Stanton Woman Killed Thursday In Car Mishap

STANTON — A collision at a Stanton street intersection at 1 p.m. Thursday took the life of Mrs. Margaret Sue Haynie, 70, J. W. Tucker, also of Stanton and driver of a second car, is in the Physicians Hospital where his condition is said to be satisfactory.

Jake Bruton, Stanton policeman, said that the mishap occurred at the intersection of Carpenter and St. Peter streets. Tucker was driver of one of the vehicles and Mrs. Haynie was in the second.

Mrs. Haynie died after being removed from the scene to the Physicians Hospital.

Services for Mrs. Haynie are pending at the Gilbreath Funeral Home.

She was born July 1, 1898, in Camp Springs. She and Travis Werner Haynie were married in Big Spring Dec. 6, 1923. They moved to Stanton in 1927 from Mureta.

Survivors include the husband, two sons, Travis Haynie, Stanton, and Silliman E. Haynie, Lomax; one daughter, Mrs. Arnold Pearce of Palacios; two sisters, Mrs. Jess Barnett, Elmore City, Okla., and Mrs. Estelle Blevins, Byars, Okla. There are seven grandchildren.

'DIFFICULT TO ACCEPT' U.S. Proposes Six Table Shapes

PARIS (AP) — The National Liberation Front said today it would be "difficult to accept" the latest American proposals to settle the Vietnam peace talks. But an NLF spokesman stopped short of rejection.

Tran Hoai Nam, deputy chief of the Front's peace delegation, said the U.S. proposals were "tortuous" and reflected the "absurd idea" that the Paris talks were to be a two-sided affair.

SIX FORMS

The proposal was made Thursday night by U.S. negotiator Cyrus R. Vance at a meeting with North Vietnamese Col. Ha Van Lam. Vance proposed six different forms the conference table might take, while Lau advanced another proposal for a round table.

The NLF spokesman told a news conference that all of Vance's table shapes reflected the "unacceptable" American idea that only two sides would be taking part in the discussions. North Vietnam and the NLF insist that the conference is to be a four-party affair at which the NLF is to have full status.

"It is very difficult to accept the proposals of Mr. Vance because they reflect the absurd idea of two sides," Nam said. When a spokesman called attention to his wording—"difficult to accept"—and asked if his delegation rejected the U.S. proposals, Nam said with a smile: "I have already replied."

Vance at his meeting with Lau said the United States and South Vietnam would agree to sit at the round table proposed by Hanoi if a felt strip was stretched across the center of the table to symbolize the division of the conference participants into two "sides."

Vance met this morning with South Vietnamese Ambassador Pham Dang Lam for 90 minutes to give him the details of his meeting with Lau. There was no comment by either side.

The North Vietnamese, in a communique, said Vance has not yet accepted its "logical and reasonable proposal." It accused the Americans of deliberately delaying the conference.

Both U.S. and North Vietnamese proposals were said to be under study by the conference participants.

The circular table proposal symbolizes Hanoi's contention that the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front must have equal status with the three other delegations at the Paris talks. The Saigon government insists on some sort of arrangement that does not represent recognition of the NLF as anything more than a subordinate of Hanoi. The wrangle over table shapes and other details has blocked the start of the expanded peace talks for two months.

DECLINED

Lau declined to accept the felt strip proposal or any of Vance's five other table designs Thursday, but he said he would consider the proposals. Then he put forward this counterproposal:

If the Americans accept a round table with nothing to suggest division, then North Vietnam will drop its demand for separate flags and nameplates in the conference room for the four delegations.

Flu Deaths Still Rising

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP)—Deaths caused by influenza and pneumonia continued to rise for the fourth consecutive week of a nationwide epidemic of Hong Kong flu, the National Communicable Disease Center reported today.

However, there are indications that the epidemic will level off within the next week or two, a spokesman said.

For the week ending Dec. 28, the number of deaths reported from 122 cities stands at 1,168. This compared with an expected death toll of 516, the NCDC reported.

During the past week, there were indications that the epidemic of Hong Kong flu is easing in major cities of the East.

A spokesman for the NCDC said excess influenza-pneumonia deaths have been reported in every geographic region except for the east south central portion and the west south central area.

Widespread occurrence of Hong Kong flu has been reported in 23 states, with regional outbreaks in 10 states and isolated outbreaks in 14 states.

The list of documented Hong Kong flu cases now includes Hawaii, Louisiana and Mississippi, the NCDC reported.

Antiflu Masks May Offer Protection On Campus

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — University of Florida researchers feel antiflu masks may offer protection against campus coughs, but student volunteers will have to decide if it's worth impeding eating, smoking—and kissing.

Specialists in the College of Medicine predict that by mid-January about two weeks after the 19,800 students assemble for the winter quarter beginning next Monday—about 30 per cent of the student body will be infected by flu.

In cooperation with Dr. Wilmer Coggins, student health director, a team from the College of Medicine will ask certain students to wear blue and white surgical masks, at all times when they are in public places for a period of a few weeks.

The masks filter out airborne droplets of saliva, which may contain Hong Kong flu and other viruses.

Kennedy, Scott Win Whip Posts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts won his bid to become the Senate's assistant Democratic leader as the 91st Congress opened today.

The Republicans also chose a new man.

Just before Kennedy unseated Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana, Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania was chosen by Republicans as assistant minority leader—or "whip"—over conservative Sen. Roman L. Hruska of Nebraska.

31-26 VOTE

By a 31 to 26 vote of a Democratic caucus, the youngest and only surviving Kennedy brother snatched a victory which could speed his way to the White House.

The House settled its leadership problems Thursday with predictable results as Speaker John W. McCormack of Massachusetts easily defeated the challenge of Arizona Democrat Morris Udall. Republican Gerald Ford of Michigan won reelection unopposed as minority leader.

In the Senate, Edward M. Kennedy of Massachusetts, in a move regarded as a first step toward a possible 1972 presidential bid, put up a close race with Louisiana's Russell B. Long for the No. 2 Democratic job of whip.

On the GOP side, Pennsylvania's Hugh Scott challenged for the whip position in another tight race with Nebraska's Roman Hruska.

The top Senate posts in each party remained in the hands of Democrat Mike Mansfield of Montana, majority leader, and Republican Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, minority leader, who were unopposed.

CHALLENGE

In an 11th hour challenge, Michigan's Robert P. Griffin announced for the chairmanship of the Republican Policy Committee against Colorado's Gordon Allott.

Although the position has declined in influence in recent years, Robert A. Taft once used it in his climb to Senate power.

With leadership contests and other formalities out of the way, the House and Senate will meet in joint session Monday to canvass presidential election returns, then turn to an array of issues that could provide early fireworks.

Both houses have before them a proposal to raise their own pay and the salaries of top federal officers including the President.

The House may have to grapple with the problem of whether to seat New York's Adam Clayton Powell, ousted in 1967 after being accused of misusing federal funds.

President Johnson is expected to press hard for early Senate action on the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, but that chamber could get bogged down first in the biennial and always controversial move to moderate the filibuster rule that requires a two-third vote to limit debate.

Even the usually routine canvass of presidential returns could provide a spark or two.

Sen. Edmund Muskie, D-Maine, and Rep. James O'Hara, D-Mich., said they will ask Congress Monday to reject a North Carolina electoral vote cast for third party candidate George C. Wallace and award it to Nixon. Nixon carried North Carolina, but because of the switch got only 12 of the state's 13 votes.

INSURE INTEGRITY

The pair said they wanted to "insure the integrity of this election . . . and to effectively dramatize the danger of continuing to operate under this outmoded, haphazard and undemocratic method of electing a president."

The Powell issue is the thorniest facing the House.

Powell has twice been rejected by his Harlem district since he was denied his seat in the 90th Congress.

Some Republicans are planning to move to seat the New Yorker this time but fine him $40,000, strip him of seniority and censure him. Others said they flatly oppose seating him and it takes only one objection to force a roll call.

Democrats, holding a 243-192 majority in the House and a 57-43 edge in the Senate, said in advance of the 1969 session they would try to co-operate with Nixon.

But there were frequent warnings that he could lose their support across the board if Republicans tried to scuttle Great Society programs.

The pay raise proposal would provide a $50,000 increase for Nixon, making his salary $150,000. It would have to be passed by both House and Senate and signed into law before he takes the oath Jan. 20 or he would not be eligible for it until and unless he wins a second term.

HELP PAVE

This would help to pave the way for a substantial pay raise for members of Congress and other high government officials expected to be recommended by President Johnson.

A special commission has proposed to Johnson that senators and representatives be hiked from $30,000 to $50,000. He will make his recommendations when he submits his budget in about two weeks.

Lebanon Warms To Reds, Cool To U. S.

By The Associated Press

The Lebanese government has informed Moscow that Soviet warships will be welcome in Lebanon and told the U.S. 6th Fleet to keep out, newspapers in Beirut said today. But authorities declined to confirm the reports.

The reports said the government told the Soviet Union that Russian ships could visit Beirut if Moscow asked. The Soviet fleet, believed to total about 50 ships in the Mediterranean, has never visited Lebanon.

UNWELCOME

The right-wing newspapers Al Nahar and Al Jarida said Premier Abdulla Yafi expressed the view that U.S. Navy ships would be unwelcome because of Washington's recent decision to sell 50 Phantom jets to Israel. This would be a reversal of Lebanon's traditional pro-Western policy.

In Cairo, the authoritative newspaper Al Ahras said President Gamal Abdel Nasser has endorsed Jordanian King Hussein's call for an Arab summit meeting.

The paper said Nasser sent Hussein a message signifying agreement.

Arab League sources said, however, that only 6 of the 15 Arab states have so far expressed any enthusiasm for such a meeting. They are Egypt, Jordan, Lebanon, Sudan, Kuwait and Yemen.

ANGRY

Israeli anger at the world's concern for Lebanon increased. Foreign Minister Abba Eban assailed the U.S. Security Council and the Sephardic chief rabbi criticized Pope Paul VI.

Meanwhile, the once quiet Lebanese-Israeli border erupted again in an artillery duel Thursday night, and the Big Four powers continued talking about a Soviet proposal for joint peace action.

Chief Rabbi Yitzhak Nissim, head of Israel's Sephardic community, criticized the pontiff in his message to Lebanon expressing sympathy for the loss of 13 commercial aircraft destroyed by the Israeli commando raid on Beirut airport last Saturday.

In a broadcast over the state radio, Rabbi Nissim said the Pope had kept silent after the Nov. 22 bombing that killed 13 Israelis in a Jerusalem market and after the Dec. 26 Arab attack on an El Al airliner in Athens in which one Israeli died.

"Here," he said, "are clear signs of two tendencies on the part of the pontiff: A comprehensive war against the Jewish faith and against the country which God gave to His people."

NOT SHOCKED

"The Pope was not shocked over the shedding of blood but rather over material things."

At a news conference in Tel Aviv, Eban denounced the Security Council resolution condemning the Israeli raid and suggesting Lebanon is entitled to compensation.

"If Israel were wiped out completely by the Arabs, the Security Council would do and say nothing," Eban declared, referring to the Soviet veto which has blocked every attempt to censure the Arabs.

Asked about the recommendation for compensation, Eban said, "What is suggested by the Security Council by way of redress for the family of the man murdered in Athens?"

He accused the United Nations of reserving its compassion for "the steel the grid, the money" while ignoring the fact that "hundreds of our people have fallen as victims of Arab violence" over the past two decades.

Hijacker Takes 148 To Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — A giant Eastern Airlines stretch-jet with 148 persons aboard landed at Havana today under orders of a hijacker who took command of the nonstop New York-Miami flight.

Two Eastern turboprop planes were ordered to the airport at Varadero, Cuba, to retrieve the kidnapped passengers but no time for the flight was set according to John Graffius, acting area manager for the Federal Aviation Administration.

GOOD CONDITION

In Havana, the Swiss Embassy said the passengers spent the night at a nearby-deserted airport and would be returned today to U.S. soil. All aboard were reported in good condition.

The hijacked jet, which landed in Havana at 1:05 a.m. EST, was the first plane hijacked to Cuba this year. Last year there were 20 successful hijackings to Cuba, 13 of them from the United States.

Eastern said its DC-8-61, largest commercial jetliner in America, carrying 140 passengers and eight crew members left New York's Kennedy Airport at 9:52 p.m. Thursday and was due in Miami at 12:30 a.m.

About an hour before Flight 401 was scheduled to land at Miami International Airport, Capt. Dennis Vanhuss radioed the Federal Aviation Administration at Jacksonville, Fla. FAA supervisor Harold Jensen said Vanhuss reported, "I am going to Havana."

The plane at that point was 60 miles east of Jacksonville.

There was no immediate word on what went on aboard the plane.

Most hijackings have featured a man with a gun, who threatened a crew member and ordered the pilot to fly to Havana. None has resisted.

CLEARED

The FAA said the Eastern plane was cleared direct to Cuba soon after the hijacking was reported.

In addition to Vanhuss, the crew included First Officer J.R. Cooper and Second Officer T.F. Wally in the cockpit, all based in New York.

Stewardesses, working out of Miami, were Nancy Wilson, Cathy Germino, Linda Abolt, Kathy McCormick and Catherine Tolan.

After landing in Cuba, hijacked planes usually are flown to Miami by the crew while passengers go by bus to Varadero—a three-hour ride—and are picked up there by planes sent from Florida.

The last previous hijacking to Cuba, also an Eastern plane, was on Dec. 19, 1968, when a jet flying nonstop from Philadelphia to Miami was diverted.

COMPLAINT

On Thursday the FBI at Miami filed a complaint naming Thomas George Washington, 27, of Gary, Ind., as its hijacker.

The FBI said Washington took his daughter, Jennifer Robin, 3, from his divorced wife in Philadelphia and boarded the plane along with 140 other passengers,

TAKE $100

Not So Funny

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — "Hey, fellows, it's not that cold," clerk Joe Yurech said as two men in ski masks entered a food store here.

"This is a stickup," replied one of the masked pair.

The bandits, one carrying a shotgun, took more than $100 from the store.

Escapes Sought

HOPEWELL, Miss. (AP) — Sheriff Fred Thomas headed a search today for four armed prisoners who had held him and two coworkers as hostages after breaking from the Hinds County jail at night.

Thomas was released unharmed along with James Hartzog, the jailer, and John Mowdy, a radioman, 90 minutes after the break Thursday night.

The prisoners were identified as Kenneth Albert Rankston, 35, of Harrisville, Willie Lewis Price, 24, of Bassfield, James Ralph Murphy, 37, of Jackson, and John Wallace Brooks, 21, of Jackson.

The men carried a gun carved from soap and colored with shoe polish. They reportedly took two pistols from a desk in the cell block on the top floor of the courthouse, then took Hartzog down an elevator to the second floor. There they forced Thomas and Mowdy to accompany them to the sheriff's car.

The hostages were released on a country road about 35 miles south of Jackson. The escapees took Thomas' two-day-old car, his revolver and about $270. The sheriff went to a house and summoned aid while Hartzog and Mowdy returned to Jackson.

Soldier Charged

WACO, Tex. (AP) — Waco Justice of the Peace John Cabiness set bond at $10,000 Thursday afternoon for Sherman G. Johnson, 21, a Fort Hood soldier charged in the slaying of a Waco coed. Johnson remained in jail.

Patricia Rita Davis, 19, who attended Paul Quinn College, was shot while sitting with Johnson in a car at Cameron Park early Thursday.

During early questioning, Johnson was quoted by police as saying the girl was shot by someone who ran up to the car, fired a single shot, then ran away before he could react.

The body of Miss Davis was to be taken to Corpus Christi Friday for funeral services and burial.

Billions Puffed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans puffed more than one billion fewer cigarettes last year — the first reduction in domestic cigarette consumption since 1964, the Agriculture Department says.

Officials also predicted no significant smoking gain this year in what they interpreted as a trend due at least partially to increased publicity on smoking and health.

The department estimated domestic cigarette consumption in 1968 at 526.5 billion, compared with 527.8 billion smoked the year before.

smell. I change these about once every two months. Please don't knock it, doll... Tacky. You may just think you're tacky, but I don't think so! After all, most grocery stores where we buy laundry powder are air-conditioned. Even bars of soap do the same thing!

Dear Heloise: To make quick egg salad sandwiches for school lunches, try scrambling the eggs very dry, let cool, then prepare your salad as usual.

Dear Heloise: You won't believe this and I don't blame you! We didn't believe you either when you wrote about nylon net... When I buy a large box of soap powder — usually I buy it when it's on sale and keep lots of it in the house, so I won't run out — I cut the top off and put it on a closet shelf. I find that this helps to absorb some of the moisture that accumulates in my closets. It also gives them a mighty sweet

Dear Heloise: Our Sunday school class had an interesting project... We made knee blankets from leftover upholstery and drapery scraps and took them to a home for the aged. Don't Blame Army For Fuel Fleecing

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defense officials have relieved the Navy of all further responsibility for the amount and quality of fuel intended for vital U.S. military operations in Southeast Asia.

This was learned in the aftermath of disclosures that at least 5.5 million gallons of fuel and lubricants destined for U.S. Army and Air Force units in Thailand were stolen in 1967 alone.

General Accounting Office investigators, in a report to Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., blamed the massive thefts on bribery, forgery, collusion and official laxity.

They said spot checks indicated 52 per cent of all gasoline and lubricants delivered to Thai service stations in the first 10 months of 1967 for use by U.S. military vehicles was stolen. Forty per cent of all diesel fuel sent to one air base alone never arrived, they reported.

The GAO said the Navy Fuel Supply Office had sole responsibility in Bangkok for assuring petroleum products delivered by private contractors complied in quantity and quality with standards set by the government. A Navy source said Defense Department supply officials ordered the Army to replace the Navy's fuel inspection functions in Southeast Asia effective last Wednesday.

The substitution was not announced publicly by the Defense Department, but a Pentagon information officer confirmed it.

Defense Department supply officials also said the change was imminent.

But they insisted the action was routine, had "been in the works a long time," and had no relation to the widespread thefts.

One official said the action reflects only "the fact that the Navy is no longer the prime user" of petroleum products in the region.

Meanwhile, John McGee, the man Proxmire credits for "blowing the whistle" on the oil thefts, said his Navy superiors have instructed him not to talk to reporters about the internal operations of the Navy Fuel Supply Office.

French Actress Caron To Marry

NEW YORK (AP) — French actress Leslie Caron and American movie producer Michael Laughlin were married New Year's Day in Jamaica.

The couple plans to live in London, said Miss Caron's press agent in announcing the wedding Thursday.

Laughlin, 29, has produced two movies in England, "The Whisperers" and "Joanna." It is his first marriage.

Miss Caron, 36, played the title role in "Gigi," which won an Academy Award in 1958. She previously was married to British director Peter Hall. They divorced in 1965.

Political Waves Churned Up During Hurst Bank Hearing

AUSTIN (AP) — President Johnson's name has been injected into a dispute over whether National Democratic Committee member Robert Strauss should disqualify himself as a member of the state Banking Commission from hearing an application for a state bank in Tarrant County and would be "holding the stock for other parties."

King said Strauss should disqualify himself because his two party create a conflict of interest, Fort Worth lawyer Earl King charged at the hearing KPCM Radio, whose president,

Dge Kelly, was Lt. Gov-elect Ben Barnes' campaign manager in Fort Worth. He also pointed out that one of the lawyers making the application, Frank Erwin, preceded Strauss as Democratic national committee-

Strauss denounced King's "veiled references" and said, "There used to be a thing called McCarthyism in this country and this is the worst form of McCarthyism. Nothing you have said here would cause me to disqualify myself." Erwin was asked if he wanted to reply to King's statement.

"I'm so mad at this point I don't know whether I should speak or not," Erwin said. They've been trying to prove for 20 years that Lyndon Johnson controls all the banks in Austin."

King told the commission he represented three banks: The Northeast National Bank of Richland Hills, The First National Bank of Euless, and The American Bank of Commerce of Grapevine, all in the area of the proposed Bank of North Texas.

FOR FULL COLONELS

Army Selects 27 Negroes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has selected 27 Negro officers for promotion to full colonel in a move to encourage more Negroes to make the service a career.

The action will double the number of Negroes now rated full colonel and set the stage for possible advancement of more Negroes to the rank of general.

In its long history the Army has had only two Negro generals — Brig. Gen. Frederic E. Davison, deputy commander of the 199th Light Infantry Brigade in Vietnam, and retired Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis Sr.

A Pentagon spokesman said the 27 Negroes were among 1,053 Army officers selected for advancement beyond lieutenant colonel in the list drawn up last Nov. 6.

Jack Moskowitz, a deputy secretary of defense specializing in civil rights matters, hailed the move as "bound to encourage" more Negroes to aim for careers in the service. He said in an interview it is "proof" there is equality in the armed forces.

Moskowitz acknowledged that the services have been relatively slow elevating Negro officers to higher ranks since segregated units were banned in 1948, but "there's been a lot of spurring going on," he said. When President Harry S. Truman ordered the desegregation of military units in 1948, the Army had only one Negro colonel among its 1,306 black officers.

In 1962, when President John F. Kennedy ordered a new look at equality in the services, there were only six Negro colonels.

The number rose to 10 in 1964, dropped to nine in 1965, then rose again to 16 in 1966 and to 27 by the end of 1967.

"We used to get complaints from Negroes and civil rights organizations that there weren't enough Negro officers in the higher levels," Moskowitz said. "We told them it was simply a matter of time and numbers."

The Army Times, an unofficial military newspaper, predicted the Negro colonels' selection would have a "ripple effect" clear down to company grade officers.

Latest Pentagon figures show more than 300,000 Negro officers and enlisted men, or 8.9 per cent of the total active duty force. But of all officers in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force, only 8,335 or 2.1 per cent are Negro.

The Army has the largest Negro officer total with 5,471 or 3.4 per cent.

An interesting hand selected from the National Team of Four Championship at the Fall Nationals recently held in Coronado, Cal., is presented today. Altho North and South can take 12 tricks in a spade contract, very few of the contestants bid the slam.

At many of the tables where the hand was played, after South had overcalled East's opening one-heart bid with one spade, North made a jump shift in diamonds in an attempt to elicit further information from his partner. After South rebid three spades, most Norths were content to merely carry on to game.

A few players followed up their initial jump by raising South beyond game to five spades. This drastic call failed to elicit any enthusiasm from South—who apparently felt that he had already done his duty on the deal, and the latter passed.

At one table, the bidding proceeded as depicted in the diagram. North chose to make a game-forcing cue bid in the opponent's suit when his partner overcalled with one spade. Altho this call customarily announces first-round control of the suit bid, North was willing to indulge in a bit of poetic license, so that the bidding might proceed in a more relaxed manner while he learned more about his partner's hand.

South cooperated by jumping to three spades. He was not sure of North's intentions, but he felt that his partner might be interested in learning that the spade suit was solid. As it developed, this bit of information was very enlightening to North, who had controls in all the other suits.

With the assurance that the opponents could not take more than one heart trick, North was willing to gamble it out that his ruffing value in hearts and the excellent diamond suit would provide the tricks required to take care of South's losers in the other suits. North accordingly proceeded to six spades.

The play offered no problems. West opened a heart and East played the ace. He continued with the king, forcing dummy to ruff. South drew trump and easily took the rest of the tricks.

Tinder Box

The world moves from one powder keg to another. The latest is the Middle East, a perennial tinder box which seems to indulate between mild and severe crises.

The latest series of events, punctuated by an attack on an Israeli air liner in Athens and Israel's retaliatory and destructive raid on a Lebanese airport and domestic air fleet, has brought matters to an explosive point.

Three years ago Arab-Israeli tensions reached a flash point, and when the Arabs, led by Nasser's Egypt, sought to invade Israel, the story of David and Goliath was repeated with humiliating and devastating results for the Arabs.

In the interval that followed, there was perhaps an opportunity to reach some sort of accommodations, but Russia, seeking to establish a sphere of influence in the Middle East, continued to pump materiel to Egypt and other Arab countries.

The Israelis are convinced their total destiny is at stake, that a land they believe is historically theirs will be wrested from them and that they once again will be dispersed to the four corners. Arabs are equally certain the Jews are interlopers who have dispossessed Arabs from a land which has been theirs since the Biblical days. Add to this the inborn hates of a people which is ethnically the same, but religiously apart, and you have the seeds for raids, attacks, murder, and potential war.

Nevertheless, the major powers must somehow bring their considerable influence to bear to cool this strife and work systematically toward some sort of permanent arrangement. Israel has gone beyond the bounds of reason in its retaliation, and the Arabs have done nothing to lessen provocations. Left to its own conclusion, this condition could easily engulf the world in a cataclysmic struggle.

Change Of An Old Rule?

There is some speculation that Rule 22 of the United States Senate might be reformed, and that Vice President Hubert Humphrey might be the one to hold that the rule can be changed by a simple majority rather than a two-thirds majority vote. This would open the way to consider a proposal that would permit the vote of 51 senators to cut off any debate that has run for 30 days.

Unlimited filibuster has not always been a Senate tradition. Vice President Schuyler Colfax held in 1872 the presiding officer could not silence a senator who considered his remarks pertinent to a pending issue, and that was the beginning of unlimited debate.

Rule 22 has staunch defenders among minorities wishing to block consideration of certain legislation, but it would seem that within 30 days most subjects could have every illuminating facet well exposed to discussion.

The Strange Attack On McCormack

By WILLIAM S. WHITE
(For Marquis Childs, who is on vacation)

WASHINGTON — The man most painfully in the middle in the rump rebellion being prepared against John W. McCormack, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, is not the author of that Putsch, Rep. Morris Udall of Arizona. It is instead the present Democratic floor leader of the House, Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma.

FOR UDALL has promised, in the most unlikely event that McCormack should be denied re-election as Speaker by the general Democratic membership, to resign the nomination at once and thus to open the way for some more senior type actually to take over the Speaker's mace. The trouble for Carl Albert is that it is precisely Carl Albert, a wholly loyal subordinate to McCormack, who is most glaringly and most obviously the more senior type of whom Udall is talking.

Though any success for Udall's campaign, based upon the circumstance that McCormack is 77 years old, is in the highest degree improbable, that is not the real point of this curious affair — curious because to attempt to unseat a Speaker is about as unheard of as would be an attempt to dislodge a sitting Pope.

THE REAL point is that Udall has opened an appalling can of worms not only for Albert, whose embarrassment here hardly requires description, but also for the entire

Billy Graham

I married a man who has given me everything. We live in a handsome split-level home in the suburbs, we have two cars, a boat, color television, and a certain amount of prestige. Yet there is something lacking. I feel bored and depressed most of the time. Have you any idea what is wrong?

Y.T.
In looking through the October issue of one of America's home magazines, I glanced at the table of contents. There were articles on decorating, carpeting, cooking, gardening, new cars for '69, shopping, family pets, and how to carve a duck. But, I found none on human relations, real home problems, or morals. I got the impression that the editors thought that if we have good gardens, a good TV antenna, good meals, and a shiny new car — that is all we need for happiness. Tragically, too many Americans have adopted this materialistic philosophy. But Jesus said, "The abundance of a man's life consisteth not in the things which he possesseth." Why we labor under the illusion that "things" can bring happiness, I will never understand. This is your trouble. You have a house full of gadgets, but lack a real purpose for living. Your boredom and depression are a result of guilt, and you have guilt because you are living in your tight, comfortable world while much of the world is starving for physical and spiritual bread. The Bible says, "No man liveth unto himself." We were made, not to hibernate in affluent isolation, but to share our faith and our abundance with others.

Kindergartens For Indians

WINDOW ROCK, Ariz. (AP) — The Bureau of Indian Affairs opened 34 kindergartens on Indian reservations this fall for the first time in history. Seventeen of them are on the Navajo Reservation, the nation's largest.

The kindergarten program emphasizes participation by parents. Mothers are urged to ride school buses daily with their children and then take part in the classroom, dining room and playground activities.

Each kindergarten has one teacher and a teacher aide. Most of the aides are Navajos who are training for work as regular teachers.

The BIA schools supplement the preschool Head Start program sponsored by the Office of Navajo Economic Opportunity.

His Accomplishments Could Create Conflicts

NEW YORK (AP) — David Packard, named to be deputy secretary of defense in the Nixon administration, is as finely educated, broadly experienced and as thoroughly accomplished a man as likely could be found for the spot.

This, however, might not mean to the Senate, which must pass on his selection, that Packard is the man for the job. As some may view his appointment, these very accomplishments could create conflicts.

This is the background:

DAVID PACKARD, was a 27-year-old former engineer for General Electric back in 1959 when he and William Hewlett decided to go into business for themselves. They began in a garage with a few hundred dollars.

The two men had been classmates a few years earlier at Stanford, where Packard was Phi Beta Kappa and a member of the football and basketball teams. Hewlett went on to Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Packard went on to Colorado College and then took a graduate degree in electrical engineering at Stanford.

Asked in an interview why he wanted to go into business for himself, Packard gave a reason that contemporary young people will recognize. He did not feel, he said, that he could express himself in a large corporation as well as in his own business.

HE PROVED his point. From 1959 to 1947 he and Hewlett operated a successful partnership in the manufacture of electronic measuring devices. Then they incorporated and began an extraordinary expansion.

As one of the foremost companies in its field, Hewlett-Packard naturally did business with the biggest electronics customer, the U.S. government. Perhaps as much as one-third of its sales involve government purchases.

In order to take the defense job Packard has devised this plan:

—Place his $300 million of stock in a charitable trust for the entire period of his stay in government. Resign as head of his company. Sever ties with other corporations. Sell stock in companies with government business.

IT WOULD seem, then, that this highly qualified man would be ideal for the job. Or would he?

Nagging doubts will be expressed by some senators. As a member of the military-industrial complex, they might ask, Packard:

Should I sell all his stock in Hewlett-Packard? Can he be impartial even with his stock held in trust? Would find it possible to be impartial to his own firm even if he sold all his stock?

Happy Movie Brat

NEW YORK (AP) — Some child actors are ruined for life by the precocious demands their careers make upon them before they reach maturity.

But that didn't happen to Bonita Granville, the movie brat whom film audiences a generation ago loved to hate.

Today she is happily married to Jack Wrather, millionaire rancher, oilman and entertainment entrepreneur, and keeps her hand in show business by working as assistant producer on his CBS television show, "Lassie."

BONITA, BORN in New York City, is the daughter of the late Bernard Granville, a Ziegfeld Follies star, and Rosina Timponi Granville, also a well known stage performer.

"My father was one of the first Broadway musical stars to earn $5,000 a week," she recalled.

Her own acting career started at the age of 7 when she went to Hollywood in 1931 and almost immediately was signed to appear in "Westward Passage," starring Ann Harding and a then obscure young British actor, Laurence Olivier.

One of the early highlights of her career was "These Three," in which she played a hateful brat so successfully that for a few years she was saddled with a series of such unsympathetic roles.

AS SHE graduated, however, from child star to ingenue to dramatic actress she was given more ingratiating roles in such films as "The Plough and the Stars," "Ah, Wilderness," "Cavalcade," and "H.M. Pulham, Esq."

Altogether she appeared in 55 films.

Educated largely within studio walls, she was raised strictly by her mother—her father died when she was 13—and never had a date until she was 17.

"The work left me with no scars that I know of now," she said, smiling. "Maybe they'll creep up on me later."

"I WAS barely 16 when I graduated from high school and wanted to go to Stanford University, but I decided I simply couldn't afford to. The films were too lucrative. I wasn't a big star in those days, but I was making $1,000 a week on a 40-week contract."

"When I met you in 1946," broke in her husband, "you were making $10,000 every three weeks."

They met on a blind date and he proposed 10 days later, but she kept Wrather waiting 10 months before accepting his proposal.

Around The Rim

Case Of The Fretting Father

A Big Spring father was upset because his wife gave permission for their daughter, who is in the eighth grade, to have a date for a school party.

Naturally, he went around making noises as an irate Big Spring father is wont to do.

When the boy showed up, a full six feet in height, good old dad nearly went into orbit.

HE FUMED and foamed all evening, uttering dire warnings to his wife about what he'd do "if anything happens."

Finally on the dot of 9:30 p.m. — when the young Cinderella had been told to be home — there was a telephone call. Both mother and father scurried to answer it. Dad won.

"Daddy," the daughter blurted, "the positively worst thing has happened!"

"WHAT DID HE DO?" the father shouted.

"You'll have to come and get me," the daughter said. "His mother came and got HIM at 9 o'clock."

MY BASHFUL aunt, Marie Chastain, Durant, Okla., says that "Since Jackie married Aristotle, we know it isn't Platonic."

Overhead: "I've found a sideline in which I break even, and they're hard to find nowadays."

The cost of college football goes up, UP, and AWAY! It would be interesting to see a breakdown of the athletic budget at a private state university, or a private institution, for that matter.

IT COULD reach the point where the regents would have to decide whether to continue the university, or the football team, and we all know which way that would go, don't we? Or do we?

The Nixon program is being described widely by the phrase "Bring Us Together," taken from a sign carried by a young person during one of his campaign sops.

I'm all for it, but Madison Avenue will never accept it. The initials spell out a conjunction — and a rather negative conjunction at that.

Nevertheless, I'm all for a revival of Togetherness in the good old U.S.A.

MY WONDERFUL aunt, Mildred Ladd, commented just the other day: "You always think the hurdle in front of you is the last and most difficult one. But it soon is apparent that it was easy, compared to the one which follows."

When I was a boy a hole in your blanket was a disgrace. Now you stick your head through it and you're in style.

Sigma Delta Chi termed President Johnson's "credibility gap" as "the worst." Eventually, that has to lead to the line: "My credibility gap can lick your credibility gap!"

OVERHEAD (one friend to another): "I knew you were telling the truth because you do it so seldom that you're not very good at it."

My pudgy uncle, Chester Ladd, Muskogee, Okla., writes: "Happiness is a warm poppy."

Good old Bill Factor complains that it has been a long time since he has received any advances except on his salary. —WALT PINLEY

The Outlook For Vietnam 'Peace'

WASHINGTON — Will the Vietnam war end during 1969? Everything depends on what is meant by the word "end." If it is assumed that there will be a complete cessation of hostilities, this is a mistaken idea.

What can be expected is a slowing down of the military operations and a gradual withdrawal of United States troops from South Vietnam. But the decision to do this will be made only when a policy has been announced that will warn the North Vietnamese they must adhere to any agreement reached or take the consequences.

ALREADY THE war operations are diminishing in the sense that the North Vietnamese are curtailing their broad efforts and confining themselves to various local skirmishes. They are so anxious to see the United States pull out that they are willing to convey the impression of their intention to maintain peace in the future after the American forces go home.

But it is recognized by military men that, when the North Vietnamese troops are taken out of South Vietnam, they do not have to go very far — only to Laos and Cambodia. They have bases in these two countries and their forces could be returned very quickly to South Vietnam if the Hanoi government suddenly resumed its attempt to conquer South Vietnam.

ONE BIG QUESTION is whether the South Vietnamese could get along without the help of the United States. American generals say that ultimately this condition can be attained but that it is not possible to achieve such a status in the next few months. It will take a year or two to complete the training of the South Vietnamese.

When one reads the article written recently for "Foreign Affairs" by Dr. Henry A. Kissinger of Harvard, who has been selected by President-elect Nixon to be an adviser on national-security affairs and foreign policy questions, a clearer idea is obtained of what might be anticipated at the negotiating table. Dr. Kissinger writes:

"UNILATERAL withdrawal, or a settlement which unintentionally amounts to the same thing, could lead to the erosion of restraints and to an even more dangerous international situation. No American policymaker can simply dismiss these dangers."

Dr. Kissinger is well aware that a "coalition government" such as the United States agreed to in China in the late 1940's and which gave the Communists their chance to take over that country is a mistake that ought not to be repeated.

DR. KISSINGER concludes that there has to be some kind of "mixed commission" set up for the purpose of developing and supervising the political process by which reintegration of the country will be sought, including free elections. His idea is that there must be an international presence to enforce good faith, and that the United States cannot be expected to rely on Hanoi's word that the removal of American troops will mean permanent relief of Communist pressures on South Vietnam. He feels that an "international force" will be required.

THE UNITED NATIONS has been helpless in the whole Vietnam controversy. This is not because of any defect in the charter or the machinery of the organization. It is due entirely to the power wielded by the Soviet government, which has blocked all efforts to deal fairly and objectively with the Vietnam problem. Once the Moscow regime, however, agrees to a settlement of the Vietnam war, an international force derived from the United Nations could certainly watch over the situation in Vietnam and maintain peace.

Holmes Alexander

A Professional At The U.N.

WASHINGTON — Charlie Yost, the new U.N. ambassador, was my college classmate and chum. Mr. Nixon couldn't have made a better appointment.

Yes, I know Charlie was the U.N. assistant and sidekick of Adlai Stevenson, another Princeton man, but the differences and not the associations of Yost and Stevenson are what speak up for Charlie.

Come right down to it, Stevenson was a poet. He saw the world as he aspired to make it, and not as it ever was. Stevenson could almost never speak in utilitarian prose.

CHARLIE YOST had real talent as a writer. We were together in Professor Murch's class in Creative English. There were about a dozen of us aspiring geniuses, and Charlie was a standout. Toward the end of our course, Professor Murch selected the best writings of his best students, and invited the editor of Scribner's Magazine, Alfred (Fritz) Dashiell down to Holder Hall to hear us read our masterpieces. Dashiell said he'd heard one story that was fit to buy. He bought and published Charlie Yost's.

IN THE YEARS that followed college, Charlie, despite that auspicious start, went into what we then called diplomacy. He had many Foreign Service posts around the world. Sometimes on his return to Washington, we would get together for a meal. We would talk about the dreadful itch to Scribble which had cursed me but somehow spared him.

I did not at first understand how Charlie could walk away from a dream castle to which he apparently held the key. Later, I did understand, or now I think I do, from my own experience. In the first decade or so after college, nothing would satisfy me except creative writing.

THEN CAME World War II, and after I came back, I could hardly hit the ground with my hat when it came to doing fiction. I became a fulltime journalist, an occasional bookwriter, and to my surprise — I liked the new output much better. World War II was so real that the fiction I did once seemed unreal. Willy-nilly, I began to live with facts.

MY DIAGNOSIS of Charlie Yost is that he discovered the world of reality long before I did. He matured sooner. In fact, he was never immature even as an undergraduate. He went out and served in faraway lands, and it was like taking a trip up into the sky where the weather is made. He went where he saw that storms which gathered in pre-Hitler Europe, and in pre-Communist China, were very soon going to burst upon the United States. This is very exciting knowledge to have. The excitement is all the more captivating if you are, as Charlie was, in a position to be at times a climate-maker, and always a climate-predictor.

THUS HE BECAME a full-time diplomat. He was always prosey, and factual, and nose-to-the-grindstone about it.

Now Charlie Yost reaches the peak of his career. We have had a mix of lame-duck politicians, amateur poets and White House pensioners as our Ambassadors at the United Nations. For the first time, thanks to Richard Nixon, we have a professional friend in Charlie Yost. (Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

Welfare, Wages On Texas Agenda

By LEE JONES Associated Press Writer AUSTIN (AP) — Three old issues that would benefit Texas' least-fortunate citizens are back on the agenda for the 1969 legislature.

1969 that would raise women's compensation from $35 to $49 a week.

There may be a more sympathetic reaction to two of the issues than in the past, according to responses to an Associated Press mail survey on prospects for the session starting Jan. 14.

Perhaps this accounts for the heavy endorsement of improved workmen's compensation in the survey.

Welfare, Wages On Texas Agenda

More than half of the lawmakers expressing definite views said they favor a state minimum wage, larger workmen's compensation benefits for injured employes and a higher public welfare ceiling.

SPORTS NEWS OF 1968 IN PICTURE REVIEW

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

GOING OUT A CHAMP — Coach Vince Lombardi is carried off the Orange Bowl field after his Green Bay Packers beat Oakland in the Super Bowl in January. Victory capped Lombardi's career as Packer head coach. He gave up the post later in the month.

PROUD FIGHTER — George Foreman, moments after he won Olympic heavyweight boxing title, paraded with a small American flag around the Mexico City ring.

A TURNING POINT — Detroit catcher Bill Freehan tagged out Lou Brock as the Cardinal tried to score in fifth game of World Series in October. The Tigers, down three games to one, won the close game and went on to take the Series in seven games.

VICTORY RUN — Lee Trevino exulted as he sank a birdie during final round of U.S. Open at Rochester, N.Y., in June. He took title with four sub-par rounds.

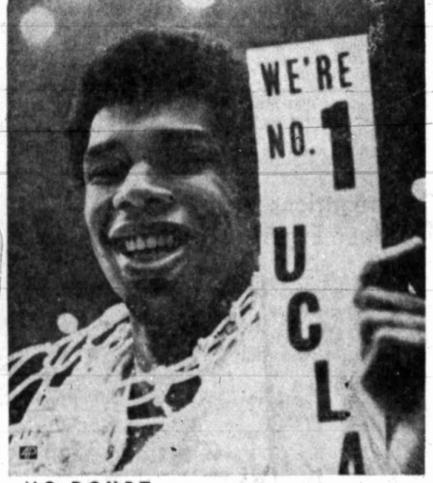

REPEATER — Al Oerter, 32-year-old New Yorker, was the surprise winner of the discus event at the Olympics in Mexico City. He won the crown in three previous Olympics.

COURT KING — It was a great moment for Lt. Arthur Ashe Jr. as he held trophy after winning the first U.S. Open tennis title at Forest Hills, N.Y., in September.

THE HORSE — Dr. Fager, four-year-old colt owned by William L. McKnight, was named Horse of the Year, Best Handicap Horse, Best Sprinter and Best Grass Horse in 1968.

NO DOUBT — Giant Lew Alcindor, basket netting around his neck, held up marker after leading UCLA to NCAA basketball crown at Los Angeles in March.

STANDOUTS — Detroit's Denny McLain and Bob Gibson of the Cards dominated baseball honors by winning the Cy Young and MVP awards in their respective leagues.

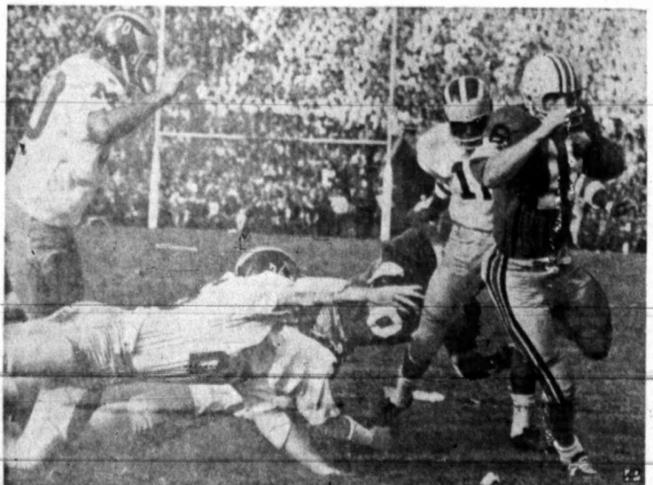

ICE QUEEN — Peggy Fleming, only American gold medalist in the Winter Olympics, wore her award after winning the figure skating event at Grenoble, France, in February.

PROTEST AT GAMES — U.S. runners Tommy Smith, center, and John Carlos extend black-gloved hands during playing of The Star-Spangled Banner at Olympic Games. They won first and third places in 200-meter run. At left is Australian Peter Norman.

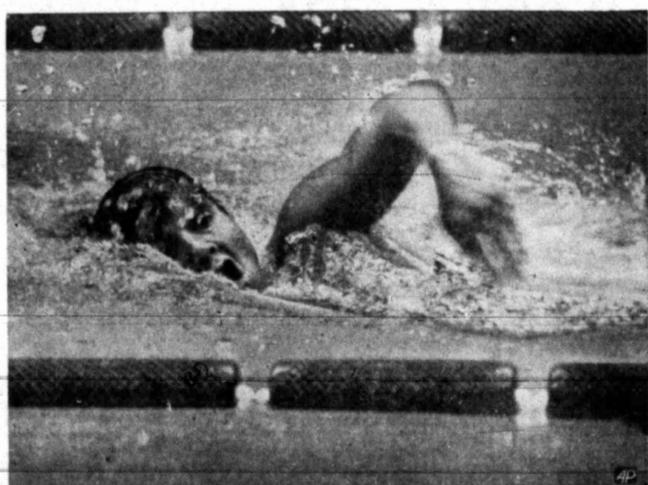

FIRST AT FINISH — Dancer's Image, Bob Ussery up, moved across finish line the apparent winner of the Kentucky Derby. The horse later was disqualified.

A MOVE TO THE TOP — Ohio State's Larry Zelina scored against Michigan as his team went on to win in November. Victory brought the Big Ten title, capped an undefeated record and Ohio State was voted top college team in nation at season's end.

PREMIER PLAYER — USC halfback D. J. Simpson posed with Heisman Memorial trophy awarded to him as the outstanding college football player in the country.

THE GOLDEN STROKE — Young Debbie Meyer of Sacramento, Calif., neared the finish line to win women's 800-meter freestyle swim crown in Olympic Games in October. It was her third individual victory, having taken the 200-meter and 400-meter events.

Beamon Says He May Jump 30-31 Feet

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—What do you do if you're a track athlete who has advanced his event to the year 2,001? If you're Bob Beamon, you try for about 2,069.

When Beamon long jumped 29 feet, 2 1/2 inches at the Olympic Games in Mexico City in October, he broke the world record by nearly two feet, a performance considered the greatest in the history of track and field by those who measure such things.

At the time, it was said that the lithe, 22-year-old athlete had set the event ahead by a generation, that probably no one would jump that far again for years, but Beamon disagrees.

"I think I can do it again," he said Thursday as he arrived here for the Examiner All-American Games indoor track and field meet Saturday.

"I thought I could be better. I would like to go about 30 or 31 feet."

Right now, though, he is more interested in pushing his world indoor record of 27-2 1/2 beyond the 28-foot limit.

Beamon said he has not done any training for the long jump since the Olympics, but has played some basketball and may join the Texas-El Paso team for a few games when he enrolls there again later this month.

Beamon said he felt bad about not being nominated for the Sullivan Award, which is annually given by the Amateur Athletic Union to the top amateur athlete of the year.

Committees of the AAU nominate three athletes from various sections of the country and newsmen vote on the final winner on the basis of performance and sportsmanship.

Surprise was expressed in some quarters when Beamon, world and Olympic champion Lee Evans and Tommie Smith and football star O. J. Simpson were not nominated.

In New York, Olan Cassell, the AAU's director of track and field, said a mistake had been made and that Beamon "definitely was nominated for 1968. I don't know where he got the idea he hadn't been nominated. I don't think the ballots have even gone out yet. But if his name isn't on them, it's a printer's error."

However, several sports writers across the country reported receiving ballots and accompanying biographical notes on the nominees Thursday. Beamon's name did not appear on either.

Forsan, Stanton Win In Tourney

BIG LAKE — Forsan advanced to the second round of the Reagan County Basketball tournament here Thursday by defeating Pecos, 46-44.

The Buffaloes, now 10-4 on the year, return to competition at 5:30 o'clock this evening against Crane, which waltzed by Coahoma, 77-51.

Another first round winner was Phil Stovall's Stanton team, which belted Winters, 83-55.

In other games, Mertzton edged Kermit, 55-44; Brady trounced Sonora, 86-44; Ozona smacked Sanderson, 77-57; Reagan County dictioned

Alpine, 74-39; and San Angelo Lake View trashed Rankin, 56-55.

Terry Wooten led Forsan to victory, scoring 16 points. Clayton McKinnon chipped in 11 points for the winners while David Bradley led Pecos with 11.

Tommy Jones paced Crane to its win over Coahoma, roping 44 points. Billy King had 27 for Coahoma.

Roger McAlister had a big hand in Stanton's victory, tabbing 19 points. Fred Wilden counted 16 for Winters.

Stanton returns to play against Brady at 3:30 p.m. today. Coahoma accepted a forfeit from Pecos in consolation play.

In other second round championship games, Ozona meets Mertzton at 7 p.m., and Lake View tackles Reagan County at 8:30 p.m.

6-3-3 Defense Worked Well For Kansas

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP) — An assistant football coach for Kansas was quoted today as saying he believes the Jayhawks had 12 men on the field for three plays in addition to the one that cost them a 15-14 Orange Bowl defeat by Penn State.

Dave McLain, linebacking coach, was quoted by sports writer Charlie Smith in today's edition of the Topeka Daily Capital. McLain said he reached his conclusion after watching a video tape replay of the game.

"It's no wonder we were able to stop them for two plays," McLain said. "That 6-3-3 defense is pretty tough to run against."

Kansas appeared to have the game won, 14-13, when a two-point conversion attempt by Penn State failed. But Kansas was penalized for having 12 men on the field. Penn State tried again with 15 seconds left. Halfback Bob Campbell of the Nittany Lions slashed into the end zone for two points and the victory.

McLain said this is what happened before the conversion: Tackles Jim Bailey and Orville Turgeon were sent into the game for Kansas following a 47-yard pass to the three-yard line that set up the touchdown. They were supposed to replace safety Tommy Anderson and linebackers Rick Abernathy and Anderson left the field. Abernathy did not.

Penn State ran two plays. Then quarterback Chuck Burkhardt skirted over for the touchdown. Counting the touchdown play and the unsuccessful conversion attempt, that made four plays.

The penalty moved the ball from the three to the one and a half yard line. Then Abernathy left the game.

McLain said, "When you go into the game, you're liable to yell 'Abernathy out' from 10 yards away and maybe he didn't hear." Abernathy said later:

"We were in a defense which calls for three linebackers. I counted three going to bed and I was going to stay. Nobody tapped me to come out. How can you live something like this down? You feel embarrassed. You feel responsible. You don't care what the people in the stands think. You care about what the players think. That's the hardest thing."

DEFEAT McLELLAN Hawks To Resume League Action

Although missing that fine edge they had prior to the holidays, Howard County Junior College's Jayhawks were too much for McLennan Community College in a basketball exhibition here Thursday night. The locals' margin of victory was 113-80.

The score was the highest the Hawks have run up this season and marked the seventh time in 15 starts they've bettered the 100-point mark.

Both teams were plagued with fouls although play was not unusually rough. In all, the players were whistled down 66 times, with the visiting Highlanders from Waco drawing 34 of the infractions.

Mickey Wilson and John Billizon of the locals and Simpson DeGrate, Pat Lanene and Billy Rhea of the guests were banished to the penalty box.

The win left Howard County with a 13-2 won-loss record while McLennan is currently 12-10.

The Hawks needed the warmup, since they resume Western Conference play Saturday night in Amarillo against the always-rugged Badgers. Within the league, the Hawks are 3-0.

McLennan moves to Odessa tonight for a joust with Odessa College.

Robert Jackson had one of his better nights for the Hawks, losing in 23 points. Wilson contributed 19 before he bowed out with 9-49 to go in the game. Four other Hawks — Jerry Phillips, George Tilley, Sammy James and Billizon — hit in double figures.

Keith Curlee, a sophomore from Fort Worth Paschal, led the Scotties with 26 points, although he hit only five buckets. Billy Rhea, a sophomore from Tyler, chimed in with 20.

H.C.J.C. trailed once early in the game, at 15-14, when Lanene connected on a free shot. After ten minutes of play, the locals had built a 32-20 advantage. The visitors had knocked two points off the Hawks' edge at half time, at which time the count was 50-40.

With ten minutes to go in the game, it was 79-57, H.C.J.C. and the Hawks were beginning to open up.

HC hit 18 of 42 shots from the floor the first half for 43 per cent and 21 of 46 after the intermission for 46 per cent.

Jackson came down with 15 rebounds while James and Glen Fletcher each had ten.

Fletcher fouled three times in the first 3-10 of the game but never picked up another one.

Coahoma Rips Foe, 39-9

JAYTON — Coahoma walloped Roaring Springs, 39-9, in the first round of the girls' division of the Jayton Basketball tournament here Thursday.

The Bulldogs return to play against the survivor in the Jayton-Matador contest at 8:45 p.m. today. Coahoma is now 6-5 on the year.

Sandra Gross counted 22 points to lead Coahoma. Roaring Springs scored seven points in the opening period and then didn't count again until the fourth.

Cowboys Plan Pro-Playoff Play

Tom Landry Uncertain How Pokes Will Play

MIAMI (AP) — Dallas Coach Tom Landry isn't sure what to expect from his Cowboys Sunday when they meet the Minnesota Vikings in the annual runner-up playoff of the National Football League.

Landry is just as curious as many people to see how his players react after their crushing defeat by Cleveland in the Eastern Conference championship game two weeks ago. The favored Cowboys bowed out of the championship picture 31-20.

"I'm not really sure how we'll react," said the only head coach Dallas has had since it came into the NFL in 1960. "If we were starting a new season our comeback would be better. But this second place game, I don't know what will be."

CONCENTRATION MUST

The 44-year-old Landry observed that to play a real top game you have to have intense concentration. "We're enjoying ourselves here in Florida. We don't have that 24-hour concentration on what we're doing."

Landry said he had no doubts that his fine team would recover from the bruised ego suffered in the Cleveland game. "We'll recover in time. You have to recover in this business. It's really hard to say how the players feel. They seem in good spirits, which probably is a good sign they'll play well."

The Vikings, winners of the Central Division, also are playing and working Coach Bud Grant, however, expressed confidence his team would play well Sunday. They played well in losing the western title to Baltimore 24-14.

"I know we're not going to be flat," said Grant. "There is far too much pride among the players to let themselves get down. They're too smart to let that happen."

Grant also pointed out that unlike Dallas, his team was new to post-season competition. "The Vikings have not been involved in post-season play. It's a new experience for us. A lot of our players have put in eight years or more to get this far. I would be surprised if we didn't play well."

VIKINGS WELL

Both teams report they are in good health. The Vikings have nobody on the injured list. Dallas has middle linebacker Dave Simmons with a sore knee, while defensive tackle Jethro Pugh is recovering from an injury which hampered him in the Cleveland game. Both are expected to play.

Despite the Cowboys' record of reaching the NFL final two years in a row and winning their division this season, Landry feels his team is still maturing. He says a lot of teams go through this phase, naming this year's Baltimore Colts as one. "We'll reach the pinnacle if we continue to improve."

Landry indicated he was puzzled by the Cowboys' flop in Cleveland. "We were favored and should have won, but we didn't," he said. "We'll have to take a close look to see if we lack something and analyze and study every aspect of our team."

The Dallas coach said that going into Cleveland, "We were an excellent team, the best we ever had. Don Meredith (quarterback) and Marty Fleckmann (linebacker) were the stars of the year. We were best in most of number of defensive departments. Yet we came to the game seemingly psychologically all wrong."

"We're going to have to learn how to play in these playoff games," said Landry, referring not only to the Cleveland debacle, but the losses to Green Bay in 1966 and 1967. "These games are completely different."

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Some people close to the scene expect Emory Bellard, the former San Angelo mentor, to become the next head coach at the University of Texas.

Darrell Royal, who currently holds that position, at 44, is a fairly young man, however, and has given no hint that he will step down.

Next year's District 2-AAAA football race likely will be between Odessa Permian and Abilene Cooper again.

Permian returns 17 players off a 41-man squad. Cooper has 23 back from a squad of 37.

San Angelo is apt to be salty again in 1970, unless the boundary lines for the two schools down there are redrawn.

Bill Grabarkewitz, a Texan playing in the Los Angeles Dodgers' baseball chain, said it after having suffered a broken nose, broken finger, broken wrist and broken ankle while playing for Albuquerque in the Texas League.

"I've been X-rayed so much that I glow in the dark."

Leading scorer for the North Texas State University basketball team this season is none other than Joe Hamilton, named the Most Valuable Player in the Region V tournament held here last year.

Little Joe is averaging close to 20 points a game.

A number of the junior college boys who will be playing here during the upcoming Region V meet will be decorating senior college rosters in a year or two.

More and more, the senior college coaches are going to the jocos for their talent.

I think those figures released on the total 1968 pari-mutuel handle in New Mexico are wrong.

If I'm not mistaken, Ruidoso Downs had a betting take exceeding $12 million and New Mexico has four tracks.

C. E. King, who coached Hayden Fry, the SMU football mentor, in high school at Odessa, said recently of the Mustang chieftan:

"He wasn't the best quarterback I ever coached, but he learned quicker than anyone."

It would not shock everyone around the state if the Class AAAA basketball champion came out of Houston again this season.

Officiating in the recent Caprock Holiday Basketball tournament was roundly criticized by coaches of teams not based in Lubbock.

Judged off their play in the Lubbock meet, Dimmitt will emerge as the best Class AA team in its area and again qualify for the State tournament. The team played reserves more than half the time in some of its tournament starts.

Kirby Pugh, who is experiencing his problems as coach of the Big Spring Steers, what with a rash of illnesses and a host of green talent, took off for Hobbs, N.M., to watch Odessa High after returning the Steers here from Lubbock.

Pugh will have Bruce Hutto (who missed the Lubbock tournament due to illness), Gary Hinds and Robert Evans around whom to build his 1969-70 team plus products from a JV unit that to date has done very well against 3-AAAA competition.

Among members of that JV club is Ben Johnson, now a sophomore, who could be 6-7 or taller by the time next season rolls around.

Most basketball coaches are a breed apart.

After visiting Utah State recently, Seattle mentor Morris Buckwalter concluded:

"They have a strong team, with four seniors and two referees."

PRO B'SKETBALL

Reeling from the hammerings absorbed in nine straight defeats, the Big Spring Steers return to competition tonight against the pre-season favorite in District 3-AAAA — Odessa High.

The contest gets under way in Odessa at 8 o'clock. Junior varsity teams of the two schools tangle at 6:15 p.m.

The Longhorns have dropped three straight 3-AAAA games — to Midland Lee, Odessa Ector and Abilene Cooper. They've won only four games this season and three of those came at the expense of Lubbock High.

Coach Kirby Pugh's injury situation is better than it has been in recent weeks, however, with both Snake Tucker and James Brown ready to navigate. The Steers could make it interesting for the Bronchos.

John Wilson, 6-8, and Craig Heap lead the Odessans into battle.

Odessa took Hobbs, N.M., in the finals of the Hobbs tournament last weekend, 88-84. Hobbs is beaten about as often at home as is UCLA. Wilson

DALLAS, Tex., (AP) — The Texas Professional Athlete of the Year is world welterweight champion Curtis Cokes of Dallas, who thrashed seven opponents last year—two in defense of his title.

The Texas Sports Writers Association voted the 30-year-old Cokes the honor by a slim margin over feisty Lee Trevino of El Paso who won the U. S. Open title last summer in one of golf's most popular victories.

George Sauer Jr., star passer of the New York Jets, participated twice a week he helps with the Dallas County boys boxing team and the Boys Club of America.

He makes numerous talks on citizenship and Christian athletics to numerous schools.

Cokes feels he has the answer to some of the racial problems in the United States. "When you have kids playing, they don't get into trouble," Cokes said. "That's why I do what I do with the kids — keep them busy and their minds occupied."

Steers Return To Play In Odessa At 8 P.M.

Reeling from the hammerings absorbed in nine straight defeats, the Big Spring Steers return to competition tonight against the pre-season favorite in District 3-AAAA — Odessa High.

The contest gets under way in Odessa at 8 o'clock. Junior varsity teams of the two schools tangle at 6:15 p.m.

The Longhorns have dropped three straight 3-AAAA games — to Midland Lee, Odessa Ector and Abilene Cooper. They've won only four games this season and three of those came at the expense of Lubbock High.

Coach Kirby Pugh's injury situation is better than it has been in recent weeks, however, with both Snake Tucker and James Brown ready to navigate. The Steers could make it interesting for the Bronchos.

John Wilson, 6-8, and Craig Heap lead the Odessans into battle.

Odessa took Hobbs, N.M., in the finals of the Hobbs tournament last weekend, 88-84. Hobbs is beaten about as often at home as is UCLA. Wilson

Coahoma Nudges Goliad, 45-42

Coahoma defeated Goliad's eighth graders, 45-42, here Thursday night, rallying in the final quarter to turn the trick.

The defeat was the Mavericks' seventh in eight assignments. Goliad returns to play tonight in Andrews.

Alan Davis played his best game for Goliad, tossing in 20 points.

Curt Cokes Named Athlete Of Year

DALLAS, Tex., (AP) — The Texas Professional Athlete of the Year is world welterweight champion Curtis Cokes of Dallas, who thrashed seven opponents last year—two in defense of his title.

The Texas Sports Writers Association voted the 30-year-old Cokes the honor by a slim margin over feisty Lee Trevino of El Paso who won the U. S. Open title last summer in one of golf's most popular victories.

George Sauer Jr., star passer of the New York Jets, participated twice a week he helps with the Dallas County boys boxing team and the Boys Club of America.

He makes numerous talks on citizenship and Christian athletics to numerous schools.

Cokes feels he has the answer to some of the racial problems in the United States. "When you have kids playing, they don't get into trouble," Cokes said. "That's why I do what I do with the kids — keep them busy and their minds occupied."

Sands Attains Meet Finals

STERLING CITY — Forced to play two games within a space of about six hours, the Sands Mustangs came through with flying colors here Thursday.

The Mustangs first knocked off Water Valley, 67-39, and then flogged the host team, 44-34.

The double win put the Mustangs in the Saturday night finals. The title game starts at 8:30 p.m.

First round play will be completed today, with the Big Spring Sophomores opposing Comstock in one of the games.

The wins were the tenth and 11th for Sands, compared to two defeats.

Lance Hopper and Kynn Maxwell shared scoring honors in the first game for Sands, each with 12 points. In the second game, Hopper tossed in 14 and Maxwell ten.

Robert Lee will oppose the survivor of the Big Spring Sophomores contest for the right to play in the finals.

SANDS (47) — Hopper 5-12; Maxwell 5-12; Taylor 4-8; Lewis 3-6; Pugh 4-8; Kember 2-4; Fryar 1-3; Hearn 4-8; Newcomer 0-2; Gotkins 1-0-2; Hertz 1-0-2; Talps 3-6-7.

WATER VALLEY (39) — Counts 1-2; Rowling 5-10; Hall 3-6; Neeley 1-3-7; Kirkpatrick 1-1-3; Skelton 0-1-1; Totals 17-39.

Sands 22-38; 37-34.

Andrews Wins In 2 Starts

Andrews ninth grade B team hung on to defeat a vastly improved Runnels eighth grade club, 49-41, here Thursday night.

In the ninth grade contest, Andrews defeated the Big Spring Toros, 74-46.

Jay Tee Smith banged in 16 points to lead the Yearlings in the eighth grade contest.

The Runnels team hit eight of 23 shots the first half for 35 per cent and 10 of 22 after the intermission for 45 per cent.

Andrews hit seven of 16 the first two quarters for 44 per cent and ten of 23 the last half for 44 per cent.

The loss was the eighth in nine assignments for the Yearlings, who return to competition here Monday night against Snyder Lamar.

BUNNELS (41) — Foster 3-13; Potts 2-4; Shanks 1-0-2; Green 2-0-4; Smith 7-14; Conroy 0-0-0; Chavez 3-8; Murrain 0-2-2; Robles 1-0-2; Totals 17-41.

SPORTS NEWS OF 1968 IN PICTURE REVIEW

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

GOING OUT A CHAMP — Coach Vince Lombardi is carried off the Orange Bowl field after his Green Bay Packers beat Oakland in the Super Bowl in January. Victory capped Lombardi's career as Packer head coach. He gave up the post later in the month.

PROUD FIGHTER — George Foreman, moments after he won Olympic heavyweight boxing title, paraded with a small American flag around the Mexico City ring.

A TURNING POINT — Detroit catcher Bill Freehan tagged out Lou Brock as the Cardinal tried to score in fifth game of World Series in October. The Tigers, down three games to one, won the close game and went on to take the Series in seven games.

VICTORY RUN — Lee Trevino exulted as he sank a birdie during final round of U.S. Open at Rochester, N.Y., in June. He took title with four sub-par rounds.

REPEATER — Al Oerter, 32-year-old New Yorker, was the surprise winner of the discus event at the Olympics in Mexico City. He won the crown in three previous Olympics.

COURT KING — It was a great moment for Lt. Arthur Ashe Jr. as he held trophy after winning the first U.S. Open tennis title at Forest Hills, N.Y., in September.

THE HORSE — Dr. Fager, four-year-old colt owned by William L. McKnight, was named Horse of the Year, Best Handicap Horse, Best Sprinter and Best Grass Horse in 1968.

NO DOUBT — Giant Lew Alcindor, basket netting around his neck, held up marker after leading UCLA to NCAA basketball crown at Los Angeles in March.

STANDOUTS — Detroit's Denny McLain and Bob Gibson of the Cards dominated baseball honors by winning the Cy Young and MVP awards in their respective leagues.

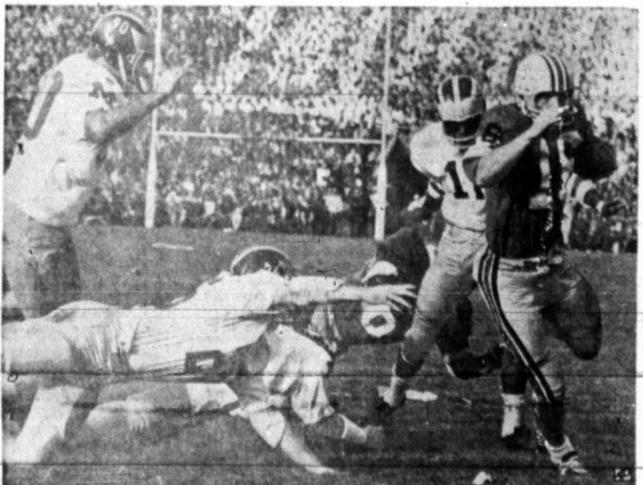

ICE QUEEN — Peggy Fleming, only American gold medalist in the Winter Olympics, wore her award after winning the figure skating event at Grenoble, France, in February.

PROTEST AT GAMES — U.S. runners Tommie Smith, center, and John Carlos extend black-gloved hands during playing of The Star-Spangled Banner at Olympic Games. They won first and third places in 200-meter run. At left is Australian Peter Norman.

FIRST AT FINISH — Dancer's Image, Bob Ussery up, moved across finish line the apparent winner of the Kentucky Derby. The horse later was disqualified.

A MOVE TO THE TOP — Ohio State's Larry Zelina scored against Michigan as his team went on to win in November. Victory brought the Big Ten title, capped an undefeated record and Ohio State was voted top college team in nation at season's end.

PREMIER PLAYER — USC halfback O. J. Simpson posed with Heisman Memorial trophy awarded to him as the outstanding college football player in the country.

THE GOLDEN STROKE — Young Debbie Meyer of Sacramento, Calif., neared the finish line to win women's 800-meter freestyle swim crown in Olympic Games in October. It was her third individual victory, having taken the 200-meter and 400-meter events.

'Healthy' Nixon Preparing To Fill Top Jobs On Roster

LOS ANGELES (AP) — President-elect Nixon, judged in "full good health to assume the challenges" of office, is preparing to fill out the top level roster of his new administration. Nixon plans to announce Saturday the selection of Elliot L. Richardson, attorney general of Massachusetts, to be undersecretary of state, the No. 2 position, and U. Alexis Johnson, now U.S. ambassador to Japan, to be named undersecretary for political affairs, Washington sources reported.

'Most Practical'

Mrs. Marilyn Connelly, 25-year-old housewife, models her 12th-century dress at her home in San Gabriel, Calif., yesterday. Mrs. Connelly, who decided to give up the miniskirt, calls this garb "the most practical thing women ever wore." She hopes it won't interfere with her job as a half-day teacher at St. Luke's Catholic elementary school.

Castro, Kremlin Cut Differences

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro's speech Thursday marking the 10th anniversary of his revolution indicated he and the leaders of the Soviet Union have decided to ignore some of their major differences.

Speaking at a rally in Havana attended by an estimated million Cubans, the Cuban prime minister praised Cuba's ties with the "Socialist camp and especially its solidarity with the Soviet Union."

Relations between Castro and the Kremlin had ranged from cool to heated in recent years because the Cuban leader kept on proclaiming his determination to export revolution to overthrow various Latin American governments with which the Soviet Union was trying to improve economic relations.

Relations between Castro and Moscow reached their lowest point since the 1962 missile crisis when more than 40 Soviet-line Cuban Communists were purged last February. At the time, the Castro government accused the Soviet embassy of working against it.

The improvement of relations apparently began with a speech Castro made in August supporting the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia. Castro for some months also has hardly mentioned encouragement of guerrilla warfare and his regime seems to have turned inward to concentrate on its economic difficulties.

FOOD PROBLEMS
This is a course the Soviets, Cuba's biggest financial supporter, have been urging for some time although there still is disagreement over downgrading of material incentives for Cuban workers and the failure of Cuban planners to solve the island's food problems.

Students of the Cuban revolution consider it unlikely that Castro ever will abandon his pro-guerrilla policy for peaceful revolution advocated by the Soviets. For example, banners saluting Che Guevara, Cuba's slain revolutionary idol and his slogans urging the creation of more Vietnamese were prominent around the platform from which Richardson, attorney general of Massachusetts, to be undersecretary of state, the No. 2 position, and U. Alexis Johnson, now U.S. ambassador to Japan, to be named undersecretary for political affairs, Washington sources reported.

PRUNE PICKERS
These appointments, to be announced formally by the President-elect and Secretary of State-designate William P. Rogers, lead off a series of sub-Cabinet selections to be made before the Jan. 20 inauguration.

Soon to follow: Nominations to top jobs in the Agriculture Department and the Pentagon. Nixon aides would not confirm the State Department choices. But Nixon seemed to do so obliquely in a bantering exchange with Robert H. Finch, who is to be secretary of health, education and welfare. He said Finch had tried to enlist Richardson as a top deputy for his department, but isn't going to get him.

The President-elect also said there will be six, perhaps as many as 10 Californians in the ranks of assistants and undersecretaries yet to be named. "The reason is a conscious effort is being made in the administration to provide geographic balance," he said at a Thursday luncheon honoring Finch, lieutenant governor of California.

TOP TALENT
"There is a tendency in Washington for executive and administrative officials to be selected too much from the New York, New England and Washington, D.C., part of the country," he said. "We have tended to look to the Midwest and the far West."

That way, he said, the new administration can seek out the top talent in all sections of the nation. Nixon underwent a 90-minute physical examination at the Long Beach office of Dr. John C. Lungren, his personal physician. Lungren pronounced his health excellent for the tasks ahead.

He said all aspects of the examination showed Nixon to be within normal limits. That included X-rays, an electrocardiogram, laboratory studies, pulse rate and a blood pressure check.

Quite Attached To Auto Wheel
CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Jerry Kennedy of Cincinnati became quite attached to a new steering wheel on her boyfriend's car Wednesday night. As the 18-year-old girl drove the auto into a restaurant parking lot, her finger became lodged in a porthole of the steering wheel brace.

She tried unsuccessfully for half an hour to free it. A waitress called the Life Squad which took 15 minutes to ease her finger out of the porthole by using a bar of soap.

Agrees To Perform Heart Surgery On Their Puppy
NEW YORK (AP) — The surgeon who directed a heart and kidney transplant on New Year's Eve has agreed to perform open-heart surgery on a German shepherd puppy as a gesture of gratitude to the many animals used in heart research.

Dr. C. Walton Lillehei, surgeon-in-chief at New York Hospital-Cornell Medical Center, plans to make X-ray studies today of Allan and Kevin Fogel, 8-year-old twins of Brooklyn. On Tuesday, Dr. Lillehei directed a 60-man team in transplanting the heart and kidneys of a 48-year-old psychoanalyst to three recipients.

Dr. Lillehei, a former teacher of Dr. Christian Barnard who performed the first human heart transplant, volunteered to perform the open-heart operation "on behalf of the many dogs who have served to benefit mankind in helping develop these techniques."

"Dogs have been the backbone of open-heart surgery," he added, explaining that their hearts are "almost identical" to the human heart.

Dr. Lillehei read about the dog's plight in a letter to the Daily News from Kai's owners. In the letter, the young boys said their veterinarian had told them that Kai must be put to sleep because he had a congenital heart defect which can only be cured by surgery.

Kai was examined by Dr. Lillehei and admitted to the hospital's kennel for experimental animals Thursday afternoon. Dr. Lillehei said he and his colleagues suspect that the veterinarian's diagnosis is correct and one of the valves in the pup's heart will have to be replaced.

If the tests confirm this diagnosis, he said, the operation may be performed some time next week.

Bombs Plaster Key Targets In Vietnam

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. Command today reported the heaviest B52 strikes in South Vietnam in three weeks, with almost 1,000 tons of bombs dropped northwest of Saigon and nearly 500 tons on the matted U Minh Forest deep in the Mekong Delta.

Ground action remained light throughout the nation, although allied sweeps continued from the southern delta to an area southwest of Da Nang where American Marines and South Vietnamese troops were grinding away at Viet Cong and North Vietnamese forces.

ENEMY MOVE

Signs of fresh enemy movement also were reported from two more old battle areas—the A Shau Valley west of Hue and the demilitarized zone between North and South Vietnam.

Fliers from the carriers Coral Sea and Constellation hit the A Shau Valley with 31 sorties Thursday, the heaviest concentration of Naval air strength reported in one day since the bombing of North Vietnam was halted on Nov. 1.

U.S. headquarters reported also that enemy activity in the DMZ had increased sharply in the Christmas-New Year period, with more than 500 "indications of enemy activity" in the 12 days since Dec. 22.

ROAD MINING

Marine headquarters in Da Nang released an interim report on the massive cordon operation known as Taylor Common about 25 miles southwest of Da Nang. It said in the past month the Marines and South Vietnamese have killed 934 enemy troops.

The report said American and South Vietnamese losses have been light.

The road mining occurred about 20 miles to the south at a point where Vietnamese workers assemble for army transportation to their work. The mine exploded beneath an Army three-quarter-ton truck, killing 11 of the South Vietnamese crowded around. Another 16 were wounded, along with the two Americans in the truck.

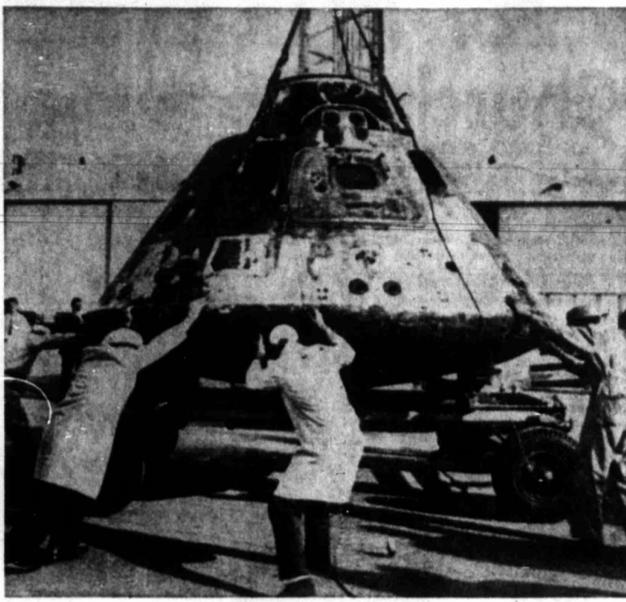

U.S. headquarters reported three more big arms caches were turned up by allied sweeps today, adding to the mountain of war stores seized in recent months. American officers say that in 1968 U.S. and South Vietnamese forces captured enough weapons to equip more than six enemy infantry divisions. The Americans claim that this has been one of the chief reasons why enemy offensive operations have been curtailed.

BOOTY

Much of the booty has been taken in areas that previously had been touched only lightly by allied operations. Two of the supply dumps found today were in such areas—one in the U Minh Forest and the other a few miles from the Cambodian border northwest of Saigon.

The supplies seized included such items as 767 homemade grenades, 2,700 pounds of rice, cases of small arms and machine-gun ammunition and 4,000 yards of electric wire for field communications and for detonating mines.

Fresh Surge Of Frigid Weather Ends Sampling

By The Associated Press

A new wave of arctic cold spilled into the plains and Midwest today and ended a brief sampling of near-normal winter-temperature temperatures.

Snow, freezing rain and sleet broke out ahead of the fresh surge of frigid weather. Travelers warnings were issued for the central plains where snow or blowing snow reduced visibility.

Temperatures bounded into the 20s and 30s across much of the plains and Midwest Thursday following three days of subzero cold. But the new chill was expected to drop the mercury into minus territory over much of the region by Saturday morning.

Watchdog Gone

A mixture of freezing rain and sleet spread across Missouri to Kentucky and Tennessee to make travel hazardous in portions of those states. Cold rain spreading northward from the Gulf Coast brought warnings of possible icing in northern Georgia and Alabama.

—Smith W. Howard of Albuquerque reported to police Wednesday that thieves found a way to foil his watchdog. They stole it along with a telephone and parts of outdoor Christmas decorations.

Texas Pilot Helps Rip Enemy Fortifications

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. Air Force A4 Phantom pilots thought they were just going in to prepare a landing zone Thursday, but they hit an enemy base camp and destroyed or damaged 30 bunkers and nine sampans, the Air Force reported.

Fliers taking part included Maj. Glenn W. Deavers, 36, of Gatesville, Tex., and Capt. Lawrence A. Lynn, Jr., 27, of Colorado Springs, Colo.

"We thought all we would be hitting was trees, since our job was to prepare a landing zone," Deavers reported. "But the forward air controller informed us that we had to hit enemy fortifications on either side of a canal with sampans along the bank. He told us that friendly ground troops were moving in and that he was certain of enemy presence in the fortifications."

"Lynn really did outstanding bombing," Deavers added. The FAC asked if we could put one bomb right in the middle of the canal, and Lynn took the challenge and laid one dead center. The FAC was really pleased."

Frozen North Nets 'Hot' Yarns

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — It's so cold they had to chop the cat out of the ice, the car radio goes "knock, knock" and propane torches shoot liquid instead of fire.

But Alaskans know how to cope with temperatures way below zero. They just stay indoors and go out only if it's necessary.

Central Alaska is in the middle of a frigid weather front that has sent temperatures tumbling like icicles in a spring thaw. It's been like that for three days.

However, it's expected to warm up today to temperatures of 25 to 20 below. Comfortable enough to celebrate Alaska's 10th year as a state today.

SCHOOLS SHUT
Thursday evening the mercury dropped to minus 56 and the overnight forecast called for a low of -65. The all-time low is -66 recorded on Jan. 14, 1934.

Schools have shut down but it's business as usual in downtown Fairbanks. About 42 inches of snow covers the ground although no new snow has fallen in a week.

Thick ice fog has cut visibility in some downtown areas to 10 feet and has disrupted airline schedules. It's caused by warm air rising from the ground which turns to fog as it hits the frigid air.

"Even with the minimal sunlight we get here. It's enough to warm the ground a bit and that causes the warm air to rise," Shane O'Neill, a Fairbanks resident, said Thursday.

COLD CAT
The Weather Bureau said the average temperature for December was -17.7 or 10 degrees colder than normal. The highest temperature for the month was 36 degrees on Dec. 19. New Year's Day it was 60 below—four degrees below the record for the day set in 1965. It warmed up Thursday to -59 — another record for the date.

O'Neill said firemen had to free a cat after its paws became stuck in ground ice.

"Apparently it licked its paws because they were so cold and when it set them down they froze to the ground," he said.

And, in the icy conditions propane gas turns to liquid. "One fellow was using a propane torch outside to try and thaw an oil line to his house. The flame stopped and liquid started shooting out," O'Neill said.

The cold also flattens car tires by decreasing the air pressure inside. "It's like riding on square tires until they loosen up," said O'Neill. Motorists are advised to increase the air pressure.

VERY PAINFUL
Even cars with special heaters that plug into outside outlets won't work.

"Unless they're inside a warm garage they won't start. I turned on my car radio today and it went knock, knock. It sounded like a hammer pounding on the thing. Later it warmed up and worked all right."

Homeowners must constantly check fuel and water pipes. And precautions must be taken to guard against frostbitten ears. "It's very painful when they thaw out. They turn white, then after eight or 12 hours they're red and if you're lucky the outer skin won't peel off," O'Neill said.

Texas Cold Wave Warnings Issued

By The Associated Press
Smatterings of snow and light, freezing drizzle at Dalhart shortly before dawn became the forerunner of cold weather sweeping through Texas today.

The new cold front, pushing into relatively warm, moisture-laden southern air, had raced by dawn to a line from Paris, Fort Worth and San Angelo.

The snow was so light at Dalhart that it did not accumulate even in the 21-degree weather. Temperatures were in the 20s at 6 a.m. at Amarillo, Childress, Dalhart, El Paso, Lubbock and Wink.

Cold wave warnings were issued for the northern half of Texas.

Temperatures were expected to drop as low as two and three degrees above zero in parts of Northeast Texas overnight.

Before dawn, the front was located south of a line from Lubbock to Wichita Falls. Intermittent light rain or drizzle still was being reported over Texas coastal regions and portions of East Texas.

Skies were mostly cloudy over the state with only Far West Texas reporting clear conditions.

Dauids Ready For Fight Over Modern Church Role

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Two "Dauids" have squared off in a face-to-face duel over a Goliath-size struggle which is rumbling throughout American churchdom.

Their particular encounter, in print and on the air, offers a closeup scene out of the wider story.

A SAMPLING:
"The church should adhere strictly to its spiritual mission," says the Rev. David C. Head, chairman of a specially organized group, the Clergymen's Committee on China.

evangelical, nondenominational monthly, the Christian Herald. This "means involvement in human affairs."

Counters the Rev. Mr. Head, a Baptist, of Briarcliff Manor, N.Y.: "You create havoc within the church when you encourage people to take a stand on these (controversial political-economic) issues. You divide the church, and this is what's happening today. Individual members are being pitted against one another."

Replies the Rev. Mr. Poling, Presbyterian, of Pleasantville, N.Y.: "Christianity has always faced division over moral issues. Slavery in this country divided the United States for a hundred years—divided the churches in half. Whenever the church takes a stand in social affairs, it's going to get kicked and powder burns and cuts. That's the name of the Christian game, whether in the first century or today."

The debate, commenced in written statements, developed into a confrontation between the two on a "World of Religion" discussion over the Columbia Broadcasting System radio network.

The Rev. Mr. Head contended: "Respect for the clergy has been decimated fantastically within this country. There should be more of an emphasis for zealously proclaiming the good news of how man can be liberated actually from the bondage of sin and discover true peace and happiness by faith in Christ, Jesus." The church should get "back upon the spiritual road."

Declared the Rev. Mr. Poling: "The church can't back away from social issues. The church should stick its neck out. It should talk about peace in this military society of ours and take its stand."

Replied the Rev. Mr. Head: "Unfortunately, this is exactly what the Communists talk about all the time—peace—it's their favorite word."

So it goes, an argument that could be duplicated in innumerable religious conversations across the country. It usually builds up to charges of pro-Communist influences in the churches, with counterblasts of smear and falsehood.

First Baptist Names Education Minister

Connell Taylor, Roswell, N.M., has accepted a call to become the minister of education and music at the First Baptist Church.

He plans to assume his duties somewhere around Jan. 15, and his family will join him at mid-term of school.

Taylor, an ordained minister in education and music, has been at the First Baptist Church in Roswell, N.M., for the past nine years. He is no stranger to this area, for while he was a lad, his father, Rev. W. I. Taylor, now pastor at Buffalo Gap, was the minister at Ackerly Baptist Church.

A native of Loraine, he completed his high school work at Abilene in 1938 and was graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1942. He took his master of religious education and bachelor of sacred music degrees at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1950.

Taylor became an Army Air Force cadet in 1941 and was commissioned in 1942. He served as an instructor pilot prior to going overseas in the European Theatre in WW II, spending the last eight months of the war in a prisoner of war camp in Germany. He is a member of the Air Force Reserve with rank of lieutenant-colonel.

While in school, he served at the University Baptist in Abilene and Gambrell Street Baptist in Fort Worth. Subsequently, he has served with the First Baptist Church in Bartlesville, Okla., Corpus Christi, Denison, Roswell, N.M., the Wornal Road Baptist in Kansas City, Mo., and Heights Baptist in Albuquerque, N.M.

He has served as New Mexico state Sunday School convention president, was New Mexico state music camp clinician, member of the New Mexico state Baptist executive board, of the Southern Baptist convention's committee on committees, a participant and consultant in the Hawaiian State Training Union enlargement, and the adult Sunday school program at Sacramento, Calif.

Taylor and his wife, Donna, have three children, two sons, Jerry, 20, a student in college in Colorado, and Randy, 13, and a daughter, Lucia, 18, a student in the Roswell branch of Eastern New Mexico State University.

Elston Is Selected

FORT WORTH — Miss Aria Elston, Fayetteville, Ark., has been named an associate minister for leader development of the Texas Association of Christian Churches here effective Feb. 1, 1969.

Miss Elston's appointment was announced today by Dr. T. Swearingen, executive director of the TACC.

She is the second new member named to the TACC staff to serve in the new churchwide leader development ministry, designed to develop leadership among the clergy and laity of local churches.

Campus minister for the Arkansas Christian Churches on the University of Arkansas campus since September, 1964, Miss Elston will join the church unit's Division of Local Church Life and Work headed by Roy D. Holt, associate executive director.

One of Miss Elston's major assignments will be working with the Christian Women's Fellowship.

MERRY LEE DIBRELL

Dibrell Recital Set For Sunday

Merry Lee Dibrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Dibrell, 803 Dallas, will be presented in an organ recital at 8 p.m. Sunday at the First United Methodist Church.

Miss Dibrell, a music education major, recently gave her senior recital for the faculty of Southern Methodist University. She has studied under Mrs. C. H. Rainwater, Allison Salley and Dr. Robert Anderson and served as organist at Coahoma Presbyterian Church, First United Methodist Church here and St. Mary's Episcopal Church here.

Recital selections will be "Introduction to Passacaglia" by Max Reger, "Christ, the Only Son of God" by Johann S. Bach, "Toccata" by Eugene Gigout, "Pastorale" by Cesar Franck and "Alleluys" by Simon Preston.

Hymn Poll

WASHINGTON (AP) — Although many modern hymnbooks now omit "The Old Rugged Cross," it's still the favorite among Seventh Day Adventists, a nationwide poll by the church indicates. Next, in this order, were "How 'real' Thou Art," "Rock of Ages" and "In the Garden."

DR. RICHARD H. DIXON

Dixon Speaks Here Sunday

Dr. Richard H. Dixon Sr., chairman of the National Goodwill Commission, will be guest preacher at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. Sunday at Mount Bethel Baptist Church, 630 Northwest 4th.

The public is invited to hear Dr. Dixon, who also is an agent of the President's Commission on Equal Employment Opportunities.

The Goodwill Commission is an outgrowth of the National Domestic Public Relations Association, conceived in 1915 by W. L. Dickson at Gilmer. It is dedicated to improving relations through mutual understanding and respect.

"Our efforts and accomplishments have been to help in a general way to curb outbursts in many disturbed communities and to serve as forerunners to prevent rioting and looting, which we think is a curse to any civilization as well as a setback to racial good will," said Dr. Dixon.

The commission has assisted in many ways to mitigate and do away with racial discrimination, to encourage equality of opportunity.

"We hold that the only solution for threatening problems is for each citizen, in each community, to become better acquainted with the police of that community and to work together under the guidance of God, from the city hall to every church, civic and law-abiding group in every community," said Dr. Dixon.

Loose-Leaf Religion

LONDON (AP) — A loose-leaf daily altar missal to solve the problems posed by continual changes in the Roman Catholic liturgy has just come on the market here. It is published in Latin and English.

Publisher Geoffrey Chapman says that in such times of change the loose-leaf concept is the most sensible. When changes come you simply insert a new leaf for the old, without affecting the rest of the book.

Nazarene Church Equals National Giving Mark

The local Church of the Nazarene, located at 1409 Lancaster, stayed abreast of the stewardship statistics of the denomination, with a per capita giving of $203.02, which apparently assured the Church of the Nazarene remaining in first place in the nation in per capita giving among all major denominations with 200,000 members or more.

A strong stewardship advance, membership gains and the opening of two new liberal arts colleges made 1968 a year of growth in the Church of the Nazarene which maintains world offices in Kansas City, Mo.

The two new Nazarene colleges — Mid-America at Olathe, Kas., and Mt. Vernon at Mt. Vernon, O. — combined to add 454 more students to Nazarene college enrollments. This pushed the total in the 12 Nazarene educational institutions to a record 9,026, or a net enrollment gain of 712 students in 1968.

The Vietnam war also was felt in a new measure in 1968. Reflecting the heavy war cost, 39 more names of Nazarenes killed in Vietnam were added to the memorial plaque in 1968. These made a total of 35 gold stars on the Vietnam roll. At year-end more than 8,250 Nazarene young men were in the Armed Forces.

World membership reached 464,962 persons — a net gain of 11,154 over 1967. Domestic membership was 377,706, a net gain of 6,589 persons or 1.78 per cent increase. The net gain in members in mission churches abroad totaled 4,565.

Nazarenes had a domestic net gain of 24 churches, plus an overseas gain of 49 churches, making the denomination's world total 6,211 churches.

The annual statistical report by Dr. B. Edgar Jonsson, general secretary, showed per capita giving at $203.02 — a new peak $12.89 over the 1967 record $190.13. Giving for all purposes totaled $76,681,300 — an increase of $6,119,000 over last year.

The number in Nazarene Sunday schools kept rising. The total enrollment at year end 1968 was 1,049,775 with 149,000 of this total in churches abroad.

The Church of the Nazarene with strong emphasis on the Wesleyan position of holiness and entire sanctification as a second work of grace, is dedicated to the spending of this experience throughout the world — and accounts this doctrinal position as one of the major reasons of its growth.

The local church will sponsor a Holiness Convention Nov. 5-9 in Big Spring with Dr. John L. Knight, executive secretary of the Department of Evangelism as speaker.

Too close for comfort

Here's a photograph taken from a kayak. You don't bring a ship this close to an iceberg! For underwater the tentacles of this cruel, cold monster may reach out a mile or more.

Life for some folks is a succession of narrow escapes. But these are adventures we can do without. They don't prove us bold sailors. They simply prove us poor navigators.

Frightened men sometimes turn to religion as a refuge when dangers—moral, spiritual and physical—loom too close for comfort. God does not fail us in crisis.

But the every-day function of faith is to pilot men on a true course through the sea of life. The Church cannot sweep away icebergs. It warns us of their whereabouts and helps us give them a wide berth.

BUZZ SAWYER

OKAY, YOU GUYS, LET'S START LOOKIN' FOR THOSE TWO CHARACTERS WHO WERE SNOOPIN' IN THE POPPY FIELDS LAST NIGHT. WE GOTTA FIND 'EM!

SURE DUDE.

HI, I BROUGHT YOU SOME BREAKFAST.

THANKS, BUT I'M NOT VERY HUNGRY.

HMM! YOU HAVE A FEVER. NOT SO GOOD. I'D BETTER DRESS YOUR WOUND AGAIN... SUPPOSE YOU HEARD ME FIGHTING WITH DUDE A WHILE AGO?

YEAH, DON'T KNOW WHY, BUT YOU'RE SURE GOING ALL OUT TO SAVE MY NECK, LADY.

GASOLINE ALLEY

"We build- we fight! Can do!" That's our Seabee motto so far, for our team anyway, no fighting, no... love...

I think we are building more than roads and schools here. We are building in these people a faith and trust in America. Sounds corny, doesn't it?

I can only speak for myself, but I have never felt so needed! This is the most satisfying thing I have done in my whole life. Love, Chipper

NANCY

THAT MEAN LITTLE KID IS KNOCKING OVER ALL THE SNOWMEN

WELL, HE WON'T DO THAT TO MY SNOWMAN

ERNE-BUSHMILLER

CIRCUS OPENS TOMO

LI'L ABNER

WE'LL MERELY TAKE BACK OUR ORIGINAL STATCHOO, AN' LEAVE YO' TH' FAKE!!

I WON'T GIVE IT UP!!

THASS BRAVE O'YO-- BUT...

...THEY'S ALREADY BRINGIN' TH' FAKE -- FUM TH' DESTROYER SPIRO T. AGNEW-- WHICH IS NOTED FOR ITS MARKSMANSHIP!!

BLONDIE

BILLS, BILLS-- ALL I EVER DO IS PAY BILLS!

YOU SHOULDN'T LET IT GET TO YOU SO UPSET, DEAR.

YOU SHOULD PAY YOUR BILLS WITH A SMILE

I'D LIKE TO, BUT THEY WANT MONEY!

RICK O'SHAY

BUSINESS IS BUSINESS, MR. WYER. I HAVE EVERY LEGAL RIGHT TO DAM THOSE FEEDER STREAMS...

IF YOU PEOPLE IN THE VALLEY DON'T LIKE IT, I WOULD SUGGEST YOU SELL OUT.

MUCH OBLIGED FOR SHOWIN' YOUR HOLE CARP, MISS BELL.

...BUT I AIN'T ABOUT TO SELL OUT JUST NOW... -- AN' IF I EVER DO...

...IT'LL BE AFTER THE FIGHT.

SNUFFY SMITH

CAN I GO TO TH' MOVIN' PITCHERS, UNK SNUFFY?

EVER-TIME I TARN AROUND YE GOT VORE GRUBBY LITTLE PAWS OUT FER A DIME OR A QUARTER-- NO, YE CAN'T!!

SHUX-- I GOT TH' MONEY--- I JUST MADE 50 CENT FER SWEEPIN' OUT TH' GENERAL STORE-- I JUST WANTED TO KNOW IF I COULD GO

SHORE WE CAN!!

KERRY DRAKE

HE'S STILL OUT OF HIS HEAD, OFFICER! ACCUSING ME I WON'T STAY HERE AND LISTEN.

NO! DON'T LET HIM LEAVE! I DREW HIS PICTURE!

I THINK YOU'D BETTER STICK AROUND MR. WAYNE!

HE... HE HAS NO PROOF FOR HIS WILD STORY!

JUST LOOK UNDER THAT MATTRESS, OFFICER!

BEEBLE BAILEY

THERE'S BEEBLE'S SIGNAL

--AGGRESSOR-- --FORCES-- --ADVANCING-- --SOUTH--

WHAT'S THAT?

AN ERASURE

PEANUTS

DID YOU READ THE PAPER TODAY?

DID YOU READ ABOUT ALL THE TERRIBLE THINGS GOING ON IN THE WORLD?

IT'S VERY DEPRESSING

I'LL THANK YOU NOT TO CRITICIZE MY YEAR!

DICK TRACY

I HAD MY FRIEND HANK, THE PLASTICS TYCOON, MAKE IT FOR YOU, LIZZ.

ON THIS NEXT ASSIGNMENT, YOU'LL BE EXPOSED TO SCUM THAT BELIEVE IN ARSON, MUGGING AND MURDER.

THESE HAIR-BANDIT VULTURES ARE VICIOUS ANIMALS. YOU MUST BEAT THEM TO THE DRAW!

WHEN YOU SEE THAT KNIFE PROTECT YOURSELF FIRST ASK QUESTIONS LATER.

MARY WORTH

I CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHY THE SUPERINTENDENT WOULD ASK YOU AND GERTRUDE TO COME TO HIS OFFICE AT THIS HOUR, PAMELA! ARE YOU GIRLS IN SOME KIND OF A...

IT... IT'S PROBABLY ABOUT THE SCHOOL ANNUAL, MRS. BRYAN!... WE WON'T BE GONE LONG!

THE REAL REASON IS THAT I TOLD MAMA ABOUT MISS HARPER AND MR. GARRETT, TRUDY!

NO! I... I WOULDN'T LIE, PAM... I DON'T WANT TO GET MR. GARRETT IN A JAM!

I... SORT OF STRETCHED IT A LITTLE... --SO PROMISE YOU'LL BACK ME UP!

LISTEN TO ME, TRUDY BRYAN!... HOW WOULD YOU LIKE FOR YOUR PARENTS TO KNOW WHAT WE DID AFTER THE SENIOR PARTY LAST FALL!

REX MORGAN

I'M SORRY BUT I CAN'T GIVE YOU ANY INFORMATION ON MISS ROCKWELL.

BUT I'M HER BROTHER, AND I'M CALLING FROM OUT OF TOWN / I WANT TO KNOW WHAT'S HAPPENED TO MY SISTER!

JUST A MINUTE, PLEASE!

EXCUSE ME, DR. MORGAN -- BUT MISS ROCKWELL'S BROTHER IS CALLING LONG-DISTANCE -- WANTS INFORMATION ON HER CONDITION?

HEK BROTHER? I DON'T HAVE A SON / JULIE'S ONLY CHILD?

TERRY

NEVER SAW PALMA IN MY LIFE BEFORE, MISS HASP?

UH, HUH... BUT THE REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF ANTIQUITIES MUST HAVE RAISED SUCH A RUMBLE IN ROME THAT IT WAS HEARD IN WASHINGTON

SO SOMEBODY PUNCHED A BUTTON MARKED 'FEUD STOPPER' AND HERE YOU ARE, RIGHT, TERRY LEE?

YOUR FEMINE INTUITION JUST WENT INTO ORBIT, MAHAW!

YOU NEEDN'T FENCE WITH A'E, TERRY LEE! I WANT T'IS SILLY QUARREL STOPPED, TOO!

SMITTY

THIS MAN MADE A 100 PERCENT PROFIT?

IN A MOST INGENUOUS MANNER! HE DID IT THIS WAY...

REMEMBER THE 6000 WHITE DOVES, THE SYMBOL OF PEACE, AT THE AMERICAN OLYMPIC GAMES? WELL, THIS MAN SOLD THE BIRDS TO THEM--

AFTER BEING RELEASED, THE DOVES FLEW UP INTO THE AIR...

...AND FLEW RIGHT BACK TO HIM! BECAUSE HE HAD SOLD THEM 6000 WHITE HOMING PIGEONS! A PROFIT OF ONE HUNDRED PERCENT--WOW!

MOON MULLINS

KAYO!

AW-- DON'T RUN A FEVER, SWIVEL...

THEY PROMISED THEIR OLD LADIES THEY WOULDN'T GO NEAR HIS HUMIDOR FOR A WHOLE WEEK...

Cheaper in the long run.

Gas will never cost you much. (You'll get about 27 miles to the gallon.) And the amount of oil you use is like a drop in the bucket. (It only takes 2.7 quarts and almost never needs more between changes.)

And the engine is air-cooled, so you don't have to spend a red cent for anti-freeze or rust inhibitors.

And you get more than your money's worth out of a set of tires (around 40,000 miles).

But don't think buying a new Volkswagen is just another get-rich-quick scheme. You have to wait until the second set of tires wear out.

TEXAS VIOLENT DEATHS RISE RAPIDLY

Odessan Killed In Triple Crash

By The Associated Press
Texas violent deaths rose rapidly in number Thursday after the state recorded one of its lowest tolls ever for the New Year's holiday period. Only three persons died during the 24 hours of New Year's Day. Eighteen died Thursday, the day after.

Thursday's toll included the deaths of four persons in a farm house fire near Conroe.

Odessa died in a three-car crash on US 80 between Odessa and Midland. Janette Lumpkins, 44, of Bloomington suffered fatal gunshot wounds when a 12 gauge shotgun accidentally discharged.

Julio Sebastian Pena, 51, was killed when his truck collided with a Missouri-Kansas-Texas freight train near Los Ebanos in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Mrs. William J. Derichweiler, 61, of Muenster was found hanging in the garage of her North Texas home. A justice of the peace ruled the death accidental.

Marie Sgitovich, 51, of Houston suffered fatal injuries in a three-car accident on the southwest side of Houston.

A 61-year-old Waco woman, Mrs. S. B. Railey, died in a two-car crash near downtown Waco.

Charlie D. Slate, 19, of Coleman died at an Odessa apartment Thursday night after he was overcome by carbon monoxide fumes from an unvented heater.

Former War Prisoner Faces Medical Check

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Maj. James N. Rowe, the McAllen soldier free after more than five years as a prisoner of the Viet Cong, is to arrive at Brooke Army Medical Center today for medical observation.

From there he will be taken to Brooke, where he will remain for an unannounced length of time for observation and "probably a full physical," a spokesman said. A Washington report said Rowe, 31, also would undergo medical treatment here.

Rowe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rowe of McAllen, were not expected to meet their only surviving son here, apparently because he will be hospitalized at Brooke for a time.

Maj. James Nicholas Rowe became the center of world-wide attention Tuesday when the Army announced he had overpowered a Viet Cong guard and fled his captors in the Mekong Delta.

All About Turkey Unfurled By Captain For Kiwanians

A captain in the Turkish Air Force Thursday invited members of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club to visit his country.

Speaking to the Kiwanians, Capt. Yilmaz Koken said: "Turkey is a civilized country. We wear civilized clothes, and we have civilized living conditions. Everywhere you go you will find good roads, streets, buildings, theaters, dining halls, camping grounds, beaches and all kinds of large organizations."

"We have different kinds of music; — classic music, dance music and so forth. The instruments for the dance music are the same as yours; we have our own instruments for Turkish music."

He then played a tape recording of Turkish love songs. He called attention to the high quality of Turkish cuisine — rated, he said, as one of the three most acclaimed in the world. He told of the historic background of his people and of how the visitor finds there the bridge between Europe and Asia; the spanning tie between ancient and modern times. He mentioned a number of ancient historic ruins, famed the world over as meccas for tourists.

Accommodations, he said, are ideal for the traveler and the costs are reasonable. The best hotel room in the republic is only $6 per day.

Capt. Koken came to this country on Oct. 28, 1968, to train as a ground safety officer. He was first stationed at Lowrey AFB, Colo., and came to Webb on Dec. 24. He will complete his training here early in February and return to Turkey.

He was accompanied to the Kiwanis luncheon by another Turkish officer — 1st Lt. Hadir Batue. This visitor has just completed training as a fuels specialist. He was first station at Chanute AFB Ill., Sept. 26. He has been here since Nov. 3 and left Friday for his return to Turkey.

Lt. Richard Goyette, foreign training officer, introduced the two Turkish airmen to the Kiwanians.

Capt. Koken, in the course of his remarks, told the club how his people had moved from Asia into what is now Turkey thousands of years ago. A drouth, he said, forced the first immigration from middle Asia.

Most of the present day Turks ancestors came to Turkey in 1299 AD and Ottoman state was established at that time.

BUDGET MEETING
He took time to praise the great Turkish leader, Mustapha Kemal who won Turkish independence and brought about the establishment of the Turkish republic Oct. 29, 1923.

"He established civilized law," said the speaker, "the dress law, and he designed a new alphabet which he gave to us. Mustapha Kemal died Nov. 10, 1938. We have continued to prosper since his time."

"If I have introduced my country to you a little, I will be very happy."

Jim Thompson, club president, said that the 1969 budget will be drawn up and adopted by the board of directors at the regular January meeting next Tuesday at Coker's Restaurant. The meeting is at 6 p.m. All committee chairmen are asked to be on hand.

Dear Abby Should See A Lawyer

DEAR ABBY: Before I married my husband he asked me to sign some papers saying I was not to share in any of his worldly possessions during his lifetime, and would not be entitled to anything should he die. He signed the major part of his property and assets over to a lady friend.

In his defense, I should mention that he has never been married before, and he is my third husband, so maybe he is just playing it safe. I married the first time at 15, and that didn't work out. My second husband was an alcoholic, and that ended in divorce, too. Do you think he really loves me, or is he taking me for a fool?

WONDERING
DEAR WONDERING: Regardless of what you signed, see your own lawyer and find out how binding it is. A man who would ask his wife to disclaim all his worldly possessions during his lifetime, and would leave her unprotected for should he precede her in death, doesn't sound like much of a bargain to me, especially after having signed over the lion's share of his assets to a "lady friend." (P.S. If you ever find out why this man felt he needed a wife, let me know.)

DEAR ABBY: The following is from a letter I recently received from an out-of-state relative:

"Let's make a deal. Next year instead of sending each other Christmas presents, send me a check, and I will do the same for you. It will save us both a lot of trouble."

Abby, I never considered shopping for Christmas presents "a lot of trouble." Besides, what's the sense of my sending her a check for $25, and her sending me the same? How do you feel about it? I should add, this relative needs more money like I need another belly button.

BEWILDERED IN BOSTON
DEAR BEWILDERED: I agree with you. Tell her to just blow you a kiss at Christmas, and you'll do the same for her.

DEAR ABBY: I really dig this guy I'll call Phil. My father checked up on him and now he won't let me go out with him any more. Phil is a musician. He plays the drums. My father says that a drummer is no musician — that a person who plays the violin or piano can call himself a musician, but a drum is no instrument. Is that right?

Also, my father found out that Phil is 32, not 26, like he said he was.

So I have two questions to ask: (1) Is a drummer a musician? (2) As long as a guy is a gentleman, don't you think I should be allowed to go out with him? I am 19, but I am very mature for my age. Thank you.

DIGS PHIL
DEAR DIGS: Yes, a drummer IS indeed a musician, but what's all this jazz about his lying about his age? Sorry, but I agree with your father. A 32-year-old drummer should beat it if he can't play it straight,

Scientific Research Aids Skin Problems HELPS

Blackheads, Whiteheads literally wipe off

Control and Medicate Acne in Three Easy Steps

Through the growing up years something inexorable seems to happen. Most of us lose that beautiful freshness; that glow of baby skin complexion. Scientists have long known that underlying every person's skin is a remarkable, fresh, new skin. But, by the time this new skin reaches the surface, it has already been badly contaminated — in part by air-borne soot, dirt and grease penetrations and old skin infections — that even the new skin seems no different than the old.

All the old troubles are still there, and sometimes new ones are added. The blackheads, the pimples, the acne, the oily spots seem rooted through every one of the so-called seven layers of skin.

Research's Answer to Skin Problems
Now Duvaline presents a new formula that may unlock many of the barriers to a beautiful new complexion — without surgery — or great cost. The Duvaline treatment is research's answer to skin problems that may have plagued you since childhood. With a remarkable new series of skin control aids, Duvaline chemists have formulated three mutually complementary medicated skin and beauty treatments. Each one has been compounded to tackle and treat a specific level and range of common skin problems.

For Everyone Regardless of Age
In the case of the adult or more mature skin you will see an electrifying improvement. You will be able to control and treat skin contaminations and topical infections — even during the day, under your own make-up. You will — as your treatments progress — lift the veil from your muddy or murky complexion. You will reveal what really seems to be a new skin. It will not only look fresher, but seem to have a new youth and vigor of its own.

The teen-age skin, which is often referred to as the adolescent skin, will actually improve after a few Duvaline applications. Blackheads and whiteheads will literally wipe off when removing the beauty mask. Thanks to Duvaline, blackheads can now be removed without digging at and squeezing your face. The Duvaline Day and Night Cream will control and treat pimples that often plague the self-conscious teen-ager.

Available at Modest Cost
Up till now only the rich could afford a surgically fresh skin. Some advanced dermatologists have achieved a fresh skin for their patients. Skin planing, the surgical process, literally sandpapers the old skin off to reveal the pink, new skin underneath. It is usually a treatment for the rich or for the complexion too far gone for conventional methods of treatment. The Duvaline 3-Step Skin Treatment is so simple that you can treat yourself in the privacy of your own home. A 45-treatment supply of the three Duvaline products is sold in one complete kit for $5.95.

In conclusion, you will see results beyond your expectations... blackheads will loosen... pores will tighten... acne complexion clears... acne and pimples will show remarkable improvement. Some of these results you will witness almost immediately... if not, be patient, years of neglect can not be repaired in a day. With a treatment every day for the first week and two to three times a week thereafter, you can expect remarkable improvements within 30 days. Duvaline is yours at your complete satisfaction or your money will be refunded. Let your mirror be your guide...

Blackheads Loosen

45 treatment supply only $5.95

Follow This Simple 3-Step Treatment To A Cleaner, Clearer, Healthier Skin . . .

STEP 1 Apply the Duvaline Beauty Masque to your face by patting it on with your fingers. As the compounded ingredients go to work on your skin you'll begin to feel a tingling and drawing sensation. This gentle stimulation process loosens blackheads and other pore impurities, simultaneously penetrating every pore and preparing the skin for Step 2. Allow to harden.

STEP 2 Wash off the masque with lukewarm water. Now take a cotton pad and lightly saturate it with Duvaline Medicated Control Liquid. Gently massage the liquid on the skin's surface. The Medicated Duvaline Liquid deeply penetrates every pore and begins an action designed to alleviate the more serious conditions that cause blackheads, whiteheads and acne. It serves as a tone-up and bracer for Step 3.

STEP 3 Apply the flesh-colored Duvaline Medicated Skin Control Creme. It's the final treatment to apply before going to bed at night and also should be applied each morning. Its flesh-color will not be noticed on men, and women can wear it under make-up, thus assuring continuous treatment day and night.

COMPLETE SATISFACTION GUARANTEED
If you don't have a fresher, never looking complexion after using the 45 treatments contained in the Duvaline kit, your money will be refunded.
