Chemical Tank Car Flames Close Schools

TROUP, Tex. (AP) — A chemical tank car caught fire on the edge of Troup and the schools closed today because of their proximity to the burning car.

The fire started Saturday when a Missouri Pacific train derailed. It was extinguished, then caught fire again Saturday.

About 125 residents were evacuated in a quarter-mile area around the car and remained evacuated this morning.

The burning car sat one-eighth of a mile from the high school and elementary school.

About 200 yards away is a bulk gasoline storage facility, and 500 yards away are butane and propane storage tanks.

The First Baptist and First Methodist churches, near the site, cancelled Sunday services.

Ethylene oxide was leaking from a pressure valve and burning. It is used in anti-freeze compounds. Former Mayor James M. Carlyle said a Dow Chemical Co. chemist told him the compound is 10 times as explosive as butane and propane.

Nine cars derailed from a 97-car train as it moved through the city. The cars were about a half mile north of the main street.

Troup is 18 miles southeast of Tyler in East Texas.

Nixon's Draft Idea To Test Math Talent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's draft lottery system—if it passes Congress—is sure to bring out a talent among the country's 18-year-olds for figuring mathematical probabilities.

Critics say the plan will leave most young men guessing about just when they might be called the following year and their chances for escaping the draft entirely.

But armed with a few basic figures those guesses can get pretty close. And some men won't have to guess at all.

The plan for drafting 19-year-olds first on a lottery basis is likely to pass the House late this week. It is still an open question in the Senate.

The 365 birthdates for the following year would be drawn out of a fish bowl at a public lottery in late September or early October each year.

There's little guesswork for able-bodied men whose 19th birthdays fall on the first dates drawn: they'll be among the first men called early the next year.

And men with birthdays on the last 150 or more dates drawn will likely escape the draft entirely.

Everybody else will have to take out his scratch pad and pencil and start figuring the odds on the basis of the number of men in the draft pool and the rate at which they're being called up each month.

If the system were in effect now, as Selective Service officials explain it, 18-year-olds would figure there would be something like 600,000 available for the draft next year after rejects and deferments.

Draft calls hopefully will drop off to something like 200,000 from this year's 300,000 plus.

That would mean men with birthdays on the last 200 or so dates drawn in the lottery would likely escape the draft and those with the first 100 birthdates drawn would probably be called. The remaining 65 birthdates would be borderline cases.

The callups vary from month to month but a man who drew the 100th date could figure he'd be called near the end of the year, a man who drew 50 would probably be called about mid-year.

Students and technical people getting deferments would draw their draft eligibility placement for their 19th years like everyone else and would come back into the draft pool with that same placement when their deferments ended four years later. All this is how the lottery system is to work when it is well established.

Major Attack On Draft Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court agreed today to hear another challenge of the draft—the one claiming that the provision of continuing registration requires self-incrimination by those who refused to register initially.

The petition, filed on behalf of Robert I. Toussie, a 28-year-old Brooklyn business tycoon, also contends that without the continuing registration requirement the federal five-year statute of limitations would apply, beginning with a youth's 18th birthday.

Toussie was convicted in a federal district court in New York City in 1967 of failing to register for the draft. He admitted refusing to register and said he could not do so for reasons of conscience.

President Considering Unilateral Cease-Fire

May Outline Plan During Nov. 3 Talk

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid increasingly voiced sentiment for a faster U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam, President Nixon reportedly is considering a unilateral cease-fire.

The President may propose the cease-fire during his Nov. 3 address to the nation on the Vietnam situation, a White House source said Sunday.

Indications Nixon may, in fact, have been affected by opposition to the war expressed in last Wednesday's Vietnam Moratorium piled up as the President spent the weekend huddled with his top military and diplomatic advisors at Camp David.

And former Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, who last week emerged from a meeting with Nixon to endorse his Vietnam policy, said in Tokyo he is sure the United States will carry out "a systematic and accelerated withdrawal of U.S. forces" from South Vietnam.

Humphrey was among a number of prominent figures—in and out of the administration—who spoke out on Vietnam over the weekend.

According to Newsweek Magazine, Nixon has been urged by his military advisors to proclaim a U.S.-initiated cease fire so enemy violations could be used "as evidence of the enemy's reluctance to end the war."

The advisors feel, the magazine said, a unilateral cease-fire "would create no great risk to U.S. troops in the field."

The White House source said Nixon could be expected to announce such a cease-fire during his Vietnam address or, by not mentioning it, signal to Hanoi the idea has been rejected.

The President conferred at the Maryland retreat with Secretary of State William P. Rogers, Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird, Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and his national security advisor, Dr. Henry A. Kissinger.

Humphrey said when he talked about troop withdrawals with Nixon he had "encouraged the President to give it all possible support on the executive level."

In Washington, Sen. Fred Harris, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, called for speeded up troop withdrawals and Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, said United Nations Secretary-General U. Thant should negotiate a political settlement of the war.

Harris spoke on the NBC radio-television program "Meet the Press" and Muskie appeared on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

Harris said Nixon has acknowledged the war can't be won militarily and added that the President "ought to get about getting us out of it on a much more rapid and systematic basis."

John Roy Bizzell Killed In Accident

JOHN ROY BIZZELL

John Roy Bizzell III, 15, was killed Sunday about 3 p.m. when the pickup he was driving ran head-on into a mileage post at FM 821 and IS 20 outside of Coahoma. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bizzell Jr., 2806 Cactus, and a sophomore at Big Spring High School.

Texas Highway Patrol officers investigated the incident, which was the fourth traffic fatality of the year in Howard County, and said the boy apparently fell asleep at the wheel. There were no skid marks on the highway, but officers estimated the youth was traveling about 55 or 60 miles per hour. The boy was killed upon impact, according to investigators, and the pickup was destroyed.

Young Bizzell played on the sophomore football team, was a member of the Hi-Y Club, and the First United Methodist Church.

He is survived by his parents; a sister, Carrie Jean Bizzell, of the home; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Holley, 801 W. 17th, and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bizzell Sr., Lamesa.

Services will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. in Nalley-Pickle Rosewood Chapel, with the Rev. Mark Williams, First United Methodist Church of Plainview, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Robert S. Knutson, Trinity Lutheran Church. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park.

Pallbearers are Bill Ward, Herman Smith, Granville Hahn, Morris Holmes, Morris Robertson and Don Wiley. The family suggests the Boys Club or Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center for memorials.

Denials That Americans Fighting In Laos Raked

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stuart Symington, declaring it a "travesty" to deny that Americans are fighting and dying in Laos, today began a week-long effort to plumb the depths of U.S. involvement in that shadowy Asian nation.

The Missouri Democrat is chairman of a Senate foreign relations subcommittee which has called Richard Helms, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, and other top officials to testify behind closed doors.

Some of the witnesses will be soldiers and civilians summoned home from Laos just to testify.

Although the hearings are closed, Symington has promised to make the record public as soon as possible and has indicated there may be open hearings later.

The main question Symington has set out to answer is deceptively simple: Are an increasing number of Americans fighting and dying in a war that may become another Vietnam?

"To deny there is fighting is a travesty, when not only the enemy but also the American participants, including those who are casualties and some of their families, know the truth," Symington said in a statement.

The senator said trips to Laos by subcommittee aides and members convinced him "the secrecy surrounding our relations with that country has gone on far too long."

The hearings into Laos are part of a broad look at American commitments abroad which the subcommittee began earlier this month with closed sessions on The Philippines.

Although the Symington hearings are the first formal inquiry into the U.S. involvement in Laos, people have been asking questions for years.

It is known that U.S. carrier-based jets were bombing Communist-led forces there five years ago. When the U.S. build-up in Vietnam started Air Force jets joined in the pounding of Laos and North Vietnam.

Nearly 100 U.S. fliers have been lost over Laos.

The Pentagon insists U.S. planes are flying only armed reconnaissance and that there are no "combat troops" in the country. That's what President Nixon told a news conference last month, too.

And after a published account said the Air Force was flying some 300 sorties a day in support of Laotian forces, Premier Souvanna Phouma also denied there were "combat troops" of any other nation aside from North Vietnam in his country.

STORM SITE — Map locates area about 360 miles south-west of New Orleans where tropical storm Laurie was centered early today. Also located is site off the Florida coast where the tanker Mission Santa Cruz is wallowing helplessly. Hurricane watch is from Galveston to Pensacola.

Gulf Coast Folks Watch For Laurie

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Tropical storm Laurie whistled across the Gulf of Mexico today, aiming for Louisiana's vulnerable coastline. The Weather Bureau said the storm might become a hurricane.

Laurie developed from a depression off the Yucatan Peninsula and raced across nearly 250 miles of open gulf Sunday, its winds still below hurricane force at an estimated 50 miles per hour.

An Air Force reconnaissance plane reported after daybreak that the storm was still poorly organized and had moved very slowly with little change in intensity during the night.

At 3 a.m. CDT, Laurie was about 30 miles south-southeast of Lake Charles. The Weather Bureau advised that "intensification is likely and Laurie may reach hurricane force" by early today.

The storm spun squalls extending 150 miles from its center and brought on a hurricane watch from Galveston, Tex., to Pensacola, Fla., all along that portion of the southern United States so often battered by Gulf tempests.

It was just two months ago last Friday that Hurricane Camille smashed across Louisiana's low marshlands and the Mississippi coast, leaving more than 250 dead, including flood victims in Virginia and West Virginia. Camille's damage was estimated at more than $1 billion.

If Laurie blooms into a hurricane and remains on its north-northwest course, it would move inland near Lake Charles, La., where Hurricane Audrey cracked over land in 1957, wiped out the little town of Cameron and left more than 500 dead.

Schools were ordered closed today in Cameron for fear that high water might catch classes in session, although there was no immediate threat.

Just before midnight, a sheriff's deputy in Lake Charles said there had been no evacuation in Calcasieu Parish (county) nor were any precautions being taken against a possible hurricane.

Hotel Manager Forced To Kneel, Shot In Head

DALLAS (AP)—Police said a hotel manager killed in an apparent robbery early Monday was forced to kneel in an alcove beside his desk and then was shot once through the head.

Detective J. E. Ozment said the dead man was John E. Welch, 66, who had managed the Lynn hotel for about 18 months.

"It looks like they made him kneel down then fired a bullet into his head," Ozment said. "We think he was shot from the back."

The cash drawer was empty, the officer said, but he could make no estimate of the money taken.

A second motel robbery at 3 a.m. Monday netted a man and a woman $175 from the night manager of the Oaks Manor Motor Hotel at gunpoint.

The manager, Everett Baskin, said a woman had demanded to use the telephone in his office. A man followed the woman inside and made Baskin lie on the floor while the robber pointed a gun at his head. No shots were fired, however, and the man and woman left with the money.

JUDGE REFUSES TO ALLOW STATEMENTS

Kennedy-Kopecchne Hearing Opens

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — A judge refused today to allow statements made by Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., to be introduced in evidence at an autopsy hearing into the death of Mary Jo Kopecchne.

Police Chief Dominick J. Arena of Edgartown, Mass., the first witness at the hearing on a petition by a Massachusetts prosecutor to exhume the body of the 28-year-old former secretary, told the court that he had taken a statement from Kennedy.

When he sought to read it at the request of Dist. Atty. Edmund Dinis of New Bedford, Mass., lawyers for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Kopecchne of Berkeley Heights, N.J., objected on grounds it was hearsay.

Judge Bernard C. Brominski of Common Pleas Court sustained the objections four times over the repeated efforts of Dinis' assistant, Armand Fernandes Jr. to have it read into the record.

Arena described the accident scene and told how he was summoned to the dike bridge on Chappaquiddick Island on the morning of July 19 and had assisted a scuba diver in recovering Miss Kopecchne's body from the submerged automobile.

Fernandes asked Arena to describe Miss Kopecchne's appearance as the police chief cradled her body in his arms.

"She was dressed in a white blouse, dark slacks, a pair of sandals and everything else appeared normal, except that she was dead," Arena said. "There were no injuries that I could see."

The police chief was asked on cross examination by the Kopecchne attorney if he had seen any blood on her body or on her clothing.

"No sir!" the chief replied. Arena said the body was pulled out of the automobile by a rope, which diver John N. Farrar of the Edgartown Fire Department had attached to the body.

The attorney also wanted to know whether Arena had suffered any injury himself during the diving operation.

The police chief said he had suffered a cut on one of his toes but did not know if it had bled. Arena also said that at no time could he recall that his foot came in contact with the body.

Dinis has alleged that there was blood in Miss Kopecchne's nose and mouth and on her clothing.

Joseph A. Flanagan, the Kopecchne attorney, also attempted to get Arena to comment on whether his investigation had uncovered any evidence of criminal conduct or foul play but Fernandes objected and Brominski upheld the objection.

Flanagan's objection to the question was upheld. Flanagan asked Arena if he agreed with the findings of Dr. Donald R. Mills, associate medical examiner in Dukes County, Mass., that death was due to drowning.

"The medical examiner was satisfied that it was drowning," Arena said. "I observed nothing else wrong."

Dinis seeks an autopsy for an inquest he has scheduled into her death.

The 28-year-old secretary was found dead in Kennedy's submerged car on the morning of July 19 on Chappaquiddick Island, Mass. The vehicle had plunged off a narrow bridge into a pond during the night.

Kennedy later pleaded guilty to leaving the scene of an accident. He was given a suspended jail term of two months and placed on probation.

An inquest scheduled to be held in Edgartown, Mass., was postponed last month when Kennedy's lawyers challenged its legality in the Massachusetts Supreme Court.

In his petition to exhume the body, Dinis said that after Miss Kopecchne's burial three months ago in nearby Larksville he learned there was blood in her nose and mouth and on her clothing when she was removed from the car.

Dinis and his chief assistant, Armand Fernandes Jr., were prepared to be witnesses themselves, if necessary, to support the allegation.

Nobel Peace Prize Awarded

OSLO, Norway (AP) — The Nobel Peace Prize was awarded today to the International Labor Organization (ILO), the Nobel committee announced.

The prize this year is worth $72,700. The ILO was one of 45 candidates proposed to the Nobel committee, composed of members of the Norwegian Storting (parliament).

The Geneva-based ILO was founded in 1919 as part of the Versailles peace treaty ending World War I.

"Its purpose was declared to be to improve working conditions in various countries in order to create more stable social conditions and thereby contribute to the safeguarding world peace," the Nobel committee's announcement said.

Nixon Stays With Jurist

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon said today Judge Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. has been subjected to vicious character assassination, and even if the judge asked him to withdraw his nomination to the Supreme Court he would not do so.

Nixon took this stand at a one-topic news conference called hurriedly in his office.

He said he had gone over the complete record of the case of the man he tapped for the Supreme Court and all of the criticism and charges that had been raised.

He said he is standing by his judgment that Haynsworth should have the position. And he said he is confident that if senators study all the documents and charges involved, enough of them will come to the same conclusion he has and will vote for confirmation.

Nixon said of Haynsworth:

"I find Judge Haynsworth an honest man, a lawyer's lawyer and a judge's judge. I think he will be a great credit to the Supreme Court and I intend to stand behind him until he is confirmed."

The South Carolina jurist, chief judge of the 4th Circuit Court of Appeals, has run into strong opposition on his nomination to replace former Justice Abe Fortas on the Supreme Court.

Opponents have cited what they consider anti-labor and anti-civil rights rulings he has made. They also have raised charges of conflict of interest, on grounds that he held stock in some companies directly or indirectly involved in matters before his court.

Haynsworth has denied any conflict, and has furnished to the Senate Judiciary Committee a full record of his stock holdings and transactions. He also has offered to put his holdings in trust if he is confirmed.

Trace Of Rain

A light trace of rain was reported early this morning in Big Spring and parts of the county. No rain was reported on the east side of town. Coahoma and Forsan recorded only a trace. The Fairview and Luther area had just a heavy dew. Vealmoor and Elbow had barely a sprinkle. No rain fell in the Vincent area.

Agnew Rips Leaders Of Antiwar Protests

By The Associated Press

Backers of Nixon administration Vietnam policy, led by Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, have launched a counter-offensive against effects of last Wednesday's Vietnam Moratorium and those planned for days ahead.

Agnew Sunday blasted leaders of the antiwar protest movement as "hard-core dissidents and professional anarchists" who are being encouraged by "an effete corps of impudent snobs who characterize themselves as intellectuals."

But like President Nixon's promise that he would not be affected by demonstrations against the war, Agnew's attacks were likely to spur Moratorium leaders to greater efforts.

"We think that it would be un-American and immoral to stop our actions now," said Jerome Grossman, a stationery manufacturer from the Boston suburb of Newton and one of the Moratorium's earliest organizers.

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., proposed in Long Beach, Calif., that Americans demonstrate in support of U.S. troops in Vietnam on Nov. 11—Veterans Day.

And Gen. William Westmoreland, former commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, said American fighting men were disillusioned and disappointed by the Oct. 15 call for an immediate withdrawal from the southeast Asian country.

The vice president, apparently selected to be the administration's spokesman on antiwar protests, said last Wednesday's demonstrations served only "as an emotional purgative for those who feel the need to cleanse themselves of their lack of ability to offer a constructive solution to the problem.

Bull Gores Three Convicts During 38th Pen Rodeo

HUNTSVILLE, Tex. (AP) — A bull that didn't like people taking a tobacco sack from one of his horns gored three convicts who tried it Sunday at the 38th annual Texas Prison Rodeo.

Injured were Willie Gregg of Longview, Joe Leyda of Austin and Bobby Vandiver of Dallas. Gregg and Leyda shared the $25 prize money in the sack.

Eugene Pope of Fort Worth won the $50 sack.

Leon Thibodeaux of Liberty was thrown in the wild horse race and received a serious head injury.

A photographer also was injured when a calf knocked him against a fence. F. L. Hicks of Huntsville, the prison's official photographer, received an injured ear and bruises.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes was the honored guest at the performance watched by 30,000 fans.

Clyde Browning of Dallas won the Brahma bull riding contest. Francis Colby of Ada, Okla., got first place in the bareback bronc riding event. Leroy Ridesaux was first in saddle bronc riding.

Hank Snow will entertain at next Sunday's performance, the last of the year. State Sen. William T. Moore of Bryan will be the honored guest.

seen the end. The hard-core dissidents and professional anarchists within the so-called peace movement will continue to exacerbate the situation," Agnew said at a Republican fund-raising dinner in New Orleans.

Grossman said Moratorium Day planners hoped to focus on local activities rather than large, central rallies during November.

He said local committees will urge congressmen to return home to discuss Vietnam with their constituents. Various groups have planned activities for Nov. 13, 14 and 15—with one group calling for a massive demonstration in Washington Nov. 15.

Trial Of Former Prof Under Way

FORT WORTH (AP) — The trial of a former University of Houston instructor charged with robbing a liquor store in Houston was scheduled to begin today in Dist. Judge Byron Matthews' court.

Mrs. Gerry Charlotte Phelps, charged with four counts of robbery by assault, is accused by Houston police of allegedly robbing the store to raise money for a revolution in this country.

Three other men face trial in Houston on similar charges for the liquor store holdup March 22.

Mrs. Phelps, who taught two classes, denied ever teaching revolution in the classroom. She also taught part-time at another Houston college.

The trial was moved to Fort Worth on a change of venue. Both defense and prosecution agreed she couldn't get a fair trial in Houston.

Youths Skyjack Polish Plane To West Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — Two East German hijackers were granted asylum in West Germany Sunday, and the Polish airliner they commandeered at gunpoint returned to the eastern zone with its other 63 passengers and nine crewmen.

The two men, described only as being in their early 20s, stepped from the plane at Tegel Field, in the French sector of Berlin, seconds after landing and said they were defecting. One had a pistol in his hand.

Witnesses at the field said two Communist MIGs shadowed the Lot Airlines plane, a four-engine Ilyushin 18, as it made its approach but "it landed anyway," a policeman said.

A U.S. Air Force spokesman said airmen in the Tegel control center had no idea that the plane was about to land.

"He came out of nowhere," the spokesman said, "then he just landed. There was no voice communications with him. He flew a very irregular pattern."

The flight originated at Warsaw, was scheduled to stop in East Berlin and then Brussels.

The plane stayed three hours in West Berlin, then flew to East Berlin's Schenefeld Airport.

At the Berlin Wall, another East German escaped by climbing the 10-foot barrier as East German border guards fired at him with machine pistols.

IN WICHITA FALLS Gathering Protests Sentences Of Three

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. (AP) — A predominantly Negro crowd of about 200 protested on the courthouse lawn Sunday night the conviction of three black youths on the seldom used charge of second-degree lynching.

The three 17-year-old boys received probated four year sentences last week. They were accused of attacking a high school biology teacher.

Gillespie C. Wilson of Amarillo, president of the Texas NAACP conference, said it would be hard to believe three white youths would have received the same sentence.

"We have one kind of justice for one side of the tracks and a different kind for the other side," Tom Fairclough, president of the Wichita Falls NAACP, told the gathering.

Another Wichita Falls NAACP member, E. E. Cleaver, said, "All we want to do is use the machinery of democracy."

"We're not bucking the law," Cleaver said.

Under the statute, second degree lynching occurs when a group assembles to commit assault or commits assault after it is assembled.

Attorneys for the three youths are appealing to convictions.

City Manager Job At Stake

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The issue of City Manager Gerald Henckel's future apparently went before the city council early today in a closed-door session called by the mayor "to deal with personnel."

Henckel's status has been in doubt since a San Antonio Express and News story reported a week ago that he would be asked by seven of nine council members to resign.

After the story appeared Henckel wrote a letter to Mayor W. W. McAllister, saying he was considering several opportunities but would make no commitments before a proposed January bond election.

The mayor said the letter was a resignation. Henckel said it was not.

New York, N.Y. (Special): Science has found a special formula with the ability, in most cases—to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching and relieve pain.

In case after case doctors proved, while gently relieving pain actual reduction (shrinking) took place. The secret is Preparation H®. There is no other formula for hemorrhoids like it. Preparation H also soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection in ointment or suppository form.

Multiple Fatality Traffic Crashes Push Toll To 36

Multiple fatality traffic crashes, despite generally good driving conditions, pushed the weekend violent toll to 36 in Texas. Motor vehicle accidents took 24 lives and shootings four others. Three persons died in fires, two drowned and a boat accident and an electrocution killed three persons.

The Associated Press tabulation began 6 p.m. Friday and continued until midnight Sunday.

Fred Howell, 24, and his wife, 23, were killed Sunday when their car struck a cow on U.S. 281 near Stephenville. Their 3-year-old son escaped injury.

The collision of two automobiles caused the five deaths west of San Antonio. The victims were Tony Fraga, 24, of Dallas, driver of one car; Romelia Fraga, believed to be his wife; an infant of the Fraga family; Jose Cruz, 21, of Hondo, one of the drivers; and Sigfredo Maldonado of the state of Coahuila, Mexico. Five persons suffered injuries, four in the Fraga car. Cruz' brother also was injured.

Two Texas A&M students were killed early Saturday when their car struck a Southern Pacific freight train at what highway patrolmen said was a high rate of speed. Dead are Justino D. Reza Jr., 20, a sophomore, and Jesus H. Diaz, a junior. Both were from San Benito. The freight was backing across an intersection in Bryan, near the university campus.

Two young Dallas women died early Saturday in a collision of a car and truck eight miles east of Marshall. Two young men were injured. All were in the car. The victims were Donna Hogue and Mary Boyd, both 17. Seriously injured were Peter Robert Harvey, 18, of Longview, and Allen N. Digirol, 19, of Kilgore whose hometown is Rochester, N.Y.

Robelin Longoria of Falfurrias was killed in a traffic accident on Texas 285 east of Falfurrias. Highway patrolmen said Longoria was thrown from the vehicle as it crashed late Friday night. The wreckage was not found until Saturday morning. Officers said the car he was driving came from Kingsville and was not his.

One person was killed and two injured in a traffic accident on Texas 141 west of Kingsville Saturday. Joel Luna Salinas, 22, of Kingsville died in a hospital a few hours after the collision of his car and one driven by David Torres, 24, of Kingsville. Torres and his passenger, Oscar Torres, 18, were not seriously injured.

A prominent Port Arthur dairyman, James C. Townsend, died Saturday afternoon in a boating accident near the Port Arthur Boat Club. Witnesses said he was piloting a racing hull at a speed of over 100 miles an hour when the boat struck a large wave or some object and exploded.

Three-year-old Russell Hughes drowned Saturday in a sand pit in a pasture near his grandparents' home in Chambers County. Don Franklin Pierce, 42, of Lake View, Tex., was killed Sunday when his truck went out of control and struck an embankment on Farm Road 1041, about 10 miles south of Memphis in East Texas.

Bridge Test

—CHARLES H. GOREN

BY CHARLES H. GOREN (to play by The Chicago Times)

ANSWERS TO BRIDGE QUIZ

Q. 1—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠AQ ♣J6 ♣K1073 ♣Q8555
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1 ♠ Pass 1 ♣ Pass
 1 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Two no trump. Taking into consideration the promoted value of your holding in partner's suits, this hand is the equivalent of a sound opening bid and should produce a good play for game. Choosing between a jump to three clubs or a jump to two no trump, our preference is for the latter as the shorter route to game.

Q. 2—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠1075 ♣A983 ♠KJ1095
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1 ♣ Pass 1 NT Pass
 3 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Three diamonds. This hand increased considerably in value when partner made a jump shift in clubs and an immediate raise to five clubs does not quite compensate for the negative sound of your original response. A temporary call in diamonds followed by a club jump may place partner in position to bid a slam.

Q. 3—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠K63 ♣954 ♣Q83 ♠AJ107
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 Pass Pass 1 ♣ Pass
 1 NT Pass Pass Dble. ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Redouble. This will inform your partner that you had a maximum no trump (10 points), and will establish a cooperative situation for doubling the opponents if partner's opening was sound and they begin to rescue themselves.

Q. 4—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
 ♠KQ932 ♣A ♠KJ ♠8432
 The bidding has proceeded:
 North East South West
 1 ♣ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
 2 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Five clubs. It is tempting to go directly to six, but there is a slight danger that you may be off two aces. The leap to five should induce partner to go to slam if his suits are headed by two high honors.

Q. 5—Both vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠J107 ♣K9 ♣AQ1076432
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 Pass Pass 1 ♠ Pass
 3 ♣ Pass 3 NT Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Five diamonds. With this holding you have no desire to play three no trump and four spades may prove too difficult to manage. Your trump suit is practically self-sufficient and there may prove to be an advantage in protecting the king of hearts from the opening lead.

Q. 6—East-West vulnerable, as South you hold:
 ♠Q874 ♣KQ6 ♣K4 ♠AQ102
 The bidding has proceeded:
 East South West North
 1 ♣ Dble. Pass 1 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Two spades. In order to raise to the level of three after doubling, your hand should be worth at least 19 points.

Q. 7—North-South vulnerable, with 60 part score, as South you hold:
 ♠AK63 ♣AKQ954 ♣J7 ♠K
 The bidding has proceeded:
 South West North East
 1 ♣ Pass 1 ♠ Pass
 3 ♠ Pass 4 ♠ Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—Five spades. The bid announces to partner that all is solid except for diamonds, and he should proceed to six if he has secondary control of that suit.

Q. 8—As South, vulnerable, you hold:
 ♠866 ♣K ♠10542 ♠Q8762
 The bidding has proceeded:
 East South West North
 Pass Pass Pass 1 ♠
 1 ♣ Pass Dble. Pass
 Pass 2 ♠ Pass 2 NT
 Pass ?

What do you bid now?
 A.—The king of hearts and the fifth club are impressive cards and a raise to three no trump is recommended, for partner has contracted for eight tricks knowing that you may have little or nothing.

Who says you can't buy happiness?

There are so many children with no reason to be happy. The homeless. The unwanted. The lost. But your United Way gift can help change this. It can help a ghetto child discover the joy of summer camp and wide-open spaces. It can show an orphan that someone cares, give a rebel a chance to belong, bring hope to the sick and help them get well. Yes, with your help we can bring happiness to the forgotten. And, you'll feel pretty happy, yourself when you give.

Your fair share gift works many wonders

FAR OUT FASHION — A silver panne velvet shirtdress with tasseled rope tie, topped with a turban tied to one side like a Greek soldier, was among the creations shown by Giorgio di Sant' Angelo at the National Democratic Club in New York Thursday. Other items by the designer, who started the craze for gypsy fashions, included: An abbreviated minidress of silk jersey with free and easy skirt and loosely paneled bodice, and a silk print pants suit with tunic top.

Bride Is Honored At Gift Party

Mrs. Wayne McChristian, the former Miss Lorrie Charles, was honored with a bridal shower Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. O. H. Ivie, 1204 E. 17th.

Cohostesses were Mrs. R. L. Cranford, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. Bill McMahon, Mrs. J. O. Johansen, Mrs. Rick Moses, Mrs. Frank Mullican, Mrs. D. W. Pierce, Mrs. J. C. Pye, Mrs. Ray Richey, Mrs. George Weeks and Mrs. Leonard West. The honoree, attired in a yellow knit dress, was presented an orchid corsage. She was joined in receiving guests by her husband's mother, Mrs. Bennie McChristian, who received a white carnation corsage, and his sister, Miss Carolyn McChristian.

Honored guests were the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Billie Redman and Mrs. B. F. McChristian, Miss Sandy McChristian presided at the guest register.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a floor-length white organdy cloth, centered with a pyramid arrangement of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Milk glass and silver appointments completed the setting.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Hubert Frerich of Garden City; Mrs. R. D. Howell, Miss Jan Everett, Miss Nancy Ivie and Miss Sandy Ivie, all of Lubbock.

The couple was married Oct. 1 in Lubbock.

Grocery Shopping Carts Reflect U. S. Changing Social Patterns

NEW YORK (AP)—The average wife who goes supermarket shopping drops more and more nonfood products into her cart, says Supermarketing magazine. Last year, a woman entering a food market with $20 emerged with $2.44 worth of non-food products including houseware and health and beauty aids. Also in her cart was $9.74 worth of perishables, such as baked goods, dairy products, frozen foods, meat and produce, and $7.82 worth of dry groceries.

Ten years ago, only 91 cents of every $20 was spent on non-food products.

The consumer expenditure survey showed that, out of $20 the total amount spent for perishable foods last year again fell below $10. Within the perishable food category, produce and frozen food, including ice cream, moved ahead in consumer popularity.

The total spent for grocery products hit a new overall low, but the study indicated that, within this category, more was spent on soft drinks and tobacco products than in 1967 or 1968.

The study also showed "that consumers are spending more for more expensive forms of food—convenience, snack and specialty types of food and generally ones requiring greater processing than their staple predecessors," the magazine noted.

"Changing living patterns, resulting from the increased number of working wives and mothers, also are bringing about changes in food demands," the publication noted. "Retailers see this as subtle but continuous erosion of the classic 'three squares'—breakfast, lunch and dinner."

Ten years ago nonfoods represented about 14.2 per cent of $45.6 billion in food store sales.

With sales now at $70 billion, nonfoods represent about 22.6 per cent.

"Every indication is for continued erosion in the food and grocery percentage," the magazine concluded.

Carnival Set By Park Hill PTA

The Park Hill Parent-Teacher Association will sponsor a Halloween carnival from 6 to 9 p.m. Saturday at the school. Barbecue will be served at 6 p.m., with admission $1 for adults and 75 cents for children. Booths will provide entertainment, according to Mrs. Jerry Barker, president. The public is invited to attend.

Inspection Officer Will Visit Here

Mrs. Dorothy Yater, district inspection officer of the Ladies Auxiliary, IOOF Patriarch Militant, will be an honored guest at the Nov. 8 meeting. The announcement was made by Mrs. Delbert Lee, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of IOOF Patriarch Militant, at the supper meeting Saturday in the IOOF Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson were elected inspection officers for the Nov. 22 meeting of Auxiliary No. 46 in El Paso. Mrs. Lee announced drill practice for Nov. 6.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise: I have found that a sturdy divided corrugated box, the kind that large bottles of soda come in, makes an ideal and inexpensive shoe rack. It can be put into the closet and not take up much space if turned on its side.

These boxes are very sturdy and can be covered with cloth, adhesive-backed plastic, or you could paint them any color you desire.

You'll have an attractive shoe rack for six pairs of shoes. If more shoe space is needed, simply use more boxes and stack them sideways.

They are ideal for girls at college. My daughter has several with her. Mrs. S. Parules

That is really a nifty idea. And you can store all your shoes in one spot.

But that daughter in college would love a box shoe rack done in her school colors with school stickers glued on here and there. Just a thought! Heloise

Dear Heloise: When collecting new recipes from magazines, I cut them out and glue them to 5x8 inch cards. Then I try the recipe as is.

After sampling the finished product, my husband and I discuss and decide upon additions for the recipe. By using the larger cards, we still have room to write any changes without distorting the original. Mrs. B.J.S.

Dear Heloise: I wanted to take some of the

Bi-Partisan Panel Will Discuss Tax Reform Bill

A bi-partisan panel discussion of the effect of the tax reform bill, HR 12370, on the ordinary citizen has been rescheduled for Thursday at the Pioneer Gas Flame Room, according to Mrs. R.B.G. Cowper, president of West Texas Republican Women's Club. The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

R. H. Weaver, a local attorney, will discuss the effect of the tax bill on foundations and special funds, and C. D. Tuttle, a Cosden attorney, will point out its effect on the oil industry. Sidney Clark, a certified public accountant, will relate the bill's possible effect on investments. A question and answer period will follow the discussion.

The meeting, originally planned for Nov. 13, was rescheduled because it has been learned that the bill will probably be acted upon by the Senate prior to the November date. The Republican Women's Club wanted to inform the public about this bill in time for anyone wishing to do so to contact Sens. John Tower and Ralph Yarborough. The tax reform bill, which cut the oil depletion allowance, was passed by the House of Representatives in early August.

Homemade pies and coffee will be served, and all interested persons are invited to attend.

lovely flowers from my garden to my daughter who lives in another city, and got this bright idea:

I took a two-pound empty coffee can and filled it half full of water. Then I used the plastic cover and made holes in it around the outside rim and some in the center.

I put the lid back on the can and stuck the stem of each individual flower in a hole. They arrived at their destination in perfect condition and there was no spilled water in the car. Effie Horton

Effie, you're one in a million and so is your idea. I like Heloise

LETTER OF THOUGHT

Dear Heloise: I am a tired beautician—converted into a professional dependent (in other words, among the ranks of the unemployed).

Husbands scream, but once the transition is made, everything is rosy.

I wonder if there would be any female butterflies, if the daddy caterpillar had to consent for mamma to try her wings? Mrs. L. Dominy

P.S. Many women went into business in the first place to escape from situations that no longer exist!

Dear Heloise: When I was redecorating, I painted over a darker paint with white paint, only to find that every time my sweeper got too close to the quarter rounds at the baseboard during cleaning, the white paint didn't stand up under the blows.

When it chipped off, the old darker paint showed through. The touch-up painting that was necessary was fast becoming a nuisance when I hit on the idea of covering the quarter round with strips of white plastic tape (it comes in all colors).

Some of it has been on for a year now and is still doing the job. Joyce Scovill

Dear Heloise: Maybe I'm overly squeamish, but it has always bothered me to see a small child spray out the candles on his or her birthday cake.

Here's how we solved this small problem at our house: We removed the lit candles from the cake and reinserted them into the child's piece.

Then he can just huff and puff (and spray!) to his heart's content.

Seems much more sanitary this way. Robert Wombacher

A LOVELIER YOU Dermabrasion Takes Away Scars Of Acne

By MARY SUE MILLER

A Lovely writes: In my teens I had a bad case of acne. It was not treated until it became alarming. My face is scarred with pits as a result. I have heard that such scars can be removed. Is it true? Now, at the age of 22, I would give a great deal for a smooth complexion.

The answer: A medical procedure known as dermabrasion is accepted by skin specialists as a means of smoothing scarred and pitted facial skin. It is not used on post-acne cases until there is every assurance that the skin is free of infection. A patient in her twenties is usually acceptable.

The process is not painful. The face is anesthetized locally. The outer layers of skin are planed by an abrasive rotary brush. A bandage dressing is applied for a 24-hour period. The healing process is two weeks. Some redness may persist for a longer time, but not an unsightly amount.

Results are very good. At least 60 per cent of the scars disappear. The remainders appear much less noticeable. Absolutely perfect results are not usually obtained, unless the process is repeated. And that it may be, but the necessity is seldom so great as to warrant repetition.

Your doctor or your County Medical Society will put you in touch with a specialist in dermabrasion. No lesser recommendation will do.

MORE THAN A DREAM

This youngster dreams a boy's dream of adventure to far away places, to outer space. Yet even as he gazes past the toy rocket, man's greatest adventure has unfolded—the landing of the first human being on the moon.

To chronicle this most fantastic, first-time event in all history, The Associated Press has produced for readers of this newspaper "Footprints On The Moon." It is the complete story of how man forged the tools to free himself from the bonds that held him to his native planet, and of the moon landing itself.

"Footprints On The Moon," written by AP space specialist John Barbour, chronicles the saga of America's space race—and how it was won—in 70,000 words and more than 100 of the most exciting color photographs ever taken.

"Footprints On The Moon" provides a master countdown on the final day, hour and second of the final shot—and the first moon landing.

This is a book that belongs in everyone's home, for parents and their children.

It can be yours at a special price of only $5 through this newspaper.

THE BOOK, INCLUDING THE FINAL MOON LANDING BY THE APOLLO II TEAM, CONTAINS:

- 224 pages, 9 1/4" x 12 1/2" hard-bound edition, with dust-jacket.
- 70,000 word manuscript by AP space specialist John Barbour.
- More than 100 full color illustrations, from the first space efforts in 1960s through to Apollo 11.
- Edited and produced by the world's largest news-gathering organization, The Associated Press.

China-Soviet Border Statements Conflict

MOSCOW (AP) — Conflicting Soviet statements raised the prospect of no progress in the border talks with China starting in Peking today.

Soviet First Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily V. Kuznetsov arrived in Peking Sunday and said, "We hope the talks will be fruitful and will benefit our countries and peoples."

But in Moscow, Mikhail Suslov, top ideologist and member of the Communist party's 11-man Politburo, accused the Chinese leaders of an "adventuristic, chauvinistic policy."

Kuznetsov's remarks in Peking and excerpts from Suslov's article in the party journal Communist were distributed Sunday by Tass, the official Soviet news agency. It did not report any remarks by Communist China's Deputy Foreign Minister, Chiao Kuan-hua, who welcomed the Soviet delegation to Peking.

Negotiations to settle disputes over the long border between China and Soviet Siberia were broken off more than five years ago. The situation became tense last spring when shooting broke out at several points.

Premier Alexei N. Kosygin made a surprise visit to Peking Sept. 11 and met with Premier Chou En-lai. Nearly a month later China announced agreement to open talks.

Tass quoted Kuznetsov as saying the talks would involve "questions of interests to both sides." Some saw this as an indication that more than border issues might be discussed.

Suslov did not mention the border talks in his article in the leading party theoretical and political journal. But he did make the sharpest anti-Chinese criticism to appear in the Soviet press since the Kosygin-Chou meeting.

He wrote: "Communists throughout the world are profoundly angered and alarmed by the adventuristic chauvinistic policy of the present Communist Party of China leaders who have broken with Marxism-Leninism and the principles of proletarian internationalism, and are trying to split the world Communist movement."

Blue Collar Workers Cross Job Color Line

WASHINGTON (AP) — A government report shows one out of every five blue collar workers is likely to cross the job color line into a white collar position — many of them taking at least a short-term pay cut.

But most workers who make the shift from production jobs to management, professional, technical, clerical or sales positions figure the switch is worth employment agencies, employers and unions to make it easier for workers to climb up the job ladder.

The study by University of Wisconsin economic professors David B. Johnson and James L. Stern said 39 per cent of blue collar workers making the switch moved into managerial jobs and increased their base pay by nearly 15 per cent.

But, it added, "Men shifting into professional-technical jobs suffered an average loss of weekly gross income of 5.7 per cent. In terms of base pay without overtime, however, the loss was only 2.7 per cent."

Blue collar workers shifting to clerical jobs lost 9.8 per cent in gross pay, 6.3 per cent when lost overtime was excluded.

The workers interviewed gave many reasons for wanting to make the job switch.

"Very prominent among them were reasons related to an improved financial situation resulting from steadier work in the white collar job, higher fringe benefits, and prospects for better long-run earning opportunities," the report said.

Prouty Asks To Collect County Taxes

City Attorney Herb Prouty today asked the Howard County Court Commissioner's Court for a contract to collect delinquent taxes for the county. He said the city, under his direction, collects 30 per cent of its delinquent taxes, but that the county collects only 10 per cent.

"I think we can increase the county's delinquent tax collections considerably," he said. "When people are faced with the possibility of a suit, they often pay."

He explained that in order to file suit in Texas one must be a licensed lawyer and that he would be qualified to do so. At present Howard County has no collecting agent.

Commissioners took the request under advisement. Court members voted this morning to receive bids Nov. 3 for a new car for the road supervisor, J. D. Nixon. Specifications are available from the county engineer's office.

Commissioners purchased 150 gallons of anti-freeze at $1.18 a gallon, the low bid, from White Stores, Inc., and also approved payment of several routine bills.

At Orchard Meet

Paul Gross, Howard County agent, is at College Station this week to attend a short course on Pecan and Fruit Orchards. He plans to return Friday.

Kitchen Cabinet Action For Peace

LINWOOD, N.J. (AP) — A grandmother who believes anti-war protests do more harm than good is up to her elbows in a kitchen cabinet movement to cheer soldiers in Vietnam.

Mrs. Hazel Slick, 56, bakes bread and apple or pumpkin pies to sell so she can buy gifts for the GIs.

Her first customers were friends and neighbors until word of the home-made products spread rapidly. Now Mrs. Slick is doing a booming business.

The telephone rings constantly, she says. Her small apartment-sized oven which holds only four loaves at a time is operating full blast. She baked 260 loaves of bread and 245 pies in four days.

The bread sells for 75 cents a loaf, the pies $1 dollar each. Mrs. Slick takes out some money to buy ingredients. The profits are turned over to Howard Warren, 41, who ships packages loaded with books, puzzles, razor blades, toothpaste and like items to servicemen from south Jersey stationed in Southeast Asia.

Warren figures that in 21 months he has sent 1,016 gift boxes to military men in hospitals and in the field. If all goes well, 200 more packages will arrive overseas in time for Christmas.

Asked about the nationwide demonstrations against the war, Mrs. Slick replied: "They're a lot of foolishness. I don't think all this jumping and carrying on is going to help. We should find a solution to the war, but in the meantime we ought to support what our boys are doing for us."

Drowsiness As A Menace

The trouble with falling asleep at the wheel is that you may never wake up, Paul Graham, president, Texas Motor Transportation Association, warned today as he cited drowsiness as a special menace to highway safety.

"Since the development of the Interstate Highway System and other freeways, drowsiness has become a special problem," Graham said.

Anyone who expects to be behind the wheel for any length of time should, above all, be well-rested before starting out, Graham said.

"Let more fresh air into the car — even in bad weather," Mr. Graham said. "Take action of some kind. Turn on the radio, talk or sing, change your sitting position."

Disagreement Not Virtue For Reds

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Dorothy Healey says she lost her $65-a-week job as southern California chairman of the Communist party because she opposed the Soviet occupation of Czechoslovakia.

Mrs. Healey, 55, said she would get by temporarily on $34 a week in unemployment insurance. She said the party hierarchy disagreed with her view that Communists should examine and debate policies in relation to "what happens to them in life."

The party organization that she headed here for 20 years numbers 1,000, she said.

Federal Cut Pushed In Penalty For Pot

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Nixon administration, with a bow to its own medical specialists and the realities of enforcement, is proposing much lighter penalties for possession of marijuana.

John E. Ingersoll, director of the Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, said on the eve of his testimony today before the Senate juvenile delinquency committee, first-time possession of marijuana should be a misdemeanor, not a felony as the law now stands.

The administration's new proposal, which backs off considerably from the more stringent recommendations made in September by Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, sets the maximum sentence for first-time possession at a year in jail, or a $5,000 fine, or both.

Buick To Make 15 Millionth Car On Tuesday

FLINT, Mich. — Buick Motor Division will produce its 15 millionth automobile Tuesday, some 66 years after a group of Flint carriage makers bought David Buick's infant company for $10,000 and moved it to Flint.

The milestone car, a two-door Skylark coupe, will be presented to Buick's senior employe, Ernest Drahem, 67, for a month's use.

Mrs. Whiting was instrumental in bringing the infant Buick Motor Company to Flint. He induced his associates in the Flint Wagon Works to buy the firm from Buick's creditors and the group borrowed $10,000 from a Flint bank to make the purchase.

A Devotion For Today . . .

We walk by faith, not by sight. (II Corinthians 5:7)
PRAYER: O God, in his new day, even though we may not see Thee, give us faith to let Thee guide us, though the pathway may not be of our choosing. Help us to remember that Thou art alive and real and ever present in our lives. In Jesus' name. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Revealed But Did Not Change

Last Wednesday's "moratorium" promotion may have confirmed a number of things.
 For one, there is an increasing weariness in war, not so much for the sacrifices that it entails, but because the people have grown cynical of attempting to negotiate a settlement with an intransigent enemy who is the personification of cynicism. Thus, there is a growing number who are convinced we are not going to fish, hence it is just as well to cut bait.
 Another revelation is that mass media now have the capacity to create a podium for anything. What at best would have been spotted demonstrations was pushed front and center and made a cause celebre. The power to project unknowns and their ideas into the living rooms of America is a new force in the dynamics of a democratic society.
 Still another facet brought in clearer focus is that the young, who have the greatest physical stake in avoiding war, are gaining the ear of a greater number of adults, as well as some elected representatives who perceive a wave which might well move with great force upon the shores of the next election.

 And finally, the exercise demonstrates a double disposition — to speak up and out; also to roll with the tide as witness summary suspension of classes either out of sympathy with or fear of the tide.
 Yet it remains to be demonstrated that while the moratorium revealed that it really changed. The harsh realities remain. The administration's role likely has been made more difficult, but it hardly can be changed. The president and others charged with the final responsibility, cannot any more afford to chart courses on the basis of the caprice of popular winds than the athlete can afford to be rabbit-eared (let the cries of the crowd get next to him).

In The Right Direction

The decision to add laundry production to the curriculum in the Big Spring High School vocational division is a step in the right direction.
 Within itself, this may help provide certain people with basic skills in a field that has a ready market for those skills. In the end, society will be served from both sides — in the performance of a needed service and in the channeling of individuals into productive jobs.
 We use the term "in the right direction," for we are persuaded that the role of vocation training will become increasingly important. This means that it is too important to confine even to the vocational division of our comprehensive high school. On the contrary, one of the next great thrusts could or should be in the direction of applying subject matter on vocational levels for certain segments of the academic enrollment. For those bucking handicaps of background or mental capacity, hope for a place on the economic ladder depends more on application of knowledge than upon the disciplines of learning.

David Lawrence List For A Day Of Prayer

WASHINGTON — A different kind of "moratorium" would provide a better understanding of American purpose in Vietnam as well as its relationship to peoples in other parts of the world — a "moratorium" on bitterness and hate, on greed and selfishness, and on the activities of those small groups which are responsible for the acts of aggression which lead to wars. The "moratorium" could be well expressed by the American people in a day of prayer. It could encourage the peoples of other lands to do the same.

THE DAY of prayer might include a broad list of themes, among which are the following:

1. A prayer for the helpless people in North Vietnam, who are manipulated by selfish and cruel leaders.
2. A prayer for the peoples of Red China, who are being deprived of freedom and of a decent standard of living through the misguided attitudes of their self-chosen leaders.
3. A prayer for the peoples of the Soviet Union, who, after having undergone in World War I and World War II enormous sacrifices involving many millions of lives, still are being subjected to the same tyranny as in the past.
4. A PRAYER for the peoples of South Vietnam, Japan, Formosa, South Korea, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines and the countries of Southeast Asia, who live under a constant threat of the nuclear power of the Red Chinese autocracy in Peking.
5. A prayer for the peoples of all of Europe, who face today the menace of destruction by the nuclear weapons of Russia.

Billy Graham

I don't understand the following Bible quotation: "Whoever shall break one of these least commandments shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven, but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven."
 T. D. The Scriptures teach that there will be degrees in Heaven whether you want to call them good, better or best. One thing is certain and that is that after our "conversion" to Christ we are to lay up treasures in Heaven. The Apostle Peter talked about those who would have an "abundant entrance" into the Kingdom of God. The Apostle Paul speaks of a class of persons who are going to be "saved yet so as by fire." However, the fact that we are children of God and justified by faith in Christ does not mean that one can be "more or less" saved nor that God is still holding our sins against us. The word "justify" means that they are not only forgiven but that God remembers them against us no more. The Bible teaches that there will be a judgment seat where we will be judged on the basis of our works. Thus each of us should live every day with the judgment seat of Christ in view.

Her Exercise Doesn't Cost A Cent

By JOY STILEY
 (Substituting for Hal Boyle)
 NEW YORK (AP) — Once upon a time the only equipment needed for exercising was muscles. If a fellow really wanted to be ostentatious about his efforts to switch from a 96-pound weakling into Mr. America, he could buy a set of barbells.

But today it requires gadgets galore to stay slim, trim and full of vim. And department stores, sporting goods emporiums and mail order houses are willing to supply them.

If you want to start simply, there's a little board that swivels on your twist away those extra pounds. It costs only $5.99 but you have to supply your own music.

For $7.99 you can get a small wheel with a couple of handles on either end. Get down on your knees, hang onto the hand grips and roll away those rolls of flesh around your waist.

If you're not a do-it-yourselfer, by paying a bit more you can get another handy little item for firming up those midriff muscles. A weighted belt for $19.99 is supposed to do the job for you, with no more effort on your part than fastening it on.

For the businessman who has been on a treadmill all day, the "executive jogger" is just the thing to make him feel at home — at home. He can jog away for hours on a bouncy pad with springs inside and never get anywhere.

Another method of expending a lot of effort while staying in the same place is an exercise bike—with adjustable seat and handlebars, pedals and a speedometer to measure the distance you haven't gone.

Even after you've stocked up on these gymnastic gismos, there are other things to spend your money on. A plastic suit that seals in body heat so that you lose pounds while you exercise costs $5.99. It's really a bargain, though, because one size fits all so you don't have to buy his and hers outfits.

And the outdoor jogger who actually piles up the miles when he runs doesn't get off free. For him there are jogging suits of varied colors, with matching sneakers.

My exercise, however, doesn't cost me a cent. I get all I want just running for revolving doors so I can go through on someone else's push.

The Man-Killing Price Of Success

NEW YORK (AP) — Some of the bright young executives of the soaring 1960s may have burnt themselves out in the competitive scramble, and are now biologically alive but psychologically dying and unable to compete in the 70s.

This is the conclusion of Dr. Eugene Jennings, professor, management consultant and personal adviser to executives. "The affluence of the 60s," he said the other day, "was achieved at a considerable human cost."

Jennings has noted the appearance in growing numbers of "short cycle winners" and terms them subclinically sick. "They suffer from energy fatigue and, unable to recoup, plug away but with little success."

The major cause of energy fatigue is years of doing unpleasant jobs, forcing the body forward as if it were a machine. And the symptoms generally are associated with "an over-subscription to security equivalents."

What brought these executives to their sorry condition? "The opportunity to go to the top by dint of effort and skill was too great to restrain," Jennings believes. "They over-invested energy during the climb and now, near the top, have no reserve fuel with which to live up to their reputations."

For a time they can hide their impotence by delegating authority. They build strong subordinate staffs. They sit back and become big shots.

"The fact of the matter is," Jennings said, "that they use a legitimate management responsibility—the need for a strong staff—to protect their weakness. But when a crisis occurs they don't have the energy reserve to play it cool. They blow up."

Jennings, who advises both corporations on their personal situations and individuals on their personal careers, has advice for both.

—For the corporation: Take a careful look before hiring an outsider or promoting from within a man whose mobility is ahead of his age group. He could be a worn out thoroughbred who has come to rest and repose.

—For the individual: A new career or at least a sabbatical. Since this is often impossible for financially insecure executives, the more realistic answer lies in priority living.

To Your Good Health Where Does A Fallen Stomach Go?

By G. C. THOSTESON, M.D.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am told I have a fallen stomach. Where does it fall from, and where does it fall to? Also does one need to be on a diet? I am elderly, and very, very constipated. Can you help me? — E.D.J.

Chances are that you are too much alarmed by the words "fallen stomach." It sounds ominous but as a rule isn't.

The stomach, bowel, and some of our other possessions have no bone structure. They are pliable, flexible organs, as is necessary. They are held in place by a type of tissue called mesentery, which contains strong fibrous material. They are supported also by fat and by other organs.

The stomach normally is under your lower rib margin, but it can sag (or "fall") in lean and elderly folks. With age, the supporting tissues become relaxed, and a good many of us also lose fatty tissue, too.

So the stomach can "fall" lower than it used to be. Maybe "droop" would be a better word, because this is a gradual, slow process. The stomach may sag to about the level of the navel.

This doesn't necessarily cause any symptoms or trouble, and if there are no symptoms, forget about the whole thing. No diet necessary.

Your constipation, however, may be another matter. It does bother you, evidently.

The cause may well be a similar sagging, but involving the colon, or bowel.

For the constipation, diet can help you: more bulk (vegetables, fruits, indeed, more food in general but mainly the ones that leave more waste, such as vegetable fibers), more fluids, which are very helpful as a rule for anyone with constipation, prunes or prune juice, for the gentle laxative action.

Returning again to the "fallen stomach," if it bothers you in any way, a firm girdle gives added support, and adding a little weight, if you are lean, as I rather presume you are, will help.

But mainly keep in mind that this is not a serious problem. As a physician, I want you to be comfortable and untroubled, but I am not worrying that a "fallen stomach" is endangering your general health, because it isn't.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Here is a little encouragement for the younger of 58 who complains of being ridiculed for riding a bicycle. I am 81 and have been riding a bike since I was nine. I am going to treat myself to a new bike for my 90th birthday. Let 'em laugh! — E.W.A.

much more sensitive than jogging. Jogging is fine for those who get in condition for it gradually, but too many people do not get in condition, and wind up with foot damage and sometimes even fractures.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I want my 12-year-old daughter to take voice lessons. She wants to, too. I have been told by someone that her vocal cords aren't completely developed yet and it would be too much strain on her. Is she too young? — Mrs. W.E.

I have never heard of any good reason for a young girl (or boy) not to take voice lessons. They sing in school; in church choirs; they holler and scream.

I've never heard of any damage from that, and can see even less reason to think that voice lessons would be harmful.

True, excessive use of the voice in adults who have to give many speeches may cause some temporary hoarseness, but that subsides with rest.

What about constipation? Many can be relieved of it, both mentally and physically, by reading the booklet, "The Way To Stop Constipation." For a copy write to Dr. Thosteson in care of The Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and 25 cents in coin to cover printing and handling.

Around The Rim

Rabbits Fall Prey To Owls

One thing and another: Jay Blankenship, who operates a greyhound racing course southwest of Garden City, says he has been losing about two rabbits nightly, not to snakes or four-legged varmints but to owls.

The owls will swoop down on the pens after nightfall, gut the rabbits with their sharp claws, feast on the remains and then depart the premises until the next night. Maybe the feathered creatures are working in relays.

Blankenship has tried setting aerial traps for the birds but, so far, no success.

He has dispatched a bobcat and two foxes who have been attracted to the scene.

Live rabbits are used to train the greyhounds and Blankenship catches them with the aid of a pickup truck and a net.

Signs of our times: The Mid-Pacific Road Runners Club in Hawaii has let one and all know it will seek out a new site for next year's six-mile race. This year's event was called off a mile from the finish when the lead runner was beaten up by three local toughs.

Now that Lamar Hunt has been kicked around by Northern Californians who sneered at his suggestion that Alcatraz Island be beautified and opened to the public, one would think he'd bring his money back to Texas and try to do something for his home state.

There is a colony of Californians who resent anything that smacks of Texas, perhaps because so many one-time residents of this area have migrated either to Southern or Northern California.

Have you heard about that airline which was so cheap that it had its pilots buzz drive-in movies for the entertainment of its customers?

And how about that novelist who got the idea for his second novel by watching the movie version of his first one?

The Catholics and the Protestants haven't been hitting it off very well in some parts of the world.

One Irishman allowed as how he'd rather die than be buried in a Protestant cemetery.

Burleson Reports

Outlaw One-Fourth Of World

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Communist China is now celebrating its 20th anniversary under the totalitarian rule of Mao Tse-tung. China holds about one-fourth of all mankind or approximately 750 to 850 million people. It covers an area twice the size of the United States.

THROUGHOUT THE centuries the potential of this vast land has been referred to as "the sleeping Giant." During these same centuries China's neighbors have feared her awaking. In remote history the fear of marauding war-lords against their neighbors was well-founded. Genghis Khan set out to conquer all that remained in front of him.

Evidently the same mentality pervades the present Chinese rulers. It is made clear by their motto that "political power grows from the barrel of a gun." Lin Piao, the man who compares to our Secretary of Defense, has said that the way to Paris and the Western World is through Southeast Asia and Africa. This is the China which forments revolutions, threatens the territory of her neighbors, even that of its fellow Communist, Soviet Russia, and who says its power shall some day dominate the world. She refuses all overtures of peace extended by other nations including fellow Communists.

(Reports during the past few days indicate some agreement for talks between China and Russia on their border dispute, but just how significant it may be is not presently known.)

ALTHOUGH STILL A fragmented country by standards of the Western World, knowledgeable statesmen everywhere have for years viewed the Chinese as a dilemma without penetrable understanding. Some have been inclined to look at the country as barely civilized. Her handicaps can be counted by the score — the many clans and groupings who are strangers to one another; the 150 different dialects; numerous and varied religions; the untold multiplied thousands who have no idea of a national political system, including communism; who have never been farther than an hour's walk from where they, their parents and grandparents were born; have never seen a doctor and whose main interest is where they can find food from day to day.

THE GREAT WALL of ancient China was to keep enemies out. The impenetrable wall around the ordinary people of this land is far more formidable against contact from people of other countries who might tell them what their nation could accomplish without the yoke of totalitarian communism around their neck. It is difficult enough to get any sort of convincing message of this kind of Communist nations in Eastern Europe where, by comparison the opportunity is much greater. In such a diverse country as mainland China, with barriers in language and communications, it appears impossible. The refusal of the Communist hierarchy to respond in any way except belligerently, completes the dilemma for people who hope for a future of peace.

TEEMING MILLIONS of Chinese people probably never heard of nuclear weapons but a hydrogen bomb was exploded in their country a few days ago and celebrated widely as a part of the 20th Anniversary of the Communist rule. This is the nation which more and more raises grave concerns in the minds of world leaders. What lies ahead for the other three-fourths of the earth when the outlaw one-fourth becomes capable of launching nuclear war?

The Withdrawal Syndrome

WASHINGTON — Gramma was the name of the boat in which Fidel Castro landed in Cuba for his invasion in 1956, and the same name is now given to the official publication of the Central Committee, Communist party of Cuba.

ON OCT. 1, the front page of Gramma featured the arrival of a Cuban airliner from Mexico. It brought to Havana 12 of the men who were sprung from jail as a price for the life of U.S. Ambassador Charles Burke Elbrick. He was abducted at Rio de Janeiro.

Fidel himself greeted the Brazilian revolutionaries who are said to be of the hard-line Che Guevara variety. He asked if there were any more back home like themselves, and they mentioned the figure of 1,500. They said they had come to Cuba not as refugees but as comrades.

FIDEL SAID they must travel in Cuba in order to learn the country. This remark is interpreted here by a section of the intelligence community as meaning that the new arrivals would take refresher courses in subversion and eventually be returned to that work in Brazil. The game of kidnap is recognized here as a tactic of Castroite Communism.

Also at the airport with Fidel was Manuel Pineiro Losada. Pineiro heads the general directorate of intelligence which directs legal (and illegal) operations within foreign communities, espionage, special training schools for guerrillas and general export of the revolution.

PINEIRO, born in Cuba, attended Columbia University, 1953-55, and met his wife, Lorna Nell Burdall, of Preston, Conn., a professional dancer and a known member of the Communist party in the USA.

Columbia University figures further in the intelligence studies. Mark Rudd, who led the campus insurrection there in the spring of 1968, is known to have been in Cuba earlier that year. He had also been in Mexico and had some association with the Brazilians, Waldimir Palmeira and Luis Travassos. These two men were aboard the plane that Castro greeted, and they were among the Brazilian guerrillas who were released in return for Ambassador Elbrick.

THE STORY gives some directional signals. The Cuban revolution, although in economic doldrums, has not subsided as a Latin American force.

The Brazilian military dictatorship, so repugnant to congressional liberals, is trying to contain Red forces which have their counterparts in other Latin American countries. President Nixon, while his world trip proved him a welcome figure in some parts of the world, probably could not safely make a personal appearance south of Mexico. He has found that Gov. Rockefeller, long a favorite among Latinos, is not very acceptable either.

There is no subject on which the President has kept a longer silence than on any policy he may have for the Western Hemisphere.

BUT IT'S impossible not to detect the same "withdrawal" syndrome in Latin America that the United States is showing in Vietnam, Thailand, Okinawa and maybe NATO. We have broken relations with Cuba and Bolivia; we have been forced to replace an ambassador in Ecuador and do not presently have one in Brazil. We are seeing our industries seized in Peru and seeing them sabotaged in Venezuela and Puerto Rico.

Unless we find the means of reversal, we may soon have to acknowledge that we're on the same track that Britain took, less than two decades ago, in the twilight of empire.

Needed Lift

DENVER, (AP) — A 20-year-old defendant in a robbery case was so hefty that when he refused to walk, it took six deputy sheriffs to carry him into District Court. Then Judge Don D. Bowman granted a continuance because the sight of the defendant being carried into the courtroom might prejudice prospective jurors. The man returned to his cell under his own power.

TRUCKS AND TRAILERS — A to Z Rental Center, 1604 Marcy Drive, has its new line of trucks and trailers ready for renting. Leland Pierce, owner and manager, said all the paper work on operating the trucks has been finished. The store also rents health equipment, party goods, floor care equipment, jacks, hoists, baby needs, lawn tools and office machines.

DAILY, WEEKLY, MONTHLY RATES A To Z Rents Most Things

"We have almost anything anyone might need," said Leland Pierce, owner and manager of A to Z Rental Center, 1604 Marcy Drive. "We can rent by the day, week or month, whichever a person prefers."

A to Z started operating early this year. Pierce, who had been manager of a local store for several years before opening his own, said the operation is not a chain store but a franchise.

"If a person needs an item more than occasionally," he said, "we can sell it to him. We prefer, however, to rent merchandise." The store is normally open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily and from 1-6 p.m. on Sunday, but from Nov. 2-6 the store will only be open from 1-6 p.m.

Pierce plans to attend an annual seminar in Chicago, whose purpose is to give dealers an opportunity to look over new merchandise and commercial items.

Pierce said his trucks and trailers are ready for renting now; all the paper work has been completed. He had had the equipment in town for a while, but couldn't rent it because much of the paper work necessary for operations hadn't been finished.

Other items the store rents include:

- health equipment: action cycles, vibrators, massage rollers, and sun and heat lamps;
- party goods: beverage equipment, chairs and tables, china and crystal, coffee makers, glassware, dinnerware, food warmers, silver service, projectors and screens, and table cloths;
- floor care equipment: polishers and scrubbers, sanders and edgers, shampooers (rug and upholstery), wet and dry vacuums, carpet stretchers, and shampoo and waxes.

- household equipment: fans and heaters, vacuums, ice cream freezers, TV sets, and phonograph players.
- electric powered tools: drills and hammers, grinders and polishers, routers and planers, sanders, and saws (circular, sabre, chain and jig).
- Jacks, hoists, plumbing equipment, contractor's equipment, generators, moving equipment, camping equipment, baby needs, garden and lawn equipment, office machines, and concrete tools can also be found at the store.

ORGAN TIME — Clyde Green, owner of White's Music Co., 1703 Gregg, plays one of the Baldwin organs his store stocks. He announced an organ month at the store until Nov. 15, with a "play or don't pay" program. Steve Holley, who teaches drums at the company, watches.

White Music Co. Gives Free Lesson With Organ

People who have always wanted to play the piano or organ now have their chance at White Music Co., 1307 Gregg.

Clyde Green, partner and manager, said the company is having organ month from Oct. 15-Nov. 15, with a "play or don't pay" program.

"We give five free lessons with the purchase of an organ," he said, "besides giving away free an $80 lesson course. If a person doesn't learn how to play, he doesn't have to buy the instrument. But we have never had anyone who couldn't learn to play at least simple melodies."

Mrs. Gail Bonner, a well-known performer and artist in the area, teaches both piano and organ.

White Music Co. features Baldwin organs, but also offers pianos, guitars, drums and mandolins. Sheet music is also available.

Green said his Baldwin organs run from $55 all the way to $4,000. They come complete with the many voices and

Says Ghana Proof Switch Is Possible

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Dr. Kofi A. Busia, the new prime minister of Ghana, says he is living proof that a country can change from military to civilian rule by democratic means.

Kwame Nkruma was ousted as Ghana's ruler by a military coup in 1966. Early this fall, Busia's political party won 104 of 140 seats in Ghana's parliament and on Oct. 1 the military government handed Busia a new constitution as the symbol of the transfer of power from the military to civilian authorities.

Backers Fight To Save Club

CHICAGO (AP) — Representatives from Seattle will meet with American League President Joe Cronin Monday night to plead their case to save the Pilots' baseball franchise.

Seattle Mayor Floyd Miller last week asked for a meeting with Cronin "to tell the Seattle story" before American League owners meet Tuesday, presumably to discuss the Pilots' baseball problems.

Poor attendance and the condition of remodeled Sicks' stadium — being used as an interim facility — have placed the Pilots on shaky ground. The Pilots drew 680,000 in their first year.

A proposed $40 million domed stadium in Seattle Center has met with opposition from citizen groups.

Miller, who has invited Sen. Warren G. Magnuson and Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., to send representatives to the meeting with Cronin, is convinced Seattle can support a major league baseball team.

Dewey Soriano, president of the Seattle Pilots, recently told reporters he is "not optimistic" about the chances of the Pilots' franchise being in Seattle for the 1970 season.

Williams Leader By Single Shot

Marvin Williams, Hack Spivey, Hershel Harris, Dick Nichols, James Tidwell and Howard Stewart are flight leaders after the first 18 holes of competition in the annual Big Spring Golf Association's Grand tournament, which was completed Sunday at the Munny course.

Williams fired a 73 scratch score in the first flight and used his two stroke handicap for a net of 71. He leads Bill Batton, who benefits from a six-stroke handicap, by a single shot. Third is Bob Waters, who has only a stroke handicap and who is in at 73.

Spivey had a gross score of 81. With his six-stroke handicap he is in at 73 to lead the second flight.

Harris, who has a 15-stroke handicap, used it for a net of 72 to lead the Third Flight.

Nichols and Tidwell are deadlocked for the lead in the Fourth Flight, each with a net

Nicklaus, who has won this particular tournament four times in the last seven years, lipped: "I only need to win a couple more to get even with the (gambling) tables."

The powerful, golden-haired Nicklaus hadn't won since the San Diego Open early this year and has been on a diet for the last three weeks, dropping 15 pounds from his usual playing weight of 210.

Jack trailed Beard by one stroke going into the final round, but caught him on the first hole, chipping within six feet and canning the putt.

Homecoming Rites Set

GARDEN CITY — Identity of the Garden City Football Queen and Mr. Bearkat will be revealed during hall time ceremonies of the Garden City-Gall District 3-B football game Friday night.

Kickoff time of the contest itself will be 7:30 p.m.

Both teams are still in contention for the conference championship. Garden City made a strong comeback against Sterling City to win last week after losing its opener to Loop.

The Senior Class at Garden City will serve a chicken supper for those attending Homecoming ceremonies, starting at 5:30 p.m. Adults will pay $1.50 for the meal, students $1. The supper will be served in the High School Cafeteria.

Rams Come Off Well In Green Bay Test

By The Associated Press

Bruce Gossett kicked two field goals for the Los Angeles Rams, but it's the one he didn't try that really put the boot to the Green Bay Packers.

Los Angeles had the ball on the Green Bay 11-yard line Sunday with six seconds left in the first half—in position for an almost certain three points for a kicker of Gossett's ability.

So, quarterback Roman Gabriel snuffed a field goal try and whipped a touchdown pass to Wendell Tucker, which gave the Rams a 27-14 lead on route to a 34-21 National Football League victory.

The victory gave the Coast Division-leading Rams a 5-0 mark, and knocked Green Bay, 3-2, out of a first-place tie with Minnesota in the Central Division.

Despite Miseries, Morton On Beam

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — His 16, and 15 yards to Lance Rentzel; 67-yards to Bob Hayes; and 31-yards to Pettis Norman. Morton hit 13 of 19 passes for 247 yards.

The NFL's No. 1 passer was pulled out of the game by Lantry with 6:56 remaining in the third period. Dallas remains undefeated in the Capitol Division with a 5-0 record. The Eagles are 1-4.

Morton said "The Eagles were very effective last week against Baltimore. We expected they would be trying some of the same formations against us. Sure enough, they came with a blitzing defense, but we jarred them out of it when we happened to hit on the right plays."

Dallas piled up a 42-7 halftime lead and was ahead 28-7 after the first quarter.

Morton tied a club record with 10 completions in a row and the five TD tosses. Rentzel also tied a club mark with the three scoring receptions.

Daryle Lamonica Shines In Victory Over Bills

By The Associated Press

Daryle Lamonica, pilot of Oakland's Magnificent Flying Machine, pulled the trigger Sunday ... and it was bombs away on Buffalo.

The sharp-shooting quarterback fired six touchdown passes in the first half as the Western Division-leading Raiders buried the Bills, 50-21, in the American Football League.

Lamonica's six scoring strikes left him one short of the AFL record, but it didn't bother him. "I don't think about things like that," he said. "When I'm out there I'm in a world of my own—and the only thing I think about is winning."

George Blanda, Lamonica's backup man, set the AFL record in 1961 with Houston.

In other AFL action Sunday, Kansas City kept right behind Oakland in the wild west race by beating Miami, 17-10; Denver clipped rookie-studded Cincinnati 30-23, and San Diego pulled out a 13-10 victory over winless Boston. Houston and New York, co-leaders in the East, clash tonight in New York.

Before being hoisted for replacement Blanda in the fourth period, Lamonica completed 21 of 36 passes for 313 yards and one interception. He went to work early and, with the help of four Buffalo fumbles and an intercepted pass, kept the heat on

HONEY-BLONDE PROF ATTRACTS

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — At science-minded California Institute of Technology, a 26-year-old English professor attracts more attention than some of the world's most famous physicists.

Jenjoy LaBelle is the first woman to join the faculty at the traditionally all-male school.

"I am very happy to be a Caltech professor," said Dr. LaBelle, a pert honey-blonde. "As to being the first woman professor, that is a derivative pleasure. I consider myself primarily a professor and only coincidentally a novelty."

Caltech also admits undergraduate women for the first time this year.

In a school where students care more about molecules than Moliere, Dr. LaBelle's classes on literary masterpieces and tragedy and comedy have standing-room-only attendance.

MOTHER AND GRANDMOTHER THE SAME DAY — Mrs. Lloyd Jewell, 41, holds her son, Timothy, left, and her grandson, Larry, right, both born Oct. 14 in different Columbus, Ohio, hospitals, to become a mother and grandmother on the same day. Her son, Billy, 22, father of Larry, smokes a cigar for the picture occasion in Columbus. It was Mrs. Jewell's ninth child. It was the second child for Billy and his wife, Charlotte. All of the family are originally from Williamson, W. Va.

Police Continue Extortion Probe

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Police today continued to probe the extortion of a day's receipts from a department store executive whose wife and two young daughters were threatened.

A college student and his coed girlfriend, both 21, were questioned in the case and released.

Bill R. Bishop, 30, assistant manager of a Globe department store here, said an extortion note ordered him to fill a bag with the day's receipts Saturday and place it in a garbage can.

The note demanded that he follow instructions "if you want to see your wife and children again."

The money was not immediately recovered. Bishop later learned that his family was never contacted by the extortionists.

Bishop said he found the note on his car windshield when he closed the store for the night. As instructed, he filled the bag with money. While in the store he tried to call police but the phone went dead.

Another note told him to drive to an intersection and put the money in a garbage can, which he did. There he spotted a fleeing car and wrote down the license number.

The college student and his girlfriend were arrested after Bishop gave police the license number.

Neither police nor store officials would say how much money was lost.

Says Russia Not Anxious For Another Mideast War

DALLAS (AP)—Russia is not anxious for another Mideast war but its attitude is stalling talks between Israel and the Arab countries, a Jewish group was told Sunday in Dallas.

Herman Edelsberg of Washington, director of the B'nai B'rith International Council, spoke to the organization's regional conference on Jewish issues.

Edelsberg said another Mideast war is not likely because Russia would have to give its consent and "the Kremlin is constantly mindful of its own peril in a confrontation with the West."

He said Soviet leaders also believe their Arab clients would also lose.

But Edelsberg said the Soviet policy of "keeping the Middle East pot simmering but not boiling over" also puts off an Arab-Israeli settlement.

"The Kremlin design is to encourage tension and frictions so that the Arab states will become increasingly dependent on Soviet military, economic and political support."

Because of this, he said, there is little hope talks between the United States and Russia will result in peace in the Middle East.

Cattle Feeding Has Boomed

"In less than one decade, the cattle feeding industry of Texas has grown from a supplementary agricultural enterprise to a billion dollar a year industry because the resources of climate, feeder cattle and feed grains were available in the region; also resulted because individuals were willing to risk their energies and capital in an enterprise to combine these resources into a productive industry," said Jack Carrothers, president of the Texas Cattle Feeders Association, speaking at a special press conference in Amarillo.

"We estimate that during 1969, Texas cattle feeders will feed 2.7 million head of cattle and the 1970 feeding volume will be approximately 3.5 million head," he added.

"Ration costs are the major cost in a feedyard operation and feed grains represent approximately 75 per cent of a total ration and if their prices rise substantially, it will cut back feeding operations, according to Carrothers. He said a $2.30 per cent grain cost, or 15 per cent more than current levels, would put feeding in a non-competitive position. Feeding operations now require about 7.3 billion pounds of feed grain.

DEAR ABBY: That letter from the wife of a prominent newscaster — and your answer — stopped me cold.

She complained because so many lady viewers "fell in love" with her husband, and they wrote him "love letters" and even asked to meet him "anywhere — anytime." She asked you what kind of woman could "fall in love" with a television personality? You replied, "Probably one with a ten-year-old mentality who has nothing better to do all day than to watch television."

I'm not so sure I agree with you. There is a certain newscaster who turns me on. Loving him from a distance has its rewards. Just think of all the trouble we will avert if we never meet? Oh, Eric . . . where are you?

WILMA
DEAR WILMA: I think I know. He's with his wife. (Pity!)

DEAR ABBY: I am 27 and my husband is 25. I never realized how immature he was until he returned recently from a year in Vietnam. He was there in a very safe capacity. In fact he never once fired a gun.

While he was gone I gained 40 pounds. When he saw me he hit the ceiling and gave me an ultimatum. I have to lose 15 pounds in one week and the entire 40 pounds in a month or else he moves out and files for a divorce. Don't you think that is a little extreme?

I might add that I gained all this weight right after my mother died. She was an invalid for many years and I took complete care of her.

MAD IN MASS.
DEAR MAD: Attempting to lose 40 pounds in one month is unwise and dangerous. Get a checkup and a sensible diet from your doctor and try to lose at a reasonable rate. Then you give your husband an ultimatum. Tell him you're doing the best you can and if that's not good enough he had better come up with a better excuse to dump you.

DEAR ABBY: I have a boy who is cheeky to me and will not do as he is told. I have tried smacking him and sending him to bed, and even making him do without things, which

Wants None Of Ogling At Nuns

ANTIGUA, B.W.I. (AP) — A Roman Catholic priest says nuns wearing new abbreviated costumes are being ogled and whistled at and they should put a stop to it by returning to their habits.

The Rev. Vincent Samuel told the nuns in a sermon they "will suffer the same problems other women suffer" if they switch from traditional dress to the new cooler costumes allowed by the Vatican.

Not long ago, Father Samuel said young women who wear miniskirts to Mass overexpose their bodies and distract young men from the solemnities.

THE OBITUARY WAS A HOAX

WOMBOURN, England (AP) — A newspaper obituary said Gertrude Thomas was dead. Her mother, 67-year-old Alice McDermott, read the notice, had a heart attack and died three days later.

The obituary was a hoax. Mrs. Thomas, alive and well, said: "Whoever put that notice in the paper killed my mother. It is almost murder."

Detectives discovered the notice was telephoned to the paper by a man who asked that the bill for the announcement be sent to the Thomas family.
