Venice Covered With Flood Waters

Gondolas are sunk near San Marco Square in Venice, Italy, with the rest of the city looking like a floating island after days of torrential rains hit northern Italy this week- end. Officials fear the death toll from the worst flooding in nearly a thousand years will reach 1,000 in sections of northern Italy. (AP Wirephoto by cable from London)

Viet Cong Eludes U.S. Infantrymen

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) - A large Viet Cong force eluded pursuing U.S. infantrymen today, slipping away through the dense jungle of Tay Ninh Province near the Cambodian border after inflicting heavy casualties on some U.S. units over the weekend in one of the fiercest fights of the war. About 200 South Vietnamese militia, aided by accurate artillery support, beat off an unusual daylight attack by 400 to 500 Communists on a government post 12 miles southeast of Quang Ngai, on the central coast. A South Vietnamese spokesman said the enemy left 30 bodies on the battlefield, while only two militiamen were wounded.

Some 50 miles northwest of Saigon where about 10,000 American infantrymen were seeking to box in a Viet Cong regiment of 2,000 men. Reports from the scene said there had been only isolated sniper fire during the day. The spokesman said 319 enemy bodies have been counted in the area where hard fighting lasted for four days through Sunday night. Military analysts in Saigon said the stiff enemy resistance apparently developed because the Communists felt the U.S. probes were getting too close to the guerrillas' "central office for South Viet Nam," thought to be somewhere near the Cambodian border. The American sweep of the enemy stronghold began Oct. 15, but pitched fighting did not develop until Thursday. Total U.S. casualties have been described as light but some units were hit hard in the four-day engagement.

Death Toll Passes 300

FLORENCE, Italy (AP) - Helped by clearing weather and driven by fear of epidemic, a massive Italian-American rescue force worked today to pull a third of Italy from the chaos and misery of the nation's worst flood disaster. More than 150 bodies were reported recovered and the estimated death toll went to 300. It was feared that the final count would be far greater. Three days after the first floods and landslides struck in central and northeast Italy, rescue teams still had not reached all of the hundreds of stricken and isolated communities. American military bases in the country sent men and machines to join Italian soldiers, police and civilian volunteers in a rescue force of 250,000. Throughout the stricken area, from south of Florence to north of Venice, water contamination and hundreds of thousands of drowned livestock increased the danger of epidemics.

PILOT RESCUED

One U.S. Air Force pilot was rescued Sunday after Communist gunners knocked down his F100 Super Sabre jet flying support for ground troops near Tay Ninh City. Seven men aboard a U.S. Army helicopter were killed and four others injured Sunday when the craft lost power taking off from the Tay Ninh battle area and crashed. Another U.S. helicopter, returning from a war mission, crashed at Saigon's air base, killing the co-pilot and injuring the pilot. The American command announced that two operations are under way in Phay Yen Province about 230 miles northeast of Saigon in the vicinity of Tuy Hoa. American casualties were termed light so far in both.

GERONIMO

In Operation Geronimo, a company of the 1st Brigade of the 101st Airborne Division reported killing seven North Vietnamese soldiers in a 30-minute fire fight before dawn, raising the total enemy killed in the eight day operation to 21.

The U.S. 4th Infantry Division reported killing 30 Communists in Operation Adams, which was launched October 26. It is the first independent operation the division has begun since it arrived in South Viet Nam two months ago.

American pilots flew 127 missions through moderate to heavy ground fire in North Viet Nam Sunday, U.S. headquarters said. The pilots claimed destruction of one Communist patrol boat, 19 barges, seven bridges, six buildings, two aircraft sites and 33 trucks, and other strikes against petroleum dumps.

PATROL BOAT HIT - The patrol boat was hit after it fired on U.S. planes making an identification pass, the U.S. command said.

A B52 raid was announced in Kontum Province, the 10th such bombing mission in the area in nine days against suspected base camps and troop concentrations. A second B52 strike was carried out in Phuoc Long Province, 95 miles north of Saigon.

Demos Trying To Spur Texans To Cast Votes

President Blasts 'White Backlash'

WASHINGTON (AP) - The campaign winds up today, sparked by a blast from President Johnson at "white backlash" voting. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon also added some homestretch steam, counter-punching at the President on the Viet Nam issue. "Vote here" signs will be out across the land Tuesday, and an estimated 59 million Americans - a record for a nonpresidential election - are expected to answer the call. An Associated Press survey completed five days before the voting indicates the voters are likely to give the Republicans five or six additional governorships, perhaps an the race against his Republican challenger, Ronald Reagan. But Brown said "they told Harry Truman that back in '48. I will win." He said the backlash is a strong issue and charged Reagan is guilty of "a subtle appeal to the white backlash." 'ROCKY BATTLES' New York: A close one between Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and Democrat Frank D. O'Connor. The New York Daily News, winding up its straw poll, says O'Connor will win with a 2.6 per cent edge. Minnesota: In Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's home state, it's nip and tuck between Democratic Gov. Karl F. Rolvaag and Republican Harold Levander. Georgia: Lester G. Maddox, self-styled "segregationist for all time," appears to have a narrow lead over Republican Howard H. Callaway. Write-ins for former Democratic Gov. Ellis Arnall possibly could throw the election into the Georgia Legislature.

Election At Glance

By The Associated Press Here are some facts on Tuesday's elections: At stake: 35 governorships, 35 Senate seats, 435 House seats, thousands of lesser state and local offices. Governorships: 20 at stake now held by Democrats, 15 by Republicans. Republicans expected to gain about five. Holdovers, 13 Democrats, two Republicans. Senate seats: 20 at stake now held by Democrats, 15 by Republicans. Little net swing expected. Holdovers, 47 Democrats, 18 Republicans. Needed for majority, 51. House seats: 294 now held by Democrats, 139 by Republicans, two vacancies. Republicans expected to gain about 25-30. No holdovers. Needed for majority, 218. Tradition: "Out" party usually makes congressional gains in off-year elections. Turnout: Between 56 million and 59 million voters expected, which would break off-year record of 53.5 million. Weather: Mixed, including fair in East, cold and storm westward to central and northern Rockies, somewhat cloudy in Southwest and West.

LBJ Revisits Texas School

COTULLA, Tex. (AP) - President Johnson revisited today the small Mexican-American school here where he taught 38 years ago. It gave him a chance, the day before election, to point with pride to administration education programs. In prepared remarks laced with reminiscences, Johnson listed "the skill and wisdom of our people" as the country's greatest natural resource. "That is why last year your national government pledged billions of new dollars to help improve your school and schools all over America," he said.

POINTS WITH PRIDE The President has been busy these past few days pointing with pride to everything from the state of the economy - which seems to please him - to a "stabilized" military situation in Viet Nam.

Later in the day, he will stop off at Brooke Army Medical Center in San Antonio for routine tests in advance of the surgery he hopes will be performed on his throat and abdomen later this week. When Johnson taught in Cotulla, he was a student himself - earning money to complete his college education. "In those days," he said, "neither America nor her schools shared any abundance. We had only five teachers. We had no lunch facilities. No school buses. Very little money for educating the young people of this community."

He said he worked as teacher, principal, playground supervisor, baseball and debate coach, song leader and, "in my spare time assistant janitor." The school - the Welhausen School - still looks much the same as in 1928, he recalled, "but things are happening: new reading programs; child nutrition and health programs; after-school education centers - all made possible by new federal funds."

additional Senate seat and fewer than 30 additional House seats. The "out" party usually makes congressional gains in off-year elections.

POISONS PUBLIC At a Texas news conference Sunday, Johnson zeroed in on the backlash - the adverse reaction of some whites to violence in some Negro demonstrations and the feeling of some whites that Negroes are pushing too hard for equal rights.

The President declared "racism, whether it comes packaged in the Nazi's brown shirt or a three-button suit, destroys the moral fiber of a nation. It poisons public life." He said: "I can think of nothing more dangerous, more divisive, or more self-destructive than the effort to prey on what is called white backlash. It is dangerous because it threatens to vest power in the hands of second-rate men whose only qualification is their ability to pander on other men's fears."

LBJ 'TIRED MAN' Johnson was on the receiving end of retort from Nixon. The 1960 GOP presidential standard-bearer, replying to Johnson's criticism of him last Friday for questioning the Manila conference's approach to any future troop withdrawal from South Viet Nam, said the President was "a tired man engaging in verbal abuse."

Here's a look at some of the key races and the AP survey indications on them as the politicians sounded the last hurrahs of the long and often listless campaign. GOVERNORSHIPS California: Gov. Edmund G. Brown agreed Sunday he is trailing in public opinion polls in

POLLS OPEN 8 A.M. Voting Judges Getting Ready

Precinct judges were picking up their ballot boxes, ballots and election supplies today for Tuesday's general election. At noon about half of the precinct boxes had been delivered to the judges of the precincts by Mrs. Pauline Petty, Howard County Court Clerk. Other judges were expected to get their boxes and supplies during the afternoon. The voting begins in all 20 of the voting places at 8 a.m. Tuesday. Polls close at 7 p.m. Chief problem this year is the 16 proposed amendments to the state constitution which are expected to prove a chore in tabulation of the votes. Mrs. Petty has asked that all precinct judges report the results of the election to her office as quickly as the ballots have been counted. From the number of absentee votes cast, there is a possibility of a fairly good vote. The intensive campaign waged for the post of United States Senator has been a contributing factor to augmented interest. Last week saw a little stir of local concern in the campaign activities of Walker Bailey, incumbent Democratic County School superintendent, and his Republican opponent, Mrs. Judith Spencer. The County Republican organization has been waging an active campaign in behalf of its two candidates for seats on the Howard County Commissioners Court and Mrs. Spencer. Approximately 11,000 votes have been printed for use in the election. A bundle of ballots, sent back to the county by mail from residents who are not in the county, arrived this morning. Many of these are ballots requested by men in the military service stationed abroad.

Hottest Race Pits Tower Against Carr

By The Associated Press Democrats tried to spur voters to the polls in last-minute campaigning today while Republicans hoped for a small turnout in Tuesday's election, in which the hottest contest pits two conservatives for a U.S. Senate seat.

The bigger the vote, the better are chances of state Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr, a Democrat who wants to squelch Republican Sen. John Tower's bid for a second six-year term.

The Texas Election Bureau estimates "a little less than two million voters" out of 3.1 eligible in the state. Only 1.25 million turned out for the May Democratic primary. There were no statewide Republican contests.

PLEDGE BROKEN? Tower, charging that Carr violated a campaign pledge signed by both "not to distort the facts or to deceive the people about each other," planned to spend today in Dallas with his windup a statewide telecast tonight.

Carr campaigned in the Lower Rio Grande and San Antonio. Tower said Sunday Carr quoted out of context the senator's reply to a question asked on a network television program Jan. 28, 1962, in which Tower was asked "if there were a bill before Congress now to abolish the Social Security system, would you vote for it?"

SMEAR LETTER Tower said he replied "I think that I would only provided there was a promise of adequate and local measures to provide for the care of the indigent."

The senator said Carr has been quoting only the "I think I would" portion of the answer in Carr campaign literature. "This smear letter on Carr campaign stationery attempts to frighten the older Texans who support me by trying to show that I am somehow opposed to Social Security," Tower said.

Carr said he was pleased by reports indicating a heavy vote in the U.S. Senate race and said the results of the latest Texas Poll, released Sunday, confirms "that we have had and do have a solid lead over the GOP opponent."

PACKS HIS OWN CHUTE Boy Plunges To Death While Father Watches

MANASSAS, Va. (AP) - Dana Rutledge, 11, spent half his young life around skydivers. He knew what it was all about. So skilled and trustworthy he was that for the last 300 of 1,000 jumps his father has made, he was allowed to pack the chute. The father, Carl A. Rutledge, is a classifier at the U.S. Patent Office in nearby Washington and lives in Vienna, Va. He has been jumping for five years and is president of "The Targeteers," a skydiving club. "SMART AS WHIP" None of the 160 or so members of the club loves skydiving more than Dana did. He was, said Rutledge, "very athletic and smart as a whip and quick in his response to things." Yet, when Dana begged to be allowed to jump, Rutledge thought a long time. Finally, because of Dana's "over-all general knowledge" of skydiving, Rutledge gave in. Dana made his first jump last summer. "Stupidly," he made his ninth and last. His chute failed to open properly and he fell to his death in a field on the family's farm near here.

ONE IN MILLION On the ground, Rutledge saw it happen. He was in charge of the jump. The chances of a fatality in skydiving "are one in a million - just astronomical," Rutledge said. But it can happen and Rutledge knew it. He plans to keep on jumping.

Escape Try Fatal

Steve Lloyd Harrod, 22, Frederick, Okla., lies dead in the foreground after falling five stories in an attempt to escape from the Oklahoma County jail in Oklahoma City. He was using strips of bedsheets which broke after he climbed out of an eighth floor window. Another prisoner, Kirby Bickerstaff, 37, Oklahoma City, suffered a sprained ankle when he slipped and fell ahead of Harrod. He was handcuffed a short time later. A third prisoner remained inside the jail. (AP WIREPHOTO)

CARR LEADING The poll showed Carr with 51 per cent of the vote with Tower 40 per cent and 8 per cent undecided.

Tower interpreted the poll to show a statewide trend in his favor, since he gained 7 points since the previous survey.

Gov. John Connally is assured of re-election to a third term, so much so that he campaigned during the weekend in Nevada for Gov. Grant Sawyer.

Texas liberals, always a minority in the Democratic party but considered a decisive factor in a close election such as the Tower-Carr battle, have the choice of voting for conservative Carr or going fishing. Some have said they will vote for Tower to keep intact the current influence wielded by Democratic Sen. Ralph Yarborough, a liberal. A Carr victory would dilute Yarborough's power.

Gunman Robs Elks Lodge

GUYMON, Okla. (AP) - A lone gunman took about $11,000 early today from the manager of the Elks Lodge in this Oklahoma Panhandle town, then fled after severely beating the manager.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol said the gunman, about 25 to 30 years old, first took about $4,000 from the home of Leo W. Wait, the lodge manager.

Wait then was forced to take the gunman to the lodge where another $6,000 to $7,000 was taken.

Climbing Back

Using handrails to steady himself, Army Staff Sgt. Wayne A. Marge climbs stairs at Walter Reed Army Hospital in Washington. The 23-year-old Viet Nam veteran lost his right leg below the knee and half his left foot to a Viet Cong mine last March. He has been at Walter Reed since, for two operations, therapy and fittings for his artificial limbs. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Amputee Fights Two Tough Wars

WASHINGTON (AP) — Staff Sgt. Wayne A. Marge, 23, amputee from Viet Nam, looked at it this way:

"If you want to, you can lie round and feel sorry for yourself. But then you don't get up off your back. You've got to accept it for what it is."

"The way I look at it, things will always get better — eventually. It may take a little time. This is what kills me — time." Marge, in blue hospital pajamas, crutches by his side, sat talking at Walter Reed Army Hospital. The pinned-up trousers on his right leg showed he had lost that leg below the knee. A shiny black high top shoe on his left foot disguised the fact that half that foot was gone.

WANTS TO STAY

"There were two things I was going to insist on when I came here," he said. "I was going to stay in the Army, and they were not going to take the rest of my foot."

"Well, I got to keep the rest of my foot. And I'm hoping for the other."

Marge figures that maybe it was a pretty good idea for a story and pictures about the rehabilitation of Viet Nam wounded at Walter Reed.

'GET FIXED UP'

"People read about guys getting wounded and all that, and maybe they don't realize we come back and get fixed up," he said.

Marge went to Viet Nam in December, 1965, and was a squad leader with the 1st Infantry at Phuoc Vinh north of Saigon when he stepped on a Viet Cong mine.

He didn't remember exact dates and times for other events in his life, but he did that one.

"It was last March 11, about 15½ minutes after 4, I think," he said. "I was out booby-trapping an area and had just called in."

Napoleon Solo Plays It Cool

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The aplomb with which Robert Vaughn plays Napoleon Solo on "The Man From U.N.C.L.E." is not entirely due to the actor's craft. He is a cool one off the screen as well.

You get the impression from the meticulously groomed Vaughn that he could handle any situation, whether it's the latest peridy of THURSH or the taunts of hecklers who attack his real-life opposition to the Viet Nam war. He is articulate and well-read, without the pretentiousness of actors who are Johnny-come-latelies to matters of the intellect.

Vaughn has all the answers on matters concerning his career. Does he chafe under servitude to a television series?

'NOT AT ALL'

"Not at all," he replied airily. David (McCallum, his sidekick Illya) and I were discussing our lot last Friday as we watched the show on television. We both agreed that we were lucky to have the show.

"Before 'U.N.C.L.E.' we were both moderately well-known actors. The series not only made us prominent but gave us a bargaining power. The extent of that bargaining power was demonstrated when I did a feature, 'The Venetian Affair,' last summer. In 10 weeks I earned as much as I earn in 10 months in television."

FIVE YEARS

Vaughn said both he and McCallum expect to remain in the series five years, which he now figures to be his life expectancy. — "If a series can go into its third season with good ratings, as we are doing, it's a pretty safe bet it can last two more." His contract ends after five years, and then he would try his luck as a star of features.

But what about the long-time argument that movie audiences won't pay to see heroes they have watched for long seasons on television? Vaughn has an answer for that one, too. "Yes, it's true that only three have made it—James Garner, Steve McQueen and Dick Van Dyke, though Van Dyke is not proven yet. I feel that I might have a good chance because I don't play a definite occupation in the series. If I were a lawyer or a doctor or a cowboy, I might become more firmly entrenched in the public mind as a certain character."

Poppy Sale Is Real Success

The Veterans Day Poppy sale was an outstanding success, reports indicated today.

Mrs. Tim Jones, American Legion Auxiliary president, said that tabulations indicated $700 had been realized from the sale organized by Mrs. Foy Dunlap, chairman. Mrs. Jones expressed appreciation to everyone who helped sell the poppies and to everyone who bought them.

Polish Blonde Smuggle Fails

DOVER, England (AP) — Ronald Gray, a Californian living in Britain, drove a small truck off the channel ferry at Dover Saturday night and told the customs men: "All I have to declare are 200 cigarettes and a bottle of perfume."

The customs men searched the truck.

"I put my hand under a heap of clothing and felt something warm," one official reported. Out came Barbara Gryma, 22, a Polish blonde. She tearfully pleaded to be allowed to stay in Britain.

After questioning at the Dover police station, Gray, 37, was allowed to go. The girl was put on a ferry back to France since she had no visa. An immigration officer said he understood she was returning to Poland, and the home office said no question of political asylum had been involved.

Gray reportedly runs a laundry in the Midlands. His birthplace in California was not known.

Ex-Governor Close To Death

PITTSBURGH (AP) — David L. Lawrence, 77, former governor of Pennsylvania and a power in national Democratic politics, moved ever closer today to death.

TEXAS IS ON THE MOVE!

In virtually every field of endeavor, our state has made dramatic progress the past four years under the strong leadership of Governor John Connally. His administration's bold, yet sensible programs have helped provide new opportunity and a better way of life for all our people.

IMPROVED EDUCATION—Since 1963, state investment in higher education has doubled, and faculty salaries have increased 40%. State support of local public schools have increased 44% in four years, including a $100 million teacher pay raise enacted in 1965. Technical and vocational training programs have been vastly increased; junior college enrollment doubled during the current bi-ennium. Special literacy programs for migrant workers and their children have been expanded. A college student loan fund of $85 million has been established. And a special Governor's Committee on Public Education currently is studying all facets of elementary and secondary education.

WATER RESOURCES DEVELOPMENT—Long range planning and development have been given top priority. $100 million in bonds have been issued for development of needed storage facilities; authorization has been granted to expand this program to $200 million for the next two years.

CONCERN FOR THE AGED AND NEEDY—Since 1963, assistance to our elderly has been increased 27%. The Governor's Committee on Aging is continually working for the benefit of our senior citizens.

OUTDOOR RECREATION—More than $2 million has been invested in improving ten of our most attractive state parks during the past two years to provide additional recreational facilities.

INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION—A record 855 new industrial plants have been established the past three years, moving Texas into second place in the nation in industrial expansion. Last year, more than 23,000 new jobs were created in manufacturing alone—the best year ever for the Texas labor force.

INCREASED TOURISM—More than 17 million tourists visited Texas last year, adding more than $900 million to the state's economy, and creating 140,000 new jobs. The state's tourist advertising program has been sharply expanded.

MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION—New emphasis on prevention of mental illness and mental retardation has been achieved through establishment of new community centers, replacing the former practice of "warehousing" patients. Investment for research into causes of mental disorders has doubled the past four years.

BETTER HIGHWAY TRANSPORTATION—Texas has more farm-to-market roads than any other state—more than 35,134 miles. We lead the nation in construction of interstate highways, at a cost 40% below the nation's average.

COMBAT AIR AND WATER POLLUTION—New legislation for public health. "The Clear Air Act of Texas," provides state action to combat air pollution. Similar vigorous action has been initiated to control pollution of Texas streams, bays, and estuaries.

NEW CULTURAL GROWTH—The Fine Arts Commission was established in 1965 to nurture the cultural enrichment of Texans. The state's cultural heritage will be preserved and portrayed in the state's pavilion at HemisFair '68 in San Antonio.

BUSINESSLIKE ADMINISTRATION—With unprecedented teamwork, our state government has operated responsibly and efficiently. The Legislature has finished its work on time in each session. Following a pay-as-you-go policy, we have maintained a healthy surplus in the general revenue fund without curtailing essential services.

HEALTHY, GROWING ECONOMY—Business activity rose 11% last year, as Texas continues one of the brightest growth areas. Employment and income are at an all-time high, unemployment at an all-time low. Despite increased responsibilities, our state government costs only $168.78 a year per citizen, fourth lowest in the nation. No broad-based tax has been enacted the past four years. Texas still has no personal income or payroll tax, no corporate income tax, and is one of few remaining states with a limited sales tax of 2%.

Harriman Claims Kremlin Wants Peace In Viet Nam

LONDON (AP) — President Johnson's roving envoy, W. Averell Harriman, said today he is convinced the Soviet Union wants peace in Viet Nam and only Peking "sees an advantage in continuing the war."

Speaking at a news conference at the U.S. Embassy after a world trip explaining to leaders of other nations the purposes and results of the Manila conference, Harriman said he personally is more optimistic for peace—"not by anything Hanoi has said but by the sheer massive weight of world opinion piling up for peace."

"MORE HAWKISH"
He said the North Vietnamese Communists would be disappointed if they expected Tuesday's U.S. elections to show a serious split among the American people on the war issue. If anything, he predicted, these elections would produce a "more hawkish" trend.

ENCOURAGED
Harriman said President Johnson "would have to prove himself as tough as President Harry S. Truman did against pressures on him to expand the Korean War."

Harriman, who will see Prime Minister Harold Wilson and Foreign Secretary George Brown on Tuesday, said he was encouraged by increasing understanding of America's Viet Nam aims among Asian and European leaders he saw. He has been in Indonesia, India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Iran, Italy, France and West Germany on this trip.

"I found them all extremely interested in the Viet Nam situation, even though they're not participating actively," he said, "and the European leaders with whom I talked are assured that our North Atlantic Treaty Organization interest is in no way diminished by our actions in the Far East."

PEACE PROSPECTS
Harriman said he was hopeful the forthcoming visit of Brown to Moscow might aid Viet Nam peace prospects.

A former ambassador to Moscow and long-time student of Soviet affairs, Harriman said he believed the Russians and East Europeans want Viet Nam peace.

"Even though the Russians have not admitted it publicly, I'm satisfied they want peace. Russia desires that these hostilities stop because they see no advantage in prolonging them. But Peking does see gain in continuing the war," he said.

Lois Heads For Europe

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Lois, the season's 12th tropical storm, was some 1,700 miles away from Miami today, and, unlike all her predecessors this year, is heading east—away from the U.S. mainland.

The main reason she is on a course toward Europe is because Lois developed three weeks before the end of the five-month tropical storm season. If she lumbers toward the colder Atlantic, Lois is expected to lose her punch and status in the chilly air.

'Alice' Provides Happy Time

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — They crossed "Alice in Wonderland" with "The Wizard of Oz" and then borrowed unblushingly from other enchanted sources. The result Sunday night was an NBC special called "Alice Through the Looking Glass."

But that result, in spite of a misleading title that will infuriate Lewis Carroll lovers, was a gay, imaginative 90 minutes of thoroughly enjoyable fantasy. Albert Simmons, credited with adapting the Victoria classic, obviously felt no restraints. His contemporary Alice — young Judi Rolin—was a perfect composite of Carroll's Alice and Frank Baum's Dorothy — went off on her dream adventures after being banished from a very modern cocktail party.

LOTS OF STARS
There were a lot of star names around and a number of particularly handsome production numbers.

It was a very happy time for children and adults alike. But that the silly laugh track and the ghostly sound of applause from an unseen audience were unnecessary and actively annoying.

Moorehead were properly overwhelming as the Red King and Queen. Nanette Fabray clowned ferociously as the White Queen. Jimmy Durante was — well, Jimmy Durante playing Humphrey Dumpty.

LESS THAN SUCCESS

CBS' first National Geographic Society special of the season on Saturday, "Dr. Leakey and the Dawn of Man" undertook to show the discovery by a Kenya-based husband and wife team of anthropologists, Louis and Mary Leakey, of preliminary evidence that the cradle of man was Africa rather than Asia as previous lines.

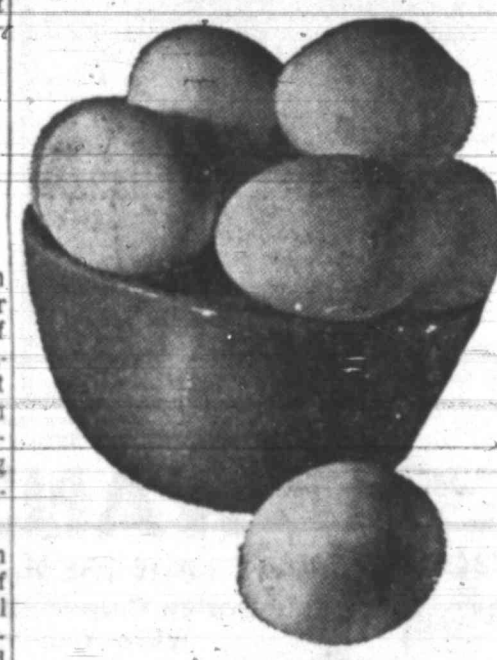

matic story of a 30-year search for evidence. But as an hour television program, it was considerably less than a success. In the course of the 60 minutes there was available about only 15 minutes of meaningful visual material. The rest was filler.

"MR. TERRIFIC"

A pretty California girl was eventually chosen as "Miss Teenage America" in a 90 minute CBS show Saturday night. It seemed to be much longer than that. The young contestants were all right, but those adult celebrities seemed to be tripping over each other's lines.

Beautification Winners Named At Webb AFB

Webb AFB's beautification contest drew to a close for this year with the selection of the October winner. The winning buildings, both in the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron area, were the Airborne Electronics Communication building and the 331st Operations building.

The contest began early in October under the direction of Capt. Jimmy G. Dishner, Civil Engineering; 1st Lt. H. A. Jordan, DCO administration; 2nd Lt. Gary L. Weisbar, Hospital; and T. Sgt. Eli A. Guin, 331st FIS. The contest was sponsored by the Base Conservation and Management of Natural Resources Committee.

Plans for next year's contest call for a much earlier start. According to Sergeant Guin, the contest will get under way just as soon as the growing season begins.

Pump Recipient Not Doing Well

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Charles Victorien Maboge, 38, of Rochefort, Belgium, the fifth known artificial heart pump recipient, was reported not doing well today after heart failure early Saturday.

A surgical team led by Dr. Michael DeBakey replaced three of Maboge's diseased heart valves with plastic valves Oct. 28 and implanted the pump, a left ventricular bypass, to share the workload of Maboge's heart as it healed.

Of four previous patients to get the pumps, only one, Esperanza del Valle Vasquez, 37, of Mexico City, has survived.

AFTER LEADERS KILLED

Private Commands Infantry Company

WAR ZONE C, South Viet Nam (AP) — The young private fell to the jungle floor clutching his radio for a shield as he saw Communist bullets kill his battalion commander, his company commander and the nearest platoon leader.

Then the bullets began tattooing death among the squads of the 25th Division infantry company that had run into a wall of enemy fire in the big battle in Tay Ninh Province forward or turn back.

Snipers started picking off the platoon sergeants, the squad leaders and the radiomen.

With the leaders dead, dying or wounded, the situation for C Company, 2nd Battalion of the 27th Wolfhounds was critical.

"PLEASE COME IN" Pfc. William H. Wallace's radio crackled to life and a rasping voice asked, "Zulu Six, please come in, please come in."

The call was from another battalion commander trying to determine what had happened. Zulu Six was the call sign of the company commander, but he was dead.

Wallace, crouching near a tree, reported this and the other bad news.

"Then you are Zulu Six," the voice crackled back. "Now do this."

For the next 22 hours, through a long, dangerous night and a day of fighting and waiting, Wallace, 23, of Williston Park, Long Island, N.Y., was the company commander.

"I'M ALIVE" Today, two days later, Wallace was awarded a Silver Star for his bravery.

"You're a hero," a newsman told him.

"I'm alive," Wallace replied. Wallace, with one year in the Army, had heavy responsibilities weighing upon him in the dense jungles of War Zone C.

Every time his men moved their heads, snipers tied in trees fired on them. Enemy machine guns in bunkers fired inexhaustibly.

ALMOST WIPED OUT Wounded Americans were moaning for assistance, some forward gunners were running out of ammunition, and a few squads had been almost wiped out.

Wallace relayed all this information back to Maj. Guy S. Meloy, III, of College Station, Tex., who had taken over operational command of American units in the battle.

"When darkness comes," Meloy told him, "Don't fire your weapons and give away your positions. Don't throw any grenades. Don't let Charlie (the Viet Cong) know where you are exactly."

"FANTASTIC" Wallace passed this word along, and much else.

"It was fantastic," he said. "At times there would be a drumfire of enemy bullets spurring in on us. How were we to know this was not the main enemy assault, an attempt to overrun us? But the men held their fire—I don't know where they got the will power."

Wallace, a crew-cut, 6-footer, said he didn't know how he got through the 22 hours himself.

For all that time he was on the radio, passing out orders to the remnants of C Company and giving information to Meloy and headquarters in the rear.

FINAL THRUST "My voice held up, even though I didn't expect to see the day through," he said. "We were expecting a final enemy thrust, and we felt that if it came it would be the end."

But the Viet Cong did not attempt that final thrust against C Company. Instead, the attack was directed against Meloy's units 300 yards away, and it failed.

Meloy said Wallace "was scared out of his wits, and I don't blame him a bit. I want to meet him and I want to recommend him for the Silver Star. He deserves it."

Wallace plans to attend warrant officers' school after he leaves Viet Nam and make the Army his career.

and admitted he was scared all the time.

When a relief column managed to link up with his battered company and all the men were evacuated to a safer area, Wallace took a few moments to write to his wife, who is expecting a baby this week.

"I want you to know I'm safe," he told her. "It is rough over here, but I would rather do it than have my son face it. We have to fight this war somewhere, and we are fighting it here."

Wallace got his Silver Star

Douglas, Percy Spar Over War

CHICAGO (AP) — An unstressed issue—age—may weigh heavily in the Illinois race for the U.S. Senate between Democratic Sen. Paul H. Douglas, 74, and Republican Charles H. Percy, 47.

Percy, boy industrialist turned hard-driving political campaigner, has not mentioned the 27-year age difference. Douglas has mentioned his age, but only in connection with his demonstrated stamina and vigor.

The two men have waged their battle primarily on an issue in which Douglas is an ac-knowledgeable authority—economic. Douglas, a former university professor of economics, says Americans are "extremely prosperous" under Democratic leadership and warns: "Don't turn back the progress of prosperity for a recession."

Percy, once a student in Douglas' class, tells voters: "There's little joy in prosperity based on war that brings with it ruinous inflation."

Both Douglas and Percy spar over the war in Viet Nam, but what comes across is only that they're concerned about it. Both Administration leaders rallying backlash, although it could figure in a shift of the Illinois delegation in Congress.

Late-coming, write-in candidate Robert Sabonjian, the black-browed Waukegan mayor has backing of voters who want to contain the Negro. Sabonjian came to public notice when he took a tough stand to stop Negro rioting in his city, and then blamed Negro civil rights organizations for fomenting the disorders.

Douglas, fighting hard for a fourth straight six-year term, knows he's in an uphill battle. Administration leaders rallying to help Douglas have included Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York and Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts.

The age issue was underlined in a recent newspaper endorsement of Percy which termed both candidates "excellent and dedicated men" but said Percy was ready to meet "the long years ahead."

Percy has sought no outside party help, although he has appeared with former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, called in by GOP candidates in congressional races.

'The Enemy Got Pretty Accurate'

By The Associated Press
For T. Sgt. Marshall Mitchell, a Texan at war, Viet Nam was a combination of demanding technical work, hard common labor and hours of airborne danger.

On the record, Mitchell, 29, was a flight mechanic on C123 system. But he spent as much time loading the planes, helping kick cargo out over drop zones and getting shot at as he did in his mechanical specialty.

LOTS OF HITS
"Every day we went up we got shot at. We were hit lots of times. Every time we went over a clump of trees, we'd pick up gunfire."

The Brownsboro man, now at Randolph Air Force Base near San Antonio, said cargo drops were made from 300 feet with the plane slowed to its minimum flying speed.

'SITTING DUCKS'
"We were sitting ducks," he said. "The enemy got pretty accurate—yessir, it scared me." Mitchell, an 11-year Air Force veteran, said the C123 crews developed a technique to protect themselves from the ground fire.

"We tried to harass the enemy a little bit," he said. "We would put two men in the back of the airplane to shoot at them. It works. When you start shooting back, they quit," he said. He carried an AR15 rifle and a .38 caliber pistol.

College Gifts Near $750,000

BROWNWOOD, Tex. (AP)—Gifts to Howard Payne College that will total some $750,000 were announced recently.

The gifts included: $500,000 from the Robert D. and Irene S. Cole Foundation, San Antonio; $187,500 from Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. Patterson, Grapevine; and $70,000 from Dr. and Mrs. Guy D. Newman. He is president of Howard Payne.

20 Per Cent Make Less Than $3,000

BEAUMONT (AP)—Dr. Bill Crook of Austin, regional director of the Office of Economic Opportunity, said that 20 per cent of the residents of this area make less than $3,000 per year.

"These persons are a drag on the community and we must put them in the position of being able to contribute—both their talents and economically," Crook said.

MIGHT STEM RISING CRIME RATE

Academy For Police?

DALLAS (AP)—Low pay, inadequate training, and a sagging prestige pose a crisis in the nation's police ranks which must be solved if the spiraling crime rate is to be stemmed, a Dallas police officer says.

L. T. Lord proposes a four-year American Police Academy, geared along the lines of the military service academies, to remedy first things first and train professional policemen.

Lord is convinced of the emergency's portent: "Unless police departments shape up under their own initiative, an aroused public will demand that the federal government establish a law enforcement training school."

'DUMB COP'
"The too-often held public image of the 'dumb cop' did not, unfortunately, develop without reason," Lord says. Few police departments have the time or money to teach their men more than the rudiments of the cops-and-robbers game either before or after they strap on a pistol.

"Policemen generally have just drifted with the times without charting a definite course toward professionalism," he says.

STANDARDS LOWERED
While a college degree is a requisite for an increasing number of jobs, many police departments are actually lowering their standards and taking recruits with the equivalent of a high school diploma. Dallas, for instance, recently lowered its age for recruits to 19½ years because the force has not been able to hire—or keep—its authorized strength of 1,380 men. Even that figure is below the recommended ratio of two policemen for every thousand people, at 1.56 per thousand.

rather than just a loss of property," Lord said. "It is the crimes of violence that are increasing, the muggings, rapes, robberies, murders. It might happen to anyone at any time, in any neighborhood."

The police academy he proposes would equip policemen to protect the public and combat the criminal with the latest scientific, legal and business methods.

Congress could construct the academy under the Law Enforcement Assistance Act, Lord says, and states and cities which would send students and later benefit from their training would finance it.

A handful of colleges now offer courses in police department management but none educates the career policemen in such skills as laboratory analysis, or police and law enforcement philosophy, or how to balance manpower to glean the wisest public protection and crime prevention.

SPACE-AGE THUGS
He feels the academy would bolster existing short-term police training schools, such as the prestigious FBI Academy and regional institutes at Louisville, Ky., Dallas and Chicago. These schools could concentrate on specific technical skills, confident that enrollees are well grounded in basic police work.

Lord says if an American Police Academy is not feasible in this era of budget pinching on the federal level, Texas itself should aim to establish such a school. He says he has the encouragement of many state officials.

And he definitely has the best wishes of thousands of policemen who recognize that new training would give them a better chance against today's brazen space-age criminals. And they wouldn't mind one bit the higher status and paychecks that would evolve from the upgrading.

GOREN ON BRIDGE

BY CHARLES H. GOREN
10-1964 BY THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE
ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠ 5 3 ♠ A J 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 ♣ K 6 3

The bidding has proceeded: North East South West 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♥ 1 ♠ 2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Partner should be given the courtesy of the road. When an opponent makes so bold as to bid your partner's suit, you should afford him an opportunity for a penalty double. You have a potential misfit in your hand. With partner bidding diamonds and spades, it is likely that he can support neither of your suits. Pass and await developments.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠ 5 2 ♠ A Q 6 4 2 ♠ 8 ♣ K J 8 7 4

The bidding has proceeded: North East South West 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♥ 1 ♠ 1 ♠ 2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Partner should be given the courtesy of the road. When an opponent makes so bold as to bid your partner's suit, you should afford him an opportunity for a penalty double. You have a potential misfit in your hand. With partner bidding diamonds and spades, it is likely that he can support neither of your suits. Pass and await developments.

Q. 3—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠ A Q 7 4 ♠ J 10 7 6 5 4 3 2 ♣ A K Q 9

The bidding has proceeded: North East South West 1 ♥ 1 ♠ 1 ♥ 1 ♠ 1 ♥ 2 ♥ Pass ?

What do you bid?

A—The interference has made scientific bidding impossible. The recommended procedure is to parry into a slam, which at worst, should depend on a finesse. Bid six hearts or you may employ Blackwood first as a check.

Q. 4—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠ K 10 7 4 2 ♠ 7 3 2 ♠ 6 3 ♣ Q 4 2

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East Pass 1 ♠ 2 ♠ 2 ♠ ?

What do you bid now?

A—While under normal conditions this would not justify a free bid, when partner has made a cue bid forcing to game, greater liberties may be taken in entering the auction. The enemy is obviously trying to shut you out; and confusion could well result from failure to take action at this time. Bid three spades.

Q. 5—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠ Q 8 6 2 ♠ K Q 9 4 ♠ K 10 7 4 3 2

The bidding has proceeded: North East South West 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ 1 ♠ 2 ♠ Pass ?

What action do you take?

A—Double. This is the best available choice. A free bid at the level of three is not to be considered with a four card suit, and contracting for game, at no trump would be an extreme case of over optimism. In doubtful cases it is best to play for a reasonably sure profit.

Q. 6—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠ Q J 4 ♠ A 8 6 3 ♠ A 7 ♣ A 10 8 4

The bidding has proceeded: North East South West 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Dble. 1 ♠ 2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Pass. Your chances for game are not bright. If partner's hand were worth 10 or more points he would have made a jump response to your double.

Q. 7—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠ A J 10 ♠ A Q 9 2 ♠ A Q 8 6 4 3 2

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Four spades. Obviously it is your intention to bid no less than six diamonds. But an effort must be made to determine whether there is a grand slam in the hand and partner will be in a better position to determine that fact. Blackwood is not altogether suitable.

Q. 8—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠ 3 ♠ A Q 6 5 ♠ A Q 10 9 4 ♣ A J 2

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass 2 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A—Two you have presumably shown the full value of your hand by your reverse bid of two hearts, you should nevertheless bid five clubs to show the ace. The fact that you have such splendid controls should induce you to take this aggressive act. Remember, partner has jumped with only one ace and at best the king and jack of diamonds.

Saudia Arabia Towns Bombed

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Egyptian Soviet-made bombers from Yemen have bombed two towns in Saudi Arabia, killing or wounding at least 14 civilians, an American correspondent reported today.

The planes struck after dawn Oct. 14 while Saudi Arabian aircraft crews were asleep, said Lawrence Mosher, Middle East correspondent for the Co-play News Service.

Mosher spent three days with Royalist forces in Yemen. He said Egyptian bombers were flying four raids a day against Royalist tribesmen despite the cease-fire agreed to 14 months ago. He inspected the bomb damage in the town of Najran, in southern Saudi Arabia.

Neither Egypt nor Saudi Arabia has reported the bomb attacks.

Acting on a pledge from the late President John F. Kennedy that the United States would support Saudi Arabia's integrity, the U.S. Air Force flew in a dozen F100 Super Sabre Jets from West Germany in May, 1963, and reportedly kept them there for two months.

Alvin High School Student reads 9,000 words per minute after taking Optimization's 12-lesson course.

"Horse and Buggy reading methods are no longer sufficient to keep pace with today's increased reading requirements," says Dr. Cecil Mullins, inventor of Optimization. The world is moving ahead of every field of endeavor at jet speed in a jet age. Today's industry could not survive by using the same methods used decades ago. It just does not make sense to use antiquated reading methods.

Dr. Mullins, renowned Educational Psychologist, says that the faster you read, the more you comprehend. "Fifteen years ago," he continued, "I became intrigued with the tremendous possibilities of the human mind. I found that by teaching students to read with greater speed and concentration, I was able to make them read books in as little as fifteen minutes with better comprehension than they would ever have been able to in 8 to 10 hours. It didn't matter whether the books were fictional history, or of a technical nature. A doctor, a lawyer, a medical man, a lawyer, a legal matter, etc. at unprecedented and often unbelievable speeds."

Dr. Mullins' methods were so successful that he created the Optimization Speed Reading Course. Taught in 12, two-hour sessions, Optimization guarantees the student will read at least 1,000 words a minute or a book in an hour or less with good comprehension. "One of the secrets of our success," said Dr. Mullins, "is that we are firmly committed to the principles that learning proceeds best, only when the students are enjoying themselves. In our classes most of the students have a half from beginning to end—and along the way, they become the best readers anywhere."

The accomplishments of some of Optimization's previous students sound like something out of science fiction. One 13-year-old lad reads books for his public school assignments in 6 to 10 minutes. His grades have jumped from barely passing to straight A's and B's after taking the course.

Another ex-student, a 35-year-old public school teacher, has made less than average grades in his undergraduate university work. He went back for graduate studies after developing thru Optimization, the ability to read an average non-fiction book in 10 to 15 minutes. His first semester at Texas University he was awarded straight A's and a chance for a scholarship.

These are just two of many reports from teachers, doctors, lawyers and other business and professional men who find that each day has progressively more reading to be done and fewer minutes to do it. "I know the results sound incredible," Dr. Mullins said, "But we have a standing offer for anyone who is undecided to come to our first meeting free of any obligation, to see for himself what the course will be like. And our guarantee is absolutely firm."

WHY SHOULD YOUNG PEOPLE KILL THEMSELVES?

'I Don't Want To Be A Burden'

By BERNARD GAVZER
Associated Press Feature Writer

Suicide is the No. 2 cause of death among college students. Among those aged 15 to 19 it is the No. 3 cause of death. There are nearly three known adolescent suicides a day, and some experts say the true figure may be 5,000 a year.

"The most onerous suicide is the suicide of the adolescent," says Dr. Edwin S. Shneidman of Los Angeles, special consultant to the National Institute of Mental Health. "In such a suicide we are troubled with the assault upon our accepted values."

TORMENTED

"We are tormented because we say, 'Here is a person who is about to enter the external potential of life and yet because of internal conflict takes his own life.'"

Why should such young people kill themselves, or try to?

"There are five categories of problems most troubling to adolescents," answers Dr. Stanley F. Yolles, director of the Institute. "These are problems the young people do not readily discuss with people who are in the position to solve them. They are: parents, poverty, peers, broken romances and pregnancy."

COLLEGE ATMOSPHERE

In the college atmosphere, there is what becomes an intolerable pressure for some young people. Often, it is indirectly applied.

"My parents have not said a thing to me about maintaining a high average," says a Cleveland girl attending a Rhode Island school, "but I know they would be terribly disappointed. I know how much of a sacrifice it is for them to send me here. I don't think I could face them if I failed."

A student attending the University of Connecticut says: "I was always bothered when final exams came, but now it's too much. If I don't really score high, I mean real high, then it means that I could end up being drafted and going to Viet Nam. When I think about that, I think sometimes I'd rather kill myself."

A young man in New York who once slashed his wrists says, "I had a mother and father who I never really knew or saw. They were terribly proud of me. You know why? Because I was a 'little man.' I could drive a car when I was 12. How about that? I used to go to restaurants for my meals and the kids thought that was great, but I wanted to go home and have a meal. I knew things about drinking and sex when I was 12, and I'm tired now. I have no place to go."

GRADE PROBLEMS

School problems — focused almost entirely upon the worship of high grades — makes students a high risk group. The New Jersey Department of Education said a three-year study showed that 41 students killed themselves and 738 tried to do so but failed. Thousands made suicide threats.

The most universal reason is the pressure to achieve high grades. The danger period is that time before examinations. A recent study indicates that by the time 1966 ends, as many as 90,000 college students will have threatened suicide and 1,000 will have succeeded.

"There is in suicide or in each potential suicide a cry for help. It is contained in repeated talk of death, which — sometimes seems casual, and is contained in remarks such as:

"My family would be better off without me."

"LAST STRAW"

"I won't be around much longer for you to put up with me."

"I don't want to be a burden." "This is the last straw; this is all I need."

Dr. Shneidman says these are serious indications of potential suicide and should not be dismissed as attention-getters or the result of dismal weather.

"I am not one who believes that suicide is related to humidity or the phases of the moon," Dr. Shneidman says. "I believe it has to do with a damp and drizzly November in the soul."

The tormented nature of the suicide is evident, says Dr. Shneidman, in the suicide note. While the words may differ widely, the typical note contains the same message.

TROUBLE TRIAL

"It is invariably involved with another person. Hermits do not commit suicide," says Dr. Shneidman.

In defining suicidal people,

Flood Damage Suit Settled At Last

BEAUMONT (AP)—A $211,000 flood damage suit brought by 30 Jefferson County residents has been settled out of court after a trial which ran for more than four weeks.

Defendants were Kansas City Southern Railroad, the cities of Port Arthur and Groves and Drainage Dist. 7.

The plaintiffs maintained that levees and other projects had hindered the natural drainage of water over a five-year period, resulting in damage to their homes.

Engineer Quits

FREEPORT, Tex. (AP)—City Engineer Howard Grant has resigned. He told the City Council his family felt he should retire. They expect to live in California, he said. He came to Freepoint in July, 1964.

the Los Angeles Suicide Prevention Center concluded: "They are no longer able to sweep their feelings under the rug of indifference and denial. They must face their feelings of helplessness, helplessness, and dependency."

When a young person commits suicide, he gives birth to a trial of trouble.

"The suicide of a child," says Dr. Shneidman, "puts his skeleton in the closets of many people: father, mother, sister, brother, grandparents."

The survivors are confronted with enormous questions: "What did I do? Why couldn't I help? Where did I fail? — for which there rarely are easy answers."

And so, says Dr. Shneidman, in the years after the child kills himself, each of these survivors could become psychotic.

"TUNNEL VISION"

One of the myths about suicide is that it is spontaneous. The Los Angeles Suicide Prevention Center reports that "the typical suicidal victim is seen as psychiatrically ill for a considerable period before his death."

Dr. Robert E. Litman of the Los Angeles center says that the suicidal person faces his problems with "tunnel vision." This is described in these terms:

PREGNANT

"If an unmarried girl should become pregnant or believe she is pregnant, she may begin considering her problem by listing her alternatives. So she says, 'A — I could have the baby and keep it. B — I could have the baby and give it up for adoption. C — I could go to Japan for a legal abortion. D — I could go to Mexico for a safe abortion. E — I could try to have an abortion here. F — I could force Joe to marry me. G. H. I. . . S — I could commit suicide.'"

BACK TO 'S'

As the girls gets deeper into her problems her vision narrows and she keeps coming back to 'S' — suicide.

Recent studies show she is more prone to attempt suicide if she has a background in which attempted suicide; if one of both or her natural parents was absent from home through divorce, separation or death; if there was a step-parent with whom she could not get along; if communication with her parents was poor.

SIX-FOLD INCREASE

Suicide has been held in such disgrace that it has been difficult for investigators to arrive at clear figures of how often it occurs. In 1965, there were 22,500 known suicides and almost all experts insist that the true figure is at least twice as great.

As for the suicide rate among college-age people, there is a question as to whether the rate has increased or whether the reporting techniques have improved. However, there are indications that the rate has gone up. The National Association for Mental Health of New York reported that the number of mental hospital patients between the ages of 10-14 increased six-fold in 1965.

Texas Rangers Step Up Hunt For Arsonists

RIO GRANDE CITY, Tex. (AP)—Texas Rangers promised to step up their search today for arsonists who burned a railroad trestle, severing this city's rail traffic as the vegetable harvest begins.

A citizens' committee of about 50 civic and business leaders met Sunday with the Rangers and Starr County law officers to ask for better law enforcement. The committee, posted $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the arsonists.

Rio Grande Valley farm workers have been on strike since early summer for $1.25 hourly field wages — but their leaders deny farm union members were connected with the blaze.

LOOKS BAD

"Someone did this to make us look bad and turn public opinion against us," said Bill Chandler, a spokesman for the United Farm Workers Organizing Committee.

Union officials said they will step up their activities against Valley growers in their drive for higher wages. This summer the farm workers sponsored a 400-mile march to the state Capitol in Austin to dramatize their pleas. In the last two weeks farm workers or sympathizers have been linked with blocking the Mexico-U.S. international bridge twice at Roma, Tex., to prevent Mexican workers from taking field hand jobs.

COPS TO FAN

The Texas workers say their wages now range from 35 cents to $1 an hour.

Texas Ranger Sgt. S. H. Denton of Corpus Christi said his officers will fan out today in looking for persons who set the fire that destroyed the Missouri Pacific Railroad trestle near here.

Five refrigerated carloads of bell peppers were delayed by the blaze, and now are hooked up to keep the cars cold at a railroad siding. Rail officials say it will take at least three or four days to repair the trestle.

Jurors Absent, Court Action Is Delayed

Scheduled start of a criminal docket in 118th District Court bogged down at 9 a.m. today when an acute shortage of jurors developed. Only 29 of the original panel of 120 were still on hand when the mill run exemptions had been sounded. Only 43 jurors had reported when court opened.

Convènes Lodge

H. W. Fullingim, Odessa, worshipful master of the Grand Lodge of Texas, was to convene the grand lodge here today for the levelling of the cornerstone of the new science building of Howard County Junior College at 4 p.m.

Of the 29 left, a number had what the court regarded as valid excuses for not serving. Faced with this problem, Judge Ralph Caton ordered the sheriff to bring in 40 special takersmen to augment the supply of prospective jurors.

The court instructed the sheriff to have the 40 takersmen on hand at 9 a.m. Tuesday. Judge Caton hopes that from the 40 special jurors he will be able to qualify enough to proceed with the trial of cases on this week's docket.

Meantime, the trial of Carroll Trantham, charged with armed robbery, is still No. 1 on the list. Had jurors been available it would have probably gotten under way this afternoon. It is slated to be called again Tuesday morning.

Mrs. A. C. Jones, 2106 Monticello, said a man got in her car about 8 p.m. Saturday at Fifteenth and State, forced her at gunpoint to continue driving and took $4 from her billfold.

Two vending machines at the Shell station, IS 20 at SH 178, were forced open by thugs who took an undetermined amount of coins. Lorenzo Jackson, 906 NW 2nd, said $51 was taken from him while he slept in a friend's car, parked at 1079 Lamesa Dr.

TTA Reports Boarding Gain

Trans-Texas Airways local office has reported record boardings for September and October.

Much of T-TA's cargo has doubled and tripled since September and October of 1965, and air traffic at the Howard County Airport has increased considerably.

The airline count for September was 275 local boardings, as compared with 253 a year ago. In October, local boardings were 291, compared to 213 in the same month of 1965.

Deplaned passengers in September were 276; in October, 269. Totals a year ago were 209 for September and 248 for October.

The biggest turnover has been in the amount of air freight handled, according to T-TA station manager Dean Berry. Handled freight for September was 7,337 pounds; for October, it dropped slightly to 7,125 pounds.

Mail cargo was up to 4,576 pounds in September and continued on the increase to 5,041 pounds in October. This is double the reports for the same months in 1965.

For express, the pounds in September were 478 and in October, 441, triple the express reports for one year ago.

THIS IS THE SHORT END OF THE ST. LAWRENCE 'CHOW' LINE Community feeds 3,500 hungry visitors at annual fall festival

St. Lawrence Thronged By Thousands For Festival

By SAM BLACKBURN
ST. LAWRENCE — St. Lawrence residents were digging out today from under a sea of dirty dishes and dingy pots left in the wake of yesterday's record-breaking fall festival.

No one knows just how much the St. Lawrence Catholic Church building fund was fattened by the festival. It will take several days before the bills can all be paid and the profits figured on the biggest, most successful and likely the most profitable festival this Glasscock County farming community ever staged.

The St. Lawrence folk, weary but happy, are as amazed as their guests at the tremendous outpouring which marked the festival.

They served 3,500 hungry visitors from a dozen West Texas counties at the mammoth dinner and supper. They sold 30 bales of cotton, a mountain of merchandise, at an auction which saw the most spirited bidding in the history of the celebration.

They peddled hundreds of pounds of their justly famous German raw sausage to gourmets—many of whom drove miles to stock up on this famous St. Lawrence specialty.

The weather smiled on the festival. Temperatures were just right, and the long line of diners which wound its way in a huge "S" from the highway to the dining hall found everything— even waiting — pleasant.

The queue was about 800 feet long at one time, but the throng was in high good humor.

The St. Lawrence committee had planned to begin serving at 11:30 a.m. (which it did) and to shut down the dinner hour at 1:30 p.m. This turned out to be impossible. When the last hungry diner had been served it was well past 3 p.m. and almost time to start in serving the supper crowd.

Five citations and engraved plaques will be awarded to the five selected by a committee of WTCC leaders.

Gov. John Connally will make the principal address at the banquet honoring the awardees and Mrs. Connally will make the presentations. A reception honoring the awardees and other special guests will be held following the banquet.

"Cultural Collage" is the name given to the entertainment feature which will be presented Thursday night at the Main Auditorium of Texas A&M University.

Women's Activities will be honored for the first time at this meeting. The Women's Activities Committee, newest of the action committees of the WTCC, will hold its initial meeting on Thursday afternoon. Mrs. John J. Kirchhoff of Plainview is the chairman of the new committee and expects a large attendance by women from all sections of the 12-county area served by WTCC.

Business affairs of the organization will be conducted by the board of directors on Friday morning, Nov. 11. John Ben Shepperd, Odessa, president of WTCC, will be assisted in the meeting by the three vice-presidents: Dr. Joe T. Nelson of Weatherford, Rolf Hardy of Abilene and George McCleskey of Lubbock.

Other features include a new type of style show for the women, a breakfast for "Quota Busters" in the underground National Civil Defense Center, an art exhibit and a special luncheon for those interested in the Cultural Affairs Committee and its program of work.

Water Funds Bill Signed

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—President Johnson has signed a bill authorizing construction of 33 flood control, navigation and beach erosion projects—in 25 states at an estimated $670,235,000 federal cost.

The measure, signed Sunday night, also authorizes the Army Engineers to survey water resource development problems on streams throughout the United States and its possessions with a view to designing recommendations for additional projects.

The measure provides no money for the authorized work. Actual start of planning and construction activity on the various projects must await appropriations by Congress.

Texas — Watersheds and streams which drain into the Gulf of Mexico along the coastline of Texas, exclusive of the Rio Grande, water resource development; Cibola Creek at Presidio, flood control.

Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas — Arkansas and Red rivers, water quality. Part I, $46,400,000. (Construction start on Part I prohibited until Part II is authorized by Congress.)

NEW YORK (AP)—The highest temperature in the nation Sunday was 85 degrees at three Texas cities—Alice, Cotulla and Corpus Christi. The lowest overnight was three below zero at Great Falls, Mont.

Boost Health With Foods From Health Food Center

Problem? Weight? Digestible? Natural food? Available and arranged conveniently and attractively at Big Spring Health Food Center. Mrs. Nall, whose husband operated Pancho's News Stand for many years prior to his death in February, decided to carry on plans for the health food center, which she and her husband had planned together. A feature of the center is the loaning library, filled with various health books on how to look better and feel better. Written by the world's foremost authorities on health.

One of the original Swiss products carried at Big Spring Health Food Center is "Familia," original Swiss Birchermuesli. "Familia" is an excellent cereal of high nutritional value for the modern family. Mrs. Nall says. It consists of dried Swiss apples, shredded wheat, dried skimmed milk, crushed hazelnuts and almonds, oat and millet flakes, dried raisins and special unrefined sugar. Apples are totally used with peel and core. Wheat is freed only of the outer, indigestible husk: so the precious elements of apples and the wheat-germs are retained. Apples and wheat are both grown without chemical fertilizers or toxic insecticides.

"Familia" is enriched with biogerm, a natural and stable concentrate of active substances from wheat-germs.

The product itself is based upon the work of Dr. Birch-Benner, the great Swiss founder of a new medical school, based on dietetics, who devised in 1905 a diet rich in healthful fresh fruit. If you add to the contents of the package a liberal amount of fresh fruit, you will have exactly what Dr. Birch-Benner meant.

Preparation of "Familia" is easy—just add cold milk and stir. For a fancy touch, mix four ounces of "Familia" with one pint of cold milk and let soak 10 minutes; add some lemon juice, some grated or sliced apples or other fresh fruit, such as sliced oranges or bananas.

For a dessert, prepare "Familia" with cold milk and fresh or frozen fruit or fruit salad and add whipped cream. Or, sprinkled on ice cream, it makes an excellent dessert.

For information on all types of health foods, call AM 7-6524 and your questions will be answered.

Graham's Offers New Line Of Fine Olivetti Typewriters

Graham's Office Machines, 417 E. 3rd, offers a wide selection of office machines for business firms. Charles O. Graham, owner-manager, has been in the office machine business 25 years, and he knows his line of sales.

A feature at Graham's is sales and service — Graham's corps of highly skilled and qualified repairmen will service all makes and types of typewriters and office machines.

Graham's stocks Olivetti Underwood typewriters, calculators and multipliers, in addition to adding machines, standard and electric typewriters, the "21" portable, and the Letters "33" typewriter.

The Olivetti Underwood Praxis 48 features a unique "character sensor" that prevents four common typing errors: crowding or piling; shading or ghosting; flying caps and improper spacing. In addition, the Praxis also features electric margins, automatic title centering, four repeat typing keys, half spacing, vertical and horizontal, a light, fast keyboard touch that can be personalized with the touch control.

Combining remarkable efficiency and economy, the Praxis 48, with its handsome contemporary design, adds a note of style and prestige to any professional or business use.

The Underwood - Olivetti Divisumma 24 is a high speed calculator with rotary printing and a memory, entirely new in concept and design. It not only performs, automatically, each of the four basic operations in arithmetic; it also performs them in combined operations, without requiring the re-entry of intermediate figures. By providing a combination of features and abilities never before achieved in a desk calculator, the Underwood - Olivetti Divisumma 24 represents a major advance in speed, accuracy and ease of operation, thereby increasing productivity and reducing figure work costs in a wide range of applications.

YOUR
Horoscope
Forecast for Tomorrow
By Carroll Righter

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is one of those days and evenings which should be packed full of action, particularly concerning the interests you wish to have in your life for a considerable period of time. Take some time out to think deeply upon how far you have progressed to date.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Invest in new chronograph or other mechanism that can make your specialized work more precise, less fatiguing. At least study them well. Regulate co-workers who carry through with your ideas steadily.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your finest benefits can come today from any social or entertainment avenues upon which you may tread. Be generous in entertaining others. Let close-fists be conspicuous at your five afflictions for them.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Concentrate on how best to bring greater harmony within your own four walls, which is so very important a part of successful living. Eradicate any mis-takes you have made. Make changes that are vital.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A day for much activity, whether in business or visiting friends, relatives, in sports, etc. Take the time to gather information that is important for you to have. Don't waste time with wrong persons.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Be alert to the opportunities afforded you by others to make more money by operating with them. It only requires that you show you are practical. Rewards will be commensurate with your unusual energy and interest you put into enterprises.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have an opportunity to assist others with their problems of some social effort and gain their gratitude. Be sure you dress in high fashion. Bring out your finest points, regard about the lesser, and so will others.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Practice to become perfect in something that can later be brought before bigwigs, subcommittee, etc. Be a quiet achiever. You can assist a worthy individual best if you team up with another. Combine finances and other resources.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Sociality and being with those who admire you is the best method for progressing today and tonight. Entertaining is a good friend in your planning. This helps to increase your circle of working acquaintances.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Start operating on whatever will make your personal or business career more successful and satisfying. Show your ingenuity in making arrangements with others. There is no need to have poor credit.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Try a new approach in present affairs. Find new system to replace one that is already antiquated and bring in very poor returns. Talk to persons of different experience from yours. Get their formula for success.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Getting into insurance and security matter seriously. Keep your bearing very firm. Position very easily. Play-bills and contract matters need you. Use your intuition and know what mate expects of you. Be generous, kind.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Much talk with regular allies, partners, customers, etc. Help your constant better relations with everyone. Get new contracts, make intelligent arrangements for the days ahead. Show thought, ambition.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow will be one of those very particular young children who will draw everything around him or her in very precise order, immaculate condition, and very much concerned with minutiae. It behooves you first to teach to take care of the big issues otherwise the child will be lost for the pennies throughout the lifetime. Ideal chart for the banker, big business, medicine, etc.

Texas Woman Electrocutted

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Mrs. Fay Matlock of Lake Jackson, Tex., was accidentally electrocuted in her home in Seremban last Wednesday, authorities reported Sunday.

Mrs. Matlock and her husband had been engaged in Church of Christ missionary work in the Seremban area for about 15 months. Seremban is about 40 miles south of here.

Matlock found his wife's body beside a table lamp.

Lunar Orbiter 2 Speeds Toward Moon

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Nine hours after an Atlas-Agena blasted it skyward from Cape Kennedy, Lunar Orbiter 2 — thanks to a bit of black paint — passed a test its predecessor flunked. And scientists controlling it from Jet Propulsion Laboratory here hope it will be able to carry out a schedule far more ambitious than that of Orbiter 1 — taking, developing and sending back to earth more than 200 pictures of 13 possible astronaut landing sites on the moon.

FOLLOWING ORDERS
As Lunar Orbiter 2 hurtled at 5,200 miles an hour toward the moon a quarter-million miles away shortly after 3 a.m. today, it responded to scientists' orders, rotated and locked on the star Canopus as a navigation guide, JPL spokesmen said.

The 850-pound vehicle was hurled into the sky at 6:21 p.m. EST Sunday from Cape Kennedy, Fla.

Sighting devices on Lunar Orbiter 1 never found Canopus. It is scheduled to take a look at the crater where Ranger 8 crashed in February, 1965, and to yield information about the texture of the moon's soil.

Balmy Weather Engulfs Texas

By The Associated Press
Balmy weather engulfed Texas as once again, as warm air from the Gulf kept out a cold front that has frozen the Northern Plains.

Forsan Game

Forsan High School girls will open the basketball season with a game at 7 p.m. Tuesday night against the Howard County Junior College girls in the Forsan gymnasium.

NO HURRY

Scientists said they were in no hurry to order a midcourse maneuver to correct its trajectory, and set back the time for the maneuver until later today.

Plans call for Orbiter

Plans call for Orbiter — which with its solar energy panels extended looks like a giant four-leaf clover — to approach the moon Thursday to begin a month of picture-taking. It will orbit at 125 to 1,150 miles above the moon.

Bufs Lose Again

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Veteran George Blanda was relegated to the role of place-kicker and young Don Trull became the quarterback Sunday but it didn't help the Houston Oilers in their decline — they took a 38-23 licking from Oakland.

Top Administrative Record Shown In Office By Carr

AUSTIN — Waggoner Carr, the Democratic nominee for the United States Senate, has had a remarkable career as an administrator and some of his achievements border on the spectacular.

Take, for instance, his leadership of the Attorney General's office during the past three years.

First of all, he recruited a staff of 105 top-quality lawyers. Knowing that the state salaries could not equal what many attorneys made in private practice, Carr appealed to the State Bar of Texas for help. He got it.

The wisdom of Carr's selections is evidenced by the record of his staff.

WORK INCREASED
Since 1963, the Attorney General's office has disposed of more suits than were settled in the previous decade. In three years, the office disposed of 14,980 suits. Previously, the best 36-month total had been 5,512. Carr's staff nearly tripled the old standard.

And the record was set without sacrificing quality.

Of the suits that went to trial, Carr and his staff won 12,150 and lost 335. That's a batting percentage of .973 in the courtroom, a big-league mark by any comparison. The other suits were settled out of court.

In this swift and successful rush to eliminate the enormous backlog of cases, Carr's staff also gave a hefty boost to the State Treasury.

MONEY RECOVERED
More than $11,115,000 dollars were recovered for the State in the disposition of the suits.

Although the office is not meant to be a profit-making one, the earnest efforts of Carr's staff have returned $2 to the State Treasury for every dollar spent in operation.

Besides doing an outstanding job in trying suits, Carr's staff also has a pace-setting tendency.

Recently, Carr's staff turned a computer loose on an appeal of the vast Lower Rio Grande Valley water suit. And for good reason. The suit took nine years to get through the district court. The 600-page judgment covers $,000 to 4,000 parties.

FIRST TIME
It took 10 people about a month to feed pertinent information into the computer. Now, the Attorney General's office and the Texas Water Commission can pull out any detail about any defendant and the computer will give a case history. It's the first time a computer has entered the courtroom. Such far-reaching steps seem natural for Carr. He has the ability to define a problem, to decide on guidelines which point to a solution and to delegate authority to his co-workers so they can work with confidence and freedom toward success.

This ability is not a newly-found one for Carr.

It was sharpened as a champion debater during his college days at Texas Tech in Lubbock and honed even keener at the University of Texas Law School.

Carr first gained notice—and set the tempo for his record-setting pace—when he became Lubbock County Attorney. In this position, he amassed a record of having tried more Criminal cases than any preceding County Attorney.

His diligence and success did not go unnoticed.

FIVE TERMS
In 1950, he was elected to his first of five terms as a member of the House of Representatives from Lubbock County.

In the House, Carr's colleagues soon recognized what the Lubbock County homefolks had known all along: here was a man who had a real gift for administration, for gathering high-quality men together and for inspiring them to new heights of excellence.

Carr's ability was rewarded when he was named Speaker of the House, the highest honor which can come to a State Representative.

With his first term an outstanding success, Carr was re-elected Speaker. This achievement made him only the third man in the entire history of Texas to serve two consecutive terms as Speaker.

Following a month of application of the principles derived from the institute the teachers will reconvene to assess their progress and further develop techniques of inquiry.

Local teachers involved are Connie Gary, Goliad Junior High and Carolyn Tatum of Washington Elementary. Mrs. S. G. Oakes will represent the Coahoma schools, and Mrs. Clairene Kennedy will attend from Colorado City.

Road Department Spending Revealed
AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Highway Department says it spends only one cent out of every highway dollar for administrative costs.

The department's yearend summary shows $490.9 million in expenditures the last fiscal year, of which $361.2 million went for construction, including right of way purchases. That is about 77 cents of the highway dollar. Another 15 cents was spent on highway maintenance, compared to the national average of about 25 cents.

Support of the highway patrol cost $7.8 million, about 2 cents of the dollar.

NOTICE TO THE VOTERS OF PRECINCT 2

All efforts have been made to bring my candidacy for the office of County Commissioner Precinct Two to each of your homes personally.

I have had the courtesy to respect the many pleas of our governmental and utility officials not to clutter up our streets and utility polls of our community with political junk.

It has been pointed out time and time again this practice is against the law.

I have respected that law, even if I had not seen fit to recognize their pleas, it seems like the voting public would be very skeptical when such a vast amount of money is spent on the candidacy of any local office.

Therefore I take this means to ask you to remember my visit to each home in Precinct Two, and humbly ask you to go to the polls tomorrow and vote to support R. C. Nichols, Democrat Candidate for County Commissioner Precinct Two.

DEAR ABBY Write Letter In Protest

DEAR ABBY: I have written to my congressman and to both my senators to protest a certain television program which I feel is a menace to our society. It shows a gang of young punks defying the law and attacking innocent people. And all of this on motorcycles to make it more daring and appealing to our teenagers. Please tell me, and other mothers who are trying to raise decent children, how to combat this disgraceful type of television program.

Please don't use my name. I don't want my head blown off by these motorcycle bums.

SEATTLE: The only way to effectively combat such programs is to write to the network which carries it and to state your objections vigorously. Write also to the sponsors stating your refusal to buy their products in protest. And send copies to the Federal Communications Commission, Washington, D. C.

DEAR ABBY: I know this will sound crazy, but I'm serious. I flipped over a guy named Alan, but he doesn't care a thing about me. He has never dated me, but he comes over sometimes and we "make out" (I guess the older generation called it "necking.")

Alan tells me not to get serious about him because he likes me only as a friend but he kisses me because he needs the practice for when the right girl comes along. I have tried to refuse to let him kiss me, but I always weaken when I see him. Can you help me?

DEAR WEAK: No one can help a person who can't help himself. Next time he comes over, refuse to let him in. Practice makes perfect, but this kind of practice is making a perfect fool of you.

DEAR ABBY: A reader asked, "How does a mother part with her child when an institution for the incurably handicapped is the only answer?" Your reply, "She prays for the wisdom and strength to put aside all thoughts of herself and to consider only what is best for the child." Abby, you will never know the amount of good your one-sentence reply may accomplish.

I have six children and one of them is retarded. I couldn't bear the thought of "institutionalizing" him, although his unruly behavior became more and more a problem. Finally I reached the point where I had to face the facts. It became a matter of what was best for the majority, so off he went to a state training school. My prayers, work in the church and caring for the needs of my family saved me from a nervous breakdown. This was three years ago.

Today my son is happier than he has ever been. He comes home for visits and can hardly wait to get back to school. I only wish for his sake I had made that decision years before. The Lord never places a heavier burden on us than we can carry. Sincerely,

SAW THE LIGHT

Air Force Boast Bit Premature

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Air Force was a bit premature in boasting it had a new light that robbed the Viet Cong of the advantage of darkness.

"No longer can Charlie (the Viet Cong), operate as a phantom under the cover of darkness," declared Maj. Gen. M.C. Demler, the Air Force research chief, at a Washington conference in late September.

A new device in action aboard a plane. An Air Force spokesman said it wasn't operating.

It was tried out for about a month in July, the spokesman said, but "it developed a few bugs."

The device is called AGIL — airborne general illumination light. Demler said it puts out 6 million candlepower and from a 315-mile area with light "four times that of a full moon."

The spokesman here did not give details on the troubles which had developed. He said an evaluation report has been sent to Washington.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Rural Electrification Administration has approved loans totaling $515,000 to two Texas cooperatives.

The Dickens County Electric

Cooperative, Inc., at Spur will receive $328,000 to construct system improvements, including 98 miles of lines to serve 311 new customers.

The other loan, for $187,000, goes to the Limestone County Electric Cooperative, Inc., at Mart for construction of 60 miles of distribution lines to serve 250 new customers.

'Cigar' Zips Across Sky

LA PORTE, Tex. (AP) — It's hard to say we didn't see it. We don't know what we saw," said the port captain at Morgan's Point said after he and three friends observed a metallic cigar-shaped object move across the sky.

Capt. Louis Fontenot, 49, said they watched it through 50-power binoculars and agreed it was shaped like a "big rocket or cigar with two fins at the very bottom," with "either writing or windows" on it.

He estimated its height at approximately 15,000 feet and said it stayed upright, moving about 100 miles an hour.

Fontenot said he and his friends saw a jet fighter turn over LaPorte and follow the object's path.

"Our press is the first-line watchdog of government... and I pledge right now to cooperate with the news media so that all Texans will know how their tax dollars are being spent."

Butler, Tech Frosh To Play A&M Fish

LUBBOCK — Randy Bowlin, Texas Tech quarterback from Lubbock, Monterey, leads in total offense the Picador team slated to face the Texas A&M freshmen at Midland at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Bowlin, an all-staier for the Plainsmen, has compiled most of his yardage passing. He has completed 20 of 34 passes for 236 yards and added 23 more rushing for a total of 259 yards. Bowlin has passed for two touchdowns.

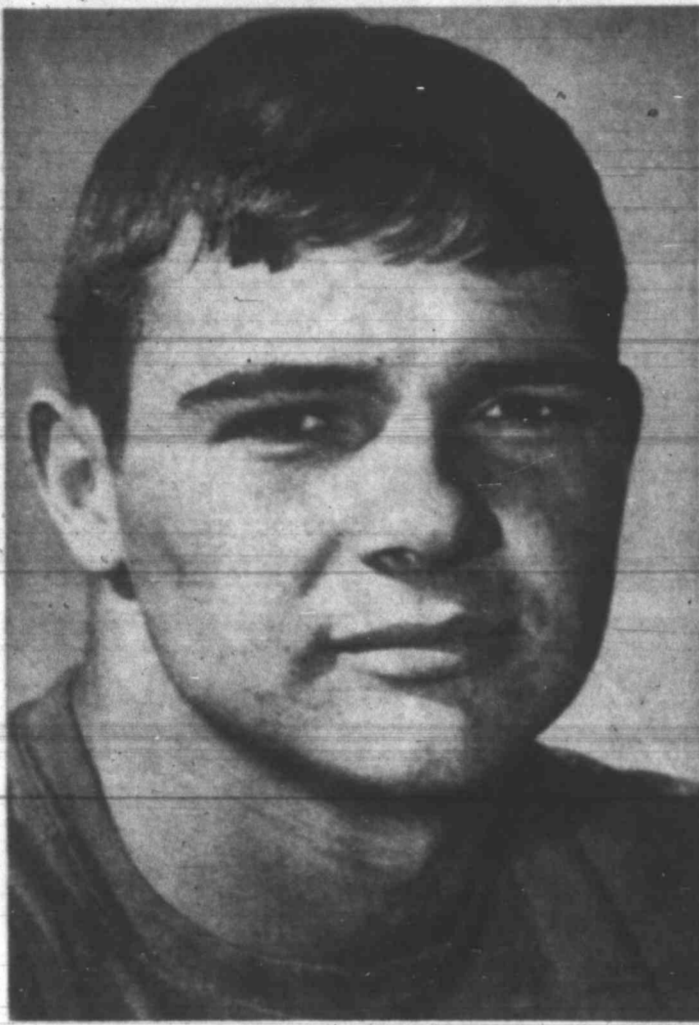

Halfback James Bennett of Amarillo, a North All-Star gridder, has been Bowlin's most effective target. Both Bennett and end Gary Vaughn of Houston Lamar have caught the same number of passes, six, but Bennett has managed 96 yards and two touchdowns with his receptions. Vaughn has 71 yards of return. Halfback Kevin Ormes of Dallas Highlands has snagged five for 38 yards.

Bennett also leads in rushing, having gained 91 yards on 18 carries for a 5.0 average, and is tied with fullback Tony Butler of Coahoma for scoring honors, with 12 apiece.

Butler is No. 2 rusher, with 71 yards on 23 tries. Next in ground gaining are halfback David May of Amarillo Palo Duro, 42 on six; and Ormes, 37 on 11.

May leads in kickoff returns, with 30 attained on two runs, for a 15-yard average. Ormes has 40 yards on four punt returns for a 10-yard average in topping that department. Also, Ormes has run back a pass interception 15 yards to pace the Picadors there.

Leading punter is Jerry Don

COAHOMA'S TONY BUTLER

Sanders of Springlake-Earthman's Picadors are averaging 125.5 yards rushing, 137.3 passing for a total offense figure of 263. They have yielded only 97 yards rushing, 88.5 passing for a total defense average of 185.5. Following the A&M contest at Midland, the Picadors conclude their season with North Texas State at Denton Nov. 17.

Two Top Clubs Still In Ranks Of Unbeaten

By ED SCHUYLER JR. By The Associated Press

The glitter of an unbeaten season and a national major college football championship remains undimmed for Notre Dame and Michigan State as their showdown game grows nearer, but some of the bloom is off the rose for UCLA.

Top-ranked Notre Dame and No. 2 Michigan State, which meet at East Lansing, Mich., Nov. 19, rolled on Saturday with easy triumphs. Notre Dame, 7-0, trounced Pittsburgh 40-0, and Michigan State, 8-0, smashed Iowa 56-7.

UCLA BEATEN

But it was a different story for UCLA, gunning for a second straight trip to the Rose Bowl. The third-ranked Bruins dropped from the unbeaten ranks by losing to Washington 16-3, and now must beat Stanford next Saturday and Southern California Nov. 19 to have a chance for the trip to Pasadena.

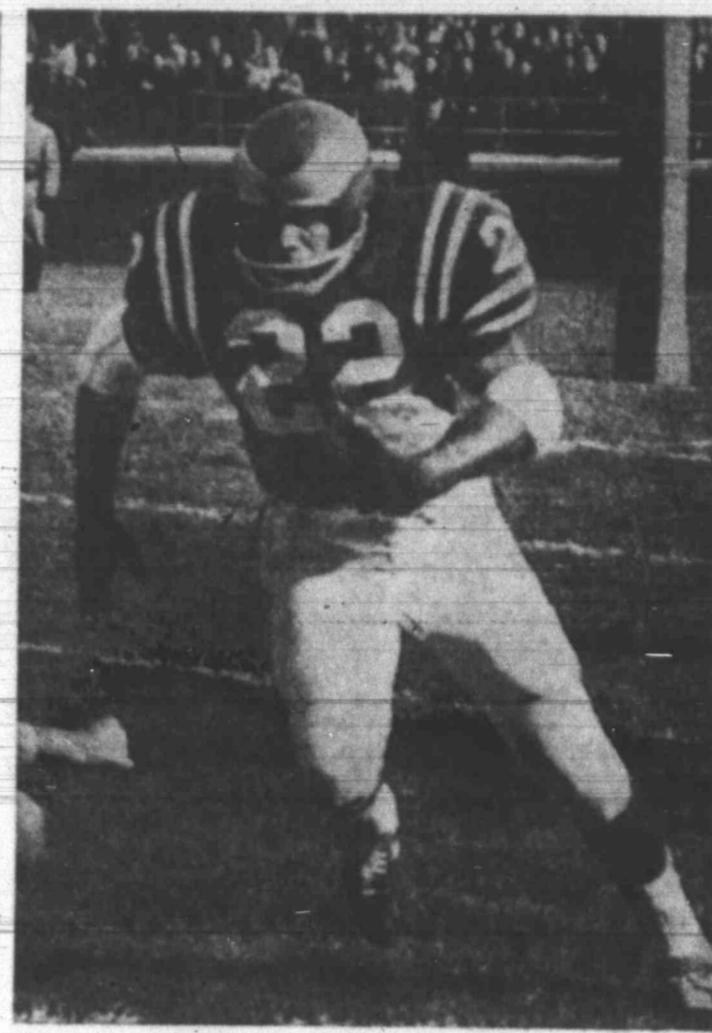

UCLA wasn't the only previous unbeaten team to feel the sting of defeat. Seventh-ranked Florida suffered its first loss, 27-10 at the hands of Georgia, and Harvard saw its hopes of a first unbeaten season in 53 years wiped out with an 18-14 loss to Princeton.

The only unbeaten-untied teams remaining to challenge Notre Dame and Michigan State are No. 4 Alabama, fifth-ranked Georgia Tech and Nebraska, No. 6.

IRISH SPITTER

Notre Dame's offense sputtered in the first half against Pitt, which has won once, and then left the field at intermission ahead only 7-0. However, Nick Eddy ignited them with an 85-yard touchdown return of the kickoff opening the second half.

Michigan State took affront at a quick Iowa touchdown and turned Clint Jones loose on the Hawkeyes. Jones rushed for 229 yards, including runs of 79 and 70 yards, for a Big Ten individual game record. The Spartans play Indian a before meeting Notre Dame, which takes on Duke next Saturday.

TIMMY BROWN CAPITALIZES ON COWBOY TDs Philadelphia back starts 93-yard runback

It's The Score And Not Statistics That Win

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A minutes when the Cowboys moved to the Philadelphia 31 and Don Meredith completed a pass to Dan Reeves on the Eagle 10. But Joe Scarpatti wrestled the ball out of Reeves' hands and the Cowboys' last chance had fled.

Dallas won the battle of the statistics, which, however, was small consolation when the Cowboys glanced at the scoreboard. Dallas had 240 yards total offense to 80 for Philadelphia.

More entries are being sought for the Big Spring Country Club's partnership tournament Saturday.

Response has been good so far, and Jerry Green, club pro, is expecting a good field for the event.

Any team of two golfers (one with 10 or under and another with 11 or over handicaps) in Howard County is eligible to participate in the event. The entry fee is $2.50 per player. While early signing will be appreciated pre-registration is not necessary, said Green. He urged players to form teams and come out Saturday for the 18-hole play.

Some of the golfers already entered include Son Powell, Ted Gross, Jimmy Newsom, Dewey Byers, Rick Terry, Rob Smith, Olie Bristow, J. R. Farmer, Pat Drake and Buck Drake.

San Diego Looks Like A Favorite

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Coach Don Coryell relishes the underdog role for San Diego State but his Aztecs are destined to be favorites in the future.

"We're No. 1," echoed shouts in jam-packed Balboa Stadium where a record paid crowd of 35,342 watched the Aztecs, ranked second in the nation in the college division, trounce top-ranked North Dakota State, 36-0, Saturday night.

It ended the Bison 24-game winning streak. "I had a good feeling about the game," said Coach Coryell. "When we're underdogs, I can't wait for the game to start, but when we're favored, I dread it."

Chargers Concentrate On Taylor, Buford Runs Wild

By The Associated Press

All last week the San Diego Chargers attended an Otis Taylor film festival, but Kansas City's leading man turned out to be Chris Burford.

With the Chargers' defense double teaming Taylor, the league's fifth leading pass receiver, Burford was able to break loose for a couple of times.

Practices What He Preaches

NEEDHAM, Mass. (AP) — John Burke Jr., former Boston University basketball coach, apparently believes in practicing what he preaches as a golfer.

Burke, the pro at the Needham Golf Club, scored a hole-in-one on his home course Sunday. He sank his tee shot on the 214-yard 11th hole. Burke used a No. 5 wood for the ace.

important catches that propelled the Chiefs to a critical 24-14 American Football League victory Sunday.

"We knew they'd been looking at Taylor all week in the films," Kansas City Coach Hank Stram said after the game, so the Chiefs had Burford, the split end, switch from the left side of the line in-the-right on succeeding plays in order to confuse the Charger secondary.

STRATEGY WORKED How well the strategy worked was shown on two of Burford's five catches.

In other AFL games, Denver upset Boston, 17-10, Buffalo beat Miami, 28-0 and Oakland took Houston, 38-23.

The Kansas City victory gave the Chiefs a 1 1/2-game lead over the Chargers in the AFL's Western Division.

Denver's triumph came on a 64-yard scoring pass from rookie quarterback Max Choibolan to Al Denson with just two seconds left in the game. The Broncos got the ball with just 20 seconds left after Gino Cappelletti missed a 14-yard field goal.

Jack Kemp tossed two scoring passes as the Bills ended Miami's brief winning streak at two games. The Buffalo defense blitzed Miami quarterback George Wilson, Jr. continually and Booth Lustig converted a pair of field goals.

Tom Flores connected on just 10 of 26 passes for Oakland, but he made them count for 269 yards and two touchdowns. The scoring throws went 78 yards to Fred Biletnikoff and 46 yards to Art Powell.

Ralston-Richey Go Into Finals

PORTO ALEGRE, Brazil (AP) — The United States Davis Cup team sent Dennis Ralston and Cliff Richey into the final interzone Davis Cup matches with Brazil today.

Sunday the U.S. doubles team of Ralston and Arthur Ashe put the United States up 2-1 over Brazil, by beating Thomas Koche and Jose Edison Mandarino, 7-5, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

Sierra Blanca Beats Sands, 8-6

ACKERLY — Sierra Blanca spoiled Sands' homecoming Friday night, with an 8-6 edge over the home team.

Monte Sparkman copped Sierra Blanca's touchdown in the second quarter on a six-yard run up the middle, pushing the visitors out in front, 8-0. Quarterback Allen Smith ran across for the extra points.

Sands came back in the game to cop a TD with two minutes left in the half on a six-yard run by Lance Hopper. The try for extra points failed.

Outstanding on defense for the home team were Randy Hambrick with 10 tackles and Larry Oaks with 17.

Sands plays Gall Saturday at Gall's homecoming. The Ackerly squad has chalked up four wins, three losses and one tie.

Cards Lose Johnson, Eagles Upset Dallas

By The Associated Press

Nothing else was working for the Philadelphia Eagles, so they started cashing in on Dallas touchdowns.

Philadelphia's Timmy Brown returned kickoffs 93 and 90 yards for touchdowns following Dallas scores Sunday, setting a National Football League record and sparking the Eagles to a 24-23 triumph over the heavily favored Cowboys.

Aaron Martin ran back a Dallas punt 67 yards for another touchdown and Sam Baker kicked a 31-yard field goal as the Eagles scored all their points in the first half.

despite netting only six yards and one first down on offense.

Brown became the first player in NFL history to score twice in a game on kickoff runbacks as the Eagles avenged a 56-7 early-season loss to Dallas in one of three big upsets on Sunday's schedule.

The Minnesota Vikings, triggered by Fran Tarkenton's clutch passing, stunned the Green Bay Packers 20-17 and the Pittsburgh Steelers, winless in their previous five games, shocked the Cleveland Browns 16-6.

St. Louis lost quarterback Charlie Johnson in the third quarter with a knee injury but held off New York 20-17, stretching its Eastern Division lead over Dallas to 1 1/2 games, and Baltimore, led by sharp-shooting Johnny Unitas, moved within one-half game of the Western Division-leading Packers by whipping Washington 37-19.

Elsewhere San Francisco trimmed Los Angeles 21-13 and Detroit played Chicago to a 10-10 standoff.

SEE SAW The Eagles spotted Dallas an early touchdown, tied the score on Brown's 93-yard burst, then fell behind 17-7 before Brown struck again. Martin's touchdown jaunt sent them ahead to stay less than a minute later.

Minnesota's Tarkenton completed 16 of 26 passes for 172 yards. His 58-yard third-down strike to Jim Phillips in the fourth quarter set up Bill Brown's one-yard dive for the winning touchdown. Brown also scored the other Viking TD on a one-yard run and Fred Cox booted a pair of field goals.

MORE UPSETS The loss was the Packers' second in nine games.

Ron Smith, Pittsburgh's rookie quarterback, marched the Steelers 80 yards late in the third quarter, completing four straight passes including an eight-yard payoff pitch to Gary Ballman that doomed Cleveland. Three field goals by Mike Clark completed the Steeler scoring.

An aroused Pittsburgh defense tossed Frank Ryan for five losses totaling 52 yards and intercepted five of his passes. Lou Groza missed the extra point kick following Cleveland's touchdown after converting 123 in a row.

Cleveland tackle Dick Modzelewski played in his 174th consecutive game, tying the NFL record set by Leo Nomellini of San Francisco three years ago.

OLD STORY The Cardinals, boosting their record to 7-1-1, came from behind in the second half on a 69-yard TD pass from Johnson to Jackie Smith, a seven-yard scoring toss from sub-quarterback Terry Nofsinger to Prentice Gautt and Jim Bakken's second field goal of the game.

Johnson hurt his right knee when he was knocked out of bounds picking up a first down that set up the second St. Louis touchdown. The Cardinals also lost center Bob DeMarco to a knee injury while the Giants played without quarterback Earl Morrall, who broke his right wrist in a dummy scrimmage Saturday afternoon.

UNITAS STILL HOT Unitas hit of 22 of 31 pass attempts for 344 yards and three touchdowns and Gary Cuozzo fired a fourth TD pass for the Colts, now 6-2. Lou Michaels completed the Baltimore scoring with three field goals.

Trent Decisions Cardinals, 28-6

HERMLEIGH — Deris Hutcherson scored twice and Larry Hellums once as Trent defeated Hermleigh, 28-6, here Saturday night in a District 4-B contest.

Trent TD in the first period on a 1-yard run. Payne then ran for the extra points. In the second, Hutcherson returned a pass interception 75 yards and Hellums ran for the 2 points.

Hellums from 5 yards out and Hutcherson from 6 yards finished the scoring for Trent.

that cost them crucial scores. "For the last three games we have had two or three big plays on which we could look back and say 'if we had made that one or if we hadn't done this or that, we could have won,'" he said.

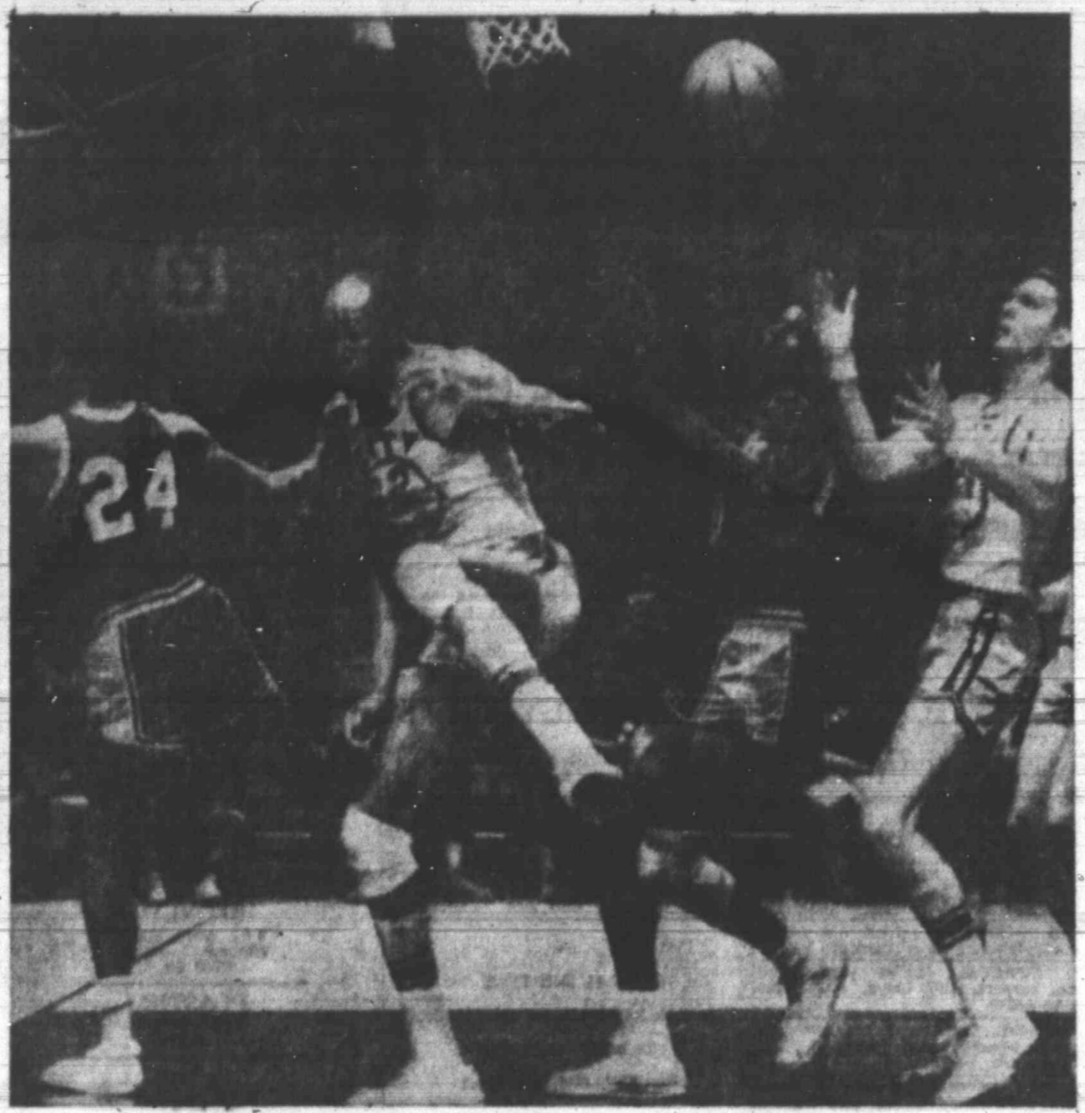

"We're going to work all week on trying to avoid these blunders and play 48 minutes of good, hard, nose-to-nose football."

Quarterback Gary Rogers, who left the game momentarily in the fourth quarter against Permian, was only bruised and will be ready to go. The rest of the team is in good shape physically, and Smith and his aides are hoping they will be equally as ready mentally.

They will have to be to stop Clapham, the big Odessa fullback. Until he got sick last year, Odessa didn't lose. He was out for the Big Spring game. But the Steers remember how Ronnie Peoples, as a split end, gave them misery. This year Ronnie is up to 187 pounds and runs from a half-back slot. Eddie Harris, Broncho quarterback is a bit short at 5-7, but he is a good ball handler and passes fairly well in the clutch. Odessa specializes on power sweeps and hard-nose play-off tackle.

It won't be easy, but Smith figures that the Big Spring Steers can get back in the win column and at least break even in conference play if they will avoid those two or three plays

Southern Methodist will be aiming at the Cotton Bowl Saturday when it clashes with Arkansas in the big showdown of Southwest Conference football.

The way they figure it on the hilltop, the Mustangs will clinch the Cotton Bowl spot with a victory over the Razorbacks even if they lose their remaining two games—unless Texas Christian is the only other team to win its remaining games, including a decision over Southern Methodist.

COULD GET BID

If Southern Methodist should wind up with a 5-2 record and the Arkansas and Texas for the title, SMU would get the Cotton Bowl spot, because of having beaten the two teams that tied it for the championship.

If Texas Christian should replace Texas in the list and had beaten Southern Methodist, SMU still would get the Cotton Bowl bid by virtue of having been in the bowl game the farthest back.

600,000 Sooners Due To Cast Votes

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—More than 600,000 Oklahoma voters are expected to turn out Tuesday to decide whether to elect another Republican governor or return a Democrat to the chief executive's mansion in what could be one of the closest races in state history.

Republican Dewey Bartlett, 47-year-old state senator from Tulsa, is trying to succeed Oklahoma's first GOP governor, Henry Bellmon. Democrat Preston Moore, a 46-year-old Oklahoma City attorney, is seeking to return his party to power. Election Board Secretary Basil Wilson predicts 600,000-650,000 voters will cast their ballots, but this could vary depending on the weather.

Also on the ballot in Oklahoma Tuesday will be a U.S. Senate race involving incumbent Democrat Fred R. Harris and Republican Pat J. Patterson, and six congressional races.

Harris, 35, served four terms in the state Senate before being elected two years ago to fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. Robert S. Kerr, D-Okla. Patterson, 45, an Oklahoma City attorney, is making his first statewide race.

Nixon Appears On TV Program

Former vice president Richard Nixon is interviewed in the television studios of the American Broadcasting Company yesterday in New York. Nixon attacked President John and Defense Secretary Robert McNamara as he continued the running fight he has had with the President since last Friday. (AP WIREPHOTO)

McNamara Called 'Political Stooge'

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon urges the American people to turn from President Johnson to Congress for new leadership and to fill Congress with "men who will stand up for the people when the President is wrong."

'POLITICAL FAKERY'
Nixon accused Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara of indulging in "political fakery" by making a pre-election announcement of a forthcoming slowdown in the dispatch of troops of Viet Nam.

He called the secretary "Lyndon Johnson's Charlie McCarthy, his political stooge" for flying to the political atmosphere of the LBJ-Ranch in Texas to say that next year's build-up would be less than the 200,000 men sent to Southeast Asia this year. McNamara also predicted a cut in draft quotas.

VIET HANDLING
Johnson, questioned by reporters in Texas, refused to renew his feud with the former vice president. It started Friday when the President said at a news conference that Nixon "doesn't serve his country well" by questioning Johnson's handling of the Viet Nam war.

Nixon called the President's remarks "cheap political demagoguery" on ABC-TV's "Issues and Answers" program Sunday. In a windup speech for the Republican party later on NBC-TV he called it "one of the most savage personal assaults ever leveled by the President of the United States against one of his political opponents."

RESPECTS LBJ
Although he hit out against the President and McNamara on the question and answer program, Nixon took a more studied approach on the campaign climax program.

Saying he understood Johnson was listening, Nixon told the President he had always respected him and still did. "My respect has not changed because of the personal attack you made on me," he said. He pledged that "despite our past disagreements, you have my complete support as you work for the cause of peace with freedom abroad and as we both work for the cause of progress through freedom at home."

Does anybody know what to do in Vietnam?

How do you answer that, if you're a Senator? If you've been there, it's a little easier. John Tower didn't have to go to Vietnam. He had every reason, but membership on the Armed Services Committee doesn't demand it. He could have settled for one tour, but he went back. His hunch was right, there was more to learn. Insight, gained the hard way. But, Defense is a hard job; whether you're in uniform... or watching over the needs of those who are. John Tower went to Vietnam to look and listen. Long sessions with our boys, and the men who lead them, have given this Senator a better understanding of why we're there. He now understands more of what needs to be done. And, to do it, what we need more of... and when. John Tower is in a position to do something with what he learned. In committee, and on the Senate floor, he has worked to see that funds are being made available to win the war... urged support of the opinions of those in the field who know how to win it. And, through talks with our people, Texans now know why it's necessary to win. Junior Senator? (P.D. POL. ADV.)
