Shows How

Leonard Hall of Concord, Calif., leaps in the air during the Calaveras Jumping Frog Jubilee to show his frog, Corrosion, how to win. Evidently Hall's prodding worked because moments later the frog made a winning jump of 18 feet and one-half inch.

OVER 18 FEET

Swamp-Bred Frog Jumps To Victory

ANGELS CAMP, Calif. (AP) — Ticked onward by his owner, a swamp-bred frog named Corrosion hopped 36 times his length and won the Mark Twain-inspired international frog-jumping contest.

Corrosion, a diminutive six-incher, once called a Bakersfield, Calif., swamp home. Sunday he outdistanced more than 500 of his peers to win the 40th annual event.

The four-year-old winner leaped 18 feet and one-half inch, outdistancing his nearest rival by one foot, 4 1/2 inches. It marked the fifth victory for owner-trainer Leonard Hall of Concord, Calif.

Hall, a real estate man, said he learned while training Corrosion that "if you tickle him, he'll pick up a bit." Confidently plunking him on the starting spot before thousands of onlookers, Hall cooed, "Gitchee, gitchee, gitchee" and tickled him with his index finger.

The event is based on Twain's century-old yarn, "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County," mythically staged at the gold rush community of Angels Camp.

Gold Price Inches Up

LONDON (AP) — The price of gold hit a new high on the London free market today, but the British pound recovered slightly from Friday's record low.

"People are concentrating on the French franc," one dealer said. "The troubles there have taken the heat off us."

The price of gold was fixed at $42 an ounce, up 50 cents from Friday afternoon's fixing. Gold passed $40 an ounce for the first time last Wednesday.

The pound rebounded from Friday's all-time low of $2.3854. At one point after the foreign exchange market reopened today, it had climbed 22 points to $2.3876, then settled around $2.3872.

The franc dropped 1.25 to a rate of 11.7975 francs to the British pound.

The $42 price for gold was the highest since the London free market opened April 1 under the new two-tier system for selling gold.

It was believed here that speculators bought substantial amounts of gold in Zurich at the peak of the March gold rush at about $43 an ounce, and the Financial Times said selling pressure may enter and check the rise when the free market price reaches $43.

Troops Sent In To Quell New Violence

SALISBURY, Md. (AP) — About 800 National Guardsmen and 300 state troopers have been sent to Salisbury, a town on Maryland's Eastern Shore, following violence touched off by the killing of a Negro deaf mute by a white policeman in a burglary investigation.

Damage caused by some 1,000 Negroes Saturday was relatively light, but Gov. Spiro T. Agnew moved to guard against a recurrence.

EMERGENCY

On Sunday, the governor proclaimed a state of emergency for the town of 18,000, installed a 7 p.m. to 7 a.m. curfew and then activated the 6,000-member National Guard "in such numbers as shall be required."

There was no trouble in Salisbury when the activation order was issued at 5 p.m. Sunday, but Agnew said he felt the security of the area required the availability and presence of troops.

It was left to Maj. Gen. George M. Gelston, the state adjutant general, to decide how many troops were needed.

As the first guardsmen were being deployed at major intersections and in Negro areas Sunday night, a sniper reportedly fired two shots at a state police car.

DESERTED

Aided by the curfew and a heavy thunderstorm, streets were virtually deserted. About 20 persons were picked up as curfew violators and sent to the Poplar Hill correctional camp about 12 miles west of Salisbury.

After order was restored, guardsmen and troopers patrolled through the night without incident.

Two lumber yard fires burned Sunday night at Fruitland, a town of about 2,000 located five miles west of Salisbury.

Donald Williams, the Wicomico County fire marshal, said three firebombs were found at one yard and two at the other. Total damage was estimated at $40,000 by the owners.

CHARGED

State's Atty. Alfred T. Truitt Jr. announced that Jerry C. Mason, a detective on the police force six years, was charged with manslaughter in the shooting death and released on $1,500 bond. The victim was Daniel Kenneth Henry, 22, a deaf mute.

Snowballing Strikes Near Paralysis Stage

De Gaulle Confers, Takes No Action

PARIS (AP) — Strikes snowballed rapidly across France in a wave of social ferment today and the nation approached total paralysis. Paris was at a virtual standstill with not a bus, subway or train moving. Housewives rushed to stock up on food.

Joining the walkouts amid calls for the resignation of President Charles de Gaulle were workers in coal mines, automobile factories, ports and airports. Even war widows and war veterans joined the movement with demands for higher pensions.

NO ACTION

De Gaulle conferred with top ministers Sunday but took no immediate action.

The number of workers off their jobs ballooned into the millions. Hundreds of business concerns were closed down either by worker walkouts or because of the paralysis of transport and other services.

Garbage piled in the streets of Paris. There have been no collections since Saturday because of a strike of garbage men and street cleaners.

Thousands of workers occupied the big Peugeot auto factory at Sochaux in eastern France near the Swiss border. All of the government-owned Renault auto plants have been occupied since Friday.

The 22,000 workers of the Michelin tire factory at Clermont Ferrand in central France went on strike and occupied the premises.

RED FLAGS

Striking Marseille dockworkers ran red flags to the tops of masts of all French ships. The 3,000 dockers of neighboring Ciotat were also on strike.

About two-thirds of the 65,000 workers at various Citroen auto plants around the country were unable to work.

In Paris, lines formed in front of some banks even before opening time. Bank employees got strike orders Saturday. The Bank of France delayed the opening of the foreign exchange market.

Electricity workers in Paris continued to provide power although they have occupied the factories since Saturday night.

Food supplies reached Les Halles, Paris' big central market, while truck drivers remained at their jobs.

MINERS OUT

Most miners were out. The 45,000 coal miners of the North Basin joined the strike of their comrades in Lorraine.

The 10,000 men of the Alsace potash mines and the 7,000 men of the mines in the Blanz Basin, central France, were also out.

The 1,700 men of a French oil refinery at Le Havre and the 2,000 of a Shell refinery near Marseille put down their tools.

Reports of other stoppages poured in from outside Paris—2,500 at the French plant of International Harvester at St. Dizier, nearly 10,000 in the Sud Aviation plant at the port of Rochefort, and an unlimited strike voted by the same firm's factory at Marignane, near Marseille.

France's three big union federations appeared unwilling to break openly with De Gaulle, and none has called for a general strike. So far their demands have been modest: higher pay with no specific target and a slight lowering of the retirement age.

De Gaulle conferred with officials in charge of national security and held a long meeting with Premier Georges Pompidou. In a formation Minister Georges Gorse told newsmen "various measures concerning public order were examined."

There was no indication what those measures might be, or when they might be employed. But De Gaulle gave no indication that he planned to advance his radio-television address to the nation, which was still scheduled for Friday.

A Few Added Thoughts

This is one of the sign-decorated plywood shanties making up "Resurrection City U.S.A." near the Lincoln Memorial in Washington.

Officials of the Poor People's Campaign said yesterday that weekend construction helped fill two-thirds of the encampment with the tent-like shelters being erected for housing the demonstrators.

Campground Doubles In Size, Major Demonstrations Set

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eager volunteers working late into the night helped the Poor People's Campaign more than double the size of its "Resurrection City, U.S.A." over the weekend, setting the stage for possible major demonstrations early this week.

With more than half the projected 3,000 residents now housed in their West Potomac Park quarters, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference has for the first time a sizable nucleus of demonstrators on which to draw.

STRATEGY

The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, SCLC president, is to huddle with his staff today for a strategy meeting that could well last until nightfall. Exactly when and where to demonstrate is one of the topics on their agenda. Only sudden rain squalls prevented organization of a previously announced march around the Capitol Sunday afternoon, said the Rev. Andrew Young, executive vice president of SCLC.

The 36-year-old minister told newsmen he felt the week-old campaign is doing "extremely well" so far, stirring the conscience of America. "America is talking about poverty as never before."

Negro and white volunteers had pushed construction of the tent-shaped plywood huts that make up most of the city about half-way down the mile-long stretch from the Lincoln Memorial to the Washington Monument by Sunday night.

POURING IN

Neither a scorching hot morning sun nor the afternoon's blustery rains kept busloads of new arrivals from pouring into the shanty city with their battered suitcases, bedrolls and blankets.

Most had been part of two large groups, the 1,000-man Midwestern caravan which arrived Saturday night and was housed in the District of Columbia Coliseum, and the 825-man Northeastern caravan housed for two days in suburban Maryland churches.

Many campaigners had to slog their way through thick mud left by a series of afternoon downpours. But the high spirits of most appeared undamaged.

The first major contingent due this week—400 persons who left Mississippi two weeks ago, was to come in Thursday but arrived Sunday night and settled down in the capital's northern Virginia suburbs to await space in "Resurrection City."

CHURCHES

A spokesman said the campaigners were put up in 15 churches after covering the last 90 miles from Richmond, Va., in nine buses.

Campaign leaders said little over the weekend about the shortage of funds they reported late in the first week. Other officials said the Rev. Bernard Lafayette, campaign coordinator, was mistaken when he told a news conference $3 million was needed just to complete construction of the city.

Although the camp was close to filling its 15-acre allotted site by Sunday night, piles of unused lumber still dotted vacant areas of camp.

Several campaign contingents are still on the road from the Midwest, and officials expect a total of 5,000 once everyone has arrived by the May 24 target date.

POLL SHOWS ENTHUSIASM FOR NIXON

Says Rocky-Reagan Ticket Strong

By The Associated Press

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller says a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket would have "great strength"—but that he feels right now California Gov. Ronald Reagan is after the top spot.

Rockefeller, announced Republican presidential candidate, said Sunday he thinks Reagan's course will be influenced by the vote the Californian draws in the May 28 Oregon and June 4 California primaries.

Rockefeller planned to meet today with Southern GOP leaders in New Orleans where Reagan spoke Sunday. The two governors scheduled visits to Florida later in the day with Reagan making stops at Washington, D.C., and Charlotte, N.C.

The New Yorker's comments on Reagan were made on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

ACTIVE

"He's getting increasingly active—a lot of TV work around the country," Rockefeller said, "and I think that he is pretty well set for the top spot."

Asked if he'd be happy with a Rockefeller-Reagan ticket, the New York governor replied he'd be happy to get the GOP nomination "and after that I'm open minded."

Reagan, a California favorite-son candidate who has said he would accept the GOP nomination but is not soliciting it, is entered in both the Oregon and California primaries.

He called at a Republican rally in New Orleans Sunday for the "great silent majority" of college teachers and students to stem the tide of campus demonstrations and stand up "for the true meaning of academic freedom."

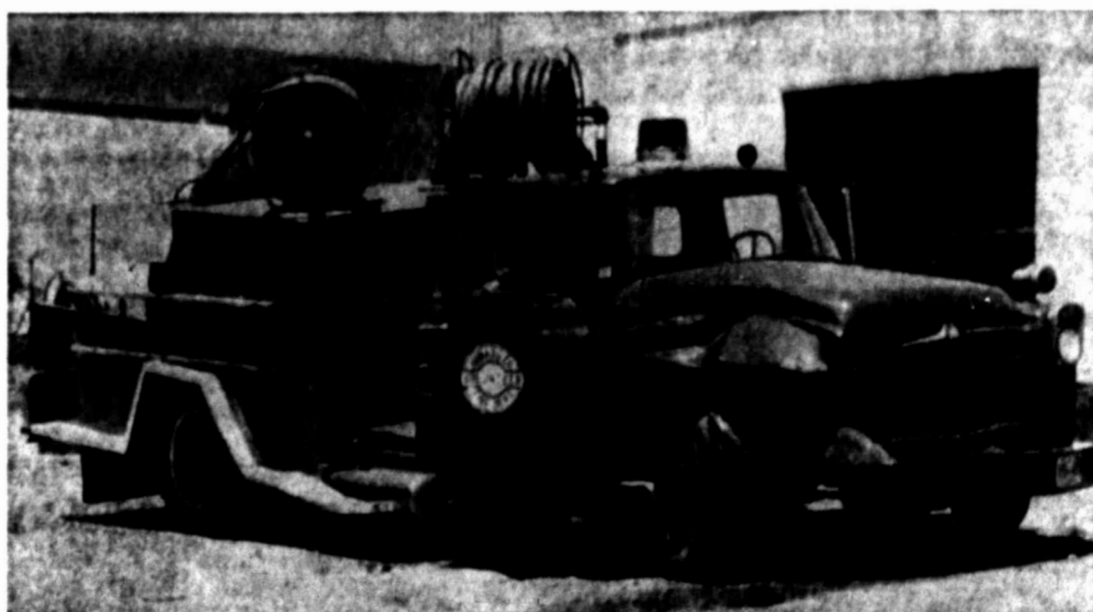

"If students, urged on and supported by a radical minority of faculty members can take over and threaten our higher education system," Reagan said, "what makes us think that tomorrow it won't be taking over society itself?"

Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon was listed by the Gallup Poll meanwhile as the candidate with the highest public enthusiasm now—although the poll showed less enthusiasm for any leading presidential candidate now than in the past 16 years.

The poll found Nixon listed "highly favorable" by 28 per cent of the people surveyed. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey followed with 26 per cent, Sen. Robert F. Kennedy with 24 per cent, Rockefeller with 23,

FIRE TRUCK BATTERED IN SUNDAY COLLISION
Truck figures in collision at Coahoma overpass

Driver Hospitalized After Crash With County Fire Truck

Melvin Daves, 1701 Young, was injured but not seriously when his car collided with a Howard County fire truck at the IS 20 overpass intersection in Coahoma.

The mishap occurred at 12:35 p.m. Sunday while Bob Lee Tarbet was piloting the county's 1957 International fire truck to answer a grass fire call in the eastern part of the county. Daves was taken to the Hall-Bennett Memorial Hospital where his condition was described Monday morning as good. He was due to be released during the afternoon. Neither Tarbet nor two others on the truck were injured.

Jimmie Parks, Texas highway patrolman, said that Tarbet was bound east on the north access road, his lights blinking and the siren sounding. Daves moved on State 820 from under the IS 20 overpass in time to catch the truck on the side opposite the driver.

Both vehicles were damaged seriously and the truck was immobilized.

EX - STRINGBEAN CROWNED MISS U.S.A.

'Didi' Needed 'Scratch'

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The new Miss U.S.A. says she would not be Miss U.S.A. today if she were an only child. But as one of nine she entered her first beauty contest to scratch up a little extra money for her college education.

NO CRY BABY

"All the kids have some kind of a job," said Dorothy "Didi" Anstett of Kirkland, Wash. "So I thought I would enter a beauty contest and one led to another."

"But I still can't believe it. I wish I could cry or something, but I don't often cry," said the brown-eyed brunette who remained dry-eyed when she was crowned Saturday night as Miss U.S.A. 1968.

"Freddie delivers papers, Marie works at a swimming pool and everybody but Beth baby sits," said Miss Anstett, a 20-year-old English major at the University of Washington who hopes to become a full-time teacher. She already tutors underprivileged children.

CHESTIEST

Her four brothers and four sisters range from 3-year-old Beth to 23-year-old Terry. Terry is married and the only one who lives away from the family's six-bedroom home on a lake in Kirkland, just outside of Seattle.

Miss Anstett, who edged out Miss Maryland, Paulette Reck of Baltimore, for the crown competes in the Miss Universe pageant here in July.

The chestiest girl in the pageant, with 40-25-36 measurements on a 5-foot-9 frame, Miss Anstett described herself as a stringbean in the eighth grade.

Tunisian Chief Is Enchanted With America

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Habib Ben Ali Bourguiba, obviously enchanted with America, called the United States a "friendly country where the human feeling of cordiality is everywhere."

During his visit to HemisFair Sunday, the Tunisian president said he has a special feeling for Texas, "where much has a familiar ring, where the atmosphere of the Mediterranean reminds him of his land. He said he is glad to see the mixture of cultures in this city and "happy to see the results of the great American experiment in bringing people together."

"Most important," he said, "I am glad to see that the greatest and most powerful nation is using her power for the service of humanity."

Gov. John Connally, who welcomed the Tunisian president, called him "one of the distinguished leaders of the free world... who dedicated much of his life for the freedom of his country."

Connally also said he is glad that Bourguiba is "sympathetic with our country, especially during the recent difficulties in the Middle East," and praised the president for his work to bring stability to the trouble area of the Middle East.

Bourguiba, speaking in Arabic to a reporter, emphasized that the only solution to the problems of the Middle East is through the work of the Al-Fatah, the Palestinian Arabs who are conducting a guerrilla warfare against Israel to regain their lost homes from Israel.

Does Tunisia support the guerrilla operations? The president's son, Habib Bourguiba Jr., who is the minister of foreign affairs, seemed quite annoyed at the question, saying, "This is not the time or the place for such questions."

Columbia Students Facing Suspensions

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia University says it has started disciplinary action against students accused of taking part in campus disturbances over the past several weeks.

Henry S. Coleman, acting dean of Columbia College, a unit of the university, said Sunday about 25 letters had been sent to students of that college telling them:

"You are charged with participating in the recent demonstrations which started on April 23, 1968."

DEADLINES

The students were given deadlines running from Tuesday afternoon through Friday to appear at the dean's office or face suspension.

The letters were the first of more than 500 expected to be sent to student protesters in the next few weeks. The Ivy League school has a total student enrollment of about 25,000.

Mark Rudd, 20-year-old Columbia College junior from Maplewood, N.J., leader of the Students for a Democratic Society, a major dissenter group, was one of those getting a letter this week.

Coleman said students who admit participating in the demonstrations, during which five campus buildings were occupied until cleared by police, could be put on disciplinary probation for a year.

PENDING RAPS

Coleman said that no final disciplinary action would be taken until pending criminal charges against students have been resolved.

Coleman said the letters were sent in accordance with the guidelines established by the Joint Committee on Disciplinary Affairs. The committee was appointed by the senior faculty to decide on discipline for demonstrations that ended normal university procedures for the semester.

Columbia records show 524 students were arrested on charges of criminal trespass or resisting arrest April 30, when 1,000 city police cleared the five buildings held by protesters. Of those, the university said, 239 were from Columbia College, the undergraduate liberal arts school. Of 121 persons arrested Saturday during a demonstration in a tenement just off the campus, police said, 56 of those were Columbia students.

The demonstrations began as a protest against building a gymnasium in Morningside Park and the university's alliance with the Institute for Defense Analyses that does research work for the government.

The protests soon focused on demands for revision of the university's basic structure to provide students and faculty members with a greater voice in conduct of Columbia affairs.

BREAKDOWN CAN'T BE RULED OUT

Viet Talks Review Asked

PARIS (AP) — Vietnam peace negotiators W. Averell Harriman and Cyrus R. Vance called on South Vietnam's observer here today for a 45-minute review of the talks thus far.

Harriman told newsmen as he left the South Vietnamese consulate that he and Bui Diem, who is South Vietnam's ambassador to Washington, had agreed "the affirmative position taken by the United States delegation in the talks was the correct one, rather than getting involved in the propaganda exercise which has characterized the Hanoi approach."

COMPROMISE

When he arrived at the South Vietnamese consulate, Harriman told newsmen he wanted to get some information from the South Vietnamese delegation and to keep them fully informed. We want to get their point of view and judgment."

Knowledgeable American and French diplomats believe a compromise way will be found to end the U.S. bombing of North Vietnam, reduce North Vietnamese infiltration into the South and move to full-scale peace negotiations. But the possibility that the differences between the Americans and the North Vietnamese will persist and that the talks will eventually collapse cannot be ruled out.

The expectation of a compromise agreement rests on the belief that the final purpose of both sides is to make peace.

That remains to be proved. One main purpose of the United States and North Vietnam in the talks to date has been to find out what the other's real expectation is. A second obviously is to make propaganda, and presumably a third is to put bargaining positions on the table.

DEADLY BLOWS

Ambassadors W. Averell Harriman and Xuan Thuy began their second week of "official conversations" today with no meeting scheduled until Wednesday. Meanwhile the exchanges continue at long range.

North Vietnam's Deputy Foreign Minister Hoang Van Loi said in Damascus: "Strong and deadly blows must be dealt to American troops in Vietnam to force United States negotiators to listen to reason in Paris. Without more military victories against the Americans on the battlefield, the Paris peace talks are doomed to failure."

U.S. officials said their evidence is that those words realistically reflect North Vietnamese policy. They said North Vietnamese officers captured in South Vietnam recently reported they were getting orders for attacks which served no tactical military purpose and must have been politically motivated.

North Vietnam's only declared aim for the talks at this phase is to get the bombing stopped without any military cutback of its own. One of its tactics has been to try to build up public opinion to support its demand.

PROPAGANDA

To counter this, the United States, with a similar combination of diplomacy and propaganda, has demanded some leveling off or cutting back of North Vietnamese infiltration into the South to justify an end to the rest of the bombing, now confined to the area south of the 19th parallel.

Perhaps if the talks go beyond the stage of stating positions and making propaganda, some effort to develop a common view of the war will be undertaken. It probably will be done first in secret talks.

The hope of those who are cautiously optimistic is that neither can win and that the cost of the war is too high for them to go on fighting.

A LOVELIER YOU

Look Spring Fresh After Skin Tune-Up

By MARY SUE MILLER
Everything in nature looks so fresh and perky in the spring of the year. It seems unreasonable for a complexion ever to look pale and lifeless—tired. But tired skin really knows no season. The skin loses color, sparkle and tone at any time for want of fresh air, exercise and a change of routine. If those stimulants are presently denied you, there are two good "tonics" that help to restore the skin's vitality. Try one, as need be:

a) This is the one for you, if your skin tends to dryness: Cleanse the face with a creamy, deep-pore makeup remover; wipe off with a water-dampened washcloth. Then compress comfortably hot water to your face with a small terry towel. Continue for several minutes, and pat dry. Immediately slather on a rich night cream or oil and let it remain for 10 minutes—longer if you have time to spare. After rinsing off the oil, apply cold water compresses. Finish with pats of witch hazel or mild skin freshener.

b) To treat an oily skin, remove any cosmetics with oily-skin cleanser. Thereafter, mask your face with medicated or mentholated shaving cream. Let cream dry. Then, using a large towel to catch the vapor, steam your face over hot water for two minutes. Thoroughly rinse off soap, dry and pat on astringent. CREPEY THROAT AND CHIN
To firm and uplift sagging facial muscles and flesh, use my four-way method. It works wonders through corrective exercise, posture, skin care and make-up. Procedures are detailed in the leaflet, "Banish Crepey Throat and Chin." For your copy, write Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald, enclosing 10 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Shipping Into Red Vietnam Dips Despite Bombing Ban

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ship Cam Pha and Hon Gai, some ping into North Vietnamese authorities expected shipping poras dropped slightly during traffic to North Vietnam to in the first month after President crease as a result.

WITHOUT FEAR

Intelligence figures list 39 ship freedom to move supplies away arrivals in North Vietnamese over repaired roads, bridges than in March.

Johnson on March 31 exempt- ed from U.S. bombing most of North Vietnam's territory, in- cluding the main port area of Haiphong and lesser ports of North Vietnam speculate one reason the traffic hasn't in- creased is that the Haiphong port, in particular, is operating at maximum capacity. They say dredging apparently has not yet cleared away enough silt to per- mit a larger number of seagoing ships into the harbor.

The Communists turned to smaller vessels earlier this year because silt was choking chan- nels and waterways leading into the country's biggest port.

During the time when Ameri- can bombers ranged virtually all over North Vietnam, Hanoi maritime authorities undertook only limited dredging of Hai- phong harbor approaches.

Since the bombing restrictions went into effect, some renewed dredging activity has been re- ported but its effects may not be significant for some time.

Allied Units Kill, Grab More Than 10,000 Cong

SAIGON (AP) — North Vietnamese troops made three ground attacks on U.S. Marines along South Vietnam's northern frontier Sunday and sent big rockets smashing into fuel and ammunition stores at the headquarters of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division.

The U.S. Command said the Marines repulsed the attacks near Khe Sanh and Con Thien, killing 127 North Vietnamese soldiers and capturing 58 weapons. Twelve Marines were reported killed and 49 wounded.

"HEAVY" DAMAGE

But the enemy's 100-pound rockets did "heavy" damage to the ammunition stores at Camp Evans, the 1st Air Cavalry headquarters 16 miles northwest of Hue, as well as "light" damage to fuel stores, material and facilities. "Light" personnel casualties also were reported.

Heavy damage to the ammunition stores at Camp Evans was blown up that the men at the camp could not continue their mission until their supply was replenished.

U.S. officers say five divisions of allied and North Vietnamese forces face each other in the northern sector on almost a man-for-man basis. The U.S. Command believes that enough allied troops are on hand to handle anything the enemy may try in the five provinces below the demilitarized zone.

"BEAT BACK REDS"

In the heaviest attack Sunday, North Vietnamese troops opened up on a small Marine unit sweeping a road two miles southeast of the Khe Sanh combat base in the northwest corner of South Vietnam.

Marine tanks quickly reinforced the ground troops to help beat back the enemy troops, who the Marines said left 66 dead on the battlefield. Eight Marines were reported killed and 34 wounded.

A mile away, other North Vietnamese troops attacked a Marine company, but 43 of the enemy were killed and 33 enemy weapons were left on the battlefield, Marine spokesmen said. Eight Marines were reported wounded.

At the eastern end of the DMZ, another Marine patrol ran into 50 or 60 North Vietnamese troops near Con Thien, and in a heavy exchange of machine-gun and small arms fire, 18 of the enemy were reported killed. Marine casualties were four dead and seven wounded, spokesmen said.

FRESH PRESSURE

The U.S. Command also announced that allied forces have killed or captured more than 10,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese in six weeks of Operation Complete Victory, the 100,000-man campaign to keep enemy pressure off Saigon. The casualty figures include the repulse of the Viet Cong's second attack on Saigon two weeks ago, a small-scale followup to their lunar new year offensive in February.

The U.S. Command reported 1,073 allied soldiers killed and 4,980 wounded. Of these, 574 of the dead and 1,888 of the wounded were South Vietnamese.

More than 90 per cent of the rest were U.S. troops, military spokesmen said. Australia, New Zealand and Thailand also have been in the operation.

Despite the operation, the Viet Cong marked North Vietnam's President Ho Chi Minh's 78th birthday Sunday with a 45-minute rocket attack on the capital.

More than 200 100-pound rockets hit the heart of Saigon shortly after midnight Saturday, killing 11 Vietnamese and wounding 51. One U.S. soldier was slightly wounded. The rockets also set 150 homes afire.

The South Vietnamese military command had said intelligence information indicated the Viet Cong planned a widespread attack, but only two significant shellings outside Saigon Sunday were reported.

PLANES LOST

The U.S. Command reported three planes lost Saturday, raising the total reported lost in combat in Vietnam to 263 over South Vietnam and 839 over North Vietnam.

An Air Force Super Sabre jet was shot down Saturday while attacking enemy positions 22 miles northwest of Saigon. The pilot was killed.

Both the planes lost over the North were photo reconnaissance jets; a $6 million Navy Vigilante equipped with a $1 million camera, and a $2.5 million Air Force F4 Phantom. All four crewmen were missing.

The Vigilante went down northwest of Vinh, about 25 miles below the 19th parallel limit for U.S. bombing raids. The Phantom was lost near Dong Hoi, about 45 miles north of the demilitarized zone.

Since Thursday eight U.S. planes have been lost, with four crewmen killed, six missing and four wounded.

U.S. fliers flew 136 missions Sunday against North Vietnam's southern panhandle, the U.S. Command said. The pilots reported destroying 41 trucks, 10 barges and five bridges.

Wins Award

Glen J. Shelton, 1610 Osage, has been awarded the "golden quill" by Phillips 66 for his efforts in organizing a four-page "Selling 66" story on a Big Spring truck terminal restaurant and motel. Shelton arranged with owner-jobber K. H. McGibbon to obtain reprints of the article, which eventually resulted in 15 new accounts for the truck stop. The award was presented recently by "Selling 66" editor Howard Smith and Houston sales division manager M. J. Chisholm. Shelton handles the Houston division for Phillips 66.

Presidential Hopefuls Fail To 'Send' Voters

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Presidential candidates have raised less enthusiasm with the American public this year than in any other presidential election in 16 years, the Gallup Poll says.

In a nationwide sample, Gallup found that none of the seven leading candidates was rated "highly favorable" by more than 30 per cent of those polled.

None of the seven fared as well as President Johnson in 1964. Richard Nixon and John Kennedy in 1960, and Dwight Eisenhower and Adlai Stevenson in 1956 and 1952.

NIXON FIRST

The Democrats listed were Hubert Humphrey, Robert

(Bobby) Kennedy and Eugene McCarthy. The Republicans were Nixon, Nelson Rockefeller and Ronald Reagan. Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace, running on the American Party ticket, was also included.

Nixon has the largest "highly favorable" rating, 28 per cent. He is followed by Humphrey with 26 per cent, Kennedy with 24 per cent, Rockefeller with 23, McCarthy with 19, Wallace with 15 and Reagan with 11.

"HIGHLY UNFAVORABLE"

Wallace is considered "highly unfavorable" by the most people, 32 per cent of those sampled. Kennedy's negative rating is 19 per cent, Reagan's 15 per cent, Nixon's 12 per cent, Humphrey 8 per cent and Rockefeller 4 per cent.

In previous years, Gallup said only Barry Goldwater, the 1964 Republican candidate, did as poorly in polls taken at similar times.

Presbyterians May Cut Gifts

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The leader of a conservative element in the Presbyterian Church in the United States (Southern) says conservative church members may withhold gifts and donations if certain "liberal trends by the church are not halted."

"Some have suggested . . . that the most effective way to show the board that you are not in favor of its new program is to withhold gifts," Kenneth Keyes of Miami said Sunday.

Keyes is president of Concerned Presbyterians Inc., a group opposed to church donations to civil rights organizations and to a suggested merger with the Reformed Church in America.

Dr. Marshall Dendy, executive secretary of the church's Board of Christian Education, has repeatedly called for this conservative group, and a liberal faction known as the Fellowship of Concern, to disband in the interest of church unity.

Keyes said the proposal to cut financial gifts and donations might become necessary if the Board of Christian Education continues financial aid to "agencies, causes and organizations that you can't support."

SMITH CAMPAIGNS IN WICHITA FALLS

Don Slams Lobby-Bosses

By The Associated Press

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Don Yarbrough, runoff candidates in the June 1 Democratic primary, do not see eye to eye on just what the issues of the campaign are.

GRASS ROOTS

"I can truly feel that I fairly represent grass roots, clear thinking Texans and the main stream, constructive moderate-conservative feeling of our people," Smith said in remarks prepared for a breakfast at Wichita Falls today.

"I feel that this is a great issue in this race—one who represents the people and one who doesn't," he added.

Yarbrough told a rally at El Paso Sunday that Smith is engaging in scare tactics and is receiving big money from out of state lobby-bosses.

"The day is gone in Texas when the big-lie technique can influence voters, and that is what this old scare tactic amounts to," Yarbrough said.

LOST TOUCH

"My opponent has lost touch with the times. Today's Texan won't buy his scare-em-to-death approach to a political campaign," he added. "We need statesmanship, not his weak leadership, for Texas."

Smith planned to open the week in Wichita Falls and had stops in Waco, Temple, Bryan and Brownwood scheduled for today. Tuesday he will go to Austin, Victoria, Galveston, Houston and Beaumont.

Yarbrough's itinerary called for spending most of today in Houston before moving to Dallas and Fort Worth Tuesday.

The lieutenant governor toured the Lower Rio Grande last weekend and said he would appoint Mexican-Americans to his staff.

"I won't appoint them just to work on the problems of a particular ethnic group," he said. "I think they should work for all the people."

Smith also had some words about state Sen. Joe Bernal of San Antonio.

SLANDER

"During the last session of the legislature," Smith said, "Joe Bernal got every committee assignment he asked for, and I even appointed him to head an interim study committee he wanted to head."

"And Joe Bernal got $300,000 he said he just had to have for a medical school in San Antonio."

"And what did he do? He's Yarbrough's campaign manager."

Yarbrough said in El Paso that Smith "has slandered the working people of the state who support my campaign with voluntary contributions."

He added, "The lobby-bosses have put my opponent up to this slander because they are scared, dead sure that their captive candidate is running behind. Millions of dollars from out of state auto insurance companies and lobby-bosses are being brought in to try to prop up his sagging image."

Dear Abby

Kissing Self-Taught

DEAR ABBY: I have been dating a guy named Jake for the last month or so. My problem is that Jake doesn't know how to kiss. He is 24 years old, hasn't been around much and he kisses me like he's kissing a wall.

I know how a guy should kiss a girl, and poor Jake doesn't know what he's missing. Is there some way I could tell him without offending him? I would like to hang on to him, but I'm afraid if I criticize his kissing he will drop me.

Can you please give Jake and guys like him a simple 1-2-3 lesson on how to kiss? I'm sure I'm not the only girl with this problem.

DEAR LIKES: Sorry, but each girl will have to give her own kissing lessons. An inexperienced kisser may be clumsy at first, but with practice, he should improve. Kissing, when inspired by honest affection, is instinctive. Don't tell him. Show him. If he's normal and genuinely interested in you, he'll catch on.

DEAR ABBY: My wife is one of those women who knows everything. And her most thorough area of knowledge is what "most" husbands do and do not do, although I can't figure out for the life of me where she gets all her knowledge. The specific question at the moment is who should shampoo the rugs? The husband or the wife?

We have had an electric "shampooer" (price $85) for a year, and it's been used only once.

I am employed full time. My wife is not employed outside the home, nor does she participate in any volunteer work, church, charities or social activities.

Our three children are in school all day. We live in a well-furnished home with all the modern conveniences. She expects me to shampoo the rugs because "most" husbands do. Do they? POOR RICHARD

DEAR RICHARD: I can't speak for "most" husbands, and neither can your wife. But what they do should have no bearing on who does what in your home. If a person doesn't want to do something — one excuse is as good as another, but if you can't agree — take turns.

DEAR ABBY: My fiancé and I set the date for our wedding and I went ahead and made all my plans. Then his mother tells me that I should change the date because it conflicts with her high school reunion.

I told her it was impossible to change the wedding date, so she said, "Well, I may just have to miss the wedding."

Abby, which do you think is more important? A high school class reunion or your own son's wedding? And do you think I was wrong for not changing the date?

WONDERING: I would say that one's son's wedding would take precedence over a class reunion, and I don't blame you for not changing the date.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

TEXAS COUNTS 21 VIOLENT DEATHS

Plane Crash Kills Three

By The Associated Press
A plane crash killed three persons and a traffic accident took another four lives last weekend as Texas counted at least 21 violent deaths.

The Associated Press count, which began at 6 p.m. Friday and ended at midnight Sunday, showed 12 traffic fatalities, three deaths in the Dallas plane crash and drownings and shootings claiming six lives.

INJURED FATALY
Four persons were injured fatally as a result of a three-car accident on US 377 three miles north of Cresson in Hood County Sunday.

Killed were Cecil T. Brown, 56, of Justin, Sandra Carson, 17, of Fort Worth and Ann Ables, Granbury High School senior. Stephen Tune, 18, of Grand Prairie died today at a Fort Worth hospital.

Vernon J. Hill, 23, of Austin was injured fatally Sunday night in an automobile accident on Farm Road 973 east of Austin.

William Tucker, 13, of Corpus Christi was killed Sunday when his bicycle was struck by an automobile at a Corpus Christi street intersection.

Keith Vaughan, 16, a 10th grade student at Vernon was fatally shot Sunday while rabbit hunting near the West Vernon community. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Vaughan.

SHOT IN CHEST
Tammy Joyce Long, 6, daughter of Mrs. Eileen Long of Houston, drowned Sunday in Braes Bayou. She was wading with a cousin when the mishap occurred.

In Houston, Fred Robinson, 55, died early Sunday after he was shot in the chest with a .38 caliber weapon. Police said they arrested a 13-year-old boy.

Three Dallas residents perished as a single-engine plane struck a power line while taking off from a small South Dallas airport and crashed in flames. They were Sharen Pullen, 24, wife of the pilot; the couple's son, Kent Pullen, 2, and Michael Page, 16. Another passenger, Steve Abla, 16, suffered critical injuries. Hospital attendants reported the pilot, E. W. Pullen, 26, was in fair condition.

A car struck and killed Jessie Grismore, 78, near his home five miles south of Tyler late Saturday night. Officers said he was walking across Texas 69.

BANGS PIER
Nancy Nelexen, 21, of Conroe was killed Saturday as a boat carrying her crashed into a pier near the west end of Galveston Island. The inquest verdict was accidental death from multiple neck injuries.

Herman Tillison, 75, drowned Saturday when his fishing boat was swept over the spillway at Lake Striker near Henderson. A companion swam to safety. Michael Graham, 18, was his car struck a concrete divider killed Saturday in Houston as he near a freeway exit.

Wild Weather Takes Fling In South Texas

By The Associated Press
The marathon run of violent spring weather took another day but appeared to have given up its damaging race today. For nearly two weeks, tornados, heavy rains and hail lashed at one part of the state and then another.

The Sunday matinee was made up of thunderstorms ranging from Corpus Christi southward to the Rio Grande. One to two inches of rain brought Weather Bureau warnings of the threat of lowland flooding. McAllen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley recorded 2.01 inches of rain.

proceeded without striking the ground. Severe weather warnings were issued for Hidalgo and Willacy counties.

The Weather Bureau said the rain would cause bankful stages and minor flooding on the middle Nueces River to Lake Corpus Christi through today. Also, minor flooding was forecast on the lower Frio River from above Tilden to Three Rivers.

Considerable flooding with a slow fall was anticipated on the lower Nueces below Wesley Seale Dam to Nueces Bay.

Skies were partly cloudy to cloudy across Texas Sunday and light rain was reported in the Panhandle-Plains country. Cooler air spread into the northern part of the state, giving a wide range of high temperatures. Sunday. Presidio recorded 90 degrees while temperatures were in the 60s in the northwest.

The Weather Bureau said that rainfall in Houston so far this month totaled 10.37 inches as compared to a normal figure of 2.66. The yearly rainfall was 26.52 inches with the normal amount for the year to date being 15.79.

Showers were likely again today in the south central and southwest sections.

Home Ownership

"The ambition to own a home is shared by virtually all Americans," commented President Johnson's Advisory Commission on Civil Disorders. The recent boom of government-backed home mortgage loans from six to 6 1/2 per cent, however, is but one sign that for many Americans, realizing this dream is becoming more, not less difficult.

Higher mortgage interest rates are reflected in the new 6 1/2 per cent FHA and VA ceiling level. But this only adjusts the rate to the effective rate already charged by lending institutions through add-on "point" charges. The President has warned (putting emphasis on his tax bill request) that a rate could reach 10 per cent should the right money situation continue.

The higher costs of construction and financing are forcing householders to pay as much as 40 per cent of income vs. the traditional 25 per cent for shelter. The expected 10 per cent rise in new housing starts for this year now seems unlikely, despite acceleration in the formation of new households. Most new homes cost $25,000 to $30,000, out of reach of the majority buying for the first time.

What this means is the private sector will not be meeting the pent-up demand for middle-class homeownership, let alone freeing or creating living quarters for low income households. The ambitious $7-billion, five-year, six-million-unit housing proposal of the President's commission as part of its suggestions for urban peace, has many worthwhile features. But it appears that it, like Sen. Percy's proposal for government homeownership aid, must wait on America's first putting its fiscal house in order.

Sales Tax Change Questioned

News dispatches suggest that when the Legislature meets next month to consider budget and tax matters, one proposal will be to change the sales tax formula as it applies to cities.

The proposal, as indicated, would be to repeal the present local-option sales tax system, increase the state levy from two per cent to three per cent, and rebate the one per cent to all incorporated towns on a pro rata basis.

We would suggest serious study before this proposal were adopted. Many Texas cities, by their majority vote, accepted a one per cent sales tax to meet their own obligations, thus accepting a local responsibility. Some others turned down the tax proposal, thus refusing to meet local requirements. The latter are now brought into the system even though the majority of their voters opposed it.

Another point: The sales tax coming to cities now is on a dollar volume formula, and thus the towns generating the most business get back more. These, generally, are the towns — since they are flourishing — that must have more local revenues. A rebate on a per capita basis takes away from those towns which need it most, and rebates to those which may not necessarily be hard pressed in local budgets, simply because they are not growing.

Of course all municipalities deserve a fair break to meet municipal service needs. But those which were forward-looking enough to vote a sales levy upon themselves might now suffer in proportion.

Admittedly, this is a complex situation, and we repeat that it calls for most serious research before the present local-option system for a city sales tax is overturned.

Stock Firms Caught In Clerical Bind

NEW YORK (AP) — What Wall Street needs today more than new issues or higher volume or perhaps even more than bullish news, is clerks.

Never in recent history, in fact, have the big financial institutions been so dependent upon the worker who can handle paper with speed and accuracy under constant pressure and while working long hours.

CONTINUED HIGH volume and the slowness of the industry to computerize some operations are generally regarded as reasons for the big demand for clerks.

Reflecting the shortage, a partner of one nationwide brokerage house complained that no sooner had his firm trained novices than they were hired away for more money as experienced workers.

HIGH SCHOOL graduates without experience can begin as high as $100 a week, and in some instances help is provided with day or night school tuition.

To say that clerks and administrative and supervisory personnel are urgently needed would be an understatement. They are needed desperately, for the growth and income of more than a few firms is threatened by their inability to handle backroom or "cage" operations.

During the past week the investment community was surprised if not shocked to learn that Lehman Brothers, one of the world's most prestigious investment bankers, was one of the firms caught in a clerical bind.

LEHMAN COULD produce the volume without great problems. It could share in the increased trading of institutional investors. It could handle the purchases for its large customers. But the sale is only part of the transaction.

The problem for Lehman, and for many houses, is that its clerical operation is temporarily unable to keep up with the volume of business. The strain apparently caused clerical errors and delays which tied up funds.

As a result, Lehman Brothers reportedly has told the New York Stock Exchange that it will refrain from expanding its brokerage business until it can resolve clerical difficulties.

This is not an exceptional case. Other firms also are suffering backroom problems, partly because they have emphasized sales and sometimes ignored the need for more clerks to handle these increased sales.

SOME OF THESE firms have been ordered by the New York Stock Exchange to restrict their growth until they can hire and train more backup personnel. Others have received an advisory letter on the need for more workers.

What apparently worries the stock exchange as much as anything is that continued high volume might result merely in a continued high volume of errors unless the ratio of salesmen to backroom workers changes.

The advisory letter suggested that brokerage houses should aim to recruit and train two operational, administrative or supervisory persons for each salesman hired.

Obliging Computer

DENVER (AP) — A Denver housewife sent a note with her check to the motor vehicle license bureau, asking if she couldn't be given an automobile license number that is easy to remember. To her delight, she received one reading "AD 8888."

Later, the bureau returned her letter with a mimeographed form stating the numbers were chosen by computers and no attention could be paid to individual request.

Electric Toothbrush Shocks Visitors

NEW YORK (AP) — We have probably the only apartment in New York City with an electric toothbrush on the living room table.

It may not be the answer to all our decorating problems, but it has certainly solved our toothbrushing problems.

THOUGH A bit out of place among the lamps, ashtrays and potted plants with which it shares display space, it came to its final resting place by the process of elimination.

My husband purchased this automatic tooth cleaner as a surprise—which I feared might give me something of a shock—for my birthday. I am dubious about the wisdom of mixing electricity, water and toothpaste, but this time the lazy side of my nature won out over the cautious side.

ACTUALLY, I was in no great danger of getting electrocuted while the busy bristles were swishing up and down at the rate of 11,000 strokes per minute. It turned out that there's no electric cord attached to the power handle which holds the toothbrush. It operates on rechargeable batteries and the electricity all goes into the recharger base, where the handle rests to revitalize itself when it's not in use.

However, there was one drawback to this mechanical marvel, we discovered on reading the ground rules: It had to be plugged into a "live" electric outlet in order to keep its muscle power in working order.

THE OUTLET in our bathroom is on the same switch as that room's electric light. To maintain the toothbrush in operating condition, the bathroom light would have to remain on 24 hours a day. Not only would that be a little too much brightness in our lives, but while the toothbrush was charging, the electric company would be charging too.

The dental delight had to be plugged in somewhere—but where? The kitchen, too far the appliance and plug it in somewhere else where it is at least invisible, though temporarily inaccessible.

But the unexpected visitor, coming upon this unusual bit of decor spotlighted under the lamp, never knows whether to comment on our originality or to avert his eyes and pretend it isn't there.

SO THERE IT sits, trailing its electric cord, on a table behind a flower pot trailing ivy. If we know in advance that company's coming, we remove

Rebellious Youth

Declare War On The Establishment

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

AP Special Correspondent

PARIS (AP) — Rebellious youth in East and West have declared war on the Establishment.

In the East, the Establishment is the Communist party and its bureaucracy. In the West it is the bourgeoisie and its system.

Whether they are ruled by Communists or capitalists, growing numbers of young people see around them a world they did not make and do not want.

THE BLACK FLAGS of anarchism and the red flags of communism flying over the stately old Sorbonne in Paris signal the students' rebellion which has pushed Charles de Gaulle's Fifth Republic into deep crisis.

"The bourgeoisie state must be destroyed," proclaims a big, hand-printed sign on the portico of the university's chapel. Another says: "In Warsaw, Prague, Madrid, Algiers, New York, Tokyo and Rome, students are fighting in the struggle against capitalism and against the Stalinist bureaucracy."

France is virtually under siege because the student protest has billowed into nationwide unrest, strikes and protests against the government.

RED CHINA, too, is an extreme example of war against "the high and mighty bureaucrats." This struggle is controlled and directed by the followers of Mao Tse-tung. The target is the entrenched party bureaucracy, which after the Communist takeover in 1949 became huge and difficult for Mao to handle, a power instrument in the hands of others. Mao feared that the party would surrender its influence to the bureaucracy, the strong and authoritative Establishment.

In the Soviet Union, in Communist Poland and East Germany, it is youthful ferment which bothers the political leaders. All the unrest has had its distinct manifestations in resistance to established systems.

As in the West, students and intellectuals join hands in protest. In the East, the protest is often against lack of intellectual and cultural freedom. In the West, such freedoms are taken for granted, but the same young forces join hands in protest against conformity, against those they feel made a mess of the world the young will inherit.

IN THE UNITED STATES and other countries of the Western Hemisphere, once again the Establishment finds itself the target of youngsters who resist conformity.

Around The Rim

The Price Of Entertainment

I cannot squander too much sympathy over San Antonio's early plight with its HemisFair.

Fair officials were moaning low that attendance was far below expectations, that the income didn't come anywhere near matching the outgo.

What did they expect? For week after week, the yeomanry which supports such things were warned that, if they hadn't made their reservations far in advance, it was useless to venture to the city.

EVERY MOTEL and hotel for miles around, the civic leaders proudly proclaimed, was booked solid. In other words, if you were brave enough to plan a trip to the Alamo City, you'd best bring your own tack and expect to rough it in the open.

Furthermore, the stories said, the prices of rooms and foods and even gasoline were going up. If you were lucky enough to contact a motel or a hotel where a reservation had been cancelled, you could expect to pay through the nose for it.

AMERICANS, with more leisure time to spend, are paying more to be entertained than ever before. Where you used to get the best seat in the house for a production on the legitimate stage for something like $2.50, now you are being asked to ante up to $9 for something like Golden Boy featuring Sammy Davis Jr.

If you pay to see a professional football game or a big-time golf tournament in this enlightened era, chances are you pay two prices to sit behind a post near the end zone or station yourself on a rise half a league away from the fifth green in order to watch the procession of links stars through a periscope.

SOME ENTERTAINERS who play to live audiences in fun spots like Las Vegas pass as comedians and-or singers when, actually, they are nothing of the sort.

Not infrequently, Elsie The Cow would sound good to customers of such places, once they get a few drinks under their belt.

If the public would develop a little resistance before patronizing such things as world fairs and sports extravaganzas, blockbuster stage shows and big-time golf exhibitions, perhaps the prices would be more within reason.

HAPPILY FOR the promoters of such extravaganzas, however, they operate under the theory that the public assures itself that such promotions have to be good entertainment if the price of admission is jacked up way out of proportion to its actual merit.

Nixon, Humphrey Gaining

WASHINGTON — Former Vice President Richard Nixon got more votes on the Republican ticket in the Nebraska primary than the combined votes received by Sen. Robert Kennedy of New York and Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota. If the additional votes for Gov. Ronald Reagan of California and Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York are added to the Nixon total, the entire Republican vote was 190,000, as compared with 152,000 for the whole Democratic vote. Incidentally, it was the biggest vote given either party in a presidential primary in Nebraska history.

DOES THIS mean that Nebraska is to be a Republican state in the next election? President Johnson carried the state in 1964, though in the six previous presidential elections the Republicans won the electoral vote.

It may well be wondered, also, what significance can be attached to the victory of Sen. Kennedy over Sen. McCarthy. The name of Vice President Humphrey — the contender for the Democratic nomination who will doubtless have the support of President Johnson — was not on the ballot and had to be written in because Mr. Humphrey entered the race after the filing process had been completed. He nevertheless obtained an eight per cent write-in, as contrasted with the five per cent write-in for Gov. Rockefeller. It would appear from these returns that Mr. Humphrey may still get much of Nebraska's support at the national convention.

THE GALLUP POLL among Democratic voters which was announced this week showed Mr. Humphrey with 40 per cent, as contrasted with 31 per cent for Sen. Kennedy and 19 per cent for Sen. McCarthy. This shows a drop of four points in Sen. Kennedy's strength since a similar poll was taken in April.

There seems to be no doubt that Vice President Humphrey is gaining ground. The next three primaries — in Oregon, California and South Dakota — will not reflect this strength with the voters, as he is not on the ballot. But there will again be a write-in vote which probably will be larger than he received in the previous primaries.

THE HUMPHREY campaign has taken on considerable momentum in the last 10 days, and unquestionably administration officials right down the line favor Mr. Humphrey for the nomination. The President recently cautioned his cabinet officers and high officials to refrain from participating in the pre-convention campaign. But this doesn't mean that many of the office holders throughout the country who are aware of the importance of a position sympathetic with the Johnson administration will miss any chance to pass the word along to the local organizations that Mr. Humphrey now is the "favorite son" of the administration.

ON THE REPUBLICAN side, the vote for Gov. Reagan, which amounted to 22 per cent as compared with Mr. Nixon's 71 per cent, could indicate that the ultra-conservative segment of the party is expressing itself. Mr. Nixon probably will not lose any of the Reagan votes if he is nominated for the presidency, but it could build up the movement to give the California governor the vice presidential nomination.

ON THE WHOLE, the Nebraska primary doesn't settle anything. It does confirm the results in other primaries thus far which show former Vice President Nixon as the favorite of most of the regular Republicans throughout the country.

The Weapons But Not The Will

WASHINGTON — Thousands of troops are now bivouacked in the Washington area, and many more are available as reinforcements to fight for the Federal City. But there is a singular lack of confidence around town that the mighty U.S.A. will win this battle if it's joined.

INCREDIBLE? Yes, if you gauge the contest in manpower and firepower, in mobility and preparation. No, if you gauge it in the psychology of those who must defend us. Yes, the District Guardsmen with their two battalions of military police and a thousand foot soldiers, plus a Task Force of 8,000 Army regulars, plus two brigades of the famous 82nd Airborne Division being held in reserve at Fort Bragg, N. C., and the other troops in outlying Maryland and Virginia—all these should be a match for the Poor People Marchers and their guerrilla-auxiliaries of the riotous Washington darkness. But no, the American soldiers are not certain winners over the insurrectionists if you consider the mentality of their political leaders and ours.

AN ACCURATE consideration of the mentality factor will take us far afield from the battle of Washington, but we can begin with personalities. The President, who must give orders for the troops to fight, has already proved himself a "gradualist" at home and in Vietnam. Lyndon Johnson always gives the initiative to the enemy. If he acts in character this time, he will not "keep" order in Washington, but will try to "restore" it — after the enemy has struck and has dug in amid the rubble and the terror.

THE PRESIDENT calls Attorney General Clark his "Mr. Big" in crime control. Ramsey Clark feels so-so sorry for criminals that he is ludicrous as a law-enforcement officer. Patrick Murphy is the D. C. Public Safety Director, outranking the Police Chief John Layton. Murphy has stated he would resign his post rather than shoot-to-kill an arsonist.

or shoot-to-maim a looter. We have a laggard President, a permissive Attorney General, a Public Safety Director with a frozen trigger finger. This combination can't save this city, and everybody knows it.

HELPLESSNESS is the name of our national psychosis. Fear-frozen decision is the disease. President Kennedy could not bring himself to give the second-strike order at the Bay of Pigs. Defense Secretary McNamara, serving under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, authorized sailing orders which told the skipper of the USS Pueblo, "keep his three .50 caliber guns covered," according to Hanson Baldwin, the N.Y. Times military analyst. McNamara, under the Johnson presidency, systematically allowed the narrowing of the nuclear missile gap to "stabilize" our relations with Russia. This will-to-weakness is a trademark of the Great Society. It is germane to the siege of Washington. All's No Win along the Potomac.

CRIME HAS a Safe Streets conduct pass in the Federal City. I did not know till I read Richard Nixon's position paper on the subject that the Justice Department's Organized Crime section. The man-hours of these government witnesses in court and before grand juries has dropped more than 50 per cent under Johnson. For every two street crimes in the U.S.A. before Johnson went to the White House, there are now three, and the continuing trend will make it six by 1972. Manpower and firepower won't defeat the besiegers of Washington under such leadership. Nobody's here with the predisposition to fire a shot in anger.

We are a country where capital punishment is on the way out. We are a country where juries can't make their verdicts stick in the face of Supreme Court decisions. We are a country with the weapons, but not the will to win our battles — not even a battle for the people and shrines of our capital city.

'Sock It To Me' Awards Given

By BOB THOMAS
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It was "sock it to me" time at the Television Academy as three Emmy awards were given to the raucous "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In."

BEST WRITING
The NBC show, a mad rock-et-gun combination of outrageous gags and blackouts, won the award as best musical or variety series, and special Laugh-In was presented as a special before taking to the air as a series in midseason.

The show's platoon of writers won Emmies for best variety writing.

In the other major categories, the awards Sunday night had the look of a rerun. Repeat winners included: Lucille Ball, best actress-star in a comedy series, Don Adams of "Get Smart," best actor-star in a comedy series; Barbara Bain of "Mission: Impossible," best actress-star in a dramatic series; Bill Cosby of "I Spy," best actor-star in a dramatic series; "Mission: Impossible," outstanding dramatic series.

Other awards went to Maureen Stapleton, best actress in a single dramatic role, for "Among the Paths to Eden"; Melvyn Douglas, best actor in a single dramatic role, for "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night"; best single dramatic program, "Elizabeth the Queen," Hallmark Hall of Fame; best comedy series, "Get Smart"; best supporting actress in a drama, Barbara Anderson, "Ironside"; best supporting actor in a comedy, Werner Klemperer, "Hogan's Heroes"; outstanding writing in drama, Loring Mandel, "Do Not Go Gentle into That Good Night."

'DOC' SCORES
Two of the supporting Emmies brought a sentimental reaction. The award for best supporting actress in a comedy went to Marion Lorne, the fluttery witch of "Bewitched." She died two weeks ago at age 82.

Milburn Stone, the "Doc" of the long-running "Gunsmoke," won heavy applause as best supporting actor in a drama.

Two second bananas who approach stardom were cited for "outstanding individual achievement": Art Carney of "The Jackie Gleason Show" and Pat Paulsen of "The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour."

In contrast to the over-length Oscar show, the Emmy telecast ran an hour and 45 minutes. But the awards were deadeningly profuse: there were 52 categories, and 10 writers claimed their Emmies for "Laugh-In." The show itself proved an embarrassment to the television clan. The proceedings in New York often dissolved into chaos, with master of ceremonies Dick Van Dyke struggling to keep order.

Moment Of Glory For Film Extras

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Some of the world's least known actors and actresses will be accorded their moment of glory tonight.

They are screen extras. In what the Screen Extras Guild calls the First Annual Screen Extra Awards, 12 extras will receive special statuettes for "distinguished performances" at a black-tie dinner at a Hollywood restaurant.

The winners will be picked for distinguished performances in a crowd, as a gambler, in a moving vehicle, with or on an animal, at a cocktail party, in a riot, in a Roman—or Greek—arena, and so on.

Better Not Tell Dad About This

FOREST CITY, Iowa (AP) — The Rev. E. W. Lechtenberg of St. James Catholic Church needed an altar boy to participate in a wedding.

He saw a youth sitting on the back steps of the church and pressed him for the 45-minute marriage ceremony of Nancy Anderson and Charles Garcia.

After the ceremony the priest asked the boy his name.

"I'm Danny Gangstead," the youngster said. "My father is pastor of the Lutheran church across the street."

Speedy Firemen

NEW YORK (AP) — A gasoline explosion sent flames through all three floors of the Bronx building but firemen reacted quickly and kept damage to a minimum. It was the home of Engine Co. 94.

They're One Emmy Short

Top Emmies handed out in Hollywood last night by the Television Academy went to this trio of performers, but when they got together backstage for photographs Bill Cosby, right, was without the one he was awarded

Emmy Awards Deal Called Perfectly Terrible Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — It must be embarrassing to the television industry that its Emmy awards show Sunday night, honoring its best programs and performers, stacks up with the most maladroit and disorganized programs of the year.

GAVE UP
The program, live from New York and Hollywood, encountered all sorts of troubles, particularly on the New York end. Dick Van Dyke, host of the Manhattan end of the program, had so much trouble with his cues that he finally gave up.

Permit Reminder

City residents planning to re-roof their residences, because of damage caused by the hail and thunderstorms of two weeks ago, are reminded that they are required to buy a building permit.

Tom Newton, building inspector, said that many residents are not aware of these requirements. For information, they should contact his offices in City Hall.

walked off the dais, grabbed the script from one of the technical crew and read his lines.

When Art Carney and Pat Paulsen—one in New York and the other in Hollywood—were given special "individual achievement" awards, something went wrong in the coordination during an attempt to split the screen between the two men. Both of them just stood there on camera for what seemed endless minutes, not knowing whether they were on camera and certainly at a loss to know what to do.

It was, quite frankly, a perfectly terrible show from the standpoint of production. But it is hard to argue about the quality of the selections.

Firemen Douse Kitchen Fires

Firemen extinguished a kitchen fire at 2:30 a.m. today at Herman's Steak House, 1810 Gregg, which was caused by rags which were left on a stove. Damage was slight, firemen said.

At 4:31 p.m. Sunday, firemen snuffed out a small stove fire at the home of Rev. T. O. McKee, 706 Trades. The fire was caused by meat burning, firemen said.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠2 ♣1083 ♢KJ74 ♣AJ65

The bidding has proceeded:

What do you bid now?

A.—Partner's jump rebid is forcing to game and the suggested bid is three no trump inasmuch as you have the minor suits doubly stopped. A raise to four hearts is not recommended, for the partner made a jump shift it might have been on a four-card heart suit.

Q. 2—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 ♠ Pass 2 ♣ Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Four hearts. With this strong six-card suit and a reasonably good holding in diamonds, you should take the chance yourself. Partner might have to pass three hearts on a hand that could produce a game.

Q. 3—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠QJ98743 ♢A7654 ♣10

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1 ♠ Pass 1 ♣ 1 ♠

Dble. Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Four hearts. This hand is almost worthless defensively but has fine offensive potentialities. Partner's bidding indicates that he has very little support for hearts, but this is practically an independent suit which a singleton honor will solidify.

Q. 4—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠AJ ♣AQ65 ♢AJ10 ♣AKJ63

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass

2 ♣ Pass 4 ♣ Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Five diamonds. Slam is a strong possibility and this looks like the best exploratory maneuver. If partner has a fitting card in diamonds or a reasonably good spade suit, he will surely react favorably to your slam suggestion.

Q. 5—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠A ♣A85 ♢Q9643 ♣AQ42

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 ♠ Pass 2 ♣ Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Four clubs. Your hand re-evaluates to 19 points in support of clubs which with the minimum of 10 your partner has promised by virtue of his two-over-one response spells a sure game. But there could be even bigger things brewing and the immediate jump is the best way to indicate your ambitions.

Q. 6—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠7 ♣AQ64 ♢KJ865 ♣A96

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1 ♠ Pass 1 ♠ Pass

1 NT Pass 3 ♣ Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Three hearts. The heart suit should be shown at this point, even tho it is not probable that partner will show up with four of that suit. It will facilitate partner's reading of your distribution should you find it expedient to show club support on a subsequent round.

Q. 7—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠A4 ♣AK3 ♢AKJ962 ♣K5

What is your opening bid?

A.—Two no trump. Tho this hand is a shade unbalanced, no other call is satisfactory. The holding falls just short of the requirement for a demand bid in a minor suit. Besides, partner's expected two no trump response might result in a lead thru your unguarded king should he become declarer at three no trump.

Q. 8—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠QJ7654 ♣AKJ62 ♢J7

The bidding has proceeded:

East South West North

1 ♠ 1 ♠ 1 NT 2 ♠

2 ♣ 4 ♣ 5 ♣ Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Five spades. This is just to take out a little insurance. At worst you should go down just one and the enemy may make their bid. Tho the one no trump bidder has at most one spade honor and, if it is the king, two diamond tricks should be the extent of your losses.

Officials To Open Giant Astroworld

HOUSTON (AP) — Der Hofheinzberg, a $250,000 steel-girdered Alpine mountain overlooking Astroworld, receives finishing touches this week as officials prepare to open the $10 million amusement park June 1.

Astroworld, near the Astrodome, is the project of Roy Hofheinz, for whom the mountain is named.

Hofheinz, president of the Houston Sports Association, Inc. has created a virtual Astroworld with three professional sports teams and the amusement park.

Hofheinz and his associates own the Houston Astros, a major league baseball team; the Houston Stars soccer team, and the Houston Apollos hockey team.

The air conditioning is the real plus factor out here," the spokesman said. All 62 structures will be air conditioned and will have their doors open most of the time, he said.

POTTED PLANTS
The main entrance to the park—a bridge over Interstate 610—is near completion. It will have reflection pools, shaded walkways, fountains, decorative lighting, potted plants and flowers.

The Astrodome parking lot is being expanded to serve both facilities.

One building not finished is the Astroworld motor hotel, but most of the 982 rooms will be ready by mid-fall, officials said. The hotel will be part of a $20 million hotel complex announced last year.

Hofheinz has reportedly purchased 90 railroad cars, mostly pullmans, which may be used in the park. An official of one railroad said he was told the former Houston mayor plans to convert the cars into a motel on rails.

VIP LOUNGE
Closed to the general public at the park is the VIP Lounge, near the main entrance. It is Hofheinz' personal guesthouse, and workmen said it is furnished similar to the Astrodome suites, which have thick carpets and expensive fixtures.

More than 1,000 youths were hired to work this summer at Astroworld, officials said. Astroworld employees will preview the amusements Saturday (May 25).
