Not Shooting

Bear Traps Advised

HELENA, Mont. (AP) — The National Park Service was advised Saturday it should trap marauding grizzly bears alive instead of shooting them on first offense.

The same report said Montana, Idaho and Wyoming should change their laws on hunting the big bears.

Slap At Service

Its authors also took a slap at park service bear management practices, especially delegation of authority to deal with nuisance bears.

Their report was released six days after two grizzly bears fatally mauled two girls in Glacier National Park, 400 miles north of Yellowstone, and seriously injured the male companion of one of the girls. Park rangers subsequently shot four bears.

Wants Spending Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Allen Ellender, D-La., served notice Saturday he will not support the administration proposal for a tax increase unless there is a cutback in spending.

"If the budget could be balanced through cuts in spending, an increase in taxes might be justified," he said.

Innkeeper Killed

TEMPLE, Tex. (AP) — Mrs. Kay Diane Newby, 25, of Belton died Saturday in a Temple hospital shortly after being injured in a traffic accident at Salado. She was hostess at the Salado Stagecoach Inn.

Officers said her car skidded on pavement slick from a brief shower. Her car struck a bridge, throwing her from the vehicle.

Odessa Man Stabbed

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Jimmy Lee Boshell, about 24, was stabbed to death Saturday in a residence near the downtown section of Odessa. Officers arrested two men for questioning.

U.S. Confusion Lashed

BANGKOK (AP) — Thailand's Foreign Minister Thanat Khoman lashed out Saturday at what he termed America's "confusion and self doubt" in South Vietnam.

"If you are confused about the righteousness of your own cause in South Vietnam, how can it be possible for the people of Southeast Asia to have faith in you," he said in an interview with the Bangkok Post.

Reviewing the . . .

Big Spring Week

. . . with Joe Pickle

A gift of $200,000 toward a technical-vocational building for Howard County Junior College was announced last week by Mrs. Horace Garrett, whose late husband invested 20 years of his life in support of the college. The gift from the Dora Roberts Foundation, formerly headed by Mr. Garrett, will go toward the college share of the building, which is eligible to get a college facility act grant. This ultimately may mean a three-quarters of a million dollar plant to teach and upgrade technical and vocational skills of our young people and adults.

Our area was treated to some fallish weather. September will never be any more like autumn than all the past week, which brought overcast skies, some moisture, hazy and crisp mornings and a low reading of 58 degrees. A few spots, including southeast Big Spring, got helpful showers, and Moss Creek lake had three inches, which raised the level .8 of a foot.

More than a week rumors of a demonstration sprouted and fed on the gasoline of confidential stuff. By Thursday, the rumored date, they had reached ridiculous, even ludicrous proportions. Mayor Arnold Marshall noted that "the irresponsible spreading of such rumors serves no useful purpose, creates friction and suspicion and is degrading to our city. We are proud of Big Spring and the good relations existing among our people . . ."

One of the sure signs of autumn is the back-to-school movement. Sands and Forsan will register (See THE WEEK, Page 4-A, Col. 1)

DOUBTFUL IF HE COULD MUSTER AN ENDORSEMENT

LBJ's Senate Support Has Eroded

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate support for President Johnson's Vietnam war course has eroded so sharply he apparently would be hard put to muster a majority for any broad endorsement of his Asian policies.

84 WILLING
An Associated Press canvass which found 84 senators willing to express an opinion, either publicly or private, showed 44 willing to say they generally support what the President is doing, and 40 who disapprove of his actions for one reason or another.

A breakdown showed 27 Democrats and 17 Republicans backing the President. Those opposing his policies included 26 Democrats and 14 Republicans.

Those who criticize the President do so for sharply contrasting reasons because they include both the most convinced doves and most militant hawks. Thus, even though they list themselves as supporters, some hawks assert strongly their belief that Johnson should go all out militarily to bring the conflict to a swift and victorious conclusion.

On the other hand, the doves complain that Johnson is escalating the struggle dangerously by bombing near-China targets, is failing to get the South Vietnamese to do their share, and is leaving no opening for a negotiated peace.

The substance of the comments of individual senators indicates there is such widespread dissatisfaction with the way the war is going that it would be risky for the President to seek any formal endorsement of his position, as he did in the Gulf of Tonkin resolution in August, 1964.

ONLY TWO
In all the Congress, only Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., and Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, voted against the 1964 resolution. But a number of senators, including Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, have said they would not support such a commitment now.

NO ATTEMPT
Still, there seems no likelihood that any attempt will be made to put into operation the machinery—gated by Johnson at his news conference Friday—that is available any time Congress wants to rescind its 1964 action.

Most of the senators had given their views to The Associated Press prior to the news conference in which Johnson noted the 1964 resolution could be rescinded by a simple majority vote in Congress, without the necessity for his approval of action.

Sen. Thomas J. McIntyre, D-N.H., said he still supported the President's course, "but I must admit that I'm shaken a little."

"The mood of the Senate is changing over Vietnam," he said. "It's becoming uneasy."

Sen. John G. Tower, R-Tex., made his reply to the canvass question — "Do you generally approve or disapprove of President Johnson's conduct of the Vietnam war?" — the occasion to announce he was leaving the ranks of those who approved to join those who disapproved.

"He attacked what he called 'the President's continuing and apparently open-ended policy of 'gradualism' in the war' and said it amounted to a never-win policy."

PRESSURE
"We simply must begin immediately to apply unrelenting military pressure on the enemy, bombing all targets of military significance, and closing the supply port of Haiphong. I believe it is important that we confront and defeat Communist aggression in Vietnam and create a series of Asian buffer states around Red China," Tower said.

But Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La., assistant majority leader, who described himself as "more of a hawk than the President," said he was standing behind Johnson.

"It seems to me that we are in this war and have no choice but to try and win it," he said.

POLICY
Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., who remains classed as a hawk, said "there is still no clear-cut policy which allows the military to use their forces most effectively and to strike at the enemy with a well-executed plan to defeat him, or force him to the peace table."

Similarly, Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss., said: "We ought to do what is necessary to end the ability of North Vietnam to fight, destroy their food production, their military production."

Sens. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., John L. McClellan, D-Ark., and Paul J. Fannin,

R-Ariz., said the President was not doing enough to win. McClellan and Sen. George A. Smathers, D-Fla., said the bombing of the north should have been expanded two years ago.

Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., called the President's conduct of the war a failure to date.

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said Johnson's policies have "left us in the same position we were three years ago — still fighting in the same places. The bombing escalation will do no good."

HAS FAILED
Sen. Roman L. Hruska, R-Neb., said the President "has failed to convince the American people that he has been completely candid about our position in Vietnam."

"This cannot help but raise serious questions about the wisdom or necessity of committing an additional 45,000 American men to the war," Hruska said.

AN AP NEWS ANALYSIS

Insists War Is Going Well

SAIGON (AP) — American military and diplomatic leaders in South Vietnam deny the word "stalemate" and insist that many small and unspectacular developments show an unmistakable favorably trend in the war.

EXPECTS GAINS

U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker expects the Sept. 3 election will be a substantial gain on the political front. The military commander, Gen. William C. Westmoreland, considers the fighting war is costing the enemy 15,000 casualties monthly and that this pressure in due course must have its effect. The bombing of North Vietnam is presented as an indispensable part of this pressure.

UNCERTAIN

The soldiers, diplomats, economists and other experts in the U.S. mission admit that certain programs are behind schedule and certain areas uncertain. The cost of living has gone up about 30 per cent this year, for example. They insist, however, that the over-all picture is gradually improving.

In concert with Washington, an evident campaign is under way to get this message across to the public.

Critics in Saigon who hold that a stalemate exists point to instances where no progress can be detected. They cite incompetent generals of South Vietnamese divisions, corrupt district chiefs, the threat of economic upheaval, continued American casualties, Communist attacks on rural pacification teams. American officials, privately at least, frequently agree with

Family Finds Lad Hanged In Bedroom

Russell Keith Hill, 11, was found dead in his bedroom shortly after 10 o'clock Friday night. Death by accidental hanging was ruled by Walter Grice, justice of the peace.

BIRTHDAY

Russell, who would have celebrated his twelfth birthday Wednesday, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hill, 3605 Tingle. The youngster left his parents and three brothers in another part of the home and went to his bedroom earlier in the evening.

There he is believed to have hooked a coat hanger to the door knob, entwined with two others and looped them over the door. A belt run through the buckle formed a slip knot which police said tightened and shut off breathing when the boy stepped or slipped from a clothes hamper set next to the door.

The incident occurred about 10:10 p.m. A physician and Grice were summoned.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the Nalley - Pickle Rosewood Chapel. Interment will be in Trinity Memorial Park, with the Rev. Bill Odell, pastor of Berea Baptist Church, officiating.

Russell was a sixth grade student at Washington Place and Marcy Elementary. His family moved to Big Spring last year from Snyder.

SURVIVORS

Survivors are his parents; four brothers, Steven Hill, Mike Hill, Terry Hill, Matt Hill, all of the home; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hill, Purcell, Okla.; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arnold, Healdton, Okla.; paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. Emming Hill, Woodsboro; several aunts and uncles.

Palbearers will be Howard Thompson, Edwin Arnold, Cecil Hill, Gordon Foster, Cotton Gaulker and Bernie Combest.

such specific criticisms. But in the highest quarters the argument is advanced that the war is so complex that the statistics add up to the conclusion that the trend is improving.

"One factor frequently overlooked," said an American source concerned with top policy decisions, "is that we've only had real pressure on the enemy for one year. The first year we were bringing in troops and building our bases and logistics from scratch."

PRESSURE

"Now our pressure on the enemy is becoming evident. They (Hanoi) are beginning to recognize that they are pursuing an exercise in futility. They are facing a momentous decision about the course of the war. The enemy is not about to roll over and concede defeat but he is hurting."

Man Held In Mass Murder

SHELL LAKE, Sask. (AP) — Royal Canadian Mounted Police at Shell Lake announced Saturday night they have arrested a man in the slaying of nine members of the James Peterson family.

WEAPON

Police said they also have seized a weapon identified by the crime detection laboratory in Regina as the murder weapon. Inspector B. D. Sawyer said that the name of the arrested man will be withheld until he can discuss the case with his superiors.

The arrest was announced after 1,500 visitors paid their last respects to the Peterson family as seven coffins bedecked with roses and one draped with a Canadian flag were lowered into a common grave in Shell Lake cemetery.

Visitors came from as far away as Saskatchewan, 130 miles southwest, to attend the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson and seven of their nine children, who were shot dead in their farm home near this community of 250 early Tuesday.

A giant manhunt for the killer is under way.

QUIZZING

In Calgary, Alta., the Royal Canadian Mounted Police were questioning a man in connection with the slaying.

A spokesman declined to say whether the man had any connection with Saskatchewan or whether he had been in the province recently but added, "If we have to, we'll find everybody who was in Saskatchewan in the last few days."

Showers Dot Parts Of State

By The Associated Press

Light to heavy thundershowers fell across Texas through the Rio Grande to the Panhandle and Red River Valley again Saturday night after earlier weekend rains up to 6 inches.

Heaviest thundershowers after darkness fell ranged from the Hamilton vicinity to Waxahachie to 15 miles south of Mount Vernon. Moderate showers covered part of the area bounded by points from southeast of Wichita Falls to 25 miles southeast of Paris to just north of Tyler and back to Hamilton.

Brown Jailed On Gun Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — H. Rap Brown, jailed on a federal gun charge, was held in $25,000 bail Saturday over the protests of his lawyer who said the militant Negro leader was a political prisoner.

Brown, chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, was arrested at 2 a.m. outside a friend's Manhattan apartment and put in the Federal House of Detention.

REDUCTION

Brown's lawyer applied for reduction of the bail, set by U.S. Commissioner Earl N. Bishopp, but the move was turned down by Federal Judge Inzer Wyatt, who denied that the bail violated Brown's constitutional rights.

"The real crime is his being Rap Brown and a militant black man in America," said William Kunstler, Brown's attorney.

Brown was charged with carrying a semiautomatic carbine on an airline flight from New Orleans to New York while under indictment, a violation of the federal Firearms Act punishable by up to five years in jail and a $2,000 fine. He is under indictment in Maryland on charges of arson, rioting and inciting to riot.

When arrested, Brown was not armed, but federal agents said they later searched the apartment with a warrant and found a gun in a plastic bag with a "banana" clip of 31 bullets.

A carbine is a light, short-barreled rifle.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Stephen E. Kaufman said Brown was seen carrying the weapon in Baton Rouge, La., Thursday and also was seen buying ammunition.

When airline agents in New Orleans asked him Friday if he was carrying a gun, Brown replied yes and turned a rifle in a plastic bag over to an agent for transportation during his flight to New York the complaint said.

Kunstler said that the gun was always in its plastic case.

"If he had a gun, he had it to protect himself in Louisiana," said the defense attorney.

Brown was wounded by a shotgun blast three weeks ago in Cambridge, Md., Kunstler stated.

He called the $25,000 bail "outrageous" in view of the possible penalties.

POLITICAL

"Anything other than a moderate bail would make Brown a political prisoner and the charges a political crime," Kunstler said.

All the bail reduction hearing, Wyatt said Brown has the right to further review of the bail, after 24 hours under the Congressional Bail Reform Act.

Man Changes Story; Admits Killing Wife, Burning House

ST. CLOUD, Minn. (AP) — A small-town Sunday school superintendent has admitted shooting himself and inventing a story in which he blamed midnight marauders for the deaths of his wife and four small children in their burning home.

STATEMENT

Sheriff Peter Lahr said Saturday that David Hoskins, 30, had signed a statement saying he had shot his wife, then set fire to their farmhouse to conceal the crime. No charges were immediately filed.

The charred bodies of his wife, Loretta, 29, and their children—Julie, 6; Darla, 5; Linda, 1½; and David, 6 weeks—were recovered Friday from the smoldering ruins.

The Hoskins farm home is about 60 miles north of Minneapolis in Central Minnesota.

"Hoskins states that after wounding himself with the death weapon and setting the fires, he also tied himself to his outdoor clothesline pole and only then realized that his children were in the burning house," the Stearns County sheriff said.

CHURCH BOARD

Hoskins, chairman of the board of the Church of Christ at nearby Kimball, Minn., said he had been Sunday school superintendent for three years, was found tied to a clothesline pole by a group of teenagers.

Hoskins was naked to the waist and bleeding from gunshot wounds in the shoulder and abdomen. He was taken to St. Cloud hospital, and a bullet was removed from his shoulder.

Paul Doener, Stearns County attorney, said no formal complaint had been prepared but added one would be filed Monday.

"We think the motive has been established, but it cannot be revealed until further corroborating evidence is obtained," Doener said.

C-City Woman Makes Gift To ACC Program

ABILENE — Mrs. G. D. Foster, Colorado City, has made a gift worth $16,000 to Abilene Christian College, announced ACC President Don H. Morris Friday.

The gift of Lynn County land will amount to $16,000 for the college. Mrs. Foster will retain a life estate and scholarship concessions for grandchildren of her and her husband, G. D. Foster.

The gift brings the college's Design for Development committed total to $9,609,710.58 for the three-year Phase I of the program. The goal for Phase I, to be concluded next February, is $10.4 million.

Mrs. Foster, the former Monte McGinty, taught speech at Abilene Christian from 1955 to 1965. She was listed in the 1965 edition of "Who's Who of American Women." She served as an officer at local and district levels of the Parent-Teacher Association while her children were in-school and as a district and state board member of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs. She was president of the 7th District of T. F. W. C. for two years.

Foster operates a general fire and casualty insurance business in Colorado City and has been active in the Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, and the United Fund. He is an elder of the 4th and Elm Street Church of Christ and is on the ACC advisory board.

His daughter, Miss George Maedell Foster, received both her B.A. and M.A. degrees from Abilene Christian and is now completing work toward the doctorate at Illinois State University.

Mrs. Foster's daughter, Mrs. Tim Hotchkiss is a 1965 graduate of Abilene Christian. She also has two sons, Rush McGinty of Austin, who attended Abilene Christian; and Don McGinty of College Station, who is married to the former Norma Jean O'Neal, a 1955 ACC graduate.

UNITED FUND

Strong Team To Head Up Campaign

R. L. TOLLETT

CHARLES BELL

MORRIS ROBERTSON

LES CAPERTON

A strong team of civic and business leaders has been lined up to head major divisional solicitation for the United Fund this year.

Harold Davis, campaign chairman, has announced acceptances from eight men who will assume posts of responsibility in the annual fund-raising effort. Clyde McMahon Jr. is Davis' vice chairman.

Recent Appointments

Recent appointments include: R. L. Tollett, president of Cosden Oil & Chemical Company, will head the out-of-town solicitation, a task he has had for many years.

The big gifts division will be headed by Harry Sawyer, manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. Special gifts chairman will be Les Caperton, business manager for Pollard Chevrolet Company.

The employe division will be directed by Don Womack, manager of Texas Electric Service Company, assisted by Jack Y. Smith, industrial personnel director for Cosden.

Three Brackets

The metropolitan, or general, division will be separated into three brackets for this year's campaign, and heading the groups will be Jack Worsham, president of Big Spring Savings Association; Charles Bell, executive director of First Federal Savings & Loan Association; and Morris Robertson, operator of an auto body shop.

The Coahoma - Sand Springs area will be under supervision of Bill Reed, president of the Coahoma State Bank.

"We are gratified that this group of busy men—all of them with a record of community contributions — have assumed their share of the work for our annual campaign," said Davis. "I know that they will find good response among other business people of the city when they begin to organize their teams. After all, a successful drive depends to great degree upon the energy and interest of the people who take a part."

Payroll Deductions

Meanwhile, much work is going into campaign organization for the UF appeal which will take place in October. Proprietors are being contracted to solicit their support in setting up payroll-deduction programs for employes who wish to make a regular pledge. Publicity material is being put together, and there will be a special color-slides presentation, telling the United Fund story, available soon for showing to various groups.

The UF this year will be seeking $116,121.00, to accommodate 14 agencies which serve the community in welfare work, in youth guidance programs, and in helping crippled people and others in need.

U. S. To Train More Arabs

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Defense Department nearly has doubled the number of students from Arab states to receive military training this fiscal year in the United States.

At the same time Friday, Sen. Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, demanded a halt to all military and economic assistance to Arab nations that have broken diplomatic relations with the United States.

But Townsend Hoopes, deputy assistant secretary of defense, said none of the increased training is assigned to Arab nations that have disrupted diplomatic relations with the United States. Hoopes, in a letter to Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., said the current military training program provides for 694 students from the Near East and North Africa compared with 362 listed on Aug. 9.

Hoopes said one of the reasons for training officers is the "major role played by the military elite in Arab countries" and the possibility that the officers trained "may be tomorrow's political and economic leaders."

Meanwhile, Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr., D-Va., blocked temporarily Friday Senate confirmation of Hoopes as undersecretary of the Air Force.

Byrd said he was "concerned as to the thinking on the Vietnam war" by certain officials in high places because they do not oppose a lengthy war in Southeast Asia. He described Hoopes, 45, as one of a small group of advisers to Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara who are very influential on U.S. policies and strategy in Vietnam.

Leave On Air Tour Of Mexico

By BRENDA GREENE
Two airplanes revved their motors, taxied down the runway, and left here Saturday morning for a nine-day tour through Mexico.
Piloting the planes are the Howard Loyd and John Polone families. Last summer, the two families flew to the Bahama Islands together.
"We have made the plane trip an annual event," Loyd said. "We began planning the Mexico vacation last year while we were in the Bahamas, and have been preparing for it for the last year."
Pilots of the Loyd plane are Loyd himself, and his oldest son, Don, who is 19. Also on the trip are his wife, Ida, and two younger sons, Wayne, 11, and Darrell, 9.
The Polone plane is piloted by Mrs. Jo Polone, with assistance from her husband. Accompanying them are their two children, Sonceia, 16, and David, 12.
Loyd said that the twosome would fly to Brownsville Saturday morning, stopping there only for a few hours, and fly on to Mexico City. The flight from Big Spring to Mexico City will take approximately 5 1/2 hours, he said.
"We will spend several days in Mexico City and then fly to Acapulco, where we will stay until Aug. 29, when we come back to Big Spring," he said.
Flying in Mexico is not quite as simple as it is in the United States, Loyd said. To be able to fly in Mexico, a pilot must first purchase a tourist permit file a flight plan similar to the ones in the United States, and purchase a card which entitles him to use radio communications and get weather reports.

"It isn't expensive," Loyd said. "The card costs $8 for three months. If a pilot did not purchase one of these cards, it would cost him $5-$6 each time he landed."

"The expense of flying in Mexico used to be tremendous," he said. "However, in recent years, the flying regulations have become less restrictive."

"Neither of our families have ever been to Mexico City and we are looking forward to sight-seeing and shopping, but the plane trip should prove equally as interesting," he added.

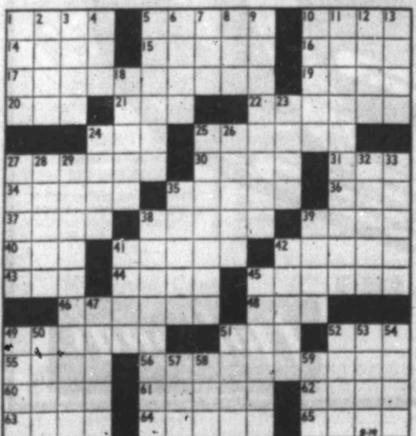

The pilots planned to follow the coast line from Brownsville to a small town on the coast parallel to Mexico City, then turn inland and fly to Mexico's capital.

"Flying conditions will be good most of the time," Loyd predicted. "However, there is a strip of 65-miles that will be pretty rugged country, from the coast of Mexico City. That area is mountainous and will be the only turbulent part of the route."

Returned Fire

Ronald Thompson, his shotgun at the ready, stands over a man he shot on Interstate 35 Friday. Thompson pursued two men who were on the motorcycle (right) in his squad car. When the motorcycle collided with a motor car, police said one of the men shot at Thompson and he returned the fire with his shotgun. The policeman was answering a holdup call. The unidentified man was taken to a hospital in critical condition. (AP Wirephoto)

Slum Area Merchants, Inept Officials Blamed For Riots

WASHINGTON (AP) — Slum-area merchants suspected of charging exorbitant interest rates and unnamed—but allegedly inept—local officials have drawn blame before Congress for this summer's riots.

THE WEEK

pupils this week and convene the faculty, then start school Aug. 28. That's just a week away!

Another straw in the wind for the school season was the hearing on three budgets totalling $5,917,064. The $4,450,979 Big Spring budget drew some flack but unanimous approval of the board; the $1,114,069 HCJC fiscal guide sailed through as did the $352,016 proposal for Forsan's district. The Coahoma budget of $567,000 is up for hearing Monday evening, and this will make an over-all educational outlay for Howard County of $6,484,064. We haven't run out the figures, but the payroll portion is probably over $3,500,000.

Howard County commissioners last week gave tentative approval to splitting the Coahoma box to provide an additional box (No. 21) at Sand Springs. That's fine because Coahoma has a potential of around 1,000 votes; but what about the jumbo boxes in Big Spring which have 50 to 100 per cent more votes?

Work is due to start this week on the new federal building, a $801,000 project which will require about a year to build. The extension of the nearby Caylor building is but a harbinger of commercial construction which will, in time, cluster about the new federal building.

The junior rodeo, concluded here a week ago, got better support than usual, and certainly it did not lack for participants. To Rex Bland, Abilene, and Anne Miller, Lamesa, went saddles for having been the high-point boy and girl.

Trans-Texas Airways announced plans last week to take Convair 440 turbo-prop aircraft from here in the early morning and to replace it with the DC-3 over a new route that would elbow to Brownwood. This drew howls of protest from the Chamber of Commerce aviation committee (and many others), especially since TTA top officials said here no later than June 11 there would be no deterioration of local service. Ugh, someone speaks with forked tongue.

Several oil wildcats were announced during the week. Cockerell Corp. No. 1 Latham will be a 12,000-ft. test 10 miles south of Lamesa and northeast of Fusselman production in the Tex-Hammon field. Anadarko No. 1-A Gist will be a re-entry a mile southwest of Knott in northwest Howard to look at the Canyon. Faskin No. 1 Pan-Am-Reed will be hunting the Wolfcamp 19 miles northwest of Sterling and 4 1/2 miles west of the Triple M Wolfcamp pool.

Howard County rated a fourth Texas Highway Patrolman last week with the assignment of Kenneth Maxwell. While the public undoubtedly is pleased, Jimmy Parks, Arvin Henry and Jack White, the present patrolmen, are delighted.

Some of the heat on the commissioners court for rural fire protection was allayed last week when representatives from Coahoma appeared and volunteered to answer all rural fire calls. Big Spring and the county were at odds following the smash up of a truck answering a (false) rural call. Early in the year Coahoma had asked substantial county financial help for its fire department on account of rural calls, but this was held to the previous level of support.

The untitled may think this sort of thing happens all the time in the wild west, but when Tricia Jackson, 8, was bitten by a rattlesnake last week, it was one of those relatively rare events. Fortunately, Mrs. DeWayne Jackson gave her daughter first aid treatment and got her to a hospital quickly. Tricia's doing fine.

Cop Returns Fire, Kills One In Melee

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Wounded by a bullet from his own pistol, a San Antonio policeman shot and killed a Negro man after a melee on the city's east side early Saturday.

Rayford Lee, 26, of San Antonio, was fatally wounded by a shotgun blast fired by Police Officer Jack E. Weaver and his fellow patrolman, Charles Jakeman, were attacked by about eight Negro men after the officers stopped two Negro women for a traffic violation. Lee was dead on arrival at Robert Green Hospital.

Both officers were beaten and kicked before the wounded Weaver fought his way to the patrol car and got the shotgun. Police quoted Weaver as saying he fired once with the shotgun after Lee began shooting with the pistol, one of the two attackers took from the police officers.

Lee's body was found some 50 yards from the scene of the shooting. A pistol was found underneath the body, four spent shells in the cylinder.

Police searched for a second Negro man who fled the scene with Jakeman's pistol. It was not known if he was wounded.

Weaver was shot in the thigh. Both officers suffered head injuries. Police quoted witnesses as saying some six or eight men began scuffling with the two patrolmen, who were said to have been kicked and stomped before Weaver got his shotgun.

The incident brought extra patrol cars to the predominantly Negro section of town for a time.

A crowd of onlookers gathered for a time, then dispersed in the early morning drizzle.

The incident took place in the 800 block of New Brauntfels St., officers said.

Why Should She?

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Two Air Force officers said a woman recently broke off a downtown parking meter with her car, then asked them to help her put the meter into the car so she could take it to a police station. Police say she never showed up.

Media Center Plans Will Be Made Soon

Planning for both long and short-range activities of the Media Center recently joined by the local school district will begin shortly after school starts in September, according to school superintendent Sam Anderson.

Anderson will meet with David Sands, executive director of the program, to discuss types of service programs the center could best provide locally. The newly formed center is expected to count 39 districts in its membership, each contributing $1 per student in last year's average daily attendance count. Big Spring will contribute $7,152.

"This program has many long-range possibilities," said Anderson. Although this first year of operation will be devoted largely to the development and initial operation of the center, he felt the progress which can be made once a foundation is laid will be most beneficial.

"Specific services and functions of the media operation will not be determined until I have an opportunity to meet with regional educators," said Sands. He listed some of the probable services to include: 1. 16 millimeter film library; 2. film distribution services to all districts; 3. film inspection and maintenance services; 4. audio-tape duplication services; 5. visual transparency duplication capabilities; 6. printed material duplication services; 7. in-service training activities; 8. consultant service to districts concerning local media utilization and development.

Sands predicts a target date no later than the first of the year for having services available in each district. Some should begin functioning earlier while others, such as the film library, will be under continuous development.

One of the support activities would be the provision of an instructional media library which could include films, film strips and other materials.

"These could be available on a loan basis to teachers of our district to supplement and enrich the educational program for our students," according to Anderson.

"For every dollar we contribute to the new center, the state matches a dollar. This doubles the resources available to teachers and students," said Anderson. "In addition, the films and materials made available through these funds will be combined with those materials made available by similar funds from other districts throughout our region. Our teachers and students will have access to this collection."

Anderson said the center has received an initial planning and operating grant from federal monies for around $57,000 this year. Another grant for $185,000 to develop educational television is also anticipated.

Masked Men Rob Airport

PARIS (AP) — Three masked men overpowered the night watchman in the deposit room at Orly Airport's freight depot early Saturday and got away with gold bars, jewels and bank notes valued by police at $260,000.

He told police later the three quietly had cut the huge safe open with a blow torch, then calmly walked away with their loot.

This was the biggest holdup at the airport since 1948, when gold bars worth $200,000 were taken by gangsters who later were arrested.

Nursing Care For Veterans

A new program of nursing home care has freed thousands of beds for acutely ill patients and has provided more than 3.7 million patient-days of nursing home care for sick and disabled veterans, Donald D. Van Meter, director of the Big Spring Hospital, said.

These statistics were part of a report to the White House covering the progress of the three-branch nursing home program approved by President Lyndon Johnson in August, 1964.

The Big Spring Hospital is not involved in the nursing program, and refers nursing care patients to the four nursing installations in Texas — Bonham, Houston, Kerrville, and Waco.

Urban League's Award Goes To Negro Family

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A Negro family whose life has been a successful struggle for education will receive an award Sunday as the National Urban League's family-of-the-year.

The presentation to Mr. and Mrs. Asa L. Brock of Portland, will be made by William J. Trent Jr. of New York, general chairman of the Urban League conference which opens that evening.

It is an annual award, made to Negro parents who have overcome obstacles and achieved success in raising a family through hard work and determination.

Among the Brocks' obstacles was lack of money, and among their successes was sending their four daughters to college.

While Mrs. Brock sewed and canned—"I canned everything in sight"—and took care of the children, Brock got extra jobs on his days off between runs on the Union Pacific Railroad as a dining-car waiter. He was making $60 a month when they started their family in 1925.

Was it hard driving himself all these years? He reflected a moment, then said, "It had to be done. Money was awfully scarce."

The Brocks started early exposing their children to what they saw as the proper life.

She said many friends thought it odd that they scrimped and saved to make sure their children went to college. But, she added, "It was what we wanted to do. We felt it should be done."

Brock, still working for the Union Pacific after 43 years, is now on a run to Seattle that gets him home each night.

Their daughters are Mrs. Earl C. Johnson, Portland, mother of twin boys, now back in college for a degree in speech therapy; Mrs. Walter Jourdan, mother of three sons, teaching sixth grade mathematics in La Puente, Calif.; Mrs. Clarence Pruitt, mother of three boys, a kindergarten teacher in Portland; and Mrs. Beverly Hillard, mother of one son, teaching in a Portland elementary school.

What do they see in the future for Negro children?

"Better opportunities," Brock says.

But Mrs. Brock added: "Taking advantage of opportunities starts within the home. Sometimes children rise above their home environment, but mostly it has to start there."

Forsan School Dates Fixed

FORSAN — The elementary school at Elbow will register pupils new to the system this week and will start school Monday, Aug. 28, Bill Cregar, principal, said Saturday.

The starting date also is the same for junior and senior high schools at Forsan. The district functions on a 4-4 division, with grades one through four being taught at Elbow.

Cregar said buses will run regular schedules Monday, Aug. 28, and parents are urged to have children at the stops a little ahead of time. If uncertain of the schedule, they are asked to call the school at EX-8-5394.

The cafeteria will be open at Elbow on the opening day, and meal price is 40 cents. Pupils will begin with a full day's schedule on the first day.

Those new to the system are asked to register children at the Forsan school this week between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Heavy Rains Pelt Coastal Regions

By The Associated Press

Heavy rains fell along the Texas coast Saturday, sending more water pouring into streams swollen by earlier weekend downpours of nearly 6 inches.

The thundershower activity extended from the area around Alice northeastward to the Louisiana border and north to the Tyler area. Over the rest of the state skies were mostly clear. A tornado alert was in effect for awhile around Corpus Christi at mid-day for parts of Nueces, Kleberg and Jim Wells counties after a funnel cloud was sighted north of Kingsville.

Papalota, north of Corpus Christi, had 2 inches of rain between 6 a.m. and noon. Rain still fell in the area during the afternoon. At mid-day, Austin, Houston, Victoria, Corpus Christi, Port Arthur and Beaumont reported rain.

An area northeast of McCoy had 5 inches of rain for the 24 hours ending at 7 a.m. McCoy is just northeast of Cotulla and LaSalle County where rains of up to 6 inches fell Friday.

Other rainfall totals for the 24 hours ending Saturday morning included Falls City 3.62, an area southwest of Rocksprings 2.04, George West 1.75, Wortham 1.70, Sabinal 1.61, Cheapside 1.55, an area northeast of Tyler 1.30, Three Rivers 1.25, Richland 1.03, Big Wells 1.01 and rains of less than 1 inch at a number of points.

Mild weather prevailed over the state with mid-day temperatures ranging from 65 degrees at Dalhart to 85 at Brownsville.

Forecasts called for partly cloudy weather over most of the state through Sunday with widely scattered thundershowers in all sections. Slightly cooler weather is predicted for all sections except South Central and Southeast Texas where temperatures were expected to be unchanged.

Parents Must Appear In Court With Youngsters

Teenage driving habits should take a turn for the best if a provision of the new Texas traffic safety law works as planned.

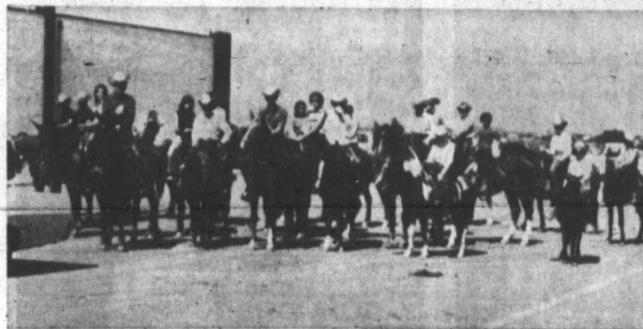

The law, effective Aug. 28, requires that one or both parents of juvenile traffic offenders appear in court with the young law breakers. It further states that the juvenile can plead guilty only in open court before a judge and that parents or guardians must be present before the teen is convicted or fined.

"Up until now, teens could be arrested and fined without the parents' knowledge," said Russell H. Perry, president of the Association of Texas Fire and Casualty Companies. "Teens could and did build terrible driving records. In many cases, the parents could have called a halt to the dangerous driving if only they had known what was going on."

He felt that the provision should benefit both parents and their youngsters since it becomes increasingly difficult today's fast-paced world to keep up with the actions of children.

Perry pointed out that driving records of each member of a family household effects insurance rates under most plans. Under this new law, parents will have an opportunity to do something about their children's driving habits and perhaps put corrective measures into action.

Alaskan Flood Losses Expected To Be Heavy

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — It was Tuesday, Aug. 8. The Chena River, bisecting downtown Fairbanks, was high from mountain snowmelt. Nobody worried about that. It happens every summer.

Then the rain set in.

Before it stopped, Fairbanks would be covered with roaring flood waters up to nine feet deep. Half its 30,000 residents would be homeless. Damage would approach $200 million. Three persons would be drowned.

RECORD

At 2 p.m. Friday a deluge began. In the next 20 hours there was a record 2.47 inches of rain, more than ever had been measured here for the entire month of August.

The Weather Bureau blamed "extreme moisture in the air" coupled with southwest winds, funneled in by continuous low-pressure systems from Japan to the interior of Alaska.

On Saturday, Jack Murphy, the city's Civil Defense Director, alerted the state Disaster Office and Corps of Army Engineers.

"I'm kind of worried," he said.

City officials called an afternoon emergency meeting to plan how to cope with what they thought was a relatively minor flood threat. Crews began sandbagging the banks as the river neared flood stage of 12.2 feet.

NO LETUP

But there was no letup of the rain over the weekend, and by mid-Monday the Chena was at 13.6 feet, 1.4 feet above flood level.

A total of 5.61 inches of rain had fallen in six days. Normal for all of August was 2.2 inches, and for the year less than 12 inches.

Water surrounded scores of homes in low-lying areas. Washouts cut highways and the Alaska Railroad, isolating Fairbanks except by air. The debris-ridden A67 Alaska Centennial Exposition on a 42-acre site at a bend of the Chena virtually was wiped out.

Nearly 300 evacuees from Nenana, 50 miles southwest, were flown here after the flooding Tanana River surged through the community. Fairbanks lies in the broad plain of the Tanana, into which the Chena empties five miles to the west.

NO THREAT

Still the situation did not appear acute or a threat to all of Fairbanks.

Unknown to anyone here, heavy snow that later turned to rain had fallen in the distant hills. The runoff turned into a torrent.

Kills Self Over Getting Haircut

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A boy killed himself with a single shot through the head after his parents made him get a haircut, deputy coroner Harvey Schmitzer said Saturday.

He returned, asked his parents if they were satisfied, went into the garage and shot himself, Schmitzer said.

Effectiveness Of Gas Spray Demonstrated By Police

By REBECCA STARK
"The last thing I remember is holding out the knife. The gas hit me and that was it — everything went fuzzy," said a 29-year-old volunteer for Friday's demonstration of the chemical Mace gun, now carried by some city police.

Patrolman Paul Alexander, six foot tall and weighing 235 pounds, found it difficult to recall anything that took place after the gas droplets were fired at his chest by Jay Banks, chief of police, leaving the volunteer dazed and with a burning sensation around his eyes and neck.

When fired as Alexander approached Banks with a makeshift knife, the droplets took immediate effect, leaving the volunteer stunned and weak. Minutes later, Alexander said he felt like he couldn't do anything and as though he would have fallen if Banks had not given him some support.

Banks led Alexander to a nearby tub where the patrolman rinsed his face with a baking soda and water solution to ease the after effects. He was then examined by a doctor who reported there had been no change in vital functions. The doctor, who also checked the patrolman minutes before the demonstration, said there was only a moderate increase in the pulse and heart.

"Acceptance of the Mace and other similar products has been slow, but is gaining in general use," said City Manager Larry Crow. He said the decision to order some of the canned droplets for local use was made earlier in the summer.

Six holster and four pocket models of the Mace were received by local police last week and have been installed in each of the police cars. The can — similar in size and operation of a pocket-sized hair spray can — is loaded with 50 "shots," with the average burst from one-half to one second in duration. Should an officer, miss, he can shoot again. The weapon will not misfire, according to the manufacturer.

Romney Planning A Speaking Tour

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich. (AP) — Gov. George Romney, one of the top contenders for the 1968 Republican presidential nomination, will begin at the end of this month a series of speaking engagements taking him to 15 states by the end of October, authoritative sources said Saturday night.

In between the engagements, Romney is expected to make a tour of Europe to meet heads of state and bring himself up to date on European matters involving the United States.

The series of engagements, many of them to boost GOP candidates and raise funds for the party, mark renewed vigor on Romney's part in his apparent quest for the nomination.

Except for a tour of five western states last February, Romney has confined his speaking obligations to brief trips sandwiched around his duties as governor.

The series of speeches begins Aug. 30 at Springfield, Mo., the source said.

Other states on the agenda are Arizona, Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, New York, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee and Vermont.

Watts Residents Enjoying Federal Paid Vacation

CAMP ROBERTS, Calif. (AP) — The first 150 persons from the Negro area of Watts in Los Angeles were enjoying an unusual two week summer vacation today — government-paid.

Three school buses brought the first contingent of 2,440 from Los Angeles to this Army training camp. The others will arrive early next week.

The summer camp is part of an anti-poverty program.

"You know, if these kids weren't doing this, they'd be down hanging around the corner getting into trouble," said counselor Ted Watkins.

Volunteer support parties carted in food and other supplies for the stay, including about 35,000 pounds of fruits and vegetables donated by California growers.

The youngsters are joined at the base by others at summer camp — units of the California National Guard which helped quell the violent Watts riot two years ago.

Four Cong Suspects Flushed With Tear Gas

SAIGON (AP) — Four Viet Cong suspects emerged alive from a tunnel in the hills 27 miles southwest of Da Nang Saturday because U.S. Marines used riot-control gas rather than more deadly weapons in one of the minor actions that now typify the ground war.

The explosion of a grenade bearing chemicals that induce tears and nausea caused three men and a woman to crawl out of their hiding place after they had spurred orders from Leath-erneck of the 5th Marine Regiment to surrender.

Associated Press photographer Rick Merron, who was on the scene, said a search of the tunnel by masked Marines yielded field packs, canteens and ammunition for a Communist assault rifle.

Highlights of other developments — U.S. pilots flew a near-record 186 multiplane missions Friday in the recently expanded air war against North Vietnam. This was second only to the record of 197 missions set Aug. 3. Communist supply lines were the prime targets.

—In a periodic updating of aircraft losses in the war, the U.S. Command said 2,573 planes and helicopters had been destroyed from all causes. Planes downed in combat over North Vietnam totaled 647, over South Vietnam 199.

—A Marine reconnaissance team near the demilitarized zone spotted 15 North Vietnamese soldiers in green fatigues and uniforms busily building bunkers. The Marines opened fire and without suffering a casualty killed five of the enemy and routed the rest.

Scattered showers and thundershowers are forecast for Sunday from the western mountains and deserts through the southern Plains and along the Gulf and Atlantic coasts. It will be cooler in the northern and central Appalachians and parts of the Northwest, and warmer from the central Plains to southern Lakes. (AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Rioters, Looters Shot After Galveston Flood

By ED SYERS

F.B.I. gauges America's crime rate up 48 per cent; and any writer with pencil, some one observes, now speaks on our riot-anarchy. Should he not? While lawmakers form study committees, one mayor has ordered police, "shoot to kill!"

The Rev. Billy Graham in simple truth challenges: individualism, we resolve against sin... or our nation perishes.

With no editorial comment except history's, can we listen to Granddad? His folks built our land, town at a time: church first, then school, and law on the streets.

Heed him, three times in Texas, beginning with the fearful Galveston flood.

That was the dark-whirling day of Sept. 8, 1900, that turned nightmare when over 20 per cent of that city's 35,000 were crushed in the black sea's fist; and scores went crazy with what they beheld the clogged Sunday morning after. Aside from America's worst national disaster, hear New York Herald's John Coulter, reporting:

"The depredations of the lawless were of inconceivably brutal character. Unprotected women (surviving)... were robbed, outraged, assaulted... pedestrians held up in daylight... dead bodies mutilated for fingers and ears with jewelry..."

"Since most of Galveston's police had died in the storm, Capt. Rafferty, U.S. Artillery, moved his troops in, ordered to put down lynch mobs, shoot looters..."

The newsmen described those looting "gangs," with jeweled fingers and ears in their pockets, who were shot where found, singly, or—at one gutted building—almost 50 against the nearest wall. "Within 48 hours," reported Coulter, "the city was safe again." And what of that firing squad trooper? Did he barter the Sixth Commandment, "Thou Shalt Not Kill" for the Eighth and Tenth he upheld? Yet what choice had he? By the storm's awful hand, man's law in Galveston had been drowned... in line of duty.

Now, look at two other Texas "riots" the same period—at Columbus and Brownsville. You find that a solitary lawman—but armed with all he stood for—stopped them.

Texas Ranger Capt. Bill McDonald, off the train at Columbus, was met by horrified citizens. "They sent just one Ranger?" McDonald drily retorted there was only one mob... and put it down... with only unhampered law's presence.

Later, he walked singlehanded into a Brownsville troop mutiny and, shotgun up, told rioters covering him with rifles to drop them. They did. They knew what massed behind McDonald; one day, the Ranger put it into creed:

"No man in the wrong can stand up against a fellow that's in the right... and keeps on a-comin'." This Ranger knew Granddad's America, on law and order, just kept a-comin'.

ADD TREES:

San Antonio's G. A. Coley: "... one tree I didn't find in your list. You may know it by another name; people around De Leon call it a weeping oak, limbs small and limber, down the trunk like a weeping willow. They aren't tall or large. There is (a small clump) about a mile south of De Leon on Texas 16.

Midland's Robert R. Harbison: "We own property near Rockport, have a large Live Oak, 12 feet in circumference, a (crown spread) about 125 feet and I don't know how tall but will measure the height this

A&M University, College Station.

El Paso's Dr. George Turner asks if any Texans know of petrified trees in our state. On his ranch near Van Horn, there's a well-preserved stump, five feet across and, nearby, remains of the trunk—all petrified, as confirmed by competent geology.

Bachelors Stage A Demonstration

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (AP) — Demonstrators advocating "bachelor power" and "better dead than wed" paraded in front of the Marion County courthouse.

It was the first "coffee break" demonstration staged by the Cosmic-Worldwide Perpetual Nonviolent Brotherhood of Bachelors and Madrigal Society, International. The tonguetwisting title has been shortened to CWPNBQBMSTI, but that, too, has some shortcomings. The society is only three weeks old, but cofounder John Lemley, Jr., says it's snowballing.

"We're simply dedicated to the principles of bachelorhood," he declared, "but we're not women-haters."

definitely progirl but antimarriage." But why the pickets in front of the marriage license bureau? "We just felt they are too free in issuing these licenses," said Lemley, a confirmed 25-year-old go-it-aloner. "They give them to anybody, you know." Unfortunately, the demonstration lasted only seven minutes and the only arrival got to the bureau just as we were leaving," he added.

LOT OF OLD PROGRAMS GET NEW TIME SLOTS

Networks Will Trot Out 26 New Shows

By CYNTHIA LOWERY
Associated Press TV-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — On the day after Labor Day — Sept. 5 — and for three weeks thereafter there starts what has to be one of the biggest annual gambles in the nation. It's the beginning of the new television season, with odds and stakes high enough to frighten even a compulsive speculator.

SLIM CHANCE
The program head of the CBS Hollywood operation, Perry Lafferty, recently figured that the odds against a professional landing a new show on his network this past season have been 100 to 1. This was on the basis of more than 600 ideas submitted. $3 million spent by the network alone in developing some possibilities — and six new filmed projects.

But if the chances to get a niche on a network are slim, the chances of staying there for any appreciable time are discouraging, too. Out of 41 new shows launched on the three networks last fall and winter, only 11 will be returning for a second season. That boosts the odds of achieving a TV success to about 300 to 1, since it is generally conceded that a show must run at least two seasons and, really, three before it becomes a money-maker.

These awesome odds, however, fail to discourage the hardy optimists. Lafferty has already counted up more than 400 program suggestions for next season.

CBS and ABC will launch most of their new series—and replace re-runs with fresh shows—during the seven days starting Sept. 5. NBC has staked out the week of Sept. 10 to start its new season.

3 WEEKS
But it will still take the viewers at least three weeks to work around the three network schedules, sampling new and old shows, and making their choices. Twenty-six new shows will have their premieres and a lot of old shows will be turning up in new time periods.

To further add to the confusion, NBC announced at a late date it would show "previews" of some programs under consideration for future schedules during the CBS and ABC premiere week, many of them at the very time the competition will be introducing its debuts.

OUTLINE
Here is an outline of approaching change:

Sunday—"Gentle Ben," a series about a bear and a boy, replaces CBS' "It's About Time"; "The Mothers-in-Law," a comedy on NBC in one of the toughest spots—opposite the second half of "The Ed Sullivan Show" and "The FBI," but returning Eve "Our Miss Brooks" Arden to television; "High Chaparral," another Western to follow "Bonanza" on NBC, and "Mission: Impossible" on CBS, moved from Saturdays to replace "Candid Camera" and "What's My Line?"

Monday—"Cowboy in Africa" with Chuck Connors will open the evening on ABC instead of "Iron Horse," moved to another night; "Gunsmoke" moves from late Saturday to early Monday on CBS; NBC's "Man from U.N.C.L.E." will follow "The Monkees" in an effort to capture the young crowd; Danny Thomas' new NBC anthology hour replaces "The Dick Van Dyke Show" on CBS take over the late spot now occupied by "Coronet Blue"; "I Spy" on NBC swaps positions with "Run for Your Life."

Tuesday—On ABC, "Garrison's Gorillas," a World War II series, replaces "Combat"; "N. Y. P. D.," a cops-and-robbers show, takes over a half-hour of "Peyton Place," moved to Thursdays; "Hollywood Palace" replaces "The Fugitive" as soon as he is cleared of his wife's murder; "Good Morning World," a situation comedy, pushes "Petticoat Junction" to another night on CBS. "I Dream of Jeannie" and the new Jerry Lewis variety hour on NBC take over an early evening 90 minutes.

Wednesday—ABC's "The Legend of Buster," which will do the victim of Little Bighorn what "Daniel Boone" has done to the coonskin cap frontiersman, and a fantasy-comedy, "The Second Hundred Years" will replace "Batman" on CBS.

with Walter Brennan, and "Judd, for the Defense," a court-room series. CBS has landed "Gomer Pyle" and his Marine buddies in the old "Hogan's Heroes" spot. At NBC, "Star Trek's" space ship will rest on "U. N. C. L. E.'s" old hour, "Accidental Family." Jerry van Dyke's situation comedy, replaces "T. H. E. Cat" and Telephone Hour comes in where "Laredo" went out.

Thursday—"Cimarron Strip," CBS' 90-minute Western answer to "The Virginian," opens that network's evening schedule, moving "My Three Sons" to Saturdays. Raymond Burr's new police series, "Ironside," is on NBC's mid-evening schedule with "Star Trek" going to another night. A fantasy-comedy, "The Flying Nun" on ABC replaces "F Troop," and "Good Company," a later-day adaptation of the "Person to Person" format, will wind up the network's evening.

Saturday—ABC figured that a t-a-y-a-t-h-o-m-e-s might miss Western in the old "Hollywood Palace" hour, "My Three Sons," "Hogan's Heroes" and "Petticoat Junction" form a solid block of comedy, followed by "Mammy," a new 60-minute private eye series. NBC opens the evening with "Maya," about two boys and an elephant in India, in an hour once filled by departed "Flipper" and "Please Don't Eat the Daisies."

Friday—ABC has a complete evening of new shows, "Off to See the Wizard," an anthology aimed at young audiences; "Hondo," a Western; "The Guns of Will Sonnett";

Action-adventure tales are, by a long shot, the most popular item on upcoming schedules: there are 24 in the category. Comedy is second with 19 shows made strictly for laughs. There will be 13 Westerns and 10 variety hours. There will be but one dramatic anthology for adults—Danny Thomas'—plus two aimed especially at the young viewers.

Burglaries Are Checked

Three burglaries reported to police since Friday are under investigation.

Mrs. Marvin Dixon, 1782 Alabama St., told officers a 12-gauge shotgun had been taken from her home. Mrs. Dixon had just returned from a two-week absence.

A television was reported missing from the home of C. L. Lewis, 306 NW 5th. The theft was reported by Robert Jones, who told police Lewis was away from home and would be notified of the theft.

Items valued at $74 were reported stolen Saturday morning from a Fina service station, 1010 E. 4th. An air hose, display rack and 40 cans of additives for engines and transmissions were missing, according to Rex Edwards, 1006 Wood St. He told officers he had failed to put the display case inside the station when closing Friday night and noticed their disappearance Saturday when he came to work.

An attempted burglary at People's Service Station, Northwest Fourth and Gregg, was reported by police. According to two officers, a young girl told them she had thrown a rock through the window and taken some money. Police were unable to find any opening large enough for her to get in. Grady Hughes, owner of the station, reported he could find nothing missing.

Center Sets Second Clinic

The second crippled children's clinic to be held at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday.

Pre-registration may be made by calling the center or registering until noon on the day of the clinic. All children up to 21 years of age in the surrounding area are eligible to attend. There is no charge.

Parents of crippled children who wish to take part in the clinic are asked to contact the clinic or a family physician to have the child referred. The team approach to diagnostic and evaluation service is offered by the clinic to provide a better treatment program for the child. The type of treatment best suited to the child will be determined by a team including an orthopedic surgeon, pediatrician, physical therapist, speech therapist, public health nurse and orthotist.

Dr. Thurston Deeg, Midland, medical director of the clinic, is a member of the board of physicians approved by the state who can place eligible children in the statewide crippled children program. Through the state program, state and federal funds help finance surgery, corrective braces and other aids for crippled children under age 18 who are referred by one of the physicians on the approved list.

Others on the center's medical advisory committee are Dr. B. Broadrick, Dr. M. W. Talbot Jr., Dr. Nell W. Sanders, Dr. Louise Worthy, Dr. Desmond McCann and Dr. Lowell C. Suckow.

Texas Leading Disease Report

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas has had 45 per cent of the country's diphtheria cases this year, 33 per cent of the paralytic polio cases and 22 per cent of the measles cases, the state Department of health said Saturday.

Through Aug. 12, Texas had 37 diphtheria cases, six paralytic polio cases and 275 measles cases.

STARVED SOILS Most Sections Need Moisture

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Moisture-starved soils over much of the state continued to dominate the Texas agricultural picture last week. No section of the state is entirely satisfied with the present moisture situation, said John E. Hutchison, director, Texas-Agricultural Extension Service.

Some areas are still good but are limited in size. The largest is the South Plains and Panhandle where showers are continuing to fall.

In midweek reports, district agricultural agents sum up the situation this way:

W. W. Grisham Jr., Amarillo, said moisture is now short in Carson, Donley, Gray, Hartley, Parmer and Randall counties. Showers fell over parts of the area on Tuesday. Potatoes are being harvested and grain sorghum continues to make good growth. Range and cattle conditions were fair to good.

Crop conditions over the South Plains continue generally good. Cotton is fruiting heavily and early sorghum is maturing rapidly with excellent yield prospects, reported Billy Gunter from Lubbock. Soybeans are in full bloom. Wheat land is being prepared and fertilized. Livestock are in good condition but forage growth has slowed.

Except in a few areas, all counties in the Rolling Plains need moisture but cotton continues to make good growth, advised James Simmons from Vernon. Boll weevil damage is increasing and bollworms are causing some trouble. Sorghum yields are good.

West Central Texas continues to report short to very short moisture but scattered showers have fallen in Llano and Gillespie counties, reported Roy Hückabee from San Angelo. Cotton is shedding and boll weevils are causing damage in Taylor County, he added. Rain is badly needed and the shortest hay crop in years is reported for Kerr County. Pastures and ranges are below average but livestock are in fair to good condition with supplemental feeding.

Oregon Short On Fans, Rain

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — This city has a shortage of electric fans.

"We've been trying to order more stocks from all over the country," said one buyer. "We've found a few, but we can't begin to fill the orders."

More and more residents tried in vain to buy a cool breeze as the area sweltered through its 88th day Friday without rain and temperatures continued in the 90s.

One wholesaler who had 1,500 electrical fan coolers in stock two weeks ago is now out of them.

"I've got so many on order that, if it turns cold tomorrow, I may jump out the window," said another.

Cong Planning Terror Moves During Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials reported preliminary evidence Saturday of Viet Cong plans to mount a terror campaign aimed at disrupting the September election in South Vietnam.

Communist harassment could include attempts to assassinate opposition candidates and blame the killings on the present military regime whose leaders are running for office, the officials said.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu and Prime Minister Nguyen Cao Ky are the front-runners in a field also including 10 civilian slates. The civilian candidates have been accusing the government of sabotaging their campaigns.

Washington authorities believe the murder last Dec. 7 of a leading anti-junta member of the Constituent Assembly, Tran Van Van, was the work of the Viet Cong. And they say some 30 candidates were assassinated during last spring's election of 13,000 South Vietnamese to local offices.

The officials said a number of recent Viet Cong defectors and prisoners reported having received orders to disrupt the national governmental elections slated for Sept. 3.

The plus Communist broadcasts condemning the elections, and the past pattern of Viet Cong tactics—has led Washington authorities to expect a wave of terrorist acts during the final few days of the political campaign.

It is anticipated that the harassment will be aimed both at candidates and at keeping voters away from the polls. The officials also told newsmen: —The U.S. government is taking no position on whether the elections should be postponed a

Tear Gas, Gun Sales Climb In Painesville

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Tear gas and gun sales have risen here in the wake of sporadic shooting and rock-throwing incidents which broke out Wednesday night, but police reported the town of 17,000 had returned to normal Friday.

"We have extra police on duty, but there have been no more incidents so far," Police Lt. Geor Gasper said early Saturday.

Police Chief Ralph Kleeberger had said earlier that the incidents, in which there were no injuries, were caused by "20 to 40 punks, flourishing in a jittery, rum-filled atmosphere."

Prosecutor Paul Mitrovich said there is unrest that is being exploited by the unlawful element.

Terry Dill Is Leader In Hartford Tourney

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. (AP)—Terry Dill, a 25-year-old Texan who has never finished higher than third on the professional golf tour, moved into the lead after 54 holes of the $100,000 Greater Hartford Open Saturday with a steady 69 for a total of 203-10 under par.

"I'm just hitting it good and putting it good," Dill said, explaining his methodical advance in the standings on a round of 66-69. Only one stroke behind him were five golfers, heading into Sunday's final.

Dan Sikes, Dave Marr and Dudley Wysong each had 67—four under par—at Wethersfield Country Club to move into the second place. Veteran Doug Ford had 69 for his 204. Also at 204 was Dave Hill, the 35-hole leader, who slipped to a 71 Saturday after carding a 10-under-par 61 Friday.

Gary Player skidded to a 71 for the 205 total, two strokes off the pace. He had a 65 the first round and a 69 Friday. He attributed his trouble to terrible chipping.

Dill's round included only one bogey when he missed the green on a long par 3 hole. He made birdie putts of 10 feet and two feet at the first two holes and a 12-foot birdie try rolled in at the 10th hole.

A perennial also-ran on the pro tour for five years, Dill's winnings this year total only $12,346.

At 206, only three strokes off the pace, were Ray Floyd, with 67 Saturday; Steve Opperman, with 69; and Frank Beard with 69. Beard has played 54 holes in a row without a bogey, closing in on the professional golfers' association record of 57 holes without a bogey set by Doug Sanders.

Lee Trevino of El Paso, Tex., among the leaders the first two days, slipped to a 72 to end up at 208, five strokes behind Dill.

HOUSTON (AP)—Curt Flood lined four singles, scored three runs and drove in another as the streaking St. Louis Cardinals rapped Houston 7-4 Saturday night.

It was the eighth straight victory for the first place Cardinals and the 13th loss in the last 15 games for the Astros.

Rusty Staub slammed a pair of home runs and a double and scored three of Houston's runs against Dick Hughes, who went the distance for his 12th victory. Doug Rader also homered for

Matson And Ryun Are Both Upset

VIAREGGIO, Italy (AP)—Randy Matson and Jim Ryun suffered upsets at the hands of teammates Saturday as the United States won all 11 events in the opening session of a two-day track meet and took a whopping lead over Italy and Spain.

The United States, which earlier had scored convincing victories over England and West Germany in other stops on its current European tour, led Italy 80 to 37 and Spain 74 to 31 in the meet that will be concluded Sunday.

Boston Red Sox Outlast Late Rally To Triumph

BOSTON (AP)—Carl Yastrzemski lashed four hits, in a 7-6 lead with his 29th homer in the sixth.

Roger Repoz, with a two-run homer, and Jimmie Hall, with a solo shot, powered the Angels' ninth inning. Jerry Stephenson came in to get the final two outs.

Every Boston starter except Jose Tartabull, filling in for Tony Conigliaro who was hospitalized with a cracked cheek after being hit by a pitch Friday night, hit safely as the Red Sox mauled California pitching for 17 hits.

The Red Sox got three runs on Norm Siebern's bases-loaded pinch triple in the seventh. The Angels, who had scored only 10 runs in seven previous games, jumped off to a 3-0 lead on two walks, a single by Don Mincher and a double by Rick Reichardt in the first.

Outstanding Gridders Will Be Recognized

The Daily Herald will resume the practice of recognizing linemen and backs for impressive play on various teams within the area during the coming football season.

Certificates acknowledging the play of the athletes will be forwarded to their coaches, who can display the document on bulletin boards and/or save them for future distribution.

In addition, Linemen and Backs of the Year will be singled out and similarly rewarded after the season has been completed.

Schools which will be included in the weekly survey include Big Spring, Stanton, Coahoma, Forsan, Garden City, Sands and Flower Grove.

Coaches at each school will serve as consultants to members of the Daily Herald sports staff in picking the honored players.

On occasions, certificates will not be awarded in situations where there has been no particularly outstanding play on the part of an individual or a team.

It is possible but not likely that a lineman or a back can win the certificate ten times over the year. The fact that a boy wins it one week would not disqualify him the following game.

The honorees will be made public each Tuesday.

Under Texas Interscholastic League rules, no gifts of material value can be given to any athlete.

Will Stargell Leads Pirates To 6-5 Win

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lumbering Willie Stargell's first stolen base of the year set up the run which broke a 5-5 tie and boosted the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 6-5 triumph over the New York Mets Saturday night.

The 218-pound Stargell, who has stolen five bases in six seasons, swiped second in the seventh inning when the ball stuck in Met catcher John Sullivan's mitt and the throw was late.

Then Stargell knocked the ball from Sullivan's hands scoring on Gene Alley's single.

Two Met errors and Pittsburgh's three hits, including Matty Alou's double, gave the Pirates three runs and a 5-5 tie in the fifth.

Roberto Clemente slugged a two-run homer for Pittsburgh in the first.

Pinson Sparks Red Win Over Giants

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Vada Pinson's two-run homer and the pressure pitching of rookie right-hander Gary Nolan sparked the Cincinnati Reds to a 3-1 victory Saturday over the San Francisco Giants.

Pinson's homer came on Mike McCormick's third pitch of the game following a leadoff double by Tommy Harper.

McCormick, 16-6, allowed a single to Pete Rose after the homer, but then held the Reds hitless until he was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh. In that stretch, the Giants' left-hander retired 21 of 22 batters.

The Reds added their final run in the ninth on two walks and Leo Cardenas' single.

Nolan, 10-6, allowed five hits—one of them Jesus Alou's home run in the fifth inning—before leaving the game for a pinch-hitter in the eighth inning.

Midland 'Dogs May Run Ball More This Season

MIDLAND — During spring training, Coach Dick Mabry, who comes to Midland High from Paris, concerned himself with constructing a defense and developing a running attack for the 1967 season.

Last year, the Bulldogs posted a 3-7 record and actually gained more yardage passing (735 yards) than they did rushing (655 yards).

Although Mabry loses his top runner of last year, Jack Levin, who gained 247 yards although missing more than half the season, he does have Ralph Wilson, 195, junior, back. Wilson gained 230 yards, although he too, missed more than half the games.

Battling Wilson at tailback will be Charles Wright, a 185, senior, letterman, and Carlos Rankin, a 160-pound senior up from the B team.

At fullback, Steve Aycock, a 185-pound two-letter senior, is No. 1, largely because of his blocking ability. Aycock played guard last year, but was rated the Purple Pack's top road-cleaver. Behind Aycock will be letterman Jesse Cobos, 180, senior, and John Merritt, 160, senior, B teamer.

On the wing, Steve O'Shaughnessy, 175, senior, a defensive specialist last year, and Jo Jo Martin, 170, senior, regular defensive safety in 1966, are the two top candidates.

Mabry is hopeful that an improved running game will make his passing attack more effective. In quarterback Paul Lyons, 170, two-letter senior, and split end Larry Pipkin, 170, one of the best batteries in 2-4-A. Lyons hit 82 of 136 attempts last year for 659 yards. Pipkin caught 27 for 447 yards.

Up front can start a letterman at every line position. Roy Brown, 185, and C. A. Threet, 170, both seniors, are returning guards; Jim Montgomery, 225, junior, and Mike Clark, 190, senior, return at tackles while Danny Holland, 200, senior, lettered at center.

On the ends, returnees include Domingo Valencia, 205,

Scrimmage Is Set By Blake

ACKERLY—Twenty-two boys made their appearance at football team workouts at Sands High School here last Monday.

Workouts have been scheduled at 7-9 p.m. daily, with the boys donning the heavy equipment for the first time tomorrow.

James Blake's team will scrimmage Flower Grove there Friday. On Aug. 31, the Mustangs host the Dragons in a similar scrap.

Blake figures Garden City will be the team to beat in District 3-B this year. Sands, which finished with a 5-4-1 overall mark last season, boasts nine returning lettermen who are expected to help better that record this year.

Lance Hopper will probably get the call as starting signal caller, since Kynn Maxwell has been switched to halfback.

Other lettermen appearing for another season are Alfonso Calvo, Joe Grigg, Jim Fryar, Keny Gillespie, Ronnie Taylor, Alvis Jelfcoat and Larry Newcomer.

Jim Taylor Must Carry Big Load

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Jim Taylor and Paul Hornung are back together again. Only this time—it's New Orleans, not Green Bay, and Hornung watches from the sidelines as an assistant coach and radio announcer. It will be up to Taylor to carry the heavy load in this newest expansion team in the National Football League.

GOOD START

Going into Saturday's game at Baton Rouge, La., against the Pittsburgh Steelers, the Saints were a surprising 1-1 in pre-season play. They hung in close with Los Angeles before losing when Taylor dropped a potential touchdown pass. Then they upset the St. Louis Cardinals 23-12. Tom Fears, who traveled the same route last year as an assistant coach with Atlanta's expansion team, has taken a year from his experience. Fears is concentrating on defense in his new job as head coach of the New Orleans entry.

"Every expansion club, always has been weak on defense," said Fears at the Saints' training camp at California Western University before taking off for Baton Rouge. Last year at Atlanta we'd have the ball for three downs and then kick. They would keep it eight or nine minutes before we got it back. Sometimes you'd play a whole quarter and only run six

Heat Miseries Can Be Eased, Says Doctor

AUSTIN (AP)—Several athletes die of heat injuries each year, and reports of nonfatal injuries run into the hundreds, a Temple physician says.

But, says Dr. W. Cone Johnson of the Scott and White Memorial Hospital, heat injuries and fatalities can be prevented. Attention to heat is particularly important during summer football workouts and early season games, he wrote in Texas Medicine, the journal of the Texas Medical Association.

"While no accurate statistics are available, some sports physicians hold that nonfatal heat injuries, although completely preventable, continue to occur 'by the hundreds' each year," he said. "All six deaths from heat stroke in 1965 occurred during early season drills in August; they were in mid-Southern or Southern states where temperatures and humidities are generally high at that time of year."

WORK INSIDE

Johnson said most athletes who died of heat injuries were interior linemen and were wearing full football equipment.

"In some instances, players were not permitted water during practice but were required to take salt tablets," he said.

Heat injury hazards will grow during daylight saving time "if the environment is generally ignored and practice and playing schedules are not shifted accordingly," he said.

The doctor advised "particular caution" in the timing of "night-games" during daylight saving time.

"There is no longer an excuse for the coach who runs practice sessions without properly acclimatizing his athletes, has players in full uniform in conditions of excessive heat or humidity or both, or who withholds water and minerals during play," he said.

He recommended that gradual exposure to heat should begin at least three weeks before the first full practice session and that athletes should wear only T-shirts and shorts during at least the first five days.

FOLLOW ADVICE

Players with skin, kidney, heart or blood vessel disease should be excluded, and the obese should lose weight gradually and without drugs, he said.

Johnson said football players should wear short-sleeved, lightweight uniforms and short stockings and with only the minimum required taping.

"The use of winter uniforms or rubberized suits to force weight loss is to be condemned, as this actually is 'playing with fire'."

Minnesota Ups Lead By Edging Yankees

NEW YORK (AP) — Dave Boswell shut out New York on three hits and Minnesota, scoring on an unsuccessful double play attempt, beat New York 1-0 Saturday.

League leading twins two games ahead of Chicago whose game with Baltimore was rained out. Bill Monbouquette, 23, held the Twins to four hits through the first six innings, but Bob Allison led off the seventh by beating out a bunt. Rich Reese forced Allison but Russ Nixon singled, moving Reese to third.

Ted Uhlaender grounded to Horace Clarke at second and Clarke tried to tag Nixon, but missed as Reese scored.

Boswell, 11-8, allowed only one Yankee runner as far as third base. Charley Smith singled, leading off the fifth and moved to third on consecutive infield outs. But Clarke lined out, ending the inning.

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Bobby Riggs, Mrs. Margaret Osborne duPont, Mrs. Louise Brough Clapp and Billy Talbot were inducted into the National Tennis Hall of Fame Saturday.

Their induction brings to 54 the number of members in the Hall, begun in 1955.

Cleveland Kayoes Tigers With Help Of Duke Hill

DETROIT (AP) — John O'Donoghue hurled a brilliant one-hitter and Duke Sims crashed a three-run homer as the Cleveland Indians whipped the Detroit Tigers 5-0 Saturday.

Cleveland jumped on Tiger starter and loser Joe Sparma for all its runs in the third inning.

Lee Maye started the rally with a double, Vic Davallio tripled and Leon Wagner followed with a single. Tony Horton walked but was forced by Max Alvis' grounder. Sims followed with his ninth homer into the right field second-deck.

O'Donoghue struck out 11 and was in trouble just once. In the second inning Bill Freehan led off with a single and Ed Matthews walked. But Norm Cash looked at a third strike and Ray Oyler hit into a double play. O'Donoghue didn't allow another base runner, retiring 23 straight batters.

Travers Is Won By Damascus

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — Damascus, making up some eight lengths in one-eighth of mile, quickly opened up a wide margin and easily won the 98th running of the $80,000 Travers at Saratoga Race Track Saturday with a track record equaling time of 2:01 3/5 on a sloppy track.

One in front, Damascus fairly flew through the slop and hit the finish line 22 lengths in front of Patrice Jacobs' Reason To Hail with George E. Robb's Tomoga another seven lengths back in third place. It was another five lengths back to the fourth and last horse, Gala Performance.

SUNDAY

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A Sunday day and evening—when you are all too apt to have a chip on your shoulder or to get in the way of others that do and some dispute to bring anger could follow unless you make a point to studiously sidestep any discussions of whatever may be most contentious in the nature. By so doing you eliminate worry.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You have to do a good deal of work before you get those problematical affairs handled properly, or you can still have trouble later on. An authority can give fine suggestions to start you advancing. Be ambitious.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You have a fine idea how to improve relations between yourself and mate and outsiders, but it's not quite the right time to put in motion. Help others' to forget worries. Then you pave the road to greater happiness.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You must act quickly on whatever comes up that a higher-up expects from you. Dates could lose you profits, down your reputation. Permit kin to comment over some civic project you have in mind. Good criticism is helpful. Make this a practical Sunday.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Studying those somewhat radical ideas you have to improve both personally and business interests. Bring fine ultimate decisions. Put in motion on the morrow. Attend services.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Your intuitions may not be quite accurate so be sure to put them to the test of good judgment. Then act wisely. Be particularly devoted to mate and stop fussing.

about petty things. Be manly, womanly, VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Refusing to argue with a good partner will save you both much embarrassment. Get busy meeting your obligations instead. Any meetings you had planned should be postponed. Await a better time and day.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You have to show real care now or you could cause damage that are bound to be expensive or get hurt. Someone who may be giving you a helping hand may not be in a good mood. Do not take offense. Be kind.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Doing whatever will delight others and give them an opportunity to smile more is better than being too demanding. Find a better outlet for your particular talents. This could come from reading your paper well.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) It is important you take the time and trouble to do what kin desire of you and restore harmony within the home. Rid yourself of whatever is obsolete. Then you can advance very well and quickly.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) It would be better to slow that little trip for another day, since this is apt to be rather a strange day and evening. Keep pretty much of philosophical studies. Be with people you know very well, admire.

expression is excellent provided you do about it in an orthodox fashion. Take long look of yourself and rebuild your confidence. Know yourself. Break some file that is very bad for you.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY Fascinating young people who seems only to respond in a personal way to anything and everything that happens around him, or her. Teach to be more objective, otherwise life can be very cruel to your progeny. A better balance is reached through blending inner and outer consciousness wisely.

MONDAY GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is a day and an evening when many changes are starting to be in effect but actually, although they may disturb you, they are to give you a chance to advance for more rapidly in your own scheme of things by going along with them instead of bucking the current and trying to maintain the status quo.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Highly important you rid yourself of whatever deters your progress so that you can advance more quickly. If you are a pilot, one of whom you are fond looks to you for assistance. It is to your interest to give it.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Listen carefully to ideas which allies give you. It is wise since you can advance more quickly thereby. Stop being so stubborn. Show others you appreciate good will. Buy thoughtful gifts for kin.

erating with those in high position by your special cut of meat, so do just today. Be very active in the business world. You are able to make rapid headway toward success right now.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Blowing and well-known personalities are the ones through whom you progress right now. Listen to and follow their advice. Evening time for recreation but be sure it is of the constructive kind.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Thinking seriously is the only way in which you are able to get right answers to any problematical affairs you may have. Listen to what some friendly member has to say. It can be very important.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Although you may not think they are right, listen to ideas for change which partners have and you may change your mind. Do not argue, though. Concentrate on added outlets that can give you more income, also.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) With all that work ahead of you, you had better complete it efficiently, satisfactorily. Get your co-workers to understand your ideas. Speak to them quietly.

Some matter concerning an outsider can do something rather disastrous to home harmony. If you permit. Reverse the procedure and you win out. Get rid of whatever is obsolete and replace with the new.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) It is up to you to start an upward in your business or creative life by your own wise and constructive efforts. Gain quite a reputation for yourself. Fine day for a little trip, but be sure you drive with care.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Showing those you know who are very successful in your line of endeavor that you admire them brings much support and backing for you. Get property improved so that you increase its value, comfort, beauty.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) It is important that you combine your efforts ahead and give you information you require. Help one who needs you tonight. Concentrate on cultural, romantic things.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow he, or she, will be one of those extremely fascinating young people who find it easy to understand both sides of any question, problem, etc., and it would be well to give the finest ethical and spiritual training early so that the life will be channeled properly at the onset. Fine ability to reduce the complicated to its finest points.

Weird Mural Received Here

A fantastic lithograph "mural" about 7x5 feet in size, mailed in Kansas City by an unidentified person has been received at the courthouse.

Copies of this mural have been set to numerous county and district attorneys in Texas and possibly in other states. They come in a tubular container and there is no return address.

The picture shows the legendary figure of Justice with her scale and sword, but in this picture, instead of being blindfolded, the figure is provided with a huge symbolic all-seeing eye which peers out from the center of a stylized pyramid covering the upper half of the figure's face.

A printed note explains that in all depictions of Justice, she is shown as blind and that the unnamed artist who prepared this picture "had given Justice an eye."

A dove is pictured in an upper corner and a hand clutching a rose in the lower corner. The note suggested the lithograph (which also lacks the signature of the artist) "would look well in your courtroom."

Judge Ralph Caton and other courthouse officials do not regard it as a fitting decoration for the courtroom walls.

MUSIC OF THE ISLANDS is created with bongos, ukeleles — and tongue-in-cheek — by Lt. Col. Jack Bailey, 4760th commander; Col. George E. Franks, base commander; and Lt. Col. William K. Knight, DCM commander. Encouraging the musicians with a gift of leis are Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Franks and Mrs. Knight.

TESTING TIKI BOWL punch for the right combination of juices are Mrs. Harry J. Hopper Jr., Mrs. Edmund L. Figueroa and Mrs. Robert J. Hall, the latter a native of the Hawaiian Islands. The women will serve as waitresses at the luau slated Aug. 26 by the Officers' Wives Club at Webb Air Force Base. The fund-raising event is a combined effort of the OWC ways and means and special activities committees.

PAPER BLOSSOMS by the hundreds will be used in decorating the Officers' Open Mess at Webb AFB for the OWC luau next Saturday. Helping construct the flowers are Mrs. Gary Mucho, bottom; Mrs. Charles Dennison and Mrs. Robert Schull, center, and Mrs. F. W. Picking, top. Mrs. Picking is special activities chairman.

"Lets Have A Luau"

— OWC BENEFIT, AUG. 26 —

FUNDS RAISED FROM the OWC's colorful luau will be used for the various local and service projects which the club supports. Here, seated, is Mrs. Ed Henningson, OWC president, who has helped complete plans for the benefit event. From left, holding party "props" of starfish, coral and shells, are Mrs. Charles Anderson, publicity chairman; Mrs. Frank Borner and Mrs. Don W. Lowe, ways and means chairman.

EVEN A LUAU would be incomplete without dancing girls so the OWC has arranged for a "traveling troupe" of can-can dancers to entertain at Saturday's party. From left are Mrs. Noidrie Moses, Mrs. Donald Peterson and Mrs. Harold Cochran. Advance tickets are being sold for the 7 p.m. Polynesian buffet. Afterward there will be games, contests and floor show with talent from the student classes.

Miss Luevano Weds Rev. Lorenzo Lopez

A nuptial religious service preceded the Saturday evening wedding of Miss Maria Norma Luevano and the Rev. Lorenzo Lopez Silvas of Robert Lee at the Mexican Baptist Church.

Taking part in the service were the Rev. Manuel Rodriguez, the Rev. Aniceto Garza, the Rev. R. Esquivel of Odessa, and Herbert Rubio.

Double ring vows were exchanged by the couple before an altar graced with twin arrangements of white gladioli and 12-branched candelabra entwined with greenery. White satin bows marked the family pews. The Rev. Eliseo Gomez served as officiant.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Luevano, 607 N. Douglas, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Silvas of Brady.

Gregoria Tello of San Antonio, organist, played "Ave Maria," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a formal gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with long sleeves forming petal points over the hands. The dress was designed with a natural bodice and scalloped neckline, and the skirt billowed in cascading tiers to form a train. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a petal cap of Alencon lace and peau de soie encrusted with seed pearls and iridescents. She carried a cascade bouquet of white French carnations and roses.

Mrs. Oralia Rodriguez of Sterling City was matron of honor, and Miss Noemi Luevano, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Della Rubio, Miss Ruth Perez, Miss Hope Abreo, Miss Annie Abreo, Miss Ruth Gloria, Miss Rosa Ibarra and Miss Eva Gloria, the last three of Robert Lee. The feminine attendants were attired in pastel-colored dresses designed with attached bow and panel in the back and long, lace sleeves. They wore headpieces of satin petals and matching veils, and carried nosegays in pastel colors.

The Rev. Crecencio Rodriguez was best man. Ushers were Rene Luevano, brother of the bride; Jerry Gonzales, Los Angeles, Calif.; and Johnny Gomez. Groomsmen were Richard Vera, Eddie Chavez, Abel Martinez of Musquiz, Mexico, Margarito Flores and Eliseo Lopez of McCamey.

Brenda Gomez was flower girl and wore a white embossed skimmer with matching head bow and carried a basket of rose petals. Ricky Luevano, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

WEDDING TRIP

The couple left on a wedding trip to Big Bend National Park, San Antonio and Guadalajara, Mexico. For traveling, the bride chose a two-piece cranberry knit suit with black accessories and a corsage from her bouquet. The couple will be at home in Robert Lee.

Mrs. Silvas attended Big Spring High School where she was a member of the volleyball team and Future Homemakers of America. The bridegroom graduated from Valley Baptist Academy in Harlingen and attended Howard Payne College in Brownwood and San Angelo State College in San Angelo. He is serving as minister of the Mount Bethel Mission in Robert Lee.

The refreshment table was laid with a white net ruffled cloth with lace overlay, and centered with an arrangement of white carnations, red roses and a miniature bridal couple. Miss Frances Rodriguez presided at the guest register. Others in the house party were Mr. and Mrs. S. Lara, Mr. and Mrs. C. Rodriguez, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rubio, Mr. and Mrs. E. Parras and Mrs. Petra Parras.

The hostesses' gift to the honoree was a silver bowl, and approximately 250 persons were included on the guest list.

Lubricate Door Locks Each Year

Door locks usually need lubricating, with graphite once or twice a year to assure freedom of action. It also should be used in the tumbler mechanism. Four types of locks are in general use:

- Auxiliary rim locks or night latches, which are mounted on the inside face of a door and require no mortising.
- Mortise locks, which, as their names implies, are mortised or released into the edge of a door.
- Tubular locks, which are easy to install because they require only that two holes be bored into the door.
- Cylindrical locks, which also are installed with two bored holes but which are more durably built.

Miss Penny Carol Frazier Marries Saturday Evening

MRS. EDWARD DANIEL MCKINNIS (Corley's Studio)

Miss Penny Carol Frazier and Edward Daniel McKinnis exchanged wedding vows at 6 o'clock Saturday evening in the 14th and Main Church of Christ with Perry Cotham, minister, officiating for the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. James Bruce Frazier, 1606 E. 25th, and Mr. and Mrs. Fayne Albert McKinnis, 1758 Purdue.

Traditional wedding music sung by the chapel choir, included "Whither Thou Goest," "The Lord Bless You and Keep You," the bridal chorus from Lohengrin and, as the couple knelt in prayer, "Be With Us, Lord." Mrs. H. G. Cagle of Abilene and Kenneth Roach were heard in a duet, "Oh, Promise Me."

Candles were lighted by Mack and Eddie Frazier, brothers of the bride, and they were joined in ushering by another brother, Jim Frazier, and Ronnie Malone.

A large basket of mixed white flowers centered the altar and formed a background for a wedding candle. Flanking the arrangement were spiral candelabra, fern trees and smaller baskets of white flowers. Steps leading to the altar were accented with emerald palms, and aisle markers were of white wrought iron with votive candles and tied with satin ribbon and English ivy.

The best man was George Don McKinnis, brother of the bridegroom, and groomsmen were Raymond and Roger Andrews, both of Lubbock; Don Bessire, Abilene; David Boren and Gary Jarnigan, both of Floydada; and Mack Scroggins, Denton.

Miss Beth Frazier was her sister's maid of honor, and was attired in a floor-length gown of pale pink peau de sole with chiffon overskirt bordered with peau de sole. The bodice was styled with rounded neckline and brief sleeves. Short white gloves and a single strand of pearls were her accessories, and her hairpiece was a Dior bow with gathered net forming the brief veil. She carried a bouquet of cascading pink carnations interspersed with English ivy and satin ribbon.

The matron of honor was Mrs. Mack Frazier, sister-in-law of the bride, and maiden of honor was Becky Cagle of Abilene. Their dresses were identical to the maid of honor's. Bridesmaids, who wore the same attire in a deep shade, were Miss Nancy Anderson, Forsan; Miss Elaine Thomas, Houston; and Miss Dixie Brown and Mrs. Carl Baker.

The ring bearer was Timothy Frazier, brother of the bride; and the flower girls were Jennifer Frazier, sister of the bride; and Carol Hudson of Odessa. The girls wore floor-length dresses of embroidered pink organza with matching satin sash and hair ribbons. They carried lace baskets filled with rose petals.

The reception was held in the garden at the home of the bride's parents who joined the honored couple and the bridegroom's parents in greeting guests. Also in the receiving line were the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Nell Frazier and

Casually Yours

By JO BRIGHT

I'm a card-carrying member of the I'm - not - much - good - for - anything - on - Saturday - morning club, and this seems to be the first meeting of the month. Let's not be organized, o.k.? How about taking the notes as they are and see what we come up with!

First one says, let's see, "check on rumor that" — no, that's not the one I want. Here we go! Just heard that pretty Marilyn Meacham, daughter of Chap. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Meacham, formerly of W. E. B. AFB, is in town as guest of the Gil Joneses. Marilyn has had an interesting year, doing some fine things and I hope to talk with her more about it the first of the week. . . . The Bill Coleman family is back, a little dazed, from the trip to Las Vegas and those other places. They had a grand time with the Barney Bickleys in El Paso and the William Myres in Albuquerque. Myres is in some kind of space work that seems to have an air of excitement about it. Recent guests of the Clemens and the C. T. Domers were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walters and Ronnie of Houston. . . . Mrs. Squeaky Thompson says they are expecting their first grandchild about Nov. 1 so we'll save a headline for it. The daughter, Mrs. Marvin Simmons, has been here with them for three months while her husband was putting in some Army duty in Kansas. . . . Bennett Brooke called to say that the Paul Keeles, former residents, are moving back here Sept. 1 and Keele will be associated with him at the pharmacy. . . . Mrs. Gloria Ezzell and son, "Easy" will leave Tuesday for a holiday in Dallas and at Six Flags. Mrs. Carl Strom, "Easy's" grandmother, plans a picnic supper soon for his Delmar chapter members, and I understand her fried chicken is something else. . . .

Dr. and Mrs. George Peacock, who had a trip to Washington, D. C., in the spring, are back from a lazier sort of trip to Miami, Okla., where they fished and stuff with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Garwood. Pauline says their little granddaughter, Paula, will be three on Sept. 8. That's my birthday too, so they've promised we can share the cake. (no candles on mine, please.)

and Mrs. Stormy Edwards, Mrs. Ova Mae Edwards, Emmett Morgan, Bill Neal (everyone knows by now that they are moving back here, I guess) and Connie Edwards, who flew up for the weekend. The James L. Underwoods of Midland will be here this weekend to join the Womacks at the lake cabin. . . . Mrs. William Richard and children Bob, Mike and Kathleen, are here from Dallas to be with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bill Cashion. They were in Lubbock, to see another sister, Mrs. W.B. Harris. . . . oh yes, Easy Ezzell's guest this weekend is Bruce Breckenridge of Midland. . . . Understand Maj. and Mrs. Smith Swords were back through here and are in Oregon now. Mrs. Swords and the children will be here while he is in Vietnam. . . . Mrs. H. H. Hurt left Tuesday for Tucson where she was to visit Mrs. Lorin McDowell Jr. about a week before flying on to see her son and family, the Harry Hurt Jrs. in West Covina, Calif.

Ran into Mrs. Bill Edwards and she said their daughter, Mrs. Kelley Lawrence Jr., had let them keep the twins, David and Donald, for a few days and Bill was getting ready to fly them back to Houston. . . . did she say something about the parents going to Hot Springs with the Arch Ratliffs? I think so. . . . Believe Col. and Mrs. George E. Franks and their daughter, Mrs. Ross Fobair of Tampa were in Corpus for deep sea fishing. . . . Joe Sulak stopped by the desk to tell me about the quick trip which he, Mike Clark and Rick McKinney took to Florida to see Mike's parents, the Joe Clarks, who lived here for many years. In Fort Worth, they were guests of Rick's dad, R. E. McKinney, and at West, they saw Sulak's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ray King. . . . The H. O. Hudginses and their son, Wesley, along with Rodney Dunnam, left Wednesday for the high country at Ruidoso. . . . Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Mayes are probably back from a short vacation by now and the Pilands out at Webb are set to go to New Orleans, for which I envy them. . . . a handsome houseguest of the Ted Groebis has been Jerry Weatherby of Hollywood. Believe he's in real estate out there. He's also an old friend of Jerry Worthy, understand they were in service together in Lubbock.

There's more — no it's deadline. We'll start earlier next time. Call me?

DR. WARREN WILL BE IN MADAGASCAR 30 DAYS

Dentist Volunteers For Mission Work

By SAM BLACKBURN

Fort Dauphin, Madagascar, is much further from Big Spring, Texas, than the 20,000 miles or so which separates the two points geographically. The distance between the two points culturally is much greater.

VAST ISLAND

Madagascar, a vast island off the east African coast, is one of the most unusual countries in the world. Populated by a race of Malay stock called the people of Malagasy, it is strangely similar to Africa, much like India, and possessed of some of the weird features of Australia.

One thing is certain — any resemblance between it and West Texas is certainly unlikely.

Just how vastly dissimilar the two areas are will become acutely clear to one Big Spring man sometime tomorrow. He will alight from an airplane Monday and walk to a building which serves as a missionary dental clinic in this remote and fantastic island republic.

This clinic, which he has been warned is somewhat primitive in nature, will be his headquarters and his base of dental operations for 30 days.

The Big Spring man is Dr. Charles Warren, dentist. He left here Aug. 14 by air for Madagascar but his schedule calls for his arrival in Fort Dauphin tomorrow.

MALAGASY

Dr. Warren is in the Republic of Malagasy (the new official name for Madagascar) because he asked to be permitted to volunteer for medical missionary service in some foreign land. Actually, Dr. Warren wryly admits, his application suggested he would like to have been sent to South or Central America.

As a member of the Christian Medical Society, with headquarters in Chicago, Dr. Warren has long been a supporter of missionary medical work in distant lands. The pressing need for dentists in this field has often been called to his attention. He decided to do something personal about it.

"I wrote the Society and told them I would be happy to go where they wanted to send me and work at my profession on a voluntary basis," he said.

ASSISTANT

When he found he had been designated to go to Madagascar, he contacted John Hall, Fort Worth, Hall, a dental technician, operates a dental laboratory.

"I am a Baptist," Warren said, "Hall is an Episcopalian. The Manabaro Hospital in Fort Dauphin in Madagascar is operated by the Lutheran church. I am a member of the dental society — John isn't. However, it worked out just fine."

Hall enthusiastically agreed to go along with Warren as his assistant.

The two volunteers pay their own expenses. This includes not only the air fare to and from their post, but their living expenses while they are on assignment.

"A letter," said Dr. Warren, "informs me that there are living quarters provided for us at the hospital, but that we will have to provide our own groceries and do our own cooking."

DIFFICULTIES

The area where Dr. Warren and Hall are to work is densely populated with Madagascar natives and, as might well be expected of a primitive people, these natives are cursed with dental difficulties of many and complex varieties. Diseases of jaws are particularly common, Dr. Warren has been informed.

Dr. Warren began planning for this month's sojourn early this year. His fellow dentists, he said, have been most helpful, and his patients are being served by his associates here in the month he will be gone.

He and Hall, anticipating a shortage of many of the materials regarded in Texas as commonplace, persuaded one dental supply house to donate a sizable quantity of one particular item.

GOT HELP

"We found it would cost $250 to ship the material by air to Fort Dauphin," said Dr. Warren. "Hall took action in Fort Worth. He approached the biggest Lutheran church there."

"Look," he told them, "I am an Episcopalian, my Big Spring colleague is a Baptist. The hospital in Fort Dauphin is Lutheran. How about helping to get these supplies to the hospital for us?" The church put up $200 of the expense and we'll have the stuff there when we get to the hospital."

He and Hall also took along as much of their own equipment as they could and stay within the weight limit allowed on baggage. Hall is taking a special camera and film to enable him to take photographs of the interior of mouths. The men are also taking a supply of X-ray film.

The trip is also a sort of sightseeing tour for the two Texans. Last Wednesday they were in London. They left there on Friday for Geneva. They flew from Geneva to Paris Saturday and took off immediately for Tananarive, capital of the Republic of Malagasy.

Monday he and Hall will fly from Tananarive to Fort Dauphin which is some 300 to 400 miles south of the capital on the ex-

Judge To Name Panel To Select Grand Jurors

Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, said Friday he would name a special jury commission early this week to select a grand jury panel.

The new grand jury will be convened Tuesday, Aug. 29. Wayne Burns, district attorney, said that at the present time, he has 14 cases which he proposes to lay before the grand jury for its consideration. He described the cases as mostly "mill run."

He also said that in compliance with a request of Jess Bedwell, city police officer, the grand jurors will be provided with all of the information and evidence in the slaying of a Negro hitch-hiker by the officer some weeks ago.

The policeman, according to his statement, shot the Negro when the latter drew a knife on him while being questioned.

Burns said that it is proper to lay the case before the grand jury, as the matter is of such gravity that the grand jurors should be advised of it, even though no official charges are or file nor contemplated against anyone in the case.

Voting Box Boundaries

Official boundaries for Howard County's voting boxes for 1968 will be established by the Howard County Commissioners court at its Monday session. Some slight revision is planned in the geography of one or two boxes.

Most important scheduled revision will be the creation of Box No. 21 — Sand Springs — out of part of the current Coahoma voting precinct and possibly a small portion of another box.

This new precinct is being created at the request of Sand Springs' residents who filed a petition with the commissioners signed by a large number of the residents of the community. The residents suggest that the voting place be located either in one of the churches in the area or, perhaps in the gym at Midway school. Voters living in the area now vote at Coahoma City Hall.

The commissioners are also expected to make a final check of the county's 1968 budget. The court has been studying the budget for several meetings and at last week's session, approved the document in general.

A public hearing and approval of the final version is set for Sept. 11.

A Devotional For The Day

"Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me." (Matthew 25:40, RSV)

PRAYER: Our Father, we would express our thanks and love to Thee. Help us to show our concern and express our stewardship by helping others to know of Thy love and concern for them. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

Always Room For Improvement

The city worked itself into quite a tizzy this past week, almost creating an "emergency" through the rumor mills, even if there was no real one. The zeal of preparedness all but overshadowed the basic American right of citizens peaceably to assemble.

It is fortunate, of course, that no untoward incident occurred. There is no guarantee against the future, and the best any community can do is to examine closely the roots of its problems arising from underprivilege and from whatever demarcations that exist, and then go staunchly after the solutions.

Big Spring has some good marks: Pioneering in school and college integration; setting a good pattern with such programs as Head Start; spending public monies to bring better services to areas that deserved more paving, better drainage, better public facilities.

We also have things to do. We have not completely ironed out all the issues of some needed housing. We ought to work more strongly to get the young Negroes and Latins into school and keep them there, through opportunity, encouragement and challenge. We need to set up a more firm program of employment opportunity. The basic answers against threats of civil unrest lie in education and in honest work.

We have the organizations to lead in these things. The city administration can be one, the Community Action Agency another; they should have cooperation from the Chamber of Commerce, the Pastors Association, and indeed, all service and welfare organizations with manpower, leadership and planning ability.

We have a city of pride and dignity; let these be the characteristics to carry us on to more self-improvement, so that every citizen can share in the pride and dignity.

Credit Union Growth

One of the great factors in the money market that sometimes goes unnoticed is that made up of the credit unions.

A recent report shows how spectacularly these have grown in Texas.

At the end of 1966 there were 1,362 credit unions operating in the state, with total assets of $698,167,605, a gain of nearly 12 per cent over the preceding year. The associations have well over a million members, and their savings amounted to $603,294,977, up more than 12 per cent for the year. Loans also were up in about the same proportion, aggregating $571,465,522.

The growth is evidenced in the local area. The Big Spring chapter of the Texas Credit Union League (including Howard and Mitchell counties) has 12 unions with more than 15,000 members savings of over $7.5 million, loans of more than $7 million, and assets of close to $9 million.

The state report said that credit union membership has more than doubled in the past 19 years, and increased tenfold within 20 years.

The credit unions, as non-profit financial institutions, are made up of groups of people with a common bond of association, who save their money together in order to make loans to each other. Each is an independent corporation operating under either federal or state supervision.

That the principle works, and people are served, is strongly demonstrated in the growth report.

Vice President At Work

WASHINGTON — Bloody but unbowed comes closest to describing the condition of Hubert Horatio Humphrey in this the summer of his discontent. Taking his lumps again and again he nevertheless comes up with the old Humphrey fight.

Fight talk, his critics would say. But with the vice president it is more than talk. He has been pushing, pulling, prodding, praying to get action easing pressure in the ghettos. As a kind of one-man riot abatement squad Humphrey has done many things, both large and small, that add up to a considerable plus.

HUMPHREY HAS been working hard. The Job Corps is one of the projects he constantly pushes. While there have been mid-adventures the Job Corps has taken a number of the unskilled jobless off the streets for training and discipline.

Camp Kilmer in New Jersey is one the vice president keeps his eye on. As of a recent date 86 per cent of the graduates of the latest three-to-six-months course have been placed. Of the total, 1,724 got jobs and 376 enlisted in the military. Most of the latter could not have met enlistment standards prior to Job Corps training.

ONE OF HUMPHREY'S concerns is exploiting facilities that are used only part time. He has his staff prodding in various quarters to open up National Guard camps for city youths who have never had camping experience. Unused Army facilities are also under the jealous Humphrey eye. Room was found at Camp Roberts in California for 2,400 children out of Watts for a two-week camp. In the District of Columbia, where he concentrates a great deal of energy, the vice president got private and public backing to keep Camp Roosevelt, a Boy Scout camp about to be closed down, open to children from the ghetto.

ADDRESSING THE convention of the National Education Association, Humphrey made an impassioned plea to keep the public schools open on a 12-month-a-year basis. This would check, if not halt, the disastrous rise in the rate of school vandalism in most big cities, he argued, besides providing facilities for poverty programs such as Head Start. Humphrey made his plea even though the NEA convention had just passed a resolution opposing a 12-month year.

FLYING TO EVERY corner of the country Humphrey also spends a lot of time on the long-distance phone. Getting an alert on tension here or a lagging program there, he is on long distance with top officials.

No one knows better than Humphrey how marginal these efforts are. The latest weekly survey to cross his desk shows that although 350,000 more 16- to 21-year-olds were employed in July of this year than in the same month a year ago, 500,000 more than in 1966 in that age group are looking for work this summer. Among 16-to-21-year-olds the unemployment rate declined from 11.6 per cent to 10.7. But unemployment among Negroes in that critical age bracket fell most imperceptibly from 23.1 per cent to 22.8.

PRAISING MAYOR John Lindsay of New York for going into the streets to open communication with the people in the ghetto, Humphrey is aware that this is a stop-gap performance, as are the piecemeal measures being taken today. Even so, he goes on working to the last ounce of his formidable energy.

Billy Graham

I am a Christian, and I feel that I am losing friends because of this. I have trouble making friends, and am concerned about this.

Though it is true that Jesus said: "Take up your cross and follow me," it doesn't always follow that real Christians have no friends. You may lose some of your friends who love conformity to the crowd more than a good conscience, but you should gain others. Christ gives you inner strength, and people are attracted to a person of strength.

Ask yourself these questions: Am I cheerful? Do I compliment others freely? Am I critical of those who do not conform to my ideals? Do I feel better than my associates? Do I give in my own goodness, or do I glory God the glory for what I am?

The best way to have friends is to be one. Search out some lonely young person and be friendly with them. Don't wait for others to come to you. If you would share Christ, share yourself, your love, and your understanding.

Snake Seller

ELGIN, Ill. (AP) — Roy Memmin is in a business where there is no room for mistakes.

He has been collecting snakes for 4 years. He has supplied many zoos throughout the U.S. with reptiles he's caught.

"It's a nonpaying hobby," Memmin said. "I get $11 a snake for rattlers five feet and over — delivered, I sold 14 to Brookfield Zoo last year, but this year they're full up already."

He hunts snakes in Arizona's deserts, Oklahoma's hills and northwestern Illinois' hilly country around Galena.

He's only been bitten once, he said. That was in 1950 near Baraboo, Wis., and was hospitalized three days.

"Then I waited a day more, and went back to look for the one that bit me, but he'd cleared out," he said.

Battle Joined On Tax Surcharge

NEW YORK (AP) — The battle over the proposed income tax surcharge got under way in Congress this past week.

The Johnson administration rolled out its big guns to support the President's recommendation of a 10 per cent tax increase on corporations and individuals.

Most members of the House Ways and Means Committee, which opened a hearing on the proposal, seemed cool to the idea and it appeared likely that a rough road was ahead for the tax program.

Appearing before the committee in behalf of the administration were Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler, Budget Director Charles L. Schultze and Gardner Ackley, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers.

They subordinated the cost of the Vietnam war to the economic situation in arguing for the tax boost, which would raise an estimated $7.4 billion in the fiscal year that began July 1.

These officials contended that the surcharge would be the best way to avert a $29 billion federal budget deficit, to dampen inflationary pressures and to forestall an upward interest rate spiral without slowing the economy into a recession.

A SLOWDOWN
Committee Chairman Wilbur D. Mills D-Ark. asked Ackley: "You don't have a fear, then, that a tax increase would further decrease plant utilization? Can we expect the unemployment rate to go up if there's a tax increase? Can we be certain that we can enact a tax increase without depressing industrial production?"

Ackley replied that the softness in the economy during the first half of this year is abating, that businessmen will begin re-

UP, BUT HOW STRONG?

- Committee appears cool to proposal by administration
- Trend is up, but question is how strong the boom
- Housing starts up 11 pct. July 26 pct. over last year
- Corporate profits gain, but drop below last year's rate
- New auto model production up, steel gains substantially building inventories in the closing months of this year and that the outlook is for a "buoyant" economy.

The committee will hear witnesses from private groups next week.

SOME IMPROVEMENT
Meanwhile, statistics were released that showed improvement in some important sectors of the economy. These included increases in industrial production, housing starts, corporate profits and personal income.

Some sources said these advances provided the administration with further ammunition to back its tax increase proposal.

"There's no question the economy is expanding," commented George McKinney Jr., vice president and economist of Irving Trust Co. of New York. "The only question is whether it will expand sharply or very sharply."

The Federal Reserve Board reported that industrial output, in its first advance in six months, rose to 156.3 per cent of the 1957-59 average in July from 155.3 per cent in June. In July 1966 it stood at 157.2 per cent.

HOUSING GAINS
The Commerce Department announced that housing starts climbed 10.8 per cent in July to an annual rate of 1.36 million units from 1,227,000 in June. The July rate was about 26 per cent ahead of the level of a year earlier and was at the highest rate since the 1,377,000 in April 1966.

Corporate profits rose in the second quarter to an annual rate of $79.2 billion from $79 billion in the first quarter, according to the Commerce Department.

The latest profits rate lagged well behind the $83.6 billion in the 1966 second quarter but economists considered it significant that the quarter-to-quarter declines of the two preceding periods didn't continue. In its second consecutive monthly gain, personal income in July rose by $4.3 billion from June to a record annual rate of $67.1 billion, according to the Commerce Department.

Automobile production this past week rose to an estimated 44,400 cars from 34,043 last week as output of 1968 models picked up.

New car sales in the first 10 days of August declined to 181,660 from 189,778 a year earlier.

Steel output last week increased 4.5 per cent to 2,338,000 tons from 2,237,000 tons the previous week.

Around The Rim

The Hard Lot Of A Nurse

They tell me that there's a shortage of nurses. Perhaps it's a profession that is long on work and comparatively short on pay, but the gals of today — and they're a splendid lot — might be happier at their tasks if they compared them with those of nurses 80 years ago.

A hospital magazine recently printed the following, and it was reproduced in the State Hospital news-sheet, "The Dust Bowl." It is a job description of a hospital floor nurse in 1887:

"1. ADDITION to caring for your 50 patients, each nurse will follow these regulations:
"1. Daily sweep and mop the floors of your ward, dust the patient's furniture and window sills.
"2. Maintain an even temperature in your ward by bringing in a scuttle of coal for the day's business.
"3. Light is important to observe the patient's condition. Therefore, each day fill kerosene lamps, clean chimneys and trim wicks. Wash the windows once a week.

"4. THE NURSES' notes are important in aiding the physician's work. Make your pens carefully, you may whittle nibs to your individual taste.

"5. Each nurse on duty will report every day at 7 a.m. and leave 8 p.m. except on the Sabbath on which day you will be off from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

"6. GRADUATE NURSES in good standing with the director of nurses will be given an evening off each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if you go regularly to church.

"7. Each nurse should lay aside from each payday a goodly sum of her earnings for her benefits during her declining years, so that she will not become a burden. For example, if you earn $30 per month, you should set aside $15.

"8. ANY NURSE who smokes, uses liquor in any form, gets her hair done at a beauty parlor, or frequently visits dancehalls will give the director of nurses good reason to suspect her honesty and integrity.

Doctors faithfully and without fault for a period of five years, will be given an increase by the hospital administration of five cents per day providing that there are no hospital debts that are outstanding.

I CANNOT VOUCH for the authenticity of this set of regulations. It seemed puzzling that there would be reference to a beauty parlor in 1887, but then, women have always been women, and some such services must have been available to them.

Saving back $15 a month out of a $30 salary may have seemed steep, but on the other hand there were no deducts, so the pay check was a full thirty bucks. That's more than you can say for pay checks today.

AND AFTER all, if a hospital couldn't afford custodial help, who better could mop the floors, bring in the coal and trim the wicks?

Should we conclude by assuming that a hospital with that competent a staff would be charging, back in those days, say, a buck a day for a room? You betcha times have changed.

A Marshall Plan For Asia

WASHINGTON — It's costing 26 billion dollars a year to carry on the war in Vietnam. There's a better way to use the money. The funds could be applied constructively instead of destructively — and both Red China and North Vietnam also could benefit from the change from war to peace.

THE TIME HAS come for the United States government to propose a "Marshall Plan" for Asia that would transcend anything which has been suggested heretofore. Up to now, the proposals for aid outlined by President Johnson in his speeches have dealt with relatively small sums and only in general terms with the development of Southeast Asia. There has been no comprehensive program devised as yet to enlist the cooperation of the North Vietnamese and their allies.

WHAT IS NEEDED, first of all, is a pledge by the United States that, if the war is ended, the equivalent of a substantial part of the amount expended at present in the Vietnam war—possibly half—will be contributed to a general fund which would be used to reconstruct the whole of Vietnam under an independent government. To assure confidence in the sincerity and disinterestedness of the United States, the plan could be administered by an alliance of nations consisting primarily of the United States, Great Britain, Japan, Australia, the Soviet Union and representatives of the governments of Red China and Nationalist China.

SUCH A COMMISSION could disburse the money on the condition that North and South Vietnam would lay down their arms and concentrate on self-development, so that facilities for education, agriculture and industrial production, as well as the distribution of food to the poverty-stricken, would be provided and a start made toward the attainment of economic stability.

President Johnson, in a speech at Johns Hopkins University on April 7, 1965, said:

"For most of history men have hated and killed one another in battle. But we dream of an end to war. And we will try to make it so.

"FOR ALL EXISTENCE most men have lived in poverty, threatened by hunger. But we dream of a world where all are fed and charged with hope. And we will help to make it so.

"The ordinary men and women of North Vietnam and South Vietnam, of China and India, of Russia and America, are brave people. They are filled with the same proportion of hate and fear, of love and hope. Most of them do not want their sons to ever die in battle, or to see their homes, or the homes of others, destroyed.

"Well, this can be their world yet. Man now has the knowledge—always before denied—to make this planet serve the real needs of the people who live on it."

SINCE THE foregoing speech was made, Mr. Johnson helped to establish the Asian Development Bank in Manila, with Japan and 31 nations sharing the leadership in making low-cost loans for capital improvements throughout the area. The United States offered a billion-dollar contribution for the building of a system of dams in the Mekong Delta to provide electric power.

But no plan yet has penetrated the minds of the North Vietnamese. While comments occasionally have been made about reconstructing Asia, the idea has not been pursued through the channels of diplomacy as a prize to be won by the making of a peace agreement that would end the war in Vietnam.

THERE WILL NOT be peace until a far-reaching program of financial and economic help is formulated and all factions of the Vietnamese people join together behind the project. Billions of dollars now being spent on war, if put into such a plan, could some day achieve an enduring peace in Vietnam and the rest of Asia.

The Hating Game—Easy To Play

(Editor's Note: Before Art Buchwald came back to the United States, he used to play games. This was one of them.)

ROME — Traveling can become very boring, unless you invent some games to pass the time.

I was introduced to one by an English writer, Guy Elms, who lives in Rome. He claims the game was invented by Graham Greene at a sidewalk cafe on the Via Veneto. It's called "hating people."

Elms explained the idea of the game to me. "You play it in any public place — a sidewalk cafe, a railroad station, a train or at an air terminal, waiting for a plane.

"YOU SELECT one person from a crowd, someone you don't know, and you start to hate him."

"I don't understand," I said. "All right. We'll play a game now. Do you see that man over there? Let's hate him."

Elms pointed at a young man sitting several tables down, reading a newspaper.

"Look at him," Elms said. "The supercilious jerk. He doesn't read anything but the sports pages."

"He looks pretty innocent to me."

"HAH!" SAID ELMS. "He's a miserable wretch. Look at the way he's ogling the women. He's probably a sex maniac. I'll bet the police would like to get their hands on him."

"He does look like a bled sort," I said.

"Bad sort?" Elms said furiously. "He's a filthy rotter. Look at him scratch his ear. He hasn't taken a bath in weeks."

As I was studying him, an old lady came up to the table and joined the man. He kissed her on both cheeks.

"There!" said Elms. "That's his game. He's a gigolo."

"No," I said. "It looks more like she's his mother."

"MAYBE SO," he grunted, "but it's typical of him. He makes his mother meet him on the Via Veneto instead of going to her house. He's too important to visit her. She has to visit him."

I started getting angry, too. "A man should have more respect for his mother."

A man stopped by at the table to say hello. Elms became furious. "He doesn't even bother to introduce him to his mother. He's ashamed of her."

"AFTER ALL she did for him!" I said, slamming my glass on the table. "He's inviting the fellow to sit down. Can you imagine introducing your mother to a type like that?"

"No," I said, boiling. "I have a good mind to go over and poke him in the nose."

Elms suddenly relaxed and seemed to lose interest in the whole thing. He said to me quietly, "Forget it. It's only a game."

THE ARTS

Interesting Fall Programs Are Being Scheduled Here

By WINNIE UNGER

Stirrings among the cultural groups of the area — music aficionados, art fanciers, and others, hold promise of interesting fall programs under production. "Big Spring Art Association's" Sept. 19 installation dinner with speaker Preston Doyle, artist and director of the Saint-Laurant Gallery and School of Art, Midland, has interested some (reservations, at $1.75 per plate, may be had from Mrs. Don Bohannon, 105 Washington Blvd., before Sept. 10). Their plan to compile a traveling circuit of paintings for local elementary schools, however, is really dragging. Dr. and Mrs. Jack Burnett are the lone volunteers of works so far.

One of Rannels Junior High School's art instructors, Edward Hall, will return soon from a summer of graduate work in New York; but another, D. O. Duncan, departed recently for the commercial art field in Dallas.

Joseph Kirshbaum, conductor and musical director of the East Texas Symphony Orchestra, has announced the selections to be used for the 1968 statewide High School Piano Concerto Contest which is to be held in Tyler on March 9, 1968. Contestants may play either the first or last movement of any standard piano concerto by the following composers: Beethoven, Chopin, Grieg, Liszt, MacDowell, Mendelssohn, Mozart, Saint-Saens, and Schumann.

Winner of the contest will be the featured soloist with the symphony at its final concert next May 9, 1968. There are three cash prizes waiting for the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners. First, second and third prizes are $50, $30 and $20 respectively.

The contest is open to any junior or senior high school student in the state of Texas. Entry blanks and full particulars about the contest can be obtained by writing to P. C. Martinez, Business Manager, East Texas Symphony Association, P.O. Box 3323, Tyler, Texas, 75701.

September, according to Dale Stewart, business manager for the organizations.

Handling the auditions is the new conductor, Robert L. Mann, for the past year resident conductor of the Atlanta, Ga. Symphony.

Mann arrived in the Odessa-Midland area last week, to take over the position vacated by Dr. Lara Hoggard, who resigned early this summer.

All instrumentalists and singers interested in auditioning should contact the Midland-Odessa Symphony office.

The 10 concerts scheduled for this season are presented Monday nights in Odessa and Tuesday nights at Lee High School in Midland.

Oct. 23 in Odessa and Oct. 24 in Midland Madame Lili Kraus will appear with the orchestra playing Beethoven's Concerto No. 3 in C Minor for Piano and Orchestra, (Opus No. 37.) In addition the Symphony will do the Overture to "Iphigenia in Aulis," by Gluck and Symphony No. 1 in E Minor (opus No. 39) by Sibelius.

Dec. 4-5 will be a seasonal concert featuring the 80-voice chorale in Bernstein's "Chichester Psalms," to be sung in Hebrew, Verdi's "Te Deum," sung in Latin; and "Symphony of Psalms," by Stravinsky, also to be sung in Latin. The orchestra will be featured in "Variations on a Theme of Haydn" (opus No. 56a) by Brahms.

Jan. 29 in Odessa and Jan. 30 in Midland will headline guest star, violinist Charles Tregler. He will be accompanied by the orchestra in "Concerto No. 2 in G Minor for Violin and Orchestra," (opus No. 63) by Prokofiev. The orchestra will be featured in "Hebrides Overture" or "Fingal's Cave" by Mendelssohn; Shostakovich's "Symphony No. 5"; and "Adagio for Harp and Strings from Symphony No. 5," by Mahler.

March 18-19 will honor the winners of the National Young Artists Competition.

The final performance of the season will be the full orchestra and chorale with "Tod und Verklarung" (Death and Transfiguration) by Richard Strauss and Brahms' "Requiem" (opus No. 45). The orchestra will play "Coriolanus Overture" (opus No. 62) by Beethoven.

ABILENE — Tickets are now on sale, by mail only, for the 1967 Abilene Christian College homecoming musical, "The Unsinkable Molly Brown." All seats are $3 for the Nov. 8-11 production.

'SNOW WHITE AND 7 DWARFS' Ageless fantasy at drive-in

Snow White And Dwarfs Frolic On Jet Screen

If Walt Disney's cartoon feature, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," were to be produced today in the same meticulous manner of the original 1937 production, the two million dollar picture would cost in the neighborhood of 10 million.

The big difference, costwise, would be man hours. During the mid-1930's, Disney Studios had more than 750 animators, ink and painters, background artists, story and special effects men and skilled artisans. All of their talents were concentrated on the classic cartoon story about a beautiful princess who becomes the intended victim of a wicked queen, and enlists the help of seven lovable dwarfs.

Then, as now, a full-length cartoon feature required more than three years to produce. However, new techniques have eliminated much of the detail work, and key animators have become much more proficient with experience, requiring less men to accomplish the job.

Xerography, a magnetic process that transfers original drawings to celluloid, has done much to streamline production. Yet the big difference is the seasoned talents of the key animators, many of whom have worked for the Disney Studio for more than 30 years.

'WOMAN TIMES SEVEN' Shirley MacLaine in satire

Shirley MacLaine Stars In Satire

Shirley MacLaine brilliantly delineates the most challenging assignment of her film career with her top-starring role in the comedy satire, "Woman Times Seven," filmed in color and wide-screen, and which opens today at the Ritz Theatre.

When the Italian director called her and said he had been waiting 10 years to do "Woman Times Seven," but until then had not found the right actress to work with De Sica. In fact, Miss MacLaine had promised her she would do a picture for him anytime or anywhere.

The actress has five leading men, Alan Arkin, Rossano Brazzi, Michael Caine, Vittorio Gassman and Peter Sellers, for her co-stars in the picture.

The release, filmed in Paris, also features a supporting cast comprised of Anita Ekberg, Elsa Martinelli, Robert Morley, Lex Barker and Patrick Wymark.

"Woman Times Seven" is Miss MacLaine's second film following a two-year hiatus from movie making, during which time she journeyed to India in search of different values and answers to some questions that puzzled her. Her forthcoming book, entitled "Don't Fall off the Mountain," explains her search and explores her remarkable experiences.

Dean Martin Plays Heavy In Western At Ritz

Spine-tingling suspense climaxes the adventure story, "Rough Night in Jericho," in Technicolor starring Dean Martin, George Peppard and Jean Simmons. It opens Thursday at the Ritz Theatre.

Martin, in an abrupt change of pace for him, portrays an ex-lawman turned town boss who stops at nothing, even murder, to enforce his despotism. In imposing his one-man rule, he is thwarted by Jean Simmons, who, as the owner of a stage-coach line, has the only enterprise left for Martin to acquire to complete his economic strangulation.

In one dramatic sequence, Miss Simmons fights Martin off in a bitter hand-to-hand struggle and in another confrontation, he slaps her to the floor when she spurns his advances.

Against his better judgment, Peppard, a one-time deputy U.S. Marshal now turned professional gambler, decides to cast his lot with Miss Simmons.

Car Inspections Will Be More Strict In The Fall

If your car has anchors to new car inspection law. Most American cars made since 1962 have anchors as standard equipment. Inspection period starts Aug. 28.

In the past, inspection has involved only the brakes, lighting equipment, horn and warning devices, mirrors and windshield wipers. If all of these agencies were functioning the car was passed as safe by the inspector.

Now, the inspection has become broader. Not only have seat belts been added and required, the new inspection will include a check of steering, wheels and rims.

Steering will be tested to find out if it jams on full turns. The inspector also will check the fluid in the cars with power steering to see if it meets the recommended level. Wheels and rims will be inspected for bent rims, flanges, loose or missing bolts and nuts, cracks or any other defect which might impair proper inflation or operation.

Another change in the law raises the inspection fee from $1 to $1.75. If the vehicle passes or is rejected the fee remains $1.75, which the car owner pays. If the owner is instructed to make some repairs, install certain parts or have adjustments made, he may take the vehicle to any place of his choice to have the work done.

The owner then returns to the inspection station with the rejection slip which he had been given at the first visit. This must be done within one week of the time of the first check. The inspector needs to make inspection of only one item and the inspection sticker will be placed on his windshield at no additional cost.

It is pointed out that many motorists regard the fee is for the inspection sticker, which is not the case. The $1.75 is for the inspection and not for the sticker, the Department of Public Safety stresses.

Every motor vehicle, which is involved in any accident where at least $25 damage was caused to the vehicle, must be re-inspected after repairs have been made.

If this is not done, the vehicle cannot legally operate on the highways and roads of the state.

Deadline for inspection expires April 15, 1968, which means motorists have only 7 1/2 months in which to comply with the new inspection law.

The Department of Public Safety points out the purpose of the motor vehicle inspection law is to discover any defect in a car or truck which might be a link in the chain of events leading up to an accident. Removal of that link could avert a possible tragedy.

New Drivers License Rules Will Become Effective Soon

The Department of Public Safety is reminding Texans that Aug. 28 marks the effective date of several amendments to the drivers license law which are designed to benefit Texas motorists from the standpoint of providing added protection.

The law sets new minimum age limits for acquiring a license, provides for issuing a provisional license to any person under the age of 21, and increases the penalties for driving without a license and violations calling for automatic suspension.

It also sets penalties for counterfeiting or forging a license, or for possessing such a license.

The age limits were raised to a minimum of 16 years for obtaining a license when a person has satisfactorily completed an approved driver's education course, and to 18 years for persons who have not had such a course.

The minimum age for operating a five-horsepower motor scooter was raised to 15 years. A special examination will be required after Jan. 1 for applicants desiring a license to operate a motorcycle which includes an "off-street phase" and an "on-street phase." The applicant must provide the motorcycle and a passenger vehicle and licensed driver to convey the license examiner during the road test.

Licenses issued to persons under 21 years of age will be stamped "Provisional" and may be suspended if the operator is convicted of two traffic law violations in a 12 month period. This becomes effective Jan. 1.

Upon conviction of driving without a license, a motorist is subject to a fine of up to $200 for the first offense and increasingly stiffer penalties for each successive conviction.

Persons convicted of driving while intoxicated (or a similar offense) are subject to a first suspension of 12 months. Any subsequent suspension on the basis of this type of conviction will be for a period of 18 months. In addition, any driver whose license has been suspended or revoked may be required to attend a program of rehabilitation for problem drivers.

Any person applying for an original license must furnish the department with certified copy of the applicant's birth certificate or other documentary evidence deemed satisfactory by the department for proof of age. The department is also authorized to require any other information necessary to determine the applicant's identity, competency and eligibility for licensing. Thumb prints will be required on all original applications after Aug. 28.

Among other provisions designed to ban unsafe drivers from the highways is the requirement that the Department of Public Welfare furnish the DPS with a list of the persons who apply for or receive assistance to the needy blind. The license of such persons must be revoked to comply with the law.

Also, any person who is convicted of driving while his license is suspended or revoked shall be punished by a fine of not less than $25 nor more than $500, and shall be imprisoned not less than 72 hours nor more than six months.

Dear Abby A Sloppy Young Man

DEAR ABBY: My two children have the same father and mother, but they are as different as night and day. The girl is 17 and she is clean as gold. The boy is nearly 15, and he is dirty as a pig. He takes a bath in a pint of water for 30 seconds and dries himself with a wash rag.

I lay out clean underwear for him, and I find it where I left it. (He puts his dirty underwear back on.)

Now, Abby, a mother can't dress a boy who stands six feet tall and weighs 165 pounds.

What can I do with this sloppy kid? He's normal in every other respect, but he doesn't even smell clean.

OLD AT 39
DEAR OLD: Where is this kid's father? If he's handy, ask him to hose Junior down. Otherwise, just keep after him and pray that he's a late bloomer who's still in the "stinkweed" stage. When HE realizes that he's not nice to be next to - he'll get next to himself.

DEAR ABBY: I represent a large insurance company. During the last 10 years all the agents and their wives have taken turns entertaining the group in their homes for dinner parties, cookouts, Christmas parties, etc.

There is one couple who has accepted the hospitality of all the others, yet they have never had the group in their home for any kind of party. They

Registration Set

Seventh and eighth graders will register at 9 a.m., and 11th and 12th graders at 1 p.m. First graders will report to their rooms at 10 a.m. Classes will begin Aug. 28. Buses will be on regular schedule the first day of class, and the cafeteria will begin serving.

have talked about having a party, but it never materialized.

Shouldn't someone sit down with this couple and tell them that it's time they entertained because the group thinks they are "dead-beats"? Or should they just be excluded from our parties in the future?

PHOENIX
DEAR PHOENIX: I agree, it is bad manners to accept hospitality without returning it, but if this couple continues to be invited in spite of their failure to reciprocate, "the group" must enjoy their company. When one invites to his home is a personal matter. If YOU do not want this couple, don't invite them.

DEAR ABBY: My mother said that when I was a child I had too much "love" and I became spoiled.

I have read that psychiatrists say that a parent can't give a child too much love.

What do you think? SPOILED
DEAR SPOILED: I think your mother should first clarify her definition of "love" as she understands it. It is my opinion that one can become "spoiled" from an excess of material things, but not from "love."

DEAR ABBY: Whether this is true or not, I cannot say, but it has a message, so use it if you wish:

"Several worldly wise teenagers were chiding one of their group because of her virginal status. She took it good-naturedly for awhile, then quickly silenced them with this remark: 'Should I ever become dissatisfied with my status, I can change. How about you?'"

The Evolution of Pharmacy

By Bill R. Spain, R. Ph.

From the very earliest times man regarded water as having mystical healing powers both for body and soul.

A good example of this is the Sumerian name for "physician" composed of two signs suggesting the idea of "one who knows water" or "water expert."

As you know, the Nile, the Ganges, and the Jordan are still regarded as sacred waters.

It follows then that our baptismal rites today originated with the idea that water is the divine cleanser.

Our prime purpose is to afford you accurate compounding of prescriptions and fast reliable service at a price you can afford.
