Fought Fire

Mrs. Helga Wood, 31, a Continental Airlines stewardess, tells how she used a fire extinguisher following an explosion and fire in the restroom of a Boeing 707 jetliner about to land at Denver yesterday. A Continental official said the stewardess was a "heroine." The plane landed safely and police arrested a male passenger on charges of violating the federal destruction of aircraft statutes.

Plane Lands Safely Following Blast, Fire

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — An explosion and fire endangered a Continental Airlines 707 jetliner as it approached Denver Tuesday carrying seven crewmen and 63 passengers, including Sen. Clifford Hansen, R-Wyo.

The fire was put out and when the plane descended from 18,000 feet and landed safely on a foam-covered runway, FBI agents arrested one passenger, Lawrence B. Havelock, 47, of Lake George, Colo.

"BLOWING OFF"
"It was like a sonic boom," said Higa Wood, 31, a hostess. "Like the whole tail was blowing off."

"The smoke got so bad I felt like kicking out a window," said Hansen who was bound for a speaking engagement in Lander, Wyo.

"We don't know what caused it," the senator said, "although there was speculation saboteurs were aboard."

Havelock was arraigned before a U.S. commissioner in Denver on charges of violating the federal aircraft destruction statute and was held in lieu of $10,000 bail. He sobbed during the hearing, and said he was tired and "a little upset."

Mrs. Havelock said her husband had undergone follow-up surgery about three weeks ago in connection with earlier removal of a tumor from beneath his skull. Officials at the Denver Veterans Administration Hospital said Havelock was discharged Oct. 23.

The FBI said smoke started pouring into the passenger cabin and a concussion was felt just 12 minutes before the plane was to have touched down.

Mrs. Wood said a lavatory door was blown off with a rush of flames and smoke. She said she ran to the cockpit, shouted to the pilot, Ken Tiegs, Littleton, Colo., "There's a fire back there!" and grabbed a fire extinguisher.

By the time she got back, another hostess, Gunnel Eriksen, 31, was calmly spraying the fire with another extinguisher.

"She was the hero," said Mrs. Wood, who is from Augsburg, Germany. Miss Eriksen is from Sweden.

MANNINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — Thundering explosions ripped through a rich slope-shaft coal mine early today trapping as many as 75 miners, but the Marion County sheriff's office and coal company officials said 21 had been located or rescued. Over 50 are still unaccounted for.

SMOKE CLOGGED
Smoke and fire billowed from one entrance to the mine and smoke clogged the others. Sheriff Robert Tennant said eight men had been found at the bottom of a shaft and were scooped out two at a time in a bucket lowered to the shaft by a crane.

The mine is the Mountaineer Coal Company's No. 9, located just west of here in the rich coal country of north central West Virginia near the Pennsylvania state line. Mountaineer is the state's third largest coal producing company and is a division of Consolidation Coal Company.

Mountaineer's president, Dave Davis, said 13 miners had come out of the mine at the slope opening near the coal preparation plant.

"Severity of the explosion forces in the Llewellyn portal area were of such great magnitude as to place in jeopardy the lives of the employees working in the immediate area," Davis said.

The company said 360 men worked the mine in three shifts. The more than 70 men of the third shift were due off about 7:30 a.m. (EST), but the first explosion rumbled through the long shaft about an hour and a half earlier.

RESCUE TEAMS

Wives and children of the miners rushed to the entrance as did rescue teams from across the area. Tennant said 79 men reached the surface safely, just after the first blast. The force of the blast, Tennant said, blew machinery through the Llewellyn portal and destroyed it. Rescuers concentrated on the Farmington portal, about one mile from the Llewellyn entrance.

West Virginia governor Hulett C. Smith, in Charleston, said he sent mine experts to the scene and he had received offers of assistance from Washington.

One of those reported safe was Matt Menas Jr., whose father was killed in the same mine in a blast that took 15 lives on Nov. 13, 1954.

State Mines Director Elmer Workman rushed to the scene to direct rescue efforts.

The Mannington mine produced more than two million tons of coal last year. The shaft has a 98-inch coal seam which is an abnormally large seam and the mine's production indicates its richness. Daily production averages 9,434 tons.

Workers Join Czech Strike

PRAGUE (AP) — Scattered token strikes broke out in Prague plants today in support of students, who announced they would prolong their massive sit-in demonstration by 24 hours.

The worker and student action was to protest loss of freedom following the Soviet-led invasion. It is a challenge to the country's Communist leaders, who have accommodated themselves to Moscow's demands.

In a few plants work actually was halted for 15 or 30 minutes. Whistles sounded from several factories in the industrial Vysochany district as a show of worker solidarity in plants where there were no work stoppages.

MARKETS CLOSE

Finance Ministers Hope To Curb Money Crisis

LONDON (AP) — The leading finance ministers of the Western world hurried to Bonn today to try to halt the second major crisis in the international monetary system this year.

Most Western money markets were shut to check speculators' attacks on major Western currencies.

With the money exchanges closed, the speculators switched to gold and sent its price soaring.

MORE SERIOUS
Many financial experts in London considered the present emergency even more serious than the March gold crisis because three of the world's principal trading currencies—the French franc, the pound sterling and the dollar — were simultaneously under attack by the speculators.

The crisis was sparked by belief that a devaluation of the franc and a revaluation upward of the West German deutschemark—the world's strongest currency—were imminent.

Speculators rushed to change francs for marks and the fever soon spread to include both the pound and the dollar. But the franc was hardest hit.

In an attempt to check the flight to the mark, the West German government announced that it would not revalue the currency but instead was making tax changes to reduce the large foreign trade surplus responsible for the expectation of revaluation.

In what London's Financial Times called a "backdoor revaluation," the Bonn government said it would reduce its tax on imports and the tax rebate it pays on exports. This should reduce the flow of West German exports and increase imports, resulting in a reduction of the surplus trade balance.

APPROVE CUTS
To strengthen confidence in the franc, the French National Assembly approved Premier Maurice Couve de Murville's proposal to reduce 1969 budget expenditures $400 million, which he said would cut the deficit for the year to $1.88 billion. The premier called the cut a "first leg" but gave no indication what spending programs would suffer.

To give the governments a breathing space while the financial community evaluated these measures, the French government closed all financial markets today.

Communists Step Up Rocket, Mortar Attacks

SAIGON (AP) — Communist gunners stepped up their rocket and mortar attacks Tuesday night, giving Da Nang its heaviest pounding in three months and hitting two American infantry units, five district towns and one provincial capital.

Casualties and damage generally were light. But one of the mortar attacks, on a night bivouac of U.S. 1st Division infantrymen 24 miles north of Saigon, was followed by a ground attack by 150 enemy soldiers hurling grenades and blazing away with machine guns.

DRIVEN OFF
Artillery and gunships drove the attackers off at daybreak after three hours of fighting. U.S. Headquarters said the bodies of 12 of the enemy were found just outside the American lines and 14 weapons were captured.

One American was killed and 12 were wounded.

Military spokesmen said in the other attacks one American and nine South Vietnamese were killed, and nine Americans and 13 South Vietnamese were wounded.

Sixty-five rockets and mortar rounds hit U.S. and South Vietnamese military installations in Da Nang, South Vietnam's second largest city and the biggest military complex north of Saigon.

Several shells slammed into a U.S. Navy hospital area, but initial reports said they caused no damage or casualties.

A South Vietnamese spokesman said one of the towns shelled was Camlo, 10 miles below the demilitarized zone, which was hit by 35 mortar rounds. One American serviceman and six South Vietnamese civilians were wounded.

No new incidents were reported inside the DMZ.

In the Mekong Delta, Viet Cong shells hit a base camp of the U.S. 9th Infantry Division in Dong Tam, 35 miles southwest of Saigon. Light damage and casualties were reported.

The South Vietnamese spokesman said there now have been 74 rocket and mortar attacks on population centers since President Johnson halted the bombing of North Vietnam Nov. 1. He said 33 civilians have been killed and 192 wounded in the attacks.

U.N. ENTRY Red China Loses Again

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Advocates of U.N. membership for Red China suffered their worst defeat in four years Tuesday. By a vote of 58-44 with 23 abstentions the General Assembly defeated a resolution to expel Nationalist China and seat the Chinese Communists.

A similar resolution was defeated last year by a vote of 58-45 with 17 abstentions. The pro-Peking forces came closest to victory in 1965 when the vote was a 47-47 tie.

This year's resolution was sponsored by 15 nations headed by Albania, Red China's mouthpiece in the United Nations.

Only two other Communist nations, Cuba and Romania, joined in sponsoring the draft. The Soviet Union, locked in an ideological dispute with the Chinese Reds, voted for the proposal after giving it only perfunctory support.

The assembly adhered to its previous policy of requiring a two-thirds vote.

Allowable The Same

AUSTIN (AP) — The Railroad Commission set the statewide oil allowable for December at 41.3 per cent of potential today, the fourth consecutive month it has not been changed.

The December allowable will permit maximum production of 3,027,299 barrels a day next month, the same as this month.

United Fund Report

The United Fund Drive hit the 90 per cent mark today with $98,558.54 reported toward the $109,225 goal.

Barney Toland Volkswagen employees contributed 100 per cent in fair share giving, and Texas Highway Patrolmen chipped in a large increase over their 1967 gifts, as did Texas Highway Department maintenance and engineering employees.

More gifts from the Big Spring State Hospital were reported, to make their 1968 contribution 12 per cent over 1967.

The employe division, with Don Womack as chairman, is 91 per cent complete, and the big gifts division, Jimmy Taylor as chairman, is 94 per cent complete.

Mayor Calls For Grand Jury Check Of Black Panthers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mayor Joseph L. Alioto called for a grand jury investigation of the Black Panthers following a gun battle in which three policemen were wounded, two critically. Eight Negroes were arrested.

The shooting Tuesday erupted within 100 yards of a police station after two cruising patrolmen stopped a panel truck minutes after a service station hold-up.

SHOT

Police said Sgt. Robert Flynn, 51, was shot in the groin while questioning the driver of the van, which had "Black Community News Service" painted on the side.

"He had the driver with his hands on the side of the truck when someone inside the front seat shot him," said John Palou, a fireman at a station directly across the street.

Lt. Dermott Creedon, 49, was shot in the chest as he stepped out of the patrol car, revolver in hand, police said.

Alioto called Tuesday night for a grand jury investigation "into any organization which advocates shooting of policemen and to which any of the defendants belong."

Creedon and Flynn remained in critical condition today.

Three officers were in a car which answered an emergency call from Creedon.

Lt. Michael O'Mahoney said: "I saw three men pour out of the van and I ordered them to halt, but they fired at me and ran into an alleyway next to a church."

O'Mahoney was wounded in the hand, but said the three came out of the church with their hands up after he fired three warning shots.

The other officers with O'Mahoney ran to the van.

EPIDEMICS EXPECTED Flu Not Serious

WASHINGTON (AP) — The surgeon general says early cases of the new Hong Kong flu have been mild, but a lot of people will still spend two or three days in bed with the disease this winter.

Dr. William H. Stewart said in an interview the new flu appears free of complications or after effects, even though "you still don't feel very good when you have it."

After two or three days "you're back on your feet, but you don't feel quite up to par. It's no more serious than ordinary influenza."

DON'T NEED IT
Stewart said persons in good health and under 65 years of age won't even need the vaccine developed to ward off the disease.

But the surgeon general said he expects the disease to reach epidemic proportions.

The new strain, officially designated A2-Hong Kong-68 because it was first noted in Hong Kong this year, is a variety of the A2 flu that went around last year.

Stewart said vaccine supplies should be adequate for those who need protection.

Stewart said vaccination against last year's rash of flu, caused by the same strain as in 1957, offers little protection this winter.

Mob Routs Mayor Alioto

San Francisco Mayor Alioto faces jeering, howling students at San Francisco State College yesterday as he was intercepted by the howling students as he left the office of college president Robert Smith. The mayor was ushered off the campus by 150 tormentors who shouted him down when he tried to address the students.

Parents Conduct Sit-Ins To Protest End Of Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — Union teachers returned today to three schools in Ocean Hill-Brownsville where angry groups of parents had held overnight sit-ins to protest part of the agreement that ended the teachers' strike.

The teachers and the students entered the schools after a state trustee running the experimental, decentralized Brooklyn district gave the principals at these schools letters removing them from authority.

The letters also required that unauthorized persons be out of the school buildings before students would be allowed to enter.

The sit-in protest followed the generally peaceful reopening of the city's 900 schools Tuesday after a citywide strike that kept most of the 1.1 million public school pupils out of class for 35 days.

A key point in settlement with the AFL-CIO United Federation of Teachers was the reassignment of the three Ocean Hill principals pending a court hearing on the legality of their appointment.

The union said that the principals were among those who had harassed union teachers in the district. An eleventh hour legal move by the New York Civil Liberties Union failed to prevent the reassignment of the three men at this time.

Police Problem

Film and TV actress Zsa Zsa Gabor, who got her passport back today at Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands, is shown with a puppy at an animal shelter Monday before she had a fracas with a Mallorcan cop. Miss Gabor had been vacationing in Palma and had planned to leave Monday for Paris but her passport was picked up and she was called into private session with an investigative municipal judge Tuesday night.

Mail Deadlines Are Posted

Christmas mail deadlines were posted by Frank Hardesty postmaster, today.

All domestic gift parcels for distant states should be mailed before Dec. 2, he warned, while those for local areas should be in the mail not later than Dec. 14.

Greeting cards for distant states need to be dispatched not later than Dec. 11 and local cards not later than Dec. 16.

Suggested deadlines for gifts assigned to men and women in service overseas are:

Space available (airlift for small parcels.) Nov. 23; parcel air lift, Nov. 30; Airmail, Dec. 1.

Letter mail, Hardesty said, will receive about the same service as during non-peak periods. Last Christmas, he added, the armed forces in Vietnam received the equivalent of about 50 pounds of mail per man during the Christmas rush.

Hardesty urged all local patrons of the post office to make sure their mail is handled within the above deadlines to assure on time Christmas delivery.

'CONFRONTATION'

The principals are Luis Fuentes, PS 155, the city's only Puerto Rican principal; William H. Harris of JHS 271 and Ralph Rogers of PS 144. Harris and Rogers are Negroes. All three principals left their schools before students and teachers entered.

Rhody A. McCoy, administrator of the predominantly Negro and Puerto Rican district, had earlier warned there could be a "confrontation" over the issue of the principals.

There were extra police assigned to the district overnight but a police spokesman said there were no plans to remove the sit-ins.

"These people are not acting illegally as far as we are concerned," said a police spokesman. "The principals are still in charge of the schools and until we hear from higher authority to the contrary, there is nothing illegal about it."

DISTURBANCE
The Board of Education is appealing a lower court ruling that it appointed the three principals in violation of Civil Service regulations.

In the one reported disturbance during the day Tuesday, a group of parents in Brooklyn's Bedford-Stuyvesant section barred the principal of P.S. 93 from entering. Most of the teachers stayed away with him. Julius Nislow, the principal, has refused community demands that he open the school during the strike.

A Devotional For The Day

Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one sinner destroyeth much good. (Ecclesiastes 9:18)
PRAYER: Eternal Father, wilt Thou fill our hearts with Thy wisdom that we may ever seek to banish from the minds and hearts of men the tendency to follow destruction and war. We ask it in Jesus' name. Amen.
 (From the 'Upper Room')

Majority Will Established

An official recount of the Nov. 5 election corrected errors in tabulation and has reversed the unofficial results, electing W. S. (Bill) Crooker, county commissioner of Precinct 3 by a 149-vote margin. There had been an obvious error in the absentee box which had more votes tabulated in the No. 3 race than there were applications. The recount also resulted in other changes, most notably in box No. 3, where Mrs. Mae Hayden, incumbent, dropped 78 votes and Mr. Crooker picked up 12.

Thus, the matter has been settled in a proper, legal manner, and the results stand firmly and now correctly. This is what all parties to the election — the public included — wanted. Accuracy is the goal in counting, and under a recount situation, it is not so difficult to obtain. Possibly this mix-up could have thwarted the will of the majority in the precinct had it not occurred under two circumstances. First of all, the applications provided a cross check in the absentee box; and secondly, the original difference of 81 votes put the results within the five per cent range which would permit a petition for a recount. Thus, the recount was in order.

There should be some lessons in this. One is that in general the bigger the box the more chance for error. Election judges are hard put in obtaining experienced crews and particularly those qualified to count. Also, because they are too big, the pressure is increased upon the counters in order to keep the boxes from reporting unduly late, a condition that increases the chance for error.

What happened in the absentee box, according to the canvassing board chairman, likely was that one stack of ballots was counted twice — in this case the most likely but conjectural thing was that it happened to Mrs. Hayden's straight-ticket stack. (A similar variance between applications and votes in box No. 1 went to this theory.)

But in the other jumbo box, No. 3, there occurred a substantial counting error.

For many years we have advocated breaking up the huge town boxes. We still think that this should be done; that no box ought to have more than 700 or 800 as a potential voting strength. This would relieve the jumbo box judges of a tremendous strain, should expedite returns, and above all, contribute to conditions that would help increase accuracy in tabulation.

Less Jar On Purse, Too

One of the most startling statistics in the field of automobile damage insurance claims has been provided by Edward Daniels, claim manager for the Inter-Insurance Exchange of the Automobile Club of Michigan. By simply making automobile bumpers functional enough to withstand a crash of five to 10 miles an hour, the nation's automobile repair bill of $5 to $6 billion a year could be reduced by $1 billion, he said.

A few manufacturers have already moved to improve their bumpers. Other manufacturers would do well to follow this example. The prospect of reducing accident claims by one-fifth or one-sixth is not one that can be disregarded lightly.

David Lawrence Continued Threat Of European War

WASHINGTON — Is the next world war to be fought with conventional instead of nuclear weapons, and is the present situation in Eastern Europe and the Middle East likely to bring a climax such as occurred in 1914 and again in 1939?

The news dispatches read very much the same as they did in the two pre-war periods. Formal warnings were given beforehand that the free nations would defend the smaller ones, but a military dictatorship in each case questioned the capacity of the Western nations to live up to the promises they had given other countries.

TO UNDERSTAND what is happening now, it is necessary to consider the crisis in Czechoslovakia, the threatened war in the Middle East and the prolonged war in Vietnam as having all been precipitated by the Communists in the belief that the Western powers would never get into a big war again.

Even today Moscow and Peking have been encouraged by reading the American newspapers which tell of the widespread protest marches against the Vietnam war, as well as speeches uttered by influential members of both the House and the Senate condemning the war and demanding what amounts to unconditional surrender.

BUT THE WORDS of the United States government commenting on the invasion of Czechoslovakia are explicit and unequivocal. President Johnson on August 21 spoke plainly in a formal statement when he declared:

"The tragic news from Czechoslovakia shocks the conscience of the world. The Soviet Union and

Billy Graham

How can I become a better teacher and Christian? L.O.P. Have you tried the New Testament? I have about every commentary in my library in the English language and I often get some help from them. But I find my greatest help and inspiration in the Bible itself. I'm afraid that too many teachers depend too much on the thoughts and ideas of others. It is amazing how the Scriptures unfold themselves when we study and meditate upon them. One of the secrets of David's greatness was in the words: "In thy law do I meditate day and night." Job said: "Thy Word is more than my necessary food."

I suggest that you read your commentaries, but meditate on the Scriptural texts of the lesson. Read it prayerfully, and I believe that you will find that God will speak to you through its pages. Thoughts will come to you, and they will be relevant to today's problems. And by so doing, your own soul will be strengthened. By the same token, you will become a stronger and more effective teacher of the Word.

John Cunniff Market Losers Are Winners Time

NEW YORK (AP) — This is the time of year when the stock market losers are winners, when traders admire their worst stocks, when losses add up to savings.

This perennial drama is staged every year at this time with an unlikely cast: the loser, the tax collector and perhaps a broker who admits he gave his customer bad advice and now suggests the customer sell.

THIS IS the tax-loss season. From now until Dec. 31 brokers and their clients will be analyzing their worst as well as their best stocks, their aim being to turn the losses into income tax deductions. The tax law states that you may deduct stock market losses of as much as $1,000 from your taxable income in any one year. The loss must actually be realized, of course; paper losses don't count.

Making the matter somewhat more important this year is the surtax, which means that the tax levied on capital gains will be 7.5 per cent higher than last year ago. In some cases a good loss could more than offset this.

FOR AN individual with taxable income of $5,000 the deduction on a market loss of $1,000 can cut about $220 from the tax bill. A tax saving of $360 might be realized on $10,000 income and about $400 on $15,000 taxable pay.

Perhaps as important from an investor's viewpoint is that in searching for tax-loss candidates, the shareholder is forced to evaluate his entire portfolio, a search that often reveals inadequacies in the investment position.

A point to remember is that although $1,000 in losses can be deducted in one year, losses exceeding that figure may be carried forward and applied against next year's taxes. This can go on indefinitely.

IF YOUR loss comes to $3,000, for example, you're entitled to deductions of $1,000 a year for the next three years. If you've incurred $7,000 in losses you may deduct $1,000 a year for the next seven years.

As is the case when dealing with any tax matter, there are intricacies and refinements and even what some would say are loopholes. These should be discussed with your broker or investment adviser.

HOWEVER, what appears to be an obvious loophole has already been knotted by the Internal Revenue Service. That is, you cannot sell a stock merely to apply the loss to this year's income and then go out and repurchase the issue.

The rule states that the tax loss will not be allowed if within 31 days the taxpayer buys the same or substantially the same security. Such transactions are termed wash sales.

Hal Boyle Put Your Daydreams First

NEW YORK (AP) — Many busy people begin the morning by sitting down and writing pompous little memos to themselves headed: "Things Simply Must Get Done Today."

The list is rather nonearth-shaking: "Get car washed." "Buy two bottles milk of magnesia—one with mint flavor." "Drop by bank and explain your overdraft." "See dentist about loose bridge." "Call Myrtle." "Call Joe." "Call Jim."

IT IS BY dealing with these minutiae of daily emergency that we spend most of our waking hours. But they are on the dull side, aren't they?

How much more exciting it might make living seem if we started off each day by writing memos about our unachieved daydreams. These could be headed: "Things Must Be Sure To Do By Day After Tomorrow At The Latest."

Here are a few suggested possibilities: Become a pool shark on the sly and beat Minnesota Fats. Swim the English Channel, using only the butterfly stroke. Run for sheriff and create the only truly crime-free county in America.

Invent a new international currency that would take the place of money and never have its value dented by inflation.

ORGANIZE a sociable society for unsociable hermits.

Find a way to improve parents so noticeably that they would become impressive even to their teenage children.

Present the world's largest white elephant to your next-door neighbor, who now has the world's noisiest dog.

Pass the buck back to someone at the office who has been passing it to you for 20 years.

Raise a turkey with enough meat on it to last through both Thanksgiving and Christmas. Build an agile, four-legged, ferocious automatic robot that would scamper across the front yard and bite the ankle of the postman every time he tried to deliver junk mail to your door.

PURCHASE a small, economy-sized computer that would help your kids solve their algebra problems—and also fill out government tax forms.

Concoct a happiness pill or spray that would cause a restaurant waiter or a cab driver to smile with utter bliss whenever you gave them a nickel tip.

Yep, if you're in the habit of scribbling things-to-do memos to yourself, why not make them more fun by giving priority to those really most worthwhile? Always put your daydreams first.

To Your Good Health Heartburn When You Are Pregnant

(The following article was written for release before the death of Dr. Joseph G. Molner.)

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.
 Dear Dr. Molner: I am eight months pregnant and get heartburn very bad. I cannot take any of the ordinary indigestion pills because they contain sodium and I am on a salt-free (low sodium) diet because of excess weight.

Could you tell me anything to take? This is getting unbearable. What causes heartburn in pregnancy? — Mrs. H.W.

The expanding womb is what causes heartburn in pregnancy. It puts pressure on the digestive organs. There are several ways to combat it, and I will get to them in a moment, but let me straighten out a couple of other points first.

A low-salt diet isn't primarily intended to answer the problem of excess weight. It is to prevent excessive accumulation of fluids in the body. That is sort of an offshoot of a weight problem. It isn't real "weight" in the sense of flesh which must be dieted off. If you can get rid of the excess fluid, you lose a number of pounds quickly, but once the fluid is shed, the rest of the reducing is slower and harder. However, the fluid, as long as it remains in the body, is about as bad as excess fat so far as taking up space — and crowding the digestive tract or other organs — is concerned. This is only one of several reasons why I consistently warn readers to avoid a total gain of more than 20 pounds in pregnancy. I won't go into the other reasons now, but they are significant.

To get back to Mrs. H.W.'s predicament, it's too late to talk about avoiding excess weight. She already has it, not to mention her tendency to accumulate and hold fluids. What can she do, now, that will help her?

First, she must avoid salt (sodium), but there are several preparations that contain aluminum, magnesium, or other chemicals, and not sodium, which will combat acidity in her digestive tract without adding any of the forbidden sodium. The druggist can suggest them, although as usual I suggest that she get her doctor's advice.

Avoiding spicy foods will help subdue the heartburn — because spicy foods (actually mild irritants in a way) increase the activity of the digestive tract, and that leads to the crampy pain of heartburn when the digestive tract is in trouble.

Eating smaller meals (perhaps with in-between meals, if absolutely necessary) will help, because the constricted digestive tract will not have to cope with so much work at any one time. Eat slowly.

Taking some milk before eating (not after) may help. In cases of heartburn in which overweight is not a factor, taking cream before a meal gives relief. But if a weight problem exists also, avoid cream because of its calories. Stick to plain milk or even low-fat milk.

"You Can Stop Sinus Trouble!" is the title of my booklet explaining what sinus trouble really is and encouraging sinus sufferers to do something about it. For a copy write to Dr. Molner in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling.

Around The Rim Those Pesky Gremlins

Those gremlins which creep into copy and type or jumble words and lines in the backshop make for interesting and humorous results. We cite a few of other papers, naturally, since you already have seen ours:

THE MOST COMMON is the plain "typo," or typographical errors

"Not responsible for typographical errors" (Athol Mass. Daily News). "Hatcher is proud that he never hissed a meeting in four years." (Evansville Ind. Courier and Press). "A $13,000-a-year city housing official was charged with accepting brides last night..." (New York Post). "A 22-year-old Warwick man was decapitated when he struck a bridge..." (Norwich Conn. Bulletin). "The dollar price for gold in London was $25.1875." (Washington Star).

SIMILARLY, there are those typos which change a word and change meaning, for instance:

"The IOC executive added that any decision to call a meeting would be made by the executive board." (Buffalo Courier-Express). "Mrs. Wilma Adams and her 3-year-old daughter were on the plane that circled O'Hare for 2½ years before landing" (Chicago Daily News). "The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R-C- of Albion." (Rochester New York Democrat and Chronicle). "The bust continued rolling crazily until it bumped to a halt on the curb." (Washington Post). "Wayne Lockard, president of the Westminister Jaycees chapter, called the meeting to order. Paul Dell, exhausted rooster, offered the invocation." (Hanover Md. Evening Sun).

NUMBERS CAN be tricky, too. Consider these: "A team for 736 years, the Ritz Brothers are still using numbers they began with in 1932" (Columbia Missourian). "Another original idea: price $800... the lowest-priced car with an automatic transmission" (Oklahoma Journal). "Robinson, the triple-crown winner in 1966... received an offer of $10,000, which was $10,000 more than he received a year ago" (Evansville Ind. Press). "Despite a shower, the over 0,000 people at the track seemed happy" (Baltimore Sun). "The 6-ft.-tall, 1875-pound scientist was married to E-M-S- in 1935" (New York Times).

HEADLINES can come out funny, like so: "Messiah Coming Sunday Evening" (Whiteville N.C. Newsreporter). "Local National Guard Alert? Rumors Denied." (Provo Utah Herald). "People Warned of Poisoning by Gov. McNair." (Columbia S.C. State). Classified ads are not immune. Here is a case or two: "Stud service by registered mail of champion blood lines..." (Woonsocket R.I. Call). "Traveling With Fun Can Be Kids" (New York Daily News).

SOME THINGS just come out wrong, such as:

"About $4,000 alone would be spent on restrooms. A fireplace would help the 225-seat establishment." (Seattle Times). "Sunday School will be held as usual at 9:45 a.m." (Brockton Mass. Enterprise). "He said he and Miss Blank play to marry." (Boston Herald-Traveler).

AND THAT little notation at the bottom of a piece of copy signifying that there will be additional installments on the story or news item can get you in trouble, like this from the Battle Creek (Mich.) Enquirer-News: "BIRTHS: Mr. and Mrs. T-A-- of Summit Drive, a son at 3:51 p.m. Friday. (More to come)".

— JOE PICKLE

Sshhh: The Kremlin Russia's Rich Past Comes To Life

By MICHAEL JOHNSON
 MOSCOW (AP) — Because of centuries of stormy Russian politics, the word Kremlin has acquired an ominous ring in the West.

Those massive, brick Kremlin walls have concealed some of history's most bizarre dealings — with principal characters ranging from medieval czarist despots to Soviet dictator Joseph Stalin.

MOST KREMLIN business remains a well-kept secret today, but sections of the huge 15-building compound have been opened in recent years to Russian and foreign tourists.

Extensive restoration of its ancient structures now lends the Kremlin a spotless, if somewhat sterile, appearance probably equal to its original beauty.

Tourism is encouraged in the open section of the Kremlin and most Russians from the provinces consider a visit there essential during trips to Moscow.

THE GOLDEN domes of the Cathedral of the Annunciation and the belfry of Ivan the Great continue to dazzle visitors on sunny days, as they reportedly did Napoleon in 1812.

Touring the stone passage-ways and the well-worn staircases inside the cathedrals, Russia's rich past comes to life.

Pricelss ions and the czar's caskets can be viewed within touching distance.

Russians who visit these once-sacred grounds often make no effort to hide their devout respect for the old Orthodox churches still standing in the new era of Soviet atheism.

ON A CHILL, autumn afternoon recently, two elderly women in woolen shawls paused silently in the opulent Cathedral of the Archangel and crossed themselves.

"But this is a museum now," a young woman guide was telling a group of foreign visitors at the same moment. "Only a few old people from another generation come here for religious reasons."

On any typical day, the museums inside the Kremlin are packed with groups of simple Russian peasants and factory workers in town for brief visits.

Many of the old men dressed in the belted tunics of the 19th century peer at the old Bolshevik revolutionary relics with great curiosity, then shuffle off without a word.

ALSO ON DISPLAY is a magnificent collection of 18th and 19th century czarist carriages, clothing and household effects.

The contrast between the extravagant wealth of the old nobility and today's drab masses is a striking scene in these museums.

Holmes Alexander A Story That Ought To Come Out

WASHINGTON — All in my profession have volunteer spies, and a while back one of these agents phoned in a story that had "write-me" plastered all over it.

It concerned Partnership Book, Number 4, in Arlington (Va.) courthouse, and a special-privilege tax-haven gimmick for VIP's of instant readership-recognition. Three of the familiar names attached to past and present Supreme Court justices: Arthur Goldberg, Abe Fortas and William Brennan. Two other names were those of judges in the poverty-pitiful D.C. Federal Court of Appeals: J. Skelly Wright and David Bazelon.

ONE NAME was conspicuously associated since the Chicago Convention with the Democratic party's anti-police bloc: Sen. Abe Ribicoff of Connecticut, once Secretary of the Health, Education, and Welfare Department, a political champion of the under-privileged and the over-permissioned.

Only Ribicoff was a readily accessible friend of mine, so I phoned him and he said:

"You're the fourth to contact me about the story. The N.Y. Times and the Washington Post discussed it with me and decided there was nothing there. Later, Scripps Howard, through two reporters of the Washington Daily News, have been in touch, and I told them all I know."

NEW YORK TIMES? This is the newspaper that tied itself into editorial knots to blackguard Gov. Spiro Agnew, GOP vice presidential candidate. But in Times Square there's a double standard that drops the safe on conservatives and spares the rod on liberals.

Washington Post? Its suppression and distortion of news, my study and perverse delight for many years, insured that Fortas et al and et ux (his wife, a Tax Court attorney, was in this deal under her maiden name, Carolyn Agger) would be protected as long as possible. Never mind if the Post was cheating on its readers by smothering a story that was studded with local interest through these indigenous celebrities and the resident real estate firm of the Charles E. Smith Companies.

SCRIPPS HOWARD? It's Washington Daily News and other outlets are don't-give-a-damn about where the chips fall. It was a Scripps Howard affiliate which broke the Walter Jenkins morals case, and would certainly break this yarn before I could. Sure enough, the Daily News front-paged the story on Nov. 12 with depth research by its reporters, Dan Thomasson and Nicholas Horrick. The Smith firm not only ran an investment tip-shop for its influential friends, but did rental business with the Federal Government to the tune of nearly $12 million, a good way to operate in the shadowland between ethics and legality.

STILL, FOR ME, there were after-the-expose reflections even though the story was out. I exonerate Abe Ribicoff, because it's unreasonable to ask a legislator to invest nowhere that some vote of his might touch, and besides a senator is subject to recall and rejection by his constituents who know him well.

But there's a Caesar's Wife test for Federal Judges and the Presidents who appoint them, as well as the senators who ratify the appointments and who hold the power of impeachment. At least one of these judges, Justice Fortas of the Supreme Court, now has a conflict-of-interest scroll as long as his robe. It is a very insensitive Senate that allows him to remain on the bench.

Murder Defendant Claims Death Fear

Joe Hernandez Jimenez, being tried for murder in 118th District Court, took the stand in his own defense today and said he shot O. T. Rameriz and Roy Rodriguez because he thought they were going to kill him.

Jimenez, teenage Mexican farm laborer from Coahoma, is charged with the Jan. 6, 1968, slaying of O. T. Rameriz at Ernest's Lounge, 700 N. Lancaster.

Jimenez, speaking to the court in Spanish through an interpreter, told the court that Roy Rodriguez grabbed him by the shoulder while the two were in the northside lounge, and when Rodriguez appeared to reach for something in his pocket, the defendant pulled a gun and shot him.

He also said that when he turned to leave the bar, he was confronted by O. T. Rameriz, who also acted as though he might hurt Jimenez, and then he shot Rameriz.

Jimenez said that he was scared and did not mean to kill either Rodriguez or Rameriz, but he thought they were going to kill him.

The Mexican is being defended by Irving (Lew) Bates, Houston attorney.

Bates and District Attorney Wayne Burns have called more than a dozen witnesses to the stand since the trial began Monday, and each witness has been used by both the prosecution and defense. Burns rested the State's case Tuesday afternoon.

Several members of the Big Spring Police Department, including Sgt. Avery Falkner, detectives Jim McCain, Jack Jones, Capt. Stanley Bogard, Paul Alexander, Pete Stone, Melvin Daratt and Ted Lancaster have been called.

Other witnesses in the trial have been Lenora Williams, Ruth Mikyavil, Claude Hendricks, Mary Lou Marquez, J. B. Martinez, Ignacio Rodriguez, Jimmy Cebellos and Joe Solis.

Solis, who said he owned the gun used in the shooting, was questioned this morning by Bates and cross examined by Burns. Solis said that he gave Jimenez the gun, a .32 automatic, in exchange for $7. Solis told the court he took the gun away from Jimenez after the shooting.

Jimenez said that after the shooting he ran across the street to a cafe where he met Solis, and then he went home where a brother and sister then returned him to Big Spring and took him to the Howard County sheriff's office.

Jimenez remained on the stand more than an hour, facing both Bates and Burns. When the trial began he said he could not speak English fluently, and Joe Jabor was employed as an interpreter. However, Burns managed to cross-examine the defendant with the interpreter used sparingly.

Bates said that about two more witnesses for the defense would be called, and some may be used in the rebuttal. The case may go to the jury this afternoon, he said.

CO-CHAIRMEN NAMED

Money Contributed To Aid Little Albert

A number of individuals have expressed concern for little Albert Weatherby, who is stricken with a malignancy, by gifts to help meet expenses of hospitalization.

Because of the interest in the case of the five-year-old youngster, arrangements have been made whereby Grace Baptist Church (Box 750) will serve as a clearing agency. Also Mr. Sunshine (Horace Krebs) of KHEM will handle any gifts along with Mrs. M. Weaver, Mrs. Charles Odum or Mrs. Jackie Touchstone.

Already $428 has been contributed, according to the Rev. Roy Honea, Grace Baptist pastor, who with Mr. Sunshine, is serving as co-chairman of the effort. All funds will be deposited in the First National Bank, and all disbursements from the fund will be for the benefit of little Albert.

Helicopters Crash Kills Four Soldiers

OZARK, Ala. (AP) — The second crash in less than two weeks involving Ft. Rucker based helicopters has resulted in the death of four soldiers.

Army officials said Tuesday that two TH1T aircraft, on routine training maneuvers from the fort's Army Aviation School, collided in flight 12 miles northeast of here. All aboard were killed.

The crash victims were identified as Capt. Charles B. Appler, 25; CWO 2 Jesse M. Patton, 23; 1st Lt. Robert C. Blackshear, 25, and 2nd Lt. Stephen E. Roush, 23.

Appler's widow lives in Daleville, Ala.; Patton's in Enterprise, Ala.; Blackshear's in Alvin, Tex., and Roush's in Savannah, Ga.

Authorities said Appler and Patton were instructor-pilots aboard each of the helicopters. The other two were students.

On Nov. 8, two soldiers were fatally injured and another less seriously injured when their helicopter crashed near the base shortly after takeoff.

Thieves struck the Reed Drilling Company warehouse, for a second time this month, and took drilling bits valued at $1,040 each.

Patrolman Lee Williams spotted the open door of the warehouse during a routine check of the area early this morning. Don McQueen, local manager of the company, said that he would not know exactly how many of the bits were taken until he had conducted an inventory.

Four of the bits were taken from the same warehouse early this month.

His Parents, Wife, Daughters Massacred

SEOUL (AP) — A South Korean reserve officer returned home from a night of searching for North Korean guerrillas today and found his parents, wife and two daughters massacred, apparently by the North Koreans, the Defense Ministry reported.

The North Koreans have been the object of a massive search since about 60 of them landed on South Korea's east coast early this month. Thirty-seven have been killed and two captured.

Ko Ul-Shik, 37, a reserve corps platoon leader, had been taking part in a night search through the rugged, mountainous area about 100 miles east of Seoul. When he returned to his home in Pyongchang County this morning, he found his whole family beaten and stabbed to death and his cow and 10 fowl stolen.

The Defense ministry said the footprints of a group of men led from Ko's isolated farm home into the uninhabited mountains.

Cancer Society Center To Open

STANTON (SC) — Tom Angel, president of the Martin County Unit of the American Cancer Society and Mrs. Lloyd Henson, chairman of the public education committee of the unit, announced that a building next door to the post office has been secured and will be open beginning Thursday from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. for the distribution of pamphlets and literature on cancer. The building will be manned at all times and help offered as needed to find the information desired. It was also announced that the cancer society's mobile unit will be at various places in Stanton for public viewing beginning today for at least a week.

More Than 100 Doctors Attend

More than 100 doctors attended the Permian Basin Medical Society meeting held Tuesday night at the Big Spring State Hospital.

The local physicians were entertained by dinner music by Frank Wharton. Mrs. Star Wardford sang a selection of folk songs.

Mark Twain, in the person of Al Scott, told of medicine in the 1800's.

Dr. Frankie E. Williams served as master of ceremonies and Dr. Preston E. Harrison introduced the guests.

The meal was served by state hospital patients.

3 More DWI Cases Axed

Three pleas of guilty, all for driving while intoxicated, were heard Tuesday in Howard County Court, and three more DWI cases were dismissed.

Pleading guilty to DWI and fined were Juan Suarez, $50 fine plus court cost and three months probation; Davis Brown Jr., $50 plus cost and three days in jail; and Jessie Hardey Phares, $50 plus cost and three months probation.

Dismissed were DWI cases against Samuel Ruiz Abreo, Willard Warner Hand Jr., and Clyde William Massey.

Other DWI cases on the court docket include Wesley W. Fortenberry, Darrell Wayne Culvahouse, Elbert Wilson, Grace Jowers Brezale, Charles William Hurst, Earl Vail Wall, Evert Lee Emery, Robert W. Shafer, James Hughson Eppler, Jimmy Walker Warren and Everett Wayne Lomax.

Also, David Dewitt Anderson, Delle Robert Elsom, Ozzie White, Clifford Thomas Coats, Russell L. Strong, Raymond M. Garcia, Hazel Stubbs Wilson, Donald Gene Winder, Mary Ann Hargrove, Robert Lee Smith and Farrell Derward Hamill.

Carrying prohibitive weapon cases include James Willie Baker Jr. and Raymond M. Garcia. Willie Ray English is being charged with selling liquor in a wet area without a permit.

Postal Receipts Show Increase

Postal receipts for the Big Spring Post Office for the period Oct. 19 through Nov. 15 are $6,857 ahead of the receipts for the same period in 1967.

Frank Hardesty, postmaster, said that the receipts for this interval — known officially as the fifth accounting period — were $42,753 this year compared with $35,896 for the same weeks last year.

Hardesty said that his office is girding for what looms as one of the biggest Christmas seasons in history.

Family Planning Grant Discussed

Representatives from several Texas cities met at the Big Spring State Hospital to discuss a federal grant application for family planning services in West Texas for patients and their families.

Present at the meeting were Dr. Gary Miller, M. D., deputy Texas commissioner for mental health; W. G. Kirklind, assistant deputy commissioner; Sarah Conklin, a certified social worker with the Texas Department of Mental Health.

Department of Health, Education and Welfare representatives were Mrs. Alice Harmon, R.N., Dallas, and Mrs. Eithier Smith, A.C.S.W., Dallas.

Mrs. Alex Morris, Midland, and Fausto Toscano, Austin, spoke for the Planned Parenthood and World Population Organization.

Minor Mishaps

Big Spring police investigated two minor automobile accidents Tuesday.

Max Walter Black, 2611 Ann, and Juanita M. Goholt, Big Spring, collided at 8:58 a.m. in the intersection of Eighteenth and Gregg.

Robert David Zellars, 3212 11th, and William Gilliland, 511 Abrams, collided at 10:45 p.m. in the intersection of Fifteenth and Lexington.

Auditorium Repairs Made

Municipal Auditorium is being painted and repaired.

The three dressing rooms are being repainted and the dressing tables replaced, Roy Anderson, assistant city manager said. In addition new light fixtures are being installed and the bare steam pipes insulated in the dressing rooms.

Repairs are being made to the plumbing in the restrooms. The restrooms will be repainted and the woodwork there refinished, Anderson said.

Both stairways to the balconies are to be repainted as soon as the work crews can get to them, he said. In addition, the interior walls of the auditorium are scheduled for a new coat of paint, Anderson said.

Funds for repairs are coming from the City Hall account, which is set up to include the auditorium, he said.

NORAD Pull Out Muled By Canadian Government

OTTAWA (AP) — The Canadian government is considering whether to increase its forces assigned to the North American Defense Command, decrease them or pull out of NORAD. Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau told the House of Commons Tuesday.

Trudeau said Canada's part in the command, in which it is the junior partner to the United States, is "indirectly" included in a government review of foreign and defense policy now being made.

NOT LIKELY

If Canada decides to contribute nothing to the joint U.S.-Canada command, established in 1958 with headquarters in Colorado, the agreement would become defunct, he said.

If Canada decreases its commitment but does not eliminate it, Trudeau continued, the NORAD agreement can exist with "very little arms from one side or the other."

He added that Canada might decide to increase its arms commitment.

Canada renewed the NORAD pact with the United States last spring for a five-year term expiring in 1973. The Canadian commitment includes three Voodoo interceptor squadrons and two Bomarc missile sites, both defenses against bombers.

Canada and the United States have the right to withdraw from NORAD on a year's notice.

Asked whether additional U.S. troops might be stationed on Canadian soil if Ottawa reduces its commitment to NORAD, Trudeau said: "Of course it is a possibility, but I would not suggest it as a likelihood."

RIGHT TO KNOW

He refused to elaborate on whether any definite policy decision had been made beyond saying "the government may or may not change its mind."

Canadians have a right to know, said Trudeau, "but the trouble is, if we are to tell them our policy before reviewing it, there would be little purpose in reviewing it."

Months ago Trudeau had indicated his interest in maintaining a good North American defense system. There has been talk in Ottawa that Canada might reduce its North Atlantic Treaty Organization force in Europe, which consists of a 5,000-man brigade and an air division. Trudeau said Tuesday that the policy review which began last May involves "what kind of defense policy we need, whether in or out of NATO, in or out of NORAD and so on."

Addresses League

President Lyndon B. Johnson is applauded after he addressed the 12th annual Equal Opportunity Days awards dinner in New York City.

Johnson Challenges Nixon To Match Rights Record

NEW YORK (AP) — President Johnson, in an indirect challenge to his Republican successor, says many civil rights gains have been made in the last five years "but we are nowhere in sight of where we must be before we can rest."

Addressing the National Urban League here Tuesday night, Johnson called on government, business and labor as well as the news media and schools to give all Americans what he called "the right to opportunity."

PROMISE

He said, "we can expand our economy and resist those voices who call for a little more unemployment as medicine for inflation"—an indirect criticism of some economic advisers to President-elect Richard M. Nixon who have said an increase in unemployment would help fight inflation.

"I promise you one thing," Johnson said. "For as long as I live, I shall remain joined with you in fighting for that right to opportunity."

Johnson made his remarks, which were relatively short and vaudeville in tone, in an address at the New York Hilton Hotel to the 12th annual Equal Opportunity Days awards dinner of the Urban League, an organization devoted to the promotion of civil rights.

Whitney M. Young, executive director of the league, announced at the meeting the establishment of a $100,000 Lyndon Baines Johnson scholarship fund at the University of Texas, and Alvin E. Austin, University of North Dakota, "deserving black youngster" studying public affairs.

In his speech Johnson recounted the strides—and some of the setbacks—Negroes had made during the past five years of his administration. He noted that incomes for Negroes had risen and the infant mortality rate among Negroes had declined.

But he also noted that income of Negroes is still only 60 percent of whites' incomes; one Negro family in three still lives in poverty; millions of Negroes are still relegated to menial jobs; one out of four Negro teenagers is unemployed and the Negro infant mortality rate is still three times that of whites.

LONG WAY TO GO
"We have come a long way," he said. "We have made a lot of verbal commitments. We have even changed a great many lives already for the better. But we are nowhere in sight of where we must be before we can rest."

Johnson said Americans must protect and extend the right to opportunity "to make it just as real for the child of Harlem as it is for the child of the most prosperous suburbs."
The President received a standing ovation when he finished his speech. As he left the ballroom of the Midtown hotel

Told Her Not To Discuss His Problems With Jackie

NEW YORK (AP) — President John F. Kennedy's personal physician says Kennedy, with an injured back and a deficiency of the adrenals, told her not to discuss his physical problems with his wife.

The physician, Dr. Janet C. Travell, writes in the current McCall's magazine that Kennedy, then 38 and 12 years older than Mrs. Kennedy, said, "I don't want her to think she married either an old man or a cripple."

OLD MAN?

Dr. Travell wrote how she knocked down a rumor that Kennedy had Addison's disease in a report he asked her to write for him a year before the 1960 Democratic convention in Los Angeles.

At that time she wrote that Kennedy had never had either of the "readily visible" signs of the disease—bluish discoloration of the mucous membranes of the mouth and deep pigmentation of the skin.

The Addison's disease rumor cropped up just before the convention, says Dr. Travell, and Robert F. Kennedy, campaign manager for his brother, denied John had the disease or had taken cortisone for it.

Dr. Travell said Sargent Shriver telephoned her after Robert Kennedy's remarks and she told him: "Well, that's right. Jack hasn't taken cortisone in years."

"Of course, he does take some relatives of cortisone but in the way he uses them in physiological doses, they're not drugs. Bobby can say that those hormones are natural constituents of the body and they're given prophylactically, to make up for some deficiency of his adrenals when he's under stress."

"Jack feels so well that his doctors are not inclined to stop them now."

FIGHTS FEAR

Soon after the 1960 election, she said, Kennedy remarked to her that every president elected in a year divisible by 20 had died in office.

Another time, she said, Kennedy told her, "Why should I worry about a second term? My wife will have a pension, and my children will be well cared for."

LBJ Administration Reckless With Truth?

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — The Johnson administration was characterized by a "reckless handling of the truth," according to a report by Sigma Delta Chi's freedom of information committee.

Johnson "is leaving office with perhaps the worst record for credibility of any president in our history," said the report, which was to be presented today at the journalism society's national convention.

MUMS THE WORD

During the last year, it said, "the President continued to have an obsession for secrecy and hid his utmost to maintain a monopolistic control of the news until he was ready to announce it."

"President Johnson's penchant for secrecy," the report said, "his refusal to hold formal, announced-in-advance news conferences, and his reckless handling of the truth, continued to give serious problems to White House correspondents."

The report was critical of news handling procedures at the Pentagon where, it said, "the information programs are not designed to provide information but to protect the secretary of defense and the various services against criticism."

Information relating to the Vietnam war was the biggest problem, the report said, because "critical decisions on the war were made in secrecy and never fully discussed."

Also under attack in the document was the U.S. Department of Agriculture, which, the committee said, "repeatedly withheld information concerning conditions in nonfederally inspected meat packing and poultry plants."

However, the committee said that both the House and the Senate moved in separate actions to improve their ethical standards

Demo Liberals Eye Vacancy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Liberal House Democrats are eyeing a vacancy on the Ways and Means Committee from which to launch an assault on conservative control of other key committees.

If they can capture the seat their next goal would be to put members of their own choosing on the controversial Committee on Un-American Activities and the Judiciary Committee.

7-7 SPLIT

In the long run, the liberals hope to weaken, if not eliminate, the rigid seniority system that now dominates the committees.

The Democrats on the Ways and Means Committee make the committee assignments for their majority colleagues.

During the first days of a new session the 15 Ways and Means Democrats sit as a committee on committees and fill any openings that have occurred since the previous Congress.

Any vacancies among the Ways and Means Democrats are filled before Congress begins by all the Democratic members voting in a party caucus.

It will be at such a caucus Jan. 2 that the liberal-moderate group will try to fill the single open position on Ways and Means, which by most estimates now is split seven to seven between conservatives and liberals.

STUDY GROUP

If they succeed they could be in a position to push their candidates through the Committee on Committees onto other committees.

There are approximately 140 northern and western congressmen who belong to the liberal-moderate Democratic Study Group, which is leading the drive. They are an absolute majority of the 243 Democrats in the 91st Congress and can control the caucus if they vote together.

Crucial to their success, however, is the attitude taken toward their endeavor by Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass. So far, they have heard nothing to indicate he will oppose them.

BIOLOGISTS, SURGEON

'Bama Senator Shares Lasker Medical Awards

NEW YORK (AP) — Two molecular biologists, a physiologist, a heart surgeon and a U.S. senator have been named winners of the 1968 Albert Lasker Medical Research Awards.

Announcement of the awards, which carry a cash prize of $10,000 each, was made Tuesday by Mrs. Albert D. Lasker, president of the Albert and Mary Lasker Foundation.

The biologists, who shared this year's Nobel Prize in medicine for their work in independently deciphering the genetic code, are Dr. Marshall W. Nirenberg, chief of the Laboratory of Biochemical Genetics at the National Institute of Health in Washington and Dr. H. Gobind Khorana, professor of life sciences at the University of Wisconsin.

Nirenberg and Khorana also were named this year as cowinners of the Louisa Gross Horwitz Prize for outstanding research in chemistry.

The physiologist is Dr. William F. Windle, research professor at the Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, New York University Medical Center. He was cited for basic discoveries in developmental biology, especially the structure and function of embryos and the newborn and for his work in the treatment of brain-damaged infants.

The surgeon is Dr. John H. Gibbon Jr., emeritus professor of surgery at Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia. He won for his design of the heart-lung machine for open heart surgery, which made heart transplants possible, and for improvement and advancement of the surgery of the heart and blood vessels.

Winner of the second Lasker Award given to a nonresearcher was Sen. Lister Hill, D-Ala., for his dedication to the expansion of medical research.

The senator's first health bill was the Hill-Burton Hospital Construction Act in 1946, which has provided over 400,000 beds in hospitals, nursing homes and rehabilitation facilities. For 14 years, Hill has been chairman of both the Labor and Public Welfare committees of the Senate.

The first Lasker award to a nonresearcher went to President Johnson in 1966.

Senate Campaign Funds Ban Adopted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nearly two-thirds of the Senate is finding it easy to live with a new rule on the handling of campaign funds that was prompted by the sensational Bobby Baker case.

New Approach To Welfare

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government proposed Tuesday that people be made eligible for welfare on the basis of a simple statement of need.

The proposed new approach, which would eliminate involved investigations, could mean that more eligible people would be added to the swelling welfare rolls, officials said. But they said little abuse would be expected because investigations have found only about one-half of one per cent of infractions.

After publication of the proposed new regulation in the Federal Register on Wednesday, interested parties would have 30 days to submit comments.

Affected by the regulations would be programs of Old Age Assistance, Aid to Families with Dependent Children, aid to the blind, aid for permanently disabled and help for those who cannot afford to pay their medical bills—medicaid.

Critics in Congress and elsewhere have expressed concern at the rapid growth of the AFDC and medicaid programs.

Under the proposed new regulation, states administering the aid would require that local welfare officials accept a simple declaration by a welfare applicant as evidence of his need. However, investigation would be made if the applicant's information were questionable. And experts would have to validate an applicant's claim for disability such as blindness.

Sixty-three senators have given written authorization for at least one employe in their offices to handle such funds. One senator has designated eight employes.

CODE OF ETHICS

The code of ethics adopted by the Senate last March includes a general ban on employes or officers of the Senate receiving, soliciting, distributing, or being the custodian of campaign funds for senators or other federal officials.

This prohibition, however, does not apply to any assistant designated by the senator in writing to handle campaign funds and who is paid over $10,000 a year.

Restricting the political fund activities of Senate employes was recommended by the Senate Rules Committee in 1964 after its investigation of Baker, former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority who was accused of mishandling campaign funds.

The bipartisan Select Committee on Standards and Conduct had recommended a tighter curb than the Senate adopted when it incorporated a code of ethics into its rules.

WATERED DOWN

The committee also recommended the only exception be an assistant to a senator, expressly designated, who could receive campaign funds solely for transmittal to the candidate or to the treasurer of a political committee.

The Senate watered this down to exempt from the ban any assistant earning over $10,000 a year designated by a senator and to permit those designated to solicit, distribute and be custodian of campaign funds as well as to receive contributions. Senators are required to notify the secretary of the Senate of the aides they have designated. And the rule requires the secretary to make the information available to the public.

Cole Calls It The 'Teddy Suit'

Red and white stripes on royal blue is the color combination for Cole of California's "Teddy Suit," worn by Donna Albright, left. It's a striking new shape in the swimsuit line.

At right, Donna displays a red, white and blue print on a beach coverup designed by Cole. It's called a djellaba and can double as a hostess gown for at-home wear.

Cover Is 'In', 'Navels' Out

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The word from California's swimwear designers for 1969 is "head for cover!"

Some suits in the spring swimsuit show of the California fashion creators still show the maximum of skin, but the new trend is away from the bikini and back to the swimdress.

Wraps are going on those bikinis, literally from head to foot. The beach pajama is "in."

"Obvious sexline is out," said one swimsuit maker Tuesday, "but there's a game of intrigue going on."

If the look in recent years was tough, the new look turns around and becomes decidedly feminine.

Cole of California calls its collection "Love," with several styles resembling frilly lingerie.

One style is simply called a "Swim Slip" and in soft blue jersey it looks like just that.

Deweese Designs includes a black lace bikini in their lingerie look and borrows from the bedroom a "Karate Coat" for coverup.

Another designer, Alexa, brings the Japanese "Happy Coat" to the beach.

Everyone shows a version of what Catalina dubs the "Triki-ki," a blushing interpretation of the bikini with a short skirt wrapped around the brief bottom.

The shocker of this year's collection is the covered look. As one observer put it: "It's nice not to see so many navels for a change."

Gift Parties Compliment Bride-Elect

A recipe shower and coffee was held Saturday morning honoring Miss Kathy Bryan, bride-elect of Morris Molpus Jr., as one in a series of pre-nuptial complimentary parties. Mrs. Ross Hill, Garden City Route, was hostess.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Bob Wren, Mrs. Fred Marberry, Mrs. Bob Newsom and Mrs. Jim Sinclair.

The honoree was presented with a corsage of pink carnations and kitchen gadgets. Her mother, Mrs. Clyde Bryan of Hurst, formerly of Big Spring, was unable to attend. Mrs. Morris Molpus Sr., mother of the prospective bridegroom, greeted guests with the bride-elect.

The refreshment table was laid with a lace cloth over pink and centered with a pink net base holding a filing cabinet for recipes. Guests gave the bride-elect recipes and kitchen gadgets.

The couple will marry Saturday evening at Baptist Temple.

Another party was held in favor of Miss Bryan, Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Jack Dunn, 1901 Nolan. Miss Beverly Jones assisted her mother as hostess.

The honoree's chosen colors of azalea pink and white were used in decorations. A Florentine arrangement of pink candies and pink flowers centered the refreshment table which was laid with a white linen and lace cloth. Appointments were of crystal and silver, and an ice ring of pink flowers floated in the punch bowl.

A gift of crystal was presented by the hostesses. The mother of the honoree was unable to attend, and Mrs. Molpus joined the bride-elect in greeting guests.

When B. F. LOGAN, pioneer citizen of Big Spring and Howard County, observed his 80th birthday last Friday, his day was brightened by telephone calls of congratulations and best wishes from the couple's four sons and daughter. The calls included one from SAM, who is an ammunition inspector in Germany; BENJAMIN, who is a physicist for Bell Telephone Co. and who has done work on the Telstar project; HOMER, who serves as a geologist on the Amistad Dam project; and MRS. MARY LEE PETERSON, whose husband is a building contractor in Farmington, N.M.

Mr. Logan is still able to be up and around despite a severe stroke several years ago.

MR. and MRS. A. L. HENRY will leave Friday for Shamrock to see his mother who is ill.

Weather reports from the South Pole will probably be more interesting to ALVIN SMITH now that he has a special interest there. His nephew, ROBERT L. EASTERWOOD, son of MR. and MRS. C. D. EASTERWOOD of Snyder, is in Antarctica where he is helping put in and operate a satellite tracking station at McMurdo Sound.

Data obtained will be used to establish a model of the earth's gravitational field, study polar wander, and to investigate effect of the ionosphere on radio waves. Bob is supervisor electrical engineer under a National Science Foundation contract with the radar division of the Defense Research Laboratory, University of Texas. He received his bachelor degree in electrical engineering from UT the day before he left on his assignment, Aug. 28.

We'd like to know about your plans for Thanksgiving. Not that we're going to invite you to break bread with us, because we have a lot of folk coming, but we'd like to tell others about where you're going or who's coming to see you. At home or The Herald, give me a call.

Adrian Randle of Texas Electric Service Company spoke on "Involvement and Dissent" at Monday's meeting of the Cactus Chapter, American Business Women's Association, at Coker's Restaurant.

Randle spoke on business women becoming involved in city civic and political activities, noting that "more involvement" tends to lessen dissent in a community. He challenged the women to become involved in something in which they believe, and whether right or wrong, stand firmly for their beliefs.

Mrs. Charles Trantham, a nurse at Malone and Hogan Clinic, gave the vocational talk, and Mrs. Dilon E. Watts was installed as a new member by Mrs. Robert McDonald, past president. The group will assist Unit Three at Big Spring State Hospital with a party on Dec. 18.

Guests attending were Mrs. S. T. Cain, Mrs. H. K. Hicks and Mrs. Walter Pillow.

The Eager Beaver Sewing Club will have a shopping trip and tour of Lubbock, it was announced at Friday's meeting in the home of Mrs. Gabe Hammack, 1900 Mittel. The group will leave Friday from the home of Mrs. Ben Jernigan, 709 E. 16th. Handwork, embroidery and decorative pillows were made, and refreshments were served. Two guests, Mrs. Royce Johnson and Mrs. J. G. Mitchell, were introduced.

necklines, waistlines and hemlines. Many dresses are a waterfall of stones and paillettes. Sometimes the silhouette is slim, sometimes skirts fall out from a slightly raised waist. Having high necks and long sleeves, the cover-up dress vies with the midist decolletage or cutout. Variety is the spice.

If ever, this is the season to wear your own thing. The thing that truly captures the uniqueness of your personality. Typecasting is as vital to the success of an evening dress as the flattery of its color and line. If you're the tender type, you'd be lost in a slink of a black dress. That's for sophisticates. If you're tiny of stature, you'd be dwarfed by yards of skirt. That's for tall lovelies. If you've got a fair skin, you wouldn't team it with a neon-bright color.

As we said, wear your own thing.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Missed getting on the Best Dressed in Texas list again. Drat! However, there was some consolation in reading that one of those chosen likes cloth coats . . . only furs for evening. And in another item I find that the first-lady-to-be Pat Nixon also favors cloth outer wraps. We have so much in common. (Ooooo, them grapes is sour).

This is almost a Thanksgiving item. The people that figure in it are always this nice, so we are thankful that we know folk like them. When the B. F. MEACHAMS came here for their duty at Webb AFB almost eight years ago, MRS. GENEVA GLASS came into their employ as their housekeeper. For the six years that the family was stationed here, Mrs. Glass took care of the house and the family as though they were her own. Then Col. Meacham took up duties at the air force base at Goldsboro, N.C., and the family moved away.

They were away, but each time one of them came through Big Spring, he or she stopped for a visit with Mrs. Glass, and when Marilyn married early this year, Mrs. Glass received a round trip plane ticket from CAPT. RON CROWDEN, the bridegroom, so that she could be present for the ceremony. This week she received a round trip plane ticket to Tucson, ARIZ., from CAPT. RICHARD MEACHAM who is to be married on Nov. 30. Mrs. Glass plans to leave here on Thanksgiving Thursday for the wedding of 'her boy' who conferred upon her the honor of pinning on his wings when he was graduated from Webb Air Force Base.

A LOVELIER YOU Try Your Own Style In Evening Fashions

By MARY SUE MILLER. Fashion is the word for evening gowns by American designers. Evening dresses are a blaze of opulent fabrics and jeweled embroideries.

Other than splendor, materials reflect the now trend toward individual expression. Rustling moires, taffetas and fallies mirror a bent for the romantic. As a reflection of high elegance, look into floating laces and chiffons traced with glitter threads of gold, into gleaming brocades and velvets. You'll find fluid crepe, slither satin and sheer jersey at the end of a quest for sophistication.

Jeweled touches encircle

necklines, waistlines and hemlines. Many dresses are a waterfall of stones and paillettes. Sometimes the silhouette is slim, sometimes skirts fall out from a slightly raised waist. Having high necks and long sleeves, the cover-up dress vies with the midist decolletage or cutout. Variety is the spice.

Rose Kennedy Says Son "Should Go On"

NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy says her surviving son, Massachusetts Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, "should go on in politics" although she worries about his safety.

The mother of the late President John F. Kennedy and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, both slain by assassins, was quoted in an interview in the current Look magazine.

Mrs. Kennedy, 78, said her youngest son "made the right decision, for the obvious reasons," in not allowing his name to be placed in nomination for president at the Democratic National Convention.

The senator's decision to decline nomination, Mrs. Kennedy said, was "a new sensation for him" because "he wants to do what the older boys did."

"He's always been told to get in there and hustle . . . now he is advised to take it easy!" she said.

Mrs. Kennedy said she sometimes wonders "if there is something about my family which invites violence. Is it envy, you ask? I don't know."

She continued: "I've had so much, a son as president, two as senators, a son-in-law who's an ambassador (Sargent Shriver) — perhaps God doesn't permit that much."

"We came from very humble beginnings, why should the Kennedys be so special? Why shouldn't a Nixon or Humphrey have his chance?"

Mrs. Kennedy said she thinks her daughter-in-law, Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, will be "very happy" as the wife of Greek shipping magnate Aristotle Onassis, adding:

"It's been quite a lonely life for her."

Mrs. Kennedy said that she and her husband, the former ambassador to Great Britain, have known Onassis for 15 years and that he dined with them this past summer in the family compound at Hyannis Port, Mass.

Anybody's Ball

Eager arms go up for a free ball under the Big Spring basket in the Steers' opening game with Amarillo Tascosa here Tuesday night. In white are Tascosa players Gary Bogan (14) and Les Cudiff (32). The Steers (in black) include James Brown (21), Tommy Butler (11) and Danny Parchman (23). Tascosa won, 71-63.

Rebs Topple Longhorns

A Big Spring team that refused to quit ultimately yielded to Amarillo Tascosa, 71-63, in the first basketball game of the season for both teams here Tuesday night.

This must be the most inexperienced Steer team to take the court in two decades but it could also be the most aggressive in local annals.

Tascosa fielded a team of giants and coach David Camfield could go to the bench for any number of combinations. Still, the Rebels were never able to coast.

Despite their disadvantage in height, the Steers grappled successfully for 39 rebounds.

The Longhorns hit 25 of 50 field goal attempts for 39 percent — not bad for an opening game. It was another story at the free throw line, however. There, the locals seemed to tense up, making good only 17 times in 35 efforts.

Big Spring had a 26-19 bulge with five minutes to go in the first half but ran into a cold spell and trailed at the intermission, 35-28.

Tascosa forged a 12-point lead after three periods but Big Spring enjoyed a 22-point final period and at one time closed to within five points of the invaders.

James Brown and Robert Evans, two ebony-colored flashes, gave the Steers a pleasant 1-2 punch. Brown tossed in 19 points, hitting six of 17 from the floor for 35 percent. Evans settled for 18 points, connecting seven times in 16 attempts from the floor for 44 percent.

Tascosa had three boys in double figures, Ed Moore leading with 16. Marc Case accounted for 15 and Bob Bridges 13.

The Longhorns return to action here Friday night against Lubbock High's Westerners, who are built more along the Steers' size.

Amarillo won the JV game, 52-46. Johnny Olague counted 16 points for Big Spring in that game.

Perryman Takes Scoring Lead

A. G. Perryman of Lubbock Dunbar is the new scoring leader in District 3-AAA with a total of 100 points.

With one more week to go in the race, Perryman has built up a lead of ten points over James Mosley of Lubbock Estacado.

Jayhawk Queens Triumph Again

ODESSA — The Howard County Junior College Jayhawk Queens ran their win-loss record to 16-3 by defeating Odessa College, 15-5, 15-10, in volleyball competition here Tuesday night.

Sonia Whittington led HC scoring for the night with seven points in the first game and nine in the second.

The Queens will be the host school in a district tournament Saturday as the clubs play toward state.

Odessa and HCJC meet in the first round of the round-robin meet, take the floor at 9 a.m. HSU of Abilene will be the other school fielding a team in the tournament.

Warren Tied For Second

Roy Lee Warren of Big Spring tied for second place in District 3-AAA for the entire season, with a total of 58 points.

Andy Duvall of Cooper, with a three-touchdown spurge in his final game, overtook Abilene's Robert Hill in the scoring derby. Duvall wound up with 60 points while Hill's 58 points deadlocked him with Warren for the runnerup spot.

Buckeyes, SC, Tech Picked This Week

by DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — They're playing The Game Saturday at Cambridge, Mass. . . while The Big Game goes on at Berkeley, Calif.

But The Really Big Game, circa 1968, is set to unfold at Columbus, Ohio, where Ohio State and Michigan collide for the Championship of the Midwestern World.

Yale and Harvard match perfect records for the first time since 1909 in the 85th renewal of The Game, with the Ivy League crown at stake. California and Stanford, a pair of resurgent West Coast traditionalists, meet for the 71st time in The Big Game.

Unbeaten Ohio State and once-scathed Michigan, the nation's second and fourth ranked powers, tangle for the 65th time. The survivor earns a Rose Bowl confrontation with mighty Southern California.

The Trojans won't be paying much attention to the Big Ten showdown, however. They'll be too busy mixing it up with arch rival UCLA.

Throw out the past performance charts for those matchups and take a stab with us, if you will, on the following picks. (The accuracy mark to date is .725 after a 42-14 windup last week):

Harvard over Yale.
California over Stanford.
Ohio State over Michigan.
Southern California over UCLA.
Purdue over Indiana.
Kansas over Missouri.
Clemson over South Carolina.
The other picks:
EAST—Penn State over Pittsburgh; Princeton over Cornell; Penn over Dartmouth; Columbia over Brown.
SOUTH — Tennessee over Kentucky; Florida State over Wake Forest; Duke over North Carolina; Virginia over Maryland; Louisiana State over Tulane; Vanderbilt over Davidson; Syracuse over West Virginia.
MIDWEST — Oklahoma over Nebraska; Oklahoma State over Kansas State; Michigan State over Northwestern; Iowa over Illinois; Minnesota over Wisconsin.
SOUTHWEST — Houston over Tulsa; Texas Tech over Arkansas; Southern Methodist over Baylor; Texas Christian over Rice.
FAR WEST — Colorado over Air Force; Arizona over Wyoming; Oregon State over Oregon; Washington over Washington State.

LOCALS TO MAKE SEASON'S DEBUT

Jayhawks, LCC Clash In Levelland Meet

Howard County JC's Jayhawks have all but wound up preparations for their first basketball game of the season, which will be an adventure in the South Plains tournament at Levelland this weekend.

The Big Spring team squares off against powerful Lubbock Christian College at 4 p.m. Thursday.

LCC recruited throughout the south throughout the semester and has come up with an explosive club.

In other first round games at Levelland, Odessa opposes Butler JC at 2 p.m., New Mexico Junior College of Hobbs squares off with Weatherford at 7 p.m. and Schreiner tackles South Plains at 9 p.m.

Little is known of the Butler team here but coach Travis said the team comes into the state with excellent credentials and must be regarded as the dark-horse entry at Levelland.

Four of the eight teams entered at Levelland are members of the Western Junior College Conference.

South Plains warmed to the task by belting Ranger College in Ranger Monday night, 101-74. Ranger went to the finals in the Region V tournament here last March.

South Plains has won three in a row this season and must be regarded as one of the favorites at Levelland. In all three games, the Texans have scored over 100 points.

Coach Buddy Travis of HCJC hasn't picked his starting lineup but will choose them from among 6-2 Mickey Wilson of Muleshoe, 6-3 Robert Jackson, Amarillo; 6-4 Victor Lopez, Los Angeles; 6-4 Jerry Phillips, Lubbock; 6-3½ John Billizon, Houma, La.; Monte Pillion, 6-3, Wingate; 6-3½ Glen Fletcher, Crane; 5-10 George Tilley, El Paso; 6-5 Sammy James, El Paso; and 6-0 Danny Clendenin, Big Spring.

Arkansas' Lynn Garner Is Lineman Of Week

By The Associated Press

For someone who was so PROUD he didn't even know where to lineup in the fourth quarter, Arkansas' Lynn Garner played a great game Saturday against Southern Methodist.

Arkansas officials said the game film showed SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson popped Garner on the chin. Hixson said it was just a good forearm and nothing illegal. Garner himself doesn't remember.

"I can't really remember the fourth quarter like the first three," he said. "I knew some things. I felt like an idiot though. I had to ask (linebacker) Guy Parker where to line up sometimes."

Garner, a rugged linebacker, was named today The Associated Press Southwest Conference lineman-of-the-week for his play in a 35-29 victory over SMU. Garner was credited with 19 tackles, caused Hixson to fumble once, and recovered another fumble to set up Arkansas' fourth touchdown.

The AP panel gave the nod as the back-of-the-week to Baylor's Gene Rogers who wrecked Texas Tech with three touchdowns and 139 yards rushing in a stunning 42-28 upset.

Garner, when he wasn't trying to remember his name, played havoc with SMU's finely tuned multiple offense. He said his job was easier because SMU relies so much on the pass.

"They are mostly just a passing team and running with Mike Richardson," Garner said. "We expected everything they did. We had good execution."

Coach John Bridgers said Rogers' performance against Tech was "outstanding. He seemed to run better as the game went along. He was running right up the middle. Why, he kinda looked like a power runner and he only weighs something like 180 pounds."

Rogers was switched from a substitute flanker to running back last spring after spending the 1967 season riding the bench.

"I've improved a lot this season because at the first of the year, I was a little unsure, but now I've gained a little more confidence in myself."

"At first, I was hesitant to go outside because I was afraid I'd get caught for a loss, but now I have more confidence that I can get outside and make a good cut."

Lakers Rally To Win Over Celts, 116-106

By The Associated Press
It was the Los Angeles Lakers against the Boston Celtics, Wilt Chamberlain against Bill Russell—and Jerry West stole the show.

West stole the ball nine times and scored 29 points Tuesday night as the Lakers, first in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association, won their ninth straight by rallying for a 116-106 victory over the Celtics, who dropped to second behind idle Baltimore in the East.

Elgin Baylor threw in 30 points and snared 19 rebounds as he joined West in leading the Lakers from a 56-50 halftime deficit to an 84-77 lead after three quarters.

In other NBA action, Philadelphia trounced Phoenix 126-110 and San Diego outlasted New York 113-107 in a doubleheader at New York. Detroit topped Cincinnati 121-107. Milwaukee whipped Atlanta 119-98 and San Francisco took Chicago 121-109.

Hal Greer's shooting and playmaking in the fourth quarter enabled Philadelphia to break open a close game with Phoenix. The veteran guard scored 12 points and set up several other baskets in the final period.

Greer finished with 21 points, all but two in the second half, but the top Philadelphia scorer was Billy Cunningham with 27. San Diego led most of the way until New York outscored the Rockets 19-3 to move ahead 89-87 early in the fourth quarter.

But the Rockets came back to break a 103-103 tie with six straight points to win. Detroit picked up its sixth straight home victory by exploding for 40 points in the final period. Happy Hairston scored 12 points in the fourth-period spurt and finished with 30. Oscar Robertson and Jerry Lucas each scored 23 for Cincinnati. The new Milwaukee club notched its fourth victory in 14 starts as Guy Rodgers scored 26 points and handed out 10 assists. Walt Hazzard topped Atlanta with 25 points. Nate Thurmond was the big San Francisco gun against Chicago as he put in 41 points and grabbed 32 rebounds. Clem Haskins paced Chicago with 23 points.

Swimming workouts have resumed at Big Spring High School. Coach Mike Harris is working with eight girls and 15 boys.

The drills are conducted from 2:30 until 4 p.m. Mondays through Fridays.

The Steers went to Andrews for a scrimmage last Saturday and coach Harris said he was encouraged by what he saw.

This is only the second Steer swim team in history and neither Harris nor any one in the school system expects overnight results.

Johnny Arguello is the only returning letter winner, having won a numeral as a sophomore. The Steers go to Odessa Dec. 7 for a triangular with Permian and Ector high schools.

Vols' Kiner Gets Raves

Associated Press Sports Writer

Steve Kiner kept his eyes on a quarterback's eyes last weekend... and as a result Mississippi suffered its first regular season shutout in three years.

The junior Tennessee linebacker, who spends most of his off-field time studying game films, is a stickler for detail.

Last Saturday, he noticed that Mississippi's touted sophomore quarterback Archie Manning always looked where he intended to throw.

Using that information, Kiner was able to intercept two passes, one setting up a Vol touchdown in the 31-0 rout. And, after passing the news on to his teammates, Tennessee was able to intercept six more Manning tosses.

Kiner, named The Associated Press' College Back of the Week today, also was credited with 12 tackles despite playing with a broken wrist suffered in a game the week before.

"I'd break the other one for a win like this," he cracked after the game.

The 6-foot-1 education major from Tampa, Fla., is carrying on a Tennessee tradition of having great linebackers. Two of his predecessors were Frank Emanuel in 1965 and Paul Naudumoff in 1966, both All-Americans.

Kiner edged out Houston sophomore Elmo Wright for the top honor. Wright, an end, caught seven passes for 249 yards and four touchdowns in a 77-3 trouncing of Idaho.

Other nominations included:

—Steve Greeg, Georgia middle guard who recovered two fumbles and led a defense that held strong Auburn to 23 yards rushing in a 17-3 victory.
—Steve Smear, Penn State tackle who intercepted a Maryland pass and returned it 40 yards to start his team off to a 57-13 rout.
—Don Pfrimmer, Oklahoma

FIGHT RESULTS

TUESDAY NIGHT

SAN JUAN, P.R. — Pedro Aguado, Puerto Rico, defeated Pedro Sanchez, Puerto Rico, 12, heavyweight.
HOUSTON — Dave Zvosevich, 1915, Houston, knocked out Pedro Sanchez, 211, Puerto Rico, 1.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Jerry Quarry, 203, Bellflower, Calif., outpointed Willie Davis, 185, Austin, Tex., 10.
CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. — Richard Medrano, Beaumont, Tex., outpointed Al Franklin, Minneapolis, Minn., 15.
Medrano, 146, retained North American junior welterweight championship.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

After watching Odessa Permian dispatch Big Spring last weekend, I'd have to say the Panthers look like the most worthy representatives for District 3-AAAA in the playoffs.

Fact is, the stylish Cats might just come far enough to square off with Dallas South Oak Cliff on down the road for the right to face Galveston Ball for the state championship.

Permian, with a wealth of backfield talent, was a little slicker than usual against Big Spring. True, the Panthers with their act don't threaten to run SMU back into the wings but the Tabbies used tricky maneuvers like double reverses and bootlegs to disrupt Big Spring's battle plan. Ordinarily, you can look for a Gene Mayfield-club to stick with a bread-and-butter offense to get the job done.

Permian probably doesn't put the ball in the air often enough but it's hard to argue with success. A team that plays ball control as the Panthers do can't be expected to toss the ball around with reckless abandon.

Mayfield gets a maximum effort out of his blockers and the ball carriers know how to take advantage of the protection they offer.

Big Spring suffered periodically all season from the fact that its backs often had to go it alone after clearing the line. Either the backs were too fast or the downfield blockers were not quick enough to get into position to offer help.

Permian's over-all talent may not compare with some of the great teams 3-AAAA has had in the past but neither will the Panther embarrass the conference. They come to play and Mayfield has a great knack for getting his team up for the big ones.

A few fans here might have been disappointed because Coach Spike Dykes didn't deliver a team of Untouchables but most everyone was happy with the Steers' 5-5 record.

There was a time when it appeared the club would have to settle for something like 2-8 but the locals came back to play splendidly on occasions. The boys never struck their colors. The '68 Longhorns made for a lot of fine memories.

Granted that the strategy for defending on kickoff returns has been undated, the art of booming the ball downfield seriously eroded this fall.

The high schools whose teams I have seen play this fall don't seem to have anyone who can ride the ball out of the end zones, thereby forcing the opposition to start from the 20-yard line.

All too often, the teams receiving the kickoffs got excellent field position by returning what amounted to short kickoffs.

The people who handled that ABC telecast for Arkansas and SMU last Saturday fell somewhat short of perfection.

The announcer sounded as if he had hot butter in his mouth. His analyst blew the duke all too often trying to read the quarterbacks' minds. Both seemed highly elated that Arkansas made a shambles of SMU's defenses.

The cameraman should have felt right at home with the two. He often swung the wrong way in trying to follow the play and completely missed out on several pass patterns by sticking with the passer rather than the receivers.

He rarely missed zooming in on the pretty girls going through their gyrations on the sidelines, however.

That Permian JV team which lost to the Big Spring JV here last weekend, 21-13, was composed exclusively of sophomore talent.

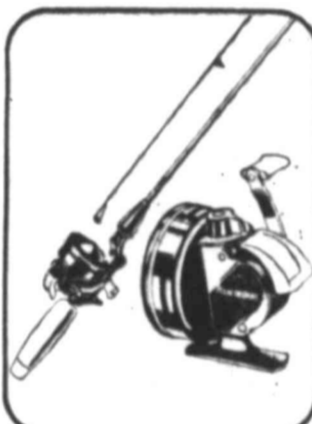

Mayfield uses all the juniors in school on his varsity team.

Permian had so many sophomores out for football (75), it had to book two schedules for the team.

The two teams combined for a 10-4 record. Against 3-AAAA competition, the Panther JV was 6-2.

January Is Moving Time For Local Federal Agencies

Moving day comes up during the week of Jan. 11-17 for nearly every federal bureau and agency in Big Spring. The officials and their staffs will be shifting from their current quarters to their new homes on the second floor of Big Spring's new federal building.

Officials have been in conference recently with the bureaus here. They have assigned definite dates for each agency to make its move to its new quarters.

The small slam contract in hearts reached by North and South was a sound undertaking. South lacked perhaps by a fraction the values to make his jump shift response of two hearts, inasmuch as he held 17 points including high cards and distribution. However, the diamond void—the suit in which East had overcalled—provided a measure of compensation. Once he was able to secure a raise from partner, he proceeded without further ado to six hearts.

West opened the four of diamonds, the five was played from dummy and declarer ruffed away East's jack with the three of hearts. He proceeded to draw the outstanding trumps with three pulls. South observed the dummy's readily establishable club suit should provide him with a comfortable margin of tricks, and he proceeded to cash the ace and king of that suit. When West showed out, South was obliged to revise his estimate for, with the king of spades as the only remaining entry to the North hand, declarer was no longer in position to develop the clubs profitably.

A third round of clubs was led, but East was not obliging enough to continue the suit. He shifted to the ten of spades and South ultimately resorted to a finesse of the jack of spades. When West turned up with the queen, a one trick set was registered.

Declarer was guilty of gross carelessness in the management of his resources. He requires only one additional trick in the club suit to take care of his potential spade loser, and should therefore take measure to protect himself against adverse distribution.

Since dummy has only one side entry, South should surrender a club trick early to maintain his communications with the North hand. After cashing the ace of clubs, it is suggested that he continue with a small club, conceding this trick to the opposition. When declarer regains the lead, he can lead a third club to the king—and then ruff the next round establishing North's long card in the suit for his 12th trick. The king of spades now provides the necessary access to the dummy.

Forsan Post Office Plans To Be Available Soon

FORSAN — Forsan's new post office, for which approval of site was announced several days ago, will be a structure of 768 square feet, located on 2,036 square feet of paved parking and vehicle movement area. The post office department said that plans and specifications for the new building, as well as bidding forms and other pertinent data, will be made available to prospective bidders at an early date. At the same time, the department will advertise for bids.

The site option, which was taken by the post office, will be assigned to the successful bidder. He will purchase the land and construct the building, according to postal requirements. The property will then be leased to the post office department.

This is the method followed by the post office department in providing post office buildings in most towns.

The land which is located on the southeast corner of Fourth Street and Avenue F, was owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McCarty, of Sterling City. It is

Gulps Diet Pills To Avoid Beating

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—A 45-year-old woman told police here she took an overdose of diet pills in an effort to avoid being beaten by her husband.

She was reported in good condition at a hospital after swallowing 26 amphetamine pills used for weight control.

She told Detective Darrell Willis that her husband had beaten her several times since they married and she thought he was going to do so again. Rather than face him, she took the pills.

Dear Abby

—ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Just Try The Truth

DEAR ABBY: I am 19 and have a beautiful baby whom my husband and I both adore. I was six months pregnant when I got married, but my husband and I are very much in love, and we are not ashamed of it. My problem is my mother. She is so ashamed of me that she's gone around saying we were "secretly" married for six months, and I guess some believe her and some don't.

I just tell people the truth. We're going to a family wedding out of state soon and my mother says if she hears me tell anybody we were married in January and the baby was born in April she will take me bodily from the room. I told her I wasn't going to lie about it, but she has already lied so much she looks silly. Now she says I don't have the right to make a liar out of her. So what would you do?

NO LIAR
DEAR NO-LIAR: If you have been telling people the truth, I doubt if your mother's story has fooled many. Don't volunteer any of the specific dates, but if you're pinned down, stick with the truth.

DEAR ABBY: Enclosed is a yellowed, dog-eared clipping from your column. It appeared about three years ago, and you can't imagine how much sustenance I've drawn from it over the years. It's been an "instant tranquilizer." Would you please run it again for mothers who may have missed it?

A READER
DEAR READER: With pleasure, and here it is:

DEAR ABBY: I am the mother of three daughters, ages 11, 13, and 15. These girls are driving me crazy! There is never a peaceful minute in this house. They are always fighting. When they were small they were constantly at each other's throats, but I thought they would get along better when they got older. Well, they've gotten worse, not better. We have done everything to teach them love and respect for each other, but we've failed. My husband still insists they will "outgrow" this hatred they seem to have for one another. Will they? If so, when?

GOING CRAZY
DEAR GOING: Be patient. Girls between 11 and 14 are generally stubborn, selfish, and moody. They will become more reasonable and considerate of each other when they mature. Unfortunately by that time, they'll be ready to leave home. Sorry, Mother, but why should it be any different at your house?

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's new booklet, "What Teenagers Want to Know," send $1 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069.
