Two Charged In State National Bank Robbery

Two men, one a former Big Spring, have been charged in the robbery last Dec. 12 of the State National Bank of $12,000. Marvin McKinley Morrison, 35, formerly of Big Spring, was arrested by Midland police Thursday evening with the assistance of Big Spring officers, on a federal warrant charging bank robbery.

A second man, who police believe may be the one who entered the bank and took the money and Bank President Robert Currie as hostage, is being held on another charge of armed robbery in Huntington, W. Va. He is identified as Joe F. McDonald, 20.

RETURNED

Morrison was returned to the Big Spring city jail late Thursday, and Capt. Stanley Bogard said this morning that Bill Black, U.S. Marshal from Del Rio, was to pick him up this afternoon and take him to Abilene for arraignment in the federal district court.

Bogard said he did not know when McDonald will be returned to Texas.

Detective Sherrill Farmer and Sheriff A. N. Standard went to Midland Thursday to assist in the arrest. The federal warrant had been issued earlier, according to Chief of Police Jay Banks. With Midland officers, Morrison was arrested at his residence, 420 Elm Street, in Midland. Officers said he was wearing flowery blue pajamas when they arrived.

Officers also brought back a briefcase and a pistol. "We have been investigating leads in this case constantly since it occurred," Chief Banks said. "It has taken a lot of legwork to get to the point where we could make an arrest."

One of the two men under arrest had been under surveillance for several weeks, said Banks. He added that the arrests were the result of cooperation between the sheriff's office, Texas Rangers, FBI agents and police.

M. M. (Rip) MORRISON

JOE F. McDONALD

In addition to being held on a robbery charge in West Virginia, McDonald also is wanted for questioning in a parole violation case. Both McDonald and Morrison have been free on bond following charges in Del Rio for possession of marijuana.

Robert Currie, victim of the bank holdup, turned over $12,000 to a man posing as a bus-nessman just as the bank was closing on the afternoon of Dec. 12.

WANTED $60,000

The bandit, carrying an attack case from which he extracted a pistol once he was seated at Currie's desk in the president's private office, first demanded $60,000. Because of a re-cause suspicion, Currie persuaded him to be satisfied with $12,000.

The bandit took the money, then with a pistol in pocket, calmly and unobtrusively left the bank with Currie. Using the bank president as a hostage, he drove to the Gibson parking lot at the south edge of town, made Currie lie down in the back seat, and struck him across the head twice with a pistol.

The investigation started minutes later when Currie, certain that his assailant had gone, made his way to the store and called officers.

FIRST Roy Barrera Appointed Sec. Of State

AUSTIN (AP) — Roy Barrera, a San Antonio lawyer, has been appointed Texas' first Mexican-American secretary of state—a post sometimes called the governor's "one-man cabinet."

Gov. John Connally, who said Tuesday he wanted a Spanish-speaking man in the post, appointed Barrera Thursday. Tentative plans are for a swearing-in ceremony Tuesday.

Barrera, 41, was assistant district attorney at San Antonio for six years. He became chief prosecutor before he resigned in 1957 to start his own law firm.

The governor said he wanted a Spanish-speaking secretary of state because of the many duties the secretary will have in connection with San Antonio's HemisFair, which starts next month.

Costly Clipping

DALLAS (AP)—It's going to cost $2.50, or 50 cents more, to get clipped in Dallas on April Fool's Day and that's no joke.

A spokesman for an informal organization of barbers said today the price for a haircut will jump. Wade Lee said most downtown shops and shops in north and east Dallas are going along with the hike.

Manicures will cost the same as the haircuts.

Red Cross Gifts Climb

Voluntary contributions to the Red Cross "SOS" (support our servicemen) appeal had climbed today to $1,331, the local chapter office reported.

The American National Red Cross, confronted with the responsibility of providing service to hundreds of thousands more servicemen, is facing a $12 million deficit. The local chapter was asked to assist in the special appeal in the amount of $4,300.

A Red Cross report shows that from January, 1966, to September, 1967, the number of sick and wounded servicemen served went up 299 per cent; able-bodied servicemen served advanced 73 per cent; emergency communications, the Red Cross official responsibility, soared 245 per cent.

This chapter officials pointed out, explains the wartime emergency today.

While no personal solicitation is being made, persons who will assist in this program for military families are invited to send their checks to the local Red Cross, Box 626, Big Spring.

Haze Touched Off

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The remnants of a late-winter cold front today touched off a haze of drizzle and fog across a huge expanse of South Texas.

Fog was general along the Gulf Coast and extended as far into the Texas midlands as Waco and the Tyler and Del Rio areas on different sides of the state.

Drizzle fell at San Antonio and Del Rio during the morning and light rain was reported at El Paso.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from a comfortable 60 degrees at Laredo down to 33 at Dalhart.

CLOUDY

Partly cloudy, increasing cloudiness Saturday with chance of showers. High today 65; low tonight 45; high tomorrow 68.

Miss Texas Arrives For Beauty Show

Miss Texas 1967, Molly Grubb of Tyler, arrived on Trans-Texas Airways Flight 625 from Dallas at 10:35 a.m. today and was bubbling with enthusiasm about the Miss Big Spring Pageant tonight and Saturday.

GREETED

Miss Grubb was greeted at Howard County Airport by a delegation of the red-coated Ambassadors Club of the Chamber of Commerce and representatives of the Jaycees, who are sponsoring the pageant. Also extending a welcome to her were chamber manager, Carroll Davidson, pageant chairman, John Anderson, and Jaycees Bill Tidwell and Charles Butts, who are co-chairmen.

A whirlwind of activity was awaiting Miss Grubb, who will work with the Jaycees in coordinating the pageant, and who, together with Miss Texas of 1965, Mary Lou Butler, of Dallas, will co-organize the affair with Jim Baumgardner, KBYG news director. Anderson said Miss Butler was expected to arrive in Big Spring later this afternoon.

The interview for 20 junior division contestants was to be held at the Holiday Inn at 2:30 p.m. today, with junior preliminaries tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Municipal Auditorium. Tickets are available at the door for 50 cents each.

PARADE

A parade of contestants in the pageant will begin Saturday at 10 a.m. at Seventh and Johnson Streets, and will wind through the downtown area. Senior contestants will be guests at a judges' luncheon and interview at noon Saturday.

Curtain time of the pageant Saturday is 7:30 p.m., and a large turnout is expected for the event, Anderson said. Ducats are selling for $2 for reserved seats and $1 for general admission.

Vying for the title of Miss Big Spring are Patricia Adams, Sidney Carr, Alice Denning, Debney Estes, Carla Grisham, Sharon Hicks, Susan Lewis, Sheryl Lynn Moore, Shyrleene Moore, Janine Whirley and Sheryl Williams.

WINNER

The winner will receive a $100 scholarship, a $300 wardrobe, which she may select herself, and an all-expense paid trip to Fort Worth to compete in the Miss Texas pageant.

River Yields No Survivors

QUANTICO, Va. (AP) — The near-freezing waters of the Potomac River apparently permitted no survivors from a group of nine enlisted men—expert swimmers all—who attempted a crossing in a large canoe.

Hand-picked trainees at a Marine school for physical fitness instructors at this Marine base, they included five Vietnam veterans.

The body of one victim was recovered Thursday about eight miles below the base.

He was identified as Marine Staff Sgt. Kenneth N. Andrews. Eighteen hours before, he and his eight classmates had set out to cross and recross the river in a canoe large enough to hold all comfortably.

BAKER, Calif. (AP) — A Greyhound bus and an auto collided head-on Thursday on Interstate 15 in the Mojave Desert killing 20 persons. Police said the car was in the wrong lane.

"The bus was passing another vehicle when the car came in sight," said Jim Almer, whose car was just ahead of the bus. "The bus driver couldn't get back into the righthand lane. Then it happened. All I saw was dirt flying in the air, and explosion, flames and smoke."

ON MEDIAN

The bus, which carried 32 passengers, fell onto its side on the median of the divided highway and caught fire. Twelve persons were injured, including bus driver Kenneth Burkhardt, whose leg was broken.

The survivors were taken to several hospitals and some were listed in serious condition. Many of the dead were severely burned, delaying identification.

Plane Crack Up Kills Two Men

LAREDO (AP) — A T38 jet trainer plane crash three miles north of Laredo Air Force Base killed two men Thursday.

They were Lt. James Jondahl, 24, a student pilot from Harlingen, and Maj. Roger Cullop, 34, an instructor from Troy, Ill.

Bodies Of 16 Miners Found, No Word On Five

CALUMET, La. (AP) — Sixteen of 21 salt miners trapped for more than two days 1,200 feet below earth when fire ravaged a salt mine were found dead today. There was no word on whether the other five were alive.

"I cannot repeat this but once," said Clayton Tonnamaker, a Cargill Inc., executive. "It is tragic news."

The word from a four-man rescue squad that had gone down into the blackened hole of the Cargill mine brought screams and moans from the crowd that had gathered during the course of a frantic two-day rescue effort.

He said the bodies were found on the floor of the mine which fans out in catacombs through awesome, white pure salt. Another rescue team was sent back into the mine to search for the other men.

The mine is located in a marshy area on the edge of the Gulf of Mexico, accessible only by boat or plane. A large area behind the building covering the shaft was roped off to land helicopters.

Officials did not say when any attempts would be made to raise the bodies.

A rescue crew had gone down the fire-torn mine shaft earlier in the morning, but found no clues as to the fate of the miners. This crew went out a half mile into the tunnels.

Tonnamaker said he considered this an excellent sign, since the men were not found in California highway patrol officers said they believed the auto driver was thrown under the bus and killed. Apparently there was only one person in the car, officers said.

A passenger said: "The flames just took the bus. There were just too many flames for us to do anything."

Several aboard the bus bound for Las Vegas, Nev., from Los Angeles were thrown underneath, highway patrol Sgt. Elton Lee said. Others were trapped inside.

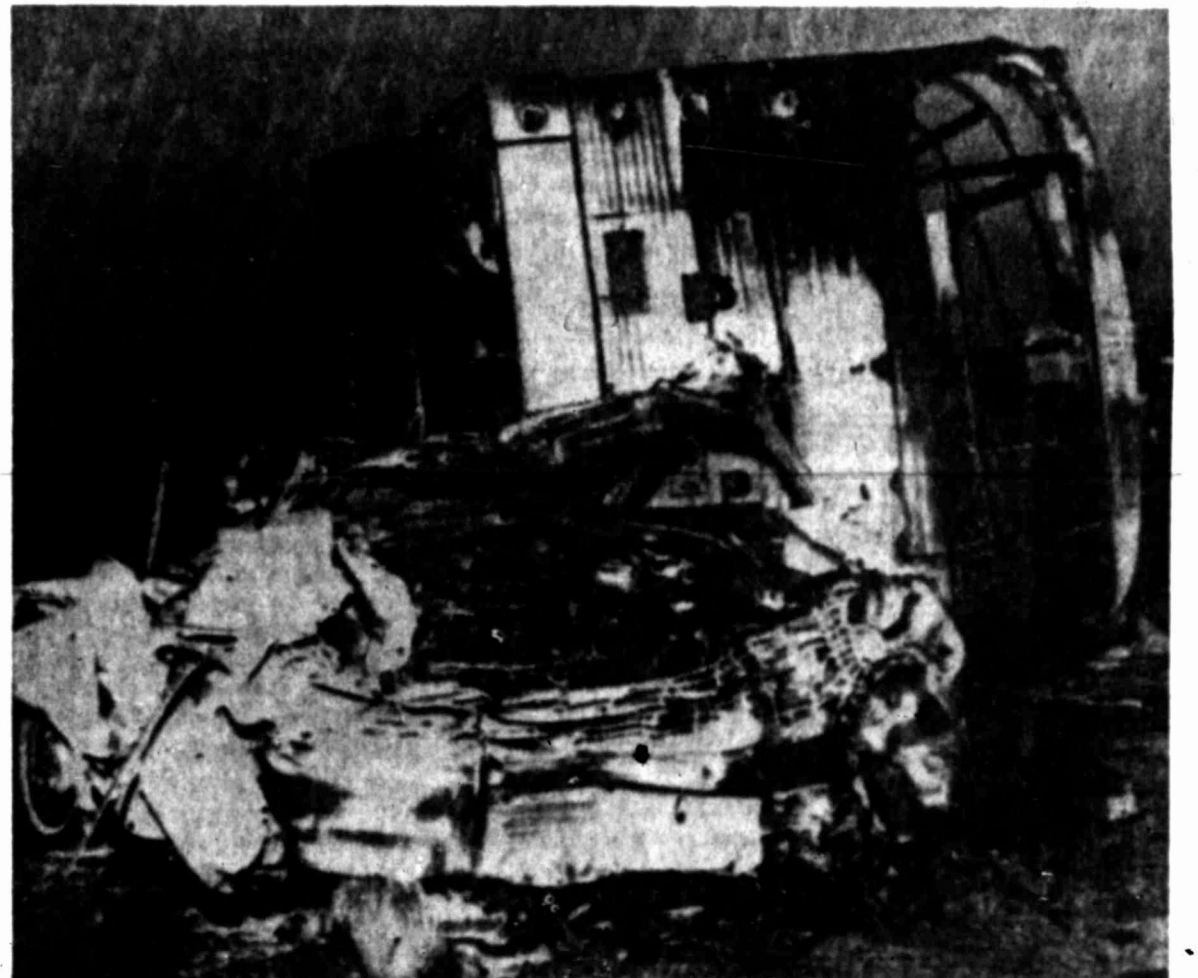

Edward Wilkerson, 28, of North Hollywood, who escaped from the burning bus, said from his hospital bed: "The flames just kept getting bigger and bigger and just kept burning and burning. The people that were left inside just didn't have a chance."

The crash took place on Baker Grade, 19-mile upward stretch at a point three miles east of the Mojave Desert community of Baker.

TRIED TO WARN

Almer, a telephone repairman, said he spotted the west-bound car on the east-bound side of the median and tried to warn the passing driver. He said he watched helplessly in his rear view mirror as the vehicles collided.

Within minutes "The whole town of Baker was there throwing sand and water on the wreckage, but it didn't seem to do any good," a witness aid.

More Rain Is Measured

Measurable moisture — .02 inch — fell Thursday to bring to 22 the number of days since Jan. 1 on which precipitation in one form or another has been recorded in this county.

Cloudy skies were still in evidence on Friday morning but no moisture had occurred to noon.

Feverish Gold Trading Weakens Pound, Dollar

LONDON (AP) — Feverish gold trading on European markets today weakened both the British pound and the U.S. dollar. The heightened run on gold reflected growing speculation that President Johnson will not be able to keep defending the U.S. gold price of $35 an ounce.

Dealers on the London bullion market said sales at the morning fixing were the heaviest in 10 days. The dollar parity, however, remained unchanged at $35.93, an ounce. The pound skidded as gold rose to 14 pounds 7 shillings 2 pence, up 9½ pence (9½ cents) from Thursday's closing.

Pressure on gold was also reported in Paris, Zurich and Frankfurt markets, with corresponding damage to the pound and the dollar.

In London, the pound opened somewhat firmer than at Thursday's close but the rate began drifting fast in a thin market to $2.3920. The lowest previous figure recorded since the pound's devaluation was $2.3935 at the Thursday close.

Gold shares soared on the London stock market, with some blue chips showing gains of up to 10 shillings. Gold shares are the Briton's traditional hedge, as he may not own gold metal.

CAUSE

The cause of the flareup appeared to be appraisals in British and continental journals of Johnson's chances for defending the $35 gold price. Dealers also noted the lukewarm response from France and West Germany at this week's meeting of the Organization for Economic Cooperation in Paris to U.S. calls for help with American balance of payments deficits.

There also seemed to be some expectation that the meeting in Basel, Switzerland, this week-end of delegates of top European central banks might produce a new policy statement on gold.

Savage Fighting Reported, Heavy Air Strikes Made

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today reported savage fighting below the eastern end of the demilitarized zone and announced the appointment of a U.S. Army general to command the Marines and other defenders of the critical northern frontier.

HEAVY STRIKES

U.S. spokesmen also reported the heaviest air strikes against North Vietnam in more than a month.

A task force of U.S. Marines and South Vietnamese infantrymen battled 500 Communist troops for seven hours Thursday near Dong Ha, the forward Marine Base supplying other allied outposts along the DMZ. Aided by tactical fighter-bombers and artillery, the allied troops reported killing 133 Communist soldiers. U.S. headquarters said the South Vietnamese troops accounted for 123 of the enemy dead and the Marines for the other 15. Marine casualties were 15 killed and 124 wounded, with 76 of the wounded requiring hospitalization. South Vietnamese casualties were reported light.

U.S. headquarters said several battalions of South Vietnamese infantrymen ran into the enemy force about noon while sweeping the Cua Viet River delta, a Communist stronghold on the coastal marshlands. Troops of the 3rd and 4th Marine regiments were on the east flank of the South Vietnamese task force when heavy fighting developed.

The Marines, a special landing team of about 1,000 men that was put ashore more than a month ago, have been sweeping north of the Cua Viet River, while the South Vietnamese have been operating south of the river. A week ago the combined force killed 234 North Vietnamese in the same area.

KHE SANH

At Khe Sanh, South Vietnamese Rangers surprised more than 100 North Vietnamese troops as they slipped up on the Marine base and killed 27 of the enemy as they emerged from a tunnel just outside the base's barbed wire perimeter.

Pals Claim RFK Is Standing Pat

WASHINGTON (AP) — Close associates say Sen. Robert F. Kennedy is standing pat on his decision not to enter the race for the Democratic presidential nomination this year.

The New York Democrat's position was represented as unchanged from the stance he assumed in recent public statements—that he would support President Johnson for re-election if the chief executive were renominated.

POT BOILS

Kennedy has been under pressure from some advisers to contest Johnson this year or face the possible loss four years from now of support from youthful Democrats and independents attracted by his criticism of Vietnam war policies.

It can be said on the highest authority that Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., is continuing to counsel his brother against making himself available this year.

The controlling thinking in the Kennedy camp is that he can afford to wait until 1972, sources said. If developments warrant and he gets re-elected to the Senate in 1970, the belief is he then will have a strong chance to win the Democratic nomination.

NO CHANCE

There apparently is no chance Kennedy will help Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., in opposing Johnson in the primaries, despite the Minnesota senator's default collection of Massachusetts' 72 convention votes. This developed when Johnson ruled out the entry of his name or that of a stand-in in the April 30 primary in that state.

Edward Kennedy said he intends to remain on the delegation, even though it would be pledged by state law to vote for McCarthy on the first ballot at the Chicago convention in August.

Elsewhere on the political scene: —Supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the Republican presidential nomination have collected more than 30,000 signatures on petitions to place his name on the Oregon primary ballot. Only 1,000 signatures are required.

ROCKY'S ROAD

Rockefeller said Thursday he wouldn't rule out entering the May 28 Oregon primary. Last week he indicated he would file a disclaimer to keep his name off the ballot there.

—Indications in Washington were that Rockefeller supporters hope to launch his formal presidential bid later this month by mobilizing broad congressional backing for him as he begins to speak out on major issues, including Vietnam.

A final decision on strategy is expected before March 22, deadline for Rockefeller to file his Oregon disclaimer.

—Richard M. Nixon said in an NBC radio address that the summer of 1968 could be cooler in the cities because "we have been warned and can make plans to deal with racial violence." The former vice president said it should be made clear the law will deal swiftly with perpetrators and planners of violence.

Legion Will Make Awards

Two awards will be presented at the American Legion ceremonial dinner Saturday night, one to an outstanding World War I veteran, the other to an outstanding citizen of Big Spring. Both awards are traditionally well-kept secrets.

The annual awards are presented by the Legion in appreciation for work done in the community and for supporting Legion activities, according to Foster L. Kemp, post commander.

Over 150 veterans and their wives are expected to attend the barbecue, which will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m. at the Legion Hut, Jack Flynt, Dimmitt, the immediate past department commander of the Legion, will be the featured speaker.

The dinner is the kickoff event for a year of celebrations that commemorate the signing of the Armistice in November, 1918. Various activities are planned throughout the year, with emphasis planned on November 11, Veterans' Day.

Crack Down On Scientists Will Plug U.S. Dollar Drain?

WASHINGTON (AP) — The National Science Foundation and the Agency for International Development are cracking down on scientists who use foreign airlines on government-financed travel.

The move is aimed at plugging one source of the U.S. dollar drain.

TRAVEL TAX

The Johnson administration is seeking a tax on most foreign travel of U.S. citizens as one step toward reducing the balance-of-payments deficit.

But The Associated Press disclosed last month that the government itself is contributing to the travel drain by not making sure that all its contractors and other U.S.-financed, nongovernment employees use U.S. airlines wherever possible.

At a recent orientation meeting, the National Science Foundation warned 180 persons who are going to India for science development work this summer that they'll have to pay for any portion of their travel flown on foreign airlines.

Some prospective itineraries, including eight separate legs on foreign airlines—have been ordered revised.

MILD GRIPES

Officials of both AID, which finances the India program, and NSF, a government agency which operates it, said there have been mild gripes from some participants but no official complaints.

Russell Dilts, assistant director of AID's office of technical support, contended the travel has "been pretty well policed" in the past. But he acknowledged "there's no question about it" that enforcement is being stepped up now.

A National Science Foundation spokesman said essentially the same thing. Neither could estimate how many dollars might be involved in all such travel. Airline ticket costs for the India group alone will be about $208,000.

Transportation regulations require travel on U.S. airlines—but include a series of exceptions. The broadest allows travel on a foreign line, "where the departure time, routing or other features of a U.S. carrier flight would interfere with or prevent the satisfactory performance of official business."

EXTRA STOPS

It is the exceptions which are being interpreted more strictly, at least by some administrators.

Under contractor operations such as the India program, the government authorizes an office of a U.S. overseas airline to issue a direct-routing ticket to the travelers.

In some cases, persons traveling at government expense have asked for numerous stopovers en route and then have taken foreign airlines on some portions of the trip. On a lengthy trip such as to India, many extra stops can be included at no extra cost.

The dollar-drain problem comes if the U.S. airline must split its revenue for the trip with the foreign lines. Even when the U.S. line is paid in government-held excess foreign

Money-Making Plan Talked

An Easter egg hunt and a rummage sale were discussed as money-making projects at the meeting of the West Texas Republican Women's Club noon luncheon Thursday at the Silver Star Restaurant.

Mrs. Leland Pierce presided, and introduced Mrs. Pat Line, finance chairman, who presented plans for fund raising.

Mrs. Jack Lipstombe, vice chairman of the Howard County Republican Women's Club, presented the slate of candidates for the May primaries. A discussion on voting procedures was held.

Mrs. Pierce reminded members that the dinner at which Rep. George Bush will speak will be held March 16 at the Cosden Country Club.

Opening lead: Four of ♠ South was guilty of putting all his eggs in one basket in attempting to win nine tricks.

West opened the four of spades against the three no trump contract, East played the jack and South won the trick with the ace. The jack of diamonds was put thru for a finesse and East false-carded by winning with the king. He cashed the queen of spades and continued with the five, enabling West to win two more tricks in the suit to complete the defensive book.

North was obliged to make two discards on the third and fourth spades. Declarer selected two small clubs inasmuch as he was committing himself to bringing in the diamond suit. The heart return was won by dummy's queen and South reentered his hand with the queen of clubs to lead the eight of diamonds. West followed with the six and North played the seven. When East turned up with the queen, the contract was defeated.

South did not avail himself of every opportunity in planning his campaign. He could, in fact, have saved himself much mental agony by first cashing the king and queen of clubs. When East's jack drops on the second round, declarer has his nine tricks. He merely crosses over to the ace of diamonds, runs the clubs and then overtakes the queen of hearts with the king to cash his ace for the fulfilling trick.

There is an alternative play that permits declarer to develop the diamonds safely. South merely ducks two rounds of spades and wins the third with the ace. He now can afford to lose both diamond finesses for East is unable to get his partner in to cash the setting trick.

Dear Abby

They Like To Play The Game

DEAR ABBY: I am 30 years old, not married, and I work to support myself. I'm not bad looking and live a fairly normal, happy life, but I'm beginning to wonder if maybe I'm foolish to work the way I do. What I'm trying to say is, I have a girl friend who works part-time — like maybe two days a week. She has had four husbands and she's single again. She has boy friends for everything. One pays her rent, another lets her drive his car, another painted and papered her whole house and she bragged all she gave him was lunches and a few daughterly kisses. She sees the rent-payer on weekends and she also has a truck driver staying with her off and on when he's in town. I don't know how she gets away with it. She shouldn't someone tell these chumps the score? HER FRIEND DEAR FRIEND: Don't worry about the chumps. Some men don't care what the score is as long as they're in the game. DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a boy I'll call Bill for three years. I am 21 and Bill is 23. He has talked about getting married after I graduate from college, but I am not sure he is the one for me, and I have told him so. (I date other boys, too.) My problem is every gift Bill gives me points toward marriage. For Christmas he gave me service for six in a very nice set of dishes. For Valentine Day, he gave me service for 12 in some expensive stainless steel silverware. And for my birthday he gave me an electric blanket. I don't have a hope chest, but Bill seems to be buying things to fill one up. He isn't rich, and these gifts are expensive. I don't want to lead him on. If our relationship to-ally dies, do I have to return these gifts? COUNSELOR: No, Bill is trying to "condition" you to think in terms of marriage (to him), but a gift is a gift, and the only gift you must return is a ring. So don't let him force one on you, until you're sure he's "the one." DEAR ABBY: Your advice to "Engaged," whose fiance "just likes the girls," was sound. You told her to get used to it, or get rid of him. For her sake, I hope she gets rid of him. That type man never changes. I have been married for 29 years to a man who isn't rich, and he likes the girls. He is 60 now, and he likes them as much now as he did then.

And the younger they are, the better he likes them. As you have probably guessed, he has made a fool of himself more than once. I need not go into the humiliation and heartache I have endured all these years. If I had it to do over again, I wouldn't. HIS WIFE

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Medical Society Says Essay Deadline Nearing

Charity Defined During Devotion

Charity was defined as a form of love by Mrs. J. C. Craven when she gave a devotion Thursday evening during the monthly meeting of the Loyalty Sunday school class of Baptist Temple. Mrs. W. N. Wood, 1701 Jennings, was hostess.

A LOVELIER YOU

Obese Adolescents Needs Doctor's Care

By MARY SUE MILLER
One of five teenagers in the United States is obese; one of five adults is obese. Could this mean that obesity in the teen persists in the adult?
Obesity — dangerous overweight — usually carries over from adolescence to maturity. This fact has been substantiated by the studies of the American Society of Bariatrics, an association of physicians specializing in obesity. What's more, the earlier in life obesity is treated the better, for the sake of present and future well-being.
Certainly no teenager should be left to cope with serious overweight alone. Left on her own she will fall into diet practices that get transient results or, worse, injure her health.

To lose a large amount of weight without painful side effects and to keep it off, a girl needs the sympathetic support of her family and her doctor. Her doctor will set a pattern of eating for her, not of starving; also a pattern of physical activity.
Her family will set an example of proper nutrition and exercise habits. Too often, overweight youngsters come from homes where parents are careless of their own weight problems.
How will Miss Teen respond? If she's the girl she knows herself to be, she will try to follow her doctor's advice and to appreciate her family's loving care. And she will do one very important thing on her own — find an absorbing interest. Not food, something that feeds her charm!

WINNING MANNERS
To open a door to increased poise and popularity, send for our booklet, "Winning Manners." Topics included are: Introductions, Invitations, Table Manners, The Charming Hostess, You — The Guest, Dating Manners, Formal Dances, Travel Tips, and Tipping. Small Points, like when to wear a hat or check your coat. For your copy, write to Mary Sue Miller, in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 25 cents in coin, and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Mrs. Moree Sawtelle received a capsule prize. Mrs. R. L. Nall announced the state convention of Credit Women's Clubs will be held May 18-20 in Dallas.

RFK, Fulbright Fuel Fresh Debate On Vietnam Buildup

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and J. W. Fulbright have fueled a new eruption of Senate debate on any major buildup of U.S. forces in the war zone.

Fulbright triggered Thursday's debate by asserting President Johnson is considering a big increase in U.S. military forces in Vietnam.

'IMMORAL' CHARGE

Kennedy, called current U.S. policies in Vietnam "immoral and intolerable." The New York Democrat said Congress should be consulted on military plans. And he added:

"Are we like God? Are we empowered to decide which cities, villages and hamlets will be destroyed? Do we have the authority to kill thousands and thousands because we say we have a commitment?"

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Johnson has "tried hard and vigorously and consistently to find a way to the negotiating table." But Mansfield said there should be a full consultation with Congress before any "sizable increase" in the present $25,000-man troop ceiling.

Earlier, Prof. John T. McAlister Jr. of Princeton University, a specialist in Vietnam politics and culture, told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee it would take three million to 15 million U.S. troops to gain a military victory enabling this country to dictate terms of a settlement.

CORRUPTION

Fulbright, the Arkansas Democrat who heads that committee, again attacked the validity of the so-called Gulf of Tonkin resolution, saying it was "based on false representations."

The overwhelming adoption of the resolution by Congress in 1964 preceded the rapid escalation of American troop strength in Vietnam.

Fulbright recently held hearings on the controversial naval incidents of Aug. 2 and 4, 1964, involving two U.S. destroyers and North Vietnamese torpedo boats. He concluded the Johnson administration gave misleading information to Congress regarding alleged attacks by the Communist vessels.

Kennedy renewed his charge there is "deep seated corruption" in the South Vietnamese government. He said Johnson had commented on such allegations recently in a Beaumont, Tex., speech that "there's stealing in Beaumont, Tex."

"If there's stealing in Beaumont, Tex., it's not bringing about the deaths of American boys," Kennedy said.

Sawyer Named TSU President

HOUSTON (AP) — Dr. Granville Sawyer, executive assistant to the president of Tennessee A&I State University, will assume the duties of president of Texas Southern University here July 1.

Sawyer, 48, a native of Mobile, Ala., was named president of TSU Thursday. He will succeed an interim faculty committee that has supervised operations of the predominantly Negro state school since last September.

Marvin Griffin of Waco, chairman of the university's directors, announced Sawyer's selection.

Before joining the faculty of Tennessee A&I at Nashville, Tenn., Sawyer was dean of Huston-Tillotson College in Austin, where he also was professor of speech and drama.

He was graduated from Tennessee A&I and the University of Southern California and attended the University of Texas.

Ranger Discovers Cyprus Champion

STANENVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Forest ranger Paul Musgrove says America's largest pond cypress has been discovered in an Alabama River swamp. He said the tree, in excellent condition, is 21 feet, 10 inches in circumference, 121 feet high and has a crown spread of 90 feet. The measurements, submitted to the champion tree contest sponsored by the American Forestry Association, almost doubled the previous champion, Musgrove said.

Big Spring Students Take Control Of Local Offices

By WINNIE DENTON

One hundred and six gathered for breakfast at the Settles Hotel this morning for the opening activity for the eighth annual Student Government Day. City, county and district officials and their student counterparts are participating in the Know Your Government program sponsored by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce through the education committee.

Lanny Hamby, attorney, told the student officers and local officials that our government is concerned for human rights. He said if you are interested in government, you are interested in politics for politics is a part of government.

"We must all learn to take a stand on political issues," he added.

He stated that there is an overlapping within the city, county, district, state and national government, but to consolidate these departments would destroy some of the democracy.

He continued, "Our government does not give you rights, but does recognize certain human rights." He said the decisions handed down by the Supreme Court recently were a result of the concern about basic human rights. "We have the most powerful and richest nation in the world because our government protects our human rights," he said.

Dr. Milton W. Talbot, C-C president, in welcoming the student officials said the purpose of Student Government Day is to acquaint the students with the problems and functions of local government. Bobby Polk, student city manager, gave the response. Invocation was given by Jane Thompson, student health nurse, and R. H. Dyer, chairman of the education committee, acted as master of ceremonies.

Students Participate In Local Government

Following the breakfast each official took their student counterparts to their offices. Those serving in city offices attended a commissioners meeting, a corporation court, as well as participating in the duties of the respective positions. County and district officers were taken on a tour of the courthouse. Following a county commissioners meeting, the students assisted in the duties of their elected offices. The student officers were elected at the high school during a regular campaign with all the details of a legal election being observed.

Amendment Aimed Chiefly At Picket Fights Defeated

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate defeated, 67-18, today an amendment to the civil rights open housing bill to make it a federal crime to interfere by force or threats with a person going to or from his job.

Aimed chiefly at picket lines in labor disputes, the amendment was proposed by Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., D-N.C.

RIGHT-TO-WORK
Ervin told the Senate it was just as wrong to interfere with a man's right to work by force or threats as with other activities that would be afforded federal protection by the bill.

These include voting, jury service, participation in federally assisted programs and federal employment and, if race or color is involved, with attending school, using places of public accommodation and other activities.

Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., urging rejection of the amendment, said it would extend the jurisdiction of the FBI to "any physical altercation of any type" when a person was traveling to and from his place of employment.

WAR DEBATE
"It brings Uncle Sam about 30 per cent of the way to a national police force," he said. Ervin said Tydings "totally misconstrued" the amendment. He said use of violence would have to involve a case in which a person was pursuing his employment.

Action on the civil rights measure, now in its eighth week before the Senate, was slowed Thursday when a debate over the Vietnam war broke out. But the Senate did write into the bill, by a 48-45 vote, a limited exemption from the open housing section for nonowner-occupied single-family dwellings.

The amendment by Sen. Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., would permit the owner to sell or rent the dwelling without being subject to the ban on discrimination if he did not employ a real-estate agent or broker. However, the exemption is restricted to persons not in the real estate business, who do not own more than three single-family dwellings, and who do not sell more than one of their houses within a two-year period.

Jimmy Ray Smith, president, said that directors had set a goal of 10 new members by March 31 in connection with a special enlistment period prior to the district convention in Brownwood April 5-6. Big Spring will be asking for the District 2A-1 convention in 1969, he said.

Parents of children with physical or other disabilities are urged to attend a meeting Thursday evening at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center. Information about the summer camp provided by the Texas Lions League of Texas for Crippled Children will be given. The two clubs in Big Spring and at Stanton and Coahoma are seeking applicants and will send children to the camp with all expenses paid.

Program for the day was in charge of Jim Lemons with Charles Lusk assisting. The story of how electricity is made and distributed was given.

Cadet Ruled Not Guilty
AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — A cadet of the U.S. Air Force Academy has been found innocent by a court-martial of charges of robbery, larceny and forgery, but charges of aggravated robbery still are pending against him in District Court at Colorado Springs.

The court-martial of 21-year-old Paul S. Speas, the first for a cadet at the academy, ended Thursday when the presiding officer, Maj. William H. Carnahan, upheld a motion by the defense for a directed verdict of not guilty.

Three psychiatrists, two called by the defense and one, an Army doctor, by the prosecution, said the blond, rugged-looking defendant is legally insane with "schizophrenic reactions."

Speas, from Tucson, Ariz., was not present to hear the verdict. He has been in a patient in Fitzsimons General Hospital, near Denver, since shortly after a two-week postponement was declared Feb. 22.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Speas, and his red-haired wife, Irene, 21, showed the strain of the hearings. Agents of the Air Force Office of Special Investigations had tested the cadet told them he had held up a Colorado Springs liquor store, stolen wristwatches from the cadet store and forged the names of two other cadets to checks for $425.

Dist. Atty. Robert Russel has charged Speas and a former cadet, Walter Zehner III, with armed robbery in connection with two holdups at liquor stores. Zehner, 21, of Metairie, La., has refused to waive extradition.

Ooops! Silence
WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — There was a vast silence when the Civil Defense alert system's starter button was pushed here. It didn't work.

The button was supposed to start 17 nests of sirens, spaced throughout the city. Instead, Silence. Repairmen said this was the first time the entire system had failed.

and other nuclear powers be placed under controls by a non-proliferation treaty, a stand the Russians have sharply rejected.

BLACKMAIL BLOCK
The Romanians also have objected to a show of U.S.-Soviet agreement on the nuclear issue, saying it comes at an inopportune time, while the United States continues "aggression" in Vietnam. Thursday, Russian and American negotiators at Geneva said they would offer protection from nuclear blackmail to any smaller nation.

Romania warned that any criticism of it in the Warsaw Pact summit meeting here might provoke another walkout. But once the meeting opened, all available sources emphasized that controversy was being avoided.

The summit conference's closing communique, made public today, said nonproliferation had been discussed and the Soviet-American draft treaty was reviewed.

The seven nations "expressed their respective stands on this question. The conference passed off in a frank and friendly atmosphere," the communique concluded.

Social Security Payments Run $3 Million Per Year
Approximately 4,000 men and women in Howard County who have either retired or have become permanently disabled to the extent they are eligible for monthly checks from the Social Security Administration are now receiving about $3,000,000 per year, Ervin Fisher, manager of the Big Spring District Office of the Social Security reported.

Recent increases in payments averaging better than 14 percent have materially increased the dollar total that the clients are now receiving.

Fisher, speaking before the Big Spring Kiwanis Club Thursday, reviewed the amendments which the congress made to the Social Security laws and which are now in effect.

He said that while exact figures on the total number of persons on the rolls at this date are not available, the lists showed 3,300 a year ago and that the number had increased materially since that date.

Someone Goofed Back In 1890
GREEN MOUNTAIN FALLS, Colo. (AP) — Because someone goofed in 1890, it develops that the Green Mountain Falls town hall, post office, a magistrate's office, civil swimming pool, community center and half the houses aren't even in the town.

The community of 250 is about 15 miles west of Colorado Springs.

Town Clerk Malcolm Conn and trustees are trying to rectify mistakes when the town was incorporated in 1890. He said nearly one-half of the residents live outside the town's corporate limits in an unincorporated area.

Reservoir Construction Due CRMWD Green Light

Now that the Texas Water Development Board has granted a permit to the Colorado River Municipal Water District for a 2,500-acre-foot off-channel reservoir, bids for the reservoir and aperturances may be authorized this week.

Directors of the CRMWD met Thursday morning in Odessa and likely will give the green light for construction of a low-water channel dam on the Colorado River about two miles northwest of Colorado City. Also will be included the dam to impound the storage lake just off the channel. Cost of the project, including pipelines for disposal of saline water which will be held in the reservoir, may exceed three-quarters of a million dollars.

The district already has a bid opening scheduled in Big Spring Tuesday morning for high volume lift pumps to take water exceeding 500 ppm chlorides from behind the channel dam and boost it into the storage reservoir. Also, bids will be received on construction of a water treatment plant to serve the Humble IAB field in Coke County just off the new Robert Lee reservoir.

It took the Water Development Board just one hour and 20 minutes Thursday to approve the CRMWD permit to store the saline water removed from the river. Both O. H. Ivie, general manager for the CRMWD, and S. W. Freese, consulting engineer, said that the diversion would result in water impounded in the new Robert Lee reservoir being below 225 ppm even in periods of drought. Currently, said Freese, the low flow of the river has over 5,000 ppm chlorides in its flow at the proposed point of diversion.

Only one protest was filed with the commission, and that was by Mrs. Olive Pearl Price, who sent two letters of objection. She has a certified filing to irrigate 300 acres of southern Mitchell County. The Lower Colorado River Authority had representatives at the hearing but raised no objection.

The diversion works were virtually a condition of the original permit by the Texas Water Board, which authorized the Robert Lee lake with a proviso that the district show an ability to reduce the salt content of the water going into the new lake. However, the side storage was of sufficient volume that the board felt that a second permit should be issued for it.

ENID, Okla. (AP) — Barefoot and rain-soaked co-ed walked into a police station early today and told officers she had been kidnapped and raped.

Miss Lindsay Kay Pearce, 20, of Hutchinson, Kan., reached the station around 2:30 a.m. and told officers she had been taken from her fiancée in a parked car by a gunman. She said she was driven to an abandoned farm but remained in the automobile.

A few hours after she reported to officers, a man was jailed. Police said he was identified in a lineup by both the Miss Pearce and her fiancée.

A man who officers said listed his home as Wichita, Kan., was booked into Garfield County jail on kidnapping and rape charges. He was not formally charged. Officers said his parents live near Enid.

TOY PISTOL
Police Capt. Dennis McFadden said the girl told officers the man kept her in the auto for about three hours. She said he showed remorse over the affair and asked her to shoot him. She was quoted as saying he handed her the gun and that she then discovered it was a toy pistol.

Officers swarmed into the area just south of this north central Oklahoma town within minutes after the boy friend, Roger Carstensen, 22, telephoned the highway patrol.

CORY, Pa. (AP) — The superintendent of Cory High School, where 70 students were paddled for playing hooky, says he has been besieged with commendations.

"I'm very pleased and surprised," said Ray Elsea. "One lawyer even wrote from Philadelphia. 'You don't know me,' he said, 'but I want to congratulate you.'" Elsea said.

"I get the feeling that a lot of people think that this ought to be done more often," he said. He said truancy has dropped off sharply.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The morning train from Oakland brought eight gray plywood crates.

"I've never seen anything like it in all the years I've worked here at the station," said Vito Bonardo, an assistant agent. "Never eight in one day, never so many in all the time since World War II."

As each crate was unloaded onto a baggage dolly Thursday and trundled away, eight soldiers in black armbands saluted.

Inside each crate was a steel casket containing the body of a Southern Californian killed in Vietnam.

The crates enter the United States at Travis Air Force base, south of San Francisco. From there they go to the Army's Mortuary Affairs center at Oakland.

Romania Refuses To Ink Agreement

SOFIA, Bulgaria (AP) — Romania has again rebelled against Soviet leadership, refusing to sign with its East European military allies a Russian-sponsored agreement on halting the spread of nuclear weapons, Communist sources said today.

The new show of independence came at a two-day summit meeting of Warsaw Pact leaders. All seven delegates signed a declaration condemning "criminal acts" by the United States in Vietnam.

SECOND REBUFF
But, according to sources close to the summit proceedings, Romania defied the Soviet position on nonproliferation. As a result, a separate statement on the subject was expected to be released after the two signed documents.

It was Romania's second rebellion in two weeks. Last week her delegates walked out of a world Communist party consultative meeting in Budapest, after charging Syria and Russia broke an agreement to refrain from assailing other Communist parties.

Romania's nuclear position has been that the Soviet Union—leader of the Warsaw Pact—and other nuclear powers be placed under controls by a non-proliferation treaty, a stand the Russians have sharply rejected.

The Romanians also have objected to a show of U.S.-Soviet agreement on the nuclear issue, saying it comes at an inopportune time, while the United States continues "aggression" in Vietnam. Thursday, Russian and American negotiators at Geneva said they would offer protection from nuclear blackmail to any smaller nation.

Romania warned that any criticism of it in the Warsaw Pact summit meeting here might provoke another walkout. But once the meeting opened, all available sources emphasized that controversy was being avoided.

The summit conference's closing communique, made public today, said nonproliferation had been discussed and the Soviet-American draft treaty was reviewed.

Recent increases in payments averaging better than 14 per-

Fisher, speaking before the Big Spring Kiwanis Club Thursday, reviewed the amendments which the congress made to the Social Security laws and which are now in effect.

He said that while exact figures on the total number of persons on the rolls at this date are not available, the lists showed 3,300 a year ago and that the number had increased materially since that date.

Payments to clients are now nearly a quarter of a million dollars a month, Fisher said. He added that about one out of every 10 persons is now on the check lists of the Social Security in this county.

Jim Thompson was program chairman for the day. He introduced Fisher, formerly a member of the club, to the Kiwanians.

Ooops! Silence
WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — There was a vast silence when the Civil Defense alert system's starter button was pushed here. It didn't work.

The button was supposed to start 17 nests of sirens, spaced throughout the city. Instead, Silence. Repairmen said this was the first time the entire system had failed.

Someone Goofed Back In 1890
GREEN MOUNTAIN FALLS, Colo. (AP) — Because someone goofed in 1890, it develops that the Green Mountain Falls town hall, post office, a magistrate's office, civil swimming pool, community center and half the houses aren't even in the town.

The community of 250 is about 15 miles west of Colorado Springs.

Town Clerk Malcolm Conn and trustees are trying to rectify mistakes when the town was incorporated in 1890. He said nearly one-half of the residents live outside the town's corporate limits in an unincorporated area.

Dallas Widow Weds Widower With Brood

DALLAS (AP)—When all the family finally gets together, Jeanette Langenfeld hopes everybody around the breakfast table prefers scrambled eggs. Otherwise the menu may get complicated. Before they married last Jan. 1, the former Jeanette Rhodes was a widow with five children. Friends arranged a date last year with Joseph Langenfeld, then working in San Angelo and here on business.

PERFECT TIME
She discovered Langenfeld was a widower with 14 children. "I used to think my family was average size," she said Thursday. "After talking to him, mine looked pretty small."

After taking her brood to see their grandparents in Georgia at Christmas, she returned home and learned Langenfeld had been trying to call. All 14 of his children were home for the first time in three years, he told her, and "it's a

Severed Leg Broken Again

BOSTON (AP)—Jan Dangora, a 19-year-old machinist whose left leg was severed in a motorcycle accident and then sewn back on, has the same leg in a cast again after breaking it in a fall on ice.

The husky youth was injured Sept. 1, 1966, when the motorcycle he was riding collided with a car. Ninety-five per cent of his left leg was severed just below the knee.

In a rare operation, doctors at Boston City Hospital took the leg and successfully reattached it.

After the cast came off in late August, doctors pronounced the leg healed, although they said his knee would always be stiff and advised him to use crutches on snow and ice.

Doctors also helped him get permission to drive an automatic shift car, and he returned to his job with a Natick machine shop.

As he left his car the morning of Feb. 13 and started toward the shop with the help of crutches, Dangora suddenly slipped on some ice and immediately "knew something was wrong."

He went to the hospital, where doctors found a break in the tibia, about four inches below the knee and slightly below where the leg had been severed.

A hospital spokesman said Dangora was fortunate that "the break was a clean one and surrounding tissue and muscle held the bone together so he needed only a partial, or what we call posterior, splint."

A few days after being sent home to keep off the leg and rest, Dangora had to go back to the hospital because the leg became infected. Doctors were able to cure the infection with antibiotics.

Jan is back home and hopes to be able to resume work next week, cast and all.

Tour Of Capitol Offered In TV Color Program

The first color political program showing highlights of the Capitol will be televised in Big Spring tonight. Secretary of State John Hill, a Democratic candidate for governor, launches his television campaign with a personalized tour of the Senate, the House and part of the governor's office.

"Candidate in the Capitol" is the title of the program, to be seen on Channel 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Former Capitol correspondent Charles Ward talks with Hill about the historical aspects of the building and the functions of the legislative bodies.

A veteran film crew found it necessary to use special lighting techniques inside the rotunda and the Senate.

"A seven man crew was required," said Richard Kidd of Motion Picture Productions of Texas, Inc., "just to maneuver more than 30 lights."

Over 300 man hours of planning, filming and editing was necessary to complete the documentary. "Candidate in the Capitol" was produced by Motion Picture Productions and Media Communications, an Austin public relations firm. The program was designed to inform the viewers of the problems facing the legislature and to explain the duties of some state officials.

Pupils Plan To Continue LA Boycott

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Pupils say they plan to continue a boycott of classes at six high schools in minority areas of Los Angeles because of "second-rate educational conditions."

"We won't go back until they've met our demands," one student leader proclaimed from a perch in a tree. His hookey-playing audience roared approval. Several dozen mothers clapped their hands in support.

Officials say a few hundred pupils have participated in the boycott. Student leaders claim they emptied two-thirds of one school one day. The young strikers say fellow students sympathize but are told they'll not help if they join the boycott, which started Monday.

Late Thursday after a confrontation with students, the board of education conceded on one demand.

The Rev. James E. Jones, a Negro member of the board, said a Negro would be on duty as principal or vice principal at predominantly Negro Jefferson High School by Monday morning.

The promise came after a group of about 200 Mexican-American and Negro students stormed the board meeting to voice their objections.

In their campus calls police have ducked tossed bottles and hardboiled eggs, but arrests have been few. One policeman was slightly hurt.

Grandma Cleared Of Contempt Rap

HOUSTON (AP)—Mrs. Ruby Vick, the grandmother who recently spent a month in jail rather than tell where her son could be found, appeared in court late Thursday with her son, Jerry Ladd Gary.

In the hearing before domestic relations Judge Ben Woodall, Mrs. Vick was purged of a contempt of court charge and her granddaughter, Shelly Gwen Gary, 3, placed temporarily in care of the Harris County Juvenile Probation Department.

Gary sobbed aloud when the judge ordered the probation department to take custody of the child pending the outcome of the divorce case.

The divorce case stalled Jan. 23 when Mrs. Vick refused to say where she mailed the title of certificate for Gary's car. It will resume Friday.

SOBS ALOUD

Livestock Market Recognized On Certified List

KANSAS CITY — Big Spring Livestock Auction Company of Big Spring has gained recognition as a Certified Livestock Market, according to an announcement by the trade association offices in Kansas City.

The local firm thus joins the nearly 850 competitive livestock markets across the nation serving the livestock industry under the Code of Business Standards of Certified Livestock Markets.

The market, under the ownership of Sam Ault serves its trade area with regular Wednesday sale days.

The trade-name markets make up a major element of the competitive livestock markets industry, which last year merchandised 109.7 million head of livestock at a value of nearly $9 billion. This represents more than half of all livestock sold through all channels.

Minor Mistake Spurs Sap Wait

RUTLAND, Vt. (AP)—Four members of the Lions Club had a long wait when they tapped a tree for maple sap to be boiled down to syrup for their club's annual pancake breakfast. The tree turned out to be an elm.

Association Plans Meet

The Baptist Student Union of Howard County Junior College will provide the program at the Big Spring Baptist Association meeting Monday at the Midway Baptist Church.

The executive board and the Women's Missionary Union will meet at 6 p.m., and the program will begin at 7:15 p.m. James Kinman will lead the song service, and the Rev. Charles Sheffield will offer the prayer.

The Rev. R. Byron Orand, moderator, has encouraged all Baptist ministers, laymen and other interested persons to attend.

Visualize Your Ideas For Good Communication

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Big Spring Herald is sponsoring a Dale Carnegie Course as a means of retaining and developing leaders in the community. This article is one in a series written by Warren Quinlan, director of the Dale Carnegie Training Programs in the West Texas area.

The word "communication" is a Texas-sized word that takes you in 10-times more area than West Texas. Clear thinkers who know how to get their ideas across quickly and to the point agree that it's not what we say, but what the other person understands that's really important.

To be able to express oneself with ease in front of a group, think and speak on our feet offers us at least twice a better chance to advance than those who can't.

How many times would we rather be whipped than stand up and express an idea? And what about the times when we fail to select the right words and thoughts to get across an idea and influence?

One father in particular tried to impress the importance of good study habits to his son who was preparing to enter college. "Johnny," he pointed out, "you need to hit those books hard, and forget the good times for awhile." At this point Johnny wasn't paying too much attention to dad beyond that of polite listening. Communication is the most difficult between ages or generations, because the younger person can't really believe that the older person is 'hep' to the situation. Experience is hard to transfer. Our children, even younger employees, often find it difficult to believe that we were once like them. Our vocabularies take on a form of bankruptcy unless we use a handful of common sense which is worth a bushel of learning. Visualization is the 'handful' and the call letters are station YOU. Later, on a fishing trip, the father decided to apply an idea he had learned years before from his own father. He painted the words 'faith' on one oar and 'work' on the second oar. When Johnny asked why he named each oar, he moved forward and sat next to his son in the rower's seat. "I'll show you, son. Hold your oar, and I'll row with the oar of faith alone." In the following moments the boat went in a wide circle. "Now, I'll hold my oar, and you pull on the oar of work." Again, the boat circled the other way around.

"What's the point, dad?" The father answered, "You need work and faith to be successful. Work without faith keeps us occupied, and takes us nowhere. Faith and work takes us where we want to go, when we want to."

The small boat moved smoothly over the water. The father had "tuned his son in!" We get our ideas across when we know how to visualize our ideas and transfer our thoughts in a way which can't be misunderstood.

With A Barbecue and Dance Tomorrow, SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 6:30 P.M. At The Post Home On The San Angelo Highway.

Speaker: JACK FLYNT

Master of Ceremonies Will Be Gil Jones.

The American Legion Gold Year Will Begin March 1968 and Continue Until March, 1969.

You say you fell out of a tree and it'll be eight weeks before you're back in school?

Cheer up. Even Tarzan mis-times a leap now and then.

And don't give up on your school work. We've made it possible for many shut-in students to attend classes even though they're confined to bed. Our school-to-home service is the answer. It's a two-way communications system that lets the student speak and listen to anyone in the classroom.

It's helped many a bright youngster through some pretty gloomy confinements.

After all, we've had years and years of practice in developing phone arrangements for special problems. We offer phones for hard-of-hearing people, blind people, people who can't use their hands—phones so kids in bed can be in school.

We'll be glad to tackle your problem, too. Just call the telephone business office.

Maybe we can help.

CAMPAIGNS HERE ON BIRTHDAY

Preston Smith Stresses Experience As Official

Preston Smith brought his grass-roots campaign for governor into Big Spring this morning, got a salute on his 56th birthday, and hammered home his message of qualification through long experience in state government.

The lieutenant governor, speaking before a breakfast group of some 40 persons, stressed again that he has more background in Texas legislative matters than all the other candidates put together. He cited his six years in the House of Representatives, six years in the Senate, and six years as lieutenant governor.

It is on the basis of such qualification, he said, that he is asking the people's support. "Don't vote for me because I'm a West Texan (resident of Lubbock, graduate of Lamesa High School and Texas Tech), or because I'm a 'good old boy,'" he said. Vote for me if you think I have the experience, the background, a knowledge of the legislative and administrative processes of state government."

Smith said he had an understanding of the community problems in Texas. "And I will be ready to help any community, any time. I'll see you personally in Austin, I'll answer your letters. I'll take your phone calls."

TO THE PEOPLE The lieutenant governor said he is not making an expensive, slickly organized campaign. "I'm taking my case to the people," he said, and added that he soon will have been in every county of the state. He has active organizations in 53 towns.

Happy Birthday, Preston

Lieutenant Governor Preston Smith (right), candidate for the governorship, was in Big Spring today on his 56th birthday. He received a cake from George Zachariah, who made local arrangements for a breakfast session at which Smith presented his candidacy.

His bid for the top executive post, Smith said, is the climax of a career in state public service. "The duties of this office are not foreign to me. State government is the biggest business in Texas, and you should want a man in control who understands that business."

CONSERVATIVE

Smith said he is a conservative, in that he believes in individual initiative and responsibility, and in a full accounting of every penny of the state's tax dollar. "I don't mind spending money for things that are worthwhile, but both government and the people ought to keep in mind that new expenditures and new taxes go hand-in-hand."

He said a problem of state improvement is upgrading the educational system, and felt that he state must face up to its problem of keeping and maintaining trained teachers in the public schools. The growing shortage of teachers must be faced up to, he said, and Texas will have to consider meeting the national average of salaries.

TAXES

He said West Texas must be included in a state-wide water plan, and he would work to help solve this problem.

Smith said he felt the Legislature, at its 1968 special session, will have to consider taxes to meet $130 million in state needs, and that a revision of the sales tax might have priority.

He questioned the need of annual legislative sessions, saying that this would make full-time workers out of all members of the Legislature, hence more staffs, and more expense.

BIRTHDAY CAKE

Smith received a decorated cake in honor of his birthday, took a slice of it, and then suggested it be sent to the Salvation Army.

He was here only briefly, having come from Odessa for the breakfast session. He flew on to Houston for day engagements and was due in Austin tonight for a special birthday celebration.

Police Fire Gas, Mace At Teenagers

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — Police used tear gas and chemical mace Thursday to scatter a crowd of about 60 Negro teenagers who, the police said, had been hurling stones and bricks at passing vehicles.

Police Chief R. E. Pennington said the windshield of at least one passing car was broken by the youths and that Charles Williams, 24, had been arrested and charged with inciting a riot.

A group of about five Negro youths broke windshields and windows of several cars Thursday night in another section of town, police said, and two of the youths were arrested. They were not immediately identified.

Mayor L. L. Pesses declared a state of emergency Thursday and ordered a 9 p.m. curfew for Friday and Saturday.

Pennington said the disturbances were sparked by the acquittal Friday of Allen Smith, 17, of El Dorado. Smith had been charged with first degree murder in the shotgun slaying of Larry Wainwright, 19, of El Dorado. He said there had been no injuries.

Czech Return Isn't Likely

WASHINGTON (AP) — Czechoslovakia is expected to press its demand for extradition of a onetime Communist defense commissar who defected to the United States, but government sources say it isn't likely he will be returned.

Ambassador Karel Duda of Czechoslovakia submitted the request Thursday for the return of Maj. Gen. Jan Sejna of the Czechoslovak Defense Ministry.

Duda called on Walter Stoessel, deputy assistant secretary of state, to offer what the State Department called a preliminary application for Sejna's extradition.

Sejna, 40, his son and the latter's fiancée arrived in this country Feb. 28. They fled Czechoslovakia via Hungary, Yugoslavia and Italy.

Czechoslovakia has charged Sejna with misappropriation of funds and embezzlement. He reportedly has been under investigation regarding alleged business dealings involving misappropriation of about $20,000 worth of alfalfa and clover seed.

But American officials expressed suspicion the charge is a cover and that the Czech government really wants Sejna because of his role in alleged military coup attempt to keep Antonin Novotny as the Czech president.

Deaths To Top Korean Mark?

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. battle deaths in Vietnam have escalated to such a rate they could surpass the Korean War toll by presidential election day. The latest rundown on Vietnam combat deaths raised the total to 19,251 through March 2. This is still 14,378 short of the Korean War mark of 33,629 killed on the battlefield.

500 WEEKLY But the toll has climbed recently to a level of around 500 a week.

If this should keep up over the 35 weeks until election day Nov. 5, the death count could top 36,000.

The Korean War lasted three years, with fighting and negotiating going on at the same time during the last two years.

The United States has been involved in the Vietnam war for more than six years, but the air war against the North and the extensive U.S. commitment on the ground are three years old. Battle deaths have been high since the Communists opened their lunar new year offensive Jan. 30.

MUST FILL GAPS The last three weeks have seen a record total of 543 combat deaths in the week ended Feb. 17, with 470 in the following week and 542 in the week ended March 2.

Whether this rate will continue—or possibly even rise—will hinge on any renewed Communist ground attacks in the cities, any North Vietnamese assault on Khe Sanh, the extent to which U.S. forces regain the offensive and the degree to which American troops must fill in gaps left by the South Vietnamese forces.

U.S. battle deaths have doubled and redoubled, reflecting the widening U.S. commitment over the years, the heavier infusion of American troops and the with President John F. Kennedy's approval of a larger advisory role in November, 1961, saw relatively few casualties compared with the losses for periods since mid-1965 when President Johnson ordered a major build-up of American ground troops in the war.

The following yearly totals of battle deaths mirror the deepening U.S. commitment: 1961 and 1962—42; 1963—78; 1964—147; 1965—1,369; 1966—3,008; 1967—9,376; first nine weeks of 1968—3,229.

Demonstrating Students Strike Several Schools

By The Associated Press Demonstrating Mexican-American and Negro students from six Los Angeles high schools have won several concessions from the board of education as student disorders struck several schools around the nation.

Teachers in the nation's capital returned to classrooms today after a one-day holiday to protest pay scales but classroom walkouts continued in Florida and Pittsburgh.

EXTRA HELP The Los Angeles students, who stayed away from classes this week in numbers running into the hundreds, said they wanted an end to discrimination and "second class conditions."

Following a dramatic confrontation with the board of education Thursday they were promised that a Negro would be named "principal or vice principal" of predominantly Negro Jefferson High school by next week.

Milwaukee teachers were assured of extra personnel today at a predominantly Negro high school where vandalism and student disorder led Thursday to a threat of a faculty walkout.

The school is one of five in the city's inner core where there have been disturbances and vandalism since the start of a campaign for Negro text books last October.

PAY PACKAGE An inner city high school in Grand Rapids, Michigan's second largest city, was closed Thursday for the weekend so the faculty and school board could discuss "unteachable conditions."

State representatives and the Pittsburgh mayor's office said today they are preparing bills that could open the way to a settlement of the city's week-long teachers strike.

Florida school officials predicted striking teachers would begin returning to classrooms now that a $254 million education package has become law but teacher leaders say nothing has changed.

Draft Rule Spelled Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — A federal judge has ruled that draft director Lewis B. Hershey "merely expressed his personal opinion" when he wrote to local boards suggesting they might reclassify for prompt induction some antidraft and antiwar demonstrators.

U.S. District Court Judge George L. Hart Jr. made the comment Thursday when he ruled against a move by the National Student Association to have the delinquency provision of the Selective Service Act declared unconstitutional.

In Selective Service jargon, a person is "delinquent" when he no longer meets the qualifications for a certain draft classification.

Hershey's letter last October to the local boards took note of the increasing number of demonstrations. Such activities "when they become illegal, have produced and will continue to produce much evidence that relates to the basis for classification," he said.

The National Student Association contended the Hershey letter was treated by many local boards as an order rather than a comment.

The suit attacked Hershey's letter on constitutional grounds, claiming it was a blow against freedom of speech because students feared that if they took part in demonstrations they would lose their deferments and be drafted.

Posse Captures San Angelo Win

The Howard County Sheriff's Posse took third place in competition with 30 other posses and riding clubs at the San Angelo Rodeo and Stock Show parade Thursday.

Ed Cherry, president, said there were 19 riders in the Howard County group, led by Nita Cox, posse queen. Posse riders were guests at a barbecue following the grand entry and parade at the rodeo.

Police Arrest Robbery Suspect

Mary Lou Marquez, 700 NW 7th, reported to police that she was robbed of $20 in bills and an undetermined amount of change Thursday morning. A suspect has been arrested and charged with simple assault and theft under $50.

Police are also investigating the theft of two rifles, valued at $150, from a rack in the pickup of Billy Ray White, 2301 Marshall.

A Devotional For The Day

Stir up the gift of God, which is in thee. (II Timothy 1:6)
PRAYER: Loving Father, I am careless of Thy gifts. I would so often rather enjoy the gifts of others than toil over one Thou hast given me. Help me, I pray Thee, to work diligently that I may develop Thy gift entrusted to me. For Jesus' sake. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Clifford Has His Problems

As he departed from the Pentagon, retiring Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara in a possible moment of introspection may have been titillated by this thought: He did something that no other civilian was able to do. McNamara unified the armed forces and brought them firmly under civilian control. This in itself is perhaps the most enduring monument of his stewardship. He asserted, as the Constitution does, the supremacy of civilian authority over military authority.

But McNamara may also have reflected on the problems he left his successor, Clark Clifford. They are by no means minor.

The service chiefs, looking out from their ballistics at a countryside absent of McNamara, must be wondering if Clifford may prove more pliable than McNamara. They must be considering the renewal of the interservice rivalries that boiled over from time to time before the advent of McNamara.

The Navy, for instance, will be looking for a substitute for the F111, which it contends is unsuitable for carrier operation. Naval officers, too, will be wondering if they cannot persuade Clifford to assist them in gaining more carriers and major fleet replacements, all nuclear-powered.

The Air Force, for instance, must be considering a more ambitious role and to press their urgent arguments for a new bomber and a more important supporting role in Vietnam.

Only the Army may be without great expectations or great ambitions. The Army can, and probably will, press for mobilization of the National Guard and the Reserves to relieve the manpower strain on ground units at home and abroad. But President Johnson is in the driver's seat here. He has listened to these entreaties before. He may agree, now that the war in Vietnam has reached a new dimension.

The new secretary of defense has inherited a mare's nest.

Flaunting The Intent

A recent roundup by Garth Jones, head of the Associated Press bureau in Austin, cites numerous cases of boards and commissions wilfully skirting the open meetings law.

"Apparently some officials and lawyers think that despite being on the public payroll, they are not answerable to taxpayers," he wrote. Then he recited examples of how subterfuge is used to avoid opening up meeting of public bodies.

The spirit of the law is clear enough, for it says that "every regular, special or called meeting or session of every governmental body shall be open to the public." Certain exceptions such as land purchases, certain personnel matters, conference with attorneys, etc. are recited. But, let us reiterate, the intent of the law is clear — to open up meetings so the public can know what is going on in the conduct of its business.

When the Texas Aeronautical Commission shuts its doors with the announcement it wishes to confer with the commission lawyer and then emerges to announce the granting of an intrastate permit to a jet transport line, this amounts to a flagrant flaunting of the statute. The list of other examples of contemptuous regard for the intent of the law is too long for complicity.

Officials have been slow, even adamantly stubborn, to accept complaints brought against officials for alleged failure to comply with the law. It's like getting one professional man to testify against another.

Proposed revisions of the law are expected to come up in the 1969 session, and we hope so. If the public will let their representatives and senators know in no uncertain terms that they expect the intent of this law to be followed, perhaps many of the loopholes can be plugged.

David Lawrence

The 'Open Housing' Issue

WASHINGTON — "Open housing" may become a big issue in the national campaign this autumn. It affects directly more voters than many other questions which will be debated, and could cause the defeat of some Republicans and Democrats who will have voted in favor of the measure.

The proposed legislation would prohibit an owner from selling or renting his property to whomever he pleases through an agent. Less than two years from now, this would apply even to single-family, owner-occupied dwellings if the property is sold through a real-estate broker.

PERSONS ENGAGED in the real-estate business throughout the country are alarmed over the prospect. They fear that home owners will feel compelled to dispose of their property on their own or through friends and acquaintances. It is pointed out that owners will be deprived of professional help in the selling of a house or in the financing arrangements or in the process of mediation which develops between buyer and seller in fixing the sale price.

The reasoning behind the protest is not so much related to a desire by an owner to discriminate between buyers, but is based upon a belief that, if certain neighborhoods are open to Negro purchasers, real-estate values will quickly drop and owners may see their equity reduced substantially.

THERE ARE 85,000 real-estate brokers or agents throughout the country, and they have consistently opposed interference by the government in what they regard as a transaction in private property.

Many real-estate men are saying that, while the forthcoming legislation stipulates certain exemptions for owners of single homes and four-unit apartments, the mere fact that within 20 months new tenants may move into neighborhoods which have not been integrated is likely to arouse considerable concern as to the prospective values of the real estate. It is estimated that by Jan. 1, 1970, the new proposals, if enacted, will cover 44.6 million units, or 68 per cent of the nation's housing.

THE CONSTITUTION plainly says that no person shall be deprived of his property without due process of law, "nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation." Do the suggested restrictions mean that if the government supervises the sale of property, it is, in effect, "seizing" private homes? If so, it is being contended, the owners may ask for "just compensation" in the event that property values are diminished by reason of action by the government in forcing racial integration.

AS THE FEDERAL government steps into the housing field, this also affects the lending of money for mortgages. Federal funds will be withheld from those developments or projects wherein there has been any evidence of racial "discrimination."

WHAT THE FEDERAL government really will do will be to take the private real-estate business under its jurisdiction and start to supervise the sale and rental of homes. It is something novel for the federal government to become a party to the sale of private property. The question is raised whether someday its authority may be applied to insist that all forms of property, when offered for public sale, must not be disposed of on the basis of one's preference, even to friends or acquaintances, and only in accordance with a formula that corrects any form of "racial imbalance."

List Of Things Wee Bit Overrated

NEW YORK (AP) — Our lives are full of things we take for granted.

These include opinions, theories, people, ideas and institutions. A great many of them are inherited. They become so commonplace in time that it would seem almost heretical to question or try and change them.

THEY ACHEIVE a stature or value they don't always deserve anymore and perhaps never did. It is good for the soul now and then to pause and re-examine their validity.

Here, for example, is a tentative list of things that possibly have become a bit overrated: Home cooking. Milton Berle. Skiing. Miniskirts.

MAGAZINE brassiere ads. The joys of motherhood. The benefits of the federal highway program.

The poetry of Allen Ginsberg. Public interest in naughty novels.

Black or white nationalism. That overworked phrase—"as American as apple pie." The supposed thrill of taking a kid to see his first circus. The thought that all politicians are venal.

THE PLEASURES of going fishing. Suggestions that retired men can't be happy because they miss their work so much.

Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's haircuts. Sen. Everett M. Dirksen's prose style.

The advantages of wearing sunglasses or bikinis. The artistic merits of such pictures as "Bonnie and Clyde" and "The Graduate."

POP ART—whatever that is. The goings and comings of Mr. and Mrs. Burton.

The publicity given to draft card burners and other exhibitionists. Implications that if a kid goes wrong somehow his parents are always to blame.

TEENAGE lapel buttons with such bad-taste slogans as, "God is not dead—he's alive and doing well in Argentina." The possibility that any really important change will be made in your life if you switch to another brand of deodorant, floor wax, detergent, hair oil or motor oil.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Politicians guessing about what would happen if no presidential candidate won a majority of the electoral votes next November aren't having just one nightmare—there are two.

The first is over how to win the presidency by means of an election in the House which would be required if no candidate had enough Electoral College ballots.

The second one involves the vice presidency and succession to the White House.

POLITICAL analysts are treating as a real possibility the chance that former Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace's third party might siphon off enough electoral votes to leave neither a Republican nor a Democrat with the required 270 Electoral College votes.

To set up such a hypothetical problem they credit Wallace with the 35 votes from Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and South Carolina and assume enough drainage of ballots from regular parties elsewhere to create upsets and leave the major candidates in virtual deadlock.

That would throw the presidential contest into the House of Representatives with each state having just one vote.

PRESUMABLY the intradelegation vote would follow straight party lines and the party in control of a majority of state delegations would win.

But suppose the third-party states remained behind their man and neither a Democrat nor a Republican could muster the required 26 of the 50 delegations for a winning majority.

If the third-party supporters made no deal with one or the other major party, a deadlock could last until the next election, without a real president.

Tell the truth, don't you feel now and then that some of these things have been a wee bit over-emphasized?

James Marlow

Pick Your Political Plot

The off-year election might change House makeup enough for a decision in two years instead of four.

That is where the vice presidency comes in.

UNDER the Constitution, in case of House election for a president, the task of naming a vice president falls to the Senate.

The Senate's selection for vice president becomes acting president if the House cannot settle on a chief executive.

The senators have one vote each in the election of such a man, so party control in the chamber would be a big element.

Presumably the Democrats would win as things stand now. They have a heavy majority and even the staunchest Republicans sound wistful when they talk about taking command in the Senate this year.

BUT IF a Republican presidential candidate squeezed through in a House election and the Senate remained under Democratic control there might be a party split between the two offices.

A current book by Russell Baker of the New York Times staff, "Our Next President: The Incredible Story of What Happened in the 1968 Elections," traces a long series of intricate and wholly fictional developments through that maze to the election of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., as acting president until 1972.

BAKER LETS his fictional Kennedy get President Johnson's pre-election nod for the vice presidency to strengthen Johnson's position at the polls, with Hubert H. Humphrey shifted to secretary of state.

To Your Good Health

Can Ulcers Be Healed At Age 67? Usually Yes

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Do people with duodenal ulcers need to take any kind of medicine other than an anti-acid along with a bland diet? Is there any way to remedy constipation without disturbing the ulcer? Is it harmful to take aspirin to ease the pain?

Can an ulcer in the duodenum be healed if the patient is 67 years old? — M.H.C.

Let's take your questions in rotation. Yes, medicines other than antiacids are used for ulcers, although the antiacids are essential to reduce the hyperacidity that usually is present.

The ulcer patient as a rule is tense, nervous, overactive, aggressive. Therefore sedatives in the form of barbiturates (as phenobarbital) or the non-barbiturate tranquilizers are commonly used.

Finally, the motility, or activity, of the gut may be great enough to be a part of the problem, and drugs are used to reduce this.

If spasm at the outlet of the stomach is causing pain, relax-ants of the belladonna type are commonly used.

Pain of an ulcer is best treated by a little food or milk and one of the medications mentioned above. Aspirin is not advisable because it can irritate the stomach membrane. If for some other reason it is necessary to take aspirin, it is best taken with milk, with meals, or (third choice) with an alkali such as baking soda or such antacid as you may be using anyway.

Heal an ulcer at the age of 67? Usually the answer is yes — provided the patient understands, thoroughly, what he must do to cooperate with the program his physician has laid out for him.

However, one must make sure that the distress is caused by the ulcer, not something else. Gall bladder disease, hiatal hernia, and several other ailments (not excluding cancer) may be responsible, so X-ray studies should be made to rule out other causes and be certain that the trouble is an ulcer.

Dear Dr. Molner: I have just been told that a doctor in our area can have one lose weight from any part of the body by giving a different pill for each area. He claims people can eat all they want with no special exercise or diet. I don't see how this can be. — M.M.

Nor do I. But you know what Barnum said. Some people will believe anything. If you have any proof that someone is making such promises, I suggest giving the information to your doctor, to pass along to the medical society.

I suppose you know that a number of deaths have been traced to one particularly evil concoction of pills supposed to decrease weight.

Hemorrhoids can be cured! If troubled with fissures, fistulas, itching and other rectal problems, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald requesting a copy of the booklet, "The Real Cure For Hemorrhoids," enclosing a long, self-addressed envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

SCHOOL'S OUT in Big Spring today. "Kinderglutz" is the name New York gave one of its problems during the last Christmas holidays — the great number of children running loose in midtown Manhattan with time and money on their hands.

I've noticed the same thing here, both downtown and in shopping centers. Apparently it's a method some parents use to keep the children from being underfoot.

IF A TAX is put on trips abroad, U.S. students may be exempted. This may not cut down on the number of tourists but it should create a lot of students.

TODAY'S GUEST joke is from the Eye Opener, inmate publication of the Oklahoma State Penitentiary. A mother hurriedly opened the morning mail and before she realized it she was reading a letter addressed to her daughter.

"My sweetheart," it said, "I cannot wait to see you again, to hold you tenderly, tell you what I feel, kiss you."

EMBARRASSED the mother put the letter back into the envelope. Later, when the daughter returned home, she apologized.

"I'm sorry," she said, "I didn't realize it was for you until I began to read it."

"Oh, that's all right," the daughter replied, "there's nothing personal in it."

HERE'S FIVE short but somewhat ominous paragraphs which deserve a second glance.

The undermining of the dignity and the sanctity of the home, which is the basis for human society.

—Higher and higher taxes; the spending of public money for free bread and circuses for the populace.

—The mad craze for pleasure; sports becoming every year more exciting, more brutal, more immoral.

—THE BUILDING of great armaments when the real enemy was within — the decay of individual responsibility.

—The decay of religion; faith fading into mere form, losing touch with life, losing power to guide the people.

Do those points seem timely to you? They were written by a man named Edward Gibbon in 1788, and they were the basic reasons for "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire."

But—Which Side Are They On?

WASHINGTON — Secretary Rusk would almost rather be a pigeon in a shooting gallery than a public witness before the Foreign Relations Committee — but he's getting too much blame for this, and the Senators too little. As Rusk asked in a different connection, "Which side are you on?" If you watch Senators like J. William Fulbright, Albert Gore and Wayne Morse in action, you wonder — you really do.

SINCE HE CAN'T get Rusk to testify, chairman Fulbright has brought in some college professors to act as live targets in order to improve the aim of himself and his Ruskphobe colleagues.

Fulbright is having a great time, shooting off the hip and off the shoulder, and Gore and Morse are gunslinging with equal vindictiveness. They'll be so proficient that they'll pick ideas off the Secretary's teeth before he ever gets them through his lips. Question is: Does this help or hurt the country in its hour of trial?

A REAL GOOD skeet-target the other day was Dr. Louis Hartz, Harvard University professor of government. He started 'way back in the bush, using an 11-page script which didn't reach the 20th century until page 8, and never once mentioned Vietnam. That's how the Senators wanted it. Even when at last they get Rusk before them, they won't find much modern surface to shoot at — because the Secretary will duck behind the shield of "national security" whenever they draw a bead on the Vietnam policy. But Fulbright, Gore and Morse hope to wing the Secretary on generalities. The USA is a revolutionary country, so why don't we support other people's revolutions like the Viet Cong's? The USA is a liberal nation, so what's the idea of suppressing other people's liberties like the Castroites in Latin America? That's the kind of ammunition they'll throw at Rusk if they ever get him lined up, and meanwhile there's this target practice.

WELL, PROF. HARTZ really gave

King's 'Civil Disobedience' Plans

WASHINGTON — At the moment when a concerted civil rights movement could bring effective pressure for some of the goals set by the riots commission, the leaders are riding off in all directions. The promise to shut down the capital with "civil disobedience" by Martin Luther King Jr. and his Crusade of the Poor has further splintered civil rights forces.

SEVERAL OF his once-loyal allies are opposed to the call for civil disobedience. At a showdown meeting with King calling for a pledge of support, Joseph L. Rauh Jr., Washington civil rights leader, said he would have no part of it. This was received in frigid silence by King's far-out backers. Since then Bayard Rustin, a close associate, has pulled away.

As the dissenters see it, King is abandoning the political process. Out of his own frustration and personal failure he is about to engage in an adventure outside the law that can only stiffen the opposition in Congress to all civil rights legislation.

THE ONE-MARGIN vote for closure in the Senate is testimony to how close the division is.

The House must take up the bill the Senate is expected to pass and the opposition to open housing there is stiffer. The King eruption coinciding with House consideration could solidify the opponents and kill the whole effort.

Quite apart from the political effect, the hazards of King's crusade are great. He intends to set up a tent city in which several thousand demonstrators, from all over the country, will live during the weeks that he means to show the power of the Negro poor and thereby compel swift action by Congress.

THE PROPOSED site of the tent city is the mall extending from the Lincoln Memorial to the Capitol. This would accommodate at least 3,000 demonstrators who would then be free to fan out into the city. If King goes through with what he has threatened they would close down main thoroughfares, National Airport, the Capitol Plaza and other focal points.

But neither the Administration nor the new city government can permit this. Elaborate preparations are well along to insure against serious disruption to the city's life. Police will be backed by Army regulars trained in riots control and theoretically capable of restraining demonstrations that get out of hand without violence and bloodshed.

AN OMINOUS parallel suggests what political dynamite is inherent in King's crusade. In 1932 unemployed veterans marched on Washington to demand that Congress act immediately on a bonus. In improvised shacks they camped on the Anacostia Flats and promised to stay put until they got a bonus bill. President Herbert Hoover ordered troops under Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Chief of Staff of the Army, to disperse them.

OBVIOUSLY, President Johnson cannot use that tactic. But neither can he allow the demonstrators to camp on the mall in the heart of the city. If they are dispersed without a place to pitch their tents the government will have to pay their fares back where they came from.

New District Supervisor Believes In Keeping Busy

By JERRY MONSON

Mrs. Burel (Addie) Perkins, 811 Pine, has a philosophy that people feel better and are happier when they are out doing things for others and working instead of complaining.

Her philosophy apparently works. A bright, energetic woman whose life centers around the church, she was recently appointed district supervisor of the women of the church, Big Spring district, of the Church of God in Christ.

Mrs. Perkins explained that there are 12 districts of this church throughout the area, with headquarters of the Big Spring district in Midland. Her husband built both the Midland and Colorado City churches, the one being just three years old; the other, over 20 years old.

The district includes Kermit, Midland, Spur, Colorado City, Big Spring and Lamesa, and neighboring communities in between towns, and involves about 300 people, Mrs. Perkins said.

DISTRICT SUPERVISOR

Her job as district supervisor, replacing Mrs. Bernice Hughes of San Angelo, will be to travel from town to town, encouraging the various classes and mission work of the church.

"There is a constant emphasis on youth and missions work," she explained. "We send people to foreign missions whenever there is a need."

Classes she supervises are the Bible Band, the Sunshine Band and the Purity Class, which is district for 22 years.

A native of Caldwell, she came to Big Spring in 1929 from Colorado City, and she and her husband were married here in 1934. He began preaching in 1940 and has been active in church work since that time.

A son, Milton Perkins, is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attends Howard County Junior College, where he is studying toward a degree in business administration.

She still finds time to keep her house clean and sparkling and there is always something good cooking on the stove. When time permits, she keeps children two hours each week at the Kentwood Methodist Church while their mothers hold Bible class study or women's meetings. In the past few years, she has become interested in ceramics, and several lovely and unusual creations grace her home.

"It seems as if I just get bored sitting around home," she said. "I have to be doing something for someone else, or I just don't feel very well. Everybody needs to be busy with something, and everybody needs the church to help them."

Registration Set Sunday

The First Christian Church will observe Assembly Registration Sunday in anticipation of the 81st assembly of the Texas Association of Christian Churches May 1-4 in the Austin Municipal Auditorium.

The Rev. John Beard, pastor, said that goal for each church has been set at approximately 10 per cent. This would mean 40 persons pre-registering from First Christian here. He said the church was allowed six official voting delegates.

CHRIST, THE HUMBLE SERVANT, WASHES HIS DISCIPLES' FEET

Christ's washing of His disciples' feet illustrates the washing of regeneration of the Christian, as pointed out in the International Uniform Lesson Series for Sunday.

When the Christian has been bathed in the washing of regeneration, he does not need to get converted again when he feels somewhat contaminated by the filth of the world around him, the lesson points out.

He can wash his mind with prayer and confession. Sin and failure for the Christian may call for a definite act of rededication to Christ. The good thing is that Christ is always ready to make good the dedication, no matter what it may be.

Christ's washing the disciples' feet shows Christ, the humble servant, being a servant to all. So should man be. Background scripture is taken from John 12, 13.

No Change Is Foreseen In '68 Olympic Format

MOSCOW (AP) — The Russians are threatening to pull out, along with some 40 other nations, but Avery Brundage and host Mexico contend there is no change in plans for the Olympic Games.

"Everything is still as is," Brundage, the president of the International Olympic Committee said in Chicago Thursday after the Russians had delivered a sharply worded demand that South Africa be omitted from the Games.

And in Mexico City, site of the October Games, lodging control officer Ramon Alatorre said none of the nations that have announced their boycotts have yet canceled their room reservations.

The Russian demand, presented in the form of a resolution by the Soviet Olympic Committee, said:

"If the International Olympic Committee refuses to convene an emergency session and insists on its decision about South Africa, the USSR Olympic Committee will be impelled to reconsider the question of participation of Soviet sportsmen in the Summer Olympics in 1968."

Avalos Boys Put On Show In Gloves

FORT WORTH (AP) — The Avalos brothers, Gilbert and Jessie, and Houston's Jessie Valdez head the charge into the second round tonight of the Texas Golden Gloves Tournament. Seven of the eight remaining former champions move into the ring when the action resumes in Will Rogers Coliseum.

The Avalos duo, backbone of the powerful Corpus Christi team, pounded out impressive victories Thursday night. Jessie, as a light welterweight and Gilbert as a light middleweight.

Jessie, twice a state champion, outpointed Skip Odem of Denton while Gilbert cut down Gary Parks of Fort Worth. Gilbert was the 1966 lightweight title holder.

Jessie faces Danny Oglesby of Tyler and Gilbert goes against Roger Garcia of Denton.

Valdez, a former AAU champion, two-time national glove-titlist and shooting now for a fourth state crown, drew a bye Thursday and takes on Johnny Owens of Wichita Falls in his first appearance.

Defending light middleweight champion Joe Cokes of Dallas, expected to meet Valdez in a semifinal clash Saturday, knocked out Jimmie Walker of Austin in the first round.

Cokes, whose brother Curtis is the world welterweight king, takes on John Briones of Odessa.

One of the top bouts tonight sends ex-champ Davis Harmon of Temple against James Helwig of Dallas in a feature light heavyweight confrontation.

Helwig took a decision from Fort Worth's Mitchell Cagle while Harmon was inactive in the first round.

Former titleholder Zeke Sanchez, Odessa welterweight, knocked out Benny Whitlock of Denton and goes next against Austin's Malcolm Onley.

Defending flyweight king Roland Hernandez gets his first taste of action, meeting Reynaldo Olivo of Austin.

The only ex-titlist to tumble in the opening round was Panamweight Mike Andrade of El Paso, outpointed by Beaumont southpaw Bubba Buscama.

Dallas, with six victories, opened up a three-point lead over a handful of competitors in the race for the team title. Corpus Christi, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Tyler and El Paso each had three victories.

The ten titlists crowned here Monday night will go to Salt Lake City to represent Texas in the National Golden Gloves Tournament.

Delay Dents Debbie's Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Television variety specials—at least most of this season's crop—must be consumed while fresh and crisp, like lettuce. Even a short period in the ice box has a tendency to destroy their flavor.

Even if ABC's "...And Debbie Makes Six" had been broadcast as originally scheduled, two days before Thanksgiving, it probably would not have been a candidate for an Emmy. But at least some of the jokes would have been fresher than they seemed Thursday night, and the spoofs would have had a more piquant quality about them.

Let's face it. The audience would not have been suffering from a surfeit of one-shot programs which, except for changes of faces, seem to be running on the same lines.

'GRAND HOTEL'

Miss Reynolds, in the second TV outing of her career, again seemed determined to demonstrate her virtuosity. Her guest stars were chosen to complement her talents, but she really did not use them very wisely. She sang with Jim Nabors. She danced with Donald O'Connor and she did impersonations with Frank Gorshin. And she did passably well with each.

The most elaborate part of the program came when she and Gorshin kidded the elderly movie, "Grand Hotel," and although she did a pretty good job of imitating such immortals as Garbo and Bette Davis, and Gorshin played John Barrymore and Sidney Greenstreet, it was necessary to clue in the under-40 audience by flashing on the screen the names of the performers—mostly retired or dead—they were impersonating.

BAD WISECRACKS

Bob Hope appeared for a quick turn with a double handful of grade B wisecracks, then disappeared. Nabors sang "Mama" and never came back. Jokes that seemed funny before the ABC technicians' strike postponed the program no longer were even amusing. In spite of elaborate sets, big name guest stars and Miss Reynolds' passionate desire to please, the program had an old-fashioned air about it—after all, it predated the current "controversial comedy" that there is so much talk about.

The word now is being passed around that the three networks have all but terminated their recent love affair with television specials.

The industry theory only a few months ago was that specials added excitement to a rather gray season and attracted sponsors who were not interested in weekly investments in series.

Retail Committee Okays New Program Of Work

The retail committee of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce voted to undertake the retail activities, as outlined in its program of work, at a meeting held Thursday morning in the Chamber conference room.

The group voted to cooperate with the agriculture committee in the observance of National Cotton Week, May 13-17, and in the sponsoring of good-will trips to the St. Lawrence community, Borden County and others. A recommendation will be presented to the agriculture committee that women be included on the good-will trips.

TAX TALK

Tom Huckaby, city attorney, spoke on the details and problems involved with the city sales tax. He stated that the city sales tax parallels the state sales tax and that rules from the State Comptroller's office governing the collection of the tax are now being distributed.

It was decided to continue the annual Christmas street decoration program and Santa visit. The Operation Sparkle activities will be continued in an effort to further upgrade and beautify our city. Ways will be studied to encourage courtesy and friendliness among clerks and trades people as an incentive to attract shoppers.

Six holidays for the merchants were reaffirmed. These include New Years, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

'LET FREEDOM RING'

Joe Langford, Jerry White and Mrs. Eva Pyeatt will serve on a committee to work with the Traffic Commission regarding loading zones in the business areas.

A study will be made of ways to encourage city wide cooperation between all retail merchants toward improving the retail business economy of the whole community and to also encourage general improvements and dressing up of store fronts to create a favorable image on the buying public.

The committee pledged its support of the July 4 "Let Freedom Ring" programs to make it an annual affair.
