NO BIG SPRING COURT ACTION EXPECTED SOON, MERCHANTS STAY OPEN

'Wait And See' Attitude Adopted On Sunday Closings

By TERRY HOPKINS
Last week's ruling by the Texas Supreme Court which upheld as constitutional a "blue law" allowing the sale of only food and medicine on Sunday, has caused a general attitude of "wait and see" among Big Spring law enforcement officials and merchants alike.

Most stores that have been open on Sunday report that they will be open as long as their competitors are, or until a court order forces their doors closed.

Local court action seems doubtful, for a while at least, for law enforcement officials have also taken a "wait and see" stand, stating they'll "wait" to "see" the court's decision which probably won't be available for about a month.

The district attorney in Dallas, Henry Wade, went on record Wednesday stating that he will uphold the Sunday closing law in his area, but District Attorney Wayne Burns said the law does not come under the district attorney's jurisdiction in Big Spring.

"The DA in Dallas acts as the county attorney also," said Burns, "and as a state law which carries a possible jail term, it falls under the county's jurisdiction, not the district."

County Attorney Bill Eysen said he has not read the Supreme Court's decision, and that before making any statements on enforcing the law, he would need to study the decision.

"I can't sign a complaint anyway," he added, "so a private citizen would have to make a complaint before I could do anything about it." He added, however, that if someone did file a complaint, it probably would be filed.

"I feel this matter will not end with this decision," Eysen said. "In all likelihood, it will go to the U.S. Supreme Court." He explained that as a question of constitutionality, it does have the right to be considered by the highest court in the nation.

"It's very difficult to legislate behavior which is usually considered legal," Eysen said. "That's why prohibition failed."

City Manager Larry Crow said he has discussed the matter with Chief of Police J. C. Banks and that they are watching with interest the developments in other cities. He added that so far no one has approached them about the law.

Chief Banks said it isn't his decision and that he is referring people with questions to the district attorney.

"We'll enforce whatever is necessary though," Banks said. "The city attorney will interpret the ruling as to what our policies will be locally, and of course the city commission will have something to say about it, too."

City Attorney Herbert Prouty said it is a complex law and difficult to interpret.

"We'll do what we can to enforce it," he said. "We'll enforce the law because it is the law." But he added he would like to read the court's decision first, especially to see if there are any guidelines as to how to enforce it.

C. G. Evans, manager at Newsom's Food Center, said Friday that his store would probably use crepe paper to block off non-food items on Sunday. He added that only four or five per cent of his Sunday sales are in items other than food anyway.

But on Saturday he said the store will remain open on Sunday with all its items for sale until other stores in town close down or a court decision is made locally.

"We're going to try to serve our customers so they can shop on Sunday," was the comment from Gibson's manager, Warren

Chorn, and he added that the store will be open today. He said he has not heard from authorities of the Gibson chain of stores, and that until he does, his store will be open.

James L. Zhigray, of Cook's Discount Store, said as far as he knows, the law is not being enforced anywhere and that until he hears from company officials, he'll also be open on Sunday.

"Until I hear from someone to the contrary, I can't do anything different than I have been," he said, and added that if he got a court order, he would close the store on Sunday.

The manager at College Park's TG&Y Family Center, Jim Gray, said he'd like to close and will abide by the law, but that if his competition is open, he will be too.

"I have a crew coming in today," he said, "and if the other stores don't open, neither will I. There's plenty of work for them to do even if we don't open."

Gray added that this question came up two years ago when he was working in Odessa and that at that time they closed the TG&Y store and kept it closed until competition forced them to open again.

Manager Tom Merrill, Highland Shopping Center's TG&Y store, said he'll definitely go along with what the town does, but that as of right now, he doesn't have any information as to what the town will do.

THIS AFTERNOON Dedication For Forsan's Post Office

A new post office is being dedicated in Forsan today, and honored guests at the ceremony include the postmaster of the old office, which was Forsan's one and only until now, Mrs. Vera Harris.

The dedication ceremony will start at 1:30 p.m. with Supt. H. D. Smith presiding. The flag to be flown over the new $11,000 building which has flown over the capitol building in Washington, D.C., was sent by Senator John Tower.

Other honored guests expected to attend the ceremony include E. I. Fisher, postal service officer, Abilene; C. J. Lamb, mayor of Forsan; Frank Hardesty, postmaster, Big Spring; and Edward L. Engel, officer in charge of the new post office.

Thursday was the first day of business for the new post office, and nearly 80 of the 144 key-lock type boxes were rented out the first day.

RELATED STORY ON PAGE 1-D

The new building is owned by Wallace L. Boulton, San Antonio, who leases it to the federal government. It cost about $11,000 to build and Boulton paid $400 for the 35 by 70-foot lot where it is located.

Engel, officer in charge, explained that the new building is part of a lease construction program of the postal department which allows the facilities to remain under private ownership and be leased to the federal government, thus reducing the need for large money outlays from the treasury.

The Forsan post office is rated third-class, with 788 square feet of work space. It has been approved for three employees but there are just two working there now: Engel and Mrs. Alma Rose Murphy, Forsan, clerk.

The old post office building still belongs to Mrs. Vera Harris. It was opened in 1929 with Mrs. Gladys Arnold as postmaster. Mrs. Harris took over the post in 1933 and served until her retirement in 1968. Mrs. Audrey Birdwell was postmaster until April of this year when Engel, from Big Spring, took over as officer in charge.

MORE THAN 5,000 POPPIES were exchanged for nearly $900 in donations Saturday in Big Spring, to benefit American veterans. Sisters Armanda (left) and Earline Williams are making donations to get a poppy from Alan Hill here. They were just three persons who helped to make this Poppy Day one of the best ever, according to Mrs. Halvard Hansen, chairman of the annual event. Proceeds will be used for scholarships and to distribute baskets of food to needy veterans' families during the holidays, said Mrs. Hansen.

Youth Admits Killing Man In Post Area

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Houston police are holding an 18-year-old youth whom they quote as saying he killed a man while hitchhiking between Lubbock and Abilene.

The youth, who told officers he was an AWOL Marine, was quoted as saying he killed Jake Sellers, 70, a retired city employee of Abilene, and dumped his body on a side road between Post and Snyder.

However, law enforcement agencies had not located the body by sundown Friday. Homicide detectives said the youth gave this account of the murder:

After going AWOL from the Marine Corps Automated Service Center in Kansas City, Mo., earlier in the week, he bought a train ticket to the Texas Panhandle and believes he got off in Pampa. Out of money, he hitchhiked to Lubbock.

Delegate Rank Seen As Indication Of Sincerity

WASHINGTON (AP)—Moscow has named a high-ranking chief delegate for the U.S.-Soviet missile-curb talks in a move seen here as further evidence of that the Kremlin has serious intentions about the long-awaited negotiations.

The head of the Soviet negotiating team at the forthcoming preliminary discussions at Helsinki, Ambassador Anatoly F. Dobrynin said, will be Vladimir S. Semenov, a deputy foreign minister.

Semenov holds about the same relative rank in the Soviet hierarchy as Gerald O. Smith, director of the U.S. Disarmament Agency, who will lead the American negotiators at the super-power talks starting in the Finnish capital Nov. 17.

U.S. authorities had speculated that the Soviets might name senior deputy foreign minister

On Wednesday, he was hitchhiking from Lubbock to Abilene when he caught a ride with Sellers outside of Lubbock.

He said they drove into a range of mountains and he asked Sellers if he could stop to take a picture.

When they did, he allegedly shot Sellers three times with one of several pistols he had taken from the Marine Corps center.

Police said they found a pistol on him. After Sellers was shot, he drove the car to a side road, dumped the body, and took Sellers' wallet containing credit cards and $22.

He then drove to Abilene where he used a credit card to buy some articles from a Sears and Roebuck store there. He then headed for Corpus Christi, arriving in the city early Thursday.

He drove around until daylight and later wound up in Robstown, he told police. There he parked the car, wiped his finger prints from it and boarded a bus for Houston. The car has been found in Robstown.

He arrived in Houston late Thursday and spent Friday looking for work.

On Saturday morning, he again went to a Sears store and tried to purchase a television set, which he planned on pawning.

Sears personnel became suspicious and ran a check on the credit card. They then notified police and held him until they arrived.

The youth faces two charges of forgery in Houston and similar charges in Abilene.

The youth told police he joined the Marines in April and was assigned to Kansas City. Some time during September, he broke into a library at Olathe Naval Air Station, he said. He was caught and restricted to the base.

Dr. Charles Warren Named Outstanding Young Texan

Dr. Charles O. Warren, a lifelong Big Springer and named the city's outstanding young man in 1968, will be one of the five to receive the 1969 Outstanding Young Texans award at the annual Texas Jaycees meeting Saturday at Irving.

The other four are William A. Puett Jr., Jack C. Ogg, Robert H. Power and Marshall B. Peters.

The awards are given by the Texas Jaycees to men between 21 and 36 to recognize their service to their communities, profession and fellow men.

Warren, a dentist in Big Spring, offers his services as a dentist to indigent persons in many parts of the world. In 1967, he spent one month on the island of Madagascar attending to the dental needs of the poor people on the island.

Warren, reared in Big Spring and Howard County, graduated from Howard County Junior College, where he starred on the basketball team, before going to the University of Texas on a basketball scholarship. He graduated from the university's dental school and returned to Big Spring in 1961.

DR. CHARLES O. WARREN

board of directors of the Kiwanis Club. Since returning to Big Spring, Dr. Warren has made himself active in the community. He is manager of Big Spring's Little League Cardinals, director of the YMCA, coach for the Park Hill basketball team, and a worker at the Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center. He is also a deacon at the First Baptist Church and superintendent of the college age Sunday School department, and was formerly president of the local camp of Gideons International.

Warren is also a member of the Texas Dental Association and the American Dental Association.

Warren and his wife, the former Miss Shirley Riddle, have four children, Mike, Mark, Matt and Lisa. They live at 905 Mountain Park.

Puett of Temple is a member of the Temple Planning Commission. He presented the commission a summary of long-range projects including airport improvement, municipal swimming pool, and a new civic center.

State Rep. Ogg of Houston wrote 73 bills, 50 of which became law. These include pioneer legislation on heart transplants.

Power is mayor of Irving. Under his leadership, a mid-cities organization has been formed in the area of the new North Texas Regional Airport to guarantee the orderly progress of the airport and its adjacent communities.

Peters is president of City National Bank in Bryan. While he has been president of the bank, deposits have risen from $6 million to $22 million with earnings per share going from 32 cents to $1.98.

Reviewing the . . . Big Spring Week . . . with Joe Pickle

That first killing frost wasn't really one for the most part. Monday morning brought a heavy coating of frost (and Tuesday a fair amount), but it did little more than tinge the cotton. Otherwise it killed only a few of the tenderest plants, and as one old timer noted: "When it doesn't kill tomatoes, it ain't no killin' frost." Farmers, anxious for defoliation, would just as soon we had a sure-nuf freeze. So would the hay fever sufferers.

This must be area post office day. Separate ceremonies are set for this afternoon, one at Forsan where a new home is being dedicated for that south Howard County office, and at Lamesa where a new federal building will be dedicated by Congressman George Mahon.

Howard County has, for the time, divested itself of two guests of its bastille. With the granting of a change of venue, Bobby Randall Crain, 23, (See THE WEEK, Page 8-A, Col. 7)

FLAGS FOR SALE — The Permian Basin Chapter of the Noncommissioned Officers Association is delivering and mounting flags for Big Spring residents to help promote Old Glory. Master Sgt. Raymond White has helped install a flag for Mrs. Roger Coffman and her daughter, LaGienna.

NCOs Urge All To Display Flag

The Permian Chapter of the Noncommissioned Officers Association is currently offering American flags for sale ($3.25), according to T. Sgt. Lee Hutchinson, chairman of the board.

The flags, which will be delivered and mounted anywhere in Big Spring, measure three by five feet, are made of thorubunting with sewn stripes, and have a two-piece six-foot pole.

"The Permian Chapter believes there should be a wider display of our national emblem," Sgt. Hutchinson said. "With Veterans Day approaching, what greater honor can we bestow upon them than for each one to display this fabric, for which every veteran has given a period of his life, some for their very life."

"This Nov. 11 let's honor all those brave veterans who have fallen protecting us and all those veterans of past and present who must now protect America's honor and dignity."

"The flying of the American flag will not solve problems confronting our nation, nor will it wipe out the war in Vietnam; but combining in the effort of

Program For Veterans Day To Be Held At VA Hospital

Veterans Day, Tuesday, will honor all Americans who have served in the military to protect the democratic way of life. There are more than 27 million living veterans of the 38 million who have served in all the nation's wars. Veterans this year range from the youngest soldier back from Vietnam to a couple of soldiers who fought in the American Indian Wars.

The VA Hospital here will be host for Veterans Day ceremonies Tuesday at 10 a.m. The public is invited to attend the ceremonies.

Guest speaker will be Robert (Jack) Cook, local businessman, who flew the "hump" between India, Burma and China during World War II. Participating in the program in front of the VA Hospital will be the Big Spring High School band, a color guard from Webb AFB, and commanders of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Disabled American Veterans and World War I Barracks. Jack Powell, hospital director, will serve as master of ceremonies. Gold Star Mothers and their husbands will be honored guests.

Veterans Day came into being

June 1, 1954 when Armistice Day Nov. 11 was changed in name to honor all veterans of all wars fought by Americans. Armistice Day, 1918, was to have been the day that ended "The War to End All Wars." That day became a national holiday in 1938. In 1921, the United States followed its allies' example and buried an unknown American soldier at Arlington National Cemetery. France's unknown soldier is buried at the Arc de Triumph, and England's is buried at Westminster Abbey.

In 1958, two more unidentified American war dead were brought to Arlington. One was killed in World War II, the other in the Korean Conflict. To honor the three, symbolic of all Americans who gave their lives, the U.S. Army honor guard keeps day and night vigil. The tribute honors the more than one million who have died in all American wars. This includes the 4,000 who died in the Revolutionary War and the 12,000 who have died during the Vietnam Conflict.

At 11 a.m. every November 11, a combined color guard representing all military services, presents arms at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. The nation's tribute to its war dead is symbolized by the placement of the Presidential wreath as a bugler plays taps. Six flaming torches are carried down an aisle by military representatives of six embassies and presented to representatives of American veterans organizations as a symbol of veterans of the free world.

AFA To Elect Officers Thursday

The quarterly meeting of the Air Force Association will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Big Spring Country Club, and the program will feature a NASA film, "The Eagle Has Landed," about the Apollo 11 moon landing.

New officers will be elected and installed. The nominating committee has selected the following men for consideration, Jeff Brown, committee member, president, A. J. Statter, vice president and membership chairman, Jack Alexander, secretary, Jack Gulley, and treasurer, Tom Eastland. Outgoing officers are president, Connie Edwards; vice president, R. H. Weaver; treasurer, A. J. Statter; and secretary, John Fort Jr.

Plans for the AFA state convention, which will be held in Big Spring July, 1970, will be discussed. Brown, said. Brown and Maj. Dean Eggen are program chairmen for the convention. R. J. (Dick) Ream is convention chairman.

All AFA members and anyone interested in joining is invited to attend, Jack Alexander, present membership chairman, said.

There are about 476 members in the Big Spring AFA chapter, according to Brown. Close to 100 members are expected to attend Thursday's meeting, he added.

Preference Is The Wrong Way

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce says members of minority groups should not seek preferential treatment from society.

In an address Friday to the Commonwealth Club, Jenkin L. Jones said Negro athletes have excelled in sports because they met objective standards in fair competition. "They wouldn't be very popular if they were allowed four strikes, or given a first down on a five-yard gain," he said.

Only Federal Offices To Close Here Tuesday

Most federal offices in Big Spring will close Tuesday for Veterans Day, but other businesses will proceed as usual.

"There will be regular mail collection Tuesday," said Frank Hardesty, postmaster, "and we will box mail here at the main station. There will be no city or rural route deliveries. Most of the substations will be open, for people who need special services."

Webb AFB will observe the holiday, according to Information Officer Lt. Ted Tilma, but there will be no special ceremonies.

Otherwise city business will proceed as usual. Veterans Day is not an official city or chamber of commerce holiday, and so both city hall and most merchants plan to remain open. County Judge Lee Porter said the commissioners court has not voted the holiday, and the courthouse will conduct its usual business.

Sergeant Due Back From Viet

St. Roger J. Coffman is rejoining his wife, Myrel, 1610 Harding, this weekend, after serving in Vietnam one year. Sgt. Coffman left last Nov. 13 for Vietnam and spent his tour of duty at Tuy Hoa. He will now be stationed at Webb. Sgt. Coffman and his wife have one daughter, LaGienna, 6.

CHICAGO (AP) — Winfield Starr, 10, met a stranger who told him he was looking for a job. The youngster took him home, saying that his mother would help the stranger find a job.

When the stranger arrived at the Starr home, he pulled a pistol and robbed Mrs. Betty Starr of $45 in cash, two diamond rings valued at $200 and a typewriter. He then fled.

No Bars, But Oh Those Windows

SPARKS, Nev. (AP) — There are no bars on the windows of the new city jail to be opened in March.

"Because a person commits a crime doesn't mean he shouldn't be treated as a human being," Police Chief Robert Galli said Friday of the jail with brightly painted blue cells.

The glass windows however, are a quarter-inch thick and of a type considered indestructible, he said.

State Spending To Be Topic

Alvin A. Burger, executive director of the Texas Research League, has been selected for the principal speaker to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce directors in Midland Nov. 14. Announcement was made of Burger's selection by J. Fike Godfrey, WTCC president.

The Texas Research League is a privately supported, non-profit, non-political corporation devoted to research in the field of Texas governments. The league undertakes its studies only by official request.

Subject for Burger's address will be "Achieving Responsible State Spending."

Other features of the two-day meeting in Midland include a banquet honoring five winners of the WTCC Annual Cultural Achievement Awards on Thursday evening at Midland Country Club.

Advance registrations indicate a record attendance at the fall board meeting. One hundred and 12 cities have achieved their membership quotas and most of them will be represented at the Quota Busters breakfast.

Marriage Law Changed But Not As Rumored

Among the code changes effective Jan. 1 are the laws pertaining to marriage, and this has created some confusion concerning early marriages.

Males will be able to marry without parental consent at age 19, instead of 21 as is now the case; the age for girls remains at 18.

Girls 14 through 17 and boys 16 through 18 may get married when parents give sworn consent.

The report has been circulated in some quarters that boys 16 and girls 14 can get married simply by obtaining a license, but this is not true.

One point in the new family code which may cause confusion is that it still recognizes common law marriages. Teenagers could, and still can, contract a common law union without anyone's consent, but the new code gives parents, for the first time, the power to sue to annul their children's underage marriages contracted without their consent. They can do this even if the couple was married conventionally; or whether contracted as a common law union; or regardless of whether the couple wants the annulment.

Among other changes in the code is that former in-laws can now marry; close blood relatives are prohibited from marrying, and so are relatives by adoption; a license is good for 21 days after issuance instead of 15 as now is the case; common law partners can formalize their union by filing a declaration with the county clerk; county judges may waive formalities in unusual circumstances to permit proxy marriages, but no magistrate may grant permission to an underage principle when the parents have refused consent.

Business Booms As Cops Shoed

MUSKOGON, Mich. (AP) — Policemen are "bad for business," says a pizza parlor owner who reports his business has increased since he stopped giving officers free coffee.

Tony Koteles, 35, said that when he opened his business 18 months ago he established a policy of providing coffee for township police, but the custom grew as sheriff's deputies and Muskogon patrolmen also sought free coffee.

He said officers often filled several tables during peak hours and parked their cruisers three abreast at his takeout window.

He saved $25 a week by cutting out free coffee.

First German Satellite Up

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A 157-pound German-built satellite is in orbit the first vehicle in a cooperative program of West Germany and the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The craft soared aloft Friday atop a four-stage Scout rocket. It is designed to stay in an orbit ranging from 240 to 2,000 miles above the earth for a year, studying the earth's radiation belt, the Northern Lights and solar particles.

This Story Sure Stinks

SHOW LOW, Ariz. (AP) — The Arizona Highway Department eliminated an unwanted visitor from its field office Thursday using an unorthodox method.

Ralph Lewis, field office clerk, opened a can of sardines, tied a string to it and placed it in the middle of the room. When the odor filled the room, the skunk came scurrying from behind a cabinet. Lewis pulled the car across the floor and out the door with the skunk in hot pursuit.

LIONS CAMP MONTH—Governor Preston Smith proclaims November "Texas Lions Camp for Crippled Children Month" as Lions League President E. J. Grinstead of Ballinger and Executive Director Frank Robertson of Kerrville watch in ceremonies in Austin. For 17 years the Lions Camp at Kerrville has provided two weeks of summer camp without cost to more than 11,000 handicapped children. It also has trained 700 blind adults in vocations.

Horoscope Forecast FOR TODAY AND TOMORROW —CARROLL RICHTER

SUNDAY GENERAL TENDENCIES: Until mid-afternoon quietly clear up whatever work has been left undone. After that delve deeply into the questions that interest you most. You will find new answers. Think out a better course of action in which your intimate moments can be happier, calmer.

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) It may be that your philosophical understanding is not quite right if things are not going too well for you. Study further and get on right plane. Make those changes that are necessary. Be wise.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) A good day to listen to ideas of associates and write for further information to outsiders in your spare time. Put the brake on that argument which another has been wanting to have for some time. Be gentle.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Ideal day to do something to please those around you or co-workers, persons toward whom you have some obligation. Improve your health through exercise. Discard those old, useless articles around the house.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Try to find some new form of entertainment instead of sticking to the old so much and feeling laded. It is possible to look at life through rose-colored glasses now, so do just that. Be happy.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You may have to do some sacrificing in one way or another in order to have peace and harmony within the family fold. Not martyrdom, though. Get rid of irritating conditions that bother others a good deal.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Let the services you attend today make a deeper impression on you so that you better your life. This can do much to strengthen your mentality as well. Try to help one who is down and out.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) You feel a lack because you are not aware of what should be done and how to do about it. Do something about that now.

Building Permits Less Than Half Last Year Total

Building permits, and consequently construction costs, were lower in October compared to that of one year ago, according to the monthly report of the city's inspection department.

Forty-six building permits were issued this past month, with construction costs totaling $45,800; in October, 1968, 70 permits were issued with construction costs of $110,071. Of the permits issued last month, 15 were for additions, ($7,350), 11 for moving buildings ($6,635), seven for putting up signs ($1,950), six for remodeling ($2,515), three for remodeling ($6,050), two for utilities ($300), and one each for demolitions ($5,000), and new commercial buildings ($16,000).

To date this year, 646 permits have been issued, with a total construction cost of $1,345,697. For the same 1968 period, 870 permits were issued, with construction costs totaling $1,702,290.

Permits were also issued during the month. Building inspections totaled 38 for that time, while 139 plumbing and electrical inspections were made.

Blackwelder and Minzenmayer were first and second high point individuals respectively. The Aggies will compete next in the national soil judging contest next spring, probably in Michigan.

United Fund Just $15,000 From Goal, Drive Extended

Substantial contributions to the United Fund were received Friday to raise its campaign total to $95,099, according to Harry Sawyer, campaign chairman.

"This figure represents all divisions reporting in," Sawyer said. "We still need $15,000 to meet our $110,000 goal; but judging from contributions last year, there is still that much money out. If all our cards come in, we can reach our goal."

"The drive will be extended for one more week, to allow time to get the rest of the cards in. Sawyer said he would like to close the campaign Friday.

"While $110,000 has been committed to the 14 local United Fund agencies, this is only the minimum needed to meet their basic budget requirements. This money is only part of what the agencies need to provide full services."

The 14 United Fund agencies in this area are Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, YMCA, Lakeview YMCA, American Red Cross, Salvation Army, Big Spring Milk and Medicine Fund, Westside Recreation Center, Summer Recreation Program, Air Force Aid Society, Dora Roberts Rehabilitation Center, U.S.O., Texas Rehabilitation Center, and Half Way House.

Eight Webb AFB organizations have reached 100 per cent of their goal, and $11,415 of the base's $13,000 goal has been collected, according to Lt. Col. Ernest C. Cutler, chairman. Those groups which have reached their goal are Detachment 18, Western Aerospace

Lose 10 lbs. in 10 days on Grapefruit Diet

HOLLYWOOD, CALIF. (Special) — This is the revolutionary grapefruit diet that everyone is suddenly talking about. Thousands of copies have been passed from hand to hand in factories, plants and offices throughout the U.S.

Because this diet really works. We have testimonials reporting on its success. If you follow it exactly, you should lose 10 pounds in 10 days. No weight loss in the first four days but you will suddenly drop 5 pounds on the 5th day. Thereafter lose one pound a day until the 10th day. Then you will lose 1/2 pound every two days until you get down to your proper weight. Best of all, there will be no hunger pangs. Revised and enlarged, this diet lets you stuff yourself with formerly "forbidden" foods, such as steaks trimmed with fat, roast or fried chicken, gravies, mayonnaise, butter, swimming in butter, bacon fat, sausages and scrambled eggs and still lose weight. The secret behind this "quick weight loss" diet is simple: Fat does not form fat. And the grapefruit juice in this diet acts as a catalyst (the "trigger") to start the fat burning process. You stuff yourself on the permitted food listed in the diet plan, and still lose unsightly fat and excess body fluids. A copy of this

No Jury For County Court To Be Needed

Howard County Judge Lee Porter said Friday that he will not call a jury for the scheduled week of county trials, beginning Monday because all the cases except one have been disposed of or have indicated that they will plead guilty before the end of the court term.

County Attorney Bill Eysen said the one case which remained on the docket for next week, charging Terry Dean Watkins for driving while intoxicated, was passed to the next term of court, probably to be held in February.

Four appeal cases set for Monday for Paul Smith Limer Jr. have been moved up to the week of Nov. 17. The cases being appealed by Limer include two from Corporation Court on charges of speeding and disregarding a stop sign and two from Justice of the Peace Court on charges of failing to operate in a single lane and speeding.

Other cases which were set to begin Monday name Domingo Jay Rubio, Lester Weir Dowdy, Kendall Crawford and Ventura Lupe, all for driving while intoxicated; and William Douglas Graham, driving with license suspended. It was not indicated which of these cases intend to plead guilty or which may have been dismissed.

Dear Abby

—ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a former drug user, or rather abuser. In hopes that some will view the dangers of "pot" a little more realistically, I shall recite my own experience:

I am a well-groomed, upper-middle class college student, not the typical hippie-type. Most of my friends are "clean cut" drug users. You cannot recognize a drug user by his physical appearance. The girl who looks like a perfect lady may be as much of a "pot-head" as the long-haired hippie.

Drug abuse is an evil that has swept our campuses. Even the small town campuses are overrun. I would say that at least half the students have smoked pot. It doesn't matter what kind of homes they come from. The kids from the "best" families are users as well as the kids from lower class homes. In fact, I think more kids who have led sheltered lives are the biggest users.

I entered college wearing rose-colored glasses. I saw very little of the seamy side of life, therefore when problems arose, I "copped out." From pot I proceeded to amphetamines. For a year I smoked pot to get "high" and I popped pills, too. I wasn't a constant user, but rather a sporadic user. A problem arose and rather than face it, I entered my "happy world" of pills.

But I was lucky. My brilliant, vibrant, beautiful friend was less fortunate. She died of an overdose of drugs. Ironically enough, her death saved my life.

I told myself to grow up and face reality with all its problems. My case is not an isolated one. Colleges are swamped with students like me. Remember, the first social pot party can easily turn the unstable personality on to other drugs. I stress, emphatically to those entering college, STAY AWAY FROM POT . . . and DRUGS. It is so easy to get hooked and so hard to kick the habit.

PLEASE heed my advice. Learn from my experience, and remember, I was lucky. I am here to write this letter. My friend is not. . . PEACE

DEAR ABBY: Recently I attended a wedding where the guests paid a dollar or more to dance with the bride. (Some lady guests paid the same to dance with the groom.)

We all seemed to have fun and I saw nothing wrong with it, but later on I heard several remarks from some of the guests who said they thought it was "bad taste."

I've since heard that this type of wedding dance is common in northern Maine and Canada. Have you ever heard of it? Maybe some of your readers up there have. I'd really like to know.

LIVE AND LET LIVE,
BUT WONDERING

DEAR LIVE: Yes, I have heard of it, and the practice is not restricted to northern Maine and Canada. What is considered "bad taste" to some is accepted as "tradition" to others, but if you're asking what I think of the idea, I'd have to say, "Not much."

STANTON Dress Up Days Mark H'coming

By LYN HERZOG
In preparation for Friday's Homecoming, five special dress up days were designated by a student council committee. Monday was dress-up day. Students were asked to wear their Sunday best. Tuesday was appointed hillbilly day. Freshman initiation took place on Wednesday, along with western day for upper classmen.

The 69-70 freshmen had quite a list of rules to follow. They were required to wear an old shirt with the school slogan printed on it, Levi's inside out and rolled up, unmatching socks and shoes, a picture of a fish around their neck and a shine rag and baby bottle or pacifier was to be carried all day. The noon hour was a scene of mass confusion as freshmen bear-walked, pushed pennies, and dog-piled. Thursday was a little less hectic as sweatshirt day. On Friday, a whisper contest was held along with color day.

School was dismissed early Thursday for the many activities in preparation for homecoming. Each class decorated a portion of the gym for the big pep rally. The bonfire was held Thursday night after the B team game with Coahoma.

The pep rally was held in the high school gym on Friday at 2:30. At 4:00, the homecoming parade took place. Each class entered a float, along with several club floats. The class floats were judged and given prizes of $20 for first place, $10 for second, and $5 for third. A barbeque was held from 5:30 to 7:30 in the high school cafeteria, along with the exes registration. The Stanton-Ozona football game started at 7:30. At half-time, the Buffalo band marched their contest routine and played a special song for the crowning of the Homecoming Queen which was done by the '68-69 queen, Doris Howard. The new 'Coming Home Queen' was crowned by last year's queen, Mrs. Mary Catherine Bristow. After the game, a dance was held in the gym and an exes reception took place in the high school cafeteria.

A Southern Assembly program was presented to high school and junior high students on Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, from West Germany, performed with their six dogs, who have appeared all over the world.

GARDEN CITY King, Queen Crowned At Carnival

By BEVERLY HARTLEY
The Halloween carnival, which was given by the classes on Oct. 31 proved to be successful. The coronation of the Halloween queen and king, from both high school and grade school, were crowned preceding the carnival.

The high school queen and king is Becky Reynolds, a senior and her escort Larry Wheat, also a senior. The grade school queen and king is Patsy Blissard and her escort Wesley Overton. They are both in third grade.

The Garden City girl's basketball team played against Grand Falls last Tuesday at Garden City. Both of Garden City's teams (A&B) won. The next game on schedule will be played at Grand Falls.

Football has almost come to a close at Garden City. The Bearkats have two games left, which will be played at home. These will be against Wellman and Klondike. The Garden City Bearkats played against the Dawson Dragons last Friday night.

Retakes for individual pictures is scheduled for Monday. Various other pictures will be taken on that day.

The senior class has begun selling Garden City license plates. The plates are red with black lettering and have a Bearkat head on them. They sell out at Garden City Bearkats. The selling price is $1.50.

The sophomore class is selling rich chocolate bars at 50 cents each.

The pep squad left at 5 o'clock Friday in order to arrive at Dawson to support the Garden City Bearkats.

RUNNELS Parents Night Here, Nov. 10

By CARRIE WHEELER
Tomorrow night Runnels will have their annual Parents Night. All parents will meet in the boys gym promptly at 7:30. The program will start with the choir singing. Then students from art, Spanish, social studies, homemaking, and girls P.E. classes will be telling and demonstrating some things they are doing in class.

From homemaking, the girls will be putting on a style show wearing the dresses they have made in class.

The seventh grade girls from P.E. will put on a demonstration with lummi sticks. The eighth grade girls will do a jump rope routine.

Thursday, a pep rally was held in the boys gym. The captains for the eighth grade team were Billy Nugent, David Krebs, and Terry Clinton. The seventh grade did not participate in the pep rally because the seventh grade boys are getting ready for their All-Star game which will be Thursday. The best boys will be chosen from both teams to be on the All-Star team.

SANDS Seniors Are Producing Three-Act Farce Comedy

By SHARA DEE HAMBRICK
The senior class will present a three-act farce comedy, "The Campbells are Coming," on Nov. 22. The cast includes Ma Brannigan played by Shara Dee Hambrick, Catalpa Tapp by Sandra Nichols, Betty Brannigan by Rita Jones, Dick Brannigan by Kelly Gaskins, Bildad Tapp by Terry Brown, Cyrus Scudder by Perry Gillespie, Jeffrey Scudder by Terry Nichols, Kaye Brannigan by Sandy Grigg, Kingston Campbell by Robert Herren, and Mrs. Augusta Campbell by Patsy Davis. The play was written by Jay Tobias. Mrs. Barbara Gandy is directing the play.

The students have been busy this week during their free time gathering fire wood for the bonfire. The bonfire was lit at 5:30 p.m. on Saturday before the homecoming game. A pep rally followed and the "Prancin' Fillies" did a routine to help boost spirit for the coming game. A fan line was formed for the boys to walk to the gym to get prepared for the game.

The halftime activities for the homecoming game consisted of a routine by "Prancin' Fillies" done to a patriotic theme. Then a homecoming queen was crowned and a football hero, chosen by the members of the "Prancin' Fillies," was selected, and also a football sweet

MEGAPHONE

Opinion Ballot Offered Friday

By PHILIP STEPHENS
Three important student activity questions will be presented for opinion ballot Friday, Nov. 14, between 9-11 a.m., in the lobby of the Student Union Building.

Up for voting will be the question of the use of the SUB Lounge for club and departmental activities, the closing of the SUB and ending of the Vietnam War.

The first two questions have received some controversial comment and will soon be settled by the Student Senate and the administration. A clear cut decision for or against either question would provide a distinct guideline for the Student Senate and administration.

The Creative Writers Club held its first meeting in the SUB parlor on Friday and a good response was shown from the 24 students who attended. Regular meeting dates were decided which are in the SUB parlor every second and fourth Monday nights, at 7:30 p.m. The next meeting will be held Monday night and officers will be selected.

Time to start saddling up for the second Howard County college-high school rodeo, Nov. 14-15, at the Big Spring Rodeo arena.

Out of 180 contestants, our campus has entered 14. There will be two events for the cowgirls; barrel racing and goat tying.

The Hawk Players have selected officers for their club. Ronnie Baird, vice president; Janis Ray, secretary; Kerry Gunnels, student senate representative. The sponsor of the club is Dan Shockley.

The Sigma Delta Phi has also selected officers and they are: William Bennett, president; Kenneth Bingham, vice president; Genaro Davila, secretary; Mike Childers, parliamentarian; Mike Stephens, and William Bennett, student senate representatives. The sponsor is Mr. M. D. Whitley.

"HCJC PRESENTS" has been changed to Thursdays, instead of the present Wednesdays. The change goes into effect this Thursday, at 12 a.m. with Coach

H.C. Students Attain Honors

ABILENE — Phil Richey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richey of Sterling City Route, has been named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities for 1969-70."

Richey, a range management major at Abilene Christian College, is Aggie Club president, on the livestock judging team, and recipient of the animal science scholar award.

COLLEGE STATION — Thomas P. Girdner of Big Spring, has been selected as a junior member of the Ross Volunteers, Texas A&M's elite honor military unit.

BSSHS Faculty Selects 69-70 Who's Who

By KAREN MCGONAGILL
Fifteen seniors and twelve juniors have been chosen to represent BSSHS in the areas of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The faculty chose these students who are, in their opinion, best qualified in these four areas. This year 191 upperclassmen were nominated for this honor.

The senior girls who were selected for Who's Who are Susan Cape, Linda Crawford, Denise Estes, Ellen Gossett, Glynda Jones, La Shara Shanks, Patti Spier, and Anne Talbot.

The senior boys chosen are Lynn Cauley, Keith Gum, Gary Hinds, Robin Hoover, Gary Hughes, Robert Margolis, and Robert Wilbanks.

The six junior girls are Sharon Cook, Mary Dirks, Martha Fierro, Elizabeth Lipscombe, Sue Reinke, and Cheri Turner.

The junior boys selected are Roddy Caffey, Dave Duncan, Kent Fish, Geren Martin, Scott McLaughlin, and Jeff Talmadge.

Mrs. Erma Steward, publications advisor, announced that Sue Reinke, junior, will be the 1971 editor of the EL RODEO. Other members of next year's yearbook staff will be announced at a later date.

There are only four more days to buy your annual. The EL RODEO goes off sale Thursday, Nov. 13. Yearbooks may be purchased at the booth in the cafeteria during lunch, from any EL RODEO staff member, or from Mrs. Erma Steward, publications advisor. Orders may also be placed in room 120. The yearbook is $8.

The BSSHS drama department will present the drama, "Up the Down Staircase," Jan. 16 and 17 at 8:15. Mrs. Joy Shaver, drama teacher, will direct the cast. Her student assistant is Teresa Sheppard. Assisting as stand-ins and the backstage crew are Sue DiFloure, Nancy Bortner, John Holloway, Steve Bohannon, and Sandra Jones.

Members of the cast were recently announced. Portraying the faculty will be Bobby McCracken, Ginger Adams, Belinda Gonzales, and Steve Burnett. Selected as members of the school staff are Steve Pyles, Elizabeth Lipscombe, Marjorie Carlton, Norma Backs, Ben Johnson, and Debra Tate.

The students in room 309, the new teacher's room, are Ed Frazier, Marshall Horn, Sabra Fuller, Tracy Guess, Cecelia

Coffee, Randy Grimes, Joy Steevens, and Mike Pope. Other students in the room are Lynn Schaedel, Bennett Fletcher, Martha Talbot, Veanda Griffith, Kathleen Thompson, Kelly Draper, Jimmie Fisher, and Billy Truette.

Other members of the cast are Martha Boadle, Deborah Carrothers, Jerre Tonn, and Jill Shaver.

The Steer Band traveled to Odessa Saturday to enter the UIL marching contest. The band performed Eagle Squadron, Barnum and Bailey's favorite, Blue Skies, and Holst Suite.

Band members begin their annual fruit cake sale Monday. The money earned goes toward the annual tour of the band. Cakes may be purchased from any band member.

FHA Daddy Day Night will be held Monday night at 7 p.m. in the high school cafeteria.

GOLIAD Parents Due In School During Education Week

By JILL RHYMES
During American Education Week, Nov. 9 to Nov. 15, all parents are invited to visit the schools. Invitations were sent home with the report cards last Wednesday.

In the library this week there will be a display of books to encourage good reading. Mona Adams and David McDonnell will give book reviews to some classes. The library club met Friday after school.

The advanced choir will sing at the Choir Boosters meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held at the high school.

The Goliad band marched for the first time this year at the freshman game on Thursday. Up to date the band has collected $260 from the sale of fire extinguishers. The Goliad, Runnels, and Senior High School bands will start their annual fruitcake sale Monday.

Standardized Achievement and Ability Tests will be given to the seventh graders of Goliad Tuesday and Wednesday under the direction of Lee Freeze, counselor. The profile sheets of the students will be sent to the parents after the tests are graded.

The third period speech class will give a skit at the pep rally on Nov. 13. The skit is titled "O Happy Day."

The girls basketball intramural games will begin Monday. The games will be played during eighth grade advisory periods.

There are five new students this week. From the seventh grade, they are James Ervin, Mike Holub, Gregory Price, and Tim Raney. From the eighth grade, is Steve Hollandsworth.

The Student Council will observe Veterans' Day by declaring Tuesday a Dress-Up Day for Goliad. The entire student body will use this day to show their respect for men who have served in the Armed Forces during wartime.

COAHOMA Queens Nominated For Homecoming

By JAN STOUT
The junior and senior classes met Wednesday to nominate four girls for Homecoming Queen. The girls from the senior class are Mary Anne Shirley and Sylvia Dorn. Representing the junior class are Jerriann Menser and Twyllia Wall. One girl will be crowned Nov. 15 at the homecoming football game.

Nominees for coming home queen are Mildred Reid Menser, Theda Williams Broughton, and Letha Nell Roberts. Nominees for the coming home king are Tollie Hale, Herschel Fowler, and Clay Reid. The king and queen will be crowned Nov. 15 also.

Coahoma High School has begun working on homecoming floats. The senior float will be "Texans Fight for Freedom," the junior float, "Texas, The Lone Star State," the sophomore float, "Texas Natural Resources," and the freshman float, "First Texas Wedding." The O.E.A. members are building a float titled "Texas as Business World, Yesterday and Today." The theme for homecoming this year is "Texas Heritage."

A general assembly was held Tuesday in the high school auditorium. Margit and Helmo presented a most unusual program with superbly trained dogs combined with physical education, hand balancing and gymnastics.

Last week was spirit week at Coahoma High School. Monday was slogan day. Mr. Grady Tindol was the mystery man. The person saying the most slogans was Cathy Evans. Tuesday was apron day where everyone wore an apron with a slogan on it. The winner of this day was Pam Patterson. Wednesday was sign day where everyone wore or carried a spirit sign. Patti Ward was the winner of this day. Thursday was sock and shoe day in which everyone wore socks or shoes with slogans on them. Janine Honea won this prize. The week was ended up with Friday as color day where everyone wore red and white.

The B-team pep rally was held Thursday to promote spirit for the Stanton game. The big pep rally was held Friday for the Bulldogs. Judges for the spirit stick were Mr. Grady Tindol, Mrs. Marie Ethridge, Mrs. Margie Dykes, Mrs. Barbara Justiss, and Mrs. Doris Tiller. Extra judges were necessary this week because the community came to the pep rally and competed for the spirit stick. Coach Bernie Hugins gave the pep talk.

TO HAVE NEW NAME—The remodeled State Theater, starting off anew as a downtown showhouse, will also have a new name. This is to be announced by the management soon.

Theater Starts Under New Name

A "new" downtown theater — so renovated that it will carry a new name — is now in operation and will be having formal opening ceremonies with a major film production soon.

Under extensive remodeling and re-decoration is the old State Theater on Runnels Street, which recently has shown weekend attractions, but is now going into full time operation.

Ike Robb, owner-manager, said Saturday, "our aim is to present another first-run motion picture house in downtown Big Spring and to offer the best quality pictures we are able to book. We feel that the new theater permits the movie-going public more selection in the pictures they choose to see."

Since the showhouse has been given a new face, Robb said that it also will carry a new name. This is to be selected

RENOVATED AUDITORIUM—The screen at the renovated State Theater, (to be renamed) has been moved forward and enlarged, some seats have been removed to give more room, and colorful redecorating has been done. The (?) Theater is now going on full time operation.

Safe Driving Demonstration To Be Staged Thursday

The Ground Safety Office at Webb AFB will hold a demonstration meeting with civic leaders and members of the news media Thursday to announce a "Holidays Free from Danger" campaign. Announcing the campaign will be Maj. Gail M. Key, chief of safety, who hopes to make the campaign a joint effort between the base and community.

The meeting at 10:30 a.m. will feature a demonstration of the Air Force's new method of teaching driver's education.

"The new program teaches a student what to do while driving, not how to drive," said W. W. Brown, ground safety officer. The program employs a magnetic tape control system, which controls three movie cameras and computes the student's answers and scores. Each student is equipped with an answering unit with three buttons signifying choice "a, b, or c." The learning system is programmed to switch on and off any of the three movie projectors. The films put students in actual highway driving situations.

The program instructor, Billy Damron, can see at a glance on the learning system how his students are answering. In addition, he can stop the system at any time for discussions.

Similar systems are in use at the junior college and at the high school. The Media Master Learning System can be programmed to teach a variety of subjects. The high school has an Edex system, according to O. A. Madison, head of visual

Stanton Crowns Pair Of Queens

STANTON (SC) — Corene Manning and LaWanda Glaspie were crowned coming-home queen and homecoming queen before a large crowd at Buffalo Stadium here Friday evening, climaxing a day of homecoming activities.

Earlier, the freshman class had won first place in the float contest which highlighted the homecoming parade through the downtown area at 4 p.m. Friday. Seniors took second and Juniors third. The parade also included the Stanton High School band, plus queen nominees riding in cars furnished by new car dealers.

The crowning took place at half-time of the Stanton-Ozona football game, and to the accompaniment of music by the band. At the business meeting in the cafeteria following the game, Cliff Hazelwood Jr. was named president of the Ex-students Association; Charley Welch vice president; and Mrs. Bill Stone, (re-elected) secretary. They succeed Bob Sale, president, and P. M. (Doc) Bristow, vice president.

Mrs. Mary Kathryn Bristow, last year's coming-home queen chosen from the ranks of the exes, crowned Corene Manning. Other nominees had been Mrs. Polly Nichols and Mrs. Catherine Lewis.

The homecoming queen, LaWanda Glaspie, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Glaspie, and she was crowned by Doris Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burnett Howard, and last year's queen. She is secretary of the Senior class, president of the Pep Squad; as a junior she was named most mischievous and citizen of the month; as a sophomore she was a homecoming queen nominee; and as a freshman a class officer and cutest co-ed.

Other queen nominees were Carlene Walker, daughter of Clarence Walker; Judy Costlow, daughter of George Costlow; and Cindy Wheeler, daughter of The Midway Baptist Church is starting today special revival services, with their new pastor, Rev. R. Bartlett Mills, preaching. The revival will continue through next Sunday.

Sunday services are at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m., and a morning service will be held Monday through Friday at 10 a.m.; evening services during the week are at 7:30 p.m. The nursery will be open at night.

Rev. Mills cordially invites the public to attend.

Fall Results In Lawsuit

A damage suit for $30,000, which names Marshall Fields, doing business as Ramada Inn of Big Spring, as defendant, was filed in 118th District Court Friday by Orville Ward, who claims he sustained severe injury in a fall at the Ramada Inn Jan. 28, 1968.

The reason for his alleged fall was stated, "there was a slippery and foreign substance placed upon the floor."

Ward claims injuries to his head, neck, and upper back, which have caused him pain, discomfort, and mental anguish since the accident and that he will, in all probability, be disabled for the rest of his life. Ward is also asking for medical expenses and court costs.

Lions Governor Here Wednesday

A. E. Prugel, Sonora, deputy governor from Midland, will make his official visit to the Downtown Lions club here Wednesday noon.

John C. Luccous, district deputy governor from Midland, is due to introduce the governor, said Wayne Clark, president. Prugel, who represents the federal land bank unit in the Sonora area, has been a Lion for 26 years. Besides holding virtually every office in his own club, he also has served as a member of the district cabinet prior to his election at the district convention held here in June.

BIG TICKET FOR CONCERT SEASON — Dr. W. A. Hunt, left, president of Howard County Junior College, gets a big ticket for the current season from Mrs. Roy Cederberg, membership chairman, and Dan Shockey, president of the Big Spring Concert Association. Besides his annual personal membership, Dr. Hunt links the college to the programs by using them as the college's art series. The first event is Nov. 19 when the famous New Orleans Philharmonic orchestra appears, followed by the Norman Luboff choir and others.

Two Going On Hunting Trip

James Woodruff, who is an employe of Cabot Corporation, is one of seven Texans to get an expense-paid weekend of deer hunting on the Dolph Briscoe ranch near Uvalde.

And Don Worthan, a member of the Big Spring Jaycees responsible for Woodruff's trip, will get to be a part of it too.

This is part of a statewide fund-raising project by Jaycees to help underwrite expenses of the Warm Springs Hospital at Gonzales.

Woodruff and Worthan are all set to have a big time in this exclusive hunting expedition Dec. 12-13-14.

Impala's hidden persuaders:

- ①350-cu.-in. engine
A new more powerful standard 250-hp V8 makes the 1970 Impala move with all the more assurance. On good ol' regular gas.
- ②Anti-theft column lock
A locking system is built right into the steering column. When you take your key with you, you lock not only your ignition, but your steering wheel as well.
- ③Aluminized exhaust system
It simply means that your original muffler, tailpipe and exhaust are going to last longer than you'd probably expect them to. Fair enough?
- ④Side guard beams
They look like highway guard rails, and they're built into both sides of the car for extra protection in case of impact. Not too many cars have them.
- ⑤Inner fenders
Up inside every fender is another fender to protect against slush and mud and help keep your Impala looking young.
- ⑥Flush and dry
We build the car so that rain and wash water can run down through the inside of the rocker panels, then out. Air follows to do the drying.
- ⑦Full Coil suspension
Hugo coil springs at all four wheels are four big reasons why a Chevrolet Impala rides smoother and quieter than a low-priced car has any right to.

On the move.

Band Wins Top Rating

The Big Spring High School Steer Band won a First Division rating at the University Interscholastic League Marching Contest at Barrett Stadium, Odessa, Saturday, for the ninth consecutive year. Nineteen area bands competed in the event, six were awarded the top rating. Mel Stinson, first vice president of the local Band Boosters, said the judges were highly complimentary of the Steer Band and that one judge remarked that the band's exit off the field was the most original he had witnessed in two years. Two bands from Odessa also received First Division rating, Odessa High and Odessa Permian.

Barracks Plans Dinner

The annual Thanksgiving dinner for the WWI Barracks 1474 and the Ladies Auxiliary, is set for Thursday at 6:30 in the IOOF Hall at Ninth and Magnolia Streets. Election of officers for the coming year will also be held. A number of out of town guests are expected to attend the affair and all members are urged to attend. Any WWI veteran, his widow or daughter, are eligible for membership in one of these organizations and they are invited to contact any member of either the Barracks or the Auxiliary for further information.

School Trustees Meet Tuesday

An audit for the financial period ending Aug. 31 heads the agenda for Tuesday's meeting of the Big Spring School Board of Trustees, with the retaining of an auditor for 1969-70 and the appointment of a census trustee also listed. The regular meeting starts at 7:30 in the portable classroom behind the administration building on Eleventh Place. Other business before the board includes resignations and employment of new personnel. Reports from Supt. S. M. Anderson will be on excerpts from the "Texas School Law News" and excerpts from "Education USA." He also plans to discuss enrollment and give the first six weeks' attendance report. Work will continue Tuesday on the board's new project of policy revision but no definite action is slated.

Jones Attends Meeting

Juvenile Officer Keith Jones was in Odessa Thursday to meet with Texas parole, probation, and correction officers in a two day meeting of speakers, panels and discussions concerning current legislation and its enforcement. The juvenile office handled several problems during the week including the transfer of three teenage boys to the Gatesville State School for Boys. Two had violated state parole and one was referred on a behavioral problem. Jones also took a girl to the State School for Girls, Gainesville, for a domestic problem. Other teenagers counseled and released during the week were one boy on a traffic violation, one boy for truancy, two girls for public affray, and two boys and a girl for snuffing glue and drinking alcoholic beverages.

Protesters Gathering

WASHINGTON (AP) — From as far away as Texas and as close by as the Virginia suburbs, protesters are coming by the thousands for a capital peace march the government says will spill into violence. They are coming by auto, train, plane and even moving van—students, businessmen, housewives, clergy—for what could prove the most massive protest demonstration in the nation's history. A wide-ranging but uneasy coalition of moderates, radicals and Communists, the New Mobilization (New Move) to End the War in Vietnam says it expects "hundreds of thousands."

Drugs, Booze Cause Arrests

Possession of drugs and alcoholic beverages resulted in several persons being arrested by police Friday night and early Saturday. Three men were arrested at Airport Road and US 80 west Friday on suspicion of narcotics possession, and Saturday police were making an investigation. In the alley of the 300 block of Northwest Ayford, officers arrested two youths for being minors in possession of alcoholic beverages, a man for making the drinks available, and a girl for interfering with a police officer. Four youngsters were arrested Friday night by police, who found them on the roof of the College Park Shopping Center. They were turned over to the juvenile officer, who released them to their parents.

Aid Given For Lamesa Planning

LAMESA — The city will soon begin the first steps in developing its Master Plan, according to Carroll Taylor, city manager. The project was made possible through a $22,430 grant from the Comprehensive Planning Assistance Program, under the Department of Housing and Urban Development. Though most programs under HUD must be reviewed by a regional planning council, Taylor said, "it is not a requirement for participation in this program."

Improvements At State Hospital Are Approved

Electrical system improvements at Big Spring State Hospital in the amount of $95,000 were approved Saturday by the Texas Board of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, meeting in Austin. The project here was included in $6.3 million in new construction for mental hospitals and schools. The construction will include major expansions at three schools for retardates and will provide 766 new beds. About 1,400 retardates who have been approved for admission to special schools are on a waiting list since there is not enough space in existing facilities, the board said. Major construction projects include Lubbock State School, 128 beds, $915,000; Corpus Christi State School, 374 beds, $1,505,000; and Richmond State School, 374 beds, $2,519,000. Additional construction projects include electrical system improvements at Rusk State Hospital, $160,000; laundry building at Vernon Center, $340,000; electrical system improvements at Wichita Falls State Hospital, $185,000; and repair and renovations of buildings at San Angelo Center, $500,000.

GIANT PLANE — The Lockheed C5A Galaxy, billed by the Air Force as the biggest plane in the world, was in Albuquerque Saturday for takeoff and landing tests in the mile-high altitude.

Arabs Told War Is Sole Answer

Egyptian Foreign Minister Mahmoud Riad called the United States "a partner of Israel" in the Middle East conflict and urged Arab leaders gathered Saturday in Cairo to mobilize for "a battle of destiny" against the Jewish state. Both Riad and Jordan's foreign minister, Abdel Moneim Refaie, told the Joint Arab Defense Council that war against Israel is the sole answer to the Middle East crisis. There can be no peaceful solution, Riad said, "since Israel is enjoying United States financial, political and military support. Ali American proposals to settle the crisis are in fact designed, he added, "to consolidate Israeli aggression against the Arabs." Riad said the United States is "trying to divide the issue by making agreements between Israel and each Arab state individually. This would in turn give Israel the chance to dictate her conditions to each of us." Refaie said American support to Israel is "worsening" the situation and said American officials had told him that "American cannot persuade the Israelis to accept what they do not want" so "all we can do is get closer to Israel." The call to war was echoed by Herdan Takreti, Iraqi defense minister; Libyan Foreign Minister Saleh Bousseir and Khaled Hassan, the representative of the Palestine Liberation Organization. In the three days of its first session since the six-day Arab-Israeli war of 1967, the council intends to concentrate on mobilizing all Arab resources for the struggle.

'Silent Citizen' To Be Heard In Most Of Texas

While the nation's capital is bracing for feared militant outbursts, all signs in Texas point to peaceful observations. Supporters of President Nixon's Vietnam policy, particularly veterans organizations, are urging citizens to turn on the headlights of their cars, fly the flag and otherwise demonstrate support of the government's position. The Veterans of Foreign Wars in Texas call their program "Operation Speak Out" and have set it to extend from Nov. 9 through 15. This bridges both Veterans Day and Moratorium Day. VFW State Commander Elmer F. Chappel of Refugio, Tex., said all 358 VFW posts in Texas received material on the week's program. "This is the chance for the 'silent citizen' to be heard. We must let the world know that the people of the United States do support our government. Let's make the silent majority a vocal majority," Chappel said. "Stand Up America" is the Southwest Texas State University's version of anti-moratorium. A group of students from the university at San Marcos plan to march in the American Legion's annual Veterans' Day parade in Austin. Shelton Padgett, spokesman for the group, said 800 to 1,500 students are expected to participate. Flag flying is traditionally big on Veterans' Day, but American flag sales in Texas have boomed since the last moratorium. Sales were further spurred on as people tried to show their support of President Nixon's war policy speech and in preparation to counter Moratorium Day on Nov. 15.

YOUNG HOYT TAKES A STROLL

Saturday morning, Hoyt H. Hallford III decided to take a stroll, and wound up paying a call at the H. W. Kennedy residence. Not much news in that, except that Hoyt the Third is only 15 months old. Police got the first call Saturday at 9:21 a.m., when Mrs. Kennedy, 4113 Parkway, reported the toddler had dropped in for a visit about 8:45 a.m. While Police Capt. Jack Jones was trying to figure out how to translate the young man's attempts to explain who he was, a worried mother, Mrs. Hallford Jr., 4207 Parkway, called to report the young man missing. The captain soon reunited mother and her adventurous son.

Butler Shows Champ Capon

STANTON (SC) — Leslie Butler showed the grand champion at the Stanton Wallgreen Show Saturday, and his 13 pound bird brought him $50 from the Stanton First National Bank in the auction that followed. Ten students will be selected by teachers and fellow students for special honors during the week, which is aimed at youths who are not student council members, cheerleaders, scholars or athletes, but those who meet their responsibilities at home, school, church and in their community, according to the Optimist International.

MINOR MISHAPS

FM 700 at West Sixteenth: William Wayne Caudill, 1301 Johnson, and Sandra B. Perodin, 1215 Ridgeland.

Injured Men Satisfactory

Two Big Spring men, Clyde Massey and Frank Bartrug, remain in satisfactory condition at Cowper Clinic and Hospital following a one-car accident Thursday night at 9:50 at FM 609 and Texas 350. Both sustained facial lacerations and Massey is reported to have a broken jaw which may require surgery.

Texas Highway Patrolman Bill Robinson said Saturday that he mobilized to turn in a road hazard report on the accident scene, for this is the second accident there in about a month. He said a dirt embankment at the end of FM 609 has caused considerable damage in both accidents, to vehicles and people.

Bartrug was driving Massey's car Thursday night, headed south on FM 609, when the vehicle went about 50 feet into a field. The car damage was estimated at $1,200.

City Seeks To End 'Nuisance'

A nuisance suit was filed in 118th District Court Friday for the city by City Attorney Herbert Prouty who claims that buildings on lots 1, 2 and 3, block 101, original town of Big Spring, are a public nuisance. The area described is the first three lots on the north side of Northwest Third Street, west from Bell Street. The petition names Clarence Shaw as defendant.

The city is asking mandatory injunction requiring defendants to abate said nuisances by either demolishing the structures or repairing them; or, in the alternative, the right for plaintiff to demolish the structures.

DEATHS

Rae Furlow, 43, Dies At Loraine. COLORADO CITY (SC) — Funeral is set today at 2 p.m. in the Loraine First Baptist Church for Rae Furlow, 43, who died at 12:15 p.m. Saturday in a Loraine hospital. He had been ill for several weeks. The Rev. Clarence Minton, pastor of the Loraine Baptist Church, and Archie Scarborough, Church of Christ, Abilene, will officiate at the service, and burial will follow in Loraine Cemetery.

Protesters Hit Midland Building

MIDLAND, Mich. (AP) — A Dow Chemical Co. building at Midland was vandalized during Friday night by antiwar protesters who left a mimeographed statement attacking the firm's production of napalm, police said.

Optimist Clubs To Honor 10 Students This Week

This week has been designated Youth Appreciation Week by Optimist International, the 15th anniversary of Youth Appreciation which was started in North Carolina. "To aid and encourage the development of youth" has been one of the Optimist's main objectives since the club's beginning 50 years ago.

Sunday Blue Law Has Long History

The controversial Sunday closing law currently in question because of last week's Texas Supreme Court decision declaring it constitutional, has been on the Texas statute books since 1871 and is entitled "Selling Goods on Sunday."

Howard County Attorney Bill Eysen explained that it is a dual pronged law aimed at merchants and places of amusement. It was enacted in 1871 and re-enacted in 1883 and 1887. The law gives merchants and amusement operators a choice of whether to remain open on Saturday or Sunday, but states they cannot remain open for two days consecutively, and gives a list of prohibited items to sell. Eysen explained that the list includes almost any saleable item except grocery provisions and medicine. He also noted that the law prohibits the sale of power tools but does allow hand tools to be sold.

Airmen Of Note Present Fast-Paced Mod Program

The "Airmen Of Note" laid on a blast at the municipal auditorium Friday night. The young men who make up the official U.S. Air Force dance orchestra went at their work with skill and vigor, offering a fast-paced program that was by turn, mod, rock and square. And a crowd that nearly filled the auditorium responded with heavy applause. The program was tipped toward the young in heart, and arrangements of even the older tunes, for the most part, carried the new beat. If there was any criticism of the part of some, it was that the ensemble could have turned down its volume by several decibels. They were blasting man, but that's the new generation.

CWO Bob Bunton, the director, had his group well in hand, kept the program moving, and presented lively music. It was a good evening, despite the high sound level.—BW was sent to the Ector County jail in Odessa awaiting trial in the 161st District Court. Rae Bourbon, 68, went to Brownwood for his trial in 35th District Court. Both are charged in the murder of A. D. Blount here last December. A third party in the case, Bobby Chrisco, received a life sentence here recently.

That fall festival at St. Lawrence community in southern Glasscock County gets bigger and better. Instead of an anticipated 3,000 guests, some 3,700 showed up for meals. This year patrons had prepared 3,500 pounds of German sausage and 1,700 pounds of barbecued beef, but as usual both were sold out, along with other goods such as needlework, canned goods, etc.

Larry Don Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shaw of Knott, and Debra Buchanan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Buchanan of Lubbock, are the county's 4-H Club Gold Star winners for 1969. Larry has been in the program for seven years, Debra four. Considering the general calibre of 4-H work in the county, their records had to be really outstanding to merit a choice.

Speaking of honors, how about that earned by Dr. Charles Warren — one of the five outstanding young Texans of 1969? Dr. Warren's contribution of service has reached into almost every area of community life. He joins Dr. J. E. Hogan, Dan Krausse, and James M. (Bobo) Hardy as Big Springers who have won this top honor of Texas Jaycees. It's a safe bet that no other community of comparable size in Texas has furnished that many winners.

Wenzel Williams, who is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bowlin of Ackerly, took an unexpected and unwanted trip abroad last week. He was first officer on the TWA airliner hijacked to Rome by Raphael Minichiello. Mrs. Williams is the former Janice Bowlin.

The Howard County Library is going to need some additional help from some source, commissioners told a Chamber of Commerce task force last week. Estimated cost of moving into the old post office building is $75,000, and the county can raise only about two thirds of that.

Another agency which can use your support is the Big Spring Concert Association, which kicks off its current season Nov. 19 with the famous New Orleans Symphony. This will be followed by the equally famous Norman Luboff choir, and these two alone are worth the season's membership.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District is preparing to construct a temporary dam at the intake of the Lake E. V. Spence pump station so water can be pumped back and impounded for the station. The last time that happened was at Lake J. B. Thomas before it caught enough water to reach the pumps, and such a big rise came along that the district had a tractor (used for pumping power) inundated. Officials would like to have that happen again.

Those Big Spring Steers made sure of a winning season Friday by plastering a third consecutive defeat on the Abilene Eagles, which once upon a time could win simply by reporting to the field. Not so Friday, for the Steers administered a country licking and looked like a team that could beat Permian here Friday if they want to bad enough.

When the Airmen of Note, official dance band of the Air Force, finished their concert at the City Auditorium Friday evening, they were given a surprise reception at the Legion Hut as guests of the Legion. This is Chamber of Commerce Week, and your suggestions for a better Big Spring are being sought from everyone, regardless of chamber membership. The chamber is the one organization in the community geared to apply the power of ideas and effort effectively. There's always a spoil-sport. After Lamesa's superb musical program celebrating its chamber's 50th anniversary last Monday, every one gave it lavish praise. Someone observed: "Yes, but what are they going to do for an encore?"

Says Leukemia May Be Curable

HOUSTON (AP) — A cancer specialist says a number of factors suggest that leukemia may be curable.

Dr. Joseph H. Burchenal said a cure for leukemia, which affects the lymphoid tissue, may be far in the future but doctors are encouraged by progress in treatment.

Burchenal, vice president of the Sloan-Kettering Institute of Cancer Research, New York, spoke Thursday at the 11th annual clinical conference sponsored by the University of Texas M. D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute.

Among the encouraging signs is evidence that new and more intensive treatment for acute leukemia are producing a higher short-term survival rate, he said.

Contracts For Two Forsan School Projects Awarded

Contracts for two construction projects in the Forsan County Line Independent School District were awarded at Thursday's board of trustees meeting.

D. D. Johnston Construction Co., Big Spring, got the contract for 10 teacherages with a negotiated bid of $170,562, and E. B. Snody Construction Co., Midland, got the contract to build six additional classrooms at the Elbow Elementary School with its bid of $150,000.

Six bids for the teacherages were opened at the trustee's meeting Oct. 21 but Supt. H. D. Smith said at that time they all were too high.

"We were only allocated $175,000 for the houses and the lowest bid was nearly $25,000 over that," he said. D. D. Johnston Construction Co. had submitted that low bid, $196,222, and Smith said his school board representatives worked with the construction company to lower the cost.

"We managed to keep the quality construction of all the houses, but we removed some of the frills," Smith said. He added that they took 176 square feet out of nine of the houses and 186 square feet out of one.

The bid of $150,000 for six new classrooms at the Elbow school includes adding a new kitchen on to the cafeteria, remodeling the dining area, and enclosing a walkway; it was chosen from seven bids submitted.

Other companies which bid for the classroom construction were Alston Construction Co., Sweetwater, $158,500; Houston Hill Construction Co., $155,700; Gabbart Construction Co., Abilene, $156,987; Oasis Builders, Kermit, $156,800; Pharr Construction Co., Lubbock, $159,977; and Kasch Brothers, Big Spring, $168,220.

Other bidders for the teacherages were Gabbart Construction Co., Abilene, $220,787; E. D. Snody Construction Co., Midland, $221,990; Houston Hill Construction Co., Midland, $221,990; Oasis Builders, Kermit, $238,900; and Alston Construction Co., Sweetwater, $221,000.

The bond issue which will pay for construction of the teacherages and six new classrooms was approved March 1 for $595,000. In addition to these two projects, money was voted for paving projects at Elbow and Forsan; renovation of classrooms at Forsan High School; a new band hall, football stadium and gymnasium at Forsan; and new uniforms and band equipment.

Smith explained that the projects are being tackled in stages and that the air conditioning and cabinet work at Elbow was finished last summer.

It's Col. Hurst Now

Lt. Col. Robert Hurst reaped the highest rewards of all November promotions when he swapped major oak leaves for the silver leaves of a lieutenant colonel Nov. 1.

There were also 15 promotions to airman first class. Airmen assigned to the 3560th Field Maintenance Squadron and the 3560th Supply Squadron were the big winners in the monthly airman first class category as five in each squadron won second stripes. These include:

Robert Armstrong, Thomas Ebbing, Robert Wilmoth, George Ebersole, Willis Gliden, Alberto Artega Jr., Bobby Burks, Roger McNeil, Thomas Olson, William Walker, Dennis Rep, Douglas Carter, James Maloy, and Larry Mayo.

For Col. Hurst, section 4 commander in the 3561 Pilot Training Squadron, the promotion was the second received at Webb.

When serving at Webb between June, 1964, and February 1968, he was promoted to major. Col. Hurst returned to Webb in August following a year in Southeast Asia where he flew McDonnell RF-4C Phantom II, recording 182 combat missions in that aircraft.

Contestants For National Rodeo Finals Are Announced

DENVER, Colo. — The listing of contestants who have qualified for the annual National Finals Rodeo has been released by the Rodeo Cowboys Association.

The unofficial ranking of 1969's top professional cowboys followed completion of San Francisco's Grand National Rodeo, annually the cut-off date to determine who is eligible for the Finals.

Only the first 15 cowboys — based on money won during the year — in each of the six rodeo events qualify for the classic competition. Termed the world series of the sport, the Finals will be held Dec. 6-14 in Oklahoma City.

Leading the entry list for the fourth consecutive year is Larry Mahan, 25, Brooks, Ore., who won $116 in saddle bronc and bull riding at San Francisco. He now has a record $54,423 for the season. Mahan has tied Oklahoma's Jim Shoulders in garnering four consecutive all-around cowboy championships. He is also the only man to qualify for the finals in the three riding events, and he's done that annually since 1966.

Rail Foreman Owes His Life To 'Tackler'

DENISON, Tex. (AP) — A Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad section foreman owes his life to a young novice in his crew.

Ronald L. Robinson, 28, of Callisburg was turned into a flaming torch when a gasoline can exploded as he was pouring the fuel over some smoldering ties.

As Robinson ran screaming down the right-of-way, Royce H. Robertson, 19, of Denison raced after him and downed him with a flying tackle. Robinson managed to get to his feet a second time as Robertson tried to roll him over and over to put out the fire.

It took a second tackle by Robertson to down Robinson. This time Robertson covered his boss' body with his own.

By then, other members of the crew reached the two. They threw heavy coats over Robinson and ripped off his smoldering garments.

Robinson was taken to Memorial Hospital and was recovering Saturday from burns on his left leg and side, both hands and his face.

Robinson escaped severe burns because he was wearing heavy clothes and had on gloves. His face and hair were singed, but he required only first aid.

Request To Enter Cemetery Denied

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Vietnam war protesters have been denied permission to hold a vigil inside Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery.

An anti-war organization here had planned to hold the vigil after marching more than 15 miles to the cemetery from the Military Induction Center Nov. 15.

Organizers said the march, scheduled to coincide with anti-war activities in Washington the same day, will be led by 300 persons representing San Antonio area war dead.

Officials said the group has obtained parade permits to march through city and suburban streets.

But a Ft. Sam Houston spokesman said the request to enter the cemetery has been denied.

For the armchair investor who isn't averse to working 5 hours a week or not at all if you plain don't want to work...

Our coin-operated photo-copy machine franchise is one of the most profitable businesses you can own. Instead of having to sell fish or contemplate hamburgers, your machines go into classy places like banks, schools, and libraries. You have no real overhead, no labor and hence no labor problems, a minimal inventory of paper and no collection problems. It's strictly cash in the coin slot.

We supply the locations, a nationally known photo-copy machine and the servicing that keeps it going. You merely collect the money and speak kindly to the people who have the machine locations we have obtained for you.

If you're slow, it takes 5 hours a week to collect from the ten machines in your franchise. If you're fast, it takes less time. If you don't want to do even that, it costs very little to have it done for you.

The franchise fee for 10 years is $15,000 ($3500 down, the rest paid from profits for up to 3 years). The next 10 years costs only 10 bucks.

Average earnings potential, is $12,000. You can add more to your income by depreciating the franchise at $1500 per year. You can also add even more income by increasing the number of machines working for you without further franchise payment. With 30 machines, for example, you have a profit potential of over $35,000 annually.

The ingenious thing about it all is that you make lots of money on your investment and don't even have to be involved with the machines that generate it.

Trojans Slam Cougar Club

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Southern California's unbeaten Trojans, leading by only seven points for most of three quarters against six-time loser Washington State, snapped out of their lethargy to whip the Cougars 28-7 Saturday.

The sixth-ranked Trojans scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, taking advantage of two Washington State fumbles in this Pacific-8 conference clash. USC scored late in the third period and again in the fourth for its sixth victory against a team beset by youth problems and key injuries.

Southern Cal is now 4-0 in Pac-8 play and still in the Rose Bowl race.

A crowd of 47,158 watched the contest and gave the visitors a tremendous hand when they scored their lone touchdown in the second quarter, capping a 52-yard drive in 10 plays, with Bob Ewen scoring from the five after leading the way with 22 yards in six thrusts at the huge Trojan line.

Mike Berry scored from the three-yard line and workhorse Clarence Davis from the seven for the first two Trojan touchdowns and a 14-7 halftime lead. Washington State 0 7 0 0-7 Southern Cal 14 0 7 7-28

TUG-OF-SHIRT — Arkansas' tailback Bill Burnett (33) has a shirt-tug-of-war with Rice University's Jack Faubion (88) after picking up five yards. Burnett won the tug-of-war with Faubion and picked up another fourteen yards for a gain of 19 yards on the play in the second quarter of the Southwest Conference game at Houston. Rice's David Keys (43) had been blocked and couldn't get around to put his hands on Burnett.

QBC HONORS MEN Mayor Proclaims Coaches' Week

Gov. Preston Smith has proclaimed Friday, Nov. 14, as "Coaches Day" in Texas but Big Spring's mayor, Arnold Marshall, has gone a step farther.

Marshall has set aside the entire week, starting today, as Coaches Week in Big Spring and is asking that all friends of athletics help make the community aware of the special event.

Coaches Week is being emphasized here by members of the Big Spring Quarterback Club, who will pay special tribute to the staff at its Tuesday night meeting in the High School Cafeteria.

The special observance comes in the midst of football's Centennial Year.

Marshall said it seems appropriate that recognition is long overdue to the dedicated and sincere men like coach Spike Dykes and his assistants who have helped make school athletics in Texas what they are today.

"It isn't easy to measure the value in depth of a high school coach," Marshall said. "What a player does on and off the field is a reflection upon the coach. Invariably, the athletes who have lived strong, disciplined lives while under the influences of the coaches grow up to lead responsible lives and become pillars of a community."

"Many of our leaders in business, education and government today received athletic training from a competent coach.

"These men dedicate countless hours day and night, week after week, month after month, to help mould the character of young men. They greatly influence the lives of our most precious asset, our children. It is fitting then that we pay them the highest compliment when we all say, 'thank you, coach.'"

Hogs Sputter But Win Over Rice, 30 To 6

Quarterback Bill Montgomery cranked up a sputtering Arkansas offense in the second half Saturday and guided the fourth-ranked Razorbacks to a 30-6 Southwest Conference football victory over the stubborn Rice Owls.

With the highly favored Porkers leading only 10-6 at halftime, Montgomery took his team to touchdowns on its first two possessions in the third quarter to pull the game out of reach of the Owls.

Montgomery hit John Rees with a 14-yard touchdown pass for the first second-half score and Bill Burnett, workhorse Porker tailback, raced 23 yards for the other score as the unbeaten Razorbacks ran their winning streak to 13 games including seven this season.

Burnett also chipped in a one-yard touchdown run and Bill McClard added a 43-yard field goal.

No. 2 Arkansas quarterback John Eichler scored from two yards out to round out the Arkansas scoring.

Rice's scoring came on first-half field goals by Tim Davis, a 33-yarder and a 24-yarder.

Rice lost its sixth game in a row against a season opening victory.

Fired-Up Ags Kayo Ponies

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Stubby Steve Burks, a sophomore who logged little playing time, exploded on a 37-yard touchdown jaunt in the fourth quarter Saturday and Texas A&M's fired-up defenders shut down Southern Methodist's aerial circus for a 20-10 Southwest Conference football victory.

Burks popped through the SMU secondary and Marc Black cut down the Mustang safety with a classic block as the Dumas, Tex., dandy breezed to the goal with 9:01 to play. A&M held a precarious 14-10 lead at the time.

The 5-foot-11 Burks only carried the ball four times but gained 100 yards. He also had a 57-yard run which almost went for a touchdown in the first half, but was hauled down by the SMU safety.

Hixson hit 22 of 33 passes, mostly of the short variety, for 242 yards but suffered two interceptions. A&M quarterback Rocky Self hit 9 of 16 for 145 yards including a 28-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ross Brubacher.

Brubacher outreached defensive back Larry Tunnell for the ball deep in the end zone to give A&M a quick 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

SMU tied the score when Bicky Lesser recovered a fumble by Gordon Gilder in the A&M end zone.

The Aggies took a 14-7 lead to the dressing room at halftime on Larry Stegert's one-yard run which was set up when Self connected on three crucial third down plays.

SMU narrowed the count to 14-10 early in the fourth quarter on Chipper Johnson's 29-yard field goal to set the stage for Burks' stirring run.

The Razorbacks, racing toward a December showdown with Texas, found the going double tough in the first half against the fired-up Owls.

The Owls were especially rough in the second period when they made three scoring threats with Davis capitalizing on two of them with his field goals.

Davis' second field goal came after time had run out in the first half.

McClard put Arkansas in the lead in the fading seconds of the first half with his field goal.

After Davis' first three-pointer tied the game, Burnett put the Porkers ahead 10-3 for good with a dive over the middle capping a 74-yard drive.

The key plays were a 19-yard run by Burnett and a Montgomery to Chuck Dicus pass that carried to the one-yard line to set up Burnett's touchdown.

But the Owls took advantage of the remaining 51 seconds to move 55 yards in eight plays to set up Davis' field goal to make it close in the first half.

Trainer Sam Aguilera Is Valued Member Of Team

One of the most valued members of the Big Spring coaching fraternity is trainer Sam Aguilera, a native of El Paso Ysleta and a 1959 graduate of Ysleta High School. He played guard under Red Coates in high school.

Aguilera goes by the name of "Doc" here and for good reason. He attends to the players aches and pains and coach Spike Dykes says he doesn't know how he ever got along without a trainer before Sam signed on.

Sam enlisted in the Army after graduating from high school and was stationed in France two of those years.

Following his discharge, he enrolled at Panhandle A&M College in Goodwell, Okla., majoring in social studies and physical education.

He played one year of football there under Oscar Williams before knee injuries forced him to quit playing. He then took the position of student trainer and held it for the remaining three years of college.

Aguilera served as athletic trainer at Amarillo Palo Duro for one year under George Kirk before returning to school to obtain his master's degree in PE. He attended the Kansas State Teachers College in Emporia.

Sweetwater Tips Snyder Tigers

SWEETWATER — Single touchdowns in the first three periods provided the impetus for the Sweetwater Mustangs to beat Snyder, 21-13, in District 3-AAA football action here Friday night.

Homecoming At Coahoma

COAHOMA — The stage is set for the annual homecoming of Coahoma High School here Saturday. Registration and balloting for the coming-home king and queen will begin at 9 a.m. at the high school, followed by a business meeting at 10:30 a.m.

There will be a barbecue luncheon (11.50) for the exes at 12 noon and a homecoming parade downtown at 2 p.m. The king and queen will be honored at a reception tea from 4:30 p.m. to 6 p.m. The climaxing event will be the Coahoma Bulldog-Wink football game at 7:30 p.m.

Nominees for the coming-home king are Tollie Hale, Herschel Fowler and Clay Reid; for coming-home queen Theda Williams Broughton, Letha Nell Roberts and Mildred Reid Menser.

Wildcats Are Upset, 28-19

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma State roared from behind with three touchdowns in the third quarter Saturday and went on to stun favored Kansas State, 28-19, in one of the biggest surprises of the Big Eight conference football season.

The O-State passing combination of quarterback Bob Cutbirth and flanker Hermann Eben riddled the Kansas State secondary, and stole the show from heralded Wildcat quarterback Lynn Dickey.

Cutbirth and Eben teamed on a school record, 85 yard scoring play late in the third period to put the Cowboys ahead 14-13. Bub Deerinwater's one yard plunge 4 1/2 minutes earlier had put the Cowboys on the scoreboard after they had trailed 13-0.

With two seconds left in the third quarter, Cutbirth found Eben with a 37 yard touchdown pass and a 21-13 Oklahoma State lead.

WTSU Registers 28-20 Grid Win

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP)—Speedy fullback Duane Thomas ran for three touchdowns to pace West Texas State to a 28-20 nonconference college football victory over Western Michigan Saturday.

The 6-foot-2 fullback, who does the 100-yard dash in 9.8 seconds, also picked up 162 yards rushing in 25 carries.

Quarterback Clarence Redick ran for 45 yards, passed for 10 and kicked four extra points to aid the Buffaloes cause.

FROGS ON TOP IN HOMECOMING GAME Raider Hopes Are Doused

Texas Christian doused Texas Tech's flickering title hopes 35-26 Saturday on the glittering offensive fireworks of sophomore Steve Judy and lightning Lindsey Cole.

Judy passed for two touchdowns and darted two yards for a third as the Horned Frogs, behind at the half, swept to their third straight Southwest Conference victory.

Cole, setting up one touchdown with a 66-yard kickoff return, snared an 11-yard pass from Judy for one score and killed the Raiders later with a dazzling 51-yard punt return.

The triumph put asunder Tech's outside chance of a share of the SWC crown as the Raiders absorbed their second conference setback against three victories.

Tech is now 4-4 and TCU 3-5 for the season.

Table with columns for Tech and TCU, listing statistics like First downs, Yards rushing, Yards passing, etc.

Trailing 16-14 at half time, TCU romped back with two third period touchdowns, the first after a Clay Mitchell fumble recovery at the Red Raider 24, and the second on a 63 yard drive.

Judy circled right end from the two for the go-ahead TD and then tossed a 17-yard bullet to split end Jerry Miller for the clincher.

Sophomore Charles Napper brought Tech back into the battle with a four-yard scoring pass to Danny Hardaway after Ken Perkins' 41-yard punt return put the Raiders in possession at the TCU 16.

Napper's passing, including a 39-yard shot to Ken Kapner, carried Tech back into scoring range but the Raiders, stifled by an alert Christian defense, had to settle for Jerry Don Sanders' 31-yard field goal.

Judy, with Norman Bulaich and Marty Whelan ripping off key yardage, guided TCU 65 yards and assigned Bulaich to carry the ball in from the one for the final score.

Cole stole the show in the first half, returning the opening kick-off 66 yards to send the Christians toward their first touchdown, and then streaked 81 yards with a punt for a second score. Cole grabbed an 11 yard, fourth down pass from Judy for the original six pointer after Whelan had rambled 18 yards for a big gain.

Huskies Outlast Cyclones, 17-3

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Alternate quarterback Jerry Tagge, after sitting out the first half, got a sputtering Nebraska offense on track for 10 points in the third quarter Saturday and the Cornhuskers kept alive their Big Eight Conference title hopes with a 17-3 football win over stubborn Iowa State.

Panthers Wallop Maryland State

PRAIRIE VIEW, Tex. (AP)—Quarterback Luther Hudson passed for three touchdowns to pace Prairie View A&M to a 22-0 defeat over Maryland State University before a homecoming crowd of 8,000.

YOUNGEST VETERAN — Warren V. Adams of Odessa is the youngest veteran in the hospital and was born in the same month as the oldest veteran. His birth date is Aug. 2, 1949. Mrs. Clyde Cravens, a member of the American Red Cross, is showing the patient a picture, as his hobby is sketching.

For Faithful Service

The people of the community and the nation will honor Tuesday the veterans of all American wars for their faithful service in defending our country and promoting the cause of peace in other lands.

The Veterans Day program slated at the Veterans Administration Hospital will begin at 10 a.m., when members of the Big Spring High School band will play appropriate selections. The Webb Air Force Base color guard will present the flag at 10:28 a.m., followed by the invocation by the hospital chaplain, Clayton Hicks.

Jack Cook, who flew the Hump in the China-Burma-India theater during World War II will be guest speaker. Carl Reynolds will sing, and the Rev. Robert Kautson, part-time hospital chaplain, and pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, will give the benediction.

Members of the American Red Cross will provide escort service for wheel chair patients who want to attend the program.

A hospitality hour will be held in the hospital immediately following services. Refreshments will be served in the recreation hall by members of the American Legion Auxiliary and by hospital staff members.

Wedding Solemnized In Church Sanctuary

A wedding ceremony uniting Miss Geraldine Gaines and Garland Joe Rudd was read in the sanctuary of the East Fourth Baptist Church Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gaines, Coahoma, and the Rev. and Mrs. Billy Joe Rudd of Tarzan.

The groom's father officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with two baskets of white gladioli backed by candlabra holding white tapers.

Prenuptial music was played on the organ and piano by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Oliphant. Mrs. Tommy Nichols sang "The Greatest of These Is Love," and "The Wedding Prayer."

The bride's brother, Edward Ray Gaines, gave her in marriage. She wore a dress of Empire design of white peau de soie with an overlay of blue lace. The sleeves were trimmed at the wrist with ruffled cuffs. The floor-length skirt was accented at the back waist with a large bow with the streamers flowing into a full-length train. She carried a nosegay centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Sheryl Smith, the matron of honor, wore a street-length dress of blue peau de soie. Her head piece was a blue peau de soie with a shoulder length veil of blue net.

Gene Jones, Plainview, was the best man and ushers were Bill Jones, Arlington, and Joe D. Hinson, Clifton.

Teresa Lynn Nixon was the flower girl and Keven Rhoton was the ring bearer. Jackie Rudd and James Lynn Gaines, brothers of the bride, carried the altar tapers.

For the wedding trip to Fort Worth and Dallas, the bride wore a yellow crepe suit with white accessories.

The couple will make their home at 1104 1/2 E. 12th when they return here. Mrs. Rudd is a graduate of Coahoma High School and is employed at T.G. and Y. Family Center. The groom is a graduate of Big Spring High School and is on leave from duty with the U.S. Air Force. He will be leaving for a tour of duty in Thailand on Nov. 22.

Miss Nan Santiago Is Wed To Joe Arista

Miss Nan Santiago, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Santiago, and Joe Arista, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Arista, were united in marriage Saturday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

The 10 a.m. ceremony had the Rev. J. P. Delaney as the officiant. Organist Santos Lujan played "Ave Maria," "Forever Yours," and "More" as pre-nuptial offerings.

The ceremony was read beneath an arch entwined with boxwood and the background was of white gladioli with emerald fern. Baskets of gladioli and fern were placed at either side of the arch.

The bride's guardian, Oscar Juarez, escorted her to the altar. She wore an empire A-line gown of lace and taffeta with long fitted sleeves. A bow accented the dress at the back waistline from which the train, made of layers of lace, cascaded. The bridal veil was also of lace and was held by a crown of pearls. Her bouquet of white carnations was designed in the shape of a cross and entwined with a crystal rosary.

The bridesmaids dresses were of red wine georgette, styled along the Empire line. Their headpieces were pink pompons with wine streamers. Serving as bridesmaids were Mrs. Ruben Billalba, Dallas, Mrs. Marcos Lopez, Miss Inez Salazar, Miss Frances Billalba, Miss Joanna Renteria, Miss Celia Correa, Miss Margie Gonzales, Miss Mary Velasquez, Miss Alva Anandez, Miss Janie Robles, Miss Melinda Daren, Miss Margie Rubio and Miss Margie Sanchez.

The maid of honor, Miss Beatrice Billalba, wore a dress of white crepe, and her headpiece was made of white pompons with pink streamers. The matron of honor was Mrs. Manuel Puga of Dallas, sister of the bridegroom.

Manuel Puga was the best man and groomsmen were Ruben Billalba, Dallas, Marcos Lopez, Pat Arista Jr., Willie Menchaca, Andy Mendoza, Marcos Rocha, Diego Olague, Andrew Ortega, Arthur Arsiago, Rosendo Robles, Joe Renteria, and Victor Lopez.

Clara Jean Brown was the flower girl, and the trainbearers were Delia Billalba and Noel Juarez. Tommy Billalba and Joanna Clavaran carried the rings.

When the couple left on a wedding trip, the bride wore a two-piece navy blue suit with matching accessories.

The couple will be at home in Big Spring. She is a 1969 graduate of Slaton High School and is employed at the Big Spring State Hospital. The groom, also employed at the state hospital, will graduate with the 1970 class at Big Spring High School.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the Sacred Heart Youth Center and guests were received by the bridal couple, Mrs. Oscar Juarez and Mrs. Rosalia Billalba.

MRS. JOE ARISTA

ABC's Of Nursing Told By Speaker

Mrs. Betty Condray, registered nurse, and in-service director at Big Spring State Hospital, spoke on the ABC's of Nursing at Tuesday's meeting of District 16 Texas Nurses Association in San Angelo.

Mrs. Condray discussed what nursing is, and what it is not. She said that it is academic, active, vivacious and giving.

Lt. Louise Williamson of Goodfellow Air Force Base was honored as the 1969 nurse of the year.

Wall plaques will be presented to the Texas Nurse's Association members who recognize all facilities employing more than five registered nurses and have 100 per cent membership in their professional organization.

Mrs. Lewis Moss Honored At Party

Mrs. Lewis Moss was complimented with a pink and blue shower Saturday in the home of Mrs. James Norman, 1507 Sycamore.

Cohostesses were Mrs. Lawrence Whisenant, Mrs. Jesse Moore and Mrs. Jimmy Norman.

The refreshment table was laid with a cutwork cloth over pink and centered with a large stork.

The honoree was presented with gifts and a corsage made from pink baby socks.

Bride-Elect Honored At Luncheon

Miss Terrye Jo O'Brien, bride-elect of Toy J. Henson Jr. of Arlington, was complimented at a luncheon Friday in Big Spring Country Club. Mrs. Jerry Worthy and Mrs. R. W. Whipkey were cohostesses.

The honoree was attired in a plaid wool dress in pink, olive and white. She greeted guests with her mother, Mrs. George O'Brien Jr., and her grandmothers, Mrs. George O'Brien Sr. and Mrs. J. Y. Robb; and her fiancée's mother, Mrs. Joy J. Henson Sr., and his grandmother, Mrs. Lada Hill of Aspermont.

The quartet tables were laid with green cloths and at opposite corners of the table were low arrangements of green fuchsia chrysanthemums, white pompons, lemon leaves and leather fern.

The hostess' gift was cookware.

The couple will marry Nov. 29 at the First Presbyterian Church in Midland.

Approximately 25 attended from Midland, Arlington, Abilene, Aspermont, Dallas and Big Spring.

Back From Award Trip

KNOTT (SC) — Mrs. Porter Motley has returned from Austin where she flew Friday to receive her Top's 'n Texas award, a non-partisan recognition arranged by the Texas Federation of Republican Women of Texas.

This was her first flight, and she said she was excited over it and the reception and award. The TFRWT arranged for her flight and for her substitute teacher at the Grady school.

Mrs. Gray Ware of Odessa was honored with a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. Son Ditto last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon McClanahan were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jeffcoat.

Robert Herren and Kelley Gaskins were recent weekend guests of Johnny McGregor, who is a student at Texas A&M. They took part in a career day and then attended the A&M and Baylor football game.

Mrs. Ernest Resley, Fort Stockton, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Jeffcoat, Richardson, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jeffcoat.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffcoat visited Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wilborn at St. Lawrence during the weekend and went to the fall festival.

OWC Hears Program On Interior Design

Thomas R. Berry, AID, of Boswell-Foy, Inc., gave the program on interior design at Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Officer's Wives Club in the Officer's Open Mess at Webb Air Force Base.

Berry answered questions concerning the use of color coordinates, furnishings that blend well together and personalized accessories.

Hublein, Inc., was in charge of the hospitality hour preceding lunch. The program was sponsored by wives of DCO. General chairman was Mrs. A. Atkinson; decorations, Mrs. R. C. Taylor, Mrs. M. J. Rega and Mrs. G. Hall; menu, Mrs. R. W. Peterson and Mrs. R. Speckman; door prizes, Mrs. J. S. Grimes and Mrs. H. T. Boe; and publicity, Mrs. R. L. McCormack.

A Thanksgiving menu was served. The tables were laid with white cloths and centered with gaily colored silk scarves and intricately cut Hublein bottles. The head table was centered with a large arrangement of fall flowers.

Mrs. Fred Kanetter won the floral arrangement. Other door prize winners included Mrs. Harold Boe, Mrs. Dennis Olson, Mrs. Henry Rimmer, Mrs. Frank Boaner, Mrs. Chandler B. # Women's Division Adopts Miss Teenage Pageant

Members of the Women's Division of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce have "adopted" the Miss Teenage America Pageant.

These 160 women — many of them mothers of teenagers — are selling tickets to the coronation program, which will be telecast nationally from the Tarrant County Convention Center at 9 p.m. CST Nov. 15 over CBS.

They are contacting individuals, as well as executives of large corporations, in an effort to distribute 12,397 tickets to the 90-minute spectacular featuring singer Oliver, dancer Bobby Van and television personalities Dick Clark and Marilyn Van Derbur, who will serve as host and hostess.

Members of the Women's Division have made a study of the Miss Teenage America Pageant, which last year received the highest share-of-audience rating of any fall special, according to the A. C. Nielsen report.

Priced at $4, $3 and $2, the tickets enable viewers to get a first-hand look at how a live, network telecast is produced. Ordinarily, they would have to travel to New York to see such a major production, reminds Mrs. Billie Hiser, chairman of ticket sales.

Mail orders should be sent to Central Ticket Office, Sheraton-Fort Worth Hotel, 815 Main, or to the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce 700 Throckmorton.

The 800 best seats in the house will go to holders of $25 VIP tickets. The VIPs are invited to a black-tie champagne reception before the telecast and to the Miss Teenage America ball and buffet afterward in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton-Fort Worth.

VIP ticket-holders will get a close look at the 45 candidates representing cities throughout the nation as they dance with their escorts from Texas A&M University. They'll also mingle with the telecast entertainers and celebrity judges, says Mrs. Nancy Wilson Winnett, VIP chairman.

Mail orders for VIP tickets will be filled through the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to selling tickets, members of the Women's Division will be hostesses for a tea honoring the candidates' mothers and chaperones on Wednesday, Nov. 12. Explained Mrs. Edward Moore, chairman, "This will give people from all over the country a chance to get better acquainted with Texas hospitality."

The Women's Division of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce is headed by Mrs. Helen Lee, director of women's services at a local bank. Representing a wide range of professions, members include real estate brokers, a nationally-known gospel singer, teachers, a school administrator, public relations representatives and an executive secretary.

'Spice It Up' With Correct Seasonings

Seasonings are to food as accessories are to fashion. The right ones in the right amounts enhance the final effect — the wrong ones or wrong amounts destroy it.

Cooking with herbs is an adventure with no hard and fast rules. This leaves the field wide open for exciting experimentation. Here are a few helpful hints to aid in achieving perfection everytime:

No one can say how much of any spice or herb to use. As a beginner, follow well tested recipes. One-fourth teaspoon of dried herbs or spice is sufficient for four servings (one-eighth teaspoon of cayenne or garlic powder is sufficient). Crush whole herbs in palm of hand before adding to the recipe, but after measuring.

For hot dishes, add herbs or spice toward end of cooking so flavor does not simmer away. For chilled foods or salad dressing, add seasonings well in advance to allow flavors ample time to "marry."

When substituting dried herbs for fresh, remember that dried herbs are more potent. One-fourth teaspoon dried equals one teaspoon fresh.

Balance seasonings in cooking. Do not use too many different seasonings in one dish or one meal. Since herbs and spices gradually lose color and flavor, do not buy in large quantities. Those bought in whole form last longer than those that are ground or powdered.

Always store herbs and spices in coolest part of the kitchen in air-tight containers to preserve flavor and aroma.

SUGGESTIONS FOR USING HERBS AND SPICES
Beverages: Hot or cold tea may be flavored by adding sprigs of curly mint, apple mint, orange mint, spearmint, lemon balm or lemon thyme. Refreshing drinks may be brewed from lemon balm, almost all mints, lemon thyme or sage and served with a slice of lemon and sugar if desired.

Tomato juice may be pleasingly flavored by adding chopped onion, celery or lovage, basil, tarragon, marjoram, and bay leaf. After it has stood several hours, strain and serve cold with lemon or lime.

Beef: After removal from the oven, roasts may be flavored by spreading sweet marjoram flavored butter or finely chopped fresh or powdered dry marjoram leaves over the surface. Steaks broiled or fried may be topped with butter flavored with dill, marjoram, thyme, or parsley and a little lemon juice; or the surface may be sprinkled with the finely chopped herbs immediately after removal from fire. Stews or loaves may be made more appetizing by adding small quantities of one or more of the following: Thyme, sweet marjoram, summer savory, chervil, parsley or celery. Oregon adds Italian flavor to beef. Cumin and oregano give a Mexican flavor.

Pork: Chops may be rubbed with lemon juice, powdered sweet marjoram, and a few seeds of caraway before cooking, and topped with dill butter after cooking. Fresh ham rubbed with powdered sage before cooking and served with a pan of dressing flavored with poultry seasoning creates a delicious combination. Sausage and other ground or chopped meats are usually flavored with sage.

Lamb: Various combinations of marjoram, thyme, parsley, garlic or onion may be used. Dill butter or chopped dill leaves with hot butter may be spread on lamb chops. Curry adds the flavor of India to lamb.

Veal: Thyme or marjoram is generally used in combinations.

CWF Hears Talks By Guest Speakers

Mrs. Melvin McFall brought the program, "Who Is My Neighbor?" at Thursday's meeting of the Christian Women's Fellowship at the First Christian Church.

Assisting her on the program were Mrs. Gale Clough of Coahoma, who spoke on her volunteer work to teach English to Latin Americans; Mrs. Mary Cochran, volunteer coordinator at Big Spring State Hospital; Mrs. John Smith, teacher of handicapped children in public schools; Mrs. Curtis Driver, teacher in a private school; Mrs. H. W. Smith, volunteer worker to the Big Spring State Hospital and the Veterans Administration Hospital; Mrs. Jimmie Powers, volunteer worker; and Mrs. Lloyd Brooks, church school teacher.

Mrs. Pete Warren gave the devotion.

with summer savory and chervil; also, marjoram and basil with thin slices of veal dipped in flour, egg and crumbs and cooked in deep fat.

Fowl: Various combinations of poultry seasoning made of fresh or dried leaves of basil, lovage, marjoram, parsley, rosemary, summer savory, sage and thyme may be used to add variety to the different dishes.

Fish: Broiled or fried fish may have pleasing flavors added by using dill butter or finely chopped dill, basil, or tarragon leaves. Shrimp may be simmered in butter with chopped basil leaves and clam chowder may be served with a dash of powdered thyme.

Eggs: The many egg dishes that are so commonly prepared may be agreeably varied in flavor by using one of the "fine herbs" — basil, marjoram, rosemary, thyme or tarragon for special accent blended with chive, parsley, summer savory, celery, or herb butters.

Breads: Toasted sesame, caraway and poppy seeds can be sprinkled on top of breads and rolls before they are baked. They are also good in cookies and wafers. Cardamon, cumin and fennel are sometimes added to yeast breads.

Salads: All herbs add to the flavor of both salads and salad dressings. Chill the herb with the salad or dressing before serving. Crushing brings out extra flavor. Paprika, chives, thyme and cayenne bring out the flavor of cottage cheese.

Vegetables: Eggplant, squash, tomatoes, onions, carrots, peas, and potatoes are excellent with herbs and spices. In tomatoes use basil, bay leaves, oregano, sage, fines herbs and cloves. In carrots use mint, marjoram, thyme, ginger and nutmeg. In potatoes use herb butters, rosemary, mace and paprika.

Familiarize yourself with a few scents and flavors at a time, broadening your scope gradually. For a start, select perhaps six herbs and four spices of markedly different bouquet and flavoring qualities. Each time you use one — and before adding them to your recipe — taste the unseasoned base, smell the seasoning several times, and taste the seasoned product repeatedly during the cooking.

RECIPE FOR HERB BUTTERS

TERS
1/2 tsp. dried herbs
1/4 cup butter (unsalted)
Lemon juice

Allow dried herbs to stand for a few minutes in a little lemon juice before mixing with butter. Combine with butter. Store in refrigerator in small covered jar (herb butter will keep several days). Spread on sandwiches, broiled or fried meats or fish just before they are served. Also serve with boiled, poached or scrambled eggs.

HERB BREAD

Mix together in large mixing bowl:
1 cup lukewarm milk
2 tbsps. sugar
1 1/2 tbsps. salt
Crumble into mixture:
1 cake compressed yeast
Stir until yeast is well dissolved.

Add:
1 egg
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1 tsp. crumbled sage
2 tbsps. caraway seeds
2 tbsps. soft shortening
Mix in with spoon, then with hand:
3 to 3 1/2 cups sifted flour
Add the flour in two additions using the amount necessary to make easy to handle. When the dough begins to leave the sides of the bowl, turn it out onto a lightly floured board to knead. Knead until dough is smooth, elastic and doesn't stick to board. Place in greased bowl, turning once to bring greased side up. Cover with damp cloth and let rise until double. Shape into loaf (9x5x3 inch pan). Let rise until double. Bake at 375 degrees 45 to 50 minutes.

HERBED ROAST LEG OF LAMB

1 tsp. minced marjoram
1 tsp. minced d thyme
1 tsp. minced rosemary
1 garlic clove, crushed
1 six-pound leg of lamb
2 tbsps. olive oil
2 tbsps. flour
1 cup dry white wine
1 tsp. salt

Crush garlic with salt and pepper. Mix with olive oil. Spread on lamb. Sprinkle lamb with marjoram, thyme, rosemary and flour. Pour wine and one cup of water in roasting pan with lamb. Roast in a slow oven 325 degrees for 2 1/2 hours, basting frequently.

CABBAGE WITH CARAWAY SEED

1 medium head cabbage
Water
1/2 tsp. salt
3 tbsps. butter
1 tsp. caraway seed
1/2 tsp. marjoram leaves
Shred entire cabbage head.

Area Residents Visit, Take Trips

WESTBROOK (SC) — Guests in the Quann Bryants home Monday were Mrs. Bill Yarbrough, Mrs. Roy Johnson and son of Victoria, Mrs. Tommy Bryant and son of Abilene, Mrs. Ralph Bryant and daughter and Mrs. Mike Woodard of Georgia. Mrs. Johnson also visited with the Kenneth Elletts.

Mrs. N. F. Fuson of Big Lake visited with her son, Danny Whitehead, who is a senior in the Westbrook, and with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Moody, during the week.

Mrs. J. A. Moody is in Odessa with her son and his family. Her grandson, Dallas Dye, underwent surgery Wednesday.

Mrs. A. L. Young has returned from a visit in Shiprock, N.M., where she visited her granddaughter, Margie, a teacher on the Indian reservation there. She was accompanied by Margie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Oglesby, Bronte.

Visiting with their parents have been two college students, Miss Janie Putman, doing student teaching work at Texas Tech, and Larry Miller, freshman student at Tarleton College. Janie is the daughter of Mrs. A. C. Putman and the late Mr. Putman; Larry's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy (Barb) Miller.

ENGAGED — Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tubbs, 133 Jonesboro Road, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Karon Elizabeth, to Bobby Rodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rodman, Silver Heels. ## WEBB WINDSOCK

By MRS. JOHN MACKE
Thanks and sympathy go to Maj. P. H. Raigan, who spent the bulk of several days escorting a busload of gagging women on the 08 wives' Red Carpet tour. Can't imagine what he has done to deserve such a fate.

On the tour, Louise Kozlowicz displayed valor above and beyond the call of duty when a volunteer was requested to demonstrate spacial disorientation in a spinning chair. There was the usual uneasy shifting and sidelong glances while everyone wondered why someone else wouldn't step forward. It took Louise to preserve the honor of 08 wives.

That shy hesitancy was gone by the time this group reached the "links" on the second leg of the tour. (For the benefit of non-Air Force readers, a link is a flight simulator—sort of a cockpit without the rest of the plane.) Here we got a pretty good idea of just how difficult jobs our men have. How they manage to monitor all those instruments is a mystery to me; my own eyes were glued to one instrument throughout the entire "flight." Only a few of the wives "crashed," (no names will be mentioned.) On the whole we didn't do too poorly — for beginners.

A Devotion For Today . . .

Thy way was through the sea, thy path through the great waters; yet thy footprints were unseen. (Psalm 77:19, RSV)

PRAYER: Father, we thank Thee for Thine unseen footprints which surround us with loving concern. We would become persons who practice brotherhood toward those who live under crushing conditions. In the name of Christ, who is a brother to all. Amen.

(From the 'Upper Room')

Honor To A Man And His Town

Dr. Charles Warren has been selected by Texas Jaycees as one of the five outstanding Young Texans of 1969.

This is a great honor for him, also for Big Spring. His selection is the occasion for a double measure of pride, for he is the fourth Big Spring man to have achieved this very highest honor. Others who were so cited were Dr. J. E. Hogan, one of the founders of the city's largest clinic and hospital; Dan M. Krausse, now president of Earth Resources in Dallas; and James M. (Bobo) Hardy, now national director of research for the YMCA. This is distinguished company.

Dr. Warren has demonstrated that remarkable balance of achievement and service. He has excelled in his profession as a dentist; he has nevertheless found time to plow back his talents into his community, being a leader in the YMCA; serving as a trustee of Howard County Junior College (which he once attended); serving as a Little League manager and in countless other ways working with young people and children; exercising leadership and devoted service to his church and otherwise contributing to the moral fibre of the town, dignifying the role of father in his fine family.

His calibre of performance, and that of the three others so honored, is indicative that Big Spring has an atmosphere to encourage development of young men toward a full measure of their potential. It is also indicative that there are others, too, who in their own way have similar talents and capacities. In short, we are blessed with a reservoir of exceptional young talent and leadership. We must make it an urgent order of business to use these young people who are anxious to help.

Your Suggestions Are Needed

This has been proclaimed as Chamber of Commerce Week in Big Spring, thus underlining efforts of the chamber to draw the community into its program as planners and participants.

Everyone in Big Spring and Howard County will have an opportunity to make suggestions for what should or could be done to advance the economy and the livability of our community. There are two ways in which this can be done — one is to visit the chamber offices during the week and personally list or discuss proposals with staff members. The other — which may appeal to more of the non-members — is to clip out a coupon in page ads which will run during the week and mail in any ideas or suggestions. In this connection, it must be emphasized that the chamber wants ideas from everyone, not just those who are members. The broader the base, the more apt it is to be complete and representative.

There is no magic in a chamber's program. The first step is to find out what needs to be done — just what this week is designed to do. The second step is to determine how it will be done — and here the President's Task Force on Priorities can perform a real service in pinpointing the most urgent and immediate goals. The third thing is to do it.

This latter step is the payoff, for as important as planning may be, nothing happens until there is execution.

In order to execute any program, there must be manpower and there must be resources.

So while it is tremendously important that we solicit suggestions from every quarter of our town and then weld them into a workable design for action, it also will be necessary later to do everything possible to widen support of the chamber with effort and money. The chamber or its plan won't be perfect, but they will be miles ahead of any other agency equipped to make everybody's business somebody's business when it comes to the business of a better town and county.

The Great Silent Majority

WASHINGTON — The strategy of the Nixon Administration is now clear to everyone. It is to condemn the critics and appeal to the people who aren't saying anything. Monday evening President Nixon once again asked support from the "Great Silent Majority of Fellow Americans," otherwise known as the GSMFA.

Is there a GSMFA, or is it a political figment of the Administration's imagination? I decided to find out.

I CHOSE A typical American street with typical American houses and typical American cars parked in the driveways.

I went up to the first house and rang the bell.

"I beg your pardon," I said to the lady who answered the door. "I wish to speak to a member of the Great Silent Majority of Fellow Americans."

Billy Graham

Do you have any personal problems? If you do, how do you cope with them? C.H.

No one escapes personal problems. Life is a composite of light and shadow, good and evil, peace and perplexity. Perhaps, by virtue of my responsibility, I have more problems than the average. I will be happy to tell you how I cope with them.

First, I expect problems. So, I am not surprised when they come up. As the saying goes, to be forewarned is to be forearmed. It is folly to believe that Christians have fewer problems than anyone else. Due to the fact that we are "citizens of heaven," we may even have more.

Second, I take these problems to the Lord in prayer. He has promised to share our burdens, and He never fails His children. I claim such promises as: "Call unto Me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things." Prayer conditions you for action.

Third, after praying, I listen for God's direction. Prayer is a two-way conversation — the oldest "walkie-talkie" known to man. Don't do all the talking — listen for God's answer to the problem.

Fourth, I saturate my mind with the Scriptures. God speaks the clearest through His Word. If you do these things methodically, you will find that most of your problems will be resolved. "Ask and ye shall receive; seek and ye shall find."

"You can't," she said brusquely. "Why not?"

"HE'S ASLEEP. He's always asleep. Comes home from work, eats his dinner and then flakes out immediately." She slammed the door.

I went to the next house, knocked and a child came to the door. "May I speak to one of the Great Silent Majority of Fellow Americans, please?"

She pointed toward the living room. A man, bald head, in his forties, drinking a can of beer, was seated in front of his television set watching replays of last Sunday's professional football games.

"SIR, I'M doing a survey of the vast, silent American majority. President Nixon is appealing to. What did you think of the President's plan to get us out of Vietnam?"

The man belched. "Do you agree with President Nixon?" I asked, "that it is not us but Hanoi who refuses to make peace?"

The man grunted but refused to take his eyes off his TV set.

"Sir, don't you have any opinion on the efforts of the President to bring about peace with honor to the most troubled spot in all of Southeast Asia?"

A COMMERCIAL came on and the man turned slowly to me. "Get the hell out of here."

I skipped two houses and then rang the bell. A man came to the door and smiled.

"Sir, are you one of the great majority of silent Americans to whom President Nixon addressed his remarks last Monday?" I asked.

"Well," he said, "if you ask me . . . Suddenly his wife appeared at the door.

"Who is it? What does he want?" she asked.

"FELLOW WANTS to talk to me about President Nixon's speech." "Hah, that's the biggest joke of the year. When they start asking you what you think, then you know the country's in trouble," his wife shouted.

"But," the husband said, "I believe that . . ."

"Bowling!" his wife said to me. "Ask him about bowling. That's the only thing he knows anything about. The furnace is on the fritz, but that doesn't stop him from going out to bowl, while the rest of us catch pneumonia. Mister, you got the wrong house."

Now They Worry About Braking Slowdown

NEW YORK (AP) — Confidence that the rate of economic slowdown can be braked before a skid into recession appears to be spreading among economists.

Most observers of the business scene concede that government monetary and fiscal restraints have cooled the overheated economy except in the area of corporate investment for expansion of production facilities.

There has been apprehension that the clamps placed on business in an effort to curb inflation might prove so tight that recession would be the result.

William S. Renchard, chairman of Chemical Bank of New York, said this past week that he expected the economy to slow down markedly in the next year but that conditions would not "deteriorate into recession."

He told a news conference in Frankfurt, Germany: "I believe the present policies are working and that inflationary forces will lessen."

But he added: "We may be about to enter a period that could become a politician's nightmare: continuing inflation combined with rising unemployment."

Henry C. Wallich, a senior consultant to Secretary of the Treasury David Kennedy, said production has declined slightly since July and evidence of other slowdowns "is already coming in."

The job ahead, he said, is to "reaccelerate the engine without causing the economy to take off into renewed inflation." He expressed the opinion that success in this area "should begin to be visible" about the middle of next year.

A survey by McGraw-Hill Publications Co. indicated that the plans of business for spending on new plants and equipment in 1970 hasn't been dampened to any great degree by high interest rates and curtailed supply of credit.

The poll showed that corporations plan to invest a total of $76.7 billion next year, an 8 per cent increase over the $70.8 billion estimated for this year.

The Commerce Department reported this past week that consumers in the next six months are expected to buy fewer cars and houses.

Sales of U.S.-made passenger cars fell 7.7 per cent in October to 884,675 from a record 884,833 a year earlier.

Steel production last week

rose to the highest level since mid-May. Output of 2,812,000 tons was 0.6 per cent above the 2,796,000 tons the previous week.

What Others Say

According to the Wall Street Journal, a Los Angeles sports writer regularly features the Bottom Ten in his column — the nation's 10 worst football teams. The sorriest loser among them has star billing in what the columnist calls The Rout of the Week.

Not a bad idea — except that it does sort of expose the luckless coaches. Being Effigy of the Week ranks in this country with the Ten Least Wanted Men, a category that some wit has proposed to the FBI as a means of laughing crime out of existence.

Around The Rim When The Old Body Falls Apart

Each of us knows full well that, as Father Time steps off his paces, the old human body is going to come apart at the seams.

Our attitude generally is, though, that the matter of physical deterioration is happening to the other fellow, not to us. Like the auto accident.

MEANWHILE we continue in the quest for the Fountain of Youth, as has mankind for thousands of years, never losing hope that the magic potion will come about to keep us healthy, if not eternally young.

But, facing up to the aging process: Some of its aspects we get resigned to, others cause us a great deal of fret.

About the first things that happen to a human after he enters into that nebulous realm called middle age are: his feet hurt more than they used to, and there begins to occur something labeled lower back pains.

IN THE FIRST instance, he tries to do something about the type shoes, finds a change won't help, and concedes that he'll just stay off his feet more.

In the second instance, he also finds, eventually, that nothing is going to restore a sound back, and he had just as well learn to live with those aches. Takes a little longer to straighten up in the morning, but, after all, nearly everybody else has back pains, too.

FOR SOME REASON, eyes are organs that begin to suffer early from wear and tear. The person who has been fortunate enough to get into mid-de age without spectacles gradually finds he can't see as well as he once did. The optometrist test confirms this, and all of a sudden he is donning eyeglasses — perhaps requiring a couple of pair, or ending up with bifocals or trifocals.

THIS IS something of a blow to pride, but one learns to live under a new set of circumstances, noting that, here again, a lot of other people are in the same fix.

Next comes the shocker: It's the teeth. They begin to hurt, or they fall out, or something worse happens to them. The visit to the dentist has to be faced up to. And there are few more things more traumatic to the person who regards himself as "healthy" than having the guy in the white coat peer into the mouth cavity, and announce "they've got to come out."

NOW DENTISTS are a competent lot, and not to be downgraded. They make good crowns, good bridges, good plates, good other-kind-of-gadgets to be stuffed into the mouth.

So that we oldsters continue to negotiate, even if we whistle when we talk or have a difficult time chewing. What dentists (or anybody else) haven't solved is that blow to pride: the blow that finally brings self-admittance that "I sure am not as young as I used to be."

So we suffer baldness, bifocals, bridges, bloating and bunions, and doubt that there really is such a thing as the Fountain of Youth.

The High Cost Of Election

WASHINGTON — With each election the cost of campaigning reaches new astronomical heights. It is a shocker, putting political office on the auction block for the highest bidder and contributing to the cynicism with which a great many citizens view the democratic process.

The reason, of course, is television. Competing for attention with a thousand and one distractions, the hapless candidate, whether for sheriff or governor, turns to the tube. And when buying time he must in most instances pay the highest rate on the advertisers' rate card.

THE MONEY to foot the bill comes from the only sources where money in large amounts is available — big business, big labor, the powerful lobbies. With rare exceptions the motivation is not high-minded altruism. The conduct of the winning candidate — his votes in Senate and House — will be closely scrutinized by the big contributor proving out his claim. One senator frankly admits he maneuvered for committee assignments which would put him in a position to help pay back political debts.

WHEN THE Mayor of New York reports spending $1,700,000, which will probably when all the bills are in be at least $2,000,000, there is plainly no limit. The Lindsay money has a higher claim to interest in good government without consideration of personal gain than most campaign funds. A lot of it came from the scorned limousine liberals appalled by the thinly disguised appeals to racism of the Lindsay opposition.

REPEATED ATTEMPTS to get campaign costs from small individual contributors, for example, by granting an income tax deduction or an outright tax offset — have failed. Given the loopholes in the Federal Corrupt Practices Act, it has been so much easier to rely on the big-money contributor with an ever-ready check-book.

National, state and local political spending in 1968 is estimated at $300,000,000, according to the National Committee for an Effective Congress. Of this total nearly $60,000,000 went for political broadcasts, the Federal Communications Commission reported. And that was a 70 per cent increase over 1964.

WITH THE high cost of politics almost certain to continue spiraling upwards, a proposal is before Congress aimed directly at the television charge. As worked out by the Committee for an Effective Congress, the bill would give Senate and House candidates prime time in the five weeks before an election at a cost of 30 per cent of the going rate for one-minute spots and 20 per cent for one 30-minute program. The measure has an impressive list of sponsors.

IN OPPOSITION, Frank Stanton of CBS argued that TV stations would be swamped with political broadcasts to such an extent that they would lose their audiences. Using New York City as an example, Stanton contended that each of eight commercial stations would have to provide one and a half hours of political program time and 23 minutes of spot announcements each evening for 35 consecutive nights before the election.

Discount rates for TV time may not be the answer. But Congress is in a mood for action and the broadcasting industry had better have its own alternative or face an arbitrary formula such as proposed in the reform bill.

Mr. Nixon Makes Position Clear

WASHINGTON — President Nixon, in his appeal for support from the "great silent majority" of Americans, put together for the first time in a cogent and convincing manner the chronological facts which explain why there is no peace in Vietnam today.

Mr. Nixon realizes that people generally have not been well informed and that efforts have been made to influence them by agitators, activists and politicians who have been trying to undermine the confidence of the American people in his administration.

BUT THE SPEECH emphasized something even more important — namely, that the war has been prolonged by the very groups and elements in the United States which, while calling for an immediate end of the war, have by their demonstrations been encouraging the enemy to believe that it need make no concessions because it will win in the end anyway.

The President, however, in unequivocal language declared that there will be no "precipitate withdrawal of all American forces from Vietnam." This, he said, would be "a disaster not only for South Vietnam but for the United States and for the cause of peace." He added that such a step "would inevitably allow the Communists to repeat the massacres which followed their takeover in the North (of Vietnam) 15 years before," when they "murdered more than 50,000 people and hundreds of thousands more died in slave-labor camps."

THE PRESIDENT predicted that a sudden collapse of support by the United States in South Vietnam would bring "a bloody reign of terror" and atrocities, particularly for the million and a half Catholic refugees who fled to South Vietnam when the Communists obtained control of North Vietnam. But even more significant, as the President pointed out, "this first defeat in our nation's history would result in a collapse of confidence in America's leadership, not only in Asia but throughout the world." The President went even further. He said:

"OUR DEFEAT and humiliation in South Vietnam would without question promote recklessness in the councils of those great powers who have not yet abandoned their goals of world conquest."

Mr. Nixon added that this might spark violence wherever our commitments have been helping to maintain peace—in the Middle East and Berlin and eventually in the western hemisphere. Thus, a "precipitate withdrawal" would ultimately cost more lives, the President said unhesitatingly, and would not bring peace—only more war.

THE NARRATION of the efforts by Mr. Nixon to find a settlement, including an exchange of letters with Ho Chi Minh, and of the refusal of the North Vietnamese to cooperate in any way in the making of peace was the first time an American President had laid the whole story on the line. There was no response to our attempts to enlist from the Moscow government "assistance in getting meaningful negotiations started," so it can be assumed that the Soviets as well as the Red Chinese will go on stirring up trouble in the world — something that could lead to a big war.

IN THE House of Representatives, 50 Republicans and 50 Democrats are sponsoring a bipartisan resolution which would proclaim the support of Congress for the President's policy in Vietnam. Such a resolution, if passed, would be helpful to the whole cause of peace.

'Self Image' Probed By Sorority

"Self Image," was the topic of a program brought for the Texas Delta Delta Chapter of Phi Sigma Alpha at the Thursday meeting in the home of Mrs. Adrien Westbrook, 401 Hillside.

Mrs. Johnny Winham, program chairman, had all members participating in the program that brought out the thought that all people are taught to love themselves as well as their neighbor.

Mrs. W. E. Moren presided for the business meeting and Mrs. Winham, who was the chapter delegate to the state convention held in Fort Worth Oct. 24-26, reported on the activities. Members were told of the sorority's future plans and were urged by the convention to tell more Big Spring women of the benefits of the organization. It was the first state convention for Texas.

A social hour followed the business session.

M. E. Dyer and Callie Mae Brown were married on Nov. 6, 1904, in Joplin, Tex., by the Rev. John Mills. They moved to the Flower Grove Community in 1923 to farm, and in 1937, they moved to the Ackerly community.

Mr. Dyer is now retired, but still has his garden every summer, and hauls cotton to the gin for his son and grandson.

Mrs. Dyer crochets for past time. Both attend the Ackerly Methodist Church as they are able, and in former years, they were extremely active at the old Flower Grove Methodist Church, where Mr. Dyer was the song leader.

Creation Of Woman Told By Mrs. W. D. R. Lund

"God made woman because He saw the need for her," said Mrs. W. D. R. Lund when she reviewed the book, "Martha, Martha," at Thursday's meeting of St. Paul Lutheran Parish Workers in her home at 64

Chanute. "Man was made of all creation, but woman was made to crown his head," said Mrs. Lund. "She was taken from his rib to show purity and to be loved and cherished by him. She was not made to top him, nor to be trampled upon by him, but to be his beloved."

Mrs. Bill Davis gave the devotion on "Women of the Church."

Plans were made to buy Christmas gifts for the patients at Big Spring State Hospital. A Chinese auction will be held Dec. 14, and the proceeds will be sent to Clifford Horn, a missionary in Japan. Clothes for the Lutheran World Relief will be mended and packed for mailing.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Davis and Mrs. A. A. Graumann. The next meeting will be Dec. 4 in the home of Mrs. John Foster, 503 Scurry, when new officers will be elected. Those on the nominating committee are Mrs. H. T. Hansen and Mrs. W. F. Pachall.

Miss Latimer Weds Billy Gene Sullivan

Miss Deborah Lynn Latimer became the bride of Billy Gene Sullivan at 6 o'clock Saturday evening in the Coahoma Church of Christ.

Howard Swinney of Anson, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony before an archway of greenery flanked with candelabra and palm trees and twin baskets of white gladioli.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Latimer, Route One, and Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sullivan of Colorado City.

Dennis Greenfield sang "The Twelfth of Never," and Mrs. Truman Pherrigo sang "I Love You Truly." Other traditional selections were sung by a vocal group comprised of Miss Ann Crawford, Miss Clarinda Harris, Mrs. Bill Read, Mrs. Pherrigo, Greenfield and Mrs. Don Allen.

The bride was attired in a formal sheath gown of Chantilly lace designed with an overdress of slipper satin. The overdress was fashioned with a high, rounded neckline, petal point sleeves and a belted skirt. Her bouffant veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of seed pearls, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white gladiolus atop a white Bible.

Miss Beverly Berry was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Susan Winters of Vincent and Miss Leah Harris. The attendants were attired in mystic blue formal gowns with an upstanding band around the high neckline and long sleeves. The dropped waistline was gathered at the hipline, and a large inverted pleat accented the back. They wore chapel caps of mystic blue lace and sequins, and carried long stemmed white carnations.

Bobby Sullivan, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Groomsmen were Billy King and Lynn King. Ushers were Donnie Latimer, brother of the bride, and Gene Sullivan of Colorado City, brother of the bridegroom. The altar tapers were lighted by the ushers.

The couple left on a wedding trip, and for travelling, the

SCHOOLS

The bride is attending Coahoma High School and is employed by Byrons Transfer and Storage. The bridegroom graduated from Big Spring High School.

A reception was held in the church annex. The refreshment table was laid with a blue cloth accented with miniature wedding bells, and centered with a miniature bridal couple encircled with white carnations. The three-tiered cake was white, and crystal and silver appointments completed the setting.

Miss Brenda Petty presided at the guest register. Others in the house party were Mrs. Dennis Greenfield, Mrs. Jerry Robertson, Mrs. Ross Roberts, Mrs. P. A. Wynn, Mrs. J. T. Swinney and Mrs. T. A. Harris.

GUESTS

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Berry and Freddie Leonard; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Berry, Bonham; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parks, Houston; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Williams, Weatherford; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Latimer, Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Latimer and Mrs. J. A. Latimer, all of Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Swinney, Odessa; and Mrs. Howard Swinney and children of Anson. Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan will make their home at 402 4th, Coahoma.

Observe Anniversary At Midland Reception

It's been almost 50 years since the newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Grover Cleveland Ranne first set up a home after their wedding in Georgetown, Tex. Today, two days short of the Nov. 11 anniversary date, the couple will be honored with a reception at their home, 106 W. New York St. in Midland from 2 until 5 p.m.

Hosts for the affair will be the couple's children and their families who are Mrs. Leeman (Maurine) Jones, Midland, and Charles Ranne, Westbrook. Assisting at the celebration will be Mrs. Charles Ranne, Mrs. Tom Jones, Midland, Mrs. Royce Feaster, a granddaughter from Brownfield and Miss Linda Ranne, a granddaughter from Westbrook.

Mr. Ranne was born in Nolanville, Tex., on Oct. 3, 1897, and her birthplace was in Coryell

County on July 23, 1899. The couple now reside at the Midland address where they are living in retirement. He was a building engineer. They had previous homes in Temple and Wichita Falls. Mr. Ranne is a Methodist, and she is a member of the Baptist denomination. They are active in American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The couple has six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren and having them with them is their main interest and hobby.

Guests were expected to come from Louisiana, Georgia and Florida as well as from many points in Texas.

Guests introduced were Mrs. Lester Duffer and Mrs. Dale Dittich. Mrs. W. A. Allen won the attendance prize.

A drapery workshop was announced for Nov. 1 in the HD agent's office, and the group will assist with serving lunch at the annual Howard County Hereford Breeder's Association, Nov. 14.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Kenneth Duffer, where members will make garments to be worn in a skit to be presented later.

Texas Star Club Elects New Slate

New officers were elected by the Texas Star African Violet Club at Thursday's meeting in the home of Mrs. A. C. Moore, 1907 Main.

Those elected were Mrs. Paul Guy, president; Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscates vice president; Miss Shirley White, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Grace O'Dell, recording secretary; and Mrs. Herman Taylor, treasurer.

Mrs. J. O. Murphy, a guest, demonstrated making Christmas trees from toothpicks and styrofoam balls. The group made Christmas decorations for patients at the Veterans Administration Hospital.

Mrs. W. M. Gage, another guest, spoke on an African violet show she had recently attended. The next meeting will be a Christmas party, Dec. 14 in the home of Mrs. C. Y. Clinkscates, 705 W. 18th.

Art Of Mending Shown At Club

"The Fine Art of Mending," was the program presented by Mrs. O. D. Engle and Mrs. H. S. Hanson at Tuesday's meeting of the Fairview Home Demonstration Club. The group met in the home of Mrs. D. F. Bigony.

Guests were Mrs. George Woods, Mrs. G. C. Shaffer, Mrs. M. R. Servinling and Mrs. Walter Witte.

Mrs. O. D. Engle gave the council report, and announced the group will assist with the Howard County Hereford Breeders Association sale on Nov. 14. The next meeting will be a Thanksgiving dinner Nov. 13 in the home of Mrs. L. A. Griffith. The meeting will begin at 10:30 a.m., and members are asked to bring a covered dish.

Forsan's 1st Post Office Served Town 36 Years

By TERRY HOPKINS

With the opening of a new post office in Forsan today, reminiscent thoughts of the first, — and until Sunday — the only post office, which has served the oil-based town for 36 years, come jogging along a mind's rural route.

The made-over storage building for torpedoes (torpedoes were once used to shoot oil wells) stands as it did more than a quarter of a century ago with patchy white paint flaking away to weathered gray siding, and a creaky, swinging screen door. The 175 brass boxes with combination locks, which answer an alphabet rather than numerical tune, still support the dividing wall between the 10 by 16 foot lobby and the work area behind, and an antique set of wooden file drawers teeters precariously atop an old walnut desk in the back. The safe looks relatively new, one of the few things that belong to the U.S. Postal Department, and it will be transferred to the new building. But beside it stands an ancient hoe of Forsan fame with more than one rattle notch in its sweat stained handle.

"I've killed lots of rattlesnakes around here," Mrs. Vera Harris, owner of the building and postmaster from 1933-1968, said. "Just last year I got one under the tree nearly four feet long, big as my arm, with seven rattles left topping his tail."

Mrs. Harris remembered the time during the war when a clerk left a bit early to meet a boy-friend and skipped right over a coiled mass in the shaded corner of the front door threshold without knowing it. "A few minutes after she left someone drove up front and started blowing their car horn," Mrs. Harris said. "I was wondering if they thought the post office had curb service, but then I heard 'em tell me to get my hoe!"

FORSAN'S FIRST POST OFFICE will be giving way to the new when the second post office ever built in Forsan is dedicated at 1:30 p.m. today. Many people still have the same brass boxes they rented when the post office first opened in 1929, and Mrs. Vera Harris, owner of the building, said she'll give most of the boxes away to their tenants.

Harris' busiest time, and she stayed open from eight to six Monday through Saturday and had a clerk who worked six hours a day.

Mrs. Harris still lives behind the post office, the entire building still belongs to her. "Everything in it is mine, too," Mrs. Harris said. "But I'm giving most of it away, nearly everything has been spoken for. I'll just use the room for storage."

She said several people in Forsan still get mail in the boxes they rented when the post office first opened in 1929 and she plans to give them their boxes when the office closes.

"I'm saving one column of the boxes for my daughter, Mrs. James H. Craig, a third grade teacher at Robert Lee. She's going to use the boxes to teach her students about the post office," Mrs. Harris said.

When Mrs. Harris took over the post office in 1933 from its first postmaster, Mrs. Gladys Arnold, it was a fourth-class office and only had an early morning mail.

"The oil companies couldn't get their reports out that early though," said Mrs. Harris, "so in 1936 I managed to get a 4:30 mail out here." The afternoon mail in Forsan is now at 3:30.

"You know it's amazing that we've never been robbed here," Mrs. Harris said.

"I really enjoyed being the postmaster," Mrs. Harris said. "I've had a good time collecting every stamp that's been issued since 1933." She pulled out a manila folder and eluded to a portfolio bursting at the binding and cigar boxes stuffed tighter than they ever were with cigars, all full of stamps she's collected.

"And I always get three of whatever I buy, including the 'plate blocks.' One set is for my grandson, one for my granddaughter, and one for me." She explained that a plate block is the end of a sheet of stamps which bears the number of the plate that printed it.

"These are just the ones I've collected recently," she said as she opened the manila folder across her red and black calico lap. "It's fascinating to see all the things they commemorate with stamps." Her stamps included a variety of colors and patterns from a football and baseball series to a stamp recalling Daniel Webster's famous Dartmouth College case.

Others included last year's stamp of one of Grandma Moses' paintings, a one-cent Lincoln stamp, a stamp honoring W. C. Handy as father of the blues, and stamps which note man's latest conquest, space and the moon.

Mrs. Audry Bardwell was postmaster in Forsan from January, 1968, when Mrs. Harris retired, to April of this year when Edward L. Engel, 2101 Cecilia, Big Spring, took over as officer in charge. He is also officer in charge of the new post office.

Gas Processing Firm Organized

The formation of a new affiliate company, Perry Gas Processors, Inc., has been announced by Charles R. Perry, president of Portable Treaters Inc. Perry Gas Processors, Inc. will specialize in the field of contract gas dehydration, treating, processing and transmission.

Perry also announced that all contract processing operations of Portable Treaters Inc. have been assigned to Perry Gas Processors, Inc. With this assignment, Perry Gas Processors now operates four plants with a total of 73,000,000 cubic feet per day processing capacity.

Directors of Perry Gas Processors, Inc., include Charles R. Perry, president of Portable Treaters Inc., Odessa; Charles B. Perry, chairman of the board, First State Bank, Odessa; Kenneth W. Perry, vice president-chemicals, Cosden Oil and Chemical Co., Big Spring; and James R. Perry, president, First State Bank, Odessa.

Giant Bladder May Be Answer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A huge inflatable bladder, capable of holding 140,000 gallons of fluid, is being tested by the Coast Guard in a program that could reduce pollution damage from tanker disasters by salvaging oil.

Using collapsible rubber-coated bladders—made of Uniroyal of Mishawaka, Ind.—pumps, helicopters, cargo planes and tow boats, the system envisions flying to help a distressed tanker and recapturing its oil cargo before it is spilled into the sea.

A full-scale demonstration, including dropping the system in Chesapeake Bay along side an oil barge, filling the bladder and towing it away, is planned for early December, the Coast Guard said Thursday.

H-SU Boards To Convene On Nov. 21

ABILENE — Three Hardin-Simmons University Boards will convene Nov. 21 for annual fall meetings, with one of the chief items of discussion the school's 10-year program "Profile for Progress."

Alumni leadership will convene on the campus Nov. 22 for a workshop session.

Seven new trustees, who were elected at annual sessions of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, are expected as well as eight others who were re-elected and those with terms remaining.

The Board of Trustees, Board of Development and Board of Young Associates will hold a joint session to hear Dr. Elwin L. Skiles, president, outline the "Profile for Progress." Various groups, including students, faculty, staff, administration, alumni and other special friends of the school have had a part in planning for the university for the next 10 years.

Named to three-year terms on the H-SU board were Charles C. Brinkley, president and chairman of the board of the Northeast National Bank of Fort Worth; Mrs. James A. Cassie Jr., a H-SU graduate and wife of a former president of the H-SU Alumni Association; Leldon Clifton of Hamlin, vice president of the Farmers and Merchants National Bank of Hamlin.

Others named to three-year terms on the H-SU board with the convention's approval of a charter to expand the board were Mrs. Lowell Littleton (the former Lucille Hardberger) of Ozona, a graduate of H-SU and owner of an insurance agency; Jack R. Taylor of the Castle Hills Baptist Church of San Antonio.

Named to a two-year term on the H-SU board was the Rev. Paul Edward Powell, pastor of Olney's First Baptist Church, while the Rev. Dan B. Cameron of Pampa's First Baptist

Hereford Sale Set For Friday

The Howard County-South Plains Hereford Association will stage its 25th annual auction here Friday with an exceptionally fine offering from nine breeders in the area.

As in former years, Walter Britten, College Station, will be the auctioneer, and among those assisting will be Grady Elder, representing the Texas Hereford Association.

The sale will start promptly at 1 p.m. in the Howard County Fair Barns and the 59 lots will include 48 bulls and 11 heifers. Virtually all the animals were calved in the forepart of 1968; a few were calved in late 1967.

Several of the more famous strains in Herefordom are included in the offerings, which were accepted during a selection tour in the late summer.

Buchanan Herefords, Big Spring, has consigned 13 bulls and 11 heifers. Box Cox, Tarzan, has one bull; Charles W. Creighton, Big Spring, and Roy Henderson, Big Spring, six bulls each; Ronnie Hirt, Garden City, two; P. E. Little, Knott, four; Patterson Brothers, Big

Trustees Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Howard County Junior College board of trustees is set for Tuesday noon at the parlor of the Dora Roberts Student Union Building. Only routine business is on the agenda, said Dr. W. A. Hunt, college president.

Church was selected for a one-year term.

Re-named to three-year terms of the H-SU board were Dr. Stanton J. Barron, Mrs. Lucy H. Beckham, Mrs. H. A. Pender, all of Abilene; Dr. H. A. Gustavus of Santa Anna; Barney H. Hubbs of Pecos, Fred M. Lange of Dallas, the Rev. Rufus B. Spraberry of Mineral Wells and Robert W. Whipkey of Big Spring.

Students Win Pension Fight

MOORHEAD, Minn. (AP) — Students at the campus high school at Moorhead State College have won a battle with the State of Minnesota.

For the past two weeks, about 80 students have protested the mandatory retirement of school janitor Nels Stallberg without a pension.

Stallberg was required to retire upon reaching his 70th birthday, 30 days short of the 10 years service necessary to qualify for a pension.

After the students wrote to state government leaders and held a public demonstration, Rep. Douglas Sillers of Moorhead told them the state had decided to give Stallberg a different type of job so he would be assured of finishing his last month of work and get a pension.

Introducing: The Golden Apple!

a revolutionary new plan for assured savings and confident living

Is there a secret to being a successful saver? One thing is for certain; successful savers save with a purpose by saving on a plan. They set a savings goal, with sheer determination their main assurance that this goal will be reached. But even the most determined progress can be halted by an unpleasant possibility; death. Until now, the untimely death of a saver cut short his savings goal and left unfulfilled the dreams that initiated his savings plan.

But now there's The Golden Apple Plan for assured savings! The Golden Apple Plan replaces uncertainty with confidence. It secures your savings goal whether or not you are here to complete it. Your reasons for saving will be realized. Your plans for confident living for your family are completed.

Come in today and ask about this revolutionary new savings plan that assures the completion of your savings program!

'THE CHARGE OF THE LIGHT BRIGADE' — Incredible blunder recreated in film classic opening Friday at the State Theatre.

Suicidal Charge Recreated In Epic Feature At State

The Charge of the Light Brigade was Tony Richardson's most challenging film project since his multiple Academy Award winning "Tom Jones." For not only did he have to recreate the famed charge, but also the social and political milieu that made possible the incredible blunder at Balaklava.

In color and Panavision, the film opens Friday at the State Theatre. Trevor Howard, Vanessa Redgrave, John Gielgud, Harry Andrews, Jill Bennett, and David Hemmings star in the presentation.

Ballroom scenes and other interiors were filmed in London, but logistics for the military maneuvers called for locations difficult to simulate — especially the climactic "Valley of Death" scenes. Actually, two valleys were required: twin traps which caused the confusion and consequent charge immortalized in Tennyson's lyric poem.

However, it was not terrain as much as Turkey which induced Richardson to go there — for when he learned that the Turkish cavalry was the best trained and largest in the world he determined that this was more important than the "set" and resolved to rebuild whatever countryside he found to approximate history.

This turned out to be quite a chore. Although only 350 miles from the actual site of the battle fought a hundred years ago, the land is today heavily farmed, and the main site was finally found in the province of Angolia, where a swamp was drained to form the salient secondary valley.

A high rise, well above both panoramic view audiences will have of both valleys, of the enemy and of the suicidal charge of the "noble 600" into the "jaws of death."

Gunfighter Film Due On Ritz Screen

Despite the oceans of printing ink and miles of celluloid used up to prove the contrary, that uniquely American character, the western gun fighter of the 1890's, was not a man of violence, a psychotic killer who gloried in gore, and a man who lived only by the law of the six-gun.

He was rather, strictly a product of his time and place, both of which in the 1890's were "wild and woolly," comprising a primitive frontier social order where it often became possible to remain alive only by firing first.

So, at least, it has long been the opinion of Producer Max Youngstein, himself a student of considerable standing of the old west, and whose case is made out in the serious if action-packed "Young Billy Young," at the Ritz Theatre on Friday in Color by DeLuxe.

Considered a consequential production, the new Talbot-Youngstein offering is based on the Will Henry novel "Who Rides with Wyatt" and was prepared for the screen by Burt Kennedy who also directed the film.

"Young Billy Young" is a typical action western in that it starts out with a gun fighter taking the trail to avenge the slaying of a bunkie in true western fashion, and it follows that fighter through some high adventures and vicissitudes, also in true western fashion. The difference however, becomes apparent in the final scenes where instead of the traditional "walk down" confrontation the surprising climax is achieved in a thoroughly logical and reasonable manner which many viewers will take home to ponder for a long time. This, it is claimed, lifts "Young Billy Young" out of the usual shoot-up western.

The story is played out by Robert Mitchum, Angie Dickinson and Robert Walker in the top roles with support from David Carradine, Jack Kelly and John Anderson. Lovely young Deana Martin makes her film debut in the work.

'Bandolero' Is Filmed In Texas

In the period immediately following the Civil War, many returning soldiers discovered their homes in ruins and the countryside in general devastation. Discouraged by these war-wrought changes and by the tremendous re-building task ahead, many ex-soldiers sought the easy way out and were enticed readily by the idea of seeking adventure in the West.

The urge of wanderlust, the excitement of forging new frontiers and the fortunes that could be amassed overnight from virgin, fertile lands acted like a magnet to the destitute veterans. They had nothing to lose and everything to gain by traveling to unexplored areas and molding new careers.

'PINOCCHIO' — Popular children's story told in color at Cinema Saturday and Sunday in matinee showings.

'Pinocchio' Plays For Two Matinees

The entertainment for everyone who was ever a child, "Pinocchio," is being presented at the kiddie matinee Saturday and Sunday at the Cinema Theatre. Many parents and non-parents are expected to be in the audience to relive their childhood with this story of the little wood doll who eventually became a real boy.

Collodi's treasured fable, embellished by Storybook Color and a new song, "A Boy Named Pinocchio," was made with an all-live cast aided and abetted by puppets under the supervision of the Prague Marionette Theatre.

Pinocchio is surrounded by all of the characters of the original story—Papa Geppetto, Stromboli, Arturo, Mirzilla the Fox, Eusebius the Cat, Euphrosina the Good Fairy and even the children-turned-donkey in the he-haw land of the wicked circus.

Producer-Director Ron Merk remained faithful to the Carlo Collodi story in filming this newest "Pinocchio."

Childhood Productions, foremost distributor of films for children, has by experience found that the children want to see motion pictures of the stories read to them by parents and that a variance in the telling leaves them disappointed.

"Pinocchio" is the story as they know it.

Today through Tuesday THE FIRST TIME, with Jacqueline Bisset and Wes Stern.

Starting Wednesday MEDIUM COOL, with Robert Foster and Verna Bloom. Saturday and Sunday Matinee PINOCCHIO, live cast and puppets.

Wexler, a well known cinematographer with an Academy Award for his work on "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf?" chose to base his film around the Chicago Democratic Convention of 1968. When he wrote his original screenplay, he couldn't have foreseen many events that were destined to take place before his cameras were ready to roll. He couldn't, for example, have known that President Johnson would pull out of the race, and he couldn't have foreseen the riots which shook the city during that summer.

Nevertheless, Wexler's screenplay was flexible and he managed to keep it up-to-date. Wexler and his crew did not have to pay for a permit to film in Chicago's streets as their unit was lightweight and mobile and did not block traffic. This did not prevent Wexler himself from being teargassed when a National Guardsman, taking him for a demonstrator, fired a canister at him. Remembering Minnesota, Wexler thought it was only talcum powder again, but suddenly was thrown to the ground by the gas while his cameraman photographed the entire incident. Demonstrators administered the best remedy: plain water.

In addition, police and National Guardsmen were unable to tell his actors from demonstrators and members of the company were arrested on more than one occasion. The National Guard, according to Wexler, acted restrained, but the police "pushed us around."

Wexler's film is not a documentary but a narrative account of two people of widely varying backgrounds who fall in love. The man is a newsreel cameraman for television and the girl is an Appalachian school teacher from West Virginia, now living in the ghetto section of Chicago with her young son.

"Medium Cool," which gets its name from a pun on Marshall McLuhan's "hot and cool media," stars Robert Forster, Verna Bloom, Peter Bonerz and Marianna Hill.

Checking Ancient Check Found In A Lock Box

Wonder if J. B. Dixon still has an account at the Bank of Trumann (Ark.)? Mrs. Bell Billings is about to find out by running Dixon's check through the banking channels. The catch, however, is that the check is dated May 14, 1921. Mrs. Billings, a sister of the late Roy Bell, to whom the check was issued originally, is just curious about it. Come to think of it, she's not sure there is still a Bank of Trumann.

The check, in the amount of $4.31, turned up in a roundabout way. C. James (Jim) Murphy, who had married the widow of Roy Bell, was going through some personal belongings after her death. In a lock box, among some coins and trinkets, he discovered the faded check, which for some reason had never been run through the bank. He turned it over to Mrs. Billings, who is depositing it just out of curiosity.

Big Spring Has 11 Officials At Meeting

Eleven Big Spring officials will be in San Antonio today to participate in the 57th annual conference of the Texas Municipal League, which continues through Tuesday.

Those going are Mayor Arnold Marshall, Mayor Pro-tem George Zachariah, Commissioners Jimmy Morehead, Garner McAdams and Walter Stroup, City Manager Larry Crow, Police Chief E. J. Banks, Assistant City Manager, Roy Anderson, City Attorney Herb Prouty, Public Works Director Ernest Lillard, and Finance Director Charles Smith.

More than 2,500 officials from across the state are expected to attend the conference, which will emphasize physical and social requirements, financing, operational developments, and inter-governmental coordination. Some 60 speakers, representing government, business, and education, will address the conclave.

Crow, Lillard and Banks will all be retiring from office during the conference. Crow has served this past year as president of the Texas City Managers Association, Lillard as president of the Texas Public Works Association, and Banks as president of the Texas Police Chiefs Association.

TML includes 15 regional organizations, each of which elects its own officers, holds two meetings a year, and selects one member for the TML board of directors. Information flows out from League headquarters to the regions, which are the focal points of its programs; and new problems and ideas come back to headquarters from the regions.

In addition to general sessions, the conference will hold a number of working sessions for each department. Crow said Big Spring would not have enough representatives to attend all the special sessions, and each official would go to those that interested him.

TML President Erik Jonsson, mayor of Dallas, will give the keynote address to the gathering at its opening session Monday morning, analyzing the status and prospects of Texas cities and TML.

Other speakers will include Gov. Preston Smith (new developments in the state's organization to help cities meet their problems); Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes (influence of local officials on municipal issues); and Speaker Gus Mutscher, (influence of local officials on the legislative process). Non-government speakers will include Roger Mudd, Washington, D.C., news correspondent; Dr. John A. Gronouski, former Postmaster General and U.S. Ambassador to Poland, now dean of the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs, University of Texas at Austin; Joe Frazier Brown, executive director, Criminal Justice Council, Austin; Judson F. Williams, former TML president and mayor of El Paso, now president of Uptrends, Inc., El Paso; and Mayor C. P. Waggoner and City Manager Cliff Johnson, both of Grand Prairie.

Mahon To Talk At Lamesa PO Dedication

LAMESA — George Mahon, U.S. 19th District representative, will give the main address today at the dedication of the new $275,000 post office building here.

Mayor Lloyd Cline will be master of ceremonies, while the color guard of Battery C, Third Battalion, 133 Artillery from the National Guard will raise the flag over the new building. Also attending the ceremony will be Mel Benesch, field representative for the U.S. Post Office Department.

Construction of the building, done by Null Construction Co. of Fort Worth, began in March of this year. The structure has 13,425 square feet of floor space and contains 918 boxes, besides modern equipment. Unlike the old post office building, which was constructed in 1938, the new one houses only the post office and other federal offices.

Ceremonies are due to begin at 2 p.m. The post office opened for business at its new location last Sunday.

Who Nose?

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — A drug company, looking for a new gimmick in a sales promotion campaign for a nasal decongestant, sent ear-nose-and-throat doctors a good quality handkerchief with the new product. One doctor wrote back to say the handkerchief was a great idea for a nasal decongestant and could help please have six more.
