

HANOI WANTS TO HOLD OUT DESPITE U. S. BOMBING

How Has North Vietnam Survived?

EDITOR'S NOTE - North Vietnam, about as big as the state of Georgia and with as many people as the state of New York, has undergone three full years of U.S. bombing. It has been a quarter century...

Q. How much bomb tonnage has been dropped on North Vietnam by American planes and how does this compare with what they dropped on Europe in World War II and in the 1950-1953 Korean conflict?

Q. How, then, does North Vietnam survive this punishment? A North Vietnam is an agrarian nation. Its economy was at a low level even before the bombing...

Q. What is the purpose of bombing North Vietnam? A Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara said in August: "The bombing of North Vietnam has always been considered a supplement to and not a substitute for an effective counterinsurgency campaign in South Vietnam..."

Q. What did North Vietnam do to counter the effects of the bombing? A. The North Vietnamese newspaper Nhan Dan has published a general public mobilization order...

example, tens of thousands of bicycles available, many donated by Communist East Germany. Each bicycle can carry up to 600 pounds of supplies...

Q. To what extent have North Vietnamese military installations been attacked? A. U.S. airmen have carried out hundreds of thousands of sorties since 1965...

COOLIE LABOR In addition, what one U.S. officer called the "astounding recoverability" of the North from bomb damage probably is due in part to coolie labor...

Q. What about food supplies in North Vietnam? A. Rice, meat, wheat, sugar and cotton are rationed. The bombing has led to increased commodity prices and shorter rations...

Q. What about the impact on the labor force? A. A U.S. military report recently said the bombing forced North Vietnam to divert more than 500,000 part-time workers to relocated activities in repair and communications...

TARGETS DESTROYED Many targets were hit repeatedly: more than 50 troop barracks, more than 50 bridges, more than 50 surface to air missile sites...

BLACK MARKETS The meat ration has been halved since 1966. Rice is rationed on the basis of occupation, so that a heavy laborer gets about 45 pounds a month...

RUSSIAN AID Q. What are other Communist nations doing to help North Vietnam? A. By the end of 1968, the Soviet Union will have invested more than $4 billion in aid to North Vietnam...

Threatening Negro FBI Agent Charge Jails Rap

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - Black Power advocate H. Rap Brown was in jail today as his lawyer drafted a defense on a new charge and tried to raise $100,000 bond.

Attorney William Kuntler of New York hoped to get the bond reduced at the preliminary hearing, the next legal step facing the militant Negro leader.

The new charge was imposed on Brown, a spokesman for the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, after he lost a legal argument in federal court about a court order limiting his travel.

The FBI said Brown, during a recess, told FBI Agent William H. Smith Jr., also a Negro, that: "We will get you... We better not find out where you live, and if you have any children we will get them, too."

When Brown walked out of the courtroom Wednesday, vowing to go on a hunger strike in jail, the FBI hustled him to a U.S. commissioner's office to hear the charge of intimidating and impeding an FBI agent.

by carrying a gun around while under federal indictment. Specifically, the charge was that he took a .30-caliber rifle from New York to New Orleans and back while under indictment at Cambridge, Md., on charges of arson and inciting riots.

"I'll stay there until I am released or die because I will refuse all food and water," he said.

Commissioner Fritz H. Windhorst fixed bond at $50,000. In federal court, a few minutes earlier, Brown's bond on another charge—violation of a federal firearms law—had been set at $50,000 and he had been ordered to forfeit $5,000 of his old $15,000 bond.

Judge Lansing Mitchell ordered the forfeit as punishment for violation of his order that Brown confine his travel to Louisiana, New York and Atlanta, Ga., pending trial.

Brown turned up at recent Black Power rallies in Los Angeles and Oakland, Calif. He was then arrested on a Louisiana warrant Tuesday at a friend's apartment in New York City.

$300-MILLION DECISION East Estate Contest Ruling Slated Friday

SARITA, Tex. (AP) - The ancient courthouse in this South Texas village gains new life Friday at 2 p.m. when Special Probate Judge William R. Edwards hands down a ruling in the lengthy Sarita Kennedy East will contest.

Edwards' ruling involving an estimated $300-million will not mark the end of a court battle over the fortune amassed in oil, land and cattle by Capt. Mifflyn Kennedy.

Lawyers for all parties agree that regardless of the decision reached here the decision will be appealed to district court. The appeal will take the case from sparsely populated Kenedy County to a more metropolitan area.

In 1948 as the only member of the Sarita Kennedy East Foundation. Before she died childless and without a direct heir Feb. 11, 1961, Mrs. East named herself, Jacob S. Floyd, an Alice lawyer and Christopher Gregory, then a Trappist monk known as Brother Leo, as directors.

About a year before she died Mrs. East named Judge Lytton and Floyd as additional members of the foundation. The bishop of the Corpus Christi Diocese, of the Roman Catholic Church was named to replace Mrs. East as her death.

But in June of 1960, Mrs. East then wrote a codicil to her will, revoking the earlier appointments to the foundation and making Gregory, who has since been dismissed from the Trappist order, and J. Peter Grace, president of W-R-G-Grace & Co. in New York City, foundation members on her death.

by Edwards' ruling, the 1948 will could be probated. The 1948 will gave the foundation what was left of the estate after various bequests to employes and relatives.

A Parra Ranch was established by Capt. Kennedy in about 1886 and is adjacent to the famed King Ranch, founded about the same time by Capt. Richard King, also a riverboat captain on the Rio Grande during hectic Civil War period along the border.

Gaud Admits Overcharging

WASHINGTON (AP) - Foreign aid chief William S. Gaud has acknowledged his agency's excess property rehabilitation program has sometimes been improperly supervised but argued against junking the program.

The administrator of the Agency for International Development took personal blame for what he called improper supervision of the program in Belgium, Korea, Japan and Okinawa.

But Gaud told a House subcommittee Wednesday these programs were being overhauled, with changes designed to end overcharging for services and charging for services not performed.

Will Take Years

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Senate House conference agreed Wednesday on a bill that would increase the Export-Import Bank's lending authority but bar it—unless the President intercedes—from transactions with Communist countries.

The Senate quickly approved the compromise measure.

Rain Records Set In Texas

AUSTIN (AP) - Rainfall records were set in many areas of Texas during January, the State Water Development Board said Wednesday.

January, usually a dry month in Texas, pulled a surprise punch this year, the board commented in its monthly report.

South Central and North Central Texas received most of the big rains, including 8.32 inches at San Antonio, the most January rain received there in 97 years.

Fulbright Says Congress Mised About Tonkin Deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. W. Fulbright says the administration misled Congress and is deceiving the public about the 1964 Gulf of Tonkin incident, which generated U.S. military escalation in Vietnam.

He also charged Wednesday that the Pentagon hauled off for mental examination a Navy commander who had volunteered to tell Congress what he knew of the incident.

Fulbright accused Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara of deceiving the public in releasing a 21-page statement the defense chief presented Tuesday to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

'RIGHT TO LIE'
Fulbright told newsmen he does not subscribe to a position he attributed to one-time McNamara aide Arthur Sylvester, whom he quoted as saying "the government has the right to lie to the people of this country."

The Arkansas Democrat's charges came after the committee, which he heads, refused his request to make public staff findings on the Gulf of Tonkin incident.

Fulbright told newsmen after Wednesday's committee meeting he felt the staff report was necessary to counter-balance what he termed the one-sided McNamara statement.

At issue is the August 1964, incident in which the administration said two U.S. destroyers, the Maddox and Turner Joy, were attacked by North Vietnamese torpedo boats in the Gulf of Tonkin.

INADEQUATE INFO
The incident produced the so-called Tonkin Gulf resolution in which the Senate, by an overwhelming vote, called on President Johnson to take all steps necessary to "prevent further aggression."

The first U.S. bombing attacks on North Vietnam—and a sharp escalation of U.S. military forces committed to the war—quickly followed.

Fulbright, who was floor manager for the administration-requested resolution, has since strongly opposed U.S. policy in Vietnam and contends Congress was given inadequate information about the Tonkin Gulf incident.

RULED SANE
Fulbright said the Pentagon was guilty of "greatly intimidating" the naval officer—he did not name him—by requiring him to undergo a psychiatric examination last summer the day after he called on the committee to volunteer information.

He did not identify the officer, who reportedly is now stationed in New York State. He said the Pentagon found the officer sane. But, Fulbright added, when he took up this matter with McNamara Tuesday, the defense chief replied he had never heard of it.

"They only hear what they want to hear," Fulbright said. Fulbright told newsmen the committee staff probe revealed uncertainty as to whether the two U.S. destroyers actually were attacked. But he said no hint of such doubts appeared when the resolution was being debated, and added:

MISLEADING
"I think this was misleading." Claiming McNamara made public only information supporting the administration position, Fulbright said, "This, I believe, deceives the American public."

The Defense Department said any assertions the Pentagon suppressed information indicating the destroyers weren't attacked are "totally without foundation."

And Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, chief of naval operations, issued a statement saying: "I know of no report made by the Navy which casts any doubt on the fact that the destroyers were attacked on 2 August and 4 August." Moorer said that as commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet at the time, he "closely followed events on a minute by minute basis."

Accuses Legislators Of Using Influence

DALLAS (AP) — John W. Crank, ousted former chief investigator for the Texas Liquor Control Board, accuses legislators of using influence on affairs of the board, the Dallas News reported today.

Its copyrighted dispatch from Austin quoted Crank, who was ousted Feb. 1 in a widening probe of the liquor board, as saying:

"Getting a member of the Legislature to represent a guy was almost a sure way to get his penalty for a violation either reduced or eliminated altogether."

RECORDS LOST
The newspaper gave these details: Crank said some lawmakers also had prevented the appearance of witnesses in court and managed to keep liquor agents from inspecting package store records.

William A. Mason, assistant chief of the board's enforcement division, asserted that Sen. Dorsey B. Hardeman of San Angelo interfered when Mason sought to examine records of a liquor store at Impact, in a precinct adjoining legally dry Abilene.

Mason said that after a telephone call from the store manager, Hardeman asked that he wait until the senator could be present later in the day, and argued that liquor agents lacked authority to see the records until Mason showed him a copy of the law.

"He finally agreed that we did," Mason said, "but by then the records had disappeared. We finally managed to get them sometime later."

NO COMMENT
Hardeman declined comment. Crank said Hardeman and other legislators often appeared at administrative hearings of the liquor board.

In this connection he also named Sens. Jack Strong of Longview and V. E. Berry of San Antonio, former Sens. Jeph

Basketball Buffs Backing Is Urged

Some of the outstanding basketball playing in the Southwest—some say perhaps better than average Southwest Conference games—will be coming up here in early March.

American Business Club representatives told the Downtown Lions Club about it Wednesday noon at the Settles Hotel. They urged backing of the Region V tournament of the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Roger Brown said that such outstanding teams as Ranger, Christian College of the Southwest, Hill County, Howard County, Clarendon, and Amarillo, and two of these three—Weatherford, Odessa or New Mexico.

EXPENSES LISTED
Winner of the tournament will go to Hutchison, Kan., for the national finals. Dates of the regional tournament here, said Brown, are March 1-2-3. All eight teams play the first afternoon and evening, then there will be two games Friday and Saturday evenings. The $3 adult and $1 student total tournament tickets will save about $1 in each case.

Brown said that the ABClub has underwritten expenses of the tournament, which approximate $3,000. This includes $100 to each team for its first game, $50 per game thereafter; $50 per game for officials, plus mileage and expenses; trophies; gymnasium rental; miscellaneous expenses; and $600 to the winning team as expenses to the national tournament.

All games will be played in the high school gymnasium, said Brown, because none of the other teams wanted HCJC to have a home court advantage. He was accompanied to the Lions Club by Bill Reed, president of the ABClub, and by Bill Bradford, who made an appeal for ticket purchases.

Communism Opinion Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — A three-day mock trial of communism has ended without a clear-cut verdict but the five-judge tribunal said it will deliver a written opinion later.

The "indictment" charged there was a Communist conspiracy to enslave 15 countries, including the United States.

Chief Judge Richard Slemmer said Wednesday in summarizing prosecution and defense arguments that the prosecution had presented proof of conspiracy mainly by implication.

"Does guilt arise solely by implications?" he asked. The final session was disrupted by pickets who carried placards asking why the tribunal wasn't investigating "U.S. war crimes" in Vietnam.

The mock trial, held on the Georgetown University campus, was sponsored by Young Americans for Freedom and the Twin Circle-National Catholic Press.

One of the final witnesses was Herbert Philbrick, who as a double agent penetrated the U.S. Communist party some 20 years ago.

Philbrick testified the Communists remain dedicated to an eventual takeover of this country. "I think the important thing to emphasize is that what we see in the United States is a very small part" of the Communist operation, Philbrick said. "The vast majority of the Communists in the United States are underground."

Liberal Democrats Weigh Their Role

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Liberal Democrats begin a crucial meeting here tonight that may determine how hard the state's political liberals will work for, or against, President Johnson's re-election.

Endorsement of statewide political candidates is another important discussion scheduled. The general membership meeting of TLD gets under way with registration and committee meetings tonight. The resolutions committee report, with expected action on an anti-Johnson resolution, is set for Saturday morning. Endorsement of candidates comes late Saturday.

VIET STAND
The meeting ends Sunday with a business session and speeches by the endorsed candidates, said Ronald L. Platt, Beaumont, TLD chairman.

The anti-Johnson resolution was first broached last August when about 15 of the 100 persons attending a steering committee meeting urged that the organization take a stand on President Johnson's policies in Vietnam. The issue was passed on to a November steering committee meeting in Midland which also refused to take action but promised that the matter would be put before the entire membership at this meeting.

'BOBBY' DRAFT
Pushing for adoption of the resolution is Don Allford, Austin, who first was a leader in Texas of the "Draft Bobby Kennedy" movement but now is a leader in behalf of Sen. Eugene McCarthy, D-Minn., for the Democratic presidential nomination. Allford is state co-chairman of Dissenting Democrats of Texas, an organization that has the motto "ABJ (Anybody but Johnson) '68".

The proposed resolution would put the TLD on record as saying, "We believe that conditions are such that Lyndon Johnson cannot possibly bring the Vietnam war to an end. A new president, one who shares the confidence of the people at home and abroad, will be required to end the war. We urge him (President Johnson) to decline to seek re-nomination."

Allford predicted in a talk to a local DDT group Tuesday that TLD would approve the resolution.

Bids Goodbye

U.S. Air Force Doctor (Major) Robert T. Angel bids goodbye to his patient, Vo Mai, who recently underwent heart surgery at Cam Ranh Bay AB, Vietnam. The heart operation was the first to be performed at the 12th U.S. Air Force Hospital at Cam Ranh Bay.

Dr. Angel Scores A First In Surgery

U.S. Air Force Doctor (Major) Robert T. Angel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Angel, 706 Hillside Drive, Big Spring, has successfully completed the first heart surgery performed at the 12th U.S. Air Force Hospital at Cam Ranh Bay AB, Vietnam. Dr. Angel, chief of thoracic surgery, closed an abnormal opening in the heart of eight-year-old Vo Mai and thereby increased the Vietnamese child's life expectancy from 26 to normal. Vo Mai's condition was brought to the attention of Dr. Angel as the result of a medical civic action (MEDCAP) visit to the child's village of Myca. Dr. Angel received a B.S. degree from Baylor University in Waco, and an M.D. degree from Baylor Medical College in Houston. His wife, Jimmie Lou, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sam Angier, Houston.

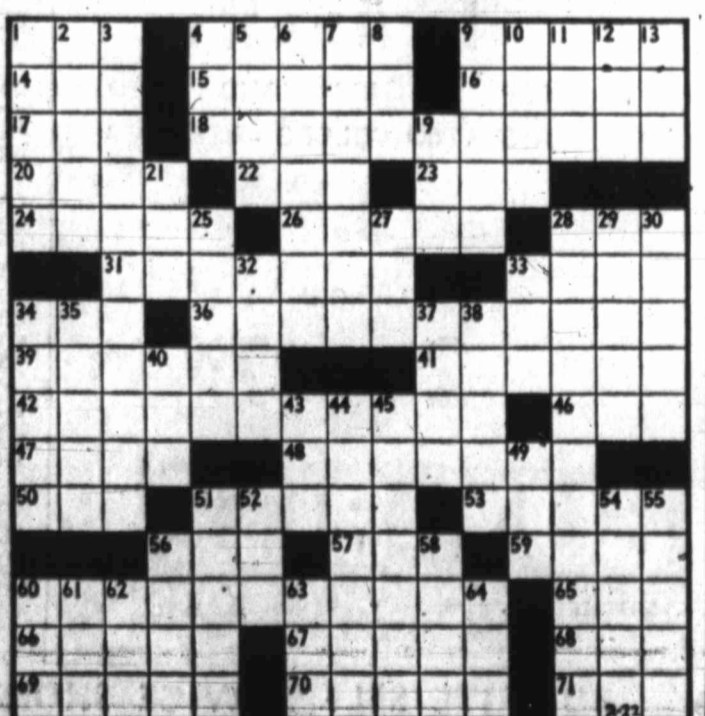

Arctic Blast Settled Into Deep South Today

An arctic blast that stung the Northern states with zero cold settled into the deep South today and pushed the mercury down to the teens across Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi. Subzero cold hung onto the Northern Plains, Great Lakes region and northern reaches of the Northeast, but readings generally were less severe than a day earlier. Grand Forks, N.D., registered 13 below zero. In the Southeast, residents of Atlanta shivered in a 19-degree predawn chill as did persons in Jackson, Miss. It was 18 at Birmingham. Snow also developed along the western edge of the arctic air mass, blanketing portions of the Western Plains and the eastern slopes of the Rockies. Amounts were generally light.

Minimum Wage Law Compliance

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — The acting director of Laredo's city minimum wage law says that employers apparently are complying with the three-week old ordinance.

Frank Maher, the acting director, said that so far he has received only one official complaint from an employe. "It is my belief that we are getting tremendous compliance, otherwise we would be getting repercussions," he said.

The ordinance sets the minimum hourly wage at 85 cents, covering employers not under the federal wage law. Laredo is the third city in Texas to adopt such a law. The others are Mathis and San Antonio.

Dear Abby Selfish Relatives Lose

DEAR ABBY: We are an elderly couple, and childless. We have lots of nieces and nephews who were brought to our small place when they were young. We loved them and kissed away their bruises and always remembered them with nice gifts at Christmastime and birthdays and so on. Now they are grown men and women with families of their own, and we are quite forgotten. We have written them letters, which were all ignored. However we are still on their Christmas card list, although none of them has ever taken the extra five minutes to add a personal line or two.

Well, back in the thirties, the Mrs. and I inherited a little property, which we sold. On the advice of a banker friend we bought IBM and General Motors stock, and as you probably know, the investment was a good one.

We never lived extravagantly with fancy automobiles or showy homes. Never took expensive vacations as we like it here. We gave to charities, modestly, but never appeared rich because of the many dangers that threaten rich folks. We enjoy simple pleasures like gardening and cozy nights around a fireplace. We have watched the mailbox for years for letters from our "kids," but none have come, save their printed store-bought cards at Christmastime.

Our best friend is our mailman. On several occasions he has rung our bell, wanting to know if we were all right because he didn't see us stirring inside. Last Christmas he bought me a nice pipe and a can of tobacco. And he gave the Mrs. some powder and perfume. We gave him a turkey as he has a good wife and five small children. One day he is going to get a real big surprise. Abby, because in our will we have left our mailman $60,000. The rest will go to our church, crippled children, and the blind. Our relatives will get nothing because they gave nothing of themselves. I don't care how you sign this as long as you don't use our name or town. Sincerely yours, A QUIET COUPLE

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem. I like the guy I double-date with more than the guy I date.

How can I get his mind off the girl in the front seat long enough to notice the girl in the back seat? GREEN EYES: DEAR GREEN EYES: You can't. Better try to get his attention some other time. If the girl in the back seat shows any interest in the boy in the front seat, she's apt to wind up sitting at home.

Problems? Write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069. For a personal reply, enclose

Seven Texans Die In Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — The deaths of seven Texans killed in action in the Vietnam war were recorded Wednesday on the Pentagon's daily casualty list. One other died of wounds and two men previously reported missing in action were recorded as dead.

Killed in action: Army—2nd Lt. David G. Isbell, son of Mrs. Ezra C. Campbell, 1006 Thompson St., Huntsville; Sgt. Raul R. Lamas, husband of Mrs. Ola L. Lamas, 5860 Tarpon St., El Paso; Sgt. Adolfo Luna, husband of Mrs. Mamela M. Luna, 221 N. Missouri St., Mercedes; Sgt. Vitalio Vela Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Vitalio Vela Sr., 606 W. Edwards St., Falfurrias; Cpl. Wade E. Thackrey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wade E. Thackrey Sr., 1307 33rd St., Lubbock; Pfc. Paul Candelaria, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Candelaria, 436 McCarthy Ave., El Paso.

Marine Corps—Pfc. Jack C. Bogard, husband of Mrs. Jack C. Bogard, 1060-2L, Humble. Changed from missing to killed in action:

Army—Capt. James M. Vrba, Jr., husband of Mrs. Barbara A. Vrba, 503 Stonewell St., Euless; Spec. 5 Henry W. Hartman, brother of Mr. Ben G. Hartman, Route 8, Box 138-B, Georgetown.

Bill To Wipe Out Bathing Suit Ban

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Republican and Democratic leaders in the Kentucky House of Representatives joined Tuesday in sponsoring a bill to wipe out many obsolete sections of the state's criminal code.

It would, for example, repeal the ban against selling cigarettes, cigars and refreshments within 1/2 miles of a camp meeting.

It also would erase: —A law against appearing on a public highway in a bathing suit. —A law against grazing cattle on the state Capitol grounds. —A law against defrauding a livery stable operator.

Housing Measure Split Recorded

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas' two senators were on opposing sides again Wednesday as the Senate refused in a 58-34 roll call vote to table the open housing amendment of Sen. Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn.

Texas Soldier Awaited Orders For 13 Months

FT. LEWIS, Wash. (AP) — A Texas soldier who awaited orders for 13 months at his home a few miles from this sprawling Army base has been acquitted of being absent without leave. It took the court-martial board less than an hour Tuesday to find Pfc. Charles W. Coffman, 23, of Jacksboro, Tex., innocent. Coffman, who had been in the Army 10 months, was transferred Nov. 7, 1966, from one engineer unit bound from here to Vietnam to another just being formed. He said when he reported at the personnel section of his new unit he was told his records hadn't arrived and he should check back later. BACK PAY? Coffman testified that he checked three or four times a week for about three months, then gave up and just telephoned. That continued until he was arrested Dec. 27 by the Federal Bureau of Investigation for desertion. His records finally arrived last November.

Coffman and his wife Linda lived on her $92.20-a-month allotment check and the money he received from odd jobs. Mrs.

Coffman said they didn't know he was considered AWOL until they got a letter from his parents in Texas saying the FBI was looking for him. Army officials haven't decided whether he will have to make up the time he was "missing" or if he is entitled to some $1,170 in back pay.

Optometric Prexy

DENVER CITY, Tex. (AP) — Dr. William R. Grubbs of Denver City has been elected president of the South Plains Optometric Society.

Enrollment In Another Drop

The Big Spring school enrollment took another dip last week, most of it on a secondary level — and most of that was in high school.

The 7,333 in school was 21 less than the previous week. Elementary enrollment was off five, but secondary registration was off 17. Of this, senior high had a loss of 12. Special education gained one. Enrollment is down 197 from a year ago.

Horoscope Forecast

FOR TOMORROW

—CARROLL RICHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is certainly a day and evening when most everyone is in a jumpy frame of mind and you would be wise to discuss side-step any arguments or discussions that could get you into trouble with anyone.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are very kind with those dwelling under your roof. Best ideas need further study before putting them in operation. Be wise, don't take any chances.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Much care has to be exercised now if you are to prevent an accident while out driving, and being alert to the other person's moves is wise. Do not use sarcasm with others. Speak kindly and oil is fine.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You are in a mood to spend too much for anything for no reason at all, so get wise to yourself early. Better get busy figuring out a better budget. Then you keep your head above water.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Before you take any definite steps in some VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22) Avoid that temptation to leave important work behind so that you can go out for a bit of pleasure that isn't even worth the time or trouble. Keep ahead of and then enjoy inexpensive fun.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You must take care you do not lose your temper today or tonight and be sure you are very kind with those dwelling under your roof. Best ideas need further study before putting them in operation. Be wise, don't take any chances.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Better get off alone to the recreation you like, since usual allies are either not available or in the wrong mood. Wait until a better day to repay that social obligation you have. Stop feeling sorry for yourself.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow ... he, or she, will be one of those dynamic young people who is always up to something because it is difficult for your parents to all still be happy when nothing is going on. So be sure you give courses that keep your intelligent progeny busy, sports that give vent to extra energy. A fine builder, real estate man or woman here.

OFF THE BEATEN TRAIL

The Joys Of Boys On Texas Plains

By ED SYERS
It should interest you that Ross Edwards, who is Lubbock's one-time mayor, cowboy and genuine oldtimer, waited till he was 80 to write his book. Among much else, it recollects how boys fared in the days when we literally pioneered our Great Plains country.

For example, it's hard for me to explain how a boy "in the older days" could have much unrefined fun. I mean, building a spool tank or roller coaster from next door's barn top, or a cave with a club room you can nearly stand up in and you get to, only through a fat-man's misery; or a telephone with some wire and a couple of tin cans. Or how you tictac that mean lady's window screen on a spring night.

'IN A BOOK'
Trouble is, today you have to show these things "in a book." Who believes anything if it isn't in a book? Well, here's a book telling of even earlier olden days.

Young Ross, age 7, stayed saddled 21 days in 1891 when his family trailed a small herd west to homestead below where Crowell would grow from the flats of Pease River Country. Recollected, of course, is a panorama from then to now; but I singled out what was fun to that boy, when home was a dugout on a treeless plain.

There isn't space for routine fun, like making pets of prairie dogs or badgers, or using a turkey quill to flip corn at the school's stuckup girls, or watching the confectionary discover strawberry soda pop or hocking your pocketknife against a future nickel for a whole bowl of chili or camping out the wagon ... and sure not room to list the chores.

Greatest fun Ross Edwards found, was from what he made; and his greatest invention was a sailing ship at age 12. His and Sam Denton's parents are away on a trip, so let him tell it:

"Now wind power was in my blood and the number of sandstorms so reckless in our parts seemed a lot of loss of power. Sam and I examined the merit of a real live blow, applied to some of the light vehicles at our disposal (with nobody to say no!)

"The paraphernalia became a one horse buggy with a wagon sheet for a sail. A pole out front with ropes made a steering device. It was no trouble to await a respectable sandstorm. The trouble was going too fast, too quickly. But launching was finally solved by tying to a post with a slip knot, the free end of the rope pulled, when ready.

FENCE TROUBLE
"We'd read about boats being launched, breaking a bottle of champagne. All we had was a party-filled bottle of screw worm medicine. We broke it on the wheel and let go. There was trouble at a fence line two miles off (with brakes smoking) where the buggy tipped over trying to turn, and blew along on its side."

Of course, there's much else in this little book (Fiddle Dust, Big Mountain Press, Denver, Colo., or Box 826, Lubbock). Being a first hand account of opening a Texas frontier by an author who is still very much about makes it rare, for one thing. Then, it ranges from treasure-mining Mexico to exploring Alaska ... and the thrill to a man who could do what few others would consider.

But I have to go back to the boy who built his joys from exactly what he had to work with. That's the part of the book for your grandchildren to read.

IOWA PARK, Tex. (AP)—A historic picture — almost 100 years old — has been presented to the Texas House of Representatives by Earle L. Denny of Iowa Park.

The picture — showing the speaker and House committee chairmen of the 12th Legislature which met in 1870 and 1871 — is the first photographic record of that legislature to be placed in the House.

Such a picture had been sought for some time. And Denny learned of the search while touring the Texas Capitol last summer. His grandfather, J. D. George of Grayson County, served in the 12th Legislature and Denny remembered the picture in his home.

He contacted State Rep. Dave Altred of Wichita County who saw that the picture got safely to Austin to be placed in the House chamber along with photographs representing other legislatures.

Dignitaries Of 2 Nations Gather For Fiesta Show

LAREDO, Tex. (AP) — Scores of dignitaries from both sides of the border begin gathering today to launch the 71st annual Laredo celebration of George Washington's birthday.

President Johnson has named Edward J. Jamison, U. S. consul general at Monterey, as his personal representative to the fiesta-marked observance.

Governors of four states will be on hand during the festivities. With Gov. John Connally of Texas as will be Gov. Praxedes Balboa of Tamaulipas, Gov. Eduardo Elizondo of Nuevo Leon and Gov. Braulio Fernandez Aguirre of Coahuila de Mexico.

Luis Alva Cejudo, director general of Mexico's Consular Service, will represent Mexican President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz. Cejudo will also represent Mexican Foreign Minister Antonio Carrillo Flores.

Among the first public officials due to arrive is Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., who is scheduled to present a major address on U.S. foreign policy Thursday night.

Also confirming participation in the festivities are U. S. Congressmen Abraham (Chick) Kazen Jr. of Laredo, Henry B. Gonzalez of San Antonio and Eligio (Kika) de la Garza of the valley. James F. Greene, deputy commissioner of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service and David Ellis, assistant commissioner of U. S. Customs, are scheduled to be on hand.

Three members of the State Supreme Court—Justices Robert Calvert, Jack Polk and Robert Hamilton—have announced they will be here, along with all three members of the Texas Railroad Commission—Ben Ramsey, Jim Langdon and Byron Tunnell.

Among candidates for governor scheduled to attend are Eugene Locke, ex-deputy ambassador to Vietnam; John Hill, Texas secretary of state; Lt. Gov. Preston Smith; and Dolph Briscoe Jr., Uvalde banker and rancher.

Also due to be here are Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin; Ben Barnes, speaker of the House; Texas Commissioner of Health James Peavy and S. H. Hooser of the Texas State Teachers' Association Austin staff.

Fiesta officials also estimate at last 25 members of the Legislature will be on hand, together with other officials.

Launching festivities will be a fireworks display Thursday night on the banks of the Rio Grande, adjacent to the International Bridge.

One of the busiest days of the celebration will be Friday, with a series of events leading up to the Colonial Pageant and Ball that night.

Saturday events will include the International Bridge Ceremony at 8:30 a.m. with Connally personally welcoming visiting dignitaries from Mexico to the Lone Star State.

The Grand International Parade will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday. It will be followed by the President's Luncheon, honoring "Mr. South Texas," who this year is H. B. Zachry of San Antonio.

Saturday night is time for the Noche Mexicana, featuring musical stars from Mexico.

Sunday morning there will be a "charreada," or Mexican style rodeo, at the Nuevo Laredo Fair Grounds. There will be horse races that afternoon, followed by the "Salute to Jorge Washington Bullfights" in Nuevo Laredo.

BACK AT RANCH

Ford May Get Big Federal Job

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, back at his Texas ranch for a long holiday weekend, may have a big federal job waiting for visitor Henry Ford II.

Ford, the President disclosed Wednesday before departing from Washington, will be a ranch guest—ostensibly to talk about the efforts of the National Alliance of Businessmen to create jobs for 500,000 of the hard core unemployed in the biggest city slums in the next three years. Ford heads the alliance.

Other sources said Ford was expected at the LBJ Ranch, some 65 miles west of here, on Saturday.

Perhaps by coincidence, Illinois Democrats will meet on that day to pick a Democratic slate for that Midland state that always carries much weight in presidential elections. Many people expect Sargent Shriver, director of the federal Office of Economic Opportunity, to be tagged as either the Democratic candidate for governor or senator.

In view of Ford's evident interest in the plight of the big city jobless, an interest demonstrated outside the federal sphere in his own announced employment policies in Detroit, it was regarded as not unthinkable that Johnson might have him in mind as successor to Shriver.

The White House had nothing to say on the subject, beyond pointing to Ford's recent denials that he is hankering for any federal post.

Auto industry sources began speculating several weeks ago that Ford was destined for a place in the Johnson administration. Such talk began even before the heir to the Ford fortune announced on Feb. 6 that Semon E. Knudsen was giving up his post as executive vice president of General Motors to become president of the Ford Motor Co.

What especially piqued the curiosity of industry people was the fact that Arjay Miller, president of the company until then, agreed to accept the post of vice chairman of the board, seemingly a no man's land.

These sources said the management shakeup at Ford made sense only if the boss, Ford II, would soon relinquish the chairmanship—perhaps to accept a federal post—and turn it over to Miller.

Johnson, in need of relaxation after five weeks of wrestling with major crises in Vietnam and Korea, was expected to remain at his ranch home in the Texas hill country through the weekend, at least.

Murder Trial Jurors Picked

BEAUMONT (AP) — Selection of a jury was to be resumed today in the murder trial of Walter Lee Tyler of Galena Park.

Eight jurors — seven men and one woman—had been selected when court recessed Wednesday and attorneys said they expected to pick four more today.

Tyler is charged with murder in the Aug. 3 shooting death of a Port Arthur policeman, patrolman Paul Emerson. The slaying occurred when Emerson and a fellow officer attempted to arrest a burglar suspect.

Evers Figures He Can Win

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Charles Evers, brother of a slain civil rights leader, predicted Wednesday he would defeat six white opponents in his campaign to become Mississippi's first Negro congressman since 1881.

However, the odds against Evers, 45, appeared to be heavy in the special election to be held next Tuesday.

If no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, the two who wind up first and second will face each other in a runoff March 12. Informal polls give Evers a good chance to finish in the first two, but virtually no chance of winning a runoff.

At stake is the seat from the 12-county southwest Mississippi third district represented for 21 years by John Bell Williams, a strong segregationist, who was elected governor last November.

Evers advocates U.S. withdrawal from the Vietnam war and curtailment of spending on space programs in order to make more federal funds available for welfare purposes. He proposes what he calls a program of "workfare" featuring government-guaranteed jobs paying at least $50 a week.

Welfare programs in most parts of Mississippi have a ceiling of $50 a month, which Evers says "falls far short of the national average and does not mask the human suffering that results from inadequate payments to these Mississippians." Arrayed against Evers in the special election are five Democrats and one Republican, all white and all opposed to the general themes of Evers' campaign.

Among the other candidates is Charles H. Griffin, who served Williams 18 years as an aide. He is rated a top contender, as is state Sen. Ellis Bodron of Vicksburg, who graduated from law school with honors despite blindness.

The Republican, Hagan Thompson of Jackson, is an unknown quantity. Thompson resigned as news director of a Jackson radio-television station for alleged sex relations. Another contender is Troy Watkins, a former mayor of Natchez who ran well in the race for lieutenant governor last summer.

Dist. Atty. Joe N. Pigott of McComb and David L. Perkins, a Jackson chiropractor, are others in the field.

Evers received a leave of absence as state field director for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People to make the race.

He took that job in 1963, when he returned to Mississippi from Chicago after his brother Medgar, the previous director, was slain by a sniper outside his home in Jackson.

Middle-Of-The-Road Show Makes Feeble Comedy Stab

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—It's not easy to turn out a new show each week—different host, different guest stars, different theme, but that's the format of NBC's Wednesday night "Music Hall." Under the circumstances, it is not surprising that it is a show with ups and downs.

"Music Hall," too, is one of those middle-of-the-road programs, designed to appeal to all ages, and offend and shock none. Thus this week's edition, called "The Class of '68," really didn't do much more than present some attractive people singing songs and make a rather feeble stab at some comedy. The show was billed as "a salute" to this year's college graduates, but just about all the collegiate atmosphere was a bunch of extras dressed like students who sat around and applauded on cue.

John Davidson, an attractive singer who is, however, several years beyond college, was the host of the show. Then there were singers Michele Lee, Buffy Sainte-Marie, Tom Jones and the Fifth Dimension, a rock group, and comedian Flip Wilson without much material to work with.

"The Jonathan Winters Show" followed on CBS. Winters had a pretty funny opening Wednesday night, playing a gun-happy soldier of fortune submitting to an interview. But the show slid down hill after that. Paula Prentiss and Dick Benjamin turned up in a satiric musical salute to New York—noting its bad air, crime rate and garbage problems—in a fashion that may bring complaints from the city fathers. Then there was a spoof of films about decadent Southern families—about the 10th of mer games in Mexico next Octo-ber.

The show seemed perfunctory and, even at this early stage of its life, a bit tired.

If the three networks stick with present plans, there will be 13 weekly prime time hours of variety next season, plus all sorts of specials. Since most of them stick to the same recipe of music and sketches, the competition for guest stars will be even hotter than it has been this season. Don Rickles, whose style of insult comedy is in high demand, counted up recently and found that he had appeared in spot shots 60 times this season. That is a lot of television exposure.

NBC's "Daniel Boone" is going to lose his Oxford-educated Indian side-kick next season. Ed Ames has already discarded his braids and war paint, and is turning to other acting and concert chores. It is currently not known whether Daniel will find himself a new pal, but it may be significant that Jimmy Dean recently appeared in a couple of episodes.

ABC's "The Dick Van Dyke Show" TV rights to the Olympic games, was not too happy with the size of the ratings the programs drew last week, but blames the lack of intense interest on the generally disappointing performance of the Americans. It is expected that it will do better with the second part of the sports package—the sum-

follow the girl in Sue Brett

"SPRING DUET" . . . the lyrics are dress and jacket, the melody is soft and sweet! This charming couple moves with complete ease of motion . . . scoop neck dress with squared-off armholes, wide patent belt, and full skirt with pleated panel effect—its partner, a short cropped jacket with mao collar! Body Found After Fires

HOUSTON (AP) — Four residential fires within an hour Wednesday night tied up a third of the city's firefighting equipment for a time, and a body was found in a burning apartment house.

Three two-story houses burned to the ground as a 20-mile wind hampered firemen.

Adding to their problems were three false alarms, turned in about the same time the fires broke out.

Chief dispatcher Bill Hausinger said 26 of the city's 60 pumper trucks were called out and about 120 firemen fought the blazes.

The body of a youth identified as Ray Baggerly, 19, was found after a two-alarm fire in an apartment house. He was unem-ployed.

Two other occupants of the two-story apartment house said the fire apparently started in a stairwell leading to the second floor. The building contained four apartments.
