Week Of Gay Celebration Opens Monday At Lamesa

LAMESA — The 1969 Dawson County Fair, Community Carnival and Fiesta Lamesa will be held here Monday through Saturday.

Events of the week-long activities get underway Monday with the start of Fiesta Lamesa and the coronation of the Mexican and American queens at a dance at 8 p.m. at the National Guard Armory.

Chamber of Commerce officials said the fiesta is being held in honor of Texas' 150th anniversary of its independence from Mexico.

To be crowned as Mexican queen will be Pauline Varrientes, while Erlinda Ramirez will be crowned United States queen. Also honored at the dance will be the queens' runner-ups, Maria Garza, Mexican princess and Imelda Perez, American princess.

Appearing at the dance will be Carlos Gusman, a Spanish movie star, who has recently completed a movie entitled "El Poncho," which is soon to be released. He will sing at the dance. Also included in the fiesta celebration Tuesday will be a downtown parade at 5:30 p.m. followed by a Mexican-style supper which will be served at Forrest Park.

Rehab Center Has Two New Staffers

Two new personnel, a physical therapist and an audiologist, have begun working at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center. Mrs. Robert A. (Doreen) Conlee has just finished two years of physical therapy training at the Mayo School in Rochester, N.Y. She also will be associated with Malone and Hogan Clinic.

"At the clinic," Mrs. Conlee said, "I will be doing such things as teaching people how to walk, after surgery, giving them heat treatments, massages and different exercises. At the center I will be working mainly with school children who need treatment."

She became interested in therapy because she had a cousin who was stricken with polio and needed treatment. "I saw what it did for him and started investigating," said Mrs. Conlee.

Mrs. Conlee was born in Mason City, Iowa, and graduated from the University of Iowa in Iowa City with a BS in general science. She and her husband, a lieutenant at Webb AFB (student), are living at the Ponderosa Apartments. Her husband came to Big Spring in May, but she joined him only two weeks ago and she thinks "the people are so nice and friendly."

Mrs. Paul (Ann) Campbell, a native to the area, will do work at the center in audiology and in speech pathology. It is the first time the center has had an audiologist.

"Right now, we are waiting for our sound-proof room to come in, until it does, our hearing evaluations will not be refined. As for speech pathology, we are still in the process of working out what services we are qualified to perform and then what equipment we have to do them with."

Mrs. Campbell did undergraduate work in speech pathology, graduated with a master of science in audiology, a new degree at Texas Tech. "The facilities are beautiful, the equipment marvelous. Though we still need some things, what we have is excellent," she said. "I'm happy to be here."

Mrs. Campbell and her husband live at 1704 Main; they have two daughters, Cakie, 12 and Julie, 11. Her mother, Mrs. Y. C. (Helen) Gray, lives at 601 Scott.

Council To Decide On Late Closing

WICHITA FALLS (AP) — A City Council meeting is set for Tuesday to determine whether taverns should be allowed to stay open past midnight.

Under the new Liquor Control Board rules, taverns in a county with less than 300,000 population must gain approval from county commissioners or city councilmen to operate until 2 a.m.

Wichita Falls City Manager Gerald Fox has requested a report from police indicating how much additional law enforcement would be necessary with later closing hours.

Venue Change Hearing Due

A hearing on a change of venue motion by Bobby Eugene Chrisko is scheduled for 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in 118th District Court before Judge Ralph Caton.

Chrisko and Bobbie Randall Crain are under indictment for murder with malice aforethought in the shooting death of A. D. Blount, a local pet-shop owner, Dec. 9. Rae Bourbon is under indictment as accomplice to the murder.

Trial for the three men are scheduled to begin Sept. 22. Crain and Bourbon have not filed change of venue motions and a special venire of 350 possible jurors was drawn Tuesday.

District clerk Fern Cox said notices will be mailed Monday to the possible jurors. Chrisko filed a motion last week, charging publicity in local news media and a national magazine made a fair trial impossible in Big Spring.

New Service Offers Talking Books For Aged Citizens

Through the efforts of the Howard County Committee on Aging and the Texas State Library, a new service is being offered to those over 65 and who have severe physical disabilities.

Due to the recent expansion of the library program of Public Law 90-322, the "Talking Books on Records" is available to those who are unable to read conventional print material because of physical limitations.

The Talking Book is a simplified record player with 16 RPM records furnished free from the state library. Complete books of modern and historical novels, classics, science, history, religion, biographies, Bible for Catholics and Protestants, and many other subjects are ready to be used by those who qualify for them. Most popular magazines and periodicals such as Look, Newsweek, Sports Illustrated, True, Reader's Digest, Ebony, Changing Times, Guidepost, and John Milton Sunday school lessons can be ordered without cost to senior citizens who can not read conventional print.

To qualify for this library service, an individual should first secure a brief statement from a doctor, optometrist, professional librarian, professional staff member of a hospital, or a minister, describing the nature of disability. In case of total blindness, a statement signed by a responsible citizen of the community is accepted. Bring or mail this statement to the Howard County Extension Office and a member of the Howard County Committee on Aging will make a home visit and help set up the talking machine in the home. Those under 65 with disabilities that prevent normal reading ability may also apply.

Although the lending period for reading material is usually four weeks, the record player can be left in the home as long as it is needed. Each reader has a quota of six books. More books will be loaned when a user returns the ones he or she periodicals which are sent on a rotation basis. A catalog will be furnished each person using the talking machine. Books may be chosen from this list: "Talking Book Topics," a bi-monthly publication which lists titles. This quota does not include newly recorded books, will be mailed directly to the reader. It is anticipated by the committee that many hours of reading pleasure will be added to the senior citizens of Howard County through the Talking Book Machine Service. The Talking Machine will be displayed at the county home agents office, and a demonstration or additional information will be given by calling 267-8469 or 267-5825.

College Baptist Awards Contract

College Baptist Church has awarded a contract to J. W. Little Construction Company of Big Spring for a major addition to the church plant. Little's bid, with three alternates, was the lowest of eight received on the project which includes an extension of the educational facilities. His proposal was for $80,320, only slightly less than that of Gobbert Construction Company of Abilene with a proposal of $80,438. Gobbert's base bid was $53 lower, but Little's bid on bestos-tile flooring with some carpeting to be added. There will be a modern mural over the entrance. On the lower floor, there will be accommodations for four Sunday School departments, kitchen, and a half gymnasium. The portion of the upper floor not required for the gym will have a lounge and game room. Location will be immediately to the east of the old sanctuary. College Baptist recently acquired three lots east of its property. Dr. Byron Orand is the pastor.

Hot Check Crackdown

Persons charged with writing worthless checks will no longer be allowed to make restitution and have charges dismissed, County Attorney Bill Eysen said this morning.

"Worthless checks are becoming a monumental problem in Howard County," Eysen said, "and we are going to crack down on offenders." In the past persons charged with writing worthless checks could have charges dismissed upon paying restitution. "This method has been unsuccessful," Eysen said. Maximum penalty for writing worthless checks under $5 is a $200 fine; and the maximum penalty for writing worthless checks more than $5 and less than $50 is a $1,000 fine and a two-year jail sentence.

Attend Sales Meet

Barney Toland, president and Bob Driskill, sales manager, of Barney Toland Volkswagens have been attending a meeting in Houston covering the 1970 Volkswagen models. Joining them for the meeting will be sales executives from 77 other Volkswagen dealerships within a five state area and sales executives from Volkswagen.

Tax Case Hearing Comes Up Monday

Rural taxpayers will have their first round in court with the Big Spring Independent School District Monday at 2 p.m. when 118th District Court Judge Ralph Caton conducts a hearing on a motion for summary judgment by the school district. The board of directors of the Howard County Rural Taxpayers Association filed suit against the school trustees, the school board of equalization and School Tax Assessor-Collector J. O. Hagood as first step in an attempt to get the school to lower rural valuations for 1969-70. The directors, Earl Hull, Ralph Proctor, Delbert Stanley, Jerry Iden and Johnnie Walker, first filed a petition for declaratory judgment, asking Caton to affirm the agreement between attorneys for the two groups as a legal contract. Then the school answered with a motion for summary judgment for the district. The agreement lowers the school tax on rural property suggested by the equalization board from $5 to $10, depending on the classification of land. In answer to the petition the defendants contend the board of equalization is separate from the trustees and is not bound by any agreement made by trustees.

Texas Newspapers Show Circulation, Size Gains

Texas newspapers are making news as well as reporting it these days. Daily newspaper circulation in the state soared to an all-time high of 3,202,850 last year, up 14.4 per cent from the 2,799,720 circulation of 10 years ago, according to a study of Southern newspaper consumption trends, announced today. During the 10-year span, newspaper consumption by Texas newspapers rose from 248,582 tons in 1958 to 406,980 tons last year, said Richard J. Appert, vice president of Kimberly-Clark Corporation, whose Alabama newsprint plant is the largest in the U.S. The growth in newsprint use reflects not only circulation increases but also the fact that many newspapers have been enlarging daily and Sunday editions to give readers more news and advertising, Appert said. "These trends are most impressive in the light of competition from other media," Appert said. "It indicates that an increasing number of people regard newspapers as their basic source of news." Appert said that as a result of general newspaper health in the South, newsprint producers have been expanding their facilities to meet growing demands. Total Southern newsprint production capacity rose from 910,000 tons to 1,785,000 tons in the last 10 years. Annual capacity at Kimberly-Clark's Coosa River (Ala.) has grown from 100,000 to 440,000 tons, and the plant now supplies more than 200 newspapers from Texas to Maryland.

New Trial Denied

Judge Ralph Caton, 118th District Court, Friday denied Ismael Valdez, 26, a new trial. Valdez was sentenced to life in prison Dec. 5, 1968 for aggravated assault with intent to murder.

GIFT TO THE ALL-FAITH CHAPEL—Miss Helen Ewing, formerly a patient at Big Spring State Hospital, presents a $1,000 gift to the hospital's All-Faith Chapel, saying "I know what a religious atmosphere can do to help those who are ill." Center is Dr. Preston Harrison, hospital superintendent, and at right is Staff Chaplain Lee Butler.

Remembers Hospital, Her Faith With Generous Gift

Miss Helen Ewing, an attractive woman of 48 with a gentle, soft-spoken manner, has made a $1,000 contribution to the fund for an All-Faith Chapel at Big Spring State Hospital. It was a gesture of love and appreciation for good she received from the institution. "I feel there's a need for a chapel on the hospital campus," she said, "because I know my religious faith helped me to get well here." Miss Ewing, originally from El Paso, was a patient from 1960-63. Long since fully recovered, she has made her home in Big Spring since her discharge. She is active in several organizations, which reflect her concern for others. She is a member of the Wesley United Methodist Church, Association of University Women, Eastern Star, and the Big Spring Music Study Club. "I love to play the flute," she smiled, "and I'm so glad to have Mrs. Aubrey Hyden practice with me often." Miss Ewing also does volunteer work at the Veterans Hospital and has recently been helping on the wards feeding some of the more handicapped veterans. "I particularly enjoy helping the chaplain," she said. "He's doing a wonderful job with his 'Talking Book,' putting the Bible on tape for patients who can't read." After her recovery, Miss Ewing decided to stay in Big Spring because of "nice stores, good eating places, and wonderful churches."

Old Fruit Needs To Be Discarded

Dropped or discarded peaches and plums should either be picked up or plowed under to a depth sufficient to prevent their being returned to the soil surface in the spring, since disease organisms can carry over in this fruit, according to Paul Gross, county agent. Brown rot causes a disease of peaches and plums which is characterized by a rapid decay of fruit at harvest time. Decayed fruit left on the tree or underneath it can serve as a source of the disease — causing spores next spring. Plans also should be made for the use of protective sprays of fungicides such as sulfur, captan or Botran next spring. These sprays will protect the man of the fund campaign, Jack V. Smith of Big Spring, is treasurer.

as another determining factor and said it was Mrs. D. G. Henry who started taking her to Wesley United Methodist Church and Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Hudson who sponsored her. The All-Faith Chapel fund is now past the $71,000 mark on its way to a goal of $200,000. State tax money cannot be used for such a facility, hence the private appeal in this area for a place of worship and ministerial counseling for the patients. Gifts, tax-deductible, are invited, and checks made to Big Spring State Hospital All-Faith Chapel Fund, should be mailed to Box 321, Big Spring, Frank Hayford of Midland heads up the sponsoring non-fungicides such as sulfur, captan or Botran next spring. These sprays will protect the man of the fund campaign, Jack V. Smith of Big Spring, is treasurer.

Maxwell, Partner Are Tied For Lead

ODESSA, Tex. (AP) — Three touring pros and a newcomer to the money ranks carried their amateur partners into a four-way tie Saturday in the third round of the $35,000 Odessa Pro-Am.

Veteran Billy Maxwell, a former Odessaan, and his amateur partner Richard Ellis, both missed relatively short putts at the final hole and failed to take the lead outright.

Maxwell and Ellis, senior at Texas A&M, shot a six under par 66 for a 54-hole total of 196 over the 6,600-yard par 72 Odessa Country Club course. This was 20 strokes under par.

AFL Offering Namath-O.J. Duel On TV

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — Joe Namath vs. O.J. Simpson. That's the magic ingredient that will be offered to a sellout crowd of 45,000 and a national television audience when the New York Jets and the Buffalo Bills, the best and worst in pro football last year, meet Sunday in an American Football League opener.

And it's a virtual certainty that the game, which will be televised by NBC starting at 12:30 p.m. CDT, will focus not on the teams but the individuals—Namath, the Jet quarterback who was the original big bonus baby, and Simpson, the modern version of the instant millionaire.

Houston Guest Of Oakland

By The Associated Press

The American Football League begins its 10th and final season Sunday with a new playoff formula, new coaches at Buffalo, Oakland and Boston and a gladiator match-up that spotlights Joe Namath and O.J. Simpson.

Houston Guest Of Oakland

The Oilers, runners-up to the Jets in the East last season, have a tough defense led by linebacker George Webster and cornerback Miller Farr but will be looking to quarterback Pete Beathard for more consistency.

Orioles Are Insured Big Payday With Win

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles clinched a pennant Saturday, but reacted to their accomplishment with uncharacteristic calm.

"It's nice to have the race over with," said third baseman Brooks Robinson prior to Saturday night's game. "But we really haven't won anything yet."

The Orioles won the American League's Eastern Division crown Saturday afternoon when the runner-up Detroit Tigers lost 11-6 to Washington and were mathematically eliminated.

Earl Weaver, in his first full season as a major league manager, emphasized the importance of winning the division but, he too, fell into the "half-pennant" feeling.

"Congratulations," he wrote on the clubhouse blackboard. "One-half way home. Champagne tonight."

Toros Deflate Brahma Club

The ninth grade Toros made an auspicious football start here Saturday night, trouncing the Brahma's, 26-0.

Barry Truett put the Toros out front with an 80-yard scoring jaunt on the opening kick-off, after which Bill Richey's team added the two extra points.

The opening day schedule for the AFL, which begins the 13-team American Conference in 1970, shows the defending Super Bowl champion New York Jets at Buffalo, Houston at Western champion Oakland, Kansas City at San Diego, Miami at Cincinnati and Boston at Denver.

The five-game program also initiates a unique season in which a new playoff formula will be tested, the first-place finisher in the East meeting the runner-up in the West and vice versa for the right to move on to the championship game and ultimately the Super Bowl.

The Oilers, runners-up to the Jets in the East last season, have a tough defense led by linebacker George Webster and cornerback Miller Farr but will be looking to quarterback Pete Beathard for more consistency.

The two city arch-rivals will meet again in the final game of the season for a challenging rematch.

Touchdowns by Earl Reynolds, Glen Carlton and Doug Smith paced the Goliad offensive attack. Reynolds, taking an option handoff from quarterback Tom Sorley, ramed five yards for the first tally in the opening quarter. Reynolds and Carlton set up the Goliad score with 15 yards runs.

Angelo Beaten By Austin, 36-7

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP) — Stephen F. Austin scored 30 points in the first 14-10 of play Saturday and went on to defeat Angelo State 36-7 in the opening football game for both teams.

KC Tips Twins By 1-0 Tally

MINNEAPOLIS — St. Paul (AP) — Mike Fiore lashed a one-out triple in the ninth inning and Ed Kirkpatrick singled him home with the only run of the game as the Kansas City Royals nipped the Minnesota Twins 1-0 Saturday.

Coupled with Oakland's triumph over Chicago, the defeat sliced Minnesota's lead in the American League West to 7½ games over the A's.

Sizzling NY Mets Upend Corsairs

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Ron Swoboda walloped his first major league grand slam homer and Tom Seaver became the second pitcher in the major leagues to win 22 games as the sizzling New York Mets defeated the Pittsburgh Pirates 5-2 Saturday for their 10th victory in a row.

Austin College Nips Northwood

CEDAR HILL, Tex. (AP) — Austin College edged to a 9-7 football victory over Northwood Institute Saturday on a 12-yard field goal by Bob Van Schoick late in the fourth quarter.

Austin quarterback Wes Eben threw a 32-yard scoring pass to Butch Gladen. Northwood quarterback John Seiler hit Nat Johnson on a 61-yard scoring play in the fourth quarter for a temporary lead.

Fullback Lonnie Gilliam followed with a two-point conversion to give Goliad an 8-0 lead.

STEERS' KYLE ROSE TRIES TO LEG IT AROUND END This one resulted in one of Big Spring's longer gains

Long Punt Return Is Difference In Game

Unable to establish a running game and frustrated through the air because their receivers kept bobbling passes, the Big Spring Steers blew the duke to Lubbock, 6-0, before an estimated 5,800 fans here Friday night.

Neither team proved any great shakes at moving the ball. Monterey's lone touchdown came on a 64-yard punt return by Troy Price with 3:27 to go in the first period.

Big Spring could net only 47 yards rushing the ball, as the Plainsmen adjusted easily and quickly to the problem of defending the Steers' option play. Lubbock's marauding line-backers were invariably in the general vicinity of the ball carrier before the pitch was made. Total offensive yardage of the two teams came out exactly even — 135 paces each — mainly because quarterback Gary Hinds of Big Spring was on target with his passes more than Monterey's Marc O'Hair. Neither team gained 100 yards on the ground.

The Steers had been shut out since San Angelo turned the trick in the final game back in 1966. The locals were blanked three times that fall.

SIDELINE PASS GOES FOR NAUGHT—This Big Spring pass from Gary Hinds to Jimmy Farris would have resulted in a second quarter first down in Monterey territory but for the fact that field boundaries caught up with Jimmy and he came down out of bound. Monterey won the season's opener for both teams, 6-0.

There was nothing wrong with Big Spring's defensive effort in general and the locals were particularly effective in blunting Lubbock's aerial game.

Not until late in the game did Lubbock complete an aerial drive for a substantial gain and it proved to be their only one all night. Two others resulted in short pickups. The lone one was a 29-yarder from O'Hair to Tim West, which moved the ball out to Monterey's 45.

The thrust came in the midst of a Lubbock march, which found the Steers relaxing their vigil a bit, and did not end until Billy Sorrells tried a field goal from the Steer 18. The Plainsmen had carved out yardage to the Big Spring eight a short time before but a penalty moved them back five yards.

Johnson and Jim Hart — led the Cardinals victory. Johnson, who suffered a concussion last week, fired three touchdown passes and Hart, who had a broken finger, passed for another before a crowd of 61,227 at Soldier Field.

The teams battled on even terms until midway in the third quarter when Bear defensive back Lee Calland was called for pass interference twice against Dave Williams for a total of 67 yards to put the ball on the one-yard line.

Johnson scooted in for the breaking touchdown to give the Cards a 24-17 lead and they never trailed after that.

Gale Sayers broke loose for a 70-yard run to set up Chicago's first quarter field goal. The Bears' star, who suffered a serious knee injury last season, was used on only two plays early in the second half and sat out the rest of the game.

TAHOCA — Except for one play, Stanton High School's Buffaloes were a better team than Tahoka High's Bulldogs here Friday night.

With one key interception, Tahoka scored a touchdown, successfully completed the point after and defeated the Buffaloes 7-6 in the opening tilt for both teams.

The loss marred Gerald Loyd's debut as Stanton head coach and began the 1969 Buff gridiron season on an unsuccessful note.

Neither coach nor team was dependent on the defeat or discouraged by the prospects of the coming campaign.

Stanton, as statistics indicate, clearly outplayed Tahoka both offensively and defensively.

The exasperating defeat came on the final play of the third quarter. Tahoka senior end Mitchell Whitman intercepted a Glen Ray pass on the Buff 31-yard-line and streaked along the right sideline for the lone Bulldog touchdown.

Until that score, Stanton led 6-0 and with a fierce and aggressive defense, appeared destined to shut out the Bulldogs.

Stanton's sole touchdown came in the second quarter. Buff tackle Larry Pinkston pounced on a Martin Warren fumble at the Bulldog seven-yard-line.

Table titled 'GAME AT A GLANCE' comparing stats for Stanton and Tahoka: First Downs, Yards Rushing, Yards Passing, etc.

While the devastating end runs of senior fullback Johnny McMeans and Kitchens netted the majority of the Buff 113 yard rushing total, the pair could not power their way to the winning touchdown.

Stanton offensively as well as benefiting the Tahoka offense. Tahoka rarely entered Buffalo territory. When it did, Buff defense infractions helped the drive.

Penalties played a key factor in the Buff defeat. They hurt Stanton offensively as well as benefiting the Tahoka offense.

At the rate the Buff defense was playing — except for Whitman's interception and touchdown — Stanton's six points should have been enough to insure victory.

At the rate the Buff defense was playing — except for Whitman's interception and touchdown — Stanton's six points should have been enough to insure victory.

So tenacious was the Buff defensive team that Tahoka managed only one first down in the first half and went to the dressing room at halftime with a minus 12 yards rushing.

In the second half, even after the Bulldogs were aroused with its score, the Buff defense continued its gritty play, forcing Tahoka fumbles and throwing Bulldog backs for losses.

So punishing were the Buff defensive stalwarts — defensive tackle Pinkston and Jerry Smith, defensive ends Robbie Dickenson and Steve Fryar and linebackers Kitchens, McMeans, Lindsay Jones and Rickey Mims — that Tahoka registered only 11 yards rushing and 22 yards passing at game's end; a paltry total for a victor.

Stanton, deprived of victory in its first outing, face an even tougher opponent this Friday. The Buffs travel to Seagraves for a match with the state's number four ranked Class A eleven. Stanton, smarting from the defeat and bolstered by the return of tackle Scott Fisher and end Mark Hurrah, both of whom sat out the Tahoka game with knee injuries, should prove a formidable foe for Seagraves.

Forsan Bisons Hand New Coach Victory

WYLIE — Forsan spotted Ahilene Central Catholic a touchdown and then came roaring back to defeat the Chargers, 26-14, in the first game of the season for both teams here Friday night.

The Bisons thus handed coach Don Stevens a win in his first assignment as head coach. The Forsan team plays powerful Roscoe in Roscoe next week.

Long runs turned the tide for Forsan. Quarterback Jeff Williams went 82 yards on a wedge on the opening kickoff of the second half for one Bison

Leon Hobbs intercepted a Central pass on his own 35 on the final play of the game and raced 65 yards to pay dirt.

A bootleg pass of 20 yards from quarterback Gary Lewis to Pat Carrigan enabled Central Catholic to tally in the opening period. An interception set up the TD. The Chargers then converted on a run.

In the second, Darrow Cobb took a pass from Bobby Davis for 25 yards and a score. Jackie Willis slashed off tackle for the two points that deadlocked the score, 8-8.

With less than a minute to play in the half, Cobb raced 35 yards for Forsan's second TD after taking a throwback pass from Williams.

Williams' touchdown run in the third was the only score of that round and Forsan went into the fourth quarter leading by 20-8.

Central moved closer in the fourth after a screen pass had advanced the ball 40 yards down to the Bison five. Two plays later, Lewis plunged in from the one-foot line on a keeper.

With less than two minutes to play, Forsan fumbled in its own territory and Central recovered. The Chargers were moving the ball well until Hobbs plucked the ball out of the air and raced to pay dirt.

Offensively and defensively, Willis was a tower of strength for Forsan. At the Mike position, he came up with 13 tackles. He kept the Buffaloes in the game with his hard running — on draw plays, up the middle and off tackle. He averaged 5.7 yards per carry in ten efforts.

Defensive standouts for the Buffs included linebacker Alton Callihan, rover Darel Hagen and Hobbs, who was at safety.

Twenty of the 25 boys who made the trip for Forsan got into the game and all did well.

Colts Are TD Favorites In Contest With Pokes

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — The Baltimore Colts, who have been wreaking Super Bowl revenge on American Football League teams, are touchdown favorites to whip their only National Football League pre-season foe, the Dallas Cowboys, Sunday night in a nationally televised battle.

Baltimore is 5-0 in inter-league competition against the AFL. The Colts are still smarting from their 16-7 Super Bowl loss to the New York Jets.

Dallas is 4-1 with a 25-9 victory last week over the Jets, who did not play quarterback Joe Namath.

Sore-armed Johnny Unitas is expected to play most of the game for Baltimore as it tunes for its season opener next week.

The Cowboys are slated to go with rookie Roger Staubach, the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner from Navy, who ran for one touchdown and passed for another in last week's win over the Jets.

Dallas' No. 1 quarterback, Craig Morton, is sidelined with a dislocated finger, suffered in the second quarter of the Jet game. Cowboy officials are hopeful he will be ready for the Dallas season opener with St. Louis Sept. 21.

Also missing from the Cowboy lineup will be Bullet Bob Hayes who suffered a shoulder separation last week while warming up for the Jet game. He underwent surgery a week ago and should rejoin the team in about a month.

Second-year man Dennis Hoan of Alabama will fill in for Reeves. Another rookie starting for Dallas is running back Calvin Hill of Yale.

Coach Tom Landry of Dallas says of Baltimore, "They are the best looking team we have played this far. Better than Los Angeles when we played them."

Los Angeles is the only team to down Dallas in pre-season play—21-17.

A crowd approaching 70,000 is expected in the Cotton Bowl.

Kennel Club Sets Match

An obedience and conformation match, sanctioned by the American Kennel Club and sponsored by the Big Spring Kennel Club, will be staged in Birdwell Park today.

Entrance fee will be $1 per dog and numerous trophies will be given to owners of winning animals.

Deadline for entry is 12:30 p.m. Judging will get under way at 1:30 p.m.

A best puppy will be chosen, as will a best dog in the match.

In addition, awards will go to winners in six categories of competition: Sporting dog, non-sporting dog, hound, terrier, and toy.

In all, about 15 trophies will be presented to owners.

The show is staged primarily to give puppies the experience of competition. A similar meet here last year attracted upwards to 120 dogs.

Owners and their dogs are expected here from Lubbock, Midland, Odessa, Abilene, Andrews and other communities.

Estacado Wallops Brownfield, 50-0

BROWNFIELD — After a slow first quarter start, state-ranked Estacado turned on its offensive ignition and ran roughshod over Brownfield, 50-0, here Friday evening.

The Matadors scored in every quarter with Ken Wallace leading the attack. Wallace threw to Avance Green for the first score, scored two more touchdowns in the second quarter, and crossed the goal line again in the fourth quarter on a three-yard run.

Other Matador touchdowns were scored by Larry Miller (2), Tarter Jauthlin and Lethridge.

SWEETWATER — It was Sweetwater Mustang running vs. Colorado City Wolf passing here Friday night with the Mustang ground attack proving one point better as Sweetwater took a scant 27-26 decision.

Mustang fullback Jack Brown scored three times in the Sweetwater victory. He scored on a four-yard run in the first quarter and twice more on runs of nine and eleven yards in the third and fourth periods.

Halfback Charles Marshall tallied the only other Mustang score on a 17-yard pass from quarterback Mike Tucker.

Colorado City, who could have tied the game opted to try for two points after a fourth quarter touchdown. The attempt failed and the Wolves succumbed by a one-point margin.

Colorado City scored three times on quarterback Steve Vest to fullback Stanley Bracey passes. The tallies, two in the third quarter and one in the fourth quarter, were 77, 75 and five yard scoring plays.

The Wolves' initial touchdown came in the first quarter when David Garcia took a Vest pass 17 yards for a score.

Colorado City's passing attack meshed a whopping 410 yards. Sweetwater running totaled 238

Fifteen Are Nominated For Entry Into Shrine

Fifteen names have been projected for the election which will elevate at least four people into the Steer Hall of Fame sometime this fall.

Glenn Whittington, president of the Big Spring Ex-Lettermen's Association, has mailed out ballots to the 68 people who now make up the membership rolls of the organization.

Nominated for the athletic shrine, which was started here last year, were Virginia (Costello) Aranda, J. C. Armistead, Danny Birdwell, Peppy Blount, Wayne Bonner, Olie Cordell, Arlis Davis, Wayne Fields, Nita (Farquhar) Gibbs, Jerry Graves, Jean (Peters) Shockey, Leon Lepard, Jan Loudermilk, Dickie Milam and Anna Smith.

Armistead, Birdwell, Blount, Cordill, Davis, Fields, Graves, and Milam all played football here. Bonner and Miss Smith were coaches.

Loudermilk was Big Spring's only all-state basketball player and a man who set an all-time scoring record at the local school.

Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Aranda and Mrs. Shockey were all volleyball players.

Deadline for balloting is Monday, Sept. 22. The date for induction into the shrine, which will coincide with a home game of the 1969 Steers, will be announced at a later date, Whittington said.

Whittington, who resides at 916 Madrid Court in Hurst, Tex., is accepting the ballots.

In the first induction ceremony held for the hall of fame last year, two coaches and two athletes were honored.

They were coaches Carl Coleman and Arah Phillips and football stars Frosty Robison and Charley Johnson.

Whittington also reminded members and prospective members of the association that 1969-70 dues can now be paid. The dues are a modest $1 yearly.

When's the last time you got goose bumps when they played the Star Spangled Banner?

It's been a while, right? Well, then you're like a lot of us.

It seems that many of us are too grown-up to get excited about things like the Star-Spangled Banner any more.

You could almost say that patriotism makes us feel embarrassed.

Besides, it's hard to really feel patriotic when you hear so much about how this country is falling apart.

But, of course, America still has a Bill of Rights. And free elections. An incredibly high standard of living. And a free enterprise system that lets you hitch your wagon to any star you want.

And plenty of other things you can't find anywhere else in this world.

Know what? Looking at it that way, America deserves a lot more credit than it's been getting.

One of the best ways to give this country the support it deserves is to buy U. S. Savings Bonds.

They strengthen the country so that it's better prepared to solve its problems. And they happen to be one of the best ways to provide for your own welfare.

The interest is exempt from state and local income taxes. And you don't have to pay Federal tax until you cash your Bonds.

Buy U. S. Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Or at your bank.

It'll give you a good feeling.

And a perfect excuse for getting goose bumps the next time they play the Star-Spangled Banner.

If they're lost, stolen, or destroyed, we replace 'em.

"Siesta Time Is Over"

By JO BRIGHT

Over the city, the sleeping minds of children are ready to be awakened—and a gentle nudge is being provided by Headstart.

The program, originally sponsored by the Office of Economic Opportunity, next year will be directed through the department of HEW (Health, Education and Welfare.) Beginning locally with an eight-week trial in 1965, Headstart expanded to almost six months duration the following year. By 1967, it was operating on a full nine-month schedule.

Heading Big Spring's Headstart program at Kate Morrison School is Keith Swim, who is assisted by 10 teachers, 10 aids and one full-time nurse. Lisa Leal, 5, pictured at the school, is one of the 200 students registered this year. Headstart's long-range objective begins with the simple goal of giving every child the opportunity to be successful in obtaining an education.

Lisa and her classmates arrive at the school by bus each morning and have breakfast before going to their rooms. Lisa is in a class of 20, taught by Mrs. Paul Petterson whose aid is Mrs. Esther Hernandez. The children learn to communicate, even learn basic science, by talking about the weather before going to other activities. Songs help teach children each other's language, and books chosen for pre-schoolers further the learning processes.

At noon, luncheon is served, followed by three more hours of classes which may include field trips to farms and factories. There is a story hour, painting, pasting, music and other things upon which a child's first instruction is patterned. Rest time is followed by refreshments, and the children leave for home—and to tell their parents what they did at school.

Parents who are serving on the Headstart Policy Advisory Committee and their districts are Mrs. Gloria Arroyo, Mrs. Emma J. Coffey and Bob Green, Airport; Mrs. Grace Chavez, Mr. and Mrs. Junior Corrales, Mrs. Linda Gonzales, Mrs. Bertha Jolley, Mrs. Cuca Payne and Mrs. Betty Rivers, Bauer; Mrs. Margarita Campos, Mrs. Anita Melendez, Mrs. Roselia Ramirez and Mrs. Daisy Spencer, Cedar Crest; and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Adams, Mrs. Verma Cooper, Mrs. Mary Helen Doperto, Mrs. Estilla Ortega and Mrs. Sophia Rubio, Lakeview.

BREAKFAST BECOMES a happy time for Lisa who joins her Headstart classmates at Kate Morrison school to begin the day with a nourishing "starter" that may consist of waffles, oatmeal or cereal served with milk and fruit. The cafeteria is comfortable and colorful, a bright place to set the mood for a morning of new adventures.

PARENTS PERFORM an important service to Headstart by their participation as members of the Policy Advisory Committee initiated by Keith Swim, left, local director of the school program. Here, Swim counsels with Lisa's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Leal.

HOMEWARD BOUND on the Bauer bus that will take her back to her parents, Lisa chatters with other youngsters about the interesting things they have learned. Below, Lisa puts enthusiasm into her painting with a swift sweep of the brush that tops her red house with a tall chimney. She is learning her colors with the help of a companionable caterpillar.

Couple United In Marriage

Miss Nancy Lou Fuller became the bride of S. Sgt. Theodore A. Osmulski of Webb Air Force Base Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the immaculate Heart of Mary Catholic Church.

The Rev. Bill Meagher performed the nuptial service before an altar flanked with basket arrangements of chrysanthemums and gladioli.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Fuller, 1109 Lamar and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Osmulski, Dearborn Heights, Mich.

Mrs. B. James, organist, accompanied Don Turner, vocalist, as he sang "Because."

The bride was attired in a formal gown of candlelight satin accented with candlelight lace. The skirt was softly gathered and featured a basque waistline, long sleeves which formed petal points over the hands, and a V-neckline edged in ruffling. The hemline of the skirt was trimmed with matching ruffles. Her elbow-length veil of silk flusion was edged in lace and fell from a Dior bow, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Brenda Fuller, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a formal gown of lavender satin, overlaid with lace, and a shoulder-length veil of lavender lace. She carried a bouquet of lavender chrysanthemums and white pompons.

Gaylor Crenshaw was best man. Ushers were Airman 1.C. Bill Chandler and Airman 1.C. Ralf Henkel, both of Webb Air Force Base. The bride is a graduate of Big Spring High School, where she was a member of the band, choir, Future Homemakers of America and the newspaper staff. The bridegroom graduated from Robichaud High School, Dearborn Heights.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall. The refreshment table was laid with a white silk cloth with lace overlay, trimmed in lavender bows and wedding bells, and centered with an arrangement of lavender chrysanthemums. The three-tiered white cake was topped with a miniature bridal couple.

Miss Jodi Monroe registered guests. Others in the house party were Mrs. Mamie Dodds, Mrs. Carlos Joiner, Mrs. George Moore and Mrs. Charles Fanning.

The couple left on a wedding trip, and for traveling, the bride chose an orange A-line knit dress with cream-colored accessories.

FOCUS ON FAMILY LIVING

Club Season Means You'll Be Hostess

By CATHERINE CRAWFORD COUNTY MO AGENT

With the arrival of fall, many clubs and organizations are back in full swing. These groups provide opportunities for the homemaker to meet with friends for study, fellowship and community service activities. Everyone who belongs to one or more of these groups will probably find that sooner or later comes a time to serve as hostess.

How is it that some women seem to be able to have friends into their homes with apparent ease and enjoyment while others are rushed and frustrated? Let's consider a few basic principles that can make entertaining something to which we can look forward with enjoyment.

GOOD HOSTESS

The first obligation of a hostess, no matter who or how she is entertaining, is to appear calm, happy, delighted to see and be with her guests. One of the best ways to fulfill that obligation is by planning sensibly, then doing as much of the work in advance as possible. The wise hostess considers what can be done in advance when planning a menu; never forgets that having time to be with her guests takes precedence over the food she serves.

The hostess or hostesses might make the plans for the special occasion in this order: 1. consider the type of group and the number that can be expected; 2. determine a theme, if this is appropriate; 3. note the date and time; 4. plan what is to be served; 5. plan the table arrangement; 6. assign job responsibilities, if others are to help with the serving.

It is a good idea to remind the members of the group of the meeting by telephone. When telephoning, identify yourself to the person to whom you are speaking, and be very specific about the time, date, and place.

To some extent the weather will affect what you may plan to serve. There are many suitable beverages. Coffee or tea, hot or iced; chocolate, hot or frosted; fruit punch, plain or with a float of fruit or sherbet; cider, plain or spiced, are but a few of the suitable beverages. Accompaniments may be small and dainty, attractive and colorful. For very simple refreshments, just a beverage and cookie often are served. If you wish to be more elaborate, dainty sandwiches such as open-faced, rolled, pinwheel, ribbon, or fancy shapes are attractive. The fillings should be tasty. Do not over-decorate.

Hot breads or nut bread and tiny sandwiches are excellent. Little frosted cakes, small cookies or pieces of fruit cake often are served alone, or in addition to sandwiches. Nuts and mints may be served if desired. Avoid anything sticky or hard to eat.

PREPARE EARLY

Everything you serve, unless you are having hot breads, may be prepared ahead of time. Sandwiches, cookies, petits fours, baked quick or yeast breads may be made in advance and stored in a container with a tight-fitting lid. Fruit trays may be arranged several hours in advance, if fruits that tend to darken are dipped in lemon juice. The beverage should be prepared just before serving for best flavor.

Plate may be filled in the kitchen and served to the seated guests. Or, serve the guests from the dining table or a large table in the living room or den. It is important that the guests feel at ease as to when and how to be served. This means that the hostess plans for directing the guests herself, or if the group is large, invites friends to assist. The following points serve as a guide when planning the table arrangement.

1. The person pouring should be seated or standing to face the guests as they approach the table. Stand to pour punch; be seated to pour coffee.

2. Traffic to the table should not cross the line of traffic away from the table.

3. As guests are invited to the table they should be guided as to the direction to proceed to avoid confusion.

Set the table with your best white or pastel tablecloth or leave the table bare and arrange a centerpiece of flowers or foliage in season and candles, if it will be rather dark. If candles are used, they should be lighted. Place the beverage service at one end of the table so that guests pick up silver and napkins last is often considered a convenient arrangement.

Don't let the fact that you haven't acquired all the table appointments keep you from entertaining. Use your imagination and ingenuity a little.

'ROUND TOWN

By LUCILLE PICKLE

It appears now that our rainy season is about over for the present and we shall miss the little watery trails left by those pesky snails as they crossed and recrossed our window screens... but we won't miss them much.

Proud parents are MR. and MRS. GLENN SMITH whose son, JAMES OTIS (Jimmie) completed work this summer on his Ph.D. degree in sociology at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. Dr. and Mrs. Smith visited his parents here the past week, and then went on to Dallas to visit her parents, the M. C. KELSEYS, before continuing on to their new home and work in Chapel Hill, N.C.

Dr. Smith has accepted a position as assistant professor of sociology at the University of North Carolina. He was graduated from Big Spring High School in 1954 and received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene in 1958 and a Master of Arts degree from the University of Texas in Austin in 1960.

He was a research associate at the Texas State Health department Division of Mental Health from 1961 to 1964 and was a research project director at Timberlawn Foundation, Dallas, from 1965 through 1967.

Mrs. Smith, the former Martha Kelsey, will complete work on a Ph.D. degree in sociology from Ohio State University in the current academic year. In addition to completing her degree work, she will be conducting research at the Carolina Population Center for the University of North Carolina.

Another Big Spring High School graduate is planning to work on a Ph.D. degree at the University of Texas. She is MISS DEANNE MANSFIELD, daughter of the TOOTS MANSFIELDS. She will do her work in English, the major for her bachelor and master degree which she completed work for at the University of Texas at El Paso.

MRS. OVA MAE EDWARDS, mother of Mrs. Mansfield, who has been visiting here from Ruidoso, N.M., accompanied Deanne to Austin Friday.

The PAUL SOLDANS are new grandparents with the arrival of Rachel Diane to MR. and MRS. TED TEDESCO on Sept. 3. Mrs. Soldan left Wednesday to be with her daughter, the former Kathleen Soldan.

The JACK IRONSES waited until Friday to go to see their first grandchild who was born Sept. 5 to MR. and MRS. JACK EDD IRONS in Dallas. After they have seen young Craig Edwin they will visit their other sons, Dick and his wife in Grand Prairie and Mike in Tyler.

JOHN and VIV HURT, grandchildren of MRS. H. H. HURT who have been visiting her for the past several weeks, have returned to their home in Covina, Calif.

MRS. ELL MCCOMB and her children have gone to Austin to join Mr. McComb where he is working on a Master's degree at the University of Texas. Mrs. McComb completed her master's work in counseling this summer in Denton.

SARAH MOODY of Garden Grove, Calif., left today for Denton after visiting her grandparents, the A. W. Moodys. Sarah will continue her studies at NTSU with a major in biology.

MRS. JACK POWELL is partially a southpaw these days since she sustained a bad sprain to her right arm in a fall last Tuesday.

Whatever the new overlays bought for the Big Spring High School Band cost it's bound to be worth when such shining topping goes over the uniforms in which are some fine young musicians. This band is a great group and play with enthusiasm and skill. It's a thrill to watch them execute their formations while playing numbers that, for most, would take all the concentration one could muster... sitting in a chair.

Mrs. W. G. Greenlees, 206 E. 8th, had the pleasure of having close friends from Hale County, Ala., visit her recently. They were Mr. and Mrs. William C. Christian of Greensboro, Ala., and later Mr. and Mrs. White-law Bailey of Newbern, Ala. Mrs. Greenlees' late husband, the Rev. Greenlees, had united both couples in marriage over 30 years ago and been their pastor for 23 years, baptizing their children.

Newbern and Greensboro are only nine miles apart and they have always called their ministers jointly. Both churches were there long before the war with the states, and the slaves worshipped with the white people as the records of the names and membership are on the church records.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service sub-district meeting and leader's training was held at 9 a.m., Thursday at North Birdwell Lane United Methodist Church. The 38 attending included two pastors the Rev. Elra Phillips of the host church and the Rev. E. B. Thompson of Lamesa.

Cities represented were Ackerly, Andrews, Coahoma, Lamesa, Midland and Big Spring. Local churches represented in the attendance were Wesley United Methodist Church, Kentwood United Methodist Church and the First United Methodist Church.

Refreshments were served by women from the host church.

MRS. JERRY JONES

WEBB WINDSOCK

By MRS. M. D. McCLAIN

The woman in today's complex world is many different individuals in one personage. Besides being mother, wife and friend, the modern woman plays a vital role in service to the church as well.

The women of Webb Air Force Base do their share to serve the church while providing themselves with the religious enrichment which becomes ever more necessary in today's changing world.

Webb women have organized a group called Women of the Chapel (WOC) which gives them just this needed outlet. Formerly, there existed two religious women's groups, Protestant Women of the Chapel and St. Anne's Guild for Catholic women. With such similar aims for service and enrichment, the two groups recently joined forces in order to become even more effective in accomplishing those aims. Led by Mrs. Harry Hopper, president, the women have succeeded in becoming a vital positive force on the base.

One of the WOC's major service projects is collecting donations of good, usable clothing for the High Sky Girls Ranch in Midland.

In addition to planning such service projects, the WOC serves the women further as a religious study group. Reading scriptures and writings of religious scholars provides material for many interesting and educational discussions.

Each monthly meeting provides a varied program for study and service. Of special interest is the workshop-seminar which will be held at the Webb Chapel in October. Dyess AFB, Goodfellow AFB

Webb Chapel Scene Of Military Wedding

Miss Anna Marie Gonzalez became the bride of Lt. Ernesto R. Ortega Saturday afternoon in the Webb Air Force Base Chapel with the Rev. Augustine Lucca serving as officiant.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Gonzalez, 206 NW 4th, and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Ortega, San Jose, Calif.

The prelude of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Leslie Green and Mrs. Harold Talbot. Selections were "More," "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus" and "Blessed Be This Day." Vows were exchanged before an altar background adorned with baskets of emerald fern, chrysanthemums and tree candelabra.

The bride wore a formal French gown of candlelight peau de soie styled in a cage silhouette. The gown was enhanced with crystal Alencon lace with pearls and French iridescent bridal appliques which swirled deep into the bodice and were repeated on the skirt as embossed garland cascades. Her veil of illusion fell from a circlet of Alencon. She carried a prayer book, gold rosary and a cascade of Frenched carnations topped with an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, the bride left her bouquet at a side altar dedicated to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

ATTENDANTS

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Yvette Gonzalez. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Oscar Zertuche of Harlingen, sister of the bride; Mrs. Michael Keith, Odessa; Miss Sandra Hernandez and Miss Nancy Hernandez, both of San Antonio; and Miss Gloria Ludwig, El Paso.

All were identically dressed in floor-length Empire gowns of avocado green georgette. Each carried a nosegay of yellow pompons with avocado streamers. The flower girls were Ester Elaine Hahn and Marisa Hernandez, San Antonio. They were dressed like the bridesmaids and carried white baskets of rose petals.

The best man was Lt. Tom Scalletto of San Jose, Calif., and groomsmen were Lt. Kenneth Augustine, Lt. John Guerrero, Lt. Bill Walsh, Lt. Jim Licken and Lt. Walter Undeutsch. Serving as ushers were Lt. Don Gerber, Lt. Richard Trotman and the Saber Guard.

In keeping with traditional custom, a wedding chain, in the form of interlocking rosaries made of crystals, was placed over the heads of the bride and bridegroom. Mrs. Michael Keith carried a small basket containing 13 gold dimes which had been blessed. The bridegroom presented these to the bride as a symbolic gift. Each wedding guest was given a small missal with the couple's names and wedding date inscribed.

The couple will spend a three-week wedding trip to the West Coast. For traveling, the bride wore a dark blue dress, overlaid with cotton lace and styled with dirndl high rise skirt. The Victorian sleeves were cuffed in chocolate satin. Her corsage was from the bouquet. Lt. and Mrs. Ortega will be living at Westover Air Force Base in Massachusetts.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SECTION D BIG SPRING, TEXAS, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1969 SECTION D

MON., 6:30 P.M. 'Music Scene'

ABC's "The Music Scene" is a 45-minute melding of music and comedy with a third element — immediacy — which may well make it the electronic front page of the entertainment world. Spinning through the diverse and fascinating world of modern music, the series will give fresh performances of the tunes that are topping the charts in every major category such as long-playing records, easy listening, rhythm-and-blues, country-and-western, and comedy albums. The show's highlight each week will literally be a musical-journalistic-technical coup. Just hours after Billboard magazine hits the stands with news of what song is at the top in the nation, "The Music Scene" will present an original performance of it. And this performance, like other numbers in the show, will usually be done by the singer or group who has gone to the top with the hit. The swinging trip through the world of music will be conducted by members of an improvisational group being assembled to provide creative comedy sketches and transitions between musical segments.

MONDAYS ON CBS Doris Day Changes Nights

Something new and exciting has been added to the Monday-through-Friday schedule of the CBS Television Network this season, and the man around whom it all revolves is Merv Griffin, host of the first regular late-night presentation in the Network's history. Earlier Monday evening, Doris Day moves to a new address right next to Mayberry R.F.D., two hours away from Dodge City and near the incomparable redheads, Lucille Ball and Carol Burnett. "Gunsmoke" re-creates the Old West in Dodge City (6:30-7:30 p.m.) as Marshal Matt Dillon (James Arness), with the help of Doc Adams (Milburn Stone), Kitty (Amanda Blake) and Festus Haggen (Ken Curtis), encounters the adventures of a 15th television season. The first lady of television comedy, Lucille Ball, along with her real-life son and daughter, Desi Arnaz Jr. and Lucie Arnaz, meet up with wild and hilarious new misadventures (7:30-8 p.m.) including some unusual location episodes, to the exasperation of Uncle Harry (Gale Gordon) and the delight of her "Here's Lucy" audience. "Mayberry R.F.D." (8:30-9 p.m.) addresses itself to life's little and amusing crises with Ken Berry, as farmer-Town Council member Sam Jones heading the cast that again includes the familiar faces of Frances Bavier (Aunt Bee), George Lindsey (Goober), Jack Dodson (Howard Sprague), Paul Hartman (Emmett Clark, the fix-it-man), Ariene Golonka (Millie, Sam's girl friend) and Buddy Foster (Mike, Sam's young son). "The Doris Day Show" (8:30-9 p.m.) offers a brand new story line in a brand new time period (it was a Tuesday series last season) and a new setting. She plays a career gal working for a magazine and rearing two small sons (Philip Brown and Tod Starke) with an occasional assist from her father (Denver Pyle) and a bit of music. The talented title star of "The Carol Burnett Show" (9-10 p.m.) adds her own special zest to the evening with her lively comedy-variety series in which she is joined by top-flight guest stars and regulars Harvey Korman, Vicki Lawrence and Lyle Waggoner. "The Merv Griffin Show" takes up residence on the network five nights of the week. Originating in New York City, with occasional other locations, the program will feature a varied roster of guests each night in a format that includes both performances and informal conversation.

'Joey Bishop'

A not-so-quiet revolution has taken place on ABC's "The Joey Bishop Show." What began in 1967 as a late-night talk show has evolved into a 90-minute spectacular. Joey Bishop switched from host to emcee in order to guide the comedians, singers, actors, politicians and authors from discussions with his studio audience "eavesdropped on" by millions of viewers. Heading the staff behind the scenes, lining up guests for the seven-and-a-half-hours of show time each week, is producer Jerry Frank.

THE SURVIVORS—Entertainment stars (clockwise) Lana Turner, George Hamilton, Kevin McCarthy and Ralph Bellamy are regularly featured performers in the weekly television novel Harold Robbins' "The Survivors".

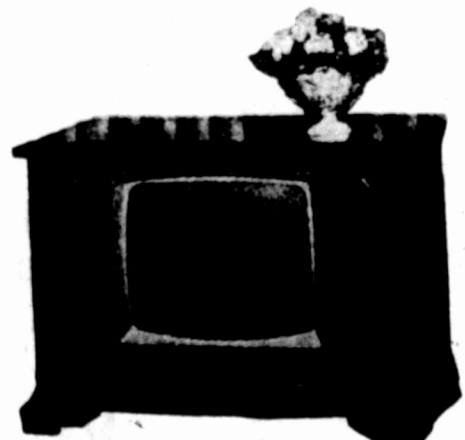

MONDAYS, 8 P.M. 'The Survivors'

Harold Robbins' "The Survivors," the new ABC series created by the famed novelist, is a story about the international jet set and the conflicts and intrigues that motivate jet setters. Heading the list of top stars is Lana Turner, whose name itself is synonymous with glamour. Miss Turner, who is identified in the mind of the public as a star in the grand tradition, plays the role of Tracy Carlyle Hastings. Handsome young George Hamilton plays Duncan Carlyle, Tracy's half-brother; there is little rapport between the two. Tracy's husband, Philip Hastings, is portrayed by Kevin McCarthy, an actor who has

MONDAYS, 9 P.M. 'Love, American Style'

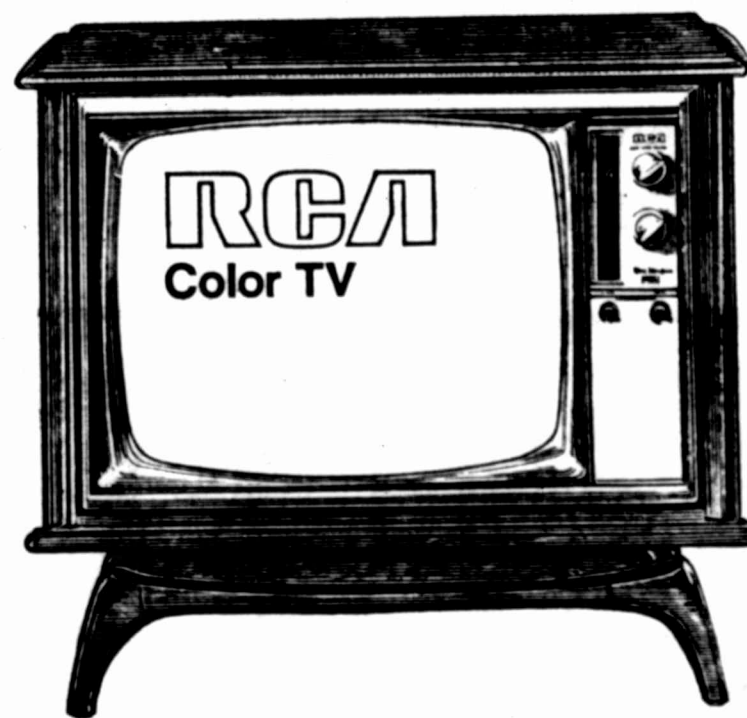

The funniest things happen to people in love — especially on ABC's "Love, American Style." The innovative format presents three of four stories of varying length, interspersed with blackout sketches, on each program. Each story will have a different cast of guest stars. The blackouts will be performed by a repertory company of talented young players. The stories, in the words of producer Bill D'Angelo, will concern "the unmarried, just married, long-married, multi-married, teenagers and pen-pals, tycoons and truck drivers, jet setters and file clerks. Stories of love wise and foolish, tender and mad, warm and cool, bittersweet and farcical." Variety and freshness are attained by allowing the writers — and there is a multitude of them — freedom to write in their own style and point of view, without the restrictions of a particular tone of a series, the personality of a star, a prescribed length. Among the guest stars in the first few segments filmed are Bob Cummings, Jane Wyatt, Ann Southern, Bob Crane, Patricia Crowley, Gary Lockwood, Stefanie Powers, Flip Wilson, Phyllis Diller, Paul Giamatti, and Larry Ford. Carolyn Jones, Larry Storch, Red Buttons.

TUESDAYS ON CBS 'Governor & J.J.' Added

How the worlds of politics and entertainment can merge in a half-hour series is demonstrated Tuesday night on CBS as a result of the election of "The Governor and J.J." to the 8:30-9 p.m. period.

The occupants of the governor's mansion, a chief state executive and his beautiful, outspoken daughter J.J., share Tuesday with the "Lancer," family of California's pioneer days, with one of the world's great clowns, and with presentations by CBS News.

"Lancer," the Western adventure drama series (6:30-7:30 p.m.) which returns for its second season, is the story of ranch owner Murdoch Lancer (Andrew Duggan) and his sons Johnny and Scott (James Stacy and Wayne Maunder). Elizabeth Baur plays Teresa O'Brien, ward of the senior Lancer.

Red Skelton enters his nineteenth year on television, his seventeenth on CBS. "The Red Skelton Show" (7:30-8:30 p.m.) brings to the screen the renowned comic-pantomimist's universal language of laughter. With Skelton will be special guest stars, the comedian's regular singing-dancing entourage and his own one-man cast of comedy creations, including Clem Kadiddlehopper, Freddie The Freeloader, San Fernando Red, George Appleby, Deadeye and Junior, the mean widdle kid, as well as the pantomimed character of the Silent Spot.

In "The Governor and J.J." (8:30-9 p.m.), the governor (Dan Dailey) has the charming assistance of his daughter J.J. (Julie Sommers) who does her best to be first lady when not involved with her job at a zoo. Other regulars in the new comedy series are James Callahan, Nora Marlowe, Neva Patterson and Carroll O'Connor.

Alternating in the 9 to 10 p.m. period are "60 MINUTES," the first news magazine of the air, and "The CBS News Hour," television's pioneer prime time informational series. Utilizing the facilities of the CBS News organization, both series report what goes on in the world.

TUESDAYS, 7 P.M.

Debbie Reynolds Show

Debbie Reynolds stars in her first television series when she portrays housewife Debbie Thompson on the NBC new half-hour comedy series, "The Debbie Reynolds Show."

Debbie Thompson is determined to prove her ability to become a newspaper feature writer, and her persistent energy, impulsively directed toward obtaining "scoops," inadvertently involves her in uproarious dilemmas.

Debbie's husband, Jim (Don Chastain), is a metropolitan newspaper sports writer with a reputation for humorous fast-paced columns. He wishes his lovely, unpredictable spouse would confine her vitality to the role of a lovely, predictable housewife. But he realizes that their lives would then be so much more... well... predictable.

Debbie's co-conspirator and confidant is her older sister, Charlotte Landers (Patricia Smith), whose husband, Bob (Tom Bosley), valiantly attempts to maintain calmness throughout each new predicament.

The Landers' 11-year-old son, Bruce (Bobby Riha), idolizes his columnist uncle, and publishes a neighborhood gossip newspaper that occasionally provides Debbie with an unexpected news lead.

TUES., 6:30 P.M.

'Mod Squad'

Series stars Michael Cole, Clarence Williams III, Peggy Lipton and Tige Andrews enjoyed great personal success in the freshman year of ABC's "The Mod Squad."

Pete Cochran (Cole), Linc Hayes (Williams) and Julie Barnes (Miss Lipton) were drifters at odds with the law until Police Capt. Adam Greer (Andrews) won them over and put them to work undercover exposing criminals who exploit the young.

Concerned with the problems of youth today, they become personally involved with the people they meet and sometimes hurt for the subject of their investigations. They are "cops with soul."

With greater emphasis on human drama rather than on police action in the second season, there will be individual episodes in which each of the regulars, including Capt. Greer, becomes involved in a rather serious love story.

The group will also cover a larger portion of Southern California, and will travel on new wheels. Last season's "woody" station wagon has been replaced by snappier transportation — a red convertible with a Rallye stripe.

'Laugh-In'

"Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In," the rapid-fire comedy series, returns for its second "sock-it-to-me" season on NBC Mondays at 7 p.m.

Comedians Dan Rowan and Dick Martin again lead the zany, zestful cast of "Laugh-In" comies through rapid-fire jokes, satirical sketches, split-second blackouts, parties, hilarious renditions of present and future news, slapstick and one-liner humor.

Returning "Laugh-In" regulars include Judy Carne, Arte Johnson, Gary Owens, Larry Hovis, Jo Anne Worley, Goldie Hawn, Henry Gibson, Ruth Buzzi and others. Two newcomers, Pamela Rogers and Teresa Graves, will add their comical caperings to the show.

TUESDAYS, 9 P.M.

Marcus Welby, M.D.

"Marcus Welby, M.D.," an hour-long series starring Robert Young in the title role of a general practitioner in an age of specialized medicine, premieres in September on ABC.

Also starring is James Brolin as Dr. Steven Kiley, Welby's young associate. Oscar-winner Anne Baxter has an occasionally recurring role as widowed Myra Sherwood, Dr. Welby's love interest.

Dr. Welby's office, in his Santa Monica, Calif., home, is well-equipped, and he is thoroughly conversant with medicine's advances. His methods, however, are sometimes unorthodox. He can ignore statistics and charts and proceed according to his insights and knowledge of the patient — family, environment and temperament. To Welby, a patient is not just a set of symptoms, but a human being — and often a friend. He cares.

Between Welby and Kiley there is liking and respect. There is conflict, too, in part due to the generation gap and their differing views of life styles and morality. They differ also in their attitudes toward the status of general practitioners. Kiley is inclined to put them in the same category with high button shoes. (He plans to continue his training as a specialist, and is working with Dr. Welby for a year only to earn money to help a younger brother through college.)

Freely from the restrictions of hospital-based medical series — limited doctor-patient relationships, confining physical environment — "Welby" will make full use of the Santa Monica area's rich visual resources — the beaches, mountains, the modern hospital and schools, the neighborhoods and homes of the rich, the poor, and the "average," and the picturesque adjoining city of Venice.

'Game'

"The Name of the Game," television's first full length motion picture series, premieres its second high-powered adventure season on NBC Fridays at 7:30 p.m.

Gene Barry, Robert Stack and Tony Franciosa continue to star in the weekly series of 90-minute colorcasts. The teleplays vary in plot and scope, while centering on the offices of Howard Publications, an international publishing empire with interests throughout the world.

'Brides'

In the second season of ABC's "Here Come the Brides," there will be some physical changes in the circa 1870 town — an added row of buildings, perhaps a tent city to indicate a transient society. A room will be added to the brides dormitory where Candy Pruitt will live with her young brother and sister, left in her care by the death of their parents, but she will still function as strawboss of the brides.

The Bolt brothers wager of their Bridal Veil Mountain should any bride prove unmarried has now been settled with their strong rival, Aaron Stempel, permitting a variety of women to stay at the dorm while looking for husbands among the lumberjacks.

FRIDAYS, 6:30 P.M.

'Let's Make A Deal'

"Let's Make A Deal," starring Monty Hall as host, begins its first full season on ABC in September, after moving over from NBC in January, '69.

The lively comedy and suspense-filled game show airs Mondays through Fridays, 12:30-1 p.m. and 6:30-7 p.m. on Fridays. Monty makes deals with contestants, called "traders," for prizes which may range from a trip around the world with a few thousand dollars in extra cash from Monty's cookie jar, to an oversized salami or a stuffed moose head. The traders are chosen from the studio audience before the show begins, with personality and bizarre attire as well as the objects they have brought to trade contributing to their selection as contestants.

Suspense, surprise and humor are the key elements of the show which Monty claims brings out the gambling instinct which lies dormant in most people. Each trader has the chance to barter an item just acquired for another skillfully disguised prize which could be a small, neatly-wrapped package containing a valuable diamond ring or a cheap costume bracelet, or a large, handsomely-packaged carton which may hide an expensive dishwasher or a garbage can.

Each show builds to an exciting climax in which two of the most daring traders have the opportunity to exchange their winnings for a major prize — sometimes a shiny new automobile — hidden behind one of the three doors or curtains on stage.

MICHAEL PARKS
... Then Came Bronson'

WEDNESDAYS, 9 P.M.

'... Then Came Bronson'

"... Then Came Bronson," a drama starring Michael Parks as a footloose free spirit with "a lot of living to do," will premiere Wednesday as part of NBC Week.

In each episode, Bronson will reach a new destination in his motorcycle odyssey across the land. The series will be shot entirely on location. The Wednesday colorcasts are scheduled 9-10 p.m.

The stories will deal with Bronson's involvement with the people he meets, and in one way or another he will affect their lives.

The Bronson character is reminiscent of the young adventurers of the past who set out on horseback to seek new horizons, see the land, meet new people, and find new experiences.

Yet he's also a modern man in tune with the times. He's not a dropout. He just feels there's a lot of living to be done that isn't possible in a job that ties him to one place and the same daily routine.

Bronson's mode of travel is his motorcycle which is almost a part of him. It'll take him to some of the nation's most scenic places. Under consideration are such areas as the Redwood Empire, the Rockies, the Sierra Nevadas, and the Florida Everglades.

"ROOM 222"—Lloyd Haynes (upper left) is Pete Dixon, history teacher, Denise Nicholas (upper right) is counselor Liz McIntyre, Karen Valentine (lower left) is student teacher Alice Johnson, and Michael Constantine is principal Seymour Kaufman in the new school drama series "Room 222".

WEDNESDAY, 7:30 P.M.

'Room 222'

"Room 222," a deft blend of comedy and drama, reflects with honesty what is currently happening in integrated schools and conflict, mostly of individuals, that can be resolved in this format.

Lloyd Haynes stars as Pete Dixon, Denise Nicholas as Liz McIntyre, Michael Constantine as Seymour Kaufman and Karen Valentine as Alice Johnson.

Among the recurring characters will be four students, Richie, played by Howard Rice; Helen, played by Judy Strangis; Jason, played by Arlington Banks, and Al, played by Pandrant Netherly. They are among Pete's 35 homeroom students who will be seen each year's research at Los Angeles High School, will continue to borrow from real life in the schools in terms of problems and conflict, mostly of individuals, that can be resolved in this format.

Lloyd Haynes stars as Pete Dixon, Denise Nicholas as Liz McIntyre, Michael Constantine as Seymour Kaufman and Karen Valentine as Alice Johnson.

WEDNESDAYS, 7 P.M.

'Courtship Of Ed's Father'

"The Courtship of Eddie's Father" is a lively situation comedy, as warm as it is funny, debuting on ABC.

The story is one of a father and his very young son and the happiness each wants to obtain for the other. The comic complications and "sink or swim" situations arise from Eddie's frequent attempts to find a wife for his widowed father. A warm and wise housekeeper completes the Corbett family.

Bill Bixby stars as Tom Corbett, Eddie's father and a magazine editor. He has a long list of acting credits on the stage, in movies and on television, including three years as co-star of the series "My Favorite Martian."

In his first role as an actor, James Komack is also the producer of "The Courtship of Eddie's Father." He wrote the pilot script and is directing several segments. Komack's background ranges from boy musician to nightclub comedian and Broadway musical star, movie actor, television performer, writer, director and producer.

WED., 6:30 P.M.

'Flying Nun' Glen Campbell Leads Off

"The Flying Nun," starring Sally Fields as a young novice with a zest for living and a flair for flying, soars into its third season on ABC with a new airdate, Wednesdays, 6:30-7 p.m.

The series is the light hearted story of Sister Bertrille, a young American nun, and her warm and often humorous relationships with the other nuns, orphans and nearby townspeople at the ancient Convent San Tanco in Puerto Rico.

Sister Bertrille is really an exceptional person — she can fix cars, cut hair, establish credit, organize fiestas, play gin like a riverboat gambler, even manage baseball teams and when the trade winds swirl around the convent on its heights above old San Juan, she can fly.

Miss Field's co-stars are Marge Redmond as Sister Jacqueline, Madeleine Sherwood as the Mother Superior, and Alejandro Rey as Carlos Ramirez, playboy-gambler and owner of a nearby casino. Shelley Morrison is featured as Sister Sixto, Linda Dangel as Sister Ana, and Manuel Padilla Jr. as Marcello, one of the many boys in the convent's orphanage.

The distinctive sounds of guitar strumming and grassroots singing, which highlight "The Glen Campbell Goodtime Hour," usher in a wide range of outstanding entertainment Wednesday night on CBS.

The schedule includes those indomitable social humpers "The Beverly Hillbillies," the dynamic "Hawaii Five-O" investigative team, and "Medical Center," a gripping new dramatic series based at a university medical center.

Glen Campbell's comedy-variety program (6:30-7:30 p.m.) will have comedian Pat Paulsen, singer-composer John Hartford and various guest stars funning and strumming along with the Grammy Award-winning singer-guitarist title

Powell Being Checked By IRS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., is reportedly being investigated by the Internal Revenue Service but House officials say they are unaware of the nature of the investigation.

The IRS wants to review evidence developed in a grand jury investigation of Powell last year, Asst. Gen. Will Wilson said in a letter to House Speaker John W. McCormack.

"The Beverly Hillbillies," in its eighth season, follows in a new time period (7:30-8 p.m.) with trips to New York and other locales on their schedule. Jed, Granny, Elly May and Jethro (Buddy Ebsen, Irene Ryan, Donna Douglas and Max Baer) try to cope with millionaire life with the help of banker Drysdale (Raymond Bailey) and his secretary (Nancy Kulp).

Viewing takes a dramatic turn at 8 p.m. with the debut of "Medical Center." The hour-long drama revolves around a university medical center at the core of which are two dynamic M.D.s, portrayed by Chad Everett and James Daly. The series, with factual assistance from the American Medical Association, builds taut, fascinating contemporary drama around the most modern and awesome of today's myriad medical accomplishments.

Jack Lord's "Hawaii Five-O" investigation unit returns for a second season (9-10 p.m.), filmed in the magnificent Hawaiian Islands. The team, headed by Steve McGarrett (Lord), again includes Danny Williams (James MacArthur), Chin Ho Kelly (Kam Fong) and Kono (Zulu). Richard Denning portrays the governor in the series.

'That Girl'

MONDAYS, 7:15 P.M.

'New People'

Year One begins for a group of college-age individuals inadvertently cut off from the world of adults thousands of miles from civilization. Will the world they create be better or worse? This is "The New People," a highly-stylized adventure-drama presented in a new form, a 45-minute, weekly ABC series that explores areas never examined before on television. These New People are a heterogeneous group of young Americans who were stranded by a plane crash on a desolate U.S. atomic test island in mid-Pacific while returning from a cultural exchange tour of Southeast Asia. Since buildings and supplies were left intact when tests were cancelled, theirs is not primarily a struggle for physical survival. Rather, stories will concern them more of these youngsters as they create a new world of their choice. The series stars Tiffany Bolling as Susan Bradley, Zoey Hall as Bob Lee, Jill Jaress as Ginny Loomis, David Moses as Gene Washington, Dennis Olivieri as Stanley Gabriel and Peter Rattray as George Potter. Other characters will emerge in individual scripts, as will adults, seen from time to time in flashback memories and thoughts of home.

MON, 6:30 P.M.

'My World'

"My World and Welcome To It" is a comedy series, filmed and animated, about a husband and father who is a cartoonist and writer with a talent and problem — his own overly active imagination. The series, television's first to be based on the cartoons and writings of humorist James Thurber, premieres on NBC. The role of the cartoonist-writer, John Monroe, is played by series star William Windom. Joan Hotchkis appears as his wife, Ellen. Their daughter Lydia, 10, is played by Lisa Gerritsen, and Harold J. Stone appears as Monroe's editor, Hamilton Greeley. Monroe's imagination lapses with astounding ease into fantasies, some of which are populated by his cartoon characters come to life, others by real people. They are Monroe's way of coping with life's problems, among which are women, children and dogs. Monroe doesn't quite trust them.

MY WORLD—"My World and Welcome to It," a new comedy program based on the drawings and writings of James Thurber, will be seen Monday evenings. William Windom plays John Monroe. Joan Hotchkis appears as his wife, Ellen, and Lisa Gerritsen is seen as their daughter, Lydia.

THURSDAYS ON CBS

Jim Nabors Has New Show

"That Girl," starring Marlo Thomas as Ann Marie, a young girl on her own in New York City, begins its fourth season in September.

The weekly series offers believable humor based on the kinds of experience a real young girl might have while living on her own in the big city. The situations are set in the framework of the basic problems all young people face and touch on race relations, new morality and the generation gap among many other topics. Ann Marie takes on unusual jobs, does some acting from time to time, and almost always winds up in some wild and funny predicament.

Ann Marie is captivating and touching in her relationships with her boyfriend, news magazine writer Don Hollinger and with her neighbors, friends and her parents back home in Brewster, New York. In a sense, she is representative of thousands of young American post-collegians caught up in creating their own way of life — doing their own thing.

Ted Bessell co-stars as Don Hollinger. Ann's parents, Helen and Lew Marie, are played by Rosemary DeCamp and Lew Parker with recurring characters to be announced as they occur.

The series' creative team includes executive producers Bill Persky and Sam Denoff, creators of the series and Emmy award-winning writers of "The Dick Van Dyke Show," and producers Saul Turletau and Bernie Orenstein, who will also function as story consultants.

Tax Rate Up

ROCKWALL, Tex. (AP)—The board of trustees of the Rockwall Independent School District has adopted a 1969-70 school budget of $4,274,831. The budget includes an increase in the tax rate from $1.60 to $1.90 per $100 valuation.

Thursday night has the new Nabors named Jim in his own comedy-variety series and a whole household of new neighbors in the form of a "Family Affair" on CBS. The evening's line-up also is highlighted by the star-studded offerings of "The CBS Thursday Night Movies."

The members of "Family Affair" move to an earlier time period (6:30-7 p.m.) in response to an outpouring of requests from fond viewers. Twins Buffy and Jody (Anissa Jones and Johnnie Whitaker) and their teen-age sister Cissy (Kathy Garver) continue their endearing tests of the mettle of Uncle Bill (Brian Keith) and Mr. French (Sebastian Cabot).

No longer in the Marines as Gomer Pyle, Jim Nabors now headlines "The Jim Nabors Hour" (7-8 p.m.). In addition to displaying the many-faceted Nabors talent, the new variety series will showcase Frank Sutton, who was Gomer Pyle's Sgt. Carter, Ronnie Schell and many guest performers.

An outstanding array of noteworthy Hollywood movies will be presented in the new season on "The CBS Thursday Night Movies."

Among the feature films to be shown on either "The CBS Thursday Night Movies" or "The CBS Friday Night Movies" are "Anna and the King of Siam," starring Rex Harrison and Irene Dunne; "Born Free," starring Virginia McKenna and Bill Travers; "Dear Heart," starring Glenn Ford and Geraldine Page; "Fanny," starring Leslie Caron and Maurice Chevalier; "Guns of Navarone," with Gregory Peck, David Niven and Anthony Quinn as the stars, and "Hotel Paradiso," starring Gina Lollobrigida and Alec Guinness.

'Bewitched'

"Bewitched," the warm and humorous story of a lovely young witch who is married to a mortal, winds its magic way into its sixth year on ABC with a new baby in its immediate future.

Elizabeth Montgomery stars as Samantha—housewife, witch, and mother of a baby witchling, Tabitha. Dick Sargent portrays her husband, Darrin Stephens — advertising executive, father and mortal, in the middle.

The Stephens are expecting their second child. For them, this brings up two important questions. The first is the usual one — will the baby be a boy or a girl? The second is not usual: will the baby be a mortal, or a witch, or a warlock?

Agnes Moorehead plays Endora, Samantha's mother, Darrin's witchy mother-in-law and grandmother to Tabitha, portrayed by twins Erin and Diane Murphy. Others include: David White as Larry Tate, Darrin's boss; Kasey Rogers as Tate's wife, Louise; George Tobias and Sandra Gould as the Stephens' neighbors, Abner and Gladys Kravitz; Paul Lynde as Samantha's Uncle Arthur; and Alice Ghostley as Esmeralda, the Stephens' witch-maid and babysitter.

THURSDAYS, 6:30 P.M.

'Ghost And Mrs. Muir'

Our tale is about a widow, with two children, a housekeeper and a dog, who leases a Maine seacoast cottage haunted by the ghost of a 19th century sea captain. That's "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" and with its move to ABC this fall, there'll be more fantasy, magic and comedy with an undercurrent of romance.

On the surface, the climate between the ghost, Captain Daniel Gregg and the pretty widow, Carolyn Muir, is on the stormy side. Jonathan Muir, who sees the ghost too, imitates him right to his last "Blast!" Candice, his sister, will be seeing the specter too, this year.

Martha, the housekeeper, couldn't possibly see ghosts since she doesn't believe in them. Claymore Gregg, the disclaimed nephew of the Captain, wishes he didn't believe either as his relations with the ghost fluctuate — from bad to worse.

In addition to the residents of Gull cottage, viewers will be meeting the townspeople of Schooner Bay this year.

"The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" stars Hope Lange as Carolyn Muir and Edward Mulhare as the Captain. Co-starring is Beta Shaw as Martha and Charles Nelson Reilly as Claymore with Kellie Flanagan as Candice and Harlen Carragher as Jonathan and Scruffy.

THURSDAYS, 9 P.M.

'It Takes A Thief'

ABC's series "It Takes A Thief," which debuted in January, 1969, becomes a family proposition when it begins the 1969-70 season through special guest appearances. Fred Astaire is introduced as Alistair Mundy, the father of Alexander Mundy, played by Robert Wagner.

Alistair Mundy is retired from the same "profession" as his son, that of a master thief, and only the most noble of causes could tempt him to resume his calling. Alexander's motivation is simpler. On parole from prison, he is given the choice of working for the "S.I.A." (A U.S. intelligence agency) or returning to serve the remainder of his jail sentence.

"It Takes A Thief" offers a light and sometimes tongue-in-cheek approach to espionage and foreign intrigue. During the 1969-70 season father and son will often work toward the same goal but not necessarily in concert. From time to time they even wind up chasing after the same girls, but certainly not in concert.

Entertainment is what "It Takes A Thief" is all about, and what it achieves through exotic locales, plush production and bevy of beautiful girls. Several of the new season's episodes were filmed on location in Italy at Rome, Venice, Capri and Porto Ercole.

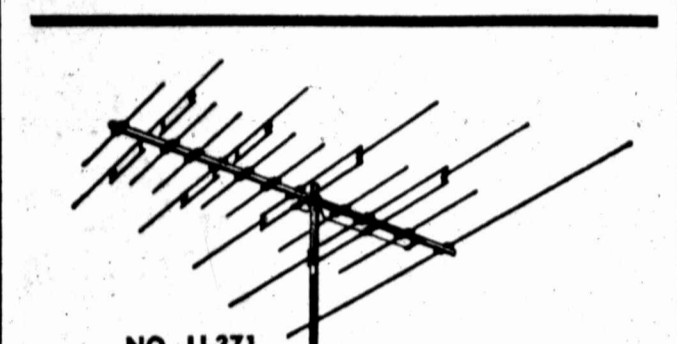

Four members of the Howard County extension program leave for a three district meeting in Lubbock Monday. County Agent Paul Gross, his assistant Jim Allyson, Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Catherine Crawford and her assistant, Janet Shetlesworth, will attend the three-day meeting.

Districts 1, 2, and 6, which include 60 West Texas counties, will participate in the convention which focuses on instruction and planning for next year's extension programs.

SUNDAYS ON CBS Double-Barreled Premieres

The new Sunday season on CBS offers double-barreled premieres.

Talented actress-singer dancer Leslie Uggams, who won hallelujahs and a Tony Award for her role in the Broadway musical "Hallelujah, Baby!" a few theatrical seasons ago, joins the Sunday night line-up with a full-hour contemporary musical variety series, "To Rome, With Love," a new comedy starring John Forsythe, seasons the proceedings with a continental flavor earlier in the evening.

The two newcomers join "Lassie," "The Ed Sullivan Show" and "Mission: Impossible."

The award-winning "Lassie" series, which continues in its accustomed time period (6-6:30 p.m.) is again filmed amidst rugged and spectacular natural outdoor scenery. The collie whose canine cool and highly developed instinct have triumphed over danger through many intriguing and heart-warming adventures during 15 previous television seasons, is accompanied by U.S. Forest Rangers Scott Turner (Fred Allan) and Bob Ericson (Jack DeMave).

"To Rome, With Love" (6:30-7 p.m.) set against the historic background of the Eternal City, focuses on a college professor (Forsythe) who moves his American family of three daughters (aged 6, 10 and 16 approximately) to Rome where he has accepted a teaching position. In addition to Joyce Menges, Susan Benjamin Neher and Melanie Fullerton, who portray Forsythe's daughters, the series features a boarding house full of bustling Italian natives with whom the professor and his family become hilariously involved.

As always on Sunday for more than two decades, television host Ed Sullivan presents a galaxy of luminaries in an entertainment showcase that has brightened the home screen with a longer continuous run than any other network television entertainment program. "The Ed Sullivan Show," which has among its accolades a Peabody Award, continues in its regular time slot (7-8 p.m.) as it enters its 22nd season.

In addition to its title star, "The Leslie Uggams Show" (8-9 p.m.) will feature guest stars, including Dick Van Dyke, Jim Nabors, Raymond Burr. The accent is on light, topical humor, with weekly features or "departments," and, of course a maximum of melody.

Continuing to take the "impossible" out of "Mission: Impossible" (9-10 p.m.) the Impossible Missions Force solves varied and geographically far-flung puzzles of international consequence. The Marshall, John Saxon and David Hartman star. E. G. Cy Chermak is executive producer. Joel Rogosin, Winston Miller and Doug Benton are the producers.

In the lawyer episodes, three men with a passion for justice join forces to create the law firm of Nichols, Darrell and Darrell. Burl Ives, Joseph Campanella and James Farentino star. The planet's inhabitants — 12 times larger than the Earthlings — live in a society similar to that on Earth. The newcomers, are periled by giant pets and insects. Most of the giants do not trust the Earthlings.

Survival is their primary concern, and the Earthlings are never allowed to forget their precarious situation. In the constant search for a means to return to Earth, they dare encounters with the giants.

'Bonanza'

"Bonanza," NBC's longest running western series starring Lorne Greene, Dan Blocker, and Michael Landon with David Canary, begins its 11th season on Sundays at 8 p.m.

David Dortort is creator and executive producer of "Bonanza," television's first hour color filmed series which originally premiered in the Fall of 1959.

During the past 10 years the award-winning series has stretched across the globe. Today it is seen in 81 countries and has an international audience estimated at more than 400 million persons each week.

The stories center around Ben Cartwright and his two sons, Hoss and Little Joe, and Candy plus the colorful characters who lived during the exciting mining, ranching and timbering days of Nevada in the mid-19th century. The Cartwrights' vast ranch is named the Ponderosa after the great stands of pine in the Sierra Nevada mountain range near Lake Tahoe. It covers 1,000 square miles and its economic basis is cattle and timber operations. The timber was used to shore and construct Nevada's network of mines during the silver rush days.

The Cartwrights' ranchhouse is located about two hours ride from the bustling town of Virginia City. The "town" and the ranchhouse are maintained as permanent sets at Paramount Studios in Hollywood. Exterior locations range from the Lake Tahoe region, various Sierra Nevada mountain areas, the Mojave Desert, to ranches outside Los Angeles.

SUN., 7 P.M.

'The FBI'

"The FBI," which dramatizes the bureau's role in the investigation of all aspects of interstate crime, violence and espionage, begins its fifth season this Fall.

Philip Saltzman, the series' new producer, plans more involvement in the dramas for cast regulars Erem Zimbalist Jr., Philip Abbott and William Reynolds. Inspector Lewis Erskine, portrayed by Zimbalist, and Special Agent Tom Colby, played by Reynolds, will appear more frequently in undercover situations. Arthur Ward (Abbott), assistant to the director of the bureau, occasionally will leave Washington to participate in an investigation.

Saltzman feels this will give more depth to the characterizations, a change from the straightforward, impersonal portrayal of the FBI agent.

The dramas presented on "The FBI" are based on actual cases in which there has been a court disposition and which are now a matter of public record.

'Great One' In 8th Season

Saturday night is a great one on CBS, and The Great One himself, Jackie Gleason, once more gets the entertainment rolling.

"The Jackie Gleason Show" (8:30-9:30 p.m.) brings to its eighth season the comedy action and sparkling wit that have become its hallmark.

'THE JACKIE GLEASON SHOW' Jackie Gleason and Sheila McRae

The enlarged Douglas family of "My Three Sons," which now includes three grandsons as well, continues to enliven the 7:30 to 8 p.m. period.

Now that the two cosmopolitan occupants of rural "Green Acres," located just outside Hooterville, add their potent ingredients for laughter to the Saturday line-up by moving into the time slot just before Hooterville's "Peticoat Junction," the area's famous Cannonball railroad line will be busier than ever.

Attorney Oliver Douglas and his wife Lisa (Eddie Albert and the famous wood-burning Eva Gabor) continue to preserve their urbanity in the midst of rusticity on their "Green Acres" farm (8:30 p.m.). Helping them cope with their uproarious difficulties are Haney (Pat Buttram) and various locals including Eb (Tom Lester) and Hank Kimball (Alvy Moore).

A little farther up the spur track, on the outskirts of Hooterville, "Peticoat Junction" bustles into activity from 8:30 to 9 p.m. In addition to the famous wood-burning Cannonball locomotive, the little town also houses the Shady Rest hotel and a general store frequented by the most colorful folk. Among them are charming Dr. Janet Craig (June Lockhart), who, like her "Green Acres" neighbors, is a former city dweller who's moved to the country; Uncle Joe (Edgar Buchanan); Betty Jo, Bobbie Jo and Billy Jo (Linda Kaye Henning, Lori Saunders and Meredith MacRae), and others portrayed by Mike Minor, Frank Cady and Rufe Davis.

SATURDAYS, 7:30 P.M.

The Lawrence Welk Show

Lawrence Welk and his Champagne Music Makers move into their fifteenth year on ABC for "The Lawrence Welk Show" during the 1969-70 season.

Looking back on more than 45 years in the music business, the Maestro has successfully demonstrated that the love of music grows from year to year, particularly for tunes with a distinctive Champagne Music beat. The show, which offers a balance of familiar melodies and the best of the current hits, during the season just past has enjoyed its highest favor with viewers from coast-to-coast.

Young vocalists Tanya Falan, and the duo of Sandi Jensen and Salli Flynn, who became regular members of the Welk musical family during the '67-68 season, were joined this spring by pretty young singer, Raina English, and country-western singer-guitarist Clay Hart. All of these young entertainers have gained favor with teenagers and senior citizens alike.

All of the long-time favorites with Welk's fans will return: Champagne Lady Norma Zimmer; featured vocalists Natalie Nevins, Joe Feeney, Jim Roberts, Dick Dale and Steve Smith; dancing partners Bobby Burgess and Cissy King; and dancer Art Duncan; accordionist Myron Floren; Joe Livoti, first violin; ragtime pianist Jo Ann Castle; Larry Hooper who doubles as pianist and bass singer; Bob Ralston on organ and piano; Frank Scott on piano and harpsichord; Charlotte Harris, cello, and many other Music Makers, all of whom are music stars in their own right. Jack Imel continues as the group's triple-threat man, as rhythm player, dancer and idea man in his capacity of assistant to the producer.

SUN., 6:30 P.M.

'Disney'

The 1969-70 season will mark the 16th anniversary of Walt Disney programs on television. "The Wonderful World of Disney" will be the new title of NBC "Walt Disney's Wonderful World of Color," colorcast on Sundays at 6:30 p.m.

The late Walt Disney first entered television in 1954, the season that his Davy Crockett stories became world famous. Walt Disney's popular Sunday night series became a part of NBC programming in 1961.

The multi-award winning series (the "Look-Listen Poll" of 1969 honored the series with a top spot in its 10th annual event) offers a wide variety of entertaining programs throughout the season. Viewers enjoy subjects ranging from nature stories and cartoons to adventure dramas and comedies.

'Hollywood Palace'

Under the guidance of a new director, Marc Breaux, and a new head writer, Charlie Isaacs, "The Hollywood Palace" begins another auspicious season as one of the most lively and enduring vaudeville-variety programs in television.

Once again the nonpareil Bing Crosby will host the opening show — duplicating a role he performed when the first "Palace" debuted in January 1964 — and will also be spotted as M.C. on various shows throughout the season, including the special Christmas program.

Hosts and guests next season will match the standard of the show business greats who have trod the "Palace" boards over the years. In the past, such talents as Ella Fitzgerald, Jimmy Durante, Sid Caesar, Imogene Coca, Ethel Merman, Diahann Carroll, Diana Ross and the Supremes, Milton Berle, and Polly Bergen have given stature and excitement to the show.

Newlywed

Answer that often startle both contestants and audience alike are the result when four couples play "The Newlywed Game" each Saturday night on ABC. Bob Eubanks hosts the program which also airs weekday afternoons.

After being introduced, the wives retire to a soundproof room while the men remain on stage to answer such questions as "Will your wife say she sleeps with her toes pointing to the wall, the ceiling or the floor?" Then the wives return to answer the same question. If their answers match their husbands', they are awarded points. The husbands then retire to the soundproof room, while the girls answer another set of questions. The couple with the most points at the end of the game wins a valuable prize selected especially for them.

Dating

Saturday nights are traditionally the nights to go out on the town, date and find romance, and ABC brings that romance to the stay-at-homes as well on "The Dating Game."

During each game, a panel of three young women or men are introduced to the audience while the contestant is secluded in a soundproof room. The contestant then comes on stage to question the members of the panel who are hidden from his view. Using their answers, the contestant decides which of the three would make an ideal date. Two games are played on each show.

MERGER PENDING—Florence Henderson, as Carol, and Robert Reed, as Mike, merge their families into "The Brady Bunch."

FRIDAYS, 7 P.M.

'Brady Bunch'

"We Bradys stick together in everything — including marriage." So says Mike Brady, a widower and father of three boys. But then he meets Carol, a widow with three girls. They fall in love and decide that they would be much happier if they married. The result is "The Brady Bunch," ABC's new family comedy series.

How do you integrate two families into one and manage to keep peace with eight different personalities. You don't. But that's the fun of it. Here's the most difficult integration of them all, that of the sexes. It should prove to be the making of the most enjoyable comedy of the new season.

On the sidelines, ready to lend a helping hand, with a sarcastic wit, is Alice, the housekeeper. Picking up everything from marbles to curlers from the bathrooms to the kitchen, she'll be directing traffic for the Bunch. And from the wedding to happily ever after, "The Brady Bunch" will be fighting — to make the viewer laugh.

Robert Reed stars as Mike Brady, the leader of the clan. Co-starring is Florence Henderson as Carol and Ann B. Davis as Alice. Featured as the six children are Maureen McCormick as Marcia, Eve Plumb as Jan, Susan Olsen as Cindy, Barry Williams as Greg, Christopher Knight as Peter and Mike Lookinland as Bobby.

Friday night on CBS has a "smart" new look this season, starting off with the comical husband and wife secret agent team of Max Smart and Agent 99. This "Get Smart" duo, new to the Network, is followed by two groups of old friends in new time periods. "The Good Guys" and "Hogan's Heroes." "The CBS Friday Night Movies" are the aft anchors of the evening's schedule.

Don Adams and Barbara Feldon star as the "Get Smart" newlyweds (6:30-7 p.m.). Without changing their humorous brand of crime fighting and undercover agency that have become their trademark, the Smart spies slip hilariously in and out of danger and face a variety of tangled intrigues.

Continuing the mirthful mood, "The Good Guys," Rufus Butterworth and Bert Gramus (Bob Denver and Herb Edelman), in a new time period 7:30 p.m., rollick through their zany exploits. Diner-owner Gramus' wife, Claudia (Joyce Van Patten), shares in the fun as her husband and his cab-driving buddy invent wacky schemes for getting rich quicker.

Another bunch of "good guys," "Hogan's Heroes," operate from a new time base (7:30-8 p.m.) as the comedy series about a World War II

THURSDAYS 'Tom Jones'

"This Is Tom Jones," the spectacular music variety series, which made its debut as a mid-year replacement program and soared to tremendous popularity, will begin its first full season on the ABC Television Network this fall.

'Hi Chaparral'

"The High Chaparral" returns for its third season on NBC Fridays at 6:30 p.m.

Noted for its authentic portrait of the west around the 1870's, the series stars Leif Erickson as the rugged, stern patriarch, John Cannon, and Cameron Mitchell as the hard-talking, hard-fighting Buck

Cannon. Linda Cristal is seen as Victoria Cannon. Other regular stars include Mark Slade and Henry Darrow.

The full-hour action-western drama, created by producer David Dortort — who is also responsible for NBC's long-running "Bonanza" — traces the adventures of the Cannon family in their struggle to maintain a cattle ranch in the rugged Arizona desert. The locale is just west of Tucson during the 1870's, a time when survival in that part of the country meant a fight against the elements as well as renegade Indians and outlaws.
