ARTILLERY DUEL ERUPTS ALONG SUEZ CANAL

Sky Battle Rages Over Sinai Desert

TEL AVIV (AP) — Big guns of Israel and Egypt blasted at each other all along the Suez Canal Saturday, following a dogfight above the Sinai Desert in which each side claimed one kill.

Cairo radio charged Israeli artillery fired first at the Egyptian town of Ismailia on the canal, touching off the duel. It said "the enemy was seen this morning making all preparations for a new aggression."

An Israeli army spokesman accused Egypt of starting the exchange. He said Israel quickly replied, and that firing raged "all along the canal from El Qatara to Port Suez."

CLAIMS

Neither side mentioned casualties in the ground fighting, but each said they had downed one of the other's planes in the aerial skirmish.

An Israeli army spokesman said four Egyptian MIGs swept into Israeli air space Saturday morning at the Bitter Lakes area and were intercepted at once by Israeli planes.

He said one Egyptian MIG was downed and the pilot, identified as Lt. Mohammed Abed El-Baki Ahmed Hassan, 26, was wounded but bailed out and was captured by Israeli ground forces. All Israeli planes made it safely back to base, he said.

The Egyptian military radio acknowledged that a MIG was reported 50 incidents in the past two days.

INCIDENTS

One Israeli soldier has been killed and at least seven wounded in sniping incidents in the area over the past few weeks. The army announced that an Israeli soldier was wounded Saturday when his military vehicle hit a mine about 15 miles south of Ras El Sudr on the Sinai coast of the Gulf of Suez.

The spokesman disclosed three clashes in the Negev Desert between army patrols and Arab infiltrators and drug smugglers.

Dayan said in an interview over the state radio that Israel was not weak along the 163-mile canal, and it would not be in Egypt's interests to continue the incidents.

It was the second warning to Cairo this week. Observers here have been waiting for weeks for a flareup along the waterway—closed since the 1967 Middle East war.

But the attempt begun six weeks ago to find a new route to peace is now so strewn with roadblocks and so complicated by detours as to suggest that those who set out on it are traveling in circles with little promise of getting anywhere for a long time.

Nobody expected that the weekly Paris sessions in themselves would produce a dramatic breakthrough. It was generally felt that hard bargaining would have to take place behind the scenes, away from the glare of publicity.

Therefore, it is not unlikely that these talks will assume a new look eventually.

IN PRESENT FORM Raise Doubts Peace Talks Will Continue

PARIS (AP) — Developments in Paris and South Vietnam have raised doubts that the Vietnam peace talks will continue for long in their present form.

From the look of things, the United States has been having a two-way struggle on its hands, one with its foes at the conference table and the other with its ally, the South Vietnamese government. Saigon shows signs of rising impatience and of a mood to wash its hands of the talks.

Neither the United States nor North Vietnam is willing to break up the meeting. Thus, in one form or another, the talks are likely to continue indefinitely.

But the attempt begun six weeks ago to find a new route to peace is now so strewn with roadblocks and so complicated by detours as to suggest that those who set out on it are traveling in circles with little promise of getting anywhere for a long time.

Nobody expected that the weekly Paris sessions in themselves would produce a dramatic breakthrough. It was generally felt that hard bargaining would have to take place behind the scenes, away from the glare of publicity.

Therefore, it is not unlikely that these talks will assume a new look eventually.

Every Thursday, 60 persons gather around an enormous table at the International Conference Center. Only four men ever participate directly in the talking, and the participation is limited to stereotyped statements.

It is an unwieldy arrangement for bargaining, attended each week by a flood of publicity. It produces no visible result beyond propaganda.

A change in form could involve reduction in the size of the weekly turnout, perhaps even a change in the level of the talks, as has happened in other negotiations in the past.

Working meetings, for example, could be carried on by deputies. The larger meeting could be summoned irregularly to serve as a stage for announcements of whatever has or has not been achieved behind the scenes.

Attacks Hint Second Phase Of Offensive

SAIGON (AP) — The North Vietnamese and Viet Cong increased ground attacks and shelling of cities and allied installations Saturday, indicating the second phase of their offensive may be at hand.

On the 14th day of the offensive, the heaviest fighting erupted at a U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division landing zone 54 miles northwest of Saigon.

The fight began with a morning rocket and mortar barrage. Then about 500 enemy soldiers charged the landing zone with rifles and automatic weapons thrust, but seven Americans were killed and nine wounded. Enemy losses were not known.

In Kontum Province in the central highlands, where fresh enemy attacks broke out the past five days, elements of the U.S. 4th Infantry Division reported enemy forces had for the first time used Chinese-made 105mm howitzers.

Two of the field guns were spotted Friday by an observation helicopter, and one of them was destroyed by helicopter gunships and artillery, spokesman said.

With the support of helicopter gunships and artillery, the cavalrymen turned back the enemy blazing.

FIGHT BACK

The U.S. troops fought back and called in the support of artillery and helicopter gunships. This storm of fire broke up the enemy attack and a sweep of the battlefield turned up 154 enemy bodies, the U.S. Command reported. U.S. casualties were 11 killed and 30 wounded.

Other elements of the division to the southwest came under a mortar barrage and ground attack about an hour later.

With the support of helicopter gunships and artillery, the cavalrymen turned back the enemy

Reach Trapped Miner

LARK, Utah (AP) — A drilling crew reached a trapped miner Saturday with a six-inch-wide passageway it hopes to enlarge into an escape tunnel. But there still was no word on how long it would be before 61-year-old William Jones could be freed from the cramped underground prison in which he has spent more than a week.

Another crew, working from a different point in the same long shaft below Jones, was chipping a tunnel through limestone. Which crew would reach Jones first was uncertain.

Whatever happened in the Region V Junior College basketball tournament after Friday night was bound to be an anti-climax. The HCJC Hawks, down 17 points at the half and seemingly growing more frustrated by the moment, came back and miraculously defeated McLennan College by one point in the final seconds. As if that weren't enough to cause cardiac arrest in fandom, Christian College also had to pull its game out of the fire over Hill County by a single point.

That all added up to a jam-packed house Saturday night, but no matter, Big Spring lost the tournament for the next two years when coaches chose Amarillo. Harold Davis, who had directed two great shows here, made a masterful presentation but in vain.

Our vicinity had another traffic fatality during the week when Mrs. Etta W. Bangle, 60, Lockwood, Mo., died in a collision of her small car with a car driven by G. H. (Pat) Etheridge, Andrews. The mishap occurred near Tarzan in central Martin County. There was more tragedy, too, for the body of Gary Elbert McDaniel, 25, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronnel McDaniel, was found in the Sabine River near Grand Saline. Astros Prospecting For Hidden Riches SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Their dangerous test-piloting over, the three Apollo 9 astronauts took on a new job Saturday. They prospected the earth for hidden riches from more than 100 miles in space.

With special cameras, aimed precisely at special ground targets, the astronauts hope to pick up clues to mineral resources, water, timberlands, and fishing grounds by the special light radiations they emit.

But they ran into small difficulties on their first attempt because of an error by mission control.

WRONG WAY

As Air Force Col. James A. McDivitt and David R. Scott and civilian Russell L. Schweickart trained their filtered cameras on the American Southwest, they noticed the automatic pilot was turning the ship the wrong way.

"Listen," McDivitt radioed. "This technique isn't working. We're driving the wrong way or something up here . . . Want us to just take over and try to fly it around manually, or skip it? Better hurry up. We have to start taking pictures right now."

Mission control quickly gave permission for manual flight, and after checking, sheepishly reported it had given the wrong autopilot information.

"Then maybe we can get it squared away for next time," McDivitt said. "Oh well, at least it's fundamental. And it's not a first either."

"SMILE"

Instructed to take pictures of Houston, Schweickart kidded. "When we come over I want you to smile."

Mission control agreed and said, "We even sent somebody outside . . . said it was clear out here."

But before they turned to their task, they took time off to sing "Happy Birthday" to the flight operations director, Christopher Columbus Kraft Jr., the man in mission control who has shepherded every U.S. manned flight.

As the astronauts sped into the last and easiest half of their 10-day mission, they asked Kraft to be put on the line to hear their belated greeting. He turned 45 on Feb. 28, the day the Apollo 9 launch was originally scheduled.

When their rendition was over, mission control radioed back, "you may even overshadow the rendezvous with performances like that."

And Kraft, whose father was named Christopher Columbus because he was born near New York City's Columbus Circle, sat quietly in mission control, smiling and saying, "beautiful, beautiful."

Spending Curb Gains Ground

WASHINGTON (AP) — A plan to cut the 10 per cent surtax in half while imposing a new $6-billion clampdown on federal spending was reported gaining ground in Congress Saturday.

Sen. William Proxmire, D-Wis., appraising three weeks of Senate-House Economic Committee hearings, said all witnesses—except Nixon administration officials—gave strong support to expenditure cuts as an anti-inflationary measure.

"I believe the testimony amounted to a mandate to reduce spending," Proxmire said in an interview. He is vice chairman of the committee which now is drafting its annual public report on the state of the economy.

Most of the expert witnesses agreed that a spending curb, holding outlays to about this year's expenditure rate, would have greater restraining effect than a year's extension of the 10 per cent surtax, Proxmire noted.

The lid on spending would mean a reduction of roughly $11 billion from the record $195.3-billion budget bequeathed to President Nixon by former President Lyndon B. Johnson.

"There is also a strengthening of sentiment for elimination or reduction of the surtax," Proxmire reported.

Texas Marks Drop After Cold Wave

By The Associated Press
Deepfreeze cold, following on the heels of severe thunderstorms and late winter snowfall, hit Texas Saturday. Thermometers went on a long dive.

Cold wave warnings were posted for North Central Texas and Northeast Texas. Forecasters said temperatures would drop as low as 15 degrees in North Central Texas by Sunday morning and probably go as low as 20 degrees in Northeast Texas.

The Panhandle-Plains country—Northwest Texas—braced for another sub-freezing night with temperatures in a 5-to-20-degree range.

Ice winds covered most of the state late Saturday afternoon but were diminishing over the state northern half.

The late surge of winter weather struck Friday with severe thunderstorms and near-blizzard snows.

The blast of cold from the Pacific teamed up with cold air from Canada and dropped the mercury as low as 10 degrees on the South Plains. An inch of snow blanketed Amarillo as bitter cold winds up to 45 miles per hour raked the Panhandle.

Meanwhile, violent thunderstorms marched across Central Texas with heavy deluges of rain, winds up to 50 miles per hour and hail.

The front moved rapidly toward an exit on the coast Saturday as the Weather Bureau posted cold wave warnings for North Central and Northeastern portions of the state for Saturday night.

HARD FREEZE

Skies cleared west of the front but remained partly cloudy in coastal sections where temperatures were in the 60s at one time. Winds near the coast became gusty as the cold surge approached the gulf.

Temperatures were considerably cooler to the west, where readings at noon were near the 20-degree mark in the Panhandle and below freezing southward to near Denison, Abilene and Midland.

The Weather Bureau said a hard freeze was in store for most of North Texas during the night. Freezing temperatures or frost was forecast to affect all but extreme South Texas.

Overnight lows were to range from five above zero in the Panhandle to the middle 40s in the extreme south.

Official observers said Sunday would not be quite so cold after winds abated during the night.

As foul as it was, Texas weather was relatively fair compared to points farther north. Western Kansas and the Oklahoma Panhandle experienced the worst blizzard in years as gale force winds spent those areas Friday night.

UNLESS HE CUTS BACK PLANS FOR ABM SYSTEM

Nixon Faces Big Setback In Senate

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon faces the danger of a serious political setback in the Senate unless he cuts back plans for the Sentinel antiballistic missile system, an Associated Press poll indicated Saturday.

It disclosed dramatic gains by ABM opponents on the eve of Nixon's decision, with 47 of the 100 senators now saying they will oppose funds this year for Sentinel sites, only 24 in favor and 29 presently on the fence.

DECISION DUE

The poll showed that a number of senators who supported the Sentinel last year have switched positions, either to outright opposition or to an undeecided stance. And a heavy majority of newcomers either oppose the project or are undecided.

Nixon, spending a few days in Florida, told newsmen: "I'm studying the ABM this weekend." He has said he will announce early in the week his decision whether to continue, scrap or cut back the Sentinel system launched under the Johnson administration.

The AP poll results strengthen the position of some key Senate Republicans advocating that the project be continued but on a curtailed scale.

Instead of placing Sentinel sites around 15 or 20 cities, they urge putting only three to five new cities for a starter, and deploying others around intercontinental ballistic missile sites.

The 47 senators who said they would oppose Sentinel site funds represent a considerable increase over the 34 who last June supported a one-year delay in deployment on the vote that marked the high water mark of ABM opponents for 1968.

OPPOSITIONS

Opponents include 32 Democrats and 15 Republicans, while supporters total 13 Democrats and 11 Republicans.

Senators leading the fight against the project claim from 55 to 67 votes, and a check of the 29 uncommitted senators indicates their total may be accurate.

But 17 of the 29 are Republicans, and Nixon could probably pick up most of their votes if he trims back the Sentinel system.

Senators were asked: "Would you favor providing funds this year to construct sites for the Sentinel anti-ballistic missile?"

A second question indicated that a clear majority of the Senate favors a continuation—and possibly even an increase—of research and development of antimissile systems.

The Johnson administration advocated what it called a thin system designed to protect Americans against the threat of Chinese attack in the 1970s. The cost is now estimated at $4 billion to $6 billion.

Typical of the growing reservations was the comment by Sen. John L. McClellan of Arkansas, second-ranking Democrat on the defense appropriations subcommittee.

"I favor an aggressive continuing program of research," he said. "But as to deployment, I have a certain reservation based on effectiveness."

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., like McClellan a Sentinel supporter last year, said "I have serious doubts about going ahead with the ABM." He added that unless the cost and need can be justified, he feels the system should be held up.

Eyssen Calls Another Docket Of 55 Cases

Fifty-five criminal cases have been set for hearing March 25 in Howard County Court before Judge Lee Porter. Bill Eyssen, county attorney, announced the docket call for March 14.

In Eyssen's first round as county attorney in February, 53 cases were called. There were 15 cases delayed until the April session of county court, and two appeal cases were sent back to lower courts.

Driving while intoxicated heads the list of cases this term with 18 charges. Charged for DWI are Alvin Cecil Hudgins, Guadalupe C. Paredes, Jim Edward Alexander, Edward Bob Smith, Froylan Lita Lopez, Manuel B. Pineda, Feliciano V. Gonzales, Charles Roger Latham, George Solomon Ingram, Luz DeLos Santos Jr., and Andrew Arthur Burkhart.

Also Jesus Raymond Loya, Vernon Means, Antonio C. Torrez Jr., Jack Grigg, Joe Anthony Lopez, Walter M. Harris, Joe Raymond Noel and Jack Grigg.

Other cases include Jimmy

Padilla Yanez, carrying prohibited weapon; Sammy Joe Freitag, aggravated assault; Tommie Lee Hutchinson, carrying prohibited weapon; Eugene Moten, transporting alcoholic beverages; Charles Lloyd Cathey, worthless check; Herman Dale Patterson, aggravated assault; Alton Lee Pounds, driving with license suspended.

Time Short For Selecting Bee Champs

Schools which are to have champions represent them at the Seventh Annual Howard County Spelling Bee April 19, have 20 days left to complete their classroom eliminations and select their school's top speller.

Keith Swim, coordinator for Big Spring school system's part in the annual spelling bee, has set 2 p.m., March 28, as the deadline for all schools to announce champions.

So far, no champions have been named, but there are a number of schools which are near determination of their standard bearer.

Also, Jack Free, selling beer to minor; Sam Smith, aggravated assault; Julius Bailey, worthless check, and Truman Wenken, worthless check.

Appeal cases from justice of the peace court include Earl Columbus Evans, unsafe left turn; Adolfo Salazar Jr., no drivers license; Sumpter McCrae Jr., speeding; Charles B. Cahoon, speeding; and George L. Leatham, speeding.

Appeal cases for corporation court are Raymond Valandez Jaso, speeding; Robert Birl Guinn, speeding; Charles Lewis Vernon, following too close; George Bert Smith, speeding; George T. Thomas, no drivers license (two cases); Horace Dwayne Carroll, disregarding red light; Clifton William Cook, speeding; Larry Edgar Burkiow, speeding; Jackie Lynn Thomas, speeding.

Also, Fox Henry Miller, drunk; Andy Miller, drunk; William Dee Reed, speeding; Kendall Crawford Webb, speeding; William H. Summers, contest for speed; Manuel Cuellar Jr., no drivers license; William Paul Darrow, simple assault; Jesse Martinez, no drivers license; Manuel Cuellar Jr., speeding; and Jerry Roger Arrick, spinning tires on pavement.

Swim pointed out that there was no restriction on a school announcing its champion before March 28. It is only stressed that all champions must be listed with Swim by that date.

The Herald, sponsor of these annual spelling bees, has suggested that each school not only announce its champion, but also that alternates be designated. The alternate will enter the county spelling bee if the school's champion is unable to compete.

Winner of the county bee will go to Lubbock May 3 to compete in the regional bee. Should he win the regional bee, he gets an all-expense trip to Washington in June and a chance to try for the national spelling title.

Combination Grazing Helps

Research at various experimental stations in Texas indicates that livestock production per acre and per animal is increased through combination grazing use, says Paul Gross, Howard County agricultural agent.

Combination grazing use refers to grazing more than one kind of animal, such as cattle, sheep, goats and deer or combinations of all on the same ranch or pasture at the same time. Of course, Gross stresses, the feasibility of combination grazing use is restricted to areas with mixed forage composition where the various kinds of animals are climatically adapted, and where there is adequate predator control.

At the Texas Range Station, near Barnhart, total production was increased 20 per cent by grazing cattle and sheep in combinations, as compared to grazing sheep only, he noted.

FIELD AND RANGE Howard County Soil Survey Completed By SCS Staff

By TEX ROGERS

Maps for the extensive Howard County Soil Survey, which has been in development for the past 10 years, have been completed and are in the Howard County Soil Conservation Service office.

The large soil survey booklet is now in the printing stages and is expected to be completed later this month for distribution by the SCS.

Howard County's soil survey is coming to both farmers and businessmen through the efforts of the SCS, which spent three years in the field taking soil studies, plus another three years drawing maps. The SCS also spent $40,000 in printing fees for the study.

beneficial to building contractors, pipeline companies, real estate dealers, industrial developers, engineers, the highway department, banks and lending institutions," he said. "Cities can use the survey to help establish building zones, and schools and county governments can be helped by it."

Miller explained that the Howard County Standard Soil Survey took an extra two years to complete, because unusual geography in the county required additional study.

"Howard County has three resource areas," he said. "In this one county there are the High Plains, Rolling Plains and Edwards Plateau. That's unusual."

There are 10 associations of soil in the county, with from 25-35 various series. Every series and their locations are shown on several maps which include every inch of the county's 583,680 acres.

from the two groups set down some projects which could be studied to help solve problems brought out at the meeting.

Dr. Bill Fryrear, head of the local experiment station, said the center here will look into a number of areas in the future, including:

Development of terrace systems which could eliminate water running off the soil so that the maximum amount of water could be available to plants.

Requirements needed for insuring good stands of grasses on the range when re-establishing pastures or planting new pastures. This would be a study on environment so that maximum survival of seedlings could be achieved.

Use of herbicides and other chemicals for minimum amount of tillage, particularly when there are winter and summer crops planted on the same field or adjacent plots.

Development of systems which could combine both wind erosion and moisture conservation.

Gerald Miller, Howard-Martin County District SCS conservationist, says the survey describes every kind of soil found in Howard County, giving names, classification, analysis, types, characteristics and location. The survey also provides moisture tables, location of water, range conditions, vegetation, and offers hints to better range and land management.

Marvin L. Dixon, SCS soil scientist, said that while the original idea of the soil survey was to provide additional help to farmers, the study is now widely used by others.

"The soil survey can also be

Penny Hike Means A Lot In Gasoline Business

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — A change in the price paid for a barrel of crude oil or a penny more at the pump means a lot in the gasoline business.

When prices went up last week tensions increased in the trade where there is speculation whether the trend will hold.

One Oklahoma producing company plans to shut down its wells until prices stabilize.

Basically this is what happened: Some major buyers, led by Texaco, boosted the price they pay for crude oil by 20 cents a barrel. Companies that sell gasoline to the stations began hiking their prices by 0.6 or 0.7 cent per gallon. This has resulted in a penny more per gallon to the motorist after the service station operator added 0.3 cent. Some stations hiked their prices by more than one cent.

Figures vary among companies but they are near the average.

To the owner of oil in the ground—it may be a giant corporation, a small oil operator or a farmer lucky enough to have oil on his land—the 20 cent a barrel increase is about 8 per cent more than what he had been getting. In Oklahoma, as an example, the increase will boost the top price paid for premium oil from $3.05 to $3.25 per barrel.

Service station operators—95 per cent of whom are independents rather than company employees—now have an average income of $615 per month, the industry reports. The new price increase, if steady, would give them an average of $71 per month added income.

IN WRONG PLACE—BUT WHERE TO PLACE IT?
Curbside mail box at post office bone of much contention

Postmaster Mulls Curbside Problem

Most agree that the mail boxes for the convenience of motorist patrons of the Big Spring Post Office are not located where they should be. The trouble is — no one seems to know any place they could be situated where the difficulties they pose could be eliminated.

Frank Hardesty, postmaster, said that he is aware of the location of the two curbside boxes is not ideal.

"If you approach them from the west going east," he pointed out, "you are obeying traffic regulations, but you'll have to park your car and probably get out to mail your letters.

"If you are going west you have to cut across traffic and get into the wrong lane in order to pull alongside the boxes.

"If you do this, you're on the right side to lean out from the drivers' window and deposit your mail. But you are violating traffic rules, and you could get a ticket. And when you pull back out into the street, you run a chance of getting smacked by another car."

He said the only handy solution would be to have the city officials declare Fifth Street a one-way thoroughfare for east-bound traffic only. He agrees there's little likelihood this will be done.

At the old location, the boxes were on the north side of Fourth Street — a west bound one-way street. The alternative box was on the corner of Fourth and Scurry. The Fourth Street boxes, handy alike to motorists and to the men who pick up the collection of mail at frequent intervals, were popular. Meantime, folk complain about the inconvenience of the new location and offer suggestions.

Hardesty said that one or two things are quite clear — the boxes have to be located on federally controlled land; they have to be convenient to the men who pick up the mail; and they must not create a traffic problem.

These things being true, the postmaster asks: "Where is there such a spot?"

Ray To Enter Guilty Plea?

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP) — The Huntsville Times reported Friday that James Earl Ray will plead guilty to the assassination of Martin Luther King Jr. Monday and receive a 99-year sentence.

The Times quoted a source close to the case as saying, "It's the only way Ray can escape the death sentence."

The newspaper wrote that the source said Judge Preston Battle in Memphis, Tenn., plans to alert newsmen today that there will be a development in the case Monday.

The Times story said the State of Tennessee would recommend the 99-year sentence when Ray pleads guilty. No immediate comment was available in Memphis, where Ray's trial is scheduled to start April 7.

School, Council Races In Stanton

STANTON (SC) — Gerald Hanson filed before the deadline to bring the number of those running for city council to four. Benny Welch, Dr. Allen M. Fisher and Jimmy Wheeler filed earlier. The four will vie for the places of Juil Reid and Phil Berry whose terms are expiring. Neither filed for re-election.

In the Stanton Independent School trustee election there are two three-year terms to be decided and an unexpired three-year term with two years remaining left vacant last year when Floyd Walker moved from Stanton. Vieing for the two three-year terms are the incumbents, Tommy Hursh and George Glynn. Dwayne Jensen and Lloyd Mims have also filed for these positions. Filing for the unexpired term are Dr. Jack Woodrow, who was appointed to the term when Walker left, C. E. (Gene) Butler and Vaughn Thomas.

Six Contest For Forsan Seats

FORSAN — Six candidates are vying for three positions in the April 5 election of Forsan Countyline Independent School District board of trustees. Voting will be held in the Forsan and Elbow schools, while absentee voting will take place March 13-26 at Forsan City Hall. Seeking re-election are incumbents Bobby S. Wash, 38, oil contractor, and Bob Bowley, 43, contractor. A third seat on the board is open due to the resignation of Ross Callahan early in 1968. Other candidates are Hamlin Elrod, 49, rancher; Albert Strickland, 39, welder; Thomas M. (Tom) Yeats, 45, refinery employee; and Stanley Willis, 59, retired oil worker.

Young Marines In Vietnam Earn Chaplain's Admiration

Shortly before his assignment to Vietnam, Chaplain (Comdr.) Hollis Bond received a notice from his draft board he was classified 5-W. In essence, this meant he was too old to fight.

Tossed into the midst of the Khe Sanh siege, he was convinced the classification was right.

"Trying to stay up with those young Marines made me feel ancient," he confessed. Those lads made him feel something else, too.

BRAVE MEN

"Never have I seen such loyalty, such courage, such sacrifice and obedience as in those young men," he said. "When you have seen them in action, you just got to take back anything you ever might have said about them."

Chaplain Bond, who was reared at Coahoma, has just returned from his tour which kept him within 16 miles of the DMZ the whole time. The first five months of it was with the 3rd Marines and mostly at Khe Sanh where the men were under constant shelling.

He went in immediately on

COMDR. HOLLIS BOND

Feb. 22, 1968, to replace a Catholic chaplain, who with his clerk, was killed that same day. Before he left, one of his chaplain colleagues had been killed and four others wounded. He and one other were the only ones to escape injury.

CHARMED 'LIFE'

In this respect he has had a charmed existence. In World War II, he saw 13 months of combat action with the Navy in the Southwest Pacific. Called back into the Korean War, he served off Alaska. This was his third war.

He was in Vietnam 380 days and preached that many sermons. In one two-day stretch, he conducted 13 worship services. He went from hill to hill by helicopter, being fired upon all the way. A typical day started at 8 a.m. on Hill 861 with no more than 17 men huddled in the sick bay. His clerk set up a portable altar with communion supplies and hymn books. His services, attended primarily by Protestants, were joined occasionally by Catholic boys who had not been able to worship together. When he wasn't preaching, he was counseling.

This was his second time with the 3rd Marines, who have his undying admiration. He served with them on Okinawa in 1962-63. Chaplain Bond is the son of Mrs. Beulah Bond, Fort Worth.

and graduated from Coahoma High School in 1942. He was married to Dorothy Buleson on Christmas Day, 1943. After the war, he graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in 1952 and from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1957, pastoring numerous churches including Ranger, Roby, Rotan, Fort Worth. He entered the chaplaincy in April, 1960. Mrs. Bond and their three children, Hollis, 18, Phillip, 11, and Denise, 8, reside in Arlington and when school is out they will join him in his next assignment at San Diego, Calif.

Lamesa Man Teacher Chief

New president of District 18 of the Texas State Teachers Association is Alvin R. Cannady, Lamesa.

He was named at the house of delegates meeting which preceded the annual gathering which attracted some 4,000 teachers and administrators from more than a score of school districts in the area.

Other officers named were Mrs. Dorothy Hendrick, Andrews, vice president; Mrs. Billie Little, Rankin, secretary; and Jim Williams, Lamesa, treasurer.

Delegates named Johnny Roberts, Kermit, to be the district's member on the executive committee, and Virgil Keyes, Seminole, to be a member of the state committee.

Teachers went on record as favoring the projected pay raise, called for continuing contracts, a state-wide sick leave policy, and improved retirement plan.

Security Check On Securities

Guard Milton Adams checks closed circuit television monitors at the New York security brokerage house of Francis I. duPont & Co., as a security measure. Thefts of stocks and bonds are increasing in the financial community and private investigations are in progress to stem the tide. In this scene, the guard can observe offices, entrances and exits in areas where stocks and bonds are handled to offset any discrepancies.

Thefts Of Stocks, Bonds Increasing

NEW YORK (AP) — Thefts of stocks and bonds are increasing in the paperwork-flooded financial community, spurring public and private investigations of losses of untold millions of dollars a year.

Investigators are digging into a situation in which:

—Brokerages are so far behind in their paperwork that nobody knows exactly how much is lost or stolen in securities.

—Police informants say $50 million in stolen securities is now circulating in the underworld.

ORGANIZED CRIME

—Organized crime is involved in peddling some of the securities and may be masterminding some of the thefts, according to law enforcement officials.

—Representatives of the securities industry and law enforcement officials are reluctant to cite, publicly, names and amounts in specific cases.

—Some insurance companies say they are increasingly reluctant to sell coverage of securities losses to brokerage firms.

The official industry position, stated most recently by Robert W. Haack, president of the New York Stock Exchange, is that the value of missing securities is insignificant compared to the financial market's volume.

Even so, member firms are working to tighten security through guards, closed circuit television and closer personnel screening.

Although the investor, large or small, is protected against any loss from theft or misplacement of his securities at a brokerage, brokers realize that any disquiet and uncertainty on the investor's part is detrimental to Wall Street.

PAPER CRISIS

At the root of the problem is the paperwork crisis. It developed when unprecedented trading volume overwhelmed the back offices of many firms, scrambling their record-keeping and putting them months behind.

In 1965, the single busiest day on the New York Stock Exchange saw 11.5 million shares traded. Last year the daily average was nearly 13 million shares sold. Some days exceeded 20 million shares. To meet the paperwork problem the exchanges have shortened trading hours, curtailed the sales activities of many firms and worked hard to increase computerization.

"The chaos makes it absolutely neat for a thief," said a top insurance executive.

Stock exchange and brokerage officials play down the theft problem and point out that missing securities constitute only a minuscule fraction of financial market inventory.

Haack said reports to the Stock Clearing Corp. of missing —lost or stolen—securities quadrupled from $9.1 million in 1966 to $37 million in 1967. He said preliminary figures indicate no significant increase for 1968.

BLAME 'FAILS'

An exchange spokesman said $145 billion in stocks was traded last year on the New York Stock Exchange alone.

Haack wrote a House commerce subcommittee last week that the volume of missing securities could not be considered a significant reason for so-called "fails"—the failure of a broker to deliver a security to a purchaser within five days.

Increasing fails have been one

Groebel Winner Of Judgments

Ted O. Groebel, on cross action against W. E. Stack, and Harold Wilson of Houston, won judgment on two counts in 118th District Court.

Groebel was given judgment for $47,500 jointly and severally against Stack and Wilson, doing business as S&W Equipment and Supply Company and as B&W Equipment and Supply Company, and then received a $15,000 judgment individually against Wilson.

Stack and Wilson had contended Groebel owed the firms $73,000, but Groebel brought cross action, contending that the only obligation he owed was $13,000, and that he had notes signed by Wilson, whom Stack contended was only an agent of the companies and not authorized to sign.

SUGAR MAY NOT SHOW IN THE URINE

It is the oversupply of sugar in the blood, not in the urine, that constitutes diabetes. When the blood sugar level is high some of it, not all, spills over into the urine.

The sugar test for urine is good and easy. It can detect many, but not everybody who has diabetes. Many older persons have elevated blood sugar with no urine sugar. Has your physician checked your blood this year? If you have a family history with diabetes, better see him.

Two Opinions May Erase Smith's Grin

AUSTIN (AP) — That broad grin on Gov. Preston Smith's face is real. He has come through 53 days of the first legislature with fewer cuts, burns and bruises than any other Texas governor in recent political history can brag about.

FEELING FINE
"I'm feeling real fine," Smith said Friday while celebrating his 57th birthday.

But he's knocking on wood. Next week he faces two attorney general decisions that could change his entire administration plans.

"I may fall flat on my face but I'm going to do what is right," Smith said. First, in the early part of the week Smith is scheduled to get an opinion from Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin on the constitutionality of Smith's second attempt to ease 1970-71 financial problems by transferring oil and gas lease income to the Available School Fund before it would go to the Permanent School Fund.

Martin ruled that it would be illegal to transfer income received from leases on state-owned surface lands. That opinion deducted $71.5 million from Smith's original plans for new taxes and revenue to finance 1970-71 spending.

LEASE INCOME
Pending is Smith's query to Martin whether it would be legal to transfer lease income on state-owned submerged lands in river beds and the tidelands. He estimated this would furnish $52 million toward school operations the next two years, if he were to board and agencies just before he left office, as most other departing Texas governors have done.

Smith said Friday he had no plans to recall any of these appointments, even for those that should have not been made until after Smith became governor, unless the attorney general says some are illegal.

MORE POWER
"All I want to do is follow the law," Smith said. "If the attorney general says some of these are null and void, then I will make my own recommendations."

Smith asked earlier for an attorney general's ruling on the issue and was told that the time for appointments depended on the effective date of legislation creating such jobs unless another date was specified.

Smith then asked for opinions on specific appointments. This second opinion could give Smith a number of new appointments to make if those made by Connally are void.

LITTLE CHANCE
However, there is little chance of Smith resolving his problems as Gov. John Connally did in 1967 by setting for a one-year appropriation bill instead of the two-year financing plan set out in the constitution.

Smith is opposed to annual legislative sessions and makes no bones about it. When legislators turned a cold shoulder to Connally's liquor bill, he called a special session in the spring of 1968 to handle second year financing.

A crisis facing Smith next week concerns gubernatorial appointments. Connally made a large number of appointments

Very few have found fault with such nominations as De Witt C. Greer, former state highway engineer for many years, to be chairman of the state Highway Commission; Joe Burkett, prominent Kerrville attorney, jurist, and former state representative who came within eight votes of becoming speaker in 1959 instead of Waggoner Carr, as chairman of the troubled-plagued Texas Liquor Control Board; and Leslie Neal, widely respected San Antonio businessman and water conservationist, to the Texas Water Rights Commission.

Other major appointments made by Smith have been widely acclaimed.

FAST STARTER
Judges in the contest were Ray Simpson Jr., electrical advisor of the Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, Hereford; Binnie White, electrification advisor of the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, Tahoka; and Charles Rees, electric advisor for the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Colorado City.

The two winners will begin their 12-day all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. June 6. Other contestants were Dean Duke, Stanton; Beth Holcomb and Bonnie Hill, Flower Grove High School; Tim Winn, Coahoma High School; Bruce Nichols and Robert Herren, Sands High School; and Dickey Stanley, Ryan Walker and Louis Dunnam, Big Spring High School.

Alternates selected were Johnny McGregor, Sands High School junior and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McGregor, Knott, and Debbie Hazlewood, Stanton High School junior and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hazlewood, Stanton.

Death came Saturday to Horace Franklin Taylor, head of one of Big Spring's widely known families and a resident of the area for 64 years. For many years he was in the real estate business.

Mr. Taylor, 89, succumbed in an Odessa hospital after an illness of only one day. The family residence for years has been at 1194 Scurry here, but Mr. Taylor had been spending some time in Odessa where a daughter resides.

Funeral services are to be at 3 p.m. Monday in the River-Welch Chapel, with Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the City Cemetery beside the grave of his wife, who died in October, 1967.

Mr. Taylor was born Feb. 2, 1880, in Bolivar, Tenn. He was married to the former Emily Owens in 1903, and they came to this area in 1905. For some time he farmed in the Hartwells sector, later operated a grocery business here, but for many years dealt in real estate. He was a member of the Methodist church.

Mr. Taylor could be considered a pioneer in aviation in West Texas, since — on the site now occupied by Webb Air Force Base — back in the 1920's, he prepared a landing strip and service unit which took care of a few transient planes, and accommodated flying enthusiasts of the day. This property was sold to the City of Big Spring in 1929, when the first municipal airport was established.

Mr. Taylor is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Robert Currie and Mrs. Vernon Smith of Big Spring; Mrs. Vance Lebowksy, Odessa; Mrs. Harold Hartis, Dallas; and Mrs. William T. Dykes, Brownfield. There is a sister, Mrs. Laura Taylor of Whitney, Tex., and nine grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Irene Pursor Abernathy, 68, former Big Spring resident, died Thursday in a hospital in El Cerrita, Calif., where she had lived since 1945.

STANTON (SC) — Larry Shaw and Eulene (Sis) Ledbetter were named winners Saturday night of the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative Oratorical Contest here and will be awarded a 12-day trip to Washington, D.C.

Shaw, a Sands High School junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry T. Shaw, Knott. Eulene Ledbetter is a junior at Midland High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ledbetter, Greenwood. The pair was victor over 11 other entries in the contest which had the theme of "My Future In Rural Texas."

Judges in the contest were Ray Simpson Jr., electrical advisor of the Deaf Smith Electric Cooperative, Hereford; Binnie White, electrification advisor of the Lyntegar Electric Cooperative, Tahoka; and Charles Rees, electric advisor for the Lone Wolf Electric Cooperative, Colorado City.

The two winners will begin their 12-day all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. June 6. School Aid Continuation WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration is expected to request continuation of the major school aid program of former President Lyndon B. Johnson without any major changes.

The program, which provides more than $1 billion to help schools devise special projects for the educationally disadvantaged, will be the first big bill to be acted on in the House.

The House Education and Labor Committee starts writing the bill Tuesday and House leaders hope to have it passed before the start of the congressional Easter recess April 3.

The speed with which the Democratic-controlled committee has tackled the legislation is one of the reasons the new administration is prepared to go along with it.

Secretary Robert H. Finch still learning the ropes as head of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, has had no time to work up a Nixon administration program. There isn't even a resident Commissioner of Education on duty in his department.

Seven Draw Ballot Spots

Positions on the ballot for the April 5 election of Big Spring Independent School District trustees were drawn Friday by the seven aspirants to the two seats on the board.

The order in which the candidates' names will appear on the ballot is Wendell Stacey, Grant Boardman, A. K. (Kimball) Guthrie, L. D. Hayworth, Max F. Moore, Sidney T. Clark and Mrs. Pateann Daniel.

Boardman is the only candidate seeking re-election to one of the two expiring terms. Jerry Currie declined to seek re-election after serving one term. Absentee voting for the election will be held March 14 to April 1 in the office of Pauline Petty, Howard County clerk, in the courthouse. The election will be held at Big Spring High School.

Author's Wife Termed Suicide
ASPEN, Colo. (AP) — A coroner's jury has ruled that the death of author Leon Uris' wife was suicide.

The attractive, 26-year-old bride "died by bullets in the head," and the wounds were self-inflicted," the six-member panel ruled Friday after deliberating about 20 minutes.

DEATHS

Horace Taylor, Veteran Real Estate Agent Here

Death came Saturday to Horace Franklin Taylor, head of one of Big Spring's widely known families and a resident of the area for 64 years. For many years he was in the real estate business.

Mr. Taylor, 89, succumbed in an Odessa hospital after an illness of only one day. The family residence for years has been at 1194 Scurry here, but Mr. Taylor had been spending some time in Odessa where a daughter resides.

Funeral services are to be at 3 p.m. Monday in the River-Welch Chapel, with Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, officiating. Burial will be in the City Cemetery beside the grave of his wife, who died in October, 1967.

Mr. Taylor was born Feb. 2, 1880, in Bolivar, Tenn. He was married to the former Emily Owens in 1903, and they came to this area in 1905. For some time he farmed in the Hartwells sector, later operated a grocery business here, but for many years dealt in real estate. He was a member of the Methodist church.

Mr. Taylor could be considered a pioneer in aviation in West Texas, since — on the site now occupied by Webb Air Force Base — back in the 1920's, he prepared a landing strip and service unit which took care of a few transient planes, and accommodated flying enthusiasts of the day. This property was sold to the City of Big Spring in 1929, when the first municipal airport was established.

Mr. Taylor is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Robert Currie and Mrs. Vernon Smith of Big Spring; Mrs. Vance Lebowksy, Odessa; Mrs. Harold Hartis, Dallas; and Mrs. William T. Dykes, Brownfield. There is a sister, Mrs. Laura Taylor of Whitney, Tex., and nine grandchildren, several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Irene Pursor Abernathy, 68, former Big Spring resident, died Thursday in a hospital in El Cerrita, Calif., where she had lived since 1945.

Services will be at 3 p.m. Thursday in River-Welch Funeral Home Chapel, and burial will be in City Cemetery. The body will arrive at 4:51 p.m. Tuesday at Midland.

Mrs. Jones was born May 18, 1905, in Colorado City, and she married Henry E. Jones there on Sept. 6, 1924. She moved to Coahoma from Big Spring in 1967. She was a member of the Coahoma Church of Christ.

Blizzard Rips Kansas, Blows Buses Off Road

DODGE CITY, Kan. (AP) — A violent March blizzard in Kansas left Dodge City isolated Saturday, stranded scores of travelers and damaged power lines in the Wichita area.

The overnight storm dumped up to eight inches of snow in some areas, and high winds blew three buses off the road, but no one aboard was injured.

By Saturday morning the entire state was reporting sunny, but cold weather.

One man, R. C. Bean of White City, Kan., froze to death after his automobile stalled north of Junction City, Kan.

Hundreds of basketball fans were stranded in several central and western Kansas cities as the storm struck on the night of the regional state high school tournaments.

SNOW, WINDS
Snow, lightning, high winds and falling tree limbs combined to snarl power lines around Wichita. Half a dozen small towns in the area were without power, and several thousand homes and businesses in Wichita had service interruptions.

Complicating restoration of power was the near complete paralysis of traffic by the drifted snow. In Dodge City, there were no planes, no open highway out of town, and no mail.

Civil Defense workers used their emergency vehicles to get hospital employees and nurses to hospitals. Other Civil Defense workers brought motorists from their stranded vehicles into town through the night.

Wind gusts of more than 50 miles an hour whipped over western Kansas and the Oklahoma Panhandle.

One bus bound from Wichita to Amarillo was blown from U.S. 54 near Minneola, Kan. A Highway patrolman discovered it in a ditch with 26 aboard.

A school bus carrying five rescue workers to the scene also was blown from the highway. Another school bus managed to get all back to safety.

MANY STRANDED
Another bus bound from Oklahoma City to Denver carrying 18 passengers was blown off the road near Ashland, Kan. Policemen and several volunteers brought the passengers into town where they were fed and housed in motels.

An Oklahoma City-Denver bus was stranded in Buffalo, Okla., in the Panhandle.

In Garden City, Pratt and Lyons, from 200-300 persons were stranded at each of three regional high school tournaments. The Garden City refugees stayed in private homes, but at Pratt and Lyons most of them spent the night in the gyms where the tournaments were held.

North of Dodge City, a farmer, Kenneth Haley, pulled a car containing seven children and the driver, a Mrs. Shaefer, from a snowbank with his tractor. The family spent the night at the Haley farm.

The storm reached clear across the state—more than 450 miles—and dipped down into Oklahoma where all roads were closed in the Panhandle.

'Respect For Law And Order' Talk
COLORADO CITY (SC) — Associate Justice Zollie Stealey of the Texas Supreme Court spoke on "Respect For Law and Order" in a program sponsored by the local Masonic Lodge at the junior high school here Friday night.

Judge Stealey admitted that defiance of law in Texas and the nation is a threat to this country's form of government, but added "I'm an optimist and I think we'll fight our way through these terribly serious things."

He told a group of Masons and others that when law and order breaks down, there is terror in the streets and even when we answer a knock at the door.

"If rioting and crime continue at the cost of property and lives, people will demand, at whatever cost of freedom that order be restored," he said.

Stealey, a former Sweetwater resident, is serving his second elected term on the Texas Supreme Court.

Four Candidates For Council Jobs
COLORADO CITY (SC) — Four candidates will be seeking four seats on the Colorado City Council in an election April 1.

Candidates include J. C. Britton, owner of the Western Auto Store and a newcomer to city politics, and three incumbents. Seeking re-election are Paul Hunter, owner of Better Cleaners; J. C. Brown, retired Sun Oil Co. official; and C. C. Burt, teacher in Colorado City schools.

Incumbent C. G. Harkins did not file for another term. Harkins was mayor pro tem and a Col-Tex Refinery employee.

THE WEEK

shot three times in the chest. Fear was expressed for his wife, Dianne Lawson McDaniel, 21, who was reported missing.

High school students took over city and county affairs Friday for the annual student government day, and everything seemed to run at even keel. They got a close look at some of the problems of government which they will run one of these days.

The weatherman made a couple of stabs at us during the week, disrupting a string of balmy spring days. Wednesday the thermometer dipped to 29 degrees. Some fruit trees may have been nipped, but in general there was little damage.

The worst part was a stirring sandstorm, which would have been worse had wind come earlier from the northwest.

Apparently 90 of 91 houses offered for sale by FHA in the Monticello Addition have been sold. Maxwell Moyers, Roswell, N.M., appeared to be high on a block of 20, and William Bell, Pensacola, Fla., on a group of 70. The houses are to be moved.

Some two score educators from all over Texas put a penetrating eye on Big Spring schools for half of last week as a concluding step in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools evaluation. Their recommendations are being drafted into a final report which will be used by a local steering committee to make recommendations to the trustees.

Big Spring students kept winning those state essay contests. The latest is Elicia Keele, whose piece on "Ability Counts," was the best of any extolling the hiring of physically handicapped people. She, with her instructor Mrs. Johnny Johansen, will get a trip to Washington, D.C. and a shot at a $2,000 scholarship.

The sluggish school board and city commission races suddenly took on more life before deadlines last week. Eddie Acri and Blaz Balon were contesting incumbents Garner McAdams and George Zachariah on the commission. Grant Boardman, only incumbent trustee, was joined by L. D. Hayworth, Max F. Moore, Sidney T. Clark, Wendell Stacey, Kimball Guthrie and Mrs. Pateann Daniel for the two places open.

City employees had a right to wear smiles last week. The commission, looking toward the next budget year, figured in a five per cent salary adjustment across the board.

The city's projected 65-block street paving program struck an unexpected snag. Part of the properties abutting on approved streets had back taxes due. One of these had indebtedness exceeding cost of paving.

Dr. P. D. O'Brien, a favorite pastor hereabouts for nearly 20 years, has accepted an invitation to be the Easter sunrise service speaker. What is probably more newsworthy is that this stalwart Baptist minister will be the speaker for the First Presbyterian Church's Holy Week services.

Those operators of cranes on the Crawford Hotel demolition project likely will be happy to depart the place. Earlier the crane buckled. Last week it snagged a highline, was jerked away and flopped completely backward, hitting the earth so hard it must have exploded, and promptly exploded and showered the downtown with rocks, etc. A successor crane couple of days later, duplicated the backwards flop — but no explosion this time.

100,000 Russians March Past Red Chinese Embassy

MOSCOW (AP) — More than 100,000 Russians marched past Red China's embassy Saturday in the second straight day of protest demonstrations. Many shook their fists and demanded revenge for the clash in the Far East that the Foreign Ministry said killed 31 Soviet soldiers a week ago.

For more than 3 1/2 hours, Russians marched past the three-building embassy compound as a sound truck led them in chants of "Pozer"—shame.

One banner stuck in a snow bank in front of the compound said in bold red letters: "Blood for blood. Death for death. Down with Mao."

Although many of the Russians appeared bored by the well-organized demonstration, others were screaming angrily.

They made threatening gestures at the few Chinese diplomats in blue tunics peering from the upper floors of the embassy's residence hall.

Friday's demonstration resulted in 104 broken windows in the building. Saturday's crowd was kept under tight control by police, however. Only a few young people mustered the nerve to hurl stones and ink bottles.

"Remain orderly, march six abreast and don't throw anything," a loudspeaker on a police car blared. More than 500 police were on hand.

Sound trucks shrielled anti-Chinese slogans as the marchers passed the embassy. The armed class on the far eastern frontier was played down initially in the Soviet press. After the Chinese blamed the Russians for the incident and staged massive demonstrations in Peking the retaliation began to materialize here.

Both days of Soviet demonstrations obviously were officially organized. Workers and students were brought to the scene in buses. Through a heavy snowfall, the crowd marched past the embassy compound in an orderly manner, hemmed in on both sides of the street by uniformed and plainclothes police.

One group of young people burned a paper effigy of Mao Tse-tung and others trampled his portrait into the wet pavement on Ulitsa Druzhyb (Friendship Street), the broad, tree-lined boulevard on Lenin Hills where the embassy compound stands.

Dist. Water Deliveries Hold Steady

Despite a decline in deliveries to oil companies, water production held steady for the Colorado River Municipal Water District in February. The 768,598,312 gallons going to customers was down only 0.7 per cent over February, 1968, when there was an extra day in the month.

Municipal deliveries amounted to 422,034,700, up 2.93 per cent over February a year ago. Oil companies took 346,563,612 gallons, or 3.50 per cent less which was comparable to the shorter month.

For the first two months of this year, deliveries have amounted to 1,607,361,230 gallons, off the previous year's pace by .19 of one per cent.

During February Odessa took 206,360,000 gallons, down 1.55 per cent; Big Spring 169,371,000, up 6.86 per cent; Snyder 42,321,800, up 1.01 per cent; Stanton 3,961,900.

50-YEAR OLD CHURCH BUILDING TO BE RAZED
Prairie View landmark to disappear from community scene

Old Church Edifice Must Disappear From The Scene

By SAM BLACKBURN
Sometimes it's difficult to even give away a building, much less sell it. That has been the experience of the leaders of the Prairie View Baptist Church. They had their old building, a big wooden edifice which had served the community for nearly half a century, on their hands when they moved into their new church.

There was no practical way they could make of the big rambling old structure.

They offered it to a Negro congregation in Big Spring but that group was unable to raise funds to move the building to town.

Several other efforts to dispose of the church fell through. The congregation wanted the old building removed to make the space into parking area.

Last Sunday night, after the service, the men of the church held an informal meeting.

It was agreed all would endeavor to find someone or some organization that would take the building. When such an agency was found, the church would give the building to whoever wanted it.

Tommy Whitley ran into Bill Tume, Howard County commissioner, and told him about the offer.

"I acted as a sort of middle man," said Tume. "I told Jerry Stevens about it. He went out and looked the building over and accepted it."

Stevens moved in Friday and began initial steps toward tearing the structure down.

His plan, Tume said, is to salvage the material from the building.

The Prairie View Baptist Church board is glad the problem is solved. The old building, no longer in any use, was beginning to show wear.

It detracted from the attractiveness of the modern church edifice which replaced it.

The board members are Edgar Phillips, Carl Grant, B.

Turning Out Fiber Glass

Pipe is now coming off the line at Fiber Glass Systems, newest Big Spring industry. V. M. Michael, president and developer of the process by which the fiber glass pipe is produced, holds a couple of sections of the initial pipe—a three-inch diameter line which will be part of a 2,000-foot section the Colorado River Municipal Water District will use to transfer salt water across the Colorado River. Michael said that the first unit is now in relatively smooth production, and the second unit is due to begin turning this week. The plant then will rapidly swing into full production.

Treated Seeds Will Help Protect From Diseases

Why take a chance on reduced crop yields from soil or seed-borne disease organisms? Chemical seed treatment is inexpensive and effective, and the recommended controls are safe and easy to use, says Paul Gross, Howard County agricultural agent.

The chemical forms a protective coating around the seed and protects it from micro-organism growth during germination. However, seed treatment will not control damping-off after the seedling grows out of the treated zone, the agent says. Damping-off organisms develop most rapidly when weather conditions are unfavorable and cause growers to associate damping-off with cold, wet weather.

Most commercially purchased planting seed will be treated and this will be noted on the container bag. Growers who save their own planting seed can purchase the needed chemicals at most farm supply stores, Gross says.

If seed are treated on the farm, the important thing is to get a uniform covering of the protective fungicide over the seed coat. This can be done with a homemade device which tumbles the seed and permits the fungicide to become thoroughly mixed with the seed.

Gross points out the need for using the proper dosage. Lower than recommended may cause the treatment to be ineffective while excessive rates may damage the seed. Some diseases are borne inside the seed and must be treated by other means than with chemicals, he says.

Case Affirmed

Findings of the district court in a case brought in Borden County by Sue Whitley Bergendahl vs. the Blanco Oil Company and others have been affirmed by the Court of Civil Appeals for the 11th Supreme Judicial District of Texas.

Premiums paid in each class and weight division for lambs will be $5, 1st; $4, 2nd; $3, 3rd; $2, 4th, and $1 for fifth through 10th place. Grand champion lamb of each of the three major breeds will receive a $5 premium, and a trophy will be awarded for showmanship.

Steers will be judged according to light, medium and heavy weights, and prize money for each weight division will be $12, 1st; $10, 2nd; $8, 3rd; $7, 4th; $6, 5th; $5, 6th; $4, 7th; $3, 8th; $2, 9th; and $1, 10th. The grand champion steer in 1968 brought $1.25 per pound at the sale to give Miss Lankford an additional $1,200 for her bank account. Grand champion lambs brought $1.80 per pound.

Denies Camp Is Holding Draft Dodgers

ALLENWOOD, Pa. (AP) — There are no political prisoners at the federal prison at Allenwood—just men who have been convicted of violating U.S. law, says Warden J.J. Parker.

Parker, answering assertions by a civil rights lawyer that Allenwood is a detention camp for draft resisters, said in an interview Friday: "No one is detained here, or held here, unless he has been convicted of violating a federal law. No one is held here awaiting trial or is here for questioning. If a person is convicted by a court, then you have detention. It is as simple as that, and no more."

Allenwood, which holds 346 inmates, about 90 of them convicted of Selective Service law violations, was cited by William Kunstler as one of six major U.S. detention camps. Kunstler, a civil rights attorney, said in a New York news conference Thursday that some Negroes and radical whites are afraid Allenwood will be used to hold political prisoners, such as draft resisters.

The Justice Department has said no such political detention camp exists in the United States and called Kunstler's description "untrue."

The Bureau of Prisons in Washington said attempts are always made to send offenders such as draft resisters to minimum security institutions like Allenwood.

"They are the type of prisoner who doesn't require a great deal of security," a spokesman said. Such a large proportion of prisoners at Allenwood are draft resisters because it is the only such prison on the East Coast, said the spokesman. More than 400 other draft resisters are spread throughout the federal prison system, he said.

Howard Sheriff's Posse Takes San Angelo Honor

The Howard County Sheriff's posse captured first place in the riding-ring competition in connection with San Angelo's rodeo parade Friday.

This was the top award so far this year for the posse, which placed third at Odessa and then won the travelling trophy at Fort Worth.

Thirty-three riders, a record for out-of-town participation for the posse, rode with the group at San Angelo.

The victory came in a field of more than 20 adult riding groups from a wide area.

Regular meetings of the posse, headed by Ed Cherry, are held the first Tuesday of each month in the Pioneer Gas Company's Flame Room. Interested individuals are asked to attend the meetings.

Cherry said that the next competition for the posse will be the Sweetwater parade during the Easter weekend.

Berry At CD Parley

W. D. Berry, director of the Big Spring-Howard County Department of Civil Defense, and vice-chairman of program management committee of the U.S. Civil Defense Council, is attending the mid-winter conference of the officers and committee members of the council in Washington, D.C., March 8-12.

Berry will act as chairman of his committee during the meeting, due to the absence of James T. Davis. Davis is director of disaster services for the Los Angeles County. Due to the recent storm and flooding of Los Angeles County, over $50,000,000 damage to public and private property occurred. Mr. Berry's committee has five sub-committees in the federal assistance group. Resource persons to the committee from the Department of the Army will be Ralph A. Bernardo, program analyst of the field service division, Thaddeus A. Baxter, chief support branch of the field service division, and Charles T. Wescott, staff director of field service division.

The committee will also meet with the congressional appropriations committee members. Vice-President Agnew will speak to the conference Monday. Tuesday will be a briefing by the CIA, the Department of the Army, Office of Civil Defense.

The council is hopeful of increasing the CD budget by 17.34 million dollars for the next fiscal year. Due to budget decreases the last two years, there are over six million dollars backlog of local government project applications not funded, over one million dollars of this in Texas.

Over five thousand dollars for local government communication equipment in Howard County could not be funded due to past budget cuts.

The occasion also marked completion of a full year without a lost-time injury at Cabot's Dixon plant here.

Dr. Charles W. Jarvis, the San Marcos dentist-philosopher-humorist, kept the crowd of about 170 roaring with laughter at the Cosden Country Club. From the time he first served as a master of ceremonies in 1959, he has been — so much so that he has been at it professionally for nearly a decade. Dr. Jarvis quipped that "my patients are using me less but enjoying me more."

R. S. Boyd, plant manager, presented a 25-year pin to G. L. Gum; 20-year pins to D. W. Conway, U. E. Dickens, J. W. Dickens, R. G. Nelson, R. Rodman and B. W. Walker; 10-year pins to H. R. Ratliff, Joe Swinney, Joe Wright, W. W. Beauchamp Jr. and W. A. McMahon; 5-year pins to Jerry Olinhart and H. C. Armstrong.

Here from Pampa for the occasion were O. M. Prigmore, manager of Cabot's Southwestern operations, and Mrs. Prigmore; Bert Arney, director of safety, and Mrs. Arney; Dave Redus, district safety manager, and Mrs. Redus; Win Cates and Randy Geisler.

Steers Place, Barr Gets Award

Dolores Lankford's heavyweight Hereford steer won first place in its own division and Maxwell Barr's heavy placed second at the San Angelo Fat Stock show last week.

Both animals were eliminated in the competition for show championship however. Dolores also showed the fifth place heavyweight Hereford.

Maxwell Barr won the showmanship award in the steers division.

Law Enforcement Degree Offering

ABILENE — Considerable interest has been shown to date in Hardin-Simmons University's new department of law enforcement, according to Dr. John C. McGraw, chairman of the division of education and social studies.

H-SU will begin offering a bachelor of science degree in law enforcement next September. Dr. McGraw said. Experienced law enforcement personnel will be secured to assist with the classroom instruction.

Students at Abilene Christian College and McMurry College are eligible for studies in the program and will be able to receive their degrees from their institutions, with major field work done at H-SU.

A major in law enforcement will consist of some 30 hours in enforcement courses, with correlated courses in sociology automatically making that field a minor.

Dear Abby

Better Tell Papa

DEAR ABBY: We have a neighbor whose 10-year-old son has never cared for play cowboy, astronaut, FBI or anything else normal little boys like to play. He prefers to dress up in his mother's high heels, hats, and jewelry, and run off to play with the little neighbor girls. About six months ago, I understand the boy's teacher called his mother and suggested that she take him to a doctor, and this stupid mother replied: "What for? He hasn't even had a cold this winter."

Now, how does one go about wising up a mother like that?

DEAR NEIGHBOR: For the boy's sake, perhaps someone should try "wising up" the father (if he has one). This family needs help, not criticism. It's possible that there is nothing wrong with the boy — but it wouldn't hurt to investigate his girlish tendencies.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a mother-in-law who is a darling, but she is one of those who "saves" everything. She has saved all my husband's clothes since he was a small boy. (He is now 33 years old.) She wants me to take them for our son, Abby, some of the clothing is like new, but it's all out of style, and I don't want to dress our six-year-old boy in old-fashioned clothes. She keeps after me to take the boxes home, and I've been putting it off. I know the dear lady means well, but how can I explain to her that we don't want these clothes? I hate to hurt her feelings. I should add, we aren't poor and can afford to clothe the boy very well.

TOUCHY SUBJECT
DEAR TOUCHY: Accept the clothing graciously, then quietly send it to an organization that collects clothes for the needy. If she asks why the boy doesn't wear them, tell her the truth.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to have answers to the following questions which have vexed me and many others in this community.

There is a middle-aged couple living together in this small community. Both are well known. They are not married and everyone wonders why. Both have children by former marriages. Is she his common law wife? Is she entitled (legally) to anything he has, should he die? And is HE entitled to anything she has, should SHE die first?

State Officials To Honor Local Essay Winner

Officials of the State of Texas, the AFL-CIO, and the state department of Disabled Veterans are expected here sometime soon to honor Elicia Keele, 17-year-old Big Spring girl, whose essay on the benefits derived by hiring the handicapped has won first place in a Texas-wide contest.

Leon Kinney, manager of the Big Spring office of Texas Employment Commission, said Friday he had been informed that Lawrence Melton, chairman of the Governor's Committee for Employment of the Handicapped, said he feels proud recognition of Miss Keele is in order, and Kinney was asked to set it up.

"I talked to John Smith, principal of the high school," said Kinney. "He told me that arrangements would be made for Miss Keele to be presented at a school assembly with her scholarship and the other awards her essay has won for her."

He said that Smith, himself, R. R. McKinney, commander of the local DAV chapter, and Mrs. J. O. Johansen, who coached Miss Keele, will confer on a suitable date.

Kinney said he would then contact Melton's office. It is planned, he said, for Melton to be here to make the presentation. Also expected for the ceremony will be J. W. Martin, state commander of the DAV, along with some representative of the CIO-AFL and the other organizations which had a part in the competition.

Miss Keele won a $300 scholarship, a gold medal, and a free trip to Washington. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Johansen.

Her essay, which was rated best of 570 from over Texas, will be entered in the national contest.

Lady Golfer Turns Tiger On Course

BALTIMORE (AP) — Carol Mann, the 6-foot-3 golfer who acknowledges she resembles a giraffe, credits a newly developed tiger instinct for her mounting successes on the women's tour.

Miss Mann studied the movements of giraffes during a visit to an African game preserve last year. The change in attitude came a couple of months later in Atlanta.

"I watched a giraffe run and it looked like me," Carol said. "So did that long neck. They have high blood pressure, and maybe I do, too, the way my heart beats sometimes on the 18th green."

Giraffes also are noted for being docile, but Miss Mann thinks she no longer compares in that respect. "In the past, I guess I didn't have enough desire to win," she said.

James Kile, Amarillo; Jim Clark, Dallas; Sam Rascoe, Fort Worth; and La Von Boyette, Dallas, were selected as the four game officials who initially would be offered opportunities to work in the 1970 tournament.

Others approved include Earl Chancellor, Delnor Foss, John Anderson, Walter Knapp, Bill Cowan and Charles Dowler.

The matter of determining the regional golf champion was brought up but action was delayed on the problem, since the format for this year's national tournament has already been decided.

Odessa And Midland, Dominate All-District

John Wilson of Odessa High School was the only unanimous choice on the All-District 3-AAAA basketball team selected by coaches and sports writers in the five member cities.

Wilson, a 6-8 senior with a 27.5-point scoring average, received 65 points in the balloting. Craig Heap, one of Wilson's team mates, lacked only one vote of being a universal choice.

England is the only player on the star-spangled unit less than six feet tall. He stands 5-10. Prince, a 6-8 boy with a 20.0 average, is the only junior on the team.

Six players were named to the second unit, including three juniors. The players were Mark Hill, Sam Angelo; James Brown, Abilene; Quincy Wallace, Ector; Larry Hoff, Cooper; Perry Cooksey, Ector; and Courtland Bivens, Midland High.

Ali Stripped Of WBC Title

NEW YORK (AP) — Cassius Clay, stripped of the last earthly vestiges of his heavyweight boxing title, is still in there swinging—at the Man in the Moon.

"When America gets to the moon, I can beat anybody they find up there, too."

WBC President Justiano Montano of the Philippines declared the title vacant following a meeting Monday with Edwin B. Dooley, chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission.

The World Boxing Association withdrew its recognition of Clay, or Muhammad Ali as he prefers to be called, in April, 1967, after the unbeaten champion refused induction into the armed forces.

Participating in this division are Odessa College, Lubbock Christian College, Cisco Junior College, Howard County Junior College of Big Spring, Schriener Institute of Kerrville, South Plains Junior College of Levelland, New Mexico Military Institute of Roswell, New Mexico Junior College of Hobbs, N.M., and Butler County Junior College of Eldorado, Kan.

In addition 15 Class 4-A high schools are entered in Division I; nine 3-A high schools in Division II; eight 2-A high schools in Division III; and nine Class A high schools in Division IV.

Honored as referee will be L. "Red" Lewis, former football basketball and track coach and now registrar of Howard County Junior College.

Jack Walker is heading up the relay's committee and Ernie Crawford is sports committee chairman. Handling the publicity is Dale Ellis, with Milton Namken in charge of ticket sales.

Fairmont, 25-1 for the season and rated No. 1 by the NAIA and No. 2 behind Ashland, Ohio, by The Associated Press, was given the No. 1 seed. The Falcons take on Indiana Central (20-9) at 7 p.m. Tuesday in their first game.

Howard Payne, fourth in the final AP poll, was seeded second and meets Wayne, Neb., State (23-3) in its opening contest at 7 p.m. Monday.

The championship game will be next Saturday night. Other Texas teams involved in the NAIA playoff include Corpus Christi, which meets Whittier, Calif., at 11:15 a.m. Tuesday.

Three Lamesa Boys Honored

Jackson Projected As All-American

Carl Salyers, Christian College of the Southwest; Gene Knoles, Ranger; and Robert Jackson, Howard County; were selected unanimously as members of the 1969 Region V all-star basketball team.

The elite quintet differs from the Region V all-tournament club in that players from all 16 members of the Region get consideration for the spangled contingent.

In the voting completed Friday at a HCJC breakfast, no coach was allowed to vote for his own players. Salyers, Knoles and Jackson received nine votes each.

Pat Kavanagh, Hill College, lacked one vote of being a unanimous pick while Billy Rhea, McLennan Community College, filled out the first unit.

Jackson got one more vote than did Knoles in the balloting but the man who would be projected as the No. one candidate would depend upon which team won the Region V title.

Salyers had a shooting percentage from the field of .56 and 77 per cent at the line. He hit an 18.4 scoring norm and captured an average of 10 rebounds.

Knoles has a 20.5 scoring mean, averages 16 rebounds a game and, in the words of his coach, Ron Butler, can "play anywhere."

Jackson boasts a 22.7 scoring average and picks up 15 rebounds a game, on his average. The honorees:

FIRST TEAM: Robert Jackson, Howard County; Carl Salyers, CCSW; Pat Kavanagh, Hill College; Billy Rhea, McLennan Community; and Gene Knoles, Ranger.

HONORABLE MENTION: John Krill, Amarillo; Oble Garrett, South Plains; Mike Bannister, Weatherford; Mickey Wilson, HCJC; Mike Inman, Clarendon; Roy Gelsom, CCSW; Harold Greer, Ranger; Clarence Dobson, Hill; Keith Currie, McLennan; Bob Dickerson, Amarillo; and Tim McClelland, South Plains.

Dee Nutt, coach for Abilene Christian College; Carroll Dawson of Baylor University; Marshall Brown, Stephen F. Austin State College, Nacogdoches; Harold Wilder, Abilene High School and John Davis, Sam Houston High School, Houston.

Special program guests will be the coaches of the five state divisional high school championship teams.

A banquet for all athletic directors and coaches attending the clinic is set for Friday night, April 28. Frank Dickson, of Waco's B & B Sporting Goods, chairman for the clinic this year, said that special entertainment is being planned for the banquet. Heading the banquet bill will be special guest speaker "Catfish" Smith, executive vice president of the Baylor Bear Club.

Wilson Starter Against Dodgers

COCOA, Fla. (AP) — Don Wilson of the Houston Astros was to oppose Alan Foster of the Los Angeles Dodgers today in the spring exhibition opening baseball game for both teams.

Wilson was to work the first three innings against Foster, one of the Dodger's bright, young prospects.

Following Wilson will be Danny Combs and Steve Shea. Joe McEller and John Purdin to follow Foster.

The only change from what is expected to be the opening day lineup for the Astros is at first base where Gary Geiger gets the call due to the apparent retirement of Donn Clendenon.

Suspenseful Moment

Four players in the championship game of the Region V Judo Tournament here Saturday night are frozen by the Herald photographer as they scrap desperately for the ball. No. 44 is Robert Jackson, HCJC; No. 11 is Willie Spain; No. 24, Ernest Gentry, both of CCSW; while Jerry Phillips of HCJC is at the right. HCJC won the cliffhanger, 86-79, to win a trip to the National JC tournament at Hutchinson, Kan., two weekends hence.

HC, CCSW Capture Cage Cliffhangers

By TOMMY HART
In a game that saw two emotionally and physically bankrupt teams playing on nerve alone at the end, Howard County JC came from 17 points back to sideline McLennan Community College of Waco, 78-77, in the semifinals of the Region V Basketball tournament here Friday night.

The two teams had a capacity crowd in near-hysterics. The second contest, although it was extremely well played, seemed to be an anti-climax in that Hill College slowed down the action and carried a heavily-favored Christian College of the Southwest down to the wire before losing, 67-65.

Most of the spectators, acting as if they needed this one for nerve medicine, stayed around for the finish. McLennan led practically all the way in its game with Howard County but the Hawks refused to strike their colors. It took a bank shot by Sammy James with 13 seconds left in the contest to swing the issue HC's way and even then the Waco team had time to work the ball back down court and get in position for a shot.

Area Thinclads Place At Wink

WINK — Coahoma Bulldogs and Sands Mustangs finished fourth and fifth respectively in the annual Wink Invitational Track Meet Saturday, while Forsan Buffalo thinclads placed ninth.

The Bulldogs, led by Wendell Walker and two sprint relay teams, garnered 56 1/2 points, and Sands mustered 41 1/2. Forsan compiled 22 1/2 points. Rankin emerged the winner with 86 points and Van Horn was second with 76 points.

Coahoma's points were furnished with a first place in the 440-yard dash by Parker, who clocked a 54.3, and a second place in the 440-yard relay in 47.2 by the team of Tommy Arguello, Ronnie Collier, Gaylon Harrison and Dean Richters. The mile relay foursome of Walker, Ronnie Lepard, Harrison and Richters finished second with 3:40.1.

Auge Hernandez earned a sixth place for the Bulldogs in the 440 and Billy Bailey finished in the same position in the one-mile run. Lepard also placed fourth in the 880-yard run and garnered a second in the 1100-yard dash with a toss of 117.10. James Dunn was sixth in the pole vault.

Jim Fryar paced Sands with a first in the shot put with a heave of 46-1, and then placed sixth in the discus with a 110-foot effort. Ike Lewis ran to a second in the 110-yard dash in 10.5, in a dead heat with Rankin's Booket T. Dickson. Lewis also showed fourth in the high jump, third in the 220-yard dash, and fourth in the broad jump.

Sands also placed with a fourth in the 120-yard high hurdles from Kynn Maxwell, who also ran fifth in the 330-yard barriers. The sprint relay squad of Marcy Robels, Randy Clemons, Tony Gillespie and Lewis placed fifth.

Two Volleyball Teams Winners

Big Spring High School's A and B girls volleyball squads swept past Abilene High's teams in District 3-AAAA play in the Goliad Junior High School gym on Friday night.

Forsan's efforts were led by Terry Wooten with a first place throw of 118-6 in the discus and a fifth in the 120-yard high hurdles. Gary Irwin notched a fourth in the discus and a third in the shot put.

Doyle Whetsel tied for sixth in the pole vault for the Mustangs. Forsan and Sands will travel to the Grand Falls Invitational Track Meet Saturday, while Coahoma will see action in the West Texas Relays at Odessa.

Snow Plentiful In Ski Areas

The 11 a.m. Thursday report by the U.S. Forest Service on snow conditions at National Forest winter sports areas in New Mexico show: Sandia Peak ski area: upper and lower trail adequate; snow depth at midway 10 inches. Sierra Blanca winter sports area, 16 miles northwest of Ruidoso, upper, lower trails adequate; depth of snow at midway stations 16 inches. Cloudcroft, two miles east of Ruidoso; upper, lower trails adequate; depth of snow at midway station 15 inches.

Carl Salyers beat a steady tattoo on the hoop to keep CCSW in contention early and wound up with 21 points for the night, sharing team honors with tall Steve Davidson.

Kavanagh and Ron Battle each tallied 20 for the Hillsboro team. A field goal by Ray Golson with 58 seconds remaining finally gave the Trojans the lead, at 65-63. Davidson added two to that with 26 seconds left. Bill Ford then hit from the side for Hill to close the gap.

Big Spring locks horns with the Sweetwater Mustangs at 12 p.m. Friday in the sixth annual Cap Rock Volleyball Tournament in the Howard County Junior College gym.

Noise Could Be Helpful To Player

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP) — When you try to rattle the enemy basketball player with screams as he takes a foul shot, you may be helping rather than hindering him. A physical education student at Pennsylvania State University says that some foul shooters actually improve their percentages with increased crowd noise.

"Lack of consistent free throw shooting is caused primarily by inherent individual differences and not by such external factors as crowd noise," says the student, William R. Burger of Philadelphia. He experimented with the Penn State basketball team for six weeks under controlled situations as part of his work toward a master's degree. Jim Linden recorded the highest average.

With no simulated crowd noises at all, Linden hit on an average of 46.17 of every 50 free throws he shot. Yet his average jumped almost two points when Burger played normal or subdued crowd noise over the public address system. It dropped to only 45.50 when the noise level was raised to the near painful point.

However, different players reacted differently to the test. Some remain steady throughout the noise variations, some shooting percentages dropped as the noise increased; others like Willie Bryant and Bill Young, converted more free throws under normal and high level noise, than they did under the no noise situation.

Burger set up a special loud speaker system for use during Penn State practice sessions. His crowd noises came from the audio tape of a wrestling meet.

Each player took 50 shots under each condition, two shots at a time. Out of 3,900 free throws taken under each noise variation, the Penn State team converted a total of 3,252 with no noise, 3,321 with routine crowd noise, and 3,183 under distracting noise.

Will Stanley Play Shortstop Again?

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — All major league baseball teams go to spring training with a stadium full of question marks. But what is the biggest question for the Detroit Tigers, who seemed to have all the right answers last October in capturing the World Series from the St. Louis Cardinals?

The question is a direct result of that Series: Will Mickey Stanley be Detroit's shortstop in 1969? Stanley, the superb center-fielder, became the center of attention in the Series when Manager Mayo Smith pulled the shocker of the year and put him at short. The move added hitting strength to the lineup by enabling Jim Northrup to move to centerfield and veteran Al Kaline to play rightfield instead of sitting on the bench.

The gamble paid off. Kaline and Northrup were hitting stars in the Series and Stanley did a fine job with the bat and at short. But now Smith must decide whether to sacrifice the fine fielding of Stanley in center to break him in permanently at short, or turn the job over to second year man Tom Matchick or veteran utility man Dick Tracewski.

"You always have problems when you come to spring training and we knew shortstop would be our biggest," said Smith. Last year's regular shortstop Ray Oyler, was picked up by Seattle in the expansion draft. He is a slick fielder but his poor showing at the plate (.135 average) always gave Detroit a second weak spot in the batting order besides the pitcher. "Like I said before, I plan on giving Matchick every opportunity," said Smith. "But Stanley's not ruled out—absolutely not. "But if things work out he should be in the outfield." Smith didn't reject the possibility of Tracewski getting the job.

OTHER CANDIDATES
Smith said Stanley, as well as Matchick and Tracewski, would work out at short this spring and that Stanley might also play some exhibition games at the position.

"I like to work out there just to get in shape," Stanley said, "but I don't know if he (Smith) will put me there or not. "It really doesn't make much difference to me," he added. Matchick is eager for the opportunity to play regularly. During limited duties as a rookie last season he played 59 games at short, 13 at second and six at first and batted .203 in 227 at bats. National Guard duty interrupted his season and he said that knocked him off his hitting stride.

"This year I've switched to the Army Reserve and I shouldn't have to worry as much about meeting and training schedules," he said. "I think I can hit a fairly decent average by playing every day." Matchick said. "I just have to work a little extra this spring and I'll stay a little longer after practice to work out."

MRS. ROBERT H. JOHNSON has style — one that is timeless and all her own. This spring she likes the look of this Italian wool knit three-piece ensemble. The slim turquoise skirt is topped with a white pullover; neck and sleeves banded in turquoise and gold. The same shades form stripes on the sleeveless v-necked white jacket. Her pumps and bag are ostrich print, and the roller is textured straw.

MRS. DELBERT STANLEY listens to the lure of far-away places as she shows a jet-set suit that loves to travel. The three-piece double knit is in new navy blue with jacket trim in spring's best accents, red and white. Her shoes and bag are smooth white leather with red and blue trim, and her white gloves repeat the colors in a light check.

MRS. HAYES STRIPLING JR. listens to the last winter winds, knowing that spring breezes will usher in Easter Sunday. Just right is this black and white diamond dress in silk Alaskine with companion coat to don when the day is cool. The semi-fitted dress is belted in black patent, and jet-black buttons close the tailored coat. Accessories are black.

MRS. MIKE SCHAFER looks for the first robin, and she is bound to catch his attention, too, in her smart costume of black and white abstract print. The long, blouson bodice is attached to a pleated cotton skirt, and white fabric lines the dress-length cape which may be worn, as well, over a black or white dress.

SUDDENLY IT'S... Spring

The long-awaited greenery is appearing, and warm earth gives up sunny daffodils and jonquils. Birds chatter about the things that matter — and all's right with the world — when a woman sees new spring fashions!

MRS. SIDNEY CLARK likes the elegant tailoring of a navy wool and silk town suit that is slim, trim and beautiful. The double-breasted jacket features a stand-up ring collar into which she has tucked a red, white and blue scarf that declares her patriotism. Gloves are white, shoes and bag are navy, and the Easter bonnet is navy straw with a taffeta bow.

WOMEN'S NEWS

SECTION C

Big Spring Herald

BIG SPRING, TEXAS

SUNDAY, MARCH 9, 1969

MRS. PETE RHYMES thinks this black silk blend suit is pure poetry. The jacket, which has three-quarter length sleeves, is fashioned to form an inverted V beneath self-buttons that stop at the waistline. Curved lapels are accents, along with a sassy bow in black, white and gray silk. With black shoes and bag, she prefers a classic gray homberg hat.

MRS. CARL SMALL is big in fashion and as pretty as the posy she holds in a white-gloved hand. Her three-piece spring suit in dacron never loses its crisp good looks. The longer, easy jacket and slender skirt are of silver gray shadow plaid, worn with a belted gray overblouse. Her white bag complements pumps softened with a leather bow.

MRS. J. M. HAMILTON mentally waves the flag when she wears this patriotic pacemaker in navy dacron styled with a dropped waistline denoted by red and white bands. Matching stripes mark the shawl scarf that ties to form a sailor collar. The sleeveless, semi-fitted dress has a slight flare to the skirt and is worn with white shortie gloves and navy accessories.

Emotional Illnesses Discussed

Mrs. Steve Baker conducted a study on health from the book, "Human Relations," by Dr. William R. Parker at Thursday's meeting of the Texas Delta Delta Chapter, Phi Sigma Alpha, in the home of Mrs. J. O. Johnson Sr., 1506 State Park.

"The individual who worries continuously is more often suffering from a psychosomatic illness and is an adult who did not receive unconditional love when young," said Mrs. Baker in quoting from the book.

"This type of person is pre-occupied with health and wishes to talk about it and describe his symptoms. This can result in actual physical illness to get attention," continued Mrs. Baker.

"Love is basically an emotional relationship to other people and a willingness to give," concluded Mrs. Baker.

Mrs. Joe Blum was initiated as a new member. The next meeting will be a salad supper in the home of Mrs. W. R. Loftis, 1304 Lincoln.

Wives Club Sets Date For Luncheon

Mrs. Donald Jones presided and announced plans for a St. Patrick's Day party at Thursday's meeting of the Airmen's Wives Club in the John H. Lees Service Club. The couple's party was slated for Saturday in the home of Mrs. William Caruso, 501 Union. A business women's luncheon was scheduled for March 25 at Furr's Cafeteria. Any interested woman is invited to attend at 11:30 a.m.

Courtney HD Club Hears Program

STANTON (SC) — Mrs. Leo Payne presided at Thursday's meeting of the Courtney Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. L. D. Stripling. The program, "Environment," was given by Mrs. James Eiland, Martin County home demonstration agent, and Mrs. R. R. Sauer was welcomed as a guest.

Win High Tallies At La Gallina

Four tables were in play for the La Gallina bridge games held Friday at Big Spring Country Club. The Howell movement was used, with Mrs. Ernest Welch and Mrs. Ed Corson placing first. Other winners were Mrs. D. O. Gray and Mrs. J. D. Elliott, second; and Mrs. Monroe Gafford and Mrs. Dan Wilkins, third.

MR. AND MRS. V. C. CANNON, SHAWN, FANCHON AND CANDY

Family From Amarillo Likes Sight Of 'Hills'

By RHODA LEMONS
Although Mrs. V. C. Cannon started high school here, living in Big Spring over a year, the rest of her family is new to this area. The family includes her husband and three daughters, Fanchon, 18, a senior in Big Spring Senior High School; Candy, 15, a sophomore at BSHS; and Shawn, 12, a sixth grader at Marcy Elementary School.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon have purchased a home at 2604 Apache. Cannon is military supervisor for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company and his job is to coordinate air base communications.

Cannon was born in Sepulpa, Okla., and graduated from high school in Stroud, Okla. He joined the military with the Army in World War II and served overseas in communications in the Aleutian Islands. One of his Army buddies worked for Bell Telephone Company, and through him, Cannon became associated with Bell during 1945 in Corpus Christi. He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Cannon of Sepulpa.

Mrs. Cannon is the daughter of Mrs. H. F. McCarty of Dublin. Her late father was a baker at Vaughn's Sweet Shop when they lived here previously. She was born in Dublin and graduated from high school in Weatherford, later attending Bish Mathis Institute, a business college at Longview. She moved to Corpus Christi and began her career as a bookkeeper for Chicago Oil Corporation.

MET IN CORPUS
"Henri," as she is known to her friends, and Cannon met in Corpus Christi in 1948 and it was April 30, 1949, when they were married.

They lived in Corpus Christi until 1950, then were transferred to Lubbock where he had several jobs "moving upward" with the company. From Lubbock, the family was transferred to Amarillo where he served as supervisor for nine years at the Amarillo Air Force Base. He was there until the base was closed, coming to Big Spring in September. He was joined by his family in February.

Mrs. Cannon, a brunette with green eyes, lists her hobbies as sewing for the three girls, doing needlepoint, crewel work and knitting. She and her husband are "most interested" in working with teenagers. "I am disappointed that there are so few social activities for young people in Big Spring," said Mrs. Cannon. "I would rather be around teenagers than anything else." Both Mr. and Mrs. Cannon chaperoned for teenage dance clubs in Amarillo.

Cannon's favorite hobby is woodworking, and he has a shop complete with tools at his home. He has just completed building cabinets for the garage, and other projects of his are an attractive desk and table now being used in the home.

"I like to hunt and fish when I get the chance," said Cannon, but I usually manage to get away only about once a year."

SCHOOL HONORS
Fanchon will return to Amarillo for graduation exercises at Tascosa High School where she was class favorite during her freshman, sophomore and junior years. This year as a senior, she was elected "Miss Tascosa" and also was "DAR Girl for 1968-69." The latter is selected by vote of the senior class and faculty, and the award is given on school and community leadership. Also, she was a cheerleader for three years and head cheerleader last year. She is a member of the National Honor Society.

Candy was named freshman cheerleader and a member of the Student Council for two years. Shawn is eagerly looking forward to taking piano and guitar lessons. "In the past, I have never been much of a gardener, but we inherited a beautiful yard, so I will have to learn," said Mrs. Cannon. She is impressed by the rolling hills of Big Spring after the flat terrain of Amarillo.

Rho Xi Chapter Elects New Slate

STANTON (SC) — New officers were elected at Thursday's meeting of the Rho Xi Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, in the home of Mrs. Tommy Blackwell. The new slate will take office in September.

Officers named were Mrs. Bill Terry, president; Mrs. Eddie James, vice president; Mrs. Phil Stovall, secretary and city council delegate; Mrs. Bob Bryan, treasurer; Mrs. Henry Watson, extension officer and alternate city council delegate.

The Founder's Day banquet was slated for April 24 in Furr's Cafeteria in Big Spring. The election of the chapter's "girl of the year" was held, and her name will be revealed at the banquet.

A report on the Heart Fund drive was heard, and the chapter collected $225.

Mrs. Bill Terry gave the program on "Action," a study of BSP. The next meeting will be held preceding the spring banquet March 20.

Scarves Sewn By League For Camp

The Ladies Home League sewed scarves for summer camp in Midlothian at Wednesday's meeting in the Salvation Army Citadel. Mrs. Imogene Moore, chaplain, gave the devotion.

Friday evening, the league served a Mexican supper at the Citadel for the self-denial missionary project. Members of the Junior Guards and Sunbeams will begin their annual candy sales, and the girl who sells the most candy will have an expense paid trip to summer camp.

CWF Hears Reports On Activities

Mrs. Curtis Driver presided at the Christian Woman's Fellowship supper meeting Thursday at First Christian Church. The Ruth Group served as hostesses.

Mrs. Sampy Wall reported on the United Church Women's Council. She announced the World Day of Prayer will be March 9, and the annual Easter egg hunt will be March 28. Members will provide 10 dozen eggs for the hunt.

Mrs. Wall reminded members to attend the city commissioners' meeting Tuesday at 7 p.m., to support the planned parent-hood program which will be discussed at the meeting.

Mrs. Mildred McFall will work at the Westside Center from 10 to 11 a.m. on Fridays, and Mrs. Driver appointed a nominating committee with Mrs. Tom Rosson as chairman. A church bazaar will be held Dec. 2 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. The Week of Prayer Easter services will be sponsored by the Big Spring Pastors Association, and members were invited to attend.

The Rev. John Beard gave the program, "Homeland Ministry," and Mrs. Sonny Shroyer brought the worship service.

Tables were covered with white cloths and green streamers and centered with a green shamrock hat. Two guests, Rev. Beard and the Rev. Charles Rice, were welcomed.

Duplicate Bridge Winners Revealed

High tallies in Tuesday evening's duplicate bridge play have been announced at Big Spring Country Club. Winners were Mrs. John Stone and Mrs. J. D. Robertson, first; Mrs. J. Y. Robb and Mrs. Elmo Wasson, second; and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Riley, third.

'West Wind' Blows Bevy Of Fashions To OWC Show

"The West Wind Doth Blow" was the theme of the March luncheon for the Officers' Wives Club held Thursday at Webb Air Force Base and hosted by the 3560th PTS Wives.

In charge of arrangements were Mrs. Glen Shaffer, chairman; Mrs. Richard Lang, treasurer; Mrs. James Jacobs, decorations; Mrs. Ron Sager, posters; Mrs. James Clevenger, menu; and Mrs. Richard Speros, sewing.

The program was an arts and crafts exhibition highlighted with a style show of home-sewn fashions for women and children. Mrs. Karen Walker, program chairman, introduced the commentator, Mrs. Nancy Wisner, and the pianist, Mrs. Cheryl Ewing.

Modeling the pretty children's fashions were Terry Ellison, Carrie Jacobs, Marc Fields, Diane Hightower and Leah Walker. Women's daytime fashions were shown by Mrs. Mary Beth Watson, Mrs. Pat Houppert, Mrs. Jennie Wilson, Mrs. Janet Gobble, Mrs. Phyllis Mott, Mrs. Lora Newcomer, Mrs. Sharon Jacobs, Mrs. Jane Hussey, Mrs. Marge Olson, Mrs. Jerry Lowe and Mrs. Carol Leinen. Six of this group, Mrs. Houppert, Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Gobble, Mrs. Mott, Mrs. Newcomer and Mrs. Jacobs, showed evening and formal fashions as did Mrs. Karen Russell, Mrs. Joan Spurrer and Mrs. Joan Hoenninger.

Judges for the sewing were Mrs. Albert Hohertz and Mrs. Delaine Crawford. Winners in the children's sewing were Mrs. Hightower, first; Mrs. Walker, second; and Mrs. Wilson, honorable mention. Daytime women's wear winners were Mrs. Leinen, first; Mrs. Olson, second; and Mrs. Hussey, third. Rankings for formal wear were Mrs. Russell, first; Mrs. Mott, second; and Mrs. Wilson, third. Mrs. Gen Schafer served as judge for the art entries, and Mrs. Charles Sweeney judged the ceramics. In paintings, first place went to Mrs. Carolyn Baker and second to Mrs. Cindy Stone, who took first place in the drawing category, with Mrs. Linda Reaney placing second. Ceramics winners were Mrs. Helen Shaw, first; Mrs. Charlotte Gibson, second; and Mrs. Leslie Goyette, third. First place for hand molded ceramics went to Mrs. Mary Milstead. In the "miscellaneous" division, winners were Mrs. Gayle Lucas, first; Mrs. Kathy Krull, second; and Mrs. Cheryl Klein, third; and needlework awards went to Mrs. Mary Hudgens, first; Mrs. Gibson, second; and Mrs. Missie Coneybeer, third.

Decorations for the dining room carried out the chosen theme. Columns were transformed into telephone poles, with kites caught in the connecting wires, and the stage featured a typical West Texas fence entangled with an assortment of articles usually blown by the wind. Each table held two dried flower arrangements, and a triangle head scarf was placed at each plate.

The invocation was by Mrs. Robert T. Deming, and the welcome was extended by Mrs. James Malone. A farewell gift was presented to Mrs. Thomas Allison, OWC recording secretary, who is leaving Webb, and Mrs. Gobble was introduced as her replacement.

Guests introduced by Mrs. M. J. Rega were Genny Oliver, Mrs. Mary Tofsa, Claudia Rich, Mrs. Paul Kionka, Mrs. A. T. Aija, Sue Johns, Mrs. Milton Talbot, Mrs. Pete Rhymes, Maomi Daugherty, Barbara Daugherty, Ann Ratliff, Wanda Corbell, Claudette Glusicks, Mrs. T. J. Rowland and Mrs. Carrie Wilson. Farewells were said to Evelyn Sylvester, and newcomers welcomed were Mrs. Mary Speckman and Mrs. Kathy Krull.

The club announcements were made by Mrs. Hussey who reminded the group that Webb's first Debutante Presentation Ball will be held June 14. Prior to the dance, a tea will honor the debts on June 9.

Members of a special committee for the program were Mrs. T. Isaacson, Mrs. R. Niemotka, Mrs. N. Mears and Mrs. D. Mott, the latter serving as style show co-ordinator.

The bride is a graduate of Permian High School and Odessa College. She is presently a senior student at Texas Tech and is copy editor for the University Daily. A graduate of Levelland High School, the bridegroom is also a Texas Tech senior and is employed at the Avalanche Journal in Lubbock.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Fuller, 1109 Lamar, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Nancy Lou, to Pvt. Earl G. Sherrill, son of Mrs. Nancy Sherrill, 1516 Kentucky Way. A spring wedding is planned by the couple.

MR. AND MRS. WALTER E. GRICE

Reception To Mark Golden Anniversary

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Grice will be observed today when the couple is honored with a reception in the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Leatherwood, 1723 Yale. Calling hours are from 4 to 6 p.m.

Other hosts for the affair will be the couple's daughter, Mrs. Vernon (Doris) Johnston, and husband of Harlingen, and their son, Lonnie Doyle Grice and his wife who reside in Big Spring. Assisting will be the grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Johnston of Harlingen, Gregory Lane Grice, Kit Grice and Kim Grice, one granddaughter, Mrs. Nancy Long of Michigan, will be unable to attend. The Grice's great-grandchildren are Glenn Johnston and Ronda Long.

House party members will be Mrs. Leatherwood, Mrs. R. E. G. Cowper, Mrs. Robert Currie, Mrs. Coy Nalley, Mrs. Clyde Angel, Mrs. Lee Porter, Mrs. B. Broadrick, Mrs. F. C. Gambill, Mrs. R. J. Beam and Mrs. J. E. Hogan.

Mrs. Grice is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Reece who were the parents of nine children. The family was living on a ranch near Lubbock in a small house built by Mr. Reece, when Mrs. Grice met her future husband. She recalls that she was getting water at the windmill one day when a stranger rode up on horseback, stopping to ask for a drink of water. The young man introduced himself as Walter Grice, remarking that he was on the way to Lubbock. By plan, she accompanied her father to town that weekend where she saw the young man again.

DECISION

According to Grice, he had already decided that she would be his wife. The budding romance was interrupted, however, when he had to go into service. She moved to Greenville, and consequently, did not receive his letters; so by the time Grice returned she was engaged to another.

"She was pretty mad at me, but I convinced her that she should marry me instead of the other fellow," said Grice, who was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Seborn Grice. He was reared in Navarro and Hill counties, attended school in Hubbard City, and moved to Lubbock in 1916 where he went to work for W. L. Elwood at the Spade Ranch.

"I did different jobs — just general flunky, I guess, but the job was a pleasure," mused Grice. He and Miss Reece were married March 5, 1919, in a preacher's home in Greenville and made their first home in Lubbock. They came to Big Spring in 1929, and during the ensuing years braved some hard times, including the loss of a daughter when she was six years old. He worked at various jobs before becoming Justice of the Peace in 1941. He was later county judge, and is now again serving as JP.

Grice was a deacon in the Baptist church for 20 years and his wife helped with the young people's department. They are now both active in the Evangelical Temple of God.

In the past, he belonged to the Lion's Club, but says his only "active" membership now is in the "Settles Coffee Club" which has been meeting each morning for nearly 20 years. In his job, Grice has presided at 1,200 inquests and performed 2,300 weddings.

WISH FOR OTHERS

"I have performed a lot of marriages," he said, "and I wish every couple that I have joined together could be as happy as we have been. We've had 50 wonderful years together, and I don't see how we could have done without each other."

When receiving guests today, Mrs. Grice will wear a pale green suit and will be presented an orchid corsage. Her husband will receive a gold boutonniere. Gold corsages will also be worn by the house party.

The refreshment table will be covered with a white lace cloth, trimmed in gold, and the centerpiece will be a gold and yellow floral arrangement in an antique container. Flanking the flowers will be crystal punch bowls, and other appointments will be of crystal. The wedding cake will be decorated in gold and topped with the numerals, "50."

Among the out-of-town guests expected to attend are Grice's sister, Mrs. Barney Norwood of Lubbock, and his brother-in-law, Carry Norwood, also of Lubbock.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Recently there was an article on the news service that dealt with the amazing amount of garbage and trash that is thrown away each day by people in this country. A great amount of it could be attributed to pure wastefulness . . . food that was not eaten and thrown away while still edible.

But most of the trash came from the unusual amount of paper containers, etc., that are used by packages of frozen foods, milk cartons and untold quantities of paper used for what most of us call junk mail.

If you can remember back as far as World War II you can remember how scarce paper was. No one sent out anything by mail if it didn't really have to be sent. Housewives took shopping bags with them . . . they saved them from previous shopping trips to the markets in order to have a bag to carry the groceries home. Of course we didn't have such a supply of frozen food so that was no bother. We didn't have much ice cream in cartons, either. We made it ourselves and then only if we managed to save enough sugar to splurge a bit. (Do you remember how we used honey or syrup to substitute for sugar when we made cakes?)

We didn't use paper towels, or paper tissues or paper napkins. In fact sometime The Herald had a pretty good job of it to manage for enough newspaper to keep their presses rolling.

But now this many years later we have almost anything you can think of put up in paper. No kitchen is without paper towels, napkins, table cloths or place mats. And who in the United States does without tissues? Not only do we have all these handy little gadgets about to lighten our housework, but now the young people, and perhaps some of the older ones, are wearing paper dresses and bathing suits . . . wear once and throw away. Ah progress!

MRS. VIOLA YOUNGER received word Thursday of the arrival of another great-grandchild. The 10 pound, 7 ounce boy, named Jon Bradford, was born on March 6 to CAPT. and MRS. JOSEPH A. LEMIRE in Tokyo, Japan. Mrs. Lemire is the former BELINDA BRADFORD and is with her parents, MAJ. (ret.) and MRS. LEO G. BRADFORD in Tokyo. Her husband is on temporary duty in Korea. The couple has a two-year-old daughter, Denise.

The Bradfords lived here for many years when he was stationed at Webb AFB as was Capt. Lemire when he met and married Belinda. His parents are Col. and Mrs. Joseph A. Lemire of Phoenixville, Pa.

Hospital as a result of a fall Monday evening. She fell as she was approaching the high school gymnasium, causing damage to both elbows. She underwent surgery Wednesday morning and has both arms in casts. She probably won't want much company for a while, but words of encouragement would most likely be appreciated.

MRS. CHARLES HARWELL has returned from Hurst where she has been with her father who was ill. His condition is much improved.

MR. and MRS. FRIEND TALBOT are in Corpus Christi to visit their son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. JACK McDANIEL.

Enjoyed having coffee with pretty MRS. W. A. MOORE JR. during the week, and seeing some friends that we miss seeing as often as we once did. Mrs. Moore and her family are a welcome addition to the city. We're glad they've come back.

Girl Scout National Birthday

National Girl Scout Week will be observed this year from March 9-15, and joining in the local observance will be 895 Girl Scouts who are registered in the seven neighborhoods which make up District Four.

Miss Celia Fowler is district advisor, and heading the neighborhoods are Mrs. Bob Ballard, No. One; Mrs. Tom Ivey, No. Two and Forsan; Mrs. Charles Tate, No. Three; Mrs. Dale Mason, No. Four; Mrs. Bill Fryrear, No. Six (Coahoma and Sand Springs); Mrs. J. D. Poe, No. Five (Stanton); and Mrs. W. C. Little No. 7 (Lamesa).

Each neighborhood will be holding special events such as father-daughter banquets, box suppers, cookouts and skills and crafts exhibitions. A "Piper Parade" scheduled for the downtown area Saturday was cancelled due to cold weather.

The Girl Scout official "birthday" is March 12, and Girl Scouting started on this date 57 years ago. This month, President Richard Nixon has sent the Scouts the following message:

"Girl Scouts of the United States of America have helped to train and inspire 29,000,000 girls and adults to become more active, informed and resourceful citizens. That is a record of service to our nation of which you can be unusually proud. From personal experience, Mrs. Nixon and I know how Girl Scouting also encourages individual enterprise and initiative, and personal development. Both of our daughters have been Girl Scouts.

"There has never been a greater need for a youth organization that encourages good citizenship and responsible personal conduct, international friendship and service to others. Mrs. Nixon joins me in congratulating you on 57 years of achievement and in extending good wishes to your three and three-quarter million members for continued success and growth in your vital program for youth."

There are now 49 Girl Scout troops registered in District Four. They are comprised of 895 girls in Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes and Seniors. Registered to work with them are 169 adults in Girl Scouting. The figures show an increase of eight new troops over last year, 102 increase in membership and 24 more adult workers. area who serve on the West Texas Girl Scout Council are Mrs. Paul Meek, R. J. Ream, Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Little, all of Big Spring; and Mrs. Poe of Stanton.

During the cookie sale just ended, 23 troops participated in selling 1,052 cases of cookies (12,625 boxes.) This provided a troop profit of $631.25 and in excess of $2,700 which went to the property fund for Camp Boothe Oaks near Sweetwater which serves the Scouts in this area.

Texas! Discovering the Lone Star State with... FRANK OLIVER

In 1926, a highly talented and sought-after portrait painter came to America. In the course of painting scores of prominent persons in the East, Douglas Chandor met and fell in love with a Weatherford, Texas girl, Ina Hill. In 1934, he came to Weatherford to marry her and fell in love again... with Texas. Here he decided to stay. And, here he proceeded to design and build the most amazing garden imaginable for this or any other climate. With considerable vigor, he changed a Texas caliche hill into a veritable fairyland, all the while filling an increasing demand for his portraits by the great and near-great.

A masterpiece of artistic design, it staggers the imagination. The seven acres of garden, with the little English cottage in the center, is entered by a footbridge across a lovely pond. You step into a cool recess of bamboo and are immediately in another world, surrounded by the exquisite beauty and aroma of thousands of plants, trees, flowers, shrubs and artifacts, all deliberately blended to keep you spellbound. Your delight is intensified as you move, transfixed, from "room to room" under a canopy of foliage. Waterfalls, manicured greens, streams, bridges, walls, hills and ravines inundated with a mass of every variety of plant and flower conceivable surround you. Suddenly, you realize the designer's plan... to provide an unbelievably delightful recess that remains just that, even under a blazing Texas sun! Only when you emerge from this living fantasia are you aware of the scope of the talent of Douglas Chandor.

Texas! warmly recommends a special trip this way, particularly in March or April. But the charm of Chandor overwhelms you even in mid-summer or winter. Take your time. Several leisurely spent hours touring the garden will reward you with years of memories... until you return, again and again.

Housing Problem Talks Scheduled March 17

An open session for real estate people and landlords to discuss the current housing situation in the city in the light of Air Force needs has been called for Monday, March 17.

The session, sponsored by the Housing-Commercial Committee of the Base Community Council, is to be held in the Fireplace Room at the Webb Officers Club starting at 7:30.

Jeff Brown and Col. Donald Jones, co-chairmen of the committee, stressed that the meeting is open to all interested persons and that suggestions will be welcomed. The Board of Realtors, along with several major rental property owners, is assisting in developing the affair.

Among items to be brought up is the Webb AFB housing referral office, to which most new military arrivals go for direction and assistance. Base figures show that some 45 new people are assigned to Webb each month, and could be helped by suitable liaison.

It is projected that from now until May, there will be 110 additional people at the Base.

One area of need, sponsors said, is for the category of there are 454 students in training, and more than 201 of these live in facilities in the civilian community.

Webb surveys indicate there is more need for suitable housing for these junior officers.

More than 500 enlisted men reside off-base. These, together with students and permanent party officers, show more than 900 residing in civilian quarters. Webb people, the survey states, spend some $1,500,000 annually in rental in Big Spring.

The survey said that as of the end of February, there was a waiting list of 54, virtually all of these junior officers.

Interested people are invited to get full details, and to join in discussion of the use of the Base housing referral office, and of possible steps to help meet the current situation.

Water District Has Impressive Record

The annual operating report of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, released Saturday by W. P. Odom, assistant general manager, showed over 12 billion gallons of water delivered last year for a yield of $2,603,035.

Cumulative figures, since the district began operation 17 years ago, also are impressive. During that period of time the member cities have used 102.8 billion gallons of water at an aggregate cost of $19,526,067. Oil companies have used 148.3 billion gallons at a cost of $29,364,784.

During 1968 Odessa used 4,050,806,000 gallons at a cost of $920,757. This figured at 22.73 cents per thousand. The average for 17 years is 21.01 per thousand.

Big Spring used 2,702,535,000 gallons at a cost of $424,373, or 15.70 cents per thousand. The 17-year average has been 16.37 cents per thousand.

Snyder used 713,206,400 gallons at a cost of $100,012, or 14.20 cents per thousand gallons. The 17-year average cost is 16.11 cents per thousand. The past year's production came mainly — 11,245,070,808 gallons — from Lake J. B. Powell Lakes southeast of Big Spring.

In 1968, the district injected 282,328,800 gallons of Lake Thomas water in the de-watered zones in Martin County, and pumped 297,230,800 from this supply, leaving 379,111,710 gallons of lake water stored underground.

The power bill last year amounted to $391,642, distributed to 12 pump and well-field stations. Total operating expenses were $860,243 against a budgeted $897,932, due principally to pumping less water than estimated.

In the 17-year period of operations, CRMWD has pumped over 251.2 billion gallons of water to its customers, realizing a gross of $48,874,000 from this.

The operating report also includes an analysis of water quality at the end of the year. Lake Thomas, although at its lowest point since the district has been serving all cities from it, had only 28 points chloride (salt) per million and 105 points total hardness.

The Martin County well field, used only for peaking purposes, had 151 chlorides and 315 points total hardness.

Mao Propaganda From Red China

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's official news agency says army doctors saved a Red Guard whose heart had stopped beating for 39 minutes, and credited the claimed success to Chairman Mao Tse-tung's thought.

The news agency Hsinhua said Thursday the Red Guard was electrocuted Jan. 17.

"Following our great leader Chairman Mao's teaching, 'Heal the wounded, rescue the dying, practice revolutionary humanitarianism,' and breaking with bourgeois conventions," the agency said, doctors administered an injection of adrenalin, which it claimed had been ruled out by bourgeois experts in cases of electric shock.

While the people of Israel defend their land, you can help these.

DON'T THINK you haven't a stake in Israel. Listen to Eric Hoffer, "I have a premonition that will not leave me: as it goes with Israel so it will go with all of us. Should Israel perish the holocaust will be upon us. Israel must live!"

BUT THIS is not a plea for men and arms, but for the very health and lives of little children, of the sick and aged, of hundreds of thousands of immigrants not yet absorbed, for the youth of Israel in need of training and education—for a brave, determined people virtually giving their all, for they know should Israel be defeated it would be destroyed. That is why practically all of Israel's resources go to its defense.

THE UNITED States Jewry is raising an Israel Emergency Fund of $200-million, not for war, but to fulfill the humanitarian needs of these deprived people. That is in addition to the usual funds which the United Jewish Appeal raises each year for the welfare of their people here at home, throughout the nation and the world over. The Emergency Fund is something extra they have to dig deep in the other pocket to supply.

IT WOULD be a wonderful way to express your admiration for their incomparable help for others were you to dig into your pocket and send an extra gift to the United Jewish Appeal of Big Spring, care A. J. Prager, 102 E. 3rd St.

A Devotional For The Day

Jesus, tired after his journey, sat down by the well. (John 4:6, NEB)
PRAYER: To Thee dear Lord, who knew weariness, we pray for all in distress of any kind. Turning to Thee, the giver of all good, may they find refreshment to their souls. In Thy name we pray. Amen.

That Drop Box

Numerous suggestions are being made for providing a drop box on the driver's side near the new post office. Even our high school students, in their day of running the city affairs Friday, talked about it.
Incidentally, they rejected the idea of making one block on East 5th Street one-way. This seems to us to have sound reasoning, for there's simply not much point in disrupting a street with one block of one-way traffic. It would simply confound confusion and create a potential of danger.
General Services Administration could have provided for this matter in laying out its parking area and put just a wee bit of it to a drop box on the driver's side. If this is not still feasible, then why not get with the city and provide for a little loop off Fifth so that cars could drive inside the present drop location rather than the outside where it causes drivers to have to slide across the seat or get out of the car and walk to the box?
Pedestrian traffic wouldn't be materially affected.
Whatever the answer may be, we have a feeling that it ought to be provided as expeditiously as possible.

Weather Proves A Point

It's too bad some key figures in the Department of Agriculture and on the congressional agricultural committees could not have been here the latter part of the week.
First, there was a joint conference here between representatives of the Agriculture Research Service and the Soil Conservation Service on the problems of soil erosion due to wind.
Second, as if on cue, there occurred a robust sandstorm Friday that undermined what the soil men and researchers had been saying about the seriousness of the matter.
The point is simply this: The U.S. Experiment Station at Big Spring has been proposed as a research point for just this kind of study. The location is right in the heart of an area where severe wind erosion starts on the western edge and progresses devastatingly to the east.
Reports at the conference here reflected a knowledge of how to mitigate soil blowing through crop management and tillage methods. It also revealed some findings about causes of wind erosion. But in each instance, it was apparent that there is a whole of a lot that is not yet known, and that current methods are still far short of preventing critical economic damage.
Intense research into the subject might turn up new approaches which would reduce the problem. Any significant reduction would produce million of dollars in dividends over the years.

Japan's Search For Markets

TOKYO — A Japanese trade mission headed by a member of parliament belonging to the ruling Liberal-Democratic party is currently in Peking working out a new trade agreement with Red China. It is a baffling and frustrating process as the heavy-handed Maoist ideology stands in the way at every turn.
Yet, the lure of 700 million customers just next door is irresistible. An island nation with only limited natural resources, Japan must increase her export trade to maintain the high standard of living set with the swift recovery since the end of the war. This is an article of faith expressed by industrialists and government officials alike.
EXPORTS TO China increased last year to a record $255 million, according to figures of the Japan External Trade Organization. At the same time, however, imports from Red China dropped by 14.8 per cent to a total of $29 million. The hard fact of this discrepancy permits few illusions about any boom in the near future in Chinese-Japanese trade. The total exchange represents only two per cent of Japan's foreign commerce, with Formosa China having a trade with Japan at least double that with the mainland.
THE UPHEAVAL in recent years with virtual civil war in many provinces is reason enough to restrain hopes of building a long-term economic relationship with Communist China. Equally important is the paucity of raw materials China has to exchange for Japanese steel, chemicals and fertilizers.
WITH THE powerful thrust of an economy growing at the rate of 10 per cent a year, the Japanese are

Billy Graham

Why do Christians believe that they will live forever? W.B.
We have the assurances of God's promises, the Holy Spirit in our hearts and even reason itself. In the Gospel of John, we are told: "He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life." This means that eternal life begins the moment we accept Christ as Saviour and Lord. Even now, as a Christian, this glorious and unending existence is yours. We can live with the conscious presence of Christ in our hearts and the knowledge that some day we shall see Him and be with Him for all eternity. Jesus promises us in the Gospel of John, chapter 5 and verse 24: "He that heareth My word, and believeth on Him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life." It is this assurance that enables a Christian to face life with complete confidence and hope. As you read the Bible and find these promises, the Holy Spirit will give you the faith and assurance you need for He makes the Bible plain to those who ask Him. Finally, reason tells us that this life is not all. In all lands we find people with the ingrained belief in the life hereafter.

Administration Planning On Slow Down

NEW YORK (AP) — Business and labor were called upon by the Nixon administration this past week to take it easy in boosting prices and wages.

Paul W. McCracken, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, told them in a New York speech that they "face a new ball game."

He said price and wage decisions this year "must be consistent with the economic environment of the future, which will be less inflationary."

And he advised that in the year ahead the growth of demand for goods and services would rise "at a slower rate more nearly consistent with the growth in our productive capacity."

McCracken cautioned businessmen that if they didn't heed the administration's determination to stop inflation they would encounter "uncomfortably soft markets in this new environment."
As for labor, he added, "Wage bargains which assume continued inflation at recent rates will court the risk of less employment."

NO SPECIFIC FIGURE
McCracken made it plain that he, along with President Nixon, rejected the idea of numerical guidelines for acceptable price and wage increases — such as the 3.2 per cent formula that was advocated during parts of the Kennedy and Johnson administrations.

U.S. corporations enjoyed a banner year for profits in 1968 despite higher operating costs and the 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

First National City Bank of New York reported this past week that corporate profits last year rose 10 per cent over 1967.
The bank said this was accomplished even though some slowing down in the economy was noticeable in the 1968 fourth quarter.

SLOWLY, PLEASE

- Officials call on business and labor to take it easy
- Goal is to tie increases to growth and productivity
- Corporated profits up 10 pct. for past year
- Commercial building paces construction gains
- Car sales peak over quarter million, gasoline prices up

Biggest profit gains were made by companies in the automobile, lumber, rubber and office equipment industries.

Results of a survey announced this past week showed construction contracts rose 28 per cent in January to $4,766,041,000 from $3,713,901,000 in January, 1968.

The F. W. Dodge division of McGraw-Hill Information Systems Co. said much of the gain was due to a strong surge in the value of commercial building contracts. Nonresidential building contracts spurred 59 per cent over a year earlier. Residential construction contracts climbed 19 per cent.

ORDERS DIP SLIGHTLY
The Commerce Department reported that new factory orders dipped 0.3 per cent in January to $52.94 billion from $53.1 billion in both December and November. The record of $53.93 billion was reached last October.

Consumer installment credit in January posted its smallest expansion in 10 months, according to the Federal Reserve Board. The gain of $641 million compared with $775 million in December.

Major oil companies increased gasoline prices to their dealers this past week. It was estimated this means that motorists will generally pay one cent a gallon more for gasoline throughout the country. The last

An Answer For Everything

These personal-question columns, whether dealing with aches and pains or with the frailties of human nature, seem to be the best-read topics in the paper. There is no reason why this sort of thing should not be attempted here. Just for fun, of course:

DEAR DR. FOSTENWALDER: I have been told by my doctor to stay calm, cool and collected under all circumstances. But this morning to start with I broke the lace on my shoe, and couldn't find a place to knot it. Then I cut myself while shaving, and had nothing to stanch the blood flow. Things got messy. After this, my wife burned the toast. I was hurrying to get out of the house and the car wouldn't start. What would you suggest for a situation like this?
—UPSET.

Dear Upset: Of course you should remain calm and collected. You should have thrown your shoe through the window, busted your shaving mirror, whopped your wife over the head with a folded newspaper, slammed down the hood of your car (with determination) three times. Then you should have asked to be put in jail. That would have calmed you down.

DEAR DR. FOSTENWALDER: Our little girl is now six years in age and doesn't speak a word of English. She chatters, but the other children don't understand her, and she no understand them. Can you suggest to help us? — MRS. BAMBINO VARONELLI.
Dear Mrs. Varonelli: Try speaking

English yourself. I'll wager your kid is a whiz at spouting Italian.

DEAR DR. FOSTENWALDER: Some of us have made a bet on whether it's bad to "mix" your drinks, like alternating bourbon, gin, beer, rum, etc. Is such a mixture worse for you than staying with one kind of drink? — BEVO.

Dear Bevo: I have not made a special test of this, but we could try right now. First I have drunk a can of beer. Rather sharp on the palate, I would say. Next I have taken on a slug of bourbon. Ugh, this burns the throat, er — throat. Then I have sipped a pony of vodka — oops. I dropped the glass — and find that this doesn't have a lotta of tashte, but you can feel it down to your lil tootsies. Hello there, lil tootsies! Now, whash next? Oh, we could possibly try (hic!) some wine. Where ish the bottle wine? (hic!). Oh heretish. Now the wine. Glug!

This a pretty good test, eh? Haw, haw (hic!) Whash left? Oh, lesh havva try at somma that bum — I mean rum. He-rr-r-e-e we go!
Well, thash the wine the test went. No diff-(hic!) frunce whaddish you fuzzle, — er, guzzle, ish all jush alky . . . alky . . . alky . . .

Some Pictures Are Not For Wives

HOLLYWOOD — Mr. Jack Valenti of the Motion Picture Producers Association has done a fine job with his rating system of films. In order to protect children, his association now informs people through the advertisements and outside the theater whether they are suitable for the whole family or just the adult part of it. The ratings start with G for the family — then go to M for mature audiences, and finally to X where human beings under 16 are not admitted.

I am not criticizing Mr. Valenti's ratings but actually trying to improve on them. I think he should add another category to warn husbands what to expect. This rating on a film could be X-NFW — which would stand for "not for wives."

I SAY THIS because I went to a film the other night with my wife only to discover when we got to the theater that it had an X rating.

"What does that mean?" she wanted to know.
"It means that this picture is an adult film and only those of us who are mature enough and grown-up enough to understand the implications of what the producer and writer and director are trying to say, are permitted to see it."
"You mean it's a dirty picture?" she said.

"WE MUST NOT use the word dirty in describing a film. It is an art picture, aimed at a specific audience who want more out of life than Doris Day and Rock Hudson."
"Those billboards out front look pretty dirty to me."
"What's the matter. Haven't you ever seen a girl tied behind a bulldozer before?"
"Not while it's knocking down a building."
"Well, billboards never really show what the movie is about. It's just a way of getting you into the theater."

"I'd rather see 'Oliver,'" she said.

"DON'T BE SQUARE. If adults don't support X-rating films who will?"

Before she could change her mind I bought the tickets and we went in.

"The popcorn even looks dirty," my wife said.

"Will you stop behaving like someone who only attends movies for the entire family?"

We sat down just behind six members of a motorcycle gang, and next to an old man who was reading "Candy" while the lights were on.

FINALLY THE movie started. It opened up with a woman being whipped by 10 members of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police.

"Let's go," my wife said.
"We can't go until we've found out what she's done. Perhaps that's the way people are punished in Canada."
"Nelson Edley never whipped Jeannette MacDonald."

The scene shifted to a pair of lumberjacks walking through the forest with their arms around each other. They stopped in a clearing.

"That does it," my wife said. "I'm going."

"BUT THERE'S supposed to be a big scene between two girls from Toronto and three women from French Canada who want independence from the Commonwealth."

"She was on her way up the aisle and I followed her."
"I just want to ask you one question," she said as we were driving home. "What was the point of that Mountie kissing his horse?"
"Oh, come on. Haven't you seen a man kiss a horse before?" I said.
"On the lips?"

The Method Of Hiring Teachers

WASHINGTON — Coordination between cabinet departments under President Nixon seems not yet to have been achieved. In fact, the Department of Justice is on record today as favoring a quota system in the selection of teachers in the public schools, whereas the Department of Health, Education and Welfare thinks this could be damaging to the quality of education in the public schools.

THE SUPREME COURT has just agreed to examine a test case on the subject which may not be argued before next fall. But, in the meantime, the American people may well wonder whether the virtual advocacy of racial discrimination in the selection of teachers — as sanctioned, in effect, by the Department of Justice under the Johnson administration — is going to continue. Secretary Finch of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has, on the other hand, taken issue with the idea of selecting the faculty for a school on the basis of racial proportions.

IN THE CASE which now is up for appeal before the Supreme Court, the lower court ruled that a "good faith and effective effort" is sufficient on the part of a school board, and that mere precise proportional patterns in teaching staffs would not make for sound administration. Both of the lower courts refused to require the faculties of newly built schools to be assigned by racial proportions.
The court of appeals in the Fifth Circuit designated for the current year a ratio of five white teachers to one Negro in the faculty, and rejected the three-to-two proportion demanded for the future. The Department of Justice is on record in favor of the eventual three-to-two percentage.

THE NATIONAL Association for the Advancement of Colored People has joined with the Department of Justice in arguing that desegregation requires faculty integration. It insists on a ratio of three white to two Negro teachers in each public school of Montgomery County, Ala., where the suit arose. This is the current racial proportion of the total number of the teachers at present in the school system in the county. Secretary Finch this weekend declared:

"If you start throwing in arbitrary percentages — if you say, for example, 'You've got to have at least 20 per cent Negro teachers' — well, a good many Negro teachers long ago went West or North because of better pay, plus a lot of other factors."

"SO IF WE SAY, 'you've got to hire five Negro teachers' and they go out and hire the first five they can get, then the quality of education can drop way down."

Secretary Finch asserted that, if a white faculty in a particular instance "was capable of doing a better job of school teaching," then he would prefer the white faculty. He added:

"I don't think that, because the student body is overwhelmingly black, there has to be an arbitrary number of black faculty members."

SO THE REAL question is whether the quality of education to be obtained in the public schools will be paramount, or whether political factors will be given prime consideration. There is no argument about the necessity of desegregating public schools so that white and Negro children are assigned to schools and classrooms in their own district without regard to race. The issue that has arisen now has to do with the policy of school authorities in selecting teachers. Will they choose them because of their qualifications, or will they hire them on the basis of color?

Gold Shots For Arthritis

By G. C. THOSTESON, M.D.
Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have heard there is a treatment for arthritis called gold shots. Can you tell me anything about it? Are there side effects? I had to give up cortisone because I was bloating so badly. — Mrs. M.C.

The use of gold shots (injection of salts which are gold compounds) is not new. It is employed with rheumatoid arthritis. This method was to a considerable extent abandoned for a time, but now is being used in selected cases.

The treatment is most effective when used early in the disease. It could be worth considering in your case — if your doctor concurs. Since he knows more about your particular case than I do, obviously, be guided by his judgment.

Yes, there are toxic effects — side effects, if you prefer — that must be watched carefully. These are kidney irritations, skin eruptions, blood disturbances. Urine and blood must be checked frequently.

The treatment is not used on a continuing basis, but only for a limited time.

PENCIL IN MOUTH?
Dear Dr. Thosteson: My brother works with a jackhammer breaking up concrete. The sound is so bad that for a while after he gets home, he can't hear too well. He has started wearing ear muffs which help a great deal.

My question is, would having his mouth open, with a pencil in it, help relieve the pressure from the noise? My mother thought it would help. — A.L.
Loud, continued noise can affect hearing — you've perhaps noticed the ear cups worn by people who work around jet planes at airports.

Your brother is wise to have started wearing the ear muffs. I am not familiar with the pencil-in-the-mouth theory, but doubt that it would help. The problem isn't pressure building up; it is the impact of strong sound waves, which can damage the fine structures of the inner ear.

CAN INTENSIFY TROUBLE
Dear Dr. Thosteson: How does alcohol affect a person with hypoglycemia? My husband has hypoglycemia and feels terrible for days after drinking and wonders if he should give up alcohol. — E.M.
Alcohol can exaggerate the symptoms of hypoglycemia (low blood sugar). This occurs — I won't go into a detailed explanation — because of the effect of alcohol on the liver, lowering the body's blood sugar level. That is why, for people with normal blood sugar, a cocktail or two before dinner can stimulate the appetite. But the person with hypoglycemia can find his troubles intensified.

FORGET IT
Dear Thosteson: I am to be married soon and have a condition which is undermining my self-confidence. I have inverted nipples. They stand out only if I am cold. Can anything be done to correct this? Must I tell my future husband about this?
This may seem trivial to you, but it really bothers me. — Miss A.B.
Well, it's too bad, but not all that important. It occurs from time to time, so you aren't alone. I'm afraid that it has become an obsession with you and wish you could just forget it. I don't see any reason for telling your husband-to-be, and there's a fair enough chance that he won't consider it worth even commenting on.
When a nipple that formerly protruded becomes inverted, that is quite another matter, and it deserves investigation. But the naturally depressed or inverted nipple? Nothing to do about it except ignore it.

Arthritis sufferers can be helped. Write for Dr. Thosteson's booklet "How You Can Control Arthritis" in care of The Big Spring Herald enclosing 35 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

'GREAT CATHERINE' Peter O'Toole and Jeanne Moreau

Shaw's Witty Play Opening At Ritz

Action, roughish dialogue, lavish settings and a scintillating cast make George Bernard Shaw's witty play, "Great Catherine," which opens today at the Ritz Theatre, a revival of grand-style cinema comedy. Starring Peter O'Toole, Jeanne Moreau, Zero Mostel, and Jack Hawkins, the Technicolor production belabors no social message. As its director Gordon Flemyng points out, it is solely pure, unadulterated entertainment, in the sharpest sense of the term. Shaw, in an introduction to the play, first staged in London on Nov. 18, 1913, noted that Catherine the Great, Empress of Russia, was a striking woman of much character but few morals, a regent who fascinated, amused and awed her contemporaries. And today, she charms audiences as the flamboyant heroine of Shaw's "Great Catherine."

To insure that the best possible entertainment would result, producer Jules Buck insisted that every member of the cast be of first magnitude acting brilliance. Thus, veteran scene-stealer Akim Tamiroff has an enviable co-starring role. And, in featured roles are such diverse talents as Angela Scoular, a newcomer, and Marie Lohr, who has been acting for more than 50 years on the stage and screen. On the technical side of the lights, the crew for "Great Catherine" is also impressive and versatile. The eighteenth-century Russian and English costumes, for example, were designed by one of Britain's experts on period films, Margaret Furse, who lists among her many screen credits

Martin Plays New Matt Helm Role

"The Wrecking Crew" with Dean Martin as confidential agent Matt Helm, provides entertaining film fare with mixed portions of sex, sinister spies, pseudo-science, scenery, singing and spoofing. It opens Sunday at the Cinema. The story concerns the efforts of Count Massimo Conti (Nigel Green) to make off with a billion and a half dollars worth of gold headed for the United States by way of Copenhagen and London, and the counter efforts of Dean Martin to recover the gold and save the stability of the dollar, the pound and the international money market.

Between the heist and its recovery, which is almost an afterthought, Martin is delayed, distracted and sometimes aided by four of the most seductive and decorative girls in the spy business: Elke Sommer, Nancy Kwan, Tina Louise and Sharon Tate. Although their roles are more gynecastic than dramatic, all four contribute to the fast action and the entertainment of the film. Moss Mabry has created costumes for each of the girls that will appeal to the men

Most Of State Benefits From Recent Snow, Rain

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — Snow and rain has covered much of the state.

John Hutchison, director of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said the over-all state soil moisture situation has improved. Grains in the west and northwest sectors plus growth on ranges have received a real boost from moisture, he said.

In southern, coastal and eastern sectors, field work has stopped. Planting in South Texas has been slowed by rain and cold, he added.

Livestock hold their fair to good condition and calving is well along, he noted. Feeding is still general and grazing in many areas is restricted by over-wet pastures.

Rain and snow over the Panhandle brightened prospects for dryland wheat and improved spring grazing. Moderate greenbug activity was reported in southern wheat fields. Land is ready for the planting of potatoes and sugar beets. Feeding is needed and most livestock are in good condition.

Moisture over the South Plains (Lubbock) boosted wheat and some fields are being top dressed. The greenbug population is high in some areas. Cattle are being moved from wheat pastures. Potatoes are being planted. With considerable feed-er livestock are in good shape.

Soll moisture is now adequate in 20 and short in only two Rolling Plains (Vernon) counties.

Grain growth is greatly improved and insect damage has decreased, he said. Where fields are dry enough, land is being prepared and weed chemicals

Actor's Sons Say They Prefer Jail

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Sterling Hayden's sons Christian and Thor say they are ready to go to jail rather than submit to military service against their beliefs.

Thor, 19, refused induction at the Oakland Army Center on Wednesday. Christian, 20, refused to report for a pre-induction physical examination Thursday in Los Angeles.

Christian sent a registered letter saying he was a conscientious objector and would not serve even in a non-hostile capacity.

applied. Livestock are being fed.

North Central Texas is in real good shape moisturewise. It's adequate to surplus. Grains made good growth and some fields are still being grazed. Ranges are greening and grazing is improving. Some feeding is still necessary. Farmers are top dressing grains, sprigging coastal, and putting down fertilizer.

In far West Texas ranges are trying to green up but a general rain is needed. Days have been warm, nights cold. Livestock are doing well but feeding is increasing. Goat shearing and plowing are continuing. Irrigated grains are making good growth.

Only the northwest corner of the West Central Texas is short on moisture. Recent moisture has helped grains and ranges are greening. Warmer weather and more moisture would help. Good calf and lamb crops are reported. Goat shearing is on as weather permits. Plowing and feeding go on.

Traffic Deaths In Britain Drop

LONDON (AP) — Road deaths in Britain last year—first full year of the "breathalyzer" test against drunken driving—were the lowest since 1962, the Transport Ministry said Thursday.

Total deaths for 1968 were 6,810, a 7 per cent drop from the previous year when 7,319 died from traffic accidents. The previous low year of 1962 showed 6,709 killed.

The "breathalyzer," introduced in 1967, measures the amount of alcohol on a driver's breath. Failure to pass the test, given by roadside police, means the driver's license is suspended.
