YOUNG BRIDE HELD AT GUNPOINT BY DISAPPOINTED SUITOR

Youth Kills Self, Wounds His Hostage

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A disappointed suitor shot himself to death today after wounding a young bride he held captive at gunpoint over the weekend in his third-floor suburban apartment, police said.

DEAD

Robert Batch, 23, was dead on arrival at Doctors Hospital, a bullet wound in his heart.

Lida Caldwell, 19, was wounded in the chest and taken to surgery where doctors reported her in reasonably good condition. University Heights Police Sgt.

Chris Schoupt said Batch's mother, Martha Smith of Johnstown, Pa., talked to the boy from his kitchen and told him she loved him and would protect him.

"We heard two shots and we rushed in," Schoupt said.

Cleveland detective Capt. Patrick L. Garrity said when he entered the bedroom, the girl was still standing, although wounded.

GUN IN HAND

Garrity said Batch was lying on the floor, the gun in his hand.

Both Batch and Mrs. Caldwell were carried from the home on stretchers.

Police said Batch had refused to talk to his mother.

"Go away and leave us alone," Mrs. Caldwell said from the bedroom before the shooting.

Batch had held the woman captive at gunpoint since Saturday night.

Mrs. Smith had flown to Cleveland from her home in Johnstown, Pa., to try to reason with her son. She arrived less than an hour before the shooting.

Batch had warned he would shoot Mrs. Caldwell and himself if anyone intervened. Earlier, he used the woman as a shield and drove police into a stairway with a volley of shots.

No one was hit.

SHOOTING

"He came out shooting," said Irving Konigsberg, mayor of University Heights. "We can't get at him."

Konigsberg said police were in the suburban University Heights apartment trying to talk Batch into freeing the girl when he came out of the bedroom with a pistol pointed at her neck.

Police had not talked to the girl since five shots were fired about dawn. Earlier, Batch fired three shots and one knocked out a searchlight set up outside the house.

About 50 officers were outside the house. Some were armed with tear gas and shotguns, but no attempt was made to fire the gas or rush the apartment.

Police had blocked off the street in the fashionable suburb.

An elementary school across the street was closed for the day.

HUSBAND

Police said Batch took Lida to his apartment after shooting her husband, Charles, 18, in the face at their home Saturday afternoon. They had been married on Friday.

Caldwell was reported in fair condition in a hospital.

Police said Batch and Mrs. Caldwell had been in Batch's flat since at least Sunday morning and possibly since some time Saturday.

PROF. HANS A. BETHE Wins Nobel Award

PHYSICS

Cornell Prof Nobel Winner

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—The Swedish Academy of Science today awarded the Nobel Prize in physics to Prof. Hans A. Bethe of Cornell University and the chemistry prize jointly to Britons George Porter and Ronald George Wreyford Norrish and German Manfred Eigen.

Bethe was awarded the prize in physics for his contributions to the theory of nuclear reactions and especially his discoveries concerning the energy production in stars.

The British-German trio was awarded the prize for "their studies of extremely fast chemical reactions, effected by disturbing the equilibrium by means of very short pulses of energy," the academy's citation said.

Porter is attached to the Royal Institution in London and his British colleague lives in Cambridge. Eigen works at the Max Plank Institute of Goettingen.

Eigen receives one half of the $62,000 prize while the two Britons share the other half.

Bethe, 61, was born in Alsace while it was German territory and started his academic career in Germany. Forced to leave when Hitler came to power, he spent two years in England and went to Cornell, in Ithaca, N. Y., in 1935.

Since 1937 he has held the chair of theoretical physics at Cornell.

The physics prize is the third of the 1967 Nobel awards to be announced.

Still to be awarded is the 1967 Nobel Peace Prize, scheduled to be announced in Oslo, Norway, before Nov. 15, but there has been speculation that this will not be awarded this year.

Each prize this year is 320,000 crowns, or $62,000.

Storm Kills 2

GULFPORT, Miss. (AP) — High winds from either a tornado or waterspout smashed viciously into this Gulf Coast city today, killing at least two persons and injuring scores of others.

The Mississippi Highway Patrol unit at Gulfport reported the two fatalities and said some other people were missing.

The U.S. Weather Bureau said the rain is continuing.

Witnesses said that one restaurant and a group of motels in a beach area were flattened. Many mobile homes were toppled, some with occupants still inside.

Newsmen at a hospital counted between 15 and 20 injured, although emergency rooms were jammed.

Heavy Rains

By The Associated Press

Downpours of more than six inches swamped vast sections of North and East Texas today as a blustery cold front sped southward, setting off winds of near hurricane force on the Middle Coast.

The Weather Bureau issued a flash flood warning for Chambers and Richland creeks and the East Fork of the Trinity River.

The massive frontal system left some snow and freezing temperatures in the Panhandle and forced winds of 72 miles an hour at Aransas Pass of the Gulf.

At least two tornadoes boomed out of the turbulence late Sunday but damage was minor and no injuries were reported.

Corsicana received the heaviest rainfall — 6.50 inches — Sunday night and this morning. Streets were flooded for a time and stiff winds tossed some buildings around and felled utility poles. Power failed in some sections of the city. (See story on Page 1-B.)

Split Between Two Proposals

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The 10 nonpermanent members of the U.N. Security Council, split between two proposals, tried today to agree on a plan the council could adopt to send a peacemaker to the Arab and Israeli.

One major difference was over wording of instructions to the proposed U.N. special representative concerning withdrawal of Israeli troops from captured Arab lands.

A Canadian-Danish draft said no state in the area should "persist in refusing to withdraw" troops that are on another's territory against its will.

The Arabs want the date left in. The Israelis contend any withdrawal should be "to agreed and secure frontiers"—meaning borders negotiated before the withdrawal.

'Mr. Sam' Named Educator Of Year

Educator of the Year—a title reserved for the state's top leaders in the profession—came to Big Spring for the first time last weekend when superintendent S. M. "Sam" Anderson was named for the honor by Texas School Business magazine.

RELEASED

The announcement was released through the magazine while Anderson presided at a three-day convention in Houston of the state's largest educational group, the 118,000 member Texas State Teacher's Association.

Anderson was featured on the cover of the October issue of "Texas School Business." A four-page story of his impact on education, complete with pictures of Big Spring schools, appears inside.

Anderson has guided the Big Spring school system on a road of educational accomplishments, the magazine reported, beginning with a complete evaluation of the instructional program in 1958-59 while serving as assistant superintendent. Striving for "the best instructional program a community can offer," he has been prominent in attempts to improve and upgrade the quality of teacher and staff efficiency, to revise and update curriculum, to install system-wide guidance programs, and to add programs benefiting the slow learners, the mentally retarded and the physically handicapped.

FORERUNNER

A forerunner in applying and putting into action federally-funded projects, under his guidance the local district uses National Defense Education Agency grants in science, math, guidance and other related programs. Vocational Education, Adults Basic Education, Head Start.

(See EDUCATOR, P. 2-A, C. 1)

Campaign To Make Big Jump

The United Fund drive stayed at 62 per cent of its goal during the weekend, although $1,039.50 was reported in the employee division making the total $72,705.02.

The employee division is due to take a big jump, as two of the larger companies are nearing completion of their drive.

Clever Skit Turns Out To Be Murder

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP) — Gaily costumed guests at a Halloween party watched and laughed as a man burst into the midst of the throng early Sunday followed by a man with a gun. They thought the shooting was all a clever skit. Then they found the man was dead.

BLOOD

Police said Kenneth A. Lindstrand, 32, lay on the floor of the luxurious apartment for several minutes until one of the 50 guests noticed blood coming from his mouth.

One guest said later: "It looked to everyone like a skit. When the man fell down and was moving and mumbling on the floor we all thought, gee, this guy is really putting it on."

He said Lindstrand, a salesman, appeared at the private party in this Los Angeles suburb about 1 a.m. not in costume. He danced with a few of the guests, then left. A few minutes later he ran back into the room, followed by a stocky man carrying a gun.

"It looked like a toy," said another guest, Bruce Cane. "I saw the flashes."

There were two shots. One struck Lindstrand in the side, the other hit a wall.

The guests watched and laughed as Lindstrand writhed on the floor for several minutes while his assailant fled virtually unnoticed, according to a woman guest who would not identify herself.

DAZE

Cane's wife Gale said that as the guests waited for police "there was just quiet, shock and disbelief."

Detectives questioned all the guests, but said they had no clue to the identity of the killer.

Computers Hook Up 2 Satellites

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union said today it had successfully joined together in orbit two unmanned spacecraft—another first for Russian space scientists.

JOINED

Cosmos 186, launched Friday in what appeared to be a test of an unmanned spacecraft of the Soyuz type that carried a Soviet cosmonaut to his death last April, and Cosmos 188, launched today, joined in orbit, an official announcement said.

It termed the operation an "automatic docking" and said it had occurred at 12:20 p.m. Moscow time.

The announcement said the two satellites were coupled rigidly and were continuing the orbital flight with all systems and equipment functioning normally.

DOCKING

The United States has carried out successfully a docking by a manned satellite.

When Soyuz 1 went up last April, reports in Moscow said it was supposed to be joined by another craft. But something apparently went wrong before the final crash that killed cosmonaut Vladimir M. Komarov.

The docking operation was proved successful, the announcement indicated. It said computers helped to bring the two devices together.

They sent television pictures back to earth, the announcement said.

Infantry Wipes Out Cong Unit

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. infantrymen surprised a Viet Cong company near the Cambodian border today and it was all but wiped out by artillery, napalm and aerial bombs, a military spokesman reported.

80 KILLED

A spokesman for the 1st Infantry Division said it was believed 80 enemy troops were killed in the battle about 72 miles northwest of Saigon near where a furious 14-hour battle raged Sunday. U.S. losses were put at three dead and three wounded.

In the air war, U.S. fighter-bombers carried their furious campaign against the heartland of North Vietnam through its sixth straight day Sunday, battering targets near the chief port of Haiphong.

Racing against the approaching monsoons, Navy pilots hammered the Cat Bi MIG air base, the Chi Lai transshipment point, and a barge repair yard that was hit for the first time. All were within seven miles of the center of Haiphong.

BLANKET

A spokesman said the weather was beginning to close in over North Vietnam, which will provide a protective blanket, but Navy pilots were able to mount strikes along the coast.

North Vietnam claimed three U.S. planes were shot down, but the U.S. Command made no report of any losses. Since the heavy raids on the Hanoi-Haiphong area began last Tuesday, the U.S. Command has announced the loss of 15 planes and 16 fliers.

There was also no confirmation of a Hanoi claim that a B52 strategic bomber was shot down just north of the demilitarized zone Sunday.

First Freeze Is Predicted

A freeze tonight is a possibility, the U. S. Weather Bureau said in its forecast for today. The possible freeze posed the first frost warning of the current fall season.

The chill of Sunday night and Monday morning is to hold through today and intensify tonight. It will begin to warm up slightly Tuesday afternoon.

The winds of Sunday afternoon blew in a brisk series of light showers which provided up to a third of an inch and better of moisture in town. The rains were welcomed by homeowners who feel they will do much to help their lawns which have become dry as summer irrigation has dropped off.

The low reading for last night was a chilly 44, aggravated by a cold wind. Partly cloudy skies were in evidence.

The official rain report was .33 inch at the U. S. Experimental station, north of town.

HOUSEWIVES TURN INTO HAGS

Terrify Children For Charity

(AP WIREPHOTO)

House Haunting

The witch from Hansel and Gretel, complete with a phony hook nose and stage makeup, cavorts around her pot for stewing children in this year's edition of Bellevue's haunted house.

BELLEVUE, Wash. (AP) — Forty housewives in this plush Seattle suburb will band together in a broken-down shack this Halloween to terrify children in the name of charity.

SPOOF

It's an annual spoof on spoofs sponsored by the Overlake Service League, 500 women who have been using their wits to raise money for good causes since 1911.

In this case, the project involves turning housewives into hags, putting them in squalid houses and charging people 25 cents each to see them. Last year, 18,000 paid and the league raised $5,000 for impoverished families.

The project is billed as House Haunting, and after five seasons the ladies are getting proficient at it.

The first problem was to find a house with potential and no price tag. This year's seven-room specimen was donated by a Bellevue contractor who eventually will rip down the building.

For now, it's the women who have smashing ideas.

Armed with hammers, saws and crowbars, they have made a few basic modifications—like turning a second-story window into the front door. The stairway was built by another contractor.

General Chairman Dorothy

McCormick, with the help of a 13-woman committee, has done some frightful redecorating on the gloomy two-story structure.

Over-all ugliness was enhanced by covering walls and ceilings with black paper. The corners thrive with spiders and bats. Watched-up women double as child comforters when things get a bit too convincing.

Separate dramas unfold in each room. Hansel and Gretel are boiled in an upstairs bedroom and right next door, a witch doctor brews a tasty dish called people. Downstairs, the mad doctor performs a messy-ectomy on the dining room table and a fuzzy five-foot spider peers out of what might have been a closet.

DISTRACTIONS

Other distractions are the Pirate's Cave, the Witches of Oz and the Man of Oz. All are animated—either by women who work in two-hour shifts or by improvised power units.

The house is open daily during the week prior to Halloween night, capping one year of planning and a week of actual construction.

When it's over, the witches return home with a familiar problem—how to dress up their houses for Christmas.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Deeds often offend your efforts in almost anything that you wish to do. Emotional and confidence problems beset persons we meet today. Judging most of us to be a pretty testy humor. Therefore, self-control and kindness should be the order of the whole day.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Some trouble may come your way today, but have this in mind: You can ward off much of it by being careful. An older highwayman may take you to task in courtrooms but firm if you are in the right.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Stick to what is fitted and just and you find that all goes well with you, otherwise just the opposite results. A partner in a business venture may not write further, but be kind and all works out fine.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Taking risks where others are concerned is no good since they are in an irascible mood. You do not have the power of the planets with you right now. All-weather person probably, but you will have some wrong charges. Avoid him.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Show consideration for those who dwell under your roof and you straighten out some unpleasant conditions satisfactorily. Bad rid of whatever has caused trouble, less of happiness. Be firm, get king.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 23) Be the one to use care in driving and motion get where. Show consideration for partners. Look into repairs etc. — get what you have made any errors. Graduate. Show them with a particular.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23) Putting in economy measures is wise right now and results in your affairs being more successful. Get your bills paid. Don't be forced with them from whom you have to collect money. Be fair.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23) If you are not satisfied, you can certainly get into a state of anxiety, and accomplish very little. Do something to improve your appearance and you will find you. Then great others with a smile and all is fine.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21) Rather than feel dissatisfied, get out and see if you can't help others and you have target own worries. This is not a good day or evening for the romantic. Reaction should also be postponed until a better time.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Don't rely on backing from good friends today, since they have many problems of their own right now. Show clear of all who are disappointed and search a wise way. Stay with companions.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Be more conventional in the world of activity and don't try to force any issues. If you get into trouble, do whatever you have to do efficiently and drive for more good will with others. Then all is O.K.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) A change of attitude in a more up-to-date one is necessary if you are to make a success of that also you have in mind. Pickle through with your responsibilities and you find your position with others improves greatly. Be fair.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Ideal day to handle all obligations in a most practical and efficient way. Avoid quarrels. Be more realistic. Do not fall into a trap where your time is concerned. Be in looking for a way out.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow — If you are a parent or of those fascinating young people who will be hyperactive and work all kinds of devices and tricks to get their way, if you do not teach him, or her, early to be more responsible with parents. Teach to think before making promises to others that could lead to a fight, a bad answer or teacher's indignation here. Send to collect.

Teens Support Gls In Viet

WAKEFIELD, Mass. (AP) — A 13-year-old high school student who organized a patriotic rally that drew a police estimated 25,000 persons to the town common says he hopes it will touch off nationwide public demonstrations in support of American servicemen.

with boisterous cheers and chanting of patriotic slogans. Although Police Chief J. Merritt Wenzel's estimate of a 25,000 turnout was about one-fourth what Christopher had said he hoped for, the Wakefield High School senior termed the rally "a complete success" when he met with newsmen.

200 youths either burned their draft cards or turned the documents over to clergymen. Wakefield, a town of about 25,000 residents, is located about eight miles north of Boston.

Dr. Joseph Davis, Dade County (Miami) medical examiner, is making studies of stomach contents, meal leftovers and other specimens to determine if the parathion was swallowed or absorbed through the skin.

Johnson Rests At His Ranch

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — President Johnson was at his Hill Country ranch Monday after a weekend that encompassed a wild motorcade through the Mexican border city of Juarez and a quiet Sunday with the family.

Texan Rips Red Barges

SAIGON (AP) — Navy Lt. (JG) John D. Ward, 27, of Baytown, Tex., told today how he and other Navy fliers destroyed four cargo barges and damaged 10 others in a group of islands east of Haiphong, North Vietnam's main port.

Johnson and wife Lady Bird drove 15 miles from their home near Johnson City, some 75 miles northeast of here, to Sunday services at St. Barnabas Episcopal Church in Fredericksburg. The sermon, on the "new morality" was delivered by the Rev. Milton Brown, a private pilot who said he flew for Johnson several times during the 1960 campaign.

The Johnsons flew to their ranch from El Paso Saturday after joining Mexico's President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz to celebrate the settlement of the 100-year-old Chamizal border dispute.

TRUTH TEST

In a speech at Burlington, Vt., Romney told an audience of 1,500 Saturday night that Johnson's administration is "distorted and discredited at home and its lack of credibility at home is eroding America's credibility abroad."

These festivities included a drive by the two chief executives through downtown Juarez, across the Rio Grande from El Paso. Standing in an open car, they were showered with confetti, flowers and cries of "viva" by tens of thousands of Mexicans.

PERSONAL PAL

Meanwhile Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, who described Johnson as a "deep personal friend," nevertheless said he couldn't pledge right now to back Johnson for re-election.

As part of the Chamizal settlement, the United States turned over nearly 500 acres to Mexico, restoring land that the United States claimed during the Civil War when the boundary-marking Rio Grande changed course.

The Dornier Werke of Munich said the "Zenit" rocket it built with the Contraves Company of Zurich reached an altitude of 85 miles.

But Church, a persistent war critic, ruled out one GOP candidate. "I can tell you what I'd do if they nominated Nixon," Church said of the former Republican vice president. "He'd just get us in deeper."

Wallace blamed the nation's riots on Communists, anarchists and activists. "There are no underlying causes to burn down a

Houston Police Probe Robbery-Slaying Link

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Houston police say there may be a link between the Saturday robbery-slaying at the mansion of a wealthy oilman and similar robberies at Dallas and in Oklahoma. In all of the holdups, the victims were left handicapped. Investigators late Sunday said they were still without clues as to the identity or whereabouts of the lone gunman who shot and killed Franco Necci, 20, and then robbed Enrico di Portanova and two women guests and the di Portanova mansion. SLIM GUNMAN Necci, who immigrated to America only eight months ago and did not speak English, was slain by a tall, lean gunman believed to be in his late 20s or 30s. He was a stambander of di Portanova. The robber then terrorized di Portanova and the two women,

GUARANTEE

The series will sometimes cover many stories in one program and sometimes stick with one major theme. It will move into all sorts of area from culture to controversy, from the sober to the light. The programs will concentrate on the perspective of current events instead of trying for actual coverage—"The commercial networks handle that sort of thing admirably and we couldn't compete and we couldn't afford it," Westin said. "PBL" will lean heavily on experts in the academic field for interpretation and explanation. "There are people in colleges who have spent their entire lives studying one subject," Westin said. "Their analyses and insights should certainly be worth listening to."

He added: "I can guarantee there will be fresh ideas and exciting moments. And I can also guarantee that, since we are to be a live program, that there will be times when we fall flat on our faces. But we will get up and try something else."

ANTIWAR CRACKDOWN

He was interviewed in Portland, Ore., for the CBS television program "Face the Nation."

Gov. Ronald Reagan of California, suggested meanwhile a national law cracking down on anti-draft, antiwar demonstrators.

"There are plenty of laws to cover them if we were technically in a state of war," said Reagan. "Perhaps there would be a possibility of legislation to implement the same rules regarding giving aid and comfort to the enemy."

Reagan spoke to newsmen in Sacramento after returning home from a GOP fund-raising tour to the Midwest and South.

The three door sedan. This Volkswagen has a door on the left to let in the driver. (That's one.) A door on the right to let in the passengers. (That's two.) And a door in the back which is like the tailgate of a conventional wagon. (That's the third, and do you need any more than that?) To look at it, you'd swear our Squareback is a station wagon. But it really isn't. Why? Well for one thing it doesn't cost like one. For another, it doesn't park like one. If the Squareback is only six inches longer than the bug. But has three times the storage capacity. And since it's a Volkswagen you can be pretty sure it'll use about half as much gasoline as the average wagon. Our Squareback gets up to 27 miles per gallon. The El Paso Room of the Poco Loco Club was the setting for a Halloween dance and box supper held Saturday by Xi Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi. Husbands were guests, and guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Green of San Antonio.

Following the supper, the costumed participants paraded for judging. The prize for the most colorful costumes went to Mr.

and Mrs. Roy Granbery who were Spanish dancers, and the most original award was given to Mr. and Mrs. Truett Vines who came as Phyllis Diller and Bob Hope.

Card games and dancing composed the evening's entertainment.

Social hostesses were Mrs. Pete Shannon and Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Green.

Winds Lash Texas Towns

By The Associated Press

A blustery cold front stirred new weather violence in South Texas today with gale-force winds lashing southern sections and torrential rains continuing in several hundred miles behind the front.

The cold front brought Texas its most unsettled weather since Hurricane Beulah last month. The front dropped temperatures by 20-degree chunks as it moved.

The early-morning temperature range was enormous—from freezing in the Panhandle behind the front, to the 70s along the Gulf Coast to the fore.

TORNADO

A tornado was touched off Sunday at the Red River Army Depot near Texarkana in the northeast corner of the state. Officials reported damage to buildings and power lines.

Another tornado was reported on the Sea Isle section of Galveston Island far to the south of the front Sunday. One house was unroofed. There were no injuries.

Heavy rains fell in the Lower Rio Grande Valley early today.

SNOW THREAT

Waco had 1.18 inches in six hours Sunday night. Temperatures were forecast to skid to the 20s in the Panhandle tonight, with some snow possible in the mountain country along the Big Bend.

Rains continued in South Texas, where amounts up to four inches were reported Sunday afternoon and evening.

The weather was blamed for a part in five traffic deaths—two which came on a misty highway near Pecos Sunday and three in the rain near the southeast Texas town of Rye.

Winds gusting up to 50 miles an hour ripped a huge sign from its moorings and sent it smashing into a Dallas-bound Continental Trailways bus at the edge of San Marcos shortly before midnight. There were no injuries. Bus driver David Burnham of Dallas said he and his 13 passengers were showered with broken glass when the sign ripped loose and hit the front of the bus.

GALE FORCE

Heavy rain continued today along a line from Corpus Christi to Palacios to Rosenberg and north to Tyler. The cold front was moving at a 30-mile-an-hour clip and its winds continued to have gale-force punch in spots.

The first snow of the young winter season accompanied the front into the Panhandle Sunday. Small craft warnings were in effect for the Texas Coast.

Forecasters called for continued rain in South Texas through Monday night, with a clearing and cooling trend in the works for Tuesday.

Holdover rains from the front's passage continued early today across widely-separated sections of the state. Dallas and Fort Worth were on the southern edge of a shower system stretching into Oklahoma. More light rain pelted the Waco and Bryan area of Central Texas.

The heaviest official rainfall total for the 24 hours ending at 7 a.m. today was 2.07 inches at Waco. Some rain was reported at all but five of the Weather Bureau's 34 major reporting stations in the state.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from 32 degrees at Alpine and Dalhart to a high minimum of 62 at Brownsville. Alpine's 32 came after a daytime maximum of 78.

Other rainfall totals included Dallas 1.75; Tyler 1.69; College Station 1.52; Lufkin 1.14; Fort Worth 1.17 and Austin 1.10.

Minor Wrecks On Blotter

Six minor accidents were reported to police during the weekend and in two of them, one of the cars left the scene.

James William Lane, Webb AFB, and a car that left the scene were in collision in the 300 block of Abrams. Barbara Puckett Kelly, 1500 State Park Drive, was also in collision with a car that left the scene at the main gate of Webb AFB Saturday afternoon.

Johnny Nixon, Odessa, and Robert Stephen Bentley, Webb AFB, were in an accident at Fourth and Gregg. Cynthia Lee McCall, 12 April Lane, was in collision with a parked car at 6 April Lane Sunday afternoon.

Tom Traylor, 711 NW 5th, and Refugio Sanchez, 107 NE third, were involved in an accident at 700 NW 10th. Sunday evening John Morgan Hall, Stanton, and Travis Edward Hall, Coahoma, were in collision at Third and Gregg.

Humphrey Praises Vietnam Official For Speaking Out

SAIGON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey made a whirlwind visit to South Vietnam's embattled countryside today and praised a Vietnamese official who told him corruption is hurting one of the major government programs aimed at winning the war.

"Here's a man that can talk frankly and openly, which is exactly why Americans are here, so that the Vietnamese people can speak freely," said Humphrey of Maj. Nguyen Be, the commandant of the Revolutionary Development Training Center at the seaside resort city of Vung Tau.

SOLEMN PLEDGE

Humphrey stopped off at the center during a series of field trips that took him to see troops of the U.S. Riverine Force in the Mekong Delta and a model Vietnamese village.

The vice president arrived in Vietnam Sunday to represent President Johnson at the inauguration Tuesday of President-elect Nguyen Van Thieu.

Humphrey expressed confidence South Vietnam "will persevere in the face of aggression" and said he brought "a reaffirmation of the solemn pledge of American support for the Vietnamese people and their new government."

FREE SOCIETY

Maj. Be, a former Communist

'Viking' Author Dies

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Editor Marshall, author of "The Viking" and other historical novels, died Sunday after several years of declining health. Marshall, 73, also wrote "Benjamin Blake" and "Yankee Pasha." "The Viking" was made into a movie which is listed among Hollywood's all-time box office hits. Marshall also wrote short stories for The Saturday Evening Post, Cosmopolitan and Collier's.

battalion commander who came over to the Saigon government, told Humphrey that the biggest problem that the massive, expensive Revolutionary Development program faces is lack of understanding at the provincial and district levels.

"What I liked about the statement," Humphrey told newsmen later, "is that a man can stand up and say that. This proves it is a free society. I bet you that can't be said in North Vietnam and I know it can't be said in Communist states."

The vice president said he found good omens in Vietnam, particularly in the Revolutionary Development program.

"Whether or not it is all going exactly according to Harvard University standards or the standards of the University of California I do not know," he said. "I tell you they'd go mightily good in South Dakota or rural Minnesota."

Three House Members Urge Viet War Policy Decision

WASHINGTON (AP) — A call for Congress to stay in session until it deals with the question of war policy in Vietnam was sounded today by three House members.

The suggestion from Reps. Paul Findley, R-Ill., F. Bradford Morse, R-Mass., and William L. Hungate, D-Mo., comes at a time congressional leaders are predicting that with a little luck the 1967 session could wind up around Thanksgiving Day.

ASIA ACTION

"Our men in Vietnam cannot adjourn the war," Findley said, "and I do not think the Congress should adjourn until it has dealt squarely with the question of war policy."

The 3 are among 57 House sponsors of a resolution calling for congressional hearings to determine if "further legislative action is desirable in regard to Southeast Asia policy."

Findley contended there are many ideas on how to resolve the Vietnam conflict. In fact, he said, he has found some 26 separate alternatives to present policy or parts of it, most of which originated in Congress.

FIRST STEP

"To the best of my knowledge, each is entirely different from anything tried by the administration," Findley said.

"None corresponds directly to any of the 28 separate peace plans which the secretary of state says the United States has supported."

These ideas, Findley said, could form a starting point for a congressional debate on what to do about Vietnam.

In the Senate, the Foreign Relations Committee started hearings last week on a resolution sponsored by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., under which Congress would urge the President to seek an emergency meeting of the U.N. Security Council to begin efforts to end the Vietnam war.

"CASUALTY COST"

His proposal would have the United States agree in advance to accept any council directives, such as an order to halt bombing of North Vietnam. Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield and more than 50 other senators have sponsored another resolution urging U.N. action—but it contains no suggestion for advance agreement to any directives.

Morse has said the Mansfield alternative is acceptable to him. Sen. Thurston B. Morton called anew meanwhile for an end to U.S. search and destroy missions in Vietnam, saying they "have been frightful in their casualty cost."

Found Dead In Car

PARIS (AP) — Julien Duvivier, who directed the film "The Little World of Don Camillo," was found dead at the wheel of his car Sunday after a traffic accident. Duvivier, 71, made about 50 silent films and a number of talkies. Police said Duvivier apparently suffered a heart attack.

WHERE'D THIS THING COME FROM?
SOME CUBAN FISHERMEN CAUGHT IT IN THEIR NET 12 MILES EAST OF HAVANA HARBOR.

SOME SORT OF UNDERWATER ELECTRICAL DEVICE WITH RUSSIAN MARKINGS, PROBABLY A SONAR TRANSPONDER.

AND WHAT'S A SONAR TRANSPONDER?
A DEVICE THAT "HEARS" AND ANSWERS A PRE-CODED SONAR SIGNAL. GENERALLY MARKS A SECRET UNDERWATER INSTALLATION OF SOME KIND. WED BETTER SEND IT TO WASHINGTON.

College Planning To Stage Shaw's Famous 'Pygmalion'

By WINNIE UNGER
Howard County Junior College's drama department is deep in rehearsals for Shaw's comedy drama, "Pygmalion," due to open for three performances Nov. 17-21. Robert Sullivan, stage manager, reports progress on building and recovering flats, and most of the play's characters have been filled.

Sandy Miller will play the part of Eliza Doolittle; Howard Atkinson, as Henry Higgins; Joe Kelly, Col. Pickering; Mike Butler, Freddie; Cecelia Arcand, Mrs. Eynsford-Hill; Libby Oglesby, Miss Eynsford-Hill; Kathy Howell, parlor maid; Duane Coffman, Mr. Doolittle; Mary Evans, ambassador's wife; David Thomas and Carl Dorton each will play two parts.

Also in rehearsal is a one-act play, "Scattered Showers," directed by drama department head Martin Landers and performed by Sunny

Estes, LaWanda Zant and Janice Watkins, which will play to the women athletic instructors convention at the University of Texas in El Paso Dec. 1-2. Another one-act play, "A Child Is Born," will be set up by the drama club, Delta Psi Omega, to play at the Big Spring State Hospital in mid-December.

The most exciting nearby attraction in the visual arts field is the collection of privately owned paintings and sculpture on display in the Museum of the Southwest in Midland. Scores of elegantly-framed works carrying signatures of renown artists, both contemporary and historic, make a dazzling display for this part of the country, which doesn't get many such extensive shows.

Two of Andrew Wyeth's large paintings are included along with a colorful composition by Matisse and the drawing which preceded it. It is interesting to compare and see which details of the drawing were omitted in Matisse's effort to simplify forms to basic design. Wyeth isn't so far removed from Matisse in this direction, as he also omits all superfluous detail from his compositions.

The mezzanine floor of the gallery is devoted mostly to a display of portraits by leading American and European artists.

The exhibit will be in Midland until Nov. 12 when it goes to the West Coast. The art works are owned by Dr. and Mrs. T. Edward Hanley, Bradford, Pa. The museum is open to 5 p.m. daily, closed Mondays.

Snyder's Diamond M Foundation Amateur Art Show drew over 300 entries, almost entirely in realistic style. An Ahilene couple, H. E. and Ruth Fratham, tied for first place.

The exhibit was juried by Emily Guthrie Smith, Fort Worth, and Peter Rogers, San Antonio. The juror who took the place of Peter Hurd, who was ill, Rogers, a native Londoner and Hurd's son-in-law, gave a gallery talk for the crowd.

Texas Tech is a natural hub for much activity in the arts. One of the music faculty, Thomas Mastroianni, pianist, will give an all-Chopin program at 8:15 p.m. Thursday in Coronado High School auditorium.

"Don Juan in Hell," a sequence from George Bernard Shaw's "Man and Superman," will be presented as a Readers' Theater production Sunday and Monday, Nov. 11-12, at 8:15 p.m. in the speech department auditorium. The production compliments the University Theater production of "Man and Superman" which opens its run Nov. 10-13.

Tech also has begun a collection of living art with the arrival of three original paintings from New York artist Howard Conant, head of the Division of Creative Arts at New York University. The "living art" term applies to paintings which will be displayed individually in public buildings rather than in formal art collections.

Fort Worth Ballet Association has engaged Royce Fernandez, premier danseur of the American Ballet Theater, to dance the role of Franz in the production of "Copelia," scheduled to open Nov. 12 and 13. The role of Swanilda will be performed by Nancy Schaffenburg of TCU ballet department staff.

Tickets for the full-length Deibes ballet may be obtained from the Wm. Edrington Scott Theater box office.

Texas Fine Arts Association's annual fall exhibition is now open at the Elisabeth Ney and Laguna Gloria Museums in Austin through Nov. 7. The circuit selections, which show trends toward many of today's new concepts, will tour Texas cities and should arrive at Howard County Junior College in early spring.

The Dallas Civic Opera opens its 11th season Saturday with Italian soprano Magda Olivero in the starring role of Medea.

Joining Mrs. Olivero in the cast will be Italian tenor Bruno Prevedi, soprano Graziella Scuti, mezzo Bianca Maria Casini and basso Nicola Zaccaria.

The Dallas Civic Opera first produced Medea in 1958, starring Maria Callas.

Time Short For Discount

Howard County taxpayers, who have paid a total of $380,228.12 in taxes since Oct. 1, have only two days left in which to benefit by the three per cent discount granted for payments made the first month.

Effective Nov. 2, the discount drops to two per cent.

Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, said that she is confident that a million dollars of current county taxes will have been paid by close of business Nov. 2. October is always the biggest month in tax payments.

Meantime, the first month that voter registration has been under way has seen 2,815 persons qualify themselves to vote in 1968 elections.

This is less than 33 per cent of the potential voters in the county. Deadline for registration is Jan. 31. There is no charge for registration for voting under the new Texas election laws.

Red Exhibit Ranks As Expo Favorite

MONTREAL (AP) — Expo 67 closed its 185-day run Sunday in a blaze of flags, fireworks and tributes, and its computers showed the Soviet exhibit was the star of the Canadian centennial fair.

Russia's swept-roofed pavilion, the costliest of all at $12 million, attracted about 13 million guests. Canada's exhibit drew 11 million. The geodesic sky bubble of the United States was third with nine million visitors.

PRESLEY'S GUITAR
While the Soviets concentrated on their achievements in science and industry, especially in aerospace, the United States showed a potpourri of Americana from space capsules to pop art a la Andy Warhol and Elvis Presley's guitar.

Some viewers complained that the U.S. pavilion was mostly trivia; others liked the informal, low-pressure approach. Fifty-three per cent of all visitors to Expo were Canadians, but Americans flocking up to Montreal constituted 45 per cent of the sightseers.

RECORD CLIPPED
The skyrocketing attendance reached a climax Saturday when Martha Racine of Montreal walked through a turnstile to become the 50 millionth visitor. Mrs. Racine, 39, won a trip to Osaka, Japan, to see Expo 70.

Expo's attendance clipped the old record for world fairs of 42 million visitors set by the Brussels Fair of 1958.

Among other statistics spun out by the Expo computers: —The free transit system, the Expo Express, rolled over 374,600 train miles.

—25,463 youngsters were happily turned back to parents or guardians.

—5,931,578 hamburgers were gobbled up.

—33.5 million ice cream cones were licked.

BIG DEBT
The statistic Canadian officials liked least is the expected deficit of $250 million, far above the $47.5 million mark foreseen in 1963 when the government gave Expo planners the green light.

The federal government will cover 50 per cent of the debt, the Quebec provincial government 37 1/2 per cent and the Montreal city government the remaining 12 1/2 per cent.

Before the gates closed Sunday afternoon on the 1,600-acre complex of gleaming pavilions on two islands in the St. Lawrence River, Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson lauded the fair as a Canadian dream come true.

U.S. Gold Supply Up

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. gold supply increased during September for the first time in five months despite continued heavy domestic use of the precious metal.

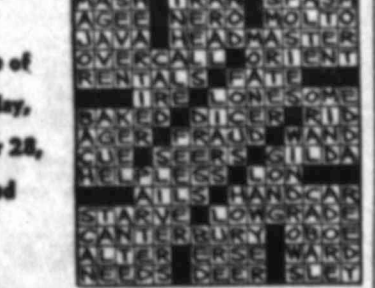

The Federal Reserve Board said today the total gold supply rose by $2 million during the month to $13.08 billion, the first increase since a $50 million advance last April.

Since that time gold has been drained from the U.S. stockpile mainly because of the Middle East crisis and sales to domestic users.

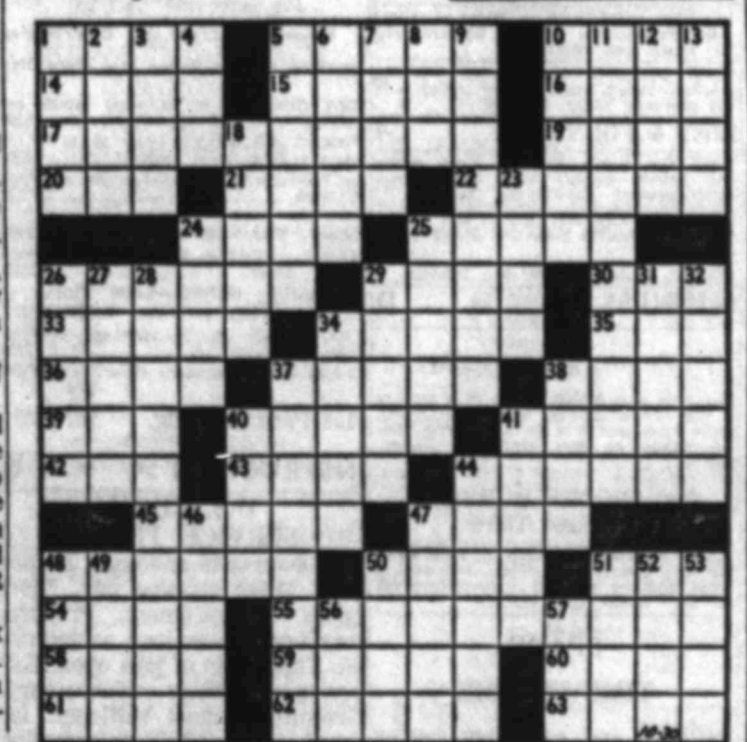

September marked the end of these heavy foreign drains and completed a year in which France bought no American gold. It had been French policy in recent years to convert at least $34 million of her excess dollar holdings into gold each month.

Puzzle of Saturday, October 28, Solved

Dear Abby For The Boys In Vietnam

DEAR ABBY: "What," you ask, "do our wonderful men in Vietnam want for Christmas?" FOOD! Anything home-baked. Fruitcakes go over big, so do brownies and chocolate chip cookies. But be sure it's wrapped properly. (Use three-pound coffee or shortening cans.) I pop popcorn and use it for filler. (DO NOT SALT AND BUTTER IT!) Those little marshmallows are also good filler material and can be eaten later. The guys love canned meats, tuna, sardines, salmon, shrimp, olives, spaghetti and meatballs, and dried and canned fruit.

Also instant soups, cocoa, tea, coffee, salami, sausage, crack-crackers, cheese and crackers, pretzels, peanut brittle, gum and hard candies, individually wrapped to make carrying in the pocket easy. (No chocolate. It melts!) Nuts are great, too. Pre-sweetened Kool-aid is always appreciated because it kills the taste of the stuff used to purify the water.

SIS IN GREAT NECK
DEAR ABBY: According to our son, Tom, who just returned from 13 months in Vietnam, his favorite Christmas gift was a tape recorder. We bought two. One for him and one for us. They were identical so the speeds were the same and we could send tapes back and forth.

Hearing Tom's voice on those tapes was the next best thing to having him home. And he said the tapes we sent him boosted his morale like nothing else. They aren't as expensive as you'd think. Shop around. We bought two for under $80.

TOM'S DAD: MPLS.
DEAR ABBY: The guys from our town (Livingston, Mont.) who are serving in Vietnam prefer personal items for Christmas gifts. Here's a list: Pocket combs, sewing kits, small manicure kits, soap, shaving cream and lotions (UNSCENTED! The enemy can smell that perfumed stuff, too). Stationery with self-sealing envelopes, a good pen, foot powder, toothbrushes, toothpaste, shampoo (in plastic bottles or tubes only), can openers, bottle openers, pocketbook magazines, whodunits, westerns and comics always make a big hit. Razor blades, terry cloth washcloths, athletic socks (the heavy kind), insect repellent

(NO AEROSOL CANS!), metal mirrors, tweezers, underwear, T-shirts, heavy - 72 - inch - shoe laces, inflatable pillows, a couple of clean pillow cases. And, Abby, you wouldn't believe how excited a guy can get over a clean handkerchief. Sincerely, BOB PATTERSON

DEAR ABBY: Please tell folks who send packages to the guys in the Armed Forces to send it in packages under five pounds. It goes "SAM" which is AIR, and the cheapest and fastest way. MAIL HANDLER
