SHORT BALLOT

Good Vote Turnout Is Expected

Voters choose Democratic nominees for governor and for two county commissioners Saturday, and if absentee voting maintains its pace and proves a dependable criteria, there could be a good vote turnout.

There will be something like 13,500 or more persons eligible to ballot in the runoff, although none expects half this figure. Anyone who voted in the first Democratic primary, or who did not participate in either the Republican or American primaries, is eligible to cast a ballot. The first Democratic primary produced 6,500 votes, and less than five per cent of this was represented in absentee ballots.

Through Friday evening, there had been 109 absentee votes cast here and another 26 had applied to vote by mail. The deadline for absentee balloting is Tuesday midnight.

Saturday

On the short ballot Saturday will be only the governor's race between Preston Smith and Don Yarborough for the boxes in commissioners Precinct 2 and 4. In Precinct 1 voters also will choose between Simon Terrazas and A. E. Long and in Precinct 3 between H. W. Smith and Mae Hayden.

There will be some combining of voting boxes as an economy move. None of the voting places in the two commissioner precincts with contested races is involved.

County Democratic Chairman George Thorburn announced these polling places (and with the combined box where noted in parenthesis):

Box 1, Northside Fire Station; Box 2, Washington Place School; Box 3, Main and 18th Fire Station; Box 4, Fourth and Nolan Fire Station (Box 20 also will vote here); Box 5, Vincent Baptist Church; Box 6, Gay Hill School (Box 11 also will vote here); Box 8, Cedar Crest School; Box 9, Coahoma City Hall (Box 7 and Box 21 also will vote here); Box 10, Forsan School; Box 12, Prairie View Church; Box 13, Knott School Building; Box 14, white building on northwest corner of old Vealmoor School; Box 15, Runnels Junior High (Box 18 also will vote here); Box 16, Parkhill School; Box 17, Gerald Harris residence; Box 19, Elbow School.

Army Plane Falls

GILMER, Tex. (AP) — An Army light plane from Fort Hood crash landed Saturday near Gilmer but the pilot and co-pilot escaped injury.

The plane was on a routine training mission from Texarkana to Fort Hood when it had an engine failure. The pilot, who was identified as Lt. Jim Bare of North Carolina, tried to set the plane down in a pasture.

The single-engine T-41, built by Cessna, set down in the rough pasture, bounced into the air, and hit a barn. Bare said the plane was fully loaded with gasoline but did not catch fire.

The co-pilot was identified as Maj. James Weaver. His home address is unknown.

Win In 3 Months

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Daily news said Saturday a top-secret directive has been sent to all U.S. field commanders in South Vietnam telling them to win the war within the next three months.

In a story from Saigon by Keyes Beech, the News said the directive indicated the U.S. objective was to break the current military stalemate and give this country "a decisive voice at the Paris peace conference."

Big Spring Week

. . . with Joe Pickle

One of the most important days of the year comes up Saturday when the Democratic runoff primary will be held. At stake are the governor's nomination, plus two for county commissioner. Absentee voting has quickened, perhaps reflecting a renewed interest. So make the first order of business Saturday to vote.

The big surprise of the week came when R. L. Tollett announced that after 19 years with Cosden (and 18 of them as president), he was taking retirement as its chief executive officer. Recalling the story of early struggle and phenomenal growth for the company, it is hard to think of Cosden without thinking of Raymond Tollett. But then, the best testimonial to a builder is what he has built.

The climax of one of the gaudiest spring seasons, from the point of wild flowers, is now unfolding with the appearance of yucca spikes (bear grass to the natives) and cactus blossoms. The yucca is so prolific and heavy this year that many of

LYNDON B. JOHNSON

LBJ Warmed By Reception, Lists Record

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — Lyndon Johnson, declaring himself "your honorary president" but sounding almost like a candidate, said Saturday his administration is founded on "performance instead of promises."

Johnson made an unannounced helicopter trip here to address a convention of the AFL-CIO International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

TEXT

In his prepared text, which he expanded upon in the glow of the wild applause that greeted him, he voiced a message that could be interpreted as aimed at dissident college students, angry Negroes or rioting Frenchmen: "You cannot build a utopia on ashes."

This message was virtually lost, however, as Johnson ad-libbed long passages that focused on the 1968 election.

For a moment it seemed Johnson was about to endorse Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, who embraces the record of the administration of which he has been a part. But Johnson stopped short of mentioning Humphrey's name.

Obviously warmed by the reception, Johnson launched into an extemporaneous valedictory for the performance of his administration at home and abroad.

ACHIEVEMENTS

Reciting legislative achievements in such fields as civil rights, health, and housing, the President declared: "This may not have been done with charisma or style, but this has been done."

Rain, Hail, High Winds Lash Sectors Of Texas

By The Associated Press

Drenching thunderstorms, big winds and hail lashed a wide sector across Texas Saturday as a cool front continued to generate turbulent weather in its push southward into the state.

A huge strip of West, North Central and Northeast was under a tornado watch until 9 p.m. but only one twister was reported. The tornado, which was seen north of Weatherford, apparently did no damage.

For most of Texas ahead of the front the day was hot and sultry.

PRESIDIO

Presidio had 101 degrees, followed by Cotulla and San Angelo with 98. They were the highest in the nation. Other high readings included Del Rio 98 and Laredo 96. Nearly a score of cities had readings in the 90s.

Back of the front, many of the maximum readings were in the 70s. Amarillo had 75, Dalhart 77 and Childress 78.

The cool front reached the Dallas-Fort Worth area shortly before sunset, toppling temperatures. Dallas, which had a high of 92 saw the mercury fall to 72 after the front moved through.

60 COUNTIES

Sixty Texas counties were in the tornado alert area—a 140 mile wide strip centered by a line from Abilene to north of Texarkana.

In the area were Dallas, Fort Worth, Abilene, Brownwood, Mineral Wells, Denton, Gainesville, Sherman, Denison, Green-

AFTER BUZZING ESSEX IN NORTH SEA

Red Jet Crashes Near U.S. Ship

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Soviet medium jet bomber crashed in the Norwegian Sea Saturday shortly after making a low pass close to a U.S. aircraft carrier, the Pentagon announced.

No survivors were found and parts of three bodies were recovered, a spokesman said.

The Defense Department said the antisubmarine warfare carrier Essex reported that U.S. Naval vessels and aircraft "in no way interfered with, hampered or threatened the Soviet aircraft at any time or in any way prior to the crash."

The plane which went into the sea about 200 miles off the west coast of Norway reportedly was a TU16 Badger, an elderly me-drum bomber which normally carries a crew of seven.

The announcement said the TU16 was one of a flight of two Badgers.

"It was making a fourth low pass near the carrier USS Essex, which was conducting anti-submarine warfare training operations," the announcement said.

"On its last pass, the aircraft came within approximately 20 yards horizontally of the Essex port quarter at an altitude of about 120 feet," it continued.

The Pentagon said that, according to witnesses, the plane was about five miles from the Essex and less than 50 feet above the water when it "appeared to suddenly lose power, drop the right wing and plunge into the water in a burst of flame."

French Premier Bans More Demonstrations

Assembly Right Suspended, Talks With Union Leaders

PARIS (AP) — Premier Georges Pompidou Saturday suspended the right of assembly, banned further student demonstrations in Paris' riot-torn Latin Quarter and sought to lift the paralyzing grip of nationwide strikes in talks with union leaders.

Chiefs of France's five major labor federations laid down for Pompidou the workers' price for ending the strikes that have snowballed for nine days to idle eight million to 10 million men. After the premier called a brief interruption to study these demands, he returned to reply.

FIGHTING

In announcing suspension of the right of assembly, Pompidou told a news conference the measure applied particularly to the Paris student quarter, scene of three nights of bloody fighting which Friday night claimed its first fatality.

Philippe Matheron, 26, a real estate agent and former student of electronics who remained interested in university affairs, was found dead in a street of stab wounds in the heart and abdomen.

President Charles de Gaulle, meanwhile, was preparing a proposed law detailing sweeping reforms to modernize the French educational and economic systems. He announced Friday night the reform program will be submitted to the French people next month in a national referendum for a yes or no vote. If the vote is no, he said, he will quit.

PLEBISCITE

Trade union leaders, opposition politicians and some of the country's top editorial writers complained that the referendum will in effect be a plebiscite for or against de Gaulle, the Free French general of World War II who has run the country for 10 years and has four more years to serve in his latest term as chief of state.

The government and the people totaled up the tragic score of the wild violence which convulsed the nation Friday night. There were two deaths—Matheron by knife in Paris and Police Commissioner Rene Lacroix under a rock-laden truck that rampaging students pushed into police lines in Lyon.

Officials said 130 policemen and 447 civilians were injured in the Paris disorders. Of the civilians, 176 required hospitalization. The police rounded up 795 persons—715 men and 80 women. Of this group 45 were jailed and the rest were sent to the Beaumont police station for examination of their identity papers.

Bordeaux, Nantes, Le Puy,

Strasbourg and Toulouse also were swept up in the disorders, which the government charged were in many cases the work of professional agitators and criminals. Arrests in those cities totaled more than 280.

Pompidou declared the overnight explosion of violence was an attempt to start civil war and called on the forces of law and order to crush further demonstrations quickly and relentlessly.

Enemy Strikes On Three Fronts

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces struck on three major fronts of the war in South Vietnam Saturday—probing anew on Saigon's fringes, attacking three U.S. outposts in the central highlands and blowing up an American fuel dump with a 100-pound artillery attack below the demilitarized zone.

REFUGEES

Refugees poured into the center of Saigon by the hundreds to escape fighting in a northeastern suburb where Viet Cong guerrillas took over civilian homes apparently while attempting to penetrate the city. With flares and tracer bullets lighting the night sky, a South Vietnamese armored column blocked the way to Saigon and U.S. Army helicopter gunships blasted the enemy pockets with rocket fire.

On the southern fringe of the capital, troops of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division battled it out with another Viet Cong unit near Y Bridge, where enemy troops seized a residential block in the May 5 offensive against Saigon.

The infantrymen and national police reported killing 14 Viet Cong. One American was killed and five were wounded. The police reported no casualties in their ranks.

DISTRICT CAPITAL

At the same time other enemy forces laid in 300 mortar rounds at the district capital of Ben Cat, 25 miles north of Saigon, wounding one American soldier and 12 Vietnamese—eight of them civilians.

The attacks on Saigon's fringes came amid reports from South Vietnam's national police that the Viet Cong were building up for another thrust on the nation's capital—possibly to be timed for the resumption Monday of preliminary peace talks in Paris.

Some homes in the area were set afire and huge columns of black smoke curled up over the area shortly after the fighting began.

The action continued into the night by the light of flares dropped by U.S. helicopters.

OUTPOSTS

In the central highlands, North Vietnamese army regulars launched mortar and ground attacks on three U.S. Army outposts west of Kontum, 275 miles north of Saigon. All three attacks were turned back.

AP correspondent T. Jeff Williams reported from Kontum that the North Vietnamese hurled more than 100 rounds of 82mm mortar fire at two U.S. Army fire support bases known as Bunker Hill and Brillo Pad, about 18 miles west of Kontum. The shelling was followed up by ground probes that were promptly thrown back.

No reports of casualties were available.

At the Polet Kleng U.S. Special Forces camp, 10 miles west of Kontum astride the main route into the city, the Green Berets reported killing nine North Vietnamese attackers. Their own losses were reported as light.

MINOR CONTACT

During the day U.S. ground patrols around all three bases ran into sporadic, minor contact. American jets roared overhead Saturday night, keeping up heavy bombing strikes on suspected enemy troop concentrations.

The fighting came on the heels of continued saturation bombing in the area by U.S. Air Force B-52 Stratofortresses. The eight-engined bombers ran four missions since Friday against troop concentrations, weapons positions and bunkers near Dak To, about 20 miles northwest of Kontum.

Once A Home

Bob Lee Saturday surveys the wreckage of what once was his home near Hermleigh. The home, and three others nearby, were destroyed by a tornado which struck late Friday afternoon. No one was injured by the twister.

Gloom Hangs Over Parley

PARIS (AP) — A cloud of gloom hung over Vietnam peace hopes Saturday as delegations of the United States and North Vietnam squared away for their fifth session Monday in two weeks.

Americans here are reluctantly concluding that at best, the talks in Paris, which the Communist side declines to call negotiations, will drag on for months, perhaps at the rate of about one session a week.

More and more, the evidence is that North Vietnam intends to negotiate with guns. The threat of a new enemy offensive hangs over South Vietnam's capital, suggesting that the Communist side is seeking some sort of victory which might force the United States to capitulate in Paris on the major issue blocking progress. The issue is that of the continued U.S. bombing of a part of North Vietnam.

The situation in Paris itself was contributing to a general atmosphere of discouragement. Wild scenes, suggestive of germinating civil war, were regarded as hardly the environment for an international quest for peace.

er cities. On the fringes were Wichita Falls, Tyler, Corsicana, Marshall, Longview and Athens.

The Weather Bureau said shower and thunderstorm activity would increase during the night with some locally severe weather expected in extreme North Texas. Scattered showers were due in all other parts of the state except the far west.

Only isolated showers were indicated for Sunday in Northwest Texas, with a gradual warming as cloudiness moved out to the east.

A few tornadoes, some damaging hail and a few windstorms hit West Texas before dawn Saturday.

Hermleigh, nine miles southwest of the oil center of Snyder, had the peak tornado damage with five structures on the outskirts of the town flattened. No one was injured.

SHATTERED

A few small farm buildings were shattered by a twister near Brownwood. Three other tornadoes were reported in West Texas between Rising Star and May and near Robert Lee in the San Angelo area.

Merkel, just west of Abilene, had high wind that unroofed a hangar. Large hail fell in a large area between Snyder, San Angelo and Abilene and in the Panhandle near Amarillo, Dumas and Clarendon.

Two Webb Officers Chute To Safety

Two officers attached to Webb Air Force Base parachuted to safety when their T-37 jet trainer flamed out at 5,000 feet and crashed in a swampy area near Port Sulphur in southeast Louisiana Saturday.

They were scheduled to land at the New Orleans Naval Air Station, while on a routine cross-country mission. They are 1st Lt. Francis P. Pantuso, instructor; and 2nd Lt. Paul E. Malik, a student pilot in Webb's Class 69-D. Pantuso resides at 42-B Chanute, and Malik, who is unmarried, in the base BOQ. He is from Buffalo, N.Y.

The crash occurred at 10:55 a.m. Associated Press dispatches from Port Sulphur said the T-37 crashed in shallow water about nine miles southwest of there. The pilots landed safely nearby and were picked up by an oil company boat.

After being taken to an oil rig where they reported the crash, the fliers returned to the downed plane and spread a parachute to aid a helicopter in finding them. Then they were picked up by rescue hoist and were taken to the Naval Air Station. Reports said they were in good condition.

While on their mission, the Webb men had diverted to New Orleans International Airport Friday night because of bad weather. At the time of the crash they were headed for the naval field to refuel before returning to Webb.

Officers from the local base flew to the scene Saturday afternoon, as an investigation was begun and salvage operations planned.

Must Get Money Bills OK'd In Time For Adjournment

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House and Senate will have to step up the pace considerably in June and July on money bills if they are to adjourn before the political conventions as their leaders hope.

Only four of the 13 regular appropriations measures for the year starting July 1 have passed.

Child Struck, Car Flees Scene

A 10-year-old Latin American boy apparently was struck by a car Friday at the intersection of Northwest Third and North Greer but received no injuries.

Officers said the boy was identified as Jesse Rodriguez. The car which struck the lad left the scene, police said.

In other minor accidents, cars driven by Troy Eugene Neburn, Route 2, Box 133, and Joe Reed Hamlin, Route 1, Box 194, collided at FM 700 and Eleventh Place, at West Third and South Bell, cars driven by Selma Hogarth Johnson, Houston, and Bobby Lee Driskill, 634 Manor, ran together, and at FM 700 and Wesson Road, Billy Joe Arnold, 3901 Connally, and Robert Harold Kelly, Mt Vernon, were involved in a mishap.

through the Senate. It is now more than four months after the start of the congressional session.

Asked if he still thinks Congress can adjourn by Aug. 2 or 3, two days before the Republicans meet at Miami Beach, without having to return in September, Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said Saturday: "It depends on the appropriations bills."

Mansfield has indicated all along that Congress will adjourn if it can complete its appropriations business, whatever the state of other legislation.

On the House side, the Appropriations Committee is sticking fairly close to its schedule announced earlier in the year. On Friday, it approved the bill covering the State, Justice and Commerce Departments, and the full House will vote on it Tuesday.

The big problem, as always, appears to be foreign aid, because the authorization bills have not come out of committee yet. Some military and space authorization measures are also unfinished but early action on them is expected.

for the fiscal year ending June 30.

Meanwhile, both houses have been busy with other legislation, but the push for early adjournment may result in the scrapping of all but such major bills as tax, crime and housing measures.

CONFIDENCE NOT RESTORED IN DOLLAR U.S. Is Still Losing Its Gold

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although the crisis has ended, the United States is still losing gold at a rate that indicates confidence in the dollar has not been completely restored since Britain devalued the pound.

U.S. officials contend it won't be restored until Congress approves higher taxes, an action that European bankers would regard as signifying U.S. determination to end the dollar drain and bring the federal budget closer to balance.

Except for the heavy gold losses which came during the crisis period, the April drain of $156 million was the heaviest in almost three years and occurred without any purchases by France.

France, which sometimes is blamed for the U.S. gold drain, hasn't bought any gold from this country since September, 1966, almost 20 months.

A further gold loss is anticipated for May but the exact extent won't be known until late June when the Treasury Department again publishes its figures.

Bobby Worried About His Oregon Campaign

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Enigmatic Oregon Sen. Robert F. Kennedy worried as he and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy wage their campaigns toward Tuesday's presidential primary.

The rival campaigners were both at work Saturday, hunting votes in a race which Kennedy has termed vital to his hope of becoming the Democratic nominee for the White House.

And on a bank of telephones, political forces of organized labor solicited support for President Johnson—with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey the intended beneficiary.

Kennedy has won two primaries over McCarthy now, has three to go for their sweep he wants, and has said he may have problems in this one.

The New York senator was said to hold an edge in public opinion polls taken by his organization, but by margins so slender as to be inconclusive.

Republican Richard M. Nixon was on the Oregon circuit, too, wooing GOP voters at a leisurely pace, saying he expects to get about 55 per cent of the Tuesday vote.

Television and a deluge of campaign advertising were the prime weapons of a rival GOP campaign in behalf of California Gov. Ronald Reagan. He is on the ballot with Nixon—has not come to Oregon to campaign, says he is not running for the nomination—but acts like a man who wants the assignment.

Another absentee is New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, a declared candidate but like Democrat Humphrey, not entered in the primaries.

A Rockefeller campaign, designed to promote write-in votes, was turned on late in the game, and produced the New York governor's most direct intervention to date in a presidential primary.

Eighteen Republican nominating votes will be awarded to the Tuesday victor, and that is virtually certain to be Nixon. His rivals are battling to cut into the GOP vote in hopes of showing ballot box appeal which could slow the Nixon march toward the nomination.

Thirty-five Democratic Convention votes go to that party's winner. But much more is at stake for Kennedy, whose forces feel a sweep of the primaries is needed to propel their man for the confrontation they expect will in the end match him against Humphrey.

Kennedy's Oregon theme has been to campaign past McCarthy, to focus his fire on the vice president. "My opponent—the vice president—calls this the politics of joy and the politics of happiness," he told campaign crowds. "I'd like to see it the politics of reality and the politics of hope."

He seldom mentioned McCarthy's name.

"This is a real horse race," said Lawrence F. O'Brien, the former postmaster general now at work in the Kennedy campaign.

O'Brien said he was worried about the outcome.

O'Brien said the talk of concern in Oregon was genuine, not like gamesmanship of the Kennedy forces in Indiana and Nebraska, where they downgraded their prospects in an effort to enhance the impact of expected victories.

In Nebraska, on May 14, Kennedy got 51 per cent of the vote, McCarthy 31 per cent.

Smith's campaign headquarters announced the lieutenant governor would like to greet all his friends, and local supporters are stressing that the visit at the airport is open to all interested persons.

Benjamin DeLeon has posted $500 bond on a count of carrying a prohibited weapon, according to sheriff's deputies.

Trustees Plan Talks On Budget

Preliminary 1968-1969 budget discussion for the Big Spring Independent School District will highlight a meeting of school trustees Tuesday. The meeting will open at 7 p.m. in the board room behind the administration building.

Also on tap are further action on matters related to closing a portion of Mittel Street and discussion of rural properties.

Residents have three choices—quit, move or stay indoors. They may stay indoors, in on ornamental shrub, tree and lawn pests and problems. Two experts from the Texas Extension Service will be at the county courtroom to discuss this at 9:30 a.m.

Earlier, Judge Lee Porter had written a letter of inquiry about the present post office building as a home for a county library. A last week, commissioners joined Judge Porter in another letter to the General Services Administration urging that the county be given consideration in disposal of the building so the library might be moved there.

Schedules For Summer School Classes Released

Summer school programs and schedules for the Big Spring Independent School district were announced Friday by Lynn Hise, assistant superintendent for instruction.

Hise said programs would be offered for the elementary grades, junior high, senior high, core subjects, and senior high enrichment programs. The classes will be held June 3-July 26, with holidays July 4-5. Hours will be from 7:55 a.m. to 12:05 p.m. Monday through Friday, Hise said.

Registration will be held at 9 a.m. June 3 in the Big Spring High School cafeteria. Hise said that students must be present who are planning to enroll because the number of students requesting a subject will determine whether or not the subject is taught. Pupils may not enroll for summer school after Wednesday, June 5, he said, and those enrolling late will be required to make up all time that is missed.

Tuition is payable in advance at the time of registration, and no refunds will be made after June 3, Hise said. He said an exception to this would be made if a course for which a student registers does not materialize. Fees are $22 for one course, $40, two courses; $54, three courses; $8, band; and $23 for each elementary course. Students in grades 9-12 can earn a maximum of one and one-half credits.

The subjects listed below plus sufficient request for other subjects (16 or more students) will determine whether or not a course materializes, Hise said.

'Drink' Approval By Voters Will Not Affect Lawmakers

AUSTIN (AP) — Texans approval of liquor-by-the-drink in the May 4 opinion poll probably will not affect any possible vote on the issue in the upcoming special legislative session, said the chairman of a liquor law study committee.

Rep. R. H. Cory of Victoria said Friday, "I doubt if it will have any influence one way or the other."

Liquor-by-the-drink was approved by a 33,000-vote margin out of 1.74 million votes cast in the Democratic and Republican party primaries. The vote had no legal, binding effect.

Cory, meeting with newsmen after a four-hour, closed-door hearing of his special subcommittee on liquor laws, refused to say whether the group would recommend liquor-by-the-drink or miniature bottles to the special session.

He said the subcommittee would hold a final meeting next week and would present its recommendations to the first meeting of the House State Affairs Committee, probably June 5. Cory also is chairman of the State Affairs Committee.

He said two constitutional questions on enforcement of liquor laws had to be resolved by the subcommittee. He would not say what they were.

Asked if it was a good assumption that one or the other would be recommended, he said, "I can't say. I don't want to give away part of the report."

Both Houses Begin Work On Budget

AUSTIN (AP)—Two powerful groups of legislators, whose decisions will have much to do with this year's tax bill, take a running start Monday at the June 4 special session.

The House Appropriations Committee meets at 8 a.m. An hour later, the Senate Finance Committee opens its budget meetings.

Recommendations Thursday. The budget board document had been in the hands of Appropriations and Finance Committee members several days.

Connally's budget includes $465.2 million from general revenue and would require a $123.8 million tax bill.

The budget board recommended general revenue appropriations totaling $471 million and requiring $129.6 million in new taxes.

When the two committees meet Monday, they may decide to shorten the hearing process by listening jointly to two agency budget presentations.

Only agencies dissatisfied with the budget board recommendations are expected to request hearings. Only about half the agencies have asked hearings.

Those who figure on two weeks to write and pass an appropriations bill may be too optimistic.

After hearings, each house's budget committee writes its own spending bill, then takes it to the floor for debate, amendment and passage. One house may accept the other's bill in theory but it doesn't work out in practice. So a conference committee of five stubborn and sophisticated bargainers from each house is formed to resolve differences.

Leaders of both houses hope hearings on agency budgets can be completed in one week, before the session starts. This would leave them free to concentrate on writing their versions of a general appropriations bill once the session starts. Optimists predicted the appropriations bill could be finally passed and sent to the governor within about two weeks.

Completion of the spending bill at the two-week mark would leave another fortnight to devote exclusively to the tax bill needed to balance the budget.

Both Gov. John Connally and the Legislative Budget Board made public their spending recommendations.

Some say 30 days may not be enough time to get both tax and spending bills passed, particularly the tax bill.

Connally has kept his tax plan secret.

Employees To Be Honored Tuesday

Over 400 persons are expected to attend an employee awards dinner Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Big Spring State Hospital.

Speaker will be Dr. Kenneth Pepper, professor of pastoral care at the Institute of Religion in Houston.

Commendation awards and a special service award will be presented. Chaplain Lee Butler will assist with the program. The Rev. Tom Strother, pastor of Wesley Methodist Church, will word the invocation.

Farmers Get Crops In, Pray For Dry Weather

Farmers let off Saturday from an arduous week of planting and for once prayed for dry weather for a few days. Possibly 120,000 acres or more of land have been put to cotton and feed, Paul Gross, county agricultural agent, estimated Saturday. Virtually all of the 51,000 plus acres of cotton are in the ground, and not a little of it is up to a good stand. Barring rain that might wash up to a good stand by the end of this week. Except for the areas northwest and immediately northeast, which experienced some washing, much of the cotton already is up to a good stand and is "shanking." Within a fortnight it should be out of the danger zone.

Here's Help For Planters

Want to know more about beautiful shrubs, trees and lawns?

Landon Almand, area extension entomologist, and Dr. Robert Berry, area plant pathologist, both with the Texas Agriculture extension service, will be here for an open meeting in the county court room at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Their primary topic will be "Control of Insects and Diseases on Ornamentals, Fruit Trees, and Lawns," said Paul Gross, Howard County agent.

Starting at 1 p.m. and continuing until 3 p.m. they will be at the county extension office in the courthouse basement for who desire additional assistance.

Gross stressed that any person wanting to get information about protecting plants around the home is invited to attend the morning meeting or bring specific problems during the afternoon.

Cop Pays Ticket For Poor Father

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — A financially troubled father of seven who left El Paso County Court to come up with $5 for a traffic ticket returned to find that state Patrolman William C. Thiede, who gave him the ticket, had already paid it. Thiede issued the ticket because the man was driving with an expired temporary permit. The fine was $20, but the judge suspended $5 and Thiede paid the rest explaining he thought the man should use the money to buy food for his children.

Webb Club Polishes Up F-86 At County Airport

By JERRY MONSON

Nearly a month ago, members of Webb's AFB's Aero Club undertook the task of shining, repainting and restoring the decals on the "ancient" F-86 jet fighter which stands at the entrance to the Howard County Airport.

The twin-jet super-sonic aircraft was donated to the airport by an air defense unit at Webb several years ago and now stands as a monument along the road to the airport.

Using the energies of club members and working on weekends, the project is slated to be finished by July 4—in time for the club's air show.

The show, complete with aerobatics, parachute jumps and flybys using Webb aircraft, will probably attract flying buffs from miles around.

All materials and supplies have been furnished by the air base. These include steel wood paint remover, paint, wax and an air compressor.

Once the face-lifting is completed, the club members plan to place tar and gravel on the area surrounding the aircraft and possibly a fence to keep away vandals.

According to Harry Brooks, a club member, the aircraft will be waxed about twice each year to maintain its "new look."

Thirty-eight students of the Lakeview Elementary fifth grade toured the Howard County Airport Friday morning, according to Charles Noble, manager of Big Spring Aircraft.

There were approximately 25 transits stopping by the airport this week, Noble said. Up in the planes of Big Spring Aircraft were Larry Milch, Marian Walker, Ted Bick, Carolyn Jones, Rodney Tiller and Jackie Bowen.

Ronnie Howard, a member of the Big Spring Flying Club received his private pilot's license during the week.

Also up in Big Spring Flying Club planes were J. H. Hammond, Garland Sanders, Don Baker, Dr. Charles Rainwater and Ray White.

Joyce Green, Sam Dennis and the Rev. Byron Orand flew in the Howard County Flying Club planes.

New members of the Big Spring Composite Squadron, Civil Air Patrol, are Noel Sanchez, Felicité A. Clement and Mike Woodriddle. The CAP squadron meets every Monday at 7 p.m. at Withycombe Hall, Webb AFB.

Tech Co-Ed Is 'College Queen'

Ruth Ann Rucker, a sophomore at Texas Tech College, has been selected as one of the most outstanding college students in the State of Texas. She has earned a trip to New York City and to West Palm Beach, Fla., where she will compete for the title of "National College Queen."

Based on her scholastic accomplishments and her leadership in campus activities, Miss Rucker was chosen by the national judges as the new "Texas College Queen." She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Rucker Jr., Route 1, Lubbock.

As a national finalist, Miss Rucker will participate in a series of forums and seminars. More than 40 national judges—educators, journalists, celebrities—will score each candidate on her knowledge, academic achievements, poise and personality.

Piper's Ideas Save $16,000

Three cost reduction actions initiated by Cletus Piper, redistribution and marketing section at Webb AFB, have netted $16,000 in savings, according to an announcement by Headquarters Air Training Command.

The actions include a $5,580 savings by an idea to reuse T-3 spars. The spars, originally designed as T-33 modification kits, were found to be applicable to both the base's T-37 Tweety-Bird and T-38 Talon aircraft.

Another, which called for the reuse of foam cans for receptacles, netted $4,858. Finally, an idea to use excess tire chains netted another $3,095.

Look Out For Worms

Howard County cotton growers are urged to be on the lookout for leaf eating worms in seeding cotton, according to Paul Gross, county agricultural agent.

Some fields are infested with these pests to the extent of destroying stands of cotton if proper control measures are not applied. Positive identification has not been made, but the pests appear to be either garden webworms or beet armyworms. The small worms are usually found on the underside of the leaf of the seedling cotton and are covered by a ragged web. They migrate to the terminal stalk area after destroying the leaf.

If populations are large enough to warrant control, the best results may be obtained while the worms are small. Garden webworms may be controlled by applying a 2:1 DDT mixture at the rate of 2.3 pounds per acre. Those desiring more information should contact Gross.

Youngest Wins Top Awards

A. L. Roderick, Burbank, Calif., was judge at the Sunday (May 19) Rio Grande Kennel Club show at which Diane Bailey and her dog, "Duffy," were named winners in several divisions. Friday's judge was Mrs. Michel Kay, Northbrook, Ill.

Diane Bailey Wins Top Show Honors

One of the youngest members of the Big Spring Kennel Club received the highest honors in the "Novice A" class and her dog was named "high scoring dog" in a double show May 17 and 19 sponsored by the Rio Grande Kennel Club last week. The show was held at Albuquerque, N. M.

Diane Bailey, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bailey, 2301 Alabama, and her dog, "Duffy," walked away with top honors in several divisions in competition with 93 other entries. Diane received the high scoring junior handler award and "Duffy" received 199 points out of a possible 200. Diane was the youngest junior handler in the show. In the May 17 judging, Diane tied for first place in the "Novice A" class, and "Duffy" won the high scoring dog award in the working group. Diane and her puppy, who is nine months old and a full-blooded sheep dog, began training together in February of this year. The family is active in the Big Spring Kennel Club and "Duffy" received his training through the kennel club's obedience school. Diane is a sixth grade student at Washington Elementary School.

Summer Class Signup Set

Howard County Junior College heads down the home stretch of the spring semester this week. Last of the examinations will be held Monday, and Tuesday evening the college is due to graduate 78 young people, a record to qualify for the two-year certificates.

Registration for summer school will begin the morning of June 3 and will continue through June 6. Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, urged those who plan to take part in the first six-weeks session to sign up the first day if at all possible in order to start classes June 4. Classes meet every day, and because of the intensification of instruction, it is best not to miss any more classes than absolutely necessary, Dr. Hunt said.

The usual solid-course fare will be offered, plus a course in electronic data processing in the vocational-technical division.

TMA Cites Need For Education Units In Texas

AUSTIN—To meet the growing need for more physicians in the state, the Texas Medical Association has called for the immediate expansion of existing medical education facilities in Texas, and has recommended that a new four year medical school be approved as soon as possible, and that consideration also be given to the need for a second new school.

TMA's Council on Medical Education and Hospitals commended the four existing medical schools in Texas for the recent increases in their classes. Recent surveys show that there is one MD in Texas for every 997 persons, compared to a United States physician - population ratio of one for every 660 individuals. The need for more general practitioners and more physicians who practice family medicine was stressed, as well as the shortage of physicians in non-urban areas.

Only 45 per cent of the physicians who joined the Texas Medical Association since 1961 are natives of Texas. Deans of Texas medical schools report that the number of qualified applicants who did not gain admission this year would fill the entering classes of several new schools.

Howard Payne Receives Gifts

BROWNWOOD—Gifts to Howard Payne College totaling $1,380,000 have been announced by president Guy D. Newman to the board of trustees.

The college will be the eventual beneficiary of $1.3 million from a trust fund recently established by an anonymous donor, Dr. Newman said.

In addition, the college will receive also from another anonymous donor $55,000 as an endowed scholarship fund. A third gift of a $25,000 endowed scholarship fund from still another anonymous donor was revealed by the president.

Trustees approved a budget of $2,078,025 for the school year and gave a green light for planning a million-dollar student center-men's dormitory.

Police Group Works To Upgrade Operation

"As a law enforcement officer, I regard myself as a member of an important and honorable profession."

So begins the Code of Ethics of the recently formed Big Spring Police Association, a professional organization in which policemen can mutually associate and through which they can work together for the upgrading of the police department and the betterment of law enforcement.

The organization is set up and operates as a corporation and is incorporated under the Texas Non-Profit Corporation Act. Its officers are Capt. Stanley Bogard, president; Sgt. J. D. Campbell, vice president; Doris Smith, treasurer; and Anne Marie DeLong, secretary.

The association is patterned after the Texas State Police Officers' Association, which has groups in Abilene, San Angelo and Dallas. Its charter was granted by the Secretary of State as a charitable unit. The by-laws provide that every active duty officer of the rank of captain and below, excluding chief and assistant chief, together with all reserve police officers, are eligible for active membership. Dues are $1.50 per month, and sponsorships, from community residents, are being invited. Honorary memberships will also be granted, to be conferred by the association, according to the charter, upon those persons who have given notable assistance to the department or to the cause of law enforcement.

In the past, the officers of the department have operated a "flower fund," to which some donations have been made by various citizens. The fund is used to buy flowers or to provide assistance to officers' families when they are ill, or to handle other benevolences.

The officers own a school bus which they purchased and remodeled for the Boy Scouts and have raised some funds annually by holding their policemen's ball and by having gum machines distributed throughout the city. All of these activities will collectively be operated through the association.

The Code of Ethics provides that the law enforcement officer "... be honest, loyal, and know my duties thoroughly, and constantly strive to achieve these objectives and ideals of my chosen profession."

Cheap Campaign

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—J. W. Todd Sr., of Anderson, Ala., who lost in his bid for presidential election, reported campaign expenses totaling six cents — for a postage stamp. It cost him another stamp to mail his statement of expenses to the secretary of state in Montgomery after he lost to Atty. Gen. Macdonald Gallion in the May 7 Democratic primary.

Volunteer Orientation Set Monday At State Hospital

Featured at the Big Spring State Hospital volunteer orientation Monday, starting at 8:30 a.m., will be a professional worker, Dr. Gary Miller, director for hospital development of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, and Mrs. Carl (Christal) Degan, chairman of the Volunteer Services Council for Texas State Hospitals and Special Schools.

He has a special interest in alcoholism and in 1965, he received the certificate of recognition by the Austin Council on Alcoholism. He works closely with the psychodrama program.

He received his doctor of medicine degree in May, 1960, ranking fourth in a class of 160 at the University of Texas Medical School at Galveston. His internship was spent at Montefiore Hospital, New York City, and his residency was in Cleveland, Austin and in the U.S. Army Medical Corps. His topic will be "The New Role of the Volunteer."

Mrs. Ottilie Van Vleet, director of nursing service, will explain the duties of her section and outline nursing services role as counselor and program manager of unit activities.

The role of religion in a state hospital will be presented by Chaplain Lee Butler. Planning the entire program, which will have its headquarters in the Allred Auditorium, are Mrs. Mary Cochran, volunteer coordinator, and Mrs. Sara Cheatham, assistant volunteer coordinator.

Dr. Preston E. Harrison, superintendent, will discuss "Treatment Philosophy." Mrs. Helen Colburn, chief of volunteer services of the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, will lead a panel discussion. Also featured in the sessions will be Mrs. Clara Jackson and Frank Saizar, occupational therapists.

MARTIN, SMITH ANNOUNCE PROPOSALS

Riot-Prevention Plans Revealed

AUSTIN (AP) — Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin and Lt. Gov. Preston Smith presented a package of proposals Saturday which they said would help keep Texas free of riots.

They asked Gov. John Connally to put the proposed laws before the special June 4 legislature.

Martin said the proposals, among other things, would prevent shanty towns from popping up on the Capitol lawn and students from loitering in public buildings.

"The very roots of our society are threatened by the widespread disorders which are occurring throughout our country," Smith said. "These disorders must be controlled if we are not to have anarchy."

Smith and Martin talked to newsmen after a 30-minute bedside chat on the riot-control proposals with Speaker Ben Barnes, who is in the hospital with an ailment.

They said Barnes was in "full accord, very enthusiastic" about their suggestions.

Martin prefaced his four proposals by saying, "Texas is the only populous state in the nation whose people have not been subjected to the violence and destruction of riots and other major outbreaks."

Disorders occurred last year at Houston at Texas Southern University, a Negro state school, where one policeman was killed. Two other officers and a student were injured and considerable property damage resulted. Several students are awaiting trial.

Martin said his measures were designed to prevent riots and civil disorders and, if they occur, to give police and other authorities more power to cope with them.

Specifically, he proposed laws: —Enabling peace officers from one community to rush to the support of officers in neighboring communities "if and when the need arises" during riots or civil disorders.

—Permitting communities to set 72-hour curfews during riots, or when there is violence or a threat of violence, or during natural disasters. The curfew law would include restrictions on the sales of ammunition, gasoline and liquor and could be renewed for maximum periods of 72 hours. It includes a $200 penalty provision.

—Prohibiting trespassing on public property, with penalties of $200 or two months in jail, or both.

—Prohibiting disturbance of public meetings, with penalties of $500 or six months in jail, or both.

"This is a real emergency," said Martin, mentioning that the state was at a "real disadvantage" because a federal court recently knocked out Texas' disturbing the peace law. He said this was the only proposal which he had discussed with Connally, and that the governor was "very favorable" toward it.

Smith had one proposal to make it a felony offense, punishable by fine and imprisonment, to "interfere with a policeman, fireman, ambulance driver, nurse, doctor or other person performing a public function during a riot or other civil disorder." He suggested that the state attorney general be allowed to help local officials prosecute the offenses.

He said Texas' elected officials would be betraying the people's trust "if we waited until something terrible happened before we did anything about it."

"We must prevent needless loss of life and property in this state in case of riots and other civil disorders. Ironically, the ones who have been hurt the worst in Chicago, Detroit, New York, Washington and other cities are Negroes, and I am sure that the many thousands of fine law-abiding Negroes of our state are looking anxiously to their state and local officials to protect them against loss of life and property—as are all other law-abiding citizens."

He said law enforcement is the main topic on Texans' minds, and that he wanted Texas "to do a much better job than other states have done in the event real trouble comes."

Connally, who controls what the special 30-day session will look at, said only taxes, appropriations and perhaps liquor reform are on his agenda although later topics might be added.

Martin said it "wouldn't take a few days" to pass the riot-control proposals.

Capitol Campers Planning To Intensify Activities

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leader of the Poor People's Campaign said Saturday his plywood city begins its third week in high spirits, with one "significant victory" already won.

"Next week we mean real business," the Rev. Ralph David Abernathy told a news conference at a campsite still waterlogged from the almost daily showers of the past week. "We will intensify our nonviolent activities."

Abernathy said Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman would not have ordered federal food programs in 256 more counties by July 1 had it not been for his campaign's demands that the government put an end to poverty and hunger.

Freeman announced the enlarged surplus food distribution program Thursday, at the same time that he rejected campaign demands to expand it into counties that now have food stamp programs.

Abernathy said he understands $27 million is available for distributing the surplus food. His campaign, he said, will "do everything in our power to see that the entire amount is spent to feed the poor. We're not through at all with Secretary Freeman and his Department of Agriculture."

The blue-overall clad president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference refused to say this far in advance exactly how his campaign would be escalated in the coming week.

One of his aides said plans are still being formulated, as the camp takes the weekend off to scrub off the effects of several inches of thick, red mud. The mud is only one of a series of woes to plague the estimated 2,300 people who poured into Resurrection City U.S.A. in their leader's words, "plague this Congress."

Demo Runoff Election Just A Week Away

By The Associated Press

Preston Smith worked a bit and rested a bit in Austin Saturday while his opponent for governor, Don Yarborough, campaigned in Southeast Texas and San Antonio.

Their runoff election for the Democratic nomination was just a week away.

Smith, off a whirlwind plane tour of the state, talked with Capitol reporters about riot-control proposals to the special June 4 legislature before making plans for the final week of the campaign.

He had nothing official on schedule until Sunday afternoon, when he was to resume his campaign at Salado, going from there to Seguin and Jasper.

Yarborough, in Orange, said Texas needs "more open government," and he promised news-conferences five days a week if he is elected. "I will also go on statewide television every three months to give a full report of my administration and its progress to the people of Texas," he said.

WILLIAM J. CROOK

Decision Due On Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — The embattled foreign aid program is nearing its first day of decision in Congress this year amid indications of cuts approaching perhaps the $1 billion level.

Some say the possibility of defeat in the House can't be overlooked.

The annual authorization bill for the always controversial global assistance program squeaked by the House with only eight votes to spare last year. The situation has been compounded since then by the government's financial problems and charges of irregularities in the aid program.

President Johnson asked for an authorization of $2.9 billion in the year beginning July 1 but deep cuts are in prospect from the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

This unit, which has been friendly toward the program in the past, now is nearing the windup of a critical closed door consideration of the bill. When the measure emerges early next month it may carry a ceiling of $2 billion or less.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and William S. Gaud, the foreign aid chief, got gloomy forecasts from committee members during public hearings. A similar atmosphere exists in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which is standing by awaiting House action.

Last year Congress authorized $2.67 billion for the program but appropriated only $2.2 billion.

The House committee put off money ceilings until last this year but now is approaching this stage in its private deliberations. Members are scheduled to resume next Tuesday but the short holiday week probably will preclude action until early June.

Bruce Harris Wells, Big Spring, is among those receiving a bachelor of science degree at Howard Payne College in Brownwood Thursday.

Crook May Get Australian Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson was reported Saturday planning to name William J. Crook as the next ambassador to Australia.

Crook heads VISTA — Volunteers in Service to America — a domestic Peace Corps-type operation which is part of the administration's war on poverty program.

He would succeed Edward Clark, a Texan who has resigned from the Canberra post. Johnson appointed Clark, of Austin, in July 1965.

Crook could not be reached at once. The White House, State Department and Australian embassy declined comment.

It is possible that Johnson's choice will be announced during the Washington visit early next week of Australia's new prime minister, John Gordon. Gordon arrives Sunday.

The Rev. Dr. Crook, now 42, has led an adventurous life.

He was an ordained minister but waived his rights to military exemption in World War II to become a tail gunner on a bomber.

Back in civilian life, he became minister of churches at Morgan, Franklin and Nacogdoches.

While at Nacogdoches he became concerned, he said, about the loss of population in the area and claimed that a large segment of the residents lived on welfare checks of various kinds.

So he ran for Congress against the veteran Rep. John Dowdy in 1966 believing he might help the situation by representation in Washington. He lost 37,988 to 32,724.

In the meantime, he had wed Eleanor Butt, daughter of H. E. Butt Sr. Butt is owner of a vast chain of supermarkets and is a vigorous leader in Christian movements.

Crook became president of San Marcos Baptist Academy in 1960 and joined the Office of Economic Opportunity in 1965 as director of the Southwest region of five states.

From there he went to his present job, assistant director of the office of Economic Opportunity in charge of the VISTA program at $27,000 a year.

H H H DESCRIBES FOREIGN POLICY

Would Ease Tensions

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said Saturday that if he were elected president his foreign policy would be directed at "easing tensions."

Humphrey, during a visit to St. Louis where he ran into rainy weather and some political sunshine, said he didn't want to see the United States labeled as a world policeman but would prefer the country to be known "as an educator, a healer."

Humphrey, in an interview program at KMOX-TV, expressed belief that the direction of most of the Johnson administration foreign policy was "sound and necessary."

Humphrey said he believed that American foreign policy "should be directed at easing tensions" and this was the aim of the Johnson administration. However he likened the president to a conductor of an orchestra and said that one president would make "the music sound a little differently."

The vice president started the day with a one-hour visit to former President Harry S. Truman at the Truman home in Independence. Humphrey briefed his honorary campaign chairman on how many delegates he is picking up in his battle with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Humphrey presumably was optimistic—at least about Missouri—for he expected to leave the state holding the support, his aides believe, of almost all of the state's 60 delegates to the nominating convention.

The vice president got the next thing to endorsements from Gov. Warren Hearnes and Mayor Cervantes at a light-hearted luncheon after the dedication ceremony.

Hearnes said "interpret it any way you want, I believe you are one of the finest persons in the United States."

But that was about the only real bright spot of the day. The Humphrey campaign plane had to circle for about 30 minutes before it could land in St. Louis' soupy weather and Humphrey and his party climbed off the plane in a driving rain.

Humphrey spoke at the dedication of the Gateway Arch, a great span which Humphrey called "a soaring curve in the sky that links the rich heritage of yesterday with the richer future of tomorrow."

Two Sought In Cash Robbery

Two Latin-American men are being sought for questioning by police after they allegedly robbed a man of between $55-$60 in cash Saturday.

Larry Brewer, 1301 Park, told police the incident occurred at Northwest Fifth and North Gregg about 1:45 a.m. He told officers the man flagged his car down on Lamesa Drive, then held an object to his head and ordered him to hand over his money. The men ran up Lamesa Drive after he gave them the money, Brewer told police.

Charles Lee Rowden, operator of the Fina Station, US 80 and Airport Road, told police an employee took a total of $80.50 in cash and gasoline from his station about 2 a.m. Saturday. Rowden said the employee had called another man to work in his place and left a note saying he was heading for California. Police are investigating.

Reports Beating

Carmen Gonzales Jr., 604 Bell, told police that a gang of six or seven Latin-American males beat him up about 11 p.m. Friday. Officers are investigating.

Nixon Lashes Out At Rocky, Reagan

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon lashed out Saturday at "absentee candidates" who he said are looking to "power brokers" to help them win the Republican presidential nomination.

In a blistering attack on Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Ronald Reagan of California, Nixon said the nomination should go to the man who has taken his case directly to the people.

"No coy courtship can substitute for a direct, open appeal for votes," he said.

"People want to participate in the choice of candidates. And they have a right. The day of the political power brokers in smoke-filled rooms is passing from the American scene."

Nixon named no names, but it was obvious he was directing his attack on Rockefeller, for whom a last-minute write-in drive has been launched in Tuesday's Oregon presidential primary.

The other object of Nixon's barbs was Reagan, whose name is on the Oregon ballot but who has not campaigned personally in the state. However, an extensive drive has been mounted here for the Californian despite his reiterated he is not a serious candidate for the top nomination.

Nixon's remarks—made in a speech to an audience that filled the 1,600-seat auditorium at Oregon Technical Institute in Klamath Falls—seemed to represent a new uneasiness in his camp that Rockefeller and Reagan could make a strong showing in Tuesday's balloting.

Nixon himself has predicted he will get at least 55 per cent of the Republican vote. He has said Reagan may receive 25 per cent and Rockefeller from 15 to 20 per cent, with a showing for New York City Mayor John V. Lindsay.

Has The Car, But Wants Driver

Highway Patrolman Jimmy Parks has a 1960 Chevrolet, but he would like to have its owner.

When Rufus Garland Andrews slowed his sedan for construction signs on Interstate 20, 6 1/2 miles east of Coahoma, about 4 p.m. Friday, another car hit him from the rear. Witnesses told Parks that the driver of the second car took off on foot, accompanied by his dog.

Grocery Is Still On East Third

Due to an error in The Herald's public records, Charles's Grocery, 1612 E. 3rd, owned by Charles Dived, was listed as being moved Wednesday to the north city limits by Charles Hood House Moving Co.

The Hood movers did move the Campus Canteen, 911 Rannels, owned by Charles Martin, to North Birdwell Lane.

Last Classes

Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be the last days of the spring gym and swimming classes at the YMCA. The summer sessions will begin June 3, and Curtis Mullins, general secretary, urged Y members to sign for these. Registration is not continued automatically from one class to another, and it is necessary to re-register.

To Graduate

Two students from Big Spring are among the 1,662 who are to receive degrees today in Greenville, S.C. from East Carolina University. They are Andre Thomas Arcand and Teresa Ann Setara, both of whom will receive bachelor of arts degrees.

Election Contest Filed In Borden

GAIL—Eddie Simer, who lost his bid for re-nomination as county commissioner of Precinct 3 in Borden County, has filed a suit contesting the election.

Grant Murphy won the nomination in the May 4 primary 55-54, and a recount sustained this result. Simer, who is represented by Wayne Basden, Big Spring, has challenged validity of one vote and questions the election itself. Representing Murphy is Tommy Mills. Snyder. The contest was filed in 32nd District Court.

FEAR HEAVY FLOW OF ENEMY SOUTH

Bombers Attack Supply Routes

SAIGON (AP) — What would happen in the war if the United States agreed to Hanoi's Vietnam's demand in Paris talks to halt all air attacks and "other acts of war" against North Vietnam?

U.S. commanders here, express fear that without a North Vietnamese agreement to halt its flow of men southward, allied forces below the demilitarized zone between the two Vietnams would face an onslaught while the envoys in Paris moved on to discussions of a political settlement of the war.

Since the United States curtailed its attacks the flow of North Vietnamese men and supplies into the South has increased, the commanders say.

Thus the U.S. Command has ordered an intensified air war in the nonrestricted zone of North Vietnam. In turn, this has brought a heaving up of North Vietnamese air defenses.

President Johnson ordered air attacks over North Vietnam curtailed to below the 19th Parallel March 31 in a move that led to the Paris talks.

This area is 8,500 square miles, the size of Massachusetts, and has a population of about a million people, mostly farmers. This represents about one-sixteenth of North Vietnam's entire population. The area stretches 170 miles northward from the demilitarized zone and forms a panhandle that varies in width from 40 to 70 miles east to west.

Since Johnson's curtailment order went into effect, U.S. bombers are attacking almost exclusively enemy supply and infiltration routes—a network of hundreds of roads, rail lines and bridges—fuel storage depots, two secondary airfields and air defenses.

The biggest section from the 19th Parallel to Cap Mui Ron Ma, about half of the panhandle, is bombed by Navy planes flying off three carriers of the U.S. 7th Fleet in the Tonkin Gulf.

Police Chief Vows To Stick To His Policy

MIAMI (AP) — The Miami City Commission passed three resolutions Friday to soften Police Chief Walter Headley's "get tough policy" and drew a vow from the chief that he would stick to his shotguns and dogs.

"They won't change a thing," Headley said after commissioners passed the resolutions. "None of this is going to change my policy or my orders to my men one iota."

The commission voted to:

- Activate a community relations program.
- Revamp the police academy lowering physical requirements for men to be hired as traffic control officers only.
- Empower the city manager to declare a state of emergency.

Commissioner David Kennedy asserted that Headley's hard line "symbolizes the very irresponsible statements made by a man in what should be a responsible position."

Headley said, "I don't have half a dozen men to assign to shoot pool with the troublemakers and ask them to be good boys."

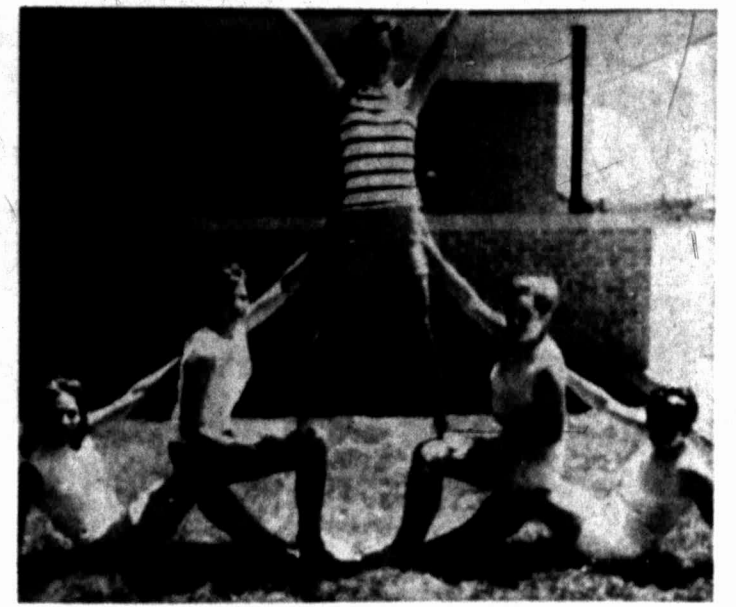

As for lowering the physical standards, Headley said, "Suppose a lady came up to a traffic officer and says a bank is being robbed? What would he do? Tell her 'I'm sorry, ma'am. That's not my department. I just passed the physical to direct traffic?'"

He said such a "half and half" police force would be a return to the horse and buggy days of law enforcement and that it had been tried and failed in Chicago.

Headley said the "state of emergency" resolution "won't change a thing. I've got a job to do and I intend to do it no matter who declares what."

Headley claims his "get tough" policy in Negro districts which brought protests from civil rights groups since last December has reduced crimes of violence in Miami by 62 percent.

Although most Negro leaders opposed the "shotguns and dogs" ordered into Negro districts, one minister remarked "I don't care if he brings in machine guns and lions" if it reduces crime.

Two Airplane Crashes Kill Eight Persons Friday

By The Associated Press

Two private airplane crashes, one in Colorado and the other in Arkansas, killed eight persons Friday night. There were four persons in each craft.

The Southwest director of the John Birch Society, his wife and two daughters were killed when their single-engine plane crashed and burned while trying to land at Columbine Airport southwest of Littleton, Colo.

Carl Kircher, Jefferson County deputy coroner, identified the dead as Frank Marisch, 46, of Phoenix, Ariz., the pilot; his wife Shirley and their children Maurine, about 3, and Dorothy Jean, about 18 months.

A spokesman for the society said Marisch was coming to Colorado for a meeting Saturday with the local coordinator and section leaders and brought his family along for a weekend outing.

Victor Johnson, who was in the airport administration building and saw the crash along with several others, said the plane began to lose altitude as it was turning left for its approach.

"The pilot attempted to level the plane, the nose came up and it appeared to stall, then it fell off to the right and crashed," Johnson said. "And by the time anyone arrived on the scene, the cockpit was engulfed in flames."

A Piper Cherokee crashed and burned on a heavily wooded mountainside four miles south of Eureka Springs, Ark., killing all four occupants.

City police in Broken Arrow, Okla., identified the dead as Ben and Steve Simmons, Gary Conley and John White, all of Broken Arrow, a Tulsa suburb. "My husband and I were sitting here in the house and knew it was going to crash the way it sounded," said Mrs. A. W. Quigley, who lives less than one-quarter mile from the crash scene.

"It sounded like the plane had engine trouble. There was a big explosion I looked out and saw columns of smoke.

The crash occurred about 9:30 p.m. but officers said it was difficult to get to the scene—an isolated spot about 200 to 300 yards off Arkansas 23.

Forest Binnall, ambulance driver in Eureka Springs, said the wreckage was strewn in an area of about 100 feet.

When he arrived at the scene, Binnall said it was just "plain hell . . . That's the only way I could explain it. . . It was plain awful."

Biblical Picture Exhibit At YMCA Next Week

One of the largest sets of Biblical prints in the world will be on exhibit for one day in Big Spring Sunday (June 9) at the Big Spring YMCA, 801 Owens, according to Sidney Clark, president of the Big Spring Optimist Club.

There are 60 pictures in the group, with 30 of them portraying scenes of the Old Testament and 30 scenes of the New Testament. So that all viewers can understand what each picture portrays, the verse and text that the artists have put beneath each picture, is in 10 different languages.

Clark and James Balios, former president of the Optimist Club, are co-chairmen of the exhibit.

"The pictures we have seen show that more than anything else, regardless of religious conviction, there is a clarity, beauty and naturalness about the pictures that make the viewer feel that they are right there," said Clark.

"People normally place stories and events that interest them into imaginary settings, and viewing these pictures makes the viewer more aware of the mystery and drama of the Bible stories."

Included are paintings of the patriarchs, prophets, Old Testament scenes, the life of Jesus, His parables and miracles.

Among specific titles are: "In the beginning God created Heaven and Earth." (Gen. 1:1); "Noah built an altar unto the Lord." (Gen. 8:20); "Pharaoh's daughter finding Moses in the Bullrushes." (Ex. 2:6); "The finding of Jesus in the Temple." (Luke 2:46); "Pontius Pilate washing his hands as he passed sentence on Jesus." (Luke 23:24); "Jesus dying on the Cross." (John 19:30).

The pictures are 25 x 30 inches in size and are in full color, and will be on exhibit from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. with free refreshments being served by the Optimist Club.

"We will have a complete set of 35mm slides of the pictures that will remain in Big Spring, and they can be used any time by any group or organization that may want to use them for study purposes or to teach the Bible," Clark announced.

Free invitations have been sent to several churches in Howard County, and more can be obtained from the Optimist Club by calling 263-6351.

Takes Issue With Smith Record In Legislature

To the Editor:

Much has been said about Yarborough support for governor coming from organized labor or wide-eyed liberals. I personally want to take exception to those remarks since I am a business man and have been since returning from military service in 1946. I am a strong Yarborough supporter, and have never belonged to a union and know little about unions. I am definitely a moderate with considerable conservative thinking.

DONALD JOHNSON

Johnson Is Cotton Envoy

Donald A. Johnson, executive vice president of Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., has accepted an invitation to serve as a member of the official U.S. delegation to the International Cotton Advisory Committee meeting June 2-12 in Athens, Greece.

Johnson, PCG executive officer since 1965 and a member of USDA's National Cotton Advisory Committee, was selected as a producer adviser to the ICAC delegation by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

ICAC is an association of 41 countries interested in the production, export, import and consumption of cotton. Its meetings have been aptly described as a "world parliament on cotton."

Johnson, a native of Hamlin, Texas, is a 1955 graduate of Texas Tech where he did graduate study in chemistry after serving with the U.S. Army in Germany.

Closely associated with cotton all his life, Johnson began his career with Plains Cotton Growers in 1960 and became executive vice president of the 23-county, 25,000 member organization in 1965.

I am aware of the 18 years' experience of Preston Smith in the Legislature but I think that his voting record was not in the best interests of the people of Texas but favored special interests at the expense of the public. For example, during Smith's experience in office crime has increased considerably; his record shows nothing to deter it even though as lieutenant governor he has been the most powerful man in Texas. Smith voted for a sales tax on the people and two days later voted against a tax on natural gas pipe lines removing natural resources from Texas. Automobile insurance has increased 2 1/2 times while Smith has been in office and according to press releases he says the only way to reduce them is reduce accidents but yesterday the federal government authorized an investigation of high automobile insurance rates. Smith voted against married women having equal rights in control of their personal property (May 28, 1961), against teachers' sick pay and for making it more difficult for workers to qualify for unemployment compensation.

Don Yarborough is a brilliant young lawyer admitted to the bar at the age of 26. Smith has no legal training which I think is needed in the office of governor. Yarborough served his country in the Marines in a brilliant manner as a commander in the 1st Division at the age of only 19, one of the youngest in history. Smith has no military record.

Also Don Yarborough belongs to no lobby; he is free of the 18 years of lobby influence peddling surrounding Smith, an important fact. We need new life, a revitalized Texas and Yarborough will give it to us.

Speedway Rookies And Friend

Sons Of Famed Drivers Qualify For Indy 500

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Rookies Gary Bettenhausen, 26, and Billy Vukovich, 24, qualified cars Saturday for the 500-mile Memorial Day auto race on the old Indianapolis Motor Speedway where their famous fathers died with their helmets on.

Two-time national champion Tony Bettenhausen and two-time Indianapolis winner Bill Vukovich would have been proud of them.

High winds and track conditions were so miserable that two cars crashed and two others spun off the track before the youngsters made their 10-mile trial runs.

Red-haired Bettenhausen, from Tinley Park, Ill., got faster on each of his four laps around the 2 1/2-mile track, starting at 163.073 m.p.h. and finishing at 164.264 for a 163.562 average. He drove a Gerhardt-turbo-charged Offenhauser.

The dark-haired Vukovich, from Fresno, Calif., was just a shade slower than Bettenhausen with an average of 163.510 in his Shrike-turbocharged Offy.

The elder Vukovich was killed while leading the 1955 Indianapolis classic which he had won in 1953 and 1954. Tony Bettenhausen crashed in a practice run in 1963, testing a friend's car.

Drivers who had trouble Saturday, none injured, were rookie Sam Sessions, Nashville, Mich., who crashed in the southeast turn; Jackie Foy, who hit the wall in the northwest turn; Arnie Knepper, Belleville, Ill., who spun in the northeast turn; and rookie Bruce Walkup, Downey, Calif., who spun in the northwest turn.

Phils Blank Cards, 1-0

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Dick Farrell pitched out of a ninth inning jam in relief of Larry Jackson as the Philadelphia Phillies edged St. Louis 1-0 Saturday night on Don Lock's sixth inning sacrifice fly.

The loss, eighth for the Cardinals in their last 10 games, left them one game behind San Francisco's National League leaders, who bowed to the Chicago Cubs 3-0 Saturday afternoon.

Jackson, a former Cardinal, allowed only three hits until the ninth, when Orlando Cepeda and Johnny Edwards stroked one-out singles. Farrell then came out of the bullpen, retired Bill Gagliano on a pop fly to first baseman Bill White and got pinch hitter Dave Ricketts on a liner to third baseman Tony Taylor.

The Phillies broke up a scoreless duel between Jackson and loser Larry Jaster when Johnny Callison singled with one out in the sixth, took third on a single by Rich Allen and tallied on Lock's fly to center.

Juarez Season Is Cancelled

JUAREZ — Juarez Race Track has cancelled its 1968 thoroughbred and quarter horse race season. The action came on instructions from Juarez stockholders who also approved a revised operational format that would expand the present dog racing schedule to include an increased number of afternoon programs on weekends and holidays.

The "foreign" book at Juarez—which has legalized wagering on major American tracks—will also remain open for wagering on nights that horse racing is held.

The Juarez decisions were made in light of the recent announcement by Sunland Park that its fall horse meeting would overlap a major part of the horse race season that had been previously announced at Juarez.

Gonzales Hurls Indians To Win

Tomas Gonzales pitched the Indians to a 15-2 Texas Little League victory over the Tigers here Friday night. The Bengals used four pitchers but couldn't stop the Tribe from posting its third win in nine starts.

ROCKY WOOLEY STEPS IN FOR TWO-POINTER Hanging on is Tommy Switzer (51) of White unit

Black Unit Defeats White Club, 8 To 2

By NATE MITCHELL
The Blacks defeated the Whites 8-2 in the annual intrasquad football game here Saturday night which wound up the spring drills for the year.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Blacks scored on a Johnny Patton to Johnny Ruthin effort pass from 24 yards out to break the ice. Rocky Wooley swept right end for the two pointer which gave the Blacks an 8-0 edge in the opening seconds of the second period.

The Whites, led by Gary Hughes and Gary Hines, never crossed the double stripe, but Emmitt Miller's fourth down snap from the 17 went over punter Phil Quinn's head and into the end zone for a safety.

These two points became the extent of the White team's scoring in the contest—coming midway in the third quarter.

Steer coaches, headed by Spike Dykes, did a fine job of matching the squads evenly, although the Blacks, boasting hard-running Rocky Wooley, dazzling Roy Lee Warren and upstarts Billy Bob Spier, Ken Barfield and Luven Flores, should have been the favorite.

The Whites, under the direction of Hughes, were at their best when either mini-grinder Joe Zubiate or fleet-footed Leonard Basco had the pigskin.

The no-return, no kick-off, free kick situation which prevailed to keep down injuries robbed the clash of much of the usual color, but several fumbles and numerous pass interceptions allowed the ball to change hands often enough to keep expectations high.

Since both teams were Steers, the fans could hardly lose. While the pads popped on the field, the fans waged a battle of their own against the hordes of mosquitoes which engulfed the area.

Warren, last year's most exciting Steer groundgainer, must have run a mile laterally with the line of scrimmage, but only once managed to turn the corner for a substantial gain. This run came in the final period when he ripped from the 12 to the 39 before fumbling away the ball.

Basco, picking his holes well, turned in a fine showing as a running back and gained 86 yards to lead the pack. Wooley managed 78 yards for the night.

The White team's best scoring threat came with a first down at the enemy 11 in Round Four, but Bob Domino picked off a Hinds aerial at the three to six the drive.

Earlier, in the preliminary game, the Golds crushed the Blacks, 30-6, as Phillip Ferguson, Pink Dickens, and Walt Campbell scored two TD each and Larry Vasquez, two George Anderson scored the Blacks' six pointer.

Score by quarters: Blacks 0-0-0-8, Whites 0-0-2-2.

AT MEMPHIS Graham Leader By Two Shots

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Lou Graham, playing the last six holes after a tornado-spawning storm delayed action for two hours, took a two-stroke lead Saturday in the third round of the $100,000 Memphis Open Golf tournament with an 11-under-par 199.

It was the lowest 54-hole score on the tour this year.

Graham, 30, who has won only one tournament since joining the tour four years ago, shot a 32-34-66 in one of the best rounds of his career.

He entered this tournament after a two-week layoff at home in Nashville, Tenn., to nurse an injured wrist.

"Watching the tour on television for two weeks drove me crazy and had me climbing the walls, and I felt I would do well here because I was ready to go," Graham said.

Two strokes back at 201 was Bob Lunn, 23, of Sacramento, Calif., who shot a 32-36-65 Saturday.

Also at 201 was B. R. McLendon, the second round leader, who had a 69.

The storm brought high winds and heavy rain sweeping eastward. Players and spectators jammed the clubhouse and four golfers, just stepping out of the showers after finishing their rounds, met a dozen women running into the men's locker room to escape the storm.

"I was two strokes ahead when play was suspended and I was praying we could finish the round," Graham said. "When I got back out there with six holes left, I bogeyed two holes and wasn't so sure I wanted to be there after all. But then I made two birdies and a par."

McLendon survived a bogey on the fourth and a double bogey on 11 by making birdies on three of the last six holes.

Arnold Palmer and Gay Brewer shot 68s to come in at 202. Both were using putters

Dark Mirage Matches Mark

NEW YORK (AP) — The favored Dark Mirage romped to a six-length victory in track record matching time Saturday in the 38th running of the $60,150 Acorn Stakes at Belmont Park.

Dark Mirage, ridden by Lloyd I. Miller, finished the mile in 1:34.5, matching the record set by Count Fleet in 1942 and tied by Blesbull in 1956. Count Fleet did it under 116 pounds, Blesbull under 115.

Dark Mirage and the other 11 3-year-old fillies each carried 121 pounds. The slight, 700-pound filly obviously could have beaten the mark easily, finishing eased up.

Bruce A. Norris' Another Nell was second, a neck in front of Meadow Stable's Gay Matelda, coupled in the betting with Syrian Sea.

Dark Mirage paid $4.60, $3.60, and $2.40. Another Nell returned $10.60 and $3.80 and Gay Matelda paid $2.20.

The winner's share of the purse was $39,997.50. She has won five times in six starts this year. Last year she won twice in 15 starts.

Ex-Hawk Will Help Coach At Alabama

A former Howard County JC hurdler from Snyder, Harley Bynum, plans to serve as a student coach at the University of Alabama next year while completing work on his degree.

An injury to a hamstring muscle suffered in the preliminaries of the first meet in which the Crimson Tide participated, the past school year ended Harley's career as a track competitor, although he worked out briefly later in the season. Bynum was injured in Chattanooga.

Bynum is majoring in Business Administration and expects to graduate in January. He may coach or teach after getting his diploma.

Bynum won a track letter at Alabama and was presented with a plaque as a member of the Alabama Lettermen's Club.

Two meet records Harley set while at the Tuscaloosa school still endure. Those include a clocking of 14.5 in the high hurdles in the Arkansas State meet and a 14.4 effort in a meet at Memphis.

At one time, Bynum held the Western Junior College Conference record in the high hurdles.

At Alabama, he trained under head track coach Ralph Gentio and his assistant, former Olympic star Billy Hardin.

Sandra Palmer Dallas Leader

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Petite Sandra Palmer charged to a one-stroke lead in the second round of the $18,500 Dallas Civilian Open Saturday with a sizzling four-under par 67—her best competitive round ever.

Miss Palmer's 36-hole total of 139 left her just ahead of Kathy Whitworth, who matched her opening round 70 for a 140 total in the 54-hole Ladies' PGA tourney.

The blonde-haired Miss Palmer, a physical education major and former cheerleader from North Texas State University, had an opening round 72 on the par 71 Glen Lakes Country Club course.

EAGLE ON SECOND

The native of Fort Worth, Tex., eagled the 456-yard par five second hole, then stung together three consecutive birdies on the backside before running into water trouble, taking a bogie. She used only 26 putts in the round.

Two shots behind Miss Palmer, who won $150 in round money for the day, were Mickey Wright, who had an even par 71 for a 141 total and Clifford Ann Creed, who added a 69 to her opening round 72.

"I putted absolutely fantastic," said the 27-year-old Miss Palmer. "I was unconscious out there. It was the lowest competitive round I have ever shot."

Miss Palmer suffered her only lapse on the 142-yard par three No. 17 when she hit the ground with a seven-iron and the ball dribbled into a lake. She drilled her next shot to the green and sank a 20-foot putt for her bogie.

Nine times Miss Palmer one-putted to save pars. Her longest putt of the day was a 40-footer for her eagle on No. 2. She had putts of four, 10 and 25 feet for her birdies.

NOT IN CHIPS

Miss Palmer, a former Texas amateur champion and four times winner of the women's West Texas championship, has won only $1,782 this year.

Her best finish was fifth place earlier this year in Florida.

"I want to play so well here because so many of my friends are following me," she said. "It helps to have people encouraging you."

Carol Mann, the first day leader, soared to a three over par 74 Saturday for an even par 142 total.

Miss Palmer said Miss Wright had given her some advice that paid off in Saturday's round.

Oliva's Blow Sinks Boston

ST. PAUL, MINN. (AP) — Tony Oliva singled home an unearned run with two strikes in the eighth inning Saturday, sending the Minnesota Twins past the Boston Red Sox 1-0 behind the six-hit pitching of Jim Kaat.

The Twins broke up a scoreless duel between Kaat and Boston's Jose Santiago after an error by shortstop Rico Petrocelli opened the gates in the eighth.

Petrocelli batted Red Carew's leadoff grounder and Rich Reese sacrificed. Carew took third as Harmon Killebrew grounded to third baseman Joe Foy and then scored the game's only run on Oliva's bouncing single up the middle.

After Foy threw out Killebrew, Red Sox Manager Dick Williams protested vehemently that Carew had run out of the base line to avoid Foy's tag attempt. Williams was ejected from the game and Oliva then came through with the winning single, only the fifth hit of Santiago.

The Red Sox blew a scoring chance in the sixth when Reggie Smith lined a one-out single and Petrocelli walked. Ken Harrelson fouled to Killebrew near the first base dugout and Smith tagged up and reached third after the catch. But Kaat lanned George Scott to end the inning.

World 600 Is Stated Today

CHARLOTTE (AP) — The longest and second richest race for stock cars, the 10th annual World 600, will be run here Sunday and if predictions hold true a crowd of 80,000 will sit under a blazing sun to watch it.

The $12,000 in prize and accessory money is second only to the payoff in the FEBRUARY Daytona 500 among NASCAR's premier distance events. The winner will be paid about $26,000 but even the 44th finisher can count on at least $1,000.

The starting field is the fastest ever assembled on any track of one and one-half miles in length. The first 20 cars in the lineup averaged 153.895 miles per hour, only a mile per hour short of the Charlotte Motor Speedway's old four-lap qualifying mark of 154.877 m.p.h.

The drivers will contest over a paved and highly-banked trioval that accommodates 50,022 spectators in permanent seats, with space for another 30,000 to 35,000 with their vehicles in the infield.

Ford's Donnie Allison, rookie of the year in NASCAR in 1967, and Mercury's Lee Roy Yarborough, the top qualifier, will occupy the front row at the 12:30 p.m. (EDT) start. Allison, in winning the pole spot, became the first driver ever to eclipse 160 m.p.h. at a track this size. He had a fast lap of 160.180 m.p.h. and a four-lap average of 159.222 on the first day of time trials Wednesday.

Best One Ever

Meredith Signs New Contract

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Don Meredith, veteran quarterback of the Dallas Cowboys who had been reported on the verge of retirement, signed a new, three-year contract Saturday with the National Football League club.

Club President Tex Schramm described the pact as "the best contract ever written for a Dallas Cowboy player." Terms were not disclosed.

"I am pleased and excited over the contract," said Meredith. "But I am even more excited about the coming season. We've been close twice now. But close isn't good enough."

Meredith twice has led the Cowboys to within seconds of the NFL championship. He pondered retirement briefly after the defeat by Green Bay in last season's NFL title game. The Cowboys' last two years won the Eastern Division championship.

Sul Ross went into the eighth inning nursing a 2-0 margin but home runs by New Mexico's Buddy Roberts, Bural Etheredge and Rolly Goulet had given New Mexico a 4-2 lead.

But in the bottom of the eighth Sul Ross came back with a single and Cornett's two-run blast to regain the lead and take the game.

Reliever Mark Farquhar stopped the Highlanders in the top of the ninth to safeguard the victory.

Sul Ross will defend the Southwest region in the NAIA playoffs at St. Joseph, Mo., June 3-7.

World 600 Is Stated Today

CHARLOTTE (AP) — The longest and second richest race for stock cars, the 10th annual World 600, will be run here Sunday and if predictions hold true a crowd of 80,000 will sit under a blazing sun to watch it.

The $12,000 in prize and accessory money is second only to the payoff in the FEBRUARY Daytona 500 among NASCAR's premier distance events. The winner will be paid about $26,000 but even the 44th finisher can count on at least $1,000.

The starting field is the fastest ever assembled on any track of one and one-half miles in length. The first 20 cars in the lineup averaged 153.895 miles per hour, only a mile per hour short of the Charlotte Motor Speedway's old four-lap qualifying mark of 154.877 m.p.h.

The drivers will contest over a paved and highly-banked trioval that accommodates 50,022 spectators in permanent seats, with space for another 30,000 to 35,000 with their vehicles in the infield.

Ford's Donnie Allison, rookie of the year in NASCAR in 1967, and Mercury's Lee Roy Yarborough, the top qualifier, will occupy the front row at the 12:30 p.m. (EDT) start. Allison, in winning the pole spot, became the first driver ever to eclipse 160 m.p.h. at a track this size. He had a fast lap of 160.180 m.p.h. and a four-lap average of 159.222 on the first day of time trials Wednesday.

Player Assigned

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians said Saturday 20-year-old Richard Sawyer, a right-handed pitcher from Bakersfield, Calif., has signed a contract and will be assigned to Reno in the California League.

If you're counting on a new VW you can stop at $1797.00

In fact, when it comes to money, a VW will save you a lot of coming after you buy it, too.
On gas bills, (it gets about 27 mpg.)
On tires, (They average 40,000 miles)
It hardly ever needs oil between changes.
And since the engine is air-cooled, never have to dish out to anti-freeze.
So if you don't like to count, buy a Volkswagen, it figures.

MECHANICS IS A MATTER of concern for women who know little about what makes a car operate properly. These members of the Independent Wives Club are Mrs. Donald E. Bippus, Mrs. E. M. Vetter and Mrs. James Moore, who find this to be one of their biggest problems while their husbands are overseas. Preparations are under way at Webb AFB to set up a class in automobile mechanics to teach the wives how to make minor repairs.

PLUMBING IS A PROBLEM for women who have handled nothing more complicated than a hammer, but these Independent Wives are learning

'Independent' Wives

By JO BRIGHT

It was at the suggestion of the Air Training Command, and with the cooperation of Webb Air Force Base, that the Independent Wives Club was formed in December of 1966. The membership is open to all military wives whose husbands are serving in another locality, whether it be in the United States or at an overseas base.

By banding together, these women who share common problems, have found a source of help in time of trouble, encouragement during days of waiting and companionship through hours of loneliness.

Mrs. Norman L. Newhouse of Family Services at Webb is the club sponsor. That department was instrumental in bringing the women together and continues to play an important role in guiding and assisting the group.

Current officers are Mrs. James L. Sasser, chairman; Mrs. B. K. Mainord, co-chairman and publicity; and Mrs. Keith Holler, secretary-treasurer. Although the rolls list many more, the active membership now is only 14 which includes three Army wives. Six are from Texas, and one is 10,000 miles from her family in Iceland. Collectively, the women have 40 children who are eager for the day their dad will come home.

No less eager, are the "independent" wives who are anxious to have their husbands return—and take their positions as the head of the household. Meanwhile, the club meets twice each month at the John H. Lees Service Club for programs, instruction and entertainment. The women bowl every Tuesday and devote time to several welfare projects.

Waiting is easier—when you wait together.

LETTERS ARE THE LIFELINE that keep service men and their families in touch, so Mrs. Preston Crickard pens regular newsy notes to her husband, T. Sgt. Preston L. Crickard, who plans to return home soon from his base in Thailand.

MOWER MUSCLE IS PROVIDED here by Mrs. Edward Dorsey, who demonstrates some of the chores that service wives must take over when their husbands are transferred to other localities. At right, Mrs. Keith E. Holler helps a friend with the job of trimming rose bushes.

STRATEGY SESSIONS are in order when it's baseball time and a fellow has to draft 'mom' as an unseasoned pitcher. At left, Mrs. Richard H.

Winegar and Gary, 4, plan the play that might win the game from Mrs. B. K. Mainord and Tony, 8, who take a whispered look at their own tactics.

Webb Wives' Coffee Hosted By Auxiliary

Wives of Air Force doctors, ranging from major to colonel, were entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hobbs. The affair was a low arrangement of magnolia blossoms graced the coffee table. During the social hour of getting acquainted, the group exchanged information on birthdays and holidays. Thirty-five auxiliary members, Mrs. Frank Dillon and Mrs. G. and guests attended.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held in September. The buffet was decorated with mixed spring flowers in an arrangement.

Metropolitan Opera Ball To Be Lavish

The color and excitement of a Spanish fiesta, with Carmen herself—a nine-foot tall 1968 version—and quantities of huge brightly colored paper flowers will make this year's Metropolitan Opera ball, "Soiree Dansante," one of the gayest ever. It will follow the performance of "Carmen," which begins at 7 p.m. on Friday, June 7, at the Music Hall in Dallas. The "Soiree" will be at the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel, and the black-tie event will include cocktails, dinner and dancing to the music of Mal Fitch, according to John Otis Cole of Big Spring, a member of the Southwestern Hospitality Board of the Metropolitan Opera Week in Dallas.

Tables of ten may be reserved—or smaller parties may ask to be placed with others to make a table. Those desiring

Also on the social calendar for Metropolitan Opera Week in Dallas is a "Face of Dallas" tour, leaving the Sheraton-Dallas Hotel at 10:30 a.m. Friday morning. Visits to the new shopping center, the Quadrangle, and to an art museum will be followed by a look at the unusual apartment of two interior decorators. A gourmet luncheon at the Brookhollow Golf Club, and an early afternoon visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Schepps completes the tour.

Philippines Native Tells Of Islands

Mrs. Deen Booth, a native of the Philippine Islands, was guest speaker at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the Altrusa Club at Coker's Restaurant. The program theme was "International Relations."

Mrs. Booth, currently an English teacher at Howard County Junior College, told of her life on the islands. She resided on the largest island, Luzon. She said that there were 7,000 islands in the Philippines; most of them rock.

Mrs. Booth noted that there are 87 languages spoken on the islands, although many people call them dialects. The national language is Tagalog, but most of the Philippine people are unable to speak or understand it. The speaker said that there is no middle class in the Philippines; that people are either very poor or extremely wealthy. She told of how eager the children are to go to school and how few are able to do so.

Mrs. Homer Petty presided, and 20 members attended.

Watch Big City Expenses!

Many a girl graduate will soon be off to meet the challenge of living and working in the big city. If you plan to be among them, one way of making sure you really enjoy your new independence is knowing in advance how to avoid money troubles.

To help you get the most for your first-earned money and keep you safely ahead of the bill collectors, here are some suggestions based on the experience of countless career gals who've successfully stormed the big city.

THE FIRST JOB. If you make the rounds of employment agencies, read each contract carefully so you'll know the exact job-finding fee. Some companies may pay a part of the entire agency fee so remember to ask about this at interviews. Before you turn down a lower-paying job, tally up the paid vacation time, insurance benefits and tuition refund plan. The job may actually pay more than one with a higher salary and few fringe benefits.

THE APARTMENT. No more than one week's salary after taxes should go for monthly rent, utilities and telephone. Because of high city rentals, many girls find it economical to share apartments and living expenses. Then all roommates should sign the apartment lease so each is legally responsible. Be sure there is a sublet clause so that, if necessary, the lease can be passed on to a suitable tenant.

If you must pay a month's rent in advance and an equal amount in security, pay your share by check to the landlord. When the lease expires, the cancelled check will show the exact amount you should be refunded. It's also a wise way to pay deposits, where necessary, for phone, gas and electricity.

Cancelled checks will also aid you in figuring income tax returns and an occasional review of checkbook stubs will help you eliminate unnecessary spending.

HOUSEHOLD EXPENSES. For apartment furnishings, search the Salvation Army, Goodwill Industries, thrift shops and hunt the auctions for money-saving buys. It is best to decide in advance which, if any, expenditures are to be shared.

Chipping in a few dollars a week seems to be the usual plan for food and household costs. Save by shopping the supermarkets and buying sale items in quantity. Leave the luxury items on the store shelves; the gourmet roommate should expect to pay extra if she can't do without caviar.

CREDIT COSTS. About to buy a television set? Before you charge any large purchase at a store, you should compare interest rates. Charging a TV and taking a year to pay can cost you 1 1/2 per cent per month on your unpaid monthly charge account balance — or possibly more than 18 per cent a year.

And when you charge additional small purchases, the unpaid monthly balance will rise and you'll be paying more in interest dollars. A small loan company may charge anywhere from 18 to 42 per cent annual interest if you take a year to repay. Interest rates are lower at the bank where you keep checking and savings accounts. Full-service banks nationwide charge only from 10 to 16 per cent annual interest for personal loans. With a steady job and a record of prompt bill payments, you might even get a personal loan on your signature alone.

CLOTHING. Shop the sales and select quality carefully. Buy only what you really need. An inexpensive sewing machine can save you a bundle in alterations and in simple summer dresses and beach creations.

EMERGENCY FUND. Experts say you should build a savings emergency fund of from three to six months salary after taxes. An easy way to save is to have both checking and savings accounts at the same bank. Then you can have a fixed amount automatically transferred each month from checking to savings where your dollars will earn interest.

VACATIONING. By keeping tabs on spending habits, you're likely to be in good financial shape when vacation time arrives. If you want to take a trip but don't want to dig into your savings, you might see about a low-cost vacation loan at your bank. Chances are you got a raise or two during the year, so your budget may be flexible enough for you to meet monthly loan repayments. Your savings will keep earning interest, and the start of your second year in the big city will see you ahead in putting your money to work.

Engaged

Mrs. John B. Simunovic of Big Spring is announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Shirley, to Sgt. Owen L. Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Williams of Grapevine. The couple plans to be married July 12 in the chapel at Webb Air Force Base with Chaplain John B. Darcy officiating.

Graduation Tea For Miss Lynda Welch

Girls of the TMR III Class in Special Education were hostesses at a tea on Friday afternoon in the Homemaking Room at Moss School honoring their only 1968 graduate, Miss Lynda Sue Welch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Welch of 603 Bucknell.

In the receiving line with Miss Welch and her mother were Mrs. Roscoe Newell, coordinator of Special Education, and Mrs. C. B. Underwood, teacher of the class. Presiding at the tea table were Miss Connie Sue Fauver and Miss Lupe Herrera. Miss Pamela Bennage registered guests. In charge of general arrangements were Miss Kay Jackson.

The tea table was covered with a beige linen cloth and featured an arrangement of miniature roses with crystal and silver appointments.

Other unusual arrangements in the room featured a polar bear standing on an iceberg in which real flowers were frozen, with heart-shaped ice floes encasing other flowers nearby; and in another setting a Polynesian grass house surrounded by sea shells and dancing girls. Linking the two settings was a verse expressing best wishes to the honoree.

Included on the guest list were approximately 175 people.

Graduation exercises for Miss Welch will be held Thursday morning, May 30, at 10 o'clock in the Moss cafeteria.

Wedding Solemnized On Saturday Evening

Miss Phoebe Ann Rice and 2nd Lt. Gail F. Tatum were united in marriage Saturday evening at the First Christian Church.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rice, 1739 Purdue, and Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Arnold of Fort Smith, Ark.

The Rev. John Beard read the double ring service as the couple stood before an altar graced with a large arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums flanked by twin candelabra entwined with greenery and holding cathedral tapers.

Mrs. Bob Simpson, organist, played traditional wedding selections and accompanied Miss Martha Ann Tatum of Lovington, N.M., as she sang "More," "Because" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in a formal gown designed with Empire bodice and A-line skirt. The slender silhouette was of imported Chantilly lace and bridal satin applied with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The dress featured a scalloped neckline and fitted sleeves that formed petal points over the wrists. Her veil of silk illusion was waist-length and fell from a tiara encrusted with seed pearls.

She carried a cascade of Frenched carnations centered with white orchids and stephanotis showered in white satin picot ribbon.

Miss Katherine Hepnor of Corpus Christi was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Terry Macklin of Midland and Miss Vicky Bidwell of Dallas, cousin of the bride. The attendants were attired in similar pastel lace dresses designed with A-line skirts and bell sleeves. They wore matching accessories and corsages.

Second Lt. Jimmy Don Alexander of Fort Hood was best man. Ushers were Charles F. Rice, Nederland; Ronnie Bidwell, Dallas; and 2nd Lt. Gary Rubus and 2nd Lt. Peter J. Sarada, both of Webb Air Force Base.

Jeryllyn Ross served as flower girl and wore a pink lace dress. Blake Rosson was ring bearer.

The couple left on a wedding trip to Lake Ouachita, Ark., and for traveling, Mrs. Tatum chose a toast linen tunic dress with matching accessories and the corsage from her bouquet.

The bridegroom graduated from North Side High School in Fort Smith, Ark., New Mexico Military Academy and the University of Arkansas. He is now serving in the Air Force at Webb AFB.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall where the receiving line included the bride couple, parents and feminine attendants.

The centerpiece was an arrangement of yellow pom-pom chrysanthemums and carnations, interspersed with greenery, in a crystal vase flanked by yellow tapers in silver candelabra. ## Fishing On Increase Among Gals

ROME (AP) — The little woman is getting some credit for helping make fishing one of the world's most popular outdoor sports.

A conference of European fisheries experts was told that a good many men go fishing to get away from their wives.

But in some countries, such as Sweden and the United States, the she is taking up the sport, too. The experts did not say what her reasons might be.

A meeting of the European Inland Fisheries Commission was held at the U.N. Food and Agriculture Organization last week to study problems of fishing, fish breeding and water pollution.

The experts were told that fishing for fun is no longer just a rich man's pastime. It is spreading to all classes, promoting health, recreation and economic development.

Ingemar Norling of Sweden told the conference that women were doing more fishing these days, particularly in Sweden and the United States.

But he quoted a report that in some countries, like the United Kingdom, fishing still is a man's sport. He cited one report that the British working man basically regarded fishing as "a useful way of getting away from the women."

Just the same, he noted, the British salmon record is held by a woman.

Fishing in the United Kingdom was described as twice as popular as golf or tennis and three times more popular than cycling. Two and a half million Britons fish.

In the United States 28 million anglers spent three billion dollars fishing for fun during 1965, the conference was told, and four times that many fishermen are expected by the year 2,000.

City HD Club Probes Crises In Family Life

"When Families Face Crises" was the topic of the program presented by Mrs. Grady McCrary, family life chairman of the City Home Demonstration Club at the Friday meeting. The group met in the home of Mrs. Frank Bordsoske, 705 W. 15th.

Mrs. McCrary defined a family crisis as "any act of a serious nature that arises causing the family to realize a definite change in the present pattern of living and that has no adequate solution."

She listed a number of these as death, serious illness, incapacitating injuries, financial reverses, divorce, the care and housing of an aged person, and children leaving home.

She offered solutions in the form of better planning for the future, acceptance of the unchangeable and fortitude in the face of adversity.

Mrs. Clyde Cantrell brought the devotion, and Mrs. A. W. Page gave the council report. Mrs. W. N. Norred was named nominee delegate to the state convention to be held in McAllen, Sept. 17-19.

The group will host a party at the Bennett House May 29. Mrs. G. Miller won the attendance prize, and the next meeting will be a luncheon in the home of Mrs. H. P. Wooten on June 14.

Thirteen attended.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Bake It In Mixing Bowl

Dear Heloise: You know those nests of round stainless steel mixing bowls with the flat bottoms? Well, let me tell you my latest brain storm for using them...

I stir up a box of cake mix and pour the batter into the largest and the smallest of the bowls.

After the two cakes have baked and cooled, I remove them from the bowls, frost the larger, then set the smaller one on top of the big one and ice it.

When I need a toothpick, all I do is turn the jar over and shake. The top allows two or three to come out at a time, but keeps them from all spilling or getting dirty.

Simple, yes? Mrs. Shirley Walker

Yes. But you were a smartie pie to think of it. No one else did... Heloise

Dear Heloise: This idea is for those who find their large cleansing tissue box empty at a crucial moment.

Carefully open the end of the empty box and insert a roll of toilet tissue, then tape or reglue the flap shut. Pull the end of the new tissue through the opening on top.

This idea may also be used in the sick room, as it hides the roll, keeps it clean, and it does not go skidding across the floor out of reach when it's needed.

Dear Heloise: Ladies' tennis or golf socks often slip off the heel and get wadded in the shoe.

Some you buy have pompons on the back at the top to prevent slipping. But I found that a small button sewed on plain ones (where the pompon usually is) does the job just as well... Dorothy Hanpeter

R WHAT A PHARMACIST MUST KNOW

You have often heard people say that all a pharmacist has to know when dispensing a prescription is how to count out the already prepared capsules or tablets. This is not true. Pharmacists are taught much more, while attending a college of pharmacy.

A pharmacist must know the art of compounding and how to store medicines to preserve potency. He must know the safe dosage of thousands of drugs. He must know their actions, uses, and precautions while taking them, and how to combine them safely with other drugs. And, he must use this knowledge to check the safety of every prescription he dispenses.

Nothing Stops The Border Brass

piano; Gene Snow, bass guitar; Tommy Rutledge, drums; Andy Wilson, first trumpet; David Crawford, trombone; and Carey Banks, guitar. David and Carey graduate.

Popular Coahoma Brass Has Played Busy Season

By JOE PICKLE

COAHOMA — Graduation is not going to break up that musical gang known as the Border Brass.

The popular young group which has played all over West Texas will lose one of its founders and its music man.

Find replacements? "No," kidded the others. "Replacements, never. Improvements, yes."

They will have a tough time coming up with successors to Carey Banks on guitar, one of the lads who teamed with Tim Whittington, to suggest a band patterned after Herb Alpert's famous seven, and for David Crawford, who is the "musician" of the crew (he plays trombone, drums, piano and m-rambo) and has handled what little arranging is required for their jam sessions. Come next autumn, however, the Border Brass will still be in business. Carey has taken a scholarship at Lubbock Christian College and David will go to Abilene Christian College on a music scholarship.

No count has been kept on the number of appearances the contingent has made this school year, but the total is probably around 75 or more. The boys could play almost every night, but parents exercise a restraining hand, confining concerts to the weekends unless it is a quickie close by. This busy schedule seemingly has had no adverse affect on their studies, for David and Tim both are in the National Honor Society.

Last year Carey and Tim got together with piano and guitar and spread the idea of a com- bo around the next day at school. Virtually all the band was enlisted immediately.

They bought some music and tackled six songs, the first target being the "Lonely Bull," a raucous piece that has become a fixture with them. Once they got started, however, they did not require arrangements. They more or less figured that out for themselves under the guiding hand of David, Andy Wilson, whose brightly colored blazer stands out against the costumes of the band, plays the melody on first trumpet, while Carey and Tim pick up the chords on guitar and piano. David chimes in on the trombone with counter melody, and Tommy Rutledge picks up the beat on the drums.

Marvin Wright, second trumpet, and Gene Snow, bass guitar, fall in place, and off the band goes by ear. They have a repertoire of about 100 songs—some 30 tunes in the action category.

One thing, practice doesn't bother them. In the first place it's fun. Once they get together things begin to happen and it's hard to shut them off. Usually, they confine rehearsals to the day before a playing engagement, but that doesn't mean they don't get together at the Wilsons' or other homes.

The band has played in Fort Worth, Haltom City, Lubbock, Foran, Midland, Abilene, Garden City, Ira, Sweetwater, Big Spring and other points. There is no fixed fee—members play this by ear, too.

"We try to get the best deal," explained Andy, "but we don't have anyone serving as business manager. Usually we get traveling expenses, meals, lodgings, etc., and maybe a little extra. Once we saved up $50 then blew it all in one lick when we went to Lubbock to hear Herb Alpert."

When they go on the road, at least one of the sets of parents goes along. Most of the time this is Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson, who have developed nerves of steel. If the engagement is in this area, several parents may go along. This includes Mrs. Mary Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Raleigh Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Wright, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Whittington, and Mr. and Mrs. James Banks.

End of school may slow the Border Brass just a trifle, but not for long. The first weekend in June, the musicians will take part in the Battle of Bands at Dallas, and then they will square off for a run at the Richardson City Teen Fair. Chances are that they'll keep twanging and tooting away at intervals so that when September comes they'll be ready with their gay jackets to hit the music trail, and Andy will be announcing that "this may not be pretty, but it's kinda loud."

Next Hurricane Christened Abby

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The first hurricane of the year, yet unspawned, was christened Abby. She isn't expected until after June 1 when the hurricane season officially begins, but the weather watchers at Miami's hurricane center decided they would be ready with her name and names for her 22 sisters.

Brenda and Candy will follow Abby. Then will come Dolly, Edna, Frances, Gladys and Hannah, which is as far as the names went last year as Heidi ended the hurricane season off the coast of Ireland.

Hard Pounding Moves Traffic

NEW HYDE PARK, N.Y. (AP) — The traffic light at an intersection in this Long Island community locked in a set position Thursday, showing red on all four sides.

Motorists halted. Horns honked. Traffic backed up in each direction.

After several minutes, a police patrol car sped up. An officer hopped out, walked up to a control box and gave it a good, hard pounding with the side of his fist.

The light changed, and traffic moved again.

Junior College To Graduate Record 78 Students Tuesday

Howard County Junior College will graduate 78 students with associate and applied arts degrees in ceremonies set for Tuesday at 8 p.m.

This is a record number for the college, which will be holding its 22nd annual commencement. This is by no means the total number completing their two years of study at the college, for to qualify for the degrees students must satisfy certain requirements in English and government as well as a full course.

Lt. Col. Robert T. Deming, wing chaplain at Webb AFB, will be the speaker for the graduating class. Mrs. Carl Bradley, accompanied by John Stanley at the organ, will sing Bach's "My Heart Ever Faithful," and Stanley will furnish the march music. Prayers will be said by Leslie Kelley and Martin Landers, faculty members. Ben F. Johnson, academic dean, will present the candidates, and Dr. W. A. Hunt, college president, will award the degrees.

Chaplain Deming came to Webb after a three-year tour in Athens, Greece. He has completed 13 years in the Air Force chaplaincy, having served at Forbes AFB, Kan.; Lakenheath, England; Youngstown, Ohio; and Selfridge AFB, Mich. He is a graduate of Princeton University and the Princeton Theological Seminary in New Jersey. As a young man, Col. Deming started out to be a chemical engineer, but wartime service as an Air Force navigator was a factor in his decision to prepare instead for the ministry. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church USA.

Candidates for degrees include: ASSOCIATE IN ARTS — John Riley Arrick, Patricia Ann Ball, Gail Jeanne Barling, Etha Jewell, Blankenship, David G. Bradford, Don M. Bradford, Susan Brandt, Geraldine Burchell, Maria Coldwell, David Donald Cass, Lute Cavallan, Vicki Ann Cole, Roy D. Collins Jr., James M. Crocker, Fannie May Drake, Jo Avaton Foris, Michael S. Faulkner, Robert L. Fink and Terry S. Fitch. Also, Larry R. Fournier, Betty Joyce Rankin, Roger Mack Frazier, Larry Glenn Goble, Rita Faye Grady, William D. Griffin, Donald J. Grunwald, Edwin Michael, Helen Frances Hernal and Rita Rave Herring.

Some people plant flowers in the spring

But then what does a flower have that a gas light doesn't? Flowers brighten up your yard. So does a gas light. After you install a gas light, it might be the first time you've seen your flowers at night.

Flowers come in different sizes and shapes. So do gas lights... designed to lend distinction to any landscape. Take your pick. If they're taken care of just right, flowers will bloom the whole season. A gas light blooms year 'round, and requires absolutely no care.

Flowers have a wonderful fragrance. You've got us there. A gas light doesn't have an odor at all. But we know you'll overlook that, since a gas light has so many other nice features.

New lower prices on the '68 models are in effect through July 31st. Prices start at $52.70 cash (includes installation and tax) or only $2.00 per month. Pretty inexpensive when you consider how many springs it will last.

Plant a gas light this spring. Buy a PATIO PAIR (One que grill) and save $26.00. Prices start at $168.70 (includes installation and tax) or $4.00 per month.

48 MEN HERE SPEND 2 1/2 HOURS WEEKLY IN PROGRAM

Fire Fighters Never Stop Training In Three Areas

By JERRY MONSON
Today's fireman does not just "put out a fire."

He is involved in a continuous educational process, which includes more things than knowing where the nearest fire hydrant is and how to connect the hose.

Here in Big Spring, there are 48 firemen on the city payroll—and during the past year the department completed a total of 5,412 man-hours in training. This means, roughly, that each man spent 2 1/2 hours per week in some phase of a training program.

The training program, under the direction of Hubert Clawson, battalion chief, is divided into three sections: drill tower practice, classroom drills and inspection practice.

The drill tower practice includes pump operation, ladder practice, hose advancement, rescue operations, hydraulic, smoke drill, fire streams and hose evolutions.

Classroom drills taught in the central fire station classroom feature methods of extinguishing a fire, salvage operations, forcible entry, rope work, ventilation, lectures and demonstrations, size-up and attack, pre-planning, streets and hydrants and training films.

Driver training, pumper hook-up and hose loads are included in the inspection practice.

Sound complicated? It's a big order, according to Clawson.

"Today's fireman must have a good, technical knowledge of the profession in order to be able to efficiently do his duties," Clawson says.

One of the most important phases of training—both to the public and to the fireman—is the annual building inspection, which is made of every commercial building. The main reason for the inspection is for firemen to be prepared to fight a fire in any particular building and to do as little damage fighting the fire as possible.

Each fireman must have a thorough knowledge of the construction, occupancy and contents of the different buildings in his district. After an inspection tour is made of the building, a diagram of the facility is prepared for study.

"This one detail is of great importance to the public," Clawson points out. "To the person trapped by fire or smoke, seconds are precious—and knowing the construction of the building will aid the firemen in making the rescue more quickly."

At Ninth and Owens 42-

foot high drill tower trains firemen in the most efficient method of advancing a hose above the ground. The first story is enclosed, while the three upper stories are simply framework.

The basement and first story of the drill tower are used in teaching firemen how to fight smoke. Smoke bombs are placed in the basement and the men must drive the smoke out with their hoses.

In pumping drills, the basement is utilized, for at times it is necessary to pump water into basements to put out a fire. Pumping water out after the fire has been extinguished will cut down on the damage caused by fighting the fire. Should too little pressure be used, firemen could not adequately fight either smoke or fire, but too much pressure would make it impossible for the firemen to hold the hose. Then, too, serious injuries could result from the heavy, moving hose, if the firemen were not able to keep the hose under control.

"Hold the ladder steady" may be a familiar cry, but it is also important in the training programs. Speed is necessary, and firemen are taught to use the ladder in a "church-raise"—that is, raising the ladder in a vertical position through the use of guideropes. This is used when it is necessary to reach ceilings in buildings where the ceilings are very high.

H. V. CROCKER

Fireman Since 1929

There's a lot you can say about H. V. Crocker, fire chief, and one of them is that he's been here forever.

Crocker began working for the City of Big Spring in December, 1929, which makes him one of the longest-employed city workers. A native of Lufkin, he attended schools there and later went to business college at Tyler.

After college, he went to work in Lufkin in his father's grocery store and later was employed by the City of Lufkin as a fireman, a position he held for three years.

When Lufkin City Manager V. R. Smitham became Big Spring city manager, Crocker shortly followed him to Big Spring. When he came, there was only one fireman—and a 1925 model truck.

"We worked nights—12 1/2 hours each—for a long time," Crocker recalls. "I was appointed as fire chief by Boyd McDaniel, city manager, in April, 1943."

This past April marked Crocker's 25th anniversary as fire chief.

Things have changed around the Big Spring Fire Department. The emphasis now is on scientific, pre-planned fire-fighting, Crocker points out, and today's firemen are better equipped to fight fires than were the firemen of years ago.

Crocker and his wife, Lona,

Blackburn, Dallas; and Mrs. Ann Miller, professor of physical education at Texas Technological College. There are three grandchildren.

A. D. MEADOR

Joined Force In 1938

There might not be anything glamorous about being city fire marshal but A. D. Meador, who has held that position since 1959, likes it.

Meador, a native of Big Spring, also serves as assistant fire chief. His duties include investigation, inspection and enforcement of fire laws in public buildings and retail stores, eliminating fire hazards when they are found, and reporting on fires to the State Board of Insurance at Austin.

Meador came to work for the City of Big Spring March 1, 1938, and was hired as a mechanic in the fire department.

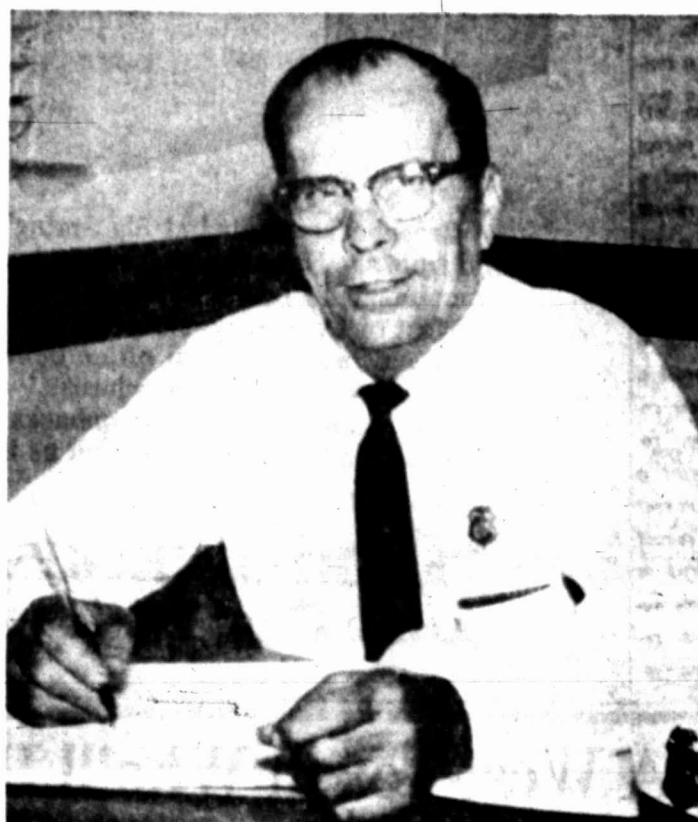

"I never got the chance to be a mechanic," he said. "The first thing they did was make me a fireman."

Whenever there is a fire, Meador has to be at the scene to inspect the damage and make estimates.

"When you've been doing it over a long period of time," he said, "your estimates become fairly accurate."

Then follow reams of paperwork which has to be detailed and specific, citing the damage to the house or building, the cause of the fire, and whether or not it could have been triggered by a potential fire hazard in the area.

Meador and his wife, Dorothy, live at 1102 Wood. They have two daughters, Mrs. Dor-

"I've had a good job working for the city," Meador says. "I have built a home, sent my kids to college, and have enjoyed the opportunities here."

HUBERT CLAWSON

TRAINING OFFICER FOR DEPARTMENT
Hubert Clawson is 27-year veteran

Hubert Clawson, a 27-year veteran of the Big Spring Fire Department, knows what it means to come up through the ranks.

Clawson started working for the department Feb. 15, 1942, at a time when there were seven firemen and two trucks—1925 and 1930 models.

"At that time, firemen did not have the training programs we have today," Clawson points out. "When we fought a fire, we might have caused half the damage ourselves, because we did not know how to fight fires scientifically."

Clawson, training officer for the fire department, teaches 27 subjects to new recruits over a six-month period. He began working for the department as a driver, and then, because of the personnel turnover during World War II, he was quickly promoted to a lieutenant, a position he held for 18 months. He was then promoted to captain.

Clawson became training officer in 1961.

A native of Brady, he was reared in Howard County and finished his schooling at Vincent. Before working for the fire department he was employed by the city water department and the Empire Southern Gas Co., where he stayed for 10 years.

He and his wife, Goldie, were married in Stanton in 1928. They have two daughters, Mrs. Shirley Ryals and Mrs. Wanda Phipps, both of Big Spring.

"I have enjoyed every day with the department," Clawson reflects. "We had a pretty rough time during 1966 with a personnel turnover, but with a substantial pay hike which the city approved later, we have had little turnover."

Four cases were set for trial in 118th District Court when the docket was called at 2 p. m. Friday, but the cases ranked first on the list appeared doubtful.

Earl Mays, et ux vs. Nell Rudd, a suit for damages, was set first, but Judge R. W. Caton said Friday that one of the attorneys indicated that there may be a conflict in schedules which will prevent the case from going to trial.

This would move Frigking Distributing Corp. vs. Herschel Eason, doing business as Eason Auto Parts, suit on debt, to first on the list.

That brings up the big question: should you move or remodel? New homes are tempting, and they often offer modern conveniences your older house doesn't have. Sometimes, however, there are strong reasons for staying where you are. You might not want the children to change schools. You may be in a location close to your place of work, to shopping, church and recreation. In such circumstances, remodeling may offer more advantages than moving.

Often we can help you answer that question about moving or remodeling. # NEW TOMORROW

If I had time tonight, I might be a bit frightened. But just now, there's time to feel only excited and happy. It's funny... when you're a little kid, it seems as if you go to school forever. Then all of a sudden, it's graduation night, and you know that this is an end and a beginning all at once.

Mom and Dad will be out in the audience, and so will Dan. He sent me these roses. Our minister will be out there too, and I hope he'll notice that the smile I send in his direction will be a particularly grateful one. How often I've gone to him with my childish troubles, only to have him treat them as seriously as if they were of world-shaking consequence. It was he who really taught me how to pray.

He taught me so many of God's lessons. And I am sure that throughout my lifetime I'll be learning them anew and repeating them over and over again. How wonderful to realize that this commencement, this end of an era, is really the beginning of a new tomorrow.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The 'Pawing' Husband

DEAR ABBY: What does a woman do when her husband won't keep his hands off her in public? Whenever George (not his real name) and I go out, he is forever slapping or pinching my behind, and he doesn't care who sees him. It is very embarrassing.

What can I do? Sign me A "PRISONER" DEAR "PRISONER": I don't know what your financial circumstances are, but there must be a way for you to leave your mother's bed and board and make a life of your own. You may have to make some material sacrifices, but it's preferable to being a prisoner. If you can't see this, at age 32, stay where you are. Your freedom might bring you more problems than your restrictions.

Also when we go visiting, he keeps at least one hand on or above my knee the entire time we are there. It has gotten so I am ashamed to visit our friends. When we go to a movie, it's just terrible I have to keep fighting him off soon as the lights go out because his hands begin to roam.

DEAR PERTURBED: Bad taste is no laughing matter, and your husband is exhibiting bad taste. Warn him beforehand that you will remove his roaming hands if he paws, pats or pinches you in public. Then, gently but firmly do so. I would not ordinarily advise a woman to deliberately sit beyond her husband's reach in public—but in your case I will make an exception.

DEAR ABBY: I've got a problem that beats all. I am 32 years old, divorced, with two children. My mother won't let me go out with men. She says it's disgraceful for a divorced woman to be seen with men. (My mother is a widow and I live with her.) I can't stay in the house 24 hours a day. I'll go mad! It has been like this for four years.

DEAR SECOND FIDDLE: Regardless of who "deserves" him, the other girl has him, so

Funnyman Sellers Has New Comedy

PETER SELLERS

CLAUDINE LONGET

In an industry noted for its unpredictable characters, funnyman Peter Sellers, whose latest comedy venture "The Party" opens Sunday at the Ritz Theatre, remains the screen's most complex star.

The new film, which is the first reunion of the Screen's Number One Funnyman with Producer Blake Edwards since their epochal laugh provokers "The Pink Panther" and "A Shot in the Dark," is in Panavision and Color by DeLuxe.

At 41 Sellers is rich, famous and has been called the greatest thing to hit the screen since Chaplin. Yet he has grave doubts about himself.

"Despite his success," says a Hollywood figure who has worked close to him, "he has a deep sense of insecurity. He's constantly seeking reassurances about himself."

To which Sellers, who as often as not plays several roles in the same picture, adds "I'm not sure who Peter Sellers really is. I sometimes wonder if I exist at all."

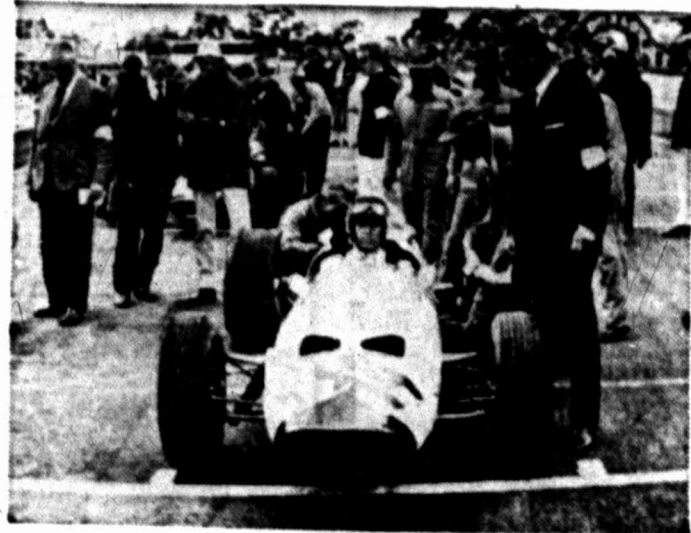

"When I see myself on the screen," he continues, "everything seems so bloody awful that I want to pack it in for good. I just never seem able to achieve what I want."

The public, however, has a decidedly different opinion of his work. This public first met him in the now-famous "The Mouse That Roared," and turned out in droves to see him in "I'm Alright, Jack" and "The Waltz of the Toreadors." He achieved the international fame he shows no signs of relinquishing in "The Pink Panther," "A Shot in the Dark," "Dr. Strangelove," "What's New, Pussycat?" "After the Fox" and "Casino Royale." His most recent film was "The Bobo," which also featured his lovely wife Britt Ekland.

"The Party" is the many-voiced, many-faced performer's first film in Hollywood which lampoons, but not his first in America. His "The World of Henry Orient" was that famous first but it was lensed in New York.

Co-starred with him in "The Party" is Claudine Longet, whose return to the large screen this opus marks. Mrs. Andy Williams in real life, she has been impressing widely on television lately and her LP album "Claudine" has been a best seller. She sings a new tune in the Sellers comedy which was written by Henry Mancini, winner of three Academy awards, who was in charge of the film's melody, in collaboration with Don Black whose music for "Born Free" won him the Oscar last year. Mancini was also responsible for the music in the Sellers-Edwards hits "Pink Panther" and "Shot in the Dark."

Racing Buff Garner Stars In Film On 'Grand Prix'

Celebrating some seven years since last dismounting his horse on television's "Maverick," James Garner employed more sophisticated transportation—a Formula 1 racing car—in the world's champion driving contests filmed in Europe for "Grand Prix."

Although Garner was completely at home in the low-slung racers at speeds approaching 150 m.p.h., the fact is that before being cast he had seen only one Grand Prix race in his life. However, the actor has been a sports-car buff for some time.

In "Grand Prix," whose story concentrates on four rival drivers, Garner did his own piloting of the Formula 1 car in which he is seen in the contests. His preparation entailed several weeks of study at Carroll Shelby's School in California and Jim Russell's in England, and he also received personal instruction from Bob Bondurant, one of America's few top-flight Grand Prix drivers.

A very deliberate man, Garner studied the day's driving course along with the day's lines of dialogue. Asked about his concern for his personal safety, he shrugged, "You don't worry about that. The main thing is to concentrate on the driving. If you think about the cameras, you're lost."

Many of the world's most famous Grand Prix racers appear in the picture, and Garner spent much of his free time sitting with them and absorbing the talk of motor racing. "They're a different breed of men, racing drivers," he declares. "And they taught me one thing when I get behind the wheel. You can't let your mind wander, not for a fraction of a second."

Out of his experience in the filming of "Grand Prix," the star has come to this conclusion: "I don't think 99 per cent of the people on the road know how to drive properly. It's a bit frightening to discover my own and everybody else's inadequacies so vividly."

Garner believes in so-called "defensive" driving. When he returned to California on completion of the picture, he bought a high-powered sports car. "I did it so that I could get out of the way of the other cars," he explained.

Although a buff, he insists that he hasn't caught the "driving bug." He says, "I'm content to stick with my golf. I can't afford to let myself get stuck on race-driving. Besides, I feel a responsibility to be careful."

'THE GOOD, THE BAD, THE UGLY'
Eli Wallach and Clint Eastwood

Van Cleef Has A Long History Of Being Killed

Ever since Gary Cooper gunned him down in "High Noon," Lee Van Cleef has been trying to get even. One of the screen's best bad-guys, he currently co-stars with Clint Eastwood in "The Good, the Bad and the Ugly," opening in Technicolor and Techniscope Wednesday at the Jet Theatre. The picture also stars Eli Wallach in the role of Tuco.

Van Cleef, who was also gunned by Gregory Peck in "The Bravados," just can't seem to live all the way through his movies and spends most of his on-camera time shooting all the other actors — apparently figuring that if he isn't going to make it, nobody else will! "The Good, the Bad and the Ugly" is the second in which he costars with Clint Eastwood. He has a theory about that, too.

"The only reason they brought me back for this one," he jokes, "is that they forgot to kill me in 'For a Few Dollars More.'"

Van Cleef's luck has run out over and over again. His films include "The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance," "How the West Was Won," "Tribute to a Bad Man," "Arrow in the Dust," "Yellow Tomahawk" and "The Vanishing American"—and his sturdy 6-foot-2-inch frame has fallen into the TV dust on both "Branded" and "Rawhide."

Fang Girls Chasing Bond

Ever since Ursula Andress, one of the world's most beautiful women, achieved instant stardom by emerging from the sea clad in the briefest of bikinis in an early vintage James Bond film, other beautiful girls have leapt at the chance to duplicate her surge to screen success.

Ursula like her previous James Bond association so well she is one of the 17 international stars now in the biggest James Bond 007 entertainment extravaganza of the year all, "Casino Royale," release at the Jet Theatre in Panavision and Technicolor. Appearing with Ursula also are some 200 beautiful Bond-chasing women including such other stars as Joanna Pettet, Daliah Lavi and Barbara Bouchet.

The girls in "Casino Royale" come from such varied countries as United States, India, Canada, Australia, Ghana and the British Isles.

The leader of the Fang girls in "Casino Royale" is Tracy Reed who, several years ago, made considerable impact with her performance in "Dr. Strangelove." Peter Sellers, who played multiple roles in that film, now plays multiple roles as one of the James Bonds in "Casino Royale."

Get Expert Help Before Skin Diving

Water recreation is fun but the YMCA reminds that swimmers cannot be too cautious. Learning to swim is the first step in enjoying underwater water sports, according to Curt Mullins, Y general secretary, and he emphasizes the Y's water safety program.

"Don't plunge underwater unless you're a good swimmer," Mullins said, "and check with your physician to see if you're in shape. Not everyone is fit for skin or scuba diving." Mullins reminds divers to obtain both expert training and proper, approved equipment before they make their first attempt at diving.

A book recommended by the Y is "The New Science of Skin and Scuba Diving" (Associated Press, N.Y., 208 pp., $3.95), developed by the Conference for National Cooperation in Aquatics.

A scuba outfit ranges from $75 to $750. Mullins said, and consists of a tank of compressed air strapped to the back, an air hose, face mask and flippers. Experienced scuba divers frequently wear a rubber "wet suit" to protect the body against the extreme cold of deep water.

Mullins believes that skin diving, because it requires less equipment and training, is more popular. "But skin divers ease themselves into the water — they don't dive in," he said. "For diving with so much equipment could be very dangerous."

"To keep the fun in summer sports, remember that you have to play it safe. When you go by the rules you can enjoy the body - and - health building aspects of underwater fun even more."
