Plot Against Top Runners Uncovered

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Tribune said Tuesday the FBI and the Secret Service are investigating reports of a plot to assassinate Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene McCarthy during the Democratic convention.

The plot, the Tribune said, was said to have been formed during a meeting of 100 Negro extremists and South Side gang members and to have included plans for destruction of several police stations with explosives and rifle fire.

The newspaper added that the U.S. attorney general's office reportedly has approved a fullscale investigation in an attempt to obtain enough information for the issuance of conspiracy warrants.

Brownwood Letdown

BROWNWOOD (AP) — There were some red faces and a big letdown today when officials of Brownwood held a ceremony to open the cornerstone of the old city hall.

About 75 persons attended, to see what had been placed in the cornerstone in 1917.

After the speeches, the cornerstone was opened. It was empty.

Said one official: "I think our forefathers must have had a sense of humor."

Child Dies Of Wound

GRAND PRAIRIE (AP) — A Dallas girl whose throat was slashed by an early morning intruder today died several hours later at Parkland Hospital.

Killed was Karen Lynn Keibat, 11.

The girl was spending the night at her father's home in Grand Prairie. Police said she was sleeping in the living room of the home and apparently heard a prowler.

She screamed and the intruder cut her throat, police said. Her father heard the screams and rushed into the room, but the intruder had fled.

Grand Prairie police said two persons are being questioned in connection with the case.

Quoting The Candidates

Here is what the political candidates are saying:

"What must come first is not to stop the bombing, but to stop the killing of American boys."

— Republican presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon, about demands that the United States immediately suspend bombing of North Vietnam.

"I will yield to no one — no one — in a quest for a lasting and honorable peace." — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, Democratic presidential contender.

"I want a program to minimize contacts with the enemy. We should withdraw to just a defensive role." — Sen. George S. McGovern, Democratic presidential contender, calling for halt to all U.S. bombing in Vietnam except where necessary to break up direct threats to U.S. troops.

"Today the United Nations' voice has become the voice of Communist propaganda, distributed liberally to the undeveloped countries, and these world savers — some of them are new to shoes — dare to sit in judgment on the complex internal affairs of nations 10 times their age." — Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox, Democratic presidential contender.

Most Oppose Stand Taken By McCarthy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The majority of Americans oppose both a total U.S. bombing halt in North Vietnam and inclusion of the Viet Cong in a South Vietnam government before elections, the Harris Survey reports.

Both are key issues in Democratic Platform Committee consideration of a Vietnam plank. Presidential contender Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy has proposed a call for creation of a coalition South Vietnam government; his rival, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey has said he "cannot agree with that."

MONDAY
A total U.S. bombing halt was opposed by 61 per cent of those questioned. Louis Harris said Monday. He said 24 per cent favored a bombing halt and 15 per cent were undecided.

Establishment of a coalition government including the Viet Cong before free elections was opposed by 52 per cent to 27 per cent in favor and 21 per cent undecided, Harris said.

Guessers Figure HHH For Impressive Win

'Hard Loser' Tag Hung On Liberals

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Democratic party officials—answering a protest against the makeup of the state delegation to the national convention—said their opponents are just hard losers.

Their position amounts to no more than an allegation that they got beat, are unhappy about it and have a right to complain."

WEDNESDAY
It will be presented Wednesday to the national convention credentials committee.

The brief was signed by Frank C. Erwin Jr., outgoing national committeeman; Will D. Davis, state Democratic chairman; and John Peace, member of the state Democratic Executive Committee.

The brief responded to a formal challenge offered to the credentials committee by a group calling itself Texas Democrats for an Open Convention.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., who has endorsed Sen. Eugene McCarthy for the presidential nomination, was one of the substitute delegates offered to lead the challenge delegation.

Texas' delegation is pledged to favorite son candidate Gov. John Connally, but most are expected to support Vice President Hubert Humphrey for the presidential nomination.

"They're ahead but they're not within 300 votes of a majority," Mitchell said.

Mitchell, who claimed between 600 and 700 votes for McCarthy, added: "The escalation fever that has gripped the Johnson-Humphrey administration has got hold of the Humphrey delegate operation. They escalated the war, escalated the budget, escalated taxes and inflation and now they're escalating their delegates claims."

Showdown Due On Race Fight

CHICAGO (AP) — A touchy racial fight between contesting Mississippi delegations to the Democratic National Convention headed for a no-compromise showdown today.

"It's either us or them," said Aaron Henry, Negro leader of an integrated "Loyal Democrats" slate seeking to unseat Mississippi's predominantly white regular party delegation.

LITTLE EFFECT
The battle, involving only 24 of the convention's 1,312 delegate votes, will have little effect on the choice next week of a presidential nominee to oppose Republican Richard M. Nixon in November.

But a Credentials Committee ruling on Mississippi, expected tonight, is likely to have a major psychological impact on Negro voters as well as many white ones.

And the case sets the stage for a struggle over other contested state delegations between the two front-runners for the Democratic nomination, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota.

Both Humphrey and McCarthy

Says Strength Claims Are Exaggerated

CHICAGO (AP)—Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's chief spokesman said today the delegate claims by forces of Hubert H. Humphrey are "certainly an exaggeration" and implied strongly that Democratic officials deliberately are making things difficult for his man.

ONLY 900-1000
Stephen A. Mitchell, the senator's chief spokesman here, told a news conference Humphrey has only 900 or 1,000 votes of the 1,312 votes needed for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"They're ahead but they're not within 300 votes of a majority," Mitchell said.

Mitchell, who claimed between 600 and 700 votes for McCarthy, added: "The escalation fever that has gripped the Johnson-Humphrey administration has got hold of the Humphrey delegate operation. They escalated the war, escalated the budget, escalated taxes and inflation and now they're escalating their delegates claims."

Driver Killed In C-C Crash

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Jack Langdon, 26-year-old truck driver from Racine, Wis., was killed at 8:40 a.m. today in a truck-tractor accident east of Colorado City on IS 20.

The Highway Department tractor was being used to mow weeds along the side of the highway when it was struck from behind by the truck which exploded and caught fire and plunged 30 feet down an embankment into the dry bed of Lone Wolf Creek.

R. B. Cain, driver of the tractor, is in Root Memorial Hospital with injuries not believed serious. David Berczyk, 18, a passenger in the truck, was thrown clear but was badly burned in an attempt to rescue Langdon.

Langdon was thrown from beneath the steering wheel into the back of the cab and his body had to be removed from the wreckage by mechanical means because of the intense heat.

The fire was brought under control by the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department but was still smoldering at noon.

The truck belongs to the Sorensen Trucking Co. and contained a load of household furniture.

Jim Langdon, a brother, is en route from Racine. Arrangements are pending his arrival.

Transplant For Ike Is Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's prospects for survival are "guarded" — meaning unpredictable—at this point.

Doctors of the Army's Walter Reed General Hospital said so in answer to a list of submitted questions by reporters.

At the same time they said in a formal medical bulletin that the general's condition remains critical even though there has been a favorable trend in the pattern of abnormal heart rhythm action which is the basic problem of his heart attack.

LEFT OPEN
They left open the question whether the "gradual worsening" of his condition which they had reported in a mid-afternoon report Monday had been either halted or slowed in pace.

The doctors disclosed Monday night they had rejected, after serious consideration, the idea of attempting a heart transplant.

The text of today's medical bulletin follows:

"Since last night's bulletin, Gen. Eisenhower has continued to rest comfortably. The pattern of isolated irregular beats continues. There have been no instances of sustained ventricular irregularities requiring electrical conversion during the last 24 hours. While this trend is favorable, the general's condition remains critical."

The irregular heart beat had brought him near death after his seventh heart attack.

One of the questions asked by newsmen inquired as to the "other major medical conditions" which the doctors reported Monday night were one of the factors involved in their ruling out a transplant operation.

CHRONOLOGY

And the doctors referred only to the "chronology of Gen. Eisenhower's illnesses" over the years—including his lileitis, gall bladder, cerebral stroke, prostate gland trouble and other illnesses.

Another question asked—this one by the Associated Press—was this:

"In the light of your 3:30 p.m. report yesterday that the general's condition showed a 'gradual worsening,' does your later report at 10 p.m.—noting 'fewer instances of ventricular irregularity'—mean that the 'worsening' has been halted; at least slowed in pace; or, indeed, kept back somewhat? And what is the situation on this same score right now?"

Without giving a direct answer, doctors referred reporters to the text of the formal medical bulletin, which did not appear to specifically answer the question.

The reference in the medical bulletin to there having been no instances of sustained abnormal heart rhythms requiring "electrical conversion" during the last 24 hours meant this:

NOT REQUIRED
That during that period those irregularities in heart rhythm that did arise did not require the emergency application of two paddle-like metal devices to the general's bare chest to induce an electric countershock to re-establish at least temporarily satisfactory rhythm.

"What are the general's prospects for survival?" was another question submitted by the Associated Press and the doctors only reply was "guarded"—a term that they have previously defined as meaning unpredictable.

However, Monday Eisenhower's doctors affirmed for the first time the definite possibility he might die from his present heart attack, his seventh, although they did not indicate any time element.

Word that the possibility of a heart transplant had been considered—and rejected—was first contained in the doctors' Monday night hospital bulletin.

Enemy Sustains Heavy Losses In Three Days Of Fighting

SAIGON (AP) — Allied forces reported today killing more than 700 enemy soldiers in three days of enemy attacks and allied counterthrusts ranging from the Cambodian border to the northern frontier.

But enemy forces overran one allied unit—outnumbered six-to-one—15 miles south of Da Nang today and killed all 10 U.S. Marine and 24 South Vietnamese defenders.

RUSHED IN

A relief force of South Korean marines rushed to the area but was unable to reach the besieged men because of explosions, believed touched off when the compound's ammunition dump caught fire.

U.S. fighter-bombers and artillery drove off the more than 300 enemy attackers. There were no reports of enemy casualties.

The new intensification of the ground war after a two-month lull shattered hopes that the enemy high command might be de-escalating to try to break the stalemate at the Paris peace talks.

U.S. headquarters reported at least 739 enemy and 69 Americans killed since the start of enemy attacks Sunday. Nearly 500 of the enemy deaths were inflicted since Monday, most of these in four battles around the provincial capital of Tay Ninh.

A new fight broke out five miles west of Tay Ninh City today when a U.S. 25th Infantry Division armor column came under a rocket attack while advancing along Highway 28, a military supply route. U.S. Air Force fighter-bombers were called in.

In another development, U.S. headquarters announced that American and South Vietnamese troops had ended a two-week search-and-clear operation through the A Shau Valley, a major enemy troop and supply hideaway 375 miles northeast of Saigon.

Headquarters said allied troops killed 133 enemy and seized large quantities of arms and ammunition in the Valley. U.S. losses were put at 15 killed and 97 wounded, while South Vietnamese forces suffered 24 dead and 62 wounded.

FLARED UP
While fighting flared up and down the country, the heaviest engagements centered in Tay Ninh and neighboring Bin Long provinces by the Cambodian border where at least two North Vietnamese divisions and elements of a third are reported to have massed in secret base camps.

Some of the fighting around Tay Ninh was touched off by allied probes, searching for the remnants of an enemy force that invaded the city Sunday.

An ambush patrol from the U.S. 25th Infantry Division intercepted about 100 enemy soldiers moving on a brigade base camp six miles northwest of Tay Ninh City. It reported 56 enemy killed in a four-hour fight. U.S. casualties were listed as light.

Breakfast Gesture

Republican Presidential Candidate Richard Nixon gestured to gathering of mostly newsmen during breakfast meeting at Ohio State Fairgrounds in Columbus early Tuesday.

Nixon Predicting Win By Landslide

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Richard M. Nixon says his first full day of national campaigning has convinced him he can win the presidential election by a landslide. "Across the country a tide is beginning to run," the Republican candidate for president told a reception of Ohio Republicans Monday night. "All we have to do is push it day and night and it will be a landslide." His voice hoarse from a day of speaking in Illinois, Michigan and Ohio, Nixon prepared for a meeting today with Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes. He met on Monday with Gov. George Romney of Michigan, once an opponent for the GOP nomination, and carried away the governor's promise to campaign for him in other states. Nixon aides said the object of the meeting with Rhodes is to win the full support of the independent-minded governor and his powerful Ohio Republican organization. Rhodes held his favorite son delegation behind him at the GOP convention. Nixon, who carried the state by 273,000 votes when he ran for president eight years ago, said, "One of the great things I learned about Ohio in 1960 is that it is a great organizational state." Nixon's strategists said that while they hope Rhodes will make some national appearances for the ticket, they are counting most on his organization delivering the key state to Nixon in November. Later in the day, Nixon meets with Gov. Raymond P. Shafer in Harrisburg. Shafer supported New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller for the GOP presidential nomination. Nixon meets Wednesday with Rockefeller in the New York City apartment house where they both live. For Nixon, Monday was a day of flying visits to state capitols, hasty news conferences in legislative chambers, closed meetings with state Republican leaders, and handshaking with crowds who turned out to see favorite son delegation behind him.

First Manned Flight Of Superrocket Slated

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The space agency has deleted a problem-plagued section from the Apollo spacecraft which is scheduled to be launched in December in the first manned flight of the Saturn 5 superrocket. The action reflects an apparent high-level decision to beat Soviet cosmonauts around the moon. Air Force Maj. Gen. Samuel C. Phillips, Apollo program director for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said Monday the flight will not include a manned earth-orbital test of a lunar module, the spacecraft section that will leave the nose of an Apollo command ship in lunar orbit and take two astronauts to the moon's surface. Instead, he said, the 363-foot-tall Saturn 5 is now scheduled to hurl into space only a three-man Apollo command ship piloted by Air Force Col. Frank Borman and Maj. William A. Anders and Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. "The basic mission plan is for operations in low earth orbit," Phillips said in a news conference. "While preparing for that basic mission, we are studying possible alternatives," he said. Preceding that first Saturn 5 launch will be a three-man Apollo earth-orbital flight by Navy Capt. Walter M. Schirra Jr., Air Force Maj. Donn F. Eisele and Walter Cunningham, a civilian astronaut. The Schirra crew is to blast off Oct. 11 aboard a Saturn 1 rocket, forerunner of the larger Saturn 5 man-to-the-moon booster. If the Schirra flight, named Apollo 7, is good, "we may be able to change flight plans accordingly" for the Borman-Lovell-Anders-Apollo 8 mission, Phillips said. Possible alternatives of the flight plan include penetrating "several thousand miles" into space while still remaining in earth orbit or swinging around the moon itself, the Apollo program director said. Sources said the possibility of a circumlunar flight was a prime consideration in NASA's decision not to put a lunar module on the first Saturn 5. The Soviet Union reportedly plans to orbit cosmonauts around the moon as soon as it is technically able, possibly late this year or early 1969. Numerous problems have developed in the lunar module's radar, abort guidance system and panel lighting connections inside the cockpit. The troubles have put the moon-landing craft six weeks behind its testing schedule, the program director said. Phillips said the alternatives were to delay the first manned Saturn 5 until January or February or fly without the lunar module.

SALESMAN IN GOOD CONDITION

Second Houston Heart Switch In Two Days

HOUSTON (AP) — A 50-year-old shoe salesman, the second heart transplant recipient in Houston in two days, was described as satisfactory after the operation Monday. Carl Van Bates of Amarillo, Tex., became the world's 32nd human heart recipient in a 100-minute operation performed by a team of Texas Heart Institute surgeons. The donor was Mrs. Gasper B. Geaccone Jr., 37, a Houston mother of two children. A St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital spokesman said Mrs. Geaccone was transferred Sunday from Methodist Hospital and died three minutes before the organ transplant began. Less than 48 hours earlier, surgeons led by Dr. Denton A. Cooley implanted the heart of an 11-year-old boy in the chest of Maria Giannaris, 5, of Hagerstown, Md. The girl, also listed as satisfactory, played with a color book Monday and complained of being hungry. The heart transfers were the ninth and 10th performed in Houston. "We're off to a flying start," Mrs. Bonnie Bates quoted Dr. Cooley after the Monday operation. Bates entered the hospital four weeks ago. His wife said he last suffered a heart attack Christmas Eve 1967. SON OF PROF Maria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick A. Giannaris, had heart trouble since she was an infant. She received the heart of James Dudley Herron II, son of James Dudley Herron, a professor at Purdue University at Lafayette, Ind. The boy had suffered a brain hemorrhage and died Sunday after he was flown here. Dr. Cooley told a news conference Monday before the 10th transplant that the girl's operation was an apparent success. "With this child we now have an opportunity to study some important growth factors," he said. "This case offers a wealth of material to study and we have the facilities needed for conducting such studies."

NEXT MOVE IS UP TO THE NORTH VIETNAMESE

Johnson Rejects Bombing Halt

DETROIT (AP) — President Johnson, rejecting a total bombing halt of North Vietnam or other de-escalation of the war, says he will go no further in the search for peace until Hanoi shows sincere signs of wanting to end the fighting. Speaking Monday night to a convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Johnson said all moves by the United States to end the fighting have gone unanswered by the North Vietnamese. "The next move must be theirs," he told a cheering audience. The President seemed to be answering critics within his own party, particularly Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy and George McGovern, who have made opposition to the war major parts of their campaigns for the Democratic presidential nomination. Pointedly referring to the fact that his term doesn't expire until next January, Johnson said, "This administration does not intend to move further until it has good reason to believe that the other side intends seriously to join with us in de-escalating the war and moving seriously towards peace."

Waves Goodbye To Veterans

President Johnson, carrying his grandson Patrick Nugent, waves to crowd as he leaves runs of Foreign Wars convention in Detroit speakers platform after addressing The Veterans.

Johnson, who carried the state by 273,000 votes when he ran for president eight years ago, said, "One of the great things I learned about Ohio in 1960 is that it is a great organizational state." Nixon's strategists said that while they hope Rhodes will make some national appearances for the ticket, they are counting most on his organization delivering the key state to Nixon in November. ## POLICY PAPER PRESENTED

GOP's Eggers Says Crime No. 1 Problem In Texas

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas No. 1 problem is crime, Republican gubernatorial candidate Paul Eggers said Monday, and he suggested ways to solve it—from the teenage truant to the middle-aged murderer. His wide-ranging policy paper on crime and justice is a blend of textbook teaching, scientific know-how and on-the-job training. It would obviously cost a lot in state money, but Eggers had no estimate of how much when he talked to a news conference. RESTRAINT Eggers' paper dealt with six proposals, with the longest section on "advance planning to prevent and control riots and mass civil disorder." He said a "key element of any riot control plan is restraint." There was implied criticism for his opponent, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, in Eggers' suggestions to change "outdated and unjust laws." "After the widespread liquor law scandal, for instance, Texans had every right to expect liquor law reforms. Unfortunately, all attempts at reform bogged down in the Senate where Preston Smith ruled with a strong hand," Eggers said. "We cannot call for respect for law and order and then, as Preston Smith has done with liquor laws, refuse to advocate changes in laws that help create public disrespect for our whole legal system." "WOODEN PEG" "For a long run solution to riots," he said, "we must end the social dissatisfaction that so easily can be agitated into social revolt." However, he said, "we must take immediate steps to assure the safety of our cities... The events in Houston on May 16 and 17 of 1967 indicate the dangerous potential we must face." "The best control of looting and vandalism can be achieved through use of non-lethal weapons." He suggested a study of "wooden pegs" that he said British police fired against rioters in Hong Kong and, when asked about other non-lethal weapons favored by him, he replied: "gases and chemicals." SIX STEPS Eggers' over-all plan on justice law enforcement proposed six steps: —Modernizing law enforcement training and education by, among other things, setting up more regional police training and offering scholarships and salary incentives to encourage training. —Statewide network of crime control centers, linked by computers; regional crime laboratories, and more state funds for scientific methods of fighting crime. —Education and legal reforms to restore public faith in justice.

Landfill Area Wins Compliment Of Health Service

The Sanitary Landfill and Reclamation Project was visited in July by representatives of the Public Health Service and received complimentary approval to the entire project, according to Ernest Lillard, director of public works. An average of 12 people used the landfill site each Sunday in July, Lillard said. No plans have been made yet to close the landfill on Sunday, although Lillard said in July that unless the percentage of people using the landfill picked up he would recommend closing it. An average of six vehicles per Sunday used the landfill in June. A total amount of 1,121 tons of refuse was handled at the landfill with the public hauling 159 tons and the contract hauler from Webb AFB bringing in 146 tons. City crews brought in 651 tons of refuse in 260 truck loads from the residential routes this month. In addition another 324 tons was hauled in 81 loads from the commercial truck on the commercial routes. The combined total of refuse hauled by city crews was 975 tons.

Letter Carriers Want Pay Boosts

BOSTON (AP) — The National Association of Letter Carriers wants improved starting salaries, cost-of-living increases, a 30-hour week, and speedier attainment of top scale. A resolution adopted Monday at the organization's 46th biennial convention asked that starting salaries be raised from $5,938 to $6,348. The carriers also asked that a proposed top salary of $8,680 be reached in five instead of 21 years. Present top salary is $8,094. The association went on record opposing any incorporation of the Post Office Department "that would not recognize principles of service or congressional control of the Post Office Department." "Many of the existing gains in employee benefits are threatened by hasty consideration of the proposals of reorganization of the post office," the association's vice president, James H. Rademacher, said.

Wallace's Style Is Different

By JULES LOH
Associated Press Writer
MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — George C. Wallace likes to illustrate to audiences the purpose of his run for the presidency with an anecdote.

He says a reporter asked him recently whether he had changed his tune since his primary campaign four years ago. The former Alabama governor replied, "I haven't changed a bit. You just weren't listening then. I'm saying the same thing now and it has nothing to do with race but philosophy of government."

True? One who watched Wallace campaign in Indiana's Democratic primary in 1964 and who accompanied him through the same state last week, would question whether race could be so neatly separated, then or now, from the Wallace philosophical message.

FOUR-LETTER WORDS
But the free-swinging Wallace campaigning across the nation today is not the cautious, often tense Wallace who carried his crusade out of Dixie into the alien North four years ago. His message is much the same; his rhetoric subtly different. The difference is revealing. As an instance, four years ago Wallace put down hecklers at the University of Indiana with the coolly delivered line: "I always thought a hallmark of the liberal mind was its eagerness to hear all viewpoints."

Last week in Fort Wayne, he shouted hecklers with such unadorned cracks as, "What you need is a good haircut," and, "These free-speech folks know all sort of four-letter words except w-o-r-k- and s-o-a-p."

'BAMA REDNECK
In 1964 Wallace believed his public image outside the South was, as he once confided, that of "an ignorant ol' hookwormy redneck from Alabama." His articulate, genial, even sophisticated manner on the hustings was plainly disarming to his adversaries and counted much toward his success.

This year he apparently believes success depends on ridiculing, rather than sophisticated, He talks of "guideline writers with pointed heads who can't even park their bicycles straight," and of "briefcase lot-in' bureaucrats telling you how to run your lives," and mockingly mispronounces words such as "rapport" and "dialogue" which, he says, "sophisticated people use instead of good old eyeball-to-eyeball talking."

His rhetoric, in fact, is reminiscent of his 1962 campaign for governor of Alabama when he repeatedly called a federal judge "a carpetbagging, scalawagging, integrating, race-mixing, bald-faced liar."

Wallace says his appeal is to "the average person on the street—the barbers, beauticians, policemen, firemen, steelworkers and ordinary working people who are going to decide this election."

OUT TO WIN
His total approach seems calculated to win them over. A 10-piece band travels with him to warm up audiences with Sousa marches and old favorite tunes, and a platoon of attractive young "Wallace girls," who use little makeup and wear skirts that end discreetly just above the knee, mingle in the audience and pass contribution baskets.

Wallace says his third party candidacy is not for the purpose of being a spoiler in this year's election; he's out to win. He points out that with three

Brand-Generic Drugs Discovery

WASHINGTON (AP) — A team of university scientists say they have found differences in the way brand-name and generic drugs behave in the body.

"Our findings raise serious doubts about the equality of different products of the same drug in the treatment of disease," said Dr. Christopher M. Martin, head of the five-man research team at Georgetown University.

WARNING
But Dr. Herbert L. Ley Jr., commissioner of the Food and Drug Administration, which authorized the university to do the research, issued a statement on the findings cautioning that:

"The Food and Drug Administration has in no sense concluded that 'generic' drugs are less effective as a class than 'brand-name' products."

Dr. Ley said, "In my opinion, there are fewer than two dozen drugs where therapeutic differences among competing products may be a problem."

A brand-name drug generally is defined as one put out by the company that originated it. A generic is another company's version of the same chemical compound.

Generics can be made when the originator's 17-year patent runs out or when the originator

"licenses out" the drug to other companies.

SELL FOR LESS
Generic drugs often sell for less than the brand version—sometimes for a fraction as much. It has been contended in some quarters that there was no significant difference in the performances of generic and brand-name drugs.

Dr. Martin said in a paper that his team found that some generic drugs were absorbed in the blood streams of well volunteers more slowly than brand-name versions. And he said at least one generic product was absorbed much faster than the brand-name drug.

System Might Help Blind See

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Scientists at Westinghouse Electric Corp. say they are perfecting an electronic system that someday could help blind men see.

They're working on a way of printing electronic circuits on flexible material such as foil and paper, which could lead to circuits small enough to be implanted inside the head to replace aural and visual nerves, a company spokesman said Monday.

There's more to cigarette smoke than "tar" and nicotine.

That's why Lark invented the Gas-Trap™ filter.

For years, smokers have been told only about "tar" and nicotine. Now science and medical researchers report that this is only part of the story. Actually, most of cigarette smoke is made up of gases—certain of which are harsh.

That is why Lark developed the Gas-Trap™ filter (U.S. Pat. 3,251,365). It reduces certain harsh gases more effectively than any other filter on any other popular brand. It also reduces "tar" and nicotine. You can actually taste the smooth difference this unique filter makes.

Only Lark has the Gas-Trap™ filter.

Think about it.

A LOVELIER YOU

Keep A File On Needs For Weekend Trips

By MARY SUE MILLER
There's many a slip in packing for weekends. Own up, how often have you left some essential beauty or grooming aid behind? Unsettling, isn't it?

One solution is to compile and "file" a list of your needs, and then refer to it when packing. Another method is to keep your necessities packed, ready to travel. This latter course saves both oversights and time, particularly if you are constantly a-go.

For the purpose use a train case, toiletries kit or safari bag. Stock it with a set of the cosmetics and groomers you require on junkets. Either fill small plastic containers from stores on hand, or purchase sample sizes when obtainable.

Look about, too, for familiar products especially packaged for traveling — in plastic tubes, individual foil envelopes, pocket-size aerosols.

All such save space, weight and spill. When carrying non-spillproof items be sure to seal tops with plastic mending tape. See-through plastic bags of the kitchen variety make excellent protective covers and carriers. For hairbrush and rollers, frinstance.

The cosmetics and toiletries you pack are of course a personal matter. But it is recorded that a toothbrush, dentifrice and sunan product are most often among the missing. So take care in outfitting your kit and do replenish supplies right after every jaunt. Then you won't miss a thing.

1969 HARLEY-DAVIDSON ELECTRA GLIDE
Now on display at Thixton Motorcycle and Bicycle Shop

'69 Motorcycle Has Many New Points

Motorcycling is a pastime which is gaining new followers every day. However, if someone is joining the sport for the first time, he has some questions which must be answered.

He may wonder: "Which motorcycle is the best, and which size will suit my needs? And, where can I get the best service?"
In Big Spring, all the questions asked by a new motorcycle enthusiast can be answered at Cecil Thixton Motorcycle and Bicycle Shop, 908 W. 3rd, where 40 years experience in the motorcycle business is combined with Harley-Davidson motorcycles, the best machine on the road.

Cecil Thixton began his motorcycle business in Big Spring 40 years ago, and has continued to serve West Texas with Harley-Davidson motorcycles and topnotch repair service.

Besides his popular H-D line, Thixton offers the Suzuki motorcycles and popular Schwinn bicycles. He also has used motorcycles which are in top condition.

Thixton's experience enables him completely to repair motorcycles and rebuild engines so they run like new.
The pride of Thixton Motorcycle and Bicycle Shop is the new 1969 Harley-Davidson Electra Glide. Since Harley-Davidson built its first 74 cubic inch V-twin motorcycle in 1922, improvements in the basic model have come every year, and 1969 tops them all.

The 1969 Electra Glide boasts push-button starting with its automobile type electrical system, rugged highway features and the ultimate in motorcycle safety features. The overhead, 1200 cc Electra Glide is the undisputed "Cadillac" of motorcycles, designed for lengthy highway jaunts. The cycle can cruse all day at high speed with no discomfort to the rider because of its specially designed suspension system.

The new Electra Glide FLH engine can generate 66 horsepower at 5,600 rpm's, and its transmission comes in optional four-speed constant mesh, or three speed and reverse.

The model is long and sleek, standing 30 inches to the saddle on a 61.5-inch wheelbase. Ground clearance is 3.1 inches. The Electra Glide fully equipped weighs 636 pounds.

For the cycling purist, Harley-Davidson offers the 1969 Sportster, which is the world's fastest stock motorcycle. It is powered by a 900cc V-twin engine which can produce 58 horsepower at 6,800 revolutions. With a weight of 508 pounds, the Sportster lifts riders out of the class of smaller bikes. The Sportster offers a host of safety features and hydraulic front forks and racing style rear make up a suspension system that's all business for a rider.

At drag strips throughout the nation, the Sportster brings home the trophies, and it was the American Hot Rod Association's top eliminator in 1968 with a speed of 128 mph.

Harley-Davidson also offers the hottest of lightweights, the Sprint, which is being beefed up in 1969 from 250 cc to a 298 cc. The Sprint, weighing in at 298 pounds, is more powerful than the lightweights of other cycle builders, but can be handled just as easily.

Sprints have long held records at American tracks, and have proven themselves at races, scrambles and endurance runs throughout the world.

Heating System Check Means More Comfort

Winter time is not too far in the distant future, and along with the cold comes the problem of cutting fuel costs while enjoying the comfort of a warm home at the same time.
Roy Hester, owner of Hester's Sheet Metal, Snyder Highway, has some time-tested suggestions on the care and inspection of the heating system in your home.

The local Carrier heating-cooling specialist, said cold floors, drafts and uneven heating from one room to another are the best indicators of a deficient heating system. Dirty fans, filters and duct, and poorly adjusted burners and valves are the main culprits.
"The best insurance for maintaining a good heating system is to have it inspected, cleaned and adjusted annually by a qualified serviceman," Hester said. "The cost is small in relation to the greater comfort and longer equipment life, and up to 10 per cent fuel savings an annual check-up can bring." Homeowners, though, can do a number of things themselves to make sure heating units are operating safely and efficiently, he added.

For example, filters need to be checked about every two months and fan or blower wheels should be inspected annually to make sure they remain relatively clean. This will assure proper air flow through the unit to prevent it from overheating and will provide good air circulation to all rooms, Hester said.
Return and supply air registers also should be checked and cleaned periodically, particularly those hidden from view by furniture.

If you have a belt-driven fan motor, occasionally check to see that the belt is not too tight, too loose or badly worn, Hester advised. "A belt runs at least 150 miles every day of the heating season. Its proper adjustment and alignment will mean less vibration and less wear on motor and blower bearings. These bearings, of course, need to be oiled once or twice a year," he said.

Proper air adjustment for the burners is another item to check, he said. This should be done annually as part of a service check-up on oil-fired units. Gas-fired units are less complicated but demand attention, too. A soft blue flame with luminous tips indicates that a gas heating unit has proper air combustion. If the flame is yellow and smokey or a solid hard blue, burners and valves need adjusting by a serviceman.
The same is true if you smell fumes or detect signs of rust, corrosion or soot around chimneys and flues, Hester said.
He noted that the most even heating can be achieved by setting the furnace fan to run continuously. It costs only a few pennies a day to run the fan all the time and it eliminates uncomfortable temperature fluctuations and stagnant air conditions.

He also advised homeowners to keep the thermostat set as low as possible commensurate with comfort. For every degree increase in average room temperature, fuel consumption increased approximately two to four per cent, depending on outside air temperature.

Mowers Cut Wide Swathe

City mowers worked 12 days during July mowing weeds on right of ways and drainage ditches, according to the monthly report of the city street department.
Weeds were hand cut and hauled from downtown areas and trash was hauled from alleys. City crews hauled 75 loads of trash and weeds from business areas and blind corners.

The National Youth Corps program workers finished cleaning alleys over the entire city once. The crew, consisting of three street department employees and 20 NYC boys, are starting once again to go through the city, beginning on the north side. They hauled 286 loads from 524 alley blocks and 57 street blocks during July.

The new spillway at the sanitation landfill was completed this month and city workers completed the grade and planted grass.
The mosquito sprayer was used five days in an effort to keep mosquitoes under control, and the street sweeper was operated 20 days, removing 428 cubic yards of debris from city streets.

Security State Has Facilities, Service

Improved facilities combined with services of all kinds make banking at Security State Bank, 1411 Gregg, "modern banking at its best."
Security State Bank underwent a facelift this summer to give its customers the convenience of "instant" banking. The $115,000 project included three new drive-in windows for easier customer banking, and construction of a new basement for better record keeping and storage.

Larson Lloyd, bank president, said Security State Bank offers every kind of service available in any bank.
The bank handles savings accounts, time certificates, safety deposit boxes and checking accounts with personalized checks for its customers.
Loans are an important part of any bank, and Security State Bank offers all types. A person may get a loan for commercial, car or private uses, and they can be made on installments which will be suitable to any budget.

Constructed just east of the present bank building, the basement created more parking space because the area over it was paved.
When Security State Bank was constructed in 1956, the customer was of prime concern. The bank was located and built for convenience, out of heavy traffic to allow easy access to personnel once a customer is inside.
So, if getting a bank has been a problem because of traffic, try Security State Bank at Fifteenth and Gregg, where there are spacious parking and courteous personnel.

Networks Book Demo Debate

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, leading contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination, will debate on national television Friday night if format and equal time problems can be solved.

The McCarthy people want an open, uncategorized debate for the full hour—7:30 to 8:30 p.m. EDT Friday. Humphrey aides earlier reported a tentative agreement to divide it into three segments: foreign affairs, domestic policy, and concepts of the presidency.

"We're going to try to solve the problems and if we solve the problems then we'll go to the networks," McCarthy's campaign manager, Blair Clark, said Monday night.

ALL THREE
He said all three networks have tentatively set aside the Friday night time, pending solution of the problems, and would carry the debate simultaneously.

Clark said he was optimistic agreement on the format would be reached. But a Humphrey aide, Ted Van Dyke, said prospects for holding the debate will depend on whether the equal time problem "can be worked out to the satisfaction of all the candidates."

Sen. George S. McGovern, who announced his Democratic candidacy two weeks ago, has said his exclusion from the Humphrey-McCarthy debate violates the Federal Communications Commission's equal time provision.

FREE EXCHANGE
The Columbia Broadcasting System, handling arrangements for the networks, has offered McGovern a half-hour broadcast, sometime after the Humphrey-McCarthy exchange.

Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox, who entered the Democratic race Saturday, called Monday for a debate between all four Democratic presidential aspirants but did not refer specifically to the Friday night time.

The McCarthy camp originally proposed three separate debates on foreign affairs, domestic policy and concepts of the presidency.

But an aide said now that there will be only one debate it should be open to a free exchange and not categorized into three 20-minute segments.

RIDICULOUS
In separate development, a McCarthy spokesman said it was "ridiculous and completely unfounded" to say McCarthy had withdrawn from an NBC "Meet the Press" appearance with Humphrey next Sunday.

"We had never committed Sen. McCarthy to the show but had tried hard to work out a mutual convenient time," said McCarthy's scheduling director, Norval Reece. "Any statement saying Sen. McCarthy withdrew is ridiculous and completely unfounded."

Reece said McCarthy has a prior commitment for another live television interview in Washington Sunday and is to meet with the Illinois Democratic delegation later in the day in Chicago.

The National Broadcasting Co. said in New York McCarthy had withdrawn from the program, which was to be a panel interview show not connected with the proposed debate.

Few Showers Are Expected

The weather today in Texas will follow what has become a pattern this month with clear to partly cloudy skies, temperatures reaching the upper 90s and scattered mostly afternoon thundershowers, the Weather Bureau says.

An upper trough over Louisiana is expected to move into the Texas coastal area by tonight bringing with it an increase in shower activity.

In extreme Southwest Texas, moisture from the remains of Tropical Storm Hyacinth, which has moved northward out of the Gulf of California, should spread cloudiness and showers, forecasters say.

Thundershower activity is expected to be at a minimum over North Texas today while scattered to widely scattered mainly afternoon thundershowers are expected in South Texas.

Monday showers fell along the middle and upper Gulf Coast, in Southwest Texas and northeast of Lubbock but all of it was very light. The only measurable rainfall was .02 of an inch at Galveston.

Temperatures Monday ranged from a 100-degree reading at Cotulla down to a maximum of 81 at Alpine in the Big Bend area.

Sleepless Broadcaster

Bobby Dark, KBST disc jockey, begins a marathon or continuous broadcasting at 5:45 a.m. Wednesday in an effort to pass the 107-hour mark and set a world record. He will be broadcasting from the Montgomery Ward show window in Highland Center.

'Fat Daddy' Takes Aim At Air Record

Bobby Dark, the "Fat Daddy" disc jockey of KBST, takes to the airways at 5:45 a.m. Wednesday to attempt to set a world record for continuous broadcasting — more than 107 hours before the microphone.

Dark will be on the air 24 hours a day, broadcasting from a special studio constructed in a 10 by 20 foot area in the Montgomery Ward show window in Highland Center.

KBST has received special permission for round-the-clock broadcasting from the FCC. The regular studios will be silent during this marathon with all broadcasting originating from Dark in the show window. Montgomery Ward has had special loud speakers placed outside the window.

"I'm looking forward to getting underway," Dark said. "I feel certain I can go six or seven days without sleep."

KBST is currently awaiting official word from Billboard Magazine concerning the world record.

Dark's real name is Jay Caple. He was born and reared in Dallas and has been in radio six years. The 20-year-old man attended Abilene Christian College for three years and has been employed at radio stations in Abilene, Brownfield and Dallas.

Jerry Blades, operating manager of Montgomery Ward, and Bill Harris, merchandising manager, have been certified as Dark's official "babysitters." One will be with him at all times to make sure he "doesn't decide to take a nap," Harris said.

The store will observe regular hours except for Friday when a "Midnight Madness" sale will keep them open until 11 p.m. The store's snack bar will serve Dark's meals.

A $100 bill will go to the first person to catch him napping, Harris said.

and then to assemble the required structure in the cosmos from the separate parts," he said.

"The first of these methods is associated with vast expenses. For even now large carrier rockets are as tall as a 30-story house and the advisability of further increasing their height is called in question by many experts."

LIFE SUPPORT
Raushenbakh said the Russians twice have demonstrated automatic rendezvous and docking in space—with Cosmos 186 and 188 in 1967 and with Cosmos 212 and 213 this year.

Soviet scientists concentrated on unmanned rather than manned space linkups, he said, because of safety and economic considerations. Manned satellites—the technique of the U.S. Gemini program—have to be equipped with costly life support re-entry equipment, he explained.

"The automatic rendezvous and docking is absolutely indispensable to the modern flight technique" for such work as delivering supplies to an orbital station.

Manned docking missions, he said, will be necessary for flying to an automatically assembled space station.

VIENNA (AP) — A Soviet space scientist hinted today that instead of building a new super-rocket, the Russians may be concentrating on sending up small rockets to form "large cosmic stations" in orbit. The cosmic stations could be used as a springboard to the moon.

Dr. B. V. Raushenbakh, in a report to the U.N. Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Outer Space, said small unmanned rockets were far less expensive and risky than superrockets.

MORE POWERFUL
American space officials reported recently that the Soviet Union may be developing a rocket more powerful than the United States' 36-story-tall Saturn 5, the largest booster ever launched. The Saturn 5 has placed 140-ton satellites in earth orbit.

But in a report on two unmanned Soviet space docking missions, Raushenbakh hinted that a new rocket is not in the Soviet plans.

He said there were two basic methods of placing heavy satellites in orbit.

"Either it is possible to make more and more powerful carrier rockets, or to put into orbit heavy satellites in parts, using comparatively small carriers,

NEWSPAPERS GET THINGS DONE

Four Blond Boys Signed For 'Midnight Cowboy'

Two young brothers from Corpus Christi, their cousin of Big Spring, all of whom are blond and blue-eyed and look as "Midnight Cowboy" director John Schlesinger imagines his star Jon Voight looked at ages 5 and 9, have been chosen for scenes to be filmed this week at the Sally Buck Beauty Parlor on East Third Street and at Moss Creek Lake.

Stanley Walter Owens, 5, and his brother Gary Wayne, 10, were seen by casting director Victor Ramos on a Big Spring street last week while here with their mother, Mrs. Robert Owens, visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Owens and Mrs. W. A. Allen. The family lives at 3506 Columbine in Corpus Christi where Owens is a civil engineer with Mobil Oil.

Mrs. Owens' sister, Mrs. Thomas Ford Marlowe, 1819 Benton, had been asked to bring her son "Tom" Thomas, Jr., who is almost 5 to be interviewed by Schlesinger at the Ramada Inn, where the film company is based. Marlowe works for Trans-Texas Airways and is associated with the Breckenridge Grain and Supply Co. which Mrs. Marlowe manages.

Rounding-out the quartet is 8-year old Rodney Smith, son of Mrs. Tommy Smith, 3929 E. Everglade, Odessa, who works for the Permian Brine Salesman Service.

At least two of the boys will appear in scenes with Ruth White, Broadway actress who is playing the part of Sally Buck, beauty parlor proprietor and grandmother of the title character.

Dustin Hoffman co-stars with Jon Voight in "Midnight Cowboy," which is being produced by Jerome Hellman. Also featured in the Texas sequences is Jennifer Salt, daughter of Walter Salt who wrote this screen adaptation of a James Leo Hally novel.

JOSEPH DAWES

Math Teacher Pens Article

Joseph Dawes, computer math teacher at Big Spring High School, has an article concerning the local computer programming classes in this month's edition of "The Office, Magazine of Management, Equipment and Automation."

The class in computer fundamentals is designed as a one-semester course for 30-35 juniors and seniors. Each class contains 10-15 students.

The article, titled "How High School Students Learn Programming Basics," described the course and students' reactions to working with computers.

Dawes, a 1955 graduate of BSHS, has been teaching in the local school system seven years. He taught math at Goliad Junior High until the spring semester of this year, when the computer math course was launched.

He graduated from the University of Texas in 1958 with a BA degree. He has done graduate work in sociology and recently completed a computer orientation course offered to local teachers by Genco, Inc.

Following his graduation from college he was stationed in Austin with the National Guard.

He and his wife, Susan, choral director at Goliad, live at 2510 Broadway. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William R. Dawes, 2804 Cactus. Dawes is principal of Marcy Elementary and Mrs. Dawes is secretary to the school superintendent.

Salem Church Burglarized

Salem Church, north of Coahoma, was burglarized over the weekend, according to Sheriff A. N. Standard.

A crystal glass serving set was taken, along with its holder, and parts of the coffee urn are missing. The articles were removed from the education building of the church which the sheriff was told, is left unlocked.

Some slight vandalism was noted, but the sheriff said that the damage may have been caused by the prowler's search for other valuables in the room.

The split between the 52-year-old PGA and the rebel tour is now official Monday when the players' attorney, Sam Gates, announced formation of American Professional Golfers, an organization he said includes all the top names in the golf world.

Packers Look Tired And Old In Defeat

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — The world champion Green Bay Packers, hoping to prove they can win without a taskmaster head coach, have dropped a second straight National Football League exhibition. And if anyone felt worse than Coach Phil Bengtson after Monday night's 10-7 loss to the Chicago Bears, it had to be Bengtson's players. KEEN DISAPPOINTMENT "When you like a guy, you feel much more responsible," said veteran guard Jerry Kramer. "We're all extremely dis-

Graebner Wins After Scare In Net Meet

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — Clark Graebner, a U.S. Davis Cup star, is a veteran of pressure-packed tennis matches, but he admits he can get nervous when the going gets tough. Graebner's nerves gave way and came close to costing him the embarrassment of elimination in his belated debut Monday in the 88th U.S. National Championships at Longwood. After winning the first two sets in fairly easy fashion, the 24-year-old Graebner had to conquer this temper and survive a bitter struggle for a 6-3, 6-3, 6-7, 7-6 victory over underhanded Sherwood Stewart, a Lamar Tech student from Baytown, Tex., ranked 88th in 1967.

Gibson Closing In On Keefe Record

By The Associated Press
The National League race gets lighter and lighter—at the bottom, not the top. St. Louis' high-flying Cardinals continue to cruise along in first place with a fat 13-game lead but there's a dandy battle in the second division with 4½ games separating five teams. Leading the also-rans in sixth place is Pittsburgh with a two-game edge on Philadelphia. Three games over Houston, 3½ over New York and 4½ over Los Angeles. ASTROS WIN All of the have-nots except Houston lost Monday night with New York putting up the fiercest battle before bowing 1-0 to San Francisco in 17 innings. Houston whipped Los Angeles 8-5, Cincinnati rapped Pittsburgh 8-3, St. Louis blanked Philadelphia 2-0 and Chicago dropped Atlanta 5-1. Bob Gibson won his 18th game of the season and 15th straight with a two-hitter against the Phillies. It was the 10th shutout for the big right-hander. Gibson is now four away from the record of 19 consecutive victories set in 1888 by J. T. Keefe of the New York Giants and matched by Rube Marquard of the Giants in 1912.

Tribe Tries To Upgrade 6-4 Record This Fall

ABILENE — The surprise team of the 1967 Lone Star Conference football race, McMurry College, opens fall drills Aug. 31 with approximately 50 candidates expected to answer the opening whistle. Included among the 50 prospects will be 21 returning lettermen and 12 squadmen who carried the Indians to a third place tie in the LSC last fall and a 6-4 over-all record. Head coach Buddy Fornes, entering his third year at the helm, will hold the first team meeting on check-in day, Aug. 30, at 5:30 p.m. Two-a-days begin the following morning and run through Sept. 6, with a game-type scrimmage tentatively set for Sept. 7. McMurry goes into the 1968 campaign rated as a fifth place finisher by the annual poll of league coaches and Texas Football Magazine. In its second year in the rugged Lone Star Conference, McMurry improved from 9-6-1 in 1966 to 4-3 and a tie with Howard Payne College for third in 1967. Nine offensive starters and eight defensive regulars return. Top names on offense are All-Lone Star Conference center Gordon Hubenak and second team All-LSC tailback Jerry Andrus. Junior quarterback Richard Pucket is expected to direct the attack with backup support from sophomores Matt Chalmers and Roger Martin. With four second team All-LSC defenders back, the Indians should be strong again. In a major switch, Chester Dougherty will move from cornerback to linebacker. The 216-pound senior is a three-year letterman. Other returning All-LSC personnel include guard Tully Windham from Baird, cornerback Chip Pucket of Winters and tackle John Bentley from Amarillo Tascosa.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart
Sports dialogue: RON FIMRITE, San Francisco columnist: "Baseball has no business copying the National Football League in setting up divisions within its leagues. Football thrives on playoffs. It has to be the champion of this playing the champion of that in order to create an atmosphere of grave importance that gives the game sustenance. Football fans thrive on 'crucials.' They must be given at least the impression that what they are watching is an event comparable to the Battle of the Bulge. As a result, there was a period last year when just about every time you switched on the old television, a championship game of some sort or another was in progress. Baseball isn't like this. It is a game of mounting suspense, not one of instant excitement. No great portent is attached to individual ball games. The season simply drones to a point where suddenly one is conscious of a pennant race. There is meaning to it all, because winning a pennant is just about the most important thing on earth. It's that important because the pennant-winner then play in the World Series, and no mere football game can match that sanctified event in significance. In American athletics, the World Series is IT. Every people who would rather spend an afternoon in a mortuary than go to a baseball game pay attention to the World Series. To do otherwise is plain un-American."

NO WORRIES

Gates, asked about a rumor that Arnold Palmer and Bob Rosburg might break away and form a tour of their own, said: "We have no regrets. I have had long talks with Palmer and Rosburg. You don't have to worry about them."

DOWN TO NINTH

The loss shoved New York into ninth place behind the Astros. Houston subdued last place Los Angeles, scoring seven times in the third inning. Two-run singles by Dave Giusti and Rusty Staub were the key hits in the rally.

Redmond, Kemper Win Matches

Larry Redmond and V. W. Kemper finished on top in matches at the Mesquite Gun Club near Vincent Sunday. Larry won the trap shoot (10 in 15) in a three-way shoot-off with Kemper, who finished second, and J. H. Redmon, who was third. In the original round, each had 17 of 20. Kemper won the pistol shoot with 80 of 100; Larry Redmond was second with 76 of 100; and Larry Barrett was third with 83 of 100. The next match will be Sept. 1 and will feature a trap shoot.

Mavs, Yearlings Clash In Opener

Ten-game schedules have been booked for both the Rannels and Goliad Junior High School football teams. The Yearlings and the Mavericks will open against each other at 6 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 14, and will tangle again in the season's final contest Thursday, Nov. 14. Jack Gray, one-time head coach at Cross Plains, will serve as head coach of the Goliad team this year while Dan Lewis returns as the Rannels mentor. Tom Adams will help Gray while Bob Zellars serves in a similar capacity at Rannels. The schedules: GOLIAD: Sept. 14 — Goliad, here. Thurs., Sept. 19 — Snyder Travis. RANNELS: Sept. 14 — Goliad, here. ### FIGHT RESULTS

MONDAY NIGHT TOKYO: In the main, 160 lb. Brazil outpointed Marine Fual, 161, Japan, 10. ST. LOUIS: Don Cobbs, 136, St. Louis, knocked out MacLeod, 153, Grand Rapids, Mich., 6; Norbert Cody, 146, St. Louis, stopped "Smiling" Johnson, 145, Chicago, 1.

AL DAVIS, general manager of the Oakland Raiders: "The most expensive thing you can do is play in the Super Bowl. We got $35,000 from the game. After paying transportation, buying rings with three-quarters carat diamonds for our players and 22 partners and pendants for the wives, we were left with $20,000. And our players have probably asked for $300,000 more in salary."

LEONARD KOPPETT, New York scribe: "If Bob Gibson of the St. Louis Cardinals happened to do exactly what he has done for a team based in New York, he would be famous, beyond the narrow world of baseball, as Roger Maris was in 1961 when he hit 61 home runs. But Gibson has done it for St. Louis, and the recognition he has received has really been limited to buffs and professional athletes. This injustice is inescapable precisely because it is unintentional. No malice is involved, or any purposeful overpromotion of New York players. It is an impersonal consequence of New York's position at the hub of the country's communications system."

Reagan Places In Two Events

Horace Reagan of Big Spring was fifth in one division of competition and third in another in the Texas Hunting Rifle championships held at the Permian Basin Rifle and Pistol range southeast of Midland Sunday. Reagan wound up fifth in the 100-yard range match, an event won by John Thomas of Midland. Reagan was also third among grand aggregate winners, Class I. That phase of competition was won by Bob Hanson, Midland.

Blake Greet 28 Players

ACKERLY — Twenty-eight boys greeted coach James Blake when Sand High School launched football workouts here Monday evening. Among those suiting out was letterman Ray Rodriguez, a halfback on offense and safety on defense, who had indicated he might not play. Blake has lined up a Sept. 6 scrimmage here with the Big Spring Sophomores and would like another one for his boys. The coach indicated he would work primarily on techniques and fundamentals this week, as the Mustangs ready themselves for their debut into 11-man ball. Ronnie Gandy is Blake's lone helper. The school has not yet hired another coach. Among the 28 players are nine lettermen. Only eight of the squad are seniors.

ERNIE GREEN, newly named captain of the Cleveland Browns: "If we can keep (quarterback) Frank Ryan in one piece this year, we'll win the championship."

FLOYD LITTLE, ace back for the Denver Broncos: "Whether it's high school, college or pro, you always get great holes to run at in dummy drills. What ever happens to them in games?"

CHARLIE MAYS, Negro long-jump star, talking about the proposed boycott of his race in the upcoming Olympic Games: "Sure, I'll boycott. If I don't make the team, I'll boycott it. Harry Edwards has tried to set himself up as our leader. And he did it without even approaching most of us, especially those of us in the East. He got a few guys in San Jose to say they would boycott, and then tried to tell everyone else to do the same thing. But you know what he's asking — he's asking a man to give up his life. Because track and field is a way of life. It's in your blood. If I'm good enough to win a gold medal, you don't think I wouldn't accept it. I don't want to show the way for our people, but personally, I think what I say will have more value if I can go back to them, and talk to them, as an Olympic medal winner."

Add Linebacker

ESCONDIDO, Calif. (AP) — The San Diego Chargers Monday signed linebacker Tom Erland on, acquired on waivers from Miami in exchange for an undisclosed draft choice.

Nolan Facing Big Problem

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — When a new coach takes over a professional football team, he figures to have his work cut out for him: assessing personnel, introducing formations and attending to dozens of unfamiliar details. But Dick Nolan, who this year assumed control of the San Francisco 49ers, has another problem on top of all the others: fighting a tradition of losing. Since 1950, when the 49ers joined the National Football League from the old All-America Conference, they have never won a Western Division title. The closest they have come was in 1957 when they tied for first. Nolan was a nine-year NFL veteran when in 1963 he joined the coaching staff of the Dallas Cowboys and, under Tom Landry, learned what coaching a winner is like. "We're building something here," Nolan said recently, reflecting on the first few weeks he has spent with the club. "They have to believe they can win." George Mira, now in his fifth year of trying to oust John Brodie from the No. 1 quarterback spot, says, "It's going to take time, but we have a good team and whole of a coach." Many of the rest of the players are saying much the same thing. One of the things Nolan brought with him from Dallas was the multiple offense. Nolan says it will take some time before the 49ers are totally comfortable with the multiple offense and that, in fact, it can be so intricate that, "I'd never try to put the whole thing in in one year. It's taken many years to develop at Dallas." In the quarterback battle between Brodie, Mira and second-year man Steve Spurrier, Nolan hasn't yet committed himself, but indications are that Brodie, in his 12th year, may be the eventual winner. Of his rookies, Nolan has been most impressed with Kevin Hardy, the Notre Dame defensive lineman who was a gift from Commissioner Pete Rozelle when Dave Parks defected to New Orleans; running back Dwight Lee from Michigan a State and defensive back Johnny Fuller from Lamar Tech.

HE'S NERVOUS

"I was nervous after falling into a bad position and anybody who thinks I wasn't is crazy," Graebner said. Stewart, a muscular power hitter, broke Graebner in the first game of the third set and Graebner, who won the deciding singles match for the U.S. victory over Spain in the Davis Cup inter-zone matches Sunday, was upset. During a break for a brief rest, he complained bitterly about the turf conditions of Longwood's center stadium court. He still was fuming when he returned.

Small Fry Set For Playoffs

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The 22nd annual Little League World Series was scheduled to open at 2 p.m. today with Nicaragua, a country never before represented, playing Canada, a country that has never won the title. In the 5 p.m. second game, the North Region, represented by Terre Haute, Ind., was set to take on the South, represented by a team from the Richmond, Va., area. This year's series will be played in a new $300,000 stadium, which will be dedicated before the championship game Saturday. The 4,500-seat structure will replace temporary bleachers that have been used since 1959. The Latin Americans, from Chinendaga, a small farming community about 100 miles from Managua, finished 5-2 in the Latin American region playoffs. They succeed Nevo Leon, last year's regional representative from Mexico—a country which usually wins the Latin American tourney. The Canadians from Sherbrooke-Lennoxville, Que. will try to win the championship that Stoney Creek almost brought home to Canada in 1965. In that year, the Canadian entry finished second. The Tigers are working out at 4 a.m. and again at 6 p.m. daily.

Dear Abby Two-Timer In Family

DEAR ABBY: How is this for a strange twist of events? I am 50 and have been keeping company with a very attractive, rather well-to-do bachelor of 55 for about a year.

I have a daughter (age 28) who is married to a nice young man. She has two children. On my birthday my gentleman friend invited my daughter and her husband to join us for dinner. They had never met before.

Well, as it turned out, my daughter became interested in my friend and invited him over one evening when her husband was out of town. (He travels, and she has a clear field.) I'm not guessing, I saw his car.

Now I notice that when my son-in-law is never home, and I can't seem to find my friend either. Now the only time I see him is when my daughter's husband is home!

I realize that my daughter started all of this, but what am I going to do? If my son-in-law ever found out, he would break this man in half! What is your advice? It's conceivable that she'd leave her husband for this man. DAUGHTER TROUBLE

DEAR TROUBLE: Drop your friend, and tell him why. He will most assuredly pass the word on to your daughter, and, hopefully, it will scare a little sense into her. Your daughter has my sympathy. A woman who has a two-timing gentleman friend doesn't know what trouble is until she "wins" him. Then she has a two-timing husband.

DEAR ABBY: When I was 15 years old I had a child out of wedlock at a home for unwed mothers. I signed a paper agreeing to give my baby up for adoption to a couple who were waiting for it, because at the time I thought it was the best thing to do. My mother went with me and she also signed the adoption papers because I was a minor.

Now I'm nearly 18 and I'm going to be married soon to a boy who knows all about my past. Abby, now I want more than anything in the whole world to have my baby back. Isn't it true that because I was a minor when I signed the adoption papers it isn't legal? Please tell me how to get my baby back. SORRY NOW

DEAR SORRY: You can't.

Opening lead: Queen of ♣ Careful play by South enabled him to overcome the adversities of unfavorable distribution and guide his grand slam contract safely home.

South opened the bidding with one diamond and North temporized by responding with one heart, a one round force. Altho the opening bidder held substantial excess values, his singleton heart deterred him from taking strong action on the next round, and he contented himself with a simple rebid of one spade.

North's jump to four spades announced the equivalent of an opening bid, including a strong trump fit. South restrained himself no longer and embarked on a Blackwood inquiry. When North showed the missing aces plus one king, South decided to gamble out a grand slam in spades on the assumption that his partner's heart suit could be established for whatever discards might be required.

West opened the queen of clubs and North's ace won the first trick. An examination of the combined holdings convinced South that it would be easier to establish the dummy—than his own hand. Accordingly, he cashed the ace of hearts and ruffed a heart with the three of spades.

The dummy was reentered with the ten of spades and a third round of hearts was trumped with the queen of spades as East discarded a club. A diamond was led to the queen, West following suit with the nine, and South established the heart suit by ruffing a fourth lead with the ace of spades, his last trump.

It appeared to South that West might be short in diamonds and, as a precautionary measure, declarer cashed the king of clubs on which he discarded North's eight of diamonds. The ace of diamonds was led next and West realized that he could not gain by ruffing, for North would overruff, pick up the remaining trumps and then run the hearts.

West discarded a club on the high diamond and, when declarer continued with the king of diamonds, West parted with another club. On the next diamond he was obliged to ruff with the six of spades, since he had nothing left except trumps. Dummy overruffed with the eight and the king and jack of spades took the last two tricks.
