Is Shirley A 'Hawk'?

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP) — The major foes of Shirley Temple Black in a special congressional election Tuesday are striving to make the race a referendum on the Vietnam war.

Two contenders consistently identify Mrs. Black, the former child film star, as a hawk committed to escalating the war.

They are Republican Paul McCloskey, 40, a Marine veteran and Navy Cross winner, and Democrat Edward Keating, founder and former publisher of Ramparts magazine.

Mrs. Black, now 39 and the mother of three, argued Sunday that she holds a moderate view and believes "the way to peace is by achieving a swift and honorable conclusion to the war in Vietnam."

She and McCloskey are two of four Republican candidates for the seat vacated by the death of Arthur Younger, Republican.

Keating, 42, is one of the six Democratic candidates and an advocate of an immediate bombing halt and a world conference on Vietnam.

A runoff election is scheduled Dec. 12 between the top Republican and top Democrat in Tuesday's balloting unless one candidate polls 51 per cent of the total vote. That is unlikely.

A turnout of about 140,000 is expected. McCloskey urges an end to bombing of North Vietnam as a move to start peace negotiations. He also advocates "gradual disengagement of the military to take not more than two years."

The two other Republican aspirants are Earl Whitmore, 49, San Mateo County sheriff since 1950, and William Draper, 39, Korean War veteran and business executive.

In the Democratic field with Keating is Roy Archibald, 47, San Mateo city councilman since 1956 and West Coast representative of the National Education Association.

Israel Wants Direct Deal With Arabs

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban declared today that a "directly negotiated peace settlement" between Israel and the Arab countries is not only possible but inevitable.

He told the U.N. Security Council that the withdrawal of Israeli troops from Arab territories was a matter to be determined by the countries of the area as part of a settlement. The United Nations might assist in arranging peace talks, he said, but the negotiations themselves must involve only Israel and her Arab neighbors.

UNACCEPTABLE
Eban charged that an Indian resolution demanding withdrawal of Israeli troops to their June 4 lines would prejudice Israel's position and was therefore unacceptable.

Eban did not state Israel's position on a U.S. resolution, which also calls for the withdrawal of Israeli troops but in different language.

He did say, however, that "there are no proposals tabled which give sufficient weight to the concept of negotiations and agreement."

Eban said the appointment of a U.N. representative for the Middle East could be useful "in bringing the parties together" but only if his directives "do not prejudice our policies or our negotiating position."

PROPOSALS
If direct negotiations are arranged, he said, Israel will "have serious and constructive proposals to make" to the Arabs.

"These proposals," he said, "would be conducive to the interests and honor of all negotiating states. We should, of course, be ready to consider and react to ideas put directly to us by the other side."

WITHDRAWAL
Jordanian Foreign Minister Abdul Monem Rifa'i was expected to demand that Israeli troops withdraw from occupied soil in Egypt, Jordan and Syria before talks could begin.

Israeli and Jordanian gunners on opposite sides of the Jordan River waged their own debate Sunday, trading barrages of medium artillery and mortars. Neither side reported any casualties.

An Israeli army spokesman said Jordan fired first and that the exchange lasted four hours. A Jordanian military spokesman said the Israelis shelled farmhouses in Jordan for 50 minutes.

Another Boost For United Fund

A boost from the employe division put the United Fund drive at 81 per cent of the total goal of $116,121.69.

Texas Electric Service Company and the H. W. Smith Transport are 100 per cent participation in the employe division. The 95 employes of Texas Electric Service Co. have an average gift of $24.59.

The $94,940.33 report by divisions is: Out of town $9,691, big gifts $33,568, special gifts $5,385, employe $31,869.50, Webb AFB $12,509.83, metropolitan $1,861 and area $56.50.

Court Turns Down Market Inquiry

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chief Justice Earl Warren registered a vigorous protest today as the Supreme Court refused to look into the way the New York Stock Exchange does its business.

Standing alone and apart from his colleagues, the chief justice said the high court should have examined antitrust questions that were raised in an appeal dismissed by the 7-1 majority without comment.

He said high court review was necessary to see if federal securities laws were fulfilling the goal of protecting investors. Warren noted carefully that he wasn't expressing "any final view" on the merits of a suit challenging the exchange's brokerage commissions system.

But in unusually bitter language, the chief justice scored the U.S. Circuit Court in Chicago, which had last ruled in the case, for taking what he called a "blunderbuss approach."

And, he said, he was concerned that the law on the subject "is to be permitted to lie where it has aimlessly fallen by virtue of the scanty opinion be-

Freed Sergeants Will Report To Pentagon

Are Quizzed On Anti-War Statements

PARIS (AP) — Three U.S. Army sergeants, freed by the Viet Cong, landed in Paris today on the way to report to the Defense Department in Washington.

Traveling under the care of a State Department officer from the U.S. Embassy in Beirut, the three soldiers refused to make any comment.

GREAT PRESSURE

"They are under great pressure," said the State Department official, A.B. Beeton. "They just want a chance to talk to their superiors in the Defense Department before anyone else."

Beeton said one of the three, Edward R. Johnson, of Seaside, Calif., was "under medication. He is sick and suffering from diarrhea and malnutrition. Our first thought is to get him to a hospital."

Johnson and the other soldiers — Sgt. James E. Jackson of Tallcott, W. Va., and Daniel Leo Pitzer of Spring Lake, N.C., flew to Rome from Beirut earlier today on the way to New York and Washington.

HELPED THEM

With them on the flight was Thomas Hayden, 28, of Newark, N.J., who said he had helped facilitate their departure from Phnom Penh, Cambodia, "so they could go home and see their families and government officials."

The released prisoners were scheduled to arrive in Washington Monday night, but the Defense Department declined to say what steps it plans concerning them.

The three were released in the Cambodian capital Saturday. Hayden, a member of the anti-war American Peace Committee, told a reporter on the flight from Rome that he had been in Hanoi in the past "but that had nothing to do with this."

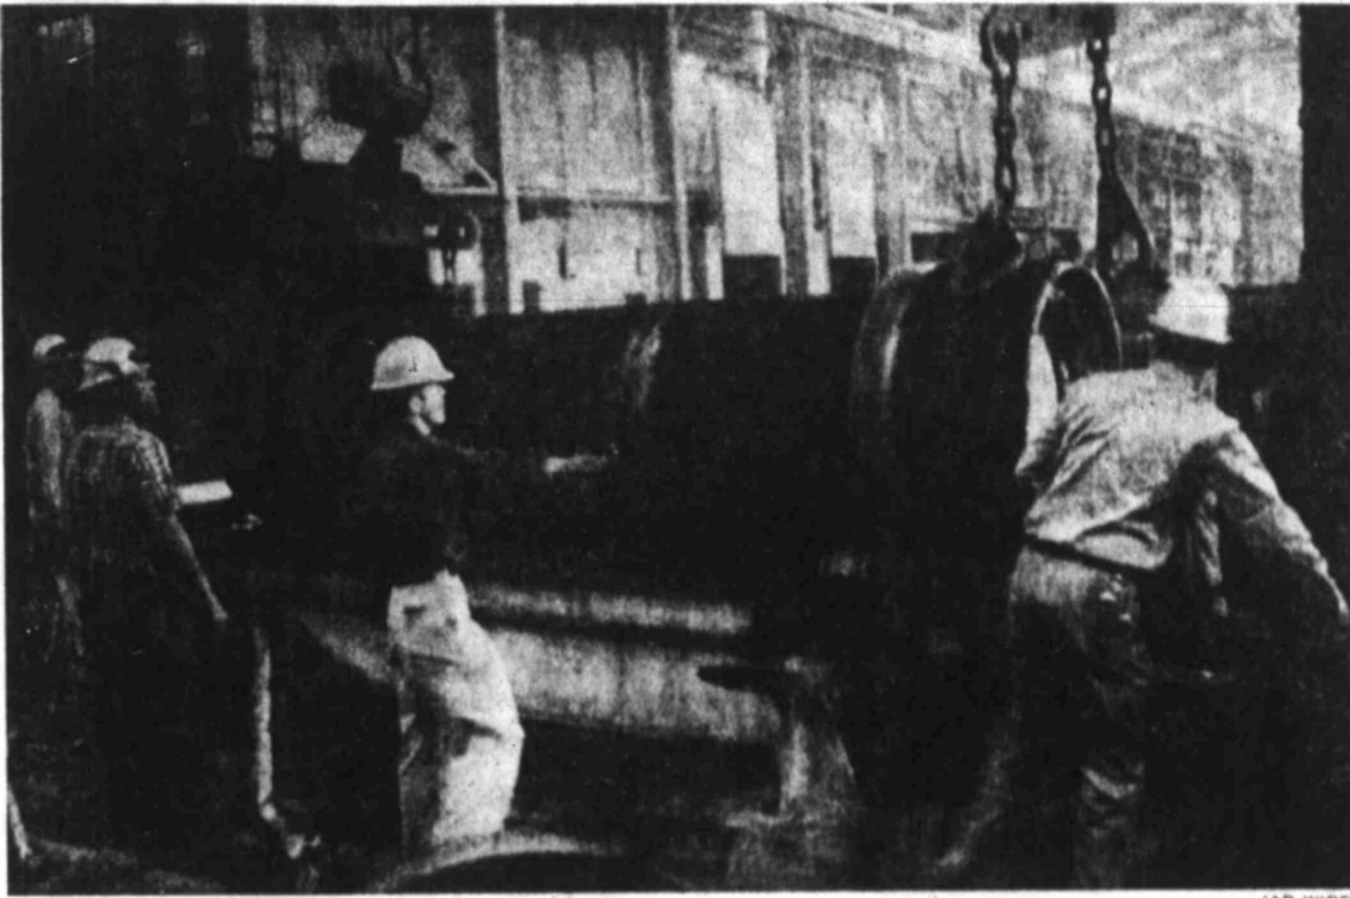

All five members of the group traveled in the economy class compartment of the Pan American-World Airways flight. The freed prisoners declined to answer any questions. They referred everything to Beeton, who sat across the aisle.

NO STATEMENTS

He conferred with them during the flight and quoted them as saying they wanted to make no statements or be photographed before they had a chance to report to their superiors in Washington.

The Americans remained on the Pan American jet for the 45-minute stop at the Rome airport.

The men had spent the night in Beirut, where one of them in an interview with a local newspaper repudiated antiwar statements he had made in Hanoi. Another of the trio stood behind his remarks.

White-Hot Machine Where Workers Injured

Molten Metal Injures Men

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — An explosion at an industrial plant released tons of molten metal on a dozen workers today injuring most of them, four critically.

Ambulances were packed with the victims, some of them with their clothing burned from their bodies.

The director of public relations at the American Cast Iron Pipe Co., B. B. Warren, said there were no known deaths but eight to a dozen persons were injured.

"We were pouring a steel tube this morning," Warren said. "For some unknown reason the retaining ring or head came out and we lost a good bit of liquid metal."

Four critically injured men were treated at a hospital for burns all over their bodies. Others were less severely burned.

HOME-MADE BOMB FRAGMENTS FOUND

Blast Rocks Plane

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — High over Colorado, an explosion rocked an American Airlines jetliner with 73 persons aboard, shattering suitcases in the plane's rear baggage compartment.

The plane, on a nonstop flight Sunday from Chicago to San Diego dropped about 600 feet over Alamosa, Colo.

After the Boeing 727 landed two hours later in San Diego, fragments of what appeared to be a homemade bomb were found in the luggage debris.

"There's no question about that," said Mel Zikes, a public relations officer for American. "Parts of a crudely made bomb with a timing device—a face of a clock, some mechanism and a battery—were found."

The Federal Bureau of Investigation refused to comment except to say persons were being questioned.

None of the 72 passengers or six crew members was reported injured.

Coach Tony Sucec and seven members of San Diego State College track team were flying home after repeating as champions of the national college cross-country meet at Wheaton, Ill., College.

The pilot, Dwain C. Duncan of Barrington, Ill., said he believed something was wrong with the automatic pressure system, but that manual control brought the pressure back to normal.

Commie Regulars Withdraw After Charging Americans

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese army regulars charged at U.S. defenders near Dak To in the central highlands tonight but withdrew after two hours of heavy fighting. The Americans fired 105mm howitzers at point-blank range to hold their positions.

Unofficial accounts from the scene said nine U.S. soldiers were killed and 25 others wounded, bringing the U.S. toll in 11 days of fighting in the area to 101 killed and 525 wounded. Red casualties in the fight were not immediately known. Before the fight their losses were more than 600 men killed.

NEW ACTION

There were reports the Communist forces had breached the U.S. defense perimeter at one point in the fighting and that paratroopers of the American 173rd Airborne Brigade were rushed in to drive them out.

AP correspondent John Lengel reported from the battle zone that the sharp new action came after a day of light skirmishes along the highlands battlefield. Earlier U.S. intelligence reports said the North Vietnamese had moved in reinforcements to bolster their ranks. The North Vietnamese force is believed to include a rocket regiment armed with 122mm projectiles.

'IMPACT VICTORY'

Lengel reported the airborne brigade came under frontal assault after nightfall about six miles southwest of Dak To in what U.S. officials believe is an effort to score an "impact victory" to embarrass South Vietnam's new civilian-based government. But the Communists also may be seeking to keep open an important infiltration route into the South from Laos by knocking out U.S. defenses at Dak To, which straddles the route.

Earlier in the day U.S. forces launched fresh helicopter assaults against the five North Vietnamese regiments believed to be in the area.

635 KILLED

The choppers rose to seek out the enemy after U.S. troops encamped in the area weathered 10 hours of incoming Communist rockets and mortar rounds.

"There's every prospect of a truly significant victory," said Lt. Gen. William B. Rosson, the U.S. commander of the 2nd Corps area that encompasses the middle region of South Vietnam.

"The enemy gives every indication of staying. We couldn't ask for anything more opportune."

So far 635 North Vietnamese soldiers have been killed over the last 10 days. U.S. casualties stood at 92 killed and 500 wounded, the U.S. Command said.

One Killed, One Wounded In Big Spring Gun Spree

One man is dead, another wounded severely and charges of murder with malice and assault with intent to murder have been filed against Ismael Valdez, 24, as result of a wild gunplay episode at a Deep Rock Service Station, 808 Lamesa Drive, early Sunday morning.

Thomas Carreno, 31, is dead. He was shot in the upper right chest, the bullet ranging downward and out just under the rib cavity on the left side. He was still breathing when police reached the scene at 5:15 a.m. Sunday, but was dead on arrival at the Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital.

Gravely wounded with a bullet in the middle of his lower back is Frank Maholly Jr., 25. He is at the Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital. His condition is listed as serious.

SURRENDERS

Valdez is being held in the Howard County jail. He surrendered to Sheriff A. N. Standard at 3 p.m. Sunday.

John Ferguson, an attorney, called Standard to inform him that Valdez wanted to give himself up. Standard called Wayne Burns, district attorney, who came to the county courthouse. After talking with Valdez, Burns prepared a charge of murder with malice and filed it in the court of Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter. Slaughter set bond at $3,500.

This morning Burns said that charges of assault with intent to murder charges have been filed against Valdez in the shooting of Maholly. This case has also been filed with Slaughter.

SEVERAL SHOTS

The shooting was witnessed, according to police, by five or six persons. It appears, the officers reported, to have been the climax of a dispute between the principals earlier Saturday night.

An undetermined number of shots were fired.

Police said they had statements from a number of witnesses. Sheriff Standard said that Valdez made no statement.

Capt. Stanley L. Bogard of the city police is continuing his investigation into the matter.

Police said that five persons who were at the station were brought to the police station and made statements. They are Bobby Torres, Anna Peuckert, Les Torres, Jessie Anaya and Roy Uribe.

Police said when they reached the scene they found Maholly outside the station. Carreno was inside the building.

WITNESSES

Witnesses told police Valdez had left the scene in a car driven by Johnny Renteria. Burns said this morning that he had (See SHOOTING, P. 6-A, C. 7)

Quick Arrests

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Four men being sought in the early-morning burglary of the Texas State Bank were captured in brushy country southeast of San Antonio Sunday by sheriff's officers mounted on horseback.

The four men, all from Houston, were jailed but charges were not filed immediately.

No money was taken from the bank. Maury Holden, vice president of the bank, said the burglars tried to open the main vault with a cutting torch but were unsuccessful.

A bank customer using a night deposit box saw the burglars inside and called police.

The capture of the four men came about five hours after the burglary was discovered.

Papers Scattered

Vandals used copies of the Sunday edition of Big Spring Daily Herald to make an untidy carpet on a strip of U.S. 87 just south of the Branding Iron Restaurant early Sunday morning.

The papers were stolen by the vandals from several newsstands and from one city route. They had been left at the stands and at the designated place on the route by Herald circulation workers.

At 3:05 a.m. the police were informed that there were many copies of The Herald strewn over the paving. In all nearly 300 copies of the paper were used.

The highway department came to the scene to clean up the mess. Herald employes were on hand but due to the heavy fog and the danger of possible injury from cars, they were told to leave the job to the highway department.

The missing papers were replaced.

The bundles were taken from a number of locations, mostly in the southeastern section of the city.

Lamesa Tax Election

LAMESA — Lamesans will pass upon a proposed one-cent city sales tax on Dec. 12.

The election was called at a special meeting of the council after members had returned from Houston where explanations of the tax were given at the Texas Municipal League meeting. The December date was fixed so that the tax can become effective April 1, 1968, if voters approve. Estimates are that Lamesa might realize $88,000 annually from the city sales tax. The city council said that additional revenue must be secured to meet rising operating costs and that an increase in property taxes is the only alternative to the sales tax.

Cycle Slam Kills Dallas Policeman

DALLAS (AP)—Dallas traffic patrolman James Stewart, 28, was killed Sunday when his motorcycle slammed into an automobile as he chased another motorcycle.

Mrs. Ealon Baxley, 50, was injured critically in the crash. The driver of the car was not injured.

Later officers arrested a 28-year-old man about six blocks from the crash scene. Charges were not filed immediately.

Stewart had been on the Dallas police force for seven years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Stewart of Arlington.

The officer made his home in Rockwall. A police spokesman said Mrs. Stewart is expecting twins.

Chiefs Due To Nix Bombing Pause Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. William C. Westmoreland and the Joint Chiefs of Staff are expected to stand fast against any new proposal for an extended pause in U.S. bombing of North Vietnam, Pentagon sources say.

The perennial bombing pause question is on the list of matters to be reviewed at this week's high-level conferences.

REVIEW
Westmoreland, U.S. commander in Vietnam, is due here Wednesday to join Ellsworth Bunker, U.S. ambassador to South Vietnam, in discussions with President Johnson and top officials of the Defense and State departments. Johnson meets with Bunker today.

Pentagon sources said there are no urgent issues at this time—nothing in the way of new troop increase requests or logistic or operational problems. The conferences were billed as a general review.

The meetings come at a time when the Johnson administration appears to be stressing the theme of "steady progress" in the Vietnam war.

Bunker used this phrase on his arrival Friday from Saigon. High U.S. military officials followed up with a similar line Saturday in talking to newsmen, although they did predict hard fighting in certain critical areas.

REAGAN RIPS
In other war-related developments: Retired Lt. Gen. James M. Gavin said his recent trip to Vietnam convinced him the administration plans to keep forces in Southeast Asia for a long time.

Gavin, a persistent war policy critic, said the government pictures its purpose in Vietnam as resisting current aggression while in fact its policy is the long-term containment of Red China.

—California Gov. Ronald Reagan attacked Johnson's war policies, called for a clear policy decision on "whether we want to carry the war through to conclusion, or give up" and said stopping U.S. bombing of the North "will only encourage the enemy to do his worst."

The Republican governor, speaking Saturday night in Albany, Ore., said U.S. war policy in Vietnam from the start "was a case of being too late with too little, while tipping our hand to the enemy so that he, always knew in advance what we proposed."

VIET VOTE
—Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., said in a Chicago speech, "The '68 elections will be a vote on Vietnam. It is clear the question will not be settled in the Senate or in Congress. We must take it back to the jury."

McCarthy said he hoped other senators who oppose administration war policies will enter presidential primaries next year. He said he won't announce until about Dec. 15 if he plans to oppose Johnson for the Democratic nomination.

—Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., predicted Johnson may ask Congress next year for a pre-election vote of confidence in his Vietnam policies.

—Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said he believes the American public is wearying of the war. Fulbright, one of the Senate's most outspoken war policy critics, said he feels public support is growing for his position.

CEASE-FIRE
The bombing pause question was pushed to the forefront again over the weekend when President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam announced his country's forces would observe a 24-hour cease-fire over Christmas, and possibly the New Year and the lunar new year as well.

State Department sources indicated there is no diplomatic push at this time for any extended bombing pause and no break in the diplomatic impasse over ways to get some kind of peace negotiations started.

Pentagon officials said there has been no indication of any change of viewpoint by Westmoreland or the Joint Chiefs on the bombing pause issue.

Thugs Escape With Millions

LONDON (AP) — Thieves working all weekend with blow torches cleaned out the London headquarters of the national cooperative store chain and may have gotten away with as much as a million pounds—$2.8 million, police said today.

The headquarters in the Stratford section of East London is the depository for huge sums spent by Britons in the various co-ops operated as a giant chain store system.

The master safe and some deposit boxes were burned open and rifled, police said.

The raiders must have spent much of Saturday and Sunday using "thermal lances" which burn through metal slowly but silently.

Officials of the cooperative were unable to assess the loss immediately but a quick estimate put it at a million pounds.

Under the cooperative system, customers can buy an enormous variety of items, have their purchases listed in their stamps book and then receive discounts periodically.

Farm Agency Offers Little Hope For Hike In Incomes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department offers the nation's farmers little hope for a substantial increase in incomes in the coming election year.

A report prepared by Rex Daly, chairman of the department's economic outlook and situation board, for today's opening session of its annual farm outlook conference, said prospects indicate little improvement in farm returns from this year.

10 PER CENT CUT
Farm economists and educators from all parts of the country were invited to the conference. The report said net farm income this year will be about 10 per cent below last year. The figure was estimated at $14.8 billion, compared with $16.6 billion last year.

"Gross farm income, including larger cash receipts and some increase in government payments to farmers, is expected to rise in 1968, perhaps by around a billion dollars," Daly said. "But production expenses will continue to increase and may largely offset any gains in gross income. Accordingly, incomes again are not expected to rise in line with the anticipated general expansion expected for the rest of the economy."

The report said this year's drop in farm earnings came as a result of a record agricultural output accompanied by declining prices.

"Looking next year, supplies of farm products will continue large, but prices received in general are expected to strengthen from reduced levels this fall," it added.

The report said retail food prices are expected to rise more in 1968 than this year and perhaps a little more than the average increase of 1.5 to 2 per cent a year for the past decade. The increase could be as much as 3 per cent, it said.

Sato Says Japan Should Play Some Role In Viet

SEATTLE (AP) — Japanese Prime Minister Eisaku Sato declared Sunday that he believes Japan should "play some sort of a role" in Vietnam.

He did not spell out his meaning, but he termed the Vietnam war "an Asian problem," then added that it also is a world problem.

CRITICISM
Without clearly explaining the 66-year-old prime minister told newsmen here that "if I were to excessively commit my country to a military burden, then I should be subject to criticism."

The Japanese constitution drawn up after World War II, prevents Japan from having any armed forces, save those for defense.

A Japanese official with Sato explained that the comment on a military burden was a "purely hypothetical" statement and was not intended to be any sort of policy declaration. The official said there was "at present" no desire to change the defense provision in the constitution.

Sato plans to discuss both Vietnam and the return of Okinawa to Japanese control with President Johnson Tuesday and Wednesday in Washington, D.C.

BLOODY FRACAS
In a news conference at Seattle-Tacoma International Airport, Sato said all of the 11 Asian nations he visited in September and October "wished that some kind of solution could be reached to bring an end" to the Vietnam war.

Marker Set At McCamey

McCAMEY—An official marker which pays tribute to some of the pioneer oilmen of the Permian Basin has been erected on the outskirts of McCamey by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee.

Located east of downtown McCamey on SH 67, the marker commemorates the beginning of efficient pipeline transportation in the Permian Basin.

The marker calls attention to the site of an early camp for pipeline crews of Humble Oil & Refining Company. The camp was built in 1926 when Humble extended its line west from the Big Lake Field. The coming of pipeline transportation to the area led to the growth of McCamey and the building of a refinery.

Dash Of Insult Added To Injury

RICHARDSON, Tex. (AP) — Thieves in the Dallas suburb of Richardson added a dash of insult in a weekend burglary.

Police said the burglars stole 11 color television sets, five black and white sets, tires, tools, watches, small appliances and a safe containing $1,000 in cash.

Then they loaded it into one of the store's pickup trucks and got away.

Regional Meet Held At School

"The Builder - Teacher Creative" was the program theme for the regional meeting of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society hosted by the Beta Kappa Chapter Saturday at Big Spring Senior High School. Chapters from Colorado City, Midland, Andrews and Snyder attended.

Dr. Madge Davis of Wichita Falls, state past president and current chairman of the state committee on nominations, served as director and gave the principal address, "A Building We Will Go."

Miss Mary Foreman, president of Beta Kappa Chapter, hosted a coffee honoring all chapter presidents in the parlor of the Homemaking Department. Registrations and exhibits were held in the foyer, and the general meeting began at 9:30 a.m.

(Howard Studio)

The program included a skit by the Delta Chi Chapter of Andrews on "Attracting and Selecting Members"; Zeta Xi Chapter, Midland, discussed "New Members, Use Them or Lose Them"; and Epsilon Eta, Midland, gave a demonstration on "What You Like About Good Music," by leading the group singing.

Chapter members of Beta Epsilon, Colorado City, and Zeta Lambda, Snyder, used the opaque projector for their topic, "Building Good Programs," and Gamma Mu Chapter of Kermit talked on "A Presentation of Fellowship Ideas." A

Society Re-Elects Mrs. T. Underhill

Mrs. T. A. Underhill presided and was re-elected president at the Friday meeting of the Ladies Society to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen at the IOOF Hall.

Other officers named were A. J. Cain, counselor; Mrs. J. T. Allen, vice president; Mrs. Etie Meador, past president; Mrs. J. H. Eastham, chaplain; Mrs. A. J. Cain, secretary; Mrs. L. D. Jenkins, reporter; Mrs. Frank Powell, treasurer; Mrs. G. G. Ragsdale, warden; Mrs. Joe Burnam, inner guard; Mrs. J. D. Smith, outer guard; and Mrs. Jenkins, pianist and legislative reporter.

Refreshments were served from a lace covered table centered with an arrangement of pink roses. Those on the refreshment committee were Mrs. S. M. Jordan and Mrs. Carlos Ennis.

The Christmas dinner and party will be held Dec. 8 at the IOOF Hall.

Mrs. J. Kendrick Hosts Sewing Club

The Eager Beaver Sewing Club met Friday in the home of Mrs. J. D. Kendrick, 4003 Wasson Rd., to make plans for a Christmas party. The club will not meet during Thanksgiving week. Five members and one guest, Mrs. Royce Johnson, attended.

A LOVELIER YOU

'Crepey' Throat Can Be Firmed, Uplifted

In an effort to mask a crepey throat, many women resort to the cover-up of a bulky scarf or necktie. And sometimes the disguise looks worse than the ailment. To carry it off you really must have a very slim face and neck. Otherwise there's a squeeze-play on the face, as though the neck had been caught in a grating.

To ease crepey, lined conditions the better move is corrective treatment. The following three-part regimen is excellent:

1. For the purpose of refining the skin and bringing up clear color, cleanse the neck daily with mild complexion soap or a neutral cosmetic wash. Apply the suds with a soft complexion brush and massage well.
2. To smooth and firm the skin there's a great value in stimulation creams and rich emollients. Several are available, especially for use on the throat, combine stimulation and emollient properties. Such creams should be applied at bedtime and massaged in with upward strokes for 10 minutes.
3. Remember that the neck needs a bit of powder base so as to blend with the face. As desired, a base may be feathered over application of throat stick. That way the neck gets a lovely finishing treatment and finish.

CREPEY THROAT

To firm and uplift sagging facial muscles and flesh, use my four-way method. It works wonders through corrective exercise, posture, skin care and make-up. Procedures are detailed in the leaflet, "Banish Crepey Throat and Chin." For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 10 cents in coin and a large self-addressed stamped envelope.

Club Invites Public To Banquet

The Ever Ready Civic and Art Club will hold its annual banquet Friday evening at the Lakeview YMCA beginning at 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend, and tickets for the turkey and dressing dinner are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. O. T. Brewster of the Big Spring Senior High School faculty who will be introduced by Miss Rosetta Brown, club president.

The Rev. Melvin Montgomery will give the invocation, and club members will be introduced by Mrs. Bobbie Williams. A solo, "This is My Father's World," will be sung by Mrs. J. E. Swindell, and Mrs. N. L. Graham will sing "Pale Moon," an Indian love song. The accompanist will be Mrs. Joe Hazel Dawson.

Tickets may be obtained from club members or at the door.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise: Everytime I threw out one of those nice coffee cans with its plastic cover, I felt it was wasteful.

Now I save each one, cover it with contact paper and put it away in a box. When Christmas comes, I will decorate the cans with sequins, beads, braid, ribbons, gold seals, etc. Then, instead of wrapping presents, I will "can" all my small gifts!

Lingerie, costume jewelry, handkerchiefs, small toys, all can be popped in a can. The usual costly wrappings won't end up in the incinerator. Mrs. Jay Chervis

This is a darling way to send or give small Christmas presents. Just think of the many uses the recipient will have for those beautifully decorated coffee cans later on. Bet not a one will be thrown away.

Now is the time to start saving them. Christmas will be here before you can jingle a reindeer bell. Heloise

Dear Heloise: If you cut the corners off the sponge that is no longer clean enough to use in the kitchen sink, you can then easily tell the floor wiper from the dish swisher! Janice Swack

Dear Heloise: My family is mad for the garlic bread we get at our local Italian restaurants. They can't understand why I have not been able to duplicate it at home.

Even though my kitchen is stocked with fresh garlic, garlic juice and garlic salt, I either get too much or too little mixed with the soft butter.

Please tell me the secret to it all. Mrs. R. Evans

I'm sure many of you have a special way to fix this bread, so why don't you pick up that pencil and write to me in care of this paper and let's see if we can't help Mrs. Evans.

Sure would love to hear from you. Heloise

P.S. As Bugs Baer, the Dean of Humorists, once said: "There's no such thing as a little garlic."

Dear Heloise: Those dated kitchen calendar towels can be used! I had one with a painted rooster on it that matched my kitchen. I turned the end up (wrong side) covering the calendar, stitched up the sides and three or four rows down like a shoe bag.

This gave me a place to store note paper, pencils or clippings, etc. And now I can still keep my colorful rooster on the wall. Pauline Schmidt

Dear Heloise: My daughter brought this hint home from kindergarten: If a cardigan sweater or jacket has no loop to hang it up on, just put the top button hole over the hook. Rita Anne Zellner

Dear Heloise: To send coins through the mail and have them seem even lighter than they are and not make bumps in the letter, try this:

Tape them to the corrugated side of an empty light bulb carton, fold over to the inside, tape edges, and cut to fit your envelope.

This really holds them securely and neatly while enroute. Mrs. Wm. Sheridan

Dear Heloise: If your metal stove vent hood is yellow from smoke and grease, just take a rag and some bleach and wipe the grime right off. It cleans like magic! Ruth Rutchik

(Write Heloise in care of the Big Spring Herald.)

'Make It With Wool' Garment Judging Set

The Big Spring High School Homemaking Department is to serve again this year as hostess for the Howard County "Make It Yourself with Wool Contest." Garments will be accepted at room 109 in the high school building until 4 p.m. on Friday and until 9 a.m. on Monday, Nov. 20.

Judging of construction will begin at 9 a.m. and garments will not be accepted after that time. Garments may be picked up in room 109 between 3:30 and 4 p.m., on Nov. 20, or the contestant may plan to leave the garment in the homemaking department until Nov. 21 when the garment will be judged on the person.

Room 111 will be used for dressing, beginning at 3 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 21. Pressing equipment is available. Modeling will be done in the high school cafeteria at 4 p.m. Nov. 21. Winners will be declared at that time.

Entry forms with all rules and regulations may be secured from homemaking teachers or

Ceremony Scheduled

The engagement of Miss Madelon Hunt to George Carroll Rice was announced Nov. 1 by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cagle O. Hunt of Anson.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Rice, 1212 Lindberg and is now completing training for a commission at the Naval Officers' Candidate School in Newport, R. I. Upon graduation Ensign Rice will report for duty at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii.

The bride-elect was graduated from Anson High School and is attending Texas Technological College. The wedding will be held at 2:30 p.m., Nov. 19, in the First Baptist Church at Anson.

AAUW Meeting Held In Dallas

Mrs. Robert Winders and Mrs. Wilbur Cunningham were in Dallas, Nov. 4, to attend the American Association of University Women, Texas Division, conference at Southern Methodist University.

Mrs. Cunningham reports that attention was focused on the study topic, "Politics and Public Education," and a panel discussion, "Resources for the Topic," was led by Mrs. Roy Owens.

The afternoon session was devoted to priority projects such as fellowships, college faculty programs and libraries. Later, there were consultations with division board members. Exhibits were prepared to give resource material on subjects of interest to the AAUW.

Evolved From Art

The figureheads used to adorn sailing ships in the 19th century evolved from the ancient art of decorating bows to lure friendly spirits aboard the vessels.

'Twas A Great Reunion For High School Exes

Homecoming 1967 for Big Spring High School passed into history over the weekend, but with success written all over it.

At the informal reception at the new high school cafeteria Saturday evening, every class since 1919 was represented in registrations except '39 and '65. In addition, other classes represented included '06, '11, '14, '16, and '19.

Mrs. Nat Shick was the ranking ex-student, being in class of '06. She started to school in the 90's in the two-story frame building which had school downstairs and a little second-story room for the Masonic lodge. She was in school when the district was incorporated in 1902 and was only two years off the first class of '04.

Others who were among the early ex-students who were back were Harvey Williamson, '11, Mrs. Sol (Ida Odum) Bledsoe, '16, A. E. True, '14, and Kathleen Morgan Williams, '19, who brought along the first letter sweater given by BSHS.

More than a score of towns were represented in the exes coming home, but Maj. Don Spencer, '48, from Masontah, Ill., rated as the ex-student coming from the greatest distance. Bidders for the honor were Kathleen Williams Springer, '37, Wichita, Kans., and John Drake, '50, Edmond, Okla.

During the reception scores and scores of the exes were taken on a tour of the new six-million dollar high school and compared it with "when I was in school."

Several groups had special gatherings during the weekend which saw a homecoming parade, a Big Spring football victory over Odessa High, and finally an open house for the new high school Sunday.

OIL REPORT

Test Staked In Dawson Co.

One Star Producing Co. of Dallas plans No. 1 W. M. Rinehart as a 12,000-foot Fusselman venture, five and one-half miles north of Patricia in Dawson County. The drill site is 600 feet from north and west lines of Labor 2, league 269, Moore County School Land survey and is three and three-quarters miles northeast of Fusselman production in the Patricia multiphase area.

General American Oil Co. of Texas of Abilene plans to re-enter and deepen to 5,015 feet at No. 5 Koonsman in the five-well Cain (Spraberry) field of Garza County, nine miles southwest of Justiceburg. Location is 330 feet from north and 2,900 feet from east lines of section 3-2, T&N survey. The No. 5 Koonsman was originally drilled in 1961 by the same operators.

Drivers Not Hurt In Ackerly Mishap

Two vehicles were damaged but the drivers were not injured in a collision at an Ackerly intersection at 11:05 a.m. Sunday.

Highway Patrol officers who investigated the mishap said that one of the drivers was Joe Ervin Deatheridge, Lubbock, and the other car was driven by Roy Gene Cox, Ackerly.

Weather Forecast

Showers are forecast Monday night in northern Idaho, Montana, northern California and portions of the Mississippi and Ohio Valleys. Snow flurries are expected in northern New England. Colder temperatures are predicted for the eastern third of the nation.

Child Taken To Hospital After Mishap

Josephine Solis, age 7, 309 W. 3rd, was treated and released from Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital Saturday afternoon after she was hit by an automobile driven by Betty Jones Mullen, 3705 Dixon, at 302 Lancaster after she ran from between two parked automobiles. Mrs. Mullen tried to stop but was unable to do so before striking the child with her front left bumper.

Troy Lynn Williams, 710 Nolan, was also treated and released from Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital Saturday evening. Williams was involved in an accident with Archie V. Sullivan, Lamesa, at Third and Gregg.

Police reports show there were no accidents reported Sunday, but several minor accidents were on the books Saturday.

Phyllis Rene Thornton, 1803 Middle Ave., and Claudia W. Turner, 2713 Central Drive, were in collision at Fifteenth and Benton. Alvie Dee Hester Jr., 1210 Marjio, and Rhonda Melanie Reid, 706 Broadway, were in an accident in the 300 block of Birdwell Lane.

Rocky Benton Crittendon, 1609 Young, and Edward F. Bright Jr., Jonesboro Road, were involved in an accident at Third and Benton. An automobile which left the scene of the accident was in collision with the parked truck belonging to Wooten Transfer and Storage Co., 503 E. 2nd, at Second and Owens.

Carrie Jean Bizzell, 2808 Cactus Drive, and Wallace L. Kizer, East Perioria, Ill., were in an accident at US 87 and FM 700. Gary Richard Givens, 159A Fairchild, and Phyllis Jean Faulkner, 1415 Wood, were in collision in the parking lot of Terry's Drive-In, 2200 Gregg. Valentine Rey Molina, 100 NW 4th, and Odessa Lee Connor, 700 N. Gregg, were involved in an accident at Northwest Seventh and Gregg.

Fire Station Land Acquired

Land on which Sand Springs citizens and the Howard County Commissioners court will build the Sand Springs Rural Fire Station is now owned by the county.

Harvey Hooser Jr., original owner of the 50x70-foot tract of land, handed the court a deed to the property today. He had donated the land to the county with the understanding that it be used as a site for a fire station for the Sand Springs community.

The county commissioners have agreed to provide the citizens committee of Sand Springs with $3,500 to pay for materials for the building. The citizens will build the station.

One of the county's four fire trucks has already been turned over to the committee at Sand Springs and is being temporarily housed in another building until the new station can be built.

Preston Smith To Visit Lamesa

LAMESA (SC) — Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, the only announced candidate for governor at this time, will be in Lamesa Tuesday morning for a 9:30 a.m. reception and visit with hometown friends. The reception for the Lamesa High School graduate will be held in the Caprock Room at Turners Cafe and will be headed by Malcolm Harp.

Smith will leave shortly after 10 a.m. to address a joint meeting of the Lions and Rotary Clubs at a luncheon in Andrews.

H. S. Singers Score High

Big Spring High School vocalists scored a perfect record in interschool league competition here Saturday — seven entries and seven places on the all-region choir.

The entire choir goes to Odessa this Saturday to take part in a festival in which they will compete with nine other schools. Kenny Sheppard, director, will take 40 voices for the affair.

In Saturday's placements here, three earned the right to try out for places on the all-state choir at the Jan. 13 auditions here. The 160-voice all-region choir will perform here that evening.

Eligible for all-state tryouts are Danny Johnson, first tenor; Beth Hayworth, first alto; Stephanie Sokolowich, second alto. Others who rated all-region places were Cheri Cederberg, first soprano; Lorrie Watkins, first alto; Annette Fitzhugh, second soprano; Cheryl Colclazer, first alto.

About 250 young singers were here Saturday at BSHS from Midland, Midland Lee, Abilene, Abilene Cooper, Odessa, Odessa Permian, Colorado City, Kermit, Snyder, Seagraves, Crane, Andrews, San Angelo Central, Sweetwater, Seminole, Brownfield, Monahans and Lamesa.

DEATHS

N. L. Smedley, Callahan Pioneer

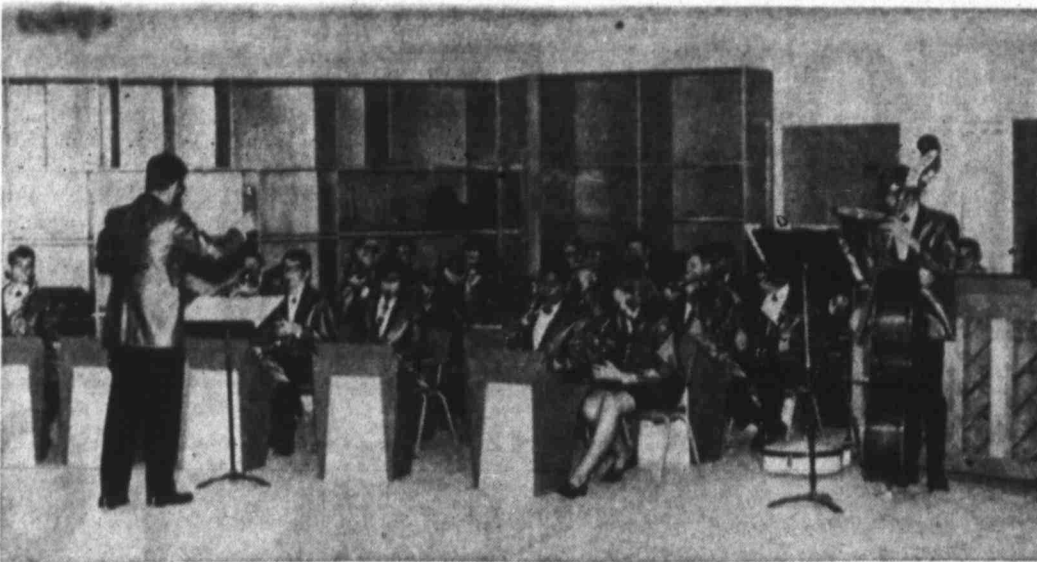

BAIRD — Noah Lester Smedley, Callahan County resident for almost 75 years, died Sunday after a lengthy illness. He was 83.

Services were held today at 2:30 p.m. in the Godfrey Funeral Home Chapel, the Rev. Carroll Green, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Ross Cemetery. Nephews served as pallbearers.

Mr. Smedley was born in Alabama June 11, 1884, later moving to Callahan County where he married Effie Trammel in 1910. She preceded him in death Sept. 20, 1954.

Survivors include a son, Virgil L. Smedley, Big Spring; three sisters, Mrs. Barney Gibbs and Mrs. Warren Price, Baird; Mrs. Bill Russell, Hatch, N. M.; four brothers, Lonnie Smedley, Davenport, Okla.; Jimmy Smedley, Wiley Smedley, and Robert Lee Smedley, Baird; two grandchildren.

Three brothers preceded him in death.

And The Band Played On

Saturday the Big Spring Senior High School stage band, appearing for the first time in new gold blazers, provided music at a reunion of band exes. Their uniforms, $4,500 of the bill for marching band uniforms and an April band trip to Corpus Christi are included in the Band Boosters budget. A fruit cake sale is now underway by boosters to meet these expenses.

M'FARLAND LAUDS COMMUNITY

Thousands Tour School Facility — Called 'Best'

"You have the best physical — you're ahead," Dr. John W. McFarland, dean of the school of education at the University of Texas in El Paso, told a Big Spring High School dedication crowd here Sunday.

An estimated 3,000 who toured the comprehensive plant agreed with him.

Most appeared amazed as well as impressed by the vastness of the project, the beauty, the utility of the plant, and by the equipment which includes several things found in very few high schools anywhere. One of these was the planetarium, which was jammed until closing time; another was the electronic mathematics laboratory; still another was the area vocational school with its complete layout for metal work, wood work, building trades, auto mechanics, and vocational agriculture. Added to these were beautiful facilities for vocational home-making, for commercial subjects, including four rooms of typing (where there had been one), batteries of electric typewriters and business machines.

Many of the well-equipped laboratories had exhibits or projects set up, along with a remarkable array of teaching aids. Many of the rooms for conventional academics had special equipment, including overhead projectors. The new P. E. gym had activities going.

The inter-play of colors along with ceramic tile broke the hallways and classrooms into pleasant blocks. Most of the large number of viewers paused in the spacious cafeteria and snack bar for refreshments or stopped in the two patio areas for rest. And still, not many actually saw all of the plant because they ran out of time.

"I hope we can continue to grow and merit more new construction," he said. "We owe you our thanks for support and hope you find the buildings acceptable."

Auto Theft Is Reported

At 5:40 a.m. Sunday J. C. James Jr., 604 Caylor, reported the theft of a 1956 Chevrolet. His son awoke to hear the car being started and saw it pull away from the curb.

Police are also investigating four other thefts reported during the weekend. Mildred S. Brown, reported the storage house behind rental property at 1314 Utah had been broken into and a lawn mower stolen.

A car-coat was stolen from the automobile of Mrs. Nell Campbell while parked in front of Katie's Bar, US 80 West. Broadway Grocery was broken into again and 60 cents in pennies was taken from the cash register and several cans of soup were also taken according to Mrs. Eggleston, 207 Jones.

T. E. Newburn, Route 1, reported a burglary at the apartments located at 200 Brown and at Newburn Welding Shop, 204 Brown. Three sinks and one wash basin were stolen from the apartments. From Newburn Welding Shop a posthole digger, pressure tank, main assembly of a windmill and miscellaneous items were taken.

Clinic Is Postponed

The Crippled Children's Clinic, scheduled for Saturday at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, has been postponed for two weeks.

Dr. Thurston Dean, Midland orthopedic surgeon who will be the clinic director, had a conflict which prevented his being here as scheduled. The clinic has been rescheduled for Saturday, Dec. 2. Jim Thompson, therapist at the center, said.

All the services will be provided when the clinic is held from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on the new date, and parents of all children with physical impairments are invited to contact the center.

Act Explained

A series of staff meetings on the Civil Rights Act is being completed this week at the Big Spring State Hospital. The hospital has long been in compliance with all sections, but informational assemblies were called to refresh the staff concerning requirements of the act.

Hull Has Surgery

Leo Hull, Assistant Chief of Police, was admitted to Malone and Hogan Foundation Hospital Monday morning for surgery.

Official Vote Canvass Lags

Howard County Commissioners were waiting on the arrival of a number of precinct boxes used in Saturday's special election before beginning official canvass of the returns.

Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk, said that several of the precinct judges had yet to bring in their boxes.

Due to the extremely light vote polled in the election the canvass of the returns will require little effort by the commissioners.

The special election was on six proposed amendments to the state's constitution.

Lawyer Required For Probationers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Probationers being jail terms have the right to a lawyer's help and if they can't afford a lawyer the state must supply one, the Supreme Court ruled today.

With a unanimous decision, the Court applied the Sixth Amendment right to counsel to state probation revocation hearings.

In earlier years the court had applied the right to most stages of the criminal process, including police station questioning and trials themselves.

The ruling was given by Justice Thurgood Marshall, his first written opinion since joining the court.

In it Marshall traced significant high court decisions involving the right to counsel since 1948. He explained why the court was now going one step further, using the Washington state probation revocation procedure as its springboard.

Obviously, he said, a lawyer's help is necessary to marshal facts, introduce evidence and, in general help the defendant to present the case.

However, he said even more important is the fact that certain legal rights may be lost if they are not exercised at these hearings.

For instance, he said, under Washington law an appeal can be made in a case involving a plea of guilty followed by probation only after sentence is imposed.

Therefore, he said, if a lawyer is not present when probation is revoked, the right to appeal might well be lost.

FIVE AMENDMENTS PASS WITHOUT SERIOUS CONTEST

Republicans Cheer Returns In Legislative Races

By TOM JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer

Massive voter apathy marked this weekend's voting on six new patches for the Texas Constitution and Texas Republicans claimed to see anti-Johnson sentiment in returns from special legislative sessions.

The vote count from Saturday's election continued today on six amendments to the 19-year-old Constitution, changed 178 times before Saturday.

Five amendments passed without a serious contest and only one—a measure to permit counties to lump together their special funds into one account—was leading but appeared in danger of failing.

TINY TURNOUT

The Texas Election Bureau issued this count Sunday on the amendments, with 246 of the state's 254 counties reporting, including 188 complete:

1. Consolidating county funds: For 132,917, against 131,798.
2. Permission for mental health services: For 163,894, against 99,064.
3. Veterans land bonds: For 156,278, against 111,949.
4. Medical and pay aid for injured police officers: For 174,902, against 91,501.
5. Bonds for improved parks:

For 145,640, against 118,890.

6. Allow state employees to serve on certain boards: For 134,971, against 126,660.

The turnout was far lighter than expected. Robert L. Johnson, director of the Texas Election Bureau, had predicted some 500,000 of the state's three million eligible voters would cast ballots.

Peter O'Donnell, state Republican chairman, said the Harris victory and other strong GOP showings was a reflection of sentiment against the Johnson administration.

WHY WAIT?

"There can be no doubt that the voters of Texas are expressing their displeasure with many aspects of the Johnson administration," O'Donnell said.

Killed In Viet

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Marine 2nd Lt. Robert Warren Miller Jr., 24, of San Antonio has been killed in Vietnam.

His parents were notified that he was shot in the chest Nov. 6 while on Operation Essex near Quang Nam.

"There is a feeling around the country that says, 'Why wait until '68?' and it is strong in Texas."

The Republicans' standard bearers led in all but one of the six races. Ike Harris won over three other Republicans, 11 Democrats and five persons who gave no party affiliation. He thus takes the seat vacated by the death of conservative Democrat George Parkhouse.

Democrat Bill Harris, no relation to the winner, ran a poor second to the Harris 15,105 votes, pulling 3,718.

Runoff opponents emerged in these complete unofficial returns from the voting on state representatives:

Harris County (Houston), Dist. 22, Place 7—Edmund E. Jones, Republican, 4,910 votes, and Mrs. Ira Kohler, Democrat, 4,293. Third in a 17-candidate field to succeed the late Dr. Ira Kohler, whose widow seeks to succeed him, was Jim Earthman, Republican, with 4,070.

HARRIS COUNTY

Harris County, Dist. 24, Place 2—Glenn Purcell, Republican, 12,084, and Bill Wood Jr., Democrat, 6,769. Next among nine other Democrats was Ray Lemon with 5,494. The winner will succeed former Rep. Lee Duggan Jr., now judge of a county court-at-law.

Cameron County (Brownsville) Dist. 47, Place 2—Henry Sanchez Jr., Democrat, 3,980, and Manuel Sanchez, Republican, 2,608, both of Brownsville. John M. Scanlan, one of four other Democrats, stood next with 2,347 in the voting on a successor to Maurice Pipkin, resigned.

Matagorda and Wharton counties, Dist. 30—Dr. Wayne T. Slone, Republican, a Bay City veterinarian, 2,252, and Donald R. Uher, Democrat from Bay City, 1,296. Three rivals polled fewer than 1,000, each.

Travis County, Dist. 39, Place 2—Maurice Angly Jr., Republican, 6,912, and Rogers D. Wilson, Democrat, 5,520. Both are Austin lawyers. Their nearest challenger among eight other Democrats seeking the place of Rep. Pat Cain, resigned, was Terry E. Stork with 1,289.

VETS LAND

Bailey, Cochran, Hockley, Terry, Yoakum counties, Dist. 75—Eddie Paxton, Republican, Levelland, 1,812, and John J. Kendrick, Democrat, Brownfield, 1,737. Ted Weaver of Muleshoe also a Democrat, received 1,085 in the three-man race to succeed Rep. Jesse George, resigned. Three amendments took an early lead in the vote counting and drew away. They were for mental health, veterans land and medical aid for county law enforcement officers.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

Three issues took an early lead in the vote counting and never were slowed. They were for mental health, veterans land and medical aid for county law enforcement officers.

The issues of park bonds and dual service for certain state employees took a commanding lead only on the last count of the night.

Issue No. 1 was designed to permit county governments to place all their special funds into one treasury. Supporters said this would make for more flexible government, while opponents said it might lead to greater spending.

TURNED DOWN
The mental health amendment now permits counties with hospital districts to spend money for various mental health purposes. Among other things, it will permit greater participation in federal grants.

The veterans land proposal had been turned down by voters in two earlier attempts at passage. It permits the state to issue $200 million in bonds and thus lend money to veterans to buy land at low interest and on long terms. It is the outgrowth of a post-World War II program in which the bond money was expended but suffered from a series of scandals set off by high-pressure sales techniques.

Passage of the medical amendment permits counties to pay hospital bills and continue salaries for law enforcement officers injured while on duty. The measure permits counties to do so but does not force them to do so.

$75 MILLION
The state now is in position to issue $75 million in bonds to buy more park land and improve present and future parks. The issue had considerable opposition from persons who objected to the possibility of paying a park entrance fee and from others who felt the federal government should provide the parks.

The dual job issue won by only a narrow margin possibly because it was a complex issue

The amendment permits certain state employees to serve in two jobs. Supporters said the aim was to permit the employees to sit on boards and committees outside their immediate assignment. This would mean less hiring of special outside consultants and might give the state more voice in federal matters, particularly the dispensing of funds.

Science Shrinks Painful Hemorrhoids Stops Itch—Relieves Pain Finds Way That Both Relieves Pain and Shrinks Piles In Most Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a special formula with the ability, in most cases, to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching and relieve pain. In case after case doctors proved, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. The secret is Preparation H. There is no other formula for hemorrhoids like it. Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

A Devotional For The Day

Thus saith the Lord, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. (Jeremiah 6:16)

PRAYER: O God, our heavenly Father, grant that we may know Thy will and seek to do Thy bidding. We thank Thee for the gift of Thy Son, for His atoning death. As we accept Him, may we know the peace we cannot understand but which is not beyond experiencing. In Christ's name we ask it. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

A Loss To Texas

Although they are disappointed, it came as no surprise to close associates of John Connally when he announced he would not seek a fourth term as governor of Texas. He said that he felt he could not continue to give his best to the job, and that to give less than the best would be a disservice to the state. His friends know this to be John Connally's true feelings.

Texas could have benefited from further services of this man, because he has been one of the outstanding executives of the state. He has been dedicated to the governorship's responsibilities, he has had the background and knowledge to put good programs to work, he has had the best characteristics of leadership.

His administration has done much for advancement of education, for further highway development, for helping improve race relations, and for expanding tourism and industry.

The Herald has been a supporter of John Connally, and has admiration for the record he has made thus far and for the personal leadership he has given his state.

He would have to be classified as a moderate conservative, and in this role has succeeded in combatting the ultra reactionaries as well as the most far-out liberals. This, too, is to the state's benefit, for Texas has enjoyed for some years now an era of progress and of sound growth under direction of men of Connally's ilk. It would be a great tragedy if this kind of leadership is not available to the state in the next elections.

Continuing Education

Texas viewing the accelerating cost of this state's higher education system should understand that the rapid rise reflects something more than burgeoning enrollments and improved quality of undergraduate and advanced education. It also reflects a broadening of functions — added roles — for colleges and universities in a highly technical society where fresh knowledge is an ever swifter force for prosperity, power and progress.

Two of the newer responsibilities of Texas college and universities, as Higher Education Commissioner Williams recently told the Texas Research League, is for "continuing education" and public-service problem solving. Our leading institutions are already expanding rapidly in both fields—though lagging somewhat behind the major institutions in the Northeast and California in this regard—and that expansion undoubtedly will be featured in the developing master plan for higher education in Texas.

The need for "continuing education" is pressing. Most of the factual, and much of the theoretical, education obtained in colleges and universities now is outdated within a few years of graduation. And graduates are hard-pressed afterwards in applying their acquired techniques of learning to absorb the swelling flow of new knowledge in their fields. Periodic returns to the campus, as individuals and in groups, for seminars, fellowships, short courses, conferences, institute programs, research and consultations are becoming routine.

The need for public-service problem-solving was recognized notably in this state this year when the Legislature created Institutes of Urban Affairs at the University of Texas at Arlington and University of Houston. There is increasing interplay for mutual assistance and benefit between higher education and state and local government, and for some time now there has been between major academic institutions and the federal government. The "Ivory tower" now looks out on Main Street, and the movers and shakers on the local as well as the national scene need all the day-by-day help they can get from the "knowledge industry."

The improvement and expansion of Texas' higher education, and its closer involvement in public and private off-campus affairs, must be considered indispensable to this state's economic development, social progress and political enlightenment. The cost will be very high indeed, but the rewards will be much higher.

John Cunniff Billion-Dollar Christmas Clubs

NEW YORK (AP)—Bright red and green checks are going through the mails these first two weeks of November to 15.4 million Christmas Club members who saved $1,987,984,000 in the preceding 50 weeks.

These figures, of a size usually associated with the federal debt, come from the files of that oddly named, 57-year-old organization called Christmas Club a Corporation.

Founded in 1910, CCAc is now a profitable Madison Avenue operation dedicated to the proposition that people can accumulate money for Christmas shopping by making a contract with themselves to save a bit each week.

CCA's PRIMARY service is to provide banks and other savings institutions with promotional literature, envelopes, blank checks and other products. It handles no deposits; it is a printer and the promoter of an idea.

To acquire the business of thousands of banks, the club has a full-time, year-round sales force spicing forth the benefits of Christmas Clubs to banks. And what do they sell? Exposure.

CCA TELLS banks, and can back up its arguments with a storm of statistics, that every CCA membership brings a customer through its doors an average of 35 times a year. On each trip the member becomes a potential customer for a savings or checking account, a loan or some other service.

No wonder banks are willing to take a loss on such accounts. A loss? Why everyone knows that few Christmas Clubs pay any interest. True, but banks incur so many expenses in handling small transactions that expenses exceed income.

WHAT IS IT that accounts for the success of this idea, which brings no dividends to its members and which costs its sponsors money? "Psychology," replied the CCA spokesman.

"It is a contract with yourself," he continues. "It is the same, thing as paying back an installment loan. People feel duty bound. That is why the coupon books are a better device than passbooks."

Nevertheless, a good many Christmas Club members fail to live up to their self-imposed obligations. Dropouts are common, although the CCA spokesman insists that most people do, indeed, fulfill their commitments.

THE LARGEST CLUB now is $20 a week, which means a payment of $1,000 after 50 weeks. The smallest, 25 cents a week, often is used by young but potentially big customers.

This year the average club totaled $129, a $3 gain over 1966 but more than seven times the $18 average of 50 years ago.

Of this average, only $48 will be spent for Christmas gifts. About $40 will go into permanent savings accounts and the rest will be used for such things as winter vacations and, increasingly, the payment of taxes.

Billy Graham

I heard you from Winnipeg when you talked about sex. You based your sermon on the text, "Thou shalt not commit immorality." I find, "Thou shalt not commit immorality," but "Thou shalt not commit immorality." Please tell me where this is found. J. T. "The words 'fornication' and 'adultery' may both be interpreted 'immorality', or the illicit use of sex. True, the seventh commandment says: 'Thou shalt not commit adultery', but this word, along with fornication, refers to the misuse of sex, and are therefore interchangeable. I know of a young couple which use this word 'adultery' as a dodge, affirming that this refers to sex among married people, but not single people. The Bible is just as explicit about fornication as it is adultery. Paul said, 'Abstain . . . from fornication'. Again, he said: 'But fornication . . . and all uncleanness, let it not once be named among you.' Again he wrote: 'Be not deceived; neither fornicators, idolaters, or drunkards . . . shall inherit the kingdom of God.' (1 Cor. 6:9).

The advocates of the "new morality" say that sex is all right just so long as it is done in love. But this teaching is the invention of men; and is nowhere found in the Bible. These advocates of sex license say they look to Jesus rather than the Mosaic Law. But Christ was unyielding in the matter of immorality. He said, "He that looketh upon a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery already in his heart." If you want comfort regarding sex license, don't read the Bible.

James Marlow LBJ Couldn't Talk Back

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was President Johnson who must have felt baffled.

But he was in the wrong place to do anything about it, sitting in the very pew George Washington used in an Episcopal church in Williamsburg, Va. He could not very well get up and walk out. And he couldn't very well answer back.

ALL HE could do was sit and listen. But when it was over he left at once without a smile.

He had just finished a 5,000-mile Veterans Day weekend trip, stopping at military camps from coast to coast, appealing to North Vietnam to talk peace and hitting at the critics of the war and the way he is handling it.

He is probably more sensitive to criticism than any president. With growing intensity he and his administration have been striking at the critics. This trip, most of it spent congratulating servicemen on their valor, was a platform.

"VIETNAM is no academic question," he said at Ft. Benning, Ga. "It is not a topic for cocktail parties, office arguments, or debate from the comfort of distant sidelines."

It probably never occurred to him that at the very end of his journey he would be hit with criticism in a church while he was sitting there and by a clergyman who apparently either hadn't kept up with what Johnson had said, or had ignored it.

THE PRESIDENT finished his trip Saturday night at Williamsburg and Sunday morning took his family to the Bruton Parish Episcopal Church where the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis, was ready and waiting.

A parish spokesman explained later that while Dr. Lewis had prepared one sermon for Sunday's services, he put another one together when he heard Johnson would be present.

Since Johnson has been accused by his critics of not leveling with the American people on the war in Vietnam, of creating a "credibility gap," it is easy to imagine his reaction when the minister got started.

DR. LEWIS said, "There is a rather general consensus that something is wrong in Vietnam . . . (and) we wonder if some logical, straightforward explanation might be given without endangering whatever military or political advantages we hold."

"We cannot close our Christian consciences to consideration of the righteousness of actions as they are reported to us, perhaps erroneously, perhaps for good cause of which we have not been apprised."

HE CAUTIONED against oversimplifying things by viewing the war as directed at monolithic communism. He said the complexities of the American involvement in the war are "baffling."

Still, there was one lesson for Johnson to learn from Dr. Lewis, although others have told him the same thing: He does not do enough public explaining about the war, even if in this case when he did the clergyman wasn't listening.

Hal Boyle Mailbag Wisecracks

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know, if he didn't open his mail:

One of the things that science hasn't been able to figure out is why this century has been most favorable to the longevity of women. As recently as 1920, statistics indicated women outlived men by only a year. Now the feminine margin of survival is seven years: women 73.5 years, men 66.5.

IF YOU'RE superstitious, one of the ways you can assure the happiness of your household is to put a tomato on the windowsill. Of course, it doesn't hurt if you also can afford to have meat in the icebox, a color television set in the living room, credit at the drugstore and cash in the bank.

Bears, like people, suffer from insomnia. For example, grizzly bears have been seen shuffling through the forests in the middle of winter, when they are traditionally supposed to be paused in hibernating sleep.

THE HUMAN BRAIN is said to contain 100 billion nerve cells. Now and then, don't you feel—particularly on Mondays—that one of them is missing? It is hard for a fellow to feel at his peak with only 99,999,999,999 brain cells. It is that absent spark that makes all the difference in ignition.

When you drop a glass and it breaks, the cracks in it move at a speed of nearly a mile a second—more than 3,000 miles an hour. The wisecracks follow as an accompanying speed.

QUOTABLE NOTABLES: "Love is the delightful interval between meeting a beautiful girl and discovering that she looks like a haddock"—John Barrymore.

If you want to contact Scotland Yard in a hurry and the international phones are tied up, simply send a cable addressed to "Handcuffs, London," and it will probably be delivered there. But don't send it collect.

Wonders of science: An extract of potatoes, researchers at the University of Michigan have found, is capable of both stimulating and inhibiting the cell growth in other plants and microscopic animals. This confirms what was found out in Ireland long ago. A presence of potatoes on the plate stimulates the cell growth of the Irish, and an absence of potatoes from the plate inhibits the cell growth of the Irish.

Dear Dr. Molner: When the fifth cranial nerve is cut to relieve tic douloureux, do you lose your hearing on that side, or does it have any effect on hearing?—P.D.

Hearing is not affected except that sometimes there may be some buzzing in the ear. And again, there often is no buzzing. Sensations of the face and the outer ear (which has nothing to do with your ability to hear) will be altered, since these surface areas are served by the nerve.

Diverticulosis is a bulge in the digestive tract. To become more familiar with the subject, write in care of The Herald, for my booklet, "Don't Let Diverticulosis Throw You," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim Getting A Paunch? Run For Office

One thing and another: If you're developing a paunch, why don't you try running for public office?

A candidate for mayor in the city of Birmingham, Ala., George Young, will attest to the effectiveness of the political diet.

He says he has pounded the pavement so much shaking hands with people he's had to pass up many meals. Young started out weighing 160 pounds but got down to 148.

Young says there is not a minute of the day he could sit down during the campaign and enjoy a full meal.

WHY IS IT that the more a pet gets into, the smarter his owner reasons he is. Let a dog chew up a slipper or track up a freshly mopped floor and, right away, his owner starts making apologies for him and boasting of his intelligence.

Not long ago, an automobile owner up in Vancouver, Wash., returned to his vehicle in the rain and discovered his pup had locked not one but both the doors of the car (by pawing the buttons).

The owner tried vainly to open the car (the keys were inside) but finally went searching for a locksmith—but not before he had notified a newspaperman what had happened.

I'VE HEARD college-bred described as a four-year loaf made from the flavor of youth and his old man's dough.

ASTRONAUTS HAVE become the glamour guys of the '60's but how would you feel if you depended on 15,000 parts, each supplied by the lowest bidder?

ABOUT THE MOST welcome after-dinner speech you can hear, I think you'll agree, is the one where the fellow says: "Put it all on my check."

IT'S LITTLE wonder the Post Office Department wanted so badly to get that zip code in use, when you consider the fact that so many places in Texas are known as Lake View, Fairview and Midway.

Holmes Alexander The Russians Like The War

WASHINGTON—In the main, Sen. Symington (D., Mo.) at the Foreign Relations committee hearing was only asking questions of U.N. Ambassador Goldberg, but something like a hard and chilling statement of unwelcome fact seemed to come through. It is this:

The Russians couldn't like the Vietnam War any better if they'd planned it themselves. They didn't but they have an increasingly large self-interest in keeping it alive. For a more pitance of an investment, they are causing the United States to continue spending two or three million dollars a month, losing one or two hundred lives a week, and enduring a rending dissension at home.

THIS GOES ON, and with it, American interests in the Middle East are suffering deterioration by the blockage of the Suez Canal, and the virtual nullification of the Sixth Fleet as a protector of the status quo ante. Symington didn't mention it, but his colleague, Sen. Jackson (D., Wash.) had warned on the day before that Soviet nuclear power is rapidly closing the margin of our negotiation advantage, that 3-to-1 superiority on which the American policy of deterrence is based.

GOLDBERG HAD come from New York to testify on the Mansfield and Morse Resolutions which, in brief, advised the President to turn the peace-making business over to the U.N. and the Geneva Convention. As if LBJ hadn't been trying to do this since 1961 Goldberg's testimony was a low-keyed documentation of the efforts, and he ended with a self-castigation at his own "signal failure" to get anywhere at all in promoting talks with the Communists.

NONE OF THIS was new, and the senators added nothing, it seemed to me, until it was Symington's turn to be heard. Somehow, when he had finished, a number of sanguine assumptions were in doubt. It no longer seemed sensible to believe that Russia would eventually play the peace-broker in Vietnam, as the administration had been betting. This hope had long been the reason for sparing certain targets in North Vietnam where Russian equipment stood, and the reason for the long-delayed and gingerly approach to Hanoi harbor.

THIS SAME HOPE of Russian collaboration has often been dangled from the tenuous hook known as the Sino-Soviet split, and from the vague evidence of friction in the Sino-Soviet borderlands. But Symington, after four trips to Vietnam and a recent one to the Middle East, seemed to slide several pieces of the puzzle into place. Russia's paramount self-interest, everything considered, is to keep the war going. There can be only one reason for such a Soviet policy. The Kremlin must believe that time, running faster than many of us imagined, is running in their favor.

FROM THIS PREMISE — and it's all too convincing — the last thing we need from the Senate are more Mansfield-Morse resolutions. They are the advocacy, the whimpering wall. They beseech mediation. They implore a change of heart in an adversary not movable by our pleas. Instead, we very much need from the Senate a renewal of what was given the brave days of 1964. Only this time a re-phrased Gulf of Tonkin Resolution must be an irrevocable pledge to enlist Congress in this war for the duration.

Racial Friction Continues

WASHINGTON—Hopes for an early adjournment of Congress seem to have been dispelled as both houses are confronted with a large number of measures which will require a lot of work between now and the Christmas recess. Many members would like to spend a few weeks at home to get a line on public opinion because the session, which begins in January is likely to be a long one.

IT IS GENERALLY agreed that the mail from constituents is full of protests. Senators and representatives are faced with voting on legislation which they may feel is necessary but which is unpopular. Generally speaking, the discontent throughout the country is manifesting itself in many ways. There are not only economic questions—such as the proposed tax increase and the rising cost of living—but emotional reactions to current policies which generate a widespread dissatisfaction.

ONE OF THE most disturbing elements is the growth of racial friction. There was a time when the question of civil rights could be discussed objectively and when there was widespread sympathy for the Negro as a victim of discrimination. Something of a change has been apparent in recent months as the misguided leaders of a few of the Negro organizations have emphasized "black power" and have not hesitated to express themselves in militant language—much of which has, indeed, contained direct threats.

THERE WAS A TIME when the Republican party could count on the Negro vote throughout the country, while the Democrats benefited from the almost solid support they received from whites in Northern cities and in the South. Although more and more Negroes are being permitted to vote in Southern states, the balance of power there still rests with the white population. The Republican party, however, no longer enjoys a monopoly of the Negro vote anywhere. Most of it has, in fact, gone over to the Democratic party, particularly since the civil-rights movement reached an intensive stage during the past seven years.

PERHAPS THE MOST perplexing question of all for federal and local governments is how to deal with the school-integration problem. The Supreme Court's opinion in 1954, which advised that "equal educational opportunities" require that Negroes and whites mingle in the schools, has not been uniformly applied, largely because of segregation due to residential factors. The Negro population in the North is concentrated primarily in the cities. Many white families have moved to the suburbs.

THE POLITICIANS at first thought this would probably solve the problem, but now some of the leaders of Negro organizations are insisting that students be bused from the Negro areas to schools in white neighborhoods in the cities and even to the suburbs. This has caused uneasiness among some white families, and the city authorities find themselves compelled to be cautious about expressing their views on such issues.

MEANWHILE, members of Congress are confronted with the fact that federal funds are being poured into the cities and states for education. The U.S. Office of Education holds the purse strings and is not only dictating how school integration shall be accomplished in the South, but is trying to do the same thing in other parts of the country, thus creating plenty of unrest among the parents of school children.

All this is bound to be reflected in the political campaign of 1968, when the 435 members of the House and one-third of the Senate are up for re-election.

Jurors Vote

DENVER (AP)—The defendant in a District Court trial walked into court after the noon recess wearing a button that read, "I Have Voted — Have You?"

The jurors soon sent a note to the judge saying they wanted a chance to vote, too. They had been locked up since the trial began. Judge George McNamara then recessed the trial for the day so that deputy sheriffs could drive the jurors from one polling place to another until all had visited the voting machines at the city election.

Williams' Heroics, Plus Defense, Stuns Browns

Green Bay rookie Travis Williams couldn't believe it. Cleveland Coach Blanton Collier didn't want to. And, as usual, Packer Coach Vince Lombardi had the last word.

"That's been our history. The Packers always rise to the occasion," said Lombardi after the Packers, led by Williams' record-tying heroics, stunned Cleveland 35-7 Sunday.

"When we've had an injury," Lombardi added, "we always play a little better."

The Packers had the injuries—starting running backs Jim Grabowski and Elijah Pitts are out—and they certainly played well, running up a 35-7 first-period margin and romping in from there.

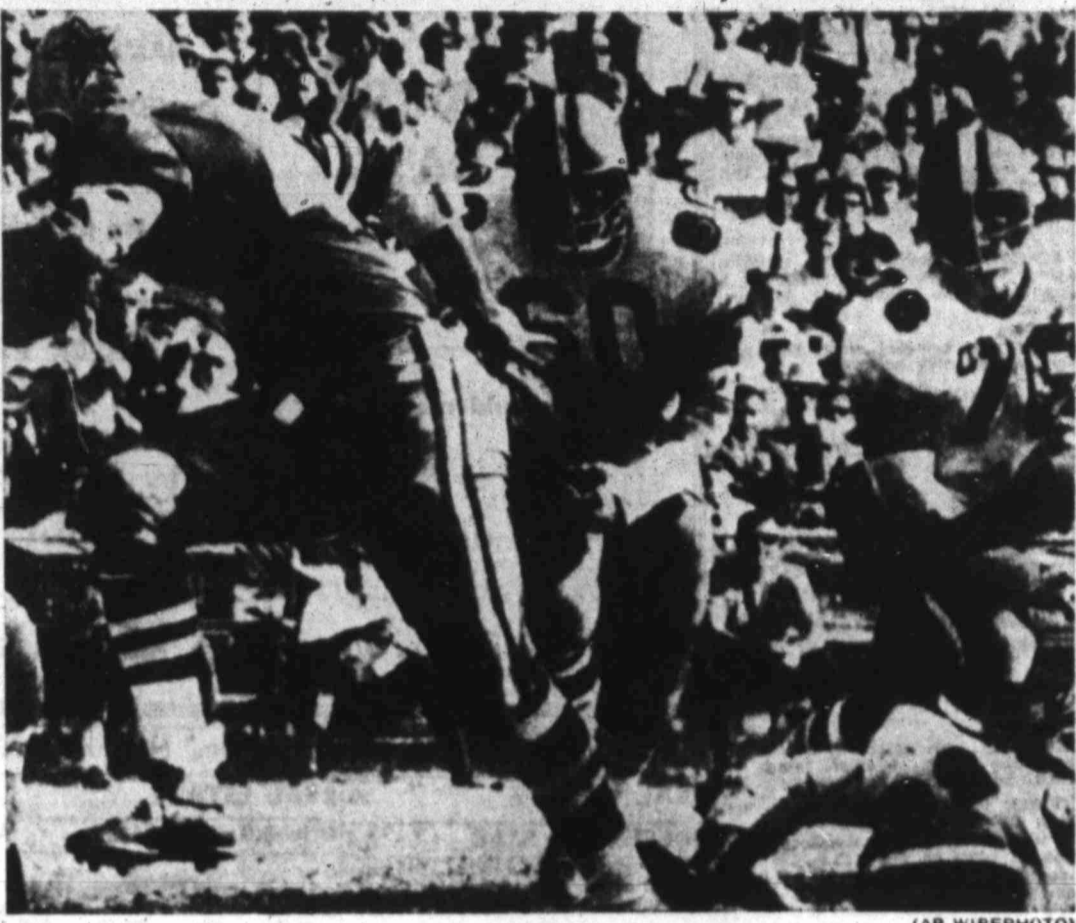

The victory, spiced by Williams' record-matching two kickoff returns for touchdowns, kept the defending champion Packers atop the National Football League's Central Division. Baltimore remained unbeaten and on top of the Coastal Division with a 49-7 romp over Atlanta, with Johnny Unitas providing a spectacular passing game and the Colts showing no letdown after the previous week's important victory over Green Bay.

Dallas moved three games in front in the Capitol Division standings after a 27-10 decision over New Orleans, while St. Louis maintained a precarious hold on the Century Division lead with a 14-14 tie with Pittsburgh.

Chicago humbled New York 34-7, Minnesota and Detroit battled to a 10-10 tie. Los Angeles whipped Philadelphia 33-17 and Washington clipped San Francisco 31-28 in the other NFL games.

"I couldn't believe it was happening," Williams said after returning kickoffs for touchdowns on runs of 87 and 85 yards for the Packers. His feat matched the league record of two kickoff returns for touchdowns set last year by Philadelphia's Timmy Brown.

And the 35 points run up by the Packers in the first period set a league record. Donny Anderson and Ben Wilson filled in admirably for the ailing Pitts and Grabowski, Anderson scoring four touchdowns and Wilson rushing for 100 yards.

Colt quarterback Unitas played his game—perhaps even a little above his usual outstanding performance. He completed 17 of 20 throws for 370 yards and four touchdowns, the scores coming on plays covering 25, 11, 64 and 5 yards, in the rout of Atlanta.

Pittsburgh, with quarterback Bill Nelsen calling the shots, moved 90 yards in nine plays in the last minute of play to gain the tie with St. Louis. Nelson capped it with a six-yard toss to Roy Jefferson. St. Louis, however, remained one-half game in front of Cleveland.

Detroit established a negative record, fumbling 11 times, in the tie with Minnesota, an offensive nightmare for both teams. Mel Farr carried 24 times for 197 yards for the Lions, who tied it on Wayne Walker's 12-yard field goal in the third period.

Sub quarterback Larry Rakestraw was the big gun for the Bears against stumbling New York. Rakestraw flipped secret passes of 23, 18 and 6 yards and scored twice himself.

Sonny Jurgensen passed for three touchdowns, the last a 15-yarder to Jerry Smith with 7:01 remaining, in Washington's comeback against San Francisco. He completed 22 of 41 for 291 yards.

The Rams rushed in 20 points in the second quarter, breaking it open against Philadelphia. Bruce Gossett kicked field goals of 21, 12, 27 and 31 yards for the winners, and Roman Gabriel passed for two touchdowns.

Palmer Wins World Cup In Sixth Try

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Arnold Palmer, the easy-going golf master from Latrobe, Pa., was off to new conquests today after capturing his first World Cup individual prize in six tries as co-winner of the American team.

Jack Nicklaus, 27-year-old teammate from Columbus, Ohio, came in second as individual winner plus coholder of the team trophy by the United States for the sixth time.

"I owe my partner a great deal for getting those clubs right," said Palmer.

"I came here to help win the team—championship," added Nicklaus. "If I couldn't win the individual prize I'm glad Arnold did."

The two U.S. stars, who outstripped a field of 80 golfers from 40 nations, territories and regions, fired a combined 567 for the two rounds, 13 strokes below their nearest competitors, southpaw Bob Charles and Walter Godfrey of New Zealand.

Palmer, who nursed an eye scratched by sand from a trap shot for the last two days, fired a five-under par 67 in the final round for a total of 276.

Nicklaus and Charles tied for second place, five strokes behind Palmer.

Individual and national prestige was the real stake in the World Cup, formerly called the Canada Cup.

Palmer got only $1,000 for the best individual score and shared $2,000 with Nicklaus and Charles. Tony Cerda of Argentina won $400 for his 284 and third place, and Ted Makalena of Hawaii, fourth with 285, got $200.

Cotton Bowl Pick Pends

DALLAS (AP) — The Cotton Bowl selection committee was meeting today to assess the field from which its visiting team will be picked. There were strong indications that Alabama was the leading prospect, although the committee said it had about 10 teams in view.

Alabama reportedly is leaning toward the Cotton Bowl but still has two games to play and doesn't close out until Dec. 2 when it takes on Auburn.

The Cotton Bowl seems to have more than the usual interest in Alabama, which is coached by Bear Bryant, who 10 years ago was at Texas A&M.

Tennessee and Colorado also appeared to be major prospects but there seems to be a general opinion that Tennessee is ticked off for the Orange Bowl.

Oklahoma rates strong support in event Texas A&M is the host team and has a good chance of making it. But should Texas be the Southwest Conference representative, Oklahoma might not want a rematch. Oklahoma lost to Texas in the regular season.

Army, Nebraska, Mississippi, Georgia, North Carolina State, Florida and Louisiana State are other teams being eyed.

Permian Subdues Concho Kittens

ODESSA — Odessa Permian overpowered San Angelo here Saturday night, 27-14, to capture their eighth decision in nine starts.

The defeat was the fourth in nine assignments for the San Angelo team, which closes out at home against Big Spring Friday.

Permian built up a 27-0 lead before the Cats were ever able to untrack.

Quarterback William Stewart hit Garland Childress and Pat Pope with scoring passes. Travis Wright ran one in from a yard away while Tommy Stewart got another on a one-yard run.

San Angelo recovered a fumble at Permian's 24 to set up its first TD. Mark Dove got it from the one.

San Angelo outgained the Panthers, 182 yards to 143, on the ground but Permian had an edge in the air, 125 to 35.

Texas League Clash Is Set

The Texas Associated Football League has only two weeks to go before San Antonio and Tulsa clash for the championship.

There can be no change in the status of the two division champions—San Antonio in the East and Tulsa in the West—no matter how the remaining games come out.

San Antonio won its 12th straight Sunday when it clouted Sherman-Denison 38-0. Tulsa had taken its ninth in 12 Saturday night in whipping Dallas 19-13.

Turkey Day Game May Decide Conference Winner

For the first time in a quarter of a century, the Texas-Texas A&M game—oldest rivalry in the Southwest—may be the deciding issue in a hectic and up-setting football race.

Texas and A&M each must beat old and bitter foes this week to make such a climax possible but they will be favored to do so.

If Texas licks Texas Christian at Austin and Texas A&M whips Rice at Houston Saturday, then the chips all will be on the line at College Station Thanksgiving Day and the Southwest Conference champion will emerge to become the host team in the Cotton Bowl.

On the other hand, should A&M lose to Rice and Texas floor Texas Christian, then Texas would be in the driver's seat and would clinch at least a tie for the championship.

BEAT USC, TIED UCLA

State 14-13. The sixth-ranked Hoosiers scored late on a drive led by John Lisenbarger and ended by his eight-yard touchdown run.

The Pacific Eight's Rose Bowl representative will be decided Saturday when UCLA meets Southern California. The Beavers, now out of the race for the conference title, will simply have to console themselves with the thought that they tied one and beat the other.

Oregon State added a 3-0 victory over top-ranked Southern Cal last Saturday in Corvallis, Ore., to its tie with UCLA, then No. 2, in Los Angeles and its victory over Purdue, also No. 2, at the time, in Lafayette, Ind.

But the vagaries of the schedule and an early conference loss to Washington will keep the Beavers out of the Rose Bowl. UCLA, the Bruins will play if they win or tie.

A 30-yard field goal in the second quarter and a defense that let O. J. Simpson do everything but score got the Beavers the victory "that certainly ought to be broken up into the Top Ten," according to Coach Ed Andros.

Indiana looks more and more like the Big Ten Rose Bowl representative, coming from behind Saturday to beat Michigan

North Carolina State, rated third before the weekend, missed a golden opportunity to move up, bowing 13-8 to Penn State. Tennessee, No. 2, rolled over Tulane 35-14 behind Dewey Warren's passing and Walter Chadwick's running.

Wyoming, No. 7, remained unbeaten, blasting New Mexico 42-6. Jerry DeFoyster's four field goals in the game gave him a career total of 175, an NCAA record. Purdue, No. 5, beat Minnesota 41-12, staying tied with Indiana for the Big Ten lead with a 5-0 league mark.

Oklahoma, No. 8, took over the lead in the Big Eight race, burying Iowa. State 52-14, as previously unbeaten Kansas fell to Colorado 12-8. Notre Dame, No. 9, crushed Pitt 38-0 while Terry Hanratty running for two touchdowns. Houston, No. 10, beat Memphis State 35-18.

The Chicago Bulls got within two seconds of their second National Basketball Association victory Sunday night, but then salvation, in the unlikely form of Reggie Harding, came to the Los Angeles Lakers.

The last seconds of the Lakers' National Basketball Association 97-96 victory over the Bulls went something like this: Mel Counts hit a jump shot with 13 seconds left, drawing Los Angeles within three points. Gaol Goodrich hit a layup, making the margin a point. Clem Haskins of the Bulls was fouled, but missed three straight shots.

Still the Bulls seemed in control. But Los Angeles Archie Clark threw wildly, Harding pushed Counts and with two seconds left, Mel sunk a pair from the foul line and won the game.

In the only other NBA game Sunday night, St. Louis beat San Diego 116-105.

Tickets for the Big Spring game in San Angelo Friday night, which will wind up the season for both teams, will go on sale at the school business office here Wednesday morning to season ticket holders. Thursday the tickets will be on sale to all, continuing to Friday noon. San Angelo has sent 500 adult and 500 student tickets. While both teams are well out of title contention, this is a grid grudge match of long standing.

The Steers have lost more passes by interception and fumble and have had more yardage stepped off against them in penalties. But they lead in punting. Warren and Clanton are top rushers, Tucker and Baker leading receivers. The statistics:

Steers Narrow Statistic Gap

The Big Spring Steers cut the gap in their yards rushing deficit and went ahead in passing on the strength of their sparkling victory over Odessa High here Friday. They are less than 200 yards off in total yardage for the season, and a large part of that resulted in the Cooper rout.

Dallas Defense Again Rugged

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys showed Sunday what a defense can do as they held the New Orleans Saints to 43 yards on the ground and took advantage of the breaks—which they made themselves—to win 27-10.

At New Orleans Sunday, with the largest crowd ever to see a sports event in the South—83,437—making so much noise they had to stop play nine times while Dallas had the ball out its last score—the Cowboys, not very sharp on offense but with the "doomsday defense" playing to the hilt, cuffed the Saints for their seventh National Football League victory against two losses.

Another bright spot for Dallas was the excellent kicking of Danny Villanueva, who had been in a decided slump. Villanueva booted two field goals, punted for an average of 41.5—most of them high, lazy kicks that permitted the Cowboys to hold returns to a minimum—and did some good kicking off.

Dallas suffered one blow. Pettis Norman, the pass-catching star who also can run well, suffered a muscle pull.

WHAT A HORRIBLE TIME TO RUN OUT OF GASOLINE

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Another quart of gasoline, or maybe a good tall wind, and Mark Donohue wouldn't have looked so glum as he sipped a can of beer Sunday afternoon.

Donohue had a victory in the Stardust Grand Prix in his pocket until a funny thing happened on the way to the finish line. He ran out of gas.

Donohue, 30, this year's U.S. road racing champion, coasted across the finish line just 12 seconds behind the winner, John Surtees of Limpfield, England.

Surtees in his Lola 70 Chevrolet passed Donohue less than a mile from the finish line.

The little bit of gasoline it would have taken to power his own Lola Chevrolet down the final stretch cost Donohue $3,700 — the difference between the first and second place money.

Surtees, who won the 70-lap, 210-mile Stardust race last year, collected $9,000 of the purse. Donohue got $5,300.

Margie Wins First Match

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Margie Masters, the golfing gal from Australia, came to the end of the rainbow Sunday, winning her first tournament in almost three full years on the American tour.

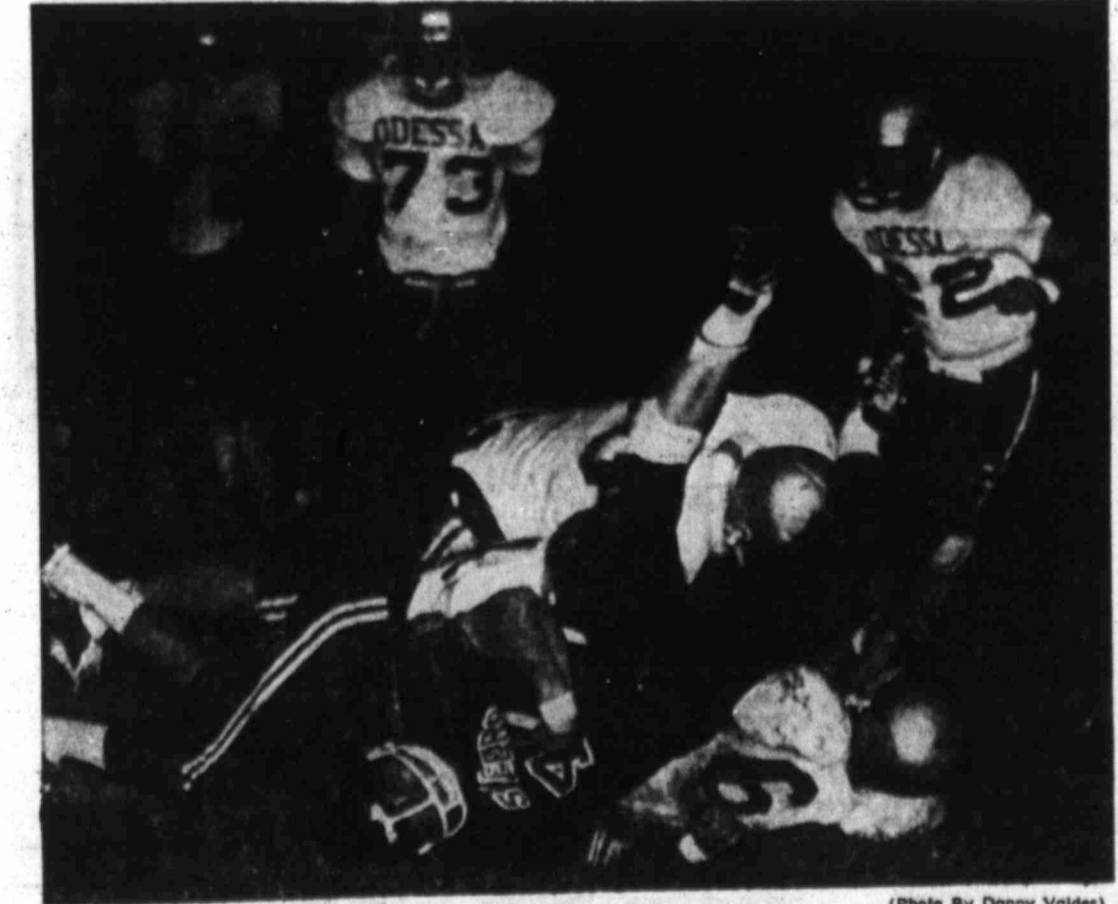

She chose the next to last of the year—the $11,500 Quality Classic—to take first money of $1,725 and climb to 11th in the standings.

Miss Masters, whose two-under-par 214 for 54 holes gave her a one-stroke margin, ran her earnings to $10,925.

She will lead the tour to Pensacola, Fla., today where the women of golf close the year's business.

Miss Masters had 70-71-73 over the par 72 Lake Waco course and she pulled a fine shot out of the bag to win it on the final hole. She had missed the green and faced a 40-foot chip shot to get in position to bag at least a par. She sank within a foot of the hole, sank the putt and gained her first big payday.

Other substantial gainers, it took three Odessa men to get him down. Marshall Sutt (63), Dan Peoples (73) and Monty Goddard (22) rush up to help.

Clanton Crashes Ahead

Lonnie Clanton (44), star Steer halfback who has been hobbled by injuries all season, showed great power Friday, rocking Odessa High with a bruising 37-yard TD run. In another substantial gainer, it took three Odessa men to get him down. Marshall Sutt (63), Dan Peoples (73) and Monty Goddard (22) rush up to help.

Clergyman Suggests LBJ Explain U. S. Role In War

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson spent a whirlwind weekend defending his Vietnam policies, then listened in church as a Virginia clergyman bluntly suggested the chief executive should publicly explain America's role in the war.

This challenge was put directly to Johnson by the Rev. Dr. Cotesworth Pinckney Lewis during Sunday services at historic Bruton Parish Church in Williamsburg, Va.

The President and Mrs. Johnson, daughter Lynda and her fiancé, Marine Capt. Charles S. Robb, sat in a front row barely 10 feet from the Episcopal rector—as he put his questions.

'SNOW JOB'

The Johnson administration's public information policies came under attack a few hours later from the Freedom of Information Committee of Sigma Delta Chi, an 18,000-member professional journalism society.

The panel said in a report that some of the administration's top officials have been "deliberately misleading the public, the press and the Congress through flat lies, through half-truths and through clever use of statistics that distort." It called the President's news conferences "well organized for a White House snow job."

The report, released in advance of Sigma Delta Chi's national convention opening Wednesday in Minneapolis, Minn., charged the State and Defense departments and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration are the worst offenders in the public information field.

PLAYS GOLF

Although the President emerged from the church service with only the trace of a smile, he wasn't deterred from enjoying a pleasant autumn day in the restored colonial capital of Virginia. He went golfing, then had dinner before flying back to Washington by helicopter.

For the chief executive, the sandy-haired Dr. Lewis doubtless provided an unwanted climax to a 5,100-mile Veterans Day weekend tour that took him from Ft. Benning, Ga., to the carrier Enterprise off the California coast, then back to the East.

In appearances at military bases Friday and Saturday before going to Williamsburg, Johnson defended his Vietnam policy and appealed for united support in the war.

LOYALTY PLEDGE

Dr. Lewis, however, told the President "there is a rather general consensus that something is wrong in Vietnam." The clergyman went on:

"We wonder if some logical straight forward explanation might be given without endangering whatever military or political advantage we hold . . . While pledging our loyalty we ask respectfully why?"

The minister, described by parishioners as a conservative Southern Democrat with roots deep in Alabama, said:

"We are appalled that apparently this is the only war in our history which has had three times as many civilians as military casualties. It is particularly regrettable that to most nations the struggle's purpose appears as a form of neocolonialism."

'WONDERFUL CHOIR'

He also said, in apparent reference to those who want a stepped-up war, that Americans are mystified by news reports "suggesting our brave fighting units are inhibited by directives and inadequate equipment from using their capacities to terminate the conflict successfully."

When the rector escorted Johnson to the presidential limousine after the service, shook his hand and murmured a few words, Johnson simply nodded. Mrs. Johnson's parting comment to Dr. Lewis was, "Wonderful choir."

During this rather awkward tableau, about a dozen antiwar demonstrators across the street kept up a clearly audible chant of "Peace! Peace!"

'A Bell For Adano' Provides TV Joy

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "A Bell for Adano" in its television adaptation demonstrated that its durability is no fluke. It was a popular novel, play and motion picture and in more than 20 years has lost none of its appeal.

The NBC "Hall of Fame" production Saturday night was effectively acted, handsomely produced and altogether provided one of the season's most satisfying evenings.

DEDICATION

John Forsythe produced a nicely balanced combination of dedication and uncompromising idealism as Major Joppolo, the American military governor of a Sicilian town in World War II. The conquerors found the people hungry and suspicious and conditioned to fascism.

The story traces the major's frustrating task of teaching the townfolk democracy, solving their food problems and getting them a bell to replace the one taken by Mussolini for guns. His principal stumbling block is his own army and particularly an arrogant general whose order keeps food and water from the town.

SINATRA SPECIAL

The necessity of crowding the adaptation into 90 minutes made some difficulties. Relationships, including the one between the major and the pretty fisherman's daughter, developed abruptly, suggesting where cuts had been made.

But it was a reassuring, warm play with a nice message.

Recommended tonight: Ice Follies, NBC, 8-9 EST, Ed Ames is host on the skating show: "A Man and His Music Plus Jobim," NBC, 9-10, Frank Sinatra special with Ella Fitzgerald and guitarist Antonio Carlos Jobim.

Dear Abby

About Personal Morals

DEAR READERS: I recently published a letter asking my opinion about letting a child see his mother in the nude. It produced an avalanche of mail. Here is the letter again, a repeat of my reply, and some typically vigorous reactions.

P.S. I must say, on second thought, I agree with the reactions.

DEAR ABBY: Do you think it's all right for a little boy, say around four or five, to see his mother undressed? I have a friend who thinks it's perfectly all right to let her little boy hang around and watch her dress from the skin out and she thinks nothing of letting him come into the bathroom while she is in the tub. He comes in and asks her questions, or to just sit and visit while he gets his eyes full.

Maybe I am wrong, but I don't approve of this. My friend says it is better to let the boy know than to have him curious. What is your opinion?

DAILY READER
DEAR READER: Maybe I'm old-fashioned, but I still believe in modesty. A mother shouldn't make a federal case out of it if her four-year-old son accidentally catches her in the act, but the bathroom door should be locked while mother is bathing.

DEAR ABBY: Please reconsider your answer to DAILY READER. A four-year-old boy is NOT a dirty-old man watching a stripper in a burlesque show. He is only a child wanting to be close to his mother. Why do you have to drag "sex" into everything? You and Dr. Freud would have made a peach of a pair!

DISGUSTED IN BUFFALO
DEAR ABBY: I say it is better to have the natural curiosity of a youngster satisfied by seeing his own mother unclothed than to satisfy it later with smutty magazines or, heaven forbid, with some sweet little 15-year-old girl down the block.

MICHIGAN MOTHER
DEAR ABBY: Yes, you ARE old fashioned! Neither my wife nor I, nor our children have ever been ashamed of our bodies, clothed or unclothed.

Not so with my mother who was so "modest" she wouldn't even let a doctor examine her. Or my father, who dressed and undressed in the clothes closet. Of course we "peeked" and developed unwholesome attitudes toward sex, family relations, and marriage which, fortunately, we were able to overcome before we married.

Your advice is usually right on target, but this time you shot from the hip. Sincerely,
G.D.: PALO ALTO

Press Society Says Young German Party Will Win Its First Seats

CHICAGO (AP) — Sigma Delta Chi, the 18,000 member professional journalism society, has criticized the Johnson administration for "deliberately misleading the public, press and the Congress through flat lies, through half-truths and through clever use of statistics that distort."

The attack came in a report Sunday by the society's national Freedom of Information Committee which accused some of the highest officials in the administration of "inaccurate and misleading statements that contradicted most of the fine words" President Johnson has spoken on freedom of information.

The report leveled some of its sharpest thrust at the State Department, Department of Defense, National Aeronautics and Space Administration, and the President's news conferences.

The report, released in advance of the society's convention Wednesday in Minneapolis, Minn., said the President's news conferences are staged in a way to make it "unlikely that he will face . . . consistent hard questioning. He has it well organized for a White House snow job."

It accused the State Department of "misusing a claim of national security for purposes of hiding or obscuring the record."

HANNOVER, West Germany (AP) — The new chairman of West Germany's ultranationalist party promised Sunday that the party will capture its first seats in the federal parliament in the 1969 election.

Adolf von Thadden, the 46-year-old chairman of the National Democratic party, praised the 1,400 delegates to the rightist party's three-day congress for adopting a strong, nationalistic platform.

GUILT ERASING
"This young party can no longer be held back in its growth," he told them. "If there were a federal election right now, we would get 8 to 10 per cent of the votes. In any case we will be the opposition in the Bundestag in 1969."

This would make the NDP West Germany's No. 3 party, behind the Christian Democrats and the Social Democrats, the partners in the present coalition government.

Von Thadden, who is given much of the credit for his party's landing seats in six of the 49 West German state parliaments, is attacked by opponents as the purveyor of neonazism and acclaimed by supporters as the herald of a healthy new German national spirit.

National Eyes NW Expansion
CHICAGO (AP) — The National League, fearful of being shut out in the rich Northwest territory, will hold a special expansion meeting today.

President Warren Giles of the National League called the meeting shortly after the American League shifted the Kansas City A's to Oakland beginning next season and voted to expand to 12 teams by 1969, if possible. The American League awarded franchises to Seattle and to a new group in Kansas City.

FREE FATHERLAND
On the congress podium von Thadden was flanked by two large red flags that to some observers resembled the Nazi banner. On the NDP banner is a wreath with the letters NDP; the Nazis had a swastika inside a circle.

Delegates brought the congress to a rousing, high-pitched climax with the singing of "Deutschland Ueber Alles," the national anthem under Hitler that was prohibited for a time after the war.

The party's ranks contain former Nazis but the accent is on youth. The ideal the NDP offers Germany's youth is, in von Thadden's words, "a free fatherland in an independent Europe of free nations."
