Pickle, Purcell, Fisher Keep Seats

Two Democratic congressmen, who withstood high-priority Republican opposition in Tuesday's election, have Big Spring backgrounds. J. J. (Jake) Pickle, 42, who is the son of J. B. Pickle. He is a graduate of Big Spring High School and is a frequent visitor here. He was a member of the Texas Employment Commission before going to Congress. Graham Purcell practiced law here for a time after World War II before going to Wichita Falls where he became district judge and then congressman. Omar Burleson, representing this (17th) district, had no opposition as did George Mahon (19th district), who formerly represented this district. O. C. Fisher, San Angelo, was another who survived the well-financed, blue ribbon assault on which Republican leaders openly and confidently placed their hopes for an upset. It didn't come off. Pickle, longtime friend of President Johnson, struck down a bid by Ray Gabler, Austin, who had turned the Pickle-Johnson camaraderie into a campaign issue. It backfired. Fisher, after a shaky start, buried Jack Alexander, Odessa, in a landslide of 21st district votes. Purcell, behind in early returns from the 13th district, overtook Frank Crowley, Dallas, and won a resounding mandate. Texas Election Bureau figures at noon by districts. 10. Rep. J. J. Pickle 75,298, Ray Gabler 45,496. 13. Rep. Graham Purcell 70,146, Frank Crowley 59,943. 21. Rep. O. C. Fisher 82,598, W. J. Alexander 52,627.

RICHARD M. NIXON

Holds Slim Edge In Popular Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican Richard M. Nixon was elected 37th President of the United States today and won an immediate pledge of support from Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey, the man he narrowly defeated.

Capping a remarkable surge to the White House on the crest of close winpup victories in California, his native state, Illinois and Ohio.

political comeback, Nixon headquarters that the "great objective of this administration will be to bring the American people together." OPEN TO BOTH "This will be an open administration," he promised, "open to men and women of both parties." He said he wished to "bridge the generation gap, bridge the racial gap," adding: "We want to bring Americans together." Nixon said President Johnson also wired congratulations and that he was heading for a vacation in Florida but would call first on former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, recuperating at Walter Reed Army Hospital here from a series of heart attacks. Johnson, from his ranch in Johnson City, Tex., pledged to Nixon: "I shall do everything in my power to make your burdens lighter." Johnson told Nixon the responsibilities of leadership are too heavy and too important "to

LIFT STATION Gas Kills Stanton Man

STANTON (SC) — Stanton's superintendent of water and sewer works was killed by sewer gas in the bottom of a 40-foot deep sewer lift station Tuesday afternoon. John Authur Preston, 34, was overcome by the gas when he descended into the lift station to repair a pump at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday. He was pronounced dead at the scene when his body was recovered an hour later. Also overcome by the gas, but not considered in serious condition, was W. A. Douglas, who attempted to pull Preston out. Douglas was taken to Physicians' Hospital in Stanton where he is being treated for gas inhalation. Justice of the Peace Martin L. Gibson, tentatively ruled death by suffocation. Funeral will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday in the First Baptist Church in Stanton with his pastor, Rev. W. H. Uhlman, First Baptist Minister, officiating. Burial will be in Odessa at Sunset Memorial Garden, under the direction of Gilbreath Funeral Home. Mr. Preston was born Jan. 6, 1934, in Ballinger and came to Stanton in 1962. He became water superintendent in June. Survivors include a son, John Randolph Preston, and a daughter, Cynthia Jane Preston, both of Big Spring, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas Preston, Odessa.

Humphrey Concedes

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, his voice choking with emotion, conceded the presidential election today to Richard M. Nixon. "I've done my best. I've lost. Mr. Nixon has won. The Democratic process has worked its will so let's get on with the urgent task of uniting this country," Humphrey told several hundred cheering admirers at his hotel headquarters. He said he had spoken with Nixon on the telephone and sent him a telegram noting that "according to the unofficial returns you are the winner in this election." "My congratulations. Please know that you will have my support in leading this nation."

Smith Given 2-1 Margin In County

Preston Smith was given the edge over Republican Paul Eggers in Howard County almost with a 2 to 1 margin on his march through the state to become the first governor from West Texas. Democratic Smith carried all county boxes but the Park Hill box which went to Eggers 414 to 375. Smith's unofficial county total is 6,213 to Eggers' 3,900. All of the county boxes went to Ben Barnes, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, to give him a 7,363 to 2,527 lead over Doug DeCluit, Democrat Crawford C. Martin was awarded the decision in Howard County with an unofficial count of 7,352 to 2,294 over Sproesser Wynn for attorney general.

Howard Voters Back Hubert

Hubert Humphrey kept Howard County in the Democratic column in Tuesday's presidential election, but it was by the narrowest of margins (in unofficial totals) over Richard Nixon, the GOP standard bearer. George Wallace, the American Independent candidate, ran a substantial third. Humphrey polled 3,897, Nixon 3,805 and Wallace 2,789. Wallace, who cut in for 26.58 per cent of the county's vote, obviously got most of his strength from the Democratic ranks. Humphrey had 37.15 per cent and Nixon 36.27 per cent. While the Demos were dropping 2,186 from the 1964 presidential total for President Johnson, the Wallace forces polled this much and 603 besides. The Republicans picked up 625 votes. The record vote of 10,648 ballots cast, easily a new record, was 970 more than for the last presidential year.

Humphrey did a little better than duplicate the tremendously wide margin in Precinct 1 over four years ago to account for his margin. This box takes in the larger portion of the north part of town. Humphrey took 90 per cent of this box. In the Big Spring boxes, the Democrats took a net loss of 1,458 from four years ago, while Wallace picked up 1,639. The Republican gain was 463. In the rural boxes, where Wallace ran even stronger, the Demos lost 280 votes from four years ago, the Republicans gained 279 and Wallace had a total of 834 to beat them both in these areas. Seasoned observers, however, had called the turn on Howard results fairly closely. Best estimates had been 35-35 between the Democrats and Republicans, 25 for Wallace and the remaining five per cent up for grabs. Humphrey carried boxes No. 1, No. 5, No. 8, No. 10, No. 15, Nixon boxes No. 2, No. 3, No. 4, No. 6, No. 9, No. 12, No. 16, No. 17, No. 18, No. 19, and the absentee box; Wallace boxes No. 7, No. 11, No. 13, No. 14, No. 20, No. 21. The distribution of the Wallace vote indicated that the bulk of his gains at Humphrey's expense had come from labor and from farmers.

Democrat Jim C. Langdon Was Given a Clear Right-of-Way

Democrat Jim C. Langdon was given a clear right-of-way of 7,108 to 2,564 in the county over Jim Segrest for railroad commissioner. In five uncontested state-wide judicial races, Sears McGee received 7,642, Tom Reavley 7,614, and Zollie Steakley, 7,599 for Supreme Court places, and W. A. Morrison received 7,697 votes and Leon Douglas 7,582, for seats on the court of criminal appeals. In other uncontested state races, Temple Dickson received 7,724 Howard County votes for state representative, William H. Evans 7,539 for the state board of education, and Escro Walters 7,518 votes for court of civil appeals.

TEACHER PENSION

9. Raise teacher pension contributions. Apparently defeated were proposals involving the welfare ceiling raise, Dallas County road bonds, the legislative pay boost, anti-pollution tax benefits and state contracts changes.

Apparently carried were amendments providing for the property tax decrease and clearing up a legislator's office eligibility. Almost definitely defeated were three other amendments, providing for a tax exemption on stored property, certain government consolidations and tax relief to Texarkana tobacco merchants. In doubt was the proposal involving industrial bond issuance, on which vote totals were close throughout the tabulation period. Returns from all 254 counties, 161 complete: 1. Democrats Win County Commissioners' Races

Both Democratic incumbent county commissioners were returned to office on the basis of unofficial returns in Tuesday's voting — one of them by a landslide, the other by a squeaker vote. Simon Terrazas, present commissioner for Precinct 1, had a runaway in compiling 1,534 votes to 297 for Lamar Green, Republican challenger. On the contrary, Mrs. Joe (Mae) Hayden, managed only an 81-vote margin in being returned to office for Precinct 3, edging Republican Bill Crooker by 1,527 to 1,446. Crooker had waged an active, well-financed campaign with extensive advertising. Green, on the other hand, was not particularly active. Terrazas won in every box in the precinct. Crooker piled up a big majority in Box 16 in the Precinct 3 voting, but Mrs. Hayden managed the lead in other boxes. The commissioners' votes by boxes:

Only 5 Of 14 Proposed Amendments OK'd Here

Constitutional amendments on the ballot in Howard County did not fair too well as only five of the 14 proposed changes gained voter approval, in unofficial totals. Those getting the nod here were amendments 1, 3, 7, 9 and 14. No. 1, to permit investment of up to 75 per cent of the Public Employees Retirement, Disability and Death Compensation Fund in corporate stocks, was favored by 4,377 to 3,492. No. 3, to remove the 50 per cent limitation on the portion of the Permanent University Fund that can be invested in corporate stocks, was approved by 5,185 to 2,885. No. 7, to phase out the 47-cent state property tax except the 10 cents earmarked for college buildings. No. 9, to allow contributions to be made on the basis of full salary of members of the Teacher Retirement System of Texas, also gained favor here by 6,157 to 2,402. No. 14 also found favor by 5,235 to 2,928. It calls for fixing the time during which members of the legislature shall be ineligible to hold other offices. Amendments which failed in Howard County were: No. 2, 4,826 against, 3,258 for; No. 4, 3,855 against, 3,663 for; No. 5, 4,413 against, 3,876 for; No. 6, 4,224 against, 3,891 for; No. 8, 4,290 against, 3,518 for; No. 10, 5,116 against, 2,712 for; No. 11, 4,039 against, 3,601 for; No. 12, 4,363 against, 3,726 for; No. 13, 4,613 against, 3,249 for.

WALLACE DRIVE UNDERCUTS REPUBLICAN EFFORTS IN DIXIE

HHH Fails To Carry Single State In Deep South

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The battle for electoral votes across the South turned into a contest between GOP presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon and third party candidate George C. Wallace.

to becoming the first Democratic presidential nominee in 100 years to fail to carry a single state in the Deep South.

At the same time, the Wallace drive seemed to undercut Republican efforts to strengthen their party in the South.

For instance, James Allen of Gadsden, Ala., Wallace's lieutenant governor during the third party candidate's term as governor, easily won election to the U.S. Senate, defeating Republican Perry O. Hooper.

A Democratic veteran of 14 years in Congress, Sen. Sam Ervin of North Carolina—a state where Nixon was leading—won a solid victory over the GOP nominee, Bob Somers.

In South Carolina, a Nixon state, Democratic Sen. Ernest F. Hollings won re-election over his Republican opponent, Marshall J. Parker.

Yet the Republican picture in the South was bright in spots. Two incumbent Republican Congressmen in Alabama were re-elected, as was a GOP Congressman in Georgia. Arkansas Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, first GOP chief executive in the state since Reconstruction, held a precarious lead.

Wins By Hawks And Doves Blur Impact Of Viet War

WASHINGTON (AP) — Victories of both hawks and doves Tuesday blurred the over-all impact of the Vietnam war in key Senate races.

In the bombing of North Vietnam before President Johnson ordered it last week.

Vietnam peace candidate, failed in his effort to unseat Republican Jacob K. Javits, who is a moderate dove.

Sen. J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and one of the most outspoken doves, won re-election, while Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., another dove, was defeated.

GOLDWATER
Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., another Foreign Relations Committee member who sharply attacked Vietnam policy, was trailing in his bid for re-election.

Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Edward Gurney of Florida were the most prominent hawks to win Senate seats.

Gurney, a Republican member of the House, captured the Senate seat vacated by retiring Democrat George A. Smathers.

Gurney, who advocated carrying the war to North Vietnam and blockading the port of Haiphong, defeated his Democratic opponent, former Gov. LeRoy Collins by a substantial margin.

Collins had called for pushing the Paris peace talks and for gradual de-Americanization of the war.

FAILS
Goldwater, the GOP presidential candidate four years ago, won back a Senate seat after a campaign in which he said new leadership was needed to win the war.

Goldwater replaced retiring Democrat Carl Hayden.

Frank Church of Idaho and Gaylord Nelson of Wisconsin, two more Senate doves, won re-election.

In Maryland, Democratic Sen. Daniel B. Brewster, a supporter of the administration's conduct of the war, was defeated by Republican Rep. Charles Mathias. Mathias had called for a halt

Computer Goof Forces Switch

NEW YORK (AP) — A computer program flaw Tuesday night forced the News Election Service—NES—to suspend use of its prime system midway through the tabulation of returns in the General Election.

NES then switched to an emergency tabulation system using totals produced independently in seven regional centers.

J. Richard Elmers, executive director of NES, said: "We have no reason to believe that the national totals for president we produced up to the time we abandoned that system were wrong. The emergency system has corroborated those totals, but because a part of the programming produced unreliable totals for individual states, we were forced to switch completely to the emergency source of returns to insure the production of correct totals."

George Langnas, president of Programming Methods Inc., which handled the computer program, said that thorough and extensive testing of the program failed to disclose a prior warning of the failure which occurred.

NES tabulated the vote for president in each state as well as each race for governor, U.S. Senate and House of Representatives. The results were made available simultaneously to its five members—the two news services and three major television networks.

The emergency system which NES resorted to produced returns much more slowly, particularly for the individual states, than the prime computer system.

Dallas Regains Banking Crown

By The Associated Press

Bank deposits for the third quarter of 1968 were record-breaking in many Texas cities. The comptroller of currency called for a statement Tuesday of the condition of banking business as of October 31.

The survey disclosed that Dallas County had regained its position as the banking capital of the state. Harris county had held the honor for the past two quarters.

Dallas County reported a total of $4,622,708, compared with $4,122,581,737 for the same quarter last year. Harris County totaled a record $4,531,403,952, compared to $4,060,181,503 last year.

Bankers in most cities attributed the unusually healthy economy of the third quarter to general good business. Traditionally, record-breaking totals come at the end of the year. Agricultural area bankers felt that the fact that this fall's bank call came a month later than usual gave farmers time to get profits from their harvest to the bank and improve deposit figures in those areas.

Most Of Texas Lawmakers Closed-Mouth About Vote

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Democratic majority in the Texas congressional delegation loomed larger than ever today with the possibility that the presidential election might be thrown into the U.S. House.

Most of the Texas congressmen were closed-mouthed about how they would vote if such a situation occurred.

SAME 20-3
In the 12 contested congressional races in Texas, 10 Democratic and two Republican incumbents were returned to office. That left the Texas delegation its same 20-3 Democratic majority as before the election.

Two of the three Republicans said without reservation they would vote for Richard Nixon. They are Reps. Bob Price of Pampa and George Bush of Houston.

The other Republican, Rep. Jim Collins of Dallas, said he would abide by the vote of his district.

"I will vote for Nixon," Bush said flatly, "because Nixon will carry my district. I don't think it will wind up in the House, but if it should, Texas congressmen will overwhelmingly vote for Humphrey. But I will vote for Nixon."

VOTE FOR HHH
Rep. J. J. Pickle, the Democrat returned to office in President Johnson's home district, said he would consider the vote of both his district and the state of Texas.

Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth said all his efforts had been "dedicated to the proposition of seeing that it (the election) does not go to the House."

Rep. Henry B. Gonzalez from the 20th District said he absolutely would vote for Humphrey if the election is thrown into the House.

"I feel I have a commitment to voting for Hubert Humphrey, the man I've supported all along—I was one of the first to ask him to run," Gonzalez said.

Stunning Upset In Puerto Rico

SAN JUAN, P.R. (AP) — Luis A. Ferre, a millionaire industrialist who wants Puerto Rico to be the 51st U.S. state, appeared early Wednesday to have been elected governor in a stunning upset of former Gov. Luis Muñoz Marín's Popular Democratic party.

With only two precincts unreported, Ferre, the candidate of the New Progressive party, had a lead of 1,500 votes out of 888,000 cast in Tuesday's election for control of the commonwealth and local governments.

Record Martin Turnout Gives Support To Wallace

STANTON (SC) — George Wallace walked off with Martin County in the presidential sweepstakes Tuesday, polling nearly 43 per cent of the vote. Hubert Humphrey, Democrat, ran in second place well behind with nearly 30 per cent, and Richard Nixon, Republican, third with 27 per cent.

The actual totals were Wallace, American Independent, these results:

Governor — Preston Smith 832, Paul Eggers 552; lieutenant governor — Ben Barnes 593, Doug DeCluitt 224; attorney general — Crawford Martin 906, Sproesser Wynn 202; comptroller — Robert Calvert 894, John Bennett 225; treasurer — Jesse James 884, Manuel Sanchez 192; land commissioner — Jerry Sadler 909, Millard Neptune 206; agriculture commissioner — John White 894, E. G. Schuhart 216; railroad commissioner — Jim Langdon 873, Jim Segrest 216.

In county races, all unopposed, Roy Pickett got 94 votes, for county attorney; Dan Saunders 1,013 for sheriff; W. W. Atchison 493 for commissioner Precinct 1; Eldon A. Welch, 99 for commissioner Precinct 3; Martin L. Ghyon, 495 for justice of peace.

The vote for the amendments (for and against): No. 1 — 969-491; No. 2 — 235-636; No. 3 — 391-469; No. 4 — 272-537; No. 5 — 398-497; No. 6 — 374-477; No. 7 — 453-378; No. 8 — 292-549; No. 9 — 647-309; No. 10 — 229-577; No. 11 — 274-541; No. 12 — 387-480; No. 13 — 271-560; No. 14 — 493-381.

The total vote of 1,285 set a new record for Martin County.

One More Texan Killed In Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Twenty-seven servicemen killed in action in the Vietnam war were named Tuesday in a Defense Department casualty list.

They included one Texan Army Pfc. Refugio Canales, Route 1, Box 93B, El Campo. Died not as a result of hostile action.

Army 1st Lt. Milton D. Pate, 104 Dolphin St., Galveston.

Dear Abby

—ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Wants To Be An Actress

DEAR ABBY: I am 11 years old and I want to become a famous actress. I think I would be very good at it because ever since I was a little girl I have been very good at "pretending" and that is what acting is, isn't it? Do I have to finish high school to be an actress? LISA

DEAR LISA: Finish high school. And college, too, if you have a chance. Being good at "pretending" might help a lot because there may be times when you have to "pretend" that you are eating.

DEAR ABBY: About two years ago my husband announced that he wanted no part of our marriage or any of its responsibilities. He turned to alcohol, "go go" girls, sports cars and everything he once considered immoral, irresponsible and extravagant.

We are now having a lot of problems with our children. They are doing poor work in school and are hard to handle at home. The school counselor called me to inquire into our "home situation."

My husband insists it is none of their business, and how our kids do at school has nothing to do with the way we live at home. He has pointed out other families in which the home life is a mess, but the kids seem to come out all right. Is he right, or am I just nit-picking? CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: When home is a battleground, the casualties are usually the children. Some do survive in spite of the odds, but show me a rebellious, troubled child, and I will show you a home situation riddled with discord.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing to ask if you have ever heard of a "moon healer."

There used to be one in Sioux City, Iowa. I suffered with a pain in my side for a long time. The doctor told me I should have an operation, but I didn't want that. So I went to this moon healer, and she said to just let it go until I had one more attack and after that it wouldn't bother me anymore. Well, it's been 50 years, and I am 72 years old and I'm still here.

I now have another pain. This one is in my head and I sure wish I could find another moon healer someplace. Can you help me locate one? HEADACHE

DEAR HEADACHE: Sorry, but I know of no "moon healer." But in the meantime, I would recommend a doctor.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

MOST PARTY LEADERS AND COMMITTEE CHAIRMEN WIN

Democrats Control Both Branches Of Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Democrats have retained control of a Congress that may be called on to elect the next president and vice president.

But the cross currents of an extraordinary election left in utter doubt the crucial questions whether the House would get the presidential decision and if it does whether a Democratic majority would elect the party's nominee, Hubert H. Humphrey.

Democrats were assured a numerical majority in both branches of Congress, keeping a grip on the key Senate and House offices and committee chairmanships that play major roles in shaping and handling legislation.

MARGINS CUT

Their margins were reduced, however, in both chambers. They had controlled the old House, 246 to 186, with three vacancies, and the Senate, 63 to 37. Returns tabulated so far gave Democrats 234 of the 435 seats in the new House and Republican 183, with 18 races still undecided.

In the 100-member Senate, where 54 seats were to be filled, Democrats were assured of control with 54, including holdover members, and Republicans 39.

In the undecided races, Democrats led for five seats and Republicans for two. If no presidential ticket wins a majority of the electoral vote, the House elects a president and the Senate a vice president.

But the election in the House would be by states, with 26 votes needed for victory. The makeup, and in addition the disposition, of each state delegation are what would count.

13 STATES

Early estimates were that Humphrey might be able to count on 13 states with predominantly Democratic delegations, and Republican Richard M. Nixon on 15 dominated by members of his party.

Three state delegations were tied and the status of the others was clouded by various factors.

Some states were carried by third party candidate George C. Wallace and in others newly elected members had pledged themselves in various ways to vote for the candidate favored by popular vote, regardless of party.

In any case, switches among the electors, most of whom are legally free agents, could settle the election by Dec. 16, when they meet in their respective states.

NO DEALS

Wallace, who won at least 39 electoral votes, repeatedly has said the election would never be allowed to go to the House, although he has denied making any deals with the other candidates.

The 91st Congress, it was evident, will look much like its predecessor, although the GOP gains and the return of Southern Democrats who frequently vote with Republicans, would give it a somewhat more conservative cast.

Most party leaders and committee chairmen were returned. One long-familiar face will again be on the Senate scene—Barry Goldwater regained the Arizona seat he gave up four years ago to run for president on the Republican ticket.

North's direct raise to two no trump does not get our vote of approval. Holding a five card major suit and a worthless doubleton, he should first explore the possibilities of playing the hand in a heart contract.

North is not in position to bid hearts directly himself, for a jump to three hearts would show 10 points, whereas a bid of two hearts would designate a hand containing less than eight points. The recommended procedure is for North to bid two clubs which in our current methods announces at least eight points and requests the opening bidder to show a four card major suit. The two club bid is, of course, artificial and has nothing to do with the club suit.

If South's rebid is two diamonds, this call is also artificial and denies a biddable major suit. North is now at liberty to bid two hearts himself and await partner's reaction. With the actual holding, South would have shown his heart holding and the major suit game would have been reached routinely. Declarer would have experienced no difficulty in taking 10 tricks.

Altho nine top tricks appear to be available in no trump, South found it necessary to engage in some fancy footwork to uncover a roadblock which loomed up momentarily in his long suit.

West opened the six of diamonds, the four was played from dummy and, when East put in the ten, he was permitted to hold the trick. On the continuation, South was obliged to play the ace. Declarer cashed the queen of hearts and continued with a small heart to the king on which West showed out, discarding a club.

Declarer observed that, if he played North's ace of hearts next to drop East's jack, the following round of the suit would have to be taken in the closed hand, and there would be no way to ever reach the dummy again to cash the fifth heart.

He decided to enlist his opponent's assistance, to unravel the tangle. The jack of diamonds was led from dummy and South discarded the eight of hearts from his hand. West was able to cash out the defensive book in the diamond suit but, when declarer regained the lead, he was in position to overtake the nine of hearts with North's ace and run the rest of the suit.

Vatican Paper Implies Jackie 'Public Sinner'

VATICAN CITY (AP) — A Vatican publication said today that Jacqueline Kennedy's marriage to Aristotle Onassis did not excommunicate her from the Roman Catholic church but was "in effect a renunciation of her own faith."

The comment appeared in the weekly L'Osservatore della Domenica. It was the first comment on the wedding to appear in a Vatican publication and in essence repeated what the Vatican's chief press officer, Msgr. Fausto Vallainc, said earlier.

The paper did not mention Mrs. Onassis' name, but it obviously was talking about her.

The comment was in reply to a "reader" who asked: "Is it true that one of the principals in a recently publicized event has been excommunicated?"

"News that speaks of excommunication is not accurate," said the reply, explaining that since 1966 excommunication has not been a penalty in such cases.

"However, let there be no misunderstanding," the comment continued, "even if such a severe penalty has not been inflicted, the conduct of the Catholic party can not be honestly considered immune from ecclesiastical punishment as well as justified deploration. Contracting a marriage with a divorced man already linked by a previous marriage bond implies for the Catholic party the assumption of an attitude which is in effect a renunciation of her own faith."

TAKES HER RIFLE ALONG

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Mrs. Hunter Wallace of nearby Pinson said she had heard that "radicals" in some cities would attempt to keep voters away from the polls. So the 78-year-old woman took her rifle along when she went to vote.

Landlord Must Pay Damages

NEW YORK (AP) — For the first time, the State Division of Human Rights has ordered a landlord's wages garnished because he refused to rent an apartment to a Negro family.

A spokesman for the division said Monday that the landlord, Leo Zaccaro of Yonkers, would have to pay Mrs. Juanita Miller $600 for expenses she and her family incurred after he refused to rent them a four-room apartment in April, 1967, and later rented it to a white family.

The amount of damages granted to Mrs. Miller and her husband, Cornelius, was based on the difference over a two-year period between the rent of the apartment owned by Zaccaro and that of another apartment which Mrs. Miller later rented, the department said.

Agnew, Family Playing It Cool

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP) — As a gala victory celebration, but that was precluded by the closeness of the race.

"I do feel that trends are developing that are very helpful to the ticket, and I feel most optimistic," Agnew said.

The Maryland governor hosted a party early in the evening for his campaign staff and the airline crews that had crisscrossed the country with Agnew and his party during his 50,000-mile campaign.

At 9:30 p.m., Agnew and his family secluded themselves in the upper floor of the governor's mansion to watch the election results on television.

The governor was smiling and in an obviously good mood when he arrived at the hotel at 3:45 a.m.

There had been upwards of 700 persons on hand—some 400 of them who had paid $100 each for a fund-raising dinner when election results began to trickle in at 7 p.m.

75th Heart Transplant

HOUSTON (AP) — The world's 75th heart transplant recipient, a New York assemblyman, was listed in satisfactory condition today at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital.

Sidney Lebowitz, 50, of Queens, N.Y., received the heart of a 15-year-old traffic crash victim Tuesday.

The donor was identified by the Houston Chronicle as Jimmy Ricky Mulkey son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Mulkey of Houston. He suffered brain damage Monday when his motorcycle collided with a truck.

A hospital spokesman said the donor died about 9 a.m. Tuesday. The operation, requiring only 23 minutes to suture the transplanted heart, was completed at 10:30 a.m.

Lebowitz, admitted to the hospital Sept. 18, had suffered coronary artery disease, the spokesman said.

The transplant was the 22nd performed in Houston, including 13 at St. Luke's and nine at Methodist Hospital. Twelve of those recipients survive.

To be eligible for membership, a student must qualify in the scholastic top 10 per cent of his junior or senior class. Included is Roy Collins, senior of Big Spring.

Voters Also Express Wishes On Many State Referenda

WASHINGTON (AP) — Voters in five states have authorized spending a total of more than $2.5 billion on pollution control, veterans and education.

But a liquor-by-the-drink proposal failed in the face of strong Mormon opposition in semi-dry Utah. Nevada, where gambling is a major industry, rejected a private lottery. And Nebraska denied 19-year-olds the vote.

The issues highlighted local referenda that appeared on the ballots of three-fourths of the states Tuesday. Most were money issues.

The biggest financial proposal was in Illinois, where a measure providing $1 billion for air and water pollution control appeared headed for approval.

New Jersey approved its biggest money proposal in history — $990 million for education, low-cost housing and transportation.

Michigan's largest bond issue ever passed provides $335 million for a 10-year battle against water pollution.

Virginia Gov. Mills E. Godwin's $81 million bond issue for college and mental hospital construction—a formal break with pay-as-you-go financing for the first time this century—won overwhelming approval.

In Pennsylvania, a plan to give Vietnam war veterans cash bonuses of up to $750 won overwhelming approval. It was the first time the state's citizens voted on a servicemen's bonus during a war.

Arizonans, meanwhile, junked the state's tax exemption for veterans of World War II.

The Utah liquor referendum ended a hassle that stole campaign attention from Vietnam and the presidential race. The Mormon church, which considers drinking a sin, battled the measure's sponsors, who said the state needed over-the-bar liquor to attract tourists and conventions.

Nevada voters soundly rejected a constitutional amendment to permit a private lottery, which would have handed 30 per cent of the profits to the State.

Nebraskans rejected a proposed constitutional amendment to lower the voting age from 21 to 19.

Alabama voters apparently approved a constitutional amendment to allow the governor and seven other elected officials to succeed themselves.

Presidential candidate George C. Wallace had his wife succeed him as Alabama governor in 1966.

Weather Spree In Texas Kills, Sets Off Tornado

By The Associated Press
Texas weather cooperated with voters on election day but Tuesday night brought a violent spree that left one man dead and several injured by severe thunderstorms in Southeast Texas and along the Upper and Middle Texas Coast.

touched down about 8:30 p.m., uprooting trees and toppling utility poles.

No injuries were reported from the tornado.

Thunderstorm activity moved just ahead of a weak cool front which was moving out of state before dawn along a line from just east of Texarkana to near Beaumont and Corpus Christi. Briefly torrential rains caused local flooding in some areas. Victoria measured 1.23 inches of rain and Houston 1.13.

There was early morning fog in South Texas around Corpus Christi and Alice.

Temperatures near dawn ranged from 37 degrees at Daltart and 39 at Amarillo in the Panhandle up to 69 at Corpus Christi and Palacios on the coast.

Wallace Seemed Terribly Alone

By JULES LOH

Associated Press Writer

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — It began as a one man adventure and at the end George C. Wallace seemed terribly alone.

He sat in a beige leather chair opposite the large brick fireplace in his paneled den, almost oblivious to the few around him, and watched the results of his long ordeal flicker on the color television screen.

"I've got a good popular vote," he said. "It's all right. It's all right."

His youngest daughter, 7-year-old Lee, climbed in and out of his lap and finally napped on the floor between the folds of thick quilt, to be awakened when it was time to go to the huge coliseum where a disappointingly small crowd of faithful followers awaited him.

GOOD VOTE

Lee had fallen asleep after a pep talk. "Daddy," she said, "You try to get a lot of votes, now, because I do want to live in that White House."

"All right, darling," he assured her.

Occasionally, he bent to kiss her cheek or arrange the quilt on her shoulders. "I've got a good vote," he said. "Except my little girl can't understand..."

A Wallace, Lee was accustomed to landings. Another daughter, Peggy, sat on the couch with a boy friend and a college chum. They talked quietly among themselves.

for him. His running mate, Curtis E. LeMay, was waiting there too, and Wallace talked to him once by phone early in the evening.

At one point, a television commentator remarked that Wallace had "gone down to ignominious defeat." He made the remark when 17 per cent of the vote was in and Wallace's total was 3,436,000.

Wallace bristled. "A Deep Southerner getting that many votes," Wallace said, "is not ignominious."

He said it looked as though he would get 10 million votes in all. "I think ten million would be a mighty good vote," he said. "A third party movement from the Deep South—why that would be fantastic." Even more significant would be if Wallace's electoral votes were enough to deny either of the other candidates a majority. The possibility was mentioned by a television commentator and Wallace said: "I hope it does, I hope it does."

But Wallace refused to discuss what he would do in that eventuality. He said he would have a news conference some time Wednesday.

NOT OVER

He rarely revealed disappointment. "Maybe," he said at one point, "we should have concentrated more in the border states and the South—but we didn't want it to be a sectional movement."

At length, he could delay his trip to the Coliseum no longer. He asked his daughter to bring him two aspirin. Then, he clicked off the television and walked to his car.

His speech was brief. He introduced his family, his staff and his running mate and concluded: "The election is not over yet."

Election Not Over

Third party presidential candidate George Wallace tells supporters and newsmen Tuesday night that the "election is not over yet" as he closes his remarks on election night.

Where was everybody? Where were the shirt-sleeved aides and the close friends and the clutter of ash trays and glasses and coffee cups one expects to surround a candidate on election night?

"I guess I'm like most folks," Wallace shrugged. "I just like to watch the election results at home."

His staff was at a motel across from the arena, waiting

Governors Vote

This is how the governors' races shaped up as 7 a.m. EST, today. Republicans were elected in 11 states. Democrats were elected in eight states. Two states, Arkansas and Illinois were undecided, but Republicans led in both states.

Republicans Oust Demo Governors In Six States

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans ousted Democratic governors in six states Tuesday and increased to a minimum of 29 their majority of the nation's state houses.

Democrats snared Rhode Island and Montana from the GOP, but lost control in New Hampshire, Delaware, Indiana, Iowa, Vermont and West Virginia.

Of the 21 governorship contests, Republicans were assured of 11, Democrats of 8, and two races—Arkansas and Illinois—remained in doubt. Before Election Day Republicans held a 26 to 24 edge.

CARGO AHEAD

Governors winning re-election included Republicans Jack Williams of Arizona, David F. Cargo of New Mexico, Daniel J. Evans of Washington and Warren P. Knowles of Wisconsin; and Democrats Robert Docking of Kansas, Warren E. Hearnes of Missouri, William L. Guy of North Dakota and Calvin L. Rampton of Utah.

In Rhode Island, Democrat Frank Licht, a former state judge and legislator, defeated Republican Gov. John H. Chafee, who was trying for a fourth 2-year-term as governor. In Montana, Democratic Atty. Gen. Forrest H. Anderson frustrated the second-term bid of Gov. Tim Babcock, a Republican.

Delaware's Charles L. Terry Jr., a Democrat who at 68 was the nation's oldest governor, was defeated in his re-election bid by Republican Russell W. Peterson, a Du Pont Co. chemist and executive. Terry suffered a heart attack Oct. 9, his second.

TAX BACKER

had supported a proposed tax increase, but backed down on his statement when Whitcomb made an issue of it. Democratic Gov. Roger D. Branigin was barred by law from running for another term.

State finances also were the major issue in Iowa, where Republican Robert D. Ray, 40, defeated Democratic State Treasurer Paul Franzburg, 51. Ray retired as state Republican chairman to run for governor and charged that spending under the Democrats would place Iowa in the red. Democratic

District Sells Less Water

Water deliveries by the Colorado River Municipal Water District eased off slightly in October from a year ago, reports from Paschal Odum, assistant to the general manager, show.

The total for October was 959,967,332 gallons, 2.77 per cent less than for the same month last year.

The cities used 570,685,000 gallons, only 1.62 per cent off. Oil companies took 389,261,332 gallons, or 4.41 per cent less than October, 1967.

Municipal deliveries showed Odessa 290,010,000 gallons, down 12.78 per cent; Big Spring 219,639,000, up 9.50 per cent; Snyder 56,841,000, up 21.01 per cent; and Stanton, a new customer, 4,195,500 gallons.

For the first nine months of the year the district has delivered 10,381,874,612 gallons, or 5.88 per cent under the pace for the comparable period a year ago.

Gov. Harold E. Hughes ran for the Senate this time and won.

Vermont's governorship reverted to a Republican for the first time in six years with the victory of Deane C. Davis, 67-year-old board chairman of the National Life Insurance Co. Davis defeated Lt. Gov. John J. Daley, 45, a former mayor of Rutland. Gov. Philip J. Hoff, a Democrat, retired.

Republican Gov. Jack Williams won a second two-year term in Arizona beating off a comeback bid by Democrat Sam Goddard whom Williams ousted from the governorship in 1966.

In Kansas, Robert Docking became only the second Democrat in the state's history to win a second two-year term, defeating Rick Harman, a restaurant owner. Docking's father, George, was the first Democrat to repeat as governor.

SECOND TERM

In 1965, in his first year as Missouri's governor, Democrat Warren Hearnes pushed through a constitutional change to allow a second consecutive four-year term for the state's governors. Hearnes, 45, won that second term handily, defeating Republican Lawrence K. Roos, a 56-year-old banker and St. Louis County supervisor.

Gov. William L. Guy, a Democrat, won another four-year term in North Dakota over Robert P. McCarney, a Republican. McCarney had made state spending his issue and Guy countered by citing $18 million in appropriations he has turned back in six years.

In South Dakota, GOP state Atty. Gen. Frank Farrar succeeds Republican Gov. Nils A. Boe who was barred by state law from another term in office. Farrar defeated Robert Chamberlin, former state Democratic chairman,

Loss Of Four American Copters In Combat Told

SAIGON (AP) — Viet Cong and Navy fighter-bombers today blew out the three center spans of the biggest permanent bridge built by U.S. Army engineers in Vietnam, but the American Command said it expected traffic to be moving over a pontoon bridge by Thursday morning.

U.S. headquarters also announced the loss of four American helicopters in combat Monday and Tuesday, with one American killed and six wounded. Three of the choppers were shot down by enemy gunners along the jungle invasion routes northwest of Saigon. This raised to 914 the total of U.S. helicopters shot down during the war.

FROGMEN HIT

A military spokesman said frogmen apparently floated a massive charge beneath the heavily guarded 1,000-foot Phu Cuong Bridge just before dawn. About 180 feet of the bridge was blown out, but there was no report of casualties.

The bridge, 18 miles north of Saigon was one of the busiest in the nation, handling supply traffic for two U.S. divisions northwest of the capital.

Completed last June, the bridge was the pride of the U.S. Army engineers. It floated on piles driven almost 300 feet into the silt, and special protection against floating mines or frogmen was built around the piles.

AIR WAR

In the air war, U.S. Air Force and Navy fighter-bombers streaked to within two miles of the Cambodian border and set off a massive chain of explosions in a Communist ammunition dump filled with rockets and mortars, military spokesmen reported today.

More than 10 bombers attacked the ammunition dump Tuesday in retaliation for heavy enemy shelling of a U.S. 4th Division base in the central highlands four days ago.

Pilots reported at least 37 secondary explosions that touched off two huge fires and sent fireballs 8,000 feet into the air.

The strikes were 15 miles west of the town of Dak To.

Several ground clashes were reported across the country, but the lull in major sustained fighting continued in its fifth week.

FIGHTING

In the heaviest fighting reported, South Vietnamese rangers said they killed 79 Viet Cong in a day-long battle Tuesday in the Mekong Delta 64 miles southwest of Saigon. Nine rangers were killed and 30 wounded. The fight erupted when a government battalion made a helicopter assault landing and ran into an enemy force of unknown size.

U.S. Marines clashed twice with enemy forces during sweeping operations just south of Da Nang. Eight Marines and at least three of the enemy were killed and 10 Marines were wounded.

So far as could be learned there were no U.S.-Vietnamese conferences seeking to get President Nguyen Van Thieu to send a delegation to the postponed Paris peace talks. There also was no word of any high-level meeting among the South Vietnamese leaders, who apparently were waiting to see if Richard M. Nixon would be elected. The Vietnamese leaders think Nixon would support Thieu's refusal to attend a conference that gives the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front any more status than being part of North Vietnam's delegation.

The Paris peace talks had been scheduled to resume today with both the NLF and the Saigon government represented for the first time, but the United States postponed the meeting because of Thieu's refusal to send representatives.

Vet Flight Payments

Veterans taking flight training under the GI Bill will get Veterans Administration payments on a monthly basis starting in January, 1969.

Payments have been made quarterly in the past, but the long period between payments often caused a hardship for both the trainee and flight school operator.

The system of monthly payments is in line with most other payments for GI training. Veterans attending college on a full-time basis, for example, receive monthly payments of $130 paid, their eligibility for educational benefits is charged one month. The $130 rate applies regardless of marital status or number of dependents.

Thus an eligible veteran who takes $100 worth of flight training during one month receives $90 from VA; one who takes $1,000 worth of training receives $900.

Hussein, Guerrillas Agree; Government Lifts Curfew

AMMAN, Jordan (AP) — A two-day confrontation between King Hussein and rebellious Palestinian guerrillas appeared ended today and the government lifted the curfew on Amman.

Commando sources in Damascus reported Hussein and leaders of four commando groups in Jordan had reached an agreement. They said the guerrilla leaders telephoned the news from the royal palace in Amman, but there was no immediate confirmation from Jordanian officials.

The curfew was lifted at midnight Tuesday.

FIRE

Earlier Tuesday night machine-gun bursts sounded in scattered sections of the Jordanian capital, but they were believed to be warnings for curfew violators. A fire broke out near a refugee camp outside Amman and was believed set by dissident commandos.

Reports varied on the casualties in Monday's fighting between the Jordanian army and one of the guerrilla groups that uses Jordan as a base for raids into Israel. Some sources said 17 persons were killed and 40 were wounded, but some diplomatic sources said more than 25 were killed and about 70 were wounded on both sides.

PAID AGENTS

Jordanian authorities said earlier they had arrested the leaders of the Victory Phalanges, a splinter guerrilla group accused of starting Monday's fighting. The government accused the group of being paid agents of an unidentified foreign power whose aim was to stir up civil strife in Jordan rather than fight Israel. The foreign government was not identified.

In Jerusalem, meanwhile, Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol told Parliament that Israel will never agree to any peace settlement that permits an Arab army west of the Jordan River.

In the Arab sector of Jerusalem, striking shopkeepers reopened for business after the Israeli High Court instructed Defense Minister Moshe Dayan to show cause within 30 days why his military police had seized 15 struck Arab stores last Saturday. Dayan was forbidden to seize any more stores meanwhile.

The military government seized the stores in an effort to break an Arab general strike. Other Arab merchants kept their shops closed in sympathy until the High Court acted on their appeal, which was handled by an Israeli lawyer.

'That Old Black Magic' Singer Stabbed In Back

NEW YORK (AP) — Billy Daniels, the Negro singer who gained fame with his rendition of "That Old Black Magic," was stabbed in the back Tuesday night while performing at the Latin Quarter nightclub.

Police captured a man they identified as the assailant several minutes after the stabbing.

As 75 patrons looked on, police said, the man, also a Negro, rushed up on stage, forced Daniels to the side of the stage and stabbed him twice in the back with a switchblade knife.

Daniels, 62, was reported in satisfactory condition at Roosevelt Hospital where he remained overnight for observation.

Charged in the stabbing is Theodore Harmon, 42, of Manhattan. Police quoted him as saying Daniels "is a friend of mine and owes me money."

Police said that when they arrived at the nightclub several patrons crouched behind their chairs or held their chairs up to protect themselves.

The stabbing was not Daniels' first brush with violence.

In 1957, Daniels lost his New York City cabaret license in the aftermath of a 1955 shooting in a Harlem bottle club. Daniels pleaded guilty to criminally possessing a gun in connection with the shooting.

Threat To LBJ's Plan Spelled Out

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's plan to halt the bombing of North Vietnam and expand the Paris peace talks was threatened with indefinite delay and possible collapse last week when South Vietnam suddenly withdrew its agreement to the deal in a bid to change the terms.

The split between Washington and its South Vietnamese ally could have stalled the end of the bombing until after Tuesday's presidential election—and thus denied Democratic nominee Hubert H. Humphrey whatever political benefit he might have derived from it.

AT THE SEAMS

There has been some speculation here that President Nguyen Van Thieu was interested in putting off action until after the election to see whether he might get the terms he wanted if Republican Richard M. Nixon won.

Nixon himself, who has generally supported Johnson's efforts to negotiate an end to the bombing and advance the peace talks, said in an election eve television broadcast Monday night that "the negotiations came apart at the seams" when the Saigon government refused to participate in the talks.

Washington authorities had kept the split with South Vietnam secret. They finally disclosed details Tuesday after plans to start the expanded peace talks Wednesday collapsed. Thieu had refused to send a delegation to Paris.

His demands, which had been presented to Johnson through Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker in Saigon a week earlier, were also.

DEADLOCK

He wanted the United States to get an agreement from North Vietnam that it would deal directly with his delegation in Paris. He also wanted Hanoi to agree that a delegation of the South Vietnamese National Liberation Front (NLF) would participate in the talks only as a year of the North Vietnamese delegation.

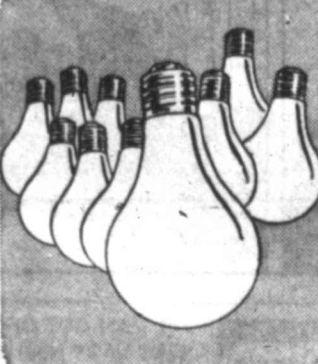

Johnson rejected these conditions on the ground that they would produce new counter-demands by Hanoi, upset the understanding he had already reached, and deadlock negotiations indefinitely.

The North Vietnamese had come to terms with him in a series of exchanges through negotiators in Paris on October 27th and 28th.

The final proposal to which they responded had been sent to them by Johnson about October 15. According to administration officials, President Thieu had approved that proposal before it was sent.

Thus on Monday, the 28th, the President felt he was ready to end the bombing. At his request U.S. Commander Gen. Creighton W. Abrams Jr. flew back from Saigon, arriving at the White House at 2:00 a.m. Tuesday, to give his personal approval and join in a final review of military arrangements.

But on Tuesday, Johnson got word that Thieu and his associates were backing out of the agreement.

They declined to go through with plans to issue a joint communique with the United States on the bombing halt. Bunker asked for time to try to resolve the crisis.

GO AHEAD

Informants say that Johnson delayed his action on the bombing halt at least 24 hours. He would have acted sometime last Wednesday instead of Thursday night had the split not developed.

But new assurances offered to Thieu through Bunker that the United States intended no recognition of the Liberation Front and was not moving toward a coalition government in Saigon were unavailing.

Johnson then decided to go ahead in spite of his knowledge that the South Vietnamese would not cooperate.

When he made his Thursday night announcement he said the South Vietnamese government was "free" to send representatives to the Paris talks and that he expected the NLF would do so.

Administration officials, briefing newsmen on the negotiations which preceded Johnson's decision, played down the importance of what they called procedural questions still to be settled in connection with bringing Saigon and the NLF into the Paris sessions. They gave no indication of serious differences with Thieu over his conditions for entering the talks.

Hagins Warns Eagles Developing Muscle

COAHOMA — For a team that lost three of its first four starts, Seagraves has come a long way in the Class A football wars and poses a major threat to Coahoma's legions Friday night. So says coach Bernie Hagins of the Bulldogs.

The two teams clash in the biggest Class A contest in the area in Coahoma Friday night. Kickoff time is 7:30 p.m.

Hagins said that the Eagles boast a line averaging 184 pounds per man and a 185-pound, 6-3 quarterback named Bill Flemmons who expertly handles the club.

Raider Star Singled Out

NEW YORK (AP) — Daryle Lamonica passed for 352 yards in less than three quarters against Kansas City Sunday, completing 18 of 32 passes, tossed for two touchdowns and ran for another himself before he was forced out of the game by a knee injury.

"I was real disappointed when I had to leave," the Oakland quarterback said. "I had my sights set on a lot more completions."

Still, the Raiders easily whipped the Chiefs 39-21, and for his performance, Lamonica was named the American Football League's offensive player of the week by The Associated Press today.

The victory moved Oakland to within one-half game of the Western Division-leading Chiefs.

McLain Adds MVP Award To Laurels

DETROIT (AP)—Denny McLain has probably said, "This is the greatest thing that ever happened to me," about a half dozen times this year.

But Tuesday, the often brash Tiger pitcher received what is perhaps the ultimate honor in baseball. He was unanimously named Most Valuable Player in the American League.

"This is the greatest honor I have ever had bestowed on me," he said. "I seriously didn't think I would get it."

The 24-year-old right-hander is still negotiating his 1969 contract with Tiger management and he reportedly is seeking a salary of up to $100,000. How would the MVP award affect his contract talks?

"I don't think it will hurt it,"

Morris Still Top Rusher

By The Associated Press

College football this season is producing some of the highest scoring in years, and the reason is not strictly due to the forward pass.

If anything, the 1968 college campaign probably will go down in the books as the year of the rushers—the fellows who move the ball on the ground.

It's almost certain that at least 16 players—compared with the 1967 record of 10—will finish the season with more than 1,000 yards rushing.

The country's leading ground gainer among major colleges is Gene Morris of West Texas State, who has piled up 1,199 yards in eight games. His closest challenger is O. J. Simpson of Southern California, who picked up 67 against Oregon last week for a total of 1,047 in six games.

SAYS BILL CURRY

Abilene A 'Team With A Future'

Abilene High, next football foe of the Big Spring Steers, was described as a team with good potential "building for the future" by scout Bill Curry at Tuesday night's meeting of the Quarterback Club.

The turnout of fans was good, considering the fact that many stayed away to watch election results.

The Eagles, who down through the years have held a whammy on Big Spring, are playing several sophomores, Curry said. The War Birds boast a small but quick quarterback in Mike Walsh who runs the option play well and throws well with a good delivery.

Workhorse of the Abilene offense is Dan Cobb, who has good speed and is a good blocker.

ACE QB Mike Walsh

Hard-running Robert Hill, a 175-pounder, is the right half-back for the Eagles. He also boasts good speed, as does Richard Levels, the 160-pound left halfback. Levels takes the option pitch real well, according to Curry, and is more than an adequate blocker.

Big Spring has not beaten Abilene two straight years since 1939-40. The locals won last year, 25-20, in Abilene.

Coach Spike Dykes said the injury outlook for the Longhorns hadn't improved very much. He mentioned that end Luven Flores will probably miss the contest due to injuries sustained in the Midland game last week. Dykes said he was immensely proud of the manner in which the Steers fought back to win over the Bulldogs. The community, he added, should also take great pride in the ability of the JV team, which last week blasted the Midland JV's by a score of 53-0.

Fans attending last night's session got a double treat — watching films of both the variety's comeback JV over Midland and the JV rout of their Midland counterparts.

QBC co-captain Ike Robb presided at the session.

City-Wide Handball Meet Scheduled This Month

A YMCA city-wide handball tournament will be staged here the weekends of Nov. 15-16 and Nov. 22-23, Eddie Trice of the Y staff has announced.

Singles play will be staged the first weekend, with play beginning at 6 p.m. Nov. 15.

Competition will be staged in the A, B and C divisions in a single-elimination style meet.

Trophies will be awarded to the winner and runner-up in each division. Entry fee will be $1 per person and the deadline for admission is Nov. 13.

Play will begin in doubles at 6 p.m. Nov. 22, with activity due in Open and B divisions. Trophies are in the offing to winners and runners-up in each division. Deadline for entry in that class is Nov. 20 and two defeats will be required to eliminate a team.

Entry fee will be $1 per player in doubles play, also.

For other details, interested persons can call Eddie Trice at the Y.

AFL Teams Are Running More

NEW YORK (AP) — American Football League teams are running more and passing less, statistics showed today.

While the number of plays by both teams in a game has remained just about the same as last year, 125, the percentage of running plays has gone up from 46.7 to 51.8. In other words, teams generally are using more running than passing plays.

The strongest team against the rush is the New York Jets, who have limited their opponents to 71.8 yards a game. Houston, which plays in New York Sunday, has the stingiest pass defense, allowing 116.2 yards a game.

GOP Whittles, But Demos Keep Majority In Senate

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Veteran senators from Oklahoma and Pennsylvania were toppled Tuesday as Republicans whittled down—but failed to overcome—the Democrats' substantial majority.

Republican Barry Goldwater of Arizona, whose crushing 1964 presidential defeat helped maintain the Democrats' powerful congressional control, returned easily to the Senate.

NET GAIN
Goldwater's victory Tuesday, combined with defeat of Democratic Sens. Joseph S. Clark in Pennsylvania and A. S. (Mike) Monroney of Oklahoma, highlighted a GOP net gain of at least four seats.

Incomplete returns indicated Democrats would hold 58 or 59 seats in the new Senate, and Republicans 42 or 41. Democrats held a 63 to 37 majority in the last Congress.

Republicans, besides taking over Democratic seats in Arizona, Oklahoma and Pennsylvania, took away seats in Florida and Maryland. Republicans threatened Democratic seats in Alaska, Ohio, and Oregon.

OKLAHOMA
Monroney, three-term veteran and chairman of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee and a longtime champion of congressional reform, was defeated by Henry Bellmon, Oklahoma's first Republican governor. The capture 14 seats from the Democrats to clinch control of the Senate, but no sweep of that size developed.

Another Democratic senator who failed to win re-election was Daniel B. Brewster of Maryland.

HAWKS WON
But leading hawks like Goldwater and Rep. Edward Gurney won Senate seats for the Republicans.

Among the Democratic incumbents who won re-election were Warren G. Magnuson of Washington, Alan Bible of Nevada, Abraham A. Ribicoff of Connecticut, Birch Bayh of Indiana, Daniel K. Inouye of Hawaii, Herman E. Talmadge of Georgia, Russell Long of Louisiana, Sam J. Ervin Jr. of North Carolina, and Ernest F. Hollings of South Carolina.

NEW TERMS
Republican senators elected for new terms included George D. Aiken of Vermont, Peter H. Dominick of Colorado, Norris Cotton of New Hampshire, Jacob K. Javits of New York, Milton R. Young of North Dakota, and Wallace F. Bennett of Utah.

Not Sure
Republican Vice President candidate Spiro T. Agnew talks to campaign workers at his headquarters and said the returns were too close to declare victory at 3:30 a.m. today.

Closer Race Than Nixon Expected

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon, described as maintaining "cheerful confidence," was acknowledged by aides early today as finding the presidential race closer than expected—perhaps because of the Vietnam bombing halt.

Herbert G. Klein, director of communications for the Republican presidential candidate, said the contest with Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey was tighter than anticipated and asserted, "the bombing halt, I think, played a role."

But Klein said the possibility that Nixon would wind up throwing his support to Humphrey in the House was academic. He predicted the GOP nominee would emerge as the popular vote favorite.

Recalling the 1960 election that Nixon narrowly lost to John F. Kennedy, Klein had this to say about the election night 1968: "Dick Nixon feels a lot better (than 8 years ago) and his family is very excited about it."

Still receiving returns at about 5 a.m. EST, Nixon passed word to newsmen that there would be no further word from his camp until 10 a.m.

Scientific Research Aids Skin Problems

Blackheads, Whiteheads literally wipe off

Control and Medicate Acne in Three Easy Steps

Through the growing up years something inexorable seems to happen. Most of us lose that beautiful freshness; that glow of baby skin complexion. Scientists have long known that underlying every person's skin is a remarkable, fresh, new skin. But, by the time this new skin reaches the surface, it has already been 'badly contaminated'—in part by air-borne soot, dirt and grease penetrations and old skin infections—that even the new skin seems no different than the old.

All the old troubles are still there, and sometimes new ones are added. The blackheads, the pimples, the acne, the oily spots seem rooted through every one of the so-called seven layers of skin.

Research's Answer to Skin Problems
Now Duvaline presents a new formula that may unlock many of the barriers to a beautiful new complexion—without surgery—or great cost. The Duvaline treatment is research's answer to skin problems that may have plagued you since childhood. With a remarkable new series of skin control aids, Duvaline chemists have formulated three mutually complementary medicated skin and beauty treatments. Each one has been compounded to tackle and treat a specific level and range of common skin problems.

Follow This Simple 3-Step Treatment To A Cleaner, Clearer, Healthier Skin...

- STEP 1 Apply the Duvaline Beauty Masque to your face by patting it on with your fingers. As the compounded ingredients go to work on your skin you'll begin to feel a tingling and drawing sensation. This gentle stimulation process loosens blackheads and other pore impurities, simultaneously penetrating every pore and preparing the skin for Step 2. Allow to harden.
- STEP 2 Wash off the masque with lukewarm water. Now take a cotton pad and lightly saturate it with Duvaline Medicated Control Liquid. Gently massage the liquid on the skin's surface. The Medicated Duvaline Liquid deeply penetrates every pore and begins an action designed to alleviate the more serious conditions that cause blackheads, whiteheads and acne. It serves as a tone-up and brace for Step 3.
- STEP 3 Apply the flesh-colored Duvaline Medicated Skin Control Creme. It's the final treatment to apply before going to bed at night and also should be applied each morning. Its flesh-color will not be noticed on men, and women can wear it under make-up, thus assuring continuous treatment day and night.

COMPLETE SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
If you don't have a fresher, newer looking complexion after using the 45 treatments contained in the Duvaline kit, your money will be refunded.
