TV PICTURES Does Life Exist On Mars?

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Scientists expect to begin receiving Tuesday night their best data ever on a centuries-old puzzle: Does life exist on Mars?

Mariner 6, one of two spacecraft zooming toward the mysterious red planet after a five-month journey, is to begin taking television pictures at 1:26 a.m. Tuesday while 771,500 miles away from Mars. More pictures will be taken every 37 minutes over the next 19 hours, and then all 33 far-encounter pictures will be played back to earth starting at 9:35 p.m. EDT Tuesday. The playback will take two hours 52 minutes.

Mars is nearly 50 million miles from earth.

By the time Mariner 6 flies within 2,000 miles of Mars on Wednesday, scientists hope it will have sent up to 74 pictures, some detailed enough to pick out possible ruins, canals or geometric patterns.

Mariner 7, racing along a more equatorial Mars route, is to take the first of its 114 pictures Friday from 1.14 million miles away and make a 2,000-mile pass on Monday night, Aug. 4.

The closest pictures will show features as small as 900 feet across.

The Mars probes were sent off by the Jet Propulsion Laboratory here for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Dr. Robert B. Leighton, California Institute of Technology physicist-astronomer and chief investigator for the project, said there was little chance of seeing earth-like features on Mars.

Photos taken on the Mariner 4 flight in 1965 showed a bleak, crater-pocked surface resembling that of the moon. No mountain chains, ocean basins or continents appeared.

18 Cast Votes

Howard County voters have cast 18 absentee ballots in the Aug. 5 special election on constitutional amendments, according to Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk. Absentee ballots may be cast in the county clerk's office on the first floor of the courthouse until 5 p.m. Aug. 1. All registered voters who will not be in the county Aug. 5 are eligible to vote absentee.

Durbin Murder Trial Opens

AUSTIN (AP) — The Clyde Durbin Jr. murder trial opened today with the number of prospective jurors slashed from the 400 ordered to appear to 76 who showed up and were qualified.

Durbin, 21, son of a Dallas businessman, went on trial on charges of slaying John Albert White, 21, Jan. 17.

The defendant also is accused of slaying White's girl friend, Keitha Morris, 19, a University of Texas student from White Deer, Tex. That case is filed in Burnet County where it is believed she died.

Of the 400 called for the special panel, only 196 appeared. Dist. Judge Tom Blackwell called the turnout "normal for July."

He said that is why he did not want to try the case in the summer months. The Texas Supreme Court ordered him to proceed now.

Moon Rocks Exposure

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — A precious bit of soil dug from beneath the moon's surface begins a long series of tests today to determine whether it contains any biologically harmful bacteria.

A few grains will be pulverized for exposure to germ-free mice. Other bits will be placed in a container and exposed to elements in the earth's atmosphere to determine any reaction.

Smith's Tax Package Hits Consumers Hard

Sen. Kennedy Awaits Vote Of Confidence

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Sen. Edward M. Kennedy is confining his political ambitions to the U.S. Senate—not the presidency—as he awaits what is shaping up as a vote of confidence by the people of Massachusetts, sources close to him say.

For the moment, these sources say, Kennedy has put out of his mind any ambitions he might have harbored for the 1972 Democratic presidential nomination.

As he remains in seclusion here, inundated by thousands of telegrams in response to Friday night's dramatic television-radio appeal, Kennedy is described by those who have seen him as irritated over press speculation about what the death of Mary Joe Kopechne and his actions following it mean to his presidential prospects.

These reports of Kennedy's mood are lent credibility by an interview last May in which he expressed serious doubts about whether to seek the presidency in 1972 or ever.

The senator pleaded guilty last Friday to a charge of leaving the scene of a fatal accident and received a suspended two-month sentence. He did not report the accident until more than nine hours after his car plunged off a bridge and Miss Kopechne drowned.

Friday evening, in a telecast and broadcast addressed to the people of Massachusetts, Sen. Kennedy said, "I regard as indefensible the fact that I did not report the accident to the police immediately."

He explained, "I was overcome—I am frank to say, by a jumble of emotion—grief, fear, doubt, torture, panic, confusion, exhaustion and shock."

He asked his constituents to express their opinions, saying he would consider resigning from the Senate unless they convinced him he should stay in office.

So far the response of Massachusetts residents is reported to be overwhelmingly in favor of his continuing as senator.

About 15 or 20 demonstrators carrying signs saying: "Can you buy justice?" and "Tell the truth Ted" staged a parade near his home Sunday and were pelted with eggs and firecrackers by a group of youngsters.

Police said the group sympathetic to Kennedy shouted obscenities at the demonstrators and yelled, "Go back where you came from" and "Get out of here, you bums."

In a state where the Kennedy name is political magic, which re-elected him by a margin of 1.2 million votes in 1964, and in which no Republican opponent has yet surfaced for 1970, the telegrams stacked in the living room of his Squaw Island summer home have encouraged him.

QUESTIONED IN BOTTLE THROWING AT NIXON — Man at left is questioned by police at station house in Bangkok Monday following his arrest after he threw what appeared to be an empty bottle at President Nixon and Thailand's King Bhumibol. The police said the man was mentally disturbed by a previous record. The incident came at the start of Nixon's visit to Thailand.

Nixon Maps Strategy, Two Security Scares

BANGKOK (AP) — President Nixon's visit to Thailand got off to an uneasy start today with two security scares after a rain-soaked arrival.

One man threw what appeared to be an empty bottle at Nixon and his King Bhumibol. Police arrested him and said he was mentally disturbed, with a previous record.

Another man was arrested nearby with a pistol in his belt. But he turned out to be an army officer on leave from southern Thailand. He was released.

NO CONCERN
The bottle thrower was about 50 yards from Nixon and the king as they arrived at the Phantia Pavilion in downtown Bangkok for the President to receive the keys to the city. Neither Nixon nor the king seemed aware of the incident.

The army officer was arrested across the street after Nixon and the king entered the pavilion.

Nixon showed no sign of concern as he went through the ceremonies and extended to Thailand reassurance about his recent accent on self-help as a necessity for Asian states.

"The United States will stand proudly with Thailand against those who might threaten from abroad or within," Nixon told his hosts.

SCRAP OF PAPER
Receiving a warm but politely restrained welcome, Nixon said that some treaties "can be just a scrap of paper with no meaning."

The United States and Thailand are members of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization—SEATO.

But he asserted that the agreement between the United States and Thailand "is not just another treaty."

The United States and Thailand are allies in Vietnam and have a common desire to promote freedom for all people, and have deep spiritual and ideological ties, he said. "We will honor our obligations under that treaty . . . we believe in those words."

The President seemed anxious to reassure Thailand, close by Vietnam and facing a Communist insurgency in its northeastern provinces, that his recent declarations that the United States would scale down military involvement in Asia after the Vietnam war did not mean that Thailand was being abandoned.

Press Secretary Ronald Zeigler said later in response to questions that there was no inconsistency between Nixon's renewed statement of solidarity with Thailand and his news conference pronouncement in Guam Friday that the United States would make it a matter of policy to avoid any future Vietnam.

PEACE, PROGRAMS

Soon afterward, the White House released a presidential statement that had been promised before Nixon spoke.

In it the President said: "Our determination to honor our commitments is fully consistent with our conviction that the nations of Asia can and must increasingly shoulder the responsibility for achieving peace and progress in the area."

Nixon went on to say that the United States must support efforts of Asian nations to defend and develop themselves "without attempting to take from them the responsibilities which should be theirs."

If aggressors can destroy a nation's freedom, he said, "too much dependence on a protector can eventually erode its dignity."

The President said that under arrangements with Asian nations, the United States is ready to play "a responsible role" in accord with commitments and national interests.

On a related subject, Nixon said Thailand "has a special interest in the strategy for achieving a durable peace" in Vietnam. He said that in developing such a strategy the Thai government has been fully consulted "and will continue to be so in the future."

BAD WEATHER

Many thousands of persons—most of them schoolchildren in classroom garb—greeted Nixon on the long motorcade into the city from the airport where he arrived from Jakarta. The welcoming crowd was smaller and seemingly less enthusiastic than the one that greeted former President Lyndon B. Johnson when he was here in 1966.

However, Nixon's visit coincided with the monsoon season and he got thoroughly soaked himself by driving rains at the airport arrival ceremonies.

The weather could have held down the size of crowd.

After arriving at the Grand Palace where he changed his rain-drenched suit, Nixon, accompanied by his wife, drove to the palace of King Bhumibol.

There, he and the king met alone in the writing room, while Queen Sirikit and Mrs. Nixon and the ladies in waiting of the court chatted together in an adjoining room.

State Sales Tax Increase Is Requested

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Preston Smith asked the legislature today to raise the state sales tax from 3 to 3½ per cent as the major item in a tax package that hits consumers hard but barely touches business and industry.

The governor said $307.5 million in new taxes will be needed if the legislature passes his budget recommendations for the two-year fiscal period starting Sept. 1.

Smith recommended that over half the total—$159.3 million—come from the sales tax increase.

Other new taxes recommended in Smith's five-part revenue package are an increase in the motor vehicle sales tax from 3 to 3½ per cent, $27 million; addition of three cents per pack to the 11-cent cigarette tax, $53.7 million; placing alcoholic beverages under the sales tax, $39.6 million and increasing the franchise corporate tax by 50 cents per $1,000 for the next two years, $27.9 million.

"We must spread spending and taxing over a two-year period in a logical and reasonable fashion without postponing the major decisions to another year," Smith told a joint meeting of the House and Senate half an hour after the called session convened.

"Aside from the taxes on non-essential items and estimating that business pays up to 35 per cent of sales taxes, the bill proposed here is a good division between direct and indirect taxes on the consumer."

"We must remember that, if the profit system works properly, the consumer eventually pays virtually all taxes, either directly as taxes or indirectly in the form of higher prices."

Smith was advised by industrial and business leaders in a series of meetings at the governor's mansion to forget about major new business taxes and to recommend a sales tax boost. Corporate lobbyists have been urging the leaders of both houses also to look to the consumer to finance most of the spending increases for the next two fiscal years.

The governor recommended $1.15 billion in general revenue spending.

Smith's spending proposals included:

—$4 per cent raises in each of the next two fiscal years for state college professors and rank-and-file state employees.

—$2.85 million for planning and initial operating funds for new University of Texas campuses in San Antonio, Dallas and Midland-Odessa and $575,000 for development of a Texas A&I University Branch at Laredo.

—$25.8 million for planning, initial construction and operation of new state medical schools in Houston and Lubbock and $350,000 to start a new dental school in San Antonio.

—$3 million for regional closed circuit educational television networks.

—$11 million for community mental health and mental retardation center, up $4 million from the current biennial level.

—$2 million for the new state meat inspection program.

—$6.6 million for the governor's traffic safety program over the next two years, compared with $2 million per year currently.

Smith acknowledged his tax plan would be criticized, but he asked legislators to keep their minds on the issues and not on personalities.

"What you think of my program is not as important as what you think of your own responsibilities. What you think of me, personally, does not really matter. It is only when we allow personalities to cloud issues and personal prejudice to warp judgement, that personal attitudes can do harm to the public interests," he said.

Smith went out of his way to seek harmony with Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes and Speaker Gus Mutscher, who pushed the one-year budget through the regular session against Smith's wishes to delay new taxes for a year.

New Tropical Storm Anna Grows Strong

MIAMI (AP)—Tropical Storm Anna—first of the 1969 season—sprang up today in the far Atlantic and the Weather Bureau said she is expected to grow into a hurricane in the next 24 to 36 hours.

A satellite photograph located the storm—outgrowth of a tropical depression which formed off the African coast last Wednesday—about 1,800 miles east-southeast of Puerto Rico.

Winds of 55 miles an hour were whipping around the center. Ships in the area reported rough going through tall seas.

The storm appeared to be moving westward at 12 to 14 miles an hour and no change in this movement was expected.

"Conditions favor intensification and Anna is expected to become a hurricane," the Weather Bureau said in its first tropical storm advisory of the year.

A southward shift of the Bermuda High which affects the movements of hurricanes had prevented storm formations in the hurricane belt in recent weeks and chief storm forecaster Robert H. Simpson said Anna was far south of the normal hurricane track.

"It looks like she will probably follow a low latitude track and move a considerable distance west before she decides where she is going to end up," Simpson said.

Negro Hijacks Plane To Cuba

DALLAS (AP) — A Continental Airlines pilot who made an unscheduled flight to Cuba over the weekend, said here Sunday he doubts if anything can be done about plane hijackers.

Robert F. Greene of Dallas was forced to fly to Cuba Saturday night by a knife-wielding Negro man who boarded the plane in El Paso.

Greene was able to persuade the man to let the passengers off the plane in Midland where a stop for fuel was made.

Greene said the hijacker came into the cockpit just as he was trying to avoid some thunderstorms. "We were trying to talk to him and get around the thunderstorms and into Midland at the same time."

'ALL I KNOW IS I'VE GOT SEVEN UNSOLVED MURDERS' Authorities Hunt Strangler Of Coed

YPSILANTI, Mich. (AP) — Stymied authorities today hunted the strangler of an 18-year-old coed whose beaten, nude body was found in the area where six other young women have been slain.

"All I know is I've got seven unsolved murders," said Sheriff Douglas J. Harvey of Washtenaw County.

He said the killing of Karen Sue Beineman, a freshman at Eastern Michigan University, bore "many similarities" to six other slayings in Ypsilanti and the neighboring college town of Ann Arbor within the past two years.

But authorities reported "no hot leads" toward the killer—or killers.

Dr. Robert C. Hendrix, rated the foremost pathologist in the area, was called back from a northern Michigan trip Sunday to examine the body of Miss Beineman.

He reported that the pretty brown-haired girl was strangled and beaten "sometime Wednesday."

He said a full autopsy would be conducted later to determine whether she had been sexually assaulted and to establish a more precise time of death.

Prosecutor William F. Delhey of Washtenaw County said the slaying of Miss Beineman "would appear to be sexually motivated."

A man and wife walking from their home to their mailbox Saturday evening found Miss Beineman's body lying face down in a wooded ravine just off a small dirt road at the northeastern outskirts of Ann Arbor. Harvey said she apparently had been thrown or dumped from a car.

She last was reported seen Wednesday afternoon. Two clerks in a wig shop said she bought a wig and left on a motorcycle with a young man wearing a green and yellow striped T-shirt.

A sketch of the young man closely resembled a composite drawing made in 1968 of one of three youths in a red car, with whom another coed accepted a ride before being killed.

Bodies of all the victims were found within a 10-mile radius, and most had been sexually molested. Two of the other victims — were stabbed to death, two were shot, one was strangled, and one died of a skull fracture.

The latest killing struck new fear into university coeds and townspeople.

EMU officials said they were considering placing stringent restrictions on the 540 girls living in dormitories this summer.

Curt Stadtfeld, EMU director of information, said, "We are probably going to institute a policy whereby all girls will sign in and out of the halls."

The killing of an eighth young woman in Ann Arbor earlier this month is believed unrelated to the others. Police have charged a 28-year-old Ann Arbor laborer with killing her.

A LOVELIER YOU Wiry Hair Problem Needs Treatment

By MARY SUE MILLER
A young Lovely writes: My hair is a four-way problem. It's coarse, straight, wiry and bushy. I cannot control it. What, if anything, would?

The Answer: For a combination of problems like this, what's needed is a combination of remedies. And here they are:

First off, get thee to a hair-stylist — the most expert you can find. He or she will strip away the bulk, shape the hair to take a smooth set and feather the ends to encourage curl. Too, a rather short "do" works best.

The next move is an end-curl permanent. To avoid frizzing, large rods or rollers must be used for winding; the waving lotion should be of the gentle kind. Under no circumstances wave the entire head — only the ends.

At this point, the bushy and straight ills are on the mend. Now, what about the wiry and coarse? Lanolin-enriched shampoos and cream conditioning rinses go a long way toward providing silkier textures. Use also works against dryness to which coarse locks are prone.

All those steps encourage manageability. Proper grooming techniques bring satisfying control. Like so: large setting rollers and strong-hold setting lotion; sets before the need is apparent; creamy hairdressing, superhold hairspray and a still "salon" brush for combouts.

Corrective care of dry, abused, oily and hard-to-manage hair; expert coloring methods and treatment of tinted hair; hair-style formulas; tips on perfection cutting, permanents, straightening and grooming. Write to Mary Sue Miller in care of the Big Spring Herald for your copy, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 35 cents in coin.

Herman Parsons' Move To Snyder

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mr. and Mrs. Herman Parsons and daughter, Melanie, have moved to Snyder, where he will teach math in the high school, and Mrs. Parsons will teach first grade. Parsons has been associated with the Westbrook school since 1945. He has served as basketball coach, principal and superintendent since 1959.

L. M. Dawson has been hired by the school board as superintendent of the Westbrook school. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson moved here July 15. They have two children, Larry and Lynne, and are members of the First Baptist Church.

Retiring Postmistress Honored At Reception

WESTBROOK (SC) — Mrs. A. F. Criswell, who is retiring as postmistress at Westbrook, was honored with a reception Thursday evening in the fellowship hall of the First United Methodist Church.

Hostesses were Mrs. Leroy Gressett, Mrs. Frank Oglesby and Mrs. Price Hendricks. Mrs. D. A. Oglesby registered guests.

The honoree received an oil painting and other gifts from friends, and refreshments were served from a table laid with a pink lace cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink roses.

Friday was Mrs. Criswell's last day to serve in the post which she has held since 1959. She has been associated with the post office for 26 years. She and her husband live near Merkel where they are engaged in farming and ranching. They have one son, Cletus Brewer of Dallas.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise: The grandest thing I've found since passing my forty-eighth year, is that I can remove the high-intensity light globe from that little lamp (such as students use) and put it in my sewing machine.

My, oh my, can I see everything I'm sewing! Better yet, how to thread that needle. The lights that come on sewing machines don't give half enough light to suit me.

So, Heloise, if you have one of those high-intensity lamps, try it and see if you don't agree... Mrs. Tom Malenski

Fill out the guarantee form before you give the gift. That way, the bride and groom don't have to try and guess the store where purchased and most of the other questions asked on the guarantee.

Dear Heloise: I save my back when ironing by sitting in my son's "youth chair" (with a pillow at the back).

This way my ironing board is high enough so that my clothes don't drag on the floor as much... Restful

Dear Heloise: In making drop-cookies, I found the long handle of an iced tea spoon keeps clean, as it rests against the top of the bowl and not in the batter as a regular teaspoon usually does... Mrs. H.K.C.

Dear Heloise: When not in use, your travel rod (for hanging clothes in the car) is ideal in a child's closet as a low bar for his things.

After adjusting it to the proper height, just tie it to the regular closet pole with a heavy cord on either end.

You can put out-of-season things on the top rod and the other clothes on the lower one so the child can reach them... A Reader

Dear Heloise: For people who want boiled or poached eggs. I take a piece of aluminum foil and cup it down over the bottom of a fruit juice glass. Press hard all around to form a cup with the dull side of the foil on the inside to absorb most of the sulphur in the egg.

I add a dab of butter, break my egg, put it in the foil cup and set in a small pan of boiling water and cook.

The egg stays hot while other

PATCO Asks Resignation Of FFA Boss

DENVER (AP) — The threat of mass resignations by the nation's air traffic controllers might be eased by the resignation of Administrator John H. Shaffer of the Federal Aviation Administration, leaders of a controllers' organization say.

"We reluctantly conclude that your resignation would be in the public interest," officers and directors of the Professional Air Traffic Controllers Organization said Sunday night in a 20-page letter they sent to Shaffer over the FAA's own communications facilities.

It was the latest volley in a running dispute over demands by PATCO for more controllers and better equipment to control air traffic patterns more safely.

The letter, drafted during a four-hour meeting here Sunday, accused Shaffer of breaking an agreement not to punish controllers who reported sick during an air traffic slowdown last month.

The controllers organization, which claims to represent 7,800 of 8,550 men engaged in actual air traffic control, said Shaffer's office has pursued a policy of "deliberate antagonism."

Attorney F. Lee Bailey, now the acting executive director of PATCO read the letter to a meeting of Denver-area controllers, their wives, and newsmen.

The letter said PATCO will not exercise its threat of mass resignations "unless every possible alternative has been explored and exhausted."

Bailey said resignations that PATCO is holding in trust include 300 each from New York and Cleveland; 150 in Chicago; 125 in Miami; 164 in Denver; 100 in Boston; 90 in Oakland, Calif.; 50 in Kansas City and 75 in Honolulu. A spokesman said more than 4,000 signed resignations have been received altogether, and more are coming in.

These include enough controllers in enough critical centers to shut down the nation's air traffic system in the event the resignations are made effective, Wayne J. Smith of PATCO's Washington, D.C., office, told newsmen.

The letter also included 27 requests that PATCO said the FAA could meet now, without legislation or action by other agencies.

The list included a 90-day moratorium on suspensions, ordered as a result of the June slowdown, to provide time for negotiation as an alternative to grievance procedure.

Bailey said PATCO is setting no deadlines on its requests, but a week would be a reasonable period of waiting for response "in hard language."

Horoscope Forecast TOMORROW —CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Now almost all your circumstances feel like escaping present limitations. You can give needed space. But don't expect others to be able to do you any favors. Avoid suggesting new courses of action, no one is ready to consider long-range goals now.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Take care that good acts do not force you into activities that you know little or nothing about. Just excuse yourself politely. Trying eagerly to get some wish you want from another would be just as bad.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Be careful you don't give in to that temptation to do as a rubber stamp. If you try to tell him off, get busy and do your work more efficiently. With him over that way and you will not.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You want to do a great deal of things, but this would not be wise just yet. Study new outlets thoroughly first. Avoid hazardous advice ideas are too radical. Stay on the right side of life.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You gain the esteem of a higher-up by being sure to get your work done and on time right now. If made in a delicate mood, be kind instead of sarcastic. Evening love, then be a very charming, romantic one.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Many situations arise showing how faulty an associate can be, but take it in your stride and try to be helpful. A cool manner now sees you the winner. Historians could otherwise ruin what has been a good thing.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You have a co-worker who is very helpful, so don't try to find excuses to criticize instead of giving a pat on the back. Take those right treatments to improve your health. Be smart.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Be careful you do not spend more than you can afford on some temporary pleasure. Stay within your budget. Get busy on that hobby that is giving you some trouble. Perfect it, although it takes innumerable hours.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Work that new plan out in your mind and then consider it family. Since they can be very helpful. Don't consider this as interference. Be factual at home, otherwise you ruin present harmony.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) You may find it very difficult to be so dynamic, and you want to be so today, but if you avoid arguing with others, you seem perk up. Stop being so tactless with others, too. Don't lose any suitable offers.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You feel you must be extravagant in order to get what you desire, but this would only be money spent foolishly. Add to present assets instead. Show that you can be economical.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are tempted to check present interests and set into new ones, but you would find that your loss would be great. Avoid the social in the evening. There are bound to be quarrels that you should avoid. Be wise, tonight.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20) Once you know just what your present position is with others, set busy providing the future more wisely, but quietly. Your intuition is good, but busy being busy, yet on that idea, wait for a better time. Give further study.

Municipal Activity Report

62 Crime Cases

During June there were 62 offenses recorded in Big Spring, according to the monthly report of the city police department, and 19 of these were cleared up.

Police recorded 26 larcenies under $50, 16 burglaries, 12 larcenies over $50, five aggravated assaults, two auto thefts and one robbery. They solved ten burglaries, five larcenies under $50, three aggravated assaults and one larceny over $50.

The total value of property stolen during the month was $4,143.10, while the police recovered $2,146.90 worth of stolen goods.

There were 220 arrests during June; 24 of these were transferred to the county, five turned over to other jurisdictions, and 13 released without charge.

Traffic Tickets

Of the 538 traffic tickets issued during June, 291 were for moving violations, according to the monthly report of the police department.

Other tickets issued included 57 for driver's licenses violations, 29 for hazardous parking, 17 for mechanical violations, and 19 for other traffic arrests. Warnings to violators constituted 125 of the tickets.

There were 92 accidents during the month with 21 persons being injured, none fatally. The damage to vehicles amounted to $47,574, and other property damage valued at $2,080. There were 13 driving-while-intoxicated arrests, and police provided escort service five times.

The warrant officer issued 22 warrants — 20 locally and 2 out-of-town, collecting $275. Reserve policemen worked 552.30 hours during the month, and radar units polled 44.05 hours.

Swimming-Golf

During June the swimming pool and the golf course in City Park brought in revenues totaling $4,769.

The swimming pool took in $977 from 1,954 adults, $668 from 2,673 children, and $70 from club and seasonal swimmers, for total revenues of $1,715 from 4,627 people.

The golf course received $3,054 in revenues, $592 more than last June's $2,462.

231 Employees

There were 231 full-time employees on the city payroll June 15, according to the city's monthly report, three more than last year at this time. Two personnel had been added to the public works department, and one each to the fire and police departments, while there was one less administrative official.

Court Fines

Fines issued by Corporation Court during June totaled $9,054, according to police reports.

Of that total, $8,351 came through the judge's docket, $60 from cases continued, $110 from overtime parking, $110 from citations, and $590 from cases pending from May.

During the month $125 was paid on the May's pending and $395 worth was served out in jail. Cash receipts from June's fines totaled $5,988, while $2,396 were paid by jail layouts. Fines still pending at the end of the month amounted to $150.

Cemetery Report

Revenues from City Cemetery for June totaled $600, according to the monthly report submitted by John R. Evans, supervisor.

Of that amount, $100 came from improved openings, $100 from (time-payment) improved lots, $100 from unimproved openings, $50 from permanent care contributions, $30 from special care (Catholic cemetery), and $10 for installing flat markers.

There were 10 graves prepared and interments during the month. One supervisor, two groundsmen, one laborer and one NYC worker cared for 39 special-care lots and did the daily mowing, watering, trimming and policing.

Animals Removed

There were 160 dead dogs and cats removed from city streets during June, according to the police department's monthly report.

Of the 114 dogs impounded, one was redempted or sold, the rest were destroyed. Pound fees totaled $130.

Moody Slaying Case's Moved To San Antonio

By JEAN FANNIN
Michael Lee Moody, 24-year-old former Midland policeman under indictment for the death of a Midland child last year was granted a change of venue here shortly after 11 a.m. today in 118th District Court.

County where the defendant will have the possibility of a fair trial.

CHARGES DELAY

James Mashburn, district attorney from Midland, charged the defense with delaying tactics, and said both times the defense had asked for change of venue, the motion had been approximately five days before the trial was scheduled to begin.

ARGUES HARSHSHIP

Mashburn also said the second change of venue would cause hardships on both state and defense witnesses.

Moody is alleged to have strangled Lori Margaret Gunn, 33 months old, Aug. 31, 1968 in Midland. The body of the child was found two days later in a closet of the residence in which Moody then a rookie police officer, lived.

Mashburn contended the change of venue motion was invalid because of the necessity of Moody's signature. "The defense has contended Moody is incompetent and has a report signed by a psychiatrist to that effect," Mashburn said. He contended Moody is not competent to sign the motion or aid his attorneys in his defense.

FEW AT HEARING

Moody, held in jail here, was escorted into the courtroom by Howard County Sheriff A. N. Standard. He smoked cigarettes throughout the hearing, and constantly looked around the courtroom at the spectators.

Police Investigate Assault And Variety Of Thefts

Terrell Thompson, 1615 Jennings, was treated and released from the Medical Arts Hospital and Clinic Sunday after being struck in the face with a heavy object. He told police a man was his assailant, and an investigation is continuing.

Someone had ransacked the offices of the 7-Up Bottling Company, 1602 Young, and a tape recorder, two wrist watches, one brief case, several advertising buttons, tie clips, and belt buckles, and an unknown amount of cigarettes were missing.

Cease-Fire Violations?

SAN SALVADOR (AP) — El Salvador claims Honduran planes bombed five towns on the Salvadoran border Sunday, and Honduras says Salvadoran troops have routed more than 25,000 Honduran civilians from their homes.

The charges were exchanged Sunday as mediators in Washington tried to restore peace between the two Central American neighbors. Each side has accused the other of violating a cease-fire that went into effect at midnight July 18.

News Briefs

Police Check On Two Accidents

Police investigated two minor accidents during the weekend. Saturday a car belonging to Thomas Odell, Sherman, was involved in a mishap with one driven by Theodore A. Osmulski, 1109 Lamar, while it was parked in front of Odell's house.

Water Usage Nearing Record

Big Spring water usage soared right along during the weekend, with 11,065,000 gallons being received at the water treatment plant Friday, 9,382,000 gallons Saturday, and 7,227,000 gallons Sunday.

Probationary Supervision

Of the 16 children referred to the juvenile probation department during June, 14 were counseled and released, one was continued on supervision and another was released to a parole officer, according to the report submitted by F. Keith Jones, juvenile probation officer.

Report High Collection Rate

Approximately 96 per cent of the valuation of the 1968-69 Howard County tax roll was collected this year, Mrs. Zirah LeFevre, county tax-assessor and collector, reported to the Commissioners Court this morning.

Sam W. Blackburn, Veteran Newsmen, Dies Unexpectedly

A byline familiar in The Herald for more than a dozen years is missing. Sam W. Blackburn, 65, whose whimsical stories of a land and people he loved had delighted readers of The Herald since 1956, died unexpectedly in a hospital here at 9:30 p.m. Sunday.

SAM W. BLACKBURN

He had worked a regular shift Saturday, apparently feeling fine. During the night he had entered the hospital Sunday morning. Late in the evening his condition took a sudden, decisive turn for the worse.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church with the rector, the Rev. Steve Birdwell, officiating. Burial will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. in Rosehill Cemetery, Ardmore, Okla., with the Rev. Ed Morton, minister, in charge.

He is survived by his wife, Vera M. Blackburn. River-Welch Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

During his long career with The Herald — from which, incidentally, Mr. Blackburn was preparing to retire late this year — he covered every type of story. For most of the time he was The Herald's courthouse reporter, but his forte was feature writing. His down-to-earth stories about old timers, about off-the-beaten path things, most of all those which tugged at the heart strings made his name familiar to a legion of readers and other friends.

Although he had been an outstanding Lions Club member in Oklahoma for years, he became a Kiwanian when he moved to Big Spring and served in various capacities, including vice president. He was a director at the time of his death, and editor of the club paper. For The Herald, he had directed the annual Spelling Bee since its inception. His hobbies were books and photography, and he had looked forward to another touring of the Southwest in his trailer home.

Palbearers will be Fern Cox, Ralph Cato, A. N. Standard, Jim Thompson, John Coffey and Sherman Smith.

Sam W. Blackburn, only son of the late R. J. Blackburn and Bettie Jane (Smith) Blackburn was born in Amarillo, Tex., Oct. 25, 1903.

His father was a carpenter and the family wandered over much of Texas, New Mexico and Arkansas in his (Sam's) boyhood as building boomers developed in different communities.

As a baby he accompanied his family to New Mexico where they stayed briefly in the neighborhood of Weed. When he was two years old, the family settled at Coahoma. His father operated a blacksmith shop and later became a mechanic for the Western Windmill Co., moving to Big Spring about 1906-7, living here until 1910, when the family moved back to New Mexico for a year. He attended his first year of school at the old South Ward School in Big Spring.

After a year in New Mexico, the Blackburns went to Childress, where they lived off and on for several years. Sam attended elementary school there. About 1916, the Blackburns were back in New Mexico. A year later, they moved to Amarillo, where they remained for about a year. They drifted back to Childress and after World War I, moved on to Electra. In between times, they had travelled to Hot Springs, Ark., in the wake of a disastrous fire, which promised to set up a building boom. This was a fiasco, and they found themselves back in Childress again. The trip from Childress to Hot Springs, however, did complete a cycle in the course of which the family had crossed Texas east to west in a covered wagon.

It was during the stay in New Mexico in 1916 that Sam came into contact with newspaper work. The Lovington, N.M., Leader, then printed on a George Washington handpress, hired him as a devil and he worked all of one summer in the shop.

In Electra, where he enrolled in high school, he and two fellow students established the school newspaper, The Tigrette, about 1919 (it is still printed) as a private enterprise. The principal and the superintendent frowned on the idea and did not give it their sanction. After a few months, the other two boys dropped out and Blackburn carried on with the paper. He sold enough advertising in it to pay part of his way through school. He paid the rest of his expenses by serving as janitor at the high school — a job that paid him $100 a month which he had to split with two school mates he had to hire to help him.

WORKED FOR MAGAZINE
In his spare time, he worked first for the Electra Star and later for the Electra News. After graduation in 1922, he went to work for an oil magazine published by Harry Stroud at Electra — remaining with that ill-starred publication until its demise. He then took a job with the Electra News. Stroud had gone to Lawton, Okla., to work on the Lawton Daily News. Stroud told the publisher of the Lawton paper that Blackburn was an "experienced" hand and got him a job. The News sold out in early 1923 to the other Lawton Newspaper, the Constitution. Blackburn returned to Electra and took a job with the Electra Star.

Stroud went to Ardmore, Okla., to become managing editor of the Ardmore Daily Press, a morning newspaper. He persuaded Blackburn to come to Ardmore to work for "six weeks" getting out a special edition for the Oklahoma Rotary clubs. Blackburn arrived in Ardmore April 13, 1923. The six weeks extended into 32 years. Stroud soon left the Press to become managing editor of the competitive sheet, the Daily Ardmoreite. Blackburn, at the age of 19, became managing editor of the Morning Press. After four years, the Press sold to the Ardmoreite and Blackburn, out of a job, signed up with Stroud again on the ill-fated Shawnee Morning News — an enterprise which petered out in six short weeks.

LONG CAREER
He was hired by the Daily Ardmoreite taking over his duties on Nov. 1, 1927. He remained with that newspaper until Nov. 1, 1955. In the interval, he served as reporter, city editor and for more than 15 years managing editor of the Ardmoreite in 1955. He received considerable fame in Oklahoma with the column and was two times winner of the sweepstakes award of the Oklahoma Press Association in Oklahoma and he won, in all, more than 30 first places in the monthly column contests conducted by the OPA. He was honored numerous times by the Texas Associated Press Managing Editors Association.

He was married to Miss Vera Mayrant on Jan. 2, 1928, in Madill. In Ardmore, in addition to his newspaper work, he had his own radio program on a three-nights-per-week basis for 10 years.

In 1954, he suffered a severe coronary attack which hospitalized him for nine weeks. In 1955, disagreeing with the management of the Ardmoreite on a policy he resigned.

CAME TO TEXAS
He was given a job on the San Angelo Standard-Times in November, 1955 — it being stipulated at the time that he could take a post on any of the Harte-Hanks papers if he wished. He served three months as state editor for the Standard Times and then moved to Big Spring on Feb. 20, 1956.

He and Mrs. Blackburn bought a home at 405 Pennsylvania at that time.

He was a member of the Episcopal Church, and of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club. He had devoted most of his efforts on the Daily Herald to court-story coverage and to feature story writing. He was a 32 degree Mason.

Two Florida Truck Drivers Injured
Two Florida truck drivers are listed in critical condition at Cowper Hospital and Clinic following an accident about 3 a.m. today on IS 28 East in Mitchell County. Howard County Sheriff A. N. Standard said the truck flipped over once after the driver lost control of the vehicle.

The two men were identified as Charles Hansel, 4102 Johnson, Kissimmee, Fla., and Bernard Nelson, 19, 224 Finley St., Kissimmee. Investigation of the accident is continuing.

DEATHS

H. C. Gist Dies At Colorado City

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Herman C. Gist, 73, retired farmer and carpenter, died unexpectedly from an apparent heart attack at his home at 544 E. 15th at 7 a.m. Sunday.

The services were set for 2 p.m. today in the Austin Street Church of Christ with Leslie Mickey, minister, officiating.

Mr. Gist was born Feb. 27, 1896, in Johnson County and came to Mitchell County in 1908. He was married here March 24, 1918, to Miss Milton Petty Foster, and she died in 1964. He later married Mrs. Corinne Thompson, March 30, 1965, in Lovington, N.M. Mr. Gist farmed for a time in the Knott community in Howard County but returned several years ago to Colorado City.

He was a member of the Church of Christ and was a Veteran of World War I.

Surviving are his wife; one son, J. M. Gist, Brownwood; two daughters, Mrs. J. T. Beckham, Cooper and Mrs. L. C. Shellen, Abilene; two step daughters, Mrs. Wayne White, San Juan, Calif., and Mrs. Maurita Clark, Houston; one sister, Mrs. Jim Heston, Colorado City; three brothers, J. T. Gist, Minot, N.D., Morgan Gist, Midland, and Huron Gist, Odessa; 13 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Infant Dies

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Services were held at 10 a.m. Monday in St. Anne's Catholic Church for Connie Barrera, the one-month-old daughter of Mrs. Susie Barrera. The baby was found dead in bed Sunday morning by her mother. Survivors include the mother and one brother. Burial was in the Mitchell County Cemetery under the direction of Kiker and Son Funeral Home.

Infant Rites Pend

Acey Warren Atkinson II, 2, died in Goldsboro, N.C., during the weekend. He was born Dec. 9, 1966, and was the son of Sgt. and Mrs. Acey W. Atkinson of Goldsboro. Funeral services are pending with the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

West Texas Oil Writer, James C. Watson, Dies

Funeral service was to be at 5 p.m. today in Rotan for James C. Watson, oil editor of the Midland Reporter-Telegram and operator of an oil news service which provides petroleum reports to scores of newspapers and other publications in the Southwest, including the Big Spring Herald.

Mr. Watson, 67, died early Sunday in a Dallas hospital where he had undergone surgery last Wednesday.

Rites were to be at the First Methodist Church in Rotan, where Mr. Watson had maintained a second home.

He was associated with the Midland paper as its oil editor for more than a quarter century and was recognized as one of the authorities on petroleum activities in the Permian Basin.

The son of an early day Methodist minister in West Texas, he was born in this area and spent all his life in West Texas. He started in the newspaper business as a printers devil, later became editor of a weekly publication in Lamesa.

Before going to Midland he had been executive secretary of the West Central Texas Oil & Gas Association in Abilene, and earlier had been a Chamber of Commerce executive.

While at Stamford, he helped organize the famed Texas Cowboy Reunion. Later he was instrumental in launching the Permian Basin Petroleum Association and Permian Basin Petroleum Pioneers at Midland.

Survivors include the widow, two daughters, Mrs. Fred Forster Jr. of Midland and Mrs. Jim Lane of San Angelo two brothers, four sisters, and five grandchildren.

Mother Of Mrs. Randall Polk

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Dave Patterson, mother of Mrs. Randall Polk.

Mother Of Mrs. Randall Polk

Mrs. Patterson, who lived here several years with her husband, and who later returned here to make her home briefly after his death in Washington, died July 19 in Seattle, Wash. Burial was July 21 in the mausoleum in the Acacia Cemetery in Edmonds, Wash., where Mr. Patterson is buried.

Mrs. Patterson leaves two daughters, Mrs. Geraldine Polk, Kingsland, and Mrs. Georgia Holt, Edmonds, Wash.

Mrs. Penn, 66, Retired Maid

Mrs. Eddie Mae Penn, for 33 years a resident of Howard County, died Saturday in a hospital at Lubbock after a long illness. She was 66.

She was born June 10, 1903 in Austin. Mrs. Penn was a retired maid and was a member of the First Church of God in Christ.

An adopted daughter, Mrs. Julia Ann Baldwin of Dallas, survives.

Funeral arrangements are pending at River-Welch Funeral Home.

Decorations Meet

A meeting to decide the purchasing of Christmas decorations will be held Tuesday at the Chamber of Commerce at 10 a.m. A letter has been sent to all who pledged money for decorations, notifying them of the meeting.

CURIOSITY SHOP IMPORTS MANY ITEMS

Unusual Gifts Are Highlighted

Looking for an unusual gift? Tired of giving the same thing at every birthday, wedding or anniversary? Then the place to visit is the Curiosity Shop, 3103 US 80 West.

Sherman and Wilma Whitaker, owners, have been handling glassware and novelties for years. They are ready to help and serve you in any way they can.

They import several items from overseas, and these make especially fine gifts. Among the imports is some quality Italian glassware. Whether it's a vase or glass or plate or some other piece, it will add color and character to any case or room.

Also among recent imports is some Roseville Pottery from Yugoslavia. These are hand-crafted to an exquisite perfection and make an exciting addition to any collection.

The Whitakers also stock a variety of novelties, primitive and antiques, including an early 1900 telephone, a cast-iron iron, and a variety of furniture. For those with a humorous twist of mind, the Whitakers have horse collars and hames on hand, which could make a pungent gift for someone.

GLASSWARE SELECTION — A customer inspects some of the glassware at the Curiosity Shop, 3103 US 80 West. Sherman and Wilma Whitaker, owners, also offer a variety of souvenirs, novelties, primitives, antiques and collector items.

The Whitakers also offer a repair service for small appliances and machines such as landmowers, toasters and waffle irons. Sherman Whitaker runs the fix-it shop and has had many years experience in the work.

The Whitakers invite all residents to drop by and see their selection of novelties, and collector items.

Double Death Probe Waged

ZEPHYR COVE, Nev. (AP) — Officers disclosed Sunday that a Lake Tahoe man's shooting death last week occurred just hours after his wife, formerly of Waco Tex., was killed in an auto crash.

The body of Ralston Dale Humphreys, 33, was discovered at a rented Lake Tahoe home Thursday evening. An autopsy fixed the approximate time of death at noon Thursday, an hour and a half before the wreck in which 21-year-old Sherri Ann Humphreys died.

Dist. Atty. William Crowell Jr. said the autopsy showed Humphreys died from a .38 caliber bullet wound in the head. He said the wound could not have been self-inflicted.

No pistols were found in the home, but a .38 caliber pistol and a rifle were found in the woman's car.

Crowell said tests on the gun have been inconclusive and further comparisons are being made. Officers are also checking along US 95 where the woman's car flipped over in the desert about 200 miles from Zephyr Cove. A patrol officer said it was believed the car had been travelling about 90 miles an hour.

Authorities said it would have been possible for the woman to drive from the lakeside home to the accident scene in the time between Humphreys' death and the accident.

No-Roach Will Wipe 'Em Out

Man's home is his castle, so the best belongs there. That includes insecticides too. Be particular and choose wisely; avoid bug killers that contaminate the air with vapors or contain DDT. Use only thoroughly tested, highly recommended products — like Johnston's No-Roach.

Stop and think some time... An insecticide should be safe and easy to use, should leave no odor, powder dust or mess, and should stay effective for months. Johnston's No-Roach exactly.

No-Roach is effective against all crawling insects: cockroaches, ants, spiders and silverfish. One application lasts for months and is harmless to pets.

There's no need to move dishes or food when No-Roach is used. Just brush the colorless, odorless coating where it's needed. It dries quickly to form an invisible barrier whose killing power lasts for many months. Don't take chances; brush No-Roach in cabinets, on baseboards, door sills, window sills... wherever roaches and ants are spotted.

Johnston's No-Roach is available at Giant Discount, Newsom's, Safeway, Furr's, Piggly Wiggly, Gibson's and all grocery stores. It's distributed by Stripling's and Kimbel's.

May Soon Rival Hollywood Films

NEW YORK (AP) — The city's booming film industry may soon rival Hollywood.

"The growth of the industry in the city is simply fabulous," Richard Lewisohn, chief of the city's Economic Development Administration, said Sunday. He said 26 full-length films had been made here during the first six months of the year.

Hollywood Reporter magazine estimated that about 30 films had been produced entirely on the West Coast during that time.

Lewisohn said Mayor John V. Lindsay opened the doors to the film boom, providing police assistance and labor mediation.

to handle the traffic after the university issued a call for women 20 per cent overweight to volunteer for a six-week weight-loss project. The program is based on controlled eating rather than crash dieting.

CONGRESSMEN APPREHENSIVE ABOUT TEXAS WATER-IMPORT PLAN

West Texas Plains Called The Hope Of American Agriculture

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ten congressmen who toured agricultural West Texas by plane and bus came away both admiring and apprehensive.

He said he definitely would consider the merits of an $8.9-billion Texas water plan which would include a canal from the Louisiana river mouth to the 3,500-foot-high West Texas plains.

Rep. George A. Goodling, R-Pa., was much more hesitant than Kleppe in saying he'd support the water-import plan.

farm commodity. And all I heard there was how to increase production," he said.

That's the thing that alarms me. They have the facilities to grow much more if they have the water. I kept asking what they propose to do with their product but they had no answers," Goodling said.

Quarantined Travelers Joke About Purple Rocks

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Apollo 11's moon travelers spent their first few days in quarantine joking about purple rocks and discussing the perfection of their mission and the ease of working in the lunar environment.

That's the report of two men who stayed in the quarantine van with them on a trip from the Pacific Ocean to Houston via ship, plane and truck.

Dr. William Carpenter and engineer John Hirasaki also reported they and the astronauts made direct contact with black powdery moon dust that gathered on the spacemen's suits.

Astronauts Neil A. Armstrong, Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Michael Collins reached Houston early Sunday and immediately transferred from the van to quarantine quarters at the lunar receiving laboratory.

They are being treated as though they were contaminated by moon organisms, although scientists doubt that lunar germs exist.

With them are 14 other persons—doctors, technical experts, stewards and a cook.

They are scheduled for release Aug. 11 if they develop no illness and if study of the rocks they collected shows nothing harmful.

Carpenter and Hirasaki discussed the van trip with newsmen Sunday night from behind a sealed window.

"In their conversations," Hirasaki said, "Collins was especially impressed by the remarkable perfection of the whole mission—how well the machines worked, the time-line. All three were amazed at the perfection."

Hirasaki said Collins, who orbited the moon in the command ship while Armstrong and Aldrin walked the surface, asked his companions about the texture of the surface and some of the things they saw.

Said Carpenter: "They discussed the colors, materials, and so forth. Their reaction to working in the one-sixth lunar gravity field was that it was very comfortable. They found they could get around more easily than in zero G."

Zero gravity is weightlessness, such as astronauts experience in orbit.

"They reported they had a better sense of direction in one-sixth G. On the moon objects would settle down and wouldn't float off as in zero G, so they wouldn't have to look around for them," Carpenter added.

46 Enrolled In Youth Corps

The June monthly report of the Neighborhood Youth Corps showed a total of 46 enrollees, including 16 from Howard County, 10 from Midland County, six from Dawson County, five each from Scurry and Ector counties, three from Nolan County, and one from Winkler County.

Eight have returned to school since the project began, six have voluntarily quit, five have transferred to permanent jobs, one has begun work training in industry, and one was released.

Of the $239,550 budgeted for the project, $230,180.43 has been expended.

Four Escapees Still At Large

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP) — Four escapees from the Jefferson County jail are still at large today, police said. They were among the 11 who made a break Sunday after overpowering a jailer.

The latest to be taken was Ovie Cade, 18, of Port Arthur. He surrendered late Sunday.

Two of the escapees never made it out of the courthouse. Police found them hiding in the jail. One was picked up on a Beaumont street shortly after the break and three others were apprehended in a stolen car in Port Arthur Sunday. The three were carrying a gun stolen from a deputy.

After overpowering the jailer, nine of the escapees rode down in an elevator and jumped several deputies in the office. They knocked down one deputy, grabbed his gun and ran out before a second officer could get a shot at them.

Officers said the four still at large are John Edward Gilliam, 22, Beaumont; Thomas Ervin McDowell, 18, Beaumont; Thomas Segura, 18, Beaumont; and Jerry Thomas, 19, Port Arthur.

Millions Watch

NEW YORK (AP) — More than 35 million persons watched Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's Friday night broadcast, according to NBC.

A network spokesman said Sunday that the figure was based on ratings from the New York area, where about four million persons watched.

AMENDMENTS EXPLAINED—NO. 8 Additional Student Loans Would Be Authorized

AMENDMENT NO. 8—H.J.R. NO. 50
(Authorizing the legislature to provide for additional loans to students at institutions of higher education under the Texas Opportunity Plan.)
The proposed amendment adds a new section 50b-1 to Article III of the Texas Constitution. The amendment gives the legislature power to authorize the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, to issue and sell $200 million of additional general obligation bonds, the revenue from the sale of which is to be used to make loans to students who have been admitted to any institution of higher education in the state whether publicly or privately owned or operated, and including junior colleges.
The money received from the sale of the bonds is to be deposited in the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund, established by constitutional amendment in 1965 (Texas Constitution, Art. III, Sec. 50b) and implemented by the Hinson-Hazelwood College Student Loan Act of the 59th Legislature, Regular Session, 1965. Anticipating the adoption of the proposed amendment, S.B. 535, which was enacted by the 61st Legislature, amends the Hinson-Hazelwood Student Loan Act but will take effect only if the proposed Amendment No. 8 is approved by the electorate.

BACKGROUND

The Texas Opportunity Plan is unique in that no other state in the nation provides direct state loans to students. The student loan fund was established in 1965 with an initial authorization of $85 million in bonds. The loans are presently being made to college students in public and private junior colleges, four-year colleges, and universities. First loans were made for the fall semester, 1966, and to date the coordinating board has sold $39 million of the original $85 million of general obligation bonds of the State of Texas to fund the program. The remaining $46 million will be sold to meet anticipated loan demands and interest and sinking fund requirements during the next two years.

By the end of fiscal year 1971 it is estimated that 212 thousand loans will have been made to 75,400 students, and during the next five-year period, from 1971 to 1976, projections indicate an additional 117 thousand students will borrow $160 million. Interest and sinking fund requirements during this next five-year period are estimated to be $40 million; thus an additional bond authorization of $200 million is included in the proposed amendment.

Amendment of the Constitution is necessary to the creation of state loan funds for students because several sections prohibit the use of public money by any individual, association, or corporation, except in cases of public calamity.

ARGUMENTS

FOR:
1. The total amount of funds presently available for student loans will be in use and loaned out before repayments of outstanding loans begin to return a substantial amount of funds available for lending. It is desirable that a certain amount be available every year to insure equal treatment of deserving students and to maintain a stable recycling of funds. The demand and need for student loans is great and, in addition, a cutback is expected in the amount of federal funds available. The federal cutback will increase the states' burden. Therefore the proposed amendment is essential to continuation of the Texas Opportunity Plan.

2. A college education in today's technical world is even more essential now than in 1965 when the Texas Opportunity Plan Fund was created by adoption of Article III, Section 50b, and the Hinson-Hazelwood College Student Loan Act. Every deserving and qualified student should be afforded the opportunity to have a college education. It should be emphasized that the passage of H.J.R. No. 50 will authorize only loans and does not authorize gifts or grants to students. All loans are repayable with interest charges set by the coordinating board, and of the 90,000 loans made thus far, the 23 in default of payments constitute a percentage actually too small to calculate.
3. The single greatest natural resource in the State of Texas is its young people. Each year, thousands of high school graduates with college potential are deterred from continuing their education due to inadequate finances. Adoption of the proposed Amendment No. 8 would assure many of these students of the college education and training they deserve and would assure the State of Texas that future state development will be in the hands of those best qualified for service.

AGAINST:
1. State loans to students take business from private enterprise. Banks, savings and loan institutions, and private charities have helped students finance their educations for years. The Texas Opportunity Plan Fund already has authorized $85 million, and any more loans would create administrative problems adversely affecting the repayment rate.
2. This amendment continues the practice of making loans to students enrolled in church-supported schools. This is merely a subterfuge to permit state aid for churches.
3. Those able-bodied young people who are serious enough about wanting an education and who are willing to work can finance their own schooling. At a time when violence and disrespect for law and order are evident on our campuses, the state should encourage students to work and build for themselves rather than foster indolence through practically give-away loans.

What's It Like To Live On A Welfare Budget?

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — The Ballard family will eat steak tonight after a week seeing just how it is to live on a welfare budget.
The Wichita Falls lawyer, his wife and three boys, 16, 15 and 13, found they couldn't live very well.
"We have concluded that it is impossible to live on what's provided by the welfare budget," said Mrs. Ballard.
Ballard is a Wichita County Probation Officer. He said his family, alarmed by the cuts in welfare made necessary by voter rejection of a rise in the welfare ceiling last year, undertook the week-long experiment in an effort to publicize another vote on raising the ceiling Aug. 5.
"The budget for a family of our size was $25.83. Our spending ran in the neighborhood of $30 for the week," Mrs. Ballard said.

Sunday dinner at the Ballards was "winners and beans we had left over from the last time we had them and tomatoes from our garden," she said.
During a week of 100 degree-plus temperatures the Ballards turned off their air conditioning and sweated.
"We're having a lovely shower right now," Mrs. Ballard said Sunday night.
Her three children started eagerly on the test but that soon faded, she said. "As the week wore on, they got tired of being hot and hungry."
"There were no dates or movies or driving around for the three teenagers. "We didn't even watch television. We were trying to save on our electric bill," she said.
"We did this," she said, "hoping we could make people aware—and remind ourselves—what it is like to live on a very tight budget."

Dear Abby
DEAR ABBY: I belong to a dressed women — and men bridge club. One of our members announced yesterday that she was planning to get married next month.
After she left, one of her closest friends said, "The man she's marrying lost his wife only six months ago, and I think out of respect to her memory they should wait a full year."
Everyone agreed with her, except me.
I said, "They are both seventy years old. They've known each other practically all their lives, and although they are both in fairly good health, who knows how much time either of them has left? And if they want to make the most of the remaining time, what's wrong with that?"
How do you feel about it, Abby?
A READER
DEAR READER: Under the circumstances I think six months is long enough.
DEAR ABBY: About three years ago I was a bridesmaid for a sorority sister who had an elaborate church wedding. She received many lovely gifts. The marriage didn't even last through the honeymoon. It was quietly annulled, and none of the wedding gifts was returned. (Rumor had it that the groom took them all when he left.)
Now this sorority sister is planning another wedding. Same church, same wedding party, only the man is different. Are we, her friends, obligated to be as generous this time as before? Or will our good wishes suffice?
SORORITY SISTER
DEAR SISTER: A gift is a gift, never an obligation. Obviously you resent that small voice within you which cries, "Buy the girl another gift," but you can hardly blame the girl if her husband, the heel, made off with them. So I say, buy another gift.
DEAR ABBY: I don't understand why "Bothered" should be so bothered because her husband looks at strange women and comments about them.
My husband and I are both "people watchers" who thoroughly enjoy sharing with each other our observations.
The other day he said, "Look at that fat fanny," I said, "Where?" He said, "Over there."
I looked, and it WAS a fat fanny. I remarked, "Poor dear."
We call each other's attention to "nice legs," a cute old couple walking arm in arm, smartly

Mitchell Lads Go To Seminar
WESTBROOK (SC) — John Sweat, son of Mr. and Mrs. Doc Sweat, is one of three Mitchell County high school students who will leave Tuesday for Baylor University in Waco where they will participate in the annual citizenship seminar sponsored by the Texas Farm Bureau. The other students are David Stubblefield, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Stubblefield of Colorado City and David Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Compton of Loraine.
Jackie Is 40
SCORPIOS ISLAND, Greece (AP) — Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis is 40 years old today. Her husband, Aristotle Onassis, was reported to have given her a birthday present of golden earrings shaped like Apollo space ships. Her first husband, the late President John F. Kennedy, advocated the space effort which led to the first lunar landing.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ
Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠KQ10982 ♥Q♦K1095 ♣82
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
Pass Pass 1♠ Pass
1♠ 2♥ Pass Pass
What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. Some effort should be made to move upward toward game and the jump bid in view of your previous pass, is not forcing.
Q. 2—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AK63 ♥42♠AQ82 ♣KQ4
The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1♠ Pass 1♥ Pass
What do you bid now?
A.—One spade. We sometimes stretch a point to make a jump rebid in business with only 18 instead of the prescribed 19 high card points. But we are not inclined to do so when it involves suppressing a good four-card major. The risk in rebidding only one spade is ever so slight, for, if partner must pass, chances for game may be regarded as negligible.
Q. 3—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A103 ♥AQ5♦AJ53 ♣882
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
Pass Pass 1♠ Pass
1♠ Pass 1NT Pass
2♥ Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. Up until now you have sounded like a person with a very minimum opening bid and, while your values do fall within the limits of the one no trump rebid, your points are of the gilt-edged variety and include an excellent fit for both of partner's suits. A jump bid is necessary to convey this message to North.
Q. 4—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AQ53 ♥KQJ94 ♣8763
The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1♠ Pass 1♥ Pass
2♠ Pass ?
What do you bid now?
A.—Two spades. The normal procedure at this point would be to announce the club fit by offering a jump raise, but that would interfere with the proper and orderly investigation for bigger things on the hand. In the interests of probing for a slam,
