OPEN EARLIER Extra Hour To Ballot Saturday

Howard County voters will have an extra hour next Saturday to ballot. This has nothing to do with daylight savings time.

It is a provision in the state's newly enacted election laws. The polls in this county will open at 7 a.m. instead of at 8 a.m., as has been traditional for many years. The polls will close at 7 p.m. as usual.

The handbook for election judges and clerks reveal the change in opening time.

The law provides that in counties having less than 100,000 population, the county commissioners court can by special order, set the opening hour for elections at 8 a.m.

Pauline Petty, Howard County clerk, going through the handbook found the change and noted that no such order has been voted by the Commissioners Court.

Therefore, the polls open at 7 a.m. and remain open for 12 hours. Under the law, the same hours are to prevail for the runoff primary and the general election.

Claims For Damage

DALLAS (AP) — Insurance claims for homes and businesses damaged in Dallas' Sunday hailstorm may be as much as $5 million, according to a preliminary estimate.

The figure was supplied by the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, and does not include damage to automobiles.

The association said additional adjusters are being shifted to Dallas and other areas of Texas and Arkansas which were hit by the storm.

Expects High Vote

DALLAS (AP) — Robert L. Johnson, chief of the Texas Election Bureau, forecast today that two million persons will vote in the Democratic primary next Saturday. This would be a record.

He did not estimate the number which will vote in the Republican primary the same day.

Texas has 4,072,397 registered voters, the highest in history by 1.5 million.

200 FIRED

HemisFair Has Income Problems

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The chief executive officer of San Antonio's HemisFair lopped off 200 jobs today at the world's fair. The HemisFair executive committee met in regular session to consider the less-than-expected attendance figures.

HemisFair chief executive officer James Gaines said 200 persons have been fired. He said those cut were necessary for the opening of the fair but whose jobs now are surplus.

"I will have recommendations later in the week on getting some San Antonians into HemisFair," Gaines told the committee.

Some 2.5 million advance tickets remain unused, a report said, but San Antonio citizens are not attending in expected numbers.

Gaines said a large scale promotional campaign will be instituted on behalf of the 92.6 acre fair.

He said the firings were linked to over-all income. "I don't think any of us are kidding ourselves," Gaines said, "gate income has not been up to expectations."

HemisFair President Marshall Steves complained that downtown San Antonio is not decked out as a world's fair city should be. He said the downtown department store just off the fairgrounds and which is a "flutter with HemisFair flags and emblems" looks great but the rest of it is just too little and too late.

"Something ought to be done," Steves said, "it looks like hell."

Sarr Kealhofer, is executive vice president of Visitors' Service Inc., the organization charged with overseeing accommodations are taken.

Kealhofer said his agency has been able to find accommodations for all visitors with a minimum of complaints. VSI claims a total of 6,700 rooms in hotels, motels and apartment houses are available to fairgoers in the downtown area, with some 9,000 such rooms said to be available in Bexar County.

HemisFair officials guessed that some 954,700 persons would have attended the fair through last Sunday. Actual attendance through that day was 611,783.

HemisFair opened April 6. It is to run six months.

DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

Chest Pains Hospitalize Eisenhower

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower is hospitalized at this Southern California bomber base for treatment of chest pains.

He was brought here by helicopter Monday night for treatment. An evening medical bulletin said he was suffering "some chest discomfort." But his aide added, "We are not calling this a heart attack."

NO WORD

A base spokesman, who had indicated there might be a new condition report at 8 a.m., told newsmen at that hour that he had no word on when a new statement would be made.

The 77-year-old general played golf Monday at Palm Springs, near his winter home, but a short time later called in his personal physician. The temperature at Palm Beach reached 100° during the day.

Several hours later, two Army helicopters landed on fairway 11 in front of Eisenhower's home on the Eldorado Country Club course in Palm Desert, near Palm Springs. Twenty minutes later, Eisenhower was being carried into the hospital on a stretcher.

AIDE

His aide, Brig. Gen. Robert Schulz, issued this statement later.

"Some chest discomfort was noted earlier today. The doctors all feel it best for a period of medical observation and bed rest."

A source close to Eisenhower said the former president had been "pretty busy the last couple of days, and he apparently overextended himself. The activity and the heat seemed to have tired him."

Witnesses at the hospital said Eisenhower appeared pale but conscious when he was admitted Monday.

As he was carried through the lobby, a nurse held a bottle of fluid running to his arm.

WELL

The former president's secretary, Army Lt. Nancy Jensen, said Eisenhower had been "feeling very well" in the morning when he played golf but that he broke his daily custom of going to his office on the nearby ranch of Floyd Olum.

Rockefeller In Race For GOP Nomination

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—A buoyant Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller shucked off his inhibitions about fighting for the Republican presidential nomination today and arrayed himself openly as an active candidate against Richard M. Nixon.

The 59-year-old millionaire New York governor told a nationally televised news conference that he did so in response to the pleas of many people and because of his own concern about "the gravity of the crises" that confront the American people.

Only 40 days ago, Rockefeller had surprised political observers by announcing he could not bid for the nomination but was available for a draft, if the party wanted him.

He told reporters today that he thought he had made "the correct decision" then and was making "the correct decision now."

In the brief formal statement in which he announced his candidacy, Rockefeller said he was motivated by "the dramatic and unprecedented events of the past weeks."

When asked whether he had been influenced by President Johnson's decision not to seek re-election, he said Johnson's withdrawal opened up an "opportunity for seeking an honorable peace in Asia." He did not elaborate.

Another reporter then asked whether the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King had been a factor in his decision. He replied only that "during the past week to 10 days I have been coming to this decision."

Shortly before Rockefeller went before the TV cameras, it became known that he had sent a telegram to a group of supporters in Vermont saying "he would seek the nomination to 'give our party a choice of candidates and programs.'"

Rockefeller set forth four reasons in his announcement of candidacy.

He said he had decided to run because of:

—"The dramatic and unprecedented events of the past weeks have revealed in most serious terms the gravity of the crises that face us as a people."

—He found, he said, "he could not offer alternatives effectively from the sidelines "in the new circumstances that confront the nation."

—Numerous people, within and outside the Republican party, "have urged me to take this step—to foster as an active candidate the discussion and debate that sustains our democracy."

—He is "deeply disturbed by the course of events—growing unrest and anxiety at home, and the signs of disintegration abroad." He underscored the word "disintegration" in the text of his official announcement.

100 YOUTHS INJURED, 628 ARRESTED

Police Rout Student Rebellion

NEW YORK (AP) — City police, called in by the Columbia University administration, routed student sit-ins from five barricaded campus buildings early today. More than 100 youths and 15 policemen were injured, and 628 persons were arrested.

The 75-minute police action, which began at 2:45 a.m., brought a sometimes violent end to the week-long sit-in.

REBELLION

The demonstration began April 23, primarily as a protest over the university's construction of a gym in a park separating the university from Negro Harlem. It had faded into a student rebellion against university disciplinary procedures after the students won initial concessions.

At its height perhaps 600 to 700 youths were involved, including some nonstudents. The total enrollment at Columbia, including affiliated colleges, is 25,381. This includes Columbia College and University, 17,545; Columbia Teachers College, 5,400; Barnard College, 1,800; and Union Theological School, 626.

Most of the injured students suffered face cuts and lacerations. One policeman was hospitalized after he suffered a heart attack.

During the police sweep a crowd of nearly 2,000 persons gathered on the Ivy League campus overlooking Harlem.

The bystanders clashed with police after the last of the demonstrators had been taken away.

Police used nightsticks freely in breaking up the large crowd and moving it off campus. Mounted police rode into the surging mass.

Dan Pellegrin, president of the student council, announced to a crowd near the library that he was calling a student strike starting today.

In a statement the university announced cancellation of classes this morning but added, "It is hoped that a number of the afternoon classes can be held."

University President Grayson Kirk told a 6 a.m. news conference that he called police because he university "has been paralyzed by the illegal acts of a minority of its students, aided and abetted by an unknown number of outsiders."

Kirk declared that granting the protester's key demand of amnesty from punishment "would have dealt a near fatal blow not only to this institution but to the whole of American higher education."

EXCELLENT JOB

Police Commissioner Howard R. Leary told newsmen the university had asked police to mobilize about midnight. He said he had witnessed the eviction operation and added the police had done "an excellent job."

By 5:30 a.m. the large crowd had broken up and students stood around in small clusters discussing the night's activities. At one point many on the campus chanted: "Kirk must go, Kirk must go," referring to university President Grayson Kirk.

Earlier Kirk had offered a four-point proposal to resolve the deadlock saying he would accept a student-faculty-administration committee to act as a court of appeals for any punishment meted out to the protesters.

Promise To Return In Larger Numbers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The demands were strong, and they were voiced in blunt and angry words, to top government officials. But the poor people who brought them to Washington made it clear they still expect a summer-long confrontation with their government.

"We will be back in 10 days," promised The Rev. Ralph Abernathy, leader of the Poor People's Campaign, at every stop. "We will be back for their answer, not 130 strong but 3,000 to 5,000 strong."

BACK UP

"We are going to back up our words with the most militant nonviolent direct action in this country's history," he added.

Abernathy repeatedly used "beautiful" Monday to describe the day, even though meetings ran hours behind schedule and the 130 advance troops never did keep appointments with some top officials—like Secretary of State Dean Rusk.

Emphasis was on the poor of varied ethnic groups from all parts of the nation—Negro, Indian, Mexican-American and white—coming together to say, in the words of one participant, "we're going to find a way to make these people do what they should do. We're tired of living the way we've been living."

And while campaign leaders promised over and over again they would start no violence in Washington; many of the participants indicated they might not abide by the same rules back in their home towns.

"We are not coming to Washington again," New York's Manuel Ortiz, a Puerto Rican, told Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman. "This is the last time. If our demands aren't met, we will stay in those ghettos and tear them down brick by brick."

Specific demands, ranging from better Justice Department enforcement of existing laws to an overhaul of the Agriculture Department's food stamp and land retirement programs were given in person to Freeman, Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz, Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark and acting antipoverty chief Bertrand M. Harding.

Angry shouts followed by bursts of applause rose from behind doors closed to newsmen. "It's beautiful," said Jackson, Miss., attorney Marian Wright. "They're getting up and telling it like it is."

LATE

Doing that meant meetings that ran hours past deadline, a situation that didn't seem to bother Abernathy.

"We have been waiting on the white man for 350 years," he told a rousing rally of some 1,000 people Monday night. "We just decided today we were going to let him wait on us."

Gold Price Soaring Again

LONDON (AP) — The price of gold on the London market hit its highest peak today since free sales began April 1. The price also rose sharply in both Frankfurt and Zurich.

The price at this morning's fixing in London was $39.10 an ounce against Monday night's closing of $38.75. This represented a steady increase during the past week amounting to $0.35 an ounce.

Six Rounded Up In Assault, Rape

DALLAS (AP)—Police rounded up six youths in the Oak Cliff section of Dallas Monday night in connection with a murder and criminal assault case.

Shot to death in Glendale Park April 21 was Robert Earl Diggle, 26, of Dallas. Officers said the man's woman companion, 27, was raped.

Officers said the youths picked up ranged in age from 16 to 18, and five of them admitted raping the woman.

Quake Kills 34

TEHRAN (AP) — A severe earthquake rocked a large area of western Iran Monday night and officials said today 34 persons were killed. They reported 250 persons injured and hundreds more homeless.

Charges Of Atrocity Levelled At Commies

SAIGON (AP) — Communist forces executed more than 1,000 persons during the February offensive in Hue, the U.S. Embassy reported today.

The embassy made its atrocity charge as the U.S. Command reported hard fighting around Hue, the former imperial capital, and U.S. B-52 bombers extended their raids into Laos to protect American troops sweeping the A Shau Valley gateway to the northern city.

MASS GRAVES

The embassy said its report was based on information from allied sources and the South Vietnamese national police. It said the victims were found in 19 separate mass graves.

"Many had been shot, some beheaded," the report said. "A number of bodies showed signs of mutilation. Most were found with hands bound behind their backs."

Evidence also was discovered of victims having been clubbed unconscious prior to being buried alive."

"Victims included Father Urban, 52, and Father Guy, 48. French priests from the nearby Benedictine mission at Thien An," the report said. "Father Urban was bound hand and foot and buried alive with 10 others. Father Guy was forced to kneel and shot through the head."

One Buddhist monk told investigators there had been nightly executions during the Communist occupation of the city, which U.S. and South Vietnamese forces retook after weeks of hard fighting.

Across South Vietnam from Hue, America's biggest bombers attacked North Vietnamese troop concentrations in Laos Monday and today, military sources said.

Hanoi Denies Contacts, U.S. Officials Confident

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials voice confidence that agreement will be reached with North Vietnam on where to talk peace but Hanoi says Washington dreamed up a story about preliminary contacts in Laos.

State Department press officer Robert J. McCloskey said Monday there were two diplomatic exchanges in three days last weekend between U.S. and North Vietnamese representatives in Vientiane, Laos, adding no agreement was reached on a peace-talk site.

But the North Vietnamese Foreign Ministry said the United States "cooked up the story about 'private discussions' being continued in Vientiane" and renewed its charge the

Johnson administration is delaying preliminary contacts with "artful maneuvers."

Hanoi's official Vietnam News Agency, in a broadcast monitored in Tokyo, said the story about Vientiane talks came from Assistant Secretary of State William P. Bundy and was fabricated "to soothe the strong public obloquy against the obduracy of the U.S. government."

But despite that reaction from the Communist capital, diplomatic sources said they are encouraged by what they called the quickening pace of exchanges in Vientiane between U.S. Ambassador William Sullivan and North Vietnam's charge d'affaires, Nguyen Chan.

MUTILATED VICTIMS UNEARTHED IN MASS GRAVES

Reds Executed More Than 1,000

SAIGON (AP)—Almost every night that the Communists held Hue, the Buddhist monks heard shots and cries for mercy from the field behind their pagoda. The U.S. Embassy said today that North Vietnamese troops and the Viet Cong executed more than 1,000 persons while they occupied the former imperial capital during their February offensive. The embassy report, based on information from allied sources and South Vietnamese police, said one South Vietnamese political warfare officer estimated half the victims had been buried alive.

Hershey Says LBJ Rejects Draft System Remodeling

WASHINGTON (AP)—Drafting President Johnson has rejected a sweeping remodeling of the Selective Service System proposed by a White House advisory commission. Instead, Hershey told a news conference Monday, Johnson approved later recommendations by a three-member presidential task force which included Hershey and which said the draft system should be left about as is.

New Post Office Building For Forsan Is Approved

Forsan is to get a new post office building. "I took the matter up with Sen. Ralph Yarborough," said Lamb. "He showed a great deal of interest and promised that he would look into it at once. This could be the result of that talk."

Lamb said that he had discussed the need for a new post office building with the city council and that the members agreed that such a structure was needed.

However, he said, insofar as he knew, no one other than himself had been pressing for the building.

The Forsan post office is now housed in a small wooden structure at the south end of the main part of town. The building is privately owned and is rented by the post office department.

No details as to what kind of a building is considered for Forsan are available. General Services Agency in Fort Worth had no information on the matter.

Generally, where post offices are built in small towns, the government selects a site, acquires an option on the land, and then asks for bids. A contractor buys the lot, builds the post office and leases it to the government for a specified number of years with a renewal provision.

This was the plan followed in Coahoma and also in Gail and Ackerly.

Lamb said that people he had talked to about the Forsan post office have favored a site formerly occupied by the office of the Forsan Oil Well service.

Mitchell Demos Call Convention

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Mitchell County's Democratic party precinct conventions will be held Saturday at 2 p.m. at six selected places, with 34 delegates to be chosen for the county convention, Mitchell County's precinct 1, meeting in the District Courtroom, will name 20 delegates. Foraine will name seven, Civic House (Colorado City) three, Westbrook two, Cuthbert one and Buford one.

The Republican party of American party have not scheduled precinct conventions or primaries in Mitchell County.

In Saturday's primary, the only countywide race is that for sheriff, with former city patrolman Selma Dickson challenging Sheriff Lewis Claxton for sheriff of Mitchell County.

In the Precinct 2 commissioner's race, incumbent Jake Northcut has drawn opposition from stockfarmer James Henderson.

Delegates Endorse 'Project Equality'

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Riding a wave of change, the newly merged United Methodist Church today geared for further, broader unification of Christian forces. And it backed their combined use of economic power to buttress their ethical ideals in American business.

The new thrusts by the denomination's governing conference were described as reflecting an upsurge of progressive sentiment.

Predicted opposition failed to materialize as representatives of the 11-million-member church overwhelmingly authorized negotiations of a specific plan for union with eight other denominations.

In a rapid-fire series of actions Monday night, delegates also:

- Endorsed "project equality," a nationwide, interfaith movement by which church agencies patronize firms stressing racial equality in employment. Full Methodist participation was urged across the country.

—Upheld the action of the Church's board of missions in withdrawing a $10-million investment portfolio from a New York bank on the ground that it participated in renewing a loan to the South African government, which imposes racial separation.

Delegates authorized its ecumenical commission, as participants in the consultation on church union, to join in drafting a concrete plan to unite nine denominations with a total of 23 1/2 million members.

Besides United Methodists, they include United Presbyterians, Christian Churches (Disciples), Presbyterians U.S. (Southern), United Church of Christ, Episcopalians, and three predominantly Negro Methodist bodies.

NEVER REGAINED CONSCIOUSNESS

Heart Swap Patient Dies

PARIS (AP) — Europe's first heart transplant patient, a 66-year-old retired French truck driver, died today 5 1/2 hours after he was given the heart of a young man. The new organ functioned well, doctors said, but the patient could not overcome an insufficiency of blood to the brain.

Clovis Roblain, succumbed at 10:30 a.m., never having regained consciousness after the transplant. He had undergone a nine-hour operation Saturday night.

TOO OLD?
Dr. Maurice Mercadier, the head of the surgical team at La Pitie Hospital, hinted that Roblain may have been too old to weather the transplant.

"We have learned from this first attempt that technically a transplant is perfectly possible but that we must have a patient sufficiently resistant to have a chance of success," the physician said.

Roblain's death leaves only one survivor from the seven human heart transplants which have been reported. He is Dr. Philip Blalberg, a 58-year-old South African dentist who was given a new heart on Jan. 2. He was discharged from a Cape Town hospital more than six weeks ago and is reported in excellent condition.

Mercadier said Roblain's death was caused by an insufficiency of blood to the brain. Several hours before the doctor had told a news conference the retired truck driver was in poor condition and prospects for his recovery were "very bad."

injured in an automobile accident Friday.

"We will attempt a new transplant," said Mercadier.

"My feeling as a man is one of chagrin. My feeling as a surgeon is that one must overcome this chagrin and work hard to renew what we have done."

The chief surgeon said that in the heart transplant operation—Europe's first—a team of doctors used a new technique in which the donor heart, no longer beating when it was removed from the auto crash victim, was preserved by constant injection of liquid.

The team's immunologist, Dr. Leon Schwartzberg, said the operation went smoothly, and the transplanted heart was started in Roblain's body by an external apparatus early in the operation.

Friday night Michel Gyppas, a newlywed of seven months, was driving home from work to his pregnant wife when his sports car collided with a sedan at a busy intersection. He was given no chance to live and his family was called to the hospital Saturday to decide whether his heart should be donated for transplant.

Wife Of Wealthy Exec Kidnaped, Then Freed

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP) — Authorities have disclosed that the wife of a rich businessman was kidnaped and held captive three days, then released unharmed.

The kidnaper had demanded a $250,000 ransom, authorities said, but never collected the ransom package.

The officials said a threatening note demanding ransom was left in the Lafayette, Calif., house from which Margaret Edith Louis, 61, was abducted last Tuesday afternoon.

She told officers she was treated well and not threatened before she was released in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park Friday night.

Her husband owns a chain of food markets in this area.

Dist. Atty. John Nejedly said news of the kidnaping was withheld to assure Mrs. Louis' safety, and to permit unhampered investigation.

Nejedly said Mrs. Louis told a medium built man, about 45, entering the home by saying he wanted to discuss business.

The man bound, gagged and blindfolded her, she said. Then he drove her away to a place where she was kept blindfolded much of the time, but untied.

T. E. Louis, 68, returned home from work to find a typewritten ransom note.

About 10:30 p.m. Friday the Louis' 35-year-old son, Ronald, went to San Francisco as instructed in the note.

He went to a pay telephone in the financial district, received a call telling him to go to a supermarket. There, he found a note directing him to leave a suitcase under an oriental statue near the Palace of the Legion of Honor on a cliff high above the Pacific.

No one ever picked up the package, whose contents were not revealed, authorities said.

Meantime, about two miles away, Mrs. Louis was released in Golden Gate Park.

'A BAD SIGN'
The doctor reported that while the transplanted heart was functioning and it had not been necessary to stimulate it artificially, Roblain had developed urinary problems and his respiration still required artificial assistance, "a bad sign."

Roblain lived 5 1/2 hours after he received the heart of a 23-year-old man who was fatally

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a medication with the ability, in most cases — to promptly stop itching, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids.

Tests by doctors proved that in case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction of the inflamed hemorrhoids took place.

The secret is Preparation H®. There's no other formula like it! Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

Take good electric service for granted?

We work so you can.

You plug in an appliance, and there's convenience. You switch on a lamp, and there's light. You set the thermostat, and there's comfort. You turn on the TV, and there's entertainment. It's a challenge for us. We're thinking and working every day, to see that you have a continuing supply of electric energy. In fact, we were considering your present needs years ago, and right now we're planning for your electrical requirements far into the future. So go ahead. Take us for granted. We wouldn't have it any other way.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Frederick Postlewaite are shown following the recent ceremony which united them in marriage. Rites were performed at the chapel of Treasure Island Naval Air Station, San Francisco, and a reception followed at the Officers Club on the station. The couple took a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe. The bride, the daughter of Col. and Mrs. Charles H. Pierce of Randolph AFB, San Antonio, will graduate in June at the University of California, while Mr. Postlewaite will continue in law school there. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Jack C. Postlewaite of El Paso. Col. Pierce formerly was stationed at Webb AFB, and the bride attended school here.

Bride-Elect Honored At Gift Party

STANTON (SC) — Miss Kay Bryan of Stanton, bride-elect of Lloyd Harvey was complimented with a bridal shower recently in the home of Mrs. Paul K. Jones.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Morgan Hall, Mrs. F. D. Rhodes, Mrs. L. C. Hazlewood Sr., Mrs. Bob Cox, Mrs. Euel Ferguson, Mrs. Glenn Gates, Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mrs. Tommy Newman and Mrs. Lila Flanagan.

Those in the receiving line were the hostess, the honoree, her mother, Mrs. O. B. Bryan, and the prospective bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Lloyd R. Harvey of Miami, Tex.

The refreshment table was laid with a pink net cloth over pink carnations. The honoree's chosen colors of cerise and kelly green were used in the decorations.

The hostess' gift was a white linen tablecloth and napkins.

Those in the house party were Mrs. Tom Angel, Mrs. Bob Bryan, Miss Lesa Bess Angel, Mrs. Jack Whitten of Kress, Miss Sarah Wells of Odessa, and Mrs. Bill Lane of Amarillo.

Approximately 60 attended including Mrs. I. F. Kennedy of Ruidoso.

The couple will marry May 31 in the First Methodist Church in Stanton.

Senior Girls Honored At Panhellenic Tea

Approximately 20 girls and their mothers attended the Big Spring Panhellenic sorority information tea held Sunday afternoon in the First Federal Community Room. Calling hours were from 2 to 4 p.m. Panel members comprised of Mrs. Bill Spain, Mrs. Jerry Games and Mrs. William Koehler explained advantages of sorority memberships while highlighting the good points of affiliating with a college sorority.

The tea honored all senior high school students in the area and those attending a junior college who wish to transfer.

Pins were displayed from various sororities, and displays showed colors and names of sororities.

The refreshment table was laid with a green linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow and lavender flowers. Crystal and silver appointments completed the setting. Mrs. Larry Cleatham presided at the refreshment table.

Mrs. Bob Dunson was in charge of information; and Mrs. R. G. Piland presented name tags.

Current officers are Mrs. Spain, president; Mrs. Piland, vice president; and Mrs. Ennis Cochran, secretary-treasurer.

Gift Party Honors New Bride

Mrs. Roger Dale Huitt, the former Miss Shawna Sherry Denton, was honored with a pre-nuptial shower Thursday in the Pioneer Gas Flame Room.

The honoree was married Saturday evening in the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Denton.

She was attired in a green dress with black accessories. The refreshment table was laid with a white lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow roses.

Hostesses were Mrs. Dorothy Creswell, Mrs. Merl Denton, Miss Gayle Arrington, Mrs. Clyde Denton, Mrs. Jessie Faye Evans and Mrs. Jereldine Beauman.

Approximately 30 attended.

Manbags, New Trend For Men

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — The jokes about what a lady carries in her pocketbook will probably stop. People may quit pointing out that women control the pursestrings of the nation.

Handbags are now also being made for men. Manbags, they are called.

You may not recognize your male friends, through. If he is shy, he may chose a style disguised as a camera case dangling from his shoulder. On the other hand, a bolder man may make no pretense about his two-tone canvas shoulder-strap, everything holder.

Besides canvas, the manbags also are made of rugged elephant hide. "I was very careful not to use anything that smacked of a woman's handbag design," said Sam Smith, a gray-eyed North Carolinian who created them for the 90-year-old H. Margolin Co.

The tall man in a black snugly-fitted Nehru suit had just test piloted a canvas and brass shoulder bag a dozen blocks down Fifth Avenue.

Smith believes these are natural progression in the menswear revolution that started a short time ago with turtle-necks.

"With suits fitting close to the body and with pockets disappearing, a man has to have something else for his belonging to keep from looking like he's smuggling grapefruit."

European men already have accepted the handbags-for-men idea and Smith says it is only a matter of time before American men adopt it, too. Several New York specialty stores already have stocked a sizable supply as Father's Day gifts.

TOPS Club Names Queen Of Week

Mrs. James Wells was named "queen of the week" and presented with a gift of fruit and vegetables at the Monday meeting of the TOPS Salad Mixers in Knott Community Center.

Miss Brenda Graham directed games, and Mrs. R. J. Shorter reported on a television show featuring TOPS national club members.

Mrs. Dan Brasher reported a net weight loss of over 15 pounds by club members, and she was given the attendance prize.

The next meeting will be a covered dish supper in the Community Center. The group will observe the first anniversary of the club.

Range Hood Dispels Odors, Smoke, Heat

By GENEVIEVE S. WOOD

Ventilating hoods for kitchen ranges have ushered in a new era of kitchen comfort, insofar as food odors, smoke and heat are concerned. With the summer season just around the corner, now is a good time to take these ventilating hoods into account.

There are two kinds made for the home today: the vented and the ductless, which requires no outside vent. They both have a fan or motor blower, which exhausts the air from the range area.

The vented hood expels the air, laden with food odors and heated by cooking, and often bearing smoke and moisture, through ducts to the exterior of the building, and helps circulate fresh air.

The ductless or unvented hood circulates the air through a filter containing charcoal, which removes the impurities but does not remove the heat and moisture. Even so, it is a distinct advantage to have such a ventilating hood if the vented type is not practicable.

The vented hood must have ducts that will discharge the air outside the building. In cases where ducts cannot be built to the outside, as in apartment buildings, or where the kitchen is arranged so that building ducts would be prohibitive in cost, the ductless hoods will serve very well indeed.

FLEXIBLE STYLING
Both types of hoods are available in many styles and colors, so it is comparatively easy to get one that will harmonize with your kitchen. Widths vary from about 30 inches to 42 inches. You will want one that is wide enough to extend over the entire width of your range, of course. If you prefer you can get a hood with a light — usually fluorescent — built in. This is a big asset if there is no other light over your range.

Two-speed motors, available in some hoods, are another advantage.
You will find that a ventilating hood catches a surprising amount of grease and dust, so fairly frequent cleanings are in order. The filters must be taken out and washed in suds with a stiff brush, and they must be replaced at long intervals. Your best assurance of quality is to buy a hood from a reliable concern, for there is very little that you can see in the way of quality features.

When making your selection, be sure to check installation cost. The ductless hoods are easier to install because this is a self-contained unit, whereas the ductwork and vent in the vented ventilators call for considerably more work. In either case, installation is a job for a trained man.
The resulting comfort from these ventilating hoods and a kitchen that is much easier to keep clean, make them a good investment.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

'Used' Paper Towels Make Cleaning Easy

Dear Friends:
I just discovered the trickiest thing ever about paper towels. Not new ones, but USED ones.

HELOISE

Once they've been used to wipe up water, etc., did you girls know that they can be reused? Just lay 'em on your drainboard and use them when you start to do dishes. They're great for wiping out food before putting dishes in your dish water. Especially pots and pans. Keeps your dish water cleaner.

I was in such a hurry to do a pile of dishes one day, I didn't take time to go to the linen closet to get a dishrag.

I spied that damp wrinkled-up paper towel lying on the drainboard, picked it up and put it in my dish water. Lo and behold, it washed just as good as a dishcloth. Besides, when you do get down to those greasy pots and pans, you're not getting all of that grease and food in your dishrag or sponge.

So don't throw 'em away, even though you use 'em to wipe up a few spills on the kitchen table or counter. Don't forget, they CAN be put in dish water, and used and used and used.

They've got just enough roughness on 'em that things clean slick as a whistle.

And wait until you clean your sink with that scouring powder. That wet, secondhand towel is absolutely perfect, folks. It can be tossed away and no more wet dishrag hanging up to dry. So sanitary, too. . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
If you have trouble getting your children to wash their faces, give them a shaving brush and they will lather that soap on their faces until they are as clean-as-a-whistle. And will think that washing is FUN. . . . R. F.

Dear Heloise:
For tastier and tenderer cole slaw, quarter your cabbage and place it in the refrigerator for an hour or so, soaking in pickle juice borrowed from any opened pickles — sweet, sour or dill.

Drain the juice when ready to shred the slaw. When shredded, lay it on a dry tea towel or paper towel, fold over and pat cabbage completely dry before adding a dressing.

What a delicious flavor it lends. Won't you try it, Heloise? . . . Mrs. T. Theford

I did! It's wonderful! Heloise

LETTER OF LAUGHTER

Dear Heloise:
It's usually your tongue that takes the licking when you have a stack of cards to stamp and seal. . . . Mrs. Gordon Jacobson

Dear Heloise:
While giving myself a manicure the other day, I spilled some pink nail polish on my favorite cotton skirt.

Please, Heloise, come to my rescue and tell me how to remove the nail polish from my skirt. . . . School Girl

Little Darling:
To remove nail polish, never use polish remover loosely. It DISSOLVES some fabrics. Use pure amyl acetate obtained at the drug store.

Put a cloth under the spot. Sponge amyl acetate on with a dab of cotton, moving the cloth underneath when it becomes stained and continue sponging until all polish is gone.

If any stain is left after the polish is all removed, sponge with a little rubbing alcohol to which a few drops of ammonia have been added.

Always be sure to TEST a hidden spot of the skirt first to see if amyl acetate is safe for your particular material, and to FOLLOW INSTRUCTIONS and CAUTIONS on the container. Love. . . Heloise

Dear Heloise:
If you cover your telephone book with wallpaper left over from the walls of the room in which the telephone is located, the book will be much more attractive and the room will have a less cluttered look. . . . Pam

Dear Heloise:
I use "X" marks to distinguish between the children's clothing. The oldest child is "X," second child is "XX," etc.

When the clothes are handed down I simply add another "X" to designate the new owner. . . . P. J.

Designer Shows Small Waistline In Styles

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON NEW YORK (AP) — If you have a lot of money and a little middle, you are all set for the revised version of the Norman Norell classics.

Though the 65-year-old dean of American designers may have at times ignored the feminine figure indentation traditionally located slightly above the hipbone, he made up for it in his fall and winter collection presented Monday night.

To be sure, there were the usual simple jerseys, long-sleeved bare-armed, with tiny Mao collars, and bodices as unfigurative as exclamation points. But mostly there were dresses, coats, and jacket costumes with belts, wide or thin, of stitched fabric or shiny patent leather, fleshless figures of the manikins

Discourage Ants

Small pieces of cotton saturated in sweetened liquid poison, attached to each leg of a picnic table, will keep ants away.

Friendship Class Hosts Luncheon

Mrs. Florence Odom presided at the Saturday meeting of the Friendship Class of Wesley Methodist Church in the Downtown Tea Room. Mrs. J. C. Ray gave the devotion and worded prayer. Twelve attended. The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Ellen Shafer in Garfield City.

Tips Given About Car Carpet Care

Many owners of newer automobiles are faced with the prospect of how to clean their carpeting. In the past few years tufted carpeting has been added as a luxury to enhance the decorative features of cars.

Carpeting for automobiles is manufactured the same as carpeting for the home and it needs the same kind of loving care. Professional advice should be sought as to the best methods of caring for the carpeting in automobiles since it is subjected to even more damaging conditions than most home carpets.

Weather, heat, oils and greases, and wear factors (under normal conditions) are more intense on auto carpeting and to preserve the luxurious effect, it should be treated by experts and remedied more often than carpet used in buildings.

Spots and stains should be treated immediately; follow advice and remedies listed in "Aids to Carpet Care," a pamphlet available from the National Institute of Rug Cleaning, 1815 N. Fort Myer Drive, Arlington, Va. 22209.

A LOVELIER YOU

Use Moisturizer To Eradicate Dry Lines

A Lovely writes: Please enlighten me on the value of aloe to the face of the creams I see advertised. What is aloe, anyway, and what are its beauty benefits?

The answer? Aloe is the given name of a large group of succulent plants. The species used in making skin-care products have tough, spiny, hollow leaves that contain a remarkable gel.

Remarkable because it acts like food and drink to the plants, and fosters bloom even in desert soil.

Centuries ago, dwellers in dry lands discovered that aloe gel would benefit the skin. They applied it in its raw state to soften skin in distress from searing weather conditions and to smooth away abrasions from any cause. In some localities aloe gel is still so used.

Its value to modern cosmetics has not been assessed until recently. As a result of scientific investigations, purified aloe blended with s and b ingredients gives promise of excellence in moisturizing and restoring the normal balance to dry, lined and sensitive skins. Products incorporating aloe run the gamut from night care to moisture base and body lotion.

It is said that aloe gel helps the skin help itself, just as it takes care of its mother plant. Except for the fact that aloe products are fairly priced, that's all I know about the subject "aloe." Finis!

Two Dawson Drills Staked

Two Dawson County locations have been staked.

Cities Service Oil Co. has staked No. 20-5 West Welch Unit to drill to 5,000 feet in the Welch (San Andres) area. It is spotted on the south line and 4,000 feet from the east line of section 15-C-38, PSL, three miles west of Welch.

Forest Oil Corp., Midland, plans No. 9 E. W. Harris et al as a 12,500-foot operation in the Patricia (Fusselman) pool three miles west of Patricia. Drillsite is 1,820 feet from the south line and 660 feet from the east line of Labor 20, League 267, Moore CLS survey.

In Howard County, L. C. Echols has completed No. 5-A Chalk as a Howard-Glasscock old well plugged back for 20 barrels of 26-gravity oil per day, with 20 barrels of water.

Total depth was 3,050 feet, plugged back to 2,250 feet, with a seven-inch casing set at 2,672 feet. Perforations were between 2,100-2,182 feet. Operator fractured with 40,000 gallons fluid and 45,000 pounds sand.

Location is 330 feet from the north and west lines of section 35-29, W&NW survey.

A Glasscock County wildcat location has been staked by O. P. Leonard, Fort Worth, to test the Permian area.

Operator is to drill to 2,800 feet at the No. 1 Clyde Reynolds, 10 miles southeast of Garden City, 1 1/2 miles northwest of the Fool's Creek northwesterly region. Drillsite is 2,867 feet from the south line and 467 feet from the west line of section 34-32-4s, T&P survey.

In Sterling County, Sun Oil Co. of Midland plans No. 1 Sude McIntire as an 8,800-foot Fusselman operation to test the wildcat zone in the McIntire Field. It is spotted 660 feet from the south and west lines of section 29-14, SPRR survey, 16 miles west and slightly north of Sterling City. Location is 2 1/4 miles southeast of the McIntire pool and two miles southwest of the El Kay multipay region.

Optimists Name New Officers

STANTON (SC) — James Wheeler is the new president of the Stanton Optimist Club.

Other officers named at the meeting Friday were Corky Blocker and Richard Payne, vice presidents; Jimmy Stallings, secretary; treasurer; Benny Welch, Bob Cain, Tommy Blackwell, Stanley Reid, Jack Ireton and Sam Houston, directors. New officers take over in July.

The club will pay the registration expense of the president-elect and the secretary-treasurer-elect at the North Texas district meeting in Dallas, May 15-19.

James Eastwood, Midland, showed slides of his trips to Hawaii. Fourteen members and one visitor were present.

Burglars Enter Airport School

Burglars gained entry to the Airport School, Air Base Road, sometime during the night but officers said nothing was reported missing. Entry was made by breaking windows in the principal's office. Officers said it appeared the school music room has been entered.

Richard Meadows, 113 E. 19th, reported the theft of a car stereo tape player and two tapes, which were taken from his car which was parked in front of his home.

Barbecue Set

WESTBROOK — The Westbrook Future Farmers of America will hold its annual parent-barbecue May 31 in Colorado City Lake Park beginning at 7 p.m. Prices will be $1.50 for all persons 10 years of age or older (excluding FFA members and parents) and $1 for others, said George Sweatt, president.

Light Bulbs, Anyone?

group leaders, with the help of Waymon Clark. The Lions have a lot of bulbs to sell to finance their blind and sight conservation work and aid to crippled children.

Cycle Crash Injures Teen

STANTON — Johnny McIntyre, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joyce McIntyre Sr., suffered a number of broken ribs and a slight head injury early today when his motorcycle and a car driven by Mrs. Wanda Hankins, Stanton post office employe, collided one block east of the Stanton high school.

Jake Bruton, Stanton policeman, said the light motorcycle which McIntyre was riding struck the front of Mrs. Hankins' car and tore a wheel from the vehicle. The motorcycle skidded on 87 feet and was demolished.

An ambulance rushed McIntyre to the Malone-Hogan Foundation Hospital in Big Spring. He was examined and treated and then returned to his home here.

Mrs. Hankins was not injured.

Four Face Weed Smuggling Raps

HOUSTON (AP) — A three-count indictment charging four men with conspiring to smuggle 2,084 pounds of marijuana into the country was returned Monday by a federal grand jury.

The marijuana was shipped from Houston to San Francisco by air freight where one of the men was arrested March 5, the federal attorney's office said.

Charged were George R. McMullen, Terry Joseph Wing, David C. Franklin and William J. McGoldrich III.

Narcotics agents said Wing and McGoldrich claimed 1,500 pounds of the shipment the day before Wing was arrested. The men also were indicted with smuggling 500 pounds of marijuana into the country in a sailboat and transporting the weed from Port Aransas, Tex., to San Francisco.

Mrs. Wade was born in Tuscaloosa, Ala. Sept. 13, 1890, and married Mr. Wade in Roscoe in 1922.

She is survived by her husband of El Paso, two brothers, Otis Parker of Ysleta and Jack Parker of Sacramento, Calif., two sisters, Mrs. Emma Butledge of Oregon and Mrs. Lida Howe of Tucson, Ariz.

Texas Farmers Battle Weather

AUSTIN (AP) — Wet fields and cold weather slowed Texas farming last week, reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The department, in its weekly crop-weather report Monday said the northern High Plains were short of moisture and dry-land wheat prospects were poor.

Elsewhere over the state, the report said, wheat and other small grains generally have "excellent prospects although widespread leaf and stem rust is causing concern."

Hail damaged or destroyed cotton, sorghum and corn in southern sections. Insects were a problem.

Cotton planting was 24 per cent complete, sorghum 36 per cent, corn 80 per cent and rice planting was 73 per cent complete.

The onion harvest was active in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, with 650,000 50-pound bags shipped during the week. Cabbage and carrots moved in moderate volume with supplies declining. Citrus prospects were good, the report said.

Cotton Week Parade Held

A parade kicking off Cotton Week festivities in Big Spring through town late Monday afternoon before several hundred spectators.

More than 20 local implement dealers featured the latest in cotton industry equipment, including planters, pickers, strippers, tractors and land breaking equipment.

Participating in the parade were bands from Goliad and Runnels Junior High Schools and Coahoma High School. Riding on the floats were Sharon Hicks, Miss Big Spring; Suzanne Mich, Junior Miss Big Spring; and Miss Farm Bureau, Laura Madison.

The South Plains Maid of Cotton, Vicky Esty from Lubbock, was unable to be in the parade, but she is expected to participate in the style show planned for Thursday evening.

Gerald Miller was parade chairman.

Webb Barbecue Tickets Offered

Area business and professional people are reminded to purchase their tickets for the community-sponsored Webb AFB barbecue Saturday, May 18, as soon as possible.

The barbecue, which is to begin at 1 p.m. at the Webb Pavilion, is open to all military personnel and their families with the rank of tech sergeant and below, through airman basic. Community residents are purchasing the tickets in blocks of 10 at $1.25 each and are donating the tickets to purchase the armchairs' meals. One firm has purchased 100 tickets.

Over 1,800 persons are expected to attend. R. J. Ream and Col. Chandler B. Estes are coordinating the affair. Tickets may be purchased through the Chamber of Commerce.

Absentee Voting Deadline Nears

At 11 a.m. today, 175 Howard County electors had voted Democratic absentee ballots and three voters had cast Republican absentee ballots in person at the office of Pauline Petty, Howard County clerk.

The office has mailed out 119 Democratic and 12 Republican ballots to applicants who are in other communities.

Deadline for absentee voting expires at 5 p.m. today. The ballots are for the primary election which is set for Saturday, May 4.

Suspect Posts $5,000 Bond

Santiago Jaime Munoz 28, charged with assault with intent to commit murder, has been released from Howard County jail on $5,000 bond.

Meantime, Arthur Lopez, whom Munoz is accused of shooting last Saturday night, continues in a gray condition at the Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital.

The hospital reported that Lopez had a fairly satisfactory night.

Fires Doused

Two trash fires were doused by firemen Friday at 6:18 p.m. a blaze at North Johnson was extinguished and at 10:42 a.m. a fire at Twelfth and Main was put out.

Christmas Proof Being Debated

Validity of the proof offered by the state to show that James I. Christmas has been previously convicted of burglary was being debated in 118th District Court today.

A jury in the court Monday afternoon found Christmas guilty on the specific charge of burglary cited in the indictment pending against him. The jury panel at that time was instructed to return to court today to hear evidence on which punishment of the defendant would be determined.

However, this morning it was agreed the punishment would be left up to the court and the jury panel was excused from further duty. Judge Ralph Caton then heard the state's proof of prior conviction of the defendant. John Richard Coffey, defense attorney, attacked validity of the documentary evidence posed by the state as proof of prior conviction. At 11 a.m. no ruling had been made on the matter.

Wayne Burns, district attorney said that if Judge Caton holds that the documents show prior conviction, Christmas will be assessed 12 years in the prison as a repeater offender. His punishment will be fixed by the court based on the single episode for which the defendant is under conviction.

No other criminal cases are to be tried this week and the remainder of the jury panel has been finally excused.

have "excellent prospects although widespread leaf and stem rust is causing concern."

Cotton planting was 24 per cent complete, sorghum 36 per cent, corn 80 per cent and rice planting was 73 per cent complete.

The onion harvest was active in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, with 650,000 50-pound bags shipped during the week. Cabbage and carrots moved in moderate volume with supplies declining. Citrus prospects were good, the report said.

It said "range and livestock conditions are generally excellent over the state, except on the northern High Plains."

Coliseum Discussed

Members of the convention and tourist committee voiced their suggestions on what is needed in a community center or coliseum for Big Spring in a meeting Monday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce.

Some of the items suggested, according to Jeff Brown, chairman, were a general assembly meeting room and a minimum of at least 10 other meeting areas; plenty of display space for advertisers; the maximum in concessions, restrooms, lounges, parking and dining-in facilities; acoustical engineering; accessibility to overnight facilities; and equipment and areas for fine arts programs, which could include Little Theatre productions and piano forum recitals.

The suggestions will be turned over to Harold Davis, chairman of the committee.

In other business, members were told that signs pointing out tourist facilities in Big Spring will be completed and erected by the last of this week. Location of the signs is approximately five miles north of town on U.S. 80.

Brown also reminded members that several convention bids, up to 1970, are in progress, and added that it would be easier to draw conventions to this area if a better facility — such as the proposed community center — were available.

The Permian Basin Regional meeting of the Natural Gas Processors Association will be held May 10 at the Inn of the Golden West in Odessa. Featured in the meeting is a session chairman is Jim Zike, representing the Skelly Oil Co. Big Spring.

'PROFESSIONAL POLITICIANS' COVERING UP?

Money Reports Provide Fodder

By The Associated Press

Claims of growing strength, new support and how much the other candidates are spending with campaign promises as the principal oratorical subjects in the Texas governor's race this week.

TOP SPENDERS

Reports filed with the secretary of state showed that Eugene Locke and Dolph Briscoe have spent over half a million dollars while Preston Smith, John Hill and Edward Whittenburg each topped $200,000. All are Democrats. Among the three Republican candidates, Paul Eggers with nearly $75,000 was the big spender.

The reports immediately became a target of Whittenburg who charged that the "professional politicians" were covering up the sources of their campaign money by reporting them as committee donations or without the full name and address of the donors.

He claimed 60 per cent of Don Yarborough's reported contributions were anonymous, 44 per cent of Briscoe's, 45 per cent of Hill's and 30 per cent of Smith's also were from committees, trustees and other sources other than named donors.

SUPPORTS CARR

Waggoner Carr claimed new support in the endorsement from Gordon McLendon, the Dallas Radio executive who withdrew from the race in February. McLendon said he disagreed with Carr on some issues but declared "he is the only one who presents such a clear-cut stand on every subject that one is immediately able to agree or disagree."

The claim for increased strength came from Yarborough who said his vote has picked up "at least 20 per cent last week." Because of what he called his unequivocal stands on things like automobile insurance rates. "All the other candidates are tied in with the insurance industry—the same old crowd that has held back Texas for years," he said at San Antonio.

Smith, addressing a group of teachers at Arlington said today that "I believe that an official who withholds force to subvert lawbreakers should feel at least morally responsible for lives lost and the life savings and investments that go up in the arsonists' smoke."

Locke in his strongest effort to date to link his candidacy with outgoing Gov. John Connally told Austin newsmen, "I would say virtually the entire Connally family is working in my campaign." He conceded the governor had not endorsed him but said that Connally had said "he thought I would make a great governor."

'SICK LEAVE PLAN'

Hill told a group of Houston teachers that he stands for lowering the school age to 5, increasing bi-lingual programs to help Spanish-speaking children and "an appropriate sick leave plan" for teachers.

Briscoe, who has been handicapped by laryngitis, went from home in Uvalde to Houston to tape record programs, and was due to hit the campaign trail today. The Uvalde rancher promised that if elected he will hold a weekly forum and invite any citizen "regardless of race, creed or color" to pose any questions or discuss any issues.

Eggers told a Wichita Falls audience that "Republicans offer the alternative of trying to solve many of our problems on the state and local level rather than looking toward Washington."

Mutual Responsibility Plea Voiced By McCarthy

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (AP) — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy says "every citizen should be asking himself about the responsibility Americans have for one another."

McCarthy addressed about 6,000 persons Monday night in Purdue University's Elliott School of Music.

"If democracy is to be revitalized, this matter of mutual responsibility is all important," McCarthy said. "The old need to have a sense of responsibility for the happiness of the young, and to listen to them. The young need to have a sense of responsibility for their black brothers. The rich for the poor."

McCarthy is running against Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Indiana Gov. Roger D. Branigan on the Democratic presidential preference ballot May 7.

Earlier Monday in two appearances at Terre Haute, McCarthy addressed pupils at Paul Schulte High School and drew an estimated 2,000 persons, mostly Indiana State University students, at a downtown outdoor rally.

Nearly all of the 530 pupils at the high school turned out for the Minnesota senator, cheering him for two minutes before he spoke. McCarthy asked whether America is prepared to spend billions to fight the war in Southeast Asia while devoting only a fraction of that to aiding other troubled nations and solving a host of domestic problems.

He said the problems included housing, health care, education of the young and assurances persons can get adequate jobs according to their ability.

Spokane Police Lt. Chester F. Harris presents Mrs. Helen Hall, a 70-year-old Philadelphia self-styled "queen-of-the-road," with a Spokane Police patch. The woman is pushing a shopping cart across the U.S. and has worn out ten pairs of shoes. The widow says she started her walk three years ago as a protest against the Philadelphia Welfare Department.

Classes At Air Force Academy Suspended

AIR FORCE ACADEMY, Colo. (AP) — Classes at the Air Force Academy and adjacent public schools were closed today because of a swift-striking illness that has hospitalized 99 cadets since Sunday.

More than 600 cadets, most complaining of sore throats, began reporting to academy physicians Sunday morning. Classes were suspended Monday and were to resume today until another wave of illness struck Monday night.

In a five-hour period 22 new cases required hospitalization. Some of the cadets were suffering from diarrhea, vomiting and fever.

ORDERED TO BED
The organisms causing the epidemic among cadets tentatively have been identified as a strain of streptococcus. Col. Harry Green, academy hospital director, said. A team of experts from the U.S. Public Health Service National Communicable Disease Center at Fort Collins, Colo., was called in to help identify the ailment.

The cadets were treated with antibiotics and ordered to rest in bed. Some received intravenous injections to restore their fluid balance.

Emergency cots were arranged in the academy gymnasium after hospital facilities were overtaxed.

The disease appeared to have centered among the 3,100-man cadet wing. There were no reports of an unusual level of illness among the regular Air Force personnel or civilian workers at the academy.

SCHOOLS SHUT
Classes also were suspended for the 3,650 school children and 188 teachers in El Paso County District 20, which includes public schools on the 17,000-acre

HHH Discouraging Golden State Bid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, too late a Democratic presidential contender to get on California's June 4 primary ballot, is moving to insure no proxy slate carries his name to possible defeat.

Humphrey is discouraging any move by an uncommitted delegation—first organized to back President Johnson—to pledge itself to the vice president in the Golden State runoff. State Atty. Gen. Thomas C. Lynch has said in Los Angeles that the onetime pro-Johnson slate will meet soon to caucus on its presidential preference.

TOO LATE
While more than three-fourths of the individuals on the Lynch slate are reported to favor Humphrey, the vice president and his strategists are struggling to avoid any public endorsement of him.

Their reasoning is that the slate wouldn't stand an equal chance of winning the slate's 174 delegates, with the names of Sens. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., and Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., on the ballot and Humphrey's absent.

Because his formal entry into the race last Saturday was delayed until it was too late to get his name on any ballot, Humphrey plans whenever possible to avoid appearances in primary states until after the voting is over.

While he is conceding the presidential primary states on the first ballot to his rival, Humphrey is already moving in on states that choose delegates in conventions and in district elections.

SEEDS PLANTED
Humphrey assesses his chances of picking off some of New York's 190 votes at a luncheon today with supporters and contributors in New York City.

He has delegate candidates running in most of the state's congressional districts but expects Kennedy supporters to control the delegation.

The vice president will talk with Philadelphia area delegates on a visit there Thursday. His backers voiced confidence he can get a majority of Pennsylvania's 130 convention votes.

The seeds the vice president's workers began sowing in Maryland shortly after the president's exit from the contest sprouted in a pro-Humphrey delegation Monday, bound by the unit rule in casting its 49 votes at the Chicago party convention.

This was regarded as a victory over Kennedy forces, who lost 114 to 23 an effort to knock out the unit rule.

Governor Slates Bermuda Voting

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP) — Despite continuing tension and a curfew, Bermuda's governor dissolved Parliament Monday and scheduled general elections May 22 to bring representative government to the 284-year-old British colony.

Patrols of local police and troops continued to enforce the 7 p.m.-to-dawn curfew and seized six men Monday night who were looting a furniture store that had been set afire twice during the rioting last Thursday and Friday.

HISTORIC MOVE
Store owners along Hamilton's Front Street, where generations of American tourists have shopped for bargains in English china, silver, linen and woollens, boarded up their show windows for the first time in history, fearing a recurrence of disturbances.

Small groups of Negroes wandered the island Monday afternoon and with Negro demonstrators marching outside, the royal governor, Lord Dartmouth, announced the dissolution of the island Parliament, a move he called historic.

The present majority party in Parliament, the predominantly white United Bermuda party, is fiercely loyal to Britain.

Damages estimated from last week's rioting were raised Monday from $50,000 to more than $1 million.

'Bonnie, Clyde, Jessie' Guilty

SAFFORD, Ariz. (AP) — Three young Texans who called themselves "Bonnie, Clyde and Jessie James" have been given prison sentences after pleading guilty to a $25 grocery store robbery in Arizona.

The three, also wanted in Texas on kidnapping charges, were sentenced to 5-7 years in the state prison. They are Elizabeth Nell Collins, Jessie James Smith and Harvey D. Webb, all 20.

They were arrested on a ranch between Wilcox and Benson April 16 after a 100-mile police chase.

After pleading guilty to the robbery charge last week, the three were sentenced and taken to the state prison in Florence. Graham County Atty. Irval Mortanson said it is still possible for Texas to have them extradited to answer charges of kidnapping John Patrick McElroy, 20, and a 17-year-old girl, both of Fort Worth, and holding them for nine hours during a trip through West Texas.

Officers quoted the girl as saying the man who called himself "Clyde" raped her before she and her companion were released.

RFK Says U.S. Failing To Cope With Starvation

VALPARAISO, Ind. (AP) — Sen. Robert F. Kennedy says the federal government is failing to cope with widespread starvation in the United States.

Kennedy, campaigning in heavily populated northern Indiana, told about 5,000 students at Valparaiso University Monday that "our government's effort to reach the hungry, through the commodity distribution and food stamp programs, reaches only 18 per cent of our poor."

"Our Department of Agriculture, in the face of overwhelming need, returned more than $200 million in available funds to the Treasury—money that should have gone to feed these people."

Kennedy is opposed in Indiana's May 7 primary by Sen.

Eugene J. McCarthy and Indiana Gov. Roger D. Branigin.

The New York Democrat said food stamps should be made more easily available to the poor by lowering the prices for families working only seasonally, by keeping offices open all month instead of a day or two and by discouraging stores from raising prices when the time to redeem stamps approaches.

Later, as the Kennedy motorcade wound through Gary, knots of citizens lined the route to cheer and wave. Kennedy picked up a small boy and his even smaller sister and gave them a lift for several miles. He talked with them and put his arm around them, then left the rest of the motorcade on busy Calumet Avenue while his car took the children home.

A Devotional For The Day

Whoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. (Luke 14:11)

PRAYER: Lord Jesus Christ, clothe us with humility like Thine. Give us meekness of spirit, purity of heart, simple faith, and integrity of mind. In Thy spirit we ask these great things. Amen.

Five Competent Men

With primaries only a few days away, most Texas voters seem to be still in a state of "puzzlement" about the Democratic governor's race.

There are ten candidates, and most of them have engaged in free-wheeling campaigns that still has left the public in a state of indecision.

As for sound direction of the state in the future, The Herald feels that no great mistake would be made in the nomination of any one of five men—Preston Smith, Waggoner Carr, Eugene Locke, John Hill and Dolph Briscoe.

Smith and Carr carry the qualifications of more actual experience in the state political scene; the first is a long-time legislator and is now lieutenant governor; the second also has had considerable legislative experience and serves well as attorney general.

Hill has been secretary of state while Briscoe has been in the legislature. Locke has had governmental appointments on the national scene. All of these men agree on many basic issues, including measures to stop the increase in crime, to control air and water pollution, to advance Texas education, industrialism and tourism. In some respects they are at odds, but in the final analysis, the Texas voter is left, on Saturday, with a selection by personality.

The Herald regards these five as competent and sound men, and of the political persuasion that could give the state continued leadership for economic and social advancement. It's still a matter of individual preference.

Ill-Advised Plan

The successors of Martin Luther King appear bent on conducting what they call "the poor people's march" on Washington D.C. About 100 of them have been in the capital this week making preparations mostly in the form of demands for various programs.

Before his assassination, Dr. King was being urged to abandon plans for this venture in the interest of avoiding provocations that might lead to civil disturbances. Now his death is being seized upon as a rallying point, yet this does not make the march any more advisable or desirable.

Indeed, the implication of a mass of squatters rooted in the capital bodes trouble. First of all, the prospect that hundreds and perhaps thousands housed in tents or shanties is being used as a threat unless demands are met. Secondly, there is danger enough in one mass demonstration, let alone the almost certainty that incidents would evolve out of a squatter's army with nothing but time on its hands.

Congress will not be impressed by this sort of thing; indeed if the pressure has any effect, it will be negative.

There are lot more constructive, reasonable and fruitful ways to seek attention and help.

Many Don't Like Bobby

WASHINGTON — It's kind of a crummy trick, but one way to gauge Sen. Bob Kennedy's chances for the Democratic nomination is to ask people why they don't like him.

There's no point in popping such a question to the Pavlovian Bobby-haters for that is like polling Arabs on the subject of Israel, or vice versa. But when you find detestation of RFK among Laborites, Liberals, professional politicians and academicians, you are hitting the pay dirt of election-year prognostication.

KENNEDY IS obnoxious to a certain lower-echelon Labor union officer, who claims to speak for many union members with whom he's talked. "We may be working people," he said, "but we like to think we're decent and respectable, and we want our children to go higher than we've gone. When Bobby comes around with that hippie-haircut, it gives our kids the idea that it's the in-thing to be sloppy and unkempt."

Actually, Robert Kennedy is neat and fastidious about his person, and he is sincerely a children-lover. He's recently had a haircut, and may have heard the same story I did about the disapproval of his appearance. But I was recently in the household of a utilities magnate where the father was annoyed because his sub-deb daughter was squealing in adoration of Bobby's Beetle looks. I would judge that a lot of parents in all economic classes are alienated by the New York senator's projection of juvenile slovenliness—and the parents will long remember.

THE FRAGMENTATION of Americans for Democratic Action over the candidacies of Kennedy, Eugene McCarthy, and Hubert Humphrey has brought out some ideological dislike, amounting to personal dislike, of Kennedy. Some of the ADA potentates have felt for several years that Kennedy's ruling passion to oust Lyndon Johnson caused the senator to bomb targets of opportunity in the Great Society with no other purpose than to cause havoc.

IN SHORT, some ADA zealots are not convinced that Bob really "cares" for the Poor as much as a good Liberal should, and that he is more concerned with Power than Poverty. The ADA is generally opposed to anti-Communist wars, despite some individual exceptions within the membership, and the feeling will not go away that Kennedy changed the support he once gave to South Vietnam (which is among other things a sanctuary for Catholic refugees) in order to oppose the President on a hot national issue. So long as it was "Mr. Johnson's War," the senator was against it, which is not a very honorable reason.

Professional politicians, as well as their job-holding satellites, dislike the Kennedy propensity for playing the warlord and enlisting a personal army of followers.

IT'S WELL KNOWN that the Kennedys have a large corps of Democratic spear-bearers who are said to wear the livery of Hyannis Port. Specifically, this description fits Senators Joe Tydings (Md.) and Birch Bayh, and Congressmen John Culver and John Tunney (college chums of Ted Kennedy), Brock Adams (appointee of JFK), ex-Congressman Robert Duncan and Teno Roncallo (they had Kennedy encouragement to leave the House and run for Senate seats in 1966) and a good many others in minor posts around the country.

IN ADDITION, there are more than a few academic guardians of civil liberties who didn't like Bob's strong-arm methods as attorney general, particularly his alleged use of wiretap and Internal Revenue Service bloodhounds.

Nobody with a good memory is apt to under-rate a Kennedy in hot pursuit of public office. But it's very hard to win a presidential nomination and election in the teeth of so much dislike.

James Marlow Black Political Power

WASHINGTON (AP) — The concentration of Negroes in large Northern cities is beginning to produce its own kind of Black Power—black political power.

This year Negroes won control of city governments in Cleveland, Ohio, and Gary, Ind. In November they're expected to gain at least three more seats in the U.S. House of Representatives.

UNTIL 1945 only Chicago had elected a Negro congressman in the 20th century. Its South Side Negro community having had its own representatives since 1930.

In 1945 Adam Clayton Powell of New York made his flamboyant entrance on the national scene: in 1954 Detroit elected its first Negro member; in 1958, Philadelphia; in 1962, Los Angeles—and in 1964 Detroit became the first city with two Negro representatives.

In 1966 the first Negro senator since Reconstruction was elected, Edward W. Brooke of Massachusetts.

To Your Good Health How Does Heart Act In A Heart Attack?

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: One hears so much about heart attacks these days. What does a heart attack really mean? How does the heart act at the time? What are the after-effects? Can it be normal again? Can one have a heart attack and not know it?—Mrs. W. L. F.

We ought to be hearing about heart attacks, because heart disease remains the cause of more deaths than anything else, even cancer. Yet a very great many people, like you have not had the basic action of the heart explained to them.

The heart actually is a large, strong muscle which encases four chambers through which the blood flows. When the muscle contracts (that is, when the heart "beats") the chambers are squeezed. There are valves connecting the chambers—one way valves, so the blood is squeezed forward only. Not back. That's how the heart pumps blood.

Now the heart muscle, like all other parts of the body, needs a steady supply of blood itself.

ever, hearts can be very serviceable afterward if the attack was not too severe and if proper treatment was given. Something like 75 to 80 per cent of people who have heart attacks later return to their former jobs.

Can one have a heart attack and not know it? Well, not exactly. An attack is painful enough so the patient knows something is happening. He may not recognize it as a heart attack, though. Only too often people think they had "severe indigestion," and it is found out later that it was a heart attack. Most people, asked to place a hand over the heart, put it over the mid-chest than you think.

Are you bothered with ringing in the ears? If so, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald for the booklet, "Ear Noises—Their Causes and Cures," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Around The Rim

High Automotive Adventure

About 1917, my Dad decided that motor cars were here to stay and that the Blackburn menage might should buy one.

Prior to that time, he had often voiced heated opposition to the device and often had joined with other horse owners in hoping for strong legislation to ban autos from the roads.

BESIDES, everyone who didn't have a car agreed the danged things were dangerous. They might explode. They would break down at critical times. Look at the way the owners tore around the country.

There wasn't anyone who suggested that moving as fast as 50 to 60 miles an hour (which the cars rarely could do) would cause death. This theory had been pretty badly shook up by the man who invented the locomotive and set the first train in motion three quarters of a century or so earlier.

BUT AUTOMOBILES were dangerous and a pest.

However, on that memorable day, my Dad gave in. He told me to come along. We were going to board a train and go to Fort Worth and buy a car. Since we were only able to buy a used automobile, he felt that by going to a big town we would get a much wider selection.

IN FORT WORTH we inspected a number of cars. Finally Dad settled on a Model T Ford "touring car." This meant it was two seated and had a buggy type top which could be folded down if the owner wished.

Naturally, Dad had never driven a car. After he had bought the thing, he told the salesman "Well, show me how to drive this blankety-blank thing."

THE SALESMAN (he was a high bidder if I ever saw one) condescendingly took us to a rather lonely residential street and spent half an hour showing my father how to start the car and stop it. He also explained where low and reverse and high gear could be found on the clutch pedals. My father then took the wheel and navigated the street two or three times in a tolerably effective fashion. —Enough for the salesman's satisfaction since we were from out of town and he would not be seeing us again.

IT HAD BEEN raining almost steadily all of the time we had been in Fort Worth. Now we set out on the 100 mile drive back home.

Ten miles from Fort Worth, the car slewed in the black mud, plowed across what would be called a borrow ditch now, and went through a six strand barbed wire fence into a field. Somehow we got out of that jam and resumed our tedious way home.

I think that there is a small town called Rome about 20 miles from Fort Worth. We made Rome the first full day and at Rome discovered our car had burned out a rod. The town blacksmith spent the next day replacing the rod.

The third day out, we made Wichita Falls. There were no rooms available in Wichita Falls due to the oil boom. We could store our car out of the rain, but we had to sleep in the railway station on the hard benches.

LATE ON the fourth day we pulled proudly up to our house in Electra. Our car was steaming and missing on a cylinder or two but we were home.

Buying a car then was a real adventure—believe me. —SAM BLACKBURN

Marquis Childs Reagan Is Making His Move

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — Californians the other day felt for the first time the bite of a $1 billion increase in state taxes. Many in the middle-income brackets found their tax bill upped from three to four times.

GOV. RONALD REAGAN blames much of this on his predecessor, Edmund G. (Pat) Brown, who in the last years of his second term in the governorship used every possible device to postpone the evil day. Yet as the pressures of the office bear down harder and harder, with the prospect of even higher levies just ahead, Reagan, a former film and television actor, is increasingly restive and uneasy.

He is starting soon on what is close to an open campaign bid for the Presidency. Using that convenient euphemism, "reassess" to describe his attitude, Reagan is moving from non-candidate to a modest political strip tease.

HERE IN the capital the image makers are sharpening a new look for Reagan. The key phrase is human relations. The governor is not a penny-pinching executive who cut mental health programs simply for the sake of economy. He wants to do things for people but do them through the route of local and individual initiative as against big government and the ogre of Federal intervention. He spoke of this theme the other day at a statewide conference on the prevention of juvenile delinquency, which his office had helped to bring about.

THE COURSE that a humanized Reagan must steer to the national convention in Miami Beach if he is to have a chance for the prize is a narrow one. His appeal must be as in the past to right of center and possibly, if the image-making is effective, to middle-ground Republicans.

The road on the right of center is,

David Lawrence Demos Need A Wallace-Stopper

WASHINGTON — It was bound to happen. The students of Goodcheer University, after having attained all their goals, had nothing more to demonstrate about. They called a mass meeting on the quadrangle in front of the administration building.

"Students," yelled Hardin Heilrazor, "we have run out of demands. The administration has given in to our every wish, and if we don't come up with something soon, we may have to go back to classes."

"WHY CAN'T we demand that boys and girls live in the same rooms?" a student shouted.

"They can, stupid," another student shouted. "We got that privilege when we locked up the football coach for three days in the shower room."

"Why don't we demand that no teacher can be hired without first going through a year of hazing at one of the fraternities?" another student said.

"Idiot, that was put through after we burned down the science building," Heilrazor said.

"OH, I THOUGHT we burned down the science building because they wouldn't give us a coffee break during tests."

"We got the coffee break after we kidnaped the dean of men."

"What about parking space?" a coed cried. "We don't have enough parking space."

"We got them to tear down the medical school to give us more parking space," Heilrazor said. "It would be hard to go back to them again with that one."

"Free love in the library," someone shouted.

"We're allowed to have free love in the library now."

"LET'S ADONAP the dean of the

however, a bit crowded Richard Nixon is appealing in one primary state after another to those who want to believe that the status quo is good enough with only the modest improvements a sensible Republican administration can put through.

TO THE RIGHT of Nixon is Alabama's George Wallace. Without too much difficulty, helped by an invasion of employees from the Alabama state payroll, Wallace got 79,000 signatures to get on the ballot in California with his third-party ticket. Although he rejects the racist tag, much of what Wallace says about race relations appeals to the white backlash. Republicans considering themselves conservative have lately been discovering that Wallace is not one of them at all — he is a reactionary, a national socialist, a spoiler.

Even if he would, Reagan cannot compete with Wallace. His attacks on big government and the snafu of Federal poverty programs are understated, phrased with irony and sarcasm. They go over big with the upper-middle-class, fund-raising audiences he addresses around the country.

BUT IN AN age of increasing extremism and violence they have a rather old-fashioned sound. He won his first public office two years ago at the age of 55. For eight years he had been the hired lecturer across the nation for General Electric, expounding the virtues of free enterprise. That is his ideology today. It sounds today too little and too late. Moreover, Nixon articulates it against the background of his long experience in Presidential politics.

No one can deny Reagan's chief political claim — he is the party's star fund raiser, a vaudeville turn that packs them in on the whole circuit. This might well mean the reward of second place on the Republican ticket. (Copyright, 1968 United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

law school, and let them come up with some ideas," a bearded youth yelled.

"Yeh," his companion shouted. "Why should we have to think up our demands all the time? The school has a responsibility to make some up for us."

Heilrazor said, "That's playing the administration's game. They'd love to think up student demands they could give in to. But what kind of demonstration is that? I say this time we have to go for broke. They've got to believe we mean business. Otherwise, they'll have us back in those classes studying all that garbage! Is that what we came to college for?"

Chorus: "No!"

"FIVE GODDIT. I've got it. Let's hold a demonstration protesting the fact that the administration has given in to all our demands," a student said. "They're patronizing us."

"They've taken our pride away from us."

Muttering from the crowd. "We're sick and tired of living in a permissive society."

Heilrazor tried to restore order. "We may work. We'll lock the dean of women in the drama department and won't let her out unless the university takes disciplinary action against us. We want our manhood back."

"IF THEY GIVE us an amnesty, we'll tear the faculty club apart."

AFTER the dean of women was held for four days, the administration of Goodcheer University finally gave in and agreed to punish all the trouble-makers in the school.

It was the demonstrators' finest hour. Goodcheer, has been served notice that if, in the future, they refuse to discipline any student for an infraction, the student union will be burned to the ground.

Longhorn Power Thrust

Speedy Mile Relay Race Is Looming

FORT WORTH (AP) — Texas' mile relay team ran a 3:05.5 in setting a Drake relays record. Rice was almost as warm with a second place 3:07.5 at the Penn Relays.

This event should produce a rousing climax to the Southwest Conference championships Saturday afternoon at Farrington Field between these rivals. Rice could chase Texas below a 3:05, definitely under the conference standard of 3:08.6 erected by Rice two years ago. "We are still optimistic of beating Texas," says Rice Coach Emmett Brunson. "The time doesn't worry me," contends Texas' Jack Patterson, "just so we win it."

RATED EVEN — The outcome of the meet—defending champion Rice, Texas even—could add more drama to this event.

Rice will go without Conley Brown, counted on for big points in both the 400, 200 and for the relays. He won the 200 in 1967 and place third in the quarter. "He definitely has a pull in his thigh muscle," reported Brunson. "We thought the leg had just tightened on him at Arkansas two weekends ago. Now there's discoloration. Of course, he's hoping to run. I'm pessimistic."

That makes Rice's 3:07.5 more remarkable, achieved without its second fastest relay member.

Mike McKee, a sophomore surprised Brunson with a blistering 45.7 at the Penn Relays to touch off Dale Bernauer with a seven yard lead. Bernauer, lost by seven. Larry James of Villanova ran the fastest 440 leg ever — 43.9. Dale had a 45.9. "It was the greatest quarter I have ever seen," said Brunson.

MORTON SALT — Texas' fantastic freshman quarterback, Dave Morton, has made life miserable for Rice in the past month.

He ran down Brown at the Corpus Christi Invitation with a 46 flat. Texas won in 3:10, Rice in 3:10.1. He blew down Bernauer with a 45 flat at the Texas Relays. The Longhorns had 3:07, Rice 3:07.9. Dave had a 45.8 at Texas shaded Rice, 3:08.6 to 3:08.8 in a tri-meet at College Station.

Dave was timed in 45.4 at the Drake Relays. "I've never had a youngster like him before. He runs with a great deal of poise for a freshman," says Patterson. "The boy will meet any challenge that's put to him on the track."

The SWC meet opens with prelims Friday afternoon plus finals in the discus and javelin throw. The favorites in these Russell Durham of Texas Tech and Gerald Holtzman of Rice, won last week. Durham hit a career best of 232.5 at the Colorado Relays with the javelin. Holtzman sailed the discus 165.5 at Penn.

Avery Has 8th Best Distance

STANTON — David Avery of Stanton High School had the state's eighth best qualifying distance in the broad jump in regional competition, where entries contest for places in the state meet. Avery cleared 21-8 1/2 at Lubbock. Best qualifying distance on the regional level was Ed Bartholomew of Sante Fe High School, who cleared 22-4 1/2.

When Don Wert, who homered in the eighth, singled to center field, Cash raced for home, but Rick Mondak's throw had him beaten. However, Lachemann dropped the peg and Cash barreled into him and his knee struck Lachemann's head, flattening the catcher.

Lachemann was not seriously hurt, but Cash suffered a severe bruise and probably will sit out today's game. "The play made a winner of Mickey Lolich who yielded only four hits after an eight-day lay-off because of National Guard duty."

Reichardt founced his hit up the middle in the seventh inning with the bases loaded and none out, putting the Angels ahead 2-1. The winning run scored later in the inning on a force out.

Cleveland drove out winner Jim McGlothlin in his half of the seventh when Leon Wagger hammered a pinch hit, run-scoring double, but relievers Clyde Wright and then Jack Hamilton saved the victory.

Chiefs Vs. Oilers

NEW YORK (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs will play the Oilers in Houston Sept. 6 in the opener of a 15-week, 70-game American Football League schedule, the league announced Monday. It also will be the first regular season pro football game ever held in the Astro-dome.

Resigns

Alex Hannum, 44-year-old coach of the Philadelphia 76ers National Basketball Association team, announced in Philadelphia Monday that he was quitting as coach. His successor was not announced.

Hannum Could Again Join 49er Quint

By The Associated Press — Alex Hannum, who left his heart in Los Angeles and jobs in San Francisco and Philadelphia, may wind up back in San Francisco. And all because San Francisco's Bill Sharman beat him to Los Angeles.

That was the jumbled situation today as coaching confusion reigned in the National Basketball Association. Three teams were without coaches and their manhunters threatened to steal the spotlight from the Boston-Los Angeles championship play-off.

It was a lost weekend in the NBA after Hannum and Sharman, two of the league's most successful coaches, stepped down at Philadelphia and San Francisco, respectively. Hannum's plans are indefinite while Sharman signed a long-term contract to coach the Los Angeles Stars of the rival American Basketball Association.

The third opening is in Chicago, where the Bulls recently lost Coach Red Kerr to the NBA's new Phoenix expansion franchise. College Coaches Ray Meyer of DePaul and George Ireland of Chicago Loyola have turned down the job.

Adding to the confusion was an announcement in San Francisco by Franklin Muehl, owner of the warriors, that George Lee, who was Sharman's assistant, has the inside track for the job.

If Hannum should join us, it would be understood that George would take over in one, two or three years—whenever he's ready," Muehl said. Muehl said he hoped to announce by Wednesday whether he abandoned two years ago as a loser—two pennant-winning seasons in Philadelphia, including one NBA crown.

Sharman returned to the city where he, like Hannum, starred at the University of Southern California. His deal with the Stars, who played their initial ABA season as the Anaheim Amigos, gives him the opportunity to purchase up to a 10 per cent interest in the club. His lawyer said his coaching contract was for more than five years and for more than the $40,000 he was paid in San Francisco.

Player's Family To Lend Support

HOUSTON (AP) — Little Gary Player of South Africa guarantees he will have support in the gallery when the $100,000 Champions International Golf Tournament begins Thursday.

Player, his wife and their four children set up house Monday at a Champions' cottage near the par 36-35-71 Cypress Creek Course.

Only their eldest child, Jennifer, 9, remained in Johannesburg. "We intend having another three," he said as they sat in the dining room at the course. "Eight children would be nice, don't you think?"

Player, who won all four of the major championships before he was 30, is one of the favorites in the 72-hole tournament, which will not see Arnold Palmer, Ben Hogan, Gay Brewer and Billy Casper this year.

Palmer returned to his home at Latrobe, Pa., for treatment of an ailing hip after finishing in a tie for sixth place in the Byron Nelson Classic Sunday at Dallas.

Hogan has a knee injury. Brewer is remaining in Dallas because of surgery on a daughter and officials said they failed to learn why Casper did not enter.

Julius Boros withdrew from the Dallas tournament last week because of a back ailment. He said he hoped to arrive in Houston early this week.

Meanwhile, sales of sponsorships have passed $190,000 and are expected to exceed $200,000. When the 100 pros and 400 amateurs begin the first round, Houston fans will be looking at Kermit Zarley, a former University of Houston player who finished one stroke behind winner Miller Barber in the Dallas tournament.

Last year, only 13 players broke or equalled par 234 on the 7,118-yard course. Frank Beard won the tournament with a 10-under par 274.

Early arrivals Monday with Player included Ken Venturi, Gene Littler, Dick Mayer, R.H. Sikes, John Schlee and Phil Rodgers.

Lions Uncouple Wildcats, 7-1 — The Lions won their second straight National Little League game here Monday night, turning back the Wildcats, 7-1.

Paul Douglas, the winning pitcher, tossed a no-hitter. First baseman Watkins scored the lone run off him in the fifth inning.

Sorley had three hits and Douglas two for the Jungle Kings, who collected eight safeties in all.

Perry Edges Robb Smith — Leonard Perry, Sweetwater, chipped in from the fringe for a birdie on the 35th hole while Robb Smith, Big Spring, faltered with a double bogey. They both parred the 36th hole and left the Sweetwater left-hander with 145 and a one-stroke advantage over Smith in the 33rd annual Lake Sweetwater Golf Tournament.

Both Smith and Perry had 75's Sunday.

It appeared that Smith had it stashed away when he three-putted from 12 out for a double bogey on the 16th. Smith parred the hole. But on the next hole Smith hooked into the rough while Perry got off a long drive and chipped up while Smith was overshooting the green to let Perry back into the lead.

Sid Corliss, Odessa, birdied the last two holes to win third place with a 148 total.

Outsiders Meet Set At Stanton

STANTON (SC) — An Old Timers Volleyball tournament will be held May 2-3 at the Stanton Jr. High gym. The first games will start Thursday at 6 p.m.; Friday at 4:30 p.m. and Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

Women's and men's teams from Stanton, Grady, Midway, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa and Flower Grove have entered. The final games for the championships will be held Saturday evening with the consolation games at 8:30 p.m. and 9 p.m. and first place games at 9:30 p.m. and 10 p.m.

The proceeds will go to buy high school girls varsity "A" team blazers in the school colors.

ASTROS IN CELLAR

The Reds wasted little time in making it nine of 10 and relegating Houston to the NL cellar. They scored in every inning but the eighth, building a 4-1 lead before exploding for runs in the fourth.

Tony Perez led the onslaught with his fourth homer and five runs batted in. Pete Rose stroked four hits, scored four runs and knocked in three. Vada Pinson, Lee May, Leo Cardenas and Johnny Bench had three hits apiece, including Bench's first homer.

"It was fantastic," said Houston first baseman Rusty Staub. "They just couldn't do anything wrong."

Willie Stargell's two-run single and a two-run homer by Bill Mazeroski carried the Pirates past the Cubs, ending a three-game Pittsburgh losing string. Steve Blass, making his first start, picked up the victory with relief help after Ernie Banks' seventh inning homer.

Roseboro Ends Slump With Five-Hit Day

By The Associated Press — Johnny Roseboro found a perfect way to ruin a day off. With a little extra effort, he hit his way out of it.

The 34-year-old catcher broke out of an 0-for-29 slump by cracking five hits in five at bats Monday night, setting off Minnesota's 11-2 rout over the Boston Red Sox.

"It was just a matter of timing," said his manager, Cal Ermer. "However, we planned Oakland A's.

to give him a rest Tuesday. Now we'll wait and see how he feels."

After his first five-hit game in 12 seasons in the major leagues, Roseboro should be feeling just fine.

Norm Cash probably won't play today, but he must be feeling the winning run in a home plate collision that brought the Detroit Tigers a 2-1 victory over the Oakland A's.

Another happy hitter who became a doubtful starter today is Rick Reichardt, who limped off the field after belting a two-run single that keyed California's 3-2 triumph over Cleveland in the only other American League game.

Roseboro, playing his first season in the American League after his acquisition from the Los Angeles Dodgers last winter, entered the Boston game with only three hits in 49 at bats for a .061 average.

By the end of the night, he had raised his average to .148 with three singles, a double and his first AL homer off four of the six Red Sox pitchers. He drove in two runs and scored three.

"I've never got off to such a bad start," Roseboro said. "When you're young, you go out of your mind. But when you're older... I remember what Jim Gilliam told us on the Dodgers. When you're not hitting, stop complaining and go out there and give 100 per cent."

Roseboro's hitting and three runs batted in by Ted Uhlaender made Jim Perry's third victory in four decisions easy. Given a 9-1 lead in three innings, he breezed with a six-hitter.

HITS A CATCHER — Cash's big hit came against Oakland catcher Rene Lachemann with two out in the ninth inning. He had forced Bill Freehan, who had been hit by a pitch, and then scooped second when reliever Jack Aker walked Jim Northrup.

When Don Wert, who homered in the eighth, singled to center field, Cash raced for home, but Rick Mondak's throw had him beaten. However, Lachemann dropped the peg and Cash barreled into him and his knee struck Lachemann's head, flattening the catcher.

Lachemann was not seriously hurt, but Cash suffered a severe bruise and probably will sit out today's game. "The play made a winner of Mickey Lolich who yielded only four hits after an eight-day lay-off because of National Guard duty."

Reichardt founced his hit up the middle in the seventh inning with the bases loaded and none out, putting the Angels ahead 2-1. The winning run scored later in the inning on a force out.

Cleveland drove out winner Jim McGlothlin in his half of the seventh when Leon Wagger hammered a pinch hit, run-scoring double, but relievers Clyde Wright and then Jack Hamilton saved the victory.

Chiefs Vs. Oilers — The Kansas City Chiefs will play the Oilers in Houston Sept. 6 in the opener of a 15-week, 70-game American Football League schedule, the league announced Monday. It also will be the first regular season pro football game ever held in the Astro-dome.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

In all likelihood, the National Basketball Association play-offs will extend through May 4.

It appears now the Boston Celtics and the Los Angeles Lakers can go home for a change in laundry after the final game and report back the following week for the opening of fall practice.

One of the blessings to come out of the merger of the NFL and the AFL, as far as club executives are concerned, is the elimination of the no-cut contract.

Paul Brown, coach of the new Cincinnati entry in the AFL, put it aptly when he remarked recently: "No-cut contracts are like a guy who goes out with his secretary. Pretty soon he's working for her."

Now that Big Spring's Snake Tucker has eliminated a mental block by beating Athlete Cooper's Jack Mildren in the 330-yard intermediate hurdles (in the recent Regional meet at Odessa), the sky's the limit for the ebony flash.

Coach Gerald Loyd kept selling Tucker on the idea that he was faster than Mildren and needed only to improve his technique of clearing the timbers to beat Mildren.

Not only did Snake busy the jinx but he set a regional record in the bargain, negotiating the distance in 38.5 seconds. Only a junior, Tucker will probably compete in both hurdles events next spring. He's shown tremendous promise in the highs.

Track prospects are looking up at the local high school. Not only does Tucker return but up-and-coming quarter-miler Gary Kelley as well, along with all members of a much-improved mile relay team.

Fact is, the only front-runner who has used up his eligibility is hurdler Joey Baker.

Track prospects were never better at Roby High School, where ex-Howard County JC sprinter Freddie Stuart is coach. Of the nine boys Stuart brought here for the Regional V-B meet recently, five will be back in 1969. Stuart, who doubles as high school principal at Roby, has a good junior high school athletic program going, too.

Jack Montgomery, who teamed with Frank Powell to win the first annual Big Spring Golf Open several years ago, is nearing the $20,000 mark in tournament winnings for the year, with some of the most lucrative meets still ahead.

He gets a chance to add to his poke in this week's Houston Championship International, which has become one of the very best tournaments on the tour.

If Charley Coody is the most successful tournament player ever to appear in the local Open, Montgomery isn't far behind. He's only 24, so it would appear he hasn't yet hit his peak.

Look for Texas A&M's Edd Hargett to get the big All-America build-up this fall in football. Hargett has all the tools and got the necessary TV exposure in last season's Cotton Bowl game.

Notre Dame's Terry Hanratty may be the most publicized college quarterback this year but Hargett probably can do more things better.

Chris Barnard, the Lubbock Monterey baseball star who collected one hit in five official trips against Big Spring earlier this season, recently underwent eye surgery in a Dallas hospital to correct a torn retina.

Barnard was struck in the eye by a tennis ball during a gym workout.

Ballots Minus 'X' Marks Not Posted

When you go to the polls on Saturday for the primary election, make sure you place an "x" beside the name of every repeat — every candidate you prefer.

This applies even though the candidate is unopposed in his race for re-election. For your vote to count for this unopposed candidate, it must be duly marked with an "x" or other acceptable check mark in the small square at the left of his name.

Wayne Burns, district attorney, who happens to be a candidate for re-election who is running unopposed, pointed out the necessity for voters to vote even in races such as his. Ballots lacking "x" marks in unopposed races are not counted for that candidate.

The new laws abolish the time honored system used in Texas elections by which the voter scratched out all of the candidates' names with the exception

Mass Murder Counts Filed

CHARLESTON, Ill. (AP) — A 18-year-old youth who formerly lived in Texas is being held without bond in jail on charges of killing five brothers and sisters of a girl he had been dating.

Authorities remained silent about a possible motive but relatives of the victims said that Thomas Charles Fuller was recently refused permission to marry the 16-year-old sister of the victims.

The victims, five of the 11 children of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cox, were found on their rented farm Saturday. Each had been shot once in the head with a .22 caliber pistol. The five ranged in age from 5 to 16.

Sources here said that Fuller moved to Mattoon last September with members of his family from Texas. They said he was in Bryan, Tex., from 1959 until February, 1966, "when his family may have gone to Fort Worth."

Fuller, a senior at Mattoon High School, was seized Sunday in Charleston about 13 hours after the massacre. Police said he was armed with a .22 caliber pistol but offered no resistance.

Sheriff Top Spender In Primary 'Campaign'

Sheriff A. N. Standard, who is running for re-election and has no opposition, has spent the largest amount on his primary "campaign" of any of the candidates, opposed or otherwise, in this year's county election primary.

Actually Standard didn't have to file an expense report with the county clerk but he did. Because he was unopposed and therefore the burden of the primary expense in that race fell on his shoulders, $575 of the $641.90 total expense he reported was for his filing fee.

COND HIGHEST

Second highest spender politically in the reports submitted by candidates to Mrs. Pauline Petty, Howard County clerk, was H. W. Smith, who is running for county commissioner, Precinct 3. Smith listed $623.16.

Other County Commissioner Precinct 3 candidates reported expenditures as follows: Miller Harris, $439.40; Joe B. Matthews, $470.79; Mrs. Joe (Mae) Hayden (incumbent) $378.68.

In the race for County Commissioner Precinct 1, Frank S. Goodman reported the most ex-

U.S. Pays Premium Prices To Hike M16 Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army, suddenly under high-level pressure to increase sharply the flow of M16 rifles to South Vietnamese troops, is paying premium prices for the lightweight, rapid-firing weapon.

Until April 12, Colt Industries Inc. was the only manufacturer of M16s. Colt's price has averaged $104 a rifle on recent contracts.

$316 PER GUN

It is costing the Army far more than that — up to $316 per rifle — to bring two more firms into production of M16s.

"We are paying a premium to get the quantity and quality we want," an Army source said.

The pressure to speed procurement of M16s resulted from the decision, announced March 31 by President Johnson, to turn over more of the fighting to the South Vietnamese.

Before that decision, few South Vietnamese units had M16s despite Defense Department studies that called the rifle the best "all around shoulder weapon in Vietnam," and despite repeated requests from American field commanders that the guns be supplied to the Vietnamese.

The two new M16 sources are Harrington & Richardson of Worcester, Mass., and General Motors' Hydramatic Division at Ypsilanti, Mich.

Each firm received a two-year contract calling for production of 60,000 rifles the first year and 180,000 the second.

Harrington & Richardson will receive $15 million the first year for a unit cost to the government of $250 a rifle. The second year the firm will receive $27 million or $150 a rifle.

Government costs under the contract awarded to General Motors are higher: $316 a rifle the first year, $200 the second.

The difference between the two contracts brought swift challenge from Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., who told the Senate the awards serve "as a painful question of the Pentagon's ability to handle the taxpayers' money wisely."

The Army responded by pointing to differences in wage scales between Detroit and Worcester. Labor Department figures show the average manufacturing employee in Detroit in February, 1968, received $167.74 a week. The figure for Worcester was $118.89.

GM and Harrington & Richardson were among four firms with which the Army negotiated after it bought the manufacturing rights for $4.5 million from Colt. The prices include the expenses of tooling up to produce a new product.

Six Delegates To Attend Meet

Attending the 81st annual assembly of the Texas Association of Christian Churches which opens Wednesday in Austin will be six delegates from the First Christian Church here.

They are Mrs. Lloyd Brooks, Mrs. Albert Elam, Mrs. Florence Hallam, Mrs. Joe Johnson and the Rev. and Mrs. John Beard.

The Wednesday session will be opened by Dr. Lewis H. McAdow, whose presidential address is titled, "A Time for Coming of Age!" It is the assembly theme and will set the tone for all sessions in the convention, which closes Saturday.

He's Paid To Dent Patients' Faces

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — Dr. Benito Rish puts dents in patients' faces and gets paid for it. He is a plastic surgeon who installs dimples.

Rish, who rebuilds faces to order for those who don't like the original design, told Monday of his new technique for making sexy dimples or craggy Kirk Douglas clefts.

The New York City surgeon told his colleagues in head and neck plastic surgery there is a great demand for the little touches in cosmetic surgery like chin dimples.

"Most of the women wanted a chin like Ava Gardner's," Rish told the 200 doctors attending a meeting of the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery.

Rish said his operation, done in an office under local anesthesia, takes only about five minutes.

For manish cleft or dainty dimple, Rish said, he nicks the skin under the chin, then makes a small pocket under the flesh and stitches the skin to the chin bone with two steel sutures.

A tiny hole cut through the chin from outside makes a scar too tiny to notice that heals to the chinbone in a pretty pucker.

A week later, the sutures come out and—voilà!—instant dimple.

In competitive sequences where each side has a long suit and a good distributional fit, it is very difficult to calculate the ultimate offensive capabilities of the opposition. As a pure matter of practical insurance, it frequently pays to "bid just once more" in order to avoid an extreme loss. This hand presents a sound illustration of the principle.

East opened the bidding with one spade, choosing to treat his major suit holdings as equals in order to show both of them in the most economical manner. South overcalled with two diamonds. West's jump to four hearts is a preemptive measure announcing considerable playing strength in the suit bid, but very little on the side.

North raised his partner to five diamonds and East supported West's hearts. South had significant defensive values and, convinced that his side had reached its offensive limit, he doubled five hearts. North overruled this decision and proceeded to six diamonds, since he had great length in his partner's bid as well as a void in hearts. East doubled and the bidding subsided.

West was skeptical of the prospects for cashing a heart trick, so he opened the seven of spades and East's ten forced out the ace. South led the queen of diamonds and when the deuce appeared from West, he promptly went up with the ace felling the king.

A club was led and the jack was successfully finessed. The dummy was reentered via a heart ruff in order to repeat the club finesse. When the king fell under the ace, North's ten of clubs became established for the discard of a losing spade. South cheerfully conceded a spade trick to his opponents and claimed the doubled slam contract.

East's double of North's six diamond bid was unsound. Holding no aces, a worthless king of diamonds and great length in the suit where partner has made a preemptive call, he should have been sufficiently skeptical of defensive prospects to at least pass the decision back to his partner.

Had West been given some latitude in the matter, he might have elected to take the save, and unless North gets off to the somewhat unlikely lead of a club, the damages can be restricted to 500 points.
