In California Support To Reagan

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Republicans are banking money and political credit in California in hopeful anticipation of the day when Gov. Ronald Reagan will be propelled directly into the race for the 1968 presidential nomination.

Reagan is looming ever larger in the wings, although he has no visible organization and continues to insist that "I am not a candidate for anything except to be a favorite son here in our own state."

Nevertheless, signs are mounting steadily that the same Republicans who eagerly supported his resounding capture of the governorship last November are convinced Reagan can lead the party back into the White House.

Won't Reject Draft

And Reagan has indicated he wouldn't reject a draft.

"If all the party should come knocking at my door, I guess I wouldn't say, 'Go away fellows,'" he said this week in an interview.

It's no secret that California Republicans are yearning for Reagan's nomination. Dr. Max Rafferty, superintendent of public instruction and one of the state's best vote getters, complained that he came away empty handed when he tried to line up contributors to finance a primary race against Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel. Wealthy Republicans, said Rafferty, "make no bones about the fact that they are planning and hoping" for deadlock at the 1968 convention that will hand the nomination to Reagan.

Big Scramble Looms

That convention appears more and more to be shaping up as an uninhibited scramble.

Many signs point to a drift away from the two top contenders, Michigan's Gov. George Romney and former Vice President Richard M. Nixon. Party conservatives are moving toward Reagan; moderates are talking about another governor who insists that he isn't a candidate, Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York.

The shifts showed up at the recent Young Republican convention in Omaha, Neb., and again at the Conference of Western Governors in West Yellowstone, Mont.

'More Going For Him'

Oregon's Gov. Tom McCall—"I've been a Rockefeller man all along"—told Republican liberals and moderates at West Yellowstone Reagan was "about the hottest piece of political property" in the nation.

"He has more going for him than any political figure in the United States today," said McCall.

But, he added, Reagan shouldn't run.

"We are going on straight charisma and lovability, and all these things beg the question of whether you know what you are doing when you get to the White House," he added.

Sees No Band Wagon

Gov. John A. Love of Colorado said he saw no major shift toward Reagan in the Republican maneuvering.

"I sure don't see any band wagon when the guy says he is not running," said Love.

But Gov. David M. Cargo of New Mexico acknowledged the flight of conservatives as a growing phenomenon. Cargo, a close friend of Romney, had been expected to try to recruit support for the Michigan governor. Instead, he's talking about leading an uncommitted delegation from New Mexico to the national convention.

Might Be Locked Up

Gov. McCall urged party moderates to unite around a candidate and begin lining up delegate strength. He said there was evidence that the conservatives already are doing this for Nixon, and warned that "the convention may be in the process of being locked up against the moderates."

The party's No. 1 conservative, Barry Goldwater, is committed to support Nixon, but he has said that he and his supporters would "put everything we've got" behind Reagan if Nixon should falter.

Buffalo Riot Wounded Toll Still Mounts

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — A second night of racial rioting in this city of half a million population required hospital treatment for at least 40 persons and raised fire damage to nearly $100,000, fire officials said today.

More than 1,000 Negroes, most of them youths, tore through the lower East Side Wednesday night, shooting guns, setting fires, looting stores and shattering windows, in an outburst blamed by some upon a lack of jobs and recreation facilities.

UNEASY CALM

Today, amid uneasy calm, Mayor Frank A. Sedita met with Negro clergymen for peace efforts. The Rev. Milton A. Williams, a Negro minister who also is a leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said "It's not too late."

The Rev. Mr. Williams planned meetings with youths reported to have contact with East Side gang leaders. He said: "Maybe we can get these boys to carry the message back into the street."

ARRESTS

The injured compared with eight treated at hospitals Tuesday night and included at least 14 with minor gunshot wounds, plus four policemen with cuts and bruises.

Fire Commissioner Robert B. Howard estimated Wednesday night's fire damage at $42,000.

A new count of arrests came to nearly 50, compared with 23 Tuesday night.

Disorder also broke out in neighboring Niagara Falls, but 50 helmeted policemen dispersed the 200 protesters within an hour and after only a few windows had been broken in the resort city's northeastern chiefly Negro section.

LABELLED RIOT

Although Buffalo police preferred to call the outbreak a disturbance, reporters on the scene said it was a riot—the first major demonstration of racial unrest in Upstate New York since the Rochester riots of 1964.

More than 30 persons were arrested. At least a dozen fires were set. Those injured by gun blasts included two policemen accidentally shot by a third policeman, police said.

PANES SHATTERED

Windows were shattered in more than a dozen autos—as white people tried to cruise through the troubled area.

The Buffalo streets quieted during the predawn hours, apparently because—in part—many young persons were so tired from the all-night rampage Tuesday that they went home to bed.

GAS FIRED

Crowds of several hundred rock- and bottle-tossing youths ranging from pre-teens to their early 20s kept 400 police busy firing dozens of volleys of tear gas shells along four strife-torn blocks of Sycamore Street.

Many of the youngsters vanished after dark, leaving the streets to looters and arsonists.

Spokesmen at Emergency Hospital said they had treated nine persons with buckshot wounds. The two officers were treated elsewhere. Numbers of others suffered cuts and bruises.

'MORE INTENSE'

Police Commissioner Frank N. Felicetta refused, as he had Tuesday night, to call the outbreaks a riot.

"Let's change the word to 'disturbance,' he said, "and call it a disturbance, looting and window-smashing."

Assistant Detective Chief Floyd J. Edwards, highest ranking Negro in the Police Department, called Wednesday night's outbreak "more intense" than Tuesday's but this feeling was not shared by street workers who fanned into the mile-square trouble zone dispensing advice to both Negroes and police.

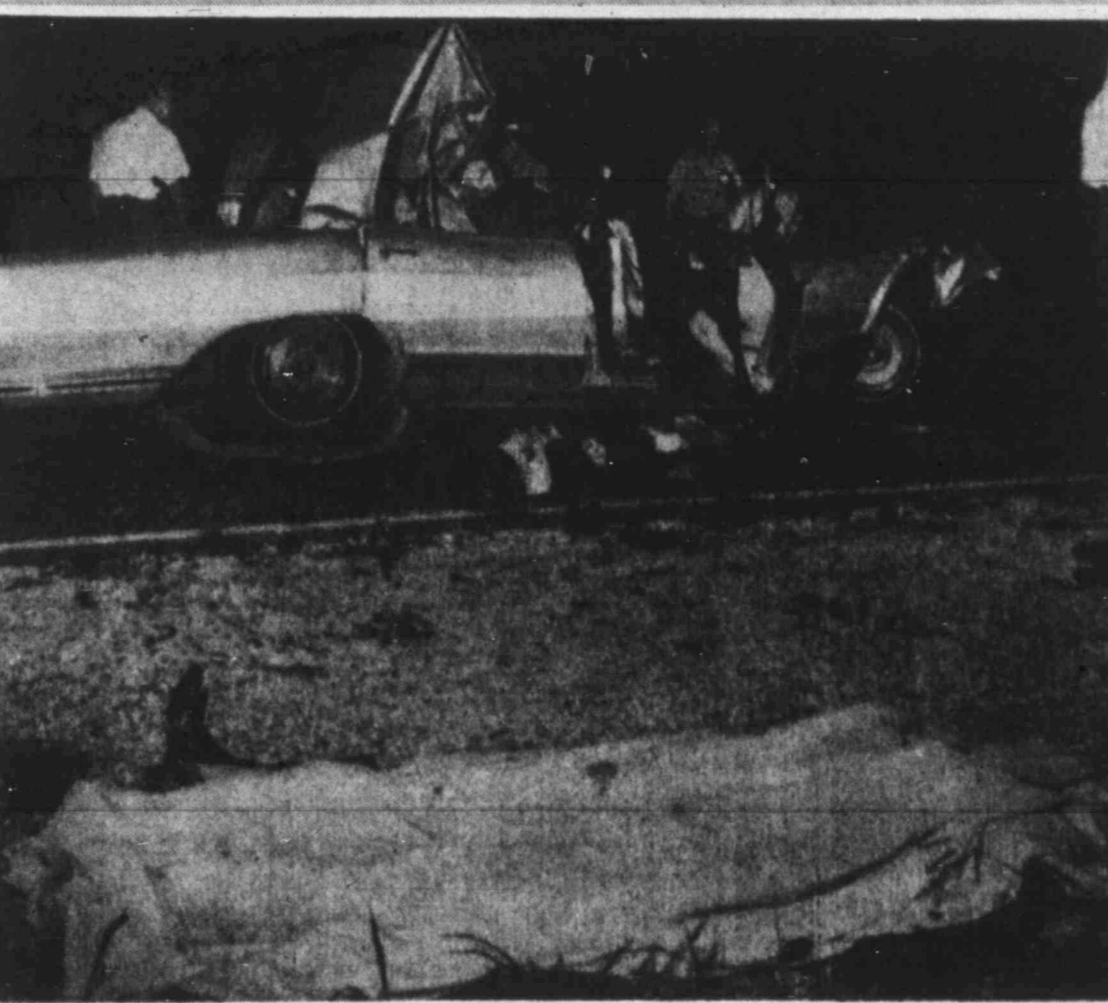

THUG STEALS LBJ'S GUNS

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A thief somewhere may have to answer to the President.

An employee of President Johnson's LBJ Ranch 60 miles north of here reported Wednesday that someone stole two .22-caliber rifles belonging to the President. Dale Malechek told police he parked Johnson's 1967 pickup truck on a northside shopping center lot Wednesday and when he returned the rifles were missing. He valued the weapons at $103.

Mansfield Death Car

A sheet in foreground covers body of Hollywood actress Jayne Mansfield, killed Thursday when car in which she was riding smashed into truck in eastern section of New Orleans. Body of her lawyer, Samuel S. Brody, is in front of wrecked car. Car ran beneath trailer truck on US 90, police said. The actress's children were in the back seat and were injured. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Beautiful Jayne Is Crash Victim

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Actress Jayne Mansfield, who spent her high school years in Dallas and attended the University of Texas, died early today when the car in which she was riding rammed a truck slowed by a cloud of mosquito fog.

It happened on a U.S. 90 curve near the Rigolets, the waterway connection between Lake Pontchartrain and the Gulf of Mexico, in New Orleans. It was about 2:25 a.m.

CHILDREN INJURED

Killed with the voluptuous 34-year-old Hollywood actress were Samuel S. Brody, who was her lawyer and companion, and the 20-year-old chauffeur, Ronnie Harrison of Mississippi City. Police said three of Miss Mansfield's children, asleep in the back seat of the big gray car, were injured. Physicians said they were in fair condition. They are Marie, 3, Mickey Jr., 8, and Zoltan, 6, her children by musician Mickey Hargitay.

DOGS DIE

Two of Miss Mansfield's four Chihuahua dogs also died in the shredded auto, which jammed up under the back of the truck trailer.

"It was the most dreadful thing I've ever seen," said George Carmichael, head of the New Orleans mosquito control unit, who was called to the scene by the driver of the insecticide fogging truck.

Miss Mansfield had left Biloxi, Miss., about midnight and was en route to New Orleans where she was scheduled to appear on a television program at noon.

DECAPITATED

Police said the actress was decapitated.

The accident happened about 30 miles east of downtown New Orleans on a winding, narrow stretch of the two-lane route—known as the Old Spanish Trail, Richard Rambo, around 40, of Pensacola, Fla., driver of the truck, said the car appeared suddenly from the rear and ran beneath the truck's trailer. Rambo was not hurt.

A doctor at Charity Hospital said Miss Mansfield's children were undergoing X-rays.

SUPPER SHOW

"None of them seem critical," he said. "We want to keep them here for observation, pending arrival of some relatives."

The hospital said Mickey suffered a fractured arm, while the other two were treated for abrasions.

Miss Mansfield had been appearing at the Gus Stevens Restaurant and Supper Club in Biloxi. Her engagement began June 23 and was scheduled to end July 4. On week nights, she performed at a 9 p.m. dinner show and at the 11 p.m. supper show.

ADULTERY CHARGE

Brody had been Miss Mansfield's companion and lawyer. His wife had accused him in a divorce action recently of committing adultery with Miss Mansfield, who was separated from her third husband, Matt Cimber, a stage director. Miss Mansfield and Cimber had a child, Antonio.

Miss Mansfield was born April, 1933, in Bryn Mawr, Pa., and grew up in Phillipsburg, N.J. Her real name was Vera Jayne Palmer. Later she moved to Texas and was graduated from Highland Park High School in Dallas and attended the University of Texas and the University of California at Los Angeles.

RED BIKINI

Her ascent to fame came accidentally when a press agent managed to get her on a publicity junket to Florida for a Jane Russell movie. She happily posed for photographers in a skimpy red bikini and stole the show from Miss Russell and other glamor girls on the trip.

This brought her a contract at Warner Bros.

After a few small roles, she struck it rich in a Broadway show, "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter?" in which she made a startling impression attired solely in a towel. After the run of the play 20th Century-Fox

Annexation Sours Talks Between Hussein, LBJ

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials report privately the Israeli annexation of the Old City of Jerusalem soured the atmosphere of President Johnson's first conference with King Hussein of Jordan since that Arab nation lost its war with Israel.

Officials also said they believed the annexation of the Jordanian sector was timed to coincide with the meeting Wednesday, whether deliberately timed or not, it reportedly cast a pall over the Johnson-Hussein talks despite two U.S. warnings during the day against the annexation.

About the only public report of the meeting came from George Christian, White House press secretary, who said the two leaders reached "no identity of views" at their working luncheon.

Officials also said they expect neither warning to have much effect on Israeli leaders. The annexation, they added, proves that hawks dominate Israeli political life.

The first warning, issued by the White House, urged Israel to avoid any quick annexation of the Old City, which it occupied during the Arab-Israeli war earlier this month.

HASTY ACTION

Shortly after the annexation, the State Department denounced the merger as a "hasty

JERUSALEM (AP) — The Israeli sector of Jerusalem and the Arab Old City which Israel seized from Jordan in the six-day war became one Israeli city today.

Interior Minister Moshe Shapiro issued a proclamation reuniting the Israeli and Arab sectors of the 3,000-year-old City of David for the first time since Jordan seized the walled Old City and Israel occupied the new sector in the 1948 Palestine war.

WARNINGS IGNORED

"Let us see to it that peace and mutual understanding shall prevail among all the city's residents," Shapiro said.

Israel acted despite warnings from the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and the Vatican and increasing pressure at the United Nations.

The State Department said the United States does not recognize Israel's assertion of administrative control over Old Jerusalem and its shrines of Christianity, Mohammedanism and Judaism.

"The hasty administrative action taken today cannot be regarded as determining the future of the holy places or the status of Jerusalem in relation to them," the State Department said.

HUSSEIN THREAT

Earlier Wednesday, the White House made a public appeal to Israel to avoid any quick annexation of the old section of Jerusalem.

King Hussein of Jordan called the Israeli action "unacceptable and intolerable." Christian religious leaders in Amman, the Jordanian capital, protested.

Yugoslavia and 14 other non-aligned members of the United Nations rushed a resolution into the emergency General Assembly calling on the Israelis to pull their troops back from all territory wrested from Egypt, Jordan and Syria in the six-day war. The sponsors called for action by Friday.

FREE ACCESS

Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban countered with an announcement that his government would keep Jerusalem united and would administer the holy places with scrupulous respect to all faiths.

A spokesman for the municipal government in New Jerusalem stressed that Israel would provide free access to all parts of Jerusalem "and in both directions." This indicated that Israelis can go freely into the Old City while Arabs can visit the New City.

A police spokesman said the Israeli army was turning over control of the Arab sector of the city to civilian authorities. The night curfew imposed when the Old City was captured was lifted.

LIMITS ENLARGED

Shapiro gave New Jerusalem's Mayor Teddy Kollek an administrative order enlarging the city limits of "Israel Jerusalem" to include all of Jerusalem.

"Jerusalem was never divided, not even in the days of the Israelite tribes," Shapiro declared.

Discussions have begun on how to combine the municipal councils — the Israeli body of 21 members elected as representatives of political parties, and the 12-member council in the Jordanian sector chosen to represent the various ethnic and religious interests.

TOURIST ATTRACTION

All laws now in force or promulgated in the future by the Jerusalem municipality will apply to the total area of united Jerusalem, a spokesman said.

The merger of the two sectors marked the first territorial gain by Israel since the 1948-49 Palestine war.

Disposition of other lands seized by Israel in the recent war presumably will be negotiated at peace talks.

Johnson Signs Teachers Bill; Plans Holiday

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—President Johnson flew to Philadelphia today en route to a Texas holiday to tour an anti-poverty program and also signed into law legislation extending the life of the National Teacher Corps.

Johnson toured facilities of the Opportunities Industrialization Center—a locally developed program to train jobless adults, most of them Negroes, in new skills.

"I have heard about this center for many months," President Johnson said.

'BORN OF PROTEST'

He said the center is a movement "born of protest" that has taken "the next logical step" to preparation.

"You have faith in yourselves," he told officials of the center.

"And you have inspired me to feel, as I have said at the beginning, that we—all 200 million of us—are going to make it."

MEETS DEADLINE

The chief executive added signing of the Teacher Corps Bill to his schedule because Friday is the deadline for signing contracts, meeting payrolls and making new commitments before a supplemental appropriation expires.

The Senate passed the bill and sent it to the White House only Wednesday.

Texas' Draft Quota Jumps

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' draft quota for August was set today at 1,421 men, a big increase.

Col.-Morris Schwartz, state selective service director, said July's quota was 974 and June's 975.

Schwartz said state draft boards are to forward 6,220 men for pre-induction examinations in August, compared to 5,016 in July.

Texas' August quota is the state's share of a national call of 29,000, all for the Army.

Israeli Troops Fire On Launch

There was no official confirmation in Cairo.

Levee Repairs Being Pushed

Repairs are being pushed to the south flank of the Bull Creek diversion levee where a wash occurred Tuesday, but off setting this disappointment is 20,000 acre-feet of new water supply in Lake J. B. Thomas.

The lake caught just a little short of four additional feet of water from rains early this week. Late Wednesday the elevation was 2245.92, and the rate of increase had slowed to less than .01 of a foot per hour. The levee might reach 2246.00 before halting, said O. H. Ivie, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

Continued flow through the gap in the levee deepened it somewhat, said Ivie. About 5,000 cubic yards will be needed to close the gap which is about 15 feet at its deepest point.

Initially, a dike will be thrown up around the break to guard against losing any new flood waters should there be additional rain. Ivie estimated that the levee could be restored to its original condition within a week.

There is still no indication what caused the separation, because there was very little head on the water on the face of the levee at the point where it eventually gave way. Fortunately, this was still several feet above the diversion channel grade, so that most of the Bull Creek runoff went into Lake Thomas.

During June the level has been raised more than nine feet net. The volume of water is over 43,000 acre-feet, nearly a year's supply. The level now is at the highest point in 2½ years.

Today, Fern Cox, district court clerk, confirmed what the judge had said — only there was an addition.

The checks will be mailed, he said, to the grand jurors just as soon as Mrs. Glenn gets back.

Which will be several days from now.

Redwine Will Study Biology

FORSAN (SC) — David H. Redwine, Forsan High School biology teacher, will enter Southern Methodist University Monday to begin eight weeks of studies in biology under a grant from the National Science Foundation.

Dr. Williams Stallcup, chairman of SMU's biology department, said that about 1,000 applications are received from science instructors in the United States each year for graduate training.

Mrs. Redwine and their daughter, Andrea Lynne, will accompany him to Dallas where they will reside during his schooling.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Redwine, Route 3, Colorado City, and is a 1959 graduate of Loraine High School and of Texas A&M where he took a BS degree in 1954. Redwine has just completed his fourth year as a member of the Forsan faculty. He was one of nine selected for the SMU course.

Robbery-Kidnap Scheme Probed

DALLAS (AP) — Charges that druggist Eulin B. Duvall took part in an attempted robbery were referred to the grand jury Wednesday.

Duvall is accused of paying ex-convict Terry Pittman to harass Dr. William Jones in a robbery-kidnap scheme that left Pittman fatally shot and a teenage girl bystander wounded.

Pittman was accused of kidnapping Jones June 2 and forcing him to drive to the Republic National Bank in order to cash a check.

Jones jumped from the car and called to a policeman for help at the bank. An exchange of gunfire between Pittman and the officer followed.

Holmes Alexander An Office In Search Of Greatness

WASHINGTON — A charitable judgment would be that Defense Secretary Robert Strange McNamara is more to be pitied than blamed.

War and has been constantly under criticism by the Senate and House, the press and the military establishment.

SOMEbody ought to ask for the American people "What's wrong with our military ministries?" It would be impossible to cite a record of any other presidential cabinet post which showed so many weak-wads, misfits and crooks.

WITHOUT MEN like Lewis Strauss, Edward Teller and a few others, this country in the years since World War II would never have had the deterrent of the mighty H-bomb.

DEFENSE SECRETARY Josephus Daniels (under Wilson) was censured by the Senate. The Navy historian, Tracy B. Kihleng, wrote of Daniels: "He was a despot, ruthlessly crushing opposition upon the Navy, in consequence he prevented any real progress for the war."

DEFENSE SECRETARY James Forrestal (under Truman) could not stand the gaff of international tension. He died a suicide.

Art Buchwald Why Kosygin Really Came

WASHINGTON — There was so much talk last week about Premier Alexei Kosygin's summit talk with President Lyndon Johnson that the real reason for Premier Kosygin's trip to the United States was obscured.

FOR MONTHS now the Soviet Union publishers, Harpinski and Rowitch, have been trying to see Svetlana, but to no avail.

The Soviet publishers went to see Premier Kosygin and told him the mediation of the Arab-Israeli dispute in the United Nations would give him a perfect excuse to go to New York and make contact with Svetlana.

PREMIER KOSYGIN was at first reluctant to go. "If I got to the United States I'll probably have to speak in the United Nations and condemn Israel as an aggressor and defend the Arabs, which isn't very easy, and still I can't be sure Svetlana will see me or not."

IT IS NOT known whether Kosygin saw Svetlana while he was in the United States, but it is believed that the premier was unsuccessful in his efforts to get the book Nobody in the Soviet Union bothered to tell Kosygin that Svetlana's lawyers were named Greenbaum and Katz.

Area's Cotton Quality, Use Object Of New Study

Can certain cotton products be manufactured right here in West Texas more economically than in other parts of the country?

That's what research economists are trying to find out in a study sponsored by Texas Electric Service Company.

The Cotton Research Committee of Texas and its Cotton Economic Research Division of the University of Texas are in the process of making a cotton utilization study in the cotton-growing areas served by Texas Electric Service Company in West Texas.

"Helpful information obtained from this study will be made available to major textile manufacturing companies and to Chamber of Commerce and industrial development groups of the communities served by Texas Electric Service in West Texas," said Burl B. Hulsey Jr., president and general manager of the company.

The study will determine the quality of cotton grown in this area and what products can be manufactured from it. Market consideration will be explored to determine which products could be most logically manufactured in the local community and profitably marketed throughout the southwest and entire nation.

"Cotton authorities and others involved in the textile industry have indicated that a study of this type will help in encouraging textile manufacturers to establish facilities in West Texas," Hulsey added.

"This study is part of Texas Electric Service Company's continuing industrial development program to help attract industry and create new jobs which are compatible with the raw materials and economy of the West Texas area we serve," he said.

Roger To Enter Training For Highway Patrol

Warrant Officer William (Bill) Roger, 28, left Tuesday for Austin to enroll in the Department of Public Safety's highway patrolman's school.

Roger, who lacked four days of having served four years on the city police force here, will be in training with the DPS for 4½ months before he is commissioned. The school starts Wednesday morning.

Roger's family will remain here until he has completed the course and has been assigned to duty. Before joining the police force here, Roger served with the Armed Forces.

Meningitis Kills Texas Teenager

EVADALE, TEX. (AP) — Health officials said an autopsy showed Wednesday that the death of Ted Williams, 13, in this Jasper County town resulted from spinal meningitis.

He was taken to a hospital Friday and died there Monday. Young Williams played in a Tall Timber Babe Ruth League baseball game at Buna the day before he entered the hospital.

Copper Exec Dies

UPPER MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — Robert E. Dwyer, 81, former president of the Anaconda Co., one of the world's largest copper producers, died Monday. Dwyer, who started with the copper company as a clerk and rose to president in 1952, retired in 1956. He was born in Anaconda, Mont.

opponents which he hoped might better reveal the lay of the land, declarer proceeded to run the diamond suit.

East discarded two spades and two more hearts, while West gave up, in turn, the three of spades and the seven of hearts. South in the meantime had thrown away a club. The moment of decision had arrived, and declarer elected to go with the spade finesse. When West turned up with the king, he cashed the setting tricks in clubs.

Exactly how declarer should have been influenced by the discarding does not concern us here, for the fact of the matter was that he had a simple method available to eliminate the guesswork completely. If West is stripped of his diamond holding and then given the lead with a club, he must eventually play either a spade or a heart himself, thus presenting South with a free finesse for his ninth trick.

It is suggested that after declarer takes the second club, he cash only three rounds of diamonds in order to reserve a late entry to the dummy in that suit. With the diamonds now eliminated, a club is led with complete assurance, for West can take no more than four tricks in that suit. South can conveniently discard the nine of spades from his hand on the last club, and then await the fruits of his end play.

Fresh Violence Flares In Orange

ORANGE, Tex. (AP) — Fresh violence occurred Wednesday night outside the Firestone Chemical Co., where the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union has been on strike since Jan. 20.

Sheriff's officers reported two persons suffered injuries and several car windows were smashed after a crowd of about 200 people collected. They made one arrest.

Firestone obtained a temporary state court order earlier in the day forbidding the union's Port Arthur-based Local 423 to mass pickets at the plant near here.

Dist. Judge James Neff directed the strikers in his restraining order to comply with state law prohibiting mass picketing. He set a July 10 hearing on the company's request for an injunction.

Sheriff Chester Holts said a car carrying two men stalled while passing through a picket line and two other men assaulted the occupants. He said officers arrested James B. Duff Jr. of West Orange and charged him with assault and illegal picketing.

Peace officers dispersed a crowd of about 300 outside the plant a night earlier.

Workers went on strike after negotiations stalled over wages. Firestone said it offered a 14-cent hourly raise, with four per cent more to be added next year, and the union rejected this while other locals in this area accepted the same terms. Present wages were not disclosed.

South could count eight top tricks with the possibility of scoring a ninth via a successful finesse in either spades or hearts. In order to force several discards from his

Wayne Causey Rips Orioles Behind Sox

By The Associated Press
"I wasn't thinking home run," admitted Eddie Stanky, manager of rampaging Chicago White Sox.
"I wasn't thinking home run," muttered Hank Bauer, manager of the faltering Baltimore Orioles.
"I never think home run," grinned Wayne Causey, whose first circuit clout in two years lifted the White Sox to a 3-2 victory over Baltimore Wednesday night.

ERASES LEAD
Causey's three-run eighth inning homer wiped out a 2-0 Oriole lead and gave the first-place White Sox their ninth victory in the last 12 games. Baltimore, the defending world champion, has dropped 12 of the last 14.

Elsewhere in the American League, Kansas City used three pitchers to shut out New York 2-0. Minnesota shaded Boston 3-2. Detroit rapped Cleveland 7-4 and California rallied to defeat Washington 4-2.

Ron Hansen and Don Buford opened the Chicago eighth with singles against Baltimore's Bill Dillman, who was working on a shutout. Dillman retired pinch runner Jimmy Stewart at the plate on Tommie Agee's tap.

That left runners at first and second with one out and Causey coming up. On deck was Tom McCraw.

A punt seemed in order but Stanky decided to let Causey, who now has 34 homers in 10 big league seasons, swing away.

"A home run never crosses my mind," said Causey, who had not hit one since 1965. "I thought I hit it off the handle."

The handle hit dropped neatly into the right field stands and then Hoyt Wilhelm stood off a bases-loaded Baltimore threat in the ninth to preserve the victory.

Bert Campaneris started two Kansas City rallies and scored both. Athletic runs as Lew Krausse, Tony Pierce and Jack Aker combined to shut out the Yankees.

DOUBLES IN THIRD
Campaneris doubled with one out in the third inning and rode home on Mike Hershberger's single. He reached second on Bill Robinson's error in the sixth and scored on a pinch single by Ken Harrelson.

Mays Slays Cards After Vote Snub

By The Associated Press
The peerless Giant slugger finished fourth in the voting for outfielders, receiving 39 fewer votes than Lou Brock of St. Louis. Willie is virtually certain to be named to the team by Manager Walt Alton of the Dodgers, but for the first time since 1954 he won't be a starter.

Willie confesses that "I'm not having what anyone would call a fantastic year." — anyone named Willie Mays, that is; he's hitting .293 with 13 homers and 37 RBI — but you couldn't prove that by the Cards.

In other National League action, Chicago won a doubleheader from Pittsburgh 4-2 and 3-1. Los Angeles overcame Cincinnati 7-5. Houston beat Atlanta 4-2 and Philadelphia edged New York 6-5.

Both of Mays' singles came in the third inning when the Giants scored six times, giving Ray Sadecki a commanding lead against his old teammates that he had no trouble holding.

The first homer was delivered in the sixth inning and the second — No. 555 of his career — came in the eighth. Both were off reliever Al Jackson.

The amazing Cubs made it nine victories in 10 outings with their pair of triumphs over the Pirates. Ferguson Jenkins won the opener, his 10th of the season, and Ray Culp allowed just three hits in the nightcap. Adolfo Phillips hit a three-run homer in the first game and ignited the go-ahead rally with a double in the second.

Steen benefitted from an 11-hit attack on the part of his team mates. Steve O'Shaughnessy was the loser.

Steen fanned 10 in seven innings and yielded only one base on balls at three hits. Sammy Mims mopped up for the locals, surrendering two hits and walking none.

Rod Roberts, Bill Burchett, R. J. Englert and Dean Gilstrap drove in the runs for the locals. James Newman paced Big Spring's offensive with three hits. Burchett, Gilstrap and R. J. Englert each connected safely twice for the resident nine.

Steen had a rough first inning, serving up a home run ball to Don Spain with one out, but was airtight after that. No one on the visiting team hit safely more than once.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

It's Dr. Jan Loudermilk now. The all-time Big Spring High School basketball star, whose scoring records here may never be broken, has graduated from medical school and is now licensed to practice but will serve a year's internship at Parkland Hospital in Dallas.

Jan, who originally planned to study law, found medicine more to his liking. He faces two years of military service but may be deferred for a while.

Loudermilk played in that basketball game held in Dallas several months ago which pitted members of the Dallas Cowboys against SMU exes and says he thoroughly enjoyed the experience. The contest was staged for the benefit of the retiring SMU coach, Doc Hayes, and $7,000 was cleared for the fund, after expenses. Other money was poured into the fund, with the result that Hayes finally wound up with a nestegg of something like $10,000.

Loudermilk reasons Hayes' successor, Bob Prewitt, will be as successful in the coaching field as was Doc. Bob and Hayes have been working closely together for years and Prewitt is a tremendous recruiter, according to Jan.

Jan married the former Val Jean LaCroix of Big Spring five years ago. They are expecting their first child ere long.

Because of his sluggishness at SMU, he weighs 250 but carries it well. He still looks every inch the finely-tuned athlete.

Willie Mays, who rarely goes to a football game because he gets too much attention from curious fans (he doesn't want to be rude), is gravitating toward the Dallas Cowboys as his favorite club in the pro ranks.

Willie says he has been a roofer for the Cleveland Browns but some of his pets on that club have departed the scene. He likes fast, exciting football and Dallas is capable of quickening the pulse of anyone who takes the trouble to watch them.

Mays, of course, watches the games on television from the safety of his front room.

They tell a good story about Frank Howard, the veteran football coach at Clemson, who believes that a person who wanders through this world bereft of a sense of humor has been pillaged of his birthright.

The Clemson president once asked Howard not to discuss his salary in public because it might make some of the school's professors jealous.

"Don't worry, Mr. President, I won't," rejoined Frank. "I'm just as ashamed of it as you are."

One of the success stories in the recent National Open was written by greybeard Dutch Harrison, who at the age of 57 had two rounds of 70, finished in a tie for 16th place and thereby qualified for the 1968 Masters.

Jim Anderson, a 200-pound Lamesa product, will likely start at offensive guard for Trinity University's football team this fall.

The Tigers will be trying to improve upon a 5-4 worst record under a new head coach, Earl Gartman. Anderson who played in the backfield at Lamesa, is one of 18 lettermen due back.

Trinity plays Angelo State in San Antonio Oct. 14 and ACC in Abilene Nov. 11.

That record baseball game between the Chicago White Sox and the Washington Senators played recently could never have occurred in the old Longhorn League.

No inning in the old Class D circuit could have started after 11:50 p.m.

Legion Slams Midland Drug Behind Steen

Ronnie Steen pitched the Big Spring American Legion baseball team to its fourth District 19 victory in 10 starts by beating Midland Drug, 4-2, here Wednesday.

By winning the remainder of their games, the local contingent can capture second place in the standings and insure itself a place in the playoffs following the national championship.

Big Spring goes to Lubbock today for two games with Lubbock Auto, the first of which gets under way at 6:30 p.m.

Steen benefitted from an 11-hit attack on the part of his team mates. Steve O'Shaughnessy was the loser.

Steen fanned 10 in seven innings and yielded only one base on balls at three hits. Sammy Mims mopped up for the locals, surrendering two hits and walking none.

Indians Rack Up Eighth Victory

The Indians ran their HI-Junioren Teen-Age league record to 8-1 by topping the Big Spring Hardware team, 6-3, here Tuesday night.

A three-run outburst in the sixth inning sealed the win for the Tribe.

Joey Flores, the winning hurler, struck two hits and powered home three runs for the Warriors.

Death Takes Carnera, Former Boxing Champ

SEQUALS, Italy (AP)—Primo Carnera, the towering Italian known as "The Ambling Alp" when he won the world heavy-weight boxing championship in 1933, died today in this mountain town where he was born. He was 60.

His huge body wasted from cirrhosis of the liver. Carnera left the United States last month and came home to die.

He was in a coma for almost a week before death came.

Carnera was champion less than a year. He won the heavy-weight title on June 29, 1933, when he knocked out Jack Sharkey in the sixth round in New York. Max Baer took the title from him on June 14, 1934, with an 11th round knockout in New York.

In between Carnera defeated two challengers, Paulino Uzcudun, in 15 rounds in Rome, and Tommy Loughran in 15 rounds in Miami.

Local Girl Named 'Most Improved' Net Player

Carol McCombs, daughter of SMSgt. and Mrs. Dale E. McCombs, 1600 Sycamore, has just returned from the Texas Tennis Camp held at Texas A&M University in College Station.

Camp directors were Tut Bartzten, former U.S. Davis Cup player and assistant captain and U.S. top ranked amateur, now pro at the Colonial Club, Fort Worth, and Clarence Mabry, director and tennis coach, Trinity University and pro at the San Antonio CC.

Counselors were from Harvard, University of Texas, Texas A&M, Louisiana State University and Trinity University.

A total of 153 attended from Texas, Colorado, Oklahoma, Mississippi and Kansas. Carol was selected by the directors and counselors of the Texas Tennis Camp as the "Most Improved Player" during the session.

Miss McCombs is a member of the Permalan Basin Racquet Club and is a student of George Richey, San Angelo, father of U.S. and world-ranked players Cliff and Nancy Richey.

Standings: TEAM Morton's Foods 10-1, Reed Insurance 9-2, Chapman's Meats 7-7, Webb 6-8, Optimist Club 5-9, City of BS games: Optimist Club vs. City of BS: Webb vs. Reed Insurance.

Chapman's Meats failed to score in two City Softball League's makeup games played at the City Park Wednesday night, losing first to Reed Insurance, 7-0, and then to the Optimists, 6-0.

The victory by Reed's enabled that team to clinch second place in the six team circuit. Morton's Foods has already clinched the flag.

Wayne Henry mastered Chapman's for the Optimists in the afterpiece, scattering five enemy hits.

Simon Alvarado crashed out three hits and powered home

Anderson Leads Bruins To Win

The Cubs, scoring heavily in the third and fourth innings, went on to topple the Red Sox, 8-4, in a Sophomore Teen-Age League game here Wednesday night.

George Anderson, on the hill for the Sox, rationed out only four hits to the Scarlet Hose. Two of those were by losing pitcher Frank Peralta.

Anderson was a power at bat, too, for the Bruins, creaming three hits in four tries. In all, the Cubs had nine blows.

Two runs for the aroused Optimists. Skinner King had two of the losers' blows. Jerry Don Paige and Theibert Camp teamed up to hurl Reed Insurance to victory in the opener, setting Chapman's down with two hits.

Buc Pitcher Has No-Hitter

But for a walk issued to center fielder Barthel Jones in the third inning, Greg Crawford of the Pirates would have had a perfect pitching performance in an American Little League game Wednesday night.

In his no-hitter, Crawford faced only 18 batters officially as the Cubs raced to a 9-0 victory over the Hawks.

Crawford was also a big help at bat to the Corsairs, collecting two of his team's 11 safeties. David-Massey, Roy Lee Osborne and Chris Bogard also had two blows for the pacesetters, who long since have clinched the league championship.

The Bucs thus won their 17th league decision in 19 assignments. The Hawks are 11-8.

Players' Strike Looms As $200,000 Open Nears

MONTREAL (AP) — Arnold Palmer set out after his 50th professional golf triumph today in the tournament that launched at Cleveland last week. But him to an unrivaled history of success while the cloud of a possible future players' strike loomed over the Canadian Open.

Palmer, who has won more money than any other player in the game, concentrated on his golf and skipped a late meeting of the touring pros that could trigger another episode in their long-standing and complex feud with the Professional Golfers Association.

Doug Ford, a member of the player's committee, emerged from a two-hour closed door session Wednesday with the curt announcement, "It's a very serious situation."

The players, seeking more voice in the control of the tour, declined to discuss their meeting, but an announcement calling the gathering said it would concern a critical veto power by

Tech Museum Looking For Items Of Granddad's Day

By ED SYERS Don't look now, but some Texas museum folks have an unusual eye on us: object, preservation. This is good. Too often we think of these people as showcasing dust-collectors and haphazardly tinkering with bits of the past.

where you ain't been. CLOTHING West Texas Museum on the Texas Tech campus at Lubbock has Granddad under a microscope. They hunt, for example, children's clothing of the 19th century, "including teenage."

Five Tornado Funnels Dip In Panhandle

By The Associated Press Writing tornado funnels and stout thunderstorms assailed the Texas Panhandle-Plains sector Wednesday evening, and a southbound cool front threatened more turbulence today.

Although the Weather Bureau reported winds gusting up to 75 miles per hour, there was only limited damage. Up to two inches of rain fell in some places as the cooler air thrust deeper into the state.

TRAILER ROLLS At least five twisters were spotted in the Panhandle, with one appearing close to Amarillo's airport Weather Bureau and another touching down in the Rolling Hills residential district on the northwest side of the city.

DOWNPOUR The worst tornado damage was to barns and other buildings on a farm five miles from Spearman, north of Amarillo. A twister also hit 10 miles south of Adrian and still another spun near Vega, both west of Amarillo.

MERCURY SAGS Temperatures sagged behind the front, dipping to 59 degrees at Dalhart, 60 at Plainview and 61 at Amarillo before daylight. Marks ahead of the front at the same hour held in the 80s at some points.

Science And You Packages For Moon Rock

By DR. LEONARD REIFFEL The most valuable things our astronauts will bring back from the moon will be rather ordinary looking gray rocks. If all goes well, at least 50 pounds of the moon will come home as cargo on the first and subsequent lunar flights.

lunar samples will be returned from the moon. The contents then will be studied in shielded vacuum chambers. Considering all the time and trouble being taken to design the packages, it seems a shame that the astronauts will have to deliver them to the special receiving laboratory at Houston without bright red ribbons tied around them.

One of the most serious questions facing NASA is just how you package the moon samples to retain their maximum scientific content when they get back to Earth. This question of packaging is not simple. The reason is simply that the moon has been sitting out in space, in an almost perfect vacuum, for billions of years.

Not all such effects can be avoided, but many can be if the rocks are contained in the proper kind of package. The job of protecting the moon rocks has fallen to a laboratory of the Atomic Energy Commission and to a group specializing in the design of very air-tight containers and barriers.

For our lunar rocks, the AEC has designed what may be the finest packages ever built by man. They are made out of aluminum and are to be sealed on the lunar surface by crushing down on a gasket made out of indium, a very soft metal, but one that has very good vacuum properties.

WHERE'S ELIZABETHTOWN

Fort Worth's N. M. Merrett (3436 Indale Road): "One of my great grandfathers had a store in Elizabethtown, Denton County. I have a 424 page daybook from it, 1867. At that time, Elizabethtown, Stoney and Bolivar served the western part of the county. When the Santa Fe came through in 1873, the road established Justin, Crum, Ponder and Sanger and, at dates unknown to me, Elizabethtown and Stoney ceased to exist."

"I can find nothing (lost records, courthouse files), have thought of trying the Texas Land Office or Library of Congress. Maybe someone can give me a lead to save false starts in locating and getting a map copy, and location, of Elizabethtown."

Choose African Violets

The exotic African violet, with its delicate blossoms, has grown in popularity each year with indoor gardeners. Shown are six local women who favor the flower and are expanding their collections. From left are Mrs. Lawrence Robinson, Mrs. S. R. Nobles, Mrs. Marvin Sewell, Mrs. A. C. Moore, Mrs. M. A. Cook and Mrs. W. M. Gage. The display is in the Moore home.

Grow African Violets For Beauty, Variety

Webster defines the African violet as a tropical African plant grown for its violet flowers. Mrs. A. C. Moore, 1907 Main, grows them because to her they offer a wider variety of beauty in color, foliage and blossom than any other blooming plant.

Mrs. Moore, Mrs. M. A. Cook and Mrs. Lawrence Robinson recently returned from a trip to Cameron where they visited African violet gardens. Other similar gardens in Texas are in Dallas and Fort Worth. These women all belong to the Genierad Saintpaulia News Society, a national organization of African violet growers who exchange types of leaves and ideas while discussing the growing of their plants. The society was organized in St. Louis, Mo., and information is relayed through letters.

Mrs. Moore began her collection of plants six years ago when her sister-in-law, Mrs. Monroe Thompson of Arkansas, divided one of her plants and gave Mrs. Moore two leaves. From these leaves, Mrs. Moore has developed enviable plants that are her favorites, with blooms that remain almost constant throughout the year.

To get a plant started, the leaf is broken from the plant and rooted in soil, water or plant food. According to Mrs. Moore, soil is the best method of rooting. Planting dates for rooting leaves for the next season are listed in the gardeners book, "Planting Dates for '67," and according to astrology the dates of July 6 through July 8; July 14 through the 17th; and July 23 through July 26, will be favorable days for transplanting.

Rules for thriving plants include maintaining the correct humidity and providing the right temperature (which is around 70 degrees) and either indirect or artificial lighting. Plants may be watered from the surface or from below the plant, and must be watered at regular intervals. Water should be tepid so the delicate plants will not be shocked.

Now boasting a collection of types of African violets, with the same number of leaves rooting or starting, Mrs. Moore would like to see African violets placed in various business houses in town.

Other local growers are Mrs. H. V. Crocker, Mrs. Pearl Gage and Mrs. S. R. Nobles, all of whom are expanding their collections each year.

A LOVELIER YOU

Fair-Skinned Cuties Should Block Sun

By MARY SUE MILLER
From exposure to sun and glare a fair complexion is more likely to turn red or freckle, or both, than to tan. It can happen even after liberal applications of a sunscreen.

This is not to say the sunscreens are ineffectual. Far from it! But, to understand the reaction, one must consider the sun's rays and skin colorings. Let's do that:

The sun's invisible, ultraviolet rays have the power to burn; visible light induces tanning. The skin's melanin — dark pigment — responds to the tanning process. Lacking dark pigment, a fair skin hoards what it has in clusters of freckles; it turns red to signal its sensitivity to tanning.

The job of a sunscreen is to filter the burning rays, but let the tanning rays through. Obviously, if you are very fair, your skin would benefit from a preparation that diverts both rays.

And there's where sun blocks come to the rescue. Warding off both redness and freckles, you give your skin the freedom to enjoy the outdoors without fear of repercussions. You won't get a tan, of course, but then a sun block comes in a tint that simulates the real thing. And makeup can take over when the day is done.

One word of caution: You cannot bake all day in the sun and expect a sun block to keep you unscathed. If you are allergic to sunlight, as some people are, check with your doctor. Otherwise, go have some sun fun!

Among the guests were Mrs. Ray York, mother advisor of Assembly No. 299 in Midland, and three girls from that assembly. Also introduced was Judy Daniel, Grand Charity.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Ray Thomas, Mrs. Ed Wright, Mary Tubb, Cindy Williams and Mary Lou Brown. Proteems will fill all offices during the next meeting at 7 p.m., July 11.

Liberty Survivor Tells How Marine Died While Trying Rescue

EDITOR'S NOTE — AP Military writer Bob Horton was aboard the USS America on June 11 and here interviewed a survivor of the Israeli attack on the American ship Liberty three days before. Here, in contrast to a Pentagon account of the attack published Wednesday, is the way one survivor remembers it.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon's account of the Israeli attack on the USS Liberty presents a picture of almost miraculously quick deaths among the crew. One survivor remembers it differently and tells how at least one man was sealed in flooding hatches.

In a condensation of the Navy court of inquiry's findings on the attack, which killed 34 men, the Pentagon reported 25 died instantly from an Israeli torpedo blast.

TRAPPED
"Those few not killed outright escaped from the compartments," the Pentagon said Wednesday.

"The court," the Pentagon said, "heard testimony from witnesses, including a salvage expert, who stated that beyond a shadow of a doubt those who

Fisher Heads Personnel Unit

The Big Spring Personnel and Management Association met Wednesday evening to elect officers and revive the program of the organization.

The new officers are Irvin Fisher, president; John R. Matthews, vice president; Aubrey Bryans, secretary-treasurer.

"We feel that there is a need of the organization in Big Spring," said Matthews, noting that a membership drive is underway. Members will send letters to the business firms in Big Spring, inviting a representative of that firm to attend the next meeting, July 13.

"We are planning programs and speakers to comment on the problems that companies face in Big Spring," Matthews said.

Work Started On HCJC Remodeling

Work has started on conversion of the old library wing at Howard County Junior College into offices and classrooms.

Jones Construction Company of Big Spring has about completed the work of tearing out previous partitions, shelves, etc. Work is due to begin immediately on construction of new partitions, installing ducts, etc. The work, costing about $37,000, is due to be completed by Sept. 4 and will provide administrative offices for the president, academic and administrative dean, a guidance-testing center, reception and two large classrooms.

Four Win Trip To Astrodome

Four West Texans leave Saturday morning for an expense-paid weekend in Houston and the Astrodome — each of them permitted to take along a companion. These are the winners of trips-for-two in a drawing held by Pinkie's Liquor Stores.

The winners are Joe Stephens, Midland; Don Delaney, Colorado City; Jimmy Dale Harkins, Abilene; and Mrs. Linda Woods, Lubbock.

Two Draw Fines In County Court

Two guilty pleas were heard in Howard County Court on Wednesday afternoon.

Albert Ortega pleaded guilty to a charge of aggravated assault. He was fined $50 and costs in the case.

Charles Oldham, charged with obtaining room by fraud, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail, plus court costs.

Starr Resigns Post At Alpine

ALPINE — Robert Starr has resigned as head football coach at Alpine High School and will join the Sul Ross College football staff in order to work on his master's degree.

Starr went to Alpine in April, 1966, replacing Joe Boyd, who resigned. Starr, a graduate of Baylor, had previously coached at Electra and Sulphur Springs.

Lehigh Prof Dies

QUAKERTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Dr. Rocco J. Tresolini, 47, chairman of the Department of Government at Lehigh University, died Tuesday. Dr. Tresolini, a widely known authority in the field of American government and constitutional law, also lectured extensively.

died there were killed instantly by the blast.

"None could have survived, trapped in the compartment, to die of suffocation or drowning."

NEVER CAME BACK
But one of the Liberty's wounded crewmen told newsmen aboard the carrier USS America on June 11, three days after the attack, of a young Marine who bravely tried to rescue companions from flooded areas of the ship.

Seaman Kenneth Ecker of Watska, Ill., said the Marine helped some crewmen from water-swept hatches and returned below deck to assist others. The implication was that others were alive.

"He never came back," Ecker said. "Water was pouring in the torpedo hole so fast they had to close the hatch."

Only nine bodies of the 34 dead were recovered the first two days after the attack.

Ecker said the Marine was a corporal who boarded the Liberty only one week before when the communications ship stopped at Rota, Spain, for fuel and supplies en route to the Mediterranean.

The Pentagon's list of the dead names two Marines, one Cpl. Edward E. Rehmyer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Rehmyer Jr., of Railroad, Pa.

The other Marine was a sergeant. It could not be determined Wednesday night whether Ecker was called to testify before the court.

LUCKY
Ecker, an 18-year-old radio-

man, was lucky.

He put on his steel helmet when Israeli planes bore down on the ship. At least eight chunks of shrapnel or pieces of bullets struck his helmet, one penetrating and bouncing off his head. One hole in the helmet was nearly an inch in diameter.

HIGH PRAISE
Ecker, knocked from his feet, suffered a one-inch scalp cut and a headache, but wasn't seriously hurt.

The captain of the Liberty, Cmdr. William L. McGonagle, was among the 75 wounded. He was hit by shrapnel in the leg, but continued directing the ship.

The report gave high praise to McGonagle, as well as to the entire crew, and said he has been recommended for an individual award.

500 Red Guerrillas Fade Into Jungles After Bloody Battles

SAIGON (AP) — A crack battalion of some 500 hard-core Communist guerrillas faded away into the jungles today after a running two-day battle in which it badly bloodied a South Vietnamese ranger battalion and evaded a searching force of more than 2,500 allied troops. Unofficial reports from the field said 163 South Vietnamese troops were missing, nine were known dead and 119 had been wounded.

George Esper reported from the battle area that U.S. officers believe the Viet Cong unit scattered after more than 21 hours of heavy fighting over the two previous days. The weekly casualty report released today said 274 Americans were killed and 1,253 were wounded last week. The death toll was almost double that of the week before.

Esper reported that South Vietnamese casualties were heavy but no figures were available. The worst losses appeared to have been inflicted on a ranger battalion shortly after it closed on the Viet Cong unit. Several helicopters were possibly downed in the ranger landing but details were lacking. The sweeping force still in pursuit of the Viet Cong unit includes men from the U.S. 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment, the U.S. 9th Infantry Division and several battalions of South Vietnamese troops. The operation was touched off Tuesday when the rangers pushed into the jungle on a tip from a defector who claimed to be the bodyguard of the Communist battalion commander. The rangers and the Viet Cong were locked in close jungle fighting for 10 hours that day. After a lull that night, the battle resumed for another 11 hours Wednesday, sometimes hand to hand and with the Reds spawning rocket grenades from close quarters at U.S. armored vehicles which had reached the scene. Planes and artillery raked the Red positions repeatedly, and Wednesday night American high-altitude B52s made a saturation raid of 180,000 pounds of bombs on possible jungle escape routes.

AMMO HAUL

For two hours this morning U.S. air and artillery again pounded the Viet Cong positions before the extensive allied search-and-destroy attack jumped off. It made intermittent contacts with small units and reported a large haul of equipment and ammunition. But the main Red force had evidently evaporated. Several other sharp fights were reported Wednesday—notably a pitched battle in coastal Binh Dinh Province in which a 20-man Red force lost 35 dead and seven Americans were killed—but nothing to match the intensity of the fighting north-east of Saigon.

PILOTS CAPTURED?

Heavy American pounding of North Vietnamese targets continued Wednesday with 139 air strikes, many again concentrated on the rail lines extending north and south of Hanoi. The raids cost one Navy Phantom jet downed. The two crewmen were missing. A spokesman said two parachutes were seen descending after the plane was hit. It was the 90th U.S. combat plane reported downed over North Vietnam. Hanoi Radio claimed three American planes were shot down and the pilots captured.

Valley Farm Union Handed Big Setback

RIO GRANDE CITY (AP) — A state judge Wednesday barred farm union members from all picketing at Starr County's largest farm, a ruling La Casita Farms had asked so "people can feel secure in life and property." The union said it would appeal. Judge Woodrow Laughlin's order, which was delivered orally immediately after arguments ended in a two-day hearing. The order was regarded as a setback for the 13-month-old United Farm Workers Organizing Committee, AFL-CIO, which had made La Casita the principal target of its goal to organize Rio Grande Valley farm workers.

NO JUSTICE

Eugene Nelson, who began the union campaign in June, 1966, after participating in a DeLano, Calif., grape workers strike said, "The ruling is just one more bit of evidence that there is no justice in Starr County." He referred to the opening today of a senate subcommittee on migratory labor hearings in Rio Grande City, during which senators say they hope to get ideas on the possible extension of the National Labor Relations Act to cover farm workers.

SIGNS WAVED

Many of the farm workers who had sat in the Starr County Courthouse Tuesday and Wednesday showed up at the McAllen airport Wednesday night to greet Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., and Harrison to greet Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-N.J. They waved signs bearing such messages as "Collective Bargaining, Si, Texas Rangers, No." La Casita counsel maintained throughout the courtroom hearing that the farm workers union had created an atmosphere of violence in the county. Lawyer Lawrence Atlas of McAllen said this "is going to get worse and something bad is going to happen if the picketing is not stopped now."

BRAIN INJURY

Atlas credited Texas Rangers and other law enforcement officers for preventing any violence thus far. Ranger Capt. A. Y. Allee testified earlier Wednesday that he knocked down the door of a house and hit one of two union members, ex-convict Magdalena Dimas, on the head with a rifle while arresting Dimas. Allee denied, however, that he hit Dimas more than once or shoved either of the union members as those men testified previously. Dimas required six days of hospitalization after the arrest for what a physician described as a brain concussion, the court was told.

VIOLENCE

Union lawyer Robert Hall insisted that neither Dimas nor any of the other farm union members had been arrested on any charges of violence since June of 1966. He said the only persons wearing guns in Starr County were the Texas Rangers, Sheriff's deputies and the growers.

City Park Draws Larger Crowds

Use of the facilities at the big Spring city parks has increased within the last month, J. O. Johansen, park superintendent, said.

"The number of visitors always increases in the summer," he said, "but an unusually large number of people have been coming to the park on week-ends the past month."

The City Park overnight trailer area on the San Angelo Highway has been accommodating six to eight trailers every night, Johansen said.

"At one time, there were 16 trailers in the park. Although the area only provides facilities for 16 trailers, 20 could easily be parked there overnight," he said.

Birdwell Park, too, has seen an upsurge of visitors, particularly children in the afternoon and picnickers on the week-ends.

The Northside Park, which was completed last year, has had a slow start in the use of possibly because there are few trees as yet. However, it has a picnic area and a softball field.

For promotion of the Lakeview Park, a program is planned for the Fourth of July.

"Following 'Week in the Park' activities July 9-15, we expect more residents to use the City Park facilities. Also, the YMCA summer recreation program has increased the number of people using the park," he said.

"This is the first year that the YMCA has had access to all the park's recreational facilities," he said. "They have used the swimming pool for several years, but this is the first summer they have used the playground equipment and picnic areas."

In July, an area swimming meet, sponsored by the YMCA, will be held in the City Park swimming pool.

Texan Stages Wild Siege

MARBLE FALLS, Tex. (AP) — Texas Rangers jailed a Marble Falls man early today after a siege of several hours during which they said he held a woman and two children as hostages.

Ranger Clint Peoples said the incident started about 10:30 p.m. when Leroy Creel, Marble Falls marshal, was summoned to halt a disturbance and the man took Creel captive.

Sheriff Wallace Riddell went to the aid of Creel, the officer said, and also was held briefly as the man threatened both.

State patrolmen and Rangers surrounded the house after Creel and Riddell were freed and the woman and children were being held.

Peoples said the man finally freed then unharmed and surrendered about 2 a.m. He was taken to the county jail at Burnet and held without immediate charge.

Fiery Car-Truck Crash Kills Two

HENDERSON, Tex. (AP) — A diesel truck slammed into a stalled automobile on Highway 79 Wednesday, turning the wreckage into a tangled funeral pyre for a Texas-truck driver and an Arkansas man.

The victims were Jaek Agden, 44, of Tenaha, Tex., and Don Heflie of Springdale, Ark. Heflie's companion, Danny Lee Lane, 19, of Springdale, was admitted with burns at a hospital. He was not believed seriously hurt.

Witnesses said the truck burst into flames after hitting the car. Flaming diesel fuel covered both vehicles. The accident happened six miles east of Henderson.

Howard Payne Vet Official Expires

He was prominent also in Baptist Church and Democratic party circles.

Services will be held here Friday at 4 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Shelton had been track coach since 1920. He was teacher, business manager, director of properties, football coach, basketball coach and vice president at different times during the last 47 years.

Surviving are his widow, two sisters and a brother.

TEXANS AT WAR

Ho Lot Like Fidel Castro

By The Associated Press

Air Force Maj. Steve Marcinko, a Texan at war, until May, says North Vietnamese leader Ho Chi Minh is a lot like Fidel Castro.

"Castro was cheered when he ran Batista out of Cuba, and Ho Chi Minh was cheered by his people when he ran the French out of Indochina," he said. "Now look at them."

Marcinko was stationed in Saigon where he was in the tactical air control center at Tan Son Nhut air base.

"We planned air strikes for Army targets," he said. "The strikes usually involved bunkers and troop concentrations."

Although he had to spend 72 hours a week in the tactical center, he managed to log 280 flying hours in the year he was in Vietnam.

One of his frequent passengers was Gen. William C. Westmoreland, the commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam.

CHAMPAGNE CRUISE

Marcinko was stationed in Saigon where he was in the tactical air control center at Tan Son Nhut air base.

Heroin 'King' Nets Pen Term

HOUSTON (AP) — Joseph Stassi Sr. of New York City received an 18-year prison sentence Wednesday after Monday's conviction on a charge of master-minding a $4.5 million heroin smuggling operation.

Federal Judge Ben C. Conally also fined Stassi $20,000. The maximum sentence on the conspiracy charge was 20 years and $20,000.

Conally ruled that the sentence be in addition to a four-year sentence for perjury assessed Stassis in Florida.

Last week's trial was the second for Stassi. He was convicted in March in Corpus Christi but the verdict was reversed and a new trial ordered when it was discovered a government witness had talked to the jury during its deliberations.

The Houston jury of 11 men and one woman received the case Saturday and returned its Monday verdict after four hours of deliberation.

The government's chief witness was Milton Abramson, 60, also of New York City. Abramson was arrested in Houston in 1963 and now is serving a 14-year sentence after pleading guilty to a charge of selling heroin.

STRIKES PLANNER

"I flew him to Pleiku last New Year's Eve," Marcinko said, "with two cases of champagne." He also shuttled former ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge around the countryside.

"You can't imagine how nice it is to be home," he said on his arrival in Denton. "You really don't ever relax when you're over there."

While at the air base near Saigon, Marcinko sat through several mortar attacks the Viet Cong threw against the many air bases in Vietnam.

He flew 88 missions in Vietnam, and that allowed him to be knowledgeable of the difference aircraft he would direct out of Saigon.

London Dollies In Minis Find Seats Unbearable

LONDON (AP) — Miniskirted girls riding London subways are finding new seats unbearable on their bare skin.

"It's a terrible shock to sit down on one of those seats early in the morning," explained one girl.

Railway Review, official magazine of the National Union of Railwaymen, says "London Transport is receiving a number of complaints" about fiber-glass seats on the Inner Circle line.

The London subway is operated by the London Transport. A spokesman said: "We shall bear in mind the views of the miniskirted young ladies. Of course, we have some people who like these seats better than the old ones. The fiber-glass seats are experimental, and we are waiting for the public's reaction."

Most London dollies wear body stockings or tights beneath their minis in autumn, winter and spring, with the warmer days, they've returned to ordinary stockings. This leaves a patch of bare flesh between stocking top and panty bottom. This is the area that's causing the trouble.

The Railway Review said the seats were shaped to accommodate the body but admitted that early in the morning they can be cold. The magazine said other passengers find the seats too hard.

"London Transport may unwittingly have dealt a blow at the miniskirt," it observed.

Miss Dumpy Pick Tops Fun Event

KENNEBUNKPORT, Maine (AP) — Dump art is in at Kennebunkport, and dump oddities will be featured at an art show July 6. The show will be part of Kennebunkport's fun-filled celebration of National Dump Week.

Crowning of Miss Dumpy will highlight the festivities.

Dear Abby

The Lady And The Fool

DEAR ABBY: I started going with a gal I'll call Vi. I liked her a lot, but she seemed to have a lot of crummy friends. One day Vi called me at work and told me she had been beaten up and robbed, so would I stop off to see her and bring her some money to pay her bills.

When I saw her, she sure was a mess. She said some men she had never seen before used a pass key to get into her flat, beat her up, and took all her savings which was about $300. I took Vi to the emergency hospital, and they fixed her up. She told them she fell down some stairs. I wanted to report it to the police but Vi wouldn't let me. I gave her $200 to pay her bills.

Now I am wondering why she wouldn't report a robbery to the police. This doesn't make sense to me. Does it to you?

VIS GUY

DEAR GUY: Probably, the reason Vi didn't want to report the robbery was because there wasn't any. If you're smart, you'll stay away from the likes of Vi, Buddy.

DEAR ABBY: I married Tex when I was 16. I bore him four sons. When the youngest was eight months old, Tex took off for California and left me to raise the boys alone. I did, and believe me, it wasn't easy. I divorced Tex, and he didn't fight it. In the meantime he married another woman, and the boys grew up and had families of their own.

It has been 40 years now. Tex's wife died, and he has returned. He expects me to take him back and feel the same toward him as I did in the early days. I have no feeling for him. I don't hate him. He is like a stranger to me, except that he is the father of my sons. The boys tell me that their father and I "belong" together. Am I wrong to say I want no part of him?

HURT

DEAR HURT: Not in my book, you aren't.

DEAR ABBY: I guess you get all kinds of letters, but this will be a new one:

My husband went to work for a certain garage downtown. He's a mechanic. Well, Pete worked there for only a few days when I stopped by to pick him up from work, and I met his boss. The boss told me personally that he liked my husband's work and he hoped Pete would become a permanent fixture around there.

Well, after Pete got his week's pay he was fired. Hold on to your chair while I tell you the reason:

His boss said Pete was "too energetic and ambitious — and that the old timers around there looked awfully pokey compared to him, and it made them nervous."

Abby, what is this country coming to when a man can't put in an honest day's work for the wages he's paid? I've heard of men being fired for laying down on the job. But never because they were too energetic and ambitious.

PUZZLED

DEAR PUZZLED: If Pete could get a signed statement from his boss stating that he was let out for the reasons he mentioned, it would be a great help in getting a job in another garage. I'm sorry to report it, but apparently Pete's experience is not uncommon in shops where the seniors "set the pace" and woe to the junior who ignores it.

Cheesecake For Modern Palates

Cheesecake making and philosophy had much in common in early Roman days. At least this is testified to by historical records which show that Cato, the famous philosopher, won distinction in gourmet circles of his day for the cheesecake he made. But by modern standards, he was a better philosopher than cook.

Cato's cheesecake recipe would not appeal to modern palates nor, would his directions please modern cooks. His recipe read something like this: "Crush two pounds of cheese; mix with a pound of rye flour, or in order to render it lighter, throw in merely a half pound of wheat flour and an egg. Stir, mix, this paste; form of it a cake which you will place on leaves, and cook in a tart dish on a hot hearth." It isn't suggested here, not even for the curious, to attempt use of Cato's recipe.

Today's recipes are scientifically developed to insure uniform results. They must meet high standards for flavor and not be too difficult to prepare. Here is a delicate cake — neither too sweet, nor rich. Sweetened condensed milk imparts the smooth texture and takes the place of both cream and sugar. A regular eight-inch square baking pan is used instead of the conventional spring-form type. With the pretty baking dishes currently available, there is no need to remove this cake from the original baking pan.

Delightful Poolside Refresher

Delicious to serve with iced coffee after a swim.

REFRIGERATOR RISING HONEY TWIST

- 2 pkgs. active dry yeast
 - 2-3 cup warm water
 - 1 cup warm milk (no need to scald)
 - 1/2 cup sugar
 - 1 1/2 tps. salt
 - 2 eggs
 - 1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter or margarine, softened
 - 5 to 6 cups unsifted regular flour
 - Honey Topping
 - 1 cup chopped pecans
- In a large warm bowl, dissolve yeast in the water; stir in the milk, sugar, salt, eggs and butter, then three cups of the flour. Beat at medium speed of mixer for two minutes or 150 vigorous strokes. Add enough of the remaining flour to make a soft dough that leaves sides of bowl. Turn out on floured board; knead until smooth, elastic, five to 10 minutes. Cover with plastic wrap, then a towel.

Let rest on board for 20 minutes. Punch down dough; divide into three equal parts. Cut one part in half; roll each half into a strip 24 inches long. Twist one strip, then wind it into a coil in a greased 9-inch round cake pan; twist second strip and coil around first strip — strips will not fill pan. Repeat process with remaining two parts of dough. Spread Honey Topping and pecans over three cakes. Cover loosely with wax-paper, then plastic wrap.

PANTRY PICK-UPS

Apple pancakes are utterly delicious when they are served sprinkled with a mixture of sugar and cinnamon. You can make the pancakes by adding finely diced apple to buttermilk pancake mix.

For a delightful compote, mix sections of fresh oranges and grapefruit with sugar to taste and top with slivered syrup-preserved ginger.

Baking apple dumplings? Before you wrap the pastry around each apple, fill the core cavities with guava or currant jelly.

If you are in the market for a heavy saucepan or two, you might consider buying heavy (hotel-weight) aluminum saucepans. Such a pan may often be used instead of a double boiler; for this use low-heat is usually required.

MRS. CLYDE R. ANGEL

Talented Homemaker Views Life With Zest

By RHODA LEMONS

Petite and charming Mrs. Clyde R. Angel greets guests at the wide, front door of her home, 706 Hillside, and welcomes them into an environment of white and sky blue. The house was remodelled in July, and Mrs. Angel moved back into it in October of 1966. Predominant colors in the home are blue and white with mauve accents and polished wood furniture. Bavarian hand-painted china enhances the decor, and paintings accenting the colors in the rooms decorate the walls.

French embroidered panels screen the light from the large window area in the living room, and white silk-covered couches team beautifully with tufted pale blue matching chairs and mauve velvet antique companion chairs of gleaming polished mahogany. A French love seat given Mrs. Angel by her mother, the late Mrs. G. W. Tate of Lubbock, is flanked by antiqued white and gold French provincial end tables.

The old with the contemporary is artfully blended by Mrs. Angel throughout her home. The formal dining room is furnished in distressed cherry wood, and the breakfast table exquisites hand-painted china and cut glass crystal. The room overlooks a landscaped brick terrace with potted plants surrounded by a thick carpet of grass and greenery.

The kitchen serves as the heart of the home with antiqued green cabinets and white ceramic tile. The gaily decorated wallpaper is of washable vinyl, and the white curtains are trimmed in colors blending with the wallpaper.

In almost any room of the house one can see a lovely view of the outdoors. Three doorways open onto the terrace, and other entrances look out on the side or front yard, affording a view of all sides of the house. Angel is vice president and a director of the First National Bank. He and Mrs. Angel are the parents of a son, Dr. Robert Angel of Houston, who is leaving for Cam Rahn Bay Hospital in Vietnam in August. While Dr. Angel is serving his year's tour of duty with the Armed Forces, his wife and their son, Bobby, will make their home with the senior Mr. and Mrs. Angel here.

GOURMET COOK

"I honestly enjoy almost everything I do," said Mrs. Angel. "Of course, there are a few household chores that I don't exactly view with pleasure." Mrs. Angel has gourmet abilities in the kitchen, and enjoys herself very much in the process. She loves to bake extras, make party-type sandwiches and treats along with luscious desserts, and stores them in the freezer. When she has any type of entertaining to do, she carefully plans everything in detail and prepares everything possible ahead of time.

"A confident hostess is a relaxed hostess," said Mrs. Angel. She and her husband prefer entertaining in groups of eight or 12, and they enjoy outdoor cooking which, according to Mrs. Angel, her husband does admirably.

She has domestic help with the heavier cleaning one day a week and manages everything else herself. She makes jellies and jams whenever she gets the fruit and shares them with friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Angel does her shopping once each week, and buys large quantities at one time. She has storage space for a good supply of groceries, and she prefers doing all her household errands on one day.

REVIEWS BOOKS

"I am an avid reader of books," said Mrs. Angel, and she is known throughout this area as an excellent book reviewer. She has commitments already set up for the coming year, and this is really her "favorite" hobby.

"Big Spring is a wonderful place to live," said Mrs. Angel, and she and her husband have been an integral part of the community for a number of years. Mrs. Angel taught school for 10 years, and has taught a Sunday school class at the First Baptist Church for 35 years.

She has served as president of the Woman's Missionary Union for three years, and has served on the Building Committee of the church. She is past president of the Hyperion Club Council, of the Big Spring Garden Club, and the Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs. She has served as a past president of the Big Spring Concert Board acting as president for 12 years. She has seen the growth of the concert board from a tiny organization with a low budget to a much larger group with a more extensive budget.

Tracy's Death To 'Cool' Fans?

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What effect does the death of a star have on the box-office value of a movie? That question has once more been raised in film circles after the passing this month of Spencer Tracy.

Tracy had recently finished "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner," in which he costarred with Katharine Hepburn and Sidney Poitier. It is a social comedy concerning what happens to a liberal-thinking couple—Tracy and Hepburn—when their daughter, played by Miss Hepburn's niece, Katharine Houghton, brings home a Negro as the man she wants to marry.

SPRING RELEASE
The film remains on Columbia's schedule for December premieres in Los Angeles and New York, with a general release in the spring—the usual procedure for Academy award hopefuls. As of now, there are no plans to advertise the movie as "Spencer Tracy's last film."

An aide of Stanley Kramer, who produced and directed the film, said that he didn't think Tracy's death would have much effect on "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" one way or the other.

STATUS OF CULTS
"Perhaps there might be an initial pall for those watching the picture when they realize that Tracy is dead," said the spokesman. "But if the picture is good, the audience will soon forget. They're interested only in good performances, and Tracy gives one of his best."

Throughout Hollywood history, stars have died and left unreleased films, causing concern on the part of their producers.

'Kitty' Takes Out Marriage License After Divorce Win

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Amanda Blake, who plays Kitty on television's "Gunsmoke," has taken out a marriage license less than half an hour after being granted an uncontested divorce from her third husband.

She accused her third husband, Arizona rancher Jason Day, of mental cruelty. She said there was no community property and no request for a financial settlement.

The couple was married in Los Angeles Aug. 15, 1964. They had no children, although Day, 41, has two by his first marriage.

Mariposa Chief Purser Runs Seagoing 'Hotel'

The ship is your floating hotel on a South Pacific cruise—and the hotel manager aboard the Matson liner Mariposa is Chief Purser Harold L. Hal Wagner.

Chief Purser Wagner and his staff soon will be welcoming Texans aboard the Mariposa for the 42-day South Seas cruise, sponsored by The Herald.

The group will leave July 24 for Los Angeles to sail on the

At least two—Rudolph Valentino and James Dean—achieved greater popularity in death. Their followings achieved the status of cults.

Humphrey Bogart also achieved vast post-mortem popularity, but that occurred with a new generation several years after he had died.

Stars have died during the filming of a movie, but usually they are replaced, as when Yul Brynner assumed Tyrone Power's role in "Solomon and Sheba." In one instance, a studio used ingenious means to save a nearly-completed movie after the star had died.

HARLOW FANS
Jean Harlow succumbed during the closing days of "Saratoga," and MGM was faced with a dilemma. The movie lacked a few important scenes, and it was a question of somehow patching them together or reshooting almost the entire script with a new star.

The studio conducted a poll of movie goers. Conveniently, the Harlow fans urged MGM somehow to finish "Saratoga" so they could enjoy the last movie of their idol. The necessary scenes were filmed with a double who imitated the Harlow voice while placing her back to the camera. "Saratoga" was not one of the better Harlow films, and it did only fair business.

When Will Rogers was killed in an Alaska air crash in 1935, his "Steamboat 'round the Bend'" was unreleased. It was one of his best films and performed excellently at the box office.

LIVELY CRUISE
Wagner, who has traveled extensively through the Southwest part of the United States and Mexico, is looking forward to the Texas tour.

"I'm sure it will be a lively cruise," he said. "I have found that people from that part of the country know how to enjoy themselves. And there is no better place than aboard the Mariposa on a voyage like this." The Mariposa's purser supervises a staff of eight and he has a variety of other duties. He oversees all passenger activities, including entertainment programming, personal accounts, safe deposit boxes, mail and the ship's newspaper. He also gives advance talks on shore excursions and conducts Sunday church services when no clergyman is aboard.

SINCE 1949
Wagner, a native of Canton, Mo., joined Matson in 1949 in the purser's training program, a year after he graduated from the University of California with a bachelor of science degree in foreign trade.

He served in various purser's department jobs on all the Matson liners until September, 1956, when he was named chief purser for the Mariposa's maiden voyage.

Wagner says he chose the sea "because I have always had a great desire to travel." Traveling is his hobby as well as his profession. He has visited 95 countries on all continents, except Antarctica.

WARM WELCOME
"The South Pacific is the only major area in the world where Americans are enthusiastically welcomed," Wagner observed. "The people all through the South Pacific go out of their way to be friendly and hospitable."

Wagner declares that Bora Bora has the most beautiful lagoon and New Zealand the most varied scenery in the world. The tall, solidly-built purser is convinced that going to sea is the most interesting vocation of all and that he has the most interesting job on the ship. "Every voyage is different," he concludes, "and a cruise liner is one place where history rarely repeats itself."

Information on the cruise may be obtained from Trimble-Baldridge Travel Service, 523 W. Beauregard, San Angelo.

Street Sweeping Sentences Pay Off

JOHN DAY, Ore. (AP) — Municipal Court Judge Ernest A. Sharp sentences juvenile law violators to sweep the city streets under supervision of a policeman.

"Everybody likes it except the defendants," he says. "I haven't had any repeaters." Judge Sharp said he "was searching for a punishment that would hit the kids and not the parents," adding, "It is not in the public interest to send high school kids to jail."
