Report From President

Floods Slice Italy In Half

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—The most extensive floods in Italy since World War II raged throughout the north and central sections of the country today and virtually cut the nation in two.

Flood waters from rain-swollen rivers surged into Florence and Venice—two of the Western world's greatest museum cities—and scores of other Italian communities in a gigantic swath of destruction reaching almost to Rome.

Violent weather in nearly all sections of the country increased the misery and chaos caused by the floods. Bad weather also afflicted other parts of Europe.

THREE KILLED

Three persons were killed in an avalanche in the Italian Alps. Hundreds were hurt in the flood-stricken areas and dozens were missing and feared dead.

Rivers all over the central and upper half of the country swelled over banks under the onslaught of more than 36 hours of steady rain.

The raging Arno River flooded into renaissance palaces and museums in the heart of Florence, threatening some of Western civilization's most famous art treasures.

Water from the Ombrone River spilled into Grosseto, a city of 47,000 between Rome and Florence, and rose in some sections to the second-floor levels.

NO POWER

Florence, a city of 450,000, was totally cut off from the outside and left without drinking water or electric power. Rescue teams from Rome and Bologna were unable to reach the city. Roads were cut. There was no rail service in or out.

The floods were part of a wave of violent and freakish weather that tore at Italy from Sicily to the Alps.

In Venice, also one of Italy's greatest museum centers, the worst tides of the postwar period swelled up the canals and the lagoon.

VENICE COVERED

The flood made Venice streets impassable, broke sewers and water lines, and disrupted electric power and communications. The entire city of 175,000 was covered by water in some cases more than three feet deep.

People of both Venice and Florence fled to the upper floors of homes, palaces, stores and office buildings.

ART TREASURES

The flood waters threatened some of Western civilization's most priceless artistic treasures in the historic downtown center of Florence. The water rose around the shop-lined Ponte Vecchio—the Old Bridge—lapped near the Uffizi Art Gallery and poured into the Piazza del Duomo, site of the Florence Cathedral and Giotto's bell tower.

Hundreds of residents fled to the upper floors of their homes or hastened to higher parts of the city.

The flood waters burst water mains and short-circuited electric and communications cables. Whole sections of the city were without drinkable water and electricity.

Johnson first said he did not want to get into a foreign policy debate with "a chronic campaigner like Mr. Nixon."

But he went on to criticize Nixon's knowledge of foreign affairs and said "now he's out talking about a conference he is not well informed about."

Johnson reiterated that the United States has no plans to dominate or occupy Viet Nam once violence there ceases. "We have explained we will pull out just as soon as the infiltration and violence ceases."

Democrats in a number of states from Massachusetts to California had announced plans to welcome Johnson at a series of weekend political rallies leading up to Tuesday's elections.

But the announcement Thursday that Johnson will undergo surgery forced them to scrap plans bunting and speakers' platforms.

Johnson insisted that his plans to "spend a quiet weekend" at his ranch did not involve any cancellation because, as he considers it, there were no official plans to be canceled.

Invitations had come in from candidates in 47 states—and "non-political" invitations from the other three, he said.

Johnson said some Republican leaders are "pulling in their horns" about possible GOP gains in the election.

He noted in passing that Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, GOP leader of the Senate, has mentioned a figure of 75 as the possible Republican gains in the House.

The way the President saw it, the party out of power has gained an average of 40 to 50 seats in elections since 1890.

Reds Told Not To Make 'Any Mistake In Judgment'

Johnson Says GOP 'Pulling In Horns'

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson criticized Richard M. Nixon's comments on the Viet Nam issue today, and called the Republican former Vice President a "chronic campaigner."

And on another aspect of the issue, he cautioned Communists abroad, such as the Red China or North Viet Nam regimes, not to make "any mistake in judgment" in interpreting the results of next Tuesday's U.S. elections.

"I cannot conceive," he told a news conference, "that when the American people cast their votes, their decision will in any way change the government's policies" on Viet Nam.

A newsman brought up criticism voiced Thursday by Nixon, who expressed the view that the recent Manila conference of nations allied with the United States in Viet Nam would accomplish nothing toward achieving peace.

OFF BASE
Nixon said the United States was "off base" with its offer to withdraw troops from South Viet Nam six months after North Viet Nam disengages from the conflict.

"The effect of this mutual withdrawal," Nixon said, "would be to leave the fate of South Viet Nam to the Viet Cong and the South Vietnamese Army."

Johnson first said he did not want to get into a foreign policy debate with "a chronic campaigner like Mr. Nixon."

But he went on to criticize Nixon's knowledge of foreign affairs and said "now he's out talking about a conference he is not well informed about."

Johnson reiterated that the United States has no plans to dominate or occupy Viet Nam once violence there ceases.

"We have explained we will pull out just as soon as the infiltration and violence ceases."

The way the President saw it, the party out of power has gained an average of 40 to 50 seats in elections since 1890.

VIET POLICY
But he combatted any idea that such gains would mean any change in policy toward Viet Nam. For one thing, he noted that the presidency is not up for the voters' decision.

And when Congress votes in the coming session on Viet Nam policy, he predicted the results would be the same as in the past. He mentioned such past votes as 83 to 2 in the Senate and 410 to 5 in the House.

So, he said, "I hope the Communists will be very careful not to make any mistaken judgments."

Just what impact Johnson's absence from campaign halls, rallies and parades will have on the election Tuesday no one can say, with certainty.

SYMPATHY VOTE
One unmeasurable factor was whether any sympathy for the chief executive—facing surgery after his mission to the Far East—would be reflected in votes for candidates of his Democratic party.

Another was whether any feeling of anxiety about the President's condition would be reflected in votes for Republicans.

Some political pros, like California's Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, doubt any outsider—even a President—can turn the tide of an election.

ON THE ROPES
And some of the candidates who have been pictured, as on, or near, the ropes and urgently needing help from the Democratic camp say they will do all right on their own.

Brown had expected Johnson to campaign for him in California Saturday and Sunday in his uphill re-election battle against Ronald Reagan.

"We are going to win the election whether he comes or not," declared Democratic Rep. Robert B. Duncan, who is in a tough match with GOP Gov. Mark O. Hatfield for a U.S. Senate seat from Oregon.

Brown and House Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts said they had been notified Tuesday that Johnson would not be able to keep campaign dates in their states.

McCormack said he learned it from a White House aide who telephoned from Seoul, Korea.

Powell Draws Jail Sentence

NEW YORK (AP)—A supreme court justice today found Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., guilty of two counts of criminal contempt and ordered that he serve 30 days in jail.

Justice Matthew M. Levy said the order for Powell's arrest would not be issued until after the election next Tuesday, Nov. 8.

Unlike the contempt citations issued against Powell, the criminal order can be served outside New York State.

Levy ordered Powell to pay a $250 fine and serve a 30-day jail sentence on each of the two counts. The jail sentences would run concurrently.

The order stems from a $162,000 libel judgment against the Harlem Democrat.

Buxom Blonde Back To Court

BRECKENRIDGE, Tex. (AP)—Pearl Birch wheeled her 55-year-old husband back into district court today to fight another attempt to break up her marriage of nine days to millionaire A. Otis Birch.

The hearing began about 10 a.m.

The new wife, who once served a term for murder in the shooting death of an Amarillo carpenter, won custody in a similar hearing last Saturday.

WANTS PEARL
Birch then told the court in a firm, loud voice that he wanted to live at her residence in Breckenridge. He had married the 205-pound Pearl Birch just four days earlier. But Miss Choate, who used her maiden name despite six previous marriages, has been his nurse since 1963.

The 5-foot, 11-inch blonde became the nurse for Birch and his first wife after she was released from the Texas penitentiary where she had served about 12 years on the murder conviction.

Korean 'Killers' Mutilated Yanks

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP)—The United Nations Command produced a bloody glove and blood-soaked bandages today to back up its charge that North Korean Communists brutally killed six Americans and a South Korean south of the demilitarized zone in the closing hours of President Johnson's visit to Korea.

U.S. Maj. Gen. Richard Ciccolella told an emergency meeting of the U.N. Command's Military Armistice Commission the glove came from a North Korean soldier and the bandages bore markings showing they were made by the Pyongyang Medicine Manufacturing Co. Pyongyang is the capital of North Korea.

VICIOUS BANDITS
"Not satisfied with the murder of our troops," he told North Korean Maj. Gen. Park Chung-kook, "your vicious bandits mutilated their heads with rifle butts." Thus turning a vicious crime into an act of savage atrocity.

He said the heads of some of the dead men were smashed in such savage brutality as to render all recognition impossible.

The Communists called the U.N. charges "a slanderous distortion."

Park opened the meeting by accusing the U.N. Command of 15 violations of the armistice between Oct. 25 and Nov. 3. Ciccolella countered with an offer for an immediate on-the-spot investigation, but Park rejected the proposal.

BLOODY CONFLICT
The North Korean said if the U.N. Command continues to violate the demilitarized zone, "resumption of bloody conflict" would result.

North Korean reporters at the meeting said their newspapers had given much prominence to charges that the United States is making attacks along the armistice line as a preliminary to reopening the Korean War.

U.S. and South Korean officials, on the other hand, have accused the North Koreans of a series of border attacks since Oct. 15 in which 25 South Koreans and six Americans were killed. But they say they do not believe the Communists are preparing to resume the war.

SEVEN AMBUSHED
The patrol of seven Americans and a South Korean was ambushed early Wednesday. Ciccolella said investigators from the U.N. Command the next day found one North Korean bandage at the south edge of the demilitarized zone between North and South Korea and the other 50 yards inside the zone. He added that the North Koreans left an "unmistakable trail of blood."

The American general said the sole survivor of the patrol Pfc. David E. Bibee, of Ringgold, Va., had positively identified the attackers as North Korean soldiers by their uniforms.

KILLER SNOWSTORM

Record Cold Numbs Seven Dixie States

By The Associated Press
Record cold numbed at least seven states of the Southland today as the season's first major snowstorm, a killer and a traffic crippler, swung back northward into Canada.

The storm left in its swooping wake freezing temperatures all the way to the Gulf of Mexico, falls of snow as far south as Birmingham, Ala., and a white blanket that measured 15 inches on the level in parts of Kentucky and drifts as deep as four feet in Michigan.

The storm's toll of lives totaled at least 32 in six states, including five in a heavy rainstorm in New England.

Snow squalls continued across the Great Lakes and northern Appalachians—the region where the storm hit hardest.

Michigan householers and highway crews were digging out of drifts that paralyzed the lower half of the state. The storm's toll in Michigan was four lives. Its Upper Peninsula was still snow-choked.

The storm snarled traffic, marooned scores of trucks and cars, downed power lines, disrupted air traffic, trapped hunters and forced schools to close. The unscheduled vacation for thousands of schoolchildren continued today.

Ski enthusiasts were about the only ones in Michigan to draw any pleasure from the sporadically continuing fall of snow that measures 10 inches at Alpena, in the northeast along Lake Huron, and averaged seven to eight inches.

'WALK THE LAST MILE'

LBJ Says Trip Successful

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson appraised his Asia, Pacific trip today as highly successful and said the nations at the Manila conference are united in a determination "to walk the last mile" in the search for peace.

The President made the assessment at a news conference a day after announcing that he faces surgery in about a fortnight on his throat and abdomen.

He dismissed that prospect today as not "something to make a show over."

Answering questions, Johnson said that at no time had his doctors advised him not to make his 31,500-mile trip overseas, or to ease up during the journey.

DIDN'T GET WEARY
The best indication of his physical condition, Johnson said, is that notwithstanding his throat polyp and repair work on the abdomen, he did make the trip, he didn't get weary, and he got plenty of rest throughout.

Johnson also told reporters assembled in the White House East Room for a televised news session that he sees no reason why the Tuesday election should greatly affect any decision the North Vietnamese might make on continuing the war.

While he was at it, he said there could be a change of 40 or 50 seats in the House without drastically affecting the government's program.

Johnson walked into the East Room this morning with a smile on his face and a nod for newsmen he recognized. Mrs. Johnson was with him.

STRONG VOICE
His voice was strong and he showed no signs of unusual weariness or illness.

Johnson said he is not a good judge of what the Communist reaction to the result of the coming congressional election will be. He had been asked whether he thinks the outcome will have any effect on Communist intentions to continue the Viet Nam war. There have been suggestions that an administration setback could encourage the Communists.

"The President is not a candidate in this election," Johnson remarked, saying he does not see how the election could change the government's policies. He also said he hopes the Communists do not make any miscalculations.

Asked what he knows about the views of the Soviet leaders on Viet Nam, Johnson said, "I have every reason to believe they would like to see the fighting stop."

"Until we can reason this out we must maintain the strength to defend our men," he said.

TEXANS AT WAR

'I'll Go Back If I Can' Says Raymondville GI

By The Associated Press
Sesario Posas, a Texan at war, and his unit were fighting their way through the Viet Nam jungle when they came upon the bunker—they didn't know it was there until it opened fire.

SLUGS SNAP LEG

But 15 minutes later slugs broke his leg.

"I got hit above and below the knee in my left leg," says Posas. "I was just 13 steps from the bunker when I got hit. I was trying to put a grenade in the hole in the bunker."

Another sergeant dragged him away, Posas said, and later his unit took the bunker.

Posas, recovering from his wounds in Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio, expects to continue his Army career, begun 11 years ago, and hopes to see more Viet Nam combat.

TERROR CONTROLLED

"I'll go back if I can," he says. He remembers the Viet Cong as a formidable enemy at night, wearing black pajama-like uniforms making them very difficult to spot when they make night raids.

Memories of the terror and tension will never leave him, he says, but he has brought them under control.

"Just after I came back I would hear a sudden noise and jump for cover," he says. "But that's all gone now."

Post Office Pact Awarded

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Post Office Department Thursday awarded a contract to build a post office at Edinburg in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Laco Rentals Inc., of Austin will build the one-story post office at a cost of about $184,400 and lease the building to the government.

Combo From Band Plays For Club

Big Spring High School's "Tijuana Brass," musical group from the band, were given an ovation by Kiwanis club members on Thursday.

The youngsters, with their version of the characteristic music played by Herb Alpert's group, were presented by Gene Campbell and Mel Stinson.

Their appearance at the club was in part a step in the band's campaign to sell fruit cakes as a fund raising project. Stinson discussed the efforts the band makes to finance its many activities and Campbell served as emcee for the young musicians.

Car Injuries Fatal

HOUSTON (AP)—Mrs. Leatrice Mangfield, 55, died Thursday night of injuries received about six hours earlier in a two-car collision at an intersection.

Meanwhile, In California

Winter's early blasts of snow and freezing temperatures had arrived in the nation's eastern half Thursday as Ginger Kershner, 21, frolics in the surf where Los Angeles meets the sea. The city's temperature approached 80, after hitting a November record high of 100 earlier in the week. (AP Wirephoto)

LBJ Still Might Campaign For Carr

By The Associated Press

Speculation persisted today that President Johnson, although homeward bound for rest prior to surgery, still might sandwich in a little pre-election politicking.

Some observers took the view that he quite possibly would manage a campaign move in behalf of Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, the fellow Democrat vying with Republican Sen. John Tower for Johnson's former seat in the Senate.

Tower himself sent the President a note expressing regret the surgery was necessary and congratulating him on "your successful Asian tour."

AMERICANS HOPEFUL

"We are all thankful that the operations involved apparently are minor ones," Tower told newsmen at Waco. "All Americans are hopeful that the President will recover as completely from this operation as he did from his previous one."

Carr stamped vigorously through another full day in Dallas, winding up with a televised night rally at which he was joined by Gov. John Connally, and Tower moved back to that vicinity once more for an evening rally and TV speech at Fort Worth.

Drawing frequent applause, the attorney general told an audience including other state party leaders and most of the Democrats' Dallas County nominees he is better equipped than his opponent to represent them in Washington.

TIDELANDS

"I worked to preserve Texas tidelands when my opponent was just starting to teach school," Carr said. "I stood up and fought for Texas' right-to-work laws when my opponent thought 14B (a section of the Taft-Hartley Act) was a hotel room number."

"I stood up and fought for Texas' against the Justice Department when it sent FBI agents into the state with unwarranted interference into our election process, and we won our case."

Connally credited Carr for independent thinking and said "I think by long odds the best interests of Texas will be served" by sending him to the Senate.

Crippling Snowstorm Believed Tapering Off

By The Associated Press
A crippling snowstorm, which left a heavy blanket of white across broad areas in the eastern half of the nation, appeared tapering off today, but cold weather persisted, even in the Dep South.

The first widespread major snowstorm of the season left as much as 15 inches of snow in parts of Kentucky and the snow fell southward as far as Birmingham, Ala.

Storm-related deaths, including five in a heavy rainstorm in New England, totaled at least 32 in six states. Most of the fatalities were in traffic accidents on snow-covered and icy highways but some deaths were caused by heart attacks while shoveling snow.

HIGH WINDS

Snow squalls and high winds continued early today in the upper and eastern Great Lakes region. Heaviest snow was confined to a narrow belt along the southeastern shores of Lake Erie. In New York State up to seven inches of snow fell north of Buffalo.

High winds, with three inches of wet snow and thunder and lightning, hit areas in western New York State Thursday night. Power breakdowns were widespread.

Gale force winds, from 35 to 45 mph, continued to sweep across the Great Lakes region. More snow fell in Michigan, but tapered off to mostly flurries

Sausage Preparation At St. Lawrence Starting

GARDEN CITY—It's real early at 6 a.m. these days. Nevertheless, that's the hour nearly every man in this community will arrive at the Alfred Schwartz farm Saturday.

All will come prepared to work.

Their work is cut out for them—literally. The task they face is the preparation of a ton of the spicy sausage for which this community is famous.

The 2,000 pounds of sausage will be the piece de resistance at a big dinner and supper, open to the public, on Sunday, and for sale to interested buyers in the uncooked stage.

The occasion will be the annual St. Lawrence Fall Festival—an event designed for the financial benefit of the St. Lawrence Catholic Church. Actually, the funds raised are added to a fattening bank account the community is assembling to build a new church, according to A. W. Schroeder, who is general chairman for the auction this year. "We need a bigger building," he explains. "We have outgrown the one we have." Schwartz is chairman in charge of making the sausage.

Saturday the sausage will be ground, mixed—and stuffed. Sunday it will be offered for sale in two forms—uncooked, by the pound, and cooked as a featured item on a big dinner to be served at the St. Lawrence Community house starting at 11:30 a.m. and repeated at 5 p.m.

The price is $1.50 for adults and $1 for children. A feature of the afternoon will be the auction sale at which more than 30 bales of cotton, donated by the farmers of the community, and a mountain of valuable merchandise will be sold to the highest bidder. Schroeder said that the merchandise was donated to the cause by merchants in Big Spring and other communities.

Fire Destroys Rail Trestle

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex. (AP)—Fire which police attributed to arson destroyed a railroad trestle Thursday night, blocking efforts to move vegetables from a strikebound packing shed.

The blaze broke out after Missouri Pacific crewmen refused to move a switch engine past picketing farm workers and railroad supervisors completed the trip.

Sections of the 450-foot trestle fell into an arroyo below amid gaudy showers of sparks. About half the top part of the span and some of its supports burned.

"It definitely was arson," said Roy Carrera, assistant chief of Rio Grande City's volunteer fire department.

The trestle stood one mile east of here in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, and about the same distance from the Starr Produce Co., from which an attempt was being made to move five carloads of bell peppers awaiting shipment.

Pickets at the packing shed represented the United Farm Workers, who have been campaigning since June to obtain higher pay for field hands. They say most workers now receive $1 an hour or less for stoop labor and contend the minimum should be $1.25.

Bill Chandler, a union organizer, said the strikers had nothing to do with the fire.

"I know none of our people did it," he said. "I think it was an act of sabotage by people who oppose our strike."

Chandler said pickets would return to duty if an attempt was made to move the bell peppers by truck.

Witnesses who were among the first to reach the big fire said they detected "a strong odor of gasoline." It took firemen an hour and a half to control the leaping flames. They stood by through the night to prevent a flareup.

How Tangible Is 'Backlash'?

EDITOR'S NOTE — One big factor in this election, most political observers agree, is the "backlash." But where, and how? And how tangible is it? Reiman Martin, AP Special Correspondent and Pulitzer Prize-winner, traveled throughout the United States to study the phenomenon. His report follows.

NEW YORK (AP) — Civil rights demonstrators, marching through Chicago Lawn, a white neighborhood on that city's Southwest Side, were met last summer with angry shouts: "Wait 'til the election!"

Two candidates in next Tuesday's elections, an Illinois Democrat and Maryland Democrat, are campaigning on the slogan, "Your home is your castle."

"Atlanta Riots" nominated Maddox, the Chicago riots killed the 1966 civil rights bill," Roy E. Wilkins, executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, told a Georgia NAACP conference recently. Lester Maddox is the man who closed his Atlanta restaurant rather than serve Negroes. He now is the Democratic candidate for governor of Georgia.

MAJOR CONCERN
Last month, Ray C. Bliss, Republican national chairman, said GOP surveys reported that 58 per cent of the voters consider civil rights and associated problems as a major concern in Tuesday's congressional elections. Four months earlier, he said, the figure was 44 per cent.

'BLACK POWER'
It is the term for white reaction to recent Negro riots and disturbances in a number of major cities, to the Negro militants' cry, "Black power!" to proposed open housing laws, to the many-sided aspects of the struggle over civil rights, North and South.

Granted that the "backlash" stirs deep emotions, even in communities where there have been no disturbances, how will it affect some candidates next Tuesday?

CODE WORDS
"They use code words instead," a politician observes. "They talk about 'social engineering,' 'federal intervention,' or just plain 'liberty' with respect to open housing or racial imbalance in the schools. But what they mean is racism."

CALIFORNIA:
More than six weeks ago, Gov. Edmund G. Brown told this correspondent: "The 'backlash' is the big X in my campaign." He meant the unknown factor.

South eliminated all guesswork in playing his six no trump contract, by taking advantage of a mildly favorable opening lead to project a profitable endplay on his opponent.

Republican opponent is Ronald Reagan, movie and television actor.

'FAIR HOUSING'
Californians voted overwhelmingly in 1964 to strike from the books the Rumford Act, a "fair housing" statute. It is still there, however, by reason of a State Supreme Court ruling.

Brown worked for the Rumford Act. Reagan says of his position on civil rights, generally, "There is a definite limit in how far in the private sector you can go by legislation and law. You can't guarantee someone's freedom by imposing on someone else's."

Riots last year in Watts, a Negro section of Los Angeles, and racial flareups in San Francisco and Oakland fanned the flames of racial feeling. Last week — and against the advice of his aides, Brown said — the governor brought the issue into the open.

BIGOTRY INJECTED
He said at a news conference: "I should speak directly and forcefully on this great unspoken issue of the campaign, the so-called 'white backlash,' the riptide of racial emotion and concern that is tearing at people of both races in California today."

A reporter asked if the feeling would help Reagan. Brown replied: "He's riding the 'backlash' and has subtly contributed to it."

Reagan retorted that Brown "has injected bigotry into the campaign." He previously said, "I have spent my entire life actively opposing prejudice of all kinds."

ILLINOIS:
Paul H. Douglas, tall, craggy-faced and 74, is running for his fourth term in the U.S. Senate. He is a Democrat. His Republican opponent is Charles H. Percy, 47, a business executive.

Douglas is for open housing. Percy favors a federal open housing law that would exempt individual home owners and apartment buildings with four or fewer units.

DEMO BACKBONE
Until recently, neither candidate talked much about the "backlash." Others did.

In an editorial captioned, "Sympathy for Douglas," the Peoria Journal Star said, "He faces, especially in Chicago, a 'white backlash' that is real — and that is taking place in the very city wards that have been the backbone of the Democratic vote."

Douglas goes into parts of Chicago where, he says, "They are supposed to be hostile to me, segregationists."

He stands at a commuter stop on the West Side shaking hands with disembarking passengers. In the space of about an hour, seven men and four women pointedly brush past his outstretched hand. Others, while shaking hands, refuse to take the campaign literature his aides offer them. The "backlash"? Who can say?

HOSTILE WHITES
The Chicago Sun-Times, recently reporting results of its straw poll, said, "Douglas again suffered at the hands of whites hostile to the civil rights movement. In the 12th Ward which is made up largely of Czech and Polish workers, Douglas received only 47.18 per cent whereas in 1960 he received 72.25 per cent."

The mayor of Waukegan, Robert V. Sabonjian, is a write-in candidate in the senatorial race, running as an independent Democrat. Last August, after three nights of race rioting in Waukegan, Sabonjian snuffed out the disorders by clamping on a strict curfew. He opposes open housing. His campaign literature says, "Your home is your castle, and I intend to keep it that way." Says Sabonjian: "Both Percy and Douglas are going to be hurt by the 'backlash.'"

MASSACHUSETTS:
"If there is a 'backlash' here," says Edward Brooke, "I just haven't seen it. I haven't met it. And I'm not finding just what I want to find."

NEGRO CANDIDATE
If Brooke is elected, he will be the first Negro senator since 1881 when a carpetbagger government of Mississippi sent a Negro to the U.S. Senate. The Massachusetts attorney general's Democratic opponent is Endicott Peabody, a former governor.

The "backlash" picture in Massachusetts is less clear than in some other states. There is no civil rights issue — unless it is Brooke's color.

But, says Mrs. Hicks of the school board, "We are feeling the impact from disturbances around the whole country. The backlash will adversely affect Brooke and that's undeserved. If anything, he is less liberal on civil rights than Peabody."

NEGRO CHILDREN
Mrs. Hicks says she's not an opponent of integration, but does believe "children ought to go to school in their own neighborhoods." This position has put her in opposition to efforts to end de facto segregation in Boston by busing Negro children to white schools at public expense.

Mrs. Hicks has not opposed Negro parents taking their children to white neighborhood schools, at their expense, under Boston's open-enrollment policy. Citing this policy, she contends there is no segregation in the city's schools.

"I think there is a backlash," said Democratic Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, "but it's not the principal factor in this election. Voters are taking a critical look at Brooke's record as attorney general."

'SOME DAY'
In his speeches — and Brooke draws large and apparently friendly crowds — he talks about Watts and the frustrations of Negroes. But he has said, "Civil rights cannot be maintained through the sword and bloodshed."

"You hear these expressions of feeling about his candidacy — 'Some day,' said a Boston advertising man, "some state is going to send a Negro to the Senate. But I wouldn't like to see Massachusetts be the first to do so."

"Some of us," said an employee of a television station, "want very much to confront those Southern senators with a dignified, intelligent, capable Negro from Massachusetts."

Brooke, a potent vote-getter, was believed to be far ahead a few months ago. Today, the race seems to be neck-and-neck. Is it because of the "backlash"?

MARYLAND:
In his speech accepting the Democratic nomination for governor, George P. Mahoney said, "I say a man's home is his castle and I say it proudly. Your home is your castle and anyone who says otherwise is trying to cheat you of a constitutional right."

HOME IS CASTLE
This is Mahoney's campaign slogan. "Your home is your castle — protect it."

Mahoney, a wealthy Baltimore County paving contractor, won the nomination Sept. 13. He defeated Rep. Carleton R. Sikes, a liberal who campaigned for open housing legislation.

Industrial Aid Bonds Cheat Tax Collector?

BY JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Use of industrial development bonds is soaring, even though many investment bankers consider their use unethical.

Industrial development bonds use the low-cost borrowing advantages of city government to finance private factories. They have been very successful in improving the living conditions in poor towns, particularly in the South.

Opponents, such as the Investment Bankers Association, say this use of public funds for a private purpose is a misuse, that it lessens a city's ability to borrow for new schools and sewers and water systems.

CREATE JOBS
Proponents say the argument is really sociological rather than financial. They question the statement that industrial aid bonds are a misuse. A town has the right to create jobs by financing a factory, they say.

The strength behind any defense of these bonds is a mixture of good business, politics, humanitarianism and profit.

Some of the bonds are backed by the entire credit rating of a town. That is, the town pledges to repay the money it borrows through its taxing power, even though it has no assurance the company it finances will succeed.

FACES EVICTION
More often, the bonds are revenue bonds. In such a case the factory signs a contract to repay interest and principal from its revenues in an amount sufficient to retire the bonds. If it doesn't pay, it is evicted.

In 1950, only $7 million in municipal industrial development bonds were issued. By 1960 the total was $40 million. And in the first nine months this year the amount rose to $439 million. The backlog for the year is as large.

Some 32 states now have passed laws — "enabling legislation" — permitting the use of industrial aid bonds. Some of these states, of course, are not industrially deprived. Instead, they are disturbed at having lost industry to other states.

If every state eventually permits such bonds, their use as an incentive might be diminished. The real loser, however, would be the tax collector.

BACK DOOR OPEN
Since the industrial bonds cannot be taxed by the federal government, the Treasury Department and the Internal Revenue Service are becoming more and more concerned.

"Uncle Sam allows the back door to stand wide open, while he carefully guards the front," said Rep. Henry S. Reuss, D-Wis., a member of the House Banking and Currency subcommittee.

Reuss' statements were made to a meeting of the American Bankers Association, the chief opponent of this type of financing. And the ABA right now is encouraging legislation to end some of the advantages.

Negro Reaches Teen Finals

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A feeling of "them and us" still separates many Los Angeles residents from those living in racially torn Watts, a Los Angeles candidate for the Miss Teenage America crown says.

Tallulah Cheryl Reed, of late known as Tracy, is the first Negro competing in the national pageant and yesterday was chosen one of seven finalists from the 64 contestants.

The 90-minute climax of the pageant, during which a national television audience (CBS) will see the 1967 teen queen crowned to win $23,000 worth of prizes, will be tomorrow night.

Tracy, 17 last week, is the daughter of retired Army Maj. and Mrs. David Roosevelt Reed and the second of four children. She entered UCLA as a freshman this fall, after being a straight "A" high school student.

more than a year ago, Tracy was editor of her high school newspaper "and my first inclination was to run over and take pictures. But of course we couldn't."

DEEP PROBLEMS

She feels the problems of Watts are many-faceted and deep and, while not approving of the destructive expression of these problems—she feels many Los Angeles' citizens still don't comprehend the situation.

Carr Has Notable Record Of Helping Young People

AUSTIN—Waggoner and Ernestine Carr are the parents of only one son — 17-year-old David—but the Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate has had a profound effect on the lives of thousands of Texas young people.

One of the projects which he guided to success as Speaker of the House of Representatives was the fountainhead for today's nationwide Head Start Program.

The "Little Schools of the 400" was a project of the League of United Latin American Citizens. The idea was to teach 400 basic words of English to Spanish-speaking preschoolers so they could hurdle the language barrier when they started the first grade.

HE HELPED

The LULAC sponsors of the original bill, however, found their project mired deep in a legislative log-jam.

"I still recall vividly the day Felix Tijerina of Houston, the national president of LULAC, and other LULAC leaders came to my office in the State Capitol to discuss their bill," Carr says today.

"They came to ask my help. This bill was buried deep in the House Committee. They said the bill might never get out of committee unless I helped them. I told them I would help. I did. The bill soon passed and became law," Carr recalls.

The "Little Schools of the 400" had a tremendous effect on the lives of thousands of youngsters just starting to school.

The idea also has had a nationwide impact.

HEAD-START ORIGIN

Because the Texas project was so successful, it was used as the basis for Operation Head Start in the national War on Poverty.

Today, Texas has 132 Head Start federal grants with an enrollment of 44,351 children.

Perhaps the most significant contribution Carr has made toward serving the young people of Texas has been the Attorney General's Youth Conferences on Crime.

As the chief law enforcement officer of Texas, Attorney General Carr resolved to halt the rapid growth of young adult crime in this state with a new approach to an old problem.

For the first time, the youth of Texas themselves were to be called upon to become partners against crime, to become part of the solution instead of part of the problem.

CONFERENCES

More than 5,000 young Texans from every part of the state participated in the three conferences sponsored by the attorney general. The ideas they learned were taken back to their hometowns and put into effect within the framework of existing youth organizations.

It is now estimated that more than 65,000 teenage leaders throughout Texas are actively engaged in fighting juvenile crime.

TEENAGE JURIES

One of the outgrowths of the conferences have been teenage juries, through which youths recommend to judges sentences against teenage traffic and misdemeanor offenders.

These juries act only in an advisory capacity and judges do not have to agree with the jury on its findings.

But most judges in the several cities which now have such juries are inclined to follow their recommendations. In San Antonio, for instance, in 200 cases tried before the teenage jury, the corporation court overruled their recommendations in only two cases.

And what has been the result of the youth conferences?

Well, this year, for the first time in history, Texas showed a drop of seven per cent in juvenile crime. And Texas was the only state in the nation to show a decrease.

Ticking Woman Puzzles Doctor

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Stand a couple of feet from Melvina Taylor and you'll hear a faint ticking, as if from a watch inside her head.

"When it first started," says Mrs. Taylor, 42, "I only heard it late at night. Now, all day long, it never stops."

Doctors can't explain it.

"It goes away only when I'm talking or moving or, so they tell me, when I'm asleep," says Mrs. Taylor, who lives in Los Angeles.

"It's rather weird, actually," comments Mrs. Taylor's latest doctor, James H. Whitmore. "It seems to be a spasm of a nerve, but anything I say at this point is strictly theory."

Oil Fields Strike Violence Feared

FARMINGTON, N.M. (AP)—Police were reinforced and a restraining order was issued to prevent violence as a strike in the San Juan Basin oil fields went into its sixth day today.

State police dispatched 14 more officers to this northwest New Mexico region Thursday night.

Dist. Judge C. C. McCulloh scheduled a hearing next Thursday on a 10-day restraining order he issued against the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union.

State Police Chief John Bradford was among the officers who moved into the tension-packed area.

The restraining order, copies of which were issued to 40 persons, prohibited violence and limited the number of pickets to six at any drilling site. A request for an injunction had been filed by several companies being struck.

The strike began Sunday against nine drilling firms from which the union seeks recognition as a bargaining agent. Three associated companies in the basin, which includes portions of four states, also were struck later in the week.

POLICE LEARN HOW TO SELL IDEA

'Men In Blue Good Guys'

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) — Los Angeles police, trying to overcome the distrust of Negroes and other minority groups, are inviting them in to discuss "what would you do if you were a policeman and..."

In Baltimore, police are telling people: "We want to know you. What we can do for you."

These are efforts at community relations by police, designed to convince urban residents that the men in blue are the good guys.

Community relations officers from 20 cities are trading ideas and debating — sometimes hotly — issues at a two-week Michigan State University workshop.

Sessions at the workshop, supported by a $96,282 federal grant, are closed, but officers attending discussed their ideas with newsmen at a news conference. The workshop ends today.

NOT CURE-ALL

"This is not a cure-all," said James Fisk, coordinator of community relations for Los Angeles police. "It merely is buying time for society to solve its problems."

Some effective programs may be no more complex than an officer's appearance before minority area school groups simply to show off his equipment, he said.

"We still have the job of persuading the policemen who have been shot at and had bottles thrown at them that by shaking hands, we can make things safer for them," Fisk said.

Racially mixed discussion groups help, he said.

All the workshop participants said police problems include finding enough good men to add to the force.

MORE MEN NEEDED

William Harris, director of community relations for Baltimore police, said Baltimore's force needs 400 more men.

"One problem certainly is the low salary," said Loftus Carson, Human Relations Commission director at Rochester, N.Y. "It reflects the attitude of the community. They haven't remunerated the police in accordance with what is demanded of them."

Fisk suggested, as an aid to short-staffed police departments, the development of organizations that could provide hundreds of trained civilians to work in the streets in quelling disturbances by persuading troublemakers to halt.

U.S.-Reds Ink Air Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. and Soviet officials sign an agreement today authorizing the first direct air service between Moscow and New York.

The ceremony in a State Department conference room signals a slight thaw in relations between the two world powers.

The pact was reached and initiated five years ago, but its formal acceptance has been delayed by various pressures of the cold war.

The Soviet Union's minister of civil aviation, Air Force Gen. Yevgeny F. Loginov, and Llewellyn E. Thompson, U.S. ambassador-at-large are to sign the agreement opening the way for flights on the 5,000-mile transatlantic route.

NEXT SPRING

But officials said the air service will not start before next spring. They explained the designated airlines — Pan American Airways and Aeroflot — first must complete technical arrangements.

The agreement was envisaged in a 1958 cultural agreement and was worked out in the summer of 1961 in Washington. But on Aug. 21, 1961, shortly after the Berlin wall went up, the State Department said it was "not an appropriate time" to sign a formal agreement.

Since then the subject has been somewhat of a barometer of the international situation. Interest in it was revived several months ago when President Johnson proposed a series of small steps to improve East-West relations, including the air agreement, increased trade and a treaty to preserve outer space for peaceful use.

WAY CLEARED

Negotiations on the air service resumed last month after New York meetings between Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Although the agreement clears the way for the first direct air service between the United States and the Soviet capital, Air Canada and Aeroflot inaugurated first regular nonstop commercial service between North America and the Soviet Union today when they began once-a-week schedules between Moscow and Montreal.

The estimated 20,000 U.S. and Canadian tourists flying to the Soviet Union each year have been making the trip via foreign airlines which make intermediate stops in Western Europe.

Police Hunt Teen Killer

WACO, Tex. (AP) — The killer of a 16-year-old schoolboy who also pistol-whipped an aged woman during a grocery store holdup was the object today of a wide police manhunt.

The man, described as well dressed and about 20 to 25 years old, entered the community grocery store at Waco's south edge late Thursday and said, "This is a stickup."

As young James Roy Jones, who worked in the store after school hours, moved toward the cash register, the man fired one time to inflict a fatal wound.

Mrs. W. F. Young, 70-year-old owner of the store, started to pick up her telephone and was quickly beaten about the head with the robber's heavy pistol.

Police said Mrs. Young's robbery loss was about $100 or $125. She was reported in "satisfactory condition" Thursday night in a Waco hospital.

Freeze Kills Texas Produce

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Thursday's freeze killed produce in this vicinity and will contribute to a rise in food prices, the House Consumer Affairs subcommittee was told.

This prediction came from Henry van de Walle, head of a pioneer Bexar County farm family. He was among witnesses appearing before the group for housewives, chain stores, milk producers and processors, and the U.S. Agriculture and Labor Departments.

Van de Walle said frost caused losses of snap beans, new potatoes, bell peppers, cucumbers, squash and pumpkins.

Growth May Slow Tax Hike Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — A former top presidential economic advisor says he is not now as strongly in favor of a tax increase as he was two months ago.

Walter W. Heller, chairman of the Council of Economic Advisors for President John F. Kennedy and briefly for President Johnson, said there are signs that economic growth may slow during the second half of 1967.

Heller said a tax increase would permit easing of tight money and high interest rates, and help dampen high union wage demands. But indications now, he said, are that the gross national product a year from now may be increasing about $11 billion every three months, down from the $13 billion rise during the third quarter of this year.

'I Did It' She Says

While workmen cover up the painting of a nude on the rocks above a tunnel near Malibu, Calif., yesterday, Mrs. Lynn Seemayer gives her version of how the painting got there. She says she painted it, working at night in an area above the beams from headlights of passing autos. She says she lowered herself from the top of the cliff with a set of ropes to do the painting. A LOVELIER YOU

Knits Are Treasure, Pamper Them Well!

By MARY SUE MILLER
As fashions go, knits go on forever. Never was a fashion so loved for so long. And small wonder!

Knits are increasingly handsome and singularly comfortable, wearable at all hours and seasons without fuss or muss. What's more knits are flattering and practically indestructible, when worn and cared for like the treasures they are. This is the pamper treatment:

Wear the sleekest possible underpinnings beneath knits with a clinging texture. In this category are molded, no-seam bras and chemise slips. Utterly simple in design, the slip follows the curve of the bra and body, line for line, with only a bit of fagoting for decoration. Thus the show-through problem is eliminated.

Wear a taffeta slip or petticoat under firm, unlined knits. Or reinforce the back of the skirt with a rigid-fabric panel. This keeps the skirt in shape and gives you a smoother shape all the while.

With a hip or thigh problem, the feminine shape needs a highly refining pantie girdle under knit skirts on the straight side.

Give knits the care outlined on the hang-tag. Unless marked "washable," have garments drycleaned. Store garments on padded hangers or in bureau drawers, according to instructions.

BEAUTY KNOWS NO AGE

Some women age before their time; some retain their youthful beauty and charm. Why? The secrets of non-stop attractiveness are revealed in "Beauty Knows No Age." Advice covers ways to youthful figures, skin and hair; to flattering make-up, hairstyles and fashions. HINTS FROM HELOISE

Remove Ink From Plastic

Dear Heloise:
I have a hint that might prove as useful to others as it has to me.
Recently, I brought a flannel-backed plastic tablecloth with a pretty floral design, but to my dismay, I found that laying newspapers on it made ink smudges that soap and water would not remove.

HELOISE

Quite by accident, I found that a little cooking oil or shortening on an ordinary paper towel or soft cloth, takes the black smudges right off—with just a little rubbing.

All I had to do then was wash the spots with warm, soapy water, and lo and behold, the tablecloth looks like new again.

I hope this will help others.
... Mrs. L. A. Petteberg

Well, if I had a dozen long-stemmed Talisman roses, would send them to you. Many people have asked this question and you, dear one, have found the answer.

I tried your hint and it works on adhesive-backed plastic paper, plastic tablecloths, and white enamel woodwork and around doors.

Varnish should be applied thin and flowed on gently with a brush to avoid bubbles. ... Hobbs Paint Store

Dear Heloise:
I have found that a serrated grapefruit spoon does a fine job of scooping out pulp and seeds from squash or melons.

Leslie Wilson
Dear Heloise:
I thought I would tell you how I have kept my address book up-to-date for several years.
Addresses are changed more often than names, so I write the name in ink, and the address and telephone number with a soft lead pencil so they can be erased.
This eliminates the bulk of numerous pasted labels, especially since some people move often. ... D.D.

Dear Heloise:
I always cook enough potatoes so that when I mash them, I'm sure to have plenty left over for the next day.
I just mix them liberally with instant minced onions that I've previously soaked in hot water, and make individual potato loaves.
Wrap in foil and bake. Yummy! ... Mamye Pope

Dear Heloise:
I ran out of four-cent postal cards and needed one to send the address of our soldier son to a friend. I used a blank card from my recipe file instead. Naturally, I put a stamp on it!
Thought this might be a good idea for your column. ... M.E.W.

Revival in Big Spring starts with you!

Church Construction Proceeds Rapidly

Work on the new Mexican Baptist Church, top, is proceeding rapidly and construction is expected to be finished within the next six weeks. The building, a $30,000 project, is being spearheaded by the Big Spring Baptist Association. The new plant on NW Sixth replaces an old building which was lost in an explosion. Construction is also getting under way at the $37,000 Sacred Heart youth center, bottom, at 509 N. Ayford, which is expected to be completed in January or February. (Photos by Frank Brandon)

Baptists Plan Loyalty Dinner

The First Baptist Church will have its Loyalty Dinner Thursday at 7 p.m. in Cosden Country Club. All members are invited to attend this affair, and there is no charge.

This is one of the functions to explain the church's stewardship campaign which will begin a week from Sunday. A dedication day on Nov. 13 will be followed by visitation of the membership. Billy T. Smith is chairman of the committee which is leading church volunteers in the effort.

Featured At Singing Meet

The quarterly meeting of the Howard County Singing Convention at the Church of the Nazarene at 2 p.m. Sunday will feature "The Echoes," a junior quartet from the First Baptist Church, of Ferris. Members are, from left, Sharon Douglas, 11, tenor; Vickie Warters, 11, alto; Cheree Douglas, 9, lead; and Robert Dale Brazier, 13, bass and spokesman. Mrs. James Douglas is manager and accompanies for the group which has been singing together for a year and a half in the Dallas area and other places. There also will be quartets from Loraine and Sweetwater at the Sunday meeting, to which everyone is invited.

Rev. Sharp Gets Key Role Here

The Rev. Jarrell Sharp, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Methodist Church, represented his district at the annual meeting of the Methodist Home's board of commissioners in Waco recently.

Rev. Sharp will have the key role in orienting Methodists of the Big Spring district to the importance of the annual Christmade in Methodist churches throughout Texas and New Mexico in December.

Bishop W. Kenneth Pope spoke to the 101 ministers at the meeting, listing the Methodist Home's recent advances in the field of child care and challenging Methodist laymen and ministers in Texas and New Mexico to do their parts to aid in the home's contained program.

"There are more than 360 children on the campus of the Methodist Home today," Rev. Sharp said, "and the average child there is the by-product of a home destroyed by alcohol, divorce, crime, mental illness or desertion."

"We are dedicated to contributing support to the staff's task of furnishing food, clothing and shelter for these children. We need to help them learn to make their own way."

FALSE WORSHIP

In the International Sunday School Lesson for Sunday, the prophet Jeremiah is bitter in his denunciation of useless worship. He condemns misplaced confidence in the church as a building rather than as a driving, inspired force. He not only wanted people to go into the Temple; he wanted them to bring something out of it. Words without worship are blasphemous to God, Jeremiah tells men, and God will not tolerate blasphemy. The text is taken from Jeremiah 7:26.

Will Observe Special Week

Members of Baptist Temple will join thousands of other Baptist churches throughout the Southern Baptist Convention, Nov. 6-12, in observance of Royal Ambassador Week.

During this week, the church spotlight will be turned on boys ages 9-17 who participate in the missionary education program of the church as "ambassadors."

Baptist Temple youth will participate in a camping trip and attend a Royal Ambassador Convention at the University of Texas, Nov. 29.

Leading Royal Ambassadors at Baptist Temple as counselors are Alvis Harry, Joe Newham and Jerry Jones. Bennie Porter is chairman of the Royal Ambassador Committee.

Twenty-seven boys are enrolled in two chapters of the ambassadors at Baptist Temple. There are approximately 235,000 boys in Royal Ambassadors in the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. Chadwick Keeps Office

Dr. J. Carroll Chadwick, pastor of First Baptist Church in Center, was unanimously re-elected as president of the 1.8 million-member Baptist General Convention of Texas in elections during the Wednesday session of the annual convention. In nominating Chadwick, Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of First Baptist Church, Lubbock, praised the pastor "for his magnanimous spirit, objective judgment and fairness in decisions. Chadwick merits the second term because of his faithful and effective service."

Elected as first vice president of the convention was Dr. Bruce McIver, pastor of Wilshire Baptist Church, Dallas. Dr. Gordon Clinard, pastor of First Baptist Church, San Angelo, was elected from a field of six as second vice president. Re-elected as secretary of the corporation was Dr. J. Earl Mead, of Dallas.

Dr. D. B. South of San Antonio, registration secretary, was elected to begin his 41st term in that position, and Dr. Cecil Goff of Dallas returns to his position as recording secretary.

Solidarity Grows

BIRMINGHAM, England (AP)—There has been a growing sense of solidarity within the Anglican Communion ever since the Toronto conference of 1963, the Archbishop of Canterbury (Dr. Michael Ramsey) told a meeting here. He added: "We are Anglicans and likely to be Anglicans for some time yet. We believe that, as Anglicans, we have within Christendom a job to do for the whole world."

HERB'S HANGOUT

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

An alley off Grover Street . . . headquarters for a "big operation." This is Herb's hangout. And Herb is "the boss!" Here the kids report for their assignments. Here the loot is divided. Here strategy is mapped out for the next foray against a rival gang. An alley off Grover Street . . . and while a proud community hardly lifts an eyebrow, tomorrow's underworld is growing, flourishing. Two blocks away is old Trinity Church with its Sunday School, its Youth Fellowship, its dedication to God. What a difference old Trinity could have made in Herb's life; what character might have been molded among the boys who are now "Herb's gang!" But Herb's rinks and the parents or the other boys are among the millions of Americans who are un-churched.

Out To Break A Mustang

It isn't often one can see the linebackers for the Stanton Buffaloes stacked like this. The Buffs assume a major taste tonight, visiting Denver City for a go with the Mustangs. Game time is 7:30 p.m. Stanton is 1-4-1 for the year and 1-2 in 4-AA play. From the left, the boys pictured here are Don Burns, Steve Hall, Phillip Payne, Allen Springer and Buddy Shanks. Odessa Permian, late to bloom but now boasting tremendous muscle, moves into Big Spring this evening to joust with the resident Steers at 8 o'clock in a 2-AAAA encounter. The Panthers, defending state champions now given only an outside chance to repeat as the district kings, have scored 74 points in their last two league starts while yielding one to the opposition. Big Spring is coming off a fine showing against Abilene Cooper, two-touchdown conqueror of Permian, and could give the Panthers all they want in the way of a fight. Permian will be regarded this as a final preparation for its encounter with San Angelo next week. Big Spring will be seeking to insure itself a 500 season and a respectable position in the conference standings. Gene Mayfield has probably the finest set of backs in the district. Abilene Cooper notwithstanding. The Panthers are two deep at every position behind the line and, in Billy Dale, could have the best fullback in school, boy circles. Permian has also uncovered a talented quarterback in junior William Stewart, who throws the ball left-handed. Stewart art left Midland High baffled last week as he scored on touch-down runs of eight and 38 yards while gaining 117 yards in six carries. He engineered the drives that resulted in four of Permian's six touchdowns against the Bulldogs. Other outstanding backs for the Black Cats include David Byerly, Don Evans, Billy Rogers, Ricky McNurlin, David Routh and Jody Coleman. Against all that, Big Spring will field a wash line that likes to mix it up with the enemy and a set of backs that has turned in more than one surprise this season. Gary (Red) Rogers, one of the big surprises in the district will be in the controls for Big Spring and will be aided and abetted by such operatives as Kirby Horton, Lonnie Clanton, Wayne Kennedy, Jesse Zapata, David Holmes and others. The Longhorns need victories in two of their last three games to insure themselves of a better-than 500 season in league competition. They go to Odessa for a joust with Odessa High next week. The Bovines gained lots of yardage against Cooper last week but managed to score only once.

Ace Fullback

One of the outstanding fullbacks in high school football within the state is Billy Dale (above) of Odessa Permian, who will play against the Big Spring Steers here Friday night. He was second team all-state last year.

Probable starters: BIG SPRING E-Richard Cowley 15 and Robert Jackson 19; T-James Carver 20 and Jerry Ryan 21; G-Harry Davis 22; QB-Gary Turner 10 and Cliff Tolbot 18; C-Kenneth Hamby 19; G-Gary Rogers 10; WR-Wayne Kennedy 13; FB-Lonnie Clanton 18; FB-Kirby Horton 15. ODESSA PERMIAN E-Boger Collins 18 and Johnny Orr 16; T-Dale Dickey 14 and Mike Ott 20; G-Paul Strahan 16 and Willis Vintner 18; C-Harvey Sappena 24; QB-William Stewart 19; HB-Jody V. Coleman 17 and David Routh 17; FB-Billy Dale 31.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

In their last 13 games under coach Darrell Royal, the University of Texas Longhorns are 3-8, which is not exactly knocking them dead. The Steers close out against Baylor, TCU and Texas A&M. Baylor wants to beat someone and TCU will rest a week before it takes on Texas. And, of course, the Aggies will hit the ground running against the Steers. The outcome is exactly on the Forty Acres.

Midland Lee's Stonewall Brigade rolled over the Big Spring B team, 33-0, last week and might have done so under any circumstances but the Shortorns were badly wounded for the encounter. Claud (Snake) Tucker, the Dogies' best pass receiver, was in dry dock with an injured ankle. Fullback Rocky Wooley wasn't able to play because he was committed to make the trip with the A team to Abilene Cooper (due to the injury sustained by R. J. Engliert). Robert Domino, one of the club's halfbacks, was running on a flat wheel and was used only sparingly. Jesse Brown, a big lineman, had a bad ankle and missed the action.

Question: Why should the Orange of San Angelo High School be so angry, anyway? I always thought football was a fun game. Incidentally, they say that Abilene's kicking game, which worked so well against Big Spring, was one of the things that caused the Eagles to cave in against San Angelo after a great first half effort.

The Abilene punters were booting directly to the safety men rather than away from them. There was a time when coaches deemed it wise to put the ball out of bounds on a punt. Now the strategy is to kick the ball high and straight up field in order that the ends can get down to a receiver. In hopes he can be hit so hard that he will fumble. Few good runbacks occur on punts anymore but San Angelo was able to run back a few against Abilene that really hurt.

There is more vocal encouragement lent the resident football teams from the Abilene press box, perhaps, than there is in the Abilene pep squads. The people who frequent those places shouldn't have any trouble sleeping. They play the game as hard as the boys on the field.

The pros have cooled off more than a little on Baylor's Terry Southall, a quarterback who hasn't been able to consistently make the big play this year. Southall has a fine passing arm and will probably command some attention in the football draft but Bob Grebe of Purdue and Florida's Steve Spurrier are two who are apt to go more quickly when the pros start recruiting quarterbacks. The New York Giants, most likely, will grab off one or the other in the first round.

Jack Eisenhart, the one-time Big Spring who is now at Baylor, came in for praise from coach John Bridgers when the Bears lost to Texas A&M. Jack plays the tight end spot. Does it strike you that the TV cameras trained on football teams are offering so many instant replays the viewer isn't sure he's watching the next play or the last one?

McCoy McLemore, a 6-7 eager now trying to win his spurs with the NBA Chicago Bulls, attended Yates High School in Houston and matriculated at Drake University, after attending Moberly, Mo., where he was a junior college All-American. At Drake, he was All-Missouri Valley and was named to the NIT all-star team. Ex-Big Spring Jack Eisenhart has caught 14 passes for gains totaling 131 yards for Baylor this fall but has yet to score a touchdown. Atlanta has the bye.

Pitt And Iowa Facing Lots Of Problems

Now that Michigan State has used 500 shovels to dig Spartan Stadium out of the snow, Pitt and Iowa might like to use them to dig out of the mess they're headed for. Hapless Pitt is headed for Notre Dame, the nation's top-ranked college football team, Saturday while almost-as-hapless Iowa plows into the snow-bound Spartans, the No. 2 team. Before the unbeaten Spartans could go after their eighth victory, though, about a foot of snow had to be cleared from the field. School officials gathered some 500 shovels, then called for volunteers from the student body to use them and help clear the snow away. The students started shoveling Thursday afternoon and worked through the night to get the field ready for the game. Officials estimated that the snow removal job could cost $35,000.

A loss for either the Irish or the Spartans would be more expensive — from a prestige point of view — but their opponents aren't expected to inflict such damage. No matter what Jim Lynch says, Lynch is a rugged Notre Dame linebacker and he was saying Thursday how the Irish weren't taking the Panthers lightly even though the Irish won last year's contest 49-13. "Our players are taking it seriously," Lynch said. "In winning one game and losing six, the Panthers have been outscored on the average of 23-10."

At the same time the Irish 6-0, have scored less than 30 points in only one game while posting three shutouts and limiting their opponents to a total of 25 points. Iowa is in about the same amount of trouble. The Hawkeyes, 2-5, have been blanked three times while the Spartans have outscored their opponents 7-9. Six other teams also will be out to continue their unbeaten streaks.

Mustangs Seek 6th Win Of Campaign

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer. Southern Methodist tries to insure a winning record for the first time in seven years Saturday when the Mustangs, leading the Southwest Conference football race, clash with Texas A&M — all the time keeping an ear cocked on what is happening at Little Rock. It is up there in the Ozarks that the other big game of the day is being played. Arkansas meets lowly Rice, needing to win to stay in the race and make next week's game with Southern Methodist a showdown for the championship. Southern Methodist will be playing the Aggies in the Cotton Bowl before some 55,000 fans and going after its sixth victory of the season, while also remaining the only undefeated team left in the conference campaign. A sixth triumph would insure a winning season because there would be only three left to play. The last time the Methodists won more than they lost was 1959 when the record was 5-4-1. Since then it has been to the depths and stayed just below a winning record in other years. Texas A&M, despite its 3-4-0 loss to Arkansas last week, still is a dangerous hazard to SMU's chances. The Aggies, too, must win or fade from title consideration. And they are angry because Arkansas stopped a three-game winning streak that had appeared likely to land them in the throne room. The Methodists are 7 1/2 points favorites over the Aggies on the basis of a better defense. Arkansas is given a bulge of 18 points over Rice although the Owls have been tremendous on offense while winning only one game out of six. All records seem to indicate a handy Arkansas victory. Even the one mutual opponent points to a Razorback triumph. Arkansas beat Texas 12-7 and Texas beat Rice 14-6 — But Rice's offense may worry Arkansas more than any other it has met. Texas and Baylor, both chanting about what might have been, tangle at Waco. The game means nothing, since both have been eliminated from the race. But it is a traditional game that means plenty to the two schools. Baylor, on a comparative score basis, should win and is favored by one point to do so. The Bears beat Arkansas 7-0 while Texas lost to the Razorbacks. But that was before Baylor entered the alarming slump that has pitched it out of the race in the last two weeks. Texas Christian takes the week off but Texas Tech, the other conference member, hosts Oklahoma State in the only night game. It is the last inter-sectional test of the season, with the conference already behind by three games against the outsiders. Both have beaten Kansas, Oklahoma State by 10-7, Texas Tech by 23-7, and a close one is indicated. Tech is a three-point favorite. Crowds totaling more than 150,000 are anticipated for the four games, with 47,000 seeing Rice-Arkansas, 25,000 watching Texas Tech-Oklahoma State and 30,000 turning out for Texas-Baylor. One out of four last week, not a good enough batting average to qualify for the sub-junior league. Here's how this week: Southern Methodist - Texas A&M — a solid victory for SMU. Rice-Arkansas — Arkansas by two touchdowns. Texas-Baylor — A weak vote for Baylor. Texas Tech-Oklahoma State — Taking Tech in a squeaker.

Ryan Scores 26 As Mavs Win

Big Spring Goliad's ninth victory achieved their most one-sided victory of the season here Thursday night, turning back Sweetwater Junior High by a score of 36-6. The victory was the sixth of the season for the Mavericks, compared to two defeats and a tie and the case of Goliad's traditional clash Nov. 17 with Big Spring Runnels. Sweetwater wasn't able to muster a drive until the final quarter, scoring against Goliad's second and third team players. Coach Jimmy Marcus suited out 40 boys and played them all. Tommy Ryan, a quick 160-pounder, scored 26 points for Big Spring in the rout. In the opening period, Sweetwater tried to punt from deep in its own territory but the ball sailed high in the air in the face of a strong wind, netting the Colts only two yards. Big Spring took over on the enemy 20 and Ryan went over on the third play from 15 yards out. Ryan then added the two extra points on a run. Ryan scored again in the first period on a 20-yard off tackle maneuver to make it 14-0. In the second, Ryan roared 45 yards on a dive play to pay dirt. He added the two extra points on a run. That made it 22-0 at half time. In the third round, Ryan romped 50 yards for still another TD. Jerry Stewart then thundered in for the two extra points. Later in the canto, Sweetwater went into punt formation but the ball was centered over the kicker's head and Big Spring took over on the opposition's 30. Danny Glover bruised in for the touchdown. Goliad reserves played all of the fourth period.

Mavericks Lose 14-8 Decision

STREETWATER — Goliad's eight graders of Big Spring took their lumps in football here again Thursday evening, 14-8, but the Maverick coaches said their boys showed to good advantage and probably would have won, with a break or two. Walter Campbell broke for 45 yards and Goliad's only score of the second play the Mavericks had the ball in the opening quarter. Campbell then added the two extra points on a pass from Scott McLaughlin. Sweetwater scored with 30 seconds left in the first half and added the two points to pull into an 8-8 deadlock at the intermission. Big Spring failed to get a kick away in the fourth and had to run the ball. Sweetwater took over on downs at the 20 and drove on in for a touchdown.

Robert Lee, Forsan Meet In Homecoming Skirmish

FORSAN — Robert Lee comes to town tonight to engage Forsan in a District 4-B football game that will highlight homecoming ceremonies for ex-students of the local school. A Homecoming Queen will be crowned during half-time rites. Candidates for the honor are freshman Judy Clanton, sophomore Karen Moore, junior Deryl Dunagan and senior Wanda Albertson. Those attending the ceremonies can eat turkey and dressing, with all the trimmings, from 5:30 until 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria. Plates will be $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12. Robert Lee is 3-1 in district and 4-2-1 over-all. Forsan is 2-2 within the league and 5-2-1 over-all. The visitors average 164 pounds per man in the line and 159 in the backfield. Forsan 159 in the forward wall and 155 in the backfield. Robert Lee has outscored the opposition this season, 126 points to 32. Forsan has been outscored by the common foe, 73-72. Kickoff time is 7:30 p.m. Probable starters: FORSAN E-Ray McKinley 12 and Steve Park 13; T-Gaylord Reed 19 and Tommy Kirkpatrick 17; G-Randy Banks 16 and Tommy Ordner 14; C-Freddy Will 15; QB-Carson McKinley 10; HB-Larry Collier 14 and Johnny Dallas 16; FB-Jack Ellis 27. ROBERT LEE E-Gordon Paddock 15 and Randy Hall 12; T-Craig Thomson 16 and Glenn Roach 11; G-Carl Bloodworth 15 and Tooter Fields 16; C-Bob Leland 17; QB-Gary Sawyer 18; HB-Buddy Vashburg 13 and Gary Parker 14; FB-Ray Blair 10.

Dallas, Cards Conceded Edge

NEW YORK (AP) — Francis Tarkenton and his Minnesota scramblers will take a shot at the Green Bay Packers Sunday and the Vikings' quarterback, who seems to make up plays as he goes along, probably will give Vinnie Lombardi a few gray hairs. The Vikings' unorthodox style usually troubles the Packers, who scorn the hipper dipper for the old bread and butter style. However, the Packers hold a 9-1 edge over Minnesota in their club series. St. Louis, Dallas and Cleveland appear to have clear sailing ahead in the NFL and that San Diego-Kansas City game should help clear up the confusion in the AFL's West. The picks for this Sunday's pro games: NFL Cleveland 31, Pittsburgh 14. Browns have won four straight and Bill Austin's Steelers have dropped five in a row, including 41-10 drubbing by Cleveland Oct. 8. Dallas 25, Philadelphia 13. Wolves snapping at Eagles despite 4-4 record. Cowboys lead league in scoring and are second in defense with Mel Renfro back at safety. Los Angeles 23, San Francisco 17. This will be rugged. The 49ers put Bill Munson out for the season in this game last year. Rams won first meeting 34-3 on four interceptions and fumble but have lost three straight. Green Bay 27, Minnesota 17. Tarkenton will scramble, but the Packers will pin him down. With a bye next week, Green Bay can go all out and that means trouble. Baltimore 27, Washington 20. Colts never take Skins lightly, not with that neighborhood feud. Baltimore has won last six since 1959 and still hopes to catch Green Bay in the big Dec. 10 game. St. Louis 24, New York 13. For some strange reason Giants always give Cards fits. They even did it this year before losing Oct. 9 game 24-19. Unless Cards are looking ahead too far they should have no trouble with battered Giants, even after their one-week holiday. Atlanta has the bye.

Rice Owlets Lose Again

By The Associated Press. Quarterback Barney Harris of Texas A&M and tailback Bill Allison of Arkansas were virtual one-man scoring teams as the Aggie frosh and the Shoats won their second games in Southwest Conference freshman football Thursday night. Harris scored the first touchdown on a 13-yard run and then threw scoring passes of 8, 55 and 24 yards as A&M defeated Rice 21-3. It was winless Rice's fourth loss. Allison scored three times on short runs as Arkansas beat North Texas State 40-6. The Shoats, in front 33-0 before North Texas scored, rushed for 350 yards while holding the Hoosiers to a minus 39. Mack Moseley kicked four extra points and a 25-yard field goal for Texas A&M. Rice's only points came on Macon Hughes' 27-yard field goal. Harris completed nine of 15 passes for 201 of A&M's 214 yards passing.

DEAR ABBY
The Untidy Husband

DEAR ABBY: My problem is my husband. He is handsome and I love him, but he always looks like a bum. Dirty fingernails, dusty shoes, and he needs a haircut most of the time.

He'd never get a new suit if I didn't practically drag him to a clothing store. Nagging him makes me feel just terrible. What should I do?

LOVES HIM
DEAR LOVES: Nag him. He needs it. And don't feel "terrible." But keep your values in order. The woods are full of clean, fingernailed, well-groomed and unloveable heels.

DEAR ABBY: My brothers and sisters and I are all married. We love our mother very much. Our father is dead. Mother is hard of hearing so all of us went together and bought her a hearing aid. With it she hears fine, and it's a pleasure to be around her, but the trouble is she is either too proud or too contrary to wear it. She doesn't want people to know.

When we go to visit her we come away exhausted with sore throats from hollering, and nerves on edge, so naturally none of us visits her as often as we should. She butts into conversations, and gives answers to entirely different questions from the ones you are talking about. It's just awful, Abby. What should we do? A SON

DEAR SON: What YOU suffer is a Sunday school picnic compared to what your hard-of-hearing mother must be suffering. Don't assume that she is "too proud" or "contrary" to wear her hearing aid. Perhaps it's not in good working order.

Or it could be uncomfortable, or too conspicuous for her tastes. Investigate the newest in hearing aids, and be sure your mother has the best. It will open up a whole bright new world for her. And for you, too.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been living in a lovely little rented house for many years. Our lease expired and the house has been sold so we must move. When we moved in there were no flowers or plants here, but we put in 22 peony bushes and some other lovely plants and flowers. Since we did this at our own expense, can we take the plants and other flowers we can dig up with us?

LOVES FLOWERS
DEAR LOVES: Better consult your lawyer. But I would guess that unless you made special provisions in your lease to remove the plants, anything affixed to the soil becomes a part of the real estate. Dig? Okay, so no digging, please.

Rex Harrison Gets Along With Beasts

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

Harrison said the most difficult time came when he played scenes inside his house with 300 animals, many of them untethered.

Complicating the scene was a song which Harrison had to deliver in the house with 300 animals that declined to react on cue. In "Dr. Dolittle" as in "MFL," the actor performs his songs "live." This is in contrast to the usual procedure for film musicals, in which the numbers are recorded first and then lyrics are mouthed by the performer to the playback soundtrack.

Rex Harrison has exchanged phonetics for the company of animals in "Dr. Dolittle," his first Hollywood film since his Oscar-winning "My Fair Lady." Like the latter, the new film is an expensive — $14 million — musical in which the British actor talk-sings his numbers.

"DR. DOLITTLE"
"MFL" put Harrison through a succession of drawing rooms in which he was surrounded by Cecil Beaton finery. "Dr. Dolittle" finds him as the hero of the Hugh Lofting children's tales, a man who talks to animals.

Most actors place animals only slightly below children on the list of fellow players they detest working with. But Harrison views the four-legged and feathered performers with his usual aplomb.

"Really, I get along quite well with all the beasts," he commented one steaming day at the 20th Century-Fox ranch in Malibu Canyon. Stripped to the waist, the actor was coolly enjoying a cigar after his lunch.

Veteran Trapeze Artist Injured

HOUSTON (AP) — Jimmy Troy, 46, of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, was injured Thursday night when the veteran trapeze artist plunged 30 feet to the concrete floor of Sam Houston Coliseum while performing in the Arabia Temple Shrine Circus.

He was listed in fair condition at a hospital with bruises and a badly cut left ankle.

Texas Chill Retreating

By The Associated Press

Much of the chill felt the past two days retreated from Texas today.

Only two points reported early morning temperatures as low as freezing, both in the Panhandle — Dalhart with 27 degrees and Amarillo with 30.

Readings at other points were mostly in the 40s and 50s, and skies were generally clear to partly cloudy.

Forecasters looked for a little cooling again tonight in the northeast part of the state. A warming trend over the southern half was expected to continue through Saturday.

Odessa College Gives Shaw Play

George Bernard Shaw's biting satire will romp across the Odessa College auditorium stage when the fine arts division presents "Androcles and the Lion" for Permian Basin audiences at 8:15 p.m. today and Saturday.

The play is based on the old Roman legend about the man who removes a thorn from a lion's foot. When next the two meet it is in an arena where a cheering crowd awaits blood.

Admission for this first production of the current season is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students.

Kicky Little Shift

Here's a skimpy little shift that descends to the flirty little pleats. The dress so simple and figure flattering, you'll be smart to latch on to it quickly. Imported Swiss rayon Keraflex finish, so wonderful because it is crease resistant. Sizes 8-18.
