ONE YEAR

Nixon Backs Extension Of Surcharge

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's budget director told Congress today the administration will support a one-year extension of the 10 per cent surtax. Nevertheless, he said, it foresees a shrinkage in this year's budget surplus and possibly next year's.

Robert F. Mayo, testifying before the Senate-House Economic Committee, promised "a diligent effort to reduce outlays" in a review of former President Lyndon B. Johnson's $195.3 billion fiscal 1970 budget now under way.

"I am realistic enough, however, to appreciate that over-all savings are not likely to be dramatic either for the few remaining months of 1969 or for 1970," the budget director said.

BIG LOSS

Market Drops

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market Monday took its largest loss since Jan. 6.

The Dow Jones industrial average plunged 14.23 to 937.72. Declines led advances on the New York Exchange by three-to-one. Trading was light — 11.67 million shares.

Analysts blamed the downturn on a pileup of disparate but unsettling news over the weekend. Foremost was a hint by Treasury Secretary David Kennedy that the 10 per cent surtax might be needed beyond its June 30 expiration date. Fuel was added Monday when Paul W. McCracken, the President's top economist, told a congressional committee the surcharge might be needed after June 30 to keep a damper on inflation.

Jail Picketed

SAN ANGELO (AP) — A small group of pickets appeared at the Tom Green County Jail Monday to protest alleged beatings of prisoners.

The San Angelo Standard-Times said an FBI team was in the city to investigate the alleged beatings. Dist. Atty. Frank Dickey of 51st District Court said the grand jury will also investigate the matter.

A reporter for the Standard-Times quoted two policemen as saying they witnessed the beating of prisoner James Louis Carmon escaped from the jail over a week ago, and the policemen were quoted as saying they saw him knocked down, kicked and struck in the face with heavy jail keys after his recapture.

Another policeman said he saw another recaptured escapee apparently injured.

The pickets carried signs reading "Boots are made for walking, not kicking." "Fair treatment for jail prisoners" and "Keys are made to open doors, not heads."

Reds Halt Traffic

BERLIN (AP) — East German border guards halted traffic through West Berlin's main entrance to the autobahn for two hours today, then began letting cars through again. West Berlin police reported.

Traffic through other checkpoints on the roads between West Berlin and West Germany was delayed, with long lines of cars and trucks piling up. But it was not stopped.

It could not be determined how much of the delay was due to the new regulations and how much to the snow on the highways.

Traffic on the autobahns has been delayed since Feb. 15, when the East Germans imposed new restrictions on the surface routes to West Berlin in retaliation for the West German government's plan to hold its presidential election in West Berlin March 5.

Workmen's Comp

AUSTIN (AP) — Senators quickly resolved a problem in the compromise workmen's compensation bill today and passed the measure on to the House.

The bill would raise maximum weekly benefits for injured or sick workers from $35 to $49.

The sponsor, Sen. Barbara Jordan of Houston, changed a provision which would allow the industrial accident board to set rules under the bill. Sen. A. M. Aikin of Paris had opposed the section.

MYSTERIOUS BLACK BOX 'ROCKS'

Hippie Fails To Hijack Blimp

CARSON, Calif. (AP) — The great blimp hijack of 1969 never got off the ground.

The would-be pirate, who else, in the hippie-happy land around Hollywood and Disneyland, but a long-haired youth armed with a guitar?

Under his other arm, he carried a mysterious black box.

"I want a ride man," he told Jim Genet, a company crewman who works on the Goodyear blimp by day and takes turns working a nearby guard shack by night.

"If not, I'll blow the thing up," Genet quoted the youth as saying.

Genet called for help. For the next hour and a half, about 30 armed officers surrounded the big gas bag and waited patiently Monday night, said one — "in case he really did have a bomb."

Finally, Sheriff's Sgt. Arthur Hicks and the bomb squad arrived. Hicks walked boldly across the open, grassy field and opened the tiny door of the gondola hanging under the dirigible's plump belly.

"Are you the pilot?" the hairy occupant asked Hicks. "I want to go to Aspen, Colorado," for a jazz festival.

The youth, without waiting for an answer, pushed a "button" on his black box. Hicks waited for an explosion. Instead he heard a blast of rock music from the lad's tiny black trans-sistor radio. After searching him, Hicks helped him out.

En route to a hospital where he was admitted — still unidentified — for observation, the bearded youth believed to be about 20 explained that he managed to slip by the guard "because I'm invisible."

"He never would have made it to Aspen," said Ralph Reed, another crewman of the 160-foot blimp used by the rubber company for advertising purposes.

"The blimp has a maximum ceiling of 3,500 feet and Aspen is about 13,000 feet high. Besides, its maximum fuel load allows only 20 hours in the air."

Too bad. The hairy young man had brought along his toothbrush.

Grenade Hits Jewish Sector

JERUSALEM (AP) — A hand grenade exploded and smashed windows in a house in the Jewish sector of Old Jerusalem today, shortly after a mystery blast startled residents throughout the city.

Witnesses said the grenade blasted a house designated for Jewish occupation in El Monadilem Street. The street in the former Jordanian area has been largely uninhabited since the 1967 Arab-Israeli war.

No injuries or other damage were reported.

Police dismantled a second grenade in the yard of the house, a spokesman said.

"Sen. Joe Christie (author of the measure) is still counting noses and he is getting closer every day," Barnes told a news conference. "He needs 25 votes to bring up the measure although it takes only 21 to finally approve it. However at least two senators who plan to vote against the measure have said they will vote to bring it up."

"I expect the Senate to send to the house the constitutional amendment giving voters freedom of choice in sale of liquor by the drink."

The lieutenant governor said he was sure the Senate would get a vote on a suggested rewrite of the state Constitution.

"I plan to meet with the constitutional Amendments Committee in the next few days and I am sure the committee chairman, Sen. Christie, and a couple of other senators will introduce the interim commission's report as a proposed legislation," Barnes said.

"I am not going to change my support of constitutional revision. I think a majority of the Senate would like to see constitutional revision but I don't know if they can agree on the manner."

Poverty Programs Being Shuffled Among Agencies

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon is preparing to pare away roughly half of the Office of Economic Opportunity in a major realignment of the war on poverty.

But one of the most controversial of the antipoverty efforts, the community action programs, will be left in OEO, they said. So will VISTA, the domestic peace corps.

The White House is expected to make the formal announcement today or Wednesday.

Head Start, the widely praised preschool program for disadvantaged children, is OEO's largest single program with a $18 million budget. It is slated to go to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Job Corps, the second largest at $280 million, is to be transferred to the Labor Department.

HEW will also get the Comprehensive Health Services program of slum medical clinics.

The war on poverty, launched by President Johnson four years ago, has come under increasing criticism in the past year amid accusations of scandal and spotty performance.

Congress began the breakup last fall by voting to move Upward Bound, a college program for school dropouts, to HEW's Office of Education this summer. At the same time, Congress set a March 1 deadline for a White House recommendation on what to do with Job Corps and Head Start.

Lethal Gas Loosed By Explosion

CRETE, Neb. (AP)—Leaking anhydrous ammonia fumes from a wrecked railroad tank car spread through a section of this southeast Nebraska town this morning. At least six persons died from breathing the deadly fumes.

Gov. Norbert Tiemann said the State Patrol confirmed six deaths. A Department of Agriculture inspector said he found 10 dead. Many persons were overcome as they slept in their homes.

The tank car was on a siding.

The area was ordered evacuated. Burlington Railroad officials said the tank car ruptured when freight cars from a passing train jumped the tracks and smashed into it.

A funeral home spokesman said one body had been brought to his establishment.

A spokesman at the Saline County sheriff's office in nearby Wilber termed the situation very serious.

National Guardsmen and state police, equipped with gas masks, were ordered here to aid in rescue and evacuation work. Adjoining counties also sent units.

COPTER

A helicopter was summoned from Lincoln, 25 miles to the north east, with the idea that wind from its rotor blades might dispel the fumes. The derailed car was from a 90-car freight train bound from Denver to Chicago, a Burlington official said.

Bliss Quits GOP Post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ray Bliss is resigning April 15 as Republican national chairman, an authoritative source said today.

Bliss, chosen to head the GOP National Committee after the 1964 presidential election, announced his intention in a letter to President Nixon, it was learned.

There was no immediate indication of his successor, although the name of Murray Chotiner of California, long-time political associate of Nixon, was mentioned as a possible appointee to a high position within the committee.

Courts Asked To Cool Unrest

California turned to the courts Tuesday in an attempt to cool off campus militants at San Francisco State College, scene of disruptive student unrest for the past three months.

At the University of Wisconsin a classroom boycott by Negro students lost momentum after 1,900 National Guardsmen were ordered in to help police control demonstrators. Student leaders called a recess in campus demonstrations.

away nearly $700 million of the OEO budget—about half of the present total.

The antipoverty agency has a $1.9 billion budget, but $300 million of that already is funneled to the Labor Department, which runs the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

OEO will be left with about $500 million to run the community action programs, a catch-all collection of local antipoverty efforts ranging from urban slums to Appalachia to Indian reservations to the deep South.

The other major programs remaining in OEO along with VISTA and community action include special Indian and migrant programs' legal services for the poor, and research efforts.

The Nixon recommendations were shaped by a special task force headed by HEW Secretary Robert H. Finch. One major question, whether Head Start will wind up in the Office of Education or the Children's Bureau under HEW, is still undecided.

UNSETTLED
Also unsettled is the question of who will run OEO under the Nixon administration.

New Leak Spewing Oil Into Offshore Waters

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (AP) — A new leak at its offshore well site may be pouring as much as 2,000 gallons of oil a day into the Pacific Ocean, the Union Oil Co. has disclosed.

The first leak spewed more than 230,000 gallons, creating a slick that once reached 800 square miles.

The new leak has formed a slick two miles long and 30 to 40 feet wide, leaving kelp beds off Gaviota and Refugio beaches northwest of Santa Barbara blackened by small patches of heavy oil.

It was feared that southwest winds might push the new slick against the coast even as 800 men worked to clean up previously oil-gummed beaches and harbors in Santa Barbara and Ventura counties.

Union oil announced its new estimate of the leak's size Monday but union President Fred Hartley expressed hope it soon would be "reduced or eliminated." The firm previously reported 200 gallons a day flowing from the new leak.

Although the well which unleashed the big slick has been plugged, more crude oil was escaping nearby because pressure deep beneath the ocean floor was forcing oil through ocean bed fissures, Union said.

Going Straight

Five-year-old Leigh Barron Jr., had his day in court Monday. The youngster appeared before Judge Zita L. Weinschenk on a charge of jaywalking along with the Denver, Colo., patrolman Louis M. Veccharello who issued the ticket. The ticket was torn up by Denver police but the youngsters parents still wanted him to appear in court to learn a lesson. The youngster promised the judge he'd go straight . . . to the corners from now on instead of jaywalking.

People Aren't So Crooked, Honestly

NORTHRIDGE, Calif. (AP) — Two psychologists reported today that people in general are a lot more honest and unselfish than they are given credit for.

Patricia Keith-Spiegel, associate professor of psychology at San Fernando Valley State College, and Steven Laitshaw, a research psychologist, reached this conclusion on the basis of a test they call "envelope dropping."

The two experimenters went around Los Angeles and its suburbs dropping 375 legal-size envelopes. The neighborhoods ranged from wealthy, such as Beverly Hills, to the poorest sections of the city.

Each envelope was stamped and addressed to Laitshaw at his home.

Of the envelopes used, 150 had blank pieces of paper inside. Another 150 contained two slugs the size and weight of quarters and a realistic piece of stage money that could be seen if the envelope was held up to the light. The remaining 75 had typed on the outside: "This is a research study. Drop this envelope in the nearest postbox. Thank you for your cooperation."

All envelopes were coded on the inside to indicate where they had been left.

The finders of 91 per cent of the envelopes identified as part of a research project dropped them in a mailbox; 80 per cent of those with blank paper inside were returned, and 68 per cent of those with slugs and stage money went back.

"It shows people aren't nearly so bad as thought," Dr. Keith-Spiegel said. "If you lose a letter in Los Angeles, your chances of having it returned are about eight out of 10—and those aren't bad odds."

"The upper income areas returned 82 per cent of the envelopes with stage money in them, while the middle income areas returned 66 per cent and the lower income areas 56 per cent." There were no area differences in return of the envelopes saying on their face it was a research project, or the ones containing blank paper.

Kennedy Bullet Fuss Continues

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — A Kansas pathologist told the Clay Shaw conspiracy trial that photographs show the bullet which "exploded" President Kennedy's head could have come from the front.

Dr. John Marshall Nichols, of the Kansas City suburb named Prairie Village, resumes the witness stand when Shaw's trial reopens Wednesday after a Mardi Gras recess.

The frontal shot is basic to Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's claim that Kennedy was slain by conspirators who set up a cross fire in Dallas' Dealey Plaza Nov. 22, 1963.

Shaw, 55, a big, chain-smoking retired businessman, was accused of conspiring with Lee Harvey Oswald and others here in September of 1963 to murder Kennedy. He denies the charge.

Dr. Nichols, the 40th state witness called in nine days of testimony, based his opinion on a study of the Zapruder film, which shows Kennedy's head jerk backwards after a spray of blood and tissue thrown by the bullet's impact.

"The Warren Commission report said Oswald, a lone sniper, shot Kennedy from behind. No credible evidence of a conspiracy was found, it said."

Dr. Nichols' opinion about the head shot conflicted with a report by Capt. James J. Humes, chief of pathology at Bethesda

Snow, Cold Air Lingers Around Texas

By The Associated Press

Day-old snow still mantled parts of the Panhandle and freezing weather pushed all the way to the Upper Texas Coast this morning.

It was overcast weather nearly everywhere in the state, thanks to what official observers described as a mound of cold air piled up over Texas. Readings in the 50s made the extreme south portion an exception.

Clouds lingered over much of the west and central sections while clouds cleared elsewhere.

As much as seven inches of snow Monday blanketed what appeared to be a 25-mile strip of the Texas Panhandle, angling from Dumas toward the southeast to include Borger and Wheeler, and neighboring areas measured five to six inches.

Farmers and ranchers applauded the moisture's benefits to small grains and range grass in a sector which has been critically dry.

Four inches or more of the snow remained on the ground in places early today, although streets and highways were open. Most of the coverlet was expected to finish melting during the day.

Across the state to the south, more moisture fell Monday in the form of light rain near the Middle Texas Coast and in the extreme south.

Forecasts promised occasional light rain again tonight and into Wednesday for parts of South Central Texas and the Southwest Texas area east of the Pecos River.

Prospects were seen for more light rain in the Panhandle-Plains sector Wednesday, possibly changing to snow by evening.

It was expected to warm a bit Wednesday across the northern half of the state but to remain noticeably cool elsewhere.

Top temperatures Monday afternoon climbed no higher than 32 degrees at Amarillo and 34 at Borger in the Panhandle, while the mercury reached a warm 82 at Del Rio and El Paso, and 68 at Brownsville.

Move To Control Bad Private Eyes

AUSTIN (AP) — A Houston police sergeant says policemen often are criticized for things done by uniformed private security guards.

Sgt. J. A. Knigge, representing the Texas Municipal Police Association, told a House committee Monday private detective and security patrols need government regulation.

Knigge testified at a House Governmental Affairs and Efficiency Committee hearing on a bill by Rep. Carl Parker, Port Arthur, to set up a six-man board to license and regulate private investigators and security guards.

The bill was sent automatically to a subcommittee. "Our concern is these people, these private investigators and especially these patrolmen who operate on the streets at night. Because of the uniform, they try to make themselves appear as similar to policemen as they can."

"Often we find they have misrepresented themselves, and the local police are the ones who are criticized," Knigge said.

Parker said under present law "anyone can hold himself out to be a private detective or a private investigator. . . I've heard of detectives kidnapping people, tapping wires and engaging in all sorts of atrocious conduct," Parker said.

He said he knew of a woman who was kidnapped by two private detectives, posing as policemen, and taken 100 miles from her home "and dumped." Parker said she was unable to get anyone to investigate.

FRESHMAN LEGISLATOR TAKES ON 'A TOUGH ONE'

Gig Bill Aimed At Pawnbrokers

AUSTIN (AP) — Freshman legislator Joe Salem of Corpus Christi has taken on "a tough one"—sponsoring a bill that would throw out presumption of innocence in stolen goods cases.

Salem told the House Criminal Jurisprudence Committee Monday that one of its members had told him it was a rough bill for a new member or anyone else to take on.

Committee members proceeded to prove the point by sniping at Salem's bill for more than an hour.

ALMOST IMPOSSIBLE
The bill says a person is presumed to know a stolen article is stolen if more than one stolen piece of property is found on his premises within a 12-month period.

Present law places the burden on the state to prove the man "knowingly" received stolen goods. Witnesses for Salem's bill said this is almost impossible to do.

Preston Dial, with the Bexar county district attorney's office, said the bill is needed because it "forces" a defendant to take the witness stand and testify. "We're talking about a rebuttable presumption," Dial said.

"If you force a man to take the stand, aren't you by statute repealing the 5th Amendment?" asked Rep. William Williamson, Tyler.

"You certainly can look at it that way," Dial said.

This is not unprecedented, Dial said. A federal law says you are presumed to know a stolen car was stolen if you drive it across a state line, Dial said.

SAME TREATMENT
Rep. William Bracklein, Dallas, disputed this. He said the prosecution must prove the defendant knew the car was stolen.

Lewis Berry, executive secretary of the Sheriff's Association of Texas, said the bill was aimed at pawnbrokers and other dealers in second-hand merchandise who paid ten cents on the dollar with no questions asked.

Rep. James Nugent, Kerrville, asked Berry if a banker could be prosecuted under the proposed law if he lent money on two pieces of jewelry that turned out to be stolen. Berry said he could, but that it was not likely that a banker would be prosecuted.

Nugent asked the same question of Dial, and Dial gave the same answer.

"We're gonna treat bankers one way and other people another way?" Nugent asked.

"Historically," Dial said, meaning that is the way it has always been.

DISTURBING PEACE
Nugent asked Berry if he would object to an amendment that would permit any prosecutor to point his finger at anybody and say he is guilty and require that person to prove himself innocent.

Berry said he would object to such an amendment.

Nugent presented a bill to the committee rewriting the Texas disturbing-the-peace statute that was declared unconstitutional broad by a federal court in Waco last year. That case is under consideration by the U.S. Supreme Court. Pending its outcome, the present law has been permitted to stand.

Nugent's bill specifically describes nine activities that constitute disturbing the peace: boisterous behavior in residential areas for no lawful reason; violent behavior in public that restrains the free movement of others; insults designed to cause fights; profane language or gestures in public; malicious interruption of a speaker at a lawful assembly; behavior near a courthouse that interferes with the administration of justice; maliciously obstructing passageways in public buildings; display of a deadly weapon in public; and personal exposure to persons 16 years of older.

Both bills were referred to subcommittees.

Nixon Admits Rockefeller Going South-Of-The-Border

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, who helped develop Franklin D. Roosevelt's Good Neighbor Policy more than 30 years ago, is going south-of-the-border in April to seek improved U.S.-Latin American relations on behalf of President Nixon.

Nixon's confirmation Monday that the New York governor will be his special emissary came as U.S. relations with one of the south-of-the-border nations—Peru—was near the crisis stage.

Rockefeller was coordinator of Inter-American Affairs under President Roosevelt and helped frame the Good Neighbor program.

No schedule was announced for Rockefeller's visits, but the White House said each of the tours will cover from four to six countries and last about a week.

"The purpose of this presidential mission is to listen to the leaders and to consult with them concerning the development of common goals and joint progress of action, which will strengthen Western Hemisphere unity and accelerate the pace of economic and social development," President Nixon said.

He said Rockefeller will report to him personally and "make recommendations as to how the United States can improve its policies and increase the effectiveness of its cooperation and support of common objectives."

Rockefeller, in Albany, N.Y., welcomed the chance to undertake the mission and "renew close ties" with leaders of the other American republics.

Aviation Fuel Caper Cracked By FBI Agents

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — A Kelly Air Base Civil Service employe has been arrested by the FBI on a charge of defrauding the federal government of more than $90,000, officials announced.

L. B. Haley, 33, a systems analyst in the fuels accounting section at Kelly, was remanded after an arraignment to Bexar County jail in lieu of $50,000 bond, the FBI said.

He was specifically charged with "having perpetrated fraud against the U. S. government by falsifying records of aircraft fuel purchases and diverting the funds to his own use," an FBI agent said.

He was arrested at Kelly Monday afternoon. The FBI said air Force officials cooperated in the case.

The charge grew out of a lengthy investigation of two firms which do not exist—the J. R. Adams Flying Service of Austin and Laredo Refining Co. of Laredo, Tex., the FBI said.

Between last June 28 and July 30, agents said, 19 invoices in the name of the Austin firm were submitted to the Kelly finance office. Kelly paid $50,219.19.

Kelly also paid out $40,025.88 after similar invoices were submitted in the name of the Laredo firm.

Both invoices were for aviation fuel allegedly dispensed by the Austin and Laredo companies, the FBI said.

Describes How Lie Wrung Out Of Him

CORONADO, Calif. (AP) — The U.S. Code of Conduct for servicemen taken prisoner doesn't "apply itself well" to modern psychological warfare, says the USS Pueblo's second in command.

"The underlying principle behind it must be maintained—that is, loyalty to our government," Lt. Edward R. Murphy Jr. told a Navy court of inquiry Monday after saying he signed a fraudulent spy confession following two days of North Korean torture and two death threats.

WAR CHANGED

"But the state of the art (of war) has changed considerably... now we have a psychological warfare environment and I don't think it (the code) applies itself well in that environment."

Murphy was asked about the code by an attorney for Cmdr. Lloyd M. Bucher, skipper of the Pueblo. Bucher told the court four weeks ago that North Koreans used torture to make him admit falsely to spying. Murphy

Nuclear Pact Snag Expected

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Armed Services Committee, in a move that could further delay Senate approval of the nuclear nonproliferation treaty, has announced plans for hearings on military aspects of the pact.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., indicated Monday the hearings would start after the Senate Foreign Relations Committee winds up its own inquiry starting today with Secretary of State William P. Rogers as the leadoff witness.

Foreign Relations, which held hearings last year on the treaty that would ban the spread of nuclear arms, is expected to give prompt approval.

But while that committee has long been in favor of the treaty, the move by Armed Services could provide a forum or rallying point for critics unhappy with inspection procedures and other provisions.

Rogers, in his first appearance as secretary before a congressional committee, had the assignment of following up on President Nixon's request of Feb. 5 that the Senate "act promptly to consider the treaty and give its advice and consent to ratification."

Secretary of Defense Melvin M. Laird will appear Thursday in support of the presidential request.

The Foreign Relations Committee approved the treaty after an initial round of testimony last September but it was not brought to a vote before Congress adjourned.

Attempting To Show Sirhan Planned Murder Of Kennedy

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With witness after witness, the prosecution is attempting to show that Sirhan Bishara Sirhan planned the murder of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy—and even practiced it on the day before the assassination.

On today's witness schedule were two men who had told a grand jury they saw Sirhan practice rapid firing at the San Gabriel Valley Gun Club in suburban Duarte.

The defense contends the killing of Kennedy, flush from victory in the California Democratic presidential primary, was "unplanned and undeliberate, impulsive and without premeditation or malice." Premeditation is a key element in a finding of first degree murder.

Kennedy was shot in a kitchen area of the Ambassador Hotel on June 5, as he left a victory celebration.

A kitchen helper, Jesus Perez, was asked Monday if he had seen Sirhan in the pantry. He said yes, a half hour before the shooting.

Q Did you talk to the defendant before the shooting?

A Yes.

Q Will you tell the jury what you told him and what he told you?

A He asked me if Kennedy was coming through that place.

Q Was that question asked before the senator was shot?

A Yes.

Q How long was the question asked before the senator was shot?

A I'd say about a half hour.

Q Did you answer Mr. Sirhan?

A Yes.

Q What did you say?

A That I didn't know anything about whether the senator was coming through there or not.

Other hotel employees and members of the Kennedy party testified that the decision to go through the pantry area was made at the last minute.

After two days of testimony the state had called 12 witnesses, including members of the Kennedy party who were in the pantry area at the time of the shooting.

Bandsmen Commended For Work On CR '69

Dear Editor:

Since I am back in my normal routine in Wichita Falls, I have thought about Campus Revue '69. Working with many organizations in the fine arts field, I have made several observations and drawn several conclusions. Since they speak favorably of Big Spring as a community, of its youth and adults, I wish to share them with you.

First, let me say that when a person mentions "Fine Arts," the immediate thought is of boredom, "art for art's sake." This is not the attitude of Fine Arts. One should be able to enjoy it — this was true of the persons who saw C.R. '69. They laughed, and were entertained.

This being "Fine Art" that was entertaining is not unique. But there were several things about the showmanship responded to by the young band members' efforts; the way the adults were willing to help make C.R. '69 the best possible show — no matter what they had to put into it; and the community's response to both their efforts.

A national committee set up to study the Fine Arts concluded that a community should be able to depend on an average attendance of three per cent of a city's population for theatre, symphony, ballet, etc. Here, we have a total population of 120,000 and we are lucky if we get 2,200 out for a show — much less our audience average of 3,600. A close count placed the attendance at C.R. '69 at 2,730. That is eight per cent of the Big Spring population! For a person who has not encountered this kind of community support before, it was wonderful.

But most important of all is the example of many races working side by side, all equal

Dog Roundup Is Continuing

The dog roundup in Big Spring continues. Chief of Police Jay Banks said today that many dogs that have been picked up were wearing vaccination and city dog license tags.

"The dog tags are only registration of the animals," Chief Banks said. "They are not a license to let a dog run loose on the streets."

City ordinances pertaining to dogs require that they be kept from running loose, he said.

Since the police department started a concentrated effort to pick up as many of the animals as possible, more than 220 animals have been impounded, he said. The animals are kept at the city pound for 72 hours. At the end of that time, if they are not claimed, they are destroyed.

An extra truck, equipped with a makeshift cage, has been pressed into service to assist animal warden Bob Baker.

Time Turns Full Century As Mrs. Porter Has Birthday

By JO BRIGHT

A century is a long time. At its beginning, wagons faithfully followed rutted trails across the West Texas prairie — and at its end, silver jets rise high above the dust to slash their way through the sky. A hundred years ago a woman who made her way by walking or wagon wouldn't dream that, in her time, men would hide their fear — and make it to the moon.

No, a woman dreams of simpler things . . . of making a good wife for a fine man, rearing healthy children, being a good neighbor and proving faithful to her God.

These dreams have all come true for Mrs. John Porter who is celebrating her 100th birthday today in the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Athal A. Porter, 1611 Indian Hills. Joining them to mark the big event today with a quiet family gathering will be Mrs. Porter's other children, Mrs. J. T. Corcoran, Lee Porter and Mrs. O. J. May along with other family members in Big Spring which include two of the granddaughters, Mrs. Ethel Knapp and Mrs. Lyn Calvert, and two of the grandchildren, Ashley Calvert and Johnny Knapp. In all, there are six grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

Born Feb. 18, 1869, in Tuscaloosa, Ala., Mrs. Porter came to Big Spring 84 years ago with her father, James A. Frost. He was a veteran of the Civil War and moved his family here from Weatherford. Mrs. Porter recalls that when she came here on the new railroad in about 1885, (approximately two years after the organization of the county) the town consisted of only a few stores and a handful of hardy people who were determined to make a good life in the barren land. The country was wild, the life was hard, and a man did a full day's work for what wages he received. Business was mostly that of cattlemen and cowhands who came into town to ship their cattle by rail.

Mrs. Porter's father established the first dairy in this area. It was located a good distance from town, and the land included part of what is now the Kentwood Addition. Milk cans were filled and hauled in a wagon to town, where customers brought their own pithers to be filled.

Mrs. Porter, whose father served as a county commissioner during the 1890's, was married in her parent's home on Jan. 8, 1896. She was then 16 years of age. The Porters resided at 607 Johnson, where she and her children continued to live after the death of her husband in 1906.

In 1958, after suffering a broken hip, Mrs. Porter left the Johnson Street residence and has since been making her home with her children. She is a lifetime member of the Presbyterian Church.

Today, Mrs. Porter's soft blue eyes, which have seen so much, are still looking forward as she begins another century. Never one to give advice that was not asked for, she has only two words for young people starting out in life — "Behave yourself."

The hostess' gift was an electric skillet.

The refreshment table was laid with an off-white cutwork linen cloth and centered with an arrangement of chrysanthemums, carnations and gladioli in a silver cupid urn. The bride-elect's chosen colors of red and white were used in the refreshments, and silver appointments completed the setting.

HD Club Tours State Hospital

STANTON (SC) — A tour of the Big Spring State Hospital was made by the Grady Home Demonstration Club Tuesday when cookies and clothes were delivered for residents of the hospital. A business session was held at lunch with Mrs. James Lueb presiding. Two new members, Mrs. Richard White and Mrs. Garth Odum, were welcomed to the club. One guest, Mrs. Charles Mitchell, attended.

Hints From Heloise

For mothers with little ones to get ready for Sunday School each week . . . I make sure all Sunday clothes are in the first wash of the week.

I use hangers with clips on them and also extra clip-type clothespins. As I iron and gather things from my dryer, a complete outfit goes on each "Sunday" hanger such as, underwear, socks, white shirt, handkerchief in the pocket, and even the dime for Sunday School offering.

Later when the boys undress, the trousers and coat go back on one hanger, and after I launder the other items, they are placed in the closet on a second hanger next to the coat and pants.

On Sunday mornings it is quite simple for my three boys to dress themselves without calling for mother . . . Janet Reader

Dear Heloise: I bought a small "glue-on" towel rack and attached it to the door on the inside of my sewing machine.

Now, when it stands open, I can hang the various parts of the garment I am stitching on this rod. It is very convenient . . . Seamstress

Dear Heloise: I'm sure everyone has put fish or something in the refrigerator and forgotten about it. Then opened the door to a horrible odor.

Speakers Explain Law Procedures

Judge Ralph Caton and Lanny Hamby, local attorney, were guest speakers at Thursday's meeting of the Junior Woman's Forum in the Howard County Courthouse.

Judge Caton spoke on jurisdiction, and Hamby explained the selection of a jury. Following the program, the group met for a business session in the First Federal Community Room. Mrs. Jerry Barron presided, and Mrs. Louis McKnight was hostess.

It dawned on me the other day that if one could strike a kitchen match to neutralize unpleasant odors in a room, that the same thing could be done in the refrigerator.

After removing the spoiled fish, I struck some matches and held them in my refrigerator as long as I could. The odor left immediately. You should also wash the inside walls and plastic gasket of the refrigerator . . . B. M. M.

And just why wouldn't it work? After all, an odor is an odor — anywhere . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise: The little knob on my girde supporter was missing.

Without thinking how funny it was, I grabbed the aspirin bottle and put a pill under my stocking where the knob should have been.

Hooked it up and it stayed all evening . . . Emma Fisher

You sure solved that headache in a hurry! . . . Heloise

Dear Heloise: Sometimes when my cookies burn on the bottom, I use the finest part of my grater to remove the burned part after they are cool.

It sure makes a "smooth" job! . . . Mrs. B. D. Wilmer

Dear Heloise: We live in an area of extremely hard water. After battling water spots on our tile for three years, I have finally found a solution.

I simply dilute one-part liquid fabric softener with one-part water. Put this in a spray bottle, squirt and rub it on the walls and polish with a soft cloth.

This not only removes my water spots, but also makes it easier to keep my tile clean . . . Mrs. L. J. Cook

Sews Handwork

The Eager Beaver Sewing Club met to sew handwork and visit Friday in the home of Mrs. Denver Yates, Garden City Route. Refreshments were served to seven. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. H. D. Bruton, 710 W. 7th.

Luncheon Saturday In Tea Room

The George Washington theme was carried out in decorations for a luncheon held Saturday in the Downtown Tea Room for the Berta Beckett Sunday school class of First Baptist Church. Prayer was led by Mrs. Bernice Slater, and Mrs. W. M. Gage presented the devotion. Mrs. O. N. Green talked on "forgiveness," after which Mrs. W. R. Douglass conducted a question and answer period.

Following the business, Mrs. R. D. Ulrey directed games during a social hour. Fifteen members attended, and guests were Mrs. J. F. Sellers and her daughter, Mrs. Charles Dossert, both of Crane; Mrs. Beatrice Mittel, Mrs. Corene Denton and her daughter, Janie, both of Odessa; and Mrs. Ulrey. The next meeting will be March 8 at the Downtown Tea Room.

Cruz's Crown Is At Stake In LA Fight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Carlos "Teo" Cruz of the Dominican Republic puts his world lightweight crown on the line tonight for the second time, and against the same opponent, youthful Mando Ramos of Long Beach, Calif.

The 15-round rematch goes on about midnight, EST, in the Sports Arena. Promoter Alleen Eaton expects a crowd of 15,000 and gate receipts of $140,000 or more.

The bout will not be broadcast either via television or radio.

The encounter shapes up as one of those classics of the ring — Cruz, 31, who has been fighting 10 years, boasting age and experience, and Mando, a mere 20, a pro for four years, but with youth and enthusiasm in his corner.

In the fight between the two in Los Angeles last Sept. 27, Cruz went out in front in the early rounds and built up a lead that outlasted Ramos' late rally.

The Long Beach Kid, then only 19, won the last three rounds and, while Cruz claimed he was never hurt, he did tire and was in distress at least once.

The stocky Cruz, who swings with both hands from a crouch, said he had been weakened by the flu which upset his training schedule.

Cruz has spoken confidently of winning, even hinting he might put the long-legged, good-looking Mando away for the court.

It would be a first. Ramos has been hurt and carved up over the eyes but he's a gutsy young guy and has never been stopped.

Cruz' record — 53-14-2, won 22 by knockouts, stopped once; Ramos — 28-2-0, won 14 by knockouts, never been knocked out.

King Hussan Proved Good Golf Student

NEW YORK (AP) — Claude Harmon admitted today that he was afraid if he kept on slicing he might have me put against a wall and shot.

T-Birds Oppose Hawks At 8:30

Howard County JC can go a long way toward sealing off its third straight Western Conference basketball crown tonight in a game with New Mexico JC in Hobbs. Tipoff time is 8:30 p.m., Big Spring time.

The task won't be easy. In their previous meeting here, the Thunderbirds carried the Hawks down to the wire before losing, 83-81.

The T-Birds are in fourth place in the standings with an 8-3 record and feel a win tonight would improve their chances for an invitation to the Region V tournament here next month.

The Hobbs team is averaging 85.1 points a game against conference opponents, compared to 82.5 for the opposition. Overall, the T-Birds are 12-13.

HCJC is 21-3 on the season and is rated 20th among all the junior college teams in the nation. In conference, the locals have lost only once in 11 assignments.

Danny Glendelin, star backcourt performer, is out in definitely with a twisted ankle, however, so the task becomes more complicated for Howard County.

Coach Buddy Travis likely will go with a lineup consisting of Glen Fletcher, Mickey Wilson, Robert Jackson, George Tilley and Sammy James or Jerry Phillips.

Andrew Pettis is chief gunner for the T-Birds. He is averaging 19.1 points a game against the famed pro related. "If he blew his stack and dropped a little profanity in Arabic, I never saw it or heard it."

ACCEPTS BAD PLAY

"When things go badly, he accepts it complacently, shrugs his shoulders and says, in effect, 'That's the way the ball bounces.' He's learned all the American traits and idioms.

"It's the wildest thing you ever saw," Harmon continued. "He usually plays with a couple of generals or some of his palace guard. He runs the country from the golf course."

"There are people around with brief cases under their arms. The king will hit a ball and then reach over and sign some paper or other. He'll hit another ball and then go into a conference on the state of the treasury."

"I said, 'Your Majesty, you can't play golf like that. Not even Arnold Palmer could score with so many interruptions.' He looked at me stonily and said, 'I must run my country.'"

Harmon, who, with his family, was honored by the Metropolitan Golf Writers Monday night as golf's Family of the Year, met the gold-mined king here in 1967 when Hussan II played Claude's course at Winged Foot.

"Then later he invited me over," Harmon said. "I stayed 18 days. I spent 10 days there in October last year and I just flew back this week from Rabat."

HAS 6 COURSES

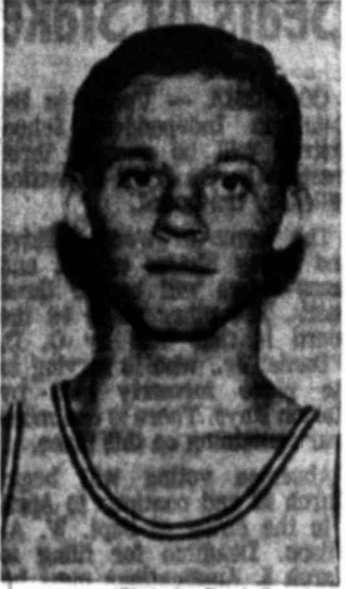

The king has built six 18-hole courses and has a 45-hole layout under construction, with Robert Trent Jones the architect.

"There's a nine-hole course at a palace in a place called Mikes," Harmon said. "The wall is so high you can't hit an out-of-bounds. You just bounce the balls off the walls."

"The king has a course of his own at his palace grounds in Rabat and also a nine-hole pitch-and-putt course."

Crooner and TV personality Ring Crosby received the highest award of the golf writers — the Gold Tee.

Arnold Palmer was given the Richardson Award for his contribution to the game and Curtis Person of Memphis, Tenn., the Ben Hogan Award for having come back from some illness or near tragedy. Once it was feared Person would never walk again but he came back to win the U.S. Seniors crown.

conference opponents.

Others who likely will see action for NMJC are Charley Halley (14.1 average), Sammy Smith (11.0), Dwayne Terry (11.1), John Harrelson (9.1), Mike Driggers (5.6) and Donnell Craft (6.0).

HCJC comes home Friday night to battle South Plains College of Levelland in what should be another barnburner.

South Plains, now 5-6 in the race, will warm to the task in a game against Lubbock Christian College in Lubbock tonight.

Local Lasses In 3-4A Debut

The Big Spring Steerettes venture to Abilene this evening to open their District 3-AAAA volleyball season against Abilene High.

Starting hour is 7:30 p.m. B teams of the two schools clash at 8:30 p.m.

The Steerettes made it 7-1 on the year by trouncing Crane here Monday evening, 15-9, 15-2. The B team set the pattern for the evening by turning back the Crane reserves in the opener, 12-15, 15-8, 15-1.

Carol Grimley, with Judy Dyer at the net, led the Steerettes in scoring with nine points. In B team scoring, Ann Brown was tops with six points.

The B team is also 7-1 on the season.

Frank Phillips Star Is Killed

BORGER — Tim Pearson, one of the few athletes admitted to Frank Phillips College here on a full scholarship, was killed in an automobile mishap near Panhandle Sunday.

The Andrews youth had been averaging 8.7 points a game for the Plainsmen in Western Conference play this season. In a game against HCJC in Big Spring recently, he scored 13 points.

Pearson was also a football standout for Andrews High School. He was 19 years of age. He was born in Snyder.

Steers Enter Snyder Meet

SNYDER — The 1969 Canyon Reel Relays will be held here on the second weekend of the track season — Feb. 23 and March 1. This will be the first meet on Snyder's new all-weather "Reslie" track. This track is one of the finest in the state and with the matching field of teams there will probably be some changes in the excellent records that have been set in previous years.

The AAA division will consist of Dunbar (defending champion), Estacado, Dumas, Brownwood, Brownfield, Washington, Littlefield, Levelland, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Station, Lamesa and Snyder.

The AAAA division will be composed of Palo Duro (favorite), Lubbock, Monterey, Coronado, Permian, Odessa, Ector, San Angelo, Midland Lee, Plainview, Borger and Big Spring.

Ranger Is Upset By Temple Five

Broncoes 2nd To Uclans In Cage Poll

By The Associated Press

Santa Clara's Broncoes moved into the runner-up position behind UCLA in The Associated Press' major college basketball poll today as part of a wholesale shuffle resulting from the 12-losses suffered by members of the rankings teams last week.

In the latest vote by a national panel of 40 sports writers and broadcasters, UCLA remained a unanimous choice for first place. The Bruins boosted their record to 19-0 in last week's action by trouncing Washington State 83-59 in their only start.

Santa Clara, third a week ago, advanced one place after beating San Francisco 72-47 for its 21st victory without a loss.

North Carolina, beaten by South Carolina, slipped one notch to third. The upset also resulted in the advancement of South Carolina to the No. 12 spot. The Gamecocks were not ranked last week.

LaSalle, 20-1, climbed one position to fourth while Davidson also moved up one notch to fifth. Kentucky, upset by Florida, fell two positions to sixth.

St. John's of New York, Duquesne, Purdue and Ohio State complete the Top Ten in that order. St. John's climbed two positions while Duquesne rusted up from the 13th spot. Purdue, beaten by Ohio State 88-85, slipped one notch while the Buckeyes soared from 16th to 10th.

Villanova held 11th place. After South Carolina in 12th position came Louisville, Tulsa, New Mexico State, Kansas, Tennessee, Colorado, Illinois and Marquette.

Westbrook Tries For 10-B Title

ROSCOE — The Roscoe High School gymnasium will be the scene tonight of a 7:30 p.m. basketball game between Westbrook and Highland.

The winner advances into district play.

Westbrook won the double round-robin of competition without the loss of a game only to be upset by Highland in overtime in the district tournament held last weekend in Snyder. Final score in that one was 76-70.

Stanton Sews Up Tie For Crown

STANTON — Stanton's girls clinched a tie for first place in District 5-AA basketball standings by defeating Ozona, 59-42, here Monday night.

The Buffalo Queens, now 7-14 on the year and 3-0 in conference, can win the crown outright in a game at McCamey at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. McCamey is 2-1 in the race and lost to Stanton, 58-31, in their previous game.

The Stanton team was so rugged on defense, the Ozona setlist was able to make only six points from the field. Stanton led at half time, 33-14.

Doris Howard tallied 32 points for the Buffalo Queens.

In B team play, Stanton won in overtime period. At the end of the regulation game, the two teams were tied, 39-38.

Melissa McArthur had 12 points for Stanton and Hyde 23 for Ozona in that one.

STANTON (39) — Howard 19-22; Vickie Glenn 8-4; Doris Sawyer 9-11; Tonia 12-19; Rose 3-4; Bessie 2-1; OZONA (42) — Silen 1-20; Pearl 12-17; Barber 9-22; Moore 6-11; Totals 32-42; Stanton 15 33 41 59

Tucker Is Ninth In Scoring Race

Snake Tucker of Big Spring has climbed to ninth place among scorers in District 3-AAAA with a total of 213 points.

The leader remains John Wilson of Odessa High, who has accumulated an even 400 points.

Wilson is far ahead of runner-up Randy Prince of Midland Lee, who has counted only 320 points. Third is Richard Garner of Permian, who now has 274 points.

Tucker trails Gene Collins of Odessa Ector by two points and is one ahead of San Angelo's Mack Hill, who is through for the season.

Permian In Need Of Win Tonight

Odessa Permian must defeat Big Spring here this evening in order to grab the second half championship in District 3-AAAA and force the Odessa High Bronchos into a playoff.

Tipoff time is 8 o'clock. Junior varsity teams of the two schools square off at 6:15 p.m.

The job for the Panthers will not be easy, although Big Spring has won only five games all season and just one in conference play.

The Steers have been playing well for the last two weeks and could be a far more relaxed club tonight than the Panthers. Permian, of course, will have a tremendous advantage around the baskets.

A loss by Permian and a win by Odessa High tonight would tie the two teams for first place in the standings and give the Permian an automatic berth in the Spring championship.

High off its feet last Friday night in Abilene before losing by four points. The locals might have won but for the fact that they lost four regulars on fouls.

Permian knocked off a highly respected Odessa Ector club in its last start, 70-60.

Over-all, the Panthers are 24-6 and have averaged 70.4 points a game, compared to 53.6 for the opposition.

The Panthers added a lot of strength in the person of Bobby Wright at mid-term. The boy is one who can rebound with Odessa's John Wilson or anyone else in the league.

Richard Garner, 6-6, Byron England, Randy Reynolds and Jeff Jamison are others who lend a lot of authority to Permian's attack.

Coach Kirby Pugh likely will go with a lineup consisting of Snake Tucker, Tommy Butler, James Brown, Bruce Hutto and Danny Parchman. Lee Harris, Randy Womack and Luven Flores are others who are apt to see action for the locals.

Queens Rack Up Cowgirls

HCJC's Jayhawk Queens came from behind in the fourth period to win their first basketball game of the season here Monday night, defeating Hardin-Simmons, 57-51. Sherry Cozart led the final period surge for the locals, which saw their score 18 points.

Cozart and Carol Lane each had 18 points for the winners while Long of H-SU paced all scorers with 29.

The Queens return to play Friday night in Lubbock against Texas Tech and play their next home game March 3.

HCJC (57) — Lane 9-18; Condon 6-17; Morrison 3-5; Cozart 3-12-18. Totals 19-29-77.

H-SU (51) — Long 11-29; Vermillion 10-22; Morrison 3-5; Lockett 3-4; Sherris 9-17; Hooker 1-3; Wesley 0-1-1; 18-15-51.

LOOKING 'EM OVER
With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:
BOB ST. CLAIR, former tackle for the San Francisco 49ers: "I would not have said this when I was active, but now that I am out of the game I can speak freely. Joe Namath is going to meet more people on the playing field than ever before. When he plays these inter-league games, he'll find a vigor in the tackling that he's never experienced. I would like to warn him to be nervous."

LEE TREVINO, pro golfer:
"Winning the National Open made me financially independent but it hasn't changed my life much. It gave me a check book. That's the only difference."

BILL SHARMAN, coach of the Los Angeles Stars of the American Basketball League:
"The New York Jets' win over Baltimore has got to help us, too. A lot of our teams could beat the NBA expansion teams. Trouble is, the public just doesn't know it yet. It won't take basketball as long as it did football to develop a second league that's equal to the original. The fact is, there's a greater surplus of college basketball players than football players. It simply takes fewer men to play and basketball has more college teams."

WALTER O'MALLEY, owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers:
"Bowie Kuhn (owner commissioner of baseball) should be dominant and have stature. In other words, the commissioner should be a man whom players, owners and fans respect. We don't want a figurehead."

DICK YOUNG, New York columnist:
"Gen. Eckert's secret settlement with baseball is $20,000 annually spread over 12 years, not just to beat the tax belt, but to give him pension rights for those 12 years as 'consultant.'"

SONNY WERBLIN, former owner of the New York Jets, commenting on Jerry Wolman, owner of the Philadelphia Eagles, commenting on Wolman's money problems:
"He'll be back. I wouldn't be afraid to go into something with a young man like him. He is bright; he has live ideas."

Pro cager ELVIN HAYES, arguing against those who say that the pros don't play defense:
"If we didn't hold Oscar Robertson or Elgin Baylor to 20 or 30 points the score would be 199-198. The defense is working hard but nobody seems to appreciate it. As for going through the motions, well, we have to pace ourselves through 82 games plus the playoffs."

RON FIRRITE, San Francisco columnist:
"It's always encouraging to discover that some sports just don't come across on television. Television is perfect, of course, for sports like football and boxing where the action is basically confined to screen-size — the line of scrimmage and the ring. But baseball doesn't really make it on the tube. You simply cannot box baseball in; the game just naturally sprawls. And in time one wearies of repeated close-ups of blue-jawed pitchers. Basketball is an OK subject for TV — except that the camera tends to point up the game's essential repetitiveness. If you've seen one layup, you've seen them all. But the two worst sports for television must be golf and hockey — you can't see the puck trouble with televised hockey — you can't see the puck trouble with televised golf — you can't see the puck trouble with televised golf. If football were played with a somewhat smaller ball, it too would become ludicrous when viewed on the home screen. . . . If all games were, in fact, played with small balls, television would reduce them to their quintessential absurdity. . . . Watching golf on television is pretty much like watching golf live: there's nothing to see. That golf has become a major spectator sport is proof of the P. T. Barnum observation that there's one born every minute. Golf, let's face it, is a participant's sport. Watching it is about as entertaining as following the course of bath water down the drain. Golf on television is a faithful recording of the promenade of a block of popcorns. I would rather see films of John Muir plodding the Sierra."

Fifteen Yachtsmen Held Near Macao

HONG KONG (AP) — Fifteen yachtsmen, including six Americans, are reported being held at a small port near the Portuguese colony of Macao following their capture Sunday by the Communist Chinese.

Macao sources with Communist contacts said the yachtsmen were being detained at China's Gau Chau port just north of Macao "pending an investigation by authorities." Vessels passing the port reported seeing the masts of three sailing yachts in the port.

British officials in Hong Kong said they have had no reply from Peking in their effort to free the pleasure sailors, who were captured on a holiday cruise from Hong Kong to Macao 40 miles to the west.

The three missing yachts are the Morasum, the Reverie and the Uin-Na-Mara.

The Americans aboard the craft were Simeon Baldwin, about 55, a native of Los Angeles; Bessie Hope Donald, about 40, a native of Bristol, Va.; Joan Hopkins von Sydow, 47, formerly of Spokane, Wash.; Mrs. Von Sydow's two teenage daughters, and Carol Pauline Zinky, 10-year-old American stepdaughter of a British Hong Kong government official.

Other government sources said contact was made through the local New China News Agency bureau, which often acts as an unofficial liaison between Hong Kong and Peking, and in telephone calls to authorities in Canton, capital of Kwangtung province which borders Hong Kong and Macao.

W.E. Collard, director of immigration for the British colony, said Monday the Communists were contacted "through the regular channels."

Airmen Get Wing Awards

Wing quarterly awards were presented to three airmen at Webb AFB last week. Earning the senior non-commissioned officer of the quarter award was M. Sgt. Ernest Warren, first sergeant of the 3560th USAF Hospital at Webb, S. Sgt. Juanito Gonzalez, master instructor in the T-37 instrument trainer shop, merited the non-commissioned officer of the quarter award while airman of the quarter honors went to Airman I.C. Ronald Colvin, a laboratory technician at the hospital. All three received a desk set commemorating their selection.

Sgt. Warren came to the base from the 7260th USAF Dispensary at Athens, Greece in May, 1967. He was selected Airman of the Year in 1964 at Athenal Airport, Greece. He is currently serving as vice-chairman of the Periman Chapter of the Non-Commissioned Officers' Association. He is also a member of the Elks Lodge and Eagles Club.

Sgt. Gonzalez, formerly selected non-commissioned officer of the quarter in the deputy commander for operations complex, has held several jobs in the instrument and navigational phases of the pilot training program. He has been assigned to instructional duties, maintenance of both T-37 and T-38 type trainers, as non-commissioned officer-in-charge of the T-4 Operations section, and as an associate standardization evaluation member.

Airman Colvin makes various tests on patients as a lab technician at the hospital. He came to Webb from Wilford Hall Hospital, Lackland AFB, in September, 1968. He had earned the hospital's Airman of the Quarter selection prior to meriting the wing honor.

Crow Attending Tourism Seminar

City Manager Larry Crow is in Snyder today to participate in a seminar on tourism sponsored by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Crow will be one of a four-man panel to discuss the city and county role in tourism development. He is expected back in Big Spring in time to present the rough draft of the city budget to city commissioners tonight.

The seminar will be held in the Scurry County Coliseum. Participants will get a preview of the Texas Art Show.

Swing-Wing Plans Hit Another Bump

WASHINGTON (AP) — The F111A swing-wing fighter-bomber program has hit another snag, but the Air Force says it doesn't know how serious the problem might be.

A crack was detected last Wednesday in an F111A's steel carry-through structure, a box around which the wings pivot.

"No F111 aircraft have been grounded as the test does not indicate a safety hazard to aircraft now in use," the Air Force said Monday.

There was no estimate of how long it will take to determine what effect the test failure will have on the over-all program.

The crack developed at the Fort Worth plant of General Dynamics after the structure had completed one "lifetime" test of 4,000 hours and was 1,600 hours into its second lifetime. The Air Force said the test was being made under stresses in excess of design limits.

Modifications were made on the carry-through structure last year after a first crack was discovered during ground stress tests in August.

The F111A was developed from the TFX, an aircraft former Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara promoted as a single jet to be used by all services.

The Navy dumped its version of the plane last year because of technical problems and high costs. An Air Force squadron of F111A's sent to Thailand last year was recalled after three crashed.

Three Trustee Seats At Stake

COAHOMA — Voters in the Coahoma Independent School district will be choosing three trustees in the April 5 election called by the board.

The terms of Wendell Shive and Leroy Shafer expire, and these terms will be for three years. The other place on the board is that held by O. D. O'Daniel Jr., who is serving in the place formerly held by Marion Hays. There is one year remaining on this place.

Absentee voting will begin March 22 and continue to April 1 in the office of Supt. W. A. Wilson. Deadline for filing is March 5. Applications must be filed with Supt. Wilson and signed by the candidate.

There will be three polling places — Coahoma City Hall with Mrs. Norma Grant, judge; Sand Springs Fire Station with Mrs. H. C. Wallin, judge; and Vincent Baptist Church, with Jim Hodnett, judge.

Minor wrecks in Big Spring

Three minor traffic accidents were investigated by police Monday.

Cars driven by Cleveland Gossett Jr., 804 Wyoming, and Robert Harris Dyer, 502 Washington, were in collision at the intersection of Third and Birdwell.

Cars driven by Willie Lee Johnson, 906 NW 1st, and Marvin R. Sander, Big Spring, were in collision in the 100 block of Lancaster.

Cars driven by Sandra B. Doxey, 709 E. 12th, and Lorin S. McDowell III, Garden City Route, were in collision at FM 700 and US 87.

AP Changes State Chiefs

NEW YORK (AP) — Appointment of Robert H. Johnson Jr. as executive press chief of the Associated Press in Dallas, as executive assistant to the general news editor in New York, was announced today by General Manager Wes Gallagher.

Johnson will assist General News Editor Sam Blackman in all phases of news operations at Associated Press headquarters.

James W. Mangan, Chief of Bureau at New Orleans since 1965, will succeed Johnson effective April 1 as head of the news cooperative's operations in Texas, where he previously served as Assistant Chief of Bureau.

Cars driven by Willie Lee Johnson, 906 NW 1st, and Marvin R. Sander, Big Spring, were in collision in the 100 block of Lancaster.

Cars driven by Sandra B. Doxey, 709 E. 12th, and Lorin S. McDowell III, Garden City Route, were in collision at FM 700 and US 87.

Honor Pilots Are Announced

Capt. George Havens and Jerome Hauck have been selected as instructor pilots of the month for January in the two pilot training squadrons at Webb AFB.

Capt. Havens, a T-38 instructor pilot, gained the monthly honor in the 3560th Pilot Training Squadron. Capt. Hauck, a T-37 instructor pilot, was named for the 3561st Pilot Training Squadron.

Capt. Havens also serves as flight grade book officer and assistant flight standardization evaluation officer.

Capt. Hauck also serves as senior controller in the runway supervisory unit and as a flight scheduling officer. His leadership in the runway supervisory unit recently averted a possible accident by aiding the recovery of a solo student with physiological problems.

WOMAN MAYOR REMAINS Three Greenville Councilmen Quit

GREENVILLE, Tex. (AP) — This bustling Northeast Texas city in the heart of the blacklands was minus three city councilmen and several other officials today.

Mayor Sybil Maddux, the city's first woman chief executive, and Councilman Ed Williams apparently were all that remained of the city council.

A restraining order issued Monday by Dist. Judge Frank Wear kept Garland Tredway, Greenville businessman, from assuming the vacancy left vacant by last Thursday's resignation of Dr. E. U. Sprinkle. Sprinkle and Councilmen Gary Whitlock resigned the same day. Whitlock mailed his resignation and Sprinkle presented his in person.

Under provisions of the city charter, businessman Jack B. Horton said in asking a restraining order, when two resignations occurred a special election must be called.

Judge Wear granted the restraining order on those grounds and set a show-cause hearing for 10 a.m. Friday he will either make the order permanent or dissolve it.

Monday night's called council meeting was cut to seven minutes when Councilman Ed Rackley submitted his resignation, effective immediately. Neither Rackley's resignation nor Whitlock's was acted on by the mayor and lone councilman.

The rash of council resignations followed similar action by City Manager Douglas Driggs who resigned to return to a previous job after serving eight months. Last week, Olan G. Steele, the finance director, quit his post.

There is also a vacancy on the city's development board caused by the resignation of Bud Starling some months ago.

The board of development position was not filled because one of 10 amendments, all apparently defeated last week in a city election, called for elimination of the board which receives 10 per cent of the net profit from the city-owned electric utility company. The money is earmarked for inducing new industry to Greenville.

A record 2,894 voters turned out for the election. Rejected by a 7-1 margin was an amendment which called for the mayor to be elected by a direct vote of the people rather than by the city council. Another amendment defeated would have done away with the present limit of two consecutive terms of office for any member of the city council.

Bill Restricts Texas Paroles

AUSTIN (AP) — A spokesman for law officers supported a bill Monday night restricting paroles but assured a House committee hearing the proposal that "nobody is out for blood."

"I believe that the certainty of punishment is a greater deterrent to crime than the severity of punishment," said Lewis Berry of Austin, representing the Legislative Law Enforcement Council.

He favored a bill by Rep. Joe Salem, Corpus Christi, that would require a convict serving less than a life sentence to serve at least one-half of the maximum sentence imposed before being eligible for parole. Twenty years, however, would be the most anyone would have to stay in prison before he could be paroled.

Now completion of one-third of a sentence is required.

The bill would not apply to persons sentenced to death, and good-time credits would still be allowed, so actual calendar time could be cut as it is now.

"There is more interest on this one topic than any of the other" 22 proposals supported this session by the enforcement council, Berry said.

The bill was sent to a subcommittee.

Also sent to House State Affairs, subcommittees were proposals:

—Setting up a statewide library system under the state Library and Historical Commission.

—Changing the State Bar requirement that 51 per cent of the Bar members have to cast ballots before a rule change can be adopted. The new provision would permit rule changes by a majority vote of those voting.

New Complication In Peace Talks

PARIS (AP) — Experienced diplomats foresee a new deadlock at the Vietnam peace talks but say it may provide the first sign of progress.

The new complication in the already stalemated talks, is expected to arise between the United States and its Saigon allies over the question of negotiating South Vietnam's political future.

PRACTICAL STEP Saigon rejects any such negotiations as interference in South Vietnam's internal affairs. South Vietnamese Ambassador Pham Dang Lam said Monday: "For us, an international conference is not the appropriate framework for discussing internal problems."

Saigon's announced objective at the talks is to get all North Vietnamese forces out of South Vietnam and end the "Communist aggression." U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge supports Lam at the conference table to the extent that he emphasizes military de-escalation and re-establishing the demilitarized zone as a "first practical step."

But Lodge has been vague about what kind of political future the United States envisions for South Vietnam. At last Thursday's meeting he said again that Washington would not "impose a political solution on South Vietnam."

"We will support any political settlement that is arrived at freely among the South Vietnamese themselves," he said.

North Vietnam and the Viet Cong's National Liberation

Front have demanded the unconditional withdrawal of U.S. troops and voluntary dissolution of President Nguyen Van Thieu's Saigon regime.

LONG WAY OFF Allied negotiators expect that at some point, probably in secret talks, Hanoi and the NLF will be willing to bargain for an exchange of concessions. Diplomats say this is when the United States and the South Vietnamese government will clash again, with Washington trying to convince Saigon to talk politics, with its enemies.

A similar deadlock occurred last fall when the Americans were trying to get the Saigon leaders to sit down with the NLF in Paris.

One well placed South Vietnamese source conceded that a U.S.-South Vietnamese standoff was probable, but added: "Given the way the talks are bogged down now, that prospect seems a long way off."

Dear Abby

Taking Son To The Barber

DEAR ABBY: Don't faint, but I am a very happily married woman. My problem is a small one, compared to most, and my husband and I have decided to let you settle it.

Who do you think should take our seven-year-old son to the barbershop?

My husband thinks I should take him after school. I think my husband should take him when HE goes to get his hair cut on Saturday afternoons.

I think it's "sissy" for a boy to be taken to a barbershop by his mother. But when his father takes him, it helps make a man out of him. What do you say?

CHICAGO
DEAR CHICAGO: I say it might make men out of little boys to go to the barbershop with their fathers on Saturdays, but it makes nervous wrecks out of barbers.

There are very few hours during the week when a working man can get to the barbershop, and little boys can go after school. So have a heart, Lady, and give the working man (AND the barber) a break.

DEAR ABBY: I just read the letter signed "CONCERNED," who wrote to you about her husband who encouraged their 10-year-old daughter to give him long, hard kisses on the lips.

This has been a problem in our family also. Our son-in-law has kissed all his children on the lips until they got old enough to rebel. His 15-year-old daughter will no longer permit it, and neither will his 13-year-old son.

When they visited us, and we saw our son-in-law kissing his children full on the mouth, it was disgusting to my husband and me. My husband told my daughter that her sons would grow up not knowing whether to kiss men or women if she didn't put a stop to it. We also tell our grandsons that boys should shake hands with men, and kiss women. When our children were small we always kissed them on the forehead or cheek, never on the lips. Did we do right in interfering?

A READER
DEAR READER: In my book — yes!

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif., 90069 and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Birth Of Child Program Helps

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP) — Several months ago a local educational television station ran a program on the birth of a child and its a good thing the Rev. Robert Payson was watching.

The Rev. Mr. Payson, using the knowledge gained from viewing the show, delivered the baby of one of his parishioners, Mrs. Robert Gast, in her own home Sunday.

The mother and her 8 pound, 10 ounce daughter, were reported doing well at a Lancaster hospital.

The bidding: South West
1♦ Pass 1♥ 1♠
4♥ 4♠ Pass Pass
5♥ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead: King of ♠
The above hand gave rise to considerable discussion when it was dealt during the Fall Nationals recently completed in Coronado, Cal.

The bidding almost invariably followed the pattern given in the diagram and several North-South pairs bought the contract for five hearts after their opponents had competed up to four spades.

Where West chose to open the king of spades, declarer proceeded to lead a merry pace. Dummy ruffed with the ace of hearts and the closed hand was entered with the nine of trumps in order to ruff South's remaining spade with the ten of hearts.

Another trump lead pulled the outstanding hearts, and declarer ran the diamond suit, discarding all of his clubs in the process. He took 13 tricks.

At a few tables, East refused to give up in the auction and persisted to five spades. His attempted sacrifice was doubled and the opposition proceeded to cash two diamond tricks and two hearts to administer 500 point sting.

Ordinarily this penalty would provide ample compensation for a nonvulnerable game, which—in tournament bridge—is awarded a 300 point bonus in addition to the trick score. However, those North-Souths who took all 13 tricks playing at hearts scored 510 points (210 for the trick score plus the 300 game bonus). The mere 10 point saving by sacrificing at five spades represents a key difference in duplicate bridge where the scoring is based solely on a pure point comparison of the results of every pair that played the deal.

The top score for East and West was obtained at one table where West devoted considerable attention to the selection of an opening lead against South's five heart contract. He despaired of the prospects for cashing many spade tricks and it appeared to him that any hope for defeating the bid rested in uncovering some hidden strength in his partner's hand.

Since West had a high card in clubs, he decided to launch his attack in that direction. He opened the three of clubs. East played the ace and continued the suit. After three tricks were cashed, the defense cheerfully conceded the balance to the declarer. When all the scores were in, it turned out that they were the only East-West pair to register a profit on the deal.
