Snowfall Almost A Record

Hubert May Get A Job

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Sen. Vance Hartke said Thursday he expects President-elect Richard M. Nixon to offer Hubert H. Humphrey a high position in his administration.

"My guess would be that it would be the ambassadorship to the United Nations," Hartke said. He would not say whether he felt the vice president would accept.

The Hoosier Democrat said he believes Nixon will surprise many persons by proposing a budget and program more liberal than they expect. He said that instead of President Johnson's consensus approach to Congress, Nixon will strive for a coalition approach by seeking to name Democrats to a large number of important posts.

Hartke said he doesn't think New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller will become a member of the Nixon administration but his brother, David, might.

"The ball bounces funny sometimes," Hartke said.

Texas Votes Still Out

DALLAS (AP) — Returns from only 16 boxes over the state remain uncounted in Tuesday's voting, the Texas Election Bureau reported today.

With figures complete from all but four of the 254 counties, its totals showed Vice President Hubert Humphrey maintained a lead of 42,194 votes in the presidential race.

With a total of 3,050,926 votes counted, the latest totals included:
President — Humphrey 1,257,964 and 41.3 per cent, Richard Nixon 1,215,770 and 39.8 per cent, and George Wallace 577,282 and 18.9 per cent.

Governor — Preston Smith 1,659,932 and 57.3 per cent, and Paul Eggers 1,236,303.

Morse Appears Loser

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — A recount demand seemed likely today as Sen. Wayne Morse appeared to be the loser by nearly 3,500 votes in his quest for a fifth Senate term.

Robert Packwood, 36, Portland Republican who would be the Senate's youngest member if his vote margin holds up through the final counting, made no victory claim but an aide said, "He is assuming victory."

When counting boards quit work Thursday night an estimated 6,000 votes were still uncounted in five counties. In one of these, Wayne Morse was getting 54.8 per cent of the absentee votes. It was these which forced the tallying into the third day beyond Tuesday's election. Morse was getting 56.1 per cent of the absentees in Multnomah County.

These percentages were far too small to give him hope of overtaking Packwood, although the mathematical chance was still there.

Morse has not been available to the press — usual for him until final results are known — but the feeling is so general that he will demand a recount that Secretary of State Clay Myers ordered special protection for the ballots in all counties.

Packwood had 403,756 votes to Morse's 400,257, an edge of little more than four-tenths of 1 per cent of the votes cast.

SNOW

Continued hazardous driving warnings tonight and Saturday morning. Rain and snow tonight; cloudy with rain ending late Saturday. High today near 46; low tonight 30; high Saturday near 50.

Wide Swath Cut By Early Storm

By The Associated Press

An early fall snowstorm struck Texas Friday from the New Mexico line deep into North Central Texas — hitting Fort Worth and Dallas.

The Dallas snow was in the form of big, wet flakes that melted almost before they hit the ground.

Travelers warnings were issued for the Lubbock and Midland sections.

FOUR INCHES
The Texas Highway Department said as much as four inches of snow had fallen in the Abilene area and called driving conditions "very hazardous."

The department said up to four inches of snow were being removed with machinery in Callahan, Taylor, Nolan, Mitchell and Howard counties.

Two to three inches of snow fell in Shackelford, Jones, Fisher and Scurry counties, the department said.

The Weather Bureau at Midland issued a midmorning warning to travelers in some West Texas areas, blaming the danger on visibility as much as slick highways.

The Texas Highway Department reported snow began to pack on highways and streets in the Abilene district.

The department said there was a double hazard—the snow and the oil on the streets and highways which had accumulated during the long dry spell. The mixture of oil and moisture creates a dangerously slick scum.

The snow in the Fort Worth area was not expected to stick to the ground. Temperatures were in the 40s.

It was not the earliest snow of record for Fort Worth, which had snow Oct. 28, 1925. Abilene's earliest snow of record was Nov. 7, 1938.

The moisture in Abilene began as rain at 4 a.m. and then to snow by 7 a.m. The ground became white by 10 a.m.

Two persons suffered minor injuries when a school bus and a pickup truck collided at View, 15 miles south of Abilene. There were no children on the bus.

The Weather Bureau warning to travelers covered the counties of Borden, Howard, Winkler, Ector, Midland, Glasscock and somewhat to the south.

Snowflakes as big as silver dollars fell at Brownwood and a strong wind blew. North of there at Lake Brownwood the snow was particularly heavy.

The weight of the snow broke pecan tree branches in the Brownwood section.

The heaviest snow appeared to be in the Abilene-Snyder area and west in a fan-shaped area to the New Mexico line.

Snyder reported that the snow melted so fast that gutters were filled with water but the flakes fell so heavily that an inch to two inches accumulated on the ground and rooftops.

Temperatures were around 35 to 36 degrees in Snyder at the time. The snow began there about 9 p.m. Thursday and driving at night with headlights striking the snowflakes was difficult.

HUGE FLAKES

Huge snowflakes began falling at Abilene well before dawn and continued to pour down. Forecasters said up to three inches of snow could fall there.

ASSAULTS, RAPES

Girls Want Campus Security

DETROIT (AP) — About 200 resident women students carrying placards and signs staged a quiet sit-in at the University of Detroit Thursday demanding better campus security.

Students said the demonstration was prompted by a recent rash of assaults and attempted rapes on nine. "We can't walk to our classes alone. It's dangerous to go out even in twos or threes after the sun goes down."

The latest incident was Tuesday night, when a 25-year-old evening student was attacked and stabbed in a parking lot.

Some of the signs carried by the coeds in the demonstration read: "Security blankets aren't enough," and "I'm too young to be a shut-in."

Men's Dormitories Opened To Women

NEW YORK (AP) — Columbia College men now may entertain women at any hour in their dormitory rooms.

The new policy, voted Wednesday night by the Undergraduate Dormitory Council, makes Columbia the only Ivy League college without restrictions on visiting hours.

Dean Carl F. Hovde commented, "There is, after all, nothing people can do at one time they cannot do at another."

Thousands Of Czech Anti-Soviets Stage Riots

PRAGUE (AP) — Thousands of anti-Soviet demonstrators marched through Prague Thursday night, shouting "Russians go home" and burning Soviet flags in the biggest demonstrations since the Russian invasion in August.

Large numbers of Czechoslovak troops and police, under orders to crack down hard on the demonstrators, used water cannon, tear gas and clubs to break up the rioting.

KNOCKED DOWN
Many persons were knocked down by police clubs, and many appeared to have been arrested. Ambulances carried away unknown numbers of wounded.

The six hours of rioting climaxed a tense, uneasy observance of the 51st anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution, normally a day dedicated to Czechoslovak-Soviet friendship.

The tough police reaction contrasted sharply with the lenient manner in which anti-Soviet demonstrations were handled on Oct. 28, the 50th birthday of the Czechoslovak republic. Local leaders apparently were afraid that unchecked demonstrations would bring Soviet tanks rolling back into Prague.

Earlier, during a wreath-laying ceremony honoring Soviet soldiers killed during World War II, hard-line opponents of Czechoslovakia's liberal Communist party leader, Alexander Dubcek, grabbed him and shouted, "We're for the Soviet Union!"

Dubcek, who was with Premier Oldrich Cernik, managed a smile as several persons in the crowd shook their fists at the two leaders and shouted pro-Soviet slogans.

But in contrast to the thousands of anti-Soviets who turned out Thursday night, only about 500 pro-Soviets attended the memorial ceremony.

The first signs of anti-Soviet trouble in Prague occurred before dawn Thursday when Soviet flags, raised on public buildings during the night, were torn down.

DISPERSE
Police moved in during the morning to disperse several hundred persons who massed in front of the Foreign Trade Administration building and chanted, "Tear it down! Tear it down!" until custodians removed two large Hammer and Sickle flags hung from the building.

APPOINTMENTS APPROACHED WITH CAUTION

Nixon, LBJ Meeting Expected Soon

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) — Plans for an early meeting of President-elect Richard M. Nixon and President Johnson are expected to be announced in the next few days.

AGNEW MEETING
Nixon, it was learned today, also plans an early conference with his campaign running mate, Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland. Agnew might join Nixon for the session with Johnson.

Nothing has been said about a reunion of Nixon and Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, the Democrat he narrowly defeated in Tuesday's balloting, but it's expected they'll get together top talent for his administration, but as one aide put it, "he hasn't started tracking yet" on specific names for specific positions.

The President-elect is considering how to maintain liaison with the Budget Bureau, which will fashion a federal spending program.

BUDGET
Johnson will present a new budget to Congress before Nixon's inauguration. One member of the Nixon camp summed up the situation that will face the new President, "You can't come in with the meat ax and start cutting," thus it becomes doubly important for him to be in on the budgetmaking process.

The current debate here is whether to name a task force of perhaps three experts to represent Nixon at the Budget Bureau; to give the assignment to a single individual—such as Eisenhower's last budget director, Maurice Stans—who wants no future federal appointment, or to name a liaison man who ultimately would be Nixon's budget chief.

The whole subject of appointments is being approached with apparent caution by Nixon because, it is said, he believes this may be the first way in which he can help unify the country.

Nixon has talked often about incorporating Democrats into

Kidnaper Collects Ransom, Child Safe

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — A man kidnaped the 11-year-old daughter of a bank president by locking her in her room Thursday and threatened her harm until he collected a $50,000 ransom. He was hunted today by police and the FBI.

PAID RANSOM
Police Chief William K. Davenport said Mrs. A. D. MacDonell Jr., wife of the president of the Metropolitan Bank of Lima, paid the ransom and found her daughter Amy unharmed at home, police said.

Mrs. MacDonell told police she encountered the man, wearing green overalls, knitted cap, penciled-on mustache and sunglasses when she returned home Thursday morning after taking her son to school.

She said the man told her he had locked her daughter in an upstairs bedroom and threatened to harm the child if Mrs. MacDonell did not give him $50,000.

Davenport quoted Mrs. MacDonell as saying the man instructed her to cash a $50,000 check at a nearby branch of the Metropolitan Bank, then wait there for a phone call.

She told police she followed the man's instructions, and when he called she was told to borrow a bank employee's white convertible and drive back home.

Police said the man flagged her down about two blocks from her home, took the car and the money and told her to walk home.

Mrs. MacDonell said she found her daughter at home, unharmed.

Police and FBI officials put out an alert for a man about 36 years old and 5 feet, 9 inches tall.

FOUND LATER
The borrowed car was found later near where it reportedly had been taken, with its engine still running.

Lawrence Huffman, assistant prosecutor, said that although the child had not been taken from the house, on the basis of Mrs. MacDonell's statement a kidnaping had taken place.

UF Campaign Is Still Short

As the final day of the United Fund Drive here drew to a close, $92,239.76 was reported in the treasury, but the $100,225 goal was only 84.4 per cent complete.

Small gifts and employee contributions from Skelly Oil Co., Coahoma schools, and Sears, moved the total up more than two per cent over the Thursday figure.

A large number of employes gifts are yet to be received, according to Mrs. Alyce Butler, United Fund executive secretary. A mop-up drive to complete the campaign will begin Monday, she said.

h1 team of appointees. One would fulfill the promise, "We won't have just a token Democrat."

In the same sense, the source said, the problem of giving Negroes a voice in the Nixon administration would not be handled with "flamboyant gestures of tokenism."

INVITATIONS
Ron Ziegler, traveling press secretary, said Nixon had a number of invitations to visit government heads in Western Europe. Other sources said that some of these European leaders might find it convenient to visit New York—and Nixon—before inauguration day.

Golf House Bids Rejected, Three Contracts Extended

In a special meeting Thursday night the city commission cleared the table of a 12 item agenda so that city officials could be in Dallas next week for the Texas Municipal League meeting Nov. 10-12. The regular meeting night for the commission is next Tuesday.

Commissioners rejected bids for a new golf course club house and called for new bids, extended three contracts, approved appointment of a new city attorney, approved downtown Christmas lighting, set Nov. 26 as the date for a public hearing for a tax franchise request, and passed a resolution commending local merchants on restricting glue sales.

The commissioners voted to allow the chamber of commerce to plug the downtown Christmas decoration lights into the city's traffic signal lines. It will cost the city from $300 to $400, Larry Crow, city manager, said.

When the commission approved Crow's appointment of Herbert Prouty as the new city attorney, George Zachariah pointed out that the city commission sets salaries of city appointees, and he recalled no meeting in which it had been set for the new attorney.

"I went by the figure authorized by the commission in the annual budget," Crow said. Prouty will be paid $7,200 a year plus receive a commission on the back taxes he collects for the city.

Contracts with J. D. Jones Construction Co., for the new water plant clear well, and Secode Equipment Co., for control equipment at the water plant, were extended 60 days at the request of the contractors. Neither of the extensions will effect the city's ability to supply water, Lillard said.

Zachariah made the motion to extend the Jones contract, with the positive stipulation that there would be no more extensions.

Larry Smith, administrative assistant, said the Department of Labor wanted to extend the Neighborhood Youth Corps contract with the city until Jan. 4.

"The Dallas office is understaffed and can't prepare the contracts for another 60 days," he said. "By then, they will give us a contract to cover from January to July." Future contracts will be made in July, he said. The city will get $12,000 to carry on the program 60 days.

Both bids for the golf course were rejected, and new bids will be asked.

John Gary, architect, said that several other companies are interested in bidding on the club house, but there were no guarantees that the new bids will be any lower.

"Prices are going up so fast, we can't make a guess as to what they are going to be tomorrow," Gary said. Zachariah made the motion that the bids be rejected and the new bids be opened at 10 a.m. Nov. 26. It was approved.

Nov. 26 was set as the date for a public hearing for Jack E. Becker's request for a tax franchise.

Commissioners approved a resolution commending local merchants on their self-regulation of sales of model glue that is used in glue sniffing and limiting the sales of the glue for bona fide purposes.

In other business, Morehead asked what happened to the study of installing a night depository for water bills.

"I don't believe we would get enough business to warrant it, and besides the new accounting system will send out return envelopes with the bills," Zachariah said.

Crow said that the new city master plan was not completed yet, but the new zoning ordinance should be ready in the next few weeks according to a report he received from Marvin Springer, consultant.

Morehead asked about progress on the plans to include the areas in the city without sewer service on the city sewer system. Lillard said that plans would be ready in the next few weeks.

New Truck To Replace Wrecked One; No Bids

City commissioners decided to buy a new Ford truck, without calling for bids, during a special meeting Thursday night. The truck will replace the traffic signal truck, which was wrecked when it rolled down an embankment on FM 700 in October.

Ernest Lillard, director of public works, said although the price of a new truck and repairing the wrecked one were almost the same, he recommended a new truck. However, he pointed out that the new truck would have to be a Ford because the boom equipment was designed for a 1 1/2 ton Ford truck.

"If we get a different type of truck, we would have to buy a new hydraulic pump," he said. "When we got the old truck, we told the boom manufacturers exactly what kind of truck we would mount it on. We had the same problem with the new garbage trucks."

Mayor Arnold Marshall asked if an adaptor unit could be fitted to the gear housing of another make of truck. Lillard said he did not know, but the wrecked truck had a square shaped gear housing which no other truck had.

Marshall asked G. C. Broughton, local International truck dealer who was sitting in the audience, what he would recommend.

"If you give us the specifications, we can build you any kind of truck you want," Broughton said. However, he recommended that under the circumstances the city should buy a Ford truck.

Commissioner Walter Stroup asked if the city could buy the truck without advertising for bids. Larry Crow, city manager, said the $2,778, minus the $750 salvage for the old truck, is $2,028 over the $2,000 minimum that requires calling for bids, but that since this was one-of-a-kind item, the commission could buy it without bids.

Commissioner Jimmy Morehead asked what happened to the study on insuring city vehicles. Roy Anderson, assistant city manager, said that 97 pieces of city equipment have liability insurance, but the cost of insuring the heavy equipment for collision would be prohibitive.

Lillard said the traffic signal truck mishap was the most expensive city-vehicle wreck in memory. "Most of our vehicle wrecks are under the amount covered by $100 deductible insurance," he said.

In another matter, Broughton, representing Broughton Truck and Implement Co., asked the commission to pay his company $250 for the 11 weeks they used a truck that was to have been given him as a trade-in for a truck he sold the city. Allowing one week to change equipment from the trade-in, he asked $25 a week for the city using the truck after he had made delivery of the new truck.

Crow pointed out that the truck Broughton sold the city was not the replacement for the trade-in truck, and that the replacement truck did not arrive from another dealer when expected.

Morehead said that the city should adopt a policy of an item-for-an-item bid in which trade-ins were for the replacement item.

Commissioner George Zachariah said he did not like to pay the amount, but felt the city was obligated to pay it. His motion was approved.

He Missed Articles On Amendments

To the Editor:

I was quite disappointed in the Herald's coverage of the proposed amendments for this last election. I have not had the privilege of voting in many elections in the past for the simple reason that I am only 23 years old. However, it seemed to me that the proposed amendments to our Texas constitution should be of vital interest to all Texans, and I do not feel that the issues were fully explained to the voters. Quite frankly, on the amendments issues, if I could not determine exactly what the meaning of the proposed amendment was, I voted against it. Consequently, I very probably voted against some that were very beneficial and voted for some that I would have voted against had I understood them. I do not know what kind of snafu the Herald has, but surely there is someone that could dig up the facts on each issue and present them to the Herald's readers so that they may know exactly what they are voting for and against.

Thank you,

Bank Manager Shot, Killed By Patrolman

CINNAMINSON, N.J. (AP) — A bank manager was accidentally shot and killed Thursday by a patrolman as officers thwarted an armed bank robbery, police said.

Thomas Adams, police chief of this small Burlington County community five miles from Philadelphia, said that one of his men fired a shotgun blast at Douglas C. Tyler of Cinnaminson as he ran handcuffed out of the Colonial Branch of the Garden State Trust Co. after police surrounded it.

SILENT ALARM
Tyler, the bank manager, who turned 27 Thursday, died an hour later of a abdominal wound.

Shortly after the shooting, three Philadelphia men surrendered inside the bank and were arrested, Adams said.

Adams gave this account: Police were sent to the bank after a silent alarm was triggered at their headquarters by a bank employee who became suspicious when three men entered wearing trenchcoats and glasses—two of them also wearing what proved to be false moustaches.

Four policemen, arriving at the bank, saw through a drive-in deposit window what appeared to be a robbery in progress. They stationed themselves at the bank entrances as the bandits pulled automatics and herded 10 employees, including Tyler, to the rear of the bank, where they were handcuffed.

One man tried twice to run out the door, but turned back when he saw police. Then Tyler, handcuffed, ran from the bank in a crouch, and failed to respond to a patrolman's order to stop and identify himself, Adams said.

The patrolman, John Obuchowski, 25, Cinnaminson, fired at Tyler, Adams said.

'Cactus Flower' Showing Tuesday

Curtain will be going up on the Big Spring Concert Association's 1968-69 season Tuesday. A dazzling series of four major attractions is in the offing with "Cactus Flower," the sprightly Broadway comedy, launching the season Nov. 12 in the Municipal Auditorium. The vehicle teams Jeannie Carson and Biff McGuire.

The Concert Association's entertainment package for the season also includes the San Antonio Symphony Orchestra, Dec. 16; the Pennsylvania Ballet, Feb. 3; and the Paul Winter Contemporary Consort, March 28. No single performance admissions will be sold. Contact Mrs. Ralph W. Caton now, 267-2301, for your season tickets, or send a check to her at 619 Colgate. Tickets are $10 for adults, $4 for students.

Miss Carson and Biff McGuire first met when they appeared together in "Finian's Rainbow," and their stage romance ripened into a real-life one. She is British by birth and comes from a long line of actors and singers. She was on stage at three and made her debut in London at 18. Brought to America by Max Liebman, she scored quickly in her own television show, "Hey, Jeannie," for which she won the best-juvenile award. She has been in numerous plays and musicals, including "Sound of Music" and "Camelot."

McGuire similarly has a long record of successes to his credit, including "South Pacific," "Miss Liberty," "The Egghead," and "Camelot," the first time he was on tour with his wife.

"Cactus Flower" has had a long run on Broadway. It is the saucy account of what happens when a young dentist appeals to his "cactus flower" receptionist to bail him out of entanglements.

DONATIONS TO HELP VETERANS

Saturday Is Poppy Day Here

Saturday is Poppy Day in Big Spring.

"Poppies are for honoring the dead and remembering the living." Mayor Arnold Marshall said in proclaiming this special day which will see the American Legion Auxiliary offering these red memorial flowers.

All donations collected from this effort will be used to continue to help veterans and their dependents in many fields.

Disabled veterans in Veterans Administration hospitals, make these flowers which are distributed annually by the Legion Auxiliaries. Net proceeds locally go to bring comfort to and supply needs of patients in the VA hospital here; to supply scholarships to veteran dependents who need assistance.

Mrs. Halvard Hansen is chairman of the Poppy Day sale and has enlisted a corps of volunteers to offer these to the public Saturday. Gifts in any amount will be gratefully received, she said.

A large per cent of the poppy funds is put to work daily at the VA hospital, where Mrs. Zeldia Rea is hospital representative for the auxiliary. This year $1,551 has been spent for purchase of comfort items for patients. In addition, 1,673 hours of work at the hospital were given by month, and 14 chaplain's coffee hours. Every Monday the auxiliary Comfort Wagon visits carrying toilet items, stamps, stationary, candy, gum, and many other small items. Patients can choose what they want at no cost to them. Monthly bingo parties are held and patients are given cash awards and refreshments. Once and sometimes twice a month the auxiliary furnishes refreshments for the Chaplain's Coffee Hour.

During the past year, 550 volunteer workers contributed 469 hours to the gift shop, which was operated at a cost of $1,466. The shop is stocked with donated gifts, which veterans may select and have mailed home at no cost to them. Items are given and the auxiliary picks up the postage tab. Just before Christmas, Legion and Auxiliary members visit each patient and hand them a Christmas card with a new dollar bill in it. Scholarship ($200) were given to veteran dependents in vocational nursing at HCJC.

Clothing is furnished nursing home patients who have no families. Also articles are furnished to residents in the community, whether veteran connected or not, to care for sick, furnish crutches, hospital beds, wheel chairs, etc.

How to choose a mate, or, will the computer ever take the place of old-fashioned chemistry?

Professor I. B. Emovich of the famous Compute-A-Mate Clinic says, "The computer is like having the marriage made in heaven." Well, it's probably a perfectly acceptable method of choosing a mate, providing you fall in love with the card of your dreams. If, however, you'd prefer to take destiny in your own hands, and make this search for a lifelong companion more of a game...may we suggest the following...

Pick numbers at random from a phone-booth. Or, put yourself in the "hands" of a good palm reader (this method is particularly effective if you choose a young, attractive, vivacious palm reader). Or, play the field. Date lots and lots of beautiful girls, and fall in love with all of them. Then put their names into a hat...and reach for the stars! We really don't want to sound like know-it-alls; how you choose a mate is, after all, your business. But playing the Love Game will eventually lead you to Zales. We're the world's largest jewelers. And we didn't get that way by kidding around. We offer more selection, and more value than anyone else in town. We also understand young people's credit needs.

ENEMY MASSES 60,000 TROOPS

'Total Attack' Expected

SAIGON (AP) — Waves of B52 bombers raided enemy base camps along the Cambodian border today, hitting an area northwest of Saigon where the South Vietnamese commander said the enemy has massed some 60,000 troops for a "total attack."

Fifty of the eight-jet bombers dropped 1,500 tons of explosives on troop concentrations, base camps, infiltration corridors and supply depots in eight missions between noon Thursday and noon today, the U.S. Command said.

DESTRUCTION

The B52s bombed about 60 miles north-northwest of Saigon, five miles from the Cambodian border. The area is in War Zone C, a longtime Viet Cong stronghold.

Military spokesmen said that infantrymen following up B52 strikes Tuesday 35 miles west of Saigon found about 200 enemy fortifications were destroyed by the Stratofortresses.

Crews returning from two raids along the Cambodian border Thursday night reported their bombs set off 49 secondary explosions, indicating "massive destruction of enemy munitions stockpiles."

Earlier today, Lt. Gen. Do Cao Tri, commander of the 3rd Corps area that stretches through Saigon to the Cambodian border, said the Communist command was preparing to launch an all-out attack in this area.

ALL-OUT

Tri told Vietnam Press, the government news agency, that according to intelligence documents, the enemy is planning "total attack" instead of an attempt to occupy some of the provinces in the border area. There was no immediate comment from U.S. intelligence officers, but Tri's estimate of 60,000 enemy troops in the border area appeared to conflict with recent U.S. estimates of about 35,000 troops in the entire 3rd Corps area. The South Vietnamese govern

New Fish-A-Rama At Cooper's Cove

A new fish-arama, involving a different concept in marine construction, will be opened today at Cooper's Cove on the east side of Lake Colorado City. The new structure, developed by O. C. Armand of Midland, was added by Cooper to his present installations and will double the capacity for indoor, environment-controlled, year-around fishing.

The metal structure, measuring 42x70 feet inside the enclosure, rests on a floating deck which is one of the unique developments by Armand. The same deck that supports the unitized building also furnishes a walking deck around the building.

To mark the opening, managers of Cooper's Cove, Herman and Gracie Cardwell, will offer a prize for the largest game fish caught. There is no admission charge on opening day, and refreshments will be served all day Sunday.

Armand has come up with a special cellular product after some 20 years of seeking. This material provides not only positive buoyancy (60.1 pounds per cubic ft.) necessary for floating the structure, but it has inherent qualities that make it impervious to action of water, acids, hydrocarbons and solvents. It is non-combustible and is excellent for insulation material.

It is so versatile that Armand Company is producing two types of water craft from the material. One is a pontoon craft and the other is a small rod fishing craft. These will be on display at the opening. Armand has in mind as a next step creating a "floating motel" with individual enclosed boat stalls. The building is prefabricated ment said three days ago that an enemy document captured by American troops contained orders from Hanoi to step up military and political activity all over South Vietnam after the United States stopped bombing North Vietnam a week ago.

Meanwhile both the U.S. and South Vietnamese commands reported only light action across the country.

ROCKET BARRAGE

U.S. headquarters reported a U.S. Marine patrol base south of the demilitarized zone was the target of a rocket barrage Thursday, and Marines on patrol about a mile away were also hit. Marine casualties were light, with no fatalities, the command said.

A spotter plane located the rocket launchers inside South Vietnam, a mile south of the DMZ, and Marine counterfire resulted in six secondary explosions, indicating hits on ammunition, the Marines said.

The location of the launching site was significant. While North Vietnam has said the bombing halt was unconditional, U.S. sources in Saigon say it is their understanding that the North Vietnamese would stop military activity in the DMZ as one form of reciprocity.

Pioneer 9 Orbits Sun

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Spacecraft Pioneer 9 today rocketed into orbit around the sun as a lonely, far-out sentry to warn of solar radiation storms that could endanger astronauts on the moon.

The three-stage Delta rocket also hurled into earth orbit a satellite that will be used as a practice target for the 18 stations in America's global man-space tracking network.

The rocket brilliantly illuminated the early morning darkness as it blazed upwards at 4:46 a.m. with its double payload.

Twenty-five minutes later the National Aeronautics and Space Administration reported that the communications satellite had been kicked into an orbit more than 200 miles high and that Pioneer 9 was in orbit about the sun.

Officials said several hours will be required to determine the probe's precise path. Pioneer 9 was aimed toward an elliptical solar orbit from 70 million to 83 million miles from the sun's searing surface. On this path it would take 298 days to complete each orbit.

The sun-orbiter carried eight experiments to record and transmit information about the solar wind, cosmic rays, cosmic dust and electric and magnetic fields as it zipped on its lone, some journey.

No Indictments In Deaths Of Three Young Negroes

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP) — A federal grand jury has returned no indictments against nine South Carolina highway patrolmen in the deaths of three young Negroes shot in what Negro leaders call the "Orangeburg massacre."

U.S. Justice Department officials had asked for indictments against the state troopers, reportedly alleging violations of the Negroes' civil rights.

The exact charges and the names of the highway patrolmen were not revealed on orders of U.S. District Judge J. Robert Martin, who said the families of the men should not be subjected to the publicity.

The 23-member grand jury returned "no bills" against the highway patrolmen after hearing eight days of testimony from law enforcement officers, newsmen and Negro students present Feb. 8 when the patrolmen fired on a crowd of Negro students, killing three and wounding 30 others.

DISAPPOINTMENT

State Negro leaders expressed disappointment at the grand jury decision. Col. P. F. Thompson, commander of the state highway patrol, called it "only proper and correct if they expect law enforcement officers to do their job in South Carolina."

Mrs. Modjeska Simpkins, a Negro leader in Columbia, said she was not "sufficiently clear on the language of the court in dismissing the grand jury... but I do know that the student group was fired upon on their own grounds with less hesitancy than honorable men would fire into a bunch of ferocious dogs."

She added, "The black people of South Carolina will neither forgive nor forget this massacre."

LAY AT REST. Dr. Maceo Nance Jr., president of South Carolina State College, said he did not witness the shootings on the edge of his campus, but "based on the information I have, and that which the students gave me, I think there was sufficient evidence for indictments."

A Devotional For The Day

Samuel answers, Speak; for thy servant heareth. (I Samuel 3:10)

PRAYER: Speak to us, Lord, as Thou didst speak to Samuel of old. Help us to listen as Thou speakest to us through the pages of Thy Holy Word, as we count Thy many blessings, and as we see Thee in nature working for our good. Help us to hear and understand when Thou dost speak to us. In His name. Amen.

Demands May Be Self-Defeating

With corporate profits high, unemployment low and the cost of living rising, it is expected of course that organized labor should be successful in bargaining for substantial wage increases. However, the increases have become so steep that economists must generally agree that they are dangerously contributory to further price inflation and to that degree self-defeating and hurtful to the national economy's stability.

The Johnson administration's non-inflationary wage-increase guideline of 3 1/2 per cent was broken in 1966. Soon after that, settlements were running around five per cent a year. Now the pattern is six to seven per cent, and the collective-bargaining demands being prepared for this fall indicate that an even higher level is immediately expected.

The average negotiated hourly wage increases over the past four quarters demonstrate the point even more dramatically. Taken in order their upward surge has been 14.9 cents to 15.3 to 17.8 to 20 cents an hour.

A noninflationary wage-raise pattern would be one that would cover cost-of-living increases plus a fair labor share in increased productivity. Given the current 4.5 per cent price inflation (on an annual basis) the recent wage trends might not seem to be too far out of line.

However, the present rate of inflation is neither tolerable nor sustainable. It is expected to subside early in 1969, even if the Vietnam war continues unabated, because of the tax increase and spending cuts ordered by the recently adjourned Congress.

If long-term wage contracts (three years with graduated increases is now common) are based in the immediate future on an abnormal inflation rate expected soon to be curtailed, then the settlement levels will be too high and sure to hamper seriously the efforts to get inflationary forces under control. Already construction costs are becoming prohibitive.

It should be federal policy to re-emphasize, with all pressures available, wage-price restraint in relation to labor-management relations, including close attention to major collective-bargaining contracts.

New Department Proposed

Not so many years ago a nationwide debate centered on whether there should be federal aid to education, traditionally a state-local governmental function, and the U.S. Office of Education was a minor agency of mostly advisory function.

Now both Democrats and Republicans, in Congress are talking more seriously about creating a federal Department of Education.

President Johnson recently signed the 60th education bill passed by Congress during his tenure. Federal aid to education has increased from $75 million in 1958 to more than $4 billion currently, and is still rising steeply.

Certainly federal educational programs, if all drawn together, are now of a size and importance which might justify inclusion in a separate department with a Cabinet-level secretary. Its base would be the U.S. Office of Education, taken from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, a sprawling conglomerate of former independent agencies, established in 1953.

Congress is properly reluctant to create new departments of Cabinet rank. There are now 12 such departments, with the Department of Housing and Urban Development and the Department of Transportation added during the Johnson administration. And it is difficult to subtract from that number, as indicated by the so far unsuccessful efforts to merge the Department of Labor and Department of Commerce and to turn the Post Office Department into an autonomous public corporation.

However, education has become a federal function of the first rank, and it appears next in line, if any, for Cabinet status. This is a decision that the new Congress will be called on to make.

David Lawrence Farm States Help Swing It

WASHINGTON — There are various ways of explaining how Richard M. Nixon won the presidency. But the significant fact is that the American people, by a vote of approximately 41,000,000 out of 72,000,000, expressed themselves in opposition to the Democratic administration and thus gave what is known under the parliamentary system as a "vote of no confidence."

FOR CERTAINLY the votes for Nixon, which were nearly 31,000,000 and those for Wallace, which were about 10,000,000, came from citizens who did not endorse the policies of the Johnson administration.

But, it will be argued, the Democrats got a majority in the House of Representatives and retained a majority in the Senate. Many of the Democratic members of Congress who won their contests this year, however, were able to create in the minds of the voters the feeling that they had disassociated themselves from the administration on some vital questions in the past. On many issues, moreover, there will be a coalition in the new Congress of Democrats from the South and Border states who will join with Republicans from the East, Middle West and West to produce a majority.

There was doubt about whether any candidate would get an electoral-vote majority in the presidential contest mostly because ballots were not counted quickly enough to announce the result Tuesday night and because a third ticket was in the field.

AS THIS correspondent pointed out in his final forecast, the important fact to be borne in mind was that Nixon could win the election and have seven votes above the 270 majority needed without getting the electoral votes of New York, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Massachusetts, Texas and New Jersey. Nixon did, however, carry New Jersey, and, when the final count in all states is completed, he may have added the votes of one or two other states to the 299 electoral votes he had on Wednesday.

ESSENTIALLY, Nixon was the victor by winning the Border states, the Far West and the Middle West, though getting only Delaware, Ohio, New Jersey, New Hampshire and Vermont in the East.

This feat of obtaining a majority without most of the East was accomplished once before, when President Wilson in 1916 won a second term. In the states east of the Mississippi he got only Ohio and New Hampshire, plus the South and Border states.

The 1916 election was a difficult one to forecast, and this correspondent made a final table showing Wilson receiving a minimum of 267 electoral votes, with 266 needed to win. The tabulation seemed incredible even on election night, when all the New York newspapers, including those which had supported Wilson, conceded victory to Hughes at 9 p.m. But Joseph P. Tumulty, who was private secretary to President Wilson, ignored this and told the reporters there would be no conceding unless this writer's tabulation was disproved.

WHEN THE electoral votes are examined, it will be observed that the states with a large farm population helped to swing the election to Nixon. This assisted in getting the electoral votes of both North and South Carolina — something unusual for a Republican presidential nominee to gain.

Nixon To Take Aim At Inflation

NEW YORK (AP) — The restoration of a stable, noninflationary economy will be the top priority goal of the Nixon administration, talks with the president-elect's economic advisers indicate.

A healthy economic environment is the No. 1 requirement, they say, in order to correct the imbalance in the U.S. foreign payments position and to build confidence in the dollar here and abroad.

SOLUTIONS TO these persistent and related problems are considered essential by Nixon advisers to any growth in domestic and world trade.

A better balance is considered essential also to the success of urban and social programs as well. One adviser, Alan Greenspan, noted that "an unhealthy economy restricted decision making in the Johnson administration" and said Nixon does not intend to make the same error.

In many other ways the aims of the Nixon administration likely will differ little from those of Lyndon B. Johnson, although changes are expected in the manner in which programs are pursued.

Said Pierre Rinfret, a consulting economist who has been supplying the Nixon team with ideas and research for more than two years:

"I WOULD think the goals aren't going to be any different: full employment, defined as unemployment of less than four per cent, and maximum economic growth."

The major difference, according to Rinfret, will be in Nixon's programs to slow the rate of inflation and to resolve the balance of payments problem, which has led to attacks on the value of the U.S. dollar.

To take the steam out of the economy without a resulting loss of jobs is expected to be a sticky problem for the Republicans, and Rinfret anticipates that the present 4 to 5 per cent rate of inflation could persist as long as the Vietnam war continues.

By then, with federal revenues rising faster than expenditures, the problem should begin to correct itself, the Nixon advisers believe. Although federal spending will be restrained, they say, no rollback of programs is in sight.

"YOU CANNOT really cut back the budget," said Rinfret, "because all you get is a bigger deficit." Cutbacks, he noted, would indeed reduce federal spending, but the more sluggish economy would also produce less revenue.

Nixon is expected to attempt to stimulate the private sector of the economy through tax incentives as part of a larger plan to create a freer climate, at least psychologically, for businessmen.

He'd Hate To Be A Woman

NEW YORK (AP) — One of the things men have to be grateful for is that they weren't born women.

I'd hate to be a woman. Being a man is so much simpler. Now and then you hear a woman, vexed at her lot in life, exclaim enviously, "I wish I were a man." Rarely indeed, however, do you ever hear a man express a yearning to be a woman. He knows he's better off the way he is.

Life is so much easier when you're a male. All a man has to do in the morning is clear his throat, shower, hack off his whiskers, buckle on his armor and—presto, he's ready to sally forth and battle the world.

NOT A WOMAN, though. Everything she does takes time, time, and more time. Getting up in the morning for a woman is almost as involved as a production by the late Cecil B. De Mille.

She has to appoint her body with lotions and her face with creams. She has to check her stockings for runs and struggle unaided into a girdle as confining as a medieval torture chamber. She has to pluck her eyebrows, ply her cheeks with rouge, her mouth with lipstick.

A woman is busy with herself all day long. A man can forget himself fairly easily; a woman never can. She is perpetually taking a self-inventory, fidgeting at her clothing or doing something to her features.

EVER WATCH a woman closely? She can't sit still for as long as five minutes without checking some part of herself to be sure she's all right.

Women have so many obligations and so few freedoms.

They can't spit in public or roar out loud at baseball games. They can't saunter alone into a pool hall and play a pick-up game with strangers. They can't even light a kitchen match by striking it across their trouser seats.

They can't cuss without stirring reproaches. They have to sit down gracefully and cross their legs carefully. They can't blow cigarette smoke out their noses without being criticized.

Everything they do is so involved. A man can wash his hair in three minutes flat. With a woman this is almost an all-day job, and even then she has to use a machine to get it dry.

WHEN a man has to pay for a taxi, all he does is reach into his pocket and fork out the dough. But before a woman can get to her money she first has to put her house keys in her mouth and paw through the cluttered debris of a handbag almost as large as a steamer trunk. By that time she has caused a three-block traffic jam.

About the only things women can do that men can't is to bear children and to take off their shoes in movie houses. When you get right down to it, these privileges hardly seem to compensate for all the trouble it takes to be feminine.

Yes, sir, whenever a woman passes by, a man should bless his stars and say in silent gratitude to himself— "There, but for the grace of God, go I!"

To Your Good Health On The Continued Use Of Suppositories

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Please send me your booklet on "The Way to Stop Constipation," and answer a question for me. I enclose 25 cents and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. My question is whether the continued use of suppositories is harmful.—J.C.

Ordinarily, use of suppositories is not harmful, but there are some qualifications which you should know.

The safety depends, of course, on what is in the suppository, and that varies. (I suppose you are aware that suppositories are used for problems other than constipation. In some cases they are given to administer drugs which, for one reason or another, cannot be given by mouth.)

As to rectal suppositories used as an adjunct in treating constipation, regardless of the blandness of the preparation, there can always be someone who experiences irritation or other unfavorable reaction from continued use.

Note that I spoke of suppositories being an adjunct to treatment of constipation, not a complete answer. Other measures should be used to relieve the problem and restore some degree of regularity of bowel action — diet, fluid intake, deliberate cultivation of regular habits, and other matters which the patient can — and should — do for himself. You can't leave everything to the doctor, or to laxatives, or suppositories, and expect success. You have to understand something about why and how the bowel operates. Establish conditions so it can behave properly, and in probably 999 cases of every thousand, it will.

Dear Dr. Molner: I am 13 and wear glasses for myopia. I think that since I am not dependent on them right now that I could go without them for periods of time, so as not to let them become a crutch. My father says I will only be straining my eyes and making them worse if I don't keep them on. What is your opinion?—C.S.

I don't think you'll make the eyes worse by not wearing your glasses, but I am equally sure that struggling along without them won't do any good, either. It isn't a matter of glasses becoming "a crutch." Myopia (near-sightedness) means that the curvature of your eyes is not quite correct. You can't change the shape. By wearing glasses, you merely change the focus of light rays, so that a clear (instead of an out-of-focus) image reaches the retina.

In a word, wear your glasses. You see better that way.

Hemorrhoids can be cured! If troubled with fissures, fistulas, itching, and other rectal problems, write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald requesting a copy of the booklet, "The Real Cure For Hemorrhoids," enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Jealousy, That's All

"What happened to your presidential pick?" So asked the smirking guy, often called Executive Editor Glenn V. Cootes' alter ego, before I could get my coat off.

WHY DID THE big fellow, who probably knows more about high school sports than anything else, toss the barbed question at poor lil' ol' me?

It hurt. Stunned, I could only mumble something like "Republicans cast 'tombstone' votes in Illinois."

I should have said: "I like HHH but then I've always been in the minority."

NOW WHY did Sports Editor Tommy Hart try to sock it to me? After much soul searching I unveiled the mystery. I told him Midland Lee would defeat Odessa Permian in the last few minutes of the game and Galveston Ball would pop Permian. He and the other Herald guess stars didn't agree. And they were wrong, of course. So jealousy has been smouldering.

These are indeed trying times. Even the man who is seemingly secure in his ivory tower can't be sure it isn't really made of plastic.

THE BIG SPRING Steers will play the Abilene Eagles tonight in Big Spring. I don't claim this as an exclusive. I just thought I'd say a few words to those of you who are going to the game.

Let's not make spectacles of ourselves, even if you wear glasses. Some members of our crowd aren't the best sports in the world, but if they'd try to be on their good behavior it would help.

Put yourself out a little to be extra enthusiastic and even especially cordial to the opponent, Abilene, and its fans. Sure, they're a nefarious bunch of Eagles trying to beat us. But that's what we're trying to do to them, too.

I HAVE some peculiar friends. As a matter of fact, quite a few of my enemies are quite odd, too, but that's a different story.

Why should I get strange looks when I comment that I have to buy a G-string for my youngest cousin? Nearly every young person plays a guitar nowadays.

MAMA LADD, my 94-year-old grandmother, tells about two elderly ladies who had once known each other well, but had not seen each other for years, who met once more.

"They exclaimed, 'as some old people do, about how time flies.' Mama Ladd wrote, 'and remarked on the changes in things and themselves.'"

"After a long awkward pause, one of them sighed to the other, 'And you used to be such a pretty girl.'"

Leftovers From This Political Year

WASHINGTON — What we have left over from November 5 is the trash can of combustibles, the fire hazard of political revolution, the body-hot yens of Edward Kennedy, Eugene McCarthy and George Wallace.

Dynasty: It no longer needs documenting that the Kennedys planned a national future full of Kennedys. Lancasters and Yorks, Bonapartes and Bourbons, hardly batted with more intensity for a throne.

I WAS INVITED to contribute to the just-published book, "An Honorable Profession," a collection of tributes to RFK, but my narrative of off-beat friendship did not constitute a eulogy — and was rejected.

Contestants for the crown have been Joe, Sr., Joe, Jr., John (unfinished term), Robert; and of Ted it is written by a history-writer Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., that Kennedy V "will be a very important factor in the country for years to come."

TED KEPT his Democratic Party credentials in order by televised endorsements of presidential, Senate and House candidates. It matters not what interim fortunes befall the party — in due time it will inherit Ted, or he it. Kennedy campaigns don't wear issues. They wear ribbons.

DAZE: Unlike Ted Kennedy, Gene McCarthy, a party reject, poet and Pied Piper, mystical and remote, a Gaullist in self-esteem but not with any grandeur for America in his make-up, says he will take no more Democratic nominations. He cannot, a la De Gaulle, call for a Rally of the American People — so we must look for his political base.

NORMAN MAILER, covering the Chicago Convention for Harper's

Magazine, examined the 5,000 "middle-class left" to greet Gene at Midway Airport. "Their common denominator seemed to be found in some blank area of the soul, a species of disaffected idealism... living in a lobotomized ward of Upper Utopia."

It sounds crazy. It is. Upper Utopia. Spoiled kids. Dopey. Dirty. Draft-shy. Urchins without a country. So, the McCarthian political base begins to shape up... "the suggestion that I would be a passive President. Well, I think a little passivity in that office is all right..." (No commander-in-chief, this pacifist.) He went on...

"I am the only candidate who said he would get rid of J. Edgar Hoover." (And have a "passive" FBI chief?) Stop the bombing of Communists, although they bomb us. Turn the other cheek. Now, we get the glimmer of what a McCarthian America would be.

DYNAMITE: By 1972, if he lives that long, George Wallace will have been a three-time presidential candidate. He must believe the country is moving his way, that its direction is otherwise than is shown by the landmark legislation for illiterate voter registration, open housing, socialized school rooms and philanthropy.

If the country moves against its own laws, black rioting and white resistance to authority the definition is anarchy. Well, Wallace was the anti-anarchy candidate, and he will need anarchy to run against during 1968-72.

No Control Over Campaign Spending

WASHINGTON — The pious talk and the pious proposals for putting an effective curb on campaign spending are conveniently forgotten when a presidential election rolls around. The orgy of spending just ended — it will unquestionably be a record — suggests that we are nearer than we would like to think when with the techniques of mass communication an election can be swung by the sheer power of money.

THE NEW ELEMENT, the dominant element, is television. The Nixon camp is reported to have spent close to $15,000,000 on television and radio alone. Because they were hard pressed for money at the start the Humphrey managers were able to commit far less time in the critical wind-up period.

The federal statute governing campaign contributions is virtually meaningless. How meaningless is shown by the cavalier way in which the Nixon managers passed over the Oct. 26 deadline for filing reports of campaign receipts and expenditures under the Corrupt Practices Act. This insured that the voters would have no opportunity to learn the names of the Nixon contributors and how much they contributed prior to Election Day.

IT IS IN the area of television that, if the new Congress has any interest at all in reforms, fairly simple remedies are available. The networks hide behind the equal-time provision which works absurdly to give fractional candidates a right to compete with major party candidates. A formula could be worked out on the numerical basis of the standing of the parties in the previous election obviating the equal-time requirement.

WITH THIS barrier removed the networks would be under compulsion to grant at least limited free time as a public service in a great national contest. At the very least the way would be cleared for debate between the major candidates without the equal-time inhibition.

While television is the most conspicuous aspect of the spending orgy, it is only part of a system that has grown up with the money game tied into politics. The big contributors can shuffle their contributions in a variety of ways to get around the $5,000 limit imposed by the meaningless statute. The report filed by the Humphrey managers showed that 18 contributors gave or loaned $100,000 each, some upping this to $200,000.

SURELY NO ONE at this late date is naive enough to believe that the fat cats do not expect a return on their investment. There may be ardent partisans giving for love of party. But time and again the rewards have been made evident after the returns are in. They come in an ambassadorship or some other fairly innocuous showy appointment. Far more important is the cash connection and the regulatory agencies that rule on issues directly related to the big corporate contributors.

THE WASHINGTON Post has shown how the executives of, say, a brokerage firm can be organized to make individual contributions and thereby circumvent the prohibition on direct-corporate giving. Candidate Richard Nixon had assured the brokers in a letter intended to be private that his administration would see that the Securities and Exchange Commission took a more lenient view of the marketplace.

The real issue is not disclosure, but spending, itself. Numerous remedies have been proposed over the years — an income tax deduction for small contributions, really meaningful restrictions on contributions, government financing for all or part of a campaign limited to three or four weeks. They are there if a new Congress cares to reflect on the biggest spending spree of all.

Voters In Several States Don't Know

By The Associated Press

Voters in three states still do not know whom they chose for president and those of one state wonder who will represent them in the U.S. Senate.

The presidential electoral votes involved would not be enough to change the outcome, even if all three states—Missouri, Maryland and Alaska—went to Hubert H. Humphrey.

President-elect Richard M. Nixon has won states with 287 electoral votes, 17 more than a majority.

The senatorial race count continues in Oregon.

In the national presidential race, the latest vote tabulation showed Humphrey with 30,122,715 or 43.2 per cent; Nixon with 30,446,028 or 43.6 per cent; and George C. Wallace with 1,866,703 or 2.6 per cent. There were 36,000 absentee ballots and no immediate indication when the final results would be known. Maryland has 10 electoral votes.

The latest count in Alaska, with three electoral votes, showed Nixon with 32,245 and Humphrey with 31,337. The state's 7,000 absentee votes, along with tallies from some outlying areas, were to be counted today.

In Oregon, the ballot count-down resumes today in the Senate race between Democrat Wayne Morse, the incumbent, and Republican Robert Packwood. At the conclusion of counting Thursday night the tally read: Morse 400,257; Packwood 403,756. About 6,000 ballots remain to be tallied.

In Missouri, with 12 electoral votes, completion of the unofficial tabulation showed Nixon with 766,169 and Humphrey with 758,547. Between 75,000 to 100,000 absentee ballots remain to be counted today or Saturday. Missouri has 12 electoral votes.

In Maryland, home state of Vice President-elect Spiro T. Agnew, Nixon had 502,059 votes and Humphrey had 519,797. There were 36,000 absentee ballots and no immediate indication when the final results would be known. Maryland has 10 electoral votes.

Heart Switch Man, 40, Dies

HOUSTON (AP) — A Robstown, Tex., man who received a heart transplant last Sunday at Methodist Hospital, died late Thursday.

A hospital spokesman said Lee Roy Cumbie, 40, of New York City, a former oil field supply company salesman, probably died of progressive failure of the liver and kidneys. The spokesman said both conditions were present before the operation.

The hospital would not comment on whether rejection of the transplanted heart figured in the death. However, earlier Thursday Cumbie had been listed in serious condition with "signs of heart rejection."

Cumbie received the heart of Hadley Van Case, 42, of Houston, who died of a cerebral hemorrhage. The operation was performed by a team headed by Dr. Michael E. DeBakey.

Cumbie's surgery was the 21st of 22 heart transplants performed in Houston, including 13 at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital and nine at Methodist. Eleven of the recipients survive.

The remaining recipients were reported to be in satisfactory condition, including the latest, Sidney Lebowitz, 40, who received his new heart Tuesday at St. Luke's.

Big Spring Boy Receives Bumps

A Big Spring boy received bruises Thursday morning when he was hit by a car on the Safeway parking lot.

Michael Jay Thomas, 14, was knocked down when a car backed into him on the parking lot. The car, apparently not knowing it had struck the boy, drove away.

New Computer System Begins To Take Shape

Representatives of the Addressograph Co. began to assemble the new addressing equipment which will be used by the new computer system to mail out water and sewer bills.

Charles Smith, city secretary, estimates that the first bills using the total system will be processed about Jan. 1.

The addressing equipment will be used to free the computer from that task. The computer time is too valuable for a simple job like addressing bills, Smith said.

Addressing the daily output of bills from the computer will take about an hour, he said.

Smith said that the transition from the old system to the computer will be about a month behind when the first bills are posted in January. He had originally estimated the first billing would be done by the computer in December. At present the general ledger is being converted into machine language for the new system.

The payroll for the city was the first thing to be put on the system.

"Last Friday's payroll (the third to be run on the computer) was run in a little over four hours," Smith said. He estimated that the extra speed offered by the system would give his office an extra man-hour each month to be used on other projects. This time would have been spent on making up the payroll under the old system, he said.

Friday's payroll was a smooth run he said. "We are working now on getting information to the machine operator so that she doesn't have to wait or change her routine once she starts making out the checks," he said.

Seventeen Big Spring Officials To Attend

Seventeen Big Spring city officials are planning to attend the 56th annual Texas Municipal League meeting in Dallas Nov. 10-12.

They will join an estimated 2,500 other officials from Texas cities who are expected to attend the conference.

Representing Big Spring will be Mayor and Mrs. J. Arnold Marshall, mayor pro tem George Zachariah, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Morehead, Mr. and Mrs. Garner McAdams, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Crow, Roy Anderson, Ernest Lillard, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Prouty, and Chief of Police Jay Banks. The conference will produce a comprehensive municipal policy, through the actions of the delegates and TML board of directors, to guide cities in the upcoming legislative year, said Judson F. Williams, El Paso mayor and president of TML.

"No previous league meeting has put together a program focusing so intently on the city-state-federal collaboration of effort to solve urban problems," Williams said.

Preston Smith, governor-elect, and Ben Barnes, lieutenant governor-elect, will speak at the conference.

Thieu Trying To Take Charge

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — President Nguyen Van Thieu proposed today that his South Vietnamese government replace the United States as the leader of the anti-Communist negotiating team at the Paris peace talks.

Thieu proposed a new formula for organization of the Paris conference under which the Communist side would be led by the North Vietnamese. He said it could also include the National Liberation Front, the political arm of the Viet Cong.

Even if the United States agrees to take a back seat at the Paris talks, North Vietnam appears certain to reject Thieu's attempt to give his government the No. 1 place on one side of the table while relegating the Viet Cong to a secondary role on the other. Hanoi has said repeatedly that the National Liberation Front is the only authentic representative of the South Vietnamese people.

Thieu's proposal was made in an attempt to counter the adverse reaction in the United States and elsewhere to his refusal to join the Paris peace talks this week. President Johnson, in halting the bombing of North Vietnam, proposed that the Saigon regime and the NLF send representatives to the talks without specifying the status they would be accorded.

Thieu refused because he said this was opening the door to recognition of the NLF, and he feared this would be the first step toward a coalition government which the Communists eventually would take over.

Texas Woman In Grave State From Screwworms Attack

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A 41-year-old Atascosa County woman was in critical condition here early today, undergoing treatment for the nation's first documented case of screwworm in a human since a massive eradication program was introduced six years ago.

Officials said it apparently was only the second documented case in modern U.S. history. Screwworms usually attack livestock such as cattle, horses, sheep, goats and swine.

Dr. M. E. Meadows Jr., veterinarian in charge of field operations at the Southwest Screwworm Eradication Laboratory in Mission, said the woman was admitted to Santa Rosa Medical Center here last Tuesday.

"JUST TERRIBLE" He described the infestation of the woman as "terrible, just terrible," but he added that after investigating the circumstances of the case it was "understandable" that it could occur. He did not elaborate and declined to release the woman's name.

The screwworm larvae were four or five days old when the patient arrived at the hospital, Meadows said.

A sample was sent to the Mission laboratory, which confirmed the case Thursday. Experts from the laboratory rushed to the hospital to offer advice on treatment.

"NOSE, THROAT" Meadows said he has received some documented cases of screwworms infesting humans.

Except for the Atascosa County woman's plight, the only other reference to screwworms attacking a human is said to come from a pioneer's biography that he was scalped by Indians and left for dead, and that in his weakened condition screwworms began infesting his scalp wound.

A spokesman at the Mission laboratory said a Santa Rosa physician who was treating the woman discovered a "high infestation of larvae in the nose, mouth and throat."

Officials at the Mission laboratory said 8,393 screwworm cases had been confirmed in animals in Texas to date but that in recent weeks the confirmed case count has been dropping. Atascosa County, origin of this case, reported 21 screwworm cases this week, with 43 last week.

A spokesman cautioned that other persons may become infected by the screwworm fly in any area where a patient becomes ill and is in a place where flies cannot be kept out.

Dr. Meadows urged renewed vigor in eradicating the screwworm. He asked livestock producers to continue reporting and handling livestock if possible until after the first freeze. A hard freeze can kill the pest.

U.S. Officials Promise Study Of Thieu's Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials promised prompt and careful study today of South Vietnam's proposal to take over from the United States the leading role in the Paris peace talks with North Vietnam.

Diplomatic officials feel President Nguyen Van Thieu's position increases the urgency of a meeting between President Johnson and President-elect Richard M. Nixon and administration authorities are expected to consult quickly with Nixon or his representatives.

There is a widespread belief in the U.S. government that Thieu hardened his position on negotiating with the enemy—including his boycott of the Paris talks—because he expects more support from Nixon than he felt he had received from Johnson.

According to U.S. officials Thieu originally agreed South Vietnam would participate in the Paris talks on the U.S. side of the table and the South Vietnamese National Liberation Front would join North Vietnam on its side.

But U.S. informants said Thieu ran into strong opposition among his own supporters and officials after Johnson got word from Hanoi Oct. 27-28 that North Vietnam would accept the "two sides" formula.

Thieu backed out of the "two sides" agreement Oct. 29, U.S. officials reported later.

Authorities here believe he acted not only because of the opposition of many of his own officials but also because they believe Nixon would take a much firmer stand than they thought Johnson was taking on this issue.

Sulfur Spurs New Railroad

DALLAS (AP) — The Santa Fe Railroad has agreed to build 31 miles of new railroad in far West Texas in response to a growing boom in sulfur mining, the company announced Thursday.

A spokesman said the railroad had recently signed a contract with the Duval Corp. that calls for transporting sulfur from a proposed plant in northern Culberson County to Gulf of Mexico ports some 925 miles away.

The spokesman said the Santa Fe track will extend into Eastern New Mexico to connect with an existing spur. He said the sulfur would cross back into Texas at a point just south of Clovis.

Sulfur mining has attracted several major companies into Southwest Texas counties with investments estimated in the millions.

Santa Fe officials declined to estimate the cost of laying the track and Duval has made no estimate of the value of its proposed plant.

Santa Fe officials said the sulfur would go into tank cars in a molten state. They said 60 trains will make the run to Gulf ports on a "turn around" basis. The spokesman said the trains will operate continuously.

Budget Board Axes Cotton Gin Rider

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The Legislative Budget Board, on a motion by newly elected Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, removed Thursday a controversial cotton gin rider from the board's version of the next general spending bill.

Gov. John Connally vetoed the provision in the last appropriation bill.

It stated that none of the funds appropriated for the State Department of Health and the Air Control Board could be spent, "other than (on) research or correspondence, which are in any manner connected with cotton gins or the cotton ginning industry of the State of Texas."

COMPLAINTS

"According to the health department," Connally said in his veto, "more complaints are registered at the state level concerning air pollution by the cotton ginning industry than any other major industry in the state."

Lt. Gov. Preston Smith, elected Tuesday as Texas' new governor, asked the budget board members if they wanted a record vote on Barnes' motion, but no one spoke. The vote seemed about evenly split on the voice vote, but Smith said the motion carried.

Sen. Dorsey Hardeman, San Angelo, then asked to reconsider the vote, but Smith brushed off his request. "There's a long session ahead to work on it," Smith said.

"They've just run over me," said Rep. W. S. Heatly, Paducah, who favored the rider.

Barnes later took Heatly aside for 10 minutes for a private chat.

Also speaking in favor of the rider was Rep. Gus Mutschler, Brenham, considered a cinch as the next speaker of the house.

The budget board, composed of the speaker, lieutenant governor and four members of the Senate and House, also heard a staff suggestion that it would not hurt the state to abolish the Fine Arts Commission.

"It could be discontinued without any great loss... to the state, that is," a staff member said. The proposed appropriation for the commission for 1970 and 1971 is $61,732 each year.

LETTERS

Did Not Get To Vote Here

Dear Sir:

I am 21 years old and would like to know what the voting age is in Howard County? From all indications given me Tuesday night by the polling judges and the county clerk's office, it must be 25 years of age. If this is the case, then Howard County is far behind times and the people of this county should inform the officials in the nation 21 year olds are getting to vote, and by allowing them to vote in Howard County, will not be setting any wild trend to be condemned by the rest of the state and the nation.

I moved to Howard County in April of 1968 (eight months ago) from the neighboring county of Ector, where the 21 year old has already been given the right to vote. Naturally assuming this was the case in the state of Texas, I went to the county clerk's office in Big Spring and transferred my voter registration.

Tuesday, I went to my precinct (Box 2), and waited for 45 minutes to exercise my civil right to vote for the president of the United States for the first time in my life. After waiting 21 years to enjoy this civil right, and 45 minutes to exercise this right, the polling judge informed me I was not qualified to vote at Box 2. After checking with the county clerk's office I was informed I was not qualified to vote in any precinct in Howard County. Since the county clerk had stamped my registration for Howard County, I was not qualified to vote in Ector County either.

The county clerk's office did tell me that if I had voted absentee, although I wasn't going to be gone, they might have done something about the mistake.

I ask you this simple question: "Was my civil right to vote taken away from me or is the voting age in Howard County 25?" I would have loved to had the honor and privilege to have voted for the presidential candidate of my choice, now I must wait until I am 25.

Sincerely yours,
KENNETH WILLIAMSON

Bit-Of-Booze For Virginians

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — For the first time in 52 years Virginians in 33 localities are looking forward to ordering their liquor by the jigger instead of by the bottle.

Local option by-the-drink referendums carried in 33 of the 43 areas that voted on by-the-drink sales Tuesday, and hopes are high that administrative red tape can be snipped away in time for hot toddies this winter, maybe in time for Christmas.

But results were so close in two counties that defeated the issue that proponents may ask for recounts.

TTA Record

HOUSTON — TTA notched a new all-time high record for the first full month of fall as 172,102 passengers boarded the airline's flights during October, said sales vice president A. G. Kamel. The figure reflects an increase of almost 39 per cent above the former October record — 127,187 — set last year.

Load factor (percentage of all available seats filled) throughout the airline's system was up from 42.32 last year to 47.83. Through October, TTA carried 1,599,754 passengers. Through all of 1967 the total was 1,427,652, according to company records.

Opening lead: King of ♠ South was cognizant of the danger involved in attempting to ruff out his diamond losers in today's four spade contract. He succeeded in resolving his problems thru a series of loser on loser plays which enabled him to transfer his ruffing worries to another suit.

West opened the king of diamonds and, when he was permitted to hold the trick, he continued with the queen. East's nine and ten appeared on successive leads—and declarer played the ace. A heart was led to dummy's ace and a small heart ruffed in the closed hand.

South now led a diamond covered by West but, instead of ruffing, declarer discarded a club from dummy as a precautionary measure to avoid an overruff by East. West now shifted to a trump taken by declarer's jack, and he led his last diamond once more, discarding a club from the North hand.

West was in again with the jack of diamonds and, since he could not lead another trump, he shifted to a club. South won the trick with the ace and was now in position to ruff a club with the five of spades. A heart was trumped in the closed hand, and declarer ruffed his last club with the ace of spades. The king and queen of trumps took the last two tricks.

Declarer's precautions to avoid an overruff in diamonds were duly rewarded when he succeeded in holding himself to the loss of three tricks—all in the diamond suit. East missed an opportunity to thwart his opponent, however. When South leads the fourth round of diamonds and West is in, East should realize that his partner has no more trumps to lead. Therefore, in order to cut down the impending cross-ruff, East should trump West's trick to return a second spade. This will restrict South to one club ruff and, in the end, he will be left with a club loser for the setting trick.

Dixie Demos Control Senate, House Committees

WASHINGTON (AP) — Not a single deep South state supported Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey in his presidential bid Tuesday but Southern Democrats will control most of the major Senate and House committees in the 91st Congress.

This comes about because: —Democrats retained control of both branches of Congress.

—Under the seniority system of naming committee chairmen, many southerners—whose constituents tend to keep them in office—have risen to top spots on their committees.

TOP KICKS

In the Senate, southerners will be chairmen of nine of the 15 major committees. The figure is 11 if the states of West Virginia and Texas are considered southern.

On the House side, southerners will be chairmen of four major committees and border state representatives will head six others, out of a total of 21 committees.

Since there was no great turnover in Senate and House membership this year, committee lineups generally will be about the same in the 91st Congress as they were in the 90th.

This is especially true in the House, where only one committee chairman was defeated or retired.

In the Senate, three chairmen were defeated.

The principal change will be to the Senate Appropriations Committee due to the retirement of Sen. Carl Hayden, D-Ariz. As a result, Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., becomes chairman.

Another southerner, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., will advance to the chairmanship of the Armed Services Committee, succeeding Russell.

BORDER STATES

Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., Chairman of Labor and Public Welfare, also is retiring. Either Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., whose political fate was in doubt, or Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Tex., will succeed to the post.

Sen. A. S. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., chairman of Post Office and Civil Service, was defeated. In line to succeed him will be Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., Yarborough—if Yarborough is not elected Labor and Public Welfare—or Sen. Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo.

The only House committee chairmanship vacated came through defeat in the primary of Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La., chairman of the Un-American Activities Committee. Since Rep. William M. Tucker, D-Va., second Democrat on the committee, is retiring, the chairmanship is slated for Rep. Richard H. Ichord, D-Mo.

Committees which will be headed by Congressmen from southern or border states include:

Senate—Agriculture, Sen. Allen J. Ellender, D-La.; Appropriations, Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga.; Armed Services, Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss.; Banking, Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala.; Finance, Sen. Russell B. Long, D-La.; Foreign Affairs, Sen. W. J. Fulbright, D-Ark.; Government Operations, Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark.; Judiciary, Sen. James O. Eastland, D-Miss.; Rules, Sen. Everett Jordan, D-N.C.; Public Works, Sen. Jennings Randolph, D-W.Va.; and Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., in line either for Labor or Post Office.

Florida went for Richard M. Nixon.

Tennessee and Kentucky supported Nixon while Texas and West Virginia wound up in the Humphrey column.

Farmland Tax Idea Delayed

Members of four taxing but not re-evaluate the farm agencies in Howard County land.

County Judge Lee Porter told the group that Bob Rhodes, of Amarillo Appraisal Service, had contacted him earlier, and the group recommended that Rhodes be called.

Womack suggested that when the program began, a member of each group concerned could appoint a member who would serve on a committee to appoint an impartial board to help in the re-evaluation of farmland and other improvements.

Discussion of the project came in early September in an effort to place farmland in line with other property in the county. Each taxing agency set in on the initial meeting, but Novis Womack, tax evaluator in the project, say that he could not do the job.

Womack said his assistant, Jerry Crow, was leaving his farm and that Womack could not do the job himself. He has been working on the Big Spring city tax roles, and he asked that he continue that project,

It Is This Or Flames?

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Unless the white business community improves business opportunities for Negroes the nation could go up in flames, Daniel Parker, chairman of the board of the National Association of Manufacturers, said today.

Parker's remarks were prepared for a luncheon meeting of the Commonwealth Club of California.

"Blacks have the idea that they are being accommodated to life in the ghetto rather than being helped out of it," he said.

"The blacks may not be coming to the business community with their arms open, but they are coming with the attitude that the private sector is their last hope. It is this—or flames."

The NAM chairman said the private sector must provide more than jobs.

"Black entrepreneurship, venture capital, management assistance," Parker said. "This is the way the black can enter into the economic mainstream."

Lawyer Says Doc Safe In New York

DALLAS (AP) — Dr. Harold Eidinoff, who spent nearly 10 years in Rusk State Hospital until he walked away from an attendant after a court hearing last Monday, is safe in New York state, his lawyer said Thursday night.

There had been some concern among friends of the doctor, a former El Paso proctologist, that he might have met harm.

Hospital authorities and peace officers in Cherokee County had said, only hours before the lawyer's disclosure that they were at a loss to determine Eidinoff's whereabouts.

The physician, 58, was committed to Rusk in 1959 after he was adjudged insane by a Lubbock jury empaneled to try him for murder. He was charged in the killing of Theodore Address, a lawyer and former El Paso school board president.

Address was shot down at the El Paso air terminal by a bearded, rough-clad assailant who wore a bullet-proof vest. The assailant was identified as Eidinoff.

Shortly after he was admitted to the mental institution at Rusk, Eidinoff was badly beaten by another inmate and spent several weeks in sick bay. Then he began a long series of court moves to prove he had been cured of paranoia, was mentally fit and should be released.

"POLITICAL" He claimed that he was being held by "political pressure," and later explained that he meant persons with political influence were keeping him in the hospital.

Every court effort failed until this year.

Then U. S. Dist. Judge W.M. Taylor of Dallas decided that Eidinoff should have a hearing in Cherokee County court under the Texas Mental Health Code although he had been committed under the Texas Criminal Code.

Nixon Nixes Quick Trip To Saigon

By The Associated Press

Richard M. Nixon has given himself at least a month to choose his top administrative officials and has deferred to President Johnson a decision on visits by the president-elect to Saigon and other foreign capitals before the inauguration.

The Vietnam trip, proposed Thursday by South Vietnam President Nguyen Van Thieu, would likely come up in an anticipated early meeting between Nixon and the President.

And while Nixon rested at his Key Biscayne, Fla., retreat, officials counted the final few ballots in elections still undecided. In Washington, congressional leaders said they're assigning top priority to reform of the Electoral College system of electing presidents.

LEAD IN ALASKA

Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, said in an interview Thursday he will schedule hearings as soon as possible next year to consider reforming the Electoral College.

Nixon has been credited with 287 electoral votes—only 17 more than a majority—on the basis of unofficial returns, although he could pick up more when absentee ballots are counted and official results are announced.

Nixon led Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey in Missouri, 766,169 to 758,547 with as many as 100,000 absentee ballots to be counted. The state has 12 electoral votes.

Nixon held a 902-vote lead in Alaska, with returns from some outlying areas and 7,900 absentee votes still to be counted. The state has three electoral votes.

THE LATEST

Humphrey was leading by 17,738 votes in Maryland—which has 10 electoral votes—with 36,000 absentee votes out. Humphrey's total included votes cast for him in two different spots on the Alabama ballot. It may be well into December

Toast For The Winner

California's Lt. Gov. Robert Finch rises and offers a toast for President-Elect Richard M. Nixon at a Thursday night dinner at Key Biscayne where the Nixon family is relaxing.

Others at the table are, from left, seated, Julie Nixon, President-Elect Nixon, Mrs. Nixon.

Humphrey's total included votes cast for him in two different spots on the Alabama ballot. It may be well into December before the vote has been counted officially nationwide and Republicans are guaranteed enough electoral votes.

Nixon's representatives in Washington went ahead with planning sessions on the transfer of power.

Reports from Key Biscayne said an early meeting between the President and president-elect are expected to be announced in the next few days.

The meeting would presumably touch on foreign relations and the new budget, which President Johnson will present and Nixon will have to live with.

WELCOME MATS

South Vietnam President Thieu sent a telegram to Nixon Thursday, congratulating him and noting he would be most welcome "if you wish to make an on-the-spot assessment of the war and the situation ahead."

Ronald L. Ziegler, Nixon's chief spokesman said, "Mr. Nixon plans no foreign trip, and will make no such trip unless to finance the church-sponsored Boy Scout Troop 178.

son—suggests it would be helpful in furthering the negotiations toward peace."

Authoritative sources in Paris said President Charles de Gaulle would welcome a visit by Nixon. The French president's preference for Nixon had been plain since De Gaulle met during the campaign with Nixon's emissary, former Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton.

Sources in Key Biscayne said Nixon has received several invitations to visit foreign capitals, and added it was possible the heads of state might find it possible to visit Nixon in New York before the inauguration.

Plans for the annual chili supper by the Kentwood United Church Methodist Men were made at a meeting Thursday night.

The supper will be held Dec. 7, and proceeds will be used to finance the church-sponsored Boy Scout Troop 178.

Kiwanis To Stage College Night Program Nov. 22

Big Spring Kiwanis Club will be host to the representatives of 27 Texas colleges and universities, who are to be in Big Spring Nov. 21. Roscoe Newell, president, told the club at its luncheon Thursday.

John Talmadge with the high school staff, said that the night of Nov. 22 will be termed "College Night." The 27 colleges who are sending delegates here will be afforded opportunity to talk to junior and senior students of Big Spring, Coahoma, and Forsan about their institutions.

The Kiwanis Club will be host at a dinner in the cafeteria at 6 p.m. All of the college spokesmen as well as the sponsors of the senior and junior classes from the three schools will be guests.

After dinner, each of the college spokesmen will be assigned a classroom. Any senior or junior boy or girl in the three schools will then have a chance to confer with the college representative.

The program of interviews and conferences will be continued until all of the seniors and juniors have had opportunities to talk with the college spokesmen from the universities and schools they are considering for future education.

The Kiwanis Club will not meet Thursday noon Nov. 21 at the Hotel Settles, because of the College Night event. This will not be a ladies night, it was explained.

Since Thanksgiving Day also falls on a regular Kiwanis meeting date, no luncheon meeting will be held. However, a "roundtable" will be operated in the hotel cafe for those who want to maintain their attendance records.

Reports on the recent Texas-Oklahoma Kiwanis convention in San Antonio were made by Newell, Jim Thompson, and Bill Johnson.

Two new members — Ben Crocker with Cosden Oil and Chemical, and J. M. Talmadge with the high school — were inducted into the club.

Israel, Arabs Blame Other

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Israel and the Arabs blamed each other Thursday night for the interruption in their indirect talks to bring peace to the Middle East.

After accusing the Israelis of blocking progress, the foreign ministers of Egypt and Jordan flew home from the United Nations. An Israeli spokesman said the Arabs had taken "the most rigid and intransigent position conceivable, which has no parallel in any other international conflict."

The Arabs have refused either to negotiate directly with Israel or to meet with the Israelis under U.N. auspices, the spokesman said, and have declined to comment on the peace plan Israel submitted last month.

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad said the talks, with U.N. envoy Gunnar Jarring as the middle man, were "no longer practical discussions, only exchanges of letters—and this we can do from our capitals."

Jordanian Foreign Minister Abdul Monem Rifa'i said his stay in New York served "no positive purpose." He said Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban's latest expression of views "did not reflect any readiness by Israel to change its negative positions."

Diplomats in Jerusalem believed the two foreign ministers were going home to consult their governments before resumption of talks in New York at a later date.

Election Reform Hearings To Start

WASHINGTON (AP) — New efforts to change the way of electing a president have started in Congress in the wake of Tuesday's election, which barely missed being thrown into the House of Representatives for the first time in 144 years.

Indiana Sen. Birch Bayh, who called a news conference to discuss the matter today, has proposed substituting the direct popular election of the president for the current Electoral College system.

In the House, New York's Emanuel Celler, chairman of the Judiciary Committee said he will start hearings on proposed constitutional changes as quickly as possible next year.

Celler called the present system outdated and said he is inclined toward a system under which each state's electoral vote would be divided among the candidates in proportion to their popular vote.

The outcome of Tuesday's election hung in the balance for several hours when it looked as if none of the three candidates would obtain the 270 electoral votes necessary to be elected.

Republican Richard M. Nixon finally won by very narrow margins the three big states of Ohio, California and Illinois, which put him over the 270 electoral vote level although he and Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey both had 43 per cent of the popular vote. Independent George C. Wallace had about 13 per cent.

If there had been no electoral vote winner, then the House would have had to pick the winner. Bayh, a Democrat, introduced a constitutional amendment in January, 1967, to scrap the electoral college and replace it with direct popular election of the president and vice president.

It embodied the recommendations of a special study commission of the American Bar Association.

While Bayh favors direct election and Celler said he tends toward a proportional plan, Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen said a district electoral plan deserves consideration.

Under the district plan, long sponsored by Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., each state's electoral votes would be allocated to districts roughly corresponding to congressional districts except that two votes would go to the popular vote winner in the state.

Bayh's constitutional amendment provides that the candidates for president and vice president receiving the greatest number of popular votes throughout the nation will be elected, provided they receive 40 per cent or more of the total vote.

If no candidate received 40 per cent of the vote, a runoff would be held between the two top contenders.

Bayh said the 40 per cent figure is "high enough to discourage small groups from splintering away from the two major parties and low enough to assure a winning plurality in all but the most extreme circumstances."

AT FORT WORTH MEETING

Baptists' Convention To Commission 10 Missions

DALLAS — Climax of the 83rd annual session of the Baptist General Convention of Texas meeting in Fort Worth, Nov. 11-14 will be a joint commissioning ceremony of the Southern Baptist Convention's Home and Foreign Mission Boards. The Nov. 14 evening event will cap off an unprecedented program of missions study by the approximately 9,000 delegates and guests attending the BGCT convocation.

Weaved into the convention format is a comprehensive, 31-topic World Missions Conference utilizing a faculty drawn from around the world. Missionaries, denominational leaders on both the state and national scene, student leaders and laymen will participate.

Within each workshop, practical approaches to programs involving youth work, foreign missions, home missions, ministries to special economic and ethnic groups, mission education or many other topics will be discussed. Modern visual aids and program materials will be employed.

Convention business and plenary sessions, plus the convention of Texas Baptist Men and the Woman's Missionary Union will carry a similar missions emphasis.

This theme builds to a stirring climax on Thursday night when the Southern Baptist Convention Home and Foreign Mission Boards will hold a commissioning ceremony for ten new missionaries in the Center Arena.

BGCT officials are counting on this program and others to attract a large number of messengers and guests. Current attendance predictions vary from 9,000 to 10,000 with 4,000 expected to register as official delegates.

Highlight of the convention's business sessions will be the vote on adoption of the record $13.5 million budget that has cleared all preliminary hurdles and now awaits the final verdict. The proposed financial statement exceeds last year's budget by $700,000.

Wielding the gavel for the convocation will be BGCT President Gordon Chnard of San Angelo. Chairman of the program committee is J. P. Allen, pastor of the Broadway Baptist Church, Fort Worth.

Ten missionaries will be honored. The five representing the Foreign Mission Board will be Mr. and Mrs. John N. McGuckin, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Gary K. Swafford, Fort Worth; and Mrs. Shelby A. Smith, Bessemer, Ala. Home Mission Board appointees are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Smith Jr., Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Rollin E. Spencer, Coronado Calif.; and Glenn A. Igleheart, Louisville, Ky.

Gertrude Behanna Here Monday At St. Mary's

Gertrude Behanna — author, alcoholic, ambassador for Christ — will speak at 7:30 p.m. Monday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Miss Behanna was the only child of a millionaire and became an alcoholic for years, was married three times and used drugs, according to her press release, before being converted to Christ at age 53.

Since her conversion, Miss Behanna has traveled throughout the United States and Far East giving her testimony. Last year, she appeared before more than 1,000 groups. She recently returned from Japan and Okinawa where she addressed United States service men.

Last May, Miss Behanna appeared on the Mike Douglas Show to talk about her autobiography, "The Late Liz."

GERTRUDE BEHANNA

Participants on the panel include the Rev. Moses A. Knott, Jr., an ABS national distribution secretary; the Rev. Edward Cunningham, ABS distribution secretary in the Eastern region of the USA; Mrs. Searle Whitney, member of the ABS Board of Managers; Dr. L. C. Griffith, a director of the Division of Communication of the Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention; Miss Alice Ball, ABS secretary for Latin America; the Rev. Warner Hutchinsoff, ABS secretary for Asia; and the Rev. Louis F. Hartman, C.S.S.R., executive director of the Catholic Biblical Association.

The Advisory Council is made up of representatives of Churches which support the work of the 152-year-old American Bible Society. As its name implies, the group reviews the work and the policies of the cooperative agency and offers counsel on future programs.

ENCOURAGEMENT IS LESSON FOR LIVING BY CHRISTIANS

The series of studies on faith and encouragement continues this Sunday to expectant living by Christians.

Background Scriptures are the second book of Peter, and the focal passage is II Peter 1:3-11. From these we gain some practical suggestion of how we can seek to live today with eternal values in mind. Several virtues are listed, and these become natural as we know Christ better.

The lesson deals in part with return of our Lord, a dominant theme in several books of the New Testament. But the emphasis here is not so much on the coming as being ready for it. We are reminded that Christ shared our human nature that we might share His divine nature. Christ has purchased these "precious promises" for us, and this puts a special emphasis upon our efforts to live the godly life.

Some of the virtues enumerated are diligence, faith, virtue, knowledge, temperance (self-control), patience (endurance or steadfastness), godliness, brotherly kindness and charity (love). The Lord has promised to honor these virtues, and God, who deals in eternities, is not slack concerning His promises.

Bible Translation Appearing More

NEW YORK — A recent contemporary English translation of the New Testament, titled "Good News for Modern Man," is appearing in an increasing number and variety of publications. One of the more unusual requests for reprint rights received by the American Bible Society, copyright owners of the translation, came from an Episcopal clergyman in Point Hope, Alaska.

The Venerable Walter Wink Hannum, archdeacon of the Arctic, is involved in a project of translating the Book of Common Prayer from its 16th century vocabulary into simple, current English.

Pokes, Colts, Rams Favorites Sunday

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Dallas, Los Angeles and Baltimore should continue to march along in the National Football League Sunday with St. Louis and Cleveland.

Philadelphia might even win one and the standings of the tight Central Division could be scrambled again after the Green Bay-Minnesota game.

The New York Jets have a chance to just about wrap up the Eastern Division of the American Football League but the Kansas City-Oakland-San Diego race should continue in the West.

Last week's score was 10-3-6-2 in the NFL, 4-1 in the AFL) making it 60-29-2 for the season. Let's give it another whirl. All games are Sunday.

NFL

St. Louis 24, Pittsburgh 10 — Steelers return to harsh reality after winning jousts with Eagles and Falcons. Cards have reality of Willis Crenshaw and blocking to give Jim Hart time to throw.

Cleveland 27, New Orleans 13 — Browns are coming on strong with three straight wins. Bill Nelsen has given Browns big lift and Leroy Kelly is running wild. Saints hurting with Billy Kimer out must try for the bomb with Karl Sweetman who was intercepted four times by Dallas. Saints won exhibition game in August but Browns won

Archer Leads In Hawaiian Golf Event

HONOLULU (AP) — George Archer shot an eight-under-par 64 Thursday for a one-stroke lead in the first round of the $125,000 Hawaiian International Golf Tournament.

"I played so bad and scored so good," Archer described his scramble. "I was raking it out from under trees, and bouncing it through bunkers all day. Well, you get days like that — it makes up for all the bad bounces."

One stroke back was Dick Lotz, 26-year-old San Francisco Bay Area golfer.

The field gave the Waialae course a fearful drubbing. In all, 47 broke par.

Mac McLendon, a PGA school flunkout on his first try, had a six-under 66, along with little-known Ken Ellsworth, former Los Angeles State College star.

Former amateur champion Deane Beman, Miller Barber, Steve Reid and Bob McAllister had 67. Australian Bruce Crampton and National Open champion Lee Trevino were in the group of 68s.

Billy Casper, the tournament favorite, shot a 70, Arnold Palmer 71 and defending champion Dudley Firston 72.

Top Scorer

Robert Hill, who'll start at halfback for the Abilene Eagles against Big Spring here tonight, is the leading scorer in District 3-AAAA for the season with 58 points.

game of the 1968 campaign for Big Spring. The locals go to Odessa next Friday to square off with Permian in their final start of the year.

Despite some frustrating games, Abilene has some fine personnel and Big Spring will have to be playing well to win. Local coaches and scouts agree on that point. Any letdown on the part of the locals and they'll be rubbing their wounds for a week or more.

Quarterback Mike Walsh, halfback Richard Levels and Robert Hill, guard Angel Aguirre and tackles Robert Garcia and John Stokes are among the outstanding players for the Flock.

Big Spring will again be below peak strength. It appears Luven Flores, who plays both ways, will miss the action due to a knee injury. He joins a long hospital list.

The Steers will again lean heavily upon their multiple offensive sets, which has dealt all foes misery. The Steers have been scored upon often but have also scored a lot and scouts find it difficult to get an accurate line on them.

Gary Hinds will once more be at the controls for the Longhorns while Johnny Patton and Rick Peurifoy will divide time at the wingback spot. Roy Lee Warren will be at the running back position while Rocky Wooley will perform at fullback.

The Steers set a record of sorts by beating Odessa High for the first time in one season last fall. Turning that trick two years running would prove a balm for some of the frustrations they've experienced since play began back in September.

Probable starters:

BIG SPRING
E-Ricky Eiv, Thomas 145 and Jimmy Farris 140; T-Greg Lewis 190 and Steve Russell 190; G-John Stokes 185 and Robert Garcia 200; C-Tommy Wright 190; QB-Gary Hinds 145; RB-Lee Warren 175; FB-Ricky Peurifoy 140; FB-Rocky Wooley 200

ABILENE

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Big Spring's Roy Lee Warren, who gained an impressive 600 yards in ten games last year, bettered that in his first seven starts this fall.

His net pickup through the San Angelo engagement was 635 paces.

The opposition has been watching him like a hawk, however. He sailed into the end zone for eight touchdowns last year but only had three after seven starts this year.

With three of the starting backs due to return and lineemen like Lewis Jimmy Farris, Tony Dean, Fernando Mendoza and Edwis Switzer, tackles Randy Morgan and Robert Dennis, guards Milton Arriola and Phil Gulim and center Roy Anderson returning, the Longhorns have a nucleus for a good club next year.

Too, the graduates of the JV and Soph units should be of enormous help to the 1969 Steers, too.

One of the pleasant surprises in the Longhorn line has been Guina, a quick guard with an appetite for blocking.

One of the 1968's best football games has to be that recent encounter between UT-El Paso and Brigham Young at Provo, Utah.

The Miners from El Paso were behind, 25-3, with 10:37 to play when Brooks Dawson, who had been threatened with second line duty, went to work on the Cougars.

Brooks completed 17 of 24 passes for 304 yards and three TD's. He also drove the Miners to the two-yard line with another pass which set up the winning score.

Eddie Mullins, the cliché-loving publicity man for UTEP, said the Miners turned Brigham Young's Homecoming dream into a nightmare quicker than a green private saluting a second lieutenant.

Coach Bobby Dobbs of UTEP said following the game that his team's comeback was the greatest he'd ever seen in his coaching career.

Offhand, I'd say the Southwest Conference's two best bets for All-America honors this year are Jerry Levias of SMU and Lloyd Waincott of Texas, but not necessarily in that order.

Levias has more moves than a barrel of eels. Waincott plays at a position (defensive tackle) where players don't ordinarily reap a lot of publicity.

The man most sought after by the pros in the state, however, could be the 274-pound Joe Greene of North Texas State who some bird dogs employed by the pro leagues insist is better than Willie Townes of the Dallas Cowboys.

Since joining the National (baseball) league seven years ago, the Houston Astros have played to 9,854,499 at home. That averages out to 1,293,500 a season—remarkable considering the fact that the Astros have never threatened for a championship.

Since moving into the Astrodome four years ago, the Astros have lured 6,004,768 through the turnstiles for a 1,671,192 norm.

On the subject of the domed stadium and its Astroturf, QB Joe Namath of the New York Jets is sold on the artificial footing.

"Everybody likes Astroturf better than regular turf, but the best thing about playing in the Astrodome is not having a wind factor and bad weather."

Joe also pointed out another "plus" factor for the Houston showplace:

"It's level. At Shea Stadium (in New York), there's a three-foot drop at one end of the field."

JV's Invade Eagle Aerie

The Big Spring JV's seek their eighth win in nine starts in a 2 p.m. game with Abilene High Saturday in Abilene.

Only loss inflicted on the local JV's this season was by another Abilene school, Cooper. Final score in that one was 30-21.

The Shorthorns experienced perhaps their finest hour last week when they gored Midland High, 53-0.

The local JV's close out against Permian at 2 p.m. here Nov. 16. That one will be played in Memorial Stadium.

The Shorthorns have inflicted defeats upon Snyder, Midland Lee, Odessa Ector, Lubbock Estacado, Odessa High and San Angelo, in addition to Midland High.

Cougars Win Over Forsan

KLONDIKE — The Forsan girls took their lumps in basketball here Thursday night, losing both the A and B games. The reversal was the first in three starts for the Buffalo Queens.

Forsan returns to play at home Tuesday evening against Ira. Only one contest will be unrec'd that night.

Klondike broke loose in the final two periods after being contained by Forsan's press the first half and went on to win, 44-28. The victory was the fifth without a defeat for the Cougars, who went to the State tournament last year.

In B team play, Klondike won, 36-22. Jackie Condon counted 19 points for Forsan in that one while Becky Smith and Nita Dennis each had 14.

Klondike's forwards stand 6-0, 5-9 and 5-7. Forsan's tallest guard is 5-3. That accounted in part for Klondike's rally after the intermission.

Aggie Fish Win Over Picadors

LUBBOCK (AP)—The Texas A&M Fish remained undefeated in four games Thursday night with a come-from-behind 16-13 victory over the Texas Tech Picadors in a Southwest Conference freshman football game.

Steve Burks rambled nine yards for a touchdown in the final period. The dash by the former Dumas High School star overcame a 13-10 Tech lead and provided the victory margin.

Clifton Curtis kicked field goals of 33 and 34 yards for Tech and Dale Rebold scored on a one-yard run.

But the Fish struck on a 50-yard scoring pass from Joe King to Bill Polasek and Richard Baldeschwiler's 34-yard field goal.

Toros Ambush Snyder Lamar

Stout defensive play boomed the ninth grade Toros to a 26-6 victory over Snyder Lamar here Thursday night.

Scott Knight scored two touchdowns and Mark Erhart and Mark McCraney one each for the Toros. Mike McCormick and Terry Hodnett accounted for the four extra points.

Lamar did not get across the goal line until Big Spring had accounted for its last TD.

Erhart did a fine job on offense for the Toros, as did end Cal Lowery and Hodnett.

On defense, the performances of John Rought, Pete Shaffer and Scott Knight, along with Greg Knight and Joe Pesina were commendable.

The win was the second of the season for the Toros, who had lost previous to Lamar, 20-10.

The Toros wind up play in a big one with the Big Spring Brahmas here next Thursday.

Odds And Ends Meet Winners

The Odds and Ends emerged as first place winners in team competition in the annual Women's Bowling Association city tournament staged the past weekend at the Bowl-A-Rama.

The Odds and Ends posted an aggregate score of 2,951 to beat out runnerup Dibrell's by eight pins.

Louise Booth and Myrle LeRoy registered the top doubles score, a 1,274, while Joan Moore led all singles players with a 646.

LaRheta Warner won in both scratch and handicap play in all-events, counting 1,693 without benefit of handicap and 1,889 with it.

The meet attracted 29 entries which combined for 80 singles and 40 doubles registrations.

The prizes will be distributed following a salad supper in the Reddi-Room at the Texas Elec-

Lamar Upsets Goliad, 14-12

An extra point run by Glenn Hoyle following Lamar's second touchdown, which came in the fourth quarter, enabled the Snyder visitors to edge Big Spring Goliad, 14-12, here Thursday night.

Lamar's hard-charging line had a lot to do with the win. The invaders continually kept the Goliad team from going to the air.

A 17-yard run by Ricky Steen and a 15-yard pass from QB Alan Davis to Barry Truette set up Goliad's first score in Round One.

Mike Tredaway made the TD on a six-yard run. A passing try for point failed.

A Snyder fumble got Big Spring on the move again in the second but a bobble cost the Mavericks possession on the enemy 20.

They then launched a drive that resulted in a TD and the tying score.

Steen opened the second half by returning the kickoff 80 yards for the tally; but Big Spring again failed to convert.

A big kickoff return by David Tyrone and a 38-yard run by Hoyle set up Snyder's second and winning TD.

Big Spring got to Snyder's eight late in the game but was held for downs.

Big Spring made 63 yards in the air and 166 rushing. Snyder made 184 yards on the ground.

Tigers Could Get Bowl Bid

DALLAS (AP) — Missouri, rated No. 8 among the nation's college football teams, appeared today to be a likely choice for the guest club Jan. 1 in the Cotton Bowl.

The Dallas News quoted reliable Big Eight sources as saying that Kansas, unbeaten in seven games and ranked No. 3, apparently prefers the Orange Bowl and a probable match with fifth-ranked Tennessee, which stands 5-0-1.

Missouri's Tigers have won six games since bowing to Kentucky 12-6 in their opener. Still on their schedule are games with Iowa State, Oklahoma and Kansas.

"Right now, if Missouri beats Oklahoma they'll look awfully good," a Cotton Bowl source said.

The News said a Missouri source advised that with coach Dan Devine "a whole lot depends on the opponent—he'll go anywhere to play a prestige opponent. He'd certainly go to the Cotton Bowl to play Texas and he'd walk down there if he had a chance to play Arkansas."

HOGS HEAVY FAVORITES

Four Front-Runners Facing Severe Tests In S'west

The first division teams take on the tattered second division clubs in Southwest Conference play Saturday and the slightest slip could mean a damaging blow to championship hopes.

Arkansas, Texas, Texas Tech and Southern Methodist risk a piece of the lead in one of the hottest championship races in years.

The Razorbacks are the heaviest favorites of all—hosting winless Rice on homecoming at Fayetteville. The groggy Owls hope to defeat Arkansas on its home grounds for the first time since 1958.

The 14th ranked Razorbacks have become an explosive offensive club under the leadership of sophomore quarterback Bill Montgomery. An overload crowd of 42,000 is expected to see Arkansas (6-1 overall and 3-1 in SWC play) attempt to contain Rice and its gaffly quarterback, Robby Shelton.

Texas—10th ranked—is a heavy favorite to crush Baylor at Waco. The Longhorns are 5-1-1 for the year and 3-1 in SWC play. They have one of the finest backfields in the country in slippery Chris Gilbert, Steve Worster, and Ted Koy. Junior quarterback James Street has done an exceptional job running the club after taking over following the loss to Texas Tech. Some 40,650 persons are expected. Baylor, 1-5 and 1-2, depends on quarterback Steve Stuart and

A No-No Thrust By Howard Stewart

Big Spring's Howard Stewart (in white helmet), one of the defensive stars in the Sophomores' 14-0 victory over San Angelo, is shown here putting the clamps on the Kittens' Buzzy Gaston. The Sophs are now 8-1 on the season.

Lengthy Runs Propel Dogies To 14-0 Win

The Big Spring Sophomores rediscovered the victory formula here Thursday, resorting to two long runs in administering a 14-0 defeat to the San Angelo Sophomores. The win was the second of the season for the Dogies over the Kittens and left them with a 8-1 record. The locals close out here a week from tomorrow against Sweetwater's JV. The Dogies couldn't move the ball with any great success against the Angeloans but bristled on defense. On one occasion in the second period, the Kittens chugged to the Big Spring one and a half yard line but Howard Stewart and Tommy Fletcher combined to throw the visitors back to the six on an attempted sweep on the next play, after which the Kittens lost the ball on a fumble. The Dogies had trouble maintaining possession of the ball or the outcome, no doubt, would have been pronounced. San Angelo recovered four Big Spring fumbles and intercepted

Yearlings Claim 7th Win Of Year

Conley returned a fourth period punt 65 yards down to Snyder's 18 to set up the final Yearling TD. From that point, Runnels counted in four plays, Johnny Ortega bruised across from three yards out. Ortega also tallied the two PAT's on a run. When Ortega went in for the TD, 5:05 was left on the clock. Smith gained an even 100 yards in eight carries, Conley 50 paces in nine and Ortega 42 in eight. The Yearlings had more than 200 yards in gains wiped out in penalties. A 65-yard touchdown by Conley and one for 70 yards by Smith were erased due to infractions. Smith had perhaps his best game on offense ever for the Yearlings. Other standouts included Conley and Ortega. On defense, Robert Foster, Willie Williams, Conley, Vin McQueen, Ortega and Pablo Flores were impressive. Big Spring 8 0 6 8-22 Snyder 0 0 0 0-0 that used up six plays, ultimately cashing in on the final play of the period. The score was set up on a 36-yard run by Smith. Conley roared across from 10 yards out to make it 14-0. # Southern Cal Is Facing Challenge This Weekend

Southern California, with a bit of tarnish on its No. 1 reputation, faces a stern threat this weekend of having it completely blackened. The Trojans, whose advantage over Ohio State in The Associated Press poll has been shaved to a paper thin edge, square off against defensive-minded California Saturday in a match that will probably not only determine one of the Rose Bowl participants but also the national champion. Sensational O. J. Simpson was held to 67 yards and Southern Cal scored a touchdown with just 1:13 left last week to squeak unheralded Oregon State 20-13 for its sixth straight. Since Ohio State, also 6-0, is an overwhelming favorite Saturday against hapless Wisconsin, 14-6, the Trojans undoubtedly will have to be impressive to maintain their hold on the top spot. And, they will have to do it against a stingy defense. California, ranked No. 11, has permitted only 39 points in rolling to a 5-1 record. While Ohio State should have an easy time of it, No. 3 Kansas and No. 4 Penn State—both eyeing Orange Bowl bids—face strong foes in their efforts to remain unbeaten. Kansas, fresh from a 27-14 coast past Colorado for seventh straight, plays host to stubborn Oklahoma, 5-3, and Penn State, 6-0, which survived a late rally to subdue Army 25-2, enters tattered but strong Miami, Fla., 5-2.

Miss Whitworth had the low round over the 5,983-yard layout with a sizzling three-under-par No. 5 Tennessee, 5-0-1, tackles 67.

AT RESORT FOR BRITISH RICH

Nab Great Train Robber

LONDON (AP)—Bruce Reynolds, wanted as the mastermind of Britain's Great Train Robbery five years ago, was arrested today in Torquay, a favorite holiday resort of British millionaires on the south coast.

Reynolds was named by police as the planner of the $7 million mail train robbery on Aug. 8, 1963. About $1 million of the lot has been recovered.

The capture of Reynolds left only Ronald Biggs, a relatively minor figure in the robbery, still at large. Biggs escaped from London's Wandsworth Prison in July 1965.

BRUCE REYNOLDS

who escaped from prison in 1964.

Wilson was trapped in a hideout in Quebec Province and brought back to Britain to serve out a 30-year sentence.

Reynolds was the only member of the gang who has not been brought to trial.

Detective Chief Supt. Thomas Butler, head of Scotland Yard's flying squad, postponed his retirement in July, 1967, to carry on his 14-hours-a-day, seven-days-a-week search for Reynolds.

15-MAN GANG

The 15-man gang that pulled off history's biggest robbery was organized with military precision and was trained as railroad men, mechanics and drivers. They moved to the hijack spot northwest of London in a convoy, rigged a signal to stop the mail train, knocked out the engineer and raided the mail coach of currency being shipped to London by banks in Northern England, the Midlands and Scotland.

The gang was discovered through the hideout farm it had bought. Ronald "Buster" Edwards, caught in 1966, had been detailed to wipe the farmhouse clear of fingerprints but he became frightened at the enormity of the robbery and fled without completing his job.

SECOND COUP

His capture was the second Great Train Robbery coup by British police this year. In January, Scotland Yard detectives and the Royal Canadian Mounted Police seized Charles Wilson, 37, another leader of the gang

MOST WANTED

Reynolds, 37, was arrested in the fashionable Babbacombe suburb of Torquay, a sedate resort city on the Cornish Riviera. Scotland Yard's announcement of the capture made no mention of any resistance by Reynolds.

He was being brought to London for questioning.

Reynolds has been Britain's most wanted fugitive since 12 days after the 1963 robbery. Police hope they can learn from him something about the $6 million dollars of British currency which is still missing.

Scotland Yard said he was living with his wife and two children in a modest house in Babbacombe.

It was not immediately learned how long they had been living there or how the detectives tracked him down.

Reynolds had been reported

Dear Abby He Has No Romance

DEAR ABBY: After you have read my letter, please tell me if you think I am "tetched" or not.

I am married to a merchant marine. He is 57 and I am 62. We have been married for five years. This is the second marriage for both of us.

Abby, my husband is out at sea three months out of four, and when he's gone I get so lonely for romance I could just die. I don't feel 62, and I don't look it either.

When my husband is home he wants to spend the whole 30 days in front of the television set. He never wants to take me out. He says he loves me, but he doesn't show me any affection, and I still like to be romanced. He supports me, which I appreciate, but I want more out of life. He says at our age sex does not matter. I told him to speak for himself, John. My question, am I expecting too much from him at his age?

62 AND RARIN' TO GO
DEAR ABBY: The amount of romance each person desires (or requires) depends on the individual's physical condition, attitudes, "get up and go," and a number of other factors. Some people are plum tucked out at 35, while others are rarin' to go at 70. If your husband says you are expecting too much of him at his age, you'd better believe him.

DEAR ABBY: I'm ashamed of my husband because he speaks English so poorly. He's not a foreigner, Abby. He's had a high school education, but he talks like his parents, and they're foreigners.

On the plus side, Louie is a good provider. He doesn't run around, and he's good to the children and me. But the way he murders the king's English irks me.

I've given Louie books on grammar and I've even suggested he attend some adult education classes. But he never gets around to it. I correct him every time he opens his mouth, but he's either stupid or he doesn't care.

What do you suggest? I've even considered divorce.

EMBARRASSED
DEAR EMBARRASSED: DIVORCE? That's like chopping a man's head off to get rid of the dandruff. Maybe there's something wrong with the way you "correct" him, or "suggest" that he learn. How come his grammar didn't irk you when he asked you to marry him? Or did you plan on making him over after marriage? If so, you'd better find a more effective way to "help" him or learn to live with his deficiencies.

DEAR ABBY: I would appreciate your ideas on wigs. I think they are perfectly wonderful, but I always feel guilty when I wear one.

I'm a 40-year-old housewife and full time secretary. I often wear a wig to the office. When someone says, "My, your hair looks nice," I never know what to say.

To me, a wig is a personal thing, and I don't care to advertise the fact that I am wearing one. Yet I don't like to deceive people. Any suggestions?

FEELING GUILTY
DEAR FEELING: A wig is indeed a personal thing and you need not feel guilty for not advertising the fact that you're wearing one. When someone compliments you on your hair, say, "Thank you." But if you're asked, "Is that YOUR hair," say, "Yes! I paid for it."

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Kiesinger Clout Nets Woman Jail

BERLIN (AP) — A 29-year-old woman who had badgered West German Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger for several years was sentenced Thursday to a year in jail for clouting him in the eye.

Months in prison for doing what I did," she said.

Kiesinger was signing autographs Thursday at the end of the national congress of his Christian Democratic party when Mrs. Klarsfeld came up behind the chancellor's security guards with an old press pass of her husband's and slapped him when he turned to her.

HONOR
"If I have to serve the sentence, I shall do it with a sense of honor. So many people lost their lives in Auschwitz, I would be happy to spend only a few months in prison for doing what I did," she said.

Kiesinger was signing autographs Thursday at the end of the national congress of his Christian Democratic party when Mrs. Klarsfeld came up behind the chancellor's security guards with an old press pass of her husband's and slapped him when he turned to her.

"I saw that broad, grinning face," she said. "And I thought to myself, 'Okay, just let him have it.' So then I let fly at him. It was simple."
