

EXTRA BEATS

Ike's Heart Shows More Irritability

WASHINGTON (AP) — Army doctors reported today that former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has shown "further increase" in heart irritability since Sunday and remains in critical condition.

Doctors of the Walter Reed Army Hospital said that extra heartbeats have been occurring with "increasing frequency" since Sunday.

But they added that there had been no further episodes of "rapid heart action," which constitute the more serious symptom of his condition.

The hospital issued this morning bulletin:

"Gen. Eisenhower has shown further increase in heart irritability since yesterday. Extra beats have been occurring with increasing frequency. However, there have been no further episodes of rapid heart action.

"The general's condition remains critical.

"He enjoyed a light breakfast this morning and continues to rest comfortably."

Bible Fund Report

The effects of Sunday was felt in the high school Bible Class fund today. There were five class groups which made contributions, and several other individuals sent in gifts through classes or churches.

The net result was a $200 boost for the fund, making $1,369 so far raised, about 40 per cent of what is needed to make possible the Bible instruction again for high school students. Since its inception more than 20 years ago, the class has been supported by private gifts and provisions made by churches. Latest investors in the fund are:

Tower Decorated

It took them three nights to do the job, but last week some young boys had painted the words "Srs.", "69", "Love" and "Peace" on the water tower at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Jack Powell, hospital director, said that a group of boys were reported at the tower Sunday night and the words "Srs.", "69" were brushed on. They were caught by police Monday night and were told not to return, Powell said. But Tuesday they finished their art work.

No charges have been filed.

Quoting The Politicians

By The Associated Press

What major political figures at the Democratic National Convention are saying:

"I think that the policies the President has pursued are basically sound." —Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey on the Vietnam war.

"He would be a good president with had policies." — Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy on Humphrey.

"If we get beyond the first ballot it may be that a third candidate can emerge." — Third candidate Sen. George S. McGovern.

"I have received no indication directly or indirectly that he has changed his position since March 31." — Texas Gov. John B. Connally, scotch-ing reports he might nominate President Johnson.

"If a Southerner is not on the ticket, the South would be written off in the election." — Louisiana Gov. John J. McKeithen, urging a Southern running mate for Humphrey.

Spare The Geese, Ducks

Local nimrods were urged today to go light on the trigger, when they see ducks and geese in the area. A. D. Blount, of the Big Spring Pet-A-Zoo, said this morning that someone opened the gate, at his place on US 87 south, and let out the animals.

He rounded up the goats, but the ducks and geese flocked to the Cosden Lake and "they're really having a ball." Blount said there is no way he can catch the feathered flock soon, and urged shooters to spare them.

Floor Fight On Platform Seems Certain

CHICAGO (AP) — Indications continued today to point toward a floor fight over the Democratic party's position on the Vietnam war, although both supporters and critics of President Johnson's war policy said they are seeking compromises.

Weary members of the Democratic National Convention's Platform Committee struggled into the early hours without apparent success in settling the potentially divisive issue.

DISSENTERS STRONG

Platform writers favoring what they term a strong peace plank claim more than enough votes to bring a dissenting report to the convention floor.

And Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey once again said Americans have the right to expect "some little sign" from North Vietnam that it would enter into meaningful discussions if bombing was stopped. There is no such sign, he stated.

Unconditional cessation of the bombing of North Vietnam is one of the points most hotly debated.

Even apart from the prospect of a Vietnam floor fight, preparation of the platform ran into delay after delay.

The scheduled Sunday night meeting of the full committee to consider a platform draft ended without completing its task and the drafting subcommittee could only hope to have a paper ready for a general session sometime later today.

SCRAMBLE

A long review by the full committee could scramble convention deadlines.

Under normal procedure, the platform should be approved in committee in time to be printed and distributed to delegates and the news media before its formal presentation to the convention scheduled Tuesday evening.

Some of the compromise straws were tossed by key supporters of Humphrey and Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

Sen. Edmund Muskie of Maine, who supports Humphrey, said he thinks the views of his side and those of McCarthy's spokesmen "are close enough together on fundamentals that a compromise here ought to be possible."

Governor Harold Hughes of Iowa, who favors McCarthy, said he is "truly hopeful we can work these differences out and not have to go to the floor."

LEAVE ROOM

He said the aim should be a plank covering main objectives of U.S. policy in Vietnam but leaving room for differences on details.

McCarthy supporters have been calling for specific recommendations, such as a bombing halt and a scaling down of U.S. operations in South Vietnam.

Humphrey meanwhile said hopes aroused by the Paris peace talks were dashed by North Vietnam.

He said the United States tried for a discussion of restoring the truly demilitarized character of the zone between the two Vietnams, but the answer was no.

Humphrey again defended administration policy as "basically sound . . . directed toward a political settlement."

Partly overshadowed by the Vietnam dispute has been continuing North-South tension over a law and order plank.

Deeply Divided Demos Open '68 Convention

HHH Holds Heavy But Uneasy Lead

Opening Schedule

CHICAGO (AP)—The schedule for the opening session today of the 35th Democratic National Convention:

Chairman John M. Bailey opens the convention at 7:30 p.m. CDT.

NO HINT

The President, home on the ranch near Johnson City, Tex., was giving no hint on whether he'd ever show up in Chicago—though his 60th birthday anniversary Tuesday offers a dramatic opportunity to put real steam behind a budding "Draft Johnson" movement.

Sen. Kennedy, like Johnson an avowed noncandidate, was relaxing at Cape Cod, Mass., but a perhaps more insistent "draft" movement appeared to be surfacing in Chicago.

Forces in the Texas delegation are ready to put Johnson's name in nomination. Former Gov. Michael DiSalle of Ohio is ready with Kennedy's—and this morning important new strength turned the senator's way.

Longshot presidential hopeful George S. McGovern said if Kennedy "called me and talked to me directly and said that he wanted the nomination I would probably throw my support to him."

NOT EXPECTED

McGovern, a South Dakota senator, added, however: "I don't expect that to happen. I don't know about any Kennedy movement."

A second liberal senator from the Midwest, Philip Hart of Michigan, endorsed Kennedy for the nomination—and Sander Levin, chairman of the Michigan delegation, said he would "lean to Kennedy if Kennedy became a candidate."

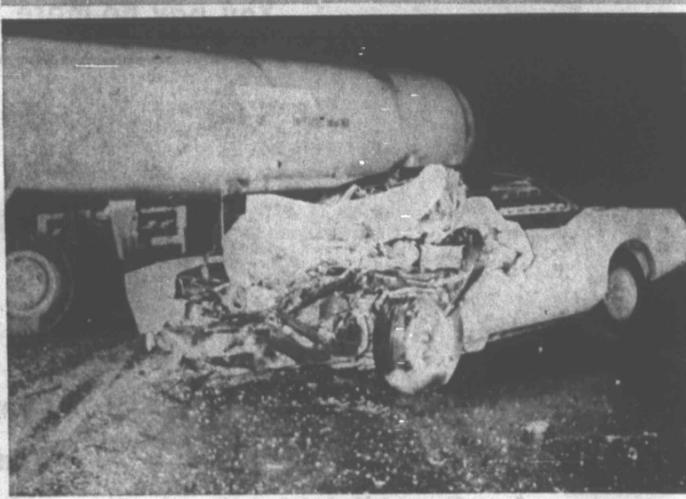

Like McGovern, both Hart and Levin spoke cautiously, saying they were not urging the last of the Kennedy brothers to get into the race.

But a boom, or at least a boomlet, has been launched. Attention was centered particularly on the 118-vote Illinois delegation where, at the direction of Mayor Richard J. Daley, a presidential preference vote was put off until Wednesday—obviously to see if either the Johnson or Kennedy drives catch fire.

NOT CLEAR

Blair Clark, campaign manager for Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, contended at a news conference in mid-morning "it now is quite clear" that Humphrey is not going to win on the first ballot.

On paper, at least, the strength of the declared candidates remained constant. The Associated Press, basing its

Two Odessans Killed In Car-Truck Crash

A grinding near-head-on collision of a big oil field truck and a passenger car took the lives of two Odessa residents at 2:15 a.m. Sunday on SH 350.

The crash occurred at a detour on the state road at Wild Horse Creek, where a new bridge is being built, 11.4 miles northeast of Big Spring. Killed in the accident were Mrs. Onnie Odom, 43, and Bobbie Dale Travis, 39, both residents of Odessa. Presumably they were en route to Odessa at the time of the crash.

Highway patrolmen said that the truck, owned by Steere Tank

Lines, of Big Spring, and driven by Samuel Jaso, 22, Big Spring, was going east and had just begun to re-enter the highway on the east end of the detour. Just to the west of the entrance to the detour were barricades blocking traffic on the bridge but one of these on the right hand side had been hit earlier in the evening by another car and pushed aside.

The car in which the Odessans were riding was going west. It struck the big truck almost head-on and was demolished. Both victims were pinned in the wreckage. Both, according to officers at the scene, were instantly killed, but the woman was brought to Big Spring where she was pronounced dead on arrival at a local hospital. The man was ruled by Justice Jess Slaughter to have met death by accident.

Jaso was not injured. A companion in the truck with him, who was sleeping back of the driver seat, Troy Newton, suffered cuts about the face.

The truck was damaged extensively.

The two deaths were Nos. 6 and 7 on rural roads for this county in 1968.

The bodies were taken to the River-Weich Funeral Home and later transferred to Odessa. Mrs. Odom was removed to the Paul Rix Funeral Home where services are pending.

Services for Travis were at 2 p.m. today in Hubbard-Kelly Chapel with interment in Sunset Memorial Gardens.

Woman Charged In Sunday Shooting

Odessa Connor, 43, of 409 Ohio, is being held in the Howard County jail in lieu of $5,000 bond on a charge of murder with malice in the Sunday morning gun death of Charlie Peterson, 40.

Charges were filed against the woman Sunday morning after Peterson had been found dying in the front seat of his car, parked in front of the Connor residence. He had been shot in the chest with a .22 caliber pistol.

Peterson, according to police, who were called to the scene, was alive when they arrived but died within minutes after the officers found him. The time was 3:48 a.m.

It is reported that he was shot while in the house. He staggered from the house to his car and managed to get into the seat. Unable to start the vehicle, he was there when officers arrived.

Jess Slaughter, peace justice, ruled death due to gunshot wound inflicted by Odessa Connor. He set bond at $5,000.

She was arrested by city police, and Sunday was transferred to the county jail where she was still held at noon Monday.

The body was removed to River-Weich Funeral Home, where services are pending.

Peterson had lived in Big Spring for 17 years and was employed by a trucking firm.

He was born Jan. 17, 1928, in Rosebud.

Survivors include his wife, Helen, two sons, Larry Peterson and Gary Peterson, both of Big Spring; one daughter, Charlene Peterson, Big Spring; his father, Norman Peterson, Tulsa, Okla.; and his mother, Mrs. Ruby Peterson, Colorado City.

Czech-Soviet Compromise Expected From Discussions

MOSCOW (AP) —Czechoslovak and Soviet talks dragged on into the afternoon today with still no sign of an agreement that would end the crisis. A Czechoslovak source discounted reports from abroad that the talks had ended.

Authoritative party sources in Prague said there was hope of reaching an agreement that would include Soviet recognition of the liberal party leaders in exchange for acceptance of a temporary Soviet occupation.

WILL RETURN

A Czechoslovak Embassy spokesman said President Ludvig Svoboda and other liberal leaders would return to Prague no matter what the results of the negotiations.

The spokesman said Svoboda would be accompanied home by Communist party chief Alexander Dubcek reported earlier to have been taken prisoner by the Soviet troops who invaded his country.

Another underground broadcast told Czechoslovaks that some compromise must be made to get the Soviet-bloc occupiers off their land but that it "need not be needlessly great."

The commentator said the invasion by the Soviet Union and four other orthodox Communist states added up to a "bungled putsch" by Communist leaders concerned not about the party's future but for their own "personal power."

"The Soviet Union has found itself facing the whole world and the international Communist movement in the extremely unpleasant position of a great power which not only tries to enforce its power objectives by means of force, but which, in them," the broadcast said.

Church bells, factory sirens, auto horns and other alarms rang throughout Czechoslovakia for 15 minutes today protesting the occupation, Tanjug also reported.

In New York, the U.N. Security Council appeared likely to delay further debate on the crisis until the talks in Moscow ended. But should the talks break down, the U.N. General Assembly is expected to be called into emergency session. The assembly is free of the veto which the Soviet Union used last week to prevent the council's taking a hand in the crisis.

The Czechoslovaks were reported resisting the invaders with constant harassment and a stream of radio messages from secret transmitters supporting the liberal leaders.

Shots rang out in Prague as occupation troops fired on cars and motorbikes Saturday night. Clandestine broadcasts said at least three Czechoslovaks were killed.

Gallup Poll Says Nixon Fares Better Than Demos

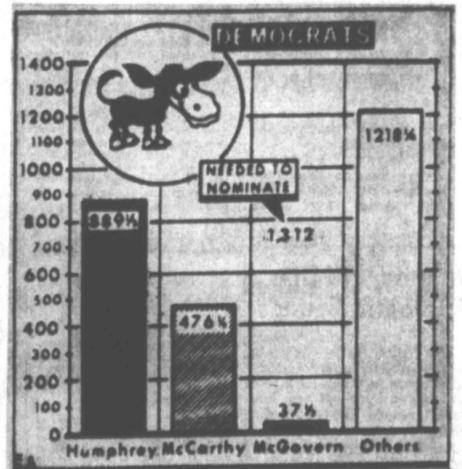

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — Americans believe Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential nominee, could do a better job of dealing with the Vietnam war than either leading contender for the Democratic nomination, the Gallup Poll reported, Sunday.

When Nixon and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey were paired on the question of who could best handle the war, Gallop said the sample survey found 54 per cent said Nixon, 27 per cent said Humphrey and 19 registered no opinion.

When Nixon was paired with Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, the figures were 52 per cent for Nixon, 29 per cent for McCarthy and 19 per cent with no opinion.

Gallup said the nationwide survey of 1,526 adults was taken after the Republican National Convention two weeks ago.

Delegate Poll

The latest poll by The Associated Press of comparative delegate strength among contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination shows Vice President Hubert Humphrey in the lead on the first ballot at the National Convention.

CHILD HEART RECIPIENT DIES

Electric Shock Fails To Restart Her Heart

HOUSTON (AP) — The second child heart recipient in the world died late Sunday one week after the organ of an 11-year-old boy was implanted in her chest.

Maria Giannaris, 5, of Hagerstown, Md., died at 11:40 p.m. following a cardiac arrest, said a spokesman at Texas Heart Institute. All attempts at resuscitation were unsuccessful.

Maria, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick A. Giannaris, received the heart of James Dudley Herron II, who died after suffering a brain hemorrhage. She was the world's 31st heart recipient and the 9th person to receive a heart in Houston un-

Few Showers Are Forecast

By The Associated Press

Showers were expected to cool off some portions of Texas today bringing relief from the August heat.

Widely scattered showers developed before dawn along state coastal regions and over the adjacent Gulf.

Skies were clear to partly cloudy and early morning temperatures were generally in the 80s and 70s.

A weak stationary front near Wichita Falls that caused increased shower activity Sunday had nearly dissipated.

Thundershowers, mostly light to moderate but occasionally heavy, fell in widely scattered fashion Sunday from near Seymour to near Bowie, Sherman and Paris into Oklahoma and Arkansas.

Showers also fell from south-east of Lubbock to Shamrock and Wichita Falls. For a time near nightfall rain showers and thundershowers covered 40 per cent of the area along and 110 miles north of Abilene to 15 miles north of Marshall. Lighter showers fell in the Panhandle-Plains country.

Rains, some measuring up to an inch per hour, fell from the vicinity of Alice to LaGrange and Houston and eastward into Louisiana.

Temperatures Sunday ranged from a 97 at Wichita Falls to 81 at El Paso.

What do you bid now?

A.—Five diamonds to show possession of the king of that suit.

You have already made up your mind to bid at least six hearts, and there can be no harm in showing this feature of your hand. It may enable partner to go the limit after full exploration

What do you bid now?

A.—Had you not previously would be a jump to three hearts, forcing to game. But, in view of your previous failure to bid, partner might not go on. Your hand is worth 14 points in support, so even if North has a game-going hand. While you might desire to interrupt communications between the opponents, you cannot afford to go very high because it might prove costly should they abandon their game and double you instead.

However, partner should be advised that you have diamond value. You may do this by doubling the two diamond bid, and leaving the rest to him.

have but an ace and king, this hand has enormous potentialities.

Your partner not only has opened the bidding and redoubled. He combined these moves with a jump. If his hand does not contain too many spade losses, a slam should be easily

Demos Will Spur More Excitement

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "Tumult within and threats of violence without" was Walter Cronkite's summary of conditions in Chicago on the eve of the opening of the Democratic National Convention.

Each of the three networks had a special program Sunday briefing viewers on the political climate and public temper. And amid talk of floor fights, sharp disagreement on platform planks, film showing troops arriving to control any demonstrations outside the convention hall, the previews indicated that in term of TV action, the Democrats probably will produce more excitement and be more interesting to watch than the Republicans in convention a few weeks back.

TART TONGUE

The network newscasters, with facility born of much recent practice, smoothly laid down the foundations for their coverage that begins tonight.

The reporting teams talk about political maneuvers with the familiarity of ward bosses. They all seem to have more freedom to analyze, project, even editorialize, than in other convention years.

David Brinkley, for instance, has a tart and chilly tongue when angered, and he flared up when informed of the convention's decision to reduce the number of TV floor reporters. It must be said that the industrious interviewing and story-hunting of the networks' teams of four convention floor reporters took some of the curse off the meandering speechmaking that droned on in Miami Beach when even the delegates were ignoring them.

If only a fraction of the possible conflicts, inside and out of the hall occur, the convention may be stimulating if dismaying viewing.

GAVEL-TO-GAVEL

CBS and NBC will continue their gavel-to-gavel coverage starting at 7:30 EDT tonight, and ABC will pick up at 9:30 with a 90-minute wrap-up of highlights and analyses.

Pat Paulsen, the comedian of CBS's "Summer Brothers Smothers Show," made his final appearance in the pre-convention period spoofing the business of political campaigning. He presented his solution to gun control. Some of the thoughts were more macabre than funny, but his solution was ingenious: "Plenty of guns for everybody, but lock up all the bullets."

The program, with the attractive young country singer Glen Campbell, must be counted as the most successful for television's summer soldiers. Even if the show does not gain a winter time slot, Campbell has made good. He spins off the series into a fancy motion picture contract.

Allied Units Smashing Thrusts By Commies

SAIGON (AP) — Smashing Communist thrusts across South Vietnam, allied forces killed more than 1,000 of the enemy today and Sunday and raised their toll to more than 6,000 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese dead in the past eight days, military spokesmen reported today.

The intensified fighting went into its ninth day today with one battle still under way below the demilitarized zone. Near Con Thien, U.S. Marines cordoned off more than 300 North Vietnamese troops and were trying to tighten the noose around them. Fifty-two of the enemy were reported killed.

5,000 DIE

The U.S. Command said that more than 5,000 enemy troops were reported killed last week. The count has not been so high since the week ending May 18, when 5,348 were reported killed in the midst of the second major enemy offensive of the year.

The latest enemy thrusts smashed by allied forces were across Vietnam's central highlands and farther north along the coastal lowlands where hundreds of enemy troops were reported slain by allied infantrymen and a massive rain of U.S. fire and air power.

Senior U.S. officers in Da Nang said they saw no end to the intensified fighting. Total allied casualties have been light, because of superior American firepower from bombers, artillery and helicopter gunships which have accounted for perhaps 50 per cent or more of the enemy dead.

WIPED OUT

Military spokesmen in Saigon said two battalions of North Vietnamese had been wiped out in a weekend of savage fighting at the Duc Lap Special Forces camp and a nearby district headquarters compound.

The isolated camps, at the southern tip of the central highlands on an invasion route from Cambodia, held out against 3,000 enemy troops for three days until reinforcements fought their way in late Sunday and relieved the 300 defenders.

At last report, all was quiet inside the camps. But less than two miles away from the district headquarters, a battalion of South Vietnamese infantrymen, sent into the area to bolster allied defenses, clashed with enemy units this afternoon and reported killing 15. Three government soldiers were killed.

This raised to 643 the number of enemy troops reported slain in four days of fighting in and around Duc Lap. More than 200 weapons also were reported captured, including more than 50 rocket launchers, mortars and heavy machine guns.

PLANES LOST

But in the Duc Lap fighting, 61 Montagnard tribesmen fighting as mercenaries for the government were killed and 119 were wounded. Six American advisers were killed and 15 wounded. An F100 Supersabre fighter-bomber and six helicopters were shot down. American survivors of the siege said the enemy mutilated the body of one American who killed five enemy soldiers in a trench before he himself was slain.

Two more American planes, an Air Force F4 Phantom and a Navy A6 Corsair, were reported lost in attacks on North Vietnam's southern panhandle and the two crewmen of the Phantom are missing. The pilot of the Corsair was pulled from the South China Sea by a helicopter after he bailed out east of Vinh. These losses raised to 885 the number of U.S. warplanes reported downed over the North in the 3 1/2-year bombing campaign.

The siege of Duc Lap was lifted when 1,000 government commandos and their American advisers fought their way into the Green Beret camp. One of the defenders, M. Sgt. Thomas Boody of New York City, reported: "We thought it was all over. A group of us Americans were going to make a last ditch stand on top of the hill. We would rather die than give up."

Tiny Difference

CHICAGO (AP) — A mother and her 5-year-old son were in front of the Palmer House Sunday when pickets marched denouncing the Vietnam war. The boy joined the demonstrators who were shouting, "Hell no! we won't go!" The mother admonished the child and told him to chant, "Heck no, we won't go."

City Workers Fail To Show

LUBBOCK (AP) — About 100 striking city workers ignored a deadline today set by the City Council for them to return to their jobs.

None showed up for the 7 a.m. deadline. The City Council said the workers would lose their employe benefits if they ignored the deadline.

The strikers, mostly garbage collectors, struck Thursday in a dispute over overtime pay. The workers want time and a half but the city pays only straight time for overtime work.

Neither union leaders nor city officials had any comment on the situation this morning.

Garbage collection continued in the city, however. Police cars went with those garbage trucks which used city jail trustees for collection work.

Dear Abby

The Slangage Gap

DEAR ABBY: My mother was looking through my year book when she started to read some of the stuff the kids wrote in it.

Well, one of my friends, who happens to be a very nice girl, wrote, "Have a bitchin' summer." When my mother saw that she flew into a rage and hit the ceiling.

Abby, "bitchin'" doesn't mean to us kids what it means to the older generation. There is nothing dirty about it. My mother can't believe it, so please, do me a favor and explain that "bitchin'" — when used by the kids today means, "groovy, neat or cool." Thank you. NOT BELIEVED

DEAR NOT: Much as I dislike the word when used by kids to describe the ultimate, it does mean what you say it does. But don't ever use it to describe your mother — no matter how "groovy, neat or cool" you think she is.

DEAR ABBY: Your reply to the Man Next Door about the violin-playing 10-year-old missed the mark entirely. (You told the complaining neighbor to keep his windows closed and buy an air conditioner.)

The VIOLIN-PLAYER'S PARENTS should keep their windows closed and buy an air conditioner. The perpetrators of any nuisance noise should be required by law to keep their noise IN, or to stop it altogether.

There is entirely too much tolerance of nuisance noise in the U.S.A. today. In many European countries they are so strict about nuisance noise that all apartment houses are required by law to be soundproofed.

Many experts have testified that noise is as evil a kind of "pollution" as water and air pollution. It's not only nerve-racking, it's a menace to one's health. Anyone interested in knowing the names of the above-mentioned "experts," may write to Congressman Ted Kupferman, who has been sponsoring a bill on Noise Control.

BEN F. LAPOSKY
CHEROKEE, IOWA

DEAR BEN: Amen! Tell Rep. Kupferman that the "noise" he just heard is Abby, cheering for his bill.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to reply to "MOTHER OF SEVEN," who said "the world would be a lot better off if people would learn to love the children they get, rather than take pills to keep from having them."

A person does not have to "learn to love" a wanted child. The "love" is already there. Although, some people may develop love for unwanted children, it can never be as natural and free from prejudice. One cannot be taught, forced or shamed into loving.

That woman with seven children is a greater threat to the human race than the bomb. While she is busy overcoming this tiny planet, she has the nerve to encourage others to follow her example. C.M.J.

Bal Collar Tops New Fall Fashions

The bal collar (balmacaan) that topped the button-up front of a man's raincoat has made its way into regular clothing and is being seen in suits, jackets, and overcoats. This short, turnover collar is completely adaptable and may be worn with shirt and tie, turtleneck or with shirt and apache scarf. It's going to be a year of "new looks" in men's belts — with the big trend being toward all-metal links — worn over slacks, over jackets and even over overwear.

Carver Pharmacy Has Wide Choice Of Items

Convenience, choice and courtesy are the bywords of Carver Drive-In Pharmacy, Ninth and Nolan, where you can get convenient and courteous service at the drive-in window and choose from a wide selection of goods.

The drive-in window, on the west side of the building, was built for the convenience of the customers and was Big Spring's first drive-in pharmacy.

The drive-in facility enables patrons, wanting to pick up prescriptions in a hurry without having to worry about dress or keeping an eye on children, or getting out in the scorching summer heat, to drive around the building from Ninth Street, pick up their items and drive off on Nolan without having to be concerned about finding a parking place.

As for selection, Carver Pharmacy has several items outside the medical profession.

For example, when seasonal holidays or special days crowd the customer's mind for gift ideas, nothing can be more appropriate than a box of Pangburn's chocolates. The quality candy is boxed in various sizes, appropriate for the gift of each customer.

Carver also stocks cosmetics of all the well-known brands and latest fashions. They also have many brands of shaving lotions, cologne and other items for men. And along with the gifts, Carver Pharmacy has their perfect companions — Hallmark greeting cards.

The Carver magazine and book rack has a big selection of periodicals and books for hours of reading pleasure.

For customer comfort, the pharmacy is air conditioned, so the store is pleasant to shop in. As a licensed pharmacist, Milton Carver, owner-manager, believes that every person should use pharmaceuticals prescribed by qualified physicians and that the medicine should be properly compounded.

Therefore, Carver keeps abreast of the latest developments in prescription drugs and the trusted patent medicines.

For all pharmaceutical needs, contact Carver's Drive-In Pharmacy, Ninth and Nolan. A telephone call to 263-7418 will have your prescription ready for you when you drive up, or it can be delivered with no extra charge.

McMahon Has Everything For Concrete

McMahon Concrete Co., 605 N. Benton, has the concrete or concrete product for any concrete job or project in the Howard County area.

A glance around the area will disclose that anyone who needs concrete, whether he be farmer, building contractor or highway engineer, will come to McMahon Concrete for the material.

Farmers and ranchers find using precast water and feed troughs an asset to raising cattle and horses. Water standing in concrete troughs does not cause deterioration and neither does the concrete absorb heat or cold as quickly as the metal containers. Should the farmer not find the troughs or other concrete items to suit his needs, McMahon will precast the needed item from the farmer's own design.

The staff of McMahon Concrete has the proper mixture of concrete for any type of job, including mixes for foundations, bridges, culverts, sidewalks, driveways, curbs, gutters and street pavement. If concrete can do the job, McMahon has the mixture.

Huge mixing hoppers are set up on the lot where trucks can back under the chutes and load, an extraordinarily fast method of loading the proper mixture. Just set your forms and call McMahon's radio-equipped trucks for delivery of the concrete you need. The company has 10 concrete trucks, two dump trucks, two flat-bed trucks, four pickups and five front-end loaders.

McMahon Concrete is a supplier, but if you need construction work done requiring concrete, the company has a list of local contractors for your consideration. Put your own ideas to work on items that can be made from concrete — McMahon can make it from your own design.

Pre-cast concrete items are in the faster growing department at McMahon Concrete. Contractors of industrial buildings as well as homes are using more pre-cast concrete for quicker construction. The durability of concrete has been proven through the years and it is now proving its versatility as well.

Roof sections is one of the latest additions to the pre-casting department. McMahon's has been making pre-cast wall panels for some time. These wall panels from McMahon were used in construction of the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, 306 W. 3rd. The fence at the rehab center is also from McMahon and is pre-cast sections two inches thick and six feet in length. This particular fence is made with exposed aggregate; however, if you do not wish to have a rough surface from exposed rock, you may have a smooth concrete surface. With the fence made in sections, two men can quickly enclose a yard.

McMahon also has patio furniture and patio blocks that have long been popular items. Remember that if you need concrete the next time you build or remodel, for all your needs call McMahon Concrete.

Dogs, Cats Kept Healthy And Happy At Pet-A-Zoo

Everyone loves a dog, and a lot of people like cats. However, when you have to be away for more than a day or two and you need someone to care for that beloved animal, remember the Pet-A-Zoo Pet Center on the San Angelo Highway.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Blount offer more than nine years experience in animal care, and they will see that your dog or cat get the best of attention while you are away.

The Pet Motel at the Pet-A-Zoo features 50 individual kennels for dogs of all sizes. Each are kept clean and inside, and each has a foam rubber mattress for canine comfort.

There are 12 runs for boarding cats, and they receive the same attention as the dogs. All animals boarded at the Pet Motel receive the best attention and feeding. They are always under the close eye in case of illness or disease. A veterinarian is always nearby when needed.

Grooming is another feature of the Pet-A-Zoo where dogs can be expertly clipped and trimmed for comfort and beauty.

Also at the Pet-A-Zoo the Blounts have a complete line of pet supplies and food. If your pet needs a new toy or leash, you can find it at the Pet-A-Zoo.

The Blounts have just remodeled the pet store section of Pet-A-Zoo and have restocked the pet shop with a wide selection of items.

Tropical fish varieties are in the hundreds, and they have tanks and other supplies for fish lovers.

The Blounts, who had a large zoo until it was closed in May, also manufacture dog crates in the space formerly occupied by the zoo.

Hundreds of crates of all sizes are made each week economically and shipped to points all over the United States.

After the large animals of the zoo were moved, Blount kept several barnyard animals for children to see and feed.

Blount reminds Big Springers that although the zoo is closed, he is very much in business with his boarding kennels, pet shop and crate manufacturing plant.

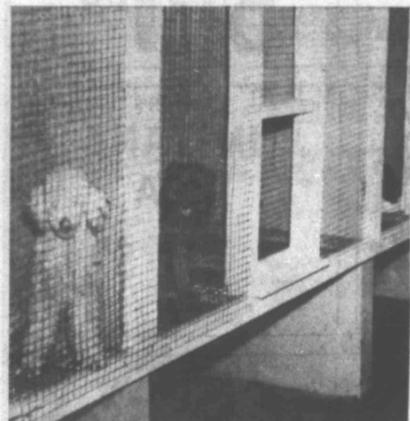

All the facilities at the Pet-A-Zoo may be inspected any time for cleanliness and care of the animals, Blount said.

So, when you have to be away a few days and need a place to keep your dog or cat, or if you need anything in pet supplies, remember the Pet-A-Zoo, and call 263-6991.

IT READS: 'TO MOSCOW'

Only One Czech Road Sign Seen Now

PRAGUE (AP) — Road signs all over Czechoslovakia have been removed, painted over or turned around. Now they read "To Moscow."

Such signs have appeared on almost every road leading to the east. To make sure that the Soviet occupiers understand them, the Czechs and Slovaks have written them in the Cyrillic alphabet used in Russia.

On the route through southern Bohemia from West Germany to Prague, other signs read, "Ivan go home," in Russian, Czechoslovak and English.

NO HELP WANTED
Passing through the small villages of Bohemia, one sees walls and shop windows covered with anti-Soviet signs, many of them in Russian.

"We don't want your help," said one. "This is our country," said another. There were endless variations on the main theme "Moscow is that way, please get going."

New signs also warn travelers of Soviet checkpoints or roadblocks. Entering Prague on one road, travelers encountered such signs as, "Soviet roadblock, 1500 meters ahead" and "Watch out for Ivan, 500 meters from here."

Another phase of the sign campaign aims at confusing the occupiers and hindering their activities.

WRONG WAY
In many villages and in Prague, street signs and house numbers have been removed. Signposts have been splashed with buff paint. Others have been pointed in wrong directions.

As a result, the Soviets are finding it hard to get around. Russian truckdrivers losing their way in a town can never get more than a shrug from Czechoslovak pedestrians they ask for directions.

"Even our children have suddenly forgotten all the Russian vocabulary they learned in school," one native said.

In the first two days of the occupation, Soviet tanks were surrounded by youngsters trying to convince the Russians to leave.

This stopped after reports spread of hidden cameras filming the youngsters for Soviet propaganda newsreels showing the "cordial welcome" by the Prague population.

The rule is now to look the other way as soon as a Russian is spotted.

HemisFair Crowds, Pass Biggest Test

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — It was the San Antonio World Fair's biggest test.

And the turnstiles turned. And turned. And turned.

By the end of the day Sunday, 100,486 persons had passed through the gates and 18,000 had been up on the Tower of the Americas.

Both were HemisFair attendance records which in turn set these other marks:

—Largest seven-day attendance with a total of 361,667.

—Largest two-day weekend for the tower with a total of 34,877.

The previous high attendance mark was 82,219 set on Saturday, May 18, Armed Forces Day. The previous Sunday record of 82,649 was easily broken early in the afternoon.

Temperatures ranged between 85 and 92 during the afternoon.

Attends Meeting Of Hump Pilots

Jack Guiley returned Sunday from Crockett where he took part in the annual meeting of the Hump Pilots Association, an organization composed of men who flew the Himalayas during World War II.

Guiley was with the 20th Bombardment Group at Kallakunda, India, one of the groups which ferried all of the supplies which sustained allied air forces inside China while the famed Burma road was cut. Besides flying over what is the highest and acknowledged to be the roughest country in the world with capacity loads, the pilots did this with instruments which were almost primitive by modern standards. Still, they kept the 14th Air Force going.

More than 100 former pilots were at the meeting, said Guiley, a number of them with their families.

Antique Auto Club Elects

The newly-elected director of the Big Spring Antique Auto Club is Richard Cook of Webb AFB and owner of a 1928 Hupmobile. He has been a member of the club since its inception two years ago and remains active in all of its functions.

Serving with Cook are Jerry Turney, assistant director; Rogell Crawford, secretary and John Anderson, editor and parliamentarian.

Fred Coleman, Tom Kessler, Sam Frazier, J. T. Boney, James Banks and Tom Fimpf were elected to the board of directors at the same meeting.

The club meets at various locations throughout the city on the third Sunday of each month. The last meeting was held at the City Park pavilion.

For the September meeting, San Angelo, Midland, Lubbock, and Abilene will join host Big Spring at the Webb AFB Pavilion. These cities are members of the Antique Auto Clubs of America in this region.

At the Tri-Region Grand Ole Tour held in San Angelo recently, several local members were in attendance, although the only regional winner was Troy Roberts who received a trophy in Class II with his newly-restored 1915 Cadillac touring car.

Representatives from Big Spring were J. T. Boney, the E. W. Brewers, John Anderson, Fred Coleman and James Banks.

Anyone interested in learning more about the auto club should contact any officer of the organization.

Rash Of Burglaries, Thefts Investigated

Thefts and vandalism kept police busy over the weekend in Big Spring.

A canvas money bag containing $106.50 in change was taken from a shelf beneath the check-out counter at the Kwikie Store on Wason Road Sunday morning. Carol Little, employe on duty, said the money was taken between 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. The bag contained eight rolls of quarters, three rolls of dimes, $5 in nickels and $3.50 in pennies.

Russ Travis Mauldin, 3213 Cornell, reported Sunday that a .25 caliber automatic Beretta pistol was taken from a shelf in the kitchen of Master's Drive-In, FM 700. He said the pistol was taken between 11 p.m. Saturday night and 10 a.m. Sunday morning.

Mrs. Bonnie Coates, 1510 W. 2nd, reported to police that the house had been entered while the family was out of town. The back door had been forced and a west front window screen had been removed and the window raised, she said. Some hand tools had been taken from the house.

A hydraulic truck jack, two 10-14 foot tow chains, two 18-inch booms and two lug wrenches had been taken from a pickup parked on the east side of the house. Neighbors provided names of two youths seen in the vicinity of the house while the family was gone. The loss was valued at $150.

Police were called to the Pastime Lounge, 2417 U.S. 80 west, Sunday night. Four plate glass windows had been broken out of the front of the building and the jukebox and furniture had been overturned. A cigarette machine and a bowling machine had been damaged and overturned and a record player was missing. Police are investigating.

Part Of Area Is Bit Soggy

A part of the northwest quarter of Howard County is soggy today as result of heavy rains which soaked it on Saturday night.

Henry Parmenter, who farms just south of the Andrews highway about 10 miles west, gauged 3.1 inches and the Wilkinson ranch southwest of Parmenter had 2.5 inches.

At Knott, better than an inch was measured. The rain was heavy enough to cancel out the final events in the Knott Saddle Club Fun Day. Two inch rains fell west of Knott.

At the Wilkinson ranch, the rains were accompanied by strong winds but no damage resulted.

Apparently the downpour did not go much beyond IS 20 to the south.

Showers were the best that the Lomax Community could report.

Two Autos Batter Giant Exit Signs

Two big exit signs on IS 20 took a battering in two separate accidents east of here today.

One of the mishaps hospitalized two Mitchell County residents. The other caused heavy damage to a 1966 model Houston group for a trip to El Paso.

Highway patrol officers said the first accident at 7 a.m. today was 10.5 miles east of Coahoma in Mitchell County. It sent Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steinman to the Malone and Hogan Hospital. Their condition is said to be satisfactory. Patrol officers said that the car failed to navigate an exit route and crashed into the big warning sign. The car was badly damaged.

The second occurred around 11 a.m. Monday, 2.2 miles east of Big Spring at the Midway road exit.

Mrs. Loraine Drew Brett, 29 of Houston, with a car full of friends, was going west. She attempted to turn off the road into a service station. The car, which Mrs. Brett had just bought and with which she was not too familiar, skidded on gravel and wound up rammed into the big pole. No one was hurt.

Names of the other passengers were not available.

Mrs. Brett was conferring with insurance people at noon on getting her badly battered vehicle repaired while she went on to El Paso by other transportation.

Jury Trials Are Erased

No jury trials will be heard in 118th District Court this week.

Only two cases were slated for trial when Judge Ralph Caton sounded the criminal docket on Friday.

Over the weekend, one defendant decided to withdraw his jury plea and enter one of guilty.

In the other, the defense attorney told Judge Caton it would be impossible for him to be in Big Spring to try the case. It was passed for the term and the jury panel which had been notified to report was advised to forget their court appointment.

At noon Monday, the court was hearing a plea of guilty by Roy L. Goewick, who had been the first defendant slated for trial today. He is indicted for robbery by assault in the theft of a camper from two tourists. His co-defendant, Ronnie G. Fisk had announced Friday his intention to plead guilty.

A number of other guilty pleas are pending. They are scheduled for disposition this week.

Tom Sneed, a Midland attorney, who represented Richard Roland Green, charged with burglary, was the lawyer who asked for a continuance in that case.

WRECKS, PLANE CRASH, SHOOTINGS

Violent Deaths In Texas

By The Associated Press

Motor vehicle accidents led the grim parade of violence in Texas over the weekend killing 24 of 41 persons.

Besides those killed in traffic accidents—including a three-death car-train crash in Fort Worth—four persons drowned and five persons were shot to death.

A plane crash, a dragstrip accident, a fire and a fall into the path of a freight train completed the death list.

The tabulation by the Associated Press began at 6 p.m. Friday and continued until midnight Sunday.

COWTOWN CRASH

Killed in the car-train crash at Fort Worth were Giles Gilman, 63; Earl Johnson, 43, and Mrs.

Mary Tannehill, 20, all of addresses on the city's southside. Four persons were injured including the husband of Mrs. Tannehill, their two tiny children, and Gilman's widow, Cora, 34.

Elton Warren, 20, drowned Saturday in Lake Travis when he fell from a floating log about five miles from Pale Face Park. His body was recovered Saturday night.

Two soldiers from White Sands Missile Range, N.M., were killed Saturday when their car smashed into a second vehicle on El Paso's War Road 11. They were identified as Pfc. Mark Thompson, 21, and his passenger, Spec. 5 Jemmie King, 23.

Mrs. Catherine Beresford, 74, of Mart was killed Sunday when she lost control of her car, struck a culvert and crashed into a roadside ditch. The accident occurred on Texas 6 about two miles north of Marlin.

John Ben Sheek, 28, of El Paso died Saturday in the flames that destroyed his home. A justice of the peace pronounced him dead at the scene.

PONY KILLED

Antonio Salazar, 13, riding his pony near his Bexar County home Saturday was killed when the horse became frightened and was struck by a passing car. The animal was also killed.

John Wilson, 29, of Richardson was killed Saturday night when his dragster caught fire and crashed through a fence at the Green Valley Raceway in Smithfield. Wilson was competing in the American Hot Rod Association World Championship drag races.

MIDLAND MISHAP

Ronald L. Templin, 23, was killed Saturday when his car went out of control and he was thrown from the careening vehicle on a farm road four miles south of Brownwood.

John W. Harrison, 50, of Dallas was run over and killed by a freight train in Dallas Saturday. Officers said he fell from a car on a loading dock.

A drive shaft flew off a tractor-trailer truck and hurled through the windshield of an automobile killing Sylvia Meyer, 49, of Midland. The accident occurred on US 180 48 miles west of Weatherford.

Cliff Boyles, 19, of Sinton was killed late Friday night in the crash of a small crop dusting plane just west of the Sinton airport.

SWEETWATER TRAGEDY

At Sweetwater, two men were killed Saturday night when they were run over by a Texas & Pacific freight train as they sat on the tracks. The men were identified as Ernest Schuler, 69, and Robert Shields, 45.

Linda Longoria, 3-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Longoria, was killed Sunday when the car driven by her father rolled over five times. The accident occurred in a rainstorm on US 80 five miles west of Odessa.

Jane Russell On Honeymoon

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Jane Russell and actor Roger Barrett, who met while starring in a play together last June in Niles, Mich., were married Sunday. The dark-haired, buxom actress wore a bright red print jacket-dress and Barrett was dressed in white.

They left for a honeymoon at an undisclosed location.

Miss Russell ended her 25-year marriage to former football star Bob Waterfield on July 30. Barrett and Miss Russell are both 47.

Pope Calls Trip 'Happy Journey'

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (AP) — "He is as sound as a good watch," said Pope Paul's doctor after the pontiff returned from Colombia and the longest trip of his reign.

Dr. Mario Fontana said the 70-year-old pontiff had endured his grueling public appearances at Bogota's 8,660-foot altitude very well. But the Pope appeared tired after his white and silver jetliner landed Sunday at Rome's Fiumicino Airport.

"Our days in Bogota were really beautiful and intense, filled with fervor, with crowds of people cheering not at our person but rather at the Eucharist," the Pope told the crowd that welcomed him at his summer palace.

"We have seen throngs of good and fervent people, excited by our presence, acclaim the Lord, acclaim the Church, trusting that they too will be helped and assisted."

He described his sixth foreign trip as a "happy journey" and added that "the world has become the scope of the apostolic travels of the Pope, but Rome remains our home."

RESPECT

In Bogota, he said, "the Church reiterated its social message of respect for the human person, of uplifting of freedom, of progress, of peace in the midst of the representatives of manual labor, offering to the world an impressive picture of that which the union of sound and generous forces, in the love of Christ and in free and constructive activity, is capable of accomplishing even in the most practical respects."

CHEERS POOR

In three major speeches in Bogota, the Pope urged improvement in the lot of the poor but said reforms should be achieved through peaceful means, not by violence. His stand was welcomed by Latin America's ruling conservative oligarchies and disappointed many liberals.

The Pope stressed that the Church has no competence in temporal affairs and lacks the means or authority "to make a practical intervention in the question" of reform. But the masses who turned out to see the Pope apparently were encouraged by his presence and his pledge that the Church supports their struggle for a better life.

HE KNOWS THE WOES

DEARBORN, Mich. (AP) — Kenneth Borugian decided to fight City Hall when City Hall decided to build a 10-story apartment house for elderly persons opposite his home.

Borugian, supported by several neighbors, contended the city was in violation of zoning ordinances in starting work on the building. He claimed there was not enough clearance for the structure.

He erected hand-painted signs on his front lawn. One stated: "Hubbard's dream, our nightmare." Hubbard is Dearborn Mayor Orville L. Hubbard who denies the city is wrong in the matter.

This past weekend Borugian learned that City Hall fights back. He was told the signs on his lawn violated zoning ordinances and was ordered to remove the signs by Wednesday.

"Sure I'm going to take them down," Borugian said. "I will comply with the ordinance. But it's a big joke when the mayor will violate the ordinance and enforcement agencies will support him."

LBJ Takes Pals On Speedy Ride

LAKE LYNDON B. JOHNSON, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson took unidentified friends for a ride in his speedboat on this central Texas lake Sunday afternoon and entertained in the evening at his lake house.

Following the presidential speed boat was his cabin cruiser with Mrs. Johnson, their daughter Luci Nugent and more friends.

Wearing a black beret, the President also took his grandson Lyn for a speedboat ride, at speeds up to 50 miles per hour.

While the President and Mrs. Johnson dined with friends late Sunday night, the speedboat and cruiser were docked at his Haywood Ranch on the Llano River branch of the lake.

Bus Stop Blues

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y. (AP) — A tourist from West Germany attempted to obtain a bus ticket Sunday and instead brought wailing sirens and a contingent from the fire department.

Firemen said Volker Gigling of West Germany told them his country has automatic ticket dispensing machines at bus stops and he thought a fire alarm box was a similar device.

AFTER YEARS OF OIL RESEARCH Firm Testing Drill To Ease Headaches

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — The headache of many an oil man has been a hard layer of rock just on top of what he hopes is an oil or gas pool.

The hard rock chews up bits rapidly—maybe in just a few feet of drilling. That means pulling perhaps several thousand feet of drill stem out, putting on a new bit costing several hundred dollars, and going back into the hole. If there are very many of those expensive trips a small driller can go broke.

For years companies and drillers have sought ways of reducing that cost.

Now Pan American Petroleum Corp. has produced what it terms a revolutionary new liquid percussion drilling. The percussion drill, actuated by mud, is the result of eight years of laboratory research and field tests.

It is now being used, after more than 30 field tests, in southern Oklahoma drilling.

The technique involves a mud-actuated motor placed in a conventional drill string to give hammer-like blows directly to the rotating bit. This, the company says, increases the penetration rate from 1.5 to five times that of conventional drilling, depending on the hardness of the formation.

George Roberts Jr., vice president of research for Pan American, says that in addition to the speeded drilling rate, the life of a bit can be expected to be increased 1.5 to three times by the new drill.

Percussion occurs more than 2,000 times per minute. By comparison, a jack hammer used in breaking up pavement strikes at the rate of about 700 times per minute.

The percussion drill is designed to reduce the shock-load and eliminates vibration in the drill string which, in turn, will reduce failure and maintenance in rig components and drill pipe.

The new drill can also be used effectively with less weight than usual, thus reducing the number of drill collars required and the time and cost of running the pipe in and out of the hole to change bits.

UNPLANNED ROMP HIGHLIGHTS PROTEST DEMONSTRATIONS

Nearly 1,000 Yippies, Hippies Play Tag With Police

CHICAGO (AP) — Nearly 1,000 yippies, hippies and assorted purveyors of protest played traffic-snaring street tag with police over a four-mile section of Chicago's most famous streets Sunday night, climaxing a day of varied protest demonstrations.

Despite a short barrage of rocks aimed at police in Lincoln Park after midnight, there were very few arrests—at least eight—for the number of people involved—at one point about 2,000.

Activity began on a serious note in the early afternoon when several youth and antiwar groups peacefully picketed the major hotels of Democratic National Convention delegates.

Many of the demonstration marshals who kept picket lines under tight and orderly control earlier in the day decided there was no point in confronting the police Sunday night, and started walking among the couples and groups huddled in blankets on the grass or warm themselves over trash basket fires, urging everyone to leave.

County Farm Hands Needed

Farm activity is picking up with the oncoming harvesting season and there is a critical shortage of general farm hands, according to Leon Kinney, Texas Employment Commission manager here.

There also is a severe need for head ginners, assistant ginners, pressmen and yard men at several cotton gins. Salaries range from $1.50 to $2 per hour. There are two openings on feed lot operations which include blending feed and feeding cattle.

Flame Damages

A metal storage building located on Cecilia Street was reported on fire at 3:31 a.m. this morning by the Webb AFB south entrance guard house. Two units from fire stations 5 and 6 brought the blaze under control. The inside of the building was burned out, according to H. V. Crocker, fire chief. Firemen were on the scene 45 minutes.

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — President Johnson, hero of the 1964 Democratic National Convention, sat out the opening hours of the 1968 version at his Texas ranch today—giving no hint whether he'd show up in Chicago.

Because Johnson will be 60 on Tuesday, there has been considerable speculation he might fly to Chicago for the occasion.

We assume the German government will be discussing with its allies the various points mentioned in the chancellor's interview. We agree that the strength and unity of NATO are essential to our common security."

A Devotional For The Day

The Lord . . . hath sent me to . . . give unto them beauty for ashes. (Isaiah 61:1, 3)

PRAYER: Dear God, help us to show forth our praise and thankfulness to Thee by helping others to see good and beauty in the commonplace things of life. By so doing, help us to increase beauty in the lives of all mankind. Amen.

Good Place Not To Be

A good place not to be during the Labor Day weekend is on the highway. Col. Wilson E. (Pat) Speir, acting director of the Texas Department of Public Safety, says that DPS estimates that 46 persons may die in traffic mishaps on Texas roads during the long weekend.

All of us know that there is no need for such a high toll, but all of us know that thousands upon thousands of motorists will be hurrying to take advantage of the last holiday of the summer.

Various groups such as the Texas Motor Transportation Association and its council of safety supervisors, the Jaycees and others are joining forces to aid the department in holding down mishaps.

Drivers, however, can provide the biggest help of all by being careful and following several simple rules.

One is to start soon enough on your journey so that you won't have to drive at excessive speeds or take chances to make up or save time.

Another is to drive defensively — to be aware of driving conditions ahead and maintain safe spacing, keep an eye out for traffic entering from side roads and streets, use the rear view mirror and generally expect the worst of the other drivers.

If you grow weary, then stop and rest (the Jaycees are providing numerous places for coffee and relaxation). And above all, don't be fool enough to think you can mix even a little bit of alcohol and driving.

Africa's Military Era

One after another the newly independent nations of black Africa (as distinguished from South Africa and the Arab North) have fallen, through coups, under military regimes.

In Nigeria, the largest, after two 1966 military coups, a central regime under a military ruler is moving to suppress secessionist Biafra, also headed by an army officer. And in the latest African military coup, a radical leftist military regime has taken over in the Republic of Congo — Brazzaville, the small former French colony not to be confused with the huge Congo republic that was formerly a Belgian colony.

These current and recent events seem to strengthen the likelihood that the now numerous new republics in Africa's midcontinent may repeat the evolutionary political experience of Latin America. From the independence era early in the 19th century until after World War II, Latin American republics were continually undergoing military coups and lapsing into military dictatorships, a maturing process even now not finally ended.

Civilian government, of whatever degree of democracy, faces staggering handicaps in mid-Africa. The peoples are fractured by active tribalism of ancient origin. The new nations are undeveloped socially, economically, politically and culturally. The worst legacy of African colonialism was lack of preparation for self-rule.

Perhaps in such situations, where the army has the only organized power to govern effectively, there can be no viable alternative to a period of successive military coups and dictatorships. It may only be hoped that they will be more benevolent than tyrannical and that the African "military era" will be of much shorter duration than the similar one in Latin America has been.

David Lawrence Moscow May Have Overstepped

WASHINGTON — The shots in Prague are being "heard round the world." They not only have provoked disapproval of Soviet imperialism by the hitherto faithful followers of communism in many parts of Europe and Latin America, but may have produced inside the Soviet Union itself an uneasy feeling.

Soviet communism heretofore has been supported by relatively little dissent by the communist parties in other lands. Today, however, the French and Italian Communists and many of the Communists inside the Eastern bloc in Europe are outspoken in their disagreement with the course taken by the men in the Kremlin who imposed military discipline to suppress the leaders of Czechoslovakia when they ventured to disagree with Moscow on communist philosophy.

THIS COULD BE the beginning of a revolution within communist circles everywhere, including the Soviet Union. The greatest danger to the Soviet regime lies in its own armies. It was the Russian troops and sailors who overthrew the Czar and gave communism its opportunity to seize power. Certainly inside the communist armies in the Soviet Union as well as in the satellite countries there are many individuals who believe in some of the same reforms that the Czech communists advocated.

WHEN THE Moscow regime adds up the possible advantages and compares them with the obvious disadvantages of the policy just undertaken to overthrow an established government in Czechoslovakia and substitute a puppet regime, it will be found that the risks far outweigh any benefits for communism. For not merely the people of Czechoslovakia but of every one of the Eastern-Bloc countries are unhappy about what has happened. This means that the Soviet government will not only have to maintain a large army in Czechoslovakia, but may have to prepare to meet similar disturbances in other countries of Eastern Europe.

CERTAINLY THE effect of the Soviet aggression in Czechoslovakia will cause American negotiators in Paris to have second thoughts about what recognition of the communist "National Liberation Front" could mean for the South Vietnamese in the event that a "coalition government" in Saigon is accepted as the price of peace.

There are evidences that the attempt to make the Vietnam war a political issue inside the Democratic party has backfired, because within the past few days the American people have learned that any compromise in Vietnam with communist imperialism is risky. The invasion of Czechoslovakia has vindicated the American position in looking upon Soviet communism as a menace to freedom.

ANOTHER SIGNIFICANT development is the reversal of the position of Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader, who until the Czechoslovakian tragedy had favored the return of a substantial number of American troops from Europe. He now says that a question may arise in other countries in Europe about their own safety and that U. S. troop withdrawal "should be held in abeyance because of the circumstances which confront us at this time."

WHEN THE Soviets themselves begin to appraise the whole situation, they will perhaps perceive that they have made a mistake both internally and externally. They might conceivably discover in the not-far-distant future that there are many persons inside the Soviet Union, too, who may seek to obtain the very reforms which the Czech leaders tried in vain to achieve.

Billy Graham

In your opinion, isn't it better to get Bible instruction from my church instead of studying on my own?

T.M.

No amount of Bible teaching and preaching can take the place of your own personal contact with the Bible. It is helpful to get thoughts from others, but the vital power of the Christian life comes through your own contact with the Word of God. It is said of the church of Berea in the book of Acts: "These were more noble than those of Thessalonica for they searched the Scriptures daily to see if these things were so." You should test the truth of every teacher and every preacher by your own contact with and study of the Bible. Then what you have will be from God.

At the same time, do not minimize the importance of your pastor. Thank God for him and support him with your prayers. You need his help and he needs your support in prayers.

Meet The People

HONOLULU (AP) — Raymond X. Aki has plunged into the tourism field with a new enterprise aimed at placing visitors in private homes instead of hotels.

Aki said Hawaii Home Visitor, which he expects to start, will cater to couples over 40 years old.

The promotion, whose theme is "See Hawaii Through Its People," will offer a 14-day package tour of four islands — Oahu (Honolulu), Maui, Kauai and Hawaii.

"The regular tourists now staying in hotels don't get the chance to really know our local residents," Aki said, adding that home and apartment owners will get $6 to $14 a day for opening their homes.

More Troubles With Those Bills

NEW YORK (AP) — Complaints from consumers that they are misled on their credit accounts at retail stores are common today, and not only are the errors disturbing but sometimes they are even dangerous to a person's credit rating.

In some instances efforts by customers to resolve errors are fruitless. A customer letter may go unanswered except for still another automatic dunning notice, slightly more intense and irritating than the earlier one.

DOCUMENTATION for what some customers may have suspected is now provided by the Better Business Bureau here. In "A Report to Business" it finds a sharp increase in the number of billing error complaints filed with it.

During the first quarter of 1968, said BBB after analyzing 42,000 complaints, "incorrect billing or crediting of accounts comprised 6 per cent of the total compared with 4.8 per cent in the previous report," released three months earlier.

THIS, IT continued, "constitutes a 22 per cent increase in the percentage of complaints about incorrect billing or crediting of accounts." A spokesman added: "We've noticed a startling increase for a year or 1½ years now."

The figures cited are for the New York area and are not necessarily representative of the nation.

In an effort to explain the problem, the controller of a large department store agreed to give his explanation of the confusion but asked that he not be identified.

"NOW MANY stores are shifting over to one line descriptions of items. They're handling their billing with machines. And unless you change over with care you can have problems. We had good luck, thank God."

"But why do letters sometimes go unanswered?" the controller was asked.

"The tremendous volume precludes follow-up on every inquiry," he answered. "If you had to follow-up everyone of them you'd be paying for it in aren't supervised properly. In margin," explaining that it would cut so deeply into profits that prices might have to be raised.

Most department stores, he explained, have a big turnover in help. The level of worker performance is poor until training is completed. And then some aren't supervised properly. In addition, computers sometimes are poorly programmed.

Mailbag Bulletins

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

No one likes U.S. teenagers more than smart businessmen. The 25 million kids in this age bracket spend at least $18 billion a year for food, clothing and fads and fancies. By 1970 their purchasing power is expected to rise to $30 billion.

FEELING TIRED? Have a glass of milk. It will give you enough energy to walk a mile, dance an hour, or play cards for 3½ hours.

Some safety experts believe police should try to halt fleeing criminal suspects with roadblocks instead of hot pursuit in patrol cars. They say that 500 lives, including many innocent victims, are lost annually as a result of police car chases, three out of four of which involve culpable guilty of only minor offenses.

When it comes to keeping their teeth, boozers are losers. A study found that alcoholics have only a slightly higher than average rate of dental decay but lost three times as many teeth as non-alcoholics the same age.

"Old Faithful," the famous geyser in Yellowstone National Park, has had its temperature taken recently. It ranges from 199.4 to 284 degrees.

Home sewing has become a favorite hobby with American women. Last year 40 million U.S. lassies and ladies spent $1.5 billion to $2 billion or more on patterns, fabrics and sewing equipment. They made 300 million garments—compared to 900 million factory-produced.

Wheel of fortune: At the start of their careers many show business greats earned the bread to keep their dreams alive by driving taxicabs here. Among the ex-cabbies are Herschel Bernardi, Walter Matthau and Dean Martin.

To Your Good Health Letting Dishes Stay In Sink All Night?

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
Dear Dr. Molner: Will you comment on the hazards of letting dishes sit in the sink, sometimes in water, overnight? I have a garbage disposal and I think the scraps of food, etc., should be flushed away immediately, but my mother lets the garbage stand until the disposal unit is almost full.

Shouldn't one keep the kitchen sink as clean as possible and not let dishes soak in the food washed off into the water?

We have an automatic dishwasher, but mother doesn't put the dishes in it right away. I am afraid of the germs that can survive in the drain. — M.G.

I'm with you — but not as worried about the germs in the drain as the germs that don't reach the drain.

Dishes should at least be rinsed promptly to rid them of food particles. If allowed to stand, these particles may dry and not come off completely when washed. Bacterial action — multiplication of any sort of germ — can occur in rather short order. There isn't any room for doubt that diarrhea as well as milder intestinal upsets can result from carelessness about washing dishes as well as not rinsing them carefully. (The automatic washers, of course, are designed to do an excellent job of rinsing.)

There are a couple of other matters involved in leaving the garbage in the disposal unit. A full unit can smell — and it's such a simple thing to flick the switch. Another is that a unit, piled too full, has more tendency to become jammed.

It's a funny thing, isn't it? So much thought has gone into making labor-saving devices, but there seems no way to get people to use them to best advantage.

I'm surprised that your mother doesn't realize that her method is sloppy and unsanitary. I hope she reads this.

Dear Dr. Molner: What causes mononucleosis, and is it true that it has to run its course? With all the miraculous drugs being used today, there must be something to shorten the sickness. How long would you say the disease lasts? — Mr. A.R.

Infectious mononucleosis is one of the very common virus diseases. The duration is unpredictable, but in time — a few weeks, sometimes longer — it does indeed run its course.

Why be so insistent that there "must be something" to cure it? We still have no cure for the common cold and other viral diseases.

Good nutrition, good nursing, and ample rest are important in helping the patient recover, but there is no specific treatment, except to ease such symptoms as may occur — swollen glands, etc. If you want a fuller rundown on mono, send for my booklet, "Mononucleosis: What It Is; What to Do." Send 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope to Dr. Molner, care of the Big Spring Herald, for a copy.

What causes "balance" trouble? What can be done to correct or overcome it? Dr. Molner's new booklet, "Dizzy Spells," discusses loss of balance, vertigo and nausea, Meniere's disease and labyrinthitis. For a copy of the booklet write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald enclosing 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Around The Rim

'Not Like It Used To Be'

A generation or so hence, the kids of today will, no doubt, look fondly back on the '60's and recall their favorite television programs, with the consensus:

"They just don't make them like they used to."

To many of us murringly into old age, the TV programs of today — especially the ones featuring the long-haired musicians and the frozen-faced people who pass for comedians — can't be likened to the golden era of radio. That occurred immediately prior to and perhaps during World War II.

VISUAL EDUCATION is a wonderful thing but one didn't have to look at a 21-inch screen to appreciate the likes of Fibber McGee and Moly, the Voice of Firestone, 20,000 Years in Sing Sing and Will Rogers.

Fact is, it was easier to visualize the beauty of the setting in the picture of one's mind than it is in this enlightened age, when nothing is left to the imagination.

Even Walter Winchell and the hckum he sold commanded a large and faithful audience on Sunday evening. His program was usually presented prior to the Eddie Cantor Show and Ed Wynn, The Perfect Fool.

IN THOSE dear, dead days, radio had something to offer every night of the week.

If you've made a few laps, you should remember programs like Jack Armstrong, the All-American Boy; Lum and Abner, the Grand Ole Opry (pre-World War II vintage), the Sinclair Minstrels, Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, One Man's Family and, perhaps, the best all-around show of them all, Fred Allen and Allen's Alley.

FAMOUS JURY Trials and Easy Aces were programs that had their followings. The Lux Theater was our idea of great and telling drama, mainly because it projected some of the most celebrated actors of the time in guest roles.

Ben Bernie, who had a phony and funny feud going with Winchell, was worth listening to, mainly because people wanted to hear what he had to say about the Broadway Bugle.

Bing Crosby, who had fought a successful battle with Demon Rum, was 'ol' in those days as were Jack Benny and Burns and Allen. Joe ("Wanna Buy a Duck") Penner was boffo in the ratings, too, as was Baron Munchausen.

GANG BUSTERS thrilled the listeners of the '30's, because people wanted to believe that burgeoning crime wasn't going to get any bigger. The Hit Parade drew a big audience, probably because the public could distinguish one song from another in those days.

Boake Carter and Gabriel Heatter were newsmen who commanded attention but the best one of them all was Elmer Davis.

The dry but newsy way Bill Corum analyzed a World Series game was something to be remembered. Clem McCarthy could "call" a great horse race better than anyone who has since come along.

THEY SAY that television hastened the retirement of Bill Stern as a football play-by-play man, mainly because he was so inaccurate but he and Ted Husing built up great followings 30 years ago with their exciting voices.

Somewhere, sometime since then, the public entertainment media has let us down. Or perhaps we ourselves have changed more than we will admit.

Holmes Alexander Democratic Party Found Wanting

WASHINGTON — All is not lost, but all will be lost, unless we overthrow the Democratic party.

I know this to be a polemic statement, but I claim it to be logically arrived at. It is a result of observing the Democrats work out their consensus at the platform committee hearings.

Better by far if the language of polemics and the attitudes of absolutism could be avoided. Moderation in the statement of opinions, it's wonderful. But one cannot put his hand to the rope of an alarm bell and be feeble with the tug. It is too late for soto voce after the blaze has burst.

THE DEMOCRATIC consensus, expressed by the dominant party voices, is one that would literally read the United States out of existence. The American electorate, if it concurred with the major positions of its majority party, would be voting to adjourn the meeting of the people that commenced so long ago, to hang the gavel on further activities as a nation to switch off the lights and to quit the assembly where we have practiced our self-government.

FIRST, there is the irrepressible defeatism among policymaking Democrats, and it says that we must give way to the march of communism. Withdrawal from Vietnam, however disguised, is the confession that foreign policy, once called "the shield of the republic," can no longer protect American interests. This defeatism, variously expressed, is the consolidated opinion of Democrats in support of Senators McCarthy, McGovern and the late Robert Kennedy. It is also the semi-suppressed opinion of Democrats who tag along for organizational reasons with Hubert Humphrey and Lyndon Johnson. Nowhere among Democrats is there any appreciable will to finish what we've undertaken in Southeast Asia, and no nation should entrust its life expectancy to such a party.

The Battered Baby Abuse Of Children In U.S. Spirals

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY
Associated Press Writer

CHICAGO (AP) — The states have moved fast in recent years to curb abuse of children — but they still have far to go.

Even though all 50 states have legislation against child abuse, more than 9,000 such cases were reported last year.

"There still is a long way to go before child protection becomes a reality in all geographic areas of every state," says Vincent De Francis, director of the children's division of the American Humane Association.

"THERE PROBABLY is an even longer road to travel in terms of establishing in every community a protective service program adequate in size and quality to meet the needs of our country's neglected, abused and exploited children," he added.

"The neglect and abuse of children appears to be increasing," a special committee of the New York County Medical Society reported recently.

Illinois also saw signs of an increase. In April, 58 cases of abuse were reported, the highest ever recorded in one month.

Child abuse ranges from such active harm as a blow with fist or stick to such passive torture as prolonged diaper rash or starvation.

THE AMERICAN Humane Association made an analysis of 682 cases, including 178 in which the child died, that were reported in newspapers in 1962. It found the persons responsible were the fathers in 35 per cent of the cases, the mothers in 29 per cent,

THEN, THERE is the Democratic consensus for a collectivist utopia at home, and it perfectly matches the ruling opinion among Democrats on foreign affairs. If there should be a Democratic President next year, he would attempt what spokesmen like Senator Muskie and ex-braintrustee Roger Hillsman have expressed to the platform committee: a statist economy which would be a shining light to the world, but a world in which resistance to Communist conquest had ceased by our withdrawal.

WHAT FURTHER need for war? Deprivation and discrimination, ignorance and malnutrition, inequality and exploitation, would have been programmed into oblivion within our borders, while the borders of all former allies and protectorates would lie open to the familiar Communist march. Nothing is nearer than the Democratic party package. Not splendid isolationism, as it once was called. No, preceptorial isolation would be the word for it. We'd show the world. We'd be an example. We'd sin no more. We'd just be sinned against, as is always the case with men and nations that do not choose to strive and fight.

THESE ARE THINGS that the Republicans ought to be saying, but already there are signs that the GOP is gun-shy about accusations of extremism. Richard Nixon has not said that he will shoot the works, if need be, to get our way in Vietnam. Spiro Agnew is under pressure to explain what needs no explanation about his strong position against civil disorder. We may be coming to an election where the press and public opinion must speak louder than the opposition party cares or dares to do.

There is an imperative to be polemic in discussing the total failure of the Democratic party. Unlimited denunciation is called for.

both parents in five per cent, step-fathers in 14 per cent, stepmothers in two per cent. Blame also has been placed on babysitters, foster parents, teachers and others.

Donald H. Schlosser of the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services said common excuses for bruises and broken bones are: "He fell down the stairs," or, "He toppled out of his high chair." Another frequent explanation is that the parent or caretaker started to spank the child to discipline him, and overdid it.

PUNISHMENT varies for those who deliberately hurt children. Since 1939 Florida has had a law forbidding "torturing or unlawfully punishing" youngsters under the age of 16. Violation was a misdemeanor until 1965, when it was upgraded to a felony punishable by $2,000 fine or two years in prison.

In neighboring Georgia a similar 1924 enactment provides a maximum penalty of a year in prison and a $1,000 fine. But few parents or guardians are imprisoned because one aim is trying to keep a family together.

An Ohio law put on the books in 1924 carries a range of offenses and provides a spread in punishment from 30 days in jail to death in the electric chair.

"THE LAW is adequate," commented John Scanlon, director of research for Georgia's Department of Family and Children Services. "We need to educate people about the law."

'THEY JUST RAN OVER US'

Packers Do It Again

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Take it from the Dallas Cowboys, rugged Green Bay has lost none of the thunder that made the Packers world champions.

"They're the same old Green Bay," said All-pro cornerback Cornell Green after Dallas had dropped a 31-27 exhibition loss to the Packers Saturday night in the Cotton Bowl. "I thought we were ready."

Guard John Niland said "They did nothing different. They just beat us. I really thought we were ready."

Ironically, the Cowboys lost by four points—21-17—at Green Bay in the NFL title game last December. The game in the Cotton Bowl was played in 14 degrees warmer than the 13 below readings at Green Bay.

"Green Bay was alert and capitalized on their chances just like a good team will," said Dallas coach Tom Landry. "We didn't play well at all."

Word was getting around the NFL that the Packers weren't as tough this year under new coach Phil Bengston, particularly after New York and Chicago beat them.

Packers guard Jerry Kramer explained it this way: "We haven't been playing well and we thought it was time we got started. We ended the season with Dallas and we wanted to begin it with them."

Bengston said "This was by far our best game. We got some great breaks. We had a special incentive since we had lost our two previous games."

He said "0 and 3 wouldn't look very good."

Quarterback Bart Starr was exceptionally sharp in the quarter he played, connecting on six of eight passes for 115 yards and one touchdown.

Starr showed his mettle in the first quarter only moments after he had been swarmed for a big loss by the Dallas defense. The Cowboys were penalized for running into punter Donny Anderson. Starr immediately called for a bomb to Carroll Dale. It caught the Dallas defense napping and went for 52 yards to the Dallas 16. Starr

A Pass To Pay Dirt

A pass thrown by Cowboys' Don Meredith barely floats beyond the grasp of Bob Jeter (21), Green Bay, and into the arms of Lance Rentzel (19), Dallas, who then made a touchdown. This action took place late in the second quarter of the Green Bay-Dallas exhibition football game in Dallas Saturday night.

worked the ball in from there with Jim Grabowski plunging over from the one. Dallas was in the hole from the start and never recovered. Starr was his usual modest self saying only "We came in here hoping to do a better job."

Zeke Bratowski showed up well for the Packers as Starr's backup man, scoring once himself from three yards out. Travis Williams raced 75 yards for another TD and Anderson bulled across from one-yard out for another score.

The only bright spot for the Cowboys before a sellout crowd of 72,914 and a national television audience was the work of quarterback Craig Morton in the second half. He hit Pete Gent with a 28-yard touchdown shot and nailed rookie Dennis Homan with a 10 yard TD pass.

Starting quarterback Don Meredith passed for an 11-yard touchdown to Rentzel in the first half.

"Craig threw the ball well and Gent and Homan made some good catches there at the end, but that's about all," said Landry who locked the dressing room doors 10 minutes before allowing reporters inside.

"I've been on the sidelines many times and have seen teams that aren't alert get beat," Landry said. "I saw it out there tonight. We weren't alert and that was that."

Gen. Mgr. Vince Lombardi, who turned over the coaching to Bengston this year, was all smiles.

"It was a far superior game on our part than the last two games and needless to say, we needed to put together a good game," said Lombardi.

All-pro defensive tackle Bob Lilly summed it up for the Cowboys: "They just ran over us. I have no excuse. We'll come back though. You can count on that."

Mustangs Opening Drills In Secret

By The Associated Press Southern Methodist University, an expected second division finisher in the Southwest Conference, opens fall football conditioning drills today along with a scattered list of other Texas colleges and universities.

Schoolboy Grid Drills Begin

By The Associated Press The big boys of Texas schoolboy football — the Class AAAA schools — begin conditioning drills today.

Under National Collegiate Athletic Association rules, SMU must work out in shorts three days before donning pads for full scale two-a-day drills.

They won't be able to join the Class AAA-AAA and B schools in pads until Friday.

Coach Hayden Fry said the Mustangs will work behind locked gates. Canvas has been draped over fences surrounding the practice fields to create a cloak-and-dagger atmosphere.

Rhea Williams, athletic director of the Texas Interscholastic League, said 1,007 teams will be playing schoolboy football this year—the largest ever.

"We'll be trying some new formations," Fry said, explaining the secrecy.

"It will be the first time in the history of the 50 states that so many high school football teams will be fielded," said Williams, who becomes director of the TIL on Sept. 1.

The Mustangs will have a squad of 86 players, including 19 lettermen. SMU will drill at 9 a.m. and 4:30 a.m.

There were 995 teams in action last year from the Gulf of Mexico to the Texas Panhandle.

Rice opens workouts Thursday and the other six SWC teams begin work Friday. Rice and SMU get earlier starts because their classes start earlier.

Austin Reagan is the defending champion in class AAAA and Brownwood is the AAA defending champ. The defending AA king Plano has moved up to the AAA ranks.

Coach Bill Yeoman will greet 71 players at the University of Houston. The Cougars have an early opener, meeting the Tulane Green Wave in the Astro-dome Sept. 14.

Tidehaven is the defending A champion.

Twenty lettermen return, including rugged Paul Gipson, a second team AP All-America choice at fullback last season.

AFL Sports A Bulging 10-5 Edge Over NFL

By The Associated Press The Pittsburgh Steelers are not expected to win the National Football League title this season, but they do lead the league in embarrassment.

On the other hand, the Cincinnati Bengals, a last place choice as the American League's newest team, top their league in surprises. Both teams climbed to the front Sunday when the Bengals shocked the Steelers 19-3 in an exhibition game at Morgantown, W. Va., for their first victory after three losses.

Cincinnati's triumph gave the AFL a stunning 10-5 bulge over the chagrined NFL in inter-league exhibitions, and with only eight such contests remaining, the NFL would have to win seven to come out on top.

The only other contest Sunday matched two NFL clubs and St. Louis scored a safety and a touchdown in the final quarter to beat the New York Giants 18-10 at New Haven, Conn.

Cincinnati gave the AFL a sweep of its two weekend inter-league games as San Diego embarrassed the Los Angeles Rams 35-13 Saturday night.

In other games Saturday, Green Bay held off Dallas 31-27, Minnesota bombed Philadelphia 52-10, Chicago clobbered Washington 45-13 and New Orleans outscored Cleveland 40-27 in the NFL, and Kansas City downed Oakland 31-21 in the AFL.

Pittsburgh is supposed to lose some games, but Cincinnati is not expected to win very many. Adding insult to injury, the Bengals allowed the Steelers past midfield only once on their own power, and rookie quarterback Dewey Warren set up three touchdowns with his passing.

The combination gave Paul Brown his first victory since returning to coaching after an illustrious career leading Cleveland.

Warren completed 12 of 21 passes for 288 yards in outpassing veteran Kent Nix, who hit only five of 20 for 64 yards.

The Steelers, playing without both its regular wide receivers and both regular running backs because of injuries, scored only on Bill Shockley's 33-yard field goal in the first half.

The Cardinals, managing only three field goals by Jim Bakken for three quarters, were losing 10-9 when a high pass from center went over punter Ernie Koy's head in the end zone for a safety and an 11-10 lead.

Minutes later, quarterback Charley Johnson, on leave from the Army and taking over from Jim Hart in the second half, boot-legged nine yards for a touchdown. Roy Shivers set up the score by returning the free kick after the safety 35 yards.

John Hadl sparked San Diego with early touchdown tosses of 45 yards to Jacques MacKinnon and 68 yards to Lance Alworth, and Dennis Pardee added three field goals to drop the Rams.

Clint Jones scored two touchdowns and set up another and a field goal with his running for Minnesota. Dick Gordon caught three touchdown passes, two from Jack Concannon, in Chicago's romp.

New Orleans pulled away on Bill Kilmer's two scoring passes and Charlie Durkee's four field goals, and Kansas City, 4-0, relied on Len Dawson's two touchdown passes.

Toros Strong But Trouble Looming

By The Associated Press It's apparent that San Antonio will be strong again this year in defending its Texas Football League championship, but trouble looms from a couple of newcomers — Beaumont and Odessa.

The Toros whipped Fort Worth 24-6 Saturday night to get the campaign under way.

In other games, Beaumont edged Dallas 24-24, Texarkana downed Tulsa 12-0, and Odessa thrashed El Paso 32-0.

Stuart McBirnie's 65-yard touchdown pass to Roger Gill in the third period sparked San Antonio. A 90-yard kickoff return by J. V. Stokes provided the clincher for the Toros.

Beaumont, which replaced Pasadena in the league, nicked Dallas on the passing of Charles Green.

Texarkana broke open a tight defensive duel on touchdown passes of 6 and 11 yards from Deacon Lewis to Bryan Levin-sky.

Odessa stayed mostly on the ground to defeat El Paso with Dick Keller and Leo Lowry bolting for two touchdowns each. El Paso replaced the Sherman-Denison franchise in the league this year.

The Toros, unbeaten in 1967, are now in a first place tie with Odessa in the Western Division followed by losers Fort Worth and El Paso.

Texarkana and Beaumont are tied for first place in the Eastern Division followed by Dallas and Tulsa.

In games this Saturday night, Texarkana is at Beaumont, Dallas is at Tulsa, San Antonio is at Odessa, and El Paso is at Fort Worth.

All-Stars Wallop Angelo Lions Twice, 13-2, 14-1

The Big Spring All-Stars ripped the San Angelo Lions 13-2 and 14-1 Sunday in San Angelo behind the pitching of Joe Cadenhead and Jim Fierro.

Cadenhead, hurling the opening tilt of the twin bill, allowed the Lions only six hits as Jess Zapata wrapped three hits to drive in five runs.

The All-Stars collected one run in the first frame and came back with two in the second, five in the third, four in the fifth, and added one in the sixth.

Tony Martinez hit two safeties for two runs batted in while Billy Weatherall drove two runs across on one hit.

The lone San Angelo marks in the 13-2 game came in the fifth frame. Big Spring marked 13 hits.

In the second contest Fierro gave up six San Angelo hits in the 14-1 victory while Big Spring blasted 15 safeties. Zapata blasted three hits at four times at bat, and Billy Pineda drove across five runs on two hits, including a home run.

Big Spring tallied three runs in the first, two in the fourth and fifth frames, three in the sixth and four in the seventh.

The only Lion score was in the fifth.

Next week the All-Stars enter tournament play at Midland to battle eight to 10 teams.

Bolder Kathy Wins Series

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Kathy Whitworth wasn't pleased with her golf game after nine holes of the second and final rounds of the Ladies' World Series of Golf.

"I was upset the way I played. I was pushing the ball and didn't have the concentration I needed."

"Maybe I was playing too cautiously so I decided to go for the stick more boldly. Things started happening and the putts started falling."

That's the way the 28-year-old Texan sized up her $10,000 victory in the $35,000 World Series Sunday.

Trailing tall Carol Mann by one shot after 27 holes in the 36-hole event, Miss Whitworth fired her second straight 69 for a four-stroke triumph over Miss Mann, the leading money winner on the LPGA tour.

Errors Allow Cards Victory

By The Associated Press
It might be human to err, but it doesn't pay to overdo it when you're playing the St. Louis Cardinals.

Pittsburgh pitching limited National League-leading St. Louis to just four hits Sunday, but the Pirates committed four errors and the Cardinals used them for a 4-2 victory.

The Pirates pounded out eight hits, but the St. Louis defense was flawless in support of Nelson Briles, 17-8, and Joe Hoerner, who relieved and put down a Pittsburgh threat in the eighth inning.

In other National League games, the Chicago Cubs blanked Houston 2-0, Los Angeles edged San Francisco 5-4, Philadelphia topped Atlanta 4-1, and the New York Mets pounded Cincinnati 7-1.

The Cardinals scored in the second inning. Orlando Cepeda walked, stole second, moved to third on a groundout and scored when shortstop Fred Patek fielded Mike Shannon's grounder and made a poor throw to first.

St. Louis added a run in the fourth when Shannon reached on third baseman Maury Wills' throwing error and scored when Julian Javier's single got past right fielder Gary Kolb for an error.

Colavito Pitches Yanks To 6-5 Win

By The Associated Press

Rocky Colavito's long-term shutout is still intact but the Detroit Tigers' first place momentum isn't quite the same.

Colavito made his first pitching appearance in 10 years Sunday and earned his victory with 2 2/3 innings of shutout relief as New York clipped Detroit 6-5 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Then the Rock returned to the outfield for the second game and cracked his 372nd career homer, helping the Yankees to a 5-4 victory and a sweep of the four-game series against the American League leading Tigers.

The four losses shaved Detroit's lead to five games over Baltimore. The Orioles nipped Boston 3-2 in 18 innings Sunday.

In other American League games, Minnesota walloped Chicago 10-2, California dropped Oakland 5-1 and Washington outlasted Cleveland 10-9.

Colavito pitched three scoreless innings against Detroit a decade ago when he was with Cleveland and Sunday's performance extended the blank string to 5 2/3 innings.

lead against Steve Barber Sunday, Manager Ralph Houk, thinking about three doubleheaders in three days, accepted the offer.

Colavito retired Al Kaline and Willie Horton, stranding two runners in the fourth inning and then shut out the Tigers in the fifth and sixth. With two out in the bottom of the sixth, the Yanks rallied.

Horton lost Andy Kosco's fly ball in the sun and it fell for a double. Tom Tresh walked and Bill Robinson, who had four hits in the doubleheader, smashed a three-run homer. Bobby Cox followed with a solo shot, tying the score.

A walk to Colavito and singles by Horace Clarke and Jake Gibbs gave New York the lead and Houk used regular pitchers Dooley Womack and Lindy McDaniel to preserve Colavito's victory.

Clark Received Gambling Tip?

NEW YORK (AP) — Life magazine, in a postscript to an earlier story, says Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark was informed nearly a year ago that Rep. Cornelius Gallagher's home town of Bayonne, N.J., was once a "wide-open gambling town controlled by an unidentified federal law enforcement agency, which in turn was informed by a member of the Bayonne Police Department in 1961."

Life had charged in its Aug. 9 issue that Gallagher, a Democrat, "has served as a tool and collaborator of a Cosa Nostra gang lord" identified in the article as Joseph Zicarelli.

Gallagher, 47, first elected to Congress in 1958, has denied Life's story.

Having A Hippie Yippie Time

A large group of hippies and yippies whoop it up early today before being chased from Chicago's Lincoln Park. The protestors are in town to demonstrate during the Democratic National Convention.

Texas Demos Still Loyal To Connally

CHICAGO (AP) — Texas' 104 votes in the National Democratic Convention remain pledged to Gov. John Connally as a favorite son candidate, with no present plans to renominate President Johnson.

"My present plan is to hold the Texas delegation pledged to me until I change my mind," Connally told a press briefing Sunday night after the first closed-door caucus of the 122 delegates.

MAY CHANGE
The Texas group caucuses again today to hear the latest in confusing convention developments before the opening session tonight.

"I may change my mind after the first or the second or the third ballot," Connally said Sunday night, "but it will be only after talking it over with the delegation."

The June 11 state convention instructed the delegation to support Connally as a favorite son until he personally releases them. There had been considerable weekend speculation that Connally might drop the favorite son role and nominate Johnson.

"It is no secret that members of the Texas delegation are proud of President Johnson and would prefer to go for him instead of the present major candidates but there is no reason to believe there has been any change in his position that he is not a candidate," Connally said. "I do not think under any circumstances the Texas delegation would nominate the president. We are not here to promote a draft of any kind."

NO STRINGS
"But I don't rule out any possibility in a political convention," Connally said.

Connally, who has been considered an unannounced supporter of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey over Sens. Eugene J. McCarthy or George S. McGovern, said, "The Texas delegation plans to place my name in nomination as a favorite son, with no strings attached."

He said it had not been decided who would make the nomination speech.

Connally's comments came shortly after a rebel Texas delegation, contending it has legal claim to 50 of the votes, announced a revived effort to spark a floor fight on Texas credentials. Mrs. David Carr, Houston, said a minority report disputing the Credentials Committee recommendation that Connally's delegation be recognized would be filed by Monday afternoon.

"We have been given every encouragement, every indication of support from all three major presidential candidates — Mr. Humphrey, Mr. McCarthy and Mr. McGovern," Mrs. Carr said. "Staff members of all three candidates have been in touch with us, and our number includes supporters of all three candidates."

FLOOR FIGHT
Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., returned to Chicago to lead the credentials floor fight. "I think we got a raw decision out of the Credentials Committee," he said.

"I think the decision of the Rules Committee was unwarranted and unfair," Connally said. He promised a floor fight against suspension of the unit rule whereby all votes are cast as the majority of a delegation decide. Texas is among the dozen states planning a floor fight on that report.

Connally said the Texans had not considered a walkout over the unit rule. "If we lose, we will abide by it."

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Weather Bureau reported Sunday there would be no summary from its Athens station for a while.

The radar had been struck by lightning and was being repaired.

Lightning Strikes Governor's Child

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. (AP) — Becky Godwin, 13-year-old daughter of Virginia's governor, remained unconscious today as doctors assessed the full extent of injuries caused when she was struck by lightning on the beach Sunday afternoon.

The slight, brown-haired girl was in "poor" condition at Virginia Beach General Hospital, though doctors early today reported "some encouraging responses to intensive treatment in the last few hours."

Her father, Gov. Mills E. Godwin Jr., arrived at the hospital Sunday night from Chicago, where Virginia's Democratic National Convention delegation had planned to nominate him as a favorite-son candidate for president.

He was visibly shaken. The governor had been in Chicago only six hours when the accident occurred about 3:30 p.m. First reports informed him his daughter was dead. Then the report was: "extremely critical." He left Chicago immediately.

Becky, the Godwin's adopted only child, had been vacationing with her mother at the governor's seaside cottage on the state military reservation here. Her mother, Katherine, was recuperating from a serious abdominal operation she underwent last week.

An aide at the governor's office in Richmond said Becky had been playing in the surf under the watchful eye of Grady Norfleet, a friend of the Godwins, when storm clouds began to pile up offshore.

The aide said Norfleet and the girl left the water and were standing in sunshine on the beach when a lightning bolt struck, either hitting Becky directly or striking the beach nearby.

Both she and Norfleet were knocked unconscious. Two National Guardsmen nearby saw the bolt strike and ran to their aid. They kept her breathing with artificial respiration until an ambulance arrived.

Norfleet regained consciousness shortly afterward, but was admitted to the hospital for observation. He was not believed seriously injured.

Electric Auto Race Under Way

The MIT students, driving a converted Chevrolet Corvair, will travel west while a converted Volkswagen microbus driven by students from California Institute of Technology moves eastward.

The winner will be determined on an elapsed time basis. Both cars will use the same route and battery recharging stations have been set up at frequent intervals.

Concert Tonight At First Baptist

A combined orchestra and choir, composed of top college musical talent, will be presented at 8 p.m. today at the First Baptist Church.

The Continental Singers and Orchestra come here from an appearance at HemisFair at San Antonio.

There is no charge for the concert, although an offering will be received. The group is interdenominational, and Glenn Falson, music director at the host church, said that everyone is invited to hear the program. Many of the arrangements are by Ralph Carmichael, who has done the arrangements for most of the Billy Graham films and who is widely known as popular arranger for choirs.

There will be 20 pieces in the orchestra, and a like number will be in the choir. The program includes anthems, hymns, specially arranged gospel songs and many other features which have won wide favor in the Continental Singers and Orchestra national tour. Falson said several out of town inquiries had been received about the appearance here.

Lamesa Lands Projects Due To Increase Cash

LAMESA — Two projects considerably exceeding half a million dollars were announced here during the weekend. One is an 80-bed convalescent home costing a quarter million dollars; the other is a feed-livestock and poultry production facility estimated to cost $380,000.

McDonnell Nursing Homes, Inc., of Abilene and Lamesa Major, Inc., both properties of R. O. McDonnell, announced plans for the convalescent home to be located directly south of the Medical Arts Hospital entrance.

McDonnell acquired a 1.67-acre tract for the project which will be in a four-wing half-cart wheel design and cover 18,000 square feet. Completion is due by Jan. 1, 1969.

It will be under the supervision of Lamesa Manor, a nursing home, whose director, Mrs. Jessie Vickery, will serve as coordinator for both projects. The new facility will employ about 50 persons. Lamesa Manor, which has had a waiting list since opening the summer of 1966, has 48 beds and 110,000 square feet. It employs approximately 30 persons and is located about six blocks from the new facility.

McDonnell operates six nursing homes and has substantial interest in 10 others. Operation includes Archer City, Knox City, Haskell, Anson, Abilene, Clyde, Coleman, Santa Anna, Jourdanton and Pleasanton in addition to Lamesa.

Boyd Hilley, partner in McDonald Egg Farms, announced as president of Hi-Plains Enterprises, Inc., plans for a cattle, swine and poultry production
