6-YEAR-OLD Child Heart Swap Patient Improving

CINCINNATI (AP) — Doctors report steady improvement in the condition of Christie Corbin, a six-year-old recipient in heart transplant surgery Saturday.

She received the heart of William M. Becker, 7, who died 30 minutes earlier from auto accident injuries.

Doctors say Christie remains unconscious most of the time.

"There are a number of hurdles still to be overcome," said Dr. Edward Pratt, chief of staff at Children's Hospital where the operation was performed.

Christie was born with a severely malformed heart, and her condition was described as terminal before the 9½-hour operation.

Growth Slows Down

DALLAS (AP) — The University of Texas Population Research Center reported that the Lone Star State's population slowed down in 1968 compared to previous years.

Texas' population grew by 118,000 last year, the center said. The growth, recorded between April 1967 and April 1968, was only 1.1 per cent compared with annual increase of 1.7 per cent since 1960.

Population growth in the Dallas-Fort Worth area accounted for more than half the increase for all of Texas in the last nine years, the center said. The combined population of the twin cities now amounts to 2,145,000.

The Houston-Galveston-Texas City population is at slightly more than two million persons.

Since 1960, Dallas and Fort Worth have gained 745,000 residents with the Dallas metropolitan area now containing 1,446,100 persons and an estimated 679,400 persons residing in Fort Worth.

Abandoned Vehicles

Stranded motorists return to their stalled vehicles after spending the night in public buildings nearby in Ridgfield Park, N.J. Interstate Route 80 was clogged for miles west of the eGorge Washington Bridge as the snowstorm worsened.

Heavy Snow Cripples, Cuts Off New York

NEW YORK (AP) — New York was crippled and cut off from its suburbs this morning in the wake of a storm that dumped 15 inches of snow, piled into drifts whipped by high winds.

The Long Island Rail Road shut down, cutting off 90,000 commuters. The Penn Central and New Haven railroads drastically cut schedules, and buses were mired in huge traffic jams caused by stalled and deserted vehicles.

CLOSED

The State Thruway was closed from Albany to New York City — 148 miles — for the first time in its history, and more than 1,000 cars were stranded on the Tappan Zee Bridge, a thruway span across the Hudson River at Tarrytown. The passengers took shelter locally.

Subways were running near normal. All public and parochial schools and colleges were closed, as were all branches of the public library.

Kennedy International, La Guardia and Newark airports were closed. More than 6,000 persons were stranded at Kennedy, where food supplies were being rapidly exhausted. Roads to the airport were blocked by stalled vehicles. One jetliner with 39 passengers was snow-bound on a runway for nine hours Sunday before plows could free it.

National Airlines appealed this morning for a helicopter airlift of food for 500 passengers stranded at its terminal.

A spokesman said the stranded passengers had had no food since 8:30 p.m. Sunday night. About 30 children and three chronically ill persons were in the group.

"If they don't get food soon, they'll be in bad shape," the airline official said.

Thirteen of New York City's

15 inches fell Sunday, a record for a single day.

Winds gusting to more than 40 miles per hour and temperatures in the 20s complicated the snow removal problem, as city officials declared a "snow emergency" and urged motorists to stay at home.

Pirates Take Year's 14th Jet To Cuba

MIAMI (AP) — A San Juan-to-Miami jetliner with 127 people aboard was hijacked to Cuba today after the pilot radioed: "We've got a man in the back with a gun on a stewardess."

Capt. William Latimer was some 350 miles northwest of San Juan when he reported to the Miami Air Traffic Control Center he was going to Havana, officials said.

Aboard the craft — 14th of the year to be pirated to Cuba — were 119 passengers and eight crew members. It was the sixth Eastern plane to make the unscheduled Cuba run since Jan. 1.

The plane, EAL Flight 950, left San Juan at 8:30 a.m. EST. The DC8 stretch jet touched down in Havana at 11:07.

In the past, crews of hijacked planes had been allowed to bring the craft to Miami within a few hours of landing in Havana. The passengers usually were left behind until special charter planes were dispatched to retrieve them at Varadero, about 90 miles east of Havana.

CREW

Crew members aboard the plane were Capt. Latimer, William Horlacher, 1st officer; Richard Shaw, 2nd officer; Steward Vincent Doccolo and stewardesses Susan O'Connor, Donna Madara, Carolyn Hammond and Gisela Sommers. All were based in Miami.

Today's hijacking was the first since Feb. 5 when a Colombian liner was pirated and came after a week of hearings on the hijacking issue before the House Commerce Committee in Washington.

At the hearings, Stuart Tipton, head of the Air Transport Association of America, urged that the United States ratify the Tokyo Convention, which requires signatories to return control of aircraft to its commander in air piracy cases.

Tipton's group and the Air Line Pilots Association jointly offered $25,000 to anybody who provides information leading to the arrest and conviction of hijackers, but stressed the reward does not apply to apprehension of hijackers while in the air.

LITTLE KNOWN

Little is known about what happens to hijackers after they are greeted by airport police in Havana.

Three people charged with air piracy have returned from Cuba. The maximum penalty is death.

Jordan Fights Artillery Duel With Israeli Forces

Jordan said it fought a seven-hour artillery duel with Israel in the Ghor Safi area south of the Dead Sea today.

A spokesman in Amman accused Israel of starting the exchange.

The Israelis made no immediate comment.

The Jordanian spokesman said there were no losses on the Arab side.

In another development a Beirut newspaper, Al Nahar, said Jordan is disturbed over a plan by the Palestine Liberation Organization, PLO, to move its armed force from Egypt to the east bank of the Jordan River.

Al Nahar said Jordanian Prime Minister Bahjat Talhouh is going to Cairo Tuesday to discuss the issue with President Gamal Abdel Nasser. Talhouh is expected to protest that Jordan was not consulted on the move.

SHIFTED

PLO's new leader, Yasser Arafat, announced last week that the 4,000-man guerrilla force stationed in Egypt would be shifted.

In Israel, authorities expelled six Arab youths and a teacher from the occupied west bank Sunday, accusing them of taking part in or inciting anti-Israeli demonstrations last week.

Today seven convicted Arab saboteurs began serving jail sentences ranging from 15 years to life for planting grenades in the Jewish sector of Jerusalem. The grenades wounded nine Israelis last August, touching off an anti-Arab riot by Jewish youths.

About 200 Arab youths demonstrated in East Jerusalem today, chanting the name of Yasser Arafat, president of the Al Fatah commandos and of the Palestine Liberation Organization. They called for a merchants strike but were largely ignored before police dispersed them and arrested 16.

There were other expressions of Arab opposition to the occupation. Schools were closed in Terms Talked For Renewed Relations

JAKARTA (AP) — Cambodia's foreign minister said today President Nixon and the Cambodian chief of state, Prince Norodom Sihanouk, have exchanged letters concerning the possibility of restoring diplomatic relations between their countries.

ANSWERED

The minister, Prince Norodom Phurissara, said Prince Sihanouk answered a letter from Nixon on the matter.

Phurissara reiterated his government's position that Cambodia will only consider a restoration of diplomatic relations if the United States "recognizes and respects" Cambodia's borders and territorial integrity.

The United States has refused to give unqualified endorsement to Sihanouk's version of his country's borders because the frontiers with both Thailand and South Vietnam are in dispute, and Thailand and South Vietnam are close allies of the United States.

Sihanouk has charged U.S. and South Vietnamese forces with repeated violations of his borders and attacks on Cambodian villages causing deaths and injuries among the Cambodians. The United States has admitted some border violations but said all have been in error and usually the result of pursuit of Viet Cong forces taking sanctuary in Cambodia.

SEVERED

Cambodia severed diplomatic relations with the United States in May, 1965, after rejecting U.S. economic and military aid in November, 1963.

Army Sopping Up Oil Slick

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — A growing army of cleanup men is trying to rid the blue Pacific of an ugly, black scar stretching along California's beaches for 30 miles.

An undersea well that sent 231,000 gallons of crude oil bubbling to the surface was capped Saturday, sealed with mud and cement. But the huge slick still wallows, broken slightly by winds, occasionally still seeping to land.

Crews are trying to sop it up, along the edges nearest land, with absorbent straw. Along the sandy beaches, more sophisticated methods are being used or planned.

More than 500 workmen from state conservation camps and the Union Oil Co., which drilled the well, have worked since the sludge moved ashore last week. Another 225 inmates from conservation camps join the crews tonight.

By midweek 1,500 men will be working along the coast. The cleanup is expected to require three weeks.

Six Flee San Angelo Jail, Three At Large

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Law enforcement authorities continued to comb the range country near here Sunday night in an effort to locate three escapees from the Tom Green County Jail.

San Angelo police said three of the six inmates who overpowered a guard and fled the jail early Sunday were back in custody.

Police said they found two of the men, the youngest of the escapees, hiding in a local junkyard. They were identified as James Louis Carmon, 22, charged with robbery by firearms. The third person back in custody, Darrell Gray Stephens, 25, charged with robbery by the firearms, turned himself in at the county jail late Sunday night, officers said.

All available lawmen from the city, county and state hunted for the three who remained free. A helicopter from the Texas Department of Public Safety was aiding the manhunt.

The six escaped when one of them pulled a knife on a guard who entered the jail.

Still at large were Dallas Halden Tancred, 34, charged with robbery by firearms; Billy Mike Akins, 24, charged with theft, swindling and conspiracy to commit murder; and James Louis Carmon, 22, charged with felony theft.

'TURN-ON' Turned Off

NEW YORK (AP) — The American Broadcasting Co. says it has told the sponsor of "Turn-On," a comedy show that premiered last Wednesday, that the show is unacceptable to the network because of alleged vulgar material.

An ABC spokesman said Sunday the ABC officials, which featured spoofs on personalities, contemporary mores and sex, has been canceled by some stations which deemed it objectionable.

Several ABC affiliates canceled the show before it was shown in their areas. Others who aired the premiere then announced they would not show it again.

Ship Sinking Slowly

NEW YORK (AP) — A ship with 46 persons aboard was described by the Coast Guard as sinking slowly today 180 miles southeast of Nantucket, Mass.

The ship was the passenger-carrying freighter, Exminster, which the Coast Guard said was taking on water in its engine room.

The cutter Sherman was speeding toward the Exminster, and was expected to arrive in mid-afternoon. A Coast Guard plane was searching for the ship in order to drop pumps, the Coast Guard said.

Visibility was three to five miles in the area, the Coast Guard said, with winds of 35 to 40 knots. The Coast Guard spokesman said radio contact has been maintained with the vessel since early morning.

Stock Exchanges Close

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York and American stock exchanges were closed today because of the heavy snowfall.

All commodity markets were also closed because of the weather.

Eight Cars Derailed

ANTON, Tex. (AP) — Crews worked late into the night Sunday to clear wreckage from railroad tracks near here where eight cars of a southbound Santa Fe freight train derailed.

The derailment occurred about noon Sunday and left plywood, sugar and canned foods strewn along the right of way.

The derailed cars were part of a 94-car train pulled by four diesel units.

The Texas Department of Public Safety said cause of the derailment had not been determined.

Russo Repeats Plot To Kill President

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Perry Raymond Russo stepped up at Clay Shaw's trial today to testify he overheard Shaw, Lee Harvey Oswald and David W. Ferrie conspire to kill President John F. Kennedy.

PERRY RUSSO

Russo, 27, a witness with a "hypnotically refreshed" memory, told roughly the same story he gave at Shaw's 1967 preliminary hearing—but with one change.

At the preliminary hearing, Russo testified he overheard the plotting during a party at Ferrie's apartment in September, 1963. He said he had taken a girl named Sandra Moffett with him to the party.

Sewage Killing Seaweed Forest

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The flow of treated sewage into the Pacific Ocean may be killing off southern California's seaweed forest, say two California Institute of Technology scientists.

The sewage, they say, apparently supports sea urchins which eat young kelp plants before they have a chance to grow.

Dr. Mary Clark, a research fellow in environmental health, and W. J. North, professor in environmental health, said Sunday that kelp normally is the urchin's principal food. When kelp diminishes, so does the urchin population. The sea urchin is a spiny, round creature with a shell.

"Something is keeping the sea urchin population constant even though their preferred natural food has diminished or disappeared," they reported.

Park Permits Net $30,000

AUSTIN — Approximately 2,500 annual State park entrance permits have been sold for approximately $30,000 since they went on sale in October, 1968.

The $12 permits and the $1 entrance fees to the State parks are used to pay for bonds sold by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department to acquire and develop new park lands.

The annual permits are actually automobile window stickers and allow the auto and all of its occupants into 63 of Texas' 66 State parks for a full year.

The annual permits will be bought at the park headquarters in most of the State parks or at Texas Parks and Wildlife regional offices.

nary hearing he didn't recall details of the party until a hypnotist provided by Garrison enabled him to relive the occasion.

The issue of hypnotism popped up at the trial during defense attorney F. Irvin Dymond's cross examination of prosecution witness Charles L. Spiessel, 50, a New York City accountant.

Spiessel claimed Ferrie, a one-time airlines pilot, took him to a party near the French Quarter in June, 1963, where he heard Shaw, Ferrie and others discuss how to kill the President.

Over Alcock's objections, Dymond questioned Spiessel about lawsuits in which Spiessel charged he was frequently and unwillingly hypnotized.

Light Agenda Set Tuesday

City commissioners will hear a request Tuesday night at the regular meeting, that Northwest Ninth Street, between US 87 and San Antonio, be dropped from the paving program. The request is being made by G. C. Broughton and George Oldham.

In other items on the agenda, the commissioners will consider an ordinance by City Manager Larry Crow, which will, if passed, make it unlawful to park a vehicle on public property or right-of-way for more than 48 hours.

Jack Irons has indicated to the city manager that he will ask that 50 acres of land be annexed by the city.

Assistant City Manager Roy Anderson will present copies of proposed purchasing procedures to be followed by the city.

An ordinance proposed by Gilbert Martinez, which would allow him to sell beer for on-premise consumption at 300 N. Benton, will be read on third reading.

Bill Would Ax 'Paramour Law'

AUSTIN (AP) — Rep. C. A. Davis of Houston introduced a bill today that would repeal Texas' 1911 law allowing a husband to kill his wife's lover if he catches them in adultery.

"This statute, in my opinion, is barbaric and archaic," Davis said.

"At a time when we are striving to discourage people from taking the law into their own hands, this statute is contrary to that objective. In my opinion, it takes two people with willing attitudes to commit the act of adultery and the problem should be settled through the divorce courts, psychological counseling or in some peaceful means other than encouraging the act of murder."

Davis said the so-called "paramour law" discriminates against women, since it does not give a wife the legal right to kill her husband's lover if she discovers them in adultery.

Sirhan On Trial Often Eyes Miniskirted Newswomen

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "We've got a sick man there," veteran criminal attorney Russell E. Parsons said of his client, Sirhan Bishara Sirhan, "I treat him as such."

An observer hardly would guess the gaunt young Jordanian is on trial for his life.

In court, charged with murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, he often smiles as though delighted with some private joke.

His darting brown eyes appraise miniskirted newswomen and other courtroom visitors. To a defense investigator visiting his cell he expressed the wish that a particularly striking blonde reporter would smile at him amid "all those deadpan faces."

The trial enters its fifth week today. Selection of six alternate jurors is expected to be completed, followed by opening arguments and launching of the prosecution's case.

Sirhan smiled at a courtroom artist's sketches of him, relayed through the investigator. During a recess he whistled as he entered a security room adjoining the court.

At the moment that a prosecutor was asking a prospective alternate juror if he could vote "death in the gas chamber," Sirhan was smiling and whispering eagerly into Parsons' ear.

"Down" periods come when he sits quietly and listens solemn-faced to the drone of questions from judge and attorneys to prospective alternate jurors.

Said his brother Munir, 21, "He's anxious to get rolling"—that is, for testimony to start.

Said his tiny mother Mary, 55, "Sometimes he is depressed, sometimes not, just as any other man would be."

Once a week or oftener, family members and Parsons visit Sirhan in his heavily guarded cell five floors above the eighth-floor courtroom in the hall of justice.

Defense questions of jury candidates have made clear that the defense will be diminished capacity. The contention is that a man can be sane yet, because of the state of his mind, have diminished responsibility for a violent act.

The defense admits Sirhan fired the pistol shots that felled Kennedy early last June 5 at the Ambassador Hotel during celebration of his victory in California's Democratic presidential primary. The issue will be Sirhan's state of mind at the time.

Psychiatrists and psychologists will be called.

Parsons and investigator McCowan gave these other glimpses of the Sirhan on trial:

He smokes five or six packages of cigarettes a day—fewer on trial days. He recently switched from cigars, which he took up earlier in jail.

After a day in court he sits reading books on history, the Middle East and the Arab-Israeli problem.

His weight is about the same as when he was arrested eight months ago—110 pounds. He's pale, said Parsons, because "He hasn't seen the sun in all that time."

Wants To Give Police Permission To Gun Dogs

Forty-two Big Spring dog owners were issued citations over the weekend, according to Chief of Police Jay Banks.

"We have reached the critical stage here with the stray dog problem," Banks said. "Several children have been reported attacked and bitten since the first of the year."

There have been reports of rabid animals in this area. Banks said, and he fears that rabies could easily be spread within the city limits.

Chief Banks said he plans to talk with City Manager Larry Crow today and ask that an emergency ordinance be placed on the agenda for Tuesday night's City Commission meeting which would give police permission to shoot stray and unlicensed dogs.

"Some of the animals are running loose and the animal warden can not remove them from the streets under the present ordinance," Banks said.

"With spring, there will be more dogs, and the problem will be almost uncontrollable unless we can get most of the animals off the streets now."

Stray animals are now a problem in all areas of the town, he said.

In order for a dog to be legal within the city limits, the animal must have a current rabies tag and a city dog license, and these must be worn on his collar, he said.

A veterinarian must give the dog his vaccination. The certificate from the vet must be taken to city hall when the dog owner pays the $1 fee for the city dog license, Banks said.

Eighteen of the 42 people who were scheduled to appear in court this morning, City Judge John Burgess dismissed all of the stray dog charges appearing before him this morning with the understanding that the people correct the violation by either fencing the dog in or otherwise keeping it under the owners control. However, he did not require any of the people to show proof that the corrective measures had been taken.

Smash-And-Run Thief Sentenced

KINGSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — Cecil Yancey Evans, 48, charged in Texas' most spectacular smash-and-run jewel robbery, pleaded guilty today to theft of a $300,000 coin collection. He was assessed a prison term of two years to life.

The coin theft occurred in Kingsville while the jewelry thief took place in the Witte Museum in San Antonio.

Evans, who starred with the Texas A&I University Javelinas football team during his college days, was arrested Jan. 6 in a Galveston motor hotel four days after taking part in the robbery of R. C. Bennett at his home in Kingsville.

Arrested with him was J. B. Wright, 48, whose attorney today entered a plea of innocent to a charge of robbery with firearms in the same coin incident.

Application for a writ of habeas corpus.

The arraignment of Wright took place about 11 a.m. in 10th District Court before Judge Paul A. Martineau. Newsmen, who had gathered to attend the proceedings at the announced time of 10 a.m. were told by a deputy sheriff that the hearing had been postponed until 2 p.m. Reason for such a statement could not be determined.

Neither the jewel-known as the McFarlin diamond—nor the coin collection have been found. The coin collection was taken at gunpoint from Bennett, 60, Jan. 2, Bennett told police two men held him up in the garage of his home.

The diamond was in a tempered glass display case at the Witte Museum. Witnesses said a man used a hammer to smash the glass. He fled down a rear staircase with the gem and sped away in a car believed to contain another person.

Navy Court Due To Shift Inquiry

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — The questioning grows sharper and more specific as a Navy court prepares to shift its inquiry from the capture of the USS Pueblo to the ordeal of its men in North Korean prisons.

More enlisted crewmen were summoned today to describe their life since the intelligence ship was seized last week. Ten crewmen testified last week.

The court is recalling junior officers who already have testified about the capture to hear now about prison life.

The 82 men of the Pueblo spent 11 months in captivity. Some suffered severe beatings. Nearly all endured malnutrition. The captain told of mental torture.

When the inquiry opened three weeks ago, Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher was allowed to describe in one narrative the preparations for his mission, the capture and imprisonment.

Then came nearly a week of closed sessions, sprinkled with a few hours of open court. The Navy said it was taking testimony classified in the interest of national defense.

When open court resumed last week, the questioning from Navy counsel and the five admirals on the bench grew more pointed. The admirals began pressing the men about battle stations; whether they wore helmets and lifejackets as required during general quarters; whether they knew the Code of Conduct requiring them to give captors only their name, rank and serial number; whether the code was posted on the Pueblo; how much time elapsed between incidents during the capture; just how precise the navigation really was, and the condition of the wind and sea at the time of the capture.

"People on the bridge did not wear helmets and lifejackets," said CWO Gene Howard Lacy.

"Some of the men were wearing them and some weren't," reported Signalman I.C. Wendell Leach.

Did the crew train to repel boarders? "To the best of my knowledge, we never had a repel boarders drill," said Boatswain Mate I.C. Norbert Klepac.

Shortly after the 82 surviving Pueblo crewmen returned from North Korea last December, Storekeeper J.C. Edward Russell of Glendale, Calif., wed his longtime sweetheart.

Pueblo Crewman Weds Secretary

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — Quartermaster I.C. Charles B. Law Jr., a crewman on the USS Pueblo, and Marie Louise Cherry were married Sunday in the Mission Bay restaurant where they met five weeks ago.

Law, 24, of Chehalis, Wash., and the bride, a secretary for a landscaping firm, were married by the Rev. Chet Castellaw of the First Church of Religious Science. Thirty other Pueblo crewmen, including Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, attended.

Shortly after the 82 surviving Pueblo crewmen returned from North Korea last December, Storekeeper J.C. Edward Russell of Glendale, Calif., wed his longtime sweetheart.

Howard County Heart Meeting

There will be a meeting of the Howard County Heart Association at 7:30 tonight at the County Health Unit, 201 Lancaster, according to Miss Bo Bowen, association president.

David Watson, area field representative for the Texas Heart Association, will speak, she said. In addition, plans will be made to observe February as Heart Month.

Why Many Smaller Texas Towns 'Dying On Vine'

AUSTIN (AP)—Lack of adequate air transportation is one reason why many smaller Texas towns are "dying on the vine," a House committee that studied the Texas Aeronautics Commission reported today.

The committee, headed by Rep. Jake Johnson of Houston, a private pilot, made three recommendations:

—That the legislature abolish refunds of taxes paid on aviation fuel and use the money to develop air transportation.

—That the legislature remove the appropriations bill limits that restrict state airport aid to cities of 50,000 or less and to amounts no higher than $27,500.

—That the Aeronautics Commission's jurisdiction in the commercial aviation field be clarified.

The committee found fault with the present Texas commercial aviation system.

"A citizen, using the fastest commercial transportation available, can leave Houston and be in Amsterdam, Holland, in . . . one hour and nine minutes less time than it takes him to get from Houston to Alpine, Tex., still using the fastest commercial transportation available," the report said.

The committee also said it costs $3.95 more to fly the 250 miles from Houston to Dallas than it does to fly the 400 miles between San Francisco and Los Angeles.

"There are literally hundreds of towns in Texas accessible only by horseback and automobile, and of those with airports, most are inadequate, un paved and lack any type of instrument-landing system," it said.

The committee said many communities have been turned down as factory locations because there was no adequate airport nearby.

"Fast air transportation is an indispensable element to the growth of any community," it said.

The report said 80 per cent of the fuel taxes paid by pilots are reclaimed, with only 20 per cent left for the aeronautics commission.

The committee noted the state is an indispensable element to the growth of any community," it said.

Band Plays On Despite Flames

CHICAGO (AP) — Patrons of a Dixieland nightclub on Chicago's near North Side continued to drink their beer and sing along with the band when fire broke out in an apartment three floors above them.

A few persons went outside to watch the firemen work. One resident was injured slightly and an estimated $10,000 in damage was caused by the fire early Sunday.

Water dripped through the ceiling of the nightclub and formed large pools on the floor, but the band played on.

HCJC Counts 1,022 Students

With only evening classes remaining to qualify, registration at Howard County Junior College moved to its deadline today.

So far, 1,022 students have cleared the business office. This is 87 more than for the spring semester a year ago. A tabulation of the semester hours will be made after today when a final, accurate count is obtainable. This figure is due to be up substantially, because probably half or more of the gain is in fulltime students.

Billy Casper waves a check for $20,000 representing first prize winnings in the Bob Hope Golf Classic which he won by three strokes at Indian Wells Country Club Sunday. At left is Mrs. Dolores Hope, wife of...

Casper Pockets $20,000 With Hope Classic Win

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Billy Casper finally got off the launching pad and onto the victory stand. A position he occupied six times in golf in 1968. A nonwinner in this new season, Casper forged from behind in the final round to capture the $122,000 Bob Hope Desert Classic Sunday at the par 36-36-72 Indian Wells Country Club. The 37-year-old Californian pocketed $20,000, a nice start in a bid to repeat as the game's leading money winner. He was tops with $205,000 last year. A last-round six-under par 66 for a 90-hole score of 345-15 under par for the marathon—was three shots in front of Dave Hill's 348 last round 66. Hill, from Evergreen, Colo., won his second largest purse, $11,400.

Pipers Didn't Get Bonus And It Was Costly Error

The Minnesota Pipers didn't get their bonus. And it was costly. In an American Basketball Association game against Indiana at home Sunday night, a Pacer was charged with fouling a Minnesota player late in the first half. It should have been Indiana's sixth team foul, which would have given Minnesota a bonus shot. However, the scorers table had neglected to record an earlier foul against Indiana, and so, the bonus situation did not take effect. Indiana won 119-118 and moved to within three percentage points of first-place Minnesota in the Eastern Division. In other ABA action Sunday, Houston outlasted Oakland 129-123 and Miami edged New Orleans 105-103. The New York at Kentucky game was postponed when the Nets could not get out of New York because of snow.

Russell Comeback Puts Celtics Back In Race

BOSTON (AP) — Bill Russell, relaxed and in high spirits after a week's rest for treatment of a knee injury and sheer exhaustion, is up to his old tricks and ready to lead his Boston Celtics in the late stages of the National Basketball Association race. The 35-year-old player-coach was Boston's unanimous choice as Comeback Player of the Week Sunday after sparking the Celtics to a 122-117 overtime victory over the Philadelphia 76ers before 6,095 hardly fans who braved a heavy snowstorm. In other NBA action Sunday, Bill Russell and Celtics pounded through 66 points, high for the league this season, as Los Angeles thumped Phoenix 134-116. Baltimore edged Atlanta 102-101. San Francisco nipped Seattle 121-120 and Milwaukee topped San Diego 117-109. Saturday, Detroit took San Diego 123-119 in overtime. New York downed Baltimore 106-100. Los Angeles trounced Phoenix 122-104. Atlanta beat Chicago 106-97 and Cincinnati edged San Francisco 117-116.

Girls Capture Third Place

Big Spring High School girls volleyball teams fared well Saturday in the Permian Basin Varsity Championship Tournament at Odessa College by bringing home third place and consolation trophies. The Stereets of the BSHS A team, captured the consolation trophy and Patty Spier was named to the All-Tournament squad. The B team won third place in the Queen Bee Tournament and Mary Lou Brown was selected for all-tourney honors. The A team dropped the first tilt to Monahans, 9-15, 15-10, 11-15, but then came back to defeat Colorado City, 6-15, 15-8, 15-5, Wink, 15-7, 15-6, and then Andrews in the trophy match, 13-15, 15-7, 15-11. The B team won its first tilt over Wink and Kermit in two games, 15-10, 15-11, and 15-9, 15-9, respectively. Seminole defeated the Big Spring team in the third round, 15-11, 9-15, 14-16, but the B team came back to take Monahans, 15-11, 15-13, for third place. Big Spring will travel to Crane today for two contests with a B game at 6:30 and varsity game at 7:30 p.m. The first home game will be Friday against Lamesa with a freshman tilt starting at 6 p.m., followed by B team and varsity contests.

Laver's Cure For Backache

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rod Laver has a new cure for a backache—five games of tennis. Laver, a 30-year-old Australian, was due on court Sunday for his best three-of-five set final against countryman Tony Roche in the Philadelphia International Indoor Open Tennis Tournament. But Laver's back ached. It seemed he pulled a muscle a few days ago and it was acting up. So Laver took a hot shower. Then he had some liniment applied. That didn't help much. The final match got under way and Laver looked like a guy with a backache. Roche, who could be the second best tennis player in the world—Laver is acknowledged No. 1—zipped to a 4-1 lead. The 23-year-old Roche appeared ready to tear up his fellow Aussie for the third time in their last four meetings. Suddenly, the tide changed. Laver began to hit the shots that made him the No. 1 pro money winner in 1968 with earnings of $70,359. Roche appeared to press a little. The strokes he had been scoring with earlier now were just out. Laver tied it at 4-4, and went on to take the set and the match by 7-5, 6-4, 6-4. His efforts earned him the $7,000 top prize, while Roche soothed his own pain with $4,000 second money.

Queens Drop Two Games

The Howard County Junior College Queens took a couple more knocks during the weekend at the Hardin-Simmons University women's invitational basketball tournament. The Queens cooled off in the stretch and dropped the opener to West Texas State 48-41, then faltered after the opening quarter in the first round of consolation to drop a tilt to Weatherford College 50-38. This left the Queens at 0-5 for the season. At 6:30 p.m. today in Abilene, the Queens will meet the Hardin - Simmons University women's team. The box scores for Saturday's games:

Ranger Dumps Cisco, 66-62

RANGER — Ranger Junior College, firming up its bid for an invitation to the Region V tournament at Big Spring next month, defeated Cisco College, 66-62, here Saturday night. The win was the 10th in 11 conference starts for the Rangers. Cisco led by a score of 33-31 at half time.

Seagren Aims At 18 Feet

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pole vault champion Bob Seagren with a new world indoor record of 17 feet 6 inches, continues to aim at 18 feet and notes, "The more times I get to jump at it, the better chance I've got." Seagren cleared the 17 1/2 at Saturday night's Times Indoor Games in Los Angeles. After this coming weekend, Olympic champion Seagren, who has cleared 17-9 outdoors, plans to compete in about five other indoor meets. He was voted the outstanding athlete in the Times meet before 13,736 at The Forum on a night when Australia's Ralph Doubell ran the second fastest indoor 1,000 meters ever.

Uclans Remedy Lew's Headache

UCLA came up with an effective pain-killer for Lew Alcinder's headache, but Santa Clara might have trouble finding a remedy for Bud Ogden's sprained ankle. A headache sent Alcinder to the bench early in the second half of UCLA's Pacific 8 Conference game against Washington State last Saturday. The 7-foot 1/2 All-American left the game after scoring 10 points, but teammates John Vallely, Lynn Shackelford, Curtis Rowe and Kenny Heitz picked up the slack as the top-ranked Bruins breezed to a 108-80 victory, their 18th without a loss this season. No. 3 Santa Clara, the nation's only unbeaten major power, extended its winning streak to 20 with an 88-60 triumph over Pepperdine. But the Broncos lost sparkplug Ogden in the first half when the high-scoring, 6-foot-6 forward twisted an ankle. The extent of the injury was not reported as of Sunday night. The two West Coast titans, heading toward a possible showdown in the NCAA Tournament, are idle this week until Saturday, when UCLA takes on Washington State by 1 1/2 games. Cougars' court and Santa Clara visits San Francisco for a West Coast Athletic Conference scrap.

Drone Caused Big Buzz In Victory

Petit Duc and Kings Favor the big races but it was Drone, the winner of an allowance test for 3-year-olds, who caused the big buzz in thoroughbred racing over the weekend. And, of course, once again a girl hockey made the news. This time it was Barbara Jo Rubin, who—hold on—announced she is planning to give up riding to get married—to a boy jockey, naturally, Willie McKeever. With the fever over 3-year-olds rising as such Kentucky Derby stepping stones as the Everglades and Flamingo growing near, Drone romped over seven furlongs in 1:22 3/5 at Hialeah last Saturday. The Claiborne Farm colt, who made his debut with a five-length score by six furlongs Jan. 17, led by only 1 1/2 lengths entering the stretch but then opened up to win by nine. The son of Sir Gaylord did not race as a 2-year-old because of knee problems. Petit Duc, owned by William T. Pascoe III, paid a winning mutual of $43 in taking the $64,000 Seminole Handicap at Hialeah, and Eitaves Farm's 6-year-old Kings Favor returned $37.20 in winning the $46,500 San Pascual Handicap at Santa Anita.

Hose Leads Team To Championship

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP) — Humphrey Hose shared in both the singles and doubles championships Sunday in leading the University of Corpus Christi to a team title in the 15th annual Pan American College Intercollegiate tennis tournament. Hose, who was seeded sixth in singles, defeated Trinity's Frank Conner 7-9, 6-2, 6-2 for the singles crown. Hose and Ramiro Benavides then defeated teammates Vicente Zarazua and Roberto Chavez 6-4, 6-4 for the doubles crown in the all UCC doubles finals.

Hawks To Meet LCC Tuesday

The Howard County Junior College Jayhawks, sitting on top of Western Conference standings with an 8-1 record, will travel to Lubbock Tuesday to battle Lubbock Christian College. LCC was upended Friday, 56-54, by the Amarillo College Badgers. Thursday the Jayhawks will host the Badgers in a contest which begins at 7:30 p.m. in HCJC gym. The Hawks are 19-3 for the season.

Baylor, A&M Leading Race

Southern Methodist ripped Arkansas 84-69 Saturday to remain just a step away from the lead in the Southwest Conference basketball race. The University of Texas and Rice will take turns this week trying to upset Baylor and Texas A&M's lockhold on first place in the Southwest Conference basketball race. The Aggies play Texas Tuesday and Rice Saturday, and Baylor meets Rice Tuesday and Texas Saturday as the second half of the SWC race begins. The co-leaders survived early scares Saturday to retain their shares of the lead with 6-1 records. Baylor trailed Texas by 23-11 in the first half before winning 71-57. A&M also had to rally to defeat Rice 90-82. It's beginning to look like a three horse race with the rest of the league presently battling below 500. Tech and Texas are closest to the break-even level with 3-4 records followed by Rice and Arkansas with 2-5 records and TCU with 1-6. Texas appeared ready to break out of a two-game losing slump when it spurted in front of Baylor. But the Bears rallied and trailed by only 35-34 at halftime. In the second half, the lead changed hands seven times and was tied four times before the Bears took the lead for good. Larry Gatewood paced Baylor with 20 points and Wayne Doyal hit 19 for Texas. Mike Heitmann and Billy Bob Barnett poured in 20 points each to lead A&M past Rice. The Aggies had to do some scrambling too. Rice led 53-50 with 11:13 to play before the Aggies scored 12 straight points to take control. Jim Naples led Rice with 18 points. SMU hit well from the field in the first half and then turned in 19 of 22 free throws in the second half to defeat the Razorbacks. The Mustangs' sensational sophomore Gene Phillips again led the Poms with 24 points. Robert McKenzie netted 20 for Arkansas. Steve Williams took up some of the scoring slack left by departed Clay Van Loosen to lead Tech to its third conference victory. Williams scored 20 and TCU's James Cash netted 18.

Uclans Remedy Lew's Headache

The Wildcats are 18-2 overall and 7-0 in the Southern Conference. Rick Mount's 31-point speed off Purdue to its sixth Big Ten Conference victory without a loss and soph Greg Jackson's rebounding and defensive work helped Illinois to the 12th ranked Ohio State for the runner-up spot at 3-2. The Boilermakers are 13-3, the Illini 14-2 for the season. Eleven-ranked Tulsa raced to its 10th straight Missouri Valley Conference victory, topping Bradley 94-80 for an 18-2 season mark. Ohio State, 12-4, was upset by Wisconsin 77-73. Kansas, No. 13, squeezed past Oklahoma 66-59 in overtime to stay within one-half game of 20th-ranked Colorado's Big Eight Conference leaders, who edged Nebraska 83-81. But 14th-ranked Columbia bowed to Penn 91-81 and slipped two full games behind front-runner Princeton in the Ivy League title chase. The Tigers beat Cornell 67-57 for an 8-0 Ivy mark. Duquesne, No. 15, throttled Holy Cross 98-80 Sunday for its 15th victory in 17 starts. Saturday night, No. 16 New Mexico State beat Northern Illinois 63-59. Marquette riddled Eastern Michigan 82-58. No. 18 New Mexico got by Arizona 79-74 and No. 19 Dayton shaded Chicago Loyola 70-68 in overtime.

Truitt Is Facing Air Piracy Count

PLATTSBURGH, N.Y. (AP)—The President of the late U.S. Vice President Alben Barkley is back in the United States and facing charges of air piracy and kidnapping.

But Alben W. Truitt, 35, says he is guilty only of foolish conduct in events which led to him being charged with forcing the pilot of a chartered Cessna 177 to fly him from Key West, Fla., to Cuba last Oct. 23.

The FBI took Truitt into custody Saturday at the U.S.-Canadian border in nearby Champlain after he withdrew an appeal to an order deporting him from Canada.

Truitt, being held in lieu of $100,000 bail, was to be arraigned here today.

Truitt was ordered held in Clinton County jail after a hearing Sunday before U.S. Commissioner Joseph W. Kelley was

Berlin Travel Ban Denounced

BERLIN (AP) — West Germany's presidential electors are expected to fly to West Berlin for their March 5 election to evade new East German restrictions on surface travel to the Communist-surrounded city.

ADN, the East German news agency, said Sunday the restrictions become effective Feb. 15. It made no mention of the air links to West Berlin, 110 miles inside East Germany, since the air lanes are controlled by the United States, Britain, France and the Soviet Union, the four postwar occupation powers.

The ban affects the 1,036 delegates to the Federal Assembly, about 300 aides and assistants and all members of the West German armed forces. The assembly is to elect a successor to West German President Heinrich Lübke, who is retiring.

Representatives of the United States, Britain and France, whose occupation of West Berlin is still technically in force, were expected to issue a protest to the Soviet Union. A spokesman in Bonn said it would be "firm but low-key."

The West German government denounced the travel ban as "aggressive and peace-disrupting... a new violation of international law." A Bonn spokesman said: "The federal government is determined, together with its allies, to take all necessary measures to strengthen the viability of Berlin."

West Germany holds its presidential election and certain other governmental events in West Berlin to demonstrate the Bonn government's contention that the former German capital is a West German state. The East Germans usually complain about this and frequently think up some retaliatory measure like the travel ban to underline their contention that West Berlin has a special territorial status and is not part of West Germany.

Superjet Airliner Flies First Time

EVERETT, Wash. (AP) — The huge Boeing 747 jet airliner designed to carry up to 490 passengers flew for the first time Sunday and but for a single flaw its pilot called the test trip "absolutely ideal."

"It's a pilot's dream... it flies like an arrow," declared pilot Jack Waddell, 45, as he stepped from the cockpit of the $20 million, 355-ton prototype of the new fleet of superjets.

aligned wing flap—forced the jet to return to Paine Field here after 1 hour, 15 minutes of a scheduled 2½-hour flight. The trouble was discovered 34 minutes into the flight.

The faulty flap—termed later by Waddell as a "minor discrepancy"—was discovered by Flight Engineer Jess Wallick at about the same time Waddell radioed feeling "a bump" during tests of the wing control system.

The 747 is about 2½ times larger than the biggest jetliners now in service, capable of flying 6,000 miles nonstop at a cruising speed of 625 miles per hour.

Its dimensions are massive—tipped on end it equals a 20-story building—and its four giant jet engines are amazingly quiet and smoke-free.

As Waddell applied conservative throttle, the jet appeared to lumber painfully along the runway looking deceptively slow for its takeoff speed of 196 m.p.h.

On takeoff and landing it appeared to hover gracefully like a kite rather than streak through the air as do its Boeing predecessors, the 707 and 727.

"If future flights are like this one," Waddell quipped at a news conference, "it really won't be much of a challenge."

The flaw—an improperly

Right To Wear Beard Decision

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The U.S. Constitution gives Donald Oliver, a bus driver, the right to wear a beard, says an arbiter.

Oliver, 35, was fired last year because of a no-beard rule of the Southern California Rapid Transit District. His union and the bus company went to an arbiter.

In a ruling Sunday, the arbiter said the bus line's ruling violates the First and 14th amendments citing liberties of Americans.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South you hold:

♠A 10 ♥KQ5 ♦QJ74 ♣KJ63

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1♦ Pass 1♥ Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—One no trump. You have adequate support for partner's major suit, a raise is not recommended because your hand is an absolute minimum and of a balanced nature.

Q. 2—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠AK9852 ♥K5 ♦J3 ♣K105

The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East

1♠ Pass 2♥ Pass

2♠ Pass 2NT Pass

What do you bid now?

A.—Four spades. You have previously been compelled to sign off with a hand that is somewhat above minimum. Nevertheless, partner has shown a hand of distinct value when he proceeded to two no trump. The partnership should, therefore, have sufficient assets to warrant a game try and, with this somewhat unbalanced hand, we suggest a jump to game in spades.

Q. 3—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠6 ♥43 ♦KQ1097642 ♣54

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South

1NT Pass ?

What do you bid?

A.—Three no trump. The eight-card diamond suit will produce seven tricks for partner for, if he lacks the ace, he must have three small diamonds inasmuch as no trump openings are not sanctioned with a worthless doubton. Remember that hands containing eight-card suits do not come within the provisions of the ordinary laws.

Q. 4—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠AK54 ♥♦KQJ6 ♣Q1083

The bidding has proceeded:

East South West North

1♦ Pass Pass 1♥

Dble. ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Redouble. The fact that you have but a singleton heart should not deter you from making this move. You have sufficient in high card values to render partner's contract safe. The important consideration is to have yourself elected temporary captain of this team, which the redouble will do. Such action beseeches partner to let you have the next bid and, if the adversities, in an effort to extricate themselves from the redouble, bid into your hand, you will be in position to inflict a punishing double.

Q. 5—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠AKQ98 ♦K1094 ♣K862

The bidding has proceeded:

East South West North

1♥ Dble. Pass 2♠

2♥ 2♠ 3♥ Dble.

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—While partner's double is clearly intended for penalties, there is grave doubt as to the propriety of leaving it in, inasmuch as the opponents have agreed on hearts, it is not to be expected that a stinging penalty will be inflicted upon the non-vulnerable enemy. There seems to be a better chance to score points by reaching for game, and our suggested call is four clubs.

Q. 6—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠K1062 ♥KQ108 ♦J9 ♣KQ10

The bidding has proceeded:

East South West North

1♥ Pass Pass Dble.

Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Our preference is for a pass. Your hand should surely produce five to six tricks in defense and, if partner has a good enough hand to yield a game, you should be able to defeat the adversities 800 points. If your partner's double is light, you may have no game and yet a profit by way of a penalty is assured.

Q. 7—As South, vulnerable, you hold:

♠A62 ♥J2 ♦J883 ♣A763

The bidding has proceeded:

West North East South

1♦ 2♦ 3♦ ?

What do you bid?

A.—Your holding of two aces, opposite a partner who has made a game demand bid, should persuade you that there is a slam in the hand, but there is no need to rush matters and a mere bid of four clubs is in order. If partner raises to five, you may either bid six clubs or show the ace of spades.

Q. 8—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:

♠Q65 ♥K943 ♦J10982 ♣5

The bidding has proceeded:

North East South West

1♠ Pass 1♦ Pass

1♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?

A.—Pass. With only six high card points you have your full duty when you kept the bidding open.

Nixon Remains Extra Day At Florida White House

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Cheered by cloudless skies, President Nixon extended until late today a Florida weekend mixing foreign policy talks with relaxation.

Nixon seemed sure to return to Washington Sunday when the day dawned foggy and drizzly. But the overcast moved away and better weather prompted the chief executive to take advantage of the congressional recess and remain an extra day.

The Florida White House said that in Nixon's absence, Vice President Spiro T. Agnew would preside over a meeting today of the Urban Affairs Council. Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York was to outline his suggestions for an overhaul in parceling federal aid to the states.

Nixon Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the President and Rockefeller discussed the proposals earlier.

Huddling intermittently with Nixon in nearby Key Biscayne were his two principal foreign policy aides, Secretary of State William P. Rogers and National Security Affairs Adviser Henry A. Kissinger. Both will accompany him on his five-nation tour of Europe that begins Feb. 23. While here, they held a series of conferences, the latest Sunday afternoon.

Now Possible To Shrink Painful Hemorrhoids

And Promptly Stop The Itching, Relieve Pain In Most Cases.

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a medication with the ability, in most cases — to promptly stop itching, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids.

Tests by doctors proved that in case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction of the inflamed hemorrhoids took place.

The secret is Preparation H. There's no other formula like it! Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

At Least 37 Persons Die, Wrecks, Gunfire Leading

By The Associated Press

Accidents on Texas streets and highways led the way over the weekend as at least 37 persons died in violent deaths, an Associated Press tabulation revealed.

The survey, conducted from 6 p.m. Friday until midnight Sunday, counted 21 persons killed in traffic accidents, 12 persons dying from gunfire, a stabbing, two drownings and one person beaten to death.

Cleovester Perry, 33, of Dallas was shot to death Saturday night as he walked along a Dallas street. A witness told police Perry was shot in the back from a weapon fired from a passing car containing three men and a woman.

SHOT TO DEATH

A South Dallas grocer was shot to death late Saturday night at a drive-in grocery store where he worked. Police said James C. Maxie, 33, died from a shotgun blast in a shootout with another man. The other man was listed in fair condition at a Dallas hospital with four gunshot wounds.

A 7-year-old San Antonio boy, Rudy Ybarra, apparently drowned Friday night in the San Antonio River in the city's downtown section. His body was found Sunday night by park rangers.

A two-car collision near the Rio Grande Valley city of Los Fresno Sunday night killed Severo Trejo, 51, of that city. His car struck a telephone pole at the intersection of Farm Roads 1841 and 2480.

John B. Cheatham III, 52, of San Marcos and Barbara Lynn Corder, 19, a Southwest Texas State College student from Killen were killed Sunday when a car and station wagon crashed about 12 miles south of San Marcos on Ranch Road 32.

ARREST THREE

The body of Henry Garza Jr., 18, missing since late Friday, was found by San Antonio police Sunday. Young Garza apparently was the victim of a beating. Police arrested three youths and booked them for murder.

Grace Long, a controversial figure a few years ago in a Brenham vice probe, was found shot to death Saturday. Brenham officers said a .38 caliber pistol was found near the body. A justice of the peace withheld a verdict pending an investigation.

An injunction ordering the woman to close a bawdy house was issued several years ago following a grand jury vice probe. Later, the injunction was upheld by the Texas Supreme Court.

Herschel Leon Dillon, 40, was shot to death Saturday night at his Galena Park home. Police charged his wife, Mrs. Doris Dillon, 47, with murder.

ABILENE WRECK

Darrell C. Bradshaw of Abilene was killed Sunday when his auto skidded out of control and overturned on US 277 about 18 miles southwest of his home town.

The collision of a pickup truck and an automobile at Lubbock Saturday left Dolores McGuire, 30, of that city dead.

Authorities said an autopsy report Saturday revealed that Jerome L. Stempier, 34, of El Paso, did not die of wounds suffered in an automobile accident Friday night. Police said Stempier died of a .38-caliber bullet wound in the head, and they took a Las Cruces, N.M., woman into custody for questioning.

Prisoners Swap Considered Key To Secret Peace Talks

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

PARIS (AP) — Exchanges of prisoners is considered the most likely subject to be taken up first at secret negotiations behind the scenes at the Vietnam peace talks if and when they take place.

A flock of unconfirmed rumors have suggested for the past week that such secret talks already have started. The weekly conference sessions are deadlocked because Hanoi and the Viet Cong want to talk about the political future of South Vietnam while the United States and Saigon insist on discussing military de-escalation measures. Prisoner exchange is one subject which Western observers think could be taken up in private without either side compromising its position on how the conference should proceed.

HOLDING YANKS

The North Vietnamese are holding several hundred American airmen, and the Viet Cong is believed to hold a few dozen Americans in jungle prison camps. The Saigon government holds thousands of North Vietnamese regulars and Viet Cong "suspects," including all captured by the Americans.

North Vietnam has consistently refused to provide a list of the American prisoners it holds, as required by the Geneva conventions, or to allow Red Cross inspection of its prison camps.

The American negotiators in Paris want very much to talk to the North Vietnamese about these prisoners — to obtain names, to arrange shipments of mail and food parcels and finally to negotiate the prisoners' release.

Arranging an exchange will be complicated by the fact that all the prisoners on the allied side are in South Vietnamese hands, while Hanoi has very few South Vietnamese prisoners. This rules out any direct prisoner exchange between the United States and North Vietnam, particularly as Hanoi has never acknowledged that its troops are fighting in South Vietnam.

STRICTLY SECRET

To negotiate openly about prisoners thus would constitute a significant admission by Hanoi. For this reason the North Vietnamese might be willing to take up the subject only in strictly secret contacts with the United States.

Hanoi would hardly allow the Saigon government's delegation to take part in such talks unless the National Liberation Front's delegation also joins in. Yet Saigon is vigorously opposed to any recognition of the NLF as an equal negotiator.

Another problem will be the fate of any captured North Vietnamese who don't want to go back to their Communist country. In the Korean armistice negotiations at Panmunjom, the Chinese Communists and North Koreans delayed the proceedings for weeks with their insistence that all prisoners must be returned, including those who objected.

Toe-Touching Tips Welcome

CHARLOTTE (AP) — Two orthopedic surgeons say you won't be cheating if you bend your knees in toe-touching exercises.

Leaning over without bending your knees puts a tremendous strain on the lower part of the back, one says.

Another says failure to bend the knees could cause a severe back muscle spasm.

And Charlotte physical education teachers are advising their pupils not to keep the knees straight.

"This exercise stretches the hamstring muscles behind the knees, and a child's hamstring muscles don't need stretching," says Miss Risale Bryant, director of elementary health and physical education for the school system.

YAACOV HESS

United Jewish Appeal Speech

Yaacov Hess, Israeli consul-general who heads the Israeli consular offices in Houston, spoke here Sunday. He was a guest at the home of Dr. Jack Margolis, chief of the department of medicine at the VA Hospital.

Friends of Dr. Margolis were invited to hear Hess discuss current Mid-East problems and in support of the national ongoing United Jewish Appeal Drive, which promotes social welfare both in the United States and in Israel.

Hess was born in Germany, but has spent the greatest part of his active career in an Israeli kibbutz, which is a frontier border out-post agricultural village. He was active with the British command in Palestine during World War II, and later served in the Israeli Defense Army as a platoon commander during the War of Independence in 1947. He joined the Israeli Foreign Service in 1953 and has served as Consul in Copenhagen, Denmark. Hess has been stationed at the Israeli Consular Offices in Houston, since 1966.

He was a member of the Law Faculty at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, and is a member of the Israeli Bar Association.

Nixon, Dirksen Steel Split Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon and his party's Senate leader, Everett Dirksen, appear headed toward a split over a proposal to put quotas on steel imports.

Nixon's "free trade" declaration of Feb. 6 and his failure to mention steel as a special import problem caused Dirksen to reverse his opposition to a bill to impose quotas.

Dirksen said he changed his position because, as a representative of Illinois, a major steel producing state, "I cannot stand aside and permit imports to capture an ever-increasing share of our domestic market." Sen. Vance Hartke, sponsor of the quota bill, said he welcomed Dirksen's support.

He said he regards agreements worked out by the State Department with Japan and the Common Market countries of Western Europe as recognition "that foreign exporters can't invade our market with impunity."

He said the agreements are aimed at cutting steel imports back from the 17.9 million tons of 1968 to around 14 million. Dirksen said the imports last year accounted for 16.7 per cent of domestic consumption.

A Devotional For The Day

Come to him, to that living stone, rejected by men but in God's sight chosen and precious. (I Peter 2:4, RSV)
PRAYER: O Lord, revive the world, beginning with us who have committed ourselves to Christ. Hear our prayers that we may present His gospel to others and lead them to accept Christ as their Savior. The glory and praise be Thine. Amen.

Needed Revisions

The Texas Legislature should give serious and generally favorable attention to the family code revision, introduced as House Bill 53 by Rep. Dick Cory of Victoria and based on recommendations of the family law section of the State Bar.
Texas' family-relations law is incongruously outmoded by social change since most of its provisions were originally enacted. For example, the bill would abolish common-law marriages, initial approval of which was a necessity in frontier conditions long since vanished.
Among the more enlightened proposals in the Cory bill is for a long-overdue reform in Texas divorce law. Under present law either the husband or wife must be shown at fault for the failure of the marriage. More than 90 per cent of the divorces in this state are uncontested, which indicates that in many divorces the "blame" is shared, really a case of intolerable incompatibility, but that one accepts the at-fault charge just to overcome the technical barrier in the law.
The Cory bill would provide that divorces could be granted if discord or conflict, is shown, with no reasonable expectation of reconciliation. The latter point could be determined by judicial authority to require marriage counseling and a 60-day delay after a divorce petition is filed.
That would be a civilized law, relieving divorce case parties of an arbitrary stigma of guilt where no socially offensive fault exists. And the weight of sociological evidence is that children are harmed more by living with incompatible parents than by divorce. The proposed law also would allow more equitable property settlements.
In the revision of state family-relations law, the Legislature should be concerned directly only with the welfare of the individuals and indirectly with the welfare of society.

Breath Of Fresh Air

Perhaps there is a breath of fresh air in sight. A wave of reaction, including summary cancellation or replacement by several stations, has forced the ABC-TV network to take a second look at its show, "Turn On."
Intended as a copy of "Laugh In," which isn't exactly lily white when it comes to double-meaning jokes or purple innuendos, "Turn On" was so ribald that station managers as well as viewers termed it "vulgar" and "dirty."
Reviewers took a dim view of it, and one station official wired ABC:

"If your naughty little boys have to write dirty words on the walls, please don't use our walls." A Denver program manager took one look at the program and cancelled. A Dallas station subbed another program because it was deemed not suitable for family viewing.
Even the thick-headed network executives got the message. They must have concluded that they had gone too far. And this is a hopeful sign; perhaps the public is getting fed up with crudity and border-line obscenity on a medium that penetrates into the family circle.

Okinawa

Valuable Jumping-Off Point For GIs

By JOHN RODERICK
Associated Press Writer
CAMP HANSEN, Okinawa (AP) — The garish signs reflect the nostalgia and the past of the U.S. Marines; "China Garden," "Club Tokyo Rose," "Pizza Pie."
They decorate the modest building fronts of Kin, a frontier-style Okinawan town at the main gate of this big Marine center, which every month processes 60,000 "Dog-faces" moving to and from Vietnam battle areas.
DOWN THE street another sign speaks of their off-duty moments: "Club China Night; takusan young nesan." Freely translated from the Japanese it means: "Lots of young elder sisters."
Inside Camp Hansen young Marines mingle with tough old sergeants.
In one of the offices a poster proclaims: "This vacation visit beautiful Vietnam..." The illustration shows bearded Marines charging into battle.
Inside an enormous hangar, 76,500 Marine duffbags and handbags, some upright, some slouching, attest to the movement of America's fighting men. Left here for safekeeping by those en route to Vietnam, they contain some personal belongings and the green and khaki uniforms they do not need "down south," where dungarees and jungle uniforms are used.
THE BAGS ARE to be picked up on the way back home. Some find their way to hospital wards here and in America; others make a lonely journey to the homes of "next of kin."
The Marine operation is one facet of the military activity in support of the Vietnam front engaged in by the United States on Okinawa. Some facets are highly visible — like the B52s roaring off from the Air Force's Kadena Airbase. Others are behind the scenes — like the placing of tiny transistors in electronics equipment at the 2nd Logistical Command.

Together, the men, materiel and bases represent a multibillion-dollar U.S. investment in a onetime Japanese prefecture whose return to Japan is now being demanded.
While politicians and diplomats debate the question the Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines go about their jobs. Until the United States gives it back to Japan, Okinawa will continue to be the most valuable U.S. jumping-off point for American fighting men in Asia. It has that status because it is run by the Army Department free of any annoyance from the population.
Lt. Gen. James Lampert is high commissioner and administrator of the Ryukyus chain of islands.
MANY THINGS come under his military hat. The 30th Artillery Brigade operates Hawk and Nike-Hercules missiles bases in the islands. The 2nd Logistical Command repairs radio, radar, teletype, telephone and radio-relay electronics equipment in use in Vietnam as well as similar equipment employed here. The U.S. Army Medical Center has a hospital, the largest and most modern medical facility in the Western Pacific. There are also the 1st Special Forces group of Green Berets; the 7th Psychological Operations group, grinding out propaganda aimed at the Vietnam enemy; and Fort Buckner, which embraces all the land leased or rented by the Army in the Ryukyus.
The 13th Air Division — headed by Maj. Gen. Jerry D. Page — is the main Air Force unit and 5,200-acre Kadena Airbase its biggest installation. A plane lands or takes off every three minutes on its parallel 9,000-foot and 12,000-foot runways. Some, like F105 thunderjets and F102 Delta Daggers, are on patrol duty. Others, like the B52s, are headed for action in Vietnam.

Billy Graham
Why do you speak of sin in the heart in most of your sermons?
Because sin is in every heart and because it is man's greatest problem. I have recently made a study of what Jesus had to say about the source of the evil things we do and think. He tells us it is not what is without a man which hurts him, rather it is the sin within which gives its expression in impurity, lying, murder, jealousy, hatred, pride, and many other ugly things. He makes it very plain that these things spring from the evil which is inherent in the heart.
Jesus is much like a good doctor who first of all makes a proper diagnosis, then proceeds to give the medicine of the treatment designed to cure the disease. He tells us that our trouble is sin and He spells out what the manifestations of sin are. Then, He tells us what the cure is. It was because of this terrible thing, called sin, that God had to send His Son into the world to redeem it. I am not preaching about this because I enjoy it. But the Gospel message must include God's own diagnosis — and His cure.

THE NAVY, a smaller group, meets the needs of 7th Fleet units pulling into Okinawan ports, operates target drones and conducts antisubmarine operations.
Though 50,000 U.S. military men are on Okinawa, relations with the Okinawans are described as generally satisfactory. There are the usual off-duty brawls and occasional crimes, but not any more than those occurring in military areas elsewhere.
Stoic Tribesman
PORT SHEPSTONE, South Africa (AP) — Passers-by in this coastal Natal province town gaped as an African tribesman marched up to the local hospital with a spear sticking through his chest.
A lorry driver who stopped to assist him said the African had walked more than 10 miles with the spear protruding from the right side of his chest after being wounded in a fight with a neighbor over a cattle dispute.
"It is fantastic how he stood the pain. He did not seem at all perturbed," the lorry driver said.

The Threat Of Stock-And-Bond Thefts

NEW YORK (AP) — The nearly incredible behind-the-scenes confusion in some brokerage houses, where stacks of stocks worth millions of dollars cannot be identified with the owners, could become a paradise to thieves.
That is the judgement of a top officer in one of the largest underwriters of insurance for brokers. Paradise might, in fact, already be here, he suggested.
"THE CHAOS is beyond description and is creating enormous opportunities for thieves," he said. "We have been extraordinarily lucky so far, but we're extremely worried."
Insurance rates have risen, some business is being declined by insurers, and informal warnings have been issued that protection might be refused altogether. "Enormous liabilities are hanging over our heads," said the insurer.
EARLIER this month representatives of the banking and securities industries formed a committee to study the thefts and are expected to make their report within one month. This would require a rather hurried study.
Some thefts may not be uncovered, because some firms are believed to be accepting the losses rather than to suffer the publicity. Some securities may be listed as misplaced until, months later, it is realized they have been stolen.
The certificates may have been spirited out in the inner suit pocket of a worker's suit coat, then taken to banks by thieves or their cohorts and used as collateral for loans. The loans remain unpaid.
THE INITIAL stage of the industry investigation is to define the problem. The second stage, if there is one, will be to set up a program to upgrade brokerage house security.
Behind the industry activity, however, are several prods:
The New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Crime has set up offices in the financial district to study the same problem. The Securities and Exchange Commission and other public agencies are concerned also. And there are the insurers.
"If corrective action is not taken the roof will fall in on the brokers in six months and then they'll be left without any insurance whatever," said the high placed insurance executive, who asked not to be identified.
"RIGHT NOW a professional thief would have an absolute heyday and it would take six to eight months to discover the theft. We might even have $500,000 to $5 million of liabilities we don't even know about."
The situation described by the insurer is a combination of at least two major failures of the brokerage business: disorder in record keeping and inability to thoroughly check the background of new employees.

White Collar Blues

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:
The older you are the more likely you are to observe your democratic duties, such as voting regularly. A survey found that people over 65, by a 5-2 margin, voted more often than those under 30.
Speaking of age, one reason we may shrink from it is because it shrinks us. If you are 40 years old, you are not as tall as you were at 20. Furthermore, in another 20 years you will shrink another half-inch.
WE TEND TO speak of any winter storm as a blizzard, but the U.S. Weather Bureau says you don't have a blizzard unless you have winds of 35 miles an hour, much snow, and a temperature of 20 degrees Fahrenheit or lower. A severe blizzard, the bureau says, is marked by snow, 45 mile an hour winds or higher, and a temperature of 10 degrees or less.
What to do with the things we're through with is becoming a major problem in this country. We have to dump or discard or nearly so.
Who is the head of the family? It would seem to me to be high time to lay down the law. Some older folks (although 68 isn't so very old these days) have to be given some rules to live by, just as children do, if they cannot establish such rules for themselves.
You say that "we all concur" that the problem exists. Then why not have a family council and decide among yourselves to refuse to honor any remarks from your "problem parent" that can incite any friction?
Honoring one's parents is only right — but it means respecting them for what they have done well. It does not mean that it is either right or sensible to let a troublemaker get away with it.
There is, to the best of my knowledge, no particular name for the type of emotional disturbance that is involved here, but it might not be amiss to keep an eye out for any intensification of it that could require psychiatric attention, or even hospitalization. A Few Points For Happy Living

Here are a dozen hints I would pass on to the graduate plunging into the main stream of life:
(1) Save a little money. There's nothing like a bank account to buoy your self-confidence; (2) Adopt and expand upon a hobby — even bird watching can be a wonderful release; (3) Regard yourself as equal to any man or woman alive — even though some snobs would have you believe otherwise; (4) Buy land when young, if it is nothing but a vacant lot. Society can print more money and can certainly make more people but it can't create any more land;
(5) STUDY THE dictionary and a good encyclopedia regularly; (6) Realize that, in the other sex, loyalty, diligence, humor and intelligence surpass all the other attributes like beauty and cleverness;
(7) Develop a poise and a self-assurance that other people will grow to admire (if only secretly); (8) Write frequent letters to friends;
(9) LIVE WITHIN your means; (10) Cultivate your sense of humor. You'll need it all your life. And a sense of humor doesn't mean enjoying yourself while hurting others.
(11) Strain is perpetual so play down that daily crises that are almost certain to arise. Nothing is bigger than life. Remember that everyone else is beset with problems, too; (12)

Cherish your work, for it will be a blissful refuge.
ONE THING and another: Add to the list of pet peeves: The radio announcer who, while it is raining, will come on strong with the prediction "there's a 70 per cent chance of rain today."
Traffic experts say the safest drivers are women between the ages of 41 and 53. Since it's hard to get a woman to admit she is over 35, very few fit into the category, however.
KNOW WHY a broken mirror is supposed to bring bad luck? One authority says it is because ancient man thought that his mirrored reflection was his soul — and a fractured mirror hurt his chances in the hereafter.
I realize we've come a long way, now that science has developed a space ship capable of circling the moon, but there are still things that haven't been mastered. For instance, no one has developed a porcupine with soft quills or a rattlesnake with rattles that chime.
Have you wondered, as have I, in the wake of the tremendous growth of air freight, the time will come when the airlines will phase out the passenger business — just as the railroads have done?

The Responsibility For Neglect

WASHINGTON — In the Senate Caucus Room the other day, I remembered Judge Bumblebrain, long dead but unforgettable. But what did he have to do with these hearings before the Select Committee on Nutrition and Related Human Needs?
Bumblebrain, as we called him, sat in a Circuit Court where I was a reporter, and they let him hear mostly juvenile and husband-wife cases on non-support.
HE WAS a political appointment, and knew little law. He had a memory like a hole-in-the-pocket. Attorneys often groaned audibly when his summaries showed he'd lost track of who was plaintiff and what were the facts of the case.
But he had an untrained, unguided, intuitive sense of informal justice, and this often served very well in the cases he sat on. That is why he came back to mind in this Nutrition hearing. One day almost 25 years ago, a bunch of the boys had been whooping it up, and ended their spree before his bench. They were juveniles, but they'd stoned the milkman, broken street lamps and put pins into doorbells, some time between two and four of a morning.
JUDGE BUMBLEBRAIN mumbled to his clerk, and several men and women came forward. He began passing out fines and suspended sentences in what appeared to be a haze of mistaken identity. The persons in front of him were not the culprits. They were the parents of the young culprits. The Judge was holding the adults responsible for having their kids loose on the streets instead of home in bed.
IN THE SENATE CAUCUS witness-chair a learned professor, Dr. Mark Hegsted of Harvard University, was being questioned on what to do about diet deficiency in infants below the age of four. Not so much questioned, in fact, as being told by Sen. Mondale (D., Minn.) that there ought to be a law to make baby-food merchants and the government responsible for the care and feeding of infants. At one point, when the Senator suggested that most pre-school children of the poor were "irreparably damaged" before the government got them onto the school lunch programs, Dr. Hegsted had to calm him down. It wasn't all that bad, the professor said.
But it was bad enough, and I thought of how old Bumblebrain would have heard such a case in his juvenile court. I could envision long rows of delinquent parents, those logically and naturally responsible for their children's welfare, standing before the judgment seat.
ON ANOTHER DAY, almost a quarter century past, the Judge was hearing non-support complaints, including one by a large Negro woman. She couldn't produce a husband, but the Judge summoned a long-legged youth, her son, and asked him if he couldn't help support his mother. When the youth seemed in doubt, Bumblebrain said: "Ten days in the House of Correction. And maybe you'll learn how."
Next to the Caucus Room witness-chair came Dr. Charles Upton Loew, American Academy of Pediatrics. He recommended "a continuing surveillance on the nutrition of our people... be assigned to a single agency of government... This agency must have the responsibility and resources to relieve... Then, a new generation of American children will appear, with enhanced capacity for education, relieved of Poverty, and marching with the Legions of our Land to our Goal of Plenty for All."
YES, MAYBE womb-to-tomb Federal welfare, with "surveillance," is the answer.
On the other hand, I was remembering how old Bumblebrain used to throw the book at parents who neglected their children, and at children who neglected their parents.
But that was a long while ago. And sometimes, it seems, in another country.

No Authority To Restrict Advertising

WASHINGTON — Although the Federal Communications Commission has proposed that a ban be placed on cigarette advertising over television and radio, there is doubt whether any such step can be legal unless a new constitutional amendment, covering such a prohibition, is adopted by both houses of Congress and three-fourths of the states.
The FCC has jurisdiction over communication facilities, but it is primarily for the purpose of regulating their operations through the allocation of channels and frequencies. It has no authority to tell either television or radio stations what they may say in their programs. This is protected under the First Amendment of the Constitution, which guarantees the right of free speech and freedom of the press.
THERE ARE many things being sold today which could be injurious to the health of the citizens if used unwisely. The argument being made against cigarette advertising is based on a detailed report by the U.S. Surgeon General issued in 1964 declaring that "cigarette smoking is a health hazard of sufficient importance in the United States to warrant appropriate remedial action." He told a Senate committee in 1965 that, "in general, the greater the number of cigarettes smoked daily, the higher the death rate."
BUT IF the executive branch of the government or any of the independent agencies or the Congress has the power to prevent the advertising of cigarettes by radio and television, it also could conceivably attempt to prevent similar advertising from being presented through the printed word.
If the federal government, without any constitutional amendment, can lawfully exclude the advertising of any article which might be injurious, then the sale of a variety of things could be barred by a simple edict from Washington.
WHETHER CIGARETTE smoking is or is not dangerous to health is not the prime issue. What is actually involved is the power of Congress or the Federal Communications Commission or any other agency to issue regulations which determine what may or may not be advertised for sale to the public. If it is lawful to manufacture and sell the article itself, then the advertising is a proper exercise of the right to conduct a business through the sale of such products by any of the available methods of marketing.
TO BE CONSISTENT with previous precedents, the way to deal with the cigarette problem would be to prohibit all sales of cigarettes. If public opinion desires such a thing, the only legal means really to accomplish it is to adopt a constitutional amendment prohibiting the manufacture, sale or transportation of all allegedly harmful articles.
The Federal Communications Commission says that it is not going to put this order into effect until June 30, so as to give Congress an opportunity to review the action. If, however, Congress does nothing about it and the FCC, by formal order, seeks to prohibit the advertising of cigarettes on television and radio, then the courts will have to decide immediately whether such an order is constitutional.
IT IS UNLIKELY that the Supreme Court of the United States will assert that a federal agency has the right to interfere with freedom of speech on television and radio by suppressing the advertising of certain products, while at the same time these articles may be advertised in newspapers and magazines as well as on billboards, by mail or by other means of directly reaching the public.

Graham's Office Machines Help With Income Tax

With income tax time just around the corner, Graham's Office Machines, 417 E. 3rd, has just the adding machine to help any taxpayer speed through his form.

Charles O. Graham, owner and manager, has been in the office machine business almost 27 years, has the experience to analyze a business and its needs, then determine which office equipment will best help increase the efficiency of the business' operation.

The Underwood-Olivetti Divisumma 24 is a high speed calculator with rotary printing and a memory, which is entirely a new concept and design, according to Graham. It not only performs, automatically, each of the four basic arithmetic operations, Graham said, but it also performs them in combined operations, without the re-entry of intermediate figures. By providing a combination of features and abilities never before achieved in a desk calculator, the Underwood-Olivetti Divisumma 24 presents a major advance in speed, accuracy and ease of operation.

ADDING MACHINES AT GRAHAM'S
Just the right thing to help with filling out tax forms

The extra ability designed into the machine increases production and reduces the cost of figuring in a wide range of applications. Along with the sales of office machines, Graham stands ready to repair machines in your office that are malfunctioning. Graham backs his repair department with highly qualified and trained repairmen, who serve all makes and models of office machines. A call to 263-6901 will have Charles Graham or one of his

Big Employment Agency Offers Shortcuts To Hiring

With the labor supply becoming tighter, the Big Spring Employment agency can help employers find qualified employees for almost any job or position.

Every employer has the right to demand the best qualified person who can be hired, considering the availability of applicants, the requirements of the job and the salary to be offered.

With this creed in mind, the Big Spring Employment Agency has been helping many Big Spring citizens since its beginning in 1961.

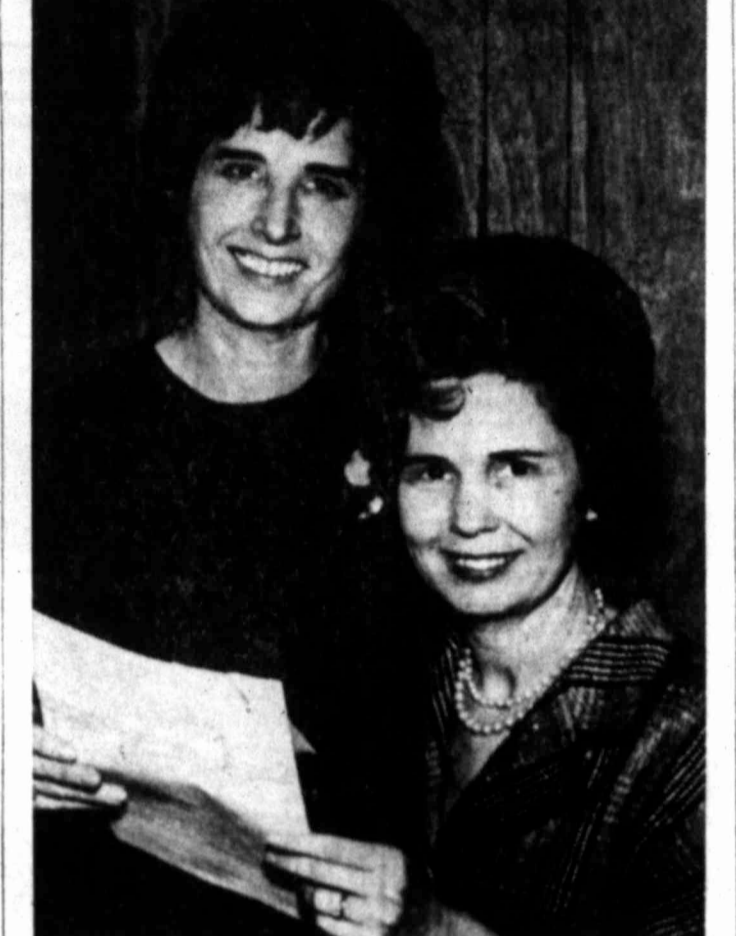

Every employer, at one time or another, has to make a decision regarding his employee needs. The owner of a business or the personnel manager is faced with many decisions — what type of persons are needed, what skills must they possess and how much should they be paid.

The easiest way to assure the selection of the best personnel available is to interview and hire them through the Big Spring Employment Agency.

The services of the Big Spring Employment Agency are free to the employer. The services actually save the employer money, plus time and headaches. By using the agency's technical services, the personnel manager is free to solve other problems confronting him. To assure Big Spring employers the best job applicants available, many hours of hard work goes on behind the scenes at the Big Spring Employment Agency, from the time an employer calls in a job opening until it is successfully filled. Job applicants are prescreened so that the employers will not have to waste time interviewing people who are not qualified to fill the position.

PERSONNEL SPECIALISTS
Ruby Taroni (left) and Sue Brown, have qualified applicants ready to fill many jobs

When a business hires through the agency, fewer people are rejected because only qualified people are sent for interviews. All the services are handled on a confidential basis.

The Big Spring Employment Agency is affiliated with National Personnel Associates, a nation-wide association of employment agencies. This affiliation works to the advantage of both the employer and job applicant. Applicants desiring employment in other parts of the state or county can be referred for interview through association members. The employer has a wider field to select from since the requirements for the need of his situation can be examined and applicants referred here by other agencies.

Princeton Is Set For Coed Invasion

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — The all male bastion at Princeton University is getting set for a welcome invasion—800 young college girls.

Princeton, a male sanctuary for 223 years, will host the girls from 30 colleges for five days beginning Sunday. The girls are being brought under a student sponsored experiment in coeducation. They were selected by a 10-student committee from more than 2,000 applicants.

The girls will live in dormitory rooms voluntarily given up by the Princetonians.

New Harley-Davidson At Thixton Motorcycle Shop

Cecil Thixton Motorcycle and Bicycle Shop, 908 W. 3rd, announces the 1969 Harley-Davidson Sportster, the motorcycle built for the purist.

The Sportster has a 900cc V-Twin engine and is the world's fastest stock motorcycle, according to Thixton. The sleek vehicle represents the ultimate in motorcycle experiences. A Sportster rider is one who has graduated by steps from smaller bikes, he said.

The two versions (with and without electric starting) of the Sportster offers a host of safety features, including full visibility side reflectors. The hydraulic front forks and racing style rear shocks make up a suspension system that contributes to the Sportster's reputation as the Crown Prince of motorcycles.

At drag strips throughout the nation, the Sportster is nailing down trophies and records. The 1968 model of the Sportster was the American Hot Rod Association's Top Eliminator with speeds of 128 mph.

The 1969 Sportster already holds the speed record at Bonneville, Thixton said.

Better Milk

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — A Harvard University nutritionist says infants fed cow's milk and baby foods get up to 10 times as much salt as those who are breast-fed.

That much salt may be dangerous for a baby, Dr. Jean Mayer said in a column appearing in Postgraduate Medicine, a journal published in suburban Edina. Dr. Mayer wrote that medical researchers may be just becoming aware of the role excessive consumption of salt plays in producing high blood pressure later in life.

At Least You Can Get A Better View

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — An $11 million, 26-story office building to be built in Baltimore's Charles Center is being billed as one of the first in the world with glass walls, not supported by frames.

The building, designed by Baltimore architects George E. Kostritsky and Mario L. Schack for the downtown renewal project, will be sheathed with about three acres of gray tinted glass suspended only with studs.

BUZZ SAWYER

MRS. BUTTERFLY, YOU ENGAGED TRUUBLE SHOOTERS, INC. TO FIND YOUR MISSING HUSBAND AND BUZ FOUND HIM.

THAT WAS THE EASY PART.

BUT IN TRYING TO BRING HIM HOME, BUZ GOT SHOT IN THE LEG AND NEARLY LOST HIS LIFE BECAUSE YOUR HUSBAND WAS IN THE CLUTCHES OF A NOTORIOUS DOPE KING, AND HE HAD TO HELP BREAK IT UP TO GET HIM FREE.

THEN THERE WASN'T ANOTHER WOMAN?

NOT AT ALL, MRS. BUTTERFLY. IN FACT, BUZ SAID TO ONE YOU A KISS, AND TELL YOU HE'D BE HOME AS SOON AS HE COULD.

MERCY SAKES!

Congress Is Not Expected To Roll Until After Easter

WASHINGTON (AP) — The 91st Congress, its early weeks marked by general inactivity, is off on its first lengthy recess and there is little expectation the pace will quicken when the lawmakers return Feb. 17.

Although leaders expect President Nixon to make some budget recommendations and a few other legislative proposals in the next few weeks, Congress isn't expected to really get rolling until after the Easter recess in April.

PAY HIKES

The slow start is normal for a new Congress, particularly when there has been a change in presidential administrations. Only two major laws have been enacted since Congress convened on Jan. 3. Most of the intervening time was spent on such organization details as selecting committees and getting them operational.

The first law hiked the salary of President Nixon, from $100,000 to $200,000 a year. The second provided $36 million in emergency financing for unemployment compensation payments to veterans and former government employees.

The pay boost for members of Congress, raising them from $30,000 to $42,500 a year, required no affirmative action. It was recommended by former President Lyndon B. Johnson and endorsed by President Nixon and included even bigger raises for some top government executives and judges.

The law under which Johnson recommended the raises makes them effective within 30 days unless either the Senate or the House objected.

DEFEATS VETO

The Senate defeated a veto by vote of 47 to 34. The House didn't even consider a veto resolution.

Congressional leaders did try to get some other movement before the senators and representatives broke Friday for the traditional Lincoln's birthday vacation.

Want To Be Bunnies

Harry Jay Katz, Philadelphia owner of a Playboy Club restaurant franchise, displays some of the nearly 1,500 letters with accompanying pictures he has received from hopefuls applying for the 50 jobs as Bunnies—waitresses—that will be open.

Sharing 'Girlie' Photos With Wife

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Harry Katz is sharing with his wife letters and pictures he received from 1,500 girls—some clad in towels, others in bikinis and 400 of them naked.

Julie Katz finds the contributions "very entertaining" and says she hopes to have some voice in determining which girls Katz hires as bunnies for a new Playboy Club. She concedes, however, that he has "pretty good taste."

Katz, 28, who obtained a club franchise two years ago expects 5,000 applications before the club opens in May. He will employ between 50 and 60 girls. They have to be over 21.

"An aggressive camera girl can earn up to $800 weekly, while the average waitress can earn up to $180 per week," Katz said in accounting for the volume of applications.

One 23-year-old wrote: "I am a simple housewife. By simple I do not mean stupid, nor do I mean physically (38-24-36). By simple I mean simply bored."

Another young wife wrote,

Dear Abby

A Time For Sex Study

DEAR ABBY: When two young people wrote to say that they wanted to get a book on SEX IN MARRIAGE and study it together, you said, "Studying a subject is sure to stimulate one's curiosity and interest; furthermore there is no point in studying the violin if you have to wait two years to practice."

A humorous quip — But it makes no sense. I assume that you think studying about sex will lead to irresponsible experimentation. That is not necessarily so. It is CURIOSITY about sex, based on ignorance, which is more apt to cause youth to try it out, rather than genuine education about it. It is the darkly forbidden — that which has been kept hidden, which is stimulating, rather than enlightening.

Parents can no longer keep their children ignorant about sex. Our real task is to see to it that it is presented in a mature, wholesome manner.

Sincerely, R.S.H.: Dept. of Education The American Institute of Family Relations, Los Angeles, Calif.

DEAR R. S. H.: I do not advocate "keeping children ignorant about sex." I think children (and adults, as well) should know all they NEED to know about sex. But I STILL say that a pair of high school sophomores who are "in love," going steady, and plan to be married "in a few years" do not need to sit down together and study a sex manual on the techniques of marital relations.

DEAR ABBY: How does a person stop exchanging Christmas gifts with folks he's exchanged gifts with for years, but hardly ever sees? I don't mean relatives. I mean people who are "friends" but not that close anymore.

I don't want their gifts, and would rather not have to send them anything, but naturally I don't want any hurt feelings.

HARTFORD DEAR HARTFORD: Around Thanksgiving time, write them a note and tell them you are "thankful" for friends with whom you can be perfectly frank. Explain that this year you are "trimming" your Christmas gift list, and are sending cards; and unless they are very unreasonable, they will appreciate your good sense and will reciprocate accordingly.

DEAR ABBY: I was glad to see that you told those 8th graders that "popularity" wasn't everything. I wish I had learned that earlier.

I started out as a homely wallflower who thought being "popular" was the most wonderful thing a girl could be. I started to smoke at 14 to prove I was "grown up." By 16 I had a reputation for being "easy" — and I earned it. I quit school at 17, and married a guy I had known four days. By 18 I was divorced, had a child, and was having affairs with married men. Wow, was I popular!

Abby, just keep telling girls to be GOOD. Popularity isn't all it's cracked up to be. Don't use my name. I'm trying to straighten myself out.

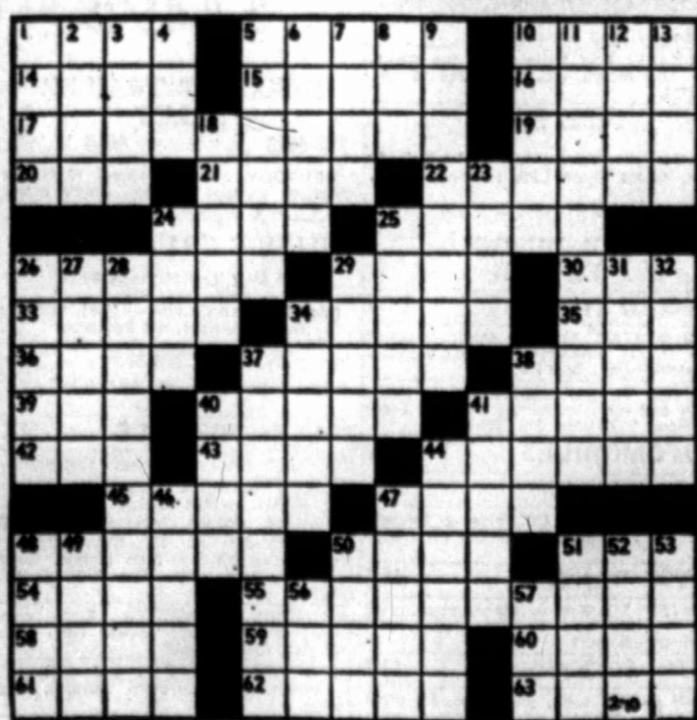

ONCE POPULAR Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's new booklet "What Teen-Agers want to Know," send $1.00 to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Cal. 90069.

'Gabby' Hayes, Film Sidekick To Stars, Dies

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — At the age of 23, a veteran of burlesque and vaudeville, George Hayes began making his living as a jabbering old man.

The living was good for Hayes, who became known to millions over the next 50 years as "Gabby" Hayes, sidekick to cowboy stars.

"Yer durn tootin'" was his reply to Bill Boyd, the Hopalong Cassidy of Western movies during the 1940s, and to Roy Rogers, Gene Autry and others.

Hayes, grizzled and gravel-voiced to the end, died of a heart ailment Sunday at St. Joseph Hospital in nearby Burbank. He was 83, a widower since 1957. In 1960 he retired from show business.

Boyd, in Palm Desert, Calif., expressed great regret at Hayes' passing. "We loved him very much," said Mrs. Boyd.

Hayes was the son of a Wells-ville, N.Y., hotel man who wanted him to join the family business. He ran away from home when he was in the eighth grade and joined a touring repertory company.

He and actress Dorothy Earle married and came to Hollywood together in the early days of talking pictures. Said Hayes: "My wife talked me into it."

In 1939 he was costarred with Boyd in an early Hopalong Cassidy movie and stayed around for dozens of Westerns. His other movies included "Mr. Deeds Goes to Town," "The Plainsman" and "The Texas Rangers."

In 1957 his wife died. They had no children.
