SNYDER — Two Coahoma residents escaped serious injury late Friday evening when their Cherokee 180 light plane, en route from Muskogee, Okla., to Howard County Airport, crashed while the pilot was trying to land at the Scurry County Airport.

Dwayne Clawson, 34, said he was circling the airport for the final approach when he realized the plane was approximately 100 feet lower than it should have been. The landing gear snagged a telephone cable.

The plane, model A127-W, was owned by the Two-Seven Whiskey Club at Howard County Airport, and is damaged extensively. It is still at the Scurry County Airport.

A passenger in the plane, Johnny Justiss, 28, is reported in good condition at Cogdell Memorial Hospital here with multiple lacerations and is expected to be released sometime this weekend.

Clawson returned to Big Spring about 3 a.m. Saturday, after being treated and released at the hospital for facial cuts and bruises.

Clawson is operator of a lumber yard at Coahoma, and Justiss is a cashier at the Coahoma State Bank.

Killed In Vietnam

S. Sgt. Doward (Rickey) Jones Jr., 23, son of Mrs. Mildred White, 1701 W. 3rd, was killed in action Monday while on patrol duty in Vietnam.

Mrs. White said Friday she had not been officially notified of her son's death by War Department officials; however, his wife, Mrs. Judy Engle Jones, Abilene, received word late Thursday.

Arrangements will be held in Abilene, Mrs. White said.

Sgt. Jones was born in Abilene and graduated from Abilene Cooper High School. He attended Abilene Christian College before enlisting in the Army and had planned to make the service his career. He had applied for Officer Candidate School, his mother said.

He was wounded in Vietnam Dec. 29, 1967, and spent two months in a hospital recovering from his injuries. He had only recently returned to active combat duty with the 1st Air Cavalry Division, Co. D, 8th Cavalry.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Judy Jones, Abilene; two daughters, Tracy Jones, 3, and Susan Jones, 1, both of the home; his mother, Mrs. Mildred White, Big Spring; his father, Doward Jones Sr., Greensboro, N.C.; one sister, Mrs. Marva Ann Clendenin, Greensboro, N.C.; two brothers, David D. Jones, Greensboro, N.C., and Larry Thomas Jones, Snyder; the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mabel Smith, Abilene; also four aunts and several cousins.

Hail At Moss Lake

Hail the size of golf balls peppered Moss Creek Lake briefly about 5 p.m. Saturday, breaking windows in the house of Ikie Rupard, caretaker, and denting several cars at the lake. Some of the hailstones measured 2 1/4 inches in diameter, he said.

The storm, which shed light rain and brought heavy winds, whipped through Big Spring about 5:15 p.m., in the wake of a norther lashing the Panhandle.

Reviewing the . . .

Big Spring Week

. . . with Joe Pickle

Ah, spring is sprung! While it is not at all impossible that we still could have a freeze, each day moves us rapidly beyond the danger mark. Another two weeks should about do it. In the meantime, things are greening rapidly. Forsythia is yielding in profusion to redbuds, tulips and tris. Next will come the wisteria and the roses, and in all probability the greatest array of wild flowers we have had in many seasons.

Howard and Glascock people have responded well so far for an appeal by the Red Cross to meet urgent needs of servicemen in Vietnam. So far more than $2,000 has been raised, but this is barely half of what is needed from our chapter. Why not mail your check today?

A lot of people who never take the trouble to measure the news string frequently ask how come kids in trouble get all the publicity? We're trying to focus attention again on the good guys by the Herald-Zale's Youth Achievement Award. So far, the public has been almost painfully slow with its nominations.

If you can spare about three hours out of this afternoon, you will enjoy seeing the Colorado River Municipal Water District's new dam on the Colorado. (See THE WEEK, Page 8-A, Col. 4)

Fire Bombs Thrown Into Gotham Stores

NEW YORK (AP) — Fire bombs were thrown in three of Manhattan's best known department stores Saturday—Macy's, Bloomingdale's and Klein's. Fire officials alerted all the city's department stores.

There also were fires at Gimbel's and at an annex to Klein's. The Gimbel's fire was described as suspicious.

All the fires occurred during a two-hour period in the afternoon.

None produced major damage, as did mysterious fires in Chicago stores Friday.

Clerks at two of the New York stores told police they saw Negroes hurl the fire bombs.

Police said a fire bomb was thrown at an escalator in Macy's. Macy's is at Herald Square, 34th Street and Broadway, and bills itself as the world's largest store.

A salesgirl at Macy's said she saw two Negro boys about 12 or 14 years old throw a bomb on the ninth floor.

A salesman at Klein's, Union Square at 14th Street and Fourth Avenue, told police he saw a Negro man throw a fire bomb into a pile of rugs. Employees put the fire out and did not turn in an alarm.

A fire bomb—a bottle filled with flammable liquid and fitted with a wick—was reported at the Bloomingdale store at 59th Street and Lexington Avenue in midtown Manhattan.

LBJ To Give Report Tonight On Vietnam

Modest Increases In Troops, Costs

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson disclosed Saturday he intends to tell the nation Sunday night that there will be an increase in troops and spending for the Vietnam war—but not of the dimensions that have been the center of speculation.

Johnson said also that "there is not anything to announce at this time" about another bombing pause.

8 P.M.

It was a news conference question about his thinking on the possibility of such a pause that Johnson used as a launching pad for announcing he plans to speak to the country by radio and television from his office at 8 p.m. Big Spring time Sunday.

"I will at that time," he said, "discuss troop speculations that have taken place, what our plans are, and what information we have that we are able to talk about now. I will also talk about other questions of some importance."

"It will be more or less a report on the reviews which have taken place, together with an announcement of some actions that we are taking."

At that time, Johnson said, he would try to have an estimate of what he called the substantial cost of increases for Vietnam in items like helicopters, parts, guns, ammunition and other things flowing from needs that developed after the Tet offensive in January.

Going on from there to speak of supplies as well as the additional troop commitments, Johnson said:

"I would say they will involve a few billion dollars, but not anything like the $10 billion to $20 billion that I have seen and heard people use. It will not be anything like the hundreds of thousands that have been speculated upon in the press."

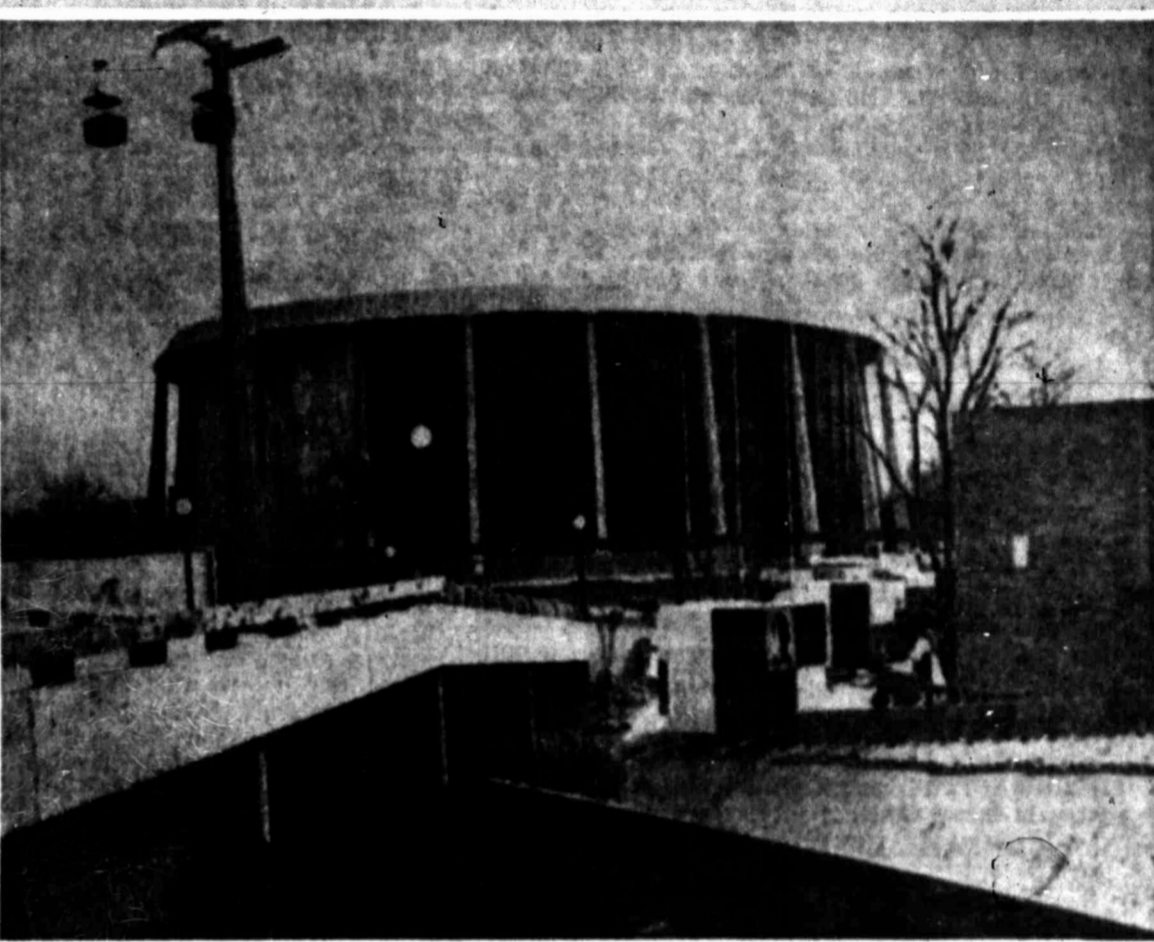

Some published reports have spoken of requests by the military for boosting U.S. military strength in Vietnam by as much as 206,000 and calling up as many as 500,000 reserves.

Johnson gave no specifics as to what he will say about the war in general, but indications in official quarters are that the review stemming from the Tet offensive will not result in any broad changes in military strategy.

ESTIMATES

Congressional sources have estimated that Johnson will ask for an emergency appropriation of about $3.3 billion to prosecute the war during the remainder of the fiscal year ending June 30.

Military sources said that the plan which appeared to be hardening on Friday contemplated the shipment of between 25,000 and 32,000 more men.

Second Of New F111s Lost, Two-Man Crew Is Rescued

SAIGON (AP) — A second of the six new U.S. F111-A jets that entered the Vietnam war less than a week ago has crashed, the Air Force reported Sunday. Its two crewmen were rescued.

TROUBLE

The Pentagon in Washington said the plane crashed Saturday in Thailand—indicating it ran into mechanical trouble rather than enemy gunfire. The planes are based in Thailand.

The first of the $6 million supersonic, swingwing fighter-bombers vanished Thursday. North Vietnam claimed its forces shot it down. U.S. officials have said only that the plane and its crewmen are missing.

In its announcement of the loss of the second plane, the Air Force here said: "A second F111-A crashed in Southeast Asia yesterday after an in-flight emergency. The two crewmen have been rescued."

The F111s first went into combat over North Vietnam—mainly in the Southern Panhandle area—just last Monday.

The loss of two of the jets, packed with highly sophisticated ed electronic guiding gear, comes as a sharp blow to the Air Force and could cause the grounding of the other four in Thailand at least temporarily.

SAFETY TEAM

A Pentagon spokesman said the Air Force is sending a flight safety team to aid in the investigation of the crash.

The F111s are the most advanced warplane in the U.S. arsenal.

In all, according to official announcements, the F111s had flown combat missions on six consecutive days. All or most of these flights were made against truck parks and other targets in the Southern Panhandle, relatively secondary targets and not as heavily defended as those in the Hanoi-Haiphong area.

NINE CANDIDATES CONTESTING; LARGE VOTE EXPECTED

Three Commissioners To Be Elected Tuesday

Voting citizens of Big Spring go to the polls Tuesday to choose three members of the City Commission to serve for the next two years.

There are nine candidates for the three places, an unusually large number, and the long ticket is expected to bring out a large vote. Several candidates have been campaigning actively, and some are using mass communications media in their appeal for support.

ELIGIBLE VOTERS

Anyone is eligible to vote who resides within the corporate limits of the City of Big Spring, and who was properly registered as a voter under the state laws by Feb. 1. Registration certificates should be shown at the polls.

There are five polling places, set up largely for convenience of voters, who may cast their ballot at any one of the places.

They are the fire stations at the City Hall, Fourth and Nolan; Eighteenth and Main; Eleventh and Birdwell; Northside, 100 NE Eighth; and Airport, Fourteenth and Air Base Road.

Voting hours are from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

A total of 35 absentee ballots had been cast as of Friday, according to Charles Smith, city secretary. Ballots with a postmark of no later than Friday midnight will be accepted Monday morning, he said.

The three present commissioners whose terms are involved are seeking re-election: Arnold Marshall, who is serving as mayor; Walter Stroup, and Jimmy Morehead.

Other candidates are A. A. Porter, Eddie Acri, Mrs. George T. (Mary) Thomas, W. A. Fitzgerald, E. A. Fiveash and M. M.

(Blackie) Hines.

Marshall, who has served three terms on the council is owner-operator of the H. W. Smith Transport Co. Stroup, a representative of Southwestern Life Insurance, is completing his first term on the commission, as is Morehead, who operates Morehead Transfer and Storage Co.

Porter formerly was assistant postmaster, now retired. Acri is office manager and co-owner of Family Money Service, Inc. Mrs. Thomas is a legal secretary in her husband's law firm. Fitzgerald is an employee of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Fiveash is owner-manager of the Fiveash Plumbing Co. and Hines is a pipeline superintendent for Cosden Oil & Chemical Co.

NO ISSUES

No major issues have been brought out in campaigning, although some city administration policies have been touched upon. Voting is expected to re-fleet choice in personalities, plus efforts of some groups supporting various candidates.

Two others on the five-member commission continue their terms for another year. They are George Zachariah and Garner McAdams.

Israel Plans More Blows If Guerrillas Stay Active

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Amid signs of fading peace prospects in the Middle East, the U.N. Security Council Saturday heard Jordan demand an arms embargo against Israel and a vow by the Israelis to continue a policy of military reprisals for Arab guerrilla raids.

While the 15-nation council was in emergency session Secretary-General U Thant distributed a report saying his special peace envoy in the Middle East, Gunnar Jarring of Sweden, had found a "basic difference of outlook" between the Arabs and Israel.

This was the first published report of any substance in the Jarring mission, undertaken last December. There had been unofficial reports that Jarring was meeting failure in his private talks with Israeli, Egyptian and Jordanian officials. He has been trying to arrange peace talks at his headquarters in Nicosia on Cyprus.

Israeli Ambassador Yosef Tekoah served notice on the council that new military blows against Israel would be his country's forceful reply to continued activity by Arab guerrillas. He said this amounted to Arab warfare under the guise of liberation movements in Israeli-occupied Arab territory.

Jordan called upon the 15-nation council to impose harsh penalties upon Israel possible under the U.N. charter, including an arms embargo.

Deploping the new outbreak of violence on Friday that led both Israel and Jordan to ask for the urgent meeting of the council, U.S. Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg proposed the stationing of U.N. observers along the explosive Israeli-Jordan cease-fire line.

Soviet Ambassador Jacob A.

Malik said that sanctions against Israel should be the next course of action by the council. He stressed economic aspects of such action.

The council met for almost 2 1/2 hours, adjourning at 1:32 p.m. subject to call. This was to give time for members to consult on what action to be taken, and another meeting was not likely before Monday.

Because of the council's action

Secretary-General U Thant postponed a 12-day trip to Europe scheduled to begin on Monday.

"Jordan cannot expect us to remain passive and await slaughter," Tekoah told the council.

He said Israel rejects what he said was the Arab concept that their government could continue to give aid to guerrillas.

"Such a concept constitutes a warlike action under the cover of a U.N. cease-fire," he said.

He declared it unrealistic for Jordan to expect Israel to accept dispatch of "messengers of hate and death" he said were trying to undermine chances for Arab-Israeli agreement.

Texans Map Farm Talks

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Fifty young Texas farmers planned to fly to Washington Saturday night to discuss farm legislation with their congressmen.

The Texas group was scheduled to join several hundred farmers from other states in the National Farmers Union program.

Texas Farmers Union President Jay Naman, who accompanied the group, said the Texans, all between the ages of 20 and 40, would attend hearings next week on the Mondale bargaining bill, a measure that would give farm producers authority to negotiate prices with processors and handlers. The hearing is before the Senate Agriculture Committee.

The Texans also planned to meet and talk with Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., and Rep. Olin Teague, D-Tex., to discuss the GI Education Bill.

France Refuses To Go Along On System Of 'Paper Gold'

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Nine of the world's 10 richest nations decided Saturday to create a new kind of "paper gold" that may eventually replace the old metal as the basis of the world's currencies.

Finance Minister Michel Debré of France refused to go along.

"The special drawing rights," he said, "are no longer that form of supplementary credit which we judged useful. They are, I fear, an expedient—and they may be the beginning of a so-called money which will bring great disappointment to those who give it their confidence."

The United States, Britain, West Germany, Italy, Japan, Belgium, Holland, Canada and

Sweden were unanimous at a meeting of the group of 10.

Swedish Christer Wickman, the chairman, told reporters: "The road is now open to international acceptance of the special drawing rights. This is an important event in monetary history."

He said he hoped France would come in, too.

The earliest date they could come into effect, he went on, would be the spring of next year. A text is expected to be completed by mid-April. Then it must be ratified by a weighted vote of the 107 members of the International Monetary Fund.

Then the fund must get agreement to "activate" the new drawing rights by another weighted vote of the membership. At this stage, France is expected to make another effort to prevent the paper gold from actually being issued.

Despite the need for this long process, Wickman said: "I hope this will have a calming effect on the gold market next week."

The big market in London opens Monday after a two-week interval. It was closed because of a record run on gold that led to a refusal of the United States and other countries to supply any more of the precious metal to the free market.

Though speculators had been expecting a big rise in the free price at the end of last week they were getting a premium of only about 10 per cent above the official $35 an ounce.

New Rules For Cyclists

Motorcycle helmets must have a minimum of four square inches of reflectorized material firmly affixed to each side of the headgear, according to regulations issued Friday by the Department of Public Safety.

Helmets that have been altered in any way from approved standards—those not bearing the manufacturer's trade and model names or numbers stamped on the outside—will no longer be considered approved, according to the regulations.

Due to recent tightening up of restrictions, no one may operate a motorcycle on a public street or highway in Texas unless he is wearing protective headgear, officials remind.

Any peace officer may stop a motorcycle operator or his passenger at any time for the purpose of inspecting his headgear. Anyone violating this law is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a fine not less than $10, nor more than $50.

Special Rates For Packages To Viet

Suppose you have a son in Vietnam and you want to send him a package of presents? You also want to send that 10 pound parcel by air mail. What will it cost you?

Only $2.90 if you mark the parcel "PAL." If you leave off the "PAL," the postage will be $7.23.

Frank Hardesty, postmaster, cited this instance of the special mail fees applicable to men in service and suggested that an illustrated pamphlet, "Mail for Servicemen," now available at the post office, would be of much interest and help to families with relatives overseas.

The expanded program of air lift for letters, packages and other military mail at low postal rates is described in the book. Copies are available at the Big Spring Post Office windows, the postmaster said.

Hardesty said that "as a result of new legislation and action by President Johnson, we are now airlifting more than 75 per cent of all mail going to the military men and women stationed abroad. We hope this guide will help more American families be familiar with these services and use them."

The eight page pamphlet illustrates three services for airlifting parcels at rates the average family can afford, the speedy service now available for newspapers and news magazines to most overseas bases, the special rates for books and similar educational materials, and how to mail sound-recorded personal messages.

The guide also provides parcel wrapping instructions, information on the time it takes parcels to reach Vietnam and other overseas bases from major U.S. cities, and pointers on the correct way to address military mail.

On parcels weighing less than five pounds, it might be more advantageous for a family to use the older (SAM) Space available mail service, which provides surface transportation to the port of embarkation and air to the port of destination. A four pound SAM package to a European military post from Big Spring costs only $1.30. On packages weighing under two pounds, air parcel post is often the nation's "best buy" for through airlift service, the pamphlet suggests.

Dear Abby

The Childish Bride

DEAR ABBY: My son, who is 22, married a 19-year-old girl he met while he was stationed out West in the Army. We asked him to wait until he had a steady job, but he didn't listen to us. So now he's discharged and they are living with us.

We don't mind helping them out, Abby, but she is a lazy good-for-nothing slob. They've been living with us going on three months, and she has never offered to dry a dish or even make up their bed. The laundry piles up and she doesn't even lift a finger to help. I do everything.

I have hinted until I can't stand the sight of her. If she were a DAUGHTER I would give her a good swift kick in the pants.

She gets up every morning to watch Captain Kangaroo, then she goes back to bed again. She acts like a guest, and my son refused to say anything to her. I could write a book but I can't find an ending.

NEEDS HELP
DEAR NEEDS: Perhaps she is acting like a "guest" because you've been treating her like one. So treat her like a DAUGHTER! And tell your son and and I have been married for five years and we both love to dance, so we work up fancy steps at home and try them out when we go dancing. Every one says we dance beautifully together.

Neither one of us likes to dance with anyone else, because they don't know our steps and we don't know theirs. Yet there is always someone who can't take no for an answer.

Last evening a man (I'll call Jack) asked me to dance three times and I said no. Well, he came back again and just stood by my chair, then he took my arm and LED me out to the dance floor. I didn't want to create a scene so I danced with him.

My husband didn't say anything at the time, but I could tell he was angry. When we got home he let me know just how angry he was.

Abby, I really didn't want to dance with Jack, but my husband insists that I did, or I wouldn't have danced with him.

How can I handle people like Jack in the future?

LOVES TO DANCE
DEAR LOVE: If the "Jacks" you meet won't take your "no" for an answer, tell them to ask your husband. That should settle it.

U-T Chief Says F May Mean More

AUSTIN (AP) — An "F" can be more valuable than an "A" grade, Chancellor Harry Ransom of the University of Texas system said today.

Ransom also had some thoughts about the generation gap and comforting words for the one-talent student.

"An 'F' properly assessed and wisely used in a student's experience, can be more educative than a high grade which is acquired lazily, without learning and without intelligent relation to a student's knowledge and experience."

GOP Speaker Hits At Deficit

FORT WORTH (AP) — Sen. Jack Miller, R-Iowa, told Young Republicans Saturday deficit spending "hurts those the most who can least afford to bear it—the young people," those living on fixed salaries and older people living on pensions.

He addressed the Texas Young Republican Convention.

Miller said "Planned deficit spending . . . lays the foundation for inflation."

How To Reach Dam At Robert Lee

This map shows the easiest routes of access to the site of the Colorado River Municipal Water District's big dam west of Robert Lee. Open house for the public is being held from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. today. So far, approximately eight million cubic yards of earth out of a 13½ million in the project have been moved. The $2¼ million spillway job is about 60 per cent toward completion. The public will be able to inspect the project from one end of the four-mile long dam to the other. This likely will be the only chance because normally the job is shut off because of the danger from massive earth moving equipment.

City Reports Lower Usage

The utility department of the city of Big Spring in February showed 91,335 million gallons of water received from the Colorado River Municipal Water District at a cost of 787 cents per 1,000 gallons. Amount of water used this year showed a decrease over the same period last year.

The monthly report gave 70.632 million gallons of sewage treated for the month and 5,476 million gallons was sold to Cosden Oil and Chemical Company.

During the month, 13 emergency water calls were handled and 495 feet of new water line was laid. Thirty-one emergency calls regarding sewers were received. Sixteen sewer stoppages were cleared, 4,966 feet of sewer line rodded, and 600 feet of line flushed.

Two customer service meter tests were run, 15 meters changed, 64 repaired and 30 meter glasses replaced.

There were 9,814 water meters and 9,729 gas meters read during the month.

Disease List Shows Jump

The number of cases of communicable diseases took a sharp increase this week, according to the Howard County Health Unit. Four hundred and seventy-four cases were turned in this week and 285 last week.

Tonsillitis cases increased from 50 last week to 161 this week. Reported cases of upper respiratory infection was almost steady with 85 cases, compared to 77 last week. A sharp increase was shown in the number of cases of virus for the week with 58 cases. There were 23 cases reported last week. The number of cases of gastroenteritis also increased with 44 this week and 21 last.

Other diseases reported for the week were strep throat with 27 cases; mumps, 29; diarrhea, 19; chicken pox, 8; flu, 9; pink eye, 7; pneumonia, 6; gonorrhea, 5; trench mouth, 4; impetigo, 6; bronchitis, 5; and pertussis, 1.

Connally Says That Some Have Come Near Treason

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Texas Gov. John Connally told Indiana Democrats Saturday night some presidential candidates "have come dangerously close to treason" during the campaign.

Connally did not link a candidate directly to the statement. Later in his prepared Jefferson-Jackson Day dinner address he criticized Sen. Robert Kennedy, D-N.Y.

The governor said, "Never in the history of these United States has such an arrogant demand been thrown upon the desk of a president" as when Kennedy offered to "deal" with President Johnson on the Vietnam War.

Connally, longtime friend and political ally of Johnson's, said the President was asked by a Kennedy aide to publicly admit on national television that he needed to reconsider the situation in Vietnam.

Connally said Johnson was asked to pick a committee from a list of names "who had already expressed themselves in a manner pleasing to Senator Kennedy" — and to accept the committee's suggestions on the war. Kennedy's name was on the list, the governor said.

He said if Johnson agreed to this, "Robert Kennedy would agree not to run for the office of the president."

In another apparent reference to Kennedy, Connally asked, "Is it any wonder that all our efforts to reach a peaceful solution in Vietnam have been rejected, when a man who asked to be president of the United States has said that he would have no objection to sending blood to Hanoi and who would negotiate on Communist terms?"

"Why should Ho Chi Minh want to end the war now if he thinks there is a chance that he will someday be faced with a vacillating president?"

Connally quoted Kennedy as saying in Saigon in 1962, "We are going to win in Vietnam. We will stay here until we do."

The governor added, "President Johnson feels that a great nation does not conduct foreign affairs like a game of touch football. You don't twist and turn, dodge and dart, this way and that. When the United States gives its word, millions of people literally bet their lives that we mean it. President Johnson does not intend to let them be murdered because we have found the going rough."

Champ Wins School Title

By SAM BLACKBURN

David Roberson, Howard County's 1967 spelling champion, has topped his first hurdle successfully in his drive to keep his title. He won the Goliad Junior High School championship Friday afternoon to insure his appearance in the 1968 Howard County Spelling Bee April 20.

The road ahead of David is apt to be rocky. He has some tough competitors who want his crown. Included is his younger brother, Mark Roberson, a sixth grader from Marcy, who won the championship of that school Friday afternoon. They are the sons of Capt. and Mrs. John H. Roberson, 4004 Dixon.

Few of last year's school champions made it back into the lists. The field, as a whole, is made up of new spellers whose qualities are yet to be determined.

All of the city schools have posted their winners and alternates. The champion of the Immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic school has also been announced.

Word was lacking from Forson as to its champion, but by Monday, probably the official list of all champions and alternates will be complete. Some of the school champions were named Thursday, others Friday.

Roberson, who won the Goliad title in 1967 and then nosed out Susan Sulak of Immaculate Heart of Mary, for the county title, tried for honors at Lubbock. He hopes to do better this year, if he is able to keep his county crown. He won Friday over Bobby Roger, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Roger, who placed as alternate.

Bobby faltered on the word "diphtheria," which David fielded handily. To clinch his claim to the Goliad title and win his second spelling trophy awarded by the school (along with a big large button declaring him "special champion") he successfully spelled "parrot."

The champions and alternates, as announced Friday for the city schools, are:

Washington Place school: Joy Linn Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Murphy, 2304 Lamar, alternate.

Boydston: Beth Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Phillips, 501 Donley, champion; Kay Daugherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Daugherty, 613 Hollis, alternate.

Bauer: Debra Warren, daughter of Mrs. Cleo Warren, 206 NE 10th, champion; Olga Correa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crescino Correa, 908 N. Runnels, alternate.

Runnels Junior High: Greg Parnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Parnell, 3203 Cornell, champion; Linda Kay McMurray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McMurray, Gail Road, alternate.

Park Hill: Paul Talbot, son of Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Talbot Jr., 1508 Dayton, champion; Marie McLaughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McLaughlin, 112 Cedar, alternate.

Kentwood: Ronnie Maines, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Maines, 2501 Central, champion; Cheryl Tibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Tibbs, 1307

NEIL SPENCER
Spencer Joins Farmer Fly-In

Neil Spencer, Howard County farmer, was one of 50 Texas farmers who flew to Washington Saturday night to attend a farm legislation conference with members of Congress. The fly-in was sponsored by the Texas Farmers Union.

The group will attend hearings on the Mondale Bargaining Bill—a measure designed to give producers of farm commodities legal authority to negotiate prices with processors and handlers. The fly-in group is made up of farmers between the ages of 20 and 40. Texas Farm Union President Jay Naman accompanied the Texas fly-in to Washington.

Other things to be stressed is the tax-loss farming bill by Sen. Lee Metcalf of Montana, the young farmers investment act; the farm training program under the GI bill, appropriations. The group will meet with dozens of congressmen, among them Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Rep. Olin Teague of Texas.

Spencer, who farms 1,200 acres in the Luther area, is sponsored on the fly-in by the Howard County Farmers Union. He will return Wednesday evening.

NAACP Official Puts Riot Blame On King

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP) — The Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. must bear the blame for racial rioting in Memphis, Tenn., because he exerts "no discipline" over his followers, a top official of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People says.

NAACP Treasurer Alfred Baker Lewis of Greenwich, Conn., said Friday he fears the Memphis outburst marks the beginning of another "long hot summer" in American cities. Lewis, in Lynchburg to speak at a membership rally of the local NAACP branch, said King

"is a charismatic leader" in the civil rights movement. But, Lewis adds, "He is a leader without a plan and he has no organization, so that when he gets a group he has no discipline. He is the NAACP—do." "He also has a lot of trouble-makers and probably juvenile delinquents. This is evidently what happened in Memphis." Lewis said the Memphis rioting "will reduce participation by responsible people" in King's planned April 22 "poor people's march on Washington."

Officer Says Drug Problem Not Solved In Austin Area

AUSTIN (AP) — Despite the arrest of 30 persons for drug abuse, a federal officer said the problem of drugs in the University of Texas area is nowhere near solved.

Calling the university "the hottest spot" in a five-state district, Robert Hinds of Dallas said Friday's pre-dawn raids "netted 25 per cent of those dealing in LSD and marijuana in Austin."

"If we started working another couple of agents tonight, I have no doubt that in a couple of months we could make another bunch of cases," he added.

"It is more serious than we thought a little while ago," Police Capt. Harvey Gann said.

Those arrested were brought in on charges of selling or possessing LSD or marijuana, said Hinds, director of the Dallas field office of the Federal Bureau of Drug Abuse and Control. Selling LSD or marijuana is punishable, under federal law, by at least two years in prison.

Officers said several of those 18 years of age will be charged under the state drug abuse laws.

The arrest warrants were based on secret indictments returned last week by a federal grand jury.

Charged with violation of federal laws against selling LSD were Leland Martin, 19, Joy Smith, 21, and Gary Hunter, 19, all of Austin, and Nancy Oldham Fortman, 21, Rockdale. Named in federal charges for marijuana sale were G. Allen Lovell, 19, Kenneth Lee Waits, 20, Edgar Paul Gill, 21, Mark Francis Freeman, 19, and Wallace Richard Neal, 22, all giving Austin addresses.

Jack Douglas Bell, 18, Austin, was charged under Texas law with sale of LSD. State charges of illegal marijuana sale were filed against William B. Gammon, 17, Robert Darrell Tuck and Cynthia Kay Daniel, 20, all of Austin.

Charged with violating state laws against possession of marijuana were Nancy Oldham Fortman, 21, Rockdale, and Eric Bascom Good, 20. Gary Donald Cartwright, 33, Mary Jo Cartwright, George Emerson Kinney, 21, and Frank Richard Rubottom, 22, all listing Austin addresses.

Cartwright is a former sports writer with Dallas and Fort Worth newspapers and had been working as a campaign publicist for Austin congressional candidate Fagan Dickson. Dickson's headquarters said Cartwright resigned Thursday night. Cartwright and his wife, Mary Jo, were arrested at their home. Rubottom is the son of Roy Richard Rubottom, administrative vice president at Southern Methodist University in Dallas and former U.S. ambassador to Argentina. Vagrancy charges were filed against several others.

New Glider Arrives

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Soarers Get New Glider, Abilene Lauded By FAA

By JERRY MONSON
There are a lot of happy people in the Signal Mountain Soaring Society these days, due to the arrival of the club's new 233 Schweizer Wednesday.

Members did not waste any time getting the glider from the Howard County Airport to the club hangar at Moss Creek Lake and logged a few hours' flying time the latter part of the week, with favorable weather and steady winds.

Dr. F. W. Lurting, club president, said that the club's other glider, a 222 Schweizer, will be sold as soon as it is repaired and painted.

Webb Aero Club members voted at the general membership and safety meeting March 20 to limit the number of days the Cessna 172 may be taken on cross-country flights.

During the summer months, the plane may be gone only 15 days at a time, to allow more members to utilize the aircraft during the summer leave months. Previously, any club member could sign out the craft for 30 days.

Capt. Robert Winders passed his FAA flight check in Midland last Sunday and became a private pilot.

A Federal Aviation Agency official has lauded Abilene's foresight in breaking ground for a new $538,000 airport terminal in a pasture 1½ miles southeast of the present airport.

Henry L. Newman, director of the southwestern region of the FAA, was present for the ground-breaking ceremonies of the terminal during the week, and spoke highly of the city officials who coordinated the project.

Newman also said there would have to be new programs developed to meet national aviation needs. He said when a program were funded, "You in Abilene are certainly ready for it through your farsighted planning."

Good weather enabled many local pilots to log quite a few hours' flying time during the week. Up in the planes of Big Spring Aircraft were Mrs. Carolyn Jones, Larry Milch, Bob Wells, Harold Mosser, John Koettner, Courtney Wells and Marion Walker. Rodney Tiller soloed Thursday in the Cherokee 140.

Charles Noble manager of Big Spring Aircraft, reported about 25 transit pilots stopping at Howard County Airport to gas up during the week.

Dwayne Clawson flew cross-country to Muskogee, Okla., in the Two-Seven Whiskey Club plane. J. W. Parks received his private license Tuesday. Also up were Ray Hill and Rex Kennedy. Charles Rainwater and J. W. Hammond flew in the planes of Big Spring Flying Club. Mrs. Joyce Green flew cross-country to Amarillo and the Rev. Byron Orand and Sam Dennis flew in the planes of Howard County Flying Club during the week.

Tommy Steiner of Austin will be the producer again this year for the 35th annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo. Charlie Creighton, president, announced Saturday.

The dates of the show, second oldest continuously produced rodeo in West Texas, are June 19-20-21-22. The grand entry parade starts at 8 p.m. daily in the Rodeo Bowl, at the west edge of Big Spring.

Steiner got started in the rodeo producing business with his father and has acquired a string of outstanding stock, as well as booking several exciting specialty acts to add variety to the show.

The five major events will be saddle bronc riding, bareback riding, bulldogging, bull riding, calf roping, in addition to girls barrel racing.

Sheriff's posses and riding clubs from far and near are invited to participate in the downtown parade June 19 at 4 p.m. Also featured will be floats, bands, riders, military personnel, etc.

Tom Hadley, from Oklahoma, outstanding rodeo announcer, will pace the Steiner show.

HOWARD DOWN 768

Population Loss For WT Listed

Howard County joined the majority of other West Texas counties in showing a loss of population in the last seven years, according to a survey by the Research Center of the University of Texas. Glasscock, Mitchell and Tom Green (San Angelo) counties reported increases.

LOSS
Howard County shows a loss of 768 in population since the official 1960 census at a rate of minus .3 per cent per year. Other counties showing losses included Ector (Odessa) 2,081 minus .4 per cent; Midland (Lamesa) 272, minus .2 per cent; Taylor (Abilene) 2,385, minus .3 per cent; Martin (Stanton) 26, minus 1 per cent; Nolan (Sweetwater) 1,277, minus 1.0 per cent; Scurry (Snyder) 5,293, minus 4.3 per cent.

Counties gaining population, including the amount of gain and the rate per year it is gaining, include Glasscock (Garden City) 395, 4.3 per cent; Mitchell (Colorado City) 136, .2 per cent; and Tom Green 10,580, 2.2 per cent.

The population of Texas as a whole increased at a lower rate during the 1950-1960 period. This trend is shared with many states.

The average annual per cent growth from 1950 to 1960 was 2.2 while the average annual increase from 1960 to 1967 was 1.8 per cent. In absolute figures the average annual increase during the 1950s was 186,848 as compared to 179,832 from 1960 to 1967.

According to the new report, Texas current population is estimated at 10,838,502. The 1960 census showed a population of 9,579,677.

One of the interesting and important differences between the 1960-67 period and the decade of the 1950s is that in the latter period only 44 per cent of the counties gained in population.

In the more recent period, while state population growth was lower, 66 per cent of the counties in Texas made population gains.

Randall County in the Texas Panhandle had the best annual percentage of growth in the recent report period. That county's growth is logged at 7.5 per cent per year. Amarillo straddles the Randall-Potter County lines.

The second high county was Denton with 5.7 per cent per year growth.

This year the Population Research Center made a new adjustment in its methodology to bring figures in line with those of the Bureau of the Census.

The adjustment resulted in adding about 300,000 persons to the Texas population.

Odessa's Globe Opening Today

ODESSA — The Globe of the Great Southwest at Odessa Junior College will celebrate its completion with a program this afternoon, "Shakespeare Today," Dr. and Mrs. Paul Beardsley, dean and instructor of the speech theater department of the Austin College in Sherman, will open the program with G. B. Shaw's one-act play, "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets," and continue with excerpts from several Shakespearean dramas and other interpretive acting.

The Globe Theater is an authentic replica of the 16th century Globe Theater in London where many of Shakespeare's plays were produced. It is one of only four exact replicas of the Elizabethan theatre in existence and cost in excess of $185,000.

Two Cases Of Polio Reported

AUSTIN (AP)—Two cases of paralytic polio were reported in Texas during the week that ended March 23, twice as many as in the first 12 weeks of 1967.

One case was in Bexar County and the other in Cameron County, the State Health Department said.

The department said a total of six cases have been reported so far this year, compared with only one during the same 12-week period last year.

Hospital Owner Arraignment Set

HOUSTON (AP) — Dr. Archie H. Burkhalter, 41, owner of the Pasadena Memorial Hospital, will be arraigned Monday on a charge of raping a patient at the hospital. He posted $5,000 bond Friday.

Burkhalter was indicted last Wednesday by a Harris County grand jury on a charge of raping a 24-year-old mother in her hospital room last March 3.

Child Killed

LADONIA, Tex. (AP)—Seven-year-old Vinnie Garney of this Fannin County town ran from behind a school bus Friday and into the path of an oncoming truck. She was killed instantly.

Late Buyers Swarming In

The prediction of Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, county tax assessor-collector, that the fading days of the period in which to buy car tags would see a swarm of belated applicants in her offices, proved true Friday afternoon.

After a relatively quiet week with no rushes, the late motorists seemed suddenly to realize Friday afternoon that the deadline for car plates is April 1 at 5 p.m.

As a result, the two offices of the assessor-collector filled to capacity and overflowed into the first floor hall of the courthouse.

Mrs. LeFevre said that due to the heavy rush, no available figures were on hand for the last day of the week. She expects an even larger turnout Monday.

The deadline is 5 p.m. Monday—April 1. Cars which do not have 1968 plates on them by midnight that date will be subject to seizure and operators of such cars can be fined for their offense.

A motorist who fails to get a tag by midnight Monday must not operate his car on the roads of the county. He must leave it parked where it is and not fire up the engine until he has attached current year plates. If he abided by this rule and makes an affidavit he has not operated the car since midnight Monday, he can get a plate belatedly. Otherwise, he must pay a penalty for his delinquency.

The community-wide canvass of the Howard County Cancer Society kicks off Tuesday at 6 p.m. with Mrs. Dee Jon Davis heading the door-to-door workers.

The volunteers will be distributing educational material and accepting donations for the cancer fund to go toward research in the laboratories and medicine for those already afflicted with the disease.

Today is the Cancer Sabbath, and Mrs. Ralph Caton, president of the local unit and crusade chairman, said that several area churches are expected to participate in special morning worship services.

Plastic Bag Kills

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP) — Bryant Gann, 18 months old, suffocated Thursday while playing with a plastic bag. A justice of the peace ruled death was accidental. The infant was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gann of Corpus Christi.

radio near Robert Lee. This involves raising a young mountain across four miles of valley and penetrating it with a spillway pipe big enough to handle a couple of passing motor transports. The hours are 1:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Tuesday is election day, and with a large field of candidates for three places on the city commission, we should have a good turnout — especially in view of a potential of some 10,000 votes. School trustee elections come up Saturday, so keep your registration certificate handy.

Monday brings the zero hour for car owners who have not yet secured their new vehicle license tags. If you drive without them after Monday, you're in trouble. So either get in the line early, or plan to park your car.

Monday also brings the city sales tax, which, if it pans out as planned, will bring partial offsetting relief in a 10-cent reduction in the ad valorem tax (the city committed to this in approving the budget Tuesday), and at the same time provides funds for capital improvements.

The City Park Amphitheatre has undergone an extensive dress-up program, which will make its best appearance when plantings in new terraces at the front have time to make a showing. The ugly nubs of the departed entrance arches have been smoothed over.

Taking note that the new $7.5 million improvement program to boost capacity to a maximum of 56,000 barrels per day at its Cosden Oil & Chemical plant here, American Petrofina last week reported a 31.1 per cent increase in earnings. Fuel sales were up five per cent; petrochemical and plastic sales accounted for 20 per cent of the total volume.

Two oil wildcats north of Big Spring were announced. Gordon Knox No. 1 McBride, three-fourths of a mile north of the Vealmoor pool, will go to 8,500 feet in search of the reef. George Brown No. 1 Aiken Simpson, a Strawn prospector, will go to 10,000 feet on a location 16 miles north of Big Spring.

News from Webb AFB included the shift to a single squadron concept in the training program. That means that a single squadron will be devoted to the T-38 program, another to the T-37 phase. The base-community council announced a barbecue May 18 (Armed Forces Day) honoring the enlisted personnel at Webb. Word from the Air Force University is that Col. Wilson H. Banks, former Webb commander, has been made chief of staff. The T-38 modification program has been firm, and some 10 technicians will come in around August to start the work at the rate of 15 per month.

The Vietnam war came home again last week with the announcement of the death of Capt. Richard W. Hopper in a B-57 crash. He is the brother of Capt. T. L. Hopper of Webb AFB.

How long is 230 years? That's how long Guy Simmons and his brothers put in on the T&P. The string came to an end officially last week when he turned in his keys and took retirement after 40 years.

Howard County Junior College launched another session of the Southwest Law Enforcement Academy last week. If all goes as planned, the college will begin a two-year course in law enforcement technology next autumn as part of the new technical-vocational division.

Big Spring State Hospital added two veteran physicians to its staff — Dr. James H. Kreimeyer, former acting superintendent of the Rusk State Hospital, as staff psychiatrist, and Dr. Ted A. Hufford as ward physician.

Prospects are improved that 20 repossessed houses in the east end of Monticello Addition may be making a trip to Van Horn. If the deal goes through, the lots will be cleared, probably for redevelopment some later time.

Seven In One Family Killed

UNIONVILLE, Mich. (AP) — All seven members of one family and a woman who was en route to Lenten worship were killed Friday night in the fiery crash of a panel truck and a car near Unionville.

The eight, including five children aged from about 2 to 19, died when the vehicles collided at an intersection not far from Saginaw Bay in eastern lower Michigan and plunged into a 15-foot-deep drainage ditch.

The victims, who died either from crash injuries or burns, were identified as Leo Parker, about 45, of Owendale; his wife, Barbara, 43; their children, Mary, about 19; Peggy, about 16; John, about 12; Susan, about 9; and Kelly, about 2, and Mrs. Fred Singer, 36, of Unionville.

Nobody survived the accident. Mrs. Singer was alone in her car, driving to St. Joseph's Catholic church in Unionville for evening lenten services.

Gridiron Figures Chortle Over Big John's Job

FORT WORTH (AP) — "Ha Ha Ha. You and me, Big John's job. How I want thee."

So chortled Fort Worth newsmen Friday night in their roles as Democratic gubernatorial candidates, battling to succeed Gov. John Connally.

Connally, seated as usual in the place of honor, is known here as Big John.

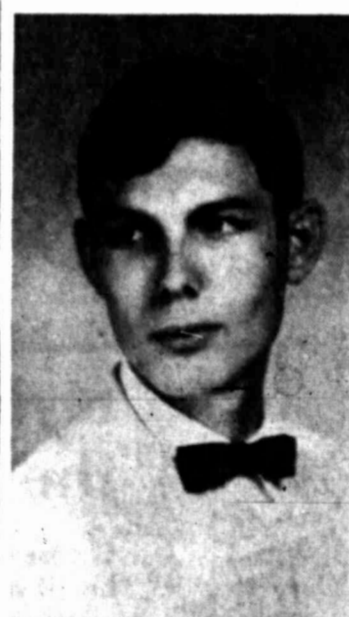

The scene was the Hotel Texas ballroom and the occasion was the annual Texas Gridiron Show and Dinner, staged by Sigma Delta Chi, national journalism society.

Some 1,300 guests shelled out $20 apiece to view the lampooning of state and local figures by the all-male cast.

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin, Speaker Ben Barnes, most of the state supreme court justices, U.S. Reps. Olin Teague, Jim Wright and Graham Purcell and Sen. John Tower were on hand.

Verdict Of Insanity

GEORGETOWN, Tex. (AP) — A district court jury took only 10 minutes Friday to decide that farmer W. J. Martinka was insane March 9 when he attacked his wife with a knife and decapitated his 6-year-old son with an axe. The sanity trial jury recommended Martinka, 45, be hospitalized immediately in a mental institution.

Wins Scholarship

Mike Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Adams, Silverheels Addition, has been notified by Texas Technological College he is the recipient of a tuition and music fees scholarship. The scholarship is renewable each spring in increasing amounts on the basis of an audition and a B average. Adams has participated in the district contests and will compete in June in Austin in the state band contest. He is first chair oboe in the Steer Band.

SAN ANTONIO COULD HOST IT Big 33 Game Back?

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — If arrangements can be made for use of Alamo Stadium, the "Big 33" high school all-star football game between Pennsylvania and Texas teams of high school seniors will be played in San Antonio this year.

Marvin Reikin, director of the Jewish Community Center, said Saturday he had arranged with Al Clark, executive sports editor of the Harrisburg, Pa., Patriot-News and president of Big 33, Inc., to move the game to San Antonio if a place to play can be secured and underwriting arranged.

Clark said recently directors of his organization had authorized him to say the game would be discontinued in Hershey, Pa., although it has grossed $90,000 annually. Net receipts went to charity.

A dispute with Texans who were handling details at this end was blamed. However, Clark refused to blame any individual.

Reikin said Clark responded favorably to a suggestion that a non-profit agency such as the Jewish Community Center take over the operation of the game here, at least for 1968.

Reikin has been in touch with school and college officials and others and has found that the only problem may be the use of Alamo Stadium for a high school all-star game. The schools and the University Interscholastic League have rules preventing all-star games staged by professional promoters.

Carty Says He Feels Good

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Rico Carty, Atlanta Braves outfielder who has tuberculosis, said Saturday he feels fine.

"I feel good," Carty said from his room at the Southeast Florida Tuberculosis Hospital at nearby Lantana. "If it was left up to just the way I feel, I could be playing ball right now."

Other members of the Braves, who played the Detroit Tigers in an exhibition game at Lakeland, apparently passed their tuberculosis tests with flying colors. None showed any sign that they had contracted the disease, according to Donald Davidson, traveling secretary of the team.

William C. Bartholomay, president of the Braves, said "Paul Richards and I spent several hours Friday with Rico's doctors, and they assured us there is no doubt of his complete recovery."

Aintree's Cheers Go To Grandpop

AINTREE, England (AP) — Red Alligator stormed to victory in the Grand National Steeplechase Saturday for his owner, proprietor of a London meat market, but the cheers of the day went to a 68-year-old Californian who completed the course.

Red Alligator, owned by John Manners, won by 20 lengths at betting odds of 100-to-7 over the 4-mile, 856-yard turf course.

Scottish-trained Moidores Tokes was second and favored Different Class, owned by movie star Gregory Peck, a neck away in third.

Forty-five horses started the race over 30 stiff obstacles but only 17 entries finished. And as the race ended, Tim Durant, the galloping grandpa, came over the last hurdle on his own Highlandie and wound up in 15th place.

The biggest cheer Aintree has known for years went up. Durant had done it. He had completed the course. That's all he wanted to do. He never expected to win. And the crowd loved him for finishing.

The retired Beverly Hills, Calif., stockbroker is the oldest man ever to ride in the Grand National.

Durant actually was thrown from his mount at Bechers Brook the second time around but remounted and finished the race.

Durant had a bet of $240 to 5-to-1 odds that he would finish. He did exactly that.

Red Alligator, ridden by 20-year-old Brian Fletcher, made good progress from the 22nd obstacle. He joined the leaders

Senators Whack Houston, 8-4

ODESSA — Odessa Permian won its second straight District 2-AAAA baseball decision by rallying to drub San Angelo, 9-4, here Saturday.

The defeat was the second in two league starts for the Bobcats. Over-all, San Angelo is 8-5-1 while Permian is 8-3.

San Angelo struck for all four of its runs in the initial inning, three of them on a round tripper by Dreik Jones.

In all, the Black Cats had 13 hits to five for the losers. Bill Melton smashed a solo home run for Permian in the fifth, his second in district play.

AT CALIFORNIA

Athletic Boycott Still Threatened

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Bobby Smith, football star and spokesman for the Black Athletics, said Saturday their threat to boycott all sports at the University of California still stands.

He called an investigating committee report recommending "affirmative measures to prevent discrimination and prejudice" a whitewash.

"We don't appreciate the way the university has handled everything under the table," said Smith, who insisted that he now was speaking for himself. He said the Black Athletics would meet and issue a statement next week.

But Smith said, "We can expect nothing from Pete Newell," athletic director who recently resigned, effective in mid-July.

"Newell said in effect he didn't care; he's leaving everything for his successor," Smith said.

"The boycott is still a threat," continued the halfback who made the second All-Star team of the Pacific-8 Conference.

"Our next immediate action will be to go to the chancellor," Roger W. Heynes, who named the fact-finding committee.

"If his position is such that he can't act, a boycott will be the ultimate result," Smith added.

He said he hopes implementation of committee recommendations for improvement in racial relations will be apparent soon. One of the athletes' demands for equal treatment was in athletic scholarships.

"We get just enough to keep us hanging on and to end up in debt $100 every quarter," Smith said. "If you don't live at home, you're dead. We have to borrow $100 from the university at the end of each quarter. And we'll have to pay it back."

Newell has denied discrimination between white and Negro athletes.

Cambridge Rowers First In University Feature

LONDON (AP) — Cambridge's strong-arm rowers hit a powerful rhythm Saturday and coasted to victory in the 14th University boat race, beating a weary Oxford crew vainly spurred on by two former Yale athletes.

The triumph by 3 1/2 lengths over the wind-whipped River Thames crew broke Oxford's three-year winning streak.

Cambridge's time for covering the 4 1/4-mile tidal course was 18:22. The record of 17:50.0, held by Cambridge, was set in 1948.

It was a massive disappointment for Oxford's two Yanks, John Bockstoce of Hartford, Conn., and Bill Fink of New York City.

Thousands of spectators lined the banks of the Thames from Putney to Mortlake for the annual festival of varsity rowing.

They saw favored Cambridge pull to a quick lead in choppy waters.

The crews were even shortly before the halfway stage. Then Oxford seemed to tire under the steady and relentless pressure. Cambridge was four lengths ahead with a mile to go.

It was the 62nd victory for Cambridge. Oxford has won 51 times and there was one dead heat.

Japanese Keeps Boxing Crown

TOKYO (AP) — Japan's Hiroshi Kobayashi retained his world junior lightweight boxing title by a shade in battling Rene Barrientos of the Philippines to a 15-round draw Saturday night.

Two Japanese officials, referee Ko Toyama, 72-72, and judge Hiroyuki Tezaki, 71-71, voted for the draw. American judge Gordon Higley had Barrientos the winner, 73-71. The result was a draw by majority decision.

The Filipino, who came here several pounds over the 130-pound weight limit, required five trips to the scales to make 130 at the weigh-in. Kobayashi weighed 129.

The tournament, set for May 16-19, restricts the field to 72. Thirty-six have accepted invitations, including Ben Hogan, a five-time winner.

Lightning Vanished From Yankee Club

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP) — Reserve outfielder Andy Kosco stole home in the eighth inning of the year's first exhibition game and the New York Yankees hung on for a 1-0 victory.

The Yankees got three hits. Their fans got the message. New York's legendary eighth-inning lightning of the 1940s and '50s is long gone. The power has been shut off in the Bronx and 1968 looks like another year of pitch, putt and pray for the Yanks — with a little more Go-Go this time around.

The Yankees have been bunting and running more than ever this spring. Unfortunately, they've been doing very little hitting, despite Manager Ralph Houk's hope for a recharged attack.

Inching from last place in 1966 to ninth last season, the Yankees batted .225 as a team — second lowest in the majors. And they barely reached the 100 home run mark.

Mickey Mantle, shifted from the outfield to first base, drilled 22 homers to take fifth place on the all-time list with a 17-year total of 518. Tom Tresh, hobbled by a knee injury, connected for 14, one more than Joe Pepitone — who had slugged 31 in 1966 — and three more than rookie Steve Whitaker. No one else had more than nine.

Mantle's .249 average was the lowest of his career, however. Tresh, .219, Pepitone, .251, Whitaker, .241, and rookie Bill Robinson, .196, failed to provide the outfield punch so long a trademark of Yankee teams.

Horace Clarke led AL second basemen in fielding, hit a respectable .272 and stole 21 bas-but can be controlled. Ferraro will be on medication for the rest of his life but he should be able to continue playing.

After losing shortstop prospects Bobby Murcer and Jerry Kenney to the military in successive years, the Yanks tried vainly to trade for either Luis Aparicio or Zoilo Versalles last winter. They finally picked up Gene Michael, a light-hitting glove man, from Los Angeles. He'll likely start ahead of Amaro, who can fill in at all infield positions.

Rookie Frank Fernandez, .235 at Syracuse, is slated to divide the catching job with Gibbs.

The pitching should be deeper than last year, when southpaw Al Downing came into his own with a 14-10 mark and Mel Stottlemyre, a 20-game loser in 1966, rebounded to 15-15. They didn't get too much help, except from reliever Dooley Womack, who had 16 saves and a 2.41 earned run average, and mid-season pickup Bill Monbouquette, who was 6-5 with a 2.39 ERA.

Left-hander Fritz Peterson, 8-14, returns along with Fred Talbot, 6-8, Steve Hamilton, 2-4, and two former 20-game winners, Steve Barber and Jim Bouton, who'll try to recapture their old magic after several off-years.

Houk thinks Barber can bounce back and is pleased with Bouton's early success in exhibition play. Offensively, the Yankee skipper feels Tresh can regain his touch after a successful knee operation. Whitaker and Robinson can begin realizing their potential and Pepitone can begin popping the long ball again.

Thomas Catch

Carl Stefater of Snyder is shown with a 34-pound yellow catfish he caught recently on a trotline while fishing near Sportsman's Lodge at Lake J. B. Thomas. He was using shad as bait.

Twins To Oppose Astros 4 Times

HOUSTON (AP) — The Houston Astros and the Minnesota Twins begin a four game exhibition series Thursday in the Astrodome.

Night games are scheduled Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Sunday's contest will begin at 2 p.m.

The contests are the final pre-season games for the Astros.

Lions Club Plans Volleyball Meet

COAHOMA (SC) — The Coahoma Lion's Club is sponsoring an outsiders' volleyball tournament next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Proceeds will be used to support charities backed by the service club.

Astros Give Hint They May Improve

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — If Hector Torres plays shortstop in the National League the way he pitched in the Little League, one of the Houston Astros' 1967 trouble spots will be in good hands this year.

If half the big league pitchers on the Houston roster pitch like big leaguers, another problem will take care of itself and the Astros might get off the ground after half a dozen false starts.

Despite Rusty Staub's emergence as a batting star and the power hitting of Jim Wynn, Houston finished ninth last year. The worst pitching and fielding marks in the league kept the Astros buried in the second division for the sixth year running.

Manager Grady Hatton is counting on Torres' glove to trigger a defensive resurgence. He thinks the Astros' pitching can be as good this year as it was bad last year, with 22 established flingers battling for 11 jobs.

Torres, who shifted to shortstop after pitching his Monterrey, Mexico, team to the Little League World Series title 10 years ago, was acquired from the California Angels during the winter. He batted only .214 in the Pacific Coast League, but Hatton isn't concerned with his offensive shortcomings.

"If he helps us defensively we can carry him until he learns about hitting," Hatton said. "Our run production was greater than ever — fourth in the league. Our defense was miserable."

"The pitching (4.02 team ERA) looked bad after the defense collapsed and got the pitchers in hot water. We were giving up four-five-six outs an inning."

One of the culprits was shortstop Sonny Jackson, so promising as a rookie in 1966. Jackson fizzled in the field, leading NL shortstops with 35 errors, and fell off at the plate from .292 to .237.

Houston traded Jackson and first baseman Chuck Harrison to Atlanta last winter for southpaw pitcher Denny Lemaster and shortstop Denis Menke. Lemaster, 9-9 with the Braves, should bolster the Astros' pitching and Menke will provide infield insurance should Torres fail to make it.

The Astros also picked up relief pitcher Fred Gladding from Detroit, completing last year's Ed Mathews deal and adding needed depth to the bullpen.

Lemaster will join left-hander Mike Cuellar, 16-1, and fireballers Don Wilson, 10-9, and Larry Dierker, 6-5, in a formidable starting quartet. Wilson pitched eight problems this spring. Four other catchers are battling him for the job.

Generally, Hatton sees more pluses than minuses in the 1968 Houston outlook.

"We aim to move up several notches," he said. "If we get enough pitching and tighten up our defense, we can be real tough."

Sherry, Dave Giusti, 11-15 as a starter in 1967, and John Buzhardt are top candidates for long relief assignments.

Offensively, the Astros' lineup appears to be in good shape — with the exception of shortstop and catcher.

Staub's .333 average was the fifth highest in the league. The big right fielder is only 23 years old and could be even better this time around. Wynn batted only .249 but poked 37 homers and delivered 107 runs. He'll play either center or left, with Ron Davis, .256, in the other spot.

Doug Rader, who stroked a .333 clip in 47 games with the Astros, probably will open at first base, steady Joe Morgan, .275, at second and Bob Aspromonte, .294, at third. Catcher John Bateman, plagued by injuries, hit just .190 in 1967 and has eight problems this spring. Four other catchers are battling him for the job.

Gladding, who posted a sparkling 1.99 ERA last year with the Tigers, figures to divide the short relief work with Larry

By NATE MITCHELL STANTON — For a starter, Tom Blackwell couldn't seem to make up his mind which college he wanted to attend. He started out at Texas A&M, switched to Howard Payne after one semester, then called things off there after two more.

Early, Bill Milan, had worked at Stanton as head coach until 1965. For his high school endeavors, Blackwell had been offered scholarships to three colleges (HPC, Hardin — Simmons and McMurry). Perhaps his strongest sport during his career was tennis — a sport of which he is in charge at Stanton High.

FHA WEEK

MARCH 31 - APRIL 6

More than 600,000 high school youth across the nation, members of the Future Homemakers of America, will observe National FHA Week, March 31-April 6, 1968.

In Texas, 72,905 Future Homemakers will participate in special activities and projects designed to share their FHA experiences and achievements with families, friends, and neighbors.

The theme chosen for this year's observance is "FOCUS ON CITIZENSHIP," and the objective is to encourage worthwhile involvement of youth as citizens in the home, school, and community. The local, state and national FHA associations help develop individual and group initiative in improving personal, family and community living.

The FHA carries out its goals with programs based on local needs and interests. Members tackle such problems as how to get along with parents and start family councils to discuss family problems and plans. They survey the job and career opportunities for home economics students and volunteer as aides, assistants, and helpers in order to gain practical experience. They assist and befriend the elderly, conduct anti-school dropout campaigns, run clean-up and beautification campaigns, perform volunteer work for hospitals and other institutions, and lend assistance in school and community activities.

Homemaking teachers at Big Spring Senior High School are Mrs. Jack Alexander, department chairman; Mrs. Wilbur Cunningham, Miss Helen Willard, Mrs. C. W. Willbanks, Mrs. John Hamilton and Mrs. Tolbert Grisham. Mrs. Johnny Justiss is the teacher at Coahoma, and Mrs. Derrell Baggett is on the faculty at Forson. The three schools are a part of Area Two which is served by Mrs. Ivah Lou Ashley, advisor for the Texas Association.

This national organization of homemaking education students is sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education and the American Home Economics Association. The Texas Association is sponsored by the Division of Homemaking Education, Texas Education Agency, Austin. Homemaking teachers serve as advisors to the 1,528 chapters in Texas.

More than 5,000 officers, delegates and advisors of the Texas Association will convene for their 1968 meeting in Austin, April 19 and 20, according to Mrs. Elizabeth F. Smith, Director of Homemaking Education, Texas Education Agency.

THREE PRETTY GIRLS personify the poster they hold as Diana Rodman, first vice president; Carolyn Ford, president; and Anna Duffer, second vice president, represent the Forson unit of Future Homemakers of America. The chapter has planned special daily activities to celebrate the week.

A STITCH IN TIME takes a lot of practice but the end result is a new Spring dress that any FHA member would be proud to wear. Here, at Big Spring Senior High School, are Beverly Huckaby, Carolyn Crawford, historian, and Karla Wadsworth, treasurer, as they put the finishing touches on a current sewing project.

POSTERS PROCLAIM that Future Homemakers of America are having their own special week of recognition. Pooling their talents to complete art work on the signs are four members of the Coahoma chapter, Sharon Roman, Mary Lewis, Diana Eppler and Brenda Eppler.

HOSPITAL TRAY FAVORS are prepared by Big Spring FHA members in conjunction with community service projects undertaken by the group. From left, they are Marianne Lipscombe, state degree candidate; Jo McMillan, first vice president for next year; Lorri Watkins, president for next year; Cathy Carlile, third vice president for next year; and Pat Macklin, the current third vice president.

BAKING COOKIES for Bennett House are three local FHA members, Sherry Powell, secretary; Loretta Owens, first vice president; and Lynda Lloyd, pianist. Food preparation and nutrition are fields in which homemaking students become proficient.

Wedding Solemnized In Church Of Christ

STANTON (SC) — The wedding of Miss Janice Faye Glaze and Michael Allen Penn was solemnized Friday evening in the Church of Christ at Tarzan with a double ring ceremony conducted by Oliver Murray of Lufkin, Church of Christ minister.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Glaze of Tarzan and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Penn of Lufkin.

Vocal selections were sung by a choir composed of Mrs. Woodrow Stewart, Mrs. Royale Lewis, Keith Glaze, Thomas McIntyre and Miss Jayleta Glaze who was the soloist. The numbers were "I Pledge My Love" and "Faithful and True." The altar was graced with branched candelabrum holding white tapers, and flanked with baskets of white gladioli and greenery.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a formal gown of satin, overlaid with bridal lace and styled in the princess manner with high, round neckline and long lace sleeves tapered at the wrists. The chapel-length train of satin and lace was attached at the waist with satin rosettes.

Her bouffant, tiered veil fell from a white satin cabbage rose, and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

ATTENDANTS

The bride's sister, Mrs. Donald Nichols of Seminole was the matron of honor and wore a floor length princess dress of apricot crepe. Her headpiece was a crepe and organza cabbage rose. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Sammy Yates and Mrs. Eldon Welch who wore identical dresses in yellow and green with matching headpieces. All carried a long-stemmed yellow rose.

The groomsmen were Joe Don Penn and Clifford Penn, both of Lufkin, and Billy Penn of Sulphur Springs. Ushers were Larry Taylor of Midland and Vanny Glaze. The ring bearer was Ben Nichols of Seminole, and the altar tapers were lit by Judy Yates and Rosalind Welch.

Crawford Jr., 2661 E. 25th, have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jacquelyn Gayle, to Joseph Carroll Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Phillips of Eldorado. The ceremony will be held June 15 at the 14th and Main Church of Christ with Perry Cotham, minister, officiating.

Teach Young To Wash Silverware

Line silverware drawers with blotters, then you won't hesitate to let the 4- or 5-year-old dry the knives and spoons, for it will absorb the moisture when little hands fall to do a first class job. This encourages the children to help and teaches them to work.

MRS. M. A. PENN (Howard S. Studio)

RECEPTION

The reception was held in the home of the bride's parents where guests were registered by Mrs. Billy Penn. Members of the house party were Miss Francis Graves, Miss Lelia Key Stewart and Mrs. Lloyd Mims.

Guests attended from Lufkin, Seminole, Stanton, Midland, Abilene and Snyder. They were greeted by the honorees, their parents and the feminine attendants.

A lace tablecloth with green underlay covered the refreshment table which was centered with crystal and silver. The tiered wedding cake was decorated with green, yellow and apricot roses and topped with bridal figurines.

The bride, a graduate of Stanton High School and Sam Houston State College, has been teaching at Seminole Elementary School. The bridegroom was graduated from Hudson High School, Sam Houston State College and is employed as service engineer for the Lufkin Foundry and Machine Company.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, the bride wore an apricot linen dress with white cape and white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Penn will reside in Lufkin.

MRS. JIMMY GALE HOPPER

Hopper-Cauble Vows Pledged In Coahoma

Miss Olive Gean Cauble became the bride of Jimmy Gale Hopper Friday evening in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church in Coahoma.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Cauble, 904 Culp, Coahoma, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Gale Hopper, 1707 Gollad.

The Rev. Lee Butler, chaplain at Big Spring State Hospital, performed the double ring ceremony as the couple exchanged vows before an altar graced with twin stands of white gladioli and fern. Eight-branched candelabra flanked the altar.

Mrs. Ernest Turner, organist, played "O Promise Me," "I Love You Truly" and "All My Love."

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a street-length dress of white crepe designed in an A-line with long sleeves tapering at the wrists, and a sleeveless lace coat. She carried a bouquet of white carnations, centered with an orchid, atop a white Bible.

Miss Jackie Cauble, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. She chose a rose pink crepe shift designed with long sleeves and rolled collar. Her bouquet was of white carnations tipped in pink.

Lance Hopper was best man, and altar tapers were lighted by Kim Dehart, cousin of the bride; and Debbie Hopper, sister of the bridegroom. They wore identical street-length dresses of cranberry crepe.

The couple left on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination, and for traveling, the bride wore a yellow two-piece suit with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet. The couple will be at home in Sand Springs.

The bride attended Coahoma High School where she was a member of the Future Homemakers of America. The bridegroom is a graduate of Big Spring Senior High School and is employed by Piggly Wiggly.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. Joining the honorees in receiving guests were the parents and the four grandmothers, Mrs. Tom Hopper, Ackery; Mrs. Otis Williams, Stanton; and Mrs. Lad Cauble and Mrs. Ava Lee Gunn, both of Big Spring.

The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of white gladioli and greenery. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple, and crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

Miss Iva Jo Brooks presided at the guest register. Others in the house party were Miss Joyce Gunn, Miss Judy Cauble and Mrs. Dickie Shortes. An out-of-town guest was Otis Williams of Stanton, grandfather of the bride.

PEOPLE HAD BOILS IN BIBLICAL TIMES

They are often mentioned in the Bible. A boil's redness, swelling, local "hotness," and great tenderness as a fluid-filled core develops, gives a picture of a typical infection. Boils are usually caused by a staphylococci variety of bacteria which remains confined to the area of their entry. It is called a boil when on the skin's surface, an abscess when it involves deep tissues. A carbuncle is a cluster of boils and a felon is a special type of boil affecting the thick tissues of the pad of a fingertip. Never squeeze a boil or a pimple. This spreads the infection. Diabetics, or patients with vascular disease, hardening of arteries or Buerger's disease require immediate medical attention.

Cleaning Cast Iron Skillets Is Satisfactory This Way

Dear Heloise:

How can I clean the baked-on grease off a black cast iron skillet? ... Mrs. Ely

If you are talking about the OUTSIDE of an iron skillet I suggest using oven cleaner. According to how old your skillet is and how thick the crust is, it might take more than one application. However, I have found this method extremely satisfactory and have used it often with the best results.

I do NOT suggest using oven cleaners INSIDE of any skillet. Lots of oven cleaners contain lye. As we all know, lye is poisonous.

And who wants the inside of a cast iron skillet shiny anyway? What we strive for and look for is an OLD skillet which has been broken in. This is called "seasoning."

The same applies to waffle irons. We receive many letters from people who want the inside of their waffle irons tight and silvery looking again. I wish I could trade my waffle iron for a used, broken-in one which is black on the inside. It makes far better waffles and cooks better with less sticking.

If you insist on the inside of your skillet being new looking again ... put the EMPTY (cast iron only) skillet in a bonfire or burning fireplace and leave it there awhile. After the fire dies and the skillet is cool, then scour it. But it will have to be reseasoned again. ... Heloise

Dear Heloise:

During the past cool months when we had our space heaters going, I put a bowl of water on top of them to add moisture to the dry air in our home. Then I added a bit of spicy cologne, a few cinnamon sticks or a few whole cloves.

This gives off a nice odor of freshness which is a bit unusual and lasts the day and night. It breaks up the stuffiness of a closed-up home. ... Fay Teets

Dear Heloise:

When I am preparing pancakes for breakfast, the first thing I do is take the syrup out of the refrigerator, stand the bottle in the sink and let the hot water run slowly over the entire bottle.

By the time the pancakes are ready to be served, the syrup is warm and running freely. It also penetrates the cakes more thoroughly. After all, who wants cold syrup on those nice hot cakes? ... Mayne

Nobody I guess.

Have you ever just tried putting the bottle in a pan or big can of hot water? Saves on the water bill.

Don't pour it out. Save it. After breakfast set the bottle

Assemble Supplies For Infant Bath

Before baby's bath time, assemble everything you'll need and place it where you can reach it with one hand. A written check list taped on the wall is a good way of double-checking that all equipment is nearby. Before diapering, apply a lotion of petroleum jelly on the diaper area and skin creases.

A LOVELIER YOU

Make Face Appear Naturally Beautiful

By MARY SUE MILLER

In the spring sunshine the ideal feminine face appears naturally beautiful — guiltless of makeup. Of course you guess that it takes a skilled hand of cosmetics and a deft choice to achieve the effect. And you are right.

Basic to the look are the new transparent foundations and lipsticks. These melt into the skin and leave behind only a flush of color that seems to spring from within.

To prepare the needy face for a see-through foundation, praise be there are undermake-up tones. Some foundations, although sheer, gloss over flaws. Owing to a high luminosity, gleamers do a wonderfully realistic contouring job.

All sheer foundations radiate a healthy glow, either a pink or a sunny one. Lipsticks leave a glistening stain of ripe peaches or red berries on the lips. But, unless the lips are smooth, they will need a colorless undercoat to supply a satin base for color.

Eyeshadow is in the natural scheme of things, too. Shades are truly shadowy — soft gray, taupe and beige. They call attention to the eyes, not to themselves.

To feather the eyebrows, brush on brows come in subtle colors like charcoal and taupe. A brand new cosmetic pales the darkling brow.

Can all that makeup look natural? Better than nature, no foolin'!

LOVELIER COMPLEXION Whatever your skin problems, to find a solution send for my booklet, "A Lovelier Complexion." Detailed advice contained includes the correct care for dry, oily, combination and normal skin types; proper application methods; treatments for blackheads, enlarged pores, circles, wrinkles, crepiness, etc. For your copy write Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin.

Guide To Glamour

Valtai Reeves

One of the most exciting and rewarding of the feminine arts is make-up. Consult the services of a personal beautician then learn and practice this ancient art in your own home. Remember the cardinal rule of make-up — and of all beauty arts — it should not be obvious. Rather, your grooming and make-up must be subtle, emphasizing your assets and quietly pushing into the background those little blemishes and structural defects that detract from the totality of the picture of loveliness you wish to present. So integrate your make-up, affect that quiet metamorphosis which makes you and your features naturally lovely. Financing arranged on approved credit.

Match Make-Up With Your Face

If yours is a round face, avoid highly arched eyebrows and the round-eyed look.

Instead, concentrate mascara on your outer lashes and pluck beneath your brows for a short, straight brow line.

For a square face, keep eyebrows and lipline rounded. For an oblong face, avoid peeked or droopy brows and a pointed bow mouth.

Chin long? Draw lower lip to look as full as possible.

The right hairdo can also balance face shapes and compensate for imperfect features.

Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Rau, 1742 Purdue, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Floretta, to Jimmie Leon Parrish son of Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Parrish, Snyder Hwy. The couple plans to marry June 7 in the Gollad Assembly of God Church with the Rev. Melvin McKnight as officiant.

Period Mixing Is Tops In Fashion

The style of decorating that advocates mixing periods is so overwhelmingly endorsed now by professional interior designers and amateurs alike that it is unquestionably "the fashion" for this and many years to come.

While there is no denying that rooms designed with furnishings drawn from just one mode have a certain coherence and historical value, there are infinitely more advantages and rewards in a decor that blends the best of several periods. Not the least of these being the richness and individual character that can thus be attained.

For the young couple, the bachelor or career girl with limited means, this style of furnishing has other appeals. For one thing, dramatic effects can often be achieved for relatively little money. Unusual furniture and accessories of many different persuasions found in antique shops, secondhand stores, thrift shops and the like frequently cost a great deal less than in more conventional retail stores.

Gift Party Held For Miss Sue Hickman

Miss Sue Hickman, bride-elect of Ronnie Reagan, was honored Thursday evening with a gift shower in the Pioneer Gas Flame Room from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

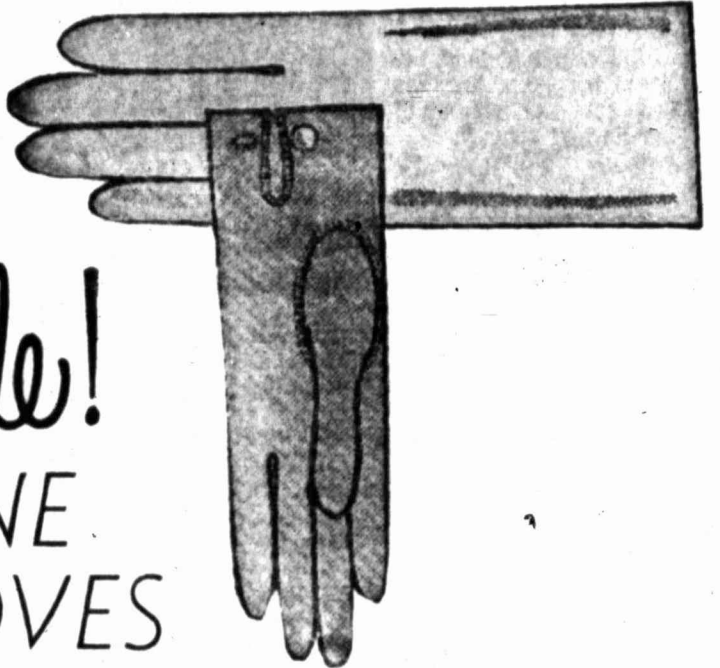

The sixteen hostesses presented the honoree with an electric mixer.

Miss Hickman, who was attired in a white knit sheath with three-quarter length sleeves, received a green carnation corsage, and white carnation corsages were given to her mother, Mrs. Max Hickman of Midland, and her fiancé's mother, Mrs. E. T. Reagan of Big Spring. The prospective bridegroom's sister, Miss Treonnie Reagan, attended the bride's book.

The refreshment table was covered with a white satin cloth overlaid with net and edged with yellow bows. The centerpiece was a honeycomb bride placed against a yellow heart bordered with roses and greenery. The crystal candle holders held yellow tapers, and other appointments were of silver and crystal.

The couple plans to be married April 13.

PLANNING TO RETIRE IN NOVEMBER

Lamar Marks 31st Anniversary

By JERRY MONSON
 Jones Lamar, superintendent of the city's sewage treatment plant, marks an important day Monday.

PLANS RETIREMENT NOV. 30
 Jones Lamar, city employe for 31 years Monday

It's Good Year For Fertilizer

Paul Gross, county farm agent, stressed Saturday that use of fertilizers on dryland crops this year can give the crops a real boost.

"The favorable subsoil moisture situation," he said, "makes it the best year in a long time for the use of fertilizers on dryland fields."

He quoted Jim Valentine, extension area soil chemist at the South Plains Research and Extension Center, Lubbock.

Valentine, Gross said, declares a good return can be expected from the dollars invested in fertilizer in sandy areas for both cotton and grain sorghum.

He emphasizes the importance of considering past yields in determining the amount of fertilizer to apply. If yields have been inadequate during good crop seasons, fertilizer will likely pay some dividends.

Cotton has responded profitably to 20-40 pounds of nitrogen per acre in many instances, says Valentine, but phosphorus should not be overlooked. He points out that some sandy soils are so deficient in this element that crop response will not be realized from nitrogen until the phosphorus level is brought into balance.

A soil test by Extension Soil Testing Laboratory at the SPREC is the best guide for determining the need for phosphorus, explains the soil chemist. If the element is deficient, 20-30 pounds per acre is usually adequate. Fertilizer may be applied pre-plant or as an early sidedress soon after a stand is assured.

The seeding rate of dryland grain sorghum is also an important matter, points out the soil chemist. Two to three pounds of seed is generally adequate for near maximum-dryland production. Higher plant populations from higher seeding rates increases root competition, thereby resulting in greater drought hazard and decreased yields.

Valentine adds that the Lubbock Soil Testing Laboratory is presently current with its work and that results on soil samples can be obtained in about a week. Information on collecting and mailing soil samples can be obtained at the local county Extension office.

reer with the City of Big Spring, painting parking lines on city streets. He will retire Nov. 30 to an activity he looks forward to—playing with his grandchildren.

IN 1907

The son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Lamar of Callahan County, he was born in Cross Plains. His father operated a fuel yard, feed and grocery business there, and the family came to Big Spring in 1907.

Lamar attended schools here, where he was active on the football squad for three years. He was employed by the Texas & Pacific Railway Co., Badford Grocery Co. and Cosden Oil & Chemical Co. before joining the growing force of city employes.

During the war years, there was a massive turnover in laborers for the city, Lamar said, and many employes left and did not come back. It was in 1942 that he was transferred to the sewage treatment plant, after working with both the water and street departments of the city.

The operation of a sewage treatment plant is about as technical as a scientific laboratory—which is what it really is, Lamar points out. The superintendent of a plant is required by state law to be licensed, but all four operators—under Lamar's direction—have obtained their licenses on their own time, he says with pride.

There are four pumps and 42 motors in the plant, all of which have to be packed and greased and maintained every day. In addition, there is a mountain of paperwork to be tackled and all sorts of tests which have to be carefully run each day.

To measure the alkaline or acidity content of the raw sewage which flows through the plant, there is a Ph meter instead of the old litmus paper—which is faster, more efficient, more accurate, and, in the long run, more economical, Lamar said. The operators have to see that the content is always more alkaline than acid, Lamar said, in order to meet state health department standards.

The plant itself is equipped to handle 4,500,000 gallons of sewage daily although it presently handles an average of 2,750,000 gallons per day.

Lamar is looking forward to "breaking my new replacement in." He has slowed down a bit in the past two years, since his heart attack, and still feels the effects of two operations in 1962 which kept him away from the plant for seven months.

His wife, Hazel, has been with Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for 39 years and will retire in eight more years, he said. His plans after November are a bit uncertain right now—but the grandchildren, of whom there are three, and his one great-grandchild and another one expected soon, will come first. His daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sanders, lives in Andrews, and her daughter, Mrs. Tony Hamilton, lives in Odessa.

YARD WORK

He's not much for fishing or hunting, but perhaps he'll do a little bit of yard work at the family home at 604 Lancaster.

Whatever he does, it will be a change from the day-in-day-out routine he has known for so long.

"I have mixed emotions about retiring," he said. "Of course, I'll enjoy it, but I'll miss being around the old plant—and I'll miss my uniform most of all."

Dental Society Seminar Set

The Permian Basin District Dental Society will hold an all day seminar at the Veterans Administration Hospital Tuesday on the "Systemic Disorders as Reflected in the Oral Cavity."

The meeting will open at 9 a.m. Dr. Arthur Grollman will be speaker, and lead a question and answer session in the afternoon. The reception at Webb Air Force Base will be followed by dinner at 6 p.m. A short business meeting will close the session.

Dr. Grollman is the professor of Experimental Medicine at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical College. He is a diplomate of the American Board of Internal Medicine and a fellow of the American College of Physicians. He is national civilian consultant to the surgeon general of the U.S. Air Force, the Veterans Administration, U.S. Public Health Hospital and the Food and Drug Administration. He is the author of over 400 scientific articles and 13 medical text books.

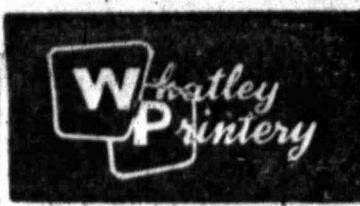

On Wednesday and Thursday Dr. Grollman will serve as physician-in-residence at the VA Hospital.

New Commander Will Take Over

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—A new commander will take over the 313th Tactical Airlift Wing at Forbes Air Force Base here Saturday. He is Col. William A. Detrich, now at Dyess at Abilene, Tex. He replaces reassigned Col. Marion Caruthers.

Attends Confab

James Green Jr., chief of Engineering Division at the Veterans Administration Hospital, will attend the engineer officers' conference to be held in Chicago, Ill., on April 10-12.

Chevelle's new style, power and road stance aren't the only reasons it's the most popular mid-size car.

Chevelle SS 396 Sport Coupe (foreground) and Malibu Sport Coupe.

One more reason: Its prices start a full $100 lower than any competitive models.

Why is Chevelle so popular? It's a quick-size car, yet it's got big-car ride. That's because its wide stance chassis has a full coil spring at each wheel.

Chevelle offers a choice of wheelbases, too: 112 inches for coupes and convertibles and four inches more for sedans and wagons.

Chevelle is popular because it performs. In the recent NASCAR sanctioned Union/Pure Oil Performance Trials, a Chevelle SS 396 won the Sports Intermediate Class, placing first in both economy and braking.

In the Intermediate 6-Cylinder Class, a Chevelle 300 also outperformed all the others, scoring the highest number of total points in the economy, acceleration and braking tests.

Popular, too, is Chevelle's price. It starts lower than the competitors', so you can order one equipped the way you want it without bending your budget.

'THE PRESIDENT'S ANALYST'
James Coburn and Joan Delaney

Coburn Established As Leading Star

While thousands of youngsters dream of someday becoming motion picture stars and enjoying the luxuries which accompany fame and fortune, James Coburn has found there is another side to "the sweet life."

Coburn, who once was down to his last $21, has firmly established himself as one of the screen's most sought after leading men and enhances his position with "The President's Analyst," opening today at the Ritz Theatre.

Coburn's new film, following his fine comic portrayal in "Waterhole No. 3," also demonstrates the actor's unusual versatility. In "The President's Analyst," Coburn is cast as a Manhattan psychiatrist who becomes confidant to the President of the United States and is embroiled in a series of comic and exciting adventures.

With his recently attained, lofty position in the screen world, Coburn finds he has lost the opportunity to enjoy many of the simple pleasures which he previously took for granted. He learned he can no longer sit, undisturbed, in his favorite restaurant and enjoy dinner without being confronted by his fans.

Coburn does not mind the adulation nor does he dislike being identified with the slick, super spy, Derek Flint, he played in two previous films. "I'm grateful for that character. I'd be crazy not to be. Before, it was the same for me as for most other actors out here. Somebody handed me a script and said 'Here, man. Do your job.' But now, it's an entirely different story. I feel like I have some control now, something to say about character development and putting together the total package. It's a good feeling."

"I can't go into a department store to buy things anymore. And people on the street will often come up to me and slap me on the back as if they owned me. Once, in New York, I happened to look back while walking down Fifth Avenue and people had turned around for a half-block, staring."

Oscar Nominee At Jet Tonight

Audrey Hepburn has been nominated for a "Best Actress" Academy Award for her performance in "Wait Until Dark," which returns to the Jet Theatre screen tonight, playing through Tuesday.

The suspense - thriller in Technicolor is based on Frederick Knott's Broadway play. She portrays a recently - blinded housewife who is terrorized by three thugs invading her home.

Led by Alan Arkin, as a deranged killer, the trio (including Richard Crenna and Jack Weston) seek a child's musical doll which is stuffed with smuggled heroin. The missing doll triggers off a series of violent deaths. To force Miss Hepburn into giving up the doll, which she does not actually have, Arkin menaces her with a flaming newspaper.

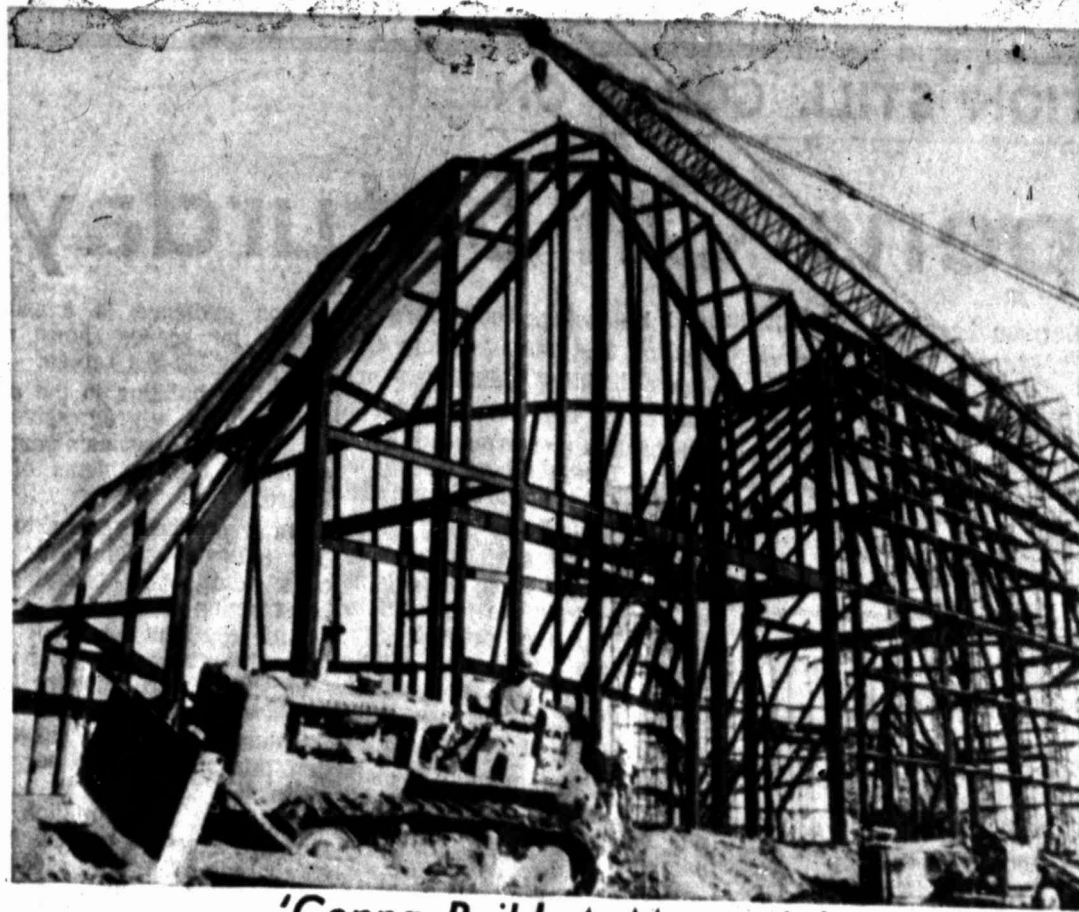

To ensure her safety during filming of the scene, Miss Hepburn's clothing (corduroy levis and Shetland sweater in this case) were fireproofed. Once before, Miss Hepburn was fireproofed. That time, it was her costumes for the Academy Award-winning musical film, "My Fair Lady."

Parade Brings In $735.80

Mrs. Dwight McCann, chairman of the door-to-door parade for the Easter Seal Drive, reports $735.80 has been reported to date. The Big Spring area report was $450.94, Sand Springs turned in $172.90, and Coahoma $112.56.

The parade was part of the Easter Seal Drive now in progress to raise money for the program of the Howard County Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Miss Bo Bowen is chairman.

If you were not at home when the solicitation was made, contributions may be sent to Mrs. T. A. Harris, general chairman of the drive, Box 1486, Big Spring, or take them to the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, 306 W. 3rd.

'Gonna Build A Mountain'

Framework for a 65-foot mountain has been erected at Astroworld, the multimillion dollar family amusement and entertainment center just south of the Astrodome in Houston. The mountain will be part of the Alpine Sleigh Ride and will include a waterfall.

Passengers in sleighs will go on a cool ride through the mountain at sub-freezing temperatures, and even have snow blown in their faces. Astroworld will open Saturday, June 1.

'Cool Hand Luke' Picked For Six Academy Awards

"Cool Hand Luke," which opens Wednesday at the Jet Theatre and plays through Saturday, has been nominated for four Academy Awards and two of its stars have also won award nominations.

Paul Newman has been nominated for best actor, and George Kennedy has been nominated for best supporting actor.

The film called for a special set to be erected. On the hot delta plain just north of Stockton, Calif., in a wooded area traversed by a gravel road, a sign, "Department of Corrections, Road Prison 36," designated an odd chain-gang camp. It was erected as an "authentic" setting for the Panavision-Technicolor film.

Since there are no actual road prison camps operating in California, the Stockton area was chosen for its forbidding atmosphere as production locale.

The camp is the principal setting. Newman portrays the title role. He's an eternal rebel, a man of fierce individualism and incorrigible independence, who becomes a legend among the other prisoners. The camp itself is a triumph of instant aging - dismal, rickety and primitive. Surrounded by about a mile of barbed wire, the camp encompasses a dozen buildings, including a barracks, mess hall, warden's quarters, work shops, guard shack, dog kennel and "the box," a punishment confine.

Green grass was placed around the camp and adjacent to the dusty roads. And from the giant oak trees, moss danced delicately in the breeze, just as it does in the South, where the "Cool Hand Luke" camp supposedly is located. Fifty bales of moss, weighing almost a ton, were shipped in from Louisiana and festooned on the trees, virtually strand by strand.

Featured in the new film are Judy Geeson, Christian Roberts, Suzy Kendall, the "Mindbenders," British recording team, and "Lulu," a young British television pop singer.

Between these roles as student and as teacher, Poitier has moved to the front rank of the world's film stars. He won his first acting award at the Venice Film Festival with his performance in "Something of Value." "The Defiant Ones" earned him the coveted Best Actor award at the Berlin Film Festival. His performance on Broadway as the star of "A Raisin in the Sun," gained him the Broadway Critics' Circle Drama Award, and he subsequently starred in a memorable filmization of the play, "Lilies of the Field" won Poitier the Academy Award as best actor. CONSTRUCTION STILL GOING ON

HemisFair Opens On Saturday

By PAUL RECER
SAN ANTONIO (AP)—HemisFair '68, San Antonio's six-month birthday party with the whole world invited, opens Saturday with band music, speeches, ribbon-cutting and—back out of sight somewhere—the continued sound of construction.

Simultaneous ceremonies at five gates, including one led by the governor, will open HemisFair at 9 a.m. sharp.

More than 69,000 persons are expected to flock onto the grounds Saturday. Most are expected to be San Antonians coming out to see what all the construction noise, blocked streets and dust of the last two years is all about.

They'll find 92.6 acres crammed with exhibits from 17 industrial firms, two states, three churches and from 32 foreign countries. They'll find machines that weave cloth and play games and teach. And furniture made of paper, the works of Spanish master painters, oriental sculpture, and Mexican Indians daring death atop a 114-foot pole.

And they'll find hundreds of exhibits explaining where Americans came from and why.

There'll be boats cruising two lagoons, cable cars and monorail trains overhead and elevators on the Tower of the Americas that will shoot 27 persons 600 feet upward in less than a minute.

The opening-day fairgoers will sample tons of food prepared from recipes from around the world. They'll be able to drink Texas beer served in a German beer garden built 100 years ago by Mexican-American laborers. They'll learn the real meaning of the fair's theme, "The Confluence of Civilizations," in exhibits by foreign nations boasting how they helped build Western civilization.

The biggest braggart of all will be Texas. The state's $10 million Institute of Texan Cultures building dominates one end of the fair behind an earthen bank and surrounded by a pool. A fountain there will throw water 50 feet upward in a ballet of patterns.

Inside the exhibit, visitors will be able to trace the origins of Texas—from the time before history to the present day. Twenty-five racial and ethnic groups will be studied in exhibits and in special film presentations flashed on screens.

The largest film study of civilization's western development will be in the $6.7 million U.S. pavilion.

The two-part exhibit features a $3 million theater.

A movie, by academy award winner Francis Thompson, is shown in three phases to an audience divided into three parts. Early portions of the film are on small screens. As the film goes into its final phase, the film goes to the 1,200-person audience is joined together for scenes shown on a vast 50-by-150-foot screen.

Another building in the pavilion features a progressive exhibit tracing America's past and exploring the problems of the future.

Many of those going to the fair Saturday, HemisFair officials admit, will probably be construction workers.

With less than a week left before the gates open, officials said, there are hundreds of small jobs yet unfinished.

Officials predict, however, that things will be 95 per cent completed Saturday.

More than seven million persons are expected to view HemisFair before it closes Oct. 6. More than 1.3 million of these are expected to be out-of-state U.S. visitors bringing $9 million into Texas.

The Department of Commerce estimates the fair will contribute more than $38.6 million to the favorable side of the balance of payments. And the total effect on the San Antonio economy is estimated at $174 million.

MEN IN SERVICE

Capt. Emmett J. Baker Jr. is a member of the 4th Tactical Fighter Wing that deployed from Seymour Johnson AFB, N.C., to Korea during the build-up of U.S. forces triggered by the North Korean crisis. Capt. Baker, a pilot, and his 1,200-person audience is joined together for scenes shown on a vast 50-by-150-foot screen.
