Space Champ Clicks Photos Outside Chariot

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Spacewalk champion Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. thrust head and shoulders out of a Gemini 12 door today and coolly clicked pictures of the sunrise, Milky Way and earth — the last adventure by a U.S. astronaut outside a space ship until 1968.

which was performed out of range from earth tracking stations with a minimum of conversation heard on the ground — lasted slightly longer than 40 minutes originally planned. "We've got a little leg room here for a change," command pilot James A. Lovell Jr. said, referring to the fact that Aldrin had dumped unneeded equipment overboard while the hatch was open. "KEEP SPACE CLEAN" "Keep space clean," mission control center said. "NORAD will have a fit keeping track of all those bits and pieces," Lovell quipped. NORAD is the North American Defense Command, which keeps track of all orbiting objects. The pilots used more fuel than expected during Aldrin's time outside, cutting off plans to remain outside over the United States to photograph terrain. "That was a pretty expensive EVA—extra vehicular activity—in the way of fuel," reported Lovell.

"We used 20 to 25 per cent." The space agency said Aldrin's hatch opened about 9:53 a.m. (EST) and closed 52 minutes later. While outside, however, Aldrin successfully photographed stars and terrain features. The "space stand" boosted his record space exposure time to 5 1/2 hours. '68 NEXT WALK The next U.S. space walk is not scheduled until 1968 on the fourth manned earth-orbital flight planned in America's (See SPACE, P. 6-A, C. 6)

Accused Of Mass 'Executions'

Robert B. Smith, 18, a Mesa, Ariz., high school senior, had these expressions after his arrest following the mass-killing of four young women and a child at Mesa Saturday. Police said Smith told them he had planned for some time to kill a group of people. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Accused Killer Wanted Publicity

MESA, Ariz. (AP) — A quite young man who felt nobody cared for him was under psychiatric care today, after the pistol killing of four women and a little girl because he "wanted to see the headlines with my name in them before I die."

Robert Benjamin Smith, 18, who told police his violent outburst Saturday morning, in a burst beauty college was inspired by recent mass killings in Chicago and Austin, Tex., remained in Maricopa County jail, scheduled for intensive psychiatric study and treatment before his Dec. 15 preliminary hearing on five counts of murder.

MISSING PIECES Mesa police continued to fill in missing pieces of the youth's bizarre explanation for the slaying of strangers. A justice of the peace hoped to impanel a coroner's jury today. The dead were patrons or employees of the Rose-Mar College of Beauty, where Smith ordered five women and two children to lie in a circle on the floor, heads together, then walking around the circle, laughing and firing repeatedly with a .22 pistol at the backs of their heads.

TWO SURVIVORS Dead are Joyce Sellers, 27, a customer and the wife of an elder of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints (Mormon), the dominant religion in this city of 50,000; Deborah Sellers, 3, her daughter; Mary Margaret Olsen, 18, beauty college student and fiancée of Mrs. Sellers' brother-in-law; Glenda Carter, 13, also a student beautician; and Carol Farmer, 19, a customer and wife of an Air Force man stationed in Alaska.

The two survivors are Bonita Sue Harris, 18, a third student beautician, who suffered head and arm wounds, and Tamara Lynn Sellers, 3-month-old daughter of Mrs. Sellers. Tamara, victim of a minor arm wound and a skull fracture, was found sobbing under her mother's body. Both Miss Harris and Tamara were reported in satisfactory condition.

'A LONER' Police said Smith, described by schoolmates as "a loner" and a "strange and different" boy, offered no resistance when police burst into the shop. Told of his right to remain silent, officers said the youth nonetheless gave a lengthy statement. He said in the statement: "He had planned for three months, since his parents gave him a target pistol, to commit a mass murder. He had "cased" several likely looking places, and selected the beauty college because there would be more people there.

'BEFORE I DIE' — He got the idea from the slaying of eight student nurses in Chicago and the sniper killings in Austin which left 16 dead. — If his mother and 5-year-old sister Lisa had walked in during

Two Held After Man Shot Fatally

LAMESA (SC) — A 50-year-old Latin American was found shot to death early today near Weaver Camp, apparently as the result of a scuffle involving several other men. Dawson County Sheriff Shorty Hancock said he received a call at 2:45 a.m. about the incident and drove out to the camp. Two men are being held for questioning, he said.

B52 Bombers Strike Back At Viet Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — B52 bombers struck back today at North Vietnamese troops which inflicted heavy casualties on a U.S. infantry company near the Cambodian border.

The giant Stratoforts, in one of three raids, hammered at North Vietnamese concentrations 16 miles northwest of the Plei Djereng U.S. Special Forces camp. This was near the area where an estimated 500 North Vietnamese regulars attacked a company — 178 men — of the U.S. 25th Infantry Division Sunday.

A U.S. spokesman said the infantry company suffered heavy casualties in the initial Communist assault of a battle that lasted 1 1/2 hours. He said 26 North Vietnamese were killed.

71 MISSIONS Elsewhere, only small and sporadic skirmishes were reported as the ground war lapsed into a lull. Over North Viet Nam, bad weather limited U.S. air blows again Sunday.

American pilots flew only 71 bombing missions, well below the daily average. The strikes all were in the southern portion of North Viet Nam and five missions hit at Communist positions inside the demilitarized zone.

The battle around the Plei Djereng Green Beret camp, 230 miles north of Saigon, was one of three clashes Sunday involving U.S. 25th division troops.

CONTACT SNAPPED In the first, a company of infantrymen engaged a platoon of North Vietnamese 18 miles west of Plei Djereng and reported killing eight in a 25-minute fire fight. Two hours later, the same company engaged an enemy battalion in the biggest encounter of the day.

The North Vietnamese broke contact only after the U.S. force brought up ground reinforcements and called in air strikes and heavy artillery barrages. Although the U.S. company took heavy casualties in the initial contact a U.S. spokesman said over-all casualties for the full engagement were light.

In the third clash, lasting only five minutes, another company of the 25th reported killing five North Vietnamese 12 miles northwest of Plei Djereng. The company had no casualties, the U.S. spokesman said.

27 CAPTURED Units of the U.S. 1st Infantry Division reported capturing 27 Viet Cong Sunday in scattered skirmishes in War Zone C during Operation Attleboro.

While contact was light in this operation 65 miles northwest of Saigon, the U.S. infantrymen uncovered 358 tons of rice 15 miles east of Tay Ninh City Sunday and 31 tons today.

Tay Ninh Province has long been a Viet Cong stronghold and U.S. troops in the past week's fighting have identified the enemy force as the 9th Viet Cong division plus a regiment of North Vietnamese regulars.

Held In Baby Abduction

Mrs. Susan Douglas, 29, arrested for questioning in the kidnapping of an infant boy from a Denver hospital. The baby was returned safely last night. No charges have been filed. Detective Jack Groginsky said Mrs. Douglas told him she lost a baby in September. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Kidnaped Baby Safely Returned

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — A 41-hour search by police and FBI agents for a kidnaped baby ended happily Sunday with the safe return of the 3-day-old child to his parents.

The husky son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bacon of Denver was abducted early Saturday morning from a fourth-floor nursery at Colorado General Hospital.

Police are holding Susan Douglas, 29, of Denver, for investigation of kidnaping. Detective Jack Groginsky said the woman, after being advised of her rights, admitted taking the child.

NO CHARGE No charges have been filed. Police will discuss the case with Denver Dist. Atty. Bert Keating today.

Young Man Robs Kerrville Bank

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — A clean-cut appearing young man walked into the First National Bank about 11:05 a.m. Monday, handed a holdup note to a woman teller and escaped with $3,000.

Bank officials said the robber walked up to the window operated by Mrs. Don Hill, handed her a handwritten note saying "This is a holdup," and ordered her to put the money in her cage into a bag.

Mrs. Hill told the man she did not have a bag, and he told her to hand over the bundled bills. He was carrying his left hand inside a khaki jacket.

Mrs. Hill said she handed the man about $2,000 in $5 bills and $1,000 in $1 bills. The man stuffed the money inside the jacket and calmly walked out the door.

He fled the scene in a 1961 blue and white Chevrolet which was found abandoned about an hour later on a street near the west city limits by Ranger L. H. Purvis. The Ranger said it appeared another car had been parked where the stolen car was found.

Sheppard Fails To Take Stand; Defense Rests

Sam Quizzed Three Days Back In '54

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — The defense rested its case in the Samuel H. Sheppard murder retrial today without putting the 42-year-old defendant on the stand.

Sheppard testified for three days during his first trial. The end of the defense presentation, begun last Wednesday, came abruptly at the lunchtime recess. The trial is beginning its fourth week, although selection of a jury took from Oct. 24 through Oct. 31.

Dr. Charles Elkins of Tucson, Ariz., was on the stand most of the morning and told of examining the defendant a few hours after Sheppard's first wife, Marilyn, was murdered on July 4, 1954. He said "it would have been most difficult" for Sheppard to have inflicted on himself the injuries Elkins found that morning.

SMALL FRACTURE Elkins said when he examined Sheppard at Bay View Hospital a few hours after the slaying of Marilyn Sheppard, he found "absence of reflexes, on the left side primarily."

"I thought there was a small chip fracture discernible on X-rays" taken July 4 and inspected by Elkins July 6, he testified. Elkins denied telling Coroner Samuel R. Gerber he found nothing wrong with Sheppard. Gerber testified a week ago that Elkins told him "he didn't think Sheppard was badly hurt . . . he told me very definitely this man was not hurt."

A month after the slaying Elkins said he examined Sheppard again at Cuyahoga County Jail.

CHANGED MIND "I believe his reflexes had now returned. I sort of changed my mind. I thought it might have been a concussion rather than a contusion because of the rapidity of recovery." A contusion is more serious, Elkins explained.

F. Lee Bailey, chief defense counsel, asked Elkins whether Sheppard's injuries could have been self-inflicted. "I think it would be most difficult for an individual to self-inflict this type of injury," Elkins replied.

Sheppard spent three days on the stand in 1954 telling his story of what happened July 4, 1954, when his first wife, Marilyn, was bludgeoned to death in the couple's lakefront home in suburban Bay Village.

He forecast a more united Democratic party and a strengthened GOP. Johnson did indicate he would be very mindful of increased Republican strength in readying proposals for the 1967 Congress. "I would anticipate we will be very careful in our preparation of our recommendations," he said, "and we will try to enlist the support of both parties. I don't anticipate any great trouble."

STANDING PLACE The President, meeting with newsmen after attending Sunday services at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church in Fredericksburg, announced in a separate statement that Bethesda was selected for his surgery because

Kidnap Target

Johanna Carter, 22, above, Miss South Africa, and the other 52 contestants in the Miss World contest were being shown England's Cambridge University last night when nine students tried to kidnap her. Her escort hit them with his umbrella and a Miss World contest official punched one in the face. Then the nine, all believed to be South Africans, fled. It was a part of the university rag week, an annual spree during which students try to raise money for charity. The nine planned to hold Miss Carter for ransom. (AP WIREPHOTO)

TWO BOXES CANVASSED

Errors Fail To Change Results

First box checked — Precinct No. 2 — in today's canvass of the votes in last Tuesday's general election changed the totals in the one closely contested race downward — for each candidate.

Ray Nichols, incumbent Democratic county commissioner, who led Winston Wrinkle, his Republican opponent, by eight votes in the figures announced Tuesday night, lost 10 votes in a recheck of Precinct 2 totals in that race.

So did Wrinkle. The net result was to reduce the total vote for each candidate in the race and in no way change the final outcome. Recheck of Box No. 3 brought about no further change in vote totals. The figures reported on election night tallied with those on the sheets.

The County Commissioners' Court, making the canvass, recessed operations at noon and resumed at 1 p.m. There were still 18 regular boxes and the absentee vote to go over before the final results would be known.

The count in Box 2, it was said, varied in nearly every race and in the totals on the amendments. The vote totals were different when the canvass had been made, but in no race was there enough difference to change any result.

Precinct 2, which was the final box to report on election day—finally showing up at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday—was the only box checked so far which involves the county commissioner race for Commissioner Precinct 2.

Fisher, county Democratic chairman; Dr. Akla Simpson, Republican county chairman; Billy Tune, Democratic candidate for Commissioner Precinct 4, who also had a Republican opponent. Bill Sheppard, who opposed Tune, did not run as close a race as did Wrinkle, so it is not thought possible an upset could develop in the recount of the votes in the boxes in that precinct.

Carr Rips Yarborough

AUSTIN (AP) — Waggoner Carr, defeated candidate for the U.S. Senate from Texas, today sharply criticized Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., for his role in the Nov. 8 election.

Carr, a Democrat, lost the election by nearly 200,000 votes to the incumbent, Sen. John Tower, R-Tex. Carr, in a statement to "keep the record straight," said: "I have heard, with considerable surprise, Senator Yarborough's post election statement placing the blame on others for this Democratic loss."

"Only Senator Yarborough stood alone among the Democratic leaders, from the White House to the court house, in professing support while working actively undercover in behalf of the Republican party."

"Senator Yarborough should now be man enough to admit the truth that he actively worked against our party so that he could remain as Texas' only Democratic senator. "We know who our friends were this year, and we shall not forget."

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Murphy of Luther are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Maudella Jane, to James Samuel Smelser, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smelser, 104 Jefferson. The couple is planning a Dec. 22 wedding at the Wesley Methodist Church. The Rev. Jarrell Sharp will officiate.

A LOVELIER YOU

Model Sizes Depend On Height, Exercises

By MARY SUE MILLER
It is said that one woman in a thousand has perfect leg measurements. The other 999 wish they had!

But most wishers have no exact idea of what those measurements are. Honestly now, do you? Unless you do, you can't hope for success in reducing or building up the legline or any part thereof. For model proportions are an individual matter. Measurements come out the same only for women of the same height and bony structure. To calculate your own, take these steps:

1. Measure height without heels and ankles around widest area. 2. Locate height on chart below, and note ankle measurement alongside.
- | Height | Ankle |
|----------------|---------|
| 5' 0" to 5' 3" | 7 1/2" |
| 5' 4" to 5' 6" | 8" |
| 5' 7" to 5' 9" | 8 1/2" |
| over 5' 10" | 9" plus |

Consider ankle measure perfect for you, if your bony structure is average, but add 1 inch if large-boned; for small bones, subtract 1 inch.

3. Mid-calf should measure 5 inches more than ankle, knee 1 inch more than calf, thigh 5 inch more than knee. For heights over 5' 10", add 1/4 inch to totals for each inch of height. Plainly, a model legline is a matter of proportion. Your own!

LEGLINE TRIMMERS
If your individual problem is heavy legs, send for my new leaflet, "Legline Trimmers," which contains spot reducing exercises that will meet your individual needs, whether for thighs, knees, calves or ankles, or for contouring your entire legline. Write Mary Sue Miller in care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover handling.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Ingenuity Used For Ironing Twill Pants

Dear Heloise:

Here is a real time and work-saver for gals like me who have to starch and iron those cotton twill uniforms or any type of starched trousers.

I wash my husband's trousers as usual, and put them on trouser creasers — being sure to have the seams together.

I then hang them on the line and get my trusty can of spray starch and spray the legs (while thoroughly damp) on both sides of the crease with as heavy or as light a starch as I desire.

When I take them off the line, I remove the creasers and the legs are beautifully starched and creased.

Then, all it takes is just a minute or two, and a few more sprays of starch to complete the top of the trousers at the ironing board. . . . Bettis! Outland

Folks, Bettis is right about spraying the trousers while they are still thoroughly damp. The fibers of the twill cloth are soaked through after washing. The starch soaks in better this way. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise: I discovered a new use for the bassinet which my baby has outgrown.

I purchased a small baby seat in a department store, placed it in the bassinet, and secured it firmly.

Since it is adjustable, I can set it any position. It can be wheeled from room to room, and baby can see all that is going on. . . . Mrs. Robert Wilson

Dear Heloise: As a young mother, one of my many problems is how to get fruit juice stains out of my small child's clothes.

I have washed them every way I know how but the juice stains will not come out.

Can you help me? . . . A Mother (Write Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

Battle Crosses Up U. S. Plans

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The battle of Tay Ninh Province set back a major U.S. effort to clean out Viet Cong guerrillas near Saigon.

Nearly half the combat battalions of the 1st Infantry Division had been wheeled into position for the big pacification campaign. Some operations had been mounted just outside the Vietnamese capital.

Then elements of the Viet Cong 9th Division, a main force outfit, opened major attacks in Tay Ninh Province about 60 miles northwest of Saigon. The 1st Division had to rush to the critical battleground.

Prince Charles Gets Pay Hike

LONDON (AP) — Prince Charles, the heir to Britain's throne, came of age today without royal fanfare. It was school as usual on his 18th birthday.

Britons openly speculated that he may be 60 or older before he reaches the throne. His mother, Queen Elizabeth II, is only 40 and in good health.

The birthday meant a raise for Charles because he will be taking on more and more royal duties. He has received an unspecified amount of pocket money in the past but now he goes on the state payroll at $84,000 a year.

'BRIAR PATCH'

Only a few hours before the Tay Ninh battle erupted Nov. 3, senior officers of the 1st Division told a newsman the VC 9th had been "pushed back into the briar patch" along the Cambodian border.

The 1st Division could concentrate on "grinding up the guerrillas" as close as five miles from Saigon, these officials said.

The VC 9th crossed up the American plans.

PACIFICATION

The U.S. plan — which probably will be carried out after the Tay Ninh battle ends — calls for four battalions of the 1st Division to do pacification work.

The object of the intensified drive to break down the Viet Cong organization or infrastructure in the villages near Saigon and lessen the enemy's hold

Texan Forced To Bail Out

SAIGON (AP) — Air Force Maj. Lacy W. Breckenridge, 35, of Lufkin, Tex., dangled from his parachute in a tree 150 feet above the North Vietnamese ground.

Seconds before, he had completed his third bombing run on a target but his plane was hit by ground fire and he was forced to bail out, the Air Force said today.

Breckenridge freed himself from the chute and climbed higher in the tree. Helicopter rescue was under way, he learned on his survival radio.

"I finally chose to stay in the tree because my chute was visible from the air and I was well hidden in the top by thick branches, vines and leaves," Breckenridge recalled.

The downdraft from the rescue helicopter swayed the pilot's perch violently but Breckenridge safely clambered the rescue hoist.

Bride Prices Soar In Primitive Areas

NEW YORK (AP) — Those Solomon Islands, the price of a bride has gone up to at least 10 feather coils and specialists have taken control of the whole business from the bird catching to putting a price on a coil.

UP AND UP

In "primitive areas of the world, principally remote regions of Africa and Oceania, brides are still purchased with aged-old mediums of exchange. And just about everywhere the price has gone up — and up.

A study of this practice, along with a collection of money, goes on display today in an exhibit called "The Price of a Bride" at the Chase Manhattan money museum at Sixth Avenue and 50th Street.

MORE HE PAYS

For the most part wife-buying is now symbolic and the cowrie shells, feather coils, porpoise teeth, Yap stones and all the rest becomes status symbols for the bride's family, said Caroline Harris, director of the money museum.

"We were curious to know the amount the young 20th century tribesman must pay to secure a dutiful, hard-working wife," said Mrs. Harris. "We found

Court Upholds Trespass Law

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today that Florida can declare their trespass statute against those refusing to obey a sheriff's order to remove themselves from what amounted to the curtilage (yard) of the jail house.

of the United States prevents Florida from even-handed enforcement of its general trespass statute against those refusing to obey a sheriff's order to remove themselves from what amounted to the curtilage (yard) of the jail house.

Significantly, the majority opinion was written by Justice Hugo Black, recognized protector of free speech guarantees.

In this instance Black said, as the court upheld the trespass convictions of 32 Negroes who demonstrated outside the county jail in Tallahassee:

"Nothing in the Constitution which it is lawfully dedicated." In concluding his opinion, Black declared again: "The United States Constitution does not forbid a state to control the use of its own property for its own lawful non-discriminatory purpose."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation #20. At all drug counters.

Khrushchev Backer Dies

MOSCOW (AP) — Nikola G. Ignatov, one of the Soviet Communist party's top leaders under Nikita Khrushchev, died today. He was 64. The brief announcement listed no cause of death.

At the time of his death Ignatov was president of giant Russian Federation, the largest of the Soviet republics. This post made him one of the 15 vice-presidents of the Soviet Union. Both positions were largely ceremonial and gave him little political power.

A staunch Khrushchev supporter, Ignatov rose to the top levels of the Soviet Communist party and government, then fell without explanation to the more honorary posts.

Local Residents' Mother Dies

Mrs. L. L. Thomas, mother of Mrs. C. W. Utley, 905 E. 14th, and of J. C. Thomas, 3301 Auburn, died Sunday night in a hospital at Brownwood. Mrs. Thomas resided at Blanket, Tex. Funeral arrangements had not been announced here. The Davis - Morris Funeral Home of Brownwood will have charge.

ARLINGTON, Tex. (AP)—Arlington State College's Academic Council has approved organization of national fraternities and sororities and political clubs on the campus, Dr. Robert J. Dollar, dean of student life, said.

Prof. Jack Boon was named chairman of a committee to set up guidelines and organizational procedures for the clubs.

Thanksgiving Service At Webb Chapel

For the first time, the community's annual Thanksgiving service will be held in the chapel at Webb Air Force Base. The traditional service, sponsored by the Big Spring Pastors Association, will start at 9:45 a.m. and last one hour.

"Big Spring area residents will have an opportunity to see Webb's attractive chapel and worship with military personnel and their families; and at the same time, base personnel may hear and meet pastors from the city who will participate in the service," said Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Robert T. Deming, wing chaplain at the base.

Chaplain Deming, the Rev. Byron Orand, pastor of College Baptist Church, and the Rev. Jarrel H. Sharp, pastor of Wesley Methodist, are working out details of the Nov. 24 worship hour. The full program will be announced following a meeting of the Pastors Association this week.

Bomb Blasted Ship Anchors

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A tanker, with its captain and a motorman dead and seven other crewmen injured from a time bomb explosion, anchored early today off Astoria, Ore. where a search was made for other bombs.

A demolition team from the Naval Ammunition Depot at Bangor, Wash., was flown to Astoria to search the tanker. The team was summoned after a Columbia River pilot taken aboard outside the mouth of the river reported another device resembling a bomb had been found in the master's cabin, and the crew thought there might be more aboard.

The 535-foot Liberian vessel, the Grand Integrity, was off the Oregon coast Sunday, headed to South Korea from Longview, Wash., when the bomb which killed the captain, Ho Lien-sin, and the motorman, Chu Yung-ye, exploded.

The Coast Guard said it had reports from the tanker that the bomb which killed the two men was found in the engine room and the captain had it carried on deck and was photographing it when it exploded.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AQ10754 ♥KJ95 ♠752

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ 1 NT Dble. 3 ♦

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. You have a minimum opening and despite the fact that partner has shown distinct values by doubling one no trump, it would be poor strategy on your part to take voluntary action which would show a hand with considerable excess values. Partner should have the next say.

Q. 2—As South, not vulnerable, you hold:
♠J10 ♥AQJ10 ♦Q5 ♠J10743

The bidding has proceeded:
East South West North
Pass Pass Pass 1 ♠
Pass 2 ♣ Pass 2 ♠
Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Two no trump. This hand contains 11 points in high cards and you should certainly make one more try since your values are distributed in all four suits. If partner bids three spades, call it a day. A three heart bid is not recommended.

Q. 3—As South, not vulnerable, you hold:
♠AK10 ♥AQ983 ♦842 ♠Q5

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♣ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Two hearts. This hand is not eligible as a two no trump rebid because it lacks a stopper in diamonds. Valued at hearts, this hand is worth 16 points which places it at the top of the minimum range.

Q. 4—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A92 ♥J10943 ♦1054 ♠J

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♠ Pass Pass 1 ♠
1 ♠ Pass 2 ♣ 3 ♣
Dble. Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Your hand has little in the way of defensive values. As a matter of fact the only trick taking possibility you have is the ace of spades which may duplicate tricks your partner expected to win. It seems improbable that the three club contract can be defeated when you recall that partner passed originally in self-defense you should return to three spades.

Q. 5—You are vulnerable, have a part score of 70 and hold:
♠AKJ9652 ♥A64 ♦K5 ♠6

What is your opening bid?
A.—I would be inclined to relax the standard requirements for two bids in this case. There is too much likelihood that partner even with definite values will take no action over a one spade bid which "put you out" and a slam may be missed. An opening bid of two spades is recommended, with the suggestion that you tread lightly after that.

Q. 6—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠9853 ♥Q109 ♦AK3 ♠A5

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
3 ♣ Dble. Pass ?

What do you bid?
A.—Slam possibilities should not be overlooked with this powerful hand, and the way to start probing is by a cue bid of four clubs. Your next step will depend upon partner's action at this point.

Q. 7—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠3 ♥KJ97432 ♦J3 ♠J52

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♦ Pass 1 ♥ Pass
3 ♣ Pass 3 ♥ Pass
3 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—With this hand you have but one story—hearts, and the suggested call at this point is four hearts. If partner wishes to go to five clubs he is at liberty to do so but, we would rather string along at this point with a seven card suit.

Q. 8—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AK875 ♥2 ♦QJ5 ♠K763

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1 ♥ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
3 ♣ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Our choice is for a temporary bid of four clubs. That the hand will surely make at least six clubs there can be no doubt, but by proceeding slowly we may obtain sufficient information upon which to base a grand slam effort. Giving immediate club support is preferable to a rebid of the spades.

When you love your work, it shows.

And we love our work. So much so that we couldn't bear to stop with the slickest-looking split grille ever to grace a Wide-Track. (Or any other car, for that matter.) We went ahead and made the windshield wipers disappear. The car not only looks cleaner, but the wipers are less subject to icing and freezing, too.

Then we got rid of the vent windows on all Grand Prix hardtops. We replaced them with finely monogrammed and a flow-through ventilation system.

We even designed a rather unique hood-mounted tachometer option that's available on all Pontiacs. As are our other bright new options like our eight-track stereo tape player and AM-FM Stereo-Multiplex radio. And, of course, our hand-some interiors have to be seen to be believed. All Pontiacs have standard safety features that include a dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, outside rearview mirror, and GM's energy absorbing steering column.

Isn't it time you decided to see your Pontiac dealer? If you love our work the way we do, it's the least you can do.

Another Korean Front?

Our experts in the Department of State and the Department of Defense must still be searching for an explanation of two border incidents in Korea while President Johnson was in that country.

In one incident six American soldiers and a South Korean were killed in an ambush just south of the demilitarized zone. In another, involving a clash between South Koreans and infiltrators from the North, one North Korean was killed.

The simplest explanation would be that North Koreans were trying to embarrass the President and his South Korean hosts who were meeting 30 miles away.

An obvious possibility is that North Korea may be planning to reopen the war there. But reconnaissance fails to reveal any unusual movement of troops or supplies into forward areas.

Whatever the ultimate explanation, the incidents serve to remind us that one of the ominous capabilities of North Korea and Red China is the opening of a second Asian front in Korea. Although the Korean operation is supposedly directed by the United Nations, the brunt of the hot war and of the prolonged armistice has been borne by the United States. If the war was reopened, the United States would be strained severely to meet its commitments in Viet Nam and in Korea.

Moderate Republicans Gain

One nationally significant fact to emerge from last Tuesday's congressional and state elections was the impressive comeback of moderate and progressive Republicans to a challenging position for GOP leadership after the 1964 Goldwater debacle.

This apparently presages a likely bid for control of the 1968 Republican presidential nominating convention by the moderate Republicans who were smothered in San Francisco two years ago. If so, the Republican Party may be expected to field a national ticket in 1968 that can provide a real challenge to the virtually certain Johnson-Humphrey Democratic ticket.

There was one big exception to this general trend, conservative Republican Ronald Reagan's gubernatorial victory in the key state of California. There were lesser exceptions, such as conservative segregationist Republican Claude R. Kirk Jr.'s winning the governorship of Florida. And a number of conservative incumbents were re-elected. This suggests that the moderate Republicans' national leadership comeback in 1968 may involve a serious struggle.

But the list of progressive moderate Republican victories is long and unquestionably impressive. Among the outstanding ones were Charles H. Percy to the Senate from Illinois, Gov. Mark Hatfield to the Senate from Oregon, Attorney General Edward W. Brooke to the Senate from Massachusetts, Sen. Robert P. Griffin to the governorship of Michigan, Winthrop Rockefeller to the governorship of Arkansas, Spiro T. Agnew to the governorship of Maryland, Howard H. Baker to the Senate from Tennessee, and Raymond P. Shafer to the governorship of Pennsylvania.

Impressive in the trend, too, were the re-election victories of Gov. George Romney of Michigan, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York, Gov. John H. Chaffee of Rhode Island, and Sens. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky and Clifford Case of New Jersey. The GOP also sent some of a promising new breed of young progressive moderate Republicans to the House.

Consequently the pattern of the expected Republican mid-term comeback as a real challenger in the two-party system seems definitely to favor a trend away from the temporary Goldwater conservative dominance to a restoration of a more middle-of-the-road constructive national party leadership.

John Cunniff Business Not So Fond Of LBJ

NEW YORK (AP)—Clouds have formed and a few lightning bolts have struck in that once sunny friendship between American business and the man who courted it, President Johnson.

Perhaps the romance was doomed from the start, some observers speculate. They say the economy was becoming so torrid under clear economic skies that a little rain was needed to dampen things.

Remember the months immediately after Johnson's ascendancy? More than one industrialist was quoted as saying, "We have a man in the White House who understands business."

BOTH JOHNSON and business were in a euphoric mood. The tax cut was having its warming effect on both the seat of federal government and the board rooms. Incomes were rising, including the government's.

The relationship was referred to as a partnership, and more and more this partnership was called "creative federalism," a concept that envisaged the government joining with private groups toward the goal of improving America.

But along with this, federal activity continued to rise. The Federal Trade Commission, the Justice Department and the President's Council of Economic Advisors played active roles in regulating business.

THE BIGGEST surprise to business came when it realized the voluntary guideposts — limits on prices and wages — had a great deal of federal power behind them. Consensus had become control, they cried.

Price rollbacks occurred in aluminum, copper and steel, enforced by the administration through a call to patriotism, by threats to unload government stockpiles, by the fear of further regulation, by threats to rescind government orders.

Many businessmen holed up when their own companies were defied price increases that the government deemed inflationary.

STRAINS shivered through each position. Perhaps because of their very natures, government and business found themselves often on opposite sides. And inflation threatened.

The big question by early 1966 was how to handle the inflation; by cutting government spending or increasing taxes? Either would lessen demands on the economy, which was showing signs of overheating.

The administration did neither at first. This as many businessmen view it, forced the Federal Reserve to step in with a dampener. It did so, by raising interest rates.

LATER, the administration suspended for 18 months a tax credit that business had grown fond of. And it promised to cut federal spending. The tax issue is still in the air, as are some interest rates.

Businessmen now are described as less decisive and certain. Many are waiting to see if the administration feels it should do something further about cooling the economy.

A more subtle change has occurred also. More and more, businessmen turn their senses towards Washington, although they try also to feel the pulse of activity at the state and local levels. This, some say, was reflected in conservatives being elected last week.

Government and business still are searching for the proper stance.

Billy Graham

Our minister says that "Christian Education" is the answer to today's problems. This sounds reasonable, and I wonder if you agree.

R.O.U.

It depends, of course, on your definition of "Christian Education." If it means the education of the mind without a change of heart, then I do not believe it is the answer to our problems. The meaningfulness of knowledge depends upon the use one can make of it. We know that one can be an educated criminal, or an educated useful citizen, depending upon what use we make of our knowledge. While I am a firm believer in education, I also believe that it can be used wrongly unless the heart is right.

When the Pharisees asked Jesus which was the greatest commandment, He said, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind." Notice, He put the "heart" before the "mind." The condition and attitude of our hearts enables us to make the best use of knowledge. But, having said that, I must remind you that Jesus' statement indicates that the "mind is important also. Christianity is not a 'cult of the stupid and unlearned.' Some of the keenest men of history have been notable Christians. They used their knowledge to build a strong faith. So, Christian education, in the Scriptural sense, implies the education of the whole man, heart, soul and mind. If the mind is developed to the exclusion of the heart, we may become educated fools.

James Marlow Republican Party Still Divided

WASHINGTON (AP)—Michigan Gov. George Romney, unwilling to say yet whether he will try for the Republican presidential nomination in 1968, has put his finger on his party's dilemma in these next two years.

The Republicans are not alone. In that same period, if they hope to win 1968, the Democrats will have to find a way to get out the stagnation that now besets them and just cost them seats in Congress and governorships.

They regained 47 House seats, giving them a total of 187, but the Democrats still run the show with a total of 248. Yet, all 435 House seats were at stake.

In the Senate the Republicans gained three seats, for a total of 33, while the Democrats, with 67, run the show. So much nationally. On the state level the Republicans did well, capturing eight governorships, for a total of 25.

But what the Republican party — as a national party — stands for is hard to say. They're still divided between intense conservatives, moderates, and liberals. One illustration has been provided in a hurry.

GOLDWATER also appeared Sunday on television, on ABC's "Issues and Answers," and was pretty cool about the idea Romney might head the party in 1968.

Hal Boyle Cost Of Sleep Soars

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

In these inflationary times even the cost of sleeping is going up. Americans now spend $38 million a year on sleeping pills and potions.

Fat does run in families, just as most of us have suspected for some time. A scientific study of 1,000 fatties found that 73 per cent had at least one obese parent.

Wouldn't you like to live in Japan? Men retire there at the age of 55. The catch is that the average annual income in Japan is only $670 a year.

Most men probably would prefer to be a steeplejack than drive a nitrogen truck for a living. But the steeplejack's job is actually three times as risky.

QUOTEABLE NOTABLES: "It is desperation, not love, that makes the world go round." — Author Thomas Merton in "Confessions of a Guilty Bystander."

ODD LEGISLATION: An old law in Kansas forbade the eating of rattlesnake meat in public — or the eating of any snake on Sunday.

MAN AND MOUSE: Man, if you're like a mouse, you'd better beware strenuous weekend exertions after five sedentary days in the office swivel chair. Researchers have found that mice subjected to sudden and unusual exercise developed more heart disease than those which were exercised regularly.

There has been a marked change in the typical drug addict, according to U.S. authorities. A generation ago he was a 40-year-old Southerner who took morphine. Today he is a 27-year-old New Yorker who uses heroin.

There is no rush in correcting it, since it may not cause trouble. The tissue can always be snipped later if necessary.

Dear Dr. Molner: You mentioned a new anti-fungus drug. Can you repeat it? I have tried older drugs but without success for fungus-infected nails. —MRS. C. B.

It is Ichnafate ("Tinactin solution") and while there is no drug which will conquer all types of fungus, this one is a valuable weapon. It is successful against some fungi which have resisted treatment heretofore. The drug is obtainable only by prescription.

What are ulcers? How should they be treated? What can you do to help rid yourself of ulcers and stay rid of them? To Your Good Health Troubles Occurring After Ulcer Surgery

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: I had duodenal ulcers for 20 years. I finally had a pyloroplasty and now have colitis. It is very discouraging to have traded ulcers for colitis—a bad trade. Can you explain this? —MRS. A.R.

Pyloroplasty (surgery on the pylorus, or outlet of the stomach) can become necessary if scarring or other action of ulcers causes an obstruction, but despite your experience, colitis is not necessarily the result.

Ulcers and colitis are different ailments. People of certain personality types (energetic, high-tensioned) are more likely to have one of these problems, and sometimes both. It may indeed be that you have traded one for the other. I say may.

You should consult your doctor for further examination, including X-rays, to make sure precisely what is the problem, and whether you have real colitis (irritability or inflammation of the colon).

A low-residue diet and certain sedative medicines may help the condition—along with whatever you can do for yourself in trying to lead a calmer, more relaxed life. But if you have been struggling with ulcers for 20 years, I suspect that you haven't had much success in that direction.

Another consideration suggests itself. You may have had too more than just the pyloroplasty, which does not in itself result in other disorders. Possibly part of your stomach was removed, too. In such an instance, a patient may develop a "dumping" syndrome.

That is, with the stomach being smaller, food may rush rapidly through to the bowel, producing discomfort and symptoms which may be wrongly interpreted as colitis.

If this dumping is your true trouble, it can be alleviated by diet as well as sedation. But it is necessary to know which problem you really have before you can make headway in correcting it.

Dear Dr. Molner: Our six-month-old boy was born with what the doctor terms a "split tongue." A cord, attached to the end of the tongue, is connected to the lower gum, causing the end of the tongue to "dimple."

He recommends that it not be cut, and to leave it alone. We are worried that the child will never talk properly. What is your opinion? —X.

I grant that years ago doctors used to snip these cords in a hurry. Added study showed that sometimes it was not necessary because as the tongue grew, sufficient movement developed. It is, in short, a problem that has been evaluated by your doctors.

Around The Rim When Cranks Were Not Just Nuts

Back in the distant past, at the age when I was still petitioning my maternal parent for the privilege of going barefooted when the first warm spell came on (and invariably was turned down), one of the most chilling pieces of news that came my way was the one about the fellow who had broken his arm while turning an automobile crank.

THAT TYPE of mishap seemed to happen quite often and made me wonder if perhaps we hadn't been a little hasty in giving up the horse as a means of transportation to embrace the horseless carriage.

Oh, the horse sometimes would kick you, too, but only if you stood behind it. The car, on the other hand, was contrary at all times and always unpredictable.

Back in the distant past, at the age when I was still petitioning my maternal parent for the privilege of going barefooted when the first warm spell came on (and invariably was turned down), one of the most chilling pieces of news that came my way was the one about the fellow who had broken his arm while turning an automobile crank.

THAT TYPE of mishap seemed to happen quite often and made me wonder if perhaps we hadn't been a little hasty in giving up the horse as a means of transportation to embrace the horseless carriage.

Oh, the horse sometimes would kick you, too, but only if you stood behind it. The car, on the other hand, was contrary at all times and always unpredictable.

IT WAS QUITE a trick to turn an automobile crank back in those days, and some women developed the knack, along with a great deal of men. They had to, for that matter, if they wanted to go anywhere. The automobile wouldn't start any other way, unless you cared to park it on a rise and then gave it a shove down hill.

To start an automobile, you developed an ability to turn the right arm in a circular motion, all the while imploring the wife, the girl friend or who ever might be behind the wheel to use the spark and the gas sticks at precisely the right times and not to flood the engine.

CRANKING AN automobile in those days was much like cranking a phonograph, except that it was much harder to do. It did call for a lot of coaxing on the sidelines, however, because the chore had to be done outside and invariably someone would stop by and offer suggestions (but no physical relief).

The balky engines, however, would sometimes develop a reluctance to fire, in which case the crank would always fly back. You had to be mentally alert and physically fast to get your arm free of the threat, else you might grab the limb in great pain and limp off to see a doctor — after you had angrily tried to kick a hole through the radiator or thrown the crank through the windshield in a supreme show of disgust.

COME TO think of it, the crank was used for a lot of things in those days — to turn the ice cream freezer, arouse the telephone operator and roll down the car window, among other things.

My taste buds were undoubtedly better then, but the ice cream seemed to taste better in those days than it does now. But I would not give up the self starter on the automobile to go back to the automobile crank for all the tea in China.

Holmes Alexander Domestic Version Of Dreyfus Case

WASHINGTON — We have never had a Dreyfus case in this country, but the case of Otto Otepka has been hanging around for three years, and it is a disgrace to the national government.

I am going back to Otepka, a subject I thought I had exhausted, because of fresh inspiration and some added information. The information came at a small dinner party where one of the guests was a state department official.

"MOST Americans still don't know what has happened to this man. In a heavy-handed dictatorship, the obnoxious person is mysteriously removed from circulation. He is ruthlessly exiled or imprisoned, usually without a trial, and always without any real chance to appeal the sentence. He is kept out of sight while his life ebbs away. The American disposition of Otepka is more refined but not less cruel."

Otto Otepka, if you've forgotten, was the state department's top evaluator on security matters. He is a broad-shouldered, dark-visaged, serious-minded fellow of stubborn integrity, who takes the internal threat of the Communist conspiracy very seriously. Otepka also has the quaint concept of conscience that his oath to the country is higher than inner-office "loyalty" to his bureaucratic superiors.

HE GOT into trouble by jumping some channels at the state department and giving a classified document to a Senate committee which had encouraged him to do just that. Since then he has had little to do except to make pro forma appearances at his office for a few minutes a day, and then sent off to wander around town—his life, his expertise, his morale, ebbing away.

BACK IN 1955, the Under Secretary of State for President Eisenhower was Herbert Hoover Jr., a man of retiring and sensitive nature. Mr. Hoover was security-conscious as well as being publicity-shy, and so he made no noise about a commendation he gave Otepka on a matter of psychological warfare recruitment.

One evening Otepka was asked to stay after hours on a confidential matter. An urgent evaluation was needed on the security of a prominent person who was under consideration for the Operations Coordinating Board, a group of hush-hush operations. By working all night, Otepka produced a summary from CIA secret files which showed that the celebrity in question had been denied a position on a cold war strategy board because of "reservations" as to his "security reliability." The same CIA files showed the same person to have been ruled out for employment in the Secretariat of the Air Force.

OTEPKA finished his research at 2 a.m., finished typing his report at 4:30 and turned it over to Under Secretary Hoover at 8:30 the same morning. It was a delicate matter, involving a well-known personality, and Mr. Hoover acted with characteristic tact. He declined to make the appointment, took the trouble to commend Otepka, and consigned the matter to the file-and-forget cabinet.

TWICE MORE within the next five years the same name came up for an appointment, and twice more Otepka produced the same data. In 1961, under a new administration, he was overruled—and his decline and fall began.

It was ironic but, perhaps, inevitable. For now, Otepka is up against one of the obstacles that worked against Dreyfus. The state department, like the French Army, cannot admit that Otepka is innocent of wrongdoing without condemning its own mistake. And that, without a lot of help from the press and the public, the state department is not likely to do.

David Lawrence Conservative Liberalism

WASHINGTON — Despite the mathematical majority of 30 seats above the 218 mark which the Democrats have retained, the truth is that President Johnson has really lost control of the House of Representatives on many pivotal issues. His party's margin of 30 could be wiped out by anywhere from 50 to 70 Democrats from Southern states who have usually voted against the administration not merely on civil - rights questions, but on government-spending and issues involving the "Great Society."

THERE ARE, to be sure, from 10 to 20 Republicans in the House who regularly move over to the so-called "liberal" side, so the net deficiency would be 40 to 50 votes — enough to keep the President from getting a majority. To put it another way, Mr. Johnson may be able always to count on 185 Democrats and possibly 15 Republicans for a total of 200 votes. But the opposition could at times muster 235.

Precise figures are not available because many of the Democratic members of the House avoided voting altogether in the last session on certain issues that are politically perplexing. So some congressmen stayed away from Washington, and frequently as many as 100 members were absent. The reason for this was that many of the Democrats did not care to be recorded as against the President, and yet they did not want to see passed some of the legislation he was proposing.

THE SITUATION in the Senate is somewhat more favorable to the President but, again, an actual majority on highly controversial issues is in doubt.

Most of the opposition to the President in the last session of Congress was related to the spending programs. Members did not want to antagonize the White House, but they avoided voting on issues which would commit the government to larger expenditures. Incidentally, much of the legislation for the "Great Society" program is in the form of "authorizations," and the actual appropriation of the funds has not yet been made. It is in this category of legislation that the President will find it hard to command a majority in the House or Senate.

UNION LABOR, too, is finding itself in difficulties. Some estimates show that labor has lost nearly 50 of its supporters in the House. A United Press International survey reveals that at least 184 members of the House endorsed by the AFL-CIO committee won election. But this is 34 votes less than a majority. The labor unions supported 332 candidates for the House, including 14 Republicans, but 148 lost.

ALL THIS indicates that there will be an effective bipartisan coalition against the President on labor-union matters as well as on other major questions. Mr. Johnson will have to be content with more compromises and will find it necessary to give up some of his pet projects. He probably will not be too disappointed about this, as he may prefer to go into the 1968 campaign with a record of legislation that is less objectionable and easier to defend than would have been the case if he himself had had to go before the voters this year.

There has been an inclination in the last few days to speak of the election results as indicating a shift "toward the right" or to "conservatism." The "liberals," on the other hand, have pointed to the victories of younger men of the progressive variety. The truth is no common denominator can be accurately applied to the congressional elections.

STARTED WITH WEAVING CAR
Zany Events Yield Theft,
2 DWI Charges, Bashed Car

When Police Officer John Minnick saw a car weaving suspiciously on East Fourth about 1 a. m. Sunday, it set off a chain of events that resulted in two motorists being charged with driving while intoxicated, a police car being wrecked, and a young man being held for car theft.

Stock Market
Prices Drop

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market showed a loss early this afternoon in fairly active trading.

Some of the glamor stocks were down from 2 to 5 points or so. A big loser among blue chips was Du Pont, down 2 1/2.

Losses among investment-quality issues were generally within a range of fractions to a point or so.

Selected steels, chemicals, rubbers and metals maintained narrow gains but the trend was lower among motors, electronics, airlines, oils, tobaccos and drugs.

Utilities, rails and nonferrous metals were mixed.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off 2 at 299.3 with industrials off .7, rails up .1 and utilities up .1.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was down 5.40 at 812.69.

Profit-taking after last week's rally was a normal expectation, brokers said.

IBM and Polaroid were down about 5 points each. Zenith lost nearly 2 points and Xerox more than 2.

RCA slid 1 1/2 to 47 on a 10,000-share block.

Down more than a point were Control Data and Eastern Air Lines.

General Motors (ex dividend) also was down more than a point. GM reported a decline in new-car sales in the first third of November. Ford and Chrysler were fractional losers.

Prices were a little higher on balance in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Indian Summer
Envelopes Texas

By The Associated Press
Another day of Indian Summer weather enveloped Texas today, although a few light showers were expected in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Skies were generally clear over the state except along the Pecos River and the Rio Grande.

Fair and mild weather was to continue throughout the week if a mass of high pressure hangs on from Maine to New Mexico.

Pleasant conditions Sunday included maximum temperatures over most of Texas in the 70s and 80s.

Early morning readings today ranged from 34 degrees at Daltart up to 69 at Brownsville and McAllen.

Men Badly Hurt
As Car Plunges

Lloyd Allen Lindsey, 265 Mesquite, is in serious condition at Hal-Bennett Memorial Hospital this morning following a one-car accident on IS 20 Sunday about 6 a. m.

Officers said he apparently lost control of his vehicle going east on the Interstate bypass, as the car careened off the side rail on one side, skidded across the pavement and off the highway at the Birdwell Lane overpass and fell to the Texas and Pacific Railway Co. right-of-way below. A fire department station wagon carried him to the hospital.

Eight other auto accidents were reported during the weekend, but none involved serious damage or injuries.

Karen Louis, Pagan, 4102 Parkway, and Margaret Sue Cockrell, Ackerly, ran together at Twenty-Second and Gregg. The driverless vehicle belonging to Goldston Oil Corp., was involved in a mishap with the car of Maudella Jane Murphy, Gail Rt., in the 1600 block of Gregg.

At Second and Gregg, Rafael Chavez, 306 NE 10th, and Leven Flores Jr., 509 NW 8th, collided. A man was charged with DWI after his car crashed into the Sam Becker house, 1218 W. 3rd, then the Kenny French home, 1502 W. 5th.

James Conley Wiseman, Georgetown, reported a mishap with a car that left the scene on US 87 near the Ponderosa Motel. Stephen P. McComb, Rt. 1, and Troy Lynn Williams, 710 Nolan, collided at Terry's Drive in on Gregg.

Burford D. Wylie, Ellis Homes, and Cecil Patrick Pope, Midland, crashed at the intersection of Airbase Road and FM 700. Charmaine McCartney, 107 W. 22nd, and the parked car of A. G. Hall, 1501 Scurry, collided in the 100 block of West Fifteenth.

Services today for Mrs. Mattie Thomas, 83, who died Saturday, were to be held today at 3 p. m. at the First Baptist Church. The Rev. H. G. Barnard, pastor of the West Side Baptist Church, was to officiate. Burial was to be in the Fairview Cemetery, under the direction of the Branon-Phillips Funeral Home.

Survivors include one son, two daughters, two sisters, one brother, 14 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Inez Flores, Lamesa, and Mrs. Susie Aguirre, San Antonio; one son, Ermilo Elgueseba, Midland; two sisters and one brother.

Red Guard Member
Flees To Macao

Macao (AP) — A 19-year-old member of Red China's Red Guards has fled to this Portuguese colony.

He declined to be identified by name for fear, he said, of possible reprisals against his parents, who are still in China. Refugee authorities said today the youth swam through the turbulent Pearl River to Macao this weekend.

He said he was a student of the Red Guards mountain university near Macao. He reported he was selected with seven fellow students to go to Peking as members of the Red Guards.

"Chairman Mao Tse-tung reviewed us three times," he said.

He said he fled Communist China because of lack of freedom.

Mary Newton
State Winner

Mary Frances Newton captured the Texas Farm Bureau talent contest Sunday, and Beth Lamesa, gets her chance to make a sweep for District No. 6 tonight.

Miss Neely, a 17-year-old Lamesa High senior, will compete in the finals of the state queen contest this evening. She edged Mary Frances, 19-year-old Howard County Junior College freshman, out for the district queen title.

Mary Frances, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newton, 1409 Tucson, captured first place in the state competition with her humorous dialogue which accompanies her routine on the piano.

By virtue of her win, she will receive a trip to the National Farm Bureau Federation convention in Las Vegas, Nev., Dec. 3-4. She was to have returned here today, but as winner of the state competition she was held over to appear on the program connected with the queen's contest.

Miss Neely is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Neely, Lamesa.

4-H Awards Dinner Due
To Draw Large Crowd

Two hundred and 50 reservations have already been made for Tuesday night's 4-H Club Achievement Dinner.

In addition to the Gold Star awards, 85 other medals and citations will be awarded club members who have made exceptional progress this year in the many fields the organization pursues.

The dinner, set for 7:45 p. m. in the Howard County Junior College student union building, is to honor the boys and girls of the organization who have outstanding accomplishment in 4-H Club work this year.

Highlight of the evening will be the announcement of the 1966 Howard County Gold Star awards to the outstanding boy and girl. This is the highest award at county level a 4-H Club member can receive.

The dinner will be prepared and served by mothers of the 4-H Club members.

Paul Gross, county agricultural agent, James Shelton, assistant agent, and Mrs. Crawford, will direct the program.

Last year's Gold Star members were Robert Haney and Jane Murphy.

Jury Awaits For Work To Do

A jury panel was qualified for service in 118th District Court today, but no work awaited them until Wednesday.

Judge Ralph Caton said that the case set for today has been passed and will probably be settled. Two other cases set for trial were also passed by agreement.

On Wednesday, the jury will return to the court. At the present time, a suit on a note brought by the State National Bank against W. L. Kuntz et al. is tentatively slated to be ready.

Change Of Pace

BEAUMONT (AP)—Chamber of Commerce workers received a heartwarming change of pace recently—provided by a young Georgia boy.

The youngster, Michael Cook from Carrollton, wrote and asked for some brochures about the city. The chamber sent him a large batch of information.

A few days another letter arrived from Michael. It contained four bright new pennies; He forgot to enclose return postage with his first request, he said.

OIL NEWS

Glasscock Test
Pumps New Oil

Pan American No. 1-B Co. pumped 14 barrels of new oil and five barrels of water in the last 24 hours. The wildcat is spotted 1,273 feet from the south line and 1,320 feet from the west line of section 33-34-55, T&P survey, 20 miles south of Garden City in Glasscock County.

Southwestern No. 1 Porter has been abandoned at 9,740 feet. Location is 660 feet from the north line and 1,972 feet from the west line of section 13-32-3n, T&P survey, three miles northeast of Vealmoor in Borden County.

Borden Oil Co. and American 59 bulls, and Creighton lost 12 head, Wallace four and Coates two.

Petrofina have abandoned the No. 3 Reed and Reed, 14 miles northwest of Sterling City, at west line of section 33-34-55, 7,464 feet. Site is 1,210 feet from the north line and 660 feet from the east line of section 9-30, W&NW survey, in Sterling County.

Howard County Hereford breeders left Monday for Amarillo and the National Anxiety-4th Show and Sale.

Leland Wallace, who last week was elected president of the Concho Hereford Association at San Angelo, took three head to the Amarillo affair.

James Coates had a pair, he took, and Kennedy Lono was taking several head from the G. T. Hall Ranch herd.

The show is on Thursday, and the sale will follow on Friday. Last year Wallace had the second highest priced bull, a $3,000 animal.

At San Angelo, C. W. Creighton, Big Spring breeder, showed the first and fifth place bulls in the spring yearling class, and he had the first, second and fourth place bulls in the summer yearling class.

With national elections scheduled for February, Prime Minister Indira Gandhi has resigned four key ministers in her Cabinet to improve chances of the ruling Congress party.

Defense Minister Y. B. Chavan, 52, was named home minister, the No. 2 government post. He replaces G. L. Nanda, who resigned after rioting in New Delhi last Monday resulted in eight deaths.

The Congress party is expected to keep its majority in Parliament and control over most state governments, although opposition groups have been challenging the government with increasingly violent demonstrations.

Police arrested a woman for disturbance, after she called the sheriff's office and told them she planned to throw herself in front of a car. Her nine-month-old daughter was taken to the home of relatives.

Wayne Burns, district attorney, said that he is Robert Hardesty, indicted recently by the grand jury for theft by bailie. Arrested in Florence, Ariz., he refused to waive extradition.

Burns initiated steps to extradite the man. Gov. John Connally granted the request and petitioned the governor of Arizona to issue the proper order. This was done.

That was when Hardesty had a change of heart.

He suddenly decided he did not want to fight extradition.

Sam Roberts, deputy, and Wayne Tollett, investigator for the district attorney returned Hardesty to county jail here.

Services for Mrs. Bernard Fisher, 70, who died Friday, were to be held today at 3 p. m. in the River - Welch Chapel. Rabbi Jerald Klein, Dallas, was to officiate, and burial was to be in Trinity Memorial Park. Pallbearers were Jeff Grant, Lee Porter, A. J. Prager, Ludwig Grau, Milton Carver, J. W. Campbell, Robert Currie, Harry Middleton, Dr. Otto Wolfe, G. W. Dabney, Robert Middleton and Kenneth Bell.

Mrs. Fisher, member of a prominent Big Spring family, leaves one son, a sister and three grandchildren, all of Big Spring.

State Winner

Mary Frances Newton captured the Texas Farm Bureau talent contest Sunday, and Beth Lamesa, gets her chance to make a sweep for District No. 6 tonight.

Miss Neely, a 17-year-old Lamesa High senior, will compete in the finals of the state queen contest this evening. She edged Mary Frances, 19-year-old Howard County Junior College freshman, out for the district queen title.

Mary Frances, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Newton, 1409 Tucson, captured first place in the state competition with her humorous dialogue which accompanies her routine on the piano.

By virtue of her win, she will receive a trip to the National Farm Bureau Federation convention in Las Vegas, Nev., Dec. 3-4. She was to have returned here today, but as winner of the state competition she was held over to appear on the program connected with the queen's contest.

Miss Neely is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Neely, Lamesa.

Medical Society

Moderator will be Dr. Frankie Williams, and scheduled to appear on the panel are Chaplain R. F. Johnson, Shirley Barak, Mrs. Mrs. Marie McDonald, Dr. Harry Davis, project supervisor, also Mrs. Mildred Sevey, charge attendant for Phase (Unit 5), and Mrs. Mary Hughes, charge attendant for Phase II (Unit 8). Hostesses will be Delia Moreno and Mrs. Doris Buch.

Choir Boosters
To Meet Today

The regular monthly meeting of the Big Spring Choir Boosters has been set for 7:30 p. m. today in the Vocational Building at the high school. Dr. Millard Talbot, president, urged all members and friends of the choir programs to attend.

Change Of Pace

BEAUMONT (AP)—Chamber of Commerce workers received a heartwarming change of pace recently—provided by a young Georgia boy.

The youngster, Michael Cook from Carrollton, wrote and asked for some brochures about the city. The chamber sent him a large batch of information.

A few days another letter arrived from Michael. It contained four bright new pennies; He forgot to enclose return postage with his first request, he said.

Dear Abby

Office Clown Not Funny

DEAR ABBY: I work in an office with three other girls, and there are about 30 sales and service men coming in and out all the time. One salesman, who is new with the company, is a great kidder. The first week he said to me, "Say, I hear it's NATIONAL DAIRY WEEK, and everyone is supposed to take a cow to lunch. How about having lunch with me?" I didn't know how to take it, so I just laughed it off and let it drop.

The next week he was hanging around my desk singing, "Near you, it's like heaven to be near you." He never kids with any of the other girls and they are all single. (I guess I'd better tell you that he is married and so am I.) He is nice in every way, and I hate to lose his friendship. Would it be wrong to have lunch with him if I made it strictly lunch?

DEAR "ZOFTIK": Don't see this clown outside the office, and don't be so receptive to his jokes. Tell him it's "BE TRUE TO YOUR SPOUSE WEEK," which last 32 weeks a year. And ask him if he'd like to join.

DEAR ABBY: Before we were married I converted to the faith of my fiancé. It was partly to make his parents happy and partly because I honestly believed it was the faith for me. However, a few months after we were married I was very miserable with my new faith and rather than stay on as a hypocrite, I made a neat break with it. This was done with the blessings of my wonderful husband. That was two years ago.

The problem now is that his parents do not know. They are not very understanding when it comes to religion, and they might make things very unpleasant for us. I'm so afraid if we don't tell them, they'll find out some other way. What do you suggest?

MIXED UP
DEAR MIXED UP: Tell them and get it over with.

for Tomorrow

By Carroll Righter

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A wonderful day to do most anything you please but especially to get all of your affairs organized on a more sound and secure structure so that you have more of the good things of life with less effort on your part. Discuss any and all property matters that can bring you more income and show others you have common sense.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your public status can show an upswing if you make it a point to impress higher-ups with your special talents. Advancement comes from improving credit, also. Be sure to specialize in your own career.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Arrive at a new task for carrying through with the practical work that needs to be done in conjunction with new plans. Contact persons with different ideas than yours. Greater success can come via such channels.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Follow your hunches and you are able to get more support from regular clients. Good ideas; state aims specifically. Being busy every moment brings right results. Evening is then ideal for romance.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Everyone around you seems to be in a more cooperative mood than heretofore, so get ambitiously busy and produce results. Much of your own easy attainment. Stay on the direct course and you win out.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Even though you have much to do in outside world, take time to make your own soundings more charming, beautiful. Carry through with promise you have made. This will delight everyone and greater harmony ensues.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Go through dull routines with alacrity and then you have plenty of time for recreation with persons you like and make a fine impression. You are particularly charming, energetic right now. Make the most of this.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you make your abode more attractive, you find that more harmonious relations can be established with everyone living there. Greater focus on business matters also starts upward. Be busily occupied every minute.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Allies are in the right mood to go along with you. Ideas, so get busy and forge ahead quickly. Correspondence, telephone calls, wires, personal visits, all fine. Be a dynamic, vital person.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You are able to add to present abundance, real estate, if you do some tall thinking early and take advantage of fine opportunities around you. One experienced in business gives you the know-how. Listen carefully.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You are especially charming today and others readily concede to your wishes, provided you smile more. Show that you have understanding. Social others can be the best means by which you advance.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are generous and humanitarian to a fault but you should now look to bettering your own position in life so that you can do even more in the future. Some new, expert plus, good ideas. You make progress today.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Be more gregarious, social and state your aims to right persons who can give support to them. Some get protect you may have in mind can find just the right ally, a person who can make it workable. Don't get to bed too late.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow he or she will be one of those delightful young persons who will ever be thinking along practical lines and others will be coming to him, or her, for the answers to puzzling problems. Training is important early, though, otherwise the interest will be solely for the dollar and this will make your progeny somewhat disliked by others, or unloved with them.

VIOLENCE CLAIMS 40

Eight Persons Shot To Death In Texas

By The Associated Press
Violence took a heavy toll in Texas over the weekend as at least 40 persons were killed. Traffic accidents claimed 27 lives and eight persons were shot to death, two of them as they were deer hunting Saturday on the season's opening day.

The Associated Press tabulation began at 6 p.m. Friday and went through midnight Sunday.

STEWARDESS KILLED
Miss Mary Knight Crain, 29, an American Airlines stewardess from Arlington, was killed Sunday night in a two-car collision on Texas 183 in Euless.

Police said a man was shot to death Sunday night in front of a residence in the Fort Worth suburb of North Richland Hills. The victim's identity was not immediately established. A second man was jailed in connection with the incident.

Brenda Burnham, 17, and her brother, Robert Burnham, 11, were killed late Sunday in a two-car collision two miles east of Grapevine. The children's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Burnham of Handley, and their grandparents were injured in the crash.

TREE SMACKED
Bill Prichett, 36, was killed late Saturday when his car left the highway and ran into a tree during a dense fog 15 miles north of Houston.

Floyd R. Ooten, 35, of Euless and Lyndell Gaylon Moss, 26, of Bedford were killed Sunday when a train and the pickup truck in which they were riding collided on the east side of Fort Worth.

Ronnie Joseph Richardson, 20, was shot to death on a Dallas street early Saturday. Police said he was walking with companions down a sidewalk when another group of youths opened fire and then fled in two cars.

BABY FOUND DEAD
The body of a newly-born baby boy was found Sunday in a creek bed at a bridge in Fort Worth. Officers said the infant had been dead only a short time. His identity and the cause of death was not determined immediately.

An automobile overturned four miles west of Panhandle, Saturday night on US 60, killing Davis Lewis Reed, 84, and injuring three other persons. Reed, of Canadian, was dead on arrival at an Amarillo hospital. Jose Angel Arredondo of Mission was shot to death in a Mission bar Saturday night. Police hunted toward the Rio Grande for the slayer.

An automobile went out of control while trying to pass another car on S. H. 289 near Celina Saturday, killing Alonso Flores, 27, of Celina. Flores was dead on arrival at a McKinney hospital.

SHOT TO DEATH
Edward Powell Carpenter III, 20, of Shreveport, La., was shot to death Saturday with a 30-30 rifle while hunting deer on a lease 15 miles northwest of Bryan.

Sheila Darlene Long, 15, of Grand Prairie, was killed Saturday when she fell from the automobile she was driving about a mile north of her home. A motorcycle slammed into the rear of an automobile on a Port Arthur street Saturday, sending its two riders flying more than 150 feet through the air. The crash fatally injured the passenger, Garrett Foreman, 18, of Port Arthur, and critically injured Tommy Ray Bailey, 23, of the Port Arthur suburb of Groves.

WOMAN QUIZZED
Charles Kosharek, 57, died of two gunshot wounds in the neck Saturday at Fort Worth. A woman told police Kosharek broke into her Southside home and she shot him after they fought. Ira Darty, 44, was shot fatally in the chest after an argument Saturday at Fort Worth. Police questioned a woman.

Willard Dean Cook, 27, of Victoria, was shot to death on a hunting trip five miles south of Victoria Saturday. Justice of the Peace Alfred Baass said Cook died from a rifle bullet in the back of the head. Baass said the shooting appeared accidental.

A Houston couple, Jack Parker Hitt, 57, and his wife, Bessie, 55, were killed Saturday when their automobile collided with another vehicle 3.5 miles east of Bastrop. Two other persons were injured.

Donald Eugene Cudd, 24, of Silsbee, was killed Saturday in a head-on collision on fog-shrouded US 89 three miles south of Kountze.

ROCK CRUSHER
S. B. Coleman, 28, of Dallas, was killed Friday night when he fell inside a two-story high rock crushing machine at the Lone Star Cement Co. in Dallas. Carolyn L. Patillo, 20, a research clerk in the Federal Reserve Bank in Dallas, was a mile from Austin on West Lake Drive. Felix Garcia Delgado, 39, of Houston, was killed Sunday when his car missed a curve and overturned three times on US 90A about 11 miles east of Seguin.

Simon G. Carrillo Jr., 18, of the Lamb County community of Roundup, was fatally injured when his car ran off a rural road west of Lubbock.

Aaron Leon Sowell, 41, died Sunday morning when a fire broke out at his Dallas home.

Houston News Editor Heart Attack Victim

HOUSTON (AP)—An apparent heart attack Sunday killed Houston Post news editor H. Robert (Bob) Shirk while he was on a deer hunting trip near Fredericksburg. He was 40. Funeral services were pending today.

Hospital Gets Bloody Baptism

TAY NINH, South Viet Nam (AP)—The world's only inflatable combat hospital has received a bloody baptism of fire in the jungles of South Viet Nam.

The $2-million complex of air-filled operating rooms, laboratories and surgical wards was trucked into an abandoned tapioca plantation 90 miles northeast of Saigon near the Cambodian border.

Before the rubber-like dacrone buildings could be blown up and put into operation, the Viet Cong nearly destroyed the entire hospital with a mortar attack that killed the hospital commandant, more gaping holes in the roof of the unoccupied nurses' quarters and riddled one of the inflatable ward units with more than 100 holes.

AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Despite the initial mortar attack and another one less than a week later, the self-contained, completely mobile hospital immediately went into operation as a forward surgical clinic with most of its facilities still in packing crates.

That was two weeks ago. Because of the bitter fighting and the growing number of casualties from Operation Attleboro in the rain forests of War Zone C,

Army medical authorities decided to activate the inflatable, expandable hospital ahead of schedule.

Shamrock Woman Is Crash Victim

ERICK, Okla. (AP)—A Shamrock, Tex., woman was fatally injured Sunday in a traffic accident involving two vehicles near here on U.S. 66.

Mrs. Florence B. Williams, 70, died in an Erick hospital shortly after the crash. Her husband, Hallet T. Williams, 71, and the driver of the other vehicle were not injured.

Twenty minutes after the completely air-conditioned, dust free, 60-bed surgical hospital opened its plastic doors for business, a Medivac helicopter set down on the landing pad less than 100 feet away and Capt. Richard Welch of Louisville, Ky., and Carl Borders of Rochester, Mich., were operating on their first patient.

If necessary, the entire hospital can be collapsed and loaded onto helicopters in less than 15 minutes. When other inflatable, expandable units are available, it can be converted into a 200-bed evacuation hospital.

Man Charged With Slaying Ex-Diplomat

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Attorneys sought today the release from city jail of Charles Hubert Taylor, 27, charged in Mexico City in the slaying of a former Mexican diplomat.

A woman who police identified as Mrs. Lilliana Belardi Taylor, 34, charged with Taylor in the slaying last month of her former husband, Luis Fernando Lagarde, died Sunday night in a Houston hospital.

She had been unconscious since police found her and Taylor Saturday afternoon at a Houston residence. Authorities said she was suffering from an overdose of sleeping pills.

DIVORCED

Mexican authorities had identified her as Lilliana Vanna Belardi Saccetti. Taylor's attorney, Percy Foreman, said she divorced Lagarde two years ago and married Taylor last May.

Police were called to the Taylor residence here Saturday when neighbors complained of breaking glass. D. Holub, the first policeman to arrive, found Taylor in torn panamas, lying in the front yard.

Mrs. Taylor was found inside, lying unconscious on a front bedroom floor. She was clad in a blue nightgown.

BODY FOUND

Police said Taylor was not seriously hurt, suffering the loss of a front tooth and an abrasion on his head in an apparent plunge through a window.

Mexican authorities said the body of Lagarde was found beside a lake about 50 miles from Mexico City. He was first reported missing by his second wife on Oct. 12. A small overnight bag with some of his bloodstained clothing was found that day near Lake Tequesquitengo, near Cuernavaca.

Lagarde reportedly had continued to visit his European-born first wife and their daughter after the divorce. Mexican police think Lagarde was slain in her apartment in Mexico City.

The Sixth Penal Court in Mexico City formally placed murder charges against the couple last Friday.

Miss World Entry Is Disqualified

LONDON (AP)—Organizers of the Miss World contest in London disqualified Nigeria's Uzor Okafor, 22, after a diplomatic utterance about her sponsorship.

Miss World entrants normally come to competitions as winners of beauty contests in their own countries. No Miss Nigeria contest was held this year.

Uzor, the mother of two daughters, said she entered the contest only because her British husband had urged her to.

Goldwater Denies Nixon Deal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Barry Goldwater says it's "not true" that he and Richard M. Nixon are collaborating to try to block any bid by Michigan Gov. George Romney for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination.

But Goldwater, though not closing the door on Romney, said the governor still has "a lot of homework to do" with party leaders to atone for not endorsing Goldwater in the 1964 presidential race.

Romney, meanwhile, said he still hasn't decided whether to run for president.

Goldwater was asked Sunday on ABC's "Issues and Answers"

if he were collaborating with Nixon to stop Romney, as the questioner said, "It has been written and reported."

NIXON BACKER

"No that is not true," said Goldwater. "I happen to be a Nixon backer, but I haven't seen Dick Nixon in person in over three months."

Nixon is regarded as another likely candidate for the nomination.

Romney, appearing on NBC's "Meet the Press," continued his move to gloss over old differences with Goldwater.

"Perhaps we have a gap in this (antimissile) respect now as a result of mismanagement of these Democratic administra-

Cowboys Stay Alive By Breath-Stopper Finish

The Washington Redskins missed upsetting the Dallas Cowboys by a foot—Danny Villanueva's right one—and the Detroit Lions get their kicks from Gary Yepremian.

In fact, National Football League Clubs really played football Sunday as 29 field goals were kicked, the most of any weekend this season.

Villanueva kicked only one field goal, but it came with just 15 seconds remaining and gave the Cowboys a 31-30 victory, a 6-2-1 record and moved them to within one-half game of first place St. Louis in the Eastern Conference.

SIX FIELD GOALS
On the other hand, Yepremian booted six field goals for an NFL single game record as the Lions nipped Minnesota 32-31. His eight attempts also tied a single game mark set by Baltimore's Lou Michaels when he was with Pittsburgh.

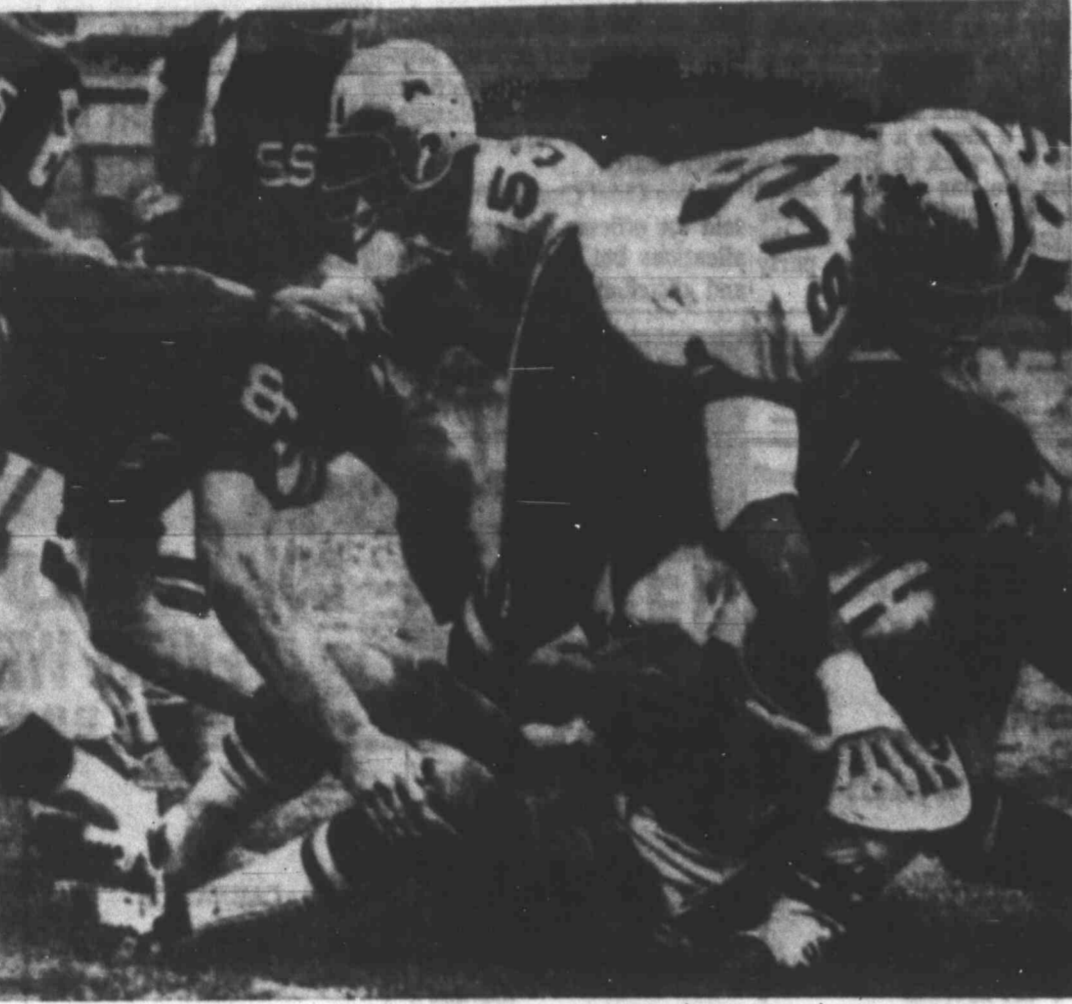

Still another single game record—11 three-point tries by two teams—was set in Pittsburgh's 30-9 upset of St. Louis. Pittsburgh's Mike Clark made three and Jim Bakken booted a like number for the Cardinals. 7-2-1, playing their first game without quarterback Charley Johnson, who is through for the season because of a knee injury.

In other games, Baltimore tied idle Green Bay for first place in the West with a 7-2 mark by taking a 19-7 victory over Atlanta. Cleveland whipped Philadelphia 27-7 to move within a game of St. Louis; San Francisco tied Chicago 30-30 and Los Angeles snapped a four-game losing streak by trouncing New York 55-14.

HMMMM?
"After a while, I think I'll be a good kicker," Yepremian said after breaking the old record of five field goals held by Ernie Nevers of the Duluth Eskimos, Bob Waterfield of Los Angeles, Bakken of St. Louis and Michaels of Baltimore.

Pittsburgh, which upset Cleveland last week and gets a shot at Dallas next week, took advantage of three interceptions off Terry Nofsinger to beat St. Louis. The Steelers' Clark kicked three field goals and quarterback Ron Smith and halfback Don Hoak threw TD passes. Bakken kicked for all of St. Louis' points.

Baltimore's Michaels kept the Colts within one point, 7-6, in the first half with two field goals. Then after Lenny Moore put the Colts ahead on a one-yard run,

End Of Runback

Mel Renfro, 20, of Dallas, is stopped by Washington's Tom Barrington, 31, after running back a third quarter kickoff for a 20-yard gain in Sunday's game. Other identifiable players are: Jethro Pugh, 75, and Mike Connelly, 53, of Dallas, and Jerry Smith, 81, of Washington. Dallas won 31-30. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Michael added two more three-pointers.

BROWNS WIN
Frank Ryan passed for two scores, Ernie Green ran for one and Lou Groza kicked a pair of field goals for Cleveland, now 6-3.

A 44-yard field goal by Tommy Davis with nine seconds remaining—his third of the game—gave San Francisco its tie with Chicago. A bad pass from center on a conversion attempt after Ed O'Bradovich ran 11 yards with a fumble for a TD cost Chicago a victory.

Bruce Gossett also kicked two field goals for Los Angeles, but the Rams didn't need them as Roman Gabriel rushed for 25 TDs and completed 24 of 35 passes for 298 yards and two scores against the hapless Giants. One of New York's touchdowns came on a 100-yard return of a pass interception by Henry Carr.

Steers Face Biggest Opportunity Of Season

San Angelo brings its once angry Orange to town Friday. Key to their chances will be and some say it is angrier because of a 12-6 upset by Permian. But the Big Spring Steers, last obstacle in San Angelo's path to a district title, are a strong enough in the middle to little mad themselves.

They feel they should have won the game against Odessa Bronchos Friday.

"It adds up to this," said Coach Herman Smith. "San Angelo is going to be going for the district title; we're going to do our best to knock them out of it."

The Steers are in good physical shape, and Smith figures as they are going to be playing as if

Irish And Spartan Clash Is Big One For The Season

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Nobody can quibble with Ara Parseghian and Duffy Daugherty this week when they are quoted as saying: "We're not looking past this week's game."

That's the cliché the two coaches have stuck with most of the season, but this time it is for real. This is the week Parseghian's top-ranked Notre Dame and Daugherty's second-rated Michigan State meet in one of the most eagerly awaited college football games in years.

The Irish and Spartans set up their unbeaten battle with easy victories last Saturday. Notre Dame over Duke 64-0 and Michigan State over Indiana 37-19.

Terry Hanratty, back on the beam, completed eight of 13 passes for 127 yards and two touchdowns, one to favorite receiver Im Seymour. The Irish also intercepted four passes in upping their record to 8-0.

Michigan State, winning its second straight Big Ten title, piled up a 37-7 lead as Immy Raye threw for three touchdowns and the defense held the Hoosiers to a minus 10 yards rushing.

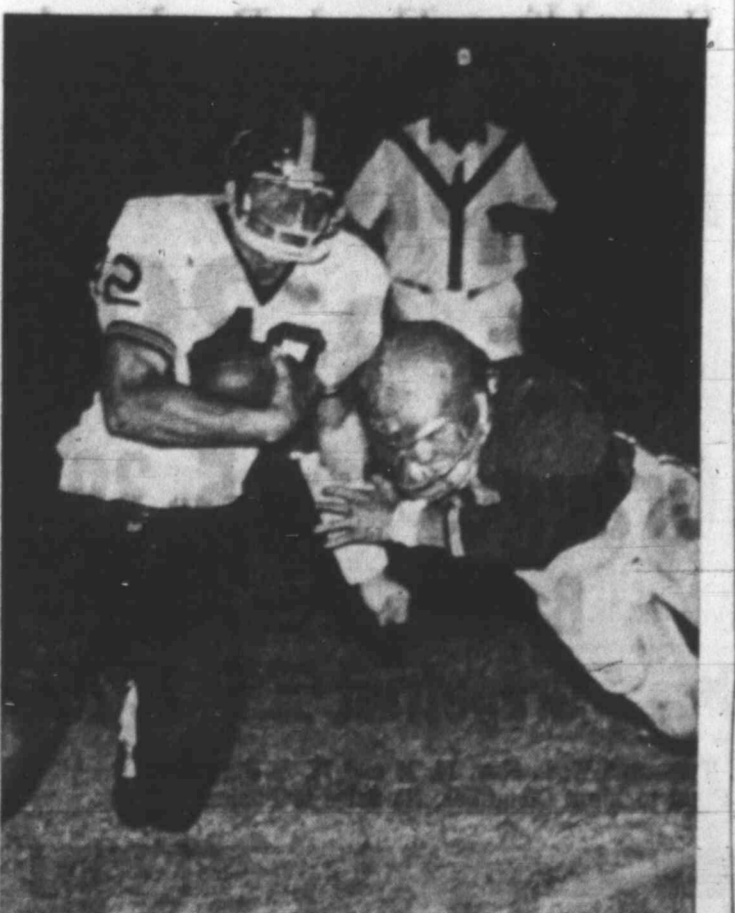

BOWL BOUND?
With Michigan State ineligible for a Rose Bowl bid after going last year, Purdue, 5-1, wrapped up an almost certain bowl trip by polishing off chief challenger Minnesota 16-0.

Illinois, 4-2, clobbered Wisconsin 49-14, but even an Illinois victory over Northwestern Saturday and a Purdue loss to Indiana would give the Bollermakers the bid because they have never made the bowl trip before.

Another conference title was settled when undefeated Nebraska, No. 4 in The Associated Press poll, clinched its fourth straight Big Eight crown by overcoming Oklahoma State 21-6 while Missouri eliminated Oklahoma 10-7.

Arkansas, 5-1, set up its unprecedented third straight Southwestern Conference title and a Cotton Bowl trip by dealing Southern Methodist its first defeat, 22-0 on Dave Dickey's two scores.

TECH ONLY OBSTACLE
The Razorbacks, ranked sixth, need only a victory over six-time loser Texas Tech Saturday to clinch at least a tie and a certain bowl bid.

Steers' Top Gainer

Landry Says One In 1,000

WASHINGTON (AP)—"I just hope I don't wind up with a heart attack," quipped Dallas Coach Tom Landry.

He and 50,927 football fans—the largest crowd ever to see a football game in D.C. Stadium—saw the Cowboys defeat Washington 31-30 Sunday with only 15 seconds remaining in the game.

"It was one in a thousand," Landry said in the dressing room, shaking his head. "You don't see those things happen very often. You'll probably see a lot more pro games before this happens again."

Landry was talking about the final drive which was culminated on a 20-yard field goal by Danny Villanueva.

NO TIME OUTS
The kick came after Dallas took over the ball on its own three-yard line with 1:30 minutes remaining. The Cowboys had no time outs left.

Quarterback Don Meredith moved the team downfield in six plays to the Washington 33 where he was hit illegally by John Reger. A penalty moved the ball 15 yards closer. Villanueva then kicked the field goal.

"We have a two-minute offense," Meredith said.

"We knew they were going to be in a prevent defense, so we tried to flood the zone near the out of bounds marker. We believed we could stop the clock after each play."

"I was calling rollout pass plays so if no one was open, I knew I could take the ball out myself."

Settle Gridiron Title On Field

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Michigan State Coach Duffy Daugherty said Sunday the Spartans-Notre Dame football game is "a great opportunity to decide the national championship on the field of play."

The No. 2 ranked Spartans meet top-rated Notre Dame at Spartan Stadium Saturday.

Daugherty, who has advocated a national collegiate football playoff similar to the NCAA championships, made the remark during a television interview in Lansing.

He said the collegiate championship usually is "decided by comparative scores or in the polls."

Big Cat Counts On First Punch

HOUSTON (AP) — "I'm not making any predictions but the first one to get in a good punch is going to be the winner." "I want to be the first one."

So said Cleveland Williams, a ring-scarred veteran of 33, today as he awaited the starting bell of his long-sought title shot with heavyweight champion Cassius Clay, the 5-1 favorite in the Astrodome tonight. Fight time is 10:30 p.m., EST, for the 15-rounder.

This will be Clay's (or Muhammad Ali's) seventh title defense and his sixth within a year. On the record Williams, a strapping, muscular specimen who once rated as the hardest hitter in the heavyweight division, shapes up as the most dangerous challenger Clay has run into this year.

CAN HE LAND?
The big questions are whether Williams can connect with his jolting left hook and smashing right against an elusive dancing master and whether he can take Clay's streams of punching and keep coming.

"I'm gonna get the Big Cat just like I got the Bear (Sonny Liston) and the Hare (Floyd Patterson)," said the undefeated, 24-year-old champion from Louisville, Ky. "But I gotta admit Williams is my most dangerous opponent. He can hit hard."

A crowd of 35,000 or more is expected to pay around $50,000 at prices of from $5 to $50 to see the Big Cat get his first chance at boxing's most prized crown. Closed circuit television in the

Arkansas Is On Verge Of Title

By The Associated Press

This might be a sleepless week as Frank Broyles thinks it will be, but the Arkansas coach should have a water-filled-with-sweet-football-dreams.

The Razorbacks are only one victory away from another Southwest Conference championship and the season finale is against six-time loser Texas Tech at Lubbock Saturday.

With one foot in the Cotton Bowl and the other just outside the gate, the question hanging in the balance of the season is whether Arkansas can claim an unprecedented third consecutive outright title.

The answer rests with Baylor and Texas Christian, the last two opponents for Southern Methodist, the only likely challenger for a share of the crown.

PULVERIZE THE PERFECT

Arkansas obliterated Southern Methodist 22-0 last Saturday the same way it did Texas A&M two weeks before. In each instance the victim entered the game with a perfect conference record.

The Razorbacks' only setback in nine games this season was the 7-0 upset by Baylor, which then lost three straight conference games before beating Texas Tech 29-14 last week.

Unless Tech can find some offensive and defensive magic—now lacking—to victimize Arkansas, the Razorbacks will be the conference's host in the Dec. 31 Cotton Bowl game with undefeated Nebraska, Big Eight champion, the obvious first choice.

Southern Methodist carries a 4-1 conference record into Saturday's meeting with Baylor in Dallas. The only other game this week is Texas Christian at Rice.

ALSO RANS

Texas and Texas A&M, who have only their traditional Thanksgiving Day clash remaining, are tied for third place with 4-2 marks. The winner could make it a three-way tie for the title if Arkansas and Southern Methodist each lose one more.

The two kept faint hopes alive last week when Texas defeated Texas Christian 13-3 and the Aggies edged Rice 7-6.

After Baylor's October surprise, Arkansas' only regular season loss in two years, there was short-lived talk that the Razorbacks' dominance was ending.

They came back on successive Saturdays to whip Texas and Wichita State 41-0. Then they crushed the emerging Texas Aggies 34-0 and it was obvious the Ozark hill people had still another champion.

Art Powell And Oakland Crush San Diego Hopes

By The Associated Press

Art Powell hasn't exactly been overexerting himself lately, but it's doubtful that the Oakland Raiders will enter a formal complaint.

Of the 29 passes thrown by Raider quarterback Tom Flores in Oakland's 41-19 victory over San Diego Sunday, only four of them found their way to Powell, one of the game's top receivers. But those four catches were good for 86 yards and two touchdowns.

The big Oakland end entered the game behind only Lance Alworth of the Chargers in passes caught for the American Football League season. With Alworth out for a few weeks with a pulled muscle, Powell is making his bid to catch him. He is now just eight receptions and two touchdown passes behind the San Diego receiver.

TAKES AWAY

Powell's first touchdown came on the first series of plays in the game after Flores had thrown a 68-yard pass to Clem Daniels, getting the ball down to the Charger 10. Shortly thereafter, Flores flipped to Powell who grabbed the ball away from Charger defender Leslie Duncan.

Then early in the second quarter, with the Raiders just a yard from the goal, Flores surprised everyone with a pass to Powell for the score. Just to show it was part of the plan, Flores later threw another short scoring pass, one that went two yards to Daniels.

Elsewhere in the AFL, Buffalo beat New York, 14-3, Kansas City bounced Miami, 34-16 and Boston took Houston, 27-21.

The Oakland victory put the Raiders into second place in the Western Division of the AFL and all but ended San Diego's chances for a fourth straight division championship. Oakland is 6-4 and San Diego is at 5-4-1.

JETS WILL

New York and Buffalo fought on nearly even terms for three quarters when, with the Jets leading 3-0, Jackie Kemp threw a 14-yard scoring pass to Elbert Dubenion, putting the Bills ahead, and Jim Dunaway ran 72 yards with a blocked field goal for the final score. The Bills remained in first place in the Eastern Division, while the Jets dropped to third.

Kansas City came closer to the Western title by beating Miami. Len Dawson threw three touchdowns passes in the first half, one good for 88 yards to Otis Taylor.

Gino Cappelletti scored 21 points for Boston, keeping the Patriots half a game behind Buffalo in the East. Cappelletti caught scoring passes of 83 and 31 yards and kicked two field goals and two extra points.

King Blasts At Officials

By JACK DONOVAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The quality of football officiating in the Southwest Conference this season has received its second sharp criticism by a coach.

It is the "worst I've ever seen," said Coach J. T. King of Texas Tech after the Red Raiders lost 29-14 to Baylor last Saturday for their sixth defeat of the season. "One big thing is incompetence," he added.

King said he would offer recommendations at the conference meeting in Dallas Dec. 8, and fight to see that "some drastic changes are made."

SECOND TO SOUND

He was the second conference coach to publicly criticize the officiating of a game. Jess Neely, veteran Rice coach, expressed displeasure with calls in the Owls' 28-24 loss to Southern Methodist earlier in the season.

At College Station, Coach Gene Stallings of Texas A&M said Sunday night:

"I've been dissatisfied from time to time but other times I've felt there was good officiating. I am not saying the officials are incompetent."

Among King's proposals were an interchange of officials with other major conferences and permitting coaches to remove any official they thought was not acceptable to them.

Stallings said he favored the scratch system.

Nunnally Pitches Gail To Victory Over Sands

GAIL — The Gail Coyotes won their annual Homecoming game from Sands here Saturday night, 36-16.

Quarterback Don Nunnally led the Coyotes to their sixth win in ten decisions. The Coyotes rolled up gains totaling 304 yards, compared to 206 for Sands.

In the opening period, Nunnally passed to Dale Kite for 40 yards and a score. David Lansford bolted across for the two extra points.

In the second round, Sands fought back when quarterback Kynn Maxwell sneaked for one yard and a score. Merwin Beal added the two points on a run.

Gail regained the lead on a 13-yard pass from Nunnally to Kite in that round.

In the third, Gail went farther in front on a six-yard aerial from Nunnally to Kite. Tony Isaacs got the two extra points on a pass from Nunnally.

Sands counted again in the third when Maxwell raced 50 yards on a bootleg play—Beal added the two PAT's on a run.

The Coyotes scored two more touchdowns in the fourth. Nunnally passed to Isaacs for one, the play covering 22 yards.

Nunnally then passed to Lansford for three yards and the final six pointer of the night. Nunnally did the honors himself on a carry for the two points.

Gail made 20 first downs to 15 for Sands.

Nicklaus And Palmer Win

TOKYO (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, who have a pleasant custom of picking up expensive hardware, retrieved one of their favorite pieces — the Canada Cup — and headed back to the United States today.

And its companion piece, the International Trophy for individual victory, heads back to Canada for the first time in 12 years thanks to a wire-to-wire victory by young George Knudson of Toronto.

"We came to win the Canada Cup as a team. We're glad we can take it back home," agreed Palmer and big Jack, who have taken it home on three previous occasions.

The 14th annual Canada Cup matches concluded Sunday in rain and cold at the Yomiuri Country Club on the outskirts of Tokyo with these results:

BREAK OWN RECORD

The Nicklaus-Palmer team scored a combined total of 548 strokes for 72 holes, 28 under par, breaking their own record of 554 established in Hawaii in 1964.

The ebullient Knudson finished the 72 holes tied with Japan's husky belter, Hideyo Sugimoto, at 272, tying the individual record set by old Sam Snead in 1961 in Puerto Rico.

Belt Blocks Stray Bullet

AITKIN, Minn. (AP) — Harry Elstad was sitting in his farm home Sunday when a stray bullet — apparently fired by a deer hunter — ripped through the outside wall of the home. The bullet went through an interior wall, then hit Elstad's belt.

He received a severe bruise but was not hospitalized, the sheriff's office reported.

Angry Mobs Rock U.S. Consulate

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP) — Angry mobs shattered windows of the U. S. consulate, damaged American cars and destroyed a night club early this morning in the southern Turkish city of Adana after eight U. S. servicemen allegedly accosted Turkish women leaving a movie house, press reports said today.

The reports gave this account:

The servicemen, from the Strategic Air Command base at Incirlik, near Adana, took refuge in a nearby night club. An angry crowd gathered shouting anti-American slogans and demanding that the Americans be handed over to them.

Police took the men to a police station for protection. The mob shattered the windows of the police station, then about 50 young persons marched to the U. S. consulate. They damaged American cars on the way.

They stoned the consulate and damaged cars parked in front of the building. A spokesman for the consulate said some windows were broken, but no one was hurt.

Police finally called troops to disperse the mob.

American military authorities invited U. S. servicemen and their dependents living in the town to take refuge on the base.

Astro Stroll Timed Right For Grid Fans

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Astronaut Edwin E. Aldrin Jr.'s space walk Sunday was happily timed — at least for the television networks and the professional football fans.

NBC, with puppets demonstrating the extra vehicular activity and CBS, using a human space engineer outside a mock-up of a space craft, showed the astronaut's activities as they were reported. It was wrapped up with time to spare before the games started. One hesitates to predict whether the spacemen or the gridiron warriors would have prevailed had there been a time conflict.

VOICE MUFFLED

Although the coverage of the space exploit was complete, it was difficult, if not impossible, to understand the voices of the astronauts. But, as David Brinkley noted, the miracle was that we were able to hear at all the voice of a man as he climbed around outside a space ship beyond the earth's atmosphere.

After all the recent Sundays in which television has been awash with politics, it was almost a relief to get back into programming featuring animals, undersea exploration and old movies.

True, there was Barry Goldwater on ABC talking about the election and Gov. George Romney was denying he was a presidential candidate on NBC's "Meet the Press." But on the late afternoon "Frank McGee Report" — McGee was missing, on his space assignment — the entire program was devoted to a report on California, its people, its economy, its personality — but not, for a change, its politics.

INTERESTING REPORT

"Back to Budapest," NBC's news special in early evening, was an interesting report on life in the city 10 years after the revolt by Hungarian freedom fighters was crushed by the Communists with Soviet help.

Frank Bodrigholter and his cameraman — the photography was excellent — visited a factory, a school and the homes of a working couple and the manager of a nationalized textile factory.

He found that food was plentiful, rents in old buildings cheap, and life was pleasant for the most part. People attend church freely, artists paint and writers write and the Communists even permit a satirical revue to kid the government. He did find that workers and plant managers alike earn small salaries and live in crowded quarters.

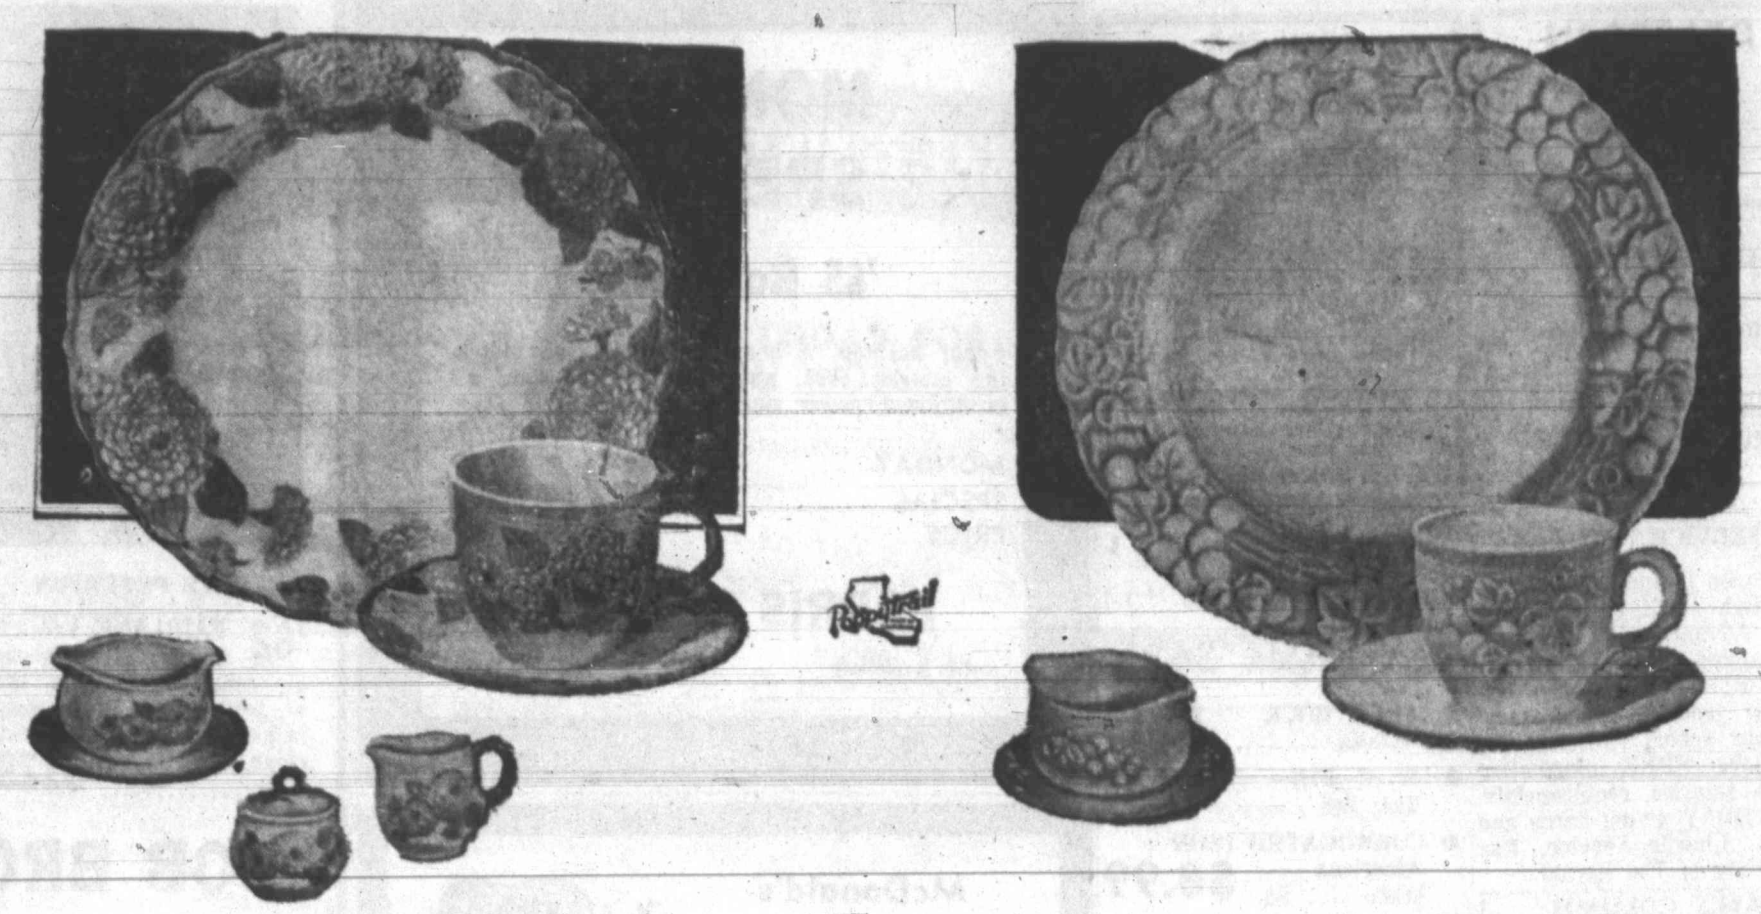

Bodrigholter, however, did not tell us how much freedom he and his cameraman were allowed, and whether he was able to choose the people into whose homes he went. Certainly none of the Hungarians, most of them stiffly aware of the camera, had anything important to say.

City Jail Receives Thank You Letter

BEAUMONT (AP)—Letters of thanks are a matter of etiquette—but would you believe the city jail received one?

A Kountze, Tex., man sent just such a letter to Police Chief Willie Bauer recently after a seven-day stay.

"I want to compliment you on the fine way your jail is run," the polite prisoner wrote. "I must say I've never been in a jail quite like it and I've been in several of them."

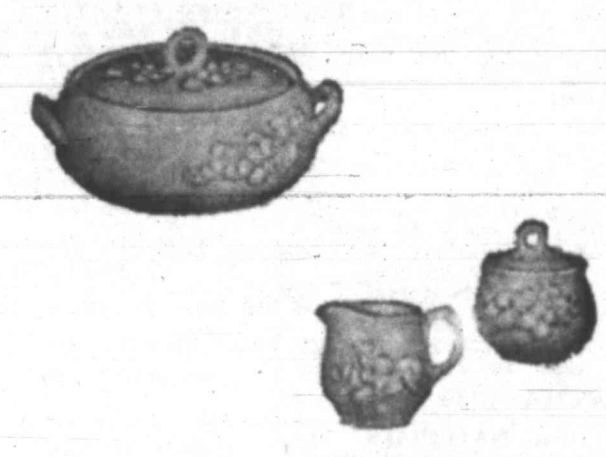

Sculptured Dinnerware by Poppy Trail

The discriminating homemaker will proudly entertain with either of these sculptured patterns, and delight her family with their smart beauty... "original" art patterns, done by Poppy Trail's talented decorators... both durable, oven proof and detergent proof.

- "Sculptured Zinnia" above left, the Zinnias are carved too detail, and hand painted in the luxurious combination of yellow-gold, orange, greens, and browns against a cream-white background.
- "Antique Grape" above right, carved grapes and leaves raised on a soft-beige, antique finish, against a warm-white background.

Ask to see "Sculptured Zinnia" and "Antique Grape" in our Gift Shop. Choose from a complete selection of open stock... listed are only a few of the available pieces.

Shooting Fatal

LAS VEGAS, N.M. (AP) — A New Mexico Highlands University student, Robert Tussing Jr., 19, was wounded in the hand 10 days ago while cleaning a rifle. He was killed Sunday by a shot in the head, police said, while he and another student were cleaning a rifle. Officers said both shootings apparently were accidental.

TEXANS AT WAR

Examination Called 'You Bet Your Life'

By The Associated Press

There's a school in Viet Nam where you're supposed to kill part of the faculty, and a Texan at war is an honor graduate.

The Texan is Sgt. Irving Herrmann, 32, of Dallas, and the school is the Military Assistance Command Reconnaissance and Commando School.

Its graduates are called Reconos, and Herrmann, a paratrooper with other special training for the Viet Nam war, carries the title of "Number One Recono."

PRESENTED KNIFE

He was tops in the 42-man class that took the initial course. In presenting him with his diploma and a Recono knife, Gen. William C. Westmoreland told the class "Throughout the history of the school, there will be only one Number One Recono."

The school's final examination is called "You Bet Your Life." This is a five-day combat operation against the Viet Cong.

SHOOT-BACK TARGETS

School commandant Maj. A. J. Baker describes this test as a penetration into enemy-infested jungle for an exercise with "pop-up, shoot-back targets."

"This is the only course in the Army where you're authorized to kill the training aides," Maj. Baker says.

Air Force Gives Up Radar Plane Search

OTIS AIR FORCE BASE, Mass. (AP) — The Air Force has given up its search for a radar picket plane that crashed in the Atlantic Friday and has declared the 19 crew members dead.

A burned flight jacket and other debris were found in the search area about 125 miles southeast of Nantucket Island near Cape Cod.

Nine Air Force officers arrived at Otis during the weekend to investigate the crash of the Constellation.
