HIPPIE DEATH

Identifies Man Pushed From Auto

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP)—The FBI identified the body of a long-haired youth pushed from an automobile and then killed as Joseph Elsworth Montcalm, 25, lately of San Francisco and a native of Michigan.

The identification was reported by Hunt County Asst. Atty. Smith Gilley.

'Fat Slob Named Joe'

Previously he was identified by hippie acquaintances only as a "fat slob named Joe."

The body, battered and slashed, was found Jan. 31 near Greenville on a dead-end rural road.

Four long-haired acquaintances were already in custody in Baton Rouge when the body was found. Murder charges were filed against them before Justice of Peace Homer Wacasey of Greenville.

At Baton Rouge, Detectives Bobby Gill and Ronnie Alford said three of the four described the slaying shortly after the body was found. They were held at the time on vagrancy charges.

Pills, Glue, Wine

The detectives said they were told that "Joe" had been beaten, slashed, then run through with a four-foot iron rod before being dumped into a ditch.

They said the slaying followed a hopped-up evening of pill popping, glue sniffing and wine drinking through Texas.

The hippies were en route from California to Mardi Gras in New Orleans.

Held in the parish jail at Baton Rouge were Robert Steven Thomas Jr., 18, of San Francisco; Charles Robert "Turk" Perkins, 21, of Miami Beach; Calvin Charles Whiddow, 20, of Hialeah, Fla.; and Thomas Dunbar "Gypsy" Headley, 21, Oakland, Calif. All are members of a San Francisco hippie colony.

Swastika Symbol

Police said the youths wore jackets that carried the swastika symbol.

Alford and Gill said the four youths left California the previous week. En route, they picked up the victim whom they had known about two weeks.

As they were traveling through Texas, the officers said, the youths got into an argument and stopped the car on a dirt road.

When the youths were picked up for questioning, the detectives said, a box containing three kinds of nerve pills, four pairs of gloves—three of them blood stained—a butcher knife and other weapons were found.

Train Wreck

KANSAS CITY, Kan. (AP)—Ten of the 14 cars of the El Capitan Super (chief passenger train) derailed minutes after leaving the Kansas City Union Station early Saturday.

Forty-one persons were injured, none seriously. All were given emergency hospital treatment and released.

Santa Fe Railroad officials said they had not pinpointed the cause of the derailment. The train was en route from Chicago to Los Angeles.

It was traveling about 50 miles an hour, officials said, when the derailment occurred about 2:30 a.m.

Big Spring Week

. . . with Joe Pickle

The ground hog saw his shadow last week, which proves one thing beyond any doubt — that the sun was out. And indeed it was, for there were signs that spring is not far away if the lazy weather persists. All over town the yellow jasmine was blooming more prolifically than in many years.

Voter registration looks like it will top 14,000 before the final count is in. The number of certificates stood at 13,500 when the deadline fell, but there were on hand an estimated 700 others. The total will top the previous record by more than 2,000, and our potential vote will be more representative of Howard County. Now, if we can only get all the qualified voters to vote.

A two-year extension of the contract of Supt. Sam Anderson was voted (5-1) by trustees, along with a regular increment to his salary last week. At Forsan a split vote (4-3) left Supt. Darrell Flynt without a contract extension. Based on a large turnout of patrons, it won't be at all surprising.

This group of excited Scouts have just been notified they won the President's Award for their display on a miniature model campground.

Annual Scout Show Draws Praise, Crowd

Over 400 Scouts, representing some 23 units, demonstrated to area residents what the Boy Scout program is all about Saturday at the annual Scout Exposition at Highland Shopping Center.

Frosty Robison, camping and activities chairman for the Lone Star District, and Leon Miller, district scout executive, both concurred in their opinion that this year's displays were the finest ever.

Troop 339 was presented the President's Award for its display of a miniature model campground. The same award for Cubs went to Pack 45 for its presentation on communications.

Interesting displays and presentations were attractively set up on the shopping center mall, and the center itself was bustling with activity. Parking space outside was at a premium.

Some of the more unusual displays included "Around the World" collections by Pack 46 of Webb AFB and Troop 175's gun presentation. Troop 7 demonstrated canoe building and wood carving, Troop 2 chose pioneering as its theme, and Troop 5 built a signal tower. One of the most patient Scouts was the "victim" of Troop 300 first aid demonstration.

Awards included a first place ribbon to the Air Scouts for a petrochemical display sponsored by Cosden Oil & Chemical Co.

Packs winning were Pack 137 and Pack 14, first place awards; Pack 100, Pack 46 and Pack 202, second place ribbons; Pack 138, Pack 238 and Pack 179, third place commendations.

Some 9,000 tickets were sold for the event. Posts, troops and packs share in the proceeds along with the council, after expenses are deducted.

Crash Takes Two Pilots

NEWCASTLE, Tex. (AP) — An Army helicopter, missing since Wednesday, was found Saturday eight miles west of this North Texas town. Both pilots were dead.

Officials at Ft. Wolters near Mineral Wells identified the victims as 2nd Lt. N. D. Russell of Lima, Ohio, and 2nd Lt. Larry Ray Mullins of Macoupin, Ill.

Both men were students at the primary helicopter center at Ft. Wolters.

Officials at the base listed Mrs. Letha Mae Mullins of Rt. 1, Macoupin, Ill., as Lt. Mullins' next-of-kin.

Russell was the son of Clifton Russell, 610 East Third Street, Lima, Ohio, and Mrs. Ressie B. Russell, 3244 West Polk, Chicago, Ill.

Hue Situation Still Confused

SAIGON (AP) — Allied troops battled a Communist detachment six miles northeast of Saigon early Sunday in the five-day-old Red offensive that authorities regard as the prelude to invasion from the North.

Elements of the U.S. 11th Armored Cavalry Regiment and South Vietnamese marines took on an enemy force of undetermined size near Thu Duc, on one of the routes by which bloodied Communist outfits were withdrawing from the capital and the area of Tan Son Nhut Airbase. The U.S. Command said fighting was heavy.

Official accounts said the strong enemy forces which seized much of that old imperial capital Wednesday—estimated as high as 2,000 men—were being driven out.

South Vietnamese troops said they recaptured the airfield within the citadel, the walled town that was once the seat of Vietnamese kings. The U.S. Command said at least two Communist companies held out in the citadel. U.S. Marines trying to clear streets in the southern edge of the city were largely pinned down by enemy fire.

Reporting from the U.S. Marine headquarters in Da Nang, Associated Press correspondent George McArthur said Viet Cong flags still flew in parts of Hue, a city of 40,000 about 50 miles south of the DMZ.

Leathernecks who fought their way to the city jail found the enemy had released the 2,000 or more prisoners, many of them held as Viet Cong suspects.

Officials in Saigon—American and South Vietnamese—claimed the back of the current Communist offensive had been broken. Field reports and other advices indicated, however, that the enemy still was holding some and that several bloody actions were still going on.

In the early morning hours Saigon itself appeared fairly quiet.

SAIGON (AP)—A U.S. military spokesman said Sunday the toll of Communist troops killed by allied forces in last week's widespread fighting has climbed to about 14,700.

The spokesman, in a preliminary report, said the enemy dead increased by about 2,000 over the figure of 12,704 announced Saturday.

mando unit that infiltrated the south with orders to assassinate President Park and other officials.

ANGRY RALLIES

Angry rallies and demonstrations continued for the eighth straight day in South Korea to denounce North Korea's dispatch of an assassination team. Sixty thousand workers, fishermen, intellectuals and businessmen took part in various assemblages.

In the largest, 50,000 workers congregated in Seoul and saw leaders burn the effigy of Premier Kim Il-sung of North Korea.

At the same time, South Korean military headquarters reported another member of the assassination squad had been killed in the hills near Seoul. To date 27 have been killed and one captured. The others remain at large, or may have starved or frozen to death.

Yarborough Enters Race For Governor

Don Promises Rip-Roaring Texas Battle

AUSTIN (AP) — Don Yarborough, the liberal evangelical-style campaigner who twice lost to Gov. John Connally, said Saturday he is running for governor again.

The Houston lawyer, 42, promised a rip-roaring campaign, saying he is unafraid of crash programs to meet state needs. He asserted his defeat would be a defeat for the people.

"I look at this as a people's campaign," Yarborough said at a state Capitol news conference. "If I win, the people are going to win. If I lose, the people are going to lose."

TRUNCED

Connally defeated Yarborough in 1962 by 26,250 votes out of 1.1 million cast in the 1962 Democratic runoff primary. It was the first such race for both of them. When Yarborough took another crack at Connally in 1964, he was trounced, nearly three to one.

"I feel this is going to be one of the most exciting campaigns Texas has ever had in its history," Yarborough said.

He promised a detailed platform later and answered only one specific question about his program. Yes, he said, he favors a state minimum wage law because "it has to be done if we are going to deal with the poverty problem."

IMAGINATION

Texas' past leadership, he asserted, has dealt in "piecemeal gradualism" that failed to solve problems.

"We will be unafraid of crash programs to solve nagging problems that must be solved," Yarborough said. "We must think in terms of constantly improving the situation with creativity and imagination."

He promised the candidate he will win, on the basis of recent polls, but that he might lose "if this campaign is going to prove the governorship is for sale."

His platform, he said, would be the "most original and comprehensive" ever presented in Texas and would "not only challenge the people of this state but will challenge the people of the other 49 states. We are going to show the way for the entire nation."

POVERTY

Poverty, he said, would be attacked with a program that would "call for the participation of all the people of the state more than they have ever been called on to participate before."

Texas Liquor Fuss Continues

AUSTIN (AP)—A Liquor Control Board auditor said Saturday he had helped LCB Administrator Coke Stevenson Jr. with his income tax returns but said he did it mostly on his own time and for friendship.

Martin Holter, assistant director of auditing, was one of six LCB officials who signed a letter to Board Chairman W. D. Noel of Odessa in Stevenson's and the agency's defense.

The letter and Holter's income tax returns were among several developments Saturday in the turmoil over liquor law enforcement.

Speaker Ben Barnes said he plans to discuss the LCB's problems Wednesday with Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin. He said it is "almost definite" he will ask a House committee to look into liquor laws.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith said in Lubbock he has received a request from Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo for a Legislative Council study aimed at simplifying and tightening the Texas Liquor Control Act. Smith said "Any help we can give will be beneficial." As lieutenant governor, Smith is chairman of the council, the legislature's research and bill-drafting agency.

Holter and Stevenson's secretary delivered copies of the letter to Noel at the Capitol press room.

"Much of the unsavory publicity which our department has received and is continuing to receive has come from disgruntled employees, who, after having their disloyalty and questionable activities and associates brought into the open, have sought to fight back by making untrue statements to the press concerning the operation of the department," the letter said.

about the character and integrity of Mr. Stevenson in particular," the letter said.

Postal Clerk Gun Victim

Clifton L. Newton, 30, of 1601 Cardinal, post office clerk since Feb. 14, 1961, shot and killed himself with a 12-gauge double barrel shotgun at his home around 2 p.m. Friday.

The body was found by one of his sons, according to Jess Slaughter, justice of the peace. Slaughter ruled death due to gunshot wound, self inflicted. The gun was on the floor of a back room beside the body.

Newton was a patient at the Big Spring State Hospital, home on a weekend pass.

Officer Stewart Dickson, Capt. Stanley Bogard and Sgt. John Scott investigated the incident.

Slaughter said a note scrawled on the back of a mail advertisement read "I love you all but I can't get well."

Newton was born March 6, 1937, in Midland, and came to Big Spring in 1945. He attended high school here and married Miss Edith Theftford, April 1, 1960, in Big Spring. Newton was a member of the Trinity Baptist Church.

Services will be held Monday at 2 p.m. at the Trinity Baptist Church, with the Rev. Claude Craven, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the City Cemetery, under the direction of the Nalley - Pickle Funeral Home.

Survivors include his wife; three sons, Garland Newton, Martin Newton and Cord Newton, of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Newton, Big Spring; one brother, Lindell Newton, and two sisters, Mrs. Donald Hale and Mrs. Wilbur Ford, all of Big Spring.

Palbearers will be Nile Cole, Wayne Beene, Charles Dickson, Leland Calvert, Joe Fortson and Roy Tubbs.

Negro Teen Allegedly Stripped By Policemen

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — One Miami policeman has resigned and another has been suspended over an incident in which a 17-year-old Negro boy allegedly was stripped of his shorts and dangled from a highway overpass by his heels.

Both men are white. A spokesman said the incident occurred at a highway construction site in the Negro district. Both officers were relieved of duty and an investigation was begun after the youth's parents complained Thursday night.

Headley, who ordered a police crackdown on crime in Negro areas after a rash of Christmas killings, said it had not been determined what preceded the incident but no charges were filed against the boy.

SEPARATED
A third officer later found the boy, still in his shorts, he said. "Both officers have been separated from the service and I am drawing up formal charges against the second officer and calling for his immediate dismissal," Headley said Saturday.

Headley said Jerry P. Edwards, 27, resigned Friday, and John Creekmore, 23, was suspended and would be dismissed.

GET TOUGH
Headley, who ordered a police crackdown on crime in Negro areas after a rash of Christmas killings, said it had not been determined what preceded the incident but no charges were filed against the boy.

The FBI entered the case to determine whether any federal laws were violated. Neither Creekmore nor Edwards would comment but a spokesman said Creekmore had indicated when suspended Friday he would fight the case.

Headley's "get tough" policy gained widespread attention and criticism from civil rights groups after he told the Miami City Council he would use officers armed with shotguns and police dogs to cut down crime in the city's Negro districts.

Daughter Needs Discipline

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a 13-year-old daughter who is the most selfish, inconsiderate girl in the world? For example, when "The Princess" takes a bath, she thinks she has to have the water up to her neck. There are eight of us in this family, Abby, and she doesn't care if there is no hot water left for anybody else or not.

its third year of operation, with Mrs. Keith Swim as instructor. Students this year are all senior girls. The majority of them attend classes in the morning and work in the afternoon. The girls are paid wages for their part-time jobs while they are participating in an on-the-job training program, Mrs. Swim said.

To take the nine-months course, students have to meet their other requirements for graduation, too, Mrs. Swim added. Emphasis is placed on dress, grooming, business etiquette and telephone conversation. Business math, spelling and English are stressed. Students study letter writing and typing, do some legal work and go through an extensive filing course.

DEAR MOM: If "The Princess," at age 13, won't listen to you, you'd better prepare yourself for some royal headaches. Consideration for others is the Number One virtue in this life, and if your daughter doesn't learn it fast she will probably always be in hot water up to her neck.

DEAR PAT: And thank you for your wonderful letter. I hope you will keep me informed of further progress.

DEAR ABBY: What is a sure cure for a selfish man? I am married to one. He is 23 and I am 22, and he expects me to wait on him hand and foot. The other night, for example, he said, "Hey, get me my cigarettes and a pillow, will you?" I told him I wasn't his slave, and he got mad.

DEAR ABBY: Thanks to you, I have fallen in love with a soldier in Vietnam. I wrote to Sgt. Jefferson, who

OFF BEATEN TRAIL Outlaw Willed His Skin For A Drum

By ED SYERS

Recently we've wondered if Texas ever heard the grim beat of a drum covered with the skin of an outlaw; and Austin's Carl H. Brockmann says yes. He quotes his city's late author-historian — and my friend — Curtis Bishop.

"From Bishop's column 'This Day in Texas,' reports Brockmann, 'I found this article in a scrapbook I kept as a youngster:

"April 27: One Ed Singleton, a Texas outlaw of no mean stature, was hanged on this day in 1876. Notorious, Singleton was arrested by Sheriff D. A. Walton of Beeville and received a death sentence.

"It was expected that Singleton's confederates would attempt a rescue, and Rangers guarded the jail. The night before his execution, however, the outlaw sent for his mother and made an extraordinary request. "He bequeathed his skin to the district attorney, directing that it be stretched over a drum head and that the drum be beaten to the tune of 'Old Molly Hare' in front of the courthouse on each anniversary of his hanging — as a warning to evildoers. The remainder of his body, he left to doctors in the cause of science.

"The annual ceremony has long been abandoned by Bee County authorities."

"Back in the '30's," says Austin's Mignon Wagner, "my stepfather told me about this cave you've hunted, which could be entered on the Texas side of the Rio Grande (near Big Bend's Santa Elena Canyon, allegedly) and exited on the Mexican side.

"He said there was an area within the cave that was full of water, but one could swim under, if an excellent swimmer. He never told me where the cave was located and though I've often thought of it, I've never tried to look for it: the area's too big.

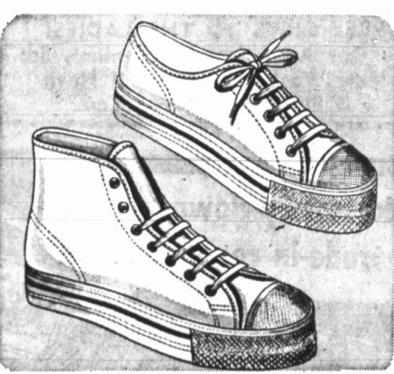

"Knowing my stepfather, however, I know this cave exists and that he had used it. He knew every inch of the Rio Grande."

THAT ANGLED GRAVE
"You asked about Sim Dixon being buried 'angled' to his cemetery," says Sam Antonio's W. O. Sewell. "He was a cousin of John Wesley Hardin's, born in Fannin County about 1850. He belonged to the KKK and was sworn to fight Yankee soldiers as long as he lived because they had killed his family. Reputed one of the most dangerous men in Texas, he was killed by a squad of soldiers in Limestone County. As to the angle of his grave (not a proper buryin'), I know of one in my home town in West Texas. It received a man hanged for murder, and is at an angle, too; and in a corner of the cemetery by itself."

CITY ATTORNEY HAS BUSY YEAR
Tom Huckaby Likes West Texas

Huckaby Has A Busy Year

By JERRY MONSON
All things considered, it's been a busy year for Tom Huckaby. The city attorney completed his first year as problem-shooter for the City of Big Spring Jan. 16. This was his first year as a city attorney, although he had served as assistant city attorney in Wichita Falls since 1962.

He speaks well not only of his job but of West Texas. "We have found the people of West Texas to be about the friendliest anywhere," he said. "We enjoy the climate—after a few months here you begin to see the beauty of the countryside."

Huckaby is an avid hunter and is delighted with the hunting to be found in West Texas—dove, duck, small game and deer.

Some of his duties as city attorney include prosecuting in city court, drawing ordinances, collecting delinquent taxes (for both the city and the school district, which recently renewed his contract for six months), and advising city officials on legal matters.

Thirty-six-year-old Huckaby is a native of Norman, Okla. He was reared in Iowa Park and graduated from high school there before attending the University of Oklahoma. He joined the Navy during the Korean conflict and after a four-year tour he returned to University of Oklahoma to complete his studies. He received his bachelor's degree in 1958.

He graduated from the University of Texas Law School in 1961 and was admitted to the bar in November of that year. He worked for a time for the State Board of Insurance in Austin. He has served as secretary of the Wichita County Bar Association and as a director in that organization.

Huckaby and his wife, Vernedene, have two children. His son, Tod, 6, is in the first grade at Moss Elementary, and a daughter, Jan, 4, attends St. Mary's Episcopal Nursery School. Mrs. Huckaby is active in the P-TA, women's groups at St. Mary's Episcopal, where the family attends church, and is on the board of the Big Spring Little Theater. They reside at 1715 Yale.

Extra Hospital Care Is Called Lifetime Reserve

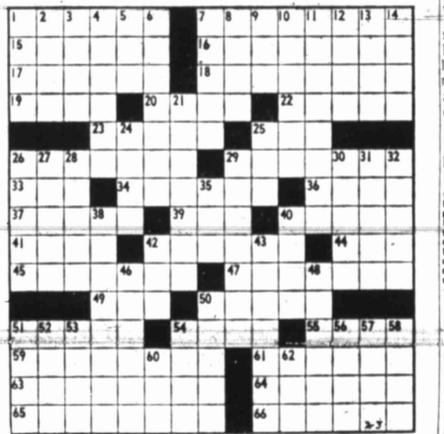

By BRUCE BOSSAT
 WASHINGTON (NEA) — Beginning in 1968, you can get some extra hospital care under your medicare hospital insurance program but the added cushion is called a "lifetime reserve." Once used up, it is gone forever.
 Your basic protection provides up to 90 days of care in a hospital for a single illness, with the patient paying the first $40 of charges and paying $10 for each day after the first 60.
 Under the revisions of late 1967, you hereafter have a reserve of 60 or more benefit days. You can draw upon it, on top of your original 90 days of care, up to the full 60. In that extra care period, your hospital insurance pays all but the first $20 a day of your covered hospital expenses.
 Thus, conceivably a man 65 or older could enter a hospital and be protected under hospital insurance for 150 straight days. But thereafter he could never count on protection for more than 90 days at a time, since his 60-day reserve would have been entirely consumed.
 In any discussion of medicare hospital insurance, it is necessary to understand what is meant by a single "spell of illness."
 Such a spell starts the day a patient is admitted to a hospital, a qualified nursing home, or other extended-care facility. It ends once a patient has been outside a hospital or care facility for 60 straight days. After such an interval, the patient is eligible for another basic 90 days of care in a hospital, or comparable care in other facilities.

 In the first 18 months of medicare's life, some 5.7 million elderly folk made use of their hospital insurance.
 They did not become involved directly in the payment of their hospital bills. Settlements are arranged by the hospital, acting through some intermediary agency like Blue Cross to submit the charges to the federal government.
 The 1967 revisions also had these effects:
 Hospital insurance hereafter cover the full amount of reasonable charges for pathologists or radiologists services when a patient is in the hospital. Formerly some of this cost had to be charged against optional "doctor bill" insurance, if the patient has it.
 It used to be necessary for a physician to certify that a person's entry into a hospital was "medically necessary." Now the fact of admission is considered sufficient. But in long-stay cases, the doctor still must certify the need for continued hospital care at intervals specified by the government.
 Durable medical equipment, such as iron lungs, oxygen tents, hospital beds and wheel chairs, can now be purchased rather than merely rented by the patient under hospital insurance.
 A patient may be able to collect some benefits if he has had to pay a hospital bill because he was treated in a hospital not part of the medicare program. But the hospital in question must be licensed as a hospital, must have a full-time nursing service, and provide medical care under doctor's supervision.
 If you attain 65 in 1968, you can get hospital insurance if you are entitled to monthly benefits under Social Security or railroad retirement, or have just three quarters (nine months) of Social Security work credits. The old requirement was six quarters. After 1968, the requirement will rise again on a steady scale, year by year.
 Hospital insurance also covers some extended-care and home-health benefits, but these are largely unchanged under the new law. Social security offices and various guide publications offer the details.

Community Radio Watch Program Initiated Here

A new public service program designed to encourage residents to be good citizens by helping maintain law and order begins this week in Big Spring. Mayor Arnold Marshall and Police Chief Jay Banks are coordinating the effort, which is dubbed "Community Radio Watch."

Odessa GI Denied Bail

SAN ANGELO (AP) — Jail doors stayed locked Saturday before Miguel Ybarra, an AWOL soldier from Ft. Sam Houston and Odessa accused of murder in the death of a young Colorado oil heir Michael Robineau.

Justice of Peace O. L. Miller denied bond Friday to Ybarra, 21, after Dist. Atty. Royal Hart read a statement he said the Odessa soldier signed regarding details of the slaying.

Robineau, 22, reported heir to $3 million, had completed a reserve hitch at Ft. Sam Houston in San Antonio and was en route home. He had a penchant for helping hitchhikers. His body was found by a young rabbit hunter two miles from nearby Wall Monday three days after he was shot to death.

Discovery of the bloodied Robineau car set off a large search. Ybarra surrendered in Odessa Monday. Asked at his examining trial if he had anything to say, Ybarra muttered "no."

"It was then up to the state to prove that we had a case and we had that," Hart said.

Ackerly Woman Hit With Board; Stepson Jailed

A 23-year-old Ackerly woman is in Cowper Clinic and Hospital with multiple lacerations of the head suffered Friday when her 13-year-old stepson beat her with a big board.

Deputy Bill Horton of the Dawson County Sheriff's Office said that the boy was in the custody of juvenile officer Pat O'Neal. The woman, Mrs. Wilbur Bowman, and the boy were in the old Coleman Hotel in Ackerly where they reside when the incident took place about 3:15 p.m. Alert Ambulance brought the woman to Cowper Clinic here.

The Highway Patrol in Big Spring and the Martin County Sheriff's Office were also called to the scene. Investigating officers from Lamesa were Guy Kinison, Base Lambert and Horton. Deputy Horton said that Mrs. Bowman's husband was reportedly in a Lamesa hospital, suffering from double pneumonia.

Texas Traffic Claims Dozen

Accidents on Texas highways claimed 12 lives among the hundreds of thousands lured to travel Saturday by long errant good weather.

Three bodies were found at dawn near Muenster in wreckage of a car that struck a 25-ton piece of road machinery in a construction stretch of US 82. Five died in and near Houston in crashes Saturday and late Friday night.

Two died in Dallas. Killed a quarter mile east of the North Texas town of Muenster were Sheila Marie Voth, 19, Mrs. Anthony Grewing, 24, and James Klement, 20, all of Muenster.

Injured and in fair condition was Charles Otto, 20, of Muenster, who escaped the wreckage and flagged down a motorist. Police said the dirt-laden earth roller was parked in a road section under construction and closed to traffic.

Until late Friday Houston had gone 11 days without a traffic death. Then two crashes killed three persons and on Saturday morning, two more died in another mishap.

A three-car smashup in south-east Houston killed Jerry Bruce Faulkner, 23, and Elizabeth Marie Yost, 36, both of suburban Pasadena.

About the same time, just north of Houston on US 59, a pedestrian, James Michael Knight, 17, of Pittsburg, Tex., was killed by a car.

Two cars rammed together near downtown Houston Saturday killing Amy F. Theiss, 44, and Miguel Escheverria, 26.

Two cars collided in West Dallas before dawn Saturday killing Ervin Greene, 31, and Joe Rubalcado, 34, both of Dallas. Robert Rubalcado, 8, a son, was injured critically. Dave Chance Jr., 32, was hurt less seriously. Mrs. Ellen Eubanks of Rock wall died en route to work in Dallas Saturday when her car and a semitrailer truck collided just inside Rockwall County. Trucker Jim Trail of Denton wasn't hurt.

Mrs. Geraldine Cox of Grand Prairie was killed Saturday when her pickup truck struck a bridge 15 miles southeast of Bowie and the town of Alford. Police said Mrs. Cox' body was found in the wreckage of her car which plunged into a deep ravine.

Lurleen Suffers Setback

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Gov. Lurleen Wallace of Alabama has suffered a delayed reaction to radiation treatments and her release from a Texas hospital will be delayed at least 24 hours, a hospital spokesman said Saturday.

A spokesman at M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute said Mrs. Wallace suffered the reaction Friday night and was fed glucose intravenously. The spokesman said such reaction is normal in radiation treatment cases.

The nation's only woman governor had been undergoing the radiation treatments which doctors hoped would destroy a small possibly malignant growth in her pelvic area.

She had been receiving the treatments as an out-patient but was hospitalized Wednesday night because of pain and discomfort. When she began the treatments Jan. 8 doctors said they hoped four weeks of the therapy would eliminate the growth. The four weeks ended Friday.

The peca-nized routine was discovered Jan. 3 during routine examinations. Doctors said they hoped the radiation would eliminate the growth.

However, physicians said it might be two or three months before the full benefits of the radiation treatment are realized. Mrs. Wallace, 41, wife of former Gov. George Wallace, has a history of cancer dating to 1965. She underwent surgery at Anderson last July when doctors removed a malignant egg-sized tumor from her lower abdomen.

HCJC Trustees Ask Return

K. H. McGibbon and Mrs. Horace Garrett, members of the Howard County Junior College board of trustees, said Saturday that they are candidates to succeed themselves.

McGibbon is secretary of the board and has been for a number of years and has been associated with the college through its greatest period of growth.

Mrs. Garrett was named last year to succeed her late husband, who had been a long-time member and president of the board. Through his association with Dora Roberts Foundation, Mr. Garrett also had been a major benefactor of the college.

"We have seen the college develop into one of the strongest two-year institutions in the state," said Mrs. Garrett and McGibbon in their announcement, "and we believe we have an understanding of its contribution and its potentiality for serving the young people of this community and of helping adults to upgrade their skills or acquire new ones."

Portland Man's Auto Missing

A Portland, Ore., man won't have too many pleasant memories of Big Spring.

Lt. R. E. Beardsley, staying at the Holiday Inn, told officers his 1964 model red-and-white convertible had been stolen sometime between 4 a.m. and noon Saturday. The car had Kentucky license plates.

Beardsley told officers the car was parked on the west side of the Inn. It was unlocked and the keys were left above the sun visor.

The car contained military clothing and a brief case with personal and military papers.

They are Kenneth Deweese, freshman industrial arts major and son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Deweese, 1600 Lark; and Handley Driver, junior, member of the Rodeo Club, son of Mrs. Curtis Driver.

Democratic chairman. More tax suits were filed last week — 14 in district court, 59 in county court, and another 114 in justice court. This pushes to around 675 the number of suits now on local court dockets.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District is striking a snag in its plans for diverting highly mineralized waters from the river above Colorado City. It now develops that the water board, while it concurs that this is being done in conformance with previous orders, feels that 2,500 acre feet of side storage requires a hearing. This means some 30 to 45 days of delay.

The Little Theatre is experiencing a resurgence of vitality. Its presentation of "The Fantasticks" met with such favor that two additional performances have been scheduled. True, the new Lamplight Theatre has limited seating, but no production — at least not in recent years — has evoked such enthusiasm.

What do Cubs, Scouts and Explorers do? Well, any of the hundreds and hundreds who saw the annual Scout exposition Saturday at Highland Center have a good idea from the colorful variety of displays.

Auriel LaFond sends a clipping his mother mailed from the Milwaukee Journal: "A week before Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Pscheid and family of 3006 N. 99th, drove to Big Spring, Tex., to visit their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Richard Block. Lt. Block is stationed at Webb AFB. Arriving at night in that city of 32,000 and 1,325 miles from home, the Pscheids had no idea which way to turn to find their daughter's home. They had pulled to a stop sign when a car approached from the rear and pulled up beside them. The driver, a woman, asked: 'Are you Mrs. Block's parents?'"

They said they were, and she said, 'Follow me.' She led them directly to the Block's home. The good Samaritan was a friend of Mrs. Block and knew her parents were expected. The Wisconsin license plates were a tip-off.

There's at least one thing definitely different about the observance of Heart Sunday here this year. It will be on Monday (Feb. 26). The reason: Workers didn't want to cut in on Sunday rest.

The first formally entered candidate for a state office visited here last week in the person of State Sen. Don Gladden, who is seeking the office of lieutenant governor. Earlier Secretary of State John Hill visited here, but it was on the eve of his filing for governor. Elsewhere on the political front, Cecil V. Riordan announced for county Police are investigating three other burglaries N. D. Marsalis, 2701 Crestline, reported a tape recorder and 8 mm movie projector was missing from the D&C Trailer Sales, US 80 west.

James Findlay, 2604 Clinton, told officers three small-fridge vending machines valued at $75 had been taken from the mall in the Highland Shopping Center sometime between Jan. 15 and Feb. 2.

Gibbs & Weeks Men's Store, 223 Main, reported the theft of two men's suits valued at $220 which were taken from the store sometime during the first part of the week.

Officer D. Thorpe, who investigated the incident chased a 1955 or 1956 dark-colored car at high speed but lost the car at the Eleventh Place extension to new FM 700, which is a dirt road.

The battery bandits are at it again. Tom Buckner, 709 E. 4th, told officers Friday that a 12-volt battery had been taken from his 1962 model car sometime during the past two weeks.

Texas Priest Found Dead

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — An assistant parish priest from Conroe was found dead Saturday in his hotel room with a gash on his face.

Homicide Lt. Ted Wells said the cause of death must be determined by physicians.

The priest was the Rev. Joseph Morell, in his mid-40s. He had been assigned to Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church at Conroe for about six months, said the parish priest, the Rev. T. T. Cronin.

Father Cronin said his assistant had come to Dallas to pick up his automobile which was being repaired after a collision in the Dallas area Dec. 26.

Father Morell was injured and was in St. Joseph's Hospital in Houston until Jan. 14.

His body, clad only in socks, was found sprawled on the bed in his 10th floor hotel room after he failed to acknowledge a wake-up telephone call he had placed for 8 a.m.

Spokesmen for the Baker Hotel said Father Morell checked into the hotel late Thursday and had not been seen with other persons.

Lionie Witte, general manager of the hotel, said a guest on the floor heard calls for help during the night and informed the switchboard.

David Roberson Will Try To Repeat As Champion

David Roberson, 13, now an eighth grader in Goliad Junior High School, is all set to repeat — if he can — as county spelling champion in the sixth annual Howard County Spelling Bee here April 13.

Determined to give David a rough time in his effort to be champion for the second successive year, is blonde Marianne McLaughlin. Marianne is now 12 and this year will be competing in the Park Hill school, where she is a sixth grader.

Last year, Marianne, then just 11, was the champion of the St. Mary's Episcopal Church school. Despite her tender years and the fact she was only a fifth grader, she came out third in the county bee. Had she not tripped over the "i" and "e" in "mischievous" she might have wound up even higher.

Second place winner last year was Susan Sulak, champion from the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic School. Susan has now moved into the ninth grade and is no longer eligible to compete. However, Susan has a younger sister, Sylvia, who gave Susan a run for her money in the school elimination and, according to her father, Sylvester Sulak, 4200 Parkway, Sylvia is determined to take over her older sister's spelling crown at the Immaculate Heart school.

Marianne is the sister of Scott McLaughlin, who was 1966 county champion. Scott tried in 1967 but lost out to David at Goliad. He is now a ninth grader and out of the running. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin, 112 Cedar.

David is the son of Capt. and Mrs. John H. Roberson, 4006 Dixon.

Don Hickson, the only Howard County champion to win top honors at Lubbock and compete in the National Bee in Washington, was champion of Howard County for two successive years. It was his second year that saw him win the Washington trip. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hickson, 2708 Crestline, and is now in high school.

According to Mrs. McLaughlin, Marianne has not quit studying for the 1968 Spelling Bee since she wound up third last year.

"She has just about worn out the spelling list," said her mother. "She is determined not to have the trouble she had last year with words like 'mischievous' again."

David has also kept pretty steady at his spelling. In fact, a considerable number of other school champions of 1967 have been practicing all year for this bee. David, Marianne and the others, of course, have the first hurdle — the championship of their own school — to clear before they can get a chance at the county title.

Other champions last year were:

College Heights school—David Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, 1902 Goliad; Bauer school — Uvaldo Lopez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jose Lopez, 605 NE 9th; Boydston — Julia Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Evans, 616 State.

Kentwood — Scott Tyra, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tyra, 2702 Larry; Midway — Michael Barbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jarrell Barbee, Rt. 1; Rannels Junior High—Mary Lou Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Brown, Gay Hill; Forsan — Kevin Calley, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Calley, Chalk; Gay Hill — Bruce Fells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Fells Jr., Gay Hill; Cedar Crest — David Coates, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. than 30 years of service to the city of Colorado City.

Merritt was elected city secretary in 1937 and appointed director of finance about 1950 when the voters of Colorado City adopted the city manager form of government. He was appointed city manager in December, 1962.

After several years of operation of the city manager form of city government, Colorado City councilmen decided they were training ambitious and potentially capable young men who were professional city managers and losing them to bigger towns.

"So, we decided to get out of the training game and hire the trainer," councilman R. J. Hoback said of Merritt's appointment. Hoback and other councilmen agree that the theory was justified.

"Merritt knew what the town and people needed, he had raised a family here, and he owned property here. He was interested and involved in Colorado City."

During Merritt's service as city manager, the city kept the local hospital from closing by buying it and then working toward the formation of a hospital district which purchased it. Merritt, himself, considers the saving of the hospital for the community one of the major projects in which he was involved during his five years as city manager.

The city has also assisted in obtaining right of way for an extension of SH 208 on the east edge of Colorado City, has begun the marking of streets with street signs, has — with county help — constructed a paved landing strip for aircraft, and in 1965 purchased museum pro-

1967 CHAMPION
David Roberson

County Spelling Bee Fixed For April 13; Books Due

By SAM BLACKBURN

The Big Spring Daily Herald's Sixth Annual Howard County Spelling Bee will be held on the morning of Saturday, April 13. The county champion, selected from the school champions of all schools in the county which field a contender, will then have nearly three weeks to prepare for his or her appearance in the Regional Spelling Bee in Lubbock.

Should he win there, the regional champion gets a free trip to Washington, D. C., and a chance to try for the National Spelling Bee Championship.

The regional Bee at Lubbock will be on May 4. The national bee will be the week of June 3-8.

Howard County has sent one regional champion to Washington. He was Don Hickson, now a Big Spring High School student.

Last year's champion was David Roberson, who was Goliad Junior High school's champion. Second place runner up in 1967 was Susan Sulak, champion from the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic school. Third place speller was Marianne McLaughlin, who was the standard bearer from the St. Mary's Episcopal school.

Big Spring Independent School District Superintendent Sam Anderson has said that Keith Swim, administrative assistant and director of special programs, will be coordinator for the city schools' part in the 1968 Spelling Bee.

The schools at Forsan and at Coahoma are invited to send spellers to represent their schools in the county bee and perhaps represent the county at the regional bee in Lubbock.

The official list of words used in the spelling bee at all levels, is in a booklet titled "Words of the Champion." These booklets will soon be on hand at The Herald office and will sell for 15 cents a copy. Last year more than 1,000 boys and girls competed in the spelling bee.

The same plan followed in other years will be pursued this year. Schools are invited to set up classroom competitions and when each room has selected its room champion to determine the school's best speller by an elimination in the school.

A champion and an alternate will be named. If the champion cannot compete on April 13 in the county spelling bee, his school will be represented by his alternate. In the five years the bee has been held in this county, all of the school champions have been able to appear and no call has been made upon any alternate to take over.

It is recommended that the schools select their champions at least 10 days before April 13 in order that the youngster can have additional time to study for his appearance in the county bee.

The champion wins an all-expense trip for himself and his family to Lubbock. He also receives an attractive plaque commemorating his achievement.

If he wins at Lubbock he not only gets an all-expense five day trip to the national capital, but he also receives a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica and World Atlas. His school will receive free use of one Britannica film each month during the following school year.

Each spelling champion at school level receives a ribbon and a special Paper-Mate ball point pen.

At Lubbock, the second place winner gets $20 in cash; third $15; fourth $10; and fifth $5.

The official rules for the spelling bee are now being prepared and will be available to all spellers in each school.

The county spelling bee will be held in the Big Spring High School building. Three judges will be selected to supervise the bee. Lee Porter, county judge, and county school superintendent ex-officio, has been invited to serve as director of the bee.

Mrs. O. T. Brewster, a member of the high school faculty, has served as official pronouncer for the bee for the past two years. Her work has been so outstanding that she is being urged to serve again.

Sulfur Pilot Plant In West Texas

Sinclair Oil & Gas Company has begun initial production of sulfur at its West Texas pilot plant using the French process. This is Sinclair's first venture in the sulfur mining business. The plant, located 15 miles northeast of Fort Stockton in Pecos County, has an initial capacity for heating and treating 500,000 gallons of water per day to 360 degrees. The plant stream is injected under pressure into the reservoir causing the sulfur to melt. The sulfur is produced in the molten state, stored as a liquid, and shipped to market by highway tank trucks and railroad tank cars. Capacity of the plant may be increased by the installation of additional units after economical operations are established. The plant now employs 20 people.

Sweetwater Hunt Slated

SWEETWATER—The tenth annual Rattlesnake Roundup, the world's largest, is expected to draw hunters and spectators here March 1-3.

Last year nearly two tons of rattlesnakes were killed during the three-day event. Several foreign hunters were involved in the hunt which netted 4,000 live rattlers for a total of 3,400 pounds of wriggling danger.

The annual hunt, sponsored by the Sweetwater Jaycees, will feature the live snakes on display in the Nolan County Coliseum. There will be demonstrations of venom milking for use in research, guided tours for spectators and photographers, preparation and cooking of rattlesnake steaks, and Miss Snake Charmer, herself.

Registration for the hunt begins at 10 a.m. on Friday, March 1, in the Nolan County Coliseum. World traveler and snake expert Patrick Burchfield has been retained to conduct exhibitions of snake-handling and milking in the coliseum.

Pleads Guilty

Edith N. Pond, charged with DWI, pleaded guilty Friday in Howard County Court and was fined $50 and assessed costs in the case. She was placed on three months probation.

ELIMINATION BOUT HALTED IN 12TH ROUND BY REFEREE

Thad Spencer Beaten By Jerry Quarry

OAKLAND (AP) — Jerry Quarry, who has been fighting as a professional less than three years, moved one step away from the world heavy weight boxing championship when he stopped Thad Spencer in the 12th and last round Saturday in their semifinal match of the World Boxing Association elimination tournament.

The 22-year-old Irishman from Los Angeles was pummeling Spencer around the ring with a two-handed barrage when referee Jack Downey stopped the fight with three seconds remaining.

Quarry floored Spencer, who had entered the ring as a 7-5 favorite, in the fourth and 10th rounds.

Each of the knockdowns came with just a few seconds remaining in the round and when Spencer arose the din from the approximately 11,000 fans in the Oakland Coliseum arena drowned out the bell and referee Downey continued his count each time to mandatory eight past the official three minute mark.

The winner, who turned professional on May 7, 1965, next meets Jimmy Ellis of Louisville, Ky., the other finalist, at a site and date to be determined later.

In reaching the final, Quarry eliminated two-time former world champion Floyd Patterson on a split decision last October in Los Angeles and then Spencer, who last August outpointed one-time WBA champion Ernie Terrell in Houston.

"I just fought a smart fight, and it paid off," Quarry said after the technical knockout of Spencer. "He hit me one good shot in the whole fight, a left hook in the fifth round that hurt."

The end came after Quarry unleashed a furious barrage to the head with only seconds remaining. Spencer took a smashing right to the chin, wobbled and attempted to grab Quarry, only to be met by a rain of lefts and rights to the head.

He stumbled against the ropes and was staggering when Downey intervened.

Up through the 11th round Quarry was ahead on all three official cards. Downey's was the closest at 7-6 while judges Dick Young and Rudy Ortega scored it 9-4 and 7-3 respectively under the California scoring rules which give the winner of a round anything from one to five points and the loser nothing.

The AP card had Quarry ahead 6-5.

Saigon Golf Colony Takes Big Chance

SAIGON (AP) — From the seventh tee of Saigon's only golf course you could drive a two-story shot Saturday into the headquarters of a Viet Cong infantry company.

The Communists are clinging tenaciously to a cluster of homes in the bamboo shamberry of Saigon has moved out there in a bid to inch as U.S. and Vietnamese troops attempt to dislodge enemy infiltrators in house-to-house fighting.

Late Saturday afternoon the Vietnamese 8th Paratroop Battalion fought a sharp, vicious clash with the Communist company in the bamboo. Flanked by enemy snipers, the paratroopers moved back to regroup and re-attack Sunday.

"This might take us several days," commented the senior U.S. adviser with the paratroopers, Capt. Wesley Taylor, from Clarksville, Tenn.

The broad, green golf course fairways have been stained with blood and pitted with mortar and rocket rounds. On Saturday paratroopers had machine guns propped up in the rough and a state of paralysis.

Losses Hurt School Here

With TOMMY HART

In junior college athletics, it has about come to the point where the schools with weaker academic requirements are fielding the better teams . . . The senior colleges are going after the good athletes who are capable of maintaining A and B averages, leaving the borderline cases for the jocos to recruit . . . So the JC's have a choice: Either compete athletically with the boys who have to struggle to maintain their grades or make nothing but token appearances in the various sports . . . The coaches in schools with higher classroom standards have two big problems: Recruiting and keeping the boys eligible once they are signed . . . Both the basketball and track teams at Howard County Junior College suffered irreplaceable losses at mid-term and can't hope to compete on a par with those schools which keep athletes eligible regardless of their standing academically . . . The problem will never be solved until and unless some sort of standard is adopted by the ruling body of the National Junior College Athletic Association and that isn't likely to happen . . . Athletes, of course, shouldn't be exempt from (1) missing classes where it is possible for them to attend and (2) making every effort to study . . . Regrettably, however, the long hours they must devote to training if they are to succeed as athletes are often not taken into consideration . . . HCJC has two of the finest coaches in the land in Buddy Travis and L. L. (Red) Lewis but Merlin's Wand was lost a long time before either was born . . . The misfortunes the Hawk basketball team has experienced are going to hurt the American Business Club in its effort to promote the Region V Basketball tournament here, too, and the service club is on the cuff to the tune of $3,000 in sponsoring the meet . . . A strong HCJC team is needed to bring in the customers.

JERRY KRAMER

Jack Mildren, Abilene Cooper's super star, isn't the basketball player he was last year mainly because the football scouts never give him a moment's rest . . . The head coach of a big independent school was in the stands during the Cougar-Steer game here the other night and trailed Mildren to the dressing room following the contest . . . Pete Cook, lone Division I member of the local chapter of the Southwestern Basketball Officials Association among its 25 members and five associate members, will be one of the officials in the 1968 Texas State Boys' tournament at Austin—the chore coming up a week after the Region V (junior college) meet here . . . The disappearance of the HCJC rooting section's missing drum, a mystery for four or five years now, has never been solved but The Shadow Knows . . . D. A. Miller, the local basketball arbiter, says Snyder's Tommy Bullard is the best outside player he's seen on a high school court since Dubby Malaise . . . Many observers are also saying that Lamesa's Tap Mason is as fine a post man as West Texas has ever produced . . . Leon Hart, who was a celebrated All-American end for Notre Dame years ago, is now marketing brake blocks out of Troy, Mich. . . . CBS is supposed to have taken quite a financial bath on its NBC telecasts last year, a result of its decision to drop the sport of basketball. . . . Rozelle reportedly is toying with the idea of packaging the games to offer as a product of the league. The video-viewing public may have witnessed the past of the Sunday doubleheaders, too.

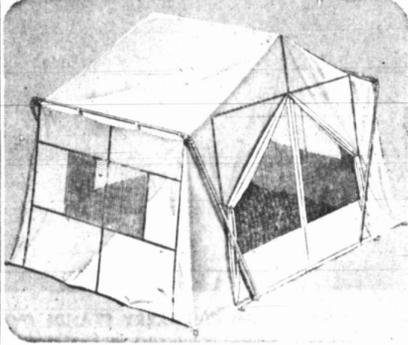

Clarendon College has a basketball gymnasium with dimensions considerably smaller than those in HCJC's gym . . . For that reason, a fast-breaking team has difficulty adjusting to the court . . . NMMI in Roswell probably has the Western Conference worst-lighted fieldhouse . . . Jim Bunning of the Pittsburgh Pirates is within striking distance of Warren Spahn, Bob Feller, Tim Lincecum and Christy Mathewson on the all-time strikeout list of pitchers . . . Bunning now has 2,398 while Spahn ended in third place (behind the all-time king, Walter Johnson, and Cy Young) with 2,583, followed by Feller (2,581), Keefe (2,524) and Mathewson (2,505) . . . Jess Stiles, head football coach at Wichita Falls Hirschi since it opened in 1962, is the new head mentor at Borger—where Gene Mayfield used to build great teams . . . Tulane, which didn't experience much success in football last season, red-shirted 18 players in 1967 . . . Roy Thruston, the Garden City school superintendent and a former coach, says a basketball player is so delicately tuned physically he should have his ears checked and cleaned regularly to maintain his scoring touch . . . Quarterback Bart Starr is the fellow who reaped all the headlines in that NFL playoff game between Green Bay and Dallas last month but the Packers would have lost had it not been for guard Jerry Kramer, who sprung Starr for the winning TD with a tremendous block on an outgassed Jethro Pugh.

U.S. Poised To Make Big Bid At Grenoble

GRENoble, France (AP)—Gen. Charles de Gaulle, his fiercest battle for medals on the snow and ice of this Alpine winterland.

The biggest cache is expected to go to the rugged speed skaters, Nordic skiers and hockey players of the Soviet Union and the indefatigable cross-country skiers and jumpers of the Scandinavian countries. But the United States is ready to make its strongest bid since the games were started in 1924.

Peggy Fleming, a dazzling ice ballerina from Colorado Springs, Colo., appears a cinch to win the women's figure skating crown—on top of her two world championships—and medal chances are good in both men's and women's Alpine skiing, bobsledding and speed skating, an event normally monopolized by the Russians.

McDERMOTT BACK
Terry McDermott, America's lone gold medalist at Innsbruck four years ago, is back for another shot in the 500-meter speed skating sprint. Billy Kidd and Jim Heuga, the silver and bronze medalists in the men's downhill, head a confident Alpine team that also includes those teenage kids, Kiki Cutter, 18, and Judy Nagel, 16. Bobsledders Paul Almey, Howard Clifton and Bob contend "we've got as good a chance as anybody."

This industrial city of 250,000, nestled in a valley surrounded by three majestic mountain ranges, is beginning to pulsate from the excitement of a rare visit by the French President and 13 days of performances by the greatest skiing and skating specialists of the times. Gendarmes in their tall, stiff hats stand guard at the gates and chauffeur the scores of official Olympic buses. Small black cars—with security police—dart in and out of the streets. A sexy corps of Olympic bunnies—multi-lingual beauties in red rabbit fur and boots—act as hostesses and interpreters for the athletes, 7,500 officials and 3,000 journalists.

An American television network (ABC) has moved with its giant cranes and cables and prepared, with the cooperation of the French network, to beam the action live back to the United States by satellite.

COST IS HUGE
They say it has cost the French more than 200 million dollars to carve ski slopes, bobsled and huge runs out of the neighboring mountains and to erect in the middle of the city a modernistic indoor ice skating rink—the Stade de Glace, scene of the figure skating and hockey matches—and the structural steel main stadium seating some 80,000 which workmen will begin tearing down the moment De Gaulle spels the traditional words: "I declare the 10th Winter Olympiad officially open." The massive steel stadium is being used for the games only. The final ceremonies will take place at the Stade de Glace.

Pipe The Outfit, Man!
Nino Benvenuti looks more like a walking skill for Italian styles than the former world middleweight boxing champion upon his arrival at Kennedy International Airport Friday night. That's a Persian lamb coat he's wearing complemented with a knit cap. He's here to sign for a return bout with champion Emile Griffith for the middleweight crown.

Mom Roots Hard For Jockey Son

BALTIMORE (AP)—Her gaze is rigidly fixed and her knuckles are whitened by a tight rail grip, otherwise there is little about the blonde to set her from the scores of other gals rooting 'em in at Pimlico. But while the others chant, "come on, Tony" or "go get them, Chuck," the attractive blonde's plea is always the same—"win with him, son!"

The object of the lady railbird's attention—and affection—is choir boy-faced George Cusimano, an 18-year-old apprentice who weighs just 94 pounds and bears scarcely a hint of down on apple-red, dimpled cheeks. The lady is the youth's mother, Louise Cusimano, who, at 44, is the mother of five and the grandmother of three. When George rides, mom is always at her accustomed place at the rail to offer moral support.

The Washington, D. C.-born youngster, son of a jockey, is rising so fast in his craft that his ascendancy has stunned veteran race observers. Less than a month from the date of his first winner he was leading all the jockeys at Pimlico.

"No, I am not worried when he rides, George knows how to handle himself on a horse," his mother says reassuringly. "He is a good boy, determined and willing to work. George has wanted to be a jockey almost from his toddling days. I had no objections, though I wanted him to finish high school first. But while he was a fair student, he wasn't too happy in school. He was too small to participate in competitive sports such as football and baseball."

"I gave him provisional consent to ride when he finished the eighth grade, insisting that he land a job with the right man. Trainer Grover G. Delputt him on. That first winter at Bowie in 1966 was a cold one, but George stuck to his menial chores and not once did his desire falter. "I recall that when George was no more than four, he would get mad when I denied something he wanted. So he would pack his clothes in a shopping bag and head for the bus stop. I would wait awhile, and then follow him. "Asked where he was going, he would reply, "to the race track." That seems odd yesterday, but there is my little boy the leading rider at a major track like Pimlico. Yes, I am glad that I permitted him to follow his calling."

Payoff Huge At Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—The Cotton Bowl Athletic Association said Saturday that Texas A&M and Alabama will each receive more than $242,000 — a record high — for playing in the Jan. 1 Cotton Bowl football game, Texas A&M vs. Alabama.

"An increase in our television receipts combined with a seventh straight sellout enabled us to better the previous record," said James H. Stewart, association president. In 1966 Arkansas and Louisiana State received $230,107.26. He said the association and the Columbia Broadcasting System have negotiated a new three-year contract calling for an increase in television receipts.

Based on this higher revenue, Stewart said, the 1969 Cotton Bowl participants probably will get in excess of $300,000 each.

Davis To Manage Liston In Ring

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Entertainer Sammy Davis Jr. will manage Sonny Liston, former world heavyweight champion who received a license Friday to box in California after being turned down last August. "It's nice to have a chance to get back on top," said Liston, 35.

The California Athletic Commission approved a license for Liston on the recommendation of Robert Turley, chief commissioner officer. Turley said Liston is rehabilitated and has cut former connections with the underworld.

C-City Wallops Anson By 76-52

ANSON — Colorado City kept rolling along in District 5-AA basketball here Friday night by walloping the Anson Tigers, 76-52. The Wolves' district record is now 6-1 — keeping them in a tie for the loop lead. Bob Bender paced the Wolf-pack with 17 tabbies, while Tommy Adkin aided the Tiger effort with 13 points.

Are you willing to go as low as $1793 for a new VW?
We don't sell status. Just a car. One that gets about 27 mpg, averages 40,000 miles on a set of tires, and hardly uses oil between changes. Of course, the fact that it's practical is no secret. And everybody is going to know that you're saving money. But that's the price you pay for Volkswagens.

Mark Gets His Social Security Number

Mrs. James Crowe, Gail Route, Hilltop Road, obtains a social security number for her son, Mark, two months old, from Mrs. Marie Jennings of the Social Security office. He is not the youngest child to receive a number, according to Erven Fisher, head of the local office, as parents may obtain social security numbers for their youngsters when they are only a week old. Most of them are obtained for tax identification purposes required when a savings account is opened, Fisher said. Young Mark now becomes one of approximately 160 million social security number holders.

Weather Reduces T-TA Records

By JERRY MONSON

Trans-Texas Airways had a poor month for January, according to figures released by Dean Berry, station manager. Berry said that 38 flights were cancelled because of the bad weather during the month. "Due to this we only had 194 passengers boarding and 197 deplaning," Berry said. "The first two days of February showed considerable improvement, and if the weather stays clear, we should have a pretty good record this month."

In January, 1967, 319 passengers boarded T-TA planes at Howard County Airport, and 348 passengers deplaned here. Freight handled for the month of January totaled 7,153 pounds. T-TA carried 772 pounds of express and 2,671 pounds of mail, Berry said.

Even though T-TA did not have a good month, Tom Marlowe, local ticket agent, certainly did. His wife presented him with a 7 pound-5 ounce boy, Kenneth Gordon, on Jan. 24. The Marlowes, who live at 1819 Benton, also have another son, Tom Jr., who is four years old.

Charles Noble, manager of Big Spring Aircraft, reported two unusual planes stopping by the airport this week. One of them was a German plane, the Dornier Sky Servant, owned by Butler Aviation Corp., who are dealers for the Dornier line in the United States. The other was an Army National Guard Beaver.

About 30 pilots participated in the annual March of Dimes air-lift last Sunday, but the rest of the week was slow for any accumulated flying time.

J. W. Parks and Ray Hill got in some time, and Ronnie Broadrick was up in one of Big Spring Aircraft's planes.

Robert Oliver and Tom Williams were the only two venturing out for Big Spring Flying Club, although Howard County Flying Club had three members, Donald Grigg, Mike Moore, and Bill Burns, who flew on cross-country trips during the week.

The Air Scouts had one of the most unusual displays at the annual Boy Scout Exposition Saturday. They worked up a retrochemical attraction with the help of representatives of Cosden Oil & Chemical-Co.

Dallas L. Nash soloed Monday in the Cessna 150 of Webb Aero Club and planned to fly to San Angelo and Abilene today.

T Sgt. Gordon Caulfield flew cross-country to Hobbs and Carlsbad, N.M., Wink and Midland, during the week in the Cessna 172.

2nd Lt. Richard Block planned a cross-country flight to Roswell and Carlsbad, N.M., today. Other members planning trips included Margaret Skilern, to Abilene and San Angelo, and Airman I.C. Harold J. Hudson to Midland, Hobbs, N.M., and Lubbock.

AIRMEN'S WIVES CLUB

By JO BRIGHT

The Airmen's Wives Club at Webb Air Force Base was originally organized in October of 1966 with only five members at that first meeting. Since then, the membership has grown to an average 30 active women who meet twice monthly at the John H. Lees Service Club.

The preamble to the constitution begins, "Whereas, desiring to unite in an effort to develop welfare and social activities, to foster good community relations, to sponsor worthwhile projects, and to promote Service Club activities and the use of the Service Club, this organization has been duly formed."

One way the club has assisted with Service Club activities is by acting as hostesses during cof-ees given during the holiday season and by working with Mrs. Ethel Wood, Service Club director, to serve Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner to airmen on base. The women operated a refreshment booth during the open house on Armed Forces Day, and give of both time and money to support various charities.

On Thursday, the club held an "American Pot-pourri" program with Col. George E. Franks, base commander, as the honored speaker, and on Feb. 11, the club will sponsor a base-wide baby show at the Service Club. At regular meetings each month, a program is featured which ranges from arts and crafts to guest speakers for a variety of subjects. Membership in the club is open to all airmen's wives.

THE SERVICE CLUB at Webb AFB is a convenient place to have a cup of coffee when members of the Airmen's Wives Club need to discuss progress of projects and scheduled programs. Taking time out to compare their lives as Air Force wives are Mrs. David Dollar and Mrs. Gale Reining.

MRS. IRA LYNWOOD HESTER

Miss Terry Cauble Weds Lt. Ira Hester

Miss Terry Jane Cauble became the bride of Lt. Ira Lynwood Hester before an altar graced with a mass arrangement of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and pompons Saturday morning in the sanctuary of the First Christian Church. Green fern was entwined in the flowers and fern trees flanked the altar setting.

The bridal aisle was marked with white ribboned standards. The couple knelt on a white satin prie dieu during prayer, and family pews were marked with white satin bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cauble, 709 W. 14th, and the bridegroom, who is stationed at Webb Air Force Base, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Hester of Sumter, S. C.

The Rev. John Beard read the double ring nuptial vows. Mrs. Phil Roberts, organist, played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Mrs. Don Newsom as she sang "The Twelfth of Never" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a formal gown of silk de-lusted satin; the scalloped neckline accented with re-embroidered Alencon lace and seed pearls extending down the princess bodice into a pleated V-shaped cummerbund. Long sleeves tapered to petal points over the hands, and the skirt swept into a chapel train enhanced with lace and seed pearls. Her veil of imported silk illusion was elbow-length and fell from a Dior bow of silk beads and sole trimmed with pearls and crystal beads. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli, showered in white picot ribbon.

Mrs. W. A. Tindol, Alpine, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Wendell Grant was bride's matron and Miss Kelly Jo Tindol, Alpine, was junior bridesmaid.

The attendants were dressed in identical formal gowns of radiant pink crepe and wore matching headpieces of pink Dior bows. They carried single long-stemmed Radiant Pink roses with matching velvet streamers. The junior bridesmaid chose Ph. D. in foreign language at the University of Illinois.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Carter, Garden City; Mrs. Joe Bob Bollinger of Lubbock.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carothers of Odessa, was flower girl. She carried a basket of pink rose petals in a small white basket.

WEDDING TRIP

The couple left on a wedding trip to Mexico. For traveling, Mrs. Hester chose a yellow wool dress with red and yellow plaid double breasted coat. She wore yellow patent shoes and accessories and a white glabella corsage. The couple will be at home at 1425 E. 6th, Ponderosa Apartments.

SCHOOLS

The bride is a senior at Sul Ross State College and is majoring in secondary education in history and speech. She is a member of the Student Council, Who's Who in American Colleges, a cheerleader and a member of the Alpha Chi National Honor Society. She will be employed at the Webb AFB Federal Credit Union following her marriage.

The bridegroom graduated from Citadel Military College in South Carolina and is a graduate of the 3561st Pilot Training Wing at Webb AFB. He is presently an instructor pilot in the 3561st Squadron.

RECEPTION

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the fellowship hall. Those in the receiving line were the bridal couple, parents, feminine attendants and Mrs. Eugene Thomas, grandmother of the bride.

The refreshment table was laid with a white organdy cloth swagged with silver wedding bells. The table was centered with an arrangement of pink and white pompons and carnations; and the three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

The bridegroom's table was laid with a pink linen cloth and centered with twin long-stemmed roses in a brass bud vase. Brass and china appointments were used, and the chocolate cake was three-tiered and garnished with miniature candy fruit.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Officers' Open Mess Friday evening. The bridegroom presented gifts to his attendants, and approximately 30 attended.

Meeting Changed

The bride is the former Miss Lynne Charlotte Staedke and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Staedke, Lombard, Ill. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Carter of Garden City. The double ring ceremony was performed before an altar draped in greenery and flanked by lighted tapers in branched candelabra.

Traditional wedding selections were played by the organist. Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a three-piece white knit suit with white accessories and her headpiece was a cap of white lace. She carried a bouquet of white daisies.

The couple's only attendants were Miss Anne Von Fredericks of Michigan and Joe Bob Bollinger, Lubbock. The couple went on a wedding trip to Lake Champlain, Ill. MRS. RUTH DOOLEY

'Newcomer' Returns To Make Home Here

By RHODA LEMONS
Mrs. Ruth Dooley, 1109 Wood, has come home again after an absence of approximately 25 years, and she is delighted to be back in Big Spring and West Texas. Actually, during part of this time, Mrs. Dooley has resided in West Texas, but she has also made her home in Tacoma, Wash., and New York City, N.Y.

Her grandparents were Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Spears, pioneers of Coahoma, and her mother is Mrs. Linnie Bills, another former Coahoman.

Mrs. Dooley is an accountant at Hilliard - Wilson and Company. Her business career started in Big Spring when she was a private secretary and became associated with M. E. Stewart who required the services of a bookkeeper. Through her work at this office, she learned bookkeeping and later was employed by a firm of accountants in San Angelo where she learned auditing and tax returns. She later worked for the Odessa Country Club.

Mrs. Dooley is interested in drama and the theatre, especially in working backstage. She studied under Gene Frankel, well-known drama coach in New York, and found the experience most gratifying. She said the main idea of the lessons was to learn the ability to project one's self into another realm, either animate or inanimate, which resulted in enriching her life. She said the lessons helped her to realize "how wonderful the five senses are, and what a great gift is life itself."

Mrs. Dooley enjoys sewing and makes most of her own clothes. She designs many of her own creations and keeps some project in the machine most of the time. She does rug making and has a lovely crocheted fabric rug which only needs the outside rim to be completed. The colors are predominantly green and purple, a combination that Mrs. Dooley said "turned her on."

She is an antique collector; however, not in the usual sense. Almost her entire collection was given to her by family and friends. She enjoys each item and finds pleasure in it, but does not attend auctions or go to antique houses looking for treasures.

Her latest acquisition is a miniature brass pen and quill chest. It is highly polished and has a number of pen points still in it.

Another hobby of Mrs. Dooley's is cooking, but she finds that she loses interest just cooking for one. She does cook for parties and friends and likes to try new recipes.

One of her favorite sports is fishing. She hasn't had a chance to try out any places within driving distance since her return, but when time will allow, she plans to be out on the lake bringing in her share of the fish. She said that this hobby relaxes her and through it, she can get away from situations and involvements of work-day life.

Other interests of Mrs. Dooley include ceramics, bowling and dancing. These will have to wait now, because she is in

Couple Recites Vows In Austin Ceremony

Miss Marcy Wentworth and John Richard Thomas were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony performed at 2 p.m. Saturday in the First Southern Presbyterian Church in Austin.

MRS. JOHN RICHARD THOMAS

The Rev. Frank Walker read the wedding rites as the couple exchanged vows before an altar illuminated by four seven-branched candelabra holding pink cathedral tapers with ivy garlands, and centered with an arrangement of pink spring flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Wayne Wentworth, 719 Timber Cove Drive, Seabrook; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Thomas, 1609 Stadium.

Miss Mill Eleanor Page, organist, played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Herman Herran of Austin, as he sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Don Hal Haney of Big Spring who sang "The Song of Ruth."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a street-length white crepe sheath dress with a white lace cage designed with long sleeves and a rounded neckline. She wore a lace mantilla headdress and carried a nosegay arrangement of pink roses and shasta daisies.

Miss Ruth Tatom of Austin was the maid of honor. She chose a pink afternoon dress and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

Miss Janey Wentworth of Seabrook, sister of the bride, served as junior bridesmaid.

David C. Thomas of Big Spring, served as his brother's best man. Ushers were David H. Stones, Midland; and Patrick D. Wentworth of Seabrook, brother of the bride. The ushers also lighted the altar tapers.

WEDDING TRIP
The couple left on a wedding trip to Highland Lakes, and for traveling the bride chose a white sheath dress with mint green coat, green accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

There are so many interesting things an ambitious person has an opportunity to do if he or she can find the time or take the time. Outside of church meetings, civic meetings, drive meetings, working at their job, keeping house, caring for the children, washing, ironing, cooking, (and some people sew), there are things I would like to do. And probably others are like me. I wouldn't be any good to the particular movements because I would either never be on time or not get there at all.

Having seen the delightful "Fantasticks," I know I would enjoy working with the Little Theatre activities if only to sweep out when the play was over, but I'd have to be there to sweep out and more than likely I couldn't get there because I wouldn't have a way. That's just one of the excuses I would have to offer. When day is over I just don't get up to getting started on another venture. But I always want to when I see others enjoying their hard work.

Had a fine visit with J. D. JONES at the HCJC game Tuesday evening and he told me of the visit last weekend of CINDY and DUSTY BURNETT. Cindy works in the offices at NTSU where Dusty is a student. The other Jones girl, JUDY, teaches at Hurst but she and her husband, EDDIE EVERETT live in Denton also where he is studying in North Texas.

The GENE FLETCHERS had a call from far away Australia last week from their son, WOODY, who was on an R&R from duty in Vietnam with the US Army.

MR. and MRS. JOHNNY BEDELL are enjoying a two weeks visit with their parents, the ARTHUR PACHALLS and the BROOKS BEDELLS. The young couple has been stationed with the US Navy in Memphis, Tenn., and are now being transferred to Key West, Fla., where they will be for eight weeks before going to Ocala, Va.

LUDWIG GRAU is planning to leave this week for Miami, Fla., to visit a nephew.

O. H. IVIE and PASCHAL ODOM, in Fort Worth Friday to confer with Freese, Nichols and Endress, engineers for the Colorado River Municipal Water District, got to take in the Friday night performance of the Southwestern Fat Stock Show and Rodeo.

Leadership Talk Given At Meeting

Mrs. C. O. Nalley brought the program, "How To Think Like A Leader," by Dr. David J. Schwartz at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Credit Women's Club at Hotel Settles.

Mrs. Nalley listed four main points presented by the author as marks of leadership. They were to trade minds with people of influence; to always think what is the human way to handle a situation; to think progress, believe in progress and push for progress; and finally, to take out time to confer with oneself.

Mrs. Nalley said that many political leaders, educators and business executives that were highly successful practiced being alone for brief periods so that they could decide on the correct course of action.

A general discussion on unifying churches was held by the members.

Mrs. R. L. Nail presided, and 14 attended.

Reception Hosted By Airmen's Wives Club

"Americana Potpourri" was the theme used at the reception Thursday evening hosted by the Airmen's Wives Club at the John H. Lees Service Club, Webb Air Force Base.

A special guest, Mrs. DeWitt R. Bunn, first honorary chairman of the group, also greeted guests.

Mrs. Williams was attired in a two-piece turquoise wool suit accented with matching shoes and scarf; Mrs. Franks wore a two-piece yellow suit, and Mrs. Anderson chose a plaid shift accented with a gold brooch.

Red, white and blue decorations carried out the Americana theme. The refreshment table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with a red, white and blue floral arrangement highlighted by blue lettering spelling out USAF. Red, white and blue candles in

CONNIE EDWARDS HELPING MAKE MOVIE

Confederates Flying Nazi Planes

The Confederate Air Force has wandered far from its own battlegrounds. In fact, five of its members are in distant Spain, flying, of all things, German Messerschmitt ME 109's, the famous planes of Nazi Germany in World War II.

One of the CAF members spearheading this unusual experience is W. C. (Connie) Edwards, Big Spring ranchman and oil operator who, among many interests, joins other CAF members in their program to acquire, rebuild and maintain World War II type aircraft.

"BATTLE OF BRITAIN"

Edwards and his associates are principal figures in flying sequences for a super film production just getting under way. It has been tabbed "The Battle of Britain" and will dramatize those World War II days when British Spitfires and Hurricanes rose to meet the attacking German Heinkel bombers which had the Messerschmitts for cover.

The CAF men have been at a Spanish Air Force Base at Seville, Spain, for the past week, making familiarization flights in the German-type craft. Actual shooting sequences were due to start this week.

Why are these CAF colonels in such a picture?

IN 1966

It dates back to 1966 when Edwards was in England bent upon acquiring some of the World War II planes—other than American. One thing led to another until Connie arranged that he and his buddies would get into a picture which was being planned. After it's over with, the CAF is due to acquire title to four ME 109's and a Spitfire, and have them ferried back to Texas to join the U.S. World War II vintage planes the CAF owns.

With Edwards on location are Col. Gerald Martin, Col. Lefty Gardner and Col. L. P. Nolen (father-of-the-CAF), all from Texas, and Col. Milt Herradence from Canada.

75 OLD AIRCRAFT

Over 75 vintage aircraft will be used in the film, and it took a bit of doing to scrape that many operational planes together for the movie. Spain has been using, in recent years, a version of the Messerschmitt as well as other German prototypes, and its government is cooperating in "The Battle of Britain" by allowing use of the planes and making available

Historic Nazi Fighter Plane

The Messerschmitt ME 109, a prime Nazi aircraft in the attack on Britain in World War II. Today's version of this plane is being used in filming "The Battle of Britain" and the men flying it are members of the Confederate Air Force.

Fighting The 'Battle Of Britain'

These members of the Confederate Air Force, devotees of World War II aircraft, are currently in Spain, flying the famous Nazi fighter, the Messerschmitt ME 109, for a film production to be titled "The Battle of Britain." Left to right, Col. Milt Herradence, a Canadian; Col. Connie Edwards, Col. Lefty Gardner and Col. Lloyd Nolen, all Texans. Another CAF colonel not in this picture but helping make aerial combat sequences for the ambitious film production is Col. Gerald Martin.

After completion of the bomber sequences, all of the fighters and some of the bombers will be ferried to England where the main aerial combat scenes and acting will be filmed. "The Battle of Britain" is being called the largest flying film ever produced. It is directed ed by Guy Hamilton and produced by Harry Saltzman and Ben Fisz. Hamilton directed the James Bond series of pictures and Saltzman produced them.

John Palmer is production supervisor. He had the same responsibility in "Lawrence of Arabia" and "Dr. Zhivago." Actors are to be announced later but will include many of Britain's top names. The picture is to be released in this country by United Artists.

VETERANS OFFERED

The $10 million picture is the first full dramatization to be released on the historic days of World War II, although there have been documentaries. Why such a picture now? Fisz said "today you have practically two generations who don't know what it was all about."

Veterans of the battle, which all but brought Britain to her knees in her darkest days of the Nazi onslaught, flooded the producers with offers to fly the machines, but mostly were turned down because they are now too old. It's the adventurers like those in the CAF who got the assignment.

"The Battle of Britain" shapes as a major production. The British Ministry of Air Defense has provided unprecedented support for the film project, including the loan of 40 aircraft of various types. Other planes have come from museums and from private owners.

INDUSTRY HELPS

The British aircraft industry also has pitched in with Rolls Royce lending their Spitfire, Hawker Siddeley, and Hurricane fighter planes. These and other companies such as Dunlop Shell Mex and B. P. among many others, will help keep the planes airborne.

The CAF tactical advisor will be Wing Commander Robert Stanford-Tuck, DSO, DFC, one of the top scoring Battle of Britain pilots.

The Luftwaffe technical advisor will be Gen. Adolf Galland, wartime commanding general of the German Fighter Command, credited with 96 Allied planes. He will have two assistants, one a war-time bomber pilot and the other, a fighter pilot who fought during the Battle of Britain.

The Ministry of Defense (Air) has assigned as project officer, in charge of liaison between the film unit and the Ministry, Wing Commander C. G. St. D. Jeffries, DFC, a serving officer who was credited with 12 kills during the Battle of Britain. Other RAF officers who have been involved in the enormously detailed advance planning for "The Battle of Britain" are Air Commodore, Pete M. Brothers, CBE, DSO, DFC, a Battle of Britain pilot who is now head of the Military Air Traffic Organization, and his staff officer, Wing Commander L. C. Young, who has drawn up a draft plan for the Air Traffic Control aspects of the film's air battles.

Not Much New Action On Political Front

C. V. Riordan, Big Spring realtor, has filed as candidate for Democratic County Chairman, subject to the action of the May 4 primary. He has held the post in other years.

George Thorburn, the current county Democratic chairman, said Friday noon that Riordan's filing and the completion of a filing by A. E. (Shorty) Long for county commissioner of Precinct 1, were the only new developments on the political field.

"He warned that any candidate who wants his name to appear on the ballot must act before midnight Monday. The deadline is Feb. 5 and will be followed by a meeting of the county committee on Feb. 12 to determine election primary expense assessments against each candidate. In 1966, candidates were assessed a combined total of $4,037. That year, assessments were based on six per cent of the annual salary of an office where the salary was in excess of $6,000 and the candidate was unopposed. The assessment was five per cent for offices where the salary was less than $6,000; and three per cent on offices where there was opposition.

That year, the highest assessment was against Walker Bailey running for re-election, unopposed, for county superintendent. The primary costs to him that year were $500.

Thorburn, who has said he will not seek re-election as county chairman because of the press of private business, anticipated a few additional filings Monday, just ahead of the deadline. A prospective candidate should contact the county chairman, obtain the official application form, and when it is filled out, hand to Thorburn along with the initial $50 filing fee.

Dr. Akin Simpson, county Republican chairman, said that no new filings had been made Friday for his party. He said it was "possible" additional candidates might enter the list under the Republican banner before the deadline.

The official list of Democratic candidates through Friday noon was:

County Commissioner Precinct 1—Mauel L. Puga, Jimmie L. Jolley, Frank S. Goodman, Simon Terrazas (incumbent); and A. E. Long.

County Commissioner, Precinct 3—Miller Harris, Joe B. Matthews, H. W. Smith and Mrs. Mae Hayden, (incumbent).

County Democratic chairman—C. V. Riordan.

Constable, Precinct 1—Lee E. Young.

Justice of the peace Place 1, Precinct 1—Russell Johnson and Walter Grice, (incumbent).

District attorney—Wayne Burns (incumbent).

County attorney—W. H. (Bill) Eyssen.

County tax assessor-collector—Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, (incumbent).

The one candidate for the Republican organization is Bill Crooker, who filed for County Commissioner Precinct 3.

With approximately 14,000 registered voters on the rolls, there looms a good chance of heavy turnout at the primary election.

Former Mechanic New Braniff Veep

DALLAS (AP)—Terrell S. Shrader, who was an apprentice mechanic in 1939, has been named vice president for personnel relations of Braniff International airline. He also has held executive posts with Western and Eastern airlines and was an Air Force flier.

Artists To Show Recent Works At Lubbock Gallery

LUBBOCK—The Baker Collector, Gallery here has announced one of its "Meet the Artist" series for Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 10-11. To be shown are works of Edward Canby and John Meigs.

The Gallery, at 13th and Avenue L, will be open for this affair from 1:30 to 5 p.m. each afternoon, and both Canby and Meigs will be present. The exhibition will continue through March 5.

The two artists represent completely diversified talents and backgrounds.

Canby's work tends to be a mild form of surrealist subject matter, taking everyday elements such as potted plants and laurel trees and broken walls and windows, placing them in such a position that they take on a surrealist character.

The new showing of Meigs is small, consisting of small temperas and water colors. They consist of small landscapes, a few portraits and figure subjects, all with careful consideration of light and atmosphere.

Sharp Decline In Diseases

Other diseases reported this week were gastroenteritis with 32 cases; diarrhea, 29; pneumonia, 19; virus, 15; bronchitis, 10; strep throat, 7; pink eye, 3; gonorrhea, 2; pertussis, 2; impetigo, 2; ringworm, 2; and

A Devotional For The Day

To know the love of Christ, . . . that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God. (Ephesians 3:19)

PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, forgive us if spiritual malnutrition troubles our lives. Forgive us for neglecting to partake of the spiritual food that would make us better Christians. Lead us into the depths of love and the paths of service. Through renewal may our strength grow, that we may find the fullness of life as we follow Thee, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Toward Continued Gains

The Big Spring Independent School District has extended the contract of S. M. (Sam) Anderson as superintendent for two years. This, in our view, was a wise step and one which should contribute to the continued educational gains for our community.

Only those close to the scene during the past two or three years know of the tremendous load which Mr. Anderson has been carrying. Administering the school program within the policy directives of the board is a major task, when one considers that next to Webb AFB and Cosden Oil & Chemical Company, the schools constitute the biggest business (in dollars and personnel) in town.

But added to this was the task of overseeing the planning and accomplishment of the school's Master plan and the development of an area vocational school within the sphere of the comprehensive high school.

Over and above this, Mr. Anderson had the honor (which reflected upon the community) of serving as president of the Texas State Teachers Association and during a legislative year at that. Any one of the three assignments is a tremendously heavy one.

It would be too much to expect of an individual to maintain this pace but now that two of the major assignments are largely complete, much of the energies and talents can now be directed more fully to the most important job of all — educating children for today's world.

Two Sides To This

In a column on this page, David Lawrence points to a situation that brings into focus the illogical position of some segments of the American Bar Association which would impose the equivalent of legal censorship on the coverage of crime and court news.

There has been a hue and cry about protecting prospective defendants against undue publicity prior to criminal trials. This stems from a reversal of a previous decision regarding the conviction of Dr. Sam Sheppard in a celebrated Cleveland, Ohio, murder case. The United States Supreme Court overturned the conviction on the grounds that a circus atmosphere, prejudicial to the defendant, prevailed in the courtroom. This was not entirely accurate for within the limits of his resources, the trial judge did run a fairly tight ship. (This is not to excuse the press, particularly one of the home papers, which certainly went beyond all bounds of propriety in following the case and in virtually whooping it up for a conviction.)

But out of this came new codes, and more lately stringent interpretations of bar canons, which threaten to choke off pre-trial information. It's almost like restricting coverage to name, rank and serial number.

As Mr. Lawrence points out, two peace advocates facing trial in U.S. Federal Court, took to television on a national network last Sunday and freely discussed, if not defended, their cases. Well, if this is right, why does not the state have the same privilege? Society should have its rights, too.

David Lawrence Does This Call For Equal Time?

WASHINGTON — Something significant happened on television last Sunday which could affect juries in the future. But it wasn't even noticed—at least it has not brought any comment from some of those groups of the bar and press which have been raising a fuss about pre-trial publicity.

Dr. Benjamin Spock and the Rev. William Sloane Coffin Jr., who were recently indicted by a federal grand jury on charges of conspiring to encourage other persons to violate the draft law, argued their own case over NBC's nationwide program known as "Meet the Press." Dr. Spock was asked:

"WHY DID you openly violate a federal law?"

The answer was that he did so because the Vietnam War is escalating and he believes this is a wrong policy. He added:

"I would emphasize first that I think I am innocent and I think the young men who are resisting the draft are innocent and patriotic and courageous. But if the courts decide otherwise, then I am willing to go to jail, but I believe I am innocent."

DR. COFFIN SAID:

"It has always been the American tradition not to surrender your conscience to the state. And if you have a choice of violating your conscience or going to jail, you then do not violate your conscience. . . . the law that we violated has yet to be tested for its constitutionality."

But can a defendant or the prosecutor argue the issue in public before the trial is held?

THE SUPREME COURT of the United States, in the famous case decided in June, 1966, which overruled the verdict of murder against Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard of Cleveland, declared that he did not get a fair trial because of the publicity in the press and over television before and during the period of the proceedings. Dr. Sheppard was then tried again and acquitted.

Ever since that decision, members of the bar and the press have debated what restrictions should be placed on publicity before and during trials. It had always been assumed heretofore that, if publicity in the local area is damaging to a defendant, his counsel could seek a transfer to some other county or area. Television, however, can cover not only one state but all of them at the same time.

THIS RAISES the question of why persons indicted for violating a law—such as Dr. Spock and Dr. Coffin—are able to present one side of the case to the public. Should not the federal district attorneys, who represent the prosecutors, be entitled to "equal time" to give their side?

The defendant now enjoys a privilege which the prosecution is not likely to get unless authorized by law. Congress could pass a statute requiring that "equal time" be given and also stipulate that whatever is said about the case on television or radio would be just as privileged as if it were uttered in a courtroom.

Billy Graham

What do you mean by "A personal experience with Christ?"

You see, there are two kinds of religion: theoretical and experimental. The one is speculative, the other actual. The one is a creed, the other a walk with Christ. The one is of the head; the other of the heart. Jesus said: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, soul, mind and strength." If we love God in this fashion, it is an experience. If worship is just a matter of duty, it lacks the warmth of true Christianity.

The Apostle Peter put it this way: "For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eye witnesses of his Majesty." But we were not eye witnesses of Christ." The same Peter said: "When having not seen, ye love; in whom, though ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with unspeakable joy and full of glory." This is what I mean by having a personal experience with Christ. Thousands can say, "Old things are passed away, and all things have become new." If you will open your heart to Christ, this experience can be yours, too.

THERE IS nothing wrong with pre-trial publicity if the persons who are chosen for the jury can disassociate themselves from what they have heard and can listen to the testimony in the courtroom and judge it impartially and objectively. This means intelligent jurors — those who can erase from their minds any preconceptions and consider only the evidence offered in the courtroom. Most jurors have read something about cases prior to being chosen for jury duty, and they usually pledge themselves when selected to deal fairly with the facts as presented, irrespective of what they might have heard before the trial began.

THE WHOLE episode raises a question as to whether any restrictions on the press or television or radio should really be imposed. One answer would seem to be to let the prosecution and defense have "equal time" and give all the participants immunity from libel suits.

LBJ Says Booming Economy Needs Tax Brake

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson this past week painted a picture of 1968 as a year of unparalleled prosperity and insisted again that a tax increase is needed to finance the Vietnam war and keep the economy from running away.

He expressed these views in his budget and economic messages to Congress.

This is what he foresees: The gross national product—total of all goods and services—will increase by $60.9 billion to $346 billion.

Personal income will rise by $48.7 billion to $675 billion. Corporate profits will climb by $6.9 billion to $87 billion.

EIGHT STRAIGHT YEARS Johnson pointed out that in March the economy "will achieve a new milestone as it enters its eighth year of sustained expansion. No prior period in our history has been marked by an expansion of such long duration."

"Most experienced observers agree that the pace now is—and in the months ahead will be—too fast for safety," the President said.

"The gain in gross national product in the current quarter is generally expected to be one of the largest in our history—a record we could gladly do without at this time."

Johnson told Congress that the nation must choose quickly whether it wants to avoid a "feverish boom" leading to possible financial crisis and perhaps ultimately a recession.

TAX BRAKE He contended that the expansion can be slowed by enactment of his proposal of a 10 percent surcharge on personal and corporate income taxes.

And, he said, "It is not the rise in regular budget outlays which requires a tax increase, but the cost of Vietnam."

Johnson also called for a temporary no-strike treaty between industry and labor and a study of possible new wage-price feedbacks.

Feb. 1 was the effective date for two big developments: the merger of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads and an increase in the federal minimum wage.

The consolidation of the Pennsylvania and the Central, which has been hanging fire for half a dozen years, was the biggest corporate merger in U.S. history. It created the world's largest privately owned rail system, with assets of $4.3 billion.

NEW MINIMUM WAGE The higher minimum wage boosted the pay of 7.3 million workers to $1.60 an hour from $1.40. Another newly covered 8.5 million people qualified for $1.15 an hour.

The biggest automobile manufacturer and the biggest steel producer reported that 1967 profits were substantially lower than in 1966.

General Motors Corp.'s 1967 earnings fell nine per cent to $1,627,000,000 or $5.66 a share, from $1,793,000,000 or $6.24 a share, in 1966. Sales dropped to $20 billion from $20.2 billion.

U.S. Steel Corp.'s profits slumped 31 per cent to $172,499,331, or $3.19 a share, from $249,238,569, or $4.60 a share, in 1966. Sales declined to $4,067,313,898 from $4,434,705,400.

LABOR COOL TO SUGGESTION NEW YORK (AP) — A Johnson administration proposal that labor shoot for lower wage settlements this year to help fight inflation drew a thumbs down response Friday from a number of union leaders.

The suggestion by President Johnson's Council of Economic Advisers Thursday that labor keep its 1968 increases "appreciably lower" than the 5 1/2 per cent it said they averaged last year was termed "unrealistic" by Morris Lushwitz.

Lushwitz, secretary of the New York City Central Labor Council which represents 1.2 million union members, said: "With profits as enormous as they are and with the cost of living going up continually, it is most unrealistic to expect the line to be held at 5 1/2 per cent."

In Washington, a spokesman for the AFL-CIO said his organization rejected any control over wages "unless accompanied by controls on profits, prices and executive salaries."

He said he knew of no union which would demand less than 5 1/2 per cent in 1968 bargaining because "the cost of living has been going up faster than real wages."

Joseph Germano, a United Steel Workers official in Chicago, said, "I certainly don't think it would be fair to ask organized labor to make all the sacrifices. Our members have some catching up to do."

International Longshoremen's Association Executive Vice President John Bowers said the officials of his union "will be guided accordingly by whatever the wage scale committee dictates. If the scale is over the 5 1/2 per cent level the obligation of the officers conducting contract negotiations is to the membership."

Therefore are in considerable danger of contracting the disease. The drugs also should be given if a skin test has been negative and later on is positive. They also are, these days, being given to patients with arrested cases who were treated years ago, or treated without receiving these drugs. The purpose then is to guard against a relapse.

Without knowing your circumstances and history, Mrs. J. B. I don't like to be didactic about how often you should have X-rays, but would guess at every six months or perhaps every year. I do not see any point in sputum tests, or INAH drugs unless there is more to your story than I do not know.

What about constipation? Many can be relieved of it, both mentally and physically, by reading the booklet "The Way to Stop Constipation." For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 25 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Around The Rim Dial For It, And You'll Get It

If you think your telephone is there just to handle some business calls, to carry on idle chatter with friends, or for the full-time use of teenagers, you might be wrong.

There is a phenomenon spreading around the country under the general heading of "dial-a-" and the variety of information that comes from dialing specific numbers is amazing. The end is not yet.

IT MAY HAVE all started with weather reports, and perhaps as long as 40 years ago, in major cities, one could call a number and hear a taped voice which briefed the day's forecast. This service continues popular in many places, even with such refinements as radio and television, because people can dial for the information when they want it, and not have to be tied to a broadcasting schedule.

Another old-time dial service has been the report of the time of day. Just spin the phone dial, and you get the voice which tells you that it's 7:13 a.m.

THIS KIND of convenience led to others, and quite a number of years ago, some minister offered impromptu sermons to the one who would dial the number he offered. This proved so popular that it was followed with such services as "dial-a-sermon" and "dial-a-prayer." The latter (there may be others) is available in Big Spring. These methods to help someone who needed help showed that the "dial-a-" services could be extended.

IN SOME CITIES there is offered a telephone service to persons who are emotionally upset and even contemplating suicide. If they think, and take the time to call, they will be answered by capable volunteers who try to calm the caller and avert drastic actions.

The American Cancer Society in some places as information taped to answer a "dial-a-life" call. There is at least one poison information center whose phones are manned by medical experts who call out the proper antidote for toxics that have been swallowed.

A CHURCH in Chicago offers a "dial-a-story," and gives youngsters brief stories about the Bible.

And so the list goes, and much of this information is helpful.

But the "dial-a-" plans keep branching out. I have read that there is a "dial-a-bird" service which tells the callers where unusual species of birds may be seen that day. There is a service for dialing for lost dogs, and the answer tells where some mutts have been found.

FISHING CENTERS are offering information, in response to the dialing, as to where the fish are biting on any given day. The ski resorts are furnishing prompt phone answers on snow conditions.

Naturally, this opens the door to enterprising advertisers. There has been reported the case of dial-a-sleep, and when the voice gets through suggesting a warm bath, quiet music and utmost relaxation, it says such-and-such a mattress would be a splendid aid.

THERE ARE PLACES where you can dial-a-car and get listings of the day's hottest bargains in used models. One city offers a listing of top restaurants if you dial-a-meal.

One may dial for lectures, for book reviews, and goodness knows what all. We may be spending our future days getting all our information and inspiration out of the telephone set.

I have heard of only one failure. A politician put his speech on phone tape and advertised his dial-a-speech. Nobody ever dialed.

Marquis Childs The New Secretary Of Defense

WASHINGTON — Politics, as defined by John F. Kennedy, is the art of the possible. The new Secretary of Defense, Clark Clifford, might well have had this framed above his desk in his law office where the rich and the powerful sought his intercession in the labyrinth of government.

A PRACTICAL, pragmatic temperament is the hallmark of his initial success as adviser to President and then in accumulating a large fortune in a relatively short time. In this same pragmatic approach is reason to hope that he can help find a way out of the quagmire of Vietnam, not to mention the new trap of North Korea.

As a realist Clifford knows that short of a reasonable compromise the Vietnam war is almost certain to expand, with Cambodia as the next theater. A greatly enlarged war threatens the disaster of direct big-power confrontation. And, incidentally, it spells more political trouble for his friend, Lyndon Johnson, whom he has so long been counselling as a private citizen.

NO ONE COULD have expected the newly designated Defense Secretary in his first appearance before the Senate Armed Services Committee to expound any radical shift in policy. His first task was to re-establish a working relationship with Congress where harassment of Robert S. McNamara had become a year-round sport, Clifford excels in easing real and imagined grievances.

A SHOPPING list of the corporate giants Clifford has represented in private practice implies that he will take into his office ties with these giants conditioning his judgment in matters involving defense contracts. Beyond dispute he has served his clients well.

He can dial-a-Mr. Military-Industrial Complex himself.

To say that Clifford contrived Harry Truman's re-election in 1948 against all the odds is a slight exaggeration. Undoubtedly by his sage and steady counselling he contributed greatly to that result. Once Truman put his trust in a man he could take advice and act on it.

WHETHER the polls are for the moment up or down Johnson is in a political bind much like that which brought Truman to the brink of re-election, first by his party and then by the voters. He confronts a far greater menace at home and in Asia than did Truman, who had a lucky target in the Eighty-worst Congress. For Johnson as for the country the stakes could hardly be higher.

In bringing Clifford from the back room into the fierce white light of a Cabinet post of incredible complexity the President put a high estimate on his value. For Clifford the opportunity is unparalleled. It dwarfs his experience with the peppery man from Missouri who fought an underdog fight to confound all the prophets and the pundits.

IN THIS instance Clifford has a more complex principal to deal with. The President does not always take kindly to advice that runs contrary to the Johnson view and this, as his close associates would be the first to say, is the understatement of a very long time. To prejudice the new Secretary of Defense by what he may have said in the past is patently unfair, and that goes with double force for his debut before Congress. At the very least he deserves a chance to show what he can achieve in the eye of the storm.

Art Buchwald How To Get Back At De Gaulle

WASHINGTON — The boycott against France in the United States is on full force, and people are madder at President De Gaulle than they are at Ho Chi Minh, Mao Tse-tung, Premier Kosygin and even President Johnson.

At first American friends announced they wouldn't visit France while De Gaulle was president. Then they decided they wouldn't drink French wine. Some of my dearest lady friends said they wouldn't buy French perfume and their husbands said they wouldn't buy French cars. One man I know sent back a Roquefort cheese he had received as a present for Christmas, and so on.

MANY AMERICANS, who can't afford to go abroad or drink French wines or wear French perfumes or drive French cars, are in a dilemma. They would like to show their displeasure toward President De Gaulle, but they don't know how.

My Aunt Molly seems to have the problem licked.

"I'm not cooking any more French fries potatoes until De Gaulle apologizes for insulting the United States."

"That's awfully strong medicine," Aunt Molly, I said.

"AND I'M NOT making any more French toast, either. Uncle Phil will have to eat eggs like everybody else."

"You're hitting De Gaulle where it hurts," I said.

"And I told Mrs. Muggins she couldn't come back in the bridge club until she got rid of her French poole."

"I'll bet that gave her something to think about."

Aunt Molly shrugged her shoulders. "You have to do the best you can."

"What are you doing with Uncle Phil's shirts?" I asked her.

"I'M CUTTING OFF" his French cuffs. When I get mad I go all the way."

"I see you threw out all your French dressing," I said.

"You bet your life I did, and you won't see any French pastry in this house any more, either."

"It's lucky Uncle Phil doesn't play the French horn," I told her. "Those things can get expensive."

WHO CARES ABOUT expense when the American dollar is at stake? I threw out all my shoes with French heels."

"But you still have French doors between the living room and dining room," I pointed out.

"Macy's is aware of the problem and they're coming out tomorrow."

"Boy, Aunt Molly, you've covered almost all the bases."

"I haven't even started. I've taken all the French seams out of my clothes."

"C'est la guerre," I chuckled.

"What does that mean?" she demanded.

"IT'S A FRENCH phrase and it means 'that's war.'"

"Why couldn't you say it in your native tongue?"

"I'm sorry," I apologized. "It was a slip of the tongue. Well, I guess I'd better take my French leave."

"What kind of leave?"

"French leave. It's when you sneak out without saying goodbye to the hostess."

"There will be no French leaves in my house—at least not while De Gaulle is alive."

"Well, I do have to go, anyway. Au revoir."

"Listen," she said, "if you're going to talk dirty you don't have to come back here again."

This is much like any other beauty pageant, with three categories of judging, swimsuit, talent competition and modeling. The fashions for the girls to model will be sponsored by Thelma's Dress Shop.

The girls will be personally interviewed and judged by members of the editorial staff of Texas Tech University. A new Wesleyan Foundation, which is a Methodist youth group has been organized at the college for Methodist students and any other student wanting church fellowship.

The organization was formed by Dr. Hubert Bratcher, district superintendent, and people registering Wednesday were asked to join. The first activity will be a hamburger fry at 623 Tulane for all members. A movie will provide the entertainment. Thursday, Feb. 15, school will be dismissed at noon so teachers can attend the annual conference of the Texas Junior College Teachers Association. Night classes will not meet Thursday or Friday. The regular class schedules will resume Monday, Feb. 19 at 8 a.m.

THE ARTS

Top Voices In All State Choir

By WINNIE UNGER

At the end of the week choral directors from the senior and junior high schools, along with Danny Johnson, tenor, and Stephanie Sokolewicz, will include the Drama Department, "No Business Like Show Business"; FHA, "Sweet Dreams," musical take-off (with live animals) on "Old McDonald's Farm"; Shorthand Club, "Grasshopper Opera"; also the Band, Student Council and Key Club. Because of flu and the end and beginning of semesters, entries will be left open this week. Groups must develop a musical program (primarily choral) around a central theme. The entry fee is $5; the admission $1 per person. Proceeds will go toward the fund to help Danny Johnson participate in a school choir selected to tour Europe this summer.

Among dates to keep in mind are the school choral and ensemble contests in Permian High at Odessa on Feb. 17. BSHS will send about 35 contestants. The spring choir contests will be held March 15-16 in Permian High.

Date for the local Piano Teachers' Forum spring students festival has not been set, but Mrs. Ann Gibson Houser is busy assisting forum groups in regional cities with judging tasks. Today she is in Lubbock to help select winners of concert and sonata contests, and recently she presided with Mrs. Lee Billingsley of Odessa for critical analysis sessions in Midland.

Also taking part in the TMEA all-state band will be Nancy Ivie, bass clarinet, and Melvin Chappell, bassoon. Kent Fish, trumpet, has been chosen for a seat in the all-state orchestra. Accompanying these will be Bill Bradley, high school band director, and Don Turner, assistant, Richard Grady, Gunnels, and Russell McKiski, Goliad.

Something new for Big Spring High School is in the offing when what its sponsors (the choir) hopes will be an annual All-School Sing is held. The

German Band Prepares For CR '68

Campus Revue Promises Stage Filled With Action

The color scheme for Campus Revue '68 is hot pink and electric green, and the production promises to be as dynamic as the colors. Curtain time is 8 p.m.

Costumes and props have been completed and the lighting is about ready, according to R. E. McKiski and Richard Grady, coordinators. Acts and highlights of the show range from Memphis to Mobile, through Haight-Asbury to Broadway. All art work for the show has been furnished through the courtesy of Mother Hubbard's Cupboard, Inc., a nonprofit organization established for the support of the Steer Band program.

Unusual features of the production include a stereophonic band with psychedelic lighting, unique soloist instruments and unusual acts. "Some of our highlights will be a bare barrel girl, a howling Indian, a twirler, and 'Red Hot Mama' Johnson," said Bill

Bradley, band director.

Ducats for CR '68 are $1.50, $7.50, $15.00 and $50.00 tickets include a Mexican dinner and the $3.00 and $1.50 tickets are for reserved seats only. Tickets for the dinner will be sold separately for $1.50.

Patricia Bogard, in charge of publicity, reminded residents that tickets are available from any bandsman or at the high school office.

Cornel Wildes Co-Starred In Jet Film 'Beach Red'

"The most beautiful blonde in the world!" Says who? Says distinguished French painter Philippe Noyer, who should know.

Meaning Jean Wallace, sometimes also known as "the gem of loveliness," who is guest star in "Beach Red," in Color by DeLuxe opening tonight at the Jet Drive-In.

Film was produced, directed and is acted in by Cornel Wilde. In private life Jean Wallace is Mrs. Cornel Wilde. In pictures since she was a teenager. Miss Wallace won the Outstanding Young Actress Award at the Venice Film Festival for her portrayal in her first important picture, "Native Son" from the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel. Later, she appeared as Guinevere in "Sword of Lancelot," Gold Prize Winner at the Italian Film Festival of 1963. Cornel Wilde was Lancelot and that's how boy met girl.

Born in Chicago, "the most beautiful blonde in the world" is five foot six, weighs 127 pounds and has sky-blue eyes. In "Beach Red," which is from the Peter Bowman novel "Sunday Beach Red" and is based upon the action on the beach the late General MacArthur meant when he uttered his famous "We shall return," she shares stellar honors with Rip-Torn, Burr DeBenning and Patrick Wolfe.

The cast also includes Jaime Sanchez, the juvenile sensation of the recent thunderbolt "The Pawnbroker." The new film was adapted for the screen from the Bowman novel by Clint Johnson, Donald A. Peters and Jefferson Pascal.

Baseball Back

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball, regarded as a jinx subject for Broadway entertainment until the success of "Damn Yankees," is coming to bat again in another musical.

Ring Lardner Jr. is doing the book based on two Mark Harris novels, "The Slump" and "Bang the Drum Slowly." Music and lyrics are being prepared by Harold Rome. Titled "The Name of the Game," the show is scheduled for production next fall by Max Brown and Edgar Lansbury.

Flaming Dragon Stirs Excitement

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—The St. Paul Winter Carnival parade got some realistic excitement when a parade float dragon supposedly spewing smoke out its nostrils caught fire.

Suspense Thriller Opening At Ritz

The Broadway stage success, "Wait Until Dark," comes vividly alive in the Technicolor film starring Audrey Hepburn, Alan Arkin, Richard Crenna, Jack Weston and Efrem Zimbalist Jr. The suspense-thriller opens today at the Ritz Theater.

Actor-writer-director Mel Ferrer dons his producer's hat for the third time for the Technicolor film version of the spine-tingling drama by Frederick Knott, whose previous successes include "Dial M for Murder" and "Write Me a Murder." The screenplay was by the husband-and-wife team, Robert and Jane-Howard Carrington, who also scripted "Kaleidoscope."

The director of "Wait Until Dark" was Terence Young. Although he has spent most of his adult life directing motion pictures in Europe and many odd corners of the world, "Wait Until Dark" was his first directorial effort in Hollywood. His successes include three of the James Bond thrillers: "Dr. No," "From Russia With Love" and "Thunderball." He has also directed "Black Tights," which captured several film festival awards; the documentary, "The Poppy Is Also a Flower," an anti-narcotics film made for the United Nations and Warner's "Triple Cross."

Cinematography on "Wait Until Dark" was by Charles Lang, who won an Academy Award for "A Farewell to Arms" in 1953 and has photographed "Salome," "The Rainmaker," "Chariots of Fire," "The Magnificent Seven" and Warner's "Hotel" and "Not With My Wife You Don't."

The film editor was Gene Milford whose credits include "The Chase" and Warner's "Countdown." One of his contributions to "wait Until Dark," in collaboration with the cinematographer, is the technique for presenting the final scenes which are played in almost total darkness.

The basement apartment in colorful Greenwich Village, where the major action of "Wait Until Dark" takes place, is a

'Fantasticks' Tickets Already Selling Briskly

Tickets for the two holdover performances of "The Fantasticks" were already selling at a brisk pace Saturday, and directors of the Little Theatre of Big Spring urged residents to pick up tickets early to avoid disappointment.

The original three performances of the musical drama last week were sold out before the opening performance and many persons were turned away from the door as the players performed before a "standing room only" crowd which gave them a standing ovation.

Tickets, at $2 for adults and $1 for students and airmen, are available at Montgomery Ward's, Condra's, and Gray Jewelers. Performances will be staged Friday and Saturday evenings, Feb. 9 and 10, at 8:15 p.m. There are only 125 seats available each evening.

INCOME TAX

Rules On Short Form

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service.

Q—Who can file the short form, 1040A?

A—This form can be used in the following circumstances:

1—Income is under $10,000; and

2—Income consists entirely of wages subject to withholding and not more than $200 from other wages, dividends and interest.

The Form 1040A cannot be used by taxpayers who either itemize their deductions or who claim special tax credits or deductions such as the retirement income credit, sick pay exclusion, or moving expense deduction.

Further details on filing requirements are given in the instructions that accompany both the 1040 and 1040A tax forms.

Q—How do you handle medical insurance premiums under the new law?

A—One-half of the premiums paid for medical insurance up to a maximum of $150 may be deducted when you itemize your deductions. These premiums are not subject to the three per cent of income limitation that applies to other medical expenses. The balance of your premiums should be included with any other medical expenses.

The $3 a month paid for supplementary benefits under medicare qualifies for this tax treatment.

Q—Too much was taken out for Social Security tax last year because I held two jobs. What should I do?

A—You can take a credit for the excess Social Security tax withheld by entering it on line 18 of Form 1040.

Fina Reports On Income

NEW YORK, N. Y. — American Petrofina, Inc.'s, consolidated net income for 1967 was $14,028,100, compared to $10,662,689 in 1966, an increase of 32 per cent, Harry A. Jackson, president, said today. Based on average shares outstanding during each year, earnings per share for 1967 were $1.97, compared to $1.50 for 1966.

Jackson attributed the record earnings to new high levels of performance in all phases of the company's operations. Sales of crude oil, condensate, and natural gas increased by approximately 4 per cent.
