HUBERT GAINS More Polls Show Nixon Still Leads

NEW YORK (AP) — Two voter surveys sponsored by Republicans and a newspaper straw poll all show GOP presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon leading Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in New York State.

The surveys differ, however, on the apparent trend in the contest for the states 43 electoral votes.

One survey taken by the Republican State Campaign Committee indicates Nixon will carry the state "by a plurality of upwards of 375,000 votes," with 47 per cent of the vote to Humphrey's 42 per cent.

But a poll taken by Cambridge Opinion Studies, sponsored by Republican auspices independent of the Nixon campaign, finds Humphrey gaining rapidly within the last two weeks to within two percentage points of Nixon.

The New York Daily News straw poll, in results published today, also shows Humphrey gaining on Nixon with the latter's lead cut to two percentage points.

United Fund Report

Contributions from employe, big gifts and area gifts divisions today brought the United Fund Drive total in Big Spring to $65,568.55, and showed the campaign up to 61.7 per cent of the $109,225 goal.

City employe giving was not complete today, but amounted to $5,227 per capita from all departments. County employes contributed $1.90 per capita.

The United Fund office reported that area gifts, with Alton Marwitz chairman, has made 102 per cent of its goal, and big gifts, headed by Jimmy Taylor, is 70 per cent complete.

The largest division employes, with Don Wolback as chairman, is 36 per cent complete, but several large companies have not reported in yet.

Division chairmen met Wednesday at noon at Cosden Country Club and laid plans for the future and reviewed the drive to date. Chairmen encouraged workers to complete all their cards in each division as quickly as possible and turn them in to the office.

"If everyone works his cards and turns them in we can exceed the goal this year," Clyde McMahon Jr., United Fund Drive chairman, said.

20 PER DAY

Absentees Vote

Absentee voting for the Nov. 5 general election has attracted 150 persons to the county clerk's office since absentee balloting began Oct. 16 for an average of 20 persons per day.

The county clerk, Pauline Pettit, also has mailed out 423 absentee ballots to voters who will not be in the county election day.

'A Wasted Vote'

STATESBORO, Ga. (AP) — A Wallace vote is a wasted vote, Sen. Strom Thurmond said Wednesday night as he wound up a two-day Georgia tour designed to woo supporters of third-party presidential candidate George C. Wallace to Republican Richard M. Nixon.

Addressing a crowd estimated at 2,000, Thurmond said votes for Wallace would help put Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey in the White House.

Wallace has no chance of winning nationally, but he could draw enough votes to throw the presidential election into the U.S. House of Representatives, where Humphrey would have the best chance of being chosen president, the South Carolina Republican said.

Terminal Burned

TEL AVIV (AP) — Fire swept the four-story central terminal building at Israel's international airport today, causing damage assessed at well over $1 million, but there were no casualties.

International jets landed and took off despite a thick black smoke that rose from the building. Officials ruled out sabotage.

WARMER

Partly cloudy and cooler tonight and fair and a little warmer Friday. High today near 70; low tonight upper 30's; high Friday low to mid 70's.

Booing at political rallies and the liquor-by-the-drink issue drew attention Wednesday from Texas' rival candidates for governor, Lt. Gov. Preston Smith and Paul Eggers.

Vice President Hubert Humphrey wound up two days of campaigning in the state at El Paso meanwhile with several congressmen pronouncing him a cinch to capture the 25 Texas electoral votes for president. Sen. Ralph Yarborough, one of the fellow Democrats traveling with Humphrey, asserted that "this state is on fire" behind the vice president.

HARD LICKS

At the same time Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., getting in some hard licks for GOP presidential nominee Richard Nixon, accused Humphrey of "muzzling Texans with words and distorting the truth."

Smith, speaking at Texarkana, made it plain he didn't appreciate some boos directed at him and other Democratic leaders Tuesday night when he appeared with Humphrey in Austin.

He observed that criticism is one of the penalties paid by a leader simply because of his position, adding, "There are persons who seek to destroy if they fail to excel or be equal." As for the hecklers at the Austin rally, Smith said:

"What do these people want? We've got the finest form of government ever known. I sometimes wonder if these demonstrators themselves know what they want."

TOOK ISSUE

Eggers, the Republican candidate for governor, took issue with Smith on the question of liquor sales by the drink as he campaigned in the Houston area.

He asserted the lieutenant governor is so confused on the issue that "apparently he can't decide where he stands, and I can't believe Texans want the type of non-leadership." The GOP nominee said he would propose to the legislature "that we have liquor by the drink decided on a local option basis."

Eggers also accused his opponent of being quite friendly with lobbyists while unable to get along with other Democratic leaders. He said, "We've got to break up this clubhouse approach to government. We can't afford to have political hangers-on and political hacks appointed to important state boards and commissions."

Mercury Dips Near Freezing

Texas temperatures dipped almost to the freezing point early today but other weather conditions prevented a killing frost.

The near-freezing temperatures were in the Panhandle and South Plains. Perryton reported 35 degrees with a light frost visible in a few areas. Dalhart reported 34 degrees, Plainview 36 and Amarillo 38.

HHH Favors End To Missile Race

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today he favors an end to the missile race between the United States and the Soviet Union and a supervised reduction in military expenditures throughout the world.

MAJOR ISSUE

Campaigning in a state where peace is a major issue, the Democratic presidential candidate also said the war in Vietnam must be ended and called peace "the paramount concern of all our people."

His remarks were prepared for a meeting with a group of Southern California clergymen. "We cannot live forever in a world where our safety and security depend on a precarious balance of terror," Humphrey said.

Humphrey said he would seek an end to the U.S.-Soviet race in defense missile systems as well as in offensive missiles. "Each extra unneeded missile only brings us nearer the day when we will be unable to stop the plunge into nuclear war."

Humphrey, who trails Republican Richard M. Nixon in the polls in California, was given a boost as he started a two-day campaign tour of the state by

One Way In

This was the scene on the east side of Moses Hall on the University of California campus Wednesday night as a sandaled demonstrator pulled his way up a fire hose to a second story balcony after an estimated 150 persons barricaded themselves inside. Today several hundred police from all parts of the San Francisco Bay area broke down the barricades and started making arrests.

Nixon Rejects New Proposal For Debate

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Richard M. Nixon embarking on a 157-mile motorcade through eastern Pennsylvania, accused Hubert H. Humphrey today of peddling nonsense and pursuing "slap-happy economics."

The Republican presidential candidate was greeted in Allentown by bigger-than-usual street crowds and an overflow indoor audience at the city's fairgrounds.

REJECTED

Before flying to Pennsylvania from Michigan, Nixon rejected the latest proposal for a televised debate with Humphrey — this one offered by third-party presidential candidate George C. Wallace.

Press aide Ron Ziegler said of the Wallace suggestion, it "doesn't change a thing" and the debate question remains closed.

"I'm for Social Security. I'm for medicare. What I say is wrong is that those programs haven't been working effectively to help the people they're supposed to help."

For his second Pennsylvania stop at Pottsville, Nixon had another statement.

"The American worker doesn't need a lot of fancy talk and fancy promises," he said. "He needs price stability and economic security."

Before his overwhelmingly enthusiastic Allentown audience, Nixon ignored a chant from a small group in one corner of the big hall. They kept chanting "debate, debate, debate."

Wallace said he'd welcome an hour-long TV debate between the Republican and Democratic candidates, provided the networks "give me 30 minutes' time the next night."

He said he could "fix both of them" in a half hour.

In a statement issued in Allentown, Nixon accused his Democratic rival of peddling nonsense because, as he put it, "apparently he hopes to frighten some people into voting—not for him but against us."

More than once Humphrey has challenged Nixon's attitude toward Social Security and medicare, and the GOP candidate said, "Now let's nail this one and for all. My record is Ziegler, when asked about the

Teddy Pleads For Voters To Repudiate Wallace

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy invoked the names of his late brothers today in calling for repudiation of George C. Wallace's third party "for the health of our country and our future as a nation."

PLEA

He said he was addressing his plea to voters drawn toward the former Alabama governor after supporting President John F. Kennedy and Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, both of whom were assassinated.

"President Kennedy defended America against the extremists," the Massachusetts Democrat said. "George Wallace is in league with them."

"Robert Kennedy stood for reconciliation between the races," he continued. "George Wallace stands for division and suppression."

"My brothers believed in the

Police Free Seized Hall

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Massed police early today recaptured a University of California hall and arrested 76 protesting students who had held the building overnight.

It was the third day of sit-in demonstrations and arrests as militant students sought to force the 28,000-student university to give college credit for a lecture series by Black Panther leader Eldridge Cleaver.

THWARTED

Thwarted in an attempt to take over the administration building, Sproul Hall, where 121 were arrested Wednesday morning, the dissidents seized nearby Moses Hall Wednesday afternoon.

At dawn today some 500 officers from throughout the San Francisco Bay area cleared away barricades outside Moses Hall and quickly arrested the demonstrators inside.

Among the last removed was Peter Camejo, head of the Young Socialist Alliance and a longtime leader of campus unrest.

Moses Hall is the headquarters for the university's college of letters and sciences.

The college has control of the controversial course on racism which has sparked the disorders.

An estimated 150 students had barricaded themselves in Moses Hall but about half left during the night.

MASSED

The officers were massed from all over the Bay area under the Bay Area Mutual Aid

Pact to deal with riotous situations.

Forceful clearing of the building had been foreshadowed by a statement by University Chancellor Roger Heyns.

He said the student action "defies logic" and he would "take whatever measures are necessary" to end "wilful and flagrant disruption of the campus."

Trouble started after it was announced that 10 lectures would be given by Cleaver, who is charged with attempted murder during an exchange of gunfire between his militant Negro organization and Oakland police.

The board of regents voted that no academic credit should be given for a course in which a person without academic credentials lectures more than once. Cleaver has lectured three times so far.

Municipal Court Judge George Brunm fined 118 of the 121 arrested during the Sproul Hall sit-in. The other three pleaded innocent to the trespassing charges and will be tried later.

FINE
Brunm levied $125 fines and 30-day suspended jail sentences against each person who pleaded guilty.

Former Veep's Grandson Named Plane Hijacker

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — A charter pilot whose aircraft was forced to Cuba Wednesday identified the hijacker today as the grandson of former Vice President Alben Barkley.

"That's the man," said Charles Oliveros as he examined a photograph of Alben William Barkley Truitt, grandson of the late vice president.

Asked how he knew Truitt was Barkley's grandson, Oliveros said: "The FBI told me."

The pilot flew back to Key West today, landing here at 11:12 a. m. FBI and Immigration officials immediately took him in tow for questioning.

The pilot, Charles Oliveros, carried a case of Cuban rum and told newsmen waiting to meet the plane, "We've got to live it up a little."

A man chartered the plane for a picture-taking flight over the Dry Tortugas, then seized control of the craft, a Cessna 177. It landed at Jose Marti International Airport near Havana Wednesday afternoon.

At Miami, U.S. Atty. William Meadows said after a conference with FBI agents that no charges had been filed and he declined to comment on the hijacker's identity.

The FBI said only that the case was under "intensive investigation" and that there would be no other immediate comment.

Rocky Urged To Intervene

NEW YORK (AP) — A group of 22 New York City legislators appealed to Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller today to intervene in the school crisis as the striking teachers rejected a new peace proposal that would end the tieup of the $1.1-million public school system.

The lawmakers asked Rockefeller to call a special session of the legislature to "suspend the New York City Board of Education" and to "replace the board with a temporary commission that would work for a cooling-off period, and which would be empowered to reopen the schools."

Wallace Becomes A Target For Varied Thrown Objects

ROANOKE, Va. (AP) — George C. Wallace, bothered in recent days by objects thrown at him while speaking, goes to New York's Madison Square Garden tonight.

"I don't like to get thrown at, but I guess it's all part of the game," Wallace said after he was struck in the face by a coin Wednesday during a speech in Youngstown, Ohio.

APPLE CORE

The previous day, in Oshkosh, Wis., the presidential candidate was struck on the shoulder by an apple core.

"This is something new in this campaign," Wallace said. "But I've been thrown at before and I'm used to it. I'm certainly not afraid."

During the speech at Youngstown, the following objects sailed toward Wallace from the crowd, in addition to the coin—a penny—which hit him on the cheekbone without injury; A spool of electricians tape, a rock the size of a mothball and an egg which smashed about 20 feet behind him.

"That's it, throw something," Wallace yelled after he was hit. "You're quite a fellow, you are. I can take anything you anarchists can dish out, remember that."

After the Youngstown speech, Wallace flew to Virginia's Shenandoah Valley for a rally, one of the most successful of his campaign, at the Roanoke-Salem Civic Center.

The speech was to a standing-room-only crowd of 7,000 more, and amplifiers placed outside broadcast Wallace's message to the hundreds who could not get in.

Fifty or more students from nearby colleges staged a "silent protest" in one section of the audience, holding placards and Bibles aloft and waving small black and white flags.

The pro-Wallace audience seemed to work like a tonic on the speaker, and he was in top rhetorical form, bringing the crowd to its feet time after time with his pledges to return schools to local control, restore law and order in the cities and end the Vietnam war militarily.

PROPOSAL

Later, at a fund-raising dinner, Wallace proposed to drop out of a three-way debate between the presidential contenders. Wallace added the condition that he be given time on national television the following night to reply.

An aide to Richard M. Nixon said the offer did not change Nixon's position of refusing a debate that would provide a forum for Wallace.

In Youngstown, Wallace defended his record against what he said were false charges by the Democratic candidate, Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey.

Man Gets Heart Of A Secretary

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Surgeons at Methodist Hospital transferred the heart of a Philadelphia woman into the chest of a Philadelphia man in a three-hour operation today.

Attendants said the recipient, Emilio P. Capobianco, 42, was progressing satisfactorily.

The donor was Phyllis Ritt Shetz, 41, a secretary and mother of six children. She had suffered a stroke Oct. 22.

Capobianco had entered the hospital here Oct. 15 suffering from heart failure which was attributed to a coronary artery disease.

Dr. Michael E. DeBakey headed the team which completed the surgery at 4:55 a.m.

It was the 67th heart transplant in the world within less than a year. Thirty-four of the patients survive.

A Methodist Hospital spokesman supplied these details: Parkview Hospital in Philadelphia advised the specialists here early Wednesday that Mrs. Shetz was dying. An assistant administrator of Methodist Hospital, George Roundtree, and one of the surgeons on the DeBakey team flew to Philadelphia and examined her.

It was not until they arrived in Houston shortly after midnight and DeBakey made a further examination, however, that a final decision was made on the transplant operation.

A resuscitator was used to maintain the life of Mrs. Shetz artificially before and during the flight.

Surgeons had considered the possibility of a kidney transplant also, but Parkview official said permission had been given only for the heart surgery.

The donor had worked as a secretary for the Keebler Baking Co. Her husband, Howard Shetz Jr., is employed by the Taystee Baking Co. in Philadelphia.

Shetz told newsmen in Philadelphia Wednesday, "I know her heart was good and she has always been interested in this field of medicine. We decided someone else could use her heart."

Club Honors Larry Taylor

Larry Dale Taylor, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Taylor, was recognized Wednesday by the Hi-Noon Optimist Club as the club's nominee for "Young Texan" of the month.

Larry came here last year from Beaumont, where he had played football as a freshman and sophomore. Here he played for the Colts in the teen baseball league and currently is on the school golf team.

He is president of the Key Club and is a member of the state organization's nominating caucus. He is president of the senior Hi-Y Club and has been nominated as chairman of the pre-legislative group planning for the annual Youth-in-Government project in Austin late this year. He also is vice president of the senior class, is a student council representative, associate editor of the "Corral" high school paper; has an active interest in political affairs; and someday would like to be governor.

He has worked during the past three summers but still fancied almost all types of sports. He is active in the First Baptist Church where he is secretary of his Sunday school class and is a member of Training Union. He has his eyes on college and perhaps a major in political science.

A hearing for a writ of habeas corpus by Helen L. Lamar has been set for 10 a.m., Oct. 31, in 11th District Court.

Lamar, who was convicted for robbery about 14 months ago and sentenced to 25 years in prison, is seeking to have his conviction set aside, which would result in a new trial.

Wayne Burns, district attorney, said that Lamar, who has served about seven months of his sentence, alleges illegal search and improper identification in a police lineup as grounds for the conviction to be set aside.

The Howard County Juvenile Board is considering three men for the job of county juvenile officer to replace Bob Wakefield, who resigned in September.

The board met Wednesday afternoon and narrowed the number to three after studying applications from 10 persons. Decision of the applications will be made later, he said.

RENO, Nev. (AP) — The manager of the Mountain View Cemetery complained to county officials Wednesday that three boys disrupted a funeral by chasing their dog through the cemetery, yelling his name at the top of their lungs.

The dog's name, said Manager Wayne Reynolds, was Stan.

Visiting Republicans

Millard K. Neptune, left, Republican candidate for land commissioner, Mrs. Neptune, and E. G. Schuhart, candidate for agricultural commissioner, were in Big Spring today for a coffee at First Federal Savings and Loan Association. They are part of a statewide tour being conducted by Republican candidates for state offices.

2 GOP Candidates Spell Out Changes

By TEX ROGERS

Two Republican candidates for state offices, visiting in Big Spring today advocated making such changes, if they are elected, which would all but do away with some parts of the offices they are seeking.

Stopping here for a coffee with a score of local residents at First Federal Savings and Loan Association were Millard K. Neptune, candidate for state land commissioner, and E. G. Schuhart, candidate for agricultural commissioner.

Neptune, a Houston businessman, did not say he favored doing away with the office of state land commissioner, as he had been quoted in the past. However, he did call for a reorganization of the office which would move some of its duties into other state departments.

"If elected I would propose moving the office's bookkeeping to the state comptroller, and turning the land commissioner's records over to the archives division of the secretary of state," Neptune said.

He advocated setting up boards to oversee the various institutions which own state land.

"Actually, the land commissioner should be the real estate agent for the state," he said. "Right now the land office does not have a top-rated, qualified geologist working for it. I would see that the office employed a good geologist to help advise the commissioner on what to do with the 16 million acres of land the state owns."

"A good land commissioner could add millions of dollars to the state treasury," he said.

Schuhart, Dalhart farmer and rancher with experience in agriculture, said that the present agricultural commissioner has been lax in fulfilling all the duties of the office.

"The duties of the office call for handling regulatory aspects of agriculture, such as weights and measures, insecticides and pesticides," he said. "But it also includes aiding farmers in improving products and finding better ways to market their products."

The candidate noted that the current agriculture commissioner has done the job on the other two.

"Last year only $10,000 was spent in Texas on marketing research, and that was for a newsletter," he said. "The farmer's problem has been the inability to market his products at a profit. I would help find better ways." Schuhart also said that eventually the governor could appoint a seven-member agricultural board comprised of outstanding farmers and ranchers across the state. The board could then hire its own agricultural commissioner.

"This commissioner would be answerable to the board, and that would take a lot of politics out of the job," he said.

The duo and those traveling with them were hosted by Dr. Akin Simpson, Howard County Republican chairman, and Winston Wrinkle, chairman for Howard County Texans for Nixon.

Arab Unrest Spreads In Occupied Jordan

JERUSALEM (AP) — Troops and armored cars patrolled the twisting alleyways of East Jerusalem today as Arab unrest spread in occupied Jordan.

A 24-hour curfew was listed at Ramallah, where 500 chanting Arab schoolgirls were dispersed by police with water hoses Wednesday. The curfew of Al Bireh was also relaxed.

But the military clamped down on Nablus, one of the main cities in the West Bank and declared a curfew there. A number of persons were reported arrested.

Another curfew was declared in Jenin after a demonstration by 100 boy and girl students. It was the first time since the rash of demonstrations began almost a week ago that boys had joined. They usually stayed clear because Israeli troops tend to deal more gently with girls.

Most schools throughout the northern sector of the West Bank were open, but few pupils were believed in their classes.

The state radio reported Defense Minister Moshe Dayan met the mayors of Ramallah and El Bireh. There were no details on what was discussed.

Newsmen who tried to telephone Arab leaders in those towns were told by the Israeli post office that calls were not possible.

In Tel Aviv, military spokesmen reported four Arab saboteurs were killed and a fifth wounded Wednesday night when the guerrillas ran into an Israeli army patrol at Umm Sidra, in the Jordan Valley. No Israeli casualties were reported. The wounded Arab was taken prisoner, the army said.

Scandal Is Clouding Picture In Olympics

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A braud of scandal, a hint of under-the-counter payoffs around the world, threw another darkening cloud over the 19th Olympic Games today, while the United States continued to gather a golden cascade of medals. The Americans picked up six more gold medals Wednesday, including their first two in sports other than track and swimming, and the Russians began to make their move in gymnastics, in which 36 gold medals are awarded.

It's On To Dallas

Rick Dykes of 2513 Ann finished first in the eight-year-old class of Pant, Pass and Kick zone competition in Midland last week to earn a trip to Dallas Saturday. He displays his trophies here. The ovate spheroid he also holds is a very big part of the Dykes family life. Rick's father, Spike, is the head coach and athletic director at the local high school.

Hall Of Honor Rites Reset

The Hall of Honor ceremony at Memorial Stadium Friday night, in which the first four members of the shrine will be admitted, will be held at 7:35 p.m. rather than between halves, Don Lovelady of the Ex-Lettermen's Association said Wednesday.

The program will be held prior to the contest because so many activities had been scheduled for halftime. The Hall of Honor pays homage to athletes and coaches who have brought honor to the school in the past. Nominees are selected by a vote conducted among members of the Ex-Lettermen's Association, which now has a membership of about 200 and still growing.

East Texas Is Ranked 16th In Grid Poll

By The Associated Press

Unbeaten San Diego State increased its lead over North Dakota State today in The Associated Press' small college football poll.

San Diego State, bringing its record to 5-0 with a 34-14 victory over California State of Los Angeles last Saturday, was returned to the top spot with 284 points by the regional panel of 15 sports writers and broadcasters. San Diego State drew 10 first-place ballots and was not placed lower than fourth by any member of the panel. North Dakota State drew 195 points following a 14-8 triumph over North Dakota that lifted its record to 6-0.

San Diego State led North Dakota State by 54 points the previous week.

After the top two there was considerable juggling with Eastern Kentucky falling all the way from third to 11th after a 31-20 defeat by Akron. Texas A&I also dropped down, from fifth to 10th after losing to East Texas State 35-27.

Western Kentucky, which received two first-place votes, moved up one notch into third off a 13-0 shutout of Tennessee Tech. New Mexico Highlands climbed two spots to fourth with an 85-14 victory over Colorado Mines, and Chattanooga vaulted from ninth to fifth by beating East Tennessee 16-6.

Northern Michigan and Indiana, Pa., both broke into the top ten. Northern moving into seventh with a 47-0 victory over the Quantico Marines, and Indiana taking ninth following a 28-0 triumph over Valparaiso.

Weber State moved from seventh to sixth and Arkansas State, with one first-place vote, moved up two spots to eighth. Appalachian received the other two first-place votes.

The top 20, with first place picks on basis of 20-18-16-14-12-10-8-etc:

Douglass Is Hot

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP) — Dale Douglass won the pro-am competition preceding the Haig National Open Championship by firing a six-under-par 65 Wednesday for top money of $500.

Among many tennis-playing nations, fed up with hypocrisy of so-called amateur players, the designation "amateur" has been eliminated and players are simply called "players."

Thus a discus thrower would be a discus thrower and a 400-meter runner a runner, with no questions of where his money comes from.

The fading 1968 Olympics were stunned anew this week with wild rumors that athletes, including some medal winners, were in danger of being declared professionals because they accepted money from manufacturers.

Everett "Eppy" Barnes, acting executive director of the U.S. Olympic Committee, admitted that his committee has been investigating such reports, but in a formal statement Wednesday night said: "At this time we have nothing to substantiate the rumors with respect to athletes subject to our jurisdiction."

Toros, Mavericks In Contests Here

The ninth grade Toros and Goliad's high-octane eighth graders can both be seen in action on Blankenship Field here tonight.

The Toros, winless but developing to satisfaction, challenge Colorado City in a 7:30 p.m. engagement, after the Mavericks have met representatives from the same community at 6 p.m.

Goliad has lost only once this season, that a 14-8 decision to Big Spring Runnels in its first game of the year.

Goliad has since defeated Snyder Travis twice, 30-0 and 34-8; Andrews, 14-8; Sweetwater, 56-0; and Snyder Lamar in a real toughie, 8-6.

Coached by Jack Gray, the Mavericks have some splendid talent in boys like Alan Davis, Bob Priebe, Barry Truette, Rickie Steen, Mike Parker, Nathan Poss, Mike Tredaway and others.

They're capable of scoring from any point on the field and have averaged over 25 points a game.

The Toros have been very impressive at times but have yet to put it altogether.

The ninth grade Brahmas and the Runnels eighth graders go to Sweetwater for games. The Yearlings play at 6 p.m. and the Brahmas at 7:30 p.m.

After some frustrating starts, the Brahmas won for the first time last week, knocking off Snyder Lamar, 24-0.

Kirkland Has His Most Rewarding Grid Game

COMMERCE — Benny Kirkland got what he wanted and now East Texas State leads the Lone Star Conference.

The 179-pound senior from Big Spring completed 12 of 19 passes for 247 yards and had another 38 yards rushing for a total offense of 285 yards in ETSU's 35-27 win over Texas A&I here Saturday.

A&I, the pre-season favorite in the LSC, was ranked first in the NAIA and fifth in Associated Press small college polls before the game. The upset left both teams 4-1 for the season while the Lions moved on top of the LSC with 2-0.

Kirkland, who passed for two touchdowns and called the plays for 569 yards of total offense, said, "It was the most rewarding game I've ever played. I never wanted to win as bad as I did against A&I. I guess it was the best game I've ever played, and the best we've played as a team."

"I thought A&I was a better team than Texas at Arlington (which beat ETSU 41-30). A&I's offense scared me to death, and the A&I defense was more punishing than UTA's. We're all hurting at one place or another."

"Now we've got to play one game at a time. I think we can win the rest of the games, but Sul Ross is next and that's the one we've got to concentrate on this week."

Sul Ross, a homecoming host this week in Alpine, is 4-1 for the season and 1-1 for Lone Star Conference. Before losing to Stephen F. Austin last week, the Lobos were ranked fifth in the NAIA.

Lakers' Jerry West Hurt Again As Team Defeated

By The Associated Press

Hayes topped the Rockets with 24 points. So far it hadn't looked like the dawning of a new era for the Los Angeles Lakers, but it's the same old story for Jerry West.

The Lakers lost 117-110 to Detroit Wednesday night for their third defeat in four games — hardly an auspicious beginning for a team picked by many to win its first National Basketball Association title behind Elgin Baylor, West and newly acquired Wilt Chamberlain.

For West it was the injury he again. West scored 19 points in the first half but then sat out most of the second half with a groin injury.

In other NBA action, Boston handed Cincinnati its first defeat 108-101. Atlanta topped Chicago 106-91. New York nipped Milwaukee 114-112 and Seattle edged San Diego 118-117.

Louisville edged Indianapolis 112-108 in the only American Basketball Association game.

Detroit was leading by two points early in the fourth quarter when rookie Otto Moore scored two quick baskets that sparked a Pistons surge that gave them a 10-point lead and put the game out of reach.

Dave Bing led Detroit with 39 points. Baylor got 31 and Chamberlain 29 for Los Angeles.

The Celtics, in winning their third game in as many starts, built up a big lead and then fought off a Cincinnati rally to take over first place in the Eastern Division from the Royals, 3-1.

It's big. But it doesn't eat much. It gets about 23 miles on a gallon of regular gas. Takes oil by the pint. Not the quart. Needs no anti-freeze. (There's no radiator.) And since our Station Wagon is only 15" longer than our bug, it doesn't eat up much parking space either.

AS SCORES OF USIA PERSONNEL ARE BEING RECALLED

Lynda's Friend Lands Chile Job

WASHINGTON (AP) — Warrie Lynn Smith, a close friend of President Johnson's oldest daughter, is being sent to Chile as a U.S. Information Agency officer even as scores of USIA officers are being recalled from overseas.

Miss Smith, a frequent guest at the White House, was maid of honor when Lynda Bird Johnson married Marine Capt. Charles Robb last December. She and Mrs. Robb earlier had been roommates at the University of Texas.

Her appointment as a foreign service reserve officer came last February, less than a month after President Johnson ordered a reduction in government employment overseas in a move to reduce the U.S. balance of payments deficit.

Since then, a USIA spokesman said, the agency's 2,100-man officer corps has been reduced by 89. Sixty USIA officers have been transferred back to Washington from foreign posts, he said, and further cuts are planned.

In his January directive, the President also ordered all department and agency heads to "reduce official travel outside the United States to the minimum consistent with orderly conduct of the government's business."

SAME PAY
The USIA confirmed, in response to an inquiry, that Miss Smith was being assigned as assistant cultural affairs officer in Santiago, and disclosed she will visit four capitals en route to Chile.

She will leave Washington Nov. 4.

There are three categories of foreign service officers in the USIA:

1. Foreign Service Officer. He gets his appointment only after passing a rigorous competitive examination.
2. Foreign Service Staff Officer. He, too, must pass a foreign service entrance examination prior to appointment.
3. Foreign Service Reserve Officer. No competitive exam is required. The applicant fills out the necessary papers, goes before a panel of foreign service officers and takes a language aptitude test.

There have been only six appointments, including that of Miss Smith, in the third category since Jan. 1. The other five all had extensive experience and entered the service at grades paying up to $25,000 a year.

EXCEPTIONS
Reserve officers receive the same pay and allowances as foreign service officers.

In a government booklet entitled "The Foreign Service of the United States," reserve officers are described as "persons with highly specialized skills not readily available in the foreign service who serve for limited periods."

"With rare exceptions," it adds, "a candidate for a foreign service reserve appointment must have passed his 31st birthday."

Age 31 is mentioned in the booklet, an official said, because that is the cutoff age for eligibility to take the competitive examination required for regular foreign service officers.

SOCIAL DEMANDS
Miss Smith entered the Foreign Service Institute in suburban Arlington, Va., on Feb. 26 for Spanish language training. When she completed the 28-week course on Oct. 4, a spokesman said, she had attained an S-2 rating—meaning she can speak Spanish well enough "to satisfy routine social demands and limited office demands."

In preparation for her transfer to Santiago, Miss Smith is receiving additional training at the USIA and State Department here, but efforts to contact her for an interview were unsuccessful.

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today reported the lowest weekly American death toll in more than 14 months, hard fighting in the demilitarized zone in which at least 112 North Vietnamese were killed, and the loss of seven U.S. aircraft in South Vietnam in the past two days.

The total of South Vietnamese and enemy casualties also dropped last week, and the reductions resulted from the lull in ground action which has prevailed for three and a half weeks.

PLANES LOST
U.S. spokesmen said despite the fighting along the northern frontier and the aircraft losses, it was too early to say whether the lull was ending. They said the fighting in the DMZ was the result of allied operations, not the enemy's initiative.

The seven aircraft lost to enemy groundfire included a fighter-bomber, three light observation planes and three helicopters. Five men were killed and five were wounded.

Although there was still no word that Washington and Hanoi had agreed on a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam so as to advance the Paris peace talks, the South Vietnamese government appeared to be making a gesture toward getting the talks moving. It announced it would release 140 prisoners of war before the end of the month, the largest POW release of the war.

The total of 100 U.S. combat dead last week was the lowest since the week of Aug. 6-12, 1967, when 82 Americans were killed in action. And the total of 589 Americans who the U.S. Command said were wounded in combat last week was the lowest since the week of Dec. 24-30, 1967, when the total was 437.

South Vietnamese and enemy casualties last week also were the lowest reported in many months.

LOWEST
South Vietnamese headquarters reported 132 government troops killed, the smallest number since the week of Oct. 15-21, 1967. The U.S. Command said 1,243 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed last week, the lowest number since Sept. 24-30, 1967.

South Vietnamese infantrymen and U.S. Marine tanks moved into the demilitarized zone behind a strike by U.S. B-52 bombers Wednesday, blasting about 200 North Vietnamese troops from their bunkers and sent them fleeing after 2½ hours of fighting.

Denver Pensioner Not Impressed By New Title

By BURL OSBORNE
Associated Press Writer

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — Robert Hardinge, an 81-year-old pensioner who lives in one room in a Denver hotel, isn't much impressed by his elevation to the British nobility.

"I don't care about the title. I want to live a little longer," said Hardinge. "I don't think there's any money involved. On World War I and Social Security pensions totaling $143 a month, he said, he isn't planning any trip to Great Britain to find out. A baronet ranks below a baron but above a knight in Britain. DeBrett's, the publication that keeps track of such things, said Hardinge inherited the baronetcy upon the death Sunday of Sir Charles Edmund Hardinge, 89, of London.

The title means that Hardinge now is correctly addressed as Sir Robert Hardinge.

Hardinge said he understood there once was a 320-acre estate, but said the last he heard the stone mansion had fallen down and "the gatehouse is all that's left."

NEXT IN LINE
The British Consulate in Denver said estates, when there are estates, usually accompany the title in line of inheritance. But, it was pointed out, there probably would be heavy death duties.

"I might go over some day, if I got the money," said Hardinge, "but I couldn't make the trip on my income."

Hardinge, whose name is pronounced "Harding," said he had little contact with Sir Charles, and never saw him.

Hardinge said he worked as a civilian guard at Lowry Air Force Base here during World War II, for the Colorado Highway Department at Greeley for a time, and in a Denver liquor store during the late 1940s, just before he retired.

BELOW BARON
"It doesn't do me any good," said Hardinge. "I don't think there's any money involved. On World War I and Social Security pensions totaling $143 a month, he said, he isn't planning any trip to Great Britain to

Five At Webb Announced For Quarterly Honors

Five at Webb AFB have been singled out for quarterly honors. It has been announced.

Capt. George W. Thelin, 1st Lt. David P. Mott and S. Sgt. Robert F. Johnson received wing honors of the quarter. S. Sgt. Vern N. Peters and Airman Douglas G. Stinchum were given Air Base Group quarterly awards.

Capt. Thelin was named the T-37 Instructor Pilot of the Quarter for July, August and September. Lt. Mott was chosen the T-38 Instructor Pilot of the Quarter, while Sgt. Johnson received the Airman Instructor of the Quarter honor for the same period. These are three of the four top wing awards presented quarterly in the training program. Last week, Capt. Richard F. Lord, an instructor in the 3561st Squadron, earned the fourth award when he was selected the Classroom Instructor of the Quarter.

Capt. Thelin was formerly selected the T-37 Instructor Pilot of the Month for September in the 3561st Pilot Training Squadron. Before entering pilot training at Reese AFB, he served three years as a pilot for the Military Airlift Command (MAC) at Dover, Del., and Vietnam.

For his service in Vietnam, Capt. Thelin received a number of awards including the Vietnam Service Medal with three Bronze Stars and the Presidential Unit Citation. The captain has logged 2,154 hours total flying time, including 653 hours of rated jet time.

Lt. Mott reaped base recognition in September when he was chosen the T-38 Instructor Pilot of the Month in the 3560th Pilot Training Squadron. Besides being an instructor pilot with "E" flight, he also serves as section and flight publications officer and as monitor of the flying training management system.

Lt. Mott, who received his undergraduate pilot training at Webb, returned to the base as an instructor pilot in March, 1967. He has logged a total of 1,097 hours of flying time, including 865 hours of rated jet Squadron. Before entering pilot training at Reese AFB, he served three years as a pilot for the Military Airlift Command (MAC) at Dover, Del., and Vietnam.

ATHENS ON BUSINESS

Onassis Interrupts Short Honeymoon

ATHENS (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis' bridegroom of four days left her for the first time today, interrupting their honeymoon to fly to Athens on business.

While shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis worked at his downtown Athens office, his bride remained on his palatial yacht Christina moored at Scorpions, his private island in the Ionian Sea 300 miles northwest of Athens.

BIG DEAL
Onassis was expected to fly back to Scorpions tonight to rejoin his bride.

At present, Onassis is negotiating a $360 million contract with the Greek government for an industrial complex consisting of an oil refinery, aluminum plant and related installations.

At the Vatican, meanwhile, experts on Roman Catholic canon law said no matter what Richard Cardinal Cushing says, the Roman church considers that the new Mrs. Onassis is living with another woman's husband.

Cardinal Cushing, the Roman Catholic archbishop of Boston and a close friend of the Kennedy family, said Tuesday it was "a lot of nonsense" to say that President Kennedy's widow had communicated herself by her marriage to Aristotle Socrates Onassis, a divorced member of the Greek Orthodox Church.

'PUBLIC SINNER'
It is technically correct that she is not excommunicated, canon lawyers and marriage experts at the Vatican said, but they explained that her church regards her as a "public sinner" and as such she is barred from receiving the sacraments, such as confession, communion and extreme unction. She may still attend Mass, however.

These sources said the church does not consider the former first lady married to Onassis because it does not recognize his divorce and still considers him married to his first wife, the former Tina Livanos. The first Mrs. Onassis is now married to the Marquess of Blandford, a Briton.

Canon lawyers said there are two courses open to the former Mrs. Kennedy if she wants to get back in the good graces of her church: leave Onassis and receive absolution, or get a ruling from the church courts that his first marriage is invalid and marry him in the Roman church.

American Viet Toll Dips Again

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today reported the lowest weekly American death toll in more than 14 months, hard fighting in the demilitarized zone in which at least 112 North Vietnamese were killed, and the loss of seven U.S. aircraft in South Vietnam in the past two days.

The total of South Vietnamese and enemy casualties also dropped last week, and the reductions resulted from the lull in ground action which has prevailed for three and a half weeks.

PLANES LOST
U.S. spokesmen said despite the fighting along the northern frontier and the aircraft losses, it was too early to say whether the lull was ending. They said the fighting in the DMZ was the result of allied operations, not the enemy's initiative.

The seven aircraft lost to enemy groundfire included a fighter-bomber, three light observation planes and three helicopters. Five men were killed and five were wounded.

Although there was still no word that Washington and Hanoi had agreed on a halt in the bombing of North Vietnam so as to advance the Paris peace talks, the South Vietnamese government appeared to be making a gesture toward getting the talks moving. It announced it would release 140 prisoners of war before the end of the month, the largest POW release of the war.

The total of 100 U.S. combat dead last week was the lowest since the week of Aug. 6-12, 1967, when 82 Americans were killed in action. And the total of 589 Americans who the U.S. Command said were wounded in combat last week was the lowest since the week of Dec. 24-30, 1967, when the total was 437.

South Vietnamese and enemy casualties last week also were the lowest reported in many months.

LOWEST
South Vietnamese headquarters reported 132 government troops killed, the smallest number since the week of Oct. 15-21, 1967. The U.S. Command said 1,243 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese were killed last week, the lowest number since Sept. 24-30, 1967.

South Vietnamese infantrymen and U.S. Marine tanks moved into the demilitarized zone behind a strike by U.S. B-52 bombers Wednesday, blasting about 200 North Vietnamese troops from their bunkers and sent them fleeing after 2½ hours of fighting.

Texas Solons Predicting HHH Will Capture State

EL PASO, Tex. (AP) — Several Texas congressmen, cheered by large and enthusiastic crowds along the way, predicted Democrat Hubert Humphrey will capture the state in the presidential sweepstakes.

NO DOUBT "There is no doubt that Humphrey will carry the state," said Rep. Henry Gonzalez of San Antonio after the vice president capped a two-day Texas campaign tour late Wednesday afternoon in El Paso.

"It is unbelievably good," said Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth.

But it was the state's senior senator, Ralph Yarborough, who waxed most exuberant on Humphrey's chances against Republican Richard Nixon.

"This has been fantastic," Yarborough said of the cheering crowds. He said Humphrey found enthusiasm in El Paso, Fort Worth and Dallas.

ON FIRE Yarborough, who traveled to El Paso on the Humphrey campaign plane Wednesday along with Wright and Gonzalez said, "I think Nixon realized that he's changing his schedule to campaign Nov. 23 in Texas. He's trying to pull it (the state) back."

Yarborough said the crowds at several stops were bigger than those in 1960 when the late John Kennedy campaigned in Texas and in 1964, when Texan President Johnson toured the state.

Yarborough said, "This trip helped swing Texas back to Hubert Humphrey. The enthusiasm is everywhere."

With Humphrey running behind schedule, another sizable crowd waited three hours for his arrival at Harlingen in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

SCUFFLE Supporters carrying signs for the vice president and others backing third party candidate George Wallace scuffled after some jostling among the placard wavers. Two persons were treated for minor injuries and dismissed at Valley Baptist Hospital.

Retired Army Col. Lawrence Campbell, a Wallace supporter, asserted that two officers violated his civil rights by escorting him from the area where Humphrey dedicated a manpower skill center on the site of the former Harlingen Air Force Base.

Referring to the new school, Humphrey said, "This project happened because the Democratic administration in Washington cares."

In El Paso Humphrey did not find the hecklers and name callers whom Wallace encountered at an indoor rally there a week earlier.

VIVA HUMPHREY "Arriba Humphrey. Viva Humphrey," the estimated 4,000 persons shouted during the air-port stop of about 90 minutes. The estimate came from Police Sgt. Roger W. Miller, although Democrats put the crowd at 9,500.

Humphrey praised Olympic broad jump champion Bob Beamon, who attended Texas - El Paso until suspended last spring from the track squad.

Referring to Beamon's world record jump, Humphrey said, "I have news for Mr. Nixon. When we hit that jumping board right out here in Texas we're going to jump right into the White House. You're going to be so tired of him by Nov. 5, you're going to elect me as President."

Yarborough predicted Humphrey will pick up a "very, very comfortable plurality in Texas." He also said the vice president should get Texas' 25 electoral votes. He called Texas a "swing state," and said it is essential Democrats put the crowd at their (Republicans) victory.

"The state was ready for this visit," Yarborough said. "If the election was held tomorrow, he would lead Nixon by more votes than Kennedy led Nixon in 1960."

The senator also said Wallace's strength in Texas has "reached its peak and it's slowly ebbing."

Humphrey told them, in a near whisper, "You must support us. We're going to help you."

Howard Hughes Agrees To Buy Landmark Tower

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Howard Hughes agreed to buy the Landmark Tower Wednesday, giving him a sixth hotel-casino among the 17 on this gambling center's glittering strip.

Time, apparently, the U.S. Justice Department will have no antitrust objections.

The 542-room Landmark, owned by a bankrupt corporation, has been vacant since completion last spring. At 28 stories, it is the highest building in this state where gambling is a legal business.

Carol Construction Co. and representatives of Hughes, a billionaire who hasn't been seen in public for more than a decade, agreed on a $17.3 million price.

Hughes, 62, already holds, at a cost estimated at $150 million, the Sands, Desert Inn, Frontier, Castaways and Silver Slipper.

He failed to close earlier this year—at the request of the Justice Department—a state-approved deal for the Stardust Hotel and Casino. The department

TALK ABOUT BEING IN TALL COTTON

Towering Acala cotton stalks pose problem Tall Cotton Has Him Fretting

By SAM BLACKBURN

"I hired a Mexican and his wife to pick the stuff. The couple picked one row — not even a quarter of a mile long. They gathered 380 pounds of seed cotton."

"When they finished the row, they asked for their pay and quit. I haven't found any more pickers and I frankly don't know what on earth I will do with the stuff."

The speaker is Guss F. Heckler, Lather cotton farmer. Speaking of tall cotton, Heckler is certainly in it — above his head.

He has what is probably the tallest cotton on any field in Howard County. The towering plants, well over six feet, are loaded with huge bolls of flowing white lint. There is about 10 acres of this overgrown stuff.

Judging by the yield from the one row, Heckler estimates that every five rows should yield a bale of long-staple Acala cotton. His problem is not potential production — he's trying to figure out how to get his crop picked.

"I can't hire pickers," he said. "It's so tall, I wonder if a stripper will work on it. I haven't a mechanical picker — those things cost too much."

He says he is convinced that the 10-acre tract, part of which is planted to Del Cero variety, will produce better than two bales to the acre. His farm is 1 1/2 miles south and east of Luther post office.

He has an adjacent 10 acre field of dry-land cotton — the tall stuff is irrigated and was planted May 2 — which has produced 17 1/2 bales of good cotton. All of his cotton is loaded with opened bolls. The lesser cotton will yield to the strippers.

It's that dogged, king-sized, overgrown Acala that's got Guss fretting.

SIGNS OF ST. LAWRENCE'S FALL SEASON Cotton samples stacked around mail box show how far harvest is along

Smaller Crop, But Farmers Are Pleased At St. Lawrence

By SAM BLACKBURN In the fall-war on the boll weevil. This pest, not heretofore of any importance in this community, has come in heavily this year and has damaged some fields extensively.

At a meeting in September, it was explained to the growers that fall spraying by airplanes at 10 day intervals from late September to the finish of the harvest would offer a good chance of reducing the number of weevils which would survive the winter. Every grower in the county agreed.

With one or two exceptions, (and these growers are poisoning as they defoliate), the St. Lawrence farmers signed a contract with aerial spraying concerns. Aerial spray on the crops has already been completed on two rounds, each 10 days apart, and the planes are due back this week for the third round.

Farmers estimate the cost at about $2 per acre but, they say, if it will prevent a big crop of weevils next spring, it will be money well invested.

The harvest is earlier this year than last. Already the three gins in the community have processed at least 7,000 bales and hundreds of bales are on the yards awaiting their turn. Cotton picking machines (90 per cent of the long staple Acala cotton is being harvested with expensive mechanical pickers) are in the field each day as soon as the dew is off the plants and the lint dry enough to handle.

Defoliation is general and most fields will be ready for the strippers within a few days. Last year the three gins handled nearly 13,000 bales.

The grain harvest is about complete. Total crop in the community was about 16,000,000 pounds. The quality was good. The price was $1.45 per hundred average.

St. Lawrence Chemical and Grain Co. estimated its purchases at between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 pounds. The operators said some little grain still remains to be harvested, but the amount still in the fields will not be significant.

St. Lawrence Trading Co. has bought about the same poundage as its competitor, but this plant has shut down. "There's not enough grain left to bother about," explained the operator.

The Paymaster Gin had ginned 1,614 bales as of Oct. 23. The total at the St. Lawrence Gin Co. was 2,720; and the Hoch Bros. Gin had ginned 2,388 bales. All three gins had a lot of cotton in the yard and more is arriving every few minutes.

Meantime, the St. Lawrence farmers, to a man, have joined

Elson Fighting Hard To 'Upset' Goldwater

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Arizonaans are being told a vote for Barry Goldwater is an endorsement of the Grand Canyon and the spirit of the Western pioneers.

The message comes from an obviously well-financed campaign to return Goldwater to the U.S. Senate, where he served for 12 years before trying unsuccessfully for the White House four years ago.

Roy Elson, 38, a Democrat making his second try for the Senate, is fighting hard to beat the Republican Goldwater. In 1964 he lost to GOP Sen. Paul Fannin. Elson's main campaign asset is the endorsement of retiring Sen. Carl Hayden, 91.

TRAILING A supermarket survey published recently by a Phoenix newspaper gave Goldwater 57 per cent, with Elson getting 33 per cent of those interviewed. Goldwater aides say this is about what their own polls show.

Elson forces acknowledged they are trailing but say the spread is only from 4 to 8 points.

Goldwater, 59, hammers away at crime in the streets and the need for new leadership to end the war in Vietnam. These were chief topics of his 1964 presidential campaign, and he says history has proven him right.

NUCLEAR HANGOVER But a hangover from that campaign as to his stance on use of nuclear weapons still haunts him. In 1964 he suffered from his famous "defoliation" remark, which he said was erroneously interpreted as advocating use of nuclear weapons in Vietnam.

Elson has concentrated almost entirely on state issues, especially funding of the newly authorized Central Arizona Project.

The Democratic candidate has attacked Goldwater's voting

Good Turnout Expected Nov. 5 In Glasscock Co.

GARDEN CITY — Glasscock County's 526 qualified electors, bolstered slightly in numbers by residents in the military service who will vote absentee, will go to the polls pretty solidly on Nov. 5, observers think.

"There's not too much election talk," said one oldtimer. "Folks aren't saying much, but it's pretty likely the way things are that they'll turn out pretty good on election day."

Mrs. Iva Lawson, county-district court clerk, said she has ordered 600 ballots and that all election supplies are on hand and ready for voters.

The polls open at 8 a. m. and

Col. Boyd Takes Webb AFB Tour

Col. Hugh F. Boyd, new director of the Air Training Command Supply and Services Headquarters at Randolph AFB, was given an orientation tour of Webb AFB Wednesday morning.

The purpose of his visit, said Col. Donald A. Jones, Webb deputy commander for Materiel, was "to become familiar with the facilities and personnel at Webb." The tour included stops at the base exchange, commissary, clothing sales store, redistribution and marketing and base supply.

record as being contrary to the interests of Arizona, development of national defense and the space program.

There are eight voting boxes in the county. All will be operating on election day — with one possible exception. Mrs. Lawson said that Box No. 8, voting at the old Soho camp, is without officials so far.

"The ones we had for the box can't serve and so far no one has agreed to take the post," she said. There are 40 qualified voters in the box.

Two of the voting boxes for the county are located in the courthouse, No. 1, with 145 qualified electors, votes in the county commissioners' court room, No. 2, with 41 voters, ballots in the county treasurer's office.

Other boxes are No. 3, at Lee Community Club house with 83 voters; No. 4, at the Hillger residence, northwest of Garden City, with 26 voters; No. 5, at the George O'Barr residence, also northeast of Garden City, 43 voters; No. 6, called the Line School box, 29 voters, balloting at the John Priddy residence; No. 7, St. Lawrence Community Building, 119 voters.

Only local elections on the ballot are two county commissioner posts and the sheriff. The incumbents, all seeking re-election, have no opponents. The candidates for commissioner are Doris Blissard, Commissioner Precinct 1; and A. W. White, Commissioner Precinct 2. Roice Pruitt, sheriff, seeks re-election to his post.

Absentee votes will be canvassed at the courthouse.

SPEAKER URGES SUPPORT

Planned Parenthood Center Proposed For Big Spring

"Big Spring can have an effective program of Planned Parenthood, with radical results for this community, if there are enough concerned people who will explain it, help organize it and work as volunteers," said Mrs. Robert Morris, speaking Monday evening in the First Federal Community Room to the American Association of University Women. Mrs. Morris is Southwest Regional Secretary for Planned Parenthood.

She said that a survey by the National Planned Parenthood Association had shown that there are about 1,500 women in Howard County, between the child-bearing ages of 18 and 44, with incomes of $3,000 per year or less. These women have said they needed and wanted a subsidized family planning service. According to the survey, the average birth rate among these women is one child every 18 months, giving them a family of six children every 10 years.

"These women are medically indigent, having no doctor, and may use midwives or family members to assist in delivery," said Mrs. Morris. "About 50 per cent of the children from homes of this type end up with mental problems or as criminals. Psychologists find most of their problems result from being unwanted and unloved by their parents."

In conclusion, Mrs. Morris stressed that the goal of a Planned Parenthood Association is to have every child "a wanted child" and to make knowledge and safe and acceptable means for child spacing available to every couple who wants it. Further outcomes would be to reduce welfare rolls, number of children entering school, juvenile delinquency, charity medical cases and the number of mental patients.

Mrs. Morris has been working with Walter Widger, director of social services at Big Spring State Hospital, in writing an application for a grant of state funds. However, she pointed out that a Planned Parenthood Center could be started with a budget of about $2,500 if local citizens were interested in taking leadership of the project. The Permian Basin Medical Society has endorsed the project and the Texas Nurses Association, Affiliate No. 24, has agreed to provide volunteer nurses. A place for the clinic and basic equipment is needed. The AAUW will establish a speaker's bureau of women informed on the subject, who will be available to speak to other groups who wish to hear about political education is necessary to the success of a Democratic government and emphasized that it is politically non-partisan.

Mrs. Lansing concluded the program by reading "Five Helpful Hints for Club Meetings," by Erma Bombeck. Mrs. Roy Reeves was named music chairman, and Mrs. Hack Hudgins won the attendance prize. Reports were heard from the project committee and plans were made to buy clothing for an "adopted" youth at Big Spring State Hospital.

Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Hazel Davis, state Rebekah Assembly president, will pay an official visit to Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284 on Nov. 16, according to an announcement made by Mrs. A. G. All are invited to join the No. 284 lodge meeting on that date.

HINTS FROM HELOISE Try Pulling Shades 'Up' For New Look

Dear Heloise: Have you noticed the window shades in some modern homes and those shown in the beautiful pictures in newspapers and magazines?

The roller is attached at the BOTTOM of the window and the shade is pulled UP.

This change is not just to be different or fancy. With the shade pulling UP from the bottom, you have more privacy and at the same time more light and air. And this is a good way to block out unattractive views or to cover that window air conditioner when it's not being used.

A regular roll window shade can be changed from the top to the bottom with very little effort and expense.

Just take the roller off the side brackets and undo the brackets. Attach them at the bottom of the window, spaced so the roller fits in them snugly. When you put the roller in the brackets, turn it around so the shade comes out under the roller and up, covering it. This gives it a smooth appearance.

If your window sashes are wooden, you can insert a cuphook at the top of the window frame and another in the center of the window near the latch and hook the shade cord to either position.

Or if your sashes are metal, you can attach an eye screw in the top and right corner of the frame and place a cuphook half way down one side.

Replace the shade pull with enough cord to run it up through the screws (or pulleys if you prefer) and down to the cuphook to anchor it. This gives more leeway in adjusting the shade at different positions.

To get real fancy, a roller can be recovered with all kinds of beautiful material, vinyl, or decorated shade. . . Mrs. Thomas McDaniel

Dear Heloise: In caring for a small baby, I've found it handy to have two diaper pails.

I put soiled diapers in a soap solution in one and soiled bibs, clothing, etc., in the other.

This helps prevent foods from setting and staining. . . Mrs. G. C. Wood

FROM HELOISE'S KITCHEN For those of you who buy

those frozen apple pies, or any kind of fruit pie for that matter, and it tells you to put it in the oven after cutting a few slits on the top:

Well, if you let it sit for 15 minutes or so, the top crust gets soft and it will cut like a million dollars! It does not crack like it usually does when frozen hard.

While you are doing this, take three teaspoons of sugar and one teaspoon of cinnamon, mix it well in a coffee cup and sprinkle it over the top. It gives an aroma that is out of this world.

Remember gals, it's the odor that first attracts the guest before he eats the food . . . besides, it makes it taste and look homemade.

Also don't take a fruit pie out of the oven and cut it immediately while it is piping hot. Let it sit at least an hour before cutting and then that fruit does not run all over the pan and plates. . . Heloise

Dear Heloise: I have another use for nylon net that I haven't seen mentioned.

I keep a few one-yard lengths of it to fold in my clothing when packing luggage.

It acts better than tissue paper. It doesn't collapse or tear as tissue does. . . Mrs. Thomas J. Quick

Dear Heloise: My little two-year-old daughter will get an extra season of wear from her heavy pajamas that have the feet in them.

They were getting too short but I didn't want to cut the feet off the pajamas and let her sleep barefoot. She was accustomed to wearing them - I was afraid it might give her a cold.

So I cut the foot part off at the ankle and sewed a pair of heavy crew socks onto the legs of the pajamas.

By doing this, she will wear them another year. . . Penny Saver.

Dear Heloise: Here is a jim-dandy hint. Try putting melted paraffin in the bottom of the bucket, that sits inside the garbage can and it will keep it from leaking. If the can is new the paraffin will keep it from rusting. . . Mrs. Emogene Pease

Talk Charts Political Involvement

Mrs. W. W. Lansing presented the program, "Woman's Role In Politics," at Tuesday's meeting of the Spoudazio Foru Study Club in her home at 1003 Bluebonnet. Mrs. Robert Clark was cohostess.

"Our interest was solicited by woman suffrage, and eventually, in 1920, the North American Woman Suffrage Association was founded," said Mrs. Lansing. She explained that the movement is based on the idea that a continuing political education is necessary to the success of a Democratic government and emphasized that it is politically non-partisan.

Mrs. Lansing concluded the program by reading "Five Helpful Hints for Club Meetings," by Erma Bombeck. Mrs. Roy Reeves was named music chairman, and Mrs. Hack Hudgins won the attendance prize. 1/2 cup butter add:
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
Blend in:
1 unbeaten egg
One-third cup peanut butter
1/4 tsp. soda
1/4 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. vanilla
Stir in:
1 cup all purpose flour
1 cup quick-cooking rolled oats
Spread in greased 13 x 9 inch pan. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes. Sprinkle with: 1 6-oz. pkg. (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate chips
Let stand five minutes.
Combine:
1/2 cup sifted powdered sugar
1/2 cup peanut butter
1/2 cup water
2 to 4 tps. evaporated milk
Mix well. Spread chocolate evenly. Drizzle with peanut butter mixture. Cool; cut into bars. (Makes about four dozen.)

CHINESE FRIED RICE
Cook rice and cool.
Heat pan, add two tablespoons oil, and fry two cups onions, coarsely chopped, until brown. Add two cups cold cooked rice and saute. Add a mixture of two eggs, stirred slightly, one tablespoon soy sauce, and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Saute until done.
For variety add two cups chopped cooked meat (bacon, ham, shrimp, left-overs, cold luncheon meats, etc., chicken) or green peppers, chopped, or peanuts, (shelled and roasted). Heat thoroughly. Serve with soy sauce or plain. Makes four to six servings.

SWEET AND SOUR PORK OR SPARERIBS
Make sweet-sour sauce in advance.
SAUCE
3/4 cup sugar
1/4 cup soy sauce
1/2 cup water
3 tps. cornstarch
Mix and cook over low heat until thickened, stirring constantly. Place in a kettle two pounds uncooked pork or spareribs, cut in pieces about one inch thick and two inches long. Add one cup cold water and boil 20 minutes or until tender. Pour off water, if there is any left. Cool.

While meat is cooling, saute one-fourth cup onion, sliced, and one medium cucumber, peeled and sliced, for one minute in two tablespoons oil. (If cucumbers are not available, equivalent amounts of any one of the following may be used: green pepper, pineapple, bamboo shoots, carrots, crab apples). Remove from pan.
Now add to the cool pork a mixture of two tablespoons soy sauce and two tablespoons cornstarch. Heat oil for deep-fat frying and fry the meat until crisp and brown. Remove and drain. Combine meat with hot sweet-sour sauce and sauteed vegetables. (More sugar may be added to suit the taste). Serve with hot rice. Serves four to six.

Traveler Collects Recipes

By RHODA LEMONS

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard J. Piekarski of 2800 Cactus are a well-traveled family. Although they have lived in Big Spring approximately two years, they previously made their home in Ohio, Virginia, California, Japan, Korea, New York, Illinois and various parts of Texas. They have made side trips to Formosa, Hawaii and Wake Island.

Mrs. Piekarski has collected recipes in all the states and foreign countries in which she has lived. She attended weekly classes in Chinese cooking for four months while in the Orient, and she has one favorite book written by the Benedictine Sisters from a Western world, so that ingredients can be obtained.

Piekarski is presently the Webb project housing officer. He is a retired lieutenant colonel in the Army, and it was while he was in service that so much traveling took place.

Mrs. Piekarski thinks that moving from place to place makes a family more closely knit than it might be otherwise. She said that the members are "thrown together" in a new community and are interdependent upon each other until new friends can be established. She said that the closest that she or her husband has ever lived to their respective families is 500 miles, and that she has never known what it was like to have relatives nearby.

While in Japan, Mrs. Piekarski attended a Japanese flower arranging school by the improbable name of O'Hara. She said that the Japanese have no peer when it comes to flower arranging and that she learned things in the school that have been invaluable in enriching her life. She said that in all the foreign countries they visited they found excellent restaurants featuring authentic dishes from their countries. One of their favorite eating places in Japan was a German restaurant.

The Piekarskis have two children, Lynne, 13, an eighth-grader at Goliad Junior High School, and Lee, 11, a sixth-grader at Marcy Elementary School.

Mrs. Piekarski's husband and son come home for lunch, and the main meal is served at night, if conflicting schedules do not interfere. Mrs. Piekarski is an efficient homemaker and yet finds time to participate in several clubs. She is active in the Officers Wives Club at Webb AFB, a member of the New-comer's Club, a Red Cross volunteer and a bridge player. Last year, she was an officer in the Parent Teacher Association.

She has collected many art objects during their travels, and has them on display. The home is basically Early American in decor, and yet, Mrs. Piekarski has blended it with Oriental vases and dishes, silk-screen prints and hand-made figurines. She has a collection of Oriental Puson plates which are hand-painted. If the artist becomes ill or takes a few days off, all work is suspended until he is able to return to his craft.

Mrs. Piekarski enjoys the informality of life in West Texas, and she and her family are glad to be a part of the community.

Some of her exotic recipes are listed below.

Imperial Sugar Presents Anniversary Cookbook

Imperial Pure Cane Sugar is presenting a new cookbook, "The 125th Anniversary Cookbook," composed of a treasury of best-loved recipes from the past. The anniversary in Sugar Land seemed an appropriate time to gather together some of the favorite recipes that have appeared in the past on Imperial Sugar bags and cartons. Included are some of the old-time favorites from early cookbooks like "Romantic Recipes of the Old South and Great Southwest," "Grandma's Pantry Shelf," "The Household Economist," and "Aunt Cora's Book of Unusual Cakes, Cookies and Pies."

Each recipe has been tested and revised for the contemporary cook. Then, Imperial Sugar added some interesting new recipes for fresh inspiration, all of which are dedicated to the pure enjoyment of those who love to cook.

After years of development, Imperial's 125th Anniversary Cookbook is being offered to the public for $1 and the pure cane red block cut from an Imperial Sugar bag or carton. This beautiful recipe collection has 10 complete sections. It includes beverages, cakes, cookies, candy, frostings, desserts, sweet breads, sauces and preserves — all the good things that can be made with Imperial Pure Cane Sugar.

The cookbook features 64 pages with 16 full-color photographs in a collection never before published in book form. Generation after generation of homemakers in Texas have had just three words for sugar, "Imperial Pure Cane." It all began 125 years ago on a small plantation in the little Brazos Valley settlement called Sugar Land.

Typical of the interesting recipes contained in the cookbook is "Cherry Cheese Pie,"

Apples Are Good Buy For Week

Plenty of apples seems to be the story at Texas food markets this week. Tart apples for cooking and juicy, sweet apples for eating are in good supply at produce centers, according to fruit and vegetable market news offices of the Agriculture Department's Consumer and Marketing Service.

Cabbage also proved abundant. Combine apples and cabbage for an extra tasty salad concoction.

Compared to last week, prices eased on such items as bananas, greens and lettuce.

Grapes and pears cost more. Corn, cucumbers, dry onions, potatoes and radishes also were higher price tags.

California grapes from California made their seasonal debut this week, as did Texas Ruby Red grapefruit.

Plentiful protein foods included pork, cheese and dry beans. Rice also continues in good supply.

Make A Homemaker Harvest With Glazed Pumpkin Muffins

October brings a bountiful harvest of brilliant orange pumpkins (although a few may have been proudly exhibited earlier at various country fairs). But too often the use of this ornamental gourd is restricted to the Halloween jack-o'-lantern and the traditional Thanksgiving pie.

The distinctive flavor of the pumpkin lends itself to a variety of dishes, however. And the canned product is available nearly year 'round, so why not bake delicacies like these Frosty Pumpkin-Nut Muffins?

Your family will enjoy these sweet, spicy corn meal muffins. The subtle flavor of enriched corn meal is enhanced with pumpkin, chopped pecans and the traditional pumpkin pie spice trio: cinnamon, ginger and cloves.

Kernels of candy corn decorate the top of each little frosted muffin. The muffins should be served warm, spread fashion, in center of serving plate with butter if you wish. They'd be a lovely addition to a fall brunch menu or a special after-school treat for the youngsters.

FROSTY PUMPKIN-NUT MUFFINS
1 cup enriched corn meal
1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
2 1/2 tps. baking powder
3/4 tsp. salt
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. ginger
1/8 tsp. cloves
1/4 cup chopped pecans
2/3 cup canned cooked pumpkin
1 egg, beaten
3/4 cup milk
1/4 cup vegetable oil
Thin confectioners' sugar frosting
48 candy corns

Make Your First Course Fresh Fruit

An attractive way to serve fresh fruit for a first course. Ripe medium-size pineapple 2 grapefruit, cut into membrane-free sections. 2 oranges, cut into membrane-free sections. Honey (preferably orange flavor). Remove pineapple plume; cut slice from top and bottom. Cut away rind, in lengthwise bowl. Stir in pecans. Add pumpkins so you remove most of the "eyes." With a small sharp knife, cut away any remaining eyes. Cut pineapple from core cups two-thirds full. Bake in four length-wise portions. Cut preheated oven (425 degrees) 20 each portion into thin wide to 25 minutes or until golden brown. Stack pineapple, log-cabin confectioners' sugar frosting with butter if you wish. They'd be a lovely addition to a fall brunch menu or a special after-school treat for the youngsters.

Treat Small Fry With Cookies

"Trick or treat" will soon take over on the youngsters' calendar of social events for the season. Are you ready? One of the best ways of handling crowds carrying a assortment of decorated bags, pumpkins, boxes, hats or whatever manner of container they can find is a large batch of cookies.

It's easy if you can find a recipe that makes a large number of them. Two, three or four dozen won't begin to cover the situation but eight dozen should do it. Trick or Treat Cookies made with lard, brown sugar and chopped walnuts give thin, crisp delicious treats. They're a n easy, refrigerator-type cookie.

CRISP OR TREAT COOKIES
3 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. soda
1 tsp. baking powder
3/4 cup lard
1 1/2 cups brown sugar
2 eggs
2 tps. vanilla
1 cup chopped walnuts

Sift together flour, salt, soda and baking powder. Cream lard and sugar, add eggs and vanilla. Add dry ingredients and nuts. Mix well. Divide dough in half and shape into two 1 1/2 inch diameter rolls and wrap in waxed paper. Chill, slice 1/4 inch thick and bake on ungreased cookie sheets in hot oven (400 degrees) eight to 10 minutes. Yield: Eight dozen.

Crisp Cookie For Afternoon Snack

These cookies are delicious with fruit or milk.

CRISP GINGER COOKIES
2 1/2 cups sifted regular flour (stir to aerate before measuring)
2 1/2 tps. baking powder
1/4 tsp. baking soda
1/4 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/4 tsp. ginger
1/4 tsp. cloves
1 1/2 sticks (3/4 lb.) butter or margarine
1 1/4 cups sugar
1/4 cup dark molasses
1 large egg

On waxed paper thoroughly stir together the flour, baking powder, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, ginger and cloves. In medium bowl, cream butter and one cup of the sugar; add molasses and egg; beat well.

Add sifted dry ingredients; stir until blended. Cover tightly and refrigerate overnight. Shape level, tablespoons of dough into balls; roll in remaining one-fourth cup sugar; place, five inches apart, on buttered cookie sheets. With fork tines, flatten balls until no more than one-fourth inch thick. Bake in preheated 375-degree oven 8 to 10 minutes. Makes about 50.

PANTRY PICK-UPS

English muffins make an excellent base for ersatz pizza. Split the muffins with the tines of a fork so the cut surfaces will be rough. Using a knife to halve the muffins ruins the surfaces.

Many deep-fat fried foods need fat heated to 370 degrees. If you have no deep-fat thermometer, remember that if a 1-inch club of bread browns in 1 minute, the fat is about 370 degrees.

When beef short ribs are braised, they may need to be simmered for two to three hours before they are tender.

To use slices of leftover roast beef, spread them with prepared mustard and coat with fine dry bread crumbs. Fry and breaded slices in hot butter, browning on both sides. Serve with horseradish.

Different topping: Orange sections and ripe olives make a delightful garnish for a chicken salad made with chicken, celery and mayonnaise or French dressing.

When you are using a veal knuckle for making broth, it's a good idea to have your meatman saw the knuckle into several pieces.

Ever add a suspicion of cinnamon to cream that you are whipping and sweetening? Delicious combination to serve with applesauce.

To stretch that chicken or turkey salad, add cooked rice and cooked green peas.

To serve four, you'll need at least 1 1/2 pounds of lean boneless meat when making a stew. Use at least two pounds if the meat is bone-in.

Astronauts Talk Journey To Moon

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The Apollo 7 astronauts, back from 11 days in orbit, continue meetings with project officials here today and confer with three other spacemen who may fly around the moon in December.

Discussions between technical experts and Apollo 7 pilots Walter M. Schirra Jr., Donn F. Eisele and Walter Cunningham will have a bearing on whether the Apollo 8 astronauts get a go-ahead to rocket moonward or make another earth-orbital voyage.

The Apollo 8 pilots—Air Force Col. Frank Borman, Navy Capt. James A. Lovell Jr. and Air Force Maj. William A. Anders—rehearsed Wednesday how to escape from launch pad emergencies.

Navy Capt. Schirra, Eisele, who was promoted to an Air Force lieutenant colonel by President Johnson, and civilian astronaut Cunningham were described in "generally excellent" health after completing a physical examination Wednesday.

Schirra, Cunningham and Eisele flew to Cape Kennedy Wednesday from the deck of the aircraft carrier Essex. They were welcomed by more than 500 members of the team that launched them into orbit Oct. 11.

The three astronauts will remain at Cape Kennedy until Saturday, when they will fly to their own homes at the Manned Spacecraft Center in Houston, Tex., for a reunion with their families.

Herring To Head State Journalism Association

Dal Martin Herring, journalism director at Howard County Junior College, has been named president of the Texas Junior College Journalism Association for 1968-69. He was elected during the TJCA annual convention held at Texas A&M last weekend.

The organization of instructors of journalism in Texas junior colleges helps establish teaching standards for journalism. It is an advisory council to the College Coordinating Board on matters of curricula concerning needs of junior colleges in instructing mass communications. One of these is instructor work load, and HCJC falls within the outline drawn up by the association.

DAL HERRING

Also, TJCA is working for standards that will more nearly match those offered at the same level by senior colleges, Herring said. This allows students to be assured of transferring credit and also to have acquired matching academic background.

Another effort of the group is to improve communications among instructors of journalism and keep them informed in teaching procedures and publications techniques. Exchanges of campus newspapers, yearbooks, magazines, course outlines and teaching ideas are a prime concern of TJCA, Herring said. TJCA this year will acquire a series of course outlines from senior colleges and make these available to junior college journalism instructors.

Beginning his fourth year at HCJC, Herring is a graduate of Texas A&M and Sul Ross State College. In past years, "El Nido," the campus newspaper which he sponsors, has won numerous state awards. Last spring he served as director for a 200-delegate state journalism convention, which HCJC hosted in Big Spring.

A Devotional For The Day

God shows his love for us in that while we were yet sinners Christ died for us. (Romans 5:8, RSV)

PRAYER: We praise Thee, O Father, for Thy nearness and Thy steadfast love that will never forsake us. May we accept the gift of Thy love in Jesus Christ and find anew the joy of life triumphant. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Crucial Tax Decision

The 44 states that rely on sales and use taxation for general revenue hope that the U.S. Supreme Court will overturn a dubious ruling of the federal circuit court in New York. Texas is among the 20 that have joined in the appeal of a Connecticut case.

The New York federal court held that military servicemen were exempt from sales and use taxation of states where stationed if such were not their permanent residences. It relied on a World War II act which gave nonresident servicemen immunity from state income and personal (but not property) taxation.

The loss of state revenue involved in this issue is not so serious as the administrative difficulties that would result should the appellate court's decision stand. States collect sales and use taxation from retailers, and a blanket exemption for nonresident servicemen would open a cauldron of confusion and a loophole for revenue reporting abuses. The states would have no practical way to police millions of exemptions.

Nonresident servicemen's exemption from state taxation on income and personal property, both likely to have out-of-state origin, seems equitable and poses no administrative problems. But the exemption from sales and use taxation would be a discriminatory gratuity that would play havoc with state tax structures.

Illogical Idea

There is an illusory bait being raised in the presidential campaign because it comes easy and has a pleasant sound. In a nutshell, the idea is that if civil liberties are somehow curbed, public safety and freedom will be once promoted.

This defies logic and can prove to be dangerous doctrine. The Bill of Rights cannot be eroded selectively, because any intrusion upon those fundamental rights is an invasion upon the basic freedoms of individual citizens. Our system always has presumed innocence until guilt is established. When it comes to presuming guilt, someone in authority has to do the presuming, and that puts an onerous burden upon establishment of innocence.

There will be less occasion to repent in sorrow later if the temptation to resort to golden will-o-the-wisp rhetoric is resisted now. The task is to marshal our forces and expedite procedures within the framework of our fundamental law without reducing the individual citizen's right to justice.

The Campaign Uncertainty

WASHINGTON — Maybe it's because of the high cost of campaigning, or maybe it's because there are three candidates in the race, but the current presidential contest is one of the most curious of all times.

THE AMERICA people theoretically are being informed about the issues. But actually they are not learning very much about the prospective policies any of the nominees would carry out if elected or about the true capabilities of the aspirants to high office. The style of campaigning has changed, and the speechmaking is being localized. This means that each candidate is supplying the comments which are deemed to be best suited to voicing in certain cities or areas.

THE PUBLIC, of course, can draw its own inferences as to which candidate is likely to do better than another on a particular policy. None of the nominees, however, can feel certain what the international situation will be next January. Each tends, therefore, to avoid commitments or specific pledges. The political strategy, to be sure, is to give the impression that peace will be obtained and that all will be well.

The net result of the present style of campaigning has been to create confusion in the mind of the voter and make it difficult for him to exercise a preference. The proliferation of campaign telecasts usually in brief and with more of a theatrical aspect has not helped to give the voters a thorough familiarity with the kind of policies which would be pursued by any of the candidates if elected to the presidency.

ANOTHER PHASE of the campaign which is perhaps the most tragic of all is the lack of information among the voters about the views of the men who are running for both houses of Congress. There is doubt also whether there will be any party responsibility in the legislative branch.

Billy Graham

Why should I waste my time reading the Bible, a book 2,000 years old? True, it probably falls into the category of good literature. But shouldn't a young person be concerned with more contemporary stuff?

O.Y. Older and wiser people than you have found great profit in reading the Book of books. David said: "Thy Word have I hid in my heart that I might not sin against thee." Job said: "I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food." But, contemporary man has found equal truth and comfort in the Book.

Thomas Carlyle said: "In the poorest cottage is one Book, wherein for several thousands of years the spirit of man has found light and nourishment, and an interpreting response to whatever is deepest in him."

Daniel Webster said: "The Bible is a book of faith and a book of doctrine, and a book of morals, and a book of religion, of special revelation from God. But it is also a book which teaches man his individual responsibility, his own dignity and his own equality with his fellow man."

Too old? Has age made the multiplication table less useful and accurate? Have the years taken from the luster of Homer, Shakespeare and Cicero? Age doesn't necessarily make some things out of date. "Heaven and earth may pass away, but my Word shall not pass away," says the Bible.

Housing Market Beginning To Boom

NEW YORK (AP) — After having been frustrated for at least two years by rising prices and high borrowing charges, many potential homeowners seem to have made a decision to act now and buy.

This at least is suggested by the recent high number of housing starts, a startling figure of 1.6 million units for September. This was the highest rate since early 1964 and came as a surprise even to some real estate people.

FOR MANY MONTHS Americans had been delaying home purchases primarily because mortgage rates were rising sharply. But, as they delayed, they saw the prices of homes rise as fast or even faster.

In the past three years, for example, some young couples with their eyes fixed on what they believed was a $20,000 home have found to their dismay that it is now priced at $25,000, or beyond their capacity to finance.

No wonder then that purchase decisions are being made. An inflationary psychology, never long absent from the real estate market, seems now to have won out over caution.

INFLATIONARY psychology develops in this way: Prices rise and the consumer retreats, even lowering his living standards to offset the higher prices. After a couple of years, however, his attitude might change. Gradually he comes to believe that if he doesn't buy now he'll pay even more tomorrow.

Over a long period of time this psychology always makes its impact on the real estate market. As population increases the amount of space per person shrinks. Land cannot be produced to keep pace. And so the demand grows for land and for that which is built upon it.

ADDING to the pressure for new homes is the fact that home purchases are not postponable indefinitely. Growing families demand more space. Apartment houses, which in many sections are filled to capacity, fail to serve this need. And so, despite high mortgage lending rates, young families are buying. Now that the housing market is beginning to show more action, some of the real estate people who were hurt when sales fell off a few years ago are getting some slight gratification, from telling the world that it was only a matter of time anyway. The boom was bound to return, they say.

Ultimate In Togetherness

By JOY STILLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — It all started innocently enough when they gave us the vote.

Who could have foreseen that, given his mile, women would inch their way into every other province previously exclusively male.

Now we've reached the ultimate in togetherness—the Boy Scouts of America have gone over to the Explorer program.

WHAT ELSE COULD you expect in a country where a gentleman can safely offer a lady a cigar only if he has another left for himself, where nearly 4,000 mailmen are mailwomen, where the girls run million-dollar businesses, drive trucks, build houses, tinker with car engines and work as plumbers—at least on television?

I first became aware of the blurring of the line between women's work and men's work when my son was thrust protestingly into a 7th grade sewing class. Later, when my daughter reached that stage in her schooling, she was placed in a metalworking course. The winds of change were blowing.

IT WASN'T LONG after this that boys and girls not only exchanged activities, but almost exchanged identities. The female of the species cut her hair severely short and adopted a pair of blue jeans and her brother's pea jacket as a standard outfit. Her brother, on the other hand, became the long-haired member of the family.

The trend soon spread to the adult world, where grown men now walk about with beads and chains around their necks, and their wives show up even at parties wearing pants suits.

IT'S GOTTEN to be somewhat of an embarrassing social problem. Introduced to an individual named Pat or Sandy, who is attired in slacks and jacket and sporting a hairdo just this side of a crewcut, should you talk about housekeeping or football?

At one time you could depend on the presence or absence of a pocketbook to put you on the right track, but the fashion leaders have the men toting them now.

Aside from the mandatory wearing of him and her buttons, I can suggest one other way to ease the identification muddle—the boys should dress in blue and the girls in pink.

When A Man Is Tared And Feathered

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: For a long time I have wondered about what happened when a man was tared and feathered. Did he die from this, or was it done to humiliate him and to give him a miserable time when removing the tar and feathers?

—G.A.P.
I don't know that any considered study of that brutal form of punishment has ever been made. At least I don't find any. Your curiosity about it piqued mine, however.

From what little I know or have been able to find out, tarring and feathering went beyond the humiliation of the victim and the misery of removing the tar.

For one thing, body burns can be suffered, depending on the heat of the tar. The degree and extent of the burn can be like any other burn — plus the agony of having the tar on top of it. The skin burns at a lower temperature than is commonly recognized — something like 140 degrees is enough to burn the skin. Boiling water (212 degrees) causes a violent burn, and we all know that. But a cup of coffee can cause a burn, too, and babies and small children have found that out. Not all have lived through it.

I have a remote but still vivid recollection of the one incident of tarring and feathering that occurred in my vicinity when I was a boy. The victim was more than humiliated. He died. It is my guess that the burns did it — but who ever studied such a repulsive thing?

Deaths, when they occurred — and for all I know they may have been the frequent or usual result — may have been from the burns (the poisons generated by the burned tissues) or from shock or from coating the skin with an impervious material which prevented normal evaporation from the skin.

As far as I know, the brutal humiliation of tarring and feathering has long since vanished from the complicated affairs of mankind. Good! But just what happened to the victims is not yet clear, medically. Possibly we may hear from other readers who know some of the answers that I do not.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 55 and my wife is 48 and we are expecting another child in a few months. We had been sure that at my wife's age pregnancy was out of the question.

I have been under the impression that, at our ages, there is a grave danger of the child being mentally retarded, and I am very much afraid of that.

—E.J.H.
The age of menopause — that is, when the ovaries cease operating — is the basic consideration. Since this occurs at varying ages, age alone is not an absolute criterion of whether pregnancy is possible.

There is some increase in the risk of having a defective child, either mentally or physically, when the mother approaches menopause age, but that is a far cry from saying that it is a "grave danger." If other children have been normal, the percentages are still very much in favor of having a normal child even at this age.

Are you having a gall bladder problem? To find out how the gall bladder works and what types of trouble to look for send for Dr. Molner's booklet, "You and Your Gall Bladder." Write to Dr. Molner in care of the Big Spring Herald for a copy of the booklet, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover the cost of printing and handling.

The Dramatic Art Of Politics

More often someone will say they don't pay any attention to politics, or has lost interest, or excuse himself with "they're just a bunch of crooks."

OF COURSE the records do have examples of malfeasance in office, but I would hesitate to charge the entire assembly for grand theft, nor act as concierge as to their fidelity to office. The percentage is quite small. So condemn politics as some of us might, it is a deadly serious business after all and affects us all.

Politics is a whimsically fascinating field, not without its finer points. It affects far more of us than Asian flu or hang nail, and certainly has more drama. It has as much romance as young love, and has proved just as difficult to yield to definition. No contest of bang tails holds the suspense, nor defies the prognosticators, quite as well as a close election. It is a periodic story of love and hate, complete with villains and heroes, with virtue undoubtedly winning in the end.

NO MATTER how bitter the campaigning, most contestants wind up with a handshake, a slap on the back, and a promise of support. Probably in no other nation of the world are hatchets buried with the same finesse, or as deeply.

Politics, American style, has a delightful charm, unmatched by any of our other customs. We occasionally hear the palpably untrue, but clutch and defend it, if from the lips of our own candidate; brand it as a lie and hold it up for ridicule, if from the opposing side. Many times, it might be the same statement.

IN THE HEAT of a campaign, I doubt we expect our candidate to hold too tightly with the facts, or to promise only what he thinks reasonable. He will be able to deliver. But once the ballots are counted, we sharpen our demands and rarely settle for anything less.

By and large, we expect our candidates to be larger than life, complete with the right answers in a handy pack, solving all our problems with a wave of a scepter. We push and press them into such a mold when some don't bend so easily to fit, we chuck the wretched menagerie and grumble.

POLITICIANS, for the most part, are no different than the rest of us, except for an adeptness at gathering votes. Some are more deeply dedicated than others, and some are clowns. Our system of elections should insure that more of the former assume office, than the latter.

The Pseudo-Intellectuals Protest

WASHINGTON—As part of his hard-hitting campaign, Republican vice presidential candidate Spiro Agnew has been attacking the pseudo-intellectuals in the United States and blaming them for most of the country's woes.

This has caused a great deal of bitterness among America's pseudo-intellectuals, and it's possible that Agnew's strategy might backfire on him.

Mr. Hillary Hazeltine, president of the Pseudo-Intellectual Antidote League, held a press conference last week where he defended the role of pseudo-intellectuals in the United States and warned that if Gov. Agnew continued his attacks, he would lose millions of votes.

"WHILE PSEUDO-INTELLECTUALS do not usually vote as a bloc," Hazeltine said, "they are very sensitive to criticism and certainly would not vote for a man who treats them with so much contempt."

Asked how large the pseudo-intellectual vote was in the United States, Hazeltine replied, "It's hard to say, but we're the ones who subscribe to Time magazine, belong to the Book of the Month Club and watch Leonard Bernstein on television."

"WE DRIVE Volkswagens and go to foreign films and buy bullfight posters and, sometimes, drink wine with our meals. Agnew is crazy to mess with us."

"Why would he?"

"He probably doesn't even know what a pseudo-intellectual is. We attend filmed lectures on Tahiti and buy tickets to Edward Albee plays and write letters to the editor of our local newspaper and never miss a PTA meeting and listen to records by Henry Mancini."

HAZELTINE CONTINUED, "I don't know who Agnew thought he was attacking, but he's stepped on the toes of everyone in this country who quotes David Susskind, who owns a Hi-Fi stereo record machine and plays contract bridge on Thursdays. We may not watch Ed Sullivan but we do watch the Smothers Brothers and Laugh-In, and whenever Marlene Dietrich sings, we buy the house out."

"Then what you're saying, Mr. Hazeltine," a reporter said, "is that Gov. Agnew unknowingly has made fun of the same people that Richard Nixon is appealing to?"

"EXACTLY. We're the forgotten Americans that Nixon is always talking about. We pay our taxes. We work for our money. We don't get involved in crime. The only thing we're trying to do is improve our minds. We might have gone for Nixon if Agnew hadn't given us all that jazz."

"He probably got all mixed up. What he wanted to do was attack the intellectuals, but he was afraid to do it, so he picked on the pseudo-intellectuals instead. If he had attacked the intellectuals in the United States, he might have lost 53 votes. But when he went after the pseudo-intellectuals, he took on about 10 or 15 million Americans."

Holmes Alexander

Humphrey As Guest Columnist

By HON. HUBERT H. HUMPHREY
Vice President of the United States

I am delighted to accept Holmes Alexander's invitation to be his guest columnist. Mr. Alexander believes in fair play and that above all deserves our respect.

My first priority as President will be to end the war in Vietnam and obtain an honorable peace. In sharp contrast to a few months ago — we see peace negotiations going on — I would be prepared as President to take the following risks for peace:

1. — A CESSATION of the bombing of the North — taking account of Hanoi's actions and assurances of prompt good faith negotiations and keeping the option of resuming that bombing if the Communists show bad faith. This would be the best protection for our troops.

2. — Careful, systematic reduction of American troops in South Vietnam — a de-Americanization of the war — turning over to the South Vietnamese army a greater share of the defense of its own country.

3. — AN INTERNATIONALLY supervised cease fire — and supervised withdrawal of all foreign forces from South Vietnam.

4. — Free elections, including in the electorate all people willing to follow the peaceful democratic process.

Terrible as the devastation in South Vietnam is, it pales by comparison with the prospect of nuclear holocaust. The only course for responsible statesmanship is to reduce at every opportunity the tension in the world and the potential for nuclear destruction. I believe there is considerable danger that we will lose our momentum toward disarmament in 1968.

GEN. CURTIS LEMAY, the Wallace vice-presidential candidate, has indicated his view that nuclear weapons are like any other weapons in our arsenal. And Mr. Nixon has opposed ratification of the carefully drafted and negotiated nuclear non-proliferation treaty.

Neither of these positions meets the demands of nuclear statesmanship. We must take forthright steps of world leadership to keep nuclear bombs from spreading. We must ratify the non-proliferation treaty now, and continue to seek ways of reducing the likelihood of nuclear confrontation.

NO LEADER can neglect the immediate responsibility of guaranteeing to every American the right of personal security and a safe neighborhood. I have learned this lesson well more than 20 years ago as mayor of Minneapolis. I received an FBI achievement award for crime fighting and racket busting.

There will be no compromise on crime in the Humphrey administration. I have prepared a full scale practical program for federal support for our local police — money for higher salaries, more policemen, better training and equipment. Mr. Nixon's crime program is hollow and meaningless because it would put no new resources behind our police.

I WILL CONDUCT the presidency, not as an instrument for the enlargement of the federal role, but for the distribution of vital social responsibility to states and localities ready to accept it. The energies of the American people can and must be harnessed for the tremendous task of making this truly one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Green, Anyhow

LOUISVILLE (AP) — While riding in a taxi, Bud Daddens noticed the driver was trying to shake the tobacco habit by smoking cigarettes made from lettuce leaves.

"Do they taste like lettuce?" asked Daddens.

"No," replied the driver, "they taste like cabbage."

Tiny Appetite

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. (AP) — Ed Diddle, retired basketball coach at Western Kentucky University, purchased a pie and the baker asked if he wanted it sliced.

"Yes," said Diddle, "cut it in four pieces."

"If you like," the baker continued, "I can cut it in six pieces."

"Nope, I couldn't eat six pieces," Diddle answered.

Nixon Victory Seen As Communist Plot

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) — The founder of the John Birch Society says that Richard Nixon will win the presidential election and in so doing will fulfill a Communist plot to lead America "down the road to Communism."

Robert Welch said Wednesday night that "Hubert Humphrey has no more chance of being elected President than Mickey Mouse."

Speaking at a literary club meeting at the University of Georgia, Welch said the Communists are using a scheme of "alternating strategy" to confuse Americans and lull them into a sense of false security.

The idea, he explained, is to sandwich in a conservative Republican administration between Democratic presidents.

He said Communism and Americanism are engaged in a confrontation which "must eventually be fatal to one system or the other."

Law And Order Built On Fear?

HOUSTON (AP) — The Rev. Ralph Abernathy says American party candidate George Wallace is running for president on a platform "that proclaims law and order but is built on fear and racism and hate."

Abernathy, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference and successor to the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., visited here and in Galveston Wednesday and Wednesday night in a "get out the vote drive."

"The name George C. Wallace already stands in history as a name that mocks American concepts of law, order and justice," Abernathy told 2,500 persons at the 75th session of the Missionary Baptist General Convention of Texas at Galveston.

"I think what he really means by law and order is for the Negro to be jobless and sit complacently by and let the white people practice brutality," he added.

He said the election is crucial because "the next president will have an opportunity to appoint not only a chief justice, but also many key district judges."

Horoscope Forecast

FOR TOMORROW

—CARROLL RIGTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: You can get in a considerable amount of trouble today and tonight unless you very carefully do nothing to upset any plans whatever that have already been commenced and make a very special effort not to in any way force any issues or try to bend others to your will. It's best now to carry through with the plans that you have already seriously considered and back others loyally.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Instead of trying to run away from some responsibility, make it a point to be most meticulous in carrying through with promises. Get rid of any jealous feelings you have had in the past. This is a drawback.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): If you do not come through with promises to associates, they can oppose you very badly now, so get busy and show you are reliable. That amusement you desire is not good to put in motion now. Wait a better time day.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Who do not pay that urgent bill instead of finding more excuses? Improve your credit which is very important. One of whom you are most fond has requested a favor. Be sure that you do your utmost to please.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Stick right to duties ahead of you

Instead of going off on a tangent or provoking the ire of co-workers for little or no reason, safeguard your good health. Be the master of your own soul.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): A smiling face and a kindly word can do much to inactivate you into the good graces of others, as well as alleviate their woes. You are discouraged with some hobby you have, but patience makes it perfect. Don't give it up.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): You can make the situation at home far more pleasant by showing inventiveness and self-control. Others are pretty nervous about some personal problems. Do not criticize. Show understanding.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23): You think that money alone can solve that problem right now, but it is better to make some other concession that is more honorable.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): Don't be forceful with others, and take care you do not use sarcasm that others could resent either. Avoid losing your temper and increase your happiness. Find a less tempestuous group to chum around with.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Get rid of obstacles that are standing in the way of your success and join some charitable group who need your services. Plan the months ahead in a very intelligent way. Get busy with civic and labor.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Do not attend that social meeting today since it could easily mean trouble where a couple of good friends are concerned. If you are forceful with one ever, some desire you have, you can quickly lose favor. Be calm.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Don't try to take your troubles to that person who is usually very reliable, since he or she could be very busy with own affairs right now. Be of assistance to a good friend instead. Forget self for the time being.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20): Take care you do not act in such a way that you lose the approval of a higher-up whom you depend to a goodly extent. Make sure you follow every resolution that applies to you. Use caution in love life, also.
