KENNY CLANTON SELLS RESERVE CHAMPION BARROW
Coahoma youth gets $1 a pound for his prize winning animal

(See other pictures Page 5-A)

Prices Sag In Bidding At Annual Pig Show Auction

Prices paid for the 30 top hogs sold at the auction last night were substantially lower this year than were paid at the Howard County Annual Pig Show in 1965. The auction closed the show.

Even David Early's grand champion barrow, which was bid in by the four Big Spring hospitals, was five cents a pound under the price paid for Early's 1965 prize winner. Their bid was $1.20. With his prize money, young Early received $254 for his 195-pound rosette winner.

Kenny Clanton, who won the reserve championship with a 285-pound barrow which had placed second to Early's entry in the middleweight competition, brought $1 a pound. Kenny, who is a member of the Coahoma FFA like David, received a total of $219 for his animal. Coahoma State Bank was the buyer.

The bidding on the other pigs was not nearly as high as last year when 50 to 60 cents a pound was paid for a number of the pigs. The highest price bid in for any of the other 28 pigs last night was 49 cents.

PUT 35 CENT FLOOR
A considerable number of the pigs were sold for less than 35 cents. The two downtown banks agreed, at the sale, to make up to that price all amounts paid to any youngster whose pig brought less than 35 cents.

A highlight of the event was the selection of Johnny Peugh, as the master showman of the year. He was presented with a trophy as a token of his achievement. Peugh is a 4-H Club member.

Two errors were made in the listing of winners in The Herald on Thursday. It was erroneously reported that Donny Harrington was the reserve champion winner. This was a mistake made in copying from the official results. The winner, as stated, was Coahoma FFA member, Kenny Clanton.

The sixth place winner in the heavyweight division was mistakenly reported as Lonnie Newton. The real sixth place winner was Stephen Ray, 11, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ray, Rt. 1. This is Stephen's first year as a pig showman. Newton won seventh place in the heavyweight division.

FAST SALE
The auction moved at top speed last night. Randall Sherrod was the auctioneer. The Junior Chamber of Commerce handled the spotting bidders, and, in an hour, all of the 30 animals offered had been sold.

Checks will be dispatched to the young exhibitors by the office of the Howard County agricultural agent. Bills will be sent to the bidders for the amount of their bids.

Resale purchases on heavy hogs were made at 22.35 by the Farm Pack Co. of Lubbock. On pigs under 150 pounds Ralph White, Coahoma was the resale buyer at 20.10.

Four of the original top group of 30 pigs were withdrawn from

Inez Rips Yucatan

MERIDA, Mexico (AP)—Hurricane Inez pelted villages on the northern coast of the Yucatan Peninsula today with heavy winds, high tides and rain, then headed for the southwestern Gulf of Mexico, packing 125-mile-an-hour winds.

Property damage in the port of Progreso, about 22 miles from Merida, was reported heavy. Up to mid-morning, however, there were no reports of deaths or serious injury.

In a noon advisory the New Orleans Weather Bureau said Inez was about 155 miles north of Merida, moving toward the west-southwest about 10 miles an hour.

PROGRESS EVACUATED
"Inez is expected to move on a west-southwestward course for the next 12 to 24 hours at a slower rate of speed," the advisory said. "Little change in size or intensity is expected."

About three-quarters of the 15,000 residents of Progreso were evacuated to Merida Thursday. Some who came to Merida from Progreso this morning reported heavy damage in the port because of wave action on waterfront construction and because of wind and rain against the poorly built houses in some sections of the city, though the wind and rain had been lighter than expected.

FLOODING FEAR
Heavy rain started in Merida about 7 p.m. Thursday. There was some fear of flooding in lower sections of the Yucatan capital, but no serious damage has been reported here.

Inez roared into the Yucatan Peninsula early today after 14 days of battering Caribbean and Bahama islands and the coast of Florida.

Gov. Luis Torres Mejias pleaded for federal aid. Trucks, trains and a caravan of buses evacuated refugees from Progreso.

Those who stayed sought shelter in the port's stronger buildings or on high ground as the steadily increasing winds kicked up high seas off the port.

POP UP AGAIN
The 6-foot-1 cancer patient now weighs 150 pounds, up from 140 last July.

Hundreds of persons from across the nation have telephoned and sent letters and telegrams to Rink and Houghton, asking for cancer cures.

"I refer them back to their own doctors," Houghton said, "with advice that they contact Roswell Park Memorial Institute," the Buffalo, N.Y. hospital where the cancer transplants were undertaken. Three other persons involved in the experiments died.

Houghton says that Rink has not been pronounced cured of cancer.

"You don't call a cancer patient cured until they go five to ten years without any evidence. It takes just a few cells to lie dormant and pop up again."

UF One-Fifth Toward Goal
First contributions from Webb AFB, the metropolitan and special gifts division pushed the United Fund to $26,268.27 late Thursday.

This represents approximately 20 per cent of the UF goal of $139,877.51.

A breakdown by divisions was big gifts, $23,827; special gifts, $1,236; employment division, $652.79; Webb AFB, $512.48; and metropolitan, $40.

More contributions from Webb and from the special gifts division were expected today. The UF special presentation of slides is being shown at the Veterans Administration Hospital today, and UF workers again stressed that the slides are available free of charge to any group, firm or organization interested in viewing them.

All of the divisions have kicked off, and throughout the month, the drive will continue to receive donations.

Bombers Plaster Red Viet

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. B52 bombers pounded North Viet Nam just above the demilitarized zone Thursday night while tactical U.S. bombers struck 25 times inside the zone and allied troops fought hard just south of it.

As the once neutral buffer area along the 17th Parallel exploded again, the three-pronged allied force waging Operation Irving closed in tighter on encircled Communist soldiers near South Viet Nam's central coast.

A company of the U.S. 1st Cavalry, Airborne, Division spearheading Irving burned down a Viet Cong hamlet 22 miles northwest of Qui Nhon, and American marksmen strafing from gunship helicopters reported killing 20 of the enemy as they fled.

Two miles south of the demilitarized zone, South Vietnamese paratroopers clashed with North Vietnamese army regulars Thursday in a vicious, four-hour battle that took a heavy toll on both sides.

An official spokesman said the South Vietnamese were attacked by a regiment—about 1,500 men—of North Vietnamese four miles southeast of Dong Ha, forward headquarters of U.S. Marines also trying to stop the North Vietnamese drive into the South.

The Vietnamese paratroopers called in U.S. air strikes, artillery support and naval gunfire, and a Vietnamese spokesman estimated 200 North Vietnamese were killed in the prolonged action.

Casualties among the South Vietnamese troops were officially termed moderate, meaning they were hit hard.

Seven miles north of the demilitarized zone, B52 bombers hammered in a nighttime raid on North Vietnamese storage areas, truck parks and bivouac sites from which the Communists infiltrate South.

It was the fourth B52 strike in just over two weeks against North Viet Nam. All four have been in the same general area of the infiltration staging areas.

Smaller U.S. tactical bombers flew 25 sorties Thursday against North Vietnamese positions inside the six-mile-wide buffer zone, a U.S. spokesman reported.

U.S. Is Slashing Trade Restraints

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson, announcing a broad new program to improve East-West relations, called today for a "gradual and balanced" reduction of armed forces in central Europe.

In a major speech on European policy, Johnson announced that the United States is cutting trade restraints on "hundreds of non-strategic items" which this country may now export to Eastern European nations.

This was one of seven new steps, as the President described them, designed to strengthen ties between Communist Eastern Europe, the United States and other Western nations.

EQUAL PARTNER
Johnson, addressing the National Conference of Editorial Writers, strongly re-emphasized U.S. policy to keep the Western alliance—NATO—"strong and abreast of the times." He also reconfirmed U.S. support for European unity, declaring "a united Western Europe can be our equal partner in helping to build a peaceful and just world order."

But, the central and dramatic thrust of his first comprehensive declaration of European policy since the conclusion of an extensive, secret review of U.S. positions on major European questions, seemed to be his veiled bid for a reciprocal reduction of U.S. and Soviet troops ranged along the boundary line between the Communist and Western worlds through the heart of Europe.

DEFEND FREEDOM
"Americans are prepared to do their part," the President declared, adding: "Where necessary, we shall defend freedom; where possible, we shall work with the East to build a lasting peace."

He announced the following U.S. actions in this direction: —The signing today of a "determination that will allow the Export-Import Bank to guarantee commercial credits to four additional Eastern European countries: Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria and Czechoslovakia.

"This is good business and it will help us build bridges to East Europe," Johnson said. —Secretary of State Dean Rusk, he said, "is reviewing the possibility of easing the burden of Polish debts to the United States through expenditures of our Polish currency holdings which would be mutually beneficial to both countries."

—The Export-Import Bank "is prepared to finance American exports for the Soviet-Italian Fiat auto plant."

Johnson also noted in this connection that the United States is now negotiating a civil air agreement with the Soviet Union. He said he is willing to ease travel rules to Communist countries in Europe and Asia. And, he pointed out that the Soviet Union and the United States now are exchanging photographs taken from weather satellites.

TO MEET GROMYKO
Johnson is scheduled to meet in Washington next Monday with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko. The policy he spelled out today gave unusual

Kremlin Ousts Chinese Pupils

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today ordered all students from Red China out of the country.

The government said it was taking the step in retaliation against the ouster of Soviet students from China in September.

All Chinese students are to be out of the Soviet-Union before the end of October.

The move brought already strained Soviet-Chinese relations to a new low.

But the government here said it would be ready to resume student exchanges "as soon as the Chinese side displays readiness" to do this.

The Soviet display was laid down in a statement made today at the Ministry of Higher and Special Secondary Education to a representative of the Red Chinese Embassy.

The Chinese embassy here said there are only 65 Chinese students in the Soviet Union at this time, 20 in Moscow and the others scattered around the country. This was a far cry from the thousands who studied here during the heyday of Soviet-Chinese friendship. One report put the number of Russian students thrown out of Red China at about a dozen.

Cancer Amputee's Wishes Come True

CENTREVILLE, Mich. (AP)—Larry Rink's three wishes have come true. Rink is the 21-year-old cancer amputee who now has no evidence of the disease remaining in his body.

He learned last July, after cancerous tissue from other persons was transplanted to him, that tests showed no traces of his cancer remaining.

He said then, "Now I'll get my new leg and then I hope I can find a good job and take care of my wife and baby."

Within days, Rink was fitted with an artificial leg. His right leg was amputated more than a year ago because of bone cancer.

LONG LAYOFF
Three weeks ago he began his first job in more than a year—as a stock clerk at H. G. Wells & Co., a tool firm in nearby Three Rivers.

And on Sept. 24, Rink's wife, Jeannie, 20, gave birth to their first child, Tina Ann.

Dr. Ray Houghton, the family physician who first advised Rink to undergo the experimental cancer transplants, delivered Tina.

Rink was undergoing X-rays at South Bend (Ind.) Osteopathic Hospital to check for any evidence of cancer at the same time his wife was delivering the child there. The X-rays showed no trace of cancer, Dr. Houghton said.

Chrysler Moves Toward Full 1967 Production
DETROIT (AP)—Chrysler Corp. moved toward full production of its 1967 model cars today as workers returned to their jobs, ending an eight-day strike at a key stamping plant.

The walkout at Twinsburg, Ohio, had idled more than 46,000 workers around the country after it cut off the flow of vital parts to assembly lines.

A company spokesman said full production in the United States would resume Monday at six assembly and four stamping plants idled by the strike.

Operations at Chrysler of Canada Ltd., at Windsor, Ont., across the river from Detroit, were to resume Tuesday.

Litigants Ask For Judgment

Motions for summary judgment were presented by both sides in a trusteeship case in 118th District Court here Friday.

Judge Ralph W. Caton took the matter under advisement, but there were indications that there might be new filings as well as presentation of briefs in the case styled Joseph H. Hodges, bishop of Wheeling, W. Va., Catholic diocese, vs. Robert J. Riley Sr., Robert J. Riley Jr. and Arch Riley.

Involved in the litigation are valuable oil and gas holdings in Gaines County, from whence the case came on a change of venue.

The suit seeks to set aside a trusteeship which has existed since 1907. Mrs. Sara Tracy gave the diocese the 36 1/2 per cent interest in the lands in 1904. The plaintiff's petition claims that trustees have collected a total of $900,000 in fees since 1933.

Only the minerals are involved in the case, for surface rights have long since been disposed of.

DEAR ABBY Skilled Labor Is Not Common

DEAR ABBY: My husband has had five years of college. He works long hours (no overtime pay) in a position of responsibility with a large, highly respected firm. His judgment is heavily relied upon. But some of the men who operate the machinery make more money than my husband. This hurts.

For instance, our neighbor never even finished high school, but because he has a unionized job of manual labor, his income far outstrips my husband's. It doesn't seem fair that with all my husband's education he isn't able to give his family as much as some uneducated laborers.

I am not saying common laborers should make less, but in a society screaming for youngsters to get an education, it's ironical that uneducated laborers should make more than college graduates. I hope you aren't too frightened by big business to answer.

EDUCATED BUT HUNGRY DEAR EDUCATED: I don't blame you for being resentful, but perhaps what you term "common laborers" are skilled laborers in their fields. Many men who have never seen the inside of a college (or high school) have a technical knowledge equal in importance to some college educations.

I, too, would like to see higher education bring greater rewards, but don't confuse a man's worth with his college education or the lack of it.

DEAR ABBY: Men think nothing of wearing a suit for four and maybe five years. Some even longer. So can you please tell me why a woman won't wear last year's dress?

CURIOUS DEAR CURIOUS: Some don't want to. Others can't.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 28-year-old man who needs some womanly advice. About a year ago I got a little drunk and hooked up with a 40-year-old married woman. We were intimate right away and to make a long story short, she and her two sons, 12 and 14, moved into my apartment.

Her divorce came through shortly after and we made plans to marry. Then I started finding out things about her that didn't add up. She said she lost her first husband in the war. I found out they were di-

SHOT IN CHEST "I stepped on a mine with my left foot and I had a grenade in my right hand," he recalls. The mine blasted off his left leg and the grenade blast shattered the right leg, but doctors were able to save it.

Under treatment in Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, Brooks recalls other occasions when he could have lost his life.

"I got shot in the chest with a rifle grenade and called for the medic. Then I looked down in front of me and there was a dud grenade," Brooks grinned. He was not injured by the missile's impact.

SKIN SCRATCHED Later, while he was on an attack against the Viet Cong, a bullet tore through his first aid pack, which he carried in a shirt pocket over his heart. The kit absorbed most of the force of the slug, which only scratched the skin.

In another firefight, a member of Brooks' squad gave his life to save him and the rest of the team.

A Viet Cong grenade was lobbed in among the squad members and Pfc. Daniel Fernandez covered it with his body. Fernandez was awarded the Medal of Honor for his sacrifice, Brooks said.

YOUR Horoscope Forecast for Tomorrow

By Carroll Righter

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A day roughly divided into three parts — the first of which gives you a better chance to get a better understanding where you are headed until NOON; the second finds it necessary that you avoid making demands upon those in power, and the third brings much happiness by letting others know your devotion for them.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Carry through with promises to kin in a.m., and be careful where you are not extravagant where pleasure is concerned later in the day. Get your feet on the ground. Vaccination may be your weakness now.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Keeping appointments, writing letters is fine in the morning, but if you are in a hurry, you are better off staying at home. Some put in effort tonight. Step out early for shopping, etc. Show family you are devoted.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Monetary matters can be nicely handled in the morning, but later go over reports, etc. for errors in figures. Be sure you properly file them in the order. Then off to fun and frolic tonight. Drive with care.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Mornings bring benefits from past effort and you are more likely to plan the future more wisely later. Start your morning in bed. Study tonight.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Private duties can be completed in a.m. and then you have a chance to plan the future more wisely later. Start your morning in bed. Study tonight.

LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 22) During the day you are more likely to plan the future more wisely later. Start your morning in bed. Study tonight.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You are inspired this morning and can take your finest talent to the office. Get the support of a superior. Handle the social town matters early. Later part of day is best for whatever has to do with the world-at-large.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You may early so that you can later make more arrangements for the future. Others give assistance. Progress comes easily.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You can make ideal plans with a very definite partner during morning, so be very specific. Employ better methods dealing with other associates. Also, keep mental profits in mind and all goes well.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Devote time whatever is involved in nature during a.m. and then discuss it with allies later. Get their aid. Their support, once work is done, is of the kind of recreation you most like. Be congenial.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Making plans early for later recreation is necessary so that you can later work to work of hand later on. Do whatever will improve your appearance. Rid self of dull burdens — then go on.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow... he, or she, will early in life be very devoted to his or her studies, but the fact of the matter is that a very analytical mind is needed to work studying conditions about, individuals and upon maturity will surprise others. If the student is of the type who acquires, send to college and don't limit the size of enterprises here, since the success can be phenomenal. A philanthropist emerges late in life.

CONFIDENTIAL TO S. J. H.: Instead of yearning for some kind of immortality, remember the words of Benjamin Franklin: "If you would not be forgotten, As soon as you are dead and rotten, Either write things worth reading Or do things worth the writing."

Connally's Cabinet Idea Tried Before

By GARTH JONES Associated Press Writer

When Gov. John Connally suggested to the state Democratic convention that a Texas governor should have a cabinet, there was a flutter of raised eyebrows.

Actually, it's been done before. The late Gov. Beauford H. Jester invited all of the elected executives of the executive branch to join him in forming a cabinet—which had been suggested in a 1932 legislative study.

"The cabinet has had most interesting and useful meetings and I think we have a better state government and a happier family of state officials as a result of its existence," Jester said in a statewide broadcast.

INDIVIDUAL BASIS Gov. Allan Shivers did not follow through with Jester's cabinet idea, saying he preferred instead to deal with elected officials in his administration on an individual basis.

Gov. Price Daniel thought cabinet meetings could be useful on specific matters but only with those department heads who had some part in the function to be discussed.

When Connally succeeded Daniel, a number of exploratory meetings with the various departments headed by elected officials were held, not necessarily labeled as cabinet meetings.

HELPED TO TALK "We found they were a lot of help," said a man who sat in on some of them. "Surprisingly a lot of us had similar problems and it helped to talk about them at the same time."

The series of Connally sessions was interrupted by the assassination of President Kennedy and the wounding of Connally.

Several were held in 1964 and 1965, particularly when the great society programs appeared involving a number of different departments at once.

No definite plans have been drawn for a Texas cabinet, but any such move likely would include the state treasurer, where the incumbent has been re-elected for 25 years; the state comptroller, where the incumbent is a 17-year veteran; the state agriculture commissioner; a 15-year holder of the office; the state land commissioner, members of the Railroad Commission, and perhaps the attorney general.

CUT COMMISSION The lieutenant governor is considered more a part of the legislative than the executive branch, until he becomes acting governor.

In other states where there is a governor's cabinet, there are other members such as commissioners or directors of labor, commerce, urban affairs, transport and others.

Some think it might be a good idea to do away with some of Texas' commissions that are appointed by the governor and let him directly appoint the top administrators.

Two Leaders Sick TEL AVIV, Israel (AP) — Two of Israel's pioneer leaders — former Premier David Ben-Gurion and former Foreign Minister Golda Meir — were on the sick list today.

Birthdays rallies for Ben-Gurion, who was 89 on Oct. 1, were postponed because he was suffering from a serious cold.

Mrs. Meir, 68, has been hospitalized again for a thorough checkup following recent cardiovascular complications, a medical source said.

LOWEST PROFIT Hittson said Miller's is "now operating on the lowest profit structure we've had in years."

Cal Pond, public relations manager of Safeway, said he met with a committee of the housewives' organization for 2 1/2 hours recently. He distributed copies of the August 1966 Food Industry Newsletter, produced by the National Association of Food Chains.

The newsletter cites a diminishing supply of goods and services, surplus food and feeds, low hog cycles in 1965 and early 1966, low milk production and the war in Viet Nam as some reasons for rising prices, Pond said.

"A boycott of our stores isn't going to help anything," he said.

Administrative officers such as state highway commissioner and director of the Department of Public Safety.

One member of the governor's staff, in any administration, who is likely to support the cabinet idea is the Texas secretary of state. At present he is the one and only member of the governor's cabinet.

The secretary of state is the chief election officer of the state, keeping records and results on all elections. He charts corporations, administers the uniform commercial code and franchise tax laws, keeps the state seal, issues all gubernatorial proclamations, is custodian of the legislature, appoints notaries public, holds extradition hearings, and makes speeches when the governor is out of town.

With a cabinet, there would be a larger speakers bureau available to substitute for the governor.

Housewives To Boycott In Denver DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Housewives for Lower Food Prices, a group of Denver-area women irked by what they believe are inordinately high food costs, say they plan to boycott five major chain stores beginning Oct. 17.

The chains are Safeway, Miller's, King Sooper's, Red Owl and Furr's.

"We have gotten the word out to several thousand women in the metropolitan area alone," Mrs. Jay S. Threlkeld, a spokesman for the group, said Thursday.

The group has met five times and about 90 women attended each meeting along with representatives of the stores under fire.

"WE MEAN BUSINESS" "We're going to shop at independent and neighborhood groceries until we convince the chains we mean business. We don't like to feel we're being taken to the cleaners and we're tired of hearing about some rich, invisible middle man who's causing prices to go up," Mrs. Threlkeld said.

"We're in favor of lower prices, too," said McLeod Hittson, vice president and divisional manager of Miller's. "If there's a cost increase at the production level, then we have to pass it along to the consumer."

Clouds overhanging the area embracing Lubbock, Big Spring and Midland. It also was overcast in far Southwest Texas but generally clear over the rest of the state.

Rainfall measurements at widely scattered points Thursday included Port Mansfield on the lower Texas coast 2.21 inches, Brownsville 81, Alpine 76 and Presidio 33.

Top afternoon temperatures Thursday ranged from 81 at Dalhart and Victoria down to 60 at Alpine, Midland and Wink.

Except for a little warming in the southern and west central sections of the state, forecasts indicated little change through Saturday.

KARNES CITY, Tex. (AP)—Lawyers in the Johnny Rudy Enriquez murder trial here selected two more jurors Thursday and started questioning a 100-member special venire Friday.

Seven jurors have been seated. Enriquez is on trial in the slaying of pretty Mrs. Kay Foss, 21, wife of a naval officer stationed at Beeville. She died after she was shot in the head and thrown from a fast moving car.

Enriquez is also named on murder indictments in the slayings of his girl friend, Victoria

Perez, 21; her brother, Frederick, 24; her father, Francisco, 65; and Highway Patrolman Darvin Hogg. The Perez family was fatally shot at the family farm home east of Corpus Christi. Hogg was shot to death when he stopped a motorist near Stockdale, in Wilson County.

All slayings were on April 25. They started an intensive manhunt throughout South Texas. It ended with the arrest of Enriquez at Cuero.

Young Married Couple To Play Lovers

Christopher Jones and his wife, Susan Strasberg, whom he's giving a ride around a movie lot, have been cast as young lovers in a film called "Chubasco," and the producers are wondering how movie audiences will react. Usually married couples fail to enthral the customers unless they play married couples, but the studio hopes this will be an exception. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Playing Love Scenes Easier For Young Duo

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Will movie audiences go for a real-life husband and wife as a romantic duo on the screen?

Warner Brothers hopes so. The studio has cast Christopher Jones and his wife, Susan Strasberg, as young lovers in a new film called "Chubasco." He's the lad who played Jesse James in the television series that was shot down last season; she's the daughter of method-acting mentor Lee Strasberg.

The Joneses approve of the co-starring.

"It's much easier to play romantic scenes," said she. "Most of the time you do love scenes with strangers; by the time you become acquainted and work together with ease, the scene is over."

"It works out well, except when she (Susan) gets too set in her performance," said Jones.

"Then I just reach around and slap her on the rear and she comes out of it."

Director Allen Miner observed that most young marrieds lack the "chemistry" to play lovers on the screen. The Joneses are the exception in "Chubasco," he added, quite naturally.

BIG FAILURE

"Chemistry" is a favorite Hollywood expression to indicate the appeal and interplay of a co-starring pair. From a cursive glance at film history, it would appear that married stars fail to set off a chemical reaction on the screen—unless they play a married couple.

The most notable case in recent times concerns Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton. In "The Sandpiper" she played a Bohemian artist, he a minister and boys' school principal who was married. Her seduction of Burton brought snickers from audiences and scorn from critic demonstrations in March.

Curiously, the most famous

Burning Draft Card Costly

BOSTON (AP) — David Benson, 18, of Cambridge, Mass., has been sentenced to five years in prison for destroying his draft card.

Federal Judge Anthony Julian said Thursday Benson must undergo psychiatric tests. He said the sentence will be reviewed by the court after the study.

Benson told the court he is a pacifist and that the Selective Service System "perpetuates violence."

Benson was convicted by a jury Sept. 22 of burning his draft card and of destroying his draft classification notice at pacifist demonstrations in March.

Weather Pattern Just About Same

By The Associated Press

The nation's weather pattern showed only minor changes today from the past several days, with generally clear skies.

A pocket of cool air remained over the Northeast and temperatures in much of the East were chilly. The mercury dropped to the 40s as far south as north Georgia. Frost was indicated in scattered sections in the middle and north Atlantic states.

Showers fell in scattered sections of Florida and in the north Pacific coast.

Volcano Erupts

MOSCOW (AP) — The tallest active volcano on the continents of Europe and Asia, 15,912-foot Mt. Klyuchevskaya, began erupting again Thursday night, Moscow radio reported.

The volcano is on the Kamchatka Peninsula, in the Soviet Union south of the Bering Straits. It erupts frequently.

Nikita Lives Quietly

MOSCOW (AP) — The countryside around Moscow has had a magnificently sunny summer, and now autumn leaves brighten the rolling hills.

Appreciation of the rural Russian scenery is marred for one country squire, however. Nikita S. Khrushchev, former Communist party boss, lives quietly with the beauty of nature but not out of choice.

In the two years since he was ousted from power, Khrushchev has spent his time walking, putting in a garden, doing a little hunting in the birch and pine woods, and reading.

IT RAINED

Occasionally he is visited by old friends who still remember the ebullient, earthy little man who rattled nuclear rockets at the world. Those are personal friends rather than the colleagues who turned unexpectedly on him Oct. 14, 1964, and stripped him of the Soviet premiership and Communist party leadership.

About 20 friends drove out to Khrushchev's country villa last April 17 to help him celebrate his 72nd birthday with a barbecue. It rained.

His four children go out frequently to see Khrushchev and his wife, Nina Petrovna, 66. The grandchildren — five at last report — romp on the lawn.

The Khrushchevs are comfortably pensioned in a pleasantly spacious house near the village of Petrovsky Daliye, about 25 miles west of Moscow.

The Khrushchevs also have an apartment in downtown Moscow three-quarters of a mile from the Kremlin. Mrs. Khrushchev uses it occasionally on shopping trips.

EVERYONE GETS SICK

Her husband rarely goes there — because he still attracts a crowd. The new leaders apparently do not like that. They provide a chauffeured car, and the chauffeur may have other duties than simply taking instructions from the passenger.

Khrushchev has come to town twice to vote. The first time, exactly five months after his ouster, he was carefully arranged by the authorities. It proved that he was well and living peacefully, but he looked like a man eating himself up with frustration.

His most recent appearance was at the parliamentary elections June 12. Khrushchev voted for his successor, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin. With the expiration of his own term in Parliament, Khrushchev lost his last official job.

Khrushchev said then that he had been sick.

"But everyone gets sick now and again," he added.

4-H Club Sees Mexico Films

LAMESA (SC) — Slides of a recent train trip into Mexico were shown by Assistant County Agent Doyle Warren when the Lamesa 4-H Club met recently.

Spencer Reed, club president, presided over the business meeting. The meeting was sponsored by parents of the club members. Mrs. D. H. Merrick served refreshments to the group.

Perfect timing by a seemingly radar inspired defense torpedoed South's four spade contract.

West opened the king of diamonds and East overtook with the ace to return the seven of hearts. South covered with the ten and West paused to consider his course. There was a temptation to put up the ace and return the suit, in the hope that East had a singleton and could ruff the next round.

Trumps were drawn in two rounds and the queen of clubs was led for a finesse. East was in with the king of clubs and a heart return thru South's jack, enabled West to score the setting tricks with the ace and nine.

Observe that, if East does not overtake the king of diamonds to make a heart shift, or if West puts up the ace at trick two—the defense cannot get both heart tricks, for South will have time to establish a discard for himself in clubs and his losses will consist of one heart, one diamond, and one club.

Maneuvers Lure Subs

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP) — Sweden's current naval maneuvers, utilizing her most modern sea weapons, are attracting more than the usual amount of interest from foreign submarines.

Thursday night a sub-hunting Swedish helicopter reported another in a series of contacts with suspected submerged submarines off the west coast. The suspected sub was within the three-mile territorial limit and headed west, like the others, the navy said.

The helicopter shadowed it out of Swedish waters. Wednesday night a helicopter dropped a depth charge close to another reported intruder to scare it off. Another sub was detected earlier Wednesday and two were reported Sunday.

Jury Rules Plane Driver Not Tipsy

DALLAS (AP) — Bobby James Pinkston has been acquitted of charges of driving while intoxicated.

Driving an airplane, that is.

A Dallas jury decided Thursday that Pinkston, 29, was not intoxicated when he toolled his craft down a suburban Grand Prairie street Aug. 28 and hit a speed limit sign.

The defense argued that Pinkston's plane malfunctioned upon landing at the Grand Prairie airport. They said Pinkston steered the craft down a street to avoid hitting a fence.

CRMW D OFFICIALS OPEN BIDS ON MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR DAM PROJECT
Approximately 250 contractors and suppliers jam Settles to hear proposals

Lake Project Assured By Low Bid Of $8,686,000

The Colorado River Municipal Water District cleared the last major hurdle Thursday between it and the construction of a dam to impound a 488,000-acre-foot lake on the Colorado River near Robert Lee.

For a time as bids from 10 contractors were read at the Settles Hotel before some 250 contractors, suppliers and subcontractors, it appeared that the project would be too far above the estimates.

Then W. L. Eeds, representing Freese, Nichols and Eddress, project engineers, read: "Clement Brothers Co. Inc., Hickory, N. C., total bid $8,686,440." A ripple and then a roar ran through the crowd.

CONTRACT AWARDED
Later the board awarded the contract to Clement Bros. subject to a check by the engineers. The low bidder was $1,284,580 under the second low bid by H. B. Zachary Co. of San Antonio in the amount of $9,951,000. Third low bid was R. N. Adams, Kaufman, for $10,271,140. The 10 bids ran to a top of $13,549,660 by Heldenfeld Bros. of Corpus Christi. This was $4,863,220 or 56 per cent over the low bid.

Richard Goodwin, vice president of Clement Brothers, told officials of the district later that "we're satisfied. Of course we would like to have had a little more money, but we decided to make a bare-bones bid. Looks like we did."

Engineer estimates on the project had been pegged at $8,432,000.

MOVE RAPIDLY
"We'll begin moving equipment in about two weeks from now," said Goodwin. "We'll be started on or before Nov. 1 and in full swing by the end of the year."

Completion of the dam and spillway is set for March 1, 1969. The district's three member cities, Odessa, Big Spring and Snyder, will be supplied from the new lake as will Midland, which has contracted to buy surface water from the CRMW D starting in 1970.

Of the total bid, Clement included $2,875,000 for construction of the huge concrete spillway which will carry excess water through the center of the dam. The remainder was for excavating 1,887,000 cubic yards from a core trench 30 feet deep, installing 11,488,000 cubic yards of wetted and rolled embankment for the dam proper, plus 83,000 cubic yards of 10-inch gravel blanket and 209,000 cubic yards of rock rip-rap two feet thick to protect the dam. The dam will be 22,000 feet long, will rise 143 feet from the river channel or 123 from the second river bank, will be 850 feet wide at the base and 20 feet wide at the top.

MASSIVE SPILLWAY
The big spillway will be a morning glory type with adjustable gates on top. It will resemble the yell of a sousaphone 68.3 feet wide from lip to lip, feeding water into a main conduit 28 feet wide (with walls 6 1/2 feet thick) down and under the dam to a stilling basin—a big concrete box with walls two feet thick and rising 58 feet from a floor which is eight feet thick.

One 60-inch pipe will run into the lake well beyond the spillway and will feed into a wet well (which resembles a silo) from whence water can be discharged either into the main outlet or through a 24-inch pipe to serve downstream customers.

In other matters considered by the board, a contract for $5,269 was awarded to M. C. Sisson, Bronte, for construction of fences at the dam site two miles northwest of Robert Lee. A budget of $2,781,000 was approved for 1967, subject to bondholder approval. The board provided a total of $10,000 for salary adjustments, which will be distributed as soon as a personnel policy is completed.

Here with Goodwin were Bill Dukes, assistant vice president and project coordinator, and Rufus Turner, project manager. Jim Nichols headed a group representing Freese, Nichols and Eddress. With him were W. L. Eeds, design engineer; Robert Thompson, R. E. Boykin and L. K. Willis, resident engineer for the job.

Officer To Detail Viet Experiences
1st Lt. Charlie W. Hastings, 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron, will address the Big Spring Jaycees at their meeting Monday. He will discuss his activities as a forward air controller with the first cavalry division, United States Army, in Viet Nam. He was shot down by small arms fire over the Mico Lihen Pass on Christmas Eve, 1965. For his activities in Viet Nam, he was awarded the Purple Heart, Bronze Star with Valor, Air Medal, Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with Gold Star, Vietnamese Service Medal, and the American Expeditionary Medal.

WILL YOU ACCEPT MY APOLOGY?

I told my good wife, Shirley, the nicest folks in the whole world trade with us on South Gregg, and mercy, the only thing we've given 'em lately is poor service. Would you believe, we is so lousy that even I wouldn't buy from us if I couldn't get credit! Don't want to bore you with our problems but do feel you're due an explanation.

George is having his troubles with a major oil co. Chester's been worried about George so that only leaves me to worry about 'em both.

Meanwhile, back of the lake, who suffers? You fine folks of West Texas— that's who. Well, we're fixin' to change all that. George's running in and out in fixin' to pay off. Duddy Chuck is happy again and like soon, my smile is fixin' to be so bright you'll need sunglasses (or a milk magnesia bottle) to pass 'em and if you'll accept an apology from George, Chester and me, I'll personally guarantee your car or fleet, will love us when we bounce back. Thanks.

Swartz Presents Fall Fashions At Luncheon

The prettiest and most feminine fashions of several seasons were presented by Swartz Thursday during an Officers Wives Club show and luncheon in the Officers Open Mess at Webb Air Force Base. Detailed descriptions of the fall and winter fashions will be given in Sunday's edition of The Herald.

Hostesses for the show were wives from the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron, and Mrs. Roger Blume served as program chairman. Mrs. Norman Fogg was assistant chairman, and Mrs. Roger Mercer directed the models, all members of the OWC. Music for the program was by Nick Androvich, and Mrs. James Murphy was the commentator.

"Vogue's International Eye View with Fashion Forecasts" was the theme stressed by Mrs. Murphy as she described garments spanning activities from skiing to formal dining or dancing. Models paraded on a T-shaped ramp and returned to pose against swags of fabric draped on lattice screens accenting the stage.

Mrs. S. G. Flowers, OWC president, extended the welcome, and Mrs. J. D. Arnold introduced the guests. They were Mrs. A. Swartz, Mrs. Horace Garrett, Mrs. R. W. Whipple, Mrs. Lester Morton, Mrs. Fred W. Lutting, Mrs. C. B. Marcum, Mrs. Larson Lloyd, Mrs. J. Y. Robb, Mrs. W. E. Ramsey, Mrs. Roy Reeder, Mrs. Ike Robb, Mrs. Don Womack, Mrs. R. L. Beale, Mrs. Dick Ream, and Dr. Louise Worthing.

Winners in the east-west position were Mrs. J. H. Parks and Mrs. E. O. Ellington, first; Mrs. Jack Irons and Mrs. Don Newsom, second; and Mrs. D. A. Brazel and Mrs. Carl Blomshield, third.

Study Club Hears Report On Tribes

A report on the Indian tribes of Texas was the program at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Forsan Study Club at the school cafeteria. Mrs. C. B. Long presided.

Mrs. Joe B. Hoard reported on the Couchatti and the Alabama Indians plans to establish tourist attractions on their reservation near Huntsville. The project is supported by the Livingston Chamber of Commerce and various State of Texas departments.

Mrs. Jerry Wilson was welcomed as a new member, and Mrs. Hamlin Elrod reported on the status of the "Friendship Through Magazines" project.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Elbert Strickland and Mrs. Don Murphy.

Small Item Sale Held By League

A small item sale was the highlight of the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Ladies Home League, Salvation Army. The sale added $40.50 to the mission fund. Members were reminded that the Oct. 12 meeting will be a favorite recipe party and that recipes will be given for each dish.

New Members Welcomed By Parish Workers

Two new members were welcomed during the Thursday morning meeting of the Parish Workers of St. Paul Lutheran Church. The 18 attending met at the home of Mrs. Howard Enoch, 163-A Fairchild.

The new members are Mrs. Larry Longworth and Mrs. Marilyn Gieseck.

Mrs. Ronald Wasson gave the devotion, and Mrs. Moran Oppgaard gave the study topic entitled "God's Plan for Church Unity."

It was announced that the Women's Missionary League Christian growth workshop will be Oct. 13 in Fort Stockton. All members are urged to attend.

Plans were discussed for a 35th anniversary tea Nov. 13. Mrs. Hal Hansen is chairman.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. James Hyman and Mrs. Alton Marwitz.

Announce Results Of Webb Games

Five tables were in play for duplicate bridge games held Thursday evening in the Officers Open Mess at Webb Air Force Base.

Winners were Mrs. John Stone and Capt. Ron Kibler, first; Mrs. Ward Hall and Mrs. Elvis McCrary, second; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Steyer, third; and Mrs. B. B. Badger and Mrs. Charles Dodson, fourth.

Hyperions Hear Talk On Flowers

Period flower arranging was explained by Mrs. Odell Womack when she was guest speaker Wednesday for the 1946 Hyperion Club during its meeting in the home of Mrs. C. B. Marcum, 1506 Dayton. Mrs. C. W. Shouse was cohostess.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Thomas Petters. She used pictorial illustrations to emphasize points of her talk.

Mrs. Grant Boardman presided as the women donated $20 to the Big Spring State Hospital Christmas Fund. Also, a letter of appreciation was read from Sharon Welch, recipient of the club's scholarship to Howard County Junior College. Initial plans were made for a Christmas dinner to which husbands will be invited as guests.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

AIRMEN'S WIVES CLUB SETS ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING

An organizational meeting to form an Airmen's Wives Club will be held Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p.m., in the John F. Lees Service Club, Webb AFB.

A discussion of programs for the year will be held, and table games and refreshments offered. Dress is casual, but no slacks. The meeting will begin in the ballroom.

For further information, or to indicate an interest in attending, contact Mrs. Al (Jerry) Monson at AM 3-7331 (the Herald) or AM 7-5807; or Mrs. Ethel Wood, recreational supervisor, service club, Webb AFB, AM 7-2511.

The Loyalty Sunday school class of the Baptist Temple elected officers Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. E. Terry, 1402 Nolan.

Mrs. Terry will be the new teacher, and the assistant teacher is Mrs. E. T. White. Other officers are Mrs. J. C. Craven, president; Mrs. Robert Graham, vice president; and Mrs. Curtis Reynolds, secretary-treasurer. Group leaders are Mrs. Ezra Dyess, Mrs. Ethel Simmons, Mrs. W. D. Todd and Mrs. W. N. Wood.

Also, Mrs. H. L. Shirley, devotion and song leader; Mrs. Reynolds, pianist and finance; Mrs. Craven, publicity; and Mrs. Graham, social. The next meeting will be Nov. 3 in the home of Mrs. Dyess at 1908 Scurry.

Refreshments were served.

A LOVELIER YOU

'Bony Girls' Gain Curves With Effort

By MARY SUE MILLER
A damsel writes: I am bony, but I did not realize how bony until I tried on a clinging jersey T-dress. My hipbones stood out beneath the dress like door-knobs. What can be done about this?

The answer: It is possible that a girl with a large bony structure should carry a bit more weight than the small-boned. A few additional pounds would help to upholster the bones. So, if need be, work for gains with extra rest and rationals.

The "doorknob" effect in question can be pared down by exercise that builds up the abdominal muscles. A powerful network of muscles in the area acts as a leveler. For the purpose use this routine: Kneel on floor, bend forward and, keeping elbows straight, place palms of hands on floor directly under shoulders. tense abdominal muscles and hold. By bending elbows, slowly lower forehead to floor; rise by gradually straightening elbows. Repeat ten times. Be sure to keep back straight and stomach muscles taut throughout.

While awaiting improvement, make a point of clothes that flatter. A very light-weight pantie girdle with uplift features softens bony contours by redistributing flesh. A starchy taffeta petticoat also helps the cause. Of course pleated skirts and bodied materials are naturals. Approved by fashion, too!

It may be a comfort to know that as a figure ages it grows into its hipbones. Just ask any grown woman!

MORE CURVE

If your loveliness problem is thin, shapeless legs, send for my leaflet, "More Curve for the Legline." It shows how to build up contours with spot-increasing exercise. The leaflet measurements, and tips on a graceful stance as well as flattering footwear. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Hyperions Examine Marriage Problems

Mrs. Billy Jones, 805 Highland, was hostess for a salad luncheon held Wednesday as members of the 1953 Hyperion Club gathered at her home for the first meeting of the club season. She was assisted by Mrs. Gene Nabors and Mrs. Delnor Poss.

Mrs. Ralph Caton presided and introduced members of her slate. They are Mrs. Bill Estes, vice president; Mrs. Jimmy Butler, recording secretary; Mrs. Harry Middleton, secretary; Mrs. Jimmy Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. Nabors, parliamentarian; and Mrs. W. P. Edwards Jr., reporter.

In keeping with the year's theme, "Marriage-Go-Round," the Rev. Leo K. Gee and Dr. J. P. Darby spoke on troublesome areas of marriage. Both were presented gifts of appreciation from the club.

The speakers stressed the importance of recognizing and admitting problems when they appear and seeking counsel before it is too late. Dr. Darby noted that many physical ailments can be traced to emotional problems that the patient does not know how to handle.

New yearbooks were distributed and the next regular meeting scheduled for 1:30 p.m., Nov. 2, with Mrs. Bill Pollard and Mrs. Roger Brown as hostesses.

New Officers Plan Picnic

New officers of St. Anne's Guild are, from the left, Mrs. C. T. Pajot, recording secretary; Mrs. M. J. Took, president; Chaplain (Capt.) Thomas D. Holland; and Mrs. J. R. Geiser, vice president. They are helping organize the parish picnic at Webb AFB.

Parish Picnic Planned Sunday At Webb AFB

The Holy Name Society and the St. Anne's Guild at Webb AFB will sponsor a parish picnic Sunday from 2-6 p.m. on the base pavilion grounds. A dinner and refreshments will be served. Mrs. M. J. Took, president of St. Anne's Guild, and Lt. Col. James J. Rouch, president of the Holy Name Society, have invited all Catholic families at Webb to attend the picnic. New officers of the St. Anne's Guild, helping to coordinate the picnic, are Mrs. Took, president; Mrs. C. D. Urban, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. T. Pajot, recording secretary; treasurer; and Mrs. J. R. Geiser, vice president. The following committee chairmen were appointed: Mrs. Paul Fett, hospital; Mrs. Raymond Boucher, rosary; Mrs. Edward Lyons, membership; Mrs. R. J. Startz, Catholic charities; Mrs. W. E. Brown, altar lines; and Mrs.

William Assip, publicity. Members of the Holy Name Society will receive Holy Communion in a body at the 9 a.m. mass Sunday in the base chapel. Anyone interested in joining the St. Anne's Guild may attend the monthly Communion on the first Friday of every month.

Baptists To See Slides Of Holy Lands Journey

An unique tour of the Holy Land and other countries is being offered as a seven-week feature by the Hillcrest Baptist Training Union.

Slides and information gathered by members of a party of Big Spring ministers and wives that took an extended tour this summer will be presented in following weeks, starting Sunday at 6 p.m. at the church, said Sam Robertson, training union director.

The Rev. Clyde Campbell, pastor and tour leader, will lead off Sunday with pictures and discussions about Rome. Everyone is invited to attend this and others in the series. The Rev. D. M. Duke, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, will have the program Oct. 1 on Greece and Egypt. Others are Oct. 30, Lebanon, Syria and Turkey; the Rev. Melvin Montgomery, pastor of Mt. Bethel Baptist Church; Nov. 13, Jordan; the Rev. James Puckett, pastor of Baptist Temple; Nov. 20, Israel; Rev. Puckett; Nov. 27, Switzerland; Rev. Montgomery; Dec. 4, England and France; Rev. Campbell.

Marshall To Offer Talk

Guest speaker for Layman's Day at Wesley Methodist Church Sunday will be J. Arnold Marshall, active Methodist layman of the First Methodist Church and mayor of Big Spring. His topic will be "The Servanthood of the Church."

Larry Crow, lay leader of Wesley Methodist Church and city manager, will assist in the services and introduce Marshall. Dan Shockey, choir director of the church and speech teacher at Big Spring High School, will lead the congregational singing. Bob Tawater, chairman of the commission on education and employe of Texas Electric Service Company, will offer the morning prayer and the benediction.

Layman's Day, an annual observance in the Methodist church, strives to give emphasis to the place of the laity in the church. The Rev. Jarrell Sharp is pastor.

Nazarene Pastors To Meet For Convention

Nazarene church pastors and their wives from this area are scheduled to take part in the annual Ahilene, or northwest Texas, district preachers' conference, to be held at Camp Arrowhead, near Cleburne, Wednesday Oct. 12 through Friday, Oct. 14.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. M. Duke, from the local Church of the Nazarene, are expected to attend.

Nearly all of the 100 Nazarene churches in the district will be represented. The churches have a total of 6,500 members and a Sunday school enrollment of 11,000 persons.

Guest speakers will be Dr. and Mrs. V. H. Lewis, Kansas City, Mo. Dr. Lewis has served continuously since 1960 in the highest elective office of the church, as general superintendent. He formerly was secretary of the department of evangelism for four years and prior to that was superintendent of the Houston district in the church. The program will be in charge of the district superintendent, the Rev. Raymond W. Hurn, Lubbock.

Webb Chapel To Host Services

The annual Thanksgiving service, sponsored by the Big Spring Pastors Association, will be held this year at the Webb AFB Chapel. Twenty-five members of the association met Wednesday morning for a breakfast meeting at Coker's Restaurant.

Heading the committee Thanksgiving arrangements is the Rev. Byron Ornd, pastor of the College Baptist Church. Pastors voted to appoint a committee to further explore a community religious survey to be worked by the association. In other business, members made individual contributions to the United Fund.

Guests were Dr. Howard Sivills, now leading a revival at the Hillcrest Baptist Church, and Darwin Farmer, Dallas. New members welcomed were Hubert Bratcher, district superintendent for the Methodist Church, and the Rev. Leo Jones, new pastor at Airport Baptist Church.

The Rev. Leo K. Gee, pastor of the First Methodist Church, is president of the association.

New Book On Wesley Offered

"John Wesley, His Puritan Heritage" a new book by Dr. Murry College professor Dr. Robert C. Monk, offers the first systematic gathering and assessment of the broad available evidence of the Puritans on John Wesley.

Wesley's extensive dependence of Puritan sources for teaching the disciplines of the Christian life is outlined in Monk's work.

The new book also focuses on the striking similarities between Wesley and the Puritans in their application of the gospel to the daily life of the believer.

A graduate of Texas Technological College, Dr. Monk's home is in Lubbock. Other institutes attended include the Perkins School of Theology of Southern Methodist University and Princeton University. Dr. Monk's book on Wesley is published by Abingdon Press and will be available after Oct. 10.

Church Unity Is Seen By Bishop

NEW YORK (AP)—Methodist Bishop Fred Pierce Corson of Philadelphia, on his way to London to preside over the Methodist World Council, predicted that Protestant bodies and the Roman Catholic Church will have a "definite scheme of unity" under consideration within five years.

Christian Outposts In Nong Khai Are Isolated

NONG KHAH, Thailand (AP)—Few of the distant Christian outposts manned by Americans throughout the world could be more distant than one in Nong Khai.

Here, deep in Buddhist country, nine American Catholic priests guard their faith in the rice paddies and tangled forests along northern Thailand's Mekong River boundary with Laos. All are members of the 234-year-old, semiautonomous Redemptorist Order, supported in Thailand by the St. Louis Province of the Redemptorists.

The superior of this mission—"the boss" as he's known locally—is a 41-year-old shirt-sleeve priest, the Rev. Francis Gaureaux, who after 14 years in Thailand says home is St. Alphonsus Church in New Orleans, La.

By river boat, jungle truck or slogging on foot through monsoon mud, the priests move far into the interior ministering to 6,000 Thai and refugee Vietnamese Catholics in backwoods villages of four northern Thailand provinces.

India's Parsis Prominent Sect

BOMBAY, India (AP)—Descendants of a small, close-knit band of fire worshippers who sought refuge in India 1,200 years ago, include some of India's leading businessmen, politicians and civic workers.

They are members of the Parsi sect, believed to number about 115,000 throughout the world, with the major body of at least 75,000 in Bombay.

Their forefathers migrated to India from Persia in the year 706 A.D., following the conquest of their country by Moslems. Parsis—also spelled Parsees—are followers of Zoroaster, founder of the original Persian religion. They believe in after-life and the ultimate victory of good over evil. Their temples house sacred perpetual flames, kept alive with offerings of aromatic sandalwood.

Prominent among present-day Parsis are the Tatas, who started India's first textile mill and now are national leaders in textiles, steel, nuclear research and scores of other fields. An air service started as a Tata subsidiary later became Air India, the country's international airline.

REV. KERMIT JOHNSON

Revival Opens For Baptists

A revival will begin Sunday at the Birdwell Lane Baptist Church and will continue through Oct. 16, with the Rev. Kermit Johnson, pastor of the Washington Street Baptist Church, Stephenville, as the evangelist.

The Rev. M. C. Hughes, pastor of the Providence Baptist Church, Kountze, and the church's choir director, Herman Holland, will be visiting the local church Sunday. Rev. Hughes will speak at the morning services and Holland will offer special music.

The revival will continue daily at 7:30 p.m. except Sunday, when services open at 6:30 p.m. The Rev. Cal Sims is pastor. Choir director is Charles Grizzard.

UNGODLY DEFY GOD

Greed, defiance of God and intemperance all lead to ungodly living and are in opposition to the purpose of God. This week's International Sunday School Lesson comes from Isaiah 5:28-32. Sooner or later, the man whose life is wholly evil justifies all evil. He acquires the guilt of every sin and of all guilt. He decides for himself what is evil and what is good. Isaiah says that God knows, even if man refuses to know. The evil man will eventually destroy himself. "Wee unto them that call evil good, and good evil..." (Isaiah 5:20)

Reviewer Finds Many New TV Shows Boring

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
 AP TV - Radio Writer
 NEW YORK (AP) — This is the time of the year when a number of the broadcasting industry's publications send television writers lists of the new network series with requests that they tag their opinion of each as good, bad or indifferent. Later, these reports are broken up, added up, combined into assorted stories, most of which prove (a) that the critics think it's a pretty poor season and (b) critics' judgments are often contradictory and usually do not agree with popular judgments. This reviewer, having worked down the list of 34 new shows, found it impossible to label more than a few shows as just plain "bad."

QUICKLY KILLED
 True, there was "The Tammy Grimes Show," quickly removed, and "The Green Hornet," and "It's About Time," all of which would be at the bottom of my list. However, it should be noted that "It's About Time" has recently been renewed for a second 15 weeks by its network. More new shows were disappointing than bad — "The Jean Arthur Show" with its wretched silly scripts; "The Garry Moore Show" and "The Milton Berle Show" with their tired formats; "Run, Buddy, Run" and "The Hero," which quickly became tiresome spoofs. All the new westerns — "The Monroes," "The Road West," "Shane" and "Iron Horse" — are professionally produced, handsome and thoroughly predictable variations of one of television's standard themes. Shows like "Star Trek" and "Time Tunnel," in the science-fiction mold are dazzling to watch, full of action — if that sort of thing is to your taste. There are a number of situation comedies a cut above average — "Occasional Wife," "Family Affair," "Love on a Rooftop," and "That Girl" among them. All are nice, pleasant, slick — but it is still hard to label any of them as "good," but "indifferent" is not right either. "Stage 67," the only new anthology series is impossible to label at all since it consists of a collection of unrelated shows. Shows like "The Rounders" and "The Fruits of Southampton" are impossible to pin down, too, since some viewers will find them vastly amusing while others find them crashing bores. REPLACEMENTS

 The new season, then, is one that is full of expertise, theatrical values and, yet, something seems to be lacking — excitement. Early audience samples indicated that audiences were ignoring many of the new and returning to old favorites. Reviewers — and viewers with whom this writer has been in contact — find many of the shows tedious and boring. The trade paper Variety estimates that some two-thirds of the 34 new series have already showed signs of ratings troubles. When the next Nielsen report is available next Monday, all networks will use it as an unusually early base for ordering up emergency replacements.

Carr, Tower Argue Over Big Government Spending

By The Associated Press
 Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and Sen. John Tower each blamed the other's political party Thursday for excessive government spending. Carr was able to campaign in person as the Democratic nominee for U.S. senator but plane trouble put a crimp in the campaigning of Tower for reelection on the Republican ticket. The attorney general asserted that his opponent and others critical of the administration have made a practice of voting bigger appropriations than President Johnson sought. Tower, in an undelivered address which he subsequently said still expressed his sentiments, declared he has voted to whittle more than $7 billion off the national budget since 1957 while the federal deficit has amounted to $31 billion in that period. ENGINE TROUBLE

 The senator flew in Houston from Washington late in the day after taking part in the Senate vote approving a $7.5 million appropriation for San Antonio's HemisFair.

"Your industry is one of the first to feel the inflationary impact of unwise federal fiscal policy." Tower pointed out that he helped write legislation, since signed by the President, to pump more money into home-building and ease tight money problems. He said, however, that "the only final solution to inflation is for the federal government to curtail its non-defense spending and quit spending dollars it does not have."

M. Denton Due To Return Here

LUTHER (SC) — Milton Denton, who has been living in Takoma Park, Md., is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Heckler. He is the brother of Mrs. Heckler, and he plans to move back to Big Spring. As soon as he can locate housing, his family will join him. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Underwood are visiting relatives and friends this week in Itasca, which was their old home for several years before moving here. Edward Simpson has returned from Rochester, Minn., where he flew to go through the Mayo Clinic for a physical check up.

Tower intended to go on by private plane for a night appearance in Victoria but was delayed by engine trouble. He finally reached Victoria about 10 p.m. and was greeted by more than 200 persons at a reception. Carr said while bidding for support in Laredo and San Angelo that he would like to see the national deficit reduced by prudent economies. "It is my judgment that too much money is being wasted on too many projects," he said, "and this constitutes a condition that is aggravated by the war in Viet Nam—a war that we must and shall win." The attorney general claimed earlier in Austin that as a close friend of President Johnson and a member of the majority party, he possesses Washington qualifications lacked by Tower. UNWISE POLICY
 He continued, however, that "if I were to disagree with the President, I would have to vote my convictions—President Johnson would expect nothing else." Remarks of Tower made public by aides were prepared for the Victoria Homebuilders Association. "All of us have been deeply concerned about the recession which has hit the homebuilding market," the senator stated.

Installers Nix Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—About 22,000 Western Electric installers have turned down a proposed new labor contract negotiated by the company and with the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America, a union spokesman said today. Exact figures on the ratification vote counted here Thursday night were not expected until later today, the spokesman said. But, the results were certain enough, he said. The installers rejected the contract which would have provided for basic wage increases of $5.50 to $8 per week, additional hospitalization, health and pension benefits. A spokesman for the union said the turn-down actually was based more on local issues than on the over-all national provisions of the proposed contract. He indicated, for example, that installers in nine South-eastern states wanted to be upgraded as a region. Similar matters, including holidays, influenced the West and Midwest voting. Western Electric is the manufacturing and supply arm of the Bell Telephone systems. Its contract with the union expired July 28 and a contract was negotiated with the aid of a federal mediator. Current wages, according to company figures, average $3.21 hourly, but vary according to the area.

Lamesa UF Opens Drive

LAMESA (SC)—The Lamesa United Fund began its 1966-67 drive Thursday with a noon luncheon in Forrest Park Community Center. Delbert Downing, former overseas field director for the Red Cross and now living in Midland, was principle speaker for the occasion. All workers in this year's drive were guests at the luncheon. Perry Roberts, president of the Lamesa United Fund campaign, announced the 1966-67 fund goal of $34,750. Lamesa and Dawson County has surpassed its set goal the past two years in the United Fund Drive, he reminded.

Airport Growth To Be Discussed

Expansion plans for the Howard County Airport will be discussed at a meeting of all members of the aviation committee, airport advisory board, Chamber of Commerce board of directors and the county commissioners court Tuesday. The session will begin at 5 p.m. in the chamber conference room. Connie Edwards is chairman of the aviation committee.

Ambulance Service Opinion Disclosed

AUSTIN (AP)—The attorney general said Thursday that counties may join with cities to provide ambulance service. A county also may run an ambulance service on its own "if the Commissioners Court determines that such service is in behalf of the public health and sanitation," the legal opinion stated. County Atty. George Day at Brownwood requested the opinion.
