WE HAVE WHAT we consider some good news to report. We discovered a major national magazine that apparently still employs human beings. At least one or two, to keep things going, and to answer correspondence.

We consider this a ray of hope, in the era of computers, or computerized cards, this is supposed to take care of any and all problems.

If you have ever had trouble with a subscription to a national magazine, you know what we're talking about. Have you ever written a letter to try to get a problem straightened out, only to have some sort of illogical computerized reply, with the result that within a few weeks you had double your original problem?

That is usually the way it works, anytime you write a letter to a big magazine's business office, even with the simplest request.

But we're here to announce that TV Guide, of all the biggies, still practices the ancient custom of hiring human people, and places a few of them in vital positions in their organization.

A few weeks back we wrote to the magazine, explaining that we had renewed our subscription, through one of the student sales drives, but had begun to receive a duplicate copy each week.

Fully expecting to receive the usual "put-down," as sent out by the magazine's Univac, or IBM system, to be followed within a week or two by a third copy of the magazine every week, we were pleasantly surprised to receive an actual correspondence from the magazine.

It was almost enough to bring us to tears. We thought those days were gone forever. It's the sort of thing that happened back in mother and daddy's time, but something that most folks in our generation can't recall.

In a way, we sort of felt like we had gone back in time. We wouldn't have been too surprised if we had turned on a radio and heard the old Fred Allen show coming on, or Amos 'n Andy, etc.

It's wonderful to know that the old customs aren't being completely discarded at every level.

And we hope that we haven't embarrassed the folks at TV Guide by revealing their secret. Now that it's out, perhaps some of the other publications would consider the personal approach.

It's sure a lot better than talking to a computer.

BASEBALL SEASON began in the major leagues this past week, and everyone got their money's worth on the first Monday night TV game, that went 12 innings before a winner was decided.

Amarillo stations appear to be catering to baseball a little more this season, starting from the first by carrying the Monday night game on Channel 7. Also, Channel 4 will be carrying the Texas Ranger games when that team is out of town on the weekends, plus the NBC game of the week on Saturdays.

So, if you are a sports widow, and your husband is a baseball fan, you may have lost him until football season. And you know that one isn't over until the other starts.

It may be hard for some of us to find time to do all the yard and garden work that we had planned on doing back when it was still wintertime.

Watson Is Tabbed For Star Position

Leon Watson, 29, will join the Friona Star staff as managing editor beginning on Monday, according to publisher Bill Ellis.

Watson, a native of the Lazbuddie community, Watson comes to Friona from Levelland where he served three years as general manager of The Surveyor, a twice-weekly newspaper in that community.

He is a 1971 graduate of West Texas State University with a major in journalism and minors in English and ROTC.

With the Levelland newspaper, Watson had experience in reporting, advertising sales and makeup, photography and production of the newspaper.

"We are happy to welcome Leon to our staff and to our community. We feel that he will be an asset to our newspaper, and will help us keep abreast of the news happenings in Friona. We feel that he will also be an asset to our community," Ellis said in announcing Watson's employment.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Watson of Muleshoe, former residents of the Lazbuddie community. He is an eligible bachelor, having just made it through another leap year.

Watson has been involved in newspaper work since September of 1973. While at Levelland, he wrote up

AC Seeks Interest In Course

According to a local spokesman, Amarillo College has indicated an interest in conducting a course in Friona on "marketing farm products" this fall, if sufficient interest is shown.

Classes would start around the last of August, and will run once a week for 16 weeks. It is proposed that the classes be held at night, once a week for three hours.

Regular college credit would be earned by those taking such a course, which can be geared toward what the students want to learn. The instructor will be furnished by Amarillo College.

Tuition would amount to $37.50 plus books.

Other details will be worked out at a later date, pending decision as to the need for the class. Those wishing to express their interest or ask questions are asked to call Bessie Holt at 247-2758. Brochures for the proposed class will be available at a later date.

RAINDROPS...Gladys Young discovered yet another use for the Friona Star on Thursday this week as she left Friona State Bank. Many residents were reminded of how it feels to be able to walk in the rain, an experience they had not had for quite some time.

Friona Area Gets Gentle Rainfall

The Friona area experienced a week of cool, rainy weather, with a potential for rain virtually every day Monday through Friday.

In the final analysis, a total of .46 inch was measured during the week ending at 8 a.m. Friday. Measurements from other parts of the county ranged upwards to an inch and more.

In town, an early morning shower left .19 inch on Thursday prior to 8 a.m. It began raining again around 11 a.m., and rained gently until around 1 p.m., leaving another .27 inch for the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. Friday.

Farmers were glad to see the moisture, but could use a lot more where that came from.

Corn planting operations had begun in some cases, but may have been halted where the rainfall was heaviest.

Baptists Launch Most Comprehensive Crusade

Evangelist Wayne Bristow of Lubbock will lead the "Living Proof" revival crusade at Friona's Baptist Church April 17-24. The local crusade is a part of the statewide emphasis on witnessing undertaken by the Southern Baptists.

Felix Snipes of Atlanta, Georgia will be the music director for the crusade. Snipes has appeared at the local church on previous occasions.

Jimmy Hodges of Lakeland, Florida, will be the featured soloist and director of youth activities during the crusade.

Services are scheduled for 10:15 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sundays. Nightly services at the church will begin at 7:30 p.m. On Tuesday through Friday, a noon service will be held, with a meal served, at the Friona Community Center. This service will run from 11:45 to 12:45.

"We invite all of our friends in the Friona area to come and worship with us for any and all of these services. We feel that the Lord has blessed us in sending us this outstanding team, and we would like to share their testimonies with everyone in the area," stated Rev. C.H. Murphy, pastor of First Baptist Church.

Bristow is a veteran of more than 400 evangelistic crusades throughout the world. These campaigns have ranged from local church meetings to massive area-wide endeavors. He has been heard by crowds of people in every part of the United States and in Canada, India, Portugal and Africa.

A native of Muleshoe, Bristow is a graduate of Wayland Baptist College. He is an ordained Baptist minister and served as a pastor prior to entering a full-time ministry of evangelism in March of 1963.

Married and the father of one son, Bristow often extends his ministry to include Bible conferences, youth retreats and radio and television. He is especially popular with student groups, and always gives at least one night of every crusade to a youth emphasis.

During a recent crusade, the evangelist stressed: "Man's great need is not for reformation, but transformation. Men do not need a new way of life, they need a New life. Our society can only be changed by changed men. Christ always shows His first concern for the individual."

Felix Snipes of Atlanta, Georgia, will be the music director and coordinator for the Wayne Bristow Crusade.

Since 1959, Snipes has been engaged in an international ministry of music evangelism. This had led to involvement in local church and area-wide crusades throughout the United States and in more than 20 countries of the world including Indonesia, Lebanon, India, England and Portugal.

Snipes is recognized by pastors and evangelists as one of today's most gifted crusade music directors and platform coordinators. Choirs under his direction use many of his own arrangements.

As a member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians, Mr. Snipes uses his illusory skill in attracting young people to crusade services and has become recognized as an authority on ESP, psychic phenomena and the occult.

Snipes is married and the father of three children.

Jimmy Hodges, a recording artist and former jazz band leader, will be featured soloist and director of youth activities during the Crusade.

A composer of Gospel music, the Oklahoma Baptist University graduate will be singing many of his own compositions during the special services each evening.

Dinner Slated For Area Law Officers

Guest speaker will be Walter Bull, of Amarillo Law Enforcement Center.

Tickets are available at the Chamber of Commerce office, the law enforcement center, Rushing Insurance, Wilhelm TV and Carroll's.

"We want to show the law officers that we appreciate their hard work, and also find out from them how we as citizens can help them out," said Joe Mexia, a spokesman for the sponsoring organization.

An appreciation dinner for the Law Enforcement officers of Friona and Parker County has been scheduled for Tuesday, April 26, at the Friona Community Center.

Sponsored by St. Teresa's Catholic Church, the meeting will begin at 7:30 on the date mentioned. A donation of $5 will be asked of those planning to attend the banquet meeting, to defray expenses.

Special guests will be all local law officers, and as many county officers as can attend.

Friona Flashbacks

45 YEARS AGO—APRIL 15, 1932

Through the efforts of a few of our businessmen, Friona now has a regularly organized golf club, which organization was completed last week. The new organization now has a membership of 35, with Dr. R.R. Wills as president and Howard G. Morris, secretary, F.A. Spring, treasurer, and O.F. Lange, chairman of greens committee.

Last Saturday afternoon as Chester Sheets of the Farmers Produce Company of Friona was enroute to Lubbock with a new cargo of eggs, cream and poultry, his truck was capsized and his cargo badly scattered. The accident occurred south of Hale Center on the state highway at 3 p.m. when the truck collided with a car, coming onto the highway from a side road.

35 YEARS AGO—APRIL 10, 1942

J.A. Blackwell Tuesday was elected mayor of Friona in a quiet city election which saw no other change in the list of present city office holders. Blackwell defeated the present mayor, F.W. Reeve, by a vote of 65 to 31. For commissioner F.A. Spring and Carl Maurer were re-elected, and Logan Symphon was again chosen city clerk. Jones was re-elected as night watchman.

Friona citizens have always been proud of their city, and home town patriotism took a jump this week in the splendid response for a 100 per cent "close up" and "all out" for the monster Army Day Parade at Amarillo, where one of our most highly esteemed citizens was one of the guests of honor. Friona's wholehearted cooperation was prompted by the honor being done to Mrs. George M. Baker, Six-Star Mother, and one of the honor guests in Amarillo.

Friona Star was one of three weekly newspapers cited for Community service at the annual meeting of the Panhandle Press Association as it met in Amarillo last Friday and Saturday. Papers receiving recognition for service were The Canadian Record, the Paducah and the Star.

Voters of the Friona School District last Saturday made their choice for three board members, selecting C.V. Potts, George Jones and Roy Clements. Trustee at large selected was W.M. Sherley. The school election was closely followed by the interest in the straw vote for presidential choice, with General Eisenhower accorded the greatest vote, followed by Taft and MacArthur.

20 YEARS AGO—APRIL 11, 1957

Sale by Bert Chitwood to Rockwell Bros. Lumber Company of the lots just south of the firm in Friona was announced this week. The location was originally occupied by the Friona Locker Plant.

With the arrival of a 180-pound meeting table—the last piece of furniture ordered to go into the building—the City of Friona will have its oft-delayed open house for the new city hall Saturday. The hall, which cost the city in the neighborhood of $36,000, will be officially presented to the public for the first time, although many citizens have already been in the building's offices, and some have toured the entire hall. The building joins the fire station at the corner of Eighth and Main.

15 YEARS AGO—APRIL 12, 1962

A raging fire consumed approximately two-thirds of a 16 by 100 foot barn on Eric Rushing's farm one mile west of Friona at 10:30 Friday night. Firemen arrived in time to extinguish the inferno and save part of the structure. Damage was estimated at approximately $700 by Rushing, owner of the barn.

The April report from Friona State Bank show that deposits have increased almost one million dollars since January 1 to set a new all-time high. Total deposits at present are shown at $6,307,398.91. Deposits on January 1 were reported as $5,447,336.28 which allows an increase of $860,062.53 in three months.

Ellis Tatum and Walt Mabry were elected to the Friona School Board in the lightest voter turnout of any district in the county Saturday.

10 YEARS AGO—APRIL 13, 1967

An explosion of unknown causes destroyed the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Bates Tuesday, but the family was all out of the house at the time and escaped injury and possible death. The farm home belonged to Jack Moseley, and was located some nine miles southeast of Friona on land belonging to Ranza Boggs.

Hi-Plains Feed Yards, Inc., with a future capacity of 50,000 head of cattle, became a reality this week with the hiring of a manager and awarding of its construction contract. Located four and one-half miles northwest of Friona on land purchased from Bill Baxter, plans call for complete facilities for feeding, including mill, ensilage pits, feeding equipment and pens properly engineered for drainage and anti-pollution. Construction is slated to begin within two weeks and is scheduled to be in operation by the middle of September. The mill will be built and erected by Brown-McKee, Inc., Contractors and Engineers of Lubbock.

The Friona Chamber of Commerce set out to coordinate a local drive for a livestock showbarn as a highlight of its monthly board meeting Tuesday morning at Earl's Parmer House Restaurant. The matter of the showbarn has been under considerable discussion since the recent Parmer County Junior Livestock Show.

Girls and Boys State delegates were named the past week by Friona American Legion and Auxiliary. Sharon Smith is the delegate to Girls State, with Darlene Harper, alternate. Gary Mingus is the delegate to Boys State with Carl Evans, alternate.

To The Editor

Dear Bill,
I know you probably get tired of hearing people gripe all the time; but I have one that I can't get out of my mind.

As most people know, we have put a new business in, called "The XIT Sprinkler Company." Recently our local nursing home, Prairie Acres, asked us to submit a bid on a sprinkler system for their lawn. They also had another company submit a bid. This other company is from Clovis (out-of-town, out-of-state).

Well, to make a long story short, our bid was cheaper, we had 54 more sprinkler heads planned, and we are a local firm, which pays city taxes; yet the Prairie Acres board members decided to go out of town to a firm who doesn't pay city taxes and who really couldn't care less if Friona lives or dies!

The board members did this simply for one reason, and that is because they thought our company doesn't have enough experience. Now how can anyone think any new business can survive if no one will patronize them due to lack of experience?

You know, if our bid had been higher than the Clovis company's, I wouldn't have been so unhappy. But that is not the case. The board chose the other company because they felt we didn't have enough experience.

I admit we are new in the business, but we have put in a few systems and we do know what we are doing.

You know, I think it stinks when something that every citizen in the City of Friona worked so hard for, and contributed so much to, can't patronize a local business.

Prairie Acres is paying more money for less quality than what the XIT Sprinkler Company offered.

And when it comes right down to it, the subject of experience can be turned right around and aimed at the nursing home. Some people might say, for example, they haven't been here long enough.

Bill, if the people of Friona don't get behind one another and support each other, we are going to dry up and blow away. You always hear someone say "Shop Friona First" and "Buy At Home," but when you get right down to it, our own civil municipalities won't even support local business! This city won't survive with these things happening.

Another thing which needs to happen is for our Chamber of Commerce to "get off its can" and promote more industry in Friona.

I know there are a lot of people who are going to call me a sore loser, but I'm not the only loser in this deal. Every new business in town is a loser with the kind of support we receive.

I enjoy living in Friona and hope that the people will get behind one another and show our local banker, school superintendent, implement dealer and funeral director from the nursing home board, that we can make it!

But if they are going to support out-of-town, out-of-state businesses, we don't have to support them!

Thanks,
J.D. Spencer, Jr.

Editor's Note: It sounds to us as though you have every right to be upset, especially in light of the fact that you were asked to bid in the first place.

Unfortunately, we have discovered that some of the worst offenders of the "Shop at Home" theory are business people themselves, who could write you a glowing editorial on the virtues of shopping at home, and yet turn right around and make a major purchase out of town.

We never have been able to understand this. You hit the nail on the head when you said that if business people, of all people, can't "scratch each other's backs," then it's hard to expect the average citizen to be loyal, guided by their example.

Cancer Crusade To Begin April 18

"Concerned About Cancer? Learn ...The Seven Safeguards and.... Know Cancer's Seven Warning Signals."

This is the message that bright little orange, brown, and white leaflets will be conveying to people in Friona beginning April 18. That will be the start of the American Cancer Society's educational and fund-raising Crusade it was announced today by Mrs. Evelyn Ball. The Crusade supports the ACS programs of Research, Education, Service and Rehabilitation.

"We want to help save more lives in the Friona area so we hope to put a leaflet in every home," declared Mrs. Ball.

"Let's check them out" suggests the leaflet, citing do's and don'ts for the prevention or the early detection of cancer. For example, for lungs, "don't smoke"; for the skin, "don't over sun"; for women, "do monthly BSE (breast self examination); for oral protection, "do see your dentist or doctor for a regular mouth checkup; for cervical cancer "do have a Pap test and pelvic exam"; for colon-rectum safety "do have a procto exam at checkup time if over 40." And for overall protection, have a regular health checkup.

The Seven Warning Signals identify certain conditions that should be immediately checked out by a physician.

The little leaflet with the lifesaving hints will be distributed nationally by more than 2,300,000 ACS volunteers.

Friona Crusade volunteers met April 14 to make final plans for the Crusade to begin next Monday. They urge everyone to give generously to the American Cancer Society this year. It is a crusade for life and we want to wipe out cancer in your lifetime.

Baptists In Statewide Crusade

"Living Proof," an unparalleled $1.5 million media evangelism campaign featuring testimonies by well-known personalities such as Houston Oiler Billy "White Shoes" Johnson; actor Dean Jones; former militant Eldridge Cleaver; country and western super stars Jeannie C. Riley and Connie Smith; successful businessman Allan Mayer of Oscar Mayer Company; Miss Teenage America, Rebecca Ann Reid; Rosargentina Pinel, Consul General of the Republic of Honduras; former band leader Paulino Bernal; and Antonio Mendoza of the U.S. Office of Equal Employment who have experienced changed lives through commitment to Jesus Christ is being funded by Texas Baptists.

Large numbers of professions of faith have marked the first wave of media saturation and revival meetings since the campaign began February 21 in North Texas. According to a recent issue of The Baptist Standard, many persons have responded to the "Living Proof" testimonies by writing to Box 1000, Dallas, Texas 75221. The primary response, however, is expected to come from local Baptist churches and people who have experienced "Living Proof."

West Texas saturation began March 28, and churches in the area are in the process of holding revivals to climax the campaign.

The First Baptist Church of Friona will have the Wayne Bristow crusade which runs a week beginning April 17.

Little Dribblers Fight To State Tourney Finals

Friona's Little Dribbler All-Stars battled their way to the finals of the state LD tournament last weekend in the suburbs of Fort Worth.

Friona scored wins over rival Dimmitt and Hale Center, but lost two games to the state champion Denver city team, a team that had superior height and size on every team in the tournament, with four of their five starters being larger than Friona's tallest youngster.

Coach Kenneth Neill commented "We had to drive 400 miles to play Dimmitt, but that one game (which Friona won, 31-29) was worth the trip for the kids. It was a typical Friona-Dimmitt battle—close all the way."

The Friona team played one of its better games in the first round Friday morning when they played the state champion Denver City team within three points in a 38-35 loss. The DC outfit held a slim 17-16 lead at the half, and had a three-point edge at the three quarter mark. Friona came back to tie the game at 32-all in the late stages.

But Friona lost the services of starters Joey Howard and Mike Neill on fouls with two minutes left. It was a closely called game, with 45 fouls called.

The loss put Friona into the loser's bracket, and forced them to really come out scrapping. They faced neighboring Dimmitt in the Friday afternoon game, and it was really a scorcher. Witness the quarter scores: first quarter, Dimmitt, 8-6; half, Dimmitt, 12-11; third quarter, Friona, 21-18; final: Friona 31-29. The three-point edge at the end of the third quarter was the widest margin of the game.

"Dimmitt was the only team we played that was equal in size to our kids," Neill said. Mike Neill, the coach's son, tallied 12 points to pace scoring for both teams.

In their Saturday morning game, Friona met Hale Center, and had to stage a fantastic rally to prevent elimination.

Hale Center was a much larger team, and ran up a 15-3 lead at one point in the second quarter. But Friona went into a half-court press, stealing the ball several times, and cut the lead to 17-10 by halftime.

The press continued to work for Friona in the third quarter, which went to the future Chieftains, 12-4, and shot Friona into the lead at 22-21. Friona continued its good play in the final quarter for the win.

"The last half of the Hale Center game was our best performance of the tournament," said Neill, pointing out that Friona outscored the junior Owls, 22-11.

In the team's second meeting with Denver City, they came up with their worst game of the tournament. In addition, after two closely called games, this one was wide open.

Friona's coldness at the free throw line cost the team, as they hit only four of 14 attempts, and missed several first shots of 1-1 possibilities.

It was still the best showing for a Friona Little Dribbler team since the expansion of the program into a regional and state champion setup.

Squaws Claim Meet Title

Paced by a double win by jumper Sylvia Malouf, who set a school and meet record in the triple jump, the Friona Squaws captured the meet championship of the Muleshoe Girls Relays last Friday by scoring 130 points to host Muleshoe's 119.

It was the first meet title of the spring for the Squaws, who were out to defend their District 3-AA championship at Olton on Friday.

Miss Malouf won the long jump with a leap of 16-2½, and set the FHS school record and Muleshoe Relays record of 33-8 in the triple jump.

The Squaws won six events. Friona's 880-yard relay team won with a fine clocking of 1:47.0, but the mile relay team was edged out by Lubbock Cooper. Friona's 4:08.3 is still the fifth best timing this spring in the Panhandle, regardless of classification.

Janice Peak won the 220-yard dash with a 26.7 effort. Paige Osborn won the 440-yard dash in 61.39, and Cindy Cleveland won the 100-yard dash in 11.89 to complete Friona's gold medals. The team scored in every event except the high jump.

speaker for the Crusade, said, "I have invited Jimmy Hodges to work with the young people during this crusade because of his understanding of the problems of today's teenagers. Our young people are confronted with pressures that my generation did not face, and Jimmy Hodges knows how to help them find the right answers."

The versatile Hodges, who has been featured guest as speaker and drum demonstration specialist for hundreds of high school and college assembly programs, is scheduled to present a drum exhibition during the "Jesus Celebration" for young people on Thursday, April 21. A "Jesus Happening" under his direction is also planned for young people each night during the Crusade.

Hodges, a tenor soloist, who often sings with a pretaped orchestra and choral background, was elected for three consecutive years as director of music for the National Conference of Southern Baptist Evangelists. Currently serving as executive secretary for Outreach Evangelism, Inc., Hodges has been involved in crusades throughout the United States and in Africa, the Caribbean Islands and Portugal. "Jimmy has worked with young people and has been featured soloist for more than 350 crusades in America and abroad," said Felix Snipes, music director and coordinator for the Team.

Thursday Is Youth Night For Crusade

Thursday night, April 21, has been designated as Youth Night during the Wayne Bristow Evangelistic Crusade now in progress at First Baptist Church, according to Rev. C.H. Murphy, pastor. This special service is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Evangelist Bristow is a frequent speaker on campuses both in the United States and overseas. He has a great rapport with students, and relates the Christian message to them in an aggressive, straightforward manner. His sermon Thursday night will have special interest to young people from junior high through 25 years of age. Rev. Murphy has expressed his strong desire to see local civic and educational leaders present at the Crusade on Thursday evening, when a positive answer will be voiced to many of the problems facing today's youth. A "youth only" session described as a "Jesus Celebration" will follow the evangelistic service on Youth Night. This period will feature Jimmy Hodges, soloist for the Bristow Team, doing an exciting drum demonstration. During a recent crusade, Wayne Bristow said, "I have looked at every hero and cause calling for the commitment of young people, and not one of them compares to Jesus. Christ alone can meet the deep need of the human heart. Young people everywhere are turning from the pursuit of sex, security and success, and are turning to Jesus. Where this is happening, men are really 'coming alive!'"

ESP, Occult Will Be Discussed

ESP, psychic phenomena and other aspects of the supernatural, the mysterious world of the occult, will be explored and explained in Friona Friday night, April 22, by Felix Snipes of Atlanta, Georgia, a professional magician who deals with all things supernatural. Snipes, an associate of Evangelist Wayne Bristow, will discuss "ESP, Psychic Phenomena and the Occult" during a special program following the Friday night service of the Wayne Bristow Crusade now in progress at First Baptist Church of Friona.

"During a time when thousands of teenagers are delving into the black arts, I believe there is an urgency in dealing with the occult in a bold, frank manner," says Snipes. The Wayne Bristow Evangelistic Team, of which Felix Snipes is a member, is being featured in special services at 7:30 p.m. each evening this week at Friona's First Baptist Church. Snipes will also perform a magic show on Saturday, April 23 at the church, beginning at 10:30 a.m., especially for children in grades 1-6. Friona," he said.

According to Rev. C.H. Murphy, pastor, the occult presentation will be open to young people from junior high through 25 and single. The pastor stressed that because of the unusual subject matter it will be very important for those attending to stay for the entire program.

"At one time I believed in only one aspect of the supernatural," says Snipes. "I believed in God but I could not accept the existence of Satan, of demons, etc. But a few years ago I became convinced that there does exist a larger realm of the supernatural than just God Himself."

Snipes, a member of the International Brotherhood of Magicians, will conduct experiments in thought projection Friday night, using persons from the audience. These experiments will be similar to those done by Kreskin, who has been seen by millions on national TV. (Snipes has also appeared on television throughout the country, including an interview on CBS with Roger Mudd.)

A veteran of 15 years in an international ministry of evangelism, Snipes approaches the supernatural in a Christian context. He says, "If we accept the Bible as truth, we must accept the existence of supernatural things. There are many places in the Bible dealing with witches, astrology and sorcery."

Snipes has found satanism (worship of the devil) and the practice of witchcraft to be widespread in America.

Library Report

"Bing," an authorized biography, by Charles Thompson, is available at Friona Public Library.
Fifty years ago this autumn Harry Lillis Crosby arrived in Hollywood to seek fame and fortune—on foot and dragging with him an aging suitcase. His $20 Model T Ford had died miles outside the city of Los Angeles. He was broke, but he still had one asset—a million dollar voice.
Today he is a legend, one of the greatest entertainers of all time and probably the best-loved character on film, with the exception of Mickey Mouse.

Now, Charles Thompson reveals the complete Bing in this, his golden jubilee year: the man and the legend, from the big-band hell-raiser who crawled to Mass on Sundays, to the benign father-figure now raising a second family in a quiet country mansion with the Duke of Windsor's ex-butler in attendance.
Bing has known both hard times and the good life and Bing has sold more records as the undisputed first citizen of the recording industry.
His story covers five fascinating decades of show business. This biography uncovers the intimate side of the beloved Groaner and his two great loves, and of course, the pictures from his own family album.

Double Ring Wedding Ceremony

Unites Fontella Cox, Robert Lewis

Fontella Denice Cox of Bovina and Robert V. Lewis of Eastland exchanged double ring wedding vows on Saturday, March 19.

The ceremony was performed by Cliff Ennen in the First Baptist Church of Bovina.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joe R. Cox of Bovina. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R.V. Lewis of Eastland.

The church was decorated with a gold archway decorated with blue, white and green carnations overhead with baskets of greenery on each side.

Julie Ann Moody was pianist. Brad and Stan Treider, cousins of the bride, sang "Wedding Song" and Dave Martin of Clovis sang "We've Only Just Begun" played by Carol Ennen.

As the bride was presented in marriage by her parents, she wore a formal length gown. The dress featured a fitted waistline trimmed in lace. The full skirt featured a ruffle at the bottom with a row of lace above the ruffle.

She carried a bouquet of blue and green carnations with baby's breath and white ribbon streamers.

Carrying out bridal tradition, she carried a handkerchief belonging to her great-grandmother for something old. Something new was her wedding gown. She borrowed a cameo brooch belonging to her grandmother and a gold bracelet belonging to the sister of the groom. She wore the traditional blue garter.

Denice Holcome of Clovis was the matron of honor. Freda McGram of Eastland, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid.

Mike Lewis of Eastland, brother of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman was Clint Cox of Bovina, brother of the bride.

Sherry McGram of Eastland, niece of the groom, was the flower girl. Candelights were Juanean Cox of Bovina, sister of the bride, and Shelly McGram, niece of the groom.

Ushers were Larry Smith of Eastland and Jimmy Sharp of Eastland.

Trudy Cox of Bovina, sister-in-law of the bride, registered guests.

The maid of honor wore a full length dress of blue knit. The dress featured bell sleeves topped with lace. The empire waistline was decorated with white lace and a tie belt.

The other feminine attendants wore gowns designed identical to the dress worn by the maid of honor. Their gowns were light green.

They carried carnations matching their dresses with baby's breath and matching ribbon.

Winners Are Announced In Essay Contest

The Parmer County Soil and Water Conservation District has had the Conservation Essays for the 1976-77 year judged. The title of the essay was "Soil and Water Conservation Past and Future."

The winners are: Jeffrey Mark Grissom of Bovina, first; Stephan Michael Klimek of Bovina, second; Glenn G. Corbin of Bovina, third; and Ruth Aguirre of Friona, fourth.

FIRST PLACE

JEFFREY MARK GRISSOM
Bovina, Texas
Son of Mr. and Mrs.
Leonard L. Grissom

Last summer as my father and I were flying back from a cattle trip in East Texas I saw something that disturbed me. As we drew closer to Parmer County we noticed an unnaturally dark, murky hazelina about four thousand feet above the ground.

This hazelina, smog-cloud rather, was the product of burning corn stubble across the countryside. The most obvious misdeed here was the air pollution, but it wasn't the misdeed of most consequence. All of the smoke was composed of organic materials that are essential to the fertilize of topsoil. They were organic materials that are lost from the soil forever.

This earth once had an average topsoil layer of eight inches. Today it has been worn down to six inches. With this in mind it seems that people would take more care in preserving our precious topsoil layer, because when that goes, we go with it.

Even if soil conservation was not a problem the soil would do us little good without water to irrigate it. According to a recent study we pump water from the Ogallala Aquifer in Parmer County at thirteen times the rate of natural recharge. At this rate a water shortage is inevitable. Without underground water we would depend upon precipitation for drinking water, which doesn't sound very promising.

I realize the solution to our problem is not a simple one, but it is mandatory. God gave mankind only one earth and when we use it up there will be no more.

Our dilemma, although complex, is basically very simple. We either abandon all wasteful practices of the past and deal effectively with the present or our future generations will most surely starve to death. This is not our predestination. By working together, it can be prevented.

SECOND PLACE

STEPHAN MICHAEL KLIMEK
Bovina, Texas

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Klimek
"Conservation means the wise use of the earth and its resources...for the greatest good of the greatest number for the longest time."
Gifford Pinchot

The conservation of our nations soil and water has long been considered an important issue by concerned Americans.

Even in the first days of our country, when most Americans thought that our natural resources were inexhaustible, there were a few men who recognized the need for conservation of our soil and water. George Washington was concerned with soil erosion of his estate on Mount Vernon and Thomas Jefferson was in favor of contour plowing to prevent the erosion of the soil.

Many steps have been taken by Congress in the past, in order to deal with the conservation of our nations' soil and water. This included the creation of the Department of the Interior in 1849, the Department of Agriculture in 1862 from which the Soil Conservation Service was born and the development of many other conservation oriented groups. It also authorized the construction of numerous systems of dams and reservoirs.

Many measures have been taken to conserve our water and soil in the past but the most important are yet to come. New methods of supplying water for the irrigation of crops, new procedures for the renewal of soil and new methods of farming to produce more with less, are already being developed today, and there is much more to come tomorrow.

Our soil is quickly losing its ability to produce sufficient food to feed an ever-growing population and our useable water is fast disappearing. It will take a strong effort on the part of our nations conservation groups and on the part of all Americans to keep our fertile soil and clean water from becoming something of the past.

THIRD PLACE

GLENN G. CORBIN
Bovina, Texas

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Monte Corbin
Soil and water are about the most important things in the world today. Without them, nothing could survive.

Many people in the past have wasted the soil not knowing that it would take hundreds of years just to remake one inch of itself.

Man has polluted the water for so long that much of it is now ruined. Yes, the greed of man has taken its toll in much of the world.

How will the men of the future handle this situation? They will probably learn much from our mistakes. Their ways of forming and preserving soil and water will probably be different. The people of the future will likely have little from which to work and much to do. Their concerns will be with the problems that have now made themselves felt; the problems of feeding an evergrowing population and providing the things that such a mass of people will need. Millions of dollars are already being spent on these problems. The question at point is, is there enough time?

New farming methods are already being applied, and new methods of conservation are being put into use. But this problem doesn't apply only to the agriculturists and conservationists. They are also our problems. We as citizens of the world must come to realize that the future is at hand and progress is slow. Education of the masses is also slow and cannot be depended upon.

As young adults we have other interests. Our teachers talk about nature and the beauty of it as seen by poets and musicians and other masters of the fine arts. We see only places to go and things to do and the fun of life. At this point in our lives, most of us are uncaring and insensitive. Maybe this is where the teaching should start, with the youth of the nation. After all, the youth are the hope of the future, and this is only right because the future is for the youth.

FOURTH PLACE

RUTH AGUIRRE
Friona, Texas
Daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Adolfo Aguirre

Civilization is based on the productivity of the land. Because our American land was so rich and vast our forefathers were able to misuse it for more than a century. The pioneers worked hard to build their homes and establish their security. Even those farmers who were ruined by soil damage could abandon their gullies and find virgin soil if they moved inland. It was easier to make cropland from grassland than forest of the East. But the pioneer farmer had to cut the timber and plow the sod to produce food.

Erosion by water followed land clearing in the East and erosion by wind and water in the West.

Land problems varied from one part of the country to another but the pattern was much the same. A single-resource approach to development, a single-practice approach to problems, and using up resources for immediate gain.

Damage increased as steeper land was brought into cultivation. After the crops were harvested the land was left bare and exposed to the elements. During a single rain an inch of topsoil would be washed off sloping land. It was fed into streams, and the streams ran thick with mud. When the stream channels filled with sediment, water spread over the bottom land during a heavy rain. Reservoirs also filled with sediment and became useless.

The public did not become alarmed by the depletion of farmland until the depression and the drought of the 1930's. It was in this setting the Soil Conservation movement got its start, in the late 1920's and early 1930's. A federal appropriation was made in 1929 to study the effect of erosion and ways to control it. One of the first lessons learned in getting conservation on the land was that the people as well as the soil were involved. Another lesson learned was that there are essentially two basic steps to soil and water conservation on a tract of land. The first is to determine the maximum safe use of crops, grass, trees, wildlife, recreation, or other use. The second step is to apply conservation practices that conserve water and protect the soil while it is in that particular use.

Our solution for safe guarding our soils on slopes where soil erosion by water is the hazard is to increase the rainwater-intake capacity of the soil by retaining crop litter at the surface, soil improvement, crop rotations, and strip cropping on the contour and to lead away unabsorbed storm waters in channels of broad-base terraces into outlet channels. Terrace outlet channels were laid out to carry water harmlessly through one farm and another to natural drainage channels.

Meeting In Bovina Will Explore WIFE Group

A meeting is scheduled in Bovina on Monday, April 18 to explore the possibilities of organizing a "WIFE" group in Parmer County.

The meeting will be held at the Community Room of First State Bank, beginning at 8 p.m.

WIFE stands for "Women Involved in Farm Economics." Representatives will be on hand who have formed organizations of this kind in their communities, who will explain the function and operation of the organization.

The movement began in Sidney, Nebraska when nine farm wives met in early December protesting low farm prices and escalating costs sprouting up in the Great Plains. Drouth and poor prices for nearly all farm commodities are forcing them off the farm and they are asking for government help.

At a January 6 meeting at Goodland, Kansas, organized by farm wives from five northwest Kansas and northeast Colorado counties, a spokesman took the floor, according to an article in the Farm Journal. She said that farmers can't wait for an organization, that the problem is much more acute. Farmers need to know what to do so they can decide whether or not they can plant this spring, or whether they are going under. A crowd of 250 farmers and farm wives cheered in agreement. When they met again January 14 about 1,400 showed up. Bankers and other businessmen came. Colorado Senator Gary Hart and Third District Congressman Frank Evans were on hand along with representatives of other Kansas and Colorado officials. Many state legislators skipped session in Topeka to attend. At this meeting, a Kit Carson County farmer's wife told the group, "We are not here in response to any farm organization. We are not here because of any production specialty. We are here because of one unified problem: depressed prices on all agricultural commodities. The cog in the wheel squeaking the loudest is the one that gets the grease. We're not squeaking. We're screaming? And we will be heard."

Five proposals have been made by a committee that they want implemented in the next 30 to 60 days. They included 100 commodity loans; immediate investigation and enforcement of the beef import act; re-enactment of the Sugar Act; emergency loans administered by local banks for farmers who had to sell below break-even prices, and an investigation into commodity markets and large grain exporters.

Bedford Forrest, of KVII-TV in Amarillo, will be here for the meeting, and three ladies from Spearman.

The plan is to get as many as thirteen counties in the Panhandle area to form an organization. Men are urged to accompany their wives to the meeting.

REMEMBERING...
By BILL BROOKS

New Pair Of Shoes

A new pair of shoes was a big event in our lives since we only got one pair a year. After the crop was in we would all go into town on Saturday to be outfitted with new clothes. We usually got one Sunday outfit and three or four pair of jeans and some everyday shirts. But I think what I looked forward to most was a new pair of shoes.

Mom would be careful to check and make sure we all had on clean socks without holes that day because one time when the shoe clerk had pulled off my old shoe a bunch of sand came out and got on his floor. My mother was so embarrassed she later said she should have just walked out of the store and left me sitting there. But I couldn't see why the dirt mattered all that much, 'cause that happened all the time at home.

The clerk would say, "Well, young man what'll it be for you today?" Mother would usually answer for me. "Some brown oxfords, please, something that'll wear good." The clerk would look at my old shoes and say as he watched my big toe wiggling through a hole, "My land, looks like you're about to the end of those."

He would put my foot in a wooden thing with numbers on it and figure out what size I should wear. He'd tell Mom what size it measured and she'd say, "Better bring out a size larger, the way this youngun's growing I don't want to buy something he'll outgrow in six months."

He would bring out several pairs and Mom would pick out the ones she liked. When the shoes came out of the box they were so shiny and smelled so good. They were never laced up but the clerk could lace 'em up quicker than you could blink an eye. I remember watching him and wondering, "How can he do that so fast?" Besides that the two loose ends would always come out exactly the same length.

When we decided on a pair he would ask if I wanted to wear them. "Sure." I would spend the rest of the day in town walking and window shopping but mostly looking at my feet, proud of my new shoes.

The shoes I remember most while I was growing up were some combat boots. It was during the war when they became popular. Every little boy thought he just had to have some. I was so proud of mine, they looked just like real soldier boots. I remember wearing them out of the store, looking down at them and walking right into a light pole.

When we first got new shoes we would have to save them to wear on Sunday but after a while when they started showing skuff marks we could wear them for everyday.

New shoes were a sure sign you were growing since every new pair was larger than your old ones. They would seem so big at first.
