WHILE WIFE PLEADS FOR DONOR OF NEED HUMAN ORGAN

Artificial Heart Functioning To Keep Patient Alive

first recipient of a complete artificial heart was alert and in satisfactory condition Saturday as his wife issued a tearful plea for a human heart donor.

Haskell Karp, 47, of Skokie, Ill., received the experimental device in a three-hour operation Friday after efforts to repair a severely damaged heart chamber had failed.

Dr. Denton A. Cooley, head of the St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital team that has performed 18 heart transplants, said the totally mechanical heart had been used previously only in animals and was designed only to keep a patient alive until a human donor heart could be found.

"Our main concern at the moment is locating a suitable donor," a hospital spokesman said soon after Karp's wife, Shirley, made her plea.

Mrs. Karp had visited her husband briefly as their son, Michael, 22, watched from the gallery of the operating room.

"Someone, somewhere, please hear my plea," Mrs. Karp said.

She had written her appeal during a sleepless night.

"I see him lying there, breathing and knowing that within his chest is a manmade implement where there should be a God-given heart," she said.

"The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh but the Lord also gave us gifted men such as Dr. Denton Cooley and Dr. Domingo Liotta who are instrumental in prolonging life."

Liotta, 47, a native of Argenti-

It is Easter, 1969. And it is the eighth Easter for U.S. forces in Vietnam, As usual, hostilities were not suspended and officers ordered services scattered and limited in size to avoid large targets for enemy gunners. Pope Paul lighted a Paschal candle to mark the close of Lent at a vigil service Saturday night in Rome. Thousands joined him at St. Peter's Basilica for the vigil and Mass of joy commem-orating the end of Christ's en-

Beautiful Easter For All Texans

Temperatures soared near midsummer levels Saturday as Texans prepared for a beautiful Easter weekend. Skies were clear across the state by early afternoon.

Maximum temperatures, after a chilly night in the state's northern half, soared to 91 at Cotulla and Del Rio. Longview's 69 top was the lowest maximum. Others included: Alice 83, Beaumont 85, Brownsville 88, El Paso 82, Galveston 83, Houston 82, Laredo 88, Dallas 74, Amarillo 74, Lufkin 80, San Angelo 82, Tyler 72, Victoria 87 and Wichita Falls 74. Rainfall for the 24-hour period ending at 6 p.m. included .92 of an inch at Beaumont and lessamounts at Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston, Houston, Longview, Lufkin, Texarkana, Tyler and Waco.

Fair skies and slightly cooler temperatures, dropping into the 30s in the Panhandle, were predicted for Saturday night with warm, sunny weather for Easter Sunday.

Rains that often measured more than two inches in East Texas had pushed out of the state and clouds remained only in the coastal plains, the northeast and the segment of South Texas below San Antonio.

Forecasters said even those clouds would dissipate during a cooler night before dawn on Easter Sunday.

Heavy rains pounded several Texas points Friday night and early Saturday.

Beaumont reported more than 2 inches of rainfall in 40 minutes. Water seeped into a large furniture store causing about $20,000 in damage, the store manager said.

More than 2 inches of rain fell at Gilmer, Henderson, Douglas, Jacksonville, New Summerfield and Rusk in Northeast Texas.

Final Day For Youth Nominations

Tuesday is the final day for receipt of nomina-tions for the 1969 Youth Achievement Award. If these are to be mailed, they must be postmarked Monday; or they may be delivered in person to The Herald office Tuesday.

No names will be accepted after Tuesday. The nomination list for this prestigious recognition of youth leaders has grown steadily and now numbers more than 40. If there are other persons who want to help pay tribute to boys and girls (of the senior or junior class level) in any of the three Howard County high schools-Big Spring, Coahoma, Forsan-they should act immediately. The standard form which appears in The Herald (today on Page 5-D) must be used, but supplemental information may be attached.

Three Youth Achievement Award winners-one each from Big Spring, Coahoma and Forsan-will be selected by a panel of nine judges, and these young people will be honored at a banquet on April 18. They are to receive handsome trophies and engraved watches, gift from Zale's Jewelers, which co-sponsors the program with The Herald.
All nominees, with their dates and their parents, will be invited to the April 18 affair, and all will receive special gifts and certificates. Names of those who have been singled out with nominations and not previously announced are: Elizabeth Ann Moore, Big Spring; Pedro (Pete) Rodriquez, Big Spring; Guy Mills Burrows, Big Spring; Sandra Ray Gross, Coahoma; Marlin Medlin, Forsan; Sammy Jones, Big Spring.

Test Flight Delayed

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) - Space officials postponed Saturday for the second time a test flight of a weird looking craft designed to train astronauts to land on the moon.

The craft, called the lunar landing training vehicle, was to have been flown early Saturday for the first time since a test pilot narrowly escaped death in a crash last December. High winds caused postponement until Monday of the

Big Spring Week

Saturday forecasts gave hope that the weatherman would cooperate with Easter. A couple of mild cold fronts pushed in during the week, but feebly surrendered to spring. The appearance of a few mesquite shoots reinforced the feeling, as did the redbuds and iris. Wildflowers added their testimony, too, as yellow primrose (buttercups), wild verbenae, crow poison and yellow bladderpod blossomed. And many fruit trees, blooming the latest in years, added to the color.

The marker commemorating the discovery by Fred Hyer as Howard County's first commercial oil well was dedicated last Sunday. As with many a wildcat, there were legends that had it been drilled just one location away there would have been no well. The late Mr. Hyer dispelled the notion he had drilled in that spot by chance, but he did say, motioning to the south where there is nothing, "You can see what's out there." He was right on the edge, but he uncorked a great

Then, when the wood was properly cured, he tacked it to a saw horse and began peeling off thin slivers, or slits as he termed them, with a draw knife. These were soaked and then woven while pliable into whatever size basket he wished to make. These ranged from bushel hoppers to special baskets for eggs, fruit, clothes, etc., and a few smaller but ornamental baskets such as Mrs. Crow

She was one of 27 grandchildren and was the only one to be given a basket by her grandfather. When the Crow's daughters, Connie (Anderson) and Sandra (Hollan) were growing up, they used the basket on their Easter egg hunts. Mrs. Crow still decorates it at Eastertide. Still perfectly preserved, the basket looks good for a few generations yet.

Chickendogs Decision To Stir Up Objections

WASHINGTON (AP) — The sumer opinion."

Agriculture Department's decision to let meat producers put up to 15 per cent chicken meat in hot dogs without saying so on the main label—and without public hearings—appears certain to stir up a new round of objections.

The complaint came from the Rev. Robert J. McEwen, a Jesuit priest who is chairman of the economics department at Boston College and president of the Consumer Federation of America.

The chickendog proposal was tain to stir up a new round of objections.

Consumers will have 45 days to submit written views, but the department Friday confirmed earlier reports that there will be no hearings on the chickendog proposal.

Unofficial reports prompted one consumer advocate to write Secretary of Agriculture Clifford M. Hardin last week that the department apparently "intends to be run by the meat lobby—as some have long alleged—with no effort to consult con-

PLAYER RETURNS

Only one foreigner ever won the Masters—Gary Player of South Africa in 1961, back for another try. Is this the year for another foreigner? Others are asking, "What about old Sam Snead?"

Sam, 56, will be playing in his 29th Masters. He has lost 17 pounds, discovered a new putting stroke, will be making his strongest bid in years. He won the first of his three titles in 1949, the last in 1954.

Ben Hogan, his career perhaps ended, will not compete. What will be the psychological reaction of Bob Goalby, the de-fending champion, and Roberto de Vicenzo, the Argentine whose scorecard error a year ago cost him a tie for the title?

Big, intruse, bull-shouldered Goalby, hounded by critics who never gave him credit for the victory, has been in a horrible slump, averaging more than 72 shots a round. De Vicenzo, 45, skipped the Florida tour.

On the basis of play on the winter tour. Miller Barber and Gene Littler, leading money winners through the Miami tournament, must be reckoned as strong contenders. Each has won more than $50,000, with Barber slightly ahead.

But do they have the kind of power needed to tame the Au-gusta course, which is built for the big, reckless hitter?

No one should be rated better than a 10-1 shot in the 72-hole event, which continues through

FARRIC CENTER SETUCION

By LUCILLE PICKLE

Just about every fruit tree in Big Spring has put on her Easter bonnet of pretty deep pink, light pink, red and white blossoms. They seem to be honoring the day, along with thousands of people who will make their way to worship services today.

And when the services are over and the eggs have been hidden and found (until the eggs no longer look like eggs) mothers will begin to wonder if that long time out of school is such a great thing. They'll probably never think it as great a time off as all the school children and their teachers.

One thing for sure will come about . . . a much greater respect for the teacher and her staying ability. Mothers get used to the children being in school very easily . . . finding something to keep them happy and occupied at home is a little difficult.

They also visited her mother, they also visited her mother, MRS. JAMES HALE. This week the DEAN PORTERS and Stephen, Gregory and Beth are here from Premont. They will also visit her parents, MR. and MRS. EARL REYNOLDS.

MR. and MRS. J. H. HOMAN have returned from Austin where they visited MR. and MRS. CHARLES H. VINCENT who are the parents of a daughter whom they have named Ellen Lyle. She was born Monday, March 31, in Austin. Mrs. Vincent is the former Anne Homan. The paternal grandmother is MRS. MARY ELLEN VINCENT of Bryan.

Answer — Usually you cannot time I rinse out a pair of hose (smooth nylon) they show up just by looking at them. This is because the glaze is a thin, clear coating that has little or no effect on the colors when it is applied after the decoration. When the decoration has been applied after the glaze sometimes you can feel a slight irregularity in the surface. More and more china is being identified as underglaze now by the manufacturers. Ask the salesperson, who either knows or can applied the two types of decoration (smooth nylon) they show up with one or more runs? I have so much trouble of this kind that I have taken to buying inexpensive hose, wearing them a time or two and then discarding them. — A.N.A.

A. — Look first to your nails and cuticles. The slight est roughness can catch and break the gossamer yarn used in sheer hose. Try giving your hands a manufacture before rinsing out your hose.

Another reason for these runs may be that you are wearing hose not styled for you. They may be too short or too tight across the calf of the leg, which would place an undue strain on

A. — Look in the yellow pages of your telephone directory for the name of a bedding manufacturer who mentions comforter renovation among his services. Sometimes he can recommend the name of a person, usually a woman, who specializes in this work. There also are firms who do comforter recoverage when you buy.

would place an undue strain on the hose. Perhaps you will get better service out of the new action type seamless hose. Take time to check the new sizing and styling with the salesperson when you buy.

Q. — Why are printed and even solid color sheets and cases so much more expensive than white ones of the same quality?

Q. — Recently you mentioned the value of antique clocks. Do you mean to say that these clocks still keep good time? I have one in my attic, but I have always assumed it would not run and could not be repaired. — I.A.V.

A. — Many of these clocks are keeping perfect time all over the country. They generally need little attention other than a cleaning every few years and the occasional replacement of a broken part. Your best bet in the way of a repair job is to take the clock to a man that specializes in old clocks. He not only loves such old clocks, but he knows the sources for missing or broken parts, right down to the intricately designed old time hands.

Spring Legs Feature Subtle, Neutral Look

There's a subtle change in the look of the leg. Stockings complement the subtleties of clothes. To ignore the point is to miss the point of fashion.

Let's get with the news: First off, stockings trend toward the sheer, the better to underscore soft and sheer dresses. Some panty hose are sheer clear to the waist with little bikini panties sewn in from waist-bands. Body stockings and the shoulder-high bodice stockings come in super sheer and sheer opaque. Panty girdles with detachable stockings feature light, lacy and shimmery

Mission San Jose

No mention of the history of Texas is complete without going all the way back to the landing of the first Europeans on our soil. From these early Spanish explorers and Franciscan fathers, Texas derived the great bulk of its heritage. Both they and the French had their eyes on this new land but, while the French made some inroads into the eastern part of the territory, it was the stronger in-fluence of the Spanish, both military and missionary, that won the land over.

In 1691, the Spanish gravitated to the area that is San Antonio today. Because of the abundance of water, fertile soil and friendly Indians, they elected to establish a settlement and fortress for colonization, and a mission for the first order of business - God's business. The Franciscans set about convert ing the Indians to Christianity while the military went to work building a city. Both claimed the area the most beautiful in all New Spain. This included all of Mexico, Upper and Lower California, parts of Arizona, New Mexico and Nevadal Here was the first Texas

The first mission in this promising land, San Antonio de Valero, (the Alamo) was established in 1718 — the second, San Jose y San Miguel de Aguayo in 1720, and the third, San Francisco Xavier de Najera in 1722. Later, Purisima Concepcion de Acuna, San Francisco de la Espada and San Juan Capistrano were established in 1731. These missions functioned for years, spreading their influence through the land. With changing conditions, their activities were ordered ended

Thus was born the realization that every Texan has two homes - his and San Anton On your next trip home, visit and marvel at the 250-year-old, still standing cradle that cradled the cradle of Texas... #### Cold Light Of Reality

Most of us — whether in private, group or public activities — have a tendency to indulge in manana.

Manana — tomorrow — next week — next month. Somewhere out there is a better and less pressing time to do what needs to be done.

But if something really needs to be done, then we suggest that the time for doing it is now, particularly within the next seven weeks. From within the next seven weeks. From the end of the Easter holidays until the end of school is a golden period for productive activity. The final week in May brings the close of school, and very little can or will be accomplished (unless it is of an imperative nature) until mid-September has

So whatever we need to do as a community, and even as individuals and clubs, should be faced with vigor and with tenacity during the golden period immediately ahead. Manana beyond the end of May probably means never.

It all adds up to this — every householder and business operator in the city has a financial stake in fire prevention. The city will be justified in getting tougher on inspections; residents should constantly guard against things that could cause fires. We just can't afford any more.

The Shortcomings Of Congress

WASHINGTON - Congress has been in session three months, but most people are hardly conscious of it. For very little of importance has been accomplished, and the general feeling here is that the legislators are waiting for the chief executive to map out programs for their con-

A variety of explanations for the inaction is being heard on Capitol Hill. Some of the veterans in Congress say it is customary to wait for an administration to lay out its plans and to submit its proposals. The newer members are a bit impatient and think more progress should have been made.

ONE INTERESTING observation comes from a few Nixon supporters, who say the new President thinks the country wants a little rest from debate over such controversial proposals as were offered during the preceding stration.

What's wrong with Congress today has always been wrong. A legislative body which has been given co-equal responsibility with the executive might be thought to be organized well enough to assume some initiative and leadership on its own. But it really ten?

CONGRESS IS very much in need of reorganization or "modernization."
In the April issue of "Reader's Digest," there is an article entitled "Is Congress Destroying Itself?" It says that the attacks on Congress come from worried citizens journalists, political scientists, students of government, state and local officials, disillusioned voters." What seems to be basically unsolved is the problem of how 435 members of the House and 100 senators from 50 states can answer the mail from their constituents,

STAFFS, OF COURSE, are inadequate. The people back home continue to ask lots of questions, seek assistance on personal and civic matters, and request help on local public and private projects. Entirely apart from demands on his office of a local nature, the representative or senator finds himself taking a great deal of time trying to understand the complex issues involved in proposed laws or appropriations. With many billions of dollars being spent in programs that run not merely a year but four or more years, it is necessary to study the background of each proposal, whether it is new or a continuation of a previous program.

CONGRESS HAS used the committee system effectively to conduct investigations on subjects of paramount interest, and, on the whole, the work of the different committees has been constructive. But as the executive tasks of government grow larger and larger each year, the supervisory duties of the legislative branch also will be forced to expand substantially.

Most members of Congress are well aware of the shortcomings of the congressional system of today, but they are reluctant to offer remedies. This, it would appear, is regarded as primarily the obligation of the party leaders.

What Others Say

There are two equally important sides to the Supreme Court's decision upholding the right of public school children to protest. One is that, under the Constitution of the United States, this right of free speech cannot be withheld. The second is that such protests must be peaceful, in no wise harm the rights of others or upset

The task before school officials, chool boards and, ultimately lawenforcement officers is to see that the second portion of the court's decision receives just as much weight and just as immediate obedience as the first portion. It is difficult to gainsay the soundness of a decision which lets students express deeply felt views, if they do so in an orderly way. Indeed, there has never been a period in history when it has been needfuller to allow youth to make its views known.

But, and this is equally important, the time has come — indeed, is well past — when rigorous order must be maintained in all schools, from the lowliest grammar school to the highest university. No one, absolutely no one, has the right to conduct a protest which in any wise intringer upon which in any wise infringes upon another's right to education.

Legitimate requests (not "de-mands") should be given fair con-sideration. But any kind of interference with the operation of a school should be stopped and stopped immediately and without equivocation.

Stubborn Inflation Resists Bridling Efforts

NEW YORK (AP) - Banking the fires of inflation is proving most difficult.

The economy keeps rolling along at a rapid clip despite efforts of the government and private financial disciplinarians to cool the rate of growth.

There is increasing apprehen-sion in substantial economic areas that unless galloping inflation can be reigned in, a possible recession might not be far below the horizon.

Prices moved up at the high rate of 4.7 per cent in 1968 and now are rising at an annual rate of 5 per cent. This has meant sharp increases in businessmen's costs for construction, machinery and equipment, in prices of new homes, in the costs of goods

The higher costs have been equally oppressive on individuals, who since 1965 have seen costs of hospital care rise more than 50 per cent and prices of transit fares, doctors' fees, haircuts, shoes and movie tickets go up more than 20 per Chase Manhattan Bank warned this past week that this country could be headed for a recession. It said plans of corporations to increase their investment in plants and equipment by 14 per cent this year could "feed inflation now and create a reaction, possibly a recession, later on.

And the new monetary restraints came this past week. The Federal Reserve Board boosted its discount rate - the interest it charges for loans to its member banks - to 6 per cent, the highest in 40 years,

Around The Rim A Day Marked By Triumphs

Could the event we observe today be called the anniversary of triumph over mob violence?

Well, yes. It had to be a hate-filled mob in Jerusalem so many years ago that dragged the man before courts, and out-persuaded one Pontius Pilate that here was a malefactor, a menace to the Roman empire and a threat to the very traditions of the time.

PILATE WOULD have sent up for hanging another man, Barabbas, who was a proven murderer and seditionist, but the mob would have none of it. Barabbas got his freedom, the man Jesus was sent, bearing his cross, to the hill.

He was not permitted to die in honor or peace. The mob still was there, to mock him, to put a false crown on his head and thrust a spear in his side. "King of the Jews, is it?" they railed. "You say you have saved others, why not save yourself?"

SO, FOR A DAY, mob violence reigned. It lost its force on the morning of the third day. Could the Easter event also mark a triumph over conspiracy and brib-Yes, again. The mob said to Pilate again: "He has said He will rise again on the third day. Let's make the sepulchre secure.'

And after the great event did occur. on the morning of the third day, the guards rushed back to their bosses with a story of the strange goings-on. So the guards were handed large sums of money with instructions to say that during the night disciples the man Jesus came and stole the body away while the guards slept. This is the story they told, and this is the story that has had its influence.

BUT MIRACLES, both then and for 1,900-plus years since, have washed out this tale, too. The conspiracy and the bribery have lost their force. These were triumphs of the moment. But there has been a continuing triumph. For the man Jesus told his followers of the plan of God, the one which had always been in existence and would forever be, and filled them with zeal to spread the word.

AND THE WORD has spread and spread, and it continues to spread It is the word of hope eternal, of love everlasting, of a new birth for them who believe, and believing, have a new life. He himself put down the doubt: "Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? . . . These are the words which I spake unto you while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled . . . Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead on the third day. And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in His name among all nations.

Yes, a triumph over man's sinfulness, and a new commitment of God's offer of salvation to the world.

Art Buchwald The Great Chart Escalation

Defense Department has to convince our lawmakers that the vital interests of the United States are in danger, they resort to elaborate displays of charts. The development, stockpiling and delivery of charts is one of the most critical activities the Pentagon is involved in. Through a close friend in the Pentagon, I was permitted to visit a top-secret Defense Department Chart Testing Center where all charts are tested before they are sent up to Capitol Hill. THE GENERAL in charge of the center said, "We've been working day the two previous months the orand night on charts for the ABM congressional hearings. It's probably the biggest job we've had, but one misfired chart, and the whole system could go up in smoke."

"Is this why the center is located so far from population centers?" "Exactly. We don't want the taxpayers to know what we're doing. Senate Foreign Relations Committee has built a chart system of its own. We believe our charts are still more reliable than theirs, but we have to be ready with a second-strike capability in case they launch a damaging first-strike chart offensive."

"HOW DID the charts the Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee unveiled at the ABM hearings last week differ from yours?

The general smiled. "They were very primitive-what we could call 'first generation' charts. You probably noticed their charts were so large that Sen. Gore was unable to reach the top of them with his pointer. Now, we've been in the chart business a lot longer than the Senate, so we've managed to take advantage of the great strides in miniaturization, and

"The military has its own chart turners, who have to know when to turn a chart to the exact second. If you turn a chart too early, you lose the impact of it, and if you turn

"ALL OF OUR chart turners have been to the National War College and have been personally interviewed by Adm. Rickover. If you recall, a few weeks ago when Sen. Gore's subcommittee produced its charts against the ABM system, they had to press their chief counsel and his assistant into service as chart turners. It was a disaster."

"What is that building over there with the machine guns on it and all the MPs around it?"

"THAT'S WHERE we're developing a new top-secret automatic chartturning machine. Once it is deployed, no Senate committee will dare to attack a Defense Department budget.'

"But won't this spiral the chart race and force the subcommittee to develop its own automatic chart opulent outpost are working three shifts to try to get a reading on the struggle between the two Communist Goliaths. It is guesswork at best, for beyond the borders of the British crown colony 700,000,000 Chinese are sealed in an implacable dictatorship. Efforts to send in observers, agents, call them what you will, invariably end in failure. The guesswork is based, therefore, on threshing through the mass of dreary propaganda out of Peking, reading between the lines of the newspapers for clues, interviewing the diplomats, businessmen and the few journalists who come out. WITH THE reservation that it is guesswork, several conclusions emerge as to the struggle between Moscow and Peking. First, all the evidence points to China's extreme caution in not provoking any largescale Soviet attack. While the hate barrage has been furious and the Russian leaders branded as the "new czars" with a call for their overthrow, the demonstrations outside the Soviet Embassy have been held in check. China's fears are centered on the meeting of Communist Parties of the world that the Kremlin has put together for June. If a resolution can pushed through branding the Chinese as heretics the Kremlin may feel free to move. The invasion of Czechoslovakia sent a shock wave of fear through the little group of men who, under Mao Tse-tung, hold the reins of power.

IT IS NOT that Peking expects a Prague-type action. In the border provinces of Sinkiang and Inner Mongolia, however, are ethnic groups, the Kazhaks and the Ugirs, with close ties with their fellows in the Soviet Union. Conceivably they could be whipped up to cause major trouble for the Chinese and a bloody repression would increase the risk of direct Soviet intervention.

Moreover, China's nuclear weapons and missile center is at Lopnor in HONG KONG - The professional Sinking Province. The Chinese do China watchers in this glittering, not rule out, observers here believe, the possibility of a Soviet pre-emptive strike to destroy the nuclear center. That is why work at Lopnor has been speeded up.

Four to five years later will see an operational ICBM, and China will be prepared to defy the world. THUS TIME is running out and there may be good reason for Peking to fear a pre-emptive strike by the Russians. # No other wagons have such a capacity for enjoyment.

Show you what we mean. Say you're in a Chevrolet Kingswood Walk-In Wagon, when suddenly the road becomes nothing but chuckholes and ruts. Only you can't tell it's rough. You see, the Kingswood floats along on computer-selected coil springs that smooth even the meanest road. It takes a mighty rough trail to bother you. That's true of our other wagons, too.

Take the Concours Wagon. It's our second size, but there's no compromise on room. Put down the back seat and you've got up to 94 cubic feet of cargo space.

Maybe you're a bit more serious about the great outdoors. So are we. That's why we offer the Chevy Sportvan. To a camper, this one's like clear skies and no mosquitoes. Add a camper conversion unit and take along beds, stove and the kitchen sink.

But we're not done yet: there's also the Suburban, the tough go-anywhere truck that doubles

One Solitary Life

De was born in an obscure billage, the child of a peasant woman. He grew up in still another billage, where he worked in a carpenter shop until he was thirty. Then for three years he was an itinerant preacher. He never wrote a book. He never held an office. He never had a family or owned a house. He didn't go to college. He never visited a big city. He never traveled two hundred miles from the place where he was born. He did none of the things one usually associates with greatness. He had no credentials but himself. He was only thirty-three when the tide of public opinion turned against him. His friends ran away. He was turned over to his enemies and went through the mockery of a trial. He was nailed to a cross between two thieves. While he was dying, his executioners gambled for his clothing, the only property he had on earth. When he was dead, he was laid in a borrowed grave through the pity of a friend. Rineteen centuries have come and gone, and today he is the central figure of the human race and the leader of mankind's progress. All the armies that ever marched, all the navies that ever sailed, all the parliaments that ever sat, all the kings that ever reigned, put together, have not affected the life of man on earth as much as that One Solitary Life.
