Hangs Herself The End Of A Sadist

AICHACH, Germany (AP) — Ilse Koch, whose sadistic treatment of prisoners in a Nazi concentration camp earned her the title of "Bitch of Buchenwald," hanged herself Saturday in her prison cell here, prison officials announced. She was 60. Witnesses testified when she was tried for war crimes after the allied victory that she had tattooed prisoners killed in order to make lampshades of their skins, that she roamed the camp with whip in hand and used it frequently, that she set dogs on prisoners, that she wandered the camp naked to the waist and had prisoners punished for looking at her. Mrs. Koch had spent two decades in prison, first under a U.S. court sentence and since 1951 under a German life sentence. Officials at Aichach women's penitentiary expressed surprise at her suicide, saying she had not appeared depressed, nor her behavior unusual. They said she had been writing poetry and studying English in her cell.

A spokesman said she had torn her bed clothing to strips, knotted the strips into a cord with a noose and fastened it to a metal heating pipe running across her cell. She was found by a guard bringing her breakfast.

She had married SS Elite Guard Col. Carl Otto Koch in 1937, the year he became commandant at Buchenwald concentration camp. His treatment of prisoners there was so vicious that the Nazis arrested him in 1941 and put him to death after a trial.

When Mrs. Koch came to trial before an American court in 1947 one of the SS judges who tried Koch testified that treatment of prisoners at Buchenwald defied description.

Bible Fund Lagging

After several brisk days, the High School Bible Class Fund ran into a weekend lull Saturday with gifts aggregating $62. This left the fund at only $684 thus far.

Your help is needed urgently if Bible is to be made available as a credit course. Tax funds cannot be used for paying the instructor for this non-denominational study which examines the Bible for its ethical and moral as well as its historical and literary values. About 100 young people normally sign for this course which is supported largely by voluntary contributions. Please mail or send yours as soon as possible to The Herald, for time is short.

Reviewing the . . .

Big Spring Week

with Joe Pickle

Never in the history of Big Spring has there been the equal of the catastrophe which wiped out two families. It happened in the rugged mountains southeast of Mexico City where four members of the John Polone family died when their plane smashed into a mountainside. Somewhere in those mountains probably lay the bodies of the five members of the Howard Loyd family. Today, their airplane has been missing for a week. Odds against two planes crashing were astronomical, but death does not always play the odds.

Services were held here Saturday for John C. Polone and his wife, Jo, and their two children, Sonceia and David. Lost were Howard Loyd, his wife, Ida Bell, their sons, Don, Wayne and Darrell. What had been a happy vacation in Acapulco was reduced to the ashes of disaster.

Nor was this all the violent tragedy. Skipper Driver, popular young rancher and twice president of the American Junior Rodeo Association, was in a Midland hospital fighting for his life. He was welding a pipe on the family ranch in southwest Glasscock County when it exploded, blasting and burning him from the waist up.

The sleeping giant of our school system stirred itself from the summer slumber during the week.

State Counts Long List Of Violent Deaths

A spectacular upsurge of tragedies sent the Texas violent death list for the long Labor Day weekend spiraling Saturday.

A late count showed 33 deaths in a tabulation that began at 6 p.m. Friday. The total included 17 who died in traffic accidents, multi-death plane crashes, murders and other forms of violence made the total climb. The count will end at midnight Monday, which is Labor Day.

PLANE CRASHES

Four persons, some of them believed stationed at Ft. Wolters in Central Texas, died when their small private plane crashed 4 miles north of Youkum Saturday during a lightning storm and a mist. The wreckage was widely scattered but did not burn. One of the victims was a woman.

An Army helicopter from Ft. Hood in Central Texas crashed on the outskirts of San Antonio Saturday after it delivered a patient to Brooke Army Hospital. All four persons aboard the craft died, two of them thrown clear and the others burned in the wreckage.

THREE SLAIN

Officers, acting on a tip, found a couple and their daughter killed in their home in Cleveland in Southeast Texas Saturday. Killed by shotgun fire were Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Smith, both in their 60s, and their daughter, Mrs. Lula Pearl Tew, 18. Officers charged Mrs. Tew's estranged husband, Charles, with murder but he remained at large at a late hour. The Tew's boys, 2 and 3 years old, were taken from the Smith home but were found at a friend's.

A burglar at Houston killed little Richey Leona Jones, 8, critically stabbed her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Jones, and raped her mother Saturday. Police charged a neighbor, Phillip Ray Allen, 26, with murder, rape, burglary and with two counts of assault with intent to murder.

HIT BY CAR

Mrs. John Close, 25, her daughter, Cindy, 6, and Penelope Ann Close, 22, were killed Friday night when hit by a car as they walked across a busy street in Abilene near the Abilene Christian College campus. The mother and daughter resided in Abilene and the 22-year-old woman, a sister-in-law of Mrs. John Close, in Canada.

Mamie Carrell, 66, died Saturday when she was thrown from a motorcycle into the path of another car, which did not stop.

Smashups Mar The Holiday

CHICAGO (AP) — Multiple-death smashups Saturday boosted the total of Labor Day weekend traffic fatalities. The toll climbed to 189.

The National Safety Council estimated in advance that between 500 and 600 Americans may die in motor vehicle accidents during the holiday period that began at 6 p.m. (local time) Friday and will end at midnight Monday.

The Associated Press, to establish a basis for comparison with a nonholiday weekend of the same length of time, counted 533 deaths in the period between 6 p.m. Friday Aug. 18 and midnight Monday, Aug. 21.

The record traffic toll for a Labor Day weekend is 636, set last year.

Three separate accidents claimed 16 lives early Saturday.

Vietnamese Casting Vote On New Regime

80 Pct. Turnout Due At The Polls

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam's voters, capping a campaign marked by political controversy, Red terrorist attacks and finally discounted rumors of a coup attempt, elect a new government Sunday to supplant their military regime.

Chief of State Nguyen Van Thieu, a lieutenant general considered the front-runner among 11 candidates for president, said the election "will be the crowning achievement of this arduous process of democracy building."

About 80 per cent of the nation's 5.85 million eligibles—peasants, villagers and city dwellers—were expected to turn out to choose the president, vice president and a 60-member Senate.

Would Quit In Case Of Cloud

Thieu told newsmen that if he wins under a cloud of fraud charges and the National Assembly finds there are proved irregularities, "I will give up the office."

"The people and the country are most important," he said. Speculation about a possible coup attempt arose from the arrest Saturday of three military officers, including Col. Pham Van Lieu, a former head of the national police. Intelligence sources said Lieu was picked up on a charge of working for the election of a civilian presidential candidate, Assembly Speaker Phan Khanh Sui.

The chief of state denied there were any political implications. Thieu told newsmen the officers had left their posts and come to Saigon and "were arrested for disciplinary, not political reasons."

Two Newspapers Are Suspended

Though censorship of the domestic press was lifted last month to permit full coverage of the political campaign, the government ordered two Saigon Vietnamese-language newspapers suspended indefinitely on a charge of printing pro-Communist propaganda.

Premier Nguyen Cao Ky, Thieu's running mate, told the people in a pretaped television program that the military regime has brought stability to the country for two years.

"We can't forget that the Communists fear the election and real democracy," Ky said. "Now, with the quiet of night upon us, I hope that the people will elect a good leader with enough courage to bring victory to our beautiful homeland."

Communist guerrillas staged a series of election-eve attacks. Five terrorists, one carrying 29 pounds of TNT, were shot dead in a raid in which 14 homes were destroyed at Tam Ky, a provincial capital 320 miles northeast of Saigon.

Red Campaign Of Intimidation

U.S. sources said 190 civilians were killed by terrorists in the past week. They listed 426 civilians wounded and 237 kidnaped in the Red campaign to intimidate the voters.

A grenade exploded late Saturday night outside the Saigon residence of two American generals, the second time in 24 hours that a grenade had been tossed at the same house.

The voting was regarded as the first free election of national government officers in South

Vietnam's history, a step that could help bring more stability to the war-torn nation. Observers from at least 24 countries, including 22 Americans sent by President Johnson, and 600 newsmen were on hand to see how fair it was.

Thieu, 44, and Ky, 36, have ruled by decree since June, 1965. Their civilian opponents accused them in a bitter, month-long campaign of subverting and rigging the election to legitimize their regime. Thieu and Ky denied it.

May Have Impact On The War

The outcome of the election may have an impact on the course of the war. All but one of the presidential candidates, Pham Huy Co, called for attempts to meet with Hanoi to end the war.

Thieu promised that if elected he would ask the United States to stop bombing North Vietnam for a week or longer in an attempt to get North Vietnam to negotiate, but only if there was a sign that Hanoi might respond. He also promised a purge of the armed forces to weed out corrupt and incompetent officers.

Saigon and Washington views may differ about another pause in the bombing campaign over the north.

President Johnson, asked at a news conference Friday about reports that there might be some kind of a new peace move about the time of the Vietnamese election, said they "are off the top of someone's head."

"I know nothing about them," he said. "We look forward every day for every possibility that would lead toward peace, as I said yesterday. But I think that we do ourselves a great disservice when, out of the clear air, we conjure up something that has no basis in fact."

To U.S. officials, the election was another major step toward a constitutional government which could represent more of South Vietnam's 17 million people than the present regime. It generally was conceded that the military government enjoyed only limited support among the population.

A constitutional assembly was elected last September. It drafted a constitution and then wrote the laws for the presidential and Senate election and the election of a 137-man House of Representatives coming up Oct. 22.

Voters Sunday were presented a total of 59 ballots; 11 presidential and 48 18-man Senate tickets. They chose one presidential ballot and up to six Senate lists.

Each ballot had on it the symbol of the presidential or Senate slate. Much of the campaigning of the candidates has consisted of teaching the largely illiterate voters which symbols to look for.

Learning To Vote

An elderly South Vietnamese woman puts ballot into box during demonstration of voting procedure at Due Hue near the Cambodian border in South Vietnam. Vietnamese voters in the presidential elections are facing a complex process, choosing one slate from 11 for president and six of 48 ten-man slates for Senate. Government instructors have been holding demonstrations to show villagers how to vote. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Congress Taking Look At Tax Exemptions

WASHINGTON (AP) — A drive is on in Congress to tighten up exemptions and special provisions in the present tax laws to reduce—or even eliminate—the need for a general tax increase.

The going is rugged, against formidable obstacles. But at least some main targets are being identified. Two of the principal ones are the 27½ per cent oil depletion allowance, whose opponents have campaigned for years in vain, and the provision that allows capital gains to be inherited without tax.

LATER

President Johnson's administration says it is for tax reform—but later. Administration witnesses before the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee insisted that combining loophole-closing provisions with the proposed surcharge on income taxes would delay the legislation which they say is needed quickly to avert a budget crisis.

The drive to include tax changes so far has been conducted outside the Ways and Means Committee, which will decide the form of the bill—if any—on which the House votes yes or no.

NOT CONSIDERED

There has been no indication that the committee, whose hearings are in recess until Sept. 12, is considering tax code changes now. But some proponents of these are hoping that when the bill embodying the maximum objectives of the tax reformers. It would reduce the depletion allowance on oil from 27½ to 15 per cent. It would provide for capital gains taxes to apply at the time of a taxpayer's death to the added value his holdings had acquired, whereas present law relieves the heirs of this burden. It would end the tax exemption on interest on bonds issued by municipalities to finance industrial plants.

In any case, whatever the House passes will be open for amendment in the Senate.

Rep. Dominick V. Daniels, D-N.J., introduced last week a

US 87-South Widening On Program For 1968

A $407,000 highway improvement project has been programmed for 1968 immediately south of Big Spring.

J. C. Roberts, Abilene, district engineer for the Texas Highway Department, said Saturday that U.S. 87 would be widened from the FM 700 intersection south to Hearn Street, a distance of 17 miles.

The road will be made to accommodate four lanes of traffic and will involve widening structures as well as widening the fill immediately below the Cosden Lake dam. The section from FM 700 south to the first bridge (which spans the creek that carries the overflow from Cosden Lake) will have curb and gutter.

This is part of the state department's safety and betterment program, said Joe Smoot, resident engineer, District 8, which Roberts heads, received $1,640,000 under the program.

Over the entire state, 5,182 miles will be included in the program costing $39,800,000.

"This combined effort of betterment and safety extends and amplifies the Texas Highway Department's long-standing concern for the safety of those who travel on state-and-U.S.-numbered highways as well as farm to market roads," said Hal Woodward, chairman of the Texas highway commission.

$7.5 MILLION ADDITION WILL REPLACE COLORADO CITY PLANT

New Distillation Unit Planned By Cosden

Within a few days Cosden Oil and Chemical Company will let a contract for construction of a 47,000-barrel-per-day two-stage crude oil distillation unit at the Big Spring refinery.

This will replace the two-stage distillation unit at Colorado City and will result in eventual closing of the plant there. R. L. Tollett, president, said Saturday. The new facility in Big Spring is expected to be complete and on stream by Jan. 1, 1969. The Col-Tex plant at Colorado City will operate until that time.

The new unit, which will include equipment for propane deasphalting, will also replace a pair of two-stage crude oil distillation units in Big Spring. The 47,000-barrel capacity is 4,000 barrels a day more than the combined capacities of the present units in Big Spring and at Colorado City.

EMPLOYEE TRANSFERS

Cost of the replacement project will approximate seven and a half million dollars, Tollett estimated.

Of the 83 employees now at Colorado City, an estimated one-third will have reached retirement by time for deactivation of the plant. Around 40 to 50 others will be transferred to personnel at the annual barbecue there Friday evening, observing that he had always told them that if it became necessary to close that plant, he would give them more than a year's notice.

"The plant at Colorado City has become old, almost prohibitively high in the cost of maintenance, and inefficient in respect to the cost of fuel and of power," he said. "The economics of it dictate consolidation with operations at Big Spring for a more efficient operation."

STARTED IN 1924
The plant at Colorado City has been in operation since 1924, relying principally then on the output of the Westbrook field. Later it was connected with shallow fields in Scurry and eastern Howard County. After World War II, Col-Tex became a major supplier of asphalt.

Cosden contracted Sept. 17, 1956 to purchase the assets of Col-Tex for 352,000 shares of Cosden stock. The trade was valued at $7,500,000. Col-Tex then was grossing over $11 million dollars and realizing a net income of around half a million dollars. The refinery had a rated capacity of 8,000 barrels per day and the company had reserves of 1,452,000 barrels of oil. There were over 125 employees. Standard Oil of Texas owned 62½ per cent of the Col-Tex stock, and Anderson-Prichard, the operating concern, held the remaining 37½ per cent. Anderson-Prichard acquired the original 10-acre refinery site in Colorado City March 29, 1924, and had the plant on stream before the end of the year. The following year it acquired five additional acres from the West Texas Refining and Development Company.

Senate Chief Wanting New Peace Effort

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield hopes Sunday's presidential election in South Vietnam will be followed by new peace explorations—possibly including a pause in U.S. bombing of the Communist North.

"I would hope that no means which could shorten this war, save American lives and bring about an honorable settlement would be overlooked," Mansfield said, "and I'm certain that is the view of the administration as well."

SUSPEND RAIDS

The Montana Democrat said in an interview he has no indication that there will be a post-election suspension of U.S. air raids on North Vietnam. But Mansfield said he hopes such a move has not been ruled out of consideration within the administration.

President Johnson, questioned Friday about speculation on a bombing pause, replied: "We do ourselves a great disservice if we conjure up something out of clear air."

"I would hope that once the elections are over," Mansfield said, "that they would serve as a benchmark for the exploration of further ideas seeking to bring the Vietnamese war to an honorable conclusion."

TOO MUCH EMPHASIS

But Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J., accused Johnson of putting too much emphasis on the election. "I think it has been overdone by our administration here as a kind of be-all-end-all, which in turn has led to disappointment and therefore, criticism," Case said.

Case said the Vietnamese halting is "a useful step in a long process but not anything immediate" to produce a cease-fire or peace negotiations.

Case said the Johnson administration must persuade South Vietnam to undertake social and political reform—making clear that the United States will not continue the fight "unless they do the things that must be done."

Mansfield, who has urged that the United States seek to put the Vietnam war before the U.N. Security Council, said he does not know whether a halt to the bombing would be a prerequisite for action in that forum.

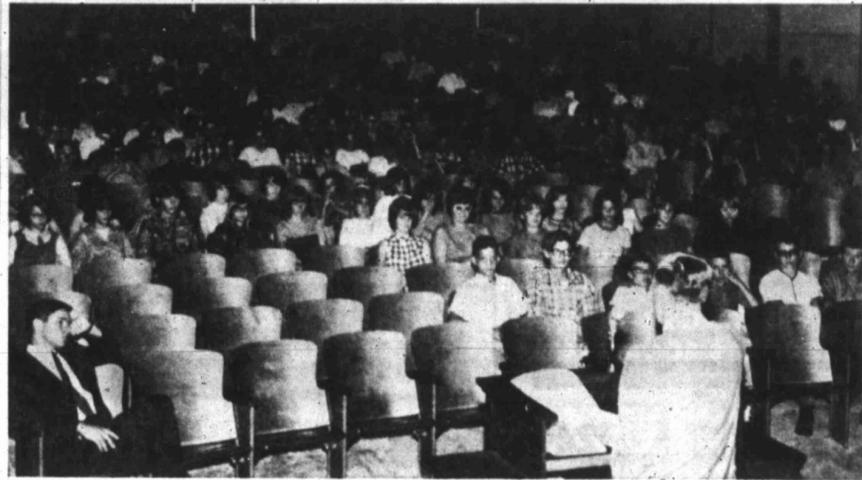

"The ball is in the President's hands," he said. "The initiative rests with him. What he decides to do will be his responsibility."

Raymond Neill Produces First Bale Of Season

It took a bit of scrambling and some extra help to do it, but Raymond Neill Friday turned out Howard County's first bale of cotton of the new season.

Neill obtained 2,020 pounds of seed cotton off two and a half acres of a 13 acre plot he farms just two miles east of town. The land has at least partial irrigation.

Neill and his crew were rushing to get the cotton picked before nightfall, and it looked as though they might not make it. So, Lindell Newton, manager of the Co-Op Gin, and a couple of

First Day For Freshmen.

Friday's orientation program for the four high school classes concluded in late afternoon as Harold Bentley, assistant principal, told freshmen what they could expect in classes and extra curricular activities. Floor plans of the 185,000 square feet added to the school in the past year—doubling its size—were passed out to familiarize students with various locations. Both the freshmen and sophomore classes are entering high school together Tuesday since Big Spring is operating for the first time on a four-year high school basis.

LOCAL MEN RETURNING

Hope Fades For Recovery Of Missing Loyd Airplane

Hope faded faster Saturday for any chance of immediate recovery of the missing plane of Howard Loyd and his family, now unreported a week in Mexico.

Associated Press dispatches Saturday said a group of 26 airplanes wove through the volcanic ash and snow-covered mountains near Mexico City Friday, but still found no trace of the Texas plane with its five occupants.

Thunderstorms cut short the search, which was hampered by fresh snow on the Ixtaccubull and Popocatepetel peaks, focal point of the search.

Loyd was supposedly piloting the plane, with his wife and three children aboard. The family was flying back to Mexico City from Acapulco with a companion craft carrying the John C. Polone family. That plane, bearing the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Polone and their two children was found last Sunday, smashed into a peak.

The Loyd plane was believed to have met disaster in the same general area. Searchers said an aircraft could have smashed into many of the ash-covered mountain peaks and burned without making a significant change in the terrain.

It was announced here that R. E. McClure, who works with Loyd at Big Spring Aircraft and as operator of the Howard County airport, and Bruce Frazier would return home today or Monday. They had not been able to achieve any success in their search efforts.

Winston Winkle, proprietor of Radio Station KBST, said that some $390 had been subscribed to help defray the two local men's expenses. He said any money that was not required by them would be put into a fund as a reward for villagers in the mountain area, so that they might be spurred to continue the search.

Services for the Polone family were held Saturday morning at the College Baptist Church with the Rev. Wayne Dittloff, former St. Paul Lutheran pastor here, officiating. Graveside rites will be held today at 2 p.m. in the Monroe Cemetery at Poteau, Okla. Local arrangements were under direction of River-Welch Funeral Home.

The Polone family had made their home at 2005 Morrison since 1957. They were affiliated with the St. Paul Lutheran Church.

College Offering Technical Courses

Howard County Junior College will make its entry into the technical as well as the vocational training field with the start of the fall semester a week hence.

Dr. Marshall Box, named recently to head the new division of the college, said that course offerings were fixed and instructors secured.

The first four programs in technology are data processing, drafting and design, welding and electrical.

HJC has had vocational offerings in all or some phases of these, but the new programs go much further in the theory and underlying principles of the fields. The vocational courses will be continued, also.

TO GET COMPUTER

Dallas Nash will instruct in data processing, and he will have, by Dec. 20, a 1040 Computer which the college is obtaining through the state. Norman Backs will teach drafting and design, while Al Long will instruct welding technology. Dr. Box will, for the time being, teach the electrical technology course.

"We are aiming at making technicians who will be equipped to take their place in industry and business," said Dr. Box. "For example, in data processing we will be seeking to finish with individuals who are equipped to be programmers rather than key punch or machine operators."

Dr. Box said he was under no illusions that all who enter will emerge two years later with an Associate of Arts degree and thus certified as technicians in their fields. The stiff course is so arranged, however, that students can find their own level of competence. Although many may not complete the full course, they will have acquired vocational skills. The courses are not intended for transfer in higher academic degrees, but many of the required basic courses will.

ANOTHER COURSE

Mid-management will be added possibly as early as mid-term, according to Dr. W. A. Hunt, college president. Approval of this came so late that it would have been impractical to obtain an instructor for this now, he added.

Included in the technical-vocational division under Dr. Box are the licensed vocational nurses course, a 12 months program; also industrial welding. There will be community service courses, such as planned for Cabot Carbon personnel, plus those in adult education. The Manpower Development Act classes in auto mechanics and auto body repair also are grouped in this division.

UTILIZE ONE BUILDING

The entire Practical Arts building (with exception of space for the agriculture courses) will be used for the technical-vocational program. A number of associated courses will be held at other points on the campus.

Dr. Hunt said that space could become a problem. However, the college is seeking a new building to house the division, and recently the Dora Roberts Foundation announced a $200,000 grant toward this.

Storm Heads Northward, Threat Fades

MIAMI (AP) — Tropical storm Arlene, far at sea and posing no threat to the United States, headed northward Saturday. There was no indication it would become a hurricane.

The National Hurricane Center reported Arlene was 825 miles south-southwest of Newfoundland. Its position was nearly 1,200 miles east of Cape Hatteras, N. C.

The hurricane center reported also that a weak tropical depression was developing near the Cape Verde Islands, off Africa. It was south of there that Arlene's first puffs were observed last Sunday. The disturbance was reported moving westward.

The center reported above normal shower activity in the area of the Windward Islands in the southeast part of the West Indies. But it said "data show no circulation features at this time."

Arlene's highest winds were estimated at 60 miles per hour. "no change in intensity is indicated," the center said. Hurricane force winds start at 74 miles per hour.

"Arlene offers no threat to the United States," the center added.

The storm, traveling at 18 miles per hour, was expected to increase its forward speed and turn towards the northeast.

Its position at 12 noon (EDT) was latitude 35.0 north and longitude 57.6 west.

Mosquito Fogging Being Increased

Light rains and cooler weather during the last week have increased mosquito control problems with the city. Ernest Lillard, public works director, said Saturday mosquito fogging machines will be run at full strength beginning Tuesday. Areas of the city have been sprayed during the past week, although the machines were not used on a full-time basis.

Sgt. Robinson Leaving Webb

S. Sgt. Mack E. Robinson will leave Webb Sept. 1 for his new duty station at Ent AFB, Colo. A life support specialist, he has cared for, demonstrated, inspected and lectured about the life support gear and survival equipment of the 4760th Combat Crew Training Squadron.

He has been responsible for which keeps pilots aware of life support and survival methods during the three-year periods between their trips to the formal school at Tyndall AFB, Fla.

Sgt. Robinson performed numerous duties at Webb. He was small arms NCO for his squadron, assistant to the squadron information officer, lecturer for the physiological training unit and he gave assistance to base air rescue.

The sergeant's outside activities have included being outdoors committee man for Boy Scout Troop 146 and serving on the base pistol team.

He came to Webb in 1965 from four years at Richards Gebaur AFB, Kan. His assignments over 17 years of service have taken him to 29 countries and 45 of the states. His home is Emporia, Kan. The sergeant is a graduate of Kansas State Teachers' College in Emporia, where he earned a B.S. degree in business with a minor in psychology. His family consists of wife, Jean, and children, Michael, 12, Megan, 11, and Melissa, 5.

Labor Planning Celebration In Odessa

Plans for a Labor Day celebration in Odessa's Floyd Gwin Park were announced Saturday by D. L. Willis, president of the Odessa Central Labor Union, AFL-CIO.

Scheduled to speak at the event are state senator Charles Wilson, Diboll; Tom Webb, San Angelo, president of the Trial Lawyers Association; Marvin E. Whitfield, Amarillo, representative of the International Brotherhood Electrical Workers Union; Harry Hubbard, legislative director of the Texas AFL-CIO and member of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union.

Willis said the celebration will start at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon with the pledge to the flag by Odessa's Boy Scout Troop 487, sponsored by the IUOE Local 279. Also on the program are a barbecue, games for the children and music furnished by the Rhythm Folks and Gatlin Trio.

Hensley Sells Dallas Banks

J. R. (Bill) Hensley, who with Mrs. Hensley is visiting here over the weekend, announced that he has sold his controlling interest in three banks in the Dallas metropolitan area — and, right now, I'm out of the banking business."

Mr. and Mrs. Hensley and daughter, Kandy, plan to leave the first of the week on a two-month European tour. They will visit all the Continent and the Scandinavian countries.

The Hensleys resided here from 1957 to 1962, when he was president and controlling officer of the First National Bank. He disposed of his interests here, moved to Paris, Tex., and subsequently to Dallas.

In recent years, Hensley has had controlling interest in the Hillside National Bank, Dallas; White Rock National, Dallas; and Dallas County State Bank at Carrollton. The three have assets of around $24 million.

Pension Escalation Made Issue In Reuther Demands

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther put the Big Three automakers on notice Saturday that there will be no agreement on a new contract unless it includes higher pensions and an escalation of pension payments to the cost of living.

Reuther said both future retirees and those already on pensions must be included, and he rejected as inadequate offers by Ford, General Motors and Chrysler to increase by $1 the basic pension rate for future retirees only.

The union chief emerged from a Saturday negotiating session with Ford Motor Co., which is the union target for a contract or strike by Wednesday night, and said little progress had been achieved. Malcolm L. Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, agreed.

PATTERN

They said there likely will be bargaining meetings Sunday and Monday—Labor Day—as the union drives for a settlement at Ford that would be the pattern for the industry. Four days remain before current contracts expire.

Talks at General Motors and Chrysler were recessed Saturday until Tuesday.

Since 1948, wages have been tied to the government's Cost of Living Index and move a penny an hour for each 4 change in the index each three months. If the index falls, wages drop. If it shows an increase, wages rise.

Since current contracts were negotiated three years ago, wages have increased 18 cents per hour because of increases in the index.

The pension escalator likewise would go up or down, Reuther said.

"It makes sense to protect workers on the payroll on full pay against erosion caused by an increase in the cost of living," Reuther said, "it makes a great deal more sense to protect the retiree."

Ford has 27,000 on its pension rolls and its pension fund stood at $553 million last Dec. 31. Before Reuther raised the issue of tying pensions to the cost of living, the union had made win-or-lose demands for a substantial wage increase for all, something additional for skilled workers, guaranteed annual income and equal pay for its Canadian and American workers.

Commits Suicide

Isse Koch, known as "the Blitch of Buchenwald," hanged herself in her cell at the Bavarian women's prison at Aichach, West Germany, Saturday, according to a prison official.

Mrs. Koch, 60, had spent 20 years in prison, first under a U.S. war crimes sentence and since 1951 under a German life sentence for instigation of murder and cruelty to concentration camp inmates. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Showers Dot The County

Light rainfall reported Saturday in Howard County ranged from 6 inch at Moss Creek to .17 inch at the Texas Electric Service Company switching station east of town. Big Spring residents reported .35 inch on Purdue Street.

Showers were reported in the northeastern part of the county at Luther and Lake Thomas. In the northwest section, Knott recorded 25 inch and Ackery and Vealmoor, 4 inch. Lomax registered 5 inch in the southwestern part. No reports were available from Chalk and Forsan in the southeast. The Wilkinson ranch reported .5 inch in the west, while Coahoma residents said 4 inch fell in the east.

Colorado City recorded 65 inch, higher than any reported in Howard County.

Copter Crash Fatal To Four

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — An Army helicopter which had rushed an automobile wreck victim to a hospital crashed in a rainstorm Saturday morning, killing all four men aboard.

One of the victims was identified as Warrant Officer James G. Warren, 24, of Gadsden, Ala., an Army pilot stationed at Ft. Hood.

The names of the other three victims were withheld pending notification of next-of-kin.

The crash happened just after the helicopter began a return trip after taking Spec. 4 John Bunilla Martinez Jr., 22, of Sierra Lima, Puerto Rico, to Brooke General Hospital at San Antonio. Martinez had suffered a skull fracture in an automobile accident at Ft. Hood.

Hong Kong Barred To All Refugees

HONG KONG (AP) — The British began rolling out a coiled barbed-wire fence along 10 miles of its border with Red China Saturday as a safeguard against the possibility of a flood of refugees from Red China's Kwangtung province where bloody fighting has been reported.

British colonial leaders expressed fear that a heavy influx of refugees, untrained and unskilled, could swamp Hong Kong's economy.

Various reports from inside Red China say a sharp struggle continues in Canton, about 60 miles northeast of Hong Kong's border, between supporters of Communist party Chairman Mao Tse-tung and his opponents.

Four Dead In Plane Crash

YOAKUM, Tex. (AP) — Four persons—three men and a woman—died early Saturday when a small private plane crashed 2 miles north of Yoakum in South Texas.

The military withheld names of victims. The men were stationed at Ft. Wolters. The woman was the wife of one.

Cops Jail Nine, Loot Is Traced

DALLAS (AP) — Nine persons remained in custody Saturday as police prepared to file additional charges regarding a series of Waco burglaries.

Dallas police arrested three persons Thursday after they tried to sell stolen jewelry at a discount house. Information gleaned from the three led to the arrests of six others, officers said, and the break-up of a burglary ring.

Rain-Slick Roads Contribute To Accidents

Rainy weather and increased traffic during the Labor Day weekend were factors Friday and Saturday as six minor accidents were reported on rain-slick roads. Airman 2.C. Jack Lacy, WAFB, received cuts and scratches Friday when his car collided with a utility pole in the 1500 block of East Third. Lacy is in good condition at Webb Hospital.

Mishap Is Fatal

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — Ernest Earl Pritchard, 71, died Friday after his car slammed into a truck on a city street Thursday.

Forest Fires Blown Along By High Winds

A vast army of men waged losing warfare in guerrilla and frontal assaults Saturday against forest fires throughout the Pacific Northwest—hoping fickle winds that whipped up infernos Saturday would calm and bring friendly rains Sunday.

The battle centered in the North Idaho Panhandle, where winds gusting to 50 miles per hour Friday night blew one fire into what U.S. Forest Service officials described as "a spectacular run" of 23 miles. It threatened the Kootenai River town of Bonners Ferry and residents were alerted for possible evacuation.

This fire, known as Sundance Mountain, expanded in less than 24 hours from a few thousand to 78,000 acres—the largest blaze on the continent.

About 25 miles to the north the Trapper Peak fire near the Canadian border also went wild before the wind, temporarily trapping 100 men at a heliport, stranding others in remote areas, and burning up a subcamp.

All men were believed safe, but one official said "if we can just keep people from getting killed in this, thank God for that."

While trucks stood by for possible evacuation of rural residents in the Bonners Ferry area, there was no general exodus, but the toll continued to mount. Three men were injured when a helicopter crashed Saturday near Bonners Ferry.

Three Found Slain In Home

CLEVELAND, Tex. (AP) — Officers, acting on a query, found three persons slain in their home in this Southeast Texas town Saturday.

Charges of murder were filed against Charles Tew, husband of one of the victims.

He had not been found at a late hour.

Killed were Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Smith, in their 60s, and Mrs. Lula Pearl Tew, 18, separated wife of the man charged.

The Smiths died of shotgun wounds and Mrs. Tew was strangled, said Deputy Sheriff W. M. Perkins.

The Tew's sons, 2 and 3 years old, were taken from their home but later left with friends in Tyler, deputy Sheriff Ed Jenkins of Tyler said.

Deputies said the charged man's mother, Mrs. Lester Tew of near Tyler, said her son telephoned her saying he was taking the boys but would leave them with friends. She then called the sheriff's office for information as to what had happened, setting off the search in Cleveland which resulted in finding the bodies.

Military Action Slackens In Viet

SAIGON (AP) — Conventional military action of the Vietnam war slackened off sharply in advance of the national election Sunday. The U.S. Command said "contact was reported as light" in all Saturday's field operations.

U.S. B52 bombers again pounded Communist targets inside the demilitarized zone. They hit twice at areas where the North Vietnamese are believed building up for a new offensive thrust into Quang Tri, South Vietnam's northernmost province.

Unfavorable flying weather Friday cut American air strikes. Most of these centered on communications, gun positions and storage areas in the southern panhandle, through which men and supplies funnel to the demilitarized zone.

In a periodic report on air losses, the U.S. Command disclosed 2,632 American aircraft have been destroyed in combat, accidents and other causes. Of these the North Vietnamese have shot down 670 planes and eight helicopters; the Communists in the South have downed 202 planes and 368 helicopters.

Despite the lull in conventional warfare in this unconventional war, the Viet Cong made up for it in terror attacks, sabotage and raids aimed at disrupting the election.

Guerrilla raiders killed four South Vietnamese and burned 14 homes in Tam Ky, capital of Quang Tin province in the politically sensitive northern area. Five of the guerrillas were slain, including one found to be carrying 20 pounds of TNT. Tam Ky was the fifth provincial capital to be hit this week by Red raids.

U.S. officials announced that the Communists, who make much of claims of North Vietnamese civilian casualties from American air raids, killed 190 South Vietnamese civilians, wounded 436 and kidnaped 237 in the last six days. In the preceding week the totals had been 60 killed, 87 wounded and 61 kidnaped.

Flood Crests In Rio Grande

MERCEDES, Tex. (AP) — The rain swollen Rio Grande apparently crested south of Mercedes Saturday, according to a U.S. Customs officer stationed at the Progreso International Bridge.

The officer said he could tell by looking at the river bank that the Rio Grande had dropped Saturday for the first time in over a week. The river had been expected to crest in the Mercedes-Progreso area at 20.5 feet, six inches below flood stage, Saturday or Sunday.

The river, swollen after 10 days of rain and the overflow from the flooding San Juan River, is expected to crest at Brownsville and Matamoros at 16 to 17 feet late Monday or Tuesday. Flood stage for the two cities is 18 feet. Brownsville is protected by a levee and Matamoros uses a diversion canal for flood protection.

A spokesman for the International Boundary and Water Commission said the river flow at Rio Grande City, not far from where the San Juan River pours into the Rio Grande, dropped to 15,000 cubic feet per second Saturday. The river flow had crested at Rio Grande City Tuesday at 30,000 cubic feet per second and had dropped to 23,500 cubic feet per second Friday.

Heavy Rains In Parts Of Texas

Heavy rains brought life to Texas croplands in widespread areas Saturday. The showers also had a part in two plane crashes that claimed eight lives.

Rains were heavy in South Texas, moderate in areas of West Texas. Austin had .99 inches in the 24 hours ended at 7 p.m. Saturday, while San Angelo had .71, Midland .82 and Abilene .20. Alpine in the Big Bend country also recorded .20 in a thundershower.

Rain continued, mainly in South Texas, during the evening.

DEATHS

Robert M. Gillihan, 89, Long-Time Resident

Robert M. Gillihan, resident of Howard County for almost 40 years, died Saturday afternoon in a local rest home. Mr. Gillihan, 89, had been in ill health for several years.

Funeral will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the River-Welch Chapel, with the Rev. Dan Sanford, pastor of the Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, officiating. Interment will be in Trinity Memorial Park. Mr. Gillihan's grandsons will serve as pallbearers.

Mr. Gillihan was born Feb. 27, 1877, in Chestnut Mound, Tenn. He was married Jan. 13, 1895, moving to Texas in 1905 and Howard County in 1929. His wife preceded him in death Dec. 1, 1960, as did one of his five sons.

Survivors include four sons, Doyle Gillihan and Rayford Gillihan, Big Spring, Carl Gillihan, Andrews, and Redge Gillihan, Teague; five daughters, Mrs. C. A. Key, Vealmoor, Mrs. Harrison Durham, Levelland, Mrs. Lester Williams, Kosse, Mrs. Ralph Rhodes, Snyder, Mrs. Jess Johnson, Big Spring; one brother, Herman Gillihan, Monterey, Tenn.; 27 grandchildren, 54 great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Attend Services For Mother

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Haygood, Andrews highway, returned today from Seagraves where they attended the funeral Friday for her mother, Mrs. Emma Berry, 85.

Mrs. Berry, who fell three days after her birthday a month ago and fractured her hip, died Thursday at 1 a.m. in the Methodist Hospital at Lubbock. Rites were conducted at the First Baptist Church in Seagraves by the Rev. Gordon Smith.

She was the widow of O. L. Berry, who died in 1947 and to whom she had been wed in 1901.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Haygood, Big Spring, Mrs. Dorothy Overton, Alamogordo, N.M., and Mrs. George McKinney, Andrews; seven sons, Tom, Lubbock, Dudley, Slaton, Ed, Seagraves, Norman, Waco, Lonnie, Denver City, Pete, Roswell, N.M., and Garland, Lovington, N.M.

THE WEEK

and buildings hummed Friday as students reported for schedules. There will be well over 7,000 on hand Tuesday morning when school starts. Coahoma has over 900 enrolled, too, and Forsan around 440. The peak may not come for a couple of months yet.

The annual Bible Class fund appeal got off the ground last week and drew encouraging response. We need to average close to a thousand dollars a week for the three-week effort, and the first one fell a little short of that pace. Thus, we can't afford a blip Monday, and you can help avoid this by mailing your gift today or leaving it at The Herald Monday morning.

The late Dr. Thomas Taylor, venerable president of Howard Payne College, often observed that the great American problem was the parking problem. The schools would support him, for last week at the suggestion of school administrators, all parking was banned on Eleventh Place between Donley and Goliad, on Tenth between Goliad and State, on Owens, from 10th to the YMCA, the east side of Goliad from Eleventh Place to 10th and west side of State from 10th to Eleventh Place. Previously, the traffic commission had approved a HCJC request to ban parking on the east side of Birdwell Lane near the new science building and on Eleventh Place near the men's dorm. All of this is for safety, however, rather than for space.

Young Robert Crenshaw is getting so many saddles he doesn't know what to do with them. Last week he won an event and then the all-around cowboy title of the American Junior Rodeo Association, 14-15 age division. These two saddles went with one earned last year. They're specially tooled so he can't sell them. Maybe he'll have to go in the horse business.

Another week of opportunity for rain frittered itself away with nothing more than sprinkles and occasional drizzle. The continued display of autumn-like weather, however, did bring minimums in the low 60's. While crops didn't deteriorate much in this cool, neither did they grow.

Football fever is beginning to infect local fans. An unexpectedly large crowd turned out for the Quarterback Club barbecue honoring the Steer squad. Friday night they were back for a scrimmage with Sweetwater, and they liked the fundamental soundness and enthusiasm of the squads. It should be an exciting season, which opens Friday.

Raymond Neill, producer of Howard County's first bale of cotton, got $500 this year instead of $300. The producer of the second bale will get nothing instead of $200. The Chamber of Commerce agriculture committee decided that all the eggs should be put in one basket on this old custom.

Youth volunteers at the VA Hospital were honored—45 of them—in special ceremonies during the week. Annie Hierman and Jo Sturdivant set the pace with awards for over 500 hours of volunteer service. How's this for warm-hearted use of summer leisure time?

CASEY'S HARDWARE OPENS MONDAY
Mickey Casey stands amidst 7,000 item stock

Casey Hardware Store Plans Big Grand Opening

Big Spring's newest hardware store, Casey Hardware, 214 E. 3rd, will celebrate a grand opening Monday, from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Big Spring residents will be officially welcomed to look over nearly 7,000 items displayed while the younger set is invited to inspect the hundreds of items in the toy department.
Monday will also kick off a three-day registration period for 39 door prizes, owner Mickey M. Casey said.
"There will be something given from nearly every department," Casey said, "Thursday at 9:30 a.m.
"Our store plans to specialize in customer service," Casey said on behalf of his eight employees. "We plan to offer major brand names along with a revolving credit plan."
"Casey Hardware is the only hardware store in Big Spring which is associated with ACE Hardware Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Sunday, Sept. 3, 1967 7-A of sporting goods, from guns to fishing line.

"We also have 23 different varieties of light fixtures in our household department," he continued.
A graduate of Big Spring High School in 1947, Casey went on to attend H.C.J. and Abilene Christian College. He has had several business ventures before establishing the Casey Hardware. After attending college, Casey went to work as the assistant manager for White's Auto Store.
In 1955 Casey became associated with the Casey Packing Co. with his brother Billy. Later this developed into a Cattle Feeding business in 1965, with the development of the Casey Cattle Co.
Casey and his wife, Patricia, have two daughters, Katherine, 5, and Karlee, 2.

Cupid Was Busy Flier In August

Cupid had a good month in August.
The records of Mrs. Pauline Petty, Howard County clerk, show there were 55 marriage licenses issued during the month—which is a good showing for August.
Mrs. Petty said that otherwise, August was not as busy as July. The total fees collected for the month by the office were $2,532.

Milk Price Increase Said 'Here To Stay'

DALLAS (AP)—A spokesman for the Texas dairy industry said Friday an announced price rise for wholesale milk that could mean a four cent increase on a half-gallon at the grocery store is here to stay.

"This is not a seasonal price," said Bob Lilly, sales director of the North Texas Producers Association. "I mean this is just a price that will encourage dairymen to stay with us and continue to produce milk."

The NTPA announced Thursday that milk sold on the North Texas market will be 50 cents per hundred pounds above the federal milk marketing order minimum, bringing it up to $6.87 per hundredweight.

Lewis Torrance, general manager of the Borden Co., said his prices probably will go up 3 cents to 4 cents a half-gallon or 6 cents to 8 cents a gallon, sometime next week when the full effect of the increase is felt.

"We do not have a new price list cut yet because we didn't have much notice on this," Torrance explained. He said that he first heard of the increase by telegram early Thursday morning. It was effective Friday.

Two Plan To Plead Guilty

Meanwhile, George Clarke, executive vice-president of the Texas Dairy Institute, said that milk processors and distributors were "totally unaware" that the price hike was coming. He said it will have to be passed along to the consumer.

"No doubt the short supply of milk in some markets and the need for a fair return to the farmer for his milk justifies this sudden price jump," Clarke said.

"But milk processors and distributors can no longer absorb the price increase to the dairy farmer," he added. "We have had to absorb too many increases already. Texas milk plants are at the breaking point today."

The increase will affect milk prices throughout the NTPA area, which includes Dallas, Fort Worth, Aarillo and Wichita Falls.

Dairy farmers have been complaining for a long time that they were not getting fair returns for the expenses. Last spring the producers association raised its prices after the Federal Milk Marketing Administration lowered its minimum prices because of high spring production.

Young Negroes Are Beaten At Football Game

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—South Carolina's State Law Enforcement Division will help investigate a melee during which several Negro children were beaten by a group of 150 whites at a high school football game, Gov. Robert McNair said Friday.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has demanded a "swift and thorough" investigation of the Thursday night incident.

NAACP state officials also have asked U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark to aid in the investigation.

They said several children, including "some as young as 6 years old," were beaten when they and a few adults showed up for a football game at predominantly white Harleyville-Ridgeville High School. They added in a telegram to McNair and Clark that "grown white men...smashed car windows and ransacked Negroes' cars."

Dorchester County Sheriff Carl Knight said "some confusion developed" when about 16 Negroes, adults and children, walked toward their cars at the end of the game.

"It turned into a real riot, that's the only way to describe it. There must have been at least 150 people fighting," Knight said.

"I had seven men there but that's not much when you've got 150 people swinging. I don't know who they were. As soon as we would grab one, somebody else was on us."

No one was arrested.

Volunteer Orientation Program Set Thursday

Big Spring State Hospital will hold its annual volunteer orientation program Thursday, according to Mary Cochran, volunteer director.

"This year's program will differ from the others as we are in process of setting up a circuit rider program of volunteer work," she said.

"We hope to have many of the circuit rider volunteers as well as the county coordinators join us in the orientation," she continued. "Our first circuit rider volunteer, Mrs. Jewel Richer of Colorado City, will probably join us, along with her 90-year-old mother."

"During the orientation we will use 'role-playing.' This involves volunteers and nurses acting out actual situations which can arise while working with the mentally ill," said Mrs. Cochran. "This is a new and dramatic way to teach volunteers."

Each of the circuit rider volunteers will display a double-pouch saddle bag, which will serve as a carry-all for the various items they will use while working with the patients.

When the circuit rider program swings into full operation after the September orientation, each county will have a specific day of the week for its volunteer service, according to Mrs. Cochran.

The coordinated program together with the transportation will encourage volunteers who have not been available before, according to Mrs. Bennett. It is her hope that county coordinators will be able to recruit volunteers from areas that are not easily canvassed by the volunteer office in Big Spring.

"Before this time the major deterrents against these county volunteers have been lack of transportation and timely en-agement. Now we hope this project, which has not been conducted by another agency in this area, will solve these problems," Mrs. Cochran said.

Retirement Is Brief, Dr. Hardy Joins BSSH

Dr. W. B. Hardy, pioneer dentist, probably had one of the shortest "retirement" on record.

On Thursday afternoon he closed the doors to his dental office in the Permian building, winding up 40 years of private practice in Big Spring.

Friday morning he walked into another dental office and began a new career — that of a resident dentist for the Big Spring State Hospital.

Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent of the state hospital, announced the appointment of Dr. Hardy as dentist at the big hospital.

Dr. Harrison said he was elated that Dr. Hardy had agreed to join the hospital staff. He cited the many years experience the Big Spring dentist has had in his profession, plus his extensive studies, and pointed out that it is not common for a state institution to obtain the services of so well qualified a man for the hospital dentist.

Dr. Hardy will replace Dr. Ralph Lydick, who resigned from the hospital staff on July 1. The hospital has a completely equipped dental clinic.

TRAFFIC CHANGED

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Sweden goes hoeger, a switch from left to right (hoeger) side driving Sunday, but the changeover already has killed a bicyclist practicing the new system against the flow of traffic.

Despite massive indoctrination programs and 7,000 policemen on the roads, officials feared instincts two centuries old would take more lives once cars begin shooting from unaccustomed directions. The 62-year-old bicyclist was hit by a car whose driver tried to tell him he was on the wrong side.

Sweden has been driving on the left since the 18th century when warrior King Charles XII ordered horses and oxen to move over.

The Swedes change back at 5 a.m. Sunday. Cars on the road then will have to move to the right and keep going to the right. By 3 p.m., all the nation's vehicles will have joined them by geographical stages.

Between 1 a.m. and 5 a.m. almost all traffic will be shunted off the roads to allow traffic crews to unmask 290,000 signs. About 29,000 people have been hired to do the job.

Stockholm was thrown into conditions resembling the years of World War II at 10 a.m. today as all except specially authorized vehicles were ordered off the roadways. Bicyclists and strollers took over the quiet streets.

Posters have gone up urging Swedes to "take right hand traffic with a smile" and slogans painted at crossings admonish: "Look right, look left."

But a $7-million public relations program to make the switch palatable has not entirely succeeded. A nationwide survey showed 53 per cent of those questioned opposed it.

The changeover, costing a total of $120 million, is being made because of a climbing accident rate, and the problems encountered by foreigners driving here and Swedes abroad.

Buff Mentor Pleased With Overall Effort

ROPEVILLE — The Forsan Buffaloes clashed with the local high school team here Friday in a pre-season scrimmage. The visitors scored four times on runs of 28 and 35 yards, a 30-yard pass and run and a dive play. Head coach Oscar Becker said of his Buffaloes, "Over-all the squad looked very good, although some mistakes were made. Of course, that is what this type of scrimmage is for in the first place — to iron out the rough spots prior to the season."

Wearry Pitchers May Get Time Off After Victory

CINCINNATI (AP) — The chances are that Manager Herman Franks of the San Francisco Giants may give two of his pitchers extra days off—even if he can't do the same for the rest of the weary team. Gaylord Perry and Frank Lirio teamed Friday night for a 2 1/2-inning 1-0 shutout over the Cincinnati Reds, the longest night game in both innings and time consumed ever played in National League history. The five-hour, 40-minute marathon ended after Reds' reliever Bob Lee walked in the winning run and reliever Lirio turned back the Reds in the five innings he pitched.

Albuquerque Puts 6 On Elite Squad

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — The Albuquerque Dodgers, who have come from 11 games behind to challenge for the Texas League pennant, placed six players on the 12-man league all-star team announced Saturday. Amarillo, Austin and El Paso each placed two men on the team. Dallas-Fort Worth and Arkansas failed to have a player poll enough votes in the balloting by club managers to be represented.

Albuquerque's selections were second baseman Luis Alcaraz, the league's leading hitter with a .326 average, outfielder Willie Crawford, third baseman Bill Sudakis, shortstop Donald Williams and pitchers John Duffie, a right-hander with a 15-9 record, and Mike Kekich, a left-hander with a 13-4 mark.

Other all-stars were outfielder Nain Colbert and utility infielder Mike Simerud, both of Amarillo; outfielder Adrian Garrett and utility outfielder Clarence Gaston, both of Austin; and catcher Tom Egan and first baseman Jim Spencer, both of El Paso.

Eagle Eleven May Fly High In Football

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — The Texas' massive schoolboy field hits the autumn trail toward quadruple championships this week. The mighty legions of football, 50,000 strong, swing into combat on far-flung gridirons with the greatest opening week in history.

Outstanding intersectional clashes send the championship favorites into first competition against worthy foes. San Antonio MacArthur, the highest rated team of them all rolls against Victoria, another well ranked outfit, in probably the feature game of the state.

When he pitched his team to a 5-1 victory which earned for them the Webb AFB 1967 softball tournament championship recently to go along with the league championship they'd sewed up a few weeks earlier, John Rodriguez marked the anniversary of his 17th year as a softball pitcher.

A native of Vancouver, Tex., "Big John" actually started out in the game as a catcher for a Eola, Tex. team. Earlier, as a Fifth Grader, he had always played with the Eighth Graders — to make his size and finesse equitable with his peers in the sport.

When a baserunner stepped on his hand one day on a close play at home plate, Big John turned in his mitt and mask and went to the mound. Danny Campbell, a noted San Angelo softball hurler, became John's idol for the next few years, while he (John) toiled on the mound for many teams in the San Angelo area — plus one year at Angelo State College.

"Campbell had the fastest ball I'd ever seen in the game," John recalled. "A hitter almost had to begin his swing as Danny came out of his windup if he was to get a piece of the ball!"

Rodriguez's first good year as a pitcher came in 1959 when he went 20-1 for a Royal Air Force Station at Woodbridge, England. Playing throughout the British Isles, he was picked for the All-United Kingdom get-together at Haverford the following year.

When he returned to the U.S. in 1961, he put in an appearance at Texarkana, Ark., where his squad finished runner-up in an ERA of 0.58. Over-all, he posted a won-lost record of 11-2 for the year. As a bonus to the fine season, he managed a .474 slugging percentage to pace his squad.

When he pitched his team to a 5-1 victory which earned for them the Webb AFB 1967 softball tournament championship recently to go along with the league championship they'd sewed up a few weeks earlier, John Rodriguez marked the anniversary of his 17th year as a softball pitcher.

JOHN RODRIGUEZ

Big Spring which finished third in the city loop. As the 1967 season reached its end, the AFCS squad finished 15-2 for the Permanent Party League crown. Entering the tournament as a co-favorite with the 3561st Pilot Training Squadron, Rodriguez paced AFCS to two straight wins (one over the 3561st, 5-0) for a berth in the finals.

In the tourney finals, Ron Boudin and the 3561st bombarded the AFCS-ers by an 11-1 tally in the first game, but fell victims to a rallying AFCS group in the do-or-die second game to the tune of 5-1.

Rodriguez went three innings in the opener, then pitched the entire second game. For the season, Big John pitched 84 innings, struck out 150 batters and allowed a scrawny 10 earned runs for an ERA of 0.58. Over-all, he posted a won-lost record of 11-2 for the year. As a bonus to the fine season, he managed a .474 slugging percentage to pace his squad.

Now running the Communications complex at Webb, Big John anxiously awaits 1968 and the softball season.

Arriving at Webb in 1966, Big John's Air Force Communications Service (AFCS) team finished second in league play, but first in the double elimination tournament last season. On his off nights, he found time to chunk for the Ward nine of

Third Regatta Set Oct. 7-8

The third annual Sandlubber Regatta will be hosted by the Lake Thomas Yacht Club Oct. 7-8 at the White Island facility on Lake J. B. Thomas. Registration will begin at 9 a.m. October 7, and a fee of $3 per boat will be charged. A skippers' meeting is slated for 1:30 p.m. the same day and another at 10:30 a.m. Sunday. There will be two races on Saturday, with a final race on race, trophies will be awarded for Board Boats, Thistles, Flying Scots, Y Flyers, handicap and each 3-boat preregistered class. Classes of less than three boats will be required, when registering, to furnish sail area, 1.0 a. a., and all up boat weight to race handicap. Barbecue, priced at $1.75, is on tap for Saturday, with $1.25 box lunches planned for Sunday. Refreshments will also be available. Participants are asked to bring their own drinking water. Camping with limited shower facilities and children's swimming area will be provided.

Aroused Odessa Broncs Likely To Paw Dirt

ODESSA — Coach Joe Means isn't happy with the last place ranking voted him by coaches District 2-4A.

JOE MEANS

The unhappiness may cause his Odessa High Broncs to take the necessary desire to pull off some surprises against member teams this fall. There are 10 seniors up from the junior varsity and 10 seniors that lettered last year. The Broncs will have more speed this year and appear to have some top pass catching ends to go with a couple of capable quarterbacks.

Although, they like size and depth, Coach Means' crew could jell into a contender by the time district starts. However, they like Permain, must play the heavy part of their schedule, first meeting Abilene Cooper in the first District 2-4A game Oct. 7 and Abilene High Oct. 13. Both Abilene schools are rated contenders along with Odessa Permain.

Rams Lose Grier For Two Months

Grier was to undergo surgery this morning. The injury occurred just before the half ended. Los Angeles won 44-24.

SEATTLE (AP) — Spokane's Alan Foster pitched the second no-hit, no-run game in his last two Pacific Coast League starts against Seattle here Friday night, giving the Indians a 1-0 victory.

Coach Means first at OHS. Seniors with experience from junior varsity games expected to come through for Coach Means include Charles Twillmatta at halfback, Ken McAdams at fullback, Mike Womble at halfback, Mike Adams at guard, Sammie Dyson at guard, Loyd Moore at guard, Johnny Morris at tackle, James Armstrong at tackle and Bob Scott at end.

Peoples is rated as one of the top backs and punters in the district by Means. The 157-pounder missed Spring drills because of a shoulder operation but has since been released by the doctor as ready to play this fall.

One of the biggest men on the squad and one talked of having a good year in store is junior Marshall Sutt, 191-pound guard. Nick Fowler also had a good Spring showing as a guard and at tackle. He is a 187-pound junior.

All in all, it will depend on how fast the sophomores and juniors progress as to how well the Broncs will do in the district race this year — a year of rebuilding for Coach Means.

Munich Working For '72 Games

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — Five years from now the Olympic summer games are scheduled to open in this lively Bavarian capital, better known up to now for its music, beer and baroque palaces.

The rest of the world still thinks of Olympics in terms of next year's Winter Games at Grenoble, France, and Summer Games at Mexico City.

But here Olympics means the 1972 games in Munich and the realization that they are only five years away quickens the pulse of civic leaders and sports officials. Much must be done in these years to prepare for this biggest and costliest of sports festivals.

Germany last staged an Olympics in 1936 and the first thing the 1972 organizers realize is that the Olympics have become far more expensive since then. The Munich games are expected to cost ten times more than pre-war Berlin games.

The Olympic stadium in Munich, designed to hold 100,000 persons, is alone budgeted at $51.5 million, about eight times what the Berlin Stadium cost 31 years ago.

Altogether Munich planners figure on Olympic building costs to run about $130 million, including the stadium, Olympic Village, various sports sites and a subway extension to the Oberwiesenthal Olympic Center.

In addition another $25 million

Ruidoso Winner Hits Jackpot Labor Day

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. (AP) — The cash box at the end of the rainbow for 10 2-year-olds is only 400 yards in Monday's $486,953 All American Quarter Horse Futurity at Ruidoso Downs.

The winning owner gets $225,000 for sending his entry through the 20-second race—billed as the richest in the world.

The break-down for the rest of the payoffs will help console the also rans including the second-place horse, which will reward its owner with about $100,000.

The show horse gets $85,000 and the fourth place finisher $45,000. Fifth earns $9,000, sixth $7,000, seventh $5,000, eighth $4,000 ninth $3,000 and 10th $2,000.

The ninth running of the race at Ruidoso Downs—in the southern New Mexico Mountains—features six fillies including Go Mae Go, property of the only owner in this year's race who has won a previous All American. J.B. Ferguson of Wharton, Tex., won in 1962 with Hustling Man.

Quarter horse buffs say it's hard to have a favorite in this rich race, which can be decided by the fastest break from the gate or good post position near the rail. Rains have been factors in past years.

Savannah Dandy, owned by Chester Cooper of Pleasanton, Calif., was the fastest of 77 horses in qualifying races last week, running the 40 yards in 19.91 seconds with a 25-mile per hour tailwind. The time was .01 of a second off the track record. Turf's Best, owned by Thomas Baker of San Antonio, Tex., ran 20.08 and Laico Bird sprinted the distance in 20.09 for the other top times. These two youngsters were betting favorites in the trials and are expected to be at top of the handicappers' lists.

Lajo Bird is owned by Floyd Jones Jr., Norman, Okla.

Other entries include Vanny's Gold, owned by Charles Mickle, Scottsdale, Ariz.; Top Rockette, Wayne Griffin, Hollywood, Calif.; Barne's Ladybug, Marvin Barnes, Ada, Okla.; Sea Nymph, Grafton Moore, Holly-

Mich.; Deacon's Luck, Helen Mathieson, Las Vegas, N.M., and Gemini Rocket, Dreonon Copeland, Houston.

The futurity was founded in 1959 with a purse of $129,686, growing to $130,244 in 1960 and to $202,423 in 1961. It soared above $300,000 in 1964 and past $400,000 in 1965.

Go Dick Go, owned by Joe Leitner of Tampa, Fla., won the $430,600 All American last year, taking home $198,300.

About 10,000 persons are expected to pack the track near Ruidoso, a ski resort with a population of about 3,000 persons.

Stargell, McBean Lead Buc Surge

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Willie Stargell's three-run homer and Al McBean's eight-hit pitching led Pittsburgh to a 9-1 triumph over Philadelphia Saturday night.

The Pirates scored four runs in the first inning, and Stargell blasted his 19th homer in the fourth.

McBean, 5-3, didn't allow a runner past second base until the eighth when a double by Tony Gonzalez, a single by Bill White and Tony Taylor's double play ball got the Phils a run.

Maury Wills ignited the early outburst with a double, the first of three straight hits for him, and Roberto Clemente tripled. After two walks, Gene Alley blooped a single for two runs and Jerry Mays' hit produced another one.

Lemm Says Oiler Ground Game Should Be Better

KERRVILLE, Tex. (AP) — The Houston Oilers are not exactly gushing with talent, still they believe they're on the way up.

"We want to improve speed-wise on defense, and I think we've done that," said Coach Wally Lemm, whose team won only three of 14 games last season in the American Football League.

"We have a good offensive line. From tackle to tackle it's probably as good as any offensive line in the league. And our running attack should be very good."

Then there's George Webster, a two-time All-America from Ken Houston, Michigan State who was the Oilers' No. 1 draft choice.

"He's going to be a great linebacker," Lemm offered. "He hits hard, he has great speed and he has a great desire to play. We traded away a regular linebacker because we know Webster would be good."

Traded was John Baker, who went to San Diego with Scott Appleton for defensive back Miller Farr, one of the players Lemm is high on.

Farr joins Bobby Jancik, Jim Norton and W. K. Hicks in the defensive secondary. Behind them are rookies Pete Johns, Larry Carwell, Zeke Moore and Man.

Cubs Split With NY Mets

CHICAGO (AP) — Jerry Buchek's second homer of the game triggered a four-run fifth inning rally and the New York Mets edged Chicago 5-4 Saturday behind relief pitcher Dick Selma for a split of their doubleheader with the Cubs.

Joe Niekro stopped the Mets on four hits as the Cubs took the opener 5-0.

Buchek, who had homered in the second inning of the nightcap, slammed his 11th homer of the year with one out in the fifth and Chicago leading 4-1. John Sullivan's double and singles by Larry Stahl, Bud Harrelson, Tommy Reynolds and Tommy Davis added three more runs.

Selma took over for first-time starter Bill Connors in the fifth and allowed two hits the rest of the way in squaring his record at 2-2.

The Cubs beat ex-teammate Cal Koonce in the opener, catcher Randy Hundley driving in two runs and Niekro adding a run-scoring single.

Ernie Banks doubled in the second inning, stopped at third on Al Spangler's single and scored as Hundley bounced out, giving Niekro the only run he needed.

Ex-Irish Star Lost To Lions

DETROIT (AP) — Nick Eddy, the Detroit Lions' rookie who flashed brilliance in his first pro football outing and was injured in the second, will be sidelined at least seven weeks, officials said Saturday.

The former Notre Dame star sprained his right knee Aug. 20 in a 34-17 exhibition victory over the San Diego Chargers of the American Football League.

Coach Joe Schmidt said it was possible Eddy's injury could heal sooner, "but I don't want to put the kid back in early and hurt him."

Webb Pistol Team Wins 17 Trophies In Meet

Webb AFB's six-man pistol team went to the Desert Sands Gun Club recently to participate in a pistol match.

S. Sgt. Mack E. Robinson was the big winner on the team, winning nine individual trophies. According to team captain, 1st Lt. John D. Beer, Sgt. Robinson's score of 2405 moves him to the "expert" class.

Lt. Beer shot the highest score for the team. He won the .45 calibre slow fire match with a 2455.

M. Sgt. Robert A. Moede fired in the expert class with a 2343 and took first place in the .45 rapid fire match. S. Sgt. Robert V. Pistone won the .45 timed fire, NMC and .45 aggregate in the expert class for a total score of 2395.

Capt. John H. Roberson won first place with the .22 calibre slow and rapid fire matches as well as the .22 aggregate and the .45 rapid.

Lt. Beer and Sgts. Robinson, Pistone and Moede won the .45 team trophy.

Over-all, the team won 17 individual trophies in addition to the team trophy.

Limited Parking Zone Outlined

Streets affected by school and city action to relieve traffic congestion around the high school are pictured above. No parking zones will be in effect on streets adjacent to the campus, while others within a two-block radius will be under a one-hour maximum parking limit.

School Opening Brings Parking Restrictions

Lack of space for an ideal situation on-campus parking and recent action by the city commission to reduce off-street parking in the high school area will meet the test of practicality and use when 2,100 high school students and another 100 teachers report for the first day of school Tuesday.

Should students find the 395 available spaces full, it means at least a two-block walk to the main building, while faculty can turn to three smaller lots reserved for them and administrative personnel.

"Despite some complaints, we expect the situation to be far better than it was last year," said Larry Crow, city manager. Looking at the positive side, he pointed out the school is providing close to 500 parking spaces for students, faculty and employees this year.

CONTROL
"In addition, the city is establishing a better type of parking control in the vicinity than there was before. Last year parking was pretty chaotic. Combined with construction problems we had quite a few complaints."

He recognized there would be some problems but said they could be worked out. Sam Anderson, superintendent of schools, shares Crow's viewpoint. He said earlier there is a tendency for pupils to park on nearby side streets, inconveniencing residents and creating traffic congestion. From past experience he felt something was needed to control parking in the area. Tuesday the city commission voted to impose no parking zones and limited parking zones on a trial basis throughout the high school area.

STREETS NAMED
"No parking" zones were approved for both sides of Eleventh Place, between Donley and Johnson.

On the east side of Goliad, from Eleventh Place to Tenth Street; Both sides of Tenth Street, from State to Goliad; On the west side of State, from Eighth to Eleventh Place; on both sides of Owens, from Tenth Street to the YMCA.

"One hour parking" was approved for all streets between Donley and Nolan, Thirteenth and Eleventh Place.

On Eleventh and Tenth Street, from Johnson to Goliad; On State Street, from Eleventh to Bluebonnet; On Wood and Sycamore, from Locust to State.

ON LOTS
School parking lots will provide 395 spaces for student and faculty parking, in addition to another 123 spaces for faculty on nearby lots. Parking permits on sale Friday during orientation and registration. A fee of eight cents to 15 cents per day will be charged for use of the two campus lots, depending if permits are purchased on a semester, monthly or daily basis.

Intruder Kills Girl, Wounds Her Parents

HOUSTON (AP) — A young man terrorized a Houston family with a wild knife attack Saturday, killed a child, raped a woman and critically stabbed and slashed the woman and her husband. A boy's screams finally sent the intruder fleeing into the dawn.

Arrested shortly thereafter on what officers called a tip was Philip Ray Allen, 26, who resides near the victims' apartment.

Officers charged Allen with murder, rape, burglary and with two counts of assault with intent to murder.

IN KITCHEN
The first policeman to arrive found little Richey Leona Jones, 8, in the kitchen. She had been stabbed to death. They found her mother, Mrs. John R. Jones, on the girl's bed critically stabbed.

Officers found the father in a closet where the intruder had placed him. He was unconscious from the attack. In the same closet was Tommy, 10, whose screams aroused neighbors. The boy was not harmed.

Tommy, finding it difficult to speak, told reporters and officers that he began screaming when the attack on his mother began.

BOY A WITNESS
Young Tommy said he saw a man "stab my father and hurt my mother."

He added, "My little sister didn't say anything."

Police quoted Mrs. Jones as saying, before she was taken to surgery, that she awoke to find a man fondling her. She screamed, which awoke her husband.

The husband grappled with the burglar, was stabbed and slashed and finally placed in the closet where Tommy later was forced.

RAPED
Mrs. Jones, officers related, said the attacker threatened to kill her and her daughter unless she submitted. Mrs. Jones said the man raped her, killed her daughter and began stabbing her.

Mrs. Hazel Moore heard the screams of Tommy and called police.

WORLD WAR II YEARS BROUGHT THE WACS

“ THE WOMEN OF WEBB ”

Webb Air Force Base celebrates its 25th anniversary this week.

Special events and appropriate ceremonies will mark the quarter century milestone of an installation that has woven a pattern in red, white and blue through the lives of Big Springers — and those who paused here for a little while.

With the men who served in the military, or held civilian jobs at Webb, came their wives and families. Nor could Webb's history be recorded without other women — the nurses, civil service employes, and during World War II, the WACS, who have played vital roles in the operation of the installation. Look now — and recall — as the past is pictured, and The Herald salutes the Women of Webb.

Mrs. Mamie Roberts Reviews The Years

By JO BRIGHT

Mrs. Mamie Roberts was determined not to cry. People paused by her desk as usual — and as usual, received a sweet smile and considerate reply to their questions or comments.

When the time came, she glanced again to see that the desk was in order, lightly touched her hair — and rose to join the more than six dozen friends and associates who gathered to express their love and best wishes on her retirement.

Cosden has been Mrs. Roberts' life — and love — since Aug. 23, 1944. It was a turbulent time. World War II had left the home front population strangely one-sided by claiming its men to do the things that only men can do. But despite their weaknesses, war is for women, too, and quietly, wives, mothers and sisters put away their silks and donned denim to fill the vacancies in the plants and refineries that produced supplies for their men.

CRITICAL

Mrs. Roberts took her place with other women at the truck loading docks at Big Spring Refinery. The manpower shortage was critical, and Cosden had recruited women to handle the loading of gasoline, asphalt, aviation gasoline and distillates. When she could be spared from the loading dock, Mrs. Roberts handled the billing and was soon placed in the sales office as a marketing clerk.

A year later, she was in the accounting department, and since then, most of her tenure has been under the supervision of L. T. King, treasurer. At first, she did manual bookkeeping, but more recently her work has been accomplished more with IBM processes.

Actually, Aug. 7 was the final day of her work as a stock accounting clerk, and the rest of the month she has spent on vacation status while awaiting the official retirement day of Aug. 31.

"I am deeply grateful for the opportunity to work for Cosden, and to the management," said Mrs. Roberts, who feels that she found her niche with a company that still took time to treat its employees as people rather than numbers. As the company grew, so did her pride in it. She didn't have to be told of its progress — she was reminded each time she compared figures in accounts of exchanges, purchases and products as Cosden continued to produce chemicals, asphalt and fuels.

Mrs. Roberts was born near Paris, Texas, moving to Big Spring in 1914 with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Padgett. After graduating, in 1923, from the local high school, she attended Hardin - Simmons University for two years, majoring in home economics and minoring in education.

WANTED CAREER But business had claimed her. To broaden her education and acquire the tools she would need in this field, she attended night school at Howard County Junior College for five years. At the refinery, she took a Red Cross course from Otto Peters Sr., and now credits him with instilling in her the desire to help those who are ill and lonely.

Pair Wed In Lenorah Ceremony

STANTON (SC) — Miss Charlotte Ann Kuhlman became the bride of Richard Kenneth White Friday evening at the Lenorah Baptist Church. The Rev. Charles Mitchell officiated for the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack H. Kuhlman and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. White, all of Star Route, Lenorah.

Wedding music on the piano and organ was provided by Jerry and Deane Oliphant. Mike Springer sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a bridal dress fashioned along the A-line with Empire waist. A wide band of lace decorated the front panel of the skirt and the waistband. The chapel-length veil fell from a crown of pearls.

Mrs. Richard Osborn of Big Spring served as matron of honor. Her dress was pink with a lace bodice and satin skirt.

Bobby Blalack was best man, and Danny Fryar of Lomax and Walter Taylor ushered and lighted the candles. Shirella Sawyer was the flower girl.

For travelling the bride chose a pink and white printed wool suit with bone accessories.

When Mr. and Mrs. White return from a wedding trip they will make a home at 404 W. 4th St., Stanton, where the bridegroom is employed by the Texas Highway Department.

The bride attended Stanton High School, Hardin - Simmons University and Commercial College. She is employed at Webb Air Force Base.

The bridegroom attended

Following the wedding, the bridal couple was honored with a reception in the home of her parents. Receiving with the couple were their parents and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fryar, grandparents of the bride.

Miss Linda White registered guests, and other members of the house party were Miss Sharon Kuhlman, Miss Ronda Kuhlman, Miss Carolyn Kuhlman, Mrs. Jimmie Sawyer, Mrs. G. P. Sawyer, Miss Judy Overby, Miss Denise Mitchell and Mrs. Lyndon Dunn.

Plan Plant Setting For Pleasing Effect

For maximum aesthetic happiness with houseplants, be sure that their size and location are relatively suitable, says the Society of American Florists. Don't use a little plant on a grand piano. This is the place for a large plant of heavy texture and glossy leaves. A low-growing plant such as Episcia belongs on an end table under a lamp, the Society says. A tall plant is stunning when potted in a low container and placed on the floor.

The time is here for the traditional question, "What are you going to do now that you've retired?" "I'm working at the Book Stall," said Mrs. Roberts.

Janet Ann Stroup Becomes Bride Of Thomas R. South

The wedding of Miss Janet Ann Stroup and Thomas Robert South was solemnized at 8 o'clock Friday evening in a double ring ceremony performed in the 14th and Main Church of Christ, Mr. C. E. Higginbotham, grandfather of the bride, was the officiating minister.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter William Stroup, 700 Scott, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lacy South, 1703 Kentucky Way.

Traditional nuptial selections were sung by the church chorus, as a prelude to the ceremony, and Miss Karen Elrod was soloist on the numbers, "Because," "More" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The couple exchanged vows before an altar graced with a sunburst arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums flanked by matching baskets of woodwardia palms. The scene was illuminated by a centered tree candelabrum holding wedding tapers and seven-branched candelabra placed on each side of the altar. The couple knelt on a wrought iron prie-dieu, and the bridal aisle was marked with standards holding white tapers tied with white satin ribbon and lemon leaf foliage.

TRADITIONAL

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. Her traditional gown of imported de-lustered satin featured a sculptured bodice with long tapered sleeves that formed petal points over the hands and fastened with tiny buttons. Alencon lace motifs, sparkled with bridal pearls accented the gown, and a voluminous chapel train swept from the slender silhouette. A fly-away Dior bow of de-lustered satin, centered with crystal drops, formed her headpiece and held a flowing veil of silk English illusion. She wore the traditional items and a lavalier which belonged to her mother and grandmother.

She carried a triangular cascade arrangement of white bridal roses backed with leaves of velvet and pearls and showered with picot ribbon.

Miss Sherry Stroup attended her sister as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Beth Weeks, Miss Jo Farris, Miss Diane Stevens of Abilene and Miss Tammy Taylor of Carrizo Springs. The bridesmaids' costumes were sleeveless, scooped neck dresses of gold chiffon over taffeta styled in the Empire manner and featuring a flowing chiffon cape attached at the back with tailored bows. The briefly-veiled headpieces were clusters of matching velveteen flowers. The maid of honor wore a dress of the same style in avocado green, and all carried cascades of large bronze mums tied with avocado and gold ribbon.

Miss Carol Morehead was flower girl, and Miss Gay Humphrey and Bill Cudd lighted the altar tapers. Miss Morehead was attired in a white chiffon and taffeta dress trimmed with avocado ribbon and Miss Humphrey wore a similar dress in gold chiffon and taffeta. Both had wristlets of bronze pompon mums.

George Lacy South, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and groomsmen were Mike McCasland of Austin, Blake Talbot, Gary Wagner of Roswell, N.M., and Don Coker. Serving as ushers were Joe Heard of Lubbock, Phillip Richey, Don Newsom, Baxter Moore and Manning Stroup. The ring bearer was Neal Humphrey.

SCHOOLS

Mr. and Mrs. South are both graduates of Big Spring Senior High School where she was a member of the band and Future Homemakers of America. She attended Howard County Junior College and Abilene Christian College, and he attended A&M University and will graduate in January with a BBA from Texas Tech where he is a member of the Society for the Advancement of Management. Mrs. South will attend Texas Tech this fall.

The reception honoring the couple was held at Cosden Country Club where the receiving line included the parents and feminine attendants. Miss Lynn Heith presided at the guest register, and members of the house party were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Cudd, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Gage, Mr. and Mrs. David Elrod, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rich-ey, Mr. and Mrs. George Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Pierce, Dr. and Mrs. H. F. Schwarzenbach, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kasch, Mr. and Mrs. Hudson Landers, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Cotham, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Peurifoy, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Lutting, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irons, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Havens, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Womack, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cook, Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, Mrs. Nelda LeFevre, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Kirby, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Heith, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Avery Falkner, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Slate, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Marshall, Mrs. Nettie Jean McEwen, Miss Kay Morehead, Miss Barbara Pierce and Miss Karen Elrod. Attending the bride's table were Miss Brenda Baker, Miss Sheryl Gambill, Miss Judy Daniel and Miss Sandy Ivie. Presiding at the bridegroom's table were Miss Carol Burleson, Miss Linda Fenley, Miss Jeanie McDonald of Sterling City and Miss Jan Morehead.

On the bride's table, her bouquet was placed at the base of a silver candelabrum. Covering the table was a floor-length net cloth with overlay of appliqued organdy, and appointments were of crystal and silver. The four-tiered cake was separated by columns, decorated with white roses and silver leaves and topped with a miniature bride and groom. The bridegroom's circular table was covered with a beige burlap cloth and centered with a wrought iron candelabrum. The large chocolate cake was circled with fern and bronze pompon mums, and a copper coffee service completed the setting.

Out-of-town guests were Mr.

and Mrs. J. A. Taylor, Carrizo Springs; Dr. and Mrs. Clark Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ray, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Newman and Kerry, Mr. and Mrs. Rich Keeble, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Skinner and Miss Patty Stevens, all of Abilene.

Walker, Levelland; and Rick Lee of Mississippi.

WEDDING TRIP

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, Colo., the bride was wearing a beige A-line knit dress and matching coat with gold accessories and the corsage from her bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. South will be at home in September at 3102 4th, Apt. 166, Lubbock.

REHEARSAL DINNER

Miss Stroup and her fiance, along with members of the wedding party were honored with a rehearsal dinner Thursday evening at Big Spring Country Club. Hosts were parents of the bridegroom, and 40 attended. Gifts were presented to all the attendants.

The head table was centered with a tall, white cupid holding yellow carnations, pompons and agapanthus accented with avocado satin. Green votive candles, based in leather fern, were on either side. Individual tables held green votive candles based in fern and yellow mums.

Luncheon Is Held For Attendants

Mrs. Don Champion, the former Miss Robbie Brown, was honored prior to her marriage with a bridesmaids luncheon Friday in the home of Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins at Knott.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Joe Myers, Mrs. O. B. Gaskins and Mrs. Robert Nichols, and among the honored guests were the honoree's mother, Mrs. Robert Brown, her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Hodnett, and her fiance's mother, Mrs. W. R. Champion.

Fourteen attended and were seated at two circular tables covered with beige and gold cloths and accented with pink roses encircled with turquoise net and green streamers. Place favors were green miniature fruits tied with turquoise net.

The bride-elect wore an antique gold skimmer and presented gifts to her attendants.

New Mattresses Resist Burning

A completely flame retardant cotton innerspring mattress and box spring set is now on the market.

A leading U.S. bedding manufacturer has achieved this major breakthrough in the field of safety, the National Cotton Council reports. The new sleep set is described as being absolutely flame retardant. No part of the mattress will support combustion which could break out from lighted cigarettes, cigars or any other source of heat.

A new and improved cotton batting material is a major component of the new mattress. It was developed by the research laboratories of the Department of Agriculture in New Orleans. It is a resilient cotton material with special features not found in conventional batting or in synthetic insulating materials.

Decorator Fabric Establishes Mood

Whether you're mad for modern or bemused by baroque, your choice of decorating fabrics will reveal your personality and establish a mood. Are you re-doing a dining room this fall? Try a sophisticated black and white striped material for the chairs, against bold red wall coverings. Stripe, plain, plaid or print—most quality fabrics are guaranteed colorfast and stain-resistant by modern dye methods.

Miss Robbie Brown Weds Don Champion

Miss Robbie Brown became the bride of Don Champion at eight o'clock Saturday evening in a double ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Leo K. Gee at the First Methodist Church. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown of Knott and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Champion Jr. of Houston. Vows were exchanged before an altar graced with an arrangement of white gladioli and pom-pom chrysanthemums flanked by candelabra holding white tapers and draped with smilax and ribbon. Family pews were marked with white satin bows. John W. Stanley presented the musical prelude and accompanied Mrs. G. S. Kadera of McKinney as she sang "Ave Maria" and "Because." Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a slim Empire gown of candlelight peau de soie. The bodice featured a portrait neckline and elbow-length sleeve effect in front, going into a cape in back. The bodice, hemline and cape were trimmed in re-embroidered pearl Alencon lace, and lace motifs accented the square-paneled chapel train. Her Camelot cap was enhanced with lace and pearls and secured the tiered veil of silk illusion. Her only jewelry was her grandmother's cameo brooch, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis entwined with streamers and satin leaves.

ATTENDANTS
Miss Rosalind Page of Odessa was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Nadine Nayfa, Sweetwater; Miss Ruth Lemon, Ackerly; and Mrs. Harry Sellin, Dayton, Ohio, sister of the bridegroom. They were identically gowned in electric blue floor-length silk gages which were accessorized with short white gloves and a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bride. Their headpieces were matching blue Dior bows with tulle veiling, and each carried a nosegay of green mums tied with moss green tulle and satin streamers.

John Schoeneck, Dallas, was best man, and groomsmen were John McIntyre, Lubbock; Bob Kueble, Houston; and Harry Sellin, Dayton, Ohio. Ushers, who also lighted the altar tapers, were Kirby Hodnett, Cody Flores and Scotty Turner, both of Houston, and Burt McCauley, Texas City. Miss Kayla Lynn Hodnett, the flower girl, was dressed identically to the bridesmaids and carried a white satin basket filled with mums and green satin ribbon. Van Martin Gaskins of Knott was the ring bearer.

RECEPTION
The reception was held in the fellowship hall where the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Frank Hodnett, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. J. Dvorak, joined the couple and parents in receiving guests. Miss Jimmy Madry attended the guest register.

The bride's table was laid with white net laced with satin ribbon and appointed with crystal and silver. The bride's bouquet was the centerpiece and the table held silver candelabra and a five-tiered colonnade cake. The circular bridegroom's table was covered with green linen and held a chocolate cake and copper and crystal appointments. The centerpiece was a brass cupid holding a cascade of blue chrysanthemums. Another table held a tree decorated with white flowers and tiny rice bags.

Members of the house party were Miss Ann Lemon and Miss Terry Hambrick, both of Ackerly; Mrs. Kirby Hodnett, Miss Kay Corn, Fort Worth; Miss Jane Craddock, Beaumont; Miss Terri Roman, Miss Rene Roman, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mac Gaskins, Mr. and Mrs. T. and Mrs. Greene O. Wilson of Murray, Ky. The double ring ceremony was held at 4 p.m. and officiated by Dr. Robert L. Smith. The couple exchanged vows in a four-part ceremony which was non-traditional and in the nature of a worship service with responsive readings between minister and congregation.

The altar was decorated with a single bouquet of yellow roses and bronze daisy mums and English ivy. Gold candles, held on large gold blocks, were arranged in two groups of three in graduated sizes as a background.

Lew Zailer, organist, accompanied the congregation for the singing of Gurney's "O Perfect Love." He also played "Trumpet Tune in D" by Purcell as a processional and the Vaughan-Williams arrangement of "Hy-frydol" for the recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was gowned in white Japanese silk brocade with white peau de soie bodice, Empire waistline and elbow-length sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was held by a pearl tiara. She wore the traditional items including a sixpence in her shoe, a gift from the bridegroom.

The bride's flowers were white rosebuds surrounding a yellow orchid and white gypsophelia in semi-cascade style.

ATTENDANTS
The bride's sisters served as honor attendants. Mrs. Billy L. Sexton, Big Spring, was matron of honor, and Mrs. Ronald D. Eberhardt, Midwest City, Okla., was bridesmaid. They wore ivory green peau de soie street-length dresses fashioned in the style of the bridal dress. They wore slippers to match and carried nosegays of yellow roses and gypsophelia.

Charles A. Bartlett of Washington, D. C., served as best man, and his son, Charles Bartlett, also of Washington, D. C., was the usher. Rebecca Lynn Hallmark, Abilene, was the flower girl and Erick Nilson, Big Spring, was ring bearer.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Mexico City and Alcapulco the bride was wearing a cream and beige Alaskine suit with matching accessories and yellow orchid from her bouquet.

The Wilsons will be at home at 6666 Chetwood, Apt. 295, in Houston.

MRS. DONALD STABENO (Howard's Studio)

Says Vows In Baptist Rites

The wedding of Miss Claudia Caudill to Airman 2 C. Donald Stabeno was solemnized Saturday evening at the Westside Baptist Church with the Rev. Jerry Bob Taylor officiating.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Caudill, 1105 College, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stabeno, 1310 Kimbro, Taylor.

Mrs. John Billings was the organist and accompanied Danny Johnson as he sang "Because" and Miss Annelie Fitzhugh who sang "Whither Thou Goest." The vocalists joined in a duet to sing "The Wedding Prayer" as the couple knelt on a white prie-dieu.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a formal gown of white wedding satin with squared neckline enhanced with rose appliques. The long sleeves came to petal points at the wrist, and the bodice was accented with applied roses trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent crystals. Her bouquet was fashioned of white feathered carnations accented with tulle and leaves of satin. She carried the bouquet atop a white Bible.

The rites were read before an altar illuminated with candleabra holding wedding tapers and decorated with emerald foliage and palms with a center arrangement of white gladiolus.

Mrs. Randy Smith was matron of honor and chose a yellow moire taffeta street-length dress with white accessories. She wore a short yellow veil attached to a taffeta circlet.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Gray, Miss Carol Parchman and Miss Kathy Stabeno of Taylor. They were dressed similarly to the matron of honor, and their colonial-styled bouquets were of yellow carnations tied with yellow satin ribbon.

Charles Stabeno of Austin served his brother as best man, and groomsmen were Airman 2 C. Frank Vigus and Airman 2 C. Wyane Heathley. Ushers were L. R. Saunders, John Billings and Airman 2 C. Roger Chittenden.

Donna Sundy was the flower girl, and Kent Stabeno, Austin, was the ring bearer. Taper lighters were Craig Caudill and Karla Sundy.

For the wedding trip to an undisclosed destination the bride chose a two-piece traveling suit of yellow knit with black accessories.

The couple will make their home at 407 Young.

The bride is a graduate of Big Spring Senior High School where she was a member of the Bible Club, girl's choir, a cappella choir and the Short-hand Club. She is employed by C. R. Anthony Co.

The groom is a graduate of Thrall High School and is stationed at Webb AFB.

The bride's table was laid with white net over yellow and was centered with an arrangement of the attendant's bouquets. The four-tiered wedding cake was decorated with roses, love birds and wedding bells. A miniature bridal couple topped the confection.

Guests were registered by Miss Sidney Carr. Other members of the house party were Miss Barbara Davidson, Mrs. Newton Bell, Mrs. Gene Holeman, Midland; Mrs. B. N. Borroughs and Mrs. L. R. Saunders. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Charles Stabeno and Amy Stabeno of Austin; Gene Holeman and Sandra Holeman, Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Gary Holeman and Ricky, Denver City; and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McCartney, Childress.

Duplicate Games

It has been announced that a new duplicate bridge game will begin at 1:30 p.m. today at Big Spring Country Club. There will be no game at the club Tuesday, and the regular Friday game will be played, instead, at 1:30 p.m., Thursday for master points. Regular Thursday games will resume at the YMCA at 7:30 p.m., Sept. 7.

Ledge Saves Steps

An outdoor ledge adjoining a kitchen window saves steps in passing food and drinks from kitchen to patio especially when it's made of permanent, weatherproof ceramic tile. A built-in pass-through means ready convenience whenever good weather permits outdoor dining.

The Gazebo

A dream turned into a reality when the Jimmy Moreheads built a gazebo in their back yard this summer as the center part of a landscaping project. The structure holds special interest to the family as they built it themselves — welding the metal, pouring the concrete, laying the bricks. The wrought iron grillwork was a gift from the Earl Reeds. It had been part of the decor in the old Reed Hotel.

Episcopal Church Is Setting For Smith-Cowper Wedding

MRS. MONROE M. KOENNING

Office Orchid

When Mrs. Monroe M. Koenning, the former Elsie Lomax, was just a year old her parents moved from the lush greenness of Louisiana to the plains of Texas. They settled in Lomax, where Elsie grew up, but now reside in Hobbs, N.M.

Mrs. Koenning graduated from Stanton High School and remembers that her first job was in Midland as a bookkeeper for the Texas Railroad Commission.

Returning to Big Spring, she worked for Hemphill-Wells and later took a job as cashier at the American National Insurance Company. During the two years she held this job, she also attended Howard County Junior College. Over six years ago she took a position with the City of Big Spring, working as secretary to the Director of Public Works, Ernest E. Lillard, and still holds this job.

In October of 1964, while visiting friends in Garden City, she met Monroe Koenning and they were married Aug. 14, 1965, in Big Spring. They own their home at Garden City where he is employed by the Texas Highway Department. They are members of the Church of Christ where she is a teacher for the four and five year old group.

Her hobbies are music, fishing, gardening and "barbecuing" with her husband and the family pet, a Chihuahua named "Festus."

St. Mary's Episcopal Church was the setting Saturday evening for the formal wedding of Miss Brenda Joy Cowper and Bruce Alan Smith.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the rector, the Rev. John H. Payne. Mrs. Carl Baker presented the organ prelude and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Don Brinegar as she sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R.B.G. Cowper, 902 Mountain Park Drive, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Smith of Corpus Christi, formerly of Midland.

On the altar, tall white epergnes held golden gladioli and yellow Fuji chrysanthemums interspersed with leather fern. Arched candelabra with votive lights were standing in the chancel, and the bridal aisle was marked with pew candelabra entwined with smilax.

Dr. Cowper escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her traditional white satin gown was fashioned with voluminous skirt, and the sweeping cathedral train was trimmed with Chantilly lace re-embroidered with seed pearls. Enhancing the marquise yoke was a lace and pearl collar, while the long, tapered sleeves carried an applique of lace. The gown had been worn by the bride's sister at her wedding. Falling from a Camelot cap, covered with Chantilly lace appliques and seed pearls, was her shoulder-length veil of illusion, and she carried a cascade of stephanotis centered with gardenias and backed with a shower of white satin picot ribbons.

ATTENDANTS

The bride was attended by her sisters, Miss Jane Cowper of Houston, who was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Rodney J. Sheppard of Austin, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Lawton, Okla., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Florence Ferguson, Whiteville, Tenn.; Mrs. Earl Smith and Miss Kandy Kensley, both of Dallas; Mrs. J. W. Hamner and Mrs. Quincy Newman.

The attendants wore moss green A-line dresses with tiered sleeves and overskirts trimmed with satin. In the back, bows with floor-length streamers marked the raised waistline. They wore satin hennin caps with cascades of maline falling from the pointed tops in the Camelot mood. Each attendant carried a theatrical blossom created of gold gladioli petals and lemon leaves.

Ken Francis of Austin served as best man, and groomsmen were Carlton Merriman, David Stallings and Jim Epley, all of Midland; Gary Schur, Odessa; Chase McEvoy, Hempstead; Rodney Sheppard of Austin, brother-in-law of the bride; Lt. Lawrence Smith of Lawton, Okla., brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Ben Cowper, brother of the bride; and Barry Smith of Corpus Christi, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride's niece, Celeste Sheppard of Austin, was flower girl and was attired in a floor-length dress of moss green velvet to match the bridesmaids' gowns. She wore a hennin cap and carried rose petals in a white straw basket trimmed with velveteen bows and streamers.

MRS. BRUCE ALAN SMITH

with velveteen bows and streamers.

SCHOOLS

The bride, a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, is a graduate of the University of Texas and is currently doing social work in Austin. The bridegroom is a Business Administration student at the University of Texas and member of Phi Kappa Psi. Following a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, the couple will reside in Austin.

RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Smith were honored with a garden reception at the home of the bride's parents. They were joined in receiving guests by the bridegroom's parents and his grandmother, Mrs. W. F. Scombe of Corpus Christi.

Background organ music was by Allan Ferguson, Whiteville, Tenn., cousin of the bride, and attending the guest register were Mrs. Ken Francis, Austin; Miss Nancy Varner, Houston; Miss Paula Duecase, Midland; and Miss Alice Coker of Fredericksburg, formerly of Big Spring. Rice bags were distributed by Jan Ferguson of Whiteville, Tenn., cousin of the bride, and Miss Sue Garrett. Others assisting at the reception were Mrs. J. D. Kilgore, Miss Ann Garrett, Miss Cynthia Pond and Miss Sue Knox.

The bridal table, on the terrace beside the swimming pool, was covered in white satin with a white and silver net overlay. The punch service was placed at one end of the table, and on the other was the tiered wedding cake topped by two satin wedding bells. The centerpiece was a spiral candelabrum with votive candles, green grapes and smilax greenery. For traveling, the bride wore a sleeveless A-line white sheath with a diagonal yoke of emerald green and white diamond design. She carried a double-breasted coat of the same green and white pattern, and her accessories were green.

Take High Tallies In Bridge Games

During Friday's duplicate bridge game at Big Spring Country Club, north-south winners were Mrs. J. Gordon Bristow and George Pike, first; Mrs. B. B. Badger and Mrs. Aya McGann, second; and Mrs. E. L. Powell and Mrs. Jack Irons, third.

East-west winners were Mrs. Fred Lurting and Mrs. E. O. Ellington, first; Mrs. A. Swartz and Mrs. J. H. Fish, second; and Mrs. L. B. Edwards and Mrs. John Davis, third.

Party Held For Mrs. Joe Bond

Mrs. Joe Bond was honored with a baby shower Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Joe Sharpnack, 2108 Cecilia.

Twenty-one guests were served refreshments from a table decorated in a pink and white color scheme. Pink linen was overlaid with lace, and appointments were of crystal and silver. Centering the table was an arrangement of pink rosebuds in a crystal vase.

Mrs. Bond was presented gifts and a corsage of pink and white baby booties.

To Marry

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Moore, Rt. 1, Midland, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Shirley, to William Leslie Watson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Watson, Gail Rt., Big Spring. The couple plans to be married Oct. 6 in the home of the bride's parents.

A LOVELIER YOU

Schedule Time For A 'Lovely' Weekend

By MARY SUE MILLER

Did you ever return from a weekend jaunt more tired than when you left home? Just fighting traffic is enough to wear you down. But you come home from what was supposed to be a rest cure, in need of one, if you are overtaxed by exercise and social activities.

This is not to say that a weekend should be given over to bed rest. No play makes Jill a dull girl. Pale and pudgy in the bargain!

But to look and feel very after a junket you have to strike a nice balance among your pastimes. A much pressured career woman told me that she manages to recoup by pacing her weekends as though she were at a health spa with supervised activities. Actually it's a good idea.

Spa schedules apportion time for exercise, socializing, rest periods and beauty treatments. Late in the afternoon there's always a full hour devoted to a beauty-rest combo. None of that rushing in from tennis and out to cocktails!

Why not follow that lead — retire to your quarters and relax long enough to pamper your looks and renew your energy? To make the most of those private minutes try this procedure: Brush hair, pin up stragglers, cleanse and cream face, shower or bathe, rub down with body lotion, compress skin, freshener to face, lie down and take a half-hour nap.

Of course you do not have to go away weekends to benefit from this program. Stay-at-homes are urged to subscribe.

WINNING MANNERS

To open a door on increased poise and popularity, send for our booklet, "Winning Manners." Topics included are Introductions, Invitations, Table Manners, The Charming Hostess, You — The Guest, Dating Manners, Formal Dances, Travel Tips and Tipping, Small Points, like when to wear a hat or check your coat. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 25 cents in coin, and a long, self-addressed stamped envelope.

Webb Windsock

By MRS. W. F. HOADLEY.

This is the season when ads feature items for "back to school." Most of us think of clothing and supplies for our children, but there are many Webb Officers' Wives who are preparing themselves for their roles as teachers. Whether your offspring attends a nursery school, junior college, or any of the schools in between, he has a good chance of having a Webb wife as his teacher. Mrs. William Clinton teaches at Saint Mary's Episcopal Nursery. At Marcy Elementary School, Mrs. Jerry Sharp teaches first grade as does Mrs. Robert Winders. Mrs. John Smith teaches fourth grade, and Mrs. Joseph Otterson fifth. Mrs. Phil Roberts is fourth grade teacher at College Heights Elementary. At Garden City Elementary, Mrs. Henry Ernst is in charge of elementary music; Mrs. Robert Herndon teaches first grade; and Mrs. D. L. Mencke and Mrs. David Heagy are third grade teachers. The fourth grade teacher at Kentwood Elementary is Mrs. Kenneth Boyd. Mrs. James Reid teaches second grade at Airport Elementary.

At Forsan High, Mrs. J. A. Wrucha teaches math, and Mrs. Arthur Rutledge is the English teacher.

Eight Webb Officers' Wives will be teaching at Big Spring Senior High this fall. They are Mrs. Harry Rogers, Mrs. Philip French, Mrs. John Scott, Mrs. T. J. Shaw, and Mrs. A. S. Gindoff in the English department; Mrs. J. L. Pearson in physical education; Mrs. Harold Gillenwaters in science, and Mrs. Walter Weaver in art.

Mrs. William Hoadley will teach French at Howard County Junior College.

OWC LUNCHEON

Fried chicken tops the menu for "Summer's Last Picnic," the OWC luncheon to be held Thursday at 12:30 p.m. In order to attend, you must make a reservation by noon Tuesday. Call Mrs. H. A. Gunhus at 263-7830 or Mrs. John C. Quebe at 263-8247. Cancellations must be in by Wednesday noon.

Tuesday morning, wives of Class 68-F met for a coffee hour at the home of Mrs. R. M. Crone. Co-hostess was Mrs. J. F. Wheeler.

Large quantities of coffee were consumed by several other groups on base this week. The home of Mrs. Frank Anderson was the setting for a "thank you" coffee for the T-38 IP wives, sponsored by F-1 section of Class 68-C.

The F Flight IP wives entertained the wives of Class 68-H F-1 at a get-acquainted coffee Monday at the home of Mrs. B. D. Taylor.

Mrs. L. R. Redenbacher was hostess at a salad luncheon at her home recently. All the wives in K Flight assembled to bid farewell to Mrs. Ted Hascall.

Several members of the 3561st PTS traveled to San Antonio last week to participate in the Air Training Command Softball Tournament. There to cheer their player husbands were Mrs. Ron Bouldin, Mrs. John O'Donnell and Mrs. John Thomason.

NEW DAUGHTER

Capt. and Mrs. Howard Churchill are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Lisa Kay. Capt. Churchill, the former Webb Commissary Officer, is presently attending AFIT in Dayton, Ohio.

Mrs. Gary Norrith was hostess at a style show Thursday evening. Models were three of the wives of Class 68-E, Mrs. Evan Loose, Mrs. Henry Carlington and Mrs. Bill Martin.

Maj. and Mrs. S. G. Flowers had as house guests her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Witsell and children of Denver, Colo.

Mrs. Roger Belya and daughter of Los Angeles, Calif., are enjoying a visit with Maj. and Mrs. Ken Officer.

Capt. and Mrs. John Wilcox have returned from a trip to Ouray, Colo., where they enjoyed a week of horseback riding and hiking in the mountains.

K Flight hosted a farewell party Friday at the pavilion in honor of Maj. and Mrs. Ted Hascall, Capt. and Mrs. L. R. Redenbacher and Lt. and Mrs. James R. Spurger. Maj. Hascall has been assigned to Southeast Asia; Capt. Redenbacher has been transferred to Stan - Eval here at Webb, and the Spurgers are heading for Randolph AFB in San Antonio.

Mrs. Charles Anderson, OWC publicity chairman, announces that, due to difficulties with the duplicating machine, the "Prairie Co-Pilot" will not be published this month.

Since this is the Labor Day weekend, please phone in your news items to Mrs. William Hoadley, 263-4191, on Tuesday morning.

MRS. CLINTON AVERY MILLER (Curley's Studio)

Miss Long Marries Clinton Avery Miller

STANTON — A double ring ceremony united in marriage Miss Phyllis Ann Long and Clinton Avery Miller Saturday evening at the First Baptist Church with the Rev. W. H. Uhlman officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Long are parents of the bride.

Tree candelabra, entwined with emerald greenery and baskets of lime green gladioli decorated the altar. The prayer bench was covered with white satin and family pews were marked with satin bows.

Miss Melrae Angel was organist and accompanied Miss Kay Bryan who sang "The Twelfth of Never," "I Love You Truly" and "The Wedding Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Long wore a gown fashioned of organza and Alencon lace and designed with portrait neckline and short sleeves that were banded in lace. The fitted bodice was emphasized with a midriff of the lace applique and frosted seed pearls. The slim A-line skirt was banded in garlands of lace and accented by a fan-shaped train that repeated the lace motif. Her tiered veil of illusion was held by a matching coil hat.

The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white glameillas centered with a white orchid with streamers of picot satin tied with lover's knots.

Miss Becky Sue Long served as her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. Buddy Wilkins of Lubbock was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Barber Supulver, Fort Worth; Miss Toni Epps, Borger; and Mrs. Billy Cox, Dallas. The attendant's dresses were of lime chiffon with matching satin sashes. The Empire bodice featured a gently-scooped neckline with lantern sleeves of tiny accordion pleats. They wore matching coil veils and carried cascade bouquets of white gladioli tied with lime streamers.

Virgil Miller of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., served as his brother's best man, and Billy Cox, Dallas; Buddy Wilkins,

Installation Held By Rebekahs

The John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge No. 153 met Tuesday at the IOOF Hall to hold a candle-light installation for Snyder Rebekah Lodge No. 294. Mrs. Vera Jo Ballard was initiated into the Snyder lodge.

Mrs. LaVerne Rogers, district president, presented certificates of perfection to Mrs. H. F. Jarrett and Mrs. Everett Hood, and the 38 attending reported 24 visits made during the past week.

Members and five guests from Snyder were served refreshments from a table covered with a bronze cloth overlaid with lace. The centerpiece was of bronze dahlias.

The next meeting will be at 8 p.m., Sept. 5.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Better make the best of this Labor Day holiday... it's the last one until Thanksgiving. Everything is beginning to get in action for fall. School starts, women will begin their club activities, and the fund-raising group will go into high gear. Make the most of the day by resting up for the one that is to follow... it's just bound to be busy.

A group that has been spending the Labor Day weekend in Ruidoso, N.M., for a number of years will return tomorrow afternoon after being in the mountains since Thursday. On the trip this year were MR. and MRS. T. H. McMANN, MR. and MRS. J. O. HAGOOD, MR. and MRS. BOB BRADBURY, MR. and MRS. BLEDSOE O'BRIEN, and MR. and MRS. ROY BROWN of Andrews.

MR. and MRS. ED SPALTEN have returned to their home in Houston after being attendants in the wedding of her sister, Mrs. Helen Deats, and R. E. Blount of Austin, on Tuesday.

The visiting places of the GLEN SMITHS have suddenly gotten farther away. Last Sunday the Smiths were in Dallas to see their son, Jimmy, and his wife before their departure for Columbus, Ohio, where they both will study at Ohio State University. Jimmy will complete work on his doctorate in sociology and his wife will begin work on a doctorate. Jimmy has been research consultant at Timberlawn Mental Foundation in Dallas and Mrs. Smith is research technician for Southwestern Medical School.

MRS. IRMA HARRISON was in town looking for a hat to wear with a pretty green knit suit which was lost for four months on the way to the states from Tripoli. JOHNNY HARRISON had bought the suit for his mother and was bringing it home to her but his luggage didn't make the trip with him. For four months it was between here and there and finally showed up in Dallas.

Forty-eight descendants of the late MR. and MRS. ROBERT A. FULLER gathered last weekend in Lubbock for a reunion. The out-of-town members were housed at the Villa Inn Motel. Robert P. Fuller hosted the affair and entertained with an informal dinner Friday at his home. Saturday the group was hosted by William Gordon at a luncheon in the Matador Room of Furr's Cafeteria. A family portrait was taken Saturday evening at the Robert Fuller home when he gave a formal affair for the group.

Prior to their departure Sunday the group planned for another reunion in 1970 and had an election of officers. Attending from Big Spring were Mr. and Mrs. William G. Fuller, and their daughters, Lynda and Sabra. Mrs. Theo Covert, Mrs. Janelle Awtry and her daughters, Debra and Kathy.

The Robert A. Fullers were the parents of eight children and reared three children of relatives.

MRS. T. G. ADAMS has returned from a trip that took her to Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi for visits with relatives. Her sister, MRS. WILLIE RUNYAN of Eldorado, Ark., accompanied her home for a visit.

Bride-Elect Honored At Gift Party

Friends from high school days honored Miss Gloria Coker Thursday night with a lingerie shower at the home of Mrs. Fred Overton, 2719 Central.

Miss Coker will be married to Paul Petterson on Sept. 16 in the First Baptist Church.

Hostesses with Mrs. Overton were Mrs. Dude Cluck, Mrs. Larry Knight, Mrs. James Drake, Mrs. Mike Moore, Mrs. Rodney Brooks and Mrs. Rick Terry.

The refreshment table was arranged with a centerpiece that featured the bride's chosen colors of green, yellow and orange. Crystal appointments were used.

The gift to Miss Coker from the hostesses was a lingerie ensemble.

Twenty-five were included on the guest list.

ALL THE COMMUNITY WILL TAKE A PART

Webb AFB Prepared For Celebration

Webb Air Force Base is all set for a major celebration this weekend. And it's a party in which all the community will be taking part.

Occasion is the 25th anniversary of an air training installation in Big Spring, going back to the creation of the Big Spring Bombardier School in September, 1942. That school was closed out in 1946, but the flying training facility came into being in 1952.

SPECIAL EVENTS
A number of special events are on schedule, many of them — on Saturday — open to the public.

The anniversary program opens Friday evening with a dining-in affair for Class 68-B, which is graduating. The guest speaker will be Lt. Gen. Fred M. Dean, deputy commander of the U.S. Strike Command and senior among those who have been former wing commanders at Webb.

Along with Gen. Dean, a number of other former commanders plan to be here for the celebration. Saturday morning, these will join Lt. Gen. Sam Maddux Jr., commander of the Air Training Command, in a special review. Students of the graduating class will receive their wings, and then the wing will pass in review.

Following the parade, there will be fly-bys of T-37 jet trainers, T-38 Talons and F-104 Starfighters.

WWII PLANES
The modern-day jets will be followed by an aerial demonstration of World War II aircraft, being assembled here under sponsorship of the Confederate Air Force. To be seen will be the P-38 Lightning, P-51 Mustang, B-26 Marauder, AT-6 trainer and the FM-2 Wildcat.

During the day Saturday, all aircraft will be parked for public viewing. Other aircraft to be in the static display include A-1E Skyraider, AC-47 Dragonship, F-4C Phantom, F-100 Super Sabre, F-105 Thunderchief, T-33 Shooting Star, C-130 Hercules.

Following the morning formalities, some 300 Webb officers and enlisted men will be guests at a luncheon at the Cosden Country Club, at which Big Spring business men will be hosts. Honor guests at this affair will be Gen. Maddux, Gen. Dean and other former wing commanders who have served here.

In the afternoon, the Mesquite

Sports Car Club will sponsor a gymkhana on the Base, starting at 2 p.m.

RECEPTION

At 7 p.m. Saturday, the commander's reception for Class 68-B will be held at the Officers Club, and this is to be followed by a military ball, to be held in Hangar T-75. Some 600 people have been invited to this latter affair. There will also be a 25th anniversary dance at the NCO Open Mess Saturday night.

A feature of the program will be the appearance of the novel Air Force Pipe Band, a colorful organization which will give a program at the dining-in, be seen at the Saturday morning review, and give another presentation at the Saturday night ball.

Project officer for the celebration is Lt. Col. James J. Rouch, who said "we regard this as a community venture in the truest sense. We want everyone in Big Spring and surrounding communities to have a part in this affair."

DIRECTION
Col. Rouch has been joined in general direction of the affair by Marvin M. Miller, who heads the public relations - hospitality committee of the Base Community Council. Miller has represented the Council, the Chamber of Commerce and the civilian community in general in planning the birthday party.

MARVIN M. MILLER

Statewide Realtor Meet Scheduled Here This Week

Big Spring will be host to a statewide meeting of Realtors for the first time, on Friday and Saturday of this week. It will be the fall meeting of the board of directors of the Texas Real Estate Association.

Over 150 Realtors and their wives are expected for the session, which will have headquarters at the Ramada Inn. Business meetings will be held at the Big Spring Country Club, with social affairs both there and at the Cosden Country Club.

The Big Spring Board of Realtors is host group for the meeting. Harold Talbot is president and Jeff Brown is in charge of convention arrangements. The Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors Club members will act as official greeters and be available for hospitality courtesies.

Pleas A. Naylor Jr. of San Antonio is 1967 president of TREA, and will be in charge of sessions. Big Spring is in the Association's Region IV, and Dennis Wagner is currently vice president for the region. Louis Rochester of Odessa has been elected to succeed Wagner next January.

Registration is scheduled for Friday morning at the Ramada Inn. That afternoon, all TREA committees will be in separate sessions to prepare final reports. Friday evening there will be a barbecue for all delegates and guests at the Cosden Country Club, the meal being provided by the Odessa - Chuck Wagon Gang. A humorous talk is to be given by C. C. "Mitch" Michel of Odessa.

Business sessions start Saturday morning at the Big Spring Country Club. Highlights include a discussion of newest concepts in the Multiple Listing Service, and a session of the TREA executive committee. Following luncheon at the club, there will be a 2 p.m. meeting of all directors.

The gathering closes Saturday night with a reception, dinner and dance at the Big Spring Country Club, with music by the Bob Lee orchestra.

Maj. Devlin Goes To Korea

Maj. James G. Devlin, commander of the 205th Communications Squadron and wing communications and electronics officer, will leave Webb Sept. 15 to join the 2146th Communications Group in Osan, Korea.

Maj. Devlin came to Webb in April, 1965, as flight facilities officer and served in that position until he became squadron commander in June of this year.

His trip to Korea will be a B-26 navigator on 41 combat missions in 1953. His service career began with the Army Air Corps in 1943. He received his navigator wings in 1945.

He was recalled to active duty in 1952 and subsequently completed 5,900 flying hours over all parts of the world. In 1964 he navigated a trip around the world. In 1962 he won his navigator's wings.

Maj. Devlin's home town is Mt. Vernon, N.Y. While he is in Korea his wife and four of his five children will stay in West Point, N.Y.

Long Labor Day Holiday Event

Big Spring's observance of the long week-end Labor Day holiday began to make itself evident Saturday and will prevail through Monday.

Public and private offices and agencies, financial institutions, governmental agencies in general, and even Webb AFB, will be at a near standstill today and tomorrow as the community joins the nation at large in the celebration of Labor Day.

Most retail stores and shops will present closed doors to customers Monday. Hundreds of Big Springers are on the roads and highways to other cities. Fishing places and resort areas are expected to teem with visitors eager to get in a full holiday on the last weekend before the fall school operations get into full swing.

Some business establishments in the city, as usual, will be open, but across the board, and particularly in the downtown area, most of the stores are to be shut down for the day.

The courthouse will be closed with only the sheriff's office functioning. Lee Porter, county judge, said that the county commissioners court, which normally meets on Monday, will not be in session and added it is unlikely a meeting will be held later in the week.

The city hall is observing the holiday. Only the fire and police departments are in operation. As might be expected, holidays such as the Labor Day event, builds up the pressure on the agencies which are charged with controlling fires, regulating traffic, and coping with crime.

Hospitals, too, will be on full duty. The long holidays are unhappily noted for their mishaps and the hospitals have to be prepared for any development.

The highway patrol was on a "death watch" schedule, which means that they are patrolling the roads with even more than their usual vigilance in an effort to reduce the possibilities of mishap.

Webb AFB training operations are to be halted for the day and the students and instructors will enjoy a brief respite from their daily grinds. Units of airmen to keep the base operations functioning are on duty, but the general trend at the base will be that of relaxed inactivity.

Pleads Guilty

Raymond Puga Nunez, under indictment for burglary, entered a plea of guilty in 118th District Court, last week. He was sentenced to three years in prison and the sentence probated on good behavior. Judge Ralph Caton pronounced sentence.

Wildlife Sanctuaries Are Quiet Places Of Refuge

By ED SYERS

You asked about wildlife sanctuaries, places of quiet beauty for looking, hiking, thinking, and San Antonio's Robert Duncan — "a Texas tourist for over 30 years and a bird-watcher for most of that" — has a favorite list, marked (S) State, (F) Federal.

(1) Anahuac National Wild Life Refuge, east of Galveston Bay (F); (2) all of Galveston Island; (3) Freepoint area, where a 15-mile circle produced 190 bird species in December. Of 816 counts in U.S. and Canada, this was third largest.

(4) Aransas National Wild Life Refuge (F); via Austwell by car, Lamar by boat. In winter, see as many as 30 whooping cranes close as 150 feet to your boat. (5) Rockport area: mecca of bird-watchers, worldwide — over 400 species have been listed here.

(6) Valley area: Birds found nowhere else in U.S.; many Mexican birds reach the northern limit of their range: Green King Flycatcher... all spectacular, easy to recognize. Santa Ana Refuge (F), southeast of Pharr; Bentsen State Park (S) at Mission; Laguna Atascosa, east of San Benito are accessible. Laguna produced the highest one day count of birds ever made in the U.S.

MORE BIRD AREAS
(7) San Antonio — Five different habitats in a 25 mile radius. All Hill Country rivers are interesting. I've listed 173 species in one small area on the Medina near Castroville. Highway 16 to Freer: hawk country in the winter and Western birds beyond its line.

(8) Alpine area: Big Bend to New Mexico line. Many western species — Band-Tailed Pigeon, Golden Eagle, Western and Mountain blue birds, Nuthatches, Bushitts... Here Duncan pauses. "I see El Paso next on the map. I haven't mentioned the Big Thicket or the College Station area, or Muleshoe Refuge (F) or Palo Duro Canyon (S) or the Cottonwood groves from Memphis to Canadian, where one may see the beautiful Mississippi Kite, Western Kingbird and ring necked pheasants..."

PULPIT IN THE DESERT
El Paso's Mrs. L. E. McGehee: "Have you heard about a pulpit in the desert? My husband and I had seen it seven years ago, couldn't find it again until last week. From El Paso, take Int. 10 to Fabens cutoff, turn left. Follow a paved road six and one-half miles. The pulpit is on top of a little mesa. There is an old log cross, a rock pulpit, rock seat.

"We have found no one who knows about it or why it is there."

Anthony, New Mexico's Jack Wareing found, years ago, a JH branding iron, asked whose. We drew a longtime blank. Now, hear from James E. Hatcher, R.R. 1, Jiamsville, Md.: "It is possible you refer to my old brand registered in New Mexico some 50-55 years ago when I was domiciled on the staked plains near Monument, N.M. My brand was Half Circle JH. This brings back memories. Please let me know more." (Note: When you two have compared notes, let the rest of us know, will you?)

AND SPECIAL STAR
For her Hood County Historical Society, Granbury's Mrs. Colette B. Thomas hunted two old, long-faded race tracks in that area, and the origin of a big, oaktree - tin star that named 'Star Holler' pasture, nearby. Both tracks raced fine stock before century turn. The star came from a 1910

Lt. Winter Transferred

1st Lt. James W. Winter, who has served as chief of Webb's Transportation Division for the past year, leaves Webb soon for an assignment in Southeast Asia. He will serve with the 8th Aerial Port Squadron. He will be succeeded by 2nd Lt. Emmet Lung, vehicle maintenance officer, pending the arrival in October of a captain who will become transportation chief.

Lt. Winter came to Webb in November, 1965, from Williams AFB, Ariz. In addition to supervision of the vehicle maintenance branch, traffic management branch, and vehicle operations branch, Lt. Winter has, during his tenure, added a fire department section for service to base fire protection equipment.

In addition to his official duties, the lieutenant has worked with the local Jaycees. He has served as secretary for the group during the current year, and is resigning that post before he leaves Webb. He married the former Rachael Fuller and they have one daughter, Sarah Katherine, 3.

The Evolution of Pharmacy
By Bill R. Spaul, R. Ph.

Gibson Discount Pharmacy, 2303 Gregg, 267-8264

One of the first real apothecary methods on record, in terms of preparing medicines, were from translated Babylonian texts. A poultice was one of the first forms of medication. It was prescribed to be made with rotten grain and water. The patient was then ordered to sit on this prescription in order to relieve pains of muscles and joints—probably from rheumatism.

A poultice remedy for fever, was to be applied to the head and bandaged for three days. Drive with care over the Labor Day weekend and remember the school crossings, now that summer is officially behind us.

Take care over the holidays and for your prescription needs always remember...

Elephants A-Coming!

That favorite of circus goers — the trained elephant act — is among the features of the annual Shrine Circus to be presented in Big Spring Sept. 11. This is a picture of Johnnie Cline's elephants in action, as they perform several feats to delight youngsters and oldsters alike. The Shrine Circus will be at the rodeo bowl, with performances at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. Advance tickets, at reduced prices, are now on sale at a number of business establishments in the city.

Thriller Was Filmed In Hong Kong

Hong Kong, melting pot for the peoples of the world, often referred to as the Orient's colorful International City, formed the exciting and glamorous background for "The 1,000,000 Eyes of Su-Muru," which began an engagement at the Jet Theatre on Wednesday.

For two months, color and Techniscope cameras prowled the famed waterfront and mysterious backstreets of the unique city with the action and intrigue dominant in the story of "The 1,000,000 Eyes of Su-Muru," which stars Frankie Avalon, George Nader, Shirley Eaton, Wilfrid Hyde-White, Klaus Kinski.

But even in the multi-faceted, ever-changing city of Hong Kong, the talk from the great city on the hill to Macao and Kowloon concerned the unusual international cast of world beauties which formed the entourage of the beautiful Su-Muru, an irresistible dark siren, portrayed by Shirley Eaton, who in the film, sets out to rule the world.

As Su-Muru's slaves, the film assembled the most gorgeous cross-section of feminine glamour ever gathered together in a single locale. Each came from practically every major city in the world.

The romantic city of Vienna was represented by Marie Rohm, an exciting blonde who was a full-fledged member of Su-Muru's top guard and became cinematically linked with actor Nader.

From Rome came Krista Nell, truly a Roman beauty who in recent years has been considered one of the Continental cinema's big discoveries. She frequently works in French and German studios in addition to her native Italy.

'AFRICA, TEXAS STYLE'
Hugh O'Brien tackles rhino

Thrilling Rhino Chase Depicted In Ritz Film

In a picture crowded with thrills, there is one sequence in "Africa - Texas Style!" the release in color opening Thursday at the Ritz Theatre, calculated to keep any audience on the edge of its seat.

The scene involves a badly dazed and bedraggled Hugh O'Brien, a small African boy and an enormous angry rhino. It's a climactic moment in the picture. O'Brien, playing World Champion Cowboy Jim Sinclair, who's taken on the unusual assignment of roping and corraling the wild game of Africa, has just been thrown by his horse and has been wandering through the bush.

Search parties are sent looking for him, but before he can be rescued he is discovered by a huge and very angry rhino. However, rhinos are either notoriously slow studies, or they just don't read screenplays. And, as everyone knows, Ivan Tors demands realism.

In the interest of sparing his high-priced star a possible goring, Tors did suggest a double be used. But, O'Brien wouldn't hear of it. So, O'Brien and Charles Malinda (the boy) found themselves in a compound with the beast. They knew what they were supposed to do and they knew what the rhino was supposed to do. Only the rhino wasn't sure.

There was no trick photography. The camera crew was safely concealed above, well out of harm's way. The compound was surrounded by hunters with rifles, just in case. Without waiting for the shout "Action!", the rhino charged; first at O'Brien and then at the boy, each nimbly sidestepping nature's answer to the Sherman tank. At length, the scene was completed, without a shot having been fired from anything but a camera.

The tensions relaxed, and it was only then that the identity of the rhino, which had been caught especially for this scene, was revealed. He was a rogue beast who had been terrorizing the area for weeks. It took five days for the Tors unit to trap an animal the government of Kenya had had on the top of its ten most wanted list.

As a gesture of good will, Ivan Tors presented the animal to the Nairobi National Park, where he's currently at liberty. "Africa - Texas Style," which stars Hugh O'Brien, John Mills, Nigel Green, Tom Nardini, Adrienne Cori and Ronald Howard, was filmed entirely on location in Kenya, in color.

Cary Grant In Comedy

Cary Grant, lean, vital and as handsome as ever, remains at the peak of Hollywood stardom. He averages one picture yearly, the latest being "Walk, Don't Run," sophisticated comedy with a background of the Olympic Games in Tokyo. The release in Panavision and Technicolor, is now at the Jet Theatre with Samantha Eggar and Jim Hutton.

Grant has become something of a Hollywood legend who typifies everything that is sleek and sophisticated. Although witty, wordily and giving every appearance of being outgoing in the extreme, he prefers to be almost anonymous except when before the cameras. He avoids parties and crowds.

Along with his acting, Grant heads Granley, his own independent company which is presenting "Walk, Don't Run." "I like being involved with every phase of film making," the star declared.

Yes, he prefers comedy to drama. "I get a greater kick out of hearing the rewarding audience laughter to comedy than feeling the absorbed silence that greets dramatic playing. What would really be devastating, would be to have this same silence greet a comedy performance. It's what every comedy actor dreams — that he'll fall flat on his face."

Don't Make Waves Opening At Ritz

No one can say that Tony Curtis and Sharon Tate didn't earn their money in "Don't Make Waves." In one of the film's exciting sequences, a free-fall parachute jump into a swimming pool, they clung to the outside of a plane suspended high in the air by a crane and fearlessly dropped into the water.

Involved in the technical aspects of the sky-diving scene were Leigh Hunt, who has made more than 900 sky-dives, and his team of free-fall parachutists. It was photographed by Doyle Fields, also a veteran sky-diver, who wore a 33mm camera attached to his helmet, with additional special shots made by helicopter photographer Nelson Tyler.

The plot of "Don't Make Waves" called for Curtis, as a promoter of swimming pools, to create the parachute stunt as a publicity-getter, and in the film he gives a press party poolside on a bluff overlooking the Pacific Ocean at Malibu. A stickler for authenticity, the picture's director decided he would have "real press" and invited twelve members of the Hollywood press corps to turn actors.

After being cleared with the Screen Actors Guild on waivers, those who donned greasepaint for two days of filming included Hearst columnist Dorothy Manners, Sidney Skolsky of the New York Post Syndicate, Vernon Scott and photographer Charles Heckman of United Press International, Bill Kennedy of the Los Angeles Examiner, columnist Norma Lee Browning and photographer Louis Wolf of the Chicago Tribune. Bill O'Halloran of CBS, Paul Condylis of KABC, Citizen News drama editor Abe Greenberg, Barney Glazer of 20th Century News Syndicate and magazine writer Bob Wenler. Together with Curtis and Miss Tate, "Don't Make Waves" stars Claudia Cardinale, Robert Webber, Joanna Barnes, David Draper ("Mr. Universe"), Edgar Bergen and Mort Sahl.

Scurry County Art Show Dates, Plans Announced

SNYDER — Scurry County's new coliseum will be the site of the Diamond M Foundation Amateur Art Show, and two well-known artists will serve as jurors. The show, open to amateur artists within a 100-mile radius of Snyder, is set for Oct. 22-29.

Peter Hurd, noted artist of San Patricio, N.M., and Emily Guthrie Smith, outstanding portrait artist of Fort Worth, will be the jurors.

All amateur artists 18 years of age or over are invited to participate. The art committee has defined an amateur artist as one who does not hold the position of professor, is not employed as an illustrator, and has no steady income from art work.

Entry fee will be $2 per picture, with a limit of four pictures per person. All entries must be delivered to the Scurry County Coliseum between 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. Oct. 19. No crates will be accepted.

The show will be open to the public Oct. 22-29, from 1:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. daily. Awards will be presented at 3 p.m. Oct. 22. All paintings must be framed and ready for hanging, with no nails, strings or wet paint permitted. Each entry should have an entry blank attached to the back of the painting listing the artist's name, address, division and the price. All work must have been completed within the past two years, and work which has won previous awards will not be accepted.

There will be three divisions — oils, watercolors and other media. Brochures for the show may be obtained by writing Rosalie McGlaun, committee chairman, 1200 25th Street, Snyder, or Liz Bell, Box 333, Snyder.

Sid Caesar Stars In Shock Feature

Humor and terror can be equally titillating, and at the moment, the emphasis seems to be shifting. "The Busy Body," in Technicolor, set Friday at the Ritz Theatre, stars Sid Caesar as a mobster who thinks he's moving upward in the crime syndicate, only to find himself confronted with an incredible series of grisly obstacles which threaten to cost him his life.

In another feature, "The Spirit Is Willing," Caesar plays a magazine editor who rents a haunted house as a vacation refuge.

Both pictures are calculated to keep you laughing and screaming, and in that order. "I'll stay in the shocker field as long as there's a market for it," he told an interviewer. "And I'm very happy in my little niche as the master of horror. It's given me an image. Almost everyone who meets me starts the conversation with 'Horror!' or some variation on it."

"But there's been a subtle shift in the market. Certainly my pictures have youthful appeal, but adults have always bought them. Now, the market seems to be getting more adult, so things I may have gotten away with in the past, I might have difficulty selling now. The answer is that the pictures have to become more sophisticated and what better way to achieve

Optometrists To Open New Offices Tuesday

Spanish furniture, a fenced garden and large picture windows... make a striking and unusual optometrist's office.

The doctors, who plan to move into their new offices Sept. 5, presently have offices in College Park Shopping Center.

NEED SPACE

"We have really needed the additional space for some time," said Dr. Smith. "When we move into the new building, we won't have to keep all our equipment so crowded, and we will be able to give our patrons better and more personal service."

Aided by their assistant, Winnie Hardegree, the doctors will be able to improve and expand their facilities.

One of the new features in the recently constructed clinic is a special children's developmental examination and training room. This area will be designed for treatment and analysis of visual perception disabilities of children.

In order to work with children, such equipment as chalk boards, puzzles and different types of games are used.

OFFICE AREA

Included in the 2,300 square feet of office area, is space for a reception area, bookkeeping space, frame dispensing center, contact lens fitting area, lens laboratory, two visual analysis rooms, visual fields, testing area, and two consultation offices.

"Another reason we built a new clinic is that sometime in the future we hope to add a third and fourth optometrist to our staff," Dr. Smith said.

"If we can develop a group practice we will be able to specialize in specific problem areas," Smith continued. "These will be such areas as children's developmental vision, reading training, orthoptic training, and occupational vision aids."

Dr. Smith explained that because each man would be a specialist in a different field of optometry, each patient would have access to a doctor who could deal expertly with the patient's individual need.

BIGGER BUILDING
Drs. Marshall Cauley and Harold G. Smith (right)

The office was designed and decorated by Gary and Hohertz, architects.

The exterior of the clinic is Spanish style face brick with rough sawed cedar trim. The waiting room is decorated in brown, orange, and gold Spanish decor.

All rooms contain fading lights that can be brightened or dimmed according to the doctor's needs.

Drs. Cauley and Smith have been in partnership practice for the past five years. Dr. Cauley did undergraduate work at Texas Tech. Dr. Smith took his optometric education at Hardin-Simmons University, and the University of Houston. Both doctors received their doctor of optometry degree at Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, Tenn.

Both are members of the Texas Optometric Association, the American Optometric Association, and Optometric Extension Program.

Dear Abby

A Price For Security

DEAR ABBY: I am ashamed and miserable, but I must face the facts. I've done everything from crawl to fight to make my second marriage work, but our home life is a miserable existence, with constant quarreling and bedroom frigidity.

Any love, respect, companionship, and shared hobbies we once knew are long gone. We have no children and nothing in common except our home address and bank account.

The nerve-wrecking pretense to friends and relatives that our sick marriage is a success is becoming unbearable. I've thought of divorce, but this is a small town, and I dread the whispers that I have "failed" again.

My husband has made it plain that he doesn't love me, that I'm unable to earn my own living, and I am no longer young. Should I admit that this marriage is another failure and become a two-time loser? Or should I sacrifice my self-respect and resign myself to a loveless life of humiliation and hypocrisy for the sake of financial security?

DEAR ABBY: You don't say how long you've endured a "loveless life of constant quarreling and bedroom frigidity," but if you continue to put up with it, regardless of what you say, it is obvious that you have decided that the financial security is worth the price you are paying for it.

DEAR ABBY: Although I am only 21, and "young" in your eyes, I am a mature man, having lived fully and seen a great deal of the world. There is so much said about "sex" these days. Can you tell me what is wrong with sex for sex's sake if I do not harm anyone?

DEAR MATURE: The answer is obvious. It harms YOU. Promiscuous sex will gradually transform you into a selfish, pleasure-seeking creature, incapable of loyalty or of loving another.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is getting married in a few months, and my husband and I offered to pay for the flowers in the bridal procession and for the liquor for the wedding.

I understand that according to etiquette, the names of the groom's parents are not included on the invitations. I feel that since our son has parents (thank God), after his name name should be, "the son of Mr. and Mrs. So and So."

Many of my husband's business associates will be invited, and they don't know our son, and have never even heard of the girl or her parents, but they do know us.

Don't you think the bride's parents should exercise some common sense and ask the printer to use the names of the groom's parents as well as the bride's? I believe this should be done whether the groom's parents pay anything toward the wedding or not. Please answer in the paper and sign me. UPSET

DEAR UPSET: I agree, it would help to identify the groom if his parents' names were included on the invitation. But if one wants to go "by the book," only the names of the bride's parents are used. I am informed, however, that only about three or four out of 500 requests do include the groom's parents' names.

Hostesses To Wear Throwaway Minis?

LONDON (AP) — BOAC hostesses on Caribbean flights will be wearing throwaway minis beginning in October.

The short-sleeved shifts will be splashed with purple and cerise flowers and will be discarded after wearing.

A spokesman for the British Overseas Airways Corp. said economy was the chief reason for the paper uniform.

"Besides, if hems go any higher they can always take them up with a pair of scissors," he added.
