

ANNUAL BUDGET PROPOSED

Texas Solons Told To Skip New Taxes

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. John Connally asked the Legislature Wednesday night for a revolutionary change in budgeting that would finance state government for another year without new taxes.

Thunderous applause from the tax-worried senators and House members welcomed the words "without the imposition of any new taxes."

But Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, whom many thought Connally indirectly reprimanded in the speech and who may hold the key to the success of the proposal, sat with his hands tightly clasped in his lap.

The governor's recommendation was in a dramatic, 30-minute statewide televised speech to a joint session of the Legislature in a jam-packed House chamber.

Connally, who for some time has advocated annual legislative sessions and yearly budgets, asked the lawmakers to abandon — now — the traditional two-year budget and appropriate funds for just one year, the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1. Sometime next year — the unspecified date already has legislators itching over the possible political ramifications — he plans to call them into special session to appropriate funds for the year ending Aug. 31, 1969.

NO APPLAUSE
Because the state's economic growth has consistently produced more taxes than estimated when appropriations bills were passed, Connally said he anticipates that the special session next year "may be able to save as much as $50 million in taxes by this method."

Strangely, no applause greeted this assertion. Perhaps it was the words "special session... in 1968" that cooled the members off for a moment.

DEADLINE
When Connally might call the special session had them all wondering. Speculation center on January — just before the filing deadline for 1968 political candidates in February.

Some suggested June, after the Democratic primary, but the Texas Constitution would prohibit an appropriation bill from taking effect for 90 days — or after Sept. 1 — if it failed to get a two-thirds majority. The speech also was a scolding — not always a mild one — for legislative inaction in the first 100 days of the session on many parts of the governor's program.

SPEECH CORE
But the core of the speech was these words:

"I propose to you that this Legislature presently pass an appropriation act to cover the necessary financing of this state government for only the first year of the next biennium.

"By using the unexpanded balance of approximately $140 million in the General Revenue Fund to finance a one-year appropriation, the needs of this state during the first year of this biennium can be met without imposition of any new taxes whatsoever.

"I will call a special session of the Texas Legislature in 1968 to provide for the requisite financing of our state government for the second year of the biennium. In 1968, we will have the opportunity to take advantage of the experience of the coming year; of economic expansion and growth; of more accurate short-range forecast of available funds.

"While new taxes will then unquestionably be required to meet our needs, I am convinced beyond any measure of doubt that increased available revenue estimates for both years of this biennium will sharply reduce the total amount of new taxes required for funding the level of spending which I have recommended. I anticipate that we may be able to save as much as $50 million in new taxes by this method."

Rep. W. S. Heatly, Paducah, chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said he had had some advance notice and his committee already was reworking the General Appropriation Bill on a one-year basis. He said the bill probably would come out of his committee Monday.

"I very much endorse it," said

Heatly, who added in answer to a question that he felt a one-year 5 per cent teacher pay raise also could be given without needing new taxes.

Smith said the proposal "deserves every consideration... I will study it and I will have a statement within the next day or two."

Smith, Heatly, Speaker Ben Barnes and Sen. A. M. Aikin, Paris, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, met with Connally later in the governor's office.

Connally reminded the legislators that Wednesday was the 100th day of the 140-day regular session.

He renewed his demand for revision of the Code of Criminal Procedure, saying there was no time for it and penal code revision, "to be blocked in a committee at the whim of a few obstructionists." Connally's code revision proposals are still in a Senate committee while a milder code revision by Sen. Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo, has been sent to the Senate floor but has failed to come up for debate.

The governor ticked off 16 other major issues which have not received final action, including constitutional revision, liquor by the drink, election code changes, state parks acquisition, consumer credit code and streamlining of metropolitan government.

Connally's Speech Reaction Is Mixed

AUSTIN (AP) — Legislators generally liked Gov. John Connally's proposal of a one-year appropriations bill with no new taxes but were leery of a special session in an election year.

Here are some sample comments after the governor's address to a joint session Wednesday night.

Speaker Ben Barnes — "The prospect of saving $50 million and not having to pass a tax bill is appealing. I think this new idea will be met with a great deal of support in the House."

SOUNDS GREAT
Lt. Gov. Preston Smith — "This is a rather new approach to a method of operating state government. . . . It certainly deserves every consideration."

Rep. Everson Stewart, Wichita Falls — "I don't think any of us is too anxious to pass a tax bill in an election year."

Sen. Ralph Hall, Rockwall — "Sounds great. I think it is a realistic plan and the Senate will act favorably."

Rep. Jake Johnson, San Antonio — "I was disappointed. I thought he was going to resign — and you can quote me on that."

Sen. Henry Grover, Houston,

HOUSTON — Mrs. Betty Henry, one of the most active women in the beer industry, will speak at a business session of the Wholesale Beer Distributors of Texas convention here on April 22.

She is the wife of J. W. (Shotgun) Henry of the D.K.T. Co., Coors distributor in the Big Spring-Midland - Odessa area, and a vice president of WBDT.

Mrs. Henry, member-at-large of National WAABI, will bring humor and facts about WAABI to the delegates in her talk, "Women Are Your Best Public Relations — Besides They're Prettier."

Because her husband's nickname is "Shotgun," Mrs. Henry has long been called "Pistol" by their many friends in the industry.

Both are licensed pilots and fly their own plane to industry meetings across the state and nation. Mrs. Henry has flown in women's cross-country flight competitions. She also covered the state and a good part of the country with other WAABIs as her passengers, flying to meetings, such as the WAABI Area meeting this month in Atlanta, Ga.

She has been president of her own West Texas chapter and has been nominated as a vice president of the National WAABI this year.

The Henrys are parents of twin daughters and a son.

Two Enter Guilty Pleas

Two defendants entered pleas of guilty in 118th District Court Wednesday to three complaints. James W. Legate, charged with DWI second in two separate indictments, pleaded guilty to both.

Judge Ralph W. Caton placed the man on three-year probation and ordered him to make restitution in the sum of $50 to the state in each case. The $100 to be paid back will compensate the two attorneys who appeared for him. He has nine months in which to pay the $100. His probated sentence is in state prison.

Merrill Johnson, also charged with DWI second, pleaded guilty and was fined $250, to be paid in nine months. The court then sentenced him to county jail for a year and probated the sentence.

The pleas brought to an end the current criminal docket in the court, which began last Monday and which turned out not to require the services of a single jury. The jurors on the panel have been notified not to report for further work in the court at this time.

Pupil Sentenced To Labor Camp

LENINGRAD, U.S.S.R. (AP) — A Soviet court sentenced a West German student today to four years in a labor camp for spreading propaganda urging the overthrow of the Communist regime.

Volker Schaffhauser, 25, of Heidelberg, admitted he smuggled subversive microfilms into the country in his toilet kit, in a cigarette package and in a fountain pen for an organization of anti-Soviet Russian emigres known as N.T.S.

Schaffhauser was expected to appeal for a shorter sentence. The West German, a student of Slavic languages, said N.T.S. paid for his trip to the Soviet Union.

Extortion Try Nets Jail Cell

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Russell John Callemmo, 22, was charged Tuesday with trying to extort $6,000 from a petroleum company by threatening to blow up its plant.

The FBI said Callemmo, an electronics technician for Avondale Shipyards, mailed Delta Petroleum Co., Inc., of nearby Metairie a map showing where the money should be buried. FBI agents arrested him as he was digging up a package at the spot.

U.S. Commissioner Fritz Windhorst fixed bond at $10,000 and appointed a lawyer to represent him. Callemmo, a native of Long Island, N. Y., said he could not afford counsel.

Soviet Scientist Says Sailing Space Saucers Screen Spotted

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet scientist says there may really be such things as flying saucers from outer space.

Soviet radar screens have detected unidentified flying objects—UFOs—for 20 years, he says.

But Soviet scientists, like their colleagues in the West, are still puzzled about what such UFOs really are.

The scientist, identified only as F. Zigel, was writing in the current issue of the illustrated Soviet youth magazine Cmena.

He offered five possible explanations for UFOs, including visitors from outer space. He called this alternative "extremely speculative."

LID LIFTED
"But," he added, "as the UFO problem has not yet been solved, different explanations, including extremes, are possible."

The article took the lid off a subject rarely discussed in the press here.

In the 1950s the Soviet press scoffed at American reports of flying saucers as just so much cold war propaganda.

By those Soviet accounts, the Americans tried to explain away the "saucers" as some sort of new, secret Soviet weapon.

SERIOUS STUDY
Reports of flying saucers sighted in the Soviet Union, in the Caucasus and in Central Asia, also were ridiculed here.

Then for several years the Soviet press remained silent on the whole question, the Cmena article showed that the UFO issue is being reopened, this time as an object of serious scientific study.

Zigel was identified as one of the editors of a book, "Inhabited Cosmos," being prepared for publication here. The book will discuss the possibility of living beings in space and efforts to communicate with them.

'ANGEL ECHO'
The chief editor of the book is B. P. Konstantinov, who, as a vice president of the Soviet academy of science, is one of this country's most respected scientists.

In his magazine article, Zigel said the "angel echo," a UFO detected by radar, is constantly observed by scientists at the Central Aerological Observatory near Moscow.

Similar observations, he said, have been made in the United States, Australia, India and Japan.

"The phenomena of the UFO today should be considered as global," he added.

He rejected the idea that birds, insects or plant seeds could cause such reactions on radar screens.

NONSENSE
Zigel said there could be no doubt that UFOs exist "but the nature of these objects is still not understandable today."

Then he listed these five possible explanations:
1. Nonsense or invention. He said there was some truth here, citing reports of people who claimed to have ridden in flying saucers and others who threw hats in the air and then photographed "saucers." But he rejected this alternative as killing the question rather than solving it.

NEW SECRET
2. An optical illusion related to the distribution of light in the earth's atmosphere, such as a rainbow. The UFO, he said, is more complicated than that, however.

3. A new secret flying apparatus of one of the military powers on earth. "No one holds this view now," he said.

4. An unknown phenomena of nature, just as radioactivity was unknown until the end of the last century. In this context, ionized particles and charged particles of dust in the atmosphere were given as a possible explanation. But Zigel said, this does not explain the color or maneuverability of UFOs or their appearance in good weather.

5. Spaceships from an advanced civilization on another planet. Zigel said the speed of UFOs support this theory. So does what he called "the fact" that no UFOs were ever reliably reported to have landed.

Zigel called for "an all-sided, thorough, scientific exploration to clear up the origin of UFOs once and for all."

Pope Vents Displeasure

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Paul VI made a scathing attack Wednesday on extreme liberals and extreme conservatives in the Roman Catholic Church.

The Pope vented his displeasure at meeting of the commission to carry out the Vatican Ecumenical Council's changes in liturgy.

It was one of the harshest denunciations the pontiff has ever made against trends in the church that he considers go too far in the quest for modernization or fight too hard against the council's plans to bring the Church up to date.

Pope Paul told the commission he could not "keep silent our bitterness over some facts and some tendencies that certainly do not favor the good results that the Church expected from the diligent work of this commission."

He defended the commission's president, Giacomo Cardinal Lercaro, the liberal archbishop of Bologna, who has been accused by conservative Italian clerics of undermining the Church.

Then the Pope denounced what he called "episodes of indiscipline" and "willfully arbitrary" practices in some liturgical services. This reflected his off-expressed fears that some Catholics are modifying liturgical practices too rapidly and doing it without authority.

Getting Wary

Most state governments have freedom of information laws — either open-meetings or open-records acts, or both. They vary widely in effectiveness for enforcing official respect for the people's right to know how their public business is being conducted, but they all have value as a formal declaration of a state policy against unwarrantable secretiveness in government.

Session after session, both open-meetings and open-records bills have been little more than cursorily considered by the Texas Legislature and invariably rejected without any plausible excuse. This shoddy performance is being repeated in the current session. So far, an unconvincing show of serious consideration is being given only to an open-meetings bill sponsored by Sen. Chet Brooks of Pasadena. It would prohibit the boards of state agencies and governing bodies of local governmental units, on penalty of fines, from conducting public business in closed sessions — with grand juries, real estate delibera-

People Can Demand It

Congressional temper overwhelmingly supports President Johnson's determination to "stay the course" in the Vietnam war now that the United States is seemingly irrevocably involved. But the $3-billion-a-month dilemma, with its mounting casualties and tightening squeeze on internal affairs is building up a discernible "never again" sentiment on Capitol Hill likely to be substantially, probably decisively, adverse to any future pretensions toward policing the world.

The Russell stand would seem to be at least a straw in the shifting winds of popular opinion on the United States' proper and prudent strategic role in a constantly troubled world. It may mean that the United States will not again drift unwarily, unilaterally and unaided, into such a costly and awkward situation as it now finds itself in the mire of Southeast Asia.

staffs and administrative personnel be desegregated. It is denied, of course, that there is any intention to correct "racial imbalance," but the net effect is the same.

WHAT HAS happened is that the Supreme Court in 1965 in what the decision of Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals which upheld the "guidelines" plan imposed by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Attorneys for the school districts in the South had told the court frankly that teacher contracts may have to be cancelled in order to achieve "a semblance of racial balance of the faculty and staff."

THE CIVIL RIGHTS Act of 1964 forbids any regulations or actions by the executive department to correct "racial imbalance." The U.S. Commissioner of Education, supported by the Attorney General of the United States, holds that there is no intention to correct "racial imbalance" but only to see to it that desegregation is effectively achieved.

Under what are known as "free choice" plans, parents may choose whatever schools they please for their children in a given community or area. Here is an excerpt from a January 1967 statement by the U.S. Office of Education:

Under what are known as "free choice" plans, parents may choose whatever schools they please for their children in a given community or area. Here is an excerpt from a January 1967 statement by the U.S. Office of Education:

I'm twelve years old with a seventeen-year-old sister. I know that she's doing in many things she shouldn't, and I worry about her, but am afraid to tell mother for fear of losing her respect and love.

This means that, if not enough Negro parents choose white schools, the federal government will do the choosing for them. Also, if not enough Negro teachers are assigned to schools where there are a large number of whites in attendance, the federal government will refuse funds unless the imbalance is corrected.

The Bible says, "Love never fails." and if your concern for your sister is motivated by love, it will not fail. Sometimes when an elder sister sees that her young sister or brother is really concerned about the way they act, it can have a healing and helpful effect upon them.

UNQUESTIONABLY there has been racial discrimination in the past, and teachers have been assigned on a racial basis in many parts of the South. But, when applicants for teaching jobs are selected on merit alone hereafter, there is no way to determine whether a school board has discriminated if it prefers one teacher to another.

Four Rubber Pacts Expire

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Contracts between the United Rubber Workers Union and the big four companies expire at midnight tonight.

Although strike action has been authorized by locals throughout the country, a union spokesman said a strike decision won't be made until the contract expiration hour arrives.

More than 71,000 workers are covered by contracts with B. F. Goodrich Co., Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., and Uniroyal Inc., formerly U.S. Rubber Co.

OFF BEATEN TRAIL

Who Can Beat This Windmill?

By ED SYERS

When a boy, I loved few sounds like a country windmill's — a remote, magic call at twilight, a call-to-work at mornings, and — in between — a lullaby to sleep by. It just repeated the wonderful song of nature — all's really right with the world . . . if you're listening.

So — like a recent inquirer — I figured all we ever needed (and thus, had) were those thimble towers with a whirling wheel and a silvered vane that was made in Chicago for Texas wind and water. I could not conceive another kind of windmill. There was, says Victoria's Mrs. Ben Rittenkamp:

"You might be interested in the old Dutch-type grist mill in our Memorial Square — built in 1870. Wheels measure 65 feet in diameter; the whole top of the mill originally turned so the 'wings' could face the wind.

"Stones, still in the mill are believed the originals, ordered from Norway (via old Indiana), and transported by oxcart to Victoria. These stones measure four feet in diameter and nine inches thick.

"The mill will be open to the public, Saturday - Sunday (April 22-23) on the 'Old Mill Tour,' sponsored by Victoria's Morning Study Club."

So, as you can go and see, we just didn't have the one standard kind. This Dutch one stands yet . . . in Texas. But I'll bet you, if you listen close, you'll hear its whisper, as all Nature does, "the world's still right" . . . if we let it be.

MULE MAN

One of Texas' first TV newsreel cameramen, Fort Worth and WBAP's Wayne Brown, herewith joins OBT's 'League for Advancement of Mules.' It got started somehow by Sinton's Joe Martin. Camera man Brown's mule - praise is recent.

"About 1950, I combined a love of outdoors while filming newsreel features. One unnamed Spanish mule may have saved my life.

"An old Mexican named Rafael, who lives at Boquillas, and I had ridden the rough country south of Big Bend (it is incredibly wild) all day. Heat was about 115 and I'd become somewhat 'sunk.' After sundown we made the Carmen Mountains (Mexico's magnificent rainbowed range), into a beautiful place called Sierra del Jardines (Mountains of the Gardens). We camped at a seep spring and, too tired for supper, I lay down on the ground for sleep. Rafael hobbled the horse, mule and burro.

BLACK BEAR

"Some time, late in night, I heard the mule's strange cry. In the bright moon over the mountain, I saw the mule jumping up and down despite his hobbles. Then I saw a black 'American' bear, coming upright for me, within 35 feet.

"I grabbed a pistol and sprang up. The bear went into nearby brush. Rafael and I stayed on watch 30 minutes, saw the bear at some distance, circling the camp wide and eating nopales from the prickly pears. So did the watching mule. I decided it safe to turn to sleep again.

"I think I can claim to be one of the few who was camped 'with a bear,' thanks to trusting my mule sentry."

Stubborn as a mule? Or watchful . . . which is a pretty good trait.

Junction City, Ark.'s Mrs. Isaac A. Brinker wanted to locate a book of days guarding the Rio Grande. Here it is, from McAllen's Paul T. Vickers and Lubbock's Mrs. E. F. McLean: 'Echoes from the Rio Grande,' by John R. Peavey, published by Kingman Co., Brownsville. Says Vickers succinctly: "Peavey was an Army scout and Texas Ranger during border troubles. He relates in thrilling, realistic language. Says reader McLean: "He sits in the room, talking directly to you. I could not put it down."

Bishop Visits Local Church

St. Mary's Episcopal Church will be host this weekend to the Rt. Rev. Maxwell Wiggins, D.D.

Consecrated in 1959, Bishop Wiggins is in charge of a young African Diocese, Victoria Nyanza in the new country of Tanzania, in East Africa, formed in 1963.

A native of New Zealand, Bishop Wiggins was ordained in 1938 and served in New Zealand until 1945, when he went to Tanganyika. There he served several congregations, became dean of the cathedral and later archdeacon of the diocese he now serves.

Bishop and Mrs. Wiggins will be received by members of St. Mary's at a covered dish supper Saturday night at 6:30 p.m. with Mrs. Bennett Brooke heading the hospitality committee. Saturday morning there will be a corporate communion and breakfast for the men and boys of the parish at 7:30 a.m., at which time Bishop Wiggins will speak.

The bishop also will speak at the Sunday services at 8 a.m. and 10:15 a.m., as well as to the young people's groups Sunday night at 6 p.m. The young people will be joined by other youth groups from Colorado City, Snyder and Midland.

Dear Abby 'Get With It' Together!

DEAR ABBY: I know you are not a fashion editor, but maybe you can help me. There is continual friction between me and my husband over the length of my skirts. I will be 50 this year and have four grown children and four grandchildren.

I have a nice figure, work in an office and wear my skirts to the middle of my kneecap.

My husband, who is a business executive, says I am too modest and old fashioned, that I should "get with it" and wear my skirts shorter like the fashionable women do.

I think teenagers look cute with short skirts, but after 40 a woman should have a little more dignity about her.

Should I shorten my skirts to please my husband? Or should I leave them the way they are and get an argument from my husband every week?

"SMITTY" IN TORONTO "DEAR "SMITTY:" Tell your husband you'll shorten your skirts if he'll let his hair grow down to his shoulders, wear a skin tight turtleneck, and a turtleneck sweater to his office. Then you can "get with it" together.

DEAR ABBY: I am a high school student. Last weekend my very best girl friend slept over. The day after she left my mother missed about $12 worth of her good cosmetics. I didn't want my mother to think my friend had taken them so I said I had "borrowed" them and left them somewhere.

Now I am being punished, but I would almost rather take the punishment than have my mother think my girl friend was a thief. Abby, I turned the house upside down looking for those cosmetics, and they are just gone!

Should I tell my mother I had nothing to do with it, and it just had to be that girl? Or should I take the punishment and let it go? BEING BLAMED

DEAR BEING: If you can catch your girl friend with the evidence, do so and give her a chance to return the stolen goods. If you can't, tell your mother that you didn't take her cosmetics and that you lied to protect a friend who may not have deserved it.

DEAR ABBY: The boy next door bit our daughter on the face. The skin was broken so we had to take her to the doctor for tests and medical care. I asked the doctor to send the bill to the boy's parents.

He did, but now the doctor tells me that they did not pay it. Don't you think they should pay this bill instead of me? What should I do? MAD

DEAR MAD: Pay the doctor. Then retain a lawyer to tell your neighbor that you expect repayment and (possibly) punitive damages.

Troubled? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Court Rejects Ellen Appeal

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Supreme Court rejected Wednesday an appeal by Sonny Ellen of Bryan of a lower court order that said he had to clean up his chicken and egg farm if he wanted to stay in business within the city limits.

The high court said it found no reversible error in rulings by the 85th District Court at Bryan and the 10th Court of Civil Appeals at Waco.

The Supreme Court did not write an opinion. Bryan sought the suit against Ellen, who had a farm with 15,000 hens, and 36 residents of the city joined in the case, alleging that the farm was a public nuisance.

The district court found that odors from the poultry operations were sufficient to pollute the air in that area and that "odors, fumes or stench are a proximate cause of material discomfort and annoyance to persons in the area."

Ellen was temporarily enjoined from operating the farm and given 60 days to clean up the farm, except for "obvious unsanitary conditions" which were to be removed immediately.

The court said Ellen could resume his business if he proved in open court that he had installed facilities to "dispose of filth and any other source of noxious and offensive odors" and that the alleged nuisance would be permanently abated by installing the facilities.

On June 13 Bryan asked that Ellen be held in contempt of court for allegedly violating the court's orders, and a hearing was held. The court entered a judgment for contempt and fined Ellen $100 and sentenced him to three days in the Brazos County jail and said he would be imprisoned until he "purged himself of contempt under terms" of the court's original findings.

Ellen did not appeal the contempt ruling, but said the district court had erred, among other ways, by declaring the nuisance was public rather than private.

The Waco Appeals Court affirmed the lower court judgment and wrote "this court (has) held in effect that a nuisance is public when it is one which disturbs or injures inhabitants of an entire community, or considerable portion thereof. This record shows that a substantial area of the city of Bryan was affected by the alleged nuisance."

Red-Hot Aaron Is Eyeing .300 Mark

By DICK COUCH
By The Associated Press

If Hank Aaron has a hard time breaking the old home run habit, he'll have no trouble keeping his new friends.

The Atlanta slugger, who led the National League with 44 home runs last year but dipped to a 279 batting mark — lowest in his career — blasted a pair of homers Wednesday night, powering the torrid Braves to a 4-1 victory over Houston.

"I'm going back to my old style of hitting, to get a better batting average," the .316 lifetime hitter said before signing a two-year contract last winter at $100,000 per season. "I wasn't too concerned about batting for an average last year because I had made up my mind to lead the league in homers."

"There's no better way of making friends when you move into new territory than hitting the ball over the fence," Aaron added, explaining he went for the long ball in 1966 to help boost fan interest during the Braves' first year at Atlanta.

Aaron didn't disappoint the Atlanta backers Wednesday night. He slammed a 405-foot, bases-empty drive over the center field fence in the first inning and hammered a 420-foot solo shot into the left field seats in the fourth.

The 33-year-old outfielder's first two 1967 homers lifted his career total to 444, No. 10 on the all-time list, while sending his early-season batting average up to .321.

The homers also provided the winning margin as the Braves rolled to their fifth straight victory after an opening string of three losses.

St. Louis' streaking Cardinals overpowered San Francisco 7-3 for their sixth victory in six starts and the Los Angeles Dodgers edged Cincinnati 5-2 on Ron Hunt's run-scoring double in the 10th. The Pittsburgh-Philadelphia game was rained out.

Dave Giusti, Houston's starter, gave up both Aaron homers and was touched for another run in the fourth when Mack Jones doubled, took third on an error and scored on a force-play grounder. A walk, Rico Carty's double and Mike de la Hor's infield hit gave the Braves an insurance run in the eighth.

Winner Ken Johnson allowed only four hits before giving way to Ramon Hernandez in the seventh. Ed Mathevs singled the Astros' run across in the sixth.

Tim McCarver hit a three-run homer and Julian Javier a two-run shot for the Cardinals, who pipped San Francisco ace Juan Marichal with his third loss in three starts.

Ken Henderson's second bases-empty homer of the night knocked out winner Larry Jaster in the eighth. Jesus Alou and Willie McCovey also homered for the Giants, who have lost six in a row.

Ron Hunt broke up the Dodgers-Reds duel with a run-scoring double in the 10th — his fourth hit in five trips. Gene Michael led off the 10th with a double and Hunt, who had scored the first two Los Angeles runs, delivered the winning hit one out later.

Tommy Harper homered for Cincinnati in the sixth and the Reds tied it in the seventh when Tommy Helms singled, stole second and raced home on John Edwards' single.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Forsan's sprint relay team had the toughest sort of luck in the District 44-B track and field meet at San Angelo last Friday. The Buffaloes were very much in contention for the lead when Larry Callihan stepped on the back of Steve Park's shoe in attempting to hand off the baton.

Park's shoe flew off and he finished the race barefooted. The Elisons failed to qualify in that event, as a result.

Quite likely, Klondike's Cougars will make a serious bid for the Region VI-B championship here Saturday. Year in and year out, Klondike fields a fine track team. The Cougars probably are consistently stronger in that sport than in any other.

They say that the University of Alabama probably would have integrated its football team four years ago had coach Bear Bryant been able to talk Texan Ray McDonald into accepting a scholarship there.

As it was, McDonald matriculated at the University of Idaho and was picked in the first round of the NFL draft by the Washington Redskins.

Goliad Junior High is hopeful of luring more boys out for track next year in the wake of the Mavericks' successes this spring.

With a little luck, Goliad could have won the eighth grade division of the Optimist Relays here last weekend.

Almost three times as many boys came out for baseball than track in high school this spring but the coaches hope to achieve a better balance by 1968.

Jesus Pimentel, the hard-punching little guy, took out Melton McMorries' ring tiger, Marciano Rivas, in the fourth round of their brawnhaha in Los Angeles last week but not before Rivas had opened a big cut over Pimentel's eye with a right cross in the second round.

Had Rivas been able to stay a couple of more rounds with Pimentel, he might have forced Jesus to quit. As it turned out, ten stitches were taken in Pimentel's face wound following the bout and he may be sidelined anywhere up to six months. That's going to delay his quest of a championship fight.

Rivas simply was too eager for the "kill." McMorries, who resides in the Tarzan community in Martin County, came back home immediately after the bout but not before he assigned one Pat O'Grady to promote Rivas' interests in Southern California.

The bout, incidentally, drew 2,500, so Rivas is going to get his biggest payday. It was taped for future television showing, too.

Dennis Ralston, the tennis great, has pocketed $11,700 in winnings since turning pro this year.

A golfer on the circuit can do a lot better than that in one tournament.

Dubby Malaise, the new basketball coach at South Plains College, has signed his first prospect.

He is Danny Sledge, a 6-6 pivot man for the Lubbock Monterey Plainsmen. Sledge played with the Monterey team as a junior when it won the 3-AAAA title.

Up until the Masters tournament, Midland's Rives McBee had won the princely sum of $600 on the winter golf tour. At Augusta, he padded out his purse to the extent of $1,300.

JayCee Tourney Set For Munny May 27-28

The first annual Big Spring JayCee Invitational tournament was added to the West Texas golf calendar by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce Wednesday.

The 36-hole medal-play tournament, which will be for the golfing public, will be held at the Municipal course here May 27-28 and will become an annual event, according to pro J. B. Wetsel.

A pro-am will precede the tournament May 26.

Entry fee will be $15 per player. The cost will include tickets to a Friday night, May 27, dance at the Cosden Country Club and a barbecue starting at 6 p.m. Saturday, May 28, in the City Park.

Gift certificates valued at $1,500, redeemable at the pro shop, will be awarded to the top three players in each flight.

Entries will be seeded according to handicaps by the club pro but winners will be determined in scratch play.

Deadline for entry into the tournament will be 6 p.m., May 26 and notices of entry should be sent to Wetsel at the Municipal course or to Ben Faulkner of the JayCeos.

This will be the first tournament of its kind ever staged at the city-owned course, which is an 18-hole layout completely irrigated.

Wetsel said plans are being made to register up to 200 players.

Entries will play 18 holes each day in order to determine winners.

Fees in the pro-am May 26 will be $5 for amateurs and $10 for pros. A similar meet at the Munny last year attracted 68 players.

Sixth Team Added To City League

The City Softball league, which opens a busy season tonight on the City Park diamond, has revised its schedule because a sixth team has been added.

The new club will represent Webb AFB.

Action tonight pits Reed Insurance against Morton's Foods at 7 p.m. while the Optimists tangle with Webb at 8:45 p.m.

Other teams represent the City of Big Spring and Chapman's Meat Market.

Morton's rallied to win the pre-season tournament held recently by the league.

Talk Defines Married Love

"The major breakdown in marriage is caused by lack of communication," said Walter Widger when he was guest speaker for the Tuesday meeting of Coahoma's Alpha Beta Omicron Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

Widger, chief of social services at Big Spring State Hospital, used the topic, "Love's Miracle in Marriage." His definition of love was "the ability to place another's feelings above one's own," and he stressed that the ingredients of a happy marriage are maturity, ability to compromise and compatibility.

The group met in the Flamingo Room of Pioneer Natural Gas Company with Mrs. Don Cunningham presiding. She announced the Founder's Day banquet to be held April 27 at Big Spring Country Club, and reports were heard from volunteers at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Chapter members who assist at the state hospital each Monday morning will make uniforms to wear while on duty.

Committees were named for the adult volleyball tournament sponsored by the chapter May 11-13 at Midway School.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Sonny West, hostesses. The April shower motif was used in decorations, and the table was laid with a lace cloth centered with miniature umbrellas and spring flowers.

TEXANS AT WAR

GI, Pal Charge Machine Gunner

By The Associated Press
A Texan at war from Irving was cut down as he and a buddy charged up a hill toward a spitting Viet Cong machine gun.

Cut Down

"I had been on guard duty on the perimeter of our base camp," says PFC Michael Turner, "when we received word from a forward lookout that the Viet Cong were moving toward the camp.

BOTH HIT
"Soon a machine gun opened up and another fellow and I moved out to get it. Just before we reached a protective hole, we were both hit."

Turner, 29, caught two slugs in his knee and his buddy had an arm wound. More GIs moved to meet the enemy and a full-scale battle began. Despite the heavy fire, helicopters quickly evacuated the two wounded men.

VICTORS
Later Turner learned that the incident touched off a seven-day siege of the camp near the Cambodian border, and that his company had emerged the victors.

Turner, now recovering at a Ft. Hood hospital, says that October incident didn't frighten him as much as his first taste of combat last August.

Glossy Textbooks Called Outmoded

LONDON (AP) — A British educator says modern knowledge shifts so fast that durable, glossy textbooks are out of date before they're dirty.
Prof. John Anderson of King's College Hospital told an educational teach-in schools should be provided with loose-leaf paperbacks so that outmoded chapters could be discarded at will.

Northeast Texas Engineer Picked

AUSTIN (AP) — James W. Cravens will become district engineer for nine Northeast Texas counties on May 1, state Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said Tuesday.

Cravens succeeds Leslie D. Cabaniss is retiring April 30 after more than 45 years with the Texas Highway Department. Cravens is a graduate of Texas A&M University. He joined the Highway Department in 1933 and has been in Paris since 1935, except for military duty in World War II.
Dist. 1 is composed of Grayson, Fannin, Lamar, Red River, Hunt, Delta, Franklin, Hopkins and Rains Counties.

Oil Producers Support Bill

AUSTIN (AP) — Oil producers testified in support of a bill Wednesday that would give them the power of eminent domain for pipelines and injection wells for disposal of salt water.
Testifying against the bill was Howard Derrick of Eldorado, president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association.
The bill was referred to subcommittee.

Traffic Bills Sent To Floor

AUSTIN (AP) — A House committee approved Wednesday two of the major parts of Gov. John Connally's Traffic Safety Program.

The measure sent to the floor by the House Highways and Roads Committee toughen driver license laws and set up a statewide traffic safety department in line with federal requirements.

The greatest immediate and personal effect for most Texans will come from the driver license bill, if it passes.

Major changes from existing law include:
—With certain exceptions, automobile operator's licenses would not be issued to anyone under 18. The exceptions include instruction permits for driver education students, emergency and hardship cases, and motorcycle and motorcycle licenses—all of which could be issued at 15. Licenses could be issued to 16-year-olds who complete driver education courses. Until June 1, 1969, 16-year-olds also could get licenses if they presented certificates from their school superintendents that their schools did not offer driver training.
—Special licenses would be required to operate motorcycles.
—Driver license applicants would have to submit their thumbprints and birth certificates.

—Driver licenses would bear a color photograph of the holder. The Department of Public Safety would have responsibility to provide the photo.

Two Confirmed By U.S. Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate confirmed Wednesday the nomination of Samuel C. Adams Jr. of Waco, Tex., to represent the United States at a special session of the United Nations General Assembly convening Friday.
The Senate also confirmed Oscar M. Laurel of Laredo, Tex., as a member of the National Transportation Safety Board.

Chamber Secretaries To Attend Workshop

An estimated 30 office secretaries in area chambers of commerce offices will gather here Friday for one of four secretaries workshops being held in West Texas.

The local sessions will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Cosden Country Club. Other cities hosting similar meetings Friday are Coleman, Plainview and Weatherford, according to Carroll Davidson, local C-C manager.

"What is a Chamber of Commerce" and "What Your Boss Expects from You" are two subjects which will be discussed by managers of local chambers of commerce at all four of the sessions.

These simultaneous sessions are designed for all women chamber employees and for the proper indoctrination of new workers on the duties and responsibilities of a secretary. The meetings are limited to office secretaries and women managers and cover the entire 132-county area of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

ings are made by the Chamber of Commerce Executives Association of West Texas, Davidson said, and are held annually throughout the service area of the WTCC.

Speakers at the meetings include: Bob Janca, Muleshoe, and Dick Mosley, Lubbock, who will conduct the Big Spring session; Joe Cooley, Abilene, and Russell Willis, San Angelo, will be in the Coleman meeting; Carroll Pouncey, Amarillo, and Jim Harwell, Wichita Falls, will talk to the Plainview session; and Ralph Duncan, WTCC staff member of Abilene, and Grady Elder, Mineral Wells, will talk to the Weatherford meeting.

State Governments Seeking Aid Of Professional Economists

BY JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—More and more state governments are seeking the aid of professional economists to battle the eternal problem of restricted revenue and growing responsibility.

These professionals advise governors, help coordinate policies with the federal government and its 200 grant-in-aid programs, seek new tax sources. Above all, however, they seek to establish a realistic economic policy.

PATTERN
Some states have even set up councils of economic advisers patterned on the federal model, which was established as an agency of the federal government 21 years ago and which is now headed by Gardner Ackley. This is by no means a sudden infatuation with the economist. It is a practical relationship in the hopes that the economist can make do where others have failed. There is enough evidence, however, to indicate that most states will have such groups in the near future.

NO BUDGETS
One of the most recent to join the list was New Jersey, but groups exist also in Massachusetts, West Virginia and Illinois, and in varying degrees in several other states.

Most, however, have no budgets, which shows where the economy begins. For years the work of these groups was the hit-or-miss chore of budget commissions, informal conferences, revenue departments, development agencies and state university research teams.

BACKED BY LAW
Councils or their equivalent, however, are separate agencies usually staffed by professionals. Ideally they are backed by law, have their own budgets, permanent offices and staff and report directly to the governor. Their purpose is to define problems and plan their elimination. To do this they confer regularly with other agencies and submit reports through the year. Their analyses are aimed at establishing policy. They do no propaganda or promotional work.

TAX STRAIN
This need for professional advice is underscored by the growing state problem of inadequate revenue and growing expenditures. Many states also feel their taxing rights have been preempted by Washington. Warren Hearnes, Missouri governor, told a business meeting this week that because of this problem "these United States today face the greatest strain upon its federal system since the civil war."

Meanwhile, the federal government attempts to return $15 billion a year in income tax revenues to the states through more programs than most state officials can name. Goals aren't always clear, and many states pay out far more in federal taxes than they receive in grants.

STATES SLOW
The pattern for these councils goes back to the employment act of 1946, which established a Council of Economic Advisers, reporting to the President, with the goal of analyzing and promoting maximum employment, production, purchasing power.

Since then the role of the economist in both public and private policy has grown, although the states were not quick to pick up the idea.

Quick, Doctor, Bring Big Bag

SAIGON (AP)—Quick, doctor, bring your bag. My elephant has been shot.

Such was the message that came to Maj. Charles Lea of Columbia, Mo. The elephant, named Khon, belonged to a mountain tribesman named Hra.

The surgeon treats combat casualties of the Screaming Eagles, the men of the 101st Airborne Division's 1st Brigade. The 101st's civil affairs officer, Maj. Thomas Pligh of Douglas, N.Y., thought he ought to treat the elephant, too.

Lea and Bligh found the elephant lying beneath a tree, a bullet in his left front leg. Hra mounted Khon, and the elephant reluctantly rose. Lea approached "with great poise," a division account reported, while Bligh supervised from a distance of several feet, beyond the swing of the elephant's trunk.

The festering wound was on the inside of the leg. Probing somewhat gingerly, Lea found the bullet imbedded two inches beneath the elephant's hide in the general area of what he would call the upper arm on his other patients.

He plucked out the slug, cleaned the wound and applied what he hopes was enough antiseptic to kill elephant germs. Khon being restless, the doctor left off the bandage.

At last report the patient was doing well.

U. S., Communist Pilots Tangle 17 Times Over North Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Navy carrier Kitty Hawk just before noon. One plane was located 11 miles from Haiphong, the other 2.1 miles from the port city.

The raids on Haiphong's doorstep attested to the mounting fury of the air war in the North as the monsoon rains subside.

Wednesday American pilots flew through the heaviest defenses ever thrown up by the Communists to attack an army depot southeast of Hanoi. In 17 aerial dogfights over North Vietnam's heartland, the U.S. pilots downed one Communist MIG and probably got four more, the U.S. command said.

RAIDS OKAYED?

The closest previous raids to Haiphong were last June 29, when U.S. planes bombed an oil depot two miles from the city. The same day they hit an oil depot three miles from Hanoi.

The raids today on Haiphong's outskirts must have had approval from Washington and possibly from President Johnson himself. All raids within a 10-mile radius of the port city have to be cleared by Washington.

The Navy had been waiting for more than a week for clear weather to make the raids.

The initial announcement did not give any assessment of damage or say whether any U.S. planes were lost.

CAPTURE CLAIMS

Hanoi claimed two American planes were shot down during the air battle Wednesday and said one pilot was captured. The U.S. command made no announcement of any American losses, but such announcements are usually delayed if a search is on for missing pilots.

Red ground gunners filled the skies with Soviet-built missiles and radar-directed anti-aircraft fire which the U.S. command said was the heaviest American airmen have encountered in Vietnam.

FIERCEST

The air battle was the fiercest since Jan. 2, when seven MIGs were downed over the Red River Valley in the war's deadliest sky battle.

Air Force authorities said the Reds evidently sent up practically every operational jet interceptor. The North Vietnamese air force is estimated to have only about 120 planes, with about 25 per cent of these ready for combat at any one time.

That would indicate the Reds had 30 or more jets in the air Wednesday.

Returning pilots reported they destroyed at least 22 of the 66 buildings at the Kuan Msi army base 37 miles southeast of Hanoi. They said the bombs set off frequent secondary explosions and flames jumped 1,000 feet high.

WAVE OF PLANES

The second wave of planes coming in from bases in Thailand and South Vietnam spotted the smoke towering up from miles away.

The five Communist interceptors downed or probably downed were all MIG-17's, the workhorse of the North Vietnamese air force. The Reds have now lost 39 MIGs in aerial dogfights and six more are scored as probable kills.

EXTRA MAN

The United States has announced the loss of 10 of its planes in air clashes with the MIGs.

Wednesday's kill was credited to a two-seat F105F Thunderchief flown by Maj. Leo Thornness of Las Vegas, Nev., and Capt. Harold Johnson of Blakesburg, Iowa.

Normally the Thunderchief is a single-seat jet but the F105F model has an extra man to handle electronic equipment.

Ground action was light Wednesday and today, as it has been for a week, and the slackened ground war was reflected in weekly casualty statistics. U.S. headquarters said 147 Americans were killed last week, the lowest figure in two months. There were 1,142 Americans wounded, also less than the recent average.

The U.S. command reported 1,511 Communist soldiers killed last week, 204 less than the week before.

BRIDGE BLOWN

The only ground action reported in the daily U.S. communiqué was a series of inconclusive clashes involving U.S. Marines guarding the uppermost sector of South Vietnam below the demilitarized zone.

South Vietnamese headquarters said a guerrilla force blew up a concrete bridge 11 miles above Phan Rang, on the coast 100 miles northeast of Saigon. Although the bridge was guarded by about 40 local militiamen, the Viet Cong succeeded in placing mines well enough to almost completely destroy the span.

In addition to the Air Force dogfights, carrier-based Navy planes swept over North Vietnam from the Tonkin Gulf to blast the Mong Duong power station 44 miles northeast of Haiphong.

Altogether, Air Force, Navy and Marine pilots flew 100 missions over the North Wednesday.

STILL SILENT

Hanoi remained silent on South Vietnamese and U.S. proposals for a pullback from the demilitarized zone as a step toward peace.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky first proposed the pullback Wednesday in response to a Canadian proposal, and later in the day U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization's council of ministers in Washington that U.S. and South Vietnamese forces would withdraw 10 miles south of the demilitarized zone if North Vietnam would pull its forces back 10 miles from the north side of the zone.

A State Department spokesman said, however, that any such withdrawal would not automatically include a total halt in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam.

'Bull Pen' Bulldozed

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP) — The "Bull Pen," one of the most unusual casinos anywhere, has been bulldozed.

Warden Carl Hocker had the gambling hall — a room off the maximum security yard at the state prison — demolished last week. He said it was a bad influence on inmates.

"It was just like raising a window shade in a dark room," related Hocker, a prison captain at San Quentin in California before taking command of the Nevada Penitentiary less than three months ago.

"The dismal fact is you had women on relief sending money to their husbands to gamble," Hocker is promoting handicrafts, bridge, chess, athletics, plain hard work and knitting to take up the slack.

Knitting? "It's common in many prisons," Hocker explained. "I wouldn't want to look some of these boys in the face and call them sissies."

Games in the Bull Pen, run by the inmates, ranged from poker to blackjack to craps.

The craps-to-crocheting switch apparently encountered little resistance.

"They were prepared for it," Hocker said while admitting a hard-core group of inmates resisted the change. He notified the prisoners upon his appointment that he would abolish the casino.

Each inmate who held gambling chips was credited on his prison money account for their value.

TCU Senior Plans Lindbergh Flight

KERVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Paul Rachal, a senior at Texas Christian University, plans a solo non-stop flight from New York to Paris to commemorate Charles A. Lindbergh's historic flight of 40 years ago.

Rachal, 23, is two years younger than Lindbergh was at the time of his flight. He is the son of Hal Rachal, president and chairman of Mooney Aircraft, Inc., Kerville, manufacturer of the plane he will fly. Rachal will fly a Mooney Mustang, the world's first commercially produced single-engine aircraft with pressurized cabin. His expected arrival will coincide with the opening of the Paris Air Show.

ONE OF MANY
The flight is being coordinated by the Commerce Department.

The first flight from New York to Paris 40 years ago took 33.5 hours. Rachal expects to cover the same route in 16 hours or less.

It will be one of many trans-Atlantic solo flights for the young man.

His log book shows he was 16 when he took his first flying lesson. After playing with the school tennis team, he would report to the airport for another lesson. He made his first solo flight Jan. 24, 1960.

HONOR STUDENT

He is an accounting major at TCU and has been on the dean's honor list for high scholastic achievement for three semesters. He is vice president of the honorary accounting fraternity and is social and scholastic chairman of Delta Tau Delta social fraternity.

His first partnership was Trans Air International. He helped ferry four Mooney planes to Johannesburg, South Africa.

NEW DESIGN

His second trans-Atlantic flying job was to Cambridge, England. After another flight to Johannesburg he ferried another plane to Zurich. Shortly after leaving Sydney, Nova Scotia, on that trip, he encountered over-cast filled with ice at 8,000 feet and his engine quit. His plane descended 400 feet each minute. He was successful at 1,200 feet in restarting the motor and the plane was delivered safely.

District Attorney Gains Medal Honor

FRAMINGTON, Mass. (AP) — Middlesex County Dist. Atty. John J. Droney has been awarded the Histadrut medal of honor.

Histadrut is the Israeli National Labor and Health Organization. The medal, presented by Ephraim Evron, Israel's minister plenipotentiary to the United States, for Droney's work on behalf of the Cardinal Cushing medical center in Galilee, Israel.

Tear Gas Used On Hecklers

Police fired tear gas shells to rout hecklers during a demonstration supporting an open housing movement last night in Louisville. Police stepped up their enforcement of a court order against demonstrations at night and arrested 100 advocates of the housing law who turned out for the march. Meanwhile, about 700 hecklers were kept away from the demonstrators. (AP WIREPHOTO)

ANTI-LSD ACTION

'We Gonna Have Any Eyeball Witnesses?'

AUSTIN (AP) — Gen. Tom Creighton of Mineral Wells, looking around to a group of opponents of an anti-LSD bill, inquired: "We gonna have any eyeball witnesses?"

The opponents were distinguished by their informal attire and greater mass of facial and head hair. One of them put a crash helmet with a bubble mask of dark plastic on the floor between his boots.

None of them testified before the Senate Public Health Committee Wednesday night, but Creighton got his wish, and the opponents got some joy from a witness who said he had taken the hallucinogenic drug.

MUSIC AID
John Sullivan, professor of Texas, said LSD (lysergic acid diethylamide) increased his appreciation of music, among other things. Sullivan, a diminutive Britisher, said he was against the free and uncontrolled use of LSD but that he also opposed "panic legislation."

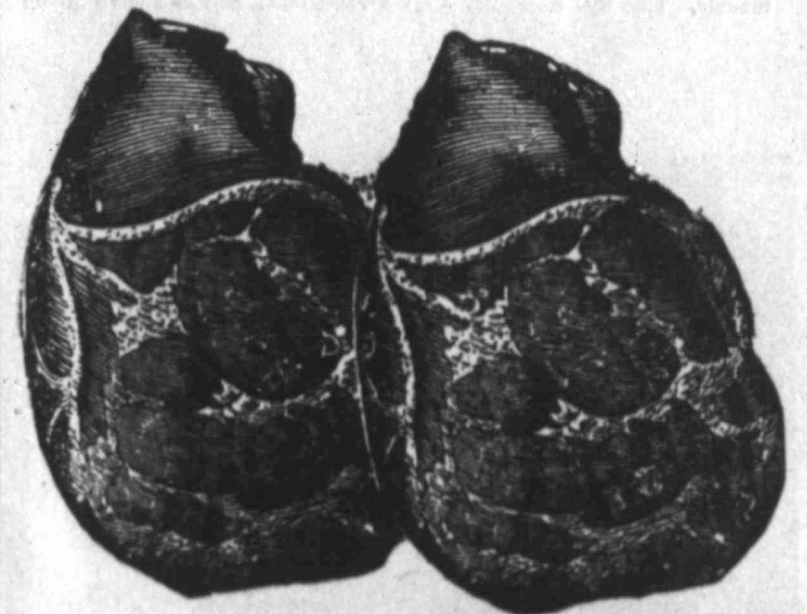

He said he had seen nothing like the U.S. Surgeon General's anti-smoking report to support the strict bill before the committee.

The bill, sponsored by Sen. Grady Hazelwood of Canyon, was referred to subcommittee. An identical bill by Rep. Burke Musgrove of Breckenridge rests in a House subcommittee.

NOT IN LUBBOCK
Sullivan said a patient could tell a doctor he had taken arsenic and the doctor could treat him, period. But if the patient told the doctor he had taken LSD, and the doctor would report it, the doctor would be an accessory after the fact.

Sen. H. J. Blanchard of Lubbock interrupted Sullivan and asked him to repeat "that business about accessory after the fact."

Zenith Radio Corporation has consistently used newspapers as an important part of its overall advertising plan. As Mr. Wright said: "Much of Zenith's leadership and dramatic growth in television, stereo and radio sales can be traced to our extensive use of newspapers. We feel they are the best vehicle for carrying Zenith's message of quality directly to the consumer at the level where the sale is actually made. Their flexibility enables us to adapt national strategy to meet individual market requirements. In this area, newspapers are unique as an advertising medium".

Father Thanks Valedictorian

MOUNT PLEASANT, Mich. (AP) — "I am sure your parents are proud of you," said the formal letter from Central Michigan University's registrar.

Nick Lauer, a senior, read on to find that he had the top grade average for his class and had been named valedictorian for graduation ceremonies in June.

"Thanks, Dad," Nick said to the registrar.

Among George Lauer's duties as registrar is compilation of grade averages and notifying the top two students that they will be valedictorian and salutatorian. He sends a copy of the letter to their families.

"My mother got a carbon copy just like other parents," Nick said. "At home we had never discussed my chances for being valedictorian and Dad gave no hints until he sent the official letter."

The letter had a post script: "I have known you for a long time, and it could not have happened to a nicer fellow. Thanks, son, for a job well done."

Rain, Snow, Winds Belt Wide Areas

Stormy weather, with rain, snow and strong winds, swept wide areas in the western half of the nation today.

Up to nine inches of snow fell in Great Falls, Mont., and amounts of five inches were general in many areas in the western part of Montana.

Spring snow storms hit areas in northern Utah and in parts of Idaho. The snow and lower temperatures in Ogden, Utah, threatened a large part of the state's multimillion dollar fruit crop. The state's largest crops—apples, peaches and cherries—were reported blooming. State officials said an early spring freeze damaged one-half to two-thirds of the state's apricot crop last month.

More than three inches of snow fell in the Ogden area and at Boise, Idaho, the latest snowfall in three years in Boise. Snow also fell in Salt Lake City. Earlier up to nine inches of snow was reported at Austin, Nev.

Early morning readings across the nation ranged from 16 at Ely, Nev., to 80 at Key West, Fla.

Weatherford Man Is Crash Victim

WEATHERFORD (AP)—T. R. Trent of Weatherford was killed Wednesday night when two cars collided in Parker County on US 80 West. Officers said Trent's automobile sped across a dividing median and hit an oncoming vehicle, slightly injuring the women occupant.

 West was forced to surrender the game fulfilling trick to his opponent today, when he failed to take the necessary measures to avert an end-play.

West opened the king of clubs against South's four heart contract, and continued with the ace, as everyone followed. With all of the clubs now accounted for, there might be a temptation to shift the attack; however, in view of South's aggressive bidding, West was afraid to break another suit. Without any further reflection, he chose the apparently safe exit of a third round of clubs, which declarer ruffed.

A diamond was led to the ace and South trumped the diamond continuation. The North hand was reentered

Foreign Language Bill Advances

AUSTIN (AP)—The House Education Committee approved a bill Wednesday that would require pupils to study a foreign language from the fifth to the eighth grades.

If passed by both houses, the legislation would take effect in five years.

Rep. Alonzo Jamison of Denton voiced opposition last week on an attempt to bring the measure out of committee. The bill eased out Wednesday without discussion, with Jamison voting "no."

The bill first required that all second, third and fourth graders be taught Spanish, in line with a recommendation in the state Democratic party platform. However, a subcommittee amended it to allow any language and to give the instruction to higher grades.
