

STILL CRITICAL 'Encouraging' Report Made On Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today some "encouraging" signs in former President Dwight D. Eisenhower's condition, but said it is still critical and the question of whether he will survive will remain unpredictable for some time.

The doctors, at Walter Reed Army Hospital, gave this appraisal in a formal medical bulletin which was later amplified in response to questions submitted by reporters.

The formal bulletin said that Eisenhower has shown less evidence of heart irritability — irregular and rapid beats — since Thursday night's report and that "while this in itself is encouraging, the general's over-all condition must still be considered critical" and the outlook as to whether or not he will survive this attack remains "guarded" — meaning unpredictable and uncertain.

One of the questions submitted by newsmen was as follows:

"Would the 'immediate critical period' for the general's present type of heart attack — ventricular fibrillation — normally be expected to last longer than the week's period you have said in past statements generally constitutes the immediate critical period following a myocardial infarction? If so, how much longer?"

"Cannot as yet be determined," was the doctors' answer.

Bible Fund Report

Another good day pushed the high school Bible Fund total near the thousand dollar mark Friday, and if response is good Saturday, the annual campaign may be near the one-third mark.

In addition to the generous gifts of individuals, the First Baptist Church sent in a budget support of $400 (which is not included in these totals given over to those not having regular pledges to the fund.

As was the case Thursday, a dozen friends had a part in supplying $115 more to the fund. Please send or mail your gift to The Herald for acknowledgment. The list of latest donors includes:

Fred Kasch Injured

Fred Kasch, partner in Kasch Bros., Inc., building contractors, was in a hospital in Houston today as a result of serious injuries received on a job at Lufkin Thursday afternoon.

He sustained a basal skull fracture and a fracture of the left arm above the wrist, as well as possible other injuries, and his condition was regarded as serious. However, he was resting in a generally satisfactory manner at the Methodist Hospital in Houston.

Kasch was supervising work on a junior college project at Lufkin, directing the pouring of a slab over an insulating decking of a boiler house. He fell through the ceiling to the floor below.

Mrs. Kasch was at his bedside, having been flown to Lufkin by Dr. P. W. Malone. He returned later in the afternoon with his son, Donnie.

The contractor was pressing for completion of the job, delayed by incessant rains in the past three months, in order to have buildings ready by opening in September.

Political Rally Set

An old-fashioned "Political Rally" with music, watermelon and speakers will be held Saturday at the City Park Amphitheatre by the Howard County American Party.

Speakers will be Dr. Henry Bucklew, Laurel, Miss., the campaign director of George Wallace in five states, and H. Dustin Fillmore, a Wichita Falls attorney.

Dr. Bucklew is a former mayor of Laurel and that position is now being held by his wife. An ordained Southern Baptist minister, he is author, owner and editor of the Southern Baptist News. He traveled to three Iron Curtain countries July, 1966, to observe communism at work.

The rally begins at 7 p.m. and the public is invited. Literature will be available and on display. Further information can be obtained from the American Party headquarters at 600 E. Third. E. O. McNeese is chairman of the local campaign for George Wallace.

LUDVIK SVOBODA

Czech Prexy Visits Moscow

MOSCOW (AP) — President Ludvik Svoboda of Czechoslovakia, who has called on his people to "have trust in me," flew to Moscow today for consultations at the Kremlin about the Soviet-led military occupation of his liberal-minded nation.

The Russians gave a full ceremonial welcome to Svoboda, a colleague of World War II whose name means freedom in Czech. He holds the wartime Soviet decoration "Hero of the Soviet Union."

VIP RECEPTION

Svoboda was received at Moscow's Vnukovo Airport, which is reserved for VIPs—very important people.

He was apparently trying to break a deadlock with the Soviet Union over a new government for his country, led since last January by Alexander Dubcek, the now imprisoned chief of the Czechoslovak Communist party.

The top Soviet leaders—Communist party general secretary Leonid I. Brezhnev, Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and President Nikolai V. Podgorny—turned out at the airport to greet Svoboda.

The free Czechoslovak radio reported the president had refused to accept a Soviet puppet regime.

DEPUTY TOO

Deputy Premier Gustav Husak made the trip with the 63-year-old chief of state.

But the six-man delegation also included two party secretaries identified as willing to collaborate with the occupation forces—Vasil Bilak and Alois Indra.

Defiant Czechs Stage 1-Hour General Strike

Protest Invasion Of Soviet Troops

PRAGUE (AP) — Defiant Czechoslovaks staged a one-hour general strike today to protest the Soviet-led invasion intended to crush their nation's liberalization, and President Ludvik Svoboda went to Moscow for talks with Soviet leaders.

Prague streets were deserted as sirens and bells at noon signaled the start of the strike, called by liberal Czechoslovak Communists. Numerous arrests by occupation forces were reported, with journalists and cultural leaders the chief targets.

RADIO HELP

The clandestine free Radio Prague began broadcasting license numbers and makes of cars being used by agents making the arrests, presumably the pro-Soviet faction of the Czechoslovak police.

Young people printed leaflets carrying the license numbers and urging Czechoslovaks to hinder the movement of these cars. One report said one of the cars was destroyed.

No shooting was heard during the morning and Prague was generally calm. Soviet tanks occupied all bridges but automobiles were permitted to use at least one.

Svoboda's departure was indicated by the lowering of the presidential flag at Hradcany Castle, his official residence.

The U.S. Embassy, which dispatched a special train that carried 245 Americans and 181 other foreigners to Austria Thursday, arranged for two more trains to Austria today. People with cars were advised to drive out on their own.

A motorcade carrying more than 400 Americans reached West Germany Thursday without incident. Even Czechoslovaks with valid exit papers were permitted to leave.

Czechoslovak troops on the main highway at the West German border, however, closed that exit for an hour in support of the general strike. A dispatch from the frontier said they affixed a large sign across the thick, movable barrier with the words "Stavka Strelk 12-13," meaning proceedings were being halted from 12 noon to 1 p.m.

Svoboda and the Czechoslovak Communist party, which had tried to bring some freedom to the nation, both vowed not to recognize any Soviet puppet government.

Efforts to form such a government apparently were the reason for a visit by Soviet Ambassador Ivan Chervonenko to Svoboda's quarters in Prague Castle Thursday.

LEGAL ONLY

The president has declared he would recognize only the legal government headed by Premier Oldrich Cernik, who is in Soviet hands.

Meeting secretly to avoid Soviet controls, the Communist party called the proposal to walk off the job at noon today unless the occupation troops pull out and release Czechoslovak liberal leaders.

A pro-liberal radio, operating from a hidden location, said 1,219 of the 1,540 party congress delegates attended the meeting but most Slovak delegates were detained on their way to the congress.

The delegates re-elected Alexander Dubcek—the man who ended 20 years of Stalinist-type rule in Czechoslovakia last January—as their leader.

They named Venek Silhan, an economist, to head the party while Dubcek and other top leaders are Soviet captives.

SHOOTING

Sporadic shooting continued in Prague into the early evening Thursday. No precise count was available, but the death toll from the occupation apparently rose to 26. The occupation forces started their curfew two hours earlier Thursday night, making it from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m.

Malik told Ball the veto "will continue to afford, as long as the United Nations exists, the possibility for the Soviet Union to defend a just cause."

Malik indicated he would use it once more against Ignatieff's resolution. He said the sponsors wanted to "drag the secretary-general of the United Nations into the affairs of Socialist countries" but would "not succeed."

The resolution's sponsors were the same eight countries that sponsored the condemnatory resolution—Brazil, Senegal, the United States, Britain, France, Canada, Denmark and Paraguay.

Soviet Veto Kills U.N. Condemnation

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y.

(AP) — A Soviet veto today killed an eight-nation resolution that asked the U.N. Security Council to condemn the Soviet-bloc occupation of Czechoslovakia and to call for the troops to withdraw.

The vote was 10-2 with 3 abstentions. The Soviet Union and Hungary voted no. Algeria, India and Pakistan abstained.

VETOED

Soviet Ambassador Jacob A. Malik vetoed the proposal at 3:28 a.m. after he and Hungarian, Bulgarian and Polish delegates had filibustered past midnight to delay the voting.

U.S. Ambassador George W. Ball said the Soviet Union had just cast its 105th veto. But he declared that it could not "suffocate the soul of a proud people" in Czechoslovakia.

Canadian Ambassador George Ignatieff then introduced a new resolution requesting Secretary-General U Thant to "dispatch immediately to Prague a special representative who shall seek the release and ensure the personal safety of the Czechoslovak leaders under detention" and report back urgently.

At 3:54 a.m. the council president for the month, Brazilian Ambassador Joao Augusto de Araujo Castro, adjourned the meeting to 5 p.m. today.

Malik told Ball the veto "will continue to afford, as long as the United Nations exists, the possibility for the Soviet Union to defend a just cause."

Malik indicated he would use it once more against Ignatieff's resolution. He said the sponsors wanted to "drag the secretary-general of the United Nations into the affairs of Socialist countries" but would "not succeed."

Johnson's Name Tossed In Hopper

CHICAGO (AP) — The name of President Johnson was tossed back into the Democratic presidential picture today as the party prepared to open its national convention next week.

Frank C. Erwin, Texas national Democratic committee man, told the Rules Committee of "growing sentiment" within his state's delegation to nominate Johnson for re-election if the convention unit rule is abolished.

UNIT RULE

Erwin made the comment to a Rules Committee session convened to consider whether to forbid the rule under which a majority in a delegation determines how the entire state will vote during the convention.

Erwin appeared on behalf of Texas Gov. John Connally, a close associate of Johnson. The President said last March 31 he would not seek or accept his party's nomination for a second term.

The matter arose when Erwin, who had delivered a passionate defense of the unit rule as "pure democracy," was asked by George Cox of Wyoming how the Texas delegates would vote if the unit rule were abandoned.

"If the unit rule is abrogated or if the convention next Tuesday night votes not to enforce the unit rule," Erwin said, "there is a growing sentiment among those of us here in Chicago that Gov. Connally should withdraw as a favorite son and for Texas to request one of the early states to yield to Texas to nominate another great Texan who holds the highest elective office in the land."

RENEWED EFFORTS

Meanwhile Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's supporters, undecided whether to accept a compromise in the Georgia credentials dispute, renewed their efforts today in two other key committees to loosen Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's grip on the convention.

And as both forces worked feverishly on behalf of their candidates for the party's presidential nomination, the shadow of Kennedy's past was etched sharply over this steamy convention city.

Neither Julian Bond, leader of the Georgia loyalist group, nor Joseph L. Rauh Jr., had decided whether to accept the Credentials Committee compromise awarding the loyalists half of the state's 43 convention votes. The regular party forces led by Gov. Lester G. Maddox were given the other half.

Five Rape-Murder Suspects Hunted

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Law enforcement agencies in El Paso and Southern New Mexico were notified Thursday to be on the lookout for suspects wanted for questioning in connection with the rape-murder of two Juarez girls Wednesday.

The two girls, 4-year-old Maria del Carmen Chairez and 5-year-old Maria Ester Pastrana, were found about 2 p.m. Thursday after an extensive search. The bodies were found stuffed inside a refrigerator near the girls' homes.

Juarez Police Chief Jose Rubalcava said one of the girls had been strangled, the other apparently suffocated inside the refrigerator.

The search began in the U.S. for five subjects, two believed headed for Alamogordo, N.M., the other three believed headed for Alpine, Tex. Juarez police said they were also holding four other suspects in connection with the case.

STEADY INCREASE INTERRUPTED

Tiny Decline In Smoking

WASHINGTON (AP) — For only the second time since the 1964 surgeon general's report linked the use of tobacco to cancer and other diseases, there has been a decline in cigarette smoking, according to government statistics.

The Internal Revenue Service today released figures showing Americans smoked 543.5 billion cigarettes in the fiscal year that ended last June 30, compared with 545.1 in fiscal 1967.

Although the .28 per cent drop was tiny, the decline interrupted a steadily growing increase in the use of tobacco in the United States since the initial fall following the surgeon general's report four years ago.

While the earlier drop was clearly linked to the cancer scare, there was nothing in the IRS figures to indicate what caused the latest decline.

Dr. William Stewart, U.S. surgeon general, said, however, that he thinks "the message is finally getting around."

A spokesman for the Tobacco Institute, the industry's lobbying and public relations arm, said the drop may not actually mean Americans are smoking less.

Instead, he suggested the drop may have reflected a fall off in cigarette production in fiscal 1968 due to labor strikes.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES A. PORTER

(Curley's Studio)

Reception Will Mark Wedding Anniversary

The Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Porter will be observed Sunday with a reception in their home at 1614 Young. Relatives and friends are invited to call between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

Hosting the affair will be the couple's nieces and nephews, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Thompson, Roscoe; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Newcomb, Austin; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Thompson Jr., Pasadena, Tex.; and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thompson of Metcalf.

Mrs. Porter, who will wear a royal blue shirtwaist dress, will be presented with a gold orchid, and Mr. Porter will receive a gold boutonniere.

Refreshments will be served from a table covered with an ecru lace cloth over gold, and the tiered cake will be decorated with confection roses and topped with gold satin bells. Crystal candelabra, holding gold tapers, will be tied with ribbon streamers, and other appointments will be of crystal and silver.

Members of the house party will be Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Statham, Mrs. Eva Watkins, Miss Lillie Mae Gandy, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Gandy, Kimberly Crittenden, Debbie Thompson of Roscoe and David Newcomb of Austin. Mrs. Claude Thompson will register guests at a table holding a 1918 model car arranged with yellow daisies. Guests are expected from Odessa, Lubbock, Roscoe, Austin, Sweetwater, Midland, Cooper, San Angelo and Pasadena, Tex.

Mrs. Porter is the former Frances Elizabeth Gillean, born in the Indian Territory of Oklahoma and reared on a farm near Cooper, Tex. Porter was born in Ennis and reared in Tennessee, where he taught school.

The couple met at church services and were married in her home a year later on Aug. 20, 1918. Their first home was in Dallas County, and it was in 1919 that they arrived in Westbrook by train, having heard that the drought was broken and a farmer could make good crops. After 10 years, they moved to Sweetwater, returning to the Elbow Community in 1959. When Porter retired in 1962, the couple moved to Big Spring. Mrs. Porter has managed cafeterias for the Big Spring School System for 10 years, and is now in charge of the Runnels cafeteria. She is a member of the Texas School Food Service Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter are affiliated with the Silver Heels Baptist Church. For many years, Porter assisted various churches as teacher and superintendent, and Mrs. Porter has taught Sunday school for over 25 years.

Coffee Held For Lions' Auxiliary

Mrs. Harlan H. Hulbregtse was hostess at a summer coffee for the downtown Lion's Auxiliary Wednesday morning in her home at 514 Scott. Mrs. Ernest Boyd was cohostess.

The refreshment table was laid with a green linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of sun flowers and orange zinnias. Silver appointments completed the setting. Mrs. Ross Turner and Mrs. John Hardy attended the silver coffee service.

Twenty members and one guest, Mrs. Ray Torp, attended.

Birthday Celebrated

An open house and garden party honoring Mrs. Mary Ehlmann on her 85th birthday was held Wednesday evening at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Pittman, 1224 E. 16th. Cohosts were another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Eul of St. Paul, Minn.

The honoree's granddaughters, Marti and Nancy Eul were assisted by Marilyn and James Cunningham in registering the 125 guests.

Members of the house party were Mrs. Willard Sullivan, Mrs. Pyrie Bradshaw, Mrs. Tip Anderson, Mrs. Harris McCannless, Mrs. C. A. Murdock, Mrs. Steve Baker, Mrs. Ed Hatch, Mrs. Hilo Hatch, Mrs. Jay Cunningham and Mrs. Will Alf Cobb.

Mrs. Ehlmann was attired in a pink lace dress and was presented an orchid corsage.

Colors of orchid and pink were carried out on the refreshment table, which featured a centerpiece of pink carnations and orchid asters. A large cake was decorated in pink, and the granddaughters had attached large letters to the side of the house saying "Happy Birthday, Grandmother."

See Style Show, Clinic In Odessa

Four local women were in Odessa Thursday to attend a style show and fashion clinic conducted by Mini Rhea, author of the book, "I was Jacqueline Kennedy's Dressmaker." Miss Rhea is now director of fashion styling for the "Fashion Wagon" of Minnesota Woolen Company of Duluth, Minn.

The clinic was held for advisors in the Big Spring-Odessa area, and those attending from here were Mrs. Bert Smith, Mrs. Clois Snell, Mrs. Don White and Mrs. Jim Williams.

Miss Rhea formerly operated a fashion salon in Washington, D.C., serving many prominent women, and she is also a well-known lecturer and self-improvement and personality development with the "Fashion Wagon." Miss Rhea creates a group of original designs which are a part of the company's line. Her philosophy in clothes: "Reflect your personality and emphasize your best features."

Tea For Teachers

An introductory teacher's coffee will be held from 3 to 4:30 p.m. Sunday in the Forsan High School cafeteria. The public is invited to attend.

Wedding Ceremony Performed In Teague

The Rev. Dalton W. Graves performed the double ring ceremony when Miss Linda Ann Brown became the bride of James Edwin Buchanan Aug. 16 at the Church of Christ in Teague. Rev. Dalton is minister of Woodland West Church of Christ in Arlington.

A choral group under the direction of R. C. Swaim of Crestview Church of Christ in Waco provided traditional wedding music.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Judd Brown of Teague, and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Buchanan of Lamesa.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a silk organza gown with Chanilly lace bodice designed with scalloped neckline, trimmed with pearls, and bell sleeves. The A-line skirt featured a deep lace panel, and the removable mantle chapel train was enhanced with lace motifs. A bow of silk organza and pearls held a silk illusion veil. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of white orchids surrounded by white carnations.

Miss Joy Brown, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Betsy Ross of Canton and Miss Cathy Glazener of Houston. They wore identical formal gowns of rose pink crepe, designed in Empire style and square necklines. Their headpieces were matching bows with silk illusion veils, and

Clerk Receives Marine's Heart

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — youngest of their 12 children, Surgeons at Stanford University Hospital transplanted the heart of a Marine into the chest of a retired Oregon postal clerk today.

The donor, Cpl. Larry B. Smith, 20, of Stockton, Calif., suffered what physicians termed irreversible brain damage in an automobile accident Aug. 14 near Stockton.

The recipient, Leonard Drake, 43, of Eugene, Ore., has suffered from a heart ailment for 12 years.

At the time of the accident, Smith was on leave from Camp Pendleton, Calif., visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith. He was to leave for Vietnam. His parents said Larry, had volunteered three times for combat.

Since his arrival at Stanford Hospital in June, Drake had been kept under close medical care awaiting a donor. Earlier, he had been treated at the University of Oregon Medical School.

Because of his heart illness, Drake had retired from his postal job and for the past year and a half had worked as a bailiff for the Lane County District Court in Eugene.

Drake and his wife have two children, Vicki, 11, and Jimmy, 10.

This was the 33rd heart transplant operation and 14 of the patients are still alive.

Texas Demos Take Train To Chicago

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas Democrats, joined en route by a group of Oklahoma party members, journey to Chicago today in what may be the last special national convention train from Texas.

The special 13-car Santa Fe Railway train was scheduled to leave Temple at 10:45 a.m. arriving in Chicago about 9 a.m. Saturday.

About 80 Texas convention delegates and alternates from throughout the state, including newsmen and state party headquarters workers, planned to board the special train in Temple.

TRAVEL IN STYLE
Stops for other Texas passengers were to be made in Fort Worth and Gainesville. A delegation of more than 30 Oklahoma delegates will get aboard in Oklahoma City.

En route, the delegates and convention visitors will travel in style in their pullman compartments and bedrooms with food and beverages available in a separate dining car and a glass-domed lounge car.

The Texas Democratic headquarters office will be in the rear car which would have been Gov. John Connally's travel suite if he had not decided to go to Chicago early for an appeal before the convention credentials committee.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin will be the ranking Texas official on the train. Speaker Ben Barnes, national committeeman Frank Erwin, and state Democratic Chairman Will Davis are already in Chicago. Lt. Gov. Preston Smith is not attending the convention.

The Oklahoma delegation will be headed by Bill Kerr, Oklahoma City, chairman of the state Central Democratic Committee.

LAST TIME?
The Texas' train is the first special to the convention since several special cars went to the 1956 convention in Chicago. Railroad men predict, in view of rapid discontinuance of rail passenger service, that the special likely will be the last such train from Texas to a national convention.

President Lyndon Johnson used a similar special train in his 1960 "whistlestop tour" of the South. In 1962, Connally used a special train for a campaign trip across the state from Texarkana to El Paso.

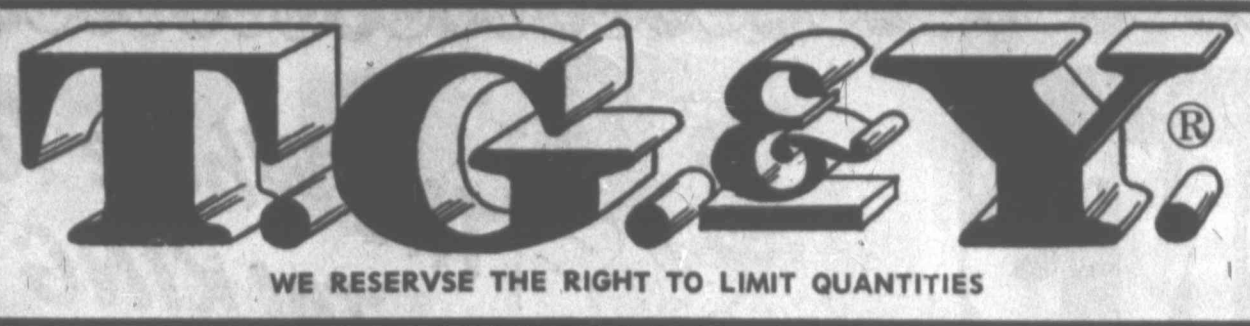

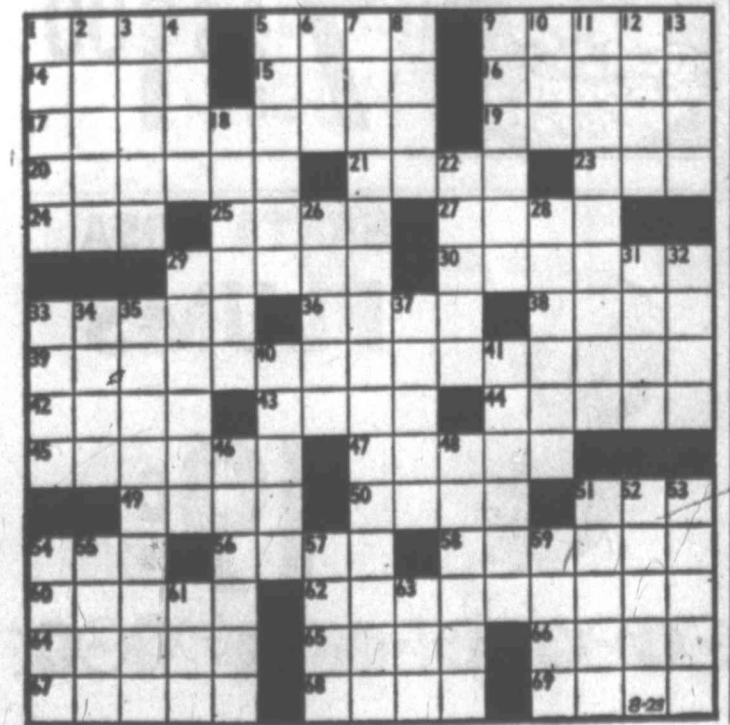

Other delegates plan to fly to Chicago Saturday and Sunday, with the first delegation caucus set for 5 p.m. Sunday at the delegation headquarters hotel, the Conrad Hilton.

Harrimans Play
PARIS (AP) — Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, U.S. representative at the Paris peace talks, flew to Spain with his wife Thursday for a long weekend with friends near Alicante on the Mediterranean Coast.

A Devotional For The Day

You will rejoice . . . though for the passing moment you need to suffer various trials; that is only to prove your faith is sterling. (I Peter 1:6, Moffatt)

PRAYER: Heavenly Father, we thank Thee that Thou hast a plan for our lives. We thank Thee for the fulfillment of that plan. Help us to accept, gratefully, the needful things. We ask in Christ's holy name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Needed: Reorganization

John W. Gardner, former secretary of health, education and welfare, warned the Republican National Convention platform committee that the federal government "cannot go on much longer" without broad and drastic reorganization.

But executive branch organizational reform seems no more likely to catch on as a major campaign issue with the Democrats at Chicago than it did with the Republicans at Miami Beach. No matter how much people complain of the "swollen federal bureaucracy" and waste in governmental spending, it is difficult to stir mass voter interest in the master key to the problem that Gardner offered.

Gardner is perhaps the most erudite man to serve in a presidential cabinet since Thomas Jefferson — a Stanford Ph.D. psychologist, educator, author, foundation executive, art connoisseur, and all-around intellectual — but he could not make the sprawling conglomerate that is the HEW department manageable. No one understands better the Washington affliction of trying to meet problem-solving challenges with new programs that require new agencies, or new bureaus in old departments, that in turn require new offices for coordination.

Nearly a generation ago the Hoover Commissions and Reorganization Acts sought a solution to this accelerating proliferation, and the presidency gained the power to make organizational reforms subject to congressional veto. But the trend has continued unabated, multiplying agencies and programs, piling the needed new on the obsolete old, tangling lines of authority, wasting manpower and money, and frustrating well-intentioned national purposes.

Despite apparent public apathy, the presidential candidates after the national conventions would do well to at least raise in debate the question of what specifically can be done about the operating inefficiency of the federal governmental machinery. It is not an emotion-stirring issue, but it is sure, but it goes to the ailing heart of effective self-rule in a burgeoning technological democracy — the core problem of this powerful but troubled nation.

Connally Guards His Fences

Gov. John Connally has gone to Chicago to make his views known to the platform committee of the National Democratic Convention and more especially to get in some licks against a group challenging the Texas delegate roster.

The dissident Texans, led by Sen. Ralph Yarborough and Maury Maverick Jr., long a leader in the liberal wing of the party, have made a slate out of whole cloth and asked nearly half the share of Texas votes without the unit rule, or else to be given all the Texas votes.

Gov. Connally has all the Texas delegation locked up as a favorite son candidate and is not apt to yield to the demands of the rival group. After all, the Connally forces won an overwhelming victory in the precinct and state conventions. Imposition of the unit rule — which may be open to question as a principle — was effected in keeping with past practices. Nothing irregular or illegal about it — just depends on who has it in his pocket.

There may come a time when the national convention will prohibit the unit rule, but until then the credentials committee is not likely to take ex post facto action. As for the complex of the Texas delegation, it probably meets all the requirements of general policy, and that means that Gov. Connally and his delegation will have a unified, strong voice in the convention.

Demos Must Take Stand On Vietnam

WASHINGTON — President Johnson has put squarely up to the Democratic national convention the question of whether the party intends to repudiate his Vietnam policy or to support the position of the American government that the next step must be a de-escalation of the war by the North Vietnamese before there can be any progress towards a cease-fire.

IN A SPEECH in Detroit at the convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, the President has just told the country that, while the American people are in the midst of a national political campaign — when it is natural that there is discussion and speculation — certain things are clear, such as these:

"Those half million American men are not out in Southeast Asia as Republicans or Democrats . . . They are out there as American sons fighting to protect the vital interests of America, as those interests have been determined by more than one President and by more than one Congress.

"THIS ADMINISTRATION does not intend to move further until it has good reason to believe that the other side intends seriously to join us in de-escalating the war and moving seriously toward peace. We are willing to take chances for peace but we cannot make foolhardy gestures for

Billy Graham

I am a Christian but have little desire to read the Bible. A preacher said that if we feel this way we should question our being a Christian. Can you tell me why I am so lax in my devotions?

Even though we are Christians, we must cultivate the desire to read God's Word. Christian maturity does not come in a twinkling of an eye. Don't be discouraged by the remark of the minister. He probably meant something quite different than you interpreted it to mean. A desire for the Word of God is one of the Christian evidences, but no one should imply that if you inadvertently miss a day of Bible reading that you should question your salvation.

It is helpful if we can set a regular schedule for our devotions. I like to have mine just before I leave my room to go to breakfast. If I wait until later, other things might interfere. But one does not need to limit his devotions to a particular time and place. You can talk to God while waiting for a taxi, while waiting for a long distance call to be put through, or at any time there is a little lull in your daily activity. With the Christian, there is no time for boredom, for any spare time can be utilized by communion with God or reading His Word.

Kentucky Colonel Parlays SS Check

NEW YORK (AP) — "I've never had a golf club in my hands, and if I keep my senses I never will," said the old man in the white suit and the black string tie.

His ruddy cheeks flushed, his fine white mustache and trim white goatee vibrated as he stamped his black silver handed cane to the floor and added:

"WORK IS the basis of living. I'll never retire. A man'll rust out quicker than he'll wear out. Nobody who does nothing every day but go hunting or fishing is no good to the nation. He might as well pass on."

At 77 Col. Harland Sanders—a Kentucky colonel, suh, whose chief battlefield is the one called life—has become one of the most familiar commercial folk figures of our time. His face is more recognizable than that of Commander Whitehead, the bearded Englishman who sells quinine tonic water, or those of the Smith Brothers on the cough drop package—Trade and Mark.

The colonel is, first of all, a symbol of Kentucky fried chicken. But to nearly 20 million U.S. senior citizens he is also a living symbol of success after 65, the age at which he emerged from near bankruptcy and went on to become a multimillionaire.

"I WENT FROM rags to riches, and now I'm on my way back," quipped the colonel at a luncheon at which he passed up chicken livers in favor of two fried soft-shelled crabs.

He still gets $40,000 plus expenses for traveling some 225,000 miles annually as goodwill ambassador for the firm to which he sold his secret chicken seasoning recipe for $2 million four years ago. That mushrooming company, Kentucky Fried Chicken Corp., grossed some $33.5 million in the last fiscal year, and its nearly 2,000 licensees sold more than 300 million chickens.

(AP WIREPHOTO)

At Work At 77

Col. Harland Sanders, 77, emerged from near bankruptcy at 65 to head a multimillion dollar fried chicken restaurant chain. "Work is the basis for living," he says.

Sanders started doing the family cooking at seven while his mother went to work in a cannery. At 10 he was fired from a $24-a-month farm job because the farmer thought he spent too much time watching birds and squirrels.

"I felt lower than a snake's belly when I had to go home and tell my mother," he recalled. "I vowed then I'd never loaf another day in my life."

Over the years young Harland was a plowman, painted buggies in Indianapolis, worked as a streetcar conductor, spent several years as a railroad fireman.

He also sold tires, insurance and acetylene farm lamps. At 40, after failing in the garage business, he opened a small filling station and restaurant in Corbin, Ky.

"I FIGURED that people, no matter how bad times got, would always need food and gasoline," he said.

He experimented with fried chicken, developed his own seasoning recipe containing 11 kinds of herbs and spices. Business flourished, and he built a motel—"the first modern one east of the Mississippi."

But a new highway was built and bypassed his location. At 65 he was broke. Then he got the idea of going around the country selling his fried chicken formula. His financial springboard was his first Social Security check—for $105.

"MY WIFE stayed home and made the seasoning, and I hit the road," he said. "I told the people who wanted my recipe they could have it for five cents a chicken. I left it up to them to figure what they owed me."

"People are honest if you trust them. I don't think anyone ever beat me out of a nickel."

Four years ago the colonel sold out his American rights to his product for $2 million. He since has sold his Canadian rights for another $2 million, which he gave to religious and charitable organizations. He also has helped pay for the upkeep of 254 foster children around the world, and given $370,000 for scholarships to students who agree to refrain from smoking.

"IF THEY'VE got money to burn, they don't need mine to burn," he said.

The colonel hopes to live to be 100, and this is his philosophy: "Always keep working at something every day. No matter how feeble you feel, you've always got the strength to do something."

"Right now I'm thinking of starting a chain of restaurants specializing in country ham and eggs."

And if you don't think Sanders has a secret recipe for spicing country hams—well, you don't know Kentucky colonels.

Which John, Please?

I received an invitation to contribute to a fund for a journalism scholarship from the University of Oklahoma.

Seriously, I wish I could help.

By the time the Democrats get through fighting over who gets seated they may be too tired to nominate anybody.

Oklahoma's Sen. Fred Harris, one of my picks as vice presidential candidate on Hubert Humphrey's ticket says he is not seeking that spot and doesn't really want it, but would accept it if offered.

Perhaps to the questioner who asks Harris about his attitude, he should give the reply the late Oklahoma Sen. Robert S. Kerr used when he announced as a candidate for the presidency in 1952.

"Senator," he was asked by me — "I had been assigned by a tough city editor to 'clobber Kerr' — 'will you accept the vice presidential nomination?'"

Looking straight at me, Kerr asked in turn: "Are you in a position to offer it to me?"

From that day on we were pardners, especially on my part.

ACTION LINE, a feature in a lot of newspapers in the nation, supplies a lot of answers to a lot of questions, but occasionally it doesn't go far enough.

There was an item saying that the American pronghorn antelope can run more than 60 miles an hour.

On the other hand, said Action Line, a cheetah once ran 80 yards at the speed of 71 miles an hour.

That's where Action Line and its operator, Don Hayden, stopped. But what if failed to explain was why, if the two were to race, the pronghorn antelope would win.

The answer is (brace yourself) "because cheetahs never win."

Message To The Wallace Backers

WASHINGTON — "If this is democracy," writes a reader of my column on George Wallace and Ralph Abernathy, "I am willing to give it up."

That column, several weeks old by now, is still drawing mail so hot that I have put it aside for cooling — and for cogitation.

Not a single letter in the sizzling heap agreed with my central proposition which was this:

"IF WE WERE viewing these men, Abernathy and Wallace, from afar — if we watched their activities in some other country — we would say that communism and fascism were making their separate bids to take over a faltering democracy. We would see the usual similarities in the leaders of the extremes of left and right."

I do not think, but I rethink. I recall Sen. Bob Taft's opinion when FDR proposed Lend-Lease aid to communism in order to defeat fascism. Taft said that communism was the greater menace in that the Red revolution had many more followers and that the Nazis were a passing threat.

IN A CHOICE between two evils, heaven knows, the Wallace movement is preferable to Abernathy's, for the reasons Taft gave and for racial reasons of which we need not be ashamed. Ours is a constitutional republic of Anglo-Saxon origin, and probably incomprehensible to cultures of Asia and Africa. To me, both Wallace and Abernathy are unacceptable, and I see Richard Nixon as the only visible hope to restore normality. Nixon, with Spiro Agnew, as the Wallace-stopper, refusing to countenance either dictatorship or disorder.

BUT, LORDY, these letters! Notably the typical one which I quote at the top of this column. Can it be that many, many readers of the American family newspaper are so lily about our present state of "democracy" as to be "willing to give it up?"

I have answered some of the writers and said (just as I have said personally to Wallace) that he "lost" me when he used his undoubted popularity in Alabama to subvert the State Constitution and to put his late wife in office. It was a violation of the spirit of the one-term provision. That Mrs. Lurleen Wallace did well in the governorship is not a justification. George had popularity, which gave him power, and he misused them both.

IF WALLACE is the candidate of many, many Americans who are despairing of democracy and "willing to give it up," then this 1968 election is more crucial than most of us have dared to fear. Nixon made his bid at Miami Beach for the votes of the millions who do not turn to violence. He chose Gov. Agnew who told the delegates that civil disobedience had no place in a constitutional republic.

THE REPUBLICAN ticket was nominated by a coalition of the small-city Southern and Western states. Nixon-Agnew got almost no approval from the politicians who would appease the raging elements of the urban centers. The GOP Convention took place several weeks after most of these letters reached me, and I would hope that it enlightened those who were turning to Wallace in their discouragement over what I called a "faltering democracy."

No such hope would be tenable if the Wallace followers, and my correspondents, were illiterates and crackpots. This is not the case, as Wallace knows and I know. That is why these dismayed Americans can be talked upon not to rethink, but to rethink.

HHH'S Problems With A Divided Party

NEW YORK — The trial by interrogation that Hubert Humphrey has been undergoing, with the indictment of the present read out of his participation in the Vietnam decisions of the past, came to a climax here in New York. He was confronted by the high priests of the liberal establishment sitting as the executive committee of New York's Liberal Party.

IT WAS A difficult assignment. Since the Vice President could not and would not repudiate the past, he concentrated on the peace negotiations in Paris and the hope of a cease-fire mutually agreed to bringing an end to all bombing in the north.

When he had finished several committee members passionately opposed to the war, notably Deputy Mayor Timothy W. Costello, expressed the cruel dilemma that may for Humphrey be impossible to resolve. You made it easier, they said, for us to support you after you're nominated.

BUT WHETHER a party so divided between Northern liberals and Southern conservatives — not just alone on the war but on domestic issues as well — can unite to win an election is the question no one can answer. Humphrey makes no secret of his own deep concern over the fractious divisions within his party.

What for the Vice President has a nightmare quality is the attack on him by most of his one-time liberal allies. They ignore Richard Nixon, their old enemy and the nominee of the Republican party. And they work hard at cutting him up into such small pieces that it may be impossible, come September, to put the Humphrey who fought for civil rights, for housing, education, Medicare, higher Social Security benefits back together again.

THE NEUTRALITY in Washington is singularly frustrating for the man who must try to lead his party to triumph in November. His old friends in the struggles to put across social legislation are for the most part silent. The President himself ordered neutrality, and his own desires on the convention and the nominee are as secret as the riddle of the sphinx.

The convention, itself, is the thunderclap on the horizon threatening to split the warring factions of the party beyond redress. The insistence of Mayor Richard Daley, abetted by Democratic National Chairman John M. Bailey, on keeping the convention in Chicago may well prove a fatal error.

DESPITE candidate McCarthy's advice to his followers to stay out of Chicago, the Humphrey camp has detailed information on how in McCarthy headquarters throughout the Midwest plans are going forward for chartered buses to carry thousands to the convention city. Converging on the International Amphitheater to demonstrate they will encounter the solid phalanx of Daley police and National Guardsmen. This can add up to violence and even bloodshed.

THE PICTURE on the television screens will be one of anarchy, with hippies and yuppies vying for the eye of the TV camera. This is tallmaded for Nixon. He hardly needs to say, although he undoubtedly will say, "You see, they can't even have a convention without disorder and violence." The contrast with the "harmony" of Miami Beach will be all too evident.

WRECKAGE OF ONE OF TWO TRUCKS IN SPECTACULAR ACCIDENT
Walter Albert Ermer, driver, walked away from this one uninjured

None Seriously Injured In Spectacular Truck Crash

Two big trucks, both heavily loaded, were involved in a spectacular traffic accident at 5 p.m. Thursday, three miles south of Big Spring on US 87. One man was slightly hurt and three others were shook up. Both trucks were heavily damaged and two tractors, which one of the vehicles was transporting, were dumped into the borrow ditch.

Highway Patrol officers who investigated the wreck said that it occurred when one truck, following another, struck the front vehicle in the rear. The impact spun the front truck around and dumped its load of tractors and its three passengers on the road.

The second truck, loaded with pipe, plowed on for 263 steps, left the slab, jammed its way through a fence and came to a halt in a pasture. It was being driven by Walter Albert Ermer, 33, of Humble.

The patrol said that L. M. Blanton, 51, a passenger in the first truck, was admitted to the Hall-Bennett Memorial hospital, but apparently was not seriously hurt.

The patrol said that the truck carrying the two tractors was going north. It was driven by Ronald Melvin Blanton, 25. With him was his father, L. M. Blanton, 51, and his brother, Randy Blanton, 18. All of the Blantons are from Hart. With Ronald driving, Randy was in the middle and the elder Blanton on the outside.

The truck they were driving had a blowout a short time before the mishap here and Blanton was moving at a snail's pace, because of his fear of further tire trouble, officers said.

Ermer, with a load of pipe, was also going north. The patrol said that Ermer apparently miscalculated the speed of the vehicle ahead. In attempting to pass, he struck the rear corner of the Blanton truck. The Blantons were en route to their home at Hart.

DAY GANG ROBBERIES

Shootings, Bombings Reported In Wichita

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Sporadic violence occurred for the third straight night in Wichita, but despite 13 reported shooting incidents and six fire bombings, there were no known injuries.

Democratic Gov. Robert D. Docking ordered National Guardsmen Thursday night to help police, sheriff's officers and highway patrol troopers enforce a 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. curfew throughout Wichita and Sedgewick County. Wichita (pop. 250,000) is in south central Kansas.

Police said 32 arrests had been reported early today on charges ranging from curfew violation to possession of firearms.

One of the targets of a fire bomb overnight was the office of Chester Lewis, former president of the Wichita Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Damage was estimated at $300.

Damage caused by firebombs elsewhere ranged from $25 to more than $1,000.

Snipers shot at firemen as they fought a blaze started by one fire bomb, but they escaped from the area without injury.

Most violence was centered in the northeast section of the city, a Negro area.

The curfew was imposed following a series of daylight gang robberies at a supermarket, a hardware store and a dairy bar. The youths escaped with around $2,000 cash and an estimated $300 in merchandise.

A delivery boy was shot in the wrist and another youth struck on the head during one of the robberies.

The disturbances began late Tuesday night and flared up again early Thursday.

Police said they felt the curfew, thus far, had been effective.

BY KREMLIN CRACKDOWN ON CZECHS

LBJ-Kosygin Meeting Derailed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secret plans by President Johnson for summit talks with Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin, possibly in Moscow, have been derailed by the Kremlin crackdown on Czechoslovakia.

Until the invasion of Czechoslovakia, Johnson had expected to hold a return talk with Kosygin overseas about missile curbs and other East-West issues.

LBJ'S DESIRE
Johnson long had hoped to visit the Soviet Union before leaving office. And more recently, he felt that agreed-upon talks between the two superpowers, still hewed to his oft-stated pledge to travel anywhere any time if that would further the cause of peace.

NO COMMENT
Another presidential spokesman had no comment on Johnson's trip plans but referred to Christian's statement.

Having gone over the Czech developments and their impact on the international scene with the National Security Council and the cabinet, Johnson invited congressional leaders of both parties for a White House conference today.

White House Press Secretary George Christian said that despite the Czech crisis Johnson were U.S. ambassador to Moscow Llewellyn Thompson, fresh from an Italian vacation, and Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Clark M. Clifford and Richard Helms, head of the Central Intelligence Agency.

AT LAST
It was understood that the Soviets had finally agreed to a specific time and place to begin the missile curb talks which Johnson had announced July 1 would begin in the nearest future.

Like Johnson's proposed travel, however, the timetable reportedly has been knocked askew by the Czech invasion.

The administration did get one bonus from the Czech crisis when Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana announced he no longer supported a U.S. troop withdrawal from Europe. Johnson has been trying to head off heavy Senate pressure for such a pullback.

Mansfield told newsmen that because of the invasion, "it appears to me that we have no choice but to maintain our present position" in regard to troop strength in Europe.

Rumored Assassination Plot Probed By Jurors

CHICAGO (AP) — A federal grand jury opens an investigation today into an alleged plot to assassinate Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and two senators, and to disrupt next week's Democratic National Convention.

U.S. Atty. Thomas A. Foran said Thursday 16 subpoenas were issued for South Side gang members and some who took part in a peace march on the Pentagon last October.

The rumored assassination plot was to involve Humphrey; Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, also a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination, and Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., Foran said.

McClellan headed a Senate investigation into the activities of two South Side youth gangs recently which resulted in their losing a federal antipoverty grant.

The prosecutor said the report which originated in Cook County jail last week also involved "alleged planning by certain groups to cause civil disturbances" in the Chicago area during the convention and disrupt proceedings.

Shortly after the grand jury probe begins the first contingent of nearly 6,000 Illinois National Guardsmen arrive in Chicago to be used if needed to maintain order in the event of disturbances next week.

The remainder of the troops, requested by Mayor Richard J. Daley, will arrive at armories Saturday.

Gov. Samuel H. Shapiro ordered the troop callup after consulting with Daley, and in the face of threatened antiwar demonstrations around the International Amphitheatre, the convention site, and the downtown hotels where delegates and candidates were to be housed.

The troop mobilization was a supplement to a force of nearly 14,000 local police, federal agents and private guards who will be patrolling the convention.

Swede Actress Wants Divorce

LONDON (AP) — Swedish actress Britt Ekland filed for divorce Thursday from British actor Peter Sellers. Sellers lawyers reported that the suit would not be defended. The grounds were not made public.

Sellers, 43, and Miss Ekland, 25, were married in 1964 and have a 3-year-old daughter.

Hansen will be installed as commander; Neel Barnaby, first vice commander; Chester Cathey, second vice commander; Roscoe Cone, adjutant; Frank Hardesty, historian; Clarence Daves, chaplain; Nieves Galvan, sergeant at arms; M. C. Grigsby, service officer; and Foster L. Kemp, chairman of the board of trustees.

TRUSTEES
Trustees are Carl Knappe, George Zachariah, Jack Pearson and C. A. Walker.

Mrs. Foster L. Kemp will be installed as president of the auxiliary. Mrs. J. C. Phames will be installed as first vice president. Mrs. Roscoe Cone, second vice president; Mrs. Martin Anderson, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Ernest Grubaug, chaplain; Sandra Nichols, historian; and Mrs. Maurine Terrell, sergeant at arms.

Evette Fisher will be installed as chairman of the junior auxiliary. Sharon Andrews will be installed as vice chairman; Lynn Greens, secretary-treasurer; Olga Perrez, historian; Harla Cleveland, sergeant at arms; Bonnie Land, assistant sergeant at arms; and Wilma Fisher, chaplain.

SCRAMBLERS
Installing officers will be G. C. McKenzie for the legion, Mrs. George S. Berry for the auxiliary and Mrs. Byron D. Hill for the junior auxiliary.

McKenzie is the 19th district vice commander and Mrs. Berry is a past department president. Both are from Lubbock. Mrs. Hill is the past department vice president of the fourth division.

A dinner will be held at 7 p.m. and a dance will follow the installation ceremonies. Music will be provided by the American Legion "Scramblers."

Son Of Doris Day Wins Estate Bout

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Terrence F. Melcher, 26, son of Doris Day and the late Martin Melcher, will be permitted to administer his father's $1.3-million estate.

The producer died April 20 without leaving a will. Miss Day named her son to administer the estate but Melcher's former business partner, Jerome B. Rosenthal, challenged his competence.

Superior Court Judge Martin Katz ruled Thursday there was no evidence that Melcher was incompetent and described him as "intelligent and conscientious."

Shouting Match Erupts Into City Council Mele

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A shouting match erupted into a wild melee in City Council chambers Thursday.

John Kelly, an assistant police superintendent, was flung the length of a polished mahogany table during the outbreak and landed stunned on the floor, a police official said.

DRAMATIC END
The struggle brought a sudden and dramatic end to a meeting among Negroes, bus officials and police to discuss better protection for bus drivers in Pittsburgh's Negro Homewood-Brushton area.

William Johnson, 22, a reporter and photographer for the Negro newspaper Thurst, was arrested and charged with assault and battery and disturbing a public assembly. Police records showed he had been arrested three times previously on charges of assaulting policemen.

The meeting was among officials of the Allegheny County Port Authority, a bus drivers' union, and about 30 Negroes.

The bus and union officials asked for help in halting vandalism of buses and mugging of drivers in Homewood-Brushton.

Last Tuesday night two buses were stoned by roving gangs during several hours of violence that left seven persons injured and led to eight arrests.

DOUBLE TROUBLE
As the discussion shifted from buses to police protection, Johnson began talking about the Tuesday night trouble he asserted he heard Kelly order police "to shoot anybody you see in an alley."

"You're a liar!" shouted Kelly, leaping to his feet.

Johnson repeated his accusation and stepped closer to the police official. The two men then began shouting into each other's faces.

At that moment, the trouble broke out. A police official said a group of Negroes, some wearing Afro-American style tunics, swarmed around Kelly. The official said a punch was thrown and Kelly was flung across the table onto the floor.

Kelly, though shaken, was not seriously hurt. He said he was "beaten around" and punched in the chest.

News About Czech Still Uncensored

By The Associated Press
Uncensored news continues to flow out of Czechoslovakia in the fourth day of its occupation by Soviet forces.

While most telephone and telegraph circuits connecting Prague with the outside world have been closed down, The Associated Press man and a few other correspondents in the capital have been able so far to find channels for transmission.

The AP correspondent is Peter Rehak, who scored a world beat Tuesday night on first news of the invasion. Rehak, 32, is a Canadian citizen although he was born in Bratislava, Slovakia. His family took him to Canada after World War II and he studied at McGill University before joining the AP staff in Germany in 1962.

The news that Rehak files from Prague is based on personal observation and the intercepted reports of various clandestine radio stations that were set up by loyal Czechoslovaks when occupying forces took over regular transmitters. The Czechoslovak national news agency CTK furnished reports in the first 24 hours of the invasion, but was then occupied.

The CTK agency also supplied to the outside world the first wired pictures of the occupation. Later people who left Czechoslovakia brought out film which produced a series of striking photographs that moved to AP newspapers in the United States. The Prague correspondent of Aftonbladet of Stockholm made several excellent pictures available to the AP bureau in Vienna.

Additional news of the occupation has come from AP men stationed at the Austrian and German frontiers. These reporters have interviewed many of the several hundred foreigners—and a few Czechoslovaks—who have come out of the country in the last three days.

He interjected, however, that he referred only to adult looters not children—but that after shooting of the adults started, the children would go home.

In handling rioters he said "The best way is to be tough" and that as president he would "give moral support to the police and stiffen the backbone of some governors and mayors."

TREASON
Wallace said that as president, he would maintain law and order in Washington by stationing troops "every 30 feet, or 20 feet or even 10 feet, if necessary."

In Rapid City, S.D., en route to Oregon, Wallace said Republicans and Democrats alike have not paid attention to rights of the individual.

"Both parties have ignored those rights, as well as the rights of the state," he said.

"Their politicians are marching with the crowds at riots and demonstrations."

Asked where his strength is, Wallace said, "There is no concentration, just dissatisfied Republicans, Democrats and independents across the land."

He said demonstrations by some civilians against the Vietnam war are "overt acts of treason." He said that as president, he would "get out an indictment against these people and they'd go to jail."

Docket Call Set

Judge Ralph W. Caton, 118th District Court, sounded a docket of 13 criminal cases in his court Friday afternoon. He has notified a jury panel to report to court at 10 a.m. Monday. All cases on the docket which are announced ready will be set for disposition during the week.

Pleads Guilty

Alfred Martinez Gusman, charged with DWI and aggravated assault, pleaded guilty to both charges in Howard County Court Thursday. He was fined $100 and costs in each complaint, and in the DWI matter, was placed on three months probation.

Wallace Predicts Victory In Race For White House

DETROIT (AP)—George Wallace confidently predicted Thursday his election as president and said Michigan would be among states he will carry.

The forecast climaxed a busy day in Michigan in which he spoke to 8,000 Veterans of Foreign Wars, held a news conference, and submitted to two taped television interviews.

The former Alabama governor also predicted he is certain to win a spot on ballots of 49 states and said his claim to a place in Ohio is being tested in court.

SAD DAY
The candidate denied charges of being something called a racist and offered to get out of the race if Alabama's state government does not employ more Negro professionals than does Michigan.

He said Alabama employed more than 8,000 Negroes in professional categories.

Wallace called for a "return to law and order" and decried "crime in our streets."

"It is a sad day when you can't advocate law and order without being called a racist," he said.

"Anybody caught throwing a firebomb should be shot on the spot."

In answer to another question he said he thought looters should be shot if caught in the act.

Czechoslovak Occupation Indicates Power Struggle

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

Something seems to be wrong with the Soviet Union's "collective leadership."

Against the background of several years of political maneuvering in Moscow, the invasion of Czechoslovakia suggests a struggle at the top of the Kremlin power structure, with generals and marshals playing an active and possibly decisive role.

BIG SAY

The Soviet power structure, by its nature, has seemed a built-in barrier to any real development in the East-West cold war. And now, Soviet press treatment of the Czechoslovak tragedy supports speculation that the marshals and generals have a big say in running the show, a situation which bodes no good for civilian leaders who arouse their hostility.

Since Stalin's death the military has occupied a more and more prominent role in Soviet politics. Politicians contending for power often had to lean on the generals for support, as Nikita S. Khrushchev did when he threw his foes out of the party and as the new group under Leonid I. Brezhnev did when it threw out Khrushchev.

The Soviet party always has been careful to assert publicly and frequently its domination over the military. But in time of crisis the military can hold the balance of power. The civilian with powerful alliances among the generals increases his chance of success.

QUARREL

Clearly, the invasion of Czechoslovakia was a military decision, and almost as clearly, there was a quarrel about it in the Kremlin involving three factions: those who wanted to go slowly and cautiously, those who wanted to move swiftly to crush the Czechoslovak movement, and those on the fence. It appears the balance wielded by the generals carried the day.

Pravda, voice of the Kremlin, complains that "there have been certain attempts to deal a blow at the Warsaw treaty" in Czechoslovakia. It thunders that "no breach in the Warsaw treaty must be allowed."

Then it adds: "Czechoslovak frontiers on the west were actually open from the Czechoslovak side. This created a situation in which saboteurs and spies smuggled by imperialist intelligence services began crossing freely into Czechoslovakia from Western countries." One man who thinks much about "imperialist intelligence services" is Gen. Sergei M. Shtemenko, author of a recent book praising Stalin. He once was deputy defense minister and in charge of military intelligence. His fortunes fell with Stalin's death and he was demoted several ranks. Suddenly he rose again, and in 1965 showed up as deputy chief of the Soviet general staff.

SCAPEGUAT

At the height of the Czechoslovak crisis this month, Shtemenko was named chief of staff of the Warsaw forces. It may have been that his predecessor, Gen. M. I. Kazakov, was fired by the Politburo as a scapegoat for their unpleasant backdown from their demands on the reform-minded Czechoslovak leaders. Kazakov was known as a hawk who likely would have been pleased to have Marshal Ivan Yakubovsky, the pact commander, crush the whole Czechoslovak nuisance at the outset.

REA Target: $10 Billion

DALLAS (AP) — A spokesman for rural electric cooperatives in Texas says the organizations will need more than $10 billion to operate in the next 15 years.

Glen Newton said the cooperatives, financed for more than 30 years by federal loans, are probably going to have to turn to the open market for the bulk of their future financing.

Newton is the Texas representative on the board of directors of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

"I feel that more than half of this sum will have to come from private lenders," Newton said. "I don't see how the government will be able to fit such a large figure into its budget."

In Dallas for the annual Texas Electric Cooperatives membership meeting, Newton said the cost of operating a public utility company had skyrocketed in recent years.

"The purpose of rural cooperatives has come a long way from the original concept of providing electricity for the farmer and the rancher," he commented. "We are now closely involved with the development of recreational areas and the operation of irrigation systems and oil field pumps."

CHARLES D. TUTTLE

Tuttle Joins Legal Staff Of Cosden Oil

Joe A. Moss, vice president, secretary and chief counsel, has announced that Charles D. Tuttle has joined the legal department of Cosden Oil & Chemical Co.

Tuttle, attorney and petroleum engineer, came to Big Spring from Dallas where he has been employed by Sun Oil Co. as a reservoir engineer. He had been enrolled in the evening division of Southern Methodist University School of Law and received the JD degree last May, graduating third in a class of 120.

A native of Corpus Christi, Tuttle attended Del Mar Junior College and earned a BS in petroleum engineering from the University of Texas in May, 1961. While there, he was on the dean's honor list, was initiated into the honorary petroleum engineering fraternity Phi Eta Tau, and was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

During his SMU tenure he was a staff member of Southwestern Law Journal, was Student Bar Association representative, won a place on the honor roll for four years and served as student attorney for the Legal Aid Clinic. He received the American Jurisprudence award for writing the best examination papers in certain areas of law, and was recipient of the American Law Book Company award to the third year student making the most significant contribution toward over-all legal scholarship. He is a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity.

Luther E. Griffith, 96, a retired conductor for Texas and Pacific Railway, died this morning in a Lubbock hospital. He had been hospitalized two weeks.

He was born May 1, 1872, in Berlin, Wis., and came to Big Spring in 1906. He retired from T&P in 1944.

Mr. Griffith was preceded in death by his wife in 1961 and five sons and two daughters.

Survivors include three sons, Frank H. Griffith, Lubbock; Harold B. Griffith, Coahoma; and Duane H. Griffith, Big Spring; 18 grandchildren, 41 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

His body is being returned to Big Spring this afternoon and funeral services will be 10 a.m. Monday in Rosewood Chapel with Rev. Pat Bullock, Crestview Baptist pastor, officiating. Burial will be in the masonic section of city cemetery under direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

Services for Mrs. Fannie Pearl Aken, 62, wife of H. L. Aken, 2205 Johnson, will be at 10 a.m. Monday in the River-Welch Funeral chapel. Interment will follow in Trinity Memorial Park. Mrs. Aken died Thursday night in a local hospital after an illness of a few days. She had lived here since 1918.

She was born Feb. 21, 1906, in Avery. She and Aken were married April 5, 1942. Mrs. Aken was a member of the First Christian Church.

Survivors include the husband of Big Spring; one daughter, Mrs. Mary Lou Chenault, Big Spring; one son, John W. Aken, Los Angeles; two sisters, Mrs. J. C. Green, Big Spring, and Mrs. C. C. Willis, Sweetwater; two brothers, W. B. Gilmer, Big Spring, and John Gilmer, in military service. There are seven grandchildren.

Robert E. Bennett, 81, a retired carpenter, died this morning in a local hospital. He was born July 20, 1887, and came to Big Spring in May 1938, from Stamford. He was a member of East Fourth Baptist Church.

Survivors include a son, Raymond E. Bennett, San Jose, Calif.; a granddaughter, Mrs. T. L. Allison, Chula Vista, Calif.; one sister, Mrs. Sue King, Stamford; and three nieces. His wife preceded him in death Jan. 4, 1955.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in Rosewood Chapel with the Rev. Jack Boyett, East Fourth Baptist pastor, officiating and burial in Trinity Memorial Park under direction of Nalley-Pickle.

Palbearers will be Curtis McCartney, Dick Davis, Lee Nuckles, Denver Yates, Elmer Rainey and John Cate.

Knott Fun Day Slated Saturday

KNOTT — Knott Saddle Club's first "fun day" in its newly renovated riding arena will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday, and it is anticipated several score riders will be on hand.

Events to be featured are barrel racing, pole bending and flag racing with classes for groups in all age brackets.

The Knott Community Club and friends of the Saddle Club have provided buckles to be awarded to winners in each event in each age group.

The events start at 2 p.m. and will continue until completed. The probability is the riding arena will get a chance to try out its new lighting system, which has just been installed.

Texas Electric Service Co.,

replacing lines in the area, donated some tall poles and the club arranged with Ackerly for new lights. The lights which had been originally in place were not sufficient for the needs of the club.

The arena itself was donated to the community by the Ackerly Riding Club, when that organization had to move from its old location. Knott citizens took up the arena, and reinstalled it at Knott just back of the old Knott school building.

A concession stand and press box was recently completed at the arena, and a deal is now on foot to provide bleacher seating at the site. The general public is invited to attend the "Fun Day" Saturday.

Few Tables Left For Melodrama

There are a few vacant tables available for tonight's performance of "The Drumhead," at Big Spring Country Club, Mrs. Sue Wilkins, reservations chairman, said this morning. Also, there are several available for Saturday.

She urged theatre-goers to call in advance, 263-2356, for reservations, or those who might make late arrangements can take a chance that seating will be available for door sales.

Curtain time each evening is 8:30 p.m. and the ticket price includes refreshments. Club members may arrange with the management for dinner before the play.

The melodrama is being staged by the Little Theatre of Big Spring.

Cooler Long Gone

Edward R. Moren, manager of Western Auto, Thursday reported the theft of a cooler from the store. The cooler was valued at under $50. Police are investigating.

St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 1005 Goliad, reported a second burglary in as many days. The church was entered and several soft drinks were taken Wednesday night. The church had reported Wednesday that some money had been taken from the church office.

Minor Accident

A minor accident was reported at 2:35 p.m. Wednesday at 905 Johnson when a car driven by Angelita R. Cantu, Tarzan, collided with the parked car of Dorothy Hildreth, 1212 Ridgeroad.

Woman Hurt In Accident

A major accident which sent an 80-year-old woman to the hospital and three minor fender-benders were investigated by police Thursday.

Mrs. Lula Gaskins was carried by private vehicle to a local hospital following an accident at the front entrance of Montgomery Ward in the Highland Shopping Center at 9:35 a.m. She was treated for minor leg injuries and released.

Drivers of the cars were Ora Lawler Conn, 2202 Nolan, and Donald Russell Dunn, 211 Bryant, Sherman. Mrs. Gaskins was a passenger in the Conn car.

Minor accidents were at 7:04 a.m. on the IS 30 service road east of the North 60 Truck Stop where a car driven by Larry Don McMurtrey, 1609 Sunset, was in collision with a sign post; 100 feet north of IS 20 on US 87 north at 2:40 p.m., cars driven by William Allen Wheeler, 2209 Cecilia, and Juan Rocha Chavez, Box 108, Coahoma; and at 4:32 p.m. at NE Second and Goliad, a car driven by Raymon Canavar Montez, 602 N. Gregg, and the parked car of Lewis Tillman, 2215 Lynn.

36 Big Springers Begin Ranch Tour

ST. LAWRENCE — Some 36 Big Spring business and professional men and women this morning were shown agricultural improvements in the St. Lawrence area.

Bill Edwards, Oliver West, Glasscock County Agent, and D. W. White, county commissioner, boarded the chartered bus carrying the group at the Edwards ranch to begin the tour.

Edwards explained his ranch improvement methods on clearing mesquite and showed one 212-acre tract that had been cleared and improved with an increase of 20 cows per section to 50 cows per section.

He also showed his irrigation system and said 340 acres of irrigated cotton yielded 750 pounds per acre. Edwards explained his cross-breeding practices to get heavier calves at weaning time.

Second stop on the third annual tour, sponsored by the agriculture and retail committees of the Chamber of Commerce, was the Lorin McDowell ranch where the group saw range improvement practices on clearing mesquite and improving grass conditions and heard McDowell explain his cross breeding methods with Hereford, Brahma, Santa Gertrudas and Red Angus for best weight of calves at weaning time.

McDowell also explained his brush and cactus eradication program and record-keeping on his cattle cross-breeding.

Just prior to the noon barbecue in the St. Lawrence Community Hall, the bus stopped at the Steve Currie Pecan Orchard where 3,000 pecan trees have been planted on 80 acres over the past five years. Currie

Rains In West Texas Hinted

By The Associated Press

Most of Texas will be hot again today, the Weather Bureau says, but a new cool front is scheduled to move into far West Texas and the Panhandle this evening bringing cooling thundershowers.

In North Texas 100 degree readings are expected today, matching the top of 101 at Wichita Falls and 100 at San Angelo Thursday.

A low pressure area in Southeast Texas will keep partly cloudy to cloudy skies in that area, forecasters say, but skies will be mostly clear in the rest of the state.

Considerable thundershower activity will develop over extreme East and Southeast Texas today and tonight and the rest of Texas can expect the usual summertime pattern of scattered, mostly afternoon and evening showers.

Thursday, light evening showers dampened much of the Panhandle, parts of East Texas and the section from Beaumont to Jasper. Isolated but heavy showers soaked El Paso before dusk Thursday, holding the city's maximum temperature reading to 86 degrees.

WEATHER

NORTH CENTRAL TEXAS — Fair and hot through Saturday. Low 72 to 78. High Saturday 94 to 100.

NORTHWEST TEXAS — Partly cloudy thundershowers ending tonight. Not so warm in Pecos today. Low 63 to 69. High Saturday 81 to 87.

WEST OF THE PECOS — Partly cloudy and warm tonight and Saturday with some widely scattered thundershowers. Low 68 to 75. High Saturday 92 to 102.

About 3,800 To Lose Jobs

FORT WORTH (AP) — The work force at General Dynamics' Fort Worth plant will be reduced by about 3,800 in the next few months due to a slowdown in F111 warplane production.

A company spokesman said today much of the reduction "will be accomplished through normal attrition and the non-replacement of about 600 persons hired on a temporary basis for the summer."

The spokesman acknowledged that some of the estimated 23,800 workers here will be laid off.

The slowdown in F111 production, called a "stretchout" by the company, was ordered July 18 by the Defense Department as the result of budget restrictions imposed by Congress.

"Although the total number of F111 aircraft on order remains unchanged," the spokesman said, "this stretchout necessitates a gradual reduction in total employment during the next few months."

Pope Paul Journeys To Colombian Village

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Pope Paul VI was hailed as the Pope of hope by thousands of Colombians who watched with emotion as the pontiff kissed the soil when first setting foot in this part of the world.

Many wept Thursday as they witnessed this act of humility by the Pope and proclaimed it the crowning moment of his historic visit.

The pontiff journeys by helicopter today to a meeting with thousands of Latin-American peasants in a huge meadow, called San Jose Field, outside the village of Mosquera, 18 miles from Bogota.

His address is expected to be of far-reaching significance. The Catholic hierarchy is already on record stressing that the Church will take a more active role in the effort to help Latin America's impoverished millions.

The 70-year-old pontiff's welcome Thursday was described as the most tumultuous of his six trips abroad. Cries of "Viva El Papa!" resounded wherever he went in this Colombian capital. Some exclaimed: "He's truly a Pope of hope!"

It's Closing Day At Forsan Pool

The Forsan Swimming Pool will be closed for the season today, according to Mack G. Alexander, superintendent. The pool opened June 1 and has averaged 65 people per day. All Elbow and Forsan students had free season passes. A school bus was used to transport them to the pool, Alexander said. Bobby Rodman and Belenda McKinnon have served as lifeguards.

The deacons were the first to receive the lowest form of sacred orders which allow them to administer many sacraments but not say Mass or hear confessions. Their ordination allows priests to devote more time to other functions. The decline in religious vocations has adversely affected the Church's work in Latin America, Church sources said.

The ordination ceremony was part of the program of the 39th International Eucharistic Congress. It was held on the vast congress grounds in windy, chilly weather. Some in the crowd carried signs that said "Holy Father pray for Czechoslovakia."

Juveniles Smash School Windows

Seven windows on the north side of Bauer Elementary School building were broken by juveniles Thursday night. A nearby resident reported to police at 11:04 p.m. that juveniles were breaking the windows, but they were gone on arrival of police.

Graveside Rites For Jones Infant

Graveside rites will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday morning in Trinity Memorial Park for Teresa Lynn Jones, day-old daughter of Airman J.C. and Mrs. Donald E. Jones, Chaplain (Capt.) T. W. Black will officiate.

Survivors are her parents, Big Spring; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Walker, and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jones, all of Trenton, Mich.

"Open Door" Project

Westside Baptist WU women are still hard at work arranging clothing for their "Open Door" project which began Tuesday. Shown here are Mrs. N. M. Hipp, Mrs. Mary Riddle, Mrs. C. L. Kirkland, Mrs. L. C. Wilbanks, Mrs. J. L. Unger, Mrs. J. W. Trantham and Rev. Frank Radcliffe.

'Open Door' For Physical And Spiritual Necessities

An attempt to minister to physical and spiritual needs is the basis for Westside Baptist Church's "Open Door" project, begun Tuesday. "We do not consider this charity," Rev. Frank Radcliffe, pastor, said, "in that we are not ministering solely to their physical needs but plan to provide spiritual guidance as well." Rev. Radcliffe said the idea for an "Open Door," which will provide clothing for people in the community on their request, came as a result of a visit to one of the families in his church area. "They told me they couldn't bring the children to church because they didn't have any 'good' clothes to wear," Rev. Radcliffe approached the members of the Women's Missionary Union and the churchwomen agreed to sponsor the project. "The only other such project that Rev. Radcliffe knew about was a church in San Angelo and both are closely organized along the same lines. "The "Open Door" will be open Tuesdays and Thursdays 9:30 a.m. to noon and 1-5 p.m. with two churchwomen on duty at all times. Clothing and money has been donated to the project by members of the church, "but we still need clothing for boys — all sizes,"

Rev. Radcliffe said. "The idea right now is to provide clothing," he said, "but later on we may expand it to include food and possibly toys, especially at Christmas." Names and addresses of those coming to the "Open Door" will be taken, but only for church purposes. "They will not be given out to anyone," he said. "We're not competing with the Salvation Army," Rev. Radcliffe said. "We're just trying to be of help to the community."

DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SAVED AND UNSAVED IS WICKEDNESS

The basic difference between the children of God and the unsaved is made very clear in the Uniform Sunday School lesson, taken this week from Ezra 7:6, 9:10-15; 10:10-12. The Israelites were becoming yoked to those who were not in any spiritual sense the children of God. Their wickedness was the result of their unclean hearts. If a person is not a child of God he is capable of the depths of wickedness and he needs to know how he can be changed. True Christians have the responsibility to tell him that. It has always been true that people who sin need repentance and to return to the Lord. Israel had been called to be unique, as have all Christians today. But Israel had gone the way of many people today—this is a natural tendency for believers unless their love for Christ is enduring and true, unless it really is the dominant force in their lives. Worldliness really is a matter of the heart, of what is in you personally. This is only overcome as a person experiences crucifixion of his selfish self and the control by Jesus Christ, by faith. This does not mean monastic isolation or fanatical asceticism. But it does mean living a clean, holy life.

Special Missionaries Mark Twentieth Year

NEW YORK — Fifty-one young men and women, most of them fresh out of college, made Methodist missionary history back in 1948. Going to Japan and Korea as the "Fellowship of Christian Reconstruction" (in the aftermath of World War II), they represented a new kind of missionary — the short-term, or special-term, missionary. Because they had committed themselves to three years of service, they were dubbed "3s" by their missionary colleagues. Now in this summer of 1968, the "twentieth anniversary class of 3s" is preparing for United Methodist overseas service. This year's 3s send over the thousand mark the number who have gone out under the program. The 47 in this year's group bring the total number of 3s to 1,944. They are one of the largest groups in the history of the program and are almost double last year's number, 26. Long since sent to many countries besides Japan and Korea, this year's group will go to 15 countries of Africa, Asia and Latin America. Like the young missionary pioneers of 1948, this year's 3s include many who will serve the Christian mission through teaching. Others will serve in such varied fields as social work, church development, medical work, Christian edu-tion, agricultural improvement and rural development, industrial mission, and youth work. All of the 3s in 1948 were single young men and women, as are a majority of this year's group. However, there are also 10 couples. This is only the third year that husband-and-wife teams have been among the 3s. Like most of the 1948 group, the majority of this year's 3s are 1968 college graduates. However, several are young adults already at work in a variety of professional fields. Though most of this year's 3s are members of The United Methodist Church, denominational backgrounds also include the United Church of Christ of the Philippines, the Church of the Nazarene and the Mennonite Church. All will serve under the World Division of the United Methodist Board of Missions.

group are assigned include Japan and Korea, which received the first 3s. But also included are Algeria, Congo, Liberia, Rhodesia, Singapore, Taiwan, India, the Philippines, Malaysia, Brazil, Peru, Costa Rica and Mexico.

Unusual Group Will Perform

An unusual musical group comprised of a chorus and orchestra will be presented Monday at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Big Spring. The Continental Singers and Orchestra are under direction of Steve Hillson of Tarzana, Calif., and will include many of arrangements by Ralph Carmichael, one of their advisors and the arranger for Billy Graham films. The program will consist of concert anthems, hymns, gospel songs and spirituals. There is no charge, although an offering will be taken to assist the group. Those making up the 20-voice choir and the 20-piece orchestra are all young people, 17-24 years of age, who are either church musicians or music majors joining in a Christian witness through music. The group is on a 75-day tour of the Western United States and will come to Big Spring from an engagement at HemisFair. The choir and chorus have cut four LP records, released through the Word Company at Waco. Membership in the group is interdenominational.

Sagging Church Spirits Lifted By Time-Changes

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Sunday schedules are different in summer. In the season when the outdoors beckons, when the call comes from beaches, golf courses and travel, the church congregations shrink. Pews go empty. Many members don't show up. Sermons are shortened. Visiting ministers sub for the vacationing pastor. Classes are thinned or suspended. Other activities are curtailed. The church spirit seems to sag. While many churchmen deplore this annual Sunday letdown, a few congregations have recognized it as a weekend inevitability and changed their time of worship accordingly until the period ends. THURSDAY NIGHT They moved services to Thursday night instead of Sunday for the summer. One church which took this step was the Excelsior, Minn., United Church of Christ. Its pastor, the Rev. Paul Flucke, says: "If Christian freedom means anything, surely it means we can worship the risen Christ on any day of the week." The denomination's periodical, the United Church Herald, said that several other congregations followed suit and changed services to Thursday night for the summer period. It noted that four churches in Belleville, Ill., joined in holding weekly Thursday night worship services, along with church school classes and family recreation, at Hope United Church there. Other recent items about stimulating religious operations: SWIM POOL "My best evangelism prop is the swimming pool," says the Rev. J. Eric Gustavson, pastor of the Village church in Milwaukee, Wis., a special ministry sponsored by the Lutheran Church of America in a complex of high-rise apartments. He says the aim is to communicate the Gospel to apartment dwellers by association with them "at the swimming pool, in

College Dedicates New Auditorium

PLAINVIEW — The Harrah Memorial Auditorium on the Wayland College campus is to be dedicated in a series of four programs starting Sept. 8. Dr. Roy McClung, president of the college, said the $500,000 structure will be presented to Wayland and to the public in the dedication ceremony at 2:30 p.m. Sept. 8 and the founders' day observance will be on the 9th. Mrs. John H. Harrah, Abernathy, Wayland alumnus and former faculty member, who gave the funds to provide the modern, 1,500 seating capacity facility, will be honored at each of the observances. Dr. Winfred Moore, pastor of the Amarillo First Baptist Church, is to deliver the dedicatory address. Leland Atwood, president of the North American Rockwell Corp., Los Angeles, Calif., Wayland graduate of 1924, and the son of the late Dr. E. B. Atwood, president of Wayland 1918-1923, will deliver the founders' day address.

Can you always believe what your eyes tell you?
An American tourist in a foreign country boasted of the wonders of his own land. "Why, we have telescopes that let us see millions of stars!"
He was jolted by the native's reply, "Maybe you see millions of stars and nothing beyond. We see only a few stars and God."
Are you looking for the stars and missing God... or harnessing the atom and losing your security... or chasing rainbows and missing the gold?
All of us need to look for what the heart can feel, not just what the eyes can see. We need to find God.
Why not look for Him in church Sunday? He is waiting for you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
... ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

If The Shoe Fits

Minnesota Twins' coach Early Wynn checks over the shoes worn by Dianne Kabord of Sheboygan, Wis., in the Mrs. America pageant being held in the Twin Cities this week. Dianne, a softball player in her home town, wore her uniform to the Minnesota Twins-New York Yankee game Wednesday where all 51 contestants were guests of the Twins. The Mrs. America coronation is tonight at the Minnesota State Fair in St. Paul.

Buffaloes Deeper, Bigger This Fall

FORSAN — Twenty-nine boys are going through their paces in the Forsan football camp, which got under way Monday. Coach Oscar Boeker is pointing his team for its opening game here with Abilene Central Catholic, which will be Friday night, Sept. 13. The Buffaloes, who appear to be deeper and bigger than they were last year, will run off a Strong Wing this fall, making use of more power. Larry Tolson, ineligible last year due to the transfer rule, is impressing his coaches as the team's quarterback. Addition of Tolson to the squad enabled Boeker to move hard-running Clayton McKinnon to fullback. The Buffs will have medium speed, with David Myers and McKinnon the fastest boys in camp. Tolson's passing arm is also a threat.

Forsan will be seeking to improve upon a 3-6-1 record. Boeker rates Jim Ned as the favorite in Forsan's district but says Bronite will again be salty. Jim Ned is stepping down from Class A. Among regulars due back with the Buffs are left end Terry Wooten, right tackle David Yates, McKinnon, tailback David Myers and wingback Marlin Medlin, who was at end last fall. In addition, left guard Dennis Dunagan was a part-time starter last year and left tackle Alton Callihan divided time at that position in 1967 along with Jackie Willis, who is now at right guard. Boeker says that his team can steer clear of the injury bug-boo it definitely will be improved over last year. Forsan's lead blockers will include the 236-pound Gary Irwin, who was also ineligible last year due to the transfer rule; Willis and Yates. Willis could be a power in the Forsan line as the right end. The Buffaloes will scrimmage Ropesville here next Friday and Imperial here Friday, Sept. 6. Both workouts start about 6:30 p.m. Counting those scrimmages, Forsan will appear five straight times at home before playing a road game. Don Stevens and William Barnes are helping Boeker with coaching duties. The Bisons work out from 7:30 until 9 a.m. each morning and again from 6:30 until about 8 p.m. each evening. Forsan squad: SENIORS: Terry Wooten, 150; Elmer Johnson, 208; Clayton McKinnon, 175; Gary Irwin, 236; Marlin Medlin, 154; David Yates, 197; Dennis Dunagan, 151; Larry Tolson, 165. JUNIORS: Leon Hobbs, 160; Alton Callihan, 147; Vard Griffin, 184; Will Meroun, 113; Bobby Davis, 121; Ricky Kiehl, 174; William McDonald, 174; James Barnett, 127; Bobby Besterline, 178; Jackie Willis, 170; Dorrace Cobb, 138. FRESHMEN: Jay Williams, 157; Ven Barton, 175; Steve Mundell, 167; Phillip Medlin, 162; David Haas, 126; Richard Harrell, 124; Mike Hoem, 129; Jerry Easter, 129; James Dillmore, 97.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Even at this late date, other schools have been trying to hire coaches away from Big Spring. Almost every mentor on the varsity staff here has had some kind of offer for employment elsewhere and some of the tenders, let it be said, were very hard to turn down. The multitude of propositions showered upon the local assistants not only is a tribute to the kind of staff head coach Spike Dykes has assembled but points up the fact that the supply of young coaches simply cannot keep up with the demand.

Should the Houston Oilers win the AFL divisional championship again this year, that city would be the site of two post-season games in three days. The AFL championship game is scheduled Dec. 29 in the Eastern Division champion's home. The Bluebonnet-Astro Bowl game is down for Dec. 31.

Pat Centilli, the former baseball coach at Lamesa High School, is now the head mentor at Alto High School, which is about midway between Lufkin and Jacksonville in East Texas. Before joining the Lamesa staff, Centilli was a coach at George West and Premont.

People who have had heart attacks should be careful when watching professional sports. So says a physician in Liverpool, Eng., Dr. Robert Kemp. Reason: The built-up tensions could be harmful. Watching professional sports is a very strenuous activity, according to Dr. Kemp.

On the other hand, according to Dr. Kemp, people who have had heart attacks will never become fully well simply by "waiting to recover." Instead, the physician advises, the patient should train like a boxer on road work. "I advise my patients to start walking exercises and to take them regularly three or four times a day as opposed to the occasional stroll."

Dr. Kemp suggests that the initial hike should extend no more than a few hundred yards but, by the third month, it should be possible to walk at least five miles a day.

Hugh McElhenny, the one-time NFL running great, will work with the radio team covering San Francisco 49er games this season.

Gerald Loyd, the Big Spring coaching aide, underwent major surgery several weeks ago and understandably has been having to take it easy since that time.

New head basketball coach at San Antonio Roosevelt High School is 36-year-old Jerry Tyson, a former athlete for Odessa Permian High. He coached in New Mexico for two years after graduating from Sul Ross and more recently has been a coaching aide at Carrollton Turner.

New Mexico Military Institute will continue to field a football team, even though no other school in the Western Junior College Conference does. The Cadets are entered in the Empire Conference in football only, which has Navarro of Corsicana, Ranger and Wharton as other members. Few senior college conferences anywhere are as far-flung as the Empire league.

Tigers Using Bats To Stay Atop League

By The Associated Press
The Detroit Tigers are really in there fighting to win their first American League pennant in 23 years, and they're using both short and long distance blows to good advantage. Al Kaline and Willie Horton continued the power with consecutive home runs and Dick McAuliffe helped with effective in-fighting Thursday night when the Tigers defeated the Chicago White Sox 4-2. The triumph increased Detroit's first-place lead over idle Baltimore to 7 1/2 games.

MANTLE CONNECTS
In other games, Mickey Mantle of the New York Yankees whacked his 534th career homer, tying him for third place with Jimmy Foxx on the all-time list, as the Yanks dropped a 3-1 decision to Minnesota. Cleveland downed Boston 3-1 and Oakland edged California 2-1 on Dick Green's ninth-inning homer. Baltimore and Washington were not scheduled.

In the National League, Philadelphia beat St. Louis 7-3, Cincinnati trimmed Pittsburgh 7-5 and San Francisco defeated Los Angeles 3-1 in the only games scheduled. McAuliffe's most valuable contribution to the Tigers' cause came during a third-inning skirmish with left-hander Tommy John, Chicago's starting pitcher. The incident resulted in the ejection of both players and a shoulder injury that may sideline John for three weeks.

Three innings after John's departure, Kaline and Horton tagged his successor, ex-Tiger Dennis Ribant, for their solo homers as Detroit overcame a 2-1 deficit.

The skirmish developed when McAuliffe fell to the ground after ducking a 3-2 pitch. The Tigers' second baseman charged toward John halfway between the plate and first base after an exchange of words. "Anyone who thinks I'm going to throw at them on a 3-2 pitch leading 1-0 in this ball park must be stupid," said John later, emphasizing Tiger Stadium's reputation as haven for home run hitters.

McAuliffe, who is 5-foot-11, slammed into the 6-foot-3 pitcher with his body as players from both dugouts ran onto the field. McAuliffe and John grappled briefly on the ground, but the fight was quickly broken up and there were no additional incidents.

Tournament Entries Can Use CC Course

Golfers who pay their entry fees for the annual Big Spring Invitational Golf tournament can get onto the Country Club course, site of the meet, for practice as early as Saturday. So says Donald Lovelady, chairman of the tournament committee.

Entry fee has been dropped from $20 to $17.50 and the price of admission includes a ticket to a Friday, Aug. 30, barbecue and a Saturday, Aug. 31, dance.

Lovelady said the committee was shooting for a field of 224, or enough for 14 flights. The championship flight will again consist of 16 players, Lovelady said.

AT ANDREWS

Mark Slate Tied For Links Lead

ANDREWS — Mark Slate, Big Spring, was tied for the lead in the 14-15 year bracket at the half way point in the Tournament of Champions here Thursday.

The final 18 holes of competition is scheduled to start at 1 p.m. today at the Andrews Country Club. The meet climaxes summer activity among junior players in West Texas and is sponsored by the West Texas chapter of the PGA.

Slate achieved a 74 Thursday to deadlock Bucky Sheffield, Lubbock; and Dub Huckaby, Monahan, for the top spot in his age group. Two strokes away from the top spot in the 14-15 bracket is Howard Stewart of Big Spring.

Scott Stegner, Odessa, took the course apart to grab the early lead in the 16-17 age bracket. Stegner registered a 68. Par for the Andrews course is 70.

Ronnie Broadrick, Big Spring's lone entry in that division, finished with a 76. Mark Noble, Lubbock, leads the 12-13 year olds with a first round 81.

Jimmy Stewart, Big Spring, had a 90 in that division while Bennett Robb, also of Big Spring, finished with a 101.

Wysong Leads Despite His Many Miseries

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — After listening to Dudley Wysong list his troubles since he turned professional five years ago, the question appeared to be not would he hold his first-round lead in the $100,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic but would he finish.

Wysong's history is loaded with major ailments that have kept him from realizing his full potential on the tour. He's suffered a whiplash injury, at one time was in traction with a bad back and also damaged the ulnar nerve in his right hand.

If it wasn't for his seven-under-par 65 Thursday in the opening round of the 72-hole Philadelphia tournament, you might be tempted to take up a collection to help pay Wysong's medical insurance.

Talking about his hand injury, he said, "I couldn't even lift a glass of water."

The one thing he could lift Thursday's round was a putter. Wysong splattered his wood and iron shots all over the light, 6,708-yard Whitmarsh Valley Country Club course. But once he reached the greens, it was all over except for picking the ball out of the cup.

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Here are the leaders after the first round Thursday in the Philadelphia Golf Classic at the Whitmarsh Valley Country Club:

This is the first time in four years the cup matches have been held. They previously were sponsored by Cosden Oil & Chemical Co.

Runners-up will earn $80 in prizes while consolation round winners will get $40 in merchandise.

The First National Bank is providing 20 trophies for players who will take part in the cup matches next Friday. The winners' awards are about nine inches tall.

Neil is due to enter South Plains College in Levelland next month. Doctors said he would be inactive several weeks.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Melton McMorries.

The Fastback and the Squareback. Perhaps you know these are Volkswagens. But perhaps you don't know they have dual back-up lights. Seat belts that retract into cartridges. Plush (for VW) interiors. Dual brake systems with disc brakes in front. A powerful starter, 12-volt electrical system, a low cut-in generator. 65 hp. You certainly don't know how one drives unless you've driven one. Come drive one.

City Schools Have Already Changed

A statewide changeover from a general science course to a physical science course has been endorsed by college and university physics and chemistry teachers, as well as the Texas Education Agency and school district science supervisors — but this won't affect Big Spring Schools.

"We have been offering physical science since our last textbook adoption," John Smith, high school principal said.

"We adopted a textbook for a basic physical science course in 1962," Dan Conley said. Conley is in charge of textbooks and supplies for the Big Spring Independent School System.

The books were used beginning with the 1962-63 school year. A new book, "Modern Physical Science," has been adopted for the coming school year, Conley said.

The general science course has been widely regarded as too waded down for today's students. The physical science course is expected to encourage more students to take up science as a career, especially in the fields of physics and chemistry where there is a pressing demand.

Although the new course will put more emphasis on these two areas it is not seen as a substitute for physics and chemistry courses now being offered at higher grade levels. The physical science course is basically a ninth grade course.

Driver's Ed Simulator Will Not Be Used Here

Texas' master plan for driver education will be implemented this fall when a group of highly-trained teaching assistants and their supervisors fan out across the state to inaugurate the state's new multi-phase program.

The new program will not be available in all schools this year, but in the regions where it will be operating, driver education will be made available to more students than ever before.

Both the new teaching assistants and their teacher supervisors have just completed an extensive summer training program co-sponsored by the Texas Education Agency and Texas A&M University at College Station.

During the five-week summer study program, teaching assistants received classroom instruction in driver education, were given courses in the latest teaching techniques, schooled in the operation of driving simulators and taught how to conduct a driving range and give in-car instruction. In addition they were given driver training courses to improve their basic driving skills.

The use of teaching assistants, plus new teaching aids, such as the driving simulator, is expected to double the number of students receiving driver education in the public schools in the next two years.

The simulator, with speedometer and other dashboard gauges, a gear shift, brakes and accelerator, lets the beginning driver become familiar with the techniques of controlling a vehicle before he gets behind the steering wheel.

The simulator does not replace classroom instruction, but does cut down on time needed for behind-the-wheel instruction and reduces training costs. Simulators will be used in the state's new driver education program in many areas of the state this year.

"It will be a while before Big Spring student drivers will be trained in a simulator," C. W. Tanner, head of the local driver's education program, said.

"The simulators are expensive — above $50,000 for a 12-place simulator — and we would not feel justified in asking for an expenditure of this size," Tanner said.

With a course in driver education students can obtain an operator's license at 16, without the course a driver must be 18 to get a license. Driver education courses are being offered to high school students beginning at the 10th grade level.

Bridge Test

—CHARLES H. GOREN

A club was returned and declarer put up the king from dummy to lead another heart. East followed with the seven and declarer was about to repeat the finesse when he paused to consider the situation. East was known to have the ten of hearts because South's eight had forced the queen earlier. If East also held the king, then the contract could not be made, for declarer must still lose a trump trick and the ace of diamonds in addition to the spade and heart already given up.

South changed his mind about finessing and went up with the ace of hearts. When the king dropped, he drew the remaining trump with the jack and cheerfully conceded a trick to the ace of diamonds. If East had turned up with four trump, South would have gone down an extra trick by refusing the finesse; however, that was a small price to pay for the opportunity to make the contract.

East could have put declarer to the maximum guess by following with the ten of hearts on the second round. Inasmuch as he is known to have that card, he has nothing to lose by making the false card. The gain becomes obvious if declarer repeats the finesse by covering the ten with the jack.

 South held something in reserve for his minimum sounding rebid of two hearts and, when his partner persisted to two no trump, he decided to relieve North of any further pressure by going directly to game. Holding a singleton spade he preferred to play the hand at four hearts.

West led the queen of spades covered by North's king and East's ace. A spade was continued and ruffed by declarer. A small club was led to the queen and a heart was returned. East followed with the deuce and South put in the eight, losing to West's queen.

Youth Volunteers Will Be Honored

Youth Volunteers at the Veterans Administration Hospital will be recognized in an awards ceremony at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Room 232 of the hospital.

Annie Heirman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alois Heirman, 1401 Eleventh Place, will receive the highest honor given by the Veterans Administration Volunteer Service when she is given a Certificate of Devotion for 1,000 hours of volunteer service.

Miss Heirman, a senior at Big Spring High School, is the first girl to receive the 1,000-hour award since the youth volunteers were initiated 10 years ago at the hospital here. There have been three boys to earn the award, however.

Annie began working at the hospital two summers ago and has volunteered each summer since. After her second summer, she continued to work during the school year on weekends and holidays. She also is active in church work and plans to be a registered nurse.

Roger Klonka will receive a certificate for outstanding service at the ceremony for 500 hours of volunteer service, and certificates of merit for 300 hours work will go to Verna Goswick and Ruth Russell.

Certificates of appreciation will go to Linda Affleck, Debbi Blanchard, Michael Blanchard, Debra Bondle, Marcy Faught, Dana Fritts, Beverly Hartley, Edith Heirman, Debbie Jacobs, Victoria Knoepfel, Virginia Lee

FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW

—CARROLL RIGTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: An excellent day and evening for a beautiful start in anything that has to do either with the type of work that you are doing or that you would like to start in or where your own health and welfare are concerned that needs a new type of treatment or interests. Get your word robe improved now as well, with every opportunity to get everything you have to do done for more efficiently. You have wonderful ideas that can make you more productive. Why do you spend so much time trying to make people over? It's foolish.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Stop moaning around and visit with good friends, have fun during spare hours. You've got to show others you like them, else how can they know? This can lead to fine things, too, especially where the romantic is concerned.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Why don't you start getting your house in for better order? You will feel much better, more comfortable, if you do. Give him a break. Let them in on your ideas for advancement, too. Do things right.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Start visiting early so that you get the right people filled with you in your present fine plans. Some distant phone calls can bring you the backing you want also. Use the right words.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 31) Study your property well today and know where and if you have to make improvements, and then get in touch with experts now. Stop taking so many chances on big investments.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) While you can do whatever you like now, don't neglect to get that interesting plan working that now has every chance of success. You may have to go to a little trouble to be with charming people tonight, but will be worth it. Do so.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) You can now get the information you want from that person who usually says very little. Contact him early. Someone comes to you for a workable idea. Be sure that you assist this person. Don't be selfish.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Being with individuals who are very precise is your best bet today so that you deepen friendships and get the ideas you desire. Out with those tonight who are very helpful. Why do things in a small way?

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Listening to what one who is an expert has to say is wise, since you can then gain that business aim of real importance to you. A blowup gives a really big hand where most needed. Accepting gratefully is fine.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 30) It's about time you got out of that rut you think you enjoy so much and do some expanding for your own good. You have some new associate who has fine ideas. Talk seriously to this person and things begin to go.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 31 to Feb. 19) Paying more attention to how you can take care of your responsibilities more cleverly is important now. Do you have the right budget? Close it can be sheeded into going along with your ideas if you explain carefully.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Some quiet conversation with a partner can now bring about a perfect understanding that has been impossible before now. Find out what others are thinking, also. Joining forces will then be quite easy.
