POSSIBILITIES TO SUCCEED DIRKSEN AS GOP SENATE LEADER — These men have been mentioned as possibilities to succeed GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen. Senator Hugh Scott, Pennsylvania, (top, left), stands as the likeliest immediate successor to Dirksen but a power struggle over the next 16 months may determine the ultimate leader of Senate Republicans. Others mentioned are Senators Howard H. Baker Jr., Tennessee (top center); Gordon Allott, Colorado (top right); (bottom row, from left), Robert P. Griffin, Michigan, John G. Tower, Texas, and James B. Pearson, Kansas.

Wednesday Rites Set For Everett Dirksen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Everett McKinley Dirksen, he of the tangled mane, the rumbling bass voice which could soothe or taunt or plead, is dead at 73, and the Senate is pausing in tribute to the man who for a decade was leader of its Republican minority.

At the peak of his power, during two Democratic administrations, the senator from Illinois fashioned that minority, and his own talent for oratory, drama and political maneuver, into a force which made him one of Washington's most influential figures.

Dirksen, ever the showman, was perhaps the best known of senators. "He was an old pro," said Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, announcing the Senate would forego business today to do honor to Dirksen, who died Sunday at Walter Reed Army Hospital, five days after an operation for lung cancer.

Medical announcements had indicated he was progressing toward recovery. But on Sunday, he suffered a cardiac and respiratory arrest. Two hours of efforts at resuscitation proved futile, and Dirksen died at 3:52 p. m. Big Spring time.

President Nixon called Dirksen a giant in the history of Congress, a great American, a warm personal friend. "To politics and government he brought a dedication matched by few and a style and eloquence matched by no political leader in our time," the President said. "He had his greatest moments as the leader of the loyal opposition."

The body of Sen. Everett M. Dirksen will lie in state in the rotunda of the Capitol for 24 hours beginning at noon EDT Tuesday.

Sen. Hugh Scott, of Pennsylvania, the acting Republican leader, said the Dirksen funeral is planned at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the National Presbyterian Church here.

He said Dirksen's body then will be taken to Pekin, Ill., for burial Thursday.

The body of the Senate GOP leader, who died Sunday, is expected to be flown to Pekin, Dirksen's birthplace.

Scott said the senators will convene early Tuesday and go in a group to the rotunda where brief service will be conducted by the Rev. L. R. Elson, the Senate chaplain.

President Nixon is expected to be present for that service.

Later, the public will be admitted to pay final respects.

Scott said there will be a final, brief graveside service in Pekin Thursday.

EVERETT DIRKSEN

Members of Congress, officials and leaders in both parties joined in praising Dirksen and in expressing sympathy to his widow, his daughter, Danice, and his son-in-law, Sen. Howard H. Baker, R-Tenn.

Dirksen's death left two vital vacancies in the Senate: that of Republican floor leader, and that of senator from Illinois.

Power Struggle Begins For GOP Leadership

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania stands as the likeliest immediate successor to GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen, but a power struggle over the next 16 months may determine the ultimate leader of Senate Republicans.

Scott was elected assistant GOP leader, of whip, by a narrow 23-20 vote in January and became acting party leader last week when Dirksen was hospitalized. With Dirksen's death Sunday, Scott is considered certain to seek the post on a full-time basis.

But Sen. Gordon Allott of Colorado, a conservative who serves as chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, made clear last week he expected a share of leadership duties during Dirksen's illness.

Allott, 62, could become a rival to Scott for the top job, or a candidate for whip.

But whoever moves into the minority leader's front-row desk and inherits his spacious, dark-delivered office just off the Senate floor is unlikely to have the power and force Dirksen had accumulated in his 10 year leadership.

For one thing, the position is less important now with a Republican in the White House than it was during Democratic administrations.

Unlike the Democrats, whose leader Mike Mansfield is also head of the party's policy committee and conference, the Republicans have a more fragmented set-up.

Thus, a collective leadership is possible until a strong man emerges, possibly not until after the 1970 congressional elections which could give Republicans control of the Senate for the first time in 16 years.

The choice will be made by the 42 Republican senators—plus Dirksen's successor if he is appointed by then—at a party conference. But Sen. Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, the conference chairman, declined to say how soon this might take place.

When Scott defeated Sen. Roman Hruska of Nebraska, a close ally of Dirksen, in what was primarily a liberal-conservative fight for the whip's job, most of the younger Senate Republicans supported Scott.

While they might back the 68-year-old Pennsylvania for the leadership now, they are likely to leave their options open for the start of the next Congress in January, 1971.

Less than a majority of GOP senators now, their ranks by then might be augmented as in 1966 and 1968.

Nixon, Ordaz Meet Today To Dedicate Amistad Dam

DEL RIO, Tex. (AP) — The presidents of the United States and Mexico meet for the first time since taking office today to dedicate Amistad (Friendship) Dam, a joint U.S.-Mexico project to tame the Rio Grande.

With military bands blaring and a 21-gun salute booming in their honor, President Richard Nixon and Mexico's President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz were scheduled to meet on a 300-foot red carpet in the center of the majestic $80 million dam about 1:30 p. m. (CDT).

As many as 30,000 spectators were expected to jam access roads leading to the dam, which rises like a giant concrete cliff from the floor of the Rio Grande 12 miles northwest of here.

Standing on the border of their two nations, the presidents were to deliver brief speeches and unveil a monument depicting U.S. and Mexican eagles.

They then were to lunch at an engineers' construction village overlooking the dam on the Mexican side before conferring in private.

The presidents' wives, Gov. Preston Smith of Texas, former Texas Gov. and Mrs. John Connally and the governors of Mexico were among the many dignitaries planning to attend the dedication ceremonies.

Spectators found virtually no shade. Temperatures were expected to be in the 90s.

The two chief executives first met in Mexico when Nixon was vice president and Diaz Ordaz was minister of the interior. The Mexican president said their brief chat would allow them to get to know each other.

Guests invited to the dedication and luncheon included Secretary of State and Mrs. William Rogers; Atty. Gen. and Mrs. John Mitchell; Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex.; G. v. Smith, Rep. O. C. Fischer, D-Tex.; Rep. and Mrs. George Bush, R-Tex.; Former Gov. and Mrs. Connally; Small Business Administration Director and Mrs. Hilary Sandoval. Also attending and continuing on to Washington with the president were to be Mrs. Nixon, David and Julie Eisenhower and Tricia Nixon. President and Mrs. Diaz Ordaz were to be hosts for the luncheon.

Two other presidential meetings have been held in this area, a hot, dry land of cactus and mesquite trees that hug the ground as if searching for water.

Governor Will Pick Successor

DR. PIKE'S BODY FOUND

CHICAGO (AP) — Illinois House Speaker Ralph T. Smith and Atty. Gen. William J. Scott are receiving prominent mention as possible successors to the Senate seat of the late Everett M. Dirksen.

Sources close to Republican Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie, who will make the appointment, labeled Smith as the top prospect at the moment but insisted the field is wide open.

Some other Republicans named in speculation about Dirksen's successor include John Henry Altorfer of Peoria, Congressman John Anderson of Rockford and Paul Findley of Pittsfield, and Donald Rumsfeld, a former congressman and now director of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

Altorfer was defeated by Ogilvie in the 1968 GOP gubernatorial primary.

Smith, of Alton, a two-time speaker and long-time legislator, played a key role in Ogilvie's election by serving as his downstate campaign manager.

If tradition is followed, the Dirksen seat will go to a downstate resident since Sen. Charles H. Percy is from the Chicago area.

Although Scott also is from the Chicago suburban area—Evanston—he is regarded by Ogilvie associates as being downstate oriented.

Dirksen's six-year term runs through 1974 but whoever Ogilvie appoints will serve a little more than a year because a special election will have to be held in November, 1970, to fill the remaining four years.

In view of the shortness of the appointment, Ogilvie may lean to someone he considers to have the strongest chance of winning the election.

JERUSALEM (AP) — Dr. James A. Pike, the former Episcopal bishop of California, could have died from a fall, thirst, heat, exhaustion, a heart attack or a combination of factors, police sources said today.

This assessment was based on a report by pathologists at Tel Aviv's Institute of Forensic Medicine. Details were not disclosed, but a police source said:

"It could have been the head injury, or maybe a heart attack or thirst, or heat or just exhaustion — but probably a combination of all these things."

"There is no way of telling how the wilderness can drive a man to death."

Israeli authorities said the pathologists' report indicated that 56-year-old Pike apparently died within hours of being parted from his wife after their automobile got stuck in the desert near the Dead Sea a week ago.

Police ruled out any possibility of foul play in Pike's death.

Pike was to be buried Monday afternoon in St. Peter's cemetery at Jaffa, a suburb of Tel Aviv.

His body was recovered Sunday from a ledge of a deep canyon about two miles from where his wife, Diane, 31, had left him to go for aid. He apparently had fallen from a cliff.

"There was no more appropriate place for Jim to die, if he had to die," said Mrs. Pike. She told newsmen her 56-year-old husband remarked before they set out on the trip: "If I die here, I will be happy and at peace."

The Pikes came to the Holy Land to do research for a book on the life of Christ.

"And now Jim has died in the place where Jesus found consolation," she said. "The book must be finished. My brother and I will do it. It will be a memorial to Jim."

Search parties of Israeli police, Bedouin trackers and army volunteers spent six days combing the wasteland where the Dead Sea Scrolls were found 20 years ago.

Police Inspector Salman Abu Yaman said Pike apparently was trying to climb out of the canyon and fell about 80 feet to the ledge.

An Israeli pathologist said Pike apparently died instantly from the fall and had been dead two to five days.

Pike's footprints led from two pools of fresh water a few hundred yards from the spot where he began his fatal attempt to climb out of the canyon.

Diplomat Calls Captors 'Intelligent Fanatics'

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP) — U.S. Ambassador C. Burke Elbrick said today his kidnapers kept their faces masked at all times during the four days they held him captive. He described them as "intelligent fanatics."

"They were not the kind of people you would like to engage in an argument," he told a news conference less than a day after being freed in exchange for 15 Brazilian political prisoners.

The 61-year-old veteran diplomat said he had little inkling of his abductors' ideological orientation, but added that they had nothing good to say about the Brazilian government.

In their ransom note, the kidnapers identified themselves as belonging to the National Liberation Action and the MR-8, the number 8 represents Oct. 8, 1967, the date of Cuban revolution.

tionary Ernest Che Guevara's death in Bolivia.

Of his captivity, Elbrick told newsmen: "I have no complaints about my treatment after the first night."

Elbrick was pistol-whipped on the head when he resisted getting in the kidnappers car last Thursday.

He said he was told about the reasons for the kidnaping "only in vague terms" and was not allowed to see any newspapers until Saturday afternoon, after the military junta agreed to the kidnappers demands.

He speculated that the kidnapers did not want him to know they had threatened his life.

Meantime, Brazilian security officials launched a widespread hunt for Elbrick's abductors. They searched several hours in the area where he was freed. Police sources said at least a dozen persons were arrested.

The military junta that took over a week ago when President Arthur da Costa e Silva suffered a stroke alerted military and law enforcement agencies to be on guard against a broadened campaign of violence which the two terrorist groups that kidnaped Elbrick promised to unleash.

There was speculation that the junta would issue a decree making death the punishment for terrorism.

His wife Elvira was one of the first persons to greet him after he drove up to the heavily guarded embassy residence in a taxi. The couple spent a few moments alone during which President Nixon telephoned from California.

The Brazilian military plane carrying the 15 prisoners whose release was demanded by Elbrick's kidnapers arrived in Mexico City Sunday afternoon. After immigration formalities were completed and the 15 were granted political asylum, one of them said: "The method used by our movement to free us is the only language that the dictatorship understands."

Bible Fund Has Surge Forward

In one of the best days on record in more than 20 years, friends of the Bible Class rallied Monday to boost the Bible Class fund by $470. This pushed to $1,716.56 the amount so far raised, or nearly half the goal.

There were numerous gifts from Sunday school classes, clubs and other groups, as well as generous gifts from many individuals. There was a $5 contribution from a serviceman in Vietnam.

There were a few out-of-town gifts including one from Dr. P. D. O'Brien, former First Baptist pastor who wrote from Houston: "I do not consider this a gift, rather an investment. With all the discouraging things about young people these days, I count it a privilege to cast my lot with those who are trying to do something about it." He now is associate pastor of the 4,700-member Second Baptist

A LOVELIER YOU Calorie Watchers Go To Barbecues

By MARY SUE MILLER

A Lovely writes: Our family is planning on some backyard barbecues this fall. The first one comes off on Labor Day. All the girls are on a weight-loss kick. What I want to know is how to keep the food hearty for the men and low-calorie at the same time.

The answer: Concentrate on broiling or baking fish, fowl and meats over the coals. Those foods satisfy the hungry male and hold the calorie line for reducing Lovelies. For instance, consider broiled lamb steaks marinated and basted with dieter's Italian dressing. Or fish fillets baked in aluminum foil with soy sauce and lemon juice.

An attractive array of vegetables pleases everybody's taste. From cub scouts on, the boys cotton to potatoes roasted in the coal. Let them swamp theirs with butter; you dress yours with a bit of chive cottage cheese.

Vegetable kebabs are a great low-cal treat. Simply load bamboo skewers with cherry tomatoes rolled in oregano, tiny white onions (parboiled if canned), chunks of green pepper, raw mushrooms if available; coat with dieter's French dressing and broil no more than six minutes, twirling constantly.

Hot string beans vinegrette make an ideal cool day salad. But what about bread? Crusty rolls for the boys, fingers of protein bread for the girls. Dessert? For the men, pie or cake. Fresh, raw fruit for you know who!

Speed Reading Classes Set for Big Spring

The famous Cutler Accelerated method of speed reading, created by Dr. Wade E. Cutler, who holds a doctorate in psychology, will be taught here in both day and evening classes.

The average person today reads some 200 words per minute with about 60% comprehension — a rate inadequate to cope with today's reading demands in school, college, and business.

This widely acclaimed course guarantees its graduates will read at least 1,000 words per minute with a definite increase in comprehension.

Many graduates of the nine-week program far exceed the guarantee and complete with rates of 2,500 and more words per minute with far better comprehension.

Concentration, recall, skimming and test-taking skills show a remarkable degree of improvement.

Such achievement means that a person can read books of average length in 45 minutes or less, and understand, remember, and enjoy them better than ever.

This remarkable accelerated reading and study course is offered here exclusively by Accelerated Education Schools with locations in major cities in Texas, New Mexico, Louisiana, and Oklahoma.

All meetings are open to the public, and will be conducted as follows:

Wednesday, Sept. 10, at 7:00 p.m. and at 8:30 p.m.

Thursday, Sept. 11, at 7:00 p.m. and at 8:30 p.m.

Friday, Sept. 12, at 7:00 p.m. and at 8:30 p.m.

Saturday, Sept. 13, at 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and at 3:30 p.m.

All meetings will be conducted in the Meeting Room No. 1 of the Settles Hotel, 3rd and Runnels Sts. in Big Spring. (Adv.)

Luncheon Held For Bride-Elect

Miss Nancy Jane Thomas bride-elect of Dan Lowell Allen, was complimented with a luncheon Thursday hosted by Mrs. G. T. Hall and Miss Marie Hall in the Gold Room at Big Spring Country Club.

The honoree, attired in a yellow dress, was presented a corsage, as was her mother, Mrs. Clyde E. Thomas Jr.

The table was laid with a pink cloth and centered with an arrangement of mixed flowers in shades of pink.

A personal gift was presented to the honoree.

The couple will be married Saturday evening in the First United Methodist Church.

Called Meeting

The American Legion Auxiliary will have a called meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Legion Hut. Mrs. Roscoe Long, stamped, self-addressed envelope and ten cents in coin.

District Officer Talks To Club

Mrs. Richard Dublin of Odessa, Western District president, Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, was guest speaker at a breakfast held Saturday morning for the 1941 Study Club of Coahoma. Her topic was "Women And Words."

"Words can express our true feelings, or they can cause a lot of trouble," said the speaker. "They are the best tools we have to communicate with one another. Women should carefully watch which words they use, because they can often be misconstrued or deceiving to the listener."

Mrs. Dublin emphasized using "pretty" words when complimenting or praising family members or friends.

The club met at Big Spring Country Club where Mrs. Trevor Crawford, outgoing president, was hostess. New officers elected were Mrs. W. A. Wilson, president; Mrs. Dwayne Clawson, vice president; and Mrs. Bernie Hagins,

ARE TOLD BY OFFICER THEY'LL HATE THE PLACE—AND THEY DO Young Draftees Get Their First Baptism Of Viet Fire

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Associated Press team of newsmen Peter Arnett and photographer Horst Faas spent two days at a battalion fire base of the U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division while it was under North Vietnamese attack. Their account is of young draftees introduced to war for the first time.

By PETER ARNETT and HORST FAAS
Associated Press Writers
FIRE BASE IKE, Vietnam
(AP) — "You will hate it here," the tall, lean colonel told them with intensity.

The young men—from Florida, Southern California, Texas, New Jersey, Michigan and the Bronx — huddled at his feet, and they stirred uneasily. The colonel went on remorselessly. "You will hate it because you are sitting on a bullseye. Our troops out there in the boonies are evenly matched with the other side. The only difference with Charlie—the North Vietnamese—comes from this fire base, from our big guns here, from our command radios. You have to protect that difference, and it's tough." Lt. Col. Fred Y. Lindsey, commander of the 2nd Infantry Battalion, 8th Regiment, U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division, did not go into detail on just how tough it would be. Or how soon. The young men squatting along the bunker in front of him were already scared, having arrived by helicopter that morning as replacements for the colonel's battered battalion. They were all 19 or 20 years old, drafted in the Army in January and February. They had not yet been in combat. Lindsey, 17 years in the Army and generally a taciturn man, tried some banter with the kids in front of him. He was firm but fatherly, because he knew that these frightened young men would have their baptism of fire that night. An enemy attack had been building like a hurricane around Lindsey's muddy jungle fire base in War Zone C North of Saigon for three days. The eye of the storm late Thursday seemed to be a North Vietnamese regimental headquarters just two miles to the southwest, if the elaborate spotting devices were correct. Lindsey needed the best performance from every man in his command. But Lindsey, 39, from Springfield, Va., had no illusions about the quality of the new men, or of the others in Fire Base Ike. While most were as good fighting men as in any other war, Lindsey had his problems. There were those on Fire Base Ike prone to keeping their heads down when the fighting began. There were the Vietnam veterans, whose main concern was to get out alive. There were those who openly questioned whether all the fighting and dying was worth it. There were those who tried to escape the grim realities of Fire Base Ike with drugs. Just that day two junkies were shipped to the rear because their presence in a field unit might endanger the others. And the dissenters talked every day about their doubts, thus threatening to undermine the fighting spirit that Lindsey felt he needed. There were those who were openly disobedient. A few days earlier five infantrymen temporarily refused to man an overnight observation post because of the danger. Another soldier was sent back because he wouldn't fight.

Price Of Meat Defended By Livestock Men

WASHINGTON (AP)—Housewives are dismayed over rising beef prices, but some livestock groups are fed up with the housewives and have launched a counter-barrage aimed at telling consumers they never had it so good.

The National Livestock Feeders Association says, for example, that considering today's improved living standard and higher wages "red meats are still one of the very best buys to be found."

Farmers who fatten cattle for the retail trade also are skeptical of consumer claims of exorbitant store prices and resent being blamed for $1.49 sirloin.

Midwest beef producers offer no apologies for today's price situation. Rather, many say producers have had it coming that production costs have risen consistently and that prices for live cattle only recently have been high enough for decent profits.

Bill House, president of the American National Cattlemen's Association, not only defended beef as one of the best buys, but noted that cattle prices have dipped and added that "if the free market system operates as it should, the prices the consumer pays for all cuts of beef should be reflected accordingly."

It still is difficult for housewives who must pay 20 cents a pound more for hamburger than they paid last winter to understand farmers' logic. Instead when meat prices go up it is much easier to blame a distant farmer than the neighborhood supermarket which, incidentally may employ the family breadwinner.

But it is the middleman who takes two-thirds of a family's food money, not the farmer. And the middleman blames inflation, rising labor costs and increasing demand for higher food prices.

Prices for fed cattle have dropped about $5 per hundred weight from peaks in June, but still are well ahead of last year.

The Agriculture Department's farm price report last week said the average cattle price for the month ended Aug. 15 was $27 per hundredweight, a down $1 from mid-July. This price includes fat cattle in the slaughter market as well as all other types.

The $27 average in August was computed at $7 per cent of parity—the formula used to show what farmers receive in relation to costs.

The point made by spokesmen is that if cattlemen received consistently fair prices in relation to their expenses then housewives would be paying much more for meat than they are.

Horoscope Forecast TOMORROW —CARROLL RIGHTER

GENERAL TENDENCIES: During the daytime there is a considerable amount of confusion. You would be wise to be careful when you speak or act so that others do not misunderstand you. Listen attentively to the comments of those about you. The evening is fine for enjoying favorite pastimes.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Instead of scheming and using the direct approach, socially and others will go along with you. Some of your friends are acting rather strangely. Pay attention.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): There is some misunderstanding between you at home and a business partner or yours. All will be fine if you can keep them apart today. If you avoid all difficulties during the day you can have a charming evening. Be happy.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21): Get busy and do these things that please your regular associates. Buy or sell wisely. Shop, etc. Plan just so many hours for dull work. Then free yourself for amusement. Do what you like most for a change.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21): Don't neglect an important activity or financial deal just for a little pleasure with one you hardly know. You could get into serious trouble. Confer with an expert for help. Ideas. Keep as quiet as possible.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21): You can participate now in those social matters through which you can advance. Your family would be detrimental to your interests at this time. Talk over your affairs with those who have your welfare at heart. Get the right results and the necessary support.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22): You need to do some research, as well as tend to regular business. Plan your time wisely and handle both easily. Keep confidence to gain the good will of an expert. Be clever.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23): Forget money worries. Get out with charming friends who can offer many good ideas and make you happy. Take time to fix your property. Don't let things go until it is too late to repair them. For replacing them is too expensive.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 21): Avoid higher-ups now or you could do or say something detrimental to your good position. Support a person who needs you. You may show that you really care.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): Explore new outlets that can bring advancement in a short time, instead of worrying about what can't be helped. Teach the friend who seeks your help to be more aggressive. Don't weaken his or her activities by being too much.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Learn to be more businesslike for best results in your future. Be smart. Take care of pressing obligations, rather than accompany a friend on some dull project of his.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): Forget strutting around like a peacock. Get busy cooperating with your associates if you really want to succeed. Be the master of your own soul. Don't scatter your abilities.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to March 20): Get busy and do your job. Never mind indulging in worthless pleasure with someone. The people with whom you work can be very fascinating, if you cooperate more. Be wise and win.

Big Spring (Texas) Herald,
Mon., Sept. 8, 1969 5

Dear Abby

—ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: We were surprised and disappointed to learn that you approve of sex education in the schools. When did you change your mind?

Not too long ago you told a couple of high school students who wanted to study a marriage manual together, "You don't need to study the violin two years before you're able to practice."

Isn't that what sex education in school is?

MR. AND MRS. B.: DEAR MR. AND MRS. B.: No! Sex education in the schools deals with animal and human reproduction, personal hygiene, health, including the seriousness of venereal disease, etc. Marriage manuals deal with the "physical" side of marriage, giving explicit instruction in sexual behavior. This, I agree, has no place in our schools, and is NOT taught there, contrary to what you may have been led to believe!

DEAR ABBY: How can an intelligent woman like you be FOR sex education in the schools?

Why, I heard that one teacher got so carried away while conducting a sex education lecture that she completely DISROBED in front of the class!

In another school, the teacher herded the whole class into a dark closet and told them to "feel" each other!

I could tell you much more, but you wouldn't believe it.

HORRIFIED IN MELROSE, FLA.

DEAR HORRIFIED: I'm sure I wouldn't. And I don't believe the above incidents ever happened either. I have heard all these wild tales (and more) but have been unable to locate the teachers who supposedly did the above, the schools in which these incidents were supposed to have occurred, or any of the children who were actually present.

DEAR ABBY: I think you are all wrong to say that sex education in schools is okay. During school years children should concentrate on reading, writing, and arithmetic. And in their spare time they should think about dolls, flying kites, and baseball.

I heard that a school in southern California tried sex education 10 years ago and they had to stop it because over half the girls in the senior class dropped out because they were pregnant.

AGAINST SEX EDUCATION

DEAR AGAINST: Can you provide me with the NAME of that high school in southern California — and proof that over half the girls in the senior class dropped out because they were pregnant? If so, I will publicly apologize.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069, and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Oil Depletion Change Hurts

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—A University research report stated Saturday that if proposed reductions in the oil depletion allowance are carried out and write-off provisions for intangible drilling costs are restricted, the two factors could cost Oklahoma economy up to $252 million in income and 41,000 jobs.

The research indicated that such restrictions on federal tax provisions would drastically affect all oil producing states, but included only Oklahoma statistics.

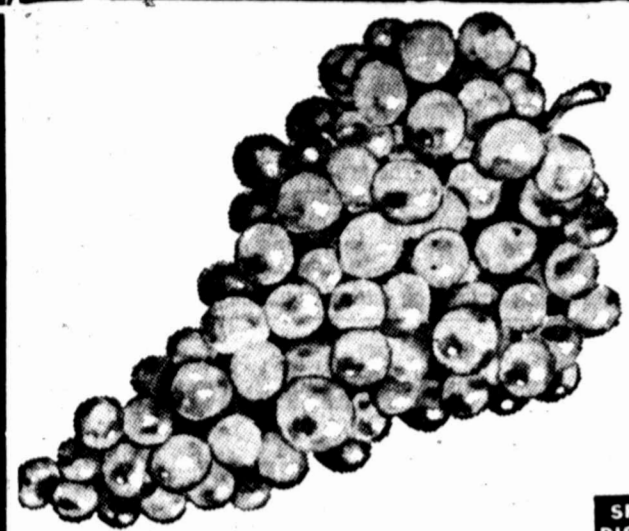

The study, begun last spring, was made by the University of Oklahoma Bureau for Business and Economic Research.

The bureau said it made its research with financial help from the American Petroleum Institute with a stipulation it would be permitted to publish its findings regardless of the outcome of the results.

Proposals in Congress in Oklahoma, the bureau stated, are the some 800 independent oil operators "who depend for most of their investment capital on outside investors in the higher income tax brackets."

It was pointed out that the independents do most of the exploratory drilling and are the chief discoverers of new reserves in all oil producing states.

The 87-page report made no evaluation of the desirability of either increasing or decreasing tax incentives for oil exploration.

HE WASN'T A 'BACKSEATER' — Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill., who died Sunday, rarely permitted himself to be "upstaged" and would argue a point with anyone. At top, he is eye-to-eye with President Nixon, then Vice President, in 1959 at $100-a-plate dinner for President Eisenhower. At bottom, Sen. Dirksen is shown in 1954 leaving a closed meeting with the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy.

SEN. DIRKSEN

nia, 68, is likely to succeed to the minority leadership on an interim basis. The decision will be made at a conference of 42 remaining Republican senators.

They will, presumably, be joined by a 43rd Republican when GOP Gov. Richard B. Ogilvie of Illinois appoints a new senator.

Dirksen, who was elected to his fourth Senate term less than a year ago, had suffered repeated illnesses, frequently requiring hospitalization. He blamed recurrent stomach and intestinal disturbances on tension. He also suffered from a bleeding ulcer, a pinched nerve in his back, and emphysema, a lung ailment.

He constantly puffed cigarettes, tried to quit but never succeeded, often borrowed a smoke from a colleague, an aide or a reporter.

It was when Johnson and the late John F. Kennedy were in the White House that Dirksen's power was at its pinnacle. Democratic presidents came to him seeking the votes they needed for key proposals.

Republican Nixon often turned to other Republicans—although Dirksen retained ample political muscle. Critics—among them some of the Senate's younger, more liberal Republicans—accused Dirksen of obstructionism, and there was guarded corridor talk of an eventual attempt to displace the leader.

Six years ago, almost to the day, Dirksen was on the Senate floor, arguing the case for Kennedy in the struggle over ratification of the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

He had not, Dirksen said, lost faith in his President. "Take one little step with some hope and some faith," he urged in the familiar, organ-tone voice. The Senate did.

He was a key man in the passage of the sweeping Civil Rights Act of 1964, and again when Congress dealt with voting rights a year later. Those were the days when the Democratic White House sent emissaries to his ornate, office off the Senate floor, when the terms of crucial legislation were drafted beneath the crystal chandelier there.

All the while, however, his Republican oratory was undampened. As leading man of "The Ev and Charlie Show," the weekly news conferences with House GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck, he glibed at Democratic social programs.

Later, he said the Johnson administration was pursuing social programs with "the pop-eyed ardor of a Harpo Marx chasing blondes."

But when fellow Republicans said he was too close to Johnson, Dirksen had a standard answer from Julius Caesar: "Not that I loved Caesar less, but that I loved Rome more."

During the Nixon administration, Dirksen at times lined up against a GOP President. He blocked a widely publicized appointment, agreed with Senate Democrats to a six month extension of the income surtax when the White House wanted a full year.

Dirksen came out of Pekin, Ill., to the House of Representatives, winning his first term in 1932 and serving there for 16 years. He retired with eye trouble, so serious that specialists once advocated removal of an eye. But the eye improved. And in 1950 Dirksen ran for the Senate and, in an upset, defeated Scott Lucas, the Democratic leader.

In 1952, he was a major supporter of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio for presidential nomination, and it produced a famous moment of political drama. As Taft forces battled those favoring Dwight D. Eisenhower for

Wit, Skill, Manner Praised In Sadness

WASHINGTON (AP) — Everett McKinley Dirksen's wit, political skill and grand manner were praised today with a sad sense that his likes may never pass this way again.

"To politics and government he brought a dedication matched by few and a style and eloquence matched by no political leader in our time," President Nixon said after learning of the death Sunday of his party's Senate leader.

Former President Lyndon B. Johnson, a Democrat who often found in Dirksen a valued ally, sent a private message of condolence to Mrs. Dirksen.

"Everett Dirksen brought the embellishment of the past to the politics of the present," said Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho. He was "an authentic product of an earlier period who remained prominent and powerful to the moment of his death. We will not see the likes of him again."

Former GOP minority leader William Knowland of California talked of Dirksen preserving "the constitutional equality of the legislative branch with the executive and judicial branches of the federal government."

James O. Eastland, the Mississippi Democrat, said "America is deprived of his service in a period of her history when she can ill afford the loss of one of her greatest and strongest sons."

"My political godfather," said Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, the GOP's "Mr. Conservative" whose name was placed in nomination by Dirksen for the 1964 presidential campaign.

The party's liberals, such as frequent foe Sen. Jacob Javits of New York, could remember Dirksen as serving the nation "as a gifted virtuoso."

"An altogether singular man who placed on his times the indelible and cherished stamp," said GOP Senate whip Sen. Hugh Scott, a moderate, who was not Dirksen's choice to be his deputy.

Welfare Secretary Robert H. Finch lost to Dirksen in the crunch to appoint Dr. John Knowles, "A great legislative leader, a great patriot, a great American," said Finch.

There had been guarded corridor talk too of trying to unseat Dirksen, Freshman Republican Sen. Charles Goodell of New York had called him an obstructionist, but could conclude "Neither the Senate . . . nor the nation, which he loved so much, shall ever be the same again."

The immediate target for much of Dirksen's parliamentary foxiness was Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield. The Montanan recalled a fine relationship. "His word was good. Everything was on the table."

SILKY PRAISE, WELL-SAID PUT-DOWN

When Ev Spoke, It Flowed

WASHINGTON (AP) — His language smacked of Shakespeare and the Bible and Victorian England, his delivery of William Jennings Bryan, his fervor of Billy Sunday.

His stage could have been the Chautauqua circuit and his product patent medicine. But he made it politics and when he spoke it was pure Americana, like the Fourth of July picnics of old in Pekin, Ill., where he grew up.

Everett McKinley Dirksen was an orator, a master at unrolling cubic yards of rhetoric at the slightest nudge. He was of the breed that went out with mustache cups and trolleys and shoes with hooks for laces.

He was the purveyor of the well-said put-down as well as the silvery threads of praise. When Dirksen spoke, it flowed. It flowed.

"What strange doubts assail this timid generation of today as it beholds the challenges to both liberty and equality," he said once at Gettysburg on the 98th anniversary of Lincoln's address.

"We seem beset with fear not faith, with doubt not confidence, with compromise not conviction, with dismay not dedication. We are drenched with the literature of fear and doubt. Survival has become the main theme."

Early in the Eisenhower administration, Adlai Stevenson—the presidential candidate defeated in 1952—called the administration "dreary."

Dirksen countered with: "Quite often Adlai has a sense of fitness in selecting his adjectives. Dreary is the word. It is no glamorous or dramatic adjective to cleanse the temple of government of its defilement, indicating grafters and boodlers of the 22 major scandals of the Truman administration . . . it goes forward with vigor, even though it be a dreary job."

Everything about him added to the image. His face, florid and lumpy, could be sad, piteous, sly, melodramatic, startled—whatever punctuation his speech at the time demanded.

And always there was the hair—wispy, white, always looking as if he had just stepped from a speedy convertible.

"If you have some kind of trademark like unruly hair, people get to recognize you," he said.

Even when he was in the hospital—which was often—Dirksen managed to get in his thrusts. In 1964 he had missed a week of debate leading to a tax cut bill. His words were later relayed to the Senate:

"Perhaps you can imagine my bed-ridden amazement, my pajama-ruffled consternation, my pillow-laden astonishment this week, to learn that three Republican-sponsored proposals to assist in achieving laudable goals had been defeated by very narrow margins, victims of that new White House telephonic half-Nelson known as the "Texas twist."

Like a consummate actor, Dirksen used body English to accompany his stentorian, sonorous, mellifluous tones. In one speech there was mention of choreographer and the Senate was treated to the delightful sight of the portly Dirksen tip-toeing like a ballet dancer, twirling around the floor.

When he wanted to quiet a crowd, Dirksen would spread both hands in front of him, palms down, and gaze off into space as if communing with far-off, unseen spirits.

"Overemphasis," he explained, "reminds me of the preacher who sprinkled the margins of his sermon with instructions addressed to himself—cues like 'argument weak here; shout like hell.'"

Finger-pointing, he explained, should be held in reserve for special occasions. One such occasion was the 1952 GOP convention when he was backing Sen. Robert A. Taft for the presidential nomination while Thomas E. Dewey—twice defeated candidate—was pulling for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

From the rostrum, the Dirksen hand shot out, diabolically gliding on one finger. Pointing straight at Dewey, Dirksen belted: "We followed you before and you took us down the road to defeat."

Dirksen spoke angrily about "the anarchy of mob conduct" in America and spoke about "the strange ferment and turbulence of today's youth."

Of war protesters he said "they do not burn draft cards behind the barn or in the cellar. There must be a network camera around or it isn't successful."

His first recording venture was a reading of history. He ended it by reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, explaining afterward: "I think I would die unhappy unless I made some contribution to putting America, and particularly young America, back into the stream of tradition."

Ford Sets Out On Middle Road

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Republican leader says he backs the House-passed tax reform bill, but he has stopped short of criticizing Nixon administration proposals which would alter the measure considerably.

Rep. Gerald Ford of Michigan said, "I basically support the House bill, and I hope that the final version will be approximately what the House passed."

While implying his opposition to some administration ideas Ford said, "on balance I think the administration . . . has done a good job in trying to update and reform our basic tax legislation."

ICC Officials Must Pay Way

WASHINGTON (AP) — Interstate Commerce Commission members are to stop accepting free hotel rooms and transportation from trucking and railroad groups, says the agency's chairman.

Virginia Mae Brown has issued a memorandum directing all the ICC officials to pay for all their expenses themselves, it was learned Sunday.

An examination of travel vouchers for the commissioners disclosed some have been traveling for years at the expense of transportation associations and some lawyers who practice before the regulatory board.

Commissioners deny the practice had influenced their thinking, decisions, or constituted a conflict of interest.

Questions over the practice were raised after consumer advocate Ralph Nader and a group of young lawyers working with him for the summer pried into the files of the ICC and other government agencies.

Science Shrinks Painful Hemorrhoids Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

Find Way That Both Relieves Pain and Shrinks Piles In Most Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a special formula with the ability, in most cases—to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching and relieve pain.

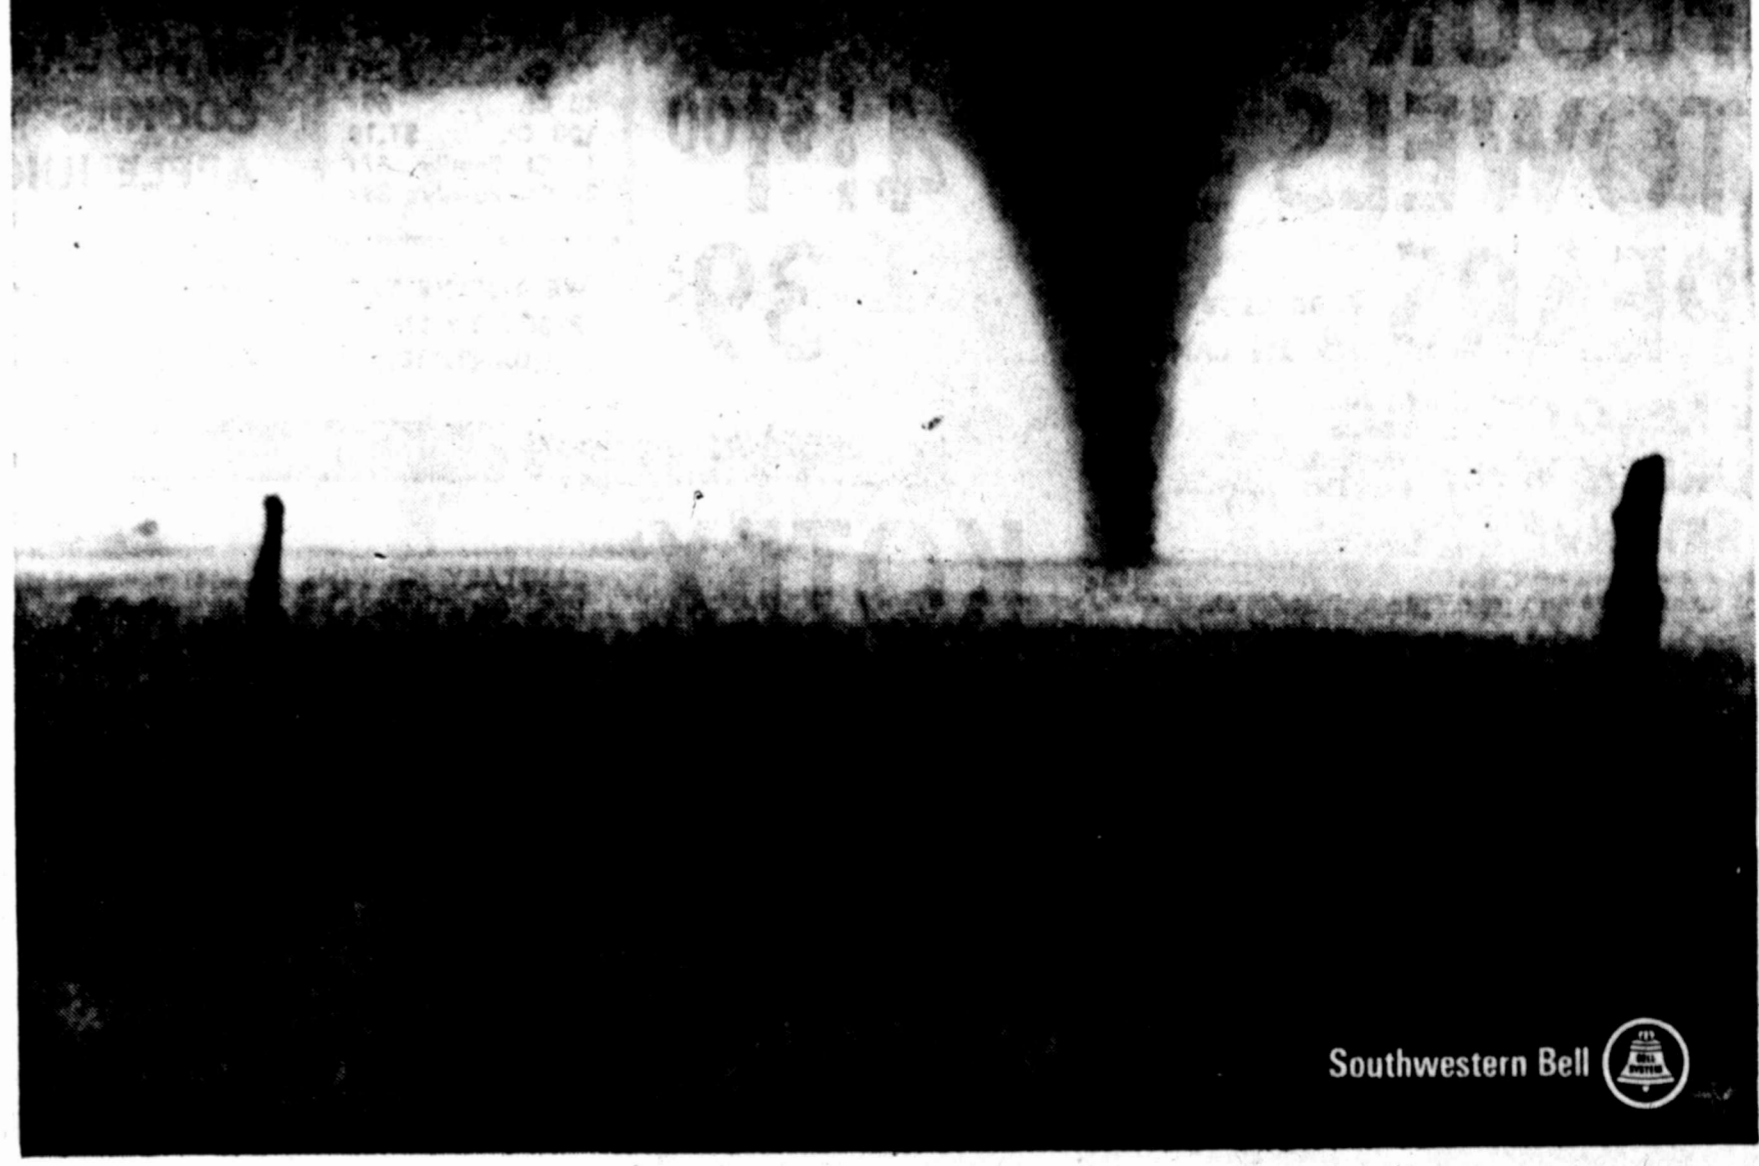

In case after case doctors proved, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. The secret is Preparation H®. There is no other formula for hemorrhoids like it. Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

We are ready!

If and when disaster strikes, thousands of telephone men and operators, and tons of equipment are available to help restore communications.

Emergency phone service for police, hospitals and city officials is the first order of action. Then attention is turned to customer telephones that may be crippled.

It's a job we would rather not have to do. But when necessary—whatever the emergency . . . floods . . . hurricanes . . . tornadoes—we're ready. We may be the only phone company in town, but we try not to act like it.

INTENDED TO CREATE JOBS IN A POVERTY AREA

Investigator Checks On Record Federal Loan Loss

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department has dispatched an investigator to Florida to examine the causes of a record multimillion-dollar loss on a government loan intended to create jobs in a poverty area.

ing to a survey of loan-granting agencies, is the largest ever on a federal loan to private enterprise in the United States.

At the Commerce Department, a similar view is expressed. "In hindsight, we should have done some things differently," one official said.

Wallace Repeats Appeal Of 'Choice'

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace has called for parents to send their children to the schools of their choice rather than comply with federal court edicts which have placed most of Alabama's school children into geographic attendance zones.

Wallace made the appeal in an address to some 9,000 persons at a rally here Sunday sponsored by the Concerned Parents for Public Education of Jefferson County.

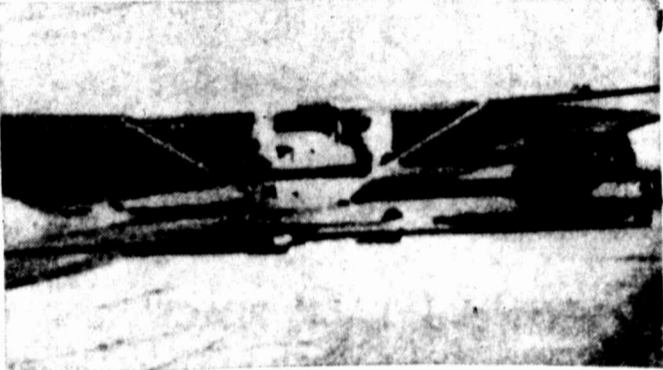

Wallace called the Concerned Parents' movement to uphold freedom of choice in schools "one of the finest movements that has originated in our state and I know that eventually you are going to succeed."

Every action and every statement of the rally, Wallace said, "is meant in the interest of every Alabamian who attends a public school in Alabama, regardless of race or color."

In regard to steps to be taken by parents in the current school desegregation situation, Wallace read a resolution passed by the Alabama Legislature last week at his urging.

Allies To Scale Down Fighting For Mourning

SAIGON (AP) — The U.S. and South Vietnamese commands announced today that allied military operations would be scaled down to match the enemy's during the Viet Cong's three-day cease-fire in mourning for Ho Chi Minh.

The joint South Vietnamese-American communique tacitly accepted the three-day truce although it declared: "It is not our intention to talk about a cease-fire at this time."

The communique confirmed earlier reports that the allied forces were in a "defensive posture" but patrols were continuing to intercept any enemy attempt to build up troops and firepower closer to allied bases.

The joint communique said: "The scale of our military operations in the past has been influenced by the scale of enemy military operations. During this period the scope of our military operations will likewise be influenced by the scale of enemy military operations."

The Communist announcement of a cease-fire must be viewed in the light of the savage rocket attacks against civilians in Da Nang, and other aggressive actions which have followed the announcement. It must also be viewed in the light of the known history of past Communist violations of cease-fires which they themselves had proposed. Consequently it is not our intention to talk about cease-fires at this time."

American B52 bombing raids previously scheduled for targets in South Vietnam were diverted to attack North Vietnamese infiltration trails through Laos, informed sources said.

One radio message heard in the field from an American company commander to his top sergeant said: "The thing is today we'll have sort of a cease-fire in our hostile actions. We don't want to take anything under fire unless it's absolutely necessary."

A spokesman for the U.S. Command said that according to early reports, "the level of enemy-initiated actions is relatively low."

He said no shelling of American bases had been reported and there had been only a handful of "insignificant incidents."

South Vietnamese headquarters reported a dozen enemy attacks in which 10 civilians and three soldiers were killed and 36 persons wounded, including 18 civilians.

In one attack, the Viet Cong detonated a land mine electrically under a bus 35 miles south of Da Nang, killing 10 civilians and wounding 15. This happened nearly 11 hours after the Viet Cong cease-fire was to start.

Viet Cong troops also killed two American infantrymen and wounded five others in an ambush 37 miles southeast of Da Nang.

South Vietnamese military officials reported one minor ground attack and four mortar and rocket attacks on towns and outposts before dawn. American forces opened fire on two moving enemy groups about 25 miles northwest of Saigon.

New Beauty Queen Begins Her Reign

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The new Miss America, Pamela Ann Eldred, says she likes sincere men and believes in the authority of her elders.

The 21-year-old Michigan blonde today leaves the resort city where she was crowned Miss America 1970 on Saturday night for a trip to New York City. There she will begin nine days of wardrobe fittings to prepare for personal appearance tours.

She began the first day of her reign Sunday with a news conference, where she was asked to describe the ideal man. "A sincere one," she said. "One who puts the interest of others ahead of his."

On the subject of campus disputes, she said, "I'm a firm believer in authority. I have a mind of my own, but why should I defy my elders just for the sake of defying them, if I know they're right?"

A green-eyed natural blonde from the Detroit suburb of Birmingham, she will have to postpone for a year her studies at Mercy College of Detroit, where she is a speech and drama major.

She has been the lead dancer for the Detroit City Ballet, and hopes for a Broadway musical career. Her singing voice is "loud enough to project throughout a theater," she said.

The 5-foot-5½ beauty is a trim 110 pounds on a 34-21-34 frame. She said she maintains her figure without dieting.

Kenyon College Admits Women

GAMBIER, Ohio (AP) — Coeds in miniskirts adorned the Kenyon College campus as classes began today, marking the first time in 145 years the school has admitted women.

The 159 new Kenyon girls mingled among 425 other new students who arrived at the school early for orientation.

Escapee Sends Police A Card

WEST HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — An escaped prisoner mailed police detective Craig Carucci a postcard with the greeting: "I guess it's goodbye for a while."

The card was from Joseph Lareau, who had been in the custody of West Hartford police in July and promised to send Carucci a card if he escaped. He did escape—late last month in Manchester while awaiting a court appearance.

Pictured on the card was an airport in a Middle Atlantic state.

Front Brings New Storms

By The Associated Press
Holdover thunderstorms continued to rumble across the Texas Panhandle and parts of Northwest Texas this morning after some heavy storms were reported in the state Sunday night.

The big storms Sunday were in North Central and extreme Southeast Texas. Waco reported 1.09 inches of rain, and severe storms touched down near the Louisiana border before moving into the Gulf of Mexico.

The Panhandle storms were produced by a weak cool front. Except for the Panhandle and the northwest, weather across the state had calmed down by dawn today. Most skies were clear to partly cloudy, although El Paso reported some rain.

Early morning temperatures ranged from the 60s in the Panhandle to the 70s elsewhere. Galveston reported readings in the low 80s.

Forecasts called for scattered thundershowers in the Panhandle, Northwest, North Central and Far West Texas today. Some showers were predicted for the Lower Coastal Plains, and temperatures were due to dip a little in the Panhandle.

Ballots Out To Farmers For ASC Committeemen

Forty-one names have been placed before the farmers and ranchers of Howard County for the election of community committeemen of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The ballots were mailed Friday and should be returned to the ASC office here on or before Sept. 17.

J. C. Hammock, head of the local office, said approximately 1,400 ballots were mailed and Coates, R. E. Haney, J. W. he reminded farmers that both Shive, Johnnie Walker and C. C. Wolf.

Community D candidates include Roy Bates Jr., T. M. Dunagan, Neil Fryar, Ross Hill, Cecil R. Long, L. E. Rosser, Homer Thorp and Curtis Wood.

Tabulation of the ballots will be at 9 a.m. Sept. 22 in the local ASC office.

The ASC chief explained that the county is broken into five sections and that a chairman, vice chairman and regular member are to be selected from each section.

The newly elected officers will take office on Oct. 1.

Housewife Tries Raising Her Own

LEVITTOWN, N.Y. (AP) — A Long Island housewife who thinks meat prices are too high has taken up a dare from a Midwesterner to raise her own steer.

Mrs. Mickey DeLorenzo decked out in blue jeans, gingham blouse and cowgirl hat for the occasion, accepted her 400-pound, year-old steer Sunday and said, "Never look a gift bull in the mouth."

Mrs. DeLorenzo has organized a housewives' meat boycott to protest high prices. The steer was provided by Ed Collins, a radio announcer in Red Oak Iowa, and a former rancher.

The attractive mother of two said the steer will be fed and cared for by Nassau County in nearby Eisenhower Park. When it reaches 1,200 pounds, its market value will be measured against the cost of raising it.

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AKQJ ♣AQJ ♢KQJ

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
2♠ Pass 4♠ Pass

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. The jump raise in the opening bid suit is a specialized bid and by convention describes a hand which contains very good trump support but no aces or kings and no singletons.

Therefore, it is clear that your side lacks the club ace. Furthermore, there is a heart loser to dispose of and a diamond finesse to contend with. Slam, therefore, should be regarded as too remote for practical consideration.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠AK632 ♣AJ ♢AQ3 ♣KQ8

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
Pass Pass 2NT Pass
4NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—This hand contains 23 points in high cards in addition to a good five card suit. Consequently you have sufficient excess values to accept the invitation and should bid six no trump.

Q. 3—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠Q10532 ♣43 ♢K62 ♣984

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1♣ Dbl. 1♠ Dbl.
Pass Pass 2♠ Pass
Pass 2♥ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass. Partner has a more or less reasonable idea of your holding from your double of the one spade bid. You have done your duty and should sit back and relax.

Q. 4—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠K73 ♣K54 ♢AJ92 ♣AJ5

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1NT 2♥ 2♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Pass; this hand is a rock bottom minimum one no trump, and it is not to be presumed that partner has as many as 10 points, else he should make a jump bid.

Q. 5—Both sides vulnerable with 60 part score and as South you hold:
♠K10642 ♣7 ♢KQ1042 ♣A8

The bidding has proceeded:
West North East South
1♥ Pass 2♥ ?

What do you bid?
A.—Our own choice lies between a double and a bid of three diamonds, with a slight preference for the latter. This may seem unorthodox, inasmuch as the normal call would appear to be two spades. However, preparation for the next round suggests the wisdom of a three diamond bid. When the opponents bid three hearts, which is probable, you may then compete conveniently with a bid of three spades. Whereas, if you bid two spades now and the opponents bid three hearts, you will find it necessary to bid four diamonds in order to carry on the fight.

Q. 6—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠K8632 ♣33 ♢92 ♣AJ1098

The bidding has proceeded:
North East South West
1♥ Pass 1♠ Pass
1NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Two clubs. With two worthless doubletons, a suit contract would seem preferable. This is not forcing, for a new suit after a one no trump bid may be dropped.

Q. 7—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
♠A10 ♣AQJ975 ♢94 ♣978

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1♥ Pass 2♥ Pass
2♥ Pass 2♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three hearts. Inasmuch as you have a minimum hand in high cards, you must do no more than make minimum bids.

Q. 8—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
♠AQ104 ♣64 ♢AQJ72 ♣82

The bidding has proceeded:
South West North East
1♥ Pass 2NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
A.—Three spades. Inasmuch as you are committed to reach a game contract, nothing is to be lost by stopping off on the way to try out your major suit. The three spade bid does not necessarily show additional values.

City Reducing Tax Rate Again

SAN LEANDRO, Calif. (AP) — The City Council of this industrial community 30 miles southeast of San Francisco reducing the city tax rate for the 22nd consecutive time. The past year's rate of 97 cents per $100 of assessed valuation is being cut by 2 cents, or 2.06 per cent. However, the city expects 21.7 per cent more revenue since total assessed valuation is up 21.9 per cent. The tax rate started being cut after it reached a high of $1.98 per $100 in 1947.

Astro Rally Beats Giants

HOUSTON (AP) — It was the top of the fourth and the Houston Astros had managed two hits but no score while the San Francisco Giants had no hits Sunday.

The Giants' Willie Mays connected for a single to left field and before the inning was complete the Giants had scored six runs.

The six runs proved to be one short when the game ended 7-6 with the Astros the winners.

The Giants, who came into the game leading the Western Division of the National League, are now behind the Astros in season meetings 9-7. The Astros tied it with six in the sixth.

In the bottom of the ninth, pinch hitter Hector Torres slapped a bases-loaded single and sent Jim Wynn across the plate for Houston's win.

"I was nervous at first," said Torres. "I wanted to get the base hit so bad. I decided not to think about it and concentrate on the pitcher."

"He threw me three balls kinda high. I was waiting for a fast one. I saw the ball, hit it, hit it good... and I thought it would get through," said Torres, who was called from Oklahoma City of the American Association to the Astros this past week.

Lowly Padres Sweep Series Off Dodgers

By The Associated Press — They (the Dodgers) were friendly when they came here but they aren't any more. Certainly not the Los Angeles Dodgers.

dres rallied to beat the Los Angeles 4-2 Sunday and sweep the four-game series, dropping the Dodgers from third to fourth place in the National League West and jolting their flag hopes.

Despite the four-game shock treatment, the Dodgers trail first-place San Francisco by only 2 1/2 games. The Giants' lead Cincinnati by 1 1/2 games and Atlanta by two.

Elsewhere in the NL, Atlanta drubbed Cincinnati 7-3, Houston nipped San Francisco 7-6, Pittsburgh took Chicago 7-5 in 11 innings, trimming the Cubs' East Division lead by 2 1/2 games over the New York Mets, who walked Philadelphia 9-3, and Montreal blanked St. Louis 3-0.

Orlando Cepeda's two-run double and a two-run error by Tony Perez gave Atlanta four runs in the first inning and the Braves held on as Rod Reed posted his 15th triumph. The Braves scored two more runs in the fourth and Hank Aaron unloaded his 39th homer—549th of his career—in the seventh.

Matty Alou raced home from second on Don Kessinger's error with one out in the 11th and Richie Hebner singled home an insurance run as the Pirates sent the skidding Cubs to their fourth consecutive defeat. The third-place Pirates are 2 1/2 games out after sweeping the three-game set.

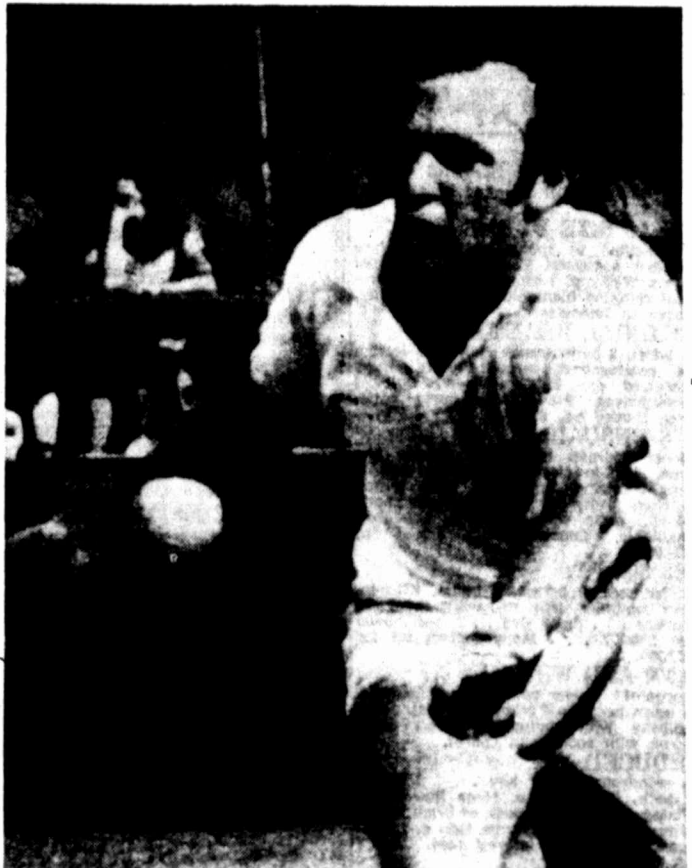

Willie Stargell's homer with two out in the ninth sent the game into extra innings after Jim Hickman's two-run shot in the eighth gave the Cubs a 5-4 lead.

Art Shamsky, who homered earlier, drove in the go-ahead run with a sacrifice fly in the seventh as the Mets whipped the Phillies. Ken Boswell's triple made it 5-3 and the Mets sewed it up with four in the eighth on two run singles by Tommie Agee — who also homered — and Rod Gaspar.

Rusty Staub hit a three-run homer on a 3-0 pitch from Steve Carlton in the third inning for all the game's runs and Montreal's Bill Stoneman blanked the Cards on five hits.

Brantley-Nieto To Be In Pro-Am

Charles Brantley, pro at the Muny golf course, has been invited to play in the Odessa Pro-Am tourney, and he has enlisted Jeff Nieto, Howard County Junior College ace, to be his amateur partner. They are due to play in a special round Tuesday. The tourney proper starts Thursday at the Odessa Country Club course.

CAREFUL DRIVER — Tony Roche of Australia races for a drive from John Newcombe, also of Australia, during semi-final match in the U.S. Open Tennis Championships at Forest Hills, N.Y., on Sunday. Roche defeated Newcombe 3-6, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3, 8-6 and will meet Rod Laver of Australia for the Men's Singles Championship today.

Rod Laver Goes After Net Slam

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP) — Australia's Rod Laver went after his 30th straight match victory and the last leg of a pro grand slam in the U.S. Open Tennis Championships and it's only natural fans have begun asking:

Is this little Queenslander with the lightning reflexes and steel-trap left wrist the greatest tennis player who ever lived? "A lot of people say so—players who saw Bill Tilden, Don Budge and Jack Kramer," said Pancho Gonzales, a onetime undisputed king of the sport now entering a new business venture as a director of a proposed net of indoor court facilities.

"Before making a judgment I'd like to see him against a man like Lew Hoad or Don Budge." Laver won't face either of these court giants of another era. Instead he was set to meet a fellow Australian seven years his junior and a fellow left-hander, Tony Roche, on the center court of the West Side Tennis Club at 12 noon, EDT, with the $16,000 first prize at stake. Laver qualified for the title round by quickly winning two remaining games from Arthur Ashe Jr., the defending champion in the match that had been called Friday because of darkness. The final score was 8-6, 6-3, 14-12. Roche outlasted a fellow Australian, second-seeded John Newcombe, in a three-hour

Sorry About That--Not Enough To Pay Winners

WALLED LAKE, Mich. (AP) — Larry Ziegler should be $20,000 richer today—but he's not.

The 30-year-old Missourian won the $100,000 Michigan Golf Classic on the second hole of a sudden-death playoff Sunday with Texas Homero Blancas after both had finished regulation play with 272 scores. But the $20,000 first prize won by Ziegler apparently wasn't won at all—only promised. The same was true for the $11,400 posted as prize money for Blancas.

Moments after the new Professional Golfers' Association event was over, an official announced that tournament sponsors apparently didn't have the prize money to pay off the field of 73 pros.

"This is the first time in history I ever remember that happening," said George Walsh, the PGA's supervisor at the tournament.

The holdback in prize money was described as incredible by Joseph Dey Jr., commissioner of the Tournament Players Division of the PGA.

The prize money holdback came to light when Walsh assembled newsmen and told them: "About 3:30 this afternoon, I was handed this note. He pointed to a hastily penned message on a scratch pad which read:

"Receipts at this time are insufficient to write a check for the prize fund. Payment must be deferred until all our receivables are in." It was signed Michigan Golf Classic Inc.

Three Detroit-area businessmen, Marshall Chambers, Brennan and Phil Lachman were the primary sponsors of the event.

Rufneks Win Over Titans

ODESSA — The West Texas Rufneks won their first game in three starts by defeating the Texarkana Titans, 24-13, here Saturday night.

The win evened the Rufneks' Continental league record at 1-1. Bubba Beal, a newly acquired quarterback, led the West Texans to victory.

Tony Butler, former Coahoma and Texas Tech star, made his debut in the Rufneks' backfield and played impressively.

Texarkana trailed, 11-0, at one stage but came back to lead, 13-11.

The Rufneks play the San Antonio Toros in Midland next Saturday night.

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP) — Carol Mann won the Women's Canadian Open golf tournament and $4,012 Sunday with a seven-under-par 212.

Killer Killebrew Decimates A's

By The Associated Press — Harmon Killebrew may not be a million laughs, but he's sure killing the Oakland Athletics.

The unassuming and soft-spoken "Killer" exploded two homers, one a grand slam, out of the Oakland Coliseum and drove in seven runs Sunday to lead front-running Minnesota to a 16-4 rout of the A's.

The performance virtually buried Oakland's chances in the American League's West Division race. The Athletics now trail the Twins by 8 1/2 games with about three weeks to go in the regular season.

Killebrew, who boosted his American League-leading RBI total to 128, a personal season high, hammered a three-run homer in the first inning and drilled his grand slam in the second. He had to leave the game, however, after bruising his knee in the fourth inning.

In the other American League games, Baltimore toppled Detroit, 6-5, on Mark Belanger's 14th-inning single. Del Unser's, two-out homer in the 10th gave Washington a 3-2 victory over Boston. The Cleveland Indians snapped a tie with a run in the seventh and scored three more times in the eighth to beat New York 7-3. Billy Wayne pitched Chicago to a 4-1 victory over California and Seattle rallied for

Moody Wins On Hot Final Round

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Orville Moody never had it so good as an Army sergeant playing amateur golf.

The second-year pro from Killeen, Tex., came on strong Sunday with a three-under par 67 for a two-stroke victory in the World Series of Golf.

His 36-hole score of 141 earned him $50,000 and pushed him near the $130,000 mark for the year in unofficial winning.

The 35-year-old Moody didn't come close to that figure in 14 years with the Army.

"From the fourth hole on, I felt I would take it. I was hitting everything good," the modest Texan said.

But he praised runner-up George Archer "who played the best, but he couldn't hole any putts."

Archer, the towering Californian who won the Masters, finished with a 69 for 143 while first-round leader Ray Floyd was slipping to a 73 for a tie with Tony Jacklin of London, England, at 143.

LIKE OLD TIMES Charley Johnson Passes Cardinals Past 49ers

By The Associated Press — Charley Johnson, who for the last two seasons needed a week-end pass to throw a forward pass, is throwing them fulltime now—and throwing them well.

Johnson, his Army obligations behind him, threw for two touchdowns and ran for another in pacing the St. Louis Cardinals to a 21-10 exhibition football victory over the San Francisco 49ers Sunday.

The 49ers took a 3-0 lead in the first quarter, but their passing attack was marred as quarterback Steve Spurrier ran into five interceptions. Spurrier went all the way while regular starter John Brodie nursed a sore back.

The victory increased the Cardinals' record to 3-2 and extended the 49ers' losing streak to five straight games.

The 49ers face the Los Angeles Rams, buoyant over their 50-20 victory over Buffalo, in a grudge game next weekend.

"We put it all together for the first time," Rams' Coach George Allen said after the Buffalo debacle Saturday. "We're ready to roll. This kind of win was good for the team's morale."

Moody Wins On Hot Final Round

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Orville Moody never had it so good as an Army sergeant playing amateur golf.

The second-year pro from Killeen, Tex., came on strong Sunday with a three-under par 67 for a two-stroke victory in the World Series of Golf.

His 36-hole score of 141 earned him $50,000 and pushed him near the $130,000 mark for the year in unofficial winning.

The 35-year-old Moody didn't come close to that figure in 14 years with the Army.

"From the fourth hole on, I felt I would take it. I was hitting everything good," the modest Texan said.

But he praised runner-up George Archer "who played the best, but he couldn't hole any putts."

Archer, the towering Californian who won the Masters, finished with a 69 for 143 while first-round leader Ray Floyd was slipping to a 73 for a tie with Tony Jacklin of London, England, at 143.

Foresyth, Fields Capture Tourney

Jerry Foresyth and Walter Fields fired a sharp 66 over the Muny course Sunday to take first place in the low-ball tournament which attracted 39 teams or 78 players.

The win was worth $25 each to Foresyth and Fields.

One stroke off the pace were Marvin Williams and Avery Faulkner, with 67, good enough for $20 each.

Jimmy Welch and Roy Cederberg came in with a 68 for $15, and Jack White and Martin Staggs fired a 69 for $10 each.

Handicaps were based on two divisions of 10 and under and 11 and over.

Top Netters To Be At Midland

MIDLAND — Six of the world's top tennis pros will compete in Midland Racquet Club's sixth annual tournament here Oct. 3-5.

Weekend Violence Claims 35 Texans

At least 35 persons died violently in Texas the past weekend, a tabulation by The Associated Press shows.

Of the total, 19 died in motor vehicle accidents, six were killed in shootings, three in plane crashes and the others died in miscellaneous violence.

James O'Connell, 25, of Houston, was found shot to death Sunday on a Houston street.

Found shot to death in a pickup truck outside his Houston apartment Sunday was Robert Dalton, 39.

Paul Canales, 30, and his daughter Soila, 7, both drowned Sunday in the Guadalupe River near Victoria.

Mrs. Edith Bagle, 69, was found strangled to death Sunday in her home at Skellytown in the Texas Panhandle. Officers said the woman's face had been beaten and that a cord from an electric blanket was wrapped around her throat.

Laura Lynn Keller, 12, of San Antonio drowned Sunday in Medina Lake, northeast of Hondo in Southwest Texas. The girl was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Keller of San Antonio.

Salvatore Perez, 26, of Reynosa, Mexico, was killed Saturday night when he was thrown from an auto involved in a one-car accident. The driver, Chapa Fernandez of Reynosa, was in fair condition Sunday in a Del Rio hospital. Police said the car skidded off S. 277 about 14 miles south of Del Rio.

The Texas Department of Public Safety reported four persons killed when an automobile traveling the wrong lane of Interstate 20 collided with a truck early Sunday. Dying in the flaming wreckage were Douglas A. Ussery, 59, of Odessa, the auto driver; James M. York, 36, of Little Rock, Ark.; York's wife, Edna Verlene York, 36; and a second passenger in the truck, Carl Nakula, 30, of North Little Rock, Ark. The DPS placed the site of the crash at two miles east of Pecos.

Two persons died in the crash of a small plane early Sunday at Oak Grove Airport. A witness said the plane made a high pass, turned around and was attempting to come back when it crashed and exploded on impact. Oak Grove airport is about eight miles south of Fort Worth. The men killed were identified as Sam Carter and Dr. W. H. Brenham, both of Fort Worth. The men were flying from Memphis, Tenn., to Fort Worth.

Israel Sharp Jr., 70, and Charles R. Williams, 60, both of Houston, were killed Sunday when their cars collided at a second passenger in the truck, Carl Nakula, 30, of North Little Rock, Ark. The DPS U.S. 290.

Alioto Files Big Suit Against 'Look'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Mayor Joseph Alioto, who has filed a $12.5 million libel suit against Look magazine for linking him with criminals, says his net worth is "something in excess of $6 million" and that all of it stemmed from the practice of law.

In an interview published Sunday, he declared that he had received fees as high as $1 million a case. This income he said had permitted him to acquire holdings in ranches, country clubs, warehouses, theaters and rental units.

Alioto also released a 69-page statement Sunday amplifying denials he made Friday of an article in Look's Sept. 23 issue, which is not yet on newstands.

Alioto said the article makes "the ridiculous claim that I am supposedly enmeshed in a web of alliance with at least six leaders of La Cosa Nostra."

"As a matter of record," Alioto said, "in the past five years, I've had three $1 million fees in the law business representing utility districts, states, cities and things like that."

Antitrust litigation provided 90 per cent of his income and the other 10 per cent came from cases involving tax matters, he said.

Alioto said his clients included Samuel Goldwyn, Walt Disney, Walter Wanger and other independent film producers.

He listed among his antitrust cases: "A million dollar judgment against Lucky Lager Brewing Co. of San Francisco" and a $3.5 million judgment against Union Carbide Corp.

Alioto said he now has $975,000 in notes receivable from sale of properties in Grass Valley, Calif., and in Oregon.

The mayor said he went over a copy of the Look article "line-by-line, and I have identified several hundred errors."

Soviet Chief Confers With N. Viet Leaders

TOKYO (AP) — Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and North Vietnamese leaders conferred in Hanoi Sunday on the Vietnam war after the Soviet leader placed a wreath at the pier of Ho Chi Minh.

Noticeably absent from the talks were Communist China's top leaders, who are competing with the men in the Kremlin for influence with Hanoi. Premier Chou En-lai and a Chinese delegation paid their respects to Ho Thursday then went home before Kosygin arrived.

Details of Kosygin's talks with Ho's political heirs were not disclosed, but the Russian presumably learned of future Hanoi policy toward the Vietnam war and the Paris peace talks. Tass said they discussed "steps to further develop fraternal friendship and close cooperation" between the North Vietnamese and Soviet governments and Communist parties.

The Kremlin has provided an estimated $1 billion a year in aid to Hanoi and has favored the Paris peace talks. Red China has disapproved of the talks.

The mourning crowd continued to grow today, and delegations from 11 more countries arrived in Hanoi Sunday, Hanoi's Vietnam News Agency reported.

Queues continued to form at newsstands for papers and portraits of Ho, who died Wednesday. Florists sold wreaths as fast as they could make them, VNA said.

The dead president is to be given a state funeral Wednesday.

Prince Norodom Sihanouk, the Cambodian chief of state, was among those flying to Hanoi today for the funeral.

Militant Going Back To Egypt

LONDON (AP) — American Black Power militant Robert F. Williams is going back to Egypt today because the airlines are afraid of a hijacking if they fly him to the United States.

"We would be foolish to take any chances," said one airline representative.

Egypt's United Arab Airlines flew Williams to London from Tanzania Friday, and the British government ordered the line to take him back to Cairo.

The British refused to let Williams stay in Britain, saying he was an undesirable alien.

He was held in Pentonville Prison during his stay in the country.

All airlines flying the Atlantic to the United States refused to take Williams unless he was under guard. The U.S. Embassy offered to provide an escort, but the airlines still refused.

Williams is the self-styled president of the black separatist "Republic of New Africa" which he and other militants proclaimed in five of the southern United States.

Williams fled from the United States eight years ago after being charged in North Carolina with kidnaping a white couple during a racial disturbance. The couple was held overnight and released unharmed. Williams contends he is innocent.

He has spent the years since in Cuba, Red China, North Vietnam and Tanzania.

Nixon Plans 2-Day Trip Back To D. C.

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon ends a month's vacation at the Western White House today and takes a roundabout, two-stop aerial route back to Washington.

On the way, Nixon scheduled a meeting with President Gustavo Diaz Ordaz of Mexico on the border to dedicate a two-nation dam.

Then Nixon wings on eastward for a look at Hurricane Camille's path of destruction across Louisiana and Mississippi.

Back in a capital saddened by the death Sunday of Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen there will be an immediate gap in the President's schedule. The regular Tuesday morning meeting with the Republican congressional leaders was canceled.

Nixon called Dirksen a "great American—a legislator of matchless skills, and my warm personal friend."

In his office at the Western White House compound Nixon huddled Sunday with his chief adviser on national security, Henry A. Kissinger. They were looking at all aspects of the three-day cease-fire North Vietnam ordered in commemoration of its dead president, Ho Chi Minh—a cease-fire South Vietnam rejected.

Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler declined to say what the ultimate American reaction might be. He said Gen. Creighton W. Abrams, the U.S. commander in Vietnam, was assessing the situation and would make recommendations to Nixon in the light of activities since the enemy announced a cease-fire starting today.

A landing was planned at Gulfport on the Mississippi Coast for a conference aboard the plane with Gov. John Bell Williams, Sens. James O. Eastland and John C. Stennis, and Rep. William M. Colmer, all of Mississippi.

Answer Expected On Arms Control

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials expect some sort of answer from the Soviet Union during the opening days of the UN General Assembly on starting the long-awaited American-Russian nuclear arms control talks.

Secretary of State William P. Rogers plans to fly to New York Sept. 15, the eve of the assembly opening, for meetings with other foreign ministers, including Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko.

Aides anticipate Rogers will have his first talk with Gromyko by Sept. 20—and they expect a "yes," "no" or "give us more time" response then on President Nixon's bid to begin the strategic arms parity.

The Kremlin's failure to reply so far to Nixon's notice of U.S. readiness to start the talks as of last July 31—given to Soviet Anatoly F. Dobrynin on June 11—has surprised and puzzled administration officials.
