Fiery Crash Kills Seven Early Sunday

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — A fiery plane crash that killed the coach and five members of the Lamar Tech track team has plunged the campus of the Southeast Texas college into shock and grief.

A total of seven persons, including the pilot, were killed when the private plane, returning from the Drake Relays in Des Moines, plunged into a rice field a mile short of the airport here early Sunday morning.

The plane, which exploded after impact, burned with heat so intense firemen had difficulty approaching it.

Classes were dismissed at the 7,000-student school for the memorial service for Coach Tyrus "Ty" Tecrell and the five team members — Randy Clewis of Palestine, Don DeLaune of LaMarque, Mike Favazza of Beaumont, John Richardson of Beaumont and Waverly Thomas of Galveston.

The Federal Aviation Agency said the pilot had made a routine request for landing clearance and "there was no indication it was in any kind of trouble."

Airport Manager Lee Sheffield said the plane was owned by Cecil Anderson of Beaumont, whom he called "a booster for the Lamar Tech team."

Storm Leaves Heaps Of Hail In Dallas

By The Associated Press

Thunderstorms continued to boom along the upper Texas coast today in the wake of a turbulent Sunday that brought lashing rainstorms, high winds, hailstorms, and flash floods to the southern and eastern portions of the state.

High winds which residents said were spawned by a tornado funnel destroyed a mobile home, a car and a garage and damaged several house trailers at the northern edge of Irving Sunday while a heavy rain and hailstorm lashed the Dallas area.

Early morning low temperatures ranged from a freezing 32 degrees at Lubbock up to 69 at McAllen and Galveston.

Heavier rainfall amounts for the 24-hour period ending at 7 a.m. Monday included Laredo 2.04 inches, Tyler 1.07 and Galveston 1.00. There were unofficial measurements as great as 3.30 in north Laredo.

Some homes in Laredo were flooded and a woman fell into a water-filled ditch but was rescued.

No immediate damage estimate was available in Dallas but losses from hail were expected to be relatively high.

Road graders were pressed into service to clear highways of hailstones that piled up as deep as three feet in spots at Dallas. Torrential downpours blocked overpasses and sent water swirling curb-to-curb across a number of streets in the city.

At Laredo, a damaged retaining wall along Chacon Creek caused flash flooding in the border city. Water swirled eight inches deep into one residence and a landslide on a railroad overpass blocked a highway.

Baseball size hail fell at Rocksprings in Southwest Texas and numerous other hailstorms were reported as the violent thunderstorms moved all the way from the Rio Grande northeastward across Texas to the Red and Sabine rivers.

The turbulent weather erupted along and ahead of a weak cold front that has now become almost stationary along a line running from Lufkin to near Houston and Corpus Christi to South of Laredo.

Teenager Is Held In Death Of Five

CHARLESTON, Ill. (AP) — Thomas Charles Fuller, 18, is being held in Coles County jail without bond for a preliminary hearing Tuesday on charges of murdering three brothers and two sisters of a girl he reportedly dated.

The youth was arrested Sunday near Eastern Illinois University some 13 hours after the five children of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox were shot to death outside their home near Mattoon.

FOUND

The dead children were found Saturday night in and around a barn on the family farm. Deputy Coroner Jess Caudill said each of the victims had been shot in the head with a small caliber pistol and the two girls' heads also had been battered.

Killed in the slaughter were Lewis, 16; Theresa, 9; Mary Catharine, 8; Gary, 7, and Kenneth, 5.

Police said a teenage daughter, Louise, 16, was home at the time of the slayings but was unharmed. Friends of the family said Louise, whose twin brother, Lewis, was killed, had been dating Fuller.

Authorities declined to discuss possible motives for the slayings and said they had no comment on whether the brown-haired youth made any statements.

Fuller offered no resistance when he was seized by police near the university in Charleston, which is some 10 miles east of Mattoon. Police said he was carrying a .22-caliber revolver.

WORKING

Police said Cox, a construction worker, and two elder sons were working on a truck several miles away from the two-story white frame farmhouse when the murders took place. His wife and the oldest daughter, Mrs. Christine Cline, 21, of Chicago, took another of the Cox family's 11 children to Mattoon for treatment of a burn.

Students Stage Blockade To Squeeze Off Protest

NEW YORK (AP) — An impatient faction of the Columbia University student body tightened today a blockade to squeeze off a protest by fellow students that has disrupted the Ivy League school for a week.

Columbia called off classes again as efforts continued to end the student sit-in at five buildings.

BLOCKADE

But some students eager for the school to return to normal formed what they called the Majority Coalition to end the blockade and threw up a blockade around Low Memorial Library Sunday night.

They tightened it this morning, saying they were cutting off all food and medical supplies for about 100 protesters inside. About 200 students manned the blockade.

As the sky lightened over Columbia on the seventh morning of the protest, the campus was in a state of disarray. Red flags flew from the roofs of two of the five occupied buildings. Several spots on campus had turned into a bivouac area.

A group of students awakened from spending a night in the open on the campus and began to brew coffee opposite the sun dial near the library. Others did calisthenics in groups.

Hundreds of students, some for and some against the sit-in, stayed on campus throughout the night.

About 400 sit-in supporters either slept wrapped in blankets or sleeping bags, or sat talking quietly.

OPPOSED

Another 250 students, opposed to the sit-in, either slept or talked nearby in the center of the campus at the sun dial. A number of these helped faculty members patrol Low Memorial Library, being occupied by members of Students for a Democratic Society.

Major Fight Continuing In Blackout

SAIGON (AP) — A big U.S. force that plunged by helicopter into what its commander called "real paydirt" has found at least one enemy camp and supplies in the A Shau Valley, but the enemy troops scattered before the invaders.

The 10-day-old offensive, not announced until Sunday night, continues under a security blackout. Correspondents with the troops were permitted to report only actions in the first three days of the assault.

The helicopters swarmed in April 19 carrying thousands of U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division troops and equipment into what has been a North Vietnamese stronghold for two years. Enemy gushes brought down or damaged 30 of the choppers.

BAD DAY

"Hell, I've never lost that many in weeks and weeks," said Maj. Gen. John J. Tolson, commander of the Flying Horsemen. "By far it's the hottest place we've ever gone into. The old opponent gave me a big bad day."

The U.S. Command said the operation, called Delaware, was a "reconnaissance in force," indicating that the American force would smash the staging areas and supply lines and then pull out. South Vietnamese paratroopers formed a blocking force at the valley's exit toward Hue.

(AP WIREPHOTO MAP)

Zone

Map locates A Shau Valley, a strip of land about 25 miles long and 8-10 miles wide.

Despite the heavy anti-aircraft fire, casualties on both sides were reported relatively light in the first three days, with fewer than 50 North Vietnamese and 20 Americans killed. Sixteen U.S. helicopter crewmen were wounded.

After the landing, Pfc. Jimmy R. Rose of Smithfield, N.C., and Sgt. Hillary Craig of Winter Park, Fla., followed a communications wire to a 30-building enemy camp evacuated so quickly that laundry still was hanging on lines.

The American troops found dozens of 50-gallon drums of gasoline, four Russian trucks, 300 Chinese automatic rifles still in crates, hundreds of artillery and anti-aircraft rounds, a ton of rice and 100 Russian mine detectors.

The 25-mile-long valley near the Laotian border and southwest of Hue, has been a staging point for North Vietnamese troops since they overran a U.S. Special Forces camp in it two years ago.

"This is one of the most important pieces of real estate the enemy has," said Gen. Tolson. He said he believes some of the enemy anti-aircraft guns—37mms that can hit aircraft at 10,000 feet—are radar-guided. Some of the American helicopters were hit at 6,000 feet.

Despite the losses, "the operation so far has been highly successful," Tolson said. "We hold the key terrain."

Enemy troops in the valley are believed to be mostly support units such as transportation and engineer companies, and ground fighting was reported light in the early stages.

NEAR HUE

Just north of Hue, U.S. 101st Airborne Division troops clashed for the second straight day Sunday with North Vietnamese in the "Street Without Joy," a coastal strip that was the scene of French defeats in the Indochina war.

French Team Performs 7th Heart Transplant

PARIS (AP) — The first French heart transplant operation was performed this weekend but doctors today expressed concern for the patient's recovery.

Speaking with newsmen 50 hours after the operation, the doctors reported the patient suffered a circulation failure during surgery and since then nerve complications have set in.

TRUCK DRIVER

The patient is Clovis Roblain, 66, a truck driver from central France, who had suffered for years with a heart ailment.

This was the world's seventh human heart transplant operation, but only one of the other patients survived. He is Dr. Philip Blainberg, 58, a South African dentist who was operated on Jan. 2 at Cape Town. He went home from the hospital March 16.

DR. MAURICE MERCADIER

Dr. Maurice Mercadier, chief of surgery at La Pitie Hospital, told a news conference "the condition of the patient is causing anxiety among us."

Mercadier said Roblain had not yet recovered lucidity, but did not explain further. He added that there had been no difficulty in the operation itself.

The heart transplanted to Roblain was taken from a 23-year-old man who had undergone an operation for a head injury. His death had been certified after tests with electroencephalograms.

The man from whom the heart was taken was reported to be Michel Gyppez, injured in a traffic accident last Thursday.

TEAM

The operation was performed by a team led by heart surgeons Christian Cabrol and Gerard Guiraudon. It began Saturday at 10 p.m. at La Pitie Hospital and ended nine hours later.

Dr. Mercadier said Roblain suffered from a heart ailment which would have soon been fatal.

'Neo-Nazis' Win Support In Another German State

STUTTGART, Germany (AP) — West Germany's ultra-rightist party won seats in another state legislature Sunday and got its biggest share of the vote to date. Willy Brandt's Socialists were the big losers.

The election in Baden-Wuerttemberg was the last state vote before the federal elections next year and was considered an important indication of political trends. Public interest was reflected by a 70.6 per cent turnout of the 5.6 million eligible voters, a record for an election in the state.

The ultra-right National Democrats, whose opponents charge they are neo-Nazis, were campaigning in the state for the first time. They won 12 of the 127 legislative seats and collected 9.8 per cent of the vote. The three-year-old party now has won seats in seven state parliaments.

All parties agreed the voters were influenced by the leftist student demonstrations and riots in West Berlin and other major cities during the Easter weekend. The National Democrats took a hard line toward the students, and the party chairman, Adolf Von Thadden, accused the Socialists of a fuzzy attitude toward the demonstrators.

"I ain't had much education, but even I can see that they ain't gettin' nothin' out of Congress." The campaign will not be another good-natured, one-day march on Washington like the one in 1963, King told a business group before he was killed. "We will stay until we get a response."

COULD BECOME LARGEST AND LONGEST

Advance Scouts Arrive For Camp-In WASHINGTON (AP) — About 100 advance scouts from the Poor People's Campaign kick off today what could become the nation's largest and longest camp-in.

It would have to get a lot larger than originally planned to beat the estimated 15,000 veterans who camped on Capitol Hill in 1932, demanding their veterans bonuses be paid 13 years ahead of schedule.

But campaign organizers, here for three days of preliminary negotiating with government leaders, said Sunday they think it might be bigger.

Support among the poor has proven so strong, they said, that they've turned from their original goal of 3,000 tent dwellers to talk of "hundreds of thousands" of demonstrators camped all over Washington.

The Rev. Ralph Abernathy who took over as president of the sponsoring Southern Christian Leadership Conference after Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated April 4, has scheduled talks today through Wednesday with federal department heads, including Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

The thought of hundreds of thousands of people, mostly Negroes, streaming into tent cities before the nation's capital has had time to recover from its early April riots is unsettling to many, even though organizers take pains to emphasize their belief in nonviolence.

Almost nobody is neutral about the idea. Some Senate leaders have denounced it, while others say the poor should be welcomed. Businessmen are reducing inventories and duplicating vital records.

Police have laid plans for possible disturbances. And in the storefront headquarters of SCLC, a small army of volunteers works hard at sorting out last-minute details.

Nothing much is expected to happen until May 13. That's when Abernathy, convinced that his pleas for a guaranteed annual income and housing, job and education guarantees will fall on deaf ears, expects to lead the first wave of his thousands of marchers into Washington.

And then? "That's what I'd like to know," said a 23-year-old unemployed mechanic who lives not far from SCLC headquarters. "I ain't had much education, but even I can see that they ain't gettin' nothin' out of Congress." The campaign will not be another good-natured, one-day march on Washington like the one in 1963, King told a business group before he was killed. "We will stay until we get a response."

New Movie Theatre

Plans are underway for the remodeling of a business building in College Park Shopping Center to install a movie theater.

Sky-Vue Theatre Inc., Lamesa, has obtained a building permit for $5,000 to do the remodeling work. The theater, which is expected to seat 168 persons, will be located between the T. G. & Y. Family Center and the Safeway Store in the shopping center, where the Pittsburgh Paint Store was formerly located.

Only Two Billionaires

NEW YORK (AP) — A Fortune magazine survey report says the two richest Americans — the only ones who probably can be listed as billionaires — are oilman J. Paul Getty and financier Howard Hughes.

The May issue of the magazine says Getty, 75, and Hughes, 62, are followed by six other Americans who are half-billionaires and 153 who have a net worth of more than $100 million each.

The Fortune article estimates Getty's visible assets at $957,404,289 conservatively and $1,338,417,316 liberally.

It estimates Hughes' wealth at $985,500,000 conservatively and $1,373,000,000 liberally.

Fortune says that a similar survey it made in 1957 estimated Getty's wealth between $700 million and $1 billion, and Hughes' wealth between $200 million and $400 million.

Listed in the $200 million to $300 million class are New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller and his brothers — David, John and Laurance, all of New York, and Winthrop, governor of Arkansas.

Virus Closes Academy

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Classes were suspended at the Air Force Academy today after a number of cadets became ill with an as yet unidentified type of virus.

An academy official said at least 500 cadets had been treated for throat infections.

About 60 cadets are in an emergency hospital set up in the academy gymnasium. A spokesman said they had sore throats, were vomiting and were suffering from diarrhea. None was regarded in dangerous condition, a spokesman said.

Average Income

WASHINGTON (AP) — Average personal income in Texas last year was $2,704, the government reported today. The figure was $433 below the national average of $3,137.

Government statisticians said total personal income in the United States rose almost seven per cent last year.

Total personal income in Texas was $29.38 billion, the government said.

Connecticut had the highest average income per person with $3,865, while Mississippi's $1,895 was the lowest.

Lots Of Smokers

AUSTIN (AP) — An estimated 49 million Americans smoke cigarettes, says the associate surgeon general.

Dr. Eugene Guthrie told a smoking and health conference Sunday that studies have shown that a young man who smokes two packs of cigarettes a day can expect to live eight years less than a non-smoker.

48 Top Students Will Be Honored

Forty-eight outstanding area high school students, including 11 in Howard and neighboring counties, will be honored for their achievements with an awards luncheon Saturday sponsored by the Midland Chamber of Commerce and coordinated by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Highlight of the luncheon, which is to begin at 12:30 p.m. at the Sands Motel, Midland, will be the presentation of large personalized certificates signifying their selection as top students in their schools by the WTCC.

Among those students being honored are Steve Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson, and Elizabeth Hayworth, daughter of L. D. Hayworth, both of Big Spring; Lois E. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moore; and Bobby J. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rogers, Coahoma; Mary Ann Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dennis, Lamesa; and Neil S. McMorries, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. McMorries, Tarzan, both from Flower Grove High School.

Also, Deryl Ann Dunagan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Dunagan, Garden City Route, from Forsan High School; Judy Overby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Burnice Overby, Le-norah; and Sue Lynn Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Walker, both from Stanton High School; Patricia Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bell, and Doyce Edwards, son of the Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Edwards, both of Westbrook.

The students were chosen by a screening committee of the WTCC from among those recommended by local school officials. The awards luncheon in Midland is one of several events planned throughout the WTCC area to present certificates to top seniors. Recipients were selected for scholastic achievement, leadership qualities and character traits.

GET YOUR BOAT READY

By E. R. MOREN

D. M. McEvers who lives next door to the store and his dog, Cactus, were in early Sat. morning buying bow lights and stern lights. Mr. McEvers is getting his boat ready for the summer and the lights are required on boats after dark on most lakes. Mr. Porter at Porter's Mobile station informed me in true fisherman style that he had already caught "old grandpa" that had been eluding him for a couple of years. The big bass weighed about 10 pounds and we did not ruin the story by weighing the fish; but I understand that Porter still has the fish head around for evidence.

Jake Wennik of 1510 Tucson is getting ready for the coming hot weather by trading his 4000 cfm evap. cooler which he bought from us about three years ago for a larger 4700 cfm unit. Replacement cooler pads, we carry two types, are slowly moving out but we know that the big rush will come with temperature increases.

Many of our customers have found that Wizard Liquid asbestos roof coating will really prolong the life of an evaporative cooler if it is applied to the parts of the cooler that are the most likely to rust. In humid climates this Wizard Liquid asbestos is used on gutters, downspouts and flashings; but in West Texas the biggest use is found in prevention of rust in evaporative coolers. The end of the cooling season before cooler is put up for winter is the time to make repairs and coat your cooler. It is also possible to paint over the coating after it has dried, if you desire a better looking finish than the black coating.

Two Hearts Involved

DEAR ABBY: My husband (I'll call him Ted) is a salesman. We've been married for 20 years. Last month, while Ted was on the road, he had a severe heart attack. His brother called me and said that Ted was extending his business trip a "few extra days" and for me not to worry, but I knew something was wrong and I finally got his brother to tell me that Ted was in the hospital with a heart attack. Naturally I immediately went to be with Ted. I stayed for three weeks and when I asked the hospital cashier for Ted's bill, I saw his admittance form, revealing that he had had the heart attack at 2 a.m. in the apartment of a woman.

She called the ambulance and he was hospitalized, using her address. Also, instructions were left that his bill should be sent to her house.

When I asked Ted to explain it, he said he didn't know the

First Head-On Test For RFK, McCarthy

By The Associated Press

Democratic presidential aspirants Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy begin their final week of campaigning today in Indiana—their first head-on primary clash.

Richard M. Nixon, the only major Republican presidential candidate on Indiana's May 7 primary ballot, plans to campaign in the state Thursday and Friday.

"GREATER TRAGEDY" Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey—who has challenged Kennedy's pledge of "no more Vietnams" as an open invitation for Communist expansion—plans to remain in Washington. "We ought to pursue as effectively as we can an honorable peace, to try to find a way to negotiate our way out of this tragic war," said Humphrey, who entered the Democratic presidential race Saturday.

"But I think it would be a greater tragedy," he continued, "to have any citizen that seeks high office in this country to announce that American power would not be used in case there was Communist aggression. This would breed not peace but chaos."

In other political developments: —Backers of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said they think he will announce as an active Republican presidential candidate possibly before May 16.

"He gave us no discouragement," said Sen. Thurston B. Morton, R-Ky., after a meeting with the governor. "We believe we have an active candidate."

—An aide denied reports that California Gov. Ronald Reagan told a group of Republicans in Boise, Idaho, he is a Republican presidential candidate. One of the Republicans said he got the impression Reagan intended to announce his candidacy May 26 on NBC's "Meet the Press."

Shaking Rugs Prove Costly

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Authorities began to enforce this past weekend new city regulations providing heavy fines for offenses ranging from carrying weapons to shaking rugs out of windows.

Persons carrying firearms, chains, brass knuckles, knives or their weapons without authorization will be subject to fines of up to 5,000 pesos ($400 U.S.). Shaking rugs out of residential windows or throwing garbage into the streets carry fines of 1,000 pesos ($80) as does the common practice of throwing bottles and other objects during sporting events or of walking an unmuzzled dog on the streets of the city.

Use of fireworks, also common, can result in a fine of up to 2,000 pesos ($160) and turning in false alarms or making unjustified reports contributing to a panic situation carries a maximum fine of 5,000 pesos.

woman, that she was just the ambulance driver! I have since found a number of cancelled checks in my husband's desk made out to this woman, going back over a year. Now Ted says he owed her money and was just paying her back, and he refuses to talk about it further. I spoke with this woman on the phone and found out that she is a divorcee. She says she and Ted are "good friends." Ted will be discharged next week. His doctor gave me instructions on how to care for him during his convalescence. The doctor assumes that my husband will be coming home for a three month bed rest. Under the circumstances, I'm not so sure I want him. Whereas his heart has been damaged, mine has been broken. What should I do? HIS WIFE DEAR WIFE: If you say your heart has been "broken" — you must still care something for Ted. In which case, let him come home, and talk things over when his heart is stronger — and yours is lighter. DEAR ABBY: I just finished reading the letter from "Second Fiddle." She is filled with resentment because her husband has pictures of his first wife all over the house and asked that he be buried beside her when he died. I married my husband two years after his first wife died. He also had pictures of "her" all over the house. Before we were married, he told me that he had loved his first wife very much but he said he loved ME, too. He passed away recently, and although our years together were few in number, they were happy. And during our marriage I felt no resentment whatsoever toward his first wife. In fact, I would have thought something was terribly wrong had he not cherished loving memories of her, as they were married for many years. Their marriage was right before God and man. And so was ours. SECOND WIFE BUT NOT SECOND FIDDLE

Hopefuls Fan Out Over Texas

By The Associated Press

Texas' 13 hopefuls for the governor's chair at Austin spread out over Texas today to make the most of the five days remaining before the fateful May 4th primaries.

All of the three Republican candidates and most of the ten Democratic aspirants converged Sunday on Galveston to appear before the annual convention of the Texas Association of Broadcasters.

One Republican gubernatorial candidate—John Trice—used the Galveston platform to criticize GOP Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York and Texas Republican Chairman Peter O'Donnell Jr.

LOTS OF LOOT

Trice told the broadcasters "We have a man who has all the money in the world, who has great ambitions, who is very ruthless and is also dedicated to world socialism, and I have no one else in mind than Nelson Rockefeller of New York."

"Our state chairman isn't interested in winning the governorship of Texas. He's got his eye on larger stakes at the national level. His only interest in the Republican Party of Texas is to control the delegation to the national convention, of which he fully expects to be in a position to make a deal with Nelson Rockefeller," said Trice. A Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Waggoner Carr, told the broadcasters he will escalate his battle with supporters of legalized pari mutuel betting.

"Those whose purpose it is to open up Texas to the gambling interests have trained their guns on me," Carr said. "I accept the challenge. I am going to keep legalized gambling, and the underworld that follows, out of Texas."

PHANTOM?

Ed Whittenburg chided another Democratic candidate, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, for not accepting the broadcasters' invitation to speak.

"There are some who haven't got the guts to come here and stand before you," Whittenburg said, adding "Your lieutenant governor—is he a phantom candidate?"

Democratic Dolph Briscoe could not attend because of illness and a friend, Highway Commissioner A. C. Petry Jr., spoke for him at the meeting.

BASIC QUALITIES

Eugene Locke, another Democratic candidate, speaking in Houston said if elected governor "I will do everything in my power to take the handcuffs off the peace officers and put them on the criminal where they belong." Smith, speaking at a barbecue

Hail Pounds South Again

By The Associated Press

Severe weather hit parts of the South again today while the rest of the country enjoyed generally fair, complacent, spring-time conditions.

Thunderstorms erupted from Texas to Georgia with locally heavy rain reported. Arkansas again received the brunt of violent activity.

A tornado Sunday night struck Cent Point in southwest Arkansas, destroying a church and five other buildings. No injuries were reported.

Hail, some the size of golf balls, hit Wabbaseka and Star City, both southeast of Little Rock.

Some light showers occurred through the upper Mississippi Valley early today. Otherwise, generally fair weather prevailed.

Forces Welcome Huge Invasion

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Federal authorities rushed marines and other armed forces personnel to the beaches near Tampico to welcome a seaborne invasion.

First word of the invasion, an annual affair involving turtles, reached authorities Friday when officials in Barra de Calabazas reported 10,000 of the huge turtles had arrived to lay their eggs.

Thousands more are expected before the end of the egg laying season.

Since turtle eggs are considered a delicacy in many Mexican cities, authorities have ordered armed personnel to patrol the beaches in order to protect the species.

MRS. TOMMY SOTO

Wedding Solemnized In Baptist Church

The wedding of Miss Ruth Loya and Tommy Soto was solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the sanctuary of the La Fe Baptist Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Rafael Luevanos, 305 E. 9th, and Mr. and Mrs. Jesus Soto, Route 1, Petersburg.

The Rev. Julian Vigil read the double ring ceremony as the couple stood before an altar graced with a large arrangement of gladioli, chrysanthemums and pompons, and flanked by seven-branched candelabra holding cathedral tapers. They knelt on a white satin prie dieu for the wedding prayer.

Mrs. A. E. Hyden, pianist, played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Mike Ramirez as he sang, "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her step-father, the bride was attired in a slender silhouette of white satin designed with imported French Chantilly lace sleeves and cathedral train. The neckline and train hem were scalloped in ruffles and the long sleeves tapered to points over the wrists. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion fell from a petal cap accented with crystal and beads. She carried a bouquet of white roses and greenery.

Miss Mary Luevanos, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Alicia Acosta, Miss Hope Abreo, Miss Mary Ann Abreo, Miss Della Rubio, Miss Mary Soto and Miss Esther Reyna, the latter two of Petersburg. All were attired in floor-length dresses of orange, avocado green and gold satin, fashioned with low necklines and short sleeves. They wore flower hats attached to veiling and carried nosegays matching their dresses.

Joe Jack Garza of Lubbock was best man. Ushers were Gilbert R. Barraza and Viron Hartin. Groomsmen were Norman DaSilva of California; Julian Gudaleazar and Charlie Lopez, both of Petersburg; Junior Mendoza, Eddie Chavez and Alberto

Arrange Blooms To Look Natural

You don't have to be blessed with a "green thumb" to arrange flowers attractively.

Just remember that the blooms should look natural in the vase. No need to torture them into a stark, stylized design.

Simple pyramid or fan shapes are easy to figure out. Be sure to ask your florist to include greens when you buy cut flowers. They're handy for filling in your arrangements.

You will find that a huge bouquet of purple iris will brighten the corner of a room, while a single red tulip in a bud vase can be strikingly effective on a small table.

Splashes of color are what does it.

LVN Association To Hold Reception

The Licensed Vocational Nurses Association, Division 25, will hold a reception for recent LVN graduates Tuesday from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Pioneer Gas Flame Room. All LVN's and student nurses are invited to attend.

Bride-Elect Honored At Gift Party

Miss Phoebe Anne Rice, bride-elect of 2nd Lt. Gail F. Tatum of Webb Air Force Base, was complimented with a gift party Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Harold Rosson, 2605 Ann, was hostess. Calling hours were from 3 to 5 p.m.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Luther Bean, Mrs. R. E. Hoover, Mrs. Joe B. Johnson, Mrs. Alan Kennedie, Miss Terri Macklin, Mrs. Brown Rogers, Mrs. Tom Rosson and Mrs. Bob Simpson.

The honoree was attired in a yellow shift trimmed with lace and was presented a white chrysanthemum corsage. Her mother, Mrs. Frank Rice, was given a white carnation corsage. The prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. L. C. Arnold of Fort Smith, Ark., was unable to attend.

The hostess' gift was an electric mixer.

Miss Lou Ann Stroup presided at the guest register and Miss Macklin and Mrs. Bean attended the refreshment table. The table was laid with yellow or-gandy gathered cloth and centered with yellow and white daisies in a milk glass container. Milk glass and silver appointments completed the setting.

Approximately 100 were included on the guest list. The couple will marry May 25 in the First Christian Church with the Rev. John Beard officiating.

A LOVELIER YOU

Use Expertise In Packing For Trip

By MARY SUE MILLER
There's an art to packing. Expertise eliminates the jumble in luggage that leads to mussy clothes and the "I can't find it" syndrome. Moreover, the tedium of fully unpacking and re-packing on short stopovers is forever ended.

Just how are these wonders accomplished? First you need luggage that fits into the scheme—weekender—size suitcase, a shoe case or duffel, and a roomy carryall to tote by hand.

The carryall holds your needs en route, such as a sweater, foldaway hat and minibrella (the mini-est of umbrellas). Plus your jewelry roll and all cosmetics and grooming aids, contained in a spillproof kit.

Besides shoes, the shoe case carries stockings, house slippers and many an unwieldy necessity like that big can of hairspray. If your shoe case is without compartments, there is safety in enclosing each item in a clear, plastic bag of the household variety.

Now to pack the suitcase. The ideal arrangement is to pack in layers with a divider between each. The top layer should hold the clothes, lingerie and accessories that you plan to wear at early stops. Costumes for use in the near future go in the next layer, and so on down the line. Owing to the dividers you can

Randall Polk Honored At Retirement Dinner

Randall Polk terminated 25 years with Hemphill Wells Company at a retirement buffet dinner held in his honor Sunday evening at the Big Spring Country Club.

Polk was local manager of Hemphill Wells for the past 10 years, and will make his home on the Highland Lakes near Kingsland, where he will continue as director of the company.

Bill E. Collins, president of the company, presided and presented Polk with a bronze service plaque and a gold watch. B. E. Rushing, vice president and secretary, gave the retiring manager his first retirement check, and a gift of a barbecue grill was presented by Mike Hull on behalf of the store employees.

The dinner was attended by the board of directors and members of the firm from Lubbock, San Angelo and husbands and

Superintendent Sam Anderson Receives National P-TA Award

Supt. Sam Anderson, Big Spring Public Schools, was presented a national life membership at the 22nd annual spring conference of the 16th District Congress of Parents and Teachers held Friday and Saturday in Sterling City.

Anderson received his honor from twelve local P-TA units and through the Big Spring City Council P-TA.

Those from Big Spring receiving state life memberships were Mrs. Leola Hale, College Heights, P-TA; Mrs. Lamar Green, Runnels P-TA; Mrs. Jess Slaughter, Boydston P-TA; Ernest Boyd, Cedar Crest P-TA; and Mrs. Lester Goswick, City Council P-TA. Also, Mrs. Max DuCan of Sterling City received a state life membership.

Mrs. Red Lambath of Vernon, state vice president, installed newly elected officers. They were Mrs. R. E. Ray, Big Spring, president; Mrs. M. A. Dunagan, Forsan, vice president for Glasscock, Howard, and Sterling counties; Mrs. Dawn Newsom, Maryneal, vice president for Coke, Nolan, Mitchell and Runnels counties; Mrs. Howard Armstrong, Ackerly, recording secretary; and Mrs. D. B. McCann, Big Spring, corresponding secretary.

MRS. R. E. RAY

Membership awards were presented to Airport P-TA of Big Spring and to Sand Springs P-TA in Ackerly. Those receiving attendance awards were the College Heights and the Gay Hill P-TA units of Big Spring. First place award in the scrapbook division was given to Cedar Crest P-TA and second place award was presented to College Heights P-TA. Highland P-TA unit in Roscoe won third place award.

Over 100 delegates and four state board members attended the conference. State board members were Mrs. Lambeth, James R. Hill of Irving, state international relations chairman; Sam Anderson, exceptional child service chairman; and Mrs. Alvie L. Cole of Sterling City, District 16 president.

Mrs. Ray presided at the post board meeting and announced the appointment of Mrs. Cole as parliamentarian, and Mrs. Hillard Ditmore of Forsan, historian.

Music was provided by the Sosebee Sisters, a singing group composed of Mrs. J. Frank Woodard, Mrs. John Jarrett and David Jarrett of Lubbock; Mrs. Alton Goodrick, Midland; Mrs. W. O. McGinnis and Marilyn McGinnis, Anson; and Mrs. Merton Ferguson of Sterling City.

The Miles P-TA will host the fall workshop to be held in October.

SAVED BY QUICK RIFLE SHOT

Lion Mauls Interloper

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Keepers at the San Francisco Zoo were still stunned today over an African lion, born in captivity, that mauled a man who was saved only by a quick rifle shot.

Some two dozen children and adults watched Saturday as Amos Watson, 59, of Milpitas, climbed a low fence into the lion grotto and fell into a surrounding moat. The witnesses said Watson shouted, waved a wine bottle, and struck a boxer's pose. A 5-year-old, 450-pound male lion, Tommy, made for the man after first ignoring him. Zoo keeper Don Farrington was in the lion house at the rear of the grotto and heard a bystander's cry that a man had fallen into the moat. "When I looked," Farrington said, "the cat had him by the neck. His mouth was on the neck."

Farrington raised his 30-06 rifle and fired a shot between the lion's eyes, killing him instantly.

Watson was taken to San Francisco General Hospital with face, neck and body gashes and a broken leg which was suffered in the fall.

Israelis Continue Plans For Jerusalem Parade

JERUSALEM (AP) — The Israeli government, defying the U.N. Security Council, says it will hold its Independence Day parade as planned Thursday in both the Arab and Israeli sections of Jerusalem.

About 10,000 Israelis turned out before dawn Sunday to watch military units stage a dress rehearsal along the festively decorated route. Arab residents watched from windows overlooking the streets. On display were both Israeli tanks and Soviet armor and missiles captured in the war last June.

The 15 Security Council members, including the United States, unanimously called on Israel Saturday night to cancel the parade, calling it a threat to peace efforts.

Israel's Ambassador to the United Nations, Yosef Tekoah replied that Israel could not accept the resolution "because it concerns a question which under the cease-fire regime falls under Israel's jurisdiction." Israeli papers accused U.N. Secretary-General U Thant of playing into the hands of the Arabs, "who wish to sabotage the mission of Middle East peace envoy Gunnar Jarring," one paper said.

Meanwhile, an Israeli army spokesman in Tel Aviv reported a desert clash seven miles north of Jericho and said 13 Arab saboteurs were killed and three Israeli soldiers were "hit." He did not say whether the Israelis died.

It was the largest number of saboteurs killed in a single clash since the June war. Another Arab was wounded and captured and two escaped, the spokesman said.

The army also announced a one-hour artillery duel with Jordanian forces in the same region Sunday evening.

Methodists Take Look At Standards Of Sobriety

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Sobriety is the going standard for Methodists, but it hasn't always been that way.

And the church is considering whether modern conditions—something like the old—call for relaxation of its restrictions against drink.

The proposed shift from required to voluntary abstinence, to be acted on by the United Methodist governing conference here, touches on a rambunctious aspect of early American Protestantism.

It wasn't exactly dry, even among the Puritans. And Methodism's founder, John Wesley, said it was good to take a little wine for the stomach's sake.

The Methodist Church, when founded in the 1780's, took a stand against the making and drinking of distilled liquors. Its first bishop, Francis Asbury, also spoke out against "demon rum."

In the 1816 Methodist general conference, a resolution passed saying that "no stationed or local preacher shall retail spirituous or malt liquors without forfeiting his ministerial character."

But he wasn't barred from taking an occasional nip—as he was under later tighter rules imposed in the Prohibition movement around the turn of the 20th century.

As the rules have stood since Methodists ministers can't smoke or drink. Laymen holding church offices also must abstain. Although not enforced, members are subject to trial and expulsion for "persisting in the use of intoxicating liquor."

The proposed change would eliminate the legalistic prohibitions, but still urge abstinence as a voluntary standard.

King Olav Tours Fair

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Norway's King Olav V. Sunday became the first reigning monarch to visit the grounds of San Antonio's HemisFair world's fair.

The visit was marked by a scarcity of royal comments and was threatened by turbulent Texas skies that equalled the intensity of a 21-gun salute with rolling thunder as the royal party left the fairgrounds.

Olav, accompanied by Gov. John B. Connally, made stops at the ceremonial plaza of the fair for the 21-gun salute and playing of the national anthems of Norway and the United States, visited the U.S. Pavilion and the Institute of Texan Cultures.

A marching band preceded the royal entourage, with a musical repertoire ranging from "The Eyes of Texas" to "San Antonio."

The king saw the Norwegian section in the Institute of Texan Cultures, including one display of the first disc plow used by settlers in the 1800s to till the Texas soil. The disc was invented by Ole Ringness.

Some 2,000 onlookers were on hand, many with cameras, for the greeting ceremonies. Many had trouble singling out the stocky Olav—dressed in a double-breasted dark suit with soft-soled loafer shoes and blue socks—from his entourage.

The San Antonio stopover was part of a tour of the United States for Olav, 64.

State law requires that the man who wins the primary in each part must receive all of the state's convention votes on the first ballot.

McCarthy is expected to take the Democrats' 72 delegate votes to the Democratic convention in Chicago, and Volpe, who has expressed interest in the GOP vice presidential spot, is expected to take the 34 Republican votes to the GOP convention in Miami.

The official election procedure prevents crossover by Democrats and Republicans. They are allowed to vote only within their own party.

San Antonio (AP) — Norway's King Olav V. Sunday became the first reigning monarch to visit the grounds of San Antonio's HemisFair world's fair.

The visit was marked by a scarcity of royal comments and was threatened by turbulent Texas skies that equalled the intensity of a 21-gun salute with rolling thunder as the royal party left the fairgrounds.

Olav, accompanied by Gov. John B. Connally, made stops at the ceremonial plaza of the fair for the 21-gun salute and playing of the national anthems of Norway and the United States, visited the U.S. Pavilion and the Institute of Texan Cultures.

A marching band preceded the royal entourage, with a musical repertoire ranging from "The Eyes of Texas" to "San Antonio."

The king saw the Norwegian section in the Institute of Texan Cultures, including one display of the first disc plow used by settlers in the 1800s to till the Texas soil. The disc was invented by Ole Ringness.

Some 2,000 onlookers were on hand, many with cameras, for the greeting ceremonies. Many had trouble singling out the stocky Olav—dressed in a double-breasted dark suit with soft-soled loafer shoes and blue socks—from his entourage.

The San Antonio stopover was part of a tour of the United States for Olav, 64.

Tight Boycott Hurts White Businessmen

GREENWOOD, Miss. (AP) — A tight boycott here has taken almost all Negroes away from the downtown business area and a shopping center. It has forced one group of white merchants to reach its own agreement with the boycott leaders.

In two weeks of "selective buying," the Greenwood Movement has withdrawn almost all Negro business, leaving only essentials such as drugs and banking untouched.

One white merchant, manager of a downtown department store, said "As far as I can tell, it's 100 per cent effective. I don't mind telling you I'm down this month when I should be up because of Easter buying."

The boycott grew out of indignation at the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Picketing began April 11, two days after he was buried, and has continued since.

The heavy Negro population of Leflore County, in the prosperous Delta farming region of northwest Mississippi, makes many Greenwood merchants dependent on Negro trade. Greenwood, a town of 20,000 persons, is 45 per cent Negro and the county is about 65 per cent Negro.

Only one supermarket and Johnson Street, a five-block row of bargain stores, furniture stores and pawn shops, is exempt. Last week Johnson Street merchants approached movement leaders and worked out an agreement.

They would hire Negroes, use courteous titles and try to pressure the city's leadership into meeting with the Negroes in exchange for the boycott's being called off. The Negroes agreed, and the merchants mailed a petition to the City Council, asking it to meet.

Communication between the races—or between the Greenwood Movement and city government—is the ultimate goal of the boycott.

Except for the Johnson Street merchants, Negro leaders say no-white merchants have contacted them, although the merchants have been meeting among themselves.

Mayor Charles E. Sampson is adamant in his refusal to meet with the movement's leaders. "We haven't paid much attention to it," he said. "It's just a group of Catholic priests out there trying to run the whole county."

"We're not going to discuss it with them. They're just agitators sent in here. They've been sent in just for this purpose."

The boycott has been maintained by daily picketing and by reading in public meetings the names of Negroes who cross picket lines. It is the movement's second attempt. The first was last November, and it died after three weeks.

Although membership of the movement is almost entirely black, a key leader is a white Roman Catholic priest, the Rev. Nathaniel R. Machesky, 48, pastor of St. Francis Church. He has been a staff member at the Negro church 18 years.

The other co-chairmen are two Negro ministers, the Rev. M. J. Black, pastor of Turner's Street African Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Rev. William Wallace, pastor of Jennings Temple Christian Methodist Episcopal Church.

Says Tax Foes Are Switching

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield says letters from his Montana constituents show they're switching from opposition to support of an income tax boost.

A majority of these letters, Mansfield said, now favor President Johnson's proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge—along with a healthy cut in federal spending.

Mansfield, who has long supported the tax proposal—bottled up for many months in Congress—said public works projects appear prime targets for any budget slashing. Space projects and military research also could be cut back, he said.

Senate and House conferees meanwhile were reported pushing slowly toward possible agreement on a bill that would boost income taxes $10 billion while reducing authority for long-range government spending by some $20 billion.

At issue is a Senate-passed measure to impose the 10 per cent surcharge and cut spending $6 billion.

The conferees reportedly are considering eliminating the surcharge plan in favor of revising tax rates upward. But sources indicated that if this were done the increased tax bite for individuals and corporations would remain about the same as under a surcharge.

Humphrey's Toughest Task: Winning New Endorsements

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's toughest assignment as an active candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination apparently will be to entice party leaders off the political fence.

Humphrey picked up some fresh endorsements with his formal entry Saturday into the contest against Sens. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn.

But party leaders in swing states whose support he needs to assemble the 1,312 convention votes required for the nomination didn't budge from the neutral position they have taken since President Johnson announced March 3 he would not accept renomination.

SENTIMENT SPLIT
In Michigan, for example, Sen. Philip A. Hart said in an interview he hasn't been able to make up his mind as between Kennedy, McCarthy and Humphrey.

Hart said he thinks sentiment is split in Michigan where the bulk of the 96-vote delegation is chosen in district contests and the remainder at a state convention in June.

He said he thinks about one-fourth of the delegates will represent organized labor. AFL President George Meany is supporting Humphrey. Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers, has remained silent. Hart said he knows one close Reuther adviser who is for Kennedy and another who is for McCarthy.

In Humphrey's native state of South Dakota, Sen. George McGovern has welcomed the vice president into the race but has declared his own neutrality.

Similarly, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana and Sen. Warren G. Magnuson of Washington are avoiding taking sides. Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, who heads the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee, is taking the favorite-son route to stay uncommitted.

University Of Texas Wants To Hire Ex-Teacher LBJ

AUSTIN (AP) — The state's biggest university wants a teacher, one who taught in a small grade school 40 years ago and who hasn't taught since.

He can teach as often or as little as he wants to, in any way he wants to.

'POOR BOY'

The teacher at Cotulla, 100 miles southwest of San Antonio, was 20 years old in 1928. His Mexican-American pupils were so poor, he said he often brought sardines and crackers for them.

The teacher was a Hill Country boy named Lyndon Johnson. Johnson recently indicated he was anxious to teach again.

He told a group of political aides last week that he once wrote an article that he published in "a magazine of the University of Texas, where I hope to teach before long."

He has had a standing invitation since 1965 to teach at the school. University officials said after Johnson's decision March 31 not to seek re-election, they have "the deep hope" he will teach at their school.

Johnson will have a nice setting for it if he decides to get back to his first profession.

office next Jan. 20. The school will be ready for the spring semester of 1970. It now has 28,000 students.

Johnson may hold regular classes, conduct a seminar, give a series of lectures or teach in any way he wants to, school officials say.

The complex will contain the public affairs school, the Lyndon Baines Johnson Library (with a special presidential section for the Johnson administration papers) and the East Campus Library and Research Building. The East Campus Library is a 325,000-square-foot structure. The LBJ Library will have 100,000 square feet.

Flames Kill Two Children At Cleburne

CLEBURNE, Tex. (AP) — Fire swept a garage apartment early today, killing two children. The mother and three other children escaped.

The dead were identified as Marie Grant, 4, and her sister, Sharon Kay, 8.

The fire was discovered about 1:30 a.m., when the oldest child, Joy, awoke and found the room full of smoke. She awakened her mother. She then ran to the house next door to call the fire department.

In the meantime the mother, Mrs. Dorothy Grant, was putting two of her five children, Carol, 9, and Lewis Jr., 5, out a window on the other side of the house.

She was unable to rescue the other two from the back bedroom.

Cause of the fire was undetermined.

Mrs. Grant is the wife of Sgt. Lewis Grant, now serving in Vietnam.

Hubbell told investigators he saw a man drive up at an apartment and ordered the man to place his hands on the automobile.

Hubbell said the man pulled a revolver from his waistband and fired one shot. The shot knocked Hubbell to the ground and the deputy said the man then fired three more shots before running.

Police said Blake has served a prison term for felony theft and car theft and has been free on bond since September on an auto theft charge.

Blake, 25, who was charged with assault to murder.

Hubbell and a partner, Jerry Cravens, had gone to a south-west Houston apartment with warrants for Blake on indictments on charges of second-degree felony theft and for receiving and concealing stolen property.

Supreme Court Tosses Out Deputy's Libel Judgment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court threw out today a $5,000 libel judgment a Louisiana deputy sheriff had won and made it more difficult for people in public life to win such awards.

In an 8-1 decision the court said a finding that a prudent man would have investigated defamatory information about an official before publishing it is not grounds for a libel award.

Rather, Justice Byron R. White wrote, there must be evidence to conclude that the publisher or the broadcaster had serious doubts about the truth of the material.

"To insure the ascertainment and publication of the truth about public affairs, it is essential that the first amendment protect some erroneous publications as well as true ones."

The $5,000 judgment had been won in Louisiana courts by Herman A. Thompson, an East Baton Rouge deputy sheriff, against Phil A. St. Amant, a one-time aspirant for the U.S. Senate.

St. Amant, on television, quoted a local teamster in 1962 as saying money had "passed hands" between Thompson and a union business agent.

At the time St. Amant was contesting Sen. Russell B. Long for the Democratic Senate nomination.

Four years ago the U.S. Supreme Court established the rule that public officials cannot collect libel awards unless the defamatory statement was made with "actual malice."

This means, with knowledge that the statement was false or not.

Today's ruling appears to make proof of "reckless disregard" more-difficult to obtain.

Rocky Books News Patley

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller will make "an announcement concerning his political plans" at 11 a.m. Tuesday, Leslie Slote, the governor's press secretary, said today.

Slote's announcement came as reports circulated in the Capitol that Rockefeller would declare his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination.

Rockefeller has arranged to fly a full complement of newsmen with him when he travels to Cedar Rapids, Iowa, on Thursday on a trip that had not been previously announced.

In making known Rockefeller's intention of holding a news conference Tuesday, Slote refused to go beyond his brief statement which said:

"Gov. Rockefeller will have an announcement concerning his political plans at 11 a.m. tomorrow in the Red Room."

Rockefeller surprised political leaders nationwide on March 21 when he said that he would not actively seek the nomination this year.

He said then that he would comment on the issues and would be available if a draft developed. His associates said later that he felt that his remarks had been interpreted too literally.

Burglars smashed the door of Charles' Liquor Store on the Snyder highway sometime late Saturday night and took away an estimated $200 worth of liquor.

Burglars smashed a door in Charles' Liquor Store on Sunday night and took away an undetermined amount of liquor.

A. N. Standard, sheriff, said that the loss in the second raid was not easily determined since the proprietor had not had time to complete his check of what was taken in the first break-in.

Sheriff's deputies and city police were called to the scene but because the liquor store is out of town, the investigation has been turned over to the county.

Ruby's tombstone will be returned.

CHICAGO (AP) — Jack Ruby's tombstone rested in the lost and found property division of a police station Sunday after vandals carried it away and dumped it in a street two miles from the cemetery.

Two teenage brothers found the 150-pound marker in the street Saturday night. Police said it would be returned to Westlawn Cemetery, where Ruby is buried.

Ruby died of cancer in a Dallas hospital Jan. 3, 1967, before he could be retried in the slaying of Lee Harvey Oswald, the man accused of assassinating President John F. Kennedy. Ruby's conviction at his first trial was set aside.

Her fall was broken by a roll of old wire that prevented her from landing on concrete steps.

NORFOLK, England (AP) — Mrs. Rosamond Bizzari, an 80-year-old widow, fell down a 100-foot cliff Sunday. A spokesman at Cromer Hospital said she was "fairly comfortable" today.

Services are pending at the Nalley - Pickle Funeral Home. Mr. Nix was born Feb. 12, 1908, in Buffalo Gap. He had been a resident of Howard County for 50 years. He married Lela Caldwell Sept. 11, 1932, in Lovington, N.M.

He farmed until 1951 and had driven a truck for the City of Big Spring for 10 years. Mr. Nix was a member of the Elbow Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Lela Nix, Big Spring; four sons, W. R. Nix, Fort Worth, Leldon Gene Nix and Roger Dale Nix, both of Coahoma, Richard Lee Nix, Big Spring; four daughters, Mrs. Wilda Faye Thorpe, Odessa, and Mrs. Nancy Sue Bedwell, Mrs. Bonnie Mae Allred, and Mrs. Linda Irene Carroll, all of Big Spring; three brothers, Troy Nix, Richmond, Calif., C. W. Nix, Odessa, and F. L. Nix, Ackery; three sisters, Mrs. Nine Bell Moore, Fort Worth, Mrs. Zonia Mae Miller, Coahoma, and Lillian B. Nix, Ackery; and 14 grandchildren.

Palbearers, all nephews, will be: Roy Moore, Troy Nix, Dean Nix, Johnnie Brook, Donnie Nix, Larry Caldwell and Jimmy Miller.

Services for Mrs. Ida Lee Taylor Powell, 51, of 1108 E. 15th, who was found dead at her residence Friday, will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the River Welch Chapel, The Rev. Byron Ornd, pastor of the College Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park.

Mrs. Powell had been dead about five days when her body was discovered by police, who were called to the home when a neighbor became suspicious after not seeing her for several days. Justice of the Peace Jess Slaughter ruled death due to natural causes.

She was born Jan. 6, 1917, in Corvett County and had lived in Big Spring for the past 14 years. She was a member of the Baptist faith.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Patsy Luke, Benton Harbor, Mich.; three sisters, Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Big Spring, Mrs. Lena Damon and Mrs. Dovie Fussell, both of Waco; three brothers, Luther Taylor, a brother of Richard Taylor, Gatesville, and Monroe Taylor, Snyder; and two grandsons.

Miami Atheist Loses Bid To Block Cross Display

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Miami atheist was turned back today by the Supreme Court in his effort to prohibit display of a large cross on the Dade County courthouse at Christmas time.

Nishan Paul, 65, claimed the cross is a religious symbol and that under the Constitution it cannot be displayed on a public building by governmental order.

The six-story tall cross, lighted electrically at night, has appeared on the courthouse's south side since 1955. Tax funds were once used, but of late donations have paid for the display.

Florida courts ruled against Paul. Florida Circuit Judge Ralph O. Cullen, ruling in November, 1966, said the cross is a Christmas decoration and served the public welfare by expressing the wish of the community.

Sheriff's Deputy Shot Twice By Former Convict

HOUSTON (AP) — A sheriff's deputy was shot twice early today while trying to serve warrants on a former convict.

William H. Hubbell, 45, was shot in the right hip and pelvic area.

Police looked for Ronald Ross Blake, 25, who was charged with assault to murder.

Hubbell and a partner, Jerry Cravens, had gone to a south-west Houston apartment with warrants for Blake on indictments on charges of second-degree felony theft and for receiving and concealing stolen property.

Hubbell told investigators he saw a man drive up at an apartment and ordered the man to place his hands on the automobile.

Hubbell said the man pulled a revolver from his waistband and fired one shot. The shot knocked Hubbell to the ground and the deputy said the man then fired three more shots before running.

Police said Blake has served a prison term for felony theft and car theft and has been free on bond since September on an auto theft charge.

T-TA President McKaughan Quits

HOUSTON — R. E. McKaughan Jr., president of Trans-Texas Airways, Inc. for the past three years, has announced his resignation.

Carl R. Pohlad, who was re-elected chairman of the board at the board of directors meeting, was named president following McKaughan's resignation.

McKaughan, whose father founded the airline in 1947, said he was resigning in order to devote more time to personal interests, but agreed to act as consultant to the company for the remainder of the year.

McKaughan joined the company on a full-time basis in 1964 following his graduation from the University of Texas Law School. He became the airline's chief executive in 1965.

Pohlad is president of Marquette National Bank in Minneapolis, Minn., and chairman of the investment committee of Minnesota Enterprises.

McKaughan joined the company on a full-time basis in 1964 following his graduation from the University of Texas Law School. He became the airline's chief executive in 1965.

Texas Violent Deaths Spiral

By The Associated Press

A plane crash that killed seven persons and several multi-fatality highway crashes sent the weekend violent death toll in Texas soaring to at least 42.

Of this number, 28 died in traffic accidents. A number of highway accidents occurred in rainstorms that swept much of the state during the weekend.

The crash of a twin-engine private plane at Beaumont early Sunday killed the pilot and the coach and five members of the Lamar Tech track team returning from the Drake Relays at Des Moines.

The victims were Track Coach Tyrus "Ty" Terrell, Randy Clewis of Palestine, Don DeLaune of LaMarque, Mike Favazza of Beaumont, John Richardson of Beaumont, Waverly Thomas of Galveston and the pilot, E. W. McCall of Beaumont.

BIKE TRAGEDY

Steven L. Adams, 18, of Beaumont was killed Sunday when his bicycle was struck by an automobile. The youth died about an hour later in a Beaumont hospital.

J.W. Taylor, 59, and Walter L. Starnes, 59, and Taylor's wife, Hazel Taylor, 53, all of San Antonio were killed Sunday when the car in which they were riding struck an exit sign on IH 35 near Round Rock, north of Austin. Mrs. Starnes, 51, was injured. The accident occurred near the IH 35 and Ranch Road 620 exit.

Mrs. Carolyn Bishop Spradley, 20, of Wichita Falls was killed and three other persons injured seriously in a two-car collision about five miles north of Archer City Sunday night.

Garry Lee Thigpen, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.J. Thigpen, was shot and killed Sunday while he and eight other youths played with a .22 pistol at Wichita Falls. The death was ruled accidental.

Vernie C. Vile and William E. Vickers, both of Electra, drowned Sunday when their car overturned into a water-filled ditch on Texas 240 about four miles west of Burkburnett.

FATAL FLIP

An automobile overturned near Brownwood Friday night, killing J. B. Roberts of Goldthwaite.

Nicolas Mendoza Jr., 39, of Pasadena near Houston was shot to death at a Corpus Christi residence Sunday.

Arthur Roy Young, 29, of Bay City was killed in a one-car accident 11 miles south of Bay City Saturday.

Mrs. John Edward Davis Jr., 38, of Ganado, Tex., was killed Saturday when a car left a farm road and crashed 10 miles west of El Campo.

Sad Tots Learn English At Refugee Kindergarten

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — By the time Cuban refugee children are resettled in Phoenix, Chicago, New York or some other city, they speak some English, although their parents may not.

The tots learn it at Freedom House, the halfway house in Miami between the Communist island they left and their new home somewhere in the United States. Cubans call the classroom and adjoining sand playground a refugee kindergarten.

The unusual kindergarten is observing its first anniversary this month. Since its establishment in April, 1967, it has amassed more than 1,000 alumni, scattered throughout the United States.

"CRY A LOT"

The pupils are awaiting resettlement from this refugee port of entry. Many move on after a day, others stay a week or a month. New ones arrive each weekday, usually with their parents, aboard refugee airlift flights from Cuba. They are from 2 to 7 years old.

The children learn simple sentences in English. And they sing songs such as "Mary Had a Little Lamb."

"It is amazing how they learn," said Conchita la Villa, director of the child care center. "Just say a word and they take it."

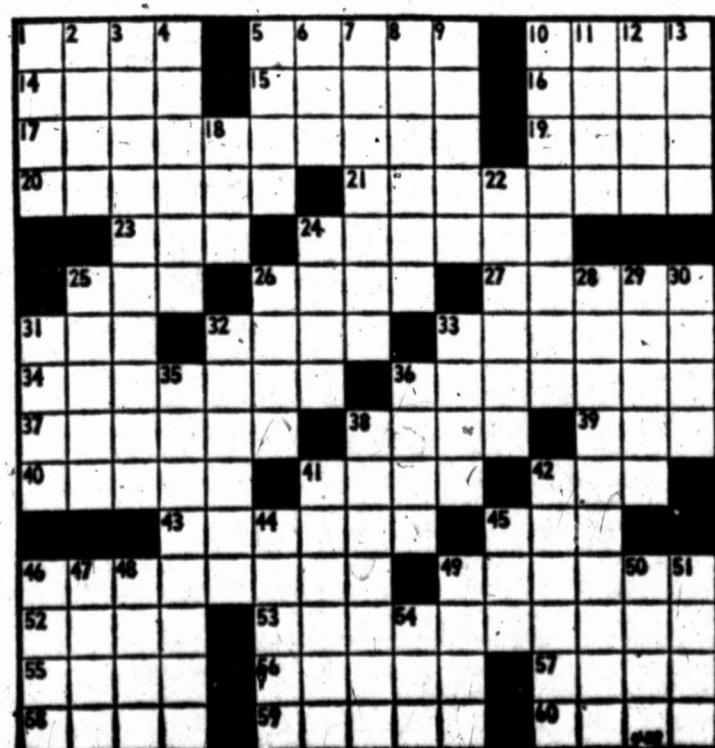

But adjustments also present a problem.

"They come frightened and nervous," Miss La Villa said. "They cry a lot. In some cases their mother remained in Cuba, or their father is a political prisoner. And their vaccinations hurt, too."

Scientists Will Spend 60 Days On Ocean Floor

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — Four U.S. scientists will spend 60 days on the ocean floor early next year in the longest continuous undersea study a diving team has attempted.

The Navy, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the Interior Department, in announcing the program today, said a twin-chambered living quarters built by General Electric will be sunk 50 feet in Greater Lameshur Bay, Virgin Islands National Park, off St. John Island. GE is also handling the planning and training.

The agencies said the study, called Operation Tektite I, has two purposes—to conduct extensive marine science studies on the ocean floor and to study the behavior of men living in relative isolation in a strange environment under stress. The data may be useful to help plan future space trips, they said.

The four Interior Department scientists who will make the dive will be named at a later date. They'll have voice communication with the surface and a special mix of oxygen and nitrogen will be pumped to them. Food will be stored in their living quarter tanks before they are sunk. The men will be able to swim outside the living quarters.

They'll be admitted to the zoo free if they bring a birthday card.

Shasta's father was an African lion. He mother was a Bengal tigress. So she's called a liger—believed to be the only one in a zoo. She is 20 years old.

A Devotional For The Day

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. (Act 16:25, RSV)

PRAYER: O Lord, grant unto us the faith that sings in time of trial and tribulation. Bless us with Thy redemption that brings joy to the heart and song born of love and undoubting trust in Thee. In Jesus' name we ask. Amen.

Constructive Movement

Concurrent with the effort to resolve the war in Vietnam, the United States should in every feasible way encourage the regional cooperation movement that is taking hold among the non-Chinese nations of the Far East. It seems to hold the greatest long-range promise for constructive peace in the Orient.

First in priority should be continued United States support for the Asian Development Bank, which has been delayed in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee by involvement in the Vietnam controversy.

Among the tentative experiments in Asiatic regionalism, so far mostly economic and political, is an encouraging cultural one. That is the newly formed Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO).

Last month the ministers of education of Indonesia, Laos, Malaysia, Singapore, the Philippines, Thailand, and South Vietnam met in Singapore to establish a permanent organization with a working secretariat partially financed by the Ford Foundation.

SEAMEO already has a center in the Philippines for graduate study and research in agriculture, a Malaysian center for improving science and mathematics teaching in elementary and secondary schools in the seven countries, a research program in preventive tropical medicine with stations in five countries, and a Singapore center for encouraging better teaching of English as a second language in Southeast Asia.

Particularly important is the English center. Most scholarly and technical materials, especially those available for advanced education in Southeast Asia, are in English. And English, which India found it could not supplant with native languages without intolerable national disruption, is rapidly becoming the language of communication in Asia. The implications for U.S. influence should be obvious.

Judicial Choices

One of these days the system may be changed, but as of now, Texans are called upon periodically to elect—along with constables and justices of the peace—members of the Supreme Court of Texas.

There are two associate justices to be named in the Democratic primary Saturday (they have no Republican opponents), and it is unfortunate that most voters are not more knowledgeable as to qualifications and merits of the candidates. Judicial candidates, by tradition, don't do the type of campaigning that puts their background into the spotlight.

However, members of the various Bar Associations of the state customarily are more familiar with those who seek a seat in the high courts, and The Herald has checked with a number of attorneys about the candidates on Saturday's ticket.

The general recommendation seems to be that Sears McGee should be the choice for Place 1 on the Supreme Court and James G. Denton should be the choice for Place 2.

Particularly in the evidence of strong preference for McGee; and in the other contest, Judge Denton, a West Texan who is on the Civil Appeals bench at Amarillo, carries strong commendation as man knowledgeable in the law, with solid judicial background and with a reputation for fairness and sound temperament.

Our Adverse Trade Balance

NEW YORK — The March trade figures, which showed the United States imported more goods than it exported, demonstrate the eventual futility of artificial trade and travel controls while inflation runs free of restraints.

The American traveler is urged, in effect, to stay home rather than travel abroad so that his dollars won't fall into foreign hands. But the lack of controls on government spending have had the opposite effect.

IT IS GENERALLY recognized that the inflated economy — plus a dock strike in March and a reduction of some tariffs here but not in Europe — must take most of the blame for the decrease in exports relative to imports.

American goods, carrying inflated price tags, failed to attract foreign buyers. At the same time, inflation put a lot of dollars into American hands and these were used to buy foreign goods.

AS A RESULT, imports exceeded exports by $157.7 million in March, the first time since 1963 that the United States in any month failed to send abroad more merchandise than it purchased abroad.

If this same rate of deficit were to be continued for one year—and, admittedly, this is unlikely—the total would be close to $1.9 billion. By contract, the most that travelers would reduce the balance of payments deficit by, under present proposals, is $50 million a year.

THE EXAMPLE shows why advocates of a tax increase to contain inflation—and thus help correct the balance of payments deficit—have been turning blue with frustration.

To restrict the amount of dollars American companies may invest abroad, they say, is self-defeating over a period of several years. Controls may save dollars today. But those dollars, invested in profitable enterprises abroad, would return themselves many fold in future years.

ONE OF THE first results of this adverse trade balance, and the country's failure to treat its causes, is to fuel the fears of foreign governments that the dollars they hold are shrinking in value. Already fearful, these governments could now be convinced. More dollars may be turned in for gold.

The next result may be to spur Congress into action to put the country's fiscal affairs in order so as to reduce inflation, pay the government's bills and thus restore confidence in the dollar and its purchasing power.

IN THE OPINION of most economists, the urgent and immediate needs of the economy now are for less government spending, temporarily higher taxes, and a monetary policy that can, as a result of stability, be permitted to mesh with fiscal policy.

Domestic inflation, the right to travel and invest abroad, the trade deficit and many more problems all have the same cause: economic mismanagement.

And The Snake Wasn't Thirsty

LIBERTY, Ky. (AP) — Ruth Wesley fainted while painting outside her home. She had spotted a snake at her feet.

Her 5-year-old son, Archie, ran into the house to fetch a glass of water. When he returned, his mother still was out cold and Archie was somewhat shaken up.

"So," he explained later, "I just drank the water myself."

'Gift' Bourbon

BARDSTOWN, Ky. (AP) — One of Al. Durante's friends, after hunting on a farmer's land, presented him with a bottle of inexpensive bourbon.

"That's just right," the farmer sighed after sampling the gift.

"What do you mean 'just right'?" asked the hunter.

"If it were any worse," the farmer explained, "I couldn't drink it, and if it were any better, you never would have given it to me."

Ever Feel At A Loss For Words?

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Death is the chief price paid by narcotics addicts. The mortality rate among them is 20 times that for nonaddicts the same age. It results from the physiological stress caused by the drugs as well as accidental overdoses and infections stemming from dirty needles.

Ever feel at a loss for words? You shouldn't. There are now at least 600,000 words in the English language—and some authorities put the number at a million. And, of course, you are always free to make up new words yourself. Shakespeare did.

COLLEGE FOOTBALL became so brutal in the early years of the century that President Theodore Roosevelt, a rough and ready man himself, was among a group which considered trying to abolish the sport. The invention of the forward pass opened up the game and helped save it.

Ownership of U.S. industry is widening steadily. At least one in every 10 Americans now is a corporation stockholder. Half of those who own shares are members of families in the $10,000-a-year bracket.

Trees are thirsty. During its growing season a 40-foot tree will drink through its roots 19 gallons or more of water each day.

HAVING TROUBLE keeping up with your reading matter? Small wonder. Every 60 seconds around the clock the world's printing industry turns out 2,000 pages of books, newspapers and periodicals. And that doesn't even include junk mail or office memos.

Ignorance of the law is said to be no excuse—but it should be. There are at least two million laws in force in the United States, and even attorneys don't know what they are until they look them up.

Hints for living: Beware of imbibing coffee when it is too hot. It is harder on your clothing as well as your insides.

Stains from hot coffee are more difficult to remove from fabrics than those caused by lukewarm coffee.

FUN WITH arithmetic: An usual number is 142,857. If you multiply it by two, or by three, or by four, or by five, or even by six, you'll still get the same digits, although in different order, of course. Get out your pencil and see.

Rehabilitated: Should one ever fly an airplane again after suffering a heart attack? In some cases, yes. Some 250 private U.S. pilots have been reissued licenses after recovering from such ailments and proving they have been symptom-free for two years. In Sweden, captains of commercial airlines who have survived cardiac attacks may resume work, but only as copilots.

Nixon Backs 'Black Capitalism'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon's suggestion that whites help develop "black capitalism" puts him well on the way to backing a small but apparently growing faction of Negroes who oppose the idea of "handouts" from whites.

Civil rights leaders have been saying for decades that Negroes want an equal chance with whites to compete in America's capitalistic system. They have applied pressure mainly on white liberals to break down the twin barriers of legal segregation and racist attitudes.

THE NEW FACTION believes the traditional approach has run its course. It is unrealistic, they argue, to expect profit-minded businessmen to broaden welfare programs or spend money to set up businesses in slums.

Furthermore, they say, such programs don't get at the heart of the Negro's problem—a legacy of psychological damage dating from slave days that leaves

Around The Rim

'The End Of The Trail'

The coils of my memory go all the way back to the period when I was about four years of age, at which time my parents took me to California.

I saw the Pacific Ocean and must have wondered like the Europeans of the 15th Century if the world wasn't flat and there wasn't a falling-off place out there somewhere, after all.

I ALSO SAW the orange groves and the mountains but the thing that impressed me as much as anything was a piece of art in Tulare County that was entitled "The End of the Trail" — a huge statue that had been brought down there after visitors of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco had been privileged to view it.

Created by James Earle Fraser, the statue was that of an exhausted Indian sitting on a broken-down horse.

MEMBERS OF my family, along with my aunt and uncle — who had taken us there — had our pictures taken under the monstrous thing and I remember how uncomfortable and frightened I would have felt had I somehow been hoisted up there to sit with the Indian.

In recent years, they tell me, the statue has stood almost forgotten in a park located four miles south of Visalia.

THERE WAS an ill-starred effort recently in Tulare County, I am told, to rehabilitate the crumbling imagery of chicken wire and plaster.

A better fate awaits the curiosity, however. The Tulare County supervisors, I understand, have accepted an Oklahoma bid to take the original and display it in the Cowboy Hall of Fame.

OFFICIALS OF THE Cowboy Hall of Fame, in return, have agreed to furnish Visalia with a bronze replica of the statue.

There is certain to be a revival of interest in the Fraser art work, since tens of thousands of people visit the Oklahoma City-based Cowboy Hall of Fame each year.

The old Indian, who slept through all the controversy, swirling about him, may yet raise his head. If he does, he may be surprised to find himself squarely in the Indian nations.

Gold, Budget Crisis Must Be Met

WASHINGTON — Businessmen, bankers, and the public generally have been much concerned over the declaration made about a week ago by William McChesney Martin, chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, that the country is "in the midst of the worst financial crisis we have had since 1931."

SOME THOUGHT it an emotional statement, based upon the frustration that seems to confront government officials as to what to do next. Others felt it was opportune, as the situation had been drifting without preventive action. While the speech could have an adverse effect on public confidence in the value of the dollar in terms of gold, most of the analysts seem to feel that Chairman Martin made his declaration with a specific purpose in mind — to get some action by Congress on the pending bill to increase taxes.

THE PROBLEM, however, is so intricate that the treatment of one factor or by itself cannot necessarily prevent financial complications. The basic truth is that the administration has been reluctant to paint a picture of future trouble and has been content to exert pressure on Congress to do something about tax legislation. The answer that comes back from the House leaders is that budget-cutting must come first, and little has been done in that direction thus far.

MANY OF THE experts who look at the crisis from an economic and financial point of view think that the United States cannot much longer postpone revaluation of gold and that a higher price is inevitable. The United States has been able to avoid such a decision by getting agreements with various countries to deal with the gold problem in a limited way. But it begins to be more and more apparent that the gold supply of the United States will eventually be drained away. Anticipation of such a contingency unquestionably prompted Mr. Martin's statement.

UNFORTUNATELY, politics currently plays a vital part in decision-making, particularly since a national election is only six months away. The administration is hesitant to revalue the dollar for fear it might dislodge the present boom and lose votes at the polls next autumn. Members of Congress on the other hand, feel that the budget has to be cut and that this would have a salutary effect on the whole situation. But, again, the administration is timid about any sharp reduction in social-welfare expenditures.

Many bankers are asking whether the administration would prefer to raise the price of gold after the crisis comes and serious consequences have occurred, instead of taking action ahead of time. There seems to be a growing number who think that some revaluation is bound to come.

SEVERAL MONTHS ago the tax increase was first proposed. While public opinion has not been favorable to such a measure, it probably would be more receptive if the administration told the people frankly that a crisis could ensue unless prompt action is taken.

There are many experts who believe that increasing the price of gold right away would not materially affect foreign exchange rates and that unfavorable consequences might be avoided. The consensus, however, is that the government cannot allow the situation to drift much longer.

Holmes Alexander

New Nixon—Old Rockefeller

WASHINGTON — One was handsome and one was homely. One was haughty and one was palsied. The New York governor had a check-book complex, and the former vice president had a joke-book fixation. Nelson Rockefeller made 'em worry, and Richard Nixon made 'em laugh.

IT WAS A sort of Derby Trial when Rockefeller and Nixon spoke on successive days before some 500 members of the American Society of Newspaper Editors. And this warmup in advance of the main event, the GOP Convention in August, could turn out to be a portentous preliminary. If Rockefeller is to overtake Nixon's long lead for the Republican nomination, the newspapers will have a lot to do with it.

The national press, in short, could be the handicapper that makes a close contest out of what now seems a runaway. That is why the rival performances at a mid-April newspaper convention are worth reviewing. What impression did these candidates implant?

MY GUESS is that Rockefeller's seriousness wasn't so bad, and Nixon's funniness wasn't so good, as it seemed in the live shows. The Rockefeller speech was pompous and artificial. It was obviously put together by a wordsmith who fancies balanced clauses ("the signs of peril — the chances for leadership") and cute alliterations ("the Affluent and the Afflicted Society"). It was a talking-down speech ("We stand on the threshold of..."), and a shame-on-America speech ("Our cities are breeding slums faster than any other Western nation"). And yet I think it was a sincere and lucid presentation of Rockefeller's philosophy and an excusable boast about his own performance as a 10-year state governor.

YOU CAN'T sneeze at either one. Rockefeller has been a tax-and-spend executive. It takes money to make the mare go. He has also done very well in the driver's seat for a whole decade during which Nixon hasn't held an administrative job.

But the check-book complex could be the governor's undoing, both in the minds of men who run newspapers and in the bias of those who just pay taxes. Rockefeller has a falling that is common both in billionaires and in ultra-liberal statesmen. His philosophy and his gubernatorial performance are both nailed together with the conviction that financial expenditure is the solution to every public problem. He said he'd raised $17 billion for capital improvement in his state. He proposed spending $150 billion for capital improvement in the USA.

NIXON CLOWNED up his act with too much weak-wit (Bobby Kennedy's haircut and such). Dick's joke-book fixation ("I tell him to stop trying to out-Bob Bob Hope," one of Nixon's friends told me as we went away from the statesman's something that he needs. Nixon has a credibility gap of his own, and he won't bridge it with wisecracks. It was when he got serious that Nixon scored best with the editors and chalked up points against Rockefeller.

The payoff of the encounter may be this: when both men were serious, Nixon looked New but Rockefeller looked his Old Self.

What Others Say

An outfit which keeps itself busy looking for missing persons—including husbands — has come up with strong evidence that there is a large and unsuspected mystery hanging over us.

There are now, the outfit figures, some 500,000—that's half a million—persons who are bigamists. From those it is inferred that almost all bigamists are men, that they travel a lot, and that they keep their two or several marriages each in good repair and seem to everyone good husbands.

The big mystery, for the data gatherers, is two-fold. For one thing, they would like to understand the devices which bigamists use to keep their different lives separate and non-interfering. For another, they would like to know more precisely who at least a large proportion of the bigamists are. That is to say, why do they do it?

Most of the ordinary, run-of-the-mill, one-wife husbands probably couldn't care less how the bigamists manage their deceptions nor why they do it. But they would like to know the answer to one thing: How can they afford it?

DRIVE-IN BANKING IS CONVENIENT
Mrs. Jackie McKinney serves a customer

Drive In To Bank At State National

Personalized service in banking is featured at the State National Bank, 124 Main. Friends are there to welcome you and assure you of quick service. The drive-in service has been in operation for nearly three years and has constantly increased the number of customers served. It is not unusual for one booth to have nearly 300 customers in a banking day. Though the booths were constructed to take care of drive-in customers, there are a number of customers who walk their deposits to the booths because it saves them time.

John Currie, vice president of State National Bank, says some days 50 per cent of the deposits are made at the drive-in windows.

Each booth is equipped with a green light showing it is ready to serve customers or a flashing red light used when the tellers are taking care of necessary details of banking. The flashing red light is also turned on as a signal to customers that the teller will have to spend considerable time with the patron at her booth. The green and red lights enable the customer to select the booth which will best serve his needs at that time.

The north side of the bank is constructed with a large non-glare window that enables the banking officials to see all three booths but cuts down on visibility into the bank. The out-of-door banking cages are equipped with an emergency buzzer system and a direct communication system with the bank. The tellers keep very little cash in their booths and should a customer wish to withdraw more money than they have in their drawer the communication lines with the bank enables them to have the cash within minutes.

The booths have air-controlled temperature and each teller can select her own temperature. They are constructed with a half door and a sliding door. In cold weather the sliding door can be partially opened to take a deposit or cash a check for the patron. Some of the customers are in such a hurry their cars never stop rolling while they hand their deposits to the teller. Though the drive-in service is especially good for those in a hurry, many mothers with small children and elderly people find it an answer to their needs. The housewife does not need to bother about dressing up to do her banking for she need not leave her car.

Find Personnel At Local Agency

Every employer, at one time or another, has to make a decision regarding his personnel needs. The owner of a business or the personnel manager is faced with many decisions regarding the person he employs. The easiest way to assure the selection of the best personnel available is to interview and hire through the Big Spring Employment Agency, Permian Building.

The services of Big Spring Employment, free to the employer, saves you time, money and headaches. Using their technical service, they free you to solve other problems confronting the business.

From its very beginning, the Big Spring agency has lived by the creed that every local employer has the right to demand the best qualified person who can be hired, considering the availability of applicants, the requirements of the job and the salary to be offered.

To assure Big Spring employers the very best applicants available, many hours of hard work go on behind the scenes at Big Spring Employment Agency. Job Applicants are pre-screened, meaning that you do not have to waste your time interviewing applicants who are not qualified for your particular job opening. The agency refers only those who fill the requirements and needs of your job.

Another benefit of hiring through the employment agency is the elimination of advertising costs. The Big Spring Employment Agency does this for you because it is part of normal business procedure.

The employment agency provides a confidential service. Fewer people are rejected by you because you see fewer. Every business is reminded that rejected applicants do not help your public relations. You also find that when you go through a private employment agency, there is less job turn-over for you. You get better employees many times, for many highly qualified job applicants prefer to use the service of a private employment agency, thus protecting their own identity.

In the field of office skills, the Big Spring Employment Agency carries on an extensive testing program. Most all applicants are exposed to personnel tests designed and created for testing adults in business and industrial situations. The employment counselors and the employer may successfully refer to these test results as a selection instrument in hiring applicants and also as an indicator of future possibilities.

It is a haven for job hunters, from the $40 - a - week clerk to the $25,000 - a - year executive. They come to private agencies because they realize that the people at these agencies are technicians specialists in job hunting and can place them in desirable jobs sooner than they could locate them for themselves.

The agency is an affiliate of National Personnel Association Inc., an international recruiting organization of over 120 agencies throughout the nation.

Future Dim For Trains

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP) — Despite a lot of talk about 160 mile an hour trains, few Americans would believe that the description, "America's Modern transportation Miracle," refers to railroads.

Instead, if presented a booklet of that title, they would expect to see pictures of jets whisking relaxed couples in silken smoothness to a distant island resort, to Europe or to the Orient.

The railroads are serious, however, and that quotation is used as the subtitle of a booklet produced by the Association of American Railroads called "Railroads Unlimited!" and carrying the inscription: "A continentwide story of sweeping change and challenge—a modern industrial miracle."

Why, then, has the public been so unaware of this great change by which American railroads are "overcoming awesome obstacles... moving along a track that leads to unlimited public service?"

Primarily because the revolution referred to is occurring, if at all, primarily in freight rather than passenger traffic. It refers to piggyback cars, unit trains, automatic freight car identification, mergers.

Graduation Gifts Offered At Thomas Office Supply

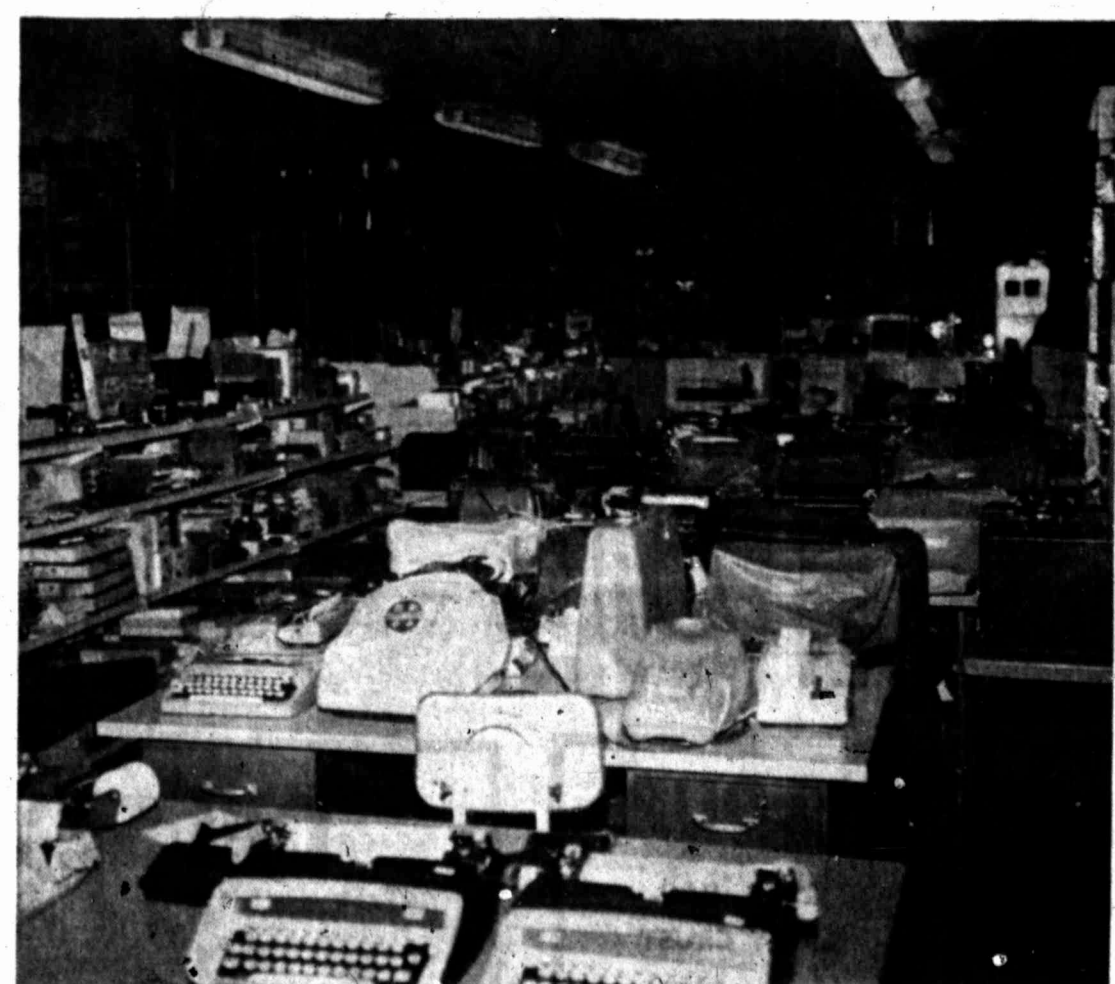

Thinking of what to give that June graduate? Stop by Thomas Office Supply, 101 Main, for a complete line of better-grade school and office supplies — everything from pencil sharpeners to the best in portable typewriters.

A featured item is the new Royal Ultronic portable typewriter, a fully-electric model perfect for home, professional or office use. The electric carriage return is just one convenience that lets the Royal Ultronic show what it's made of. The key moves the carriage, returns it to the margin automatically, advances the cylinder to the next writing line. Every important control is fully electric.

A five-year guarantee covers replacement of any defective part (except rubber parts, ribbons, or any damaged by accident or misuse); no labor charge is made for repairs within the first 90 days.

Complete with a wider carriage than most typewriters, the Royal Ultronic sells for less than $200.

A supply of other portable Royal electric and manual typewriters, both new and used, are available from $49.50 up, according to Eugene Thomas, manager. Thomas points out that Royal typewriters have been proven to be lively longer than any other brand. The Royal 440 is one of the company's most recommended typewriters. Royal's years of research and testing have produced the only finger balanced keyboard. Each key has an individual spring, especially adjusted to the strength of the finger that touches it.

The result, is the lightest, most evenly balanced touch of any manual. The Royal 440 is available in over 100 different styles to suit any requirements and is made in a number of special keyboards.

In addition to the wide range of typewriters to choose from, school supplies for even the youngest student can be purchased at Thomas Office Supply. Better grade notebooks, notebook paper, indexes, pens, pencils, reading aids and an assortment of items to meet the most demanding student's needs are available. For information, dial 267-6621.

Up And Over With Updegrove

Celts, Lakers Even Up Again

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Boston's Celtics and the Los Angeles Lakers head East again all square in their National Basketball Association playoff series with the condition of Jerry West's injured ankle the big question.

"I don't think it's badly hurt," said the Lakers' superstar of the sprained left ankle he suffered in the final minute of his club's 118-105 victory over Boston which put the set at 2-2.

Dr. Robert Kerlan said more would be known today about the injury. It occurred in a collision with John Havlicek after West had scored 38 points in the Lakers' coachless triumph.

The teams play in Boston on Tuesday night and then return to the Forum on Thursday. The crowd of 17,147 on Sunday set a Forum playoff attendance record.

In the ABA final playoffs, New Orleans took a 3-2 lead over Pittsburgh in their best-of-7 series with a 111-108 victory Saturday night. The sixth game will be played Wednesday night in New Orleans.

Montreal Whips Hawks For Final Playoff Berth

MONTREAL (AP) — There's just nothing weak about this year's Montreal Canadiens from their coach to the last rookie on the bench.

The Canadiens eliminated the Chicago Black Hawks from the best-of-7 Stanley Cup East Division final playoff Sunday with a 4-3 overtime victory in the fifth game behind the superior coaching of Toe Blake and the two-goal performance of rookie Jacques Lemaire. Montreal took the series four games to one.

Bobby Rousseau and J. C. Tremblay scored the other Montreal goals. Bob Schaufitz, Stan Mikita and Wayne Maki connected for the Hawks.

Pitchers Strike Out Total Of 26 During Game

Ronald McKee bested Kit Grace 1-0 in a red-hot pitcher's battle in the American Little League Saturday evening, but it took an unearned run to give the Pirates the victory over the Stars.

The Canadiens now await the outcome of the West Division finals. St. Louis tied the series at two games apiece Saturday night with a 4-3 overtime victory over Minnesota.

The fifth game will take place in St. Louis tonight with the sixth in Minnesota Wednesday.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The horses are here; the people are coming. It's Kentucky Derby Week.

Battle Pitches Shutout Victory

Roger Battle shackled the Braves with three hits as the Lions won a 6-0 victory in the National Little League Saturday evening. The Lions salted it away with four runs in the third inning. Ken Froman was tagged with the loss. The box score:

Barber Outlasts Surging Zarley In Nelson Classic

DALLAS (AP) — It is a little disconcerting when you know you are playing as well as ever but the man playing with you is making eagles and birdies, chipping away at your once wide lead.

The Winner

That was the experience of Miller Barber, a tour veteran, as he moved toward a $20,000 prize at the end of the line Sunday if he could just outlast Kermit Zarley who was surging grimly down the stretch.

Barber made it although he may never be the same again. The chunky man from Sherman, Tex., won the $100,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic with a closing par 70 for 270—10 under for the tournament.

BY ONE STROKE He got there by one stroke over the youthful Zarley, who banked an eagle with a 175-yard six iron approach shot on the 10th hole, and got four birdies on the remaining holes for a six-under-par 64 competitive record over the 7,086-yard Preston Trail course.

Barber had a five-stroke lead over Harold Henning of South Africa going into the final round and seven over the slightly noticed Zarley, former University of Houston golfer from Seattle, Wash.

Barber ended with a bogey on 18 but it was after Zarley had missed a 25-foot putt by inches that would have given him a tie.

PICKS UP STROKES Henning, the putting star of the tournament, using only 110 in the 72 holes, gained two strokes on Barber in the final round by shooting a 68 and took down third money with 273. Zarley won $12,000 with a 271, while Henning received $7,500.

The classic drew 30,000 fans Sunday, which officials claimed was the largest ever to see a tournament in America, had total attendance for four days of 94,000 and total gate receipts of $205,093.

Byron Nelson, former Texas golfer great for whom the tournament was named, expressed his pleasure it turned out so well. DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Final scores and money winnings of the $100,000 Byron Nelson golf classic:

Griffin Tosses 3-Hitter As Tigers Best C-City

The Big Spring Tigers ran their season record to 2-0 here Sunday in bopping the Colorado City Indians by a 6-2 count behind the three-hit pitching of Bobby Griffin. Not until he walked two in the ninth and another got on by error was Griffin in any trouble at all. At that point he yielded a single to Rivera for two runs, then promptly struck out the last two men. In all, he struck out 11 Indians and gave but three passes.

had a pair of hits, including doubles while Rogers polled a triple. Arista batted in three runs. Lujan, hurling for Colorado City, struck out eight and gave one base on balls, but he dished up seven hits, some when it hurt.

Rice Going For Perfect Season On Tennis Court

Rice tries to make it a perfect tennis season this week by winning the Southwest Conference singles and doubles titles after acquiring the team championship last week.

dual meets this season, won all their 36 matches in conference competition. It was the first time since 1954 and 1955, when Texas was undefeated, that a team made a clean sweep of their matches.

The Tigers go to Colorado City Sunday for a return engagement. The box score:

Box score table for the tennis match between C. City and Tigers. Lists names like Borrea, D'Arcy, D.O. Garcia, etc., and their match results.

Waiting Late To Settle It

Southwest Conference baseball teams are following the example of their football and basketball brethren in waiting until the final games of the season to decide their championship.

Rice returns the 1967 singles and doubles champions to the conference meet at Fort Worth Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They are Butch Seawagen, a senior, in the singles and Seawagen and Mike Hamilton, a junior, in the doubles.

Thixton Piles Up Most Points

Garner Thixton took most events when the Big Spring Motorcycle club had its field meet Sunday west of town.

Tucker Wins

Claude (Snake) Tucker ran a 39.0 victory in the intermediate hurdles at Hobbs, N.M., Saturday. It wasn't his best time, but he wasn't pushed too severely.

Baylor Down To Soph Quarterback

WACO, Tex. (AP)—Joe Reed, who lettered at quarterback as a sophomore last year, has given up football, Baylor Coach John Bridgers said Sunday.

Youngest Champ

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP) — Twenty-year-old Jack Lewis took a 7 and 6 victory Sunday over insurance executive Bill Hyndman in the 36-hole finals of the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament and became the youngest to win the tourney since Jack Nicklaus did it at 19 nine years ago.

Hannum Resigns 76er Position

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Alex Hannum resigned today as coach of the National Basketball Association's Philadelphia 76ers.

Enforced Curfew, Troops Help Keep Bermuda Quiet

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—A rigidly enforced curfew and 560 police and troops kept Bermuda quiet Sunday after three days of violence. Informed sources said the nightly curfew may stay on until after the resort island's general election May 23.

The 7 p.m.-to-dawn curfew also kept thousands of American tourists confined to their hotels, but most of them normally dine there anyway and spend the evening playing bingo or dancing in the hotel ballrooms.

'HOODLUMISM'
A detachment of 180 members of Britain's Royal Inniskilling Fusiliers arrived by plane Sunday night to help local forces quell any further outbreak of what the governor, Lord Marmonere, called the "hoodlumism" that swept this normally tranquil island.

Also helping keep order on the island where most of the whites and Negroes subsist on the tourist trade is the British frigate Leopard.

After rioting Thursday and Friday nights, there were four explosions and half a dozen minor blasts Saturday night but Sunday was without incident. Barbed wire barricades cut the coral roads, manned by police, firemen and troops of the Bermuda Regiment, both Negro and white.

The main violence occurred Thursday and Friday when 12 persons were injured and $250,000 worth of damage was done.

Officials here insist that the disturbances were neither racially nor politically motivated, although most of them were caused by marauding bands of Negro youths.

'LIMEY COPS'
Alan Butterfield, a candidate for the legislature of the predominantly Negro Popular Labor party—the PLP—charged that the troubles were caused "by the limey cops' irresponsible actions" in putting down the first riot.

The PLP demands independence from Britain and wants to keep out Britons whom it claims take the better jobs here.

Bermuda has a permanent population of approximately 50,000. The white minority has always dominated the government, but the election next month will be the first under universal suffrage, and this will give the PLP its first chance to get control of the government.

Tricky Shots Seemed To Outshine Singers

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Judging from a current television trend, the time is not far off when the real stars of variety shows will be the art and set designers and the special effects men.

Sunday night's "H. Andrew Williams Kaleidoscope Company" on NBC was a good example of the trend toward the tricky. It was, at base, the familiar Williams mixture of good guests, good music and good taste for which Andy is popular.

WILD PATTERNS
But the show was done in a setting of trick shots, moving patterns, geometric designs and startling contrasts. One number was literally done with mirrors. At times it seemed to the viewer with a good color set that he had tuned into the middle of an enormous swirling Rorschach test done in colored ink.

Although it was very gay and lively, sometimes the backgrounds seemed to overpower the performers.

Three out of four TV sets still produce only black and white pictures, so for the vast majority of viewers the full impact of the busy color was lost. But perhaps for them, the sight and sound was therefore in better balance.

STUDY OF SEX
Through it all Williams wandered in his detached and amused manner, singing a lot of songs, and making his guests look good. It was, on the whole, a pleasant hour.

NBC's "Today Show" Friday will devote its two hours to a study of sex on the campus. It will tackle the subject from the viewpoint of students, parents and college administrators.

The first of the summer replacements shows arrives Wednesday when "The Don DeLuise Show" takes over the Jonathan Winters variety hour on CBS. DeLuise first emerged as a fresh talent when he was a regular on the short-lived "Entertainers" a couple of seasons back.

TV Writer Dies
PATERSON, N.J. (AP)—Alden Stevens, 60, author and president of the 25,000-member Association on American Indian Affairs, died Sunday. Stevens, whose books include "Victory Without Peace" and "Arms and the People," was field director of the Mobil Travel Guide and wrote for several television series. A 30-year member of the Indian welfare organization, he became its president in 1964.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ
Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠KJ874 ♣K10873 ♣QJ6
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1♥ 1♠

What do you bid now?
A.—Three hearts. No temporary bid is available to you since a two diamond call, in view of your previous pass, would not be forcing. This is a powerful hand and we would not look askance at a raise to four hearts.

Q. 2—You are South, vulnerable, and you hold:
♠AQJ9874 ♣K1064 ♠6
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1♥ 2♣ 4♥ 4♠
Pass 5♣ 5♥ ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Six diamonds. This is admittedly a stab but, unfortunately there is no sure way of ascertaining whether partner possesses the right cards. There is the further prospect that the vulnerability status may induce the opponents to take out insurance with a save six hearts which will, at least, add 300 additional points to your exchequer.

Q. 3—Both sides vulnerable, and as South you hold:
♠65 ♣1053 ♣QJ8 ♠KQ872
The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
Pass 1♥ 3♠ Pass
Pass Dble. Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Four hearts. This is an awkward situation and the prospect of raising partner at the four level on three trumps is not an appealing one but, a bid of four clubs is too likely to be passed, since it is in the nature of a forced response and we would hesitate to advise a leap to five.

Q. 4—Neither side vulnerable, and as South you hold:
♠K94 ♣83 ♣108653 ♠874
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
2♠ Pass 2NT Pass
3♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Four spades. Your initial response limited your hand so partner could hardly expect much more than this. A return to three spades will bring a quick end to the bidding at a mere game contract and, since your hand possesses potential rating value in the heart suit, in addition to solidifying trump, slam prospects should not be lightly dismissed.

Q. 5—North-South vulnerable, and as South you hold:
♠K4 ♣8432 ♣KQJ95 ♠47
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass 1♠ 1♥ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Two spades. Opposite a partner who could venture a vulnerable, you have a hand of distinct merit and should offer partner an opportunity to contract for game. Bidding two of one of your red suits is not calculated to get you to game for, if partner rebids spades, you will hardly be in position to act again. Your trumps are adequate to support a vulnerable overall.

Q. 6—Neither vulnerable, and as South you hold:
♠97 ♣8 ♣KJ97643 ♠1098
Partner opens with one heart. What is your response?
A.—Pass. To respond in any fashion with this hand might lead to serious complications. If you acknowledge your sad plight by passing, you may find it expedient to enter the auction on the next round.

Q. 7—Both sides vulnerable, and as South you hold:
♠K7653 ♣10 ♣72 ♠K9864
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1♠ 2♥ 4♠ Pass
5♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Six spades. The bid above game in this sequence is conventionally regarded as an inquiry as to partner's holding in the adverse suit. If responder can promise that he will lose no more than one trick in that suit, he should accept the invitation. Observe that, if your heart and diamond holdings were reversed, your proper call would be a pass.

Q. 8—Neither side vulnerable, and as South you hold:
♠K10654 ♣A10654 ♣2 ♠A2
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1♠ Pass 2♣ Pass
2♥ Pass 2NT Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Partner's opening bid of two no trump is not forcing and, tho we have a distinction to stop short on constructive bidding, we cannot lose sight of the fact that we have a hand which contains only 11 high card points and has some of the earmarks of a misfit.
