Highlights Of Civil Rights Bill Okayed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Highlights of the civil rights bill passed Wednesday by the House and soon to be signed into law by President Johnson:

OPEN HOUSING—Bans discrimination in the sale or rental of 88 per cent of the nation's housing. Only exceptions: owners of single-family houses who sell or rent without services of real-estate agent, owner-occupant of multiple-unit dwelling with up to four units, and private club housing.

CIVIL RIGHTS—Protection—Makes it a federal crime to interfere by threats or violence with anyone engaged in lawfully protected activity. Designed to protect civil rights workers and Negroes exercising rights enumerated in previous civil rights laws.

ANTI-RIOT LAW—Makes it a federal crime to cross state line to incite, organize or participate in a riot. Also outlaws making or transporting firearms with knowledge they are to be used in riot.

INDIAN RIGHTS—Extends protection of Bill of Rights to American Indians in relation to their tribes. Gives right to vote on whether to come under state rather than federal jurisdiction. (See story on Page 1B.)

Not Much Of A Bomb

HOUSTON (AP)—Police and FBI agents arrested a man Wednesday who threatened to blow up the downtown Bank of Texas with a homemade bomb in a paper sack.

The bomb turned out to be a loaf of bread and three bananas, officers said.

Charged with attempted robbery by assault was Curtis Arthur Morrell, 22, of Portland, Ore. Bond was set at $2,500.

Roy E. Dittfurth, an assistant vice president, said a bearded man in cowboy clothes passed him a note demanding $100,000.

"Well, at least I'm going to get a shower and some food," the suspect was quoted as saying.

Luna Orbits Moon

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government confirmed today that Luna 14 has gone into orbit around the moon.

The announcement by Tass, the Soviet news agency, gave no indication that any attempt would be made to bring the unmanned moon shot back to earth, something that is considered a necessary step toward putting a man on the moon but has never been done.

Britain's Jodrell Bank Observatory reported Wednesday night that Luna 14 had apparently gone into orbit around the moon.

Luna 14 was sent up last Sunday.

Employment Rises

WASHINGTON (AP)—The nation's employment rose to a record high of 75.8 million in March and unemployment declined but the jobless rate for Negroes continued at more than double the rate for white workers, the Labor Department reports.

The total number of unemployed dipped by 359,000 to 2,929,000 last month, bringing the over-all unemployment rate from 3.7 to 3.6 per cent of the civilian labor force.

To Reconvene

CHICAGO (AP)—Gov. Otto Kerner is reconvening the President's Commission on Civil Disorders to study the outbreak of violence that followed the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the Chicago Tribune said today.

The story quoted Kerner, commission chairman, as saying he had sent telegrams to all commission members notifying them that the commission will be reconvened.

"I set no date for the commission to meet," Kerner was quoted as saying.

Bodies Recovered

WELLINGTON, New Zealand (AP)—Police said today 46 bodies have been recovered from the ferry Wahine and only 13 persons are still missing.

This sharply reduced earlier police estimates that the dead might reach 100 or more.

The 8,944-ton ocean-going ferry hit a shoal just inside Wellington Harbor Wednesday during one of the worst storms in New Zealand's history and capsized six hours later a mile offshore.

Plane Crashes

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A DC3 passenger plane with 18 persons aboard, including two prominent government officials, apparently crashed Wednesday night while on its final approach to land at Mexico City.

Unconfirmed reports said the wreckage had been located near Villa de Carbon, 50 miles northwest of the capital and there was no sign of survivors.

U. S. Prefers Neutral Site For 'Talks'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Despite an official Hanoi proposal that peace talk preliminaries be held in Warsaw, Poland, a White House spokesman said today this government is pressing for "an appropriate site in neutral territory."

Presidential press secretary George Christian told reporters that the selection of a neutral site "should be achieved promptly through mutual agreement" with no effort on either side to make the site selection a propaganda matter.

REJECTION

This apparently represented a rejection, for the present at least, of a Hanoi proposal, first disclosed through the Russian news agency Tass.

Christian said the Tass report was "later confirmed by a message received through our embassy at Vientiane, Laos."

"The United States government has proposed a number of neutral countries as possible sites for contacts, and we have not yet had any response to this proposal," Christian said, reading carefully from a prepared script.

"On serious matters of this kind, it is important to conduct talks in a neutral atmosphere fair to both sides."

When asked to whom the statement should be attributed, Christian said to himself, "Pressed again on this point, he insisted 'it is my personal statement.'"

REFUSED

Beyond that, the press secretary refused to elaborate in any way upon the statement in spite of reporters' insistence that he indicate whether it represented a flat turn-down of the new North Vietnamese proposal and that he provide some definition of what a "neutral" country would be.

He did state that the neutral sites suggested by this country had all been proposed before the North Vietnamese proposal came, and that no additional sites had been suggested since.

The Warsaw report came in a dispatch from Hanoi by Tass.

Tass said in a dispatch from Hanoi it had learned from reliable sources there that the North Vietnamese government had decided on the Polish capital after the United States refused its first suggestion, Phnom Penh, the Cambodian capital.

Lull In Fighting Helps Reduce Troop Casualties

SAIGON (AP) — The number of American troops killed in combat in Vietnam last week was the lowest in 2½ months, the U.S. Command announced today.

U.S. headquarters said 279 U.S. troops were killed in combat during the week that ended last Saturday at midnight. It was the lowest toll since the start of the Viet Cong's big lunar new year offensive on Jan. 29.

DEVELOPING

Gen. William C. Westmoreland's headquarters said the drop reflected a lull in the fighting that has been developing for the past month. However, the number of U.S. wounded last week totaled 3,190, only 696 less than the week before, and the South Vietnamese command said its dead increased, from 393 the week before to 407 last week.

Enemy casualties also were considerable, although the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands could not agree on the figure. The Americans reported 2,251 enemy killed last week. The South Vietnamese reported 4,012. The reports of enemy dead from the two commands frequently differ, but usually not by that much.

Military spokesman said government troops had been very active, particularly in the Mekong Delta below Saigon, and had engaged the enemy in a number of small skirmishes.

ATTACKS

One explanation for the higher number of American wounded was that despite the absence of major ground fighting, the enemy continued harassing attacks by artillery, rockets and mortars. Such attacks usually result in a high number of wounded from flying shrapnel.

In a special casualty report, the U.S. Command said 93 American troops were killed during the 76-day siege of Khe Sanh and 400 wounded troops were evacuated from the Ma-

Clifford Calls 24,500 Reservists For Duty

Four Texas Units Being Activated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford today announced he is calling to active duty about 24,500 Army, Navy and Air Force reservists. About 10,000 will go to South Vietnam.

In his first full-dress news conference, the new defense secretary said that President Johnson intends at this time to limit U.S. forces in Vietnam to 549,500—representing an increase of 24,500 over the present ceiling.

LINKED

Clifford linked this presidential decision to limit further U.S. deployment to another major decision "to turn over the major effort gradually to the South Vietnamese."

The new secretary, in office only six weeks, said the decision to move toward turning over the biggest part of the war effort to Vietnam has been made after months of consultations with the Vietnamese and took into account the Saigon government's decision to boost its forces by 135,000 men.

The new Pentagon chief said the 24,500 Army, Navy and Air Force reservists being called to duty for up to 24 months are in some 88 units.

"Each man will have a minimum of 30 days' notice before reporting," Clifford said.

Johnson in February called to active duty 14,787 air reservists in the wake of the North Korean seizure of the intelligence ship Pueblo.

TEXANS

AUSTIN (AP) — A 140-man unit of the Texas National Guard is one of four Texas units in the call-up of 24,500 reservists across the country, the Texas National Guard said today.

The unit is the 113th Light Maintenance Company, which is split between Gatesville and Lampasas, with two-thirds of the men in Gatesville. The 113th will report to Ft. Hood May 13, Guard headquarters said.

Two San Antonio military reserve units—including one with some Vietnam support time in the past—were among the Texas units called to active duty.

The Defense Department called up the Army's 238th Composite Service Co. and the 34th Aero-Medical Evacuation Squadron, an Air Force unit.

Both units will report to active duty May 13.

The other Texas outfit called is the 22d Mobile Construction Battalion, Naval Reserve.

Pinned By Snipers

National Guardsmen were pinned down by snipers at 31st Street and Benton Boulevard Wednesday night as fire and smoke pour from a building in the background. Officers said some of the fire bombs were thrown into buildings to get them to come within range of waiting snipers.

Kansas City Rioting Claims 5 More; Nation's Total 39

By The Associated Press

Five Negroes died during a second night of racial violence in Kansas City but elsewhere there were only scattered and sporadic incidents as the nation's troubled cities edged back toward normalcy.

The deaths raised to 39 the national toll in the wave of rioting and disorders that followed the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. one week ago today.

ALL SHOT

All of the Kansas City victims were shot to death. Some apparently were caught in the crossfire that flared at times between snipers and police supported by National Guardsmen.

More than 75 fires of incendiary origin were reported.

At least 20 persons, including two guardsmen, were injured, and police and guard troops battled snipers shooting from rooftop vantage points and from moving cars. Sixty persons were arrested.

Snipers challenged police and guardsmen from rooftops and cars, shooting and running or driving from vantage point to vantage point. The snipers were countered with tear gas and by strike forces of police rifle squads and supporting guardsmen. Other police officers served as rooftop spotters for their riflemen below.

In Newark city officials imposed a limited curfew for the early morning hours in a small section of the city. There were scattered reports of looting but otherwise the city remained calm.

A total of 47,000 National Guardsmen remained committed to riot control duty in 15 states and the District of Columbia. There were also 20,000 federal troops in Washington, Chicago and Baltimore.

The nation's capital passed its first business day without major incident. It was expected the 14,000 troops would be released soon from their patrol duties which already have been reduced.

Mayor Walter E. Washington said the curfew would be further eased if the peace continues. Three days of violence beginning last Thursday took seven lives and left more than 1,000 persons injured.

Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley lifted the curfew for minors which was set Saturday and said the 11,900 federal troops and guardsmen may begin withdrawing from the city soon.

NO LIMIT

The decision, he said, will be made by the superintendent of police and the military. "I don't think we should put any time limit on it." Eleven persons were killed and some 500 injured during the two days of violence.

A dusk to dawn curfew was lifted in Pittsburgh but 4,473 guardsmen remained in the city with no immediate indication of when they would be withdrawn.

His First Oscar

Rod Steiger, the gruff Southern sheriff of "In the Heat of the Night," is a proud man as he displays the Oscar he won last night for the role.

'HEAT OF THE NIGHT' Some Oscars Surprising

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — "In the Heat of the Night" won five Oscars, including best picture acclaim and best-actor honors for Rod Steiger, at the 40th Academy Awards ceremony.

Katharine Hepburn, 58, was named 1967's best motion picture actress as a perplexed mother whose daughter plans to marry a Negro in "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner."

FEW SURPRISES
The accolades of movieland were scattered, and there were a few surprises Wednesday night. Considered hotter contenders than Hepburn were Faye Dunaway of the explosive "Bonnie and Clyde" and Anne Bancroft, the neurotic who seduces a youth half her age in "The Graduate."

Steiger was acclaimed by Sidney Poitier, the boyfriend taken home to "Dinner" and the Negro costar of Steiger in "Heat" this way:

"He's probably the greatest actor in the world."

In accepting his award, Steiger thanked Poitier for giving him understanding of racial prejudice.

Both "In the Heat of the Night" and "Guess Who's Coming to Dinner" dealt with the racial problem.
Mike Nichols, 37, nominated a year ago for "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?," won this time among directors for his second film, "The Graduate."

Supporting honors went to George Kennedy, the chain gang convict of "Cool Hand Luke" and to Broadway's Estelle Parsons in "Bonnie and Clyde," her second movie and first important film role.

Steiger, the southern sheriff who reluctantly lets Poitier, a Negro detective from Philadelphia, help him solve a crime, nosed out two other also favored nominees: Dustin Hoffman as a confused youth in "The Graduate" and Warren Beatty as the ruthless bank robber Clyde Barrow in "Bonnie and Clyde."

HOPE PRESIDES

The glittering motion picture Academy Awards, televised and broadcast through the United States and Canada, were presided over for the 14th time by Bob Hope.

COL. W. C. MCGLOTHLIN

Col. McGlothlin Takes Over Monday

Webb AFB's new wing commander, Col. William C. McGlothlin Jr., brings nearly a quarter of a century of military aviation experience with him.

He is to take charge of the base officially Monday. Since December, 1966, he has been serving as deputy commander operations at Reese AFB in Lubbock. Col. McGlothlin succeeds Col. Chester J. Butcher, who has directed the base here since December, 1965. Col. Butcher, whose elevation to brigadier general will become effective this weekend, goes to Washington, D.C., as deputy director of the Defense Communications Planning Group.

TEXAN

Col. McGlothlin is a native of Corsicana, where he attended school until 1938. He took his high school diploma from Kemper Military School and attended its junior college division until he was named to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, where he graduated in 1944 with a BS degree. He earned a master of science degree from the University of George Washington and has done graduate work at the University of Hawaii and Texas Tech. Col. McGlothlin also is a graduate of the Squadron Officers course, the Command and Staff College, Air War College, National War College.

Following his commissioning at West Point, he took his pilot training in Smyrna AAB, Tenn., and then was a B-24 instructor pilot there. He has been stationed at Maxwell AAB, Ala.; MacDill AAB, Fla.; Great Bend AAB, Kan.; Salin AAB, Love AAF, Memphis, Tenn.; AAF, West Palm Beach AB, Fla.; North Field, Guam; Andrews AFB, Md.; Washington, D.C.; Perrin AFB; Langley AFB, Va.; Stead AFB, Nev.; Pusan, Korea; Air Force Academy at Colorado Springs, Colo.; headquarters Pacific Air Force, Hawaii; and Cam Ranh Bay, Vietnam.

COMBAT

He commanded the 37th light bombardment squadron at Pusan and has 86 combat missions to his credit. His total flying time runs past 6,000 hours and encompasses craft from single engine to multi-jet propulsion.

Among his assignments was that of administrative secretary of the Joint Chiefs of Staff at the Pentagon. At the AAF Academy he was director of physical education. He also served as vice commander of the 12th Tactical Fighter Wing at MacDill AFB and of the same unit at Cam Ranh Bay.

His numerous decorations include the Legion of Merit, Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Force Medal. (See WEBB, Pg. 5-A, Col. 4)

Military Reshuffle Made By 'Lame Duck' President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has moved quickly to replace Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien, first Cabinet casualty of his "lame duck" administration, while making official the expected appointment of Gen. Creighton W. Abrams as U.S. commander in Vietnam.

The President told White House newsmen Wednesday he had accepted O'Brien's resignation and had nominated W. Marvin Watson, now presidential appointments secretary, to fill the Cabinet post.

ABRAMS NAMED
In addition to naming Abrams, 53, to take over for Gen. William C. Westmoreland when he becomes Army chief of staff in July, Johnson picked Adm. John S. McCain, 57, now commander of U.S. naval forces in Europe, to succeed retiring Adm. U.S. Grant Sharp as commander in chief, Pacific.

The military reshuffle also involved Johnson's naming of Gen. Andrew J. Goodpaster, now commander of the National War College in Washington and staff secretary to former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, to succeed Abrams as deputy U.S. commander in Vietnam. Johnson, who has said he won't seek or accept nomination for another term, took note of his "lame duck" status in announcing O'Brien's resignation.

He said that when the postmaster general spoke to him earlier in the day about resigning, he told O'Brien "that since I was not going to be a candidate for re-election, I realize the Cabinet had made many sacrifices... and that now was the time for any of them to make decisions concerning their families and their future."

TO JOIN RFK
The President wouldn't discuss O'Brien's future plans but aides of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy said the postmaster general would soon join the New York Democratic presidential nomination. Johnson's choice of Watson

LBJ Taps Texan For Cabinet Duty

WASHINGTON (AP) — W. Marvin Watson, a quiet, economy-minded businessman and politician with a cherubic smile, is the latest in a string of loyal Texans tapped for Cabinet duty by President Johnson.

The 43-year-old presidential appointments secretary, who comes from the little sawmill village of Oakhurst, Tex., was nominated Wednesday by Johnson to be the nation's new postmaster general, subject to Senate confirmation.

He would succeed Lawrence F. O'Brien, who resigned earlier in the day.

WHITE HOUSE JOB
For the past two years, Watson, a former executive assistant to the president of Lone Star Steel Co. in Dallas, has held the influential White House job of helping to decide who gets to talk with Johnson.

Although he has never run for public life, Watson has been active in Democratic politics since the early 1950s, when he became Chamber of Commerce manager, city secretary and city judge in Daingerling, Tex.

SOLD AIDS
A Marine veteran of World War II, he came out of service to work his way through Baylor University by selling coveralls and arranging dances. He earned a masters degree in economics there, taught in the economics department for two terms and spent nine months as O'Brien's successor drew favorable comment from members of the Senate, which must confirm the nomination.

O'Brien issued a statement saying he was pleased with the choice of Watson, a native of Oakhurst, Tex., who has served as White House appointments secretary for two years.

O'Brien, 51, named postmaster general in 1965, directed Johnson's 1964 presidential campaign. He had served as congressional liaison for President John F. Kennedy and played a major strategy role in Kennedy's 1960 campaign.

By 1958, he had come up through the ranks to membership on the Texas State Democratic Executive Committee and became its chairman in 1964.

Watson is married to the former Marion Baugh, and they have three children: Winston, 21-year-old University of Maryland student; Kimberly, 17, who attends Mount Vernon Seminary; and 4-year-old William Marvin Watson III.

Oil Producer Plugged Back

Monsanto Oil Co. has completed the No. 9 Phillips as a Howard - Glasscock field producer for 67 barrels of 30-gravity oil and 36 barrels of water per day.

Total depth was 2,450 feet, plugged back to 2,415, with a seven-inch casing set at 2,442 feet. Perforations were from 1,685 - 2,324 feet, and the gas-oil ratio was too small to measure.

Operator acidized with 1,500 gallons and fractured with 2,500 gallons, 2,500 pounds sand, and 7,500 gallons acid.

Location is 452 feet from the north line and 330 feet from the east line of section 23-33-28, T&P survey.

Locations have been staked in Howard and Martin counties. Sunray DX Oil Co. has staked the No. 49-B-D-E Dora Roberts to cable to 2,650 feet in the Howard-Glasscock field. Location is 990 feet from the south line and 1,750 feet from the east line of section 136-29, W&NW survey, one mile southwest of Forsan.

Midland Slates Water Election

MIDLAND — The Midland city council has approved plans for a water treatment plant and set May 16 as time for receiving and opening bids. The plant is due to be ready for use by Jan. 1, 1970, when Midland will begin receiving water from the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

The council also set April 18 as the time for calling a bond election to finance the plant and other water and sewer improvements.

Rockefeller Draft Drive Is Under Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — Encouraged by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's latest pronouncements of presidential availability, Republicans who want the New Yorker nominated for the White House have unleashed a new promotional effort.

Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky announced formation of a Rockefeller-for-President Committee and said it would include a group of political and business leaders prominent in the GOP.

He scheduled a news conference for today to announce the committee's makeup.

Even as that announcement was being drafted, a source close to Rockefeller said it's probably too late to stop the march of Richard M. Nixon toward the Republican nomination.

Morton said the movement he announced was a spontaneous draft, an effort of which Rockefeller has been advised in advance.

"He understands that it has been undertaken to persuade him to become a candidate and to persuade the Republican party, through our delegates to the national convention, to nominate him," Morton said.

J. Irwin Miller, a Columbus, Ind., businessman, is expected to be named today to head the new Rockefeller committee.

Senate Republican sources said the lineup of leaders also would include GOP Sens. James B. Pearson of Kansas and Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania, along with former party chairman William E. Miller, Leonard W. Hall and Meade Alcorn and businessman Walter Thayer of New York.

"I have said that I was available if the party wanted me," Rockefeller told a Wednesday news conference in a Senate hallway.

Candidate Welcomed

Mayor Arnold Marshall welcomes Eugene Locke Wednesday as the candidate arrived at Howard County Airport. County Judge Lee Porter (left) looks on.

Eugene Locke Visits Here, Outlines Stand On Issues

Eugene Locke, Dallas attorney battling for the Democratic nomination for governor of Texas, brought his campaign into Big Spring Wednesday, and in a press interview drove home his point that leadership is the issue — and that he can provide leadership.

Locke said Texas needs a man in the executive office who sees the state's problems, can view them in the light of the people's needs, has the judgment to evaluate them, the decisiveness to outline the solutions, and the courage to fight for such solutions.

LOOKING AHEAD

Locke, who said he has no commitment to any person or group and can be classified as an independent (he has never held public office), said he, as governor, would set up "Task Force 2000," to set goals and priorities for the state's needs for the next 30 years.

He said he felt he has the stature and prestige to represent Texas well in all national forums. Locke has been ambassador to Pakistan and assistant ambassador to Vietnam.

LAW AND ORDER

He said he would have a program for law and order in the state, including a bill to make incitement to riot a felony; establish area centers and laboratories to combat crime and train officers; increase state enforcement personnel and give more assistance to local police.

He put emphasis on vocational and technical training to provide more jobs for unskilled people, and said the state owes it not only to these individuals, but to the safety and productivity of the society. He thought that junior and high schools could be adapted to do more of this kind of training, and particularly would he encourage private enterprise to sponsor training programs.

WATER FOR AREA

Locke said he recognizes the water problem in West Texas, would favor a study to see about withdrawal of water from the Mississippi to be brought to this area, and again said he would be in position to work with other states and the federal government on this.

Questioned about liquor-by-the-drink, Locke said he regards the present state liquor laws as hypocritical, would favor strengthening them, and would favor a local option method for those localities which wanted to vote in liquor by the drink, un-

McCarthy, RFK Clash Over Vote Significance

By The Associated Press

The first head-on race between Democratic presidential candidates Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy comes in Indiana's May 7 primary—and they're already clashing over its significance.

"Indiana is the key primary," Kennedy told crowds in Fort Wayne and Columbus, Ind., Wednesday.

The New York senator said Indiana "may very well decide who's going to be the Democratic nominee—and very likely the next president of the United States."

TRUE TEST

But McCarthy, campaigning in Nebraska where the two senators also meet in a May 14 primary, didn't agree.

The Minnesota senator told newsmen Indiana may be more critical for Kennedy because it's his first. But he said the true test is the showing in all the primaries.

McCarthy claimed in Lincoln, Neb., later that his New Hampshire and Wisconsin primary victories "helped" President Johnson's decision to de-escalate the Vietnam war.

The senator drew long applause when he said the people have passed judgment on the war and Johnson has responded der tightened enforcement and high license fees.

He said he felt the issue of pari-mutuel betting should be decided by the people, through the referendum that will be held.

Locke, a large, brisk and forceful talking man, was here for only a short time. He flew in from Midland, had a later date in Snyder. In addition to meeting news representatives, he made a few calls in the city.

by declaring "this war must be brought to a close."

But Kennedy in Indiana repeated none of his earlier criticism of Johnson and did not attack the administration's war policy as he has in the past.

ROCKY AVAILABLE

On the Republican side, backers encouraged by New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's recent statements, have launched a Rockefeller-for-President Committee to promote a convention draft.

Rockefeller told a news conference Wednesday: "I have said I was available if the party wanted me. . . I have not pulled out. I just never got into active candidacy."

While McCarthy was campaigning in Nebraska, he was winning in local primaries 115 of the 960 Connecticut state delegates who will select and instruct the state's 44 national convention delegates.

McCarthy drew about 45 per cent of the vote Wednesday in what was the closest thing Connecticut has to a presidential primary.

He was the only candidate with delegate slates pledged to him in all 30 local primaries.

No Secret To Kill Worms

If you have a peach tree or trees, and you want them to produce worm - free peaches there's really no secret, according to Paul Gross, county agent, to achieving your wish.

Gross said that the insects which produce the worms can be controlled. A good spray program, properly carried out, will do the job. Once you let the insects get a start and the worms get into your peaches, there's nothing to be done. You've lost your peach crop.

To do an effective job of controlling peach insects, trees should be sprayed when 75 per cent of the petals have fallen from the blooms. Then 10 days later when the shuck splits; then three more spray applications at two - week intervals should follow the chuck-split stage spraying, explains the county agent. This, he adds, makes a total of five spray applications.

As for the spray, the county agent suggests using either methoxychlor or malathion. These materials are readily available from feed and seed stores, drug stores or other firms which handle insecticides. Combinations of insecticides and fungicides may be used on fruit trees and make excellent sprays for use on peaches.

A control program for one tree in the backyard or many in an orchard is not only feasible but very practical, points out Gross. He invites persons interested in such a program to contact his office for detailed information on spray formulas. He further cautions that all insecticides should be used in accordance with label instructions and with care.

Go-Go Dancer Aids Minister

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A pretty red-haired go-go dancer helps a minister conduct a special pre-dawn church service each Wednesday—and she plans to become a Methodist minister.

Shapely Shirley Thomas, 24, says the Methodist services are for "night people", adding proudly that she herself is a "night person."

For six nights a week—from 9:30 p.m. until 2 a.m.—she dances at a local nightclub. She says she also was the first of the city's go-go performers to work with a boa constrictor.

She did the act, clad in a leopard-skin bikini and fig leaves, with the snake draped around her neck.

Shirley is a senior psychology major at Georgia State College with a B-plus average. She also is quite serious about entering the ministry.

Two years ago, she was injured in a serious automobile accident. "If there was any one moment that changed my whole life, it was that wreck," she said. "I think it was then that I began to think about entering the ministry."

Miss Thomas has enrolled in the Candler School of Theology at Emory University for the fall quarter.

Golf Fee Hike Is Proposed

The Parks and Recreation Board voted Wednesday to recommend to the Big Spring City Commission that the greens fee for the Municipal Golf Course be increased, contingent upon the city's establishing a beginning date for construction of a $17,000 clubhouse.

According to Roy Anderson, assistant city manager, the following rates, for a total estimated increase of $4,414, would be effective: week day fee, from $1 to $1.25; weekend and holiday, $1.50 to $1.75; monthly—single, $8 to $9; monthly—man and wife, $10 to $11; monthly—family, $15 to $16. City employees and pastors, who previously have not had to pay a greens fee, would have to pay 50 cents.

No increases were recommended for the yearly fees of $75 for singles and $100 for family.

Anderson said that if the city commission reviews the recommendation at its next regular meeting, the fees could go into effect May 1.

In other business, Jim Baum, board chairman, was named to a committee with Ike Rupard, Moss Creek Lake superintendent, to study the feasibility of installing an air-conditioned fishing pier at the lake.

Can You Be Particular About Your Prescription Eyewear and Be Economical, Too?

You can if you choose the right professional practitioner.

Professional eye care from TSO is exactly what patients say it is. A Doctor of Optometry associated with TSO studies the history of your eyes and visual symptoms. He examines your eyes internally for evidence of disease or defect. Then he examines your eyes for defective vision caused by astigmatism, near or farsightedness, or muscle imbalance.

If your eye examination reveals the need for glasses, they will be accurately prescribed and fitted for maximum possible seeing and wearing comfort.

The fee for a professional eye examination, prescription and finest quality single vision lenses and frame is as low as $16.00. With bifocal lenses the fee is as low as $19.00. A convenient credit plan is available without extra cost.

Single vision contact lenses are just $70.00, complete with examination and fittings. Bifocal contact lenses, too, are available at reasonable cost.

If you are particular about your eyes and your vision, and want to be economical, too, visit the Doctors of Optometry at TSO.

The bidding:
East South West North
1♥ 1NT Pass 3NT
Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: Nine of ♠

South failed to avail himself of the clues provided by the auction and went down to an unnecessary defeat in his three no trump contract.

East opened the bidding with one heart and South—holding 16 well distributed points including two stoppers in his opponent's suit—overcalled with one no trump.

North, with 10 points himself, saw no reason to dally, so he proceeded directly to three no trump.

West opened the nine of hearts and East put up the queen—forcing out declarer's ace. A club was led to dummy's jack and East was in with the ace. He cashed the king of hearts and returned a small heart to drive out South's remaining stopper.

On the next club lead, West showed out, revealing that East held a second stopper in the suit. Declarer's only chance now was the diamond finesse, so he returned to his hand with the king of clubs in order to put the queen of diamonds thru. East won the trick with the king, cashed the ten of clubs and his two established hearts to set declarer down by two.

South did not take adequate measures to protect himself against the unfavorable break in clubs. Inasmuch as East is marked with the club ace by virtue of his opening bid, declarer should arrange to make his initial play in that suit toward the closed hand in order to protect his high cards.

Observe the effect if South crosses over to dummy with the king of spades at trick two and leads the nine of clubs. If East puts up the ace, he will establish four tricks in the suit for declarer—sufficient for his contract [four clubs, one diamond, two hearts, and two spades]. If East ducks the club lead, South now has a club trick in and can afford to shift his attentions to the diamond suit. Altho that finesse loses, declarer has nine tricks established—two spades, two hearts, one club, and four diamonds—before he surrenders control of the proceedings.

A Devotional For The Day

When they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. (Matthew 26:30)
PRAYER: A God almighty, teach us to sing when the day is dark and the way is rugged. Put a prayer on our lips and a song in our hearts. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
 (From the 'Upper Room')

Change Of Command

The trouble with Webb AFB is that we get so attached to those assigned here that we almost forget that they eventually will be rotated to other places. Then, suddenly, as with Col. Chester J. Butcher, we are shaken back to reality.

Webb AFB has never had a commander who was not a key figure in the community. From the moment he reported here, Col. Butcher fit into local activities like a hand into a tailor-made glove. He was warm, affable, concerned, energetic, completely capable in his primary place of responsibility in directing Webb AFB to a high place of efficiency in the accomplishment of its mission, he was popular and respected, and successful, as the record will testify.

It would be easy to go on, but Col. Butcher certainly would regard it as fullsome. Our regret is that of losing him as a citizen of the community and as commander of what we hold with more than provincial pride to be the best ATC base in the country. It would have been nice if he could have stayed around until next week when he would have become Gen. Butcher, but his duty in the new highly responsible post as deputy director of the Defense Communications Planning Group in Washington, D.C., requires that he report immediately. He goes with the sincere and unanimous best wishes of Big Spring and Webb and with a piece of our heart.

Wonderful Service

Volunteers serving the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center were appropriately honored at a dinner here Tuesday evening.

Although the organization is relatively young, there was one award for 500 hours service, five for 250 and eight for 100 or more. Besides these were numerous awards for those under 100 hours.

If it were possible to employ staff to do what they have done, it would be tremendously expensive. But it is not possible to employ staff to do what these volunteers do, for they make contributions which are wholly from the heart and which represent the eloquent touch of a hand or the warmth of a compassionate heart.

The very first to say this would be the staff members, who are just about the finest and most dedicated to be found. They rely heavily upon the volunteers and treasure their service and are anxious for the community to know what kindly hearts and hands are doing.

Art Buchwald Everybody Claims The Credit

WASHINGTON — The most interesting thing about Hanoi agreeing to talks — any kind of talks — is that both the Doves and the Hawks maintain they are responsible for Ho Chi Minh answering the telephone.

talk. This proves they couldn't take any more."

My wife said, "Does anyone want any cheese dip?"

A Dove ignored her. He addressed himself to the Hawks.

"I told you the Tet offensive was a victory for our side," a Hawk said. "Hanoi is on our knees, and that is why it agreed to talks."

"PRESIDENT JOHNSON has finally faced up to the realities of the situation. Unless we wanted to pour in another 500,000 men, we wouldn't be able to get anywhere in Vietnam. And even then we wouldn't get anywhere. If it hadn't been for McCarthy and Kennedy, he still would have been bombing Hanoi and Haiphong."

"BALDERDASH," a Dove said angrily. "The Tet offensive proved once and for all that we could never win the war in Vietnam, and we'd have to go to the table whether we wanted to or not."

A Hawk roared, "McCarthy and Kennedy had nothing to do with the President's decision. He always said he would talk if the other side would talk. Now that the other side has decided to talk, the Doves have taken credit for it."

"FULBRIGHT'S moustache" another Hawk shouted. "Westmoreland said we had the enemy on the run, and they had run out of steam. Hanoi failed to take over the cities and arouse the populace. The Saigon government held the Communists had tremendous losses. The bombing policies finally paid off."

"WHY SHOULDN'T we take credit for it?" a Dove said. "The military has been misleading the country for four years. If the Doves hadn't spoken up, heaven knows where we'd be right now."

"A FOX ON the bombing policies!" a Dove's wife cried. "If we had stopped bombing long ago, Hanoi would have been willing to negotiate then. They said they'd talk if we stopped bombing."

"If the Doves had shut up," the Hawk replied, "Hanoi would never have been encouraged to continue the war."

"AHA!" retorted a Hawk. "But we didn't stop the bombing. We de-escalated the bombing, but we didn't call it off. Yet they still agreed to their knees."

"WE NEVER had a chance to use our military power," a Hawk said. "If we had been allowed to do what we wanted to do, Hanoi would have damn well sued for peace. It was you nervous Nellies who prevented the military from using everything they had."

"If you don't want the cheese dip," my wife said, "there are some wonderful water-cress sandwiches."

"There never was a military solution to Vietnam," a Dove said. "There had to be a political solution, and we never could find it."

"SO NOW," said a Hawk, "we'll reward Hanoi for her aggression."

"NO ONE IS going to be rewarded for anything," the Dove said. "We're trying to stop the fighting. Is that a bad thing?"

"AND what about the Domino Theory?" the Hawk said.

"To hell with the Domino Theory!" By this time there were feathers all over the living room, and my wife was pleading, "If you don't want the cheese dip and you don't want the water-cress sandwiches, will you at least eat cocktail sausages? They won't keep."

I would say that if you live in an area where there are no students who object to group prayer and Bible reading, that, with the consent of your school board, you would be free to have devotions in your classroom. As I understand the ruling, it was made to protect children who were of other religious persuasions, or no religious beliefs at all, from being subjected to the beliefs and practices of the majority. Personally, I can't see how anyone could be hurt by prayer and Bible reading, even if they were of some other religious persuasion. But, there are many who argue otherwise.

Billy Graham

As a public school teacher I feel that we are deprived of the freedom of religion in our work by the Supreme Court's ruling against Bible reading and prayer in the public schools. I have written the President about this, but I didn't receive a satisfactory answer.

"The dog? Quite possibly — and I would have an allergist test her for that. But I would not stop at just that."

There is much dissatisfaction because of our Supreme Court's trying to regulate religion, and the prayers in the schools. One of our fundamental freedoms in this country has been the freedom of religion, and it is too bad when school teachers like you feel maneuvered and hampered by law. Of course, many advocate that the Supreme Court's decision was not intended to discourage private prayers, but the truth is: I know schools all over the U.S.A. which ditched their devotional periods, and any mention of religion at all their assemblies. They have been frightened by this ruling, and are doing something that even the Supreme Court could not enforce. On the other hand, I know schools which carry on their prayers and Bible reading as usual, and I have heard of no efforts to stop them.

"The dog? Quite possibly — and I would have an allergist test her for that. But I would not stop at just that."

Comments On Modern Parenthood

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments on modern parenthood by a pavement Plato:

As every parent knows, babies are wonderful creatures from birth until the day they take their first step. Then they start turning into human beings, and slowly glamor fades from the most tremendous adventure on earth—parenthood.

floor. The next thing you know it is pulling itself upright by the bars of its crib, and then it takes a hesitant step alone—that symbolic step that takes it away from you forever.

It cries now not to be comforted or consoled, but because it wants to have its own imperious way. It has become a human being, daily determined to see how far it can bend the world to its will.

Now and then parents get weary of making sacrifices taken for granted by their offspring. "I'll be glad when they're finally grown up and married off," each tells the other. "Then our worries will be over."

But on the actual wedding day of a child, mother weeps, Dad is solemn. Neither feels as relieved as they thought they would. They feel lost and lonesome, turned out to be unwelcome pasture. Their child has committed the unforgivable sin of growing up.

"THERE IS no doubt about it," said one veteran, who now has several grandchildren. "Babies are at their best while you still have to burp them. When they no longer have to be burped, they go downhill rapidly. They switch characters, something like Dr. Jekyll turning into Mr. Hyde. They are no longer the same people."

From the time the kids enter kindergarten until they emerge from college, parenthood, although it is cheered by many happy moments, consists of a deepening slavery and a continual self-questioning:

IN THEIR heart of hearts, they'd like to have their baby back on their shoulders again, taking turns burping it—and start the whole darned rigamarole all over again.

"WHAT HAVE I done wrong? Am I failing my children? Could I do more? Nothing I do for

The metamorphosis began with New Hampshire's startling primary victory on March 12: a 42 per cent vote for McCarthy, 20 of 24 Democratic convention votes for him.

ALL THIS is before the tiny object of your affection can even say "thank you" for your concern.

WHERE ONCE he spoke of an effort to change the course of a Democratic administration on war in Vietnam, now McCarthy talks of making his party's race against former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the front-running candidate for the Republican nomination.

Spotlight On Streets

With still $60,000 in the city budget earmarked for capital expenditures, the Big Spring City Commission is in an enviable position.

times, and was repeated again Tuesday, the city's dirt streets cost enough in maintenance to pave them.

IN PAST years, commissions usually spent their budget planning time cutting things out, forced to eliminate worthwhile projects due to a lack of money. With the extra income from the sale tax, the city will finally begin to realize the best savings of all—getting capital improvements at half price.

AT ISSUE were the dirt streets in the west end of the city, but there are dirt streets in all but the newest additions. Even now, the city engineering staff is drawing plans for a paving project, to be accomplished this year. Soon, the necessary hearings and bids will be called.

When capital improvements are paid for with bond money, the city must pay interest on the bonds. Due to the long terms the bonds usually are sold, the total amount of interest often equals the principal amount of the bond. With this in mind, the commission's nest egg will buy the same amount of improvements

Demo Chief Seeks Wide-Open Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — National Chairman John M. Bailey is taking the lead in a strong movement among Democratic organization members to avoid pre-convention commitments to potential presidential nominees.

“absolutely neutral” in the nomination contest. “I have a convention to run,” he said, “and I am not going to take sides.” Bailey indicated he expects to remain national chairman through the convention, after which the nominee usually picks his own man.

Robert F. Kennedy, and Eugene J. McCarthy and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey all will have strength in the delegation and it can be expected to break wide open at the convention.

Convicted Of Burying His Girl Friend Alive

EDINBURGH, Scotland (AP) — Michael Finnigan, 17, was convicted today of murdering his pregnant 18-year-old girl friend by burying her alive.

“Finnigan was not prepared to accept the responsibilities of marriage,” said Cox. “As a solution to the difficulties in which he found himself he decided to destroy her.”

Lubbock Lists Rehab Meeting

AUSTIN — A regional rehabilitation conference for veterans service officers will be held in Lubbock on April 15-19, according to Charles L. Morris, executive director of the Texas Veterans Affairs Commission.

“His plan was a simple one. He took her to the banks of the River Clyde. They worked in the same factory, had been dating for more than a year, and she was seven months pregnant by Finnigan.”

Actor Bares Beer Woes

COVENTRY, England (AP) — The role calls for a hen-pecked husband who drowns his woes in beer, and producer Roger Redfern ruled out cold tea as a substitute for the real thing.

“I drink wine myself,” said Needham. “All those pints of beer made me tipsy on stage, but it was authentic, I suppose.”

March Will End Mourning Period

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — A march through a predominantly Negro area Sunday will end the period of mourning for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

“I drink wine myself,” said Needham. “All those pints of beer made me tipsy on stage, but it was authentic, I suppose.”

Deputies Due To Jail Three

Sheriff A. N. Standard said this morning that his deputies are working on clues which he believes will lead to the arrest of at least three persons in connection with the two burglaries of several weeks ago.

“I drink wine myself,” said Needham. “All those pints of beer made me tipsy on stage, but it was authentic, I suppose.”

Lake Level Stabilized

The level of Lake J. B. Thomas had stabilized at elevation 2240.59 Thursday morning, according to an increase of .42 of a foot since Tuesday morning.

Store Manager Says Band Of 10 Negroes Snatch Cash

DALLAS (AP) — Manager Fred B. Van Zandt told police 10 Negroes raided the Leyne's Department Store in South Oak Cliff and took $455 cash and a quantity of clothing at pistol point Wednesday night.

Tables were overturned as the looters snatched garments and dashed outside during the raid shortly after 8:30 p.m.

Four Negroes obtained an undisclosed amount of money early Wednesday in a holdup at an A&P Supermarket in Northeast Dallas. Detectives took Paul E. White, 27, into custody at an Oak Cliff home several hours later.

STEERS' GARY NEWSOM OUT AT HOME IN FIFTH INNING

Gilstrap's Blasts Vanquish Midland

By TOMMY HART

All-district outfielder Dean Gilstrap twice swung the bat for distance here Wednesday and spurred the Big Spring Steers back into the sunlight in the District 2-AAAA baseball race.

Gilstrap, whose hitting slump through the first four conference games had puzzled coach Oakley Hagood, smashed home runs in the second and sixth innings to provide the cushion in Big Spring's 4-2 victory.

Dean's second four-master arrived with one out after Bill Burchett had singled. Chief benefactor of Gilstrap's power thrust was pitcher Junior Mendoza, who went all the way on the mound to register his fifth victory of the season, compared to three losses. Mendoza was tagged for six hits and only one of the runs he surrendered was earned.

After Gilstrap's second inning smash had given the Steers the edge, Big Spring came back in the third to pick up another tally when Mendoza gained a life on a bobbie and eventually counted on Felix Mendoza's single.

Midland, now 1-4 in the race, compared to Big Spring's 3-2 record, began to come back in the fifth when Jerry Robbins singled and made it around on an infield out and a bobbie. The Bulldogs tied the count in the sixth on a booming triple by Danny Smith and a onebaser of the bat of Jerry Robbins. Gilstrap's second round-tripper cleared the left-center field fence, a powerful poke unaided by any breeze. His first blow was closer to the left field line but still called for plenty of muscle.

Gary Don Newsom, Felix Martinez and Gilstrap accounted for six of Big Spring's eight safeties. R. J. Englert, with a first inning bunt, and Burchett got the other two.

Midland put two runners aboard with one out in the seventh but Mendoza forced Lupe

Perez to sky to Tony Martinez at third and ended the game by flagging down Keith Freeman's ground ball in front of the pitching rubber and tossing to first.

The Steers, now 14-4 on the year, return to play at 2 p.m. Friday in Abilene against Abilene High. The contest was originally booked for Saturday but was moved forward a day due to Easter.

Either James Newman or Thomas Ham will likely go to the pitching rubber for Big Spring.

JOHANNSSON

Sports dialogue:
INGEMAR JOHANNSSON, former heavyweight boxing champion:
"If I were fighting today, I don't think I'd have any trouble knocking out Joe Frazier. I don't think he can take a punch too well. A well conditioned Sonny Liston would take him, too."

CHARLES VINCENT, San Antonio writer:
"The last person to flunk out of the University of Houston was so stupid he thought Oral Roberts University was a school of dentistry. They've kept people in school at Houston who thought a split infinitive was a variation of the split T. Most of their students believe LSD stands for Lone Star Draft."

GEORGE ALLEN, coach of the Los Angeles Rams:
"Jack Pardee should have been all-pro last year. No left linebacker in the league was more offensive."

VIC BUBAS, Duke basketball coach, after his team had lost to North Carolina State, 12-10, the past season:
"I got a letter from a high school kid, asking for a scholarship. He assured me that he could score 13 all by himself."

CURTIS COKES, welterweight boxing champ:
"There have been quite a few Black Muslim fighters talk to me during some of the trips I've made. They just ask questions as to how strong their group is in our part of the country. But this whole organization makes no sense to me and I think they know not to waste time talking to me about it. Boycotting the Olympics isn't the answer. The Olympics are something which concern our whole country and a person should be an American first of all—black or white. I can't understand some of the athletes who are complaining. How do they know conditions are bad when they've never been to the Olympics before? They're figuring they can boycott and the U.S. will be embarrassed this year. Then, next time the Olympics come around, they can ask and get whatever they want."

JIMMY CANNON, New York columnist:
The New York Mets never were funny. They just don't have the ability. It is doubtful they are any better now than they were the miserable day they were organized. They were the worst team ever to hold a franchise in the major leagues and they haven't changed. New York is tired of them. They belong with air pollution and traffic congestion as a metropolitan embarrassment."

ARNOLD PALMER, golfing great:
"Jack Nicklaus has skill and he has self confidence and he also has one thing else — the ability to say no. He does exactly what he wants to do and doesn't knock himself out, bouncing around the way I have. That's why I told myself, at the end of last year, that from now on I would set my own pace."

Stanton Girls Region-Bound

STANTON — Stanton High School, for the first time, will send its girls' volleyball team to the Regional tournament in Lubbock scheduled April 16.

The Buffalo Queens won the right to represent District 4-AAA April 5 at Frenship, beating Midland Carver, 15-13, 15-9, and Denver City, 15-10, 15-5, before reaching the finals against Frenship. They prevailed in that contest, 15-3, 15-1.

At Frenship Tuesday night the Stanton girls won over Oton in the first round of regional competition, 15-6, 15-1.

A victory in the Regional playoffs would qualify the Stanton team for the State tournament. Coach of the team is Ruth Love, who is in her first year of coaching. Playing with the team are Bonnie Morris, Marty McArthur, Kay Harrell, Kathy Therman, Sherry Avery, Linda Henley, Linda White, Connie Henley, Robbie Hazlewood and Gale Coates.

Cowboys Deny They're Cheap

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Cowboys signed the ninth player out of their first 10 draft choices Thursday as personnel director Gil Brandt took the occasion to criticize stories about top players being offered only a $2,500 bonus.

Brandt signed Blaine Nye, Stanford tackle who was the Cowboys' fifth round choice.

The unsigned 10th round choice is Ben Olson, a Kansas sprinter who has track eligibility remaining.

"Pro football is getting a rap it doesn't deserve," said Brandt. "It gripes me to read reports that we're stalling and not trying to sign players."
He blamed "agents" representing the collegians selected in the combined National Football League-American Football League draft.

"What's happened is that they gave the players an inflated idea of what they could get and now they're trying to save face."

Brandt said there were many good reasons the pro clubs can't shortchange the rookies, merger of the two leagues or no.

"If you sign a guy at a ridiculously low figure, he's going to be an unhappy player and unhappy players do not win for you," he said.

"There was really only one year when things went out of sight. That was the year (1966) of Tommy Nobis and Donny Anderson. Since the merger, the salaries haven't changed—only the bonuses."
Brandt said he knows that top players still are drawing top money to sign throughout the league.

"One first round choice got a $275,000 contract for three years," he said. "Another guy, quarterback on a losing team, was offered a $75,000 total for three years. Those are good deals. It's really more than the market calls for."

Aspro Makes Astros Look Good In Win

HOUSTON (AP) — Last winter there was considerable talk in the Astrodom about trading third baseman Bob Aspromonte. At 29, Aspromonte was the last of the Houston Astros obtained in the 1961 National League expansion draft. He had weathered all their opening games since the team began major league competition in 1962.

The 21,320 persons who paid to see the league opener Wednesday night between Houston and Pittsburgh booed Aspromonte twice. But sentiments changed when Aspromonte smashed a two-out, two-run triple to right field in the ninth frame and Houston snatched a 5-4 victory from the Pirates.

Aspromonte was razzed in the fifth inning when he grounded out, and in the seventh as he hit into a double play with one out and Astros on first and second.

Julio Gotay, pinch running for Hal King, and pinch hitter Ivan Murrell scored for the Astros on Aspromonte's triple.

76ers' Reserves Pull Out Victory

The Philadelphia 76ers are considered to have the best starting five in the National Basketball Association. But their bench strength was the big question if the 76ers were to win a second straight championship.

Yaz Leads Sox's Win

They yawned when Carl Yaztrzemski hit his first home run of the 1968 season. But they could hardly believe the second one.

The first homer for the 1967 Triple Crown winner came in 7-3 opening day victory over Detroit Wednesday. It was the routine kind for Carl: over the wall and into the seats.

But in the ninth, Yaz blasted one off the centerfield wall 420 feet away and while it bounced around in the outfield, he legged out an inside-the-park homer, the first one of his life.

In other American League openers, Minnesota beat Washington 2-0, Cleveland crushed Chicago 9-0, New York edged California 1-0 and Baltimore took Oakland 3-1.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey watched happily as his Minnesota Twins beat Washington with Dean Chance hurling a four-hitter. Harmon Killebrew and Bob Allison hit homers for the Twins.

Sonny Siebert stopped the White Sox on just two hits while Duke Sims lead a lusty Indian hitting attack with two homers. Singles by Duane Josephson and Ken Boyer were the only hits off Siebert.

Mel Stottlemyre also turned in a fine pitching performance, setting down the Angels on four hits. The Yankees only had three themselves off George Brunet, but one of them was a homer by Frank Fernandez in the second inning.

Don Buford's two hits, one run scored and run-saving fielding play highlighted the Orioles victory. Brooks Robinson homered for the Birds and Tom Phoebus was the winning pitcher.

Cards Record Opening Win

Bob Aspromonte is an original Astro—the only player still left from the expansion pool that stocked Houston's National League team back in November, 1961.

He's lived through 568 losses in six seasons and he just wasn't prepared to start the new season with another setback.

So, he did something about it. It was Aspro's two-out triple in the bottom of the ninth inning that gave the Astros a 5-4 opening night victory over Pittsburgh Wednesday night.

Elsewhere as the National League started its 93rd season, St. Louis' world champions pulled out a 2-1 victory over Atlanta, San Francisco pushed across three ninth inning runs and beat New York 5-4, Cincinnati battered Chicago 9-4 and Philadelphia blanked Los Angeles 2-0.

Aspromonte, who's been with Houston so long he predates the Astrodome and goes back to the days when the Astros were called the Colts, climaxed a three-run rally in the ninth with his triple.

Maury Wills' two-run single had moved Pittsburgh into a 4-2 lead in the top of the ninth.

Pat Jarvis had St. Louis shut out for seven innings but the Cards pulled out their opener with single runs in the eighth and ninth innings against the Braves.

Chris Short pitched a four-hitter with 10 strikeouts and rookie Don Money drove in both Philadelphia runs as the Phillies blanked the Dodgers.

Jesus Alou drove in San Francisco's winning runs with a ninth inning double that climaxed a three-run rally against the Mets. Ron Swoboda drove in all four New York runs with a single and a homer.

Tony Perez smacked a three-run homer and Tommy Helms had a two-run shot as Cincinnati battered Chicago. Perez' shot keyed a five-run Reds' rally in the fifth inning and Helms' homer wrapped it up in the eighth.

Chance Blanks Sens, 2 To 0

WASHINGTON (AP) — Call it a game of Chance. Minnesota ace Dean Chance gives luck a little pat for his superb pitching performance in shutting out Washington 2-0 on four hits in baseball's annual inaugural game Wednesday.

It was satisfying start for the Twins and Chance, who had to wait six months to win another game after blowing the American League pennant to Boston on the final day of the 1967 season. The big right-hander credits the difference between the two games to Lady Luck.

"This was just one of those days when Lady Luck was with me," he said. "It's funny. On the last game of last year I was ready and geared to go and I lost."

"Here it is the first game of the year and who knows what kind of shape I'm in, and I win."

The happy-go-lucky hurler, taking over after Twins' fan favorite pitcher Nolan Ryan, tossed out the traditional first ball, held the Senators to a mere bunt single for the first seven innings.

Pat Jarvis had St. Louis shut out for seven innings but the Cards pulled out their opener with single runs in the eighth and ninth innings against the Braves.

Chance Blanks Sens, 2 To 0

WASHINGTON (AP) — Call it a game of Chance. Minnesota ace Dean Chance gives luck a little pat for his superb pitching performance in shutting out Washington 2-0 on four hits in baseball's annual inaugural game Wednesday.

It was satisfying start for the Twins and Chance, who had to wait six months to win another game after blowing the American League pennant to Boston on the final day of the 1967 season. The big right-hander credits the difference between the two games to Lady Luck.

"This was just one of those days when Lady Luck was with me," he said. "It's funny. On the last game of last year I was ready and geared to go and I lost."

"Here it is the first game of the year and who knows what kind of shape I'm in, and I win."

The happy-go-lucky hurler, taking over after Twins' fan favorite pitcher Nolan Ryan, tossed out the traditional first ball, held the Senators to a mere bunt single for the first seven innings.

Aspromonte, who's been with Houston so long he predates the Astrodome and goes back to the days when the Astros were called the Colts, climaxed a three-run rally in the ninth with his triple.

Maury Wills' two-run single had moved Pittsburgh into a 4-2 lead in the top of the ninth.

Pat Jarvis had St. Louis shut out for seven innings but the Cards pulled out their opener with single runs in the eighth and ninth innings against the Braves.

Chris Short pitched a four-hitter with 10 strikeouts and rookie Don Money drove in both Philadelphia runs as the Phillies blanked the Dodgers.

Jesus Alou drove in San Francisco's winning runs with a ninth inning double that climaxed a three-run rally against the Mets. Ron Swoboda drove in all four New York runs with a single and a homer.

Tony Perez smacked a three-run homer and Tommy Helms had a two-run shot as Cincinnati battered Chicago. Perez' shot keyed a five-run Reds' rally in the fifth inning and Helms' homer wrapped it up in the eighth.

Kathy Wins College Post

SHERMAN — Kathy Seddon, who once flew from Africa to Spain by way of New York City because it was cheaper, and who mixed cement one summer as a project worker, is the new president of the Austin College student body.

Miss Seddon is a graduate of Big Spring High School. Her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Seddon, now reside at 216 Jessamine in LaFeria.

She is not the first woman to be elected to the presidency of Austin College, but only three others have held this honor since the school went coeducational in 1918.

As to the disadvantages of being a woman in student politics, Miss Seddon says, "The hardest part is getting elected. So many people say a woman can't gain the respect that a man gains, but I doubt that."

She expects the job to be a lot of hard work, but she doesn't mind that. She's used to it. In fact last summer, she mixed cement and laid brick to help construct two school buildings in Africa.

The projects were in Ghana where Miss Seddon was working with the Operation Crossroads Africa program. She enjoyed the job so much that she decided she'd like to work with the Africa program or a similar job permanently after she finishes graduate school.

The trip from Africa to Spain by way of New York City came after she decided to go to the University of Valencia in Spain last fall. "My round trip to Africa was already paid for and I couldn't get a refund," she said. "The semester in Spain, a program sponsored by the University of San Francisco, included transportation to and from Spain in its charges without refund."

"So I flew from Africa to New York City, picked up a few bags, and boarded a plane to Spain, and saved money," she said.

Other activities Miss Seddon has been involved in include membership in Kappa Gamma Chi social sorority; Alpha Chi, national honor scholarship society; Sigma Delta Pi, national Spanish honor society; Pi Gamma Mu, national honor society in social science and history; freshman senate; honor council; Woodwind Ensemble, and Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

In Big Spring High School, Kathy was a student leader. She was chosen Best All-Around girl, was valedictorian of her graduating class, was secretary of the band, a district winner in American Legion oratorical contests, secretary of the Student Council, a national merit scholarship semi-finalist, homecoming queen nominee, Speech and Radio Club president, member of the National Honor So-

Fallout Film Set Saturday

The problem of fallout that follows a nuclear explosion and the answers to questions about it will be discussed in the next two programs of the "Emphasis Survival" Civil Defense series produced by the Texas Education Agency.

KMID-TV — Channel 2 in Midland is running the 16-part, full color series at 5 p.m. each Saturday. Each telecast is 30 minutes long. Saturday's (April 13) program features a film about radioactive fallout.

"For maximum benefit," says Edward Manigold, Civil Defense consultant, "the viewer should obtain copies of 'Emphasis Survival' Civil Defense Television Guide' and 'Personal and Family Survival'."

Both may be obtained free by writing Emphasis Survival, Texas Education Agency, Capitol Station, Austin, Texas 78711.

Fines Assessed In City Court

A total of $245 in fines was assessed in City Corporation Court Tuesday morning.

The fines involved eight charges of traffic offenses, $85; one for discharging firearms within the city limits, $25; and five for being intoxicated, $135.

Minor Mishaps

Two minor accidents were reported to police Wednesday.

Richard Earl Hull, 2311 Alledale, collided with a school zone stop sign at East Sixth and Benton; and at the Piggy Wigly store, Eleventh Place, Ruth Sewell, 1405 W. 5th, was involved in an accident with a car which left the scene.

Campaigns

Justice Matt Davis, associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals in Texarkana for 14 years, brought his campaign for a place on the Texas Supreme Court here today. He said he was running not with the idea of re-election (because he will have attained retirement age) but with the idea of service. One suggestion he has is pushing a legislative act to divide the state into nine areas so that a judicial commission can appoint justices from these areas to the high court.

Open-Housing Bill Approved

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional passage of landmark open-housing legislation has won applause from civil rights leaders along with renewed demands for massive federal attacks on shabby housing and employment in riot-prone slums.

A 250-171 House vote Wednesday sent to the White House a civil rights bill to outlaw discrimination in the sale or rental of 80 per cent of the nation's housing by 1970.

LBJ TO SIGN

President Johnson said he would sign it into law as soon as possible.

The House action followed by a day the funeral of slain civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, whose numerous campaigns often focused on open housing.

It also came after a week of widespread racial violence following King's assassination—and it was in that atmosphere that one Southerner explained why he voted for the bill.

"I think this bill is symbolic," explained Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La. "Either we move ahead as one people or we move toward a police state."

Johnson hailed passage of the bill but also urged Congress to enact the rest of his program, including housing and job programs.

After King's slaying, the President said he would address Congress to outline an expanded social program. But he postponed a scheduled appearance last Monday and has not set a new date.

SLUM PROBLEMS

The President's Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders, which recommended a massive social program aimed at eradicating slum problems, scheduled an emergency session.

Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York, commission vice chairman, said it's too late to help the people killed and wounded in the week of rioting but added: "It is not too late, however, for the nation to move against this crisis with the urgency and enterprise that the commission sought to generate."

Lindsay didn't specify when the meeting would be held, nor did he say what further moves would be made to win acceptance for its recommendations. But he said that as a beginning, the Senate should restore funds for summer programs in slums.

The Senate moved in that direction Wednesday, rejecting a money bill from which the House had stripped $75 million for the job program and $25 million for the Head Start pre-school program.

Passage climaxed an emotional debate in which opponents along with the bill's supporters charged the House capitulated in a key 229-195 vote against the Negro rioting. Ten of the 106 House members from 11 Southern states went along with the bill's supporters in a key 229-195 vote against the measure to confer with the Senate, where backers feared the housing provision would be watered down.

PROTECTION

When fully effective, Jan. 1, 1970, the discrimination ban would cover all sales and rental als except those involving owners of single-family houses who sell or rent without using a real-estate agent and residential owners of dwellings with four units or fewer.

The bill also provides protection for civil rights workers and demonstrators from threats and violence when they are engaged in lawful activities.

The measure makes it a federal crime to cross state lines to incite rioting and extends to American Indians the guarantees of the Bill of Rights.

Assassin Aided By Second Car?

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — The presence of a second white Mustang near the doorway which police say the slayer of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. used to escape gave rise today to published reports that it may have been the getaway car.

The Memphis Commercial Appeal said the car with Arkansas tags and a similar vehicle, parked a short distance north, both left the scene within 15 minutes after King was fatally shot a week ago today.

Both vehicles were within 100 feet of the doorway to the second-floor rooming house where police said the assassin waited and shot King as he stood on the balcony of a motel across a rear street.

The killer was believed to have walked out of the Main Street entrance to the rooming house, turned south and dropped the murder weapon in front of a business firm next door.

Guy Canipe, owner of the firm, said he saw the young white man drop the package which contained the gun, but did not see his face.

The Commercial Appeal speculated that the man then walked a few steps farther along, got into the dirty white Mustang with Arkansas tags and sped away.

DECOY CHASE

The second Mustang, parked north of the rooming house entrance, also left the scene near the time of the shooting.

Police said they would investigate reports that a supposed police chase in northeast Memphis—eight miles from the scene—30 minutes after the shooting may have been a decoy to allow the killer to escape.

A recording of the police radio dispatcher's transmissions showed seven calls in 12 minutes from a lieutenant's car in the northeast section of the city detailing the case.

The lieutenant said Tuesday he did not make the calls. This led to speculation that someone other than police may have sent the calls on the police frequency to draw officers away from the escape route.

Ex-Bear Hunter Nabs County Job

McMINNVILLE, Ore. (AP) — Yamhill County, some 35 miles southwest of the Portland metropolitan area, has hired Maurice Mayor as its new county hunter. Mayor formerly was a bear hunter on the Oregon coast.

The Division of Wildlife Services and Yamhill County jointly employ the trapper who can hunt coyote, bobcat, fox, mountain lions and other predators when his help is requested.

Five Promoted

Five Webb officers doubled their holdings in silver as the result of recent promotions.

Trading in the single silver bars of first lieutenants for the double track of captain were Alan M. Miller, Billy W. Cofer, Gay G. Piland, Richard A. Biggs and Harold R. Gillenwaters.

Doctor's Wife Bakes Bread, Knits Clothes For Family

By RHODA LEMONS
During the past few years, Dr. and Mrs. Waman Kale of 2504 Carol have resided in at least six states before arriving in Big Spring. Mrs. Kale is glad to be settled once again.

Although, Dr. Kale is licensed to practice medicine in six states, it took him eight months to receive his license to practice in Texas, where he is a thoracic surgeon at Cowper Clinic and Hospital. He was born of East Indian parents and educated in India. He was orphaned at an early age and worked his way through a medical school, both in India and in the United States.

Mrs. Kale and her husband have two sons, Ken, 7, and Scott, 5, both students at St. Mary's Episcopal Church School.

Mrs. Kale cooks one meal a day, a large one, in the evening. The children have cereal for breakfast, and she and her husband usually have coffee. She serves a light lunch for herself and younger son, and the family eats together at night. Even though Mrs. Kale and her husband were reared continents apart, Mrs. Kale said that he is easy to cook for, whether she serves American dishes or European cuisine.

MRS. WAMAN KALE

Mrs. Kale does a lot of bread baking. One secret which has helped her in preparing yeast bread is to knead the dough until it will no longer stick to the fingers. Another secret she has found helpful is to avoid adding salt to the cooking or baking of food until it is one-half done. She believes this enhances the flavorings.

Mrs. Kale shops for groceries once each week and plans her menus a week in advance. She has a small food freezer and utilizes it as much as possible and has dreams of a larger one so she can prepare dishes in advance and store greater quantities of food.

Mrs. Kale was greatly influenced by her mother who taught her not to waste or throw anything of value away. She still finds herself adhering to this principle, and she uses leftovers in unusual ways. If there is dry cereal left, she makes a dessert with melted chocolate chips, or if there is meat and rice, sometimes she will combine the dishes, adding a sauce, or grind the meat for sandwiches.

She does all her own work and adheres rather closely to a schedule. She does her own ironing and mending, however, her specialty is crocheting and knitting, arts she learned from her mother, the late Mrs. Susanna

Melnicook, who once won a national competition in crocheting and needlepoint. Her patterns were published in national women's magazines, and Mrs. Kale has copied them in much of her work.

Mrs. Kale knits all her husband's and children's sweaters, caps, mittens, house shoes and snow suits. She knits her own suits, sweaters and slacks. Also, she makes crocheted table cloths, pot holders and trim around linen handkerchiefs. She makes almost all the Christmas gifts the family sends to friends and relatives, and she has already begun crocheting borders on handkerchiefs and making aprons for the coming Christmas.

Mrs. Kale found no great difficulty in learning to cook exotic East Indian dishes for her husband. Her father was born in Russia and her mother in Hungary, so that she was accustomed to foreign dishes.

One of her favorite hobbies is reading, especially biographies. She finds people more interesting than anything else, and her philosophy is that one receives

Frost Your Easter Cake

A wonderful frosting for a sponge cake to decorate as you like for your Easter dessert.

BUTTERCREAM FROSTING

- 1 cup sugar
 - 1 tsp. light corn syrup
 - 1/2 cup water
 - 3 large egg whites
 - 1/2 cup butter
 - 2 tps. vanilla
- In a medium saucepan stir together the sugar, corn syrup and water. Over low heat, stirring constantly, cook until sugar dissolves; continue cooking without stirring to 240 degrees on candy thermometer or to soft ball stage in cold-water test.
- In a medium mixing bowl, beat egg whites until stiff; very slowly beat in hot syrup; cool.
- In a large mixing bowl, thoroughly cream butter and vanilla; beat in egg-white mixture, a few tablespoons at a time; beat thoroughly after each addition. Use as a thick frosting for top and sides of a sponge cake baked in a 10-inch tube pan. Store in refrigerator.
- Before serving, let stand at room temperature for 10 to 30 minutes—depending on warmth of room. (After frosted cake is chilled, it may be covered with transparent plastic wrapping.)

CHICKEN DIVAN

- 3 chicken breasts, cooked
 - 1 pkg. broccoli (frozen)
 - 1 can mushroom or celery soup with 1/4 cup milk
 - 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
 - 1/2 cup mayonnaise
 - 1/2 cup whipped cream
 - 3 tps. sherry wine
 - 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
 - 6 oz. cheese
- Boil chicken breasts. Remove all bones from chicken. Cook broccoli as directed on package. Heat the soup, milk and nutmeg then add remaining ingredients folding in whipped cream last. Place chicken and broccoli in a casserole in layers. A sliced fresh tomato on top is optional. Pour sauce over top to which the grated cheese has been added. Bake at 375 degrees until brown on top. Serves six.

SAMOSAS (India)

- 2 cups white flour
 - 2 tps. butter, melted
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - 5 tps. plain yogurt
- Sift flour with salt. Add melted butter. With the yogurt, added bit by bit, knead the flour into a stiff dough.
- Make small balls out of the dough, roll out into a circle. Dough should be thin. Place stuffing (recipe listed below) on one half, fold over and pinch together to seal edges. Circles should be about four inches in diameter.
- Fry in deep fryer until crisp and brown. Remove from pan and drain on paper towel.

STUFFING

- 2 tps. shortening
 - 1 onion, chopped
 - 1 tomato, cut up
 - 1 lb. ground meat (round steak)
 - 1/2 tsp. thimeric
 - 1 tsp. ginger
 - 1 tsp. lemon juice
- Melt shortening. Fry onion and tomato. Add meat with seasonings and lemon juice. Mix well and fry for 10 minutes. Put into paper lined bowl (several layers of toweling) to absorb moisture. Stuff Samosas dough.

Sour Cream Adds Zest To Salmon

Add snippets of smoked salmon—lots of them—to sour cream along with capers and freshly ground pepper. Serve over mixed crisp cold salad green as a first course. Pass French bread and butter.

Turkey Is Good Buy In April

With the gay breath of spring in the air, April is a good time to shake the winter menu routine and concentrate on light, easy-to-prepare dishes.

Of course, turkey is good, the entire year, even though we used to think of it as a special treat at Thanksgiving and Christmas and, recently, for Easter.

With tender turkey regularly available at most food markets, we don't need a special occasion to enjoy it. USDA's Consumer and Marketing Service says that turkeys of all sizes are unusually plentiful, this spring.

They all are cooperating in "April is National Turkey Month." That means April is the time to watch food ads and store displays for "specials" on turkey. It also means that many food markets will provide special features, like turkey parts, halves, or quarters; boneless turkey rolls; and frozen turkey pies and other processed turkey foods.

Now when turkey is priced so attractively and displayed in such abundance, buy and serve it often.

Make the most of its versatility by featuring turkey in mile-high sandwiches, piping hot soups, crisp fresh salads, quick-to-fix cold plates, and tasty, tantalizing casseroles, stews and pot pies.

Turkey is ideal for spur-of-the-moment barbecues and picnics, for graciously planned buffets and smorgasbords, company dinners, and informal family meals. And, include turkey in your plans for a special Easter dinner.

COLOR ME EASTER
Mix candy eggs and baked cakes

Create New Customs In Easter Desserts

The many customs of Easter can come to the modern festive table quickly and easily in bakers' desserts which you set ablaze.

Candy Easter eggs nested in pastel-frosted cupcakes are harbingers of the renewal of life. Spring bouquets fashioned from gumdrops, candy shot, and chocolate-frosted cupcakes rival nature's riot of color. The rabbit, a symbol of the ancient East where they are connected with the moon, take shape easily and convincingly using soft, coconut-frosted cake balls. Decorate each dessert as follows:

SPRING BOUQUET—Slice a leaf-shaped mint gumdrop into four sections so the leaf shape is retained. Insert a short toothpick into each of two "leaves" and set into top of a chocolate-frosted cupcake. Press in six or seven tiny, colorful gumdrops to resemble "flowers." Squeeze together one end of remaining "leaves"; place between gumdrop "flowers." Scatter silver shot among "flowers."

EASTER EGG NEST—Garnish pastel-frosted cupcake by gently pressing top of cupcake into a dish of shot of many colors. Nest three colored jelly bean "eggs" into center of cupcake.

BUNNIES—Press soft, coconut-frosted cake ball into shape of a crouching bunny—large at one end; small at the other. Create a bunny head at small end of cake, using long, sliced pink or red gumdrops on toothpicks for "ears," chocolate chips for "eyes" and a cinnamon red hot for a "nose." Fashion bunny's tail from half a large marshmallow; hold in place with a toothpick.

meat. Let stand at room temperature for two to three hours, turning and basting occasionally. Drain meat, salt well on all surfaces, and roast standing up on a rack in a 450 degree oven for 30 minutes.

Remove from oven, reduce heat to 350 degrees, and drain fat from pan. Baste meat with 1-3 of the marinade, return to oven, and roast another 30 minutes, basting every 10 minutes until marinade is used up. Roast lamb is best when still juicy and pink, but if you prefer it well-done, roast an additional 30 minutes. Serve on a platter surrounded by water-cress.

Thin slices of roast lamb tucked inside bread which has been buttered and spread with a thin film of mint jelly provide delightful eating.

Hearty open-faced sandwiches will please your neighbors if you invite them in for a snack. Spread mashed canned baked beans over buttered slices of Boston brown bread, sprinkle with grated Cheddar cheese and top with bacon strips. Broil until bacon is crisp.

Ham sandwiches can be broiled if they're topped with a mixture made of 1/4 cup butter or margarine creamed with an equal amount of brown sugar and two teaspoons prepared mustard!

Have you tried chipped or dried beef slices with cheese for grilling? Wonderful!

Use Olive Dressing

To make an unusually delicious salad dressing: cut 1/2 cup canned ripe olives into chunks and mix with 1/2 cup mayonnaise, 1 cup chillsauce, 1 teaspoon chopped chives and 1 teaspoon chopped green pepper. Season with salt and pepper and serve with tossed greens.

Slice And Bake Sugar Cookies

Slice-and-bake cherry cookies are an ideal way to dress-up refrigerator cookies. Cut one pound (2-ounce) roll of well-chilled refrigerated sugar cookies into one-inch slices. Cut each slice into four pieces. Form each piece into a ball, dip balls into 1/4 cup of milk; then roll on 1-3 cup of corn flake crumbs combined with 1/4 teaspoon of allspice. Place on ungreased cookie sheets about two-inches apart. Press glaze cherry in center of each ball. Bake in preheated 375-degree oven about 10 minutes or until brown; cool. Makes about 3 1/2 dozen.

Choose Lamb Chop Varieties

There are several varieties of lamb chops from which to choose. Rib and loin chops come from the center section while arm or blade chops come from the shoulder portion and sirloin chops are cut from the sirloin section next to leg steaks.

All five varieties are tender. They may be prepared by broiling or panbroiling, depending upon the thickness of the chop. Those less than an inch thick are usually cooked by panbroiling. Shoulder chops, either blade or arm types, are often prepared by braising since this gives a variety of flavors and seasonings.

RECOMMENDED RECIPES

Used By Mrs. Waman Kale

STUFFED CABBAGE

- 4 tps. shortening
 - 2 lbs. ground beef
 - 2 tps. salt
 - 1 tsp. paprika
 - Pepper to taste
 - 1 large head cabbage
 - 1 large onion, finely chopped
 - 2 cloves garlic
 - Few sprigs parsley, chopped fine
 - 2 carrots, cut fine
 - 1 lb. sauerkraut
 - 1 can tomato sauce
 - 1 can tomato soup
 - 1 cup rice, uncooked
- Core cabbage and boil in enough water to cover until leaves can lightly be taken from the head.

FILLING

Brown onions in shortening. Add other vegetables and saute for about five minutes. Add to meat with rice and seasonings. Mix well. Place enough filling in each leaf so that it may be rolled and the ends pushed in with the tip of the finger. No toothpicks are necessary if rolled properly.

Arrange the stuffed cabbage in a heavy pot into which a layer of sauerkraut has been placed. Put remaining sauerkraut on top. Pour tomato sauce and soup over the sauerkraut level. Cover tightly, bring to a boil, then simmer for 1 1/2 hours.

A piece of ham or a few pork chops which have been broiled in a fry pan will enhance the flavor of this dish. The ham or chops should be placed just under the top layer of sauerkraut.

CRUSTLESS APPLE PIE

Filling
6 apples, peeled and sliced or 1 lb. 9 oz. can
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
4 tps. powdered sugar
1 tsp. lemon juice

Topping
1 cup flour
1/2 cup margarine, melted
1/2 cup brown sugar
3/4 cup apples, cinnamon, powdered sugar and lemon juice. Put into greased pie pan. Blend well the brown sugar, flour and melted shortening. Spread over apples. Bake in 250 degree oven for 40 minutes or until brown. Fresh apples will take longer.

SHASHLICK (Outdoor Cooking)

- 2 lbs. lamb, cubed
- 3 tomatoes, cubed
- 2 large onions, cubed

3 medium cooked and cubed white potatoes

MARINADE

- 1/2 cup oil
 - 1/4 cup lemon juice
 - 1/2 cup red wine
 - 1 clove garlic
 - 1/4 tsp. mace
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Marinate meat cubes and vegetables in sauce at least three hours in a cool place. Alternate meat, vegetables and bacon (folded in thirds) on skewers. Charbroil until meat is done, turning occasionally to permit even browning and baste with marinade. Other vegetables or meat may be used. Serves four.

BUTTERMILK ROLLS

- 2 cakes yeast
 - 1/4 cup sugar
 - 1 1/2 cups lukewarm buttermilk
 - 1/2 cup butter, melted
 - 5 cups sifted flour
 - 1 tsp. salt
 - 1/2 tsp. baking soda
- Crumble yeast cakes into bowl. Add sugar and buttermilk, stirring until dissolved. Stir in butter. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking soda. Stir into first mixture. Allow to rise in warm place for two hours or in the refrigerator until needed. Roll out dough on lightly floured board and shape into rolls. Let rise again until double in bulk and brush with slightly beaten egg. Bake for 20 minutes at 400 degrees. Makes two dozen.

RUM CAKE

- 1/2 lb. butter or margarine
 - 1 cup white sugar
 - 4 eggs
 - 1/2 cup rum
 - 1 pt. sour cream
 - 2 tps. baking powder
 - 2 tps. baking soda
 - 4 cups flour, sifted
 - 6 oz. pkg. of walnuts or pecans
 - 1 cup brown sugar
 - 1 tsp. cinnamon
- Cream shortening and white sugar. Add eggs one at a time beating well after each addition. Add rum and mix in well. Add flour alternately with sour cream to which the baking soda and baking powder have been added.

Combine nuts, brown sugar and cinnamon. Cut into cake so that it has a marble effect. Spoon into a greased and floured tube pan or into two

Try Shrimp A New Sandwich Way

Pantryshelf shrimp is used for a flavormore sandwich.

SHRIMP SANDWICHES

- 1 can (4 1/2 ounces) deveined shrimp, drained and rinsed and chopped
- 3 tps. minced green pepper
- 2 tps. minced shallot or green onion (scallion)
- 2 tps. mayonnaise
- 1 tsp. chili sauce
- 1 tsp. prepared mustard
- 4 slices buttered bread
- Mixed parsley

Thoroughly mix together all the ingredients except the bread and parsley. Spread the shrimp mixture on the bread to make open sandwiches; sprinkle with parsley. Makes two to four servings.

WON'T GO INTO EFFECT UNTIL LEGISLATURE HAS CHANCE TO ACT

Disturbing-The-Peace Law Ruled Unconstitutional

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas' disturbing-the-peace law was ruled unconstitutional Wednesday by a three-judge federal court, which said the statute was too broad.

The court said, however, its ruling would not go into effect until the legislature has a chance to enact a new law.

The case was filed Dec. 21, 1967, nine days after three University of Texas men were arrested and charged with disturbing the peace when they protested the Vietnam War at a speech by President Johnson at Killeen, near Fort Hood.

CHARGES DROPPED
The charges were dropped Feb. 13, but the Texas Civil Liberties Union insisted on a hearing, which was held Feb. 23 before U. S. Dist. Judges Adrian Spears, San Antonio; Jack Roberts, Austin, and Homer Thornberry of the 5th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

Roberts and Thornberry, former congressman from Johnson's old district, were both appointed by Johnson.

Arrested as they were surrounded by soldiers — which made up most of the Johnson audience of some 25,000 — were John E. Morby, history instructor, and graduate students James M. Damon and Zigmunt Smiga.

They said they were members of the University Committee to End the War in Vietnam.

Evidence indicates, the federal court said, that "several of the group were attacked by soldiers, who snatched away" signs "and physically struck several persons in the group. At that point, several military police seized members of the group and carried them out of the crowd."

BONDS POSTED
The university trio was taken to the Bell County Jail, where they were charged with disturbing the peace. The men refused to plead guilty and pay a maximum fine of $200, and instead, put up $500 bonds each.

Asst. Atty. Gen. Howard Fender said because charges had been dropped, there was no reason for the federal court hearing. The court said, however, the state's motion "ignores the notion... that the statute's simple presence on the books (which is what the plaintiffs are attacking) may have the requisite 'chilling effect' on constitutionality protected behavior to warrant close judicial scrutiny." The court said its inquiry "deals with the overbreadth attack as it relates to the part of the statute which prohibits the use of 'loud and vociferous... language... in a manner calculated to disturb the person or persons present."

The court said the case did not involve whether the law was "constitutionally applied" to the three men at Killeen.

"It cannot be doubted," the court's opinion said, "that the provision regarding the use of loud and vociferous language would, on its face, prohibit speech which would stir the public to anger, would invite dispute, would bring a condition of unrest, or would create a state of disturbance."

Dear Abby

—ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

A Young Man Speaks Out

DEAR ABBY: Over the years I have often wanted to give you a piece of my mind about your old-fashioned attitude towards sex and teenagers. However, I now know that you were right and I only wish I had listened to you.

A year ago, while still in high school, I started dating a girl two years younger than I. We fell head over heels in love. Our parents were friends and were overjoyed. They gave us complete freedom. When I would go to her house, her folks would go to bed early so we could be alone. At first we just cuddled on the couch and watched TV.

It was wonderful. We were together, alone, sometimes as often as six nights a week. We started necking a little, and then all the time. I started getting a little fresh, and she resisted, but she finally gave in from fear of losing me.

Anyway, one thing led to another, and before we knew it, we had gone too far. We started feeling guilty about what we were doing, but we consoled ourselves that we were "in love," so that as soon as she was out of school we'd be married — so what difference did it make? One night we had a terrible argument, and although it had nothing to do with sex, I know it would never have happened if we had behaved ourselves.

Anyway, she hit me and I hit her back. I have never forgiven myself for that and I don't believe I ever will. She went running home, and told her mother EVERYTHING that had happened between us. You can imagine what happened after that.

I was going to college at the time. I couldn't keep my mind on my studies. I just wanted to lie down and die. Finally I knew I was flunking out, so I quit college and joined the Navy.

I saw her on the street just once before I left for basic training. She cried and told me she still felt the same about me and was sorry for what she had done, but it was too late then. Her parents have refused to let her see me. Four months ago I was in college and I had the girl I loved. We had our whole lives mapped out.

Now I am on an island in the Pacific, thousands of miles from home. I'd give anything in the world if my girl had stuck by her guns and I hadn't been so persistent. Any girl who thinks she has to put out to keep a guy is crazy. I would have stayed with her if she'd only have let me hold her hand.

But I guess I was like every other boy. Selfish. I am sorry now, and would give anything for a second chance, but I'll never get it. I love that girl with all my heart and I will love her for the rest of my life.

Please keep telling teens and parents what you have in the past. Parents don't know what can happen when they push their kids into being adults. And kids don't realize they are playing with dynamite when they experiment with sex. You may use all of this letter, or any part of it, Abby, to help get the point across to young people. It is something that can't be stressed too strongly because the stakes are so high. Just sign me

YARBOROUGH GIGS 'THE OLD CROWD'S PROGRAMS'

Sharp Verbal Jabs Fly In Texas Governor's Race

By The Associated Press

Tart words are starting to fly a bit more often between some of the Democrats engaged in a warming Texas governor's race. Edward Whittenburg loosed a verbal broadside at John Hill during Wednesday campaigning. Big Spring (Texas) Herald, Thurs., April 11, 1968 and Hill fired another in what he said was an answer to a gibe from Eugene Locke. On other fronts: —Waggoner Carr made public a letter of praise from a leader in the Lower Rio Grande Valley's 1966 farm worker march. —Dolph Briscoe said if the state must have more revenue, he favors boosting the sales tax to levying an income tax. —Paul Eggers, one of the three Republicans seeking the nomination for governor, said his sources of income, John Hill won't disclose. —Locke pledged a study to ward providing West Texas a long range water supply. —Don Yarborough, considered the only staunch liberal among the Democratic rivals, talked about "the old crowd's programs (which) have not kept pace with the times." —John Hill won't disclose his sources of income, John Hill won't admit his political ties with Gov. John Connally and John Hill won't even state his position on a state minimum wage law. —Locke called him a demagogue for proposing a $1,000-a-year raise in teachers' pay. —"A demagogue is one who attempts to appeal to emotion," Hill said. "I am trying to appeal to logic." Mr. Locke says he took Locke to task before a Connroe audience, stating that Locke had called him a demagogue for proposing a $1,000-a-year raise in teachers' pay. —"A demagogue is one who attempts to appeal to emotion," Hill said. must wait and see if we can afford to pay teachers a living wage. In my opinion we can't afford not to pay that price."

APOLOGY

Carr, on a swing through the Lower Rio Grande Valley disclosed that the Rev. Antonio Gonzalez, a Roman Catholic priest, wrote that he "and other Mexican Americans owe you an apology for the charges made against you during this march."

At the time Carr was attorney general and he went with Gov. Connally to New Braunfels where the governor told the marchers he would not recommend the $1.25 minimum hourly wage they sought.

"Father Gonzalez' letter stated, 'I am now aware that you coming was to commend our marchers for our peaceful and lawabiding march... I am convinced you are a man who is concerned with the problems of the working poor.'"

Lt. Gov. Smith, at a Wichita Falls reception, said, "We do not have unlimited financial support and I will not make entangling commitments to get that support. It is difficult for me to understand how some other candidates can stand before the public and say they are independent candidates."

TEACHERS' PAY

Moving on to Amarillo, Smith told supporters this morning he would assign a special assistant to coordinate state and local government activities. "With the tremendous growth of city, county and state governments," he said, "a smooth working relationship... is a must to avoid costly duplication, delay and communications breakdown."

Briscoe, a Uvalde rancher and former state legislator, told supporters at Graham, "Now some of the other candidates are discovering that Texas has farmers and ranchers. I hope they will read more about it."

In talking about taxes, Briscoe said at Wichita Falls he believed his proposals, including a $1,000 teacher pay raise, would not make more taxes necessary. If more revenue must be tapped, he expressed favor for raising the sales or some other existing tax instead of imposing a state income tax.

Locke said at Brownfield that more water must be obtained for West Texas and he proposes a comprehensive study of the problem. He suggested it may have to come from the Mississippi or elsewhere and "it would not be cheap."

Endorsing the idea of community facilities for mental health patients, Locke said that by increasing these throughout the state it would be possible to take out as many as a fourth of the patients now in mental hospitals and put treatment at hand for all.

Horoscope Forecast

—CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TRENDCIES: Today's concerning Full Moon can bring sudden and startling changes in your life. Look out for these conditions and persons who may have a hand in your life. Be sure to be more staunchly in the days ahead and give them a chance to know your stand and to help you make them a big success. Be equally helpful towards their own.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You are anxious of radical change of circumstances and are reacting with the new and efficient, so do just that today.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The influence of the Full Moon can now cause you to get much accomplished and to make your surroundings more cheerful and clean. Use slightly different methods than heretofore. Turn your right hand to the left.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) If you are entertaining and do something helpful for good friends, you now gain their good will and further favors. Show your interest in their problems. Be sure to be efficient about spending a little money.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Showing higher aims than you are most efficient in your work makes a big impression. Many opportunities are being made more available from now on. Be sure to rise to the situations very admirably.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) A good day to run around here and there, cementing better relations with everyone, especially your finest allies. Don't hesitate to speak up where some situation is puzzling. Get all cleared up.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 21) Study your financial position accurately and see where you can advance and quickly, no matter what your position is. Be sure to bring more prestige from now on. Be sure to rise to the situations very admirably.

LIBRA (Sept. 22 to Oct. 21) You know exactly how to have better relations with the persons who are most helpful to you in the future. Be sure to dress nicely. Then out to meet new opportunities also. Have a charming manner to get right results.

SCORPIO (Oct. 22 to Nov. 21) Take care you do not get some fast operators to get you to invest unwisely. This is a good day to an offer that is an influential person expects of you and do your utmost to please. Show that you are a loyal supporter.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) It is better to cooperate with others now instead of endeavoring to change their plans, as is often your wont, habit! Some romantic opportunity presents itself that can lead to something ideal later on.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You need to divide your attention between some home projects as well as an outside matter. Learn what it is that an influential person expects of you and do your utmost to please. Show that you are a loyal supporter.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) You find that duties have piled up on you during this Full Moon, so drive right into them and leave evening care for tomorrow. Others may pressure you to do some thing. Do so without further procrastination.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN tomorrow he or she will be one of those interesting people who wants to wander from being a successful professional to just the opposite, to being a veritable ball of fire, so drive right into them as well as spiritual study for a fine combination of all such qualities. Some study of the artistic, the musical, the social is fine here.

Club Receives Sears Grant

For the eighth consecutive year, Sears Roebuck and Company and Texas Garden Clubs, Inc., are cooperating in a program of community improvement and beautification. In each of these years, Sears has provided $6,000 to clubs and councils throughout the state for their accomplishments in civic beautification projects. Shown are L. M. Morse, local Sears manager, as he presents a check to Mrs. Jim Zike and Mrs. C. O. Hitt of the Oasis Garden Club.

A LOVELIER YOU

Slim The Thighline To Rhythmic Exercise

By MARY SUE MILLER

Reducing a heavy thigh takes time and patience. But a trim thigh is an asset worth having. Otherwise the figure appears "bottom heavy," even when dirdnd skirted. (We won't mention swimming attire. Sh-h-h!) If you are the determined type, these routines will act to reduce and firm:

1. Lie face down on the floor, with backs of hands under forehead and legs stretched out straight. Bend knees and try to touch heels to hips. Holding

Installation Rites Held By Rebekah Lodge Tuesday

Mrs. S. A. Wilson was installed as noble grand of Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284 Tuesday evening in the IOOF Hall. Mrs. Gordon Gross, district deputy president, conducted the service.

Other installing officers were Mrs. L. A. Griffith, Mrs. Earl Wilson, Mrs. Tom McAdams, Mrs. Logan Grider, Miss Shirley Lee, Mrs. J. R. Petty and Mrs. T. A. Melton.

The other new officers are Mrs. A. G. Hall, vice grand; Mrs. I. O. Collins, financial secretary; Mrs. E. V. Cockerham, wardens; Mrs. E. H. Sanders, conductress; Mrs. W. N. Wood, chaplain; Mrs. Grider, musician; Mrs. Margaret Stewart, color bearer; Mrs. Jewel Fields, Rebekah flag bearer; Mrs. B. A. Bunn, inner guard; and Mrs. Beulah Morrison, outer guard.

Mrs. F. A. Gibbs was named Texas flag bearer, and Mrs. Sandra Morgan, emblem flag bearer. Mrs. Leon Stockton will be soloist.

Rainbow colors were used throughout the hall, and each station was decorated with a pot of gold holding a lighted taper with rainbow colored flowers.

Mrs. Gross gave certificates of perfection in unwritten work to Miss Lee and Mrs. Melton.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a white organdy cloth over blue and centered with an arrangement of spring flowers.

Will Attend Convention In El Paso

Mrs. Billy Gage reported on the district meeting at Abilene when she was hostess Tuesday at a meeting of the National Association of Letter Carriers Auxiliary in the First Federal Community Room. She announced that the state convention will be held June 13-15 at the Plaza Hotel in El Paso. Delegates from here plan to attend.

Mrs. Wayne Beene presided and Mrs. J. D. Buchanan led prayers.

The auxiliary will have a "backward" party on May 14 and a "come as you are breakfast" later in the month.

Seven bibs and 12 pitcher pads were turned in for the Veterans Administration Hospital, and Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. Tom Conway volunteered to make cakes for the hospital birthday party in April.

Members were reminded that Dr. Preston Harrison of the Big Spring State Hospital will be guest speaker in June. Refreshments were served.

Performs Program Of European Music

"European Scene, Part Two," Kessler, Mrs. Walter Osborn was the program led by Mrs. and Mrs. Brown, sang "Come Unto Him." The concluding number was a piano solo, "Sonata in D Minor," by Mrs. Aubrey Hyden.

Refreshments were served to 18 members and a guest, Mrs. Irwin Bell. The table was accented with an arrangement of yellow daffodils and chrysanthemums.

New officers will be installed at a May 11 spring luncheon at Big Spring Country Club. The resignation of Mrs. Robert Hill was accepted, and Mrs. E. M. Ballard was named secretary.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Color Coconut For Prettier Dessert

Dear Heloise:

How do you color shredded coconut?

I like to use lightly tinted yellow coconut on the top of my banana pie but when I pour the food color in, the coconut comes out streaked and horrible looking.

I have also tried mixing food coloring with water and then pouring it over the coconut, but it comes out entirely too wet. . . . Coconut Lover

Dear Coconut Lover:

Get a clean fruit jar, put a teaspoon of water in it and put about two drops of yellow food coloring in the jar.

Cap the jar and shake it thoroughly so that the colored liquid coats all sides of the jar. Then drop in your coconut. Heloise shake real hard and let sit a bit . . .

If you are using only one-fourth cup of coconut, a pint jar will suffice. If you are using more than one-fourth cup, use a quart jar!

I find that if it sits four, even five, days in your refrigerator, it's even better!

To add "zip" to that coconut, try substituting a half teaspoon of lemon extract for some of the water to mix with the food coloring. It's out on cloud nine.

Not only that, but using different shades of food coloring and flavoring extracts will always add that extra touch to your pies, cakes and ambrosia salads.

Be real gone. It doesn't cost more than a penny or two to try it. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

Scrubbing the ceramic tile walls around the tub and the inside of the glass shower doors isn't too bad, but rinsing it was always sloppy because the water ran down my arm until I was as wet as the walls.

I finally solved that messy job by filling an empty, plastic detergent bottle with water and squirting it along the top of the wall I had scrubbed.

The water runs down into the tub and I remain dry and easy to get along with! . . . Devoted Fan

Dear Heloise:

I have just discovered a new use for the plastic boxes that tomatoes sometimes come in.

They make a nice, neat holder for book matches and can be stacked in a drawer or on a shelf. . . . Kay Allison

Dear Heloise:

Please tell those who have portable electric ovens to clean them this easy way.

Just put a cup of straight household ammonia on the shelf inside while the oven is still slightly warm and close the door. Let it stand overnight . . . the grease will come off the next morning smooth as silk. . . . Mrs. B. Headlee

It works. PULL OUT THE PLUG and put a damp bath towel over the oven and it seals the fumes inside. Those fumes are what does the work. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I tinted my hair and white waiting for the color to set, it stained the earpieces of my glasses. I must wear them all the time if I want to see ANYTHING.

Now I've learned to put plastic wrap around the ear pieces before I tint my hair and no longer have that staining problem. . . . Heloise Fan

Dear Heloise:

When my toddler was old enough to sit real well and was learning to splash in her bath (but not quite ready for the big bathtub), I put her plastic tub in the big bathtub and just let her splash!

I enjoyed watching while she had a ball and didn't have to worry about water on walls or floor. . . . Carol E. G.

Oasis Garden Club Gets Funds From Foundation

Lloyd Morse, local Sears manager, represented the Sears Roebuck Foundation when he presented a $50 grant check to the Oasis Garden Club during Wednesday's meeting in the home of Mrs. D. O. Gray, Coronado Hills Apartments. The money will be used in the landscaping of the Special Education School grounds.

Morse spoke briefly on the foundation's county agent program which will be working on beautification of the local area. James Bruce Frazier was guest speaker and discussed landscape design, pointing out that Arizona Cypress and Chinese Elm trees do exceptionally well in this area. He told of gardens he had toured in other countries and noted that local gardeners can create a miniature "Mount Fuji" or "floral clock" such as are seen in other lands. He said the garden of Douglas Chandler in Weatherford is an outstanding example of what can be done in a small yard.

Reports were heard from Mrs. Jim Zike and Mrs. Gray who attended the March 27-28 state convention in Corpus Christi. Mrs. Zike told of awards won by the club and announced that the 40th anniversary meeting of the National Council of Garden Clubs will be held May 14-16 in the Sheraton Hotel in Dallas. Afterward there will be garden tours available in Dallas and Tyler as well as cities in Mexico.

The meeting concluded with a display of hanging baskets and a plant and seed exchange by members, Mrs. Robert Reagan, cohostess, assisted in serving refreshments.

The May meeting will be hosted by Mrs. Albert Hohertz, 2800 Parkway. Afterward, a luncheon will be held at Holiday Inn in Midland, followed by a pilgrimage and tour of Los Patios Landscaping and Gardening Center.

Woman Named Fire Inspector

AUSTIN (AP) — Mrs. Linda Carlow of Austin has been appointed as a fire inspector for the city's fire prevention department. She says she is the first woman fire inspector in Texas.

Mrs. Carlow is a graduate of Southwest Texas State College at San Marcos and has taught in schools in Austin and Taylor.
