

Feathery Fashions

Feathers Will Accent Milady's Fall Clothes

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON
AP Fashion Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Feathers may be for the birds, but they are also for those with nest eggs plump enough for the likes of high fashion designer Donald Brooks and Pauline Trigere.

Although they do not flock together, the feathers of ostriches, cocks, pheasants and storks are due to flutter everywhere in a woman's wardrobe that may tickle her fancy.

This lesson in ornithology was a part of a week-long series of fall collection previews, American Designer Series, which ends today.

Cock feathers, beige, speckled or white ostrich fronds, sometimes glistening with jeweled drops were used as sleeves, skirts, ruffs, cuffs and borders. Some had bodices of matching velvet. Others glowed with iridescent sequins.

Instead of fur, Pauline Trigere preferred to line coats with marabou. The bristling boas by the mile bounced around other costumes. A gilet for bare bosoms was another ticklish fashion situation created by Trigere. Just as Brooks used feathers as fabric, Trigere treated leather as if it were woven by the yard. From it she fashioned bodices for gray flannel skirts which matched glove-like leather boots. Leather sleeves, leather for formal wear were more uses.

TOPS Club Has New Members

Three new members were welcomed by the TOPS Pounds Rebels at the Tuesday meeting in the YMCA.

New members were Mrs. Doyle Bussell, Mrs. Billy Gage and Mrs. Charles Williams. Mrs. Henry Stewart presided, and Mrs. Henry Adkison was given a free hair style for a six-weeks consecutive weight loss. Mrs. Al Scott won the attendance prize.

The June queen will be crowned at the next week's meeting, and the six-month's queen will be announced. Secret pals will be revealed.

New Slate Installed At Luncheon

Mrs. Preach Marjin installed the new officers at the buffet luncheon meeting Tuesday of the Homemaker's Class of the First Christian Church. Mrs. J. T. Allen, 114 Lincoln was hostess, and Mrs. George Hall was cohostess.

The new officers are Mrs. W. W. Grant, president; Mrs. C. A. Muddock, vice president; Mrs. Beulah Morrison, second vice president; Mrs. Tom Rosson secretary; Mrs. M. C. Lawrence, reporter; and Mrs. O. G. Burns, teacher; and Mrs. John Beard, assistant teacher.

Sachet bags were used as place cards, and guests were seated at quartet tables decorated with arrangements of summer flowers.

Cards were mailed to the sick by the 20 members attending.

Protect Doorknobs

You can find foam rubber cushions for doorknobs at notions departments. They prevent the knob from damaging walls or furniture when the door flings open.

Host Buffet At Webb AFB

For their first entertainment fair, Mrs. McGlothlin chose a white printed chiffon with scooped neckline and deep bertha. The empire waistline was covered with a blue satin belt.

The refreshment table was centered with an arrangement of red carnations and white chrysanthemums. Hors d'oeuvres were served on silver trays and punch from silver bowls which were at either end of the long table. Silver candleabra holding white tapers completed the table decor.

ABWA Board Names Chairmen

Committees and committee chairmen were appointed for the year at the executive board meeting of the Cactus Chapter, American Business Women's Association. The group met in the home of Mrs. Boone Horne, 1604 Indian Hills. The hostess presided and expressed appreciation for assistance received on the rodeo parade float. The next meeting will be at 7:30 p.m. July 15 at the Silver Star Restaurant.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Use Dishwasher For Freezer Preparation

Dear Heloise:

For the past four years, I have prepared corn-on-the-cob for freezing by running a bushel at a time in my dishwasher (no detergent). After the ears are shucked and cleaned, I stack them against the dish racks and along the glass racks, so the water can reach each ear.

Heloise: The number of hot water cycles needed to blanch them depends on the size of the corn. I stop the washer and take them out before the drying cycle starts.

As soon as they are finished, I put them in ice water and then in plastic bags for freezing. Dorothy Colletti

Dear Heloise: Our sister's barrettes were always being mislaid. We finally came up with a great idea! We took a small board, painted it to match her room and drove a dozen or so large I-shaped brads part way in. Now she just slips the clasp part of each barrette through a brad and they hang there neat and orderly. The Unholy Three.

Dear Heloise: I run a shoe repair shop and this is the way we solve the problem of squeaky shoes. Take them to a shoe repair shop and have them remove the sole or heel (depending on where the squeak is), cement a piece of cloth between the two and the answer all on one

Dear Heloise: When answering a letter that was written on 8 1/2" x 11" paper, turn the letter over and use the back for your carbon copy. Then you have the original letter and the answer all on one pieces of leather—so as to stop the binding of the two pieces—then reattach the sole or heel. Shoe Service.

Well, I'll be! You are the greatest. Heloise

LETTER OF THOUGHT

Dear Heloise: Why do sheets have to have a small hem on one end and a large hem on the other? With the same size hems at both ends, it seems to me the wear would be more even and we wouldn't have the idea we had the bottom of the sheet at the top of the bed. Mrs. R. Kelley

Dear Heloise: I make toasted bread cups instead of patty shells. It's easier and less expensive. I cut the crusts off soft white bread. Butter both sides of the slices and stuff them into muffin tins. Then bake at 400 degrees for 10 minutes. Absolutely delicious with creamed chicken or chipped beef. Mrs. H. Helgersen.

The couple will marry July 19 at the Highway 80 Church of Christ. Bill Gipson, minister, will serve as officiating minister.

WMS Hears Last Of Mission Book

The Woman's Missionary Society of Phillips Memorial Baptist Church met Tuesday at the church for the conclusion of the mission study book, "The Chains Are Strong." Mrs. Todd Roberts worded the opening prayer, and a nominating committee was appointed. Mrs. Charles Mangum gave the benediction. Eleven attended.

A LOVELIER YOU

Buy Handsome Coat For Rainy Weather

By MARY SUE MILLER are rich, and patterns take to it as Noah said, "It's going to rain." And much like the florals, twosomes that boarded the ark. Styling is handsome. Very of the girls boarding the bus are ten you can't tell a raincoat likely to look exactly alike in from a fair weather job without their rain gear. Enough of it! The hang tag. And what a boon. Fashions for rainy days offer it is for the business contingent so much variety—individuality, and the traveler. Most anyone, distinction and charm—that really!

The newsy shapes have more unnecessary. Almost every fabric is now treated to repel rain. Capes and stain. The finest linens, silks and feather-light wool jerseys have joined cottons, synthetics and blends for wear in summer showers. Solid colors

When let it rain. A LOVELIER YOU. To achieve total attractiveness send for my booklet, "Secrets of A Lovelier You." It contains easy ways to reduce weight and proportions; to overcome grooming problems, such as fuz, freckles and blemishes; to move with grace and poise. For your copy write to Mary Sue Miller in care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin.

TORNADO SIRENS RARELY SOUNDED

Warning Systems Not Adequate

By DON REEDER Associated Press Writer KANSAS CITY (AP) — Only one out of every 10 towns in the U.S. tornado belt has an adequate warning system, says Allen Pearson, director of the Weather Bureau's National Severe Storms Forecast Center.

with the fire department and they will be sounded in case of tornadoes until a new city hall with tornado siren is erected. Pearson and his Weather Bureau companies emphasize all they can do is warn residents of themselves.

Pearson advocates that every community set up a Civil Defense group or similar organization of volunteers to act as tornado spotters when alerted by the Weather Bureau. Sirens are all right, he said.

but uneven topography often prevents the sound from reaching all parts of town. He suggests radio and television stations—the prime means of communicating storm warnings—install Weather Bureau news printers.

The winds killed 45 persons in northeastern Arkansas and 16 in northeastern Iowa, with property damage estimated at more than $45 million. Pearson reported that on May 15 his office issued 11 tornado watches—alerts disseminated to news media, Civil Defense officials and others that conditions were right for twisters to develop.

Antibiotics May Be Denied Food-Producing Animals

WASHINGTON (AP)—A steak charcoaled to perfection in a backyard cookout possibly could be harmful if it came from a steer treated with massive doses of antibiotics, says the Food and Drug Administration. "If residues of antibiotics exist in meat, we have to assume they are harmful unless proved otherwise," an FDA spokesman said.

FDA are not clear on at least one point: What exactly is a "meat animal" and would the antibiotics be allowed for breeding stock? "As it stands now, the use of these injections would be prohibited on food-producing animals," the FDA spokesman said. "We aren't able to say yet how long before slaughter an animal could receive dosages."

The ideal method, said Pearson, is the Emergency Broadcast System, EBS in which radio stations transmit a special signal that automatically turns on radio sets to broadcast warnings. EBS radios are installed in the principal's office of every school in Kansas City, the meteorologist said.

Lost Part Of Leg, But Wants Back On Force

ST. LOUIS (AP) — When Hubert Bankhead walks before the St. Louis police board next week he hopes to convince them that just because a guy lost part of his leg in Vietnam is no reason he can't once again be a police detective. He was promoted to detective in his first year but was called back into military service in 1963 because of his special training in code analysis.

As commander of a Special Forces team he performed classified missions in Vietnam he cannot discuss. Then he became a pilot, flew 27 photo-reconnaissance missions and was shot down four times. The last time was over North Vietnam with a copilot and two civilians aboard. Landing just south of the demilitarized zone, Bankhead suffered a crushed right leg. It was during the Tet offensive and the men had to wait 36 hours in the jungle before being picked up by a helicopter. The right leg had to be amputated below the knee.

Treated, Released

Justice Comments On 'Warren Years'

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Retiring Chief Justice Earl Warren says he would like the 15 "Warren years" of the U.S. Supreme Court recorded "as an honest effort to meet the problems of our day." The 77-year-old jurist reflected on his term as chief justice during an interview on radio and television Thursday and commented.

Pledges Vigorous Office If Elected

BISMARCK, N.D. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey denied today that he is a "status quo" candidate and pledged a vigorous presidency dedicated to "the achievement of both social order and social justice."

"I do not seek the presidency to preserve anybody's status quo," Humphrey said, responding to the contention by supporters of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy that the vice president's support from old-line Democratic politicians reflects a dedication to the so-called "old politics."

HUBERT H. HUMPHREY

"I seek the presidency to put it to work for the people—and work I will," Humphrey said in a speech prepared for the North Dakota Democratic Convention.

A late schedule change gave Humphrey the chance to get in last night's McCarthy due to speak to the convention some three hours earlier. A poll of announced intention of decentralizing some presidential powers.

And he said the peace he seeks is not "the peace of silence, or the peace of emptiness or the peace of just not doing anything for eight years."

"We had enough of that in the 1950s," he said.

Saying there is a need "to assure the homeowner and landowner that he will not be crushed by higher and higher property and state and national taxes," he said, "one of the major projects in a new Humphrey administration will be a complete study of the nation's tax laws, with the intent of achieving greater equity in the taxes which each citizen pays."

Most Democratic party leaders in the state, led by three-term Gov. William L. Guy, are backing Humphrey and he is expected to win a majority of the delegates.

The vice president flies here in late morning from Minneapolis after a day of meetings and relaxation at his Waverly, Minn., home. He then goes on to Democratic conventions Saturday in Oklahoma and Iowa.

Humphrey's speech here was composed mainly of a variety of pledges, designed to fire the party faithful, for such things as tax reform, extension of medical benefits, feeding the poor and revitalizing rural America.

It also contained a couple of slaps at McCarthy and the Republican record during the presidency of Dwight D. Eisenhower.

"I do not seek the presidency to let its powers lie useless," Humphrey said, a contrast to his view of the need for an active presidency with McCarthy's

Trained Police Dog Takes On Snake

HILLSBORO, Mo. (AP) — Smokey, a dog trained for police work, knocked down his 13-year-old master Thursday and went forward to battle a copperhead snake.

Morie Myers, son of Jefferson County deputy sheriff William Myers, was romping through a berry patch at his home near Hillsboro when the 6-year-old German shepherd suddenly leaped against the boy.

Several feet ahead lay the snake and Smokey tangled with it. By the time Morie could get his dog away from the snake, Smokey had suffered a bite.

Smokey's leg swelled to twice its normal size but a veterinarian said he would recover.

Strikers Take Wage Offer

TORONTO (AP) — Pickup of more than 50,000 tons of accumulated garbage began today after a strike by 3,700 outside workers ended.

Members of the Canadian Union of Public Employees voted Thursday night 1,062-724 to accept wage proposals essentially the same as the government offered before the strike began a week ago.

The workers originally asked for a 50 per cent increase in the basic wage of $2.61 an hour for laborers. Prior to the strike they scaled down their demands to 20 per cent. They accepted a 15 per cent increase, 10 per cent retroactive to Dec. 31 and an additional five per cent on Dec. 31, 1968. The settlement will raise the hourly rate to $3 on Jan. 1.

Sees McCarthy's Trip As A Jeopardy To Peace Talks

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon says pre-convention differences among Republicans are "infinitesimal" and ripped into both possible Democratic nominees for the November presidential race.

The former vice president struck out at Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's plans for a trip to Paris saying the Minnesota Democrat may jeopardize the Vietnam peace talks.

"I think when you're negotiating—especially the kind we face in Paris—it's best that people not pry to what's going on stay out of it," Nixon said. "By talking over the heads of negotiators, you may give them (North Vietnamese) an excuse for breaking off negotiations or delaying negotiations."

Nixon said Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey could not run a winning campaign on the record of the Johnson administration and that Humphrey would be ineffective in reconciling differences within the Democratic party.

RICHARD NIXON

"There is no way the deep

Democratic division can be healed," Nixon said.

He acknowledged Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Ronald Reagan of California had support within the party, but said the differences among Republicans were "infinitesimal" and "After we have met at Miami, Beach next August, our party will be united."

Nixon's remarks came at an airport news conference and an informal talk to Florida's 34-member delegation to the Republican nominating convention.

State GOP Chairman William Murfin of Hobe Sound, a long-avowed Nixon supporter, estimated 85 per cent of the delegation would back the former vice president.

Viet War Dead Includes Texans

WASHINGTON (AP) — The latest Defense Department casualty list includes the names of 17 men killed in action.

The list includes:

ARMY

Texas — Sgt. George D. Schilling, husband of Mrs. Patricia F. Schilling, 1321 Ben Hur St., Houston.

AIR FORCE

Texas — Major Robert F. Woods, husband of Mrs. Mary G. Woods, 204 Carswell Main, Waco.

Youths Throw Guns Away

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP) — Two Texas youths arrested here said they threw stolen guns along the highways between Joplin and Fort Stockton, Tex., police reported.

Officers Thursday found two .38 caliber revolvers in their car, part of 20 guns stolen at Fort Stockton, a detective said. Four other guns were fished out of a nearby lake.

Police identified the young Texans as Michael Ellison, 18, of Fort Stockton and John Van Vokenburg, 19, of Dallas.

They were held for investigation of armed robbery of an elderly man who lost $2 in the holdup.

Chief of Detectives Walter Flenner said both federal and Texas authorities had filed detainers on the pair. He quoted them as saying they threw the other guns from the car as they drove to Joplin.

Smoking Bandit Robs Food Shop

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A man walked into Lil's Food Shop in St. Louis Wednesday night and said: "Light the cigarette in my mouth and give me the money out of the cash register."

Mrs. Mable McLaughlin, 50, the clerk, said the man pointed a revolver at her while she lit his cigarette. She then gave him $26 and he fled.

ANGER, BUT LITTLE LIGHT Static Hour Of Talk

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — ABC's six special programs examining racism began Thursday night with an hour called "Bias and the Mass Media." It turned out to be mostly a bitter monologue by Harry Belafonte blaming the white community for all the troubles in this troubled land, and no one on the program gave him any argument.

Television, like newspapers and radio, has reflected the vital concern and anxiety of the nation by current events, and the series, "A Time for Americans," is part of it. Belafonte's tirade, more a reflection of his emotions than his information, shed heat but little light on the subject of race relations.

It was one of those round-table discussions, currently a TV epidemic. Participants were newscaster Frank Reynolds, who made no attempt to steer the discussion of the all-Negro panel; Belafonte, actress Lena Horne, psychiatrist Alvin Poussaint and Larry Neal, described as an essayist, poet and critic.

Reynolds showed no inclination to control the speakers. But despite all the talk, no more was revealed than the well-known dissatisfaction and frustrations of some Negroes toward white America. And since this has been widely explored in the mass media, it added up to a static, frustrating hour of often misinformed angry talk.

Miss Horne did manage to describe briefly her unhappy experiences 25 years ago in the Hollywood studios, and Dr. Poussaint slipped in a few measured observations about the "white-controlled media." But it was Belafonte's hour and he struck out in all directions and stepped on everyone else's lines.

He accused television of being concerned only with profits (the hour show's commercials consisted of promotions for ABC programs, indicating no sponsors had been turned up). He called for Negro writers, actors and directors in television; he offered his own analysis of the white man's psychology; he blamed every recent disorder on "some act of bestiality by the white world."

With this column, Constant Viewer departs for a holiday from television. The space will be filled in the interim by guest columns written by friends in the industry. It will be resumed shortly from Hollywood, where next season's programs are now under construction.

Cracking Safes Tough Business

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Lowell Craddock's tough little safe weighs only 200 pounds. With a hammer and chisel safecrackers who carted it from Chappell Sanatorium tried to open it and finally abandoned it.

After the safe was discovered in a Las Vegas, Nev., alley a locksmith opened it in three minutes and out spilled $15,343 in cash.

It's Not Exactly Escape-Proof!

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES, N.M. (AP) — City Manager Gene Foetz says improvements need to be made at the city's dog pound to prevent "depoument" of canines caught by the dog catcher.

Goetz told the City Commission that dog owners had retrieved 41 of their pets by reaching over the pound's fence.

GUNFIRE KILLED 842 IN STATE LAST YEAR

Texans Divided On Need For Gun Laws

Editor's Note: One of the major controversies in the United States today swirls about guns — their sale, their control and their use. To examine the feeling about the issue in Texas, where the Kentucky issue rife, the Winchester and the Call helped push back the frontier — The Associated Press conducted an extensive survey.

By TOM JOHNSON
Associated Press Writer

If the British people shot each other to death at the same rate as the people in Dallas do, there would have been 5,700 homicides by firearms in Great Britain last year.

As it was, though, Britain recorded only 35. It has a population of 54 million.

Dallas recorded 107 gun deaths. It has a population of almost a million.

The assassinations of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy have set off a controversy, in Texas as well as the rest of the nation, about the accessibility of firearms.

Some people want tight restrictions on the sale of guns, and registration of their possession. Others want to leave the law as it is.

"The statistics are overwhelming and the results are unacceptable in a civilized society," the San Antonio News said in an editorial. "Too many guns in the hands of too many people who use them against other people."

President Johnson recently asked Congress to prohibit the mail order sale of both handguns (pistols) and rifles and shotguns. He also asked for restrictions pertaining to who could buy a gun.

The Houston Chronicle commented favorably:

"We do favor a federal law which would prohibit mail order sale of handguns, shotguns or rifles. We also favor a law that would prohibit over-the-counter sale of such arms to a juvenile, a psychopath or a known criminal."

"We do favor passage of legislation at the state level to crack down on known criminals or drug-users who carry firearms and on anyone who carries a weapon into a beer tavern, where so many Houston murders occur," the Chronicle said.

But the owner of a Harlingen gun and sporting goods store said the proposed gun legislation is the result of "mass hysteria."

Bob Youker went on: "Automobiles are registered, but that doesn't stop them from killing people."

He said gun legislation would hinder sportsmen and cause economic losses to the Lower Rio Grande Valley, a hunting haven.

"There are not enough personnel in the world to handle all the paperwork" that would be involved in gun registration, Youker said.

But a Waco gun seller and sporting goods store owner, Leo Bradshaw Jr., gave qualified approval to the proposed legislation.

"I'm 100 per cent in favor of some good, constructive legislation," Bradshaw said. "I think the first thing they should do is take a look at the laws on the books and enforce them."

Bradshaw said he would support a law prohibiting mail-order sales of pistols. But he would be against such restrictions on long guns.

D.T. Thrasher, sporting goods manager at Gibson's Discount Store in Waco, summoned his feelings up this way:

"We will not stop selling firearms and ammunition unless it's forced on us."

But at least part of the controversy is moot to the people of Wichita Falls, perhaps the only Texas metropolitan center already having a gun registration law.

Wichita Falls passed the ordinance in 1961, but Col. Dave Alford, director of the city's Department of Public Safety, is vague about its value.

The registration lists have been used in detective work and in the apprehension of criminals," he said.

"But as to its (the ordinance's) being a deterrent, I just couldn't say."

There are so many factors other than this," he said of the deterrent possibilities. He had no figures at hand on the number of gun homicides in the city.

Wichita Falls residents buying handguns must be fingerprinted on forms supplied by the police department. The buyer's vital statistics also are recorded, as are the serial number and description of the weapon. One copy goes into police files. The seller keeps the other for 12 months.

A proposed ordinance to control handgun sales failed Thursday in the San Antonio city council for lack of a second. The San Antonio measure would have prohibited the sale of handguns to the insane or mentally incompetent, those convicted of a felony or crime of moral turpitude and those with records as narcotic addicts.

San Antonio city attorney Howard Walker said he doubted that the proposed ordinance would have stood up in court tests.

Texas law says that gun dealers must keep records on pistol sales and send a copy of each transaction to the Department of Public Safety in Austin.

But some persons say the law is little enforced.

On the other hand, some gun dealers voluntarily keep accurate records.

Charles Davis, owner of Davis Hardware in Austin, says he has records dating back 21 years of every firearm he has sold. But he adds that the proposed registration of rifles and shotguns is "crazy."

"I can see it on pistols," Davis said.

He added that he does not sell firearms to persons under 21 and won't even sell BB guns to youngsters without their parents' permission.

Davis said his store sold two rifles to University of Texas sniper Charles Whitman, who killed 16 persons Aug. 1, 1966. But he says neither weapon was used by Whitman that day.

Apprehension on the part of some that proposed legislation might make it hard to buy a gun has apparently caused a run on firearms in Lubbock.

Some Lubbock gun dealers say they can't get enough weapons to keep up with demand. Pawn shops owners say many guns they made loans on have quickly been redeemed.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram commenting on the President's proposal, said Congress should not pass any law which might lead to a general confiscation of arms.

"Congress should see to it that the language of any such legislation, whether strong or weak, is so specific that it cannot in any wise be misinterpreted, evaded or stretched," the Star-Telegram said.

Opposition to restrictions is taking various forms. The American Opinion Book Store in Amarillo, for example, is sponsoring a recorded telephone message against gun registration.

Department store officials have mixed feelings about the situation.

Sears Roebuck has adopted a new policy which stops all its advertising and promotion of guns as well as toy guns, warplanes, submarines and other military items. Sears has about 50 stores in Texas.

Montgomery Ward and Sears both announced they were restricting gun sales to persons over 21. All transactions must be in person.

But Maynard Warren, manager of the Kiddie City Toy Store in Austin, says toy guns should continue to be sold.

"It's crazy," Warren said of the curtailment. "We are not playing the Rex Allen role of hanging up our cap guns. How are you supposed to teach your children safety? Toys aren't teachers. It is just getting too communistic."

Gunfire killed 842 persons in Texas last year. Twenty persons were shot to death in the state in a seven-day period this summer.

It is ridiculous for Bexar County to tolerate as many slayings as many nations have," the San Antonio News said.

McAllen Man Dies In Car Accident

SWINK, Colo. (AP) — Glenn Dobbin, 68, of McAllen, Tex., died Thursday, apparently after blacking out as he drove his car which plunged into a drainage ditch.

The accident occurred on US 50 just east of the Swink city limits.

Anita Dobbin, 27, a passenger in the car, said Dobbin lost consciousness as he drove. She suffered a neck injury and a bump on the head.

The Colorado State Patrol said Dobbin had no visible injuries.

FROM SEA TO SHINING SEA

Fourth of July, and, from sea to shining sea, our flag flies proudly. Across the nation, school bands parade, fireworks splinter, and hometown newspapers carry full-page dissertations on what it means to be an American.

And I wonder. In these troubled days of dissension and White House pickets, what does it mean? Does it mean free speech without responsibility? Does it mean moral freedom that lacks integrity?

To be sure, an American today is a citizen in a changing world; but the things that count have not changed. Inalienable rights still require us to account for our deeds.

As our ancestors migrated across this vast continent, the Church moved with them. It taught integrity, responsibility, and a calm strength in the face of danger.

In today's world of unrest and contention, the Church remains steadfast. The principles it teaches still point the way for us to be a "nation with liberty and justice for all."

Eyes On The Leader

Vivienne Jacklin watches as her husband Tony signs autographs after shooting a five-under par 66 to take the first round lead Thursday in the $110,000 Cleveland Open Golf Tournament at the Lakewood Country Club. Jacklin, 23 and playing his second year on the American tour, held a three-stroke advantage over Robert De Vicenzo, Dave Stockton, Hideyo Sugimoto and Wayne Yates, all at 69.

Refreshed Jacklin Takes Links Lead

CLEVELAND (AP) — Tony said Thursday after taking a five-under par 66 to take the first round lead in the $110,000 Cleveland Open with a torrid five-under-par 66.

The young British golfer Jacklin figures only two failed to make the cut in last rounds of golf in the last two weeks of the Canadian Open and did weeks ago in stride not qualify for the U.S. Open again.

Gusty winds and temperatures in the 60s plagued most of overplayed myself. I only had the 14 golfers on the 6,742-yard two weeks off in the last six Lakewood Country Club courses, months," the 23-year-old pro but hardly bothered the popular Englishman.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue: Montreal scribe MARVIN MOSS, on why he thinks his city might have trouble in the National baseball league. "I can remember sitting in the stands during a pennant-winning year and counting 270 people. When we were dead last I counted 73 one night. Objectively, I would have placed a team in Dallas before I would have here. Honestly, I don't think they'll support a loser."

JOHN P. CARMICHAEL, Chicago Daily News: With the retirement of George Halas as head coach of the Chicago Bears, it might be pointed out that the Bears also have retired more uniform numbers than any other professional football team, including the No. 3 of Bronko Nagurski, the 5 of George McAfee, the 42 of Sid Luckman, the 56 of Bill Hewitt, the 66 of Bulldog Turner and the memorable 77 of Red Grange.

TOM LANDRY, coach of the Dallas Cowboys: "Minnesota's trade for quarterback Gary Cuzzo could be the biggest NFL deal of the off-season, possibly overshadowing the Detroit acquisition of Bill Munson. If they can protect Cuzzo, then he'll complete his passes. There's no question Gary is an accurate pocket passer."

CUZZO, discussing the same deal: "All I ask for is a chance to be No. 1. The Vikings have exceptional ability in the offensive line. They've been together for a long time. If Joe Kapp or Bob Berry beat me out, then I'm No. 2 quarterback again. But I want that chance. It should be easier for me than all New Orleans. At Baltimore, I think of Johnny Unitas throwing to Ray Berry or Jimmy Orr. There was no adjusting to do. They could anticipate each other. With New Orleans, we couldn't do that. We had a new man from all the different systems. I think Tom Fears did all he could with the club, but there were so many times we were just trying to find somebody to play a position there was little time for strategy."

Ex-hitting great STAN MUSIAL: "Pitchers today are so far ahead of the hitters scientifically. They keep such a thorough book on the hitters, and hitters haven't kept pace. They need to spend more time studying pitchers instead of swinging for the homer."

HERB CAEN, San Francisco newsman: "One reason that enthusiasm for a downtown stadium seems to be cooling off is the gnawing feeling—even at City Hall—that baseball is killing itself off by its lust for new locations (meaning even weaker teams). Next thing you know," as a wag put it, "they'll be offering a franchise to Resurrection City."

Golfing great ARNOLD PALMER: "If I were building my own ideal golf course, I wouldn't have any rough. All rough does is accentuate the strong player. I know. That's been my forte. But it isn't fair. I'd build a course so that a shot that strayed out of bounds would be certain to penalize even the tape-measure hitters. Rather than rough, he'd have to stand on timber, beginning where the fairway stops. On my course, you'd never be able to see more than one hole at a time. I'd also vary the length of par 4 holes in an effort to force players to use every club in their bags. I don't care who he is—Jack Nicklaus, Bill Casper, Gary Player, me or anybody—every player has one club he'd rather not hit."

BILL CONLIN, Philadelphia sports scribe, expressing no surprise that the Phillies fired Gene Mauch rather than trade Richie Allen: "Trading Allen is like trying to peddle a sack of hot diamonds. Everybody is excited by the potential of the proposition. But fearful of the risk."

Mets Reaching For .500 Mark In Houston

By The Associated Press Here come the Mets! Again! New York's grown-up expansion babes soared with a stride of hitherto unreachable heights Thursday night for the fifth time this month, by trimming Houston 3-1 behind right-handers Don Cardwell and Ron Taylor.

The victory put the Mets' season record at 35-36. They never have reached the .500 level, after the first week, in any of their previous six National League seasons. But for the past two weeks it's been touch and go.

A four-game winning streak brought the Mets within a step of the elusive break-even point on June 14. The next day they rattled 16 hits off San Francisco's Juan Marichal... and lost 9-5.

DRYSDALE STOPPER Last Saturday, Gil Hodges' youngsters were knocking at the door again, but Los Angeles' Don Drysdale applied the brakes. Then, two shots at 500 in Cincinnati this week became a pair of one-run losses.

Tonight in the Astrodome, Nolan Ryan, a 21-year-old rookie with a 6-5 record and speed to burn, leads the uphill assault against last-place Houston and fireballer Larry Dierker, 7-10 on the season.

In Thursday's only other NL game, Los Angeles nipped San Francisco 6-5 on Zoilo Versalles' 11th-inning homer, ending Marichal's personal winning streak at 10 games, and Atlanta shaded Philadelphia 4-3 under the lights as brothers Hank and Tommie Aaron combined to drive in three runs.

Cardwell, who went into the Houston game with six straight setbacks and a 1-8 record, blanked the Astros for seven innings before leaving under fire in the eighth. With one run in, Taylor came out of the Met bullpen and got the third out, stranding two base runners, then retired the Astros in order in the ninth.

RUINS BID Two of Ed Charles' three hits figured in the New York scoring. Singles by Cleon Jones and Charles, a late throw to the plate on Jerry Grote's grounder, a balk by losing pitcher Denny Lemaster and Jerry Buchek's sacrifice fly sent two runs across in the seventh. Singles by Charles, Grote and Don Bosch produced an insurance run in the ninth.

Versalles' leadoff homer off Marichal in the 11th ruined the Giant ace's bid for his 15th victory and dropped San Francisco into third place, one-half game behind Atlanta and seven back of the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals.

Willie McCovey drove in four runs with his 19th and 20th homers, staking Marichal to an early 5-2 lead. The Dodgers rebounded on Len Gabrielson's two-run homer in the fifth and tied it on pinch hitter Ken Boyer's run-scoring single in the sixth.

Four LA relievers then battled Marichal, 14-3, to a standoff until Versalles' second homer broke the tie.

Sam McDowell Is No Mystery To Red Sox

By The Associated Press Sam McDowell was fine as long as he was throwing strikes. It was only when he let the Red Sox hit the ball that he got in trouble.

McDowell, selected as a member of the American League All-Star pitching staff earlier in the day, struck out the side in the first inning against Boston Thursday night. But between strikeouts the Red Sox scored six unearned runs on their way to a 9-3 romp over Cleveland.

In the only other American League game played, Minnesota blanked Baltimore 2-0 in a game ended by rain after five innings. Joe Foy opened the Red Sox first against McDowell with a bloop single and raced to third when Larry Brown threw wild on Jerry Adair's grounder. McDowell struck out Carl Yastrzemski but Ken Harrelson stroked the first of his three hits, scoring Foy.

Brown's second error of the inning gave Boston another run and Rico Petrocelli singled for the third one. George Scott struck out but Russ Gibson walked, loading the bases and

Pirates Slam Colts, 26-2

The Pirates enjoyed one of their most productive nights of the season Thursday, at which time they knocked off the Colts, 26-2, in an American Little League game.

The Bucs, now 18-1, were kept away from the plate in the first two rounds but collected five runs in the third and finished with a 14-run inning.

Earl Reynolds led the Bucs' 16-hit attack with four hits. Both Reynolds and Stan Vick scored five times.

Bill Whittington, Wayne Dickens and Ken McMurtrey accounted for the Colts' only hits. The losers are now 10-8-1.

Chris Bogard, who succeeded Vick on the hill in the second inning, received credit for the win.

Pros Set Games In Astrodome

HOUSTON (AP) — A professional basketball doubleheader will be played in the Astrodome the night of Feb. 4.

The Boston Celtics will play the San Diego Rockets and the Detroit Pistons will meet the Cincinnati Royals in the National Basketball Association twin bill.

Ben Kerner, former owner of the St. Louis Hawks, is promoting the doubleheader and announced it at a news conference Thursday. He hopes the attraction will give some indication of NBA basketball interest in Houston.

Carter Hurls Cubs To Win

David Carter hurled the Cubs past the Yanks, 13-1, in Sophomore Teen-Age league competition here Thursday night.

The win was the second in league play for the Cubs, compared to five defeats. Carter allowed only one hit. That was off the bat of John Rough.

In all, the Cubs had 11 safeties, with Scott Carfile, Brad Boll and David Carter each accounting for two blows. The defeat left the Yanks with a 1-6 record.

No Repeaters Selected On All-Star Hill Corps

BOSTON (AP) — New Faces of 1968 could well be the name for the youthful and relatively inexperienced pitching corps which will represent the American League in the All-Star game at Houston July 9.

Not a single repeater from 1967 was on the seven-man staff named Thursday by Manager Dick Williams. Four were chosen for the first time in their careers, while the other three—Denny McLain of Detroit, Sam McDowell of Cleveland and Mel Stottlemyre of New York—have hurled in just one previous classic each.

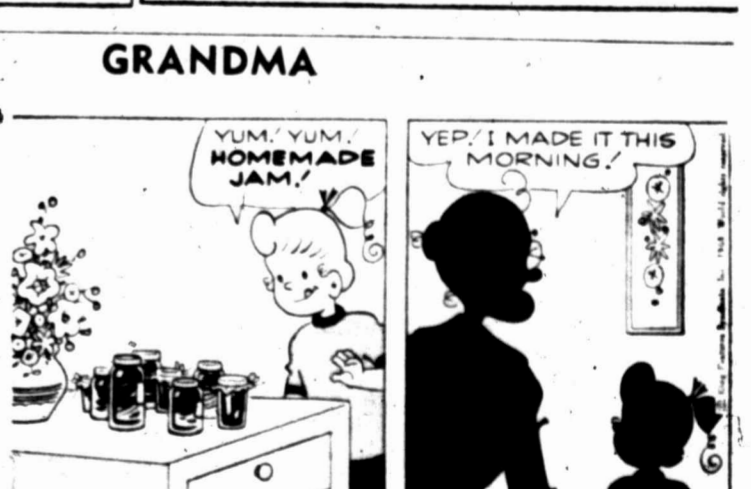

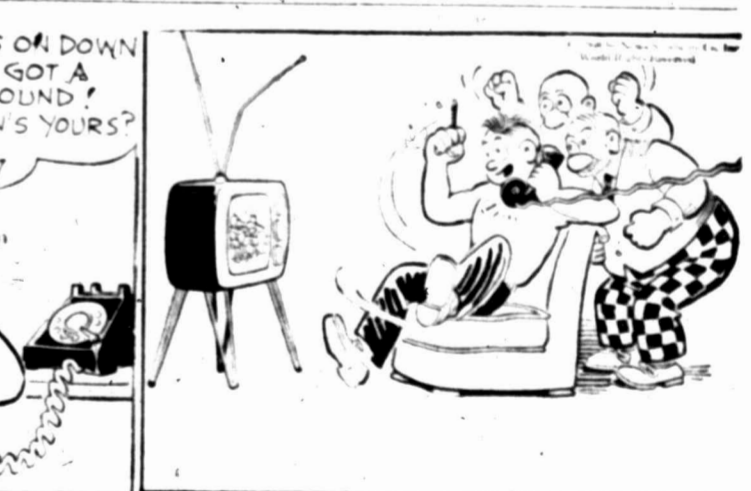

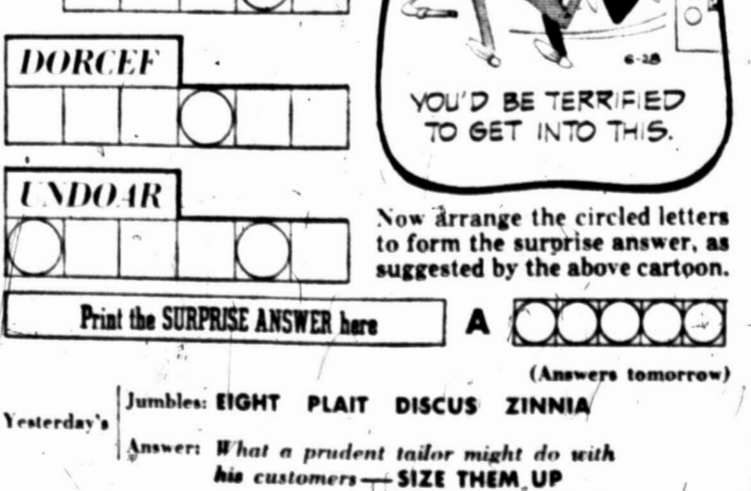

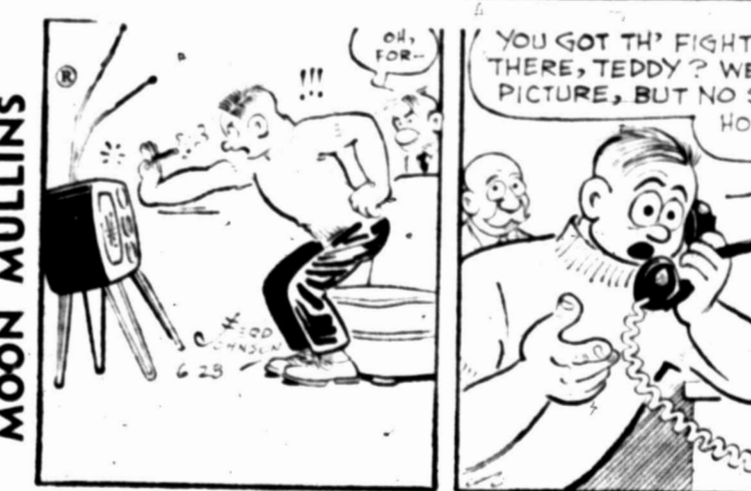

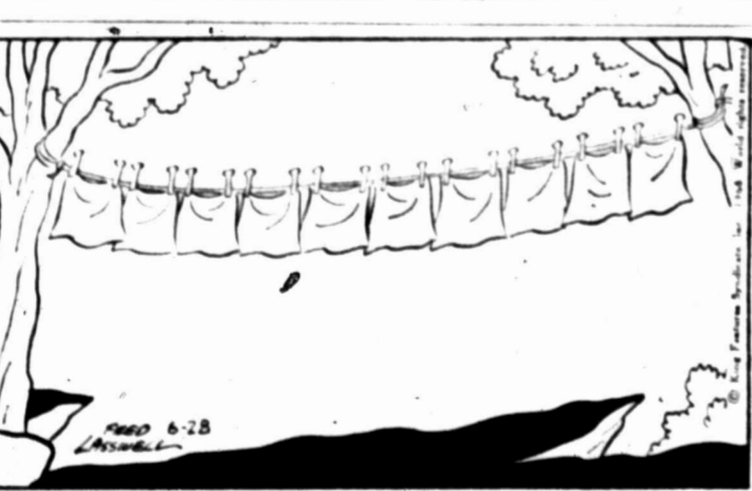

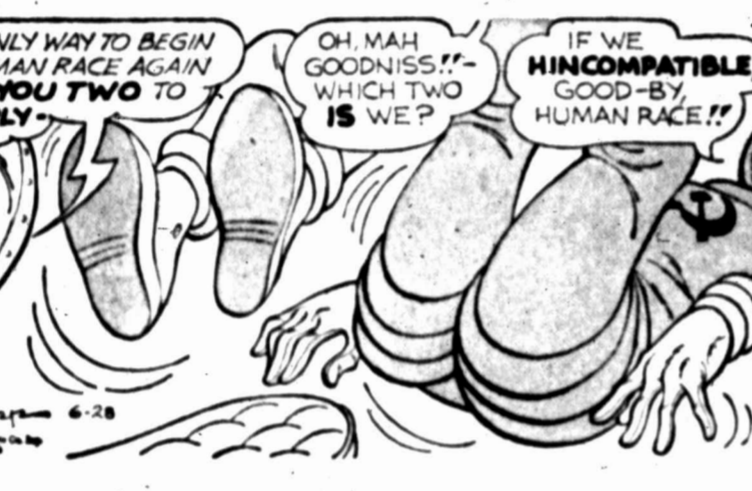

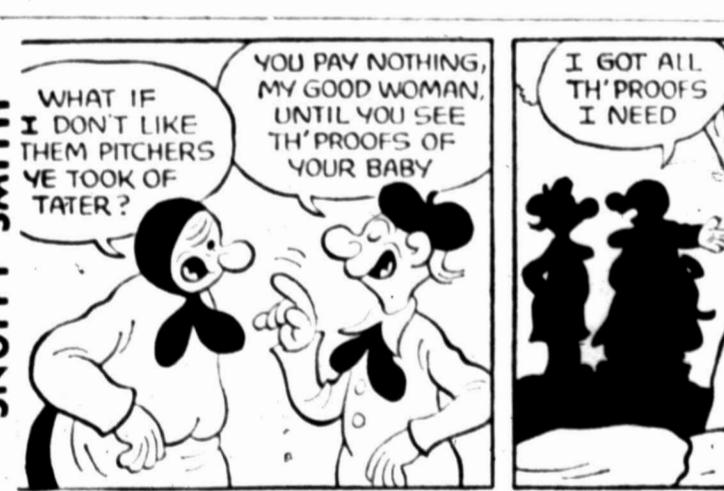

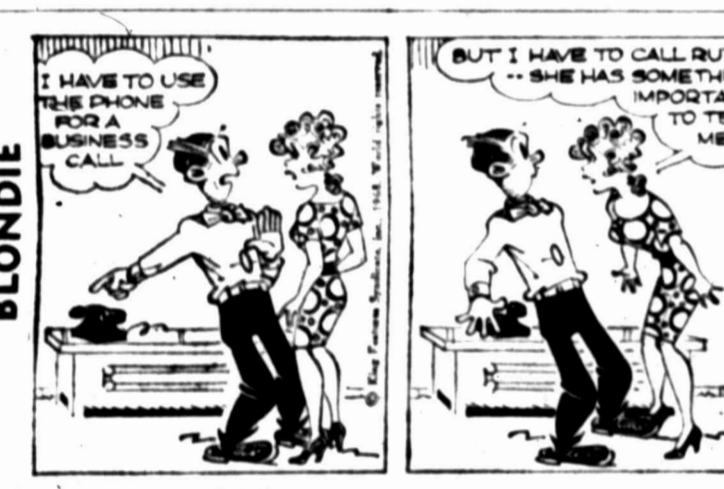

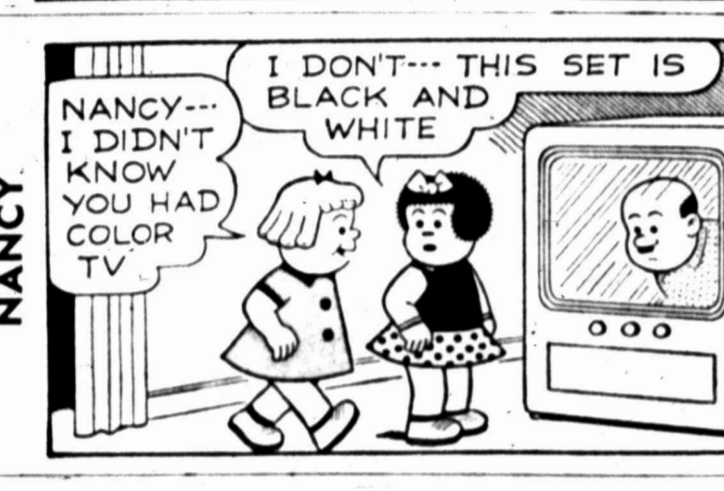

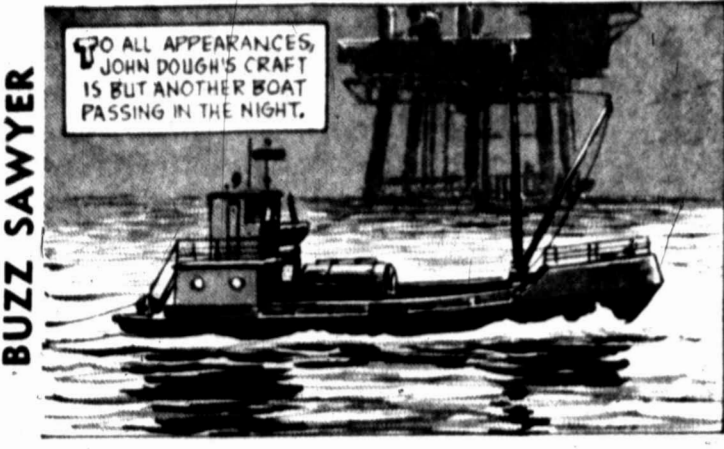

The quartet of newcomers includes Jose Santiago of Williams' own defending champion Boston Red Sox, Luis Tiant of Cleveland, Tommy John of Chicago and John Odom of Cleveland.

Santiago, 27, is the oldest member of the staff. Odom, who turned 23 last month, is the youngest.

McLain, the league's big winner with a 13-2 record, was the starting pitcher the only other time he was selected in 1966, hurling three perfect innings. McDowell, 7-6, pitched two innings in the 1965 game, giving up one run in taking the 6-5 loss. The fireballing left-hander also was selected in 1966, but had arm trouble and was replaced on the squad by teammate Sonny Siebert.

The 1968 starting team except for the pitcher, chosen by vote of the players and announced earlier includes catcher Bill Freehan, Detroit; first baseman Harmon Killebrew, Minnesota; second baseman Rod Carew, Minnesota; third baseman Brooks Robinson, Baltimore; shortstop Jim Fregosi, California; and outfielders Carl Yastrzemski, Boston, Frank Howard, Washington, and Willie Horton, Detroit.

The rest of the squad will be selected by Williams and named later.
