mater for Miss Martha Widdon, an 18-year-old Odessa lovely who was crowned Miss Astro for 1967 Sunday.

Standing on the brilliant green artificial grass infield of the Astrodome, Miss Widdon announced her college preference after receiving a four-year scholarship to the Southwest school of her choice.

Egyptian Wins

ISMAILIA, Egypt (AP)—Hanafi Mahmud of Egypt won the Suez Canal long-distance swimming race Sunday by covering the 27.3 miles between Suez and Ismailia in 14 hours, 22 minutes and 30 seconds. Herman Willems of the Netherlands was second.

Astros Win 5 Straight

HOUSTON (AP)—Astro whiz kid Larry Dierker and relief pitcher Dick Farrell combined Sunday to sweep Houston's four-game series with the Chicago Cubs, 4-3, and extend the Astros' winning streak to five games.

Coach Leo Durocher, a fiery critic of the Astrodome and its artificial grass, saw his Cubs finish the season against the Astros with only five wins in 18 games.

Dierker, 19, won his seventh game, matching his rookie showing of last year. He also helped his victory along with a walk that led to Houston's first run and a sacrifice bunt that put the winning run in scoring position.

Farrell stepped in after Dierker left for a pinchhitter, allowing no runs and just two hits in three innings. In his last five relief jobs, Farrell has allowed nine hits and only two runs.

After Houston tied the game in the third 2-2 on a walk and three singles, John Bateman made it 3-2 in the fourth on a passed ball by pitcher Randy Hendley.

Joe Morgan connected for his only hit of the afternoon, a single that drove in Ron Davis and gave Houston its ninth victory in the past 11 games.

Astro shortstop Sonny Jackson, meanwhile, broke a club record of 43 stolen bases set by Jim Wynn in 1965, taking his 44th in the first inning. He needs just six more steals to break the National League rookie record.

Schollander Equals Record

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—No matter where the meet is held, if Don Schollander is in it, he's usually very much in the swim of things.

Schollander, who was outstanding in the recent U.S. National AAU Outdoor Swimming and Diving Championships, equaled the world record for the 110-yard freestyle Sunday at the closing of the British Columbia centennial meet.

Falcons Win, Look Better Than Dolphins

By The Associated Press "They're a real football team."

Atlanta Coach Norb Hecker said it — and even he had to be among the doubters until Saturday night when his new Falcons, a cast of hand-me-downs and rookies, posted victory No. 1 in the National Football League by upending San Francisco 24-17 in an exhibition game.

The Falcons not only scored their first victory but slipped in ahead of the American League's Miami Dolphins and did just what everyone was saying they couldn't.

When the two leagues stocked the expansion clubs, it was generally considered that the AFL had been more generous and that the Dolphins had received stronger talent than the Falcons did from the stocking plan in the NFL.

Victories, however, speak louder than words, the Dolphins are still winless and the Falcons aren't.

While the Falcons broke their winless streak, the Dallas Cowboys won their fifth without a loss by downing Detroit 20-10. Green Bay throttled Pittsburgh 17-6. Los Angeles walloped St. Louis 32-14 and Philadelphia edged New York 24-23.

Buffalo Bills Expected In AFL Throneroom Again

NEW YORK (AP)—The site isn't set yet, and the date hasn't been fixed but when the National and American football leagues meet in a championship Super Bowl at the end of the year the AFL's standard-bearer will be the Buffalo Bills.

That, at least, is what it says here, now.

The Bills, with a strong offensive line, a veteran defense and enough offense to cause more than an occasional ripple, should make it to the AFL throne room for an unprecedented third straight time.

While the Bills seem to be the cream of the East, a three-way battle could develop in the Western Division with the San Diego Chargers right now getting the edge over the Oakland Raiders and Kansas City Chiefs.

However, a major shift in personnel — the much-discussed trade that would send fullback Cookie Gilchrist from Denver to Oakland — could shift the favorite's role.

Here's the way the entire race looks from this viewing spot.

Eastern Division — 1. Buffalo, 2. New York, 3. Houston, 4. Boston, 5. Miami.
Western Division — 1. San Diego, 2. Oakland, 3. Kansas City, 4. Denver.

The Bills not only have proven lines but have found a replacement for kicking specialist Pete

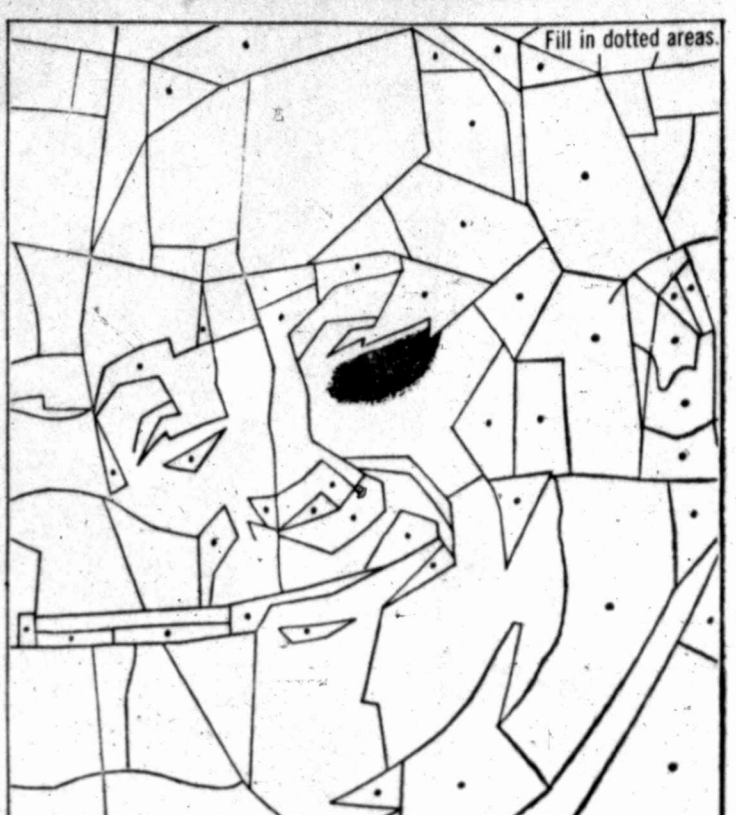

Gogolak in Booth Lusteg, an orthodox booter who seems to have more range. Quarterback Jack Kemp's life could be made easier this year by the return of receivers El Dubenion and Glenn Bass while Arkansas rookie Bob Burnett could add some running power.

DEPENDS ON NAMATH

The Jets likely will go as far as Joe Namath's legs. If the $400,000 quarterback misses any appreciable time, it could be a difficult year. Mat Snell would blossom as a fullback and Emerson Boozer of Maryland State may add a break-away threat but depth could be a problem.

explosive attack in the league with flanker Lance Alworth, record-setting rusher Keith Lincoln and a bushel of talent all down the line. Somehow, however, there always is the threat that the contract problems that have preceded the regular season could hurt. But they never seem to.

The Raiders' entire season could rest with quarterback Cotton Davidson, trying to make a comeback after a shoulder operation. If Davidson can make it back big, Oakland could go all the way with such proven talent as halfback Clem Daniels, receiver Art Powell and some top-flight rookie candidates.

Davis' Splurge Could Win Flag

By The Associated Press

Willie Davis' current hitting splurge may not win the National League batting crown for him, but it could help win the National League pennant for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Davis, who had spring thoughts of winning the batting title, lashed four hits for the second consecutive day as the Dodgers defeated San Francisco 5-2 Sunday and moved to within one game of the league lead.

The loss dropped the Giants into a tie for first with the Pittsburgh Pirates, who defeated St. Louis 5-1 after losing the opener of the doubleheader 3-2.

Davis' homer and three singles extended his streak to eight straight hits before he grounded out in the ninth inning. Since Aug. 6, when he was hitting .268, the 26-year-old lefty has collected 36 hits in 96 at-bats for a lusty .375 mark.

Over-all he's now hitting .289. Elsewhere in the National League Cincinnati stopped Philadelphia 5-2, Atlanta defeated New York 8-4 and Houston edged Chicago 4-3.

Davis' first-inning homer started 20-game winner Gaylord Perry on the way to his fourth defeat. Jim Lefebvre's fourth-inning homer broke a 1-1 tie and Davis singled in the seventh before Ron Fairly homered. Don Sutton allowed the Giants

Car Recovered In Wild Chase

Police got a stolen car back to its owner after a wild, 120-mph chase Saturday night, but the car thief is still on the loose.

Officers said Charles Bridges, 510 Abrams, reported his 1966 model stolen about 11 p.m. Saturday.

The vehicle was spotted being driven at Air Base Road and US 80 west, and officers attempted to stop it, but it sped off with police in chase.

The stolen car's driver took it onto IS 20, narrowly missing a collision with a truck, and officers got some distance ahead of the police car, which had to wait for the truck.

Officers fired at least once at the fleeing vehicle before it came to a sudden halt, lights off at the side of the road. The patrol car immediately behind it attempted to stop when it saw the car had pulled off the road, but brake fade caused the patrol car to go two blocks beyond the stolen vehicle, officers said.

By the time police, including several local patrol cars and two units from Martin County, got to the car, the driver had fled across a pasture, leaving only his hat as evidence. The thief was still being sought Monday.

Whitaker Slugs Yanks To Victory

Associated Press Sports Writer

Steve Whitaker is learning to live with himself but the Detroit Tigers still haven't found a way to live with Whitaker.

Whitaker, finishing his first week in the American League Sunday, slugged a grand-slam homer as the New York Yankees whipped Detroit 8-1, completing a three-game sweep and all but finishing the Tigers as pennant contenders.

The 22-year-old outfielder, brought up from the Yankees' Toledo farm club last Monday, clubbed Tiger pitching for seven hits — including a homer in each game — and drove in seven runs while boosting his seven-game batting mark to .391.

Cash Register Rifled Of $57

Four hands were quicker than two eyes at the 1801 S. Gregg 7-11 Store Saturday, officers said today.

Paul Biffle, operator, said two Negro men came into the store about 7:15 p.m. and while one of the men kept his attention, the other expertly rifled the cash register of $57.

B. M. Newton, who lives northwest of Big Spring, and Clarence Fryer, Knott Route, told officers Saturday that while they were attending a meeting at Howard County Junior College, someone entered their parked car and took both their hats.

one run and scored another. Savage got the triple when center fielder Matty Alou misjudged his line drive.

Jim Maloney and Don Notbart combined for a five-hit effort against Philadelphia. Cincinnati battered Larry Jackson for three runs in the first inning and went on to their fifth straight victory. Vada Pinson homered for the Reds in the third.

Homers by Ed Mathews and Rico Carty powered Atlanta past New York. Met errors by Ed Kranepool and Ken Boyer accounted for three more Braves' runs.

John Bateman's single triggered a two-run, fourth-inning rally that sent Houston to its fifth straight triumph. Bateman scored on Randy Hundley's passed ball, and Joe Morgan singled home the second run.

Buffie, Jolly Jet, Advocate, Exhibitionist and Sense Of Rhythm are expected to be in the field against Buckpasser who last month set a world record of 1:32.5 for the mile.

Bold Bidder upset Tom Wolfe by 3/4 lengths in $109,200 Washington Park Handicap at Arlington Park in last Saturday's top race. Bold Bidder's time for the mile was 1:32.4-5, just one-fifth off Buckpasser's world record.

Another surprise was chalked up by Bold Hour who beat Great Power in the $107,700 Hopeful Stakes that closed the Saratoga meeting.

Turn To Talent won the Paganet Handicap at Atlantic City. Naughty Jester took the Rainbow Handicap at Rockingham Park and Drin beat Fleet Host by a head in the Del Mar Derby in Saturday's other features.

Elsewhere, Kansas City nipped California 2-1; Washington shaded Cleveland 3-2 and Chicago swept a marathon doubleheader from Minnesota, 4-3 in 15 innings and 7-6 in 11.

Joe Foy's run-scoring single in the seventh snapped a 2-2 tie and gave the Red Sox their second straight 3-2 decision over Baltimore. Carl Yastrzemski had pulled Boston even in the fifth with an RBI single, chasing Orioles starter Jim Palmer.

Jim Nash, the Athletics' sensational rookie, checked California on six hits for his ninth victory in 10 decisions. Sixth-inning singles by Phil Roof and Larry Stahl delivered Kansas City runs.

The Senators broke a 2-2 deadlock on Jim King's two-out single in the ninth inning and extended their winning string to five games. King's hit scored Willie Kirkland, who had walked and moved up on Bob Saverinus' infield single.

Tommie Agee's run-scoring single in the 15th pushed Chicago past the Twins in the opener, ending a four-game losing string for the White Sox, and Jerry Adair won the second game with a lead-off homer in the 11th. Harmon Killebrew homered in each game for the Twins, raising his season total to 30.

Cards Divide Two Games

The Big Spring Cardinals split a pair Sunday, dropping the opener at Teenage Park to the San Angelo Hawks, 6-2, then bouncing back to trip the Coahoma Eagles, 5-3, in the nightcap.

Ramirez was tagged with the loss in the first game, but Tony Fierro hurled the Cards to victory against Coahoma.

The first game was a wierd affair, with San Angelo sending 45 batters to the plate with only four hits. The Cards, on the other hand, had 33 men officially at bat and mustered only two hits. At that they were in the game until the eighth inning when, with the score knotted 2-2, San Angelo broke loose on the strength of pitching wildness. The Hawks pushed across four runs on four walks, two hits, and a fielder's choice.

In the second game, Fierro, J. Ramirez, and Hernandez and Yanez had back to back singles to score three runs. They added another run in the fourth when Olague knocked in Hernandez, and Coahoma could never catch up despite two runs in the fifth in a pair of walks.

Buckpasser Seeks Tenth

By The Associated Press

Buckpasser, described by trainer Eddie Nejoy as a horse who "likes to win," goes after his 10th straight this week in the $250,000 New Hampshire Sweepstakes Classic at Rockingham Park.

Proclaimed as one of the best thoroughbreds in turf history after his record-shattering feats as a 3-year-old this season, the famed son of Tom Fool also can pass Citation on the equine millionaire list by winning the New Hampshire on Saturday.

Buckpasser, owned by Ogden Phipps, became the first 3-year-old ever to reach the $1-million plateau when he won the Travers at Saratoga in his last outing. That gave him earnings of $1,038,369 compared to Citation's $1,085,766.

There are only four other equine millionaires. Kelso tops the list with $1,977,896 followed by Round Table with $1,749,889, Nashua with $1,288,565 and Carry Back with $1,241,165.

Moore Signs Up With Dodgers

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Gary Moore, star University of Texas football and baseball player, has signed a professional baseball contract with the Los Angeles Dodgers and will not take his final year of eligibility.

He will attend college until next spring when he will report to a Dodger organization.

Moore, former Tulsa high school star, said the key factor in his decision was a desire to concentrate on his studies in architecture.

Perez Turns Out Best For Ponies

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — "I keep telling myself he can't do that, then all he does is do it," said Coach Hayden Fry of Southern Methodist.

He was watching a young man named Ines Perez, who thus far has been about the best quarterback on the squad as Southern Methodist completes a week of fall football training.

He is 5-foot-4-one of the shortest men ever to report for football in the Southwest Conference.

Perez, a 20-year-old Latin American, wasn't supposed to be on the varsity squad this fall. He was to be redshirted, because SMU already had two good quarterbacks and he would be needed more next year than now. If needed at all.

Nobody could figure a youngster of his size playing much football in the conference where 6-4, 250-pounders are a way of life.

But Perez not only is an adept passer but he can run around those giant linebackers and ponderous defensive backs.

Arkansas Out Front

By The Associated Press

The Texas League drives down its last week with little to indicate it won't wind up as it now stands—Arkansas first, Amarillo second, Albuquerque third and Austin fourth.

The closest race is for second where Amarillo holds only a 2 1/2-game lead over Albuquerque. Amarillo has only nine games to play while Albuquerque has eight.

Austin is 4 1/2 games ahead of fifth place El Paso and seems to have the last playoff spot, although El Paso has won five of its last six games. But Albuquerque has won four of its last six.

Arkansas increased its lead to five games when it beat Amarillo 2-1 Sunday night. Albuquerque edged Austin 10-9 in 13 innings.

Dallas-Fort Worth dropped back into the cellar when beaten 3-2 by El Paso, the fifth place club.

For instance, in a scrimmage of nine passes for 66 yards and two touchdowns and raced 22 yards for a score himself.

"He's great at picking receivers," said Fry. "His throws appear soft, but they get there. When he finds a receiver he releases the ball quickly."

"He has a hard spiral," chuckles assistant coach Chuck Curtis, who realizes that Fry's quaddery is a pleasant one.

So what, if the guy is so small he has to pass between his opponent's legs, so short he can't see over the line to throw in the first place? Results are what count.

They can find a lot of flaws in Perez' quarterbacking. What he can do with the rollout is something to conjecture about. How he can stand up to the pounding of those giant tackles is something else. He doesn't take the snaps like Fry wants it but he takes them.

But Perez has been doing it in high school and junior college football. He led Henderson County Junior College to the Junior Rose Bowl last fall, throwing 16 touchdowns passes along the way. He also ran with the ball.

Legionnaires Open Convention

WASHINGTON (AP) — A sort of Fourth-of-July-in-August atmosphere gripped the capital today as the American Legion mustered for a grand parade, a feature of its 48th national convention.

Beginning at noon and lasting for at least seven hours, the event was to send 20,000 marchers along Pennsylvania and Constitution avenues. Traffic was to be diverted around a big downtown section.

More than 6,000 of the marchers are members of bands, and drum and bugle corps. The armed services assigned some of their smartest units to take part. Four hundred National Guardsmen were directed to help police handle the crowds and the traffic.

The convention which lasts through Thursday, has attracted some 50,000 persons. Legionnaires and their families. Hotels are jammed, overseas caps embrodered with gold-braided insignia are everywhere.

One of the convention preliminaries was a speech Sunday by Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y. Talking about the Viet Nam war, Javits said: "I do not believe the Legion will want to sound hawkish just because people expect it to."

"Of course, we are capable of great escalation of force and of course we possess the military might to inflict unacceptable damage on our opponents, but I do not believe that Americans want to use that power at the risk of a nuclear war or, more probably, an Asian land war."

The President, Javits said, should "concentrate our primary military activities in the South to provide a shield of confidence, a shield behind which the equally real war against social and economic deprivation can go forward."

So far this convention has been staid compared to some of the rambunctious, fun-loving meetings of the past. Age is creeping up on the veterans. A Legion conference on the aged was held Friday that by 1970, all of the nation's veterans of World Wars I and II will be 45 or older.

However, this takes no account of the Korean or Viet Nam wars, which will lower the average age of veterans. Korean War veterans already are eligible for membership and the convention is expected to throw Legion membership open to those who serve in the armed forces during the undeclared war in Viet Nam.

MOD Man Wigs

Phillip Hibberts, 21, of Dallas, upper left as he appears as salesman for a Dallas department store, models the latest in wigs for the young man. The wigs, made of human hair, went on sale for $29 which includes the styling. The wigs come in black, dark brown, medium brown, auburn or blond shades. The store carrying the wigs said it had 15 phone calls from prospective customers before the store opened. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Retail Sales Rise Slightly

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas retail sales rose slightly in July to a new high for this year, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research said Saturday.

The state retail sales index advanced less than one per cent above its June level.

Preliminary data indicates July sales topped $1 billion, the bureau said. Durable goods sales totaled $601.7 million and non-durables accounted for $766.9 million.

Durable goods sales were 5 per cent below June levels, but non-durables were up 4 per cent. Auto sales dipped 5 per cent from June. Lumber, building material and hardware sales fell 9 per cent.

Changes in sales from June to July in major Texas cities included Austin down 8 per cent, Dallas down 5 per cent, El Paso up 5 per cent, Fort Worth up 1 per cent, Houston up 3 per cent and San Antonio down 3 per cent.

Moisture Situation Good In Most Parts Of State

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Rains swooped across the state during the past week and parts usually dry far West Texas termed its moisture "surplus."

The "surplus" washed away crops and flooded irrigated farm lands in the Dell City area.

John Hutchison, Texas Agriculture Extension Service director, said that as result of the widespread rains, the state's over-all moisture situation is mostly good, although a few areas are still dry.

He said heavy rains in far West and Central West Texas have greened up crops and pastures and stockmen are thinking less about early fall feeding.

Here are mid-week reports from district farm agents:

Panhandle moisture is improved but a trifle short in some counties. Grain sorghum is ripening, with the dryland crop much improved and the irrigated crop in fine shape. Cotton is thriving, although there is a little bug and hail damage. Potatoes and onions and carrots look good. The market is up on potatoes and down on onions and carrots. Livestock conditions are normal. Ranges are improved.

Rain that fell in the Lubbock area helped dryland crops. Dryland cotton looks fair to good. Castor beans, sugar beets and soybeans are making excellent progress, and sorghum harvesting is starting. All potatoes and most onions are harvested.

The Vernon area had widespread rains, but more are needed. Cotton is fruiting. Boll weevil and bollworm infestations range from light to heavy. Hay baling is under way. Soybeans are fair. Ranges are fair to good. Stock water is low in a few counties.

Beneficial rains fell in North Central Texas although three counties report moisture shortage. Cotton is opening, and a few counties have ginned first bales. Sorghum harvesting is active with good yields. Ranges are improving, and livestock are in good condition.

Moisture conditions vary from short to surplus in far West Texas. Ranges and dryland crops are doing well where rain fell. Sorghum is being harvested and cotton is progressing. Pink bollworm infestations are heavy from the Pecos River to El Paso. Livestock are generally good, with lambs and calves

State Boasts Safer Weekend

By The Associated Press

It was a relatively safe weekend on Texas highways, but a flurry of shooting deaths helped push the state's violent death toll to 25.

An Associated Press tabulation showed nine of the 24 victims died of gunshot wounds, while traffic accidents took 14 lives.

The count began at 6 p.m. Friday and extended until midnight Sunday.

Isabel Valdez, 29, of San Juan, Tex., died Saturday night when his pickup truck overturned on Farm Road 1426 south of Edinburg in Hidalgo County.

Two young sisters were found shot to death in their Corpus Christi home Saturday. Killed were Sheila Gay O'Neal, 7 months, and Sharon Sue O'Neal, 2.

Santos Villarreal, 3, was killed near Sullivan City Saturday when he was struck by an automobile on US 83.

Samuel Leroy Jones, 73, was killed in Austin Saturday night by a car as he crossed a street.

Ewell Blanton died Saturday night in Greenville after being struck by six bullets.

Joe Jamie, 17, of Corpus Christi, was fatally wounded by a gunshot blast in Corpus Christi Saturday night.

Johnny L. Roberts, 28, died of a gunshot wound in the head Sunday in Cleburne during a game of what police said was Russian Roulette.

James Bruce Greene of San Antonio was killed Saturday when his pickup truck ran off Park Road 37 on a curve five miles west of San Antonio. He was 22.

Maurice Williams, 42, of Carrizo Springs was killed and six persons injured Saturday near Asherton when Williams' pickup truck and another pickup truck and a car were in collision on US 83.

Joaquin Garcia, 15, of Kingsville, was killed late Friday night when his automobile overturned a mile west of Kingsville.

Education Fund IS $179 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Office of Education says more than $179 million in federal funds will be available as loans to nearly 500,000 students in about 1,600 colleges and universities during the coming academic year.

The federal funds, provided under the National Defense Education Act, represent 90 per cent of the national defense student loan program. The colleges and universities will contribute the remaining 10 per cent.

The education office said about 968,000 students have borrowed $834 million since the program was authorized in 1958.
